Panhellenic Scholarship

THE New York City Panhellenic announces its second annual scholarship award of $500 available in the fall of 1931. This award was first given in April, 1930, and was won by Miss Helen Delano Willard, a member of Alpha Phi who had graduated from the University of Wisconsin.

The New York City Panhellenic has announced the award for three consecutive years.

The recipient must be chosen from the membership of the N.P.C. fraternities.

No applications are to be sent direct to the New York City Panhellenic as each congress fraternity has been asked to co-operate in selecting applicants. The name of only one applicant will be submitted by each fraternity and the selection of that applicant will be made by the fraternity itself.

The specific requirements to be met by candidates are:

1. The applicant shall be a college senior or graduate on April 1, 1931, and shall be a member of a National Panhellenic Congress fraternity.

2. The recipient shall agree to spend the college year of 1931-32 in study in New York City, pursuing a course leading toward a higher degree.

If you are interested in applying for the scholarship award please submit the following information:

1. Letter giving your home address and present address, your age, year of graduation from preparatory school and name of that school, year, course, and major in college, and transcript of your college record. If a graduate, include, in addition, statement of work or study since graduation and present occupation.

2. Statement of the graduate work you wish to pursue in New York City and letters from two of your college professors concerning your qualifications for such work. Also letters from two alumnae who knew you well.

3. Recent photograph.

The name of the successful applicant will be announced April 1, 1931, and the scholarship award will be available for use in the fall of 1931.

The closing date for applications is February 15, 1931.

A Call to Convention

IT IS to a decided innovation that Pi Beta Phi calls its members when, for the first time in more than sixty-three years, it announces a "Shore" Convention. The Thirtieth Biennial Convention of Pi Beta Phi will be held at the Berkeley Carteret Hotel, Asbury Park, New Jersey, June 21 to 26, 1931. Even a non-Pi Phi would be thrilled at the thought of a week right at the ocean's front and in the city's newest and most luxurious hotel! To a Pi Beta Phi, Convention offers much more than a week of enjoyment, however; it offers an opportunity to learn of her fraternity's organization and accomplishments, to have a part in determining its future, and to experience the joy of fellowship with the girls and women who truly are Pi Beta Phi and whose loyalty to its standards, ideals, and best interests have won for the fraternity the place which it holds among college fraternities.

Come to Convention!

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN
Grand President

THE ARROW

OF PI BETA PHI

Members of Pi Beta Phi to Hold 30th Biennial Convention at Asbury Park, New Jersey, in June

THE coming year brings another opportunity to members of Pi Beta Phi to "renew the joys of college days" with wearers of the arrow from all over the country, for thoughts and plans are racing toward a red-letter week in June when the luxurious Berkeley-Carteret Hotel in Asbury Park, New Jersey, will open wide its hospitable doors to the fraternity's thirtieth convention. And what a gathering it will be! Not in more than twenty years has the East welcomed a Pi Beta Phi convention, and the nearby alumnae clubs of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania are joyously determined to make this approaching one outstanding in the annals of fraternity meetings. The seashore is at its loveliest in June, and as the time of meeting will be from the twenty-second through the twenty-seventh of that month, considerably before the opening of the regular summer resort season, the exclusive use of the hotel is practically assured.

The Berkeley-Carteret Hotel, which is Asbury Park's leading hostelry, and which is, as well, one of the finest to be found on the entire Jersey coast, is situated on the waterfront where it is swept by the cool invigorating breezes of the great Atlantic. The fireproof building of rich, red brick is uniquely constructed in the shape of a great, spreading "H," and each of its four hundred perfectly appointed rooms has an outside exposure, thus assuring every guest of her full share of ozone-laden ocean air and seaside scenery. In addition to an unexcelled cuisine, sumptuous lounges and an interested and intelligent personnel, the hotel service embodies all the modern devices for comfort from hot and cold sea water in the baths to an unusual accommodation for the private pressing of too long packed dresses! A spacious solarium overlooks the ocean and connects the main building with the new boardwalk which extends five miles along the coast.

Recreation Appealing

It is this wide boardwalk which is the main artery of Asbury Park's summer life. West of it lies the town proper, a progressive year-round city of attractive homes, schools, theaters, shops, and parks. East of it lie miles of glistening, smooth sand beach. The continual procession of breakers forms a frothy white line where the surf bathing is as fine as can be found and where for thirty years it has been so well supervised that no and really everything that a seaside resort can provide. The town has offered Pi Beta Phi the free use of its excellent tennis courts, and has reduced its prices as much as possible on all city-owned concessions. And for a nominal sum any inferiority complex can be eradicated! Just try a boardwalk ride, tragedy has marred the holiday spirit of pleasure seekers. For those who prefer less vigorous activity there are pools filled with clean, clear sea water. Safe, shallow ones are provided for children.

And there will be other recreation in plenty. For Pi Phis to be and their small brothers Shetland ponies, miniature trains and supervised play will be waiting. Their elders may enjoy canoeing, motor-boating, horseback riding, deep sea fishing, sightseeing trips, golf on two excellent links, one of which is the famous eighteen hole Sun Eagle course, Tom Thumb golf, lolling back like a queen in a hand-pushed wheel chair!

Asbury Park is located approximately sixty miles from New York and is so easily accessible from all directions by both train and motor that the 1931 convention promises to be the largest ever held by the fraternity. Hotel, railroad and recreation rates will be moderate. No Pi Beta Phi can truly afford to miss the experiences of the New Jersey meeting; the impressive loveliness of a model initiation in the stately hall of the Berkeley-Carteret; the inspiration and gastronomic satisfaction of a convention banquet; the lazy delight of basking on a sun warmed beach; the sharp, refreshing saltiness of ocean breezes; and most important of all the satisfaction and inspiration that can be attained through actual convention contacts.

It is not too early to begin making plans so that reservations may be made early in the year.

Frances Evans Ives, Former Grand Secretary, Made Convention Guide

FRATERNITY officers and committee members who have dealt with the problems of a national convention readily agree that a successful convention may be attributed to the efficient management of the many details and the unfailing enthusiasm of the convention guide.

With the appointment of Frances Evans Ives, member of Louisiana A and former Grand Secretary, the success of the 1931 Seashore convention is assured. Living in New Jersey, Mrs. Ives will have the advantage of being on the ground to superintend arrangements and the work of the committees.

When appointed as Grand Secretary of Pi Beta Phi in 1925 THE ARROW said of Frances Evans (Ives):

"With personal charm, a keen sense of humor, and an ability to make and hold innumerable friends, Frances R. Evans is a splendid type of national fraternity officer. She is capable of grasping quickly both the active and alumnae viewpoint and in making especially fine decisions concerning fraternity questions.

"In 1923 she very skillfully presented the petition of Alpha Omega, now Florida A, at Charlevoix and at the Estes Park Convention spoke in behalf of the groups now Tennessee A and North Carolina A.

"Frances Evans held many important fraternity and college honors. Following her graduation at Sophie Newcomb College she did some substitute teaching in San Antonio and in 1922 entered Carnegie Institute of Technology as a fellow in the research bureau for retail training and completed the work a year later."

Mrs. Ives served as Grand Secretary until the Bigwin Convention in 1927 when she resigned to devote her time to her home and infant daughter.

Interesting Opportunities in Research Offered by Pauline Arnold

Any number of questions regarding the Arnold Research Bureau were received following an article by Pauline Arnold which appeared in the February ARROW. Miss Arnold invites Pi Phis who are interested in this type of work to communicate with her regarding opportunities.

THE things one Pi Beta Phi is doing are always of interest to other Pi Phis, and occasionally several of them all get involved in one organization. There is, in a good many large cities, a natural gravitation of people who know one another into the same firm, but it has remained for Pauline Arnold, Beta-Delta chapter, Knox College, '15, to knit together many Pi Phis all over the country who not only do not know her or each other, but never even see each other.

Miss Arnold has been directing the activities of the Arnold Research Service for nearly five years. Her headquarters are at 45 West 45th Street, New York City, with a branch office in Chicago, but due to the type of work she is doing, her employees are spread from coast to coast.

This service handles market and advertising research which involved the study of consumers' reactions to products, the retail and wholesale situation, competition, potential market, etc., as well as the proper type of appeal to use for advertising. Such service is in use by advertising agencies and manufacturers.

It is also used by general magazines in a study of the people whom they reach, their "Reader Market," for promotional purposes of the magazine, and to enable advertisers to gauge correctly their expenditure through the medium. Trade associations, trade publications, newspapers, etc., are also logical clients.

To gather such information as this, it is necessary that a great many people be employed in different parts of the country. Miss Arnold covers with regularly employed people (although their work is intermittent) all of the important trade area centers in the country as well as innumerable smaller cities and towns. The analysis of such information and its application to the problems of the client is, of course, handled in the New York office, but these field investigators are all working simultaneously in their own cities.

It is this part of the organization which has brought her into touch with many members of Pi Beta Phi, for quite often a letter comes into her office with a beginning such as this, "I have read in THE ARROW of the interesting work you are doing and the people you are using for such work from time to time, in different parts of the country. I wonder if my experience would make me capable of this?"

At other times it has been necessary to find reliable, intelligent women who could be depended upon to carry out an assignment conscientiously and quickly. Then the Pi Phi alumnae directory has come into play and a telegram goes to some Pi Phi who might be interested. "Would you care to handle a week's investigating work for us in your community?" And more times than one the best work on a job has been done by a Pi Phi who had been sitting in her home town thinking, "I wish I could do some work occasionally right here to make extra money."

In a recent conversation with the editor of THE ARROW, Miss Arnold was talking about her work, which has developed in a very interesting way. "The most intense and exacting part of the work, of course, is in the statistical analysis of the returns, and the correct application of the results to the problem in hand. If you are giving a man an answer to which he will decide the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of advertising or merchandising plans, you have to be pretty sure you are right. But the most human and interesting side, as well as one of the most important aspects, is the work of the people in the field. They are the real backbone of the business and unless their facts are right, our analysis counts for less than nothing. I wish I had more Pi Phis to work with."

To the Pi Phi Girls at Norman, Oklahoma

I have seen pictures painted by great masters,
I have seen sculpture—antique—and new,
I have seen castles—ancient stone castles—
And lovely cloud castles in a sea of blue.

I have seen mountains, majestic, snow covered,
I have seen gardens enclosed in ivy walls,
I have seen rivers, laughing streams, and rivers
Foaming in grandeur over waterfalls.

I have seen sunsets, splashed with gorgeous color,
I have seen moonlight shimmering on the sea,
I have seen faces, old and wrinkled faces
With an inner radiance beautiful to me.

These are my treasures, pictures that I dream of,
Now I've another, the sweetest, loveliest sight:
A group of Pi Phi daughters, daughters with their mothers,

ANNA WITHERSPOON

Pi Beta Phi Fellow

FRANCES McNULTY, of Roanoke, Virginia, was born in Lexington, Virginia, June 10, 1907, was graduated from the high school at Roanoke in 1924, and entered Hollins College, Virginia, the following fall. She was initiated into Virginia B of Pi Beta Phi in 1925. While in college she was president of the Freshman class; on the magazine staff for two years; editor of a humorous paper one year; on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet one year; member of the Ensemble Club (orchestra) four years; gave a recital which entitled her to a certificate of proficiency in violin; was student assistant in the library; student assistant in the social office; on the honor roll for two years, and the high honor roll one year; made the honorary musical society; and was elected to Freya, the only organization at Hollins to recognize scholarship, membership in which is also based on some definite contribution toward, or interest in, the campus life. Her majors were English and philosophy. After receiving her A.B., with honor, in June, 1928, she taught in a junior high school of Roanoke from 1928 to 1930; won a prize for the best poem by a provisional member submitted to the Junior League magazine in 1929; was Junior League city editor, 1929-1930; and is now studying English Literature in the graduate department of Columbia University.

An organization that does not advance, of necessity, must retreat; a sorority that chooses to restrict its boundaries and to conserve its opportunities cannot expect to take its place as a great and mighty force. A judicious addition of loyal and eager groups with college tradition as a background; a wise and sane adjustment of a lengthened chapter roll; a sharing of the crescent badge with those who are worthy to receive it and determined to bring it honor; an increase in the fund that means detailed inspection, internal development, practical aid in chapter enterprises and in scholastic lines—all this will mean a practical and material growth.—From the Crescent of Gamma Phi Beta

Michigan Beta Retains Balfour Cup

Scholarship Averaged Two Points Higher Than Nearest Campus Rival

IT IS with sincere appreciation that Michigan Beta receives the Balfour Cup for the year of 1930 and promises to put forth a very earnest effort to be worthy of the honor which Grand Council has given to the chapter. With an aim to making this year a most successful one, Michigan Beta chapter has taken as its purpose a fuller realization of the ideal of cooperation—within the chapter, with the alumnae, with the national organization, and with the University of Michigan.

Scholarship has always held a high place among the factors in the college life of every member of Michigan Beta. For the past two years the chapter has held the campus scholarship cup in competition with twenty other women's fraternities, this year with an average two points higher than its nearest rival and three points above the highest ranking men's fraternity. Winning of the cup this year will bring permanent possession. No definite study hours are required of members, but hours of condition or failure carry fines. High individual scholarship is recognized among the pledges by the awarding of a ring with the Pi Beta Phi crest, and among the active members is recognized and encouraged just as is honor won in campus activity.

Chapter duties are apportioned as equally as possible among all the members of the chapter, with the higher duties going to the seniors and a slightly greater number of the lesser responsibilities divided among the initiates and new residents in the house. Pride in the place of the chapter both on the campus and in the national organization offers an incentive to efficiency and trustworthiness.

Michigan B places great emphasis on campus activity as a field for the training of executive ability and character as well as for the formation of friendships outside the chapter. Because all women are required by the university to live in college dormitories during their first year of residence on the campus, friendships are made with women of other fraternities and with independent women, that make for a greater measure of good will among all campus women. This year Michigan Betas hold high executive positions in all fields of activity—in the Women's League, the women's athletic association, the Michigan Daily, and various dramatic organizations. In recognition of these achievements, three members have been elected to Mortar Board, one of these being the president of the Michigan chapter.

For the past two years a Michigan Pi Beta Phi has been given the highest social honor of the college year—the leadership of the J.-Hop.

Panhellenic Scholarship Applications Open

FOR a number of years most of the interests and energies of the fraternity women in New York City centered around the efforts to make real the greatly desired Panhellenic House. With the completion of the Panhellenic House and the filling of its rooms, the success of that project was assured, and there came opportunity for the City Panhellenic to turn its attention toward establishing a center for fraternity friendship and activity.

The New York City Panhellenic occupies attractive club rooms on the fourth floor of the Panhellenic House, and while its ultimate aim is to have every fraternity woman in New York a member there is always a cordial welcome in those club rooms for each Greek, whether or not she is a member. A secretary and hostess are on duty throughout the day and evening, and information concerning the activities of the local alumnae organizations of all fraternities is available and gladly given. A very earnest effort is being put forth to make the City Panhellenic headquarters a real center of Greek friendliness, as well as to develop social and cultural activities with a wide appeal.

In addition to this program, the New York Panhellenic is making a concrete contribution toward one of its objects as expressed in its constitution: "To stand always for the encouragement of higher education."

In 1929 a scholarship award was established, and given for the first time in April, 1930. The details concerning this award, which was announced for a three year period are:

1. The scholarship award shall be confined to members of National Panhellenic Congress fraternities.
2. Each National Panhellenic Congress fraternity shall be asked to co-operate in granting the scholarship award to the extent of submitting to the scholarship award committee the detailed information required concerning the member of that fraternity which the national organization deems best fitted to receive the scholarship award.
3. The amount of the scholarship award shall be $500 annually.
4. The recipient of the scholarship award shall agree to spend the year in study in New York City.
5. The recipient shall be a college senior or graduate at the time the award is announced.
6. The recipient shall pursue a course leading toward a higher degree.
7. The announcement of the winner of the scholarship award shall be made April 1 each year, the award to be available for use the following fall.

It is desired that the applicants for the scholarship award shall have no direct contact with the New York City Panhellenic, but rather that all preliminaries shall be conducted through a designated officer in each fraternity and that she shall be the one medium of communication between her fraternity and the scholarship award committee of the New York City Panhellenic. All applications for each fraternity shall be sent to the designated officer in that fraternity, she to make the final selection of the one she feels best fitted to receive the award. Care will be taken to prevent the identity of any applicant being known to the members of the scholarship award committee of the New York City Panhellenic. The name of only one candidate from each fraternity will be submitted to the scholarship award committee and detailed blanks for submitting information concerning that candidate will be sent at a later date.

The chairman of the 1929-30 award committee was Miss Louise Leonard, Alpha Gamma Delta, 150 Claremont Avenue, New York City. The members of the committee were Mrs. Theodore Westermann, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Mrs. James R. McAfee, Delta Delta Delta, Mrs. Burton White, Kappa Alpha Theta, Miss Fannie Shelton, Delta Gamma. The winner was Miss Helen Delano Willard of Waukesha, Wisconsin, a member of Alpha Phi, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

The chairman of the 1930-31 award committee is Mrs. Beverley Robinson, Alpha Xi Delta, Room 418, 3 Mitchell Place, New York City. The members of the committee are Miss Helen Augusta Rallett, Alpha Omicron Pi, Mrs. C. Grant Cleaver, Pi Beta Phi, Miss Winifred H. Weeks, Phi Mu, Miss Marion Boyd, Chi Omega, Miss Dorothy Woodward, Sigma Kappa.

New Fraternity Home

This year Ohio Δ has been most fortunate in renting new fraternity rooms, which are favorably situated half way between the dormitories and the campus. They are located in one-half of a private home, and are composed of a reception hall, living room, chapter room, kitchen, dressing room, and bath. The "homey" atmosphere has skillfully been retained all through the apartment, and with the able assistance of several interior decorating students, definite schemes have been carried out.

To the living room, deft touches have been added with the addition of several lamps, vases, a magazine rack, and a new electric orthophonic victrola, and as the outcome of unhopd for dreams, the chapter room has been furnished with green wicker.

Why Books in Fraternity Houses?

IN HIS recent book Books—Their Place in a Democracy, Mr. Robert L. Duffus, graduate of Leland Stanford, Jr., University, states that "the voluntary book-reading of the American public cannot possibly amount to more than one volume per capita every two months." His deduction is made from figures of bookstore sales, rental library loans, and public library reports. He asks why so few books are bought by the American people, believing that we can afford books, but that we do not afford them.

In any discussion of reading and book-buying habits, it would seem as if we might say first of all, "Of course college students read good books; college graduates, wherever they are, buy good books. They are not the average American." But here is a review of Mr. Duffus' book by Mr. W. T. Couch, of the University of North Carolina Press, stating that "the evidence is overwhelming that our graduates have never started—much less continued—the cultivation of intellectual interests after college."

Members of the college faculty and trustees should see that the college bookstore is not only a dispenser of necessary textbooks, but a source of the best books.

The fraternity and sorority houses, if they live up to their ambition to provide real college homes, and to encourage the cultural as well as the social side of life, should include well-equipped libraries.

Open bookcases, easy chairs, well-placed lights, but most of all books—the best of the old and the new—how many fraternity houses can boast these? It is conceivable that a girl weighing one sorority against another, might even decide in favor of the one with the library—because she has never had enough time to read—but where would she find that sorority?

Obviously a library cannot be alive without frequent additions, which are an expense. But why not a budget for books in the chapter budget? Or an alumni endowment for books? Or annual requests to alumni for money for books, or for books to be selected from a designated list of titles? The college librarian or the local bookseller will be glad to compile a nucleus list and to keep it up to date. The Aglaia of Phi Mu, March, 1930, carried an interesting article on Chapter House Libraries, by Lila May Chapman, director of the Birmingham, Alabama, public library, with a list of recommended books and suggestions for caring for the library.

Where shall we look for the cultural influence of the fraternity house? The library offers the answer; and fraternity libraries in the future may be the inspiration of a change in the reading habits of college students and alumni—a vastly important group in the democracy.—For National Panhellenic Congress, Marion Humble, Δ Δ Δ.

There are some things in life which some of us struggle through, and one of mine was in sophomore college English when we read Chaucer. It wasn't that I had a preconceived dislike for "Whan that Aprille wythe her shoures soote" or some such spelling . . . I just couldn't get into the thrill of reading those ancient lines. I did envy the students who could. They were getting something fine out of an ancient master of English. So when Master Vergil, by Elizabeth Nitche came and I glanced inside, I ran for a real student of that language in which some of the writers who were included wrote. It contains forty-five poems, including excerpts from Chaucer's "House of Fame." The book was published at the time of the Bimillennium Vergilianum, and is a collection of tributes to Vergil. Tennyson and Gavin Douglas are among the more modern writers included in Miss Nitche's work.

"Delightful" was the verdict of the learned scholar to whom I took this book for help in reviewing it. "The translations are apt, accurate, and remarkably well-chosen."

Brazil at the present time looms as a place of revolutions (probably by the time this copy reaches print, Brazil will be a South American country with a well-established government, revolutions all forgotten). In such a country romance is paramount. My ideas of Brazil, outside of revolutions, consist of dark-eyed señoritas listening to serenades by liquid-voiced banjo-strummers. In short, the Utopia of us sentimentalists.

One of our own Pi Phis, Margaret Richardson of Oklahoma A, has translated a Brazilian romance which is receiving much favorable comment. The book, Domitila, is written by Brazil's greatest authority on the history and literature of the period which it comprises (1813-1829).

Its author, Paulo Setubal, is now a member of the Brazilian House of Deputies (if there hasn't been another revolution!). The book, although in fiction style, is really the history of the first Brazilian emperor, Dom Pedro I and his mistress, Domitila de Castro.

Miss Richardson was born in Oklahoma but a great part of her life at various times has been spent in South America and Europe. As a child she lived in Mexico City and Buenos Aires. In 1921 she graduated from Dana Hall Preparatory School in Wellesley, Massachusetts. From 1921 to 1924 she attended the University of Oklahoma where she affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. Then, in 1925, her family moved again to South America. It was in Rio de Janeiro that she became acquainted with the works of Paulo Setubal and began her translation. For the last year and a half Miss Richardson has been living in New York. Last year she took a short story writing course at Columbia University.

The picture of her which appears in this issue was in the magazine Brazil, a copy of which was at each place at the banquet for the president-elect of Brazil in New York. She presented him with an autographed copy of Domitila at this banquet.

Scientific domesticity tucked between the covers of a textbook . . . that is an impression of Elementary Home Economics, a textbook by Dean Mary L. Mathews, Indiana

DEAN MARY L. MATHEWS

Δ, and head of the department of home economics at Purdue University. This textbook is being revised in 1930, and the fact that it was issued first in 1921 and is still in demand, testifies to its worth.

Two other books along similar subjects have been written by Dean Mathews: The House and Its Care, a textbook on house planning, house furnishing, and home management, and Clothing, which at the time I corresponded with Dean Mathews had not been given a definite title. It is coming out this year.

House furnishings is really one of Dean Mathews' "special specialties" for she is also the author of the section on this in The Book of Rural Life, published by the Bellows Company.

Interest in her profession has not taken all of her time, however . . . indeed, no! She is chairman of the advisory board of Pi Beta Phi at Purdue and you alumnæ will appreciate what that means (!) and is chairman of the board of directors of Pi Beta Phi building association of Purdue. That last title may sound long, but it doesn't sound half as important as it really is. Her background of home economics is indeed a fine requisite for such a position.

Cut and dried "doing no more than absolutely required" does not seem to be a part of Dean Mathews' program for her home economics work. A lunchroom in which 50,226 meals were served last year, and which gives laboratory work in lunchroom management for students, is sponsored by this Pi Phi. Another idea, which particularly appeals to me, in remembrance of certain fraternity and sorority meals on a college campus, is a course in food planning she established for student stewards of campus organizations. A nursery school under the direction of her department has a long waiting list; in fact, the children are registered at their birth in order that their parents may enter them in school when they are two years old.

Yes, Dean Mathews seems to have lived up to her ideal of making home economics as much of a real profession for women as engineering is for men.

Here's a question for a brand-new bride. How would you like to start your honeymoon on a trans-oceanic trip with your few-hours-acquired husband and find that he had disappeared into the ocean at night? (Personally, I don't think I'd like it at all—hope that my brand-new husband doesn't see this and get conceited!)

Anyway, that's only one of the things which happened to Nora Lake in Jessie Douglas Fox's new novel What Mad Pursuit, published by Brewer and Warren. Miss Fox is a member of New York B.

Just because one hasn't had an artist for a father, hasn't lived in an Italian villa, hasn't yearned for the security of English home life, hasn't finally married a "violent young man" who is a doctor by profession; just because one hasn't done or been any of these is no reason at all why one will not feel sympathy for Nora as she travels along through this book. No reason at all.

Nora, who was so sure that she wanted just one thing—security—after living a helter-skelter life with her artist-father, Nora, who had within her grasp that one thing, and who then gave it up like a madcap to follow, without even taking time to pack a bag, when the man she loved came along and offered her "Nothing. Only poverty and struggle." You'll like Nora.

Miss Fox is the author of Rain Before Seven, mention of which was made in THE ARROW some few issues back.

Before going to Ohio in 1921 he was president of Colgate University and before that of Franklin College. Dr. Bryan holds two honorary degrees which were conferred upon him in recognition of his contributions to education, the L.C.D. degree from Franklin College and the L.H.D. degree from the University of Maine. When William Howard Taft went to the Philippines as governor of the islands Dr. Bryan went as principal of the Insular Normal School. Later he was made general superintendent of education in the Philippines. He received a gold medal and diploma from the St. Louis exposition for the educational exhibit of the islands which he arranged and presented. He is a frequent contributor to educational publications and has written two books, The Basis of Practical Teaching and Fundamental Facts for Teachers. Dr. Bryan is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and the National Educational Association.

S. W. STRATTON—uncle of Glenita Hobbs, Illinois Z, is president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston. For many years Dr. Stratton was director of the Bureau of Standards at Washington, D.C.

S. C. WADMOND—father of Joyce Wadmond, Wisconsin B, has gained extensive recognition through his hobby, amateur botany. He has the largest private herbarium in Wisconsin, has many unusual specimens, and has made a special study of the orchid. He is a member of the Wisconsin Academy of Science, Letters, and Arts.

JOHN EWING BRADFORD—father of Martha Bradford, Illinois A, has done remarkable work both as a minister and professor. History of the Miami Valley is from his pen as are also numerous historical and educational pamphlets.

STEPHEN A. FORBES—father of Winifred Forbes and Ethel Forbes Scott, both of Illinois Z, last March, in death, ended more than sixty years of service to his state and the University of Illinois. His early schooling interrupted, he had privately learned to read French, Spanish, and Italian. Enlisting as a private in the Seventh Illinois Cavalry early during the Civil War he was made a captain when only twenty years old. He fought in twenty battles, was never wounded but was captured and spent some months in prison and more in a hospital after his release. Continuing his education at Beloit Academy and Rush Medical College, Professor Forbes a little later changed his study from medical to natural history in which field he became a national authority and known as dean of the economic entomologists, continuing his interests and activities until within a few days of his death when he was eighty-five years old. Professor Forbes was the last of the Civil War veterans on the campus of the University of Illinois. He was said to have also been the oldest autoist in the community, driving rapidly and well, and had the unusual experience of being arrested for speeding on his eightieth birthday. His Ph.D. degree was from Indiana University and the University of Illinois had conferred on him the honorary degree of doctor of laws in recognition of his long service.

A list of the societies which had honored Dr. Forbes serves as a brief insight to his many activities. He was a member of the National Academy of Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, the Entomological Society of America (president, 1912), the American Association of Economic Entomologists (president in 1893 and 1908), the Société Entomologique de France, the American Entomological Society (president in 1921), the Academy (president in 1921), the Acadamy of Natural Science in Philadelphia, the Illinois State Academy of Science (president in 1909), the City Club and the Chaos Club of Chicago, Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Zeta, Sigma Xi, Phi Gamma Delta, and the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. The first class medal of the Société d'Acclimatation de France was awarded Dr. Forbes in 1886 and in 1928 he was elected an honorary member of the fourth international congress of entomologists.

Attend Conventions

Interfraternity fellowship is not just a "catch phrase," glibly used by Panhellenic speakers but without real significance: it is an actuality deeply valued by those who have had the opportunity to experience it. Pi Beta Phi considers it a rare privilege to have shared in the inspiration and happy associations of the conventions of Alpha Chi Omega and Zeta Tau Alpha, this past summer, and regrets the inability of its grand president to accept the invitation of Delta Zeta, whose convention came at the time of the grand council meeting. Miss Onken and Miss Frost, chairman of the committee on extension, who attended the inspiring opening session and reception of the Zeta Tau Alpha convention at West Baden, Indiana, and Miss Riley and Mrs. McClymonds, of the California Beta alumnae advisory committee, who represented the fraternity at the delightful Panhellenic tea given by Alpha Chi Omega at Del Monte, California, gained from these most enjoyable personal contacts a realization of common purposes, ideals, and fellowship which they will long cherish.

Sophie Woodman Recommends Settlement School for Ideal Vacation

When the committee found that Sophie Parsons Woodman, the president of the New York Alumnae Club, had spent her Easter vacation in Gatlinburg, it felt that her impressions would be of interest to all ARROW readers. Miss Woodman has had wide fraternity experience, and has served as ARROW alumnae editor, as chairman of the examination committee, and as chairman of the Fellowship Fund Committee. She has attended five conventions and is well known to many Pi Phi alumnae from coast to coast.

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL AND SUNDRY:

EASTER vacation came very late last year and by the third week in April I was just perishing for the sight of green. I had always thought Gatlinburg too far away, both in time and money, for a short visit, but the call of spring was stronger than that of pocket-book, and so, after twenty-one hours on the train and two and a half in a motor bus, I found myself, in the late afternoon of a day all blue and green and gold, on the porch of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School (in a thin summer dress, be it said!). Twenty years ago I attended my first convention at Swarthmore and was much thrilled at Emma Harper Turner's proposal, followed by the discussion and the vote to found our school, and as I have been working for its success ever since, I felt it was about time to look it over.

Check Up!

Now, why don't more Pi Phis go "down South" for Easter or some other holiday and view "our property?" There is a delightful hotel with many new rooms, with furniture made from native wood by the boys under Mr. Mattil. There are roads that lead the auto on and up through virgin forest—magnificent trees of many varieties and carpets of flowers in deep moss. And especially, there are mountains! I never saw more beautiful mountains. They have the ruggedness that suggests the Rockies, with the finest timber, rivaling anything in the East. The general mass (not merely a few peaks) is higher than the Alleghenies, the Adirondacks or the White Mountains. These Great Smokies are supremely beautiful and I shall never forget their blue on the afternoon of my arrival.

And then, you and I have helped support the Pi Phi school for many years and we are awfully proud of it. Proud of what? I wanted to see. Besides, if I only give one dollar to a "cause" I like to know it is well spent. Why don't you go down and get the thrill that I did?

I've listened to a lot of reports and read reams in THE ARROW but I never got the half of it. I was amazed at the number of buildings and the variety—schools, houses, barn, workshop, etc., etc. I was very much satisfied in a fairly humble way at the very evident efficiency with which this large plant functions under Evelyn Bishop. (You don't need to stay long at the school to realize how fortunate it is for Pi Phi that there is a "Miss Evelyn"). I was delighted with the sweet cordiality of the girls and boys in the dormitories and the alacrity and thoroughness with which they did their work. Good training and a happy spirit were evident on all sides. School was just closing so I could not visit classes, but I know they must have been worth while from my contact with the teachers as well as the youngsters.

A visitor is not long in the Burg without wandering into the Arrowcraft Shop. We have all bought the lovely articles sent out from this cabin by Baskins, but it is a treat to see them in quantity, and to watch Miss Allen at her books, superintending the girls at the looms or filling orders. And, after having seen the finished product, one wants to visit the women who make them. It was my privilege to go on a round of visits one afternoon with Miss Strand, the weaving teacher, and I wish all those kind women could know how much pleasure their hospitality gave me. My handbag woven by Izora and my scarf by Myrtle mean so much more because I saw both women in their homes.

Just Beginning

Have you wondered whether we have done all we could and whether perhaps we should go elsewhere or take up some new work? I had. I had even heard supposedly well-informed persons say so. But now I am sure we have only just begun. We have shown these good people different standards and methods and they are learning. To get out from under now would be desertion. As you drive along the good roads the houses present a fair appearance from the outside, even though there may be little furniture within. But go up the "criks and hollers." One of most charming hostesses on that lovely and thought-provoking walk lived in a cabin without a window and with wide cracks between the single boards.

The impression I gained was that this was the time to spend more money and consolidate what we now have and do. To slacken would be bad business as well as poor humanity. I sat on the porch and mentally spent thousands more for land—we ought to control all the road frontage; more buildings—we can't take any more resident pupils until a new boys' dormitory is built; and smaller sums about the place for the comfort and profit of the teachers. Tourists of all sorts are beginning to drive through. At present there is no tea shop. If we don't establish one, some one else will, and such a proposition would bring us friends and comparatively easy money, for people expect to spend while vacationing. It is so easy to spend other people's money, isn't it? Only part of it is mine. How about you?

Just as THE ARROW goes to press word is received of a most generous gift to the Pi Beta Phi School.

A gentleman who is much interested in Gallinburg, and particularly in practical vocational education for our boys, has offered to build and equip a wood-working shop.

This is the largest individual gift the school has ever received and makes possible still more development along the industrial lines the school is so much interested in.

SOPHIE PARSONS WOODMAN

Gift Suggestions from the Arrowcraft Shop

MR. PAUL BERNAT, editor of the Handicrafter, recently visited Gatlinburg and wrote an article for the Gatlinburg News, a part of which follows:

On entering Gatlinburg, with its setting of encircling mountains and winding streams, I experienced the sensation that pulses through one on having a gorgeous jewel box placed before him. What are the brilliants inside?

Two days were spent in discovering what the box contained. I had come to see weavings and the mountains; I found both—one as full of charm as the other. There was the Arrowcraft shop with its profusion of color spread through the weaving array; rioting colors but with the richness of the lapping ear pendants of a Paris bride. My eyes jumped from Afghans blocked in reds, blues, and oranges to sheer woven shawls that were as delicate in tone and clinging in touch as Zinnia blossoms. There were guest towels of silky sheen and jewel spottings; some had gay colored borders, some were monotoned, while others were of damask texture in the natural linens. I learned of the growing industry, organized by the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity School to be of help to the mountain women, to bring new pleasures in their lives, and to provide them with a means of earning money in a pleasant way. Then we wandered up Baskins Creek, paying short visits to the weavers in their homes. The looms were esconced in the front rooms and though designed as a means of earning money, they seemed fitting, for in the gay colors slipping over them was expressed the joyful freedom these wood contraptions brought to the mountain families.

Most Pi Phis know of the lovely weavings and baskets but are not so familiar with the new addition—the wood craft department. Mr. Mattil has very advantageously taken the beautiful woods of the mountains, such as wild cherry, black walnut and maple, and worked them into reproductions of colonial or early American furniture.

Due to the remoteness of the mountaineer's home one found only beds, chairs and occasionally a corner cupboard, highboy, or chest of drawers. These pieces have been copied and to them has been added other pieces such as butterfly tables, Sheraton card tables, wall shelves of various designs with sconces to match, crickets, footstools, ladder-back chairs, and rockers.

Since we are subjected to the restrictions of the park it is not so easy for us to secure white oak splits for our chair bottoms therefore it is necessary for us to use corn husk for this purpose—a far more attractive and durable bottom, as they say the life of these is thirty years.

The new Mountain View Hotel, which is considered one of the most original and attractive resorts in the South because it is built entirely of native woods and stone, uses exclusively our hand-woven curtains and our handmade furniture for the lobby and choice rooms. Nothing has created more interest and admiration among the tourists than these furnishings.

The Arrowcraft Shop offers many ideas for your Christmas shopping or a touch of our mountain antiquity for your home. I will be so glad to help at any time in the selection of gifts or something for your personal use from the shop. We are glad to send out selections of the smaller articles and cuts of the larger for you to choose from.

LADELLE ALLEN

California Beta Guest Room Furnished with Settlement School Products

Kathryn Magaw Snook is one of a family of Pi Phi sisters, all of whom are active workers for Pi Phi. She has charge of the Settlement School work for the Berkeley Alumnae Club and to her enthusiasm and untiring efforts are due the success of that club in disposing of many hundreds of dollars worth of Arrowcraft products each year.

THE Berkeley Alumnae Club has just finished redecorating the guest room in California B's chapter house, using the Settlement School products, and the result is so charming we'd like to tell other Pi Phis about it.

The guest room is a small room on the third floor under the eaves with a sloping ceiling and one dormer window. It has a pretty paper with a cream background and little old-fashioned flowers in pastel shades scattered over it. The woodwork is white.

To start with we had a plain dark Simmons bed, a pink and cream-colored slipper chair, a glass-topped dressing table with a faded pink flounce and on the floor a dark taupe rug. We only wish we could show "before and after" pictures, for everyone who saw the room admitted it was rather characterless and unattractive—just a room.

The Mothers' Club of California B started the rejuvenation by purchasing from the Arrowcraft Shop a rose and cream-colored Whig Rose bedspread for $30. It was so lovely that we became inspired and the alumnae club decided to finish the good work.

LaDelle Allen of the Arrowcraft Shop had woven for us rose drapes with stripes of the lovely yellow, green and lavender shades which look so beautiful with the light through them and the stunning border of rose at the bottom. The drapes, all made and ready to hang, cost us just $12.50 for the pair.

We discarded the taupe rug and for the floor we purchased the Churn Dasher hooked rugs—one rug about 3½ x 4½ feet for $12.50 and the other a door mat (a half oval rug) of the same design which was just the right shape and size in front of the dressing table. The price on this was $5.50. These rugs of course had the rose color predominating.

By the bed we hung the love-things we have bought will last years and years. They are all beautifully made and of such exquisite design and color that, though fashions in interior decorating may change, this room will always be right.

CALIFORNIA B'S ATTRACTIVE GUEST ROOM USES SETTLEMENT SCHOOL PRODUCTS

liest cherry bookshelf ($7.50) and in front of the slipper chair we put a cherry four-legged cricket ($5.00) with a rose-colored hooked mat ($2.00), all purchased from the Arrowcraft Shop. With the flounce on the dressing table dyed the same shade of rose as the rugs by one of our most industrious members, our room was complete. The total cost, including the bedspread, was $75.

We are planning to buy later on from Mr. Mattil of the Settlement School a chest of drawers and a cherry colonial mirror to hang over the dressing table. But the room right now has such a warmth of color, such cheerfulness and so much character and charm that we are most enthusiastic. We have the satisfaction of knowing that the

Do we always have to have a reason for doing nice things? If so, then the alumnae club had three reasons for redecorating the guest room. We wanted to give California B a gift and that room needed something done to it; we also wanted to help out the Settlement School. But after we saw the results, we realized that that room would bring the work of the Settlement School before the public in a very vivid way; it would also help the girls in rushing. We are giving a big tea at the chapter house in November at which we display and sell the Arrowcraft Shop products and we hope when the public sees our guest room and the many possibilities of the handwoven articles, that we may send many fat orders down to the Settlement School.

CATHERINE TONGE BOWEN

District of Columbia A

In the early fall of 1928 Catherine Tonge Bowen came across Leist Avenue from her home on the opposite corner to the Panhellenic Hotel and introduced herself to the Panhellenic Club and the New York Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi. This was characteristic, she was not the kind of fraternity woman who waits to be looked up and during her first year she was on the membership committee of the former and on the Founders' Day luncheon committee of the latter. And because her enthusiasm was so real her husband came to many of the teas and social affairs where he won a hearty welcome for himself. In 1929 Catherine was appointed chairman of the Founders' Day luncheon, but passed away ten days before it was held, after a severe illness of five months. The last evening before she became ill she had a group of "stranger Pi Phis," business girls, living in the mid-town section, in her home for cards.

Catherine Bowen was with us two years. It is not the length of life but its spirit that counts. The brilliancy of hers, the radiancy of her smile, the keenness of her ability have left a memory intensely precious to those of us who knew and worked with her. Knowing Dr. Bowen and the perfection of their married life, we extend to him the sympathy of our appreciation.

MABEL STANLEY LEONARD SCHORR

Michigan B

Mabel Stanley Leonard Schorr (Mrs. Robert L.), died at Ann Arbor, Michigan, June 4, 1930. She was buried at Detroit, Michigan. She joined Michigan Beta in 1898, and soon after leaving the university married Dr. Schorr of Detroit, where she lived for many years. Mrs. Schorr is survived by her husband, two sons and a daughter.

MARY DUKE CARTER

Virginia F

Mary Duke Carter, Virginia F, died at her home, McKenney, Virginia, July 20, after a brief illness of spinal meningitis. Duke was one of the later initiates and gave promise of being a true and loyal Pi

Phi. She is grievously mourned by all who knew her, and her family has our deepest sympathy.

GENEVIEVE PRESCOTT HEIFNER
Washington B

Genevieve Prescott Heifner, born May 5, 1888, Spokane, Washington, died July 7, 1930.

Genevieve was a pledge of the local chapter of Phi Alpha Epsilon which became Washington B of Pi Beta Phi in the summer of 1912. She returned to school and was initiated into the national fraternity in the autumn of that year and on Christmas Day, 1912, she was married to Lloyd Day Heifner.

Genevieve was ever a loyal member and a splendid worker for Pi Beta Phi. During the last four years of her life, her home was in Seattle, Washington, and it is here that countless friends feel her loss so greatly. She was not only very active in the Seattle alumnae club but she was in reality the guiding star of a club of thirty Pi Phis from her own Washington Beta chapter; girls who knew her intimately and who appreciated her loyal friendship.

At the time of her death her father-in-law wrote a beautiful eulogy and a few words from that tribute best express the true character of her life.

"Genevieve's childhood was spent in a Christian home where the lessons of love, devotion and kindness were deeply engraven on her youthful mind. These lessons deepened into utter selflessness as she grew into young womanhood. School days and college days came into her life bringing contacts that flowered into sweet and abiding friendships. Everyone she knew was her friend.

None knew her but to love her nor named her but to praise."

KATHLEEN LITTLE Texas A

After an illness of over a year, Kathleen Little died April 27, 1929, in Hermann Hospital, Houston, Texas. She is survived by her mother, a brother, Dr. Harry M. Little of Houston, and a Pi Beta Phi sister, Frances, of Austin, Texas.

Kathleen entered the University of Texas in 1914, was initiated into Texas A on September 28, 1915, and was graduated in 1918. During 1917 and 1918 she was Pi Beta Phi representative to Panhellenic. From 1919 to 1922 she was recorder in the registrar's office at the University of Texas. From 1922 to 1924 she served as vice president of Theta province, and attended the national convention at Estes Park in 1923. In the spring of 1922 she went to New York City, where she lived for five years. In January, 1927, she returned to her home in Austin, Texas, where she was assistant registrar at the university until her last illness.

In the discharge of her fraternity duties, as in all else she undertook, Kathleen was efficient and reliable. Her charm of personality, her steadfast loyalty, and her beautiful spirit endeared her to all who knew her. A wide circle of friends cherish her memory and mourn her loss.

KEO ANDERSON MINERT
Iowa T

Keo Anderson Minert, assistant professor in the institutional administration department of Iowa State College, passed away at the college hospital, May 15. Although she had not been well for the past year, she did not give up her teaching until late in January. She and her husband, J. W. Minert, spent three months in California, hoping thereby to improve her condition. While at first the change seemed to help her, a sudden and unexpected turn for the worse made it advisable for them to return home, arriving about two weeks before her death.

Mrs. Minert was born at Webster City, she entered Iowa State College in 1901 and graduated with the class of 1905. While in college she was a charter member of Iowa Theta, which petitioned Pi Beta Phi and was initiated in 1906 as a charter member of the re-established chapter. Her daughter is now a member of that chapter.

Immediately following her graduation she taught in the mathematics department until her marriage to J. W. Minert in 1910. While living at Humeston, Iowa, she was elected superintendent of the public schools. Her interest in education led her to return to Iowa State for her master's degree, which she received in 1925. After having been in summer school a couple of summers she and her family moved to Ames permanently. Since then she has been connected with the institutional administration department of the home economics division. In addition to teaching work she has written a number of magazine articles.

Mrs. Minert had a sympathetic understanding of young folks and their problems, which made her a very successful teacher. She did not stop with teaching of her own subject matter, but took a genuine interest in her students' personal problems, which made them regard her as a friend as well as a teacher.

These qualities made her of great value to the active chapter at Ames, where she was for many years a member of the advisory committee and where her influence will long be felt.

INEZ ROBB SAUNDERS

Arizona A

Inez Robb Saunders, a loyal and much-beloved member of Arizona, A, passed away at St. Mary's Hospital, Tucson, Arizona, on June 2, 1930, following a major operation. She was born in Lima, Ohio, October 17, 1898. Later she moved to Long Beach, California, where she was graduated from the Long Beach High School. She attended the University of California at Berkeley for one year. She entered the University of Arizona in 1919 where she became a member of Pi Beta Phi, and was graduated in 1922.

Following her graduation she was a teacher of English in the Morenci High School for two years. In Morenci, Arizona, she met and married A. M. Saunders in 1924, and they made their home in Tyrone, New Mexico. In 1928 they returned to Tucson where they were residing at the time of her death.

As president of the local alumnae club, Inez was an ardent and inspiring leader, and her cheerful service, loyal interest, and friendly personality endeared her to all who knew her. As a member of the advisory board she kept in close touch with the active chapter to whom she proved herself a staunch and sympathetic friend as well as adviser on all occasions. She traveled about the state with her husband and carried the ideals of Pi Beta Phi to all groups over the state, and has kept the various members in closer touch with each other than is ordinarily possible.

Her charming deference to older people has won her a host of warm friends among the mothers of Pi Beta Phis as well as other older people, and her cheery kindnesses to them will be keenly missed.

To her classmates and friends she has given a warm and valued friendship which they will find it hard to give up and impossible to replace.

ESTHER KIRKENDALL

Iowa B

Esther Kirkendall, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Jay Kirkendall, died very suddenly of spinal meningitis at Nogales, Arizona, on April 21. She was taken suddenly ill Sunday morning, but was given immediate medical attention, and everything known to medical skill done in her behalf. There had been a number of like cases there and serums were at hand for prompt use. On Monday evening word was received of her death.

Esther Kirkendall was born in Dallas Center, Iowa, April 28, 1904. She was graduated from the high school of Mt. Ayr, Iowa, and completed her college course at Simpson College, Indianola, in 1924. Here she was a member of Iowa B chapter of Pi Beta Phi. For the past year she has been teaching in Nogales, Arizona.

Her four years in college were crowded with many activities, in each of which she held a prominent position. Even though she was kept busy she was able to make an outstanding record in scholarship. Her influence on the campus and in the chapter house was always for the good. At all times her happy and democratic personality was a joy to her many friends.

Pi Beta Phi extends sincerest sympathy to her family who survive this most devoted member of the fraternity.

ADRIENNE FRY WHEATON

Ontario A

Adrienne Fry Wheaton, wife of Howard Wheaton and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fry, Dunnville, Ontario, passed away October 3, 1930, at the Memorial General Hospital, Dunnville, Ontario.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF MARY

CONVENTION INITIATE FOR 1915

Thou Guiding Spirit, Counsellor, Friend

Whose kindly presence did ever lend
An inspiration for daily living
An ennoblement of the common things.

Thou Gracious One, of infinite tact,
Whose ear attuned to Youth ne'er

Opportunity to point the way of truth
By thoughtful counsel, sincere and kind.

Thou Embodiment in Womanhood
Of that for which we strive, the good,
The true, the beautiful, expressed in

HARRIET WILLIAMSON TUFT

Courtenay

I CAN remember Courtenay standing in a huge pair of father's shoes—well-hacked for corn comfort—on a chair in the kitchen.

"Lissen my chuldren an' you shall hear," she would begin, "of the Wreck of the Hesperus."

Piled in a row on the fireless cooker we would wiggle and squirm with expectation, until some child, having sat by mistake on the place where the scalding steam hissed forth, let out a yell. Then Courtenay would reach down a careless brown arm, jerk him off, and start again. This time we knew better than to move, for the light was in her eye.

"It was the schoony Hesperus
That sailed the wintry sea,
And the skipper had taken his little daughter,
To bear him companee."

Brave little daughter! Little did she know, as we did, and sat shuddering accordingly, how a fisherman would stand aghast,

"To see the form of a maiden fair Lashed close to a drifting mast" with the
"Salt sea frozen on her breast,
The salt tears in her eyes."

They were in our eyes, too. And often, with the ardor of her recital, they would overflow in Courtenay's eyes and trickle down the sides of her round, "high-brown" cheeks, running all the faster because of the layer of greasy face-healer she wore in the afternoons for her complexion.

We screamed for joy when she gave The Night Before Christmas. The back stairway was a steep and dark affair in the days before we remodeled the house, being enclosed by a wall of wainscoting, and leading straight into the kitchen from the servants' room above. At the lines:

"And, laying his finger aside his nose,"
—which she did, with a smile that showed her spacious white and gold teeth,— "Giving a bound, up the chimney

she would jump up the narrow, black stairway; and we, springing from the fireless cooker, would go racing all over the tables and chairs to catch her when she ran back down the steps.

Courtenay was a queer mixture of the old-time darkey and the new. She often told us of the one-roomed school where, in company with other little cornfield colored children and a good deal of po' white trash, she had learned to so dramatically "speak pieces." She mentioned the descendants of this trash with scorn, and immediately spotted our butter-and-egg woman as "a real, blue-blood lady." Mother discovered afterwards that the lady was in truth the wife of a charming but unsuccessful college professor who, because of a slight lack of mental balance, had been forced to retire. On the other hand, Courtenay would passionately insist to her "sick-insurance" man, throughout all the eight years during which she served successively as our nurse-maid, cook, and housekeeper, that her age was twenty-nine. Even to us children this seemed rather a novel pride, for we knew her three daughters, whose ages fell between thirteen and twenty-one. They had several times been her guests at our house. Another amusing instance of her more hifalutin' ways was the fact that her young acquaintances, who numbered as many as did the roll of her maturer friends well on in their culinary careers, each addressed her familiarly by one of several names—Miz Ross, or Anna, or Sapphonia.

Dividing our time about evenly between the back yard, school, and the servants' room, we children were accustomed to see her change in a moment from Courtenay to Sapphonia and more often play the parts of both at once. I have seen her as almost the ancient mammy type, singing revival hymns while she rocked to sleep our newest little brother or sister. When she ushered mother's callers in she became the sprightly housemaid Sapphonia, by which name she was known to young Alice who worked next door. No new style or song arrived that Sapphonia did not know of, and she could discuss the men folks with the best of them. To most of her middle-aged friends, however, who came to pour into her comforting ears their lamentations over recent "burials" and "strokes," she was Miz Ross.

With Mr. Tipton—who called her Anna and was, because of the handsome Packard he drove, the wealthiest chauffer in town—she was old time and new-fashioned together. Every other morning when Tip went to get his employers fresh buttermilk he would come by for Anna, and sometimes we were invited to go along, too. In the roomy automobile Courtenay was at once a gracious hostess and our thoughtful nurse. Riding out in the open country she would regale us and Mr. Tipton with tales of her childhood, in between accounts of her visits to Charleston and to Pittsburgh. We heard of her divorce from some long yellow man, concerning whom we emphatically shared her scarcely favorable opinion; and, in almost the same breath she detailed stories of "big meetin's," summer jobs as waitress at an old resort boarding-house, the times when they mixed in blue and pink or red coloring with whitewash for the cabin, the little white girl she was named for, and the escapades of her early pickaninny companions.

In the face of this fact, that she was so extraordinarily conversant with human nature and affairs, some of her attitudes now are to me rather inexplicable. She could read but never did, always appealing to us to translate the papers to her. She looked well in her installment-plan clothes, was easily seen to be at home in the best colored society, but was content to flop around our kitchen in a pair of daddy's run-over oxfords, receiving callers while peeling potatoes. She rarely, if ever, visited others, and seldom went to church. Yet her poise never left her, whether she was Sapphonia, the gossiping nurse-maid, Anna quietly musing over an eventful life, Miz Ross the matron, ready to be consulted about teething babies, dead-sure cures and seldom-appearing husbands, or keeper and forever entertaining companion of our whole family.

She appeared never to have been involved in the frequent broils and misfortunes from which it has been necessary for us to extricate our cooks since Courtenay's time. Indeed, she never seemed to have been actually involved in anything, which fact does much, I suppose, to explain not only her aloofness, but her ideas about people. Always in the midst of them, she somehow possessed the gift for standing aside and watching their affairs; gave advice, but never took it. Although she had her prejudices, she was honest because she had common sense, and was both happy and melancholy because of her dramatic imagination.

Her personality certainly sets forth some of the notable characteristics of a race. Born in a cabin, of a mother who could remember slavery, reared by an indifferent stepmother, sometimes taught, working always, traveling, leaving her own children to play with and care for those of other people, singing songs of ragtime and revival—was she a product of a significant transition, or just Courtenay?

The Harvey Girls

(This poem won the first prize in the 1929 Poetry Contest conducted by the Junior League Magazine.)

In all my summers spent in this old town,
Where, from our upper porch, I have looked down Upon the Harvey's house next door, there's been An air of pleasant sadness, quite serene,
Not touched nor lessened by the passing years,
Nor interrupted by outbursts and tears.

The three Miss Harveys never have been strong
Since they were children; and it has been long Since Ellis Harvey left her rolling-chair,
Or Mary Harvey travelled anywhere,
Or Rose had "callers," as she did before Her illness.

Has the big old Harvey door
Swung shut upon a life that is as mournful
As one would think; or is it somewhat scornful
Of us who pity them, when each can tell
Of pleasures not enjoyed by those who're well?

The creepers and the ivy grow so thick
About the walls of brownish, darkened brick
They curtain half the windows; not a thing
From long, dim lawn to little kitchen wing,
Where, 'tis said, the slaves once had their quarters,
Shows sign of any of the Harvey daughters.
But sometimes from beyond the shutters we Have heard the quiet laughter of the three Young invalids—they're really young no longer—
Three "girls" who "never will be any stronger."

ARROWMEN

Mrs. James L. Lardner (Lida Burkhard), Colorado B, formerly Grand Vice President of Pi Beta Phi, has just completed her sixth annual tour of Europe under the auspices of the Student Travel Club. She sailed from New York early in July with a party of fifty-two students and teachers and spent two months in travel through England, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, and France, including a visit to Oberammergau.

Mrs. Lardner has been hostess for five different European tours, including in all more than two hundred American travelers. Her tour is popularly known as "A Holiday in Europe."

Mrs. Pinkney Varble (Annabel Warden) was a member of I. C. Sorosis organized in 1884 in Iowa. This chapter was later invited to be a member of Iowa A.

Mrs. Varble took over the lunchroom in a school next to her home. Later she entered lunchroom work of the board of education and studied dietetics. Meanwhile she reviewed the chemistry she had studied at school in 1883. Mrs. Varble became assistant director of lunchrooms for the board of education, which position she occupied for two years, but gave up to become supervisor of lunchrooms and restrooms for the Southern Bell Telephone Company. She runs seven cafeterias, buys food, and plans menus for three meals daily.

Pi Phi runs in the family of this member. She has a sister and sister-in-law who are I. C. Sorosis, a niece who is a Pi Phi at the University of Wisconsin, and two cousins who have just been initiated at Indianola.

A member of Business and Professional Women's Club, Mrs. Varble is one of the eight women asked to give a talk over the radio during Business and Professional Women's week.

Marion Cozier, Michigan A, is enjoying a fascinating career with the Wallace Travel Service at 420 Lexington Avenue, New York City. Marion handles anything from round the world trips to week-ends in Bermuda and offers exceptional service to members of Pi Beta Phi.

Ethlyn Boyer, Ohio A, is head of a department in the Electrical Research Products in New York City. This company furnishes a majority of the equipment for talking pictures throughout the world. Among the college graduates in Miss Boyer's department is Elizabeth McLeod, Arkansas A.

Two hundred and twelve girls in the state of Oklahoma have had an opportunity to further their education through the scholarships of the Federated Women's Clubs of which Inez McMillan Gibson, Oklahoma A, is the state chairman for the educational loan fund committee.

Helen Pendleton, Kansas A, has received a degree of master of sacred music from Union Theological Seminary, New York. She is one of six who have received this degree in the United States.

Miss Pendleton is now playing the organ at the Brick Church, Fifth Avenue. For years the music of the Brick Church has been a prominent feature of its worship, attracting lovers of sacred music from all over the country. The choir is under the direction of Dr. Charles Dickinson, widely known as a composer.

Pi Beta Phi Member of National Advertising Group—

FOR several years past, there has been considerable discussion at Panhellenic Congress as to the possibility of attracting national advertisers to space in sorority publications.

Taken individually, the quarterly publications of the various sororities do not offer a circulation large enough to attract national advertisers. Even though low rates were offered, a publication with only a few thousand circulation cannot attract national advertisers. Collectively however, it is believed that many national advertisers can be attracted and space sold to them.

The Panhellenic advertising committee has been endeavoring to work out a plan whereby those fraternities interested in obtaining good revenue from advertising pages could offer space in their magazines as a group rather than individually. In this way, a national advertiser could be assured that his advertisement would be seen by many thousands of readers instead of by only a few thousand.

A plan has finally been agreed upon by twelve national women's fraternities. This plan provides that Mr. C. W. Butterfield, Syracuse, New York, will act as advertising manager for the group. He has agreed to make a campaign and endeavor to sell space to national advertisers. If he is able to secure a sufficient number to guarantee successful operation of the plan, he will pay the group a certain stated sum for each page of advertising carried in the group magazines.

A direct mail campaign is being made to national advertisers, and they are also being personally canvassed by Mr. Butterfield and others associated with him.

Space is offered to advertisers at rates in line with other high class publications having circulations comparable with the total circulation of the magazines in the group. In soliciting, the magazines are being referred to as the national sorority group, and the total circulation is well over 60,000 subscribers.

Naturally there were many details to be worked out and obstacles to be overcome in order to get this group together. It was necessary that the publication dates of all the magazines in the group be about the same, and that all the magazines have approximately the same size page. It is arranged so that all advertising pages will be inserted in the back of each publication. No advertisement will appear on either cover, and certain types of advertising such as cigarettes and chewing gum advertisements will not be accepted.

It is estimated that six months will be required to sell sufficient space. The revenue for each publication in the group, even from a few pages of advertising, will go a long way toward defraying the operating expenses of each publication.

Names and addresses of national advertisers who are or might be interested should be sent to Clayton W. Butterfield, 523-25 Union Building, Syracuse, New York.

New York City, New York—The New York alumnae club is trying a new schedule of meetings this year and hopes that all Pi Phis who come to visit or live in the vicinity will note these plans and dates and inform the secretary so she may send fuller details.

As usual, there will be meetings every month in Manhattan or Brooklyn. There will be four on the first Saturdays of October, December, February, and April at 2:30 p.m. at the Panhellenic Hotel, Forty-ninth and First Avenue (Crosstown bus to door). On the alternate months a meeting will be held on a day other than Saturday, in the city, and also in some of the suburbs. In greater New York they will be as follows: Monday, November 10—Cooky-shine, 5:30 p.m.—place to be announced later. Tuesday, January 13—Cards and dancing, 8:30 p.m. Panhellenic club rooms. Wednesday, March 11—Cards and tea, 2:30 p.m. Panhellenic club rooms.

Please note especially that the first Sunday in November the club will be hostess to Pi Phis and their friends and to all members of the New York City Panhellenic in the club rooms, 4:00 to 6:00. Each fraternity is hostess once a year. Each month there is a very fine art exhibit in the club rooms and for November Pi Phi is in charge. It will center around the new Smoky National Park. Mr. W. H. Stevens of New Orleans will send some of his pastels and Mr. L. E. Jones of Woodstock, New York, some of his water colors of the scenery and life of the people. It is possible that Mr. Jones may be present and speak. There will also be a display of school products.

Omaha and Council Bluffs—The meetings will be held monthly at the various homes of members. A business meeting with a report from the treasurer follows each luncheon. All financial and business reports are presented monthly to the chapter. The plan is to devote one meeting to the discussion of points in THE ARROW, another meeting to the Settlement School, and with the Christmas meeting and the Founders' Day celebration, there will be a full program for the year. The opening meeting in September was a real cooky-shine given by the officers of the club at the home of Mrs. John Chew.

PENNSYLVANIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

Births

To Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Steele (Ruth Johnston), a son, William Oliver, August 20.

Personals

Regina Sexton taught dancing at the University of Pittsburgh while still a student there. Since leaving college she has specialized in teaching dancing to small children: she has even had pupils only seventeen months old. Among Pittsburgh's dancing instructors, she is known as the "baby specialist," and her work is very highly considered. Each spring Miss Sexton stages a kirmess at one of Pittsburgh's largest theaters, and these attract wide attention and add to her enviable reputation.

Last year's activities ended on June 10, when the club sponsored a kirmess in the auditorium at Schenley High, staged by Regina Sexton and her pupils. It was a splendid success, and reflected much credit on Miss Sexton's work. Bertha Schmid deserves mention for her able management of the affair. The proceeds were used to help with the furnishing of the apartment recently rented by the active chapter.

The informal Wednesday luncheon has become an important feature of the Pittsburgh club's schedule. Held at the Women's City Club in the William Penn Hotel, centrally located downtown, it is convenient not only for the several Pi Phis in business, but also for those shopping or matinee bent, and there are others, too, who make a point of attendance whenever it is possible. There are frequent guests, and any Pi Phi who may chance to be in Pittsburgh on any Wednesday, will be cordially welcomed.

Elvera Hamstrom spent a delightful vacation in the Canadian Rockies.

Clarksburg alumnae club entertained West Virginia A at tea in the home of Varina Shuttleworth, Fairmont.

Genevieve Ice took part in a play given by A.A.U.W. The play was to have been directed by Ruth Hines but owing to illness this was changed.

Fairmont alumnae club held its annual pre-rushing breakfast on Sunday morning, September 7, at the Rosana Tea Room. There were eight alumnae, two active girls, and five rushees present.

College is absolutely useless unless we bring to it genuine intellectual interests. All of us are born, like kittens, with the eyes shut. Some men come to college with eyes still closed. The greater interests of life have not gripped them. Their existence is not vicious, but hopelessly trivial. Even to discuss a really weighty problem of industry, politics, or religion, as well as all European students constantly do, is to "queer" oneself irretrievably. Listen to the conversation in the fraternity house, the field house, the boarding house—does it rise above the level of the talk at Coney Island? But the world does not look to the Island for intellectual leadership and it does look—how eagerly!—to the one institution which embodies all its chief hopes and loyalties, the American college.

—From "Facing Life" by Dr. W. H. P. Faunce, Delta Upsilon, former president of Brown University and a founder of the Interfraternity Conference.

CHAPTER DIRECTORY

ALPHA PROVINCE

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Chartered, 1908

Pledge Day, November 12, 1930

INITIATED: Ruth Lyon, Toronto, Ontario.

The new rushing rules adopted this year by Panhellenic have extended the rushing season from two weeks to four, which makes pledge day on November 12.

Since last spring college undergraduates have seen many changes on the campus skyline. A new Women's Residence to replace the five existing residences for women undergraduates of University College is to be completed by next fall. Its spacious lounges, common rooms, reading rooms, and libraries will make it an attractive addition to the campus. Another change of note is Emmanuel College which has added its stately Tudor architecture to the buildings of Victoria College.

The house committee has had a busy but successful program this fall. A new blue leather chesterfield suite and baby grand piano have added greatly to the attractiveness and comfort of the fraternity apartment.

One of the most interesting features of the opening college function was a senior-freshman house party held on the first week end of the opening of college. At this the freshmen were formally introduced to college life.

MARGARET MCFARLANE

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Chartered, 1920

Pledge Day, February 17, 1931

INITIATED, April 21, 1930: Lora Brown, '33, Lubec, Me.; Margaret Davis, '33, Woodland, Me.; Margaret Denton, '33, Caribou, Me.; Muriel Holmes, '33, 112 Winthrop St., Augusta, Me.; Doris Hutchinson '33, Dexter, Me.; Ruth Irwin, '33, 161 Lowell Ave., Newtonville, Mass.; Marjorie Moulton, '33, Hiram, Me.; Ruth Nelson, '33, 384 Summer St., Stamford, Conn.; Helen Peabody, '33, Levant, Me.; Janet Young, '33, 44

Boutelle Rd., Bangor, Me.; Margaret Thompson, '32, Kennebunk, Me.

The chapter pledged Inez Howe, Bryant Pond, on October 13.

Colvin Hall, a beautiful new brick dormitory for women, was completed this summer on the Maine campus. Suites of rooms and all modern conveniences for college students have been installed, and a number of Pi Phis are enjoying this new home. A new home economics building is nearing completion also. This will serve for home economics laboratory work, and will contain also offices of the Extension Department. $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ was very fortunate in being the first women's fraternity to have a house on campus.

The student body welcomed with much enthusiasm the new "University of Maine Band" song written by Joseph McCusker, a Maine alumnus.

Plans are being made for the formal festive occasion of the year, the Military Hop. The date set for this event is December 12.

Panhellenic has been trying for two years to formulate a more satisfactory plan of rushing. This year they have open rushing during the fall semester with one week of closed rushing and second semester bidding. Everyone is anxious to know whether this plan will prove as successful for $\Pi \Phi$ as the plan did last year.

The chapter has been quite active socially this fall. A number of victrola parties have been held in the cabin. An informal dance was held at the country club on November 7. In order to pay the taxes on the cabin the annual stag dance was held on October 24, a Halloween dance.

In outside activities $\Pi \Phi$ is well represented. Erma Barton is president of W.S.G.A., and was president of all-Maine Women, but due to the point system she was forced to resign. Doris Baker is the chapter representative to W.S.G.A. Ethel Thomas was elected manager of tennis, and Marjorie Moulton was elected secretary of W.A.A. Anna Buck was recently elected president of the Maine Outing Club.

Rachel Gilbert was elected to $\Sigma M \Sigma$, the honorary psychological fraternity. She is also a member of $B \Pi \Theta$. Margaret Denton has been chosen president of Neai Mathti, an honorary freshman organization for women, the members of which are limited to ten, and four of them are Pi Phis.

Mary Galaher is president of the new dormitory, Colvin Hall, and Hazel Sawyer of Balentine. Phyllis Johnson is vice president of North Hall.

The scholarship committee has put the scholastic average for $\Pi \Phi$ at 2.3, and those girls not making this average grade must remain in the house on week nights until they do.

DORIS OSGOOD

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

Chartered, 1893

Pledge Day, October 9, 1930

Senior members of the fraternity who were graduated last spring with honors, were Agnes Wentworth, magna cum laude, and Francelia Rose, honors in home economics.

Elections to Mortar Board from members of the junior class resulted in the pledging of six girls among whom was Ellen Kellogg.

Dr. Carlos Concha, former professor of Spanish and dean of the Spanish department, was called to South America this summer for service to his native country as Peruvian minister to Bolivia.

Miss Marion Young of the department of physical education; Professor Longwell, head of the department of biology; and Professor Kingsley of the sociology department, returned this year from their sabbatical leave of absence. Professor Voter of the department of chemistry; Miss Mary Dutton, head dietitian; and Professor Perkins of the mathematics department are on leave for the year 1930-31.

Rushing rules this year have received slight changes but are largely the same as last year. Pledging came at the end of a two weeks' rushing season which was not as strenuous as previously on account of restrictions on open calling.

The rushing season closed for the local chapter of $\Pi \Phi$ with a house party on October 12 at Lake Dunmore. The chapter pledged the following girls: Elizabeth Brown, Middlebury; Mary Carrick, Newton Highlands, Mass.; Thelma Croft, Middlebury; Dorothy Crowe, St. Johnsbury; Elizabeth Fernald, Leonia, N.J.; and Alice Sunderland, New York City.

BARBARA JOY

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

Chartered, 1898

Pledge Day, February, 1930

The chapter announces the pledging of two girls: Sylvia Holden, Hartford, Conn.; and Ruth Templeton, Irasburg, Vt.

The University of Vermont opened on September 19, and as usual there was a large entering class. The members, according to custom became acquainted with college life through the special activities given for them: the freshman mixer, the freshman banquet, and the Mortar Board picnic.

The students are fortunate this year in having a new museum which will be a multiple addition to the present college buildings, and which will be completed sometime this winter. No date has been set for the dedication. Since the "Old Mill," favorite recitation hall, has been redecorated inside, its name is hardly fitting. Redstone, Campus House, and Robinson Hall have also been redecorated and in some places re-furnished.

Two members of the chapter who are outstanding women on the hill, were elected to Mortar Board last June. Ruth Field is a member of glee club; played on hockey, and basketball teams; member of student faculty council, Ariel board, and of the press club. She was a member of the sophomore hop committee, is president of Panhellenic and secretary of the health council, and was chairman of decorations for the junior week prom. Harriet Wright was elected this fall to O N, a national honorary home economics fraternity. She played on both the basketball and hockey teams; is women's athletic editor of the Cynic; women's athletic editor of the Ariel; member of Bluestockings, and W.A.A. council; secretary of student union; class secretary her sophomore year; and a member of the sophomore hop committee.

The chapter's plans for scholarship this year are as follows: a chairman has been appointed whose duty is to record at each meeting all the "cuts" within the previous week. Each girl is taxed fifteen cents for every one. Hour examination marks are recorded in a similar manner, which the chapter thinks is going to prove satisfactory in raising scholarship as a whole. An alumnae council for scholarship is already in existence, and at various times an alumna will speak to the chapter on this subject.

On September 30 a tea was held at the rooms in honor of Dean Patterson and Miss Storms, an English instructor and $\Pi \Phi$ patroness, who have left to spend their sabbatical year abroad. Miss Whiting, the assistant dean was present.

HELEN WILLARD

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

Registration day at Boston University was on September 17 and on that same day Boston celebrated by having her Tercentary parade, one of the largest and most colorful ones New England has ever had or seen. Boston University's new band made a good showing. There were many other features of the celebration that were inspiring as well as interesting.

On the next day classes started and the chapter began to get acquainted with the freshmen. On September 25 $\Gamma \Delta$, an organization of which every girl in the college is a member, gave an acquaintance tea for the freshmen.

Massachusetts A regrets the loss of Clara Louise Poole and Cora Mack, who have transferred to secretarial schools; Fannie Bach, who has gone to Barnard College in New York City; and Elna Whitney, who will finish her last two years at the University of Maine.

Eileen Brown is secretary of Y.W.C.A. and Jean Clough is secretary of $\Gamma \Delta$.

ELIZABETH GLOVER

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

Pledge Day, October 6, 1930

New York A pledged the following eighteen girls: Irene Burrell, Syracuse; Dorothy Boyden, Marathon; Betty Broad, Jamesville; Dorothy Carroll, Richmond Hills; Doris Cumings, Oneida; Eldora Dolbear, Syracuse; Dorothy Henderson, Haddonfield, N.J.; Ruth Hobler, Elmira; Eleanor Howard, Syracuse; Hazel Ingalls, Plattsburg; Margaret Loop, Westfield, N.J.; Carol Merry, Syracuse; Rhea Nicholson, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Dorothy Richards, Westfield, N.J.; Ruth Thomson, Ridgefield, N.J.; Margaret Unger, Fort Washington, Pa.; Betty Vincent, Syracuse; and Vivian Whyte, Syracuse.

Syracuse University's campus was greatly improved by the addition of Hendrick's Memorial Chapel, filling a long vacant need. New grass plots and walks have been made also. A $\Sigma \Delta$ has a new chapter house, making three new houses on the campus in as many years.

Miss Nicholson, former dean of women, is studying at Columbia University, and the new dean, Mrs. Leonard, is fast winning her way into the hearts of Syracuse women.

The chapter owes many thanks to both active members and alumnae who showed splendid judgment in selecting new furniture for the downstairs living rooms.

New York A has high hopes of raising the scholarship this year. Members are fined one dollar for all over cuts. Pledges have supervised study at least once each week. Quiet hours in the house are enforced throughout the day and evening with exception for meal periods.

Ruth Hobler, was initiated into $\Sigma \Delta \Gamma$, a national honorary musical fraternity. And, Janet Dunbar is pledged to $\Sigma \Phi \Pi$, a national oratory fraternity. Lucile Dickson, Vermont A, was affiliated with this chapter.

Since Syracuse University is raising standards by putting underclassmen under strict discipline and allowing juniors and seniors privileges heretofore barred, New York A is especially anxious to gain a high position on campus. The work has increased in difficulty, and each girl is thrown upon her own resources more than before.

The rushing period was changed from the former one week period to two weeks without personal rushing. This system is favored by most of the fraternity women.

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, March 20, 1914

Pledge Day, September 29, 1930

New York Γ announces the pledging of the following girls: Ruth Cox, Gouverneur, N.Y.; Eleanore Dailey, Norwood, N.Y.; Hazel Hart, Norwood, N.Y.; Mary MacGruer, DeKalb Junction, N.Y.; Mildred Mason, Roy Rd., Jamaica Plain, Boston, Mass.; Helen V. Wheeler, Kingston, N.Y.; and Marion Whitehead, Malone, N.Y.

During the past summer, work was started on the new dormitory for boys. This building was donated by Owen D. Young, Floyd W. Carlisle, and Frank B. Kellogg. It is to have a large commons room where all club activities of the college will be held, accommodations for two hundred boys and each room is to be equipped for a radio. Also the entire exterior of Richardson Hall and the Administration Building was sand blasted. This restored the bricks to their original color which greatly enhances the appearance of the campus. Richardson Hall is the oldest building on the campus, being the original college building.

St. Lawrence has added nine new members to its faculty this year. Miss Mary Fox, the new assistant librarian, is a $\Pi \Phi$ from New York A. Professor Charles Lightbody, of the history department, has done one year of graduate work under the Alexander McKenzie Fellowship in political science at the University of Toronto and for three years he studied at Worcester College Oxford, as a Rhodes Scholar. Miss Ruth Willard, who succeeds Miss McCutcheon in the Spanish department, was studying under a fellowship in Madrid, Spain, at the Centro de Estudios Historicos, Universidad de Madrid, when Primo de Rivera became dictator. The other new faculty members are: Dr. Sidney Robbins of the philosophy department; Lawrence Pasel, instructor in economics; Dr. Dallas Busby of the psychology department; Lloyd Thatcher in the department of sociology; and W. Lee Dorn who was graduated from St. Lawrence in '27 is now employed as instructor in physics and chemistry.

The exterior of the chapter house was repainted. Also, the walls and furniture of one room downstairs were repainted and nearly all the rooms on the second floor were redecorated.

The chapter is well represented on the hill this year. At the Moving-Up Day exercises Gertrude Woolley was tapped for Kalon, the senior women's honorary society. She is on the campus council, manager of tennis, and worked on the junior prom committee. In June Helen H. Smith was elected president of the Spanish Club. This fall Frances Scurrah was appointed contributing co-ed editor of The Laurentian. Averil Thompson was appointed women's sports editor of the Gridiron, associate editor of Hill News, and she will help on the Moving-Up Day committee for the coming year. Margaret Griffin has been appointed assistant associate editor of The Laurentian and of the Hill News. Beatrice Brotherton is on the legislative committee of the W.S.G.A. Janet Hughes is captain of the sophomore hockey team. Mildred Mason, was elected vice president of the freshman class and she was appointed freshmen cheerleader.

Sallee Wilson was awarded the Alpheus Hervey Baker Fellowship in English last spring. This is worth $2,500 and entitles her to do graduate work either in this country or abroad. Sallee entered King's College, University of London, London, England.

On October 15 New York I held its fall informal house party. This year the party was in the form of a rodeo. The guests all came dressed in costume and the house was decorated with wild west pictures.

On October 25 the chapter gave a tea for the chaperon and pledges.

This fall the girls have started in selling candy in the house. The proceeds of this project will be added to the fund for the Settlement School.

GRADUATES: February, 1930; Elizabeth Ross, B.A. June, 1930; Mary Bishop, B.A.; Janet Dalton, B.A.; Muriel Gardner, B.A.; Eloise Leuder, B.S.; Erma Lewis, B.S.; Louise Mason, B.A.; Doris Montgomery, B.A.; Florence Nicholls, B.A.; Edith Sharpe, B.A.; and Dorothy Wertz, B.A.

New York Δ pledged the following girls: Ruth Hadley, Leonia, N.J.; Natalie Lantz, Charleston, Ill.; Janice Berryman, Flushing, N.Y.; Elsie Hanford, Ithaca, N.Y.; Priscilla Holcombe, Washington, D.C.; Anne Kline, Saranac Lake, N.Y.; Emily Ritter, Washington, D.C.; Dorothy Skinner, Kenmore, N.Y.; Dorothea Summers, New York City; and Patricia Mahoney, New York City.

There was the largest registration, well over 5,000 this year. The new law building has been started, the plant pathology building is nearly finished, and an appropriation has been made for a new home economics building to be started next year it is hoped. McFadden Hall, a new unit of the men's dormitories is open this year. It is a war memorial. Cornell was most fortunate in having Admiral Byrd lecture here. Incidentally, three Pi Phis, Doris Montgomery and Dorothy Wertz (graduates), and Delight McAlpine were among the ushers.

Martin W. Sampson, beloved English poetry professor and author, was killed in an accident this summer. As Mrs. Sampson is a patroness, the chapter was particularly concerned. Another shock was the death of Anna B. Comstock, world-famous naturalist.

Several improvements were made before rushing began, including papering of the second floor rooms, a new rug for the sun parlor, and an electric refrigerator. Besides that, the girls painted the furniture in their rooms which made the house look very attractive.

Beth Ross and Dorothy Wertz were elected to Φ B K at the close of last year, and Dorothy Foley to O N at the beginning of this year. Last spring Tina Olsen and Virginia Urban were made members of Penthama, athletic honorary; Dorothy Blacking and Frederica Ritter became members of the honorary rifle society, Dot and Circle; and Kathryn Hawkes was chosen on Foil, honorary fencing club. Beth Ross defeated the present women's fencing champion of the United States in an unofficial match in New York City and Coach Darrieault wants to train her for the 1932 Olympics.

Several Pi Phis hold responsible positions this year. Delight McAlpine is president of Y.W.C.A. and is also on W.S.G.A. council. Ellen Kuney is president of the home economics club and a vice president in one of the units at Balch. Tina Olsen and Virginia Urban are both on W.A.A. council and Tina had charge of food for the W.A.A. picnic, which is given annually for the new students. The two Virginias are sports managers: Virginia Ryan of basketball, and Virginia Urban of track. Nearly everyone in the house is going out for one or more of the fall sports.

On the Sun competition New York Δ has Kathryn Hawkes, and on the W.S.G.A. News competition Harriet Davidson (business) and Marjorie Whitaker (editorial).

Dorothy Foley is active in the Mandolin Club while Elizabeth Chadwick, Anna Darling, Elsie Hanford, Ruth Hayden, and Delight McAlpine belong to the glee club.

The pledge breakfast was held on Sunday, October 12, at the George Junior Republic Inn, Freeville, and was a success.

ELIZABETH E. CHADWICK

BETA PROVINCE

PENNSYLVANIA ALPHA—SWARTHMORE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October 12, 1930

INITIATED, September 20, 1930: Alice Bechtold, '33, 285 N. Lansdowne Ave., Lansdowne, Pa.; Aldyth Longshore, '33, 8203 Cedar Rd., Elkins Park, Pa.; and Elizabeth Passmore '33, 133 W. Phil-Ellena St., Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Pa.

Pennsylvania A started the year with a houseparty at Ocean City, N.J.; the inspiration of which carried them through a highly successful rushing season. Before rushing season formally opened, the chapter initiated three pledges from last year.

Rushing period lasted three weeks at Swarthmore and the chapter pledged the following girls: Jeannette Marr, 1841 Wisconsin St., Racine, Wis.; Ida Bowman, Tilghman, Talbot County, Md.; Mabel G. Clement, Lincoln University, Chester County, Pa.; Katherine D. Hibbert, Wallingford, Pa.; Ruth Hollowell, 30 Summit Ave., Jenkintown, Pa.; Ruth E. Kewley, 1950 Noble Rd., E. Cleveland, Ohio; Clara W. Seabury, 420 N. Euclid Ave., Oak Park, Ill.; and Mary Lee Watson, 623 Thatcher Ave., River Forest, Ill.

At last the two million dollar endowment drive has been successfully completed. Rapid improvements are being made on the campus. The new Clothier Memorial is a beautiful structure.

On November 7 and 8 an unusual conference was held. The topic for discussion was the bituminous coal industry and many of the most outstanding men in the country participated.

President Adelotte spent a most interesting summer in Peru and was a daily observer of the many revolutions there. His reports have been most enlightening to the student body. Swarthmore graduated two Rhodes Scholars in June.

Dr. Ryan, head of the department of education at Swarthmore, has been appointed by President Hoover to head a committee on education in India.

The chapter is well represented in many activities. The following offices are held: vice presidency and secretaryship of student government, managerships of hockey and swimming, art editorships of two class year-books, memberships on Student Conduct and on all varsity teams, class offices in each class, debating, dramatics, chairmanship of Somerville Day, and scholarship girls.

The chapter pledged Ruth Kewley, the daughter of Mrs. J. E. Kewley, chairman of the committee on Pi Beta Phi Fraternity Examination and Study for Beta province. Ida Bowman, daughter of Mrs. Ida Wright

Bowman, well-known lecturer was pledged. Scholarship plans for the year are in the making. Definite study hours with social privileges and camping as punishment for negligence will be enforced.

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, October 19, 1930

INITIATED, October 16, 1930: Janet Blair, Lewisburg, Pa.; Barbara Brohme, New Rochelle, N.Y.; Edna Cleckner, Harrisburg, Pa.; Ellen Koser, Lewisburg, Pa.; Francis McGee, Mount Vernon, N.Y.; Jane Williams, Nanticoke, Pa.; Fannie Wood, Muncy, Pa.; and Janet Worthington, Muncy, Pa.

After two weeks of intensive rushing, Pennsylvania B pledged sixteen girls. The pledging ceremony was followed by a banquet at Hopp Inn at Mifflinburg, Pa.

The chapter entertained its local alumnæ, its patronesses, the women faculty members, and the wives of faculty members at a tea on October 25, held in honor of Miss Curtis, the province vice president.

Louise Zeigler was elected associate editor of the L'Agenda, Bucknell's yearbook.

Of the three members of the freshman class eligible to membership of $\Sigma T \Delta$, two were Pi Beta Phis. They are Fannie Wood and Janet Worthington. In order to be a member of $\Sigma T \Delta$, one must have a general average of 85, and an average of 90 in English.

Three of the four woman parts in the Cat and the Canary a play given by Cap and Dagger and Frill and Frown, were taken by Edna Cleckner, Mary L. Smith, and Betty Dill. Eddie Garvey was make-up artist.

THELMA GRACE CORMAN

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE

Chartered, 1903

Pledge Day, October 2, 1930

INITIATED: September 17, 1930: Gertrude Barnhart, '33, 1522 Franklin St., Johnstown, Pa.

After a short two week rushing period, the chapter announces the pledging of: Ann Morris, 252 S. College St., Carlisle, Pa.; Priscilla McConnel, 1509 N. 55th St., Philadelphia, Pa.; and Christina Meredith, Metzger Hall, Carlisle, Pa.

Little change was made in the Panhellenic rushing rules. The rushing period as before was two weeks in length, during which time each freshman had five big sisters, representing the four women's fraternities and the nonfraternity women. The freshman had each big sister for two days, passing from one to another, and then starting again, had each one for one more day. One afternoon during this time they were entertained at the rooms of all the women's fraternities. Preferential bidding was used as before, and everyone felt that this plan for rushing was very successful.

After pledging on October 2, Pennsylvania Γ held a cooky-shine and pledge party at Mary Chronister's cottage at William's Grove. It was a very successful party.

The college year at Dickinson opened on Thursday, September 18, with chapel exercises. On Friday evening, September 19, the annual freshman reception was given by the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. Two new professors and their wives were introduced to the students. This year, for the first time, a freshman week was installed, compelling the freshmen to be in Carlisle on September 15. The time from Monday to Thursday was spent in introducing the freshmen to the college. This was done in various ways. Several meetings were held, chapel talks, a doggie roast, and other activities served to acclimate the freshmen. It served another purpose also, that of introducing the freshmen to each other, and many friendships were formed. Due to this week, most of the chapter returned early, visiting in town.

The freshman class this year numbers 159 students, representing nine different states, including also an exchange student from Germany. The college made many much needed improvements on the freshman dormitory this summer and several new ones to Metzger Hall, the girls' dormitory.

There has been some change in the freshman rules for girls. Some allowance has been made for daytime dating which heretofore was entirely taboo. A certain time each day is allowed for this with entire privileges on Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday. This, it is believed, will lead to a better observance of the existing rules.

Activities are getting under way, and Pennsylvania Γ is well represented on the campus. Adelaide Markley and Margaret Handshaw were elected to Wheel and Chain, the senior honorary society. Emma Shawfield and Esther Chambers are holding positions on the reportorial staff of the Dickinsonian. Esther Chambers Mary Grove, and Elizabeth Clarke are on the Microcosm board. Mary Grove is vice president of the Y.W.C.A. Esther Chambers is vice president of the W.S.G.A. and Aline Callahan is treasurer. Lois Green is secretary of the sophomore class, and Aline Callahan is historian of the junior class. Beside these activities, there are representatives in the glee club the dramatic club, the orchestra, the literary societies, and in athletics.

The scholarship standing is not as high as it might be but the chapter is doing everything possible to pull it up. All the girls are greatly interested in getting the scholarship cup this year, and are trying very hard to make a higher average.

ELIZABETH CLARKE

PENNSYLVANIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

Chartered, 1918

Pledge Day, November 17, 1930

Pitt women celebrated the close of the past college year with a parade of floats, one from each women's fraternity on the campus. For the second time Pennsylvania Δ was awarded second place in this "Parade of the Pantherettes" as it is called. The float was in the form of an immense golden arrow placed on a large truck completely covered with wine and silver blue crêpe paper. In place of the eight pearls found in the pin were the faces of as many girls looking through holes in the side of the arrow.

During the summer, Regina Sexton, an alumna of Pennsylvania Δ , kindly offered the services of her dancing classes to the chapter for the purpose of giving a benefit kirmess. The proceeds of the kirmess and also of the benefit bridges given in August and September have been added to the chapter house fund.

A chapter of $\beta \Sigma \Theta$ was installed at the University of Pittsburgh in September. The chapter was formerly $\Lambda \Delta \Sigma$.

The Pittsburgh Panhellenic association is trying to solve fraternity problems by having officers' council. Louise Copeland, was elected president of presidents' council. To promote friendliness and understanding among the women's fraternities, a series of weekly Panhellenic teas have been planned to which five representatives of each fraternity will be sent. Florence Schneider, swimming manager of W.A.A. is in charge of the "Sorority Swim" which is another new idea to develop interfraternity spirit.

Edith Raschen is president of the Panhellenic committee in charge of the rushing rules for the coming year, and Edna May Detting is a member of the Panhellenic social committee. Marguerite Webster is the junior class captain of the Y.W.C.A. finance campaign.

Dorothy Miller, who was chosen by Miss Thrysa Amos, dean of women, as one of the five representative women on the campus, has also been asked to act as senior mentor in charge of the women students who came to the University of Pittsburgh from other colleges.

Edith Raschen was elected secretary of W.S.G.A. and president of Eumathia, sophomore honorary scholastic society and tapped Quax, honorary science society.

The fall rushing system, which was not considered satisfactory by most of the fraternities has been changed a little. Instead of the one day of rushing, there will be two. Even that is very short and will probably make fall bidding somewhat of a problem.

MARY DUDLEY

OHIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OHIO

Chartered, 1899

Pledge Day, October 4, 1930

INITIATED, October 23, 1930: Elizabeth Edington, '33, Nelsonville; Betty Wilson, '31, Middletown; Betty McConnell, '33, Steubenville; Curtice Wickes, '34, and Virginia Wilkins, '33, Cleveland; and Doris Lee Fletcher, '33, Summit, N.J.

Ohio A announces the pledging of: Virginia Coe, Margaret Porter, Dorothy Roe, and Helen Townsend, Athens; Marianna Linscott, Amesville; Margaret Biddle, Albany; Mary Louise Morgan, Oakhill; Betty Force, Ashtabula; Marna Wilson, Middletown; Mary Minerva Miller, Wooster; Anne Slingluff, Cambridge; Jeannette Nickols, St. Clairsville; Dorothy Webster, Bellefontaine; Mary Susan Sullivan, Fayette; Marian Reed, Lois Mebane, Cleveland Heights; Betty Brian, Jean Power, Rosalind Fouts, and Betty Ensminger, Cleveland; Virginia McCray, Kentland, Ind.; and Mildred Ellison, Williamsburg, Ky.

Work has been started on a new library building which is being erected on the university campus. As it is in plain view of the chapter house the girls have been watching the progress of the construction with much interest.

During the summer many improvements in the house were made, and the $\Pi \Phi$ home is now very attractive and complete. New furniture throughout the bedrooms, several new chairs, lamps, and end-tables in the living rooms, the installation of showers in the bathroom, and the remodeling of the kitchen are included in the list of improvements.

Ohio A is encouraging all of the girls to become active on the campus, and while it is only the first of the college year practically all of the girls are working in the various activities. Kathleen Conoway, Aline Wills, Marianna Linscott, and Dorothy Webster survived the final elimination of the glee club, while Kathleen, Sue Porterfield, and Marian Morris are members of $\Sigma A I$, honorary women's musical fraternity. Betty Wilson is president of the honorary art fraternity, and Esther Harris is now president of ΣP , honorary journalism fraternity for women. Dorothy Roe and Betty Ensminger are society editors of The Green and White, and many of the girls hold positions on the college paper and annual book staffs. The interpretative dancing ability of Helen Louise Cline, Kathleen Conoway, Sue Porterfield, and Aline Wills led to their election into Studio club, and Aline, Josephine Frasier, and Mary Ellen Wood have successfully tried out for Playshop, a dramatic club. Helen Louise Cline will be one of the speakers on the university women's debating team. Mary Elizabeth Kessinger and Helen McLaughlin are holding important offices in Y.M.C.A. and Women's League.

In order to keep up a high scholastic standing Ohio A is requiring all of its members to make a C-average the first semester, the penalty for not doing this is the forfeiting of voting privileges until the C-average is acquired.

The girls are all very much interested in the Collier campaign and hope to make a lot of money for the Settlement School.

MARY ELLEN WOOD

OHIO BETA—OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1894

Pledge Day, October 4, 1930

INITIATED, May, 1930: Florence Bunnell, 2124 Robinwood Ave., Toledo, Ohio; Helen Hannah, 2148 Lawrence Ave., Toledo, Ohio; Mildred Marquardt, 1901 Coventry Rd., Columbus, Ohio; Elizabeth Miller Bucyrus, Ohio; and Dorothy Sedgwick Martins Ferry, Ohio.

GRADUATES: Katherine Curran, B.S., Sistrerville, W.Va.; Alice Deeg, B.A., 1237 Neil Ave., Columbus, Ohio; Mary Evans, B.A., 343 E. 152 St., Cleveland, Ohio; Marian Jeffries Tarr, 1009 Frank Rd., Columbus, Ohio; Alice Jeanne Myers, B.S., 1651 Bryden Rd., Columbus, Ohio; Helen Brown Russel, Pomeroy, Ohio; Ruth Siebert, 571 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio; Margaret Stribling, B. A., Point Pleasant, W.Va.; Catherine Wollam, B.S., W. Ninth Ave., Columbus, Ohio; and Virginia Ullery, 266 Douglas Ave., Springfield, Ohio.

This year freshman week opened on September 24 at Ohio State and ended on September 27.

The rushing rules were much revised this year and each women's fraternity was restricted in giving only two parties. The first one was a tea given on Friday September 26 at the chapter house. The second party was the $\Pi \Phi$ wedding given at the Elks Country Club. Dorothy Dillon was rushing chairman. Pledging took place on Saturday, October 4, 1930, at which time fourteen girls were pledged.

Ohio B was very fortunate in having three of her members chosen by Mortar Board this past spring: Jean Bostwick, Marian Riggs, and Charlotte Worrell. Virginia Denbrock and Mildred Marquardt were elected to Chimes.

The Founders' Day celebration was held on April 27 at the Deshler-Wallick Hotel. This year in addition to joining the other Ohio chapters for the occasion, the Mothers' Club of Ohio was present.

MARY E. COOK

OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, October 6, 1930

The chapter announced the pledging of the following girls: Ruth Atkinson, Cincinnati, Ohio; Ruth Bettes, Winter Haven, Fla.; Barbara Dove, Shelbyville, Ill.; Dorothy Fenton, Terrace Park, Ohio; Jean Horton, Cleveland Heights, Ohio; Harriet Greenwood, Youngstown, Ohio; E. Catherine Lohmuller, Baltimore, Md.; Jane Lowe, Portland, Ore.; Rachael McKenzie, Delaware, Ohio; Geneva Moyer, Massillon, Ohio; Margaret Pardee, Youngstown, Ohio; Janice Rodgers, Coshocton, Ohio; Helen Sharkey, Detroit, Mich.; Virginia Sanborn, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Evelyn Timerman, Canajoharie, N.Y.; Eleanor Wise, New Brighton, Pa.; and Elizabeth Sheetz, Harrisburg, Pa. Pledging was followed with a cooky-shine.

This year an entirely new system of rushing was given a trial, the free association type. The idea was carried out with the intention of creating a more friendly spirit among the groups, and with its ultimate goal as "beauty." Due to the fact that women's fraternities at Ohio Wesleyan are not permitted to have houses, Panhellenic is busy this fall with the proposed scheme of the building of fraternity lodges by each group represented on the campus. However, final action will not be taken upon the plan until the last of November. In undertaking such a program, they are hoping to eliminate the problem of the finding and the renting of suitable rooms each year. Despite this usual difficulty in finding fraternity rooms, Ohio Δ has been extremely fortunate in the renting of new ones this year. With gifts from alumnae, and with the proceeds from a rummage sale held the first week of this term, the girls have been able to purchase several pieces of new furniture.

Stuyvesant Hall, a new dormitory for freshman women, is under construction on the campus. It is hoped that the building will be completely equipped and ready for occupancy by the opening of the 1931 fall term. This hall will make it possible for the university to do away with the present freshman cottages.

The chapter has permanently raised the scholarship average for initiation to B—, in order to keep the general average as high as possible, any active not making the same grade is subject to penalty. With this method Ohio Δ plans to raise her scholastic standing.

The social committee at Ohio Wesleyan is planning to make the Greek Conclave to be held December 5, 6 and 7, the outstanding social event of the year's calendar. The Sorority Stunt Night, scheduled for October 28, was a new undertaking.

Dorothy Kepner was honored by being elected to the position of women's editor of the Wesleyan yearbook, Le Bijou. She took leading rôle in the homecoming play, The Show-Off, on November 1. The chapter held open house on that day for all of her guests after the football game.

MARY PURDUM

WEST VIRGINIA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WEST VIRGINIA

Chartered, 1918

Pledge Day, September 28, 1930

INITIATED, October 16, 1930: Virginia Kelly, '33, Oceana, W.Va.

West Virginia A closed a most successful rushing season of two weeks duration with the pledging of the following girls: Jean Orton, Jean Fromme, Margaret Wilbourn, Regina Cochran, Morgantown, W.Va.; Marian McClure, Betty Carson, Charleston, W.Va.; Nell Haller, Mildred Hall, Wheeling, W.Va.; Bettie Brothers, Uniontown, Pa.; Ruth Crooks, Clarion, Pa.; Eleanore Cunningham, Martha Furbee, Mannington, W.Va.; Gonell Danielson, Jamestown, N.Y.; Martha Hill, Marlinton, W.Va.; Mathilde Withers, Mary Withers Hooker, Buckhannon, W.Va.; Margaret Kell, Bluefield, W.Va.; Mary Lunsford, Weston, W.Va.; Sally Lou Musgrave, Point Pleasant, W.Va.; Virginia Smith, Hamlin, W.Va.; and Ruth Wycoff, Fairmont, W.Va.

Rushing season opened with formal teas given on the first evening of college by all women's fraternities in their chapter houses. West Virginia A gave three other parties during the two weeks, one a cabaret party for which invitations were sent to new girls announcing the opening of Ring Ching Inn. Another unusual party was in the nature of a circus for which the house was decorated with gaudy posters and street stands from which hamburgers, pink lemonade, peanuts, popcorn, and ice cream cones could be procured. The final party was the traditional Arrow dinner. Silence was shorter than usual this year, lasting only from the conclusion of the final party until pledging the next day at four o'clock.

The chapter is proud of its scholastic ranking on the campus for the past year. The ratings, which have just been published, show $\Pi B \Phi$ leading all campus Greek-letter groups for the second semester of 1929-30, with a scholastic average of 84.85 per cent. $K K \Gamma$ achieved second place with 83.448 per cent. The general average for fraternity women during the second semester was 82.114, while the nonfraternity women averaged 81.141. This is the second consecutive semester $\Pi B \Phi$ has led all campus groups and will be awarded the Hare scholarship cup.

The chapter moved into an attractive brick residence at 445 Spruce St. Several new articles of furniture were purchased. Fourteen girls are living in the house.

A great deal of interest was displayed in the first Beta province house party which was held in June at the handsome new residence of $\Phi \Sigma K$ fraternity, with West Virginia A as hostess. The girls enjoyed the opportunity of meeting and knowing girls from other chapters. Several social events were held in connection with the house party, including a formal dance in the $\Phi \Sigma K$ house.

A formal banquet was held in the chapter house on October 16 after initiation services for Virginia Kelly were held.

The chapter has gained distinction in extracurricular activities. Last spring, Genevieve Brown was elected to membership in $\Phi B K$. Irma Ayers and Bertha Handlan were among the seven girls chosen for Mortar Board. Irma was elected to succeed Genevieve Brown as president of Mortar Board. Virginia Kelly was initiated into Litonawa, honorary sophomore organization.

Dorothy Brand was re-elected president of $\Phi X \Delta$, a new national organization for Presbyterian college women. Dorothy is also national vice president. Eleanor Stone was named editor of the paper for $\Phi X \Delta$. Eleanor was editor of the Handbook for Freshmen Women, published in the fall by W.S.G.A. Anna Mary Trof was assistant editor. Jean Rogers was elected secretary of the senior class, and Virginia Kelly secretary of the sophomore class. Bertha Handlan was elected president of the W.A.A., which is one of the major offices for women on the campus.

Irma Ayers is senior representative on the general student council and Jean Crile is senior representative on the W.S.G. board. Eleanor Stone was elected to $K \Delta \Pi$, honorary education fraternity last spring. She was also named vice president of La Tertulia, honorary Spanish society, of which Phyllis Buck is secretary, and Elizabeth Wade is treasurer.

Anna Mary Trof, Betty Weidner, Annette Wiley, Jean Rogers, and Jean Crile were elected to $B \Pi \Theta$, honorary French fraternity.

Six members of the chapter were on the list published in the college paper of student who averaged above 90 per cent during the past semester. These were Virginia Miller, Bertha Handlan, Irma Ayers, Rogene Boyles, Dorothy Manasse, and Eleanor Stone.

A Φ and $\Gamma \Phi B$ installed chapters on the campus of West Virginia University last spring.

In the spring elections Frances Nixdorff was elected secretary-treasurer of the athletic association and advertising manager of Donnybrook. Virginia Underhill was also elected a member of the athletic association and chairman of lighting for Agora, the dramatic society. Patricia Harris is sophomore member of the Students' organization. The class of '31 elected Martha Lindstedt chairman of Garden Party, Mary Margaret Gorden for secretary, and Dorothy Greig for vice president. Dorothy Kelley is business manager of Agora, chairman of the junior play, and assistant picture editor of Donnybrook. Martha Lindstedt is president of Press Board. The following Pi Phi were elected representatives to the Silver Bay Conference: Martha Lindstedt for Goucher College Christian Association; Patricia Harris, Students' Organization; Dorothy Greig, representative of the class of '31; Frances Nixdorff, athletic association.

Funeral services for Dr. John B. Van Meter, dean emeritus of Goucher College, were held in the alumnae lodge on April 11.

Frances Rice was chosen May queen. Helen Lankford and Ellen Terrell were in the May Court. May Day was held on the future campus at Towson and it was truly an unusually beautiful creation.

Founders' Day was celebrated in Washington this year with a banquet at the Washington Hotel. Three chapters in Gamma province dined, sang, talked and, listened to inspiring messages of chapter presidents and guest alumnae. Lois Thompson, Gamma province president, presided over the banquet in her own gracious and efficient manner.

F. Elizabeth Brown, Baltimore, and Sally List, Wheeling, W.Va., were pledged early in the spring.

The chapter rooms were attractively decorated and painted.

DOROTHY M. KELLEY

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ALPHA—GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, April, 1889

Pledge Day, Indefinite

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Monta Ruediger, 2836-28th St. N.W., Washington, D.C., and Ruth Sullivan, 1501-16th St. N.W., Washington, D.C.

Many improvements have been made and are being made on the campus. The lawns and buildings have been improved to such an extent that the smallness of the campus is no longer so noticeable. A new electrical engineering building is being constructed. College spirit is being developed by the student council. This council is the first form of government in George Washington University to be an active body and to have real power.

Not to be outdone by the university, Columbia A presents a comfortable and homelike aspect because of the improvements made by actives during the summer months. New soft pillows, an overstuffed chair, china which is a gift from the initiates of 1930, new lamps, and many small but necessary accessories are the features of the house manager's work.

The scholarship chairman by means of posting grades and keeping in close touch with the work of each girl is furthering better scholarship.

The chapter has received many honors since the last issue of THE ARROW. Mary Hudson was made editor of the Cherry Tree, the yearbook, and vice president of W.A.A. Maude Hudson and Wilhelmina Gude were elected members of the student council. Wilhelmina Gude was also made manager of intramural sports for the university. Carolyn Jackson was chosen as "Miss Colonial Belle" by popular vote of the student body and the faculty of the university. Mary Virginia Smith was elected president of the Y.W.C.A. The scope of these honors is representative of the goal of Columbia A to have outstanding girls in every type of activity.

The rushing chairman for this season is Carolyn Jackson, 5 Oxford St., Chevy Chase, Md.

Virginia Alpha announces the pledging of the following girls: Muriel Appel, Richmond, Va.; Lib Ballenger, Spartanburg, S.C.; Florence Black, Louisville, Ky.; Bettie Brainerd, Washington, D.C.; Merle Clowney, Huttig, Ark.; Eleanor Cranfill, Dallas, Tex.; Alberta Eubank, Sherman, Tex.; Helen Gatewood, Mt. Sterling, Ky.; Anna Catherine Hawkins, Danville, Ill.; Lida Lea, Wichita Falls, Tex.; Betsy Lee, Wichita Falls, Tex.; Catherine Moomaw, Roanoke, Va.; Isabel Rowell, El Dorado, Ark.; Frances Taliaferro, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Marion Timmins, El Dorado, Ark.; Editha Williams, Comanche, Tex.; and Elizabeth Wilson, Louisville, Ky.

An unusually large cooky-shine, due to the result of a most successful rushing season and to the presence of visiting alumnae, followed the service.

The appearance of the Randolph-Macon campus has been improved greatly by a new brick wall which surrounds the campus. The main building has been remodeled, in order to make a sufficient number of rooms to make off-campus houses unnecessary this year. New rooms have been arranged for the art department and the geography and geology department.

The formal opening of the college was held on September 24. The address was given by Dr. J. W. Cooper, United States Commissioner of Education, and was followed by a reception.

On October 6 the Fine Arts Committee presented the Russian Cossack Chorus in an entertaining musical program.

The plan for scholarship for Virginia A has become a permanent by-law of the chapter. An average of eighty-five must be made by a member in order that she may vote and have the use of the house. An average of eighty must be made in order that she may wear her pin. The sophomore making the highest average for the year has her name engraved on the chapter loving cup, and the freshman making the highest average receives a small loving cup.

Virginia A is well represented in campus offices and activities. Helen Louise Duckett is president of the athletic association and a member of student committee; Mary Elizabeth King is the editor of the Helianthus, the college annual, and director of the Randolph-Macon orchestra; Carolyn Gore is the business manager of the Old Maid, the humor publication; Betty Powell, Elizabeth Cardwell, and Jane Brainerd are members of the Helianthus staff; Eva Smither and Sabina Kelley are members of the Old Maid staff. Membership in Sock and Buskin, dramatic club, includes: Eva Smither, stage manager; Carolyn Gore, Helen Louise Duckett, Elizabeth Cardwell, Sabina Kelley, Jane Brainerd, and Frances Richardson. Frances Richardson belongs to the glee club. Margaret Wilkinson was chosen a Junior Usher, a distinction given for scholarship to only seventeen juniors. Eva Smither, a member of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet, was in charge of the Y.W. teas given for the freshmen.

A Σ of $\Gamma \Phi B$ was installed at Randolph-Macon on September 16, 1930.

INITIATED, April 17, 1930: Lettie Randolph Hairston, '33, 1517 Roanoke St., Roanoke, Va.; and LeBaron Coleman, '33, 421 Albermarle Ave., Roanoke, Va.

GRADUATES: Kathryn Glenn, B.A., 16 Westover Apts., Norfolk, Va.; Frances Griffin, B.A., 308 W. 14th St., Norfolk, Va.; Lucy Pilcher, B.A., R.F.D. 3, Petersburg, Va.; Harriet Smith, B.A., Ashland, Va.; Virginia Ford, B.A., 113 Malvern Rd., Cherrydale, Va.; and Dorothy West, B.A., Bedford, Va.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Catherine Crane, Washington, D.C.; Jane Clark, Germantown, Pa.; Anne Petty, Arlington, Va.; Lucia Muller, Madison, N.J.; Ellen Stevens, Los Angeles, Calif.; Frances Stoner, Hollywood, Calif.; Marian Perry, Washington, D.C.; Elizabeth Wilson, Cape Charles, Va.; Margaret King, Baltimore, Md.; and Marjorie McLean, Williamsburg, Va.

At the end of the college year Gladys Monroe was bid to the dramatic club; Dorothy Reese, Elizabeth Griffin, and Marjorie Lanston were given responsible positions on the staff of the Colonial Echo, and the latter two girls were also elected to the Flat Hat staff. Also at this time the senior play, "The Royal Family," was produced. Harriet Smith showed marked dramatic ability as "Fanny Cavendish."

During the summer many events occurred which were of great interest to Virginia P. The news of the Stoolman Vase being awarded the chapter brought great joy. Harriet Smith was made president of Gamma province in the place of Lois Thompson, who is to be married soon. However much of the joy was turned to sorrow at the announcement of the death of Mary Duke Carter, '32, McKenny, Va. She died on July 19, after a very brief illness.

The restoration work progressed rapidly in the summer months. Many old houses were made over and many of the newer houses were moved into the background. An interesting event which occurred while the foundations of the old Governor's Palace were being unearched, was the discovery of a hundred or more skeletons of men, who, it is thought, were soldiers in the American army, during the Revolutionary War.

As the quaint old town goes backwards, William and Mary continues its forward march, expanding and increasing every year. This year, three new buildings are in use and another is being built. New courses and new professors have been added. With this expansion, more students have matriculated, giving the college the largest attendance in its history.

The freshman girls are policed by the Sophomore Tribunal, of which Margaret Kolb is the president. She has also been elected as a representative-at-large in the W.S.G.A.

Rushing season formally opened with every women's fraternity giving a tea on the afternoon of September 27. The season lasted ten days, at the end of which, another party was given. Then after one day of silence, the bids were sent out.

The Alpha chapter of Φ B K celebrated the bimillennium anniversary of the birth of Vergil, on October 15, by bringing Professor Charles Knapp, of Columbia University, to speak, and by sponsoring the elaborate outdoor pageant which was given that evening. The pageant, the largest of its kind in the United States, depicted the visit of Aeneas to the Lower World, as told by Vergil in the sixth book of the Aeneid. Catherine Hasseltine, Marjorie Lanston, Gladys Monroe, Agnes Downs, and Margaret Kolb took part in the production, and LeBaron Coleman was assistant to the director.

Pledge Day, October 13, 1930

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Eloise Barwick, Raleigh, N.C.; Alice Carr, Mooresville, N.C.; Jeanette Comer, Chapel Hill, N.C.; Mary Lillian Correll, Chapel Hill, N.C.; Mary Alleene Ewart, Hinton, W.Va.; Virginia Ferguson, Norfolk, Va.; Blanche Baker Hanff, Scotland Neck, N.C.; Betty Jones, Augusta, Ga.; Martha Lewis, Oxford, N.C.; Myra Lynch, Asheville, N.C.; Ruth Newby, Hertford, N.C.; Elizabeth Nunn, New Bern, N.C.; Gabrielle McColl, Bennettsville, S.C.; Josephine Parker, Asheville, N.C.; Closs Peace, Henderson, N.C.; Margaret Powell, Asheville, N.C.; Jean Rose, Chapel Hill, N.C.; Frances Wagstaff, Chapel Hill, N.C.; Elizabeth Webb, Hillsboro, N.C.; Jocelyn Whedbee, Hertford, N.C.; and Mary Wiatt Yarborough, Louisburg, N.C.

North Carolina University lost her president, Dr. Harry Chase, to the University of Illinois; and in his place has gained one of the most beloved faculty members, Mr. Frank Graham.

This chapter is very fortunate in having Mrs. Comer, new Gamma province vice president, as a resident of Chapel Hill.

North Carolina A has a new housemother, Mrs. Rose, mother of Susan Rose Saunders, '27, and Jean Rose, '32, a pledge.

Evelyn Way received her M.A. in June and is back this year working on her Ph.D.

Katharine Wheaton, New York Γ , has transferred to this chapter.

Virginia Turner was awarded the recognition pin given to the undergraduate making the highest average. She had an A-average for the entire year.

There are three Pi Phis on the Women's Association council composed of seven members, Kate Graham, vice president; Adelaide McAnally, secretary; and Elaine Wheaton, house representative. Emmie Frances Polhill was elected secretary of the Graduate Club and Evelyn Way vice president. Elaine Wheaton was elected to $\Lambda \Psi \Delta$, psychological fraternity, and to the Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society. Kate Graham is president of the local Panhellenic association. Mary Aileen Ewart, has the leading part in one of the Playmakers' first productions this fall.

FLORIDA ALPHA—JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, October 6, 1930

INITIATED, April 15, 1930: Louise Beasley, '33, Hartsville, S.C.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Betty Sue Atwell, West Palm Beach; Betty Brannon, Miami; Addie Carlidge, Crescent City; Betty Scarlet, DeLand; Mary Stewart, DeLand; and Donna Van Dyne, Troy, Pa.

During the two weeks of rushing, the parties, both informal and formal were very successful and effective. The former was a Bohemian party, where all the actives wore pajamas, and everyone sat on cushions around low tables. One of the favors given was a silhouette of each rushee drawn while she posed for a few minutes at the party. The latter was our usual progressive dinner, with each course representing a different country. The cocktail course was in Holland, the main course in Japan, the salad in Hawaii, the ice course in Iceland, and the demitasse in Pi Phi Land. Entertainment, decorations, and favors at each course were appropriately arranged to carry out the motifs.

Stetson is growing rapidly. A new building has just been completed which will be used by the dramatics department. The formal opening was held on November 20, with a play in which several Pi Phis took part.

Florida A is sincerely glad to welcome Louise McGinnis, who has transferred from Indiana A.

Betty Douglass is vice president of the student body, and Elizabeth Wilhelm is secretary of the student body. Nena Belle Green is editor in chief of the annual, and Nena Belle Green, Marie Smith and Ethelyn Dorman are on the student council. Only three members of the same fraternity are allowed on council.

FLORIDA BETA—FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, September 29, 1930

Florida B pledged the following girls: Mary Louise Fenn, Miami, Fla.; Mary Hill, Miami, Fla.; Margaret McCrimmon, Miami, Fla.; Lucille Singletary, Miami, Fla.;

Elizabeth Peters, Miami, Fla.; Marjorie Mizell, Miami, Fla.; Ida Miller Gautier, Miami, Fla.; Jessie Booten, Marshalville, Ga.; Helene Watrous, New Orleans, La.; Sumner Dews, Nashville, Tenn.; Shirley Ann Reed, Jacksonville, Fla.; Beth Robinson, Jacksonville, Fla.; Dorothy McCranie, Jacksonville, Fla.; Elizabeth Burns, Tallahassee, Fla.; Inez Mann, Tallahassee, Fla.; Edna James, Orlando, Fla.; Dorothy Aulls, Orlando, Fla.; Elizabeth Smith, Vero Beach, Fla.; Billy Young, Ovido, Fla.; Nellie Gunter, Palm Beach, Fla.; Betty McCoy, Palm Beach, Fla.; Anita Anderson, Palm Beach, Fla.; Nancy Lang, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Janice Prince, Tampa, Fla.; Helen Hicks, DeFuniack Springs, Fla.; Constance Hanum, Eustis, Fla.; Frances Mills, Daytona Beach, Fla.; and Martha Parrish, Lakeland, Fla.

Immediately following pledge service a banquet was held at the Tallahassee Women's Club. A large horseshoe-shaped table was placed in the center of a long room. At the end of this room was a stage upon which the evening's entertainment was presented. The table was decorated with American Beauty roses and wine red and silver blue tapers. Boxes of stationery with the Greek letters $\Pi \beta \Phi$ etched in gold on the writing paper were given to the pledges as favors. Sixty-three girls were present at this banquet, including alumnae, actives, and pledges.

The sponsor service took place on October 9, and was followed by a cooky-shine at the house. All the actives, members of the alumnae association, and pledges were present.

In the elections of May, 1930, the following chapter members were elected to office: parliamentarian of senior class, Ellen Knight; cheer leader of senior class, Mayme Tatum; member of Y.W.C.A. cabinet, Lucy Pope; Senior representative to senate, Jean Rowe; assistant editor of annual, Helen Gray.

Those belonging to clubs on campus are: Cotillion Club, president, Ellen Knight; other members are Jean Rowe and Mayme Tatum; V. V. (Village Vamp) Club, Susan Stovall, Kay Perkins, Elinor Estes; Orchesis (interpretative dancing), Louise Aulls, Evelyn Lyle, Ellen Knight.

Chapter members elected to honoraries include: Evelyn Lyle, $\Pi \beta \Phi$, French; Louise Aulls, $\Theta \Sigma$, home economics; Ellen Knight, $\Lambda \chi \alpha$, journalistic and $\chi \Delta \Phi$, literary.

Nancy Lang, Nellie Gunter, Helene Watrous, and Janice Prince, all new pledges, have been asked to be in the Torch Night Ceremony. This ceremony occurs every year at the beginning of college and its theme is the passing of the torches, Artes, Vires, and Mores from the sophomore class to the freshman class. Jean Rowe and Louise Aulls are also taking part and Elizabeth Sims is chairman of stage properties.

As part of the chapter plan for scholarship during the year each chapter member and pledge must consult executive council before taking class cuts. The grades which come out quarterly are to be read in chapter meeting. Study hall is held for the freshmen every evening from seven thirty till ten o'clock in the Library; attendance is compulsory and absence can only be excused by the pledge supervisor.

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE

Chartered, July 3, 1929

Pledge Day, November 2, 1930

INITIATED, April 19, 1930: Sara Bell, '33, Strong, Me.; Sylva Fell, '33, New York City; Matilde Mizener, '31, North East, Pa.; Margaret Cummings, '33, Boston, Mass.; Doris Lang, '33, New Rochelle, N.Y.; Dorothy Livingston, '32, Orlando, Fla.; Louise Hall, '30, Boston, Mass.; and Catherine Green and Frances James, graduates.

INITIATED, June 5, 1930: Anna Margaret James, Mary Virginia Fisher, and Gladys Wilkinson, graduates.

GRADUATES: Marjorie Rushmore, B.A., Bright Home, Hudson, N.Y.; Marguerite Lobeau, B.A., 322 Agnes St., Orlando, Fla.; Matilde Mizener, B.A., 140 W. Main St., North East, Pa.; Candace Secor, B.A., 1224 43rd St., Des Moines, Iowa; and Gladys Morton, B.S., 1023 S. Orange Ave., Sarasota, Fla.

Candace Secor was elected to membership in the Rollins Key Society last June, and at the annual W.A.A. banquet, the Φ M trophy for sportsmanship and outstanding athletic ability was presented to Damaris Wilson. Out of four athletic letters, two were received by Florida Γ girls. Four girls were on the varsity teams, and two are to be on this year's board of W.A.A.

During the summer the Rollins campus was greatly beautified and two new girls' dormitories were erected. One has been named after the donor, Mr. Pugsley of Peekskill, N.Y., Pugsley Hall; the other is Mayflower Hall, so-called because President Holt, on a recent trip abroad acquired a piece of an original beam of that ship which will be placed in the cornerstone. Upper-class girls will occupy these halls, while the freshman girls occupy "dear ole" Cloverleaf.

The incoming freshman class was to have been limited to fifty girls and seventy-five boys; however, the number of applications so far exceeds these limitations that ninety boys and seventy girls have been admitted.

On September 27 the feature event of Freshman Week took place. The Rollins alumnae were hostesses at a tea at the "Ripples," an estate belonging to a Rollins alumna, for the senior and freshman girls. The senior and freshman men were entertained at a smoker that evening.

The first week of college was devoted to the freshmen. It is not until the following week that rush parties begin. Each women's fraternity has a set day for their parties, ranging in order of years on campus, the oldest coming first. Florida Γ has Tuesday of each week for three weeks, and then comes a week of silence or formal rushing week, just before pledging.

Rollins is very fortunate this year to have two Oxford graduates on the faculty, a'ong with the other very charming personalities.

At the failure of the Bank of Winter Park, the chapter lost all the money which had been put away for this year, including the new house fund. Soon afterwards, Elizabeth Morton Ihrig, Gladys Morton, and Nellie Crichlow gave a benefit tea dance, the proceeds of which, thirty dollars, helped to reimburse the treasury.

$\Pi \Phi$ is represented on campus this year by vice president of Y.W.C.A.; vice president of glee club; president of the Studio Club; editor of the R-book (freshman bible); a member on the annual, Tomokan staff; and by an assistant in dramatics.

MICHIGAN ALPHA—HILLSDALE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October 18, 1930

Michigan A announces the pledging of the following girls: Julie Baron, Hillsdale, Mich.; Catherine Bates, Camden, Mich.; Katherine Brown, Condee, S.D.; Mary Alice Chaffee, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Helen Geyer, Detroit, Mich.; Esther Groff, Detroit, Mich.; Virginia La Reux, Hillsdale, Mich.; Mary Madelon Lamont, Flint, Mich.; Kathrin Lewis, Newark, N.J.; Thelma Martin, Bellevue, Ohio; Evelyn Meighan, Hillsdale, Mich.; Ruth Soule, Grand Haven, Mich.; Theodora Tiedobole, Covert, Mich.; and Katherine Jean Wood, Tecumseh, Mich.

The chapter entertained the Fort Wayne, Indiana alumnae club at the pledging ceremony.

On the Hillsdale campus during the summer there have been a number of marked improvements. Several of the buildings have been redecorated and furnished with new desks, one floor of the freshman dormitory was repainted and some new fixtures added.

Michigan A is very proud of its house this year. The house looks truly colonial with a fresh coat of paint and with the shutters painted a forest green. The grounds surrounding the house were landscaped and many small pine and fir trees set out. This work was done by one of Michigan A's seniors, Wilma Lydrickson, whose father came from Cleveland to do the work.

Michigan A has many new furnishings for its house. In the hall is a new rug which covers the entire hall. In the living room there are two new davenports, one of dark green and the other maroon, which add both to the beauty and the comfort of it. Two new parchment lamps adorn the tables and a new radio and victrola combination make the appointments of the room complete. The kitchen too has been redecorated in cream and light green with matching linoleum. There is a new six-plate gas range of the same shades.

Having missed the scholarship cup by a few thousandths of a point this semester the chapter is stressing scholarship more than ever and hopes to organize some study supervision groups as soon as the first six weeks' grades are issued.

A senior of Michigan A, Harriet Ball, has recently had two of her short stories published in the Chicago Mid Weekly. For three years Harriet has written poems for the chapter which have been set to music and used as rushing songs. Many of her poems have been printed in the literary magazine.

MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Pledge Day, October 12, 1930

Michigan B completed a successful rushing season and announces the pledging of twenty-one girls: Margaret Asire, Westerville, Ohio; Ruth Campbell, Detroit, Mich.; Margaret Durst, Keyser, W.Va.; Jean Engard, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mary Fitzpatrick, Detroit, Mich.; Marion Giddings, Battle Creek, Mich.; Caroline Hyde, Washington, D.C.; Mary Elisabeth Irwin, Port Huron, Mich.; Katherine Jackson, Detroit, Mich.; Esther Kunkle, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Louise McKay, Charleroi, Pa.; Suzanne McKinney, Alton, Ill.; Katherine McGregor, Cleveland, Ohio; Josephine Nolan, Caledonia, Mich.; Caroline Novak, Detroit, Mich.; Cynthia Root, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Marietta Recor, Port Huron, Mich.; Marjorie Rough, Detroit, Mich.; Anna Lyle Spain, Detroit, Mich.; Helen Spencer, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Corinne Tilton, Detroit, Mich.

The chapter returned to college this fall to find a great many improvements in its chapter house. The entire first floor had been redecorated during the summer by the Ann Arbor alumnae, and many new pieces of furniture added. The walls have all been finished in a lovely light cream which harmonizes with the new wine color, flowered chintz drapes. The dining room is decorated in rose pattern colonial paper which is in keeping with the architecture of the house. An oak sun parlor suite upholstered in striped material has been added, making the room very attractive. On the second floor, the Jenny Lind spool-beds with dressers and desks to match are being added a few each year. Four rooms are furnished with them now.

This year Michigan B gained possession of the Panhellenic scholarship cup for the second year in succession with a slightly higher percentage. ΔZ took a second place, and ΔF , third. The cup was awarded at the annual Panhellenic banquet on October 27 which was attended by all the fraternity women on the campus. The chapter is emphasizing scholarship especially this year, as winning the cup a third time means permanent possession of it. A II B Φ ring is awarded to the pledge who maintains the highest grades, and a system of fines is imposed on active members who drop below C in any course.

This fall has seen the opening of Mosher-Jordan Hall, a new university-owned dormitory housing 450 women of all classes. It is divided into two separate units, each named for a past dean of women. The building is very beautiful and seems more like a lovely home than an institution. Elisabeth DeVol, '30, is one of the two graduate managers at the dormitory and assistant to the directors of Jordan Hall.

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

INITIATED, September 20, 1930: Claribel Flowers, '33, Celeste Jordan, '33, Indianapolis; Julia Hicks, '33, Louise Overstreet, '33, Franklin; Gail Small, '33, Aurora; Edwina Thatcher, '33, Laporte; and Elizabeth Myers, '33, Greenwood.

Indiana A announces the pledging of the following girls: Mary Sloan, Worthington; Genevieve Gambell, Chicago; Jean Wilson, Elizabeth Ogglesby, and Helen Seybold, Indianapolis; Kathryn Jane Wyrick, Elizabeth Burke, Mildred Swift, Kathryn Mossop, Florence Alice Province, and Marie Lawshe, Franklin; Vivian Dickson, Hammond; and Mary Cox, Cruthersville.

On Monday, October 20, the II Φ mothers' club entertained the active and pledge groups at a spread at the home of Mrs. Lanam. The pledge group entertained with songs and piano selections.

Mrs. Harry Hougham and Mrs. George Vandiver, alumnae of Indiana A, have returned from a visit to the Settlement School at Gatlinburg. They entertained friends and acquaintances at a tea at which time they exhibited for sale some of the work which is being done at the School. The active and pledge group attended the tea.

The alumnae advisory committee entertained the pledge group at tea. This tea is an annual affair and provides an excellent opportunity for the pledge group to become acquainted with the alumnae.

The active and pledge groups cooperated in giving a dance at the Nashville House, Nashville, Ind., on November 20. The Nashville House is a delightfully rustic and old-fashioned log cabin and with its huge open fireplaces and atmosphere of late fall is an excellent place for the opening social function of the year.

INITIATED, October 18, 1930: Lucile Baker, '33, 417 E. 37th St., Indianapolis, Ind.; Virginia Garner, '33, 704 E. Main St., Muncie, Ind.; Josephine Jones, '33, 336 W. Broadway, Shelbyville, Ind.; Alice Lamb, '33, Winter Park, Fla.; and Marjorie Mangrum, '33, 520 Eastern Ave., Connersville, Ind.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Mary Lou Aikman, Terre Haute, Ind.; Elizabeth Burnett, Bloomington, Ind.; Harriet Clark, Bloomfield, Ind.; Ninetta Chapman, Bloomington, Ind.; Susan Jane Dikeman, Peoria, Ill.; Virginia Evans, Chicago, Ill.; Marjorie Giffin, Plymouth, Ind.; Julia Heighway, Ladoga, Ind.; Lenore Hockman, Mt. Vernon, Ind.; Leah Lindley, Sullivan, Ind.; Helen Medbourne, Culver, Ind.; Margaret Morgan, Austin, Ind.; Lois Pollock, Oak Park, Ill.; Virginia Ray, Montpelier, Ind.; Dorothy Traylor, Boonville, Ind.; and Eleanor Whadcock, Shelbyville, Ind.

Before the fall term opened the living room of the chapter house was refurbished, and the frame part on the outside of the house was repainted.

A new chemistry building is being constructed on the campus which provides more class rooms and will also have a large auditorium. The Tri Deltas have a spacious new chapter house.

The chapter's plan for scholarship this year requires upperclassmen to spend at least twelve hours a week in the Library. Freshman study hall at the house every night is supervised by upperclassmen as are the two hours they spend in the Library every Saturday morning. A dollar fine for every hour of smoke-ups, a warning from the university of unsatisfactory work, is to be refunded at the end of the semester if the work proves satisfactory at that time. Nelle Corbin, '30, with twelve hours of A and three of B, has her name on the scholarship cup for upperclassmen. Harriet Brower, '33, with fifteen hours A, has her name on the freshman cup.

On Thursday, October 2, Indiana B had a tea at the chapter house for the new chaperon, Mrs. Minnie Caldwell. On Friday, October 24, the freshmen had an informal dinner at the chapter house. On the following night the chapter gave the pledge dance which was a Bowery Dance.

Mary Marjorie Mull was initiated into $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$. Susan Jane Dikeman was initiated into Garrick Club, a dramatic organization.

Garrick Gaieties a campus production was presented on October 28 and 29. The members who took part were: Maxine Rosebaum as a dancing director; Margaret Morgan, who gave two specialty dances; Susan Jane Dikeman, who was in a skit; and Josephine Jones, Virginia Evans, Elizabeth Burnett, and Leah Lindley, in the choruses.

Nelle Corbin and Marjorie Giffin were chosen on the university glee club. Harriet Brower was appointed circulation manager of the Vagabond, a college magazine. Eleanor Whadcock was elected secretary of Y.W.C.A. Josephine Jones was elected secretary of the sophomore class. Leonora Hockman and Julia Heighway are eligible for W.A.A.

INDIANA GAMMA—BUTLER UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, Indefinite

Pledge services were held for twenty-one girls at the chapter house of Indiana Γ on Thursday evening, September 18 for Dorothy Arnholder, Dorothy Jane Atkins, Betty Barone, Helen Carson, Anna Marie Dungan, Helen Gearen, Nantelle Harvey, Elizabeth Hadley, Edith Ann Hoopingarner, Evelyn Kellogg, Betty McCracken, Martha Jane McMasters, and Madeline Sander, all of Indianapolis; Dorothy Goddard, Ruth Hyatt, Janet Jerman, and Evelyn McDermitt of Greensburg; Jean Misch of Danville; Mary Ruth Palmer of Lebanon; Marcele Glidden of Rushville; and Dorothy Lewis of Louisville, Ky.

Within the last year, $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ and $K K \Gamma$ have erected beautiful new homes on fraternity row. Indiana Γ hopes to build in the near future, and the chapter is enthusiastically sponsoring many projects to increase the building fund. One project, that of dainty linen handkerchiefs with $\Pi B \Phi$ embroidered in one corner has created much interest, and promises to become a national one.

$\Pi \Phi$ is well represented in college affairs this year. Beatrice Burgan is president of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, vice president of Scarlet Quill, secretary of student council, and news editor of the Collegian. She was one of four co-eds selected as representative students on the Butler campus.

Jane Hadley and Gwendolyn Schort have been elected to Chimes, junior women's honorary society; Hope Willcutts has been pledged to Torch, an honorary organization for sophomore women. Margaret McLaughlin is a member of student council and Butler's debating team. Lois Sherrill is secretary and treasurer of the third year class at John Herron Art School; Maxine Rigsbee has been elected treasurer of Y.W.C.A. Luana Lee, Truth Wakeman, Dorothy Screes, and Gwendolyn Schort belong to Thespis, the dramatic club.

The scholarship committee, headed by Beatrice Burgan, senior, and made up of Gwendolyn Schort, junior, and Jean Yates, sophomore, is concentrating its efforts of higher scholastic rating. A system of tutoring has been devised for the benefit of the freshmen. As an incentive to better scholarship, the freshman ranking highest in grade points has her name engraved on the chapter scholarship cup while the senior with the best average during the college course receives a crested ring. Each year, the class with the lowest average gives a dinner for the chapter.

Panhellenic is sponsoring a "Greek" dinner whose purpose is to encourage friendliness among the different organizations, and to establish another tradition on the campus. All members are to be appropriately dressed in Greek robes for the occasion.

The chapter welcomes Jane Allison, a transfer from Florida B.

RUTH J. LANDERS

INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, September 10, 1930

INITIATED, April 6, 1930: Genevieve Ay-lard, '32, Cleveland; Martha Lee Gill, '33, West Lafayette; Katherine Krieg, '33, Indianapolis; Constance Roche, '33, Indianapolis; Mary Schaefer, '33, Petersburg; Margaret Smith, '33, West Lafayette; Mabel Welton, '32, Chicago; Bernita Williams, '31, Canton, Ill.; Erma Williams, '33, Canton, Ill.; and Reba Williams, '31, Canton, Ill.

On September 10, Indiana Δ pledged the following girls: Evelyn Becker, St. Louis; Mary Blind, West Lafayette; Beatrice Boring, Greenfield; Helen Burge, Indianapolis; Joyce Clark, New Rochelle, N.Y.; Mabelle Cutler, West Lafayette; Helen Ehrich, Indianapolis; Geraldine Gates, Oak Park, Ill.; Ruth Harrop, North Manchester; Louise Lennox, Indianapolis; Rhea Lewis, Indianapolis; Bernice Link, Valparaiso; Gladys Lloyd, Berwyn, Ill.; Harriet Lommel, West Lafayette; Margaret Ellen Nichols, Ft. Wayne; Margaret Simpkins, Boswell; Martha Scudder, Huntington; Hope Van Sciever, East Cleveland, Ohio; and Dorothea White, Indianapolis. At the first meal as $\Pi \Phi$ pledges, the chapter cut the large Arrow cake, a tradition in the chapter.

On the campus many improvements have been made. The pharmacy department moved to their new building, while the old one now houses the art department and nursery department. There is a complete modern drugstore in the new pharmacy building, where student prescriptions are filled. A handsome four-story structure has been erected for the chemistry classes. The old chemistry building has been remodeled for the department of education. There is also a new engineering building and testing laboratory, and new power houses.

The chapter is glad to have Mildred Tingle Beisel, an alumna of Indiana Δ as the new Delta province president, succeeding Miss Marshall.

During the summer the chapter house had the kitchen remodeled and enlarged, with an electric refrigerator installed. The living rooms were redecorated and several good-looking chairs, tables, and lamps were selected to replace others.

An addition to the boys' dormitory is being erected and plans have been made to complete a quadrangle of dormitories near the present one just south of the stadium. This year a girls' dormitory will be erected near the campus and all co-eds will be required to live there during their first year in the university.

With the first football game of this fall, social events of the year began again. The chapter had a tea dance after this game at the $\Pi \Phi$ house. The pledge dance was given on Halloween night with seasonal decorations and refreshments. The $\Pi \Phi$ annual Weenie Roast was held at the old rustic lodge along the banks of the Wabash late in September.

$\Phi \Sigma \kappa$ granted a chapter to Agathon Club, and two new local fraternities were formed this year.

Indiana Δ held its prominent place in campus activities this year. The chapter holds fourth place in women's fraternity scholarship. Emily Boyd and Bernita Williams are two of the six members of Mortar Board. There are four seniors in Gold Peppers, an honorary sponsoring co-ed athletics, which is renewing the tradition of senior women wearing corduroy skirts. Emily is president of Gold Peppers and also chairman of Mothers' Day committee and senior member of student council. Martha Robbins is on Little Theater board. Charline York and Rose Cassell are co-ed night editors of Exponent, the daily student publication. There are four members in Phila-lethean Literary Society and two in Eurodelphian National Literary Society. Margaret Mace is wardrobe mistress of Playshop and was initiated into $T \kappa A$, national debating honorary. Mary Schaefer was voted one of the six most beautiful co-eds whose pictures appear in the annual. Many of the girls show an active interest in athletics and W.A.A. and are building strong house teams in various sports.

ROSE CASSELL

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

GRADUATES: Christine Clark, 305 Birchwood; Mary Reuter Gates, B.A., 2114 Kenilworth Ct.; Nancy Mercke, B.S., Cherokee Rd. and Spring Dr.; Helen Nold, B.S., 2128 Maryland; Barbara Olive, B.A., 1607 Bonnycastle; Elizabeth Trawick, B.S., 1366 First St.; Josephine Warner, B.S., 1239 Everett; all of Louisville.

The rushing season started with a tea, and continued with a Dutch bridge and formal dinner at the Pendennis Club. The chapter pledged nine girls: Eleanor Carpenter, Juliette Chase, Elizabeth Frost, Marian Hershey, Lucy Warren Johnston, Lucy Milton, Amelia Minary, Martine Moredock, and Sarah Stites; all of Louisville.

The university is very glad to welcome the new dean of the college of liberal arts, Dean Oppenheimer. He is starting many interesting freshman courses, which are functioning well.

The house committee redecorated and refurnished the apartment at the beginning of September.

The chapter is planning to keep up its scholarship by using the scholarship cards, telling the marks, and hours studied on each subject. These cards are watched very closely by the scholarship alumnae chairman.

Christine Clark, a graduate of last June was married the last part of October.

The Panhellenic council planned a new interfraternity friendship plan. Once a month two girls of one fraternity have dinner at another fraternity house. Another plan is a freshman council where all the freshmen of all the women's fraternities meet and learn about Panhellenic. In doing this there will be created a better friendship among the freshmen as well as among the actives.

The $\Pi \Phi$ actives as well as the pledges are always well represented at all of the college functions. Sarah Stites, one of the pledges, had the lead in the first play of the University Players, which was a big success.

UTA COBB HUTCHESON

TENNESSEE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA

Pledge Day, October 11, 1930

INITIATED, September 18, 1930: Myldred Allen, '33, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Thelma Griffith, '33, Little Rock, Ark.; Leitner Johnson, '31, Jacksonville, Fla.; Rebecca Jones, '33, Hixson, Tenn.; and Regina Sundstrom, '33, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Tennessee A was very busy this summer redecorating the chapter house. It looks charming now with black furniture and bright upholstery.

Rushing started with great enthusiasm on the part of the girls. Juanita Walter was rush captain for this year. One of the parties, a "Racketeer" party, seemed to appeal to the rushees. The house was appropriately decorated as an underworld dive and the members dressed accordingly. Such games as "Forgery," "Black Hand," and "Counterfeiting" were played. The chapter had a lovely formal tea for the rushees and their mothers.

This year the same plan will be followed making the girls whose grades are D or below in any subject study a certain number of hours in the library every week. This plan seems to have worked very well last year, for Tennessee A won the scholarship cup both semesters.

More students are enrolled this year than ever before. The new president, Dr. Alec Guerry, has made many improvements in equipment during his first year, and he is planning many more. The college is drawing a large number of out-of-town students, and consequently Tennessee A is pledging more girls who do not live in Chattanooga. The chapter hopes that sometime in the future they can build a house for the girls to live in, instead of having just a meeting house.

GRACE BICKERS

ALABAMA ALPHA—BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Chartered, October 7, 1927

INITIATED, September 29, 1930: Margaret Jones, and Elizabeth Markham.

Alabama A had an interesting rush season this year. According to Panhellenic rules, the chapter was allowed to have one large party, which was a progressive dinner party. The five courses were served at the different homes of members of the chapter after the cocktail course at the lovely home of a patroness, Mrs. T. O. Melton. The other features of rushing consisted of informal teas, bridge games, and luncheons.

The initiation ceremony was held on September 29, and was followed by a banquet at the Thomas Jefferson Hotel. The new initiates were presented with corsages and Mary Johnson presided as toastmistress.

Alabama A is taking part in student activities. Florence Vance, a pledge, was nominated for freshman representative of Co-ed Council; she ran a close second, being defeated by a very few votes. Elizabeth Markham is an enthusiastic member of the classical club. Margaret Jones is contributing to the Gold and Black, the college weekly paper.

Also the chapter has entered in full spirit to aid the college with its only concert of the year. Each girl has pledged her support.

The monthly cooky-shine was held on October 16, at the Dolomite Community House Club. Miss Mary Weber, an alumna, obtained this privilege for the chapter. This was the first time we had invited guests at such an occasion. Many other social functions are being planned for the fraternity by the alumnae and the active chapter.

MARGARET SHANNON

EPSILON PROVINCE

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Chartered, 1890

Pledge Day, January 14, 1931

Minnesota A is taking part in the social and activity life of the campus. Eileen Thornton is a member of Mortar Board. The chapter includes the treasurer of the W.S.G.A., the treasurer of Pinafore, sophomore women's organization, and the president of Tam-O-Shanter, junior women's organization. Pi Phis also hold one Publicity and Freshman Education posts on the main campus, Y.W.C.A. cabinet, and the Personnel post on the agricultural campus Y.W.C.A., one seat on the all university council, and the vice presidency of Triad.

Following the local Panhellenic rule passed last year, there is to be no rushing until the second quarter of the college year which starts in January. Pre-rushing functions during the fall quarter include three teas given by each women's fraternity on the campus. The first, on October 16, was a general open house tea. During November and December invitation teas will be given two or three times a week with a group of four fraternities entertaining each afternoon. The rushees have the privilege of splitting their dates for these teas if they so desire. The dates for the $\Pi \Phi$ teas are November 12 and December 2. The open house tea on October 16 was a success.

Minnesota A announces the pledging of Doris Sweeney, St. Paul, during a very informal rushing season held in the fall for those who made their scholastic average the previous spring quarter. The chapter is glad to have Lois Cellars living at the house this year. Lois is a member of Manitoba A, and is doing graduate work at Minnesota in bio-chemistry.

One new women's fraternity house appeared on the campus this fall; that of $\Lambda \Theta \Pi$. $\Pi \Phi$ has invited them to dinner as soon as they are properly settled. Last spring the chapter was hostess to $\Lambda \times \Omega$ when they moved into a new house near by. In this manner the chapter follows out Panhellenic's policy of creating a more friendly attitude among the women's fraternities. In furtherance of this policy local Panhellenic has abolished all opportunity of competition among fraternities; such as fraternity selling teams which acquire subscriptions for campus publications.

Panhellenic also sponsors "exchange lunches"; girls from one house are entertained at another house and vice versa.

In its homecoming celebration the University of Minnesota is attempting something entirely new to this campus. Backed by the president's office, the University Singers are sponsoring a musical comedy entitled, "Keep 'Em Happy," entirely written and acted by students. Their aim is to give a superior performance. To that end an Eastern ballet master and a dramatic director from the Chicago Civic Opera have been engaged. It is hoped that the success of this first attempt will be so great that it will become an annual affair and entirely do away with button selling, etc., and in itself be sufficient to defray the expenses of the homecoming celebration. Four Pi Phis have been given places in the cast.

The cultural opportunity of the university has been greatly heightened by the affiliation of the renowned Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra with the University of Minnesota. A series of sixteen concerts is to be held in the beautiful new Cyrus Northrop Memorial Auditorium on the campus. A veritable galaxy of solo artists are to appear with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra during the season.

INA RAMSAY

WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Chartered, 1894

Pledge Day, September 28, 1930

Wisconsin A announces the pledging of Juliana Bardes, Milwaukee; Carolyn Bolles, Toledo, Ohio; Rosamund Buzzell, Summit, N.J.; Helen Brown, Webster Groves, Mo.; Charlotte Conway, Madison; Barbara Crittenden, Windsor, Ont.; Janet Dean, Madison; Mary Dougherty, Wauwatosa; Nancy Duggar, Madison; Dorothea Drier, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Betty Zane Grey, Altadena, Calif.; Barbara Sandehn, Rockford, Ill.; Frances Scott, Hinsdale, Ill.; Ruth Tucker, Houston, Tex.; Betty Wolfe, New Harmony, Ind.; and Barbara Williams, LaCrosse.

Important changes have been made this year in the scholarship requirements of the university. Higher requirements have been enforced as to the scholarship records of the incoming freshmen, and hereafter juniors who have not earned an honor point average of one and three-tenths per cent (1.3) will not be allowed to continue work for the bachelor of arts degree at the University of Wisconsin.

A new field house at Camp Randall is one of the outstanding additions to the campus this year. Another attractive new dormitory on Langdon Street, Ann Emery Hall, was opened this fall to one hundred sixty university women.

The W.S.G.A. is experimenting in a new form of leniency toward senior women by extending to them the privilege of an additional night of late permission during the week. A shining set of house-keys for the seniors is in the care of the housemother.

Wisconsin A has entered the one-act play contest sponsored by Wisconsin Players. The contest is to be held on November 20 and three furniture prizes are to be awarded to the winning organizations. The Players hope in this way to promote a keener interest in university dramatics among the men's and women's fraternities.

Study hall was resumed as usual after pledging under senior supervision. This year attendance is required of the pledges and those actives whose averages for the preceding semester are below the women's fraternity average of the campus.

As the result of recent elections and appointments, $\Pi \Phi$ is well represented in many campus activities. Anne Kendall was elected to Mortar Board. Jane Cannon is president of Senior Women, and president of Keystone Council. Jane has also been elected to the national student council of the Y.W.C.A. Other girls active in Y.W.C.A. work are: Charlotte Bissell, president of sophomore council, of which Dorothy Swendson is a member; Helen Brady, chairman of the membership committee; and Marjorie Platz, chairman of the transfers committee. Victoria Ellenberger is a member of the Badger staff and served on the homecoming committee.

Katharine Truesdall was recently honored with a Union Board appointment to the women's affairs committee.

Wisconsin A has been gaining a bit of representation in the faculty with the appointment of Anne Kendall to an instructorship in the applied arts department, and that of Mary Dean Parks, a graduate student, to an instructorship in the speech department.

A tea was given at the chapter house, October 29, in honor of Mrs. George Kemmerer, whom the chapter is happy to have this year as its new chaperon.

ISABEL M. WITT

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE

Chartered, 1919

Pledge Day, September 30, 1930

Ground was broken at commencement time for the new $100,000 Morse-Ingersoll recitation hall. It is to be of Georgian design to correspond to the new building plan used for all future buildings on the campus. The donor, Mr. Charles B. Morse, is an alumnus of Beloit College.

On recognition day, Ann Clementson was awarded the freshman women's declamatory prize. Winifred Erickson received the Foreign Fellowship and is now in France. The fellowship goes to a student who has completed two years of college work with distinction and who will agree to return to Beloit after the year in a foreign university to take senior work and a degree here. Winifred plans to study at the University of Poitiers at Tours and the University of Lille at Boulogne-sur-mer. During the winter she will also take work at the University of Dijon. On this fellowship exchange there is a girl here from Paris, France. The foreign students on the campus now number four. Three men from Russia, Norway, and Germany, and the student from France.

Wisconsin B leads the campus scholarship list for both men's and women's fraternities for the second semester of 1930. The chapter has the women's fraternity scholarship cup for another year.

Judith Bulla and Helen Boddy have been elected vice president of the sophomore and senior classes, respectively. Joan Streeter is secretary of the Associated Students. Peggy Hack is senior representative on the all-college social committee.

W.S.G.A. initiated the new policy this fall of having student hostesses. Representatives from each group on the campus lived in the freshman woman's halls during Freshman Days. They were to help the new students get settled and become acquainted with the college and campus. $\Pi \Phi$ was represented by Peggy Hack and Luella Burt and Joyce Wadmond who is also Big Sister chairman.

The leading feminine rôles of the Dads' day play, "Mr. Pim Passes By," by Milne, are taken by Ann Clementson and Virginia Schafer.

Wisconsin B is happy to welcome Helen Davis and Pearl Oberg from Illinois B.

GRETCHEN HOBBS

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, September 20, 1930

INITIATED, September 22, 1930: Helen Borden, '33, Williston, N.D.; Alice Ebert Chapman, '31, Lake Mills, Wis.; Margaret Patricia Ebert, '33, Minneapolis, Minn.; Kathryn Jones, '33, Scobey, Mont.; Marian Kinder, '33, Crookston, Minn.; Genevieve Quarne, '33, Zahl, N.D.; Dell Scott, '33, Grand Forks, N.D.; Dorothy Tompkins, '33, Fargo, N.D.; and Cora Wieseth, '33, Hillsboro, N.D.

After the initiation ceremony which was held at the chapter house, the new initiates were guests of the alumnae and active chapters at a banquet given in the new Flicker-tail dining room of the Dacotah Hotel. Bowls of Talisman roses, the gift of Jane Ann Carmen, Minnesota A, to the new initiates graced the center of the tables. After a program of toasts, the president of the active chapter, Inez Babcock, presented Kathryn Jones with the jeweled pin given by the active chapter to the new initiate with the highest scholastic record.

North Dakota A announces the pledging of Denise Burk, Grand Forks, N.D.; Pauline Burnam, Sentinel Butte, N.D.; Elaine Goertz, Larimore, N.D.; Lina Hutton, Lidgerwood, N.D.; Irene Miller, Crookston, Minn.; Ruth Millhouse, Alexander, N.D.; Willys Claire Monroe, Williston, N.D.; Lillian Mork, Jamestown, N.D.; Rhea Nelson, Grand Forks, N.D.; Florence Olsen, Devils Lake, N.D.; and Madonna Sullivan, East Grand Forks, Minn. Pledging services were held at the chapter house at seven o'clock after which the new pledges were initiated into their first cooky-shine. Dorothy Reichert was in charge of arrangements.

North Dakota A was most happy and also very fortunate to have Marian Wilder, '26, an alumna, present during rushing. Marian was the $\Pi \Phi$ Fellow in 1927 whence she studied art in Paris. The formal Lavender tea, given the last afternoon during rush week before silence was under her direction this year and much credit is due her for its success.

Isabel Clark, Doris Beck, Gwen Campbell, Thelma Wright, and Elaine Pagent, Manitoba A, motored from Winnipeg for rushing. Jane Ann Carmen, '33, Minnesota A who lives in Detroit Lakes, Minn., came for rush week.

Pat Ebert was appointed assistant sales manager of the 1932 Dacotah, the university yearbook. Genevieve Quarne is the accompanist for the Model High School glee club. Caroline West, Pat Ebert, Helen Borden, Irene Miller, Lillian Mork, and Alice Palmer successfully passed the tryout examination for the women's glee club. Alice Palmer was elected president of the group. Carol Miles Humpstone, an alumna, is director of this organization.

Florence Olsen, Caroline West, Genevieve Quarne, and Lillian Mork passed the preliminary tryouts for the Dacotah Playmakers and are now members of the reserve group. Alice Palmer is one of the candidates chosen by the general honors committee, for senior honors.

The traditional freshman tea given by the pledges in honor of all first-year girls in the university was held at the chapter house on September 28 with Carol West in charge.

North Dakota A celebrated her ninth birthday on October 6, with a cooky-shine. A large birthday cake with nine candles was the center of interest. Gifts for the house were given by the patronesses, alumnae, active, and pledge groups. Mary Sullivan of the alumnae chapter made arrangements.

Alice Palmer is student assistant in the psychology department this year. Inez Babcock was elected junior representative to the women's league. Of the four senior and one junior representatives chosen for student advisory council of the university, Alice Palmer was re-elected to serve for her second year.

ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE

Pledge Day, January 31, 1931

INITIATED, May 1, 1930: Evelyn Peters, '32, 337 S. Lake Ave., Pasadena, Calif.; Martha Madison, '32, 646 W. 58th St., Kansas City, Mo.; Alice McDougall, '33, 617 E. 17th St., Santa Ana, Calif.; Josephine Finfrock, '33, 343 Billings St., Elgin, Ill.; Caroline Wright, '33, 1901 E. 6th St., Duluth, Minn.; and Margaret Jean Loehr, '33, Monmouth, Ill.

To encourage more effort on the part of all members toward higher scholastic rating the scholarship committee has recommended a strict observance of all study regulations with penalties for those who fall below B and C averages.

A few changes were made in the local Panhellenic rules governing rushing this year. Each women's fraternity will be allowed two parties previous to pledging. The dates set for the Illinois A chapter parties are November 22 and January 27. Rushing is to close at 10:45 A.M. on January 30, with quiet period from that time until 9:00 A.M., Saturday, January 31. Pledging ceremonies will be at 5:00 P.M. on January 31.

The college has inaugurated a new plan to advance social unity in the student body by furnishing rooms for dancing and other recreations for one evening each week-end. So far the plan has been very successful and it is hoped that the students will continue to make use of the opportunity offered.

The chapter opened the social season with a tea given for the Campus Club and wives of faculty members. On October 18 Frances Rich from Iowa A and Marjorie McMichael of Florida Γ were entertained by the chapter at a bridge party given at the home of Marian Clark. A luncheon for the returning alumnae was served on homecoming, October 25.

Marjorie McMichael from Florida Γ is taking postgraduate work in music at the college conservatory.

Dorothy Laxon, Marian Clark, and Alice McDougall were granted memberships in the Crimson Masque. W.A.A. has elected Mary Wier for president and student council representative. Kathryn Salisbury, Evelyn Peters, Martha Bradford, and Mary Wier were chosen to serve on the Ravelings staff.

CAROL RAMER

ILLINOIS BETA DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE

Chartered, 1884

Pledge Day, September 16, 1930

The affiliation of Lombard and Knox Colleges has brought about the fusion of Illinois B and Illinois A chapters. Nine former Illinois B girls and eleven Illinois A girls comprise the present chapter.

Illinois B A has this year several presidencies on the campus. Marion Christy is president of Y.W.C.A.; Alice Stevens of the honorary dramatics fraternity, $\Theta A \Phi$; Charlotte Crawford of L.M.L., a literary society; Janet Smith of French Club; and Lorraine Jones of Whiting Hall, the women's dormitory. In addition, Irma Brodman was elected to Players Club, and the chapter is represented on the W.S.G.A. board, in the girls' glee club and college choir, and on several councils.

Alice Stevens and Betty Test participated in the Knox homecoming play, "Tommy," given on October 31.

When the new members of Mortar Board were announced Marion Christy, Charlotte Crawford, Lorraine Jones, and Janet Smith were of the number.

Under the open year system that Knox has recently adopted six girls were pledged at the beginning of the college year. They are: Irma Brodman, Peoria, Ill.; Mary De-Coster, Galesburg, Ill.; Kathryn Fleming, Chicago, Ill.; Mary Liken, Galesburg, Ill.; Louise Nauman, Peru, Ill.; and Dorothy Sperry, Bushnell, Ill.

The fall rushing period included a formal dinner which carried out the idea of a wedding. Six new upperclass girls were pledged on October 20: Ellen Alspaugh, Livingston, Mont.; Betty Dyson, Rushville, Ill.; Dorothy Pickens, Kansas City, Mo.; Mary Robson, Galesburg, Ill.; Helen Surey, Chicago, Ill.; and Mary Waterous, Henry, Ill.

The Y.W.C.A. sponsors a rather extensive Big and Little Sister movement. A breakfast was given for the big and little sisters on September 27, and on the previous Sunday the big sisters took their little sisters to church. The Y.W.C.A. gave a dinner for all college girls as a membership drive.

Illinois B A plans to attain good scholarship by requiring a certain number of study hours from each pledge.

GRADUATES: Virginia Casler, B.A., 2146 Vilas Pl., Chicago; Charlotte Cornell, B.A., 243 Hazel Ave., Glencoe, Ill.; Ethel Finn, B.A., 656 Buena Ave., Chicago; Doreen Granger, B.S., Oak Crest Apts., Evanston; Nathalie McChesney, B.A., 562 Park Blvd., Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Naomi McDowell, B.S., 709 Maclean Ave., Kennilworth, Ill.; and Lois Stewart, B.A., 1316 Maple Ave., Evanston.

With Alice James as rushing chairman, Illinois E, pledged the following girls: Marjorie Barclay, Evanston; Marjorie Brown, Evanston; Jane Coleman, Peoria, Ill.; Carol Duffield, Chicago; Katherine Foote, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Elizabeth Jean Fyfe, Valparaiso, Ind.; Suzanne Grant, Tallahassee, Fla.; Ethelbel Harlan, Wilmette, Ill.; Jean Hoch, Chicago; Jane Jesse, Chicago; Ruth Jones, Evanston; Rosemary Roth, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Paula Margaret Schumacher, Chicago; Lowrie Jane Smart, Wichita, Kan.; Dorothy Snyder, Evanston; Elaine Walker, Evanston; and Francis Hale Weir, Charleston, Ill.

Illinois E is very proud that two of its members, Marion Fry and Dorothy Verges, were elected to Mortar Board, honorary women's fraternity, last spring. The same two girls were elected campus beauty queens last year.

On the week-end of October 11 a Y.W.C.A.-Y.M.C.A. joint cabinet retreat was held at Camp Hastings, Waukegan, Ill. Dorothy Verges and Betty Brown attended; Dorothy as head of the N.U. Circus, and Betty Brown as head of finance. Eleanor Jones is on the membership council of the Y.W.C.A.

Early last spring the chapter held a rummage sale from which was made $180, thirty dollars of which was sent to the Northwestern Settlement, and $175 to the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

At the annual N.U. Circus in May, Illinois E won the first cup for the side-ring circus stunt; the chapter also won first cup for the Shi-Ai baseball tournament.

This year the chapter won the cup for second place in the Syllabus drive.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Mary Conover, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Dorothy Dyall, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Marie Hasenclever, New London, Iowa; Virginia Kimm, New London, Iowa; Caroline Knapp, Burlington, Iowa; Miriam Mooney, Berwyn, Ill.; Alice Needham, Eldora, Iowa; Doris Ogburn, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Rebecca Rich, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Elinor Thompson, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; and Edith Wheaton, Agency, Iowa.

Those who were on the honor roll are Margaret Coddington, Guinevere Wagner, Lois Lockhart, Frances Rich, Barbara White, Marianna Carpenter, Lydia Dyall, Helen Gray, and Josephine Rogers. $\Pi \Phi$ had more representatives on the honor roll than any other women's fraternity.

The first spread was held in the chapter rooms. After the dinner the chapter took the rushees to the college pep meeting. The next spread was an Egg Scramble held at Oakland State Park. Then came the formal party which was held at the home of a patroness. Everything was in southern style with many dolls for favors, cotton bales with the menu printed on them, and nut cups made to represent a slice of watermelon.

The P.E.O. Library put in new stacks for books copied after those in the Vatican.

A new professor of French, Dr. Danforth, has visited the Settlement School many times and has purchased some articles there. There are several new professors this year: Dr. Harrell, professor of English; Dr. Thomas, professor of sociology; Professor Crilley, professor of mathematics and leader of the band; and Miss Currie, instructor of violin.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE

Chartered, 1874

Pledge Day, September 21, 1930

INITIATED, October 3, 1930: Katherine Hill, '32, Hamburg, Iowa; Esther Pollock, '32, Indianola, Iowa; and Lorraine Wells, '33, Tabor, Iowa.

Iowa B announces the pledging of the following thirteen girls: Mildred Baker and Harriet Newsome, Indianola, Iowa; Marjorie Coy, Farragut, Iowa; Mary Gait Hamilton, Guthrie Center, Iowa; Dorothy Heaton, Creston, Iowa; Elizabeth Hulley, Griswold, Iowa; Hazel Larson, Lila Larson, and Ann Story, Des Moines, Iowa; Ethelyn Ray, Avon, Ill.; Darlene Sarchett, Redfield, Iowa; Dorothy Shenton, Clarinda, Iowa; and Marjorie Wilkinson, Mt. Ayr, Iowa. On pledge night the alumnae club gave a cooky-shine after which open house was held for the men. Each fraternity introduced their new pledges.

The chapter had a prominent part in the commencement day exercises last June. Jane Brooks was crowned May queen; Bertha Lewellan, Mary Elizabeth Sayre, and Alice Henderson were her attendants from the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes respectively.

In activities on the campus, the chapter is well represented. As a result of the class election Harriet Newsome, Lola Frances Hubbard, and Frances Emmons were elected vice presidents of the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, respectively. Inez Hamilton is vice president and Frances Emmons is treasurer of W.A.A. Olive Wright, Villa Van Gilder, Mary Elizabeth Sayre, Alice Henderson, and Bernadine Downie are members of the board. Mayme Lyons is music editor and Mary Elizabeth Sayre is women's athletic editor on the 1932 Zenith staff. Alice Scroggs is president of $M \Phi E$. Geraldine Roberts is treasurer of $\Pi K \Delta$.

The first week of college was the traditional Y.W.C.A. week at Millikin. Each new girl had a big sister who helped her register, and who took her to the gypsy pow-wow, banquet, and reception. The purpose of this week is to help freshmen and upperclassmen to become better acquainted and to make the new girls thoroughly at home. During this week fraternity women do not wear their badges.

Rushing was carried on the second week of college. Silence, except at parties, lasted from Tuesday night until Saturday afternoon after the bids were delivered. The parties consisted of Panhellenic tea on Monday; open house teas at all houses Tuesday; Wednesday and Thursday, preferential teas; Friday, formal dinners; and Saturday, bidding and pledging.

Illinois H announces the following list of pledges: Mary Martha Abrams, Decatur; Mildred Campbell, Decatur; Charlotte Conklin, Decatur; Catherine Doane, Decatur; Carolyn Gilman, Decatur; Sally Nicholson, Decatur; Helen Powers, Decatur; and Mary Pauline Waggoner, Decatur.

Special stress is being placed on scholarship this year. The pledges study in the library the same number of hours as they are receiving credit for in the university. Both pledges and actives study at night from seven-thirty to ten-thirty. The grades of both pledges and actives are read after each six weeks' period at a pot-luck given in the chapter house. Before the final semester grades are received, each pledge is given a scholarship card on which she is to write the grade she believes she will receive in each subject. When final grades are placed on the card, comparison is made of the two grades and the pledge is able to know clearly what is expected of her.

The chapter entertained the fraternity men of the campus at a supper dance on October 10. The hours were from five to eight and two fraternities were invited for each hour. The purpose was to give the pledges a chance to meet the men of the university.

Miss Jessie Lockett, house chaperon, spent the summer in Paris. Illinois H was very glad to welcome her back again this fall and is proud to think that she has been with the chapter for sixteen years.

INITIATED, August 27, 1930: Rhoda Brown, '30, 754 Jessie Ave., Winnipeg; Doris Beck, '26, 210 Ethelbert St., Winnipeg; Betty Birch, '28, Sterling, Ont.; Marguerite LePage, '28, 475 Raglan Rd., Winnipeg; and Marjorie Young, '26, 215 Popular Crescent, Saskatoon, Sask.

INITIATED, September 4, 1930: Miriam Cherry, '29, Keewatin, Ont.

Manitoba A pledged the following girls: Eleanor French, Evelyn Hay, Isabel Hitchings, Neddie Johnston, Yvonne Keeler, Evelyn LePage, Lorna Millman, Mary Millman, Mary Rogers, and Marion Slagsvol, all of Winnipeg.

Fall rushing consisted of two weeks informal rushing and eleven days formal rushing. During the first two weeks each women's fraternity gave four teas. In each $\Pi \Phi$ tea a different idea was carried out. They were a Domino tea, a Ship tea, a Garden Party tea, and a Slumber Time tea. During formal rushing each fraternity had one party. Manitoba A successfully carried out its Arrow Supper dance. The last night of formal rushing, October 17, each fraternity held an informal reception as a final function.

This year the $\Pi \Phi$ home is a very nice three-room suite. The decorating of the larger room is carried out in wine and gold tones. The fireplace is in one corner of the room and a large gold arrow with alternating wine and blue lights is hung above it. The smaller room is done in orange and green. This is the more informal room where the girls have their pictures and pennants, etc. Although there is no one living in the suite it is used for teas and personal dates as well as the weekly meeting.

Manitoba A rules that every $\Pi \Phi$ must do fifteen hours studying a week and some of its members are obliged to do more, depending on their scholastic standing. The chapter has made a new rule that every girl must report to a senior member about her spare hours which she should spend in the study room. To encourage studies the chapter gives at the end of each year, two recognition pins; one to the girl who makes the highest average and one to the girl who improves her average the greatest number of points. Last year these pins were won by Muriel Beck, for the highest average, and Florence Loucks, for the greatest improvement.

The chapter started the year with a charity dance. The decorations were very effective, being pennants of wine and blue. The girls made these pennants with the name in black letters, of every college or university where there is a $\Pi \Phi$ chapter. A pennant was also made for each women's fraternity on the campus in its own colors. The orchestra played as encores the favorite song of each women's fraternity. The dance was a great success.

A chapter of $\Lambda \Delta \Pi$ was installed at the University of Manitoba in September. $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ also pledged, conditionally, a group here which will probably be initiated in January, 1931.

Pledge Day, October 15, 1930

INITIATED, October 7, 1930: Josephine Rogers, '33, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Kathryn Eyer, '33, Hillsboro, Iowa; and Neva Stacy, '33, Brighton, Iowa.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Mary Conover, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Dorothy Dyall, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Marie Hasenclever, New London, Iowa; Virginia Kimm, New London, Iowa; Caroline Knapp, Burlington, Iowa; Miriam Mooney, Berwyn, Ill.; Alice Needham, Eldora, Iowa; Doris Ogburn, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Rebecca Rich, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Elinor Thompson, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; and Edith Wheaton, Agency, Iowa.

Those who were on the honor roll are Margaret Coddington, Guinevere Wagner, Lois Lockhart, Frances Rich, Barbara White, Marianna Carpenter, Lydia Dyall, Helen Gray, and Josephine Rogers. $\Pi \Phi$ had more representatives on the honor roll than any other women's fraternity.

The first spread was held in the chapter rooms. After the dinner the chapter took the rushes to the college pep meeting. The next spread was an Egg Scramble held at Oakland State Park. Then came the formal party which was held at the home of a patroness. Everything was in southern style with many dolls for favors, cotton bales with the menu printed on them, and nut cups made to represent a slice of watermelon.

The P.E.O. Library put in new stacks for books copied after those in the Vatican.

A new professor of French, Dr. Danforth, has visited the Settlement School many times and has purchased some articles there. There are several new professors this year: Dr. Harrell, professor of English; Dr. Thomas, professor of sociology; Professor Crilley, professor of mathematics and leader of the band; and Miss Currie, instructor of violin.

Margaret Coddington, a senior of last year, was elected May queen by her class.

INITIATED, October 3, 1930: Katherine Hill, '32, Hamburg, Iowa; Esther Pollock, '32, Indianola, Iowa; and Lorraine Wells, '33, Tabor, Iowa.

Iowa B announces the pledging of the following thirteen girls: Mildred Baker and Harriet Newsome, Indianola, Iowa; Marjorie Coy, Farragut, Iowa; Mary Gait Hamilton, Guthrie Center, Iowa; Dorothy Heaton, Creston, Iowa; Elizabeth Hully, Griswold, Iowa; Hazel Larson, Lila Larson, and Ann Story, Des Moines, Iowa; Ethelyn Ray, Avon, Ill.; Darlene Sarchett, Redfield, Iowa; Dorothy Shenton, Clarinda, Iowa; and Marjorie Wilkinson, Mt. Ayr, Iowa. On pledge night the alumnae club gave a cooky-shine after which open house was held for the men. Each fraternity introduced their new pledges.

The chapter had a prominent part in the commencement day exercises last June. Jane Brooks was crowned May queen; Bertha Lewellan, Mary Elizabeth Sayre, and Alice Henderson were her attendants from the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes respectively.

In activities on the campus, the chapter is well represented. As a result of the class election Harriet Newsome, Lola Frances Hubbard, and Frances Emmons were elected vice presidents of the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, respectively. Inez Hamilton is vice president and Frances Emmons is treasurer of W.A.A. Olive Wright, Villa Van Gilder, Mary Elizabeth Sayre, Alice Henderson, and Bernadine Downie are members of the board. Mayme Lyons is music editor and Mary Elizabeth Sayre is women's athletic editor on the 1932 Zenith staff. Alice Scroggs is president of $M \Phi E$. Geraldine Roberts is treasurer of $\Pi K \Delta$.

On Sunday, September 28, the active chapter entertained the housemothers and two representatives of each of the women's fraternities on the campus in honor of Mrs. Fry, who is filling Mrs. Wright's position as housemother for this year.

Pledge Day, Indefinite

As the result of a successful rushing season Iowa Γ pledged the following fifteen girls: Mary Jane Barnes, 343 51st St., Des Moines, Iowa; Virginia Rowe, 541 35th St., Des Moines, Iowa; Margaret Clapp, Harlan, Iowa; Helen Irwin, Brighton, Iowa; Mary E. Proctor, Ames, Iowa; Martha Giles, 1061 37th St., Des Moines, Iowa; Dorothy Wenzel, 222 Benton St., Boone, Iowa; Wilma Boag, General Delivery, Des Moines, Iowa; Ruth Tatroe, 214 5th Ave., Council Bluffs, Iowa; Marjorie Brisbane, 222 6th St. N.W., Mason City, Iowa; Becky Partridge, 1160 10th St., Marion, Iowa; Margaret Stover, 1252 42nd St., Des Moines, Iowa; Marjorie Drake, 4812 Algonquian Rd., Des Moines, Iowa; Jane Hynan, Adel, Iowa; and Florence Woods, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

The social season began on October 18, with an open house after the Iowa State-Nebraska game. This is the first time the chapter has had a party of this kind for three years. The next social event will be a Christmas Bar dance on December 13.

The faculty of Iowa State College are introducing something new along the social line this year. They have obtained a prominent dancing teacher, Miss Elizabeth Werblowsky, Des Moines, to teach ballroom dancing, at a very moderate price. This may be substituted for physical education credit. The faculty feels that this plan will tend to lead toward a higher cultural training for the students.

A good many new houses are being built and some of them are completed. Among these are the $\Delta T, \Sigma \Phi E, \Theta E$, the $A \Delta \Pi$, and the new $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ house, which is only a block from the $\Pi \Phi$ house. The chapter has started raising money in every way possible for a new house. The latest plan is a Christmas bazaar to be held on December 6. Each girl is to make a ten-dollar donation.

$\Pi B \Phi$ ranked first in scholarship among women's fraternities on the campus. The chapter has a new idea to raise the average for this year. A girl must have an eighty-five average before she can leave the house, other than go to the library, on week nights.

INITIATED, October 16, 1930: Mary Jane Cummins, '33, Davenport, Iowa; Mabel Stromsten, '33, Iowa City, Iowa; and Eloise Walker, '32, Iowa City, Iowa.

The University of Iowa has made no definite changes on the campus except to add a fine arts department which includes the romance languages, music, art, and drama fields. Dr. Foster, an internationally known professor of literature is acting as dean of Iowa's fine arts college.

There were no house improvements made during the summer. However, during Christmas vacation Iowa Z plans to build in a waste-paper shoot, going from third floor to the basement which should considerably lessen the confusion caused by pledges carrying waste-paper baskets.

Iowa Z is very proud to have placed in the upper third in scholarship for the year 1929-30. Twelve girls in the chapter had an average of over three points which is equivalent to a B average. This year the alumnae council is offering the following scholarship prizes: $25 to the girl making the most gain over her last year average, $15 to the girl with the second highest improvement, and a $10 prize to the girl with third highest improvement. A scholarship ring goes to the active making the highest grades in the chapter. To the pledge who makes the highest average in grades will be given the traditional recognition arrow.

Through careful guarding of the delinquent list, and with these prizes as inspirations, Iowa Z hopes to rank first on the campus in scholarship this year.

The chapter had Dr. and Mrs. Foster of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, as dinner guests on October 12. Mrs. Foster is the new Zeta province president and was formerly Edna Westphal of this chapter.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Ruth Barclay, Mason City; Mary Blanchard, Davenport; Elizabeth Boyle, Mason City; Lorraine Buckman, Charles City; Grace Cornog, Iowa City; Virginia Kaye, Mason City; Mildred Mott, Iowa City; Gretchen Pulley, Maquoketa; Gabriella Royal, West Liberty; Catherine Redmond, Monticello; Mary Cecilia Remley, Anamosa; Martha Rich, Keokuk; Virginia Shadle, Estherville; and Elaine Smith, Mansfield, La.

Having a higher average in scholarship than the other women's fraternities, $\Pi B \Phi$ was presented the scholarship cup.

M Φ E. Isabel Hegness was elected to Θ Α Φ. She is president of T K A and the South Dakota Play Crafters, and she is treasurer of women's Panhellenic.

Alice Anderson is president of the Althenai literary society. More honors came to South Dakota A when Imogene Bakers scored the highest number of individual points during the class swimming meet last spring. Elizabeth Carey and Janet Johnson are members of the Volante staff.

MISSOURI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

Chartered, 1899

Pledge Day, September 6, 1930

Interest in rushing this year for Missouri A was greatly increased by the lovely new chapter house which was just completed this summer. The first rush week in the new house was most successful and culminated in pledging the following twenty-one girls: Katherine Bowman, Kansas City, Mo.; Rosalie Cousins, Kansas City, Mo.; Jean Crome, Clinton, Mo.; Mary Elizabeth Cunningham, San Angelo, Tex.; Virginia Dick, Brookfield, Mo.; Ethel Barton Estes, Columbia, Mo.; Virginia Fairleigh, St. Joseph, Mo.; Virginia Frances, Tulsa, Okla.; Virginia Hammond, St. Louis, Mo.; Ellyn Hildebrand, Kansas City, Mo.; Lillian Hobson, Shreveport, La.; Marian Hovey, Kansas City, Mo.; Ruth Karch, St. Louis, Mo.; Imogene Lane, Brownwood, Tex.; Frances Louise Matthews, Joplin, Mo.; Ellyn Hildebrand, Kansas City, Mo.; Mary Louise Schultie, Oregon, Mo.; Susan Sigler, Kansas City, Mo.; Betty Stump, Chicago, Ill.; Jane Taylor, Kansas City, Mo.; and Edwina Wilser, Kansas City, Mo. A cooky-shine was given for the pledges immediately after pledging.

The pledges were introduced to college society at a tea given at the chapter house on Sunday, September 14. Formal pledging was held on September 25.

Missouri A feels very fortunate this year in having such a beautiful new chapter house. The house was started last March and completed in July. Thirty-nine girls live in it. The house was opened formally on October 17. The chapter felt very fortunate in having Miss Onken with them for the house-warming.

Margaret Lacy, affiliated from Missouri Γ, acted as assistant director for the Work Shop production of "Saturday's Children." Mary Lane Williams was elected secretary of the sophomore class. Mary Lane has had charge of freshman commission this year, a commission designed to help the freshman women become acquainted with the university and its varied activities. She is also president of Cwens. Virginia Estes is freshman adviser and on a committee that makes preparation for homecoming. Virginia is also a member of Z Σ.

Missouri University is fortunate in having Mr. Walter Williams for president this year. Mr. Williams has been most instrumental in bringing the journalism department to a ranking of first place among colleges of its kind in this country.

Missouri B had a very successful rush season this fall, which ended with the pledging of the following girls: Bonney Black, St. Louis, Mo.; Sally Crosby, Kirkwood, Mo.; Isabell Fry, St. Louis, Mo.; Mary Miller, Webster Groves, Mo.; Emily Pasmore, St. Louis, Mo.; Kathrine Reed, St. Louis, Mo.; Edna Jean Russell, St. Louis, Mo.; Martha Jane Taylor, St. Louis, Mo.; Lucille Waite, St. Louis, Mo.; Elinore Walker, St. Louis, Mo.; Betty Weinert, St. Louis, Mo. The chapter introduced its pledges at a dance given on October 25.

Before college opened a freshman day was held at which the presidents of all organizations addressed the new students and welcomed them into activities. Dean Williamson, dean of women, presided over the series of teas for the new students. In these teas she is assisted by Mortar Board, freshman commission, and Ternion. Missouri B has one member on Mortar Board: Delphine Meyer. Mary McNatt and S-Marie Vaughn are on freshman commission. Marietta McIntyre is business manager of Ternion.

Thrysus, a dramatic society, plans to give a series of one-act plays throughout the year. Mary McNatt has the leading rôle in one of these plays. Marietta McIntyre and Edna Jean Russell have parts in another of these one acts.

This year a junior Panhellenic has been organized on the campus. Each fraternity is represented by two pledges. This junior Panhellenic has stimulated a greater interest in Panhellenic.

The night football games which were inaugurated last year have proved to be of great interest and have drawn large crowds to the games.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

Chartered, January 9, 1914

Pledge Day, October 2, 1930

With the return of open rushing at Drury, the past summer and fall have been especially busy seasons for Missouri Γ . Novel parties, teas, and dances were given for the rushees during vacation and the first few weeks of college. The preferential biddings system was used again this year in Drury.

Missouri Γ announces the following pledges: Betty Anderson, Mary Lucy Arnold, Mary Virginia Billings, Catherine Cowell, Winifred Dark, Laura Marie Dishman, Dorothy Douthat, Martha Gifford, Martha Lea Hayes, Helen Hubbell, Marion Johnson, Margaret Lincoln, Eleanor Martin, Mary McDaniel, Eula Mae Sence, Virginia Turner, and Jane Ullmann of Springfield, Mo.; Louise Arcularius, Joplin, Mo.; Myrtice Davis, Thayer, Mo.; Helen Moorman, Morrisville, Mo.; and Katherine Jones, Los Angeles, Calif. Gisela Atkinson is pledge supervisor.

Careful scholarship supervision of the pledges is proving effective. Actives interested in various subjects are offering personal assistance, grades are obtained at regular intervals and conferences with the professors are held.

A very clever bowery party was given this fall for the actives by the pledges. The new sponsor pledge ceremony, held October 20 was followed by a cooky-shine given by the pledge group.

The girls' glee club has been selected. Besides the reader and accompanist, five Pi Phi members. Two members have received bids to $\Sigma \tau \Delta$, national honorary English fraternity. Gisela Atkinson and Virginia Hogg are student assistants in athletics. Betty Love was appointed art editor of the Sou'wester. Four Mirror staff members are Pi Phi. Virginia Jones was in charge of the parade staged before the homecoming football game, October 19.

Barbara Horton, '30, Missouri Γ , is teaching in the Settlement School this year. She is very fascinated with the work.

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered, 1895

Pledge Day, September 20, 1930

This year Nebraska finds that on the whole women's fraternity pledging has decreased, while men's fraternity pledging has increased. After a most successful rush season, Nebraska B announces the pledging of the following girls: Dorothy Ashmun, Atchison, Kan.; Betty Jane Blanke, Atchison, Kan.; Ann Bunting, Lincoln, Neb.; Genevieve Boyd, Omaha, Neb.; Marjorie Beauchesne, Omaha, Neb.; Mary Heine, Fremont, Neb.; Bernice Loutzenheiser, Gothenburg, Neb.; Marguerite Lynn, Lincoln, Neb.; June Maust, Falls City, Neb.; Isabel Menagh, Omaha, Neb.; Priscilla Monnich, Fremont, Neb.; Maxine Musser, Rushville, Neb.; Iona Peterson, West Point, Neb.; and Helen Wear, Omaha, Neb. The Lincoln alumnae were a great aid to the chapter during summer rushing; Mrs. Charles Stuart giving a rush party at her home on June 7, and Mrs. Fred Caldwell entertaining at her home on September 11, the day before closed rushing started, for actives and rushees.

Pi Phi are already active on the campus this fall. Sally Pickard is president of Mortar Board and of Tassels, girls' pep organization. Helen McAnulty is a member of Mortar Board and is president of Y.W.C.A., Dorothy Weaver is vice president of W.A.A., Alice Reader is a member of $\Phi \chi \Theta$, and Jane Schajble is vice president of the dramatic club.

Actives plan to help the new pledges get acquainted by frequent fireside parties, the first of which was held on September 26, at midnight. Hour dances for different fraternities are also being planned for each Saturday night.

On November 1, after the Nebraska-Pittsburgh game, Nebraska B entertained at a buffet supper for members of various fraternities.

$\Delta \Sigma \Lambda$ and $\Phi \chi \Theta$ are now occupying their new homes which were erected during the summer.

Pledge Day, September 15, 1930

INITIATED, September 27, 1930: Natalie Coultas, '32, Hillcrest Homes, Wichita; Barbara Mize, '32, 1103 S. 4th St., Atchison; Louise Schmidt, '33, 3013 Parkwood Blvd., Kansas City, Mo.; Mary Margaret Starr, '33, 1825 N. Main, Hutchinson; Virginia Thayer, '33, 922 Kansas Ave., Atchison; and Nancy Jane Winchester, '34, 129 W. 10th St., Hutchinson.

Kansas A announces the pledging of the following girls: Betty Nuzman, Ottawa; Virginia Sprague, Emporia; Elizabeth Ranney, Arkansas City, Ark.; Esther Conger, Kansas City; Harriet Graybill, Newton; Frances Coon, Tulsa, Okla.; Betty Blue, Tulsa, Okla.; Nancy Faxon, Kansas City, Mo.; Jane Reigart, Baxter Springs, Mo.; Aileen Wilson, El Dorado; Veneta Slepake, Garfield; Margaret Jackson, Newton; Betty Hecox, Los Angeles, Calif.; Marian Porter, Wichita; Rae Stoland, Lawrence; and Jean Jackman, Lawrence.

The chapter has been well represented in activities this fall. Mary Margaret Starr and Veneta Slepake are new members of the glee club. Lela Hackney is business manager and has charge of the trips taken by that organization. Margaret Ruth Johnson was pledged to $\Gamma \Sigma$, while Margaret Mize, Virginia Derby, and Virginia Thayer are instructors for the W.A.A. dancing classes sponsored by $\Gamma \Sigma$. Margaret Mize is also president of $\Pi \Sigma \Phi$, honorary Latin fraternity. Helen Hungerford was elected a member of Mortar Board and is president of Le Cercle Française for this year. Myra Little has been pledged to $\Phi \chi \theta$, commercial fraternity. She has also been chosen finance chairman of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet, a member of the Jayhawker staff, and is on the executive committee of the Hill Community Chest. Lela Hackney is the Sour Owl exchange editor, telegraph editor of the Kansan, and on the Jayhawker staff. Helen Reigart is also on the Jayhawker staff, and is a member of the Sour Owl board.

Open house was held on October 4, for the freshmen. The Christmas party, which is given annually by the pledges will be held early in December. At tea for the faculty members was given on Sunday afternoon, October 26.

Kansas A has put into effect a new scholarship ruling. At the end of each semester there will be a fine of five dollars for every hour of flunk, and a fine of three dollars for every hour of D. Last year there were seven Pi Phi on the dean's honor roll. They are Alice Fontron, Lela Hackney, Helen Hungerford, Mary Kreamer, Jane Prive, Nancy Wilcox, and Catherine Catlin.

The university is to have a new Student Hospital, a gift of Mrs. J. B. Watkins of Lawrence.

New furniture on the third floor of the chapter house was a pleasant surprise at the opening of the semester.

KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Chartered, 1915

Pledge Day, September 13, 1930

Kansas B announces the pledging of the following girls: Mildred Beard, McPherson; Samme Coles, Galena; Kathryn Cotton, Topeka; Maurine Crockett, Kansas City, Kan.; Eugenia Ebling, Lindsborg; Maxine Fleming, Iola; Marybelle Henning, Salina; Margaret Hughes, Manhattan; Ernestine Merritt, Haven; Bernice Mosser, Larned; Elizabeth Mountain, Hutchinson; Ruth Obenland, Manhattan; Jean Pickard, Kansas City, Mo.; and Helen Row, Larned.

After pledging the alumnae club gave a delightful cooky-shine in honor of the new pledges. Also in honor of the new pledges and to start them on their social career the actives held open house on Friday evening, September 12, from eight until ten o'clock before the Varsity.

Elizabeth Mountain has already received recognition in the dramatic department and is to have a part in "The Ivory Door," the first play to be presented in the Manhattan Little Theater. Marjorie Stevenson will also take a part.

Helen Row has been selected as a member of the women's glee club. Marguerite Chaffin will be back in the glee club for her fourth year. As well as being chapter president and carrying various other activities, Marguerite has a position on the editorial staff of the Royal Purple. Eugenia Ebling and Ruth Obenland have been chosen to represent the pledges in the Panhellenic organization.

The freshmen of last year who proved themselves outstanding in a scholastic way by the entire class being initiated, made another record when six of them were listed on the dean's honor roll.

Last spring the chapter won the Interfraternity Sing cup. This contest which was the first of its kind to be held in this college, has been established as an annual event.

Faye Harris and Marguerite Chaffin are members of the O N, honorary home economics fraternity. Marjorie Bradley and Marcia Jane White were recently initiated into Orchesis, honorary dancing sorority.

$\Lambda \Sigma \Psi$, a local fraternity, has received the charter of $\Gamma \chi \theta$. The Kappa Kappa Gammas are living in a lovely new colonial house. The Betas are anxiously waiting to move into their new home planned from English architecture of the Elizabethan age. These houses are located in the new fraternity district which was started with the construction of the $\Pi \Phi$ house.

Helen Mangelsdorf, who is on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet, and several of the girls have taken an active interest in Y.W.C.A. and have assisted in the orientation of the freshmen in college. Gertrude Cowdery, Mary Holton, Helen Mangelsdorf, and Dorothy Maltby helped make the Big Sister program a success.

Kansas B is proud to have Helen Mangelsdorf, who was already a member of $\Pi \chi \theta$, win the scholarship offered for the best woman debater. Gertrude Cowdery has been elected to Dynamis, an organization formed last year for the promotion of better scholarship in physics.

A tea was held October 5 at the chapter house for the faculty.

JOAN LYTLE

WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

Chartered, 1930

Pledge Day, September 25, 1930

INITIATED, September 16, 1930: Glyda Mae Burbank, '33, Laramie, Wyo.; Marion Isberg, '33, Laramie, Wyo.; Beth Jones, '33, Thermopolis, Wyo.; Lomila McCleneghan, '33, Sidney, Neb.; Evelyn Nimmo, '33, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Lucille Schopf, '33, Casper, Wyo.; and Margaret Thomas, '33, Laramie, Wyo.

After a five-day rushing season, the chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Catharine Abbey, Grover, Colo.; Dorothy Dearmin, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Margaret Downey, 2131 Vee St., Sacramento, Calif.; Gretchen Gaeth, Loveland, Colo.; Helen Hasbrouck, Sheridan, Wyo.; Eleanor Millett, Baird, Neb.; Dorothy Porter, Torrington, Wyo.; Wannabelle Smith, Laramie, Wyo.; Florence Ward, Cody, Wyo.; and Eileen Whelan, Rock Springs, Wyo.

Wyoming A has many reasons for expecting an unusually successful year. Last spring, at the Honor assembly, the fraternity received many honors. Two of the Honor books presented by the president were won by Pi Phi, Nancy Burrage, for exceptional work in the department of political economy, and Mary Kline, for outstanding work in the department of modern languages. Four Pi Phi were elected to membership in Iron Skull, sophomore honorary society: Lillian Carlson, Margaret Thomas, Helen Corbin, and Lomila McCleneghan. Jean Nimmo, Lillian Carlson, and Margaret Thomas were chosen for Big Sisters, and three Pi Phi were elected to Spurs, national pep organization. Helen Corbett was one of the six girls to be presented with a "W" sweater for outstanding athletic activities. Elizabeth Spalding and Alice Ellen Ford were elected to Cap and Gown, honorary senior women's society. Jean Warner again had her name engraved upon the dramatic cup as the best actress on the campus. Jean is the first person to have her name appear upon the cup four consecutive years.

Two seniors, Jean Binnie Warner and Sue Horton, were graduated with honors from the college of Liberal Arts. Jean Warner was initiated into Phi Kappa last spring.

Pi Phi is well represented in activities this fall. Five pledges, Gretchen Gaeth, Florence Ward, Dorothy Dearmin, Eileen Whelan, and Margaret Downey were elected to membership in Mask and Sandal, dramatic society. Hermione Bradstreet is vice president of Theta Alpha Phi. Eleanor Atwell was elected to Alpha Zeta II, honorary language society, of which Elizabeth Spalding and Margaret Goodrich are president and vice president, respectively. Glyda Mae Burbank is president of Mask and Sandal, and Marion Isberg is treasurer. Nancy Burrage is secretary of the senior class. Alice Ellen Ford is president of the psychology club. Elizabeth Spalding is secretary of A.S.U.W., one of the two offices held by women on that board. Margaret Grisinger is manager of varsity hockey this fall.

Wyoming A received one of the highest social honors on the campus last spring when Lillian England reigned as queen of the junior prom.

The fraternity is very proud of two of its freshmen. Margaret Thomas was elected to membership in Quill. This is a very distinctive honor, for Margaret is the first freshman to be bid by that society in four years. Helen Corbin was the only freshman last year eligible to membership in Theta Alpha Phi.

The first of the year will find Wyoming A "at home" in their new house, the first building to be built in the new fraternity park.

Homecoming this year was carried out with a "Pioneer" theme. In the parade the floats featured early scenes in Wyoming history. The Pi Phi float represented the first two white women in Wyoming. The entire parade was very picturesque and successful. The front yard of the Pi Phi house was the setting for an Indian village. With tepees, camp fires, sagebrush, and skins drying on poles, the Indian camp lacked only the odor of venison or buffalo to complete the picture.

Two national fraternities were installed upon the campus this fall. The formal installation of Independent Club as Gamma chapter of Sigma Xi took place on October 24, and a convention of the fraternity was opened here October 25. The ceremonies and convales were attended by members of the grand council, grand trustees, and practors, and about one hundred members of the fraternity in the Rocky Mountain region. The formal installation of Delta Phi Sigma as Beta Kappa chapter of Alpha Xi Omega was held on October 24 and 25. Beta Kappa was installed by Mrs. Van Auken, national president of Alpha Xi Omega.

Last spring the university sent out a group of selected dramatic students who made a ten-day tour of the state. Pi Phi was well represented on this tour by Jean Warner and Hermione Bradstreet, who played the leads in every play presented. This fall the Players again made a tour of the state and Helen Hylton, Dorothy Dearmin, and Nancy Burrage ably represented Pi Phi.

MARY KLINE

COLORADO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

Chartered, 1884

Pledge Day, September 28, 1930

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Hazel Gates, Virginia Grant, Betsy Forbes, Georgina Clark, Margaret Plettner, Mary Foster, Edith Jane Sturgeon, Anna Marie Hanks, Jessie Strachan, Betty Howard, Charlotte Gallup, Pauline Parks, Marguerite McGrayel, Marjorie Wangelin, Dorothy VanValkenburg, and Lucille Mercereau, Boulder, Colo.; Margerite Barnum, and Lucia Hopkins, Pueblo, Colo.; Catherine Walker, Fort Collins, Colo.; Josephine Stauder, Fowler, Colo.; Ruth Talliaferro, Dallas, Tex.; Nancy Trent Osborne, Tulsa, Okla.; Darlene Anderson, Chicago, Ill.; and Mary Jane Arnold, Quincy, Ill.

Maxine Cooley was chosen for Mortar Board. She was also elected president of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, honorary women's journalistic fraternity, is associate editor of the humorous publication, the Dodo, and is woman's editor of the college paper. In addition, she has been given the honor of writing the dialogue for the annual operetta, given after Christmas.

An unusual honor was conferred on Ruth Talliaferro, a pledge of this year, when she was elected by West Point Military Academy to be one of three young women to receive an honorary major's commission. In case of war, her duty would be to cheer the men on.

On October 14 Suzanne Carroll of Waco, Tex., a pledge, was crowned Queen of the Cotton Palace at the festival in Dallas, Tex. She chose Alice Faller as her princess from Colorado.

So far the Pi Phis have held a large share of the offices on the campus. Alice Faller was elected secretary of the junior class. In $X \Delta \Phi$, Dannette Morrow is president, Jeanne Gillespie is vice president, and Louise Blake is secretary. Alice Faller is president of Hesperia, and Jeanne Gillespie is vice president. Jeanne is also secretary of Players' Club, Helen Wolcott is president of Spur, women's pep organization, and Dorothy Evans is secretary of A N, honorary astronomical society. Ruth Crissman is president of $\Delta \Phi \Theta$, honorary art society, and Helen Reybold is corresponding secretary.

In accordance with the custom of the chapter, the pledges are entertaining the pledges of all the other women's fraternities at a series of teas.

Three girls are members of Senate this year: Pauline Watson, Adeline Rochrig, and Ruth Crissman.

$\Delta \Delta \Pi$ and $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ have completed their new houses. $B \Theta \Pi$ and $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ have had their houses successfully remodeled. $\Pi K A$ is building a new house which is located a short distance outside of town and the plans include a swimming pool and tennis courts. The new Student Memorial Building was completed in September. It is devoted entirely to student activities, having club rooms, offices for publications, lounges, and a ballroom.

The mothers' clubs of Boulder and Denver completely refurbished the study on the second floor with chairs, davenport, lamp, curtains, and a rug. They also donated new rugs for all the bedrooms.

The chapter is proud to mention that one hundred and twenty dozen roses were donated by the mothers' clubs, alumnae, and friends for the rose dinner during rush week.

The usual plan of scholarship is being followed this year, requiring pledges to attend study table four times a week and to spend twelve hours a week studying in the university library. Three juniors are reading for honors. Four members of the freshman class received scholarships from the departments which they last attended.

COLORADO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Colorado B announces the pledging of the following girls: Lois Elaine Alsbrook, Maxine Anderson, Eleanor Bacon, Helen Besser, Margaret Dearthoff, Esther English, Ruth Ernst, Katherine Hansen, Louise Hansen, Dorothy Jones, Martha Keene, Rebecca Lamberson, Virginia Marchant, Mary McKenna, Barbara Meyers, Virginia Mitchell, Gladys Reinert, Elizabeth Riddle, Elizabeth Stovall, Virginia Taylor, and Mona Walker.

The rushing season was most successful under the new arrangement decided on this year. Instead of a single rush chairman, there was a committee consisting of Jane Jones, president, Gwendolyn Highberger, elected rush chairman, Alberta Iliff, and Blanche Calkins. Many lovely parties were given including: four house parties; a beef-steak fry; and a formal dinner dance. The mothers' club helped with the summer rushing by giving a "Settlement School Tea," in order that the rushees and their mothers might really understand the Settlement School and what is accomplished by it. The chapter owes much of its success to the assistance of the alumnae, who planned and prepared all the dinners served during rush week. Also Mrs. Gosden, better known as "Mrs. Amos," an alumna of Colorado B, sent the favors and many of the decorations for the main party of rush week, an "Amos 'n Andy" progressive dinner; some of the alumnae were dressed to impersonate Amos, Andy, and the other well-known characters of the air. Miss Hutson, Eta province president, was a most welcome and helpful guest of rush week.

At the beginning of the fall quarter the members of Colorado B were most delighted to find that they had won the scholarship cup presented by Panhellenic for the national fraternity on the campus with the highest average for the year. If this trophy is held by any one fraternity for three consecutive years, it becomes theirs; the Pi Phis hope to possess this before long.

Activities are to be made an important part of the chapter program this year, and with Blanche Calkins holding important positions in all the literary publications and Ruth Haines as president of the Y.W.C.A., both the actives and pledges should be inspired to hard work. To insure more activity on the part of the pledges there have been two pledge supervisors elected: one to oversee fraternity study, and one to get the girls adjusted and well-known in campus affairs. These two supervisors are respectively, Georgianna Burdick and Helen Stanage.

The University of Denver has made a great many changes this fall. The quarter system is replacing the semester system which has formerly been used. Also, night football is being tried for the first three games and so far has been very popular.

The Pi Phis of Colorado B have started a campaign for the financing of a new chapter house which they hope will be built within a few years and will be the first women's fraternity house on the campus.

MARY E. WILDS

THETA PROVINCE

OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Chartered, 1910

Pledge Day, September 17, 1930

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Stella Duggan, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Sue Turner Fitts, Muskogee, Okla.; Gertrude Coulter, Tulsa, Okla.; Pauline Townsend, Fort Worth, Tex.; Mrs. Freda Thurman Day, Norman, Okla.; Martha Watson, Tulsa, Okla.; Clyde Kirby, Tulsa, Okla.; Louise Rowland, Shawnee, Okla.; Dorothy Fowitz, Alva, Okla.; Thuda May Filhiol, Shreveport, La.; Ruth Thomas, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Elizabeth Connolly, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Julia Hildt, Tulsa, Okla.; Josephine Hill, Vinita, Okla.; Helen Jo Denby, Carter, Okla.; and Charlene Handley, Ponca City, Okla.

The enrollment in the university has been increased by about 300 this year, making an approximate attendance of fifty-five hundred. This increase is exceedingly surprising because of the international business depression. However Oklahoma is a white spot in the national prosperity graph.

Because of the suppression last year of the Jazz Hounds and Ruf Neks, local pep orders and campus policemen, the freshmen ran wild, refusing to wear "Frosh-caps" or attend pep meetings or uncover their heads when passing through the main gates to the campus. The situation seems to have cleared by itself this year, however, for the campus is alive with small green caps. These caps have vari-colored buttons on them to indicate the wearers' college. But the upperclassmen miss the old red and white Sooner caps.

A large wooden building has been built beside the stables so that inclement weather will not interfere with the riding classes. There are black dots and dashes decorating the walls of the building in order that maneuvers for the horse shows may be more easily learned.

The plan instituted last year of having alumnae clubs from various cities take complete charge of the parties during rush worked splendidly this year. This division of the necessary mechanics of rush leaves most of the actives free all of the time to entertain the rushees. The alumnae clubs from Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Bartlesville, Enid, Muskogee, and Ponca City took charge of one party each. By careful cooperation a new motif was introduced every time.

Two new rules were added this year to govern women's rushing. One was that no favors or personal gifts may be given to rushees. The other was that total expenses for rush week outside the grocery bill must not exceed one hundred dollars.

Three fraternities have moved into lovely new houses this fall, they are $\Phi K \Sigma$, $\Sigma A M$, and $\Pi K \Phi$.

Alece Locke and Marion Ferguson are active this year in Mortar Board. Marion is president of the organization.

This will be a most successful year for the dramatic art department. Alece Locke is president of University Players and Clea Emehiser and Evelyn Riley are two outstanding members of that group.

Mildred Clark has a most interesting position this year. She is assistant secretary to Dean McDaniels, dean of women.

There is an organized movement each year among the upperclassmen to help freshmen get into activities and meet people. Patty Lee Smith is on the committee in charge of this movement and Laura Lee Hampshire is a captain.

Lucille Swindler has charge of all the interest groups sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. Joan Clover, Patty Lee Smith, Alece Locke, and Mildred Clark will each have an interest group first semester.

Three Pi Phis have come to O.U. from other colleges this year. They are Mary Ruth Holbrook, Oklahoma B, Helen Welch, Arizona A, and Dorothy Schimmerhorn, Kansas B.

In order to become better acquainted on the campus with both the old and new students, the chapter social committee has begun several new plans for the year. In addition to the custom of entertaining members of the faculty at dinner at intervals during each year, the chapter has decided to entertain other guests during each week. Once every two weeks Oklahoma B has the alumnae as guests at dinner on Tuesday night, giving the girls a chance to come in closer contact with them. On Wednesday evenings the girls entertain representatives from the various men's fraternities at dinner, and on Friday noon representatives from the women's fraternities are guests.

It is a custom on this campus for boys to come to the women's fraternity houses between the dinner hour and seven-thirty to dance. As a novelty, the chapter has sent out mock telegrams to the fraternities on the campus, asking two fraternities to be special guests on a certain night at that period, although no others who come will be excluded. These "special nights" will last for about a week and a half.

Oklahoma A. & M. College honored Patrick J. Hurley, Secretary of War, on October 13, by conferring on him the honorary degree of doctor of law. President H. G. Bennett, of the college, conferred the degree. Mr. Hurley was received at the airport, escorted to town, and a military review was conducted in his honor, preceding the ceremonies.

Oklahoma B has changed its scholastic average from 1.5 of last year to twenty grade points, as a part of the plans for higher scholastic standing, both locally and nationally. Fines of five and ten dollars are to be imposed on anyone making grades below passing, besides the chapter probation for any girl failing a course.

A drive has been started by the college authorities and those interested in the college to complete the athletic stadium. The structure was begun in 1925, but the entire stadium was not completed. An extensive drive has been started to finish the remaining part of the structure, the whole being a Memorial to the Oklahoma World War veterans.

The alumnae of Little Rock were hostesses at the state convention, June 9, when definite plans were made for building a $40,000

Old English chapter house at Fayetteville. The new house is now well under way and is to be ready for occupancy in February. Miss Ruth Morton of Ft. Smith was elected state president of the house corporation.

The alumnae club of Fayetteville entertained for the chapter with a party at the country club, during rush week. Helen and Roberta Fulbright gave two parties for the chapter at their home on Mt. Nord.

After a successful rush week, Arkansas A announces the pledging of Nan Bradley, Booneville; Laverne Brownfield, Ft. Smith; Lorna Caldwell, Siloam Springs; Margaret Cole, Little Rock; Leah Cornelison, Hot Springs; Lucy Cummings, Prairie Grove; Julia Fletcher, Lonoke; Lodene Fuller, Fayetteville; Edna Rose Gray, Little Rock; Virginia Hammond, Pine Bluff; Joada John, Eureka Springs; Gladys Murphy, Junction City; Mary Elizabeth Pace, Wilson; Thelma Pharr, Texarkana; Alta Smith, Garland City; Frances Rogers, Camden; Mary Elizabeth Robinson, Blytheville; Jane Ryan, Little Rock; Verla Menard, Hot Springs; Vivien Tatum, Booneville; Gibson Trotter, Monticello; Auda Waltrip, Arkadelphia; Lois Williamson, Hot Springs; and Mildred Wood, Camden.

Nell Braselton was appointed a member of the social committee of the University of Arkansas. Julia Street was elected rush captain for the coming college year.

An open meeting of Panhellenic was held in the form of a tea, October 9, at the X Ω open air theater which was dedicated last year as a memorial to the founders of X Ω. It was held during the time the officers of Δ Γ were here at Fayetteville to install a chapter. At the tea, Mrs. Bingham, national vice president of Δ Γ, gave an address.

INITIATED, April 16, 1930: Margie Bright, '33, Ft. Worth; Jerome Cartwright, '31, Beaumont; Nelle Colgin, '32, Waco; Mildred Kidd, '31, Brownwood; Dorothy Luckner, '31, Ft. Worth; Louise Morrel, '32, Post; Virginia Nalle, '33, Austin; Maude O'Connor, '31, Victoria; Evelyn Pridgen, '31, San Antonio; Margaret Smith, '32, Mexia; Charlotte Strong, '31, Beaumont; Mary Webb, '31, San Antonio; and Frances Wright, '31, Wharton.

Texas A announces the pledging of Anita Andreas, El Paso; Mary Helen Caswell, Austin; Florence Weller, Austin; Cynthia Connally, Macgregor; Grace King, Austin; and Louise Weddington, Bryan.

Transfers to this chapter are: Eugenia Bailey, Maryland A; Jane Fomby, Arkansas A; Jaqueline Mallory, Missouri A; Annetta

Robinson, Texas B; and Anne Spivey, Louisiana A.

Special meetings are held for transfers this year. They are also invited to attend chapter meetings and the buffet supper which is held every Tuesday between pledge and chapter meetings. This chapter had a buffet supper for the girls of Texas B immediately after the S.M.U.-Texas game on November 1.

Study hall is being held for the pledges, six hours a week being the required amount of study. They are released from this requirement if, after six weeks, they have a B average. Recognition pins are to be given to the sophomore, junior, and senior making the highest scholastic average for the year.

Plans are being made by Panhellenic to raise a scholarship fund to send women students to college who could not otherwise afford to attend. A dance may be given for this purpose. It is hoped that eventually $25,000 may be raised.

At the Cotton Palace in Waco this year Jerome Cartwright was duchess of the university, and Anne Hargrove was her maid; Charlotte Strong was duchess of Beaumont; Mary Webb attended as maid from San Antonio.

Janet Sheppard and Rachel Williams were elected to Mortar Board last spring. Mortar Board on this campus is taking an active part in bringing about the cooperation of parents with the college. Mortar Board sends letters to the parents of freshmen, furnishing information about organizations on the campus so that parents will have no objections when students are elected to various campus activities.

This fall Dorothy Lucker and Janet Sheppard were elected to curtain club.

VIRGINIA SUGGS

TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, September 26, 1930

GRADUATES: Irene Risser, M.A., Bonham, Tex.; Madge Hauger, B.A., Dallas, Tex.; Martha Leake, B.A., Dallas, Tex.; and Sarah Cresswell, B.A., Abilene, Tex.

Texas B had two members chosen on the beauty page in the annual. Beth Kinnebrew won first place, and Virginia Meador won second. Mayola Crum was chosen on the second beauty page.

The chapter sent its president, Drusilla McCullough, and its corresponding secretary, Marion Caldwell, to the Theta province convention held in Galveston, Tex., on June 19, 20, 21. The convention was most successful and many helpful suggestions were obtained by the delegates. Texas A made a delightful hostess.

Rush week was more strenuous this year than ever before at Southern Methodist University because K K Γ and K A Θ have made their appearance on the campus. Many of the initiates were unable to return to college, which was unfortunate for the chapter. Because of new Panhellenic rules no rush parties could cost over twenty dollars apiece; there would be no party at a women's club and none given by the alumnae. However, the alumnae gave one of the most beautiful parties of the year before rush week started. It was a seated tea at the Dallas Country Club and the tables were arranged in the shape of an arrow. In the center of the shaft of the arrow, the Greek letters of Π Β Φ were made of flowers and fern. Boxes of stationery were given to the rushees. Texas B is deeply indebted to the members of the alumnae who loaned their houses for parties, and especially to Mrs. John N. Touchstone, who loaned her house and helped so much by giving her time and interest.

The chapter had a very successful rush week, and announces the pledging of the following girls: Freida Abercrombie, Archer City, Tex.; Margaret Abernathy, McKinney, Tex.; Frances Bartlett, Dallas, Tex.; Ruth Boggess, Waco, Tex.; Patty Carver, Hillsboro, Tex.; Georgia Cary, Dallas, Tex.; Wayne Etheridge, San Antonio, Tex.; Sarah Gibson, Dallas, Tex.; Mabel Hamilton, Dallas, Tex.; Josephine Higginbotham, Dallas, Tex.; Katherine Holland, Dallas, Tex.; Etheline Jackson, Renner, Tex.; Mary Kilman, Dallas, Tex.; Mary McClellan, Dallas, Tex.; Margaret Milam, Dallas, Tex.; Martha Moore, Dallas, Tex.; Caroline Padgett, Dallas, Tex.; Lilla Peoples, Mexia, Tex.; Virginia Perkins, Dallas, Tex.; Ruth Pressley, Dallas, Tex.; Elizabeth Troth, Dallas, Tex.; Lucy Walker, Dallas, Tex.; Betty Webster, Amarillo, Tex.; and Evelyn Yeager, Duncan, Okla.

The chapter has taken new steps to improve the scholarship. Pledges are required to study two hours daily except when they have a laboratory, only one hour being required then. Initiates who make an F or D are required to spend six hours a week in the library.

MARION CALDWELL

LOUISIANA ALPHA—SOPHIE NEW-COMB COLLEGE

Chartered, 1891

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

Due to the new Panhellenic ruling, there was no summer rushing this year. Date cards, made by the art students, were issued on September 1, and after two weeks of informal rushing, Louisiana A entertained its rushees at a three-day house party at the New Biloxi Hotel, on the Gulf Coast. The outstanding features were a tacky party; an all-day boat ride aboard the Silver Spray to the Isle of Caprice; a banquet; and a swimming party. During the final two weeks of rushing, there was a series of informal suppers, each one being carried out in a certain color scheme. There were also several larger and more formal events. The Creole Party, given in Elizabeth Lewis's beautiful courtyard down in the French Quarter was especially effective, and typical of Old New Orleans. The slumber party given at the home of Mrs. Blanc Monroe (Mabel O. Logan) was also great fun.

The rushing season proved to be a very successful one and the following seventeen girls were pledged: Laura Fenner, New Orleans; Lorraine La Cour, New Orleans; Virginia Catlin, Wilmington, Dela.; Irene Rice, New Orleans; Stephanie Dinkins, Scott, La.; Barbara Logan, New Orleans; Evelyn Lyons, New Orleans; Dee Barksdale, Alexandria, La.; Mary Caffery, Franklin, La.; Sarah Forsyth, Charlottesville, Va.; Margaret Hudson, Monroe, La.; Virginia Pearson, Houston, Tex.; Hester Harrop, Lake Charles, La.; Beulah Johnson, St. Francisville, La.; Julia Beury, Charleston, W.Va.; and Anne Lewis, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.; and Lillian Lawrason, Muskogee, Okla. The active chapter entertained its prospective pledges at a luncheon on the roof-garden of the Bienville Hotel, on Saturday, September 27, the day of pledging.

The table was in the shape of an arrow and corsages of red roses and blue delphiniums served as place cards. Immediately following the luncheon, every one attended the first football game of the season where Helen Bradley led the cheers. That night the pledging ceremony took place and was followed by supper.

Very soon after the opening of college, Louisiana A moved into their new chapter rooms, which are situated directly opposite the Newcomb campus. The actives entertained the alumnae and pledges at a house-warming and everyone brought presents for the new rooms. This year it is expected that the majority of the Sunday night suppers will be held here instead of at private homes, as during the past few years.

Louisiana A now does its social service work at Charity Hospital. Every Friday afternoon the actives and pledges go down there and visit the little children in the surgical wards. They bring them magazines and toys, and entertain them by reading aloud, telling them stories, or by playing games with them. The chapter finds this work very interesting and feels that its services are greatly appreciated.

The registration at Newcomb this fall was one of the largest in its history, and everything points to an especially successful college year.

IOTA PROVINCE

MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANIC ARTS

Chartered, September 30, 1921

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

Freshman week and rushing were very successful this year as there were one hundred and fifty freshman women from whom the women's fraternities could choose their pledges. Montana A pledged the following fifteen girls: Jean Miller, Patty Patten, Mary Metheny, Nina Davis, Carolyn Delaney, Helen Huffine, all of Bozeman; Doris Torongo, Mary Jane Roberts, and Anna Lee Johns, of Butte; Lucile Lytle, and Lillian Willcomb of Great Falls; Irene Faxon, and Constance Wiggenhorn of Billings; Matilda Danicich, Anaconda; and Dorothy Parizek, Rygate.

Montana A is very fortunate in having for their house chaperon this year, Mrs. Eunice B. Weaver, an alumna of Illinois Z. Miss Onken sent Mrs. Weaver to the girls, and they are very grateful to have such a charming $\Pi \Phi$ with them.

A new football field and track course have been added to Montana State's campus this year. The two combined are called Gatton Field and are dedicated to Cyrus Gatton, a former famous athlete of Montana who was killed in an airplane raid in the World War. Three new sand tennis courts and one cement court have been built on the east side of the gymnasium.

The project that the Associated Women Students have been working on for the past year is for the cultivation of an "Iris Garden" on the campus. There is to be a sun dial and benches in the center with shrubs and flowers planted around them. All of the organizations and the alumnae of the college have contributed liberally to this. There are already eighteen dozen tulips planted; and the iris are to be blue and yellow, thus carrying out the blue and gold colors of the college.

A new venture was undertaken last spring by Mortar Board known as M.M.M. day. The first M stands for Montanan day when the annuals are distributed; the second M stands for music day when the band plays under the trees on the campus; and the third M stands for Mortar Board day when Mortar Board furnishes lunches for the faculty and the students. The Mortar Board makes money in this way and the students enjoy eating their luncheon on the lawns of the campus with the faculty. These days were formerly celebrated separately, but now Mortar Board intends to make it traditional by having them all on one day and called M.M.M. day.

On Women's day last spring when the outstanding women on the campus were awarded many honors, $\Pi \Phi$ had three girls on Mortar Board; Alice Vandenhook, Esther Bowman, and Elizabeth Seitz. Sarah Barringer was awarded the medal for being the champion swimmer, and the medal for being the best all-round woman athlete. Helen Cornwell took the medal for the best illustrations of Montana wild flowers. Elsa Hendrickson and Sarah Barringer and Constance Holm were chosen as Spurs. An interesting item of Women's day is the fact that instead of giving the usual medals they are giving more useful things, such as clocks and tennis rackets.

Esther Bowman was elected president of Mortar Board and was sent as Mortar Board delegate to their convention, and as delegate to the $\Pi B \Phi$ province convention and the $\Phi T O$ convention. Alice Vandenhook was elected president of Eurodelphian literary society and is to be the delegate to the national convention this fall. Carolyn Delaney was elected president of $\Delta \Phi$, honorary art fraternity. Those who made $\Phi K \Phi$ were Esther Stockton, Helen Cornwell, Lois Cobleigh, and Flora Davis. Elizabeth Seitz is vice president of Associated Women Students. Margaret Souders is music chairman of A.W.S. Elizabeth Gardiner was chairman of Girls' Vocational Congress last spring. Esther Stockton was elected junior prom queen.

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

Pledge Day, October 8, 1930

INITIATED, September 28, 1930: Harriette Lundgren, '33, Spokane, Wash.; Fay Tatro, '31, Boise, Idaho; and Blanche Currie, '31, Pocatello, Idaho.

Idaho A announces the pledging of the following girls: Rita Baxter, Challis; Darhl Bockwitz, Twin Falls; Mary Bodle, Boise; Marjorie Budrow, Bancroft; Mildred Budrow, Bancroft; Virginia Canfield, Coeur d'Alene; Maybelle Donaldson, Kalispell, Mont.; Jacqueline Johnson, Spokane, Wash.; Elsie Lafferty, Kellogg; Lorna McCain, Kellogg; Zelma Manning, Grangeville; Jane Orr, Grace; Roberta Roberts, Spokane, Wash.; Helen Terriault, St. Maries; Berneice Wernette, Coeur d'Alene; Dorothy Williams, Spokane, Wash.; and Amelia Beth Wood, Boise.

The University of Idaho has a new president this year, Dr. M. G. Neale. Dr. Neale came here from the University of Missouri, where he was dean of the department of education. Dr. and Mrs. Neale were formally introduced to the student body and faculty on Thursday, October 16.

B X, the only local fraternity on the University of Idaho campus, moved into their new house on October 11. It is a beautiful three-story house of Gothic structure.

Morrill Hall, the agricultural building, has been improved since last year. A new floor has been added and the entire building improved.

Idaho A has a new Majestic radio. During the summer some of the living room furniture was re-upholstered.

Plans for scholarship this year include a two hour supervised study table for the pledges every week night. They are to spend all vacant hours until four o'clock in the library; also two hours Saturday morning. After the nine weeks grades are issued, all members who have not made house average are also compelled to go to study table.

The chapter has two Mortar Board members, Catherine York and Elsie Warm. Catherine is president of the organization and was sent to the convention, which was held in Madison, Wis., last summer. Catherine York was also chairman of the Big Sister movement on this campus this fall.

Funds for the Settlement School are being raised again this year by selling candy bars in the house. This method of raising money was found to be very profitable last year, the profit averaging about ten dollars a month.

Six girls are members of W.A.A. Lois Porterfield, house president, is president of this association and a member of the women's "I" club. It is necessary to win 800 points to become a member of this club and is an especial honor to any girl who is not yet a senior.

Idaho A had the honor of having two members elected to $\Phi B K$, Frances Gallet and Katherine Mattes.

One of Idaho A's pledges, Marjorie Budrow, made an unusually fine score in the intramural horseshoe tournament which is sponsored by W.A.A. each fall. She had the highest score in the tournament, thirty-seven points out of a possible forty.

Last spring Belle Porterfield was chosen from the entire group of freshman girls as the most outstanding girl in journalism. One freshman girl is chosen each year by $\Theta \Sigma$, honorary journalism fraternity, and has the honor to sit at the Narthex Table.

INITIATED, June 2, 1930: Billie Curtis, '33, Seattle, Wash.; Helen Lidstone, '32, 2351 Franklin Ave., Seattle, Wash.; Margaret Maw, '31, 245 North University Ave., Provo, Utah; Wilmaglen Paddock, '33, 1701 35th Ave., Seattle, Wash.; and Gloria Svensson, '33, 1523 1st North, Seattle, Wash.

GRADUATED, June 16, 1930: Marion Baker, B.A., 1612 8th Ave., West, Seattle, Wash.; Beth Dahlen, B.A., 2608 Shoreland Dr., Seattle, Wash.; Margaret Emery, B.A., Napavine, Wash.; Marjorie Hertsche, B.A., 781 E. 24th North, Portland, Ore.; Doris McVay, B.A., 119 39th North, Seattle, Wash.; Alice Murray, B.A., 2316 Boyer Ave., Seattle, Wash.; Mildred Peacock, B.A., Long Beach, Calif.; June Sievers, B.M., 1062 Rucker Ave., Everett, Wash.; May Sievers, 1602 Rucker Ave., Everett, Wash.; and Marajane Warren, B.A., 1754 E. 62nd, Seattle, Wash.

Washington A was greatly honored on having one of the founders, Mrs. Inez Smith Soule, present at formal initiation.

Several Pi Phi were honored by being initiated into different honoraries: $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, women's national journalism fraternity, initiated Alice Simpson; Marjorie Hertsche was initiated into $\Phi \Gamma \Gamma$, a dramatic honorary; Julia Shadbolt and Marjorie Barrett were initiated into A X P.

Washington A was well represented in campus committees this year. Margaret Emery was general chairman over all the women on the campus on Campus Day. Pat Reilly was chairman of the ticket sales for this day. Vivian Downey was chairman of the freshman tours committee, and was chosen to serve as the head secretary of the high school basketball tournament. Several minor positions were also held by the girls of this chapter.

Jean Born was elected publicity manager of the women's golf club. Helen Vernon was elected the town girl's secretary. The sophomore class honored Virginia Van Amburg by electing her their secretary. Jean Born and Helen Vernon were "big Hits" in the junior girls' Vodvil this year with their dancing acts, etc. Gwendolyn Campbell, a pledge and freshman, was honored by being chosen the section editor of honoraries of the college annual for 1931.

The chapter was very fortunate in helping the financial conditions the past year by holding a very successful rummage sale which netted Washington A about $150.

The chapter introduced a new idea into the Iota province by being hostess to this group at a convention June 15, 16, and 17 at the Moran School on Bainbridge Island. Forty-three girls from the different chapters left Seattle Sunday evening for the island. The evening was spent mainly in getting acquainted and talking over mutual friends. The next two days were spent in attending meetings where different ideas of pledge training, finances, house management, etc., were exchanged. Mrs. Douglass and Miss Johnstone, Iota province president and vice president, were there. The convention was very successful and besides making many new $\Pi \Phi$ relationships several ideas concerning the business side of the fraternity proved invaluable.

There has been considerable talk on the campus this year as to whether deferred pledging would be enforced next year.

The chapter announces the marriage of May Sievers to Allen Vinson Love, $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$, in June; Virginia Cole to Howard Ross Osborn, in June; Margaret Church to Dr. Edmond, in May.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, September 23, 1930

Washington State College opened on September 17 with an increased enrollment of about 200 students. During the summer several improvements were made on the campus. The student store was remodeled, making it considerably larger and more convenient. A new machine shop is under construction. The A X fraternity is watching the building of a new brick house, which should be ready for occupancy at Christmas time. The $\Pi \Phi$ chapter house was calimined throughout during the summer.

All but six of the undergraduates who were in the chapter last year returned this fall. Washington B felt very fortunate in having all of these girls here to help with fall rushing which included, in addition to the customary tea and formal dinner, an Old Plantation party and a Cabaret. Although Panhellenic rules on the campus prohibit elaborate decoration, the ideas were carried out through menu, entertainment, and simple table decorations. The following girls were pledged: Maxine Clyde, Onalaska; June Anderson, Spokane; Tenny Teetar, Waitsburg; Lois Shannon, Wenatchee; Marsaline Smith, Spokane; Marion Bailey, Waitsburg; Mildred Getty, Lewiston; Jeffra Boatright, St. John; Jane Lutz, Seattle; Alice Whitney, Tacoma; Diana Malott, Spokane; Virginia Harger, Spokane; Enid Parks, Seattle; Geraldine Odom, Longview; Jo Jean Leonard, Waitsburg; Rose Bresnaham, Colville; Jane Develin, Tacoma; Betty Trubshaw, Snohomish; Mildred Bleumke, Everett; Aroa Fenn, Spokane; Katherine Kelley, Snohomish; and Betty Larson, Tacoma.

Washington B is very happy to have two of its members in Mortar Board this year. They are Helen Cleveland and Kathleen Lynch. Mrs. O'Day, an alumna of the chapter, was also initiated into Mortar Board. Jane Dunning is president of $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, national art honorary, which she was instrumental in bringing to this campus, through her efforts in the local art society.

Although the chapter had a very pleasant year with Miss Dorothy Jackson as house-mother and had come to have a very deep love for her, the girls are very happy that Mrs. Mary Bloss is back again this year to act as hostess.

With a burlesque of "The Highwayman," Washington B won first prize in junior vaudeville last spring. Almost half of the chapter took part in the stunt, which had as a feature number a military drill of a sad-looking troop of Red Coats.

The chapter announces the following marriages: Lenna Baird, M.S., to Herman J. Deutch, Ph.D., Σ A E, and instructor of history on the college faculty; Genevieve Green to Douglas McIntyre, Φ Δ Θ ; Cleo Baker to Robert S. Stevenson, Σ X; Barbara Posson to Dr. Robert Pritchard of Portland, Ore. K Σ ; and Margaret McCas-kill to Hugh Harland of Los Angeles.

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

INITIATED, May 1, 1930: Geraldine McGrath, '33, 529 W. 4th St., The Dalles, Ore.; Frances Virginia Drake, '33, 1095 E. Burnside St., Portland; and Harriet Ann Roberts, '33, 1520 N. Hunter St., Stockton, Calif.

Oregon A announces the pledging of the following thirteen girls, among whom are two Π B Φ daughters: Mary Louise Dodds, Eugene; Jane Cook, Portland; Margaret Rock, Longview, Wash.; Dorothy Edlefson, Dorothy Dryer, Elizabeth Berger, Juanita Vinson, all of Portland; Edith Jessop, Eleanor English, both of San Diego, Calif.; Lucy Howe, Lois Scharpf, of Eugene; Gretchen Kegel, Oakland, Calif.; and Glory Herzog, Hollywood, Calif.

The rules for rushing this fall were changed considerably. Rush week was divided into two sections. The first section, covering the first half of the week, included rush dates that had been obtained during the summer; the latter section, covering the last half of the week, included only rush dates that had been obtained during the first section. The girls were allowed to ask for preference only during the second section. This new system proved quite successful for it enabled the girls to get better acquainted with the girls in whom they were vitally interested for preference date.

Last spring Π Φ was honored to have two members elected to Mortar Board, senior honorary, for the best all-round women, one of whom was Dorothy Eberhard who was made president of the society, and the other Margaret Cummings. Also two members were elected to Kwama, sophomore honor organization: Nora Jean Stewart and Doris McMorran. Margaret Cummings was elected president of the Women's League this year. Alice Carter has been made the circulation manager of the college annual, and has been placed on the homecoming directorate. Ruby George and Margaret Cummings are both in Polyphonic Choir, and Harriet Roberts and Frances Drake are in glee club. Lois Nelson is vice president of Y.W.C.A., and Dorothy Eberhard is a Y.W.C.A. cabinet member.

Ψ K, a local fraternity on the campus, has merged with the Σ X chapter here. A Σ A M chapter was installed on the campus last spring, thereby taking the place of the former Jewish fraternity called Δ E.

A new Art Museum has just been completed on the University of Oregon campus. Countless museum pieces are being moved into the building which will be opened to the public soon. Many modern and unusual decorative motives have been used on both the interior and the exterior.

The annual campus "open house" took place on Saturday, October 4. All the women's organizations kept open house from seven until twelve in the evening while all the men's organizations visited them in routine order and danced fifteen minutes at each house.

During the week-end of October 17 to 19, nearly all the university students traveled to Portland for the football game with the University of Washington. People living in Portland witnessed much pep and enthusiasm in the students who were inspired by a rally and noise parade that marched up and down the main streets of Portland the night before the game.

The main social event of fall term was the pledge dance given in honor of the pledges on October 24. Soft lighting effects and pastel colored flowers were used in decorating the chapter house.

The marriages that took place this summer were Margaret Clark, '30, to Howard Holman; Ruth Field, '29, to Frank Mimaugh; and Mildred Conklin, '30, to Leland Fryer.

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October, 1930

Oregon B announces the pledging of the following girls: Edith Smith, Gail Burnett, Frances Marshall, and Betty Browning all of Portland, Ore.; Ellen Heminway and Harriet Brigham of Salem, Ore.; Elizabeth Crowell, Pasadena; Virginia Carson, San Bernadino, Calif.; Mildred Daley, Stockton, Calif.; Helena Dingle, Whittier, Calif.; Inez Davis, Orange, Calif.; Beatrice Hall, South Pasadena, Calif.; Dorothy Oldham, Glendale, Calif.; Marcella Johnson, Pendleton, Ore.; Eleanor Hoyt, Tacoma, Wash.; Velva Mae Jeffries, Bend, Ore.; and Ann Wilson of Portland.

The chapter has within her fold this year an unusual number of class and student body officers, besides a wide representation in all forms of campus activities. Betty Robley is president of Associated Women Students, the organization controlling women's activities; Betty was also one of the seven girls on this campus to be elected to the Cap and Gown honor society. Estora Ricks is vice president of the sophomore class and Gail Burnett was elected vice president of the freshman class. Velva Mae Jeffries was the only freshman woman placed on the nominating committee for her class and was elected secretary of the freshman class.

Four of Oregon B's sophomores hold high positions in the Big Sister movement which is making great headway on the Oregon state campus. Jane Elkins has been officially designated as the pianist for all student body affairs. Miss Elkins has distinguished herself on this campus by her versatility in music. Carrie Boultinghouse was one of five girls to win her block "O" in athletics last year. Susan Hays was repledged to National Collegiate Players after a lengthy absence from college. Eloise Bilyeu has been writing for the Oregon State Monthly and has enabled fourteen Pi Phi to gain positions on the O.S.C. Directory staff. Eloise has been appointed department editor for both the Oregon State Monthly and the Oregon State Annual. Seven girls are taking an active part in the new Riding Club which is being organized here.

Twenty-six girls returned to live in the chapter house this year and due to the spontaneous cooperation of the girls with Marjorie Carpenter, an unusually successful rushing season launched $\Pi B \Phi$ into prominence on this campus. Oregon B has a functioning scholarship committee which is exerting all its effort in organizing regular study hours which will encourage splendid habits of study.

Pledge Day, Undecided

This fall the California A chapter house has acquired a new asbestos roof and three new showers. The girls are all very pleased about them. The girls are fixing up their rooms also, and are getting settled in them. Many of them have painted their furniture and woodwork, and there is a great improvement in the appearance of the rooms. Some of them have been papered by the girls and are particularly attractive.

Homecoming took place this fall at the time of the U.S.C. football game. A buffet luncheon was served and the alumnae had a chance to see how the house had been re-finished.

One of the most important social functions this fall was a tea to welcome the incoming women. Each house on the campus gives one during the autumn quarter. This is the only time the freshmen see the girls and the house until rushing, so a great effort is always made to give them as good an impression of the fraternity as possible.

Many of the girls were very active last spring and are now entering into many of the campus activities this fall. Betts Hawkins is a copy editor on the Stanford Daily this fall and Barbara Balfour, Betty Watson, and Martha Inge are reporters on the staff. Virginia Ingram, Louise Hudson, and Betts Hawkins have been working on the Quad, the annual. Betts had a write-up in the book issued this spring, while Virginia and Louise are now in the editorial department.

Eileen Aldwell was elected to Hammer and Coffin. Eileen is women's editor of the Chaparral this year and Jean Carson works under her as circulation assistant. Last year Jean received the cup awarded for selling the most Chaparrals. Eileen Aldwell is now a member of the classical literature honor society.

Barbara Balfour is secretary of the sophomore class this year and is the co-director of the Sophomore Cotillion. Marian Jones is on the decoration committee for this dance and Marian is also co-chairman for the freshman carnival. Helen Halderman and Helen Osborn are Panhellenic representatives.

Constance Morse and Betty Watson placed several times in swimming meets last spring, while Elizabeth McCullough was on the W.A.A. basketball team. Margaret Willis is on the Theater fund committee. Betts Hawkins is a member of the A.W.S. social committee, and she and Marion Hewlett are on the rally committee. Virginia Ingram is on the A.W.S. election committee. Helen Osborn was on the "Jolly-Up" committee for the sophomore class last year.

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Pledge Day, August 27, 1930

INITIATED, September 29, 1930: Mary Atkins, '33, 64 Oakridge Rd., Berkeley, Calif.; Reah Edsel, '33, 235 Pacheco, San Francisco, Calif.; Mary Hunting, '33, 1700 Beach, San Francisco, Calif.; Marian Nash, '33, 2758 Piedmont Ave., Berkeley, Calif.; Peggy Porter, '33, 241 Hillside, Piedmont, Calif.; Eleanor Rowley, '33, 645 Valle Vista, Oakland, Calif.; Clare Shortall, '33, 2260 Vallejo, San Francisco, Calif.; Audrey Tantau, '33, 228 Tunnel Rd., Berkeley, Calif.; Barbara White, '33, 2705 Buchanan, San Francisco, Calif.; and Anita Martin, '31, Box 231, Route 1, San Jose, Calif.

With the incoming of the class of '34, the University of California also inaugurated Dr. Robert Sproul as the new president of the university. Dr. Sproul had been vice president of the university up until the retirement of President Campbell.

The International House, the second of its type in the United States, was opened for occupancy this semester. The building is located within walking distance of the campus and is an ideal place for foreign students as well as American students to make their home during the college semester. In the next block is the new Infirmary, which was also donated to the university. The Life Science Building, and Giannai Hall of Agriculture were opened at the beginning of this semester.

Individual activities and honors during the semester have been received by Betty Balletine, senior women's editor of the Daily Californian; and Barbara-Lu White appointed a member of the student affairs commission. Perry Hahn was chosen junior women's manager on the Blue and Gold, California's yearbook. Eleanor Rowley and Marian Clark are working for a junior editorial appointment on the yearbook. Gladys Worden was elected to Torch and Shield. Wilmer Grace was elected president of the Prytanean. Among the freshmen, Betty Gerrick is working on Daily Californian, Virginia Vincent on the A.S.U.C. personnel commission. Several of the girls are interested in the Y.W.C.A. work.

On October 24, the chapter gave its formal tea and dance. An open house was held on August 28 for the new pledges. On October 8 the chapter gave its annual faculty dinner.

California B pledged twelve girls this fall: Emilie Adams, Eleanor Breed, Mary Langdon, and Virginia Vincent of Piedmont; Alice Butler, Eugenia Cross, Betty Gerwick, Sally Meyers, and Marjorie Smith of Berkeley; Mary Thompson and Katherine Tarney, of San Francisco; and Lisbeth Chenowith, of Redding.

STEPHANIE WARSHAUER

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Chartered, 1917

Pledge Day, September 29, 1930

This year means much to the University of Southern California, as it marks the beginning of the second fifty years of growth. Mudd Memorial Hall, given to the university for the advancement of philosophical study by Mrs. John Seeley Mudd, in memory of her late husband, is now ready for occupancy. It is the first of a group of buildings to be constructed by a contribution campaign carried on by the alumnae association of U.S.C.

Janet McCoy has brought to California Γ the greatest honor obtainable in campus activities at U.S.C. In May, she was chosen to serve as vice president of the associated student body of U.S.C. This is the most sought-for position by women's fraternities as it carries with it great responsibility, both for the officer and for those supporting her. Another honor was brought to $\Pi \Phi$ by Jane Lawson's election as vice president of the W.S.G.A. Emory Ardis and Jane Lawson were elected to Amazon, honorary women's organization. Initiation into Amazon is based on campus activities and scholarship.

On June 9, 1930, Miriam De Witt was initiated into $\Phi \beta \kappa$. Miriam was one of two juniors to be elected to membership into this national honorary scholastic organization. Janet McCoy was elected to membership in Mortar Board. Evelyn McGowin was graduated magna cum laude. Isobel Loftus received a senior women's scroll which is given to the ten outstanding senior women. In the field of athletics, Jane Lawson won the women's golf championship of the university.

In May, 1930, the $\Pi \Phi$ alumnae of Los Angeles gave a beautiful new table and chairs for the chapter room. Nothing could have come at a better time, as this summer the chapter completely remodeled the third floor. It is possible to accommodate six more girls than previously. Each town girl has her own locker to keep her things in. Since a large study has also been built, a definite system of studying can now be carried out. The new chapter room on the third floor is by far the most thrilling as it stands for the realization of a need that has long been felt by California Γ .

KATHRYN AULT

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES

Pledge Day, September 21, 1930

GRADUATES: Christina Ballreich, B.A., 927 S. Windsor Blvd., L.A.; Harriet Brown, B.E., 408 W. Cameron St., Hanford, Calif.; Gail Erickson, B.A., 6924 Oakwood Ave., L.A.; Dorothy Standing, B.E., 530 S. Imperial, Brawley, Calif.; and Mabel Stidham, B.A., 1123 Stratford Ave., S. Pasadena, Calif.

This semester has started brilliantly for California Δ with the pledging of sixteen girls: Mary Badger, Barbara Buell, Margaret Campbell, Betty Carroll, Carolyn Goldwater, Nadine Hallowell, Ruth Hill, Ruth Hosking, Martha Ann Hotchkiss, Marion Mason, Mary McNight, Leona Palmer, Jane Snow, Josephine Starks, and Juliana Welch.

The campus is becoming more beautiful each semester. There are two new buildings under construction which will be ready by January 1, 1931. One is the Mechanic Arts Building, and the other is Kerckhoff Hall, which is to be the Student Union.

The chapter active list has been reduced to eighteen this year. Fortunately, however, there are six transfers on the campus, five of whom are living in the house. Lucy Tomlinson and Nora Mary Neville from Utah A, Mildred Pinkney from Colorado A, Lillian Sprague from Arizona A, and Jean Marble from California B are living in the house. Virginia Reed from Arkansas A is also attending the university.

Betty Edmondson, who is vice president of the associated women students, is busy planning the annual girl's Hi-Jinx that is to take place on October 10, and Peggy Anson is busy directing the $\Pi \Phi$ skit. "Campus Capers," the yearly musical revue produced on campus, is under way again.

Marjorie Mullenbach has planned the social calendar with infinite pains. The presenting of the pledges to the campus took place on Monday afternoon, October 6, at a tea dansant given at the chapter house. Buffet dinners are planned for Sunday evenings, and for Friday nights preceding football games. There is to be a cooky-shine given soon, honoring the Γ chapter.

The past summer has proved most profitable. The chapter house was rented to summer students, and in addition to this, each girl pledged herself to raise ten dollars for the house. One benefit was given which was a miniature golf tournament. The chapter bought a new hall runner for the upstairs, two new dining room tables, a new wall hanging, and a new davenport.

The University dramatic society has chosen Ruth Hill, one of the new pledges, a member. Janet Rally, Georgia Crowell, and Marjorie Barter were chosen for Spurs, the national sophomore society.

California Δ is trying extremely hard to make a scholastic record that can be admired. There is a new system of study table in practice which requires six hours of afternoon study a week by every girl.

VIRGINIA HORNER

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Chartered, August, 1917

Pledge Day, September 28, 1930

INITIATED, October 10, 1930: Norma Rich-ter, '31, 111 N. Ridgewood Pl., Los Angeles, Calif.; Franklyn Royer, '32, 545 N. Alexandria, Los Angeles, Calif.; and Eleanor Riddle, '31, Box 513, University Station, Tucson, Ariz.

Arizona A announces the pledging of the following girls: Margaret Angle, Ernestine Childs, Virginia Robinson, and Faun Weaver, of Tucson; Jean Copps, Stevens Point, Wis.; Marian Hauter, La Grange, Ill.; Ruth Pifer, Urbana, Ill.; Katherine Teague, Los Angeles; Jane Wilder, Los Angeles; and Dorothea Wallace, Bisbee, Ariz.

Rush week this year included many charming parties planned by Franklyn Royer. Among these was a tramp dinner at which every morsel of food was eaten with nature's utensils, fingers. Beside this there were a Humpty Dumpty luncheon, Hawaiian tea, and many other interesting entertainments.

The chief aim of Arizona A this year is to win again the scholarship cup which it lost two years ago.

There are many girls in important campus activities, mostly literary positions. Dorothea Wallace is treasurer of the freshman class and Eugenie Rountree is secretary of the sophomore class. In the literary field are Eleanor Riddle who is women's editor of the Kitty Kat and Virginia Culbertson, who is women's manager of the same publication—the only two women's names to appear in the staff headlines. Virginia is also president of Wranglers, a literary society. Virginia Burton is art editor of the Wildcat, and Mary Hall is society reporter. Dorothea Wallace was elected to $\Sigma A I$, national women's music fraternity.

Last spring Arizona A was doubly honored by two of its active members. Mary Frances Berryman was chosen by Richard Arlen as the best looking co-ed on this campus, her picture appearing in the Desert. Margaret Koons was selected by College Humor as the most outstanding girl on the Arizona campus and her picture appeared in that magazine.

The chapter is happy to have this year three transfers living in the house. They are Mary Adams from South Dakota A, Julia Grosvenor from Wisconsin A and Charlotte Kittredge from Iowa Z.

Recently the chapter was honored by a visit from the Kappa province president, Mrs. T. N. Alford. Mrs. Alford was entertained at formal dinners and a tea given by Mother Fergusson and the town mothers.

The University of Arizona has been given a building fund of approximately $3,000,000 by which the campus will be improved with a new auditorium, residence hall, and many much needed buildings.

MARGARET KOONS

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

Chartered, 1915

Pledge Day, Indefinite

INITIATED, October 4, 1930: Isabelle Mat-ley, Spanish Springs, Sparks, Nev.; Helen Olmstead, Wells, Nev.; and Maurine Stromer, Fallon, Nev.

As Nevada has second semester rushing, there were but few girls who were eligible for rushing this fall, and Nevada A did not pledge anyone.

The chapter is living in Artemesia Hall, one of the girls' dormitories, until the completion of the new house. It was hoped that it would be built this fall and ready for occupancy by January. However, due to weather conditions, it cannot be started until spring.

Nevada A ranks first among national women's fraternities on this campus in scholarship.

Helene Turner was bid to $\Delta A E$, the honor English organization on the campus, and several girls had leading parts in the Wolves' Frolic, a campus entertainment given during the annual homecoming week.

Helene Turner, who is doing graduate work, is also assistant to the dean of women on the campus.

The campus is proud of the new Mackay Science Building given by Clarence Mackay in memory of his father, and was very happy to have him and his daughter as our guests for homecoming.

DORIS THOMPSON

UTAH ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Chartered, July, 1929

Pledge Day, October 12, 1930

The Utah University Redskins victoriously met the University of Nevada Wolves in the initial grid game of the season for both teams at McKay Stadium, Reno, Nevada, September 27. This contest was a non-conference game but the Utes have won the game during the past two years as the season's football opener and both years have gone through for the Rocky Mountain Conference championship. Crimson football fans have taken this victory as a forecast of what to expect in the Utah Redskins' third successive title drive.

A beautifully altered campus greeted the eyes of the 2,000 old students and the 1,200 freshmen on registration day for the autumn quarter. During the summer the campus ground plan was changed. A new and beautiful drive around the campus has been constructed to accommodate and bring into the campus circle the recently completed Kingsbury Hall and the Union Building, still under construction.

The summer of 1930 was a season of $\Pi \Phi$ weddings. During the summer season the entire chapter was in attendance at the charming weddings of five Utah A members. Seven weddings during the season have claimed one pledge, two actives, two graduates, '30, and two alumnae, '29, from the ranks of Utah A. Sara Moyle, Radie Hyde, chapter president, Virginia Clowes, Virginia Carthey, Virginia Castleton, Dixie Doolittle, and Geraldine Leonard are the girls Utah A is losing.

Utah A was host to fifty high school girl graduates, freshmen at the university this fall, at a very attractive bridge tea, September 11.

It is customary for each group of pledges of Utah A to earn fifty dollars during the summer to be presented to the active chapter upon their initiation. The necessity for getting together and planning ways in which to earn this money fosters a resourcefulness and a cooperative spirit among the pledges. This summer they took over for the evening of September 26 the Old Mill Club, a summer dancing resort located in Cottonwood canyon, fifteen miles from Salt Lake City. By arrangement with the management they made a percentage on every ticket they sold. The manner in which the pledges worked to put over this undertaking so successfully has made the active chapter very proud of them.

Honor has come to the campus. The chapter of the local organization $\Pi E \Phi$ has been granted a charter in the ΦM , women's fraternity. Utah A was very happy and proud to welcome another national women's fraternity upon the campus. Installation was held October 10, 11, and 12.

The members of the H E chapter of ΦM , the newest national upon the Utah University campus, were guests of Utah A at a tea given in their honor at the chapter house, October 16.

Chiyo Thomas was elected to the Order of Acorn, honorary junior women's activity and scholastic society; the seven most outstanding girls are chosen every year from the junior class. Chiyo brings double honors to Utah A. She was also elected president of the Gleam E chapter of $X \Delta \Phi$, women's national honorary literary fraternity.

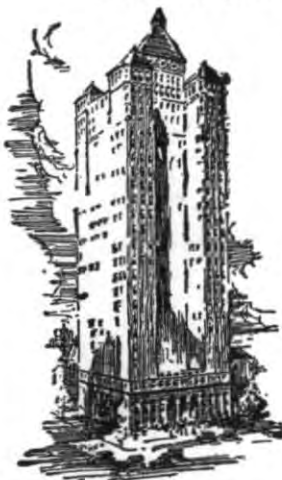

The chapter is proud to announce that according to the scholarship record for 1929-30 Utah A chapter ranks second among women's fraternities on the University of Utah campus.
