EDITORIALS

*"So once in every year we throng
Upon a day apart,
To praise the Lord with feast and song
In thankfulness of heart."*

The First Thanksgiving by Arthur Guiterman

"Let none of us fail to be thankful that we are Americans with a birthright of Freedom . . . a freedom which gives us the privilege of choosing our friends; a freedom which makes possible an organization such as Pi Beta Phi."

Thanksgiving will be past before this reaches subscribers, but we liked this closing paragraph in Marianne Wild's Province Presidents' letter for October.

CONVENTION

We present in this issue the first story of what you may expect at Miami when you come to Convention 1954. The setting is one of unexcelled beauty, the Roney Plaza, a hotel with long experience in handling such great meetings as ours; the Guide and her committee more than competent. The week of July 7 should hold both constructive work and lots of fun. Plan now to come! For the southeastern section of the Fraternity here is an opportunity to attend and share in great events.

TEXAS GAMMA

Read the fine story of the installation of the new chapter at Texas Tech, where we have acquired a chapter with a fine college background, one with a great future in the Southwest, and with a history of strength in the years of its existence as the local, Ko Shari. The ARROW extends a warm welcome to our new chapter, and to all the new Pi Phis, both active and alumnæ, who came with it. Their success is based on much hard work on the part of the new alumnæ club in Lubbock, who made the installation one to be long remembered by the Pi Phis who were lucky enough to attend.

PERENNIAL QUESTION

From many chapters have come reports of rushing success, with more still to be heard from. The chapters have worked hard, have taken the girls they want to add to their chapters; the alumnæ have done their full share in sending recommendations to chapters, and in helping at rush parties. With hundreds of girls recommended, there are of necessity many disappointed alumnæ because their recommended girls were not not pledged. Such disappointments must happen more frequently than ever under the present system of chapter limitations set up by Panhellenic. Upon chapters the pressure is terrific, their choice more difficult than ever. In the last analysis, it is the chapter who must make the choice, in many cases being allowed to take as few as 15 or 20 pledges out of the hundreds on the rush lists. From the alumnæ a high degree of good feeling is required. It is for us to accept disappointment in the right spirit—and above all, to continue our support of chapters everywhere.

EXTENSION

We spoke above of the quota or limitation of membership system now in use on many campuses. Its immediate result has been a decrease in the size of chapters in those colleges, with a corresponding inevitable increase in the number of girls who wish to be fraternity members, but cannot be included. As a result of this situation there has come a desire on the part of college authorities to have more chapters on their campuses in order to make for a happier student body, and all national groups are being besieged with excellent opportunities for expansion. Most gratifying is it to know that college presidents and deans are so strongly in favor of the fraternity system that they wish to see the number of their fraternities increased.

In such colleges new chapters of strong fraternities find warm welcome and willing hands to help in colonizing. Such a situation came to Pi Beta Phi at Penn State, one of the finest fraternity situations in the country, and by the time this ARROW comes out, the group there which has worked for a year under the name of the Aye Sees, will have been installed as Pennsylvania E of Pi Beta Phi.

The September ARROW announced that a colony was being established at Colorado A. & M. at Fort Collins, and as Pi Phi Gamma it is now in active existence with a fine record of 26 pledges after a most successful rushing season—and as we write, another colony is being planned, in a college long ago approved by Pi Beta Phi, one which has been waiting only for sufficient increased enrollment to warrant an added chapter. Now that time has come and Denison University at Granville, Ohio, a strong, traditional school of the highest possible type, will see our colony started the second semester.

Pi Beta Phi is honored in being invited to be represented on such strong campuses—and fortunate indeed in adding new members of the type that will come with these new chapters. With each one comes a widening of our influence, not only in the chapters themselves, but in the new alumnae clubs they bring with them, or as in the case at Fort Collins, the expansion of an already strong club. Truly the prophets of doom who a few years ago were foretelling the end of the fraternity system have been proved wrong, for these new chapters of ours are only a small proportion of a great country-wide expansion movement, an ever-increasing circle of fraternity members and friends of members everywhere.

Our 99th Chapter

By Eloise Glazner Hensley, Oklahoma Beta

Note: A picture of the group appeared in the May ARROW.

→ THE GOLDEN ARROW of Pi Beta Phi has guided a new star to Texas! Ko Shari, local at Texas Technological College of Lubbock, Texas, became the 99th chapter of Pi Beta Phi, April 25, 1952.

Marianne Reid Wild, grand president, conducted the pledging, initiation and installation ceremonies, assisted by Alice Weber Mansfield, grand vice-president, Olivia Smith Moore, grand treasurer, Myldred Allen Hightower, Kappa Province President, Ila Pearce Graham, Kappa Province vice-president and the local alumnae, and with the diligent assistance of actives from Oklahoma Alpha, Texas Alpha, and Texas Beta.

In June of 1951 the Board of Directors of the College gave permission for local clubs to petition national fraternities. Interest and excitement ran high during the summer vacation but it was not until the Fall semester began that the college officials presented a formal program for petitioning. It was easy to see the similarity of high standards and ideals of Pi Phi and Ko Shari and we Pi Phis of West Texas welcomed the good news, along with every Ko Shari, when word was received their petition had been accepted. Local groups at Texas Tech have been unusually strong and well qualified for national affiliation since Mrs. Margaret Twyman, a Pi Phi, was Dean of Women in 1950-51.

Ko Shari began in 1932 under the supervision of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Holden. Since both were students of Pueblo Indian culture and dedicated to the history of the Southwest, the background of the club was based on Southwestern Indian lore. Ko Shari had an exceptional background of tradition and loyalty.

The creed and ceremony of the club was a

Texas Technological College

Texas Technological College is a state-supported co-educational institution. It is located in Lubbock, in the South Plains area, a city of 100,000 population.

Texas Technological College was established by an act of the Legislature of the State of Texas in 1923. The first buildings were erected and opened to students on September 30, 1925. The government of the college is vested in a board of nine directors appointed by the Governor and approved by the state senate for terms of six years. The immediate regulations and direction of academic affairs are delegated by the Board of Directors to the President, Administrative officers and faculty.

Texas Tech is recognized by all major accrediting agencies including the Association of Texas Colleges, Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of Universities and the American Association of University Women. It has five undergraduate and graduate divisions with expanding fields in Arts and Sciences, Agriculture, Business Administration, Engineering and Home Economics. It offers degrees in Doctor of Philosophy and Doctor of Education.

A lot of hard work has gone into making the campus an attractive place. The campus is permanently planned with a definite system of driveways, parking lots, lawns and landscaping. The spacious area of 320 acres with another 1,688 acres which comprise farm lands, affords plenty of room for beauty. All buildings are done in the Spanish Renaissance motif. Its $5,000,000 construction program just completed includes a new fully-equipped music building, journalism building, student union and science building. The textile engineering department is so fully equipped that a West Texas youth may see the wool and cotton from his own ranch or farm processed into a shirt or dress of his choice color. This, with the five men's dormitories and the three women's dormitories which accommodate 2,720 students, and with an enrollment of 4,900 students, removes the classification of "Baby school of the Southwest" from her name. Of course she is still just 27 years old.

FOUR PI PHI PRESIDENTS at Texas Gamma Installation were Sally Radebaugh, Ko Shari president; Mrs. Wild; Mrs. Womble, local alumnae president; Mrs. Hightower.

composite of ideas taken from the concepts of the Pueblo and Navajo Indians. Each year the club has gone as a group to Santa Fe, New Mexico, at Easter Time, climaxing the five day trip with initiation in an Indian kiva near Glorieta, New Mexico, Easter Night. Ko Shari has had a well-rounded club program of social and philanthropic activities, leadership in activities on the campus and a high scholarship standard. Each year the club has contributed financially to the Southwest Collection of literature and artifacts at Texas Technological College, worked in all drives for community projects, given Christmas parties for Milam's Orphanage and taken the lead in aiding the college in its programs. The year 1951-52 Ko Shari won all trophies offered by the Women's Inter-Club activities.

Excitement was as expansive as the great plains area for three weeks, as the City of Lubbock was practically turned into a Greek world. First came installation of Kappa Kappa Gamma, then Zeta Tau Alpha and all in one week-end, Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Delta Delta Delta.

Pi Phi ceremonies were held in St. John's Methodist Chapel, just across the street from the campus. Pledging took place Thursday, April 23, followed by the reading of the Constitution by Mrs. Hightower and Mrs. Graham. An experience of Pi Phi fellowship permeated the Lubbock Women's Club that night when the new pledges were introduced to a cooky-shine. Mrs. Mansfield told many interesting things about Holt House and Mrs. Moore followed with wonderful information and stories of the Settlement School. Of course there was joyous singing.

No one could enjoy a more impressive and beautiful experience than those initiated by Mrs. Wild, during the two days following. Every Pi Phi, both new and old, will hold that cherished memory in her heart as long as she may live, for it cannot be described with words, and she can never forget the Installation ceremony which followed.

The Skyline Dining Room was the setting for the formal installation banquet Saturday evening, with approximately 200 visiting and local Pi Phis present, including alumnae from near-by cities and representatives from active chapters. Theme for the dinner was, "The Pi Phi Arrow Points to a New Star in Texas." The entire ceiling of the dining room was a universe of mobile stars of various sizes. An inspirational talk was given by Mrs. Wild, our guiding star of Pi Beta Phi, representing the high ideals and traditions of the Fraternity. Other shining Pi Phi stars were represented by Merthel Womble, president of Lubbock Alumnae Club, Kay Looper, president of Ko Shari Alumnae Club, Sally Radebaugh, Texas Gamma president, Jenny Boberg, Texas Alpha, Sally Carrol, Texas Beta and Joanne Kelly, Oklahoma Alpha. Hundreds of letters and telegrams were received from Pi Phi chapters and alumnae clubs throughout the United States and Canada and many were read at the banquet. Each new initiate of the active chapter was presented a bracelet, a gift from chapters of Kappa Province. An especially appropriate and beautiful poem, written by Texas Alpha, was read by their representative. Since Founders' Day was only 3 days away there could not be a more fitting tribute to their memory than the installation of a fine, new chapter. With Mrs. Mansfield narrating the twelve candles were lighted by Mrs. James Spears of the Lubbock Alumnae Club and Harriet Henderson, Texas Gamma. As a finale to a memorable evening, the entire group sang the "Loving Cup" song.

Sunday morning newly-initiated Pi Phis gathered for their first chapter meeting, which followed the installation of the new officers by Mrs. Wild. The Pi Phis then attended St. John's Methodist Church in a group. In the afternoon a formal reception was held in beautiful Drane Hall where approximately 800 friends, relatives and faculty members greeted the newly initiated Pi Phis.

Every member of the Lubbock Alumnae Club had an especially important part in the success of the installation of Texas Gamma. The cooperation and assistance of the many alumnae clubs of Kappa Province was unsurpassed. It was a special pleasure to have the association and assistance of Francis Rosser Brown, former National Historian of Muskogee, Oklahoma, her sister, Louise Rosser Brown, former Province Officer of El Paso, Texas and Lucille Glazner Matkin, hospitality chairman of the Houston convention, of Houston, Texas. Truly they all exemplified real Pi Phi fellowship and love.

The State Department of Education of New York recently issued a statement calling for moral and spiritual training in the schools. The statement said, in part: "We believe that at the commencement of each school day the act of Allegiance to the Flag might well be joined with this act of reverence to God: 'Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, and we beg Thy blessings upon us, our parents, our teachers and our Country.'—We believe that thus the school will fulfill its high function of supplementing the training of the home, ever intensifying in the child that love for God, for parents and for home which is the mark of true character training and the sure guarantee of a country's welfare."

Reid Cartoon Collection

→ AN INTERESTING event at the University of Kansas at the time of the celebration of the 80th anniversary of the founding of Kansas Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi, was the presentation of outstanding cartoons from the collection of the noted artist Albert Reid of New York. The presentation was made by Mr. Reid's daughter, Marianne Reid Wild, Kansas Alpha, now Grand President of Pi Beta Phi, who was guest of honor of the chapter at the event. The gift adds to the original collection present-day original cartoons by noted cartoonists, such as the Berrymans of the Washington Star, and Herbert Block of the Washington Post. We quote from the Kansas City Star:

"Supplementing his initial gift of eighty pieces, 80-year-old Reid through the years has kept a constant flow of art and literary memorabilia moving to the university, where he was a student in the 1890s.

"An exhibit of a part of the Reid collection, which contains more than 120 items, was arranged in the Museum of Art at K.U. in connection with Mrs. Wild's visit, Dr. Murphy said. Because of its value and the lack of proper display space, the collection has been kept stored through the years, except for occasional exhibits. However, with the completion of the new journalism building, plans are under way to give the collection a prominent place in the William Allen White reading room, according to Dr. Murphy.

Marianne Reid Wild

"The items will be stored in a vault off the reading room in the journalism building and a series of rotating exhibits, beginning next fall, is scheduled.

"Oil paintings and valuable literary treasures are included in the Reid group. Especially dear to K.U. sons and daughters is the original manuscript of 'Each in His Own Tongue,' by the late William Herbert Carruth, formerly vice-chancellor and head of the German department at the university. He died in 1924. The manuscript was inscribed and dedicated to Reid by Carruth. When Reid presented it to the university, he described it as 'my priceless possession.'

"A beautiful double page drawing made by Charles Dana Gibson for the old Life magazine; a magazine cover in oil by Herbert M. Stoops used by Collier's magazine during World War I; and drawings by Norman Rockwell, Bud Fisher, Rube Goldberg, George McManus, J. N. Darling, Fred Opper, Clare Briggs and John F. McCutcheon are included. Many other outstanding illustrators are represented covering years from 1880 to the present.

"The Reid collection is probably one of the most complete collections of original drawings of American cartoonists and magazine illustrators to be found anywhere. It represents Mr. Reid's lifetime collecting. He knew all these great figures and many drawings are inscribed to him.

"A book entitled Colour, autographed on the inside cover 'J. M. W. Turner, the gift of Lady Murray, 1850,' is a literary curio from a Scotch kinsman which Reid has passed along to the university. Reid said that the Brooklyn Museum had attempted to buy this volume.

"Born in Concordia, Kan., Reid long was an artist and cartoonist in Topeka. His first assignment for the Kansas City Star was a sketch of the first underground telephone cable here. Later he made drawings at the Democratic convention which nominated William Jennings Bryan for the presidency. He also translated blueprints into drawings for William Rockhill Nelson when Oak Hall, Nelson's home, was being built on the present site of the Nelson Gallery of Art and Atkins Museum. Murals done by Reid are in postoffices at Sabetha and Olathe, Kansas.

"He once was on the staff of James Gordon Bennett's New York Herald. His drawings appeared in various magazines. He has been prominent in the American Artists Professional league."

A PI PHI at the Coronation

Mary Bowlen Mooney, Alberta A, Lambda Province Vice President, is the daughter of the Vice Premier of the Province of Alberta

MY DEAR PI PHIS:

After I returned from my trip to the Coronation, Adèle Alford wrote and asked me if I would tell all of you something about my trip. This I am delighted to do and thought that you might be interested in hearing about the Garden Party at Buckingham Palace and how I spent Coronation day.

I was so happy that the twenty-eighth of May was a lovely bright sunny day, this was the day on which I was going to the garden party at the palace. I had been invited before I left Canada so I went prepared with a white afternoon dress, a little white hat and white shoes so the day was perfect for the outfit. It was very exciting being called for in a chauffeured car with the big yellow sticker giving us the right to go down the Mall to the palace. Crowds lined the streets watching the people who were fortunate enough to have been invited. We drove slowly and it was fascinating seeing all the people in the other cars, all beautifully dressed, on their way there too. We went in through the main gates of the palace, in the front door, and we wandered around through some of the impressive high ceilinged rooms with the beautiful paintings, lovely carpets, interesting cabinets containing beautiful pieces of china, all truly wonderful to see. When we went out into the garden I felt so sorry that we were not allowed to take cameras, it was so colorful. Ladies dressed in smart gay afternoon dresses, gentlemen in grey toppers and cut away coats. The most fascinating people of course were those from lands foreign to us, the Sheiks with their flowing robes and interesting head dress; women in their graceful saris, hatless of course; an African king from the Gold Coast swathed in crimson silks with an attendant holding the huge sunshade of the same colors; Queen Salote of Tonga, gracious and very regal standing out with her great height. My big moment of course came when I was presented to the Queen who looked so pretty and lovely in a grey printed chiffon with the darlinest little pink hat and a mutation mink stole. (This was the second time I had been presented.) The Queen seemed so relaxed that I automatically felt relaxed and we chatted, she asked me if it was my first trip, I replied that it was, and we chatted about Canada, it was a memorable event. We also of course saw the Queen mother, with her lovely smile. I was very close to Princess Margaret and was most intrigued with the lovely large hat of pink organdy-like material that the very smart looking Duchess of Kent wore. The tea itself was very efficiently served, we sat at small tables, lovely china was used and a very substantial tea was served, which we all enjoyed.

MARY BOWLEN MOONEY, Alberta A, Lambda PVP, in gown worn at Coronation. "I wore a Canadian Squirrel stole also. My dress is pink satin, the bodice front and back is embroidered with gold sequins and pearls, and the little train is also. I love the dress!"

On the day preceding the Coronation we realized that only a miracle would make the following day a fine one and the miracle did not happen. I was called at five thirty and although it was not raining then, it had been raining and it was cold and grey, a leaden-fisted dawn. It was hard to get in the frame of mind to put on an evening dress and tiara at that time of day but I had the most interested and helpful maid who was really more excited than I was. Before I left for the Abbey at 6:45 A.M., I found a group of interested people in the hall to admire me and also envy me the privilege of being in the Abbey on that day. The people in the hall were the waiters who looked after us, the valet who had pressed my gown and liked it, the maids and the housekeeper, and a Mr. and Mrs. James from Toronto who heard that I was from Canada and were up in their dressing gowns to wish me a happy day, a nice send off, so far from home. The drive to the Abbey took an hour, ordinarily it would take ten minutes but of course there was a certain circuitous route to follow. The driver had been briefed on the route and knew which door I was to enter. I was ushered to my place very efficiently. My chair was a beautiful blue and gold one, and I am hoping to have it home very soon as we were allowed to claim the chair on which we sat for the historical event and, it will be one of my treasures. I had come prepared with a little package of sandwiches but from the moment I entered until I left I was so interested and thrilled that I never did open the package. At first it was like being at a large fashionable wedding, looking at everyone all beautifully gowned, nodding to ones friends and I found quite a number that I knew, some of whom had been on the boat with us. On our chairs were two books, one which we used until the actual ceremony began, from it we could follow the entering of the peers and peeresses, all looking so regal in their gorgeous robes, and carrying the coronets which were not put on until her Majesty was crowned, then all the clergy. We knew from our books who everyone was as they came in; it was magnificent, the colors, the richness of the velvet and ermine, the tiaras and the jewels! I was so very grateful and pleased that we had such wonderful places in the Abbey, we were right above the peeresses and looked right down on the Throne chair and directly at the Peers so that when the Royal family came in, Princess Margaret, Princess Royal, Duchess of Kent and all the immediate members of the Royal family who were to be in the Royal gallery, they stood directly opposite us and waited until the Queen Mother arrived. We had the most perfect view of them, the Queen Mother arrived and went up the stairs, the other members followed, it was lovely to see. When we heard the bells of the Abbey pealing we knew that the Queen and her procession were arriving, it was a thrilling moment. The Queen looked so beautiful and so young with her stunning gown, the bare arms and just the diadem on her head. I can't begin to describe the whole ceremony, but certain parts of it were so touching, when the Archbishop presented her to each side of the Abbey, the shouts of "God save Queen Elizabeth" rang out, I know that I cried out not only for myself but for everyone else I knew who was not privileged to be present, and the Queen, with the tables turned did a graceful little curtsy. I shall always remember the Queen's hands as she took the hands of each of the peers of the realm when they knelt to pay homage, her hands looked so small but so capable, and the expression on her face was grave, but not sad. I felt that she realized the great responsibility that was being placed on her, but one knew that duty would come before any personal preferences in her life. The music, with the trumpets, the magnificence of the whole scene I know is indelibly printed on my mind.

After the ceremony all the guests in the Abbey were invited to luncheon. When we received our invitations to the Abbey a card was inclosed stating that her Majesty invited us to lunch, ours was to be in Abbey Garden, and there were of course many locations. Had it been a nice day ours would have been the loviest spot of all as it was to have been in the lovely walled in garden of the Abbey, but Mother Nature changed all that and we were moved into one of the buildings of the School of the Abbey. It was rather damp getting there as we had to walk across the garden and it was raining. Inside it was gay and gracious, Lord and Lady Swinton were our hosts and we were served a most delicious luncheon, cream of tomato soup, a fish entree, chicken and rice, cold meats and salads, strawberry souffle and coffee. It was a sit down luncheon with place cards, white wine was served with the fish, champagne, and a liqueur with the coffee. I had a most interesting gentleman on one side of me, the Kabaka of Buganda, who had been educated in England and was most delightful company. It was an L shaped table and everyone was very gay and very friendly. After luncheon we went to call our cars, and this was very well arranged. We had a number, which was given to the attendant and the car almost instantly appeared, the driver of course had waited all this time! Going back to the hotel the traffic was very slow due to the immense crowds and some of the troops that had taken part in the procession were returning so that it was six o'clock before I got back to the hotel, a little damp but spirits high. I had to change immediately into a dinner gown as we had been invited to dinner at St. Stephen's club and to watch the fireworks across the Thames that night. St. Stephens club was very interesting; it is right across the street from the Houses of Parliament and is a Conservative members' club which was built by Disraeli. The fireworks were spectacular, and the streets below and across Westminster bridge were completely filled with people. Had I not been up on a balcony looking down I never could have imagined anything like it, thousands and thousands of people and we all remarked on how happy and gay the voices were as they reached us, not boisterous, just happy, singing and laughing with the rain, not bothering them a whit. It was after midnight when we left the club, and when we drove by Buckingham Palace, the crowds outside were unbelievable in their numbers. The Queen made several appearances and she must have been touched with the devotion and loyalty that were demonstrated that day, the cold and wet had meant nothing to the crowds, their beloved Queen was crowned and they were sharing in the joy of it. I did not get back to the hotel until about 2:30 A.M. and having been up very early I was tired and a bit cold, but my only feeling was that it had been a wonderful day. I wish that you all could have been with me.

With best wishes to you all,
MARY MOONEY

at one time or another. The dormitory was constructed in 1857, four years after the Ohio Wesleyan Female College was established in 1853. (The Female College was merged with the men's college in 1877.) The building was named Monnett after Mary Monnett, who as a student in 1857 contributed $10,000 toward completion of the dormitory. Today the name is synonymous with women at Wesleyan. The alumnae organizations throughout the country are so named, and the big week end for OWU women, combining May Day and Mother's Day, is known as Monnett Week End.

This year, as Ohio Wesleyan marks 100 years of women on its campus, the official celebration will be centered around Monnett Hall at Monnett Week End, May 8-10. Highlights of the Week End will include the presentation of an historical drama, "The Monnett Story," written by Edith Burford Kelly, former OWU Professor.

Ruth Jones Russell, New York A, and her husband have opened their home on the shore of Lake Superior to a select tourist clientele, for there are thousands of tourists in their section of the country. They had many guests. In a small conservatory in the house they have a cabinet filled with trophies won by Mr. Russell as a Blind Golfer (he was champion at one time and has been blind for about thirty years). Ruth would ask her guests if they would care to see the trophies, and in the room she has quite a large display of Arrowcraft products and would call their attention to various items. During the summer she sold goods totaling $150.

SOME NEW FIGURINES

NOTE: Information about these may be had by writing to Mrs. Albright at the address given below.

Mrs. Conrad Bluhm (May Henry), Colorado Δ, a Pi Phi Golden Arrow alumna and a charter member of Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club, and Joanne Golightly, President of the Alumnae Club Evening Group are shown participating in the Founders' Day candle lighting ceremony. The 8" tall, life-like figurines of the Founders were made by the club's member Mrs. Fred Albright (Anne Kline), New York Δ, 49 Parkview Terrace, Summit, New Jersey. Anne also made a figurine of Grand President Marianne Wild (right) and presented it to her at the Northern New Jersey Founders' Day luncheon at which Mrs. Wild was the guest of honor.

ISABELLE KEATING SAVELL, Daughter of Vermont, North River Press, 184 pp.

Among the biographies written for general interest it would be difficult to find one containing more Panhellenic feeling, in the broad as well as the specific sense, than in this inspiring story of Emily Eaton Hepburn, the motivating force for the construction of New York's Panhellenic House, now Beekman Tower Hotel.

Isabelle Keating Savell

From her New England beginning, through her undergraduate days at St. Lawrence University, where she matriculated in 1883 and became a Kappa Kappa Gamma, and thereafter through her long, distinguished, and still active life Mrs. Hepburn has demonstrated a drive, single-mindedness of purpose, and intelligence that should make today's young women grateful indeed. For example, it is partly to her credit that American women vote today, since she was one of those who worked closely with Pi Phi's own Carrie Chapman Catt.

Many can be thankful that she took seriously the injunction of her uncle Dorman Eaton, himself an ardent fighter for good government, who urged her, "Wherever you are, see to it that your part of the world is better because you are alive and there."

Mrs. Savell, a grandniece of A. Barton Hepburn, late husband of the book's subject, and a member of Colorado Alpha chapter of Pi Phi, has produced a book that is warm and entertaining as well as an important document of a significant life. More than a record of achievement, her book captures the personality of its subject and illuminates the reportorial aspects of the story with anecdote, often humorous.

Since Mr. Hepburn was a financier of national prominence and ultimately president of the Chase National Bank of New York, to his wife naturally fell a position of social prominence, but, as Mrs. Savell's story makes plain, Emily Hepburn's own initiative and questing intellect gave "social" in her case the widest human meaning.

She herself considers the realization of a fine home and meeting place for sorority women in the world's largest city her greatest accomplishment, but there are many other groups and organizations, among them her Alma Mater, who have benefited mightily from her effort and her generosity.

Indeed, she is a woman of whom her sex can be proud, and her story, dedicated by its author to "the college girls of our country," is one which can be read by them for pleasure, for pride, and for preparation of their own lives.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Isabelle Keating Savell, a University of Colorado Pi Phi, is a woman of no mean accomplishment herself. A newspaperwoman who achieved membership on the New York Herald Tribune staff, she has taught journalism at Sarah Lawrence College, written books, and contributed to such magazines as Harper's and The Nation. Currently she is a member of the Washington staff of Representative Harold C. Ostertag of New York, in charge of public relations and research, though her permanent residence with her husband and two sons is at Grand View, Nyack, New York.

MAUD HUNTLEY JENKS, her letters edited by CARMEN NELSON RICHARDS, Death Stalks

the Philippine Wilds, The Lund Press, Inc., 206 pp.

A pioneering spirit has moved more than one Pi Phi at a time when the feminine idol was indeed a cloistered one. Maud Huntley Jenks, who was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1898, together with her husband, Dr. Albert Ernest Jenks, embarked on her unique adventure in mid-1902.

At that time Dr. Jenks was appointed assistant chief and ethnologist of the new Bureau of Non-Christian Tribes, established by the Insular Civil Government of the Philippine Islands, and his bride, adamant against separation, went with him on his new assignment.

For nearly fifty years the letters through which she shared her myriad experiences, some of them unduplicated by any other white woman of that day, with her Wisconsin family, remained unread by others. Less than a year before her death in June, 1950, however, realizing that she would never do anything with them herself, she turned the letters over to a good friend, Carmen Richards.

Mrs. Richards copied and organized them for publication, and then with the help of Dr. Jenks, who himself had never read the letters until after his wife's death, they were put in their final, cohesive form.

The letters themselves show their author to have been remarkably perceptive and possessed of the even rarer ability to convey her impressions colorfully and interestingly to others. She was unstinting in presenting the details of life in the islands, a life so different from 1900 America as to be almost incredible.

The lapse of time between these experiences and their publication is no handicap to the reader. These letters are as interesting, revealing, and historically significant as they must have been when Mrs. Jenks' family eagerly tore the envelopes open for the first time.

LENORE SULLIVAN, What To Cook for Company, Iowa State College Press, 512 pp.

The cook who loves her job will have more reasons for doing so when she comes upon this book, and the one who usually finds it a chore will find reasons to take heart. This is a volume of fascinating recipes, many of them promising entirely new taste experiences, and it has a food for conversation bonus in the form anecdotes about many of the dishes.

Here are a few intriguing titles; Polenta with Creamed Chicken, Blueberry Slump, Fried Pies or Half Moons, Jeff Davis Pie, French Fried Tuna Salad Sandwiches, and Boofers (Pennsylvania Dutch Potato Fritters).

A professor of Institution Management at Iowa State College, the author has collected for this book over 900 recipes representing regional and international cookery of innumerable kinds. Many Miss Sullivan gathered in her own travels and others have been contributed by her students during the twenty-five years she has been in college work.

Here truly is a cookbook to be prized in any kitchen.

AUTHOR INTEREST: A Montana A Pi Phi, Lenore Sullivan is currently active in the American Dietetic Association, American Home Economics Association, ΦΥΟ, and the American Association of University Women, of which she is an officer.

LEWIS E. THEISS, With Young Bruce on the Indiana Frontier, W. A. Wilde Company, 347 pp.

From the cowboy and Indian enthusiast right on to the mature student of history this is a book for the entire family. The accuracy of Dr. Theiss' research is bound to make it a worthy supplement to history textbooks while its colorful narrative form will endear it to the reader who finds facts most palatable when they come as naturally to the page as they did in the course of the original events.

In selecting for his subject General John Sullivan's 1779 expedition against the Indians of the Six Nations the author has chosen a chapter from the American Revolution largely neglected by historians, many of whom preferred to deal with much less successful generals.

The importance of the campaign which destroyed just at harvest time nearly 200,000 bushels of corn and quantities of other foods, planted by the Iroquois Indians, but intended in large part for Tory troop consumption, is evident to anyone remembering that an "army travels on its stomach." This task was accomplished, a great Indian empire was destroyed for all time, and the Indians themselves were frightened beyond any significant future effectiveness as warriors, all at an incredibly small loss of American lives.

One other aspect of this story deserves special mention, and that is the fine description to be found of this wonderfully rich land of ours. These passages make one realize how great is the responsibility we have for continuing to make productive use of what is so naturally bountiful.

AUTHOR INTEREST: As his wife writes, "it would be difficult to find any man more closely connected to Pi Phi for more years," and that, of course, is why Dr. Theiss' book is included in this column. His first wife, Mary Bartel Theiss, was editor of the ARROW and grand secretary; his present wife, Anna Jackson Branson Theiss, was twice a province president, grand vice-president, circulation manager of the ARROW, and first treasurer of the Settlement School, and both his daughter, Mrs. Garner James, and stepdaughter, Mrs. Myron Boardman, are Pi Phis. Dr. Theiss, who has written over forty books, began writing on Charles A. Dana's New York Sun and eventually became professor of journalism at Bucknell University, from which he has recently retired.

RANDOM NOTES: In the last year JANE DAVIDSON, former Ohio Zeta president, has held a research fellowship at the Mellon Institute, Pittsburgh, and in the course of that produced a series of articles on "Virus Hunters" for the Pittsburgh Press. Her mother is Marie Bunnell Davidson (Mrs. P. B.), Montana A.

Settlement School is given a fine tribute by NORTH CALLAHAN in his new book, Smoky Mountain Country, one of the American Folkways series edited by Erskine Caldwell and published by Duell, Sloan & Pearce-Little, Brown. Mr. Callahan grew up in the area and thus speaks with authority when he says, "the sorority officials take a realistic approach and do not talk down to the local people." Three pages are devoted to the school alone.

JULIA ELLEN ROGERS, a fifty-year Pi Phi, Iowa Z, has recently had her work, The Shell Book, first published in 1908, reprinted by the Charles T. Branford Company, Boston. It's richly illustrated in color and half-tones, and is attracting readers among a new generation of nature lovers. She now plans a similar re-launching for her The Tree Book.

Two young Hunter College graduates have successfully established their own firm Caedmon Publishers, which the New York Herald Tribune says gives "literature a new third dimension." They are tape recording authors reading their own works and have found a ready market for their products. A recent Herald-Tribune photograph shows them recording with author KATHERINE ANNE PORTER, Maryland A, who had another book, Days Before, published last fall by Harecourt.

Edited by Louise Wheelock Dobler, Washington Beta

→ CEREMONIES dedicating the new Ruth Barrett Smith Staff House were held in Gatlinburg, on Tuesday, June 23rd, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Present for the service were members of Grand Council, the Settlement School Committee members, and Province Presidents and Vice-Presidents in session for their annual summer meeting. They were joined by resident Pi Phis and long-time local friends of the school who gathered at this newest of our Pi Phi buildings as Katie McIntosh, Alabama B, and bookkeeper and assistant to the manager at Arrowcraft, played soft music on the piano which was borrowed from the PTA for the vacation months.

Mrs. T. E. Smith of Atlanta, secretary of the Settlement School Committee, read an appropriate passage from the Bible, after which Mrs. Warren T. Smith of Brookings, Oregon, Chairman of the Committee, presented the key to the house to Miss Ruth Dyer, Director of the School and head resident, who expressed the pleasure and gratitude of the staff for such a lovely, much-needed home. Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers, the nurse in charge of our program at the Jennie Nicol Health Center, added the thanks of the other resident staff members when she sang, "Bless This House."

In accepting the home in the name of the Fraternity, our Grand President, Marianne Reid Wild, paid tribute to Ruth Barrett Smith for her years of loyalty and service to Pi Beta Phi, and formally declared that the house should be named in her honor. A closing prayer by Lucile Douglass Carson, Grand Secretary, invoking divine blessing and guidance on the house and its occupants, as well as the ideals which they represent was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison and singing of the Anthem. In the social hour which concluded the dedication, guests were conducted through the house and served a most-welcome iced punch.

Ruth Dean Barrett, the beloved Pi Phi for whom this house was named, was initiated into Iowa Gamma on June 6, 1909, where she was voted the most popular girl ever enrolled in school. On that same date in 1913, the year following her graduation and travel and study abroad, she was married to her college sweetheart, Warren T. Smith, who has always been a loyal and helpful Pi Phi husband. Today they live in Brookings, Oregon, with the blue Pacific in their front yard, and not too far from their son and daughter, Dick and Betty, who live with their families (including four favorite grandchildren) in Chehalis, Washington.

In Los Angeles where they established their first home, Ruth became active in the Alumnae

Ruth Barrett Smith, Iowa Gamma, retiring chairman, Settlement School Committee.

Club, serving as its president, and being instrumental in establishing the active chapter at U.C.L.A. Her interests through the years have not been limited to Pi Phi, for she was active in the work of Federated Club Women, served as a Gray Lady during the War years, and an always willing worker for Bond drives and Community Chest campaigns.

When the convention of 1929 met in Pasadena at the Huntington she was a co-worker for the Guide, and was elected assistant to the Grand Vice-President. In the Asbury Park Convention in 1931 she presided over an Alumnae Session in the absence of Katherine Burr Teller, Grand Vice-President, and at the same convention she was elected to succeed Mrs. Teller—an office which she efficiently and graciously held until the Swampscott Convention of 1946.

Following her retirement the Alumnae Department established the Ruth Barrett Smith Scholarship which is given each year in her honor, and in 1947 Grand Council named her to the chairmanship of the very important Settlement School Committee. Familiar with the school and its needs and problems since she first visited it in 1933, it was fitting for Ruth Smith's regime to begin and complete plans for the long-needed new staff house. In this endeavor Warren's help was invaluable, and he travelled with her to Gatlinburg to give advice and counsel.

New Staff House

Completed and occupied, though scantily furnished, in the fall of 1952, the house provides adequate and more convenient living quarters for our year-round resident staff, as well as the faculty members who teach at our Summer Workshops. It includes, on the ground floor, an entrance hall and coat closet; a spacious living room with fireplace; a dining room large enough for the workshop group, yet which can be made small enough for the regular family when the modernfold partition is installed to divide it; a convenient, airy, well-equipped kitchen; the bedroom-sitting room suite of the director, with a bath shared by the adjoining guest-bedroom; three other bedrooms; and a second bath. Upstairs are seven bedrooms, a sewing and pressing room, bath and shower rooms, and storage space.

Generous gifts from individuals, clubs, and chapters have provided many of the first essential furnishings, but many others are needed before the "house" is really a "home." Your gift to the Ruth Barrett Smith Staff House will make sure that through the years a beloved Pi Phi is "so well remembered."

WASHINGTON, D.C., CITY PANHELLENIC

Received at White House

French Students Honored

→ FOUR French girls attending American colleges were received at the White House by Mrs. Eisenhower on May 14. The girls came to Washington for a gay week-end as guests of the Washington City Panhellenic Association. Among other things they had luncheon at the Speaker's Dining Room at the Capitol, were interviewed on television, and saw the play "Arms and the Man" with escorts from George Washington University. The French girls were Paulette Renoe Ducatez, who is attending Sweet Briar College; Anita Kirgo, University of Delaware; Monique Simone Klein, Hollins College; and Madeleine Viard, Bucknell University.

Shortly after their arrival on Thursday, May 14, the girls and 250 members of the 25 sororities represented in the Washington Panhellenic Association were received at the White House at 12:50 P.M. by Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower. Following this, they had luncheon at the Capitol with Speaker of the House Joseph Martin, Congressman Arthur Younger, California and Congressman Laurie Battle, Alabama. A visit to the Senate was arranged through the courtesy of Senator J. Allen Frear, Jr., of Delaware. Thursday evening the girls were guests of the French Club of the University of Maryland, sponsored by Dr. Leonora Rosenfield.

Friday morning was spent in sightseeing the famous places in Washington, followed by a luncheon. The afternoon was very busy with a television appearance on Nancy Osgood's program at the Sheraton Hotel. At three P.M. they were met by Mme. Pierre Francfort, wife of the Counselor of the French Embassy, representing Mme. Bonnet, who escorted them through the embassy and drove them to Mount Vernon.

Friday evening the four girls were escorted by young men from George Washington University to see the production "Arms and the Man." On Saturday, May 16, the members of Panhellenic entertained them at luncheon at the Mayfair Restaurant, followed by another sightseeing tour of the embassies, Lincoln Memorial, Lee Mansion and Arlington Cemetery.

The entire expense of their trip to Washington was met by the Washington Panhellenic Association through funds received from a benefit tour of the French Embassy. The students will return to France this summer and the Washington Panhellenic felt that their American experiences will be enriched by a visit to our nation's Capital.

Pi Phi's in attendance: Mrs. William C. Dulin, Mrs. F. J. Horuff, Mrs. O. F. Kotick, Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, Mrs. William R. Lockhart, Miss Mary K. Lutz, Mrs. W. Kemp Menefee, Mrs. Thomas H. Miller, Mrs. Arthur E. Nesbitt, Mrs. George C. Ober, Jr., Mrs. Charles E. Pledger, Jr., Mrs. Reginald H. Pledger, Mrs. William E. Plummer, Mrs. Adrian M. Shields, Mrs. Nell Anderson Spruce, Mrs. C. ### Penn Help Week Provides 1,220 Man-Hours of Free Labor During 1952-1953

A campus wide fraternity "Help Week" program at the University of Pennsylvania provided 1,220 man-hours of free labor for community agencies during 1952-1953, a committee of the University's Interfraternity Council has reported to the Dean of Student Affairs. The report is given to members of the 19th Leadership School to show how Help Week has taken the place of Hell Week all over the country and is continuing to expand in program. The report read: "Harnessed for constructive service was a dynamo of student energy that might otherwise have been dissipated in the sort of hazing typical of old-fashioned 'Hell Week,' which is on its way out at Pennsylvania as on most campuses."

"America's PROM Queen"

Marjorie Hightower, Pi Beta Phi at Southern Methodist University, was chosen "America's Prom Queen" last June. She was winner in a field of eight regional finalists selected from hundreds of contestants who had been elected Prom Queens, or queens of similar campus social events, during the past school year.

The search for the nation's outstanding college Prom Queen was conducted by the Prom Home Permanent division of the Gillette Company. Judging was based on charm, poise, appearance, scholastic record, campus activities and artistic talents.

Marjorie was SMU Queen at the Texas Round-Up Prom last spring, and also at Texas U and Texas Wesleyan College. She was chosen by Candy Jones Conover in her '52 Cross Country College Beauty Search, and was a year-book beauty.

Marjorie Hightower, Pi Beta Phi from Southern Methodist University, was recently crowned "America's Prom Queen" in a nationwide contest to find America's outstanding college Prom Queen.

When Mary King (Mary Louise Burke, Colorado Alpha) was appointed by the Governor of California to serve on the Board of Trustees of the California Institution for Women, then located twelve miles from the town of Tehachapi, she approached the duties with a background of experience as a newspaper editorial writer and graduate study at the New York School of Social Work. Under the indeterminate sentence law, in California, the Board of Trustees has the responsibility of fixing sentences and granting parole to the women felons in the California women's prison, within the limitations of the law. Long, nerve-racking hours interviewing the women, studying their cases, the quality of the women, and indications of their rehabilitation or lack thereof led to considerable reflection on causes: economic, family background, education, lack of opportunity. After five years' service on the board which entailed several days a month at the institution, she retired from the board, her two young daughters having reached an age where it was important to spend more time at home.

Subsequently she was appointed to the Los Angeles County Probation Committee, an administrative committee the members of which are appointed by the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County, supervises the operation of Los Angeles County Juvenile Hall, the largest facility in the country for housing juvenile delinquents and dependent and neglected children. More than four thousand children a year are sheltered temporarily in Juvenile Hall, the wards of the Juvenile Court, while their cases are processed through the clinic, studied by a Probation officer and a beneficial plan worked out which the court must approve. As Chairman of the Probation Committee, Mary King is an ex officio member of the Los Angeles County Youth Committee which is made up of all public officials who deal with children. They meet once a month to discuss problems of and benefits for the youth of the county.

County community problems are reflected in the lives of the children who are brought into Juvenile Hall, says Mary King, and one connection like this entails an interest and concern in many other civic projects.

This is Francis Adams' first year and as the campaign gets underway it is obvious that she too is going to make our city sit up and take notice. This is an enormous job as the Women's Division solicits the entire residential area of Greater Oklahoma City. Director of Public Relations for the United Fund was Elveta Minter Hughes, Oklahoma A. Quoting from the article, "Bertha Knemeyer has demonstrated that high school students can find so much fun in mathematics that they'll voluntarily stay in after school with the subject. Their work—mostly intricate, brightly colored geometric designs of various sorts based on such math elements as regular polygons, conic sections, and quadratic equations—was exhibited at the conference of the Secondary Education Board in New York City last month, attended by 1400 delegates from its 350 member schools. The 'recreational mathematics' exhibit is now touring eastern schools."

For the Betterment of Children's Programs

Outstanding worker in the United States in an effort to improve the caliber of television and radio programs and comic books for children is Dorothy Sherd Allen, Washington Alpha. She started her work in Seattle when her husband Dr. Raymond B. Allen, was president of the University of Washington, working with a group called Seattle Junior Programs, and supervised several programs which a radio station invited her group to put on the air. Later on, in Washington, where Dr. Allen was temporary director of the Psychological Strategy Board, Mrs. Allen continued her work with much success. Now, she is working on the West Coast, where her husband is now Chancellor of UCLA.

Rhea McCarty, Ohio B, Theta Sigma Phi is a powerful salesman. Her product, of course, is the State of Ohio, "An Empire within an Empire."

Her title is much more involved than that—director of the Ohio Development and Publicity Commission—but her 24-hour day, which includes everything from releasing 1,340 copies per publicity story to luring new industries within state boundaries, can be boiled down very simply to selling Ohio. She is the only woman so occupied among the forty-eight states of the nation.

To graphically illustrate Ohio's attributes, Rhea's first big project as the State's publicity director was the publication of a book, "An Empire within an Empire," listing all the authoritative data her staff of seven could assemble. This Buckeye Baedeker has 214 pages, and exactly 107 are devoted to maps and graphs illustrating everything from Ohio's 1,000 acres of soybeans to its coal tonnage, distribution by seam.

Few people realize, says Rhea (and she is doing much to overcome this) that Ohio leads the world in the production of tile roofing, paint and varnish, coal shipping, laboratory research, playing cards, Bibles, refrigeration controls, garden hose, living room tables, welding equipment, processed sand and gravel, to say nothing of Liederkrantz cheese!

Once in Europe, she recalls, a tourist friend eyed a selection of fine Liederkrantz and said, "My, wouldn't it be a good idea to take some of this home to Ohio?"

"Why carry coals to Belmont County (Ohio is the heart of the nation's coal industry)?" she exclaimed, and illustrated her point by picking up a piece of the cheese and pointing out the label, "Made in Van Wert, Ohio."

WHEN YOU GO TO Holt House

By Marian Jones Tyte, Secretary of Holt House Committee

➤ DOWN a quiet street, not far from the town square in Monmouth, Illinois, you'll find Holt House.

We hope you see Holt House (for the first time, perhaps) in daylight. It is lovely, gracious, and warmly welcoming—this old house which, almost by happenstance, acquired a unique significance in the history of Pi Beta Phi. Members of Pi Beta Phi can be proud that wise heads among them looked far into the future, shrewdly assessed the opportunity to rescue an important bit of the past, and led the way for the Fraternity to reclaim and appropriately refurbish the house that some day may be referred to as Pi Beta Phi's ancestral home.

Today Holt House stands as a charmingly uncontrived memorial to the beginning of Pi Beta Phi, and to the girls who, for the organization meeting of the Fraternity, gathered there.

When you go to Holt House, we hope you'll slip upstairs—up those narrow, winding stairs—and walk down the hall to the front bedroom. This is the room where the girls met; and with half-closed eyes you can almost bring them back into this sun-dappled corner, almost see them as they sat on floor or bed or chair, their faces aglow, their hearts beating hard with the excitement of the moment.

Across the hall, in the Historical Room, you will see doll figurines that elaborate the Pi Phi story. Here replicas of the Founders in characteristic dress are glass-enclosed, a marvel of the skill which produced these doll creations.

You will see the Pine Room, a restful and informal lounge, to the right as you enter the house. As in most spacious houses, this one leads you easily to other areas. You may find yourself admiring the large dining room with its lovely aura of gracious living, or the prim little Victorian parlor opposite the Pine Room.

If you are practical-minded, you will want to step into the efficiently planned kitchen, and from the window take a look at the generous backyard and the new sidewalk (this last, a brain-child of the Committee). A powder room adjacent to the lounge and the dining room, a study upstairs, now used as an extra "wrap room" for guests, and the hostess' attractive apartment, also on the second floor, will just about complete your tour of the House. Unless, of course, you are interested in basements. Holt House has a very nice one.

What do you think of Holt House now—at the end of your journey and ready to return home? Is it, as someone has told you, just an old house in which the Fraternity has sunk a lot of money? Is it, as another blithe spirit has offered, a luxury which Pi Beta Phi can not afford?

There are, I believe, a number of sound reasons for Holt House but I will step around these for a minute while I attempt to answer the questions posed above.

First of all, I would like to say that since Holt House was old and needed some repairs, it did have to be renovated, and renovation takes money. But this part of Pi Beta Phi's investment is behind her. Because the house was wisely put into good shape when it needed repairs, it can now be kept in condition with a minimum of financial outlay.

As for Holt House's being a luxury—please, if you haven't already done so, read the Financial Report of the Holt House Treasurer in the September ARROW. In particular, the modest list of expenditures for maintenance and upkeep will show that it is an extremely efficient and well-run project, which, on an austere budget, represents the Fraternity admirably to a great many people—members and non-members. In addition, you will notice, it is partly self-sustaining.

For the exceptional blend of livability and economy which one finds in operation at Holt House, I think we can give much credit to Mrs. Johnson, the charming hostess. I, for one, am ready to take lessons from her in how to stretch a Pi Phi dollar!

In considering reasons for the existence of Holt House, I do not think we can overlook the fact that the preservation of the physical surroundings in which the Fraternity had its inception will always give authenticity to the story of its founding. Here is the house; here is the very room. Such authenticity in our national memorials of one kind and another has never failed to make its impression. And just as children thrill to the trip back to "Grandma's," because her home is the mother of all the other family homes, so, I believe, will those Pi Phis who visit Holt House feel a strong feeling of belongingness at the source of their Fraternity's beginnings.

There is something in knowing things through one's senses that has it all over reading about the same things in books. Just being in the same surroundings with the fading figures of those early Pi Phi girls heightens awareness, conveys a sense of continuity, and strengthens the links between the present and the past. Surely, if we are to be really mature, as individuals or as groups, we can not live exclusively in the today, here now and gone tomorrow. We must know and understand what came before us, perhaps slowly and with great difficulty, and often at the end of large segments of time. This we must know if we are to leave any record of progress for those who will in turn come after us.

Holt House, while not actually a legacy to the Fraternity, is a heritage to which the Fraternity could not sensibly fail to lay claim. Ten years from now its value will be immeasurably enhanced. The generous gifts of Pi Phis and their friends have made possible the furnishing of the house in period style, and many small pieces characteristic of the period have added a lived-in look that is most desirable.

Ten years from now Holt House will be even better known than it is today. It will be increasingly regarded as a repository for precious examples of fraternity lore. It will take on the soft gleam that love and care and loyalty give to all old, cared-for homes. Through the years it will be the one place that all Pi Phis, active and alumnae, can claim as their own.

And I think Pi Phi will continue to come to Holt House, from all points of the compass. It can be reached very easily and quickly from Chicago. Groups of girls driving east or west for the college year can plan to stop over in Monmouth for a day.

There was a time, you know, when the Settlement School at Gatlinburg seemed, to some people, to be located exactly at the ends of the earth. But Pi Phis somehow managed to get there, full of enthusiasm, and the years have proved the Settlement School's location to be not the least of its assets. So Holt House, a little removed from the busiest traffic arteries, may find its tranquil location a natural preservative for many years against the inroads of changes which would detract from its environmental charm. Certainly there are few locations where a fraternity home could be maintained as economically.

When you go to Holt House there will be a warm welcome for you, for you will, in a sense, be coming home. Think of your visit in this way, and the whole place will light up for you. Think of Holt House not only as a memorial to the past, but as a serene and gracious assurance for the Fraternity's future.

TWENTY-FIVE-YEAR Weavers Honored

→ THERE are approximately 60 weavers who make the beautiful hand-done articles that are sold under the Arrowcraft label. Of that number nine have been weaving for Pi Phi customers for more than 25 years. To honor these "silver" members there was a party at the new Ruth Barrett Smith Staff House on Saturday afternoon, June 13. Mrs. Tina McMorran, weaving instructor and designer, and Mrs. Marion Mueller, Arrowcraft Manager, were hostesses for the occasion, with other staff family members present.

Recalling the early days, Mary L. Ownby who has worked for Arrowcraft for nearly thirty years, said she was selling her hand-made chairs on the streets for fifty cents when Pi Phi offered her one dollar and fifty cents, "and no one will ever know what it meant to me," she concluded. Marjorie Chalmers sang mountain ballads to the accompaniment of her dulcimer; Edna Cook brought her guitar which she played for group singing; and Myrtle Connor, who weaves woolens and baby blankets sang several selections from "Store Breeches"—the stage play that was coached and presented as a benefit some years ago by Gene Redding.

Stuart Nye pins with the number of years' service on the back of each were presented by Mrs. Marion Mueller to the following: Etta Brown, Myrtle Connor, Izora Keener, Bertha McCarter, Mollie Moore, (mother of Bertha McCarter), Cora Morton, Mary L. Ownby, Lulu Mae Ogle (sister of Josie Watson) and Josie, wife of Orlie Watson, who is head maintenance man for Pi Phi in Gatlinburg.

Refreshments of punch and cookies concluded the afternoon, and members of the staff provided transportation home for these worthy women of the mountains who have been faithful to Pi Phi tradition and quality these many years.

Operation Bay View Villa

By Germaine Kresser

→ CALIFORNIA BETAS' own special Bay View

Villa project has provided the kind of mutual interest and enthusiasm every chapter dreams of. It is a way in which each member individually and the chapter collectively, can feel that someone is directly deriving benefit from their efforts. The project has grown and blossomed in the past year under the guidance of Reverend Spurgeon Mayfield and Joan McRae.

In the Spring of '52, Joan, a freshman at the time, approached the local YWCA Chapter, asking if there was any work in which she could assist them. The "Y" referred her to a negro minister whose parish was centered in a poor housing district near Oakland. This minister, Reverend Mayfield, had been looking for a group which would be willing to aid him in developing some kind of an activity project for the children in this area. In her first interview with Reverend Mayfield, Joan realized that such a project would be a full scale job. This was a district where crowded living conditions in a war time housing project prevailed. Here was a large group of children desperately in need of adult guidance; Negroes, Mexicans and whites resided side by side in the area but not without prejudice. The recreational facilities in the area were also sorely lacking and space was cramped. There was a small though poorly equipped playground centrally located in the area which Joan and the Reverend decided to make the "headquarters" of their "operation." The plan they devised was one to bring together and integrate the various groups of children; one also with an aim toward constructive utilization and direction of the children's time and energy.

The chapter was enthusiastic over Joan's proposed project from the beginning, but as often happens, it was difficult to find enough chapter members who could give up two whole afternoons a week to such an activity. Another problem was the one of transportation, since the housing area is approximately eight or ten miles from the University campus. All problems were quickly resolved, however, and a group of six girls began "operations." The first few afternoons of their appearance at the playground, the girls found the children quite shy and reluctant to enter into the prepared games. It wasn't long, however, before all began to attend the "meetings" and bring their friends. By this fall, membership in the various groups under the club had swollen to almost seventy.

The girls wrote a little song to which they attribute largely, the disappearance of much of the original prejudice. The last line of the chorus of the song went something like this: "We all play together and have fun in the Friendship Club." As yet, no Scout leader has been found who would handle or start a troop in the neighborhood. A Brownie leader was secured, however, and each Wednesday, the Brownie meeting is held, with the assistance of two Pi Phi Brownie "helpers." Beth Early and Joan have established a Cooking Club; a reading class, a Hobby Club and a Dancing Club also all hold weekly meetings. The number of Chapter members who devote hours of work to Bay View has substantially enlarged to the point where members alternate afternoons, so that more people can participate in guiding the various specialized groups.

On May 29, Reverend Mayfield's congregation held a bazaar at his church. After weeks of arduous preparation, the Bay View Dancing Club performed at the function, as well as the club's singing group. The thrill of being able to produce something for which they were commended provided a great thrill for all the children, and they participated wholeheartedly. The chapter took the opportunity of the gathering to present Reverend Mayfield with a gold watch in commendation of his work on and initiation of the project. It was as big a thrill to the girls to see his genuine gratitude as it was for him to receive such a gift. Then, quite unexpectedly, a little black face stepped onto the stage carrying a bouquet of roses bigger than he was, which he presented to Joan with a painstakingly memorized speech of gratitude.

Tokyo Panhellenic

By Margaret Hale Magness, Arizona A

→ THE TOKYO Panhellenic was organized in Tokyo shortly after the beginning of the occupation of Japan in 1946. Never a very strong group, because of the constant turnover of members, it has somehow managed to keep going. I'm glad to say that in the past year, the Pi Phis have been without a doubt the most faithful members.

Our luncheon meetings are held once a month at the Pershing Heights Officers' Club, with an average of twenty members attending each meeting. Most members are wives of Security Forces personnel, but we do have a few members who are Department of the Army Civilians working with some branch of the services, the American Embassy here in Toyko, or the Red Cross. After each meeting we try to provide a simple program concerning some phase of Japanese life. In the past we have had lectures on pearls and jade, Japanese architecture, and Noh play masks; we have even had a demonstration by three University boys of the traditional Kabuki play singing and dancing. These programs have proved most popular and have helped to increase the membership.

Pan Hellenic members from larger clubs would probably be shocked at our informal methods of governing the group. It has been impossible to choose officers by the usual method, so we just take as president anyone who is willing to volunteer to preside at the meetings. Last year I took the office and immensely enjoyed serving; a Theta volunteered for the next term. Now if a Kappa is willing next time, we'll be going by national rules in spite of ourselves!

We have no rushing activities to be concerned with, so have taken over a series of parties for wounded United Nations soldiers at one of the large Army hospitals here. Once a month several members take home-made candies and cookies to one of the wards, where we play games with the patients. At Christmas time we sent gift boxes to each of eighty Japanese boys and girls who live in a leper colony in the mountains near Tokyo.

The following Pi Phis are members of Tokyo Pan Hellenic: Ruth Robbins Coleman (Mrs. James W.) Arkansas A, 1920; Estelle Cable Hathorn (Mrs. Vernon B.) Louisiana A, 1933; Eleanor Yuthers Fisher (Mrs. Russell) Florida B, 1940; Mary Gately Keating (Mrs. Walter) Florida F, 1945; Anne Scott Reinecke (Mrs. Paul S., Jr.) S. Carolina A, 1940; Margaret Hale Magness (Mrs. W. W.) Arizona A, 1945.

Tribute to Greek Letter Organizations

The Ladies' Home Journal for September, 1953, in its Public Affairs Department edited by Margaret Hickey, carries a special feature, "Hell Week to Help Week." The special feature is in connection with an article, "Gangs Rule This Neighborhood," and the box story cites cases of fraternities and sororities in specific institutions who have entered into community projects. The feature pays a fine tribute to Greek letter organizations and the successful projects which they have accomplished.

Time does not permit your editor to secure permission to quote from the article; therefore, we recommend that you read it.

Freedom Foundation Award

A member of Nebraska B, Miss Kerrigan was graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1942. She is a native of Fremont, Nebraska. Her sister, Mrs. Walter R. Metz, Jr., of Alliance, Nebraska, was also a member of Nebraska Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi, graduating in 1949.

→ THE Firestone Tire & Rubber Company's seven publications received the top award in the Employee Publications category of the Freedoms Foundation Awards Competition for 1952. February 22, Vice-President Richard Nixon presented the awards at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

The Firestone publications won the award in competition with several hundred other leading Company publications. Mary Kerrigan, supervising editor for the publications, received a personal honor medal at the Valley Forge ceremonies from Vice-President Nixon.

The seven publications for which the top award in the Employee Publications category was given are: the Firestone Non-Skid, for employees of the home plants in Akron, Ohio; the Firestone Californian at the Los Angeles, California plant; the Firestone Southerner, Memphis, Tennessee; the Firestone News, Pottstown, Pennsylvania; the Firestone News, Fall River, Massachusetts; the Firestone News, Gastonia, North Carolina; and the Ravenna Arsenal News, Ravenna, Ohio.

The award was won on the basis of the Company's outline of the purposes of the extensive publications program which has been developed to reach employees, since great expansion of Company operations prevents the personalized contact between Management and Employees.

The award recipients were chosen by a distinguished Awards Jury composed of Thirty State Supreme Court jurists and executive officers of national patriotic and military organizations and service clubs. The jury's selections were made from nominations submitted by the general public. Thousands upon thousands of speeches, exhibits, programs, scripts, recordings, films and other documentary materials were submitted for consideration by the Awards Jury for awards in 16 principal categories of which Employee Publications was one.

Nixon (left) at the annual awards presentation ceremonies at Freedoms Foundation Headquarters, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, February 22. Kenneth D. Wells (right), President of Freedoms Foundation, read the citations for the award winners during the ceremonies. Miss Kerrigan's award was for her work as supervising editor of the seven Firestone employee publications which received the principal award in the Employee Publications category, one of 16 principal awards.

One of Utah Alpha's prettiest queens, Shauna Wood, recently was married to Tony Trabert who won the United States tennis championship this year.

Shauna, who graduated from the University of Utah last June, won the title of "Queen" many times during her four years of college. She was chosen Days of '47 Queen while still in high school. At the university she was chosen attendant to Snow Carnival Queen in January, 1952; Orchid Queen of Sigma Pi Fraternity and attendant to Inter-Fraternity Queen, both in the spring of 1952.

Last spring she added the title of Miss Utah State to the many others and represented Utah in the Miss Universe contest at Long Beach, California, where she was placed fifth.

There is an article in the September 21, 1953 issue of Life Magazine on Tony Trabert and his tennis championship.

CREDENDA

To preserve one's serenity, to work with calmness amidst the tired and scolding children of humanity, keeping a nice balance between a softness of heart that invites imposition and a hardness of heart that repels confidences; to preserve humility amid honors and a proper pride in adversity; to avoid condescension among those less fortunate and to abstain from servility among those more richly endowed; to live each day joyously, superior to depression from trivialities; to read much; to reflect much; to cultivate the flowers in our disposition and to eradicate the weeds; to say the commonplace word that heals rather than the clever word that rankles; in a word, to justify our existence so that when the last glorious adventure has opened before us our friends may say: "He really lived and he really died."

Through NPC, fraternity members are constantly reminded that the dignified and orderly selection of members is only one phase of panhellenic work. Quoting from an article in the NPC Manual, written by Louise Leonard, NPC Delegate for Alpha Gamma Delta, "A college panhellenic should be a constructive body engaged in a proper program of real value to its members and to the general college community." Just as each fraternity holds true to its own ideals and purposes, the true scope of panhellenic is to further friendship and harmony, to demonstrate the enduring values of high standards of conduct and scholarship, and to be a constructive factor in the development of our American good citizenship and education. The commemoration in Virginia of our noble heritage reminds us of our close interrelationship and makes us proud to continue these responsibilities. PENELOPE M. ## TRIBUTE by fraternities at Alabama Polytechnic Institute, is dedicated this year to "the twenty-one housemothers on the Auburn campus."

"Making a fraternity house into a home could never be accomplished without them," say the editors. "They are always striving to add that dash of home life that is so necessary in achieving a warm and friendly atmosphere" and "that special woman's touch that is so essential in order to make a success of the various fraternity socials."

"A housemother," the tribute concludes, "gains love and admiration from the members for her countless efforts to make college life more enjoyable. Her contributions are long remembered by the graduates who hold them in their fondest memories."—IRAC Bulletin, Feb. 6, 1953.

COLLEGE WOMEN DISCUSS THEIR ROLE

What are women students thinking and doing in colleges today about preparing for responsibility? From screaming headlines, depicting escapades to obscure articles of attainment, the public draws its conclusion.

This spring a group of approximately three hundred women students representing the Associated Women Students from eighty-six colleges and universities from coast to coast met on The Ohio State University campus to talk about "College—Your Pathway to the World." They did not confine themselves to just college, but rather the role they anticipate, uncertain as that may be.

They listened to outstanding speakers give statistics of college women who preceded them, cite examples of accomplishments of women, and set sights for future achievement; then these students spent hours in workshops charting their own course.

What is this course? It is well for all college women to be aware of some of the thinking of their representatives at this meeting.

The tools for a rewarding and productive life for women they suggest as subjects in areas of economics, political science, geography, family life and appreciation of the arts. But beyond these specific subjects they also recommend that an integration of these subjects would be worthwhile. The interpretation of student activities is in the light of training for citizenship. Basic to this is the application of skills of human relationships, of careful training of leaders to take the responsibilities for the growth of members.

From—Crescent of Gamma Phi Beta

"The world may change, as it has in the past ten years, but good taste, courtesy to one's fellow human being, spiritual reverence, and respect for the moral code of civilized peoples, are timeless.

MY FRATERNITY MEANS

*By Mary Jane De Haas, President
Gamma Theta, Carnegie Institute*

The warmth of friendship easily made and everlasting
The joy of giving when it's needed
The satisfaction gained from work with others
The thrill of competition with its sweet rewards
The power and strength of leadership when leaders must be had
The keen and heartfelt laughter of those who like to play—

This is my Fraternity.

I keep within my heart loyalty to the ideals whose symbol I wear.

I revere the ceremonies she cherishes
I respect the scholarship she encourages

I maintain the friendship she creates
I hope to fulfill her aim—the widest influence for good.

CREATIVE LIVING

Life becomes most meaningful when in small opportunities, or in high places, we become linked with others in an effort to make that which is new, and true, and better to become real.

—ROBERT RUSSELL WICKS

Life's highest satisfactions are the direct outcome of creative activity. The ability to live creatively is an important aspect of the image of God with which man was endowed by the supreme creator. But as Dean Wicks suggests, there is no creative living in isolation from others. The inventive genius may at times withdraw from society in order to concentrate upon his work, but he is aware of how much his own achievement depends upon what others have done before him, on what others are doing for him at the moment, and how his work will be received by others in the future. Life becomes most meaningful when we are united with others in worthwhile endeavours.

ALPHA PROVINCE EAST

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. INITIATED, April 12, 1953: Gwen Bryant and Anita Ramsdell, Bangor; Mary June Renfro and Rita Renfro, Stillwater; Natalie Earley, Sabottis; Carol Farrow, Waterville; Nancy Hodgkins, New Sweden; Sandra Humphrey, Pittsfield; Barbara Iivonen, Rockland; Audrey Koritsky, Madison; Nancy L. Littlefield, Sargentville; Joan Martin, Auburn; Nancy Grover, Hanson, Mass.; Judy Barker, Walpole, Mass.; Sally Stanford, Melrose, Mass.; Barbara Arnold, Gloversville, N.Y.; Joan Gillette, Mamaroneck, N.Y.; Ethel Richards, Greenville Junction.

Maine A ended its spring semester with a number of campus and Fraternity activities. One of the finest events was the Founders' Day Banquet held at the Penobscot Valley Country Club. At that time, Mary June Renfro was awarded the cup for the outstanding pledge of the year.

A new Memorial Union Building was completed and enjoyed on campus before the close of school.

The annual Strawberry Breakfast was held in May, and was later followed by the Senior Picnic.

At the end of the year, Barbara Brown was named to the All Maine Women, Senior Honorary Society. Freshman initiates chosen as Eagles to help with the incoming freshmen were Barbara Arnold, Gwen Bryant, Joan Martin and Mary June Renfro.

RUTH A. JOHNSON

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. The Middlebury Pi Beta Phis were alternately cheered and depressed by the first two football games of the season. In the first, Middlebury upset Connecticut Wesleyan, but in the second Bates beat Middlebury on home ground.

Last May Mary Jane Montgomery, the candidate put up by  $\Phi$  K T Fraternity, was Junior Week-end queen. Other Pi Beta Phi candidates were Dorie Sturtevant and Charlotte Morgan. A variety show, a barbecue, and a ball featuring Lester Lanin and his orchestra and hats combined to make a memorable Junior Week-end.

Later in the Spring, Pi Beta Phis showed their merits in another form. Joan Cramp and Ginny Rost were chosen for Mortar Board and Joan was elected Chief Justice soon after. She also won the Optima Award given to the outstanding junior woman.

The graduation of a memorable class was celebrated with a boat dance on the side-wheeler "Ticonderoga" on Lake Champlain. Many private parties and an excellent melodrama rounded out a weekend of activities which showed Middlebury at her best.

The Vermont A chapter took on an international flavor when Nancy Peck won a Fulbright grant to study in France. In September, Julie Howard returned from a year of study at the University of Paris. Sandy Sharp is spending this year at the same university. Hap Clarvoe lived with a Spanish family last summer, while on the Experiment in International Living. Ann Hildreth is living in Pakistan this year with her family.

The winning of the Vera Moss Bowl for most improvement in the chapter as shown in the National Standardization Test has given Vermont A a high standard to meet in 1953. Enthusiasm is great, and the chapter plans to take on a new local philanthropy as well as continuing to support its Italian foster child, Leta Cocco. Money will be raised by selling orange juice in the women's dormitories and by shining shoes in gathering places all over the campus.

The chapter gave an open house for the Vermont B's the Saturday of the traditional football game which was held at Middlebury this year.

All women's fraternities had open rushing in September which benefited the chapters which had vacancies; however, regular rushing will be held second semester as usual. Panhellenic is working on a plan of Open Houses whereby the members will become better acquainted with the rushees by meeting them in smaller groups.

JO ANNE SMITH

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. INITIATED, April 12, 1953. Barbara Farnham, Marilyn Giles, Barbara O'Bannon, Patricia Kolk, Lois Marvin, Elizabeth Semans, Patricia Speer, Jane Stickney, Linda Whitmore, Jane Yarrow.

Vermont B ended its college year last semester by taking second place in the Interfraternity Sing, and at the Founders' Day ceremony Janice Danforth was chosen for Mortar Board and Marilyn Hinsdale, Susan Cook, and Nancy McMann were chosen for Staff and Sandal, the Junior Honorary Society. Four girls were chosen for Sophomore Aides: Elizabeth Semans, Jane Stickney, Pat Kolk and Lois Marvin. Louise Ewart was elected to  $\Omega$  N, of which she is now president.

Because of advanced and condensed rushing season, the chapter has gotten back into the full whirl of college life quickly. The University of Vermont has never tried this type of rushing before so all of the fraternities are anxious to see its outcome.

This year the college is having a Panhellenic sponsored program to aid Eiko Ozawa, a Japanese exchange student. Eiko is going to have her meals served to her by a different sorority on campus each week and she will rotate throughout the year.

PLEGDED: Mary Alice Leete.

NANCY BURDEN

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 7, 1896. Pledge Day, October 12, 1953.

Today Boston University seems to the observer like a young giant who grows another league every year. This fall President Case has announced an $80,000,000 expansion program which is to encompass the next 15 years. There is a saying current that Boston University used to be scattered around the city of Boston, but that now the city of Boston is scattered around B. U. This has become increasingly apt in view of the most recent purchases made by the University—that of Braves Field for the athletic department—of the Esquire Theatre for the very active theatre department—and of a piece of property near the Medical School as the site of a new $20,000,000 medical center. It is also part of the administrative policy to move as many of the schools as possible up to the river campus, which is the center of the University, and in this aim it has been purchasing all available land around it, and is now in the midst of plans for construction in the near future.

Something new has been added to Panhellenic too this year, in the form of a new rushing system. Rushing has been concentrated into two weeks—with informal parties the first week and formal parties the second. The parties are in the form of round robins and progressive dinners, going on from 5 P.M. to 9 P.M.; coke dates are made for afternoons. With the first week of parties over, the system promises to produce a very successful rushing season.

The chapter was doubly busy constructing its float for the rally and parade which took place before the Homecoming football game with Penn State the weekend rushing ended. The Powderbowl Game was played with  $\Gamma$   $\Phi$  B.

Looking ahead to the holiday season, Pi Beta Phi and  $\Delta$   $\Delta$   $\Delta$  are planning a semi-formal dance which is to be held on December 5 at one of the larger hotels in Boston.

In student government are: Adrienne Depper and Rita Basmajian, Junior Senators; Marian Giallombardo and Barbara Putnam, Student Council Representatives; and Barbara Miller, Junior Class Secretary. Trudy Dow is Panhellenic President.

BARBARA MILLER

MASSACHUSETTS BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS. Chartered, 1944. Pledge Day, December 10, 1953. September came, bringing with it a renewal of all college activities. Massachusetts B found many new additions to the campus, as well as the new dining room at the chapter house. During the summer months, two women's dormitories, Leach and Crabtree, were completed, and the construction of another dorm was begun. The dining hall, started last year, had also been finished, so that the women's side of the campus had taken on an entirely new look. The chapter's own particular addition is the dining room, finished in knotty pine.

A new idea in regard to freshman orientation was put into practice this fall—a freshman sing. Each dormitory learned one of the University songs and a competition was held; this inspired the new students to learn the songs, as well as arousing school spirit. The concert series, opened by Stan Kenton, promises to fill the Cage to capacity at every event.

Massachusetts B was pleased and proud to learn that they again attained first place in scholarship, making the second successive time they have achieved this goal. At the annual tapping of O N, national Home Economics Honorary Society, Pat French and Joyce Barnard, later elected president, were chosen. Doty Bemis was elected president of the Women's Athletic Association, and Anne Weissinger, vice-president.

The girls who were tapped last spring for honorary societies have been busy. Chosen Scrolls were Carol Gifford, Sally Grahn, and Judy Wolk. These sophomores assisted during freshman week. Tapped for Isogone, Senior Women's Honorary, were Bety Woodman, Steffie Holmes, who was elected secretary-treasurer, Bobbie Underhill, vice-president, and Frannie Jones, publicity chairman. This group plans rallies, convocations, float parades, and numerous other activities.

Massachusetts B lost their next door neighbors, as that local fraternity, Z Z Z, purchased a new house and went national as  $\Phi M \Delta, \Delta \Sigma X$ , a local fraternity, has its first house, right across the street, so the loss is compensated.

As the routine of classes and examinations is beginning to be familiar now, and as Mrs. Clara Dawe, the new house mother, seems just like an old friend, Massachusetts B is looking forward with great expectations to the coming year.

ANNE WEISSINGER

CONNECTICUT ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT. Chartered, April 10, 1953. Pledge Day, December 15, 1953. INITIATED, April 12, 1953: Viola Fedorczyk, Norwich; Maria Piontek, New Haven; Camilla Rambusch, Harrison, N.Y.; Joan Turner, Melrose, Mass. Students returned this year to find the football stadium seating 15,200 completed. For a philanthropic project at the university mums are being sold at all home games. The sale is being sponsored by Mortar Board, of which Margery Ryder is president, and Archons, college men's honorary society.

Connecticut A won first place among sororities, fraternities, and independent living units in scholarship for the scholastic year 1952-1953. The Panhellenic Activities Award was also won by the chapter.

To promote Panhellenic spirit, an intra-sorority chorus has been organized to serenade the new women students. Pledged: Ellen Cipriano, Kearny, N.J.; Harriet Dinmore, Lowell, Mass.; Barbara Evans, Willimantic; Sandra Moir, Hartford.

ALPHA PROVINCE WEST

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1896. Pledge Day, November 2, 1953. INITIATED, March 3, 1953: Carol Anderson, New Britain, Conn.; Barbara Breck, Anne Harter, Mary Lynne Miller, Syracuse; Mickey Elder, Madison, N.J.; Pat Flynn, Elyria, Ohio; Doty Gee, Plainfield, N.J.; Donna Guido, Kansas City, Mo.; Joyce Lippincott, Moorestown, N.J.; Annette Manzella, Buffalo; Janet McCale, Oneida; Marcia Mulligan, Ashland, Pa.; Kay Peterson, Bethlehem, Pa.; Lynna Stephens, Rochester; Virginia Thomas, Ballston Lake; Marjorie Ziebarth, Eggertsville.

School has begun and New York A is back in the swing of things, full of enthusiasm after their successes last spring. This chapter walked off with many honors. Nadya Klotz wrote the winning skit for the Panhellenic Banquet, and Jay Lund directed the Syracuse Pi Beta Phi in step singing, which they also won. The annual Powder-Bowl football game between New York A and A  $\Sigma$   $\Delta$  was won by Pi Beta Phi for the third straight year. The scholarship program proved equally successful, and this chapter is proud of the 21 girls on Dean's List and the 4 point raise in the house scholarship.

This semester has started out wonderfully with 33 girls living in the house, and many of them already in activities. New York A is looking forward to an exceptionally good year.

NANCY FOWLER

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 20, 1914. Pledge Day, November 15, 1953. INITIATED, April 13, 1952: Rosalyn Cohn, Binghamton; Barbara Connellee, Rochester; Maria Ferdman, Argentina; Marian Finck, Bronxville; Dorothy Fletcher, Floral Park; Nancy Hoyt, Bayshore; Joan Jensen, St. Albans; Constance Kramer, Upper Montclair, N.J.; Helene Lagergren, Hempstead; Janet Price, Morristown, N.J.; Elaine Rhodes, Glen Head; Judith Van Dusen, Tenafly, N.J.; Penelope White, Westport, Conn.

Registration for the fall semester took place September 15 and 16. When the members of New York returned to campus, the construction of two men's dormitories was under way. The location of these new buildings is directly opposite the chapter house.

Homecoming Weekend, October 3, brought back many alumni to the St. Lawrence campus. The events of the weekend included a football game with Hofstra College, displays in the "Knights of Old" theme, and a buffet supper. The weekend was highlighted by the Beta Ball at which Woody Herman played.

At the Women's Athletic Association's banquet, the chapter received the bowling and softball trophies, and an individual award went to Dolores Rumpick.

At the Moving-Up-Day ceremonies, Elizabeth John was awarded the Panhellenic activity cup.

PLEGDED: Beverly Belanger, Glen Rock, N.J.

PATRICIA FLOWERS

NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1919. Pledge Day, March 1, 1953. The college year for New York  $\Delta$  began when they joined the fall return to Ithaca for registration September 22. Cornell seems to be expanding on all sides, with Kimball-Thurston Hall, a new engineering building, completed, and construction under way on a field house, Teagle Hall, and several units of men's dormitories.

The chapter held an open house for fraternities this autumn, as well as an old-fashioned Halloween party featuring bobbing for apples and marshmallows on strings for women and their dates.

Several Pi Beta Phis are living in freshman dorms this year, as freshman dorm counselors or counselors' roommates. C. L. Adams has been elected second vice-president of WSGA, women's student governing body.

JANET SENDEROWITZ

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO. Chartered, 1908. Pledge Day, October 21, 1953. As soon as the examinations were over last May the members of Ontario A headed north to Jane Firstbrook's cottage where they spent a very lazy week just relaxing and enjoying themselves.

Rushing began with a Panhellenic Meeting for the rushees and was followed by teas, supper parties, and evening parties which were spread over a period of two weeks. Ontario A chose "The Wizard of Oz" as its theme for the evening parties. The house was decorated, and the chapter members were dressed to suit the theme. Before the evening was over a musical skit was presented for the rushees.

After the Western-Toronto football game the chapter held open house for all Pi Beta Phis and their friends.

JOAN JENNISON

ONTARIO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO. Chartered, October, 1934. Pledge Day, October 4, 1953. Ontario B would like to pay tribute to their Gwyn Kelley, who deservedly won the Amy B. Onken award for Alpha Province West. Gwyn is now studying dramatics in New York on the London Little Theatre drama scholarship. Ada Gay and Sandra Nelles were awarded scholarships in psychology and French respectively.

The college term opened with a two-day convention at which the active members welcomed twenty-nine new pledges. Helen Smith gave a report on the president's workshop held at Alexandria Bay, N.Y.

Open house was held and floats were made for the University Homecoming weekend October 10. Also, the witches' cauldron brewed with ideas for a Hallowe'en hoedown.

For the third consecutive year, Helen Smith was chosen as one of five drum majorettes to lead the college band.

BETA PROVINCE

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, February 1954. INITIATED, April 27, 1953: Barbara Bauer, Pittsburgh; Mary Blake, Lewisburg; Mary Bryfolgle, Montgomery; Lolita Bunnell, South Temple; Ruthann Burnett, Haddonfield, N.J.; Jeanne Cooper, New Castle; Elizabeth Fogg, Moylan; Carol Getz, Glen Mills; Mary Grubb, Kennett Square; Virginia McCully, Verona, N.J.; Maxine Sponaugle, Hershey; Jean Wirths, Madison, N.J.; Mary Wu, Washington, D.C.

INITIATED, October 5, 1953: Marjorie Marshall, Janet Replogle, Pittsburgh; Inez Mitchell, Hightstown, N.J.; Joanna Randolph, Elkins Park; Margaret Ellen Smith, Madison, N.J.

Returning to Bucknell this September, upperclassmen found many changes on the campus. Several dormitories were re-decorated inside and several others boasted a new coat of paint. Senior Honor House was given "the new look" inside and out. The new A X A house has taken form, but is still several months from completion.

Jo Anthony, Pennsylvania B president, was chosen to live in Senior Honor House, and was selected as a member of Mortar Board. Carol Getz was awarded the Bucknell Prize for Women, for her excellent work in the field of English last year. Jan Wilt was elected President of the Women's Athletic Association.

Bucknell's Homecoming was the biggest in many years: dances, football game, parade, floats, and all of Lewisburg in festive dress for the occasion. The chapter teamed up with  $\Sigma A E$  to build their float.

JANET WILT

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1903. Pledge Day, Next Semester. INITIATED, Sept. 30, 1953: Joyce Seto, Haddonfield, N.J., and Ann Derbyshire, Oreland, Pa.

Two of the chapter's juniors will not be with us this year; Jane Herr has transferred to the University of Colorado and Mary Ann Jordon to Mary Washington College.

The chapter enjoyed a spaghetti dinner in the rooms preceding the second meeting of the fall semester. The seniors compiled domestic resources and put the dinner together.

The Pi Beta Phi is planning their settlement school project for the near future. A card party will be the attraction; the entire student body, faculty, and administration will be invited. An open house in the rooms was held after the football game, October 17, which is Parent's Day weekend.

The college administration has initiated a new rule this year—that of second semester rushing. In order to become acquainted with the newcomers to the campus the four national groups under the supervision of the Panhellenic Council have met with the freshman women at teas on Sunday afternoons. The main intention of the fraternity this semester is to make evident to the rest of the college the ability of the Pi Phi chapter to be a working and closely-knit organization.

ANN BARNARD

OHIO ALPHA—OHIO UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, September 28, 1953. INITIATED, October 9, 1953: Carole Aydelote, Dayton; Karen Erdman, Lakewood.

"J-Prom" was the campus password last spring during the week of May 10 as the students plunged into king and queen campaigns for the Junior Prom. Studies were pushed into the background as each men's and women's fraternity selected its candidate and planned its campaign. The Pi Beta Phi was no exception as they backed their candidate, Susie Geiler, the "Sultan's Choice."

Back at Ohio University this fall, thirty actives and two pledges prepared for the major rushing season of the year. A new rushing privilege allowing an extra informal party gave Pi Beta Phi a chance to use their newly landscaped back lawn. Strings of colored lights and groupings of white wrought-iron furniture transformed the lawn for a lovely garden party.

Friday night the chapter house became a Hawaiian resort, complete with palm trees, Chinese lanterns, and leis for each girl. Banana splits were served by girls dressed in sarongs and dainty shell earrings from Hawaii were given as favors.

The Parisian Hotel Party on Saturday night again transported the rushees to a foreign country. In a cocktail lounge, the guests were served "cocktails" and canapes by white-coated waiters. Later, in the dining room, a French dessert was eaten as the rushees watched "Anatole of Paris" display his famous hats and actives model their latest wardrobe additions in a black-and-white style show.

Another milestone was reached this fall in interfraternity relations. All members of the Panhellenic Council contributed to a workshop in which problems of internal organization and inter-fraternity cooperation were discussed. Mrs. Edith H. Rankin, Beta Province President, came from Columbus to help make the workshop a success.

On Sunday, September 20, the new Ohio University Student Union was officially opened to students and faculty. The four-story Colonial building has since been filled with students eager to participate in its functions.

The Spring semester brought individual honors to Ohio A. Included were Marilyn Chandler, Dream Girl of  $\Theta X$ ; Patricia Cox, Katherine Woolfitt, and Margaret Sahlin, Chimes honorary; Jo Ellen Goddard, president of Mortar Board; and Margaret Sahlin, cultural-recreational director of the Student Union.

PLEGDED: Jenny Carpenter, Parkersburg, W.Va.; Bernetta Close, Cincinnati; Suzanne Colbert, Glouster; Janetta Dunlaevy, Greenwich, Conn.; Carol Falk, Toledo; Margene Gilson, Athens; Vivian Goulder, Rocky River; Betsy Johnson, Columbus; Maureen Kelley, Nelsonville; Donna Lang, Cuyahoga Falls; Sandra Locke, Hamilton; Arleen McGuigan, Dayton; Jo Ann Nichols, Mansfield; Phyllis Peterson, Athens; Lois Schuette, Fairview Park; Kay Sears, Cincinnati; Diana Welch, Parkersburg, W.Va.

BARBARA FOX

OHIO BETA—OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered 1894. INITIATED, May 1, 1953: Nancy Fraser, Patricia Harris, Joanne Hatch, Ann Leifeld, Sue Rancey, Sally Shortz, Barbara Shaeffer, Virginia Varley, Columbus; Beverly J. Craft, Dayton; Diane Fox, Cincinnati; Carol Schroder, Judy Schraishuhn, Toledo.

After spring vacation, during which many of the girls were enjoying the Florida sunshine, Ohio B returned to have a very busy spring quarter.

Family week-end, an annual affair for entertaining parents, was held on April 18 and 19. The Mothers' Club served a delicious dinner, after which the Pi Beta Phi's presented their Greek Week skit on the theme of "Love." The evening was ended by serenading the parents with some of our favorite Pi Phi songs.

On April 27, Ohio B welcomed alumnae from all parts of the country to celebrate Founders' Day. The banquet was held in the New Ohio Union, and Helen Anderson Lewis, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training, was the speaker. A very proud moment for every member of Ohio B came when Mrs. Edith Rankin, Beta Province President announced that Beverly Klunk, a senior in Ohio B, had won the Amy Burnham Onken Province Award, and was a candidate for the national award. At the same time, Elaine Fallon received the award for activities, and Bryer Chynoweth, the honor of wearing the scholarship pin for a year.

May Week soon arrived with the Ohio Sesquicentennial as a theme. The members were hard at work campaigning to get Peggy Vogelsang elected May Queen. The theme of her campaign and the slogan that the skit was built around was "Peg of my Heart."

Although Peggy didn't win, she was on the court with another Pi Beta Phi, Janet Finley, who had been run by her dormitory.

The last social event of the chapter was Pi Phi Day, which was held on May 24 at Gold Cliff Park. There the Pi Beta Phi's enjoyed themselves picnicking, swimming, and roller-skating.

On May 25 the traditional senior loving-cup ceremony was held. To end the evening right, the seniors, with a little persuasion, got their final dunking in Mirror Lake.

Ohio B is proud of the honors won by the members. Spring quarter, Sally Shortz and Virginia Varley were tapped for Mirrors, the sophomore women's honorary. Peggy Poorman and Joan Harder were elected to Chimes, the junior women's honorary. Peggy Willman and Elaine Fallon were tapped for Mortar Board in a beautiful midnight ceremony.

Carol Haskins was chosen Stardust Queen and Ann Brede was a member of the Makio court. Barbara Bangham was elected president of Browning Dramatic Society.

The chapter had two girls, Connie Sutton and Ann Leifeld, leading the Ohio State side of the stadium in cheers for the football games. Nancy Bope was chosen alternate cheerleader.

EMILY BATTIN

OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1925. Pledge Day, October 5, 1953. Pi Beta Phi's at Ohio Wesleyan returned to the campus in September and immediately began work on rushing. Twenty-eight girls were pledged on October 5, and on October 6 the annual pledge banquet was held. The following Sunday the chapter held an open house in honor of the pledges.

Ohio  $\Delta$  is very proud of their two new Mortar Board members, Martha Bowman and Nancy Hennis, and of Martha Hibbert, Ardyece Reiser, and Nancy Hennis who were elected to  $\Phi B K$ . Martha Pierce and Marjorie Butler were selected as Senior Advisors to the freshman women. Martha Bowman was elected Judicial President of A.W.S., and another member, Carolyn Carriagan, was elected Junior Representative to the A.W.S. Board.

A  $\Delta$  II is building a new house which will complete "Sorority Circle," while  $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$  and  $\Sigma A E$  have broken ground for the future "Fraternity Row." A new natatorium is being built by the university; this is to be completed by January.

With a full social and scholastic schedule ahead, Ohio  $\Delta$  is looking forward to the coming months of the college year.

PLEGDED: Jeri Lou Alexander, Castalia; Judith Allen, Washington, D.C.; Margaret Annas, Syracuse, N.Y.; Anne Bartenfeld, Phyllis Dobben, Lakewood; Judith Brown, Baldwin, N.Y.; Jane Casselberry, Phoenixville, Pa.; Barbara Coombe, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich.; Roberta Ann Glenn, Bridgeport, W.Va.; Jeanne Goubeaux, Greenville; Lois Harrison, Cleveland; Suzanne Haviland, Gloversville, N.Y.; Judy Heimdal, Aurora, Ill.; Miriam Hines, Highland Park, Mich.; Lucille Hittle, Akron; Lucia Ann Hassellman, Lima; Willa Huot, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Carol Ann Jones, Wilmington, Del.; Margaret Libby, Euclid; Sue Logan, Big Prairie; Stephanie Nichols, Toledo; Charlotte Patterson, Cardington; Marilyn Youngtown; Mary Sue Semans, Delaware; Marilyn Slaughter, Indianapolis, Ind.; Arlene Thon, Fairview Park; Sally Jane Trumble, Kenmore, N.Y.; Mary Lou Walker, Oak Park, Ill.

ADELAIDE GRIMM

OHIO EPSILON—UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO. Chartered, April 2, 1945. Pledge Day, December 2, 1953. INITIATED, Phyllis Haller, Toledo.

Autumn found Ohio  $\epsilon$  busily preparing for Homecoming, October 17. Donna Thompson and Jo Kott were sponsored by  $\Lambda \Sigma \Phi$  and  $\Theta \chi$ , respectively, for queen. Pi Beta Phi entered a prize winning float which was a giant piggy bank built around the theme of "Bank on T.U."

The chapter's first rush party followed the Robin Hood theme and was entitled, "Sure-Would Forest." The traditional Heaven and Hell "Holiday in Hades" party rounded out the fall rushing activities.

Elected on campus were Mona Leininger, president, and Jane Fenn, vice-president of the Press Club; and Phyllis Haller, president of the Elementary Education Club.

"Reindeer Rondo," the Christmas formal dinner dance December 18, will highlight the Pi Beta Phi holiday season.

NANCY RICHARDSON

OHIO ZETA—MIAMI UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 11, 1945. Pledge Day, October 9, 1953. INITIATED, September 30, 1953: Ann Albright, Bucyrus; Carol Crumbaker, Cleveland; Gail Emerich, Euclid; Marilyn Foster, Granger, Ill.; Gloria Humbert, Newark; Barbara Kuhn, Dayton; Mariann Logee, Perrysburg; Janet McWilliam, Toledo; Rebecca Michaels, Urbana; Nancy Pohto, Fairport Harbor; Kathleen Powers, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Nancy Riley, Richmond, Ind.; Roberta Rogers, Chatham, N.J.; Joan Smith, Columbus; Barbara Strachan, Lombard, Ill.; Sallie Weddle, Norwood; Susan Young, Oxford.

Miami University has begun another college year. Sorority rushing followed close upon the opening of school. It included the usual open houses and parties. On October 9, the sororities received their pledge classes.

Initiation was held on September 30 for seventeen pledges of Ohio  $\zeta$  and was followed by the traditional banquet at the Huddle. Each initiate was presented with a silver identification bracelet mounted with the Pi Beta Phi crest.

Homecoming this year was highlighted by the inauguration of Dr. John Millet on October 23 as president of Miami University. He succeeds Miami's former president, Ernest Hahne, who passed away last year.

JANE HOEL

WEST VIRGINIA ALPHA—WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1918. Pledge Day, October 2, 1953. West Virginia  $\alpha$  was represented in many honoraries last spring. Patricia Chenoweth, Mary Maxwell, and Sally Porter were tapped for Mortar Board, of which Sally Porter is now president; and Linda McNary, Louise Hyde, and Sandra Kessel were elected to Li Toon Awa, Sophomore Women's Honorary.

Y.W.C.A. elected Patricia Chenoweth as vice-president and Sally Porter as treasurer, and members of "Y" cabinet are Mary Maxwell, Sandra Kessel, Louise Hyde, and Linda McNary.

PLEGDED: Frances Sayre, Beckley; Mary Jane Powell and Sandra Hull, Clarksburg; Mary Dixon, Charleston; Judy Porter and Barbara Shriver, Martinsburg; Jane Ashworth, Moundsville; Priscilla Dollman and Beverly Bashaw, Wheeling; Mary Lohr Varner, Parkersburg; Lillian Nemcosky, Morgantown; and Sandra Foley, Mason.

ANN HEIZER

WEST VIRGINIA BETA—DAVIS AND ELKINS COLLEGE. Chartered, September 21, 1950. Pledge Day, October 23, 1953. It is with much regret that Davis and Elkins College bids farewell to the sport of football which has been discontinued on this campus. The student body will miss the excitement of homecoming, and the fun of building floats, and having a big name band play for the annual homecoming dance.

Congratulations to T K E, who this summer acquired a house. Now they are busily painting and fixing it up to have it ready for the open house that has been planned for the not-to-distant future.

The chapter is proud to announce that Bette Rowe and Lena Bioletti were graduated with high honors on June 1, 1953. Bette graduated magna cum laude, and Lena, cum laude. Also, Frances Vilee and Betty Jean Altfater have been taken into the Golden Chain which, on this campus, is equivalent to  $\Phi \beta \kappa$  or Mortar Board.

West Virginia  $\beta$  was well represented in the May Day fete May 9, 1953. Joann Eckard was maid of honor to the Queen, and Helen Humphreys represented the senior class as princess.

Toward the end of May each year, it is a school policy to hold what is called the Dean Talbot Sing, at which time the awards of the various organizations are given out and different groups compete for a cup given for the best singing. The chapter sang "Bless This House," "This is My Country," and a medley of Pi Beta Phi songs including: "My Pi Phi Girl," "Pi Phi Lights Anew," and "Who."

The chapter room was renovated in preparation for rush week and for the visit of Mrs. Ruth Hansen, who was here for two days in the middle of October.

GAMMA PROVINCE

MARYLAND BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND. Chartered, 1945. Pledge Day, September 20, 1953. INITIATED, September 10, 1953. Elizabeth Hanson, Nancy Miller, Cumberland; Esther Reid, Pileville; Nancy Johnson, Silver Spring; Joanne Smithson, Bethesda; Joan Shields, Mary Lou Dempf, Nancy Skadding, Washington, D.C.

The Pi Beta Phis are getting a new house. Fraternity Row is nearing completion and by January 1, 1954, the address will be Number One, Fraternity Row. Ten fraternity houses are being built and will form a horseshoe of colonial style homes. The neighbors will be  $\Delta \tau \Delta$ ,  $\Sigma \Lambda \epsilon$ ,  $\Lambda \chi \Lambda$ ,  $\Phi \kappa \Sigma$ ,  $\Phi \Sigma \kappa$ ,  $\Lambda \epsilon \Phi$ ,  $\Gamma \Phi \beta$ ,  $\Sigma \kappa$  and  $\kappa \Lambda \tau$ .

The Thursday evening before each game the band and cheerleaders march through campus gathering a crowd. They assemble around a flaming bonfire. The Pi Beta Phi and  $\kappa \Lambda \tau$  pledges made an alligator that was burned in effigy of the Miami team before that game. Mary Mueller, Suzanne Wilson, Elizabeth Hanson and Ann Ogburn are members of the Student Activities Committee which plans such events.

Bettie Rossman, managing editor of the Terrapin, the yearbook, represented the University at the Associated Collegiate Convention in Chicago, where Maryland Publications received honors. Ann Ogburn is associate editor of the Terrapin. Jean Spencer is social editor of the campus newspaper and works with many Pi Beta Phis who are reporters. The journalism honorary elected Bettie Rossman secretary and Ann Ogburn social chairman. Bettie is also secretary of the history honorary.

Pi Beta Phi was 6th out of 45 organizations for scholarship last year. The Dean's List found Pi Beta Phi represented by Mary Mueller, Marion Copping, Ann Burnside, Kathleen Mills, Marilyn Carey and Bettie Rossman.

Politically speaking the Pi Beta Phis are aptly represented by Mary Mueller, Delegate-at-Large of the Student Government Association, and Maureen Quinn, Treasurer of the A.W.S. Barbara Hammond is also president of St. Ann's Hall.

The initiation banquet was held at Iron Gate Inn, which is owned by Miss Marie Mount, Dean of the College of Home Economics.

Two days before school officially opened, the actives plunged into formal rushing, beginning with open house teas on September 12, and ending one week later with Preference Tea. Costumes, entertainment and refreshments were utilized to create themes for the Flapper, Circus, Western, Calendar and French parties. The chapter was delighted to have Mrs. Robert Wild, Grand President and Mrs. F. J. Haurff, Gamma Province President, present for pledging on September 20.

Both actives and pledges were hostesses for fraternity rushing. The weekend of September 26 found Pi Beta Phi at the chapter houses of  $\Lambda \tau \Theta$ ,  $\Sigma \Lambda \epsilon$ ,  $\Sigma \chi \Delta$ ,  $\Delta \tau \Delta$ ,  $\Sigma \eta$ ,  $\Phi \Sigma \kappa$ ,  $\Phi \Delta \tau$  and  $\tau \epsilon \kappa$ .

A Mothers' Club Tea was held the afternoon of October 11. Here the new pledges and their mothers met the mothers of the actives. At the annual Pledge Dance, sponsored by Panhellenic, the pledges of all the Greeks were introduced to the campus. The theme "Rocket to the Sky" was emphasized by the stars and space objects hanging from the ceiling. The Pi Beta Phi pledges were honored once again on November 13. The occasion was an open house for all campus friends.

BETTY ANN OGBURN

*D.C. ALPHA—THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1889, Pledge Day, September 30, 1953. INITIATED, September 20, 1953: Anne Auman, Alexandria, Va.; Barbara Harvey Baltimore, Md.; Sally Ricci, Washington, D.C.

D.C. A started its fall term at a completely reconditioned University this year. The buildings sparkled under a new coat of paint and at the University President's dinner for student leaders, attended by three Pi Beta Phis. President Marvin outlined plans for the new School of Engineering and Law School library buildings.

The finish of formal rushing was a relief for Anne Page who piloted both girls and sororities as president of Panhellenic. Ann and Nell Weaver also found the University's new Freshman Orientation program had its trying moments. As Treasurer and President of Mortar Board their black skirts and white jackets prompted one young freshman to ask who the girls were in the "dinner jackets." The chapter did feel that this new program, started last year by a Pi Beta Phi, Maxine Sauerl, will be a tremendous help for both incoming freshmen and the University in coming years.

Carlene Parker, the Co-Editor of the 1954 yearbook, The Cherry Tree, has been busy working side by side with her associate editor, Doris Johnson. Busy, too, have been the two members of the University's pep club board, Anne Holford and Carolyn Shupe. Working with these two Booster Board members are five Pi Beta Phi cheerleaders; Peggy Nichols, Ruth Berryman, Betsy Silver, Nan Smedley and Eileen Weaver.

D.C. A was very proud but humble this summer to receive notification of the winning of the Philadelphia Vase Award jointly with Alabama A. The chapter hopes that in future years it may continue to serve its University, its Fraternity, and itself even more fully than in the past.

PLEGGED: Betsy Belton, Bethesda, Md.; Beverly Bordon, Piedmont, Calif.; Sue Fischer, Alexandria, Va.; Diana Sandefer, Sherrill Seymour, Arlington, Va.; Mary Eleanor Shaw, Beverly, N.J.; Pat Wideman, Frances Zabilsky, Washington, D.C.; Marianna Wilcox, Chevy Chase, Md.

CARLENE PARKER

returned to Randolph-Macon ready to start another year filled with both work and fun for the new pledges and members. With orientation held the first week of school several of the members helped to relate college life and traditions to the incoming freshmen. Those assisting as Training Group Leaders, Assistants, and Sophomore "Ask-me's" were Belmore Hicks, Beth Perry, Tish Reynolds, Janet Westbrook, Cissy Collings, Dot Orgill, Kay Mills, Nancy Meintzer, Barbara Hutchison, Harriet Smithers and Lynn Terrell.

During the second week of school Convocation was held which was the first formal assembly of the year. It is most impressive always as it is the first time the new seniors appear in their caps and gowns. At this time the Junior Ushers, chosen on the basis of their academic standing, served as ushers. Included in this group were Cissy Collings and Jean Green.

Dr. Gillie A. Larew, Dean Emeritus, named Martha White as one of the students to Dean's List for the second semester last year.

Ann Sharpe, President of the Student Government has been busy wielding the gavel. The first time she presided this year was during orientation during an assembly at which time she introduced the new dean of the college, Dr. Harriet D. Hudson.

The chapter is very pleased and proud of their new pledges this year. They have had two parties given in their honor. The first one was an informal coke party directly after they received their bids. The second was the annual pledge banquet. A good time was had by all and it was fun to see the rush skit re-enacted and to have the pledges join in singing the Pi Phi songs.

From all reports the freshmen seemed to have enjoyed the Introductory Dance which was held the same night the bids came out. The active members introduced the pledges to their blind dates.

Formal pledging was held October 1, and the following night the ceremony was held at which time the pledges found out who their sponsors were. Following this, everyone remained at the house for the Cooky-shine.

Anne Fishwick, as President of the Y.W.C.A. presided over the "Y" Retreat which was held October 4. Those participating as members of the cabinet were Sara Scott, vice-president, Cissy Collings, Missie Jones, and Belmore Hicks.

The annual football game with the Chi Omega's is being anxiously awaited especially since the Arrows won last year by a score of 12-0.

PLEGGED: Mary Arrington, Meridian, Miss.; Beverly Beular, Houston, Tex.; Natalie Burton, Asheville, N.C.; Jo Anna Butt, Harriet Martin, Tulsa, Okla.; Eleanor Driver, Easton, Md.; Connor Dyess, Ft. Bragg, N.C.; Anne Galloway, Brownsville, Tex.; Anne Hurt, Roanoke, Va.; Mary Ambie Hutcherson, Barbara Knebelkamp, Anne Logan, Louisville, Ky.; Elisabeth Kendall, New York City, N.Y.; Charlotte Laan, Suzanne Toledano, New Orleans, La.; Jane Little, Charlotte, N.C.; Sally Ringle, Avery Island, La.; Susan Roberts, Shreveport, La.; Grace Sutelan, Norfolk, Va.; Edwina Sykes, Smithfield, Va.; Freddy Thomson, Hattiesburg, Miss.; Rosilind Wallace, Houston, Tex.; Sarah Manning Wilbourn, Paragould, Ark.; Marie Woody, Danville, Va.; Betty Young, Pine Bluff, Ark.; Helen Williams, Wilmington, N.C.; Emily Lee Willis, Ft. Washington, Pa.

NANCY SAUNDERS

VIRGINIA GAMMA—WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1925, Pledge Day, December 1, 1953. INITIATED, September 29, 1953: Mary Ramsay, Richmond.

Upon arriving at William and Mary this fall many things seemed to have changed. In place of the large hole surrounded by machinery a brand new men's dormitory had arisen named for former President Bryan. The freshmen were already embarked on an extensive, week-long orientation program.

When all the Pi Beta Phis finally made it back to school and became settled, the chapter numbered forty-one, but conspicuously absent were a number of our juniors who didn't return. Tales of summer vacations were related, but perhaps the most exciting was the news that Dot Bailey, last year's Homecoming Queen, had represented Virginia in the "Miss Universe" contest in California. It was also disclosed that "T" Marston, former President of the chapter, had been awarded the Lord Botetourt medal for "greatest distinction in grades for the class of 1953" at graduation.

The house was also harboring an additional award for Pi Beta Phi's effort. It was the college's women's Intramural Cup for 1952-53, which had been won by Virginia I last year. Another activity in which Pi Beta Phi shone was the Annual Colonial Festival at the end of the 1952-53 session. Three Pi Beta Phis Dot Bailey, Susie Trimble and Ann Johnson were on the May Court and Shirley Staubs was overall chairman for the day.

Settling down to studying was hard, but before classes even got started William and Mary beat Wake Forest in the Tobacco Festival with cheerleaders Joan MacWilliams and Bette Bodley on hand to lend support. The next day the K Σ's gave a picnic for the chapter which included a scavenger hunt and "mucho" food. October 11 found the Θ Δ X's playing host to the Pi Beta Phi at a "Russian Party" and October 14 offered the whole chapter a chance to get acquainted with the new faculty members at an after dinner coffee at the house.

BETTE BODLEY

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA. Chartered, 1923, Pledge Day, October 9, 1953. INITIATED, April 23, 1954: Ann Lane

Buchly, Tryon. Fall has descended upon the campus of UNC and has brought with it the semester system, a new football coach, three new business administration buildings, and a house full of ambitious Pi Beta Phis.

The proposed change from the quarter to the semester system caused many headaches to the faculty and many frantic schedule changes for the students last spring, but has finally been accepted as inevitable, and Saturday classes are attended dutifully though not willingly.

The handsome new business administration buildings have added much to the beauty of the campus since their completion in June and are certainly an asset to the University. The Δ Δ Δs deserve much praise for their fine new house and have moved in with congratulations and best wishes from all the other fraternities.

The North Carolina A came back to school a week early ready and willing for work and were thrust immediately into the hustle and bustle of cleaning the lawn, sanding floors, and painting and decorating the rooms. The house was bright and shiny and ready for rush, which began September 29. The scholarship cup for 1952-53, the W.A.A. cup for 1952-53, and province scholarship award for 1952-53 were polished and in view during this time.

North Carolina A especially enjoyed a Founders' Day program in April, since North Carolina B came over to take part in this celebration. Everyone liked very much meeting new Pi Beta Phis and hopes that these two chapters may come to know one another even better during 1953.

Carmen Nahm was named Miss Alumna and Patricia Coley was named outstanding senior for the year 1952-53; Alice Hazlett was Maid of X Psi; Sue Ambler is now president of the Valkyries, highest women's honorary organization on campus. In the May Court were maid of honor Carmen Nahm, Jacquelyn Fox, and Diane Breslow.

ROSALYN GASQUE

NORTH CAROLINA BETA—DUKE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1933. INITIATED: October 4, 1953: Ann Girard, Rye, N.Y.; Jean Norton, Raleigh.

Pi Beta Phi of North Carolina B came back to Duke September 15 with a newly decorated chapter room to welcome them. It is the object of much pride and of many compliments from other women's fraternities on campus.

Rushing began October 5 and lasted through October 31, a new system which it is hoped will give both rushees and sorority members more time for studying than did the former concentrated rushing period.

Homecoming was October 11, and two members of the chapter, Virginia Bush and Margaret Yancey, were nominated from their dormitories as candidates for Homecoming Queen.

Helen Willard is chairman of the Freshman Advisory Council this year and has done a fine job during orientation. Virginia Bush is president of the Y.W.C.A. Both of these girls were extremely active in the Freshman Week program, as were Mary Bryson and Margaret Yancey, dormitory presidents, and the fraternities' five freshman advisors.

PLEGDED: Sarah Pfohl, Winston-Salem.

MARGARET CROWE

*SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA. Chartered, 1928. Amidst a new crop of enthusiastic freshmen, new buildings rising against the skyline, and new professors eager to meet Joe College and Sally Coed, South Carolina A returned to college in the fall to join in the spirit of rejuvenation that has bombarded the campus.

MICHIGAN ALPHA—HILLSDALE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1887. INITIATED: October 4, 1953: Nancy Norling, Detroit.

Two members of Michigan A were tapped for Lamplighters, the equivalent to Mortar Board. They were Fay Joseph and Mary Lou Anderson. Fay Joseph was also elected president.

Also among those receiving campus honors were Rosemary Abrams, Helen Evans, Norma Myers and Nancy Moreland who were chosen on the basis of their scholarship for E Δ A.

For the third consecutive semester this chapter won the scholarship cup for maintaining the highest scholarship on campus and may keep the cup permanently.

September 22, Michigan A had its traditional open house for all men on campus.

Homecoming Day, October 10, the chapter honored their alumnae with a luncheon.

September 31, Michigan A entertained their dads at a football game followed by a dinner at the lodge.

Several members of the chapter greeted new freshmen during orientation week as mentors. Pi Phi in a group which was headed by Fay Joseph were Joyce Evans, Helen Evans, Nancy Moreland, Rosemary Abrams and Joyce Dannecker.

PATRICIA ALDRIDGE

MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN. Chartered, 1886. Pledge Day, October 4, 1953. With an exciting and eventful summer behind them, the Pi Beta Phi returned to Ann Arbor to resume studies and to open a most spirited rushing season. The rushing program extended over a two week period, and October 4, an outstanding group of twenty-three girls was pledged. Lucy Landers did a superb job as rushing chairman, and 1,000 girls were rushed this fall, which in no way lessened her responsibilities.

Social activities were highlighted October 17, when the Pi Beta Phi shared a college weekend with their fathers. They attended the Northwestern-Michigan football game and then they were honored at a dinner. Jill Coleman wrote a very entertaining skit which the girls presented in the evening. An exchange dinner with the Lawyers proved to be very enjoyable, as was the Faculty dinner November 4. Gathering the athletes in the house, the Pi Beta Phi donned their knee pads and defended their name in an exciting hockey game against K K Gamma. This challenge is met yearly, and it is looked forward to with much enthusiasm.

The house was very pleased to have Lee Fiber chosen as chairman of the Joint Judiciary on campus, and to have Donna Netzer appointed as chairman of a committee on the Student Legislature. Lucy Landers and Janet Netzer were also appointed as members of the Judiciary. The Pi Beta Phi were especially proud to have three girls working on the Joint Judiciary, since it is composed of only twelve. Sue

The Pi Beta Phi returned with memories of the successful spring semester and also with regrets of the parting of friends brought about by Commencement Day. Departing from the Circle of the Fraternity were Anne Carlisle, president of Panhellenic and member of Wbo's Wbo; Mary Bloodworth, president of A K Gamma; Helen Gunter, Sigma N Sponsor; Jeanette Dickson, Honor Board member; and Ramona Salley, Phi B K, and also a member of Wbo's Wbo.

Registration with all its tumult and turmoil was soon followed by the season's opening football game with Duke University. This event paved the way for a round of parties, open houses, drop-in's, and the general get-togethers. Pi Beta Phi's introductory Drop-In early in the season found the chapter room crowded to overflowing with students eager to renew old acquaintances. Other Drop-In's held throughout the semester proved just as successful and entertaining.

With extensive entertaining on the agenda, the chapter racked their brains and uncovered a new scheme for decorating the "Room" to make it more attractive for the social events planned for the season. Instead of being assessed, each member bought a gift for the room, which was soon flooded by a deluge of sofa pillows, potted plants, lamps, wastebaskets, and picture frames.

To prove that the Pi Beta Phi were not entirely social-minded, they attained the highest scholastic average of any organization on the campus. After reaching this rank, the chapter is trying hard to retain that top place.

Other events of the semester included a visit in November from Jeanne Wintz Horuff, Gamma Province President, a very successful rush week also in November, and Stunt Night in December. A holiday Drop-In was also given the week before Christmas vacation began, which sent all students merrily on their way toward a happy holiday.

PLEGDED: Nancy Cameron, Elrae Dutton, Delight Tiemann, Columbia; Margaret Gates, Chapin; Patsy Harley, Orangeburg; Evelyn Hasty, Monroe, N.C.; Jan Millberry, Ashtabula, Ohio; Polly Mishoe, Conway; Bettie Sue Sheriff, Springfield.

MICHIGAN GAMMA—MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE. Chartered February 17, 1945. Pledge Day, January 18, 1953. INITIATED, April 24, 1953: Jill Barrett, Flint; Barbara Brand, Royal Oak; Barbara Brines, Midland; Sue Brinkman, Elgin, Ill.; Jeanne Brumbaugh, University Heights, Ohio; Sally Crick, Alpena; Dorothy Daniel, Murphysboro, Ill.; Janice Dempsey, Ann Nelson, Battle Creek; Ann Ferguson, Highland Park, Ill.; Marilyn Happ, Wilmette, Ill.; Mary Holmes, Birmingham; Mary Lou Jolley, Grand Rapids; Susan Makosky, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Margaret McCaffree, East Lansing; Patricia McDonald, Detroit; Masa Jean Mitchell, Breckenridge; Ann Taylor, Saline; Fae Van Meter, Indianapolis.

"State Day," an annual celebration of Founders' Day which brings Pi Beta Phi alumnae and actives from Michigan A and Michigan B together with Michigan I's was held here April 25, 1953. An inspiring program was enjoyed after which Michigan I entertained with a tea at the chapter house.

April 18, 1953, the booth sponsored by Michigan I and B & O II copped first place in the Campus Chest's annual carnival. Campus Chest is a charity organization functioning on campus and in the city of East Lansing.

In May, Joyce Blasko was selected for Mortar Board. Marge Bowman was selected Sweetheart of Sigma Xi. New members of Tower Guard, sophomore women's honorary, are Sally Crick, Mary Holmes, Barbara Brines, and Ann Ferguson.

May 19 the chapter held an open house for all foreign students on the campus. A large number of students attended, and Michigan I hopes to make it an annual affair.

Upon returning to college this fall, members were welcomed by Mrs. Helen Lord, the chapter's new housemother.

Fall activities now being planned include formal rushing teas, the Monmouth Duo, a dance co-sponsored by K K Gamma, and a Homecoming buffet dinner for parents and friends.

CAROL BANNINGA

INDIANA ALPHA—FRANKLIN COLLEGE. Chartered, 1888. Pledge Day, September 26, 1953. INITIATED: September 12, 1953: Patty Wood Hardin, New Albany; Sally Henry, Greenwood; Sarah Purkhiser, Mitchell; Elizabeth Richardson, Franklin; Lucy Sconce, Indianapolis; Bonnie Thompson, Whiteland; Joan Trader, Fort Wayne.

Tapping for honorary organizations opened Franklin's spring activity season. Those tapped and their offices were Mary Lynn Wood, secretary,  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , women's journalism honorary; Ann Mullendore and Jane Teeters, secretary,  $\Theta \Lambda \Phi$ , dramatics honorary; Mary Lynn, secretary, and Ann, president, Gold Quill, Mortar Board equivalent; Elizabeth Richardson, Sarah Purkhiser and Joan Trader, Laurels, women's underclassman honorary.

Student Council named Judy Tillett vice-president and Ann Mullendore held the lead in the spring play with Joan Trader and Sarah Purkhiser playing other roles. Jane Teeters was a member of the Prom Queen's Court.

The faculty breakfast and Mother's Tea were held May 3. The chapter won the May Sing and Evelyn Armuth and Sylvia Merrill were awarded the college leadership trophy and dramatics trophy respectively on Honors Day. Both girls were graduated cum laude. Sylvia also won the Delta Province Amy Burnham Onken award.

This fall rush week ended with the Cooky-shine. Honors given were: Judy Tillett, outstanding senior in Humanities; Ruth Wells Hoeltke, greatest scholastic improvement; Margaret Griffith, sophomore scholastic improvement; Elizabeth Richardson, highest freshman scholarship. The chapter was first on campus in scholarship for the spring semester of '53.

PLEGDED: Judy Babcock, Janice Deputy, Carol Jacobs, Nanci Jones, Margaret Rice, Beatrice Wilson, Franklin; Bethany Boaz, Sue McKinney, Greenwood; Janet Cartwright, New Castle; Martha Garner, Gary; Maysanna Hendrickson, Jean Williams, Indianapolis; Joyce Ulrey, Southport.

INDIANA BETA—INDIANA UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, February 10, 1954. INITIATED, October 3, 1953: Nancy Hilliker, Shirley Jo Woolery, and Kathleen Smith, Bloomington; Patricia Anne Price, Bourbon; Marcia Combs, Evansville; Jane Hattendorf and Jean Warfield, Fort Wayne; Sut Ott, Franklin; Gail Ruth Smith, Gary; Norma Fleming and Jell Harris, Indianapolis; Zeldia Zoe Rife, Marion; Maurine Sweet, Martinsville; Judith Walter, South Bend; Jane Stratton, Sullivan; Blynn Durning, Grace Hendricks, Louisville, Ky.; Frances Hubbard, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Janet Carter, Park Ridge, Ill.; and Phyllis Witte, St. Paul, Minn.

Indiana B entered into the whirl of Fall activities by giving an open house for the six summer pledges Sunday, September 20. A few days later the chapter surprised its new house-mother, Mrs. Frederick Smith, with a cooky-shine.

October 3, 20 new initiates were the center of attraction. Many alumnae came to the initiation ceremonies and spent the weekend at the house.

The Acacias entertained the chapter at an exchange dinner September 30. All the girls enjoyed the skits and musical entertainment which the hosts provided. October 7 the Pi Beta Phi's were hostesses to  $\Delta \Gamma \Delta$  at the second exchange dinner of the year.

A new fad has hit the chapter this year. Many of the girls have started painting with oils on canvas which is marked with numbers designating what colors should be used. A few girls have quite a collection of "paintings" now.

PLEGDED: Annabelle Baldrige, Terre Haute; Carol Sue Mathis, New Albany; Charlotte Prouditt, Mishawaka; Phyllis Russey, Muncie; Nancy Ulrey, Hamilton, Ohio, and Carol Hudson, Bloomington.

SUSAN WALLACE

INDIANA GAMMA—BUTLER UNIVERSITY. Chartered, August 27, 1897. Pledge Day, Sept. 12, 1953. INITIATED, March 29, 1953: Della King, Joan Leslie, Nancy Northern, and Joan Steidle.

Pi Beta Phi, named "Typical Social Organization on Campus" in the 1953 yearbook, returned to a college life crowded with plans for forthcoming events. Chief among participants in the planning groups include: Maureen Pleak, YWCA President, K B President, AWS Secretary, and Chimes; George Ann Varnes, YWCA Secretary and Scarlet Quill; Bev Siegel, co-editor of 1954 Drift, and Chimes; and Bev Baldwin, Patsy Cox, Cherry Sheppard, and Judy Woolgar, Spurs.

Indiana  $\Gamma$  received several awards and honors last spring, including plaques for hockey and swimming, the Dyer award (Mary Lou Hurley), Junior Prom Queen (Mary Grady),  $\Phi \kappa \Phi$  (Carolyn Adams), AFROT C Sponsors (Judy Woodgar and Valera Hume Wolf), and Drift Beauty Queen (Barbara Bugg Thompson).

PLEGDED: Linda Barrett, Blanche Boozie, Barbara Boles, Carol Bristol, Julie Farris, Nancy Fleming, Ann Hershie, Barbara Hofherr, Carol Johnson, Ann Kohlmeier, Suzanne Lucas, Sandra McCarthy, Patricia Manley, Marilyn Mills, Joanne Niehaus, Paula Silberman, Judy Spencer, Joanne Spivey, Katherine West, and Nancy Wyand.

BEVERLY SIEGEL

INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1921. When the members of Indiana  $\Delta$  returned to college this fall, they were delighted with the newly decorated living room. New wallpaper, carpets, and drapes were combined to make a lovely room.

Gallons of homemade ice cream were consumed as faculty members, townspeople, and students joined in the fun of the annual  $\Sigma \chi$  Farm Frolic.

Construction was begun on a huge parking lot in back of the Purdue Memorial Union. Students watched with dismay as trees and lawn were replaced with cement.

Excitement filled the air before every football game. Highlights of the season were the Senior Cord Parade and Homecoming.

Activities continue to hold the spotlight. Elizabeth Minnich is senior executive of Student Union. Serving as associate editor of Debris, college yearbook, is Suzanne Lowe. Treasurer of the junior class this year is Sylvia Diehl. Last spring Elizabeth Minnich was tapped by Mortar Board.

SARAH ROBERTS

INDIANA EPSILON—DEPAUW UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1942. Pledge Day, September 23, 1953: September 13 the members of Indiana E arrived at DePauw. The chapter was anxious again this year to view the results of the painting which was done to the second and third floors over the summer. This work now completes the painting of the entire house.

Rush began September 16 and ended the following Tuesday. The members are extremely proud of their 22 new pledges, which were welcomed in by the  $\Sigma \chi$ s at the open house September 25.

Field Day officially ushered in the year, which Indiana E hopes will prove to be as good, if not better, than in preceding years.

PLEGDED: Paula Boyer, Jane Alvis, Gayle Purves, Indianapolis, Sue DeCosted, Clayton, Mo.; Carolyn Kay, Milwaukee, Wis.; Honey Birdwell, New York City, N.Y.; Harriet Fultz, Rochester; Phyllis Hahn, Gary; Jackie Snyder, DeKalb, Ill.; Cathy Ashley, Evanston, Ill.; Rosanne Miller, Fort Wayne; Kay Barthelme, Canton, Ohio; Carol Rudolph, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Anne Jaudon, Webster Groves, Mo.; Lee Roszell, Greensburg; JoAnn Neudecker, Louisville, Ky.; Adrienne Ives, Huntingdon, W. Va.; Janice Harrison, Columbus; Sue Richardson, Auburn; Peggy Steffen, Vincennes; Nancy Ford and Mary Shauman, Kalamazoo, Mich.

INDIANA ZETA—BALL STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE. Chartered, August 23, 1952. Pledge Day, August 21, 22, 1952. INITIATED, March 29, 1953: Virginia Picker, Auburn; Kay Black, Delphi; Marilyn Bruick, Nancy Lee Clark, Ft. Wayne; Jo Ann Elsea, Janet Graves, Peggy Pollock, Kay Sexton, Indianapolis; Jo Ellen Livezey, Middletown; Sally Alexander, Virginia Caupp, Nancy Clevenger, Martha Daugherty, Mona Daugherty, Barbara French, Barbara Gardner, Jane Grover, Jo Anne Jackson, Nancy Lineback, Marilyn Manning, Muncie; Barbara Buckels, Shirley Locker, Pat Summers, New Castle; Rose Marie Marshall, Rushville; Esther Eller, Topton; Mary Ann Milliner, Wabash; Lucy Wolfe, Warsaw.

A perfect ending to a successful year came when Jacky Smith reigned as Queen of the Junior Prom May 23, and Indiana Z placed first on campus in the scholarship rating for the year. Three Pi Beta Phi's, Arlene Ahlgren, Alice Myers, and Jody Snider, were Honor Graduates.

Spring term contained many varied activities. The Military Ball was held March 14, with Nancy Lee Clark and Jane Grover chosen as members of the queen's court. Diane Wiley was a member of the queen's court for The Orient, Ball State's yearbook.

April 26 was Parents Day at Ball State. The Pi Beta Phi entertained their mothers at a brunch. The Inter-Sorority Inter-Fraternity Sing was held in the afternoon; Indiana Z placed second singing "Of Thee I Sing."

"Get Happy" was the title of the junior follies presented May 4 and 5. Peggy Pollock was cast in the lead of this production with Kay Gibbons and Donna Spangler also members of the cast. Peggy Starkey, Barbara Oakes, Jerry Kierspe, and Diane Wiley were in the chorus line under the direction of Jacky Smith. The opera, "Hansel and Gretel," was also presented during this month; Marlene Koenig and Peggy Pollock held the leading roles.

Among the highlights of the spring was the first State Day to be attended by members of Indiana Z, held April 18, in Indianapolis; and the annual dinner-dance at the Delaware Country Club May 8.

During the summer Jo Ellen Livezey was chosen "Queen of the Lake" at the Mermaid Festival held in North Webster.

On returning to campus September 10, members of Indiana Z found that many changes awaited them. A record-breaking freshman class has greatly increased the enrollment of the college. A new section of the Practical Arts Building, housing the Home Economics Department and the Business Education Department, has been completed and is now in use. Plans are being completed for a new women's dormitory; construction will begin this year.

The Inter-Sorority Tour was held October 3 and 4, with all unorganized women meeting each women's fraternity as a group. Although Ball State has a system of deferred rush, the Pi Beta Phis are looking forward to rush, and plans are being made for the three parties which begin the latter part of October.

EPSILON PROVINCE

MISSOURI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI. Chartered, 1899. Pledge Day, October 8, 1953. INITIATED, Sept. 4, 1953: Suzanne Acuff, Lee's Summit; Sara Dixon, Brookfield; Ann Templeman, Bethany; Nancy Gibbs, Rochepoort; Sylvia Wood, Normandy.

The black and gold freshman beanie has returned to the campus of the University of Missouri, bringing with it an increase in school spirit and enthusiasm. Sophomore Council, including in its membership Ann McDonald, Nancy Gibbs and Marilyn McDaniel, is the group responsible for carrying out this idea. A tug of war between the freshmen and sophomores was held the morning of the Homecoming game to determine whether or not the freshmen could take off the beanies.

The Pannhellenic picnic was held October 10 at Cosmopolitan Park. This is an annual fall event when all of the women's fraternities on campus take a holiday together. The afternoon was spent in playing games and catching up on the latest news from other houses.

Missouri A was quite proud last spring when Carolyn Clark was tapped for Mortar Board. Carolyn is editor of the 1953 year book, Savitar. Carolyn, Sylvia Wood and Mitzi Walch were three of the approximately fifty students who attended the Student Government Association-Student Union leadership retreat held early in October.

MITZI WALCH

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY, Chartered 1907. Pledge Day, September 28, 1953: Missouri B had a very successful spring semester. The centennial year was climaxed by a charity dance at which Elizabeth Gentry was crowned "Miss Centennial of 1953" by comedian, Robert Q. Lewis. The Pi Beta Phi booth, built under the direction of Doris Fleisch, won first place at the Thurtene Carnival. Nancy Sharp was a special maid to the Engineer's Queen and Katie Berry was a maid to the Beaux Arts Queen. Jean Ann Rosenbaum was a special maid to the Hatchet Queen and Lina Williams became the Sweetheart of  $\Sigma A E$ .

Other individual honors included Ginny Rainey, elected to Phoenix, the physical education honorary, and also as new president of the Women's Recreational Association; Clare Harding, the new vice-president of A A  $\Delta$ , the freshman women's honorary; Mary Anne Hedley, president of the Red Cross; Elizabeth Gentry and Addie Stephenson, elected to Chimes, the sophomore women's honorary; Joyce Taylor, elected to Mortar Board; Helene Martin, elected to  $\Phi B K$ ; Lina Williams and Addie Stephenson, new members of the Quad Club Governing Board.

In March, the chapter had a very enjoyable visit from Mrs. Helen Russell, the Province President. During her visit she was able to attend the Mother, Father, and Daughter Banquet, which was a huge success. In May, the spring formal was replaced by the "Monmouth Duo." Pi Beta Phi joined K K  $\Gamma$  to give a dance, to commemorate their mutual founding at Monmouth College.

This fall's rush season ended with Pi Beta Phi acquiring 15 new members in the pledge class. The pledge formal was held October 9 and the fall house party was the following weekend.

PLEGDED: Nancy Aitken, Nancy Clipner, Rae Davis, Constance Edwards, Chickie McDonald, Betty Nelson, Neta O'Mara, Judy Richter, Nora Ross, Peggy Trigg, St. Louis; Patricia Ann Collins, DeSoto; Phyllis Happenny, Springfield, Ill.; Betty McCullough, Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Martha McCutchan, Terre Haute, Ind.; Shirley McDonald, Monroe, La.

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE. Chartered, 1925. Pledge Day, September 22, 1953: The highlight of the fall semester was the opening of a new Natural Science Building on the campus. All students, especially natural science majors, are very proud of this beautiful addition to the University.

September 19-20 four Kentucky A's went to the annual leadership workshop sponsored by the University.

Nancy Gaines was recently elected chapter president of Cwens, the national sophomore honorary for women, and Betty Bassett is the new vice-president. Lois Bewley was chosen one of the six cheerleaders for the University of Louisville.

Tuesday, September 29, the Kappa Alpha Order invited  $\Pi B \Phi$  to join forces with them at one of their rush parties. For that night their house was an "Old South" gambling hall where everyone danced, played cards, or simply chatted.

Kentucky A honored its new pledges with an all campus Open House Wednesday, October 7.

PLEGDED: Ruth Southwick, Ann Sherman, Anne Shullhafer, Pat Hinsdale, Elizabeth Hanner, Margot Beard, Betty Miles, Sylvia Zweifel, Joan Evetts, Lois Bewley, Jeannie Ray, Margaret Fife, Paula Wolford, Louisville; Martha Mohr, Anchorage; Sally Driscoll, Jeffersonville, Ind.

INITIATED, April 26, 1953: Connie Bixler, Erie, Pa.; Louise Brown, Ft Meyers, Fla.; Nancy Jean Smith, Helena Ark.; Kathryn Summers, Sarasota, Fla.

September 30, 1953: Margaret Jane Linebaugh, Guthrie, Ky.

The sooner or later in college planning has come to Vanderbilt. The community watches the annex to the hospital, the Graduate Science Laboratory, progress. Forecast for January is the million dollar plus Rand Hall housing the bookstore, postoffice and dining halls. The new Assistant Dean of Women, Miss Betty Witt, will have Sylvia Sanders as Resident Hall President. The new Director of Student Christian activities, Jack A. Niesman, will be supported by Carolyn Green, secretary of the SCA, and eight  $\Pi B \Phi$ 's on the cabinet. The eleven man football team is under the tutelage of new coach Art Guepe and his twin brother from Virginia. While cheerleaders Virginia Kinkannon and Joan Askwed led Homecoming was filled with enthusiasm.

Instead of the fall term beginning with rush week a new program of orientation took place. The Advisory Council with Jane Macleod, secretary, and six  $\Pi B \Phi$ 's on the council;

Orientation Committee with Joanne Marsh and Carolyn Green; Student Senate with senator Sue Trafton; and the SCA planned freshman activities of mixers, house dances and picnics.

When the spring elections were held Shirley Vickers was elected secretary of the Honor Council for the second year as well as the first girl to be business manager of the A Cappella Choir; Joan Askew was Freshman Queen; Sylvia Sanders and Shirley Vickers were tapped Mortar Board; and Sara Elizabeth Fuller, and Jane Nicholson, were elected to  $\Phi$  B K. Ending the year of activities Mary Lawrence Faegin, junior and Football Queen was elected Miss Vanderbilt of 1953.

ZETA PROVINCE

ALABAMA ALPHA—BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE. Chartered, October 7, 1927. Pledge Day, September 29, 1953: Rush season gave Alabama A an opportunity to show off the Philadelphia Vase and the attractive Kappa Province Scholarship Plaque. A highlight of this fall's rushing was a clever Clown Party starring "Pipichio." Lyrics and skits were the work of Lee Kirby and Carolyn Cox. Pledge Day was brought to a climax with the traditional cooky-shine.

Birmingham-Southern freshmen received a wonderful introduction to college life at the second annual Freshman Camp. Among the student leaders contributing to this orientation program were Gerry Palfrey, Betty Jane Stone, Frances Sensabaugh, Lee Kirby, Ginger McVea, and Carolyn Cox.

All resident girls are literally up in the air over their lovely new dormitory, Hanson Hall, which greeted their return to the campus. The building, which crowns the highest point on the Hilltop, features modernistic suites, air conditioning, and glassed-in parlors with unsurpassed views.

Last spring found Alabama A receiving many honors. At the Intramural Banquet the chapter was awarded the ping-pong cup and the swimming cup. Royce Wates was elected senior manager of the girls intramural board for this year. In scholarship, the chapter again excelled, ending the year with the highest scholastic average among the sororities. Many honoraries claimed Pi Beta Phis as members. Mortar Board tapped Frances Sensabaugh, Gerry Palfrey, and Marilyn Brittain. Lee Kirby was initiated into  $\Phi$   $\Sigma$  I, honorary language fraternity. Bette Prestwood led her class as valedictorian while Joanne Little received an award as the senior girl who had contributed the most to her college during her four years.

Not to be outdone, Alabama A proved that beauty and brains can go together. Reigning Queen of the May Court was Joanne Gray. Other Pi Beta Phis elected to the court were Gerry Palfrey, Ginger McVea and Frances Sensabaugh.

New pledges, alumnae, actives, and friends of the chapter celebrated at a Birthday Party, October 7. The occasion marked the twenty-sixth year that the chapter has been on the Hilltop. The chapter rooms were showered with gifts for the party, which is to be an annual affair.

MARILYN BRITTAIN

ALABAMA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA. Chartered, September 19, 1949. Pledge Day, September 13, 1953. INITIATED, October 9, 1953: Edith Abernathy, Linnie Hobbs, Birmingham; Ethel Barksdale, Sheffield; Carol Craig, Greenwood, Miss.; Myrna Humm, River Forrest, Ill.

Classes began September 21, but the Pi Beta Phis arrived at the University September 7 to plan for pre school rushing. The five days of parties were climaxed with "squeal night" when Alabama A proudly claimed its quota of 25 pledges.

When classes began the chapter settled down with the aim of reaching first place in scholarship after coming in second place among the 17 sororities last spring semester.

Arlene Bray was chosen as a cheerleader at the first of the semester, and two pledges ran for freshman and transfer representatives for the WSGA.

The Sigma Chi Derby returned to the campus October 6 for the first time in five years. Alabama B participated by giving a skit. Three Pi Beta Phis were in the finals for the honor of Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. They were Charlotte Johnston, Betty Elliott, and Margie Lawther.

Homecoming came October 24 when the University of Alabama played Mississippi State. The theme this year was 3-D, Drag Dogs Down.

Penny Leka was elected by the chapter for Corolla beauty; Mary Wingard was put up for Homecoming queen, and Connie Hull was put up for the Star of  $\Pi$  K  $\Phi$ .

This year University of Alabama welcomed a new president, Dr. Oliver C. Carmichael, to replace Dr. John Gallalee. A new four story annex to the Union Building was opened, and the SGA moved into its modern offices. The building also boasts a large ballroom, cafeteria and meeting rooms to accommodate the students. There are approximately 1000 more students enrolled in the University than in the past year.

Near the end of last spring semester Carolyn Regan was elected president of T K A, debate honorary. Joyce Keenan received the honor of  $\Phi$  B K. Lois Flowers and Libby Pockman were tapped for Mortar Board. Libby also won the award as best actress of the year by the Blackfriars. Carolyn Berry was elected president of Future Teachers of America.

LUCY HARPER OSWALD

FLORIDA BETA—FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 14, 1921. Pledge Day, September 27, 1953. INITIATED, April 18, 1953: Nancy Miller, Pensacola October 3, 1953; June Browder, Barbara Burks, Jane Cornwell, Pensacola; Mary Louise Dee, St. Petersburg; Sally Hamner, West Palm Beach; Louise Ostner, Jacksonville; Meredith Payne, Palatka.

Florida B found many new additions at the University when they returned in September, some of these being a new head football coach and staff, a new band director, and several new buildings on the campus. Not to be outdone by anyone, the chapter eagerly entered into rush week activities and climaxed the rush season by adding 22 brand new pledges to the chapter roll.

Before the term ended last spring, Phoebe Jackson was tapped for Garnet Key; Judy Simkins for Mortar Board; Barbara Henry for  $\Phi$  K  $\Phi$ ; and Mary Louise Dee, Susan Phelps, Joan Tavel, Cynthia Sweatt, and Sylvia Parrish for Sophomore Council. Various honorary departmental fraternities also claimed  $\Pi$  B  $\Phi$  members. Jane Parkman was initiated into  $\Sigma$  A I, Libby Sullenburger into K  $\Delta$  II, and Jo Nell Proctor into  $\Phi$  A  $\Theta$ . Phoebe Jackson and Joan Tavel were elected to University Senate. Mary Louise Dee was elected treasurer of the Sophomore Class. Susan Phelps was elected to Judiciary and Marcia Morris was elected editor of the school newspaper, the Flambeau.

One of the biggest thrills of the last semester came when Florida B was awarded the Panhellenic Scholarship Trophy for the third consecutive year and the pledges received the Scholarship Cup for having the highest pledge class average. Janet Sitges was awarded the chapter pledge scholarship trophy.

To give the spring semester a perfect ending, Myrtle Simpson was chosen as Dream Girl of  $\Pi$  K A and Sally Kennedy reigned as Queen of the Junior-Senior Prom. Everyone participated in the activities of "Pi Phi Weekend" which featured a Costume party, an outing at the coast, and a formal dance, all following a "South Sea Islands" theme.

PLEGDED, March 12, 1953: Nancy Bishop, Jacksonville; Janie Cornwell, June Browder, Pensacola; Mary Louise Dee, St. Petersburg; Meredith Payne, Palatka.

REPLEGDED, April 15, 1953: Nancy Miller, Pensacola; September 27, 1953: Barbara Burks, Pensacola.

PLEDGED, September 27, 1953: Barbara Agee, Dale McCartee, Mary Sidney Stansfield, Tampa; Carol Coston, Lou Parmalee, West Palm Beach; Sue Fain, Janice Jarrett, Mary Ed Williamson, Tallahassee; Dale Leary, Katherine Lindley, Pat Scheibling, Beverly Wynn, Miami; Marian Davis, Patricia Smith, Ruth Ann Whittle, Julia Wilson, Orlando; Janie Mitchell, Pensacola; Jean Tedder, Live Oak; Charlotte Patten, Phyllis Patten, Glenda Sherrill, Chattanooga, Tenn.

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE. Chartered, September, 28, 1929. Pledge Day, October, 25, 1953. INITIATED, April 20, 1953: Gloria Hall, Greenville, S. C.; Karen Klump, Cleveland Hgts., Ohio; Meredith Nail, Mansfield, Ohio; Jean Thomas, Fort Pierce.

Florida  $\Gamma$  returned to Rollins to find the chapter living room has been redecorated.

Myra Brown and Jane Laverty had a perfectly wonderful time in Birmingham, Ala. at the Workshop Convention. They obtained lots of ideas from the other chapters in the province.

$\Pi$  B  $\Phi$  is on top in the Panhellenic Council this year with Ginger Nelson as president. Florida  $\Gamma$  is taking part in the skit, sponsored by the Panhellenic Council, which is given for entering women to explain the 1953 rushing rules. Ginger wrote a new Panhellenic Booklet which explained the rushing rules to the Rollins freshmen.

A series of informal teas was given the first week of college to help the new students get acquainted. The three formal rush parties were held between October 20 and 25. The first  $\Pi$  B  $\Phi$  party was the Celebrities Party. The second was the traditional Ocean to Ocean Party; and the preferential party had the "Pi Phi Heaven" theme.

The chapter took part in the fall Basketball Intramurals and was also active in many social, and honorary clubs on campus. Myra Brown and Jane Laverty were Co-editors of the "R" Book which is an introductory booklet given to all entering students. Myra and Jane also serve on the staff of the Tomokan and the Sandspur, the college newspaper. They are also on the Chapel Staff, an honorary organization connected with all Chapel activities. Gloria Steudal has been working very hard this summer on the Student Self-Study Committee. Florida  $\Gamma$  is represented in other organizations such as International Relations, Community Service, Race Relations, Intramural Board, Student Council, and Theatre Arts productions.

GEORGIA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA. Chartered, 1939. Pledge Day, October 8, 1953. INITIATED, May 2, 1953: Carol Allen, Betty Siedelberg, Atlanta; Virginia Moore, Jasper; Ralphine Stewart, Woodbine.

Spring Quarter was really a busy one for Georgia A. The annual Stardust Ball given for high school seniors proved very successful. Activities for that week-end included a picnic followed by a formal dance at the chapter house.

All fraternity women attended the Panhellenic Workshop which was designed to foster better relations between fraternities on campus.

Angela Anderson and Shirley Grady were selected to be Student Counselors for freshman women, and Jean Thornton was elected as a representative to Student Council. Nancy Terry was I.F.C. candidate for vice president of the senior class.

The foreign students on campus were entertained by  $\Pi$  B  $\Phi$  at a typical American Easter Egg Hunt, and in return, the chapter was entertained by them at a typical foreign party.

The traditional picnic in the mountains in honor of the seniors and their dates brought activities to a close for the quarter.

ETA PROVINCE

WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN. Chartered, November 1, 1894. Pledge Day, September 27, 1953. Students returning to the University this fall found a much thinner timetable to pick their courses from. A cut in University funds has greatly affected the size of the faculty and the number of courses given.

In the spring of last year the student government was completely reorganized in order to coordinate more smoothly its many branches. Many IIB $\Phi$ s were directly connected with the student government last year. Anne Mathews and Carol Schindler were elected to Crucible for their outstanding activities and scholarship. Jan Granberg was tapped by Mortar Board; she is also the general chairman of New Student Week this year.

IIB $\Phi$  beauties also won honors at the two biggest dances of last year. Emmy Lou Garwig was a Badger Beauty finalist at Prom; Jean Riley and Jan Granberg were on the court of honor for the Military Ball. Marlene Thiele was elected Dream Girl at the  $\Delta$ T $\Delta$  spring formal.

PLEDGED: Gail Anderson, Neira Hanley, Kay Kinne, Peggy Purtell, Freddi von Redlich, Milwaukee; Kimberly Ball, Evanston, Ill.; Jane Brandley, Lake Geneva; Ellen Carmichael, Gary, Ind.; Mary Ann Falkenrath, Marilyn Tasker, Racine; Ann Forsberg, Darlene A. Peterson, Madison; Isabelle Funkhouser, Dayton, O.; Bonnie Hall, Eagle River; Barbara Iverson, Rhineland; Jane Jeffress, Golf, Ill.; Peggy Headly, River Forest, Ill.; Lynne Johnson, Skokie, Ill.; Elaine Joyce, Neenah; Katherine Lichtfeldt, Thiensville; Barbara Little, Kaukauna; Jan Overton, Janesville; Joan Elaine Scott, Urbana, Ill.; Barbara Shanahan, De Pere; Ruth Smevog, La Crosse; Virginia Temple, Appleton; Louise Urquhart, Oconto.

WISCONSIN BETA, BELOIT COLLEGE. Chartered, August 20, 1919. Pledge Day, September 27. INITIATED, September 4, 1953: Georgann Allen, Lake Geneva; Betty Foster, River Forest, Ill.; Ann Pouk, Western Springs, Ill.

Upon returning to the campus this fall, Beloit College students received with deep regret the announcement of resignation of Dr. Carey Cronis from the presidency of the college. He leaves Beloit to become provost and professor of geology at Rice Institute, Houston, Tex.

Wisconsin B gained top scholastic rank among Greek groups on campus for the 1953 spring semester with an average of 1.846. Graduating seniors outstanding in their individual scholastic achievement were Carolyn Potshke and Ann Meinking, graduated Summa Cum Laude; Joan Royalty, graduated Magna Cum Laude; and Nancy Swan, graduated Cum Laude.

Plans which are now underway for enlarging the chapter house are a topic of particular interest and enthusiasm. The project is to be completed by graduation this spring.

With the end of an extremely gratifying rush season, the chapter became engrossed in plans and decorations for Homecoming, October 17. Nancy Knappenberger was candidate for Homecoming Queen.

PLEDGED: Judy Abbotts, Caledonia, Minn.; Nancy Augustus, Evanston, Ill.; Joanne Berg, Mary Byrd, Connie Colomb, Leah Embree, Joan Grabill, Irene Schroeder, Chicago, Ill.; Barbara Hoke, Julie Rosquist, Rockford, Ill.; Ruth Garvens, Edwina Gottschalk, Joan Halmstad, Wauwatosa; Diane Buchanan, Lancaster; Karen Center, Madison; Alice Conway, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mary Demet, Cherill Street, Milwaukee; Nancy Donnell, Alexandria, Va.; Barbara Fritz, Moline, Ill.; Susan Gage, Green Bay; Marilyn Hannah, Tucson, Ariz.; Kathryn Horan, Scales Mound, Ill.; Nancy Lancaster, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Judy Meek, Western Springs, Ill.; Paula Mellott, Bonner Springs Kan.; Lillian Olson, Racine; Priscilla Pierce, Eau Claire.

WISCONSIN GAMMA, LAWRENCE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 12, 1940. Pledge Day, September 27, 1953. INITIATED, September 27, 1953: Constance Clarke, Bushnell, Ill.; Libby Goldston, Sandusky, Ohio; Jo Ann Hamburg, Edgerton; Joanne Jacobsen, Chicago, Ill.; Janet Luke, Charleston, S.C.; Patricia Meenen, Sterling, Ill.; Susan Raiford, Dowagiac, Mich.

Wisconsin  $\Gamma$  began the 1953-54 year with the pledging of 20 outstanding girls after an exceptional rush season. Patricia Bick and Betty Ziper, co-rushing chairmen, did a wonderful job. Following the pledging ceremony the Fox River Valley Alumnae Club gave a banquet for the entire chapter at the Riverview Country Club. At the banquet Kay Murray was awarded a certificate as the active with the highest scholarship, and Patricia Meenen was awarded a certificate for being the active who had increased her grade point the most from semester to semester.

Representing IIB $\Phi$  in the elections to Mortar Board last May was Jean Curtis, now a senior. This year Jean is head counselor at Ormsby Hall, the freshman dormitory, where Helen Williams is a junior counselor. Libby Goldston, a sophomore, is counseling at Peabody House.

May Day, which is usually held on Mother's Day, is a big event on the Lawrence campus. Last May Susan Matthews was chairman and mistress of ceremonies. Lois Tomaso and Marion White were among the seven senior women elected to the May Court. In addition, Jean Curtis and Donna McDonald were elected to the staff of the Ariel, the school yearbook.

Social and school activities were not the only things in which the Wisconsin I girls participated. They took first place in hockey, volleyball, basketball, softball, and tied in swimming contests.

PLEGGED: Carol Bardon, Beverly Hart, Appleton; Susan Bradley, Wausau; Sue Carol Bruce, Janesville; Louise Cardine, Rockford, Ill.; Barbara Craig, Calumet, Mich.; Jane de Mint, Elizabeth Erskine, Evanston, Ill.; Judith Gross, Fox Point; Nancy Harwood, Delavan; Leolyn Lentz, Glendale; Mary Ann Lohf, Milwaukee; Nancy Nickles, Madison; Celia Niessen, Wheaton, Ill.; Sharon Senturia, St. Louis, Mo.; Susan Willem, Dundee, Ill.; Marilyn Wilson, Highland Park, Ill.; Mary Sue Woolley, LaCrosse; Mary Custis, Webster Groves, Mo.; Suzanne Whitmore, Libertyville, Ill.

ILLINOIS ALPHA, MONMOUTH COLLEGE. Chartered, April 28, 1867. Pledge Day, October 10, 1953. INITIATED, October 4, 1953: Patricia Cambell, Marion Van Zelst, Evanston; Shirley Myers, Avon; and Sally Ward, Galesburg. The fall semester opened Sept. 15 and Illinois has already begun another active year.

Greek Week officially opened with the Panhellenic Tea in the Fine Arts Building September 21. Freshman Week was previous to this and many of the girls were already familiar to the chapter. Coke parties were held the following week and the informal rush party. This year IIBΦ took the girls to Holt House in trucks, where the theme of the party was Gay Paré. The Formal Dessert gave Holt House a different atmosphere with the candle-light banquet table.

At the close of 1952, Elinor Heron was elected to the office of Student Body Secretary. Marion Van Zelst was chosen track queen at the Midwest Conference Track Meet held at Monmouth. Also Janet Presley was Queen of the ATO formal and Margaret Ramsdale was Queen of Hearts at the ΣΦE spring formal. This year Nancy Earp is treasurer of W.A.A. and of Panhellenic Council. Janice Brunner is president of Crimson Masque.

MARGARET RAMSDALE

ILLINOIS BETA DELTA, KNOX COLLEGE. Chartered, 1930. Pledge Day, November 23, 1953. INITIATED, March 8, 1953: Judith Eaton, West Lafayette, Ind.; Marilyn Foster, La Grange; Erica Jung, Arlington Heights; Marilyn Kreitzburg, Waterloo, Iowa; Nancy Merrill, Wellesley Hills, Mass.; Patricia Nelson, Riverside; Sheila Doyle, Itasca; Carol Pankey and Jan Yates, Evanston; Jeretta Popham and Dorene Smith, Galesburg; Nancy Taylor, Canton; Mary Werner, Chicago. INITIATED, April 25, 1953: Dolores Dressander, Oak Park; Evangelynn Rose, Highland Park.

At the end of spring quarter, 1953, the members of the Illinois B Δ Chapter received the following honors: Jean Anderson and Joyce McGrew, secretary and vice-president of "Puddles-on-the-Right"; Roberta Schlick, vice-president of W.R.A.; Patricia Nelson, Carol Pankey, and Jeretta Popham, freshman commission; Roberta Schlick and Janet Wagner, Mortar Board; Louise Lord and Elizabeth Sutherland, ΦBK; and Sara Jane Allensworth, Jeretta Popham, and Marilyn Kreitzburg, honor scholars for the following year.

As they returned to the Knox campus, the students were very pleased to notice the exterior redecoration of Whiting Hall, the women's dormitory. Whiting Hall has been newly painted and has also had new stairs added to the front of the building.

The members of the BΔ Chapter are very pleased with the additions to the Panhellenic House. The board bought several new chairs, lamps and tables.

At the annual college Dad's Day, October 10, IIBΦ again gave a party for their fathers. An open house was held after the football game and coffee and doughnuts were served. This gathering is now a tradition with the chapter.

The Pi Beta Phi Pow Wow, the annual fall party, was held October 2. The clever Indian costumes made and worn by the members and their dates helped to make the party such a success.

SARA JANE ALLENSWORTH

ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 26, 1894. Pledge Day, September 27, 1953. Returning students found their view of the lake somewhat blocked. Centennial Hall, a huge classroom building, is being constructed to be ready Fall 1954. The Pi Beta Phi had a pleasant surprise when they walked into the house this Fall. Beautiful new carpeting was put in the living room and, each bedroom was supplied with a new desk and bed lamps.

Last spring quarter, Northwestern kept II B Φ busy. The annual Waa-Mu Show, which is the college's largest production of the year, used much II B Φ talent. Jane Kelly had one of the song leads; Carolyn Poland Schumate was chosen for girls dancing sextet; Joanne Allaband, Lynn Behrman, Maribeth Perry were dancing girls; Sherry Hellyer, Tommie King, Marilyn Melvin were showgirls. Sue Cummins was co-chairman for the Waa-Mu Showbook Committee.

May Day Ceremonies were very successful for Illinois E. Sue McCaughan was chosen president of A A Δ, freshman women's scholastic honorary; Sue Cummins was selected for Shi Ai, junior women's honorary; Virginia Landwehr, Illinois E President, was tapped for Mortar Board, of which she was later elected president. Ginny also received the University Guild Scholarship to be used her senior year. Three outstanding junior women from the University are selected for this honor.

Founders' Day Luncheon was held at the Illinois Bar Association in Chicago. Illinois E provided entertainment for the alumnae.

Northwestern activities will be aided this Fall quarter by II B Φ Fashion Fair, a large scale style show, chose Sherry Hellyer, Marilyn Melvin, Char Howard, and Lori Hanley for models. The Dolphin Show, which is the water show, had Sue Cummins as Costume Director and Alice Shaw as Make-up Director. Ginny Landwehr is Chairman of the Sorority Presidents' Workshop. Ginny is also AWS representative to Student Governing Board; she was also elected secretary to SGB. Janet White is the Panhellenic representative to SGB. Panhellenic Association is being led by Marty Reed this year.

II B Φ highlighted the Fall quarter social season with a Barn Dance October 23. Football season kept Illinois E busy with open houses after the games, and exchange parties with different fraternities.

NBC-Radio is putting on a new show called "College Quiz Bowl." Four Northwestern students are competing against four men from Columbia U. Each week, a different college competes. The winning team stays on for the next week. Ginny Landwehr was chosen as one of the students to represent Northwestern.

PLEGGED: Dorothy Anderson, Skokie; Mary Ellen Clark, Ottawa; Wanda Petrusis, Lockport; Marcia Crawford, Char Howard, Chicago; Nancy Egner, Glenview; Ginifer Grant, Barb Lammers, Winnie Stout, Evanston; Mary Murphy, Wilmette; Sue Brown, Valparaiso, Ind.; Pam Motis, Mishawaka, Ind.; Sara Allen, Dayton, Ohio; Carolyn Lord, Toledo, Ohio; Nancy McDonald, Columbus, Ohio; Dorothy Ross, Cincinnati, Ohio; Margaret Cormack, Racine, Wis.; Barbara Kahlenberg, Two Rivers, Wis.; Jan Jansen, Excelsior Springs, Mo.; Dorcas Taylor, Richmond Heights, Mo.; Ann Edmunds, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Dixie Bruffat, Bettendorf, Iowa; Jan Davis, Boulder, Colo.; Marilee Copeland, Portland, Ore.; Barbara Brown, Birmingham, Ala.; Marilyn Dykes, Deland, Fla.; Gloria Gale, Arlington, Va.; Mary Hanley, Parkersburg, W.Va.; Susan Harman, Lock Haven, Pa.; Joan Zuegner, Darien, Conn.

SUZANNE GREEN

ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, June, 1954. INITIATED, October 3, 1953: Doralie Flutcher, Pueblo, Colo.

Illinois Z returned to Champaign this fall with memories of the 2nd place victory in Spring Carnival. With the Σ X's "Barum Gayly" was produced in April.

13 girls were pledged during a week of formal rushing last June. Although the pledge class of '57 is small, it is already making up in enthusiasm what it lacks in size. A "Billboard Bounce" was given for the new pledges October 17.

Homecoming came to the campus of Illinois November 7, and it was preceded by vigorous campaigning on the part of the chapter. Lyn Miller was the Pi Beta Phi candidate for queen.

An enjoyable weekend was spent when the members' fathers moved into the chapter house on Dad's Day, October 31. The dads enjoyed two active days of college life including the Illinois-Purdue football game, a banquet at the chapter house, a cooky-shine, and a typical U. of I. Saturday night with their daughters for dates.

Illinois Z is very proud of the members of its chapter for the number of honors that were earned during the spring. Carol Seibert, Jane Hayes, and Sharon Mayhall were elected to membership in Mortar Board, Ann Litherland, Marilyn Kasson, Donna Cadwallader, Jane Thiem, Gail Furnall, Peggy Pool, and Carol Cox were tapped for membership in Torch, junior women's honorary. The sophomores also were honored with the election of Jeanne Brunkow and Carol Lundin to Shi-Ai.

Besides these honoraries Illinois Z has many members who are active in college activities. Carol Seibert is vice-president of the Illini Union, Sharon Mayhall is vice-president of Panhellenic, Jane Hayes is a senior manager of Star Course and Carol Cox is president of Shi-Ai. Peggy Pool is directing the circulation department of the Daily Illini and Ann Litherland will be in charge of Spring Carnival next April.

PLEGGED: Alice Baker, Glen Ellyn; Nancy Fischer, Sally Fischer, Granite City; Mary Hagebush, Ashley; Mary Hartray, Wilmette; Ruth Hawkins, Western Springs; Carol Hoffee, Paula Miller, Arlington Heights; Nancy Lewis, Bloomington; Rhea Peterson, Des Plaines; Elizabeth Whittington, Sparta; Donna Williams, La Grange; Nancy Webber, Paxton.

CAROL COX

ILLINOIS ETA—MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1912. Pledge Day, October 17, 1953. INITIATED, October 3, 1953; Sally Bloss, Paris.

School bells tolled as the Pi Beta Phis of Illinois H returned for another year. As soon as suitcases were unpacked, rush began led by rush chairman, Dorothy Pride. The new Millikinites were greeted by the Pi Phi Premiere open house. The next afternoon the Chez Pi Phi was held, an informal party. Catacombs, treasures, and pirate costumes beheld the rushees next as they searched and finally found their treasure. The cozy "Annie Get Your Arrow" led to the grand climax of "Pi Phi Heaven." Tired but happy, Illinois H proudly claimed her new pledges on September 20. Mr. Otto C. Keil, president of the Decatur Board of Education, brought formal rush activities to an end as he spoke to the Millikin actives and pledges at the annual Panhellenic Banquet.

Registration figures this year dropped to 875, but enthusiasm is still going strong. Construction is under way for the new Scovill Science Hall which faces the chapter house. Successful homecoming plans followed the theme "Big Blue—Follow Through." Lyn Ryerson headed the Dance Arrangements Committee, and Ruth Butts was co-chairman of the Committee on Alumni.

Illinois H was very honored by a fall visit from Mrs. Kitty Taylor Cronkite, a charter member of Delta Theta Psi, the forerunners of this chapter. The Beaux and Arrow Ball, annually held in honor of new initiates and pledges, as well as exchanges with campus fraternities was held in the chapter house.

Pi Beta Phi are well represented among the various campus organizations. Alliene Hoogstraet is secretary of Student Council, Mary Robinson is secretary of Panhellenic Council, Martha Turner is program chairman of Home Economics Club, Carlene Stegenga is president of Home Economics Club, and Jean Morris, Barbara Smith, Alliene Hoogstraet, and Marty Robinson are on the school newspaper, the Decaturian. Assistantships also went to Pi Beta Phi in the Business and Home Economics Departments.

AFFILIATED: Mary Lou Deal, Kansas B; Shirley L. Smith, Texas I.

PLEGDED, September 20, 1953: Marlene Blasingame, Sheila Brewer, Marda Hasings, Marylyn Quigley, Jean Stewart, and Carolyn Tenney, Decatur; Nancy Ash, Harristown; Sharolyn Brooks and Dorothy Dunn, Hillsboro; Judy Grief, Gary, Ind.; Betty McHattton, Marissa; Barbara Smith, Springfield, and Lois Traeger, Des Plaines.

October, 1953: Diane Primm, Niantic.

CARLENE STEGENGA

ILLINOIS THETA—BRADLEY UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 1947. Pledge Day, September 20, 1953. INITIATED, January 11, 1953: Marjorie Hubbs, Springfield; Diane Hunt, Columbus, Ohio; Joanne Kustus, Freeport.

INITIATED, October 11, 1953: Joan Hamilton, Crystal Lake; Rita Johnson, Peoria; Marjorie Leonard, Crystal Lake; Patricia Sternberg, Arlington Heights.

Illinois Theta returned to school this fall to begin their first major rush in their beautiful new chapter house that was finished last spring. The new house must have truly inspired all the members, for one of the most successful rush weeks in Illinois Theta's history was seen this year. A tea was held the first day, followed by a Chinese party, and a toyland party. Rush ended with our traditional preferential dinner.

Helping Illinois Theta to get an even better start this year were the many offices to which Pi Beta Phis were elected at the end of last semester. Some of these honors were the assistant year book editor, Home Economics Club vice-president and president, English Club president and vice-president, Women's Recreational Association president and three board members, Sigma A I president, Chimes secretary, historian of Delta Phi Delta, the president and vice-president of Wakapa, vice-president of Student Council, chairman of interfaith council, society editor of the newspaper, president of Y.W.C.A., and president of Women's Self Governing Board.

Mrs. Bingaman, Province Vice-President, who was among the many Pi Beta Phi officers who attended the Illinois Theta house dedication held by our alumnae last May, visited us this month and all the actives were very happy to see her again.

One of the social highlights of last year was the dinner that the chapter gave for Sigma Xi who gave sixty dollars to charity at our annual Charity Carnival, for the privilege of having the Pi Beta Phi prepare and serve a meal, and entertain. The dining room was turned into an Arabian night-club, with costumes and decorations carrying out the theme.

Every member of Illinois Theta is anxiously awaiting the Christmas season, when the Pi Beta Phi Christmas formal will be held in the new chapter house. It will be the first time that a formal dance has been held in a women's fraternity house on Bradley campus.

PLEGDED: Sondra Borin, Claire Craggs, Nancy Dummermuth, Marilyn Durham, Sandra Herman, Marlene Isgren, Barbara Jurim, Charlene Marvel, Marilyn Melvin, Nancy Roake, Pat Samsel, Cynthia Siefert, Carol Sibilisky, Anne Taylor, Peoria; Colleen Gregg, Wenona; Jeanne Lindquist, Evanston; Gail Massie, Beverly Peterson, Chicago; Lois McGouvan, Clinton, Iowa; and Jane Stitt, El Paso.

DEE KIESER

THETA PROVINCE

MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA. Chartered 1929. Pledge Day, October 1, INITIATED, September 26, 1953; Marion Bartlett, Avril Laurie.

After examinations last spring some of the actives and pledges of Manitoba A spent several days at the summer home of Janette Avery at Granite Lake, Lake of the Woods.

During the summer the members met regularly to prepare for the September rushing teas. The first party was a Pi Phi Pow-Wow for which a skit was arranged and the house decorated with totem-poles, teepees, and campfires. The second tea was the traditional Red and White party, at which devils' food and angels' cake were served. The house, enhanced by pearly gates and the Milky Way, was divided into two parts, Heaven and Hell. The last tea was a formal reception, which was really successful. October 1 ended the rushing season for Manitoba A with the pledging of 11 really wonderful girls.

PLEGDED: Beverley Anderson, Carol Childerhose, Marcia Dow, Joanne Driscoll, Beverley McLaughlin, Margaret McMillan, Barbara May, Jocelyn Plant, Donna Smith, Lillian Tansony, Sally Wansbrough.

BETTY MUIR

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA. Chartered, October 7, 1921. INITIATED, September 18, 1953: Joyce Ann Garves, Coleen Hentges, Marilyn Bates, Sharon Schlechter, Renee Capranos, Shirley Lilja, Mary Helen Hillman, Lois Bailey, Mary Johnson, Julie Overmoe, Phyllis Myers, Edith Showalter, Helene Kenelly.

North Dakota Pi Beta Phi were very busy in October with Homecoming float plans and campaigning for their candidate for queen, Margie Collette. For their campaign they made several large posters with Margie's picture and catch phrases like "Don't forget Margie Collette" and "Your best bet, Margie Collette" on them. They serenaded at fraternity houses and dorms, singing their songs and their own version of "Margie."

The theme for the Homecoming float was "Hoopin' for Victory." On the trailer there was a huge silver V on which five girls dressed in hoop skirted dresses were standing. The center of the V was packed with crepe paper flowers and each girl carried several flower covered hoops to throw into the crowd.

PHYLLIS HAUGEN

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA. Chartered, 1906. Pledge Day, October 9, 1953. INITIATED, April 25, 1953: Catherine Florence, Minneapolis; La Von Thompson, Windom; Margot Thon, Northwood, N.D.; Marian Vellue, Rochester.

Campus Carnival, May 15 and 16, climaxed many weeks of practice and preparation. Seventy campus organizations participated in side shows, concessions, and competitive events. Using the theme, "Dollars for Scholars," the fifth annual Carnival raised over $7,000 for SPAN, undergraduate scholarships, and freshman camps and orientation. The Pi Phi-Phi Delt show, "Showboat," won the award for the largest attendance.

Nancy Hahn was elected to Delta Phi Delta, professional art honorary, and Jean Dingman was initiated into Phi T O, professional home economics sorority.

Phyl Dahl, Janet Skidmore, Lu Melander, and Pat Lennander all had exciting vacations in Europe this summer.

This year Minnesota A inaugurated a Rushing Workshop, held the weekend before classes started. Since rushing takes place during the first two weeks of school, the workshop enabled the Pi Phis to plan all the parties completely without interfering with school work. Minnesota A is so pleased with its workshop that they plan to continue it another fall.

A record number of girls, over three hundred, pledged sororities at the University of Minnesota this fall. In honor of new pledges on October 13 every sorority held open house for the fraternities. October 14 was the annual Panhellenic Ball which also honored new pledges.

The Pi Beta Phi entertained their dads on October 31 for a luncheon preceding the Dads' Day football game.

"Endiana" was the slogan for homecoming, played November 7 against Indiana. Joan Hancock served as chairman of the Coronation Ball, a new event at Minnesota. The queen was crowned on the Minneapolis campus rather than St. Paul, as had been done in previous years.

The Pi Phis are very proud of Marg Ellefson whose picture appeared with Minnesota football star, Paul Giel, on the cover of the October 20 issue of LOOK magazine.

The chapter encouraged by its spurt in scholarship last year, is working hard to maintain its record. A new program has been initiated for the pledges, emphasizing scholarship as well as fellowship.

PLEGGED, April 20, 1953: Ruth Tuffley, Minneapolis; Margaret Ellefson, Ardis Tollefson, Glenwood; Ruth Hultkrans, Little Falls; Rose Schottenbauer, Redwood Falls.

PLEGGED, October 9, 1953: Karen Blood, Janet Beggs, Audrey Graham, Donna Lathrop, Judie Lenz, Judy Marnie, Janet Peterson, Marian Sherman, Mary Ellen Smith, Marilyn Stiles, Minneapolis; Sandi Schaub, Rita Sullivan, Kay Weis, St. Paul; Susan Andrews, Lindstrom; Mary Bradley, Waupaca, Wis.; Gretchen Cressler, Kansas City, Kansas; Myhre Diedrick, Excelsior; Donna Lindenfalsler, Elk River; Margaret Patterson, Wayzata; Louise Wilson, Sandstone.

JEAN DINGMAN

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE. Chartered, 1867. Pledge Day, October 4, 1953. INITIATED, September 24, 1953: Helen Powell, Illinois City, Ill.; Norma Topp, Hubbard; Letitia Canby, Mt. Union.

This year has found the Pi Beta Phis of Iowa A living in a new dormitory.

The chapter came back eager to equal their record of last spring when they received the all-women's scholarship plaque and four out of the eight outstanding freshman women awards, besides having Judy Volkman crowned A X A queen and Bernita Roling  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  queen.

Following a Panhellenic party for all women, Iowa A plunged into rush week and came up as Robin Hood's merry men of Sherwood Forest. However they switched back to their own selves at the end of the week for the formal rush party held at the Mt. Pleasant Country Club.

PLEGGED, October 4, 1953: Helen Stafford, Burlington; Mary Freeland, Nancy Wilson, Centerville; Doris Eckstrand, Betty Frazier, Joan McBeth, Joyce Pulver, Ruth Ann Sponberg, Jean Ann Walters, Roberta Watts, Mt. Pleasant; Mildred Salterberg, Packwood; Roene Burghardt, Sumner; Joy Arthaud, Winfield.

BETTY CLARK

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1874. Pledge Day, September 24, 1953. INITIATED, October 10, 1953: Ramona Follmann, Massena; Nancy Head, Harlan; Shirley Leaming, Woodward; Connie Lembke, Cumberland; Bette Qualley, Chariton.

Iowa B captured first place in the annual Miniature Orpheus skits with an "Alice in Blunderland" theme. It depicted Alice, a typical college girl, elected Beauty Ball queen.

May 2 Pi Beta Phi and their dates went to Lake Aquabi for their annual picnic. The next day, May 3, Iowa B entertained members of the Simpson faculty at the faculty breakfast.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Student Union and men's dormitory were held at Commencement.

Scholastic honors on campus were attained by Martha Dinwiddie, with a 4.00 average.

Campus presidencies held by Pi Beta Phis: Lorna Miller, Women's Recreational Association; Darlene Stout, F.T.A.; Darlene Stout, Student Fellowship.

PLEGGED: Judy Proudfoot, Betty Koontz, Betty Noble, Indianapolis; Judy Clevon, Madrid; Janice Curry, Grand Junction; Marilyn Dale, Leon; Myrna Hunter, Hollywood, Ill.; Mary Officer, Burt; Margaret Olson, Boone; Janet Shultz, Griswold.

DORIS KITZMAN

IOWA GAMMA—IOWA STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1877. Pledge Day, September 22, 1953. INITIATED, April 19, 1953: Mildred Willett, Mary Jean Stoddard, Jean Murray, Catherine Grant, Ames; Rose Mary Richardson, Mary Hilliker, Des Moines; Carolyn Steger, Barbara Hicks, Webster Groves, Mo.; Shirley Bee Zust, Irene Mayer, Evanston, Ill.; Carol Ann Madill, Waterloo; Katherine Jensen, Audubon; Mary Molison, Grinnell; Jane Montgomery, Cedar Rapids; Patricia Sullivan, Alexandria, Va.; Helen Watts, Rochdale, Miss.

A newly-decorated living room and chaperone's quarters welcomed Iowa  $\Gamma$  back to an unseasonably warm fall. Skits and entertainment seemed to be the order of business as the sophomores presented a pseudo-serious glimpse of "Rules for Good Pledges."

After Homecoming's flurry, the senior class settled down to plan in earnest the fun of November 7 Dad's Weekend, or "My Heart Belongs to Daddy." From the first block-printed invitations through an exciting football game, Iowa  $\Gamma$  showed Dad college life today.

Ending last spring's work in a rush, the chapter captured the all-women's Intramural Cup for participation and winning entries in all manner of sports. On the beauty side, Sue Moore was chosen in all-college election as an attendant to the Veishea Queen-of-Queens.

Combining activities with excellent scholarship, Iowa  $\Gamma$  President Joyce Lindgren was tapped for Mortar Board at Veishea ceremonies.

PLEGGED, September 22, 1953: Elaine Elwell, Evelyn Dilts, Ames; Celeste Austin, Centerville; Nancy Bradford, Sonja Carlborg, Evanston, Ill.; Beverly Dudek, Marshalltown; Cynthia Kendall, Garden City, N.Y.; Barbara Lumbard, Des Moines; Jean Madill, Waterloo; Joyce Mittauer, Omaha, Neb.; Marilyn Mound, Webster Groves, Mo.; Roberta Nauman, Western Springs, Ill.; Jean Redman, Glidden; Sharon Warrington, Bethesda, Md.; Jane Wood, Eldora.

MARY ALICE MERSHON

IOWA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF IOWA. Chartered, 1882. Pledge Day, September 17, 1953. As Iowa Z reassembled, several major improvements were noted on the Iowa campus. First, the old Capitol building has had a rejuvenation in preparation for the University's centennial year, 1954, and also the chapter house had been given a bright new atmosphere via a summer redecorating.

Panhellenic has established a new rushee counseling system. Each chapter house has its counselor living with the rushees during rush week. Their affiliation is unknown and their duties are to give the facts concerning each house and aid whenever possible.

The Scottish Highlanders accepted 9 Pi Beta Phi pledges to make the total lassies from Iowa Z, 16. This year the Highlanders stayed within the boundaries of the U.S., and enjoyed their summer trip in Colorado as performers at the Colorado State Fair.

With football season in full swing the Pi Beta Phi and  $\Phi \kappa \Phi$ 's share in the fun preparing a float for homecoming. Kay Taylor is the Fraternity's candidate for Dolphin Queen alias homecoming queen.

PLEGGED: Julie Allen, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Toy Chaffin, Davenport; Charlotte Dafeo, Shenandoah; Dorothy Dow, Ft. Madison; Kathy Farrell, Cedar Rapids; Mary Kay Flatley, Moline, Ill.; Ginger Hunt, Tipton; Gloria Johnston, Cedar Rapids; Dedelia Kirby, Sioux Falls, S.D.; Marigrace O'Brien, Karlen Sutton, Clinton; Kay Taylor, Tulsa, Okla.; Joan Tyler, Ottumwa; Katyryn Van Ginkel, Des Moines; Jean Rinker, Burlington; Norma Jean Sippel, Carthage, Ill.; Judy Reinert, Flossmoor, Ill.; Ann Watkins, Waterloo; Sue Piper, Chariton; and Jan Papke, Sabula.

SALLY MCCONNELL

IOTA PROVINCE

SOUTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA. Chartered, 1927. Pledge Day, September 21, 1953. INITIATED, March 7, 1953: Jackie Anderson, Mary Jean Pfeiffer, Aberdeen; Beverly Beatty, Vermillion; Margaret Clark, Yankton; Sandra Espe, Peggy Moore, Nancy Voss, Mary Woods, Sioux Falls; Marilyn George, Marilyn Luther, Darlene Van Tour, Huron; Patti Grewe, Garden City; Virginia McKay, Orient; Jill Moodie, Lead; Phyllis Odland, Mitchell; Dorothy Wilkes, Rapid City.

A nearly completed new women's dormitory greeted returning University of South Dakota students this fall. The new dormitory will help house part of the increased freshman enrollment this year.

South Dakota A rose from fourth to first place on campus to win the scholarship cup for the 1952-53 school year. The announcement was made at the first convocation this fall.

Joan Vaughn, South Dakota A President was named Honorary Colonel to reign over the annual Ministry Ball last spring. She and Sally Olson were the two Pi Beta Phis tapped for Mortar Board.

Maureen Sorenson was elected to  $\Phi \beta \kappa$  last spring, and Beverly Beatty was chosen the most outstanding freshman band member.

Sally Olson, Mary Woods, Shirley Coe and Lee Lesher have all been appointed to administrative positions on the 1953-54 Coyote yearbook.

PLEGGED, September 21: Sharol Amundson, Dianne Green, Helen Krueger, Mary Siekmeier Janice Sona, Janice Tatge, Nancy Taylor, Grace Vandel, Sioux Falls; Carol Bauer, Mary Joan McDonald, Sioux City; Connie Chaussee, Ruth Fairbanks, Dorothy Lind, Vermillion; Elsie Daniels, Deadwood; Patsy Ellengson, Canton; Gayle Ann Keeney, Aberdeen; Sara

JOYCE SWAB

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, September 13, 1953. INITIATED, September 26, 1953: Arlina Harte, Sidney.

Cornhuskers spirit in this centennial year of the University of Nebraska has found expression in an extensive building program. Foremost among new structures beautifying the campus is the Nebraska State Historical Society building, completed during the summer months and formally dedicated September 27. The limestone structure, housing state historical documents and displays, complements Nebraska's unique capitol building.

Barbara Adams, masked last May for Mortar Board, was chosen editor of the Cornhusker for 1953-54. Three peppy Pi Beta Phis, Joan Pollard, Lou Sanchez, and Marilyn Eaton are cheerleaders for the scarlet and cream.

The Outstanding Actress "Oscar" was presented by Nebraska Masquers to senior Marion Uhe. Margie McCoy was chosen to lead the Daisy Chain at annual Ivy Day festivities last May and Ginny Cooper and Nancy Hemphill represented the chapter in the Queen's Court.

Cornhusker Beauty Queen Catherine Corp and Marion Uhe, named  $\Theta \Xi$  Sweetheart were just two of Nebraska B beauties honored. Barbara Hof,  $\Sigma \Phi \Theta$  Sweetheart and  $\Sigma \Phi \Theta$  Queen of Hearts and Gerdi Hord, Calendar Girl finalist, also headed the list of Nebraska beauty queens.

Margaret McCoy, Winnie Owen, and Lennie Stepanek were chosen for membership in  $\Phi \beta \kappa$ .

All pledges of women's fraternities on campus were invited to a tea sponsored by  $\Delta \Gamma$  pledges, the first social function of this kind to be inaugurated at the University of Nebraska.  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  announced that a Turtle Trot held at "Phi Delt Downs" September 30 would become an annual event. The  $X \Omega$  house entry literally "ran away" with the trophy.

PLEGDED: Julianne Beal, Joyce Johnson, Myrna Olson, Margaret Swanson, Omaha; Sue Jouvenat, Diane Knotek, Peggy Mathers, Elizabeth Stephenson, Lincoln; Geraldine Hord, Gretchen Ann Winkler, Karen Sue Winkler, Alliance; Gerayne Swanson, Lorna Uphoff, North Platte; Carolyn Elliott, Janet Kauffman, Fremont; Nancy Allen, Valley; Glenna Berry, Onawa, Iowa; Janet Jo Boyd, Superior; Jacqueline Burton, Torrington, Wyo.; Elizabeth Hackman, Grand Island; Barbara Madden, Oakland; Mary Ann McMullen, Stella; Jacklyn Stanton, Stromsburg.

JANET NUSS

*KANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS. Chartered, April 1, 1872. Pledge Day, September 10, 1953. INITIATED, March 28, 1953: Joy Brewer, Hays; Kay Coolidge, Jann Duchossois, Mary Eversull, Julie Gempel, Jo Ann Lemoine, Kansas City; June Hereford, Emporia; Maralyn Eyer, Salina; Peggy Hughes, Topeka; Marleen Moss, El Dorado; Marjorie Null, Wichita; Cynthia Patterson, Jaden Scott, Kansas City; Dorothy Smith, El Dorado; Sydney States, Dodge City; Mary Taggart, Topeka; Nancy Teed, Hutchinson; Jane Underwood, Ann Stevens, Lawrence.

September 2, 28 activities of Kansas A returned to Mt. Oread. Variety in summer vacation modes was the principal flavor of the opening pre-rush week conversations. Vacations ranged from six weeks counseling at Camp Chickagami at Winter, Wis., by 3 members of the 1952 pledge class to field work with the Tennessee Valley Authority at Chattanooga, Tenn.

With "The Wizard of Oz" as a theme, Kansas A began its 5-day rush week September 6. On the first day of thirteen teas, "Dorothy of Oz" with her dog, "Toto," and "Leo The Lion" extended greetings to the guests as they walked over the "Yellow Brick Road" into the "Pi Beta Phi Land of Oz." Inside, the "Tin Woodsman," equipped with oil can and pie-tin hat, and the clumsy "Scarecrow" circulated among the guests.

According to new Panhellenic rules, the second day of rush week was to be a series of six invitational teas of 45-minute duration. Kansas A decided to devote thirty minutes of this time to entertainment. Our large sun porch was easily converted into a "Gay Nineties Inn" with a stage at one end, while at the other end the floor supplied seating capacity for all. A vocal duet was attempted by two young ladies who confused the stage of Kansas A for the operahouse where Billy Graham was presenting his latest hit. Next, the Pi Beta Phi Players in a melodrama, par excellence, presented their version of "Curses, Foiled Again." Kansas A felt that this informal setting helped put both actives and guests at ease during the rush week period and helped gain 27 companions for "Dorothy of Oz" at the Pi Phi house.

With the beginning of the 1943-54 school season, the University of Kansas enters its third year of the freshman dormitory system of deferred pledging. After this two-year trial period, most of the women's fraternities seem to feel that the dormitory system has been quite valuable as a means of developing greater independence, character, initiative, and ability among the freshman women. As a result of this training, the women's fraternity system has progressed rapidly by using its pledges in more responsible positions at an earlier period.

Kansas proudly claims the No. 1 miler in the United States today. Wes Santee is the defending Big Seven Champion, while he holds records in both indoor mile, outdoor mile, and 880-yard runs. His most outstanding record is the United States mile standard of 4:02.4, set last June at Compton, Calif.

An unusual treat is in store for the Kansas students this fall. One of the world's leading Arab scholars, Dr. Habib Amin Faris, is visiting Kansas on the Rose Morgan Scholarship. Dr. Faris has lectured for several years at Princeton University; while at Kansas he will conduct weekly lectures concerning the Arab world in the present day. Beirut, Lebanon, is his home where he was a professor of Arab history at the University of Beirut, Lebanon.

Plans for construction of the first permanent men's dormitory designed to house 200 university men are underway. This $715,000 project should be completed within the next two years.

Kansas A has produced a bustling, bubbling-with-enthusiasm senior class. Marilyn Hawkinson is at the helm of the Student Union, while Jo Anna March occupies the same coveted spot with the University Players, the campus dramatic society. El Presidente of the El Ateneo Club is Joyce Laybourn. Leading the student body in its pep in Cheerleader, Sidonie Brown, while leading the pepsters, the Jay Janes, is Kay Lambert. Kay, Joyce Laybourn, and Marilyn Hawkinson were tapped by Mortar Board last spring.

JANE ALLVINE

KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 5, 1953.

Smiling Southern Belles greeted rushers the first day of Rush Week. Other themes were Good Ship Pi Phi, Under the Pi Phi Big Top and Pi Phi Heaven. When the pledge lists came back, 30 were new pledges of Kansas B.

PLEGDED: Virginia Ballard, Charlene Brooks, Kay Finholt, Ann Glover, Sue Hostinsky, Karen Skiver, Manhattan; Carol Antic, Kansas City; Beverly Betteis, Carol Clark, Joanne Hoff, Marilyn Lindeman, Gayle Schoenfeldt, Kansas City, Mo.; Judy McCartney, Marilyn McCready, Carol Miller, Wichita; Ann Dennis, Betty Theiss, Independence, Mo.; Mary Hannaford, Sarabel Wolf, Marion; Nancy Cobun, Hiawatha; Sally DeForest, Peabody; Cynthia Henning, Ottawa; Sarah Jolley, Princeton, Ill.; Jolene Miner, Great Bend; Gloria Schneblin, Peoria, Ill.; Kay Scott, Emporia; Marilyn Smith, El Dorado; Sharon Talbot, McPherson; Matlien Von Bose, Miami, Fla.; Ellen Wolf, Topeka.

SALLY DOYLE

COLORADO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO. Chartered, 1884. Pledge Day, October 6, 1953.

Colorado A was greeted this Fall with the good news that it had won first place in scholarship among the women's fraternities for the 1953 Spring semester.

The girls welcomed a new housemother, Mrs. Giddy, and gave a tea in September in her honor. All housemothers and presidents of the men's and women's fraternities on campus were invited.

After rush week ended in Boulder, many of the girls travelled to Colorado A and M at Fort Collins, to help start a new Pi Beta Phi Chapter there. They took the largest pledge class of all the women's fraternities at Colorado A and M.

PLEGDED: Betsy Adams, Cynthia Howe, Los Angeles, Calif.; Sidge Arnold, Djakarta, Java, Indonesia; Jane Barry, Navasota, Tex.; Barbara Bianche, El Paso, Tex.; Charlotte Bredberg, Carol Jean Hall, Carol McPherson, Kansas City, Mo.; Sally Louise Brown, Long Beach, Calif.; Babs Burgess, Diane Fraker, Ruthanne Johnson, Barbara Rathgeber, Lillian Rodriguez, Ginger Roe, Nancy Van Derbur, Gwynn Cheney, Denver; Lisa Burgess, Rock Island, Ill.; Ley Butler, Winnetka, Ill.; Julia Clark, Champaign, Ill.; Betty Drummond, Harvey, Ill.; Sally Fifer, Riverside, Calif.; Sally Flagler, Summit, N.J.; Leila Fogel, Santa Monica, Calif.; Benita Glow, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Sue Geist, Judy Kirby,

HELEN LEE SANDEN

COLORADO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF DENVER. Chartered, 1885. Pledge Day, September 21, 1953. INITIATED, May 8, 1953; Catherine Alsfasser, Denver; Marilyn Metz, St. Petersburg, Fla.

At the University of Denver, April ushered in spring quarter brimful of activities. Buddy Morrow provided entertainment for all at the Interfraternity Council dance. King Midas was chosen to rule at the Associated Women Students' dance, "Over the Rainbow."

The traditional faculty raffle officially greeted May Days 1953. Festivities during the three day celebration included a sunrise dance at 7 a.m., an All School Review, Twilight Sing, tapping by Mortar Board, O Δ K, A Δ Δ, crowning of the May Queen, the Mayfair, and as a perfect climax, the Senior Prom.

During the quarter Frances Miller was elected Queen of the Engineer's Ball. Alicia Hale was a Σ X Sweetheart finalist, and Carol Bucklin was a finalist for the 1953 Kyneisbok Queen. Mortar Board tapped Barbara Day, Barbara Hill, Karna Wangerin, Louise McLaughlin, and Ellen Terry. Seven girls were tapped for Mentors, a service organization; 13 girls were initiated into Parakeets, and 6 girls were tapped for A Δ Δ. Barbara Day and Karna Wangerin were selected for Φ B K. Presidents for the coming year include Nancy Nordlund, Panhellenic; Barbara Hill, Mentor; and Ellen Terry, Mortar Board.

Dr. Chester M. Alter, Dean of the Boston University graduate school, was appointed to succeed Albert C. Jacobs as Chancellor of the University.

With a new chancellor, a new football coach, and many new friends, the chapter is looking forward to the coming year.

PLEGDED: Marilyn Jean Allen, Marian Elisabeth Barr, Diane Carpenter, Wendy Hughes, Evangeline Mae Johnson, Mary Ann Monier, Edith Stevenson, Sandra Margaret Theis, Denver; Norma Jean Carpenter, Frances Church DeYoung, Colorado Springs; Joyce Elaine Dexter, Abilene, Kans.; Jane Lucinda Keedy, Westport, Conn.; Margaret Ann Micklich, Scottsbluff, Neb.; Eleanor Sampson, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; Ruth Woodburn, St. Petersburg, Fla.

EDITH RITCHIE

WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING. Chartered, 1910. Pledge Day, September 26, 1953. INITIATED, October 4, 1953; Mary Ann Drew, Casper; Margie Jorgensen, Pinedale.

The University of Wyoming began its activities this year with rush week sponsored by the Panhellenic Council. A new party with the theme of "Cinderella" was presented by Wyoming A and it provided a very impressive evening.

A French student, Martie Clair Verdeil, has come to live at the chapter house for the school year. Ann Zuckerman stayed with the Verdeil family in Paris two years ago.

Wyoming A has possession of the scholarship on the campus this year. All the chapter members are working hard to try to win it again and if they do, Pi Beta Phi will gain permanent possession of the cup.

ISABEL ROEDEL

UTAH ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF UTAH. Chartered, 1929. Pledge Day, October 2, 1953. INITIATED, May 3, 1953; Susan Aldrich, June Daly, Marica Hartwell, Joyce Miller, Roselyn Raleigh, Karen Read, Salt Lake City; Thelma Dalton, Long Beach, Calif.; Barbara Ann Geddes, Wichita, Kans.; Judith Laird, Dubois Ind.; Marilyn Lamborn, Ogden; Janet Trowbridge, Bountiful Utah.

Spring quarter at the University of Utah found Shauna Wood receiving first honors for Utah A Chapter as W.R.A. honor medal winner. Continuing to bring honors, she later placed 5th in the "Miss Universe Contest." During September the entire chapter attended Shauna's wedding and saw her married to Tony Trabert, Famous U. S. tennis star.

Marilyn Paulson was named "Miss Model of Salt Lake City" during the quarter. Other queens took their place at her side as Allene Anderson was chosen "Beta Bag of Β Θ Π," and Patricia Sweeney was honored as "White Rose of Σ Ν." Arlys Mason reigned as attendant to "Plain Jane of Φ Δ Θ" and Barbara Hardy brought home another trophy as "Violet Queen of Σ A E."

Queenships were supplemented by other campus activities and honors Pat McCafferty presided as chairman of the campus Panhellenic Preseason Rush Committee and Ann McFintyre served on "U" Days Committee. Honorary organizations selected new members and Π Β Φ was represented in Cwens with Pat McCafferty, Spurs with Janet Trowbridge, and O N with Joyce Melville. Class officers paid off with diligent campaigning Janet Trowbridge and Ann Wilkins are new sophomore class officers and Marilyn Lamborn is senior class secretary.

"U" Days as usual became the big campus activity week of the quarter. The crowning glory was won by Janet Blackhurst when she took her place as "U" Days Queen of 1953. Utah A also placed 3rd in Songfest as the school year came to a close.

PLEGDED: Pamela Anderson, Barbara Ayres, Elizabeth F. Boettcher, LaRue Crowell, Zoe Ann Dremann, Sharon Free, Sheila Mallory, Patricia Ann McCarty, Anne McDonough, Marilyn Orlob, Julianne Pollock, Diane Port, Patti Shurtleff, Sandra Stewart, Helen Marie Thomas, Joyce Wherritt, Salt Lake City; Mary Ellen Barnes, Washington, D. C.; Shirley Doane, Jane Hammond, Sherran Hart, Ogden; Florence Hardy, Garfield; Barbara Jex, Spanish Fork; Cleone Peterson, Fairview; Carol Wilcox, Indianapolis, Ind.

KAPPA PROVINCE

OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA. Chartered, September 1, 1910. Pledge Day, September 5, 1953. INITIATED, August 25, 1953; Mary Conner, Oklahoma City; Mignon Ellison, Norman; Suzanne Phillips, Bartlesville; Gayla Jo Velvin, Erick.

The Fall of 1953 commenced with the thrilling event of winning the Scholarship Cup and being honored with four of the thirteen outstanding freshmen at the annual Mortar Board Walkout. This scholastic average was 3,009 on the four point system. Our outstanding freshmen, Elizabeth Harsh, Carol Morgan, Suzanne Riley, and Jenonne Walker were all members of A Δ Δ, the honorary scholastic fraternity for freshman women, and were participants in numerous campus activities.

Z T A took part in rush on this campus for the first time and will be officially installed by their national officers in November.

Our pledge class of forty-two was formally pledged and honored by a cooky-shine. All of the pledges on the campus attended the annual Panhellenic picnic.

"Bon voyage" to Camilla Duncan who is studying music in Frankfurt, Germany, as a Fulbright Scholar.

PLEGDED: Nancy Attebury, Kaye Farrell, Dale Rhea Johnson, Sara Kelly, Amarillo, Tex.; Bobbi Kay Brumley, Altus; Ann Francis, Alva; Ann Kinzer Brown, Mary Frances Brown, Duncan; Phyllis Hahn, Blackwell; Ruth Ann Hutton,

OKLAHOMA BETA—OKLAHOMA A AND M COLLEGE. Chartered, August 12, 1919. Pledge Day, September 12, 1953. INITIATED, October 23, 1953; Pat Jeter, Nancy Walton, Oklahoma City; Diane Rigdon, Blackwell; JoAnn Minor, Perry; Kay Major, Enid; Jayne Dean, Tulsa.

After a very successful rush, Oklahoma B has settled down to studying in the usual manner. The chapter is very determined to win the scholarship cup back this year since it was lost last year.

The social calendar for the group has been very full. For the first time the Pi Beta Phi formed a triad with the K A Os and the K K Is. The group had a dance in the ballroom of the Student Union October 10 which was a huge success. The annual fall hayride was held October 30, and the members and their dates were entertained with a skit by the pledges. November 13 was the date of the root beer bust which was held in the house.

CLAIRE ESCOTT

ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS. Chartered, December 29, 1909. Pledge Day, September 10, 1953. INITIATED, September 30, 1953: Ruth Hale, Burdette; Doris Karcher, North Little Rock; Patty MacDonald, Weldon; Marianne Penix, Newport; Sara Steele, Little Rock; Janelle Young, Fort Smith.

Arkansas A began this year by pledging 18 wonderful girls.

During the summer the chapter house was completely redecorated. The members certainly were thrilled with the new furniture and beautiful walls, drapes, and bedspreads.

The chapter is proud of its "Little House" too. It is an attractive house next door which houses several of our members.

Arkansas A started the social calendar by holding open house for the football team, September 21. Mary Colloom, the social chairman, has made other fine plans for a pledge dance and a fall outing.

Barbara Logan, the pledge trainer, is the new Society Editor of the Traveler, campus newspaper. Mary Anne Fletcher is a Senior Counselor in Holcombe Hall, dormitory for freshman women. Ann Barrett, Mary Anne Fletcher, Lorna Stokenbury Liebenguth, and Anna Pappas were tapped for Mortar Board. Anna Pappas won the  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  Scholarship and was elected President of A W S and Mary Anne Fletcher was awarded the X  $\Omega$  Award.

Doris Karcher was "Dream Girl" of II K A, Cynthia Kenward was an Arkansas Beauty, and Lorna Stokenbury was elected Commerce Queen.

PLEGDED: Carolyn Carson, Molly McAmis, Margo Renfrow, Little Rock; Christine Corn, Lonoke; Linda Catlin, Danville; Sherryden Green, Rogers; Rosemary Johnson, Hartman; Sissy Joiner, Helena; Patia Link, Weslaco, Tex.; Martha Mullineaux, Beverly Simpson, Pine Bluff; Jo Ellen Priest, Talequah, Okla.; KaKay Roberts, Fort Smith; Tommie Rylands, Dyersburg, Tenn.; Shirley Sheehin, El Dorado; Sarah Smith, Ozark; Kay Wells, Shreveport, La.; Ann Whitfield, Fayetteville.

SALLY TISDALE

TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS. Chartered, February 2, 1902. Pledge Day, September 16, 1953. INITIATED: September 9, 1953: Jane Anderson, Calvert; Emily Boyd, Betty Claire Mayo, Houston; Julia Howard, Burbank, Calif.; Nan Bray, Austin.

Texas A terminated the spring semester with a whirl of varied activities. The week of March 2 marked the first "Greek Week" held at the University. The series of conferences and lectures concerning Greek-letter fraternities was brought to a close with a fraternity-wide dance held at the Student Union. A colorful parade of over forty fabulous floats began another memorable Roundup weekend March 27. The Pi Beta Phi Scotchman, "Mac," clad in the Wallace plaid and playing his bagpipes, copped the prize for "Second Best-All-Around Float." Alumni and students also attended the Texas relays, a barbecue, and a coffee honoring outstanding students.

Pi Beta Phi entertained six fraternities with open houses and brunches during March and April. A faculty dessert party and the K K F "come-as-you-are" breakfast in honor of Pi Beta Phi were additional high notes. Other red-letter days on the social calendar were marked by Founders' Day Banquet April 29, Varsity Carnival with the II B  $\Phi$  Cake-walk May 2, "Pi Phi Friend Night" April 16, and the chapter's spring formal May 8. Harriett Godley received "Best Pledge" award at a cooky-shine March 30, and Ted Moody and Anne Fisher were given honorable mention. Glowing reports of the installation of Texas  $\Gamma$  chapter were recounted by Virginia Boberg, Sydney Howell, Gay Blanks, and Jacqueline Ewald at the Pi Phi night program following their return.

A large group of Pi Beta Phi shared a portion of the campus limelight last spring. Maxine Zimmerman was named "Queen of the Yellow Roses" at the Acacia formal April 25 and was chosen princess of the Military Ball, March 14. Bettie Dancy was one of the five finalists for Sweetheart of the University of Texas, and Katherine Flythe was selected to be Sweetheart of  $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ . Lorraine West was elected to serve as advisor in Littlefield Dormitory, Shelby Reed was a Silver Spurs Service Award nominee, and Carolyn Carter Fischer was elected to A A  $\Delta$ . Appearing in the "Cactus" as "Goodfellows" were Ted Moody, Shelby Reed, and Sydney Howell. Sydney Howell will also serve as president of "Spooks" and secretary of "Orange Jackets." Mary Jane English is Vice-President of Spooks and Ted Moody is Service Chairman. Nalda Van Brunt now holds the position of Treasurer of "Cap and Gown."

Texas A returned this fall to a newly decorated chapter house. Special thanks go to Virginia Boberg and her committee who came to Austin during the summer to paint the chapter room and sand the floors. Several other fraternities are now living in new and lovely surroundings. A  $\Phi$  has added a third floor to their house, and  $\Sigma N$  and  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  have moved into their recently completed houses. Fraternity rush week saw a new system of rush for the 29 fraternities on the campus; this system more closely resembles sorority rush.

An item of interest but disappointment to students was Chancellor James P. Hart's resignation. Further campus news revealed plans for the proposed new English building, and a number of eminent speakers were announced for the "Great Issues" course, "The Red Menace."

ANN SUGGS

TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1916. Pledge Day, September 18, 1953.

Aims of Texas B for this year include working toward increased Panhellenic cooperation by inviting members of other women's fraternities to the Pi Beta Phi house each morning for coffee, by offering the chapter house for meetings of campus organizations and by encouraging joint Panhellenic social functions.

A second aim is greater participation in campus activities to be achieved by working in organizations and by becoming informed on such issues as installing the honor system at SMU, the possible extension of Friday night hours for women students, campus elections, and the problem of parking space on the campus.

To promote stronger ties of friendship within the chapter and to further the purposes of Pi Beta Phi is a third aim of Texas B. Slumber parties for the entire chapter will be held at the chapter house; big and little sister relationships will be promoted; charity projects such as the heart fund drive will be supported. Reorganization of some chapter offices will be made for greater efficiency.

MAJORIE LUCAS

TEXAS GAMMA—TEXAS TECHNOLOGICAL COLLEGE. Chartered, April 25, 1953.

Texas  $\Gamma$  is launching out upon the action packed voyage of this first year as a national women's fraternity. The first event of the fall semester was rush week, which terminated with the pledging of 26 students.

Elected recently to class offices: Shirley Massey, junior AWS representative, and Cathy Beaird, senior class secretary. Lena Schmidt, chapter president, is president of the Association of Women Students.

The new members of Forum are Lena Schmidt, Sue Duggan, Kathy Phillips, Margaret Ann Garlin, and Harriet Henderson. Texas I has 5 of the 13 members. Four of the five AWS officers are Pi Beta Phis; Lena Schmidt, President, Gwen Williams, Secretary, Suzanne Matteson, Treasurer, and Sue Duggan, Reporter. Texas I has one officer in Junior Council and six members out of the twenty. Gwen Williams is the Secretary-treasurer.

PLEGGED: Gladys Bain, Sylvia Deitering, Joanne Holmes, Diane Honey, JoAnn Roberts, Nelda Vaughter, Lubbock; Carol Chancy, Gladys Crandall, Fort Worth; Carol Crowds, Marilyn Stonecipher, Houston; Pat Derrick, Idalou; Annette Cochran, Childress; Deanie Edwards, Tahoka; Georgene Doyle, McKinney; Marie Fox, Uvalde; Gwen Gracey, Roscoe; Patsy Mathis, Longview; Lynn Mitchell, Big Spring; Helen Norris, Plainview; Marguerite Paschall, Vernon; Nancy Steedman, Midland; Jane Taylor, Seymour; Anne Witty, Hamilton; Beverly Wood, Spur; Annette Wilson, Slaton; Elizabeth White, Brownfield.

CATHY BEARD

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE. Chartered, October 29, 1891. Pledge Day, September 24, 1953.

Newcomb opened its first semester with a new dean, Dr. John Hubbard, who had previously taught at Harvard. Also new on the campus are two very much needed modern dormitories for the residence of men students.

The Pi Beta Phi house had a face lifting this summer. Many New Orleans members had a grand time painting it inside and out, sewing new curtains, polishing furniture, and making general improvements. The chapter also had a pre-rush houseparty in Slidell at which time everyone helped make the rush week favors, practiced skits, and had a grand time swimming, boating, and renewing old friendships.

Mildred Stouse was recently elected President of the Junior class, and was previously Chairman of Orientation. Ann Kennington and Joan Scheuermann were two of three seniors receiving athletic awards for outstanding participation. The chapter is now practicing hard for volley ball competition, in hopes of winning another cup to match the trophy won last spring in basketball.

PLEGGED: Lida Mae Smith, Rosamund Whitten, Dallas Tex.; Clare Atwell, Marion Craig, Dorothy Dakin, Houston

Tex.; Elissa Austin, Camile Fortune, Memphis Tenn.; Helen Patton, Hollywood, Fla.; Carolyn Jo Goodwin, Bastrop; Josephine Connors, Birmingham, Ala.; Ann Pleasant, Shreveport; Ann Bond, Jane Bruce, Pickens Costly, Courtney Feringa, Patricia Fleming, Ann Marie Gondolfo, Doris Guilford, Sophia Leach, Elizabeth Maught, Jean McCarroll, Carey McLean, Mary Alice Norman, Felice Perrilliat, Anne Richardson, Charlotte Schmidt, Elizabeth Osborne, New Orleans.

JANETH MURRAY

LOUISIANA BETA—LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 13, 1936. Pledge Days, September 21, 28, 1953.

Rush week got a head start for Louisiana B with a planning houseparty in Covington. Upon arriving at the LSU campus, the girls completed the final preparations for the parties. The traditional "Pi Phi Personalities" party, and the "Arrow Tea" were held, substituting a new skit, "Ocean to Ocean," for the aged "Pi Phi Premiere." Following the pledging of the 28 girls, our quota, the pledge banquet was held at the home of Mrs. Werlein—this climaxing our rushing period.

Determined to win the WRA cup, the chapter has been conscientiously attending all athletic practices scheduled for the fall months. This has paid off already since we won the swim meet. Preparations are also being made for the new song program that is to be instituted this year.

Pi Beta Phi is winning her share of honors on the campus this fall with the sophomore-senior advisory program, ROTC sponsors, and several candidates for the Junior Division and dormitory elections.

PLEGGED: September 21, 28, 1953: Jeanne Chon, Rosemary Dennison, Jane Ellison, Lois Leche, Leona Walters, Baton Rouge; Sue Craddock, Marcelle Perez, New Orleans; Shreveport, Betsy King, Caroline Naff, Maureen Shannon; Ann Borron, Plaquemine; Anne Purnell Smith, St. Francisville; Ann Wilkinson, Jackson, Miss.; Nat Fisher, Memphis, Tenn.; Alice Davis, Norwalk, Conn.; Ann Schmidt, Pass Christian, Miss.; Sherry Rial, Crowley; Beverly Dodson, New Iberia; Roan Giesenberger, Deanie Carter, Monica Lou Ray, Natchez, Miss.; Nell Bounachaud, New Roads; Dianne O'Brien, Chicago, Ill.; Alberta Mitchell, Tulsa, Okla.; Lois Nalty, Hammond; Elizabeth Conger, Oak Ridge.

JO ANNE LA RAVIA

LAMBDA PROVINCE

ALBERTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA. Chartered, September 22, 1931.

Cries of "Hey Frosh" and meek replies of "Yes, Learned One" have diminished as University of Alberta students settled into what promises to be a successful year. Frosh Week had several highlights: the traditional Snakedance, led by cheerleaders, wound its way to downtown Edmonton; Freshettes were initiated into the Indian Tribe Wauneita, an organization of all university women; a Panhellenic panel discussion explained women's fraternities; the Wauneita formal tea was held in the beautiful Wauneita lounge in the Students' Union Building; and coffee was especially popular, for all freshmen were to treat five upperclassmen to coffee.

Pre-varsity rushing parties culminated informal summer meetings. Clowns had a gay time entertaining rushees at a Circus Party in Calgary; whereas popcorn, hotdogs, and strains of "Ma, I Want to Go Pi Phi" were features of a Baseball Party in Edmonton.

MARGARET ANNE MCNAUGHT

MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1921. Pledge Day, September 29, 1953.

The new pledges and the actives munched popcorn and sipped apple cider at their slumber party October 3.

By winter quarter the students and professors will be able to establish themselves in the new math physics building, a well designed addition to the campus. The construction of the men's dormitory is well on its way.

The enrollment of the freshman class reached a mark of over seven hundred, several notches higher than last year. For the first time in the history of MSC, a set of triplets is attending this college.

September 29, Montana A pledged 21 girls. Formal pledging was October 13.

MARGE STROMNES

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 16, 1953.

Rush week and registration were the first events on the University of Idaho campus. 25 activities returned September 6.

Last spring Donna Bray, Nathelle Bales, and Suzann Moore were tapped for Mortar Board. Nancy Nelson and Billie Wilber were chosen for Spurs. Two Spurs were pledged this fall, making a total of four.

Talent in the pledge class appeared when Sonia Henriksen and Joan Baldwin were chosen as twirlers for the university band.

The Pi Beta Phis won their first football game hands down.

PLEGGED: Kristine Anderson, Rochelle Henderson, Shirley Holden, Idaho Falls; Cleora Andres, Potlatch; Patricia Axtell, Lewiston; Joan Baldwin, Kellogg; Barbara Brewer, Sonia Henriksen, Sandpoint; Carolyn Chartrand, Carol Hutsell, Coeur d'Alene; Margaret Costello, Patricia Henry, Carolyn Canon, Boise; Virginia Harris, Shirley Lint, Virginia Symms, Caldwell; Roberta Hassler, Jo Ann Schumacher, Moscow; Joyce Johnson, Worley; Marilyn Kelso, Weiser; Dixie Kroush, Emmett; Harriet Regan, Portland, Ore.; Suzanne Riley, Dubois.

CATHERINE FITZGERALD

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Chartered, 1906. Pledge Day, September 24, 1953. INITIATED, April 11, 1953: Beverly Allen, Puyallup;

Diane Blossom, Suzanne Zingmark, Seattle; June Hansen, Bellingham; Janet McCormack, Tacoma; Annali Harvila, Helsinki, Finland, September 13, 1953; Janet Hossfeld, Seattle.

Spring quarter, 1953 was a busy one for the Washington A's. First campaigning for sophomore elections and then, with wonderful cooperation from the Δ T, planning and constructing a booth for Sophomore Carnival. The booth, with its traveling theme captured second prize for its entertainment and originality.

Pi Beta Phis topped all other women's living groups by donating the most blood in relation to membership in the Spring Blood Drive on campus.

Jean Baird, past rushing captain, was elected Vice-president of AWS.

As the end of the quarter neared 28 high school juniors and seniors were entertained at the Legacy Dinner held May 4. The same night Sue Dempsey was tapped for W. Key, underclass women's activity honorary. Two more honors were received by Washington as when Laurel Bryan was chosen as the outstanding sophomore woman in the Business Administration Department and Donna Stearns and Donna Voegelien each were awarded $250 Sears Roebuck scholarships for outstanding work in Home Economics.

Spring quarter is also a time for queen contests. Pi Beta Phis were represented by Shirley French, who was chosen to be the A X A Crescent Girl; Charlotte Nelson, a finalist for Dream Girl of H K A; and Jeannie Carson who was one of five university coeds to vie for May Queen.

The Mothers' Tea and Spring Formal were both held at the chapter house the latter part of May and the year came to a pleasant conclusion with the annual Senior Breakfast. Corsages and gifts honored the members of the class of 1953 who read their class will and presented the chapter with a three speed record changer.

A new party was added to the rushing program this fall. The theme was "Emerald City" and was carried out in the decorations, entertainment, and refreshments.

The Pi Beta Phi invited Ann Speyer, an exchange student from Sao Paulo, Brazil, to live with them this year. Ann speaks English, Portuguese, and German fluently and is a freshman studying commercial art.

An orientation program for freshman students, "University Preview," was held for the first time this fall. It took place two days before classes started and covered every aspect of university life with lectures and discussion groups. The two day program ended with a dance in the HUB for all freshmen.

Fall quarter activities will also include Homecoming and freshman elections. Plans have been made to work with the A Δ Φ's in Sophomore Carnival next spring and the chapter is looking forward to its Christmas Serenade with B Θ II.

PLEGDED: Sharon Abney, Sandy Adkisson, Susie Barrett, Sally Brown, Judy Cragin, Janet Dailey, Antonia Dickinson, Barbara Fleming, Gloria Gibson, Margaret Hesse, Marlene Holeman, Donna Johnston, Carol Sather, Marilyn Spurr, Donna Stocking, Mary Stocking, Gretchen Stroh, Nancy Tingling, Donna White, Seattle; Peggy Brandon, Portland, Ore.; Anita Cammerano, Grace Hansler, Barbara Ohlson, Tacoma; Connie Campbell, Karen Estey, Longview; Karin Cederwall, Spokane; Norma Cook, Anchorage, Alaska; Ann Dietzen, Yakima; Barbara Hansen, Nancy Otley, Bellingham; Beverly Kienitz, Wenatchee; Karil Klingbeil, Olympia; Ann LaCoss, Edmonds; Sheila Little, Quebec City, Canada; Sara McNichols, Dixon, Ill.; Donna Mills, Chico, Calif.; Jane Ann Morse, Boston, Mass.; Lora Peterson, Kalispell, Mont.; Kayleen Santner, Fla.; Donna Smith, Idaho Falls, Ida.; Shirlee Wight, Salt Lake City, Utah.

JANICE POSKA

WASHINGTON GAMMA—COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND. Chartered, September 9, 1948. INITIATED: September 8, 1953: Katherine Kaer, Olympia; Mary Lee Gray Wenatchee; and Sharon Walker, Tacoma.

April 6 the members held their semiannual scholarship banquet at which time the fortunate ate steak and the unfortunate ate mush. The menu was divided according to grades: 3.5-4 steak; 3-3.5 chicken; 2.5-3 hamburger; 2-2.5 soup; below 2. mush. The same evening was the monthly Pi Phi night with a short program consisting of a report by all the officers.

At a carnival given by the student body, the chapter sponsored a basketball toss and a dime dance. The proceeds went into a fund for the new music building. The total amount cleared by the carnival was $1,000.

As the women fraternities at CPS have no houses, the members got together at a house party April 18 at the beach home of one of the alumnae.

University Union club was the scene of the annual Founders' Day Banquet April 27. A Founders' Day skit was followed by group singing.

The chapter terminated a successful year by winning the annual Songfest in which women's fraternities vie against each other for the coveted cup.

As the chapter's adviser, Mrs. Marguerite Schroeder, was taking a leave of absence from her teaching at the college, the group honored her with a stork shower and presented her with a gift in appreciation of all the time and suggestions she had given the chapter during the preceding year.

The yearly Senior Farewell Banquet was held May 30 at the Top of the Ocean honoring the four graduating seniors. The senior banquet was the last social function of the year.

The chapter was back early, however, to make plans for rushing which was held September 13-19. The first rush affair was a "Split-Date" Tea, and it carried out traditional fall colors under its caption "Pi Phi Pixie Playland."

A novel idea was carried out for the second party, transportation being paddy wagons with sirens blaring, and entertainment taking place in a makebelieve jail.

The Preference party was held in a spacious home on Lake Steilacoom. To carry out the underwater theme, the decorations were fish nets, glass fishing floats, star fish, coral, shells, and interesting bits of drift wood. In connection with the theme, the rushees received favors in the forms of small glass bottles containing fortunes. They found them floating at the edge of the lake. The outcome was gratifying as there are now 13 much sought after girls wearing Pi Beta Phi pledge pins. Two new nationals on the campus are A Φ and X Ω.

Pi Beta Phi was well represented on campus in the beauty department last year having furnished four of the queens: Patricia Murphy, Dream Girl of Θ X; Marilyn Wagner, Σ A E Violet Sweetheart; Joanna Wilson, Σ N White Rose Queen; and Joanne Wood, May Queen.

MARILYN ROSSO

OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Chartered, October 29, 1915. Pledge Day, September 23, 1953. INITIATED: June 1, 1953: Harrison Devereaux.

Spring term was a busy one for everyone on the University of Oregon campus. The first big project for the Pi Beta Phi was their spring house dance "Pink Pagoda." The house was decorated in an oriental motif with a Japanese garden, temple and opium den giving varied interpretations of the theme.

Junior Weekend was an enjoyable one with all the mothers here to watch the float parade and other activities. Oregon A was led by Jackie Densmore in the campus sing and won first place singing "Ave Maria." The weekend was added to by entertainment given by the mothers and a Sunday dinner. Pi Beta Phi was well represented in this weekend as they had two Junior Weekend Court Princesses, Carole Lee Tate and Joan Marie Miller. Joan Marie also was tapped for Mortar Board and received the Gerlinger Cup for the outstanding woman in the Junior class. Janet Shaw was tapped by Φ B K and Bev Jones and Janet Woods became Kwama pledges, which is the sophomore honorary. Bobette Gilmore, Nan Mimnaugh and Janet Wick were tapped for Φ Θ, the Junior Women's honorary; Janet is now serving as President for this group.

Later in the term Oregon A went to Oregon State College for the annual Founders' Day picnic with Oregon B and Oregon Γ. This fall Pi Beta Phi returned to a freshly painted house, and prepared for the activities of the first term of the year.

The first of these was "The Bunion Derby" with the sororities holding open house for the fraternities and charging a nickel a man with the funds going to The World's Students Service Fund.

Campus YWCA activities started with Nan Mimnaugh serving as regional President and Janet Wick in the office of Secretary of our campus YWCA.

With football came the election of the rally squad and Pi Beta Phi pledges Marcia Cook and Nan Hagedorn were elected and Marliuss Clausen was appointed to the alternate position.

Listening parties were held with the fraternities to hear the games that weren't played on campus.

PLEGDED: Sally Allen, Georgia Baker, Marilyn Berry, Beverly Bowman, Joanna Brandon, Marliuss Clausen, Marcia Cook, Mary Jo Cornell, JoAnn Fundingsland, Shirley Gerhard, Sally Jo Greig, Nan Hagedorn, Bonnie LeBaron, Marcia Mauney, Julie Miller, Marily Mount, Elizabeth Rinehart, Sharon Snyder, and Mary Sweeney.

ILENE RANDOLPH

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1917. Pledge Day, October 4, 1953.

As a result of fall term rush week Oregon B has added to its roster 20 wonderful pledges.

One of spring term's favorite activities was the annual Founders' Day Picnic held at the chapter house. Much fun was had as the Oregon Pi Beta Phi's picnicked, presented skits, and sang.

The most looked-forward-to event of spring term was the Aloha Dance, an annual Oregon B formal dance.

Other spring term activities included "Sophomore Day" which signified upper classman status for sophomores of the campus, the annual Faculty Dessert held at the chapter house, high school visitation weekend, and many walkouts to the Oregon beaches.

Oregon state College saw the completion of a wonderful new football stadium and the first game was played there November 14.

NORMA KOLLN

OREGON GAMMA—Willamette University. Chartered, 1944. Pledge Day, September 16, 1953.

Oregon Γ has been busy since September 5. The girls were very pleased to see beautiful new drapes in the living room which were given to us by the Salem Mothers' Club and the Portland Mothers' Club. The chapter is also most proud of the Stoolman Vase which was presented to Oregon  $\Gamma$  last summer. This is the first time the Vase has been as far west as Oregon, so the chapter feels doubly honored.

Rush was very successful at Oregon  $\Gamma$  this fall, and now 20 new girls are wearing the pledge pin. The Willamette campus used the quota system for the first time this rush season, and the change in the type of rushing was as new to the rushers as it was to the rushees. It is a very liberal system, and the chapter is pleased with it.

There were many activities on the Willamette campus last Spring. Mary Campbell was chosen to represent A.W.S. at its national convention in March. Dona Mears was chosen as Coed-of-the-month for April, and she also represented Willamette in the Portland newspapers as being the beauty on the campus. The annual Varsity Ball had Anne Laudig on its court and Maxine Brown as its Queen.

Dona Mears, now Dona Platenburg, was chosen to reign as Queen of the May Weekend festivities, and Carolyn Crane did a wonderful job as General Chairman. May Weekend includes an event called "All-School Sing." Oregon  $\Gamma$  placed second under the direction of Jane Gray who led the chapter in "To You My Arrow" and "The Song Is You."

Barbara Jackson and Julie Mellor were appointed Society Editor and Copy Editor respectively of the school's weekly paper; Sally Bridgeman was appointed Editor of the Wallulab, the year book; and Marilyn Meiseger and Frances Graham were appointed Index Editors of the Wallulab.

Beverly Lytle was appointed drama manager, and Lollie Coffey and Elizabeth Winship were tapped for  $\Theta A \Phi$ , the drama honorary.

At Willamette's annual awards assembly, there were many Oregon  $\Gamma$  girls whose names were called. Amaryllis Lilles and Barbara Baker were presented with gold keys for their service to the senior class. B A  $\Gamma$ , Honorary for sophomore women chose Coralie Doughton, Marjorie Little, Yvonne Bowles, and Joanne Terhark for membership. Dona Mears was tapped by A K N for her outstanding scholastic record. Cap and Gown, senior honorary equivalent to Mortar Board, tapped Jane Gray, who will be vice-president; Jane Notson, who will be secretary; Carolyn Crane, and Mary Campbell. Jane Gray was also awarded a music scholarship.

Shortly before school closed, the Oregon  $\Gamma$  alumnae gave the chapter's seniors their farewell breakfast.

Now that rush is over and classes are well under way, Oregon  $\Gamma$  is again in the swing of school and is gradually getting back into the pattern of studying. But already there are many activities going on around campus. Jane Notson has been chosen as September's Coed-of-the-month, and in preparation for Homecoming, the student body chose Oregon  $\Gamma$ 's Sally Jo Grimm to be Homecoming Hostess.

SALLY STELLINGS SLIGH

MU PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA. Chartered, 1900. Pledge Day, September 19, 1953. INITIATED, October 17, 1953: Roen Auger, San Francisco; Jane Crocket, Alameda; Joan Hagglund, San Leandro; Barbara Hunter, Pasadena; Jackie Kerr, Albany; Carolyn Kukuck, San Marino; Connie Storm, Salinas.

With new ideas for entertainment and preference day received from other chapters at the Mu Province Conference, rushing enthusiasm was at a high pitch, and California B was rewarded with 27 pledges. The pledges were introduced to campus life at President Robert Gordon Sproul's annual reception where Lynne Collins, Anne Hawley, and Meredith Luther assisted Mrs. Sproul in hostess duties.

Two representatives of the pledge class plan to attend Cal 1A, a week-end mountain trip, where faculty members, student leaders, and new students exchange ideas on university life. Anne Hawley has been chosen to act as orientation counselor there.

Last semester was an outstanding one for the chapter in both scholarship and campus activities. Meredith Luther, recipient of the California Alpha Scholarship, was named to Women's Judiciary Committee, and will also serve as chairman of International Board. Roen Auger and Connie Storm have been appointed to Women's Rally Committee. Anne Hawley was elected to the position of Representative-at-Large and was tapped for Mortar Board. Under the leadership of Roen Auger, another project for underprivileged children, in addition to Bay View Villa, has gained the support of the entire chapter.

California B's were pleased to welcome newly affiliated Klonie Morris, a transfer from California E.

CAROL GOODWIN

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 19, 1953.

September 8, California  $\Gamma$  returned to 28th Street after three months of relaxation and fun in such exciting places as Africa, Europe, the many beautiful beaches of Southern California, and Hawaii. While sailing to Hawaii, Shirley Conroy was chosen "Miss Lurline" and Diane West won the "Deck Tennis Tournament."

All the girls were pleasantly surprised to see the chapter house freshly redecorated, and enthusiastically began preparations for rushing. An informal open house September 9, opened the rush season. Rushees were entertained at a variety of parties which included, a sit-down party, stand-up party, and a Circus party. The sit-down party was arranged so that everyone, rushee and Pi Beta Phi alike, sat on cushions on the floor and sang familiar songs.

Toward the latter part of rushing they had the stand-up party which gave the rushees a chance to circulate, and meet not only every girl in the house but also the girls who might be her pledge sisters.

Their efforts were rewarded September 19, when California  $\Gamma$  pinned 16 wonderful girls with the golden arrowhead, and honored them with an annual party at Diane West's home in San Marino.

At the recognition assembly last May, Ann DeFreece accepted the "Town and Gown" award (for the most outstanding graduating senior), while Anne Rush was selected as a member of  $\Phi B K$ . Judy Shaffer was selected as "A X A Sweetheart" with Gay Pobanz as princess. Joni Jensen was chosen as  $\Phi E K$  "Moonlight Princess."

KAY CARTER

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, September, 1927. Pledge Day, September 19, 1953. INITIATED, November 6, 1953: Jean Cowan, Clydeen Kintz, Anne Wright, Laura Zimmerman, Los Angeles; Jeri Doud, Oxnard.

The second Monday night of the semester California  $\Delta$  held an activity dinner, honoring the campus "wheels" and "spokes." Seated at the head table were Janet Hale, A.S.U. C.L.A. Vice-president, Bonnie Shrubar, and Virginia Turner, Editor and Senior Reservations Manager respectively of the 1954 yearbook, Joan Benner and Pat Price, Mortar Board members, Patty Pyle and Kathie Cooper,  $\Delta E$  art honorary, and Kay Bourne, Business Manager of the 1954 yearbook, and President of the U.C.L.A. chapter of  $\Pi \Delta E$ , national journalism honorary.

Since last semester the chapter house has undergone some changes. A dormitory has increased the sleeping facilities, a complete laundry has been installed, and an art room has been built as a working area for the art majors.

Football season brought Homecoming, when California B visited California  $\Delta$ , and the Golden Arrow dance was held with the S.C. Chapter.

PLEGDED: Babs Bystrom, Jonna Clark, Gwen Ely, Marcia Kelley, Toby Livingston, Nancy McIntosh, Melinda Medley, Johanna Randal, Jere Wright, Los Angeles; Mitzi de Beaumont, Ardis Kiggins, Janet Schroeder, Glendale; Carolyn Cluley, Oakland; Peggy Manuel, San Mateo.

KATHARINE J. BOURNE

CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 1, 1949. Pledge Day, September 21, 1953. INITIATED, September 13, 1953: Patsy Asquith, Johanna Billings, Janet Jefferson, San Diego; Linda Galiano, West Covina.

Returning students to the San Diego State College Campus found three new buildings, a reward for two years of patience with building difficulties. The brightly tiled white stucco buildings house administration facilities, health service center, and music and science classes.

Along with the new structures came an increase of 600 students over enrollment last spring. An increase of 100 was expected.

The quota system of rushing remained for its second year. The quota is 15 pledges for each of the eleven women's fraternities on campus. Those groups with a membership under 50 held post rushing.

California E is proud to have again won the Panhellenic scholarship cup given by the alumnae of  $\Gamma \Phi B$ .

Cap and Gown tapped Kay Gillette, and A.W.S. Vice-President is Sue Shearer.

Spring Blue Book Ball queen was Sharon Fisher,  $\Sigma X$ 's Candidate. Betty Bruset is Dream Girl of  $\Pi K A$  and Kay Gillette of  $\Theta X$ .

PLEGDED, September 20, 1953: Donna Alderson, Donna Baxter, Marianne Benjamin, Gerri Berkman, Judy Blair, Barbara Brown, Elizabeth Dale, Margaret Foisey, Mary Ganger, Shirley Lacy, Nina McConnell, Susanne Penners, Marlene Rafalovich, Olivia Rosa, LeeAnne Weibley.

PLEGDED, October 23, 1953: Patricia Starr, Elizabeth Smith, Doreen Van Dyne, Kathleen O'Brien, San Diego; Lynn Ray, Coronado.

Jeanne Potter, Margaret Baumgartner, and Barbara Toal were Candidates for the Miss Santa Barbara Contest. Jeanne received second place. New Colonel Coeds who were chosen this year are Judy Curry and Sandra Heavin. The B B B award was given to Marie Foley, and Margaret Weber received a special honor from the Early Childhood Education Department. Mary Lou Rough was awarded a scholarship this year. Judy Curry was elected sophomore class secretary and in the coming election of freshman class officers Cynthia Billing, one of the new pledges, is a candidate. Justina Mitchell is Homecoming queen candidate.

PLEGDED: Barbara Balbach, Altadena; Cynthia Billing, Mary-Ann Lewis, Arcadia; Irene Bramers, Salinas; Shirley Campbell, Burbank; Susanna Davidson, Philippine Islands; Carol Sue Davis, Marjorie Gulbransen, Long Beach; Joan Dodge, Bakersfield; Barbara Eckhoff, Elaine Scott, Los Angeles; Phyllis Fogg, South Pasadena; Ann Maries Gardes, Barbara Knox, Kathleen Riordan, Glendale; Teri Neary, Sue Swinney, Santa Barbara; Suzanne Rogers, Hermosa Beach; Anita Wallschlaeger, Joan Williams, San Marino; Betty Young, Sacramento.

JODY TEMPEL

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA, Chartered August 1, 1917. Pledge Day, September 17, 1953. INITIATED, October 1953: Barbara McKee, Cornelia Lininger, Tucson; Beverly Lewis, San Gabriel, Calif.; Catherine Frame, Porterville, Calif.; Jan Perry, Tulsa, Okla.; and Margaret Wheeler, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Arizona A is particularly proud of Carol Trohan, winner of the National A B O Award. Carol is a member of  $\Phi B K$ ,  $\Phi B \Phi$ , and one of the three most outstanding senior girls.

Arizona A received many honors, Sweepstakes trophy for the Varsity Show skit; the Scholarship Cup; and most prized of all, the Panhellenic Supremacy Cup, given to the all-around outstanding woman's fraternity. Joyce Ballard was named business manager for the Kitty Kat, campus humor magazine; Beverly Perkins is business manager for Vista, literary magazine. Honoraries named: Joan Engholm, Mortar Board secretary; Joyce Ballard and Virginia Brown, F.S.T., junior honorary; Susan Stille, Ann Weatherly, Karen Miller, Margie Beeman, Nancy Coulson, and Beverly Perkins, Spurs, sophomore honorary; Marcha Loe, Alyson Rice, and Donna Lucas are members of A E, women's business honorary. Other officers are: Donna Lucas, Women's Press Club secretary; Cathy Frame, Mermaid president; and Diane Salmon, Diane Burkhardt, and Joyce Ballard, W.A.A. Board.

Queens include: Joan Engholm, SAE "Gold Dust Queen"; Jo Ann Fletcher Freshman Queen finalist; Beverly Lewis, Interfraternity Council Queen; and Marcha Loe, Commerce Queen.

PLEGDED: Judy Armstrong, Janice Hanson, Jane Howsare, Anne Jorgensen, Eleanor Walker, Evelyn Walker, Tucson; Rae Cargill, Nancy Jo Holter, Mary Wheeler, Kansas City, Mo.; Mary Jo Barch, Paul Spur; Leona Bond, Douglas;

Kathleen Campbell, Roswell, N.M.; Pamela Crane, Burbank, Calif.; Sherrill Hough, Newport Beach, Calif.; Karen Klausner, Los Angeles, Calif.; Judith Howe, Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.; Patricia Maker, Las Cruces, N.M.; Carol Mather, Glendale, Calif.; Sandra McLaughlin, Phoenix; Evelyn Prestridge, Alamogordo, N.M.; Ina Reed, Coolidge; Susan Shelly, Tempe; Enid Stewart, Glencoe, Ill.; Merle Templeton, Altadena, Calif.; Karen Wiig, Reno.

CAROLINE THOMPSON

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA, Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 25, 1953. INITIATED, October 8, 1953: Lola Clark, Sparks; Nancy Hartke, Pomona, Calif.; Nancy Hewins, Reno; and Lena Quilici, Reno.

Last April Beverly Griggs was chosen as "Miss Reno." Myrtle Coats was runner-up. Later on in the month, Myrtle was also chosen as "Miss Stead Air Force Base." Harriet Parke and Betty Kling received the honor of being elected to "Who's Who" on the Nevada campus. At the end of the spring semester, the chapter held its annual spring formal.

At the beginning of this semester, Beverly Griggs, Carole McGilvray and Carol Dickerson attended the three-day leadership conference of the University of Nevada. At the conference, plans were laid for the new Student Union Building. Frances Belford was chosen as Miss "Hello" at the "Hello on the Hill" dance. Florence Lyons and Nancy Howell were elected to Sagans, a women's honorary organization on the campus. Two members, Carole McGilvray and Beverly Griggs were elected cheer leaders, and two pledges were chosen as song leaders, Joann Ortiz, and Marilyn Klufton. The pledge-initiate banquet was held October 4. Barbara Moore is the chapter's candidate for Homecoming queen.

PLEGDED, September 25, 1953: Margaret Duckett, Tule Lake, Calif.; Joan Giffin, Las Vegas; Margot Hoagland, Walnut Creek, Calif.; Sandra Smith, Judy McNeil, Henderson; Pat Melarkey, Schenectady, N.Y.; Frances Belford, Deloras Costello, Lillian Johnson, Marilyn Klufton, Jan McGill, Roxanna Miller, Joanne Ortiz, Carolyn Smith, Margaret Rechie, Reno.

NEW MEXICO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO, Chartered, September 11, 1946. Pledge Day, September 16, 1953. INITIATED, October 10, 1953: Elizabeth Pierce, Margaret Cecelia Smith, Albuquerque.

New Mexico A was anxious to return to the University this semester to see the new lawn the Mother's Club put in this summer and to begin the important fall rush week with Mrs. Mary Van Buren here visiting.

The annual Triad dance was held in the spring with K K  $\Gamma$ 's, K A  $\Theta$ 's, and Pi Beta Phi attending. The climax of the semester was Adele Taylor Alford's visit to the chapter. With her as an honored guest, the Founders' Day banquet was a great success. During the banquet, the pledge scholarship award was given to Paula Lawson, and the Outstanding Pledge award was given to Sara Curtis.

Each year in May at the University honor assembly, Mortar Board announces the winner of the Mortar Board Community Project. This year the A  $\Delta$  II's won first place for the help they gave the Crippled Children. Spurs, the Sophomore Women's honorary won second place. With Adele Brown as chairman, they helped the County Detention Home for Boys. Also at the Honor Assembly, Pi Beta Phi won individual honors. Joann McNay was chosen the Outstanding Senior Woman and elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Patricia Baird was elected into  $\Phi K \Phi$  senior honorary. The chapter won first place in Stunt Night for the fourth consecutive year. Barbara Cunningham was elected to the Women's Recreational Council and also received the Ives Memorial Scholarship. Adele Brown won one of the California A Memorial Scholarships. Patricia Baird graduated with distinction, and Helen Woodward was elected to the United Student Christian Fellowship Cabinet.

This semester, New Mexico A awarded a Room and Board scholarship to a Swedish student, Monica Silverskiold, who is now a Pi Beta Phi pledge. The Panhellenic Council has awarded a room and board scholarship to a Japanese graduate student. Each women's fraternity will give her room and board for one month.

This semester's rush week ended as quite a success with a tea given by the mothers' club for the new pledges and the new chapter. Later in the week, the active chapter honored the new pledges with a very successful cooky-shine.

PLEGDED: Frances Ruth Amacker, Sue Dornier, Bobby Utter, Albuquerque; Barbara Brown, Diane Laughman, Donna Wise, Hobbs; Jean Coll, Artesia; Dottie Harroun, Carlsbad; Teddy Dicus, Sondra Schrom, Ruth Watkins, Wilmette, Ill.; Diane Richerson, Dallas, Tex.; Connie Ainsworth, Colorado City, Tex.; Monica Silverskiold, Lund, Sweden.

Canadian chapters make all checks for payments of initiation fees, pledge fees, contributions to all funds, and payments for Bound ARROWS and Treasurer's Bonds, payable to Pi Beta Phi and send to the Grand Treasurer, Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas.

General Instructions

Chapter Program Chairmen should send a report to the Director of Extension (see current ARROW for name and address) within one week following the holding of the program based upon material sent by that officer from Central Office.

Chapter Treasurers should see that letter from Grand Treasurer to the Parents of Actives and Pledges is sent to the parents as early in the fall as it is possible to get the local letter on chapter finances ready to send with it. It is necessary that parents understand the financial obligations at the beginning of the year.

Chapter treasurers should see that the Financial Statements to Parents and Pledges are sent approximately two weeks before the proposed initiation. They should be sent only to the parents of the girls who have met the initiation requirements and whom the chapter definitely plans to initiate. This means too that the blanks should be sent only for the girls who have received the required vote of the Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee for approval of initiation.

Chapter treasurers should see that badges are ordered through the Central Office. It takes six weeks or more, under present conditions, to complete badge orders. Badges for prospective members should not be ordered until all initiation requirements have been met.

Chapter treasurers should send the National pledge fee for each pledge with Form GT1 to Central Office. Canadian chapters send fee to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas.

Chapter treasurers should send the initiation fee for each initiate with Form GT1 to Central Office within three days of initiation. Canadian chapters send initiation fees to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas.

Chapter Treasurers should send monthly reports to Busey Fraternity Accounting System, 2849 N. Delaware, Indianapolis, Indiana.

The corresponding secretary should report to the Central Office and to Province President changes in chapter officers if they are made, any time during the year.

When college schedules make it impossible to comply exactly with fraternity calendar dates, chapter officers should contact Central Office, explain the situations, and receive special permission to vary from the established dates.
