MAY WE ASK— A PERSONAL QUESTION?

Yes!—You who are reading this! Are you one of those law-breaking Pi Phis who send in new and renewal subscriptions on little cards found in magazines, or who innocently write out gift-subscription lists and mail them to publishers?

You are now on probation! Send ALL of your magazine subscriptions from now henceforth to PI BETA PHI MAGAZINE AGENCY. It won't cost you any more in time, money, or trouble—and the Settlement School needs every magazine subscription we can get.

Dr. Ernest Colwell, President, Chicago University, said on January 28 that freshmen entering college every year throughout the nation are "increasingly illiterate" and that "more and more students are going to school every year to learn less and less." He believes that three things are responsible for the fact that many students reach college without being able to read and write well or to think clearly—the attempt to unload education for everything upon the public schools, the "contemptuous way" in which Americans have treated the teaching profession, and the tendency of parents to regard the schools as the custodians of their children. He concluded: "I don't think the public would put up with the low-grade education their children are getting if it weren't for the custodial care the schools give."

THE ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

EDITORIALS

Of War and Rumors of Wars

Again the dread gates of war stand open before our nation. Already the sad consequences have come to the lives of many members of Pi Beta Phi.

What can our members do now? What part can Pi Beta Phi nationally play in this new emergency? What can our members do as individuals?

Perhaps we should first look back ten years, and evaluate our effort in World War II. At first our interests were scattering—then our work was brought together in a national project, the establishment of scholarships for the training of young women (not necessarily Pi Phis) in practical physiotherapy, essential then as now in the rehabilitation of broken bodies, with resultant re-establishment of broken lives. Towards the end of that war, the various military services were carrying on that work. Should Pi Phi again investigate the necessity of adopting that as its major war work? If not, what shall we do? That is a question for Grand Council to consider, along with its planning to help our chapters meet their changing problems.

For all members, individually and as clubs and chapters, there will be work in plenty to be done. To a body of trained and educated women such as our own and other women's fraternities offer, the possibilities of worth-while activity are infinite. Yet our obligations may and should go even beyond this practical aspect. This war, if war it be, and if it becomes world-wide in scope, will be of a kind that will not spare our own shores and our own people. In such a time of terror beyond our present imagination, there will be need for courage undreamed of before, for shining examples of undaunted spirit, which may sustain our chapters and beyond them our communities in such hours of trial as the world has never seen before.

Here is a challenge—an obligation to assume leadership, to work unceasing at the tasks at hand, to face dire possibilities without dismay and without panic. A great task, to be sure, but it is not too great for the trained and educated college woman. Along with such effort, will come an added appreciation of the true meaning of fraternity, and increased spirituality of thought.

Apologia

In December we printed a picture of two Pi Phi artist husbands, one sketching the other—and we named the Pi Phi wife of Wayman Adams incorrectly—it should have been Margaret Boroughs Adams, Texas A. Lucille Wheeler Adams, whose name we gave incorrectly, is the wife of Roger Adams, world-renowned chemist of the University of Illinois—and by the way, Lucille Adams' daughter Lucille has just been pledged to Illinois Z.

An Early Settlement School Chairman

As we go to press, word comes from Honolulu of the death of Elizabeth Clarke Helmick (Mrs. Eli A.), Michigan Alpha, long active in Pi Beta Phi affairs. She was, from 1898 to 1900, secretary for old Kappa Alumnae Circle (before the name was changed to province). In 1912 began her years of service to the Settlement School, when she went to Gatlinburg as chairman of the committee from the Chicago Alumnæ club which was to manage the School. From then until 1918 she continued to act as chairman during those difficult formative years. Hers was a service for which the Fraternity must always be grateful. During the later years of her life she made her home in Honolulu, remaining there after General Helmick's death, and transferring her activities to the work of the Honolulu alumnæ. For many Pi Phis there and for those in Washington, she will be remembered for the enthusiasm with which she made the Settlement School come to life for all who heard her talk of it. To her family goes deep sympathy from the Fraternity she loved so much.

Florence Chase Cass, Michigan Alpha

Again Pi Beta Phi has lost a devoted former member of Grand Council, in the passing of Florence Chase Cass, Grand Secretary (then called Grand Scribe) from 1895 to 1897, presiding officer over the alumnæ sessions of the Convention of 1897, in the absence of Emma Harper Turner, and appointed in 1901 to the position of cataloguer, the first of a line which has led to the Central Office of today. Mrs. Cass was active in the affairs of the New York Alumnæ Club, and in Panhellenic of that city.

Some Arrow Staff News

First, have we mentioned that there is a new Staff baby? Elizabeth Lasher Barnette has a daughter, born last May—her name is Betsy.

Then, Marjorie McMichael Pickard, Florida T, chapter letter editor, resigned before Christmas, because she was to go abroad in a new job with the Munitions Board in London. The ARROW is most grateful for her fine work, regrets to lose her, and yet is happy to welcome in her place, Marge Brink, Indiana B, who will be remembered as Business Manager of the Convention Daily at the French Lick Convention. The chapter letters in this issue are her work, and for them the Editor is grateful. Marge is living in Indianapolis, and is Manual Editor for the Industrial Relations Division of Lilly, International. Besides editing the Manuals which go to all affiliated Lilly companies, she also edits articles on export activities for their employee publications.

It is with deep personal regret as well as on behalf of Grand Council that the Editor must announce the resignation of Marie Bacon Hagee, Missouri B, Director of Extension. In her we lose a fine officer, ever constructive and clear in her thinking. She was devoted to Pi Beta Phi interests and was a grand companion for Council and Province meetings, may we add. Her previous service had been varied, leading to successful chairmanship of the Settlement School Committee.

In her place Grand Council has appointed Alice Weber Mansfield, Missouri B, Epsilon Province Vice President, of St. Louis. Well known already through her efficient work in her province and her attendance at conventions, a warm welcome awaits her.

The Next Step—Into the Alumnae Club

By MARIANNE REID WILD, Grand Vice-President

"THE WHILE we sing, Of dear Pi Beta Phi"
—the strains of The Anthem slowly died away. The candlelight reflected many dewy eyes as the chapter said Farewell to its seniors. For those seniors memory rushed back over the years.

First of all there was the joy on Pledge Day of learning that the fraternity of your choice wanted you, followed in quick succession by formal pledging, and the first pledge meeting, when you received your Pledge Book, and learned who your Sponsor was to be. As the year progressed you learned to study on the college level, you learned about Pi Phi—its history, its standards and ideals, its traditions, its objectives, and its place on campus, and in the fraternity world. That year brought both work and play. It meant polishing the chapter's silver trophies, working on Homecoming Decorations, planning the Pledge Dance, and Turn About Day with the actives. There were long hours of talk, and of learning to know the other pledges and the actives.

Then came initiation and with it a deepened knowledge of and love for Pi Beta Phi. You had your Arrow, and its meaning was sealed in the secret places of your heart. You took your place in the affairs and activities of the chapter.

Next year when school opened it was like coming home. There were squeals of delight at seeing friends parted during the summer months. There were more hours of talk about the experiences of those months while you worked busily unpacking, getting your room settled, and learning to know the new roommate just a little better than you had last year. Studying came a little easier this year. You were involved in campus activities, and were serving your chapter as a committee chairman. All of this meant a full and happy life.

The following year you were a junior and the pattern of life was much the same only busier and fuller. You had a little sister in the chapter to sponsor—to guide her footsteps in fraternity life. You were an officer in the chapter, and that experience brought you a greater understanding of your fraternity as a national organization and you had more of a hand in determining the welfare of your chapter. There was a new pin chained to your Arrow and that meant the traditional pin serenade which put stars in your eyes. The end of the year brought a flood of honors—rewards for your hours of study and work. You were elected president of the campus group in which you had worked so hard and enthusiastically, and you were elected your chapter's delegate to the Pi Phi Convention.

Here you met other Pi Phis, young and old, from the four corners of the United States and from coast to coast in Canada. You helped determine policies for the future, you exchanged ideas about all phases of chapter activity, and you took part in late night sessions, spreads, and song fests.

As a senior you returned to put those ideas into motion for your own chapter, and to help guide its destinies. Before you knew it the year was coming to a close. Suddenly, the reverie was over—here you were saying good bye to all of those happy memories. What did it mean? Why that soon you would be an alumna. It was something you hadn't thought too much about as applying to you. It was like Alice in Wonderland stepping through the magic looking glass—but instead of the world becoming "curiouser and curiouser" it would become finer and finer and you would understand the meaning of those words—"You'll never know how blest you are 'til this new pin grows old."

Then you remembered the chapter program on "Soon You Yill Become an Alumna" and thought more deeply of its meaning and the points that were brought out in the discussion—because you knew now you had been talking about your own future place in Pi Beta Phi, and your responsibilities as an alumna.

That flash back over the years came into focus again, but this time there was someone in the background you hadn't noticed before. It was a Pi Phi alumna.

It was she who had recommended you to your chapter and had thus helped make it possible for you to receive that treasured invitation to membership. As a member of the Alumnae Advisory Committee she had helped select your sponsor—that very special friend in the chapter through the years, who had shared your problems and your joys. She had been there for Coffee and Doughnuts after the football game when your Homecoming Decorations won first prize. She was there for your initiation and had shared with you your first cooky-shine.

It was her rummage and her long hours on the telephone selling tickets that made it possible for you to have such a wonderful surprise when you returned to school the following year—a new TV set for the Lounge, and the perfectly elegant new drapes for the living room.

You learned to know her better the next year when you were on Executive Council, and to appreciate the other alumnae on the House Corporation Board who were truly "Angels in Disguise" when they came to the rescue the day the leak in the showers caused the living room ceiling to fall just the day before a rush party. They knew how and where to get quick action!

Now you see another alumna. She is your Province President. You had talked with her about the duties of your office and she had offered suggestions and helped you with your problems. During after-dinner coffee she had told all of you a little about the other chapters in your province. In chapter meeting she gave you a real feeling of national viewpoint and inspired you to give more and get more from your fraternity experience.

At convention there were many alumnae, delegates, visitors, and officers. They had shared in the work and the fun. Some of them had put in hours upon hours of work assembling the kit you had received upon arrival—typing your registration material, planning the social side of convention and other details you would never think of unless you were on a convention committee.

And now just a week ago the Alumnae Club had had a May Breakfast for the seniors. You had received a lovely silver bracelet with the Pi Beta Phi coat of arms on it, and a very warm welcome into the Alumnae Club.

The picture blurs and when it clears again you have changed places—you are no longer the active, you are now the alumna. All of the things she has been doing are now yours to do with her. All of the things you learned in classrooms and in your chapter must now be put into practice. The Founders, and all who have followed in their footsteps, have given you something invaluable, something to be enriched as the years go on. You can't let down those who follow you by not doing your part now, by not contributing to the continued growth and development of the fraternity, or to the enlightenment and leadership of the world in whatever way is within your power. What would your fraternity be today if every Pi Phi before you had put her Arrow in her jewel box upon graduation and kept it there—strictly for memories? You wouldn't think of accepting a social invitation without returning the courtesy. Had you accepted a Pi Phi invitation without thought of the obligation? Perhaps you hadn't thought then what your future obligations would be—but now they were all very clear.

There are voices again—your thoughts had been so vivid and absorbing you hadn't realized the second stanza was being sung. The soft words as they faded away were a fitting conclusion, and a challenging beginning.

"Turn to your life anew, Inspired by love

A Final Report

By MARY WALLIHAN GIBSON (MRS. ALFRED E.), ex-chairman Alumnae Home Committee

TO THOSE Pi Phis who did not hear a report of the action of Convention at Jasper Park last June concerning the proposed Alumnae Home or who did not read too carefully the Convention number of the ARROW, the now ex-Committee for that Home wishes to say a final word.

After the report of the Committee's work had been given to the Alumnae Session of the Convention, a motion to continue the work toward the Home was made and seconded. After long debate, this motion was lost. Since the action of Convention is final on all questions, work toward the Home was automatically ended. Naturally this was a keen disappointment to the members of the Committee, each of whom had the greatest faith in the idea and had given hours of time and hard work to further it.

Bowing to the will of Convention, the Committee faced the tremendous task of returning to each donor her gift toward the Home. The extent of this task can be realized when you consider that more than $27,000.00 had to be returned to nearly 1500 donors. Some of you have wondered why your checks were so slow in coming. When you think of the meticulous care that had to be taken in order to avoid errors, you will understand. Even now, a few checks have been returned to us because of changes of address. So will those of you who have not received your checks please write to our treasurer, Mrs. W. D. Baker, 17801 Lake Avenue, Lakewood 7, Ohio, giving, if possible, the number of your receipt. Mrs. Baker has spent endless hours on the task of refunding and deserves unbounded credit.

May we at this time extend the Committee's deepest thanks to those members of the subcommittee of 40 who worked so hard and to such good effect on the money-raising campaign. Their efforts contributed greatly to what we considered the success of that campaign. It may be that the time was not ripe for such an undertaking. We venture to hope, however, that at some future date the plan will be brought up again and carried through to a successful conclusion.

The work is done by correspondence, with carefully worked out and graded lessons, and one of the teachers on the correcting staff in Baltimore is Caroline Potts, Maryland A—an interesting job indeed, with its contacts all over the world!

ARLIE WATSON

'Gardens are not made
By singing "oh, how beautiful,"
And sitting in the shade.'

"I can't tell you exact but, if I think right, it'll be twenty-one years in August," Arlie answered when we asked him how long he'd been at the Pi Phi Settlement School.

Arlie and Neill were picking some of the spring's first blossoms from the stately tulip tree that stands in the field between his cottage and Teacher's Cottage. "I'm sure glad these have come out. Miss Dyer can fix them with laurel for the Committee to enjoy. Miss Dyer's as nice a woman as I've ever worked for," said Arlie. He clipped a few more of the beautiful blossoms and went on, "it used to scare me plumb to death when the Committee'd come but it just seems like home now." It most assuredly wouldn't seem like home to the Committee if Arlie weren't there to welcome us with his fine, generous smile.

Arlie was raised at Cartertown and walked two-and-one-half miles every day to attend our school. In 1915 and 1916 he went to war and when he came back, he married Josie Watson. She had gone to school with him and will be remembered by Pi Phis as the convention weaver for Arrow Craft at the Swampscott convention.

Arlie came to the Settlement School as farm, garden, maintenance man. Through the years he has seen the elementary and high schools outgrow their buildings. He remembers when the now replaced old elementary school and Teacher's Cottage (which needs to be replaced) were the finest buildings in Gatlinburg. He told us: "We all had to come in and see everything in them. It was the first time I'd seen a furnace and the foundation of the house and the basement was the first concrete I'd seen in Gatlinburg. It seems funny now but when I had time I liked to sit on the porch of that new school. It was so nice."

It was not too many years until Arlie found himself getting up at five o'clock every morning to fire seven furnaces for the Pi Phis along with his many other tasks. He said: "my hardest job was before breakfast in those days." Modern equipment has now relieved him of some of those duties but he told us that he'd gotten up so much at five A.M. and he was so used to it that he still can't sleep past that hour in the mornings.

Arlie's and Josie's children attended the Pi Phi schools. The years sped by and after the second World War, their son, Neill, came to work for the Pi Phis, too. Arlie said that it wasn't his idea but he was so glad that Neill came. After graduating from high school, the Watson's daughter, Lois became one of the most capable workers at Arrow Craft shop. Lois and her husband are living in Knoxville now while he is getting his degree at the University of Tennessee.

But furnace-tending is now just a routine job at Little Pigeon. The vegetable gardens that supply vegetables for the dormitory and staff tables must be planted and tended. There are flower gardens to add to the beauty along the paths and fruit trees and berry bushes take time and care. Old and damaged trees must be taken out and the wood cut and neatly piled for fire-place use. Landscape planning requires planting of new shrubs and there are hours and hours and hours of grass-mowing.

Preacher Watson, no kin of Arlie's, came to the Settlement School two years ago and is an able worker. He has charge of the chickens (The hens have been living so contentedly in their new University-of-Tennessee-approved hen house that they have broken all previous egg-laying records this year). Mr. Watson cares for the other livestock and assists Arlie and Neill in their work.

Every order from Arrow Craft for Alumnae clubs and active chapters must be taken by truck to the nearest railway station. Arlie and Neill load the Pi Phi truck and drive the shipments to the Sevierville station. As every householder knows, there is always a little repair work or painting to be done. Now and then fences have to be mended also.

The day after school is out the elementary school has to be converted into the dormitory for the Summer Workshop and the high school and Voorhees building have to be made ready for the Summer Workshop classes. It is easy to understand why Arlie said one day: "I just never can get caught up." He paused and looked up at the Smokies and continued: "Things was prettier the way it was when I came here. Oh, I like improvement and the good roads and all but when I was growing up here the scenery was prettier. It was just like nature left it."

"You know," he told us, "one day a couple of men came along and asked me about the Settlement School. I told them it was run by the sorority, Pi Beta Phi. One of them said, 'yes, he knew about it. He was a Pi Phi himself.' He asked me if I was a Pi Phi. I just laughed and said: 'I reckon I was.' But I thought to myself I'd worked here so long I almost felt like a Pi Phi."

FROM PI PHI PENS

Edited by MARY ELIZABETH BARNETTE, Ohio A

SHIRLEY SEIFERT, The Turquoise Trail, J. P. Lippincott Company, 409 pp.

There's always the prospect of an adventure in good reading when one embarks on a new book by Shirley Seifert, and happily "The Turquoise Trail" proved to be no exception. Miss Seifert's latest book, published in the latter part of last year, is, like its predecessors, "Captain Grant" and "The Proud Way," based upon the life of a real person and contributes to the evidence that fact need never lose to fiction in the battle for excitement and adventure.

The diary of Susan Shelby Magoffin, who lived out her life not far from the author's home in Kirkwood, Mo., was the foundation for this book. However, the story is concerned almost entirely with the early years of Susan's marriage during which she and her husband followed the Turquoise Trail from Independence, Mo., to Santa Fe, and prior to doing the writing, Miss Seifert acquired a personal knowledge of that part of the country by herself following the old wagon route mile by mile. Susan's journey, it should be pointed out, was commenced in 1846 when she was eighteen and a bride, and while her husband provided comforts rare for that pioneer period, the rigors of the trip were extreme indeed.

In addition to personal problems and tragedies ranging from relatively slight discomforts to the loss of her first baby, the story's heroine also had to face the fears of war and share the trials of the entire wagon train and the homesickness of soldiers who were endeavoring to make the trail safe for the civilian travelers.

There were times when Susan was resentful, when she doubted her wisdom in marrying the young business empire builder, and when she bitterly regretted the lack of softness and candle-lighted romance in her life. However, she finally came to glory in her loss of illusions and her gain in stature and maturity, and there lies the real and fascinating story of Susan Magoffin.

As a bonus in addition to an absorbing story the reader can count on enjoying the author's vivid description of the life, times, and surroundings of the visitors to and residents of the equally vivid Southwest of the mid-nineteenth century.

AUTHOR INTEREST: "The Turquoise Trail" has the distinction of employing the talents not only of two members of the Seifert family but also of two members of Pi Beta Phi. The endpaper map, which shows the trail in detail, was drawn by Miss Seifert's sister, Adele, also a Missouri B Pi Phi. Among the author's recent activities include lecturing on the historical novel for the Writers' Workshop conducted last summer by Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., where Miss Seifert also used the time for Library of Congress research for a book she has commenced.

Isobel Wolfe Stubbe, Illinois A, was recently awarded first prize in the Arizona state poetry contest sponsored by the National Pen Women Clubs. Announcement was made in Phoenix. The winning poem was entitled "Ashes in the Fireplace."

She writes: "All this sounds more crowded than it is. I really have a very leisurely, studious approach to the writing job, doing gardening and house remodeling, etc., on the side. Adele is a regular journeyman carpenter as well as a pen and ink artist. I still am a dumb apprentice, but eager and willing."

send), Illinois Beta, can well be proud of the reactions to the recent appearance of her suite of piano pieces called "Happy Hours at the Piano." The five numbers, a lullaby, a mazurka, a waltz, a reverie, and a march, each with an appropriate lyric, were inspired, she reports, by her five grandchildren, and, she says, "each piece is representative of the personality of each child."

The Pallma Music Products firm of Beaumont, Calif., has published the selections in separate covers each in different colors picturing the five children musically and happily engaged. A review in Mrs. Dickinson's home town newspaper, the Winnetka (Ill.) Talk, comments: "They are classified as 'recreational piano pieces for children.' As a matter of fact, their elders say, 'they also touch the heart strings of parents, as well.'"

Mrs. Dickinson explains they are designed for grade three and beyond and "are not too simple; tuneful, rhythmical, each with a lyric accompanying the music, which adds much to the atmosphere of the piece and is a help in interpretation."

MARY V. HOLMAN, How It Feels To Be a Teacher, Bureau of Publications, Teachers College, Columbia University, 208 pp.

The over-crowded, under-staffed schools of the past few years have at least focused public attention on school and teacher and helped to broaden understanding of some of their problems. Publication of Mary Holman's book at this time, therefore, is exceedingly timely, and it is to be hoped that the volume will be read all the more widely because of that.

The author believes: "the important thing is not so much what the experience in her (the teacher's) life may be, but rather what that experience means to her," and, therefore, that "the better she can adjust to the multiplicity of problems she faces, the better she will prepare youth for the present as well as the future."

Accordingly by the use of case histories Miss Holman has probed teacher reactions to a generous range of probable experiences in varied associations with pupils, parents, colleagues, supervisors, and the community. She has also outlined, via the same sort of narrative-case history method, the phases of a teacher's background and development from childhood through education and into her career.

Her concern is with the teacher as an individual, and she is interested in stimulating a healthy, constructive, teacher introspection, but reviewers, all of them enthusiastic, drew other conclusions as well and felt that the book contained messages to those outside of the profession.

In the New York Times Nancy Lenkeith summed up this impression thus: "The implications of this study are many, and all of them are serious. Those responsible for educational standards, recruiting, and morale need look no farther for the facts—and a warning."

AUTHOR INTEREST: Currently Director of Guidance in the Orange, New Jersey, public schools, Miss Holman writes: "Since leaving Vermont Beta in 1924, I have done a number of things including social work, high school and college teaching, the direction of workshops in International understanding in Europe, and the direction of a guidance department." She has also obtained both her master's and doctor's degrees and is active in a variety of national and local organizations. With reason, she believes that "While the book is about teachers, it is of equal importance to parents who want to know more about the quality of education their children are getting as well as the people with whom their children spend the most productive part of their day."

ALPHA PROVINCE EAST

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1934

INITIATED, November 25, 1950: Margaret Allen, Marion McCurdy.

As second term opened at Nova Scotia, rushing got into full swing. The most outstanding feature was the Circus Party under the "Big Top." There was also the "Pi Phi Zoo," which proved to be very popular, as did the popcorn and peanut vendors.

Initiation was held March 10, and was followed by a formal banquet at the Lord Nelson Hotel.

The annual formal dance was February 14 at the Med-O-Club.

Sigma Chi Fraternity, Nova Scotia A's brother fraternity, entertained the chapter in February. Everyone first attended a basketball game between Dalhousie Varsity and St. Francis Xavier University, then went en masse to the fraternity house for dancing, a singsong, and refreshments.

The Dalhousie Glee and Dramatic Society presented Gilbert and Sullivan's Operetta "Mikado," and Shakespeare's, "Romeo and Juliet." A number of the Chapters' members took part.

The week of February 5 was Co-Ed Week at Dalhousie, whereby the girls were obliged to do the dating and the paying. The editors of the Co-Ed Gazette were Judy MacKeen, Nancy Briggs, and Barbara McGeoch.

The activities of Sadie Hawkins Week comprised movies, a skating party, serenade and dance at Pine Hill Residence, bridge party at Sherriff Hall, topped off with Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Joanne Beaubien took honors for Dalhousie by winning the Ladies Singles in the intercollegiate Badminton Tournament at the University of New Brunswick during February.

On March 6 the Chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. Whipple, the Province President. A tea was held for her at the home of Frances Doane, giving the members an opportunity of meeting the gracious President.

PLEGDED: Judy James, Joan Hills, Helen May, Joanne Murphy, Donald MacLeod, Marian Scott, Valerie Snedden.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Gay Esdale, Granville Ferry, Annapolis, N.S., Canada.

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Chartered, 1920

Pledge Day, February 28

The week-end of January 18 was a perfect Winter Carnival date. The coronation ceremony was held on the University's rink after an Ice Revue. The queen was cleverly introduced in the casket scene when the Carnival King bent over the casket to kiss the sleeping princess and the Carnival Queen came to life. The coronation took place on a solid snow throne while the attendants stood on the steps. Jeanette Hovey and Francis Willette took part in the court.

February 14 the great concert violinist, Giovanni Bagarotti, presented well-known selections to a large crowd of music enthusiasts. After the concert Mr. Bagarotti entertained the students with his interesting tales of Europe.

Ann McKiel has been named to a key committee for the Home Economics Department on the Building Improvement Committee.

The Maine band made its fourth annual tour in February. They were well received throughout the state. Later they presented a concert for the University students and neighboring people.

Brotherhood Week was also observed in February. Many of the international students took part in the program and presented various skits of their native lands.

Helen Strong received her local rating in basketball.

Dr. James O. Perrine gave a very interesting lecture and demonstration on the telephone and telegraph service and how it is operated. He shipped tons of equipment to the University to aid in his demonstration. The title of the talk was "More Waves, More Words, Less Wires."

Ann Cutts and Ellen Economy were awarded certificates at the Prism banquet for work that they had contributed to the '51 Prism.

Helen Strong was one of the girls chosen to attend a demonstration clinic in Houlton on the interpretation of Women's Basketball. Carolyn Simpson is one of the few girls taking active part in the Women's Rifle Team.

Ida Moreshead recently attended a New England Christian Movement Conference on "The Prerequisites for Peace" at Rolling Ridge, North Andover, Mass.

PLEGDED: Penny Rich, Liz Leighton.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Jean Libbey, Freedom, Maine.

*VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

Pledge Day, November 19, 1950

INITIATED, March 4, 1951: Jean Clark, Chatham, N.J.; Joan Cramp, Princeton, N.J.; Sarah Haines, Rochester, Minn.; Julie Howard, Detroit, Mich.; Jane Pope, Burlington, Virginia; Rost, Newton Highlands, Mass.; Eva Sontum, Bronx, N.Y.; Doris Sturtevant, New Canaan, Conn.; Constance Lewis, Brockton, Mass.; Carol Brautigam, Old Greenwich, Conn.

Soon after Christmas vacation, the pledge dance of the Vermont A's was held at the Waybury Inn, a few miles outside of Middlebury. It was an informal dance with skirts and sweaters in order, and everyone with their dates climbed and pushed into big trucks to be transported to the Inn.

On a stormy February night the pledges entertained the chapter with a skit concerned with two girls coming back from Convention. While sitting on the train, they reviewed the girls they had met, and a panorama of Pi Beta Phi's paraded before them in the "characteristic" costumes of their locality. There were girls from the south in bathing suits, those from the west playing guitars, and Canadian girls in ski clothes.

The K K G's invited the Pi Beta Phi's to join them for an evening to debate the question, "Should Women be Drafted?" Mary Krum and Louise Erb put forth the affirmative for Vermont A; the ensuing debate was hilarious.

The Middlebury Phi Mus had a Founders' Day tea on March 4, celebrating their 99th year. All sorority chapters on campus were invited to help them celebrate.

Since most chapter initiations were held early in March, the chapter had an open house on March 5 for all the women's fraternities. It was a chance for all older members to get together in the Panhellenic spirit and also acted as an introductory party for the new initiates.

At a recent meeting called "Standards Night," several members gave short talks on the individual's responsibility to herself, her chapter and her college. A discussion of boy-girl associations and a Pi Beta Phi's conduct standards followed.

Carr Hall, Middlebury's new Fine Arts building, was completed and dedicated in January, with classes beginning with the second semester. It houses class rooms, offices, and two art studios.

The long awaited Winter Carnival came the weekend of February 23; up until the last minute the weather betrayed all prayers and promises by raining instead of snowing. Just before the deadline, the mercury fell and the weekend was cold and carnival-like. Dartmouth College skied off with the greatest number of contest points, with Middlebury trailing in second place. The Carnival Ball was lush, plush, and glamorous. The Klondike Rush, an informal dance where everyone wears ski clothes, climaxed an exciting weekend. Here awards were given to individual skiers and teams and to fraternities and dormitories for the outstanding snow sculpture. Marilyn Murphy was a member of the Queen's Court, and Polly Norton was co-chairman of the Carnival.

Mary Lee McGowan is co-chairman of Junior Weekend in May. Janet West, Ann McGinley, Ann Tilton, and Nancy Peck have been nominated to the slate of officers for the Women's Student Union, the governing body of the Women's College.

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

Chartered, November 24, 1898

The weekend of March 22 was the scene of a most successful Kake Walk winter carnival. The chapter was very busy giving a coffee hour, a breakfast, and an open house, and building a snow sculpture. The coffee hour on March 20 was for all king and queen candidates. More than a hundred alumnae, parents, and friends attended the Sunday Kake Walk breakfast. Sunday afternoon Pi Beta Pi had its annual Kake Walk open house. Vermont B was presented with a silver cup and a big yellow and green frosted cake for winning first place in the sorority division for ice sculptures.

The Mother's Club had a luncheon and meeting February 28 at the sorority house. Maud Mason told the mothers about the activities of the chapter during Kake Walk.

A new system for the supper meal is being tried by the sorority. All planning, buying, and cooking will be done by the girls on a rotating system. The whole chapter, including pledges and girls with house privileges, are eating at the sorority house every Monday night before the formal meeting.

There is a new local fraternity for girls on campus called B X A. They recently had rushing and pledged thirteen girls. Panhellenic has given the new sorority strong support and cooperation.

Vermont B is proud of its nominee Jean Hard for the Amy Burnham Onken Award and also of Elisa Sierra as nominee for the Portland Award.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Barbara Demerest, 16 Hillside Ave., Caldwell, N.J.

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

The chapter held its formal initiation and banquet on March 10. Angels formed the basis of our banquet centerpieces, with place cards of arrow-pierced clouds to add to the ethereal theme. The banquet was held in the Raleigh Room of the Hotel Shelton, and following the banquet there was a semi-formal dance. As favors our dates will receive arrow tie-clasps.

Rush captain, Alice Estey, has planned several novel rush parties. Cooky-shines and coke parties being the general rush-party rule, we have decided on a bowling party.

We joined other students and student organizations in a rally planned to welcome the new president of Boston University to his new position. President Case was greeted by the student body and university officials on the plaza of the Daniel L. Marsh Chapel.

The pledges held a buffet supper for the actives after chapter meeting on March 5.

Sunday, April 1, saw our parents here for a coffee hour and social.

The girls who are on the Dean's List are Ann West, Zabelle Dohanian, and Barbara Ann Short.

MASSACHUSETTS BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS

Chartered, 1944

Pledge Day, March 2, 1951

No sooner did Massachusetts B settle down after its pledge formal at Hills Memorial in January than it entered into a period of gay excitement during the Winter Carnival of the University of Massachusetts. Jean Small was general co-chairman of the Carnival. Carnival Week included a Flower Fashion Show in which Alice Jagiello, Kay Romano, and Dorothy Stiles were models, and a radio concert over NBC by the chorale in which Jocie Dugas, Carol Hinds, Edna Joslin, and Joan Lunberg participated. Alice Chorebanian directed and acted in the senior class play, one of the outstanding plays of the Inter-Class Play Contest. A great disappointment to all was the lack of snow for sculptures. An event which helped offset this disappointment was the presentation of the gift of the Class of 1950, a statue of Mettawampe, the guiding Indian spirit of the campus.

Joan Cormack and Barbara Dean were  $\Pi B \Phi$ 's representatives in the founding of a new women's fraternity at the University.

After a successful period of second semester rushing, plans were eagerly made for activities during Inter-Greek Week. "Campus Varieties," a musical-comedy production of which Alice Chorebanian was co-director, was received enthusiastically by everyone. The highlight of the second semester was the production by the Operetta Guild of "Brigadoon" in which Jean Murdock played the leading role. This presentation of the operetta marks the first time that it has ever been performed by a college group.

Jean Small was elected to  $\Phi K \Phi$ .

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896
Pledge Day, October 19, 1950

INITIATED, October 9, 1950: Marion Daniel, New York; Charlene Davis, Oswego; Sally Randall, Waterbury, Vt.

The members of New York Alpha found themselves once again in the whirl of Syracuse activity. Sophomores continued Triple S, the W.S.G. training program, as well as a period of cheerleading practice for next year's squad.

The Pi Beta Phi basketball team has played a defeatless tourney against Gamma Phi Beta, Zeta Tau Alpha and Alpha Epsilon II in a league battle sponsored by W.R.A., the president of which is Dotty Wysong.

The first evidence of war has hit our campus in the form of a contingent of 100 Air Force men here on a Russian Studies program.

Winter Weekend was looked forward to with much anticipation. Snow sculpturing and skiing found no room on the program however, for old man winter neglected to provide the snow. The great event for the Pi Beta Phis was the crowning of their own Marlene Drexler as Winter Carnival queen at the gala Sno-Ball. As queen Marlene also presided at the Stockingfoot dance. Nancy Rankin was the chairman of the Prizes and Awards committee.

Syracuse university's Campus Chest money-raising drive this year included an Ugly Man contest—a counterpart of the beauty contests for co-eds. Every student paid a ten cent poll tax. Pi Beta Phi joined Alpha Tau Omega in sponsoring Don Enders ("Dirty Don") as Ugly Man. He won the contest, and with it a date with Marlene Drexler, the Winter queen.

A flu epidemic emptied classrooms temporarily directly after the big week-end.

The chapter was pleased to welcome Gloria Brown, a Bucknell transfer, and pledges June Forsythe, Francina Hill, and Joan Kraft into the house this semester.

The sophomore class sponsored a pet show in which the Pi Beta Phi entry was "Brucie" the cocker spaniel puppy of Lyn Jammer.

PLEGDED: Paula Barry, Boonton, N.J.; Patricia Bixby, Marietta, Pa.; Anita Bennett, Syracuse; Marlene Drexler, Valley Stream, L.I.; Nancy Fowler, Winnetka, Ill.; June Forsythe, Rochester; Marian Geipel, Pennington, N.J.; Francina Hill, Hopewell, N.J.; Barbara Kellett, Rochester; June Kunkel, Johnson City; Mary Morrison, Springfield, Mass.; Marcia Oberlander, Beta Oberlander, Syracuse; Sabre Packard, Bronxville; Wilma Robinson, Pelham; Ann Syffer, Larchmont; Suzanne Smith, Fairport; Charlene Velen, Nanticoke, Pa.; Janet Weckerle, Buffalo.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Kathleen Collins, 716 E. Dewart St., Shamokin, Pa.

MARION DANIEL

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, March 20, 1914

The second semester at St. Lawrence began with the Winter Carnival. Friday night brought the Ice Show and the coronation of the king and queen. Evelyn Benson was the Pi Phi member of the court. Yvonne Sherman, nationally known amateur skating star, presented an excellent performance in Appleton Arena. She was supported by the outstanding showmanship of numerous other well-known performers. After the Ice Show, the faculty indulged in a hockey game which was met with much hilarity on the part of the spectators. The Pi Phis received honorable mention in the judging of the ice statues. The theme of the displays was the Mardi-Gras. The New York Phis did a representation of a jack-in-the-box.

March 25 brought Pledge Sunday for the five St. Lawrence fraternities. Each sorority serenaded the new pledges of the respective groups, that afternoon.

The Women's Student Government Association sponsored an Intersorority song contest March 11. The New York Phis sang three fraternity songs and an original arrangement of the popular song "Blue Moon."

March 10 brought the annual Pi Phi Pledge Party, given by the active members for the new pledges.

The basketball season for women has begun and the Pi Phis are working hard to snare the cup for another year. Riding will begin soon, too, and the chapter's equestrians hope to retain the horsemanship cup that they won last year.

PLEGDED: Jean Edwards, Summit, N.J.; Joan Minch, Schenectady; Gina Patterelli, Sherrill; Dolores Rumpik, East Islip; Joan Manahan, Brightwaters; Judith Anderson, Yorktown Heights.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Joan Van Dusen, 11 Bennington Ct., Tenafly, N.J.

NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, February 25, 1951

Rushing began on a snowy Saturday afternoon in February with Open Houses in which nearly 500 rushees came through Pi Phi in two days. Next came Coffee Hours in the evenings. Second Period parties consisted of Game parties; our theme was "Nursery Rhyme Time." Mother Goose welcomed the rushees at the door and introduced her many characters to a girl who, in the skit, couldn't decide which one to be until she discovered, "My Pi Phi doll." Ice cream was served in flower pots with real daffodils growing out of them by Mistress Mary later on in the evening. Formal rushing ended with formal dinners given on two consecutive nights so that the Chapter could meet more of the girls.

An amusing sidelight of rush was provided by four waiters who entertained the chapter and rushees during the dinners. As a reward they were given a mock pledge ceremony at the end of the second night. They followed through a few nights later by appearing at the pledge banquet and serving the whole dinner as a surprise! The chapter has had many compliments on the redecoration of the house completed just before rushing. The sophomores cut a set of rugs, bought from a fraternity to fit the living room, hall, smoking room, and front stairs. The seniors, not to be outdone, followed through by volunteering to make new draperies to fit in with the new color scheme of the house.

The Pi Phis were very proud of Theodore Wright, husband of one of our outstanding alumnae, who was made Acting President of the University when President DeKiewit left. Mr. Wright will relinquish his position in June when Dean Malot of Kansas University takes over as official president.

The New York Phis are continuing to be very active on campus—noteworthy are the recent nominations for Women's Self-Governing Association—many of the girls found themselves on the lists. Our new pledges are also proving active on campus and in the house, having already formed a quartet to compete with the older one.

PLEGDED: Claire Louise Adams, Gardwood, N.J.; Helen Cole, Westfield, N.J.; Susan Crawford, Coraopolis, Pa.; Patricia Ruth Gilb, Larchmont; Amanda Goldsmith, Newton, N.J.; Joyce Guthrie, Westfield, N.J.; Mary Ann Kane, Courtland; Martha Kelsey, Ithaca; Eunice La Brecque, Phoenix; Virginia Long, Niagara Falls; Jay Lund, Cazenovia; Carol McNeill, Brooklyn; Geraldine Mitchell, Manhasset; Emily Jean Preston, Staten Island; Anita Sargeant, Stillwater, Me.; Barbara Schickler, North Bellmore; Jane Shanklin, Trenton, N.J.; Mary Ann Showace, Ithaca; Gwendolyn Slater, Flushing; Enid Spangenberg, Little Neck; Helen Wallace, Rutland, Mass.; Jane Louise Wight, Gouverneur.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Betty Meng, Warsaw, N.Y.

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Chartered, December 1908
Pledge Day, October 14, 1950

The spring term at the University of Toronto was as always very short; lectures finished the end of March and three weeks later final examinations began. This year Ontario Alpha meetings ended the first week of April and intensive studying took their place.

The annual Pi Beta Phi formal dance held at the Toronto Hunt Club in honour of the seventeen new initiates was a tremendous success.

The Phi Gamma Delta invited the chapter to a party, and Ontario Alpha were hostesses to the Nu Epsilon Nu. Both parties were so successful that more are planned for next year.

Monday, March 12, the night of the joint banquet of Ontario Alpha and Ontario Beta was eagerly awaited. The dinner was held at the very attractive Brant Inn, Burlington, Ontario, with songs and entertainment afterwards. Both Pi Phi chapters were very enthusiastic about the evening and enjoyed the opportunity of meeting their fraternity sisters from Western Ontario.

The death of Dr. W. Taylor, much loved and respected president of University College, was a great shock to the students. Out of respect to his memory, the Panhellenic Banquet was cancelled and also the regular meeting of Ontario Alpha. Panhellenic is planning a memorial to Dr. Taylor, to be placed in West Hall, University College.

The thoughts of the annual Pi Phi house party sustain the active chapter during the long weeks of examinations. Last year the house party was held at the summer cottage of Beth Murgastroyd, and the actives were thrilled to be invited again this year to spend a week on Georgian Bay.

The chapter had an extremely successful year and is looking forward to rushing in the fall.

LEIL EKERLE

ONTARIO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO

Pledge Day, October 1, 1950

The annual formal fraternity dance was held January 26: Members enjoyed dancing in the quiet atmosphere of the London Hunt Club.

The annual University College Ball saw students of every faculty dancing to the music of Claude Thornhill. June Taylor represented the chapter in the competition for "Queen of the Ball."

One week-end in February was devoted to presenting five rushing parties for freshmen. One of the best parties was "Pi Phi Heaven." All the members wore sheets and halos.

A "devil" and an "angel with a dirty face" added to the entertainment.

Pat Moore was elected senior women's representative of the Students' Council. Mary Ann Burland has been elected to the position of sub-prefect, or vice-president, of the Arts and Science Council.

June Taylor went to Argentina for the Pan-American games and swam for both the Canadian and American teams. She is holder of the International Outdoor Solo Synchronized Swimming Championship.

The Panhellenic council has approved plans for a bridge party to be held by the three women's fraternities on the campus.

A joint celebration has been planned again this year with Ontario A for Founders' Day. A banquet and speeches by executive members of both chapters will be the order of the evening. Last year the evening was most successful, so the members are eager to renew friendships with other Pi Beta Phi sisters.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Joan Abey, 437 Wortley Rd., London, Ontario, Can.

Pledge Day, November 15, 1950

The first week in March brought with it "Religion and Life Week" featuring many notable speakers from various sections of the country. The weekend of March 2 and 3 was an important event in the sports world as Bucknell played host to the Middle Atlantic Wrestling Tournaments in which seven different colleges were participating. The next weekend came the Senior Ball with Ray Anthony's orchestra. For the gala affair the Senior Class Men chose seven queen candidates of whom two were members of Pennsylvania B, Ann Cooper and Nancy Wolfinger Hicks.

On Valentine's Day, the alumnae presented the actives and pledges with a "cooky-shine." The pledges had a Settlement School Benefit Bridge for the alumnae and members of other organizations on campus. Also in March the active members had a scavenger hunt with the pledges. Besides these various planned activities, there have been open houses in the suite every Friday afternoon for actives and pledges to play bridge and canasta.

With the coming of Mrs. Rankin, Beta Province President, members of Pennsylvania B planned a dessert cozy in her honor with other women's fraternities on campus. Another cozy was planned with K Δ.

OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1925

INITIATED, February 23, 1951: Marilyn Garver, Dayton; Sally Virginia Kayko, Jackson, Mich.; Hannie Heespeck, Larchmont, N.Y.; Eleanor Patterson, New Philadelphia; Patricia Austin Young, Snyder, N.Y.

The dark horizon of the world situation was brightened somewhat on this campus by the recent appointment of President Arthur S. Flemming as Chairman of the War Manpower Commission. In spite of this important responsibility, he still intends to maintain his position as President of Ohio Wesleyan.

Following the tradition of the past four years, the K K Ψ, K A Θs, and Pi Beta Phi again joined forces to hold their winter formal, the Trionym. The theme "Fantasia" was carried out by the use of silver tree trunks whose branches projected to the center of the room forming a canopy of abstract leaves above the heads of the dancers.

A very successful rush season was held during mid-semester.

Formal rush parties featured Pi Beta Phi "Toyland" as they had previously. This year, however, the chapter transformed the big picture window of the house into a Toy Shop window by which the rushees passed as they entered the rear door.

Charlie Spivak played at the Registration Dance which began our second semester. During intermission he selected the yearbook beauty queen, Lynn Allison was chosen to be on the queen's court from Ohio Δ.

Recently, the Oratorio "Elijah" by Mendelssohn was given by the musical organizations on campus. Four guest stars sang the solo parts. The members were proud of the performance given by Dorothy Buck Almstead, the contralto soloist, an alumna of Ohio Δ. Other student stage productions this year have been "The Circle" and "School for Scandal" in which several Pi Beta Phi held minor roles.

PLEGDED: Suzanne Carol Morgan, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Barbara Jeanne DeRamus, Arlington, Va.; Persis E. ## OHIO EPSILON—UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

Pledge Day, March 7, 1951

Installation of officers started the new semester for Ohio E. Mary Frances Dolan will represent the chapter in Panhellenic Council.

Activity at the University of Toledo has reached a new peak of interest. Plans for a new library and law building have been accepted, and the administration recently announced that a new men's dormitory will also be built.

Ohio E has a new neighbor, President Asa S. Knowles, who, with his family, occupies the house next to the fraternity apartment. Formerly with Cornell University, Mr. Knowles will be formally installed as president of the University in May.

The TU basketball team is high on the national polls and is of particular pride to all students. At a game with the Rockets' traditional rivals, Bowling Green, a miniature Homecoming celebration was held with campus organizations entering junior-sized floats. The Pi Phi entry consisted of a big pack of cigarettes, "Old Blue and Golds," box matches, and a lighted, smoking, giant cigarette. The slogan, mounted on huge matches, read, "BG will smoke, they can't match our pack."

Twenty actives and pledges solicited funds for the Toledo chapter of the American Red Cross. Sue Lay acted as team captain for the group, which successfully met its quota.

Five girls from Ohio E were nominated candidates for year-book queen of the 1951 Blockhouse. Nanette Foran was nominated by the R.O.T.C.; Arlene Kregloh, Σ Φ E; Mary Frances Dolan, University Theater; Peggy Vogelsang, A Σ Φ; and Nancy Johnson was the candidate of the chapter.

T K E honored Pi Beta Phi with a Snowball party at which Nanette Foran was chosen T K E Sweetheart. At the Σ Φ E Serenade, Mary Frances Dolan was named Valentine Sweetheart, of Σ Φ E. A party at the Sig Ep house was given for the chapter at which Mary Frances was presented with the Sweetheart Locket and Scroll.

Ohio E entertained Φ K Ψ with a Night Club Party with such entertainers as Jerry Colonna, Dagmar, Bing Crosby and Celeste Holm. In February the active chapter honored their mothers at a Mothers' Tea in the apartment, in return for a party given in their honor by the Mothers' Club in January.

Annette Oehler was appointed circulation manager of The Campus Collegian, while Dorothy Fash was promoted to campus editor. Joan Machen holds the job of associate editor.

Joan Machen and Dorothy Fash were asked to join A Φ Γ, national journalism honorary for colleges without major journalism schools. Dorothy Fash was also tapped for Π Γ M, social science honorary. Mary Laub became a member of Σ M T, medical technology honorary; Caroline Bittick, K Δ II, national education honorary; Joan Machen, fine arts honorary; and Maryanne Slack, Chimes, honorary for band women.

Mary Frances Dolan replaced Sue Niles as representative-at-large to Student Council. She was also named secretary of that governing body.

A new television program is being presented by University students, called "TU on TV." Joan Machen, the first woman student to participate, appeared on a program in which "The Persistent Traditions of Russian History" were discussed. Mary Frances Dolan took part in a political science discussion consisting of a parliamentary procedure contest.

Rush season began with the annual Open House sponsored by Panhellenic Council. A circus party followed for seventy rushees to Ohio E. The traditional heaven-and-hell party ended the rush season for the chapter; sterling silver rings representing angel halos were given to the rushees.

Song fest practices have already been held as the actives look forward to the annual celebration in the Toledo Museum of Art Peristyle, sponsored by Peppers, women's honorary.

SUMMER RUSH CHAIRMAN: Renee Glennon, 2338 Hollywood, Toledo.

OHIO ZETA—MIAMI UNIVERSITY

Chartered, May 11, 1945

Pledge Day, February 16, 1951

The Miami-Triad Dance was given by B Θ II, Φ Δ Θ, and Σ X fraternities. The music was by Al Cassidy.

Soon after was the Women's League Dance. This affair is always eagerly awaited by the men for it is the girl who must pay, call for her date, and present him with a corsage of her own design and workmanship. The theme this year was "The Highland Fling" so naturally all men wore a plaid article of clothing.

Decorations for the Junior Prom resembled the Belgian Congo. Every girl was presented with a stuffed animal of the wild, untamed species. The  $\Sigma \Phi E$  Fraternity gave a buffet dinner for their brother Woody Herman who provided the music for the dance.

A Valentine dance was given by the Ohio Z chapter and was called "The Beaux and Arrow Ball." Dick Nelson reigned as king. Favors for the fellows were cuff link boxes monogrammed with the Greek letters  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

Ohio Z is the champion of the newly-organized Coed Quiz Show. It is put on by the campus radio station. The members of the chapters quiz team are Carol Anderson, Elizabeth Crabbe and, Doris Dreger.

At a recent dedication of a new addition on the B  $\Theta$  II house, President Hahne of the university and Mayor Morgan of Oxford both made speeches. The new wing contains a living room, study rooms, and bedrooms.

Miami has lost its coach Woody Hayes to Ohio State. The  $\Sigma X$  fraternity had a tea to honor their new house-mother, Mrs. Evelyn McDowell.

A new chapter of K  $\Delta \Theta$  has been installed on campus. Margaret Dennison has been named co-chairman of the Marriage Lecture series sponsored annually by Mortar Board.

PLEGDED: Virginia Beuthal, Sandusky; Joanne Conner, East Liverpool.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Carol Anderson, 3123 S. Michigan, South Bend, Ind.

The chapter presented a minstrel show as part of the annual Sphinx Talent Show on February 27. Betty Hallanan, interlocutor, and eight other girls in blackface sang songs of the old south.

Five of the chapter members were rewarded for their efforts by being placed on the Dean's List, Lena Bioletti, Nancy Jordon, Olga Kosciukiewicz, Bette Rowe, and Frances Villee.

West Virginia B is very proud of the two plaques presented to them. Beta Province chapters presented a scholarship plaque and Mrs. Rankin, Beta Province President, a plaque bearing the Pi Beta Phi Crest.

Fortune telling, singing, good food, and fun introduced the second semester rush week of West Virginia B. At the close of the four-day rush period, the chapter heartily welcomed three wonderful pledges.

After long hours of hard work meetings are being held in the new chapter room. Much credit goes to our room chairman and our faculty adviser.

White gowns swished and swayed once again when the Pi Phis held their pledging and initiation of the first semester pledges on February 24 and 25. Three girls were pledged along with eleven alumna members of Phi Chi. A tea was held later in their honor.

February 25 five college students and sixteen Phi Chi Alumnae were initiated followed by a party honoring the chapter's newly initiated members. Frances Villee was chosen as the outstanding pledge and was presented with a Pi Beta Phi recognition pin.

Margaret Walker was recently tapped for  $\Phi A \Theta$ , national history honorary and was also selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Mary Margaret Mueller has been initiated into A  $\Delta$ , national freshman women's honorary. Helen Carey has taken over the presidency of the Panhellenic Council.

With the return of warm weather, construction on the campus has once again made progress. However, disappointed coeds who anticipated the completion of the swimming pool in the new women's field house have been practicing strokes on the gymnasium floor, watching movies, and reading textbooks until they can put theory into practice. The beautiful chapel and the modern chemistry building are expected to be ready for use in the fall.

At the Initiation Banquet on March 4 Juanita Shold was presented with an award as the most outstanding pledge, and Mary Margaret Mueller was awarded a jeweled recognition pin for the highest scholastic average.

The week of March 2 through March 9 was designated by the Student Religious Council as Religious Emphasis Week. The Pi Beta Phi and the  $\Sigma$  Xs joined in a fireside chat at the  $\Sigma$  X house; the Reverend Mr. Brown spoke to the group on "The Crisis and You." ### D.C. ALPHA—GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, February 13, 1951

INITIATED, February 11, 1951: Joan Burke, Jenny Clarke, Dorothy Hill, Linda Loehler, Ann Page, Carlene Parker, Gloria Reeside, Genevieve Ruffner, Washington; Caroline Brown, Bethesda, Md.; Josie Keebler, Elizabeth Wetherill, Chevy Chase, Md.; Janet Croft, Maxine Saurel, Arlington, Va.; Elaine Patteson, Alexandria, Va.

After the Christmas holidays the student body gathered to watch the ground-breaking ceremonies for James Monroe Hall, a new building of classrooms and offices. Chapter loyalty day was celebrated with a Pi Beta Phi night, the alumnae joining the pledges and active for a cooky-shine.

The spring semester began with a consolidated rush period. The chapter gave a Newspaper Party, the biannual Night Club Party, and finally Arrowcake. The weekend after bidding, D.C. A initiated the fourteen old pledges, the highest proportion of pledges initiated by any of the eleven sororities on campus. Ann Page was presented the outstanding initiate's ring and Linda Loehler was given the pledge scholarship bracelet.

The Mothers' Club presented the chapter with many much-needed gifts: a white oak coffee table to match an antique Winthrop desk, wine and blue Syracuse china for entertaining, and a piano so that D.C. A might win the Panhellenic Sing. The chapter sang a song brought back from convention, What Does This Arrow Mean to Me? and an original arrangement of Skylark.

Delphi, the honorary for outstanding fraternity women, gave a workshop for new initiates and pledges February 19. D.C. A's representatives Dorothy Weld and Marjorie Johnson spoke on "The Long Range Aspect of Being a College and Fraternity Woman" and "Pledge Active Relationships" respectively.

Linda Loehler was elected to  $\Lambda \Delta \Delta$ , a freshman women's honorary while Ruth Wilson, editor of the G. W. Hatchet, was chosen to P.D.E. Dorothy Weld was selected as one of the finalists for the Cherry Tree Beauty Queen Contest. And again on the scholastic side Janet Wildman was presented the Panhellenic Book Scholarship Award for the senior woman with the highest grades.

The annual Religion-in-Life Week was observed March 6, 7, 8, with Mrs. J. W. Hastings, the mother of one of D.C. A's junior alumnae speaking to the chapter. The rest of the semester has been filled with similar activities: a Career Conference sponsored by Mortar Board and the Student Council on April 11, the annual All University Follies, a talent show, on April 13, and also the Panhellenic Prom. A very successful semester!

PLEGDED: Ada Lou Hains, Betsy Porter, Nell Weaver, Washington.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Carolyn Wood, 4714 Hunt Avenue, Chevy Chase, Md.

VIRGINIA ALPHA—RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Pledge Day, September 24, 1950

Virginia A recently greeted its twenty-four new initiates, who are glad to take their places in the ranks of the wine and blue. This year there was a special surprise for them on the night before initiation: an informal dance given by the chapter in their honor. All in all, the new initiates had their first real taste of "Pi Phi Heaven."

The annual Initiation Banquet was given February 28, at the Virginian Hotel. As is usual when Virginia A Pi Beta Phi are gathered on such an occasion, the bond of fellowship was felt to be even stronger as we welcomed each new member to our group. Each person at the party had a poem as her placecard, from which she was supposed to find her seat. The scholarship award went to Betty Rossmann, and the Model Pledge trophy went to Floris Crosthwaite and Elizabeth Perry.

Many honors seem to be keeping the arrow flying since our recent elections. On February 14 May Court, elected by the entire student body, was announced; Virginia A claims the Maid of Honor, Phyllis Crichton, and five out of the eighteen members of the court. They are: Joan Frey, Barbara Koch, Elizabeth Lewis, Mary Malone, and Marilyn Moore.

In the Student Government elections, Nell Hamlin was chosen as the new chairman of the Judiciary Committee, Joan Frey is president of the Junior Class, and Virginia Sloan is the assistant chairman of Orientation for next year. Peggy Goodall has been elected as a Student Government National Coordinator. Floris Crosthwaite is the new vice-president of the YWCA, with Anne Fishwick as secretary and Beverly Buntzler as treasurer.

Virginia Sloan has been brought out Am Sam Secret Society, an organization similar to Mortar Board. Joan Frey has been brought out Snake, an honorary society, and Gene Lipscomb has been brought out PM, another honorary society.

*VIRGINIA GAMMA—COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

INITIATED, March 4, 1951: Dorothy Bailey, Norfolk; Carolyn Bell, Virginia Bell, Williamsburg; Barbara Bennett, Arlington; Reba Blair, Lynchburg; Bette Bodley, Bethesda, Md.; Margaret Bunting, Richmond; Ann Fichtenger, Roanoke; Betsy Graves, Luray; Mary Jane Hagenbuckle, Bronxville, N.Y.; Marthanne Hodges, Paris, Tex.; Marguerite Huff, Arlington; Ann Ingoe, Roanoke; Adelaide Jennings, Richlands; Mary Knabb, Swarthmore, Pa.; Patricia Louther, Norfolk; Elizabeth McDaniel, Fort Monroe; Joann Mitchell, Arlington; Barbara Shumar, Monrovia, Calif.; Betsy Skinker, Roanoke; Suzanne Trimble, Arlington; Jean Tucker, Maidens; Betty Ann Willis, Richmond; Phyllis Woodyard, Arlington.

Throughout the first semester, the chapter used a proctor plan requiring the actives and pledges who had averages of below 1.5 to study in the library nine hours a week. This experiment was and still is of great benefit to the chapter's scholarship. Those making dean's list are: Joan Alleman, Betina Bass, Elizabeth Booth, Joan Booth, Barbara Bowman, Johnette Braun, Sater Clay, Nancy Easterling, Mary Jo Finn, Antoinette Gilman, Nancy Leigh Hall, Marthanne Hodges, Carolyn Lay, Alice Marston, Sally Ross, Jeanne Struwe, Jean Tucker, Carroll Walker and Martha Wood.

Immediately after the new semester started, a number from Virginia  $\Gamma$  attended a dinner meeting given by the May L. Keller Club of Richmond. The girls enjoyed talking to Miss Keller, the past Grand President, and discussing the problems of rushing with the alumnae group. The chapter was informed of the notable work that the Cates Foundation Fund does for the prison farm in Virginia. By a unanimous vote, the chapter took out a membership into the Foundation.

Informal rushing netted Virginia  $\Gamma$  with three additional pledges. Rushing consisted of one week of informal parties and the preferential party. At this final party, clever skits were presented and the poem, "My Mother's Not a  $\Pi \Phi$ ," so effectively done by Kitty Nottingham, was said to the background music of "Remember."

The college recently installed several Bendix washing machines in the large girls' dormitories. This has been a wonderful addition and the laundry rooms have now turned into formal lounges where the girls can read, knit and talk while their wash is being done by machinery. Also, the "sunken" walks around the campus have been raised because of the approaching rainy spring season. Dr. Dudley W. Woodbridge, chancellor professor of jurisprudence and head of the law school at William and Mary, has recently been selected one of the "Great Teachers of 1950" according to an article in a recent international edition of Life magazine.

Mrs. Kendrew and Mrs. Bell, mothers of three Williamsburg pledges, recently honored the chapter with a tea.

Initiation was held on March 4 for twenty-four girls, after which a banquet was given in the Williamsburg Lodge. The initiates presented the actives with the fraternity-minded songs they had written.

On March 6 the initiates honored the active chapter with their annual skit. The theme this year hilariously showed the actives as how they might appear in the future.

Bette Bodley was elected as the freshman member to the cheering squad. Sally Ross won the "Royalist" prize for her poetry and Joan Padden was chosen to represent the chapter in the yearbook beauty contest. Mary Jo Finn is the co-editor of the "Royalist," a literary quarterly. The chapter has done very well in basketball intramurals, the second team having won in its league.

The college celebrated Mid-winters with a weekend of festivity, featuring Hal McIntyre's Band. The Blow Gymnasium was decorated on a New York theme. This year the band played for all three of the weekend's dances.

Virginia Ts are now eagerly awaiting their annual trip to Virginia Beach when examinations are over and before many are handed their diplomas.

PLEDGED: February 21, 1951: Jean Briggs, Norfolk; Mary Lewis Brown, Williamsburg; Adelaide Jennings, Richlands; Sarah Ann Wright, Roanoke.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Barbara Wells, Hqs., Pacific Sector, Ft. Clayton, Canal Zone.

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Pledge Day, February 1, 1951

INITIATED, February 2, 1951: Susan Ambler, Martha Caldwell, Jean Caldwell, Chapel Hill; Helen Brundage, Tryon; Carolyn Butcher, Helen Kelly, Charlotte; Barbara Chantler, Wilmington, Del.; Sarah Clark, Wilmington; Nancy Cook, Burlington; Elizabeth Dockery, Gloria Farnell, Greensboro; Mary Gesler, Philadelphia, Pa.; Katherine Hester, High Point; Joan King, Verona, N.J.; Sue Lindsey, Bluefield, W.Va.; Kathy Oates, Spartanburg, S.C.; Jane Piper, Baltimore County, Md.; Betty Ray, Faison; Joan Steiber, Pelham Manor, N.Y.; Ellen Tredway, Roanoke, Va.; Constance Tyson, Richmond, Va.; Mary Jane Wilson, Washington, D.C.; Barbara Wooten, Gastonia.

On February 7, the Wednesday following initiation, the annual pledge banquet was held in the ballroom of the Carolina Inn. Katherine Oates received the Model Pledge award, and Helen Brundage was awarded the Scholarship Ring. Alumnae members in Chapel Hill were guests.

A beautiful new gray sofa now graces the living room of the chapter house, a gift from the pledge class.

North Carolina A is compiling a news letter to be sent to all the alumnae of the chapter. The letter will contain as complete a collection as possible of news from the different classes and also recent progress of and happenings in the chapter. The Chapel Hill Alumnae Club is cooperating with the chapter in this and the letter will go out in the late spring.

The annual "Olio" sponsored by Panhellenic Association was given in the form of a minstrel show on March 5. It was not only a large success with the audience but a grand opportunity for all five women's fraternities to work together and have a great deal of fun at the same time.

The chapter certainly is thrilled over a new addition to its bulletin board. Anne Jeffreys, star of "Kiss Me Kate" and a former member of North Carolina A, sent an autographed message and picture to all the members by Mrs. Henrietta Snow, North Carolina A housemother, who chatted with her on a recent visit in New York.

The "Splash Club" of the University presented a water pageant on May 1. Anne Campbell was in charge of the event which was an unusually big success this year, and four members of North Carolina A, Susan Ambler, Beth Lloyd, Lila Ponder, and Rosalie Varn, participated in the leading performances.

The May Day program is the one large activity of the year given by the coeds of the University and sponsored by the three organizations which include all these girls, Panhellenic, Coed Independents, and Town Girls' Association. This year a member of North Carolina A, Mary Scott Everett, was chosen as May Day Chairman by Coed Senate. The program, organized by Karyn Mereness, president of X Δ Φ literary sorority, was presented in the beautiful outdoor Forest Theater on April 25. The chapter was very proud to have two of its members, Dolores Boyer and Rosalie Varn, chosen by a vote of all the coeds as the two Maids of Honor of May Day, and Mary Scott Everett as a member of the May Court. A formal dance was held that night in honor of the Queen and Court.

Other honors also have come to members of North Carolina A. Barbara Wooten was elected by Coed Senate to serve next year as Chairman of the Orientation Program for new coeds. Dolores Boyer was chosen for the leading part in "Druid Circle," the "Carolina Playmaker" production for the spring. The chapter was second on the campus in scholarship this fall.

As the women's fraternities are not allowed to give individual parties for fraternities, North Carolina A is still continuing to hold open house each Sunday afternoon to repay for the many grand fraternity parties which the chapter has attended. Different fraternities are invited each week and these "coffee" provide a good time for members as well as guests.

Winnifred Harriss was chosen as the chapter candidate for the Amy Burnham Onken award.

PLEDGED: Beth Lloyd, Chapel Hill.

MARIE WITHERS

NORTH CAROLINA BETA—DUKE UNIVERSITY

INITIATED, February 17, 1951: Ann McDonald, Helen Willard, Peggy Yancy, Raleigh; Jeannie Johnson, Margaret Ware, Atlanta, Ga.; Ginny Bush, Charleston, W.Va.; Dottie Fisher, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Molly Nelson, Columbus, Ohio; Barbara DeLapp, Lexington; Joan Hutchins, Ft. Worth, Tex.; Mary Bryson, Durham; Helen Holley, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Betsy Kyle, Mitchell Field, L.I.; N.Y.; Trish Moeller, Charlotte; Fran Larrino, Havana, Cuba; Patsy Peter, Betty Batchelor, Orlando, Fla.; Jo Holloway, Richmond, Va.; Beryl Roberts, Asheville; Patti Wilson, Winter Park, Fla.

More than half the active chapter made grades giving them a place on Dean's List and the much coveted six cuts; twenty of the twenty-two pledges made a C average or better entitling them at long last to become initiated.

Soon after examinations the chapter held its annual Golden Triad Pledge Dance with K A Θ and K K Γ. The dance was in the Woman's College Gymnasium and featured rhythm by the Duke Ambassadors. The pledges of the three women's fraternities and their dates were presented at intermission and they formed a figure in the middle of the dance floor.

Pi Beta Phi Panhellenic Representative Norma Barringer has been working with the other girls on Panhellenic Council toward developing a more workable and more satisfactory rushing system for 1951-52. They hope to set up a system by which the period of normal relations is lengthened and the period of actual rushing is shortened somewhat. The rushing itself will include voluntary and invitational open houses, possibly a few days of visiting freshmen in their rooms, and two final invitational parties. Pi Beta Phi is backing up the Panhellenic Council 100 per cent, in the hope that a rushing plan which will fulfill the needs of both large and small fraternities and of both rusher and rushee may be established.

On March 2 the Panhellenic Council gave a campus-wide dance highlighted by the presentation of the "Man of the Year." Pi Beta Phis elected George Grune, a T Ω football star and pin-up of Betty Lu Alberts, as their candidate. Barbara Seaberg, with Betty Lu's help, did a great job on publicity; each day every member wore a cleverly-shaped piece of paper with different slogans. Then at the close of the week of publicity, each member dressed in tacky, non-matching clothes with a large sign around her neck saying "It's not Goon Day, it's GRUNE DAY!" Goon Day is a day on which all freshmen must dress in crazy outfits and obey all wishes of the sophomores. However, in spite of all efforts, A Δ II candidate Dick Groat was crowned "Man of the Year." No one could regret Dick's winning the title, for he is the pride of Duke University—All-America basketball candidate who has this year broken all standing collegiate records in individual basketball scoring. A big year for the Great Groat!

North Carolina Bs planned many social functions for this spring, such as a cabin party, a picnic with Pi Beta Phis from the University of North Carolina, open houses for several fraternities, and many others.

SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Chartered, 1931

Pledge Day, Feb. 9, 1951 and March 5, 1951

INITIATED, March 4, 1951: Alice Jane Gates, Kitty Willson, Barbara Armstrong, Patsy Hutto, Ann Howerton, Columbia; Ann Carlisle, Hartsville; Sylvia Campbell, Sumter; Martha Wooddall, Augusta, Ga.; Ethel Mathews, Charleston; Charlotte Thornburg, Bessemer City, N.C.

Plans for the construction of two new buildings on the campus have been announced. They are a science building, which will house the geology, pharmacy, chemistry, biology, and botany departments, and a new engineering laboratory.

Students from the university will be represented for the first time in the forthcoming edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The thirty students will be selected by a faculty committee.

South Carolina A's undefeated team was once more victorious in the fifth annual Powder Bowl. The game, played according to the rules of two-handed touch football, was sponsored by O & K, national honorary leadership fraternity. The "Arrowettes," coached by Joe Patrone, defeated  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  by a score of 27-0. Touchdowns were made by backfield stars Frances LaBorde, Nat Thomas, Nancy Clark, and Deloris Meyer.

At halftime, the K & A "Corsettes" drilled, and Bob Westfield, A X A was crowned Powder Bowl King. After the game, X  $\Omega$  gave a campus-wide drop-in honoring the two teams.

Sybil Patrick Boland was graduated cum laude in February. Sarah Dixon was tapped by K & A, national professional education sorority. Nathalie Thomas is a member of Beaux Arts. Chapter members on the staff of The Gamecock, campus weekly are Jackie Southerland, News Editor; Martha Matthews, feature editor; and Barbara McSwain, columnist.

Panhellenic sponsored a fashion show March 5, to raise money for the McKissick Memorial Scholarship Fund. Models were Deloris Meyer, Pat Condor, and Barbara Armstrong.

Panhellenic has installed a new system whereby sorority girls with an average below C plus are required every three weeks to have blanks filled in by their professors, stating the progress they are making in each course. This is being done in an attempt to raise the overall-sorority average.

PLEGGED: Feb. 9, 1951, Betty Kendrick, Spartanburg; Barbara Young, Norfolk, Va.; March 5, 1951, Betsy Thomas, York.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Betty Lou Wilson, 2916 Delano Dr., Columbia, S.C.

After a vacation of a few days, students returned on February 8 to register for a new semester. Hillsdale College was honored to have as its first Chapel speaker the Governor of Michigan, G. Mennen Williams, who spoke on "Democracy." After Chapel he was guest at a luncheon given by the college at East Hall, dormitory for freshman women.

At the recent Varsity Ball Marcia Opyke was chosen by the Varsity Tennis and Track Teams to represent them as their queen.

Michigan A pledges were hostesses to all pledges on campus at their annual Tally Tea. The girls spent the afternoon playing cards. Each group contributed their favorite songs.

Patricia Lampman and Janice Hemphill have been elected to Who's Who in American College and Universities.

Betty Andres has been elected vice-president of the Home Economics Club; Jean Black, president, and Patricia Johns secretary of the Spanish Club; Marjory Randall, secretary of Women's Council and the Union Governing Board.

The annual Mardi Gras was in February. The evening was highlighted by the crowning of the Mardi Gras Rex and the awarding of the Mardi Gras Cup to the organization whose concession collected the largest sum of money. The Michigan As had a new concession titled "Pi Phi Misses, Pi Phi Kisses."

INITIATED, February 2, 1951: Jean Martin, Louisville, Ky.; Carolyn Schultz, Grand Rapids.

Rushing opened the second semester for Michigan B. A new schedule was used this year; rushing began the weekend after finals, continued through orientation and registration week, a recess for J-Hop Weekend, and then concluded the first week of school. This new schedule meant that rushing took place during only one week of classes instead of during two and a half weeks as in previous years.

Rushing began with the opening teas followed by three sets of parties. The first of these saw the basement turned into the "Pi Beta Phi Gambling Den"; the second was a plantation party, the third a circus party, and then final deserts. The season ended successfully with the pledging of twenty-one girls.

J-Hop was very successful this year. The theme was "Southern Silhouette"; Freddy Martin and Ray McKinley alternately provided the music. Abby Funk was on the J-Hop committee.

All of the juniors worked on J.G.P. (Junior Girls Play), an annual production with an original script including songs and dances. Nancy Ericke, Janice Gerholz, Jo Ann Grill, Nancy Carter, Janet Parker, Abby Funk, and Sara Hoffman had parts in the play.

PLEGGED: Ruth Blight, Elizabeth Brown, Huntington Woods; Barbara Carse, Elise Fiber, Detroit; Nancy Fitch, Lansing; Judith Frost, Gretta Giles, Detroit; Sally Gouldthorpe, Erie, Pa.; Marian Haring, Mansfield, O.; Alice Harrell, Ann Arbor; Ann Henderson, Niles; Sarah Hoffman, Allegan; Patricia Morgan, Birmingham; Barbara Palmer, Essex Falls, N.J.; Diane Prettie, Hillsdale; Anne Schmitz, Allegan; Sally Seymour, Grosse Pointe; Margary Shossmith,

When rushing ended, Michigan  $\Gamma$  found it had added twenty-two wonderful girls to its chapter. Joan Patten was chosen Pledge President.

To celebrate our sixth year on campus, the chapter invited the pledges and our Lansing-E. Lansing Alumnae Club to a dessert at the house. The party was climaxed by a brief history of our founding at Michigan State.

Some of the seniors, outstanding for their leadership in campus activities, were honored as Senior of the Week and had their pictures displayed in the Union concourse. These girls were Patricia Gilpin, Harriet McCall, Ann Wilbur, and Caryl Rundquist, Caryl was also chosen Sweetheart of Blue Key, Senior Men's Honorary.

It was a surprise to few but a thrill to all when the Pi Phi and the  $\Pi K \Phi s$  took a first place trophy for the best presentation at "Spartacade." This was a college-carnival in which any organization could participate by setting up a booth; the purpose was to raise money for the campus chest. The winning theme was "the Streets of Bagdad," depicted by scenes of blue towers constructed by the Pi Kappas and painted by the Pi Phis. And once inside the towers one saw Pi Phi disguised as slave and harem girls.

In the spring the chapter again joined with the Pi Kappas in hopes of copying another trophy for the mantel. This time they worked feverishly on a Water Carnival float.

"Bows and Arrows" was the name of the term party, and everyone was present to enjoy it with her best beau in hand. The annual Sorority Sing was held in the outdoor amphitheater; a large audience decided the group to possess the cup.

Perhaps the greatest experience and pleasure the chapter had was Miss Onken's visit. The girls had looked forward for months to her being with the Michigan chapters for the State Day luncheon. However, they were more than thrilled to have Miss Onken consent to perform the initiation ceremony while she was here. All who heard Miss Onken conduct the initiation were very impressed.

INITIATED, February 24, 1951: Billie Sue Barnett, Greenwood; Barbara Stewart, Versailles.

During Greek Week, from February 25 to March 2, the fraternities had exchange dinners. The week was brought to a close with a program presented by the Junior City Slickers, in which Sylvia Merrill participated. Jane Hartley was on the planning committee.

January 9 the chapter observed chapter Loyalty Day. "The Snow Ball" was the name of the pledge dance which was held in the Chateau, January 12.

The girls have all been brushing up on their piano playing lately so that they can play the new Baldwin piano. The rooms have also had the addition of a new end table and lamps for the piano.

The annual Kee-Ko-Nut dance, sponsored by Blue Key, men's honorary, started off the all-campus social events for the new semester. Jo Ann Pritchard was in the queen's court. Then, on February 6, Franklin beat Hanover in an exciting game and, as a result, the students received an athletic holiday.

Franklin men had the honor of letting the girls foot all bills when the Panhellenic dance was held. After the dance the chapter had a Valentine spread in the rooms.

After our February 12 meeting, the patronesses served us refreshments as a special Valentine's treat.

For the first time in Franklin College history, the Sophomore class sponsored a dance, called the George Washington Ball. It was a fine start in establishing another tradition.

Several of our girls participated in the one-act plays, February 20-21 which were directed by members of  $\Theta A \Phi$ . Nancy Gant was one of the directors, and Loli Vidovic, Sylvia Merrill, and Janet Chappell had roles in the plays.

On February 24, initiation was held at the home of Mrs. William Spears. Following initiation, a dinner was given for the chapter by the Mother's Club at the home of Mrs. F. Ragsdale.

At the Panhellenic Scholarship Dinner in March, Francis Westcott, past national president of Delta Zeta, spoke. The chapter was second in scholarship among the women's fraternities and also second on campus among all organizations.

Mrs. Warren Cook, province president, was the guest of the chapter March 7, 8, and 9.

Evelyn Armuth was selected as business manager of the Franklin; Barbara Williams, who is the new house president of the dormitory; and Janet Chappell was selected as the chapter's candidate for the Amy B. Onken award. Jane Hartley was given a role in the spring play.

At the  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$  state day this year, the Franklin chapter,  $A \Omega$ , served as hostess. Girls helping with this are Barbara Williams, Margaret Gamage, and Nancy Gant.

The chapter returned to school for the spring semester, Monday, February 11. The event which highlighted all other activities at Indiana B was the formal pledging of fourteen girls on February 22.

All of the students here at Indiana University have been proud of their basketball team this year. The team has lost only three games thus far in the season, and one of the players was chosen as a member of one of the All-American basketball teams.

The newly-erected Education building on the East edge of the campus is nearing completion and is being used for some classes at the present time.

The chapter held their annual Monmouth Duo with the K K P's on January 13. A Monte Carlo theme was followed throughout the dance.

The de Paur's Chorus, an all male choral group evolving from World War II, appeared at the University Auditorium in February. Their performance was delightful and very entertaining.

Sarah Hamlett has been appointed to the office of night editor of The I. U. Daily Student, and Mary Lou Landis holds the position of assistant editor of The Daily Student. Dorothy Williams has been chosen as a candidate for Military Ball Queen. Shirley Jackson, Jeanne Weber, and Dianne Vanarsdall were candidates for the Cherry Blossom Queen. Carol Mitchell will be featured as coed of the month in the March issue of "The American Magazine."

One of the biggest events to be held on the campus of Indiana University this year was the Midget "500 Mile" bicycle race, Saturday, May 12. Many of the officials from the 500-mile race track in Indianapolis, Ind., were on hand to officiate. Each men's housing unit on campus entered a team in the race, and the women's housing units sponsored them. The money made from this race will be put in the scholarship fund for Indiana University. The Pi Beta Phi will back  $\Sigma A E$ .

PLEGDED: Gertrude Perutz, Beatrice Rey, Nancy Colglazier, Bloomington; Jeanette Mueller, Elizabeth Schmidt, South Bend; Barbara Koch, Evansville; Mary Lou Clark, Brownstown; Mary Hanlon, North Vernon; Ada Tway, Arlene Tway, Alice King, Indianapolis; Lisbeth Hill, Rensselaer; Irma Huncilman, Park Forest, Ill.; Christine Mason, Etna Green.

Butler enrollment has dropped to 3,500 from the 5,000 of two years ago. Also, the O.R.C. moved into Butler to start four nights a week training. Founders' Day was observed at Butler on February 7 with an all school convocation.

On January 9 the chapter observed Carrie Chapman Catt day by wearing wine and silver blue ribbons which signify the loyalty she always showed to  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

Joan Mullen reigned as Freshman Rose Queen, Jane Bettie was elected the most "Eligible Old Maid" on campus, and Valera Hume was in the queen's court at the Sophomore Cotillion.

The pledges had their annual card party in February to raise money for the pledge dance.

At the  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$  Matrix Table in January, Ruth Ann Thomas was presented a "Big Wheel" award, and Barbara Ziegler received a "Hub" award.

Rummage sales are being given by the chapter to raise money for the Women's Recreational Association. The seniors and six of the pledges had their sale first, the sophomores had their sale in March, and the juniors in April.

The activities spread was given in February; Ruth Ann Thomas was given the activities bracelet for outstanding participation in numerous clubs.

Donna Korsmo was pledged to  $A A A$ , and Joan Cochran, Jane Bettie, Barbara Ziegler, and Sally Vertrees became members of Chimes.

The World Student Service Fund drive was held at Butler from February 21 to February 28. Each organization on campus collected money in various ways, and the one with the most money won a trophy. Students raised money by shining shoes, washing cars, cleaning sorority or fraternity houses, serving lunch or dinner at fraternity or sorority houses, and selling candy, cookies, and popcorn.

On February 21 the chapter met with the alumnae for a pitch-in dinner. After the dinner, members were introduced and the pledges gave a stunt.

Formal rush week occupied the spot of greatest importance for everyone the first week after vacation.

As Penny Carnival time rolled around, the housing units began preparing their booths. Indiana  $\Delta$  joined with  $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$  in a series of tableaux entitled "Knock on Any Door."

The Z T A and the  $\Phi$  Ms happily greeted spring's arrival as they watched the construction of their houses draw to a close.

The Charity Ball initiated a new way of collecting money on campus for the various charities. An auction was held during the intermission at the dance with every house offering some service for sale. The money received was then turned over to the charities. Pi Beta Phi's service was a serenade, and they "bought" rides to church on Sunday from  $\Phi K \Psi$ .

Numerous song practices reminded Indiana  $\Delta$  members of their part in the all campus University Sing, which combined with Mothers' Day meant another big week-end.

There was also the fun of attending State Day and our enjoyable visit with Mrs. Cook, Delta province president.

An extra incentive for another studious semester was added when Purdue's official scholarship ratings for the fall semester were announced, and Pi Beta Phi topped the list.

Honors in beauty went to Pat Pickford and Peggy Cutler this spring as they were chosen to be in the yearbook Queen's court of nine.

Early in the semester Barbara Ann Scott became a member of Purduettes, a small group of girls chosen from the University Choir.

Carole Marple is Indiana  $\Delta$ 's nominee for the Amy Burnham Onken Award.

Spring in Indiana automatically brings a sickness common to all Hoosiers—basketball fever. Eventually this fever spreads to the college campus, as intramural competition begins. This year the Indiana E team is practicing harder than ever before as they prepare to defend their championship title won last season.

Meanwhile, 25 per cent of the campus recuperated from another type of fever, a form of flu, popularly tagged the "Black Gombu." When the sickness reached almost epidemic proportions, every campus social activity or meeting was cancelled, and dating was strongly discouraged for a week. Energetic members of Indiana E took advantage of this extra time by painting the unfinished walls of the bum room. Three walls are now a deep red, the fourth wall matching the aqua woodwork. The floor is a gray enamel.

Other finishing touches are still being added to the new house; March 1, the first sunny day in months, brought the painters out of winter hibernation long enough to add the long-awaited second coat of paint to the front porch.

With the month of February came the first three formal parties in the chapter house. The first was a Sunday night supper in honor of the housemother, Mrs. Dietz, to which the other housemothers and several of her close friends were in- vited.

Dates for the annual Goldiggers Ball—a girl-ask-boy-affair—were invited to a formal banquet before the dance February 17. The dance carried out the Hawaiian theme.

For the faculty tea in February, the dining room was decorated in wine and yellow, with bouquets of spring flowers placed throughout the house.

The Pi Beta Phi social season reached a climax in March when the Pi Phi and the members of K K  $\Gamma$  presented the fourth annual Monmouth Duo, the theme of which was the Mardi Gras.

Officers were appointed to direct activities in the new Union Building which opened in April. Another plan new to the campus was to have senior women living in freshman dormi- tories to act as counselors.

Martha Dunlavy is fiction editor of the campus humor magazine, Marian Clarke has been elected to membership in Tusitala, writers' honorary, and Barbara Brasmer is manag- ing editor of The DePauw, student newspaper.  $\Delta \Phi H$ , Girl Scout group, recently elected Patricia Crays as vice-president and Joanne Leaton as corresponding secretary. Mary Whitmore is treasurer of YWCA for the coming year.

Missouri A started off the semester in the best spirits by having its annual winter formal. The chapter decided to initiate a new theme and choose a Pi Phi Beau to reign over the dance. Fellows pinned or going steady with chapter mem- bers were the contestants from whom five were chosen as finalists. Bob Risley, president of Sigma Nu, was chosen Beau.

The traditional "Savitar Frolics" was presented March 16 and 17. Vera Stenger directed the Pi Beta Phi skit, "23 Miz-zou," and Rosie Leitz had the lead. The skit was a take-off on the roaring twenties complete with raccoon coats and flappers.

One of the outstanding presentations on the campus was the Careers Conference. Representatives from many professions were engaged to speak and to answer any questions the girls might have about jobs. Harriet Bell was chairman of the conference and Pat Purnell was secretary. Carol Kingsbury wrote the script for the style show and Barbara Milledge and Marilyn Tweedie were models.

The 205 Rotarian districts in the United States select girls to be considered for their eighty-nine scholarship to univer- sities all over the world. Missouri A president, Sue Coker, is one of the lucky eighty-nine. Next year Sue will be study- ing Milton at Cambridge.

Spring on the Missouri campus always announces the ar- rival of the campus night club, Carousel. It is a show made up of university talent and always provides grand entertain- ment. Vera Stenger was in charge of dancing, and the chap- ter entered a chorus line this year.

Also in the spring, the most outstanding women on campus are entertained at "Fanfare for Fifty." Harriet Bell, Sue Coker, and Janet McDonald were among the fifty this year.

Marilynn Hargrove has been selected chairman of the student Union Music Committee and to the Policy Board. Pi Beta Phi Glee Club was asked by the city Panhellenic to sing at one of their luncheons. Jo Ann Ferguson was chosen March of Dimes Queen at the annual March of Dimes Ball. Ruth Scotten was an attendant to the Sweetheart of  $\Sigma A E$ . Janet McDonald has been initiated to  $\Sigma E \Sigma$ , national scholastic honorary for sophomore women. She has also been elected president of Panhellenic. January elections saw Harriet Bell installed as chapter treasurer and Marylynn Hargrove as corresponding secretary. Joan Highbarger was one of the five finalists for Engineer Queen, crowned at the St. Pat's Ball on March 17.

One of the finalists for student queen, elected by The Mis- souri Student, is Charlene Reed.

Sue Ann Smith, Virginia Reddish, and Marilyn Tweedie represent Pi Beta Phi in the Swim Club. The club is putting on a water ballet in May.

$A \Phi \Omega$ , national service fraternity, has put the chapter up as its candidate to receive recognition for outstanding fraternal service.

Since the last day of Open Rush Week and the Mother- Daughter Luncheon were both on February 17, it was a doubly important day for the chapter. The rush parties, which began on February 12, were given in the women's fraternity rooms on campus. The luncheon was held at Le Chateau. The highlight of the afternoon was a book review by Mrs. Clyde McNay of "Next Week East Lynn."

On March 5 the opening event of the Women's Panhellenic Workshop was a lecture by Dr. Lillian Gilbreth, an authority on time and motion study. Dr. Gilbreth, who was recently portrayed in "Cheaper by the Dozen," spoke on the subject "You and Your Job." After the speech a reception was given in the Women's Building Lounge, March 6 and March 7 the Workshop continued with discussion groups on phases of frater- nity life.

On March 7 the Father-Daughter Banquet was held at the Green Parrot. The entertainment included singing by the chapter and a contest to decide which father and daughter look the most alike.

Thyrsus presented Molnar's "Liliom" on March 7 through March 10. Betty Moore and Katie Berry were members of the cast.

Sarah Metcalfe and Marry Ann Swearingen took part in the annual aquacade presented by WUMS (Washington University Mermaids) in April.

The Quadrangle Club presented their musical comedy, "Lucky In Kentucky" in April. Pat Baskett and Carolyn Metzger were on the governing board. Nancy Sharp and Fay Volker played principal roles; Jean Beasley, Patsy Ellis, and Lina Williams were in the singing chorus. June Harlow, Nancy Lamkin and Jean Ann Rosenbaum were in the dancing chorus.

Missouri Gamma has had a full fall and winter season. In November, they held their annual fall party on the theme, "Paint the Town Red," the date was November 5. The idea was carried out by a progressive open house followed by dancing. First, the members went to the chapter rooms, where the girls and their dates received the typical paint hat and miniature paint brushes inscribed with the party's theme. Next, they went to Mary Buckner's home for mock champagne cocktails. Next, they went to the final stop where the boys were given red carnation boutonnières, and everyone enjoyed a chicken dinner. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing to a local orchestra.

All fall and winter, they have practiced many ways of earning additional capital for the chapter. Everyone has pitched in and worked on both candy and paper sales.

February 24 was homecoming at Drury. All actives and pledges spent a busy week preceding this date diligently working on their float. It was not, unfortunately, the winning one but everyone thoroughly enjoyed the fun of getting together to work on it. Missouri Gamma held its open house for all visiting alumnae and many well remembered Pi Phis came to cheer for their alma mater.

Exchange dinners have been held this winter with K A, A X, Z N, and plans are made for later dinners with Z A E, and Deke fraternities.

Betty Jo Farnham has been elected by Kappa Alpha as their candidate for the annual Sou'ester queen, and Carol Wessbacher as the K A Rose. Carol also was elected Homecoming queen, who is selected from those nominated by the Sophomore class directly by the student body by popular vote. Carolyn Angle is the Z N's candidate for Sou'ester Queen.

Missouri Gamma held traditional inspiration week, which included the traditional cooky-shine, pledge mistress, Peggy Atkins' party, luncheons, the alumnae formal banquet where awards are given out, and Sunday morning breakfast and church.

INITIATED, October 19, 1950: Debby Blair.

Last fall Kentucky A won first place among the women's organizations for House Decorations on Homecoming week end, October 27 and 28. We played the Dukes of Duquesne University and our theme for the house was "Beat the Dukes." We carried this out by having a stuffed, life-sized dummy, representing one of our Cardinals, beating a bowl full of Dukes. The egg-beater was a huge one which actually turned around. A trophy two feet high was presented to Pi Phi at the Homecoming dance. Our Candidate for Homecoming Queen, Anne Haynes, was chosen to represent the University of Louisville in the nationwide Cotton Queen Contest.

In the hockey tournament the Kentucky A team tied for first place twice, and finally took second place. After the tournament was over, an honorary hockey team was chosen which was composed of girls from different sororities. Louise Camentz, Debby Blair, and Janet Beattie were chosen to be on the team.

For the third successive year a Pi Phi, Nancy Ann Young, was chosen Miss Triangle at the Engineering Fraternity's annual ball in November.

November 19, Delta Tau challenged the Pi Phis to a hockey game. Afterwards we held Open House.

To the surprise of the pledges, the actives took over the pledges' duties for one day including serving lunch. Several actives were given black marks by the pledges!

Our Annual Christmas Dance was on December 19 at the Louisville Boat Club.

We wound up the fall semester the best way possible! Edith Zimmer, a pledge, was chosen Miss Thoroughbred by John Robert Powers.

During exam week our Student Union Building burned. The Pi Phi actives, pledges, and Mother's Club set up a Coffee and Donut Booth in the basement of the Administration Building during registration days to replace the Student Union Building.

Between semesters much of the house was painted and re-decorated. This was in preparation for a second semester rush.

The first open house of the spring semester was by the Pi Phi for the new pledges to introduce them to the campus. On the wall of one room we put silhouettes of the pledges. Instead of the usual "open house food" we set up a Pi Phi soda fountain and served ice cream sandwiches, caramel sticks, and soft drinks.

PLEGDED: Nancy Hobson, Sally Schlundt, Sally Sue Shacklett.

INITIATED, February 24, 1951: Adele Baker, Jane Brien, Ann Floyd, Tussa Haskew, Dorothy Kistler, Virginia Milam, Deanne Petersen, Freda Robinson, Janey Warren, Tommye Yates, Chattanooga; Sally Vann, Jasper; Patsy Berry, Chilhowie, Va.; Lucille Tatum, Decatur, Ga.

In January a Panhellenic Stagette dance was given in order to raise money for the Panhellenic Workshop. After the dance, Tennessee A had "date night" at the chapter house.

The Independents had a "Night Club Party" in February in honor of all fraternity men and women. It was well attended by the Pi Beta Phis, who also attended another slumber party at Janis Haskew's home. The chapter feels that slumber parties help to increase the spirit of sisterly love among actives and pledges.

On Thursday, February 22, the actives took their sponsors out to dinner, after which a brief but impressive pre-initiation service was held at the chapter house. After this, the entire chapter put on a spontaneous talent show.

Initiation was on Saturday afternoon, February 24, in the university chapel. Thirteen girls were initiated. After the ceremony, new and old actives met at the chapter house for a bit of good fellowship. The banquet, at the Read House, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The chapter's gift to the new initiates was a white sweatshirt for each of them, with the letters II B Phi in wine and blue. The pledge project, presented to the active chapter by Ann Floyd, pledge president, was the redecoration of the back porch.

During Religious Emphasis Week, Mrs. Brock, husband of one of the university trustees, donated to the university chapel a beautiful brass altar cross, which was dedicated with an appropriate service. Tennessee A commemorated this week with a discussion period after the weekly business meeting, led by Sally Tallman, program chairman.

The chapter voted to sponsor a Brownie Scout troop, of which Mona Lee Reiman and Florence Steffy are the leaders.

Panhellenic Council voted to have a banquet instead of a workshop this year; it was given March 6, and did much to increase the spirit of friendliness among the women's fraternities on campus.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Virginia Winger, 108 Hilldale Drive, Chattanooga, Tenn.

INITIATED, January 28, 1951: Dale Daniel, Ellen McKinney, Julia Merrick, Mary Charlotte Moore, Irene Potter, Jane Wilkerson, Nancy Fawn Wilkerson, Nashville; Catherine Bland, St. Louis, Mo.; Mary Lawrence Feagin, Jo Ann Marsh, Webster Groves, Mo.; Nancy Johnson, Elm Grove, Wis.; Cherrie Kelly, Brentwood; Jane MacLeod, New York City, N.Y.; Margaret Rich, Odessa, Tex.; Sylvia Sanders, Atlanta, Ga.; Helen Walton, Johnson City.

The students and faculty at Vanderbilt University are contributing with great zeal this year to various worthwhile organizations. Tennessee B was the first women's fraternity on the campus to contribute one hundred per cent to the Campus Community Chest. On February 26, the Red Cross Blood Bank set up headquarters in the gymnasium for the entire day. Again Tennessee B led the women's fraternities in contributing to this worthy cause. The junior and senior classes of the Student Christian Association, in cooperation with the faculty, on February 28 presented the annual faculty talent show. The receipts from this will be added to those from the carnival held in the fall term, and sponsored by the freshman and sophomore classes of S.C.A. The entire proceeds will be donated to the World Student Service Fund. In May the Tennessee B Alumnae Club will sponsor the annual "Hoe-down" for the benefit of charity. The money will go to the Pediatric Ward of Vanderbilt Hospital.

The citizens of Nashville have enjoyed and profited by the twenty-fifth anniversary series of distinguished Vanderbilt alumni speakers. John Snyder, Robert Penn Warren, Allen Tate, James Melton, John Crowe Ransom have been received most enthusiastically both by the student body and the public.

Nancy Johnson, Sylvia Sanders, and Shirley Vickers have been initiated into Delphi, the newly formed honorary club, sponsored by Mortar Board, for all freshmen women with a scholastic average of B+. Much time for studying was provided as a result of the record breaking ice storm that paralyzed the city the first week in February. For the first time in its history Vanderbilt was forced to discontinue classes for three days, because of electric power failure. The twelve girls living in the chapter house and the house mother managed to huddle together in the kitchen, where they were warm, in spirit at last. One night was spent at the neighboring  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  house.

The pledge class climaxed a successful term by sponsoring a cake sale on January 27. With the aid of the Mothers' Club, the sale netted $45, to be used in upholstering a sofa for the smoker. Tennessee B continued the weekly practice of inviting two pledges for dinner at the chapter house. March 3 the chapter entertained all Pi Beta Phi little sisters at Saturday lunch at the house.

The Initiation banquet at the Noel Hotel was indeed the highlight of the year for both initiates and actives. Julia Merrick was presented the Best Pledge award for outstanding contribution to the chapter and Pi Beta Phi.

Frances Farris, the newly elected President of Tennessee B, was recently awarded second prize in the Frank K. Houston oration competition. Frances also represented Pi Beta Phi at the Bal d'Hiver, the elaborate charity ball sponsored annually by K A  $\Theta$ . Betty Gant received the title of "Phi Kappa Sigma Girl." The Interfraternity Council brought Jimmy Dorsey to Vanderbilt on March 7 for a campus wide dance. Peggy Rich was awarded the coveted honor of reigning over the affair as Queen of the Junior Class. On March 9 Betty Ruble was elected "Lady of the Bracelet," which is the highest honor a Vanderbilt woman can receive. Betty is recognized as the woman student contributing the most to campus life. Graham Hollis is the new Women's student union representative; Ann Weir Sargent is the senior class chairman of the Women's Student Government Association; Mary Sue Farmer will serve as senior representative to the honor council; and Shirley Vickers will act as a sophomore honor council representative. Attollee Boynton was elected as Vice-President of the Tri-Arts Club.

For the first time Vanderbilt will be represented in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Betty Ruble and Maryly Van Lee were named to this outstanding honor by the Dean's Selection Committee.

TENNESSEE GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

Chartered, May 18, 1948
Pledge Day, October 2, 1950

INITIATED, January 28, 1951: Bettie Lane Barnhill, Abingdon, Va.; Lou Daughtry, Avondale Estates, Ga.; Ann Kottman, Kingsport, Tenn.; Jean Slater, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Tennessee I members returned from Christmas vacation and the Cotton Bowl Game to prepare and then enjoy "Frozen Fantasy," this year's Pi Beta Phi formal dance.

Other social events during the quarter included a square dance sponsored by the Mothers' Club and fraternity parties, one given by A X A and the other by  $\Sigma$  N. Tony Pastor and his orchestra played for Winter Nahceyaylis; the U.T. Playhouse presented "Journey's End"; and Gene Autry made a personal appearance. Music lovers were able to enjoy such groups as the Robert Shaw Chorale, the First Piano Quartet, the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, and the University All-Sing.

The Pi Beta Phi worked hard on "Nightfall" and "Si-boney" for All-Sing, but they were eliminated in tryouts. Two of the girls, Joan Edington and Carolyn Hoge, won the ping-pong tournament.

Pi Beta Phi gained well their share of honors and offices during the quarter: Joan Edington received a bid to  $\Phi$  K  $\Phi$  and was initiated as a charter member of  $\Pi$   $\Sigma$  A, political science honorary; Kathy Weeks is also a charter member, but her field is aviation and the organization is A H P; Peg Gallagher and Barrie Burrage are secretaries—Peg for the Marketing-Retailing Club, and Barrie for Canterbury Club.

A I P, national agricultural social fraternity, was installed; it is the seventeenth fraternity on the University of Tennessee campus.

For the first time in almost twenty years a humor magazine was sold on the campus. The first issue of The Tennessee Shootin' Iron was backed by one of the fraternities, but the students behind it hope to gain administrative approval and make the magazine a regular collegiate publication.

The students here are interested in the outcome of a United States Supreme Court case on whether or not Negroes are to be allowed to enter the University, and what the State Legislature will decide on the problem of raising Memphis State College to full university status as a part of the University of Tennessee.

ALABAMA ALPHA—BIRMINGHAM SOUTHERN

INITIATED, February 4, 1951: Nancy Bradley, Long Beach, California; Betty Louise Hightower, Joanne Little, Gerry Palfray, Jean Prescott, Pat Riley, Roye Wates, Birmingham; Jean Thompson, Cullman.

To make this year more fun for the actives and pledges of Alabama A, the chapter has held weekly get-togethers in the sorority room. Plenty of cokes, bridge, or just talk are on the agenda. These parties are not to be limited to members only, but other campus friends are also invited.

One of the biggest honors for Alabama A was regaining the Scholarship Cup for the fall quarter. With a point average of 3.13 the members won by a narrow margin over the 3.01 average of  $\Theta$  T.

The basketball team is tied for first place, and several members are in the ping-pong quarter-finals. The swim meet and free throw are starting now to offer more competition in intramural sports.

The annual Catspaw for the college recently took the spotlight. Many clever and interesting satires of college life were enacted by the different campus organizations. Our chapter combined with some other fraternities and sororities to depict the not exactly studious activities in the library. To complete the night's fun, a dance was sponsored by the college for the students.

Donna Pledger was recently elected Dream Girl of  $\Pi$  K A at Southern. Jean Prescott played the leading role in the College Theater's winter production, "Family Portrait." Florence Wates was in the supporting cast. Many other members worked behind the scenes with the make-up and lights.

M A has added Jean Pruitt to its roll. Patti Reed, Nan Barnes, Marion McCoy, Margaret Ann O'Neill, Bitsy Lokey, and Ann Gallagher were selected for membership to K  $\Delta$  E.

This group has elected Margaret Johnston as its new President.

ALABAMA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

INITIATED, February 25, 1951: Jo Kathryn Dobbs, Lois Flowers, Birmingham; Sarah Evelyn Haas, Mobile; Elizabeth Pockman, Decatur; Pat Kennedy, Tuscaloosa; Joanne Buckner, Cincinnati, Ohio; Martha Lee Conger, Honolulu, Hawaii; Shirley Evelyn Copenhaver, Bristol, Tenn.; Miriam Anne Dyne, Beverly Mauldin, Memphis, Tenn.; Lucy Gardner, Polly Gardner, Rossville, Ga.; Lucy Oswald, Atlanta, Ga.; Mary Jane Gillespie, Norma Sanders, Meridian, Miss.; Nancy Jacquelyn Johnson, Dallas, Tex.; Janet Miner, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Betty Spain, Columbus, Ga.; March 1, 1951. Arden Ferguson, Blytheville, Ark.

However, before getting too engrossed with studying again after Christmas vacation, the active chapter gave a dance in honor of the pledge class, held at the Tuscaloosa Country Club. Inside the club house black silhouettes of the pledges mounted on gold-paper pledge pins covered one wall. With the silhouettes as "angels" other decorations created a theme of "Pi Phi Heaven."

Recently, the University of Alabama Inter-Religious Council sponsored a very successful "Religious Emphasis Week." The  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$  invited one of the visiting ministers to dinner; and a thought-provoking discussion on religion followed.

We also invited to dinner our faculty adviser, Mr. Bounds and his wife, both of whom have been very helpful to us this year.

During the spring semester, the chapter has participated in the numerous campus activities which are in store. We held regular weekly rehearsals for the step-singing contest to be held during "Greek Week." Our basketball team is undefeated and is entering the semifinals of the tournament. Pat Pietsch and Betty Spain have entered the ping-pong tournament. Several  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ s are taking part in the Spring Music Festival which will be climaxed by the appearance of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra. Polly Perry is in the run-offs for Secretary-Treasurer of W.S.G.A., and Bea Haas has been nominated for President of Y.W.C.A. by the Y.W.C.A. council.

Lucy Oswald and Mary Dunham are nominated for the sweetheart of  $\Phi \Sigma \Sigma$  and Beverly Mauldin is our candidate for Queen of St. Pat's Day.

During open rush at the beginning of this semester we had several informal "coke" parties and one well-planned party when the theme of "Candy" was illustrated by a clever skit in which four girls dressed as different types of candy.

On February 13, the pledges and actives had a Goat-Tribute party. Each pledge presented to the actives a "goat" song and a serious tribute. Afterwards, all enjoyed a Cooky-shine. February 22, the pledges gave an amusing Minstrel Show for which they charged admission to earn money for their project. Our pre-initiation ceremony was held February 23 and was followed by formal initiation on Sunday, February 25. After the ceremony the new initiates were honored at a formal banquet. At this time awards were made to Libby Pockman for outstanding pledge, to Jo Dobbs for writing the best tribute, and to Lois Flowers for having the highest scholarship. On March 1 the former pledge class presented to the chapter an artistic scrapbook of their activities and a large, colored map of the United States showing all the  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$  chapters.

FLORIDA ALPHA—STETSON UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, January 23, 1951

INITIATED, January 23, 1951: Jane Allen, Richmond, Va.; Barbara Bailey, Ocala, Fla.; Jane Bass, Albany, Ga.; Mary Boone, Savannah, Ga.; Barbara Brock, Jacksonville, Fla.; Marcia Burris, Ft. Myers, Fla.; Jane Chapman, Sanford, Fla.; Jean Cochran, Daytona, Fla.; Carolyn Cole, Ocala, Fla.; Betty Farthing, Miami, Fla.; Barbara Jo Lannom, Jacksonville, Fla.; Kathryn Rand, DeLand, Fla.; Barbara Jean Robbins, Daytona, Fla.; Barbara Rutter, DeLand, Fla.; Olive Smith, DeLand, Fla.

Actives and pledges alike brought honor and recognition to the chapter in the first two months of '51 in many diversified fields. In dramatics, Sue Wilson appeared in the lead of "The Mollusc," the second ring-theater play of the current Stover Theater season. Many  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ s were in the cast and dancing chorus of the Stetson's Glee Club presentation of the "Desert Song." In woman's government, Joan Mace was elected to the House Council, while Merrilee Middleton was elected president of Chaudoin Hall and Mary Delonoy elected representative at large to the executive council. In the field of scholastic achievement, Carolyn Cole was tapped for the press club and Lois Eskey for  $\Sigma \Delta \Pi$ , Spanish honor fraternity. Florida A is especially proud of June Cossin and Barbara Brundage who were chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges. Concluding with beauty, Joan Cook, from over 200 pictures sent in by Emory students, was chosen as Miss De-Icer by Jack Mosley (of Smiling Jack fame).

This quarter's rushing opened with a wiener roast at Hurricane Plantation, the lake front cottage of Mrs. Tondis, a  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$  sponsor. Although the water was cold the spirit was warm, and we gained five new pledges without the loss of a bid.

Wednesday January 31, Florida A held its traditional cooky-shine and goat song hearing. The following Sunday was set aside for  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$  activities. That morning all the girls attended church, initiation service was held that afternoon, and the day was climaxed by a banquet at the country club. Jean Cochran and Mary Boone received the scholarship award and Barbara Rutter was presented as the most outstanding pledge.

Religious Focus week, February 19-23, brought to the Stetson campus some of the most outstanding Christian leaders of the country. Many  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ s served on the committee responsible for securing these speakers. The success of this week was best illustrated by the students flocking to chapel when it was not their day to attend. Allen Hall, the new religious center was officially opened February 7. Named for president emeritus William Sims Allen, it was dedicated last November during the Southern Baptist Convention.

Stetson Founders' Weekend observed February 15 shared honors with the R.O.T.C. weekend. Joanne St. John and Sue Wilson were two of the five chosen sponsors who sat with Major-General Parker in the stand while over 200 cadets passed in review. This weekend was climaxed on Saturday night by the first annual Military Ball to be held at Stetson.

January 24 we were entertained by the  $\Delta \Sigma \Phi \Phi$ s; January 25 by the  $\Lambda \chi \Sigma$ s; and February 8 by the  $\Pi \kappa \Phi \Phi$ s at their houses.  $\Pi \kappa \Phi \Phi$  party had an added attraction of being celebrated on the same night as Stetson's basketball victory over Erskine.

Florida A has been handicapped by the lack of a fraternity house. This has created a problem of unity between the girls living in Chaudoin dormitory and those living in Stetson Hall. In hopes of improving the situation, the chapter has inaugurated  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$  nights on the average of once every three weeks. The entire group have supper in the apartment, sing songs, and participate in a round table discussion. In conjunction with this program, on February 27 we held a scholarship dinner. It was decided that all students with a 2.5 average or better would be served steak, B averages, chicken, Cs, Tuna fish salad, Ds hot dogs, and all F students (but fortunately we didn't have any Fs)—mush.

PLEGDED: Flora Kibler, Morganton, N.C.; Jean Green, DeLand, Fla.; Gloria Parks, Jacksonville, Fla.; Joanne St. John, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Paddy Verderly, Atlanta, Ga.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Marcia Burris, Fort Myers, Fla.

The fourth annual  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ - $\kappa \Phi \Phi$  football game was played March 3 as a special feature of Panhellenic weekend. Cheerleaders dressed in wine and blue, powder puff girls, "water boys," and first aid nurses added popular appeal to the Powder Puff Bowl game, the proceeds of which will go to the Community Chest fund. Garnet Key was in charge of publicity for the game, with Ann Eidson acting as chairman of this committee.

This campus is a scene of busy construction activities with the beginning of work on a new women's dormitory, a large student union building, and several men's dormitories. All these are a part of the extensive Florida State University building program which was adopted last year. Among other new buildings, the handsome  $\Phi \Pi$  house will be ready for occupancy within a month.

January 13, 1951 the Florida Gamma chapter of  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  was officially installed on this campus. At the dance following the ceremony, Patsy Charlette and Arra Mae Hiscock were chosen as members of the Sweetheart Court. The Village Vamps helped the  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ s with decorations, ushering and other details. Many chapter members had an active part in making the weekend a success.

High school seniors from all over the state were entertained by the  $\Pi \Phi \Phi$  the weekend of February 23. The girls enjoyed seeing the Florida State University annual musical production, The Sandspur, in which Ann Aton appeared, as well as attending the Sandspur Dance. They were also entertained at an informal party complete with an "Around the World with Pi Beta Phi" skit.

Florida State University Circus worked hard on many spectacular stunts which were featured in the annual three ring show April 19, 20, 21. At this time Jett Munroe, Sally Kennedy, Sissy Simonson, Ann Rogers and Judy Simkins were among the stars of the big top.

Judy Ellis has been chosen Queen of  $\Delta T \Delta$  to succeed Carmen Nahm. Angeline Russ was in the Sigma Chi Sweetheart Court at the University of Florida. Evelyn Gray won third prize in an oral interpretation contest participated in by various southern universities and also has a part in the latest speech department play. Jean Sayer has been elected to "Who's Who in American College."

Plans are now under way for the Pi Beta Phi Weekend, scheduled for May 19. Among other things there will be a banquet, formal dance and an informal party. All members are looking forward to this with anticipation for they remember the grand time everyone had last year.

On January 21 the pledges gave the actives a delicious breakfast after church Sunday morning.

The Pi Phi decided they wanted to know the pledges and each other a little better so they worked out a way in which to do so. Each Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 the Pi Phi house is the scene of an informal get-together in the form of a coke party.

On Valentine's Day the pledges gave an open house for the new students on campus. The Pi Phi house was decorated with hundreds of hearts and cupids. Strawberry punch and Valentine cakes were served. About one-hundred students attended.

Number one on our list of events for the past term was the initiation of twelve outstanding girls. Out of these twelve came the Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer of the Freshman class. Initiation was February 18, after which a banquet was given. Caroline Marsh, our new President, awarded the Outstanding Pledge Cup to Ann Jones.

Florida  $\Gamma$  is more active than ever before in campus activities. Carolyn Alfred was tapped for Libra, the highest honorary society for women at Rollins. She was also elected Queen of Hearts for the Valentine Ball. Jeannie Wiselugel was selected secretary of the International Relations Club. Jinx Steele took the female lead in the Rollins College theater production of Harvey. Diane Evans was elected cheerleader for next year and Dale Travis was re-elected. Elsie Shaw reached the finals in the two-ball golf tournament in Orlando.

Many Pi Phi's took part in the gala festivities of Founders Week as ushers for the Animated Magazine and hostesses for visitors to the campus. Climaxing this week was the annual Bach Festival in which Diane Evans sang in the choir.

The Pi Phi's had a glorious time at Sanlando Springs early in March. They entertained with a swimming and picnic party.

Va.; Bobbie Ann Burns, Valdosta.

Georgia A celebrated St. Valentine's Day this year with a formal dance and dinner party. The Clomson Jungaliers furnished music, and red, arrow-pierced hearts were used as decorations to carry out the Valentine theme.

During Winter Quarter nearly every sorority and fraternity on campus held dances. One of the major dances was the annual Military Ball. Tex Beneke and his orchestra played for this formal.

Basketball intramurals are now in full swing at the University, as are bowling, swimming, and tennis.

All the sororities on campus took part in Sorority Sing during Spring Quarter.

Mrs. John Tyler, Zeta Province President, spent several days in Athens, visiting the chapter, instructing newly elected officers, and generally "getting-re-acquainted" with all the members.

A Standards Committee has recently been instituted by the chapter. The purpose of this group is to help members with small personal problems.

The new University library building is well underway and, if the war doesn't hold up materials, the building will probably be ready for use sometime next year.

The Panhellenic Council is making plans to present a fashion show during Spring Quarter, with girls chosen from each sorority on campus acting as models.

Sub-zero weather and mountains of snow provided the correct atmosphere for "Alpine Antics," the theme for Winter Carnival Week this year. Pi Beta Phi participated by entering the float parade with B  $\Theta$  II and by carving an ice sculpture.

Sally Resh was asked to join  $\Pi A \Theta$ , honorary education fraternity; and Beverly Hollett is acting as secretary for  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , honorary and professional journalism fraternity. Beverly was also selected as Wisconsin A's candidate for the Amy B. Onken award this year. Charlotte Sundt was chosen to be Senior of the Week by the Senior Council during the month of February.

Katy Sturm was selected as the Dream Girl for the March issue of the Octopus, campus humor magazine. Arrangements and casting for Humorology, the campus charity show, occupied the time of Nancy Brenk and Jean Dudley. The chapter worked with the B  $\Theta$  IIs on a skit entitled, "The Wheel" for the production.

The annual Open House was given at the chapter house for all men on campus. It was highlighted by the appearance of the Badger Bowl, interfraternity athletic trophy, which the  $\Delta T$ s lent to the girls. The huge trophy was used for the punch bowl.

Second semester showed only a slight drop in enrollment, in spite of the national emergency. The college is one of 600 schools which have applied for an Air Force ROTC unit, sixty-two of which are to be granted. The Air Force inspection team examined the Beloit campus.

The Buccaneer basketball team has reached national prominence after winning two games in the Chicago Stadium. The culmination of the season was a bid to the National Invitational Tournament at Madison Square Gardens in New York.

The Annual Fraternity Formals were a gala affair. Zan Helgren was crowned Sweetheart of  $\Sigma X$  and Faith Kellogg was a member of the court of Orchid Queen of  $\Sigma II$ . This year the Panhellenic Formal was taken back to the individual sorority houses. In previous years this dance has been given in the college field house; this was the first time in eight years that a formal dance has been given in the sorority houses. Barbara Boyd planned the decorations. The Charity Carnival brought in the goal of \$2,000. Norma Jean Smith was the  $\Pi B \Phi$  candidate for queen.

The chapter retained the scholarship cup for the highest average for first semester of all the Greek letter groups. The pledges won the pledge scholarship cup. Catherine Cronis and Virginia Hammond made perfect records. Jean Anderson, former Wisconsin B president, was elected to  $\Phi B K$ , Chris Cronis having been elected in the fall. Mary Hutchison was elected secretary of the Associated Women Students.

Terrapin, honorary swimming group, gave their annual spring show. The Beloit College Players announced casting for second semester. In Summer and Smoke, by Tennessee Williams, Nancy Bakkom, Carolyn Potshke and Anne Knoll had prominent roles. Mary Hutchison acted the lead in the Shakespeare production of Winter's Tale. The Madwoman of Chailot by Jean Giraudoux will be the Mothers' Day play with Anne Knoll cast as the madwoman. INITIATED, February 25, 1951: Julie Bayer, Burlington; Nancy Betz, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Mary Jo Blake, Nancy Hammond, Kathryn Stevens, Minneapolis, Minn.; Sally Braun, Paula Rendenbach, Milwaukee; Jean Curtis, Munising, Mich.; Lois Deicke, Lombard, Ill.; Beverly Doeringfeld, Platteville; Carol Kruse, Beloit; Lois Litchfield, Eau Claire; Donna McDonald, Carrollton, Ill.; Sue Matthews, Freeport, Ill.; Laura Rosekrans, Neillsville; Kathryn Soter, Betty Zipser, Evanston, Ill.; Barbara Spandet, Morris, Ill.; Charlotte Williams, Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Canada.

Initiation came at last to the patiently waiting pledges on February 25. Despite the all-college Valentine's Dance and a fire in the K  $\Delta$  rooms at Panhellenic House the night before, the chapter determinedly went through with the plans, and the pledges weren't disappointed after all. After the initiation ceremony a banquet was given in their honor. Several prizes were awarded for scholarship improvement, and Donna McDonald was announced as the outstanding pledge.

On February 22 the four best-loved senior girls were announced and honored at an annual banquet. Margie Wolf is the "best loved" of Wisconsin F. Shirley Schaefer, one of the co-social chairmen of the Lawrence Women's Association, helped arrange the banquet and presided as mistress of ceremonies for the evening.

The college is pleased to have its new Union open and operating at last. The building has been under construction since last fall and was completed in the middle of March. Just before the students left for spring vacation, they all pitched in and unpacked the furniture, washed the windows, polished floors, and added all the finishing touches. When they returned a week later, everyone celebrated the opening with dancing and entertainment. The chapter is looking forward to its Spring Formal sponsored jointly with the  $\Delta \Upsilon s$  to be held in the main lounge of the Union.

In February was the annual Snow Sculpturing Contest. This year Wisconsin F took first place. The pledges built on a timely theme of "Best Loved" the traditionally colonial figures of George and Martha Washington. The chapter is now able to keep the winning plaque for another year.

In March the chapter was entertained at a dinner and cooky-shine given by the Fox River Valley Alumnae Club.

Joyce Herried has been elected secretary of the senior class. Shirley Schaefer was installed as president and Pat Neil as social chairman of the Lawrence Women's Association. Pat Neil was also elected secretary-treasurer of the Women's Recreational Association.

The chapter swung into the second semester with a tea at Holt House for Lucille Douglas Carson, Grand Secretary, a member of Illinois A.

A banquet was held after initiation for the new initiates. Marilyn Phifer presented Sally Young a bracelet for the pledge with the most activities, and Margaret Bowker received the bracelet for the pledge with the highest grades.

Anne Grasse, Jean Sillars, and Marilyn Phifer had solo parts in the annual Minstrel Show given on March 8. Many members of the fraternity sang in the chorus of the show.

Carolyn Emons was initiated into  $\Sigma T \Delta$ , Jean Sillars, Martha Applegate, and Marcia McKee were initiated into Pep Club. Susan McDougall is the president of this club. Jane Seidel and Pat Small were initiated into Orchesis, the modern dance group on campus.

Work has been started on a new men's dormitory which will be completed next fall. It is going to house 115 men.

Monmouth was host to the Illinois Intercollegiate Oratorical Association contest in February. Fifteen different schools from throughout the state were represented.

Pi Phi and K K  $\Gamma$ , both being Alpha chapters, recently went together as the Monmouth Duo and held a tea dance on February 17, which was very successful. The Duo is looking forward to more of these affairs.

Religious Emphasis Week was opened February 7 with a Vesper service in the college chapel. Dr. Alexander S. Fleming from Steubenville, O., was the guest speaker for the week.

The World Student Service Fund glee frolic was a great success at Monmouth. The Illinois As had a picture taking booth to help raise money for the fund.

ILLINOIS BETA-DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE

INITIATED, January 28, 1951: Louise Elisha, Gary, Ind.; Florence Gentry, Glen Ellyn; Jean Hungness, Sheldon; Mary Johnson, Peoria; Jean Kester, Naperville; Lynn Meredith, Glendale, Calif.; Nancy McCullough, Chicago; Jean Pfiffer, Chicago; Jaimie Stuckey, Alton; Kathy Theodoras, Chicago; Janet Wagner, Sarah Jane Oblander, Mary Lou Walter, Galesburg.

A new tradition was begun January 28 when Illinois B- $\Delta$  had its first initiation at Holt House in Monmouth. Although it was a half hour's drive from the Knox campus, actives, new initiates, and alumnae all agreed that it certainly was worth the trip to have an initiation in the Founders' house. Members of Illinois A from Monmouth College offered assistance in the preparation. An informal cooky-shine was held after the ceremony.

Two weeks before the formal initiation, actives of the chapter were hostesses at an informal initiation party for the pledges. Pledges were required to come as humorous sayings designated by the pledge trainer; Nancy McCullough showed ingenuity when, as the "missing link," she failed to come at all.

Knox College students were given an actual look into the future at the college Founders' Day dinner on February 15. President Sharvy G. Umbeck, in his talk "Knox . . . Tomorrow," outlined Knox's plans for the immediate future and showed slides of the new building program of which the college's memorial gymnasium, completed last December, was the beginning. Celebration of the 114th anniversary also included a talk by the noted French author, Andre Maurois.

At the annual ROTC Military Ball January 19, Char Hiatt and Eleanor Nichols were among the four coeds chosen as honorary ROTC sponsors. Louise Lord served on the planning committee of the Panhellenic formal in February. Illinois B-4 gave its own St. Patrick's party March 2. White Irish pipes were favors; and the Panhellenic House, where the party was given, was decorated as an old Irish tavern.

With the completion of the basketball season, not only Knox but also the college chapter of Pi Beta Phi had a good record. In the WAA intersorority tournament the chapter team finished second with a record of only one loss.

Two plays have been presented by the Knox Theater this year. Members of Illinois B-4 helped both on the stage and behind it. In the "Gilded Clock" by Ronald E. Mitchell, given in January, Eleanor Nichols took the leading lady's part. Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" had a very successful production in March. Nancy Campbell portrayed Olivia in one of the leads, and Lynn Meredith had a bit part as a lady in waiting.

Eleanor Nichols was recently selected as editor of the Knox Gale, the college yearbook, for next year. This year she served as picture editor for the annual.

PLEDGED, February 3, 1951: Mary Cheyne, Moline; Roberta Schlick, Oak Park.

The members of Illinois E are especially proud of our university this year, since we are celebrating Northwestern's centennial. In honor of this event, Northwestern has been featured in the newspapers, on radio programs, and in Life magazine, in which the Dolphin Show was pictured. The central theme of our annual swimming show this year was the Mardi Gras. Nancy Sorenson, Judy Jones, and Sue Blakeslee participated. June Laughlin worked on the wardrobe crew, and Sue Brundage was on the make-up committee.

On January 20, we gave a dinner dance at the Brookwood Country Club. To carry out the precedent established last year the chapter elected the  $\Pi \Phi$  Man of the Year. This year the traveling trophy was presented to Andy Armstrong,  $\Sigma X$ ; Andy is engaged to Pat Able who was chosen Sweetheart of  $\Sigma X$  last fall.

The Centennial Junior Prom was February 9 at the Palmer House; Frankie Master's orchestra played. Two Pi Phis were in the contest for queen; Ann Gregory as chapter nomination, and Jane Kelly from the North Shore Hotel. Lindy Lindgren was chairman of the Dance Committees, and June Laughlin was a secretary.

The Pi Phi and  $\Delta T \Delta$  presented a radio program on the Northwestern station, WCAT. Patti Rariden and Mel Conner wrote the half hour entertainment show which featured some original songs sung by a Pi Phi and  $\Delta T \Delta$  quintet. On February 14, the Pi Phis attended a dessert party given by the  $\Delta T \Delta$  chapter.

We all enjoyed meeting Mrs. Cook, Eta Province President, in February.

On February 8, we gave a farewell banquet for Miss Mary Alice Jones, our Alumna Rush Assistant, who has been with our chapter for fifteen years. Mary Alice was presented with a leather and brass desk set in appreciation for all the work she has done for the chapter.

The basketball team placed third in the I. M. Tournament.

Also in athletics, Pi Beta Phi is proud of Nan Sorenson who was elected WAA swimming head and will serve on its board for the next year.

Two girls were pledged to honorary fraternities: Lindy Lindgren,  $\Phi B$ , speech and music honorary, and Betty Jean McGregor,  $Z \Phi$ , speech honorary.

Eight Pi Phis joined the trip to Sun Valley with the Ski Club.

ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Pledge Day, February 18, 1951

INITIATED, February 25, 1951: HONORARY INITIATE: Lucile Adams, Champaign. INITIATES: Anne Beanblossom, Dixon; Martha Corbett, Wichita, Kan.; Jane Hayes, Du Quoin; Mary Lou Heatherly, Elkville; Loretta Kalin, Rockford; Paula Langefeld, Batavia; Mary Alice Miller, Champaign; Sharon Mayhall, Alton; Elizabeth Scot, Champaign; Carol Seibert, Brookfield; Ann Lichtenwalter Underhill (Mrs. G. T., Jr.); Shorthills, N.J.; Janet Weiser, Arlington Heights.

The traditional Monmouth Duo, a formal dinner dance with K K I, was given March 3. Later in the evening, the two chapters went to the K K I chapter house for the dance. Next year the dance will again be at the Pi Beta Phi house.

At the dinner honoring Lucile Adams, an honorary pledge, February 18, Mrs. A. W. Stoolman, the Honorary Grand Treasurer, presented the Illinois Z chapter with a brass plaque in the name of Mrs. L. G. Balfour. This plaque was placed over the outside door to identify the Pi Beta Phi house by the Greek letters.

The various student councils sponsored a Careers Conference again this year. People outstanding in professional and industrial fields were brought to the campus to give lectures, hold conferences, and conduct discussions with the students in all the colleges of the university.

The entire month of March and part of April was designated as the Annual Festival of Contemporary Arts. "In this Fourth Annual Festival of Contemporary Arts the University of Illinois again surveys the creative arts in America. By means of concerts, lectures, exhibits, and symposia, the essential unity of the arts of Music, Art, Architecture, Landscape Architecture, the Theater, the Motion Picture, Literature, Fine Printing, Radio, and the Dance is demonstrated." This statement of Dean Rexford Newcomb from the bulletin of the festival certainly explains why this month was such an important one to the University of Illinois students.

Pi Beta Phi joined the members of  $\Sigma X$  for the Spring Carnival. The Campus Chest, which sponsors the Spring Carnival to raise funds for distribution to various charities promotes a good spirit among all students on the campus, Greek and Independent.

Rush weekend for high school seniors who could not make the formal June rush because of high school exams, activities, or graduation, was held in April. At this time at least 175 girls, mostly from the Chicago area, were expected. A new plan was tried; all the girls visited all of the women's fraternities rather than just visiting a few houses.

Myrian Baker, a member of Shi-Ai the sophomore activity honorary, was elected chairman of the Shi-Ai Sing, the intersorority sing held Mothers' Day weekend in May. Since Pi Beta Phi won last year, the chapter was not in competition; but under the direction of Marilyn Hindsley, the chapter performed at the Shi-Ai Sing and also at the Sachiem Sing, a similar event for the fraternities.

Twelve new initiates and one honorary initiate were honored at a formal banquet February 25, in the chapter house. Anne Beanblossom was chosen the "goatie" of the pledge class as the outstanding pledge, and Carol Seibert was given a diamond recognition pin for the highest scholarship of the pledge class.

PLEDGED: Lucile Adams, Champaign, honorary, February 18, 1951.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Patty Gilliam, 1451 Glenmore, Evansville, Ind.

★ILLINOIS ETA—MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, February 23, 1951

INITIATED, February 10, 1951: Jean Baker, Sally Morrison, Chicago; Mary Lee Klein, Des Plaines; Marilyn Lacey, Sally Carroll, Webster Groves; Jean Kelly, Hillsboro; Jeanine Maxwell, Jacksonville; Martha Robinson, Clinton; Doris Ryan, Rock Island; Joyce Stapleton, Alexander; Nancy Todd, Belleville; Virginia Wayne, Edwardsville; Nancy Wielepp, Patcie

Wieland, Ruth Butts, Decatur.

On February 10 fifteen pledges were initiated in the presence of Marie Bacon Hagee, Pi Beta Phi Director of Extension, and Gladys Hayes Scivally, Director of Central Office. The traditional cooky-shine and dinner were held after initiation.

Informal rush week was held in February. Illinois H filled their quota by taking two girls.

"Debs Debut" was the theme of the dance which was held in the chapter room; the theme was carried through by the new Pi Beta Phi debutantes. Black Silhouettes of each new pledge and initiate lined the walls.

Barbara Banner, the new president of Illinois H, was named president of the Millikin University Panhellenic Council.

WSSF week was initiated at the half of the basketball game, February 24, when each organization on campus paraded down the floor with a particular phase of WSSF week as their theme. A student-faculty basketball game took place Friday night with faculty cheerleaders; each organization took part in the drive and climaxed the week with a carnival held in the gymnasium. Pi Beta Phi shined shoes for small fees and sold chances on an orchid. Barbara Walmsley was elected to the queen's court.

The following week was the annual Variety Show. Once more, each organization took part by presenting a 10-minute skit. T K E asked the Pi Phi's to work with them. The show was a Russian theme, cleverly carried out through music and ball-and-chain dances.

Sue Etherington, Patcie Wieland, Kay Kieth, and Barbara Munson acted in several plays. Sue had the honor of playing one of the leads in the Town and Gown production, "The Heiress" which was given in April.

Joy Dunn was treasurer of WAA; Barbara Walmsley, treasurer of T X II, business sorority; Jean Kizer, treasurer of Home Economics Club; Mary Lee Klein, president of Art Club; and Jean Baker, secretary of both French and German clubs. Jean also was appointed an assistantship in the language department.

The weekly school newspaper was put to press this year by four Pi Beta Phi's: Sandra Lukey and Lois Shand as co-editors, Carol Goltra as Society Editor, and Barbara Munson as Music Editor.

The annual Greek sing was given with each group participating for ten minutes, singing their own fraternity songs in various settings. One of Illinois H's numbers was "To Be a Pi Phi," composed by an active member, Virginia Wayne.

On May Day, the chapter serenaded its five patronesses and presented each with a May Day basket of flowers.

Each spring Pi Beta Phi gives a picnic for the Girls' Welfare Home. After the delicious picnic lunch, all participated in team games before returning the girls to their home.

Illinois H's spring dance was May 18 on a theme of "Carousel." This was a beautiful close of a very successful semester.

PLEDGED: Mary Lou Evans, Genanne Barnett, Decatur.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Barbara Walmsley, 314 West Decatur St., Decatur, Ill.

★ILLINOIS THETA—BRADLEY UNIVERSITY

INITIATED, February 25, 1951: Marilyn Carrigan, Williamsfield; Maxine Cordes, Decatur; Marilyn Gaden, Aurora; Phyllis Hauter, Morton; Pat Hutton, New York, N.Y.; Jean Saelsens, Colette Williams, Chicago; Mary Verner, Abingdon; Joan Vespa, Toluca; and Sallie Elson, Dolores Kieser, Nancy McCool, Dona Neely, Wilma Reiman, and Mary Lou Wagner, Peoria.

The Bradley Booster's Club sponsored the Horace Heidt Youth Opportunity Show, and asked the four women's fraternities on campus to handle advance sale tickets. Under the chairmanship of Mary Barthell, Illinois Theta sold more than the other organizations; the chapter set up booths in the leading department stores in town and had a member of the Bradley Braves Basketball team on hand to autograph each ticket purchased.

A box of Valentine candy, given away at intermission, highlighted the evening at the annual Pledge Dance in February.

A new honorary fraternity, A A Delta, recognizing high scholarship among university women, held initiation ceremonies the last of January. Nancy Millikan and Ann Schroen were among those receiving pins.

Dolores Clarke, a sophomore, has assumed the duties as vice-president of B I chapter and E A I.

Who's Who in American Colleges has an addition of five names this year from Illinois Theta; the girls are Jane Wellington, Nancy Millikan, Ann Schroen, Catherine Calhoun, and Jeanette Krumpke.

Long a dream of the imagination, but now a visual conception, are the plans for the new Pi Beta Phi Chapter House on Bradley Campus, since the architects have submitted their drawings to the members. No one has worked as hard for the new home as the alumnae club; they have opened a Women's Exchange Shop near the university and are already expanding because of increased business.

MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA

Pledge Day, January 26, 1951

INITIATED, January 7, 1951: Lee Demchuck, Beverly Hodson, June Pickering, Lyla Thomson, Jane Emery, Edmonton Alberta, Mary Jean Poole, Lethbridge, Alberta.

Deferred rushing, in its second of a three year trial period, got underway in January. The first tea welcomed rushees to the gay "Pi Beta Phi Carnival," followed by "Sherwood Forest," complete with grass, pine trees, the loyal band, and arrow cakes. The third tea, as is customary on the Manitoba campus, was formal. The quota was decreased this year from forty to thirty-five for all women's fraternities. Pledging was followed by the traditional cooky-shine and, later in the week, a banquet in honor of the new initiates and pledges.

Panhellenic has been more active on this campus than it has been for several years. A successful Tea Dance was held early in the term and the proceeds directed to charity. The Panhellenic Tag Day of February 21 raised enough money to pay for the tuition of an exchange student to the Manitoba Campus.

The chapter's Spring Formal, February 8, was one of the most successful formals we have had, with a 100 per cent turnout, and featured a skit by the pledges, Exchange dance cards, first tried at the fall party, were again enthusiastically received.

Sharon Campbell is newly elected Lady Stick of Science; Ruth Thorvaldson, Freshie Queen; and Helen Bridgen, Commerce Freshie Queen and first year Arts president. In the sportlight Nora Thorvaldson and Babs Masterman, Lady Stick of Arts were two of the four girls to receive their Arts athletic sweaters. Babs was also in charge of the WA publication of the Manitoba this year. The Glee Club production of "Rose Marie," saw members, under the capable direction of Peggy Bean, acting as call girl. Jane Emery, last year's Freshie Queen, captured the Silver Dance medal at Saskatoon during the Western Canadian Skating Championships held there.

The chapter's Open House, February 18, was successfully held at the home of Nora and Ruth Thorvaldson.

The Winter Carnival highlighted the mid-term holiday February 23 to 25. Three of our number, Louise Plummer, outgoing president, Claire Anderson and Mique Thomson, visited North Dakota A chapter, bringing back glowing accounts of life in a chapter house.

PLEDGED: Claire Anderson, Janette Avery, Helen Bridgen, Helen Grabowski; Patricia Malaher, Ann Masterman, Jane Matheson, Eleanor Swail, Shelagh Swaine, Ruth Thorvaldson.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Pledge Day, February 19, 1951

A slight thaw followed by a quick freeze made perfect weather for North Dakota's second annual Winter Carnival in February. For North Dakota A, the occasion was made perfect by the selection of Lee Hillman as Queen Aurora.

This made the second year in succession that a Pi Beta Phi has reigned over the carnival, Patricia Webb receiving the honor last year.

Three sisters from Manitoba A, Louise Plummer, Clare Anderson, and Myque Thomson, visited the chapter for a week end. A slumber party was held in their honor at which both chapters contributed talent for the program. It is a pleasure to have these across the border visits for they bring both an exchange of ideas and new friendships.

In view of the decreasing college enrollment, Panhellenic here is taking action to instigate a system of open rushing which would continue all year. This is in contrast to the present system which is divided into two formal and one informal period during the school year. With the new plan it is hoped that more girls will go through rushing and that all sororities on campus will become a more united and thus stronger group.

Spring trips found nine chapter members packing their bags to accompany the selected concert band, and two who went with the Madrigal mixed chorus. Marlene Thompson traveled her third year with the university debate team.

Bernadine Zipoy, Connie Johnson, and Marlys Jacobsen were selected for initiation into  $\Phi T O$ , honorary home economics fraternity.

PLEDGED: Jean Bain, East Grand Forks, Minn.; Virginia Mitchell, Hope; Marilyn Torgerson, Park River.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Jean Stein, 701 N. 6th St., Grand Forks, N.D.

★MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

INITIATED, January 27, 1951: Jervais Larson, Barbara Maywald, Albert Lea; Joan Klobe, Glencoe; Gloria Rice, Hopkins; Beverly Barrie, Phyllis Dahl, Marion Fink, Barbara Hayward, Nancy Olson, Patricia Magaw, Minneapolis; Maxine Johnson, Redwood Falls; Georgia Cook, Barbara Grove, St. Paul.

The University of Minnesota began its Centennial Year with a week devoted to an extensive program of activities focusing on achievements of the University in the past hundred years. In honor of two educators who have made valuable contributions to the University in their respective fields, the Law School building was named in honor of Dean Emeritus Fraser and the Medical Science building in honor of Dean Alfred Owre. The campus library has presented a series of displays telling the story of the University's first hundred years. The attractive layouts and interesting material details many a browsing student from his studies.

Because Minnesota is in the unique position of having three coordinated groups, medical, veterinary, and state working on different aspects of the disease, buccellosis, the University has been chosen by the World Health Organization of the U.N. to be the United States center for research on that disease. This provides another means for the University to work with, and promote better understanding between people all over the world.

Winter quarter for the Minnesota Pi Beta Phi's began with a successful week of rushing. Between planning parties and entertaining rushees they sponsored their foreign student, Greta Galsgaard, for SLA Day Queen and were even more excited than Greta when she won.

The Mother's Club and Alumnae have been especially good to the Minnesota A's during winter quarter. February 8 saw the chapter's house congested with card tables as the Mother's Club sponsored a successful bridge party to help finance a redecorating job on the downstairs. The following evening the chapter and their dates were entertained at a dinner-dance held by a group of enthusiastic alumnae. March 1 was Minnesota A's annual Family Dinner which the Mother's Club helped them put on.

This spring the girls will put on their Campus Carnival side show together with  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ 's. The "Carnival" is sponsored every spring by the women and men's fraternities to support the Campus Chest.

Frozen toes, blue noses, and cold spirits greeted Minnesota's annual Snow Week festivities. The temperature was so abnormally low many of the activities had to be called off. The Skits for Skates contest was still held inside Williams Arena, however, and together the  $\Pi B \Phi$ 's and  $A \Delta \Phi$  skated off with first place.

Margaret Ransen has been appointed secretary of  $\Phi T O$ , honorary home economics fraternity. Margaret Paterson stepped from the chapter presidency into the job of Panhellenic president. Phyllis Dahl has been elected president of Associated Women's Students.

Minnesota A's pledges are proving their mettle. Dorothy Donlin was elected President of Junior Panhellenic and Martha Sharmann, Vice-President. Martha was also chosen A T Dream Girl from among twenty contestants.

The annual Greek Week in May was a time for panel discussions, exchange dinners, and all out cooperation between Greek societies to promote better understanding among themselves and with the University.

PLEDGED: Ellen Beutenzen, Dorothy Donlin, Nancy Hahn, Beverly Nyberg, Minneapolis.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Dixie Edkins, 518 W. 48th, Minneapolis, Minn.

Iowa B started the new year in high spirits with an All-Holiday party in January. Couples wore costumes suggesting any holiday of the year. The annual winter formal in February was judged highly successful, as was the pledges' surprise paddle party also in February. Carrying out a "Gay Nineties" theme, each pledge presented her paddle with an original song. To keep actives in line, the pledges also presented a paddle to the housemother and a specially decorated rolling pin to the cook.

Pledge Day, January 7, 1951

Iowa  $\Gamma$  started the Winter Quarter by having a rush party, with the theme of "Pi Phi Express."

Construction on Iowa State College's campus is in full swing. The Memorial Union is undergoing a huge addition, and the new Agronomy Building should be finished by next fall. An outstanding addition to the Home Economics Building has been the redecoration of the Institutional Management Tearoom. The watercolors done by Miss Marjorie Garfield of the Applied Art Department are the source of many compliments.

Outstanding events on the campus have been Religion-in-Life Week and the Women's Day. Dr. Sittler, professor of theology at Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary, was the speaker during the Religion-in-Life Week; Dr. Evelyn Duvall, executive secretary for the National Council on Family Relations, was the speaker for Women's Day. Many chapter members were honored at the banquet for women students outstanding in campus activities.

IOWA ZETA—STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Chartered, 1882

The first week in March, Iowa Zeta was in the busy rush of second-semester rushing parties. Preference day was Sunday, March 4, and pledging Monday, March 5.

Student Council elections were forthcoming and Marion Guy was nominated as a candidate. Natalie Hennessy and Joan Johnston participated in the spring intercollegiate speech conference March 2 and 3. In January, a golden arrow was hung over the front door. It was the gift of Mrs. Harriett Evans, Iowa Zeta chaperon. The winter formal "Snowflake Shake" was given in January.

The first active meeting in the newly redecorated chapter room was held when Mrs. Floyd H. Carson, Grand Secretary, visited Iowa Zeta in February. The Iowa City advisory board had a luncheon for her at the Iowa Union. Mrs. Carson had few free moments between social engagements and her helpful conferences with each officer.

Clean-up day was a very special day for Iowa Zeta. Everyone worked on projects around the house to reorganize files and rushing materials, systematize the library, and help redecorate the chapter room.

A number of events important to the whole campus are occurring. Soon, the new 90,000-volume library will be in operation. The University of Iowa was awarded the 4,000 volume Bollinger-Lincoln library worth $50,000 in February. ### SOUTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

Pledge Day, February 4, 1951; February 11, 1951

After an inspiring and educational visit by Lucile Douglass Carson, Grand Secretary, the members of South Dakota Alpha have swung into second semester with vim and vigor. The highlight of the two days' activities was a banquet given in her honor.

"Down Among the Potted Palms," an original take-off on "South Pacific," was the title of the Phi Gamma Delta act for the annual Strollers Vaudville Show in March.

Eight girls paced the Phi Gammas to a second place in the WAA Basketball Tournament. The Independents scored four extra points, 27-24, to take the title in a hard fought game. Edith Roessler was chairman of the tournament.

A new housemother came to South Dakota Alpha in January and a dessert was held in her honor. Another recent dessert took place when the Junior girls entertained the members of Mortar Board at the chapter house.

A successful campaign for WSSF, or World Student Service Fund, was concluded the middle of February. Joanne Jennings was General Co-chairman for the project. The South Dakota contribution was earmarked for special work in Greece.

Mitzi Patrick was awarded a part in the University production of "The Heiress" a week after she arrived on the campus.

Joan Vaughn, Virginia Milliken, Shirley Coe, and Sally Olson were pledged to Alpha Delta. Joan Vaughn is also president of Westminster Pilgrim Fellowship for second semester. Jody Marion was recently elected president of Zeta Phi Eta, to succeed Lois Milliken. Joanne Jennings is Secretary-Treasurer of the

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered, 1895

December began the winter formal season at the University of Nebraska. Nebraska Beta decided against a drafty ballroom and transformed the house into a "Winter Wonderland." Highlight of the dance was the crowning of red-headed Rusty Motter as Senior Queen by the pledge class.

Another December event was a Christmas party for all the younger children of the alums.

As the new semester began, enrollment dropped 1,300 at the university. Saturday night became letter-writing night for several of the girls. The pledges busied themselves with plans for a Penny Carnival booth.

Four pledges, Betty Brinkman, Betty Lester, Nora DeVore and Barbara Adams were elected to Nebraska Builders board positions. Builders is a 400-member campus service organization. Terry Barnes and Barbara Adams were given positions on the Cornhusker, the school yearbook.

The chapter trio has made quite a hit on campus. The group consisting of freshmen, Betty Lester, Barbara Adams and Nora DeVore, has been asked to sing at many campus events. Their original stylings are made up by the members themselves.

Lorraine Johannes is a member of Orchesis, the advanced modern dance group. Beverly Larsen was elected vice-president of Tassels, the university girls' pep group. Priscilla Jones was Interfraternity Queen finalist and Loraine Westphall a finalist for Nebraska Sweetheart.

An annual style show sponsored by home economics class on the university's agricultural division featured Mary Ann Grundman, Marcia Adams, Mary Ellen Anderson, and Ann Lambert. The girls not only made their dresses but also designed the patterns for them.

Mrs. Floyd Carson, Grand Secretary, visited the chapter February. Her helpful advice and new ideas started Nebraska B's new officers off on a busy term. At the time of Mrs. Carson's visit, the chapter was putting the finishing touches on their act for the annual all-women production, Coed Follies. The Pi Beta Phi's won! The curtain act "The Bug and the Flame," featured a troupe of dancing bugs including Japanese beetles, lady bugs, jitterbugs and the hero, a love bug. Sharing the spotlight with our winning skit were the Pi Phi trio; director of the entire production and skitmaster, Pi Beta Phi Marilyn Moomey; and our Typical Nebraska Coed finalist, Anne Jane Hall.

To show our appreciation for Mrs. Carson's wonderful help, the chapter honored her at a tea. Mrs. Carl Junge, Iota province president, was also honored. More than 300 people came to meet the honorees at the chapter house.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Marilyn Moomey, 137 University, Hastings, Neb.

★KANSAS ALPHA—KANSAS UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, February 8, 1951

Kansas University Jayhawkers, returning to Mt. Oread for the last lap of the school year, found themselves caught in the gay whirl of the annual Student Union Carnival, February 3. Kansas A participated in the events, contributing a "Mystery Voice" booth. The voice was Mr. James K. Hitt, the university registrar. Lynn Graham was among the finalists for carnival queen.

Kansas A's musical skit "Habeas Corpus" or "Do You Have the Body?" was among the eight skits chosen for the university's annual "Rock Chalk Revue," March 9 and 10. The musical skit was a humorous take-off on the law school. For years it has been a tradition for the lawyers to stand on the steps of the law building watching and whistling at the parade of campus coeds. The skit portrayed the lawyer's impression of these campus coeds passing through four years of college. The entire chapter participated in the production.

The highlight of the year came March 11, 12 and 13 when Miss Amy Burnham Onken, Pi Beta Phi Grand President, visited Kansas A. An informal "Pi Beta Phi night" was held the first night of her visit where Miss Onken was welcomed by Lawrence alumnae and chapter members. The "Rock Chalk Review" skit was presented for her. The chapter was sorry to see these three days end, but was grateful for the privilege of entertaining the Grand President.

The chapter's annual formal dinner-dance was given March 16. The theme of the party was St. Patrick's Day.

The chapter was pleased to have as a dinner guest Mrs. George Munger, Iota Province vice-president. During the month of February, Mrs. Munger was visiting the Lawrence, Kansas, alumnae club.

The Associated Women Students had its annual Leadership Workshop in February. Mary Lou Miller was on the planning committee. The High School Leadership Day, March 17, was also sponsored by the A.W.S. with Helene Steinbuechel, chapter president, chairman. Outstanding high school seniors from all over the state of Kansas attended the meetings.

Watkins Hall, a women's scholarship dormitory, celebrated its fiftieth anniversary, March 12, by giving a tea. The governor of Kansas and the Kansas University Board of Regents were among the honored guests.

Many new structures are being erected on the campus. The campanile, a World War II memorial, has been completed, and the dedication ceremony will take place May 27. The 53-bell carillon placed in the Memorial campanile was manufactured in Loughborough, England. Also on May 27 the new women's dormitory will be officially opened with an open house. This dormitory will house all university freshmen beginning next year.

The announcement was made in February that the bill has been passed appropriating funds for a new field house. Construction will begin next fall. The new swimming pool has been completed in the university gymnasium and will be used exclusively by women when the field house is finished.

Members of the  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  moved into their new chapter house last January. The Acacia fraternity house burned down during the winter, and they have taken over the old  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  house.

Kansas A entertained their fathers on Father's Day in April. The "daddies" were escorted by their daughters to a large Sunday dinner. The mothers were not forgotten, for in May they were honored in the same way on Mother's Day. The Kansas Relays were April 21 with many high schools and universities attending Kansas University for the track meet. The chapter entered a float and queen candidate in the events.

Jean Almon was elected president of  $\Delta \Phi \Delta$ , honorary art fraternity. Joanne March and Nancy Morsebach, two freshmen, were chosen for the cast of a university road show, "Midsummer Night's Dream." Joanna was elected a member of University Players, a dramatics organization.

Despite the frosty weather, the pledges and members plunged into school work and activities. First on the agenda was the "Legacy Dinner" at which brothers and sons of Pi Beta Phi on the campus were entertained. Sooner Scandals received the next burst of energy which brought results since Pi Beta Phi ranked among the top skits of the show. Sooner Scandals came during the yearly "Now or Never Days" when the girls reverse the situation and take the boys out.

Margie Bell was the Band Queen for the Oklahoma University Band, "The Pride of Oklahoma." The boys at the Δ T house chose Lillian Zachry as the Feudal Princess to reign over their annual Feudal Dinner. The past president, Barbara Whitehurst, was tapped for mortar Board, besides being a BWOC and president of the Association of Women Students. Sue Baughman had the honor of being one of the five finalists for the sweetheart of Σ X contest. Rosalie Peckenpaugh, Peggie Marshall, and Suzanne Holcomb served at the Oklahoma Governor's Inaugural Ball which benefited the March of Dimes campaign.

March 6 was the date of the beginning of the Careers Conference conducted by the university which brought many interesting speakers from all over the United States. It was ended March 8 by the BWOC banquet. Judged on the basis of high scholarship and participation in university activities, five Pi Beta Phis were elected BWOC. They were: Barbara Whitehurst, Josephine Taylor, Julia Beckman, Shirley Geurkink, and Sue Ellison.

Initiation was slated for March 11, the few days before being devoted to "Courtship Week." The pledges feted the members with a cooky-shine one night and exercised full authority on "Pledge-Member Day." ## OKLAHOMA BETA—OKLAHOMA A. &amp; M. COLLEGE

Chartered, August 12, 1919
Pledge Day, September 12, 1950

Returning to college after semester vacation was particularly pleasant for Oklahoma B women. Everyone was anxious to move into their new rooms with ample closet and drawer space; and to be using the new reception room, dining room, chapter room, and best of all wine and blue tile baths. At long last the enlarging of the Oklahoma B chapter house has been completed.

Another long awaited event was the new semi-modern Home Economics building, which has one wing completed and is in use now. The large windows make for well lighted class rooms and laboratories. The building has four floors, and is equipped with convenient automatic elevators.

The Saturday before Valentine's Day found the chapter serenading the men's dormitories and fraternities. The newly initiated annual Valentine serenade will take the place of the Christmas serenades previously given.

A "root-beer bust" was given in the chapter house March 2. The new spacious dining room was used for dancing.

Jane Ezell received the International Relations Club Key for outstanding service in the organization. Eleanor Harper was selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Vera Jo Goley, recently initiated member into Φ T O, national honorary and professional women's fraternity, has been elected to serve as its treasurer.

The A. & M. team was rated second in the nation.

The newest idea on the University of Arkansas campus is the organization of the Campus Chest. ## TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Chartered, February 2, 1902
Pledge Day, February 9, 1951

INITIATED, February 21, 1951: Anne Arbaugh, Sweetwater; Rita Crocker, Brady; Bettie Dancy, Orange; Florence E. Fitch, Eagle Pass; Margaret Kovach, Odessa; Margaret Kyle, Beaumont; Foree Peterson, Marlin; Mary Margaret Scott, Paris; Mary Ane Smith, Hunt; Mary Gay, Mary Mills, Austin; Jean Marie Edge, Joan Ruppel, Bryan; Virginia Boberg, Shirley Fleming, Mary Ellen Neale, Nell Orand, Dallas; Mary Barcus, Joan Holloway, Ft. Worth; Mary Alexander, Mary Lou Edmondson, Gayle Garth, Anne Hogan, Clare Williams, Houston; Anne Page Chandler, Nell Dumas, Barbara Esgen, Margaret King, San Antonio; Mary Martha Dickie, Jane Everett, Nancy James, Tyler; Nancy Lu Crosthwaite, Jean Lewis, Waco.

Because of ice and snow on the roads, school was postponed and rush week was held in the middle of the week with pledge day, February 9. Texas A had a very small rush week of two parties, a western party and our traditional "Ocean to Ocean," planned by the new assistant rush captain, Katherine Peninger.

Initiation was held on Wednesday with "cooky-shine" on February 22 in honor of the new initiates. Pearl recognition pins went to Jean Lewis, best all around pledge; Barbara Esgen, outstanding in sports; and Mary Gay, highest scholarship; and plain recognition pins were given to Gavle Garth and Rita Crocker for having maintained a scholarship of B+ or better; Mary Gay and Jean Lewis also maintained this average.

A number of Texas A's were initiated into Sports clubs in February. Mary Alexander and Jean Lewis were elected into Racquet, the tennis club; and Onah Barwise and Minerva Hobart were elected into Touché, the fencing club.

This semester was marked by a large amount of building on campus. Δ K E and Α Γ Δ have moved into their beautiful modern houses, and Φ M is building a house, also on modern lines. K A is building a new colonial house, which will uphold their "confederate" standing.

The University of Texas is building three large classroom buildings; these are the first buildings for general use which will be air conditioned. The experimental science building has been completed and the new health center and hospital is now open.

The Texas As donned their blue jeans and spent the weekend of February 24-25 at Mo Ranch in retreat. This was the chapter's first retreat and was such a success that there are plans already under way to have one next year. Besides the general good fellowship which was found with each other, away from university activities and other people, Texas As found inspiration in group discussions led by a prominent sociologist, the Assistant Dean of Women, and representatives of three church denominations. The subjects discussed were such as "The Meaning of Fraternity," "Woman's Place in the World and Home," and "True Christianity."

Texas A prepared for a busy spring; first the eagerly-awaited visit of Mrs. Clarence M. Sale, Kappa Province President, and after that the rush and fuss of work on a float for the annual University of Texas Round-up in April.

PLEGDED: Agnes Fordtran, Stockdale; Kay Fortson, Patricia Honea, Fort Worth; Carol Nash, Waco.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Frances Schneider, 1500 Travis Heights Blvd., Austin, Tex.

LISBETH FIELD

★TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1916

Pledge Day, February 16, 1951

Rush Week preceded the new semester for the Pi Beta Phi at Texas B Chapter. Seven new pledges were honored with a dinner party at the end of a successful rush season. Registration followed and found the Texas Bs already submerged in many activities and functions. Several active members modeled in the spring fashion show given by Neiman-Marcus and sponsored by the Dallas Club of Pi Beta Phi Junior Alumnæ. The dreamy strains of "La Vie en Rose" formed the theme of the Pi Beta Phi "A" function on February 23.

The opening of a new theology center was an outstanding and long-to-be remembered event on the campus. Named after the donor, the Perkins Theology Quadrangle is composed of seven buildings; and plans for the addition of two more dormitories have been made. Other new buildings are also enlarging the campus. Particularly exciting to the Pi Beta Phi is their new house, which is rising rapidly. The architect's concept of the building is shown on a large placard near the structure. Illuminated by spot lights and enclosed by glass, the picture is frequently pointed out by the members as they anxiously follow the daily progress on their future home.

"Turn-about is fair play," and fun too, so the professors at Southern Methodist University recently doffed their caps and gowns and turned actors for a night. The occasion was the annual Faculty Frolics, given before the student body. The show was written, directed, and produced by students, but participated in only by faculty members. Cary Phillips planned and directed, in connection with the Frolics, a campus-wide contest for the selection of the "Frolickingest Prof."

The active chapter became part of another turn-about when the pledge class presented them with a surprise party. The pledges awakened the actives about six thirty and carried them, pajama-clad, to a breakfast.

A highlight of the spring was the annual ROTC ball. Awards were presented to the honorary cadet colonel of the year and to Fred Benners, chosen as the national recipient of the ROTC Sports Award. Fred escorted Marjorie Hightower, the Pi Beta Phi nominee for queen. Marjorie also participated in a style show given by the candidates.

Many Texas Bs joined in working on the Campus Chest Drive, and others helped with Religious Emphasis Week. During the week, classes were dismissed for mid-morning services featuring outstanding speakers. Seminars and forums gave the students their chance to add to the discussions. Dr. Webb, one of the visitors, was a guest of the chapter for dinner. His inspiring talk gave impetus to the purpose of the week's activities.

Presentation of Ann Rankin as the Α Τ Ω sweetheart at the annual Black and White Ball was a thrilling surprise to Texas B. Patsy Pittman was chosen for Kirkos, an organization of outstanding women on the campus. Diane Cook was selected, for her many activities, as a Pony Personality by the college paper. Nominees for fraternity queens are Elizabeth VanBuskirk, Σ X, and Mary Ann Yates, Α X A. The Texas B's nominee for the Amy B. Onken Award is June Pottee. Joan Gregory, Carol Hensley, Sue Channon, and Ann Lear are new affiliates into the chapter.

PLEGDED: Hazel Dana, Diane Dunaway, Emily Hemingston, Sue Ann Sigler, Dallas; Joan Potter, Tyler; Emma Leigh Zachry, San Antonio; Betty McClendon, Shreveport, La.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Mary Margaret Lackey, 5541 Nakoma, Dallas.

INITIATED, February 10, 1951: Joyce Hepburn, Joyce Moore, Edmonton, Alberta.

Interfraternity entertaining was the order of the day on the University of Alberta campus in January and February. On January 7 the executive and pledges of the Alberta A were invited to the K Σ House for a coffee and dessert party. The next week saw the whole chapter enjoying themselves at the Φ K II House. The Φ Δ Θs, Δ Ts and Δ K Es have also entertained the chapter.

On Wednesday, January 10, the annual Panhellenic banquet was held at the Macdonald Hotel.

One of the most successful events of the term was the Pledge Party. The theme was the "Roaring Twenties." Everyone appeared in costume, the girls in short, long-waisted dresses, with their knees rouged, and the boys in coon coats and pork-pie hats.

The new officers were installed on February 5.

February 8 was a red-letter day in the diary of Alberta A. That was the day the chapter won the I.F.C. Song Fest, the first year the song fest has been held on the campus. The women's and the men's fraternities competed separately. The girls were led by Mary Clark.

The Formal Dinner Party for the house girls and escorts was on Valentine's Day. This dinner is an annual event instituted by Mrs. Treadgold, our housemother.

After the excitement of the Rose Bowl Football Game, the members returned to the two weeks period of final examinations.

During the short period of vacation between semesters, many of the members rented a house at Soda Springs and participated in the famous winter sport of skiing.

Spring semester started with the registration of a greatly decreased enrollment of students. The enrollment dropped from 23,000 students to 16,000 students.

Also with the beginning of the semester the chapter began its rushing period. At the end of the period, the chapter welcomed three new pledges.

The chapter house has taken on a new look with the completion of two new sleeping porches and additional rooms.

Four members sang with the University Chorus under the direction of Pierre Monteux and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra on February 25.

The California campus is grieved with the retirement of Mrs. Davison from the office of Dean of Women. A farewell tea is being given in her honor by the Fernwall Dormitories. The university will miss her wise decisions in the future.

The campus was very active this semester with Religious

Week and Women's Week. The highlights of Women's Week were a fashion show and tea. Janet Grout was assistant-in-charge of the proceedings.

A week at the beginning of March was put aside for the activities of the Sophomore class. The climax of the week was the Holoku Ball, which means Golden Bear in Hawaiian, and the crowning of the Sophomore Doll.

On campus there is a policy of reviving old "Cal" traditions. One of the traditions will be the Cal Circus held in May. All of the groups on campus will contribute some part of the fun.

Janet Grout has been initiated into Panile, Sophomore Honorary Society. Margaret Henze and Maurine Storm have been invited to join the Ace of Clubs.

Pledge Day, February 10

INITIATED, March 3, 1951: Serane Burns, Los Angeles; Joan Cusack, Beverly Hills; Doone Hills, Whittier; Joan Herscher, Arcadia; Mary Jacobus, Long Beach; Tenita Mantz, Balboa; Nancy Reed, Los Angeles; Gwendalynne Trout, Benton, Ark.; Jo-Ann Webb, Beverly Hills.

The fall semester ended on January 15 with Gamma chapter engaged in their finals, and very desirous of a high scholarship rating on campus.

The excitement of a new rush season greeted the members at the beginning of the new spring semester. The season began with enthusiastic preparation for the traditional teas which took care of the first two days. As the week progressed the continued parties became fewer in number, but longer in duration. Particularly enjoyable to everyone was the more informal hors d'oeuvres party towards the end of the rush season. Two hundred twenty girls were entertained and California proudly claimed nine pledges.

The Mothers' club had a fashion show in April. The proceeds from this event are always used for house improvement. Last year the money was utilized in redecorating the playroom; this year the gift presentation will be an intercommunication system.

The Pi Beta Phi alumnae held a Spring Fashion Festival and luncheon in the Crystal Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel to aid the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County. Each active had a book of ten tickets to sell at a dollar apiece.

Reigning supreme on the USC campus this semester is the new freshman dormitory for women. It is a four story building, and has every modern convenience and luxury for which a coed could ask. The chapter claims two of the four dormitory advisors chosen by the University. They are Paula Hinkly, president of Mortar Board, and Janet Ewart, A.W.S. treasurer.

The first faculty dinner was in March. Once a month each girl may invite a professor for dinner. This has proved very successful in promoting friendship and understanding between the girls and the faculty.

The University has begun a series of teas delving into the problems of women in modern society. The teas sponsored by Mortar Board choose a panel to discuss such problems each month. As the Undergraduate Coordinator of the Women's Curriculum, Florence Piver, chapter president, acts as the panel moderator.

Chimes recently elected Florence Piver as the national vice-president. Telegrams were received by Nancy Ridgeway and Janet Ewart inviting them to become members of the Chimes organization. The Laura Arkell Platt Scholarship award of $550 was received by Paula Hinkly for the expenses of her senior year.

Social engagements of the fraternity for spring semester included exchanges with  $\Sigma X$ ,  $\Sigma A E$ ,  $\Delta T \Delta$ , and  $K A$ . Ruth Dunley was selected attendant to the  $\Sigma \Phi E$  Valentine Queen.

After the impressive initiation ceremony in March the semiannual banquet was held for the new actives, and an initiation party followed at the home of Betty Cassidy.

March 5 "Presents" was held for the new pledges. The girls wore white formals and were introduced formally by Gamma Chapter to the University as the new additions to Pi Beta Phi.

PLEDGED: DeEtte Bates, Pasadena; June Bonanan, Burbank; Shirley Conroy, Los Angeles; Flavie Craft, Glendale; Diane D'Aule, Los Angeles; Terry Von der Ashe, Los Angeles; Maralee Walter, Los Angeles; Virginia Witmer, Santa Ana; Marcia Woodward, Los Angeles.

With beach weather almost here and snow still in the mountains, the girls are busy with many activities and good times.

First important event of the semester which climaxed a successful week of rushing was the pledging of eight wonderful girls; again Pi Beta Phi swept the row. Pledging ceremony was followed by the traditional cooky-shine and the presentation of the girls which ended a very important and exciting day for every one.

An informal get-together for dinner is planned for the pledges and their sponsors. This is a somewhat traditional function for the chapter and eagerly looked forward to by all the new pledges' "mothers."

Plans are underway in the Theater Arts department with the big production "Dark of the Moon" with Barbara McCann in the leading role. This year's college musical consisting of all student talent is strongly supported by Nancy Peterson, executive secretary. Southern Campus, the year book, will be highly publicized under the supervision of Peggy Burbank, publicity chairman.

Outstanding events of the Spring semester for which plans are being made are such things as the Delta Ball which is given annually with  $\Sigma A E$  this year to be held in Palm Springs; the Spring Sing; the Father-Daughter dinner which always proves to be so successful; the Senior farewell dinner; Founders' Day with the Gamma chapter; and exchanges with various fraternities including barbecues, dinners, and swimming parties.

Excitement rings throughout the house when Monday night serenades arrive. This semester the  $K \Sigma$  and  $\Phi K \Psi$  already have lined the patio and filled the air with melodic sweetheart songs.

Climaxing this semester, was the initiation dance in the Terrace Room of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel. An orchestra and refreshments combined with the happiness of the special occasion to make the evening a very special one.

The Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club of Santa Barbara had a bridge party in March; the profits went to the chapter.

Santa Barbara enjoyed an Air Show on February 25 and the chapter was delighted to have Kris Johannesen, one of the new pledges, chosen to reign over it as queen. Also another pledge, Marie Fowley, and an active member, Gloria Brittain, were selected as princesses on the court.

The college play, "All My Sons" was presented in early March. Claire Maher, one of the chapter members, had a leading part. Claire was also chosen as Relays Queen for the spring track meet.

California Z was honored by a visit from Lolita Snell Prouty, the Grand Treasurer, in April.

The chapter also became co-sponsors with the  $K Z$  fraternity for the support of a Greek orphan in Europe. The girls are setting aside a small amount of their own allowances for his benefit.

The outcome of the college scholarship rating for a Greek organization on campus was a thrill for the chapter. California Z ranked highest among sororities on the combined Active-Pledge scholarship list and highest for scholarship among the sorority pledges.

Arizona A's returned from a Christmas vacation to find the board of regents had named a new president to succeed Pres. J. Byron McCormick in June. The new president is Dr. Richard A. Harvill, now dean of the College of Liberal Arts. Pres. McCormick announced early in December he would resign in June to return to teaching law.

Before the second semester, the Pi Beta Phi houseboys had a turn-about night. After making the girls wait on them and wash the dishes, the boys awarded prizes, such as a toy shovel and hoe to the biggest eater. The new officers were given beautiful corsages of grapefruit and parsley.

President Vir Jenkins suggested a chapter slumber party between semesters. All the Tucson girls joined those living in the house for cocoa, popcorn balls and apples at midnight.

On February 9, Arizona A's gave a "shower party" for the  $K A \Theta$ 's. It was a thank-you party for the use of their showers during first semester rush when the Pi Beta Phi bathroom was being rebuilt.

Second semester rush was delayed two weeks so the sororities could know the grade averages of the rushees in the University first semester. After an open house tea, there was only one round of parties before preference. Formal pledging was climaxed by a cooky-shine February 27.

The annual Pi Beta Phi barn dance was held at Mt. Lemmon Lodge February 23. All the girls and their dates were dressed in western shirts, hats and levis.

On the night of the Desert Dance, the University of Arizona basketball team won the Border Conference championship for the sixth straight year. By this victory over the University of New Mexico, the team won the automatic bid to the NCAA playoffs in Kansas City, Mo., in March. Arizona also received a bid to the NIT tourney in New York City. The university is proud of its team, 11th in the nation, according to an Associated Press poll in late February.

After initiation all the actives and new initiates went to the Alvarado Hotel for a luxurious banquet. After dinner some of the chapter officers and Mrs. Granum, advisory board chairman, gave short talks welcoming the new actives into the chapter. Awards were given to the new initiates concerning grades and improvement.

New Mexico A and the K Σ fraternity had an Easter Egg Hunt for fifty orphans living here in Albuquerque.

Among recent officers elected to campus organizations are: Joann McNay, social chairman for Φ Γ N, business sorority; Sue Sutton, vice-president for the Press club and also publicity manager for Dorm D; Elaine Jackson, secretary-treasurer for the group petitioning Θ Σ Φ, journalism sorority; Marjorie Helper, vice-president for the Campus party, a political group; Marjorie Funkhouser, secretary-treasurer for the Boots and Saddles Club.

New Mexico A was honored on May 7 and 8 by a visit from Mrs. Lolita Prouty, Grand Treasurer. She was an inspiration to the chapter as well as to the Alumnae club to whom she talked.

After many rehearsals and a try-out the week before, the all university Stunt Night, sponsored by Mostar Board, was held in March. The chapter used a Scotch theme centered on a young lad who goes away to war and comes back to the finale of "Auld Lang Syne."

The Mothers' club sold benefit tickets to help pay for the furniture for the new addition to the chapter lodge, which we hope to have by the fall semester of 1951. The pledges sold the most tickets so the actives reciprocated by giving them a picnic in the Sandia mountains.

This year Panhellenic Council combined with the Interfraternity Council and had a dance. This was the first time the two dances were combined.

The annual Triad Dance with the K A Θ's, and the K K I's was held on May 19 at the Country Club. Miniature mugs with the individual sorority crests on them were given to the escorts as favors.

On World Conditions:

"This spirit of give and take in opinions is lacking in the United Nations today."

"In a sense, the war is endless," continued the speaker. "Understanding among men, sympathy and unselfishness are not yet won." The stumbling block in "the road to peace is selfishness, which leads to greed and covetousness."—HONORABLE E. K. WILLIAMS, Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench of the Province of Manitoba, in an address before the annual convention of Alpha Epsilon Pi

Today our nation is involved in a struggle toward improved human relationship and the challenge of civil rights cannot go unheeded by groups who have as much influence in our social pattern as the college fraternity can have. The solution is not one easy to come by and cannot be reached by hasty, ill-considered action. We are generations away from achieving a final answer to the challenge. Unfortunately, one of the greatest difficulties in our study and consideration of a problem of this kind is the dominance of fear in our approach. Surely groups such as ours, conceived in the ideal of working harmoniously and dedicated to intensifying friendships and to fostering a spirit of love, can make a contribution against world distrust. At least we can give our own members such a strong feeling of security and loyalty that each will work as she has the opportunity against world distrust and hate.—HELEN REICH, Assistant Dean of Students at the University of Iowa in Themis of Zeta Tau Alpha of us and those who will keep Democracy alive, the Democracy that we know and appreciate. And let me emphasize that of those college men who will constitute the bulk of the leadership of this nation tomorrow, the greater percentage will be fraternity men. You men, whether you know it or not, are the hope of America. Don't take that statement lightly. You are on the threshold of a great adventure. You are the promise of this great country of North America. Wherever you are enrolled in classes, wherever may be your alma mater, there you are engaged in building for the tomorrow that will but emphasize that great word 'Democracy.'

"The destiny of our democracy is in your keeping. You must guard it well. You must nourish it constantly. You must cherish it forever."—SAM C. BULLOCK, Grand Consul of Sigma Chi, in an address before the Leadership School of Sigma Alpha Epsilon

As college women you should mobilize all of your resources to build a better world order. You should stimulate a greater awareness of the moral principles of life and thereby help to create a world-wide moral environment so necessary for the improvement of today's international scene.

World problems will be solved only on the moral—the spiritual level. You will never be able to reconstruct the world, to build a new order until you eliminate humanity's indifference to the basic issues.—FRANCES NORENE AHL, in The Angelos of Kappa Delta

NEW HAVEN

In September the young girls in the area were introduced to the true  $\Pi B \Phi$  spirit at a rush party, the first New Haven Alumnae Club meeting of the year. The second meeting in October was equally inspired and inspiring as our president, Louise Wilkin, thrilled us with an account of her experiences as our delegate to convention.

Our Settlement School sale followed in November at the home of Mrs. Earl Roberts. Smaller individual sales had been held at the homes of other members with the result that the wonderful  $\Pi B \Phi$  articles have made many new friends.

Christmas and the December meeting are fast becoming a tradition. This year, with Rudolph, the red nosed reindeer as a theme, members were guided on their way through an evening of laughter, carols, and games. Gifts for the Settlement School children were collected and favors of green filled sleighs were distributed. With strains of "My Pi Phi Girl" and "Silent Night" still ringing in our ears we looked forward to our next meeting.

In February "King Constitution" reigned supreme, with Mildred Ingram conducting a hilarious quiz contest.

At our March meeting our speaker was Miss Edith Wing, authority on stenciling; and our Founders' Day meeting was a mystery covered dish supper in April.

ALYCE FENN O'HARA

MONTREAL

The Montreal Alumnae Club is continuing an interesting and busy year. For our February meeting we were very fortunate in having Margaret McLeod, Canadian poet, give us a very interesting talk on "Contemporary Canadian Poets."

In March our speaker was Mr. G. M. Hutt, Geologist, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and his topic was "Canada Unlimited."

In April the club, as usual, observed Founders' Day with a special Founders' Day luncheon.

Again this year the club was able to endow a bed at the Children's Memorial Hospital. Money was raised in various ways; through raffles, auctions, swap service, bridge marathons, Christmas card sales, and parties.

MRS. HUGH H. GOSNELL

PORTLAND, MAINE

A special informal meeting of the Portland Club was held in August at the home of Ruth Brinnick to honor former club members and guests, who were: Etelle Sawyer Carlson, Berkeley, California, Mariam Holden Doane, Arlington Heights, Illinois, and Virginia Winslow Besse, formerly of Portland. The hostess gave an informal report on Jasper Park Convention.

At the first regular meeting for the year, held in September at the home of Virginia Sturgis, the program for the year was presented. A rummage sale was held in October, the proceeds exceeding $50. The October meeting, held at the home of Helene Daniels, was devoted to business and plans for the annual Arrow Craft tea, held in November, and the Christmas party, held at Emma Ledger's, at which time gifts were wrapped for the Settlement School.

Proceeds from the silver collection at the tea were sent to the support of a Greek child.

The February meeting was held at Virginia Manchester's and the program was devoted to the active chapters in Alpha East Province. Letters from several of the chapters were read. A cooky-shine was held at the close of the meeting.

At the March meeting election of officers for the coming year was scheduled as well as the selection of the winner of the award given annually by the club to the outstanding sophomore in the province.

Founders' Day luncheon and the annual May picnic completed the plans for the year.

ALBANY

With the Christmas season over, the Albany Alumnae Club began the New Year with its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Rushton. New York Alumnae told about life on the Cornell campus, then and now.

The bridge luncheon in February and the white elephant sale in March were successful and enjoyable events.

Pi Beta Phis were much interested in the February Panhellenic meeting. There were four speakers, Mrs. Paul French, the National President of Kappa Alpha Theta, who talked on city Panhellenics, and three speakers from the AWVS, Air Raid Filter Center, and the Red Cross, respectively, who talked on what fraternity women could do to help the defense effort.

HUDSON RIVER

At one of the most interesting meetings of the Hudson River Alumnae Club, Lorine Pruette, Tennessee A, explained the art of book reviewing to the other members, using as her example the recently published "My Six Convicts" by Donald Powell Wilson.

The Founders' Day luncheon this year was held at Leighton's Woodland Lake Restaurant on the Saw Mill River Parkway. Betty Meininger Miller was chairman of the affair.

Pi Beta Phi was well represented at the annual luncheon of the Westchester Board of Women's National Fraternities at the Orienta Beach Club in Mamaroneck. Mrs. Albert C. Purkis, Alpha Phi, former Secretary of National Panhellenic, was the speaker. She spoke on what Panhellenic is doing in the college to promote a better understanding of fraternities and what it is doing to fight Communism. Margery Schieber Silk is to be the new delegate to the Westchester Board from this chapter.

RUTH DAGGETT NOYES

LONDON

The February meeting of the London Alumnae Club was held at the home of Dorothy Allen Burns. The meeting opened with a sale by auction of articles remaining from the bazaar held in December at the fraternity. As a result of this auction, a further contribution was made to the active chapter fund. Following the auction, the hostess gave a most interesting report on her visit to Convention highlighted by a scrapbook containing pictures and souvenirs of Convention.

Donald Graham Smith lent her home for the March meeting which was devoted to discussion of a Canadian project. In April the alumnae club celebrated Founders' Day with the active chapter at the chapter house.

The annual graduation tea in June to honour the graduating active members is always an enjoyable event.

EVELYN MCKELLAR MACKICHAN

NEW YORK

The New York Alumnae Club held its first meeting of 1951 at the home of Peggy Katzenberg, January 13. It was a most successful meeting, having the largest attendance to date, with the exception of Founders' Day. A very interesting talk about the Arts and Crafts at the Settlement School was given by Harriet Rauch, illustrated by the wonderful pictures she had from Gatlinburg.

A card party and White Elephant Sale, held at the Beekman Tower Panhellenic Club Room, was the scene for the February meeting. Both bridge and canasta were played and the White Elephants, which each member had brought unwrapped, were auctioned off later in the evening by Anne Logan. This was held as a benefit for the club's Treasury.

ANNE LOGAN

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

The Madison group was hostess for the January meeting at the home of Marjorie Hart Mason. Following the buffet luncheon, Loyalty Day was observed by a short study on the life of Carrie Chapman Catt. "Color" was the subject of the speaker Eloise Wright Clark, a member of the club.

Group meetings were held in February in place of the general meeting. This was an innovation in an effort to interest women who find it inconvenient to attend the meetings out of their vicinity. Each group reported a large attendance and many new women were contacted.

Mrs. Luther Scull, Madison, spoke on "The United Nations," at the March meeting, at the home of Eloise Clark in Westfield.

The evening group, which is composed of younger women, presented the program at the Founders' Day banquet, April 26, at Pierre's in East Orange. The annual meeting will be held in May in Montclair.

RUTH SULLIVAN PHILIPS (Mrs. HAROLD K.)

POUGHKEEPSIE

Poughkeepsie Alumnae Club met in January at the home of Elizabeth Jackson. The members were very much interested in hearing the letter from Settlement School about dyes and the weaving of aighans.

On February 21 we had nine Pi Beta Phis present at the home of Helen Wilson, one of our newer members. We voted to send a gift of $10 to New York F, and contributions of $10 to Settlement School and $5 each to Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund.

ELISABETH OSBORNE HADDEN

ROCHESTER

The Rochester Alumnae Club was fortunate in having Mr. Charles Rumrill, husband of Janice Clark Rumrill and former National President of Theta Delta Chi fraternity, speak to the club on "Fraternity Problems Today" at the March meeting which was held at the home of Whitney Smith Scofield.

The Founders' Day luncheon was held at Monroe Golf Club in April and was enjoyed by a large group.

The monthly meetings of the Bridge Club continue to be well-attended by primarily the younger members. The proceeds of these meetings go to the Settlement School.

SCHENECTADY

The January meeting of the Schenectady Alumnae Club was held January 18 at the home of Mrs. Carter Davidson, wife of the president of Union College. A very interesting program celebrating Loyalty Day followed the business meeting. Katherine Tuttle spoke on the life of Carrie Chapman Catt. Carol Henderson Hiatt gave an inspirational poem of Pi Beta Phi. A quiz on the Constitution of Pi Beta Phi followed.

On February 16 the club enjoyed a dessert bridge with their husbands at the home of Flower Sheldon Buhrmaster.

A cooky-shine was the highlight of the March meeting at Virginia Newkirk Cain's home. An election of officers was held.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April with a luncheon at the Edison Club. Mrs. Fred Archibald, Province Vice-President gave an interesting talk on our Founders.

In May, the annual breakfast was held at the home of Vera Bowling Hutton and was greatly enjoyed by all.

MARY DOYLE MATTHEWS

SYRACUSE

The Syracuse Alumnae Club has only held two meetings since the date of our last letter January 10.

A luncheon meeting and get together was held in January at Edwards tea room.

The February meeting was held at the new home of Estelle Hillegas at #512 Brattle Road. At this meeting Ruth Spriggs reviewed very delightfully several New York plays.

Plans are under way for a Settlement School sale and tea to be held on March 28 at the chapter house, our first large sale in many years. Rosella Bellinger is chairman, and she has a very active helpful committee.

CHARLOTTE N. CHAFFEE

TORONTO

Since Christmas, the Toronto Alumnae Club has been preparing for a major change in its organization. Instead of four separate executive committees, handling different types of affairs, the club has decided to consolidate and elect one strong executive committee which will handle all the club business.

At a special meeting on February 8 at the home of Clayton Callaway Burton, the alumnae met, heard reports and recommendations, and discussed thoroughly the methods of reorganization, including the new plan to take over the chapter house and manage the residential and financial aspects of it. At the same meeting, the four convenors for the 1952 bazaar were announced, and the meeting concluded with refreshments.

As always, the alumnae are looking forward to the June garden party when they meet with the active chapter and welcome the new graduates into the club. Crested silver spoons will be presented to the graduates and they will attend their first alumnae meeting after an informal supper in the garden.

MARY ALICE STUART

WESTCHESTER

In January, Grace Bradford Bonnet of Bronxville opened her home for the chapter Loyalty Day luncheon meeting. Through the courtesy of the Dupont Company, we were able to secure the play back recordings of "The Flame," a play based on the life of Carrie Chapman Catt, starring Helen Hayes. Many of us have had the opportunity to read the script for the play, so it was especially enjoyable to hear it just as it was done on the Cavalcade of America's program some years ago.

The March meeting was held at the home of Norma Mark Sherman in Pelham. After luncheon and the business meeting we were privileged to hear a talk by Miss Muriel Batchelder from the Adult Circulation Department of the Mt. Vernon Library.

Plans are under way to provide a typewriter for use in the new secretarial course being offered at the Settlement School. Westchester alumnae feel that is one small way we can help in this project they have undertaken.

AKRON

Chapter loyalty was the theme of our January luncheon meeting at Akron Woman's City Club. Harriet Roth Zook was chairman. The program featured a reading by Florence Nicholson Whitney and several songs by Mary Ann Boscoff.

A local hair stylist spoke at our February meeting. He gave the members tips on their personal appearance and made suggestions for the care of their children's hair.

Election of officers was held in March. Hostess chairman for this meeting was Lucille Gillivan Ewart who also conducted a successful rummage sale January 20.

Eileen Dize Holmquist arranged our Founders' Day luncheon at Congress Lake Country Club, Hartville. Velva De Moss Shortz, Beta Province Vice-President, was the speaker.

Frances Pickrell Brown will entertain the club at her home for the May meeting and installation of officers. She will be assisted by Phyllis Williams Custer.

The alumnae are planning to attend the annual Panhellenic dance in May. One of our members, Jane Nelson Heston is general chairman.

JANE AMER WOLF

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

Central Pennsylvania Alumnae Club held its annual cooky-shine on February 14 at Hunt Hall, Bucknell University. There were fifty active members of Pennsylvania B and eleven alumnae members present. Decorations were of wine carnations tied with blue ribbons, lemon leaves, and arrow-shaped cookies which spelled out the Greek letters, Π Β Φ.

March 20 the club was entertained with a tea at Edith Kelly Fetherston's home, Packwood House, in Lewisburg. Mrs. Fetherston's paintings, which have been included in many exhibits in the East, and her antiques were of great interest to everyone present.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a dinner at the Lewisburg Inn with Pennsylvania B active chapter members and alumnae members attending.

Now we are looking forward to Symposium on June 9 with Dr. Mary B. Harris as Symposiarch. Dr. Harris has spent the winter in Cyprus, Turkey, Egypt, and other points of interest in the Near East.

MARION MORRIS CUTHBERTSON

CLEVELAND EAST

On Valentine's Day, the club enjoyed hearing Ruth Spaeth, Cleveland News Home Economist, on "Hobbies and Fun," at the home of Ruth Carney DeLong.

March 14, Leah Gentle Staples opened her home to a meeting successfully designed to get the members better acquainted. "Absurdity and Tomfoolery" was directed by Katherine Parsley Andert, Program Chairman.

There was standing room only April 4, Cleveland East's night at "Lost In the Stars," performed at the internationally known Karamu little theater. Helen Northway Prestien was chairman of this project.

An inspiring talk was given by the Fraternity National Historian, Marian Keck Simmons, at the Founders' Day celebration April 28, in Higbee's Auditorium.

Helen Northway Prestien is to be the hostess for the spring business meeting May 9; and the club is looking forward to "Summer Breezes," a style show to be given by Sterling Lindner, Davis at the joint meeting with the Junior Auxiliary June 12 at the home of Louise Ryan Hopkins.

CLEVELAND

Cleveland Alumnae Club West went "traveling" in February as Miss Dorothy Rupp shared with us her adventures as an Exchange Teacher in Paris. Miss Rupp, a member of the faculty of the Lakewood Emerson Junior High School, intrigued the members with her comments about the little French students that she grew to know during the year.

Just in time for spring house-cleaning and face-lifting, Mr. J. L. Hecht, prominent Lakewood Decorator, visited the club to give the members some new ideas for their homes.

This year Cleveland West was in charge of the annual Founders' Day Luncheon which is customarily commemorated jointly with Cleveland Alumnae Club East. Marian Keck Simmons, National Historian, delighted all with her "Inside Story" of Pi Beta Phi's Founders.

COLUMBUS

The very bitter weather prevented a great many from attending Loyalty Day meeting in January. Helen Wilson gave an excellent talk and read two very pertinent poems. Holt House movies were shown and a commentary given.

Mr. Daniel W. Johnson, a special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, spoke at our February meeting. Table tickets were passed out for our benefit games party to be held April 6.

In April a real old fashioned cooky-shine was our meeting. Rhea McCarty Ahn is the new executive secretary of the Ohio Development and Publicity Commission. Quoting from the Cleveland "Plain Dealer," her main job is selling Ohio. The Development Commission secretaryship in salary and prestige is a top state appointment, the very top among women office holders. And the other day this amazingly energetic woman took another job, this one without pay, coordinator of women's affairs for Ohio Civil Defense.

MARJORIE W. DORSH

ELKINS

The Elkins Alumnae Club had a meeting in January at the home of Maxine Rightmire. Dona Dean gave a report on the activities.

FAIRMONT

Rushing was the keynote of the August meeting of the Fairmont, West Virginia, Alumnae Club. Potential rushees from all over the county gathered at the lakeside cabin of Edith Ann MacMillan Wilson, W.Va. A at Rock Lake. The all-day party included boating, swimming, outdoor games, and a huge picnic supper on the terrace.

The September meeting featured the Convention report given by delegate Helen Poole VanFleet, W.Va. A. A regular convention goer, she attended the convention with her husband and her report was a vivid account.

Ada Lee Rodgers, W.Va. A and Mary Eleanor Shingleton, W.Va. A were co-hostesses for the November meeting which included a lecture on flower arranging by Mrs. Edward Manigault, authority on the subject.

A contribution of $100 was made to the West Virginia A

CHAPEL HILL

The Chapel Hill Alumnae Club held its February dessert meeting at the home of Mrs. Harriet Caldwell. The active chapter had its initiation banquet the same night, so members attending it were able to give a full report on those activities.

Our delegate to the past Convention, Mrs. Edith Baker Giduz, gave an interesting account of her trip to Jasper Park and of the meetings which she attended. A clever little quiz program was arranged to bring out questions and answers on the Constitution. The master of ceremonies asked questions in riddle form with each member answering in her turn. It really acted as a refresher course along with providing a bit of humor. Various money making plans were rediscovered, but are still in the category of being organized.

RICHMOND

(May L. Keller Club)

The Spring program for the May L. Keller Club has been most interesting.

The club was especially pleased to have as dinner guests, in February, a large group of actives from Virginia Gamma Chapter. This meeting was held at the new A.A.U.W. House, of which Marjorie Rivenburg is president, and resulted in a much closer relationship with our nearest active chapter.

In March, the members were guests for a supper meeting with Elizabeth Kates at the State Industrial Farm for Women. Betty is doing an outstanding job as superintendent of the Institution. This year, both Virginia A and Gamma Chapters have taken out club memberships in the Elizabeth Kates Foundation, which was started by the Richmond Club to assist Betty Kates in the educational rehabilitation of the women prisoners. The membership of the Foundation now numbers approximately 500.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

The Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club held its first luncheon meeting of the new year early in January at the home of Beverly Grier Douglas. The annual White Elephant Sale proved both amusing and profitable with Marnie Gardner Christiansen acting as auctioneer. During the business meeting and the remainder of the afternoon members sewed for the American Cancer Society.

Despite the sleet and ice covered roads quite a number managed to gather at Dorothy King Bull's home for an evening meeting in February. Dessert was served and a brief business meeting held followed by tables of bridge and canasta.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the luncheon meeting in March at the home of Mary Jane Kinnison Werner.

The Bloomfield Hills group and their husbands were invited to join the various Detroit clubs for a Valentine Frolic at a nearby country club. Those who were able to attend reported a most enjoyable evening of dancing.

Another opportunity to meet other Pi Beta Phi groups was the Founders' Day Luncheon held at Lansing on April 28, a state wide gathering attended by several hundred Pi Phis.

The year will close with our annual June picnic to be held at the lovely country home of Betty Jackson Shaffner.

On January 27 they assisted in the colorful International Institute Folk Ball, the motif "History of Detroit," honoring the 250 anniversary of the founding of the city of Detroit. We are now making plans for our annual Senior tea, honoring graduating seniors from Maryland B and D.C. A.

YVONNE NEAL SHAW

WILMINGTON

The Wilmington Alumnae Club has the largest number of paid members in the brief life of the club. We have had an unusually fine attendance at meetings. But more important than any figures, is the fact that we are really knowing and enjoying each other. This we consider a major accomplishment for the year 1950 and 1951.

Our club interests are the usual ones, February 19 we met for a benefit bridge at the home of Ruth Bohn Berchet. At our March meeting Annie O'Brien spoke to the group on "Recollections of the Swarthmore National Convention of 1910." We are convention minded since Jasper, looking back at the past and forward to the future. Another feature was a White Elephant Sale, a benefit given for our convention fund.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a dinner at the Hotel du Pont.

DOROTHY FORD

Lansing, on Saturday, April 28. The happy circumstance of having the luncheon on the actual date of founding, and of having our Grand President, Miss Onken, as speaker, was felt, successful in bringing a record number from all over the State.

The Annual Meeting and Installation of Officers, will be held June 2, at Botsford Inn.

MRS. M. A. GUENIN

FORT WAYNE

By the time 1951 rolled around, we had added twelve new members to our club. Each was presented in a quiz show fashion by our membership chairman, Mrs. W. E. Thornton.

Our activities this year have been numerous and well attended. In September we entertained our husbands with a potluck and square dance. In October we made $70 from a rummage sale, and held a tea to display and take orders for products from Settlement School. During the holidays, we entertained actives, home for vacation, with a luncheon at the Woman's Club. At our January meeting, we held a raffle with the prize purchased from Settlement School. Mrs. Green honored us with a visit in February. She gave a most interesting talk on the highlights from Convention.

In January the group had a constitutional meeting, at the same time honoring Carrie Chapman Catt. During the program we were reminded of the many things that add to our loyalty to Pi Beta Phi.

We held a joint meeting with the Hammond group in March. In April we celebrated Founders' Day by seeing the

MRS. MARCUS E. SHARPE

LANSING-EAST LANSING

Another successful rummage sale was held on April 18, but our big event in that month was the third annual Michigan State Founders' Day Banquet held here in East Lansing. We were extremely honored to have as our guest speaker our Grand President, Amy Burnham Onken, and pleased to be hostesses to so many Pi Beta Phis from all over the state. In May the alumnae entertained the graduating seniors for breakfast at the home of Mary Jackson Tranter. A family picnic in June will close another successful year.

DEE JANE BATEMAN AUGUSTUS

MUNCIE

The Muncie Alumnae Club has grown from twelve members to seventeen members this year. We are continuing to meet once a month.

Our alumnae club has offered their services as chaperones for the activities for the Teenagers at the Y.W.C.A. There are so many things these youngsters would like to do but because of the lack of chaperones it has been impossible.

Helen Anderson Lewis, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training was in Muncie early in February and we met with her for coffee at the home of our president. The following week, Virginia Brackett Green, our Province Vice President paid us a visit and we heard all about convention. We really feel honored to have had two national officers visit us this year.

Thelma Weddel Freark, formerly head of the home economics department at Haskell Institute, gave a sewing demonstration at the February meeting at the home of Eugenia Owen Banks. A blouse which she made at that time was sold to raise funds for fraternity projects.

QUEEN SMITH

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

History wrapped up in various shapes and sizes was the underlying theme of the winter and spring meetings of the Kansas City, Missouri, Alumnae Club.

In January, the history of Pi Beta Phi took the spotlight as two teams composed of two actives from Missouri A and two alumnae club members presented a Pi Beta Phi version of "Information Please" assisted by moderator, Dorothy Roth Wilson.

History of a more personal nature formed a very delightful subject for the February program when Mrs. E. J. Goetz appeared with a wedding trunk and trousseau of the 1850's and told the true and fascinating story of her grandmother's elopement.

The March meeting featured History, European, as Betsy Phelan gave a very colorful account of her recent trip to Europe.

In the fashion-wise spirit of April, everyone arrived at the Founders' Day buffet supper in a "Come As You Were in College" costume, a nostalgic bit of fashion history that certainly brought back memories.

BARBARA KELLOGG

LOUISVILLE

The Louisville Alumnae Club has a year of good programs and excellent attendance. The February meeting was at the chapter house. A white elephant sale added over $40 to the treasury and was lots of fun. In March the meeting was held at the home of Nancy Millard. Patricia Tafel told of her three month tour of Mexico and the western United States.

In April the Louisville Club enjoyed a visit from Mrs. George Hagee, Director of Extension, who was guest speaker at the Founders' Day Luncheon at the Audubon Country Club. Adele Bushmeyer was in charge of the luncheon and it was a lovely affair indeed. Again in April the regular monthly meeting was held at the chapter house. The Holt House movie was shown and officers for the coming year were elected.

Hazel Johnson was hostess to the club for the May meeting. The new officers were installed. In June the alumnae club will entertain the graduating seniors of Kentucky A chapter at a picnic at Gayle Caufield's home in Anchorage.

BARBARA T. WILLIAMS

NASHVILLE

Instead of having our regular meeting in December we gave a Christmas party at the chapter house for a group of underprivileged children. They played games and had refreshments after which Santa Claus presented each child with a stocking filled with fruit, nuts, and toys. This was a joint party—we decorated the tables and were in charge of refreshments while the actives were responsible for the entertainment.

Our Founders' Day banquet was held at the Belle Meade Country Club. A highlight of the banquet was the burning of the mortgage on our chapter house. The theme carried throughout the program was our eleventh year pointing upward—what we had accomplished in the past and what we hoped to do in the future. After the scholarship and activity awards were presented, we had a candle lighting ceremony for the national founders and also for the founders of Tennessee Beta.

This year our main project was the "Pi Phi Hoedown" which was such a big success last year. The Hoedown, which took place on May 9, featured square dancing, a contest in which a Hillbilly King and Queen were chosen from representatives of all sororities and fraternities on Vanderbilt campus, and a booth with Settlement School goods. Our beneficiary again this year was the Pediatrical Surgical Ward at Vanderbilt Hospital. Our proceeds from the Hoedown enabled the hospital to buy necessary equipment for this ward. We felt that since we were a fraternity group and were closely associated with Vanderbilt that such a project would better the fraternity-university relations not only locally but nationally. While we had the main responsibility for this project, the Mothers' Club and the Active Chapter worked with us to promote it. The Mothers' Club helped with ticket sales and this year they had an attractive booth for displaying and selling Settlement School goods. The Active Chapter had representatives on the Ticket, Advertising and Presentation Committees and also helped in the planning of the Hillbilly King and Queen Contest.

At the end of May we are going to give a banquet for all graduating seniors. We will take this opportunity to tell them something about the Alumnae Club. We hope in this way to interest them in alumnae work so that they will want to continue their fellowship in Pi Phi when they leave school.

ATLANTA

The Atlanta Alumnae Club placed in the upper third in ticket selling for two light opera performances presented by the Atlanta Opera Guild, and sponsored by the Atlanta Panhellenic Association, in January of this year.

The January meeting, held at the home of Donata Horn Cassels, took the club on a mythical trip through the Settlement School. Ethel Gillespie Smith presented a narrative on Marjorie Chalmers, the nurse at Jennie Nicol Memorial Health Center. Each member was shown how to fold an illustrated place mat of the Settlement School for mailing.

Monthly bridge meetings have raised funds for the club's local project, the Atlanta Child's Home, for which linens are supplied.

Monthly birthday parties are also being sponsored for the children. Marian Burmeister Armistead and Charlotte Starr Bagley were in charge of the February party.

The February meeting was a question and answer program on the Constitution, with original material prepared by Dorothy McCranie Woods.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mary Elizabeth Akeroyd. The yearly benefit bridge was held at the Y.W.C.A. and the goods from the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School were displayed and sold. After the meeting Mrs. John Quillion spoke to the club on the subject "French Culinary."

The Junior section of the club enjoyed a bridge party in February. A square dance was planned by the Juniors in January to help raise funds to redecorate the active chapter room; however, the dance was postponed because of heavy snows and ice and took place March 30. It proved to be a popular and merry affair.

Founders' Day banquet was held April 25.

SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI

A program welcoming the June graduates is on tab for our meeting in May. We again plan to have summer meetings.

DE LAND

During the winter we have held our monthly meetings in the evening and they have been well attended.

The actives of Florida A joined us one evening when plans had been made to show the Settlement School films. Unfortunately we found the rolls too large to fit on any projector available. Several had visited the school, however, and gave brief talks on it which we all enjoyed. We hope to have the films returned.

At our March meeting we gave a kitchen shower for Florida A and had the pleasure of having their officers with us for part of the time. The meeting was held in the suite of Florida A in the Panhellenic Building.

We observed Founders' Day with Florida A. Our last scheduled meeting is in June.

JACKSONVILLE

The Jacksonville Alumnae Club has continued to hold monthly morning and evening meetings, for its professional members, with very good attendance at each. In January the club had the privilege of showing the excellent films of the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, and in February the film on Holt House was shown. These meetings were two of the most popular of the season and the club is unanimous in its praise of these well prepared movies. They have done a great deal toward bringing these two worthwhile Pi Beta Phi projects closer to all of us.

Jacksonville, with the other Florida alumnae clubs, worked toward, and eagerly looked forward to, the Florida Pi Phi State Day held in Orlando April 21. At this time we were honored in having Miss Amy B. Onken present with us as a source of inspiration on our Founders' Day program. This State Day brought together Pi Beta Phi actives and alumnae from all over Florida for our first state meeting in ten years.

MIAMI

Our February meeting was made interesting by the showing of colored pictures of Holt House. The club was happy to welcome several out of town Pi Beta Phi winter visitors to Miami.

On Saturday, April 21, a Florida Pi Phi Day was held at Orlando, Florida, Miss Onken was the principal speaker. We are sure all Florida clubs, as well as the active chapters, profited by the exchange of ideas.

The second event in the life of the Miami Club, was the club's twenty-fifth birthday celebrated at our Founders' Day luncheon, Saturday, April 28. A special tribute was made to all of the past presidents, and a short history of the club reviewed.

Election of officers for the coming year will be held at the March meeting.

JEAN WOOD BRAY

MOBILE

The Mobile Alumnae Club held a regular monthly meeting on March 1 at the home of Ann Lersheure. This meeting was particularly important because it was decided that a Founders' Day luncheon would be held jointly with the Pensacola Alumnae. The Grand Hotel at Fairhope, Alabama, was the place, the day, of course, April 28. A short meeting was held after lunch in the Sky Lounge.

Our project for the year is in helping the local Red Cross, particularly the Blood Bank which needs workers at this crucial time.

BARBARA OUTLAW

ORLANDO

Several months ago a raffle of two Settlement School articles (an afghan and a luncheon set) was held within the club. The proceeds from the sale went to Florida B to assist them in purchasing a much needed radio phonograph.

Each year the Panhellenic Association in Orlando sponsors a special benefit project to raise funds for the Panhellenic Scholarship. This year the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club is chairman of the project and will be assisted by the Kappa Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae in Orlando and Winter Park. It is tentatively planned that the project this year should be a dance to be given in June.

JOAN HISCOCK GUERNSEY

PENSACOLA

The Pensacola Alumnae Club was organized at a Morning Coffee held during the Christmas holidays in December 1949. Under the capable leadership of Maxine Hengst Hufford, president, we had a successful first year. Our group of eighteen members achieved 100 per cent in paid memberships and contributions to National Projects.

A first organizational meeting was held in February 1949 at the home of Marjorie Atlee Patton Parks, Rushing Chairman, followed by a Founders' Day Luncheon at the Pensacola Yacht Club, and a meeting in June with Frances Dorchester Harrell. We gave a very successful rush party in September at the beautiful home of Katharine Casady Pace.

We planned six meetings on Saturday mornings during 1950-51, including two programs on History and Settlement School work, at the homes of Angeline McCaskill Levey and Helen Kennedy Gunn; the annual December Coffee at Maxine Hufford's; and a joint Founders' Day Luncheon with the Mobile Alumnae Club; ending the year with a meeting and a party for rushing. We are also sending used clothing to Vienna through Dr. Mecca Dought Varney, a Pi Beta Phi attached to the Allied Secretariat there.

FRANCES STRYKER MACPIKE

ST. PETERSBURG

The St. Petersburg Alumnae Club has had a fine attendance at meetings this year with several recent graduates being very active.

A cooky-shine preceded election of officers in March in the home of the president, Mary Smith. An interesting talk on architecture was given.

The state wide meeting in Orlando in April was naturally the high light of the year for all Florida Pi Beta Phis.

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA

Members of the Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club gathered in the home of Mrs. H. T. Willis for a meeting in November to see movies of Holt House. Plans were announced for the December 7 Settlement School sale which was held at the chapter house, and proved to be the most successful sale ever held by the group, in spite of the icy weather.

A business meeting was held at the chapter house in January during which time it was decided to ask Miss Lucile Adams, daughter of Mrs. Roger Adams, to become an honorary member of the sorority. Miss Adams was graduated from Mt. Holyoke College. The benefit bridge party, which was to have been held in January, had been postponed to March 27, Bess Hecker announced. This party will be held in the homes of two alumnae members, the proceeds of which will be given to the French child sponsored by the group.

This year of alumnae club activity has brought stimulating new interests in addition to good fellowship. Enthusiastically, we have watched our Settlement School sales increase under the direction of Mrs. Russell Colvin, seen a local Panhellenic group begin to take shape, and welcomed gladly the many new Pi Beta Phi members of our community. We have enjoyed meetings as diverse as a report on China and our annual pledge party held in March this year. April found us at the chapter house toasting the wine and blue with the active members, a cherished tradition. May brought a social evening with bridge as the program of the evening.

It is with pride that we note a Pi Beta Phi alumna, Helen C. Laird, Marshfield, Wisconsin, has been named to the University Board of Regents. She is the only woman member of this important group.

The January gathering commemorated the birthday of Carrie Chapman Catt.

The Women's Exchange is proving a success and display space has been enlarged. Students and townspeople realize this to be a Peoria need.

During the evening the active chapter entertained with songs which were enjoyed by all. The alumnae club presented the girls in the house with a beautiful brass fireplace set.

The Junior Auxiliary group held a white elephant sale March 29, at the Pi Beta Phi house, an evening filled with much sociability and entertainment, and adding many dollars to their treasury.

Panhellenic of the University of Washington held a tea in the new Student Union Building in April giving each group space to display their projects, with Pi Beta Phi Settlement School products being one of the most outstanding.

SPOKANE

The Spokane Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi held a most successful Valentine dance this month at the Spokane Hotel. This is a traditional affair with our group. We also held a buffet supper at our regular meeting this month. In March we had speakers from the local Salvation Army Hospital who told us about their home for unmarried mothers. This is the local project which we are trying to help this year.

Our alumnae group is happy over the fact that the daughter of one of our members, Shirley Reed, Washington Beta, daughter of Winifred Ealy Reed, Washington Beta, will be united in marriage on March 2, 1951, with Guy Perham, Beta Theta Pi, son of Dorothy Dorman Perham, Washington Beta, another of our members. This is indeed a family affair a la Pi Phi.

TACOMA, WASHINGTON

Inez Smith Soule

Our club has a paid membership of eighty-one alumnae. At the February meeting the guest speaker was Dr. John W. Phillips, professor at the College of Puget Sound. He talked with us on "Religion in the Home."

Timely was our March meeting with daffodils and spring flowers and a guest speaker from the garden club. She demonstrated some of her techniques in flower arrangements. Members brought their own flowers and containers, which made group participation fun for all.

We followed our usual custom in April and celebrated Founders' Day with the active Washington Gamma chapter. The program and banquet was held at the spacious Greenwood Manor estate on beautiful Steilacoom lake. Especially proud were we to have Myrta Soule Brown (Washington Gamma), enthusiastic member of our alumnae club, which is named after her mother Inez Smith Soule. To have the daughter of a founder, was especially inspiring to all of us.

JANICE A. STENSON

WENATCHEE

The Wenatchee Alumnae Club sponsored the play "First Lady" given by the Wenatchee Junior College drama students one evening in February. This was a new money making project for the club.

Our Founders' Day dinner in April was at the home of Wardine Fenton.

In May there is to be a picnic at the home of Nellie Wild on Lake Chelan for the members and their children.

BUCKY ALLEN NICHOLSON

YAKIMA

The Fannie Whitenack Libbey Alumnae Club has had several interesting meetings so far this year. We felt fortunate in having Miss June Whitnall speak of her trip to Tahiti. In February we had a white elephant sale and did very well on it. In March we held our valley meeting at Wapato and saw the colored movie of Holt House. There was a good representation of Pi Beta Phis at the Valentine Panhellenic luncheon held at the Yakima Country Club.

An additional pledge of $250 has been made to the Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital in memory of Marian Nelson.

ALBUQUERQUE

In January the club had the pleasure of a visit from Pi Beta Phi Anne Guthrie, who was in the city to speak under the auspices of four women's service clubs. Miss Guthrie's vivid discussion of the problems of several foreign countries with which she is well acquainted and her interpretations of United Nations proceedings were an inspiration to the alumnae who were able to hear her in this informal setting.

Early in March the alumnae enjoyed sharing with old and new members of New Mexico A the lovely initiation banquet honoring eighteen girls. That was a busy day, for Albuquerque Panhellenic had chosen the same date for its first annual spring fashion show and luncheon. Among the many attractive models were four Pi Beta Phis and working hard backstage was the fraternity representative. This gala event, a benefit for scholarships and for an addition to Albuquerque's civil defense equipment, was a sell out.

Alumnae gave full support to the local Mothers' Club's one major fund raising project which was a raffle with a goal of $2000 for the building fund. A commission arrangement with a local stationery and printing firm was added this year to the alumnae club's own money raising schemes.

RUTH W. LEWIS

BERKELEY

The outstanding event this spring for the Berkeley Alumnae Club was a dramatic reading and tea held at the Town and Gown Club on January 27. This was a repeat affair for the club as the same thing had been done last year. The club was fortunate to obtain again Miss Aurora Quiros from the University of California to give the reading. Special mention is due Harriet Roach and Vera Hansen for the success of the tea which followed the reading.

The alumnae club had charge of the initiation and banquet for the pledges that made their grades last semester. This event is enjoyed as much by the alumnae present as it is by the new initiates.

As is usual, the chapter house and the alumnae club celebrate Founders' Day together.

JOSEPHINE HARTZELL SIMPSON

CENTINELA VALLEY

The Centinela Valley Alumnae Club participated with other alumnae clubs in this area in a benefit fashion festival given March 1 in the Crystal Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel. Hilda Blatz Greene was in charge of invitations and programs. A spring fairyland of peach blossoms, marguerites, ranunculus, daffodils, and gladioli was skillfully arranged by Pauline Berg Graves. Polly Riley Cuenod helped with the soliciting and distributing of the door prizes. All the profits from this party were donated to the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles, which had already received over seven thousand dollars in gifts from alumnae clubs of Pi Beta Phi in recent years.

Founders' Day was celebrated with representatives of all the southern California alumnae clubs and active chapters taking part in a luncheon and program at the Ebell Club. For the first time in many years, this party, which always takes place on Saturday, actually was given on Founders' Day, April 28.

The program committee planned to present talented members from the local group for the March and May meetings. Kathryn Ulrich Walker gave reviews of several contemporary books in March. Pauline Berg Graves, whose writings appear often in the Home Section of the Los Angeles Times, talked on Home Decoration at the last regular meeting of the year.

MARTHA LOWRY FARMER

CONTRA COSTA

The Contra Costa Alumnae Club held their first meeting of the New Year at the home of Helen Snyder Martin in Crockett. Marcella McCormick Rhodes came from San Francisco to join with us in reading the initiation ceremony as our observance of chapter loyalty day. We were pleased to have Blanche Ball join us that day too.

The February meeting was at the home of Mary Frances George Gillan in Pleasant Hill. Plans were made for a desert and bridge party to be held on May 9 at Anne Taliaferro's in Walnut Creek. Her lovely gardens will attract many for a pleasant afternoon. Proceeds will be sent to aid in the support of an orphaned child.

We have been happy to welcome newcomers to our area, Frances Dibble, Marilyn McLoughlin, and Dorothy Lane.

JEAN MORSE STRONG

EL PASO

The El Paso Alumnae Club held a cooky-shine at the home of Myrre Anderson, Illinois E, wife of Colonel Anderson of Fort Bliss. The meeting, held in December, honored Shirley Van Studdiford, Texas A, who represented Fort Bliss as Duchess to the Court of the Queen of the annual Sun Carnival. Mrs. Van Studdiford, Utah A, Shirley's mother, was also present.

A coffee was held on February 9, at the home of Ethel Schwartz, Indiana A. The Valentine theme was carried out in the decorations. Articles from the Settlement School were sold. About one hundred guests attended the coffee.

ANNIE LAURIE WINTERS

FRESNO

The Fresno Alumnae Club held its February meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Ehlers. Our remarkable Jane Hare, member of I. C. Sorosis, was present to thank us for the birthday bouquet presented to her on her ninety first birthday. Since meeting was devoted to the renewal of our acquaintance with the accomplishments of Carrie Chapman Catt, it was interesting to know that Jane's initiation occurred a year before Carrie's.

Because of the success of the Settlement School Tea in November, it was decided to repeat the affair this fall. Volunteer service at the Fresno Art Centre was also adopted as a 1951 project. The program was completed with the showing of "The Telephone Hour." Lolita Snell Prouty, Grand Treasurer, was guest of honor at our Founders' Day Luncheon at the Sunnyside Country Club.

A swimming party, combined with our May meeting, will mark finale for the summer season.

FRANCES GRAF REEG

GLENDALE

The Glendale Club held a January meeting in the home of Nell Welles Parr, with an informal talk by Blanche Charlton Curtis. This was concerning the organization of Pi Beta Phi, with emphasis on the Settlement School and the Founders. At the home of Kathleen Richards we had a guest meeting with the daughters, all being highly entertained by a speaker from a professional "Charm School."

A play reading was given at the home of Nell Vale Core in March, and the Founders' Day Luncheon was held at the Ebell Club in Los Angeles with all the clubs in Southern California. The installation of officers was held in the home of Irene Oliver Postel, and the cooky-shine in the home of Virginia Herzog ended our meetings for the year. Our big money raising project was the spring rummage sale.

MARGARET DEWEIN VALENTINE

LONG BEACH

A large group attended and enjoyed a dinner meeting in January at Marie White's at which Chapter Loyalty Day, honoring Carrie Chapman Catt, was celebrated.

At the February meeting our president, Louise Mangold, entertained the group at a luncheon at her home in San Pedro, Calif. Bridge was played and a fine time was had by everyone.

March 8 was the day set for the rummage sale which was followed by a Settlement School tea. In April many from this club attended the Founders' Day Banquet at the Ebell Club in Los Angeles. Actives from USC and UCLA were in charge of the program and four of our Golden Arrow members were present. Everyone enjoyed having this opportunity to meet with other alumnae and actives from the Southern California area.

JEANNE OISTAD PITBLADO

LOS ANGELES

In March, the Senior, Junior and Professional Groups of the Los Angeles Alumnae Club joined Area Council in giving a Spring Fashion Festival. This highly successful affair benefited our local philanthropy, the Crippled Children's Center of Los Angeles County. Fashion feature of the luncheon were styles modeled by several Pi Beta Phi actives as well as by alumnae with their little daughters. Christy Fox Shonnard, California F, Society Editor of the Times was Mistress of Ceremonies and Fashion Commentator.

Proceeds from the event went to equip the Dispensary at the Crippled Children's Summer Camp which will be called the Pi Phi Pill Box. Cooperating with the president, Rhode Osthaus, was Evelyn Lee Fox, Benefit Chairman, and her committee.

In April, the Area Council Founders' Day was held. The Pasadena Alumnae Club was in charge.

The Mother and Daughter Tea took place in May. This delightful affair is an annual event anticipated by all.

BE BALDWIN CARMAN

PALO ALTO

The January meeting of the Palo Alto Alumnae Club was a dinner dance for members and husbands held at the Moffat Field Officers Club. A very large group was present and it was one of the most successful parties we have had.

At the regular business meeting in February a talk on Civilian Defense was given by Mrs. Elise Belenky.

On March 9 we sponsored a benefit fashion show and bridge party at the Marie Antoinette Hotel in Menlo Park. With the proceeds we hope to establish a scholarship fund. Margaret Wichman Vaile was in charge of the arrangements.

CAROL RORICK HIRD

PASADENA

One of the highlights of this year's meetings was the January one at which time our member Majel Payne gave us the details of being a mother to the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Queen. It was certainly a thrill to hear what went on behind the scenes.

The February meeting was most interesting. We had a personal talk and pictures on Africa. March meeting was election of officers and April Founders' Day luncheon. In May we install our new officers and at that meeting the club will enjoy a reading by Maudie Prickett.

We have for a number of years finished the year with a barbecue at which husbands and escorts are guests. Everyone looks forward to this party as we have such fun, anyone in our "neck of the woods" do join us.

DOROTHY BOTHMAN

PHOENIX

The January meeting of the Phoenix Alumnae Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Hughes. Guest speaker was a representative of a well known local gift shop. In February, alumnae celebrated the twenty fifth anniversary of the chartering of the Phoenix Alumnae Club at the home of Alice Breton Pafford. Everyone wore clothes typical of her respective college days. Dorothy ("Babs") Schallenger, Thoeny opened her home for the March meeting, at which new officers were elected and an interesting talk on mental health was given by a guest speaker.

During Easter vacation, Pi Beta Phi actives and pledges home from the University of Arizona were honored by alumnae at a breakfast at the Hotel Westward Ho.

The club commemorated Founders' Day with a potluck dinner at the home of Marcia Beckett Oldham, and alumnae

SYLVIA (SMITH) SMITH

RENO

The spring months have been especially busy ones in Reno for alumnae. In March a buffet supper was held at the chapter house for husbands and guests. A University of Nevada film was a highlight of the evening's program.

In April the program at the regular meeting was a talk on Glassware and proved most fascinating. Mrs. Lugin-Buehl was the speaker. The Founders' Day banquet and impressive ceremony was well attended and enjoyed. Also in April the club members successfully planned and conducted a Cooked Food Sale. This was the first time a sale of this type has been tried and as a money making project it proved to be most successful.

The May meeting, which will be the last one of the year, will include the initiation of graduating seniors, installation of officers and the showing of the Holt House film.

ANNIE JOHNSON ELLIOTT

SACRAMENTO

Although many of our members have undertaken leadership responsibility of community projects in addition to their homes or their professions, the meetings of the Sacramento Alumnae Club are proceeding as planned and with good attendance.

February—The Annual Chinese dinner at the home of your correspondent. (As usual, the food was prepared at a Chinese restaurant and brought to the house.) Mrs. J. R. Hamilton showed color movies of her South American trip.

March—Election of officers at Peg Carlson's home.

Founders' Day—Program and Brunch at Mrs. J. R. Hamilton's.

May—The annual picnic at the beautiful ranch home of Inez and Wendell Robie, is an event eagerly anticipated and long remembered.

June—Installation of officers at the country place of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Coffey.

RUTH TANGUY OLIVER

SAN DIEGO

The San Diego Alumnae Club held its first three meetings of 1951 in the Chapter Room, Balboa Park, and welcomed several alumnae present for the first time.

At the February meeting it was announced that the active chapter, California E, had five lovely new pledges. A number of club members attended initiation of twenty of the former pledge class, on the eighteenth, followed by a banquet at Vallee's, where the Alumnae Club Scholarship cup award was made.

Small, informal card parties in the room were started in March to help raise money to assist the active chapter in a new project (perhaps the silver tea service), and to get alumnae club members together more often for pleasure.

Observance of Founders' Day by the alumnae club and active chapter was celebrated at the Point Loma Assembly. An informal buffet supper was served, and a delightful and appropriate program was enjoyed with Lolita Snell Prouty, Grand Treasurer, as guest of honor.

The now traditional May party honoring graduating seniors in the active chapter will soon be held. This is a very special occasion and is anticipated with pleasure.

ALICE R. WARNER

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

The San Fernando Valley Alumnae Club was privileged to honor its first golden arrow member, Bertha Alexander Miller of Indiana B and Iowa Z. In addition to having her honored along with golden arrow members from nearby clubs at the annual Founders' Day luncheon, the club presented her with an arrow to replace the one she had lost, as well as a golden arrow guard, at the annual cooky-shine on April 19. Another outstanding event, though quite different, was the club's first Pi Beta Phi daughter, Patty Pyle, daughter of Corine Smith Pyle, charter member of California A and charter member of this club, was pledged into California A this year. At the loyalty meeting in January, members were inspired by an interesting talk by Mildred West Crosswhite concerning the associations of her aunt, Theodora Youmans, with Pi Beta Phi's own Carrie Chapman Catt. Theodora Youmans was one of Carrie Chapman Catt's outstanding co-workers and headed the Wisconsin State Suffrage Office. The club assisted with the Spring Fashion Festival, a benefit for the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County, which was sponsored mainly by the Los Angeles Alumnae Club. Exquisite decorations, music, and a lovely fashion show all tended to make this event, held at the Beverly Hills Hotel, a very memorable one.

SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco Pi Beta Phis have had five well attended meetings so far this year. We started the fall with an evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Kendrick, mother of Barbara Kendrick Callander, the hostess. We heard a talk on Korea by Mrs. Homer McLaughlin, an authority on the Far East. The Settlement School Tea in November at Marion Bevis' was both a financial and a social success. Christmas found us gathered once more at the home of Virginia Gibbons to make plans for our participation as a group in the campaign for blood donations for the armed forces, as well as to fill Christmas stockings for the wards of the Juvenile Court. The volunteer work being done with these children, who are in foster homes, was the speaker's subject at the February meeting, at Eleanor Tobin's. The junior group resumed activity in March with an evening social meeting at the home of Mary Stevenson. We would like to hear from all Pi Beta Phis who are new to the area.

NANCY GRIFFIN NEAL

SAN JOSE

The January, 1951, meeting was both interesting and unique. A program on antique buttons was presented by Mrs. Willmoth, a friend of our hostess for the evening, Mrs. Willmoth displayed and discussed antique buttons and their relationship with old glass. The hostess, Louise Cole, assisted by Louise Woolf, served a delightful dessert.

A Valentine motif prevailed at the February meeting held in the home of Betty Orm Cochrane. Co-hostess for the evening was Kathryn Jones Vincent. Review of the Constitution and discussion of plans for the balance of the year followed dessert.

KATHRYN VINCENT

SAN MATEO COUNTY

Chapter Loyalty Day of the San Mateo County Alumnae Club was observed with a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Dodd, where our president, Mrs. John Shiner, gave a most interesting talk. Our February meeting was devoted to History and Constitution.

Our local project of giving a record a month to the children's ward of our hospital is being continued.

Other projects undertaken are the giving of blood to the local blood bank and knitting for the Red Cross.

JEAN HART BUFFALOW

SANTA BARBARA

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Santa Barbara is busier and more active than ever before with an increased membership, able leaders, and a group that works well together. We have been able to increase the amounts contributed to all Pi Beta Phi philanthropies. We are hoping for success with our new project of getting the beautiful colored picture of our Founders in every chapter. This has been a big undertaking and we think it very worthwhile.

Now that our active chapter is well established we watch its activities with pride and realize the girls do not need strict supervision any more as they are competently taking on all responsibilities like true Pi Beta Phis.

RUTH PORTER JONES

SANTA MONICA-WESTWOOD

The Santa Monica-Westwood Alumnae Club began the new year at the home of Katharine Bourne. A discussion of the club activities for the remainder of the year left the group enthusiastic.

Irma Nicholson Paterson was hostess for the February meeting. We were privileged to hear a representative of the Crippled Children's Society speak. Since it is our local philanthropy, the club was eager to be told of its organization, tremendous growth and how much Pi Beta Phi volunteer work is helping.

On March first our members gathered in the Crystal Room in the Beverly Hills Hotel for a Spring Fashion Festival given for the benefit of the Crippled Children's Society. The regular March business meeting and election of officers was held at Nell Pierce's home.

A rummage sale, in conjunction with the Los Angeles Club was the first function in April. Founders' Day was celebrated with other groups of the Los Angeles area at a luncheon at the Ebell Club. It was an honor to have as guest and speaker Mrs. Frank H. Prouty, Grand Treasurer.

Installation of officers is planned for the May meeting, with Doris St. Clair our hostess.

NAOMI HENRY BENZ

SOLANO COUNTY-VALLEJO, CALIFORNIA

The Solano County Alumnae Club, which was organized in January 1951, at the instigation of Phyllis Minter Sommer and with the aid of the Contra Costa Club, has held regular monthly meetings since that date. The ten charter members were: Willa Clammer Woodward (Iowa B), Cora Enlow (Nevada A), Peggy Clark Stevens (Nevada A), Phyllis Minter Sommer (Indiana B and I), Doris Misner Campbell (Nevada A), Barbara Oak Robinson (Massachusetts A), Mary Landers Marsh (Florida A), Jeanne Misner Pope (Nevada A), Ann Hodge (Nevada A) and Edith Haines Marquette (Indiana B).

During the year Barbara Oak Robinson moved to Boston, Ann Hodge to Denver, Colorado, and Peggy Clark Stevens to Washington, D.C. Mildred Watts Hodgen (Florida A) joined the group and two girls from the Contra Costa Club are transferring to the Solano County Club, so we have kept up our membership. Cora Enlow has been doing a thriving business with both Arrow Craft material and magazine subscriptions. A close fellowship has developed in the Solano County Club and each meeting renews our interest and enthusiasm in Pi Beta Phi.

DORIS M. CAMPBELL

TUCSON

At our January meeting we were pleased to learn that our efforts on behalf of the Settlement School in December were rewarded with a profit of $284 which has been sent to the Settlement School. This was our Constitution meeting, and we were presented with a delightful program written by Betty Grove, in the form of a quiz show. It was as humorous as it was informative, and we plan to put the manuscript in our permanent archives.

In February the Pi Beta Phis and all of Tucson were fortunate in having a visit from Anne Guthrie, a Pi Beta Phi and an internationally famous worker for the YWCA, who spoke at Tucson's Sunday Evening Forum. She met with several of the alumnae the following morning for breakfast and a discussion of Pi Beta Phi in Arizona and everywhere.

At our February meeting we laid exciting plans for a benefit carnival to be held at the chapter house early in April. Such a carnival was held two years ago, and was a great success. The main feature of the evening was a Mexican supper served to the guests. Bingo was played, and there were raffles, "fishing ponds," and other games to create a real carnival atmosphere.
