A MESSAGE FROM OUR NEW GRAND PRESIDENT

WITH THE CLOSE OF ANOTHER CONVENTION, $\Pi B \Phi$ IS ENTERING UPON A NEW CYCLE OF ITS HISTORY, TWO YEARS WHICH SHOULD BE MARKED BY A FAR ADVANCE TOWARDS THE GOAL SO CLEARLY SET BY CONVENTION THOUGHT AND DISCUSSION—UNPARALLELED INTERNAL DEVELOPMENT. THE ORGANIZATION OF THE FRATERNITY IS SUCH THAT CONSTRUCTIVE SUPERVISION IS ASSURED BUT THAT IS NOT ENOUGH TO GUARANTEE PROGRESS, SINCE, ALTHOUGH THE OFFICERS OF A FRATERNITY MUST FORMULATE ITS POLICIES, THE CO-OPERATION OF CHAPTERS, ALUMNÆ CLUBS, AND INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS IS NECESSARY FOR THEIR SUCCESSFUL CARRYING-OUT. IN ITS PLANS FOR A CLOSER WORKING TOGETHER OF ALL EXECUTIVE BRANCHES OF THE FRATERNITY, $\Pi B \Phi$ HOPES TO BRING ABOUT A MORE GENERAL KNOWLEDGE OF FRATERNITY POLICIES AS THEY ARE IN THE MAKING, AND THUS TO MAKE INCREASINGLY POSSIBLE THE INTELLIGENT CO-OPERATION OF ITS MEMBERS. THIS PROGRAM CALLS FOR THE ACTIVE SUPPORT OF EVERY $\Pi B \Phi$: USE THE HELP AVAILABLE IN THE FRATERNITY, MAKE YOURSELVES WELL-INFORMED MEMBERS, AND WORK WITH YOUR OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES FOR THE ACHIEVEMENT OF YOUR OWN AIM AS EXPRESSED BY CONVENTION. UNPARALLELED DEVELOPMENT THROUGH UNPRECEDENTED CO-OPERATION—THIS IS THE IDEAL WHICH $\Pi B \Phi$ PLACES BEFORE YOU!

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN.

CONVENTION CHRONICLE

To the more than three hundred delegates, officers and visitors who attended the *Twenty-Fifth Biennial Convention, the odor of warm pine boughs will always bring back memories of the six days and nights at Charlevoix when the leaves on the trees hung as if painted; when the waters of Pine Lake mirrored the shores; and the distant thunder promising relief in rain remained ever distant. But in spite of the heat wave such as had not been experienced in that vicinity for fifty years, a splendid spirit prevailed. Everyone accepted the situation patiently and without complaint carried on the work of the first convention since the close of the World War.

The Grand Council reached Charlevoix for the annual meeting four days before the arrival of the "Π Φ Special" which pulled into the station on the morning of July 1, bringing a train full of Pi Phis from almost every state in the Union.

Eighty-five of the visitors who came through Chicago were entertained at luncheon on July 30, at the Chicago College Club by the Chicago Alumnae Club and spent the afternoon playing bridge, sight-seeing or shopping.

That same day, the Detroit Alumnae Club with headquarters at the Statler Hotel, entertained the convention Pi Phis at the Detroit Athletic Club. During the night the Pullmans from Detroit were attached to the "Special" so that almost everyone arrived at Charlevoix at the same time.

Upon reaching The Inn it was apparent that the management of the hotel, working under difficulty, was doing everything possible for our comfort. The men and women serving in the dining-rooms were especially efficient although working in the terrific heat.

* Constitutionally Pi Beta Phi still holds biennial conventions, although circumstances have three times made a three year interim necessary.

Dr. Matzke and Dr. Gordon, our health specialists, planned modified menus, prescribed diets, arranged to have beds moved out to the veranda, and were busy almost every second taking care of the welfare of their big $\Pi \Phi$ family.

WITH BALFOUR CUP

Lillian Freund, Convention Guide, working under overwhelming circumstances, was particularly assiduous in making the meeting a success.

But before proceeding with further details of convention you must know that the most wonderful experience of all was to have with us four of our Founders: Inez Smith-Soule and Fannie Whitenack-Libby who journeyed from Tacoma and Yakima, Washington, and the "Brownlee sisters," Clara Brownlee-Hutchinson and Emma Brownlee-Kilgore who came from Monmouth, Ill. Mrs. Hoyt, an I. C. and a sister of Mrs. Soule, was also present. This was the first convention to be attended by Mrs. Hutchinson since 1870.

The Founders were present at the sessions, sometimes giving advice and suggestions or expressing their pleasure at being able to be with us. They were also in attendance at spreads until the wee hours of the morning—but they were the first ones up in the morning, greeting us in the dining-room with cheery smiles for our day's work. Just to know these women and to be with them gave us lasting inspiration.

With the exception of the "Fire-side Conference" the official program was as follows:

After the business of the first day, the two hours devoted to "Stunts" were most refreshing. Vermont B and Pennsylvania F gave a clever skit telling How Columbus Discovered America. This was followed by Florida Alpha's portrayal of Way Down South in which good old negro dialect songs were prominent.

Every Maiden showing the temptations of a college girl, was an original pantomime by Illinois H. And quite in contrast to it was the funny, villain-hero-stair-climbing-couple Lighthouse affair of Missouri A—plus Miss Plank. Texas A with the strong-man juggling act and Louisiana Alpha's burlesque won much applause.

The girls from Indiana displayed originality and considerable work on their playlet: The Winning of the Arrow Maiden, in which The Arrow Girl song was a favorite. Next came the poems from Colorado B exceedingly well done and praiseworthy and which would be printed here if space permitted.

An unexpected and most popular stunt was that of California F who distributed hundreds of oranges shipped from Los Angeles, wrapped in papers bearing greetings from that chapter.

The concluding numbers were also from the far West. Iota Province gave a skit called The Modiste Shop which was made especially attractive with good costumes and clever songs. Last, but by no means least, California B described in verse her trip to Charlevoix in a home-made Ford.

The Settlement School program the next evening was made interesting with five-minute talks by the members of the fraternity who are best acquainted with the establishment and growth of the School. These talks were supplemented by human interest stories showing the progress which the people of Gatlinburg have made since the School was founded eleven years ago. The illustrated description of Little Pigeon given by Mr. O. M. Schantz was a logical close to the program. There was also a good display of basketry, weaving and handicraft from the School.

Following the evening session the various provinces held spreads at spots scattered from the veranda at The Inn to the beach. Those gatherings were the inspiration for singing and general relaxation.

Sunday morning was left open for rest and recreation during which the entire convention was entertained by the Charlevoix Commercial Club with an automobile ride which afforded an opportunity to see glimpses of the shores of Lake Michigan, Pine Lake and the very beautiful country surrounding Charlevoix.

The quiet Sunday afternoon hour devoted to a vesper and memorial service to the sisters in the wine and blue who have been taken by death from our ranks during the past three years was brought to a fitting climax when Evelyn Bishop sang The Slumber Boat by the late Jessie L. Gaynor.

Although numerous baseball, tennis and swimming contests had been planned by the Athletic Director, Gladys Dixon, Wisconsin A, the heat prevented everything except the water festival which was held on the afternoon of the fourth at the Chicago Club pier. Miss Dixon and Roberta C. Bowen, Alpha Province President, gave a demonstration of the Red Cross life-saving work which was followed by the swimming events. Florence Lovern, Illinois E, won first places in the fifty-yard dash and in form diving; Zelle Whitmarsh, Missouri A, took first in form swimming; Margaret Little, Illinois E, placed first in fifty-yards for speed; and Kappa Province with Grace Ziegenfuss, California B, Margueretta Wordman, California T, Dorothy Rogers, California T, and Marjory Franklin, Arizona A, won the relay race.

A popular place between sessions was the mezzanine floor of The Inn where the alumnae clubs and the official jeweler had attractive displays. Mr. Balfour presented to every fraternity member in attendance, a green-gold bar pin bearing the $\Pi B \Phi$ coat of arms, as a souvenir of the convention.

Motor trips on the lakes and an occasional early morning tramp in the woods were indulged in during extra hours or minutes. But most of the spare time was spent in the lobby of the hotel where talented members played or sang for our entertainment.

Speaking of singing—whenever we heard strains of a song which ended with: "But you can't go $\Pi B \Phi$ unless you're a peach!" we knew that Louisiana A was approaching. In addition to giving a midnight birthday spread and Mrs. Stewart's delightful reception at The Inn, that chapter captured the loving cup in the mileage contest.

EMILY MAVERICK MILLER
Our Convention Baby

Vieing in popularity with Louisiana A was Virginia A, the winner of the Balfour Memorial Cup awarded to the best all-around chapter. To select the most popular individuals in addition to our four Founders would be impossible, but the convention would not have been complete without Dr. May L. Keller, "President EM.-at Large"; Dr. Matzke who gave a wonderful paper on how to keep beautiful and whose personality radiated vitality; and the tiniest guest of all—our convention baby, Emily Maverick Miller, daughter of the Vice-president of Theta Province.

The crowded hours soon passed until suddenly we found ourselves falling into line for the grand march into the banquet hall. According to custom, the Grand Vice-president presided as toastmistress at the banquet and due to her originality, the $\Pi \Phi$ garden blossomed into lingering fragrance. The nosegays presented by each speaker made a bouquet—the rarest that our garden could supply. But the rarest of all was the rosemary for remembrance, contributed by our Founder, Mrs. Kilgore, who helped to plant the seeds in the $\Pi \Phi$ garden and who has watched them grow into maturity.

The roll call of chapters prefaced the toasts which were as follows:

The Pi Phi Garden...	Toastmistress, Anna Robinson-Nickerson, Massachusetts	A
Planting the Seeds.....	Emma Brownlee-Kilgore, Illinois	A
Cultivation.....	Sarah Pomeroy-Rugg, Massachusetts	A
The First Blossoms.....	Alice Wiedmer, Missouri	A
Wine Carnations.....	Dorothy Cunningham, Washington	B
Bursting Buds.....	Martha G. Trost, Indiana	A

The Garden at Its Best.....Anna Lytle Tannahill, Nebraska B
 Lingering Memories.....May Lansfield Keller, Maryland A

The program closed with the singing of the Loving Cup Song led by Eta Province while the cups were passed and loyalty to the wine and blue was pledged anew.

After the banquet came the closing feature of the happy session, the presentation at Convention Hall of the $\Pi \Phi$ pageant written by Laurel Cissna, Indiana Γ , and produced by members of Delta Province.

The " $\Pi \Phi$ Memory Book" was a lovely idea, recalling step by step the history of the fraternity as the leaves of the book were turned showing life-size portraits. The music written and played by Miss Cissna was especially effective.

Following the adjournment of convention, the newly elected Grand Council held a joint session with the retiring members while the delegates and guests departed either to spend delightful days at Camp Panhellenic, to join Mrs. Rugg's tour to Europe, or to return home—all carrying the message and inspiration of the days at Charlevoix.

OUR CONVENTION INITIATE

One of the most wonderful hours at convention was that spent in our model initiation and it was made all the more wonderful by such a splendid initiate. Because of her high ideals, culture and noble womanhood, Mary L. Matthews was invited to join Pi Beta Phi through special permission of the Grand Council.

MARY L. MATTHEWS

In Convention Hall with three hundred Pi Phis as witnesses, Miss Matthews became a member of Indiana Δ , being initiated by the Grand Council assisted by the local chapter.

Mary L. Matthews whose home is in Cambridge City, Indiana, graduated from the Minnesota School of Agriculture in 1900 and from the University of Minnesota in 1904. Two years later she became instructor in sewing at the Lafayette Industrial School and after three years there returned to the University of Minnesota for a year as instructor in domestic art. From 1910-12, she did extension work in home economics for Purdue University at Lafayette, Indiana, and in 1912 was elected Head of the Department of Home Economics at that university, which position she now holds.

Her membership in the following clubs and organizations shows the versatility, efficiency and broad vision of our convention initiate: member of council of American Home Economics Association, member of home economics council of Indiana State Teachers' Association, National Society of Vocational Education, League of Women Voters, president of the Lafayette Branch of the American Association of University Women, member of the executive committee of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, Lafayette chapter of Woman's Panhellenic Club, and a member of O N, home economics honorary fraternity.

In addition to her busy life in the classroom and in club work, Miss Matthews has written a book entitled "Elementary Home Economics" which is being used in the schools of many states as a textbook. At present she is writing two other books on home economics subjects.

Those who were privileged to meet Miss Matthews at Charlevoix with her poise, her charming manner, and her eyes and face alight with happiness, felt that she would bring great honor to Pi Beta Phi.

THE CONVENTION DAILY BULLETIN

The Convention Daily issued each morning of the session was in reality a cardboard bulletin. A Corona, gummed labels, drawing ink and paste were substitutes for the printer's press and under the direction of the Assistant ARROW Editor, fifteen volunteer "cubs" reported the daily happenings. Mr. Orpheus Schantz, a $\Pi \Phi$ husband, contributed numerous drawings which added to the attractiveness of the sheet.

The artists' efforts which appeared at various times were: "What a Man Sees of Convention," "LOST—One Suit Case," "Near East," "Listening for Convention Notes," "Sophie P. Woodman Riding Muleback Through Glacier National Park," "California to Charlevoix—Some Stunt," "The Albania," "The Balfour Memorial Cup," and silhouettes of "Pres. E.M.-at Large," "The Bobbed Head," and "Louisiana A on a Chicago Bus."

In addition to the regular reviews of events at Convention Hall, society items, jokes and jingles were features of the Bulletin—oh, yes—there were also many false weather reports!

VALUES

AN ABSTRACT OF THE ADDRESS BY KATE B. MILLER, Iowa B

(The Sunday afternoon vesper service was an ideal time for the talk on "Values" by Kate B. Miller of the Extension department of Columbia University. Through her years of service to the fraternity, Miss Miller has become known to every chapter and many alumnae clubs, having been an active worker in the Des Moines Alumnae Club, Chicago Alumnae Club and the New York Alumnae Club. As the author of the Pi Beta Phi pageant presented at the Evanston, Illinois, convention Miss Miller proved her literary skill and her intimate knowledge of the fraternity. As a member of the Settlement School Committee, she has worked as devotedly as when president of Epsilon Province. With a degree from Chicago University, Kate Miller held the position of assistant professor of English and Education for many years at Lewis Institute, Chicago. To her came the opportunity for overseas welfare service with the A. E. F. in France, Luxemburg and Germany. Who then could be better qualified to speak upon "Values?"—EDITOR.)

It is a very great pleasure for me to talk and think with you for a short time at this quiet afternoon meeting before we begin the important work of next week. It is good to think of what things are of most value in order to be guided aright in making decisions as we plan our work for next year. We can thus arrive, perhaps, at some idea of principles that should guide us as a fraternity and as individuals in carrying on the work, and especially in living, in just living up to the vows we have all taken as wearers of the winged arrow. We need the inspiration at this hour of such a woman as Miss Honsinger, whom we had hoped to have here today. She is one who has lived close to the realities of life and has had the spiritual vision to "see into the heart of things." For it is not the apparent or the surface aspect of things that gives the true measure of worth. We never have found a truer proverb than the time-honored "All is not gold that glitters."

We have, then, to decide what things are of permanent good to the whole fraternity and what will help us as individuals to translate into character the ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$. Never was there a time when organizations and individuals more needed concrete interpretation of general truths. The ideals of our Founders, that I call the truths of our fraternity, are unchanged, but there is no gainsaying the fact that the college girl today, as she tries to realize those ideals, has many, many specific problems facing her that were undreamt of fifty years ago. Our Founders solved their problems in such a way as to give us a heritage of beautiful, noble characters. Shall we not resolve here today to do the same for those who come after us?

In the stress of war it was not difficult for most of us to select the right things and to place values justly. But when issues are not, morally, so clearly defined, we often find ourselves hesitant, and then inclined to follow the path of least resistance, usually the one that our pleasures dictate, without stopping to think. It is the obligation to think, to think scientifically, that our fraternity creed and our college education impose upon us. If this education is meeting its obligation, it is teaching us how to do that. You will remember Dewey's steps in the process of scientific thinking given in his invaluable little book, How To Think. The final step, he says, in reaching a conclusion is that of judging or of evaluating the worth of the various items in the array of facts one has gathered. The success of the conclusion depends finally upon one's power to determine values.

It is in just this matter of judging values that we need all the vision and inspiration we can get. If we can but see the difference between the paste and the real, the transitory pleasing and the permanently satisfying! I have the faith in all wearers of the wine and the blue to believe that they will choose rightly. What gives value? We can find definitions of the word value, by which we learn that it is the property of a thing which makes it useful and important. It is helpful also to know that it is cognate with valor and valiant. Things are often useful and important, though, according to circumstances. One man had the right sense of values when he volunteered for service overseas; another, when he stayed at home. Life itself, mere physical living, is held of priceless value, but the war taught us that life can be of less significance than right. To the college student, learning how to solve problems rightly and righteously, some one has said, is of more value than merely getting the right answers, but in the business world, correct answers count for success. Here it is a matter of emphasis; the methods and the results and not antagonistic goals.

In addition to this sort of difference, that of training and accomplishment, is another differing sense of values that we see constantly in those around us in college and in the world outside. One girl considers popularity the summum bonum of college life; another makes the Φ B \K key her goal. Neither ambition is to be decried, and yet one may achieve either of these desirable results and be unworthy of our ideals.

Two very striking instances of a differing sense of values is uppermost in my mind just now. Madame Marie Curie has been in our country for some weeks, receiving honors of all sorts. Ten colleges and universities conferred degrees upon her. President Harding presented her with the gram of radium that the women of the United States, the college women, particularly, had bought for her. This small, modest, cultivated Polish-French woman is honored the world over, and will be blessed by thousands yet unnumbered. What is the reason for this appreciation? She chose something of value. She chose to give herself to an arduous, dangerous research that should result in relieving suffering, to a service for others. She has suffered in health and has been handicapped by poverty. No one, however, today, or in the days to come will think that she had a mistaken sense of values. We do not have such unstinted commendation for our own sense of values, however, for we have given only a little over $100,000 for the contents of the small box whose key she wears so proudly.

Many times this sum was given recently to two boxers in Jersey City. Many, many times this sum changed hands in betting circles. It is true that the development of physical strength has a value, great value; amusement and entertainment have a rightful place in our lives; but will you say that there was no mistaken sense of values displayed by the two fighters and by the crowds of onlookers? The thrill, the excitement of the fight! A sportsman's proposition, some say. The thrill, the joy of discovery of a cure for one of the most dreadful diseases of the world! A sportsman's game, others say, to risk one's life in seeking to save others.

We cannot all, even if we would, become Madame Curies, but as college girls, we can choose among the various things before us those that make for the rounded womanhood so badly needed today.

Constantly we hear that we should prepare for service. I would not deny that. I would emphasize it, rather. But there is another goal for the college girl that I seldom hear mentioned, perhaps because the word has been so misused that to some it smacks of artificiality. It is, however, one of the finest words in the language when rightly understood and used. Matthew Arnold was not afraid of it and neither are some of our most scholarly men of today. Is there anything more important for college girls to seek, in order that they may give their fullest and richest service to others when they leave college, than their own personal culture? Take this word with you, think of its meaning, its implications; then I know that you will agree with me that it is in college particularly that the development must come of one's utmost capacities, refinement of one's thoughts and actions, and the assimilation of one's knowledge constituting culture. Make leisure for the quiet that this growth demands. It cannot be acquired at the rate of so many points a semester; it cannot be definitely assayed. It is as intangible as the fragrance of the flower or the beauty of the sunset, and it is no less real. The service, then, that you can give the world in response to its many demands upon you will be of much greater value if the actual deeds you perform are permeated by the beauty and grace that are the outward reflection of the inner culture.

THE COLLEGE WOMAN AS A CITIZEN

BY MAY WOOD-SIMONS, Ph.B., Illinois E, '94

(With the nation-wide discussion of citizenship since the granting of equal rights by Congress, the subject chosen by May Wood-Simons was in perfect keeping with the times. As the author of the Citizens' Handbook for Wisconsin and a lecturer on Americanization and Citizenship for the Extension Department of the University of Wisconsin, Mrs. Simons is thoroughly versed in her subject. After receiving degrees from Northwestern University and the University of Chicago, Mrs. Simons studied in France and Belgium and was also the winner of the Harris Prize in Economics. Later she lectured on the Chautauqua platform and did special lecture work at Hull House. While in charge of the employment of women and the educational work at Montgomery Ward's she became intimately acquainted with the problems which face women in the business world. This knowledge she applied as chairman of the Citizenship Committee of the Wisconsin League of Women Voters and in the Americanization work of the Milwaukee County Council of Defense.—EDITOR)

Citizen is a broad term. It includes in its meaning a person who is entitled, from his country, to protection at home and abroad. Emphasis has largely been laid, in the past, on those things that a citizen expects his country to do for him. The new tendency is to stress those things that a citizen should do for his country. These include paying taxes, holding office, serving on juries, voting at elections, in short serving intelligently in the affairs of the community.

The great movement in government for generations has been toward democracy. Within our own American democracy certain tendencies have been developing during the twentieth century that indicate the trend of the public mind.

First is the decided broadening of the purpose and functions of the state. The police power of the state has grown to include not only the protection of persons and property but the protection of morals and health, the sanitation of cities and the regulation of conditions under which people work. The laissez faire policy in government has given place to the firm conviction that a vigorous government is the best defense of liberty.

Still another tendency of government has been in extending the suffrage, first to include manhood, then naturalized aliens, and finally woman. This giving of the voting power to the largest number of responsible adults is furthering the principle of democracy.

Nothing is more marked in governmental fields than the growth of political parties into great institutions. These stand as the most powerful forces behind elections where the will of the people is being expressed. If the standards of political parties are low it reflects either the indifference or ignorance of the electorate. The measures and men upheld by political machines will rise no higher in quality than the people in the parties.

There has been a decided development away from the attitude that so widely prevailed in the nineteenth century that different departments of government, legislative, executive and judicial, acting as a check on each other, was the only way to secure the best results. Something is always learned by comparison. Canada and Australia are two well-governed democracies where no such checks exist. In our own country experiments are being tried in coördinating these departments. This is most marked in municipal governments. Commission and City Manager forms of government have not only drawn the legislative and executive powers closely together but have reduced greatly the number of elective offices.

Prominent among these tendencies is the whole attitude toward the relative importance of the structure, and the function and administration of government. While it is still conceded that the institutions of government are of great importance, the emphasis has decidedly changed and it is now the services rendered by government and the better administration of laws that receive first attention. Administrative boards and commissions to which experts, not politicians, are named are looked to as a step in the solution of the problem of efficient government.

In legislation a new factor has gained ground. The electorate has, in many cases, secured a veto power through the initiative and referendum. This veto power can become effective in aiding the expression of the will of the people only when intelligent study of governmental questions accompanies its use.

Never perhaps have the eyes of the public been so open and alert to corruption and intimidation in politics as they are today. This is noticeably true in connection with elections. It is felt that a fraud committed at the ballot box is "treason to democracy" and that corruption in the use of public funds can only take place when the electorate is less careful in watching public business than in watching its own private affairs or is too ignorant to know what should be expected from the use of its tax money.

These are but a few of the tendencies that mark political life today. The problems that the government is being called on to settle are numerous and difficult of solution.

One of the problems that looms large in political life is the government of cities. Mr. Bryce, after praising our institutions highly, points out that our failure as far as there has been any failure has been in municipal government. Our city government problem has been complicated by the fact that in many large cities from fifty to seventy-five per cent of the population is foreign born. Men, and now women, who have come from lands where democratic institutions are little known and the suffrage exercised only at infrequent intervals, to whom American ideals are unknown or vague, after a limited training in citizenship exercise the right of franchise. These men and women, during the years before they are admitted to citizenship should have a far greater contact with the best in American life and thought. Hopelessly a Greek once said to the speaker, "We have met plenty of politicians and bosses, surely there must be other Americans. Couldn't we meet some of them?"

The growth of cities has raised grave questions of housing, sanitation and moral well-being that will require the study and thought of the best minds for many years.

No problem today is larger in the minds of the American people than that of disarmament. What will be the attitude of our government on the question of war preparations? With a world chaos industrially and financially through the last great war this problem is pressing for a constructive, decisive solution.

Industrial problems have always been with us but they change their forms continuously. Much of the difficulty in this field is due to lack of understanding. The health of men and women engaged in industry, providing vocational education and guidance that will prevent the young from falling into blind alley jobs, the great mass of labor legislation that now forms the basis for entire courses in economics in our universities open unlimited fields for investigation.

Still other problems of grave importance are the conditions in rural communities drained of their best minds that have been drawn to the cities; education, that with our great efforts thus far has left us on an average little better than a sixth grade nation; and the race question, that having cost thousands of lives is still far from solution.

The American college woman has always been a citizen. She has not always been a voter. This new privilege of the franchise has quicken the thought of women along the line of governmental and sociological questions. This came at an opportune time as far as the tendency of college thought is concerned. Not so many years ago the professional school and the college as well made its greatest appeal to the student on the ground of personal aggrandizement. A new purpose is gripping our college women, especially since the opening of the war. Along with the desire to be ready to carry on a useful vocation has come the wish to be fitted to serve the community in some way. Opportunities for social service are being sought and preparation for that type of work is the aim of many college courses.

Public health work, the Childrens' Bureau, research work, many branches of the federal and local service are open to women. And when the college women enter these fields they will go, not as politicians, but as those who serve the public welfare.

The women privileged to secure a university training are but an exceedingly small percentage of the population of the country. It is their field to help set the standards of good government, to serve those less privileged in no spirit of patronage, but as those to whom much has been given and of whom much should be required.

SUMMER GATHERINGS OF PI PHIS

THE AFTER-CONVENTION HOUSE-PARTY AT CAMP PANHELLENIC

On an autumn day with brilliant sunshine and dark clouds running the gamut of color on the red-brown countryside it is difficult to feel or picture Charlevoix last July. The Hudson lies a ribbon of moulton silver glinted by the sun as it sets behind the Palisades and winter is whispering in the wind which draws up the valley; it is hard to give you the sensation of ninety degrees, a dead air, a glaring sun and innumerable articles of baggage grasped warmly to one's person. However, it was even thus that about forty survivors of a week at Charlevoix-the-Beautiful disposed of themselves in the bus at seven-thirty A. M. on July 6. After breakfast at the Beach Hotel, final good-byes were said at the dock and the trip was begun across Lake Michigan. Miss Dixon had arranged that the Goodrich boat, bound from Mackinac to Chicago, should stop for us at Beaver Island. Later, a heavy sea, stirred up by a thunder shower, rendered the joy of living problematical to several of our number, but no one seemed to mind the downpour. The auto ride to camp from the landing at Washington Harbor was merely a preparation for the great wood fire awaiting us up at the Lodge and the hearty hand-grasps from old friends and new. That evening when the rain had stopped, there was quite a scramble and some planning on the part of "Dick" and "Ruth" to provide for so many until the trunks could be brought over but everyone finally turned in, and it is unnecessary to add, slept well.

The next day began two weeks of rest and fun amid perfect surroundings. After tent inspection at which we were all much impressed and depressed, Dick said that each tent must have a name. We, May Keller, Pauline Turnbull, Adelaide Rothert, Nell Boyer and I, were in the last tent so we thought a poetic title would be "Land's End," to which, after the heat broke with a gale from the northwest, we made the appropriate addition of "Blow In."

The first week it was too hot to live—out of the water—but we were too tired to care. The energetic portion of the camp—everyone except the "Lounge Lizards" above mentioned—staged a very creditable minstrel show in the Town Hall which netted \$125 toward a Junior High School on Washington Island. Mr. "Bo" Anderson, mayor, was highly gratified and made a speech in which he expressed his admiration for the camp directors, camp and $\Pi B \Phi$ in general in terms quite satisfactory to "Buzz" and her company. The heat was too severe during the day to do much but read and look off at the water, sleep and eat, but in the evening there were the canoes and the sunset or the wood paths and twilight.

The second week much sleep, splendid meals, and a cool breeze made us feel like living and, when a local farmer called on the camp to save his cherry crop, there was nearly a unanimous response. After we picked cherries all morning, we washed at the pump and had sandwiches, cake and coffee in the shade of the farm-house. But as the farmer's wife observed, "Those poor girls aren't used to real work," and a swim was the only thing which revived us. Since the wages were only ten cents a "carrier" of eight quarts (some one managed to pick 48 quarts) our combined earnings were not great but we were happy to turn in $16.00 to the Settlement School.

The names of those Pi Phis whose fraternity pins ornamented the dining-room door drapery during the house-party are: Illinois Δ , Marion Gerth, Helen Furrer; Iowa B, Harriet Goodsell; Iowa Z, Martha Stewart; Kansas A, Leona Baumgartner; Kansas B, Ruth Siefkin, Hortense Caton; Louisiana A, Marjorie Kidd, Helen Diamond; Maryland A, May Keller; Missouri A, Alice Wiedmer, Willene Crewdson, Margaret Lohman; Missouri B, Alice Hager, Lucile Gardner, Sophie Dubuque, Kathleen Lucy; New York A, Pauline Turnbull; New York B, Sophie Woodman; Ohio Γ , Nell Boyer; Ontario A, Eardley Greene; Texas A, Katherine Risher; Virginia A, Mary Mabelle Richardson, Jimmie Patello, Adelaide Rothert; Wisconsin A, Gladys Dixon, Christine Brown; Wisconsin B, Gertrude Blazer.

To many of us sleeping in a tent was a new experience—as witness the wild screams when the rattlesnake, i. e. wood borer, got beneath the Missouri tent; it was a new sensation to feel the night wind and the first kiss of the sun as it rose behind Rock Island and turned the channel to gold; it was strange to hear the roar of the waves on the reef and to wonder just when the tent would blow down; it was lovely to lie on one's army cot and look at the moonlight on the water and in the woods; all these experiences we shall treasure through the long winter. If you do not know the joys of camp, find out next summer and if you want a beautiful spot, excellent meals, congenial company, real rest and fun, go to Camp Panhellenic.

SOPHIE P. WOODMAN.

THE HANOUM CAMPS

THE CREATION OF A $\Pi \Phi$

Did you motor to the White Mountains this summer? If you had crossed to the Vermont side of the Connecticut River about ten miles north of Hanover, N. H., and had climbed the long hill to the village of Thetford, you would have found some Pi Phis. For on Thetford Hill are the Hanoum Camps, presided over by Professor Charles H. Farnsworth, and Mrs. Farnsworth (Charlotte Joy Allen, Colorado A), known affectionately to campers as "Madama."

Hanoum, one of the earliest girls' camps, was started by the Farnsworths thirteen years ago, at the request of a group of girls in Horace Mann School. It has grown to include two separate camps, a flourishing farm, and an Inn for parents and friends. The Hill Camp, for little girls, is the original camp; the Lake Camp, for older girls, with the College Club, is beside lovely Abenaki ("Lake of the Early Dawn"). The Inn is a quaint old building midway in the beautiful elm-shaded village street.

Helen MacDonald and Regina Murnane, New York B, spent most of August at the Hanoum Inn. Lucy Huber, Michigan B, was a counselor in the hand-craft department, and directed many artistic campers at the looms. Isabel Totten, New York B, had charge of the horseback riding at the Hill Camp, and of some dancing in the little out-of-door pageant given at the close of the season. Hanoum was the hostess camp for Intercamp Day this year; and many arrows were seen in Thetford that day. Each summer the fifteen camps comprising the Upper Connecticut Valley Association of Girls' Camps meet in friendly competition to do the things they learn and love to do. Thetford, with its rolling hills, its magnificent outlook up and down the valley, the hospitality of the charming village, proved an ideal setting. The gala day brought some 2,000 guests to the village street and camp trails. The Hanoum marshalls and guides, in their distinctive khaki and scarlet, piloted the visitors about to the various events and exhibits, with no confusion.

Camp provides a very wholesome and absorbing life for nine weeks, for both girls and counselors. The campers not only learn to swim and ride, to hike and cook in the open, to be at home with nature, but they learn to work and play and sing together. And besides the happy memories of good times, one feels that even the smallest child must take with her from Hanoum something of the spirit of the directors—alert and full of fun, gracious and kindly.

ISABEL TOTTEN.

OUR NEW GRAND COUNCIL

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN, GRAND PRESIDENT

"Fame comes only when deserved, and then is as inevitable as destiny, for it is destiny."

Longfellow—Hyperion.

Although the inevitable "fame" of Amy Burnham Onken in $\Pi B \Phi$ has reached its topmost pinnacle in her recent election to the highest office in the fraternity, the immeasurable service which she has rendered to her beloved fraternity throughout all Pi Phidom had its beginning on the day of her initiation into Illinois E.

Since that day she has given continual evidence of that type of interest in and devotion to $\Pi B \Phi$ that has tangibly expressed itself in service, not only to her own chapter but to scores of individual chapters to which she has proven a source of inspiration and helpfulness on trips of inspection and installation as a national officer. Consequently the name of Amy Burnham Onken is well known to every $\Pi \Phi$ chapter although she now serves us for the first time in her new capacity—that of Grand President.

As a girl she attended the public school in Chapin, Illinois, where she has always lived, and later attended the Jacksonville Female Academy from which she was graduated in 1904.

The following autumn she entered Northwestern University where she became a wearer of the arrow on October 15, 1904. Her willingness to serve, dependability, and capacity for leadership were promptly discovered by her fellow classmates, and she was constantly sought and elected to fill such important offices as class historian, member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, advertising manager of the college annual, etc.

AMY B. ONKEN
Grand President

An enumeration of her various college offices, however, is but a slight indication of the real service which she rendered to her Alma Mater by reason of her high ideals and strong character. As a student she was characterized by a remarkable capacity for friendship, an untiring energy, a conscientious devotion to duty, ready tact, an understanding sympathy and helpfulness—qualities that have rendered her career as a national officer so eminently successful.

Her travels over the country when installing new chapters, her frequent official visits to many chapters as Grand Secretary, and her attendance at national $\Pi B \Phi$ conventions have given many the privilege of meeting and knowing her.

She enters upon her new duties with the good wishes and enthusiastic support of her countless friends in the fraternity who rejoice with her in this great honor so justly given, and who pledge to her that loyalty and coöperation which she so richly deserves.

ANNA ROBINSON NICKERSON, Grand Vice-President

Anna Robinson Nickerson, re-elected Grand Vice-president, was initiated into Massachusetts A of Pi Beta Phi, at Boston University, November 3, 1899, and received her A.B. degree from that university in 1901.

Since her initiation, Mrs. Nickerson has constantly been on duty in the service of her fraternity. The roll of offices held is a long one, including the chapter presidency, three years as president of the Boston alumnae club, seven years as president of Alpha Province, three years, Alumnae Editor of THE ARROW, and for the past three years, Grand Vice-president of the fraternity.

While she has given generously of her time and talents to her fraternity, she has been equally active in literary and philanthropic organizations. She has been president of the Monday Club, an organization devoted to the support of philanthropy for working girls. Having completed her term as president of the Malden College Club she is now serving on its executive board. She has recently been elected president of Old and New the largest and leading woman's club of Malden and one of the leading clubs of Greater Boston.

In addition to her fraternity and club work, Mrs. Nickerson has done considerable work editing, and reviewing juvenile books.

In 1905, Anna Robinson married David Damon Nickerson, a Boston publisher, and their Malden home and their summer home on Quincy Bay are always open to Phi Phis from far and near.

With many and varied interests, home has always been the first consideration of Anna Nickerson and unselfish service has always been most freely given to her family, friends and fraternity.

The strength of a fraternity lies in a great measure with its alumnae organization and Pi Beta Phi will benefit greatly by Anna Robinson Nickerson's continuance in the difficult double office of Grand Vice-president and secretary for the alumnae.

LULU CLARK, GRAND SECRETARY

It is characteristic of Lulu Clark that when writing to one of her best friends, she did not mention the fact that she had been elected to the office of Grand Secretary. Her modesty makes it a joy for others to remind her of her abilities and prominence in all of her connections whether college, club or social contacts.

Lulu Helen Clark was born in Dayton, Ohio, April 5, 1896, and was graduated with high honors from the Dayton High School in 1914, entering Randolph-Macon College the same year. She was initiated into Virginia A in October, 1915, and always worked faithfully for the development of the chapter. She was sought by committees and elected to important offices including that of assistant business manager of the Helianthus, the yearbook, and that of an editor of the Sun Dial, college weekly, for two years. As president of her chapter during her senior year, she did much to make Virginia A the strong chapter which it is today. Excelling in scholarship, Lulu Clark was elected to Φ B K.

LULU CLARK

During the winter of 1918-19, Miss Clark visited various industrial centers throughout the country as a special agent of the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics in which capacity she assisted in the nation-wide survey of the cost of living in wage earner's families.

Since leaving college, Miss Clark has given a great deal of time to the fraternity, attending the 1918 convention and serving on the Committee on Fraternity Study and Examination for a year. Upon the resignation of Elsa Schlicht Connors as Beta Province President, she was appointed to that position and while serving in that capacity won the friendship of hundreds of active and alumnæ members of Π B Φ . Her executive ability, her realization of responsibility, her great capacity for work and her willingness to serve the fraternity will bring success to her as a member of the Grand Council.

ANNE STUART, GRAND TREASURER

Anne Stuart, for the fourth time elected Grand Treasurer, needs no introduction to Pi Beta Phis—active or alumnae. No one has a wider acquaintance in the fraternity or is a more universal favorite. She is the dean of national officers, having been actively engaged in national work since 1904. From 1904 to 1906 she served as President of Delta Province, and from 1906 to 1912, as President of Gamma Province. At the Evans-ton convention in 1912 she was elected to her present office, in which she has rendered outstanding service to the fraternity.

Miss Stuart is of New England ancestry but was reared in the West. She received her early education at Field Seminary, Oakland, California, and entered the University of Nebraska in 1894. She was initiated into Nebraska B, November 23, 1895, a few months after the installation of the chapter. In her junior year she decided to give up her regular college course in order to devote her time exclusively to the pursuit of her special interest, music. In 1899 she received the degree of Mus.B. from the University School of Music. After two years of graduate work she studied in Chicago under the noted pianist, Fanny Bloomfield Zeisler, and later spent some time in study abroad.

Miss Stuart not only possesses rare musical ability but also rare business ability. In financial management she has had valuable experience, having been carefully trained by her father who was one of the best known and most conservative bankers of the state of Nebraska. Her unusual ability has been demonstrated in her home city, Lincoln, where for four years she served as treasurer of the Y. W. C. A. and handled all the funds for its \$50,000 building, as well as in her national fraternity. For a number of years Miss Stuart was actively engaged in Sunday kindergarten and juvenile court work, but in recent years, with the increasing demands of the fraternity work, she has been forced to devote herself exclusively to it. She is active in the Lincoln Alumnae Club and keeps in close touch with the local chapter. The service which she and her sister, Melinda Berry Stuart, also a prominent alumna of Nebraska B, and treasurer of the $\Pi B \Phi$ Settlement School, render to the fraternity is inestimable.

A survey of Miss Stuart's annual reports for the nine years of her service gives evidence of her remarkable accomplishments with the finances of the fraternity. The sound financial status which, through her careful management and wise investments, she has given the fraternity, places it under a lasting debt of gratitude to her, as does her loyalty and unselfish devotion to its interests.

Pi Phis who see Anne Stuart in action at convention, keen, alert, prompt and business-like, carrying one of the heaviest loads, yet never losing her spirit of mirth and her delightful sense of humor, have an excellent opportunity to know the good fairy of the treasury as she really is.

AGNES WRIGHT SPRING, ARROW EDITOR

The new ARROW Editor was first introduced to $\Pi B \Phi$ in 1910 as a charter member of Wyoming A; in 1916 as the $\Pi B \Phi$ Fellow; in 1918 as a member of the Committee on Fraternity Study and Examination; and in 1919 as Assistant Editor of THE ARROW, having assisted Mrs. Rugg for four or five years with various departments.

Agnes Wright Spring was born January 5, 1894, at Delta, Colorado, and has lived in the West, entering the Laramie, Wyoming, public schools in the third grade when seven years old and graduating from the University of Wyoming with the degree of A.B. in the class of 1913. Immediately upon her graduation she accepted the position of assistant librarian in the summer school of the university, but in a few weeks was elected assistant to the State Librarian at Cheyenne, a position which she held until her appointment to the position of State Librarian in 1917. She resigned from that appointment in February, 1921, upon her marriage to Archer T. Spring, $K \Sigma$, a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, and a geologist for the Matador Petroleum Company with headquarters at Cheyenne.

During Mrs. Spring's four years at the University of Wyoming she held various class and fraternity offices, being editor-in-chief of both the Wyo, junior annual, and the Wyoming Student, the college

capacity for work, and an ever-increasing interest in $\Pi B \Phi$.

As the holder of the Fellowship in 1916-17, Mrs. Spring pursued graduate work in the School of Journalism of Columbia University, New York City. Upon her return to the State Library at Cheyenne after the year's leave of absence, she continued her literary work as an avocation, being editor of two departments in the Wyoming Stockman-Farmer and assisting on THE ARROW.

One of Mrs. Spring's favorite amusements is golf in which she won the Women's State Championship for Wyoming in 1920.

Having been self-supporting during her college years, and having had the experience as State Librarian, Mrs. Spring comes to her new work as ARROW Editor with business experience and training, with a great love of journalism, a

OTHER NATIONAL OFFICERS

SARAH EIKENBERRY SIGLER, HISTORIAN

Sarah Eikenberry Sigler, newly elected historian of $\Pi B \Phi$, has spent her life in Iowa. She was born in Chariton and received her early education there, being graduated from the high school in 1890. In the autumn of 1891 she entered Simpson College, Indianola, where she was initiated into Iowa B. She was a leader in her chapter and was active in college life, devoting particular attention to Y. W. C. A. and to the college literary societies.

SARA EIKENBERRY SIGLER

Corning, Iowa, a college classmate. For many years they have lived in Indianola. Their interest has always centered about Simpson College, of which Mr. Sigler is a member of the board of trustees, and their beautiful home is always open to college students. Mrs. Sigler has frequently served as chaperon for the Ladies' Glee Club, has a large Sunday School class of college girls, is a member of the advisory board of the college Y. W. C. A. and also serves as alumnae adviser for Iowa B. One of her chief services to the college has been the organization and working out of the "town mother" idea, by which the young women of Simpson have been brought into close touch with the women of the community. When Mrs. Sigler was president of the large Indianola Women's Club of about two hundred and fifty members, the question often arose, "What can the women of Indianola do for the college girls?" Mrs. Sigler thought deeply upon the matter and proposed that at the beginning of each semester each club woman have assigned to her by a committee from the club in conference with the dean, a college daughter, upon whom she would call in person and to whom she would extend the hospitality of her home, in this way affording the home touch and the home influence keenly missed by a girl away from her own home. The "town mother" custom is now one of the most distinctive and cherished traditions of Simpson and has been adopted by a number of other colleges in Iowa and even in distant states. Among Mrs. Sigler's "college daughters" have been a Burmese girl, now in Rangoon; a German girl, now a fine and useful woman; and a number of interesting American girls. Her present "daughter" is a little Japanese girl, now a senior, who came to her three years ago, from Tokyo. Mrs. Sigler's own daughter, Helen Elizabeth, attended Swarthmore and is a member of Pennsylvania A.

Mrs. Sigler and her daughter attended the Charlevoix convention of 1918 and had the distinction of being the only mother and daughter present. Mrs. Sigler became president of Zeta Province in 1918 and devoted to its chapters the same interest and sympathy which have endeared her to the girls of her own chapter and college. Her intimate knowledge of the fraternity and her deep interest in historical studies fit her particularly well for her important new office as historian of the Fraternity.

LILLIAN FREUND
Cataloguer

Lillian Freund needs no introduction to the three hundred Pi Phis who attended the convention at Charlevoix for her untiring work as Convention Guide won for her the admiration of everyone who met her.

She was born in Chicago, and has always lived there, attending the Chicago public grammar and high schools. When ready to enter college Miss Freund chose the University of Wisconsin in 1913 and in 1914, the first year of spring pledging at that institution, was initiated into Wisconsin A. In her chapter she was an enthusiastic wearer of the arrow and has carried that enthusiasm with her since leaving college. She attended the Berkeley Convention in 1915, the Charlevoix Convention in 1918 and was Guide for the Charlevoix Convention 1921.

In 1917 Miss Freund took special training in secretarial work supplemented by courses in filing systems which enabled her to serve as a Red Cross Volunteer Secretary in 1917-18. This experience and training makes her exceedingly efficient and fitted to assume the new and strenuous duties of the Cataloguer of $\Pi B \Phi$.

NINA HARRIS ALLEN, ALUMNÆ EDITOR

Nina Harris Allen, who continues her work as Alumnæ Editor of THE ARROW began her national work in $\Pi B \Phi$ in 1915 when she was

NINA HARRIS ALLEN
Alumnæ Editor

Chairman of the committee which managed the $\Pi \Phi$ special train to the California convention. At that time she was elected Grand Vice-president and had charge of the alumnæ work from 1915 to 1918. During those years she came into personal contact with many clubs and chapters through her extensive inspection work. Her personal contact with hundreds of Pi Beta Phi has been a splendid asset in her work as Alumnæ Editor which she commenced in 1918.

Mrs. Allen prepared for college in the Galesburg high school and in 1894 was initiated into Illinois B at Lombard College. Three years later she graduated from the college with highest honors. Later, after traveling extensively in this country and in Europe, she studied home economics and modern languages at the University of Nebraska where she acted as chaperon of Nebraska B. On November 8, 1913, she was married in the chapter house at Lincoln to Ford J. Allen of Chicago and has since made her home near the latter city.

Mrs. Allen holds the record among fraternity officers for attending installations, have conducted the ceremony for three chapters and assisted at five other installations.

Her services are of inestimable value to THE ARROW and especially to the new Editor.

TWO OTHER OFFICERS

At the recent convention it was voted to divide the work of the Cataloguer, and to delegate part of it to a Mailing List Clerk. Florence Clum Temple, Pennsylvania B, accepted the new appointment and has been devoting hours of concentrated effort to this huge task.

Mrs. Temple prepared for college at Peddie Institute, Hightstown, New Jersey, entering Bucknell University as a member of the class of 1912. She was initiated into $\Pi B \Phi$ on September 25, 1909 and was an enthusiastic worker during her entire college course carrying her interest in the fraternity into her alumnae work. Mrs. Temple received the A.B. degree in 1912 and on July 30, 1914, was married to Charles Emory Temple, a graduate of Syracuse University. They are now living at 1023 Woods Ave., Lancaster, Pa.

To the staff of THE ARROW, Mabel Scott Brown has been appointed as Chapter Letter Editor and is bringing journalistic experience and a keen interest in the development of $\Pi B \Phi$. Mrs. Brown was initiated into Maryland A in 1904 but the next year transferred to Columbia A and graduated in 1907 from George Washington University. In addition to the degree of A.B. received in 1907, Mrs. Brown also received her A.M. degree in 1914. During the year of 1917-18, she was president of the Washington, D. C., Alumnae Club and was sent to the 1918 Charlevoix convention as a delegate from that organization. Mrs. Brown was a member of one of the last groups of Red Cross women to sail for France immediately after the signing of the Armistice and saw service overseas for more than a year.

Mabel Scott was married to R. D. Brown, $\Sigma \Phi E$, George Washington University, on June 19, 1920, and they are now living at 1354 Singer Place, Wilkesburg, Pa.

THREE NEW CHAPTERS—THEIR INSTALLATIONS, HOMES AND HISTORIES

INSTALLATION OF MONTANA ALPHA

On September 29, 30 and October 1, Montana A chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$ was installed at the Montana State College at Bozeman, Montana. One thing which from the very outset gave assurance of the installation being a perfect one was the fact that our Grand President, Amy Onken, was to be the installing officer; and another splendid feature was the visit of Mrs. Beck, the Province President, who planned her chapter visit at that time.

Nine Pi Phis from cities other than Bozeman, in addition to the three Bozeman Pi Phis were present. The chapter-house was turned over to the visitors and the chapter members stayed in town homes.

On the afternoon of October 29, the pledging ceremony was held followed that evening by the reading and interpretation of the constitution by Mrs. Beck.

The next night came the initiation and banquet. The chapter-house was a splendid place for the initiation. To those members who had been separated from college and college friends for a long time, the initiation ceremony meant the renewal of bonds and dear memories which once made up a very great part of their lives and to those being initiated it meant the opening of a new world of unlimited possibilities.

A chapter which had been built on the tradition of many years of fraternity life could not have shown more $\Pi \Phi$ spirit and fellowship than did this new chapter at the initiation banquet. It was a bright promise for the future and seemed to give evidence that these girls who had just been initiated into the fraternity and had just assumed the responsibilities of being part of a great national organization were well developed and ready to give of their best to our fraternity.

The banquet room was a bower of brilliant fall leaves and the long tables were lit with wine and blue candles. Wine carnations and wine and silver blue ribbons were everywhere. During the entire banquet, flowers, chiefly wine carnations, were received as gifts from the other fraternities and from individuals in the city. Telegrams from practically every chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$ had arrived welcoming the entrance of $\Phi \Gamma$ into $\Pi B \Phi$. These telegrams, with other messages of congratulations were read by the toastmistress. After the banquet everyone sang $\Pi \Phi$ songs. The singing helped to increase the glow of satisfaction and good will which had been paramount all evening.

On Saturday, all of those who had been familiar with the traditions of the fraternity longer than the members of Montana A, gave a cooky-shine as a last introduction to the mysteries of $\Pi \Phi$. The crisp cookies, the many flowers, the fun and the genuine cooky-shine spirit will long remain in the memory of each one who participated.

The patronesses of the local, who are now the patronesses of Montana A proved their love and interest in the chapter by giving the installation reception. It was a beautifully appointed affair, held Saturday night at the Elks' Club. Members of the fraternities, the faculty, the college students and a great many towns people were invited and attended in large numbers, showing their sincere pleasure in the happiness of the new Pi Phis. After the reception many guests remained for dancing. To conclude the evening the chapter sang an original song which they have adopted as their own chapter song and also sang the Anthem.

Miss Onken left on Sunday, Mrs. Beck staying until Monday. The gratitude which the chapter feels for the inspiration brought by those two Pi Phis can never be expressed.

The coming of $\Pi B \Phi$ into Montana State College was of general interest on the campus. ΣX gave an informal reception for the group and the members of $A O \Pi$ gave a tea to the faculty and students of the college in honor of Montana A. $I \Delta$, a local fraternity, gave a lovely tea for the new Pi Phis.

All of the courtesies helped to create a feeling of interfraternity good will which goes so far to make fraternities an important and beneficial thing in college life.

SALLIE GILLESPIE.

Much of the success of the installation was due to the efforts of Lida Patterson, Illinois A, Mrs. Lovelace, Michigan B, and Sallie Gillespie, Louisiana A. The chapter also appreciated the assistance of Washington A and B and Wyoming A.—[THE EDITOR.]

HISTORY OF MONTANA STATE COLLEGE

By an act of the Third Legislative Assembly of Montana on February 16, 1893, the Agricultural College of the State of Montana was located at Bozeman. Shortly after the establishment of the college, the State Board of Education met at Bozeman to provide for a site for a campus, and to take steps toward the erection of buildings.

Instruction began September 15, 1893, classrooms being located in a nearby school building.

The growth of Montana State College since those early days of founding has been remarkable. Today the college has title to a tract of 3,920 acres of land, has experiment stations throughout the state, and promises soon to be placed on a par with the best educational universities of the West through a state appropriation of $1,000,000 for building purposes. Work is now being done on laying the foundations of the new buildings—a gymnasium, heating plants, a biology building and an engineering building, the latter of which will be ready for use in the fall of 1922.

During the year 1920-21, 1,050 students registered at Montana State College, a number which represents students from twenty-five states aside from Montana as well as seven foreign countries.

HISTORY OF PHI GAMMA

In the spring of 1912, eight four-year college women of high standing organized the Keseke Club of Montana State College. The word "Keseke" was the anglicized French phrase, qu'est-ce-que, meaning "What is it." Although fraternities were not allowed at Montana State College at that time, the club kept before its members, from the first, high fraternal standards of scholarship, coöperation, and a chivalrous spirit of intercourse with other students at Montana State College. It was not until May of 1916, when the consolidation of the state institutions of higher learning provided that Greek-letter fraternities be permitted at Montana State College, that the Keseke Club became publicly known as $\Phi \Gamma$ Fraternity. It was at this time that $\Phi \Gamma$ decided to work for a charter grant from $\Pi \beta \Phi$ Fraternity, as a representative of the highest type of womanhood to which any group of college women might aspire. The ideals of the local group never wavered, even in the dark days when success seemed impossible.

In 1916, $\Phi \Gamma$, pioneer in this field of endeavor at Montana State College, established a chapter-house for its out-of-town members and this it has maintained successfully up to the present time.

The organization ever maintained the highest standards of fair play and good sportsmanship in campaigns for membership against the other women's fraternities at Montana State College. And its success in obtaining members has proven the worth of such ideals.

The local group, from the time of organization, was always composed of young women who were leaders in activities at Montana State College. The scholarship of the group, however, was low, and it was given to understand that it could hope for no charter from $\Pi B \Phi$ until that weakness had been corrected. It was during the college year of 1920-21 that $\Phi \Gamma$ at last reached and maintained the "B" average which had been set before it. Preparations were immediately begun for petitioning for a charter grant from $\Pi B \Phi$ at the twenty-fifth biennial convention of that fraternity held at Charlevoix, Michigan, in July of 1921. The petition, presented by Sallie Gillespie, Louisiana A, and Mrs. S. C. Lovelace, Michigan B, met with success.

INSTALLATION OF NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA

Just try to imagine how thrilled you would be over your first installation and then you will know how I felt when I left for Grand Forks on the evening of October 5. Marjorie Bonney, Minnesota A, and Gertrude Patterson, Nebraska B, were on the same train.

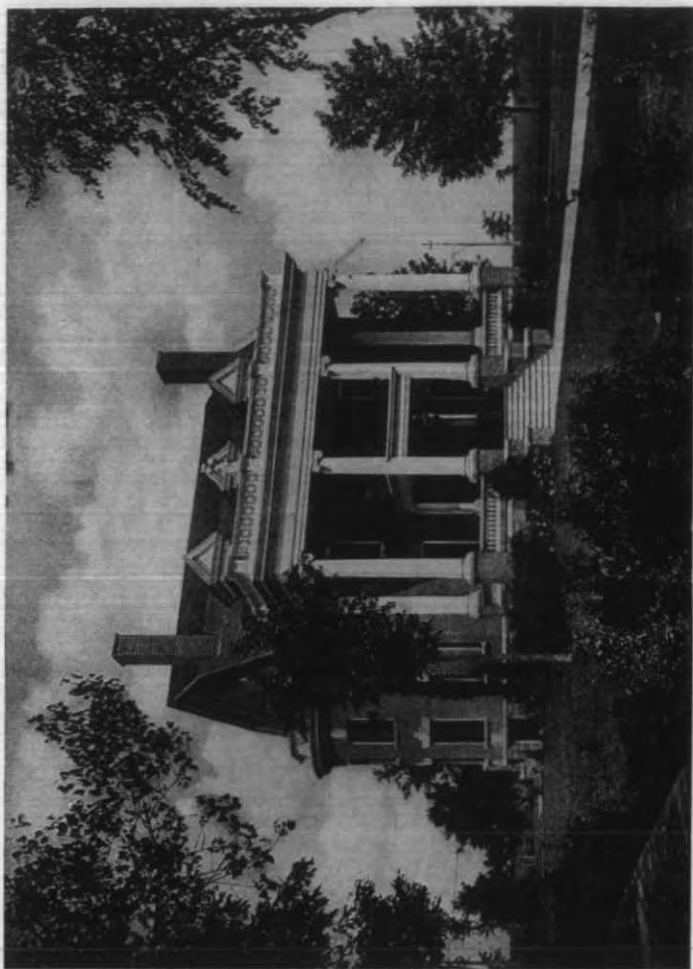

Mrs. Olmstead, a patroness, of the local group, turned her lovely home over to us and we found Miss Onken waiting for us there when we arrived Thursday morning. After removing the stains of travel and resting up a bit, we went out to the $\Psi \Omega \Psi$ house for lunch. There we met most of the girls and it certainly was a pleasure to see them again. They were so excited and happy I truly felt repaid for my work in presenting their petition at convention.

Thursday afternoon we pledged the charter members and nine alumnae. I know they wished that their colors and pledge pins were three times as large.

Thursday evening we sent the prospective initiates home and stayed up very late getting ready for the next day. Aillene Sullivan, Minnesota A, came up from Fargo that evening.

The next morning we initiated the charter members. Oh, how proud and happy they were! The enthusiasm of a brand new $\Pi \Phi$ certainly is an inspiration. Friday afternoon we initiated nine alumnae and also had the excitement of pledge day. Our girls pledged nine splendid freshmen but they cannot be initiated until next year on account of a university ruling.

Friday night the girls had their installation banquet and greetings were read from chapters all over the United States. What a wonderful thing it is to belong to an organization which is so large and yet so closely interested, each individual in the other.

PRESIDENT'S HOME, NORTH DAKOTA UNIVERSITY

At the banquet toasts were given by Miss Onken, Grand President; Olive Keller Laurence, Minnesota A; Marjorie Bonney also of Minnesota A; Gertrude Patterson, Nebraska B; and three of the new Pi Phis. Elsie Coon, Illinois Δ, acted as toastmistress. Those of us who attended the installation wish to extend to her our sincere thanks for taking charge of all local arrangements. I am sure that with the help of Miss Coon and Miss Brennan, North Dakota A will make a splendid start as a chapter.

Saturday morning the freshmen for last year and this year were pledged, followed by a cooky-shine at the home of Marion Wilder with the seven older Pi Phis as hostesses. The curiosity as to what a cooky-shine might be was manifest. And the girls pronounced it more than they had expected.

On Saturday afternoon we initiated last year's freshmen and held the formal reception to the university that night. Thus ended the installation of North Dakota A. May they find a world of happiness in forming a strong link in the chain of Π Β Φ.

OLIVE KELLER LAURENCE.

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

The University of North Dakota is located at Grand Forks, a city of more than 15,000 inhabitants, on the banks of the Red River of the North. The university was founded by an act of the Territorial Assembly passed February 23, 1883. By the terms of the Enabling Act, Congress granted the university 86,080 acres of public lands and the School of Mines, by law combined with the university, received 40,000 acres. The institution is supported by the state appropriations and land incomes, and is under the control of a Board of Administration appointed by the governor of the state.

Students were enrolled for the first time September 8, 1884. The first graduation was held in 1889. At the university are located the college of liberal arts, the school of education, the school of law, the college of engineering, and the school of medicine, all ranking with the highest. There are now about 530 women, and about 600 men of college rank on the campus. This is exclusive of the extension department and the university high school which increase the enrollment to nearly 1,700 students.

SCENE FROM PAGEANT "SHAKESPEARE THE PLAYMAKER" BANKSIDE THEATRE

MACNIE HALL, NORTH DAKOTA UNIVERSITY

The campus is divided into two unequal parts by the English Coulee, the banks of which offer a splendid location for Bankside Theater which is used in the presentation of out-door plays and pageants. There are fifteen buildings of major importance on the campus, all of them very finely equipped. Plans are now under way for a new law building.

The university is located one mile west of the city of Grand Forks, and is on the main line of the Great Northern Railway. Fifteen minute street car service is maintained between the city and the university. The situation is ideal in that it affords room for growth and development without isolation.

A HISTORY OF PSI OMEGA PSI

The organization of $\Psi \Omega \Psi$ was begun in 1916 when a petition sent to the university council was passed. There were ten charter members, most of whom had been chosen by Miss Ella L. Fulton, Dean of Women. They held their first formal meeting on February 24, 1917. During the first year meetings were held in a special room in one of the dormitories, but at the beginning of the second quarter, we were able to rent a house on the campus and have since maintained it, having furnished it from funds set aside for that purpose. A boarding department has since been established.

From the beginning the goal of $\Psi \Omega \Psi$ has been to obtain a charter of $\Pi \beta \Phi$, and this goal was reached when at the twenty-fifth national biennial convention our petition was granted.

THE INSTALLATION OF FLORIDA BETA

As soon as the installing officer for Florida β awoke on the second day of her journey to Florida in October it was evident that she was south of the Mason and Dixon line—cotton fields with their lines of negroes of all ages filling ample burlap bags with the snowy balls; fields of sugar-cane with here and there a "cane grinding"; everywhere the sweet singing of the mocking birds; forests of pine trees being "tapped" for turpentine; the soft, Southern, R-less accent of the fellow-passengers; and, finally, the magnificently picturesque live oak trees clothed in their long, flowing robes of gray, Spanish moss that came into view as we crossed the Georgia line and neared Tallahassee, the home of the Florida State Women's College.

It was a great pleasure to discover upon reaching Tallahassee that Bessie Dew and Marguerite Straw, formerly of Florida A, are this year students at F. S. W. C., and they proved invaluable assistants in making final plans for the ceremonies of October 13, 14, 15.

My one regret of the whole delightful experience was that so very few Pi Phis were privileged to enjoy the inspiration of such an occasion, the beauties of this unusual college campus, the true Southern hospitality of the faculty and student body, and the delightful friendships formed with these members of our youngest chapter.

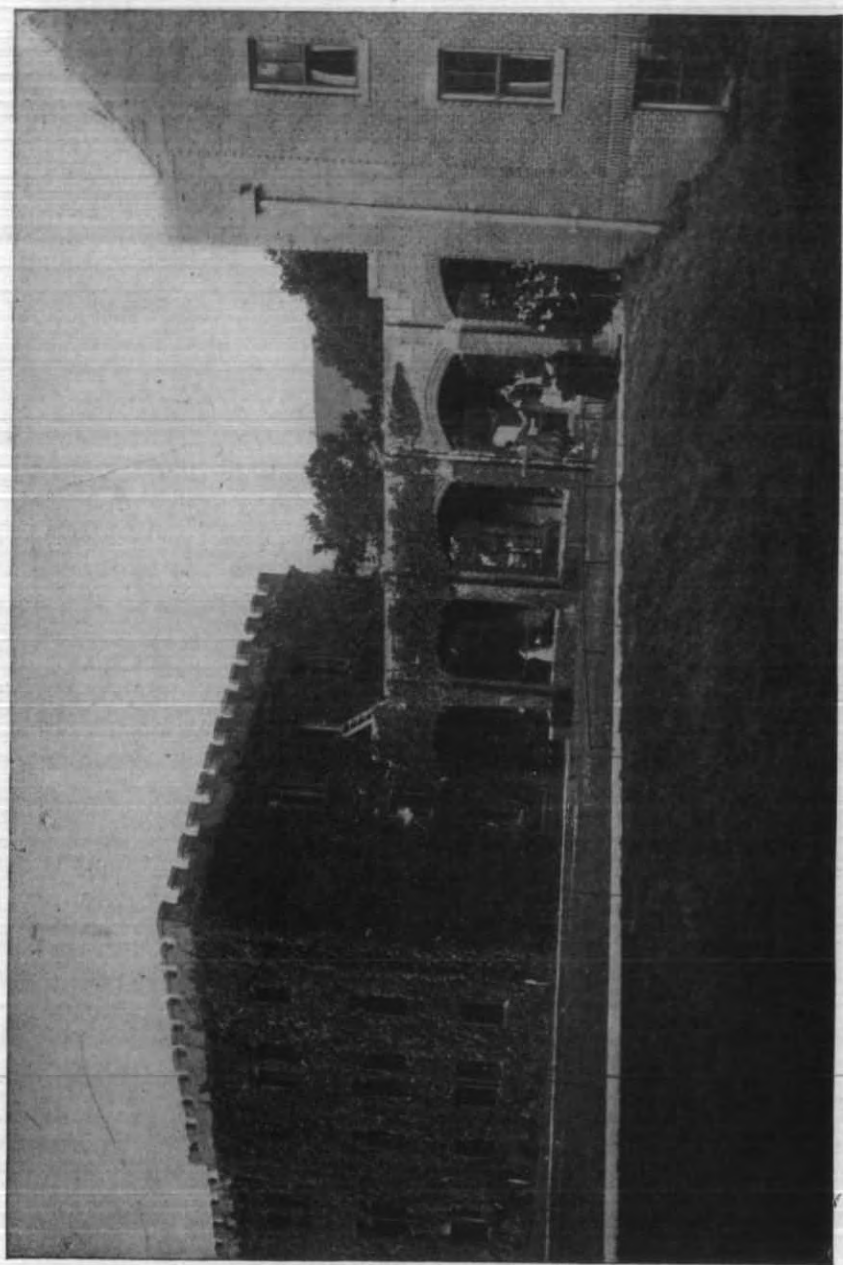

Would that more of you could have sat with us on the campus that last Sunday night under the full Florida moon—the stately, ivy-covered Tudor buildings, the bushes of bamboo, poinsettias, and palmettos of that semi-tropical climate standing out clearly in the brilliant moonlight, the faint tinkling of guitar and ukulele music floating out over the campus from the dormitory windows, the winding pinespread walks, and those magnificent live oak trees “bearded with moss and in garments green, indistinct in the twilight, standing like Druids of old, with voices sad and prophetic”—a veritable fairyland!

On Thursday afternoon Juanita Bass of Louisiana A, and Lady Lois Townsend, Jane Abbott, Edith Hart, Dorothy Douglas, and Emma Jane Rowe of Florida A arrived to assist in the installation ceremonies of that week-end. Immediately upon their arrival the ten active members and five alumnae of A Ω who were able to come back to Tallahassee at this time were formally pledged to membership in $\Pi B \Phi$ in the chapter room.

That evening on the attractive mezzanine balcony of one of the dormitories the college Panhellenic association, with the Dean of Women presiding over the tea table, entertained the visiting Pi Phis and the fifteen new $\Pi \Phi$ pledges at a delightfully informal tea.

Through the kind thoughtfulness of Miss Kimball, a K Δ member of the faculty, the Practice House, a model home, supervised and managed by the girls of the home economics department, was turned over to us in its entirety for the day of initiation, and it was here that fifteen of the charter members of the chapter were initiated, and that, as a chapter, Florida B of $\Pi B \Phi$ came into being and was formally installed as such late that afternoon.

After this formal installation ceremony, at the earnest request of the new initiates, Gladys Morris, the president of A Ω , (who, because of the fact that she was unable to be in college last year, did not sign the chapter petition and, consequently, was not a charter member of the new chapter) was initiated by the Grand Secretary assisted by the visiting Pi Phis.

As a consequence, sixteen radiantly happy wearers of the arrow attended the formal installation banquet at the Leon Hotel in Tallahassee that evening at which Frances Shelley of Daytona, Florida, one of the new initiates, proved a charming and able toastmistress. Countless telegrams of greeting from officers and active chapters were read, toasts were given by the visiting Pi Phis and several of the members of the new chapter, and all of the songs dear to $\Pi \Phi$ hearts were sung and re-sung.

On Saturday afternoon from four until six the chapter was at home to their college and town friends at a delightful reception likewise held in the Practice House. The rooms were artistically decorated with a profusion of flowers; the visiting Pi Phis formed a receiving line in the large reception hall; and the chapter patronesses presided over the tea table. Several members of the musical faculty added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion with beautiful vocal and violin numbers throughout the afternoon.

That evening five attractive $A \Omega$ pledges were formally pledged to $\Pi B \Phi$ following which the visiting Pi Phis entertained their new sisters and pledges at a good, old-fashioned cooky-shine. In addition to "eats" galore and many songs we discovered many latent talents among our new initiates, and were loath to see the time come for the departure of the Stetson Pi Phis on the night sleeper.

Throughout our visit the hospitality, courtesy and thoughtfulness of the other fraternities on the campus were ever apparent, and candy and flowers in profusion gave tangible evidence of their splendid spirit and good will.

The last afternoon of my stay in Tallahassee was devoted to the first formal chapter meeting of Florida B , the election of officers, the interpretation of fraternity membership, explanations and final instructions. That evening as a climax, one of the newly-initiated alumnae, Frances Shelley, cleverly announced her engagement and approaching marriage.

Surely the advent of this our youngest chapter was under the most auspicious of circumstances, and those of us who were so privileged as to be present for the memorable occasion can assure our other sixty-four chapters that Florida B chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$ is one of which any $\Pi \Phi$ may be proud, and one that promises great things for the future for our beloved fraternity.

LULU HELEN CLARK.

HISTORY OF FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

The Florida State College for Women really dates from 1905 although from 1857 until that time it was a State Coeducational School. The two colleges, the University of Florida in Gainesville and the Florida State College for Women in Tallahassee were established by an act of Legislature, generally known as the Buckman Bill, approved June 5, 1905, and are maintained on exactly the same bases. They are both under the same Board of Control and have the same entrance requirements and curricula.

The growing attendance gives evidence of its growing usefulness. In the year 1905-06 there were 204 in the student body and in 1920-21 there were 662. In summer school of that year there were 469.

The college grounds of 270 acres, valued at $100,000, comprise the campus proper and the college farm. On the campus are fifteen buildings all of Tudor architecture, valued at more than $945,000, including equipment. These buildings include the administration building, the educational building, four dormitories, a hospital, a training school, dining-hall, and a gymnasium. The dormitories, dining-hall, and hospital are all connected by covered arcades. The 1921 legislature appropriated $800,000 to be used for new buildings including a dormitory and science hall.

$\Pi B \Phi$ makes the seventh national literary fraternity, the others being: $K \Delta$ (1904), $X \Omega$ (1908), $A \Delta \Pi$ (1909), $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ (1916), ΣK (1920), $\Sigma \Sigma \Sigma$ (1920). Besides these there are two honorary fraternities— $A X A$ (1921), and $\Sigma \Delta \Pi$ (1921).

HISTORY OF ALPHA OMEGA

$A \Omega$ was organized in 1913 as a club of girls who held as their goal the attainment of a national fraternity which would not only benefit them, but would mean a great deal to the college and local Panhellenic as well.

In 1915 we were accepted as a local fraternity by college Panhellenic and began work in earnest to raise our standards and scholarship to the very best.

In 1917 we began communications with $\Pi B \Phi$ and after a year of development in internal organization, received word that we were to have our first official visit from that fraternity. We were all thrilled to know that our visitors were Mrs. Sarah Pomeroy-Rugg, at that time Editor of the ARROW, and Miss Pauline Turnbull, President of Gamma Province. We greatly enjoyed their visit, and although at that time we did not receive much encouragement, we felt that we were spurred on anew to work for $\Pi B \Phi$.

For nearly three years $A \Omega$ continued to strive for this goal, competing with five national fraternities, coöperating with them in the movements for good on our campus, and advancing in scholarship, along with the raising of scholastic standards of the college. Not until April, 1921, did Mrs. Nickerson, representing the Grand Council of $\Pi B \Phi$, visit our chapter. After thoroughly investigating college conditions and standards, our standing among fraternity groups on the campus, as well as our organization individually she sent permission for us to formally petition $\Pi B \Phi$ in May.

A short time after Mrs. Nickerson's visit, Frances Evens from Louisiana A came to inspect us. She seemed most enthusiastic about the group and because of this enthusiasm and interest, $A \Omega$ asked her to sponsor our cause at convention.

With a great deal of concentrated effort and all the interest and "pep" possible we prepared our petition for presentation at the national biennial convention at Charlevoix this year.

It was not until the middle of the summer that the wonderful word was received that $\Pi B \Phi$ had voted to grant us a charter and our joy was unbounded. At the opening of this college year we worked untiringly in preparation for our fraternity examination and pledged five splendid freshmen.

Four weeks after college opened, our Grand Secretary, Miss Lulu Helen Clark, came as our installing officer. There were also five guests from Florida A , one from Louisiana A , and two Pi Beta Phi's formerly of Florida A who are now students at Florida State College for Women, to assist in the installation ceremonies.

It has indeed been the happiest time of our lives, and it is our sincere hope that we, the youngest chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$, may ever prove worthy of the trust which the fraternity has placed in us.

OUR GRADUATE FELLOW, 1921-22

Frances Elma Gillespie, Columbia A, who holds the $\Pi B \Phi$ Fellowship for 1921-22, has two $\Pi \Phi$ sisters: Mary, who became a member of Texas A in 1911; and Sallie, who joined Louisiana A in 1920.

FRANCES ELMA GILLESPIE

The latter will be remembered by those who attended the last convention as an enthusiastic endorser of $\Phi \Gamma$, now Montana A.

Frances Elma Gillespie was born in Monsfield, Texas, on November 25, 1885, and soon after that moved with her parents to Fort Worth, Texas, where her home has since remained.

After completing the grammar grades, Miss Gillespie attended what was then Fort Worth University, a small Methodist college, later moved to Guthrie, Oklahoma. At that university she finished her preparatory and two years of college study. Her father was then elected to the United States Congress and the family moved to Washington, D. C., to live during his term of office.

In 1903, Miss Gillespie entered George Washington University and was initiated into Columbia A. Three years later she received the degree of A.B. and continued to live in Washington until 1910 when her father withdrew from Congress. During those years she was a member of the Alumnae Club and kept in close touch with fraternity affairs.

Two years after the Gillespie family had returned to Fort Worth to live, Frances began to teach history in the Fort Worth High School and in 1916 went to the University of Chicago for a summer of advanced study.

At once she became so interested in graduate research work that she determined to go rather deeply into it and accordingly returned to Chicago in 1917. Soon she won a graduate fellowship in history which was awarded by the university and returned for a continuous year's work at the end of which time she received the degree of A.M.

In the spring of 1919 she was elected as an assistant to teach one class in the university and held the same position during 1919-20. The following year she was made an associate in history with full teaching work, which is the lowest teaching rank. But the university quickly realized Miss Gillespie's ability and efficiency and appointed her an instructor in history for two years, 1921-23, with one year's leave of absence, which is the next highest rank in the University of Chicago. As soon as her research work has been completed and her thesis submitted, Miss Gillespie will receive the degree of Ph.D.

By combining the $\Pi B \Phi$ Fellowship with a fellowship granted by the University of Chicago, Miss Gillespie has been enabled to go to England for nine months' study and investigation into the political history of the English working classes in the latter half of the nineteenth century.

THE PI BETA PHI FELLOWSHIP FOR GRADUATE STUDY

For the year 1922-23, $\Pi B \Phi$ will offer one graduate fellowship with a value of \$500.00. This fellowship is open to any member of the fraternity who has received her Bachelor's degree, and may be used at any university, either in this country or in Europe, which offers the best advantages in graduate work along the particular line desired by its holder.

Two points will be considered by the Grand Council in awarding the fellowship: first, scholastic standing; and second, all-round development of character and ability to represent the fraternity. Each applicant must state definitely the university which she wishes to enter, the courses which she desires to pursue, and the ultimate aim of her graduate study. Applications, accompanied by photographs of the applicants, credentials from college professors, and other recommendations should be in the hands of the Grand President not later than March 1, 1922.

Blank forms for application for the fellowship may be obtained from the Grand President. If she so desires, any applicant of former years who has not received the fellowship may make a new application.

All applications for undergraduate loans should be made to the committee in charge of the Loan Fund. Information as to conditions, credentials, and terms of loans may be obtained from the chairman of the Committee on Loan Fund, Mrs. Thomas Bradlee, 64 North Prospect St., Burlington, Vt.

REPORT OF PANHELLENIC DELEGATE

On October 26, the National Panhellenic Congress convened at the Hotel Claypool in Indianapolis. The first meeting was largely given over to reports of delegates and officers and regular routine business. A number of new faces were seen about the table and a few old friends were missing.

The most striking feature of the sessions grew out of the constitutional changes, namely the distinct effort on the part of the Committee on Constitution to clearly define the powers of the Congress. It was brought out again that the Congress was a deliberative, not a law-making, body and should confine itself to discussion and suggestions rather than to legislation, the latter being the province of the individual fraternity groups. A motion to suspend the ruling on high school fraternities was passed, and was the cause of much discussion. It was finally suspended, not because the attitude of the National Panhellenic has changed in regard to the evil of these organizations, but because it is the belief of the majority of the delegates that the time has come for the high schools themselves to legislate, and so put an end to the difficulty.

There were interesting Round Tables on Vocations, City Panhellenics, and valuable reports from the standing Committees on Chaperons, Publicity, and Extension. A central Bureau for Chaperons was not established at this time, but the necessity for much more adequate supervision of both scholarship and chaperonage of fraternity chapters was strongly impressed upon all the delegates by the report.

A Committee on Health was appointed to draw up a program for Panhellenics to follow. This committee reported that every city Panhellenic as well as other groups should be requested to give at least one meeting per year to a discussion of health problems.

On Wednesday night we were delightfully entertained by the alumnae club of Indianapolis and Indiana Γ at the chapter-house near the Butler campus. Mrs. Rugg, Mrs. Spring, and your Panhellenic delegate received with the club and chapter presidents. Many old friendships were renewed and many new friends made, for there were a large number of different chapters represented and among them several who had attended the Charlevoix convention.

On Thursday night the City Panhellenic entertained for all delegates, and a very attractive and original program made the evening pass all too rapidly. If all active chapters could have seen the interfraternity fellowship displayed at these gatherings, it would go far toward alleviating some of the tense situations which arise out of suspicion and lack of understanding on the part of those immediately concerned.

On Saturday the luncheon was held at the Claypool; $\Pi B \Phi$ was represented by forty-six members, which was the largest number present from any fraternity, with $K A \Theta$ a close second. Mrs. Felix McWhirter gave the address, which was a fitting close to a meeting full of good-fellowship and a real desire to serve. Her exhortation to us as Greeks was that the splendid young college woman, especially the chosen fraternity woman, should live up to the demands made upon her by the present-day needs of society and of the world.

THE EDITORS' CONFERENCE

The conference of editors of the eighteen Panhellenic fraternity magazines which is always coincident with the National Panhellenic Congress, was called to order at half past seven on the evening of October 27 at the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis, Indiana, by Arema O'Brien Kirvin, editor of The Lamp of Delta Zeta.

Mrs. Ruth S. Thompson, editor of The Alpha Phi Quarterly of Alpha Phi, was elected secretary and will serve as chairman of the next Editors' Conference.

After the reading of the minutes of the last conference, the reports of various committees were made. The committee on syndicated advertising reported that such a scheme would not be practicable for fraternity magazines. A negative report was also made by the committee to investigate coöperative paper buying.

The comprehensive report made by the chairman of the committee on life subscriptions will be printed in the March ARROW.

The second session of the conference was held at five o'clock Friday afternoon when topics of general interest to editors were discussed. Among the most important subjects were: chapter letters, a uniform style sheet, the proper content of fraternity magazines, advertising and publishers.

Under the direction of the Editors' Conference, material was assembled and sent to the George Banta Publishing Company to be used in the Panhellenic Congress Minutes Supplement covering the sessions of the Congress.

AGNES WRIGHT SPRING,
Delegate to the Editors' Conference.

INFORMATION FOR THE GUIDANCE OF COLLEGE PANHELLENICS

*Compiled by order of National Panhellenic Congress in

STANDARDS OF ETHICAL CONDUCT

From the report of the Committee on Ethical Conduct, April, 1920:

I. That in case of Panhellenic difficulties all chapters involved do their utmost to restore harmony and to prevent publicity both in college and city community.

II. That any national Panhellenic fraternity whom a local is petitioning shall insist that such group conform to college Panhellenic conditions, as to pledging, etc., where it is established.

III. That national Panhellenic fraternity chapters unite in assisting local groups in colleges and universities to obtain national charters.

IV. That visiting officers of the national Panhellenic fraternities shall be expected not to interfere with regular routine work of the college but, on the contrary, that they shall encourage chapters to keep the college business day free from social engagements.

V. That it is beneath the standard of fraternity women:

(a) to speak disparagingly of any fraternity of any college woman;

- (b) to create any feeling between fraternity or nonfraternity women;
- (c) to allow an account of minor social functions to appear in the public press.

VI. That national Panhellenic fraternities shall impress upon their members that they shall respect and obey the letter and the spirit of any agreement, which has been made either by the College Panhellenic or National Panhellenic.

THE INTERFRATERNITY COMPACT

The following regulations have been passed by an affirmative vote of every fraternity and are therefore binding on all members of N. P. C. fraternities:

1903-1904. 1. No student shall be asked to join a fraternity before she has matriculated.

2. Matriculation shall be defined as the day of enrollment as a student in the university or college.

1904-1905. 3. A pledge day shall be adopted by the national fraternities in each college where chapters of two or more fraternities exist.

4. A pledge day in each college shall be fixed by the Panhellenic association existing there.

1913. A pledge shall expire at the end of one calendar year.

1912-1913. 7. A girl who breaks her pledge to one N. P. C. fraternity or resigns therefrom shall not be asked to join another for one calendar year from the date of request for release.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

For the establishing of college Panhellenics.

1. Panhellenics shall be established in all colleges where two or more national fraternities exist.

2. These Panhellenics shall consist of one active and one alumna delegate from each fraternity represented in the Congress.

3. The purpose for which these college Panhellenics shall be formed shall be the same as the purposes of the National Panhellenic Congress.

4. The chapter first established at each college is to organize the Panhellenic. The chairmanship is to be held in rotation by each chapter in the order of its establishment.

5. No chapter of any national Panhellenic fraternity shall have the power to withdraw from a college Panhellenic.

6. No chapter of an N. P. C. fraternity can be expelled from a college Panhellenic.

7. The withdrawal of any chapter of a national Panhellenic fraternity from a college Panhellenic shall cancel the membership of the fraternity involved in National Panhellenic and place its chapters in every college on the basis of local fraternities in all college Panhellenic matters, providing that the national fraternity concerned does not require its chapter to return to Panhellenic at once, four weeks from the date of supposed withdrawal being the maximum time allowed the fraternity for adjusting the situation.

8. Patronesses, alumnae, and pledges shall be bound by Panhellenic rushing rules.

9. The proof of a girl's being pledged shall be a dated, written statement, signed by the pledge and witnessed by a member of the chapter.

10. All cases of released or broken pledge shall be reported to the college Panhellenic.

COLLEGE PANHELLENIC DIFFICULTIES

In case of difficulties which cannot be settled by the college Panhellenic the following procedure shall be followed:

1. Any chapter violating a Panhellenic agreement is to be reported to its grand president by the Panhellenic association to which it belongs, and the grand presidents of the other chapters involved shall also be notified.

2. If the grand presidents cannot settle the case it may be appealed by any grand president to the Executive Committee of N. P. C.

3. If the Executive Committee cannot settle the case it may be appealed either by a grand president or by the Executive Committee to N. P. C., whose decision is final.

HONOR GRADUATES FOR 1920-21

There has appeared previously under this heading, a brief account of each of the national honorary fraternities which admit women to membership. To this list is now added I Σ II.

I Σ II, was founded October 7, 1911, at the University of Washington. There are at present twelve chapters. The fraternity does not yet publish a magazine but plans for one are under way. To be eligible for membership a student must have majored in chemistry, completed at least fifteen semester hours of that subject and received an average grade of at least 85% in that department. I Σ II aims to promote interest, enthusiasm and high scholarship among women students of chemistry. The pin is a gold hexagon, elongated, bearing the Greek letters I Σ II longitudinally.

PI PHIS IN THE PUBLIC EYE

DR. CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT

More honor was recently bestowed upon the most widely known member of $\Pi B \Phi$, Carrie Chapman Catt, Iowa Γ , when the University of Wyoming on June 12, 1921, conferred upon her the degree of Doctor of Laws and when on June 15 Iowa State College, her Alma Mater, conferred the same degree.

Although the University of Wyoming had previously been requested to confer the honorary degree of LL.D. on others, it had refused and had seemingly been waiting for something very choice—for someone who could claim the honor with great distinction. After delivering the Baccalaureate address to the graduating class, Mrs. Catt received the honorary degree, a diploma, and a silken hood of brown and yellow. And today her name stands on the alumnæ roll, as the first and only person to bear that degree from the University of Wyoming.

For the occasion, Mrs. Catt wore a very beautiful cap and gown which had been presented to her by the people of Brooklyn, New York, in recognition of her service to the suffrage cause.

It was particularly fitting that Mrs. Catt should be honored first by Wyoming, since this is the home of equal suffrage, the cause for which our noted fraternity member has devoted forty long years of unflinching loyalty and interest. Closely associated with her during her visit in Laramie, was Dr. Grace Raymond Hebard, a pioneer suffragist in Wyoming, and a member of Iowa Z of $\Pi B \Phi$.

The following words of acceptance spoken by Dr. Catt in appreciation of the honor conferred upon her were most typical of her noble womanhood: "I thank the Faculty and the Board of Trustees of the University of Wyoming. There are no words I could find to express my appreciation and gratitude of the very great honor you have bestowed upon me. I realize that you have done this thing because in a sense I stand as the symbol for the great cause that Wyoming has served and on behalf of my cause I am doubly grateful."

On June 15, Dr. Catt delivered a Commencement address at her Alma Mater, Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa, where she received the second degree of LL.D. and was one of the eight hundred persons who marched in cap and gown.

While at Ames, Dr. Catt became the recipient of an exceedingly interesting gift: a sister pin of $\Delta T \Delta$ fraternity, of which her husband, Mr. George Catt, became a member in 1875. This was the first sister pin which had ever been presented by $\Gamma \Pi$ chapter of $\Delta T \Delta$.

A NATIONAL PARK RANGER

Marguerite Lindsley, Montana A, was last summer appointed by the Department of the Interior to the position of a ranger in the Yellowstone National Park and served so efficiently that she has been recommended again for next year. Although Miss Lindsley's father has been in the National Park Service for twenty-eight years, she did not receive her appointment through "pull," because her father did not think she could do the work and discouraged her when she applied for the appointment.

Miss Lindsley's work last summer consisted of about two hikes a day over the Hot Spring Formations at Mammoth, each trip being about three miles in length. Then she did two or three shifts each day in the Government Information Office and on several occasions did patrol duty over the formations.

Since she is taking a pre-medic course at the Montana State College and had had experience in bacteriology, she was specially detailed as assistant in the laboratory to the sanitary engineer who was testing the waters of the Park for drinking purposes.

Miss Lindsley returned to Montana State College this fall in time to be initiated as a charter member of Montana A of II B Φ , and although she is intensely interested in her work as a ranger, she is deeply wrapped up in her new fraternity life and finds time to win honors in her studies in addition to being president of her chapter; president of the Woman's League at the college; president of a hiking club; a member of A E Θ , a literary fraternity; a member of Cap and Gown, senior honorary society; a member of a literary group petitioning Plume; and a representative on the interfraternity council and in Panhellenic.

CONVENTION IMPRESSIONS

(What a Fraternity Girl Thinks)

(It is with keen regret that lack of space makes it impossible to publish all of the letters submitted. Letters dealing with each phase of convention have been selected for publication.—THE EDITOR.)

WHAT TWO FOUNDERS THINK

Our first impression was that it takes courage to attend a meeting with the thermometer standing at 102 degrees, when houses must be closed, trunks packed and the start made from home at four o'clock in the morning.

The second impression is that we forgot our first impression when we were so kindly met by the Chicago Pi Beta Phis at Union Station and our every comfort for the day was planned and all arrangements were completed by them for our travel to Charlevoix.

Our third impression never to be forgotten was the enthusiastic greeting at an early hour at beautiful Charlevoix.

Our fourth impression "after the inner woman was fed" was the announcement that we were to proceed immediately to Convention Hall. Your four Founders were in such a mussed condition that Mrs. Hoyt refused to be known as a Monmouth $\Pi \Phi$.

Our fifth impression, as we bid farewell at Charlevoix was that we wanted you to carry our love and thanks for your thoughtfulness to every home chapter and to tell them that your Founders are proud of their seed sowing and returned home feeling that we belong to not only the oldest but the very best woman's secret fraternity in existence. Our wish is today that every member will maintain such a character of uprightness that she will be an honor to $\Pi B \Phi$.

THE BROWNLEE SISTERS.

(Mrs. Kilgore and Mrs. Hutchinson).

FROM ANOTHER FOUNDER

I can sincerely say that it was a joy to have the privilege of attending and again meeting the noble women of the Council, to observe their loyalty and good fellowship as they carry on the work of our beloved organization, sowing good seed that has yielded fruit in our life of half a century. The Council, delegates and chapter representatives gave cordial greeting to all of us which we deeply appreciated.

INEZ SMITH SOULE.

ANOTHER FOUNDER SPEAKS

The Twenty-Fifth Biennial Convention of $\Pi B \Phi$ is gone, but to me the memory of it will be a lasting joy. I left Charlevoix saying to myself: "This has been just fine and surely will help each one of us to strive for noble, worth while things in life. We hear of things that will renew one's youth. The Founders of $\Pi B \Phi$ need look for nothing better for them than a return of convention."

FANNIE W. LIBBY.

AWARDING OF CUP FOR ATTAINMENT

The awarding of the Balfour Cup was the thing that impressed me most at convention. I do not know of any greater honor that could be bestowed upon a chapter than the receiving of this cup. It is not so much the value of the cup itself as the meaning for which it stands and the standards which the chapter would have obtained before receiving it. I hope my chapter will realize this and strive to win it in the near future.

WOULD KNOW THEM ANYWHERE

The thing that impressed me most at convention? There were so many things! What wonderful Pi Phis our Founders are! The keen enthusiasm of our Grand Officers, and the strength of our alumnae were a revelation to me. And as roll was called at each session and the girl from Maine answered "here" with all the capability of a New England girl behind it, as the girls from the South answered, entirely forgetful of their "rs," as I heard the clear-cut answer of our northern girls, the straight-forward "here" of the Middle West, and the answer of the California girls, with an indefinable bit of California in their "present," I felt that if I should meet those girls in Africa, I should know they must be Pi Phis. I suppose it may all be included in the impression I received of the greatness of our national organization, and after Mrs. Tannahill's message, the realization that came to me of the potential possibilities for service which we hold in our hands as a national organization.

ABOVE ALL CAME THE $\Pi \Phi$ SPIRIT

Of all the many things that impressed me at convention I believe that the $\Pi \Phi$ spirit at the banquet was what impressed me most. To see that large gathering of girls who were representatives from all parts of the country and only a small portion of those who wear the arrow, gave me a thrill that I had not experienced since the day of my initiation. To hear all the songs, the toasts and the talks from our dear founders was indeed a treat and the passing of the loving cup while we sang our loving cup song left a lasting impression on my mind. And as I left the banquet I wondered how anybody could be as happy over being a $\Pi \Phi$ as I was.

WHEN HONOR STUDENTS MARCHED

As this was the first time I had attended convention, naturally nearly every aspect seemed to me important and it is difficult to pick out any one as standing out from the others. However, I would say that I was very deeply impressed when so many of our Pi Phis marched by in the line made up of members of national honor fraternities. Surely one of Pi Beta Phi's highest aims is high scholarship.

MICHIGAN A.

THE IMPORTANCE OF PERSONALITY

Never before my trip to convention did I realize how great a part personality plays in our lives. I will always remember our Grand Officers for their lovable selves. They embodied dignity, poise, executive ability together with sweet, charming personalities. They made me realize more fully the deeper meaning of $\Pi B \Phi$ and the extensiveness of its influence.

SETTLEMENT SCHOOL AS A VOLUNTARY WORK

After hearing Miss Laingmaid's report on the Settlement School and listening to such interesting stories of our School from Miss Bishop I know our one big piece of work is very much worth while. And I learned from reports that the School was growing faster than I had realized. Another fact that impressed me concerning the School was the realization that it is run on money which is given absolutely voluntarily.

PENNSYLVANIA A.

STRENGTH AND SCOPE OF THE FRATERNITY

As I sat in the national convention, I was impressed with the great size and strength of $\Pi B \Phi$. I realized then that I had never before fully appreciated what it means to be a national fraternity. The great number of Pi Phis assembled at Charlevoix, the many states and the many colleges and universities represented, the recognition given our convention by outsiders through visitors, letters, and telegrams, and the earnestness and loyalty of the national officers who so wisely governed our convention, combined to impress upon me how widely the influence of $\Pi B \Phi$ is felt and how truly great an organization it is. And with this impression came a sense of the obligation which rests upon each of us.

INSPIRATION OF MODEL INITIATION

One of the most impressive moments to me when I attended my first convention was the model initiation. Never before had I been so much awakened to the ideals and aims of the fraternity as when I heard our own grand officers repeating the ceremony. Those vows, coming from the mouths of such noble women who have done so much for $\Pi \Phi$, took on a new and deeper meaning and made me realize more than ever what it is to be a $\Pi \Phi$.

When I saw the vast number of girls and women all wearing the arrow and feeling as I did I thought how wonderful such a fraternity is in inspiring so many from all parts of the country with its high ideals of womanhood.

ILLINOIS B.

ALL WITH THE SAME IDEALS

What impressed me most at convention was the fact that more than three hundred women and girls coming from every part of the country, from different environments, having different interests, standards and ideas, could come together with a true sisterly feeling, with real sympathy and interest in one another and with one common aim—that of service in and development of $\Pi B \Phi$. This spirit was the keynote of convention and everyone present must have felt it. Introductions were unnecessary. We felt that we had long known each other and conversation never lagged when Pi Phi were together.

OUR FOUR CONVENTION FOUNDERS

I wonder if anyone who was at Charlevoix, can ever forget the thrill of watching four of our Founders walk up to the platform a few moments after the official opening of convention. To many of us, I believe, our Founders had seemed very unreal—names, not people—until on that July morning we saw them—dear, lovable women. I thought of the debt of gratitude that every $\Pi \Phi$ owes to our twelve pioneers of the Greek-letter world and wished that every one could have the privilege that I enjoyed—that of meeting and knowing our Founders.

SERVICE—OUR AIM

To give, briefly, the thing which impressed me most, I would go back to the opening meeting, at which Mrs. Tannahill delivered her welcoming address. The keynote of her address—Service, in its truest significance—awakened in me a sense of our obligations as members of $\Pi B \Phi$, which had never struck me quite as forcibly before. Aside from its scholastic and other "excuses for being," $\Pi B \Phi$, as a national organization has assumed responsibilities, the results of which will be far-reaching and lasting. Taking for its goal the aim of serving others less fortunate than ourselves, and of representing a vital factor in the betterment of human welfare, $\Pi B \Phi$ and its true spirit can never die! Turning to the alumnae clubs and our many chapters, we found that there was not one representative who did not bring some report of service rendered by her individual organization. Each active chapter and club seemed not only to have caught the ideal of the fraternity, itself, but to have put it in practice in many ways. Furthermore, where could we find a more living example of unselfish service, than we see exhibited by our Grand Council? Devoting their valuable time and energies toward the development of their ideal, of service, they stand as living symbols of what our fraternity represents. And, from all these comes to us, as active members of $\Pi B \Phi$, this challenge—from the examples set for us, and the ideals handed down to us, can we gain a true idea of the value of our services? It is our duty to make ourselves, our chapter, and our fraternity a true factor for service, ready to answer when the call comes, and prepared to face our responsibility, whatever may be the outcome. Are those of us who felt the thrill of Mrs. Tannahill's appeal prepared to be of service, and to make ourselves worthy of the highest ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$?

OUR ALUMNÆ ATTITUDE

One of the things that left a lasting inprint upon me was the attitude of the alumnae toward the members of the active chapters. Heretofore it has been my natural assumption that after a woman had spent four years in active fraternity life, although she would always cherish her fraternity, its friendships and its memories, she would lose interest in the younger women who were being added to it, every year. I felt that by not coming into direct contact with an active chapter, she would lose the viewpoint of the younger, more impulsive and inexperienced fraternity girl of today. At convention this false impression was destroyed and I saw our $\Pi \Phi$ alumnae in an entirely different light. I met older women from every section of the country who were equally as eager to recognize my sisterhood to them as they were that of the members of their own chapters. This made me feel that the word sisterhood really has a vital significance and that the alumnae of $\Pi B \Phi$ are ready to acknowledge that, although we are young in fraternity life, we have the same aims, the same ideals, and a common bond that not even time can weaken.

VIRGINIA A.

THE EXTENSION COMMITTEE'S SERVICE

Perhaps the work done by the Extension Committee impressed me as much as any of the other work. The wonderful depth of knowledge, the care exercised in behalf of the fraternity and the amount of work accomplished is remarkable. Allow me to tell anyone who fears that we are extending too rapidly, that as long as that work is in the hands of such a capable committee we need feel no apprehension as to the outcome. It can not help but be right.

COLUMBIA A.

CO-OPERATION IN WORLD FORCES

The wonderful spirit of coöperation that seemed to permeate the whole atmosphere is the thing that impressed me most at convention. It was not merely a spirit of coöperation among the members of convention; but coöperation with all great and good forces in the world at large.

MEETING OTHER PI PHIS

What impressed me most at convention? The Pi Phis themselves. You see, our chapter is rather isolated. There are no other chapters very near us, and as we very seldom receive visits from other Pi Phis in New Orleans, it was a wonderful experience to us of Louisiana A to know Pi Phis from all over the United States.

When we left Chicago, on our way to Charlevoix, we felt that convention had really started and we began to experience a real national fraternal feeling which we had never known before. It was then that we got our first inkling of what other Pi Phis were like. Our days at convention were wonderful, revealing instances of what fraternity ties mean.

On the whole, this real sisterly feeling which united girls from North, South, East, and West, into a group all working for the same standards and ideals of womanhood was, to me, the most striking thing about convention.

LOUISIANA A.

MAGNITUDE OF SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

The convention at Charlevoix in 1921 was the first one I ever attended, so I was most impressionable. In looking back upon it, I seem to have been most deeply impressed by the greatness of our fraternity as a whole. I never realized until then how large our fraternity is and what capable women we have in our officers. They seemed to personally embody our fraternity ideals as well as prove them in unselfish labour.

Being a Canadian the extent of our work in the Settlement School was comparatively unknown to me until convention. It means so much more to have met those connected with the School and to have heard their personal account of the work. The greatest impression and the hardest to define was the general spirit of convention. It was more than uplifting to see all those Pi Beta Phis who are working for our common interest—the fraternity and all that it means.

ONTARIO A.

PASSING THE LOVING CUP

As the passing of the wassail bowl at the feasts of old symbolized the comradery of the medieval knights, so the passing of the silver loving cup at our formal banquet at the 1921 convention symbolized the sincere friendship and the common interests of all those joined in $\Pi \Phi$. It was in personal contact, however, that we found the real meaning of all that the loving cup typified. It was an inspiration to meet the Pi Phis at convention from the four Founders whom we were so fortunate as to have with us, to some of the enthusiastic freshmen from various colleges—to know that interest in $\Pi \Phi$ has no age limits.

GETTING THE NATIONAL VISION

National Vision had been little more than a term, vague in my understanding, but connected with Founders, august Grand Officers, and the memorizing of a chapter roll. How I wish every single wearer of the arrow could have been at convention that the true conception of $\Pi B \Phi$ might have been as forcibly revealed to each!

Our dear Founders fairly beamed over the organization and development of their I. C. Sorosis. Our national officers are so inspiringly dignified, and so gracious and sisterly all in the same breath—we swell with pride! And our chapter roll stands for girls in the North, East, South, and West bound together for the cultivation of nobler womanhood! With all striving for this lofty purpose to be accomplished “through personal development, mind, culture, true friendship, and social service," do we wonder that thousands of hearts beat as one under the golden emblem of $\Pi B \Phi$?

TEXAS A.

OUR GRAND PRESIDENT

Perhaps the one thing that stood out most clearly for me at convention was the wonderful personality of our Grand President, Mrs. Tannahill, and her inspiring address on the "Ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$," given on the second morning of convention.

A LATER PERSPECTIVE

When one has just come back from her very first $\Pi \Phi$ convention, her impressions are very likely to be scrambled and futuristic. The clever songs originated by the Newcomb girls, the way the California girls could swim, our own May L. Keller "at large," or even the weather probably featured largely in early convention memories. But after time has lengthened the perspective and our thoughts are collected in their various pigeon holes, the thing that I shall remember above all others is that delightful sense of "one-ness" that came after the impressive installation of our grand officers, the unanimous choice of all Pi Phis.

NATIONAL SPIRIT UPPERMOST

The most impressive thing at convention was the spirit of interest and friendliness existing everywhere. Grand Council was interested in the welfare of the fraternity as a whole; the alumnae in the active chapters and the clubs; the delegates in the chapters represented and in learning their methods and means of dealing with problems of group life. Friendships were quickly formed—the arrow acting as a universal basis of fellowship. Of course, there was a spirit of good-natured rivalry between the chapters but this was quickly forgotten when questions of national importance arose, for all were enthusiastically working for the best interests of the national organization, $\Pi B \Phi$ Fraternity.

PI BETA PHI EUROPEAN TOUR, 1922

Pressure on space has made it necessary to omit the account of the 1921 Pi Beta Phi European Tour from this issue. An illustrated story of the trip will appear in the March number.

The itinerary of the tour planned for the summer of 1922 has been arranged in accordance with suggestions made to Mrs. Rugg by many who are interested. It is now in press and will be ready for distribution early in January. If you desire a copy, write to Mrs. F. A. Rugg, 201 Davis Ave., Brookline, Mass.

PANHELLENIC AT MIAMI

During the Christmas holidays of 1919, all national fraternity women at Miami, Florida, were asked to meet for the purpose of forming an association. About fifteen women attended this meeting and today the membership has grown to seventy-five.

For some time the dues were used to support a French orphan but later the club decided to help a cause nearer home, with the result that last year we sent a scholarship girl to college. We are all proud of Miss Nina McAdam and she is evidently very proud of us, for she apologizes profusely when her report shows a mark as low as 93.

This scholarship amounts to $200, one-half of which is given, and the other half, loaned, until the recipient has finished college. Last year we raised the fund by entertainments which the Panhellenic undertook most enthusiastically. Recently we made $550 by selling tickets for one of the local theaters for one evening's performance. With this amount we are hoping to send two girls next year, etc., until we are able to enter a freshman as each senior graduates.

Π Β Φ is well represented at the Panhellenic meetings with the ten resident members in Miami and the many visitors who come down during the winter season.

At a luncheon held last winter, twenty-six Greek-letter fraternities and as many colleges answered the roll call. We are always delighted to welcome any tourist, and last winter approximately one hundred names were added to our guest book. Besides extending a cordial invitation through the press we have a book in one of the hotels for the benefit of the visitors. In it are recorded all the names of fraternity women in Miami with their addresses and telephone numbers. This book is prefaced by the request that all visiting fraternity women call on their sisters and become a member of our Association.

Panhellenic has two meetings each month: one for business followed by a social hour, and the other a luncheon which is enlivened in many ways. Songs of each fraternity are sung, and such interesting persons as Mrs. Robert M. Seymour, Mrs. Reginal Owen and Mary C. McDougal, a poet of some note, have spoken to us. The latter surprised us one day with a number of "Panhellenic Jingles." Our singers quickly took up the call and now Mary's jingles are heard on every apt occasion.

NEWS FROM LITTLE PIGEON

(Items of interest contributed by EVELYN BISHOP, Head Resident)

The weaving room is now a very busy place. Three looms were added this fall and several women of the community are learning to use them. One has already finished paying for her own loom by selling her work the past summer. All of this goes to show that our efforts to revive interest in an industry which was rapidly becoming a lost art, are meeting with success.

Aunt Lydia still makes baskets but all she can provide together with those made by others hardly keep us supplied. More orders came in November than we usually have in a whole year. The past year has been the banner one for baskets.

The Andy Ogle house has been wired, running water has been put in and a good many changes have been made. Specialists from Nashville and Knoxville who have inspected it all agree that we have a very convenient place for work. Nurse Higgenbotham already has installed her office there and our long anticipated Jennie Nicol Memorial will soon be a reality. The March ARROW will contain details of this new branch of our work.

Miss Chew, our principal, has visited several of the nearby schools this fall. The Pi Beta Phi School is now making its influence felt through the efforts of some of our former pupils who are teaching in the little isolated school houses in various parts of the county: this year Mattie Ogle Watson is teaching Fork of the River school; Elmer Watson, Sugarlands; Elder Ogle, Baskins; and Emma Maples, Brackins. Emma's school is the last one in Tennessee before crossing the North Carolina border. She has already interested two girls who live in that isolated spot to come to the Pi Beta Phi School. Through the efforts of these teachers who have been trained in our school and the visits which the nurse makes far up the creeks and hollows, we hope to enroll many more boys and girls.

Mrs. Anna Dowell of Indianola, Iowa, who came to the school in October is proving a very valuable addition to the staff. Her duties are varied but she is especially helpful to Miss Bishop in assisting in community visiting.

SETTLEMENT SCHOOL CLASS WORK

A MOUNTAIN BOY'S CREED

Living away back in the mountains out of sight, with no one to look on and cheer, I try to put the very best there is in me into everything I do. I also try to do my work right. I live, work and study until there is nothing left of me, but the world is richer and better for what I do. Let me keep on going the same way is all I ask.

Oh, to be in the mountains in October,
 After the hurry of summer is over,
 Out of town now so gray and so sober,
 Back to the joys of nature once more.
 The trees in the forest are shading with yellow,
 The aster and golden rod cover the land,
 The colors of autumn are everywhere mellow,

Published by Russell Sage Foundation, New York, 1921. Price $3.50 Net
 Reviewed by SARAH POMEROY RUGG

Many volumes have been written on the southern mountains and their inhabitants and in consequence many fallacies are current about this section of the country and the people who dwell therein. Writers of romances fascinated by the simple beauty of Highland life have over-emphasized certain features, and authors of more serious books have been prone to generalize, have failed to make distinctions between the urban and rural population and often have published inaccurate statements. This unfortunate publicity has given rise to a difficult situation which every mountain worker has been forced to face more or less frequently. The mountaineer has suffered so much in consequence that his natural suspicion of the people in the outside world has been intensified and because of this many trusted and well-informed mountain workers have hesitated to print their impressions and observations.

Such a worker was John C. Campbell, author of The Southern Highlander and his Homeland, who labored for more than twenty-five years among the people of the Southern Highlands and who was at the time of his death secretary of the Southern Highland Division of the Russell Sage Foundation. Again and again he was urged to write the results of his experiences but always he refused realizing as he did "the difficulties in the way of writing of a people who, while forming a definite geographical and racial group were by no means socially homogeneous." Not until the last year of his life did he consent to edit his mass of notes and material for publication. Death came before his manuscript was completed but it was so thoroughly outlined that his wife was able to prepare it for publication. The result is a volume of great value to all who are in any way associated with work in the Southern Highlands and one of genuine interest to everyone who is desirous of obtaining a fair and just estimate of the people and conditions in this particular part of our country.

Mr. Campbell deals exhaustively with the backgrounds and history of the population of the Southern Highlands, describing most entertainingly the pioneer routes of travel and early settlements and tracing the ancestry of the present population. He concludes that "the vast majority of the Highlanders are descendants of settlers who were native born, and who, by their common interests hardships and struggles, were blended into a homogeneous people—the type which has come to be called 'American.'" He then pictures most realistically and sympathetically the present Highland population, discussing at length the Highlander's individualism in its various aspects, his religious life, his home conditions and health.

This exhaustive study of the subject closes with chapters devoted to the resources of the mountain country and their development, suggested avenues for contact and progress and a plea for a new basis of appeal for interest.

The volume is so enriched with anecdote and description and so replete with pertinent paragraphs that it is difficult not to quote at length. The following passage is only one of many which are full of suggestion:

"In time and the time in some places is at hand, the isolation of the Highlands will be overcome by railroads and good thoroughfares and their wild beauty disfigured by commercial exploitation, while the Highlander himself, his individualism and his picturesqueness gone, will become no better, no worse, but quite as uninteresting as other men.

"He who stands where once the Tallulah River in northern Georgia leaped, a foaming torrent of waterfalls and rapids through a gray gorge whose steep sides were set with moss and bloom, cannot but regret the passing of that beauty. He knows that the electricity generated by that immense volume of water passes a hundred miles or more to cities which have never seen its source but something has gone from out the land—not only of beauty but of strength.

"It is the part of those, both native and foreign, who have the interest of the Highland country at heart, to see that all that is strong and fair in that life is not drained away to other regions. It should be a reservoir clean and beautiful in itself, ministering to its own needs yet the source from which the exhausted pools of urban life may find renewal and refreshment."

In that passage, it seems to the reviewer, is a message for our fraternity and a challenge to us to continue the work we are trying to accomplish in one little district of the Southern Highlands in such a manner that we may in truth make the place in which we are particularly concerned a "reservoir clean and beautiful in itself yet a source of refreshment" to the world outside.

The book deserves thoughtful and careful reading from all of us who are trying to better conditions in the Southern Highlands.

IN MEMORIAM

CLEVELAND, NELLIE, Colorado A, '18, died at Salt Lake City, Utah, August 20, 1921. She was initiated into Colorado A at the University of Colorado in 1914 and received her degree from that University in 1918, where she enjoyed a wide circle of friends and was prominent in school activities, being a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Kappa Delta Pi, honorary fraternities. At the time of her death, she was an active member of the alumnæ club of Boulder, Colorado.

HAMILTON (MRS. WILLIAM), ESTHER DANIELS, California B, '19, died at her home, 533 Lemon Street, Riverside, California, September, 1921. She was initiated into California B at the University of California, September, 1917, and received her A.B. degree from that University in 1919. She married Mr. Hamilton in 1919, and at the time of her death was a member of the alumnæ club in her home city.

HUCKLEBERRY, HELEN REBECCA, Indiana A, '22, died at the home of a friend and sister Pi Phi, Inez Webb, 1004 E. King St., Franklin, Ind., of appendicitis, July 1, 1921. She was initiated into Indiana A, April 6, 1921, at Franklin College.

She was sent last year to New York as a delegate to the national convention of the student volunteers. She was elected president of Y. W. C. A. for the coming year and was an outstanding figure in all student activities. She was an enthusiastic Pi Phi—at all times ready to serve. Every one who knew her loved her and will cherish the memory of her beautiful personality.

MATHEWS, CARRIE, Ohio A, died at her home in Athens, Ohio, June 11, 1921. She was initiated into Ohio A at Ohio University, in October, 1890. At the time of her death she was an assistant librarian at Ohio University.

MYERS, LETHA M., Michigan A, '15, died at Detroit, Mich., of tumor of the brain, July 27, 1921. She was initiated into Michigan A at Hillsdale College March 21, 1911, and received her A.B. from that college in 1915. She had been teaching in the "continuation" schools in Jackson, Mich., and was taking special work in Detroit at the time of her death.

WEBB (MRS. MORRIS), WINIFRED HOLSTER, Iowa Z, '19, died at San Antonio, Tex., September 15, 1921, of acute jaundice induced by fright on account of a severe storm. The burial was at Rolfe, Iowa, September 21, 1921.

Winifred graduated from the University of Iowa in 1919. She was a Pi Beta Phi in the true sense of the word and her charming personality drew a host of friends. Her loss is a great one to all who were privileged to know her.

BOOK REVIEWS

Little Lady Comb

BY ETHEL HUESTON, Iowa A

Published by Bobbs-Merrill Co. Price, $1.00

This book is a story of the Dressing Table people written first for the entertainment of the author's own little daughter. Mrs. Hueston is also the author of Prudence of the Parsonage and Eve to the Rescue.

"The Sweetest of Memories" in the November issue of Good Housekeeping is another story by Shirley L. Seifert, Missouri B, '09. It is especially interesting to college women since it refers to a masquerade at Columbia University and mentions the heroine's room in the $\Pi B \Phi$ house. Very seldom is $\Pi B \Phi$ referred to in fiction but in William Allen White's book, A Certain Rich Man, also there is a $\Pi B \Phi$ undergraduate and a $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ man at Kansas University.

The June Good Housekeeping magazine carried an article on savings written by Francis H. Sisson, Vice-president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York City. Mr. Sisson, who is a past grand president of $B \Theta \Pi$, is the husband of Grace Lass, Illinois Δ , a former grand president of $\Pi B \Phi$.

The ninth book of a series written by Lewis E. Theiss has just appeared from the press of W. A. Wilde Co., of Boston. The book, entitled The Young Wireless Operator as a Fire Patrol, is an out-of-door story full of interest to boys. Mr. Theiss is the husband of Mary Bartol Theiss, Indiana Γ , a former Editor of THE ARROW.

EDITORIALS

A PERFECT RECORD for chapter letters was made during 1920-21. Every one of the sixty-two chapters of Pi Beta Phi sent in chapter letters in time to be printed in the December, March and June issues. A similar record should be our goal for this year. Please remember to make your chapter letter of interest to those outside of your chapter, balancing chapter news with the news of the college.

THE PI BETA PHILE is an exceedingly interesting sheet which has come to the Editor's desk from Arizona A. This Volume 1, Number 1 is really an enlarged chapter letter in the form of a newspaper touching points of interest concerning the local chapter and the University of Arizona. Among the topics discussed are: Pi Beta Phi Convention, Pi Phi House, Scholarship, Panhellenic Affairs, Athletics in the U. of A., The Year in Society, a discussion of the educational work of Pi Beta Phi, several poems, and a list of alumnae and active members of Arizona A.

In justification of the publication the editors say: "In offering this, the first number of the Pi Beta Phile to our alumnae and friends, we have a two-fold purpose—first, to tell you what we have done and something of what we hope to do. And second, for our own good in taking an account of our achievements and failures so that we may profit thereby."

Such a publication might prove very valuable in membership campaigning where "open campaigning" is allowed.

LOYALTY TO OUR SOLE FRATERNITY JEWELER should be emphasized in every chapter and should be practiced by every individual member of $\Pi B \Phi$. An incident which occurred in one of the western chapters recently shows how one chapter dealt with the situation in an amusing manner. It seems that a representative of a firm had called at the chapter-house but had been plainly told that nothing would be purchased except from L. G. Balfour, our official jeweler. Evidently that representative spread the word among brother salesmen that that particular chapter was difficult to handle, because the next fraternity jeweler's salesman who appeared at the house a week later called when all of the young women were at morning classes. The house mother admitted the stranger who asked if he might wait in the parlor to see the president of the chapter who was then at classes. Thinking the young man was merely a caller, the house mother excused herself and left to attend to some necessary duties. Half an hour later she was greatly chagrined to find that the young man had taken possession of the parlor and library of the chapter-house and had put on display his entire line of fraternity jewelry. Just then the chapter members returned from class and immediately ordered the young man to pack his displays and to leave the house as they were pledged to buy only from their official jeweler and would not even look at the aggressive salesman's wares.

The following extract from "Minutes of the Interfraternity Conference" published in the Convention Daily of A Γ Δ, was preceded by a statement of how several years ago a combination of some six or eight of the oldest fraternity jewelry manufactures was effected and a firm in Detroit selected by them to sink dies of the coat of arms and insignia of every fraternity in the country but how that combination is now almost dead: "Its members began cutting each other's throats the instant it was formed. It constituted as fine an aggregation of pirates as ever scuttled a ship. Having no business ethics to waste on the fraternities whose insignia and emblems they pirated they were true to their natures in trying to undermine each other. It has sought to drive out the only New England manufacturer* and has only made him the stronger thereby. This man*, together with one manufacturer in New York City, are the only reliable manufacturing jewelers we have been able to find. Those in Philadelphia, Columbus, and Detroit are not reliable and most of them are not genuine manufacturers but only selling agents. The business ethics of these firms has been very bad in the past. Licenses when revoked have been disregarded and efforts made to unload large stocks of pretended manufactured goods have been invariably the rule. All efforts to get them to give up the hubs of their dies in return for reimbursement of their cost have failed. Their salesmen have endeavored to sell regulation badges and insignia at any price in an effort to discredit the officially made and distributed goods. Lead has been placed in concealed pockets within the badges to give them weight and slabs of gold planed down to save stock and the whole marked or sold for 14-karat gold by some of these manufacturers.

"These facts we can prove at any time we are challenged to do so in any court of law or equity these gentlemen may select as their tribunal. . . We have within our keeping the names and addresses of the men whose business ethics and standing are guarantees of good faith and fair dealing. We wish we might say the same of those who condemned themselves by the lack of such."

A RECOMMENDATION OF INTEREST TO $\Pi B \Phi$ was brought before National Panhellenic Congress for consideration at the recent meeting in Indianapolis. The recommendation read as follows: "Resolved that the date upon which a national collegiate organization officially adopts a Greek-letter name shall be recognized as the date of its establishment as a college fraternity."

This was ruled out of order and no action was taken but the ensuing discussion brought out the fact that difficulty has arisen in many city Panhellenics over the question of which fraternity was first established as a national collegiate organization. It was stated that $A \Delta \Pi$ and ΦM were founded in 1851 and 1852 respectively and many fraternity women therefore could not understand the reason for placing $\Pi B \Phi$ first on all fraternity lists when it was not founded until 1867 and did not adopt a Greek name until 1888.

Realizing this tendency to misunderstanding $\Pi B \Phi$ some years ago included in her Handbook of Information for undergraduates (which is used as the basis for study for her annual examination), the following question and note of explanation in the section devoted to Panhellenic matters:

Question 9. What is the fraternity recognized by National Panhellenic as the oldest fraternity organization which has from its founding had the policy of extension. Ans. $\Pi B \Phi$.*

*Note. Although $\Pi B \Phi$ was the first society for women modeled after the men's fraternities and was also the first to establish chapters thus becoming a national, $A \Delta \Pi$ was founded in 1851 and ΦM in 1852. These societies remained locals until after 1900. Handbook, pp. 10, 13.

Every member of $\Pi B \Phi$ initiated since the publication of the Handbook has been thoroughly informed on this subject and understands that $\Pi B \Phi$ lays no claim to being the oldest collegiate organization bearing a Greek-letter name, but does maintain that it was the first of the collegiate fraternities for women now existing which was organized with the original purpose of becoming a national body and has ever since developed along these lines.

Since there may be some misapprehension on this point on the part of older women whose undergraduate fraternity life antedates our present system of fraternity examinations, this detailed explanation is made to clarify the situation. The attention of the alumnae is especially called to these statements as many seem to be confused as to the exact status of $\Pi B \Phi$.

But after all, too much stress should not be placed upon "how many years old are we?"—but rather upon "how many years young?" In this day of fraternity expansion, vitality and youth are necessary in every organization. Hence, all of those fraternities whose birthdays fall in the third quarter of the last century need to drink constantly at the Fountain of Perpetual Youth lest they become ossified and fail to keep step with the younger generation of college fraternities.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WANTED: A MICROSCOPE!

If you have a microscope or are willing to buy one will you please send it at once to Phyllis Higinbotham at the Settlement School, Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Miss Higinbotham writes:

One of our crying needs has just been driven home to me this morning, the necessity for a microscope and examinations made on the spot without waiting for the uncertain delay of a mail a day service and sending across the state.

One of our high school boys has just been in to tell me that his baby brother has dyptheria and they are afraid there isn't much hope for he has been sickly and has no resistance. An older brother who has been working in the lumber camp where there were several cases has probably been the carrier from whom he has caught it and I feel it is so necessary to have all the childrens' throats cultured before they are allowed back in school in order to prevent an epidemic.

It has occurred to Miss Evelyn and me that if you would just put a notice in THE ARROW we might be able to get in touch with some $\Pi \Phi$ who has a microscope she is not using and would donate or sell to the School. It would also be most useful in giving health talks as well as in high school work.

PHYLLIS HIGINBOTHAM.

The snapshots of convention which have been used in this issue were furnished by Sophie P. Woodman, 561 West 186th St., New York City and by Mr. Orpheus M. Schantz, 10 S. La Salle St., Chicago. If you desire prints of these pictures or of the many other ones which they have you can obtain them by writing to Miss Woodman and Mr. Schantz. Mr. Schantz has a very excellent print of the whole convention group which is very clear in detail and which is 10c for a glossy finish. These snapshots would make excellent additions to the chapter scrapbook.

Since the discontinuation of the Committee on Chaperons, the work of that committee has been taken over by the Province Presidents. Chapters needing chaperons and persons desiring positions as chaperons should communicate either with the Province Presidents concerned or with the Grand President.

Dear Editor: Will you kindly through THE ARROW impart to the many chapters and alumnae clubs my sincere appreciation of the lovely birthday greetings received. Yours in Pi Beta Phi,

INEZ S. SOULE.

A Panhellenic Association meets the second Saturday of every month at the Hotel Browning, Grand Rapids, Michigan, for luncheon, a business meeting and a social hour. Every national fraternity woman is cordially welcomed to attend these meetings. Further information concerning the organization can be obtained from Mrs. David B. Hagerman (Dorothy Tuttle, Vermont A), 445 Ethel Avenue, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Dear Editor:

May I have space in THE ARROW to voice my thanks to all the Pi Phis who united in sending the lovely gift to me from the 1921 convention, which was awaiting me on my return from Europe? "A thing of beauty is a joy forever," and so the beautiful silver bowl which occupies a place of honor in my home will always be a source of delight as well as a constant reminder of the happy years I have been privileged to serve our fraternity. To every one of you far and near, I send my heartfelt thanks.

SARAH POMEROY RUGG.

Please remember that all changes of addresses, failure to receive THE ARROW or any matter pertaining to circulation should be taken up immediately with Mailing List Clerk, Mrs. C. E. Temple, 1023 Woods Ave., Lancaster, Pa. It is important that all changes should be printed or typewritten in order to insure accuracy.

Pi Beta Phi announces the establishment of the following chapters: Montana A, at Montana State College, Bozeman, Mont.; North Dakota A, University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, N. D.; and Florida B, Florida State College for Women, Tallahassee, Fla.

The Chairman of the Scholarship Committee wishes to apologize to Oklahoma A for the error which appeared on the scholarship chart which was shown at convention. The chapter average was given as 1.546, a loss of .5 over the preceding year. As a matter of fact, the grade should have been 2.318, a gain of .3. Oklahoma A has shown a consistently good scholarship record, and the chairman regrets exceedingly that this mistake occurred.

A PI PHI PHONOGRAPH RECORD

Ring, Ching, Ching and The Anthem may be purchased on a double disc phonograph record for $1.75. This record has been made by the New York Alumnae Club under the sanction of the Grand Council and the profits from the sale of same will be devoted to the Settlement School. Every Π Φ will be delighted with this record. If these records are to reach you by Christmas, please order promptly, sending check and order to Mrs. A. H. Cutler, 152 Esplanade, Mount Vernon, N. Y.

All Alumnae Personals and in Memoriam notices should be sent direct to the Alumnae Editor, Mrs. F. J. Allen, 678 Park Blvd., Glen Ellyn, Ill.

CHRISTMAS HANDKERCHIEFS

Do not forget the announcement which appeared in the October issue concerning the official Π Β Φ handkerchief, made by hand in the fraternity colors. They are made of silver blue linen embroidered in wine-red. Red threads are drawn through each side and in one corner there is a diamond which encloses the Greek letters Π Β Φ in red. Any active member or alumna may purchase the handkerchiefs for seventy-five cents each from the Little Rock alumnae club. Address: Thelma Reed, 2100 Marshall St., Little Rock, Ark.

At the recent National Panhellenic Congress held in Indianapolis the following rule was repealed, but the Congress went on record as discountenancing high school fraternities or secret societies: "After January, 1916, no girl who becomes a member of an organization bearing a Greek name, and called a fraternity or a sorority, shall be eligible to a National Panhellenic fraternity. This is exclusive of Junior College, or Professional fraternities."

Money may be made for the Settlement School by the sale of "Blossom" hair nets sold by Waugh & Company, Woolworth Bldg., New York City. Mrs. E. G. Hinrichs (Lucile Cozier, Wisconsin A), who is general sales manager for the company writes: "It has occurred to me that various chapters and alumnae clubs might raise money by selling 'Blossom' hair nets for the $\Pi \Phi$ Settlement School. We are not offering them for sale through stores or jobbers, but through direct mail sales and through girl agents in schools, offices, colleges, etc. We now have agents in several of the women's colleges and are just arranging an exclusive agency for Connecticut in favor of the Vassar Salary Endowment Fund."

Magazines! Renew your subscriptions and order new ones immediately from our $\Pi B \Phi$ Magazine Subscription Agency. All profit goes to the Settlement School. Subscriptions are made at lowest rates offered by anyone. Blanche G. Reisinger, 235 Lafayette Ave., Baltimore, Md.

During Commencement all Pi Phis were very glad to welcome one of our most distinguished members, Carrie Chapman Catt, Iowa Γ , who gave the baccalaureate address at the University of Wyoming. June 11, the alumnae club entertained at a luncheon in her honor at the University Tea Shop. June 12, the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred by the University of Wyoming upon Mrs. Catt. She has the distinction of being the first person to receive this degree from the University of Wyoming.

Among the alumnae club members who attended convention this year were Agnes Wright Spring, and Ursula D. Tanner.

Mrs. Howard C. Baldwin (Ruth Jensen), and two small sons spent a part of the summer in Cheyenne with relatives.

At the national convention a very particular honor was conferred upon one of Wyoming Alpha's members, Agnes Wright Spring, when she was elected editor of THE ARROW. She is particularly well fitted to hold the position, having done special work in journalism at Columbia University. In addition she has done much practical newspaper work. Wyoming A which is comparatively a new chapter, is rejoicing that this distinction should come to one of its members.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Tessie Langheldt Neuman, and her sister, Meredith, in the death of their mother, Mrs. Margaret Gebhart, who died at Cheyenne, July 12. Sincerest sympathy is also extended to Dora Joslin, in the death of her father, Reverend Joslin, October 6, at his home in Rock Springs.

Lois Coons is teaching this year in Panama.

Mrs. Clifford Dickinson (Ruth Greenbaum), recently moved to Rock Springs, Wyo.

Mary Ethel Holliday, who graduated in June from Notre Dame college, is spending the winter at her home in Laramie.

Edna King is teaching in the public schools of Laramie.

Mrs. Payson and her husband have returned to Laramie. Dr. Payson is in the Department of Botany at the University of Wyoming.

Mrs. Frank Holliday of Laramie entertained all of the alumnae and active Pi Phis at a beautifully appointed tea, September 20, in honor of her sister, Susan Breisch, who was an October bride.

Blanche Evans sailed, August 23, for Tokyo, Japan, where she will teach in the American School, during the next two years.

Betty Beck is teaching in the Cody High School.

Katherine Bennitt, who has been in extension work at the University of Wyoming, will leave in November to make her home in California with her parents and brother.

A most enthusiastic and successful Homecoming celebration took place on the University Campus in October. Among the Pi Phi visitors were: Mrs. John Whisenand (Hilda Kline), Rock Springs; Margaret Longshore, Casper; Mrs. John Peterson (Florence Collins), Douglas; Serafina Facinelli, Cheyenne.

Mary Spafford is superintendent of the Charlotte Swift Hospital in Manhattan, Kan., and teaches a few classes in Kansas State Agricultural College on hygiene and nursing.

ALPHA PROVINCE

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

INITIATES

Grace Ryrie, '22, 1 Chestnut Park Rd., Toronto, Ont.

Ontario A is happy to announce the initiation of one of her pledges who was not able to be initiated last year. Our ceremony was held at the home of Jean McQueen, '22, after which we enjoyed a splendid cooky-shine. Grace is the only girl we have in the social service department; we are very proud of the splendid work she is doing. We regret that our other pledge, Mairi Fraser, was not able to be initiated with Grace. She is remaining at home this year, but we are all anticipating her return next year.

We were brought into closer touch with our southern sisters through the reports that we have had from the delegates of our chapter at convention. Ontario A was well represented at convention, having four alumnae and four active girls there. We have already felt the benefit from the impressions they brought to us and we are sure that we will continue to do so. It is a new inspiration and incentive to us in our college and fraternity life.

Since our last letter, Mrs. Harry Goss (Edith Barton) has returned from a year's visit in England. The Pi Phis in Toronto feel fortunate in having Dr. Edith Gordon with us this year. She has been appointed medical supervisor of women in the University of Toronto. Ontario A is also proud that Mrs. R. N. McCormick (Jessie Starr) an alumna of Ontario, has been appointed Province President of Alpha Province.

Jessie Rogers, '21, surprised us by registering this year at Columbia University, N. Y. We join in wishing her every success. Jean McQueen, the only undergraduate who went on the $\Pi B \Phi$ European tour, is from Ontario A.

Jessie Gurd, '24, was married to Mr. V. R. Smith, Osgoode Hall Chapter of ΔX , October 1, at St. Clair, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Toronto after Christmas and we shall be very glad to have Jessie with us again.

Honorable mention is due four Pi Phis this year. Noreen Porter, '21, was one of the two graduates chosen by University College to go as exchange teachers to France. She is attending a French university there, and lecturing one hour each day in English. Mary Fawcett, '23, won the Hamilton Fiske Biggar Scholarship in Household Economics. Norah Grey, '22, ranked first in the junior year in a large class in the honor course of Commerce and Finance. The Edward Blake Scholarship in Modern Languages was awarded to Margaretta Spence, '24.

Several Pi Phis are taking prominent parts in college activities this year. Jean McQueen is chairman of the social service committee of University College; Jacquelin Sinclair, secretary of junior year executive; Margaret Thomas, lady councillor of junior year executive and secretary of University of Toronto women's hockey club; Helen Dean, vice-president of political economy club; Margaretta Spence, sophomore representative of women's student administrative council and sophomore representative of women's undergraduate association; Helen Rutherford, vice-president of sophomore year executive; Marion MacLaren, first historian of sophomore year executive; Kathleen McConnell, prophetess of sophomore year executive.

In every way this year promises to be highly successful, not only for Ontario A, but for the entire college. Our chapter life has been one of close friendship and consecration to the high ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$. We have entered into the college life as a part of U. of T.'s "big family."

ERMINIE E. CARSON.

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Pledge Day—Undecided

With the arrival of autumn, Maine's campus, with its smooth lawns, brightly colored trees and shrubbery, fall flowers, and quantities of hydrangeas, is certainly beautiful. It is an ideal place for study, athletic sports, and recreation.

We have returned from a wonderful summer vacation, full of enthusiasm. At our first meetings we listened hungrily to the interesting account which our representative, Martha Chase, brought to us from convention. At first we felt very few in number, because of the vacant places left by our twelve graduates. But now we are becoming adjusted to the new conditions and we are trying hard to fill their places with attractive newcomers.

Conditions have been in perfect harmony with all our plans for the season's activities. Early in the fall we entertained twenty new girls on a hike at the end of which we found a cheerful bonfire and plenty of "eats." A later affair, which proved very successful, was a progressive dinner. After dinner we enjoyed the evening at a theater party. One week-end we gave a Hallowe'en party, introducing the customary witches, ghosts, and stunts. We are now planning a house party.

Everything points toward a good representation of $\Pi B \Phi$ in college activities. Several members are interested in basketball and track club. Cora Meservy and Rhondena Armstrong play in the college orchestra. Bernice Nicoll is pledged to the Contributors' Club. Louise Kincade and Betty Kingsbury are members of the Campus board, which publishes the weekly campus paper. Alta Jones and Una Greenlaw act on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Helen Pulsifer is president of Panhellenic council. This society gave a Country Tavern Cabaret recently to which all college women, fraternity and non-fraternity, were invited.

We feel keenly the loss of one of our members, Louise Thompson, who is now at the University of Indiana.

Maine A is anticipating a year of real progress and accomplishment for our chapter and for all Pi Phidom.

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October 20, 1921

Our girls came back from convention with many inspiring messages and helpful suggestions, and now as college opens, we feel enthusiastic and eager to make this year one of great progress and strength for Vermont A.

We are glad to welcome Dr. Paul Dwight Moody as our new president. This year we are trying the plan of assigning to each of the sixty-three girls in the incoming class, a "big sister" who is to advise her and give her the benefit of her experience in college life.

On October 8 and 9, the whole college enjoyed its annual pilgrimage to Bread Loaf, a rambling old inn owned by the college, in the heart of the Green Mountains. Groups hiked to various places of interest among the mountains, such as Lake Pleiad Outlook, and Silent Cliff, and when the rainy weather made hiking undesirable, all enjoyed themselves wandering about the inn, dancing, or toasting marshmallows in the big, old-fashioned fireplaces.

Dorothy Brainerd, '23, who made the greatest increase in scholarship the second semester of last year over the first, was awarded a $\Pi \Phi$ ring by the chapter. Helen Bolton, '23, was sent as the representative for Vermont A to the Y. W. C. A. Conference at Camp Maqua, Maine, last June.

We are well represented in the activities on the hill this year. Helen Bolton, '23, Martha Bolton, '23, Frances Caswell, '23, Muriel Long, '23, and Marion Prince '23, are in the college choir. Barbara Stilphen, '23, is secretary of the student government association and Helen Lingham, '24, is secretary of Y. W. C. A. $\Pi \Phi$ is represented in the women's glee club by the following girls: Matilda Axton, '23; Helen Bolton, '23; Martha Bolton, '23; Frances Caswell, '23; Ruth Cowles, '24; Helen Lingham, '24; Muriel Long, '23; Marion Prince, '23; Beatrice Scovell, '23; Barbara Stilphen, '23; Margaret Smith, '24; and Anne Wilkinson, '24. Helen Bolton is the organization editor of the Kaleidoscope, our junior yearbook.

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

"Hello, Sister Pi Phis," says Vermont B. "Happy summer—well, I guess!"

The old mill is grinding once more after a long vacation, and $\Pi \Phi$ is busy. The class of '25 is exceptionally large and of splendid material.

Twenty-three loyal arrows responded to the first roll call. Our circle seemed small without our seniors, Muriel Crewe, '23, who has been transferred to Wellesley, Dorothy Gunter, and Priscilla Crabtree, who are at home.

Π Φ holds a high place in college activities, for Kathryn McSweeney, '22, is president of student union, Marion Killam, '22, is president of Vermonters' Club, Lois Bartlett, '22, and Mabel Goodwin, '24, are vice-presidents of their respective classes. The chapter as a whole has shown unusual literary, dramatic, and athletic ability, and we are proud of the progress.

U. V. M. has grown in acres as well as in numbers this year, for it has purchased a large estate, Redstone, which, when ready for occupancy, will accommodate 106 girls.

Just now, mingled with the pleasures and uncertainties of the pre-pledging season, we are being thrilled by the prospects of a mountain climbing expedition up Mt. Mansfield. We hope to make this journey very soon.

Linda Clark, '22, chairman of the membership campaign, has planned three clever parties for entertaining the freshmen.

Pledge Day—November 26, 1921

We are back again and hard at work, but we miss our seniors. Helen MacIntyre, '24, is teaching in Maine this winter. We hope to have her with us again next year.

We had our fall house party at the summer home of one of the girls at Kingston the week-end before college opened. As we were very near Plymouth, we visited "Ye Olde Towne." Several of our alumnæ were with us and we had much to talk about. Margaret Sale, our delegate at convention, told us all about her trip and the wonderful Pi Phis from all over the country that she met. It made us feel proud to be Pi Phis and filled us with enthusiasm for the coming year.

Our freshman class this year is splendid. In fact the little, shy freshman seems to have disappeared and in her place is an eager, vital, young woman who enters into college activities with much energy.

We have a new suite of rooms and are busy getting them in order. Three of our girls live at the rooms and there will probably be two more. Our party for prospective members comes October 22 and Pledge Day November 26. This is a change from last year's second semester pledging and demands more concentrated work.

We are planning a rummage sale and also a tea for our mothers. The loving cup, which is given by the alumnæ to the sophomore with the highest scholastic standing, is awarded this year to Evelyn Paine, '23. We are going to have a little social time at the presentation of the cup.

There have been several college socials to make the freshmen feel at home, a Y. M.-Y. W. joint social, an athletic association hike, a Panhellenic and inter-collegiate community service association tea, as well as the Γ Δ (the college all girls' society) initiation.

Many of our girls are active in college affairs. Margaret Sale, '22, is president of Y. W.; Hazel Wheeler, '22, is one of the librarians. Eleanor March, '23, is Panhellenic secretary. Isabel Corey, '24, was chairman of the committee on $\Gamma \Delta$ initiation. Esther Nichols, '24, sings in the college choir. Marion Vaughan, '24, is vice-president of the dramatic club. She, also, has been nominated with Helen Cole, '24, for class treasurer. Elizabeth Hemeon, '24, has been nominated for class secretary. Evelyn Paine, '23, has been elected class secretary.

Pledge Day—September 26, 1921

It was encouraging to be able to settle in our completed chapter-house when we returned to college on September 14, instead of in half of it as we did last fall. A new system of campaigning for members was passed by Panhellenic last year, so every Pi Phi's best efforts were demanded to make a success of each of the eight parties during the first week of college. We are proud to introduce our fifteen new pledges: Clarabel Hord, '23; Helen Agan, Maud Cabell, Mildred Capron, Dorothy Campbell, Ada Edwards, Marjorie Greene, Marjorie Manwarren, Leda Mae Metzger, Frances Ives, Charlotte Merwin, Elizabeth Swinton, Edra Russell, Elizabeth Zurfeih, and Margaret Shertzer, all of the class of 1925. One pledge's mother was a member of New York A, and three have $\Pi \Phi$ sisters, all members of New York A chapter. The freshmen are working with us enthusiastically and we entertained them at an informal dance on October 1. Our alumnae have been very energetic and helpful.

We regret that Pearl Metzger, '23, is not with us this semester, but sincerely hope that she will return to us in January. Gladys Thompson, '23, did not return this year. Finette Edwards, '23, is doing journalistic work in the city and Norma Quiri, '22, is attending business college, so they are inactive. We gladly welcome back Dorothy Marks and Harriet Merwin, who will finish their courses this year.

We are well represented on both the small and large boards of Women's league, the student governing body, and the Y. W. C. A. Lillian Brown, '22, Harriet Merwin, '22, and Dorothy Alvord, '22, are responsible members of the Daily Orange staff, and Irma Porter, '23, and Evelyn Van Alstyne, '24, have already made the first cuts in the try-outs. Anne Hawkins, '23, is on the committee for organizing the freshman women.

The middy party, big sister party, and Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. reception gave opportunities for the freshmen to get acquainted and get started. Welthy Honsinger, '01, will be here to speak at the Y. W. C. A. recognition banquet the latter part of this month.

This opening season is such a busy time, full of try-outs and appointments! A drive for $60,000 toward the university debt is being opened this week among the students and two Pi Phis are squad captains and many more are lieutenants. College spirit, backed by fraternity spirit is prevalent everywhere.

Mildred E. Caskey, 251 Crescent Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

We have just issued victorious from a strenuous membership campaign, having won seven remarkable girls: Ruth Herzig of the class of '24, and Eleanor Griswold, Gladys Jackson, Ruth Koehl, Beatrice Mattison, Ruth Moir, and Ethel Niebrugge, all of the class of '25. This year, for the first time, our local Panhellenic organization tried the system of preferential bidding, which seems to have come to stay.

St. Lawrence is a much larger college than it has ever been before. The economics, chemistry, philosophy, and foreign language departments have been extended with the aid of four new professors. New classrooms have been added to the college buildings, and the woman's forum, an organization of all the women students, has helped to redecorate the rest room in Richardson Hall. The freshman class greatly exceeds in number the entering class of last year.

Although college has been in session less than a month, we have had a great deal to occupy our attention. St. Lawrence is fortunate in having among its graduates the noted writer, Irving Bacheller, who recently presented to the college the original manuscript of Eben Holden, the book which first established his fame. Pan Pasia, a local group, has been installed as Σ H Chapter of K Δ . We of New York Γ seized the opportunity offered by entertaining the new chapter at a tea. The annual reception given by the junior class to the freshmen proved unusually successful.

In the latest elections on the hill, our chapter was well represented. Evelyn Dahlstrom, '22, is president of Woman's Forum, and is also chairman of the student government council. Pauline Smith, '22, is president of the local Panhellenic organization. Ruth Jones, because of high standing, has been elected to membership in the Gaines literature club. Dorothy Bullen, '23, is vice-president of Thelomathesian, an organization of the entire student body, and is also vice-president of the mathematics club. Alice White, '24, is treasurer of the mathematics club. Even our little pledge, Beatrice Mattison, '25, is secretary of the freshman class.

Our own Π Φ house has not been neglected in the rush of college affairs. Now that the roof has been repaired, it is going to have two coats of paint. The hall has been papered, and, best of all, one of the living-rooms has been completely refurnished. By way of celebration, we started the year with a cooky-shine at which cookies and a large cake, made in the arrow-shaped tins which our girls brought back from convention, played an important part.

Mrs. Cruikshank, our chaperon and patroness, is with us again this year, and under her wise guidance, we are anticipating, cheerfully and expectantly, the next eight months.

Pledge Day—October 15, 1921

Saturday, October 15, marked the close of a most successful season. Our eleven pledges are girls of whom we are all more than proud. They prove our old doctrine of "variety of types," for each girl is distinctly individual. They are as follows: Dorothy Churchill Barck, graduate, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Marian Peters, '24, Farmingdale, L. I.; Evelyn Alice Ihring, '23, 261 Hancock St., Brooklyn, N. Y.; Ruth Lucile Barber, '24, Wayland, N. Y.; Starr Antoinette Bassett, '25, Morton, N. Y.; Helen Brownell Covell, '25, 109 Fayette St., Ithaca, N. Y.; Elizabeth Cramer, '25, Ward, West Va.; Eleanor Freeman Gage, '25, Clearwater, Fla.; Virginia Lee Maxwell, '25, Buckhannon, W. Va.; Lucile Marian Rathbun, '25, 309 N. George St., Rome, N. Y.; Anne Madelyn Wilson, '25, 824 Van Buren St., Wilmington, Del.

Pledge day also marked our expansion nationally. A few years ago we were almost strictly New York State but now New York Δ is represented in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Florida, and Michigan.

We are fortunate in having with us Dorothy Klock of Florida Δ , who has been transferred from John B. Stetson University.

Evelyn Richmond, '22, was last spring elected to both Φ B K and Mortar Board, an unusual combination of honors. One of our pledges, Dorothy Barck, was the only girl elected to the Vassar chapter of Φ B K in her junior year.

Cornell's interest is now centered in the inauguration of President Farrand, which will take place on Thursday, October 20. Alice Street New York Δ , '19, secretary of the Federation of University Women, is to be on the platform.

The chapter has been more enthusiastic this year than ever and with our new pledges to spur us on, we have great hopes for a most encouraging year.

Alice Schrack, '24, Coatesville, Pa.

College opened this year with many new faces and changes in management. We have a new president and two new deans. Dr. Frank Adyelotte comes to us from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology as our new president, and we all are very proud of him. Raymond Walters from Lehigh University becomes dean of men, and Miss Ethel Brewster, formerly of our own Greek and Latin department becomes dean of women. The inauguration of our president will take place on Founders' Day, October 22, and great plans are being made for this event, which is being anxiously anticipated by all students and alumni.

There have been a number of changes in the exterior of Swarthmore, too. In June the class of '96, presented to us as its twenty-fifth anniversary present, a magnificent iron fence and gateway inclosing our athletic field. Another gift which we greatly appreciated was a fine concrete road, the gift of an anonymous friend. This summer the $\Phi K \Psi$ chapter built an attractive lodge, having the honor of being the first fraternity to construct a building on the campus.

Our delegates from convention gave us a most inspiring report and made us see how wonderful convention really is. Then too, eight of our girls attended convention, so our chapter is especially fortunate in having all these people to bring the news and spirit of it to us.

In the chapter this year we have instituted a calling committee to call on the wives of our faculty members.

At the first alumnae meeting of the year Marion Baker told of her interesting visit this summer to one of the two little French orphans whom the alumnae club supports. During the meeting the members hemmed towels and napkins which are to be sent to the Settlement School for Christmas.

Our chapter came back to college with a spirit of enthusiasm and a determination to make Pennsylvania B maintain and, if possible, raise its standards this year. We surely miss the four of our undergraduates who did not return; but our initiates have strengthened us both in numbers and in spirit. We recently bid two other splendid girls: Alice Ruhl, '24, and Carolyn Hunt, '24, daughter of the president of the university.

The unusually heavy enrollment at Bucknell this year has increased the demand for new dormitories. However, a large addition to the chemical laboratory has been completed, a new engineering building is being constructed, and we hope that the dormitories will soon be built. The freshman class seems very promising; and although Panhellenic has not yet decided whether there will be an earlier bid day, we are losing no time in getting acquainted with the new girls.

The reports of the delegate and visitors to convention were inspiring and helpful, and made us all hope that we may be able to attend convention some day, ourselves.

Π B Φ is well represented in college activities this year. Mary Sholl, '22, is assistant editor of the Bucknellian. Helen Kitlowski and Alice Ruhl are members of Frill and Frown, the girl's dramatic society. Margaret Smail, '23, is vice-president of the junior girls, president of C. E. A., the interfraternity club, and is on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, and the L'Agenda staff. Dorothy Sholl, '23, is assistant business manager of the L'Agenda. Lillian Edmunds is secretary of the sophomore class. Mary Sholl, Katherine Owens, and Grayce Peterson received numerals in basketball, and many of the girls are interested in athletics.

The latest addition to our suite, and one we enjoy very much, is a fine new victrola. The money for it was raised partly by the active chapter and partly by contributions from our alumnæ.

Hundreds of old Bucknellians were here over the week-end for the annual alumni day, which was the occasion of one of our biggest football games this year, with Lafayette. We were more than glad to have many of our own alumnæ back, for they made us realize anew the value of friendships formed in old Π B Φ.

With the opening of college, Pi Phi were all back except our last year's graduates and two others whom we miss very much. However, Pennsylvania Γ is starting the year with twenty girls in the chapter. One of the first things we did was to pledge Lulu Howard, a senior. Our membership campaign does not come until the second semester, so in the meantime we are just getting acquainted with the freshmen.

We have already given a successful tea to the wives of the faculty, our alumnæ, our patronesses and the Panhellenic council. We have the same fraternity room as last year, but it is furnished even more attractively with our piano and our new mahogany table, a gift from our alumnæ.

This year, Pennsylvania Γ has decided to keep in the rooms a box for the Settlement School fund, to which each girl is to contribute.

Dickinson began the football season this fall very successfully by gaining a victory of 45-0 over Juniata College. That was followed the next week by a defeat from Lafayette College of 27-0. However, we are not a bit discouraged and we are hoping for many more victories.

We are making a special drive for scholarship this year. Our alumnae have offered a beautiful silver cup to the girl's fraternity making the highest average and all Pi Phis are working to win the cup.

There is a new women's local fraternity at Dickinson, Z H Φ, making four women's fraternities here.

We have already had several interesting letters from our new province president, Miss Woodward, and we are anticipating a visit from her soon.

Now that the summer holiday is over, Pennsylvania Δ is full of enthusiasm for the success of the coming year. Owing to the reorganization of the School of Education many courses were discontinued, causing many students to fail to return. Thus we have lost several active members.

In accordance with the new plan of the local Panhellenic there is to be no membership campaigning until second semester. Normal friendships are to be formed among the girls.

Our girls have entered into the spirit of university work. Bertha Prichard, '23, is society editor of the Owl, and on the junior class cabinet. Marion Reagan, '22, is college manager of the Owl. Mary Brautigam is on the Y. W. C. A. membership and finance committee. Betty Taylor is on the social committee for the junior class.

On October 6, the women's athletic association and the women's self-government association gave a reception at Heinz House to introduce Mrs. Bowman to the students. We were delighted to meet the wife of our new chancellor.

We have greatly enjoyed all news of convention and have received great inspiration from it.

The members of Ohio A have several reasons for being unusually glad to be back this year. Ohio University has a new president, whom we all admire tremendously and with whom we wish to cooperate in making a bigger and better school. As an organization, we feel near to Dr. Bryan because one of his daughters and a daughter-in-law are Pi Phis. Then too, Mrs. Bryan has accepted our invitation to become one of our patronesses.

This year we have the largest enrollment in the history of the university. Membership campaigning was more of a problem than usual, but we feel that we have chosen wisely and well, and are very glad to say that we have fourteen charming pledges. Three of our patronesses gave a delightful luncheon honoring Mrs. Bryan and the new pledges on October 1.

Helen Chew, '21, is teaching at the Settlement School this year. Josephine Wuebben, another member of the class of '21, has been granted a scholarship and is working for her Master's degree at Ohio State University.

Since hearing our delegate's report of convention we are all filled with enthusiasm for doing our very best for $\Pi B \Phi$.

This has been a very busy summer and fall for Ohio B. The membership campaign now over, we are beginning to realize our dreams for a $\Pi \Phi$ house. Last spring before the close of college the campaign for a $\Pi \Phi$ house was started. The alumnae and the active Pi Phis had joint meetings and it was suggested that the alumnae buy the house, providing the active girls would furnish it. This suggestion was readily received and the active members of Ohio B with the pledges began to work. The plan followed was that each alumna give one hundred dollars, due in four payments. The active chapter voted that each girl give twenty-five dollars, payable at the beginning of the fall semester. Many schemes for making this amount were devised by the girls, some working and others coaxing father.

Not being able to find a house that was suitable for a chapter as large as ours, we rented an apartment and are continuing to work for our goal.

Last spring Christine Yerges, '23, and Christine Tracy, '23, were elected to Chimes, junior honorary organization, and Mary Elberfeld, '22, was elected to Mortar Board, senior honorary organization. Mary Elberfeld, '22, has just been elected vice-president of the senior class.

On the campus all eyes are turned toward the stadium and the new woman's building. It is hard for the students to realize that these buildings so long sought for are under way and that each day they are nearer completion.

The Pi Phis have had a most successful membership campaign. We have fifteen fine girls who are already showing their $\Pi \Phi$ spirit by entering campus activities.

With twenty-three active members we enthusiastically entered the membership campaign this fall. As we needed only a few new girls to reinforce our ranks, we concentrated on quality not quantity. Now we have nine splendid pledges, girls of whom we are proud and who each day are proving themselves to be more worthy of wearing a $\Pi \Phi$ arrow.

Our house has just been painted and looks better than it has since we have lived here. We have made new draperies and cushions for the living-rooms and have bought a new table and chairs for the dining-room. Now we have room for three of our pledges to come to the house for their meals. Since we have an efficient house manager and a capable table manager, everything is running smoothly.

Our alumnae have helped us a great deal this year. They gave a dinner dance for the active members and a number of new girls during the second week of the semester. They were quite active during the campaign for members and they are now working for other interests of the fraternity.

Our first $\Pi \Phi$ daughter was born on September 24 to Dr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Ambler (Helen Mary Carle). We are very proud of Mary Elizabeth. Dr. Ambler is an instructor in West Virginia and a member of the ΣN fraternity.

West Virginia's campus is being improved in many ways this year. Preliminary work on what will some day be a gigantic concrete stadium is practically done. The site of the bowl is directly across the street from our house. A law building site is being cleared and plans for a new chemistry building have been made.

The curriculum is also greatly improved by the addition of physical education and journalism. The department of public speaking is coming to the front through the influence of the dramatic club. A "Little Theater" for West Virginia is one of the cherished hopes of its members.

The Athenæum, our student publication, is a semi-weekly this year and is published under the direction of the department of journalism.

$T \Delta \Theta$, a local fraternity, is petitioning $A T \Omega$ for a national charter. $\Delta \Sigma \Sigma$ and $A \Theta Z$ are petitioning $\Delta \Gamma$ and $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ respectively. The $A \Theta Z$ girls have a house this year but $\Delta \Sigma \Sigma$ has been unable to obtain one on account of the scarcity of houses.

MARYLAND ALPHA—GOUCHER COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October 19, 1921

On October 1, Goucher opened what promises to be the most important year of her history. Every corner of the college is pervaded with the spirit of "Four-two-one," Goucher's slogan in the campaign just launched for six million dollars. This is the amount needed to move the college from its crowded conditions in Baltimore to a wonderful new campus of four hundred and twenty-one acres, seven miles out of the city, at Towson.

Maryland A is looking forward to an eventful and successful year also, having made a good start under auspicious circumstances. When we returned this fall we were overjoyed to find that in our absence the Baltimore alumnae club had been playing fairy godmother and had entirely redecorated our rooms. The result is amazing. The rooms, which last year had been, though cozy, but a cellar, have been transformed into a most attractive apartment, artistic in every detail. If for no other reason, we are anxious to make this a record year to show our alumnae our appreciation of all that they have done for us.

The alumnae advisory board began activity very early and has met with the active chapter and the scholarship committee to discuss our problems and make plans for the year.

Although we lost some very strong girls in our seniors and those who have left for other colleges, we are very fortunate in having three fine new transfers, Margaret Frey, California I, Katherine Aljoe and Cleo White both Pennsylvania A. Our chapter is well represented in all phases of college activities, student government, athletics, and dramatics. Our president, Mary Louise Bird, has been elected one of the two delegates who are to represent Goucher at the disarmament conference at Vassar.

This year for the first time local Panhellenic instituted the system of preferential bidding which seems to be working out very satisfactorily. We had a busy but sane ten day season which reached its climax in a dinner and dance at Sunset Knoll, the home of an alumna, Mrs. J. W. Tottle. On October 19, at the home of Evelyn Krum, we pledged: Elizabeth Fertig, Betty Gardener, Rachel Payne, Dorothy Rogers, Gerarda Schenk, Caroline Stone, Dorothy Wicks, Alberta Williams and Anna Wogan. After the ceremony we had a banquet at the Hotel Stafford. We are very happy to have such fine pledges and hope that every chapter will be as fortunate.

Pledge Day—Matriculation Day, 1921

Now that college is functioning again after a long, happy holiday, we are rapidly getting back into the familiar swing of university life, and feel quite as if the even tenor of our ways had never been broken.

The first two weeks of college were very busy because, although the local Panhellenic set matriculation day as pledge day, $\Pi B \Phi$ and three other women's fraternities who prefer a period of membership campaigning before sending invitations, set a common pledge day for themselves, October 16. By this arrangement the fraternities who are in favor of matriculation day pledging sent out their invitations on that day, while those who wanted an opportunity to entertain prospective members, obtained it.

All of our ten invitations have been accepted. Columbia A is particularly fortunate in having among the freshmen this year four "little sisters" and a "little cousin." On October 21, we will pledge at our formal ceremony: Pauline Ayres, Margaret Bowie, Ruth Foster, Juliette Hanford, Gladys Hughs, Blanche Ludlow, Nell Millsbaugh, Jean Stophlet, Anna Waring, Katherine Wrenn.

The first party this fall was the usual Panhellenic open house, held on matriculation day. This was followed by several teas, one of which was given by the wife of one of our deans, a formal dance, and a final luncheon. The last, which was given by the alumnæ, was one of the nicest parties we have ever been able to offer our freshmen. It was progressive, in four courses, each at the home of an alumna. Several chapter girls were stationed at each house and the freshmen were brought to them in turn. The girls were particularly interested in the second course, for Mrs. Reinsch, the hostess, had Chinese food served in a most attractive Oriental fashion by two Chinamen in their gorgeous national dress.

All our last year's graduates have been to see the chapter this fall. Ethel Johnson, whose home is in Philadelphia, has been visiting one of the active girls, while Martha Waring and Catherine Tonge live in Washington. The latter is running an attractive lunchroom in one of the college buildings, for the use of the students and professors, in addition to her work as public school teacher. Some of the Pi Phis carry on the work during the part of the day when she is unable to be there. What we should do without the delicious things to eat we get at the "Rabbit Hole" we can't imagine.

Helen Faris Meyers, who was married last June, has returned to college and intends to continue her work for a degree. Unfortunately however, several of last year's initiates are not with us this year. Vivian Bradley is at Berkeley, Ethlyn Bradley is at Southern Methodist University, and Beatrice Mason has returned to Ann Arbor, where she spent her freshman year.

With most of our chapter back and in good working order, and with ten of the finest pledges that could be imagined, we are anticipating a most successful year.

INITIATES

Marion Gilmer, '24, 102 N. Edgworth St., Greensboro, N. C.

Agnes Young, '24, 840 Park Ave., Hot Springs, Ark.

With the greatest hopes and the greatest anticipations, the members of Virginia A returned for the beginning of a new year. Of course, the very first thing we did was to ask all about convention, and to rush madly to Mary Mable Richardson's room to see the new acquisition to our family, the Balfour Cup. And when we had all looked at it, standing in its slender grace and inscribed with its noble inscription, we left her room a little quieter and overcome by the responsibility and duties its ownership entailed. We are determined to try, at least, to live up to the standards it sets for us.

The first Saturday after we returned, we initiated the sophomores we had pledged the previous year. Only two of our girls failed to return, Katherine Smith and Marion Schwartz, and we hope that even now Marion may be able to come back after Christmas. Initiation was particularly lovely, improved as it was by suggestions from convention. When initiation was over, we celebrated with a huge cooky-shine. Of course, the Balfour Cup graced the feast. One of the nicest things about it all was the fact that we had five of our alumnae with us.

This year, Panhellenic instituted a new custom, to see if a better spirit of democracy and a more intimate acquaintance with the whole freshman class could not be brought about. To accomplish this end, each of the fraternities in the Pines held open house for the freshmen on Saturday, October 8, from four to six. As there were so many girls to visit, it was managed by a relay system. About twenty girls stayed in each house ten minutes, at the end of which time a whistle was blown and another twenty girls took their place. In this way the chapters could be met as a whole. The question of fraternities was as usual a closed topic. The plan worked most successfully, and I believe the freshmen enjoyed it thoroughly, although it was a most strenuous performance for the fraternity girls.

Saturday, October 15, was advanced standing pledge day at Randolph-Macon. Virginia A bid and pledged three wonderful girls: Polly Sumter, '24; Barbara King, '24; and Katherine Fulghum, '24. Polly had been pledged $\Pi \Phi$ with the present juniors of the chapter, but did not return her sophomore year and so her pledge expired. We were more than delighted to have her again. Barbara is a little daughter and Katherine—well, they're both just $\Pi \Phi$ style! We introduced Barbara and Katherine to the cooky-shine.

Randolph-Macon during the summer acquired a lovely new coat of paint that has improved its appearance immensely. Inside, many transformations have taken place that make us even more proud of our Alma Mater.

We are very glad that this year two of the new members of the faculty are Kappa Kappa Gammas, Dr. M. E. N. Fraser, and Miss Annie C. Duncan. Dr. Fraser is head of the department of Romance languages, and Miss Duncan is an instructor in biology.

We are beginning the year with high hopes of enlarging our chapter house. We are planning to add a dining-room and sun parlor very soon, if the attempt will not place us too deeply in debt. We feel, however, that this is the time to make the much needed addition and we are counting on our alumnae rendering material assistance.

VIRGINIA BETA—HOLLINS COLLEGE

Pledge Day—Indefinite

Although college has been in session for four weeks, we have been so busy getting settled and becoming acquainted with new girls that time has passed quickly. Aside from classes, there are so many student activities of interest at Hollins that one is kept busy. Basketball and hockey are in full swing, and Pi Phis are showing their usual interest in athletics.

Bernard Shaw's Major Barbara, the senior play, which is to be given within a week, includes four Pi Phis in its cast of characters, so we are anticipating it with unusual interest. The Hollins dramatic association has inaugurated a plan whereby only four plays are given during the year, in order that these may be highly finished products. This one is to be the first of the series. The dramatic board is composed of nine members, two of whom are Pi Phis.

As was seen in the spring elections, $\Pi B \Phi$ is represented in all phases of college life, and we are especially proud of our seniors. Florence Brown, our president, who attended the Y. W. C. A. Conference at Blue Ridge this summer as the undergraduate representative of Hollins, was elected out of the student representatives from all the colleges of the South to be their national student representative.

Although Virginia B has only thirteen members this year, as compared to twenty-eight last year, we are not at all discouraged, and are anticipating making a number of good pledges. With Constance Echols at the head of Panhellenic, thus far affairs have progressed with our usual feeling of interfraternity good will.

We were much interested in the report of convention, and with this for an inspiration, we hope to make a record year in the history of Virginia B.

FLORIDA ALPHA—JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—October 29, 1921

After a pleasant vacation spent in various sections of our country, ten of our members have returned to the university with a strong determination to make this year count for great things in $\Pi B \Phi$ and in Stetson University. Our membership seems somewhat depleted after the unusually large chapter of last year, but those of us who have returned are doubling our effort for a successful year.

Interfraternity relations are unusually pleasant in the college; and $\Pi B \Phi$ is doing her part to maintain that state of affairs.

We are making plans for our annual progressive dinner, the first important social event of each year; and everyone is engaged in university activities.

Dr. D. J. Blocker, one of our most popular professors, has accepted a position in William and Mary College. His chair at Stetson has been filled by Mr. Harry Garwood, a former Stetson student.

Florida A is rejoicing daily over the coming installation of Florida B. We feel that Florida Pi Phi will realize an enlarged national spirit from the additional strength that Florida B will give to $\Pi B \Phi$ in the state. We are anxious that other chapters may enter our southern states.

At last we are the proud and happy wearers of the golden arrow of $\Pi B \Phi$. The telegraph wires rapidly spread the news which started from The Inn, Charlevoix, Michigan, July, 1921. So Florida B has since September 14 been anxiously awaiting the arrival of an installing officer, who came October 11. Miss Lulu Clark, Grand Secretary, our charming installing officer, was aided by the following: Bessie Dew and Marguerite Straw, formerly students of Stetson University, and members of Florida A chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$; Juanita Bass of Louisiana A; Lady Lois Townsend, Dorothy Douglas, Emma Jane Rowe, Edith Harte, and Jane Abbot of Florida A.

Florida B is certainly striving to make everything it does worth while. As the baby chapter we realize we have to be taught many things, but we are doing our best to learn.

The banquet following the initiation, October 14, was a happy event; throughout the evening the hall rang with songs and cheers. The hearts of all members of Florida B were completely filled with happiness upon hearing read the telegrams and letters of greeting from chapters of $\Pi B \Phi$ and national officers.

At the first real social gathering of the Florida Betas, Francis Shelley, '21, tactfully announced her engagement to Clarence Roy Bennett. We all marvelled at how she was able to keep this secret during all her outbursts of happiness. Also, Lulu H. Clark has promised to make a return visit to Florida B. We shall wish for a visit from her soon again.

As one of our "Piffies" said,
The reason I wanted Pi Beta Phi,

DELTA PROVINCE

MICHIGAN ALPHA—HILLSDALE COLLEGE

Pledge Day—January 30, 1922

Hillsdale College has begun what we all hope will be a successful year. We again have President Mauck with us, and that in itself is enough to make everyone work and hope for the very best. Mrs. Elma Root Van Buskirk, our dean of women last year, resigned in June, but was urged to reconsider, and we have her with us again.

The first week of college was devoted to the Y. W. C. A., none of the fraternity women wearing their badges. In that week came the annual watermelon feed and the president's reception, with vesper services on Sunday. At all of these functions each freshman girl was "big-sistered" by an upperclassman. Monday of the second week our two women's fraternities, $K K \Gamma$ and $\Pi B \Phi$ joined in giving a picnic at Mount Zion for all of the college women. They did not know under whose auspices the picnic was given. Everyone had a wonderful time, roasting marshmallows, eating sandwiches, playing games, and singing college songs.

Michigan A has fifteen of its former members back, and four upperclass pledges: Myrtle Merritt, '24; Alice Gleason, '23; Dorothy Cooke, '23; and Alice Hulce, '24. We are having second semester pledging for new girls and are succeeding wonderfully well so far, for we are all getting acquainted in a natural and easy manner. Each women's fraternity is allowed two campaign parties, one formal and one informal, but none of them is to take place until after Thanksgiving.

This year Michigan A lives at 230 West Street. We are all in love with our new home, and much more than that with our chaperon, Mrs. May Copeland Drybread, one of the charter members of Michigan A. In her honor we gave a very enjoyable tea this fall. Our house is much more attractive than last year, and we are all endeavoring to do our share to keep it so.

We are active on the campus. In the senior play, A Pair of Sixes, Ruth Miller, Ruth Searles, and Eleanor Augur have leading parts. Miriam McNaughton is president of the glee club and Ruth Searles is business manager.

Members of $\Pi \Phi$ are officers in both of the literary societies and in the sophomore class, as well as on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet and in the local honor fraternity, $E \Delta A$.

INITIATES

Jessie Beckham, 2436 Fulton St., Toledo, Ohio

Michigan B has just completed a very successful membership campaign, resulting in seven new wonderful girls: Katherine Ainsworth, Battle Creek, Mich.; Helen Buster, Maude Talcott, Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Grace Hall, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Marion McLean, Detroit, Mich.; Helen Schumacher, Marysville, Kan.; Francis Stryker, Summit, N. J. We gave the preferential bidding system another trial this year but are not at all satisfied.

Our house was redecorated this summer and looks very attractive. We have new dining-room chairs to match our tables, which were new last year. Three of our girls who did not return for college work this year, but were here for membership campaign, gave us a beautiful table lamp for our living-room.

The active campaign is about to begin for the first five hundred thousand dollars for the women's building in the university. As soon as this has been raised the university is going to give us a site for the building.

Everyone came back this year with a true $\Pi \Phi$ spirit of coöperation and enthusiasm and we are now well started on a new year of college and fraternity life.

INDIANA ALPHA—FRANKLIN COLLEGE

Pledge Day—September 24, 1921

This college year starts with the promise of untold success and happiness for the girls of Indiana A. There are fourteen of us, with enough enthusiasm for fifty! We are "pulling together" with a determination to win the best in everything. The names of our pledges prove beyond a doubt the best has already been gained in one respect. It is with a feeling of pride that we announce the pledging of Mary Becker, Marion Brown, Edith Calender, Janice Jopling, Mary Covert, Ethel Ramseyer, Elizabeth Vial, Jeroline Powell, Helene Williams, and Helen Taylor. Each active member seemed to realize perfectly her share of the responsibility. The spirit of coöperation was wonderful, and as a result we have ten splendid pledges. This was an entirely new experience for us and every girl enjoyed it to the utmost.

We have every reason to expect many things from our freshmen, for they, as well as the active girls, are entering all student activities.

This year our cooky-shine was even a more delightful affair than usual. Then, after open house, we had a "slumberless party" at the home of one of our charming patronesses. What fun we did have!

We are glad to welcome back Bethel Webb, who was in Pomona College last year, and Clarine Kelly, who was unable to be with us on account of illness during the past year. On the other hand, we regret the absence of Ellen Burns and Ruby Gibson.

We keenly feel the loss of an active girl near and dear to us, Helen Huckleberry, who died July 1, 1921. Miss Huckleberry was Dean Sherwood's secretary last year. Due to her charming personality and her prominence in college activities a memorial fund of two thousand dollars has been proposed by Dr. H. N. Sherwood, Dean of Franklin College.

We are proud of the following eleven freshmen whose pledging closed a very successful membership campaign: Amy Carr, Monticello, Ind.; Evelyn Ferris, Indianapolis, Ind.; Greta Gifford, Kendallville, Ind.; Lucille Hughes, Bloomington, Ind.; Gladys Keeling, Waldron, Ind.; Norma Maurer, Boonville, Ind.; Katherine Shaw, Indianapolis, Ind.; Martha Anne Shively, Peru, Ind.; Dorothy Spanagel, Seymour, Ind.; Elsie Stephens, New Harmony, Ind.; Lela West, Evansville, Ind.

Doris Geile, '21, was elected to Φ B K last spring. We are well represented on the Indiana Daily Student staff this year. Cecile DeVors, '23, is a copy editor and Sarah Cogshall, '23, is a feature writer. Helen Ward, '24, is a charter member of Σ Δ Φ , an honorary dramatic society. Dorothy Arndt, '24, won the Norton-Mavor Latin prize which is awarded to a freshman Latin student upon special examination. Sarah Cogshall, '23, Cecile DeVors, '23, and Mary Catherine Coll, ex-'23, have been pledged to Θ Σ Φ , an honorary journalistic fraternity. Rosalind Schu, '22, is the senior representative of organized women on the women's self government association council.

We are giving a Hallowe'en dance for our freshmen on October 21. The Bloomington alumnae club and the active chapter are launching a campaign for a new chapter house and we are hoping for some help from the alumnae who may return November 19 for Homecoming and the Indiana-Purdue football game. Our house is being managed under an alumnae advisory system this year.

We were very glad to initiate Hazel Miller and Edna Welton at the close of college so that they might attend convention.

Π Φ is anticipating a successful year both on the campus and within the fraternity.

Indiana B wishes every chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$ a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Butler College has opened with increased advantages for the students. This fall the women's fraternities have assumed the responsibility and privilege of chapter-houses.

$\Pi \Phi$, steadfastly supported by its alumnae, has been fortunate in being able to lease the R. F. Davidson property on the corner of Lowell and Whittier Place. It is a lovely place for a fraternity house, and we are proud to hang a neat $\Pi B \Phi$ shingle over the doorway. We feel that it will be an unlimited aid in deepening and strengthening, not only our fraternity life on the campus, but our life in the national organization, for it gives us an opportunity to be together more often. Already our Indiana Γ alumnae have organized and held a meeting in the house to plan for our future.

We held initiation at the chapter-house, October 17, and our last year's seniors provided a real cooky-shine for us in the evening, after which they gave a money shower for the house.

Our delegate to convention, and the fortunate girls who went with her, brought back such stirring messages, that we cannot help being inspired to do better in every way this college year.

After a late matriculation date, this fall, we began our fraternity life by pledging nine of the very finest freshmen. The names of the girls wearing the golden arrow heads are Helen Gandall, Madaline Byrkett, Rebecca Daugherty, Maurine Jacquith, Margaret Schoener, Donna McComas, Lucile Tyner, Indianapolis; Virginia Armstrong, Kokomo; and Mary Jane Cale, Poseyville.

Up to the present time we have one freshman, Donna McComas, accepted by the dramatic club, and four of our girls are taking part in the Panhellenic stunt for Butler Homecoming Day, October 22. Moreover this stunt is being directed by a $\Pi \Phi$, Laurel Cissna, '22. Two of our girls are on the junior committee planning a class stunt for the same day.

Just now Indiana Γ is planning for the Panhellenic convention here this month. We have been asked to give a musical program at the luncheon.

In fact, we are planning a very industrious year. With such helpful alumnae, a wise advisory board, and an Indiana Gamma alumna, Mrs. John Spiegle (Edith Rhodes), for province president, we should be able to do well.

INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—September 24, 1921

Vacation days with their joys being over, we are back at work at Purdue. The enrollment is approximately 3,000. We have a large number of girls in the university this year and our new building for Home Economics is now under construction.

We are happy to introduce to you the following nine pledges of whom we are exceedingly proud and who, we are certain will prove to be splendid $\Pi \Phi$ material: Dorothy Diggins, Kendallville, Ind.; Ruth Borden, Peru, Ind.; Katherine Smeltzley, Howe, Ind.; Catherine Wallace, Lafayette, Ind.; Areva VanHuss, Lebanon, Ind.; Lucille Hedden, Lawrenceville, Ill.; Edith Evans, Williamsport, Ind.; Helen Schuller, Indianapolis, Ind.; and Mirabell Goodin, Muncie, Ind.

Campus activities are just beginning. Class officers for the year have not as yet been elected. Most of our girls are taking part in the work of our women's literary societies. Home economics society has had its first meeting with Margaret Simminger, '24, the new president. The Y. W. C. A. cabinet has upon its list two members of $\Pi B \Phi$, Mildred Tingley, '24, and one of our pledges, Katherine Smeltzley, '24, the latter acting as music director. Mildred Tingley, '24, is also undergraduate field representative for the Y. W. C. A. at Purdue.

Last week we had a drive for Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., the goal being $4,000. Many students took an active part. The Y. W. C. A. campaign was successfully launched by the captains of two teams: "The Blues," under the leadership of Mildred Tingley, '24; and "The Reds," under the leadership of Gail Moss, '23.

Margaret Simminger, '24, and Mildred Tingley, '24, are two of the three coed editors for the Exponent, Purdue's daily paper.

Gail Moss, '23, has been elected president of the junior girls. The Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. are publishing a new weekly paper called the Y's Sun. Mildred Tingley, '24, is on the staff as associate editor.

Purdue has been very unfortunate in the loss of her president, Dr. Winthrop E. Stone, who fell to his death August 17, while mountain climbing in the Canadian Rockies. Out of respect to him and his family a three months' period of mourning is being observed. There are no social events being held until after October 17. On October 12 fitting memorial services will be held in honor of our late president, Dr. Stone, and of Professor Kenyon, also a faculty member of Purdue, who was called from our midst this summer.

We have already had one cooky-shine, held directly after the pledging services. All the pledges had been eagerly asking the meaning of a $\Pi \Phi$ cooky-shine, and they now agree that it was a jolly good time. We also entertained our pledges at a steak roast at "The Trail" and enjoyed the sport offered by the cooking of the meal over the open fire.

Though the year has just begun, and numerous opportunities are awaiting us, we feel certain that Indiana Δ has entered upon a successful and prosperous year. We hope to make the best possible use of our time, both in fraternity and university affairs.

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

INITIATES

Hermina Hallet, '22, Minneapolis, Minn.

With the opening of college the fraternities on the Minnesota campus have all entered upon a feverish membership campaign extending over a period of two weeks. Panhellenic allows thirteen parties, consisting of eight luncheons and five teas and into each party we attempt to inject the maximum amount of originality and enthusiasm. Some of our luncheons have carried out various color motifs while others have been appropriate to the season, as a football luncheon. Our butterfly tea, at which we were hostess to nearly forty freshmen, was followed by a circus and a Hallowe'en tea. The alumnae entertained for us at a formal tea given away from the house, and the series of parties was concluded by the annual black and white cabaret, followed by a five-day period of silence.

Local Panhellenic is proud to report that through its efforts, three more national fraternities have entered Minnesota. Since spring, X Ω , A X Ω and Σ K have colonized and formed splendid chapters, bringing the number of national fraternities on the campus to fifteen. At the suggestion of a visiting grand officer, Panhellenic this year is going to make a determined effort to devise some new system for our membership campaign, endeavoring to make it shorter, less feverish, and less detrimental to the other college activities of the fraternity girls and the freshmen. Under the supervision of Panhellenic we shall continue our "All-University" teas given by the various fraternities in rotation.

On November 10, the active and alumnae chapters will unite in giving our annual bazaar. The resident alumnae have been divided into small groups which meet regularly once a week and spend the day sewing for the bazaar, while the active chapter girls each contribute articles made during the summer. In addition the active chapter takes charge of the sale of tickets and makes arrangements for the dance in the evening.

The opening three days of the first quarter were given over to a campaign for subscriptions to the Minnesota Daily. Each fraternity was represented by a team and there was keen competition for the two loving cups offered. The $\Pi \Phi$ team was forced to second place, losing by a margin of \$3.00, while Julia Patty, our captain, won the cup offered to the individual turning in the largest number of subscriptions.

Homecoming week, with its open house, parade and game with Iowa, is a coming event of interest on the campus.

WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Pledge Day—October 3

Our last year came to a happy conclusion, with three girls chosen for Mortar Board: Dorothy Ware, Margaret Thomas, and Esther Haven. Hazel Wright was awarded Final Emblem, an honor given to only two senior girls, for athletics, scholarship, and womanliness. Aline Morton was chosen for $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, honorary art fraternity, and was elected treasurer. Esther Haven has just been made a member of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, honorary journalistic society. This year promises to be equally successful. We started well by getting eighteen very strong pledges. One of them, Pauline Newell, has been made president of sophomore commission.

We campaigned under a new system this fall, and found it very satisfactory. Instead of having all our membership campaign functions the first week-end of college, we had only one function in the beginning and three more a week later, sending invitations for the later functions after the first had taken place. This made pledging come more than a week after registration, which is better than previous systems we have had.

We are affiliating three transfers who were here last year and returned again this year: Lucile Curtis from Illinois E, Persis Perkins from Maryland A, and Dorothy Oechsner from Louisiana A. All three of them are living in the house.

Several Pi Phis are active in the drive for funds for the Union Memorial Building. One half million has already been raised, and we are now working on the second half.

We are all looking forward now to Homecoming, when we are expecting many of the girls to come back. Plans are on foot for decorating the house, as prizes are given for the best exterior decorations.

JESSIE MORTON.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October 10, 1921

Fifteen enthusiastic members of Wisconsin B returned to Beloit September 28, prepared for a prosperous year. Beloit tried for the first time the plan of having the first week of college "big sister" week, and no fraternity pins were worn until October 3. We had a very successful week in which every "big sister" devoted herself to her freshman "little sister" and tried to make her first week at college as pleasant as possible. At the close of the week the upper-classmen all took their "little sisters" to an all-girl dance, which was a great success and succeeded in getting old and new girls thoroughly acquainted.

The second week was devoted to the membership campaigns and Wisconsin B is proud to introduce our fourteen new pledges: Elizabeth Armeman, Ethel Barnes, Helen Cole, Catherine Corcoran, Dorothy Downs, Gertrude Heckar, Luan Hendee, Dora Kelley, Dorothy Miller, Alberta Peterson, Stella Rathbun, Margaret Richardson, Irene Roberts, and Marion Zilly.

We are very happy to have secured a new chapter-house which has most of the advantages of a fraternity house. It is a two-story home which we have furnished as attractively as possible. We can entertain and go here as often as we like. Last week we entertained for twenty girls from the K Γ Φ, women's fraternity of Carroll College, who are petitioning Π Φ and who wanted to see Pi Phi together in their home surroundings.

Our president, Mary Heald, has been inspiring us, by talks and pictures, with the national spirit of convention. These glimpses of convention help us and make us proud to realize that we are a part of that nation-wide group of women who are members of Π Β Φ.

ILLINOIS BETA—LOMBARD COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October 7, 1921

College opened September 13 with the largest freshman enrollment Lombard has ever had. We had three weeks of membership campaigning during which we gave a cooky-shine, a breakfast, a picnic, a dance, and a dinner party. Saturday, September 24, being the only day allowed for alumnae entertaining, they gave a lunch at the home of Mrs. O. P. Mabee, a bridge in the afternoon at Mrs. Weatherbee's (Charlotte Tainter), where the first course of a progressive dinner was served followed by other courses in the homes of Mrs. Howard Knowles, Miss Miriam Webster, and Mrs. Webb Herlocker (Fann Porter).

On Friday, October 7, eight freshmen accepted Π Β Φ invitations and the next morning were pledged. They are: Alleyne Binnie, Macomb; Katherine Bullington, Henry; Marena Douglas, Greensville, Indiana; Audrey Frederick, Avon; Mary Hurff, Galesburg; Gwendolyn Parry, Lake Bluff; Dympna Richards, Orange, Mass.; and Frances Sargeant, Sydney, Ohio.

Work is progressing on the new Tompkins Science Hall and the stadium has been completed. Our first three football games have proved that Lombard has a splendid team, for it has defeated Palmer School of Chiropractic by a score of 102-0; Bradley, 58-0; and Monmouth College, 90-0.

Four of our chapter are members of the Campus Players and three have joined Α Φ Δ, an honorary oratorical fraternity. Bernece Graham is president of the house government and Charlotte McCarl social secretary. Amy Linderoth belongs to I E T, an honorary domestic science and chemical fraternity.

ILLINOIS DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October 1, 1921

September 21 found many upperclassmen back in college with almost as many new students ready for registration. This promises to be a successful year for Knox from every standpoint.

The week-end before the opening of college most of the active girls and some of the alumnae were back for the series of parties for prospective members. It was delightful, for it was our first "get-together" and regular cooky-shine after a three months' vacation.

On the first of October we pledged the following girls: Helen Bogue, Galesburg, Ill.; Kathryn Bradley, Peoria, Ill.; Margaret Driggs, Moline, Ill.; Mildred Fairbairn, Galesburg, Ill.; Eugenia Maxwell, Keokuk, Iowa; Isobel Mulholland, San Diego, Cal.; Katherine Noble, Galesburg, Ill.; Victoria Paul, Moline, Ill.; Virginia Paul, Moline, Ill.; Carmon Sandkey, Peoria, Ill.; Elizabeth Shaffer, Downers Grove, Ill.; Louise Sinclair, Galesburg, Ill.; Fayette Weinberg, Galesburg, Ill.

This fall in place of our annual Log City Day celebration commemorating the founding of Galesburg, the college held a program in the chapel in commemoration of the Lincoln-Douglas debate once held here. Interesting talks were given by Dr. Barton of Oak Park and Dr. Goodspeed of the University of Chicago.

The new men's fraternity houses are fast becoming a reality and we are still hoping that the girls may some day boast of fraternity homes, too.

Our delegate to convention has returned with news of a wonderful week spent at Charlevoix. She has given us several inspiring talks about the Pi Phis from elsewhere and what they are doing. We all feel that we have gained much through her experience.

AILEEN KELLY.

ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—September 21, 1921

This year we have had an unusual honor, in that Miss Onken was able to spend a few days with us on her return from the installation of a new chapter at North Dakota University. Our Grand President was with us at chapter meeting and I am sure everyone will realize what a help and inspiration her presence was to us all. It was a splendid opportunity for the initiates of last year to meet Miss Onken, and for the entire chapter to welcome back so charming an alumna of Illinois E . The freshmen were able to join her at luncheon on Tuesday and to meet her again informally in the late afternoon, and the active girls enjoyed dinner with her at the North Shore Hotel in Evanston.

We returned to matriculation pledging this fall, and all feel it was a great success. We wish to announce the pledging of nineteen new members who we feel are the finest type of college girls, and know will always be a credit to II B Φ. They are: Alice Anderson, Elizabeth Carter, Catherine Cheney, Anna Katherine Douglas, Hazel Drisske, Helen Finn, Mildred Kinney, Helen Nash, of Chicago; Helen Herman of Detroit; Ruth Kasten of Winnetka, Ill.; Audrey Longquist, Margaret Montgomery, Louise McDonald, Miriam Simons, Olive Waite, of Evanston; Florence Newport of Kenilworth, Ill.; Leslie Pope, Margaret Shippen, of Glenco, Ill.; and Minerva Sands of Kenyon, Minn. Our pledge banquet took place on Wednesday evening, and we were glad to be joined by so many alumnae on this festive occasion. Formal pledging took place one week from the following Tuesday.

Northwestern Homecoming was Saturday, October 15, and we entered a float in the university parade. As we are trying in every way for our house fund we felt that we could not have very elaborate decorations; instead we had a unique float covered with Northwestern Dailies and Purple Parrots, hoping thereby to aid the university publications. After the game we enjoyed having the alumnae join us for a cup of tea at the home of our chapter vice-president, Esther McDonald, '23.

Friday and Saturday, October 28 and 29, we helped our alumnae in a rummage sale in which we cleared $200 for our house fund.

We feel that the chapter is well represented in campus activities this year. Margaretta Fenn, '22, holds the highest woman's position, namely woman's league president, which makes her ex-officio vice-president of student council; we have two other representatives on this body, Esther McDonald and Adella Mitchell, '23, the latter being secretary and treasurer. We have five girls in Campus Players: Jean Burns, '24; Jessie Cook, '23; Marjorie Garvey, '23; Adelaide Banfield, '22; and Margaretta Fenn, '22. Jean Burns, '24, is also in Prentice Players. Jessie Cook, '23, was recently elected to the house of representatives. None of the athletic teams has been chosen as yet but the girls have been practicing enthusiastically for hockey, swimming, rifle practice and basketball. Esther McDonald is president of Elithini and many of the girls hold Y. W. C. A. offices.

The chapter was very much delighted to receive five pounds of candy from Doris Dickey, '23, who announced her engagement to Earle Morser.

We have been more than glad to welcome so many transfers to Northwestern this fall; we now have girls from Beloit, Butler, Florida A, Kansas A, and Columbia A.

Pledge Day—September 26, 1921

This fall has been the busiest season that Illinois Z has had in a number of years. Moving, decorating, and entertaining came all at once. New women in the university were ushered in state through halls of fresh paint and carpenter's tools. At the end of the first week we pledged ten fine girls whom we welcomed with full hearts but a very upset house.

The house is completed now and we have settled back to enjoy a happy and busy year in our new location, 1005 South Wright Street, across the street from the campus.

Our new pledges are: Catherine Connolly and Dorothy Whitney, Chicago, Ill.; Beatrice Stephenson, Bloomington, Ill.; Dorothy Stern and Harriet Herick, Champaign, Ill.; Vesta Duval, Aledo, Ill.; Fay Martin, Benton, Ill.; Mayotta Divilbiss, Collinsville, Ill.; Shirley Stevenson, Gilman, Ill.; and Mildred Ingram, Pine Bluff, Ark.

We are glad to have three transfers with us this year who are living at our annex: Helen Alice Robinson, '24, and Vivian Vent, '24, of Illinois H; and Ellen Olsen, '23, of Illinois B.

Our new location makes it possible for us to take a more active part in the campus life. We are all going out for activities as we never did before. Jeanne White, '22, was elected into Mortar Board, senior honorary woman's fraternity, is president of the Y. W. C. A. and vice-president of the woman's athletic association. Laura Treadwell, '23, is president of Shi Ai, honorary sophomore interfraternity society. Ethel Lewis, '22, and Helen Barrett, '24, are on the second cabinet of Y. W. C. A. Betty Philips, '24, is chairman of a home-coming committee. Dorothy Smith, '23, is our representative on the stadium publicity committee, and Helen Gilbert is a member of the first council of woman's league.

The freshman commission offered a large silver loving cup last spring to the freshman woman who had the highest average for the year of any woman in her class and was well-liked and active in campus affairs as well. Betty Philips, '24, brought the cup home to Illinois Z. We are more than proud of her.

The sixth annual Better Community conference was held here at the university October 13-16. Among those who were here were Percy Mackaye, Lorado Taft, Raymond Robins and Miss Zona Gale.

A new drive starts this week to get subscriptions from the new men and women of the university towards our stadium. The drive last year was so successful that we are all anxious to put this drive over in order to give Illinois the largest and most wonderful stadium in the world.

Pledge Day—October 8, 1921

Many things have happened this year to make us happy, best of all, the winning of our nine lovely pledges: Francis Armstrong, Eunice Lyon, Alsace Sullivan, Dorothy Shorb, Geneva Tucker, and Marguerite Chamberlain of Decatur; Erma Beall, Niantic; Virginia Reed, Monticello; Margaret Lanigan, Streator.

As the first week was devoted to Y. W. C. A. activities, our campaign for membership opened September 20 and closed October 1 with a progressive dinner at the homes of town alumnae. Out-of-town alumnae present were Margaret Brown, Carbondale; Miriam Herron, Champaign; Lucile Logan, Bethany; Virginia Boyer-Pritchett, Niantic; Adele Murphy, New York City. Pledging the following week was held at the chapter-house and was followed by a banquet at the Hotel Orlando. The out-of-town alumnae who were here for pledging were Bess McClure and Helen Jones of Monticello, and Alice Herron-Ayers of Mowequa.

We are so pleased with our house this year. Among its many good features is its proximity to the university. Shortly after college began this fall, we held open house for the faculty and students. Members of other fraternities assisted in receiving and serving the 400 guests who called during the afternoon. Miss Jessie Lockett, who has been our chaperon for the past few years, has given up her trip to France to be with us again this year.

We are very proud of Lois Engleman, '22, who is editor of the Decaturian; Miriam Houghton, '22, who was elected Y. W. C. A. president; and Helen Hayes, '23, who was elected assistant editor of our college annual, the Millidek. Vida Thompson, '23, is also on the staff. We have three members on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet; three members of $\Pi M \Theta$, a local senior honorary fraternity, one of them secretary; vice-president of the junior class, secretaries of the freshman and sophomore classes; three members of the student council, one of them secretary; and eight members of the dramatic art club.

Instead of the usual cut and dried report, the three girls who were at convention assisted the delegate in staging a little playlet, during the course of which the delegate read her report. The scene was at a table in the dining-room of the Charlevoix Inn; the time was the last night of convention just before the "special" left. Bits of conversation about convention introduced made it all very interesting to the chapter.

This is our first chapter letter and we are wondering how many of you can still remember the thrill of your first letter for THE ARROW.

College opened on September 23 with four days of registration, classes not beginning until Wednesday, September 28. With the first day of registration our real work began, for we were in competition with five nationals for the girls we wanted. The week this fall was extraordinarily hard, for it seemed that everyone wanted the same girls. We came out wonderfully well, though, with nine pledges: Vera Converse, Red Lake Falls, Minn.; Elvira Ellingson, Northwood, N. D.; Ardis Gilmore, Grand Forks, N. D.; Mabel Harshman, Gilby, N. D.; Lillian Hendricks, Westhope, N. D.; Lorna Laney, Napoleon, N. D.; Lenore Mahon, Inkster, N. D.; June Melby, Grand Forks, N. D.; and Gladys Warren, Grand Forks, N. D.

Installation was held on October 6, 7 and 8 in the home of one of our patronesses, Mrs. George H. Olmsted, who gave us her entire house for installation. Pledging of the charter members and the reading of the constitution filled the first day. On Friday morning we were initiated by the Grand President and felt so proud, both of being Pi Phis and wearing the arrow, and of having the privilege of being initiated by Miss Onken. In the afternoon $\Psi \Omega \Psi$ alumnae and charter members were initiated before the installation ceremony which took place at five o'clock.

Elsie M. Coon of Illinois Δ was toastmistress for our first initiation banquet. Other speakers were Miss Onken, Grand President, Mrs. Phil J. Laurence, our Province President, Marjorie Bonney of Minnesota Δ , Gertrude Patterson of Nebraska B , Aileen Sullivan of Minnesota Δ , Regina Brennan of Iowa Γ , Mrs. Harold P. Miller of Illinois B, and Marion Wilder and Mrs. Floyd Chandler of North Dakota A.

On Saturday morning Mrs. Laurence held pledge services for three upper classmen who were reëntering college, our last year's pledges, and the new pledges. The Pi Phis who were here for our installation gave us our first cooky-shine, and relieved our curiosity of quite a heavy load. On Saturday afternoon Miss Onken presided over the initiation ceremonies held for the girls who were pledges or initiates of $\Psi \Omega \Psi$. On that evening a formal reception was held in the university armory for the faculty and students. The installation officers and four representatives from the new chapter were guests of North Dakota A of $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ at dinner on Sunday.

Mrs. Laurence gave us many new ideas and much help during her visit following installation, and had charge of our first active meeting which was held in our fraternity house on Monday evening.

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

There are thirteen active members of Iowa A back this year, who are happy to be able to "work for dear old $\Pi \Phi$ and the wine and silver blue."

We had an unusual number of fraternity affairs during the summer. All of us who were not fortunate enough to be able to attend convention, of course had to hear all about it from our delegate as soon as she returned. She gave us a very enthusiastic and thorough report on the convention happenings, both business and social, at a joint meeting of all the alumnae and active Pi Phis who could possibly come. It made us wish more than ever that we could have gone, but we all resolved that nothing should keep us from the next convention. Besides this meeting, we had several parties and picnics, and a chapter reunion at one of the country clubs near Mt. Pleasant.

Now that our membership campaign is over, we are settled down and hard at work. We had a successful season, and feel quite proud of our seven new pledges. We gave two parties for them, one an afternoon affair in the form of a bonnet party, and the second a formal dinner. We held the pledging ceremony in the rooms, after which we had a cooky-shine.

The college has increased in attendance this year, and the outlook for a better and bigger Wesleyan is very bright. We are building a new one hundred thousand dollar gymnasium, which will be a great asset to the college. The people of the city have formed a Wesleyan Club for the purpose of better coöperation and more loyal support to the institution.

We hope each chapter may have as good a year as we are anticipating.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE

Pledge Day—September 30, 1921

It seems that we are even busier than usual this year at the opening of college. Our new building, our extended campus and our freshman class, the largest in the history of Simpson, all intensify the interest.

There is on the campus an unusually large number of desirable freshman girls, and we found it hard to keep within the number that we felt justified in pledging. We finally pledged eleven girls. They are: Clara Hall of Truro, Helen Dosh of Stuart, Elizabeth Wright of Bedford, Margaret Cole of Council Bluffs, Lavene Hamilton of Shenandoah, Margaret Kern of Norwalk, Irma Brasher, Martha Buxton, Catharine Carpenter, Harriet Henderson, and Frances Sprague of Indianola.

Local Panhellenic requested that we give only one formal social function for prospective members. Ours was a progressive luncheon given at the homes of several of our resident alumnæ. Iowa B is fortunate in having a large and enthusiastic alumnæ club whose members are always anxious to coöperate with the active chapter in every possible way to promote the interests of $\Pi \Phi$. Each year they furnish our pledging dinner, and this year they gave us in addition a very substantial gift to help in furnishing our chapter house.

Our last year's chaperon, Mrs. Dowell (Anna Wright), left us to take up work at Gatlinburg in the $\Pi \Phi$ Settlement School. Our new house mother is Miss Margaret Gay of Chariton. Previous to this year she was house mother in the deaconess' home at the Chicago Training School.

Harriet Goodsell, our official delegate, was our only representative in convention, but she has succeeded in picturing convention spirit to us very vividly. We are proud too that we now have a national officer here in Indianola. Mrs. Sigler has always been a very real help to Iowa B, and now her official position will be an added inspiration to us.

Interest in outside activities is increasing. We are well represented in campus activities and in athletics. Many of our new pledges give promise of active leadership in activities as well as in scholarship. On the whole, the outlook for the year is very encouraging.

Yolanda Prosperi, '24, Boone, Iowa
Hazel Sharer, '23, Burgess, Ill.

The chapter-house was open during the first session of summer school, ten Pi Phis remaining to attend college. September 28, 1921, marked the opening of the fall quarter of the year, though many of the girls arrived several days early to get the house in readiness for membership campaigning. There are twenty-two girls in the house this year. Anne Leichliter, '23; Helen Budd, '23; Marvel Secor, '24; Clara McAdams, '23; Florence Todd, '22; Carol Haynes, '23; Ann and Beth Wood, '22; and Lucille Wallace, '23, did not return.

We had a very successful campaign for members and are extremely happy over our sixteen new pledges. We gave three large parties and several small dinners during the two weeks of campaigning. Our first party was a tea given at the chapter-house. The following week-end we gave our large party, which was our drawn date. We turned our entire house into a hotel. Bellhops met the girls as they arrived and, after being duly registered, conducted them to the room assigned by the clerk. We served a four course dinner, and had a few stunts. Our final party was a fireside at the chapter-house the last night of entertaining.

Our pledges are: Lydia Armstrong, Nevada; Margery Beam, Ames; Katherine Beatty, Ottumwa; Paula Braunlick, Davenport; Helen Hass, Chariton; Ada Havner, Des Moines; Louise Herman, Boone; Dorothy Houghton, Marshalltown; Teresa Judge, Ames; Dorothy McCarroll, Ottumwa; Daisy Renoud, Keokuk; Ione Rice, Ames; Barbara Stanton, Ames; Mary Jean Stearn, Logan; Lucille Warmhauadt, Ottumwa; Charline Woods, Ames.

As to activities, Helen Secor, '22, has been elected president of women's Panhellenic; Anna Dowell, '23, is treasurer of Women's Guild; Marcella Dewell, '24, is circulation manager of the Iowa Homemaker, the new home economics magazine of Iowa State. She has as assistants, Margarethe Wilson, '23, and Mary Jean Stearn, one of our pledges. Helena Mahnke, '22, and Mary Jean Stearn are on the Student staff, our college paper. Clara Jordan is treasurer of $\Theta E \Phi$, honorary journalistic fraternity, and is also on the editorial staff of the Iowa Homemaker. Louise Otis, '22, is playing first violin in the college orchestra and Helen Hart, '23, has been elected society editor of the Bomb, the annual of Iowa State.

We have been very much interested in all our delegate has to tell us of convention. We are striving to make this a successful year with our new pledges and our new college duties and we hope to make our chapter year a happy one.

IOWA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Pledge Day—September 25, 1921

Homecoming is here! October is dressed in her gorgeous colors for the occasion and the campus presents a most hospitable appearance to the old Hawkeyes and friends who are arriving on each train. Prizes for the most cleverly decorated houses were offered to the fraternities, so we are making our new one as festive as possible. It is considered the best house on the campus, and for that reason appears with only one other women's fraternity house, photographed with the men's fraternity houses, in the Homecoming issue of the Daily Iowan. It is one of our chief delights and inspires us to make a most successful year for $\Pi B \Phi$.

Although college has been in session only three weeks at the time of writing, we have gained many honors.

Of course our chief delight lies in our new pledges. After three days of intense membership campaigning, we pledged: Nell Barnes, Oskaloosa, Iowa; Katherine Barnes, Des Moines, Iowa; Katherine Cox, Rock Rapids, Iowa; Doris Dayton, Iowa City, Iowa; Marion Ferguson, Charles City, Iowa; Lyndall Ives, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Luetta Lindeman, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Violette Lindeman, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Beatrice Pentony, Manchester, Iowa; Dorothy Rinker, Sioux City, Iowa; Henrietta Rowley, Des Moines, Iowa; Dorothy Scarborough, Iowa City, Iowa; Ellen Shope, Des Moines, Iowa.

Doris Dayton is the fifth daughter in the Dayton family to wear an arrow. Mrs. Dayton is also a $\Pi \Phi$.

Our chaperon is another pleasure this year. We are most fortunate in having with us Mary Bash, Washington A, '14. Miss Bash knows girls perfectly, since she is secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Iowa. She makes a sympathetic adviser, and helps us to create a homelike and interesting atmosphere in the house.

We are proud of our activities on the campus. Class elections proved very gratifying to us. Dorothy Norton, '23, was elected secretary of the junior class in liberal arts college. Frances Williams, '24, holds the same position in the sophomore class. Maude Adams, '22, is president of local Panhellenic. We are well represented in Y. W. C. A. Seals' Club, an organization of expert swimmers, counts among its number three members of $\Pi \Phi$: Martha Stewart, '22; Audrey Koiner, '23; and Edith Beard, '24. Maude Adams and Lorna Ludwick, '22, are members of Staff and Circle, honorary organization of twelve senior women. Alvaretta West, '21, was also a member of Staff and Circle, and was elected to $\Phi B K$.

Cupid has played "heartlessly" with the chapter this year, so that we have lost some of our girls. Florence Barnes, '22, was married this summer to John Inghram, $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$, a law student at Iowa. Esther Zook, ex-'22, married William McNichols, $A T \Omega$ who is serving his internship in a Seattle hospital. Helen Grupe, ex-'22, married Guerdon Parker, $\Phi K \Psi$, also an Iowa man.

We have two newly affiliated transfers: Audrey Koiner from California Γ , and Eunice Cotton from Minnesota A. Harriet Scroggs, of Iowa B and Margaret Eckels of Colorado A are with us too, and we are glad to welcome all these girls. We were sorry to lose Ruth Wallace, ex-'23, to Maryland A. Convention reports were most interesting and we would approve of a convention each year.

Iowa Z extends congratulations to all new officers and wishes them successful terms of administration. We are happy to welcome our three new chapters also. And since the season is here, we wish Pi Phis everywhere Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

GERALDINE E. MARS.

MISSOURI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

Pledge Day—September 3, 1921

Although membership campaign week this year was something of the old story of a whirl of parties given at the chapter-house and at the homes of some of our patronesses, the incentive was the ever-new one of doing our best for $\Pi \Phi$. We feel that we could not ask for a better reward than our twenty-six charming pledges, six of whom are sisters of Pi Phis, three are cousins, one is a daughter, and another is a niece.

They are: Jeanette Asbury, Higginsville, Mo.; Margaret Baker, Kansas City, Mo.; Cleo Bankhead, Bowling Green, Mo.; Mary Virginia Bean, Nevada, Mo.; Helen Burch, Brookfield, Mo.; Kathryn Burch, Brookfield, Mo.; Madge Carey, Nowata, Okla.; Christine Clark, Carrollton, Mo.; Maurine Frank, Kansas City, Mo.; Virginia Gardner, Fort Smith, Ark.; Virginia Hale, Columbia, Mo.; Dorothy Harris, Fort Smith, Ark.; Emily Harris, Rolla, Mo.; Helen Hill, Nevada, Mo.; Sarah Hickok, Little Rock, Ark.; Isabel Hood, Kansas City, Mo.; Dorothy Hudson, Carrollton, Mo.; Ruth Rae, Carrollton, Mo.; Mary Malcolm Redford, Warrensburg, Mo.; Margaret Robnett, Fulton, Mo.; Mildred Sturgis, Independence, Mo.; Anne Taylor, Kansas City, Mo.; Elizabeth Tooe, Brookfield, Mo.; Dorothy Turner, Bartlesville, Okla.; Mildred Usher, Mayfield, Ky.; Marian Williams, Columbia, Mo.

The entire chapter, pledges and initiates alike, is now devoting much attention to campus activities. Elizabeth Estes is president of the glee club, and six Pi Phis are members, three of whom are pledges; Geraldine Harper is vice-president of junior women; Elizabeth Estes is treasurer of the senior class; Exie Gray is a member of the W. S. G. A. council; two of the $\Pi \Phi$ members of the dramatic club are in the first play to be given, Behind a Watteau Picture. The lead is being taken by Margaret Dodd, one of our transfers from Missouri Γ . Kathryn Burch is vice-president of senior journalistic and vice-president of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, journalistic fraternity, and Margaret Lohman has been pledged by its rival, $\Gamma A X$; Mary Virginia Doerschuk is a member of the homecoming committee; and many other members of the chapter are serving on various committees on school affairs. Although it is comparatively early in the season, several of our girls are out for tennis and hockey, Zelle Whitmarsh has gained the senior tennis championship, and will enter the finals. Louise

We feel that we are honored beyond our deserts in having Dr. Edith Matzke as a member of the faculty of the university. Dr. Matzke's magnetic personality already has won many warm friends for her, and the members of Missouri A are proud to be able to claim affiliation with her.

It was wonderful for us that four of our girls and Miss Plank were able to attend convention, and the detailed report given by our delegate, Zelle Whitmarsh, made us feel even more strongly the greatness of our fraternity and its possibilities for future attainment.

Our activity socially has been added to considerably by the extensive entertaining for Helen Yantis, who was married to Overton Robnett, $B \Theta II$, on October 6. The chapter entertained with a luncheon and a shower, and the Betas gave the members of the chapter a lovely dance.

We are planning a tea-dance at the chapter house for our pledges, and plans are practically completed for entertaining the new chapter of $\Gamma \Phi B$.

We are trying very hard to live up to the inspiration which convention has given us to become an all-round $II \Phi$ chapter.

LILLIE HARRISON.

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—September 22, 1921

Washington University opened the new year with an enrollment of 4,250 students in the combined colleges—a gain of fourteen per cent over that of last year. All Washingtonians are proud of the growth of their Alma Mater and predict success and progress for the year 1921-1922. The swimming pool, a gift to the university, is being built on Francis Field and it is expected that by next year work on the new buildings for the Law School and the School of Commerce and Finance will have been started.

Membership season, during the two weeks preceding matriculation, proved to be so successful that Missouri B pledged eleven freshmen and two upper-classmen, all of them splendid $II B \Phi$ material. On September 10, 1921, $K K \Gamma$ installed a chapter at Washington University and thus another fraternity entered the field and competed for members. All fraternities represented at Washington University are so dissatisfied with the present system of recruiting members that local Panhellenic is undertaking to develop and adopt a new system which will be in operation at the beginning of next year.

This year Missouri B has twenty-six active members, and is well represented in all activities on the Quad. Elizabeth Bradshaw, '22, is president of the women's athletic association; Gay Anderson, '22, is vice-president of Thyrsus, the college dramatic society; and Helen Kammerer, '22, is president of the combined women's glee and mandolin clubs. Three Pi Phis were elected to Keod, the senior honorary society, and three also are representatives to the women's self government association: one from the senior class, one from the junior, and one from McMillan Hall. Two were elected members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet.

Inspired by the report of our chapter president, Mildred Petring, '22, who represented us at the convention, we are eager to carry out the ideals of the fraternity, confident that Missouri B will gain new and greater laurels for $\Pi B \Phi$.

ETHEL HOPE.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

Pledge Day—November 28, 1921

Drury has opened her doors this year to a larger number of students than ever before. Not all of our girls are back, but even so the chapter has good prospects.

At a Panhellenic banquet last year the women's fraternities organized a scholarship contest for a loving cup to be awarded in February, 1922. We have a good start in the race, having the highest average scholarship of any group for last semester of last year.

We plan to have only one big social affair. It is to be a Christmas dance on December 15.

There is an unusually good spirit among fraternity women this year. At the request of Dean Schwenke no fraternity pins were worn for the first two weeks of school. That did much to foster friendships regardless of fraternity, and to effect a closer relationship among all fraternity women.

Our convention delegate and visitors brought back to us an inspiration of what we as college women and especially as Pi Phi, could and should do, and a new realization of the ideals of our splendid arrow.

NEBRASKA BETA—NEBRASKA STATE UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—September 19, 1921

The Sunday before campaigning found nearly all of the girls here with all of the old college spirit. We are fortunate in having nineteen members back and due to our successful campaigning this year we have thirteen wonderful new freshmen, each one a very enthusiastic $\Pi \Phi$ pledge.

A new idea which we worked out in the way of membership campaigning this year was a gingham luncheon. The rooms were arranged attractively with gingham bows and old-fashioned flowers for decorations. At small tables were placed dainty little gingham lady placecards, gingham handkerchiefs corresponding in color to the placecards, and small individual corsages of old-fashioned flowers. To add to the general effect we dressed in gingham. Our fall entertaining for prospective members was greatly benefited by the splendid coöperation and aid given us by our alumnae club.

Our chapter was especially interested in the installation of North Dakota A since we were one of those called upon to participate in the inspection and installation. Lucille Johnson assisted in the inspection of the chapter last spring and came back with a favorable and interesting report regarding the girls. Therefore we were very glad that convention passed on this petitioning group. Gertrude Patterson was our delegate to the installation and was also very enthusiastic and proud of the new group and of the splendid spirit which they have as new Pi Phis. Nebraska B welcomes them into $\Pi B \Phi$ and wishes them successful years in their college life.

We are proud of the college spirit $\Pi B \Phi$ has shown thus far this year. Isabel Pearsall was chosen as one of the two girl cheer leaders and is also a member of the student council. Lucille Johnson was elected secretary of the junior class and is also secretary of women's Panhellenic council. Marie Hills is a member of Valkyrie, senior women's honorary society. Elizabeth Johnson was elected secretary of the freshman class. Four of our girls were initiated into ΔO , the national musical fraternity installed at Nebraska this fall.

The freshmen are interested in all activities and are already well known on the campus and in university circles.

KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Pledge Day—September 17, 1921

Four weeks of the fall semester are over and we are now ready for the most promising year that our chapter has ever experienced. We had a most exciting membership campaign and pledged twelve unusual girls, five of whom are Manhattan girls. They are Elizabeth Bressler, Elizabeth Coons, Eleanor Dempsey, Mary Higginbotham and Jean Frances Middleton. The other seven girls are Corinne Smith, Topeka, Kan.; Annie Laurie Moore, Nowata, Okla.; Eva Timmons, Esther Otto, Riley, Kan.; Hortense Watkins, Lyons, Kan.; Lucille Martin, Clay Center, Kan.; and Virginia Deal, Kansas City, Mo. After pledging we had a cooky-shine at the chapter house and everyone showed true $\Pi \Phi$ spirit. All the pledges are enrolled in college as freshmen and all are taking a four year course with one exception. Several of the older members were back for campaigning including Sarella Herrick Brewer, Martha Webb Dunn, and Maurine McLachlin Bailey. They were a great inspiration to us and helped in so many ways.

Several changes have been made about the house. Linoleum was put down in the kitchen and bathrooms. The seniors of last spring gave us pongee curtains for the living-room and the old curtains were transferred to the dining-room, a complete new set of silver ware was bought and a new table cloth and lovely candlesticks and flower bowl for the dining-room were the gifts of Eva Armstrong, Eva Lawson and Mary Love McGuckin. Our alumnae are expecting to give us a new davenport soon.

Grace Carey from Oklahoma A is in college here this year. We enjoy having her with us. Marion Witter, Wisconsin A, is teaching at Maple Hill, a short distance from Manhattan and she has spent a few week-ends with us. It is always a pleasure to have girls from other chapters visit us and we hope that all other Pi Phis will feel welcome to come to the house at any time. Ernestine Biby, Kathryn Kinman, Velva Rader, and Mary Churchward Noel have already been here to visit.

The girls are all very active on the hill. Nearly everyone is interested in Y. W. C. A. Jean Moore is a "Big Sister" captain and Beulah Helstrom was a representative from the membership committee who attended the Y. W. C. A. conference this summer at Estes Park. Dramatic and athletic interests are keeping everyone busy and while no teams have been chosen as yet, we are expecting some of our girls to place.

The alumnae club is very much interested in the chapter and gave us a beautiful dinner dance during rush week. They come out to the house often and keep in touch with the active members in this way. The chapter is giving a dinner instead of the customary reception for our house mother, Mrs. Warner, next week.

The girls were greatly pleased this fall when the announcement from the registrar's office was made that $\Pi B \Phi$ ranked highest in grades of all the national women's fraternities on the hill. We are all striving to keep up this record and hope to claim the scholarship tray that the city Panhellenic awards to the one maintaining the highest grades throughout the year.

Here's to the fall of 1921 and the spring of 1922 and may they bring great opportunities for $\Pi B \Phi$!

Pledge Day—December 5, 1921

We are beginning the year with eighteen active girls, rather an improvement on last year when six girls had all the burdens of the first few weeks on their shoulders.

We are glad to welcome back Florence Kisor, Edith Ward, and Doris Houser, who were initiated into this chapter in 1920 but spent last year elsewhere. We are also very glad to have Grace Gambiell, a transfer from Drury College, with us this year. We have one pledge, Lois Haworth of Casper.

Our president, Laura Crompton, came back to us in September as Mrs. Everett L. Knight, $\Sigma A E$, but we have persuaded her to neglect house-keeping duties enough to continue her college work this year and get her degree.

Feeling that we have missed wonderful opportunities by not working with our alumnae to a greater extent, we have arranged to meet every other month with the alumnae chapter. We never fail to gain inspiration from contact with the women who set such a high standard for us. During Homecoming week, held October 6, 7, and 8, it was our pleasure to meet a number of our alumnae from different parts of the state.

Preferential bidding is being given a trial at Wyoming this year and we are looking to this system to solve many of our membership campaign difficulties.

Mary Maynard, '22, is president of women's league this year; Jane Beck, '23, is vice-president of the associated students; and Lois King has been elected to Phos Pherontes, the senior honorary society. Besides these, we have two class officers, two girls on the Student staff, two girls on Y. W. C. A. cabinet, two on the junior annual staff, and various girls in glee club and orchestra.

Pledge Day—September 26, 1921

Colorado A opened its thirty-seventh year in the University of Colorado with unusual social success. We feel confident that we have strengthened our chapter with the following pledges, three of whom are sisters: Helen Sprecher, Newcastle, Wyo.; Hazel Bieir, Long Beach, Cal.; Margaret Brooks, Nina Craig, Marguerite McGowan, Helen Burger, Edith Ecklund, Boulder, Colo.; Julia Mary Hastings, Esther MacIver, Sarah Wendelken, Helen Reese, Mary Bailey Murphy, Denver, Colo.; Kathleen Handy, Georgina Lewis, Rocky Ford, Colo.; Eleanor Daley, Carbondale, Colo.; Lois Longshore, Casper, Wyo.; Dorothy Thompson, Walsenberg, Colo.; Helen Williams, Pueblo, Colo.; Margaret Newcomb, Colorado Springs and Alnea Horney, Canon City, Colo.

We are especially proud of our freshmen for the interest they are showing in college activities. Every one of them has at least one activity and several of them have more than one. Upperclassmen are also well represented in activities. Mary Belle Nicholson was elected to Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, Eleanor Noonan is on the editorial staff of the Colorado Dodo. Mary Newcomb is president of the Y. W. C. A., Isabel Mason is a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet; and Helen Sprecher has been elected a member of the dramatic club. In athletics and glee club $\Pi \Phi$ is well represented.

The increased enrollment of the last two years has created a need here for an increase in classroom space, to fill which need a new Liberal Arts building has been erected. It is a valuable asset to our campus and a very fine building. Macky Auditorium has been completed, and is to be dedicated on Homecoming Day, November 5. A banquet for the returning alumnae will be given in the evening, followed by the presentation in the new auditorium of The Profiteers, an operetta, the leading part in which will be played by one of our members, Mary Belle Nicholson. Several other members of our chapter have parts in the chorus.

A plan for holding open house for the men's fraternities has been adopted this year in place of our former system of fraternity teas. Our first open house will be held Sunday, October 16, when we will receive the members of nine of the fraternities. October 29 we are giving our annual dance in honor of our new pledges.

The splendid reports we have received from our convention delegate have given us a greater incentive than ever to work for the success of $\Pi \Phi$. Having made such a splendid start, we hope to be able to make this year one of marked success for our chapter.

Pledge Day—November 7, 1921

Denver University opened this year with its largest registration. Among these were twenty-two active Pi Phis and one pledge. There is an unusual number of new women this year.

On account of Panhellenic rulings, there is positively no membership campaigning by active or alumnae members of women's fraternities before October 26. Pledging is to be on November 7. The rules this year are more stringent than formerly and are, more or less, a strain on all girls concerned, both the freshmen and the fraternity members. We hope, however, that the prolonged membership campaign will help us to choose the really worth-while girls.

Π Β Φ is leading in many things on the campus this semester. We will always be remembered as the fraternity which gave and made a success of The Only Girl, a musical comedy by Victor Herbert. Mildred Goldsworthy, '22, is a member of the student commission. Ruth Brinker, '22, is president of the Y. W. C. A. and a large number of Pi Phis are on the first and second cabinets. Margaret Tulley, '23, is vice-president of the junior class, and Ann Pifer, '24, secretary of the sophomores. Kedros, the honorary junior and senior women's society, initiated three girls: Dorothy Engle, '22; Marion Dickinson, '22; and Mildred Goldsworthy, '22.

Colorado B is now concerned with getting new members and pledging. We are hoping for great things for 1921-1922 and we know that this will be our banner year. We sincerely hope that it will be for every chapter.

The University of Oklahoma opened on September 19 with an unusually large enrollment. Two new dormitories were opened this fall, greatly relieving the housing condition.

Oklahoma A is in high spirits because of its successful membership campaign. We are glad to announce as our pledges: Lena Allison, El Rena, Okla.; Ruth Allison, Talequah, Okla.; Mary Lee Brittan, Duncan, Okla.; Sybil Callahan, Muskogee, Okla.; Johnna Duffy, Norman, Okla.; Ruth Flippin, Claremore, Okla.; Elinore Ittner, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Elveta Minter, Norman, Okla.; Margaret Richardson, Oklahoma City, Okla.

On September 25 we gave a tea for our house mother, Mrs. Betty Jameson, and our pledges.

College activities are just beginning to get under way and $\Pi \Phi$ is very well represented. Several of our girls have been elected to literary societies on the campus. Mary Louise Coates is president of Panhellenic and Edna Ackley has been elected vice-president of the woman's council.

We are pleased to have with us as transfers Margaret Lewis of Missouri A and France Badger, Nettie Belle Sonder, and Nell Davidsen of Oklahoma B.

We have bought a lot and hope to start our house in the near future. We are trying to raise sufficient funds to enable us to start building this year, as our lease expires on our present house and, we want to move into our own house next year. Several fathers have given us fifty dollars and we are planning every way we can to raise our house fund.

The campus is now alive with new spirit and the students are restlessly awaiting the actual beginning of college. Crowds of students new and old keep pouring in.

Amid all of this was the excitement of membership campaign, which lasted here only one week. We kept in touch with desirable girls all summer, so that it was not very hard for us to decide from the multitude of freshmen which ones we should be proud to call Pi Phi. We entertained with many affairs of various descriptions: garden parties, matinées, line parties, slumber parties, luncheons, dinners, and dances.

As a result, we are exceedingly proud of our twelve star pledges, whom we have already named "Happy Twelve," from their beaming countenances as the wine and blue ribbons were pinned on.

Many of our alumnae were thoughtful enough to return and assist in the campaign for members. Among them were: Mrs. Roy Pratt, Mrs. Homer Hirzel, Gladys Madigan, Netabel Souter, Willena Owen and Mary Douglas.

We are comfortably situated in our temporary home which we will occupy only for a few weeks longer, when we will move into a delightful new home which is being built for us. It is a lovely place overlooking the campus.

The two new buildings, home economics and library, are now in use. They are the best of the kind in the Southwest.

Every $\Pi \Phi$ has come back to college with a new inspiration from the news we have received from convention. With each one there is a determination to work harder than ever before and allow no task to be so large that she will not sacrifice and do her very best for $\Pi \Phi$. It is a wonderful spirit, and was truly shown during our membership campaign when every girl worked with a willingness and steadiness which accomplishes wonders.

We announce the following pledges: Mildred Austin, Blackwell, Okla.; Ina Mae Backhaus, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Rita Burns, Sapulpa, Okla.; Frances Campbell, Okmulgee, Okla.; Carmelita Edwards, Stillwater, Okla.; Zerma Jones, Sapulpa, Okla.; Dorothy Miles, Enid, Okla.; Edith Newcomb, Woodward, Okla.; Gladys Pratt, Enid, Okla.; Miriam Shaw, Blackwell, Okla.; Bernice Stewart, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Gretchen Stark, Stillwater, Okla.

Arkansas A has just completed a very successful membership week with fourteen splendid pledges: Doris Quaile, '25, Fort Smith, Ark.; Laura Holmes, '25, Camden, Ark.; Biddie Dake, '24, Hot Springs, Ark.; Mary Hay, '25, Hot Springs, Ark.; Gladys Gibson, '25, Nashville, Ark.; Wealthy Johnson, '25, Fayetteville, Ark.; Jewell Minnis, '25, Roe, Ark.; Pauline Rice, '25, Rogers, Ark.; Josephine Bullock, '25, Bentonville, Ark.; Lou Lee Smythe, '25, Green-

We were glad to have with us Ruth Briggs, a $\Pi \Phi$ from Kansas B during membership campaign. We were also fortunate enough to have with us two charter members of our chapter, Mrs. W. A. Kaser (Madge Campbell) of Marion, Ark.; and Mrs. J. K. Gregory (Mary Campbell) of Kansas City. Mrs. Gregory, who was the delegate from the Kansas City alumnae club to the convention, gave us some wonderful talks.

The town alumnae are responsible for the informal membership dance, which caused so much pleasant comment.

Our members, both pledges and initiates, are active in college affairs and each girl belongs to at least one student activity. Vera Slaughter and Margaret Earle are members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Biddie Dake and Lou Lee Smythe are on the staff of the weekly college paper, the Arkansas Traveler.

At present we are still rejoicing over our new pledges, who, we think, are choice college girls. We pledged eighteen girls, representative of numerous towns in the state.

The chapter is full of plans for the coming year. Among these the most important is that of building a new house. Every member of Texas A is working toward that goal.

This year we hope to make a record breaker in every way; we have begun by winning the cup offered to the women's fraternity making the highest scholarship average.

Pledge Day—September 30, 1921

The excitement of membership campaigning is over, and we are all settling down to work. Our season was most successful, and we formally pledged eleven girls on the night of October 6, finishing the evening with a cooky-shine and a dance among the girls. All the freshmen were required to perform stunts, as usual, and when some of our "freshest freshmen" came out wearing huge spectacles and with their hair skinned back, representing the students of a country school, we all decided for the hundredth time that we had the cleverest pledges in school.

We are very proud of our president of the Y. W. C. A., Hattie Stokes, who makes a splendid one. Under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A., a very lovely party was given at the woman's building. Almost the entire college was present, and in a delightful informal way, all the new students and the old became acquainted with each other.

The State Fair is now going on at Dallas, and we are all enjoying it very much, particularly the athletic features. S. M. U. plays two games on the new field; one against A. and M. College, and another against Austin College. The A. and M. game is really the hardest one of the season, and if we win that, we feel that we shall have a very good chance for the Southwestern championship. The students have been having pep meetings every night for the last week.

We are making plans for a big year. Each member seems to feel her individual responsibility for the chapter's success or failure even more than last year, and we feel that our fraternity is going to be felt in school more than it ever has been before.

Anna Lee Wooten, '24, Monroe, La.

Newcomb started off with a boom September 20, with enrollment increased from 509 to 611. Two new subjects, Expression and Biblical Literature, have been added to the curriculum. All courses are now four year courses, which means a larger percentage of graduates, and thus a better standing for the college. Newcomb is already preparing for the convention of the Southern Intercollegiate Student Government Association, which meets here next spring.

Local Panhellenic has formulated a new system of membership campaigning: no definite dates may be made for week days, all parties must be Dutch treat, informal hospitalities may be extended only for week-ends, no fraternity may spend more than seventy-five dollars on formal parties for prospective members, and no more than three such parties may be given.

Two pledge days are to be observed, the first for sophomores, in October, the second for upperclassmen, in December. This change in system decreased the usual excitement at the beginning of the year, as it brought in no new pledges, but it was made for the better interests of the college.

Our latest interest is the fraternity room—another requirement of all chapters here. Ours is just across from the campus, in our president's basement, so is very convenient. It is rapidly assuming a comfortable look, and we hope to entertain there during the year. We have meeting once a week, at which some alumna is always present.

On October 1, we initiated ten girls in order of the grades they made on fraternity examinations. We are very proud of our new members and they received more than the usual attention, since we had no pledges to divide our interest. Initiation, held at Edwa Stewart's home, was patterned after the model initiation as closely as possible.

But we are not interested in fraternity matters alone. Our members are prominent in college affairs—twenty-two offices, four of which are executive positions, are held by Pi Phis this year. Two honors received since the last ARROW are the Mary L. S. Neill Water-Color Medal won by Gwin Murrell and the Class of 1914 Varsity Debating Medal won by Wilmer Shields.

Convention is vivid to all of us, even to those who were not there, through our president's report, and we try to do everything as it was done at convention. The songs we sing most often are those sung at convention—"And I bumped 'em for Pi Phi," etc.

Two active girls we welcome back after an absence of a year are Pharos Felker and Marjorie Kidd; also a postgraduate who will be active, Corrine Hopkins, '21.

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

Pledge Day—October 8, 1921

Pledging was preceded by a week and a half of simple and original entertaining. We are delighted with our success, for all the girls are very attractive. Following pledging we had a banquet. We are planning many ways in which to become well acquainted. We have already had a 'cook-shine'. For ten minutes before each chapter meeting, we have the active chapter and the pledges meet so that at least once during each week everyone in the house will come together. Sponsors have been appointed for each pledge and they have a luncheon date or a short meeting once a week. We feel that in this way the pledges are always getting the attention they need.

In order to bring our alumnae closer to us, we are giving a tea every month in their honor. They are making arrangements for a bazaar, the proceeds of which will go to the house fund.

Last spring, when the payment on our lot was due, we had a rummage sale at the public market. We made two hundred dollars more than enough to meet the payment. Each girl was asked to bring a certain amount of goods. One girl was appraiser and marked the price on the goods after they were brought in, and cleaned. Then we took them down to the public market, where the city reserves a booth for such purposes. The sale which lasted two days, was so successful that the alumnae club is going to have another one soon, and give ninety per cent of the proceeds to our house fund.

This summer there were eight attractive $\Pi \Phi$ weddings.

Although college has been in session but a short time the girls are already getting into activities. Helen Garretson and Bonnie McAnnally have made the women's athletic association. Eileen Howell is on the junior prom committee, is president of Red Domino, women's honorary dramatic society, and is on the Daily staff. Louise Ehrlich is on the junior social committee. Norah Aldwell is a member of the business administration council.

We are all anticipating the football game to be played in Seattle, December 3, between the University of Washington and Pennsylvania State College.

The university scholarship requirements have been made very much higher, and the registration limited. Last year showed a marked increase in scholarship of the whole institution. We are earnestly trying to raise the chapter scholarship by the strict maintenance of study hours, and by checking up on the work of each girl. We are two steps higher than we were last year in the scholarship list of organized houses.

Another college year has begun and finds Washington B with twenty-one girls returned.

On Saturday of the first week, we pledged twelve splendid girls to $\Pi B \Phi$. Now that our excitement is over we are attempting to make this a record year in scholarship.

Our delegate to convention, Dorothy Cunningham, brought us many splendid ideas as to our great national world of Pi Phis. We are also inspired with the idea of doing more than ever for our Settlement School. Ruth Newland, a graduate of last year, also attended convention.

Dorothy Cunningham went to Bozeman, Montana, to assist with the installation of Montana A, and brought back wonderful reports of that chapter. We are glad to welcome our three new chapters.

This year we are very fortunate to have with us Hazel Wright, from Wisconsin B, who is an instructor in our physical education department. We are always glad to have Pi Phis from other chapters with us.

We have, on our campus this year, a new local group, called $\Omega \Theta$. This group has not announced the national which they will petition.

November 5 will be our homecoming day. At this time we will be glad to have a host of alumnae with us over the week-end.

We wish to extend to all of our sister chapters a hope for a happy and successful year.

Pledge Day—September 27, 1921

With the wonderful inspiration convention has given us we feel as though we have started the year right.

The new system of membership campaigning began this year and immediately after matriculation we pledged eight splendid girls, upon whom we shall be proud to pin an arrow. They are: Norinne Weaver, Atha Rogers, Dorothy La Roche, Louise Vonderahe, Dorothy Byler, Lucille Douglass, Norma Barrett and Evelyn Foster. We also have three transfers: Ruth Fowler from Oregon B, Madelaine Dallas from Nevada A and Delight Virdinias from Illinois A.

We are happy to have Marian Mitchell, who returned for her senior year, and Myler Calkins, who is a sophomore, with us again. Alice Thurston, who graduated last year, is back again working for her master's degree in mathematics.

Actives on the campus are not in full swing as yet, but $\Pi \Phi$, as always, has its share of representatives. Elsie Lawrence is vice-president of woman's league and a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Marvel Skeels was the Gerlinger Cup last spring which is given every year to the best all-around junior girl. Bernice Alstock is treasurer of woman's league and president of the glee club. Kathleen Kem and Marvel Skeels are also members of the glee club. Luella Hausler has been elected a member of the staff of the Oregana, our yearly publication.

The enrollment in our university has broken all records in the past—the total being two thousand. Our new music building has just been opened and far surpasses all our expectations. The commerce department also has a new building of which we are justly proud. In general our campus is spreading rapidly and we are fast becoming one of the largest universities in the West.

Our birthday dinner is to be October 29, and we are anticipating having many of our alumnae and those of the Portland alumnae club with us.

Oregon A is very proud of the fact that we were represented by four of our active girls in national convention. With the message and inspiration they bring to us we expect to have a wonderful year.

OREGON BETA—OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October 5, 1921

The future for Oregon B has the rosiest glint this fall of any college year since the installation of the chapter in 1917.

We have taken a definite step toward a new era of promise by making arrangements for the purchase of a home of our own, and we feel that we have a new and permanent interest in the chapter. Our alumnae approve of our action and we very much appreciate their coöperation. Our new home, the former residence of the president of the college, is a large, substantially constructed three-story house set well back in grounds that contain an unusual variety of trees, shrubs, and flowers. The location is desirable, being three blocks from the main part of the city and fifteen minutes' walk from the college buildings. The interior of the house required little changing to make it entirely suitable for fraternity life, but a little later we intend to have a sun room and driveway constructed on the north side.

So far this quarter we have found our time entirely taken with the many duties of getting settled in our chapter-house and taking up our studies and campus activities where we left them last June. We have not been too busy, however, to give some of our attention to the new girls entering college. As a result we have ten of the finest pledges on the campus. They are: Cassandra Woolery, Arcadia, Cal.; Claudia Plank, Rachael Holloway, Elizabeth Robinson, Ella Auld, Alice Peaper and Ruth Stevenson, all of Portland, Ore.; Arlene Normile, Medford, Ore.; Bertha Bonar, Long Beach, Cal.; and Marcelline Goddard, Vancouver, Wash.

As the result of the increase in enrollment of regular students, and the crowded condition of the three women's dormitories, we are very fortunate in being able to have our pledges live in the house this year. This is not only a promise of the future success of our chapter, but an indication of the growth of the institution and the recognized scope and efficiency of the work accomplished by the various departments.

We have twenty-five girls in the active chapter, including pledges, who are entering the college year with whole-hearted enthusiasm and determination to make this year the biggest and most successful in the history of the chapter. Many helpful reports have been given us by our convention delegate. She has told us of the new rules, the aims, purposes and methods of advancement of our traternity and these have been and will be, during the year, an incentive to give our very best to $\Pi B \Phi$.

Montana A chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$ makes her baby bow to the fraternity world, with the hope that the inspiration of the happy days of installation may ever remain with each of her members. And now that at last we are proud wearers of the arrow, the hopes and aims of our long years of work cannot go from us; more than ever must Montana A realize that her work has just begun.

The days of initiation and installation, though now but memories, will never be forgotten. Fortunate indeed were we to have with us at that time our Grand President, Miss Amy B. Onken; our Province President, Mrs. Burton Beck; and Dorothy Cunningham, representing Washington B, as well as a number of other Pi Phis throughout the state. These women, themselves living examples of the high ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$, succeeded in bringing these aims before us as no other means could have done. We were fortunate to have had the true $\Pi B \Phi$ ideals kept before us by our three resident $\Pi B \Phi$ alumnae, Lida M. Paterson, Illinois A; Mrs. S. C. Lovelace, Michigan B; and Sallie Gillespie, Louisiana A, to whose untiring efforts we owe much.

Especially do we wish to make grateful acknowledgment of the many flowers, telegrams, and notes of congratulation received from chapters of $\Pi B \Phi$ from New York to California, Canada to Texas, as well as from the various men's and women's fraternities represented at Montana State College, and other interested friends. The beautiful Corot landscape presented to our chapter by the visiting Pi Phis holds a place of honor on the wall of our chapter room. May we also take this opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation of the installation reception of B P chapter of ΣX , and the afternoon tea of A Φ chapter of A O II, all of which were given in honor of Montana A.

Our first cooky-shine, given by the older Pi Beta Phis to the new Pi Phis, Saturday noon, October 1, proved conclusively to us that $\Pi B \Phi$ does not exaggerate, sing the praises of the cooky-shine loudly as she may. Already the chapter has made plans for another one to be given in the very near future.

The girls of Montana A, leaders in activities upon the campus as Phi Gammas, are making even more extensive plans in these interests as Pi Beta Phis. Marguerite Lindsley, '22, our chapter president, was elected president of women's league for the college year 1921-22 toward the close of last year, while Alice Moody, '23, was elected vice-president of that organization. We regret that activities have not been well enough organized at Montana State College for this year, due to the late date of registration, to enable us to give any very definite ideas as to the part our girls will play in this phase of college work. It is enough to say that there is not a student organization upon the campus, which includes women in its membership, that will not have $\Pi B \Phi$ representatives, many of whom are to hold responsible positions in their respective organizations. Our chapter holds the cup presented by our dean of women for leadership in activities during the college year 1920-21; it is our aim that that cup shall remain with us next year.

An alumnae club has already been organized and chartered at Bozeman, and regular meetings will be held the last Monday of every month. The advisory committee has been elected and its work has begun. Every impetus to work for grades has been given us, and the end of the first two weeks of college finds each girl firm in her aim that the high standard of scholarship set before our group last year shall continue during the years to come.

Montana A is proud to announce the following seven girls as pledges: Winifred Cobleigh, Genevieve Cooley, Shelda Fox, Christene Kirk, La Verna Maltby, Margaret Patten, and Gretchen Sassaman. They are girls who are already recognized as leaders in scholarship, and in social and campus activities.

We are confidently looking forward to a successful term—may the high ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$ remain ever before us!

Pledge Day—October 21, 1921

It seems impossible that our long summer vacation is a thing of the past and that we are all together again. One of the most enjoyable parts of our vacation was the $\Pi \Phi$ house party at Balboa Beach in August, which all except three of the girls were able to attend.

Registration day was the first of October. Then followed a week of conference, with the conference party one night at which the old girls welcomed the new girls. The period of membership campaigning opened October 9 and we are still in the midst of it. There is an unusually fine class of entering women this year, so we are looking forward to pledging a number of them.

Some honors have come to California A since our last letter. We are very proud of Carey Bailard, '22, and Marion Clancy, '22, who have been initiated into Cap and Gown, the highest honorary organization for women on the campus. Carey Bailard, '22, is also president of women's athletic association. Marion Potter, '22, is vice-president of Y. W. C. A. Kathleen Evans, '24, has been given a part in the Sword and Sandals play, A Tailor Made Man.

It is with a great deal of interest that we have heard the report of our convention delegate, Marion Clancy, '22, who brought back to us some of the inspiration she obtained at Charlevoix.

We are looking forward to a very successful year, and send greetings and best wishes to all our sister chapters.

Pledge Day—August 19, 1921

With the glad tidings of its track team's victory in the East, still ringing, the University of California started its fall semester with "head up and shoulders back."

We, of California B, are rejoicing in the advent of ten pledges, girls whom we are rapidly learning to love. They presage a shining future for the $\Pi \Phi$ house and are taking an active interest in campus activities. We are already finding their names on committee, Y. W. C. A. and class schedules. The Daily

Californian has among its reporters, one of our freshmen, and the secretary of the freshman class is a $\Pi \Phi$. Torch and Shield, a woman's honor society on the campus, has among its new members, Grace Ziegenfuss, the president of our house.

Convention of all the presidents of Associated Women of the Western universities is to be held at the University of California this year. We are looking forward to the opportunity to meet women who have made names for themselves in other colleges, and hope to gain from them new views as regards a woman's place in coeducational universities.

A $\Pi \Phi$ represents the women students of the university on the executive committee of the students' welfare committee, an organization which functions as a part of the system of student control. The library system and supervision of certain campus affairs as well as conducting the rules of the honor system, are duties of this committee.

The interest of the campus is centered at present, upon the erection of the Henry Morse Stephens Memorial. This is to be a students' union building, where all members of the university are to find a social meeting place. All the offices for the students' activities will be situated in this building, as well as various lounging and reading rooms. It is hoped that its establishment will stimulate the "get-together" spirit so essential in a university of this size, and will make for the consolidation of the students as a body.

The glories which the varsity football team won for us last year, have so far continued in the program of this year's games. To further the spirit of sportsmanship, and to prove our undying gratitude to the men who fought and died in the war, the erection of a million dollar stadium is being planned.

INITIATES

- Sarah Burton, '25, Los Angeles, Cal.
- Beatrice Daly, '23, Los Angeles, Cal.
- Dorothy Daly, '23, Los Angeles, Cal.
- Doris Hammond, '25, South Pasadena, Cal.
- Grace Kelly, '23, South Pasadena, Cal.
- Vesta Owen, '25, Los Angeles, Cal.

After two years of waiting we are at last in our wonderful new administration building, the first unit of the new group for our greater university. We already feel perfectly at home in it and have settled down to study.

The competition during our membership campaign this year was keener than ever and the chapter was most successful. The following nine pledges are all wonderful girls: Evelyn Griffin, Dorothy Haldeman, Evelyn Lee, Mildred Moir, Lucile Richards, Agnes Schmidt, and Margaret Woodside of Los Angeles; Ethel Huff, Alhambra; and Lucile Steinmiller, Oxnard. Evelyn Griffin was pledged just before the close of college in June.

The six girls pledged last March were initiated October 12. Our alumnæ gave us a lovely cooky-shine afterwards.

Last year our varsity football team was undefeated and they have started this year the same way. The big game is with the University of California at Berkeley. The Yale, one of the largest boats between Los Angeles and San Francisco, has been chartered for U. S. C. students who are going to the game.

Π Β Φ is well represented in all college activities. Mildred Heinze is president of the associated women students, member of Torch and Tassel, honorary senior organization. Evelyn Griffin is social chairman of Y. W. C. A., and member of Palette and Brush, and Le Cercle Français. Helen Huff is president of the tennis club and a member of Palette and Brush. Grace Kelley is a member of the tennis club and a pledge of Δ Ψ Κ, honorary physical education fraternity. Helen Campbell is vice-president of the junior class. Dorothe Lane is a member of the tennis club.

Several of our girls did not return to U. S. C. this semester, and we certainly do miss them. Virginia Grannis and Marquita Wardman are at Stanford; Florence Mullin is at California; Margaret Frey is at Goucher; Hilda Blatz is at home.

We have been very happy to meet the following Pi Beta Phis who are on the campus this year: Pauline Bond, Iowa Z, Frances Loftus, Arizona A, Helen Fellows, Missouri I, Betty Hillebert, Missouri B, and Frances Crane, Illinois A.

KATHRYN HARDIN.

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Pledge Day—October 3, 1921

On September 17, with twenty active members back, Arizona Alpha's crew of wine and blue was all set for its biggest and best membership campaign. We were indeed happy when the evening of pledging came, and we pinned the arrow heads on nine of the fairest coeds of the U. of A. They are: Edythe Belton, Tucson, Ariz.; Lottie Booker, Okla.; Mary Carter, Tempe, Ariz.; Katherine Harvey, El Paso, Tex.; Helena Karns, Nogales, Ariz.; Berniece O'Malley, Tucson, Ariz.; Bertha Scott, San Francisco, Cal.; Helen Upham, Tucson, Ariz.

Next in interest to our pledges is our house. We have had much fun furnishing it and our alumnæ have been wonderful in donating extra furniture and helping in many ways. The chapter spent an afternoon and evening making draperies for the living-room and dining-room.

We are also proud to announce that Arizona A is winner of the loving cup offered by Dr. K. W. Jameson, Dean of Women, to the fraternity leading in scholarship for three successive semesters.

This fall just after our membership campaign we published a little pamphlet called the Pi Beta Phile. It contained a brief history of Π Β Φ, its accomplishments, and local campus interests.

Although we have been busy with membership campaigning, scholarship, and our Pi Beta Phi, we are still loyal supporters of all the activities of the campus. Betty Donnelly, '22, is president of the women's self government association, and secretary of the senior class. Martha Crowell, '23, is president and Margaret Neal, '24, is vice-president of the woman's athletic association. Ruth Roby, '22, is president of Wranglers, an honorary literary society, and departmental editor of the Wildcat, the U. of A. weekly paper. Catherine Fowler, '22, one of our pledges, has been elected to Wranglers. Florence Jackson, '22, has the lead in Barrie's Alice Sit-by-the-Fire, to be put on by the Sock and Buskin dramatic club. Maisey McCoy, '22, has an important part in the same play, while Helen McDonald, '25, one of our new pledges, will make her first appearance in this play. Mabel Angle, '23, and Gladys Franklin, '23, are prominent in Y. W. C. A. work.

The fact that our beloved president, Dr. R. B. von KleinSmid, has accepted the presidency of the University of Southern California, has come as a blow to all of us, and we are doubly grieved as we know that it will also take one of our alumnae, Mrs. von KleinSmid, (Elizabeth Sawyers, Iowa A, '88). She has helped us in so many ways, that it will be hard to part with one whom we have grown to love.

We are fortunate in having June Forshaw of Missouri B with us this year. She is a teaching fellow in the department of Romance languages and is at the same time working toward her master's degree.

Arizona A wishes everyone a successful year and a very Merry Christmas.

ELIZABETH MARCH.

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

Pledge Day—November 19, 1921

College opened this year with a larger enrollment than ever before, so that we are anticipating a most successful year. The dormitories are crowded but it is worth petty inconveniences to see Nevada grow.

This semester we pledged a splendid girl, Dorothy Williams, '23. All the active girls except two returned, and every member's attention is directed to the many new girls.

Pi Phis are taking an interest in all campus activities. Marie Lamon, '23, is vice-president of associated women students and secretary of the junior class. Erma Hoskins, '23, is on the student body executive committee.

Josephine Welsh, our Province President, spent three days with us in October. We all feel very much helped and inspired by her visit and are looking forward to another one next semester. She particularly made us realize the vital importance of good scholarship.

We welcomed the new A Γ chapter of Γ Φ B with an informal dance in the gymnasium.

The Nevada alumnae association hold yearly a carnival to raise money for their scholarship and offer a prize of ten per cent of the net proceeds to the best concession. The $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ and $\Pi \Phi$ concessions were considered the best, so the prize was divided.

Panhellenic entitles each fraternity to two parties before pledge day but because of the death of Mrs. Gardner, who was a $\Pi \Phi$ mother and patroness, we have indefinitely postponed our small party. For our other one which comes October 28, we are planning a Hallowe'en favor dance, and everyone is eager to make it a success.

MARJORIE STAUFFER.

Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity announces the installation of Chi Chapter at Michigan Agricultural College, East Lansing, Mich., on October 1, 1921.

Sigma Kappa announces the installation of Alpha Delta Chapter at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee, on April 16, 1921, and of Alpha Epsilon Chapter at Iowa State Agricultural College, Ames, Iowa, on May 7, 1921.

The following ten points from The Carnation of Delta Sigma Phi speak for themselves.

TEN WAYS TO KILL AN ORGANIZATION

1. Don't go to the meetings.
2. If you do go, go late.
3. If the weather doesn't suit you, don't think of going.
4. If you do attend a meeting, find fault with the work of the officers and members.
5. Never accept office, as it is easier to criticize than to do things.
6. Get sore if you are not appointed on a committee, but if you are, do not attend committee meetings.
7. If asked by the chairman to give your opinion on some matter, tell him you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things should have been done.
8. Do nothing more than absolutely necessary, but when members use their ability to help matters along, howl that the institution is run by a clique.
9. Hold back your dues, or don't pay at all.
10. Don't bother about getting new members. "Let George do it."

With Armistice Day still fresh in our minds, we will appreciate the following sentiments printed in the Sigma Kappa Triangle:

BELLEAU WOOD: June, 1918

Where the gaunt and shell-torn stumps of the forest monarchs of other days stand like grim-visaged sentinels in the deepening twilight; where the wild flowers, pink and white and palest blue, ramble in gentle confusion, breathing a sweet and silent benediction; where the lonesome note of the thrush floats out of the hushed air of the evening, the sorrow and hope of centuries in its song: they sleep in peace—our best beloved and our best.

From factory and farm; from wide, green fields and crowded cities; from fair, quiet valleys and the dust of towns they came; they dropped their plows and their pens, they left their books and waving crops; they ceased their laughter and their song-making; with hearts inspired with the courage of youth; with pulses afire with the glory of right; proudly they went as freemen go: they heard the call and swiftly they answered.

For them we do not sorrow; for them we have no tears; for them we do not mourn with aching hearts and tearful eyes; only a great pride is ours—pride and an undying love, that from our shores sprang forth a host of torch bearers; an army of God; great towering cities shall be their monument; the lips of children unborn shall breathe their names in love; the breath of God shall bless them; in the shade of Belleau Wood, where sleep our dead.

Banta's Greek Exchange states that:

There are 1,176 higher institutions of learning in the United States. This number includes all the universities, colleges, professional schools, colleges of agricultural, mechanical, technical and mining science, normal schools, theological seminaries and junior colleges.

These facts published in The Carnation of Delta Sigma Phi were gleaned from a timely study of teachers' salaries in certain endowed colleges and universities:

Salaries paid to 8,540 college teachers, ranging from instructors to full professors, in 259 institutions in all parts of the country in 1914-15 are compared with salaries paid in 1919-20. In 1919-20, 53.4 per cent received from $901 to $2,100 per year. Of those receiving over $2,100, about 6 per cent received more than $4,200 a year. Only 92 received over $6,000. These salaries include an increase of 25 per cent between 1914 and 1919. Meanwhile, according to the United States Commissioner of Labor, the cost of living has increased not less than 80 to 90 per cent. Sixty-one per cent of the teachers reporting were married.

Study shows that teachers' salaries formed an average of 47 per cent of the total expenditures of the institutions reporting. Since 1914-15 expenses of operating the physical plants increased 74 per cent while salaries increased 42.6 per cent.

In Banta's Greek Exchange we find:

Items of interest which occurred at the convention of A O II held in June, 1921, Syracuse, New York, are—compulsory life subscriptions for the fraternity magazine, To Drama, the establishment of an endowment fund which will provide loans for members for scholastic purposes, and loans for the building and purchase of chapter-houses. A plan was adopted for pooling all traveling and entertainment expense of delegates while at convention. This year marks the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of A O II and a special historical edition is being published to mark the commemoration of the anniversary, an officer's Handbook is being published for the use of all Fraternity Officers, and district organization for alumnae was adopted.

A report from Hudson, Mich., states that at a recent celebration in honor of the memory of Will Carleton, the beloved Michigan poet, George S. Richards, of Toledo, announced that he would contribute $5,000 toward a loan fund for needy college students to be administered in memory of the poet who himself had great difficulty in obtaining an education.

It was announced that plans are under way to place a tablet on the original Hillsdale county poorhouse, said to have furnished the inspiration for Carleton's most famous poem, "Over the Hill." The motion picture adapted from the poem and bearing its name was shown during the celebration at Hudson theatres.

Other fraternities might follow the suggestion contained in this clipping taken from Banta's Greek Exchange:

K A Θ has a chapter house bureau of the service board which has gathered together a library of clippings, documents and the like which is loaned to the building or financing committee of any of its chapters preparing to build.

In speaking of the scholarship funds of various organizations, The Caduceus of Kappa Sigma points out that at least one-third of the women's fraternities maintain a scholarship fund, in some form or other, for the purpose of helping students through college and urges the men not to be outdone by their sister-organizations. The Caduceus says:

An inquiry conducted by the Interfraternity Conference not long ago disclosed the fact that a very considerable percentage of fraternity men—in some colleges as much as one-third—failed to graduate from college. Among the reasons assigned for the failure of these men to complete their college course, financial difficulties took first place. Many of the colleges are already supplied with a considerable number of scholarships, the majority of which are offered as prizes for scholastic attainment or as inducements to attract incoming students. There are too few scholarships to aid those who are already in college, but who, through calamity in their families, death of parents, or financial reverses or other unavoidable circumstances, are forced to withdraw, when a relatively small stipend would enable them to complete their course, and thus better fit themselves for the station they hope to assume in the world's affairs.

The Endowment Fund of Kappa Sigma contemplates a provision for such students. Up to the present, however, the size of the fund has not warranted its use, as the income only is available for such a purpose. It is hoped that in the near future the fund will reach such proportions that a beginning can be made.

—The Garnet and White of A X P.

The Purple, Green, and Gold of Lambda Chi Alpha prints the following statement of the Publicity Committee of the Interfraternity Conference.

The Baird Library, known as the most complete library on fraternity affairs in existence, will shortly be housed by the New York Public Library. Arrangements for the transfer of the library and the preparation of a complete catalogue of its contents are now being completed by George Bruce, secretary of Beta Theta Pi, and the library officials. Full details of the final housing of the famous library, of interest to all fraternity men, will be given in a later issue of this bulletin.

Fraternities are requested to place the New York Public Library upon the mailing list of their official publications, in order that the Baird Library may be made the most complete in the world on fraternity matters.

According to Banta's Greek Exchange:

The first national sorority to enter William and Mary is X Ω, which installed its charter on May 30, by the absorption of B Σ X. This leaves four local sororities in the field still at William and Mary.

The Kappa Alpha Journal says:

In the college, we should be (and we believe that we are) a force for the right, a power for intelligent progress. We should not (and we believe that we do not) exert an entirely selfish influence. The Kappa Alpha Order stands for democracy (in the best sense of that word) and for the advancement of all desirable interests of the institutions in which its chapters are. Our hope is to be an aid, not a hindrance; an organization of service, not a source of decentralization. A chapter that selfishly advances its own interests against the interests of the college is not in accord with the higher conception of the Order's duty. We should, as a matter of course, strive unceasingly for the upbuilding and advancement of our own organization; but our definite aim should be to grow ever stronger and better with each passing day, in order more effectively to serve the societies of which we are an inseparable and significant part. We should endeavor to become indispensable.

No fraternity which inculcates snobbishness has the right to endure. No fraternity which labors exclusively for its own ends is worthy of the name. No fraternity which makes of itself a means of division, flaunting and emphasizing the line of demarcation between its own members and the members of other fraternities and non-fraternity men, is making the most of its opportunities. Any man who will allow his fraternity to stand between him and outside friendships is either a snob or a moral weakling, too much afraid of his own worth and social position to play the part of a man. He never placates; he never thinks of any one but himself. He is the one who alienates the general good will, and arouses whatever hostility there may be to his own fraternity, not only, but to fraternities in general.

From the Shield and Diamond of Pi Kappa Alpha comes this warning:

Now that the war is over, many of us are apt to become careless and disregard subtle propaganda that is being circulated to a greater or less extent throughout our colleges and universities for the purpose of obtaining recruits to the ranks of the Socialists. This party, if such it may be called, is doing everything within its power—and then some—to increase its numbers throughout this vast country of ours, the United States of America. For a number of years past the Intercollegiate Socialist Society has been rather active in a number of colleges and universities and has obtained a fair number of followers. Of late, finding that their rate of increase in this particular field was falling off, their attack has taken on a more subtle aspect. In fact, many real Americans have been hoodwinked by their new form of camouflage and have been led to join their ranks. The name of this new wolf in sheep's clothing is the Intercollegiate Liberal League.

This new league was formed early in April at Harvard University by undergraduate delegates from twenty-seven American colleges and universities. To the layman its program and platform sound quite in keeping with the times of the forward trend of thought; but that is merely the bait that catches the sucker who is thereby led to entertain insidious thoughts unawares. With such Utopian theories as the Socialists are spreading among the immature minds of the young men and women in our institutions of learning the whole bulwark of Americanism will in time be completely undermined. Our colleges and universities have long been the cradle of Americanism and Nationalism. The time has not come nor must it ever come when they shall become a bed of subtle sedition as the Socialists are attempting to establish.

At one college the activities of a few Socialists were nipped in the bud and brought to an abrupt halt. One of the leaders was summarily dealt with after openly uttering seditious words in class and ridden through the streets of the city in an old-fashioned coat of tar and feathers and perched on a fence rail. This method of dealing with him was direct and to the point. No bones were made about it and the results were immediate and lasting. Socialism has not appeared in that institution since.

Since 1914 the work of combating all this Socialistic propaganda has been most effectively carried on by the National Security League. At present the league is endeavoring to form student branches wherever there is a student branch of the Intercollegiate Liberal League, and for a starter they have a membership of 200 at Williams.

The National Security League is progressive. It is not, as many who have been misinformed would have it, too conservative. It is a real American organization and has the backing of real Americans. Its object is "to promote patriotic and civic education, and national sentiment and service among the people of the United States, and to encourage adequate and efficient defense of the country." To such an organization as this the whole-hearted support of every fraternity man in the country should be given.

Banta's Greek Exchange gives an interesting account of the size of national councils, saying:

The smallest National Council, four members, is that of Kappa Alpha Theta. Five officers constitute the Council of Alpha Phi, of Alpha Xi Delta, of Delta Gamma, of Pi Beta Phi, and of Sigma Kappa. Alpha Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, each has six officers on its national board. Chi Omega's Council has seven members, Phi Mu's and Zeta Tau Alpha's eight. Nine officers make up the National Council of Alpha Gamma Delta, of Alpha Omicron Pi (but much of its business is in the hands of an executive committee of three), of Delta Zeta. Delta Delta Delta's Council has ten members; while the Council of Alpha Delta Pi is the largest of all with fourteen members, it being the only fraternity where province, or district, officers are still members of the national board.

Says a writer in the Delta Upsilon Quarterly:

I am not one of those that think a man is eternally made or lost by his scholastic grades. I look at the scholarship records of a chapter as I do at my barometer, to be interpreted in conjunction with other factors. Nor do I look with favor on a chapter that stands high among the others on a registrar's report through the efforts of a few upperclassmen. I would much rather know that every man is doing decent work than hear that the chapter ranks high owing to the brilliant scholarship of a few who counter-balance the poor grades of a lot of slackers.

The campus is a world in miniature, and in our larger world we know that there are many civic activities that require volunteer labor, many activities that are to be classed as "goat-feathers" and the every-day hum-drum round of business. We do not think well of the man who neglects his business for the "duties" of these more or less desirable organizations, nor do we admire the man whose nose is at the grindstone all the time and who finds no time for work in the Boy Scouts or the parish or for the affairs of civic and municipal value.

On the campus, the business of the student is found in the classroom and the laboratory; but there are certain desirable activities that have their real value in the college communities, college papers, athletic teams, managerships, class officers.

A résumé of the social service work of the Northwestern Y. W. C. A. appears in The Lyre of Alpha Chi Omega as follows:

This year the Social Service department of the College Y. W. C. A. has had the opportunity to extend itself into realms of work hitherto untried. The work of the department is divided into four classes: First, the work at the Northwestern University Settlement; second, the Evanston work; third, that work which deals with the campus alone; and fourth, a department which has for its purpose the education of the women students to a knowledge of worthwhile places in Chicago. Of all this, the work at the settlement is the most interesting and the most extensive.

The opportunity for social service work presented to us by the University Settlement can scarcely be conceived of by these who do not have such a field in problems of the different colleges and by an exchange of suggestions solve these difficulties. The plan first devised included all of the colleges in which there were Panhellenic councils in Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky, and Indiana. As this was a large undertaking at one step, the committee decided that it would perhaps be more advisable to have an Indiana Conference. At this conference definite plans were made for an inter-state conference to be held later.

There is no real work for the Panhellenic girls to do after the rushing season. This is a recognized fact in every college. Still there are problems which could be profitably solved by the council if such were outlined. It will be the purpose of the inter-state conference to make plans whereby the Paphellenic Council may become a force on the campus and a recognized activity in which the girls do actual constructive work for the betterment of their colleges.

Says Sigma Kappa Triangle:

The following twelve points were suggested by Agnes E. Wells, dean of women, in answer to the question, "What should a woman get from the university?"

1. Self reliance.
2. Self expression.
3. Tolerance and consideration of others.
4. Capacity for friendship.
5. Systematic living.
6. Regard for high health standards.
7. Resources to help live a bigger and fuller life.
8. True values.
9. Ability to enjoy life through acquaintance with the thinkers of all ages.
10. Quick and accurate judgement of character.

11. Appreciation of the beautiful in art and literature.
12. Appreciation of nature.

Phi Mu announces the establishment of Delta Beta Chapter at the University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill., on Saturday, October 1, 1921.

Zeta Tau Alpha announces the establishment of Alpha Theta Chapter at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., on September 10 and of Alpha Iota Chapter at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., on September 24, 1921.
