THE ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

FEBRUARY, 1935

EDITORIAL

PI BETA PHI hears with deep regret of the death of our beloved former Grand President, Anna Lyttle Brannon. She meant much to all Pi Phis, not only to those who had the privilege of knowing personally her gracious charm, but to those who knew of her as a fine officer and an always devoted member. Your editor cherishes two memories of her, one as the lovely presiding officer at a Founders' Day luncheon in San Francisco in 1919, the other as the writer of a charming letter of greeting to the new editor last February. A more detailed account of Mrs. Brannon appears under "In Memoriam" in this issue. In acknowledgment of Miss Onken's message to Dr. Brannon, he sends this message: "Will you convey to your associates in Pi Beta Phi my earnest appreciation of their sympathy? It is well known that Mrs. Brannon had deep and loyal devotion to her great fraternity."

THE fraternity world has also been saddened by the loss of two other women who have given distinguished service to their organizations, Leulah Judson Hawley, long-time editor of the Anchora of Delta Gamma, and Nellie Hart Prince, Phi Mu, past president and delegate to the National Panhellenic Congress. Such devotion as theirs is so fine a thing, so real a contribution to the fraternity world at large that their loss will be widely felt and regretted.

WE GIVE you in this number a picture of Convention in its lighter, more personal side, in contrast to the serious features which were presented to you in the September ARROW. The editor wishes to thank those who have helped her to make it interesting with pictures and letters and articles, those in the fraternity and out of it. One thing was disappointing—that the pictures of the costume party were with one exception so poor that they could not be used—perhaps the lateness of the hour when they were attempted had something to do with that!

THE hospitality of the hostess chapters at Convention will always be remembered with pleasure. Nothing was left undone which might add to the pleasure and comfort of visitors. More than this, the same spirit of hospitality was shown everywhere that Pi Phis had the opportunity to meet the girls who were on their way to Yellowstone or returning home. In Chicago, where Martha McGrew, District of Columbia Alpha, gave a tea at the Century of Progress for the girls on the special train, in St. Paul, at Cody, at Salt Lake City, where the chapter welcomed all comers—everywhere we were made to feel that the resident Pi Phis were giving us gracious welcome. To them all, we give grateful appreciation.

INTEREST at Convention centered around the conference groups that were a feature. They brought out much interesting discussion, much exchange of methods and opinions. Said one delegate to the editor after one of the conferences, "This is the best part of Convention!" So constructive a program is well worth repeating on a more extended scale another time.

FOR THE first time, we start a college year without our fine Pennsylvania A chapter. For the forty years of its existence, this chapter was an honor to the fraternity. From it have gone forth some of the finest women who wear the Arrow. It is with deep feeling that we see it leave the chapter roll, and with the hope that we may never lose the interest and the loyalty of its members.

THE Endowment Fund Drive goes on, under the leadership of Florence Barnes Inghram. If you have not already subscribed, please do it now! Surely we do not want to lag behind other fraternities in this project, on which so many fine plans for the future development of the fraternity depend.

GATLINBURG became a place of national importance for one day on October eighth—the day the Great Smoky National Park commemorative stamp first went on sale there. "The Little Pigeon is flying high!" our Mrs. Duffield wrote of it truly, for on that one day the postal receipts there mounted into the thousands, receipts that normally are only hundreds for the whole year. Many people were attracted there for the occasion—we hope the Settlement School had many visitors that day!

THE opportunity to learn definite facts about the fraternity and its government is by no means confined to those who go to Convention. To those who read carefully the Information ARROW much is given. Further, it is perhaps not generally realized that the fraternity through Grand Council and the Central Office is glad at any time to give to clubs and chapters additional information. Questions will be answered at any time, and copies of the various manuals which the fraternity has issued for the guidance of its officers will be gladly loaned to clubs or chapters desiring them. Grand Council has for its ideal a fraternity which is interested in all the workings of the organization, and which makes the most of the chances given them to learn what is being done by their officers. Particularly should this be the duty of those who are elected to office by clubs and chapters. We can never know too much about the organization which has honored us with its membership.

THE Editor has been making a study of the general attitude towards scholarship not only in our own chapters, but as shown in the magazines of other organizations. Out of that study one fact stands clearly—everywhere there is a definite effort being made towards really high scholarship, towards doing away with the feeling that the brilliant student could not be interesting in other ways, and that A's were almost something to be hidden, at least from everyone but the scholarship adviser!

As fraternities, our attitude towards this problem is changing. True, we have in the past used every possible method to raise scholarship in our chapters—but mostly this has been done through penalties and punishments, with a few rewards for balance. From this method we are now getting away. We have come to believe that good scholarship is something that comes from within the individual, that it can only be attained by individual effort. The grades of a chapter as a whole, its standing in college, can be temporarily stimulated by punishment, perhaps, but the improvement will be only a temporary thing. The inevitable slump will come when the threat of the penalty is withdrawn. Permanent high rank can only come when every member of a chapter knows that his personal effort to do as well as he possibly can, instead of working for merely passing grades, is the one thing that really counts.

It is in this direction that chapters of all fraternities must turn if we are to hold our place in the college world. We are awake to the fact that only by being outstanding in every relation of college life can we continue to exist with our present strength. Our chapters must work to develop this feeling of the responsibility of the individual, to make current a feeling that real scholarship in the broad sense of the word is a major part of our duty to college and to fraternity.

SO OFTEN do we hear criticism of the fraternity system! So seldom do we hear its defense adequately presented! The article by Mrs. Collins, Iota Province Vice President, which we present here is fine in its statement of the case for the fraternities.

ADELE TAYLOR ALFORD

FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF A GREEK

In response to an editorial recently appearing in Silver and Gold, official student publication of Colorado University, I wish to offer a word of protest. Under the caption: "Fraternity Demise,"—this article, by the way, was "lifted" almost verbatim from Time in which it discusses the fraternity problem at Yale—the writer predicts the early passing of fraternities from the college campus, on the ground that their day of usefulness is over, and closes with the following paragraphs: "Observers of the death-bed scene now look questioningly at the system's brothers, big and little, in other colleges and universities in the country. At most schools they seem to be strong and healthy where they are allowed to preserve their functions of providing food and lodging for their members."

"In speaking of the uses of fraternities, the Yale News has only this to say: 'The only distinct and undeniable advantage of the modern fraternity is that it possesses all the facilities of a complete game of billiards.'

"Contemplation of the dismal scene forces the conclusion that the highly touted fraternal friendship and benefits of brotherly love are not enough to keep the system alive. It must give up the ghost when it is no longer needed in the realistic business of aiding its alma mater to care for the students."

Thus does the "Barbarian" dispose of his ancient enemy the "Greek." May I, a fellow Greek, deliver his funeral oration? I come to "praise him as well as 'bury' him."

There is rampant in the land today such a spirit of vandalism as the world has never previously known; all the more devastating and dangerous because it is universal. Men and women, boys and girls, educated and ignorant, seem possessed of a maniacal desire to tear down and cast on the scrap-heap, as outworn, everything old and tried. I feel that no one has the right to destroy an old custom or institution unless he has something constructive to offer in its place. Let these present-day iconoclasts have a care lest the debris which they leave become more unsightly than the images they would wreck.

The fraternities do offer to their members something more than good eating houses and pleasant recreation halls. They do develop and foster friendships that endure, and they do create a sense of loyalty, and a love of fair play that last through the years.

A fraternity house provides its members, while they are in college, with a home, pervaded by an atmosphere of culture and refinement. It is carefully supervised by a capable house-mother, and by upper classmen who appreciate the advantages of good breeding. For there is no doubt that the world demands much of a college graduate. It expects him to have, not only a well-trained mind, but a pleasing personality as well. He may have the mind of a Socrates, but if he has the manners of a boor and the appearance of a tramp, he has much prejudice to overcome before he can gain the ear of a listening world. As Doctor Libbey, one-time Professor of Philosophy at Colorado University, used to say to his pupils: "Manners should count for five percent but they count for ninety-five." Good breeding and careful grooming are the outward and visible signs of an inward and spiritual refinement.

One of the first promises that is exacted of a fraternity pledge is a promise of loyalty—loyalty to the fraternity and loyalty to the individual members within the fraternity. He is taught that he can no longer act as an individual answerable to himself alone, but that all that he does reflects either credit or discredit upon the entire organization. He is taught to look for the good in others; to foster and encourage their virtues and to minimize their faults; to forgive, even to seventy times seven. He is taught also to be loyal to the institution where he is receiving his education; to do all that he can to promote the standards and ideals for which it stands, and to take part in the activities which it sponsors. He is taught to set for himself a high standard of scholarship, of morals and of personal conduct. If these qualities are outworn and no longer of value to his college, then there is something wrong with the entire framework of our present-day civilization. I once remarked to Dean Hellems—also of Colorado University—that more was expected of fraternity people than of non-fraternity people, and he replied: "That is true. You have the choice of the outstanding students on the campus and we expect you to set the standards." Evidently he thought the fraternities had more to offer than just comfortable living quarters for college students.

Nor are fraternities any longer purely social in character. The majority, if not all, provide fellowships, scholarships, and loan funds for the benefit of their members; and some of the older and larger organizations support projects that are entirely altruistic in nature, such as the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School located in the Great Smoky Mountains in Tennessee.

Fraternity people are often accused of exclusiveness and snobbery. To the first accusation, I would reply that the size is limited only by the quality of the students seeking membership and by the number the fraternity feels that it can readily assimilate. Any organization that is too large becomes unwieldy and falls of its own weight. To the second accusation, I should say: the snobbishness of which the critic accuses the fraternity member is usually a figment of his own imagination. A person is oftentimes accused of being a snob when he is merely shy and reticent. However, there are snobs, and a snob is a snob wherever you meet him, either within or without an organization, but fraternity people recognize it as a quality that is cheap and ill-bred. If one is worthy, the world will soon recognize the fact, and if he is not, the less attention he attracts to himself, the better.

The trite statement that "man is a social animal" is as true today as it ever was. I doubt if the time will come when congenial spirits will cease to band together for mutual enjoyment of recreational and intellectual pursuits. It seems to me that it is much better than that college organizations should be national in scope in order to insure for them more careful supervision and a broader vision for the individual members. That Yale's President, James Rowland Angell, recognizes the value of national fraternities in the social activities of a college or university, is evidenced by the following statement: "The fraternity problem is the one outstanding problem left over from the old Yale. Its answer is not easy . . . but the fraternity has in the past years served as a very necessary part of Yale's social life and I am confident that when they have made sufficient adjustments to the changed conditions of the college plan (referring to the English plan of small residential colleges), these adjustments will satisfactorily take care of the enduring social interests of the undergraduates."

It would seem too bad, and ungrateful, to say the least, if a college which, in the days when it was struggling for its very existence had welcomed fraternities to its campus as the best means of housing its students, promoting its social life, and upholding its standards, should, when it had become financially able to build its own dormitories, cast aside those fraternities, with their expensive equipment, as an institution outworn.

Whenever our critics and detractors can offer a better and more democratic system for fostering and regulating the social activities of present-day college life, we Greeks, with the good-sportsmanship our fraternity life has taught us, are ready—paraphrasing one of our American poets—to fold our tents like the Arabs and as silently steal away.

HALLIE CHAPMAN COLLINS, Colorado Alpha

I BELIEVE

I BELIEVE in the college fraternity, creator of friendships.

I BELIEVE in its quick sympathies, and its helping hand.

I BELIEVE in its brave idealism, stirring every valiant emotion, rousing every potential talent.

I BELIEVE in its compelling drive for sound scholarship, for genuine culture, for clear-eyed honesty, for business integrity.

I BELIEVE in the college fraternity, maker of men.

Convention

"I WENT TO CONVENTION!"

By HELEN RUTH CHODAT

I WENT to Convention!" Say it softly, and with a little gasp. Say it proudly, with the wish that every Pi Phi might have been there with you.

I did go to Yellowstone last summer as an active chapter delegate. The bloom has not worn off, and I hope it never does! When I attempt to describe to someone my beautiful experience I find that it is hard to disentangle my thoughts so that sunsets and snow-capped mountains and lovely girls and fraternity legislation arrange themselves into their separate pigeon-holes. Sometimes the memory of a horseback ride and the scent of pine reminds me of a girl I met, or of the perfection of a Settlement School product! And the greatest joy of all—that of actually living as a part of the spirit of international viewpoint—is supplemented and enriched by thoughts of Old Faithful by moonlight or of Miss Onken in a white dress, gracefully presiding in Convention Hall.

The warm, vibrant feeling that I experience whenever I think, hear or read of Convention has become a permanent part of me. The invaluable college acquaintances I made, from Florida to Oregon; the contacts with the charming women who are no longer merely "names-one-must-learn"; and my renewed faith and pride in the ideals of our fraternity—these are the things I brought home with me, but not in my baggage. These are the things I would have every Pi Beta Phi claim for her own!

INEZ SMITH SOULE

THE heart and soul of Convention! The person who typifies all the things for which Pi Beta Phi stands—Inez Smith Soule. Sixty-seven years of life in the fraternity, watching it grow from twelve girls to 25,000, from one little chapter of pioneers among college women, to seventy-nine—these have been hers. To those who have had the privilege of knowing her at previous conventions she has brought new inspiration this time with her unflinching interest in every activity of the fraternity. What the girls of today think of her can best be given in the characterization of her that appeared in the Pi Phi Geyser, the daily of this Convention. "Indescribably individualistic is Inez Smith Soule. Any attempt to transfer her enthusiasm, her keen humor, and her lovable charm into the category of printed words fails from the outset. There is an inner radiance expressed by her actions which finds no other medium.

Conventions would indeed be strange without her. Her enjoyment of them cannot fail to increase another's pleasure. She has missed very few such gatherings because she has found in them such delight.

Pi Beta Phi's earliest hope for attaining the beautiful and the good seems crystallized in the lives of our Founders. To them we owe the dream and the realization of the mighty group founded as I. C. and now acclaimed as Pi Beta Phi."

EMMA PATTON NOBLE, CONVENTION GUEST

AN INTERESTING figure at Convention was Emma Patton Noble, Grand President of the fraternity in 1878. She has a most keen and vivid interest in fraternity affairs, and has kept in unusually close touch with active chapters. For a year she was chaperon of Nebraska Beta chapter, and for years has been with Oklahoma Alpha in the same capacity. At Stillwater she has made for herself a fine place in the life of the college community.

Mrs. Noble brought with her to Convention a letter of greeting which Kappa Kappa Gamma sent to Pi Beta Phi Convention in 1878. This Grand Council sent to the Convention of Kappa Kappa Gamma, which followed ours in the Yellowstone, and it was read in the Kappa Convention, and published in their Convention paper, the Dart. The letter follows:

"Kappa Kappa Gamma sends greetings, with best wishes for the prosperity and happiness of your members. While the key does not unlock the door into the same mystic circle into which the arrow of I. C. pierces, yet each opens the way to the higher walks of life which lead into gardens scented with the sweet perfume of sisterly love, where happy groups bound by silver cords of friendship hand in hand are striving to attain a height upon which personal independence shall build the citadel of virtue and womanly character which shall be the keynote of the citadel arch. May the arrow of I. C. pierce every difficulty and the key of Kappa Kappa Gamma unlock every barrier in the way, until our lives may be spotless in the sunlight of the coming morn."

The letter is perhaps the first evidence on record of Panhellenic spirit.

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF CONVENTION

By RUTH WILSON, Kentucky Alpha

CONVENTION was a colorful pageant portrayed by actors who perform for the love of their art, against a backdrop that could have been conceived only by the inspired hand of nature, the master artist.

It was a drama that would have made the most "hard-boiled" dramatic critic, jaded from too many Broadway openings, rush pell-mell to his typewriter and enthusiastically pound out a review replete with superlatives and pierced with exclamation points.

The real enjoyment of a play often begins when one first thinks of purchasing tickets. For me at least this great show of Convention began with a scrap of paper, a Western Union telegram, to be exact, from the Grand President. It asked that a private secretary, harassed by the mere thought of degree requirements, schedule cards, and filing cabinets, shut up her shiny Royal and go "Out where the West Begins," to pinch-hit for the P. V. P. who was unable to take advantage of a well-earned trip. Like a snowball sliding down hill that increases its size with each revolution, just so did each new scene in the picture increase the pleasures that went to make up the whole. It gained momentum when tiny golden arrows, bobbing up in the station of Chicago, made me realize that soon would be staged a revival of old friendships with perhaps an "all star" cast. Then, too, there was the possibility that just around the stage wing some new friend would appear to take the center stage for a moment at least.

train reservations and keeping track of luncheon engagements for college presidents, you'll appreciate the glorious enjoyment that was mine when I realized that there was in this old world such a man as Mr. Max Goodwill. He was the fairy god-father who, with one wave of the wand, could make trains and busses and meal tickets appear like rabbits from a silk hat. I recommend him wholeheartedly to all conventions. Add to this the fact that in the lottery of room numbers I drew that of a charming Iowa delegate, and you have the perfect atmosphere of Convention, as far as I was concerned. I revelled in being treated as though I were a cross between an infant in need of tucking into bed, and a college freshman who, having failed to bring her fancy dress costume, looked longingly at her roommate's green pajamas with obvious results—a Chinese coolie!

This was typical of the spirit that permeated the "checkerboard of nights and days" when we lived and worked and played for Pi Phi. It was the background against which were reflected the gay colors, the lights, and the shadows that formed the setting. I have only to shut my eyes in order to breathe again that pungent, pine-scented air and see flashing before me the kaleidoscope of events. The curtain rises, and there is Frankie Curtis with her hat tied rakishly under her chin—a style copied by the shy little unorganized bride we met on the yellow bus, after her husband had remarked that he thought our Frankie looked "kinda cute." I can hear now the rollicking tunes of the songs we sang when the Province officers played hookey and went gallivanting off to the Canyon. I can feel anew the keen disappointment that was ours when our well-rehearsed harmony of "Springtime in the Rockies" fell on deaf ears because our audience was centering its attentions on Old Faithful Inn's delightful dinner when we drove up at seven o'clock that evening. Now I am with Epsilon Province, slipping stealthily down Grand Council Hall to serenade the officers. How chic our superiors looked in their variegated negligees as they emerged from their rooms bearing boxes of candy from Miami. We are still wondering whether the candy was meant as a reward for services rendered or was in the nature of "hush money."

Can you forget those clever little favors that decked our places each evening at dinner? Many of us realized that hours of work were back of them and that the members of the hostess chapters had spent time and talent in their preparation. The tiny salt bags, the note books, the candy "U's," the miniature boulders secured by the Colorado Alpha girls in a rhythmic illustration of "Bend Down Sister," the Indian tepees made from pointed drinking cups, all proved conclusively that Pi Phi are ingenious. I can hear the babel of tongues in the dining room, the mingling of the soft Southern drawl that economized on "R's," with the brisk, peppy, staccato tones of the Northern girls, and over all the voice of the Province officer that once emerging would "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia."

Then there was Stunt Night with its display of talent and its even greater display of esprit de corps. Let us not forget the untiring efforts of those boys who helped Mrs. Purdunn get the proper lighting on Louise Richardson's profile in the Middlebury College stunt. Truly we saw our Louise in a new light! The stage lost a great comedian when education won an English instructor!

Early morning scenes invariably were characterized by the mad scramble to wheat cakes and sausage with disappointing results to our waistlines. Midnight saw most of us unwilling to seek our beauty sleep. Instead we listened intently to the glamorous tales of the far West told in the buffet to the accompaniment of ice cream and coca-colas.

Let us take a peek at the Fancy Dress Ball. There were Mickey and Minnie Mouse cavorting mischievously around the bustled skirts of the delegate from Missouri Beta, who carried off first prize in her wine and silver blue costume that transported us for the moment to Monmouth College in the days of '67. There too was a white satined Indian princess. By no stretch of the imagination could we conceive of her as ever having "bitten the dust" with the other braves. There were dancers from the steppes of Russia, warm in their white fur and spangles. There were Hula-Hula girls from the South Seas who shook tantalizing grass skirts. There were Arabs sweltering under their grease-painted complexions and crepe-hair beards, who glanced enviously at the maidens clad to all appearances only in barrels! The señoritas came from California, a dozen strong. And even though the delegate from Kentucky did get in line with them by mistake, she was cosmopolitan enough to join lustily in their song, "California, Here I Come," instead of moaning low, "Weep No More, My Lady." Over there marched Pierrette, such a darling one with snow white hair. After all where did we get this false notion that all Pierrettes should be sixteen year old coquettes? Personally, I like mine tempered with a few years of wisdom. No prettier one could be found than our Pi Phi winner. But hush! Here comes a member of the Northwest Mounted Police as straight and as trim as a James Oliver Curwood character! It is difficult to realize that it is Manitoba Alpha on parade.

Our Convention pageant would not be complete without at least a glimpse at the Kappa Province party in honor of the Grand Secretary. I lugged my Mexican hat half way across the continent just to show an interested family what the well-dressed Texan is wearing this season. Well planned, little Mary Bywaters! We had a grand time.

There are so many scenes I'd like to mention: the Arrowcraft Exhibit where were displayed the gay quilts, the cunning fans, the useful bags; Recreation Day, when the mermaids carried off the silverware with little effort; the midnight feasts behind closed doors and the breakfasts for Grand Council; the Chapter Exhibits, where galley ships and silver dollars and speedways held us spellbound.

Now the scenes are shifting and the spotlight is on the Banquet. Here was the climax we can never forget. Long after time has dimmed the other scenes and relegated them into the limbo of forgotten things, the banquet will remain brightly before our eyes. Old Faithful, just to prove its name, added the proper touch to an already appropriate setting. Its beauty cannot be put down in words; neither can its spirit be discussed. Only through participation in it could one possibly realize its perfection! I shall carry with me as long as there are links in the chain of my arrow, the memory of Miss Onken's voice as she called out the names of our beloved Founders. The wine and blue candles will forever burn brightly in the secret places of our hearts!

There was for most of us an epilogue—the trip home. To me it provided an opportunity to know both "Mother" Noble and Fae Huttenlocher.

Yes, the curtain is down. The applause has died out and the audience is slowly wending its way out of the theater. The actors have removed their make-up and have folded their costumes and put them away. Perhaps they will be resurrected for another performance two years hence. But in the years to come when Pi Phis gather in the "Green Room" of the theater of memory, they will recall those gay, glad, happy days of the summer of 1934 when

"Each ray of sunlight and each drop of rain,
Seem to me like the gold and the pearls of my Arrow.
Until I die, Pi Beta Phi,
My heart belongs to you."

DISTINCTION FOR ACTIVE GIRL

THOSE of us who were at Convention will remember the delegate in the wheel chair, Edith Reed, Minnesota A, who contributed much to the interest of the sessions. A student in the Engineering School of the University of Minnesota, to graduate next June, she drew so fine a plan for the $2,000,000 bridge to be erected across the Missouri river at Omaha that it was accepted as the prize winner in a contest. Her work in architecture should win her future recognition. The plan was drawn while she was in bed last spring recuperating from the automobile accident which finally sent her to Convention in a wheel chair. She is one of the most prominent girls on her campus, and president of Minnesota A.

Honor to Our Grand President!

By INEZ WEBSTER, Illinois Δ

IN A setting altogether fitting and proper on June 7, 1934, Amy Burnham Onken was given the degree of Master of Arts, an honor she richly deserves. It was an occasion which will linger long in the memory of those who were privileged to have a part of it.

It was very fitting that Monmouth College, where Pi Beta Phi was founded, should be the one to express to the world appreciation for a woman like Miss Onken, who has been the fraternity's inspiration for so many years and such an exponent of high ideals for college women.

In the auditorium, where the commencement exercises were to be held, Pi Phis from near and far were gathered. A place was reserved for members of the fraternity and we joined the Illinois A chapter, Mrs. Stoolman, Grand Treasurer, Mrs. Webster, the Province President, Mrs. Palmer, former supervisor of chapter accounting, active girls from Illinois B-Δ, and alumnae from six or eight chapters.

As the program opened with the organ march, the audience rose and the procession filed by—Dr. McMichael, President of the college for many years, led the black-clad men and women in caps and gowns. He was followed by the speaker of the day, the candidates for degrees of honor, including Miss Onken, the trustees of the college, the faculty, and the graduating class.

First came music, then a splendid address, the distributing of diplomas, student honor awards, conferring Doctor of Divinity Degrees upon three men, and then Pi Beta Phi's moment had arrived. Miss Potter, Dean of Women, who had held the same office at Northwestern University when Miss Onken was a student there, stepped forward and presented Miss Onken. Adding a final touch of sentiment to the occasion, Dr. McMichael had asked our founder, Miss Campbell, to place the hood upon Miss Onken. It was an inspiring moment, one which may never come again. What pride and satisfaction that founder must have felt!

We were reluctant to leave the auditorium, but out on the campus found happy laughter and chatter, men to take pictures, friends to greet, things of interest to see, and new Pi Phi sisters to meet. The day ended with a Pi Phi luncheon, and we all basked in reflected glory, when Miss Onken came in with arms full of flowers, her face wreathed in smiles.

In presenting Miss Onken, Dean Potter said:

"MR. PRESIDENT:

I have the honor to present, as a candidate for the honorary degree of Master of Arts, Amy Burnham Onken, a woman whose fine abilities are and always have been devoted to good things.

Miss Onken received her Bachelor's Degree from Northwestern University in 1908.

We of Monmouth College know her best through her interest in student activities, particularly in the fraternity world. She believes in college men and women—in their power, in their purpose, in their ability to and their desire to maintain those high standards and fine ideals of which she is ever a staunch defender.

For many years a member of the Grand Council of the Pi Beta Phi fraternity, Miss Onken is now serving that organization for the fourteenth year as its Grand President.

Under her guidance the standards of scholarship of her fraternity have advanced in marked degree. I can but believe that the results of this effort have had their effect on college students in general.

Her leadership is largely responsible for the definite stand which her fraternity has taken on moral questions involving social contacts and habits of living. In this, too, I can but believe that she has made a significant contribution to the college world.

I am happy to present Miss Onken as a candidate for the honorary Master's Degree."

OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED TO MEMBERS OF PI BETA PHI

Pauline Arnold, Illinois Delta, vice president of the newly-formed Market Research Corporation of America, suggests that there may be many Pi Phi alumnae who would be interested in taking care of occasional assignments of research work for her company in their own communities. The company assists advertising agencies and manufacturers in the collection of information from consumers—the people who actually buy advertised products.

Briefly, the requirements for becoming a member of her field staff are: an inquiring turn of mind, and an ability to interview strangers and get information from them. It is an excellent type of work for the house wife or the business woman (or perhaps a Pi Phi husband or son) who has free time to fill with an unusual and interesting occupation. For more details about the work, write to Miss Pauline Arnold, Market Research Corporation of America, Rockefeller Center, New York, N.Y.

Fraternity Month wants subscription and single copy sales representatives on every college and university campus, preferring, naturally, fraternity men and women. Those of your members who care to represent this leading Greek magazine will find liberal commission is paid. Full details will be forthcoming if you write The Fraternity Month, 2642 University Avenue, Saint Paul, Minnesota.

Formal, the new monthly magazine for college Greeks to be published early this fall, invites student writers, poets, humorists and cartoonists to submit their work for consideration.

Formal is reputed to be a high-type college magazine of personal interest to sorority women and fraternity men. It is not to be another humor magazine. Its editorial content is to be of excellent caliber featuring undergraduate writers in addition to renowned professional contributors.

Students wishing to submit manuscript on fiction, non-fiction, poetry, prose, humor or cartoons are requested to send this material to Formal Publishing Company, 505 Fifth Avenue, New York, accompanied by an addressed stamped envelope to insure return of material not accepted. All manuscript accepted will be paid for on date of publication at a rate based on the merit of the material and becomes the property of the publisher.

Undergraduates wishing to act as campus sales representatives for Formal on a liberal commission basis, are requested to get in touch with the publishers. In most cases, there is only one representative to a school.

The Installation of Ontario Beta

PI PHIS arrived by train and automobile in London, Ontario, October 28 and 29, and were cordially greeted by the members of Upsilon Iota Sigma and their alumnæ group. Their outstanding hospitality and enthusiasm added tremendously to the inspiration of the two days we spent in London.

Immediately after lunch Sunday, Pi Phis and those to become members of Pi Beta Phi by the next evening, met in a private room in the hotel. Many of us met Miss Onken for the first time and felt the strength and friendliness of her personality. Through the pledging, initiation, and brief installation ceremonies when Upsilon Iota Sigma became Ontario Beta of Pi Beta Phi, the Grand President showed her real interest in each individual girl. Miss Onken was ably assisted throughout by Mrs. Ray H. Finger, Beta Province President.

Tea was served immediately following pledging, and our acquaintances became real friendships as our association with each other lengthened. While the newly pledged Pi Phis heard the constitution, members from Ontario A and Michigan B prepared the attractive chapter house for initiation under Miss Onken's and Mrs. Sipherd's direction. Mrs. Sipherd, a resident of London until a short time ago, was formerly the only Pi Phi in the city and was instrumental in making the installation of Upsilon Iota Sigma possible. Later, many of us went to the homes of the excited pledges to spend the evening.

Initiation began early Monday morning with the ceremony first performed for Mrs. K. P. R. Neville, wife of the Registrar. I am sure that those of us who had participated in several initiations before this one, and who will attend more in the future, felt that this one at London would always represent what all ideal ceremonies should be. Our experience here will always occupy a definite place among those we have enjoyed in Pi Beta Phi.

The installation was formally completed by six in the evening, and at 8:30, seventy-eight Pi Phis assembled in the hotel dining room for the traditional banquet. There were nine chapters of Pi Beta Phi represented, including Ontario B with their twenty actives and twenty alumnæ. Gretchen Eckel, chairman of arrangements for installation, acted as toastmistress. After toasting the King, and singing "God Save the King" and the "Star Spangled Banner," Miss Onken welcomed the new chapter into Pi Beta Phi fraternity. Marjorie Dampier, first president of Ontario B, then briefly addressed us. Clara Hall Sipherd, Iowa B, explained the untiring efforts of Upsilon Iota Sigma to become a chapter of the national Pi Beta Phi fraternity. Mrs. Neville next repeated the many reasons for their desire to be installed, and related many details of interest concerning the relation of the active chapter in London to their university. After Pi Phi songs had been sung, the banquet was appropriately concluded with the "Pi Phi Anthem." We who were welcoming the new chapter realized even more keenly by the end of this day the opportunities in a national fraternity in general, and the worth of the possible relationships to every chapter in particular.

All who participated in the installation of Ontario B owe a debt of gratitude to Miss Onken, Mrs. Finger, Mrs. Sipherd, and our new Pi Phi sisters for the inspiration we received in our turn while with them in London.

UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO

HISTORY

Western University, since 1923, by Act of the Legislature, designated University of Western Ontario, was granted in 1878 by a Provincial charter the right to confer "Degrees in Arts, Science, Literature, Law, Medicine, and Engineering." Actual instruction in Arts was begun in 1881, but in 1885, because of financial stress, the Arts department was closed, though its sister faculty, Theology, continued its existence uninterrupted. The Medical School opened its doors in 1882, and has not missed a year since, though its organization was completely changed in 1912 when it was taken over by the Board of Governors of the University from the company of medical practitioners who had originally owned it. Theology without Arts proved disappointing, so the Arts College resumed its functions in 1896. Since then its progress has been consistent and steady, although it passed through some trying years before the authorities of the Church of England in Canada, under whose ægis the whole University has been from its inception, sought the cooperation of the Municipality of London to help maintain the life of the institution. In 1908, this partnership, begun in 1906, was further changed so that the control now rests jointly with the City of London and the Province of Ontario. The first independent Faculty of Public Health in Canada was instituted in 1912.

From the date of reorganization in 1908, Huron College, the real mother of the institution, has been affiliated with the University. Other institutions within the fourteen counties mentioned in the enabling acts of 1908 and 1923 have been admitted to the privileges of affiliation. The institutions are: Assumption College at Sandwich, under the order of St. Basil; Ursuline College at London, under the control of the Ursuline Sisters; Waterloo College at Waterloo, Lutheran; and Alma College at St. Thomas, United Church. The first three of these affiliated colleges give the complete four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts. The last has junior college status and confines its instruction to the first two years of the general arts course.

Everywhere the University now receives the status of a standard undergraduate institution. The Medical School is rated "A" by the American Medical Association. The degrees in Arts are accorded the highest recognition of the Department of Education of Ontario and are accepted by the leading graduate schools in the United States as readily as their own B.A. degrees. The University enjoys the same colonial affiliation possessed by any of her sister Canadian institutions.

DESCRIPTION

The University of Western Ontario is situated on a hill about a mile from the city limits. The main campus is approached by a long avenue which crosses the Thames River. The campus consists of two hundred and seventy acres of land including a golf course (leased to the London Hunt and Country Club) which adds considerably to the beauty of the site. It is described by unprejudiced observers as unsurpassed in natural beauty elsewhere in Canada. Adequate space for outdoor sports is provided.

Before the erection of any buildings on the campus their location was carefully planned. There are already three buildings, fine examples of collegiate Gothic architecture. These are the arts building, the science building, and a new library opened this fall. The stadium is an important part of the campus equipment and provides facilities for the playing of intercollegiate rugby. To provide easy access to the grounds, the University built its own bridge over the Thames River and secured the right of way to the bridge-head on the city side.

AIRVIEW OF CAMPUS, UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO, LONDON, ONTARIO

The buildings on the Arts Campus: Main Building, Natural Science Building, Library, Stadium, Somerville Field, Power Plant, Tennis Courts, Golf Course.

The buildings on the Medical Campus: Medical School, Institute of Public Health.

Affiliated Colleges: Huron College, London, Brescie Hall, London, St. Peter's Seminary, London, Alma College, St. Thomas, Assumption College, Sandwich, Waterloo College, Waterloo.

NATIONAL VIEWPOINT IS . . .

Cooperation, efficiency, accuracy, promptitude; intellectual perception of the fraternity as a great unit, of which each individual is a part; realization of it as the great apex to which each chapter, each active member, each alumna, is attached; or as a center from which all who are Pi Phi are radii, ever stretching outward, upward, and onward!

PI PHI PERSONALITIES

TRUE SERVICE TO HUMANITY

SUCH is the work of Gladys Henry Dick, Nebraska B, and her husband, also a doctor, George F. Dick. For years they have devoted their lives to the study of the causes, prevention and cure of scarlet fever, and their success has been so distinguished that last fall they were summoned to Edinburgh to receive the coveted Cameron Award, given "to the person who, in the course of the five years immediately preceding, has made any highly important and valuable addition to practical therapeutics."

Between them, they have solved the problem of scarlet fever, removed its terror from childhood. Not only have they identified the cause of the disease as a form of streptococcus infection, but they have devised a test to determine whether a child is immune or susceptible to the disease. Further, they have carried their researches to the point of developing a vaccine to prevent the fever, and an anti-toxin to cure it if it has already developed.

The prize awarded to them has only twice before been given to an American by the Senatus Academicus of the University of Edinburgh, once to Dr. Harvey Cushing of Boston, and once to Dr. George Minot and Dr. William P. Murphy, also of Boston. It has been given to only the most rarely distinguished foreigners, such as Madame Curie, for her work with radium.

Mrs. Dick, as she prefers to be known outside of her scientific work, lives in Evanston. She is a very busy woman, active in interesting work, such as the Evanston Branch of the Child Welfare Society, in which she was in 1932-1933 president of the Senior Board. She is now connected with the John McCormick Institute for infectious diseases.

She has a charming personality, with versatility as well as ability, and the Pi Phis are always happy to have her at alumnae meetings when her time permits. They are very fond of her, and very proud of her.

Truly $\Pi B \Phi$ has in her a member who is living up to the very best of its ideals!

A PI PHI REVIEWS THE CURRENT THEATRE

By MARY EMRICH VAN BUREN, Illinois Beta-Illinois Epsilon

THE theatre holds magic! Drama is a human instinct universal through the centuries. Imagination is our playhouse, where we satisfy our need to play actively, or to live a play through the trained ability of an interpreter.

Beatrice Edmonds, California A, has won distinction for herself in the field of interpretative drama. A cultural and intellectual environment, world travel and a wide background of training and experience have all had their share in contributing to the success of her most interesting career. Her dramatic ability was first recognized during her student days at Stanford University where she worked under the direction of Gordon Davis in the theatre workshop he established there. After receiving her B.A. degree, she returned to her home in San Diego, California, where, for six years, she participated in Little Theatre work, playing leading parts in more than twenty plays.

New York sends so few plays on country-wide tours that the West Coast is denied the opportunity to share in present day drama. Miss Edmonds foresaw that the current New York theatre might be best reflected by interpretative play reviews. These reviews, as eventually presented by Miss Edmonds, perform delightfully that much needed service of presenting the current plays that are most worthy of attention. At Holiday time each year, she spends a month in New York at the height of the theatrical season. From the plays seen there, she selects her annual repertory. Each series of reviews, consisting of five plays each, presents a symmetrical and complete survey of the season in the theatre. Her keen powers of observation and judgment in analyzing the dramatic situation in the metropolis, as well as her ability to make the play she chooses live when she reviews it, have gradually won for her a solid reputation and following on the Pacific Coast. So compelling are her character delineations that one feels as though the actual performance has been witnessed.

More than twenty-five different clubs and cities through California have taken this method of bringing the theatre to their audiences.

Her repertory has included such outstanding stage successes as "Mrs. Moonlight," "Mourning Becomes Electra," "The Breadwinner," "As Husbands Go," "Hay Fever," "Another Language," "Animal Kingdom," "Dinner at Eight," "Biography," "The Late Christopher Bean," "Alien Corn," "Ah Wilderness," "Mary of Scotland," "The Lake," and "The Pursuit of Happiness." These titles all testify to the caliber of play Miss Edmonds interprets.

That Beatrice Edmonds should succeed in an art, which, she herself introduced to California audiences, is not surprising. She has radiant youth, beauty, a charming personality, and an intelligent conception of the limitations met with in the interpretative review of a play. Critics have been most gratifying in their praise of her art. Havrah Hubbard, Critic, Lecturer, and Little Theatre Director says of her:

Extended experience . . . has developed in her a keen sense for dramatic contrasts, skill in sharply defining characters, freedom in emotional expression, and ability to project exactly and positively that which she wishes to convey. This technical proficiency, combined with a voice well trained and finely modulated, a charming personality, and compelling stage presence, make her a play reviewer of genuine worth and uncommon qualities.

Beatrice has a Pi Phi sister, Maxine Edmonds Gildred (Mrs. Theodore), Oregon A, a Δ Γ mother and a Δ T father.

THE WORK OF DR. MARY HARRIS

"RE-EDUCATION for normal life," might be the name given to the system used at the Federal Institution for Women, at Alderson, West Virginia, in dealing with women who have for some reason or other gotten so far out of step with civilization and the social system as to be convicted of a crime against society. The system and its results are attracting international attention, so great has been its success in restoring these women to a normal participation in life.

Much of this success is to be attributed to the work done by the director of the Institution, Dr. Mary Harris, Pennsylvania B. Her appointment as superintendent came to her as a climax to a career devoted to similar work among unfortunate women. She brought to it a broad sympathy, a thorough training, and a delightful personality that carried with it leadership and originality of ideas.

Dr. Harris is the daughter of Dr. John Howard Harris, for thirty years president of Bucknell University, and there she was initiated into Pennsylvania B chapter. After this she studied abroad for two years.

When she returned to this country, her friend, Dr. Katharine Bement Davis, was Commissioner of Correction of New York City, and through her, Dr. Harris was appointed superintendent of women at the Women's Workhouse in New York, where she remained for three years. She went from there to become Superintendent of the New Jersey Reformatory for Women. Then came the war, and she became a worker for the government in connection with the detention facilities for women arrested around the camps. From that time she was superintendent of the State Home for Girls in New Jersey, until March 1925, when the first appropriation was granted by Congress for the Federal Institution for Women, and she was made its first superintendent.

There she has remained until the present time, carrying out her unusual ideas for the treatment of women prisoners with distinguished success.

FEDERAL INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTION FOR WOMEN

ated into Pennsylvania B chapter. After graduating there, she received the degree of Ph.D., from the University of Chicago. For some years afterwards she lived in Baltimore, teaching in preparatory schools for girls, among

The Institution is never referred to as a prison—rather, it is a school which emphasizes the industrial form of training, in addition to the ordinary scholastic branches. The effort throughout is towards the normal way of living. The women live in home-like cottages, with a room for each, and these they may make as attractive as they please. The surroundings are all attractive, the buildings more like those of a college than anything else, the grounds well cared for, the views in every direction over the beautiful Shenandoah county inspiring. Its location is a high plateau in the midst of hills, with the Greenbrier River below, forty miles beyond White Sulphur Springs; a setting of rare natural loveliness. Dr. Harris believes that the beauty of the country has much to do with the spiritual awakening of the women under her care.

An institution entirely for women, under the management of women, and one to which no woman may be sent for a second time! If she fails after a fair trial to benefit by the work done for her, she cannot return to profit again by its advantages. The school can accommodate only five hundred and its privileges cannot be given to those who show an inability to profit by them. The type of women who come under the care of the institution, while not numerous, are those that can cause devastation and demoralization beyond any other group unless it can be restored and induced to take its place in the ranks of the "average citizen."

Dr. Harris herself says, "Let us not be frightened by the cries of coddling the prisoner and deterred from doing the best we can to restore this perplexing minority to normal life. Unless we maintain correctional institutions of such a character that they create respect for law and government instead of breeding resentment and a desire for revenge, we are meeting lawlessness with stupidity and making a travesty of justice."

A woman of real culture and great charm, her personal example must do much for her charges. She has gathered about her a staff of women of similar ideals and intelligence, and their aim is to teach above everything else habits of health, industry, and thrift, and to develop a desire for success in life after their charges have gone out into the world. They allow every possible liberty of action, in fact there is only one small barred building and most of the women released go out on parole.

The experiment has succeeded. Of two hundred and seventy-seven women who have been released on parole, only two have had their paroles revoked—a statement which speaks for itself, and which pays tribute to the greatness of spirit of the woman who has so truly helped these women back into life.

MARGARET STOUGHTON ABELL

MARGARET STOUGHTON ABELL (Mrs. Charles A. Abell) of the Appalachian Forest Experiment Station, Asheville, N.C., is one of the only two women foresters in the United States Forest Service. Mrs. Abell was initiated by Illinois B in 1927. Her sophomore year she entered Iowa State College where she took the regular forestry course graduating in 1930 with the degree B.S. in Forestry. Her appointment as Junior Forester at the Experiment Station followed soon after her graduation.

Mrs. Abell says that in forest research work about one-third of the time is spent in the field collecting data on silvicultural characteristics and on tree growth and yield; the other two-thirds of the time are spent in the office compiling and interpreting the data and putting the results in the form in which they will be most useful. While she does not spend as much time in the woods as most people believe, she thoroughly enjoys the time she spends in the field and is also interested in the computational aspect of the office work.

THE EDITOR HEARS THAT:

Ruth Ann Walker, California A, piano pupil of Earl Fraser and Leopold Godowsky, member of Phi Beta, has opened a music studio in Los Angeles and is working as assistant to the music critic of the Los Angeles Express.

Edith Kelly Fetherston, Pennsylvania B, prominent in the National Garden Club movement is doing interesting work in paintings of garden subjects. Her picture "Bride's Orchids" was shown last spring in the Carnegie Art Gallery in Pittsburgh, and a large group of her pictures was exhibited last year in New York, at the Farargil Galleries.

Flo Cook, Washington A, had the distinction of making her very successful debut at La Scala Opera House in Milan, singing Mimi in La Boheme.

Mary Korn Cameron, Illinois B, greeted visitors in the replica of Wakefield, the birthplace of George Washington, at A Century of Progress Exposition. She wore charming colonial costumes in keeping with the setting.

Elfrieda Pope, New York A, brilliant daughter of well-known Elfrieda Hochbaum Pope, had the unusual experience of spending five months last year in one of the Voluntary Labor Science Camps for young people in Germany. She writes of it, "All are united in one body of citizens and workers—a community of people rejoicing in work, a singing community of workers."

Jeannette Waffle Owens, initiated last year into Pennsylvania B, last June won the degree of B.A. at the age of seventy-four, probably the oldest active ever initiated into any national social fraternity. She is also a member of Sigma Tau Delta. Her husband is William Gundy Owens, who has for 55 years been in the faculty of Bucknell.

Marian Jones, Tennessee A, won first prize in the Chattanooga Little Theatre play writing contest with a one-act play called "Bret Brachen." It was afterwards presented with great success by the Little Theatre, with the author in a leading part.

Mildred Winans Cochran, District of Columbia A, former holder of the Pi Phi Fellowship, has done much interesting work in retail merchandising, specializing in business correspondence. She was chosen Correspondence Adviser of the National Retail Dry Goods Association.

Helen Cook Zwick, Missouri A, is the first woman to be a member of the Board of Curators of Missouri University.

Frances Wilson McNulty, Virginia B, has had poems in the New York Times, Junior League Magazine, and the Lytic, during the past year.

Lily Logan Morrill, Louisiana A, of Cincinnati, is Southern Editor of Home and Garden Review.

Mildred Browning Flamer, North Dakota A, was elected president of the City Panhellenic in Fargo, North Dakota, last spring.

Jo Betsy Miller Allred (Mrs. James Allred) Texas B, of Wichita Falls, Texas, is the wife of the new governor of Texas.

Anne Hunt, Pennsylvania A, of Peoria, Illinois, held an interesting exhibition of water colors and pencil drawings in Chicago last winter, showing work done abroad during the two previous years.

Leona Buchwald, Maryland A, is supervisor of Educational and Vocational work in the city schools of Baltimore, and was the founder of the Students' Aid Association of that city. She is also a vice-president of the Goucher Alumnae Association.

Doreen Granger, Illinois Epsilon, is an "Attache de Chancellerie" at the Embassy of the United States, in Paris. Her French descent and knowledge of the language fit her splendidly for her work and have made her completely at home in her surroundings, and happy in all the travel and interesting social contacts which her position holds open to her.

Sara Eikenberry Sigler, Iowa B, former national officer in Pi Beta Phi, is receiving most favorable comment on her lectures before Garden Clubs. Her favorite subject is the "Flower Art of Old Japan," which she has found a fascinating study. She is honorary president of the Federated Garden Clubs of Iowa.

Charlotte Strong, Texas A, is doing interesting work as a violinist, as a pupil of such masters as Moody Dawson of Houston, Kenneth Rose at Ward Belmont, Leon Sametaine, Sylvain Noack, and the late Paul Kochanski.

Fay Randolph Wilson, Texas A, has studied harp under Edward Vito of New York and Caspar Readon of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and is doing brilliant work.

Miriam Simons Leuck, Illinois E, spent last year abroad working with her husband, Dr. Gerald J. Leuck. She has devoted her time to a research study of the medical and dental situations in Vienna, and the University of Chicago has already published two volumes of her research study of dental clinics.

Lorel Pruitt McKillop, Indiana A, is doing fine things in connection with education and child guidance, combining travel with study when her husband, Dr. Alan Dugald McKillop, was a research fellow of the Guggenheim Foundation, working at the British Museum in London. She is active in many organizations in Houston, Texas, including our own alumnae club.

Gertrude Harper Beggs, Colorado B, Ph.D. Yale, is teaching in an interesting school for the children of Missionaries at Tungchow, near Peking, China. We are indebted to her for the items from China which will appear in an early number.

Helen Bangs Clark, Kansas A, conducts a successful school of her own, called the Helen Clark School of Secretarial Training, the first private school for girls to give that sort of training in that part of the country. Most of her pupils have college degrees, and have come to her for the practical and cultural training required for really fine positions in secretarial work. She was herself trained in the Sarachon-Hooley School, in Kansas City.

AN INTER-CHAPTER LETTER

To: Pi Phi Everywhere
From: One Pi Phi to Another
Subject: A Pi Phi Tour of Europe

Now is the time for all smart Pi Phis to go abroad!

Steamship rates are low, railway fares are low, and the best hotels in Europe are welcoming tourists with open arms, excellent service, and delicious food—all at extremely reasonable prices.

With this in mind, plans are now being made for a Pi Phi tour of Europe next summer. The party will be conducted by an experienced director, who will take care of all tickets, hotel reservations, baggage, sightseeing arrangements, paying of bills and tips, etc.

Florence Smith, District of Columbia A, class of '29, will act as hostess, seeing that everyone gets acquainted and has a good time. She will suggest the theaters, night clubs, and places of amusement in the foreign cities most likely to afford pleasure and entertainment for the members of the party, and will assist them in their shopping expeditions. Before the trip, she will give suggestions on what clothes to take or what books you may want to read beforehand.

The group will sail from New York June 25 on the S.S. Statendam, the flagship of the Holland-America Line. They will visit England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, and France. Those who wish, and that will probably include the majority, may visit Italy before going to France.

If you want more information, write to Florence Smith, 2843 Ingersoll Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa.

Scholarship

IN AN endeavor to work out a more equitable system of grading the chapters upon scholarship, the Chairman of the Committee on Scholarship is preparing two new plans for the consideration of Grand Council and the chapters. A questionnaire, to be mailed to each chapter, will determine the method preferred by the girls.

Any system depends upon the availability of the necessary information on all campuses; the chapters have already received with their yearly supplies the revised scholarship blanks which request the necessary data for both of the proposed systems. The returns on these blanks may determine both systems to be impracticable. The new blank, National Scholarship Committee, Blank No. 2, replaces the two blanks heretofore used.

The committee on scholarship desires to be of every possible assistance to the girls and will bend every effort toward helping them make this an outstanding year for Pi Phi scholarship.

HIGHLIGHTS

NINA DAVIS, Montana A, led the Pi Phis in scholarship for 1933-34; graduating with honors she attained not only the highest Senior average but also the highest average in her class. Miss Davis was elected to Lambda Phi Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholarship fraternities, and was awarded the Laist medal for the highest general attainment of any girl in the class of 1934.

Ruth Kewley, of Pennsylvania A, was graduated with highest honors and elected to both Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. To her was awarded the highest honor given to a senior girl, the Oakleaf Medal.

Christina Meredith, Pennsylvania Γ, was awarded the Pi Phi Fellowship, earned a State Scholarship prize, captured departmental honors in Greek, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Rose Eleanor Brittain, Illinois B, and Elizabeth Woodward, Texas A, both merited election to Phi Beta Kappa. In addition, Miss Brittain graduated magna cum laude, won the Junior Scholarship Cup, and was nominated a member of Mortar Board. Miss Woodward graduated with highest honors and was initiated into the Ashbel Literary Society.

Roberta Von KleinSmid, California Γ, achieved Phi Kappa Phi, Beta Gamma Sigma, and Mortar Board, all honorary scholarship societies at the University of Southern California, as well as many non-scholastic honors.

A PI PHI WRITES:

"I don't believe anyone realizes the significance of Pi Beta Phi until she is moved about the country and settled in strange cities as I have been. To feel that one is welcome on an equal basis among people of similar ideals and habits in a new location is the most comforting feeling. I do not think that we have ever appreciated its possibilities."

Beekman Tower (Panhellenic)

ANNOUNCEMENT of a change in name of Panhellenic House, New York City, which in the future will be known as Beekman Tower (Panhellenic), is now being made by the Board of Directors of the Panhellenic House Association to fraternity groups throughout the country. Miss Sophie P. Woodman, representing Pi Beta Phi on the Board of the Panhellenic House Association, is taking an active part in shaping plans involved in the change of name.

According to the announcement of the Board of Directors, Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, president, one of the prime reasons for making the change is the necessity for increasing local patronage which should result in a future financial return to the fraternities whose original support made the House possible.

This step was taken after each individual director had taken the matter up with her respective fraternity group, each of which considered the matter carefully before the change was made. It was not without a pang of regret that those who built the Panhellenic House and worked so unceasingly for its success finally voted that the new name was for the best interest of the House and of the participating groups.

The announcement of the Board of Directors adds, however, that the policy of the Panhellenic will not be changed, that the same high standards which always have prevailed will continue as before, and that the status of the Panhellenic's relationship to the fraternity groups will remain the same. The Beekman Tower (Panhellenic), will continue to be the recognized fraternity headquarters in New York City for the accommodation of and service to fraternity members throughout the country. In addition, it will continue its functions as a center and meeting place for alumnae groups and for all active chapters in the vicinity of New York.

The New York City Panhellenic Club also will continue to maintain its headquarters at the Beekman Tower (Panhellenic), and the annual Founders' Day luncheons, banquets, regular monthly meetings, bridge parties, teas and other functions sponsored by fraternities, active and alumnae, will continue to be held at the House.

In the announcement which is being sent over Mrs. Hepburn's signature on behalf of the Board of Directors to fraternity groups and officers throughout the country, appreciation is expressed for the support accorded the Panhellenic House Association by the fraternities of the country as follows: "In the spring of this year we appealed to you for the purpose of re-enlisting the support of all fraternity women and undergraduates in the Panhellenic and since then, as shown by the decided improvement in the patronage of the House, we have had a most generous response, so that we now feel very much encouraged. Your continued interest and support are of vital importance to us."

The Utah Pi Phis more than lived up to the promise of hospitality they made to Pi Phis who went through Salt Lake on the way to and from Convention. They met trains, they kept the chapter house open most of the summer for any who could stay all night, they served meals for those who could stay over only between trains, they even got up at five o'clock in the morning to get breakfast for those who must be on their way early! They gave more than one dinner party, like the one for Ruth Barrett Smith and Adele Taylor Alford, when the two officers stopped over on their way to Yellowstone. That was a wonderful night. Most of the chapter were at the train to meet them and take them out to the house. There fifty actives and alumnae were present for dinner, a cooky-shine perfect in every detail, and how they did talk about Convention! The Utah A Sextet sang the songs they were later to make so popular at Convention, and the two hours were swiftly over. All together trooped to the train—the Yellowstone special for the Park help, the first through train to go up, and at the station they sang again—so sweetly that the members of Gene Quaw's orchestra on their way for their summer engagement at the Canyon Hotel, were attracted, applauded loudly—and ended by promising to take care of the two officers on the journey. They kept the promise, too, even to supervising their breakfast at West Yellowstone the next morning!

FIFTY YEARS IN COLORADO CELEBRATION
Broadmoor Hotel, Colorado Springs, Colo., April 29, 1934

50 Years in Colorado

By BETTY STOVALL

ABOUT the first of April, Pi Phis in Colorado and adjoining states received by mail an invitation which read as follows: "The Colorado State Association of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity cordially invites you to be present at its Founders' Day banquet and the meeting commemorating Pi Beta Phi's fifty years in Colorado at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs on April 28 and 29, 1934. Miss Amy Burnham Onken, Grand President, will be the guest of honor. All Pi Phis anywhere are urged to attend to renew old friendships and to make new ones." When the chosen date came, all roads led to the lovely little Colorado city in its gorgeous mountain setting and to the spacious Broadmoor Hotel. In due time, the Pi Phis arrived—two hundred and eighty-one of them, representing twenty-four chapters—spent two glorious days together.

Three events of the meeting stand out most vividly in the minds of everyone who attended. The first was a model initiation where it was our pleasure to add to our number Mrs. Harry C. Brown, whose interest in Pi Beta Phi and whose kindness to its members has brought such inestimable help to the fraternity in Colorado. Miss Onken presided—and for those of you who know her, there is no need to say more.

Later that evening we assembled for a banquet celebrating Pi Phi's fifty years in Colorado. Mrs. H. M. Corning presiding as toastmistress introduced Mrs. A. B. Trott who gave greetings from the Colorado Association; Mrs. Brown who offered a toast to Pi Phi; Virginia Grant who spoke on Colorado Alpha Today; Mrs. David Elliott, Colorado Alpha Memories; Betty Stovall, Colorado Beta Today; Miss Martha Kimball, Colorado Beta Memories; Mrs. Leonora Bosworth, A Pi Phi for Sixty Years; and Miss Onken, This Year in Pi Beta Phi. It was a delightful gathering which renewed our pride in our fraternity.

On Sunday, the program at the Founders' Day luncheon was just as interesting. Mrs. Guel Robb, the toastmistress, presented Mrs. L. Kent Robinson and Virginia Ellett, paying tribute to our founders; Charline Highberger and Louise Epperson, bringing greetings from the two Colorado active chapters; Mrs. Bosworth, reminiscing among her Pi Beta Phi memories; and Miss Onken, telling us a little about our living founders. Adjourning to the Little Theater, we were entertained by the active chapters until all too soon we found that it was time to say good-bye.

Looking back on it all, it seems to me that from that brief twenty-four hours each of us must have gotten a clearer vision of just what it means to be a Pi Phi and that we can say most sincerely from the bottom of our hearts, "God bless our Founders who had the vision of our fraternity and passed it on to us. May we ever keep faith with the ideals which they have exemplified for us as worthy of Pi Beta Phis."

Editors' Conference Dinner

MARY ALICE JONES, a member of the Contributors' Staff of the ARROW, represented the fraternity at the Midwest dinner of the Interfraternity Editors' Association and the National Panhellenic Congress Editors' Conference, held in Chicago in June. This time the women entertained the men, with Shirley Kresan Krieg, editor of the Themis of Zeta Tau Alpha and chairman of the N.P.C. Editors' Conference, and Frances Warren Baker, editor of the Triangle of Sigma Kappa, in charge of arrangements.

Representatives of twenty groups were present, and there was interesting informal discussion of current problems following dinner. Two topics were featured, "Increasing Revenue for Fraternity Magazines" led by Chester Cleveland of Sigma Chi, and "What the Greek Press Can Do about Anti-Fraternity Legislation," led jointly by Miss Helen Bower of the Key of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and George Starr Lasher, of the Rattle of Theta Chi.

NEWS FROM LITTLE PIGEON

THE STAFF 1934 - 35

The Settlement School Committee takes pleasure in announcing Mrs. Eunice Weaver, Illinois Z, as director of the School for the coming year. Mrs. Weaver has been house mother for Montana A for the past few years, and during that time has endeared herself to many Pi Phis. She is a graduate of the University of Illinois. Mrs. Weaver's daughter Dorothy Graham (Mrs. Robert) also a member of Illinois Z, belongs to the West Suburban Alumnae Club of Chicago.

MRS. EUNICE WEAVER, DIRECTOR

The committee received the resignation of Miss Maryalice Chaffee during convention. As Miss Chaffee asked to be relieved of her responsibilities at once and had gone to Yellowstone planning not to return to Gatlinburg, the committee accepted her resignation. Mrs. Weaver was one of the personnel of convention, and on the last day four of the committee who were also present at convention talked with her about the directorship of the School. After some consideration, she consented to serve as head resident until definite arrangements could be made, and after a few weeks at Gatlinburg, accepted the definite appointment as director. The committee sincerely appreciates the efforts she is making in behalf of the work in Gatlinburg.

Mrs. Emma Pattengill, whose Arrow Craft exhibit was of absorbing interest to visitors at Old Faithful, also made many friends at convention. In December Mrs. Pattengill closed a year of devoted service as manager of Arrow Craft. At this time the death of a member of her family called her home, and she returned to the school for only long enough to fill Christmas orders and close her books. She is once more in her home in Ames, Iowa, where her daughter is an active member of Iowa Gamma. Mrs. Pattengill undertook her work at Gatlinburg at a very difficult time. A letter from her, printed elsewhere in this department, shows her appreciation of the mountain people she dealt with and of the worth of the school. As her successor, comes another Ames Pi Phi, Mrs. Esther Weaver Snow. For a number of years Mrs. Snow's home has been in Los Angeles where she has been an enthusiastic member of the alumnae club, often handling Settlement School goods. She has had exceptional preparation for the managership of Arrow Craft, for she was trained under Mrs. Mary Atwater, one of the foremost weaving teachers in the country. In addition she has had teaching and commercial experience. With her daughter, Jane, who is in the second year of high school, she motored from California to Tennessee in time for the New Year.

From Iowa comes Ethel Irene Mitchell, the new supervisor of weaving. Mrs. Mitchell has her B.S. and M.S. degrees from Iowa

State College, but she had completed the normal training course for elementary school teachers at Illinois Teachers' College at Macomb, Illinois, and had taught school six years before going to Ames. Her time will be largely spent in supervising the weavers who work for Arrow Craft and in planning with its manager articles to be sold in the shop. Mrs. Mitchell has written enthusiastically of the mountain women and of her interest in the school and the beauty of its surroundings.

William King is back as principal of the school and teacher in the high school. In addition, he has charge of the boys' athletics, training the teams and taking charge on trips. Much of the life and spirit of any school depends on sports, and in Gatlinburg the interest in games not only fills this need and helps to keep up school attendance, but it furnishes wholesome school and community entertainment. The news of Mr. King's return was received with great enthusiasm in Gatlinburg.

Highly recommended from among the 1934 graduates at the University of Tennessee comes Mary Elizabeth Spencer. She is teaching home economics.

Missouri Γ again has sent a teacher to the Settlement School. This year it is Dorothy Douthit, who has second and third grades. Dorothy comes with two years' experience in teaching in Oklahoma and a very generous interest in her work.

Along with these new members of the Pi Phi family in Gatlinburg, there are others who have been at the School for some time. Mr. King would not consider himself new, nor would Jean Handley, although she has a new position. Jean is doing high school work now, filling the position made vacant by Pauline Whaling's marriage to Jack Huff. Mrs. Duffield has charge of the shop in the Mountain View Hotel. Waitress Parton assists at the main shop. Maggie Parton Murphy and Alice McCarter weave special orders. Mrs. McDonald heads the household department. Lucy Field, Texas A, remains as bookkeeper, and Virginia Moore as nurse. Don Smith teaches agriculture and manages the farm. After a summer term at the University of Tennessee, Eleanor Brabson and Miriam Swann are back teaching the primer class and the first grades, respectively. Mattie Huff, Iowa Γ , continues in the fourth grade and her sister, Stella, has fifth and sixth. Arlie Watson and Ambrose Ogle look after the stock and grounds.

SUMMARY OF THE WORK DONE AT THE SETTLEMENT SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETING

The Settlement School Committee, meeting at Gatlinburg, Tennessee July 16-23, 1934,—

1. Reviewed the year just past and found it good in spite of the changes in the staff and the closing of the dormitories;

2. Learned, upon examination of the treasurer's books, that the school was in a slightly stronger position financially than it had been in July, 1933, the time of the previous meeting;

3. Arranged to reopen the dormitories;

4. Filled vacancies on the staff;

5. Inspected the School properties and planned the necessary repairs and replacements;

6. Discussed the School and Gatlinburg community with the members of the local committee—Mrs. Steve Whaley, Mrs. Newt Clabo, Mr. Harve Reagan, and Mr. Charley Clabo—and received their assurances of appreciation and continued cooperation;

7. Accepted with gratitude interest money voted by the Alumnae Department at convention to be applied on the School indebtedness and used the $575.00 received this year on the mortgage rather than on the debt to the Settlement School Endowment—(the mortgage is now $3,325.00);

8. Attended a special meeting of the Gatlinburg Weavers' Guild at which there were harp and ballad singing and husband calling;

9. Received assurance from county officials of money to pay the regularly allowed salary for a junior high school principal;

10. Formulated manuals for the manager of Arrow Craft and the supervisor of weaving;

11. Planned for the year of 1934-35;

12. Felt deeply touched by the faithfulness of the staff at Gatlinburg and of the members of Pi Beta Phi throughout the country in maintaining the Settlement School at so efficient a level during a year of trial and uncertainty;

13. Realized more surely upon every contact with Gatlinburg people the need for the continuance of the Settlement School and its many human services.

MY GUEST BOOK

By GEORGIE M. DUFFIELD

(Mrs. Duffield, who is in charge of the shop in the Mountain View Hotel where Arrow Craft goods are sold, is a member of the School family and a most enthusiastic supporter of Pi Beta Phi in Gatlinburg. In her own inimitable way Mrs. Duffield chats of the visitors to her shop.)

As I turn the leaves of my guest book with its soft handwoven cover and its pages filled with interesting names and pleasant memories, I recall the young son of a Pi Phi mother whose loyal little soul kept him from buying elsewhere even when he found we had nothing in the way of a souvenir for small boys. Each day he would come to the door and sing out, "So this is the shop where there's nothing for little boys." Finally, in desperation, he asked, "What's the cheapest thing in the shop?" When I told him, he pulled fifteen cents out of his pocket and handed it to me saying, "Give me this mat. I'll give it to Mother for a surprise when we get home." I can still hear his sweet little voice, as he walked down the hotel lobby, chanting, "So this is the shop where there's nothing for little boys."

So, on through page after page of names, many of them those of our country's best known citizens!

What an inspiration it is to be thrown with a woman like Mrs. Charles D. Walcott of Washington, who before her marriage was Mary Vaux of Philadelphia! She is seventy-three, walks like a major general, doesn't smoke, doesn't drink, uses no make-up, yet with the loveliest, freshest complexion and eyes that just hold one, they are so clear and sparkling and intelligent. Her gray hair combed straight back and twisted in a small knot, she dresses simply but always in good taste. A woman of culture and breeding who entertains and is entertained by members of the best society in our country and moves as a treasured member in the scientific circles of Washington. During his lifetime, her husband for many years was in charge of the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, of which she still feels a part. She relates many interesting events of their life together. She has painted five volumes of wild flowers, Rockies and Far Western flowers, which were printed by the Smithsonian Institution. The deluxe edition sells for $100 a volume. Hers was a labor of love and took her twenty years to paint. She paints the flowers life size and while they are fresh. She never draws an outline, but with her brush and magic skill, paints them as they are, all the time talking to you in the most entertaining way. A very decided character, no patience with some of the present day doings. One thing she absolutely tells you most emphatically, "You are welcome to come and talk with me but no cigarette smoke is to be puffed over me or in the room where I am working." She first came to our mountains at the request of Horace Albright, who at that time was director of all the national parks. Mr. Albright thought she might find some specimens in the Great Smokies that were not among the ones in her collection. She rises fairly early and if the morning is fair, she goes for her ride through the woods and off the beaten path, taking a guide with her. The afternoon is spent in painting. Oftentimes the entire day is spent at her work. She is not only an artist but a very practical business woman who has managed large farming interests. She always travels in her own car with her trusted chauffeur.

On her last visit Mrs. Walcott brought Mrs. Ickes with her for her first visit to the Park. Here is another personage whom I wish I could describe with her simple, unaffected manner, she is a real person, who accomplishes things, and always has, gracious and cordial to everyone, with a zest for life. She's an inspiration to be with. Both she and Mrs. Walcott had a thoroughly enjoyable time, going to the church one Sunday afternoon to hear "my mountain folks" sing hymns. They stayed until it was over, were introduced to all the singers, and thanked them for the music. Mrs. Walcott is very, very fond of Mrs. Herbert Hoover and visits the Hoovers in their California home. She gave me an order to make one of my afghans for Mrs. Hoover. I have it ready. I tried to make it look like California—gold and sunshine. Hope she will like it.

Another very charming person is Mrs. Josephus Daniels. Just one of the lovely, sweet, motherly sort of persons, with no effort at being stylish but a personage one instinctively felt, was just a very devoted grandmother who came into the shop to get something to send to her little grandsons. Again I had to confess that I had nothing for little boys. She had waited for me to get back from dinner and open the shop. Once previous to this time, she and her husband were brought to our shop by one of my friends. It was Sunday, and so he would just have to count it up for me. I said, "Isn't it wonderful to have such a book-keeper" and my generous customer said, "What about the customers?" and I said, "Oh, I'll tell you that when you have begun." Imagine my telling them to please step out in the lobby while I wrapped up the packages (my shop is too small for my stock and customers at the same time). I dug the Guest Book out of a corner, for I haven't a place to put it, and asked them to write their names in it. You know men don't fuss around like

HIGH SCHOOL BOY

I unlocked the door and let them in. Mr. Daniels stayed the courteous length of time and departed. She, while busy picking up things here and there, said, "I just hope he will stay out, because he doesn't want me to buy things on Sunday and I'm going to do it anyway."

Another time just lately while I was waiting on some customers, Major Eakin came to the door, with three awfully good looking men and introduced them. I didn't catch the names at first, but found out mighty quickly they wanted to buy. I got so excited that I pulled things out right and left and when one of them began walking around and picking five-dollar coverlet squares off the line and pewter plates off the tables and scarfs out of the drawers, I just turned to Major Eakin and handed him a paper and pencil and told him women, when they pay they do it in a hurry. After they had gone and I had their names and saw inscribed there, "R. G. Tugwell," I went dizzy and thought to myself, the President's is not the only "brain" that needs "trusters." Mr. Tugwell really has an unusually charming personality and is very good looking indeed. Doesn't look a thing in the world like the pictures I've seen of him. The only ones I've seen looked like Dillinger or some other cut throat. He was only in Gatlinburg about half an hour and spent a part of that time to come into our little shop and buy generously. Thank you, Mr. Tugwell.

A few nights ago I was tempted to stay home and not go back to the shop as I was not feeling up to par and there seemed so few guests in the hotel. But they do say there's a kind providence that watches over children and fools, and so I came back. And how thankful I was! I had only been here for a few minutes, when my attention was attracted by a little man coming down the line, followed by a very good looking younger man. They entered the shop, and there followed four men and one woman. The little man was English—sir, somebody—the lady was from near London. They, with the other members of the party, were a group of famous people interested in the housing question and had come from England, Germany, and the States to consult with a T.V.A. group at Norris. They bought generously. Sir Evin was very pleasant and laughingly showed the others a brilliant red lipstick towel he had purchased—not that he had a use for it but just for the beautiful color.

I am now looking forward to the 17 to the 20 of October when the American Forestry Association headed by the Secretary of Interior, Harold Ickes; the Secretary of Agriculture, Henry A. Wallace; the Chairman of T.V.A., A. W. Morgan; and E. B. Cammerer, Director of National Parks (who by the way is not only a very delightful man but a good customer of ours) meets. This meeting is to be held in Knoxville, but they will pay a visit to the Smokies and, as this is Park Headquarters, I'm expecting a visit from them.

October the 8 is to be a great day for Gatlinburg. The Great Smoky Mountains National Park stamp is to go on sale. First Day cover, only in Washington and Gatlinburg. Already there are great piles of letters and requests to the postmaster for first day stamps. One collector that I know of has sent in request for 10,000. We expect a crowd in that day.

Numbers and numbers of Pi Phis have visited the shop and school this season. My tongue is hanging and my brain is fagged from the constant telling of the School and the work the Pi Phis are doing in this community.

(The second installment of "My Guest Book" will appear in the May ARROW.)

FOURTH GRADERS

NOTES FROM MRS. WEAVER'S LETTERS

Writing shortly before the ARROW went to press, Mrs. Weaver said:

"The dormitory boys and girls (there are eighteen of them) came home from the state fair at Knoxville drenched but saying that they had a wonderful time. Virgil Ogle and Elmer Helton took first prize for a self-feeder that they made for hogs. Earl Reagan took second for sharpening a hand saw. He and Bruce Whaley made a chicken coop which took third prize. Arrow Craft did not enter anything this year.

"The boys are now working on the stone walks and getting the gardens in shape for winter. Previously, they studied cement mixing preparatory to flooring the barn under Don Smith's supervision.

"Last week a man came from Knoxville and arranged to give us a drop curtain and a set of stage scenery for the assembly hall. Space for advertising on the curtain will be sold, and the proceeds will pay for the gift. It will be ready to use for the operetta.

"Gatlinburg is to have a little theatre within the year. Squire Maples is to build it between the post office and his house. The movies will be there and perhaps dancing. When you come next spring, you will find a soda fountain in the log cabin beyond the church.

"There are 292 children in school here this year."

ODD ITEMS FROM THE SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

The Settlement School nurse, Virginia Moore, last year had eleven schools under her supervision. She inspected 1544 children and visited 371 of them in their homes, while 654 called on her for professional services.

At the Jennie Nichol Memorial Hospital at the Settlement School, typhoid inoculations were given to 210 persons; 47 children took toxoid for diphtheria; 52 youngsters had Schick tests to determine their diphtheria immunity; 134 were vaccinated for small pox. Dressings were done for 513 school children and members of the community.

LETTER FROM MRS. PATTENGILL

Mrs. Pattengill wrote in July:

"There are about sixty-five women doing our weaving, besides the following specialized workers contributing to Arrow Craft:

Mary L. Ownby makes our chairs and stools, using a crude foot lathe and turning out works of art. The foot lathe, called boom and treddle, is the most antique in existence, and is used in the Orient.

Arlena McCarter takes great pride in bringing in several dozen colored split fans each week.

Mrs. Ogle's contribution is rye straw fans.

Harrison McCarter makes the best baskets in Gatlinburg and can make 'All you'ns can use.'

Aunt Sally makes the "Aunt Sallies" and brings them in when it rains.

Mertie Bales makes good willow trays and coasters.

Mrs. Hatcher makes our beautiful quilts.

All our Number 1 hooking, which included hooked rugs, is done by Mrs. Armstrong; and the Number 2 hooking, by Mrs. Fortenberry. Both women do superior work in color and design.

Lizzie Lemons does fine tufting.

Elmer Kear makes our artistic fireside brooms.

Penland Weavers and Potters supply us with the beautiful hand hammered pewter on which we not only make a 35% profit, but which enhances the beauty of our weaving.

Mr. Lamb makes for us handdipped bee's wax candles and honey jugs filled with good mountain honey.

Wood carvers make reproductions of Early American furniture from native cherry and walnut which adds a great deal of interest to this beautiful furniture.

A careful survey shows fifty-two families entirely dependent on us for a living; but 120 families are supported in a measure by the school."

"I believe our fraternity is doing an industrial work that is about ten years ahead in its scope. T.V.A. has ahead of it a program very similar to ours. Some of their representatives have interviewed us and in giving us their ideas show that they are planning to do something that our fraternity has done for twenty years. The influence of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park has changed our village. We have an opportunity here, the extensiveness of which few realize. Our tourist trade is four times as great as it was a year ago—to keep abreast of it all we must have a large vision. One of the big problems is to anticipate what is ahead and to be ready to meet whatever is required of us."

No one denies that "A house divided against itself cannot stand," but how many of us forget or disregard this?

A clique is one of the surest and swiftest ways of dividing a house and developing a growing sense of discontent and unhappiness. A feeling of antagonism, perhaps unconscious at first, is bound to permeate and destroy the spirit and good-will of a house which is divided into factions at odds with each other.—Alpha Gamma Delta Quarterly.

The October issue of the Phi Gamma Delta magazine reprints a history of the beginning of that fraternity.

The National Achievement Medal of Chi Omega is awarded annually to an American woman of notable accomplishments. The reipient of the medal this year, Honorable Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, was unable at the eleventh hour to be present at the dinner given at the Chi Omega Convention because of certain emergencies in the labor field. Mrs. Roosevelt, who was to present the medal, then asked that the medal be presented at the White House in the autumn. At the dinner, Miss Mary Vail Andress of the National Achievement Award Committee read a statement prepared by Mrs. Roosevelt regarding Miss Perkins and added remarks on behalf of the Committee. Elizabeth Dyer of the Committee spoke in behalf of Miss Perkins.

Dr. Hinkle read a paper that was a brilliant historical review of woman's struggle to be herself. Mrs. Fraser of the Committee had the medal in her possession and delegates and guests availed themselves of the opportunity to see the beauty and symbolism of the medal, the design for which was made by Miss Frances Grimes.

"Students who are the most active in campus activities are the students who tend to receive the highest grades in academic subjects, while those who participate in no campus activity tend to receive the lowest grades" is the conclusion that is arrived at by Dr. O. Myking Mehus in an article on "Extracurricular Activities and Academic Achievement" that appears in "The Journal of Educational Sociology."

Many chapters point with pride to their Φ Β Κ members, but few realize that the honor for real achievement belongs to the chapter which has no outstanding brilliant girls, but which can show an even scholarship record which is above the average. That is a true expression of fraternity spirit, for it is the contribution of every girl to the welfare and the advancement of her chapter. The "best" fraternity on any campus is the one which most nearly lives up to the ideal which motivated the founding of all our educational institutions—love of learning.

IN MEMORIAM

THE editor announces a new policy for this department. Hereafter, only brief notices, giving chapter, place and date of birth and death, and offices held in the national organization, will be used. Exceptions to this rule will be made only in the case of active officers of the fraternity, former Grand officers, and members of I.C. Deaths of generally known members of the families of members, will appear in the personal section of the chapter concerned.

ANNA LYTLE BRANNON

ANNA LYTLE BRANNON, former Grand President, died suddenly September 3, 1934 of a heart attack at the summer home of her daughter in Michigan. She is survived by her husband, Dr. Melvin A. Brannon, and his two daughters, Mrs. L. V. Ballard, of Beloit, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Benjamin Bristol, of Foxboro, Massachusetts.

The following story of her appeared in the ARROW for May, 1933:

Anna Lytle Tannahill Brannon (Mrs. Melvin A.), Nebraska B, a member of Φ B K, was a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and pursued graduate work at Wellesley College and the University of Chicago. She held the positions of head of the department of English at Agnes Scott College, Georgia, head of the department of English Literature, Milwaukee Normal School, dean of women and head of the department of English, Lewiston State Normal School, Lewiston, Idaho, and dean of women and professor of English, Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin.

She was a delegate to the Madison, Wisconsin, convention, and has attended the New Orleans, Berkeley and two Charlevoix conventions. She held many offices of the Fraternity including that of Grand President and has served it most faithfully. She was a member of many organizations including P.E.O., Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Colonists, and the American Association of University Women.

She was married to George William Tannahill, attorney, in 1913. Mr. Tannahill died in 1917; and in 1923, Mrs. Tannahill married Melvin A. Brannon, Chancellor of the University of Montana.

Some of her most distinguished work was done in Montana. Dr. Brannon says of her work there, "She was my able adviser in countless educational problems. She was asked to recommend Deans of Women and housemothers in various units of the University of Montana. She was a much sought adviser in sorority administration, and hostess at unnumbered social functions for educational gatherings. I know well that any success of mine during ten and a half years as chancellor was largely due to her wise counsel, her gracious leadership in educational and social relations, and her unselfish devotion to the welfare of the young people. As Dean of Women at Beloit, it may truly be said of her that she did for women at Beloit College what Alice Freeman Palmer did for the young women at the University of Chicago. In both cases the work required organization and development from the foundations of social graces, womanly ideals, and cultural education. In both cases a level of achievement was reached that enriched the life of hundreds of worth-while young women during and after their college years."

The appreciation of the A.A.U.W. for her service to them is best shown in their Resolution, which we copy here:

"Be it resolved that: The Montana division of A.A.U.W., in biennial conference assembled, express its deep sense of sorrow and loss due to the untimely death of Mrs. M. A. Brannon, who as Sectional Director of our organization throughout its first six years was our constant inspiration. None are so keenly aware of her outstanding ability as the members of the Montana Division, whose privilege it was to realize what a rare and fine influence she exerted over those who knew and worked with her. Much of the progress which our state division has made was due to her wise and sympathetic counsel and leadership."

A Pi Phi who loved her wrote of her:

"Her charm was the kind that Mrs. Coolidge has, a heart-warming fellowship that seemed to be just for you, but was shared by all she met. She was certainly pure and honest and just and lovely, and those of us whose lives touched hers, even slightly, have been benefited and enriched—and after all, what more can be said in praise of a life? All these things and many more we know of her—the Pi Phis have lost something that was very precious to them."

Pi Beta Phi can ill spare the devotion of such wonderful women as Anna Lytle Brannon.

LUETTA MELENDY BASSETT (Mrs. H. M.), charter member of Iowa A was one of Pi Beta Phi's oldest and dearest members. She passed away in Minneapolis, Minnesota, July 27, 1934. Born January 19, 1852 in Cincinnati, Ohio, she was the daughter of Peter Melendy, who was an educator, instrumental in the founding of Ames, Coe, and Lenox Colleges. After graduating from Iowa Wesleyan College in 1871, she was married to Dr. H. M. Bassett of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. All during her life she was interested in the progress of Pi Beta Phi and a few years ago was made honorary member of the chapter at the University of Minnesota. In 1933, her granddaughter, Betty Bassett, was initiated into Wisconsin A.

Her passing marks the end of one of the most beautiful lives ever lived, but she leaves with us the memory of a fine woman.

EVA LAW McGRANAHAN (Mrs. James H.), passed away suddenly the last of May. The greater part of her life was spent in Indianola, Iowa where she attended Simpson College. She leaves her husband and three children, Floyd, professor of comparative literature at Beloit College; James H., physician at Long Beach, California; and Ethel, wife of Dr. Myron S. Anderson of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. Mrs. Anderson is a member of the Washington Alumnae Club. To these members our sympathy is extended.

MARY BETH SNYDER, Ohio Beta, passed away June 28, 1934. After an absence of six years, she returned to Ohio State University to complete her college course in the School of Commerce. She was appointed Rushing Chairman for 1934 and won membership into Beta Gamma Sigma, honorary Commerce Fraternity. She was to have been graduated in December of this year. To her family and members of Ohio Beta, we extend our deepest sympathy.

LENA EVERETT, I. C. graduate of Simpson College with the class of '73, and member of the Indianola Alumnae Club, died September 19, 1934.

MARY BODLE, Idaho A, passed away June 28, 1934 following an automobile accident. Her death is mourned by her many friends.

HELEN SPINDLER ATCHISON (Mrs. H. Paul), Colorado A, '23, died July 14, 1933. Our sympathy is extended to her husband and two small children, and three sisters, one of them, Josephine Spindler (now Mrs. Edgar R. Locke, Houston, Texas), is a member of Colorado A.

VINNIE WALRATH CHASE (Mrs. Paul W.), died at her home in Hillsdale, Michigan, May 25, 1934. At the time of her death she was a member of the Board of Women Commissioners of Hillsdale College. Our sympathy is extended to her two sisters, Mrs. Leroy Waterman, Michigan B '06, and Mrs. Esther Lash of Chicago.

ESTELLA GREEN STONE (Mrs. V. L.), Michigan A '90, passed away at her home in Asheville, North Carolina last May. Our sympathy is extended to her sister and two nieces who survive her.

DORIS MISNER BRAMBILA (Mrs. Robert M.), Washington A, passed away at the Leterman General Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco, California, July 16, 1934. Our sympathy is extended to her husband, Col. Robert M. Brambila, U. S. Army, military instructor at the University of Nevada and to other members of her family and of Pi Beta Phi who greatly mourn her passing.

ELIZABETH DILL, Wisconsin A, '33 died very suddenly at her home in Wannabosa, Wisconsin, some time ago. She is survived by her parents and a small brother.

CATHERINE McILHENNEY WHITE (Mrs. E. R.), D.C. A, was killed in an automobile accident near Springfield, Virginia, April 15, 1934.

ANNIE McCOLLUM, Indiana I, passed away in Memphis, Tennessee, May 16, 1934. The Memphis Alumnae Club feels keenly the loss of one of its most beloved members.

MERTIE ANDERSON HENDERSON (Mrs. Frank), Iowa B, '97, passed away February 1, 1934 at the Lutheran Hospital in Des Moines following an illness extending over several months. Besides her husband, she leaves a son, John H., and a daughter, Alice Henderson Kite who is a member of Iowa B; her father and two sisters, and two brothers.

DR. ALICE GOSS, Kansas A, '75, passed away June 26, 1934 in San Francisco, California. Dr. Goss started her medical studies at San Francisco Homeopathic School and later was graduated from the Chicago Hannaman College. Returning to San Francisco, she remained in active practice until increasing deafness forced her to retire about four years ago. Her life was dedicated to the service of others and her loss will be felt deeply by all who knew her.

ANNA WRIGHT DOWELL (Mrs. Evan B.), passed away May 14, 1934 in San Diego, California at the home of her son, Roy K. Dowell. A member of I.C. at Simpson and always an active worker in civic and philanthropic affairs, it was only natural that her interests should turn to the Settlement School when the death of her husband left her alone. She dearly loved the work at Gatlinburg, and left reluctantly just a few years ago after having given seven years of faithful and enthusiastic service to the school. The fraternity has lost a most loyal and lovable member.

LAURA SHIPMAN DONNELL, charter member of Iowa Z, passed away May 22, 1934 at the home of her son, Phillip S. Donnell in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

VICTORIA THOMPSON HAMILTON (Mrs. Frank W.), Iowa A, died February 22, 1934 in Portland, Oregon.

EMMA HARPER JONES (Mrs. Edward), Iowa Z, died April 26, 1934 in Broadus, Montana.

LEONA MILLS MARCH (Mrs. Wm. Frank), Kansas A, passed away some time ago in Lawrence, Kansas.

FRANCES MARY SHENSTONE, Ontario A, died August 4, 1934.

PATRICIA ALLEN, Ontario A, died June 9, 1934.

MARIE GRAVEN GOEPPERT (Mrs. Lloyd W.), California B, was drowned near her home in Stockton, California, in June, 1934.

ELSIE HOWELL BOSSON (Mrs. Frank Edward), California B, formerly of San Francisco, but living in Hartford, Connecticut, since her marriage three years ago, died in Hartford August 26, 1934. Her gift for fine and enduring friendships will make her greatly missed by a large circle.

VIRGINIA ELIZABETH AINES LUTENS (Mrs. Granville H.), Vermont A, died August 25, 1934, aged twenty-nine. She is survived by her husband and two daughters.

MARJORIE LOUNSBURY HUGHES (Mrs. Hugh), California I, died in May, 1934.

ANNA HOWELL BURT, Indiana I, died October 2, in Sacramento, California, where she was teaching in the High School. She was graduated from Butler University, and held higher degrees from Chicago University and from Stanford. A friend writes of her, "She leaves only a beloved aunt, Mrs. A. E. Leavitt, of Harriman, Tennessee, but her many friends were dear to her, and they are missing greatly her unselfish, cheerful presence."

CARR GARDNER SOMERFIELD (Mrs. H. A.), Nevada A, passed away in San Francisco on September 28, following an operation.

Surviving her are her husband, and her father, Dr. G. M. Gardner.

MARGARET BELLE ARNOLD WHITE (Mrs. Albert E.), Ohio B, wife of the director of the department of engineering research of the University of Michigan died on July 27, in Ann Arbor. An active participant in the constructive work of the fraternity, she leaves a memory as vital as her personality. She was a granddaughter of William Wells, of Wellsville, Ohio, the last territorial governor of the state. Her influence was felt in many lines of work, in the Faculty Women's Club, of which she was president, the D.A.R., and the Methodist church. She leaves a husband and son.

THE COOKY-SHINE

By ELVIRA JONES, Oklahoma A

Before I donned the arrow and the wine and silver blue,
I puzzled and I pondered till my head was sore clear through,
Just what on earth those gay Pi Phis, those girls so very fine,
Could really be a doing at a Pi Phi Cooky-Shine!
I wasn't very old you know—just seventeen I guess,
And so I let my curiosity just drive me to a test.

One day I met a handsome man, a stalwart Sigma Nu,
And so I asked him candidly, "Please Sir, tell me, do,
With just a word, a paragraph, or even with a sign,
What goes on within the walls of a Pi Phi Cooky-Shine?"
He laughed a bit, then swelled his chest, and with a twinkling eye,
He said, "Oh, that's a weird occasion for those girls of arrow fame—
They gather 'round a cauldron pot with witch, and magic games,
And when the lights are low and dim each girl will fall in line,
And renew her charm in the cauldron pot at the Pi Phi Cooky-Shine."

One day a Beta Theta Pi, with a diamond in his pin,
Came home to visit brother and so I questioned him.
He said to me, "I guess you know that I'm a Pi Phi man
And I can surely tell you if there's anybody can!
You see a Cooky-Shine is really just a perky Pale Pink Tea—
Where all the Pi Phis practice 'shining up' to Beta boys like me."

But still I wasn't satisfied—I wanted more to know—
And so I asked the question almost everywhere I'd go—
One day I met a K.K.G., a friend my sister knew,
And when I asked her what she thought that they'd most likely do,
She raised her head an inch or two, a little more or less,
And sweetly said, "Why, that, my dear, is Pi Phi foolishness."

Each person that I chanced to meet explained in fashion fine,
But never did I really know what made a Cooky-Shine.
But soon I went to College and I donned the wine and blue,
And I asked a Pi Phi member if she'd tell me what she knew.
She took me in a far off room and whispered very low,
"My dear, the time has really come when you may surely know
That a Cooky-Shine to a true Pi Phi is occasion very dear—
We're having one next Tuesday night and you must be right here."

I guess I registered my surprise when I peeped through the door
To find that all about the room were Pi Phis on the floor!
They'd thrown their cares and sighs away and each one wore a smile,
The food I saw set round about would reach for 'bout a mile—
'Twas then I knew a Cooky-Shine is never cut and dried,
Is never formal, fixed, nor framed, but just a custom tried—
I learned it makes no difference 'bout the cookies, brand, or line—
It just takes food and Pi Phis to make a Cooky-Shine!

A sketch of the author was included under In Memoriam in the May, 1934, issue.

CHAPTER LETTERS

Edited by RUTH WILSON

In the May, 1934, ARROW, the letter of Vermont Beta should have been starred, in addition to that of Pennsylvania Alpha.

ALPHA PROVINCE

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Chartered, 1908

Pledge Day, October 2, 1934

Every year following the examinations in May Ontario A holds a house party at one of the summer resorts nearby. This year the chapter went to Lake Simcoe where two of the graduating class have adjoining cottages. It is always the most anticipated function of the year, and this time was no exception. During the course of the week a tennis tournament was organized. Everybody entered it very enthusiastically and the competition ran high. The finals were played on the last morning and Mary Greey carried off the trophy. It is hoped that it will become an annual chapter event from now on.

University College entertained for the freshmen in residence at its annual house party during the three days preceding the opening of college. Each freshman had a senior to look after her, and make her feel at home. On Sunday a social evening was held, including the city freshmen. An officer from each of the clubs and organizations of the University addressed the assembly. Mary McLean spoke on behalf of the Student Christian movement, and Marnie Hill gave a resumé of the work of the Players' Guild.

Joyce Edwards again headed her year in Household Economics, and the chapter is trying to live up to the high standard which she sets. Joan Knowlton, one of the graduating class, won a scholarship in Psychology which entitles her to two years' post graduate work.

Rushing for the second year girls in residence was very strenuous this year. It consisted of the three days preceding college opening. On the first two days open teas were held from two to six. On the third day each fraternity entertained the rushees at either a breakfast, luncheon, or evening party. Then silence week was observed when the fraternity girls were allowed only to smile at the rushees. The night the results of the preferential bidding were known, Ontario A entertained its newly-made pledges at an informal dance.

INITIATED, April 23, 1934: Ruth Todd, Caribou; Clarice Grant, Sandy Point; Arlene Merrill, Bangor; Virginia Nelson, Guilford; Louise Calderwood, Bath; Margaret Snow, Portland.

The most notable event for Maine last spring was the trip of Velma Colson as chapter delegate to $\Sigma\Theta\Pi$ of Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, together with Mrs. Cassidy, Alpha Province President, and a representative from Massachusetts A. The reports brought back from Dalhousie, both by Velma and Mrs. Cassidy, were very interesting and Maine A was particularly pleased at the granting of a charter to this group. Mrs. Cassidy visited Maine A on the return trip and on April 11 the chapter gave a tea for her which all the various sorority representatives attended. Mrs. Cassidy left that same afternoon, so the tea was really a sort of "send-off."

Margaret Asnip was the delegate from Maine A to the installation of $\Sigma\Theta\Pi$ which took place November 1 and 2.

On April 23 an initiation ceremony was held at the apartment of Mrs. Brush, a patroness, in Orono. There were six girls initiated at this time.

On April 25 the patronesses gave the chapter a tea at the home of Mrs. Muilenberg in Orono. Mrs. Muilenberg, who is the wife of the Dean of Arts and Sciences, has just lately been made an honorary patroness of the chapter.

On April 26 the annual initiation banquet was held at the Bangor House in Bangor. Velma Colson was toastmistress, and the other speakers included: Doris Rosen, Arlene Merrill, Virginia Nelson, Margaret Asnip, Ann Buck, Margaret Snow.

On April 28 a benefit bridge, the proceeds to be given toward the Settlement School Fund, was given by the chapter at Mrs. Brush's apartment in Orono. There were seven tables in play. A piece of Settlement School linen was one of the prizes.

The second informal dance was given at Stillwater in the form of a kid's party. Everyone dressed very youthfully and informally. About fifty couples attended.

The new officers for Balentine Hall include three $\Pi\beta\Phi$ s: Miriam Linscott, president; Velma Colson, vice-president; Betty Jordan, secretary.

Miriam Linscott was the delegate from Maine A to the $\Pi\beta\Phi$ Convention this summer. The reports she brought back from Convention were interesting as showing the national aspect of $\Pi\beta\Phi$, a viewpoint which Maine A, more or less isolated, does not often get.

The rushing rules on campus have been somewhat changed this year. All first semester has been left open as a time in which normal contacts may be made with the freshmen. This is neither open nor closed rushing. The first two weeks of second semester will be open rushing followed by pledging. This is in contrast to last year, when all first semester was devoted to closed rushing.

Maine A is making an effort to establish a scholarship on campus to be given yearly on Scholarship Recognition Day along with the other scholarships given by various organizations here. This fund will be in memory jointly of Louise Pendell and Louise Kincaide.

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE*

Chartered, 1893

Pledge Day, November 16, 1934

INITIATED, April 21, 1934: Carol Bloom, Newton Center, Mass.; Susan L. Hathaway, Muriel A. Voter, Middlebury; Isabel A. Ingham, New Britain, Conn.; Ruth F. van Sickle, Newark, N.J.; Marion E. Wishart, Barre.

Middlebury College played host to two distinctive conferences this fall. Representatives from 21 colleges and preparatory schools attended the annual conference of the American Alumni Council of the first district, October 3 and 4. At a later date, President Moody welcomed the heads of the men's colleges of New England for an informal discussion. Among those attending were President Conant of Harvard, President Angel, of Yale, and President Dennet of Williams.

The Middle chapter of $\Sigma\Phi\epsilon$, national men's fraternity, opened its new house at the beginning of the year. It is a wooden structure of colonial style and is the fourth house to be constructed on Fraternity Row.

The annual mountain day, sponsored by Mortar Board for the purpose of making freshmen better acquainted with one another and with members of the senior honorary society, included as an innovation this year an outdoor pageant. The presentation dealt with the characteristics contributed by womanhood throughout the periods of American civilization which go into the making of the college woman of today. Faith Arnold, elected to Mortar Board last year, portrayed the Middlebury woman of today.

A "Surprise Challenge Meet" was sponsored by W.A.A. September 24. The freshmen challenged the upperclassmen to contests of hockey, volleyball, archery, and tennis. Ruth McNulty, Janet Gray, and Carol Bloom were members of the teams chosen to uphold the honor of the upperclassmen.

As the result of a new plan, the Panhellenic council postponed rushing until November 2. In the interval various methods were used to help the freshmen become acquainted with all Middlebury women regardless of their affiliations. The program included a hare and hound chase for all classes of the women's college and the orientation activities of freshman week.

At the annual Junior Prom held last spring, Dorothy Gray was chosen Prom queen, and Faith Arnold was selected as junior attendant.

"R.U.R." (Rossum's Universal Robots) was presented as the first long play the last of October. The feminine lead was taken by Faith Arnold, and Marion Russell was a member of the cast.

Doris Hiller has been elected to A Tempo Club, honorary musical society. The English Club has chosen Josephine Knox as its president. Harmony Buell was the associate editor for this year's freshman handbook. Louise Fulton is president of the senior class. The varsity women's debating team is under the management of Barbara Wishart. Janet Gray is sophomore representative to W.S.G.A. and secretary of the sophomore class. Lois Mack is advertising manager of the Saxonian.

Vermont B's last social function of the 1933-1934 year was the annual June Spread, which was held here at the house commencement week-end.

On May 1, 1934 Barbara Taylor was elected to Mortar Board. She is now serving as president of this organization.

College opened this fall on September 19, with the usual activities such as the Freshman Mixer, Women's Mass Meeting, and the Mortar Board Picnic at North Beach. The latter was more than usually successful, since the Big Sister plan has been put on a new footing this year and is working out much more satisfactorily than it has in the past.

Rosemary Cahill is social chairman of Student Union for the ensuing year. Ruth Wright has been elected vice-president of Student Union, and is also a member of the W.A.A. Council-at-Large.

On the staff of the Ariel, the junior class book, are: Roberta Puckridge, associate editor; Marion Herberg, women's sports editor; Lucy Frost, assistant photographic editor; Natalie Hilliker, assistant biography editor; and Arlene Perkins, editor of the Teacher Training section.

Betty Boright was married on August 22 at her home in Richford to Joseph Thackeray, who is instructing this year at the University of Ohio, Athens, Ohio. Several members of Vermont B were present at the wedding.

Mountain Day, a traditional holiday at the University of Vermont, was October 12. On this day no classes are held, and transportation is available to Mount Mansfield, where many students assemble to climb the mountain itself and to explore the trails.

The entertainment evenings which were instituted last year proved so successful that they are being continued this year. These entertainment evenings, known popularly as "Razz-Dazzes," were introduced to fill the need existing on campus for some form of inexpensive entertainment on week-ends when no dances were scheduled. They have fulfilled their purpose admirably.

Vermont B, with the other women's fraternities, held open house the latter part of October, in order that the freshmen and fraternity women might become better acquainted. This plan helps the groups to mingle early in the year, since rushing does not take place until February.

The chapter served a breakfast at the house Sunday morning, October 14, at a nominal charge. The breakfast was open to anyone who cared to attend, and was designed to help promote a greater mixing among fraternity and non-fraternity women, and among women of different fraternities.

This year Vermont B is working to improve its showing in campus activities, and at the same time to attain a higher scholastic average.

INITIATED, October 6, 1934: Elsa Bates, Lucie De Haro, Constance Reuter, and Barbara Young.

The initiation was followed by a banquet held at the Hotel Sheraton.

With every Pi Phi back in college this year, Massachusetts A has accomplished a great deal in these first months.

First was the very successful spring house party, which was held at Katherine Green's summer home at Sagamore Beach. Several alumnae were present, and plans were discussed for the coming year.

This year was started with a joint meeting of the active chapter officers and the Alumnae Advisory Board, with supper at the University Club. Massachusetts A is striving this year for closer contact and work with the alumnae, feeling confident that this will benefit both organizations.

This year the chapter has some larger rooms, which are being redecorated with the help of the Alumnae Club. This has aroused new interest in the chapter.

An interesting and successful rush party was held in the main ballroom of the Women's Republican Club on October 8. It took the form of a Mardi Gras. The room was colorfully decorated with balloons and streamers, and there were horns, noisemakers, and confetti for everybody. The party was preceded by a tea held at the chapter rooms, at which Mrs. Monroe of the Alumnae Club poured.

Many of the girls have been active and prominent in college affairs this fall. Barbara Young and Eleanor Martin were in charge of the girl's Freshman Camp, held the week-end before college opened under the auspices of the Student Y.W.C.A. Barbara Young has been elected secretary of the Y.W.C.A.; Martha Chapman, a senior, is president of ΓA , the all women's society in the college; and Eleanor Martin is vice-president.

Most of the girls have participated in fall sports. $\Pi B \Phi$ on the volley ball teams were: sophomores: Elsa Bates, Lucie De Haro, Ida Finch, Astrid Malmstead; juniors: Barbara Young, and Sue Harper; seniors: Martha Chapman, Peg Jackson, and Dorothy Hey. Sue Harper was entered in the fall tennis tournament. Martha Chapman was elected treasurer of The Woman's Athletic Association, and Eleanor Martin had charge of the W.A.A. fall house party.

Every year there are two senior and two junior girls chosen by the faculty to act as proctors. They are chosen for their scholarship and for the place they hold in the opinions of their classmates. $\Pi B \Phi$ has both a senior and junior proctor, Martha Chapman and Eleanor Martin. Dorothy Hey has been elected secretary of the German Club, and Peg Jackson is secretary of Panhellenic.

Probably the most important thing in the opinion of the students of Boston University is the football team. The new coach, "Pat" Hanley, has given football at Boston University a new lease on life. The $\Pi B \Phi$ s have eagerly followed the games and attended several of them "en masse."

National Student Federation of America is holding its annual convention in Boston this December. Several chapter members are on committees working to make this convention a success.

Another note of interest is the fact that Eleanor Johnson, a $\Pi B \Phi$ who graduated in '33, has accepted an assistantship with Professor Edgar I. Brightman of the Boston University Philosophy Department.

Syracuse University greeted the freshmen this fall by having many social events arranged for them. Freshman Camp was sponsored by the Chapel Board in order to acquaint the incoming students with campus life. Mid Wicke was camp director. March 27 the new girls were entertained by the upperclass coeds in Archbold gymnasium. The theme of this party was "A Caribbean Cruise." Freshman week came to a close with a dance.

During the summer vacation many improvements were made in the chapter house. The rooms on the first floor were redecorated and a bedroom was refurnished. Several new pieces of furniture were purchased for the living room. The house has made one of the bedrooms into a study room.

Rushing began with open house on Friday evening, September 28, and a tea on the following Saturday afternoon. Each sorority then entertained at four parties, three informal and one formal. One of the parties took the form of a gypsy carnival. A black and white scheme was used for one of the informal gatherings. The alumnae could not assist in the rushing this semester. Panhellenic simplified the rushing system this year. There were no luncheon or dinner engagements.

Agnes Downes of New York A has accepted a position to teach in Cairo, Egypt. She left the United States in August and expects to return in three years.

A French exchange student is at the university this year. The young lady is enrolled in the school of Fine Arts.

The number of students who will be assigned to F.E.R.A. work on the campus will be six hundred and five. The students who have special talent in certain fields will be placed in the position most advantageous to them.

At the close of the spring semester Beth Maxwell and Jean Cooney were appointed to the second cabinet of the Chapel Board. Helen MacDonald was elected social chairman of the French Club. Roberta Foreman was made Woman Convocation Leader. This entitles Roberta to be a member of Women's Student Senate.

Students went back to classes with renewed enthusiasm on September 20 this year. New York Γ had its first rushing party on September 18. After the rushing parties were over, the freshmen were allowed three days in which to make their decisions. This system, tried for the first time this year, was so successful that Panhellenic council intends to continue the same next year.

October 13 was the annual high school day when senior classes of all high schools are invited to be the guests of St. Lawrence. That same evening the Frosh-Junior formal reception and dance took place at Brewer Field House. It is at this dance that freshmen make their debut at S.L.U. and become acquainted with upperclassmen.

The Musical Committee, of which Ruth Eddy '35 is chairman, is trying to start a heavy campaign for presenting bigger and better musical entertainments to the students. The first concert was held on October 15 and consisted of Kryn and his Symphonic Band. The students were enthusiastic about the performance and have showed a great appreciation for the tireless efforts of those who try so hard to induce good musicians to come this far north to play.

Mrs. Cassidy, Province President, visited us very early this year. She was a guest of New York Γ the week-end of October 20.

Ruth Eddy was also chairman of the masquerade held on October 20 for the Freshmen by W.A.A.

On November 3 a vocational conference sponsored by W.S.G.A. was held at S.L.U. This year, the students displayed more cooperation and interest than before and more colleges were represented.

The annual informal fall dance of New York Γ was held on November 17. This was a further introduction of the pledges after a tea at which they were presented to the patronesses and professors' wives.

The patronesses, professors, and alumnae have been asked occasionally to dinner at the chapter house. New York Γ began this custom and it developed into such a friendly social affair that it was decided to continue the same this year. In this way, students have been able to associate with their professors outside of class and to learn to know them better.

On the council of W.A.A. are Emily Ockenfels, Martha Warren, and Flora Daniel. Women's sports also are being managed by several members of the fraternity.

Among the vice-presidents of the women's dormitories are Elizabeth Meyers, Gladys Winters, and Frank Zingerle. Barbara Crandall is art editor of the Widow, and Marcia Brown is a member of the Willard Straight activities board.

Margaret Bernhard has returned to the University after spending her junior year at the University of Munich with the Delaware University Student Group.

Cornell adopted a new system of selling athletic booklets this year. Prominent men and women canvassed the campus during registration. Betty Meyers, Frank Zingerle, Gladys Winters and Dorothy Shaw were among this group.

As regards rushing, the first period entertainment was a "take-off" on Shakespeare's tragedy "Julius Caesar." A second period consisted of four Chinese teas and an informal Dutch dinner. The formal dinners of the third period were yachting parties aboard the good ship "II B Φ " and closed a very successful rushing period.

Activities on the campus this fall took on an almost overwhelming momentum. Because of dissent among Student Congress and Panhellenic members, rushing was deferred until the first of October, and this fact brought a number of parties right into the midst of a busy season.

Rushes this year were delighted with Beth Druckemiller's informal recountings of her adventures on the memorable trip to Yellowstone during the National Convention.

The Panhellenic Council flourishes under the guidance of Jane Flumerfelt. She expects to find her term of office one in which changes in Panhellenic rulings and the establishment of newer customs will occur.

Cap and Dagger gave "Counsellor at Law" as its first presentation of the year. II B Φ actives and several of the pledges took a very real interest in its production.

Kirby Page visited the campus and presented a series of lectures on economic and political questions of the day. P. Whitwell Wilson, former member of Parliament and an English journalist spoke on October 29 on "A European View of Civilization." On November 5, Hubert Herring, authority on South American affairs gave an excellent talk on "Lights and Shadows in Latin America."

Π B Φ boasts many members who are concerned with sociological problems. They have made field trips to county and Federal penal institutions and to New York City where they spent a full and profitable weekend.

A real Indian maiden, Blue Owl, transferred to Bucknell from Mt. Holyoke and has delighted students with her earnestness and real interest in the problems of the American Indian.

A cooky-shine in the suite followed initiation on September 26. Immediately after pledging the chapter and the new pledges traveled to Sunbury where they held a banquet at the Homestead Tea Room. At the banquet Georgiana Crum was presented with the scholarship bracelet. Beth Druckemiller held it last year.

The students of Dickinson College greeted with enthusiasm their new president, Dr. Fred Pierce Corson, who was elected twentieth president of Dickinson by a unanimous vote of the board of trustees last June. Dr. Corson was graduated from Dickinson in 1917 with Φ B K honors, and was granted an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1933 by Syracuse University. In 1930, he was named superintendent of the Brooklyn South district covering 23 churches in Brooklyn and all Methodist churches on the south shore of Long Island. He is one of the youngest leaders in Methodist church work, and belongs to many outstanding church organizations. Dr. Corson took up his duties as president on October 1, after a summer trip around the world with his wife. A reception was held on October 26 in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Corson.

The two weeks of women's rushing ended October 5 at 10:30 a. m., and that afternoon Pennsylvania Γ pledged sixteen girls. After pledging, the chapter had a party in honor of the pledges at the summer home of Mary Carolyn Hurst '37 in the North Mountains about 15 miles from Carlisle. Supper was served around a big open fire-place, and the rest of the evening was spent in singing and giving stunts. The stunts given by the pledges were very clever, even though they had not been planned beforehand.

Dickinson is very fortunate this year in having a comparatively large group of exchange students. There are two from Germany, one from Persia, and one from France. The German boys are particularly interested in the study of the American economic life; the Persian boy is interested in the American educational system; and the French girl is making a study of English. She is very interesting, and the chapter included her in all the rushing parties, although she is not going to join a fraternity for she plans to go to the University of Paris next year.

Part-time work for 68 Dickinson students has been made possible for this year by a grant received from the Federal Emergency Relief Administration. Dickinson is one of the many schools under the F.E.R.A. plan to aid American students to attend school this year. Each of these students receives from $100 to $150 yearly for part-time work. Many improvements are being made around the college by these students.

Christina Meredith '34 a Φ B K and winner of the Π B Φ Fellowship entered Johns Hopkins October 1 where she is pursuing work in mathematics.

The chapter held a dance in honor of the pledges in the Φ K Ψ house October 13. Each pledge received a corsage from the chapter as she was formally presented to everyone present.

Lena Ritner, chapter delegate to Convention, brought back with her many helpful suggestions and ideas. Her Convention report was very interesting and was enjoyed by the entire chapter.

The school year of 1934-35 at Ohio University started with an increase in enrollment which was a great encouragement to the College officials and students.

At the annual Registration Hop for freshmen all of the new students and the older ones became acquainted.

It is the custom of Dean Voigt to entertain all University women at a tea at her home so that the students may become better acquainted with their Dean of Women. Members of Cresset and the Senior Advisory Board assisted Dean Voigt in entertaining this year.

Ohio A chapter house has been redecorated this fall. A new lounging room at the back of the house, furnished in modernistic design with paintings by one of the chapter members, Lorene Rodehaver, is the latest addition to the house.

Changes in Rush Week proved to be very satisfactory. Each sorority on the campus was permitted only four parties. Ohio A entertained with a formal dinner, a "Kid" party, the annual Π B Φ Wedding, and a Rainbow Tea.

The active and alumnae chapters of Ohio A and Ohio Δ, shared the Founders' Day Luncheon with Ohio B last spring. Each chapter contributed to the interesting program. At this time also, Varian Mills received the scholarship award offered by Ohio B to one of its members, and Helen Schoenborn received the award for the greatest scholarship improvement.

Chimes, the junior honorary, elected Freda Postle, Jane Woodward, Anne Worrell, and Carol Hagaman, during Traditions week last spring. Jean Hill and Josephine Baker were elected to Mortar Board.

At the Y.W.C.A. elections, Freda Postle was made secretary of that organization. Senior cabinet positions are held by Jean Hill, Jane Woodward, Anne Worrell, Vivian Lake and Edith Myers.

Two honoraries claimed Π B Φ members. They are Anne Worrell and Elaine Hart, elected to Δ Δ Φ, speech arts honorary, and Maxine Hengst, elected to Π M E, mathematics fraternity.

In June the Browning Dramatics Society presented, Twelfth Night, with elaborate lighting and costuming adding to the picturesqueness of the amphitheatre. Josephine Baker, recently elected treasurer of the organization, and Anne Worrell played leading roles. Other members of Π B Φ receiving membership in Browning were Jane Woodward, Marcia Fassig, Freda Postle, Carol Hagaman and Varian Mills.

The spring rushing tea was followed this September by a very successful summer party. It was in the form of a county fair, with elaborately decorated booths. Perhaps the most interesting exhibit was in "Believe It or Not," where records of $\Pi B \Phi$ interest were displayed.

This year has been an exceptionally successful rushing year for the chapter. A great deal of credit is due to the capable rushing chairman, Joan Ford, and to the cooperative and enthusiastic rushing spirit of the whole chapter.

Termed "unusually successful" by Dean Florence M. Nicholson, the two weeks' rushing period for sororities came to a close at 11:30 a. m. Saturday, October 6, when the Greek groups held their pledging ceremonies.

The program during the rushing period included two open-house teas and four invitational parties. Two of the parties given by the $\Pi B \Phi$ s were carried out in the style of a Hollywood "first night," with many of the well-known motion picture stars represented. After several short vaudeville acts had been presented, luncheon was served.

The annual $\Pi B \Phi$ wedding ceremony was performed at the remaining two parties. Amidst a profusion of flowers, white candles, and palms, "Ima Rushee" took the vows with "Pi Beta Phi." After the ceremony the guests were served refreshments.

Friday, October 5, marked the annual "silent day," the zero hour before the announcement of bids at 11 a. m. the next day. According to a new ruling, each sorority was allowed to pledge only 14 freshman women and 3 upper-class students. Pledging was done by the preference method.

Of great interest to the students of Wesleyan is the innovation of Saturday morning classes. It is thought that this new plan will somewhat relieve the tension of work during the week. A change has also been made in the time for the meeting of chapel. It will be held at 11:10 a. m. instead of the 8:50 period of previous years.

The fourth annual High School Day was held Saturday, November 10, which was also the date of the Dad's Day football game with Denison University. Scholastic contests were held in the morning, and a bronze plaque was awarded to the high school whose entrants secured the largest number of points.

Two local chapters have received honors from their national sororities. Rho chapter of $K K \Gamma$ received the loving cup presented annually to the outstanding chapter of the organization. The Wesleyan chapter of $K A \Theta$ received second place in displays which were shown at their Convention in Asheville, N.C.

Out of the 18 sororities on the Wesleyan campus, Ohio A won fourth place on the scholarship list, with a point average of 1.99.

The total enrollment of students for 1934 in the University is 2,520. This is an increase of 307 over last year's registration, and is the largest in seven years. Of these, 1,784 are men and 736 are women. Many of these students were enabled to attend the University through the F.E.R.A. aid or other part time work.

Extension work being carried on at the present time includes: building of a new men's dormitory, addition of two new wings to Woman's Hall, and renovation of the music building.

In place of the traditional convocation hour held one morning of each week, a substitution has been made of approximately two Sunday programs each month. The change should afford better speakers and perpetuate more interest.

Women's Student Government Association has made several notable changes in this year's rules for women: chief of which is that the hours for freshman and upper-class girls are more lenient.

New Panhellenic rules were instituted this year, shortening the rushing period. Five definite days during the entire school year have been set aside for bidding women to sororities.

Margaret Giesey and Mary Elizabeth Nutter were elected to Forum last May.

At the annual Forrest Festival at Elkins, West Virginia, October 4, 5, 6, Miss Garnette Northcott of Huntington and from Texas A. was crowned Queen Sylvia V by Governor H. G. Kump. Mary Jane Baker and Elizabeth Arnold, a new pledge, were princesses.

This chapter is taking an active part in inter-sorority sports events, which include to date: horse shoe, volley ball, badminton, ping pong, swimming, and basketball. As a forerunner to the annual Pitt-West Virginia game, October 6, a play day, with representatives from Pitt's Woman's Athletic Association, was held in Elizabeth Moore Hall.

Pledge Day, October 20, 1934

INITIATED, October 6, 1934: Lucy Schuler, 502 N. Main Street, Kokomo, Ind.

This year marks the inauguration at Goucher College of a new curriculum doing away with the measurement of time units, the granting of a college degree on the basis of accumulation of credits and substituting a group of measurements of progress toward attaining certain realistic objectives. Requirements are less rigid; as much freedom of choice is allowed as is consistent with the achievement of a liberal culture and the mastery of a specific subject.

Under this new plan the first two years of college or the Lower Division will afford a general education under special guidance officers; and the third and fourth years of college or the Upper Division will afford an opportunity for intensive study. Admission to the Upper Division will be granted by an Examining Board on the basis of the student's record as shown by a comprehensive examination; while the degree of Bachelor of Arts will be awarded upon the satisfactory completion of a comprehensive examination in the departmental or combination major.

The college year was ushered in by Spirit parties to enable new students to get acquainted. Rushing followed, which was simplified by decree of Panhellenic council to enable students to keep up in their college work. Katherine King was rush chairman, and the chapter felt more than fortunate in having Mrs. James T. Berryman of District of Columbia A, to help with rushing. Katherine King was also a member of the Goucher delegation to attend the Silver Bay Conference at Lake George the last week in June. The theme of the Conference was "Meeting the Challenge of an Interdependent World."

On September 26, Sir Richard Winn Livingstone, President of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by President and Mrs. Robertson; and on September 28, the Ambassador of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and Madame Troyanovsky were the guests of honor.

Pledge Day, October 18, 1934

The first social event of the year was a tea given by Mrs. Barrows, Dean of Women, for the purpose of helping new women students to become acquainted with one another and with the older girls. This tea was given on Wednesday, September 19 and was followed in the evening by the annual student council dance, the Freshman Mixer, given in Stockton Hall of the Law School. The dance was very well attended and both old and new students seemed to think it a big success.

On Sunday, September 30, the Panhellenic Council gave a tea at the Admiral for all new women students. Each woman's fraternity had a table and all members did everything possible to see that the new girls met everyone. This affair was followed a week later by the opening rush teas given by each woman's fraternity. Mrs. Hynson, one of the alumnae, was kind enough to lend her home for the occasion. There were several changes in rush rules this year, the most important of which was the addition of closed dates, and then, too, the rush fund was raised from $25 to $75.

The student body is very much interested in a new activities book called the Co-op which includes tickets to various social events such as the student council dances, the Trobnador show, Cue and Curtain plays and the Homecoming Ball. The book includes $11 worth of entertainment for $6 and is expected to benefit both the students and the various organizations.

There have been several changes in the faculty this year. Dean Doyle, who was formerly Dean of the Junior College, is now Dean of Columbian College, while Professor Johnstone of the Political Science department is now Acting Dean of the Junior College. Professor Ragatz of the History department has just returned from a year of absence. Professor of American History, Professor Gray has been added to the faculty. The chapter is pleased to learn that Mrs. Gray is a $\Pi B \Phi$ from Illinois Z.

Eldridge Loeffler has been given a position on the board of the university year book, The Cherry Tree. Virginia Pope recently won an invitational golf tournament held at Southport, Maryland.

VIRGINIA ALPHA—RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Chartered, 1913

Pledge Day, September 29

Randolph-Macon Woman's College formally opened its 52nd year September 21, with a larger freshman class than it has had in several years. Main Hall, the center building on campus, in which are located the offices and rooms for freshmen, has been entirely re-decorated. The old girls needed freshmen to show them around the place, so great was the change.

The first week of school was devoted for the most part to rushing. Upperclassmen were allowed to visit freshmen for two days then closed rushing began. The only contact with the new girls after that was at the "open house" on Sunday, and the teas on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Virginia A gave a formal garden tea on Tuesday, and on Thursday entertained the freshmen with their traditional Black and White tea. The chapter succeeded in winning thirteen pledges, and with a former pledge who is returning to school after a year's absence, Virginia A has a total of fourteen pledges.

All sororities had pledging services September 29, and in the evening $\Pi B \Phi$ had its customary cooky-shine, at which all pledges were presented with wine and blue corsages. That night the pledges from the various sororities held a goat show in West Hall, and competed for the best performance. Sunday morning, Virginia A initiates took their pledges to breakfast.

The week after rushing was freshman week, and the new girls were hazed by their rivals, the sophomores. During the week, new girls were also busy trying out for membership in the various clubs and organizations on campus. $\Pi B \Phi$ actives and pledges are required to have at least two activities a week.

The first college production will be the Junior Class Play given late in October. Josephine Culp is chairman of the program committee for the play and Mary Alice Shackleton is a member of the play-reading committee. Several members of $\Pi B \Phi$ are on the various other committees.

PLEGDED: Bonnie Elledge, Painesville, Ohio; Marian Carlisle, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Eleanor Benninghofen, Hamilton, Ohio; Elizabeth Ciley, Romney, West Virginia; Katherine Davis, Lynchburg; Jane Denman, Lufkin, Texas; Winifred Dickey, Garden City, L.I.; Scharmel Elliott, Hempstead, L. I.; Carroll McPherson, Longview, Texas; Janie Moore, Tuscaloosa, Alabama; Glennes Teter, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Nan Tinsley, Spartanburg, S.C.; Katherine Wilson, Dallas, Texas; and Jean Zies, Chevy Chase, Maryland.

INITIATED, June 7, 1934: Jeannette Philbrick, Annapolis, Maryland.

The new president of William and Mary College, John Stewart Bryan, was inducted into office on October 20. High spots in the inauguration program included the presentation of an honorary law degree to President Roosevelt, and the dedication of several buildings of historical interest. It was estimated that there were approximately 25,000 visitors in town for the event.

Two new buildings on the campus are nearing completion. The Student Activities Building and the new men's dormitory will be ready for use by February. A natural park has been added to the campus also. This park contains an open air theatre, Players' Dell, which is a rare and attractive feature.

The chapter has acquired several new offices since June. Kathryn Williams was elected president of the Dramatic Club, and Jane Steele was appointed Social Editor of the Flat Hat. Virginia Clementson was made instructor in biology, and was also initiated into $\Phi \Sigma$.

Virginia Γ was inspired by the report on Convention, and each member of the chapter feels a fresh desire to work harder than ever to improve the chapter in any way possible. Many of the suggestions offered at Convention have been put into effect, and the result has been fairly successful thus far.

The system of preferential bidding was instituted at William and Mary this year for the first time. The local Panhellenic feels that the system was moderately successful, but that it will function more smoothly after a few years of experience. However, the fraternities believe that it is a decided improvement over the former type of rushing.

The chapter anticipates eagerly the visit of Miss Onken in November. Since many of the members have not had the pleasure of knowing her, it is believed that she will bring new inspiration to Virginia Γ .

Pledge Day, October 13, 1934

This year the University has the largest enrollment in three years, the total number of students registered being over 2,700. The number of women students is larger than ever before, there being about 300. Graham dormitory has been appropriated for their use.

Elsie Lawrence, Convention delegate, gave a glowing account of her trip. She has been elected president of the chapter, succeeding Nannie Crowder who failed to return to school this year.

All members of the chapter visited the alumnae and patronesses at the beginning of the college year and invited them to an informal tea on October 3. On September 23, the two transfers were invited to dinner.

The local Panhellenic Council made changes in the rushing rules. Instead of maintaining absolute silence for the first two weeks, the members of the women's fraternities are allowed to cooperate with the University in aiding the adjustment of the new women students. However there shall be no fraternity rushing during this time. This year rushing started October 4 and lasted a week.

All girls of the chapter are being encouraged to participate in campus activities. At the 1934 commencement, Janie Jolly won the Sullivan Award for character and leadership. Margaret Gaines is Exchange Editor on the Daily Tar Heel. Lydia Daniels is secretary of the Carolina Magazine. Julia Wood Skinner is treasurer and Nancy Gordon, vice-president of the Woman's Association. Elsie Lawrence is president of the Woman's Athletic Association. Many of the girls are active in the various athletics. The Fraternity ranked fifth among all fraternities on the campus in scholarship for the year 1933-34.

Pledge Day, October 8, 1934

The enrollment at Duke University this year is larger than in previous years. Over 300 new girls entered, and the entire enrollment of the university is about 3,000. During the summer an electrical storm damaged the beautiful Duke chapel on the West Campus. One of the towers was broken with the damage estimated at $9,000.

This fall North Carolina B was lucky to receive two transfers, Ann Hettrick from Alabama A, and Betty Andrews from Ohio A.

On August 28, Margie Bright, who was the chapter's adviser for last year, was married to Dr. Walter Sharpe at Fort Worth, Texas. Dr. and Mrs. Sharpe are now living at Detroit, Michigan, where Dr. Sharpe is serving his internship at the Henry Ford Hospital.

In preparation for rushing this fall, the chapter had its room refurnished. New tables and lamps were bought, and the old furniture was recovered.

During November ΦM was installed. This is the ninth national sorority on the campus.

A new system of rushing was started by the Panhellenic Council this fall. On Saturday, September 22, all sororities held formal teas for the entire freshman class and transfers so that the new girls could get acquainted with the sororities on the campus. The week following the teas was a week of silence in which no rushing was allowed. The regular rushing was resumed September 29 and continued through October 4. This system is proving to be very effective in that during the week of silence the sororities have time to discuss likely candidates, and the new students can decide which sororities appeal to them.

RUTH MICHLER

SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Chartered, October, 1931

Pledge Day, October 3, 1934

For the highest average among sororities, South Carolina A won the Panhellenic Scholarship Cup last year. It is the aim of the chapter to keep it for three years after which it becomes the permanent possession of the chapter.

Panhellenic reduced the period of rushing from a week to five days. After pledging service a cooky-shine was held in the new chapter room, which, through the help of the alumnae and friends, has been attractively decorated.

In the May elections Katherine Hendley was made Senior Leader, and Katherine Townsend, vice-president of Dames, the girls' dance club. Katherine Townsend was also elected vice-president of the Glee Club and an officer in the Euphrosynean Literary Society. Gertrude Burrows was made a member of $\Phi B K$. In June Katherine Anderson received a Master's degree in French.

The University of South Carolina and South Carolina A are looking forward to the opening of the new stadium and the first football game. The stadium has been completed and is much larger than the old one.

Katherine Bush, Convention delegate, and president of the chapter, brought back many new ideas and helpful information for the work this year and the chapter is earnestly striving to make the year a successful one.

PLEGDED: Caroline Arthur, Sumpter; Virginia Buiet, Blackville; Margaret Griffin, Clara Ellen Owens, Janet Reid, Margaret Hawkins, Columbia; Lyda Mildred Lyles, Denmark; Jane Williamson, Florence.

Pledge Day, October 12, 1934

INITIATED, September 22, 1934: Pauline Cahill, Cleveland, Ohio; Agnes Gettman, Columbus Grove, Ohio.

Hillsdale College has refunded its debt, incurred in the late boom period of the '20's for additions and improvements to campus buildings. With the college freed from the financial restraint which has hampered its educational program for several years, President Mauck foresees a revision of the present method of granting credits, and of requirements for graduation.

New rushing rules have been adopted by the college Panhellenic group on the basis of preferential dating as well as preferential bidding. Fraternities submit their list of rushees and possible standardized dates each morning to the chaperone of the freshman dormitory. These lists are checked by the rushees and the girls may be seen by the respective groups only on the dates checked for them. This new form of rushing has been found satisfactory and a decided improvement over the "free-for-all" methods used in former years.

Among the office holders on campus, are the following $\Pi B \Phi$ members: Phyllis Rasp is treasurer of the Women's Undergraduate Club; Dorothy Deuel is editor of the year book; Marian Tripp is treasurer of $E \Delta A$ (honorary scholastic fraternity) and the Glee Club; Charlotte Russell is president of $\Sigma T \Delta$, national English fraternity; Agnes Gettman is secretary of the Glee Club; Margaret Thiele is president of Y.W.C.A. and a freshman adviser. Several members belong to national English, musical, and dramatic fraternities as well as the honor scholastic group. Many are active on the campus publication staffs, clubs, and public speaking. Arlene Thomas and Genevieve Frasier are vice-presidents of their respective classes.

Michigan A has won the scholarship cup for the second semester of last year. The cup may be kept permanently if won by the same group four times. The chapter has two more semesters to go.

Among the improvements in the chapter house are some new beds for the sleeping porch. They are twin bed size, green, to match the walls, and are equipped with Simmons inner-spring mattresses. They are quite a welcome change from the old "double-deckers."

Virginia Le Roux was chosen as May Queen in the pageant presented by the college at Commencement time last year. The pageant was also a historical one presenting the story of Hillsdale and the college since the founding.

Among the social events of the year were the All-College party at the beginning of the season, open-houses, Thanksgiving and Christmas dances. The alumnae also sponsored a benefit Christmas dance during the holiday season.

PLEGDED: Genevieve Frasier, Moline, Illinois; Dorothy Carlisle, Hillsdale; Alison Ford, East Orange, N.J.; Ardith Helmick, Reading; Catherine Herbert, Manistique; Mary Louise Holmes, Detroit; Martha Jose, Cleveland, Ohio; Beth Marsh, Hillsdale; Roberta Simpson, Litchfield; Ida Jane Spicer, Detroit; Nellie Welch, Detroit; Barbara Wilcox, Gasport, N.Y.

Michigan B began the fall semester with an addition termed the Pi Phi Annex. Because of the large group of pledges last fall the chapter was unable to accommodate all the girls in the house. The Annex is a regulation league house under University rules, but is occupied entirely by members of II B Φ. Twelve girls live there, and all of them like it very much. The annex is only a block away, so the girls are able to eat all their meals at the house.

Maxine Maynard is president of the Women's League this year. She was elected under the new "merit system" just installed last May. This system takes the place of the former campus-ballot system or popular election. Under the merit system, the president and secretary of the League are chosen by two faculty members and three students on the League Board. They base their choice on the past activities and scholarship records of the students. All other positions are appointed by the selected president and secretary. Their choice is also determined on the basis of past merit and scholarship from petitions submitted by the students interested in these positions. There are at present 300 women actively interested in League committee work. This is a great increase over the 60 or 70 women on committees last year.

There are about 1700 more freshmen enrolled in the University this fall than there were a year ago. A new plan has been initiated by the Women's League and the student governing body for the instruction of freshmen women. This is a system carried out by the student leaders who are chosen by the League Board. Each student adviser has charge of a selected group of freshmen whom she advises during Orientation Week and will continue to do so during the first semester. The consultations concern orientation, planning of schedules, and helping with difficulties that may arise during the first semester when the new student is becoming accustomed to the transition. The freshman women, for the first time, are given a lecture once a week given by various prominent faculty members. Student leaders meet after each lecture with the faculty advisers who give them special instructions. They in turn convey these aids and suggestions to their groups through meetings held about twice a month. This whole project is managed entirely through student initiative and suggestion with the aid of a central governing body composed of President Rutheven, Dean Alice Lloyd, and members of the faculty. Ruth Bosse, Barbara Bates, and Marjorie Turner were selected as student advisers.

For the first time at the University of Michigan, independent women are being organized on the same basis as the sorority women. The independents have been divided into zones according to location. Each zone consists of from 30 to 40 girls. They will conduct an association similar and equal to our Panhellenic Association in all its functions. This gives the independent girls much more chance to participate in extra-curricular activities, and to hold responsible class office and League positions.

The famous trio from the Junior Girls' Play of last spring has risen to fame. It is to broadcast one night a week over WWJ under the supervision of Val Coffee. The trio is composed of Maxine Maynard, II B Φ; Jean Seely, K A Θ; and Mary Morrison, X Ω.

Margaret Mustard is Women's Business Manager of the Gargoyle, while Barbara Bates is in charge of the fashion department for the Michigan Daily. Margaret Hiscock is chairman of finances on the newly elected Junior Girls' Play committee.

A "Neighborhood Conference" was held October 13 attended by women student representatives and the Deans of Women of all the Colleges in Michigan. Its purpose was to discuss women student government.

The Annual Panhellenic banquet was held the first week in November for the express purpose of awarding the scholarship cup to the sorority with the highest rating for 1933-34. X Ω won the cup, while II B Φ took second place with an average of 82%.

INITIATED, December 8, 1934: Beatrice Bradley, Edinburg; Martha Ann Drybread, Franklin; Virginia Heavilin, Marion; Julia Province, Virginia Ware, Franklin. Initiated June 11, 1934: Frances Louise Dungan, Indianapolis.

Franklin College under the supervision of President Spencer celebrated its Centennial year October 17, which is homecoming day. One thousand to fifteen hundred alumni were expected to return. Past presidents were to speak at convocations, and at the Centennial dinner distinguished alumni were to be honored with degrees. Fraternities were entertaining their own alumni at lunch.

Upon continuing the Home Economics Department at Franklin Indiana A is very proud that Vivian Thomas, who was president of the chapter in 1931 and 1932, was chosen as the professor. Two other professors have been added to the faculty; L. B. Murdock, the head of the Modern Languages, and W. G. Mather, professor of Sociology.

Indiana A is happy to present six new patronesses: Mrs. John Graham of Edinburg, Mrs. H. E. Murphy, whose daughter is a pledge this year, Mrs. W. L. Portteus, Mrs. Noble Richie, and Mrs. George Middleton, all of Franklin, and Mrs. Florence Garshwiler of Southport, who is an alumna of Indiana B.

The annual II B Φ alumnae dinner was held on the evening of Commencement at the Franklin Country Club and was well attended by out-of-town alumnae. At that time Mary Ritz was awarded the scholarship ring for the highest record in the chapter for four years; Virginia Heavilin, the model pledge, was given the recognition pin for one year. These honors are a tradition in Indiana A.

Last spring Mary Ritz served as an attendant to the May Queen. Laura Duffy was appointed Managing Editor of the "Franklin," the college paper, and Traber Guthrie, the Advertising Manager. Sarah Briscoe was appointed associate editor of the yearbook. In the spring elections, Mary Owen and Sarah Briscoe were elected to the Student Council Executive Board. Beatrice Bradley is vice-president of the sophomore class and Sarah Briscoe is secretary of the junior class. In the freshman elections this fall, Virginia New was elected vice president, and Betty Butler secretary of the class.

PLEDGED: Mary Boegaholtz, Edinburg; Martha Helen Brown, Mary Jane Cooke, Pauline De Vore, Ruth Hicks, Elizabeth Hougland, Josephine Jeffrey, Katherine Murphy, Jean Schafer, Betty Butler, and Elizabeth Wishard, Franklin; Betsy Cohn and Sarah Haas, Seymour; Laura Duffy, Indianapolis; Traber Guthrie, Monticello; Virginia New, Washington; Marjorie Dickson, Hammond.

INITIATED, October 6, 1934: Alice Fry, French Lick; Jane King, Birmingham, Mich.; Beatrice Roehm, Indianapolis; Juanita Spors, Whiting; Louise Wilber, Indianapolis.

Although the new school year has been in swing only a few weeks, Indiana B has already made itself felt as a leader in campus activities. Two of our members, Noreene Warren and Madeline Sheets, were taken into "Taps," the underclassmen's dramatic organization of Θ A Φ. Isabel Connolly is in the major cast of "Ladies Of The Jury" to be given in the near future. Those surviving tryouts for "Frills and Furbelows," a musical fashion show, are Noreene Warren, Alice Fry, Peggy Failing, Juanita Spors, Betty Burnette and Margaret Zechiel. Louise Wilbur, Jeanne Pettinger, and Floy Frank composed the II B Φ Trio which will appear in the production. Isabel is the dramatic director and Floy Frank is the script director of "Frills and Furbelows".

During the first football game here, Mary Welch was announced as one of the four pledges to Pleides, honorary upperclasswomen's social sorority. Betty Burnett is the president of the sorority this semester.

Of the two major campus publications, Beatrice Roehm, Nell Mixon, and Jean Meier are on the Daily Student staff and Dorothy Hamilton, Beatrice Roehm, and Isabel Connolly are on the staff of the Bored Walk, the campus humor magazine.

Peggy Failing is our nominee for the freshman beauty queen in a contest put on by the Bored Walk. Another election to come off soon is that of the senior class officers when Isabel Connolly is running for senior secretary on the slate.

The first thing noticed by the members of Indiana B upon their return to school, was the redecoration of the first floor. Several new pieces of furniture had been added and others had been done over to fit in with the color scheme.

Entertaining the local Alumnae Club with a tea at the chapter house on September 23, the active members facilitated the acquaintance between alumnae group and the pledge class.

Charcoaled sideburns and bustled skirts, reminiscent of the "naughty nineties" on the West Side of New York, were conspicuous at the traditional Bowery Dance, given on October 13, at the chapter house. Sawdust scrapings on the floor, wrapping paper concealing the walls, burlap window coverings, unique signs, kegs for tables and chairs and candles stuck in bottle necks, formed realistic settings for the pledge dance.

Initiation was held early on the morning of October 6, and was followed by a dinner given in honor of the new initiates.

Pledge Day, September 20, 1934

INITIATED, June 20, 1934: Jane Beasley, Georgia Bing, Rosemary Clark, Winifred Hoyt, June Nackenhorst, Winifred Ward, Nancy White, Indianapolis; Mary Ellen Rand, Camby.

One of the most exciting things in view for the chapter at the present time is the realization of the prospective plans for the building of a new chapter house early in 1935.

Butler University is fortunate in having Dr. Arthur Holmes of Philadelphia, Pa., widely known religious scholar and psychologist, as a new professor on the College of Religion staff.

An excellent collection of mounted zoological specimens from Jamaica and the Canal Zone has been presented to the university's zoological museum by Miss Norma Coch, Butler '29.

Continued college education for 133 Butler University men and women has been made possible by the federal government through the Federal Emergency Relief Act.

Mrs. Pearl Haig is substituting as chaperon this semester while Mrs. Paul Coble is enjoying an extended tour of six months in South Africa.

Panhellenic has changed the two semester pledge requirement to one, thereby lessening a long term pledgship. This change resulted from a lengthy discussion which terminated in this decision because of the realization that other universities had been practicing this policy for a long period.

Jane Beasley, Rosemary Clark, Janet Hill, and Mary Ellen Rand were pledged to Spurs, national sophomore honorary. Jeanne Helt was pledged to Chimes, junior honorary, while Lucy Beasley and June Willcutts were capped for Scarlet Quill membership at the annual May Day celebration. In accordance with the plans for founding a new tradition on the campus, the members of Scarlet Quill wore their caps and gowns during the celebration, and afterwards each member placed her Mortar Board on the head of a prospective pledge.

Madeline Sander and Luana Lee were initiated into $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, national professional journalism sorority. Mary Kapp received a \$100 scholarship which was given to a piano student by $M \Phi E$, honorary musical organization. Frances Strong was on the honor roll for the second semester, and June Willcutts was elected president of Scarlet Quill and chairman of the annual Panhellenic dance.

The Student Council's most vital issue this semester has been concerned with a revision of the cut system. Dance deficits incurred by organizations on the campus have been lessened this year by funds from the Student Council budget, the money being realized from donations of $20 from individual members of each social organization.

The University has realized a decided increase in enrollment, having entered its 80th year in September.

At the annual June dinner dance given in honor of the seniors, awards in the form of crested plaques were made to the girls making the highest grades in each of their respective classes. Helen Georgen received the scholarship ring for the highest average in four years of college work, and Frances Strong received the recognition pin for increasing her average from 2.1 to 3.0.

Butler has been sponsoring a series of radio broadcasts designed to offer entertainment as well as to reveal to the people of Indianapolis the advantages of the university curriculum.

PLEGGED: Jane Bosart, Virginia Carson, Louise Edwards, Alice June Holloway, Ruth Long, Bobby Jo Vestal, Indianapolis; Helen Jean Lowry, Fortville; Fern Wagner, Fort Benjamin Harrison.

During the summer the new Women's Residence Hall was built, and this fall the hall was completed in time to house all the freshman coeds. The hall contains one hundred and twenty rooms of which one hundred and ten are occupied. This is the first year that the women's fraternity houses have not housed freshman girls; consequently, the numbers living in chapter houses are small compared to past years.

September 30, the chapter had the annual wiener roast at the log cabin at Lincoln Lodge. The alumnae club entertained the pledges on October 5, at Mrs. Howard Baldwin's home. The pledge dance was given October 19, the night before homecoming. Nadine Muentzer, social chairman, was in charge of the dance. This year as in previous years, the chapter has had exchange teas with the fraternities. The chapter had dinner for the Lafayette Alumnae and their daughters. It is a tradition of the chapter to have monthly birthday parties. The night of the parties all members and pledges spend at the chapter house.

Mary Blind was presented this year with the $\Pi B \Phi$ scholarship ring. Each year the senior with the highest four-year scholarship is awarded the ring. A scholarship to Columbia was given to one of our seniors, Mabelle Cutler. Mary Powell has been elected to $K \Delta \Pi$, an educational honorary. Hope Van Sciever received the W. A. A. skin. The skin is given to the most outstanding seniors—including activities, leadership, scholarship, and participation in W.A.A.

Homecoming took place on October 20. Indiana Δ had its usual cooky-shine on October 21, after which the $\Pi B \Phi$ Association of Purdue University Incorporated held its annual business meeting.

The Mothers' Club presented to the chapter beautiful silverware. Some of the other gifts given to the chapter were a Mexican fruit bowl, and four dozen ruby cocktail glasses presented by our house-mother, Mrs. Cheadle. A dozen and a half linen dinner napkins were given to the chapter by the Fort Wayne Alumnae Club. During the summer the second floor of the chapter house was completely refurnished. In every room are dark maple dressers, chests of drawers, desks, chairs and attractive draperies.

Missouri A is well started on its new year and is trying to keep up the average of last semester. The chapter was awarded the scholarship cup by the Women's Panhellenic Association for the highest scholastic standing among women's fraternities on the campus.

The annual tea to introduce the pledges to the boys on the campus was given Sunday afternoon, September 16. The president, the chaperon, and the new pledges formed the reception line.

W.S.G.A. held a meeting September 13 for all new women students to give them a brief description of all the activities on the campus. The pledges of Missouri A attended in a body and signed up for the various activities they intended to enter.

Alma Louise Dallas was appointed on the committee to revise the rushing rules and is the only member of a major women's fraternity on it. Frances Ferguson is recording secretary of Missouri Workshop, the dramatic organization on the campus. Elizabeth Ann Dickinson is president of Mermaids, the honorary swimming organization of this college, and is also on the board of the Home Economics Club.

The bedrooms in the house have all been redecorated and help the appearance of the house tremendously.

President Walter Williams has just retired from his position after many years of loyal service as head of this university. He will resume his old position as Dean of the Journalism School. Dean F. A. Middlebush is acting as president of the University until a new permanent head is appointed. W. E. Masterson has taken the position of Dean of the Law School which was vacated by the death of Dean Parks last winter.

The Ice Breaker and the Freshman Mixer, two dances to introduce new people around the University, were held during the week following registration and were quite well attended.

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1907

Pledge Day, September 27, 1934

This year, as last year, Missouri B has the largest number of pledges among the women's fraternities on this campus. The rushing season was well organized and planned by a committee of alumnae and actives who started their work last spring. Another aid in rushing was the fact that the Mother's Club took charge of all work in the kitchen so that all actives might be free to rush.

The day before school began was Freshman Day. The program started with a convocation for all new students. Then a luncheon was given by W.S.G.A. for all the women students. This was followed by frosh family group meetings. The final feature of the day was a tea dance given to help the freshmen in getting acquainted.

Missouri B is well represented in all lines of activities and is urging her pledges to go out for at least three of them. In the class honoraries this year: Annie Merce Burnett is a member, and Jocelyn Taylor is president of Mortar Board. Gene Penney and Helen Konesko are members of Ternion, Junior honorary, and Joan Stealey and Edith Wilson belong to Freshman Commission. II B Φ is also represented in Glee Club, W.A.A., Thyrsus, the dramatic club, on staff of student publications, and in League of Women Voters of which Helen Konesko is president.

In various honorary societies, such as: A Z II, Romance language fraternity, Z Φ H, dramatic society, Tanea, literary society, H Σ Φ, Latin society, II M E, mathematics society, and A Δ Δ, scholastic honorary, members of Missouri B are to be found.

At the May Fête last spring Lucille Waite was chosen May Queen. This is one of the highest honors among the women on the campus. Missouri B also had many of its members in the various dances in the Fête.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October 1, 1934

INITIATED, September 23, 1934: Florence Anschutz, Edythe Mayme Callahan, Mary Virginia Hobbs, Katy Squires, Springfield; Frances Brown, Ozark; Helen Crouch, Joplin, Miriam Evans, Hollister; Helen Flint, St. Louis; Marjorie Hornbeak, Fort Pierce, Fla.; and Mary Rupard, Joplin.

The rushing by Missouri Γ was greatly restricted this year, and as a result of Panhellenic rules, the quota system has been adopted on the campus. The total number of actives and pledges in any group cannot exceed 32. It remains to be seen how this system will work, as it has not been used to any great extent in colleges before.

This year Drury College has the largest enrollment it has experienced for some years, the total enrollment being 400. Three members have been added to the faculty of Drury for this year. Dean Alinda Montgomery is taking the place of Dean Lulu Holmes, who is in Japan on a year's leave of absence. Miss Georgia Mae Healy replaces Miss Alice Bond as physical director for women, and Miss Marie Killheffer has been employed to teach an advanced freshman English class. The old tradition of the wearing of green caps and green ribbons by members of the Freshman class has been revived once more, and has been met with unusual enthusiasm.

Pollyanna Plummer is president of the Student Body this year, and Betty Ballantine has been elected vice-president of the freshman class. Georgia Mae Shackelford was elected play production manager of Drury Players, and Marietta Root was elected to the executive board of that organization.

One of the most successful rush parties given was a pirate party held at a country lodge, and many realistic effects were gained through costumes, a treasure chest, and pirate favors.

Missouri Γ presented recognition pins to the following new initiates: Florence Anschutz, highest scholarship in the pledge group, and Miriam Evans, voted as best pledge.

The Y.W.C.A. is beginning its annual freshman commission project with Betty Ann Rountree as chairman of the commission. It is hoped through these weekly meetings to introduce freshman women to campus life and to foster a spirit of congeniality among them.

Missouri Γ has redecorated its rooms and has several new pieces of furniture. Among the articles in our rooms of which we are very proud is the vase which our president, Dorothy Davis, brought to us as a result of being voted the most outstanding delegate at Convention. We are also proud of winning again the scholarship cup, and are endeavoring to win it for the coming year, in order to be able to keep it permanently.

Drury College Panhellenic entertained with a Skirt Scrip dance in October, and plans to have a formal sometime later in the year.

Missouri Γ is eagerly awaiting a visit from our Province President, Mrs. C. C. Daniel, Jr., during the year.

PLEGDED: Mary Catharine Hine, Elba Anne Denton, Betty Pinson, Dorothy Hobbs, Jane Welsh, Springfield; Betty Ballantine, St. John, Mich.; Mary Frances Chadwick, Betty Crippen, St. Louis; and Frances Wilson, Greenfield.

BETTY ANN ROUNTREE

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Chartered, 1925

Pledge Day, September 23, 1924

INITIATED, October 20, 1934; Betsey Archer, Bonnie Bessire, Ella Garth Choate, Kitty Horrell, Kitty Lovejoy, Peggy Marvin, Mary Louise Weaver.

Kentucky A, as the result of the addition of six new pledges, the recent founding and active interest of the Mothers' Club, the more attractive and comfortable re-decoration of the house, and renewed interest in activities on the campus, is looking forward to a very successful year.

The rushes of the season were entertained with a garden party, a buffet supper, and a formal dinner in accordance with the local Panhellenic rules. The first two parties were held in the homes of two of the pledges; the formal dinner was given in the Louis XVI room of the Brown Hotel. The persons in charge of the committees for the parties were Jane Nelson, Mary Bryan, and Louise Brooks respectively.

The new arrangement of the house has added greatly to its appearance. Formerly Kentucky A set aside one room for chapter meetings. Now this room has been converted into a lounge with yellow and brown as its color scheme. An antique table, which seats the entire chapter and guests, has been purchased, and new china and glasses have been received as a gift from the Louisville Alumnae Club. The Mothers' Club assisted in the re-decoration by making curtains and chair covers for several rooms.

Sherley Jenkins, a '34 graduate of the University, and one who was very prominent in Players Club productions, will spend the winter in New York studying at the National Academy of Fine Arts.

Arrangements have been made whereby one active is in charge of each campus activity, and it will be her duty to see that the chapter is represented in the particular field.

With hockey practice getting underway it looks as though Kentucky A will fill the majority of positions on the varsity, as the chapter has had a remarkable turn-out for this sport, and has several players back from last year.

The University of Louisville has made several important changes in its faculty and administrative personnel this year. Due to the fact that the Dean of the Law School was elected Mayor of the city last November, Mr. Joseph A. McClain, Jr., has been appointed to fill this position. Mr. McClain was formerly of the Law faculty of the University of Georgia. Mr. Raymond A. Blackwell, who held the position of Director of Public Relations at Franklin College, Franklin, Ind., has been made Assistant to President Kent and Director of Student Publications. Dr. Henry Noble Sherwood, Director of the University Summer Sessions, left the University to become President of Georgetown College, Georgetown, Ky. To fill his place Dr. Carl J. Kulrsrud was added to the faculty. Dr. Ralph A. Loring, of Ohio State University, has been elected Professor of Physics to fill the vacancy created by the death of Dr. J. W. Sappenfield.

Final plans have been completed on the P.W.A. project for the erection of a $230,000 annex to the School of Medicine.

PLEGDED: Catherine Duffy, Mary Virginia Love, Henrietta Morton, Mary Ann Tyler, and Betty Zinsmeister.
MARY G. BRYAN

TENNESSEE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA

Chartered, 1923

Pledge Day, October 13, 1934

Again the Matriculation day address has been made; again the senior class has made its first pilgrimage to Patten Chapel; and again Tennessee A has faced "rush season."

The whole student body (the largest on record) was surprised upon its return to familiar halls, to find that most of the buildings had been redecorated within and the library extended and remodeled. The chapter house received a coat of new paint, both inside and out, new curtains and draperies and a few new pieces of furniture. The alumnae gave the greatly needed paint!

Many new faces are seen on campus and an unusual number of out-of-town students. Football, the Music Department and the Federal Loan are responsible for many new students.

Recently Dr. Edward Lindsey, head of the English department, produced an opera which he wrote and composed. It was taken from the stories of King Arthur. Several male members of the faculty took important parts and surprised the students with their ability. Ruth Wilber and Mary Marshall were in the chorus of the Nuns. The performance was enjoyed so much that it was repeated by request.

The news which Catherine Wilber brought from Convention has been very inspiring in the work this fall. The scrap book with which Tennessee Alpha won honorable mention at Convention, proved very influential during rushing.

During the summer and early fall an unusual number of our II Φ's have been married, six in all. Two of the most recent brides were in school last year and will be particularly missed by the actives.

As usual a large percentage of the chapter are in the music and dramatics departments. Marguerite Bacon is a student professor in the latter. Virginia Leeds, Virginia Harrell, and Mary Glenn Walker have important roles in "The House Party," the first fall production of the University Players.

All offices in the Y.W.C.A., with the exception of one, are held by II Φ's, as are the three women's offices in the Student Body.

So the year, with its new pledges and all else looks pretty bright.

After pledging, the chapter entertained the new pledges with a cooky-shine. On September 22 the big sisters gave a luncheon for their little sisters at Waggoner's Tea Room.

The Co-Ed Council, of which Dolly Weiss and Charlotte Daly are senior and sophomore members respectively, entertained at its annual tea on Sunday, September 23.

This year the college has instituted a new system of rating. Instead of class divisions, the student body is to be divided into upper and lower division. A certain number of requirements are necessary for admittance to the upper division. This year a course in archeology is being offered at the college. This subject has never been offered before.

Alabama A won second place in scholarship for the past year.

Birmingham-Southern attained fame in football circles here when she won the annual game with Auburn with a score of 7-0.

Four of the new pledges, Marguerite Johnston, Mary Knox, Harriet Sutherland, and Cynthia Kelley, are on the Freshman Commission of Y.W.C.A. Charlotte Daly is in the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. The Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. jointly entertained the new students and the faculty at a tea October 4.

At a recent meeting of Belles-Lettres Literary Club, Charlotte Daly was elected vice-president, and Richardson Ramsay, secretary.

On October 14 the pledges entertained the actives with a steak fry.

With the ideas Dolly Weiss brought back from Convention, we hope to make this year a very successful one.

PLEGDED: Betsy Bryant, Charlotte Daly, Harriet Goff, Marguerite Johnston, Cynthia Kelley, Mary Knox, Katherine Lide, Bernice Lokey, Sara Lowery, Laura Ross Moore, Helen Morrison, Olive Moses, all of Birmingham; Harriet Sutherland, Taxco, Guerrero, Mexico, and Mary Thweatt, of Birmingham.

Pledge Day, October 8, 1934

The fall term of school opened September 12, 1934, with thirteen actives and six pledges returning.

Dr. W. S. Allen, former dean of Baylor University, is the new president of Stetson, succeeding the late Dr. Lincoln Hulley. A reception for Dr. and Mrs. Allen was given by Mrs. Lowry, Dean of Women, September 20, in the parlors of Chaudoin Hall. Stetson University is proud to welcome Dr. Allen into its halls.

Rushing season began September 27 with a Panhellenic Sport party in the Girls' Gymnasium. Dancing, ping-pong, and shuffle-board were enjoyed by the rushees.

Rushees were taken to DeLeon Springs for an open "Dutch-treat" date, September 24. A formal tea honoring the rushees, was held in the chapter room, October 1. Rushing season closed with the twenty-first annual progressive dinner on October 6. The theme of the dinner was the four most important days of the year: Christmas, Easter, 4th of July, and The Day You Go II B Φ.

Stetson Players are presenting Oscar Wilde's "Lady Windermere's Fan" on October 12, in which Bette Stover has the title role. Ruth Boisch also has one of the leads. Sara Wilson has recently been elected president of Y.W.C.A. and Helen Horn, Junior representative to Student Government. Virginia Einzel has been initiated into Θ A Φ, National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity.

Florida A has refurbished its chapter room this year, Ibbey Acree and Helen Rhodes, two alumnae, were in charge of all arrangements.

FLORIDA BETA—FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, September 20, 1934

The fall term of 1934 at Florida State College for Women opened September 10. An enthusiastic class of freshmen, enrolling at that time, assured the success of the coming year. After the first week of registering, sponsored by the Freshman Cabinet of Y.W.C.A., classes began and Panhellenic held sway for several exciting days. Rushing officially opened Friday, September 14, with receptions given by each sorority on the campus for prospective pledges. The succeeding days were filled with luncheons, dinners, and theater parties, and all of this culminated in pledging on Thursday night. Florida B is exceptionally enthusiastic this year as it had the most successful rush season in almost a decade. After pledging, a cooky-shine was given for the thirty-seven potential II B Φ's. The following night a formal banquet was given in honor of the pledges at the Woman's Club in Los Robles Park. The motif of the occasion was that of the II B Φ ship embarking on another voyage with a new crew. The entertainment consisted of an Adagio dance, the "Pi Phi Girl Skit," and talks by the President, Faculty Adviser, and Pledge Sponsor.

The office of Dean of Students has been transferred from Mrs. Charlotte M. Beckham, now Director of Off-Campus Houses, to Dr. Olivia N. Dorman, formerly of the Classic Department. Florida B gave a formal reception for her on October 1, and was the first group to honor her as the new Dean. Members of the faculty and chaperons of each sorority were guests.

Florida Beta is proud of having Lucy Pope, an alumna of the chapter, as the new Province President. She was graduated in 1933. Her outstanding record, while attending school, is widely known to members of II B Φ throughout the country.

Traditions and ceremonies handed down through the years of this school, were followed this year during October and November. The most important of these was Torch Night, symbolizing the union of the freshmen and sophomore classes; and Fealty, which joined together the freshmen and junior classes. The II B Φ pledges selected for Torch Night this year were Phil Asher, Elizabeth Gardner, Mary Kinser, Katherine Rogers, and Jean Treadwell.

Florida B gave a dance the first week-end in October. This is a privilege which has recently been granted to sororities on campus and Florida B was among the first to take advantage of it.

PLEGGED: Phil Asher, Orlando; Dorothy Bellamy, Tallahassee; Catherine Cheatham, Miami; Betty Chitty, Jacksonville; Betty Clark, Miami Beach; Lorena Combs, Miami; Willa Mae Crosby, Citra; Rose Evans, Orlando; Eloise Frink, Jacksonville; Elizabeth Gardner, Miami; Celia Gary, Winter Park; Sarah Graham, Fernandina; Patsy Johnston, Kissimmee; Florence Kerr, Jacksonville; Mary Kinser, Tampa; Virginia Laughner, St. Petersburg; Ermine Lawrence, Tampa; Mildred Long, Orlando; Juanita McElhannan, Lakeland; Kasmier Mumby, Jacksonville; Betty Mumford, Indianapolis, Ind.; Dorothy Osbourne, Miami Beach; Shirley Pemberton, Mary Elizabeth Ramsey, Katherine Rogers, Miami; Marian Alice Rogers, Taveres; Ethel Mae Shaeffer, Jacksonville; Mary Lyle Shipley, Frostproof; Katherine Todd, Tampa; Jean Treadwell, Arcadia; Marjorie Tumlin, Miami; Barbara Welles, Arcadia; Ellen Wiggins, Keystone Heights; Martha Lee Wilkerson; Genevieve Wilkins, Miami; Virginia White, Tampa.

INITIATED, May 29, 1934: Constance Righter, Princeton, N.J.

Rollins College feels very fortunate in having this year a larger enrollment than it has had in several years. There are 150 new students, both transfers and freshmen. Formal rushing started Sunday, September 30, with the Panhellenic tea in the Woman's Club. Pledging came at the end of two weeks; the first week being dutch rushing and the second including formal parties and ending with the indication banquet on Saturday night.

Rollins College feels proud to have on its campus this year a new chapter of Φ Δ Θ fraternity which will be officially installed in January. The chapter was originally the K Φ Σ fraternity, one of the oldest clubs on campus.

President Holt, who has been in Europe for the summer months, has collected fifty new stones for the Rollins walk of fame. Among the stones is one given by Anton Lang, the Christus of the Oberammergau Passion Play. Others include stones from the homes of Richard Wagner, Martin Luther, Albrecht Durer, Hans Sachs, Oscar Wilde, Corot, Victor Hugo, and also one from Westminster Abbey. This year Alfred J. Hanna, professor of Florida History and Assistant to President Hamilton Holt, has been added to our list of eleven who are included in the 1934-35 edition of Who's Who in America. In addition to this number seven of the board of trustees are in this year's edition.

Chartered, 1894

Pledge Day, September 30, 1934

A large number of actives and other upperclassmen returned early this fall to help with the orientation of the freshmen class which numbered 500 more than had been expected. Everyone thought this was a most successful beginning.

The fraternities at Wisconsin inaugurated the preferential bidding system for men this year and the result was that a much smaller number of boys pledged.

The Music Committee of the Memorial Union has scheduled some interesting concerts for the coming year. The Chicago Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Frederick Stock, the Don Cossack Russian chorus, as well as several smaller groups, should make the series a most outstanding and successful one.

The active chapter returned this year to find new maple furniture in many of the upstairs rooms. The plan is to add to this each year until all the bedrooms are refurbished and in this way the house will be greatly improved.

Wisconsin A feels very fortunate in having six transfers on the campus this year. Although none of them are living in the house, their aid was greatly appreciated in rushing. Dorothy Ann Jackson, formerly of Illinois E, was affiliated last spring.

Margaret Simpson won the sorority Ping Pong tournament last spring and was one of the few juniors on the campus to make Φ B K. Jean Charters and Hannah Greeley were elected to Mortar Board.

Jean Charters, Hannah Greeley, and Dorothy Ann Jackson are members of Hoofers, and many others in the chapter are working for membership.

The cooky-shine this year which was held immediately after pledging proved to be a greater success than any this chapter had ever had. Some new ideas were gotten at Convention which turned the former "spread" into a real II B Φ cooky-shine. A large frosted cookie covering an immense platter was decorated with wine colored holders and blue candles arranged in the shape of an arrow. This was placed in the middle of the floor and at each of the pledge's places was a smaller cooky lighted by a candle. This was very impressive in the dark house. In addition to our pledges we were glad to welcome Dean Louise Troxell Greeley.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October, 1934

Alumni returning to Beloit for the festivities of Homecoming October 13 will participate in the consummation of one of Beloit's most cherished dreams when the Walter A. Strong Memorial fieldhouse and stadium will be dedicated between halves of the Homecoming game with Cornell college. The fieldhouse, the gift of Mrs. Josephine Strong, widow of the late Walter A. Strong, publisher of the Chicago Daily News, is a magnificent concrete structure with a seating capacity of nearly 3000. Advance information indicates that the largest number of alumni in several years will attend the dedication services. Other Homecoming features will include the annual fraternity and sorority competition for the trophy awarded for the best float in the Homecoming parade, won last year by Wisconsin B.

Announcement of the election of two II Φ 's, Dorothy Jorgenson, Chicago, and Annabelle Studebaker, Beloit, to Φ B K was made recently. Miss Studebaker and Genevieve Hubbell were elected to Chamberlain Science Club, honorary faculty-student organization, giving Wisconsin Beta a marked lead for scholastic honors on the campus.

Students returning for the opening of college greeted seven new instructors and assistant professors whose services are required by the higher enrollment of the last three years. Men in the freshman class this year outnumber the women nearly three to one, in contrast to the usual equal distribution.

Improvements in the physical equipment of the college during the summer include the complete renovation of the geology laboratories and the completion of new athletic fields for intramural sports.

A committee appointed by President Irving Maurer is preparing a complete new curriculum to be instituted within the next few years. Under the new plan greater liberality for upperclass students will be afforded, several requirements and the institution of "majors" will be abolished, and a new system of honors introduced.

Sorority rushing closed October 1 with the completion of the program arranged annually by the Panhellenic Council. The functions allowed by the supervising group were a tea dance, a supper sing, and a formal dinner.

Rose Franken's "Another Language" has been chosen by the Beloit Players as their production for Dad's Day November 16. Catherine Mitchell will appear in the important role of Mrs. Hallam.

PLEGDED: Helene Jean Mullet, Chicago.

ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE

Pledge Day, December 15, 1934

On May 12, 1934, Monmouth's annual May Fete was held with two of the four attendants from the Illinois A chapter: Eleanor Gehr and Betty McCulloch.

Fire last June destroyed the Little Theater on the campus and this year there is a new structure with outstanding improvements. The homecoming play, "Wellum's Bunty" by Graham Moffat, has Betty McClenahan in the lead, while Lois Fetherston and Margaret Hanna have smaller parts. The chapter held its annual homecoming luncheon on the same day with several out of town guests.

Several new faculty members were introduced to the students by Dr. McMichael at the first chapel Wednesday, September 19. Mr. Keck, who comes here from Stanford, will teach in the English department, filling the vacancy left by Mr. Brown, who is now at the University of Minnesota. Mr. James Wilmoth, a Monmouth graduate, who has been studying at the Pittsburg, Kansas, State College, will take the Biology department this year while Professor McMullen is studying at Johns Hopkins University. The conservatory is offering violin lessons and orchestra instruction under Mr. Kubic, who is an accomplished violinist. Miss Glass is the new college nurse. Dr. Murray returns to teach Bible after two years' absence.

Monmouth College has the largest freshman class in its history and due to the number, it won the annual Pole Scrap October 8.

Martha Wiley, Mary Louise Nelson, Frances Fleming, Mary MacDill, Helen Thomas, and Gertrude White are alumnae of last year who are teaching, while Elizabeth McCulloch is working on her M.A. in math, and Eleanor Gehr is attending Business College in Chicago. Marian Mays and Mary Turnbull are two of the actives who are attending Boulder and Washington University this year.

Margaret Hanna and Evelyn Ruskin were initiated into Σ T Δ , national honorary literary society.

The Alpha chapter of K K Γ was re-established October 13, on Monmouth campus, where the sorority was founded in 1870, following action taken at Yellowstone Park last summer when the local K A Σ sorority presented a formal petition for consideration. The new initiates of K K Γ were honored by a tea given by the active chapter of II B Φ on the afternoon of October 19.

Semester grades as a whole have improved for the chapter and each girl is doing her utmost to help gain back the scholarship cup.

The annual Twelfth Night dinner-dance of Illinois A was held at the Elks Club on December 7. The season's festivities were observed with holly, mistletoe, plum pudding, and other appropriate motifs. After the dinner the evening was spent in dancing.

Pledge Day, September 23, 1934

Last April the Illinois B-D chapter held its Founders' Day banquet in Galesburg together with the Illinois A chapter from Monmouth. The entertainment, furnished by the actives of both chapters and the alumnae, stressed the theme of "Old and New" which was further carried out by the alumnae being dressed in costumes of the "gay nineties" in contrast to the actives who were attired in the usual present-day manner.

Three members of the chapter were elected to Mortar Board last spring: Mary Stewart Bogue, Edna Harshman, who became secretary; and Margaret Pennington, who has been chosen president.

This autumn Knox College is being honored by an extended visit from one of its most distinguished alumni, Ernest Elmo Calkins, who is nationally famous in literary and advertising fields. Mr. Calkins, a student here more than forty years ago, has returned to begin his research in preparation for writing a history of Knox College.

It has been the custom for a number of years for Knox to present a play as a part of its Homecoming festivities. This year the presentation was "The Spider," a mystery melodrama, in which the three leading female roles were taken by Jane Ella McCanna, Jane Godfrey, and Jane Pasche. The cast also included Margaret Gessner, Ada Marie Pierce, and Virginia Gibson.

One of the most important divisions of Knox College is its music department which sponsors two different organizations, the Girls' Glee Club and the College Choir, whose membership is selected on a competitive basis. This year's Glee Club includes Virginia Gibson, Jean Fuhr, Virginia Scott, and Jane Ella McCanna, the latter two also being numbered among the choir personnel.

Illinois B-Δ is well started on another promising and happy year.

PLEGDED: Virginia Gibson, Anne Brown, Mary Louise Gochenour, Barbara Lass, Galesburg; Emily Davis, Teresa Drake, Dorothy Sparks, Chicago; Marian Backus, Maywood; Jane Ella McCanna, Chillicothe; Mary Louise Moreau, Wilmette; Jane Pasche, Roberta Tippet, Peoria; Virginia Reineke, Park Ridge; Elizabeth Post, Alice Richardson, Oak Park; Barbara Winks, Watseka; Helen McMaster, Oneida; Ada Marie Pierce, Gothenburg, Neb.

INITIATED, June 15, 1934, Jane Whitmer, Dayton, Ohio.

The rushing for this fall was carried on from September 17 to September 28, with Barbara Ballenger as chairman. September 31, a banquet was given in honor of the new pledge class. During dinner Isabelle Muligan, the president of the chapter, welcomed the pledges in an informal speech. Marion Crofts spoke on behalf of the pledges and expressed their pleasure over having been welcomed by II B Φ. After the banquet the members of the active chapter had dates arranged for each of the new pledges.

September 6, the active chapter had open house in honor of the new pledges and for the purpose of introducing them to the campus men.

The new rushing chairman is Rita Pool, 331 Davis St., Evanston, Ill.

Eleanor Rockwood is in charge of the correlation department of the E.C.A., which is the newly organized student government association. She is also the women's editor of the Syllabus and a member of Shi Ai. Jane Orr is the new treasurer of the Mortar Board society, and the desk editor of the Daily Northwestern paper. Jane Newmann is the art editor of the Purple Parrot. Frances Ann Clarkson is the new exchange editor of the Purple Parrot. George Ann Rundall and Augusta Roddis are on the freshman commission for the Y.W.C.A.

Edith Lou Docekal is the society editor of both the Daily Northwestern and the Syllabus. She is also on the W.S.G.A. (woman's self government association) board and the Purple Parrot staff.

The members of W.A.A. are Peggy Grigsby, Betty Mersbach, and Pauline Mills.

Betty Eikenbury is the secretary of Panhellenic Council. The present members of the Althenai Literary Society are: Jane Orr, president; Eleanor Rockwood, secretary; Betty Eikenbury, treasurer; Wylene Baldwin, Peggy Grigsby, Augusta Roddis, Julia Ferguson, Leota-Belle Hall.

Isabelle Muligan is a co-chairman of the homecoming committee for this season.

PLEGDED, Jean Smith, Jean Pool, Hermona Clarke, Betty Smart, Evanston; Doris Eberle, Patricia Jones, Oak Park; Marguerite Doyle, Vanita Mangel, Winnetka; Elinor Kresge, Wilmette; Florence Turnbull, Rogers Park; Audrey Marquiss, La Grange; Virginia Miller, Chicago; Louise Powell, Wichita, Kansas; Harriet Howe, Reading, Massachusetts; Jane Dickenson, Washington; Mary Louise Corman, Beardstown; Virginia Simpson, Edwardsville; Emily Serhant, Berwyn; Kathleen Kenety, Duluth, Minnesota; Betty Roth, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mildred Evans, Denver, Colorado; Mary Blair, Monmouth; Mary A. ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Pledge Day, September 14, 1934

Illinois Z was honored by being selected as the Balfour Cup chapter at convention.

The chapter is concentrating on scholarship this year. At chapter meeting each girl hands in a record of her class absences for the week. These are checked by the committee on scholarship. By this method the chapter hopes to raise the scholastic average of the house. Last semester the chapter ranked second in scholarship with a 3.82. Σ K was first with a 3.9.

At the inter-sorority Shi-Ai Sing on Mothers' Day week-end, the chapter won a cup for second place singing. The song used was "Pearls of Pi Beta Phi." The parts were arranged and directed by Annette Wolfram and Jane Whitley Acton. This is the second time the chapter has won a cup singing "Pearls of Pi Beta Phi."

Senior breakfast, an annual event honoring the graduates, was given in May. The seniors received gifts and the scholarship awards were made. Loretta Foellinger received the recognition arrow in the sophomore class, Mary Jane Chandler, in the junior class, and Miriam Buchholtz won the senior ring for maintaining the highest scholastic average for four years.

Ercelia Kiler was elected queen of senior ball in June.

The chapter gave a breakfast Saturday morning, September 22, in honor of Miss Betty Stoolman, who was married Saturday, September 29. She was presented with a copy of a Monet painting. Betty, as you perhaps know, is the daughter of Mrs. A. W. Stoolman, Grand Treasurer. The chapter had an exchange dinner with the Φ Γ Δ chapter, Wednesday, September 26. Sunday afternoon, September 30, the chapter and Φ Δ Θ fraternity gave a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Acton. Mrs. Acton was formerly Jane Rose Whitley of Illinois Z.

Gloria Crawford has been selected as the sophomore manager of Star Course, which sponsors a series of concerts during the year. Annette Wolfram has been chosen as nominee for the popularity contest which is under the auspices of the Illinois Union. The three winners were given a trip to the Illinois-Wisconsin football game, November 17, at Madison.

During the summer, the house committee, as is its annual custom, selected new furniture and had repairs made on the house.

PLEGDED: Helene Bennett, Litchfield; Jane Chapeck, Florence Keeler, Park Ridge; Dorothy Clark, Chicago; Dorothy Cummings, Virginia Kinsey, Peoria; Marjorie Edwards, Wollaston, Mass.; Maxine Evans, White Hall; Jean Fair, Evanston; Bethel and Katherine France, Freeport; Nell Gere, Alton; Mary Kervey, Galesburg; Catherine McGorray, Warrensburg; Mary Ann Price, Brocton; Ann Jeannette Swanson, Chesterton, Indiana; Patricia Warren, La Grange; Betty Faris, Mary Angell, Charlotte Johnston, Margaret Van Horne, Urbana; Belle Fullerton, St. Louis, Missouri; Helen Wells, Sycamore; Edith Squires, Champaign.

LANELLE PHELPS

ILLINOIS ETA—JAMES MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1912

Pledge Day, September 22, 1934

INITIATED, October 20, 1934: Edwina Ritscher, Taylorville; Emily Jane Wood, Decatur.

The week of September 23-30 was Y.W.C.A. week on the Millikin campus. The purpose of this week is to get the freshman women interested in Y.W.C.A. and also to get them acquainted with the upperclassmen. Helen Ruth Chodat of Illinois H, and membership chairman of Y.W., sponsored the membership drive all through the week. During this week the first Y.W. meeting was held and Dr. Hessler, Millikin's new president, spoke. This was followed by an All Millikin Women Gypsy Tramp. Roberta Morris, social chairman of Y.W., was in charge. The week officially closed with a vesper service, Sunday afternoon, in the Millikin chapel.

Alpha Omega, senior men's honorary fraternity, sponsored its annual Freshmen Frolic in the Millikin Gymnasium Friday September 28. The principal entertainment of the evening was the stunt contest in which each sorority and fraternity presented an original stunt. T. K. E. won the cup and S. A. E. and II B Φ were given honorable mention.

Illinois H chapter entertained the new president and his wife and Mrs. Walker, the new house mother of Aston Hall, at dinner in the chapter house Tuesday, October 2. Dr. and Mrs. Hessler's daughter, Dr. Margaret Hessler Brookes, is an alumna of this chapter. Mrs. Walker, the former Ruth Bicknell, is also an alumna of Illinois H.

Six members of this chapter modeled in a style show which was presented as a part of the entertainment at the opening of the new Municipal Theatre here October 2. In this way, $12.50 was earned towards the fund for Settlement School.

Friday, October 5, at the first regular chapel service, the students and faculty of the university had the pleasure of hearing a concert by the Millikin orchestra with Vera Barstow, well known concert artist, as guest soloist.

This year S. A. E. and $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ have returned to their former chapter houses on Fairview Avenue thereby making Fraternity Row a reality, as there are now 4 out of 7 of the Greek Letter Houses on this campus in one block on this street. S. A. E. officially recognized their new home with an "Open House Tea" Sunday, October 7, to which all students, members of the faculty, and alumnae were invited.

"The Drunkard," the first play of this season, to be presented by the Municipal Players of Decatur, was given Tuesday, October 16. Rosemary Moorehead of Illinois H played one of the leading women's roles.

Janet Alsip, Editor of the Decaturian (the Millikin weekly) represented the university at the convention, in Chicago, October 11, 12, 13, of the Associated Collegiate Press.

Millikin Homecoming was observed the week-end of October 26, 27, 28. It started Friday evening at a Bonfire and pep meeting on the back campus. Saturday morning there was a Homecoming chapel and Saturday noon all fraternities had luncheons for their own alumnae. The game with St. Viator was played in the afternoon and was followed by an All Millikin Dinner. The Town and Gown Players presented their annual Homecoming play, which was this year, "The Late Christopher Bean" that night and was followed by the Homecoming dance.

PLEGGED: Jean Beall, Janet Dillehunt, Katherine Hamilton, Frances Sanders, Elizabeth Mills, Janet Patton, Decatur; Marie Ridgley, Arcola; Elinor Shoaff, Shelbyville; Margaret Jane Stormont, Salem; Mary Frances Lawrence, Joplin, Mo.; Mary Louise Lear, Springfield.

MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA

Chartered, 1929

Pledge Day, October 9

The Board of Governors has appointed to the presidency of the university, Sidney E. Smith, formerly Dean of the Law School at Dalhousie. President Smith, although a young man, has risen rapidly in the field of education, and the university has great confidence in his abilities.

Manitoba A stood first on the campus in scholarship last year, and is eligible for the Z T A Scholarship Cup. Thelma Hermanson was awarded a traveling scholarship, and is studying this year at the University of Toronto. Margaret Bjornson received an Isbister Scholarship in the Arts Faculty.

The charity ball of the Winnipeg Alumnae Club had to be postponed because of conflicting functions, but it will be held at a later date. The alumnae entertained the rushees and actives during informal rushing at a tea and fashion parade. The fashions depicted were a contrast between the college girl of today and the college girl of thirty years ago.

Manitoba A is entering upon an intensive cultural program during the coming year to realize further the aim of the Fraternity for a finer womanhood. For this purpose a literary committee has been created, and it is arranging a short series of lectures to be given to the chapter by prominent people in the fields of science, art, and politics. The program will also include readings at the chapter meetings from selected books, plays, or poems.

The chapter is occupying its new apartment in the downtown district of the city.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, September 22, 1934

INITIATED, September 15, 1934: Margaret Pierce, Mandan; Lorene Berg, Dickinson; Ann Bethel, Bemidji, Minn.

INITIATED, May 5, 1934: Harriet Miller, Crookston, Minn.

The enrollment at the University of North Dakota has increased this year and many students have been given F.E.R.A. jobs which enable them to continue their education.

The quota system was used again this year in rushing. The number of pledges allowed to each women's fraternity was eighteen. This number is six more than last year.

Five members from North Dakota A attended Convention this summer. They are: Miriam Onstad, delegate; Delores Bonzer and Lillian Morck, alumnae; Ruth Surprenant and Harriet Miller, of the active chapter. All of the girls reported that they had a most interesting time at Convention.

The chapter is already interested in activities on the campus. Margaret Pierce is chairman of the Awards Committee for Homecoming, October 20. Mary Cave was elected vice-president and Geraldine Gibbons publicity manager for Playmakers, for the coming year. Claire Stromberg is in the Glee Club, while Geraldine Gibbons is society editor for the Student, with Charlotte Stromberg as her assistant.

Miriam Onstad gave the welcoming address to the Freshman girls upon their entrance to the university this fall term, at the first Convocation.

Joint meetings of active and pledge chapters are held every other Monday night after cooky-shine.

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Chartered, 1890

Pledge Day, October 8, 1934

Panhellenic has reduced the expense allowed for rushing with the aim of giving smaller women's fraternities a better chance to compete. Nine functions may be held throughout formal rushing week, the final one being the formal preference dinner.

Betsy Emmons and Edith Reed were elected to Mortar Board last spring. Helen Hoff and Betsy Emmons were elected to $\Phi \beta \kappa$.

The chapter presented a gift to Edith Reed in appreciation of the honor bestowed upon her. Miss Reed submitted a design for a two million dollar bridge to be built at Omaha which was accepted over those submitted by the nation's most skilled architects.

Freshman Week was brought to a close September 30 by three outstanding events. They were the Men's and Women's Mixers and the Freshman Carnival. The registration this year of approximately 11,800 has proved to be an increase over last year's enrollment.

Twelve girls from Minnesota A attended the Convention last spring. Their inspiring tales have been of great interest to the chapter.

The current problem for Minnesota A is scholarship. A system of special study hours is being enforced, each girl being required to spend certain hours in the library.

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1868

Pledge Day, September 29, 1934

There are about 270 students enrolled in Iowa Wesleyan this year. This enrollment is about the same as it was last year. The Student Relief Employment gives work to a great many students.

There are six new professors on Wesleyan's campus this year. They are Miss Waggoner, Mrs. Wilson, Professor Hamm, Dr. Morrow, and Dr. Grube.

Wesleyan's track team took second place in the Iowa

Conference meet last spring. Ray Patterson took many individual honors, including second place in a Kansas meet and a second place in the Drake Relays.

The Commencement breakfast for the seniors was held June 3, 1934. Elna Stewart received an award for having the most activities. Alice Talbot was awarded the best pledge prize. A farewell gift was given to Elinor Thompson.

Mary Conover was elected president of W.A.A. Mary is also president of Ellen Richards, the home economics club. Alice Talbot is the vice president of W.A.A., and Josephine Carper is the historian. Charlotte Allen is a newly initiated member of the biology club. Virginia Holland is secretary of the junior class. Helen Hunt is the circulation manager of the Westleyan News. Charlotte Allen, Elna Stewart, Josephine Carper, Helen Weibley, and Alice Talbot are on the news staff. Alice Talbot and Elna Stewart are members of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Josephine Carper is an officer in M. 2.

The chapter rooms have an entirely different appearance from last year. The rooms are newly papered and the floors are varnished. The Advisory Board covered the upholstered furniture. The chapter owes a great deal to the enthusiastic support given by the Advisory Board and the alumnae club.

A cooky-shine was held in the rooms on October 2. It was given in honor of the new pledges. Homecoming was November 9. The annual cooky-shine in honor of the visiting alumnae was given at this time.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE

Chartered, 1874

Pledge Day, September 22, 1934

INITIATED, October 3, 1934: Gene Griffith, Des Moines. This year again Iowa B's motto is no activity on the campus without a II B Φ present. The pledges and actives are encouraged to enter the activities in which they are mainly interested. Several of the girls have already taken prominent parts in this year's activities.

Harriet Harlan, Mary Ida Nelson, Phyllis Emmons, and Eleanor Benson were initiated into Blackfriars Dramatic Club. Several of the pledges are trying out for Freshmen Players. Three members, Martha Katherine Riggs, Phyllis Emmons, and Harriet Harlan hold offices on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. There are two II B Φ members on the W.A.A. board, Mary Ida Nelson as basketball manager, and Phyllis Emmons as hockey manager. Phyllis Emmons is a member of the Student Council. Mary Moist was initiated into the Home Economics Club of which Harriet Harlan is president. A number of the girls are working on the college newspaper "The Simpsonian."

The scholarship committee is working hard to raise the chapter grade standing on the campus. Iowa B is proud of Phyllis Emmons who led the student body in scholarship last semester. Five other II B Φ 's were listed this fall on the honor roll.

The actives, new pledges, and alumnae enjoyed a cooky-shine at the house pledge night, September 22. Many of the out-of-town alumnae were present. Open house was held for the fraternities that evening.

PLEGDED: Mary Ervilla Moist, Ida Grove; Winifred Heaton, Creston; Elizabeth Gardner, Audubon; Mary Elizabeth Ingram, Mt. Ayr; Olive Miller, Mathiston, Mississippi; Charlotte Schrier, Indianola; Phyllis Williams, Mt. Ayr; Nina Gilbert, Indianola; Ellen Belle McClelland, Indianola; Mildred Severs, Bedford; Virginia Wingett, Newton Center, Massachusetts.

IOWA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Pledge Day, September 20, 1934

Iowa Z had the pleasure of having four of its charter members as guests last June. Mrs. Stephan Swisher of West Liberty, Iowa; Mrs. Sidney Moor, Monrovia, California; Mrs. Charles Dayton, Iowa City, Iowa; and Mrs. Cassius Wirick, San Diego, California; returned for the fiftieth anniversary of their Commencement. The university presented the eighteen members who returned from the class of 1884 with gold medals.

At the annual Rose Ceremony held at President's Point last spring Ruth Aurner, Elizabeth Fuller, and Marjorie Gene Maier were elected to Mortar Board. Ruth Aurner was chosen president.

October 4, Eugene A. Gilmore was officially inaugurated President of the University of Iowa. Dr. Gilmore was formerly Dean of the College of Law.

The quota system for pledging was introduced on the campus this fall. A chapter that had twenty or more members was permitted to pledge fifteen girls in order to allow a minimum active membership of thirty-five.

The first activity try-out on the campus was held last week for the University Chorus. The pledges chosen for chorus work were: Pauline Anderson, Margaret Christensen, Margaret and Madalyn Hickenlooper, Madge Jones, Jane Louise Leary, Maxine Redmond and Frances Mary Zoekler.

PLEGDED: Pauline Anderson, Bedford; Helen Blanchard, Council Bluffs; Lavanda Carr, Clermont; Margaret Christensen, Eagle Grove; Ruth Flynn, Quincy, Illinois; Katy Lou Fritz, Ottumwa; Margaret Hickenlooper, Madalyn Hickenlooper, Winterset; Madge Jones, Cedar Rapids; Jane Louise Leary, Omaha, Nebraska; Eloise Perkins, Sac City; Maxine Redmond, Monticello; Louise Remley, Anamosa; Janet Welden, Iowa Falls; and Frances Mary Zoekler, Davenport. SOUTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

Chartered, 1927

Pledge Day, September 21, 1934

INITIATED, October 20, 1934: Allene Chiesman, Newell; Hazel Williams, Rapid City.

The University of South Dakota opened this year with a big increase in enrollment and prospects for the year are bright. Improvements in the chapter house include new furniture for one living room, new draperies for the entire first floor, new bedroom furniture, and furniture for our house mother's room. Many of the rooms have been repapered and the floors refinished.

Formal rush week opened September 17. Instead of dividing the afternoon into three periods, there were only two. This gave the sororities better opportunity to become acquainted with the rushees. Mary Blanchard from Iowa Z visited South Dakota A during rush week.

K Λ ranked first in scholarship last year. South Dakota A has raised its scholarship from fifth place to third place. The members are concentrating on scholarship this year and are endeavoring to raise their average to first place. There will be supervised study hall for two hours every night of the week for pledges and study in the library during free periods.

Eleanor Tjaden has been offered a scholarship to Washington University at St. Louis, Missouri. Pauline Hunt, who was graduated from the university last June, is teaching at Harold this year.

PLEGGED: Doree Denise, Betty Duff, Cosette Ewing, Rapid City; Mary Katherine Griffen, Clark; Helen Lacy, Sioux Falls; Ruth Larson, Kiron, Iowa; Ruth Radschlag, Sioux City, Iowa; Frances Sinnig, Lennox.

REPLEGGED: Hazel Williams, Rapid City.

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered, 1895

Pledge Day, September 25, 1934

INITIATED, September 23, 1934: Nola Alter, Alma; Eugenia Bedson, Lincoln; Helen Cary, Kearney; Mildred Ehlers, Scribner; Virginia Foster, Lincoln; Alice Kirby, Springfield, South Dakota; Margaret May, Lincoln; Maxine Throsson, Riverside, Calif.; Eleanor Weaverling, Kansas City, Mo.; Marilou Williams, Fort Morgan, Colo.

Nebraska B is very fortunate in having 25 active girls living in the chapter house this fall. So many more returned to school than usual.

Since the campus ruling against smoking in women's fraternity houses has been abolished this year, the chapter has made a smoking room of one of the bedrooms on third floor. It has been furnished and decorated in keeping with its purpose.

Rush week was held the three days before registration this year, and proved much more satisfactory than if held during registration, as it has been in previous years.

Nebraska B is very much encouraged over its improvement in scholarship. Its campus rating with the other women's fraternities was raised seven places this year over the year before. Scholarship has been the primary interest of the chapter for the past three years.

Yvonne Yager, a junior, is a transfer to Nebraska B from Iowa B, Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa. Yvonne is from Nebraska City.

The chapter entered the annual intersorority sing on Ivy Day last May and won honorable mention. Lois Brahm, '34, was chosen as one of the six most beautiful women on the campus and had a full page picture in the Cornhusker, Nebraska's yearbook. Calista Cooper was elected to Mortar Board, A.W.S. Board, and Student Council. Sancha Kilbourn is the society editor of the Daily Nebraskan, newly elected member of Tassels, and has just received the appointment of Women's Organization editor of the 1935 Cornhusker. Dorothy Frankforter and Jane Edwards are members of $\Pi \Lambda \Theta$, National Honorary Education Sorority. Beth Langford and Veronica Villave are members of the University Players. Veronica has the leading role in their first production. Jacqueline James was chosen a Big Sister. Eva Mae Livermore and Mary Jane Hughes, seniors, have been chosen as princesses at the Ak-Sar-Ben ball to be held in Omaha October 12.

The chapter received word September 29 of the sudden and untimely death of Cornelia Walcott. Cornelia was a freshman in the chapter last year and had planned on returning to school this January. She had many close friends in the present chapter and was dearly loved by us all.

PLEGGED: Mary Belle Bates, Rushville; Ruth I. Brown, Harlan, Iowa; Melba Dvoec, Marion Edgren, Lincoln; Virginia Gould, Omaha; Jane Holland, Lincoln; Eda Clare Maxwell, Helen Thichoff, St. Joseph, Mo.; Jean Rogers, Minden; Mary Ann Rosencrans, Plattsmouth; Marguerite Wishart, Evansville, Ind.

KANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

Chartered, 1873

Pledge Day, September 15, 1934

INITIATED, June 10, 1934: Louise Moore, Wichita; Lovce Hopp, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Elizabeth Heaton, Omaha, Nebraska; Betty Lou MacFarland, Topeka.

Rush Week at Kansas University began on Thursday this fall and ended on the following Sunday, when Kansas Alpha was able to add 28 names to the chapter roll, a larger pledge class than has been for several years. The population of the house is now 58, with 30 active members back in school, two transfers, and, with eight town girls, making a total of 64 in the chapter. Perhaps the highly-successful rush-week may be accounted for by the unexpected spell of cool weather, the first that has been recorded in Kansas' September history, but more likely by an increase of 400 over the enrollment of last year in the university, and by the wonderfully planned and executed re-decoration of the entire chapter house.

On the Dean's Honor Roll for last spring were Laura Lukens, Josephine Hellings, Jane Heffner, Nancy Newlin, Barbara Pendleton, and Margaret Pyle. New members of the Quack Club, honorary swimming organization, are Rachel Kiene and Barbara Koenig. Frances Bruce had the highest number of points in all intramural athletics last year. Thirteen freshmen are now in the semifinals in $\Sigma \Sigma$, honorary dancing fraternity, tryouts.

The pledges were entertained at an informal midnight spread by the sophomores, and a week later the freshmen entertained all the active chapter members at a similar affair. Friday, October 5, the chapter held open-house for the pledges, and Saturday, October 6, entertained at tea for more than 200 $\Pi \Lambda \Theta$ mothers and alumnae, as well as faculty members. The pledges' formal party, given in honor of the actives, was November 23.

KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE COLLEGE

Chartered, 1915

Pledge Day, September 22, 1934

INITIATED, May 31, 1934: Esther Hedges, Kansas City, Mo.; Betty Jones, Wichita; Phyllis Monnier, Concordia.

INITIATED, October 6, 1934: Monita Harris, Parsons; Ruthanna Jones, Garden City; Virginia Maser, Parsons.

Special efforts are being made this year toward high scholarship and college activities. Marlene Dappen, Winifred Winship, Esther Hedges, and Pauline Pope have been taken into Purple Pinstripers; Jean Sullivan was recently elected president of Bit and Bridle. Mary Heeter, Barbara Peters, and Betty Winter were accepted into Frog Club. Iris Miller, Frances Farrell, Gertrude Tobias, Dorothy Hughes, Monita Harris, Ruthanna Jones, and Janet Murdock have been taken into Enchiladis, honorary social dancing organization, and Emily Davis became a member of Orchestrus. As College Sister captains, which is a branch of Y.W.C.A. work, Marian Todd, Marlene Dappen, and Frances Farrell have been very active. Betty Jones, Esther Hedges and Caroline Dawley are on the Kansas State Collegian staff and Jean Sullivan is on the Collegian Board. Esther Hedges is in charge of the organization section of the Royal Purple, Kansas State yearbook. The home economics majors in the chapter all belong to the Margaret Justin Home Economics Club and participated in the activities of Home Economics Hospitality Week last May. Glenda-Mae Hodge was assistant director of the Manhattan Little Theatre production in the spring. Great interest is being shown in intramural sports and W.A.A. and a number of the girls have made the class teams.

Wilma Cowdery was initiated into Mortar Board just before college closed last spring and is president of that organization this year. At the Women's Panhellenic Scholarship banquet held on May 12, Ernestine Merritt, Ruth Obenland, Lucille Allman, Wilma Cowdery, Kathleen Mallon, Frances Farrell, and Winifred Winship were honor guests. $\Phi \chi \Phi$ recognition was given to Winifred Winship and Caroline Dawley, and Sophomore Honors were awarded to Frances Farrell and Betty Miller. Betty also received Sophomore O N recognition.

On May 6, Kansas B had a special Mothers' Day dinner. Twenty-one mothers were present. The spring rush party was held at the Manhattan Country Club on May 19 and the summer rush party was held there on July 21. Open House in honor of the pledges was on September 14 and a cooky-shine for the chapter was given by the alumnae following the formal pledging services. The annual $\Pi B \Phi$ fall party was given by the pledges honoring the actives at the Wareham Ballroom on November 10.

Before the close of school the patrons and patronesses of Kansas B, K K I, $\Pi B \Phi$ brothers and sweethearts, members of the Alumnae Advisory Board and their husbands, and Mrs. Mary P. Van Zile, Dean of Women, were entertained at dinner. The chapter celebrated "Birthday Night" for all the girls in the chapter having summer birthdays and the new initiates had a special dinner at the Hotel Gillette. $\Pi B \Phi$ was also hostess at a Senior Womens' Panhellenic exchange dinner.

Lucille Allman brought distinction in music to herself and to Kansas B. She carried leading roles in several of the college operatic productions and was a member of the college faculty quartette, the first student ever to receive that honor. She was recently accepted at the Juilliard Conservatory of Music in New York City and is studying there this winter.

Ruth Haynes, Colorado B, is the new Y.W.C.A. secretary and Kansas B is glad to have her here at Kansas State.

The activities of rush week were a little different this year. Silent rules went into effect on the Sunday before rush week started on Wednesday. Favors of any kind were prohibited from rush parties and the rush week parties consisted of breakfast, tea and dinner dates instead of luncheon, tea and dinner. Rushing is being continued throughout the semester, two or three rushees being invited to dinner and for over night each week.

During the summer the chapter house was refurnished with new beds and mattresses, wicker furniture for the smoker, and a new gas range in the kitchen.

Eight girls of Kansas B attended convention: Marian Todd, Kathleen Mallon, Glenda-Mae Hodge, Phyllis Monnier, Betty Jones, Esther Hedges, Frances Farrell and Rosalind Almen.

Perhaps the most exciting incident of the summer in Manhattan was the night Denison Hall, the chemistry and physics building on the campus, burned. The burning chemicals furnished a display of fire-works unequalled by any Fourth of July celebration. Many valuable research experiments and weather records were destroyed. The loss was estimated at $180,000.00. The origin of the fire was undetermined.

COLORADO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

Pledge Day, September 23, 1934

The freshman enrollment has been greatly enlarged and may be attributed to the improvement in housing conditions for women. The university has opened a new freshman women's dormitory this fall. The building is of modernistic architecture, blending in with the other buildings on the campus. The building is composed of four halls, each having its own dining room and recreation room, and housing seventy-five girls.

Last May, Colorado A and Colorado B celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the installation of $\Pi B \Phi$ in Colorado. The entire Broadmoor Hotel at Colorado Springs was turned over to the $\Pi B \Phi$'s for this celebration. Over 250 members were present. Miss Onken was guest of honor and officiated at the initiation of the honorary member of Colorado A, Florence Ragland Brown.

This fall, Mrs. W. H. Schutz, formerly of Kansas City, became the new house mother of Colorado A. Mrs. Schutz brings to the chapter a wealth of sound, practical experience and a charming, dignified, and understanding personality, which have already been a source of inspiration to the chapter.

Last May, Louise Epperson was pledged to and made president of Mortar Board, national honorary society for senior women. The chapter considered this a great honor as only six girls were pledged. Elizabeth Evans and Betty Carey were pledged to Hesperia, honorary society for junior women. Betty Carey was elected president. Jane Sampson, Frances Hodges, Jane Collins, and Peggy Benwell were pledged to Spur, honorary society for sophomore women.

Colorado A has just redecorated the chapter house. The members are particularly proud of the new upstairs lounge. It is done in shades of chartreuse green, ivory, and black, and is of modernistic style.

Louise Epperson, as one of the members of Student Council, was put in full charge of all class elections in the University this year. Jane Ross, rush captain for Colorado A, was elected president of the Summer Panhellenic this year. Last May Pauline Parks was made a member of $\Phi B K$.

Rushing this past summer consisted of two weeks of calling and one large party given at the Denver Country Club; a dinner was given for the little sisters, also at the Denver Country Club. Rush week consisted of two teas and five parties. The decorated party was the traditional night club party. Following informal pledging on Saturday, September 22, the mothers' club gave the actives and pledges a buffet supper.

Social activities are now in full swing. Open house, an annual affair at which the chapter introduces its pledges to the fraternity men on the campus, was held on Friday, October 5.

PLEGDED: Ruth Benwell, Dorothy Ann Bown, Rebecca Clinton, Betty Curigan, Marion Epperson, Rose Forbes, Joyce Littell, Gertrude Orahod, Mary K. Phillips, Rosita Sutton, and Virginia Williams, all of Denver; Genevieve Parkerson, Ft. Collins; Patsy Varvel, Greeley; Sue Crawford, Waco, Texas; Mary Sue Thompson, Plalino, Texas; and Jacqueline Ward, Artesian, New Mexico.

Colorado B entertained its Province President, Mrs. Hanna, on her visit for chapter inspection, October 2, 3, and 4.

The Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. of the University of Denver had two mixers for all freshmen and new students of the campus. The mixers were held in three of the fraternity houses on the evenings of October 3 and 4. These evenings of dancing, games, and short programs gave the freshmen a chance to become acquainted with each other and with some of the upperclassmen as well as the sponsors of the two organizations.

The Mentor group on the campus is an organization of upperclass women which assists the freshman girls in becoming adjusted to campus life and activities. The organization of the Arts Campus had tea in the Mary Reed Library, September 22 for all "Little Sisters." The Mentor group of the School of Commerce entertained September 26 for the freshmen of that school.

The newly formed Independent Women's group served tea for freshman girls not affiliated with any women's fraternity.

The Women's Athletic Association had a "round-up," including a picnic supper and entertainment, for the freshman girls, September 27 at Daniel's Park, southwest of Denver. This, and the annual Rilling Athletic Club Ball, are the two major events of the athletic department during the year.

The University of Denver has "Jitney Dances" every Friday noon in the gymnasium, charging $.05 for each person. The money goes toward the Student Union Building which will be completed by January 1, 1935.

Pledges of Colorado B annually entertain the pledges of all other women's fraternities on the campus at tea. This tradition will be followed this year also.

PLEGDED: Betty Arnold, Jeanne Brown, Geraldine Bowles, Helen Deardorf, Virginia Gray, Jacqueline Greenawalt, Mary Jean Hall, Clara Jane Holmes, Jean Hull, Elinor Roberts, Edna Saunders, Virginia Teets, Jane Tolle, Denver; Nadine Bancroft, Trinidad; Kathryn Holliday, Cheyenne, Wyoming. INITIATED, September 17, 1934: Marjorie Brandon, Cheyenne; Marion Holliday, Eloise Stevenson, Laramie; Marion Rugg, Wheatland; Genevieve Stewart, Green River.

At the special initiation held just before Convention, Wyoming Alpha initiated the following girls: Helen Gottschalk, Elizabeth Cady, Laramie; Helen Crompton, Evanston; Ruth Ward, Cody.

Wyoming A was well represented at the Honor Assembly last spring as several Honor Books were received. These were awarded to Mary Coughlin, Betty Burrage; Lena Johnson, Eloine Cook, and Elizabeth Howard. Also this chapter won the W.A.A. loving cup which is awarded each year to the sorority on the campus winning the most competitive sports.

On the campus this year Pi Beta Phis hold six presidencies. Elizabeth Milne, president of Mortar Board; Dorothy Fitch, president of Y X; Elizabeth Howard, Big Sister Chairman and president of Education Club; Maudie Doyle, president of A Z II, and president of Mask and Sandal.

The enrollment this year at the University is larger than it has ever been. The registration shows 1210 students attending. Many freshmen entertainments were planned, including a Mixer, September 28. Saturday, September 29, was the date of the Coed Ball.

Clara Tatting was chosen as Junior Prom queen at the dance last May. Maudie Doyle was initiated into Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatics fraternity. Marjorie Brandon is treasurer of the Sophomore Class, and Elizabeth Milne has been elected to the office of Secretary of the A.S.U.W. Virginia Looney, a new pledge, has just been elected Secretary of the Freshman Class.

The annual pledge dance has been set for December 8, 1934 at Gray's Gables.

Open-houses for the fraternities and men's dormitory were held every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings starting October 2 and ending October 16.

Wyoming A has been very honored by the visit of the Province president, Faith Martin Hanna. Also, the chapter was honored by the presence of Nita Hill Stark at its summer rush party.

The rush session this year was again a closed one, and Wyoming A was very successful.

OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF

OKLAHOMA

Chartered, 1910

Pledge Day, September 12, 1934

Oklahoma A held its pledging breakfast on September 12, for its 27 fall pledges.

The present enrollment which is approximately 5,500, an increase of about 300 over the number last year, is the largest in the history of the University of Oklahoma.

Extensive plans are being made by the chapter to encourage improvement of scholarship. Pledges are also requested to have as many activities as possible. Christine Gilstrap and Elizabeth Smith were accepted as regular members of the University Glee Club.

Oklahoma A is glad to welcome the following transfers: Frances Bartlett from Texas A. Martha Collier, Alma Corbett; Dorothy Jane Mathews, Dolores Huffman, and Marvel Anderson, all from Oklahoma B; Glenna Mae Hodge from Kansas B; Jennie Lou Johnson from Arkansas A; Louise Morrel from Texas A; Lois Straight from Kansas A; and Patsy Kilpatrick from Louisiana A.

Pledge Day, September 8, 1934

All of the sororities on the campus have hired tutors to keep study-hall and supervise the scholarship of members and pledges. They have the dean's permission to obtain an account of their grades and cuts from each instructor. The tutor keeps a card file so that they may keep up with each girl's present record.

Pi Beta Phi received the City Panhellenic Scholarship cup for the third consecutive semester, and hopes to keep the cup this year also.

Construction on Murray Hall, the new dormitory, to accommodate 450 girls, is rapidly nearing completion. The building is very attractive and will add much to the campus.

Open House, honoring our new pledges, was held on Sunday, September 23. A short musical program was held and punch was served during each fifteen minute interval. The first football game of the season was Friday, September 28, against Oklahoma Baptist University.

Helen Mullendore was elected to Orange Quill, honorary sophomore woman's organization; Betty Price was elected to Orange and Black Quill, honorary junior women's organization; and Patricia Mills to Achafes, organization petitioning Mortar Board. The girl's making the Dean's Honor Roll of Distinguished Students were: Helen Mullendore, Lou Doris Waters, Catherine Cave, Catherine Amt, Edith Carr, Joye Davis, Mary Katherine McGovern, and K. J. Pratt.

PLEGGED: Marie Amis, Elsie Critz, Elsie Jarvis, and Rozanne Trescott, Shawnee; Maxine Keister, Jane Morgan, and Dorothy Page, Tulsa; Marianna Otey, Peggy Laws, and Liberty Bennett, Stilwater; Mary Pryor, Council Bluffs, Iowa; Dorothy Caswell, Clarinda, Iowa; Marjorie Douthat, Quapaw; Opal Marie Larason, Fargo; Christine McKown, Maud; Frances McLean, Ardmore; Christine Mullendore, Hominy; Helen Messina, Haileyville; Irene Mabry, Oklahoma City; Frankie Brown, Sayre.

ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Chartered, 1909

Pledge Day, September 15, 1934

INITIATED, October 11, 1934: Mary Gordon Richardson, Perthenia Kane, Catherine Hardin, Fort Smith; Eva Metz, Harrisburg; Phyllis Houston, Fayetteville; Constance Wandell, Tyler, Tex.

Ruth Clay, $\Delta \Delta \Delta$, was elected Freshman Queen October 4. The sororities of the campus are now joining in a sale of tags to elect a Homecoming Queen. Second place automatically selects the sponsor for the Baylor-Arkansas game to be held at Little Rock on October 13.

Several $\Pi B \Phi s$ have been cast in dramatic productions. Mildred Danforth and Jean Foutz have parts in "The Black Flamingo", and Nell Borden and Jean Foutz are cast in "The Swan". "Fanny and the Servant Problem" includes in the cast Phyllis Houston, Virginia Ellen Edwards, and Carolyn Cheeves.

"The Guards", organized last year on the campus as a little sister club to "Scabbard and Blade" has been granted a petition from Gideon, National Military Society. Three $\Pi B \Phi s$ were elected as charter members. They are: Isabel Storms, Catherine Hardin, and Virginia Ellen Edwards. Isabel Storms was elected secretary.

This year $\Pi B \Phi$ holds a number of important offices on the campus, among which are the following: president of Women's League, Lucy Wilmans; secretary of Women's League, Elizabeth Yoes; secretary of Blackfriars, Virginia Ellen Edwards; vice-president of University Theatre, Phyllis Houston; secretary of University Theatre, Jean Foutz; secretary of Svastiika, Catherine Hardin; president of ΔT , honorarary English fraternity, Evelyn Eason; president of $\Phi A B$, honorary art fraternity, Patsy Ruth Nelson; secretary of senior class, Catherine Hardin; Razor-back staff, Margaret Jacoway, Betty Barnes.

INITIATED, April 25, 1934: Margaret Bellmont, Frances Hackett, Marjorie Harris, Frances Mable Hilderbrand, Marjorie Ann Owens, Frances Rather, Helen Sharp, Austin; Clemmie Cummins, Hearne; Orline Dunn, Houston; Aileen Enright, Texarkana; Helen Hardy Holmes, Estelle McClung, Corsicana; Monda-Marie Hoosey, Nancy Lee Muse, Martha Pressley; Fort Worth; Joan LaCoste, Toledo, Ohio; Bettie McDavid, San Antonio; Gail McDavitt, Brownsville; Louise Nesbit, Dallas; Jamie Ragsdale, Victoria; Isabelle Thompson, El Paso; Jane Turner, Longview; Helen Margaret Ulmer, Midland; Katherine Wells, Edna; Carol Wilson, Martha Witt, Elizabeth Colgin, Waco.

With new rush rules in effect, no rushing was permitted from September 18, registration day, until official rush week, which began Friday, September 21. Strict silence was enforced, which meant that no rushee could be associated in any way with a fraternity member. Tuesday, September 25, the new pledges made their pledge official by calling at the house and receiving their pledge ribbons. Pledge service was held on Monday, October 1.

Old students returning to the campus were somewhat astounded on first sight at the disappearance of the old Main Building, historic landmark of the original University which has watched diligently over campus activities and University life for over fifty years. The building was removed to make room for the new Main Building, a two million dollar structure which is expected to be ready for use within the next two years.

During the summer months, the fraternity house was completely remodelled, and many new improvements were made. New furnishings were also added. A new tea and silver service, as well as an imported lace banquet cloth were purchased by the chapter.

Texas A heartily welcomes its new housemother, Mrs. De Witt Walton, of Hearne. Mrs. George Schraeder, former housemother, is now at the K A Θ House, in Columbia, Mo.

Louise Boren, of Tyler, was crowned queen at the annual East Texas Rose Festival this year.

Aidelaide Polk, Fort Worth, was chosen as one of the four representatives from the University to preside at the Queen's Ball in Dallas. The Queen's Ball takes place annually the night before the Texas-Oklahoma University game.

PLEGGED: Jeannette Agnew, Marjorie Archer, Virginia Dunn, Blanche Heitman, Elva Johnson, Genevieve Morrow, Carolynn Russell, Houston; Nina Bess Astin, Bryan; Dorothy Bennett, Polly Hill, Amarillo; Mary Brugh, Nashville, Tenn.; Hallie Jean Cowden, Minnie Merta, Janet Pilcher, Mildred Warring, San Angelo; Floried Frances, Longview; Katherine Green, Frances Mayhew, Mary Montgomery, Virginia Woodward, Dallas; Ida Beth Cowden, Midland; Amelia Harlan, Beaumont; Ann Harley, Peggy Masterson, Mary Adams Maverick, Martha Wiggins, San Antonio; Aileen Hill, Smithville; Lorna Hume, Eagle Pass; Louella Jones, Beville; Margaret Turney, Tyler; Edith Knies, Mary Ann Schneider, Austin; Alla Rea Kuykendall, Ranger; Nancy Nixon, Aidelaide Polk, Mary Stone, Helen Thompson, Fort Worth; Josephine Schreiner, Kerrville; Bernice Wilder, Corpus Christi; Lillian Wood, Texarkana. INITIATED, October 16, 1934: Beth Almond, Corsicana; Stella Atwood, Ennis; Betty Cochran, Dorothy Cockrell, Sara Dewees, Cecile Inabnit, Cornelia Thompson, Mary Catherine Wells, Dallas; Dorothy Lee Taylor, Wichita Falls.

After a roushless summer, due to Panhellenic's new rules, Texas B entered the rushing season with enthusiasm. With the full cooperation of the alumnae club, the chapter emerged with great success and 17 girls.

Pledge service was held September 27, and the entire chapter, after the cooky-shine, spent the night at Harriet Morriss's home. Open house, to introduce the new pledges to the fraternity men, was given September 28.

The inter-sorority games began this year with hockey which Texas B chapter took part in successfully. Volley ball comes next, in which the Fraternity will also enter.

Initiation was held October 16, after which the new initiates entertained the chapter with a clever sketch at the banquet.

The fall dance was given November 15 at the Adolphus Hotel.

Dorothy Lee Taylor, one of the new initiates, was elected Sweetheart of the Band and accompanied it to the out of town games with Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, La., and Fordham University, at New York City.

The school and all fraternities were so engrossed with football that other events passed into the background this fall.

Honors will not be bestowed until first semester grades come in.

PLEGGED: Vivian Abercrombie, Archer City; Jennie Margaret Blackman, Mineral Wells; Mary Ann Collins, Mary Cockrell, Ann Dyer, Mary Hubbard, Edna Garretson, Carol Fritz, Jean Higgenbotham, Katherine Higgenbotham, Virginia Moore, Josephine Rochelle, Betty Touchstone, Dallas; Judy Norwood, Wichita Falls; Judith Cargile, Corpus Christi; Dorothy Mae Miller, San Antonio; Mary Louise Shepherd, Beaumont; Mary Yates Hearst, Longview.

LOUISE ALSWORTH

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE

Chartered, 1891

INITIATED: Caledonia Jackson, Greenville, Miss.; Ernestine McMillan, Arkadelphia, Ark.; Mary Edmonds Peacock, Clarksdale, Miss.; Marion Schoolfield, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Amy Smith, Clarksdale, Miss.

A new rushing system was tried this year at Newcomb. Rush dates were confined to luncheon and afternoon dates from 4:30 to 6:00; football games; and three teas on Sundays from 3:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. The period for rushing was intended to last until Thanksgiving, but was shortened to four weeks because of difficulties. Bids were issued by Panhellenic on Monday, October 22, and acceptances were given out on the Tuesday following. Though there are glaring mistakes in the new system, many difficulties of a shorter rush season, as before, were simplified.

The Promises were entertained at a luncheon immediately following the receiving of the formal answers from Panhellenic on Tuesday. The formal banquet honoring the Promises was held that night at the New Orleans Country Club. The theme of the banquet was The Land of the Wine Carnations. It was carried accordingly with carnations, balloons, and candles as a decoration motif. The Promises were presented with arrow corsages and wine and blue bracelets by the Alumnae. The Seniors took part in the Cake ceremony; each Promise was presented with the Fraternity colors.

The fall Formal honoring the Promises was held on November 10.

During the summer resident active members and pledges redecored the rooms. They purchased new rugs, curtains, and furniture, also a radio—all within the budget. The chapter is deeply grateful for this successful undertaking.

Of interest on the campus there are many new professors in every school. Xavier Gonzales is back in the Art School after a year's leave of absence. He has visited other schools in California and worked all through the Southwest and Mexico. The campus activities have started and we are looking forward to a successful year in both college and the sorority.

PLEGGED: Eva Allen, Peggy Brenchley, Polly Corbin, Mary Dart, Grace George, Charlotte Hardie, Marjorie Hart, Claude Hodges, Frances Howard, Belle McGehee Lipscomb, Betty Lockett, Corinne Maunsel, Elaine Richardson, Alice Schramm, Helen Simpson, Mary Taylor, Mary Upton, Frances Westfeldt. Out-of-town: Mary Louise Budreau, Savannah, Ga.; Carolyn Coates, Baton Rouge, La.; Mary Ellen Freeman, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Pledge Day, March 26, 1934, and April 4, 1934

INITIATED, April 4, 1934: Mary Esther Sutherland, Edmonton, Alberta.

GRADUATES: Janet Atkin, Banff; Anna Malone, Edmonton; Mary Smith, Red Deer; Margaret Smith, Edmonton, received the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Janet Atkin and Margaret Smith graduated in Honors courses. Lois Latimer, Canmor; Gwendolyn Nixon, Edmonton, received the degree of Bachelor of Commerce. Jean Irving, Calgary; Flora Williams, Calgary; Olive Young, Canmore, received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Household Economics.

May 15, 1934, marked the annual convocation of the University of Alberta. Following the impressive ceremony at which Mr. John Dafoe, editor of the Winnipeg Free Press, and Chancellor-elect of Manitoba University, delivered the address, tea was served in Athabasca Lounge. The Graduation Ball in the evening climaxed the week of graduation activities.

Pi Beta Phi Fraternity had an exceptionally large number of graduates for the year but it is to be hoped that some of them will return in the fall for post-graduate work.

Jean Irving has secured the position of assistant dietitian in the T. Eaton Company in Calgary. Flora Williams will begin her work as a pupil dietitian in the University Hospital, Edmonton, in December, while Olive Young has already taken up residence at the Johns Hopkins University.

The month of June will be remembered by all II B Φ 's as the month of Convention. Seven members of Alberta A chapter were able to attend. They came back from Yellowstone Park with glowing accounts of the wonderful things they had done and seen and heard. The inspiration and the enthusiasm which they are conveying from the Convention to the chapter and to the alumnae club should be a valuable asset in the months to come.

The University regulation with regard to rushing remains unchanged for the 1934-35 term which opened September 24, 1934. There will be strict second-year rushing. This has entailed concentrated effort in the first few weeks of the fall term.

Gwendolyn Nixon, a II B Φ graduate, has recently become engaged to Mr. John Ford, also a graduate of the University, the marriage to take place in the near future.An interesting September event was the marriage of Neno Waldo, member of II B Φ , to Mr. Herman Hayes, graduate of the University of Alberta.

PLEGDED: Isabel Willis, Stettler; Mrs. Marian Sandin, Edmonton. HELEN M. FORD

MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October 2, 1934

A tired but still smiling staff in the registrar's office came out from under an avalanche of class cards and enrollment blanks October 2, to announce a total registration at the close of the opening day of the 1934-35 college year of 1037 students, just 113 over the figure for last year.

"Mr. Pim Passes By," a three-act comedy by A. A. Milne, the first dramatic presentation of the Associated Students of M.S.C. for the year 1934-35, presented under the direction of Bert Hansen, was a great success. Marjorie Brown and Wilda Parker both had active parts in this play.

The annual spring party was held May 19 at the "63" Dude Ranch, a picturesque location in the mountains near Livingston. Horseback riding, swimming, and hiking were entered into with great enthusiasm by most of the group. The evening brought a very enjoyable dinner dance.

Montana A will move to 209 South Grand where the chapter will reside for a year awaiting the completion of the Quadrangle, the new government project, under construction at this time.

The II B Φ Convention in Yellowstone National Park was attended by approximately twenty-five actives and alumnae during intervals of the week. Attending Convention was a new and interesting experience to most of the girls and they feel that they have obtained a broader view of the Fraternity.

Rush week ended this fall very successfully after being governed by the new Panhellenic rules. Montana A is extremely proud of its 21 new pledges.

PLEGDED: Breta Anderson, Bozeman; Marjorie Boles, Lewistown; Agnes Jeanne Edwards, Butte; Helen Margaret Edwards, Billings; Jean Grady, Havre; Elinor Heron, Billings; Patti Hopkins, Lewistown; Marian Huntley, Bozeman; Bettie Mae Johnson, Helena; Alberta Jacobson, Great Falls; Ruth Keithley, Billings; Gloria Jane Math, Havre; Carol Nylander, Stanford; Jean Rogers, Lewistown; Betty Ross, Moline, Ill.; Margaret Seamans, Huntley; Helen Schule, Havre; Dortha Smiley, Belgrade; Jean Young, Helena; Mary Ellen Wigggenhorn, Billings; Opal Winkes, Winnett. Chartered, 1923

Pledge Day, September 22, 1934

INITIATED, May 26, 1934: Lucile Bell, Blackfoot; Mary Ferguson, Salmon; Rachel Nelson, Grangeville; June Quayle, Montpelier.

The University opened this year with the largest enrollment in its history, a third greater than last year.

As a feature of the thirty-ninth Commencement a life size portrait of General Christman, the oldest faculty member of the University, was unveiled. A new fountain was erected in front of the Administration building last spring. The sculpturing was done by students in the arts department.

The Intercollegiate Knights were awarded the efficiency cup at the national convention in Seattle in April. This is the third time in four years that they have held that honor. Three of the national officers elected at that time were Idaho men.

Idaho A entertained the girls of Washington B and alumnae at a joint Founders' Day dinner. The Province vice-president, Mrs. O'Day, was present and gave a talk about Convention.

Idaho A won the Campus Day cup for the prettiest lawn in the Spring. On that day Rosanne Roark was tapped for Mortar Board and Mary Ferguson and Fay Pettijohn were chosen for Spurs for this school year. Mae Belle Donaldson was in the Representative Idahoan section of the year book. Mariette Sebern was general chairman of Taps and Terpsichore. Rosanne Roark and Nellie Irwin were initiated into Cardinal Key, a national service honorary for upperclasswomen, and Rosanne was elected secretary of the organization. She was also elected vice-president of Panhellenic, vice-president of K Δ II, and vice-president of the Women's "I" Club. Fay Pettijohn was elected treasurer of Spurs. Christine Orchard was initiated into and elected secretary of Θ Σ , a local journalistic sorority.

Mrs. Smith, our house chaperon, spent her summer vacation traveling in Europe, visiting Italy, Spain, Switzerland and France.

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

Chartered, 1907

Pledge Day, September 27, 1934

INITIATED, April 23, 1934: Julianna Neu, Harriett Hancox, Viola Sorenson.

The University of Washington enrollment this year has exceeded that of any previous year, more than 8000 students already having registered, and more registering daily.

The University is fortunate in having for its new president, Dr. Lee Paul Sieg, former dean of the University of Pittsburgh college and graduate school.

Greek women's fraternities this year pledged 322 women. Washington A had the second highest number of pledges, having pledged 26, 10 of whom will be house girls.

This past summer the exterior and the first floor of the chapter house were redecorated, making it one of the most outstanding houses on the campus. The exterior is now white with blue-green window shutters and roof. The first floor woodwork and dining room furniture is done in antique white, and some new rugs, a davenport, and occasional furniture have been added. The chapter as a whole is grateful to Mrs. W. H. Fix and to Mrs. C. E. Stuart, two alumnae, who have a great deal of time and thought to making the chapter house beautiful and comfortable.

Some of the highlights of the summer rushing season were a yachting party at Bainbridge Island and a week-end party at beautiful Canyon Creek Lodge. On pledge night the chapter held open house at the home of Ruth Berry, rushing chairman.

FLORENCE PARR

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

Chartered, 1912

Pledge Day, September 25, 1934

INITIATED, June 1934: Barbara Kimbrough, '37, 725 West 20th, Spokane.

The last major college event before school closed for the summer was Mothers' Week-end. At that time the visiting mothers were entertained at a May Festival where Spurs and Mortar Board pledges were tapped. Gertrude Nelson and Betty Francisco were chosen for Mortar Board and Joan Wickersham and Dorothy Loquvam for Spurs. Marion Bailey was honored by being chosen in the group of outstanding Senior women who attended the May Queen.

The climax of the year was the initiation of Barbara Kimbrough on the last day of school in order that she might attend Convention. This was especially significant since Barbara is the first daughter of Gladys McCroskey Kimbrough whose name stands first on our chapter books.

During the summer, improvements were made both on the campus by the addition of a paved street in front of the Administration building and further work on the new Chemistry building, and in the chapter house where several new pieces of furniture were added and others recovered. This improved the appearance of the house and made entertaining more comfortable.

With a successful rushing season completed, the chapter is now in the midst of the many events of the fall. Bernadine Royer was the chairman of the committee which planned for open house. A definite schedule is arranged and the men's groups go from one women's house to another and dance for a few minutes; then on to the next house.

The celebrations at Homecoming and Dads' Day are built around the football games with Oregon State and Idaho. Many II B Φs are planning to attend the game with the University of Washington which is to be played in Seattle.

The enrollment this year was greatly increased by the registration of 1300 freshmen. This necessitated an addition of many new professors. The old students were helped to return to school through jobs made possible by F.E.R.A. funds. These jobs have been divided up in order that as many students as possible might receive some financial aid.

Efforts of the chapter are being concentrated on the College Review which will take place soon. The idea this year is to include acts representing various countries, either real or imaginary, contributed by the various groups, and to tie the whole performance together by having a few characters appear throughout the entire performance.

PLEDGED: Virginia McKnight, Virginia Burkholder, Seattle; Dorothy Damon, Phyllis O'Day, Pullman; Julia Christopher, Chelan; Marjorie Holloway, Virginia Rogers,

JEANNE BEATTY

OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Pledge Day, September 29, 1934

Fall term rush week began with an "open-house" tea at every house on the campus for all girls who were entering the University of Oregon. A week of strenuous rushing ended in preference night dinner. The week was a very successful one due to the combined efforts of the entire house and the excellent rushing which had been carried on during the summer months. Twelve new pledges moved into the II B Φ house on Saturday, September 29, and four other girls were pledged who are town girls. Two II B Φ daughters were pledged and one K K Γ and one Δ Δ Δ daughter.

During the summer needed improvements to the II B Φ house were made. A new electric range was installed in the kitchen and the second floor was re-kalsomined. The Mothers' club gave the house new draperies, which have added materially to the appearance of the living room.

The University of Oregon football eleven, predestined to be a lesser team this year, has not only saved its good name, but has caused much favorable comment by winning its first two games. In the first game with Gonzaga the Oregon men won 13 to 0, and in the second game with the University of California at Los Angeles Bruins the score was 26 to 3 in favor of the Oregon Webfoots.

The final stretch of last spring term brought many honors to the II B Φ house through its various members. Catherine Coleman was elected to the presidency of the Associated Women Students, and working on her council of twelve as adviser to the freshman and sophomore women's honoraries is Eleanor Norblad. The new chosen Kuwas, sophomore women's honor society, elected Martha McCall to be their leader. Martha is also to be the secretary of Y.W.C.A. upper-class commission.

Marian Allen was elected to membership in the upper-class women's journalism honorary, Θ Σ Φ, and Janis Worley was elected treasurer. Elected to Φ X Θ, commerce honorary for women, were Elizabeth Anderson, who also became their vice-president, and Helen Tillman, Eleanor Norblad was asked to the membership of Φ Θ T, upper-class women's honorary.

The week-end which includes Mothers' Day every year is sponsored by the junior class and is more familiarly known as Junior Week-end. Every effort is turned toward making this event a success. Last spring Marytine New was chosen to be a princess in the court of the Junior Week-end Queen, who was elected by popular vote of the student body. Marytine and Catherine Coleman both worked on committees appointed to carry on the activities of the Mothers' Day affair. All the mothers of Oregon students are invited to the campus on this occasion to enjoy a few days especially devoted to them.

ELEANOR LYLE NORBLAD

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Chartered, 1917

INITIATED, April 28, 1934: Ruth Price, Portland; Kathleen Blaine, Seaside; Alice Pauling, Astoria; Shirley Nissen, Glendale, Calif. Graduates: Edna Edwardes, New York City; Dorothy Wright, Pomona, Calif.

Due to increased registration this year, both the women's dormitories are filled to capacity, only one of which was in use last year. With a freshman class of over 1000 students and with a total enrollment of more than 2500, Oregon State is looking forward to a prosperous and successful year.

Professor Paul V. Maris, formerly in charge of extension work at the college, has been transferred to Washington, D.C., where he will be employed in the U.S. Government Service. Miss Claribel Nye, professor and state leader of Home Economics Extension, has also been sent to Washington, D.C., to conduct research work there for the government.

Emmajean Stephens, '32, in Home Economics, has been awarded a scholarship to assist in the practice house at Cornell while working for her master's degree. Virginia Cooper was elected secretary of the student body. Janet Johnson is now president of Panhellenic. Lila Wagner and Jean Dutton took prominent parts in the junior play "The Tavern". Alice Griffin and Virginia Cooper were elected to Mortar Board, of which Virginia is treasurer. Ruth Roberts was selected for $\Phi X \Theta$, and Mary Woodcock, president of $\Phi X \Theta$ was a delegate to the Convention in Chicago this summer.

Judy Hyslop was elected vice-president of the Senior Class, and she is also president of the National Collegiate Players. Alice Griffin is a new member of O N, honorary for Home Economics students. Alice Reed, Shirley Wheeler, and Helen Nelson were selected as chairmen of Rookess Counselors, the Y.W.C.A. organization to help freshman girls. Alice Reed and Helen Nelson were pledged to $\Lambda \Lambda \Delta$, underclassmen's scholastic honorary. Shirley Wheeler is a new member of Talons, service honorary for sophomore women. Alice Pauling and Alice Reed were selected to Orechesis, honorary in dancing. Judy Hyslop is now regent of the local D.A.R. chapter.

Kathryn Seeberger was elected vice-president of the Home Economics club. Virginia Dahlman is a new member of Euterpe, musical honorary. Mary Hyslop is vice regent of the D.A.R. chapter. All the sophomores were Rookess Counselors.

The local Panhellenic has issued a Handbook for Rushes which tells what to wear to different functions, the social procedure to follow, as well as the locations of the various houses and rushing rules. This booklet has created a better understanding between the women's fraternities and the rushes, and has eliminated many unnecessary problems.

This year the men are using the same system of filing preferences in the Dean of Men's office as the women have always used. So far it has proven very successful in eliminating unfair and high pressure rushing used by some houses, and has placed no inconvenience on the rushing campaigns.

The $X \Omega$ chapter has moved into the former Z T A house, which is much newer and nicer than the one formerly occupied by $X \Omega$.

BLANCHE BOWMAN

MU PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA ALPHA—LELAND STANFORD, JR. UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1893

Pledge Day, January 11, 1935.

INITIATED, October 21, 1934: Donna Evans, Wichita, Kas.; Marjorie Wise, Portland, Ore.

Registration totals at Stanford for the fall quarter of 1934 broke all previous records. The admission of additional women has not only broken the old tradition of the "500," but has decreased the ratio of men to women from 5 to 1, to 2 1/2 to 1. From 787 in 1933 the number of women has increased to 1024.

Lagunita Hall, the most modern dormitory in the world, was completed this summer to take care of the new women. The sorority houses also underwent many changes during the summer. New hardwood floors were put in in all the upstairs rooms of California A, the outside of the house and the kitchen were painted, new draperies were made for the side-porch, new furniture was bought for the music and living rooms, and, in general, all the necessary repairs were made, as well as four new showers installed. Everyone was extremely pleased to see the result at the opening of school.

Football activities form the outstanding social events of the quarter. The Rally committee, which has charge of most of the football rallies and dances, promoted Charlotte Gibber to the Cardinal Committee, and appointed Nancy Brayton and Virginia Johnson to the Women's Committee.

Kay Arthur was given the lead in the campus play for fall quarter. The Stanford production of "One Sunday Afternoon" was the first one on the coast. Kay Arthur, as the "vamp," Virginia Brush, completely stole the attention of the large audience which attended the comic satire on reminiscences, by James Hagan.

The Conference Party took place on October 21, when the women's fraternities were first able to meet the freshman women at a costume party.

INITIATED, October 1, 1934: Betty Anderson, Eleanor Holmes, Sacramento; Leone Maguire, Palo Alto; Joan Von Schmidt, Alameda; Edith Loudon, Los Angeles.

California B has 13 new members of whom she is very proud. They are already taking an active interest in campus activities, and this of course is very promising for the house.

California B had its open house to introduce the new class and it was very successful. A formal dance is to be held this semester and the chapter is very busy with the arrangements.

Football season began a short time ago and it is of course the main topic of conversation on the campus. The chapter is holding several "open houses" throughout the season for friends and visiting $\Pi \Phi$ s before the larger games. Max Reinhardt is honoring the campus in October by giving two performances of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." This is a very important production and the university is very proud to have him come here. At the traditional Senior Women's Luncheon the $\Pi B \Phi$'s were all present and aided in making the luncheon a success.

Mrs. Cornelia Burdick, formerly of Washington A, was the toastmistress for the banquet following the initiation and she impressed everyone with some wonderful thoughts on being a $\Pi B \Phi$.

PLEGDED: Betty Makins, Alameda; Hope Tschopik, New Orleans; Esther Hay and Genevieve St. Clair, Bakersfield; Laverne Kahl, Alameda; Lurabelle Murphey, Pasadena; Betty Conlisk, Berkeley; Georgia Whalen, Frances Chase, Virginia Brainard, Oakland; Edna Moseley, Virginia Hamilton, Piedmont; Jane Mathews, Berkeley.

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Chartered, 1917

INITIATED, June 15, 1934: Jean Colkitt, Los Angeles; Maxine Harris, San Diego; Jane Hereford, Pasadena; Merabeth Orr, Hollywood.

The University of Southern California has just entered its fall semester.

The University has abolished the chapel hour, maintaining as its reason, lack of attendance. Several new parkways have been added to the University grounds.

During the summer many changes were made in the chapter house of California Γ . A new living room was formed by removing partitions, and the house was refurnished downstairs; a recreation room has been created out of the basement, and the third floor bedroom was redecorated in Monterey style.

Last semester many honors came to the chapter including the attainment of $\Phi B K$ in her junior year by the new president, Grace McGee. Roberta von KleinSmid was lected to Mortar Board, and both Roberta and Christy Fox were given senior honor scrolls. Kathryn Moss was elected secretary of the student body.

The summer saw the entire chapter scattering to different parts of the country and abroad. Several girls visited Chicago in order to see A Century of Progress, several went to Convention, the president went to Europe on a tour with the Dean of Women, another girl took a trip through the Panama Canal, and two more girls toured through Canada, with their parents, competing in tennis tournaments.

The members who went to Convention returned with interesting accounts of the events and the good times they had had.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. von KleinSmid returned home from an extended tour through the Orient, during the course of which Dr. von KleinSmid recovered to a great extent from injuries received in an automobile accident last spring. Mrs. von KleinSmid recently entertained at a Japanese tea.

Hugh Walpole, who is on the coast at present, is addressing the students soon on "The Return of the Hero to the Modern Novel."

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT L.A.

Chartered, 1927

Pledge Day, September 23, 1934

Following the pledge ceremony, a cooky-shine was given in honor of the new pledges. The next day they were further honored by a presentation to the campus, at the chapter house on Hilgard Ave. Under the direction of Patty Maguire, the entire class of pledges has been practicing for a skit for the A.W.S. Hijinx next month. In accordance with the historical theme of the Hijinx, they will give a "take-off" on Pocahontas.

In charge of the forthcoming senior dance is Estelle Fowler, vice-president of the senior class at U.C.L.A. Elizabeth McCarthy is heading a committee chosen by the Student Council for "Hello Day," a traditional day set aside in an effort to make this campus "Famous for Friendliness." She is also a senior councillor. Mary Elizabeth Leonard is on the junior class council. The chapter will participate in the gala homecoming parade, to be held soon.

Various class and university events, varsity football, and house activities, have combined to arouse the interest of the girls in the university this fall; and in addition a greater effort is being made to maintain a high scholastic standing.

MARGARET WOODS

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

Chartered, November 1915

Pledge Day, September 18, 1934

Nevada A again won the rushing derby this year with 17 new pledges. This culminated two weeks of rushing the new women students of the campus. The Preferential dinner was held at the chapter house and was given by a committee from the alumnae club, II B Φ sisters serving the dinner to 80 people including pledges, actives and alumnae.

More girls have gone out for activities this year. Nearly every member in the house has some position on either the college annual staff or the weekly publication staff. Many of the girls went out for the Wolves' Frolic, annual homecoming day function, and several were in special skits.

The pledge dance was held at the chapter house October 5 and was a sport dance. The programs were wood, cut in the shape of the pledge pin, with silver pasted on one side on which the dances were written.

The II B Φ float for the homecoming day celebration was in the form of a seven foot loving cup, covered with cloth with brilliants to obtain a silvery appearance. On one side of the cup was the seal of the state of Nevada, and on the other, a toast as a welcome to the "Grads". The base of the float was covered with blue and white flowers and was very attractive.

In November the social functions included an open house after the Chico-Nevada football game, and a tea for the patronesses, the new pledges also being guests of honor.

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Chartered, 1917

Pledge Day, September 23, 1934

This year's enrollment in the University of Arizona surpasses that of any of previous years. The dormitories are all over-crowded and the university has found it necessary to lease a house in order to accommodate the overflow. Equitation is symbolic of the colorful West and perhaps this is a factor in inducing many to enroll. Many, however, have been turned away from the large riding classes.

Arizona A is pleased to state that it took first place in campus pledging with 26 girls wearing the wine and blue.

Jane Keel was elected president of Panhellenic for this year. Dalton Beville is president of F.S.T., a junior women's honorary society. Jane is also secretary of the Associated Women Students.

Dalton Beville, Betty Joe Reardon, and Eleanor Baker sang in "The Messiah" given by the University Oratorio class.

On October 8, a Fashion Show was held at a local department store. The following members of Arizona A participated: Mary Jane Hayden, Mary Cox, Virginia Robinson, Joan De Haven, Roberta Sainsbury, Eleanor Baker, Catherine Newton, Margaret Gould, Jane Keel, Betty Joe Reardon, and Betty Wright.

Jane Metcalf played one of the leading roles in the first play of the year, "The Late Christopher Bean." Mary Emma Luckett was unanimously elected to the office of treasurer of the senior class.

The annual tea dance for the new pledges was given Saturday afternoon, September 29.

PLEGGED: Lisbeth Pickrell, El Paso, Tex.; Virginia Narr, Kansas City, Mo.; Peggy Saunders, Washington, D.C.; Josephine Betty, Davenport, Ia.; Georgia Henson, Oak Park, Ill.; Joan Caldwell, Greenwich, Conn.; Mona Joy Warner, Betty Wright, Tucson; June Patton, San Diego, Calif.; Ann Holmes, Wichita, Kas.; Joan DeHaven, Indianapolis, Ind.; Lillian Krayenbuhl, Eleanor Baker, Pasadena, Calif.; Doris Sainsbury, St. Johns; Sarah Scott, Dorothy Scott, Hammond, Ind.; Emily Watkins, Birmingham, Ala.; Edith Trumbull, Las Vegas, N.M.; Ruth Abbott, Boston, Mass.; Ruth La Dow, Fredonia, Kan.; Mary Ryan, Monrovia, Calif.; Virginia Wood, Glendale; Mary Cox, Phoenix; Marian Martin, State College, Pa.; Patty Dalzell, Moundsville, W.Va.

BETTY JOE REARDON

UTAH ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Chartered, 1929

Pledge Day, November 4, 1934

INITIATED, April 21, 1934: Vivian Beer Roberts, Juliaetta Bagley, Betty Butcher, Helen Castleton, Barbara Cheney, Beth Cheney, Barbara Foley, Ann Gray, Jeannette Johnson, Ruth Young Morris, Alice Murphy, Charlotte Murphy, Frances Burton, Ruth Snyder, Elsie Terrell, Ellen Toursen, Adele Williams, Florence Elizabeth Williams, and Jane Wright.

One of the most delightful summers ever spent by Utah A was the last summer during which Convention was held. The girls were busy at first with the activities of Convention and afterwards with never-fading memories and thoughts of it. It was indeed a great inspiration to all. Those members of Utah A who did not attend Convention were busy at home. They were divided into groups to receive and entertain the delegates and officials passing through Salt Lake City going to and coming from Convention. On one such evening a coon chicken dinner was planned, and the visitors were taken on a short tour of the city while awaiting changes of trains.

Utah A greatly appreciated the many favorable comments and the letters concerning the work of its sextette.

The Fraternity Spring Formal held in the roof garden of the Hotel Utah was one of the principal events of the school year. The room was arranged in cabaret style, and four couples were seated at each table. The room was decorated with palms and South Sea Island effects. Even a Hawaiian orchestra played for the guests. The tables were covered with palm branches placed with their tips toward the center. In the center of each table was a small grass hut, surrounded by a tiny wooden picket fence in which were entwined Cecil Bruner roses. The place cards consisted of bright green fish in the form of booklets advertising the beauties of the South Seas. Favors, offered to the boys, were small mahogany dance programs with the crest of $\Pi B \Phi$ on their faces. The success of this affair was due chiefly to the efforts of the chairman, Beatrice McCrea.

In the field of student government Utah A was most successful last spring. Mary Strange was elected vice-president of the Associated Women Students and secretary of the Associated Students of the University of Utah.

The women's tennis trophy was awarded to Utah A in a tournament which involved all sororities and all non-affiliated students. The award, given on the basis of points won, was won by the efforts of Mary Burnett, singles, and Beth Papworth and Charlotte Murphy, doubles. For two years now Utah A has won this honor.

In Trotter's Club, selective riding organization for women at the University of Utah, two members of this chapter were elected to office to serve during the current school year. Frances Parsons was elected president, and Jane Wright was elected secretary-treasurer. There are several girls from Utah A in the club.

Last spring Virginia Parsons, a graduate in the school of Education, was elected to $\Phi K \Phi$ and was valedictorian of the university, having the highest average of any student in the university. She was awarded a beautiful pen, on which her name was engraved, by the Faculty Women's Club, in honor of her standing as the highest graduating senior. Miriam Hardy also was elected to $\Phi K \Phi$ and received an award of twenty-five dollars, offered by the Associated Women Students, for her high scholarship.

PLEGGED: Margaret Boud, Betty Faus, Elma Smith, Ruth Smith, Mary Jane Snow, and Patricia Whitney, Salt Lake City.

PENNSYLVANIA BETA

Personal

Pennsylvania B mourns the loss of a good friend of many years, and a devoted patroness in the passing of Martha Belle Africa Bartol, wife of Professor Emeritus William C. Bartol of Bucknell University. For many years her home was the center of the life of the University, and she was a tireless worker for every good cause in the town and the college. Her special work was the collection of the records of all soldiers in Union County Revolutionary, as well as those of other wars. She was an active worker in the D.A.R., interested in every line of patriotic work. Few people have contributed so much of value to the records of her own part of the country as did Mrs. Bartol. She leaves her husband, to whom she was married for fifty-nine years, and four children, two of them members of Pennsylvania Beta. Mary Bartol Theiss, former Grand Secretary, and Helen Bartol Leonard.

ALUMNAE CLUB LETTERS

Edited by LOTTA JOHNSON WEIR

DID YOU KNOW THAT FOR 1933-34 . . .

Los Angeles, Calif., gave the largest donation to the Settlement School; Cleveland, 2nd; St. Louis, 3rd.

St. Louis, Mo., earned more than any other club through the Magazine Agency; Detroit, Mich., 2nd; Wichita, Kan., 3rd.

Six provinces, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, Eta, Theta and Lambda were 100% in Settlement School donations from their clubs.

Six provinces, Beta, Epsilon, Zeta, Theta and Kappa increased their Settlement School donations.

In the chart for Lambda Province in the September ARROW, the Calgary and Edmonton Clubs were marked unchartered. This was an error—both these clubs are chartered.

ALPHA PROVINCE

BOSTON CLUB

The annual summer reunion, which was held as usual at the summer home of Anna Robinson Nickerson, in Quincy, on July 14th, was well attended. Following the basket luncheon, Louis Richardson gave her impressions of Convention.

The October meeting is to be in the form of a Harvest Supper at Mrs. Harry Niles' home in Wellesley Hills. For the benefit of those who were unable to take in the reunion, echoes of Convention will be repeated.

Although the calendar of the Boston Club contains only four meetings, an active season is anticipated by the various suburban groups, whose frequent informal gatherings supplement the club program.

VIRGINIA CROOKER

BUFFALO CLUB

The first Fall meeting of the Buffalo Alumnae Club was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur C. Brown on September 15. Eighteen members were present, including two new members, and a guest, Mrs. Kate King Bostwick, former member of the Grand Council.

Plans for the year were discussed. The regular meetings will be held on the third Saturday of each month, luncheon to be served at one o'clock, followed by a business meeting.

A bridge party for the benefit of the Settlement School will be given in November, at which there will be a display of Arrow Craft products.

MARGARET M. WRIGHT

HARTFORD CLUB

The Hartford Club has planned supper meetings for the second Thursday of each month to be held at homes of members.

At one meeting, we are to hear about the religious art of the East since the hostess, Mrs. Giffin, is interested in that subject.

Members arrived in costume for the October meeting.

A Yugoslavian woman spoke the same language as a Mae West. Chinese and Egyptian costumes proved as suitable for the track meet planned by Mrs. Dow as shorts and lounging pajamas.

A Christmas card book is being distributed as a means of adding to the Settlement School contribution. We are proud of our standing in the magazine agency and hope to raise it. The Endowment Fund and Loan Fund are in our budget.

Since there is no active chapter near, we plan to devote that meeting to learning about our newly installed chapters.

We look forward to a meeting with a member of Grand Council as voted in convention and promise cooperation with our new province vice-president.

ERMINIE L. POLLARD

NEW YORK CLUB

The members of the club were entertained in June by Elizabeth Thomson, New York B. at a delightful lawn party at her home in Englewood, N.J.

All members of Pi Beta Phi are invited to attend the meetings at the Beekman Tower (Panhellenic), 49th St. and 1st Ave. The second general meeting will be the annual Pi Beta Phi Tea on Sunday, November 4th, from 4-6 in the Panhellenic clubroom. The December meeting will be on Saturday, the 8th, and will be given over to a Settlement School Program with a display and sale of the school handicraft. A prominent speaker will entertain members and friends on Saturday, February 2nd.

The Metropolitan Group holds an informal meeting every other month. The first of these will be a cooky-shine on Tuesday, November 13th, at 6 P.M. at the home of Mrs. E. L. McKendrew, 111 East 80th Street, New York City. On January 23rd there will be an informal party in the clubroom at 8 P.M.

New residents are invited to join the club, and girls just out of college are welcome to join in the additional activities which Marjorie Haynes has planned for the debutante group.

KATHRYN HEARLE

ROCHESTER CLUB

The first meeting of the Rochester club was held September 29 in the home of Miss Geraldine Gates. It was a cooky-shine with Mrs. Harry L. Dusky and Mrs. Stuart J. Mackey as hostesses. The program was in charge of Mrs. Maynard Cassady who discussed "Constitutional Changes and Other Convention News." The meeting was well attended and everyone seemed full of enthusiasm for the coming season.

The second meeting was held on October 25 in Mrs. Waldo H. Whitney's home, with Mrs. Ralph Eckberg as assisting hostess. Mrs. Wilbur D. Dunkel, who has just returned from a several months' stay in England, talked to us about the London theater. Ways and means of raising money were discussed and several good ideas were presented.

DOROTHY W. PULVER

TORONTO CLUB

The members of the Toronto Club are looking forward to a bright and active year. The 1934-1935 officers are: President, Katherine Atkinson; Vice-President, Dorothy Collins; Treasurer, Helen Hillary; Recording Secretary, Jean Swinden; Corresponding Secretary, Isabel Tolman; Advisory Board Chairman, Dorothy Carson; Assistant Treasurer, Betty Chestnut; Hostess, Elizabeth Greene; Social Service, Margaret Caven.

The September meeting of the executive committee planned the year's program as follows: the opening meeting in October a formal bridge at Kay Atkinson's home; the Constitutional Reading in November; the Birthday Party in December; an old-fashioned cooky-shine in January; the Settlement School meeting in February; a guest speaker in March; Founders' Day Luncheon in April; our annual meeting and election of officers in May; and June brings the Senior Party.

Many of our alumnae are planning to attend the installation of Ontario B chapter Monday, October 29, in London. We are particularly thrilled to have new sisters so near us. Another of this year's thrills is to have our own Mary Scott Alpha Province Vice-president.

ISABEL CUTTING TOLMAN

BETA PROVINCE

CLEVELAND CLUB

The first meeting of the fall season was a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Howard M. Crow. The convention delegate, Mrs. A. E. Gibson, reported on convention proceedings and gave an interesting and vivid picture of the sessions. The committee on rushing activities for the summer told about several successful parties given for the rushees, the principal event being a tea for sixty at the Shaker Tavern.

Plans have been made for the two outstanding early season events. The rummage sale, greatest individual source of income for the Settlement School, will be held October 11, 12 and 13, and two days each of the second and third weeks of November will be given to the display and sale of Settlement School goods.

It was suggested at the October meeting that the club take over the seat sale for the Cleveland Playhouse for one performance, which, if successful, would net around two hundred dollars.

The November meeting will be a dinner on the fifth, with Mrs. Hadley Freeman as hostess.

DAYTON CLUB

The season closed last June with a family picnic held at Greenmont country club.

Mrs. T. C. Davis, of 400 Fountain Avenue, was the hostess at a tea September 8, given for the new members of the Alumnae Club and ten rushees. Kathryn Leonard and Edith Daughters poured.

The club is planning to have a "get-together" luncheon one noon each month at Rike Kumlser's dining room.

We are glad to add to our list of members this year, Mary Long, and Mary Frances Adams of Ohio Δ, and Alma Keck. Jessie Robertson has returned to us after an extended absence.

Officers for 1934-35 are: President, Marian Cowden; Vice-president, Viola Hiestand; Secretary, Alberta Franke; Corresponding Secretary, Harriet Crebs; Treasurer, Edith Daughters.

HARRIET CREBS

HARRISBURG-CARLISLE CLUB

The name of the Harrisburg-Lancaster Alumnae Club has been changed to the Harrisburg-Carlisle Club because of the greater number of members from the latter district.

With an increasing membership the club plans a most interesting group of meetings for the year. At the September meeting the club had as its guest Elizabeth Flower of the active chapter at Dickinson who spoke to the club members about the new rules and methods used in rushing. A Convention meeting was held in October at the home of Mrs. A. O. Roorbach, the club delegate. The club celebrated its fourteenth birthday in November at which time a birthday party was given. The birthday donations will help augment the club's Settlement School Fund. In December the club plans a cooky-shine. The business meeting in January will be turned over to a history and constitution drill. The annual Founder's Day luncheon will be the feature of the April meeting. The club is hoping to end the year with a Panhellenic tea in Harrisburg.

SARA E. ROHRER

OHIO VALLEY CLUB

On June 28, the Ohio Valley Alumnae Club had their final meeting for the season, celebrating with a picnic at the home of Mrs. Carl W. Gustkey. The local Pi Phi just home from college were invited and they brought with them news from the different chapters.

On September 6 a party was given for new girls entering college. Each guest was presented with a gift from the Settlement School. Thirty-five Pi Phi and friends enjoyed the party.

The first meeting for this year will be Saturday, October 6, 1934, at Hoge Davis Tea Room in Wheeling. At this meeting plans will be made for the coming year.

NELL HALLER

MORGANTOWN CLUB

The first meeting of the year was held in September in the home of Mrs. P. I. Reed with Mrs. Reed and Miss Traubert as hostesses. Several actives were present. Plans for rushing were discussed, and assistance by the alumnae was offered.

The program for the year was read. The most important affairs planned are a style show and a benefit bridge.

Several new members came into the club, among them being Edith Humphreys of Ohio Alpha, now connected with the West Penn Company. The others are alumnae of West Virginia A.

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY CLUB

COMING EVENTS

October—Convention Thrills, Mrs. G. Edmund Strattan; cooky-shine. November—Card Parties, Mrs. E. Kent Bodine, chairman. December—Pictures from Oberammergau, Mrs. Eric Osterle; Settlement School gifts, January—Tour, Mrs. R. V. Puff, chairman. February—Progress in Peace, Mrs. J. Gurney Sholl. March—Men's Night, Mrs. Kenneth Slifer, chairman. April—Founders' Day Program, Mrs. N. R. Jones. May—Musical Program, Mrs. A. L. Sherk, hostess.

DOROTHY B. SHOLL

TOLEDO CLUB

The Toledo Alumnae Club opened their 1934-35 program with a supper meeting on September 12 at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Willis. Marian Shank, Helen Dincken, and Marie Pollard were assistant hostesses. The meeting was in honor of actives living in Toledo, and Marian Riggs, a bride-elect. Barbara Woy, Ohio Δ; Mary Smead, Wisconsin A; and Frances Grey, Kansas A, each told of their respective active chapters. Attractive programs arranged by Helen Powell and Mary Bradley were distributed.

Mrs. Dorothy Hampe was chairman of the rummage sale which was held September 27-28-29. The Club netted $136.00, a certain amount of which they will pledge to the Settlement School.

Toledo Alumnae Club welcomes Elizabeth Hannah and Dorothy Dillon, Ohio B; Frances Grey, Kansas A; Barbara Woy, Ohio Δ; Jean LaCost, Texas A; and Mrs. Phyllis Sein, into our Club, and are anticipating having them among our group this year.

MARIAN RIGGS ELWELL

BALTIMORE CLUB

The first meeting of the Baltimore Alumnae Club was held on Monday, October 1, 1934, at the home of Mrs. Merrill R. Carr. The program for the coming year, convention and rushing were the topics of discussion at this meeting.

RICHMOND CLUB

Our president, Mrs. Owen Gay, delightfully entertained the club at her home in September.

Plans for having the treasury meet the club financial obligations took a big share of the evening. Not so much, however, that all did not thoroughly enjoy hearing president emeritus May L. Keller tell of her trip to Convention. I am sure that next to having been present, hearing Miss Keller was best.

The officers for the club this year are: president, Mrs. Owen Gay; vice-president, Mrs. Ralph Smith; recording secretary, Mrs. J. L. Bray, Jr.; corresponding secretary, Elizabeth M. Kates; treasurer, Miss Pauline Turnbull; chairman of ways and means, Miss Lucille Cook; chairman of program committee, Mrs. J. C. Moss, Jr.; magazine agent, Mrs. Eugene Sydnor.

ANN ARBOR CLUB NEWS

The first meeting of the year was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Jamison. Much interest and enjoyment were added by the presence of Mrs. Beisel and Mrs. Stebbins, who were visiting friends in the city. Plans were made for a rummage sale, to raise funds for the Settlement School, early in October.

The next regular meeting was early November at which time we had Mrs. Eskew, Province Vice-President, with us. The annual sale of Settlement School products was held in November.

DETROIT CLUB

The Executive Board of the Detroit Alumnae Club held a meeting early in September and made some general plans for the coming season.

Since we work under the group system we are anxious to have as many general meetings as possible when the Club as a whole can get together.

With this idea, the teas given by each group for the others will be continued. The first will be at the home of Mrs. E. S. Reid, October 3, at which time a report of Convention will be given.

Each group will make some plan for raising money for Settlement School and Magazine subscriptions will be stressed again, in charge of Mrs. L. W. De Weese.

Instead of the large bridge party we have held for years, we plan to have various small bridge parties, in many member's homes, to which girls of other groups will be invited and each pay twenty-five (25) cents. In this way we hope to raise more money, and get better acquainted with each other.

We will have a different year book this year, and hope to have many more members from the number of available Pi Beta Phis in the city.

ANNA STUBBS GROFF

FRANKLIN CLUB

The Franklin Club is following the same plan it has used for several years, having dinner meetings on the second Tuesday of each month. The year opened September 7 with a joint meeting of alumnae and actives at the home of Ellen Payne Andrews.

A very delightful cooky-shine in honor of the new pledges was held at the home of Pearl Doty Walters. About 130 were served.

The Club is very proud to have been awarded the Honor Gavel of Delta Province.

MARGARET COLLINS

INDIANAPOLIS CLUB

The Indianapolis Alumnae Club formally opened its year with a luncheon bridge at Highland Country Club. New members were welcomed and a resume of the tentative program for the year discussed. Mrs. Robert Wild showed moving pictures taken at Convention following the formal report from Convention given by our president, Mrs. Allen Raup.

In August the Club had an informal cooky-shine which was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Fletcher. The afternoon was devoted to the informal highlights of Convention by the alumnae representatives and the actives of Indiana I who had attended. The Convention projects were shown and favors brought home by the various members proved to be of great interest. The supper was served in the yard and this special meeting proved highly successful.

JULIA BOWMAN LEBBY

EPSILON PROVINCE

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI CLUB

The Columbia Club has held three meetings since the appearance of the last Arrow. The June meeting, at the home of Mrs. John Allton, was devoted to a discussion of summer rushing. The active chapter, with the assistance of the alumnae, have had a house party during the summer each year since the new house was built. This year the party started with a buffet dinner at the home of Mrs. Sydney Stephens, followed by a dance at the Columbia Country Club. The girls spent the night at the chapter house with Helen Parks, Queen Smith, and Dolly Banks, alumnae as chaperones. Next morning there was a swimming party at the home of Mrs. Berry McAlester followed by breakfast at the chapter house to draw the party to a close.

The September meeting of the club was held at the chapter house. Jeannette Dike, active rush captain, attended the meeting and told the club of the rushing plans and read over the list of rushes.

The October meeting was held at the home of Miss Queen Smith with Mrs. John Parks as assisting hostess. This meeting was devoted to a discussion of the Settlement School, with Mrs. Dearing as leader. It was decided to hold the annual sale of Arrow Craft products at the chapter house November 19. We have followed the same plan for a number of years and have been quite successful. A tea is held, each alumnae member personally asking not less than ten friends. A committee checks the lists so that practically every person in town who would be at all interested is invited. We also plan to sell Christmas cards again as a means of raising funds for the Settlement School.

The Club is happy to welcome Mrs. David Meeker as a new member. We were also delighted to have Mrs. J. E. Tiedeman, an aunt of Queen Smith, as our guest at the October meeting. Mrs. Tiedeman was one of the founders of Missouri A and its first president.

EDNA GARVIN BREWER

KANSAS CITY CLUB

The Kansas City Alumnae Club held the first meeting of the year October 2. This meeting was given over mainly to the Convention report of our delegate. We also had reports from our two closest chapters, Kansas A and Missouri A, on rushing. Both chapters have been successful with fall rushing.

We are to have a Settlement School tea October 13. While our entire year's program has not been definitely decided upon, we hope to have a theater benefit as our main project toward making our Settlement School donation. Added to this is our usual fall and spring rummage sales and the selling of face powder and lipstick and rouge blended individually.

ADABOOTH MARTIN

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE CLUB

The first meeting of the Memphis Club for the year 1934-35 was held at the apartment of Mrs. John Wellford, September 19. Mrs. Rupert Johnson was co-hostess at this luncheon meeting. Ten old members were present and one new one. Plans for a rummage sale to make money for the Settlement School were discussed and the sale set for Saturday, September 22, to be given at a vacant store on Beale St.

Due to illness in the family, Mrs. Stanley White had to give up her position as Settlement School Committee Chairman and Mrs. F. C. Old agreed to fill this office. Another change in the new offices was Mrs. John Mullen's being made chairman of the Magazine Committee to take the place of Miss Sarah Cogshall, who has moved to Bloomington, Ind.

The rummage sale was a huge success. It lasted all day and we cleared $38.60.

CLUB EVENTS

September 19—Luncheon. Plans for Settlement School. Mrs. John Wellford and Mrs. Rupert Johnson hostesses.

October 24—A luncheon in Wynne, Ark., at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wilson. A social meeting.

November 23—Evening party for husbands and escorts. Mrs. Hubert Garrecht and Mrs. John Mullen hostesses.

December—No Meeting.

January 23—Luncheon and annual report on nearest chapter. Miss Virginia Perry and Miss Elizabeth Markham hostesses.

February 23—Entertain city Panhellenic. (Plans incomplete.)

February 27—Luncheon and program devoted to the History and Constitution. Mrs. F. C. Old and Mrs. J. E. Hooks hostesses.

March 27—Luncheon and book review by Mrs. John Mullen. Mrs. F. D. Farrell and Mrs. Stanley White hostesses.

April 27—Founders' Day Luncheon. Mrs. John Walker, toastmistress. Mrs. Gerald Marshall and Miss Helen Brown hostesses.

May 22—Luncheon and book review by Mrs. Hubert Garrecht. Mrs. Russell Gregg and Mrs. Clyde Patton hostesses.

ELIZABETH MARKHAM

NASHVILLE CLUB

The Nashville Alumnae Club launched enthusiastically on another year of club problems and delightful associations at its first meeting September 19 at the home of the club president, Mrs. Frank Gibson. Plans for the coming year were discussed.

The October meeting will be devoted to the "nearest chapter." We concentrated on the sale of Settlement School articles in November. This will be in the form of a tea for members and friends at the home of Mrs. J. P. McShane, where a display of Arrow Craft work will be held. On November 27 an evening bridge party, including the husbands of club members, will be given at the home of Frances Helen Jackson on Vanderbilt Campus.

January 18 promises to be a most interesting meeting where each member will relate some outstanding characteristic of her college chapter. This will be quite varied since only one or two in the group come from the same chapter. February 15 will be devoted to the study of the Constitution, and March 15 will be an afternoon bridge party. April 26 will be our annual Founders' Day banquet, and in May, after the election of officers, we plan to present a short playlet depicting early Pi Phi history.

The Tennessee Valley is an important experiment of today. It has been instrumental in taking some of our most valued members to Knoxville, among them Mrs. Paul Stricker (Jean Wilmarth, Wis. A) whose husband has been made Safety Director of T.V.A., and Mrs. James Crabtree (Elizabeth Patterson, Tenn. A). Dr. Crabtree is connected with the Bureau of Preventive Diseases in the Public Health Service of T.V.A. Mrs. D. F. Folger (Genevieve Morrow, Iowa A) has moved to Crossville, Tenn., where Mr. Folger has been appointed Personnel Director in the Homesteading Division of the T.V.A. The club also regrets the going of Mrs. Rexford Keller (Margaret Stuart, Mich. B) to Ohio, where Mr. Keller has been made head of the Organ Department in Ohio Wesleyan College. However, we are particularly fortunate to have as a new member Mrs. Fred Colby (Margaret Smith, Tenn. A) whose husband is Assistant State Director of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

During the summer the Nashville alumnae have enjoyed three social meetings—an evening garden party with the husbands as guests at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Marshall, a dance at "Wagon Wheel," and a steak fry in Percy Warner Park—all of which have become pleasant memories to these "wearers of the wine and blue."

ELIZABETH MARCH MARSHALL

ST. JOSEPH CLUB

The St. Joseph Alumnae Club was very active in rushing this summer. A large tea was given in July at the Country Club and several luncheons were held throughout the summer.

The club will open this year with a dinner and discussion, October 8. Regular meetings will be held with various forms of entertainment. According to the report of the program committee we plan to raise money by a Settlement School Tea in November, and by sponsoring a movie in February.

NANCY BROADHEAD

OAK PARK-RIVER FOREST CLUB

This year the Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Club has inaugurated a new program in order to stimulate attendance and interest in the activities of the group. Afternoon meetings have been organized for those who might be unable to attend the evening meetings and the evening meetings will be continued as in the past. The afternoon meetings are planned to be held on the first Wednesday of each month and the evening meetings will be held on the second Wednesday of the month. Once each year it is planned to hold a joint session of both the afternoon and evening clubs. Many of those who are able to attend both meetings have expressed their desire to attend both meetings during the month.

The first afternoon meeting of the month was held on October 10, at the home of Mrs. Helen Knox. At the meeting, a decision was reached establishing annual dues at $2.00, of which amount $1.00 is to be set aside for national dues. Mrs. Helen Drummond was elected chairman of the Membership Committee and will soon start a drive to add new members to the club. All Pi Phis in the community will be contacted before the November meeting. Mrs. D. T. Job was appointed to the chairmanship of the Magazine Subscription Committee and Mrs. Shirley Boller Grunwald was appointed secretary of the afternoon club. Refreshments and a social hour followed the business session.

The first evening meeting of the month was also held on October 10 at the home of Mrs. Dorothy MacEcheran. Mrs. Alice Carrigan was elected to the office of vice-president to fill the vacancy which will be left open when Miss Helen Miller who is to marry shortly, will move out of town. The vice-president will preside over the evening meetings of the club, while the afternoon meetings will be presided over by Mrs. Jean Simpson, the president of the club. Miss Eloise Topping was appointed chairman of the Settlement School Committee. After the short business session refreshments were served.

Whether or not the club will follow the plan of a supper bridge for the evening sessions has not as yet been determined.

The club is definitely working to increase the membership and the interest in the club and it is hoped that the newly designed program will achieve those ends.

BEATRICE BERG AMENOFF

ZETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA CLUB

The Atlanta Alumnae Club held its first Fall meeting at the home of Mrs. William W. Perrin. Plans have been made for seven monthly meetings at the homes of members. These meetings will be preceded by a cooky-shine and followed by a business or instructive meeting relating to the interest of Pi Beta Phi.

Included in the budget this year will be the usual contribution to the Settlement School, to the Loan Fund, to the Endowment Fund, and to the Atlanta Childs' Home. The Club will continue sewing one day a month at the home. Those attending the cooky-shine will pay fifty cents, which will be applied on the budget as outlined above.

Mrs. WILLIAM W. PERRIN

LAKELAND CLUB

The Lakeland Alumnae Club celebrated Founders' Day at a luncheon at Mrs. Luna Markley's home in Auburndale, Florida.

On September 17 the club had a cooky-shine at the home of Catherine Grahm. Marian Patterson Flood, the guest of honor, was a recent bride. The club was invited to Bartow for the November meeting with Ethel Suelle.

TAMPA CLUB

The Tampa Alumnae Club has held the usual monthly meetings during the past year. At each meeting a good percentage of the membership was present. These meetings have taken the form of cooky-shines with different members as hostesses. The social part of the evening was always followed by the regular business meeting at which we have discussed the different activities of our Fraternity.

Each member has felt a keener interest in Pi Beta Phi as a result.

In May, aside from our regular meeting, we gave a bridge party for the benefit of the Settlement School. The prizes, which were from the Arrowcraft Shop, created quite an interest among the guests and members. The club cleared twenty dollars for the Settlement School fund.

In September the alumnae members, in cooperation with the actives, gave a beautiful dinner party at the Tampa Yacht Club for the girls who were entering college this fall. Mrs. Carnes acted as toastmistress and under her clever guidance we were taken on an airplane trip from Monmouth to Gatlinburg and on across the continent, as we were introduced to some of our famous Pi Phis. There were talks by various members carrying out the central idea.

The club has planned some interesting meetings for the fall and winter with the hope that each member may be greatly benefited.

LILLIAN ELLISON LINDLEY

ETA PROVINCE

LIBBIE BROOK-GADDIS CLUB

Our club met at the home of Jessie Gaddis on Saturday, September 22. As Margaret Lomax could no longer act as president of the club, Mrs. Lois Drake of Prairie City was elected to fill her place. Three girls were recommended to Northwestern and Toronto Universities. Mrs. Martha Crissey Sharp of Monmouth, a former member of the club, was a guest. After the meeting, a few mothers who have been active in aiding the club, enjoyed tea with the members.

JESSIE M. GADDIS

BELOIT CLUB

As this report went to the editor, the Beloit Alumnae Club had not yet opened its official year.

The first meeting of the year, October 9, was to be held to greet the new Pi Phis in town. Mrs. Kenneth Cormany (Margaret Goodson, Missouri A), Mrs. A. H. Samuels (Wisconsin A), Mrs. R. A. Thayer (Barbara Pierson, Wisconsin B), and Fredericka Ramsey (Wisconsin B). A dinner and program will be held in Janesville at which time definite plans will be made for programs and for raising money for the club's various contributions during the year. Thereafter, dinner meetings will be held once each month, followed by business and an appropriate program.

The Alumnae Club assisted the local active chapter as usual by serving the Supper Sing during rusting.

CAROLYN C. SHEPARD

CHICAGO CLUB NORTH

The Chicago Alumnae Club North is looking forward to a splendid year under the direction of Dorothy Tisch Dawley who is our new president. Through her untiring effort plans are well organized for the year and we urge every Pi Phi on the north side to attend one of our three groups the Alpha, Beta-Delta, or Gamma.

A cooky-shine was planned for October 24 and a hard-time party, October 27, to which our husbands were invited. The Settlement School tea will be held December 1.

Our club has had various ways of raising money but this year we have decided to concentrate on the sale of vanilla as we have been very successful before and would appreciate orders from any Alumnae Club. Mrs. Ashford M. Wood, 2015 Jarvis Ave., will send information to those interested.

All Pi Phis wishing to become affiliated with north side groups are urged to get into communication with Mrs. Melvin Dawley, 2001 Jarvis Ave., president, or Mrs. G. W. Wagner, 6222 Lakewood Ave., corresponding secretary.

BLANCHE T. WAGNER

CHICAGO CLUB SOUTH

The Chicago Alumnae Club, South, opened the 1934-35 year in September with six groups active. Two meet monthly, three meet every two weeks and one every three weeks. Some have luncheon and bridge meetings, others dessert and bridge, and one, an evening meeting. Any one interested in joining a group please get in touch with Mrs. L. P. Swanson, 852 East 83rd Street, Vincennes 6216.

The groups have begun with a great deal of enthusiasm, a drive for new members and plans for several joint meetings and parties. The first of these was a cooky-shine, Wednesday evening, October 24, at International House. Mrs. Homer Spencer talked on current events.

February 1, there is to be a benefit card party at the Smyth Furniture Company. In April there is to be an election of officers, tea and Founders' Day banquet.

At some time during the year it is also planned to have a sale of Arrowcraft products.

We are sorry to report the resignation of June Adams Horner as Corresponding Secretary. We are also sorry to lose Ruth Nicholas Sutton as our Province Vice-President. She has willingly and efficiently helped us in her years of service.

CECILE GILROY MUNNECKE

CHICAGO BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB

For all that our group had counted on another interesting and successful year when Ruth Hill was re-elected president, we are excited about her trip. In September, Ruth sailed from Seattle for an extended visit in Japan and China. We shall miss her leadership this year.

Having met with considerable success last spring, another Rummage Sale was planned for October for the benefit of the Settlement School. Marian Hulce is in charge of the accumulation of articles between our sales.

Our meetings, held every third Tuesday evening, began again October 9. If there are any business girls in Chicago interested in joining our group, we hope they will promptly call our membership chairman, Gertrude Cronin at Central 8889.

MARGARET WEGENER

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN CLUB

October was an eventful month for the Chicago West Suburban Club. A delightful musical tea at the home of Mrs. L. C. Clarke in La Grange on October 6 was the beginning of this season's activities. The guest artists were Hazel Traeger, pianist, and Laura Louise Smith, reader. A business meeting was held later in the month.

Our club is happy to announce the addition of seven new member this fall. Two of our group, Mrs. John Charters (Elizabeth Stewart, Wisconsin B) and Mrs. H. M. Allen (Laura Reed, Illinois B Δ) report interesting trips to the Settlement School at Gatlinburg, Tennessee, this summer.

CHARLOTTE H. WATSON

DECATUR CLUB

The first meeting of the new year was a cooky-shine, and the active chapter girls were guests. A delightful buffet supper was served, and all members reunited happily after the vacation separation. Helen Ruth Chodat, Illinois H, Convention delegate, gave a report on the highlights of the Thirty-first Biennial Convention. At this time the cup which she won for her song, "A Pi Phi Tribute," was presented to the president, Roberta Morris. Cynthia Conklin, rushing chairman, reported on the summer rushing parties and activities and told about the rush week plans.

In the regular alumnae meeting which followed, Miss Ruth Hamman took the oath of office as president, filling the vacancy made by the resignation of Mrs. Traver McCormick.

COMING EVENTS

Millikin Homecoming, October 26 and 27. Dinner in the chapter house, October 27.
Settlement School meeting, November 13.
Christmas Party, December 11.
Cooky-shine, January 8.
House Shower, February 12.

LENORE CHODAT

GLENHURSTON CLUB

We are all anticipating enjoyable meetings again throughout the year. We plan to get together once a month at the home of one of the girls for a buffet supper followed by a business meeting and sometimes cards or some other arranged program. We held a tea and sale of Settlement School articles in November, and in December our Christmas party will consist mainly of dressing dolls and packing toys to be sent to Gatlinburg. A dinner and theater party in Chicago is planned for February, a Constitution meeting for March and Founders' Day in April.

The club is glad to welcome several new members this year and sorry to lose some old ones. Margaret Lindsey of Glen Ellyn is our new president, Ruth Chittenden, secretary-treasurer, and Camilla Gillette, corresponding secretary. The last named has since moved to Pennsylvania. We all wish her much happiness in her new home.

RUTH HOWARD CHITTENDEN

MADISON CLUB

The Madison Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the year 1934-35 on September 19 at the home of Mrs. Henry Bush. Thirty-one members were present and the club is enthusiastic over the prospect of a considerable increase in membership.

Plans were made for a dinner party with the active chapter as guests in October at the home of Mrs. J. F. Kessenich. The dinner was followed by an evening of entertainment. The usual monthly meetings will be held at the homes of members at which a buffet supper will be followed by impromptu bridge. In December a Christmas party will be held at the chapter house.

In April, Founders' Day will be celebrated with the active chapter at the chapter house.

ROBERTA HALLEY STEHR

MILWAUKEE CLUB

The first meeting this fall of the Milwaukee Alumnae Club was held at the home of Charlotte Henschel, Wauwatosa, on the evening of September 18.

Dinner was served to fifty-one Pi Phis, a record crowd. Plans for the coming rummage sale were discussed. The sale was held two days, October 12 and 13, and a large sum was realized for the Settlement School.

Two active members of Wisconsin A were guests of the club. They gave delightful accounts of Convention.

The next meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Valentine Blatz, on October 20, and was a Settlement School tea.

ELIZABETH WICKHAM O'MEARA

NORTH SHORE CLUB

Two vacation parties were held during the summer interim between club years—a luncheon and bridge at the Evanston Golf Club in June, and in July a luncheon and swimming party at the Glenview home of Mrs. John J. Sharon.

New members were welcomed at a tea given at the Georgian Hotel on September 28. Mrs. Graham, just returned from several months spent in Germany, Austria, and neighboring countries, gave us a very interesting picture of "Europe's Situation." A program for the year was announced, with regular meetings to be held the third Friday of each month, and an invitation extended to all Pi Phis to become active members of our club.

At the October meeting, held in the chapter house, Jean Burns entertained us delightfully with her reading. A successful rummage sale for the benefit of the Settlement School was held during this month, with Mrs. Robert Talley in charge.

Announcement was made of the November meeting, which was planned by Mrs. Burr Blackburn, our Settlement School chairman, and promised to be especially interesting.

ALSACE WECK

ROCKFORD CLUB

The first meeting of the Club Year was held on September 11 in the same cottage on Clear Lake, where last year we so pleasantly picked up our club work. Mrs. Hugh Wise, our hostess, was assisted by Mrs. C. K. Meyers and Mrs. Robert Shumway. After supper plans for the year were discussed, altered, and approved. Meetings will be held on the second Tuesday evening of each month and many of the favorite subjects of last year are to be repeated. A report of Convention was to have been given by the delegate, Florence Berck, but at the last moment she was unable to be present, and the account of that important gathering will be presented later on.

On October 9, a Settlement exhibit was held at the home of Mrs. Jackson Hon. She was assisted by Florence Berck. After the business meeting, the evening was finished with bridge and refreshments.

FLORENCE G. BERCK

THETA PROVINCE

DES MOINES CLUB

The Des Moines Alumnae Club is holding regular monthly meetings with groups of members serving as hostesses. Meetings are either luncheons on the first Saturday of the month, or suppers on the first Monday, with a business session following.

In September the club entertained local young women, who were entering various colleges, at a tea. Local active girls served as assisting hostesses. Members are trying to be of more assistance to nearby chapters by making contacts with prospective rushees.

We were happy to have Mrs. Seaman Knapp, province vice-president, with us in October for our first formal meeting of the year.

Mrs. Fay Rowley Huttenlocher, Convention Initiate, gave a report on Convention at the November meeting. Early in December the club will hold its annual Settlement School sale and tea, which is an event of considerable interest in Des Moines. The monthly meeting will be in the evening with a Christmas donation of food and clothing collected for Mrs. Tillmont of the Widows Pension Bureau. Later meetings will include a Settlement School program, a study of the Constitution, a Founders' Day program in April, the election of officers in May, and the annual pot-luck picnic in June.

LUELLA BURT REARICK

INDIANOLA CLUB

The Indianola Alumnae Club regrets the loss of a most energetic and enthusiastic member, Mrs. Lippincott (Grace Moss) who, with her two children, has joined her husband in Minnesota where he is in charge of a C.C.C. camp. Mrs. Lippincott was our newly elected president. The vice-president, Mrs. Sampson (Ada Proudfoot), is acting in her place.

No regular September meeting was held as the alumnae club joined the active chapter in several rushing parties and at a pledge dinner at the chapter house, where there were several out-of-town guests.

The regular monthly "pot-luck" luncheon and meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Buxton (Betty Carpenter). The program consisted of reports of Convention by our alumnae representative and Province president, Betty Carpenter Buxton, and the two actives who attended Convention, Harriet Harlan and Ruth Davis.

Mrs. Sigler (Sara Eikenberry) was our hostess in November when Mrs. Knapp, our Province vice-president, was the guest of honor. In December the alumnae club and the active chapter will have a Christmas party at the chapter house. The Ways and Means Committee have charge of this party and are planning special means of making money for the Settlement School. The January meeting will be devoted to the Settlement School. In February the pledges will be our guests at a luncheon. In March we meet again with the actives at which time the alumnae will serve a dinner. In April we celebrate Founders' Day, and in May, Constitution Day. June will be the closing month of the year.

VESTA MERRITT ANDERSON

MINNEAPOLIS CLUB

A delightful get-together tea at the home of Marion Bingenheimer on September 21 and a week of active participation in rushing by the alumnae preceded our first dinner meeting of the year on October 9 at the Pi Phi house. Mr. Eugene G. Weber spoke on "The Drama Festival" to be held in Minneapolis this fall (under the direction of Mr. Albert Killeen, the son of Mrs. Earle G. Killeen, one of our members) and also recounted some very interesting and amusing incidents of the theater . . . dealing with famous personalities of the stage. Blanche E. Price (West Virginia A), who represented us at Convention, brought the Convention at Yellowstone home to us very vividly. "Intimate Sidelights on Convention" was the subject of her sparkling talk.

Our meetings this year, as in the past few years, will be dinner meetings at the chapter house the second Tuesday of each month. The various members will take turns serving as hostesses . . . several at one time . . . and each member serving only once during the year. We hope that every Pi Phi in Minneapolis will make it a point to meet with us each month. And we especially urge Pi Phis who have recently moved to Minneapolis to get in touch with us at once. We expect to have a wonderful year! Bess Gislason, who has active contact with educational centers, is planning our after-dinner programs and promises us a real treat in the way of entertaining speakers on interesting subjects of the day.

At our November meeting, there was a display of lovely handmade articles from the Settlement School. This will give everyone an opportunity to do her Christmas shopping early. Also, at this meeting, a brief history of our mountain school will be given. And most important of all, we are to have the pleasure of having with us our province vice-president, Mrs. Knapp.

In December, we shall entertain the active chapter at our Christmas dinner meeting. There will be the traditional Christmas luncheon later in the month.

Other events included in plans for the coming months are an alumnae dance at the chapter house, the formal Founders' Day banquet, an afternoon party at which children of members will be the guests of honor, and a spring picnic. Lilla Rice, our very able "Ways and Means" chairman, has several plans for a remunerative benefit to be given late in November or early in December.

RUTH G. ANDERSON

Mt. PLEASANT CLUB

The Mount Pleasant Alumnae Club opened its club year with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. M. L. Dickson. A brief business meeting followed at which time the programs for the year were distributed. Helen Hunt, Convention delegate from the active chapter, gave an informal but comprehensive review of Convention. The club has twenty-seven members and all are eager to make this an outstanding year. In July many of the alumnae and actives motored to Burlington to enjoy a picnic with members from Burlington and Monmouth.

MARGARET R. PATTERSON

IOTA PROVINCE

LINCOLN CLUB

The Lincoln Alumnae Club very actively participated in the active chapter's fall rushing. Various members of the alumnae club entertained rushees and actives at luncheons, teas, dinners and picnics. At the time of closed rushing the alumnae prepared and served all food at rush parties. In appreciation for which the active chapter entertained the alumnae at tea on October 2. The alumnae chapter's first meeting was held on October 6 at the home of Mrs. Ames.

MARY KISNER

KAPPA PROVINCE

AUSTIN CLUB

The Austin Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year on Friday, September 14, at the chapter house. It was called to discuss rush week plans with the rush captain of the active chapter. Rush week was highly successful and resulted in our pledging a number of attractive girls.

Several improvements have been made on the chapter house during the summer. The house was re-painted inside and out, and several closets and one extra bath room added. The dining room was improved by the addition of a lovely crystal chandelier and a Sheffield silver service. New porch furniture was also bought.

VIOLETTA VAN DEVANTER

SABINE DISTRICT CLUB

The club opened its fall season with a luncheon at the Country Club, our president, Mrs. Delta Ferguson, being the hostess. Five regular meetings will follow, each group of hostesses planning the type of program to be given.

PHOEBE LOVELL BONE BELL

LITTLE ROCK CLUB

The Little Rock Alumnae Club meets every second and fourth Tuesday in the month. As a majority of our members are business and professional women, our meetings are held at seven-thirty in the evenings. During the Christmas holidays we plan to give a tea for the Pi Phi mothers and the girls who are home from school. Founders' Day we shall celebrate with a dinner at a members home. We find these dinners much better attended than those at a hotel down town. Our June meeting will be a luncheon. We expect to continue our meetings through the summer months, as there are always enough members in town to form a quorum. Also we like to have the girls of Arkansas A feel that we are organized and ready to help if needed with their summer rushing plans. We also plan to contribute more to the Settlement School than in the past two years as our treasury has had time to recover from the era of frozen assets. As a local enterprise our club members are ardent supporters of the Little Rock Panhellenic in their county library project which fills a long felt want in our community. This winter we shall continue our plan of "fireside bridges." We found that a number of these small benefit bridge parties of three or four tables were much more pleasant and profitable than one large party.

Last summer the members of our club who were in town during the elections served dinner and luncheon to 120 judges. This not only proved profitable, but gained for our club a reputation for efficiency. The generous contributions by Pi Phi mothers and Pi Phis who are unable to take a regular active interest in the club contributed a great deal to our success.

ELEANOR F. COOKE

MUSKOGEE CLUB

During the summer the Muskogee Club had three called meetings, one to hear the report of the alumnae delegate to Convention, and to settle questions pertaining to rushing. August 22 we gave a progressive dinner for rushees entering college this fall, and the club felt it was quite a success.

We held our first fall meeting on September 20 with twelve members and three guests present. The guests were Mrs. C. J. Samuel, Oklahoma A; Mrs. Rathburn, Oklahoma B, and Mrs. Donald Lyons, Kansas A, vice-president of Epsilon Province. Mrs. Lyons gave a most interesting talk on her experience as a teacher in the Settlement School.

The club decided to meet for luncheon the last Saturday of each month with three members as hostesses and one member in charge of the program. The program is: October 27, luncheon, questionnaire on the September ARROW; November 24, luncheon, Settlement School; December 29, no hostess holiday luncheon; January 26, luncheon, questionnaire on November ARROW; February 23, luncheon, study of the constitution; March 30, luncheon, program devoted to Oklahoma A; April 29, Founders' Day luncheon; May 18, luncheon, election of officers.

LUCILE WILKINSON PATTERSON

OKMULGEE CLUB

Our club has started the year with a great deal of interest. Three lovely girls have pledged Pi Beta Phi from our city this fall, Margaret Edwards and Sally Joe Matheny at the University of Arkansas, and Frances Hockensmith at the University of Missouri. They will all make valuable members of our club when they finish college.

We lost one member of our club by marriage, Josephine Baker, who is now Mrs. Robert Trapp and lives in Tulsa.

The first activity of the year was a rummage sale on October 6, the proceeds from which went to the Settlement School.

GEELENE N. WATSON

TULSA CLUB

During the summer there were two large rush parties in which the entire membership participated. Our rush activities commenced with a luncheon at the University Club in June. Miss Martha Watson, rush captain, the actives and a few younger alumnae continued with several informal parties throughout the summer. The season was brought to a close with our annual progressive dinner which was given on August 29. A four-course dinner was served in the homes of the following members: Miss Martha Watson, Mrs. John Rogers, Mrs. Earl Sneed and Miss Lois Hopp. At the conclusion of the coffee course the actives presented a clever skit depicting famous women in history as wearers of the Arrow.

On Saturday, September 29, the Club was hostess to the local Panhellenic Association. The party was a bridge tea given in the Junior League Tea Room. There were more than a hundred guests.

ELINOR GRUBB WILLIAMS

PORTLAND OREGON CLUB

The past few months have brought many new Pi Phis to Portland and we are exceedingly happy to welcome them into our club. They are bringing us a great deal in the way of inspiration and new ideas from their various former clubs and we expect to benefit decidedly from these new contacts.

The first meeting for this year was held at the home of Mrs. George Young on the afternoon of September 25 with our president, Mrs. Sumner Williams, presiding. The plans and program for the coming year were discussed and decided upon. As has been our custom in the past, the club is having alternate afternoon and evening meetings once a month at the homes of the members.

Our next meeting was the annual cooky-shine which always brings forth a record attendance. The program was in the hands of a younger Oregon B group with a flare for clever and original sketches.

The annual Settlement School tea was held early in November with an extensive display of Settlement School products to a group of Portland women. Mrs. Milo McIver, Settlement School Committee chairman, made extensive plans for this occasion.

A formal supper dance held at the Portland Hotel late in November was the first major social and benefit project for the season. This was an enjoyable and profitable affair under the chairmanship of Mrs. Howard Holman assisted by a younger Oregon A group.

HELEN MADDEN RUSSELL

LAMBDA PROVINCE

EDMONTON CLUB

The Edmonton Alumnae Club elected the following as officers for the year 1934-1935: President, Helen McCaig; Vice-President, Mrs. Hector MacLeod; Corresponding Secretary, Ruth Shipley; Treasurer, Helen Timothy; Chairman of Settlement School Committee, Mrs. S. McCaig; Chairman of Magazine Agency Committee, Margaret Hargrave.

The first meeting of the year, a joint September-October business meeting, was held on October 2 at which time the club welcomed two new members and discussed the program for the coming season.

During the summer months the Alumnae Club joined with those members of the active chapter residing in Edmonton at two rushing parties in the form of a hike and a corn-roast. The club also contributed to a very successful rummage sale held on September 22. The funds raised were in aid of the chapter house maintenance.

A number of parties sponsored by alumnae members have been planned to take place during the rushing season at the University, October 1 to October 15.

RUTH SHIPLER

FANNIE WHITENACK LIBBEY CLUB

Fannie Whitenack Libbey Club opened its fall activities with a dinner for 16 at the home of Mrs. Erling Helliessen on September 27; Mrs. Russell Smyth assisted. Mrs. Philip Englehart of Portland, a former member of the club, was a guest. Mrs. Earl F. Lee, a newcomer in our city, and Miss Bernice Finley, a recent graduate, were received as new members. Mrs. George Clark, who has been away for several years, was welcomed back into the club.

During the business session, while the club sewed for the Red Cross, Bernice Finley was elected secretary to fill a vacancy, and plans were made for the sale of Settlement School articles for Christmas gifts. A Panhellenic tea is being planned to promote the display and sale of the handicraft articles; club women other than fraternity women will be invited to the tea.

The third Thursday of each month was determined upon for the meeting night. The October meeting was held at the home of Miss Grace Shrader, with Miss Marion Nelson as joint hostess.

BERNICE FINLEY

SALEM CLUB

The Salem Alumnae Club entertained September 12 with an informal tea at the Tea House in compliment to girls who entered the University of Oregon and Oregon State College. Mrs. Fletcher Linn and twelve of the actives from Oregon A and Oregon B were guests from Portland.

The first regular meeting of the year was held the second Thursday in October. At that time the program and plans for the year were made.

LILIAN DAVIS

BERKELEY CLUB

The Berkeley Alumnae Club started its fall activities with a tea on September 28 at the home of Mrs. Ben Gerwick. Mrs. Dudley Smith, our new province president, was the honor guest, and the new California B graduates served at the tea tables. There was a large representation of our two hundred members.

The October meeting was the yearly cooky-shine in charge of Myrta Bell. November brought the annual Settlement School benefit. Mrs. James D. Glenn is chairman of this event. In January will be the initiation banquet under the supervision of Mrs. F. Hall. The February meeting will be another cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. Roy Shurtleff. This takes the place of the usual evening card party for members and their escorts. The rummage sale, proceeds from which go to the Settlement School, will be in March. A social gathering for this month is also planned, to be held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Swayne. Founders' Day luncheon in April will be the last meeting of the year. Mrs. Forest Kracow is chairman of this luncheon.

MARGUERITE EASTWOOD WELCH

GLENDALE CLUB

Our meetings are alternate afternoon and evening desert.

The rummage sale was held the middle of November and was as always a source of income for us. For our benefit this year we took the Little Theater of the Verdugos for the evening of October 27—"Such a Little Queen" with Doris Ryder, leading lady.

We are very happy to welcome a number of new members to our group this year and are having a very enjoyable year.

ETHEL R. ELLINGTON

LOS ANGELES CLUB

The Los Angeles Alumnae Club ended the club year of 1933-34 in June with a gala Spanish Festival at the California T house. Strolling musicians, Spanish decorations, costumed flower girls and a Spanish buffet dinner provided a delightful beginning and the bridge play-off finished the evening.

The alumnae club held no meetings during the summer but were active in helping the two local chapters with rushing. Through the efforts of Vera Olds and her efficient committees a large all-province tea and two beach parties were given.

Plans for the new year under the leadership of Julia K. Wright were formed during the late summer and early fall. Much attention is being given to the Settlement School benefit with Mary Fran Sayer and an enthusiastic committee in charge. The benefit is the outstanding event of the year.

The fall activities opened October 13 with a tea given by Mrs. W. H. Montague at her home on north Las Palmas. Our grand vice-president, Ruth Barrett Smith; the delegates from the two active chapters; the chairman of the national scholarship committee, Margaret Smith; and our three alumnae club delegates to Convention, Clara Mae Wright, Nita Carmen and Fredricka Montague, presented the Convention program. New alumnae in Los Angeles were special guests.

There will be six more interesting, friendly meetings—two combined with the Betty Wheat Book group; a Christmas frolic and turkey dinner; a garden luncheon; a tea; and a breakfast featuring the bridge play-off. Isn't that enough to make every Pi Phi alumna in Los Angeles want to be a member? If you are living in Los Angeles or near by and haven't affiliated with an alumnae club, won't you call Martha Baker, membership chairman, Parkway 9828, and give her your name?

ANN MCPHERSON KENYON

PALO ALTO CLUB

The new president of Mu Province, Mrs. Dudley Smith (Florence Allen, California A), was honor guest at the opening tea given September 24 at the home of Mrs. E. D. Stanley, Moffett Field. Members of the San Jose Club were also invited. During the afternoon Mrs. Smith spoke briefly of the early days in Pi Beta Phi, lamenting the lack of real information, aside from dates, about the Fraternity in its youth. But her lamentations were timely, for two members of the Palo Alto Club could give her specific facts and delightful anecdotes of former days: Mrs. I. S. Blackwelder (Gertrude Boughton) was a charter member of Kansas A when it was established in 1872 and she proudly wears the beautiful large pin of those times; Miss Helen Sutliff, also of Kansas A, and the Grand President of Pi Beta Phi in '93-'94, has always been keenly alert to all that related to the Fraternity, past and present.

This year, alumnae from Burlingame and San Mateo, who formerly met with the Palo Alto group have decided to form their own club. They will be missed but it is hoped that occasional joint meetings will keep the friendships warm.

All the clubs in the province regret the departure of Helen Adair Kerman, former province vice-president, to New York City, but this club feels especially bewildered, having depended upon her enthusiasm and willing aid in all matters, far more than anyone realized until she left Palo Alto.

MARTHA CRARY NESBITT

SAN FRANCISCO CLUB

On August 15, 1934, the executive committee met with the president, Mrs. Eugene Robinson, at her home to discuss plans for the year. It was decided to have a down town luncheon, which could be enjoyed by those in business, followed by a program or bridge for the afternoon. If it proves successful other luncheons will be held throughout the year.

The fall tea on September 5, at the home of Mrs. George P. Egleston was a delightful affair. Mrs. Egleston was assisted by Mrs. Sidney Lawrence, committee chairman, for the tea. Mrs. Dudley Smith, province president, was a guest of honor.

On November 13, a bridge tea was held for the benefit of the Settlement School.

SAN DIEGO CLUB

On September 7 the San Diego Club entertained at a rush tea at the home of Mrs. Oliver J. Hinman honoring San Diego girls who were to attend college this fall. The regular luncheon meeting was held September 29, at the home of Mrs. Terrell Scott. Mrs. T. N. Alford and Miss Marie Gaby gave fascinating reports of Convention, which led to enthusiastic discussion of the year's plans. Members recalled with pleasure the last meeting of the summer, June 23, at which they entertained their husbands at a picnic at the beach home of Mrs. Addison E. Housh at Del Mar.

KATHARINE THOMAS

SANTA MONICA CLUB

After a four months' vacation, the Fall activities of the Santa Monica Alumnae Club are well on the way under the direction of our new president, Mrs. Nell Warwick Pierce.

The first meeting was held at 7:30 o'clock, October 9, at the home of Mrs. Gladys Craig Tebbe, with Mrs. Jessie Scott Cline assistant hostess.

The meeting opened with twenty-two present, including five guests, two from Nebraska B, one from Colorado A, one from Utah, and one from Oklahoma A.

After dessert and coffee, a business meeting was held making plans for the year. The club will continue its meetings at 7:30 o'clock, the second evening of each month having dessert and coffee with two hostesses. Informal dessert bridge and a planned program will alternate.

A fee of two dollars besides the regular annual dues will be paid each year by each member. One dollar before January 1, and the other by March 1.

Following the business, Mrs. Margery Woods Baird, our delegate to the Convention, gave an interesting report and displayed many souvenirs.

RUTH PARKE WYMAN

SANTA MONICA CLUB

The Santa Monica Club holds their monthly meetings on the second Tuesday of the month. We have found that it is more convenient for the majority of our members to attend in the evening so we serve dessert and coffee and then proceed with the meeting. As a rule bridge is played unless a program has been arranged for the evening.

Our benefit for the Settlement School was given at the California Delta house and it was a great success in every way. We had a dessert bridge and a fashion show of lovely beach apparel, both enjoyed by one hundred and fifty guests.

In May our new officers were elected, Nell Pierce as president and May Dunbar as vice-president. Our aim this year will be to continue the good fellowship we have always enjoyed and to continue to build up our membership as much as possible. At our September meeting we renewed our Pi Phi friendships and heard the convention news from our three members who were there.

GLADYS CRAIG TEBBE

TUCSON CLUB

A clever party was given by the Alumnae Club in August for all Tucson rushees at the country home of Alice Huffman.

The first fall meeting of the Club was held at the Pi Beta Phi chapter house prior to rush week. In charge of the meeting was Mrs. Margaret Bennet Chambers, our new president for the year. Mrs. Gladys P. Storts, vice-president, Mrs. Virginia Dahlberg, Magazine Subscriptions, Miss Muriel Upham, recording secretary, Lillian Sprague, treasurer, were in attendance. The new Advisory Board has as its members Mrs. Helen Murphy, Mrs. Dorothy Morrison, Virginia Crowfoot, Mrs. Helen Land, Virginia Burton. Our new Panhellenic representative is Mrs. Edith Belton Tyler.

Plans for the year's activities were discussed, and a large number of outstanding events decided upon. In November there will be a benefit show, of which the Alumnae Association will receive twenty-five per cent of the proceeds. Mrs. Edith Belton Tyler is in charge.

Our annual Settlement School tea will be held at the chapter house in December. Also December with Christmas means the largest cookie-shine of the year given for the active chapter by the alumnae, an annual event looked forward to by all Tucson Pi Beta Phi and visiting members.

In January our regular Constitution meeting will be held.

In February a bridge party for the alumnae chapter will be given.

Our Founders' Day banquet will be held in April, usually the last important event of the year.

HELEN ADAMS

UTAH CLUB

The first meeting of the Utah Alumnae Chapter of Pi Beta Phi for the season of 1934-35 was held at the chapter house, September 8, 1934.

A letter received by the president from Mrs. Alford, former province president, congratulating the chapter on its excellent work done at Convention was read to the members. Miss Horst, who was the Alumnae Chapter's delegate to Convention, gave a very comprehensive and interesting report.

A program for the year's work as outlined by the president was presented to the members, and is as follows:

October Meeting—Tea for the Mothers' Club.
 November Meeting—Luncheon at the chapter house and a musical program presented by the Active Chapter.
 December Meeting—Evening Party.
 January Meeting—Open.
 February Meeting—Short business meeting and luncheon followed by a literary program.
 March Meeting—Evening Party.
 April Meeting—Study of the Constitution.
 May Meeting—Election of Officers.

The year's work also includes a big party for the purpose of raising money, a rummage sale, the Birthday Banquet, and the Senior Breakfast.

The matter of forming bridge units for the purpose of raising money was considered. It was decided that these would be formed as soon as possible.

ALONE IN QUALITY

The ancient jewelry craftsman, following in the steps of his father and grandfather before him, prided himself on his handiwork which stood alone in its high quality and fine craftsmanship.

Just as in the manufacture of your own fraternity badge today, the old craftsman was satisfied only with the best materials obtainable and through his years of experience put forth his skill to fashion fine gold, silver, and precious stones into jewelry which was truly beautiful and which would be a worthy symbol of all that is fine, permanent, and beautiful.

Balfour craftsmen today create your fraternity badges, keys, and rings, adding those finishing touches by hand which set such jewelry on a plane high above ordinary insignia and personal accessories in a class alone in quality.
