To the Fortieth Anniversary of the Settlement School

A Skit for Carnicus

By HARRIET GOODSSELL RAUCH, Iowa B

SETTING: Pi Beta Phi chapter room at the University of Tennessee.

CHARACTERS: Committee of four to plan skit: LOIS BOOP, President, JEAN DEVAULT, EUDELL RIPPETOE, BARBARA HUFF.

ACT ONE

Jean and Eudell are seated on sofa in room looking at book. Enter Lois.

EUDELL: Hi-ya, Lois. What are you going to do after committee meeting tonight?

LOIS: Study, My Dea'. Study! (Puts down books, turns) Why, do you have something better to offer?

EUDELL: I'm tired of cramming. Jean and I are trying to get up a four-some of bridge.

LOIS: Perish the thought! No time in my life for frivolity!

EUDELL: Well, we probably won't be out of here until all hours anyway. So skip it.

JEAN: Why, what do we have to do?

EUDELL: It's easy—like that. Just plan the winning skit for Carnicus.

JEAN: Oh, Oh, another assessment.

LOIS: Well, we can't afford to take any money out of the treasury. Taking money out of the treasury is out.

EUDELL: What chance have we then?

(Enter Barbara)

JEAN: Say, Barbara, what d'ja' draw in that Poli Sci quiz?

BARBARA: B plus.

JEAN: Wonderful. It certainly was a toughie.

LOIS: C'mon girls, C'mon. Back to the mines. Back to the mines. We must have a skit for Carnicus.

EUDELL: I say, what chance have we? The Betas have Jack Strong. His dad is in the lumber business. They even get lumber for elaborate sets for nothing.

JEAN: Well, look at the Chi Omegas with miles of rich alums right in town.

EUDELL: Oh, the Σ A Es are really the sharp crowd. Fanciest house on campus. Always go the limit. They'll get all their stuff furnished and then turn in the smallest bill.

LOIS: Girls, this catty chit-chat isn't helping us with our problem. We aren't here to make plans for the other organizations on campus.

BARBARA: O.K. Lois, what does it take?

LOIS: Eye appeal. Snappy script. Clever sets. Colorful costumes.

EUDELL: Is THAT all?

LOIS: Girls! Down to business. Hasn't anybody a real sharp idea that won't cost us anything? Remember, no money.

JEAN: (aside) Same song. Second verse.

BARBARA: We've got trunks full of old clothes up in Gatlinburg that they use in the Weaver's play.

JEAN: Why couldn't we put on an old timey play of the early days in Gatlinburg?

EUDELL: Frankly, I'm not much impressed with that idea. That stuff's been done to death.

JEAN: Well, you can bet your bottom dollar that no one else on campus will do an old timey play.

BARBARA: Well, Girls, no other house on campus has a Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, either.

EUDELL: You have got something there.

BARBARA: Of course I have—I have?—the Pi Phis have.

JEAN: I know that everybody knows about the Settlement School.

EUDELL: I wouldn't be 100 sure. People maybe know about the school as it is now, especially since the University of Tennessee is working with Pi Phi at Gatlinburg in the summers on the Summer Work-shop.

LOIS: Say, by the way, did you see the perfectly stunning jewelry that Marion Heard's classes turned out last summer?

EUDELL: No. Where'd you see it?

LOIS: At their open house at the end of the summer school. It's TERRIFIC!

BARBARA: You know they even gave pottery this last summer, too.

EUDELL: Yea. So I heard.

LOIS: Just think what Little Pigeon has turned into since 1912!

JEAN: That's not so long ago.

LOIS: Not so long. Why I wasn't even born then.

LOIS: Go 'way! I'm going to be twenty-one this summer.

EUDELL: Say, you know, Barbara, come to think of it, we all have pretty hazy ideas about the Settlement School. Whether we win the prize or not, it certainly wouldn't do us any harm to work on it in dead earnest.

BARBARA: It certainly wouldn't.

LOIS: Just what's been done since 1912? Just a minute I'll get my notebook. (Gets notebook) Let's see—the first little school was started in 1912 with 14 pupils. There are two school buildings now with about 500 pupils.

EUDELL: Well, that's something to brag about but there's no drama in that. Just good steady day-by-day work for the Pi Phis and the people in Gatlinburg.

LOIS: All-right, then, We'll take the health program. (Reading) In 1920 our first nurse, Phyllis Higginbotham, started with nothing but a horse, a saddle-bag and a lot of sick people. Now we have a new modern health center and nurse Chalmers is busy with all of the latest in health work.

BARBARA: Gee, she's proud of her babies, as she calls them. You should go up some time and just visit one of her well-baby clinics. I swear you never saw lovelier babies any-place.

EUDELL: I'm sure there's plenty of drama in the health program but we can't just use the health center. Somebody'd be sure to think that was all Pi Phi did in Gatlinburg. We mustn't give the wrong impression. It'd take the Settlement School Committee all winter to straighten that one out.

LOIS: Then, there's Arrow Craft Shop. New building built in 1940 by Pi Beta Phi. (Reading) Outgrowth of sale of baskets made by local people through the alumnae clubs in 1915. Now through the weaving Arrowcraft helps an average of over one hundred families a year.

EUDELL: There've been too many weaver's plays, I think. The early costumes and expressions are fun, though.

LOIS: (continuing reading) U. of T. and Pi Beta Phi started Summer Work-shop eight years ago as an experimental summer crafts-recreation school. It has now moved beyond the experimental period (ends reading). It's a wonderfully interesting hand-craft development. But it is still such a small part of our work there.

JEAN: Well, what'll we do? It's getting late and none of this is going to make the skit.

BARBARA: I'll tell you what. I'll go up to the Mountain View hotel in Gatlinburg this weekend and talk to my grandfather Huff. If he's not too busy with the park tourists, he'll give me a story!

EUDELL: It'll be authentic, at least.

JEAN: Authentic! 'STOO bad Prof. Smith isn't one of the judges. He certainly like things authentic! Speaking of authenticity, I simply must get going and bone up on history for tomorrow. Can we be on our way, Lois?

LOIS: Sure. Run along. Thanks for coming. See you tomorrow.

(Exit Jean with waves or what ever)

EUDELL: Say, who mentioned bridge? It couldn't have been I? So long.

(Lois picks up books, etc.)

LOIS: Coming, Barbara?

Exit Together.

ACT TWO

SETTING: Interior of Aunt Lydia Whaley's cabin.

CHARACTERS: AUNT LYDIA WHALEY, AUNT LIZZIE, MIZ HUFF AND MIZ WHALEY (When curtain goes up, two of Pi Phis in first act fixing set) (Girls move quickly. Aunt Lydia and Lizzie speak slowly until climax, lots of pauses).

LOIS: Guess, it's all fixed, Barbara.

BARBARA: Yes, we'd better skip. It's about time for our stunt.

Curtain goes down long enough to seat Aunt Lizzie at a loom.

Enter Aunt Lydia.

AUNT LIZZIE: Lawsy. Aunt Lydia, you shore do get up early of a morning. I figger in winter effen you don't get up early, you an't got no time to set and enjoy the day.

AUNT LIZZIE: I don't like to milk so early. Hev to feel to see where the cow is.

AUNT LYDIA: Hev you et this morning. Come, sit and hev a bite. Hit eats good.

(go to the table)

AUNT LIZZIE: (eating) Hit shore does. You ain't fraid up here, Aunt Lydia?

AUNT LYDIA: Nope. Ain't never seed but one fraid in my life. That was one night when I seed somethin' black out in the yard.

AUNT LIZZIE: Wha'd ya do?

AUNT LYDIA: Went out to it, give it a hard kick (starts chucklin') and it was my own little black kittle.

(Both laugh together)

(Aunt Lydia walks to loom)

AUNT LIZZIE: What you loomin' today?

AUNT LYDIA: A county-pin. Gentleman's Fancy little bo-knot pattern.

AUNT LIZZIE: I'm all tied up with the misery today.

AUNT LYDIA: You shore do look peaked.

AUNT LIZZIE: I ought to do chair-bottomin'. Chair bottomin' is easy settin' down work.

(Pause) But this house sets mighty easy.

(Pause while Lydia works and Lizzie sits)

AUNT LYDIA: Effen hit's the Lord's will, reckon it'll be.

AUNT LIZZIE: Now what'd you say, Aunt Lydia?

AUNT LYDIA: I'm sayin' reckon effen it's the Lord's will, reckon it'll be. I'm talkin' about them Pi Phi wimmen that came down here to set up a school.

AUNT LIZZIE: I'm thinkin' Lord heps them as heps themsevs. We got to get 'em some land to build on to do our part. Miz Helmick, one of them Pi Phi wimmen, said most places the people hed to hep so they'd know they wanted sumpin' like a school.

AUNT LYDIA: I didn't set no store by them wimmen when they first come down here but I reckon they's comin' to hep a needy people.

AUNT LIZZIE: We don't confidence furriners much.

AUNT LYDIA: No, but I'd like my least 'uns to have some larnin'.

AUNT LIZZIE: Yes, but I don't want 'em rottenin' 'em up wi' spilin'.

AUNT LYDIA: No. Reckon not (long pause). But they need more larnin' now.

AUNT LIZZIE: Them Pi Phi wimmen hez shore got us all back at our looms and baskets.

AUNT LYDIA: Hit had been a tolable long spell sence I'd set at my loom.

AUNT LIZZIE: I been making kiver lids. Been makin' ooze out o' barks agin', too.

AUNT LYDIA: I been turnin' out baskets fast as ever I kin'.

(Both chuckle—pause)

AUNT LIZZIE: I heered if them wimmen stay, they're goin' to git a man to teach tools.

AUNT LYDIA: Just esactly, why been't they stayin'?

AUNT LIZZIE: 'Cause they ain't got no land fer a buildin' school buildin'.

(Sit or work quietly for a bit)

AUNT LYDIA: Effen they go now after sech a good start, our young 'uns 'll feel in a sorry plight.

AUNT LIZZIE: 'Specially after last Christmas when they fotched up them dolls and play-pretties and larned 'em them new Christmas stories.

AUNT LYDIA: 'N how the least 'uns liked them new games.

AUNT LIZZIE: What games?

AUNT LYDIA: You know, that 'farmer in the dell' and 'Button, Button.'

AUNT LIZZIE: Yes. They's havin' all this fun and a larnin', too.

(Work and/or sit and rock)

AUNT LYDIA: You say, they been't goin' to stay?

AUNT LIZZIE: No'm. Miz Helmick says we've been too long gettin' a piece to build on.

(Pause)

AUNT LYDIA: Reckon them wimmen is beginnin' to think we ain't a wantin' of a school.

AUNT LIZZIE: Andy Huff's that proud of the school.

AUNT LYDIA: So's Uncle Steve Whaley and Charlie Ogle.

AUNT LIZZIE: There's the Maples and the Huskies and the Reagans.

AUNT LYDIA: I heered that Andy Huff is a totin' his four year old Mattie every day so they's one more pupil and she'll be a larnin'.

(Aunt Lydia goes to window and looks out)

AUNT LYDIA: Well hep my time. Here comes Miz Huff and Miz Whaley now.

(Aunt Lydia goes to the door)

AUNT LYDIA: Come right in. Glad to see ya'. What brings ya here at this hour?

MIZ HUFF: We're a sight worried about our school.

AUNT LYDIA: Well set down and cotch yore breath.

MIZ WHALEY: We ain't got more time fer foolin' 'round.

AUNT LIZZIE: What's that, you say?

MIZ WHALEY: We ain't got more time fer foolin' 'round. Miz Helmick says.

MIZ HUFF: They's been awaitin' 'round fer a long, long spell for a piece to build on and now it's most too late. Miz Helmick says effen we don't do our part in gettin' the land

- by after-noon they's goin' to pick up and go some-eres else.
- AUNT LYDIA: Miz Huff, what kin we do?
- MIZ HUFF: I've sent a boy to clean up to the lumber camp to fetch Andy. He should be a comin' most any time now.
- MIZ WHALEY: I'll jest be a goin' along to talk to Steve. We don't hev no time fer foolin'.
(Exit Miz Whaley)
- AUNT LYDIA: No more time?
- MIZ HUFF: No. Miz Helmick's ordered a hack from Sevierville to come and fetch the school things away effen we don't hev some land by eveni'.
(Pause)
- AUNT LYDIA (Go to chair and sit): Well, we're certainly in the middle of a fix!
- AUNT LIZZIE: That's jest the way hit hits me.
(Re-enter Miz Whaley)
- MIZ WHALEY: I run plum into Steve. He sez E. E. Ogle'l give his tract reasonable effen the money kin be raised.
- AUNT LIZZIE: He could git $2000 fer that tract.
- MIZ WHALEY: Well, he'll give $250 hissef and them Pi Phi wimmen'll give $600.
- MIZ HUFF: Andy and Steve'll give $250 apiece.
(Pause—disturbance of voices off stage)
(Aunt Lydia runs to the window)
- AUNT LYDIA: There's the hack from Sevierville, now.
(Aunt Lizzie runs to the window, too)
- AUNT LIZZIE: What's Charlie Ogle doin'?
- (All run to the window)
- AUNT LYDIA: Land sakes, he's gathered up a heap of fire crackers. Like en ez eff it's the Christmas.
- MIZ HUFF: I recollect I did hear Charlie had rounded up all of the firecrackers in the Burg.
- AUNT LYDIA: What's he aiming to do wi' those?
- MIZ HUFF: He's aimin' to set 'em off all to once effen them wimmen gets a piece to build on.
- AUNT LYDIA: Men are crowded all around the store and hack now.
- AUNT LIZZIE: There come the Pi Phi wimmen.
- MIZ WHALEY: I'm goin' to run out and hear what's goin' on. I'll be back.
- AUNT LYDIA (going back to sit down): Land sakes. Most excitin' as the Rebellion.
- AUNT LIZZIE: I'm goin' to set too. I'd plumb forgot about my misery (Chuckles).
(Miz Huff stays at window. Other two sit. Voices off stage)
- MIZ HUFF: Here she comes.
- MIZ WHALEY (very excitedly): They got it. They got it. Eph Ogle said he'd rether hev
- the school than the land effen he could get a fair price. Andy and Uncle Steve headed the money. The Pi Phis gave theirs. Some others helped. Then Andy and Mr. Maple said they'd make up any difference.
- MIZ HUFF: Then them Pi Phi wimmen is down to sign the deed.
(All run to the window)
- (Excitedly all): There's goes the hack back to Sevierville.
(Noise of the firecrackers off stage—cap pistol will do)
- That's it. That's it.
(Dance around excitedly and finally all go off except Aunt Lydia)
- (Noise off-stage gradually subsides and Aunt Lydia goes to her chair where she can look out of window. Sits down and picks up Bible. Reads aloud, very slowly and laboriously)
- I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord which made Heaven and Earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved . . . to be moved . . . to be moved . . . nope . . . 'twon't move . . . 'twon't move . . . school won't move . . .
(Drops book. Falls asleep in chair. Curtain)
- Curtain goes up and girls in first act come on stage in set of Act Two
- EUDELL: Lois, Girls, we won the cup! We won the Cup! Pi Phis won the cup!
- LOIS: Barbara, I'm so thrilled that you went up to Gatlinburg to get a story for us.
- EUDELL: I was afraid that it just wasn't enough story to win.
- BARBARA: But it won!
- LOIS: Well, come on girls, we have to go and get the honors now.
- JEAN: Come to think about it, I've realized something while we've been working on this skit.
- GIRLS: What, Lois?
- LOIS: I've learned that our Pi Phi Settlement School is now giving the whole country the knowledge that it own folk'art is good.
- JEAN: Well, I've realized we have to help raise money for our new staff house at the Settlement School.
- LOIS: Let's give our skit on campus and charge admission. Then we could send the money for the new staff house.
- GIRLS: Wonderful.
(Exit, talking excitedly about giving money for furnishings to new staff house)

Greek Letter Women Participate in Know Your America Week: an NPC Release

How well do you know your America?

Do you know what the American freedoms are and why we treasure them?

In hundreds of cities and towns throughout the Nation on May 14 to 20, 1952 Fraternity Women will participate in Know Your America Week. The benefits and opportunities of the free way of life are increasing in importance to more and more people in every American community. Citizens will rededicate themselves to the preservation of the basic American principles which will be exemplified and dramatized through numerous and varied programs planned in the respective communities during Know Your America Week.

What can you do?

Fraternity women can plan programs within their chapters and Panhellenics, as well as volunteer their services to the local organizers, or if no organizers, can volunteer such leadership themselves to the civic authorities or broadcasting studios in their communities. In observing Know Your America Week, fraternity women can volunteer to present or take part in historical pageants; college chapter houses can display the flag throughout the week (do our chapter houses own such emblems? They should!). Fraternity women can contribute choral groups; they can offer to staff booths for the dissemination of information; they can speak on radio and community programs; and they can offer organizational experience or the "know how" to get things done. Fraternity members are among the most experienced and devoted group of volunteer workers in the United States. Put the leadership training and organizational experience your fraternity helped to develop in you at work during Know Your America Week.

All programs throughout the United States will highlight the story of our Nation; its laws and liberties, its faiths and national origins; its schools and churches; its clubs and free associations; its rights and responsibilities.

We college women have responsibility as citizens because we enjoy the freedoms our forefathers won for us.

In recognition of this responsibility, the National Panhellenic Conference joins with 54 other national organizations representing approximately 800,000 citizens all associated in the All-American Conference in urging their memberships to observe and participate in Know Your America Week.

At a called meeting of delegates of the National Panhellenic Conference on March 29, 1951 in Chicago, Illinois, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"The National Panhellenic Conference becomes a member of the All-American Conference to Combat Communism, as a demonstration by the college Greek letter societies for women of their opposition to the philosophy and techniques of communism, and as evidence of their devotion to American freedom."

The All-American Conference whose present headquarters are located at Room 406, 1624 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., is an informational, educational and advisory body. Each participating organization speaks for itself on matters of policy. It does not speak for the Conference. The Conference does not speak for it.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling who serves as chairman of the All-American Conference in an address on World Peace on June 27, 1951 before the Supreme Council Session of the United Commercial Travelers of America said among other things:

"The price of freedom first of all is knowledge. We need to know these United States of America. . . . We need to know what is going on in America.

"Freedom is not free. Always freedom has its price. And that price has been paid. Freedom is both an inheritance and an achievement. . . . We have it from those who went before us, who in their time paid the price. . . . Theirs is a finished work. But in some sense, at least, this freedom must be re-born in me, it must become alive in me. I must make my contribution here and now."

Fraternity women have their opportunity to contribute here and now in Know Your America Week, May 14-20, 1952.

As Mrs. Fred Sharp, National President of Alpha Sigma Alpha editorialized in a recent issue of their publication:

"In the security of friendship, we can review the basic values of fraternity and the ever-widening boundaries for the application of the principles. In mutual reverence we can experience the inspiration and the meaning of the fraternity rituals and their eternal truths. Together as groups of American women wherein cooperation and understanding are strong realities, we can discuss the American spirit, the American idea. For these ends we will take time, carefully and thoughtfully as our own. We will take it with respect and compelling gratitude. There will be no complaining about the lack of time, for our days and our hours will be worthy of themselves and equal to the urgencies and the crises of our time. Each individual fraternity member can be armed against communism and subversive influences because through serious conscious practice, she will have learned and can say to others, take time to think; it is the source of power."

Will You Help the Girl Scouts?

Nearly 1,500 college trained women have found challenging and personally rewarding careers as Girl Scout professional workers, yet few people not directly connected with the organization know of the field or the opportunities it presents for the qualified person. So important has been the work of the volunteer in the growth and national establishment of Girl Scouting that little stress has been placed upon the role of the professional.

Readers of the ARROW may be interested in learning more about the opportunities in this field. The increased demand upon Girl Scouting in the post-war years has made available several hundred executive jobs throughout the country and it is expected that openings will continue to be available over a period of several years.

Address any questions to Nancy Lawrence, Public Information Division, Girl Scouts of the United States of America, 155 East 44th St., New York, N.Y.

The release of individual energy under adequate incentives is the most creative force in the world. Allowed to go forward this drive will carry us to undreamed of heights. Let us therefore dedicate ourselves to the task of securing for ourselves, for others, and for posterity these rights of free men in this century.

1. The right to personal initiative; to choose freely; to lead but not to dictate; to follow, but not to be driven.
2. The right to opportunity; to have a chance to forge ahead by his own efforts; to succeed or fail; and if he fails, to try again.
3. The right to personal dignity; to be protected from those impositions of others which they would not impose on themselves.
4. The right to participate in affairs of common concern; to hear and to be heard; to stand alone or to be one among equals.
5. The right to provide for the future; to save or to spend; to advance or hold still; to be the judge of his own welfare.

From the Boston Declaration, drawn up in Boston, May, 1950 by 51 representative business leaders from all over the country, taken from the Nightmare of the George Banta Publishing Co.

COME to Pi Beta Phi's first Southern Convention since 1907-08! Houston, The Shamrock, Pi Beta Phis—a combination which offers you the very best of all the things which make a convention a lasting delight!

Come for the days of good times insured by the gracious hospitality of Kappa Province Pi Phis; for the deepening of old friendships and the forming of to-be-treasured new ones; and for the re-dedication of yourselves to the ideals of Pi Beta Phi and the inspiration which this will give you.

Grand President

Are You Going to Convention?

By FRANCES DUNLOP TAYLOR, Convention Publicity Chairman

KAPPA PROVINCE is making great plans for convention from Monday, July 7, to July 13.

This will be a wonderful opportunity for you to visit college chums and to renew friendships. What nicer way is there to take a trip to a very interesting city and see old friends from many parts of the world! Ila Pearce Graham, Convention Guide, and her committee are working every day to make this a convention you'll never forget. Houston is an amazing city to say the least. For over a hundred years, the city has kept growing larger, more important, and more beautiful. 600 million dollars is being spent for streets and homes, buildings, and factories. The area around Houston is rich in natural resources. In the short space of 10 years, Houston has developed industrially to a degree which older cities in normal times have taken decades to reach. Business real estate has sold for as much as $2,000 a front inch.

Houston, "the gateway to South America" is really an avenue to many interesting places, including Mexico City and Guatemala. A post convention tour is planned for July 14 to Mexico City, the capital of Mexico. Natives make fabulously interesting articles at very meager cost. Some of the things they are famous for are leather goods, jewelry, and fabrics. Perfume may also be bought at a fraction of the cost in the United States. You may buy beautiful antique accessories for your home.

Plans are made for a canoe ride up the Floating Gardens where there are some of the most beautiful flowers in the world.

Mexico City's high altitude of 7,500 feet offsets its tropical location and gives it a mild climate. The city is also famous for its old churches and its modern architecture.

Houston is just a few hours from New Orleans which is famous for its wonderful food. Havana, Cuba, is only 6 hours by air from Houston. White sands, sugar plantations, and mahogany trees are plentiful.

Members of Kappa province are thrilled with the prospect of being convention hosts. With your wholehearted support, we will make this convention a high light in our lives. Bring comfortable clothes. Dark colored cottons are most appropriate.

Do come: We're expecting you.

Recreation Day

By MARILYN ODEN BROLLIER, Recreation Day Chairman

SO YOU are coming to Convention—"deep in the heart of Texas!" Well, here's a welcome as big as a Texan's ten gallon hat. Your bed roll will be waiting for you in one of the grandest bunk-houses in the world—The Shamrock Hotel.

Recreation Day will be Thursday, July 10, and we hope to make it one of the highlights of the Houston Convention. The plans for the day are well under way, so that we can give you a good idea of what will be in store for you.

For those who wish to see a bit of our big city and something of our big state, there will be two interesting trips. One will be an air-conditioned bus trip to Galveston, the sea-shore resort on the Gulf of Mexico, by way of the San Jacinto Monument. You will stop at the San Jacinto State Park, the site of the historic Battle of San Jacinto which took place on April 21, 1836. Here occurred the famous battle that resulted in the birth of a new nation—the Republic of Texas and brought fame to General Sam Houston. Also at the Park you will enjoy seeing the U. S. Texas, internationally famed battleship of the two World Wars, which now rests at permanent anchorage in the very shadow of San Jacinto Monument. Of interest in Galveston, the "Pleasure Pier of the South," is the seven and one half miles of scenic boulevard drive along the famous sea-wall, completely surrounded by the surf. The entire trip will take about five hours and will cost $2.50 which includes tickets to the San Jacinto Monument and Battleship Texas.

The second trip will be a cruise down the Ship Channel on the Sam Houston, the 50 passenger yacht owned by the Houston Port Commission. The Ship Channel which is the bloodstream of "Port Houston" runs 50 miles to the Gulf of Mexico and is the location of 150 industries. Cool refreshments will be served on board as you view the activity of the second largest port in the United States. The boat will go as far as San Jacinto Park where you will also have the opportunity of seeing our great historical shrine. This trip will cost $2.50 including tickets to the Monument and Battleship.

For our more athletic members we will have a variety of sports, so come prepared with the proper togs and equipment.

I'm sure many of you will enjoy spending the afternoon in and about the beautiful Shamrock swimming pool, surrounded by tall tropical palm trees. You will be delighted to have one of the most beautiful pools in the South just a few feet from your room—out the side door. The fee for swimming on Thursday afternoon will be $1.20, which is the usual fee for all guests of the Shamrock. However, the management has offered its Pi Phi guests a special price of $4.80 for the use and enjoyment of the pool for your entire period of stay, whether before, during, or after the period of convention. This will enable you to take a "cool dip" as often as you wish, or as often as your schedule will permit—so, don't forget your bathing suit!

Also at "your front door" are two beautiful tennis courts for the "racket clubbers" in the group. We are planning a big tournament with a handsome prize for the winner. The cost of each court is $1.50 which can be divided among you depending on whether you decide on a singles or doubles match.

For a more leisurely afternoon there'll be a big bridge game in a private room with prizes for both high score and low score.

If you come equipped with your "woods and irons" we'll have a golf tournament at one of our local country clubs noted for its tricky greens and scenic fairways. The green fees are $2.00 and the caddy fees are $2.00. If you aren't proficient enough for an afternoon of nine or eighteen holes, but are striving to master the game you may like to practice your "putting." If this is the case, there are putting greens within the grounds of the Shamrock which are available to you "would be golfers" free of charge.

Recreation Day will close with an informal supper around the swimming pool for all delegates and visitors. I know this will be a delightful event and an appropriate finish to a most enjoyable day.

Here's the Convention. Initiate

OLGA POE ODEN was born in Groveton, Texas, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Poe. In 1918 she and her family moved to Houston where she attended high school. Mrs. Oden completed her college work at Texas State College for Women. In 1926 she married Sydnor Oden, and immediately moved to Milan, Italy, where both of her children were born. They remained in Italy for twelve years, during which time Mr. Oden was head of the Italian office for Anderson Clayton and Company, largest cotton firm in the world. In 1937 they were returned to Houston when Mr. Oden was made Vice-President of the Company. Mrs. Oden's interest in Pi Phi was fostered by the membership of her daughter (Marilyn Oden Brollier) in our fraternity, as well as her many close Pi Phi friends and relatives, and for many years she has offered her lovely home for rush parties, Settlement School Sales, and alumnae meetings.

Mrs. Oden has traveled in all parts of the world and speaks Italian as fluently as English. Her local interests center around many civic organizations and church work.

Olga Poe Oden

The Registration Desk, Information Desk, and Settlement School Products will be in the Grecian Room for Convention.

Pi Phi's will eat their meals in this room and have some of the night programs here also.

The Editor of the Convention Daily will again be Ruth Wilson Cogshall, Kentucky A, of Louisville. Under good conditions and bad, Ruth has done a fine piece of work always. It is a pleasure to announce that she will again be editor. Mrs. Cogshall asks that girls coming to Convention write to her to volunteer their services if they have experience in publication work—or if they have great zeal for doing a very real service. As reporters, as re-write people, they will be needed. Address Mrs. W. B. Cogshall, 2001 Emerson, Louisville, Kentucky.

Texas Alpha Founders, Then and Now

Texas Alpha is this year celebrating its fiftieth anniversary as a chapter and high point of its year will be the attendance at Convention of all ten of its founders. Here they are, as they were in 1902 and in 1952—only Mrs. Arthur Rector (Minnie Rose), is missing from the second picture owing to illness when it was taken. Texas Alpha owes to them not only their founding but much fine service all through the years. Pictured above is the group as they appeared in the 1902 University Cactus. The lower picture was taken on the steps of the chapter house. Left to right, in back rows of each picture: are Mrs. Charles S. Potts of Dallas (the former Miss Ada Garrison); Mrs. Robert H. McLeod of Palestine (the former Miss Flora Bartholomew); Mrs. Herbert H. Finch of Austin (the former Miss Anne Townes); Mrs. Maurice McAshan of Houston (the former Miss Aline Harris); Mrs. Arthur J. Rector of Kansas City, Mo. (the former Miss Minnie Rose). Mrs. Rector is in the top picture only. In the front rows, left to right, are Mrs. F. W. Kibbee of Brownsville (the former Miss Loula Rose); Mrs. John C. Marshall of Hubbard Woods, Ill. (the former Miss Attie McClendon); Mrs. John M. Bennett of San Antonio (the former Miss Jamie Armstrong); Mrs. Will T. Caswell of Austin (the former Miss Vivian Brenizer); Mrs. Edgar E. Townes of Houston (the former Miss Elsie Garrett). Alumnae and active members of the local Texas Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi invited all alumnae to attend an open house held Tuesday afternoon at the sorority house and a banquet that night at the Austin Club.—(Lower Photo by Neal Douglass.)

Milwaukee Volunteers for Service

NOTE: Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Pi Phi had a full page in the Milwaukee Journal in January for their project of aid for the Golden Aged at Neighborhood House. The funds for their philanthropy are raised at their annual fashion shows, which have become important events of each year. Starting in 1948, the fashion shows have outgrown their available quarters until in 1951 and again this year, the largest ballroom in the city was used, and 650 people, men and women both (there were even some husbands modeling!) enjoyed an evening of fashions and dancing with excellent results for the project. The accompanying article explains the project.

Milwaukee Volunteers

THE Milwaukee Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi decided there was a need to bring their members in closer contact with community needs. It was felt that by finding such a project, members who had desired more than a social evening, would be satisfied and that the alumnae group would become more integrated with their community.

The board appointed a committee to investigate possibilities in every field of social work open to untrained volunteers. The Community Welfare Council of Milwaukee volunteer bureau suggested that there was a great deal to be done in the field of "leisure time for older adults," and that they were setting up a committee to survey what was actually being done in Milwaukee County. A member of the alumnae club was asked to be a member of this committee. In February of 1950 a survey was conducted, volunteers of the alumnae club assisting in one phase of the survey, interviewing the clergy.

From the report of the committee and a specific request from Neighborhood House, a Settlement house, which already had started a nucleus of "Golden Age" work, the alumnae club started their actual community work.

It was agreed, after a meeting, to support the Neighborhood House older adult's recreation program with whatever money would be realized from the ticket sales of the style show which the alumnae club gives annually. Volunteers would be furnished to give whatever assistance was needed in furthering the program.

The actual organization of the volunteer group began immediately. Five members met and were given an insight into the problems of working with older adults and the possibilities of the types of work they as untrained workers might do.

Later, when the initial program actually began to operate, it was found that more volunteers could be used. A questionnaire was formulated by the alumnae club board, asking the talents of each member of the alumnae club. These were distributed and later tabulated. The members who had expressed any interest in the project were contacted. There are at present fifteen alumnae actively engaged in this work, and the volunteer program has been actually in operation since November, a period of three and a half months.

The program in which the volunteers take part is fairly diversified. Monday afternoon two members meet with a group of older adults for lunch and a social afternoon as well as Friday afternoon. Tuesday and Thursday afternoons are designated as friendly visiting days when a volunteer and two older women who are members of the Golden Age club visit elderly people who are ill or who are unable to join the group at Neighborhood House. Tea things are taken and there is a possibility slides will be included in some of the visits.

A member of the alumnae group can speak German fluently. There has been a great influx of elderly German speaking displaced persons to Milwaukee. A group of these people have formed a social club which meets once a month. The alumnæ member hopes to help these D.P.s with whatever problems they may have in orienting themselves.

A social party for all groups is held once a month with community singing and refreshments. Volunteers are in charge of this program.

Movies of interest to the Golden Agers are shown twice a month by a volunteer.

Nutritional demonstrations have been planned to help the older people plan their meals wisely and economically. Most of the members of this older adult leisure time program are on old age assistance or pension and consequently have a very limited income.

The most interesting experiment, for it is the first time anything like it has been tried in a social program for older adults, is the mending project. The Golden Age club has set up a work group which will do mending which is brought in by Pi Phi alumnæ members. An alumna will act as coordinator for the project between the Pi Phis and the Golden Age club. She will act as an adjustor in case of complaints of any individual of either group and attend the monthly meeting of the work group. Pick-up and delivery service will be furnished by a volunteer of the alumnæ group. The older people will bank whatever they make for their group and use it for some special outing or camping trip.

It is hoped that this project will be so successful as to enable the alumnæ volunteer group to branch out into new services that these older adults might offer to the community and benefit themselves in so doing.

In undertaking this community project the Milwaukee Alumnæ club sincerely hopes that they might become better members of their community.

MRS. EMIL HOKANSON,
Volunteer Chairman

HOLT HOUSE

As we approach Convention 1952, let us look into the little southwest bedroom of Holt House, the room where that first organizational meeting took place so long ago—the meeting which was to mean so much to all of us. It was eighty-five years ago this spring that ten girls met in this room where Ada Bruen and Libbie Brook lived. Fannie Thompson and Jennie Nicol could not be present that evening, but they had agreed to abide by the decisions of the others. And decisions were indeed made that evening, for the first constitution was ready just one week later and the badges, ordered from Chicago, were worn for the first time just sixteen days later, on May 14.

The room itself must be much as it was then, with its blue-sprigged wallpaper, with ruffled curtains at its windows. The little poster bed is not that same one which, we may be sure, served to seat some of the girls that evening. But it undoubtedly looks much like the one which stood in the room then. The study table and student lamp, the little wash stand with bowl and pitcher on it, the walnut dresser and wishbone mirror above it, the stove in the corner—all these pieces, so carefully selected, let us see the room today much as it must have been that April evening. Even the ice skates in the corner, we may imagine were left there possibly by Ada who loved skating and sports and games, left there to be packed into the pine trunk and taken home in June.

Spring has come again now to Monmouth, Illinois, to Monmouth College and to Holt House. The windows are open again to the gentle winds, to the street noises, to the noisy singing of birds and to the almost soundless rustling of small green leaves. The elaborate flower gardens at the rear of the Holt property are gone now, though. The brook which flowed there once and, in winter, provided skating for the Holt children and for Ada and Libbie, flows no more. The ten girls who met in this room that night, the two girls who could not be present then—these twelve women whom we know as the Founders—they, too, are gone from us now. But the house stands as it did then; and the fraternity which had its beginnings in this room celebrates this year the eighty-fifth anniversary of that first meeting with some 51,000 members, with pride in its founding and in its history, with faith in its future.

Having looked backward for a moment into the past, we step through the doorway of the Founders' Room, thinking of the present and of the future. And we think, once again, how very appropriate it is that this house, our house, Holt House, should stand restored today, a memorial to our Founders—open for the use of our members and for the use of others.

ELEANOR COOLEY,
Chairman Holt House Committee

THE POOR EXECUTIVE

Everyone knows executives lead a soft life.

Here's all they do.

Decide what is to be done; tell somebody to do it; listen to reasons why it should not be done; why it should be done by somebody else; or why it should be done in a different way.

Follow up to see if the thing has been done; discover that it has not been done; inquire why it has not been done; listen to excuses from the person who should have done it and did not do it.

Follow up a second time to see if the thing has been done; discover that it has been done, but done incorrectly; point out how it should have been done; conclude that as long as it has been done, it may as well be left as it is;

Consider how much simpler and better the thing would have been done had he done it himself in the first place; reflect sadly that if he had done it himself he would have been able to do it in 20 minutes, but as things turned out he himself spent two days trying to find out why it was that it had taken somebody else three weeks to do it wrong; realize that such an idea would have had a highly demoralizing effect on the organization, because it would strike at the very foundation of the belief of all employees that an executive has really nothing to do.—Source unknown.

Excerpts from the speech of Mrs. Frank Mason, Counselor for Women, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, at NPC entitled "A Dean Looks at Today's Campus"

Fraternities were founded with the avowed purpose of offering friendship and guidance to the freshman away from home for the first time. Through closer group living, the fraternity aids in creating high personal standards, in scholastic growth, in teaching the freshman to accept responsibility and thus render service to the campus community. Through their rituals they give a sense of Ideal and of intangible values.

Perhaps the most criticized practice of the sororities is rushing. In the last few years, the pattern of rushing on many campuses has become a "once-over-lightly" pattern. This year on my own campus, 70% of the girls indicating an interest in group membership were pledged in early fall rushing. An additional 10% have been pledged since in informal rushing. Most chapter quotas on the campus are now filled. Quotas were established for the purpose of helping more girls to pledge more Panhellenic groups; they were never established for the purpose of keeping girls from pledging.

Parents who want group experience for their daughters cannot believe that the girl has had a fair appraisal and a fair opportunity during one week or ten days of rushing. College administrators often hear from these dissatisfied parents but they rarely hear from the parent whose daughter has been aided by group friendship and group adjustment. Rushing is used as a scapegoat by many parents as a reason for lack of adjustment on the part of their sons or daughters. These people are the parents of the pledged as well as the unpledged. Like childbirth, rushing is often more difficult for the parent than for the son or daughter.

You are setting a pattern of public relations every day on every campus where your undergraduate chapters represent you. You will reap as you are sowing. As your chapter members live with all students on campus, as sorority members work in mutual harmony and trust in Panhellenic, as your chapters keep the chapter door open to friends, students and faculty, after rushing as well as during the "Open House" period of rushing, as members date the boy on campus because he is a boy and not because he wears a fraternity pin, as they participate in campus activities for the personal growth of each girl as well as for chapter growth, and as they work on campus with loyalty to the Alma Mater where they have their being and to which they owe their existence, they form public opinion for or against the fraternity system.

From the Foundation for Economic Education comes this clipping:

The Unknown Quantity

Perhaps one of the best arguments against attempts to equalize the fruits of human labor under a collectivist society is the infinite variety of human nature. It should be obvious that each person's desires and aspirations defy measurement—in both quality and quantity—by any other person. And since it is impossible to equate what cannot be measured, the collectivist society must fail in this announced objective.

It is perfectly possible, of course, to divide a pound of steak equally between two persons. That is a task requiring only a pound of steak, a set of scales, and a knife—and someone to do the dividing. It is also possible to decree that the two individuals shall have a certain number of leisure hours each day. But it is quite another matter to measure the relative value that two persons will place upon steak and upon leisure, for one is certain to be more fond of steak—or leisure—than the other. What satisfies the soul of one person may have little or no appeal to another—certainly not to the same degree.

Now suppose the purveyor of equality realizes that equal portions of steak will not accomplish this equality which he has set out to attain. He might then undertake to divide the steak unequally by weight, and to reapportion the total number of leisure hours, so that both individuals would be satisfied to exactly the same degree. By what means could he determine what quantity of leisure for one is equal to a certain quantity of steak for the other? At this point, he will have to abdicate from his collectivist throne, realizing that he has no scale by which he can measure any value for any other person.

If it is impossible for a third party to solve even this one simple equation for two persons, it is fantastic to believe that he could solve the infinitely more complex problem of equally satisfying all the desires of all the people. This egalitarian objective could be attained only if all people wanted the same quantities of all things in life. But they do not. Our forefathers sought to preserve the freedom of each individual to pursue, to the best of his ability, the satisfaction of his own particular set of desires—known only to himself. They had the wisdom to realize that in designing a society in harmony with this variation in human wants they were working with, rather than against, a principle of nature.

ALUMNAE CLUB LETTERS

Edited by VIRGINIA SHERMAN KOZAK, New York A

AROUND THE PI BETA PHI WORLD

Alpha West had the greatest percentage of clubs sending in letters, 92%, while Alpha East had the lowest, 50%. Next year let's all try for 100%.

Boston had Halloween pumpkins carved with Pi Beta Phi Greek Letters for their faces.

Buffalo had a Dorm Shower to which alumnae brought foodstuffs which were sent to active chapters for midnight snacks.

Cleveland East sponsors a family from a tuberculosis hospital.

Richmond club helps at the state industrial farm.

Bloomington had Carol Mitchell, runner up in Miss America Contest entertain club with chalk talk.

Kansas City, Missouri, helps at Rehabilitation Institute.

Lakeland members met Margaret Truman after a concert.

Arlington Heights, Illinois, a new club, has established an annual award for outstanding sophomore in Eta Province.

Minneapolis Evening writes letters to members who have moved away.

Cheyenne collected old license plates for scrap drive.

Midland, Texas, sews dressings for cancer foundation.

Vancouver and other Canadian clubs discussed altruistic project for Canada.

Albuquerque raised money by distributing telephone directories.

BOSTON

The first Boston Alumnae Club meeting was held in October. After the regular fall meeting where plans were discussed for the year, the club had a Halloween cooky-shine. One large pumpkin served as the center piece with small pumpkins around the table. All of the pumpkins were carved with Pi Beta Phi Greek letters for their faces.

November 14 was the date of the Arrow Craft sale, and despite the inclement weather, it was quite successful. Following the sale, the regular alumnae meeting was held. The club was honored by a visit from Miss Erminie Pollard, province vice president, who gave an informal talk about National Pi Beta Phi affairs. Preparations were made for the visit of Miss Amy B. Onken. Discussion was held in regard to membership. It is hoped that through the club's efforts the young graduates infiltrating from other parts of the country may be contacted.

The December meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Phillip Adams. Josephine Romedahl gave a talk and showed slides in connection with her trip to Europe and Egypt. After her very interesting résumé, refreshments and informal discussions rounded off the meeting.

The meeting in March was devoted to the annual business, the reading of reports, the coming initiation, and the election of officers.

Many alumnae went to the Pi Beta Phi active initiation on March 29 and to the very successful initiation banquet at Hampton Court in Brookline, Mass.

At the Founders' Day banquet the actives and alumnae had an opportunity to become better acquainted. It is the intention of the alumnae club to bring the actives and alumnae into closer contact with each other.

JANE STOUFFER

HARTFORD

The Hartford Alumnae Club held five regular meetings during the year, with four additional meetings being devoted to the Settlement School tea and sale, a Military Whist, the Founders' Day banquet, and the installation of officers' banquet. Meetings were held at various members' homes, were begun with dessert and coffee, followed by business proceedings, and concluded with a planned program.

The September meeting was in the form of a pot-luck supper and was concluded by a Chinese Auction, serving as both entertainment and a way of raising money. In October the club held a bridge meeting; Settlement School "doll mats" served as prizes. The Settlement School Sale in November proved quite successful and the serving of a delicious tea added to the occasion. In spite of a December snow storm the Military Whist was well attended and much enjoyed. In January the members derived a great deal of pleasure from a series of floral and scenic picture slides shown by the president of the club. The Constitution was featured at the February meeting, and the subject for March was "Interesting Jobs." Members looked forward to the Founders' Day banquet in April, and the Installation of Officers and reception of Connecticut A Seniors in May. Our Founders' Day banquets traditionally feature a cake baked in the form of a large Pi Beta Phi arrow.

Throughout the year the membership chairman has made a special point of encouraging recent graduates to attend meetings, and of introducing new members to the group with a brief account of their past and present activities.

LOIS M. COMSTOCK

MONTREAL

The Montreal Club held its first meeting of the year on October 9 at the home of Doris Winsor. Margaret Bagg spoke on Pi Beta Phi Constitution and History. For the November meeting the club had Miss Madeleine Levason, Women's Editor of the Montreal Herald, as the speaker. She spoke very interestingly about the life of a newspaper woman. This meeting was held at the home of Margaret Bagg.

The December "Christmas Party" was held at the home of Elaine Gibson. At this meeting all members participated in the program by making slipper socks, which the club donated to the Children's Memorial Hospital. In February, at the home of Beth McDougall, the club was fortunate in having as its guest speaker, Mrs. A. L. Ashton, who is well known in Montreal in the field of ballet. Her topic was "Appreciation of Ballet." She entertained us with demonstrations from some of her young, star students.

On February 26 a special meeting was called at the home of Betty Campbell to discuss the ideas for a Canadian project with two visiting Toronto alumnae, Isabel Sankey and Mary Scott. March 11 was the club's Annual Meeting with election of officers for the coming year. Following the business meeting, which was held at the home of Joan McDiarmid, an interesting discussion on "Hypnotism in the light of present day knowledge" was presented by Mr. W. G. Scott. In April the club celebrated Founders' Day with a special Founders' Day Luncheon. In May the club wound up its activities with a meeting at the home of its president, Evelyn Merkel.

It was again our privilege to endow a bed at the Children's Memorial Hospital. The club also donated a $100 Bursary to a needy and deserving woman student entering McGill College this year and $125 to the Cerebral Palsy Fund. The club's Social Service committee, headed by Margaret Bagg, deserve a lot of credit for its efforts in raising money.

KATY LOU NADAL GOSNELL (MRS. H. H.)

PORTLAND, MAINE

The Portland, Me., Alumnae Club held its first meeting in September. A tentative program for the year was planned, with chairmen for each meeting, and a telephone committee appointed.

In October, five new alumnae joined our group, Jacqueline Brown, Jean Lees Gyger, Ellen Economy, Mrs. Lyman Jacobson, Maine A., and Mrs. George Woodward, Florida I. A box of food for a surprise spread was packed and sent to Maine A. Seven dollars was reported as profit from our paper salvage drive. An entertaining program was given, with each alumna relating historical and personal recollections about her chapter.

In November, our Settlement School Tea was held at the Gannett Pent-House. A profit of approximately $120 was realized.

The December meeting was a combination of business and pleasure. Presents were brought, and placed under the Christmas tree, which were later given to a local charity. Twenty-two dollars was the profit from our recent rummage sale.

In January, an informal meeting consisted of testing memories with a recent Active Fraternity Examination.

In March, we were honored by a visit from Erminie Polard. The annual Sophomore Award selection for the most outstanding Sophomore in Alpha Province East was made; and an engraved identification bracelet was sent. Election of officers was held. Nancy White was chosen as our delegate to National Convention.

In April, our Founders' Day Luncheon was held; followed by a formal ceremony.

Our last event was a picnic, held in May.

MRS. JOHN SLEZINGER

ALPHA PROVINCE WEST

ALBANY, NEW YORK

The 1951-52 year of the Albany Alumnae Club began with a supper meeting at Gladys Weibacher's. The Fall meetings were devoted to the Settlement School Sales of which Betty Collins was general chairman. The first tea and sale was at Edna Archibald's in Loudonville; the second tea and sale was in Delmar at Helen Wolfe's, and, incorporating a new idea, a final sale took place in the conference room of the new Times Union Building.

At the November meeting, the Christmas Box was packed for the Settlement School at Dorothy Eisenhart's home.

The first meeting in 1952 at Edith Tallmadge's was one of the best attended, bringing our average attendance up to 20 alumnae per meeting. Our only Golden Arrow Mother, Margaret Davis Stinard of the University of Denver, spoke on her initiation and subsequent days in Pi Beta Phi.

Instead of its usual February meeting, the club enjoyed a bridge-luncheon at the University Club.

Marion Arkley, the president of the Albany Alumnae Club, was chairman of the February Panhellenic meeting. A representative of each of sixteen sororities gave a thumbnail sketch of the philanthropic work of her group. Maude Olmstead spoke in behalf of Pi Beta Phi. Maurine Evans was called on to give a report on the Panhellenic Bridge Tournament which she had organized.

Audrey DeGraff was hostess at the March meeting which was followed by a financially successful White Elephant sale.

The April luncheon, celebrating Founders' Day, with the Schenectady Alumnae Club was the high point of the season. Ben Fleming, a graduate of the Settlement School, teaching in Poughkeepsie, gave an inspired talk on the Settlement School as he knew it. Agnes Stoneman was the chairman.

Plans for the rest of the year included installation of officers in May and a picnic in June.

ALICE M. KNEIL

BUFFALO, NEW YORK

The Buffalo Alumnae Club has had a busy year. We have met each month having some afternoon meetings as well as evening meetings.

We had two very successful money raising projects. In the fall we sponsored the opening play "Admirable Crichton" given by the local Studio Theatre at which we made fifty-five cents on each ticket sold by our group. We also sponsored the sale of Helena Rubenstein Cosmetics. This sale was started before Christmas and was a source of many nice gifts as well as profit.

In December we celebrated Christmas with a delightful Mother-Daughter party at the home of Betty Hannum Cant. We had both mothers and daughters of Pi Beta Phi as guests and the party was complete with carol singing, games, Santa Claus, gifts, and refreshments.

At our January meeting the Chapter Loyalty program was most interesting. It was based on the play "The Flame" which portrays the life of Carrie Chapman Catt.

For our March meeting we had a Dorm Shower, a contribution of foodstuffs which were suitable for midnight snacks. These included such items as tea bags, cookies, candies, crackers, spreads, instant cocoa, and paper napkins and cups. These articles were packed and sent to several active Pi Beta Phi chapters to enjoy. Remember how you enjoyed those goodies from home?

We have several members in our group who have been with us for between 15 to 26 years. At our Founders' Day Meeting in April we honored not only our original Founders but also these local girls who have been working with us for so many years. Two of these Pi Beta Phi were charter members of the Buffalo Alumnae Club 26 years ago: Ella M. Donnocker, New York A '14, and Lena Dunning Kirby, Iowa B '06.

In May we had our Constitution and History meeting and closed a successful year with a family picnic in June.

ESTHER HAYES LAUBIN

HUDSON RIVER

The Hudson River Alumnae Club has enjoyed a number of very interesting meetings since the year's program calendar opened in October. Highlight of the year, however, was the annual Founders' Day luncheon held on April 29.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of club programs has been the appearance of either Hudson River alumnae members or members from other Pi Beta Phi chapters as speakers, in preference to outside talent.

At the year's initial meeting in October, Dr. Lorine Pruette, Tennessee A, gave a first hand report on her recent trip to the Settlement School.

Against this excellent and very useful background, the club held a tea in November in connection with the Settlement School sale. Hostess for this important session was club president Mrs. Randall Caine of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

Following the holiday season, a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Homer Miller of Tarrytown, at which members heard Miss Grace Sylvester, Vermont B, report on her extensive automobile journey through England and Scotland during the past summer.

One of our more important March activities was volunteer work on the part of several members toward the Easter Seals for Crippled Children campaign in Westchester County.

The year's program concludes in late May with a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Donald Leyden in Briarcliff Manor.

The board has designated Mrs. Jonel Jorgulesce as delegate to the Westchester Board of Women's National Fraternities.

VIRGINIA KAYE LALONDE

NEW YORK CITY

An old fashion cooky-shine was held at the home of Mrs. Steere Mathew in September as the first meeting of the season. In November a Settlement School sale and tea took place at Beekman Tower Hotel to which all alumnae, their friends, and active Panhellenic members were invited. Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam had the Christmas party and gifts were brought and wrapped for children of the New York Orthopedic Hospital. The Loyalty Day program was held at the home of Mrs. E. L. McKendrew in January. A card party was given at the Beekman Tower Hotel in February. Mrs. Howard F. Katzenberg entertained the alumnae club in March at which time election of new officers took place.

Several members of the New York Alumnae Club took part in the Third National Conference of UNESCO held in New York at Hunter College January 27 through 31. This conference was attended by 2500 delegates from all over the United States. Its purpose was for the delegates to learn how their communities could spread the idea of interdependence of peoples.

Mrs. Howard F. Katzenberg of the New York Alumnae Club was Chairman of the Conference Services Committee. She contacted the New York Alumnae Club and found a very enthusiastic response. Several Pi Beta Phi gladly volunteered their time to the conference and found it most worth while.

Mrs. Katzenberg suggested that active chapters or other alumnae groups wanting to do volunteer work for UNESCO write to:

MARILYN ANN BERG

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

The year 1951-52 held many interesting events for the Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club. Our programs varied from an informative review by Mrs. Susan Bond on her book "Wives are People" to an inspiring afternoon of music by a blind pianist, Mrs. W. Hruszak, and our own Katherine Rittenhouse Long gave a talk and showed slides of her travels in South America.

Business-wise we adopted the New York Δ chapter at Cornell as the active chapter we would like to help financially this year. The club gave two Settlement School teas in the fall, one in Westfield and one in Madison. The sales from Arrow Craft merchandise were over $1000.

Since the Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club has no active chapter close at hand, we decided to have a tea during the Christmas holidays for actives who were home on vacation. We entertained about twenty actives. Some of the chapters represented were those at Cornell, St. Lawrence, Syracuse, University of Michigan and University of Connecticut. Everyone had a fine time.

Our province vice president, Edna Olson Archibald, came to visit in January and told us what some of the other alumnae clubs were doing.

Though we meet as one group for luncheon monthly in homes located in Millburn, Morristown, Westfield or Montclair, we find that February is the opportune time to stay at home, so to speak, and meet in small groups. Many of our members cannot attend the large meetings regularly due to distance or family obligations. February gives the alumnae a chance to visit and become better acquainted.

We celebrated Founders' Day with special pride as it also marked the Silver Anniversary of the Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club. A lovely luncheon at the Fortnightly Club in Summit was attended by many charter members as well as present members.

The annual meeting in May was our last one until September.

DELORES COLEMAN COCHRAN

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

The 1951-1952 season of the Rochester Alumnae Club opened with a dinner meeting at the new Y.W.C.A. After a business meeting, the group toured the building.

In October the meeting was held at the home of Janice Clark Rumrill. Several of the members reminisced, to the delight of all, on some of the humorous aspects of their active days.

A copper demonstration at the new home of Genevieve Baker Van Saun was the November meeting. This was one of our two money making ventures to increase our convention fund. The other way, a Pi Beta Phi sponsored play at the Arena Theater, was held in January.

Ruth Simmons Schumacher was the hostess for the January meeting. At this meeting Rhea Nelson Poppink was elected our Convention delegate. We were entertained by the talents of several of our own members in singing, dancing, and recitation.

At Whitney Smith Scofield's home in February we saw the colored movies of Settlement School.

The club with their friends met at the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences in March to see the new and very interesting exhibits there.

The Founders' Day luncheon and bridge was enjoyed by a large number of members in April when we met at the Chatterbox Club. At this time Dorothy Battles Phillips was elected president and Mildred Lorence Carsky was elected secretary; each for a two year term.

In May at the home of Anna Boyd Patterson the club, under the leadership of our Convention delegate, Rhea Poppink, and Lydia Lueder Darling, will review the last Convention and will go quite thoroughly into the study of the agenda for the next convention.

Our year will end with a picnic at the lake in June with our husbands.

ELEANOR ALEXANDER DRAKE

SCHENECTADY

Our traditional covered dish supper began the activities of the Schenectady Alumnae Club in September at the home of Winifred Peck Carter. The Settlement School meeting in October featured Smoky Mountain Folk Songs and plans for the Arrow Craft Sale and Tea. Later that month, Gladys Wellington Bergman managed a very successful Settlement School Sale at the Woman's Club with the assistance of Virginia Newkirk Cain, who will be the succeeding chairman. A canasta and bridge party with white elephant prizes highlighted November.

Our club does not meet in December, but in January and February come the two most popular activities. First was the cooky-shine with reminiscences from the various chapters represented, and secondly, the bridge party with Pi Beta Phi husbands.

The Founders' Day Luncheon and later the May Breakfast make a pleasant spring calendar. In June our year's program will close with a family picnic.

CHARLEEN SEIBEL SESSIONS

SYRACUSE

An outstanding event of the fall season in Syracuse began with our club presenting a review of "The King and I," with narration and song by Mary Aldrige Jones. We were indeed fortunate in being the first group to have her current review.

The first meeting of the Syracuse Alumnae Club for the year was held in October at the home of Margaret Noxel Gratzler. Following the business meeting, material for our annual rummage sale was displayed and the most selective items were offered to our group in advance of the sale.

In November, Antoinette Stone Mawhinney opened her home for one of our unique luncheon meetings.

Our Christmas party, held at the chapter house in honor of the actives, was considered to be a successful affair. The house was warmly decorated for the Christmas season giving us added pleasure to an evening filled with sociability and entertainment. Many of us became sponsors to help guide a new pledge through benefits of our own experiences.

Edwards' Tea Room was the scene of our January meeting after which a program on Carrie Chapman Catt was presented.

Helen Craine Pratt entertained us in February with an old fashioned cooky-shine. Mary Downs Thompson gave a report on the Settlement School and philanthropic work of other women's fraternities.

There was a large attendance for the March meeting and officers were elected for the coming year. Anita Hotaling Foley was hostess.

In observance of Founders' Day, a banquet at the chapter house was held jointly by the alumnae club and the active chapter. Members of the Mothers' Club were guests.

The last meeting of the year was held in May which was highlighted by installation of officers.

MARGARET OGDEN McELFRESH

TORONTO, ONTARIO

The present year in the Toronto Alumnae Club might well be called "Bazaar Year." The second one to be held by the Toronto group since the war, will take place on Tuesday, November 4, 1952. Preparations have been going on since September under the able chairmanship of Jessie Rogers Warren, and various groups are meeting regularly, making everything from aprons to stuffed animals. We only wish some of our loyal out-of-town alumnae could be with us to help and join in the fun of this venture.

In November, Mrs. Marianne Reid Wild, Grand Vice President visited the active chapter. While here the Alumnae Advisory Committee met with her at dinner, and we all had a most pleasant evening.

One of the best meetings in the way of entertainment, was the Birthday party with the actives held in December. Some of the alumnae members rendered songs from rushing parties in the past, and the actives gave us a few of the songs from the skits used in rushing last autumn. The evening's festivities finished with the singing of the "Cake Song" and a huge Arrow Cake covered with candles was brought in. This is always an important gathering, because it is the first time we meet the new pledges.

At the March meeting, the new Executive was elected, as well as Convention Delegate. And in June the annual Garden Supper will be held in honour of the Graduates in the active chapter. Each of these girls will receive a crested teaspoon, and following supper, will attend her first alumnae meeting.

VALERIE CARSON

WESTCHESTER COUNTY

The Westchester Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the year at the home of Dorothy Tisch Dawley. After the business meeting Norma Mark Sherman showed us color slides of pictures taken during her recent stay in England. Marion Woodley Schlaepfer also showed us slides of her summer vacation to the Swiss Alps.

In place of the usual November meeting there was a Settlement School Sale. Helen Russell Mitchell of Scarsdale opened her home to Pi Beta Phi alumnae and their guests.

In December the bridge group entertained the club at the home of Lucy Huber Andrus. Everyone brought Christmas gifts for the children in Settlement School. After luncheon we gathered in the living room to sing Pi Beta Phi songs.

The Loyalty Day Meeting was held in January at Grace Bradford Bonnet's house. After luncheon and the business meeting, a paper on Holt House, written by Shirley Pietsch Bryar, was read.

The March meeting was held at Ann Jones Smith's home, and during the business meeting, officers for the coming year were elected.

The Founders' Day luncheon in April concluded the scheduled meetings for the club, but we are looking forward to an informal get together in June, when we will have a picnic at Irene Christaotes Warnk's in Mamaroneck.

Westchester Alumnae Club has been happy to welcome quite a few new members to their midst this past year. A new evening group composed of those who cannot attend daytime meetings has been organized. Barbara Brumbaugh of New Rochelle and Patty Pietsch of Larchmont, both recent graduates, have been instrumental in the formation of this group.

VIRGINIA GREEN MCCOY

BETA PROVINCE

ATHENS, OHIO

The Athens Alumnae Club started its yearly activities in September with a pot-luck supper.

In October the club continued its custom of entertaining the actives with a supper prepared by the members and held at the chapter house.

The November meeting was the highlight of the year, with Professor George Starr Lasher, head of Journalism at Ohio U., speaking and leading a discussion based on the anti-fraternity book and movie, "Take Care of My Little Girl." Professor Lasher is the father of two Ohio A Alumnae, Dorothy Lasher and Mary Elizabeth Barnett, ARROW Editor of "From Pi Phi Pens." He has been very active in National fraternity affairs and for many years has edited "The Rattle of Theta Chi."

In December the club held the annual Settlement School sale combined with a bazaar and bake sale. It was a great success.

January brought a very interesting meeting, "Down Memory Lane." All members brought snapshots or other mementos of their college days. Many fond memories were brought to mind, and of course the comical old fashioned pictures brought many laughs.

On April 28 the alumnae club joined with the active chapter in the observance of Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Athens' Country Club.

In May there was the annual election of officers and a discussion of rushing.

GENE E. WHEATON

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

The Central Pennsylvania Alumnae Club held its first meeting at a luncheon in Montoursville on November 10. Elizabeth Meyer, President of Pennsylvania Beta Chapter, Elizabeth Hill, Vice President, Kay Jony, Chairman of Scholarship, and Isabelle Harris, recipient of the scholarship ring awarded by the alumnae club were special guests, each telling about her respective work in the chapter. Adèle Alford, ARROW Editor, visited the Bucknell Campus November 17. An Advisory Board dinner, followed by open house for alumnae were held in her honor.

The Christmas Tea was held at the home of Dr. Mary B. Harris, December 4. Dr. Harris, who spent six months travelling in Cypress and Egypt and Mrs. Roy Tasker, who lived in Burma last year, gave highlights of their time spent abroad. Each alumna brought a gaily wrapped Christmas gift for a child at the Settlement School.

A buffet "cooky-shine" was given in Hunt Hall recreation room, February 26 by the alumnae from Lewisburg and Milton for the pledges and actives of Pennsylvania B. Mrs. Allen Rankin, province president, was the guest of honor. The buffet table was decorated with spring flowers, candles and other wine and blue accents. After the supper, the alumnae attended the regular weekly meeting of the active chapter in the chapter suite, at which time Mrs. Rankin gave a most helpful and inspiring message.

Mrs. Harold B. Shimer was hostess to the alumnae club, March 8, for the annual business meeting. Mrs. Wainwright Blake, President of the Club, conducted the meeting. Election of officers was held.

Founders' Day has always been celebrated by a joint dinner meeting of the pledges and actives of Bucknell, the patronesses and the alumnae club members. It featured the Candle-lighting ceremony in honor of the Founders and Pi Beta Phi songs by the group.

The Alumnae Club is looking forward to the Symposium dinner, June 7 at the Lewisburg Inn.

SARA DECK CROSSGROVE

CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

The Charleston Alumnae Club has had a very successful year with a record turnout at all our meetings. We have been delighted with the number of new Pi Beta Phis associating with the club and contributing to its strength.

The highlights of the year's activities were the buffet dinner at the home of Mrs. W. G. Rector, the bridge party at Miss Betty Hallanan's, the annual Christmas luncheon held with vacationing pledges and actives, and, of course, the Founders' Day banquet which is always a special affair.

The Charleston Alumnae Club is especially pleased with its Settlement School Sale. This year we held six neighborhood sales, enabling many more than usual to view the handwork. This proved a boon to sales volume and created more favorable comment.

Already plans are being made for our rush party in September. Much work and cleverness goes in to this event and serves to get us off to a bouncing start each fall.

JANE BROWN MOORHEAD

CINCINNATI

So far this year, the philanthropic activities of the Cincinnati Alumnae Club have included sponsoring a child for a summer campership; contributions to Holt House, Emma Harper Turner Fund, and Ohio Zeta; and sponsoring a local family at Christmas. We are endeavoring to find a local project to which we can contribute financially and also work with as a group. To support these charitable enterprises, we have engaged in two rummage sales, the sale of Stuart Nye jewelry, calendars, Christmas cards and wrappings, and raffling of baked goods at our monthly meetings.

In September, the young girls of this area were entertained at a rush party. The Club was ably assisted by members of Ohio Z. The University of Cincinnati Sigma Chi graciously lent us their house for the occasion, certainly a fine example of fraternity spirit.

We have had a variety of programs following our business sessions at the monthly meetings. These have included a lecture and movie about sterling silver, a book review, and travel movies taken and shown by one of our members, Gertrude Addicot. Then too we have especially enjoyed our always popular cooky-shine held at the home of Ruth Crabbe, and the annual June picnic for members and their husbands at Estelle Bond's home. In addition, the board members entertained Lolita Snell Prouty at luncheon and had the pleasure of an informative discussion with her. In April, Founders' Day will be celebrated with Ohio Z at Oxford, Ohio.

MARY JANE DERRINGER

CLEVELAND EAST

Cleveland East and the Junior Auxiliary Alumnae Clubs began a busy year in October at the home of Hazel Knapp Cole, enjoying practical and exotic decorating materials shown by Mrs. Kundiff of Higbee's.

October 25, Dorothy Jones Loofbourrow's lovely displays of Gatlinburg products, such as place mats set with harmonizing crystal and china, brought $497 at the Settlement School Sale.

Mrs. Carl Gausenmuller demonstrated unusual holiday flower arrangements in November at Josephine Bagley Davis' home.

Jean Sprague Benson, Program Chairman, presided at a Christmas exchange party at the home of Frances Barnard Zook.

Under the direction of Mary Nichol Dana, the club earned $108 selling Ice Follies tickets.

In March, each member brought to Dorothy Jones Loofbourrow's home a wrapped "White Elephant" which was sold to the highest bidder.

Helen Northway Prestien presided at the Founders' Day Luncheon. Mary Wallihan Gibson and Helen Levegood Clark gave the three Cleveland Clubs a new insight into Cleveland Pi Beta Phi history with their sparkling presentation, "Looking Into the Past."

The club looked forward to the May meeting at the home of Mary Wallihan Gibson. Velva De Moss Shortz, province vice president, brought news of the province.

Also in May, at Ruth Horrocks Sprague's, was a bridge benefit and tournament, arranged by Ruth Williams Wunderlich, Bridge Chairman.

New Officers will be installed in June at the home of Dorothy Loomis Kingsley.

Club members are bringing food and clothing to 1952 meetings for a family sponsored by Sunny Acres Tuberculosis Hospital, and have been giving ten dollars a month to aid a recent Sunny Acres "graduate" in his readjustment period.

ETHEL BAILEY STRATTAN

CLEVELAND WEST

Cleveland West Alumnae Club opened their season with an "Autumn Get-together" in September. Program chairman Peg Darrah Monson led the group in "get-re-acquainted-after-the-summer" games, one of which aided the treasury as the losers tossed pennies into the middle of the room.

There was music in the air when the Pi Beta Phi's gathered in November. James McCollum, former Musical Director of Lakewood High School, and his wife entertained with a Music Appreciation program.

After the holidays the West Side Pi Beta Phi's met at the home of Corinne Swanstrom Meerms, where they heard Anna Darrah Bishop give another of her delightful book reviews.

Cookies and cakes were in evidence at the opening of the February meeting, members of the Board were holding a surprise Bake Sale and before the meeting had started everything had been sold. To top this exciting beginning the program was particularly interesting, with Mrs. Margaret Johnson of The Cleveland Press reporting and commenting about the children and women of the middle classes in Western Europe.

In March thoughts turned to Civic Affairs as the Chairman of the Cleveland Planning Board enlightened the group with the city's plans—past, present, and future.

The April Founders' Day program, a luncheon held jointly with Cleveland East, was highlighted by "Looking Into the Past."

Fashion took the spotlight in May when Edna Maynard, Fashion Coordinator for the Sterling-Lindner-Davis Department Store, filled our heads with ideas for the latest in milady's clothing.

To end a very pleasant Pi Beta Phi year the alumnae will entertain the Cleveland-West actives, home for the summer, at a picnic in June.

ELIZABETH HOLDEN KARPICK

COLUMBUS, OHIO

The Columbus Alumnae Club's first meeting for the year was held at the home of Nellie Winkler Fallon. Rushing plans and recommendations were presented by the active chapter rush captain and plans were made for our contributions. The alumnae club and the Mother's Club serve meals to the actives and provide flowers for the house during rushing.

The October meeting was held in the home of Hulda Arbenz Edwards. After a wonderful buffet supper we had our regular business meeting and Mr. Samuel Wyer gave us a most inspiring talk on World Security.

Due to the success of the Settlement School Tea last year we felt it necessary to repeat it in November at the chapter house. Guests were invited and the Settlement School articles were displayed for sale. A new movie about the Settlement School was shown to the club at the evening meeting and the sale of articles was continued for the members.

Ohio B has a lovely new house mother this year so the alumnae club and the active chapter gave a tea in November honoring Mrs. Lynn Daughters, permitting the other groups on campus to meet her.

The Christmas meeting was very well attended and was enjoyed by all. Christmas cookies and punch were served while we played cards and were entertained by Dana Vibberts, singer of folk songs. Our annual project, the sale of Christmas paper, was brought to a climax at this meeting with a profit of $150.

We were honored with a visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Claude Shortz, in January. She made our Loyalty Day observance perfect with an inspiring message. This meeting was held in the home of Louise Hirsch.

February meeting was held at the chapter house. It was announced that we had 120 paid members to date, which tops our records for the past several years. Miss Fern Sharp, a local radio and television star spoke to us on "The First 100 Years Are the Hardest."

Election of officers took place at our March meeting and final plans were made for our benefit card party which was held March 19 at the new million dollar Student Union on the Ohio State University campus. We were so impressed with this lovely new addition to the campus that we had our annual Founders' Day Banquet there on April 28.

The last meeting of the year is always in the form of a picnic which is being held in June at the home of Dorothy Montgomery. We are planning a strictly social evening for our enjoyment and our guests, the graduating seniors of Ohio B.

PATRICIA B. FOWLER

DAYTON, OHIO

The busy season of the Dayton Alumnae Club began in September at the home of Lois Engelking. In line with National's suggestion that alumnae clubs identify themselves in some local philanthropy, we had Mrs. Sawtelle of the Volunteer Service Bureau tell us of the activities in which we could be useful. As a result many have volunteered time in these activities for the winter months. Each member made a scrapbook to be distributed to hospitalized children throughout the Dayton area.

At the October meeting, held at Barbara Gerth's, the budget for the year was presented and unanimously approved.

Mary Fran Hawkes had the November meeting. The club was divided into groups, each group to sponsor a bridge party in order to raise funds for our adopted needy family. Settlement school merchandise was displayed and sold to the parties.

The regular December meeting was held at the home of Betty Mellinger. A Christmas dinner was enjoyed with actives and pledges at the Yum Yum Restaurant December 27.

Highlight of the February meeting at Marian Hayes's home was the presence of our province vice president, Mrs. Claude C. Shortz, who gave a most interesting talk.

Scene of the March meeting was Betty Wilder's home where we elected officers for the coming year and held a successful talent sale.

In place of the annual dinner, Founders' Day was celebrated with a cookie-shine.

In May the regular meeting was dispensed with in favor of a family picnic.

GENE ATTWOOD MURCH

ELKINS, WEST VIRGINIA

The Elkins Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the beginning of a new year at the home of Dorothy Baughman on September 25 in Belington, West Virginia. All the correspondence that had accumulated during the summer months was taken care of and the program for the year was started.

At the October meeting held at the home of Betty Crawford, the program for the year was completed.

The November meeting was held at the home of Frances Ramberg. After the business meeting a dessert course was held in honor of the new pledges from the active chapter, at Davis & Elkins College.

We decided not to have a December meeting but instead present West Virginia B with a Christmas gift to be used in the sorority room.

The January meeting was held at the home of the president, Louise Haggarty. The History of the Fraternity was given by Mary Tyre.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mary Tyre, with the election of officers for the coming year.

BETTY JO SMITH

FAIRMONT, WEST VIRGINIA

Children's literature was the theme of the March, 1951 meeting of the Alumnae Club of Fairmont, W.Va., in the home of Margaret Snider at which Mrs. Mary Olive Jones, kindergarten teacher, was guest speaker.

For Founders' Day in April, the club invited five active members of West Virginia A as guests at the buffet-dinner meeting in the home of Genevieve Ice. The actives told the alumnae about the activities and honors of West Virginia A, and the chapter's needs and plans to make a chapter room out of the house basement. The club voted to give the active chapter $75 to use as it chooses.

Officers were installed at the May meeting in the home of Edith Ann McMillan Wilson.

A motion picture on the summer craft shop at Settlement School was shown at the September meeting in the home of Helen Poole Van Fleet, and our Settlement School display and sale was held a short time later. Space in a small gift shop near the business section was used for the display which was highly successful. Net profit of $77 was reported at the November meeting in the home of Barbara Clinton Cort. At this meeting, plans were discussed also for the visit of Velve Shortz, Beta Province Vice President, to the club in April.

The club's April rummage sale was planned at the January, 1952, meeting in the home of Ada Lee Rogers. This is just one of the club's recent money-making projects. The club's magazine chairman, Eleanor Hastings Parks, reported selling $35 worth of subscriptions during the Christmas season. A total of $55 has been cleared for the club through the sale of Helena Rubinstein cosmetics by Mary Elnora Shingleton.

At a special meeting in early March in the home of Margaret Darden, the club voted to send $50 to the West Virginia A Home Association to help meet an insurance payment due.

ELEANOR CARSON

HARRISBURG-CARLISLE

At the fall Round-up in September the speaker was Mrs. Richard Snyder, whose hobby is Handwriting Analysis. This was an interesting evening as well as a very revealing one! October was the Settlement School meeting with Mrs. Charles Hauser as the speaker. Mrs. Hauser's husband was a former forest ranger near Gatlinburg and her first hand information of the Settlement School delighted all of us. Mrs. Thomas Holtzman, Program Chairman, was hostess for the Christmas Tea and sale of the Settlement School Crafts, with the Panhellenic Delegates as guests. Louise Heckman, President, was hostess for a covered dish supper in January. The program was a Wine and Blue Memories Quiz. Each Pi Beta Phi brought a college picture. In February we had a dessert meeting with book reviews by Mrs. J. Edward Belt. Last year the White Elephant Sale was so successful that we repeated it for the March meeting. The new officers were also elected at this meeting. We celebrated Founders' Day with Pennsylvania I Chapter. The Carlisle Alumnae were hostesses and the actives provided the program. A spring luncheon in May concluded the meetings for this year. A Rummage Sale, two Food Sales and the Lending Library have added substantial amounts to the treasury.

JANE DAVIDSON

MAHONING VALLEY

Mahoning Valley Alumnae Club held its first meeting in October at the home of Paula Putnam Harrison, when plans were discussed for the coming year.

Before the next meeting Jane Scrutchin resigned as president because she was moving to another state. Mary Robbins Wood has very capably carried on throughout the year.

Financially the club has done quite well. The sale of pecans at Christmas netted $30 and ball point pens at twenty five cents each gave us a profit of $20. The return from Ohio sales tax stamps was $30.

Pi Beta Phi has been honored by the election of Rachel Hopkins as president of Youngstown Panhellenic Council for a term of two years.

There has been an average attendance of sixteen to eighteen at each meeting.

Several members have contributed to the programs by giving talks on their work. Rachel Hopkins told of Art in the High School, Marie Lawlor Barrett explained the program of Aid to Dependent Children, Nettie Pleasants Barnett told of the services to the deaf and hard of hearing in the Public Schools, and Grace Hooper Stewart, consultant in the State Child Welfare department, spoke on that subject.

The March meeting as well as Founders' Day luncheon was held in Warren.

Election of officers took place in May, and the picnic in June is always an enjoyable event.

MORGANTOWN

The Morgantown Club members held their annual rush party in August, at the country cottage of Mrs. H. I. Miller. The rushees and alumnae alike enjoyed the games and refreshments.

Mrs. P. I. Reed was hostess for the September meeting which featured a covered dish dinner. Plans were laid for the pledge dinner held at the home of Mrs. John Trotter in October, and for the Settlement School tea held at the chapter house in November. Mrs. J. B. Cordiner, Jr., granddaughter of Pi Beta Phi founder Fanny W. Libbey, was in charge of the most successful tea.

Loyalty Day was celebrated at the chapter house in January and our February meeting was combined with the Mothers' Club for a really old fashioned get together.

In March the History and Constitution of Pi Beta Phi were discussed, and Founders' Day in April consisted of a really interesting talk by Mrs. T. D. Gray on the lives of the various founders.

We ended a most successful club year with the annual Senior Breakfast in the home of Mrs. J. S. Farland. The graduates were presented with Pi Beta Phi Cook Books for their future homes.

SALLY SUTHERLAND GURTS

PHILADELPHIA

Our Settlement School Sale and tea have become so popular with friends of Pi Beta Phi that we had three separate parties in October, one in Germantown, one on the Main Line, and one at Swarthmore. They were all enjoyable and profitable. Madeline Yost Royer, Chairman of the sale, reports a net profit of $475.

The November meeting was held at Elizabeth Ferris Atherton's mother's home in Germantown in the evening. We had an interesting discussion on Juvenile delinquents with Mrs. Norman Carson, Chief of Women's Division of the Bureau of Police of Philadelphia.

A bridge party at the Bala Cynwyd Woman's Club was our only fund raising affair for the year 1951-1952. Thanks to Elizabeth Van Tine O'Brien and her committee for an entertaining evening. One amusing event of the party was the announcement that there was a lucky number taped under each bridge table. Immediately, there was a flurry of lifting and searching for the lucky number to win a prize. Pi Beta Phi projects will benefit from the money raised.

The Germantown Group started the ball rolling, and now we've all joined them in reorganizing Philadelphia Panhellenic. Barbara Higham Trudeau is the first president of the group and they are enthusiastically bringing the interest of other sororities to Panhellenic.

After a business meeting in January at Lucille Clark's, we saw her pictures of Europe. Evening meetings have been more popular, so we have had our meetings this year as "dessert meetings." In March, we met in the lovely home of Hilda Long Denworth for the election meeting.

The Philadelphia Club Founders' Day observance was held at the Strath Haven Inn in Swarthmore.

LOUISE JAMESON HANNAY

PITTSBURGH

The Pittsburgh Alumnae Club opened the season with a buffet supper at Dorothy Haller's on September 25. Edna Myers explained the plan for our benefit of the year. Replacing the customary benefit bridge, our individual talents were utilized in various projects and the money earned donated to the treasury. A prize was awarded the member making the "most from nothing." Candace and Clover Johnson delighted everyone with their reminiscences of Bermuda. Harriet McCaslin's pictures of her European trip were most enjoyable.

Gertrude Freeman was hostess for the Pi Phi Chocolate and Settlement School sale on October 25. Our many friends and members were most generous in their orders, and the committees were well repaid for all their efforts.

On November 17 we were most honored to have Mrs. F. H. Prouty, Grand Treasurer, with us for tea at Marie Davidson's. Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Prouty inspired us greatly with all the intricacies of her duties and vast responsibilities.

The Christmas dessert-party was held December 6 at the College Club. In spite of hazardous weather on January 10, a goodly number attended the meeting at Dorothy Wiggins', and were well repaid, for our hostess showed wonderful colored pictures of her European trip.

The luncheon-meeting at the College Club on February 16 was highlighted by Ann Kinter's talk on "Pennsylvania Dutch" and Dorothy Haller told of "Panhellenic in Pittsburgh."

Sophie Reding was hostess to our dessert-meeting on March 20. Election of officers occurred and Louise Hurd talked on "Our Constitution." Gertrude Freeman told of her "Caribbean Cruise."

The South Hills Club joined us on April 26 at the College Club for our annual Founders' Day celebration. Libby Heazlett was toastmistress and Lucile Carson, Grand Secretary, was a most inspirational speaker on this commemorative day.

We closed our year on May 15 with a buffet supper at Alice Faller's. Installation of officers, winding up the year's business, and discussion of the coming Convention closed a commendable year. Dorothy Bradley also entertained us with her travelogue pictures.

HELEN M. WEIBLEY

PITTSBURGH SOUTH HILLS

The Pittsburgh South Hills Alumnae Club met in September for the first meeting of the year. After a buffet supper, five new members were welcomed to the club. We now have 35 paid members.

As two of our projects for the year, it was decided to offer assistance to the new West Virginia B Chapter at Davis and Elkins, and to give a donation to the Booth Memorial Salvation Army home.

To help raise funds for these projects our members are encouraged to bring goods to be sold at the local Resale Shop.

In November, the officers of the South Hills Club, as guests of the Pittsburgh Alumnae Club, were privileged to hear a talk by Mrs. Frank H. Prouty, Grand Treasurer.

There was no formal meeting of the Club in November because of the sale of Arrow Craft goods. Lois Harper Berg, Settlement School Chairman, directed the sale at her home on November 7. In spite of the weather the total sales to the end of February were $1,163.

A social meeting was enjoyed by the club in February, followed a week later by a covered dish dinner-bridge party for the members and their husbands.

In March the election of officers took place, and April found us again meeting jointly with the Pittsburgh Alumnae Club to celebrate Founders' Day.

The last meeting of the year was held in May when the installation of officers took place.

MARGARET BOOSE CORNELL

TOLEDO

The Toledo Alumnae Club resumed its regular activities in September with a business meeting followed by the singing of favorite Pi Beta Phi songs. The actives, pledges, and mothers' club of Ohio E joined the alumnae club in a festive fall luncheon in October.

Ways and means projects for the year were negotiated through the three subdivisions of the club: Pi, Beta and Phi. The Pi group decided to have an assessment plan. Members of the Beta group thoroughly enjoyed knitting baby garments, constructing angel dolls and making holiday candles at their meetings in preparation for their Christmas bazaar. A George Washington card party held in February was sponsored by the Phi group. All these projects helped the alumnae club to finance the redecoration of the Ohio E chapter apartment.

A clever style show was presented at the Christmas party which was held in the gaily decorated Student Union. Featured on the program were a tea dress fringed with tea bags and accentuated with lemon accessories; a print dress composed of newspaper, modeled with a picture hat; and a plunging neckline dress in which plungers were put to good use. Ohio E were guests.

The inclusion of a community project in the regular program of the alumnae club caused quite a discussion at the March meeting when Mrs. Leslie Henry, public relations chairman of the volunteer bureau of Toledo, proposed various commendable activities for the alumnae to consider. Election of officers and a study of the constitution also took place at the March meeting.

Actives and pledges of Ohio E united with the alumnae club in observing Founders' Day at a banquet in the Women's Club. Movies of the philanthropic activities of the fraternity were shown.

The annual picnic will be held in June when graduating seniors from Ohio E are honored with gifts and welcomed into the realm of an alumna.

RUTH GOGEL

GAMMA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON-ALEXANDRIA

The Arlington-Alexandria Alumnae Club met at the home of our president, Frances Jacobs Tausig, in September, to plan the program for the year. The meeting was preceded by a pot luck supper.

Filled with Christmas spirit, the members devoted the October meeting to dressing dolls for Goodwill Industries. The distribution of all size and shape dolls, plus the cutting and sewing of outfits for each, took place at the home of Olive Snyder Molumphy. Most members took their dolls home for completion and brought them to the November meeting where they made a colorful display in the apartment of Lucille Nitsche Junge. Marie Lingo, our Province Vice President, honored us with her presence and welcomed us into the alumnae group.

Due to the full schedules which most of us have during December, the club decided on a luncheon meeting at Center Market City, the proceeds of which went to a charitable project, the Anderson Orthopedic Clinic.

In January we met at Edith Pirie Humphrey's. Lucille Junge read the Constitution, after which several very clever pantomime sketches were presented by Meredith Young.

February and Settlement School being synonymous, a talk was presented by Jean Wintz Horuff at Ethel Whittemore Mason's home. While listening to Jean, we were industriously sewing layettes for the Red Cross.

The March meeting and election of officers was held at Louise DuBose Magruder's home, followed by bridge.

Our club celebrated Founders' Day in April with a lovely luncheon at Washington's Old Club in Alexandria.

The last meeting of the year was a pot luck picnic in May, at which time we also held installation of officers.

LOIS KLEIN BROCK

BALTIMORE ALUMNAE CLUB

The Baltimore Alumnae Club opened the 1951-52 season on October 1 with an evening meeting at the home of Mary Ellen Michel. We heard a report by Nancy Taylor Cox, our Panhellenic representative, and we also discussed plans for the Settlement School Sale. The Settlement School Sale was held on October 22 at St. David's Parish House under the chairmanship of Dorothy Stack Russell, in conjunction with a benefit card party for the Boys' Home Society of Baltimore, of which Margaret Crawford and Jane Gore Myers were Co-Chairmen. This was an entirely new way of presenting Settlement School articles for sale and proved one of our most successful and well attended functions to date. The proceeds of the card party were used to buy a movie projector for the Boy's Home.

On November 5 we met at the home of Marjorie Belt. J. Ross Myers III, of the Junior Association of Commerce, gave an interesting talk on encroaching communism and how to preserve the American way of life.

Phyllis Crichton was chairman of the Christmas party held on December 3 at the home of Mrs. Detlev Bronk. Each member was requested to bring articles to fill Christmas baskets for needy families. We succeeded in filling baskets for five families, which were later delivered by Phyllis Crichton and Virginia Siems. It was announced at this meeting that Nan Ulle had been elected Vice President of Panhellenic.

Chapter Loyalty Day was celebrated on February 16 with a luncheon at the Ambassador Apartments. Our guest of honor was Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, Province Vice President. Mrs. Lingo spoke briefly on subjects of Fraternity interest, including convention plans and Settlement School.

Beverly Fertig was hostess on March 3 when we had election of officers and a report on the Constitution. The Founders' Day Banquet was held on April 24, at Levering Hall on the campus of the Johns Hopkins University. Ann Kerrigan and Louise King were Co-Chairmen.

Helen Doll Tottle will entertain us again on June 9 at a picnic and swimming party, with Pi Beta Phi children as guests of honor.

DOROTHY GRANT EDMONDS

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA

The Chapel Hill Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year at the chapter house of North Carolina A. Members of the active chapter gave a report of rushing and of chapter plans for the coming year. Vivian Phipps was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy left when Ann Rogers went to New York.

The November meeting was a special treat, a buffet supper, at the home of Susan Saunders. Betty Ray, of North Carolina A, reported on the status of the active chapter which received a fine rating on the visiting officer's report and on their plans for improvement.

Alumnae club members furnished the active chapter with the suppers following pledging and initiation. Many of the club attended the annual Pi Beta Phi Pledge Dance with its famous stairway to the stars in January and the Powder Bowl Football Game in which the active members of the local chapter defeated the $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ Sorority. Proceeds went to the Infantile Paralysis Fund.

Marie Lingo, province vice president, met with the club in December at the home of Vivian Phipps. Prior to the business session a pleasant social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Lingo told the group many interesting items on the National Panhellenic meeting held in Williamsburg, Virginia, the week before, on convention plans, and on the presentation of a Settlement School stole to Queen Elizabeth (then Princess) on her recent visit to Washington.

The March meeting which was held at the chapter house was devoted to a discussion of plans of the coming Convention. Club members attended the Founders' Day Celebration in Durham, North Carolina B was hostess to the alumnae and to North Carolina A.

FRANKIE SETTLE O'TUHL

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

The Charlotte Alumnae Club was visited in October by Marie Tunstall Lingo, Gamma Province Vice President. She brought to the club very interesting news of Pi Beta Phi alumnae members in public life in Washington and Gamma Province. This renewed and verified our sense of pride in our fraternity.

The November meeting featured a bridge party where new members were given an opportunity to meet the club members in an informal manner.

The January program in the interest of active chapters and celebrating Chapter Loyalty Day was emphasized with a quiz program. The questions pertained to the identification of members with their respective active chapters, after which each member described the life in her chapter house. From this discussion we learned of the many aspects of chapter life within the Fraternity. The Loving Cup Ceremony closed the meeting.

Forty letters were mailed to inactive members suggesting that each might like to bear some of the alumnae club's financial burdens by paying their annual dues even though they are unable to attend the meetings. Our treasury thus gained $12.

The "History of Holt House" was reviewed at the February meeting. This proved to be very interesting and informative.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a "cooky-shine."

FLORENCE ANDERSON

NORFOLK

The Norfolk Alumnae Club held a swimming party for rushees in September at the home of Betty Lühring, Gamma Province President. Members and guests were seated around the pool during the program and social hour.

Arrow Craft goods were sold in October at a coffee given in the home of Grace Shepherd Ferebee. Our friends were invited and the total amount of goods sold was over $600.

The first meeting for the year was held in October at the home of our President, Cherry Whitehurst Wood. Several new members were welcomed at this time.

In November we met at the home of Betty Lühring. This was followed in December by a Christmas Luncheon given at the Carriage House. Actives and pledges were special guests. Reports from the actives on rushing were enjoyed.

Katherine Batts Salley presented an interesting program honoring Chapter Loyalty Day and Holt House at our January meeting.

In February we decided to present a gift to an active chapter each year, Virginia I, our nearest active chapter, was selected to be the recipient this year.

The principal item of business during the March meeting was the election of officers.

The club celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon. All Tidewater Pi Beta Phis were invited to attend.

LOIS ADKINS POPE

MAY L. KELLER CLUB RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

This year Richmond alumnae have found very helpful a directory of local Pi Beta Phi compiled by the president, Mildred Allen Griffing, and a statement by Pauline Turnbull about the organization of the club; its dues, time of meetings, officers and committees, national and local projects, and budget.

The January meeting, preceded by a box supper was held at the home of Elizabeth Smith Moss. In February, the club was delighted to have thirteen actives from William and Mary College join them for supper and the evening at the home of Mary Thom Hatcher. Several recent alumnae gave brief descriptions of fraternity life at their college. The March meeting at which Fraternity Constitution was the principal subject of discussion was held at the home of Emily Jane Henning.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a dinner at The State Industrial Farm for Women in Goochland County. Here Betty Kates is superintendent and the Elizabeth Kates Foundation organized by the club in support of her work in helping misdemeanants reestablish themselves as worthwhile citizens has been a project very dear to the hearts of Richmond alumnae; so the club always finds special interest in its visits to State Farm.

The final meeting of the year was held at the home of Elizabeth Mercer Siersema. It was a great pleasure to have Marie Lingo, Gamma Province Vice-President, join the club for the luncheon and meeting.

KATHERINE KING NAYLOR

WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

The Wilmington Alumnae Club has held six meetings this year. These include the Settlement School Sale, the most successful we have ever had, and the Founders' Day dinner.

We find that evening meetings bring out a larger group, due probably to the fact that young mothers need no baby sitters and our employed girls are free. We have both afternoon and evening gatherings but feel that this arrangement does not make for a unified group. Can other alumnae clubs give us any suggestions?

There is another pointed question we should like to ask. Can other Pi Beta Phi Alumnae groups interest recent graduates or recently married alumnae? We seem unable to do so. Is it a fault of our own club or is it because young alumnae were not enthusiastic Pi Beta Phi in their college days?

Several weeks ago our club was hostess and responsible for a Panhellenic Fashion Show. Since sixteen Pi Beta Phi took an active part in this project and six others attended, we are very proud.

We also had an unusually interesting guest meeting in January, at which Miss Ruthanna Hines, curator of the Wilmington Historical Museum, talked to us about Delaware Silversmiths of the 1800's.

Recently too we held a White Elephant Sale, just among ourselves, in order to boost our Convention Fund for this coming summer. There, in Texas, we hope to get some of the answers to our problems and also added enthusiasm for the year ahead.

DELTA PROVINCE

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

Convention, with the money raising and planning that is its necessary prelude was the keynote of the Ann Arbor Alumnae Club's program for 1951-52.

At our first meeting at Barbara Heath Killin's Mrs. Virginia Brackett Green, visiting province vice-president, brought us news of Settlement School, Holt House and other Pi Beta Phi activities.

Impressed with the coffee urn used by our hostess, we volunteered to buy enough shampoo to get one as a premium for the club, and at the next meeting completed the project.

Rebecca Downey White hosted our November meeting, at which time fund raising activities were planned. It was also proposed that we spend our time at meetings doing some useful handwork, which eventually culminated in our rolling cancer dressings while business continued as usual.

The February meeting was at Phyllis Blanchard Wright's, with Dorothy Dake Boris reporting on the Ann Arbor Panhellenic she helped organize and Pat Young Lowrey on the rushing then in progress at the chapter house.

A rummage sale in February netted us $120 and a Benefit Bridge and Settlement School Sale was held March 29 in the chapter house.

All Michigan chapters and clubs again joined in celebrating Founders' Day in the Union of Michigan State College at Lansing, with the Ann Arbor club in charge of the program this year. Peg Martindale Griffith, who organized a women's crusade against crime in Gary, Indiana, was our Pi Beta Phi guest speaker.

At the end of our profitable and pleasant year, we all await the climax, Convention.

GLORIA HUNTER HUNTER

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

The Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club held its first meeting at the home of Martha Holbrook John. Dorothy Root Metzger took charge of the entertainment for the active-alumnae party. A Settlement School meeting was held in October at Marion Staley Sharples' home. In November Kenny Ferguson Cowlin held an Arrow Craft goods luncheon. As a result of this meeting many of the members took turns showing off this display in their respective homes to their friends and neighbors. Our festive Christmas party was held in Marjory Beebe Hadley's home. Inexpensive gifts were exchanged. Barbara Fairman Jickling led the singing while Mary Collins Post presided at the piano.

In 1952, Pi Beta Phi Loyalty day was observed at Beverly Grier Douglas' home. Betty Gatward Little made an excellent auctioneer at the White Elephant Sale which followed the business meeting. February was a busy month with a dessert-business meeting at Dorothy King Bull's and a Valentine dance we helped sponsor with the Detroit alumnae that was given at Plum Hollow Golf Club. In March the group took on social welfare work. The pre-schoolers at the Oakland County Children's Home became our worthwhile project. Our Arrow Craft goods were displayed at a Birmingham store, the Campbell Village Store, in April. The group also enjoyed seeing many old friends at State Day in Lansing that month. The year will close with our annual picnic in June at Betty Jackson Shaffner's country home.

JOSEPHINE FAYART WEIRICH

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA

The first meeting for the year was in October at the lovely new home of Dortha Lee Williams Karsell. Twenty-four pledges of Indiana B were honored at this buffet supper. New alumnae members were introduced by the president, Peg Leining Ferrey.

Miss Onken came to Indiana University Campus early in November as the main speaker for the Annual Greek Week celebration. The alumnae and actives were honored to have after-dinner coffee with her at the chapter house. At the regular November meeting a "Gift and Goodies" sale was held.

The annual Christmas party was held in December. Each member brought a book to be given to children at the Christian Center. Gift exchange within the club was limited to household items. Special appreciation was expressed at this time to Indiana B housemother, Mrs. Bertha Lockhart, and to her graduate assistant, Joan Slaker, Iowa B.

A guest meeting was held in January. Carol Mitchell, senior, runner-up in the 1951 Miss America contest, entertained approximately ninety members and their guests at the chapter house. After telling of experiences in the state and national beauty contests, she gave a humorous chalk talk and a marionette show.

The club met at the chapter house in February for a Constitution meeting, and in April for a Founders' Day program. A coffee hour was held with the new pledges in March. Ann Woodward Moore continues to keep a permanent supply of Settlement School goods on hand in her home and on display at club meetings.

The last meeting of the year was a dinner meeting in May in honor of the graduating seniors of Indiana B.

HELEN GRANT BARKER

COLUMBUS, INDIANA

A meeting of all Pi Beta Phi alumnae residing in and around Columbus, Indiana was called for November 7, at the home of JoAnn Givens. Nineteen out of the twenty-nine known Pi Beta Phis that were contacted attended. An affirmative vote on the question of whether to petition for an alumnae club charter, cleared the way for election of officers and a discussion of the program for the year. Six meetings a year including a rush party to be held in June or July was agreed upon.

The first meeting as a chartered group of twenty-eight members was held at the home of Margaret Scudder Kitchen. The club was very fortunate in having Delta Province Vice-President, Virginia Brackett Green, present at this early meeting. She answered questions and gave helpful suggestions. There was a feeling of a greater degree of unity and purpose of action as a result of having this first hand information, which is especially needed for the future success of any organization.

Jeanne Maris Beggs entertained the members at her home for the March meeting. It was decided at that meeting to let the same officers carry through for next year since they had not held a full term of office. Plans were made for a white elephant sale to be held at the May meeting, which is to be held at the home of Jane Dungan Sohn.

The club celebrated Founders' Day with other Indiana alumnae clubs and active chapters in Indianapolis at the State Day luncheon.

MARION MEANS SHOCKNEY

DETROIT

The Detroit Alumnae Club, comprised of five individual groups, had a total of 138 paid members during the 1951-52 season. The club's principal altruistic project has been the International Institute, which tutors and looks after the progress of Displaced Persons. Many of the club's members have taken trips through the Institute and attended its Old World Market, at which clothes, toys, foodstuffs, and art works of numerous countries were displayed.

The first citywide meeting, under the skillful guidance of Mrs. D. G. Scott, president, was a membership tea given on October 26 in the recently completed Veterans' Memorial Building. The guest of honor was Virginia Brackett Green, Delta Province Vice-President, who related interesting highlights of the Settlement School activities.

On October 26 a bridge luncheon was held at which the Settlement School wares were displayed, and on December 28 a tea was given in honor of the Pi Beta Phi actives living in the Greater Detroit area. Each of the club's five groups had its own moneymaking project during the Christmas season. Among the most successful of these were the sales of boxed pecans, gift wrappings, and calendars.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was our dance given at Plum Hollow Golf Club on February 8, which was attended by over 100 members together with their escorts. Founders' Day was celebrated at the Michigan State

Union Building in East Lansing, and the club's annual city-wide luncheon will be held on June 7 in the L'Aiglon Room of the Fisher Building.

RUTH FORD MCINTYRE

FORT WAYNE

Swing your partner, dos-à-dos, the Fort Wayne Alumnae Club got off to a grand start in September. We always begin the year with a party for our husbands, and get acquainted with the new members.

Our program this year was most interesting and varied. It included a raffle with the winner choosing $10 worth of Settlement School products, a bridge, Christmas party for actives, two rummage sales (one in the fall and one in the spring), and several guest speakers.

In March we brought Professor Reed Winsey, Head of the Art Department at DePauw University, to Fort Wayne for a lecture. The program was held at the Art School Auditorium with the public invited. We feel that this is a very worthwhile program to bring to the community.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April with a buffet supper. Our new officers were installed at the May meeting. A picnic in June ends our activities for the year.

MAURINE LEAS HINES

FRANKLIN, INDIANA

The alumnae and actives honored the new pledges and their mothers at the annual cooky-shine September 15. Following the dinner open house was held at the girls dormitory. A lovely line was formed by the pledges, active president, and alumnae president. All were dressed in white formals and held arm bouquets of red roses.

On October 23 the actives and pledges were guests of the alumnae club at a pitch in dinner at the home of Reeda Holstein Fertig. Mrs. Carol Sipe of Indianapolis gave a very interesting talk on fine gems.

We celebrated our sixty-fourth anniversary, January 8 at the home of Frances Klyver Blake with a candle light service honoring the Founders. A memorial service was held for three of these Founders who have died within the past year. The members of the active chapter were guests.

Virginia Green, province vice-president, visited the alumnae club, February 12. The officers and committee chairmen met with her in the afternoon and discussed club activities. Following a dinner given for Mrs. Green, the regular meeting was held at the home of Joanne England Spears. After the business meeting, Mrs. Green gave a very interesting talk primarily on Settlement School, Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner Fund.

The main project for the ways and means committee has been the sale of pecans. So far thirteen hundred pounds have been sold by the members of the club. We have also sold perfume and engagement calendars.

ELEANORE DITMARS COMER

GARY, INDIANA

The Gary Alumnae Club held the first meeting of the year in September. Our programs, made of heavy blue paper and tied together with wine ribbon, were distributed to the members. We were happy to welcome four new girls to our small club.

Virginia Brackett Green, our province vice-president was our guest in October. Preceding the meeting we had dinner in the lovely new "Duneland" dining room of the Hotel Gary. After Mrs. Green's interesting report on Settlement School and Holt House, we planned for an Arrow Craft tea to be given in November.

In spite of a terrible blizzard we had our tea as planned and were happy to sell over $200 worth of articles.

The club held no meeting in December, but entertained at a bridge luncheon the active Pi Beta Phis home for the Christmas holidays.

In January, Chapter Loyalty Day, we voted $5 to the Emma Harper Turner Fund, $5 to Holt House, $5 to Save the Children Federation and $15 to Settlement School. The members enjoyed hearing excerpts read from the minutes of years gone by. We also enjoyed learning about Pi Beta Phi initiation some 55 years ago.

Our two representatives of the Panhellenic Council are among those taking the leadership in consolidating the rushing activities of Panhellenic sororities in Gary.

We entertained our husbands in February at a pot-luck dinner and card party held in a home on the beautiful shores of Lake Michigan.

In March, the new officers were elected followed by a social meeting.

On Founders' Day in April, the Hammond Alumnae club were invited to be our guests. Clever skits and musical numbers by our members composed the program.

At the May meeting the new officers were installed and plans were made for the annual rush party to be held in June.

EMILY JENKINS

GRAND RAPIDS

The Grand Rapids Alumnae Club began its year's activities in October with a meeting held at the home of Henrietta Sullivan. Virginia Brackett Green, Province Vice-President, was our guest for the evening. She spoke vividly and informatively on Settlement School, Holt House and Pi Beta Phi endowments.

In November we met at the home of Beverly Behler. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held in December. Irene Kingston, recently returned from travel abroad, entertained us with highlights of her trip.

Our Christmas party was held at the home of Madeleine Nichols. All attending exchanged inexpensive gifts and took part in a Christmas program.

Our Loyalty Day meeting was held in January at the home of Gertrude Dunwell. For this meeting our program chairman, Dee Whittenberger, borrowed the colored slides of Holt House. We all marveled at the quaint charm and interesting history of this Pi Beta Phi home.

We held our constitution meeting at the home of Marian Lamb. Articles of the constitution were discussed and reviewed. This was followed by an illustrated talk by our hostess on her recent trip to Mexico.

Our next meeting was a Settlement School sale and Chinese auction held in March at the home of Henrietta Brown. Members brought small articles they had made or baked which were auctioned. Settlement School progress was discussed.

We honored the Founders of Pi Beta Phi with a dinner and ceremony at the home of Mary Alice Hargitt.

A spring get together at the home of Anna Schuck brought to a close what has been a splendid year under the leadership of Beverly Behler, our president.

MARILYN BERSIE HAGERUP

HAMMOND, INDIANA

Members of the Hammond Alumnae Club met on September 18 at the home of Mary Ellen Barrett Easter day. Plans were formed for the club's presentation of Anne Birk Kuper, Chicago dramatist, in "The King and I." Margaret Benoit Dixon was named chairman of the event, which took place on October 19.

The meeting scheduled for November was changed to October 23 because Virginia Brackett Green, Delta Province Vice-President, was in Hammond to visit our club. A pleasant evening was enjoyed at the home of Margaret Benoit Dixon.

Frances Ford Lorentzen was hostess for the Christmas party. Jean Bacon McAnulty brought some lovely examples of Christmas decorations and explained how they were made. A gift exchange was followed by refreshments.

There being no regular meeting in January, the group met next in February at the home of Jane Calton Sohl. The program concerning Loyalty Day was very interesting. Members recalled happy times while in college, and changes and improvements at some colleges were reported. A phonograph record of Pi Beta Phi songs was played.

Election of officers was held in March at the home of Barbara Singleton Conner. The duties of each office were reviewed.

For the April meeting, Pat Smith Thomas of Smith Decorating Company was guest speaker. Frances Dennis Rees was hostess.

Members look forward each year to the May meeting, which is a pot-luck supper to which husbands and escorts are invited.

KATHRYN SEEBERGER WEBER

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

In September members of the Advisory Board of Indiana I described the nature of their relationship with the active chapter and the specific duties of each advisor. This discussion brought Indianapolis Alumnae Club members a clearer picture of one of the most important alumnae functions, advisory service. The October program was presented by seven local alumnae of national fraternities. Each described the philanthropic projects of her group, and listeners were impressed with the magnitude of funds and service that fraternity women give to their local, national, and world communities. The Arrow Craft Guest Tea on November 15 was a joint project of the alumnae club and the junior auxiliary. So Sure of Life, a book about the Gatlinburg area and its needs, was reviewed. November also brought Alice Mansfield, Director of Extension, to Indianapolis. Alumnae enjoyed her company at luncheon.

The January meeting was held jointly with the junior auxiliary. Virginia Brackett Green, Delta Province Vice-President, was official visitor. Her colorful talk on Constitution and History was followed by an exciting quiz based on facts about Pi Beta Phi. Although Virginia lives in Indianapolis and attends many club meetings, she always makes her official visits occasions of special helpfulness and inspiration. The January meeting was enhanced by the presence of Margaret Burroughs Adams, Texas A., who was visiting Indianapolis with her Hoosier husband, artist Wayman Adams. Mrs. Adams, personal friend of Carrie Chapman Catt, helped us pay tribute to this great alumna. In February, alumnae, senior and junior, entertained Indiana I actives and heard a discussion of current history by Donald Bruce, a local newscaster, who just received the Jaycee award for Young Man of the Year in Indianapolis. Junior auxiliary members are selling Rubenstein products and all-season gift wrappings.

LOUISE ROSE HAURY

JACKSON, MICHIGAN

Prospective rushees and the city wide Panhellenic tea were the main topics of discussion at the season's first meeting held in September at the home of Mrs. Marcus Sharpe. In October the visit of Virginia B. Green held the spotlight with a dinner meeting at the Hotel Hayes followed by Mrs. Green's talk on the Settlement School. Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, president, was hostess at the social meeting of bridge and canasta in November. High lights in the life of Carrie Chapman Catt given by Mrs. George Sampson were presented at the home of Mrs. Paul Young in January and jars of jam and jelly were collected for presentation to an active chapter. Mrs. William Roberts opened her home to the February meeting and election of officers. Mrs. Franklin Speakman gave a history and description of Holt House. In lieu of the regular March meeting a pot-luck dinner for members and husbands proved to be a success with Mrs. J. W. Kluberg a generous hostess. Founders' Day was observed with a candlelight ceremony at Mrs. William Bootes' home and the annual state wide luncheon given by Michigan I. Mrs. Franklin Speakman was our hostess for the May cooky-shine.

IDA JANE SHARPE

LANSING-EAST LANSING

The Lansing-East Lansing Alumnae Club has continued with its program of monthly meetings under the leadership of Eunice Jeone Schloemer as president.

Our great interest is always our nearby chapter Michigan I, which gave a party for us in the fall. We entertained in February at a party for the pledges at Grace Cary Bachman's home, and a Senior breakfast at Mary Jackson Tranter's in May.

On October 8 we enjoyed a visit and talk from our Province Vice-President Virginia B. Green. On November 2, Alice Weber Mansfield, Director of Extension, visited the club and met with our advisory committee. Both had ideas which were very helpful to us.

We held a successful Settlement School sale and tea at the chapter house October 30.

On December 3 we took time out for a Christmas bridge party. In addition to these activities we had two rummage sales and raised some needed cash.

Perhaps the high light of the year is the State Founders' Day luncheon held here for the fourth consecutive year in the Michigan State Union building. As always members of Pi Beta Phi appeared from chapters all over the United States and Canada, and our three state chapters helped entertain. A tea at the Michigan I house followed.

A family picnic will close what we feel has been a good year.

RICHMOND, INDIANA

The Richmond Alumnae Club with fifteen members, began its year in October by meeting at the home of Jeannette Brown Hall. The evening was spent planning our Pi Beta Phi Settlement School sale and tea, and writing the invitations. The tea was held in November at the rustic country lodge of a Pi Beta Phi father. Each of our seventy-five guests seemed to enjoy thoroughly the showing of the Settlement School film. It was a snowy, blustery afternoon so many donuts and considerable coffee were consumed. Our profits from Arrow Craft sales were $189.

In the fall we welcomed Margaret Inglis to our group and reluctantly said farewell to Dorothy Mayhew Lay who moved to Seattle, Washington.

Our club treasurer, Betty Steen, had a lovely church wedding in February, when she became the bride of Frank Colacello.

Lucretia Long Decker, with her two sons, is enjoying a reunion in Germany with her husband, a colonel serving in Europe.

BETTY BARTEL WILLIAMS

SOUTH BEND-MISHAWAKA

The first official meeting of the South Bend-Mishawaka Alumnae Club was a potluck dinner held in February, 1950, at the home of Charlotte Kuperer Ford. After dinner the charter was signed by the twenty-six alumnae present and plans were discussed for future meetings. Officers were elected and, since this is a new club, the remainder of the meeting was spent getting better acquainted.

In March the meeting was held at the home of Betty Pusch Thompson. Committee chairmen were announced and suggestions made for methods of increasing the club funds.

The club celebrated Founders' Day, 1951, with a luncheon at the South Bend Country Club. The center piece of the luncheon table was a large wine and blue arrow surrounded by carnations. The place cards were small arrows with tiny chains attached. Frances Simpson Block spoke on Holt House. The talk was particularly interesting as Frances is an alumna of Monmouth College and had seen many of the remarkable improvements made on Holt House herself.

The meeting in May was held at the home of Jerry Kuss Skene and plans for a Pi Beta Phi Settlement School tea in the fall were discussed. Margaret Thornberg Pyle gave an interesting review of her recent trip to the Smokies. She told about the mountains themselves, Gatlinburg and the people who live there. Of course, Pi Beta Phi's contribution to that community was the focal point of her discussion. Articles from the Arrow Craft Shop were also displayed.

BETTY PUSCH THOMPSON

SOUTHEASTERN INDIANA

The Southeastern Indiana Alumnae Club held its first meeting at Clifty Inn, Madison, Indiana, on September 17. We spent a most enjoyable evening with Virginia Brackett Green, province vice-president, as our guest. Our program was devoted to the Settlement School.

Before the dinner at Clifty Inn we were very graciously entertained in the home of Mrs. George May.

The November meeting was held in Homer, Indiana, with Emmy Waggoner, one of our members, and her husband, Bob, who had charge of the program. We spent a most interesting evening learning first hand about the reproduction and sale of the Early American furniture which they manufacture in their small factory in Homer.

The February meeting was held in Greensburg, at the Elks Club Ladies' Room, and was devoted to the study of the Constitution and the History of Pi Beta Phi.

The April meeting was devoted to Founders' Day, and was held in Milan, Indiana with the members from Osgood as hostesses.

Our Settlement School tea, which was held this year on November 4 at the home of Margaret Woodfill Morison, was definitely a success netting the alumnae club a profit of approximately $100.

JANET JERMAN FOGG

SOUTHWESTERN INDIANA

The members of the Southwestern Indiana Alumnae Club have met the second Monday of each month for their business meetings.

Our money making projects for the year included a rummage sale, a Settlement School Tea, and a luncheon set raffle. The Settlement School Tea was held at the home of our president, Lois Hartt Keune. Our November meeting was a dinner meeting held at the Evansville College Dining Room. Our annual Christmas party was a tea for all Pi Beta Phi's, their mothers and guests.

Our philanthropic project for the year was a contribution for the purchase of a phonograph for the Orthopedic Class of the Evansville Public Schools. We also had a record shower at our November meeting and each member brought records to be donated with the phonograph.

Our Founders' Day meeting in April was highlighted with the singing of all Pi Beta Phi songs.

We are looking forward to the May meeting which will include the installation of the new officers. We also plan to have one meeting devoted to the entertainment of our husbands.

PATRICIA BECKER COLBORNE

EPSILON PROVINCE

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

The first meetings in 1951 of the Chattanooga Alumnae Club were held at the chapter house, and both August and September meetings were concerned with assisting the actives with rushing. The alumnae served dinner at an Arabian party for the rushees at the Witches' Cabin on Lookout Mountain. Entertainment was furnished by the actives with appropriate skits. The most impressive one was about Aladdin whose magic carpet carried him to various parts of the world which were represented by clever songs and skits by the actives.

At the November meeting both actives and alumnae were present as our province president was visiting the chapter and we enjoyed a very inspiring evening with her.

Plans were made at the December meeting for the sale of Arrow Craft goods. The sale lasted three days at the chapter house, and the profits were $300. At the December meeting Mrs. J. B. Phillips, a former teacher at the Settlement School, gave a very interesting talk on changes that have taken place at the school in recent years.

The active chapter met with the alumnae again at the January meeting for the purpose of celebrating Loyalty Day. All vows were renewed in a very impressive ceremony by candlelight. The meeting was closed with songs and the ritual.

The February meeting was dispensed with as the alumnae entertained the new initiates at a banquet. After all awards were given, the new initiates presented the active chapter with many useful gifts for the sorority house.

Mrs. Robert S. Wild, our Grand Vice-President, was our guest speaker at a joint meeting of the active chapter and alumnae in March. The election of new officers was also held at this meeting.

The April meeting was dispensed with due to the annual Founders' Day luncheon.

The meeting in May was concerned with plans for the 1952 Convention in Houston, and movies of the Jasper Convention were shown.

VIRGINIA JOHNSON MCKENZIE

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

The 1951-52 year was a busy one for Kansas City Pi Beta Phi as they gave their time to the Rehabilitation Institute, planned and executed a very lovely and successful Settlement School Tea, sold tickets in a money making raffle and, of course, attended meetings, both afternoon and evening.

Our work at the Kansas City Rehabilitation Institute, supervised by Mildred Merritt Acuff, reached new heights this year with a total of 816 donated hours. We also gave $175 to the organization and assisted in the challenging task of moving the Institute to new and larger quarters. Because of our evident interest in this type work, we were asked to represent Panhellenic on the Volunteer Service Bureau, a division of the Kansas City Council of Social Agencies.

Following in the tradition of former years, the annual Settlement School Tea, under the capable chairmanship of Milruth Hawkinson Carlson, netted $632 and Marilyn Sweet Kiene's well organized raffle resulted in an addition to the Treasury of $930.

The addition each month of a supplementary afternoon meeting was enthusiastically accepted in January and became a definite part of our club schedule.

The year's activities whirled to a climax in April when we paid tribute to the first members of Pi Beta Phi at our formal Founders' Day Banquet. Margaret Granger was the gracious toastmistress who introduced our charming guest speaker, Alice Weber Mansfield, Director of Extension.

BARBARA KELLOGG

KNOXVILLE LITTLE PIGEON

The Knoxville Little Pigeon Alumnae Club held its first fall meeting at the home of the president, Nelle Morris, in September. Plans were made to assist Tennessee Pi in rushing. A buffet supper was given for the actives and pledges immediately after the pledging ceremony at the home of Mary Alice Turney.

The November meeting was a luncheon honoring Mrs. Paul Hansen, Epsilon Province Vice-President, who inspired everyone with her enthusiasm and knowledge of current events within the fraternity nationally.

In February the club entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Robert S. Wild and assisted Tennessee Pi with a tea in her honor at the chapter room. Jo Oliver was hostess at a Settlement School meeting in March. Founders' Day was again celebrated at a joint party with the actives.

Climaxing the year's activities was installation of officers at the home of Betty Acker in May. The annual "Pi Phi family picnic" ended the year in a most enjoyable manner, a joint party to which all actives, alumnae and Mothers' Club members, with their families, are invited.

Barrineau Burrage, Tennessee Γ sophomore, daughter of Dixie Harris Burrage, 1951-52 club president, was chosen the "No. 1 Beauty" at the University of Tennessee by Cecil B. DeMille. There will be a full page picture of her in the 1952 Volunteer, student annual.

MARY ALICE WITT TURNEY

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

The Lexington Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began its new year with much enthusiasm. In plans for the year's program it was decided to alternate the programs of the meetings, one being social and the next, a Pi Beta Phi business program. We were delighted that for the first year our membership had almost doubled that of our first year.

The January and February meetings were spent making plans for a Settlement School sale, and in March we had a Benefit Bridge and sold items from the Settlement School. We all had a good time besides adding over a $100 to our treasury.

The Louisville Alumnae Club invited us to observe Founders' Day with them at a luncheon held at Audubon Country Club. Not all of us could go but those that could enjoyed the friendly feeling of sisterhood in the Wine and Blue.

MARY COKER MARTIN

LOUISVILLE

The year got off to a fine start in September when a large group of alumnae met at the home of Jane Wyrick Hettich. The name tag which each member wore revealed a surprising number of chapters represented.

Mary Virginia Miller entertained in October, at which time Mary Trueheart Titzel explained why Pi Beta Phi is still needed at Gatlinburg and accompanied her talk by playing recordings of folk tunes.

Pi Beta Phi received some excellent publicity preceding the Arrow Craft sale. Doris Reid Hancock, Ruth Williams Hansen, and Mary Whithner Peters were guests on "Pot-pourri," a local television program, where they described the Settlement School and displayed samples of its work. The sale was held at the Seelbach Hotel this year.

The November and January meetings were luncheons at the Old House restaurant. Since many members find it difficult to attend evening meetings, this arrangement has proved popular.

Ruth Wilson Cogshall described in amusing detail her recent trip to Europe at the December meeting, and in February we held a "white elephant" sale. The latter proved that people will buy anything and that Jeanette Wyatt Watt has considerable talent for coaxing that last nickel from every bidder.

In March we enjoyed a visit from Marianne Reid Wild. The officers and committee chairmen met with her at an early dinner, and a general meeting and election of officers were held afterward.

A lovely Founders' Day luncheon in April was made even nicer by the presence of many members of the Lexington, Kentucky, Alumnae Club who joined us for the occasion. Installation of officers took place at the May meeting, and the program was devoted to a quiz on the constitution and a discussion of convention matters.

In June the traditional picnic for the actives and the senior farewell ceremonies will be held at the home of Gayle Caulfield in Anchorage.

VIRGINIA GEISTER HARDGROVE

MEMPHIS

Memphis alumnae began an active year with a joint July meeting of the day and night groups and mothers' club in the form of an al fresco supper in the garden at the home of Peg Proctor Garrecht with the purpose of making rushing plans. Over eighty attended the August rush supper, again al fresco, served on the terrace of the home of Mrs. H. M. Hall, a Pi Beta Phi mother whose daughter, Grace Marie, had not yet returned from Europe. The night group presented entertainment, a style show of "Pi Phi Through The Years."

September's meeting at the new home of Ann Pattishall White followed along the usual custom of a covered dish luncheon with the business centered around reports of rushing.

Ruth Williams Hansen, Epsilon Province's Vice-President, visited in October with a luncheon honoring her at the home of Helen Cahill Jones for the purpose of meeting the officers, and the night meeting at the home of our active mother-daughter team, Lily Bess Kyle Baker and Barbara, introduced her to the membership.

Our November Arrow Craft sale at the home of Betty Boone Biles was an all day affair with Ruth Burton Flaitsz as the arranger; cokes and doughnuts were served to callers. Mae Keller Weiss was hostess to the Christmas dinner party for Pi Beta Phis and their husbands. Charades was the main entertainment with the gallant gentlemen allowing the Pi Beta Phis to win.

January's luncheon meeting at the home of Gladys Reineke Finch centered its business around convention plans and Helen Cahill Jones's informative report on the Emma Harper Turner fund.

Bernice Rusher Flinn and Corinne Mackey Cowan, respectively, were hostesses for the February and March luncheons with election of officers at the latter meeting.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April and our annual picnic including the husbands moved up into May.

PHYLLIS FOSTER PARKER

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

We have tried hard this year to make our meetings fewer in number but so enjoyable and so interesting that every Pi Beta Phi in the Nashville area would attend. The first meeting in August was concerned with rush plans and ways of helping Tennessee B. In September there was a tea, in the lovely home of Mrs. W. A. Baesley, for the active chapter, new pledges, Mothers Club and alumnae. We made a special effort to contact all alumnae who do not regularly attend meetings and new Pi Beta Phi residents.

For the October meeting one of the Settlement School pictures was planned and Mrs. Gibson graciously consented to give a commentary on the film. There was a display of Settlement School products. This was the time of Province Vice-President Ruth Hanson's visit. She gave a most interesting talk on the value of sororities and the issues to be discussed at Convention.

In celebration of Chapter Loyalty Day there was a coffee. Our publicity chairman gave a short program on the life and activities of Carrie Chapman Catt. An active from Tennessee B spoke on the proposal by Chancellor Branscomb to have delayed rushing at Vanderbilt.

In March two meetings were planned. On the seventh we had a dinner party at the home of Mrs. W. N. McKinney, honoring the seniors in the Tennessee Beta Chapter. Mrs. Robert S. Wild was guest speaker and spoke on alumnae activities. The second meeting was late in March and was devoted to the election of officers. We celebrated Founders' Day with Tennessee B with a traditional cookie-shine.

The May meeting will be for the purpose of completing Convention plans and all old business. The final meeting in June is to be a picnic for the alumnae, husbands, and dates. This will be our first social of this kind and we hope that it will end a very enjoyable year with a very enjoyable party.

JANE HASWELL SWIGGART

ST. LOUIS

The St. Louis Alumnae Club elected a new president at its September meeting to fill the position formerly held by Helen Russell who became province president. Mrs. Louis Schaeffer was elected new president. After routine business the club enjoyed a Travelogue of the Northwest by Mrs. Fred Hammond.

In October the combined Junior and Senior Alumnae Clubs held a luncheon for Mrs. Paul Hanson, the province vice-president, who afterwards spoke to the club. October 24 the club held its annual Settlement School Tea.

In November the alumnae club was very pleased to hear Dean Adele C. Starbird, Dean of Women at Washington University, who spoke to the club about her recent European trip.

December business was dispensed with and the Junior and Senior Alumnae clubs enjoyed a wonderful Christmas party and supper with a demonstration of Christmas Decoration following.

MARGARET WATSON LUEDDE

SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI

The Springfield Alumnae Club is in the midst of a busy year. The activities began with a picnic meeting in August when the plans for the year's work were laid out. We aided the active chapter here at Drury by offering our homes for "coke dates" during rush week and Mrs. E. C. Curtis had the coffee for the presenting of invitations to pledge to the new girls at the close of rush week.

In October, Ruth Williams Hansen, Epsilon Vice-President, was our charming guest of honor at a supper held at Mrs. Walter Thomas' lovely new home. This meeting was one of our best this year and we thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Hansen's visit.

Our Settlement School Tea, at Mrs. Jack Curtis', in November was a financial success due to the work of all members selling turkey raffle tickets, baking cakes and cookies, promoting "Social Capers," and of course the large display of Settlement School Articles.

The Annual Christmas luncheon held at the Ozark Garden Room attracted many out of town alumnae and although this comes at the unusually busy holiday time we always have a good crowd.

Plans for the initiation banquet in honor of the new active members were made at our meeting at Mrs. William Pettits in January. But the new initiates turned the tables on the alumnae and instead of being entertained they entertained us with a most clever musical skit planned by Mary Ann Sedgwick in which they gave a complete review of their years joys, toils and trials as pledges; very different and most enjoyable.

Our chapter has more active alumnae this year than we've had in some time, but we're striving for even higher goals. Our gift of a phonograph to the polio ward at Burge Hospital was so appreciated that we plan to make a comparable donation to other worthy causes in the near future.

MARY JEAN MOORE

ZETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

The Atlanta Alumnae Club entertained high school graduates last July with a tea at the home of Mrs. Blake Van Leer, wife of the president of Georgia Tech, and the club furnished refreshments.

The club also held a box supper during July for members and their husbands or dates. Each member brought a box containing enough food for two people, and the boxes were auctioned to the men with the highest bids, after which members and guests played charades.

The September meeting was a White Elephant Sale, which made $23 for the treasury. Dessert was served before the meeting, as the club had decided to have each meeting of 1951-52 either a dinner or dessert meeting to increase attendance, and also to have each meeting at night. As a result, attendance has doubled.

Marguerite Blocker Bartlett, Zeta Province Vice-President, spoke before the club after a buffet supper last November. A luncheon, which included local officers, was also held in her honor the same day.

During December the club was very active. The executive board entertained Lucile Douglass Carson, Grand Secretary, with dinner at the Athletic Club. The second annual Christmas buffet supper and dance, held December 27 at the Naval Air Station, was again a big success.

On December 28, following a custom of welcoming college students, actives, and pledges, the club entertained members with their mothers at a coffee.

Chapter Loyalty Day was observed by the club and Georgia A on March 1 in the chapter house in Athens. Wieners and law were brought from Atlanta by club members.

Another dinner dance was enjoyed on March 20 at the Naval Air Station.

FRANCES J. BLACK

DELAND, FLORIDA

The DeLand Alumnae Club has had four regular meetings this fall, two of which were supper meetings.

In November, we honored our province vice-president, Mrs. George Bartlett, of St. Petersburg, with a covered dish supper in the Lounge of the Florida Power Corporation. Mrs. Bartlett bought us news of Zeta Province and spoke particularly of the coming Convention.

Our annual rummage sale, with Mrs. William Warden as chairman, netted the club $49. We plan to have another sale in March or April.

The Alumnae Advisory Board has been active in its meetings with the Florida A here at Stetson. In turn, the actives have sent girls to our alumnae meetings, thus keeping us up to date about their affairs.

Stetson Homecoming was combined with the merchants Christmas Parade December 1, and our own Florida A won first prize for the best float.

No specific plans have been made for Founders' Day, but we always observe it with the Stetson chapter.

FRANCES H. INMAN

GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA

The Gainesville Alumnae Club held its first program meeting of the fall in September with the Settlement School as the theme. Mrs. George Dance gave a review of the history and growth of the school and told of her own visit to Gatlinburg last summer. Two new members, Mrs. J. L. King and Mrs. John T. Feaster, were welcomed into the club.

In October Mrs. George Bartlett, Vice-President of Zeta Province visited the club. She was entertained at dinner by the Executive Board at the Gainesville Country Club before the general meeting that evening. She brought to the group a most interesting report of what other alumnae groups throughout the country are doing with particular emphasis on Zeta Province.

The November meeting was devoted to the program on active chapters. Since this club is particularly interested in the sorority situation at the University of Florida, an open forum was held on "The Sorority Question and Pi Beta Phi at the University of Florida."

The group had an informal social meeting in February and made plans for the spring meetings. A Founders' Day dinner was planned for April and in May the club had its annual family picnic which is an event eagerly anticipated by the husbands and young fry as well as their Pi Beta Phi mothers.

FLORENCE SWIFT DURRANCE

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

Thirteen members of the Jacksonville Alumnae Club attended the Florida Pi Beta Phi State Day which was held in Orlando on April 21, 1951, and served as hostesses. This State Day, our first in ten years, was a source of inspiration to Pi Beta Phi actives and alumnae from all over Florida.

The Jacksonville Alumnae Club continued its monthly meetings throughout the summer months. In June Mrs. Joseph Durkee and Mrs. Norton Christie were hostesses at a picnic, held for the members, their husbands and guests.

All members were delighted to have Mrs. George Bartlett, province vice-president, at the October 23 meeting.

On November 14 the Settlement School tea and open house, which has become an annual event for the Jacksonville Alumnae Club, was held at the Garden center. This tea was enthusiastically attended by both members and club guests. Mrs. William R. Wing, chairman of the tea, reported an excellent sale of the Arrow Craft goods.

ANNA BRYCE EDMONSON

LAKELAND, FLORIDA

The Lakeland Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the year in September at the home of the club's president, Becky Koons. An exciting evening was had discussing the opportunity to be had in meeting Margaret Truman personally during her concert tour in Florida in November.

Before Margaret's concert, the club received a letter from her declining a dinner in her behalf but cordially inviting them to meet her backstage.

The club members found Margaret Truman to be very friendly, interesting, and most charming during their visit with her.

Carolyn Sult W. Bethany and Virginia Venable Wesson were special guests, representing Pi Beta Phi, at the private reception given Margaret immediately following her concert, which was sponsored by Florida Southern College. The reception was held in the Elenore Searle Drawing Room on the college campus.

The club celebrated Loyalty Day in St. Petersburg with other Florida clubs. During the banquet, the Lakeland club received national recognition for having been 100% in membership since it was chartered. In February, the club received a letter to that effect which they have proudly put in their scrap book.

Dora Delay, the club's Golden Arrow member, attended the National Convention last time and plans to attend this year.

CAROLYN SULT W. BETHANY

MIAMI, FLORIDA

The club started off the year by having a delightful barbecue supper for their husbands. This seemed to set the pace for the spirit of co-operation and closer bonds under the capable leadership of Lois Overstreet Summers.

Several meetings this year seemed especially outstanding because talented members shared their knowledge with the rest of us. At one meeting Peggy Jackson Brown talked about, and demonstrated, flower arranging. At another, Ellen Whiteside spoke on "Child Welfare Service of Florida." An element of glamour was added to the December meeting by a visit from a former member, Nancy Kulp, who is now in the movies.

A painless fund raising project called "Pass the Basket" has made a hit. Pi Beta Phi make something for the basket, then take it to another member, who, in turn, fills it, and makes a monetary contribution.

The regular October meeting was greatly enhanced by the visit of Zeta Province Vice-President, Marguerite Blocker Bartlett, and later in the month we held our Arrow Craft Sale.

After the annual Christmas dance we were still in a social mood, so a card party was enjoyed in January. Later, frivolity was forgotten as everybody worked hard selling tickets for the University of Miami Ring Theater production.

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club was the hostess club for the Panhellenic Tea, a Valentine motif was used. As always the Founders' Day get together was inspiring and well attended. Elections were held in April also.

The group continued its project of last year, that of sponsoring Pen Pal Clubs in the Junior High Schools, and started a worthwhile new project of having teams set up to visit the schools for exceptional children where members help teachers by reading to the children.

PATRICIA WEAVER ERNST

MOBILE, ALABAMA

The Mobile Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of president Doris Newell Warren, has had an interesting fall and winter.

Mrs. George Bartlett, Zeta Province Vice-President, was our guest in November. The entire group gathered at Doris Warren's home for a luncheon honoring Mrs. Bartlett. This was followed by a regular meeting. Mrs. Bartlett and the officers were entertained in the evening by Mrs. R. W. Deshon, followed by dinner and a meeting of the executive board.

At Christmas time a morning coffee was held for all Mobile actives and pledges, at the home of Nancy Gupitll Searle.

In celebration of Chapter Loyalty Day, Program Chairman Jane Gillespie Palmer, gave an interesting talk on Carrie Chapman Catt. She also read a description of a Pi Beta Phi Initiation held in 1896, which was vividly recalled and written by Mrs. Nesbitt. Happy Yandell read the History of Convention, after which she conducted a short quiz. The member who answered the most questions correctly was given a potted plant as a prize.

The Mobile Alumnae Club has taken on receptionist duties at the Providence Hospital one morning each week, as its local project. The new hospital building will be completed in the late spring. Carol Duffield Meyercord, an alumnae club member, has been elected the new President of the Providence Hospital Auxiliary.

Our Founders' Day luncheon last year was such a success, that again plans have been made to have a joint luncheon with the Pensacola Club, to honor the Founders of Pi Beta Phi.

NANCY GUPITLL SEARLE

ORLANDO-WINTER PARK

The Orlando-Winter Park Alumnae Club began a very active year by assisting with two exciting rush parties. At the first, thirteen rushees were entertained while "Shipwrecked on Pi Phi Isle." They rode to the scene in cars decked with streamers and signs showing names of the schools which the girls planned to attend. The second was an all day beach outing, club members supplying everyone with generous amounts of southern fried chicken.

Early in the spring, one of our most active members, Irene Smith Pattishall, was presented the Beta Sigma Phi Award as First Lady of the Year, in recognition of her outstanding service in civic and alumnae affairs.

October brought a stimulating and enlightening visit from Marguerite Blocker Bartlett, our province vice-president.

Our club was responsible in 1951 for raising $500 for the Orlando Panhellenic Scholarship Fund. Thus November found our Panhellenic representative Beverly Hoffman acting as general chairman for a successful fund-raising Thanksgiving dance.

At Yule-tide, Irene Smith Pattishall was hostess at another of her delightful Christmas supper parties, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the sixty-five members attending. The Christmas Ball, held a few days later, owed its success in a large measure to the untiring efforts of Elizabeth Ricker Jones, who was general chairman.

At our January meeting, Jean Brown related to us the interesting background of Holt House.

Celebrating Founders' Day with Florida I was inspirational to both active and alumnae groups.

CAROLINE KIMB ODOM

PENSACOLA, FLORIDA

The Pensacola Alumnae, with a membership of approximately twenty, has had quite an active year. We began the season with a very successful rushing party for twelve local girls, held in late August on the large and beautifully appointed yacht of a member, Katherine Casady Pace. An evening meeting was scheduled in October for the discussion of proposed changes in the Constitution of the Fraternity.

In November we had a pleasant and stimulating visit from our province vice president, Marguerite Blocker Bartlett. Highlights of her visit were a board meeting and luncheon at the home of our president, Maxine Hufford, and a well-attended evening meeting at the home of Frances Stryker MacPike. The club gained much from Mrs. Bartlett in general information about Pi Beta Phi accomplishments on a national and local level, as well as inspiration for further effort within the group.

During the Christmas holidays the annual Morning Coffee was given in honor of local actives and pledges, with Marjorie Parks as hostess. A Loyalty Day meeting was held in January in the home of a recent graduate, Catharine McGauly. An early April meeting on the Settlement School, with films, and a joint Founders' Day luncheon with the Mobile Alumnae Club, completed our schedule for this year. The meeting with Mobile, sixty miles away, will again take place at historic Grand Hotel on Mobile Bay.

As a club project the group collected two large boxes of warm clothing for shipment to Europe. We contributed funds toward a new piano for Florida B. As a money raising scheme and also as a means of becoming better acquainted, we "passed the basket" by calling on each other in turn with a personal gift contributed by the caller and paid for by the recipient. We also decided to take up a silver collection at each meeting.

The club is participating in the organization of a local Panhellenic group whose purpose will be to improve interfraternity and public relations, and to become acquainted with all new girls going on to college.

FRANCES STRYKER MACPIKE

ST. PETERSBURG

The St. Petersburg Alumnae Club held several meetings during the summer months including some for discussing rushing plans and a beach picnic with husbands, actives and dates as guests.

A very interesting description of the newly remodeled chapter house at Tallahassee was given by an active at the September meeting and plans for the year discussed.

In October our province vice president made her official visit to the club and was honored with a lovely cooky-shine. The center piece was a clever drawing by one of the club members depicting the guest of honor during her travels on her official tour. Mrs. Charles Leonard was presented with a small gold pencil as she became a Golden Arrow member this year. She's been a faithful member of our club for several years, and we're so proud of her!

Orders were taken for Christmas cards, gift wrappings and stationery at the October and November meetings. The profits from the sale of those items in addition to money made at a white elephant sale at the December meeting added to the club's treasury.

In January members from surrounding cities joined us in observing Loyalty Day with a luncheon at the Huntington Hotel. Guest speaker was Olivia Smith Moore, treasurer of Settlement School committee, who gave a most interesting and informative talk concerning Settlement School. Four Golden Arrow members were in attendance and received special recognition.

Our Arrow Craft sale and tea was given in February in the beautiful home of Peggy Johnstone Burroughs. A raffle was an added attraction.

April kept club members quite busy with a two day rummage sale and a Founders' Day luncheon at the Yacht Club.

Election of officers and convention discussions in May brought to the close a very busy, but happy year.

LAURETTA DRAYSON HESTER

TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The Tallahassee Alumnae Club held alternate luncheon and evening meetings during the year. The meetings were well attended with the addition of five new members. Besides the regular meetings, the club entertained Florida B with a wiener roast May 16 and gave two successful rush parties, one an outdoor ice cream party in July and the other a pajama party in September. The rush parties followed a tea given by the city Panhellenic in June for prospective rushees.

In November we were honored with a visit by Marguerite Blocker Bartlett, Zeta Province vice president. Her gracious and informal manner in presenting much needed information made the meeting one of the highlights of the year. In December we had a Christmas program on Yuletide decorations and added funds to our treasury through the sale of artichoke relish, a product adopted by the ways and means committee as a money-making project.

The club's project for the year was in helping Florida B realize its dreams of a new addition to the chapter house. Helen Walker Palmer, housemother, and Daphna Grisham Smith deserve very much the recognition they are receiving for their efforts and time spent assisting the chapter in its plans and decisions for a beautiful home. "Open House" was on the evening of February 27 from 7 to 9. Martha Willimon Carlson was in charge of party arrangements and, again, bouquets are in order. Hundreds of friends "came and exclaimed."

February was a busy month. In addition to the regular meeting and the chapter's "Open House," the club was hostess for the Tallahassee Panhellenic Valentine luncheon held in the Lafayette Room at Florida State University.

The election of officers and a joint meeting with Florida B on Founders' Day closed a successful year for the club, with Mildred Andrick Munroe as president.

ELLA MAE H. LAIRD

TAMPA

The Tampa Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year in the home of Martha Neeld Beaton. Preceding the business meeting, Gladys Sidway Curtis gave an interesting talk about her summer in Europe. The November meeting was an inspiration to Tampa Pi Beta Phi, Marguerite Blocker Bartlett, Zeta Province President, visited the club and gave a talk following the customary buffet supper and business meeting.

ETA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS

The newly organized Arlington Heights Alumnae Club held its first official meeting at the home of Betty Fulton Drake in April, 1951. Fourteen charter members proudly received the club charter from Grand Council, and a beautiful Founders' Day program was followed by a cooky-shine. Norma Sloan Mills gave a memorable talk on the founding and early days of Pi Beta Phi.

Late in September our first Arrow Craft tea and sale was held at the home of Elsie Murray Hubbard. Under the capable management of Miriam Holden Doane our gross sales totaled over $700, and many of our friends were introduced to Settlement School products.

Programs for the balance of the year centered around the history and ideals of Pi Beta Phi. The Settlement School movie was shown. Programs on Carrie Chapman Catt, Holt House, and Emma Harper Turner were given, reacquainting us all with fraternity traditions.

The Mt. Prospect members entertained Pi Beta Phi and their husbands at a Christmas party in December. Individual gifts were sent to the teen agers living at the Settlement School.

This spring our club established an annual award to be given to the outstanding sophomore in Eta Province. Nominations were made by the nine chapters on the basis of character, scholarship, fraternity service, and campus activities. A Pi Beta Phi bracelet was sent to the winner's chapter president to be awarded on Founders' Day.

From a small beginning alumnae from Mt. Prospect and Palatine, as well as Arlington Heights, have discovered anew the meaning and vitality of Pi Beta Phi, formed new and lasting friendships, and established a group which returns satisfaction beyond measure.

DOROTHY COOPER HULL

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA

The Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club held its first meeting in September at the chapter house.

During October the club had the opportunity of meeting the fine new pledge class of Illinois Z. A business meeting followed a dinner at which time the club voted to contribute $100 for a fund, to be administered through the Dean of Women's Office at the University of Illinois. It was decided that this fund would be given annually by the Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club to the Dean for assistance to worthy girls in dire need.

In December the chapter house was the scene of the Settlement School Sale. The total sale of Arrow Craft goods amounted to $1,478.

Mabel Edmondson Hobart was the guest speaker for the January meeting. Betty Stoolman Julian invited the club to meet in her home and a social hour followed the business meeting.

An excellent Smorgasbord was followed by a business meeting in February. The club selected Beth Olwin Dawson to be their delegate to the National Convention in Dallas, Texas. In appreciation of Anita Wood Collins' fine and unstinting work with the Settlement School Sales, the club elected her to be their alternate delegate.

Since the Club decided to raise the $100 for the Dean of Women's Fund among the members, the March meeting was a Spring Tea for the benefit of the Fund.

A few days after the December meeting the club gave a luncheon bridge and sale of products from the Settlement School. Commercial representatives advertising the products, served the luncheon.

The January meeting was dispensed with because of the Loyalty Day luncheon held in St. Petersburg. Pi Beta Phi from all over Florida attended and enjoyed a wonderful time. The speaker for the occasion was Olivia Smith Moore, Treasurer of the Settlement School committee.

Regular meetings were held in February and March at which plans were made for the pre-Easter children's style show. Election of officers was also held. April was a busy month for the Tampa Pi Beta Phi. The club held its Founders' Day celebration, after the business meeting. Jacqueline Buschert Evans, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, headed the workers, to make the style show a success. The showing was staged in two parts separated by entertainment provided by a Tampa Ballet School. The new spring garments were furnished by one of the local stores and many of the models were children of Pi Beta Phi. A table of Arrow Craft products was sold.

The Holt House color film was thoroughly enjoyed by the club at the May meeting.

GLADYS FRIEND FRAZEE

April found the club gathering together for a lovely Founders' Day at the chapter house. A banquet followed by an impressive program payed homage to our Founders. Meme Alpiner Stern was present observing 56 years of loyal service in Pi Beta Phi. The VAL BEL-MAN award, to the outstanding senior, was presented in memory of our charter members.

The last meeting of the year was held in May and election of officers took place. The graduating seniors from Illinois Z were guests at the luncheon preceding the meeting.

CHARLOTTE KECK

CHICAGO BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB

Chicago Business Women's Alumnae Club began the year with a supper at the home of Ruth Greenfield. We were all happy to welcome several new members into the group.

Our October meeting was held at the Chicago College Club. Following dinner Miss Verna Croffs, who is head of the English department at Karl Schurz High School, gave an interesting talk on Japan. Miss Croffs worked in adult education with the Eighth Army during the Japanese occupation.

The Settlement School Meeting was held in November. All the members brought gifts for the children. We discussed the idea of all Chicago Pi Beta Phi supporting some worthy charity here in the city.

In December we met at Kay Middleton's home for a Christmas party and gift exchange.

As part of our January meeting, Helen Fleming told us about her life as a newspaper reporter for the Chicago Daily News. We had a glimpse into the inner workings of a newspaper and all that takes place before the newspaper reaches your door.

In February we had our Constitution meeting which was made doubly interesting as we are all looking forward to the convention at the Shamrock Hotel in Houston.

With Spring just around the corner we all attended a style show at Carson, Pirie Scott for our March meeting. The proceeds were to go to a worthy charity.

Founders' Day was celebrated with all the groups in the Chicago Metropolitan Area with a luncheon at the Chicago Bar Association.

In May we looked forward to a buffet supper at the home of one of our members, Lois Ann Lenz. Officers for the coming year will be installed.

SONIA B. ANDERSON

CHICAGO NORTH

The Alpha, Beta and Gamma groups were merged into one club this year, with most of the meetings held in a beautiful new community house on Sheridan Road.

The first meeting was an old fashioned cooky-shine at the home of Dortha Fisher. A former member of Chicago North, Edith Daughtrey, gave an interesting talk on the work of the Braille Transcribers' Club of Illinois, which she founded.

We were fortunate in having Adèle Taylor Alford as our guest at the November meeting. She gave an interesting and delightfully informal talk. Also in November we held a rummage sale which was very successful.

December's meeting provided two interesting activities: learning how to wrap attractive Christmas packages and making stuffed stocking dolls which were later given to the small patients at Women's and Children's Hospital.

A talk on glamour inspired those present at the February meeting.

April was a busy month. A Settlement School tea and musicale was held at the home of Miriam Morrison; Chicago City Panhellenic sponsored a tea and style show; and the Chicago area alumnae clubs joined in the annual celebration of Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Chicago Bar Association on April 26. Instead of a speaker this year, a clever dramatic skit was presented, using Pi Beta Phi talent.

Two card parties and a gay husband and wife party at Medinah Country Club in May rounded out a happy and successful year.

RUTH A. REINERT

CHICAGO SOUTH

During the past year we enjoyed the privilege of holding the presidency of Chicago Area Council.

The cooky-shine on October 3, at the home of Cecile Gilroy Munnecke, opened our year's activities. The program included a very clever original skit about the Settlement School (written by Helen Konesko Wodicka), which dramatically explained our newly adopted plan for actively selling Settlement School wares continuously throughout the year rather than chiefly at one large sale each fall. On the whole, results have been very satisfactory.

The second large cooky-shine of the season, held February 14 at the home of Gloria Crawford Marsteller, was devoted to a review of the Constitution of Pi Beta Phi, and to election of officers.

Our third large meeting was the Founders' Day celebration on April 26, held jointly with the seven other alumnae clubs in the Chicago area, and Illinois E chapter of Northwestern University. One high spot of the program was an original skit about the Founders (written by Helen Konesko Wodicka).

The fourth and last, cooky-shine of the season, to be held later in May, will feature installation of the newly elected officers.

In addition to these four large cooky-shines, we hold monthly meetings of each of the four groups into which Chicago South is divided, and also monthly Board meetings of representatives of each of these groups with the officers of Chicago South.

S-MARIE VAUGHN CROWSON

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN

The Chicago West Suburban Alumnae Club was honored at its first Board meeting by Mrs. Elizabeth Scott, our province vice president, on February 13. She urged our fullest support of the Settlement School.

On February 16 we had a joint Alpha and Beta group luncheon meeting, honoring Mrs. Scott. It was at the home of Bettie Reininga. There were 35 members present, and a very gala affair, with an especially elegant luncheon. Mrs. Scott gave us an enlightening and interesting address.

April 24 was the date of our Founders' Day dinner, Bud's Steak House was the place of meeting. Roberta Evans told us of the future of Pi Beta Phi and Aline Burt reported on the founding and the past history of Pi Beta Phi.

After much discussion, as to our benefit program for the year, we decided on a bridge-luncheon at Katherine Legge Memorial Home in Hinsdale, on October 3. Each member of our club was responsible for one table. Fay Gross and Mona Brett were responsible for a most successful luncheon, and Settlement School sale. All the members donated homemade cookies. The net profit was $452. The table prizes were lovely trivets.

This year we had new directories printed, as our membership has increased and changed so much. Frances Strome did a beautiful job!

This year we decided to use our profits to support our local hospitals, and accordingly voted on furnishing a room in the new wing of the Hinsdale Sanitarium. We will have a plaque on the room we furnish. We have already submitted a check for $250.

We have donated $100 for a scholarship to Lyons Township Junior College, and have a committee who will assist in the selection of the candidates.

BETTIE B. REININGA

DECATUR

The Decatur Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the year in October in the chapter house, a pot luck supper was held, and the new house mother, Mrs. Jeffers, was introduced to the chapter. Names of rushees were read and discussed.

On October 9 a business meeting was held in the chapter house. Plans for money making were discussed, consisting of fall and spring rummage sales, a bazaar and settlement school sale, name stationery, and Christmas card sale, hand made clown doll and bean bag sale, and a benefit bridge party to be held in April.

On October 20 the homecoming dinner was held with many out-of-town alumnae present. The pledge class gave a very clever stunt and all enjoyed a delightful evening and reunion with old friends. It was announced that we had made $300 at our fall rummage sale.

In November we held our Settlement School meeting, a joint dinner meeting with the actives. Arrow Craft articles were displayed and the next two days a sale was held at a downtown store.

In early November, a tea was held for Adèle Taylor Alford, ARROW editor, giving our chapter a chance to meet her, which we enjoyed very much.

In January Chapter Loyalty Day was observed with afternoon tea at the house.

On March 5 new officers were elected and installed.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a dinner meeting at the Hotel Orlando.

On May 24 the annual breakfast honoring seniors was held at the South Side Country Club.

LOIS GODWIN PATTERSON

DU PAGE COUNTY

On October 3 the year began with Marian Golseth of Elmhurst hostess for a potluck supper and a display of Settlement School articles. Programs and Social Capers calendars were distributed.

In November Elizabeth Hutchison's Glen Ellyn home held a gay white elephant auction. The fall fund raising projects were completed with the final sales of Social Capers.

The club separated for purely social gatherings, during the winter months, because of distances and unpredictable driving weather. The Elmhurst group had a Christmas party at Elaine Byrne's, a theatre party in Chicago, and a Valentine bridge at Jeanette Durbon's. The Glen Ellyn-Wheaton members enjoyed a Christmas party with Jane Davis and saw Miriam Berg's interesting new home in February.

A March dessert luncheon and business meeting brought both groups together at Billie Brown's home in Glen Ellyn. Here a children's clothing exchange and a twenty-five cent dessert box provided additional revenue. A delegate was elected for the Houston Convention and one to assume the vice presidency of the Chicago Area Council for the coming year.

Barbara Pollard of Elmhurst was April hostess for a cooky-shine to which actives were invited. A visit from Elizabeth Hill Scott, province vice president, is anticipated.

A June garden party honoring actives will close the calendar.

ELLA HARSHMAN KOUCKY

FOX RIVER VALLEY

The Fox River Valley Alumnae Club served a pledge dinner at the Riverview Country Club in early September.

In October the members met at the home of Bernette Carlson Cocherane. Plans were made for a Settlement School Tea to be held in November at Jo Buchanan's. Margaret Lally showed slides of her three month trip in Europe.

Maurine Cook, the province president, was entertained at a luncheon on November 6. Two days later the Settlement School Tea was held. It was a great success.

The Christmas party at Betty Flom's was very enjoyable. Marjorie Rosebush, the chapter president, left in February with her husband who was recalled into the Marines. The chapter was very sorry to see her leave.

Co-hostesses, Jean Shaper Marsh and Barbara Below Kletzien, entertained the members in February. The Constitution was reviewed and final plans for the cooky-shine were completed.

The Founders' Day Tea was under the direction of Norma Crow.

Helen Zeh Reetz was the hostess for the Senior Farewell in May.

BETTY ANN SCHORGER

GALESBURG, ILLINOIS

Our Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Association regular meetings are held in the Panhellenic House the second Tuesday of each month. We customarily have a committee of seven who serve a supper before the business meeting.

The main topic of conversation at the October meeting was that of deferred pledging which was instituted at Knox this year. When Adèle Taylor Alford, Editor of the ARROW, was here later in October, we honored her with a breakfast to which the actives were invited as guests. During the Knox Homecoming week-end in October, the Pi Beta Phi and the other sororities here had a breakfast at the Panhellenic House for all visiting alumnae.

After the pledging of the new class in January at the home of Marjorie Stuart, all of the Pi Beta Phi, alumnae, actives and pledges, celebrated with a dinner in the Oak Room of the Galesburg Club. It was a hilarious affair with an impromptu program by the pledges.

The alumnae, as is their custom in February, entertain the actives and pledges at an afternoon bridge in the Sun Room of the Galesburg Club. Before the refreshments were served twenty prizes were awarded.

Hope Gamble was chairman of a most successful Founders' Day. The chapter awards were made to our outstanding women, after the dinner and the program. The alumnae association held its April meeting immediately following the dinner.

The last meeting of the year in June will be a get-together with the returning alumnae, who will be here for Knox Commencement.

In past years our customary summer picnic has been in the summer home of one of our members, and we always have a good attendance. This event is on our calendar for this year.

MARTHA CAMPBELL NEIFERT

ILLINOIS FOX RIVER VALLEY

At the close of the year last May the club decided to meet for lunch once a month during the summer. So, as planned, we enjoyed luncheon together during the summer and all feel it is a custom that we will continue in the future. Our first meeting of the Fall was held on October 4. At this time we had a report from the Recommendations Committee on the pledging of girls from this area. We also discussed plans for the annual Arrow Craft Sale. On November 8 we enjoyed our annual Potluck Supper at the home of Aileen Ekman. Two of the members gave a very unique and interesting program on the History and Constitution of the Fraternity. The December meeting was planned as a social evening. Bridge was played after a brief business meeting. At the January meeting plans were made for the Founders' Day Dinner and we completed plans for the Settlement School Sale. We plan to have the sale in October this year instead of the usual Tea and Sale in April. It will be a very informal affair and will be held at the country home of Mary Reimers. We are planning to have it like a "Country Store" and plan to sell "country goodies" as well as the Settlement School articles. At the February meeting we discussed plans for sending a delegate to the Convention at Houston next summer. The year closed on April 24, with our annual Founders' Day Dinner held at the St. Charles Country Club, St. Charles, Ill.

VIRGINIA S. KING

JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS

Amy Onken Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Miss Onken, in October. Plans for the November Settlement School sale were made and a preview of the sale material was given by Helen Drury, Settlement School chairman. Miss Onken entertained us with a scrambled-word contest based on words every fraternity woman should know. Mrs. Johnston, one of our teacher members, won the attractive book mark prize. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

In February the Constitution meeting was held at the home of Elizabeth Paisley. After the ritual and reading of correspondence, a report was made on the Settlement School sale. A profit of $62 was realized in the one day sale. The Constitution program was in the form of a quiz, which ended in a club average low enough to make the members blush a little. A good deal of "boning" will probably be done before next year. Miss Langdon won the prize of place cards.

The March meeting, in the home of Jane Buckley, was devoted to active chapters. Helen Drury, Active Chapter chairman, conducted the program. A discussion of rushees followed her very interesting talk.

Founders' Day was celebrated at a pot-luck luncheon in the home of Barbara Redshaw. Following the Founders' Day program, the members were pleased to have as guest speaker, Miss Ida Ingalls, textile instructor at MacMurray College for Women. Miss Ingalls studied at Little Pigeon and was most enthusiastic about it. She also is always one of our best saleswomen at Settlement School sale time, directing a showing and sale at the College. The club was greatly interested in her talk and appreciative of her loyalty to Pi Beta Phi.

JANE DICKSON BUCKLEY

MADISON

This year found the Madison Alumnae Club with the largest membership in its history under the leadership of Ione Paugh. Traditional dinner meetings were held, and many new Pi Beta Phi members of the community were welcomed.

Rushing activities formed the basis for early meetings. Gertrude Burley more than capably handled the alumnae interest in rushing, with this important phase of activity so successfully concluded, the group looked forward to the sale of Arrow Craft goods. The Settlement School tea has found a secure place in the fall program, and was again a financial success. Invitations were sent to Madison women and the chapter house provided a delightful setting to display our wares.

An evening in December found alumnae and active seniors sharing traditional festive fun. At the January meeting a fascinating glimpse into Swedish life and art was given by Patty Deutsch who spent last year in that country. Her mastery of the language added much to her delightful discussion and the club shared her enthusiasm over the many fine and charming examples of Swedish art.

February found the group concerned with the Constitution and Convention plans, while in March we joined the pledges at the chapter house. Founders' Day activities were impressive as usual, and good fellowship reigned. The May meeting found the group enjoying a club picnic.

JANE KRESGE SECOND

MILWAUKEE ALUMNAE CLUB

A "chuck wagon" supper opened the fall meeting for the Milwaukee Alumnae Club. The program for the evening was of special interest to us because we were seeking a local charity to support. The head of Neighborhood House talked to the group on the need of recreation for older adults. Specific ways in which we could help were listed, and we all left the meeting with a feeling of the deep need for assistance.

The two Settlement School teas were held in October, one located in a home on the East side of Milwaukee, and the other, on the West side. Gross sales from the teas were $1,825—a record year!

In November, a dessert meeting was held in the home of one of our members; and at that meeting it was announced that our local charity would be in financial and voluntary aid to the Golden Agers at Neighborhood House. The first donation was $450.

During the Christmas holidays the club entertained at a Christmas Brunch, the Pi Beta Phi actives who live in Milwaukee.

In January most of the business meeting is devoted to plans for the annual style show and dance held in February. Proceeds from this affair on which the club works all year, go to the Golden Agers.

Since there are so many new members in the club, a special social was planned, just for the purpose of getting acquainted, and over 20 new girls attended.

In March K A Ø entertained us in a joint meeting and their program on children's books interested everybody.

The Founders' Day dinner in April preceded the last scheduled meeting of the season. The program, "Interior Decorating in the Home" gave us food for thought for the summer months ahead.

MONMOUTH, ILLINOIS

The Monmouth Alumnae Club held the first meeting of the year in September. Ann Grasse and Janice Bruner from Illinois A discussed plans for rushing. Later in the month, according to the annual custom, the alumnae club entertained the active chapter and pledges with a cooky-shine following pledging.

Plans for a rummage sale were made during the November meeting. It was decided to sponsor the organization of a Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club.

Gifts for the children in the Settlement School were taken to the December meeting and sent in time for Christmas. Girls from the active chapter presented a program of Christmas music.

The Mothers' Club was organized in December with a very enthusiastic group. "Arrow Mothers" was chosen as the name. The active chapter was invited to the February meeting of Arrow Mothers to get better acquainted.

MARJORIE ROOT KEATING

NORTH SHORE

The Chicago North Shore Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi held its first meeting of the fall at the home of Dorothy Kirk Coffey. At that time it was decided to use the proceeds from the annual spring benefit bridge party for the Northwestern University Settlement. Twenty-four dollars will permit an underprivileged boy or girl to have two weeks at a summer camp and the objective of the club is to provide as many Camperships as possible for Chicago children registered with Northwestern Settlement.

In October the club president, Eleanor Rockwood Cooley, and the board of directors, hostessed a luncheon at the home of Agnes Fraser Armstrong and in November the Arrow Craft Sale and Tea was held at the Pi Beta Phi house at Northwestern University. It was well patronized and the chairman, Martha Buxton Scott, reported gratifying results. In addition to the Camperships the club provides a scholarship each year for one girl at Northwestern University.

Jane Edwards McPherson, Ways and Means chairman, was responsible for the very successful dessert bridge party held in January. A style show with models chosen from the active chapter at Northwestern and from the club provided entertainment during the afternoon.

The club celebrated Founders' Day in Chicago with other local clubs and in May the last meeting of the year was held at the home of May Carney Middleton. At this time election of officers was held and a Convention Pre-View was given.

YVONNE YOUNG DALTON

NORTH SHORE JUNIOR

A Settlement School Sale among the members and a cooky-shine was held at the home of Mary Pick on November 13. We began planning for our annual dance to be held on May 17 at the Michigan Shores Country Club, the proceeds to go to the Pi Beta Phi Charities.

The members have a bridge group that meets once a month; they pay to play and in June prizes are to be given of the money accumulated and the remainder added to our Pi Beta Phi Contributions.

At the January 8 meeting many Christmas Cards were brought by the members. Joanne Stark Seibert took them to the Children's Hospital to be made into scrapbooks by the sick in the contagious wards. At this meeting we undertook a new project to work with the Lake Bluff Orphanage.

The group is working more closely with the Northwestern University Chapter. Barbara Meilinger Hanscom, our Rush Committee Chairman, is the Pledge and Activity Advisor and Elizabeth Jenkins, our president, is the Scholarship Advisor on the Chapter's Advisory Board.

The Convention to be held this summer has been discussed at many meetings. We chose our convention delegate at the March meeting. We are looking forward to hearing her reports next fall.

MARY ALESE GREER WILSON

Christmas gifts were exchanged at the December meeting, followed by group singing of Christmas carols and Pi Beta Phi songs.

To add to the enjoyment of the January meeting, a quiz program was held, which was based on the 1951 examination for active Pi Beta Phis. A report was given concerning profits received from our Christmas doll project.

February and March meetings were mainly concerned with further plans for our new chapter house and with increasing our efforts toward our benefit projects. The new slate of officers was presented in March.

The Benefit Ball, held April 19, ushered in the spring season, an occasion enjoyed by all who attended. This year the committee was composed of three groups; actives, the afternoon group of alumnae, and the night group. April 25 brought Founders' Day with its cherished traditions. A dinner was held and a special program given. A busy year ended with the May meeting.

JULIE CAREY JONES

SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

The Springfield Alumnae Club had its first meeting for the year in October at the home of its president, Mrs. Albert Shuster. At this time plans were completed for the Settlement School sale, to be held in late October at the Abraham Lincoln Hotel. As a result of this most profitable sale, the club has given ten dollars to the Settlement Library for books, thirty dollars to Holt House for a silver tray, and ten dollars to Save the Children Federation.

Later meetings, with varied programs, were held at the homes of Betsey Duncan, Norma Shuster, Mary Easley, and Patty Morgan. The club has been pleased to have many recent graduates attending meetings.

Our province vice president, Mrs. Harold M. Scott, visited us in March, at which time we enjoyed a dinner meeting. Election of officers was held at this meeting.

The year will close with the annual Founders' Day luncheon.

PEGGE RUSHING FRAZIER

BURLINGTON

The Burlington Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year in August at Fort Madison, Iowa. Since our membership includes Fort Madison alumnae we try to plan two meetings a year there. We met at Rodeo Park for a picnic supper which was followed by a business meeting at the home of Imogene Abrahams. Rushing and recommendations were discussed.

Our next meeting was held in September at Holt House in Monmouth, Ill. The club presented a shadow box to Holt House in memory of our deceased members. Helen Renk Fimmen gave a review of the history of Holt House and following the meeting tea was served.

The October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Levert McGee in Fort Madison. Preceding the meeting members met for dinner at the Fort Madison Country Club. Mrs. Leon Noekle gave an interesting talk on her trip to the Settlement School. No meeting was planned until March as winter road conditions make travel between the two towns uncertain.

In March we met for dinner at the Flint Hills Club and a business meeting followed. A "barter sale" was held to raise funds for the treasury.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the active chapter at Iowa Wesleyan in Mount Pleasant. Our last meeting of the year was a dessert meeting at the home of Mrs. Glen McGowan, at which time officers were elected for the coming year.

ESTELLE YOUNG BAKER

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA

The Cedar Rapids Alumnae Club started its year with a guest breakfast entertaining a group of girls who were entering college in the fall. It was one of the hottest days of the year but every one turned the heat on a good time.

The sale of Settlement School crafts is always a major project with us. This year our October meeting was used for the purpose. An artistic display was arranged in the parlor of Voorhees Hall, Coe College. This was open to the public all day. The sales netted us $121.

A local project takes part of our interest and money. We started last year getting something for the children in our two hospitals. For one we got a record player and the other movie film. This year we got records for the one and another film for the other.

An extra delightful musical Christmas program was the December meeting.

Founders' Day was a good old cooky-shine! Need more be said? You know all enjoyed that to the tune of some cracking knees.

Meetings this year were planned to give all an opportunity of attending. Some were luncheons and some evening meetings and on different days of the week. This proved to get all the members out at some one meeting.

The year closed with the annual picnic.

TROAS MAY WISE

DES MOINES

Closer relationship between alumnae and actives is a goal of the Des Moines Alumnae Club; this has been helped greatly this year by having four mother-daughter combinations. At Christmas, the club gave each of Iowa's four active chapters what is hoped will be a frequent reminder of the alumnae interest, a corn popper.

Division into "older" and "younger" groups last year for some meetings was so successful that it was continued, with Elizabeth Haw Graham as president and Marilyn George Bishop as vice-president. Three of the year's nine meetings were "divided."

A rushing party was held in August at the home of Fae Rowley Huttenlocher, associate editor of Better Homes and Gardens magazine. The party was built around table settings and flower arrangements Mrs. Huttenlocher had collected on a recent trip to the Orient.

Actives and pledges were guests at a Christmas holiday cooky-shine. Helen Wright Grant of Indianola, Theta province vice president, was guest speaker. Members brought gifts for children in the city hospital.

Mothers of alumnae, actives and pledges were guests at the January meeting in the new Art Center. Lynn Jones, a recent Settlement School instructor, narrated the school movie and display of products.

Alumnae in nearby towns were invited to join the Des Moines group for the Founders' Day celebration.

MRS. PETER JANSZ

DULUTH-SUPERIOR

The year is progressing very well under the leadership of Shirley Thompson, president. We are having dessert luncheons on the first Saturday of each month. Our hostesses for the year have been: Ruth Russell, Frances Leonard, Barbara Johnson, Vivian Ramsland, Marian Turnquist, Pat Douglas, Vivian Fisher, Shirley Thompson, and Jessie Lee Rolf.

We had a very successful rummage sale, enabling us to send our nearest active chapter, Minnesota A, a substantial sum to be used in redecorating the house. At Christmas time we provided a large basket of food for a needy family in Duluth. This was done through contributions by members of the club. We are investigating the possibility of establishing a chapter at the Duluth Branch of the University of Minnesota. They have several well-established locals and an enrollment which would seem to be able to support National sororities. We are happy to have two new Pi Phis in Duluth: Jane Crafts Zilles and Virginia Blackwood. We were so sorry to lose Angie Semans who was our president last year. She has moved to Omaha, Neb. The highlight of the year was the visit of our province vice-president, Helen Wright Grant. She is always an inspiration to us and we thoroughly enjoyed and benefited by her talk to us.

RUBY BURTNES KEFGEN

GRAND FORKS, NORTH DAKOTA

The Alumnae Club of Grand Forks began its 1951-52 year with a desert-bridge in October held at the chapter house to introduce our new housemother, Esther Huyck (Mrs. Ralph) to the alums and other housemothers on the campus. Mrs. Huyck is a Pi Beta Phi herself and we were especially thrilled when she came to us from Carleton College in Northfield, Minn.

The Settlement School Tea was held at the chapter house in November. Although the weather was definitely not in our favor, we did feel that it was a success; the attendance was good and the sales were many. The active chapter gave a very nice Christmas party at the chapter house in December for the alumnae and their children. The girls put on a grand program, Santa appeared with gifts for all of the children and "goodies" were enjoyed by all later in the evening.

Our February meeting was a pot luck supper given in honor of Helen Grant, our province vice president, and Veronica Arnold who was retiring as treasurer of the house association after many, many years of untiring service. A Valentine theme was carried out by the committee and gifts were presented to the honored guests. The election of officers was the order of business at the March meeting and Founders' Day was celebrated in April with a lovely banquet held in the University's lovely new Student Union. The committee in charge did a wonderful job and the significance of the occasion was truly felt by everyone.

The Senior Farewell in May climaxed the year's activities although tentative plans were made for a "get together" in the summer.

BARBARA TEMPLE LANDER

MINNEAPOLIS AFTERNOON

The September meeting was held at the lovely summer home of Isabel Campbell on Hardscrabble Point, Lake Minnetonka. This unusual lake, with its 200 miles of shore line occupied with splendid homes, makes a beautiful setting.

In the fall, as has been done for many years, the club assisted the active chapter at a rushing party by sending food and having a number of hostesses at the chapter house to assist in entertaining the rushers. During the summer the house was rearranged and redecorated under the able and tasteful direction of Eunice Cutler Ritchie.

The club has been fortunate in that the Publicity Chairman, Marie Shay, has been able to have a number of interesting news items published in the Minneapolis Star.

The January, 1952, meeting was held at the home of Helen Howard. Jessie Whitney, Program Chairman, had arranged a very interesting Loyalty Day program, which was very much enjoyed.

The usual Settlement School tea was turned into a "coffee" at the new home of Jessie Whitney, and was a complete success, for all the articles available were sold.

The club repeated its project of a dance, which everyone enjoyed.

The February meeting was held at the home of Carol Gravelle, at which we had the pleasure of the presence of the province vice president, Helen Grant. Her report was even more interesting and inspiring than usual, and left everyone wishing that she might return more often.

BYRDENA I. JOHN

MINNEAPOLIS EVENING

President Gerry Clark Frohbach called the October business meeting to order in the newly decorated Pi Beta Phi house. The coming year's events were discussed. It was also a "get acquainted" session as there were many recent graduates who joined the group.

Intriguing covered pans and dishes were carried into the Pi Beta Phi House November 16, for our annual Smorgasbord.

Husbands and friends were invited. Members furnished the food and proceeds were to go for a Christmas basket for a needy family.

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without any presents, so members exchanged ten cent gifts at a Christmas party which followed a general business meeting. We met at the Pi Beta Phi house which had been appropriately decorated for the Christmas season by the active chapter.

The January meeting was held on Loyalty Day at Lois Peterson Reed's home. After a business meeting we celebrated the occasion with a cooky-shine, and, also, wrote letters to former members of the group who had moved away.

The annual Twin City Pi Phi dinner dance was held February 9. Barbara Glenn Lane represented our group in planning the occasion which is jointly sponsored by the Minneapolis and St. Paul alumnae and the active chapter.

February 13 we were honored to have Helen Wright Grant, Theta Province Vice President meet with us at Barbara Lane's home. Mrs. Grant gave us all a better understanding of our responsibilities as alumnae, and a clearer picture of the national activities of Pi Beta Phi.

A dessert was given for the active chapter at the house March 10. Afterwards we held a meeting to elect next year's officers.

Newly elected officers were inducted at the general business meeting April 9. Founders' Day was observed April 28 with the other Twin City Alumnae and the active chapter at a dinner in St. Paul.

The year officially ended for our club with a picnic May 17, at Jaquelyn Korschak Kilpatrick's home at Lake Minnetonka.

At the October meeting, which was held to entertain the active chapter and pledges, the alumnae club was privileged to have the Grand President, Amy B. Onken, present as a guest. After a buffet supper, Miss Onken gave a very interesting and inspiring talk on rushing.

At the November meeting, which was held in the active chapter rooms, it was decided that alumnae members would furnish food for cooky-shines each month for the active chapter. Following the business meeting, a display of Settlement School articles was shown.

A Christmas party was the occasion of the December meeting. In place of a gift exchange this year, each alumnae member brought a toy for the local Christmas baskets.

The January meeting was centered around a program and quiz on the Constitution and History of Pi Beta Phi.

At the February meeting a program on the Settlement School was presented by the alumnae president. It was decided by the club to send $5.00 extra to the Settlement School in recognition of its Fortieth Anniversary. The election of officers for the coming year took place at the March meeting.

Founders' Day was celebrated with other local clubs in the area. A lovely banquet was held with entertainment being presented by the active chapter.

The annual Commencement Breakfast honoring graduating Pi Phi seniors was enjoyed by both the active and alumnae chapters. Special guests at the breakfast were mothers of the senior girls and out of town alumnae. The final event of the graduation activities for the year was the Panhellenic Tea, which was sponsored by the Pi Beta Phi alumnae group this year.

BETTY PREUSS WETTACH

IOTA PROVINCE

CHEYENNE

The Cheyenne Alumnae Club has had a most enjoyable year. We held a drive in the city for old license plates in conjunction with the national drive for scrap metal. The drive was most successful and the club was highly commended for our undertaking. We also held our annual rummage sale, our money raising project, and it too was a success.

Our club is primarily a social group, and we have thoroughly enjoyed our monthly meetings. One highlight was reminiscing the song book.

Several of our members have been quite prominent in civic affairs, and our own Marion Milstead has been the director of several outstanding plays produced by the local Little Theater. We are indeed proud of her, as well as Mrs. Robert McCracken who has portrayed leading roles.

ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA

The St. Paul Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the year on September 17 at the home of Mary Valleau Lydon, Dixie Edkins, the rushing chairman of the active chapter, discussed rushing plans.

The second meeting of the year was a dessert luncheon on October 16 at the home of Martica Byrnes Huffman. After a short business meeting we had an interesting talk on "Floral Arrangements" by a local florist.

On November 20 our evening meeting was held at the home of Florence Paetzold. Isabel Dowell showed us colored slides of a trip she had taken to England, Europe, India, and the Scandinavian countries.

The December meeting was a luncheon at the Women's City Club in St. Paul. The members played cards or just visited afterwards.

At our February luncheon meeting at Agnes Miller's we were pleased to have our Theta Province Vice President, Mrs. G. A. Grant, with us. Among other things she told us many interesting things about our Settlement School and the town of Gatlinburg, and gave us a good picture of the people and their work.

Mary Kohlsaet Swenson had an evening dessert meeting at her home on March 10. Election of officers for the coming year was held and a "Talent Sale" followed. Each member brought something she had made. The "talents," which were auctioned off, ranged from bakery goods to knitted objects.

The last meeting of the year will be held on May 19 at the home of Dorothy Wennerberg Burg. Our new officers for the next year will be installed.

MARY K. SWENSON

TRI-CITY ALUMNAE CLUB

Davenport, Ia., Moline & Rock Island, Ill.

Last July the officers and committee heads of our Tri-City Alumnae Club met at the Davenport Country Club for a luncheon meeting to discuss rushing plans and formulate ideas for the club's yearly activities. Then, in late August a very delightful buffet supper was given for twenty-five rushers at the Davenport Country Club. Grace Spensley Schroder, Moline, and Jane Martin, Davenport, Co-rush Chairmen, were responsible for the successful affair, with its beautiful floral decorations and colorful old-fashioned lady place cards bearing gold Pi Beta Phi Greek letters on attached umbrellas.

Our September meeting was called to order by the president, Marjorie Bennell Danberg, at the home of Edith Prior-Leathy Lischer, Davenport, where the evening was devoted to a rushing report. Some twenty-two members attended a lovely luncheon bridge in October at the Davenport Club. In November a book review, "The President's Lady," was given at the home of Grace Spensley Schroder, Moline. Jeannette Peterson Hollowell, Davenport, entertained on December 12 when Rev. Neil Danberg gave an inspiring Christmas message.

During the holidays our members were pleased to entertain eleven actives and pledges at a grand Yule luncheon at the Davenport Outing Club.

The spring season brought meetings at the homes of Edith Aldrich Temple, Moline, and Gertrude Olson Lord, Davenport, while the traditional April Founders' Day dinner was celebrated at Lucille Kellery Vernon's with the usual thirty-some in attendance.

JOSEPHINE MARWICK

Our club year ended with our cooky-shine, a lovely dinner and social hour, and we are all looking forward to next fall, when we will renew our activities.

LUCILLE WARE HUMMER

COLORADO SPRINGS

The Colorado Springs Alumnae Club has had an interesting year under the able leadership of Evelyn Lowman Darby, president. Six meetings were held with the first a luncheon meeting at the home of Jessie Cooper Downer. The second meeting was also a luncheon in honor of Marie Quillen Divisek, our province vice-president. For this meeting we went to the new Garden of the Gods Club.

The next three meetings were evening meetings at the respective homes of Virginia Trant, Arthé Baldwin Beardsley, and Virginia Stevens Ziegler. Buffet suppers were served and in each instance there were three assisting hostesses.

The final meeting was in celebration of Founders' Day. This was a subscription luncheon at the Antlers Hotel.

Our program chairman, Betty Stanton Searle, has planned the meetings so that we have been given a fresh slant on the material we deal with each year, as well as introducing the idea of a Christmas party, at which we devoted the evening to making favors for a children's home.

It might be of interest to other clubs to know that when our luncheons or suppers are held in a private home, the four hostesses give the party and each member present pays fifty cents which goes into our treasury. New members or visiting Pi Beta Phis are guests at their first meeting.

We have welcomed a number of Army and Air Force wives into our group this year. Our membership has reached an all time high with thirty paid members.

LUCILE ADAMS

DENVER

Jane Clover Palm, of Illinois E, has taken us through a very successful year as president, with the theme "Emphasis on Pi Phi." We've drawn exclusively on our members for programs, and they have kept us amused as well as informed with interesting tales and important data. Mary Frost, past province officer, spent an evening refreshing our memories on the Constitution. Agnes Wright Spring, former Arrow Editor and National Historian, entertained us with exciting stories from her files at our Colorado museum, as State Historian. We have leaned heavily on Lolita Snell Prouty, Grand Treasurer, who gave us talks on the Constitution, and Loyalty Day, and Marie Divisek, province vice president, who talked to us of the Settlement School.

The Founders' Day luncheon was held on the campus in the new and beautiful Student Union Building, at Denver University, which brought back many fond memories of our school days. Our annual Settlement School Tea, always a highlight of the year, was especially well attended. The yearly style show was successful, and remunerative enough to carry us through the year. It was an evening party arranged so that the husbands could attend and they had a wonderful time. "Did you know?" and "Talent Day," were meetings devoted to the doings of our local Pi Beta Phi's activities. They were enlightening meetings about our sisters who have unusual hobbies and exciting careers. They have contributed much to our fraternity and to their community.

WYNOGENE WELKER ANZICK

DENVER JUNIOR

The Denver Junior Alumnae Club opened the fall season in September with a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Robert Hawley. The attendance was over seventy. Our speaker, Mrs. Cleo Wallace, explained the function and policies of Wallace School, Home for Brain Injured Children. This school has been our project for about two years. We have made training devices for these children, have donated toys, scrapbooks, and a motion picture screen. We are also giving ten dollars a month for the support of a child in attendance at the school who needs financial aid.

An attractive tea and successful Settlement School sale was held November 13 at Mrs. Roy J. Weaver's home.

March 21 was the date of the Junior Alumnae Club Dinner Dance at Lakewood Country Club. Raffle tickets were sold for a mink fur scarf; the drawing was held at the dance. This year our annual rummage sale was held April 18 and 19.

Our Founders' Day Luncheon was held April 26 at the Denver University Student Union.

Our monthly meetings have had excellent attendance and all members have responded enthusiastically to every program and project. We feel this year has been very successful for the Junior Alumnae Club.

JACQUELIN BLANCH WEBER

HUTCHINSON

A Pi Beta Phi Christmas dance was the big money making project of the year for the Hutchinson Alumnae Club. Total profits from the dance were $163 which will be used for a local charity project. A committee is trying to find a project in which the members of Pi Beta Phi may give of their time as well as their money. For several years the club has sponsored a Girl Scout campership. They have also donated to the transportation fund for underprivileged children.

Panhellenic rules at the University of Kansas and Kansas State College required separate rush parties for each college. Two morning rush parties were given. The actives entertained with skits on college life.

The Hutchinson Alumnae Club is happy to be able to contribute to Holt House, Emma Harper Turner Fund, Settlement School, and Save the Children Federation.

A question and answer program on the Constitution of Pi Beta Phi was given at several meetings. This proved to be much more interesting and informative than a formal talk.

Founders' Day was observed with the traditional "cook-shine" at the home of one of the members.

SHIRLEY JONES MANN

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS

The Kansas City, Kansas, Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the season on October 9 at the home of Joan Edwards. Preceding the business meeting, the new members were honored with a dessert party. Plans for a November guest luncheon at the Town House were announced.

The guest luncheon proved both enjoyable and profitable. Jane and George Mears provided distinctive table decorations, and after luncheon, demonstrated the making of Christmas snow novelties. Arrow Craft goods were sold.

The December meeting was the traditional Christmas party at the home of Virginia Harding. Clothing, toys, and food were assembled for our adopted family.

Our principle money-making project, a progressive bridge tournament, was planned in January and proceeded through February. With each member and each guest playing at $.75 a session, the project was very successful. All prizes were Arrow Craft articles.

We displayed Arrow Craft goods at a number of meetings. The Kansas B Mothers' Club sold goods at one of their meetings.

In March, we elected officers at Caroline Van Cleave's home. Plans were completed for the annual Founders' Day cook-shine, which was held at Mary Kay Fothergill's in April.

The year's business closed with the installation of officers after a May luncheon at Milburn Country Club. We entertained our husbands at a June picnic at Quivera Lake.

Three members were prominent in Junior League work this year. Rachel Haren played the role of King Midas in the Children's Theater production. Harriet Gibson edited and Helen Jane Dear was business manager for "LEAGUE LINES."

ELIZABETH WILKINSON VAUGHAN

LAWRENCE

The first meeting of the year was held in November at the home of Maxine Fisher Radcliffe. The sixteen new pledges of Kansas A were guests of the club for an informal buffet supper. Virginia Hutson Getto was chairman of the social activities preceding the business meeting at which Peg Ballweg Warner presided. New members welcomed into the club were: Magdaline Stieghorst Cartter (Illinois A), Carol Bates Eddy (Kansas B) and Joan Armitage Woodward (Kansas B).

In January a luncheon meeting with Jane Griffith Stevens in charge of arrangements was held at the home of Lucene Spencer Bayles. The presence of four visiting Kansas A alumnae; Helen Pendleton, Adrienne Atkinson Day, Maurine Fairweather and Constance Fennell Williams enhanced the social hour. Another highlight was the celebration of the 86 birthday of Clara Poehler Smithmeyer. At the business session the fund raising committee reported plans for a rummage sale in April.

The graduating seniors of Kansas A were luncheon guests at the March meeting which was held at the home of Helen Friend Lindsey, with Lois Greenlees Buehler as social chairman. An interesting talk was given by Miss Aud Soiland, an occupational therapy student from Norway, who is living at the chapter house this year while attending the university.

Founders' Day was celebrated by the traditional banquet in Kansas City, attended jointly by actives of Kansas A and Missouri A and surrounding alumnae clubs.

In May, Elizabeth Mackie Carman, entertained the club at her home. Margaret Seybold Hill was in charge of the luncheon which preceded the final business meeting of the year.

MAXINE FISHER RADCLIFFE

LINCOLN

An October luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Della Stover opened the 1951-1952 year for the Lincoln Alumnae Club. The summer redecoration of the chapter house on the University of Nebraska campus was the subject of report and discussion.

One of the highlights of our entire year was the November meeting with Mrs. E. C. Ames again serving as hostess. This meeting, in which Mrs. Ames annually entertains the members of the current pledge class and the alumnae group in her lovely home, has come to be practically traditional with our Club and is always looked forward to as one of our most delightful meetings. The housemother, Mrs. Mayher, together with the members of this year's pledge class were introduced and the pledges provided a most enjoyable musical program.

The Student Union on the downtown campus was the scene of our December dinner meeting. The seniors from the active chapter were our guests. Also during the month of December the active chapter entertained the alumnae club and their children at the annual Christmas party at the chapter house.

Mrs. Marion Ireland was hostess for the January meeting of our group. Rushing plans for the year 1952 were reported and discussed.

A February dessert luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Betty Anderson. Definite plans were made to relay food baskets from one Club member to another as part of a money-making project.

In March we met with Dorothy Morgan and our business meeting was devoted to the annual election of officers.

ARLISS SWANSON PATTERSON

MANHATTAN

The most important and successful event for Manhattan Alumnae Club in 1951 was the April celebration at the Country Club in honor of the Founders. We were privileged to honor not only our Founders, but also Lillian Beck Holton who has been a member of Pi Beta Phi for fifty years. Mrs. Holton has served as Chairman of the National Settlement School Committee, as Assistant Grand Treasurer, and currently, is Counselor for Chapter House Corporations. The prize winning skit from Y-Orpheum, won by Pi Beta Phi, was presented as part of the program by the active members.

An unusually successful rush week was climaxed in September with a cooky-shine. Forty new pledges were entertained. Although a new ruling requires freshmen women to live in campus dormitories for one semester, nine of our pledges were permitted to live in the chapter house because of overcrowding in the dormitories.

At the November Settlement School meeting, it was decided that each member would donate sandwiches to the club on a specified evening, and then sell them at the chapter house. The annual rummage sale was cancelled because of the great quantity of clothing still available, which was given to the city of Manhattan after the July flood. A white elephant auction, after adjournment, netted $35.

The House Corporation meeting was held in January. The program was in celebration of Loyalty Day. Lillian Beck Holton reported that the December Settlement School Sale grossed $600. A profit of $40 from the sale of popcorn poppers during December was also reported.

The February meeting was devoted to the Constitution and History of Pi Beta Phi. A food sale was held after adjournment.

In March the initiates were entertained at a luncheon. Officers were elected at the March meeting.

The Founders' Day Banquet was held at the Manhattan Country Club in April.

The year will end with the annual picnic in June.

VIRGINIA FORRESTER MANSFIELD

NORTHEASTERN WYOMING

At the Sheridan Country Club in October, the Northeastern Wyoming Alumnae Club was fortunate to have Marie Divisek for the first meeting of the year. After a brief business meeting, her many helpful suggestions inspired this newly organized group. It was decided in future to hold evening dessert meetings in the homes of members.

Because of removal of officers and illness, the next meeting was in January at the home of Carol Hurst. Election of officers was necessary and Muriel Wilcox Bell became president; Betty Steffen Edwards, vice president; Leona Brunner Gillen, secretary; Iris Wood Hicks, treasurer. As a fund raising project, a decision was made to purchase fifty boxes of decorated postal cards and note paper.

At the February meeting with Betty Steffen Edwards, the Constitution was discussed. The stationery, decorated with wild flowers, butterflies and Audubon's birds, attractively boxed, was given to the members to sell.

In March, the club met with Anne Sanders Cook. Reports showed that the stationery project had proved successful, with the postal cards being most in demand. Virginia Haldeman Jones, Iowa Z, told of her visit to the Settlement School, the work of the fraternity about Gatlinburg and showed a limited selection of Arrow Craft products.

The April meeting was with Marcia Hick Spracklen, with a business and social hour, where plans were made for Founders' Day. This was celebrated by a banquet at the Country Club. In the decorations, the wine and blue were used and an interesting program, suitable to the occasion was given.

There will probably be a picnic in the mountains with the active members of Wyoming A during the summer, when rushing plans will be made. It is felt that a good year has been enjoyed by all the alumnae members of Pi Beta Phi in this region of Wyoming.

VIRGINIA HALDEMAN JONES

OGDEN, UTAH

The Ogden Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the year 1951-52 in October at the home of Eleanor Beuhler, with Marilee Stratford as co-hostess. Our new president, Shirley Hemingway, presided. Plans for the year and a schedule of meetings were discussed, followed by dessert.

Marie Divisek, our province vice president, visited us in November. We had a luncheon at the Country Club, with nearly all of our members attending. Mrs. Divisek gave a very interesting talk on the Settlement School.

The January meeting was held at the home of Kay Pollock. Rushing was the main topic for discussion, as Rush Week at the University of Utah is held the first week in February.

A pot luck supper was given in March at the home of Mary Frances Fisher, and in April we attended the Founders' Day Banquet given in Salt Lake City.

VIRGINIA ROMNEY HAWKES

OMAHA

The Omaha Alumnae Club prepared and served food for ninety people at an evening rush party at the Nebraska B Chapter House in Lincoln last September. A silver tray had been presented by the Omaha Alumnae Club to the active chapter in memory of Bess Heacock Gould, Zora Fitzgerald Allwine and Florinda Young Pratt, all former Nebraska Betas.

At the September meeting of the club, the Omaha alumnae rushing chairman, Virginia Haun, was given a rising vote of thanks for the outstanding job she had done.

On October 25 the club held a Settlement School Sale. Mary Fran Nye Jenkins appeared on a local television program prior to the sale. She was interviewed and displayed many of the Arrow Craft articles. Goods were displayed at a morning coffee at the home of Kay Garrett Skinner. The club took in approximately $900 from the coffee and the sale of merchandise.

The Christmas luncheon was given at the Omaha Athletic Club on December 26. Those attending included alumnae club members, members of the active chapter and relatives of Pi Beta Phi members. The party was lovely with gay holiday decorations. Members of the active chapter entertained with Pi Beta Phi songs.

At the January meeting, club members were asked to bring articles of clothing to be donated to a local Thrift Shop, the response was very gratifying.

The club again assisted the active chapter at the March Initiation Banquet in Lincoln and presented gifts to the initiates and an award to the outstanding senior.

The year will close with the June picnic which has now become an annual affair.

JANICE GOULD WOOD

PUEBLO

The roar of Spring's proverbial lion finds the Pueblo Alumnae Club busy at work on a charitable project. Several of the members are interested in community services of this nature and have seen the need of aid in various institutions. The Lincoln Home for children is in need of extensive refurbishing, therefore, the group is tentatively planning a unit work project. Betty Phelps and Dorothy Becker Keen have been working diligently collecting the necessary information for such a project.

The group had a rather unique Christmas party in that each member brought a tree ornament and a gaily wrapped child's gift. Gifts were loaded in baskets, ornaments hung on a tree and Ruth Clucas Finney and Margaret Carleton Taylor took Christmas to a needy mother with nine small children. The club contributed $25 in basic foodstuffs for the family larder.

The meetings this quarter have not been entirely devoted to work for the alumnae recall the adage, "all work, no play . . ." The January meeting at Ruth Clucas Finney's was most delightful in that several members began recalling favorite songs from their chapter days. Voices were truly lifted in song and the charming evening drew to a close much too soon. The group hopes such "songfest" will become annual events.

ERNAMARIE TREFZ

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

The Utah Alumnae Club started the year by having the Settlement School Tea. Articles made at the school were arranged midst a profusion of colorful flowers. This tea was held in conjunction with the membership drive, and all who attended were gratified.

October was the month for the annual Fashion Show and Luncheon held at the Newhouse Hotel. To date, it was the most elaborate and successful social function.

The Fort Douglas Club was the scene of the first luncheon of the new year which honored new and transfer alumnae. To add to the occasion, each was given a nosegay of wine and blue carnations.

Candlelight and cookies marked the Cooky-Shine on February 11 in honor of nineteen outstanding pledges. February 28 was highlighted by a book review "Always Adventure" given by Helen Kimball.

On March 29, elections were held for new officers at a buffet luncheon at the chapter house. At this time, the constitution was also made more meaningful and dear to all.

The eve of April 28, the Country Club was all aglow on the occasion of our Founders' Day Banquet.

The children held the spotlight at the Fair in May, while in June, the graduating seniors were honored at a breakfast. Each was presented with a gift and welcomed into the alumnae club.

Thus we ended the year with many new friends and with the bonds of wine and blue more dear to our hearts.

PATRICIA WILKINS CANNON

SIoux FALLS, SOUTH DAKOTA

The first fall meeting of the year of the Sioux Falls Alumnae Club was held informally at the home of Hazel Hyden. The rush party, which was held August 29, was discussed. Rushees, plus their mothers, were invited to the party. We think the mothers thoroughly enjoyed themselves, maybe more so than the daughters.

The November meeting was devoted mostly to making plans for our Settlement School Tea & Sale to be held December 1 to be held at the home of Hazel Hyden.

During the Christmas holidays, Sioux Falls Pi Beta Phi actives and pledges were entertained at a buffet supper. The evening was spent informally, chatting and getting better acquainted with the girls. A purse from the Arrowcraft Shop was given as a door prize.

In January, we had a social meeting. The club enjoyed the social evening very much so we are going to try to work another one into our yearly schedule.

The turn-out at the February business meeting was small due to bad weather. Tentative plans were made for Founders' Day and we had excerpts from the Constitution read.

In trying to raise more money for our treasury, each member brought a book to the March meeting. These books were then sold to each other and the proceeds added to the treasury. There was election of officers for the coming year.

Founders' Day was celebrated on April 26 with the Vermillion, South Dakota Alumnae Club and the members of South Dakota A entertained at a luncheon at the Cottage. Spring flowers adorned the tables and the wine and blue traditional colors were carried out in the other decorations.

In May, new officers were installed and plans for the coming year were made. The standing committees were announced and tentative plans for summer rushing were discussed.

EVELYN JACOBSEN HARVEY

TOPEKA, KANSAS

The first meeting of the 1951-1952 season was held at the home of Mrs. Louis Swan. An informal talk on Interior Decoration was given by Mrs. Hart Workman.

In place of our November meeting we held a luncheon at the Jayhawk Hotel in honor of the new pledges of Kansas State College and their mothers.

White Elephant was the theme for our January meeting. It was held at the home of Mrs. Robert McClure. The attendance was small but the sale turned out quite well. Tickets were distributed for the annual Panhellenic Fashion Show.

Our February meeting was a dessert-bridge held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Beck.

Election of officers was held in March at the home of Mrs. Loren Ellis.

The annual Cooky-Shine was held this year at the home of Mrs. Charles Thurston. This meeting is also always a "covered dish" supper and the night we install our new officers.

MARY-JANE STEVES SHANKLAND

VERMILLION

The first meeting of the Vermillion Alumnae Club for the year was held at the home of the new president, Ethel Lyckholm Gunderson.

At the November meeting held at the home of Ardelle Armstrong Oden, it was decided that we would sponsor a philanthropy project that might be continued from year to year. A bake sale was held during the month, and the money earned will be used to send one deserving local girl to Scout Camp this summer.

In December a Christmas party was held at the home of Letitia Larson Beatty. Two white bathroom rugs were wrapped to be presented to the active chapter at their Christmas party.

For our January meeting the club met with Evelyn Endresen Richardson. The meeting was opened with the reading of a tribute to Carrie Chapman Catt. It was decided that this year we might increase our donations to the Emma Harper Turner Fund, Holt House and Settlement School. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to a Settlement School program. Two articles were read and folk music was played.

During semester test week members of the alumnae club took refreshments to the members of the active chapter during their study hours in the evening.

The February meeting, held at the home of the president, Ethel Lyckholm Gunderson, was devoted to the reading of the Constitution to the pledges who were initiated on March 1.

The election of officers for 1952-53 was held in March at the home of Marjorie Wagner Rausch. At the conclusion of the business meeting a study of the History and Constitution was made. Pi Beta Phi crossword puzzles and a paper with terms familiar to fraternity life to be unscrambled were given to each member to be completed. The winner was presented with a coin purse made at the Settlement School.

April was a busy month for the club. A most enjoyable day was spent in Sioux Falls with the alumnae club there. The active chapter seniors were entertained at a buffet supper during our regular April Meeting. A social evening followed the supper.

Our last meeting of the year was held at the home of Althea Larson Konegni, when rushing was discussed.

MARJORIE WAGNER RAUSCH

WICHITA

The Wichita Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began its year with a stimulating business meeting which brought forth proposals for needed changes, entertaining programs, and money-making ventures. The annual Triad Dance, which is held with K A G and K K I, was the back bone, once again, of the annual treasury.

Gifts and clothing were wrapped for the Settlement School as the Christmas offering from the alumnae club. The Settlement School Tea was held during November.

In January the mothers of active Pi Beta Phis were entertained at the meeting. An amusing and intriguing talk on "Hopping Islands" was given by a local traveller.

The meetings have been enthusiastically attended this year, and the members are now anticipating election of officers and the traditional "Cooky-Shine."

MRS. HUGH E. DEWATER

KAPPA PROVINCE

ARDMORE

Due in no small measure to an inspiring talk made by Mrs. T. E. Graham, Kappa Province Vice-President, at the initial meeting of the year, the Ardmore Alumnae Club has completed one of its most successful years. The initial meeting was a Registration Tea, during which dues are paid and the yearly schedule outlined.

On November 1 the annual Settlement School Tea and sale of Arrow Craft goods was held in the drawing room of the local Y.W.C.A.

To enable the members of the club to widen their contact with girls who are potential rushees and to better judge their qualifications for future rushing, a "Senior Girls Tea" was inaugurated. The affair was given in the drawing room of the Y.W.C.A. on November 16, with all High School Senior girls planning to enroll in a college or university as the guests. This tea was considered a success, not only in that it provided opportunity to become more familiar with these girls, but also the members of the club may have been of some value in assisting them in making decisions concerning their college careers.

The December meeting was preceded by a luncheon at Dornick Hills Country Club. After the business was concluded, Doris Woods, just returned from a tour abroad, reviewed the highlights of her experiences in Holland.

During the holiday season the president, together with the rush chairman and social committee, entertained the Ardmore actives and a small group of prospective rushees with a coffee in the home of the president.

At the close of the January meeting, which occurred during Loyalty Week, an old-time "cooky-shine" was stimulated by singing some of the old and favorite Pi Beta Phi songs and reminiscing about college days in Pi Beta Phi.

At the February "pre-rush workshop" recommendations for rushing with consent to bid were prepared for submitting to the active chapters. Also a topic for discussion and planning was the role of the Ardmore club in the forthcoming National Convention to be held in July in Houston, Texas, with Kappa Province as hostess.

Since the March meeting is essentially the last business meeting of the year, officers for the coming year were elected, but will not assume their duties until the first meeting of the next club year.

The Oklahoma A was hostess to the State Alumnae Association on Founders' Day, and the Ardmore club was well represented.

The group met on May 4 at the Lodge at scenic Lake Murray, for the Dutch Treat Luncheon.

MARILYN MYERS

BARTLESVILLE

The Bartlesville Alumnae Club devoted its first two meetings of the year to the discussion of the University of Oklahoma and Oklahoma A & M rush tours, which visited Bartlesville in August. These girls assisted local alumnae club members in entertaining russhes at a coke party in the home of our president, Mrs. Russell Straight.

The active meeting was held in September also at the home of Mrs. Straight, at which future plans for fall rush were discussed.

Our October and November meetings were devoted to the display and sale of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School products. Several successful rush parties were held during the Christmas holidays, thanks to our Oklahoma University and Oklahoma A & M actives.

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Lynd at which Chapter Loyalty Day was observed. A letter, "Recollections of Initiations," written by Mrs. A. B. Nesbit, was read; Mrs. Nesbit was a charter member of Kansas A fifty-five years ago. The letter was most impressive and was appreciated by all.

In the February meeting it was learned that Mrs. H. R. Herzig, alumnae delegate to Panhellenic Council, has been appointed to serve on a committee of three to make plans for the Panhellenic Tea. This tea is one of the big social events of the year.

Mrs. R. W. Merritt gave a most interesting and informative talk on the History and Constitution of Pi Beta Phi at the March meeting.

A visit to Norman, Oklahoma, took the place of our April meeting. At Norman, we joined other Pi Beta Phi's from all over the state to celebrate Founders' Day.

During this past year, the Bartlesville Panhellenic Council has initiated as one of its projects the sponsoring of the Gray Ladies program. We are proud to say that about fifteen of our club members have completed the course and are spending several hours a week at the local hospital. They also take active part in other phases of Red Cross work, including the blood donor program.

FRANCES ELLINOR ISERN

BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA

Our club year began in September under the capable leadership of our president, Mrs. Robert P. Lyle.

We participated in Louisiana B's rushing activities, helping them in various ways. The Pledge Supper was held at Mrs. Willard Radford's home, climaxing a very successful Rush Season.

Our Settlement School Coffee was held in November at Mrs. James M. Jennings' home, a patroness of the active chapter. Mrs. Nelson A. Bourgeois, Jr., was chairman of the coffee. Two mothers, Mrs. F. M. Porch and Mrs. Aldrich Stroube poured the first hour. The alumnae pouring the second hour were Mrs. W. C. Boyd and Mrs. J. A. Welch. This was the third coffee of this type that we have had, and each year shows increases in our sales.

In January we had a short business meeting and bridge party at the home of Mrs. W. C. Boyd. Her co-chairman was Mrs. Willard Radford. Seventeen alumnae attended.

On March 28 we sponsored a benefit card party and style show with Mrs. H. P. Reinsch serving as chairman. This proved to be very successful last year, and when the suggestion was made to repeat it this year, it met with great enthusiasm. The models were three active members and three alumnae who modeled clothes from a local department store. Officers were also elected at our March meeting.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with the active chapter at a banquet. The actives presented a short skit about our Founders.

In May we held our annual luncheon honoring the seniors of the active chapter. They were presented with individual gifts. Mrs. Victor Holland was chairman.

MRS. NELSON A. BOURGEOIS

BRAZOS VALLEY

The Brazos Valley Alumnae Club is an interesting group of some thirty members drawn from the following neighboring towns in Texas: Bryan, College Station, Calvert, Hearne and Navasota. We often have additions of wives of students at the A & M College and who come from just everywhere. These being frequently right out of college add much pep and strength to the club.

Through the year we have aided Texas A in local rushing, have contributed to the several memorial funds, have had the required programs (this year under the wonderful direction of Connie Lommel Adams of Indiana Δ). These really good programs of information have been valuable in reawakening or preserving our interest in things Pi Beta Phi.

One of our members, Sue Cummings Gibson, is Kappa Province Supervisor on the National Committee on Chapter Study.

Most enjoyable has been the heartwarming hospitality shown at each meeting as we meet in the homes of the members, making each meeting an especially enjoyable social occasion as well as study and business session.

We hereby invite any Pi Beta Phi in this section to contact us and meet with us. We shall be especially pleased to see all of you at the Convention in Houston this summer.

MARIAN GOODE BARRY

CORPUS CHRISTI

A rush party at the home of Patsy Pittman, a Texas B active, was our first social event of the year. A show boat motif was carried out, and as a result of rushing this year, we pledged four girls in September.

October brought us a most enjoyable visit from Theresa G. Graham, Kappa Province Vice-President. She was among the first to kindle our interest in Convention in Houston this year.

In November we held the Settlement School sale at the home of Ora Shrader Hearne. Coffee was served from 10 to 5 o'clock to callers.

The Christmas party honoring pledges, actives, and mothers was a delightful event of December 28 at the home of Ann DeBack McGloin. Monta Hunter served as chairman of the planning committee. Gifts of John Frederick's Golden Arrow Cologne were presented to the pledges.

On February 12 Adele Howie Weaver entertained the new Pi Beta Phi and alumnae officers at her home. Fifteen new alumnae have moved to Corpus Christi this year.

At Convention our chapter will be hostess for the buffet supper on July 11. Elizabeth Andrews Chilson will be chairman of that committee. Ollie Knight Jackson and Betty Taylor Allen will represent this club at Convention on the hospitality committee.

A gift was sent to Texas B this year for their new home. Texas A was also the recipient of a gift on their Golden Anniversary which was celebrated February 19. Among those attending the festivities were Rosalis Kibbee McCrosky and her mother, Mrs. F. W. Kibbee of Brownsville, Texas, one of the founders of the chapter.

Men's night, celebrated in May at the home of Mary Elizabeth Epley Bugg, closed the social activities for the year.

FRANCES GUTHRIE WHITAKER

DALLAS, TEXAS

The Dallas Alumnae Club held its first meeting in September at the home of Carol Cox Estes, with the president, Nell Shelburne, presiding. Preceding the business meeting Texas B presented a musical skit and then gave a report on their rushing.

The October meeting was at the new Texas B house. It was a celebration of a dream fulfilled after thirty years of persistent work by Panhellenic to get sorority houses on the SMU campus. Our province vice-president, Teresa Gibson Graham, and many out-of-town visitors were with us to commemorate the occasion.

November 6 we had an Arrow Craft sale at the Texas B house.

Preceding the business meeting in January, our three 50-year Pi Beta Phi's gave a clever program. The club presented each with a gift.

At the February meeting Olivia Smith Moore, Treasurer of the Settlement School, was our guest speaker. She illustrated her talk on the Settlement School with charts, she had devised, to show the growth in each department. She also explained just how our money is spent and how much it is needed.

We enjoyed Lolita Snell Prouty, Grand Treasurer, who visited the SMU chapter in February. The alumnae club and active chapter honored her at a tea which marked the official opening of Texas B house.

In March we had our annual legacy party. Also in March a Neiman-Marcus style show was sponsored by the Junior Pi Beta Phi Alumnae group.

On April 23 we celebrated Founders' Day at the Texas B House.

In May we had a joint meeting with the junior group and installed officers for the coming year.

A large number from the Dallas Club expect to go to Convention at the Shamrock Hotel in Houston in July.

FAYETTEVILLE

In September our alumnae group assisted the active chapter with rushing. The active chapter had a very successful rushing season and pledged four girls from Fayetteville with high scholastic ratings and we feel as though we played a very important part in pledging them.

In November we had our first regular meeting and there were several enthusiastic alumnae present. Mrs. W. E. N. Phillips, one of our members, told us of her delightful trip to Europe during the summer. Also, in November, a Benefit Bridge Party was sponsored by us to raise funds for the active chapter's Christmas present.

On December 16, we had our annual Christmas Dinner, for our husbands, at the chapter house. Mother Clifton, chapter housemother, and the alumnae club hostesses had the house and table decorated both beautifully and originally and the turkey dinner was out of this world.

Our group met in January and had dessert and coffee before the business meeting.

Our luncheon meeting for the year was in March, and we were honored to have Lolita Snell Prouty, Grand Treasurer, as our guest. There was a large group of our members to meet her and enjoy her company.

In April we had election of officers. Since this was to be our last business meeting until fall we discussed our plans for the Settlement School Tea to be held in the fall of 1952.

In May we had our annual picnic for alumnae club members and husbands.

NANCY BARNES GOFF

FORT SMITH

As the Fort Smith Alumnae Club pauses to review the year's work we find that we have had a most successful year under the very able leadership of our president Mary Adams. Our summer rushing was inspired, resulting in the pledging of five girls at various schools.

Our September meeting concerned our local chapter at Fayetteville and plans for the coming year. At our October meeting we had the privilege of having Theresa Graham who gave us a talk that really inspired us to go on to better and larger projects for Pi Beta Phi.

In November we had a Settlement School Tea for the showing of the products. It was our first tea and very successful in every way.

Our December meeting was a luncheon honoring our pledges who gave us a resume of their activities at their schools. Our February meeting was to have been on the Constitution but as there was so much sickness the program on the Constitution was given at the March meeting, basing our study on the government of Pi Beta Phi and the Convention. We had election of officers also.

The year ended in celebration of Founders' Day in April. We find that this year we have more paid members and better attendance than we have had for years. We hope to continue with more members and interest.

RUTH MCKINNEY CRANE

HOUSTON

The Houston Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year in September and formulated plans for the year's activities.

Mrs. Clarence M. Sale and Mrs. Thomas E. Graham, Kappa Province President and Vice-President, attended and addressed the October meeting. Later in the year Mrs. Frank H. Prouty, Grand Treasurer, and Mrs. Warren T. Smith, Chairman of the Settlement School Committee, visited the club to discuss plans for the national convention.

Almost $1,900.00 was received from the annual Settlement School sale and tea held in November. In December, a coffee was given for actives and pledges home for the Christmas season. Other holiday activities included assisting the Social Service Placement Bureau with clerical help and aiding in the distribution of packages to the needy.

The history of Texas A. the first women's fraternity at the University of Texas, was presented at the January meeting in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of its founding.

During the spring meetings new officers were elected and installed, plans were formulated for summer rushing of Houston girls and Founders' Day was celebrated with a cooky-shine.

Most of the club's activities during the year were directed toward preparing for the National Convention to be held in Houston this July. As convention time nears, the convention committee under the able leadership of Mrs. Ernest E. Graham, Convention Guide, assisted by the entire club, has been giving increased emphasis toward making this year's convention one of Pi Beta Phi's most successful.

FAYE BRANSON KENDALL

LAKE CHARLES, LOUISIANA

The Lake Charles Alumnae Club held its first meeting in September at the home of Elizabeth Taliaferro Pilchard. Recommendations of rushees was discussed, and Mary Bell White Belaire, Settlement School Chairman, selected her committee.

The Pi Beta Phi Settlement School sale and tea at the Henry Gray Memorial Home took the place of a November meeting.

Our next meeting was held in January at the home of Lorena McGarry Frith. Elizabeth Theriot Griffith gave a program on the History and Constitution of the Fraternity. Mary Bell White Belaire was named delegate to the 1952 Convention and will also serve as our member on the hospitality committee.

Installation of officers took place at the May meeting.

LORENA FRITH

MIDLAND, TEXAS

The Midland Alumnae Club which was formed in 1949 now has twenty-nine active and fourteen inactive members. After a successful summer rush, the chapter launched the fall season with a luncheon meeting at the home of Lois Hamilton. This proved to be such fun, we adopted the luncheon idea for all of our monthly meetings.

At this meeting the members elected to sew dressings for the Midland County Cancer Foundation as their civic project for the year.

The Settlement School tea was held at the home of Wilma Chiles, the club president. Five hundred guests were invited and the sale was a grand success.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at the Midland Country Club to which the Pi Beta Phis from surrounding towns were invited.

For the final meeting the husbands of all the members were invited for a buffet supper at the home of Marjorie Martin.

MARGERIE SHERAR RIGGS

NORMAN, OKLAHOMA

The Norman Alumnae Club had the rare good fortune of having Amy B. Onken as dinner guest on her visit to Oklahoma in December. Miss Onken's graciousness and charm and her devotion to Pi Beta Phi were apparent in the impromptu talk she made after dinner. Her visit was an inspiration to Pi Beta Phis, active and alumnae.

In early January, Mrs. Clarence Sale, province president, made her scheduled visit. The advisory group had a dinner meeting with her that was both profitable and pleasant.

Through the year the House Corporation had been working on plans for enlarging the chapter house. Work will begin on this project soon and is expected to be finished by Fall Rush.

April 28, Norman Alumnae Club members were hosts at the Founders' Day Celebration and annual State Day meeting. All state Pi Beta Phis were invited. Our program included a 10 A.M. coffee and registration at the Quadrangle Lounge, luncheon at the Chapter House, followed by meetings of the State and House Corporation groups and Oklahoma A and Oklahoma B Alumnae. A tour of the campus followed the afternoon meetings. A Founders' Day Banquet was served in the New Union Ballroom at six-thirty. The program for the evening included skits by both Oklahoma A and B, a tribute to our Founders given by Oklahoma City Alumnae, recognition of special award winners, introduction of new initiates and mothers and daughters, a talk by Mrs. Thomas Graham, province vice-president, and, concluded a time of pleasant fellowship-renewing old ties and forging new ones. We joined in singing our Pi Beta Phi songs.

The last meeting of the year was held in May, and the installation of new officers took place.

JO ANN MULLENDRE HALLEY

OSCEOLA, ARKANSAS

One of the highlights of the club's year was a visit from Mrs. Thomas E. Graham, province vice-president. A supper meeting in honor of Mrs. Graham was given at the home of Betty Woodruff. We all enjoyed her visit very much.

The Stillwater Alumnae Club held its first meeting in September, with discussion centering around rushing activities. The rush chairman from the active chapter was present, and encouraged all alumnae to attend the coming rush parties.

At the October meeting the members of our club honored the new Oklahoma B pledges with a picnic supper. In our business meeting we made plans to honor Miss Amy B. Onken with a coffee during her visit to Stillwater in November.

At the January meeting we met in Perkins for a buffet dinner, with sophomores from the active chapter as our guests. A similar dinner was given in honor of the juniors at the February meeting. On February 29 we sponsored a very successful style show, with proceeds going to various worthy projects.

Election of officers and a cooky-shine for the seniors was the program for the March meeting, while in April the Settlement School film was shown at the active chapter house. This year we had a joint celebration of Founders' Day with Oklahoma A in Norman.

Now that May is here we are looking forward to closing a very successful year with two of our annual events, the "Senior Breakfast" and the "Family Day Picnic," both held in the chapter house.

CAROLYN CRAWFORD WELCH

The regular business meeting in March in the home of Mrs. Harold Lewis was election of officers.

Later in March several of the Pi Beta Phi children of all ages, and some of our younger alumnae club members, took part in a pre-Easter fashion show held in the ballroom of Tulsa University's Student Activities Building. Bunnies, colored eggs, and spring flowers formed the background of the show.

State Convention and Founders' Day at Norman marked our April activities.

May was installation of officers, and the ceremony was held in the home of Mrs. R. F. Kalbus.

GWEN BEESLEY

WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS

The Wichita Falls Alumnae Club has decided to continue the policy which proved very successful last year, that of having regular luncheon meetings in a private room at the Country Club. Two Pi Beta Phis are appointed hostesses for each luncheon, and they make all arrangements such as calling the members. These meetings are held every month during the busy summer rush season and every two months during the winter. By making a special effort to contact any new alumnae who has moved here, we have been rewarded by seeing our membership increase by leaps and bounds. We now have over fifty members.

Everyone was most enthusiastic about this year's Settlement School Tea. It was, of course, the big event of our fall months. The "tea" was actually an all day drop in affair at the home of Frances Griggs Martin. Refreshments were served while guests decided on the articles they wanted. We were very proud of our $283 profit.

Founders' Day was observed April 23 with Peggy Wyatt Payne and Dorothy Thompson Montgomery taking part on the program. In the center of the one long luncheon table was a large silver bowl containing blue iris from which radiated streamers of wine and blue ribbons. Individual placecards took the form of gold arrows.

The club has experienced new unity under the capable leadership of our president, Florence Hudson Knight, and is looking forward to another full year of working together in Pi Beta Phi.

POLLY ROBBINS JONES

LAMBDA PROVINCE

BOISE

A summer evening picnic attended by the members and their husbands preceded the first fall meeting of the Boise Alumnae Club.

This has been a very successful year for us. Five Boise girls were pledged at Moscow and at our October meeting the successful rushing and pledging of the active chapter was discussed.

Mary Dunbar Raber again had charge of our rummage sale in October which made the club a profit of $100.

In November we held our first Settlement School Tea in recent years and were pleased with the successful completion both financially and socially. Attendance was by written invitation and over 500 were impressed by the beautiful tea table and the Settlement School goods which were attractively displayed in the Gubernatorial Mansion of Idaho's Governor whose wife, Grace Edgington Jordan, is a Pi Beta Phi.

In December we sent a silver punch ladle to the active chapter for Christmas and had the active girls from Southern Idaho as our guests at our annual Christmas luncheon.

Mary Mooney, Lambda Province Vice-President, visited us in January. We were inspired by her visit and enjoyed a friendly fireside with her at the home of Mary Dunbar Raber where she was a guest.

Founders' Day was celebrated with our annual dinner and bridge party.

Our last meeting will be held in June when we again look forward to meeting the Boise actives who have returned from school and who meet with us to discuss rushing for the summer and fall seasons.

MAXINE ROBERTS BRIGGS

BOZEMAN

The Bozeman Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Frances Kyle Napton. Theresa Long was elected president. Betty Lyons Wolcott gave a report on plans for rush week and committees were appointed to assist the active chapter with their parties.

The October meeting was a cooky-shine in honor of the pledges and house mother. Marcella Clark, pledge director, introduced guests and alumnae. Eve Hathorn Lovelace gave a brief history of the local group which in 1921 became Montana A of Pi Beta Phi.

Chapter Loyalty Day was the theme of the January meeting held at the home of Betty Eagle. Each graduate named Pi Beta Phi members of her class and told what they were doing. Pictures and college annuals helped make this a most interesting meeting.

The Bozeman club had the pleasure of entertaining Mary Bowlen Mooney, Lambda Province Vice-President, at a tea. Her visit was one of the highlights of the year.

In February, seniors and house mother were guests of the alumnae club, a buffet supper was served at the home of Lucille Monforton Lowry.

Officers were elected and immediate plans for the Easter Arrow Craft sale were discussed at the March meeting which was held at the home of Elva Ayler Cowan.

Active and alumnae groups joined in celebrating Founders' Day at a luncheon at the Bozeman Hotel. The Betty Atwater Biehl award, a diamond Pi Beta Phi pin, was presented to the most outstanding student.

At the last meeting of the year the Settlement School film was shown at the home of Audry Michaels Lovelace.

FRANCES KYLE NAPTON

CALGARY, ALBERTA

The Calgary Alumnae Club held its first meeting at Ruth Gorman's home. Plans for fall rushing were discussed and the club entertained two pledges. A Panhellenic group was formed for the first time in Calgary. A second September meeting was called, as our province vice-president, Mary Mooney, visited us and spoke on her visit last summer to Settlement School. She also showed us the Settlement School films.

At the October meeting Mary Morley told of some of her experiences on tour in England and Europe last summer.

We were pleased to see the films of Holt House in November. We decided this year to give as our Christmas gift to the Maud Riley Home for Children sleighs, toboggans, wagons and Kiddy Kars, and these with stockings for all the children were put under the Christmas tree at the Home.

Our Christmas tea, to which we invited Calgary's pledges and actives home for the holidays, was held at the Coste House.

A very successful rummage sale was held on March 15. This was our major money raising project for the year.

Since the Jasper Convention in 1950 the Canadian Pi Beta Phis have been discussing the feasibility of starting a Pi Beta Phi project in Canada comparable to the Settlement School in the United States. Several suggestions have been made and it is hoped we will have some definite proposals to mention at the Houston convention in July to which we are sending two delegates. Help for the maintenance of Indian craft work has been one suggestion and at the March meeting a speaker stressed the urgent need for such support from some group. Election of officers for the next year was also held at the March meeting.

A delightful social evening of games and fun was enjoyed in April.

The last meeting of the year was also the Founders' Day celebration. This year we met at the home of Neno Hayes, our past president. The "Banquet" was a Campfire Supper and much relished by all.

ISABEL MACGREGOR MORRISON

COOS COUNTY

Our September meeting found the Coos County Club busy again with plans for our Settlement School Sales and Teas. In view of the fact that our small group is scattered over an area covering about fifty miles, we find it necessary to hold two teas each fall. One is held in Coquille and one is held in Coos Bay, all the members participating in both functions. This year, instead of holding the teas in private homes, we decided to use the multi-purpose rooms in our new public schools. We felt that in doing this we would be better able to display the Settlement School merchandise and we would also be able to accommodate more guests. We were not able to better our fine record of last year, however. Our total sales for the two teas was $1,326.

Our Christmas meeting was one we shall not soon forget. Due to the bad storms we had had, telephone lines had been down, and slides had kept the highway closed for three days prior to our meeting. However, the roads were cleared just as we approached the slide area. Our hostess had given up any idea that the Coos Bay Alumnae would risk the journey to Coquille, but she rose to the occasion beautifully, called the other Coquille members and we all had a fine time. Our return trip was delayed for three and a half hours, as we venturesome ones waited in the car while crews once again cleared the area of the slide. We were told later that ours was the very last car to get through that night! We are truly pioneers!

In January we had our first visit from our province vice-president, Mary Mooney. We met with her for dinner the day she arrived, later gathering at the home of Myrtle Williams, where we enjoyed hearing about last year's Convention at Jasper Park. We felt we really had a splendid inside view of this particular Convention, as our guest of honor had been guide. We also enjoyed hearing her tell us about Holt House, and the Settlement School activities.

ELINOR FEGLES CHANDLER

EDMONTON, ALBERTA

The Edmonton Alumnae Club held its September meeting at the home of Mary Mooney, Lambda Province Vice-President. Plans were made for a Rummage Sale, and it was decided to hold a white elephant raffle at meetings throughout the winter.

At the October meeting, held at the Chapter House, Betty Lefroy's Rummage Sale report showed a net profit of one hundred twenty dollars. Discussion took place concerning choice of a charitable project for the club. The highlight of the evening was a talk by Professor Henry Kreisel of the English department of the University of Alberta.

The special feature of the November meeting, held at the home of Ruth Bate, was the official visit of the province vice-president, Mary Mooney, who outlined the origin and purpose of the various funds in the Fraternity, and gave a history of Holt House. From a list of suggestions furnished by the local Council of Social Agencies, it was decided to aid the Salvation Army Home for elderly women. At Christmas the club donated twelve chenille bedspreads purchased at a cost of over sixty dollars.

In December, the traditional Christmas party was held at the home of Ruth Bowen.

At the January meeting the Edmonton Family Service Bureau acknowledged our forty-dollar Christmas donation in aid of a needy family. Three films from the University Department of Extension were shown.

Professor R. S. Eaton presented a program of Music at the February meeting.

In March, the club celebrated Founders' Day with the active chapter.

A Dessert Party was given by Helen Henderson for the April meeting, when election of officers took place.

ELIZABETH A. LILJE

EUGENE, OREGON

The "program" of the first meeting for the year held at the home of Frances Warren, consisted mainly of catching up on all the news after a summer's separation. All meetings began with a buffet supper at a member's home.

Pledges of the active chapter of the University of Oregon were entertained by the club at the home of Mary Ellen Williams. Another meeting with the actives was the chapter birthday party. Dinner and entertainment at the chapter house made a very enjoyable celebration.

November 14 was the date of the Settlement School sale and tea at the Eugene Hotel. Seniors in the active chapter and Pi Beta Phi mothers who helped with serving contributed toward a successful afternoon. A booth in the public market was rented early in December, and most of the articles left from the sale were sold then.

Instead of a Christmas gift exchange at the December meeting, held at the home of Delores Shepard, each person brought non-perishable foods to be distributed among local needy families.

Mary Bowlen Mooney, Lambda Province Vice-President, visited the club in January. Her account of Queen Elizabeth's visit to her home town of Edmonton, Alberta, was especially enjoyed. She was also entertained by the club at a no-host luncheon, and of course visited with the active chapter.

Helen Anderson Lewis, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training, visited the active chapter in February, and another no-host luncheon was given by the alumnae in her honor.

Elections were held in March at the home of Helen Ghent, and a white elephant sale helped add to the treasury.

In April, the club met at the home of Mildred Bartle, and later in the month the actives and alumnae celebrated Founders' Day together.

Graduating seniors in the active chapter were guests at the home of Evangeline Hurd in May.

DEBORAH LEWIS LARSON

EVERETT, WASHINGTON

The Everett Alumnae Club enjoyed a very successful year under the capable leadership of Sarah Schlademan Hall.

Beverly Pitman Smith, aided by her sister Sally Pitman, was hostess for the November gathering. The two sisters put on a hilarious rushing skit, complete with costume. Cake and coffee were served.

In December the Arrow Craft sale was held in a downtown business establishment. Adding the total sales to those made individually during the year we grossed $700. Much of the credit should go to Louise Wheelock Dobler who did most of the planning.

January saw an early meeting with the visit of Mary Mooney, province vice-president. A few of the members took her to dinner at the Everett Yacht Club and later joined the remainder of the group at the Lake Stevens home of Margorie Wood Williams. Other than Pi Beta Phi business, we were most interested in hearing Mrs. Mooney tell about the visit of the former Princess Elizabeth to British Columbia, in which she had an active part.

Grace McQueen was March Hostess and again we had an important guest in the personage of Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis, Grand Council member and director of Rushing and Pledge Training. We discussed some local problems of rushing with her.

Founders' Day was celebrated with dinner at Walhiems, a restaurant overlooking Puget Sound. Later the group enjoyed a film about Holt House.

An annual picnic will be held in June at the Lake Stevens summer home of our president Mrs. Hall. It will be an outdoor potluck and as is the custom, we will entertain the active members home for summer vacation.

JANICE PROCTOR KRAUSE

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

The Klamath Falls Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Sally Mueller Kent during the month of November.

The highlight of our year was the visit of Lambda Province Vice-President Mary Mooney in February. This was the occasion for a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Howard Barnhisel. Besides furnishing much interesting information about Pi Beta Phi and answering many questions, Mrs. Mooney entertained the club members with an account of her trips made in connection with visiting the various alumnae clubs during the rigorous Northwest winter. The group was also highly interested in hearing a first hand report of her meeting the then Princess Elizabeth.

For the previous two years that this club has been in existence, it has held its annual Settlement School sale and tea during the spring. However, as the last sale was not successful financially, it was decided to hold the 1952 tea shortly before Christmas. In discussing the reasons why the sale was not profitable, it was pointed out that during the spring there is always scheduled locally a series of money raising teas and bridge parties and the club might do better to hold its affair at a different time of the year. It was also felt that to have the tea in a private home would attract more people than having it in a public place such as the library social room, where it was given last year.

At the meeting held in March, election of officers for the coming year was held.

ELIZABETH ANDERSON SHANNON

MEDFORD, OREGON

The Medford Oregon Alumnae Club has had a very successful year. Founders' Day was celebrated with a covered dish dinner at the home of Beatrice Gaylord Merrick with twenty members in attendance.

In August we enjoyed having two of the active girls from Oregon Beta with us for a supper in the garden of Dorothy Eberhard Busch in Ashland.

In September we met at the home of our president, Marjorie Delzell Newbury to make plans for our Settlement School tea and sale. Betty Gerwick Miller's home was the setting for this most successful affair.

A complete report of our sale was given at our meeting in December at the home of Helen Rivolta Thierolf. The success of our sale and tea was due to the co-operation and untiring efforts of the members of our group.

Again this year we sent boxes of choice Comice pears to the three active Oregon chapters. This was done through the courtesy of Reter Fruit Company, by Peggy Reter Baker.

The visit from our province vice-president, Mary Bowlen Mooney, was most inspiring. Twenty-three members attended the dinner at the Rogue Valley Country Club which preceded the meeting at the home of Helen Simpson Jackson. We thoroughly enjoyed our visit with Mrs. Mooney. She gave a very informative and enthusiastic talk.

We have been most happy to welcome several new Pi Phi who have recently moved to Medford.

VIRGINIA SMITH WAIT

PORTLAND (OREGON)

In August the Portland Alumnae honored actives from Oregon A, B and F with a picnic and style show at the home of Harriet Ross Wright.

The annual cooky-shine was held in October at the home of Phoebe Smith Redding. Sue Goodwin Hopwood, our new president, outlined plans for the year. Also in October we entered the annual table setting contest sponsored by a local store. One of our artistic members, Fay Montgomery Frykman, won us a coveted prize of $100. Eleanor Eakin Chown was chairman of a Barn Dance held at Cedarville Park.

In November, Elva Prescott Williams, Arrow Craft Chairman, successfully handled the Settlement School tea and sale, held in the Parish Hall of the Grace Memorial Church.

Florence Knapp Sammons was hostess in her home for the Christmas Party. We had a delightful table decoration demonstration, and a raffle of door swags. The money taken in by the members was donated to a needy high school girl.

A highlight in January was a visit from Mary Bowlen Mooney, Lambda Province Vice-President.

Carrie Boultinghouse Miller was Chairman of the Valentine Bridge Luncheon, the money making project of the year.

The March meeting was held at the home of Gnan Goodsell Wheelock. Mr. George Root gave us a talk on European Interior Decoration.

The club celebrated Founders' Day with a breakfast so that younger members would be able to attend.

HELEN COZAD CLANCY

PULLMAN

An Open House Tea for the new pledges was held at the Washington B chapter house September 15. Alumnae furnished flowers, candles, corsages and cookies.

Anita Folger reviewed the fall rushing at the October meeting of the alumnae club, at the home of Barbara Butts. Peggy Ann Reid reported on the Constitution and quizzed members on questions from the fraternity exams for actives, at the November meeting at Maurine McLaughlin's home.

The Christmas party at the chapter house for the children of alumnae was the occasion for presenting a silver punch ladle to the active chapter from the alumnae club.

Despite January's inclement weather and snow drifted roads, Mary Bowlen Mody, province vice-president, arrived in Pullman to be the guest of honor at a buffet supper at the home of Lenna Deutsch. The meeting was well attended and members were delighted with Mrs. Mooney's first hand description of the recent visit of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh to Canada. Mrs. Mooney's father is the governor of Alberta and Mrs. Mooney acted as an official hostess when the royal couple arrived there. Members also participated in discussing Pi Beta Phi alumnae club aims with Mrs. Mooney, and felt that her friendliness brought them closer to Pi Beta Phi groups in both the United States and Canada.

Ruth Weisel held the traditional February Pot-Luck Supper at her home. Folk music was the theme of the Settlement School program in March with Lillian Aitkenhead as hostess, and Margaret Wheeler as chairman of the program.

The annual Smorgasbord for graduating seniors took place in April so that it might precede the usual rush of graduation activities in May.

ESTHER HEDGES ANDERSON

SALEM, OREGON

Discussion of the rummage sale was held at the October, 1951 meeting at the chapter house of Oregon Gamma. A total of $130 was taken in on this one-day sale. From the clothing on hand, a box of woolens was saved to send to Korea.

The death of Helene Willet Wallace, daughter-in-law of Nancy Black Wallace, prompted the club to send $25 in her name to the Settlement School memorial fund.

A Christmas check of $50 was given to each of the three Oregon chapters, which included Oregon A, B, and F. The December meeting was dispensed with so that a cooky-shine might be had with the girls from Oregon F at the chapter house.

Eleanor Dailey Clayton offered her home for the January, 1952 meeting, at which it was voted to give $35 to the Emma Harper Turner fund, $50 to Settlement School, and $15 to Holt House. Announcement was made of the Sunday night supper which was held at the home of Eugenia Brooks Smith when Mary Bowlen Mooney, Lambda Province Vice President, visited the club.

EVELYN JOHNSON

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

Under the leadership of our new president, Mrs. Joseph Sweeney, the Seattle Alumnae Club opened the year's activities in October with a buffet supper at the Pi Beta Phi house. It was in honor of the pledges, who later gave a style show depicting the proper clothing for various occasions.

In November Mrs. Raymond Allen opened her home for the Settlement School Sale and tea, which proved highly successful.

An evening Christmas party at the home of Mrs. W. F. Paddock brought out a large attendance. The beautiful Christmas decorations and a sale of homemade cookies by the junior group added interest to the occasion. Mrs. Frank Searing was in charge of refreshments served after the program, which included a humorous reading by our vice-president, Mrs. Theodore Perrin.

We were very fortunate in having Mary Mooney, province vice president, in Seattle in January, on the occasion of our birthday party for the chapter at the Pi Beta Phi house. After a delicious dinner arranged by Mrs. E. S. Cragin, the girls were presented with their birthday gift and Mrs. Mooney gave a very interesting talk about the visit of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh to Alberta. Later after the business meeting, she inspired us all with a talk on Pi Beta Phi matters.

On March 6 the club took over the Playhouse Theater which was presenting "The Dream and the Deed" as part of our Seattle Centennial celebration, the junior group joining with us in this project.

The banquet in April was held at the Sunset Club with Mrs. S. M. Mucklestone and Mrs. Raymond Seefeldt acting as co-chairmen.

The last meeting of the year will be the annual picnic for the seniors to be held the latter part of May, with Mrs. Dallas Donnan in charge. The new officers will be installed at this party.

EDNA SCHROEDER

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON

The Spokane Alumnae Club began its year at Booth Memorial Hospital, the Salvation Army Home for unmarried mothers. This has been our project, and it was especially interesting to tour the home. During the year, the club has contributed six woolen blankets, several magazine subscriptions, and Christmas gifts for each girl.

Three of this year's programs made use of the fine talent within the Pi Beta Phi ranks. Jessamine Brown Haines demonstrated block printing for Christmas cards at our October meeting, and left us all inspired to make our own. In March, Helen Sigurdson Ekeberg discussed home decorating, her profession. May brought a reading from Leone Webber, a well known member of the Spokane Civic Theater.

The annual Christmas party for Pi Beta Phi actives included the mothers of the girls in school. An attractive addition to the evening was a small wooden cradle into which we put our gifts for the girls at the Booth Memorial Hospital.

Of course, the ever reliable Rummage Sale in September, and a card party in April helped increase our treasury. Also very successful was the Settlement School Tea and Sale in November to which five hundred invitations were sent.

We have really come closer to Pi Beta Phi this year through the wonderful Holt House and Settlement School pictures, and through the thoroughly enjoyable visit of Mary Bowlen Mooney, province vice president, in January.

Our most thought provoking program was an address on Communism in Education by Albert Canwell, former chairman of the State Un-American Activities Committee. It alerted us to the increasing menace and challenged us to fight it.

ELIZABETH FRECH WEAVER

INEZ SMITH SOULE

TACOMA

A mild September evening, a large turnout, and a delicious picnic buffet supper at Dorothy Fisher Kirk's beautiful

Lake Steilacoom home proved an ideal atmosphere for making our plans for 1951-52. A flower arranging demonstration by Mrs. William Goering, president of the City Wide Garden Club, held the interest of the members in October, preceded by a business meeting. Virginia Jackson Woodworth opened her spacious Colonial home for the Settlement School tea and sale in November, giving an opportunity to accommodate a large crowd. Christmas was celebrated by the group with Dorothy Foxwell LeVeque giving her place for a party for the actives, who brought back precious memories of college days in a program and songs for the alumnae.

The January meeting, although held in blustery weather, brought our province vice president, Mary Bowlen Mooney, who was indeed the bright spot of the evening and an inspiration to the members by helping solve some of the current problems. A study of the Constitution and a skit by several of the group portraying the founding of "I. C. Sorosis" at Holt House brought many to the February meeting, including some out-of-town Pi Beta Phis. The March gathering was held at Lucille Burtner Thompson's with election of officers. Mrs. Warren Tomlinson, wife of Professor Tomlinson of the College of Puget Sound, gave a talk of "Contemporary Events" that was very informative. April, of course, brought the Founders' Day banquet. Having Myrta Soule Brown, our Historian, who is the daughter of the founder for which our group is named, we feel a special closeness to those women who gave us so much. Installation of officers took place in May, followed by a guest speaker.

LOIS BERGEY WING

VANCOUVER, B.C.

The October and November meetings of the Vancouver Alumnae Club saw our president, Doreen Fraser, welcoming several new members to our club which now has representatives from almost all Canadian Chapters. Our first meeting dealt mainly with general organization for the coming year and at our second, after a short business meeting, we were given an entertaining and informative talk on floral arrangements.

Our December meeting, held at the home of Orene Ross with Barbara James and Doreen Fraser assisting, took the form of a social evening. After a sale of home cooking, the proceeds of which were used to help in our work with pensioners, our hostesses served festive refreshments which added to the gaiety of our traditional Christmas party.

The highlight of our year was a buffet supper held in January at the home of Dr. Viola Rae and at which we entertained Mary Bowlen Mooney, province vice president. After a delicious supper served by Frances Walcott, Social Convener, and her committee, a brief business meeting was held. Mrs. Mooney then gave an informal talk touching on several interesting features of Pi Beta Phi activities.

The February and March meetings were held at the homes of Laurenda Daniells and Ruby Trill respectively. The most important item of business at these meetings was the discussion of a proposed project for Canadian Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Clubs.

Our Founders' Day Program, the installation of new officers at our meeting in May, as well as a social event to be held in June complete our plans for the year.

WENATCHEE, WASHINGTON

The Wenatchee Alumnae Club held its first meeting in August at the home of Ella Mae MacBride Crowl. This was a rushing meeting. The September and October meetings were held at the homes of Virginia Seyster Cain and Bettie Teyrell Perkins respectively. New members, Marguerite Taylor Shaeffer, Ohio A and Telete Richards Grotefeld of Washington University B were introduced.

Becky Allen Nicholson and Dorothy Jean Smith entertained at Becky's home in November. Sally Horan, Congressman Walt Horan's wife, was the honor guest and told us a little of her life in Washington, D.C.

Our Christmas party was held at the lovely new home of Jean Moir Wheeler. Games were played and Christmas gifts were exchanged.

Our Arrow Craft sale was held in November. Forty-nine dollars was our profit. Ella Mae Crowl is our Settlement School chairman.

The club entertained our province vice president, Mary Bowlen Mooney, at a buffet supper on Sunday evening, February 2 at the home of Frances Egan Pickins. Mary is a very charming person and a fluent speaker.

Zoa Bruns West and Gwyneth Sawyer Mitchell entertained the club at a dessert at the Cascadian Hotel in March. The program was Settlement School.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the lovely ranch home of Wardine Jesseph Fenton. Seven of our members were co-hostesses.

We are very proud of our two Golden Arrow members, Zoa Bruns West of Colorado A and Alice Pierre Sylvester of Michigan B.

GWYNETH MITCHELL

MU PROVINCE

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

Money has been Albuquerque Alumnae Club's theme for the year as the result of recent completion of a spacious new chapter house in the charming pueblo style which lends distinction on the University of New Mexico campus. The chapter had a most successful mid-semester rush and is delighted with its new home, although much furnishing must await additional funds.

The club owes much to its team of four who combined vision, determination and hard work in carrying major responsibility for the building program. They are Martha Miller Hopewell, Elizabeth Heitmuller Love, Mary Moulton Lovelace and Constance Connor Modrall. New Mexico Alpha's own Sally Schiefflin designed interiors.

A helpful visit from Marcella Rhodes, province vice president, marked the November meeting. The ΣX 's opened their new house for December's Settlement School sale. This, as always, was a success, due chiefly to the dedicated year-round effort of chairman and Golden Arrow member, Opal Stripes Pilcher.

A new method of raising money was found in distributing telephone directories. Another project was attendance at an entertaining program presented by Sears, Roebuck, which pays fifty dollars for an audience of guaranteed size. A rummage sale for Indians of a nearby pueblo and a benefit bridge and fashion show recently added to the treasury.

Albuquerque is fortunate in having an extremely active Mothers' Club which has undertaken a full share of the house furnishing load and works closely with alumnae. Few alumnae can make large personal gifts but almost every member has responded to a drive for pledges payable monthly.

Jane Julian, co-owner of a specialty shop, described intricacies of fashion buying at one meeting and also presented the benefit style show. In May Mary Lovelace shared with us her experiences in Scandinavia where she traveled last year.

RUTH WINN LEWIS

BAKERSFIELD, CALIFORNIA

With the organization of a City Panhellenic group in 1950 in Bakersfield, there were found to be about 35 Pi Phis in the area. As a result, Kay Petley Woods spearheaded the forming of an alumnae club which received its charter in November of 1951.

The first get acquainted meeting was held at the home of Nellie Shuttee Pickrel in October. The group voted to ask to be chartered as a regular alumnae club instead of existing as purely a social organization.

The highlight of the November luncheon was the presentation of the charter. The local paper carried quite a writeup and picture of Pi Beta Phi celebrating the event. Officers were elected at this meeting.

Chapter Loyalty Day in January featured an interesting series of reminiscences by Laura Kirby Robinson, Iowa A of her days at Iowa Wesleyan, as a pledge over 50 years ago. Guests were impressed when the speaker produced a picture of her pledge class and the menu of the banquet. Virginia Davidson Kiefer was hostess for the meeting, during which Joan Tanner Paynter won a prize as winner of a test on Pi Beta Phi constitution.

Pupils of the Peter Pan School for Mentally Handicapped Children had a delightful time at a Valentine Day Party brought to them by Pi Beta Phis. As a measure of their appreciation, the children put on a program of singing, square dancing, and yo yo tricks for the Pi Beta Phis who helped with their party.

Settlement School plans and discussion highlighted the March meeting in the home of Ann Fitzsimons Sacre. Founders' Day in April was celebrated by a luncheon downtown, and the year will wind up on May 5 with a meeting at which formal installation of new officers will be held.

JUNEMARIE DAVIDSON REYNOLDS

BERKELEY

The first meeting of the Berkeley alumnae group was held at the home of Barbara Rugg in Berkeley. The guest speaker for the evening was Marcella Rhodes, our province vice president. We all appreciated her helpful suggestions and enjoyed the privilege of meeting with her. The group felt more in touch with the national Fraternity after her inspiring talk.

FRESNO

The Fall Settlement Tea was held at the home of Sue Boot Johnson in Piedmont. This event was a financial as well as a social success. Due to the congested parking condition at the Berkeley Chapter House, meetings have been held at the homes of individual members.

The members of the alumnae club are sponsoring two war orphans through the "Save the Children Federation." Many appreciative letters have been received from our boys in Sicily and Greece.

A Fall Get-Together, held at the home of Connie Rocca, was enjoyed by the Berkeley Alumnae members and their families. In the afternoon everybody enjoyed swimming and the picnic that followed.

The chapter felt the need of an emergency scholarship fund to be available to the California B. A committee has been working throughout the year, now, such a fund is available. Any member of California B may apply to the scholarship committee and will receive its benefits provided that her requirements meet the established standards. The financial aid will be a gift and not a loan.

Among other things accomplished during the past year, a new mahogany desk was provided for the housemother at California B. Many Pi Beta Phi alumnae were seen at the Alta Bates Hospital on Panhellenic Blood Donation Day.

The initiation banquet was held on March 1 by the alumnae for the thirty new California B initiates. Many chapter members enjoyed the Panhellenic Fashion Show held on March 11 in San Francisco.

BARBARA BULLIS CLARK

CENTINELA VALLEY

The Centinela Valley Alumnae Club, now in its third year of existence, has progressed and developed in remarkable ways under the excellent guidance of president Rosalyn Smith Frudenberg. Each one of the thirty-two members has taken an active part in the club affairs, thus enriching her own II Φ relationships, and thereby strengthening the local club. At the March elections, a Convention delegate was chosen. Once a delegate has actually attended and voted in National Convention, and comes back to report to fellow alumnae, a really close bond between the local and the national organizations will have been effected.

It has become a custom to sponsor a Settlement School tea in November, inviting about a hundred guests who have bought very generously of the Arrow Craft goods. This party serves, too, as the principal ways and means project. The highlight of the Pi Beta Phi social season was the Christmas party for members, escorts, and husbands at the home of Jane Shields Lawson. The committee served dinner, and in addition, planned a whole evening of clever games appropriate to the season. As a grand climax, Santa Claus (Gertrude Verity Beard) arrived via the patio doorway, having abandoned the chimney as hopeless, bearing gifts for everyone. This year's program included a talk on "Decorating" by Hilda Blatz Greene, who served as president last year.

The eighty-fifth Founders' Day was appropriately celebrated at the Miramar Hotel with all the active chapters and alumnae clubs in the Los Angeles area participating. The speaker was Marian Keck Simmons, National Historian.

MARTHA LOWRY FARMER

At the March meeting Jane Friden, who is one of our members and is active in local politics, gave an enlightening talk on county politics.

MRS. DAN MARTIN

A visit from Mrs. Marcella Rhodes, our province vice-president, launched our fall activities with much enthusiasm. Our hostess for the afternoon meeting and tea in her honor was Doris Ludlow Wild.

Our Settlement School Tea in November, with Paula Hansen Andrews as Chairman, was most successful. The articles to be displayed were attractively arranged throughout several rooms of the home of Pauline Finnell Hansen. A new and popular feature of the tea this year was the sale of homemade cakes, pies, cookies and candy. The weather was kind to us, and the refreshments were served outdoors on the patio surrounding the pool.

Eva Clark Walker was hostess for the December meeting, called to lay plans for our annual Christmas Open House. All who attended this friendly holiday affair at the home of Tina Amick Baker brought gifts of food and clothing for an adopted Christmas family.

Loyalty Day was observed at an evening meeting at the home of Eleanor Watson MacMichael. In keeping with the interest in the polio drive of this season, Dr. Walter Rohlfing presented a film and lecture on the work being done at the General Hospital with polio patients.

A study of the Constitution, with emphasis on proposed changes to be presented at Convention, was made at the February meeting at the Fresno Art Center. The guest-speaker, Mr. John Ed Herbert, spoke to us of the aims of the Art League to further our interest in the group which we have adopted as one of our local projects.

Because of the early arrival of summer here, our season closed with the April Founders' Day Luncheon at the Country Club. A scroll of honor was presented to our beloved Jane Hare (Iowa A), who was initiated in October of 1887, and was a member of the original I. C. Sorosis group. At 92, she is still a proud and active Pi Beta Phi, with many delightful memories to share with us.

FRANCES GRAF REEG

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA

The Glendale Alumnae Club opened in September with a tea honoring the new members and the new graduates. A delightful afternoon was spent renewing old friendships and exchange of summer vacation highlights.

In October, speakers from the Glendale Office of Civil Defense and the American Red Cross gave informative talks of local effort being expended for defense.

At the November meeting Marcella Rhodes, our province vice-president was the honor guest. It was interesting and worthwhile to hear her review of the work done by other clubs. A display of Settlement School articles were shown.

At the Christmas meeting we brought gifts for the Crippled Children's Hospital. Final reports were made on the Rummage Sale, sales of Children's Records, and from the Theater Benefit. This money will be divided among the clubs clubs various philanthropies.

The group has wished to plan a Memorial for Louise Spaulding Malin, Iowa B. Louise was not only an invaluable member of our local group, but for years, was prominent on the National Music Committee. Outside of Pi Beta Phi many tributes have been given on her outstanding work with her students. The club voted to give a $250 scholarship to her former protegee, Jack Cameron, now a senior at Yale.

The February Valentine Party was thoroughly enjoyed. Margaret Admire Hall, an unusually talented member, gave us an original program, "Anything Can Happen."

In March we enjoyed our annual visit from members of the nearby active chapters. "Let's Know Our Fraternity" was the topic of the interesting panel discussion.

April gave us another opportunity to meet our neighboring Pi Beta Phis at the Founders' Day Luncheon held at the Miramar Hotel.

A clever Constitutional quiz provided the May program. The new officers were installed.

The cookie-shine will be the highlight of the June meeting, closing a busy and successful year under the leadership of Betty Aldrich Mallory.

MARY WILSON KORIAGIN

LONG BEACH

The Long Beach Alumnae Club's first social event of the fall season was the Panhellenic style show in September at the Lakewood Country Club. Each club was asked to donate candy, one door prize, and to serve the guests.

The October dinner meeting was a great inspiration to all as we were honored to have as the speaker our Mu Province Vice-President, Marcella Rhodes.

At the Christmas party, in December, as is our custom, each member brought gaily wrapped soft toys which were presented to the children at Seaside Hospital.

Three Golden Arrow members, Mrs. Mary Barnes, Kansas A, Mrs. Eva Hatfield, Iowa B, and Mrs. Edward White, Iowa Z, were present at the dinner and cooky-shine held in February. Our hostess, Mrs. H. P. Miller, showed a number of colored slides she had taken in Europe.

The annual rummage sale was held in March. This year the proceeds went toward our new philanthropy, aiding the Children's Memorial Hospital in Long Beach in hospitalization and medication for needy children.

The Founders' Day Luncheon was held at the Miramar in Santa Monica with the Los Angeles Alumnae Club.

MARGERY WESCHE BAKER

This benefit for the Crippled Children's Society was given jointly by the Los Angeles, San Fernando and Santa Monica Clubs. Pi Beta Phi Juniors and Actives greeted guests dressed in gay festival costumes. After luncheon, the fabulous fashions of Don Loper were presented. Gwen Dennis Boren and Olive Eames Latham, co-chairmen, aided by many active committees, all contributed toward making this one of the outstanding Benefit Luncheons given in Los Angeles.

The Juniors planned the March evening for the combined groups. Joe Copp, A.I.D., Designer and Decorator, proved an especially popular speaker.

Area Council, which planned the Founders' Day Luncheon in April, was most fortunate to present our National Historian, Marian Simmons, as speaker of the day.

The new traditional tea honoring daughter daughters of Pi Beta Phi was held in May. The June Picnic ends a year devoted to constructive service and enjoyable contacts.

BE BALDWIN CARMAN

MARIN COUNTY

The charming Corinthian Yacht Club, overlooking San Francisco Bay, was the setting for a dessert card party given by the members of the Marin County Alumnae Club. The proceeds of this party were used to furnish the waiting room on the children's floor of the new Marin General Hospital.

During the summer it was the privilege of our club to serve at one of the weekly luncheons given at the Marin Art and Garden Center. Proceeds from these luncheons are used to support the activities of this cultural center of Marin County.

In September new members were welcomed by a luncheon-swimming party at the lovely estate of Roberta Mitchell Wright.

Polly Hunt Bell was hostess for the Christmas party in December, when white elephant gifts were exchanged and old clothes were collected for the Turnabout Shop.

In January the members and husbands enjoyed a dinner-dance at the Pink Horse Ranch in Los Altos. We even made money on this event.

The February meeting was held at Beth Schaaf Davenport's home where we heard Mrs. E. P. Hunt, Polly Bell's mother speak on "Flowers in the garden all year around."

Election of officers was held in March and our largest project, a Luncheon-Fashion Show was held at the Pioneer Inn in Woodside. This event enriched our Scholarship Fund and that of our Korean War Orphan, under the auspices of the Save a Child Federation.

A special Founders' Day program took place in April. A joint board meeting and luncheon was held in May at the home of our president, Carol Rorick Hird, where plans were made for the closing event of the year, the barbecue for members and their husbands, at the La Honda cabin of Edyth Allen Manning.

ELIZABETH FRIESELL WILLIAMS

In June Eva McClatchie Long has again generously opened her home for our husbands party and barbecue.

JANE KING FRIEDLINE

PHOENIX

The 1951-52 agenda was especially interesting and included the following meetings: Our opening meeting, a cooky-shine, was brought to order by our president Sylvia Smith, and the chief topic of discussion was which local charity to help support for the year. SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco Pi Beta Phis held their first fall meeting in October at the home of Zora Sweeney. Marcella McCormick Rhodes, province vice-president, gave a most interesting report on Convention after which plans were discussed and formulated for a "Gift Parade and Tea" to benefit the San Francisco Youth Guidance Center, our local philanthropy.

After the November business meeting, held at the home of Margaret Walsh, the evening was devoted to working on hand-made Christmas ornaments and gifts to be sold along with Settlement School goods at the benefit tea. These ornaments included Christmas stockings, decorative table trees, angels and wreaths. The tea was held on December 8 and we were all highly pleased with both its social and financial success. For this, special mention should go to Mavis Mahan under whose able chairmanship the event was sponsored. The proceeds were presented to the Youth Guidance Center for the purchase of a piano which enabled the children at the Center to enjoy Christmas music and caroling during the Holiday Season.

The members once again enjoyed the hospitality of Virginia Gibbons at the annual Christmas party held in December. Christmas stockings for the children at the Center were filled.

Our Christmas party at the home of Ruth Wood brought forth our traditional "white elephant" gifts. Each member brings a comical "white elephant." The gifts are beautifully wrapped, but the contents belie the wrappings. If the article is wearable, the recipient must don it. The results are riotous.

We have made our donations to Holt House, the Emma Harper Turner Fund, and the Settlement School Fund; and have sent a small donation to Nevada A, the active chapter which is sponsored by our club.

Two of our members meet bimonthly with members of other Pi Beta Phi alumnae clubs in the San Francisco Bay Area. We also belong to and help support the City Panhellenic in San Jose.

With our added finances this year we will offer a $100 scholarship to a San Mateo Junior College girl. Our local project of giving a record a month to the Children's Ward of Mills Memorial Hospital is being continued. By the end of the year we plan to buy a new phonograph for the Children's Ward too.

Patrick Henry's Choice

In 1775, an American patriot stood before his neighbors in a small church in Virginia and challenged the tyranny of government—his own government—in a ringing statement on liberty and death.

While I subscribe wholeheartedly to Patrick Henry's choice of death in lieu of slavery to government, I would like to call your attention to another thought in the same sentence wherein he defied government encroachment upon the natural rights of man. Here are the familiar words with which he concluded that memorable address: "I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"

It is important to note that Patrick Henry did not say that he wanted a law to force everyone else to do as he wished. Nor was he trying to stampede a mob into following him. When he said, "I know not what course others may take," he was stating the very essence of liberty; for he was respecting the right of each person to be free to follow the dictates of his own conscience. And when he added, "but as for me," he was declaring for himself the same freedom of choice that he acknowledged for all others. Thus, having indicated that everyone should be free to decide for himself, he announced his own decision: "Give me liberty or give me death." And let us remember that when he spoke of liberty, he meant freedom from the injustices imposed by his own legally constituted government which he had previously supported.

This philosophy of Patrick Henry—his belief that individual liberty is more sacred than life itself—seems to be forgotten in America today. Now our leaders seem to direct their energies primarily to acquiring power over their fellow-men through government office. And once such political power has been obtained, the possessors of it seem to say to the rest of us: "We do not know what course you would follow if government were to leave you free to pursue it, but we strongly suspect that you would act in ignorance of your own best interests. Therefore, we will take no chances—we will pass a law that will force you to follow the course that we have decided is best for you. But as for us—give us more power to impose controls, rules, and regulations upon you for your benefit, and for our glory."

That philosophy is a far cry from the ideas that prevailed when Americans were demanding freedom from governmental dictation over their daily lives and business. And I believe that if we do not return to our original concept of a government of strictly limited functions, freedom in America will eventually be as dead as it now is in Russia and other totalitarian countries.

From Bulletin of the NPC Committee on Education

"Education is seen as the basic defense" of America in the new policy statement, published jointly in February by the Educational Policies Commission and the American Council on Education. The report lists the four objectives "for a system of education which is to play its part in the long-range national security program" as:

1. The personal development and growth of the individual.
2. The improvement of human relations in the family and in the wider social environment.
3. The development of economic efficiency in the creation of goods and services.

4. The preservation and extension of democratic values, the quickening of the social conscience and the encouragement of responsible citizenship."

The Commission wants first priority to be given to the elementary school, saying: "Despite the general recognition that much of the individual's subsequent development and health are determined by his childhood experiences, there is still in some places a misguided tendency to think of elementary schools as the least important of our educational institutions."
