Then . . .

WHEN THE BALFOUR CUP BEGAN . . .

The silver loving cup awarded to the outstanding Pi Beta Phi chapter of each year began its happy journeys in 1921, when L. G. Balfour established the award in memory of his wife.

The award was made that year at the Convention in Charlevoix, Michigan. Presenting it was Grand President Anna Lytle Tannahill. Receiving it for the Virginia Alpha Chapter was Mary Mable Richardson. Thirty-nine years later at the 42nd Biennial Convention of Pi Beta Phi native Arkansan, Mary Mable, now Mrs. E. B. Whisner of Hot Springs, saw another Balfour Cup awarded and relived those happy moments of 1921.

Now . . .

THE COVER . . . Kansas Beta's Judy Tyler receives the Balfour Cup in a moment of high happiness from Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield. The award was made at the Awards Banquet which climaxed the 1960 Convention. Sharing Judy's thrill at the right is Karen Peterson, 1960 Amy Burnham Onken award winner. Look closely and you'll see another happy face framed by Mrs. Mansfield's outstretched arms—it is that of Miss Amy Burnham Onken, beloved Honorary Grand President.

From Pipelines to Pinnacles

(ED. NOTE: The thoughts below were contained in the talk given by Van Mechlin Flett, now Lambda Province President, at the 1960 Convention Honoraries Luncheon.)

... A well-informed life has been likened unto climbing a tower, or as we suggest, a pinnacle. The view half-way up is better than the view from the base and it steadily becomes finer as the horizon expands. Appreciation of the climb itself can come only when one reaches a certain height, or vantage point. For example, the gutter cannot be seen until one reaches the vantage point of the curb.

To climb the pinnacles requires hard work, strong desire, contemplation and a constant awareness of the heights. And even as one pinnacle is laboriously attained, the victory is briefly sweet, for lo! but another height has been illuminated, and the realization sweeps over us that we can be better than we are—we can be swinging on a star!

... The decision to scale the pinnacles in the first place can be made only on an individual basis. And we only have one short lifetime to achieve these dreams, hopes and lofty aspirations for which our better selves constantly clamor. You in this room have already shown the desire to pursue the upward way—to scale the pinnacles of life. And by now, too, you have some of the confidence necessary.

The process of growth—of life itself—is a step by step one, and though the rate we grow, and some of the pinnacles we reach may differ from one to another, the important thing is the desire to take those steps—one after another. For if there is something worse in life than failure, it is to quit altogether—to cease to grow toward knowledge and an understanding heart. Nature has an uncanny way of prodding us toward the good life—the desire to be something different—something finer tomorrow, but we are not forced to accept our highest and best, and if we keep turning deaf ears to the small inner voice, it finally goes sadly away. We must be willing to use our capacities in all realms—realms of intellectualism, of spiritualism. Most of us have so much more than we're willing to give—or even admit that we have. . . .

... If then, scaling the pinnacles of life is a gradual but continued growth process, what then should be our ultimate goal—which pinnacle should we fasten our attention upon. I think Martin Buber, profound religious philosopher, concretely describes this ultimate pinnacle. "Our goal is learning to love people and use things, instead of using people and loving things."

From Your Editor Emeritus

The Friendly Convention

That is what people are saying and writing of Hot Springs.

Most delightful was the brand of Southern hospitality in the fine old tradition that we met there.

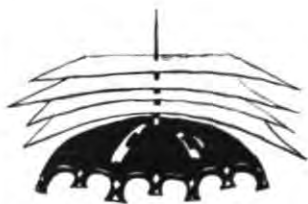

For your former editor, it was her twelfth experience. This has meant seeing and knowing girls from all over our country. Often we have said that our travels for Pi Beta Phi have developed patriotism, with an ever-growing appreciation of what the strength of our nation means, and how that strength has been maintained.

Along with that national aspect, there has come much thought of the reasons that have made our fraternity the strong, fine organization that we know it to be.

Back of that strength, as each year we add to our membership, are the faithful and devoted women of our advisory boards—especially those whose duties have to do with our system of alumnae recommendations. Over and over again the wisdom of that system has been proved—especially when we see the poise as well as the beauty of those hundreds of girls and those fine older women who make up the personnel of a Convention. All have been carefully chosen, not merely for the superficial things but for the deeper and finer qualities which make them into congenial members capable of fitting with honor into any chapter among our one hundred and four groups or joining any one of our three hundred alumnae clubs.

Therein lies our responsibility as alumnae—to see that we recommend only girls who represent our national standards, wherever their lives may take them.

Odile Taylor Alford

off the Arrow hook

It's a long way from the main street of a small Arkansas community to college campuses from Ontario to the Gulf of Mexico or from the Atlantic to the Pacific and on into Pi Phi homes around the world. Even so, as your editor I feel the same need to communicate informally with you as I do with my weekly newspaper readers here in Marked Tree. For this reason, with my introduction to you as your ARROW editor in this first news issue, I bring with me "Off the Arrow Hook."

The concept is the same as that on which a weekly paper's column is based. It is a medium through which an editor talks to her readers and often a channel through which others can speak in an informal manner.

Potpourri might describe it best. It's apt to contain almost anything . . . a bit of humor, a word of praise, a reminder of a deadline or perhaps a message from an officer.

The seven league editorial boots this task will take still seem several sizes too large for me, and I won't cringe if you decide to pronounce my title phonetically as "error editor" now and then. In fact, at the moment I consider that a likely possibility and feel much more on the hook than off it as this editorial pledgship begins.

The bumpy road of beginning would have been far more difficult than it has without the guiding counsel of the Grand Lady of the ARROW, Adele Alford. This brilliant, indefatigable Pi Phi has given much of herself through these years to bring all of us a fine magazine. Typically she can still find the time and patience to guide her neophyte successor in the paths that she should go. I feel sure you will join me in a feeling of pleasure and appreciation for her agreement to continue as a contributor under the heading "From Your Editor Emeritus."

The ARROW incoming correspondence basket has received a number of good reports from Mississippi Southern College at Hattiesburg where the newest Pi Beta Phi colony is obviously well on its organizational way to becoming a solid new chapter. For me the bit of correspondence that underlines this is in a letter from Karen Peterson, 1960 ABO winner, who is in Hattiesburg this year. Karen quotes one of the new pledges as saying,

"Pi Phi embodies everything I have held valuable in my life. This is the most natural thing for me. I pledged Pi Phi because of the challenge I felt to build something which would benefit the campus. Yet I came face to face with the fact that instead of building Pi Phi into something, I am having to keep myself up to the high standard which it exemplifies."

Your 1960 Convention Guide, Frances Brigrance Calvert, has one last "Announcement" to her friends of Convention. She writes,

"Your many letters with their gracious expressions of appreciation have warmed my heart. My work with Convention was a pleasure and has provided memories I will always cherish. Thank you all for coming to Arkansas and 'making it 1960.' Now that you know the way, come again just any time."

The last word will also have to do with a member of the Convention Committee. The many Pi Phis served so efficiently by Maxine Ammons Smith at the Registration desk may be interested to know that shortly after that week she traded her typewriter for a pair of knitting needles and her filing cabinets for a layette chest.

The first young Mr. Smith arrived October 5. He is a real "Diadem Dandy" and has been named Berl Ammons Smith.

PICTURE A GIRL

ADELE TAYLOR ALFORD
ARROW Editor—1934-1960

"Picture a girl who's young and fair, picture a girl of beauty rare."

Picture Pi Phi's Adele Taylor Alford in Washington, D.C., beautiful, brilliant and young, pledging Pi Beta Phi in 1902. Picture the vow made in her heart to serve it always with her talent, her time and her love.

"Paint a gold Arrow o'er her heart and you have made a work of art."

See that Arrow she has worn with such pride for fifty-eight years and always over a heart that pulsed with a strong courage and determination. A heart as big as it is strong. She is the one who with never a thought for its doing, has truly made of her life a "work of art." Its beauty is an eternally radiant quality because of her selfless service and dedicated interest in her Fraternity and her fellow man.

"Frame her in shades of wine and blue, she's sure to thrill the heart of you."

Frame her with the deep affection felt for her by the friends of many years and etch that frame with the bubbling, radiant love and admiration she has inspired in continuing lines of the young who have passed before the threshold of her Pi Phi door. She does thrill the heart of you with her ready wit, her keen mind and great zest for all of life.

"She's just a Pi Phi symphony, a challenge to you and to me."

She is a Pi Phi symphony, whose heart was "pierced with Arrow gleam" to light a flame which has burned steadily through the years. A flame to warm our hearts, melt our fears and light our way.

Above all, Adele Taylor Alford is a challenge to Pi Phis of days past, those present and those to come.

We can meet her challenge if we seek to become more like her in our every thought and action that concerns Pi Beta Phi.

A Convention's Tribute to Adele Alford

→ "IF THE APPRECIATION, the affection, and the esteem of 70,000 Pi Phis mean to her what I think they do, then this should be one of the happiest moments in the life of Adele Taylor Alford" was the moving climax for one of the finest personal tributes ever paid a member of Pi Beta Phi at the historian's Program June 20, 1960, in Convention Hall.

Members of Pi Beta Phi attending the 42nd Biennial Convention were deeply moved by the tribute paid to their beloved ARROW Editor by Marian Keck Simmons, National Historian.

Mrs. Simmons punctuated her skillfully prepared program on Mrs. Alford with a series of slides, which represented high points from the Editor's career of Fraternity service that has covered a period of more than fifty years.

Mrs. Simmons told her listeners that she was departing from the custom of touching on the life of the Founder chosen for honor in the current year. She said,

"Since the problems of our Founders differ from our own, I thought it might be well to speak tonight of living Pi Phis from whose example we all can profit. Pi Phis have had many fine leaders, but tonight we shall speak of only one, Adele Taylor Alford, ARROW Editor.

"She was born in New York state and came with her family to live in Washington, D.C., where she attended Western High School. She entered George Washington University (which was then known as Columbian University) on a scholarship after passing a written examination.

"On the Columbian campus was a chapter of Pi Beta Phi which has the distinction of being the first chapter of the fraternity to be chartered under the Greek letter name, because it was installed after the convention of 1888 at which time the Greek letters were officially adopted in place of the initials I. C.

"As a service to her university, she founded and directed the first girls' Glee Club on the campus. Through the years many Pi Phis have sung in the club. It was the beginning of an organization which is sent by the United States government to Greenland and other service installations to entertain personnel.

"In her sophomore year she was sent as chapter delegate to the St. Louis Convention of 1904.

"Adele Taylor Alford's service to her chapter did not end with graduation. Because the small group then in existence was in need of leadership, she went back to campus, enrolled in graduate courses, and supervised the rebuilding of D.C. Alpha.

"After her marriage to Commander Thalbert Nelson Alford, her husband's naval career caused them to reside in a number of different cities. In each place she became active in the nearest alumnae club.

"The year 1924 found Mrs. Alford back in Washington. She had been president of the Washington Alumnae Club in 1907. Most presidents serve only once in any city. But in that year of 1924—which was to be one of Pi Phi's finest—and in that city, which is one of the most cultured and sophisticated capitals in the world—it was Adele Taylor Alford who was chosen to again lead her club in carrying out a program, which was to be much publicized and of great national importance."

Mrs. Simmons then outlined the circumstances leading up to the famed Eastern Conference held in Washington in April of 1924, which may still stand as the largest gathering of actives and alumnae of any women's fraternity with its attendance of 1,350. Summing up these remarks with,

"As president of the Washington Alumnae Club, Adele Alford was in charge of arrangements for the entire two day conference."

Editor in 1934

The talk then moved to Mrs. Alford's selection as ARROW Editor in 1934, following a four year period of service as a Province President. Mrs. Simmons continued,

"According to Honorary Grand President, Amy Burnham Onken, who was serving as Grand President at that time, she was chosen because she was known as a loyal Pi Phi and a gifted writer, and because of a series of well-written articles which she had had published in Asia Magazine. At the Yellowstone Convention of 1934 she was elected to the office, which she has continued to hold for 26 years."

Milestones in recent years pointed up to the chartering of the La Jolla Alumnae Club, which was named in her honor, and the twenty-fifth anniversary of her editorship which was marked with a dinner given for her by other magazine editors at the NPC Conference at Boca Raton, Florida.

In conclusion, Mrs. Simmons said, "As she has moved back and forth across the continent, visiting clubs and chapters, the wisdom of her counsel and the inspiration of her mere presence have been like strong threads which have woven themselves into the fabric of every life which she has touched."

As the lights came up, Mrs. Alford was escorted to the stage by her daughter, Adele Alford Heink, Aileen Johnson, president of the San Diego Alumnae Club and Jean Collier, president of California Epsilon, which Mrs. Alford has served as advisor since its establishment in 1949. She received a loving tribute from both these officers as the Chapter presented her with a corsage and the Alumnae Club gave her a gift.

Convention opens on a happy, friendly note at the Informal Coffee in the Arlington Lobby.

Hot Springs Highlights

There Was a Crown . . .

→ PI BETA PHI was crowned "Queen For a Week" in June 1960 at her 42nd Biennial Convention in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

A new dimension in convention happiness and accomplishment was discovered in those six full days . . . perhaps it took its shape from the sparkling three dimensional crown that hung majestically in an arch above the Arlington Hotel lobby and provided the convention theme, "A Pi Phi's Diadem of Diamonds."

Going to and from Convention Hall, hurrying to programs, dinners and luncheons, heading for an hour of pleasure at the pool or pausing to visit with an old friend, the 900 Pi Phis assembled were always catching sight of that glittering crown and the arrows beneath it that spelled out "diamonds" with 8 challenges—Devotion, Ideals, Ambition, Merriment, Organization, Nobility, Determination and Scholarship.

Matching its brilliance with their efficiency, its sparkle with their smiles and its beauty with their charm were the members of the popular Convention Committee. Guide Frances Brigance Calvert, Registration Chairman Maxine Ammons Smith and Hospitality Chairman Paula Regan McDowell seemed to have anticipated the need of every Pi Phi there and to be everywhere at once seeing that those needs were answered.

The crown was their idea, and it not only captured the fancy and delight of all who gathered at Hot Springs but provided the theme for a memorable week that will live in many Pi Phis' hearts through all the days of their years.

It was a week of many things.

There Were Ceremonies . . .

The deep impression that comes from a blending of solemnity, love and devotion came in the Convention ceremonies.

There were the opening session and the moments of pride in the introductions of the Fraternity's beloved leaders of today and yesterday, the demonstrations that pointed up Pi Beta Phi's pre-eminence in scholarship, organization and leadership on campuses across the land, the claiming of a new brother in John DornBlaser and his great surprise in finding himself claimed, and finally the moving Memorial Ceremony dedicated to Pi Phi sisters who had slipped from our earthly midst . . . a long double line of blue gowned active members seemed to well out of the spotlighted crown as they entered Convention Hall and walked silently forward carrying wine carnations to fill large silver urns with a Fraternity's tribute to its loved ones.

There was initiation, beautifully arranged in a Church sanctuary by a Golden Arrow Pi Phi, Fayetteville's Mary Campbell Gregory and led with dignity and inspiration by Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield, as Pi Phi claimed a dedicated Convention Initiate, Katherine North DornBlaser of North Little Rock, and also extended the bonds of full membership to Miss Jessie Morrison and Mrs. Ralph Owings, who are to lead in the colonization of Mississippi Alpha, and three Virginia Alpha members, Barbara Beardmore, Gwende Koche and Patricia McGhee.

There Were Speeches and Programs . . .

Soaring thoughts, launched on wings of inspiring oratory, caused many a mind to listen closely and heart to beat faster with determination to take those words away and make them live in actions in the year to come. Programs that entertained, informed and paid tribute held audiences in rapt attention.

Our Grand President called on every Pi Beta Phi member to be, "well informed, to face facts clearly and to stand firm in her opposition to un-American philosophies," and she concluded a splendid speech with ". . . and may the Grand President express to Pi Beta Phis in Convention assembled her dedication to the American way of life, to the American college fraternity, which grew out of that way of life, and especially to Pi Beta Phi whose ideals and principles are such sure guideposts for the development of a nobler womanhood."

Grand Vice-President Dorothy Weaver Morgan brought word of the chartering of the 300th Alumnae Club to the session and challenged every alumnae attending with her statement, "What then may be done to preserve the fraternity system, a system unique to democracy? Alumnae must be articulate and specific in definition of fraternity, that bond of friendship akin to family ties. The prestige and pride shared by the wearers of the Arrow have been created by the firm foundation laid by the Founders and built upon by many generations. . . . Fraternity women everywhere must be willing to project our organization and work for its betterment and never accept temporary safeties."

"The Fraternity's Challenge" outlined so boldly and definitively by Sherwood Blue, the Convention Guest Speaker, found understanding and enthusiastic response in his receptive audience, to the point that this speech is printed in its entirety in this ARROW—as a result of a motion at a business session. This brilliant Indianapolis attorney and past president of Theta Chi Fraternity left an indelible mark on the 42nd Biennial Convention of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity.

The program of Convention that left eyes moist and all hearts full came on Monday night when one of Phi Phi's finest and greatest ladies, Adele Taylor

The Pi Beta Phi grand council for 1960-62 is Mrs. Kent Morgan, vice president; Mrs. William Mansfield, president; Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. James Speaker, secretary; Mrs. Stanley Kyle, director of programs; Mrs. Robert Wild, Panhellenic delegate; and Mrs. Stewart Tuft, director of membership.

Alford, was honored by that articulate artist, Marian Keck Simmons, National Historian. The dedicated service of over half a century of this ARROW Editor, Grand Council member and counselor of countless youthful Pi Phis came alive in vivid tones and thoughtful tribute and brought a packed hall to its feet in the gathering's most prolonged and devoted ovation.

On Tuesday night "Settlement School, This is Your Life" portrayed the history, the accomplishments, the growth and the future of this unusual fraternity philanthropic project. Skillfully prepared by Settlement School Chairman Helen Moffet Russell, it combined the talent of actives from Arkansas Alpha, Indiana Alpha, Alabama Beta and Missouri Beta with the wit and wisdom of two past Grand Presidents, Dr. May L. Keller and Amy Burnham Onken. The end result was a program that charmed, enlightened and delighted its audience.

Wednesday night's program let happiness fly high on wings of song as the assembled throng heard the Convention Chorus sing the entries in the Song Contest. Music Chairman Pat Ballard and her talented, hard working chorus provided many convention high points and Wednesday night was truly one of those. Hawaii had its say, before it all began, in sending lovely orchid leis to be presented to Guide Frances and President Alice by the Honolulu delegate, Jane Rolwing.

There Were Dinners and Luncheons . . .

The festive air of a special occasion wreathed each day with its bubbling atmosphere as Lambda Province Clubs played hostess to a series of dinners and luncheons.

The mood was created early, even before that opening day, when El Dorado, Ark. Pi Phis rolled out the first red carpet of Arkansas hospitality in a brilliantly appointed Grand Council dinner and the following night when all national officers were entertained by the Convention Committee and Lambda Province officers, Mary Knipmeyer and Madeline LaFan.

Gracious Southern hospitality was the keynote of the opening day's Coffee provided by the Marked Tree-Jonesboro Alumnae Club before a bountiful table centered with its own bejeweled crown filled with red roses. It was sparked with animated greetings between old friends and warm meetings of new acquaintances.

"Cotton Carnival" time came to Convention in the gay opening night dinner arranged by the Memphis, Tenn. Alumnae Club, and clusters of that fluffy white gold hung high about the dinner rooms.

"From Pipelines to Pinnacles" was the unusual theme chosen for the Honoraries Luncheon by the Shreveport Alumnae Monday—and earned honors and accolades from all who attended for its ceramic oil well favors, other appointments and, above all else, for the brilliant and inspiring talk given by Van Mechlin Flett.

That happy convention occasion, Dinner by Chapters, found its theme in Pi Beta Phi, and what better keynote for such an affair. The Kansas City Alumnae Club had handled a monumental task with skill and loving care, and over one-hundred of its members had made paper wine carnation corsages for all who came to dine in pleasant camaraderie with the closest sisters of all, those from their chapters.

The Golden Arrow members were honored in fit-

There Were Hours of Work . . .

There were long hours of work in business sessions and workshops and behind the scenes by hostess province alumnae.

Business sessions so thoroughly covered in the Fall ARROW brought news of new Pi Phi chapters proposed at Mississippi State and Portland State . . . reports on the work of all Fraternity committees and groups . . . necessary changes in Fraternity rules and policies . . . new officers, one of whom joins Grand Council, Lou Ann Tufts, Director of Membership, replacing one whose resignation was accepted with heartfelt regret, Helen Lewis.

Workshops well planned and well attended brought explanation and information to both actives and alumnae in all fields of their endeavor. National officers were generous in the sharing of their time and talent in assistance in these workshops.

Always available was that busy assistant and friend of all, Central Office Director Peggy Dick, attending Convention in that capacity for the last time and drawing sighs of disappointment behind her whenever that resignation was mentioned.

There were the members of the Osceola Alumnae Club who handled the tedious task of arranging seating with organizational ease that made their difficult job appear much easier than it was.

Hospitality abounded and information was always available thanks to the tireless efforts of a corps of dedicated volunteers.

And Finally There Was a Banquet . . .

That brilliant climax to every convention seemed to glitter with new magnificence in Hot Springs in the Awards Banquet arranged by the Little Rock Alumnae Club . . . it could not be better described for posterity than in the words of Carol Tucker (Mo. Beta) who recorded it first for the Convention Daily. She wrote:

"Diamonds of our Arrows gold; sparkling symbols of worth untold." Diamonds, representing the ultimate in excellence and beauty, were the appropriate center of attraction at the banquet closing a week in which Pi Phis met in the nation's only diamond producing state and sought to achieve the things most epitomized by this the most precious jewel known to mankind. The Little Rock Alumnae Club banquet chairman, Marie H. Scott, and Grand Vice-President Dorothy Weaver Morgan joined forces to gather more than seven hundred Pi Phis under the jewel crown hanging in the Arlington ballroom and dining room, seated at tables centered with crowns of excellence which were filled with red carnations toward which golden arrows pointed in aspiration.

The main theme was emphasized again in the printed program which featured an acrostic of the word "DIAMONDS" from which the banquet toasts were taken.

"Dream when we stand in youth." Great it is to believe the dream, When we stand in youth by the starry stream; But a greater thing is to fight life through, And say at the end, "The Dream came true." These words of Edwin Markham formed the main thought as Amy Burnham Onken, Honorary Grand President, stood among four three-branched candelabra, which symbolized the twelve Fraternity Founders, and opened the program with words on the founding of Pi Beta Phi, and shared some of the thoughts of one who has lived to see the Fraternity fight through its youth to have its highest truth as it attained its present great stature.

"In pursuit of excellence," the general theme of the entire convention, was the basis of the second toast which admonished Pi Phis to realize that with the challenge which we face today, only the pursuit of excellence will suffice. Martha Freeman, Missouri Alpha and recipient of this year's St. Louis Sophomore Award (for the outstanding sophomore record in Lambda province) gave this toast. She ended her inspiring toast with the words, "we must have women who are willing to take advantage of their privileges and opportunities to become intellectually secure and useful. Run the race as you please, but never flinch in the pursuit of excellence."

"Affectioned one to another" . . . altruism and alumnae. The opening line of Mrs. Louise Holten's toast was taken from Romans 12:10 and dealt with the continued value of the altruistic ventures of Pi Beta Phi alumnae which are truly of "worth untold." Mrs. Holten spoke for her friend Lolita Snell Prouty who could not be present.

"Manners must adorn knowledge . . . and smooth its way through the world. Like a great rough diamond it may do very well in a closet by way of curiosity and also for its intrinsic value." These words of the Earl of Chesterfield, formed the nucleus of the toast given by Mary Ann Harris, Nebraska Beta, who emphasized that diamonds are disciplined stones, shaped by skilled hands, cut and polished before they attain their full worth; so also must Pi Phi knowledge be adorned by the disciplines of graciousness, kindness and high ideals and most of all good manners.

"Ocean to ocean . . . friendships unending in bonds that are bound by wine and silver blue." Friendships that start in the relatively small circle of one's chapter or alumnae club and stretch across the continent finally reach their zenith in the week of convention when Pi Phis from every point meet together. This was the toast of Elizabeth Lips, Colorado Gamma.

"Now we our voices raise" . . . formed the sixth letter of the Diamond crown as the Pi Beta Phi Convention chorus under the direction of Patricia Billings Ballard sang the Anthem.

"Deeds the circles growing" . . . the words of George Meredith, "Life is but a pebble sunk, deeds the circles growing" marked the toast of Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield, who spoke of past, present and dreams for future deeds by an ever growing Pi Beta Phi before making the awards, so wrote Carol.

There was that moment of high happiness when those awards were made and finally that moment of depth and closeness as Marian Keck Simmons conducted the candlelighting ceremony and that last jewel was added to Pi Phis Diadem of Diamonds, "Songs and ceremonies for honor due. . ."

Then it was done. Another gay and happy, solemn and fruitful, busy and bustling, grand and beautiful Pi Beta Phi Convention had wound its way to an end.

"May the chain bind our hearts" till we meet again.

PI BETA PHI GRAND COUNCIL AWARD FOR SCHOLARSHIP ACHIEVEMENT

In recognition of the desire and effort necessary for a chapter to achieve high scholarship the Grand Council of Pi Beta Phi announces a new annual award of fifty dollars to be given to the chapter showing the greatest improvement over a two year period. The winning chapter must have the following qualifications.

1. Upper third or first rank among other NPC chapters on its campus
2. A degree of improvement in rank on campus and a C plus average or its equivalent
3. A pledge class average of C plus or its equivalent
4. An increase in the number of members above the campus NPC average
5. An increase in grade point average

The Fraternity's Challenge

The address delivered by Sherwood Blue, Theta Chi, to the 42nd Biennial Convention of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, Thursday, June 23, 1960

→ IN THE EARLY HISTORY of mankind, as you will no doubt recall, there was no such thing as an organization of governments. People seemed to have grown upon the earth much as other animals did and man carried a big club, you have seen these pictures with spikes on them, and he dragged the women around by the hair of their heads. What he was big enough to take, he took, and if someone was bigger than he, then the other fellow won. That era in the development of law is known as the era of self-help, a kind of organization, if any, which had no controls whatsoever.

But as the world grew older and more people came into it and living together in groups became the custom, folks found themselves organized in tribes. This was even before there was any recognition of the responsibilities of parenthood. There was a head of the tribe, people lived in a gregarious sort of fashion and children who came into the world were the children of the tribe rather than the children of particular fathers and mothers and the responsibility for the care and nurture of those children fell upon the tribe. Later there did develop the family responsibility and it became the more cohesive unit. So we came into a period when there became a consciousness of the responsibilities of individuals and the family relationship as distinguished from the tribal relationship, and of course this was even before there were such things as cities or towns or governments of that type. That characterized the period which came to be known as the period of maturity, or we seemed to get a little more mature responsibility on the part of individuals living together.

As more people come into the world, more problems arise and more restrictions and more limitations upon what they might do seem to be indicated by the fact that when you get too many people rubbing elbows together there is bound to be a little bit of friction and in the development of the Anglo-American system of law there came eventually the organization of communities and cities and states and of nations and of the development of law as the criterion which was the measure by which people controlled their action and conduct. The laws were written out and they were pretty specific. They were enunciated by the Crown or the King or whoever happened to be head of the State and the administration of them was literally enforced. Any infraction of them might result in serious penalties. That period came to be known as the strict period.

But as time passed, the enforcement of the absolute rule of the law on occasions became unfair. It was plain to see there was a relationship of justice which needed to be recognized. And so there came about a modification, under certain rules of chancellors, of the strict enforcement of the rules of the law in order to give expression to the basic fundamental concepts of justice. This period was known as the period of equity.

You may have observed that in these processes there has been a change from one direction to another, and that is approximately the method by which we can describe the changes in our development as far as law is concerned, and I was about to say about the time Pi Beta Phi was organized, in 1867, if my memory serves me correctly, my law professor says it was about 1875, and I think that is pretty close to a nice round number—we went into a period of socialization, the name by which this era in which we now live is known, and it is supposed to be a swinging back of this pendulum away from the over-liberal interpretation of the law that developed under the rules of chancellors. The chancellors would be able to overrule the law courts and even though one had what he thought were rights of law in the strict period or under the laws that existed, if the chancellor decided he wasn't going to enforce it he just wouldn't enforce it and would say, "That's justice, that's equity." You can abuse equity, too, as you can abuse strict law. And so this period of melting back into socialization is supposed to be a kind of mellowing process. How long this period will last is anyone's guess or whether we are headed in another direction at this particular time is also another guess, and the particular direction in which we may be headed is one that is the cause of great concern to many people.

We find that in the development of any social attitude—and when I say social attitude I am speaking of society generally, I am not talking about the 400, not in the sense of being high society—social attitudes are generally developed as a result of certain existing circumstances at any given time. There may be, and generally are, episodes which call for rather stringent action. We remember the period of World War I, how it was fought to save the world for democracy, it was the war to end wars, and how we were sure if we would just win World War I there need never be any other war. And we remember some of the economic reaction which followed the conclusion of World War I in the early depression of 1921, and then the development of a period of freedom and free enterprise and the development of wealth. So if I get to talking about the high cost of living in the 1920's and finally we get to that debacle in 1929 when on that black day in October the stock market took the terrific nose-dive and then followed what was known as the depression, well, it was about that time I started practicing law. I felt that I had some acquaintance with periods of depression in the 1930's, but so did the entire nation, the net result of which found us going into a period where we thought that the thing which was good for the most of the people was to allow the government to provide for everybody, a kind of cure-all for everything.

So then you saw the WPA and the other alphabetical agencies coming into play in the make-work programs and the CCC camps for people to go to. Notwithstanding all that, although there was some economic recovery in the latter part of the 1930's, the actual development of what we call prosperity today didn't begin to come about until somebody engineered the attack on Pearl Harbor that brought into play World War II, and with it, more government controls—rent control, price control—which has, of course, eventually led into the business or the avocation of land for farming and the paying of subsidies for killing pigs or for not growing wheat or corn, and that in turn has developed into numerous other types of governmental controls to the point where we now find ourselves, for the most part, subject to the requirements of paying for compulsory insurance or retirement insurance and the destruction of savings incentives by a process of excessive taxation in order for the government to be everything to everybody.

Senator Thomas Gore on the closing day of Congress in 1934 made this observation: "In ancient Greece Pericles inaugurated the feeding of the people out of the public treasury. One hundred years later Plato found that he had so completely debauched the Athenians that they were reduced to pauperism. Instead of working, they hung around the market place gossiping, and their characters were so weakened that the State was forced to hire barbarians to defend it from invasion. A paternalistic government is bound to destroy the self-reliance and self-respect of the people. When those attributes go, everything goes. Those are the virtues which have made our country great and those virtues alone will keep us great."

That is the background upon which I want to continue my discussion now of matters which pertain to the fraternity world.

Pi Beta Phi was founded in 1867. Theta Chi was founded in 1856. Someone told me today that the oldest known fraternity was founded in 1827. That excuses Phi Beta Kappa, supposed to have been founded in 1776, the year of the independence of America. Let us take the year of 1776, if we may, because there we find an entirely new concept in government was established and men were willing to fight and die for that concept which recognized that liberty was a good deal more important than living. The people of America, recognizing that there can be tyranny of control, wanted to have self-determination for their nation on the basis of the right of the individual to be an individual, to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and to limit the powers of government. And in that same year we find the fraternity system being inaugurated in the United States. The American system of fraternities—and when I say fraternity, I speak generically because it includes both men and women—the American system of fraternities is unique. It is really found no place else in the world, and for more than a century we have had this system largely in the manner in which we know it, at least in the arena of advanced education, colleges and universities. These social organizations, however, were not in their inception nor for many years considered to be a part of any university. They may have been a part of the university community in that they were composed of people who were in attendance at colleges, but they existed independently and stood upon their own two feet, and even within my own personal knowledge during the period of time when I was an undergraduate at the Indiana University in 1932 and some six years thereafter. But even in the 1920's fraternities existed on the basis of their ability to do it for themselves. We weren't being regulated or controlled by the university. But there did come into play, of course, as you know, as early as 1910 or 1912 the National Fraternity Conference and there were combinations of groups of national fraternities on the college campus known as the Inter-Fraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, things of that sort, where they seemed to get together to interchange ideas. I can remember in my undergraduate days we didn't tell anybody and when we took an oath, "This is a secret society, you do not tell anything that goes on in private meetings," that was private and it stayed that way.

I remember something else about those college days. That is, that the center of the house, when you get right down to it, was the formal fraternity meeting, and we had one at least once each week, and the center of the fraternity meeting was the altar with the open Bible and we went into a fraternity meeting in a spirit of reverence and respect and what we did there we did in the name of Almighty God and with a desire for the guidance which He could give us, and we were cohesive and we were united and we were truly members of a brotherhood.

Now the unfortunate thing about it is that in a period of a time of stress sometimes the basic concepts upon which we are organized get lost in the shuffle of taking care of "emergencies." So there came that period of depression that we were talking about a little while ago and there came a time when the fraternity organizations didn't do too well at paying the bills they had incurred among the merchants downtown and the merchants got a little upset about the transaction and they called upon the university and said, "Look, these boys owe us money. We would like to get the money." Of course. Everybody wanted their money back in the 1930's. It wasn't exactly easy. But the university then did in a fashion attempt to assist the merchants in collecting the money which may have been owed to them. And then the fraternities themselves found out that they weren't good collectors of the bills that the boys themselves owed, if they did get that money, then they would be able to pay the merchant. So they sought the assistance of the university by putting a fellow on a check list and he couldn't get credit for the work he had done, couldn't get his diploma until he paid his bill.

Well, that was just the beginning because after a while, you see, not only were they interested in talking about our money, they had already become interested in the academic side, which nobody complains about, but then it began to be important for members of the faculty or faculty advisers to sit in on chapter meetings, and then they would go to university meetings and talk about what happened in fraternity meetings. And then they got to sending faculty advisers and directors to inter-fraternity council meetings and the Panhellenic Council. Then there developed the whole idea, "Well, now this is good. We want fraternities and we want sororities, but they are made up pretty largely of youngsters who are not really old enough to know what they ought to be doing. They need our guidance. We have some land, we will help them get a house, we will help them build a house. We will pick out this group, this group and that group."

Well, it wasn't enough that they would provide them land and assist them in getting the money and building a building and putting them in there, but you had to buy food, you had to feed them in some fashion or other; they didn't really want to have them go to the university dining room, they wanted them to eat in their own dining room. Somebody had to buy the food. So then there began this theory of joining together in the purchase of food and other supplies and the development of housing facilities and the regulation of the purchases. Then I think they finally got around to even preparing the menus so the boys didn't have to think at all.

Well, that got around to the point where after a while the university says, "Well, now we will organize certain kinds of activities in which we will permit fraternities and sororities to engage. We will have community sings and community stunts." Everything seems to emanate, so far as fraternities and sororities are concerned, from the directions and the suggestions of the government of the university.

Then it didn't become very important as to whether we wore the badge over the heart or where you put the Pi Beta Phi arrow or whether you displayed it at all or not, and the idea of having formal meetings became rather a tedious sort of thing. "After all, the business of a fraternity is one of the things you have to get through with, we will have a meeting all right, but buzz, buzz, buzz, let's get it done in a hurry." Until eventually we get ourselves around to the problem which distresses me greatly and which, to my way of thinking, presents this challenge, which is supposed to be the topic of my talk tonight, to the leaders of Pi Beta Phi, the leaders of Theta Chi, the leaders of a number of other organizations who have been working together in full recognition of the fact that there has been an increasing encroachment from the outside upon the prerogatives of fraternities. You have seen and I have seen its development in recent years, and it takes its greatest expression at the present time, at any rate, in what is considered to be the attack upon this horrible practice that is engaged in by fraternal organizations of limiting its membership to people that the organization wants.

We find on campus after campus the adoption of resolutions by Boards or Trustees or Regents or self-government groups, or anything except the fraternities and the sororities themselves, which says, "You may not have any 'discrimination' clause in your constitution. Get it out, you can't have it."

Well, you see, I happen to remember back in the days when English was English, or at least it was the kind of English we spoke, that the discriminating person was a person of distinction, that he knew how to make a choice, and making choices is important to the development of the character of people and it is the thing which marks the difference between liberty and serfdom, because liberty is that kind of society where people have the right to choose between alternatives. If you have only the right to vote "Yah," as they did in Nazi Germany, or "Dah" as they do in Communist Russia, then where is your right of choice?

I am sure that you are beginning to recognize the corollary which I am seeking to point up. The American fraternity system was founded in a spirit of liberty. It was founded upon the right of people to choose their own companions. It was founded upon the privilege to serve God and to worship Him according to the dictates of our own conscience. But, most of all, it was founded as a place where we could practice liberty, a place of schooling where we had an opportunity to make choices in the free exchange of ideas without the dictates of some super government.

There is now, and I am sure you recognize it as I do, abroad in the world today a combat between two ideologies. The kind of ideology which pits the State against the individual, sometimes characterized by saying that it is statism against free enterprise, state monopoly in the economic field against free enterprise, or you can call it the collectivist idea as opposed to the individualist concept, or you can call it compulsion against voluntary conduct, or you can call it atheism against faith. They all present the same fundamental concept or idea.

We have talked about this word "discrimination." We have seen how it has been taken and used and torn apart and revised and re-defined so that it is now a dirty word instead of a strong, clean word, and the Communists have taken the word "brotherhood" and are trying to do the same thing with that word. And so they try to sell us the idea that there must be universal brotherhood, that everybody has the same kind of civil rights, that you can't give one group of people one thing and not have the same thing for everybody else, so we are just going to make you brothers whether you like it or not. But brotherhood, based on compulsion, is not brotherhood any more than government subsidy is charity. But brotherhood when it is voluntary is the kind of closeness and understanding and fellowship which you enjoy in Pi Beta Phi and which I enjoy in Theta Chi, so long as we are permitted to be what our founding fathers wanted us to be and set out for us to be—free, independent intellectual groups united in purpose and concept. And without that, Pi Beta Phi would not have the number of chapters which it now has nor the thousands of members which it now enjoys, nor would Theta Chi nor would any of the other national organizations which find themselves spread from coast to coast and border to gulf, and in all of their concepts the right of freedom of choice is at the very root of their ability to get together into a society which is both healthy and wholesome.

But today we speak of the encroachment of outside authority coming to us from a variety of sources, whether it is from the top echelon of trustees and regents or from presidents or from faculty advisers or deans of men or women or whether it happens to be just one little professor who finds himself knowingly the center of a Communist cell. We find them developing this idea that fraternities are a good thing but because it is good you can't keep anybody out of it. So there is developing on some campuses the idea of one hundred percent membership. There is developing on other campuses the idea of local autonomy. There is developing on many campuses the idea that you cannot discriminate in your selection of members upon any basis of race, creed or color, or, as some of them are saying, on the basis of race, religion or national origin. And if we stop to think about that, we realize that these words which they are giving to us are given in a manner to indicate to you that it is good for everybody and because it is good don't take it away from them and it is the charitable, Christian thing to do to extend these liberties and rights to everyone else, when the truth of the matter is that that is not the kind of personal liberty which Christ himself taught, nor which is the fundamental basis for freedom which is the center of the Christian religion, for when you find that you can no longer choose, this spirit of brotherhood which you thought you were fostering has gone and is gone forever, and it is a method by which only those who would enslave us would take our own words and wrap us in those words to force us into a point of view which makes us the easier to be subjected.

I have no doubt that prior to 1776 there were a good many people in the United States of America who felt that the laws and the edicts of England and the rules of the English Church and all of the things that were imposed upon them, including taxation without representation, which marks the Boston Tea Party, that there were many people in the United States who felt, of course, this is all right, it has to be all right because it came down to us from the superior authority, the ancient rule that the King can do no wrong. But we fought a bloody battle to prove that the integrity of the individual and the liberty and the freedom by which one lives in a free world is much more important. So we had the Patrick Henrys who were more interested in liberty than they were in life and the Nathan Hales who felt that giving his all was not enough, just as we have in the fraternal world today the Amy Onkens, the George Starr Lashers, and others who have devoted a lifetime to the development in fraternities of the true meaning of friendship and fellowship and brotherhood under God.

Where do we find the Patrick Henrys today or the Nathan Hales or any of the other future leaders of tomorrow? We find them right in the midst of groups such as this. For among you, I don't know which one, but among you today sits the President of Pi Beta Phi of twenty-five years from today, and all of the other National Officers of Pi Beta Phi and the leaders of the youth of America as Pi Beta Phi can give it, if you will save Pi Beta Phi. But remember this, that in this battle that I mentioned some time ago, this ideology of the collectivist against the individual, the Iron Curtain Communist world against the free world, there is what is known as the dialectical approach. You ask for more than you know you can get, you regress, you take a little, and then you ask for more again, and by this continuous repetition of the dialectical approach eventually they make progress, to take away from us by the gradual and imperceptible attempts the basic concepts of liberty which we have known before. So now we find these basic concepts and liberties which were ours being encroached upon from without, not because we want to give them up but because someone from the outside says, "You must give them up."

We have seen the change in the word "discrimination." We see the attack upon the word "brotherhood." We see this development of changing social philosophies based upon the fact that we have got to give more than we have ever given before, when the only thing we are actually giving is liberty to someone else who knows what's going on to superimpose himself upon our own intellect and our own ability to think, until we finally get around to where they have control even of the process of thinking.

And so it was with a good deal of shock and error when in the early part of this year there came to my attention the development of an idea at Dartmouth College, developed by their own student government organization, a rule, an edict, by which the national organizations on that campus were required to certify that there was no limitation in any of their written documents or in any of their practices which would make it impossible for the members of the Dartmouth chapter to live up to their 1954 rule which eliminated this discriminatory practice of membership selection based upon race, creed or color. A certificate was required to be sent to the national officers and those officers were required to certify that there were no limitations on that campus. Another certificate was required to be signed by the President of the local chapter, in which he was required to state that there were no such limitations upon the right of selection of members, but in which he was required to certify something else, that is, that he made this representation without any mental reservations. And if you stop to think for a moment you recognize that language as being the kind of language which super-imposes thought control, you may not even think otherwise then as we would have you think, because you must certify without mental reservation. And that sounds an awful lot like some of the Iron Curtain tactics. Which I thought was bad enough until I found that Step No. 3 in this process laid open to anyone, member of the organization or not a member, whenever he felt that there was a failure to adhere in practice to the wide-open selection, a charge could be made or a hearing had, based upon the accusation that in practice the absence of limitation was not being lived up to. And that, of course, was just too much for me because that was exactly the sort of thing that you find in the Gestapo, where neighbor spies on neighbor, brother spies on brother, there is no such thing as family cohesion, there is nothing except complete compulsion and adherence to the rule of the superior authority. And that, my dear young ladies, is not liberty nor freedom but it is what is being imposed upon us in some places in the academic world today.

What to do about it—that is the challenge. Where do we go? How do we make ourselves felt? All practical questions. We have been gentlemen, we have been ladies. We have found people encroaching upon what we think are the fundamental concepts of liberties of both men's and women's organizations in a free society. We have sought not to antagonize college administrations nor university circles. We do not want to have a fight. We do not want to get up and say any ugly words. We don't want to tell these people, "It is none of your business what goes on behind our closed doors," although you might very well do so. We have not done it because we do not wish to offend, and we have been imposed upon by the absolute knowledge of those persons in control of academic areas that if they say so, it is widely accepted as being true, without there being any measure of it true.

We still want to be gentlemen and ladies, but you can't fight any war and win it strictly on the basis of being nothing but a lady or a gentleman, and I am not recommending from this platform that we get out and act like hoodlums who sought to impose their minority point of view upon the Japanese nation with stampeding and yelling and what-not as we saw some two hundred fifty or three hundred thousand people over there in Tokyo protesting the Security Pact or the visit of President Eisenhower. That is not the sort of thing that I am talking about, but I say to you that it is time for us to begin to become aware of the fact that it is necessary for us to recognize what liberties are ours and what liberties are worth fighting for if we are to continue to live as an organization.

A little while ago I said, "if Pi Beta Phi is here twenty-five years from now," and that is exactly what I meant. It is not impossible to change Pi Beta Phi from what it is to what somebody else wants it to be, in spite of the fact that they may keep the same name; it still would not be Pi Beta Phi even though it was called by that name.

Yet when you talk to college administrators you find that their entire point of view is one of trying to protect the fraternity system, that is what they try to sell you on, and very often we are gullible enough to fall for it.

I'd like to conclude what I have to say with a little story of a personal incident that occurred in my life not too long ago. In my town of Indianapolis we have what is known as the Press Club.

One evening I was there and a particular reporter and his wife and family were present. They have a little girl five years old, little Molly. Little Molly likes to go from table to table. She is a rather precocious child, active, vibrant, and what-not. And, you know, guys like me, they like pretty girls—and in a spirit of love and affection I gathered the little girl to me and I put my arms around her and she looked at me in that precocious way and said, "Take your cotton-pickin' hands off of me." Well, of course, I meant nothing by it and I am not at all sure that she hadn't heard Mama or Papa say something like that to teach her a sassy reply or something of the sort. All I wanted to do was encompass her with my protecting love and enjoy her good company.

I have the feeling that in the fraternity world today we are facing very much the same point of view or the same attitude on our college campuses. The college administrators in their way seek to put their encircling arms about us to give us the protection which they think we need and to bestow upon us their brand of love. But I'd like to say to them, and in no flippant manner but with the full meaning, "Keep your cotton-pickin' fingers off of me."

ACTIVE OF THE YEAR

Karen Peterson, Nebraska B, Wins 1960 Amy Burnham Onken Award

→ KAREN PETERSON said her cup ran over at the 42nd Biennial Convention when she received the 1960 Amy Burnham Onken award as her Fraternity's most outstanding active member. Karen's record of service to her university and Pi Phi shows that she filled that cup with accomplishments and unselfish giving of her talents that made her truly deserving of Pi Beta Phi's highest individual honor.

Her scholarship achievements include membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Lambda Theta and Phi Beta Kappa, to which she gained membership in the first semester of her senior year, the only member of a Greek group in five invited.

Her leadership on campus brought her the presidency of Mortar Board and the office of Student Union president, which she had also served as student manager. Her outstanding work in connection with the Student Union brought her its highest honor in the Spring of 1960, an all university award. She also served on the Co-ed Counsellors Board and the AWS Board.

In her Junior year Karen was selected by a combination student and faculty vote as Ideal Nebraska Coed and was nominated in her senior year for Outstanding Nebraskan.

Karen served her chapter as pledge trainer and is one of the few chapter members to serve three consecutive years on executive council.

This year Karen is serving as president of the new Pi Beta Phi colony on the campus at Mississippi Southern College. Her work there has brought glowing praise from the members of Grand Council who have been working with her, the new pledges and others.

The day after Karen received her ABO award we asked her to share with ARROW readers some of her thoughts on what Pi Beta Phi had meant to her. She has written as follows:

"How can I say what Pi Beta Phi means to me or what it means to be a Pi Phi when it is impossible to imagine what my college life would have been without Pi Phi? Perhaps in that thought lies the meaning of Pi Phi to me. Yet I know also that Pi Phi cannot be and is not separated from a college woman's life because the very essence of Pi Beta Phi is found in the standard of a noble womanhood—words we all know so well—in any phase of life.

"For four years the Pi Phi which existed for me was my own chapter. It was Nebraska Beta which taught me, guided me, encouraged me, and gave to me what Pi Phi had to give; and it was through Nebraska Beta I found myself in college. Because of it I felt a closeness to my university; it was the link of adjustment and the channel to which and through which I could express myself. The conventions I attended in Boston and again in Hot Springs opened the door of realization of the national spirit, but it was not until I came to Mississippi Southern and the new colony that I truly realized what Pi Beta Phi is.

"Pi Beta Phi exists; it lives and breathes; it is an intangible, a spirit, a feeling. I sensed this meaning before, and as pledge trainer at Nebraska, I could tell my pledges this. But I have realized since that one does not have to say what Pi Phi means because the true meaning is its existence, what it is. Not until I saw and felt and shared the unity of Pi Beta Phi as the newest colony prepared for and took part in rush activities could I have said what Pi Phi is. The Tennessee and Alabama actives who assisted and the Mississippi colony pledges did not know one another. Yet there was something electrifying in the air which immediately brought the Pi Phis from all over together with a common goal and purpose and a common love. And that "something electric" was and is Pi Beta Phi. We know the bond of sisterhood in our own chapters, but the rare opportunity comes when the bond of the wine and blue encompasses girls and holds them fast—not because they pledge together, or go to the same school, but because of the golden ARROW which they wear, symbolizing that intangible, unifying force. I was and still remain in awe of what Pi Beta Phi is after rush week at Mississippi. We had no campus honors or traditions to promote to the rushees; we had the strength of Pi Beta Phi as a national fraternity, a national spirit, a national bond, a national sisterhood. And what Pi Beta Phi is remains vividly in my mind as I see the twenty-one Pi Phi pledges on this campus who are shouldering the responsibility of an established group, who chose Pi Phi because they felt it nationally, not because it was strong locally.

"I have realized as never before how much I have taken for granted in Pi Phi. I realize what I should have known about my own chapter, its officers, its traditions—what I should know about Pi Phi. I have been given the most valuable gift in Pi Phi—that of understanding and feeling what Pi Phi is. I thank Nebraska Beta for teaching me what I could expect; and I thank Pi Beta Phi for what it is—as it lives in the heart and being of its sisters."

Meet Nevada Christian

The Settlement School Committee is happy to introduce the new Manager of Arrowcraft.

Nevada Semenza Christian (Mrs. Sutton), Nevada A, who comes to us from Los Altos, California, has a very interesting background. As an undergraduate at the University of Nevada she was a member of Phi Kappa Phi and graduated as gold medalist of her class. Following additional study at Stanford University she was a high school teacher for a short time, but far horizons beckoned and she left San Bernadino, California, to travel to the Far East where she became a feature writer for the China Press in Shanghai, China. There she met and married Sutton Christian, who was a colleague on the newspaper staff.

After the Sino-Japanese conflict, the Christians returned to the United States where, during World War II, Nevada Christian directed the Office of Public Information for Pacific Area Division of the American Red Cross in San Francisco, California. For several years she and her husband were co-publishers of a daily newspaper in Mountain View, California. Six years ago our energetic new Manager of Arrowcraft organized the United Fund of Los Altos, California, and directed its fund raising efforts for several years. Her merchandising experience began as she worked in her father's store before her graduation from college.

Sutton Christian, Nevada's husband, is a retired newspaperman, a member of a pioneer Tennessee family, and his hobby is historical research. He has written several very interesting articles for The Gatlinburg Press; articles which reveal the background and family history of some of the fine craftsmen of the Gatlinburg area. These craftsmen have been associated with the Settlement School either as suppliers or as instructors of crafts, or both.

Mrs. Christian's interest in the arts and crafts has been manifest throughout their travels which have taken them to Denmark, Norway, Spain, Portugal, Italy, and Mexico, in addition to their experience in China.

On June 1, 1960, Nevada Christian arrived to assume her new duties as Manager of Arrowcraft at Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. After barely two weeks in which to become oriented at the Arrowcraft Shop she left for the 1960 Convention at Hot Springs, Arkansas, where many Pi Phis met her in the Arrowcraft display room off the lobby of The Arlington Hotel. With the capable help of our Director of Settlement School, Marion Mueller, and the Pi Phi actives and alumnæ who served as salesladies, Nevada managed to survive the confusion and excitement of Convention week to return to Gatlinburg and the relatively normal (?) activity of Arrowcraft.

A short two weeks later the Settlement School Committee arrived at the Mountain View Hotel for its annual meeting of eleven days of concentrated work. Following this came the frenzied preparations for shipping the largest amount of weaving and crafts ever to be sent so early to the clubs for their fall sales.

Having weathered this rather rugged introduction to her duties with poise and capable interest, we feel sure that Nevada Semanza Christian will be a valuable and delightful addition to the Staff of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, and to the Gatlinburg community. We know that the clubs and chapters will find her most cooperative and helpful in making their Arrowcraft Sales a success. We all join in welcoming the Sutton Christians to Gatlinburg and the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

The Virginia Green Patio

There now is a Virginia Brackett Green Patio to go with our Red Barn:

Due to unexpected gifts last spring, the Settlement School Committee was able to proceed with the plans for the hoped-for patio. A rock facing ties in with the stone stairwell of the Barn and rock wall terraces retain the hillside on the opposite side. The flooring is of flagstones set in concrete and a red wooden fence screens the patio from the second floor bedroom windows, for the patio is midway between the first and second levels of The Red Barn. The remainder of the leveled patio area is grass with the picnic tables located here. Mrs. Green, immediate past Chairman of the Settlement School Committee, and her daughter, Carolyn, were present for the dedication picnic held on July 26, 1960.

The many friends and correspondents of Elizabeth Waitt Rue, former Arrowcraft Manager, will be happy to know that she is managing the Arrowcraft Shop in The Mountain View Hotel. She is President of The Gatlinburg Garden Club this year.

NELL EZELL THOMAS, Shoe String Debut, Dor-race & Co., 44 pp.

This is a slim volume full of chuckles, and while it isn't billed as being autobiographical, it exudes authenticity. Parents, especially parents of daughters, should find it starting a chain of recollections of their own tragi-comic experiences with their offspring.

From the moment Mary Katherine's family of moderate means acceded to her desire for a debut, ingenuity and a sense of humor became the tools of survival. Chiefly because of this Mrs. Thomas is successful in making her point that there can be certain lasting values manufactured from the frivolous, so long as a sense of proportion prevails.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Nell Ezell (Mrs. Theodore Gaillard) Thomas, Oklahoma Alpha, a native of Texas and resident of San Antonio, has held a variety of creative jobs, among them fashion coordinator and columnist of the Austin (Tex.) American-Statesman. Currently she is the decorator for her husband's building firm. They have two daughters as well.

Roger Conant, Mercer's Belles, The Journal of a Reporter, edited by LENNA A. DEUTSCH, University of Washington Press, 190 pp.

Even the efforts of such leaders as Pi Phi's Carrie Chapman Catt have not emancipated women from being considered slightly ridiculous when openly in pursuit of a husband. Imagine then the reaction in 1865 when Asa Mercer, president of the territorial university in Seattle, appeared in the East to organize a project of female emigration to the Pacific Northwest.

Magazines and newspapers of the period exploited the humorous angles fully, and it must have taken real courage to become one of the now famous Mercer Girls. There was, however, some serious recognition of the need for such a project. In the Washington Territory there were very few women, even already married ones, and consequently a dearth of material for both wives and teachers. On the other hand, in the East the Civil War had left women in the majority.

The New York Times supported Asa Mercer, and when the actual journey began, its reporter Roger Conant went along, and the stories he wrote were subsequently published in the paper. However, he also kept a diary, and it remained in private possession until 1954 when Lenna Deutsch and her husband heard of it by chance.

Conant's descendants were agreeable to its publication, and this volume, edited and supplemented by Mrs. Deutsch is the entertaining result.

Others, including Mercer himself and Harriet Stevens, one of the "Girls," published their versions of the Continental's voyage with its marriageable 400, but Mrs. Deutsch believes the Conant diary adds historically valuable sidelights from an unprejudiced observer.

Devotees of American history should find this providing a light-hearted interlude in the study of the subject, and residents of the Pacific Northwest should greatly appreciate this contribution to the records of their own heritage.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Lenna A. (Mrs. Herman J.) Deutsch is a graduate of Washington State University where she was a member of Washington Beta.

The Southern Highland Handicraft Guild held a Craftsman's Fair in Gatlinburg October 18-22. Marion Mueller was again the Local Arrangements Chairman and Marjorie Chalmers and Gene Redding were both on committees. This Fair received a lengthy write-up in The New York Times of Sunday, October 16, 1960.

Eighteen blankets were purchased for The Red Barn with trading stamps sent by clubs and individuals. Please send your Top Value or S and H Green Stamps directly to Marion Mueller, Director of Settlement School.

Holt House

By Ruth Bucholz Turnbull (Mrs. David), Holt House Committee

Mrs. Henrietta Hines

Holt House Has New Hostess

It was with great regret that we accepted the resignation of Mabel Johnson as hostess of Holt House. She had been a part of our Monmouth home for some nine years. She looked after the house-keeping, checked on all maintenance work, arranged for all social and business use of the house, and was in general the "Major Domo." But beyond carrying for the physical plant, she gave it a warmth and graciousness that could have been born only from love of her job. She was paid a salary for her physical labors, but we can in no measure repay her for the sincere interest and loving care she gave Holt House. May we hereby through The ARROW, and thus through and from the entire fraternity, say, "Thank you, Mabel Johnson, for a job well done. May your memories of Pi Phi be bright, and may your days ahead be filled with health and contentment."

We realized it would be hard to find someone to replace Mabel. We could find someone who could "look after" things, but we had been used to more than that; therefore we couldn't be satisfied with less. We were beginning to get a bit worried when we received a letter of application from Mrs. Henrietta Hines. (The fates that be seem to look after us Pi Phis.) She seemed to "measure up"; so, after due consideration, she was offered the position. Although she had never seen Holt House, already she seems to have found her niche and has come to love it as much as we do.

Mrs. Hines came here from Chicago to assume her duties in July of this year. She was formerly Resident Head of Nurses at Englewood Hospital for a period of ten years and filled the same position at Grant Hospital for the last three years. She was particularly happy to obtain this position at Holt House since her son and his family reside in Monmouth, where he is in business.

Mrs. Hines says that she "loves" being the Holt House Hostess and enjoys the quiet of Monmouth after living in Chicago. Of course, there are days when Holt House is anything but quiet, but she enjoys those days, too.

A driveway was recently installed on the east side of Holt House, giving a convenient access to the kitchen door. Builders are now working on the enlargement of the kitchen, and the Holt House committee is having the furniture refinished and reupholstered as needed and as funds permit.

We hope that many Pi Phis will find their way to Monmouth and visit Holt House this year. We want them to become acquainted with our lovely hostess as well as to see their Pi Phi heritage.

Holt House Needs Your Gifts

Holt House treasurer, Jo Boydston, reports that contributions have been very slow coming in. The costs of remodeling and enlarging the kitchen, putting in the new driveway, refinishing the antiques for preservation as well as beauty, plus the normal maintenance expenses, must be met.

All chapters and clubs are urged to send in their contributions as soon as possible and are asked to add a few extra dollars when they can, for these extras which have been added this year.

Holt House belongs to all Pi Phis. It will take support from all to keep it the shrine it should be.

"Academic Fourrageres—Plus"

FRAN SCHWARTZ IS TOP GRADUATE IN KSU CLASS OF 1,000

There are many ways to become "one in a thousand," but no better way than to lead a university's graduating class. That is the honor earned by Fran Schwartz, Kansas Beta, at Kansas State University, Manhattan Kansas this year in that school's class of 1,000 graduates.

Fran's place of distinction came as the result of a straight A scholastic record at KSU. It earned her a summa cum laude honor, and the fanciest of the new fourrageres awarded for the first time this year to scholastic honor graduates.

Mary Olson

WELCOME WEEK WHEEL—Leading the way during Welcome Week at the University of Denver is the annual Associated Women's Students Fashion Show and Tea. Chairman of that event this year was Mary Olson, Colorado B. Over 500 women students and faculty attended the affair which included a panel discussion on activities, introduction of various women's organizations and coeds modeling campus fashions and uniforms of University organizations.

Mary is her chapter corresponding secretary, senior representative to the Arts and Sciences Campus Commission, and on the Student Organizations Board.

Fran Schwartz

The academic fourrageres, adopted from a French military decoration, consist of a purple and white braided cord draped about the left shoulder seam. They went to magna cum laude and cum laude graduates. As the only summa cum laude honor graduate, Fran had a gold bar attached to her fourragere.

During her years on the KSU campus, Fran was president of her Pi Phi chapter, a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Mu Alpha honoraries, Mortar Board and Chimes. She also served as secretary of the Student Council.

This year she is interning in medical technology at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Michigan. She plans to work on a master's degree in biological science with plans for teaching high school chemistry and biology.

One of the few Kansas State students to have made a straight A record, Fran is modest in her assessment of how it was done. She is quoted as saying that she believes the choice of a curriculum in which she was "truly interested" put her on the road to scholastic success at the University. She explains, "If you know at the outset what you want to get out of college, you are much more likely to accomplish it."

"The Name's the Same"

TRISH CHAMPION WINS NATIONAL GRIDIRON QUEEN TITLE

Trish Champion

From College to Korea

Kenley Pearson, Georgia A, is a young lady on the move. She received her degree from the University of Georgia last June and by September she was in Korea for a year's tour of duty with the American Red Cross Clubmobile program.

Kenley's clubmobile unit is assigned to the 1st Cavalry Division, located only a few miles below the demilitarized zone dividing North and South Korea. She is one of more than 40 Red Cross girls who make daily trips to isolated areas of Korea to bring recreation programs to remote U. S. military units.

At the University of Georgia, Kenley was a member of the Women's Athletic Association and the Dolphin (swimming) Club. She holds a Red Cross swimming instructor rating and has taught both swimming and archery in summer camps in North Carolina.

She likes her new work with the clubmobile unit and advises her sorority sisters who think it sounds interesting to consider it and contact their local Red Cross chapters for further information.

A charming brown-eyed Tennessee Pi Beta Phi gave copy writers from coast to coast a field day early in September when she won the Miss National Football title in Berkeley, California. It was her name that did it. She's Trish Champion, president of Tennessee Beta at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

The sparkling gridiron queen crown brought Trish national fame to go with the wide popularity she holds on the Vanderbilt campus, where she is the current Miss Vanderbilt. She is also a Vanderbilt cheerleader.

Trish is the 15th winner of a National Football Queen contest, which is sponsored annually by the Berkeley Junior Chamber of Commerce. There were thirteen entrants from five sections of the United States in this year's contest. The new Queen's gift from the Berkeley Jaycees was a diamond bracelet.

Betty Ann Curtis

OUTSTANDING SENIOR WOMAN—is the honor earned by Betty Ann Curtis on the Vanderbilt University Campus at Nashville, Tenn. in May 1960. Tennessee B Betty Anne received the coveted title "Lady of the Bracelet" with her honor. She was her Province A. B. O. nominee this year.

"A Dream Came True"

INITIATION OF A PLEDGE OF 1932 HIGHLIGHTS OKLAHOMA STATE DAY

The dream of an Oklahoma Beta pledge of that chapter's class of 1932 came true last April when she was initiated into the sorority in special ceremonies at the Oklahoma Pi Beta Phi State Day at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

Jean Allen Savage (Mrs. Al) of Garden City, New York came back to Oklahoma State to exchange her 28-year old pledge pin for a Pi Phi Arrow thanks to the interest and affection of two of her pledge sisters, Doris Waters Dickens (Mrs. M. A.) of St. Louis and Delores Huffman McKee (Mrs. Lowry) of Tulsa.

These friends had maintained a strong bond through the years after Mrs. Savage had taken a Beta Theta Pi Pin and then married its owner, Al Savage, before her Pi Phi initiation.

Mrs. Dickens and Mrs. McKee knew of their friend's continuing interest in Pi Beta Phi and of her work with both alumnae and active members during her years of residence in Tulsa.

Fifteen years ago the Savage family moved to Garden City, where Mr. Savage is now head comptroller for Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. There Mrs. Savage became one of the community's most active civic workers. Their three children, Allen, Gary and Kay attended school there, but the sons came back to OSU for college.

When son Allen received his degree in June, 1959, his father was the Commencement speaker and received the added honor of induction into the OSU Hall of fame.

It was at this time that Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Dickens decided to push a long held dream of their own, initiation for their friend, into the forefront. They found a receptive spirit in the Pi Beta Phi Grand Council and Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield, who agreed to come to Oklahoma and conduct the initiation.

Over 200 Oklahoma Pi Phis attended the Oklahoma State Day which included a Cookie-shine Friday night, meetings of OU and OSU alumnae associations, the initiation of Mrs. Savage and a Saturday luncheon at which Mrs. Mansfield spoke.

Illinois Epsilon Member Stars in College Dramas

Linda Stephenson starred as Mrs. Molloy in the Northwestern University Summer Drama Festival production of Thornton Wilder's "The Matchmaker." She also had roles in the other rotating plays of the summer series including "Gonzesse in e.e. cummings' "Him" and Miss Forsythe in Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman."

When film star Martha Heyer visited her Northwestern alma mater for Alumni Day, Miss Stephenson had the pleasure of visiting with her famed sorority sister.

PACKING FOR INDONESIA—Birmingham, Michigan alumnae lost a good Pi Phi to Indonesia last summer when Harriet Frazier Beaubien, Wisconsin B, and her family packed up for at least a year and a half in Indonesia. Dr. Mark Beaubien took his family to Jakarta, Indonesia where he will direct the training of medical personnel in Indonesia and Viet Nam.

Dr. Beaubien is vice president of the medical operations for Project HOPE and will be the field director of the S.S. Hope, a converted war-time hospital ship which will serve as a hospital training center.

Harriet shares her husband's enthusiasm for the venture saying "It will be a very exciting, rewarding and challenging experience . . . it's almost impossible to comprehend how much could come from this."

In the picture with the Beaubiens are David, 7, Harriet, 9, and Lise, 5.

Pi Phi at Helm of Houston Panhellenic

The Houston City Panhellenic Association is as big and busy as that city in Texas. Guiding that group this year is Miriam McDorman Cooley (Mrs. Ralph, Jr.) a North Carolina B Pi Phi.

There are 24 active national sororities in the Houston City Panhellenic, which has a membership of over 5,000. This is the first time since 1942-43 a Pi Phi has held the office of president.

Recognizing the need for alumnae leadership in meeting the challenge of attacks on the fraternity system, the Houston Panhellenic will be taking an active role in the Texas Association of City Panhellenic plans to study this problem. On February 9, 1961 the State Association will meet at the University of Houston and Mrs. Cooley is State General Chairman for this meeting.

On April 29, 1961, an Inter-Fraternity dinner at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel will climax the year's activities with N.P.C.'s IRAC chairman, Judge Frank H. Meyers as speaker.

Miriam McDorman Cooley

A Pi Beta Phi at Exeter

Virginia Gamma's capable Ann Perkins climaxed an outstanding career at the College of William and Mary last spring by winning the Exeter Scholarship for study at Exeter College this year. Exeter is a coeducational undergraduate school in southwestern England.

The scholarship is awarded annually to either a sophomore or senior on the basis of leadership ability and scholarship. It is part of an exchange student fellowship, which also brings an English University student to William and Mary.

Anne, known to her friends as "Perky," is from Arlington, Virginia. She was vice president of her Pi Phi chapter, a member of Mortar Board, president of Pi Delta Phi, a President's Aide, a member of the Homecoming Court and chairman of the Judicial Board. Other activities included membership in the Honorary French Society, the General Cooperative Committee, Student Assembly and Political Science Club.

Their Honors Honor Pi Beta Phi

Fraternity Honor Students, 1959-60

→ THE FRATERNITY takes pride in announcing the names of its honor students for the year 1959-1960. The Chapter Honor Roll is a compilation of reports received from the seventy chapters having members elected to national honor societies and or members graduated with honors. Fifteen chapters reported no members so honored while nineteen chapters made no report.

Special mention should be made of the chapters and provinces which distinguished themselves in academic achievement. The following breakdowns are made to acknowledge the three chapters and provinces having the largest number of members in each category.

Chapters

Phi Beta Kappa: Kansas Alpha 6, South Dakota Alpha 4, Oklahoma Alpha 4
Phi Kappa Phi: Montana Alpha 5, Washington Beta 5, Idaho Alpha 5
Honor graduates: Maine Alpha 8, Tennessee Beta 8, Kansas Alpha 6

Provinces

Members elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi and other national honor societies having similar requirements: Omicron 21, Mu 18, Alpha 14.

Members graduated with honors: Alpha 27, Mu 17, and Beta 13.

Members elected to national honor societies and or graduated with honors: Alpha 41, Mu 35, Omicron 29.

Comparative totals of the reporting chapters for the last three years are shown below.

	1957-58	1958-59	1959-60
Phi Beta Kappa	45	62	52
Phi Kappa Phi	43	58	47
Other national honor societies	38	31	29
Honor graduates	121	146	153
Total	247	297	281

The number of reporting chapters is not available for 1957-58 and 1958-59.

The fraternity congratulates those on the Chapter Honor Roll and sends best wishes to those who still have the opportunity to achieve academic recognition.

ALPHA PROVINCE

*MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. Pledge Day, February 16, 1960. INITIATED, April 24, 1960: Suzanne Bentley, Gray; Elinor Clapp, Wakefield, Mass.; Carolyn Costain, Brewer; Judith Dorman, Springvale; Ann Grace, Kittery; Sandra Keenan, Brunswick; Barbara Dale McLeod, Fort Eustis, Va.; Donna Plummer, Standish; Deborah Sleeper, South Portland.

Many important offices were acquired by chapter members on campus last spring. Annette Walker was elected treasurer of A.W.S.; Alice McKiel was again chosen to serve on the Judicial Board; and Eleanor Turner was elected chairman of Activities Board. Kay Allen and Ann Corbett were tapped All-Maine Women, a senior honor society similar to Mortar Board. Donna Plummer, Barbara Jordan, Marcia Fuller, and Ann Grace were selected to be Eagles, a sophomore honor society formed to guide freshman women. Nancy Kennedy was elected president of Σ M Σ, honorary psychology fraternity.

At the Founders' Day Banquet held at the Penobscot Valley Country Club, Brenda Freeman was honored by receiving the Sophomore Award which is given annually by the Portland Alumnae Club.

Many Pi Beta Phi were honored at the spring scholarship assembly. The Panhellenic President presented the scholarship cup to Pi Beta Phi which had the highest scholastic average for the fall semester among the fraternities on campus.

The Greek Weekend held in April was one of the most enjoyable events during the year. The annual ball, following the Mardi Gras theme, honored the new sorority presidents and the new Panhellenic President, Ann Corbett, a Pi Beta Phi. Highlighting the weekend was a jazz concert given by Louis Armstrong and his band.

A strawberry breakfast given in honor of the seniors concluded the year. The senior class presented the chapter with a painting which shall hold a place of honor in the newly furnished chapter room.

The graduating class of 1960 brought many honors to Maine A. June Adams, Marie Iñall, Barbara York, and Martha Zoidis graduated with highest distinction; Ann Hastings, Pauline Jackson, Carol Robinson, and Kay Sawyer graduated with distinction.

University of Maine students need not be reminded that their campus is "experiencing growing pains." Last spring a new men's dormitory, an agricultural building and laboratory, and a new physics building were added. Penobscot Hall, a women's dormitory, has just been completed for residency. And now, construction has begun on a new education building and plans are being made for two new dormitories and a cafeteria. All the students feel great pride in their rapidly expanding campus.

ELEANOR TURNER

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1934. Pledge Day, October 30, 1960. INITIATED, March 26, 1960: Stephanie Derbyshire, Marlene Milligan, Linda Tracey, Halifax; Helen Horne, Summerside, P.E.I.

After initiation, a banquet was held in honor of the new members. The Pi Beta Phi also earned $200.00 last winter by helping to work in the Dalhousie Rink Canteen. This is to become an annual project. Nova Scotia A decided to send Nova Scotia tartan matches and boxes to the national Convention. The year closed on March 30, when the seniors were honored at the Senior Farewell.

Silver D's were won last year by Betty Archibald, Carol Clark, Sheila Mason, Marilyn Medjuck, Janice Merritt, Sally Ross, and Eve Smith. A gold "D" was won by Carol Clark. Varsity letters for sports were won by Eve Smith, Sheila Mason, Helen Horne, Virginia LeQueune.

The first chapter meeting for the fall term was held on October 3, and the chapter welcomed back twenty-five members from last year.

On October 19-21 Dalhousie University welcomed Mrs. Stewart Tuft who paid a visit to Nova Scotia A.

Fall rushing was held from October 22-29. A coke party was held after the football game on October 22 and the theme party was held on October 26. This year the theme was Indian and each rushee received a gay felt headband. Bow-pinning was held on October 29 and pledging on October 30.

Panhellenic Day was October 13 at Dalhousie University. It featured a Powder Bowl game in which Pi Beta Phi and A Γ Δ opposed Δ Γ. In the evening, the Pi Phis were entertained by Pine Hill men's residence.

A Panhellenic tea was held on October 16 in honor of the new freshettes at Dalhousie.

Several work parties have been held at the chapter apartment and already it shows great improvement.

Bonnie Murray was crowned Law Queen of Dalhousie University on October 28, at the annual Law Society Ball.

SHEILA MASON

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, September 30, 1960. Last spring, several members of Vermont A were honored by election to the Middlebury chapter of Mortar Board. They are Judith McCann, Sondra Wells and Nancy Peck. Judy McCann was further honored by being elected president of the Middlebury chapter.

When the spring mud cleared away within reason, Vermont A challenged Δ T to what is becoming an annual softball game. There were several games, with mixed teams and the boys running backwards and batting left-handed. Miraculously, there were no injuries and the game adjourned to Δ T for dessert and dancing.

For our first get-together after a marvelous summer, Vermont A hiked to a beautiful old covered bridge outside of Middlebury for the scholarship dinner. After an hour of burnt hot dogs and leaning precariously over the falls, we gathered to hear tales of the Convention, both official and unofficial.

Elections for class officers were held early this fall, and it was a clean sweep as Pi Beta Phi captured every available office. Class elections are arranged so that the class president will be a man, and the vice president a woman, and there is no elected secretary or treasurer. The new vice presidents are Nancy Sise, sophomore class; Constance Morgan, junior class; and Carol Nicholson, senior class.

Middlebury is considerably beautified with the addition of a new Student Union and another phase of the Library addition completed. The third and last phase has been started and will be completed by next year.

PLEDGED, September 30, 1960: Carolyn Foster, Fulton, N.Y.; Julie Nelson, Scottsdale, Ariz.; Kerry Reilly, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

CONSTANCE MORGAN

*VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. Pledge Day, February 1, 1961. INITIATED, April 24, 1960: Margaret Connolly, TenaBy, N.J.; Patricia Merlone, Hamden, Conn.; Ann Van Gilder, Roselle, N.Y.; Constance Anderson, Brandon; Jeannie Blodgett, Exeter, N.H.; Mary Jo Brush, Orono, Me.; Kae Gleason, Westwood, Mass.; Barbara Hentz, Springfield; Janet Hill, Barre; Joan Hindson, Albany, N.Y.; Beverly Hume, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Jacqueline Hussey, Salem, N.Y.; Judith Simonds, Burlington; Bonnie Stewart, Rochester, N.Y.; Sandra Timmermann, Glen Cove, N.Y.

Spring semester brought many honors to Vermont B. Sally Nadon and Margaret Connolly were tapped for Mortar Board. Elected to Staff and Sandal, the junior women's honorary, were Christine Borgmann, Agnes Esposito, Noel Hallett, Joan Manley, Priscilla Paul, and Marcia Smith. Elected to Sophomore Aides were Barbara Hentz, Janet Hill, Bonnie Stewart, and Sandra Timmermann. Noel Hallett and Barbara Hentz were elected presidents of their respective honoraries.

The fall brought work for many Pi Beta Phis at Freshman Week. Penny Finemann and Linda Jacobsen were committee chairmen and Nancy Paquin was in charge of the Big Sister program.

Campus officers for the year are: Sarah Hale, editor of the yearbook and captain of the cheerleaders; Nancy Paquin, first vice president, Margaret Connolly, house chairman, Agnes Esposito, assistant house chairman, and Lynda Kittle, Judiciary, for the Women's Student Government Association.

Vermont B opened the social year with an open house after the first football game. A jazz band, refreshments, and a large turn out made it successful. A Pi Beta Phi-Σ N all campus open house was held at the Σ N house on October 8.

NOEL HALLETT

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered March 17, 1896. INITIATED, May 7, 1960: Gail Churchill, Darien, Conn.; Ann Clinkscales, Bedford; JoAnn Fitzpatrick, Manchester, N.H.; Barbara Ranieri, Hackensack, N.J.; Judy Rose, Malden; Vera Schabowski, Donora, Pa.; Joan Schoenberger, Plandome, N.Y.; Sarah Weil, Reno, Nev.; Janet Wetherbee, Watertown.

Sue Ann Powell is Miss Boston University and will preside over all the university functions this year.

Last April the chapter placed third in the Greek World Sing held at Boston University. They sang "Do Re Mi," "Bless This House," and "Follow the Arrow."

Massachusetts A is now busy with informal rush and hopes to get some new pledges soon.

PATRICIA JONES

MASSACHUSETTS BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS. Chartered, 1944. Pledge Day, February 1961. INITIATED, May 15, 1960: Marilyn Foley, Dorchester; Roberta Beck, Whitman; Deborah Beerman, Swampscott; Jane Benoit, Wronoco; Alice Carey, Brookline; Dorothy Carlone, N. Westport; Roberta Hanna, Foxboro; Martha Hume, West Newton; Priscilla Hutchinson, Attleboro; Susan Jossa, Everett; Ruth Ann Kirby, Rochester; Susan Lemans, Sandra Phelps, Springfield; Carol McDonough, Jo-Anne Veale, Wakefield; Maureen McWeeny, Northampton; Roben O'Brien, West Medway; Beth Stone, N. Abington; Ann Tibbetts, Dedham; Barbara Viera, Westport; Jeanne Webb, Waban.

Our delegates to convention, Joyce Teir, president, and Carol McKinstry, treasurer, were very enthusiastic over the experience that they will long remember.

While we are busily preparing our Homecoming float, Debby Read is one of the five finalists for Homecoming Queen.

Phyllis Feter was recently elected to Φ K Φ, while Patricia Chase was elected senator in her dormitory.

Honors were bestowed on Pi Beta Phi with Pat Binkly initiated into Mortar Board, and those tapped to Scrolls, the sophomore women's Honor Society, were Roberta Hanna, Carol McDonough, and Barbara Viera. And the women's scholastic honor society, A A Δ, now boasts Carol McDonough as president, and Martha Hume as vice president.

PLEGDED: March 25, 1960: Ann Barton, Lynnfield; Patricia Chase, April 15, 1960: Jacqueline Kearns, Sturbridge; Judith Kelley, Greenwood, Oct. 4, 1960: Janet Marshall, Hingham; Carol Majewski, Holden; Nancy Stiles, Lynnfield Centre; Barbara Johnson, Stoneham.

Woodstock, Vt.

Spring semester brought an abundance of activities and events to the University of Connecticut campus. At the annual Community Chest Carnival Pi Beta Phi received third place in the float competition. The chapter also placed third in the Greek Sing on May 8.

Σ X Derby Day attracted the attention of many Pi Beta Phis at which time the girls received first place awards in Best-Around Spirit and Best Attendance.

In competition with the other women's fraternities on campus Pi Beta Phi this year received the first place plaque in activities on campus. Among some of the leaders of these activities are Louise Okon, who is secretary-treasurer of Orchestra, Diana Grimm, who is music director of WHUS radio station, Pat Cleary, vice president of the Photopool of the Connecticut Daily Campus and vice president of Panhellenic, and Jane McDonald, who is president of Φ T O, home economics honorary. Hannah Fallon is secretary and Diana Grimm is treasurer of the same. Secretary of Newman Club is Sheila Bassar and Board of Directors members of the Connecticut Daily Campus are Susan Whiting, Joyce Redinger, and Pat Cleary.

Some of the social events of the past semester included an exchange dinner with Σ X, a coffee with A X A and a four way dinner with Φ K K, A Σ Φ and Δ Z. The Pi Beta Phi was also host to University of Connecticut president, Mr. Albert N. Jorgensen, at a dinner in the spring.

Barbara Salo was Crescent Girl of A X A.

Elaine Perkins was elected junior senator.

BETA PROVINCE

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 28, 1896. Pledge Day, October 14, 1960. INITIATED, October 23, 1960: Esther Holdridge, Oxford; Bonnaly Miller, Minneapolis; Waine MacAllister, Scituate; Sue Lemmon, Gladwin; Joyce Hergenhan, Armonk; Diane Kenney, Forest Hills; Gretchen Shoemaker, Pat Jennings. Affiliated October 3, 1960: Joye Dickens, Oklahoma B.

As New York Alpha filled the newly painted white chapter house this fall, they found a new sofa, a brightly redecorated dining-room; and welcomed Mrs. William Farrissee, the new housemother.

Our Goons, Sally Keller, Sally McClure, Trish Flynn, Pat Jennings, Joyce Hergenhan, and Barb McElroy along with Traditions members Pam Dillo and Sue Parry welcomed the new freshman class during Orientation Week. Guides Signe Boyer, Lucy Parisi, Sue Temple and Pat Hahn assisted Women's Student Government in the orientation of freshman women to campus life.

Sue Parry, president of the chapter, attended the national Convention this summer, and Laurie Carter, editor of the Onondagan yearbook just returned from a summer travelling in Europe. Joyce Hergenhan will be assisting Laurie as Traditions Editor of the yearbook. Lucy Parisi, a junior officer in W.S.G. and Signe Boyer, also an officer, will be officially in their roles this year. Panhellenic has Pam Moody treasurer. Class government finds Linda Morrow sitting in on the executive council of the junior class and in on the JSL meetings as a senator. Up and coming this fall is the drama department's usual hit with both Donna Hayes and Leslie Stewart with leading roles. Boars Head also boasts of their secretary, Donna Hayes.

Lucy Parisi and Pam Dillon are new A Σ Σ, junior women's honorary, members as of last spring. Pam is treasurer of the organization. Sue Parry is a member of the Speech Advisory Council and E II T, senior women's honorary. Barb McElroy and Pat Jennings have been chosen to serve on the Nursing Schools student advisory board.

Our rush program for new freshmen will be in the spring. However, we are all excited about the informal rush for upperclassmen this fall. Also, Mrs. Tuft, Director of Membership, visited us this fall during October which was most enjoyable.

We are holding a Coffee during Parents Weekend, an open house coffee for homecoming weekend and a coffee in honor of Mrs. Farrissee. The annual alum-active Xmas party is one to be looking forward to. Joye Dickens, our new affiliate, was honored at a coke party early in the semester.

PAM DILLON

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1914. Pledge Day, February 5, 1961. A major event of Homecoming Weekend was the ground-breaking ceremony for a new Student Union, to be completed in September, 1961. Marion Young was the Pi Beta Phi candidate for Homecoming Queen, nominated by the campus fraternities.

The chapter is proud of Judy Murray and Lucy Prescott who were elected to Mortar Board, the latter also being elected president. The Women's Student Government Association elected Judy Murray, president and Marion Young, secretary.

In the journalistic field Carole Sperzel serves as Literary Editor of the Gridiron, college yearbook, and Sheila Walsh is Feature Editor of the Hill News, campus newspaper. Beth Ann Freilich, Judy Murray, and Lucy Prescott were elected to the Editorial Board of the newspaper.

Four members of the chapter were chosen as cheerleaders, and Jenny Rastley was elected captain. At the Military Ball held last spring, Cindy Larsen was elected ROTC sponsor for 1960-61.

In financial affairs, Outing Club elected Linda Parker treasurer, and Sue Vosseller serves as treasurer of the "Sinners," the informal female singing group on campus.

New York Γ recently sponsored a successful bake sale, an enterprise designed to raise funds for the Settlement School.

The Panhellenic Council was happy to welcome a new chapter of A Γ to St. Lawrence University last spring.

PLEGDED, April 5, 1960: Debbie Yates, Northville; Carol Sansone, Lebanon, Pa.

GAIL J. QUINTA

INITIATED, October 9, 1960: Marijane Beattie, Drexel Hill; Barbara Buck, Clearfield; Sue Justin, Gwen Sibson, Havertown; Carole Nelson, Beaver; Chris Newton, Broomall; Barbara Strong, Meadowbrook, Pa.; Judith Benjamin, Utica; Sara Jane Hart, New Rochelle; Donna Hunt, Oakfield; Sandy Luburg, Port Washington; Joan Rasmussen, Huntington; Betty Rederer, Buchanan; Carole Sammis, Oceanside; Kathy Schmitz, Lancaster; Mary Souhan, Seneca Falls; Barbara Boicourt, Amherst, Mass.; Joan Crosby, Portland, Ore.; Nancy Deeds, Bogotá, Colombia, S.A.; Dorry Hall, Omaha, Neb.; Lynn Karr, Oshkosh, Wis.; Priscilla Langston, Wrentham, N.J.; Lynn Lippert, Wilmington, Del.; Sarah Schilling, Webster Groves, Mo.; Betsy Shomo, Alexandria, Va.; Kandy Vengris, Dearborn, Mich.

The members of New York Δ , back from a summer spent in spots as distant as Japan, Puerto Rico, South America, and Europe, are once again actively involved in campus affairs. Kathy Smythe is the secretary of the Women's Student Government Association, and Margie Stack is the program coordinator for the same group. Penny Nixon is serving as secretary for the senior class and Pat Carlin, as vice president of the juniors. Lynn Whitman is on the Education Policies Committee.

Jane Ruyle is co-chairman of the committee for Senior Week, the special week of events for seniors at the end of the school year. Karen Maynard is the social chairman of one of the large freshman dormitories.

Judy Miner is the third member to be selected for Notables, a women's singing group.

Jemi Humphries is on the Education Board of the Cornell United Religious Works. Lynne Snyder is a member of the Planning Board for the Cornell Conference on Religion, which is held each fall.

Lynne also was selected for membership in Raven and Serpent, junior women's honorary. Myrl Reaugh was on the Dean's List for last semester.

Ev Dobbins is the treasurer of the campus Panhellenic Council.

A very busy member of New York Δ is Dee Baillet who is executive secretary of the Cornell United Religious Works, a director of Freshman Orientation, and one of Cornell's four delegates to the National Student Leadership Conference.

SUSAN ANN HURD

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, February 14, 1961. INITIATED, May 17, 1960: Elizabeth Mine, Clifton, N.J.; Helen Ranck, Hummels Wharf; Nancy Barlow, Stratford, Conn.; Suzanne Black, Wellsville, N.Y.; Carol Cobb, Towson, Md.; Carol Conreux, St. Louis, Mo.; Joan Egge, Camp Hill; Barbara Fink, Bridgeville; Nancy Henderson, Bethel Park; Mary Mitchell, Selinsgrove; Mildred Otto, Englewood, N.J.; Barbara Pickard, Havertown; Sara Steininger, Bethesda, Md.; Ellen Voegtlin, Caracas, Venezuela; Susan Warner, New Britain, Conn. September 26, 1960: Lynne Devine, Media.

The fall retreat at Cowan, the student conference center, helped Pennsylvania B to start out the new year with spirited attitudes towards studies and group living. In the spring semester the two major events had been the pledge formal, again with the traditional plantation theme, and the celebration of Founders' Day with Pennsylvania Γ and Pennsylvania E, this time at Penn State University. It was here that we were very pleased to learn that one of our chapter members, Margaret Hollinshead, had been awarded the Amy Burnham Onken award for Beta province.

Also in the spring the chapter was very proud of Jeanne Thomas who was a member of the Senior Prom Court and of Margaret Hollinshead and Jeanne Thomas who were elected to the May Court.

Our congratulations go to Janet Stockham and Lori Wasserman, who graduated cum laude, and to Sally Fackler, Suzanne Friedman, and Ann Wiley on their election to Mortar Board. Several members have also been elected to membership in national honorary societies: Mary Linn Grossman, Φ Θ the history honorary; Beverly Bedwell, Debbie Milton, and Wilma Schatzle, Ψ X , the psychology honorary; and Wilma Schatzle, Φ Σ T, the philosophy honorary.

Holding responsible position and offices this fall are the following: Sally Fackler, chairman of Judicial Board; Sally Fackler and Ann Wiley, WSGA Senate; Sue Warner and Kitty Cobb, Judicial Board; Margie McLean, vice president of WRA Board; Ann Wiley, C. A. vice president; Margie McLean, C. A. secretary-treasurer; Mary Linn Grossman, editor-in-chief of Touché; Judy Smith, social chairman of Hunt Hall; Suzanne Friedman, Debbie Milton, and Ann Wiley, head residents; Margie McLean, Camie Schweiger, and Anne Wagner, counselors; Sally Fackler and Sandy Wood, freshman camp counselors.

WILMA SCHATZLE

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1903. Pledge Day, February 14, 1960. INITIATED, May 8, 1960: Jo-Anne DeMonte, West Hartford, Conn.; Barbara Duvall, Gaithersburg, Md.; Christopher Escover, Middlesex, N.J.; Karen Gordon, Baltimore, Md.; Kathryn Kuhn, Rockville Center, N.Y.; Carol Lindstrom, Plainfield, N.J.; Kathryn Linduff, Washington; Diana MacKinnon, Ensenada, Puerto Rico; Lynn Massel, Washington, D.C.; Nancy Newell, Fanwood, N.J.; Barbara Price, Springfield; Joan Stohr, Pittsburgh; Elyse Swingle, Silver Spring, Md.; Ezzetta Walter, Christiansa; Carol Jean Weiant, Peekskill, N.Y.; Sandra Wolfe, Yardley.

The girls of Pennsylvania Γ have been busy moving into and redecorating a new and more spacious apartment. The new initiates are refinishing furniture and kitchen cabinets.

Dean's List honors for the spring semester were awarded to Frances Enski, Barbara Fogg, Carol Hitchens, Carol Jones, and Barbara Reamy. Barbara Reamy was elected to Φ B K on the basis of six semesters of work.

The Wheel and Chain, senior women's honorary society, tapped Barbara Reamy and selected Barbara Price as the outstanding freshman woman. Jane Bidwell and Frances Enski were selected to be freshman counselors. President of the women's student government is Barbara Reamy.

Absent from Dickinson College for this year is Ellen Hasenritter who is studying in Vienna. This summer Lynda Bingaman and Carol Hitchens met many Pi Beta Phi girls as they toured the United States and visited many chapter houses.

In November the members of Pennsylvania Γ are looking forward to the visit of Mrs. O'Donnell, the new province president.

JUDITH B. RICHMOND

PENNSYLVANIA EPSILON—PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 15, 1953. Pledge Day, March 5, 1961. INITIATED, September 24, 1960: Lois Affleck, Gladwyne; Mary Diamond, Easton; Mary Gullo, Gretchen Kauffman, State College; Marilyn Hughes, Pottsville; Carol Kunkleman, West Lawn; Margo Lewis, Phillipsburg; Carol Longaker, Pottstown; Lynn Marvel, Northfield, N.J.; Susan Reid, Hallertown; Mary Anne Schrott, Buffalo, N.Y.; Janis Somerville, Muncy; Carole Wright, Pittsburgh.

Pennsylvania E and eleven other women's fraternities on campus moved into new dormitories this fall. The first social event in the suite was a breakfast for the new initiates given by the alumnae club.

At the banquet following initiation, Janis Somerville was announced as the Outstanding Pledge, and Lois Affleck received the Highest Scholarship Award.

Scholarship improvement from eighteenth place to fifth place on campus is accredited to the hard work of the chapter and those six Pennsylvania E's honored by Dean's List.

Members of the honorary societies and departmental honoraries include: Lois Affleck, Janis Somerville, Gwens; Ann Ghiglione, Lyn Marvel, Chimes; Joanne Aluise, Judith Bentz, Emily Bradley, and Margaret Tighe; Scrolls; Janis Somerville, A A Δ ; Judith Sheppardson, Φ Σ I; Doris Gustafson, A K Δ ; Judith Bentz, Emily Bradley, and Ann Ghiglione, Δ A Δ ; Judith Bentz, Σ T Δ .

A few of the Pi Beta Phis participating in major activities are: Linda Benson, Angel Flight Flight-Commander; Judith High, secretary of the senior class; Judith Bentz, Sorority Editor of the yearbook La Vie; Ann Ghiglione, Judith Hanigan, appointed as chairman to Greek Week.

Competition this past year resulted in first place for the I.F.C. Quartet Sing and brought beauty awards to: Lynn Marvel, Army R.O.T.C. Queen; Janet Kuntzelman, II K A Dream Girl; Mary Ann Light, 1960 La Vie Belle; Doris Gustafson, Miss Penn State finalist; Barbara Vincent, Mademelle Magazine Model.

Pennsylvania E was happy to see the alumnae at the Homecoming Luncheon and is anticipating Greek Week and other fall semester events.

LINDA B. POORE

D.C. ALPHA—GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, October 3. District of Columbia A had a very active spring semester. Between fraternity exchanges and Pi Beta Phi dinners, we held a Founders' Day dinner with Maryland B and were honored to have our Grand President, Mrs. Mansfield, with us. To end the year we held a senior farewell dinner for the graduating Pi Beta Phis.

The most outstanding campus honor was the election of Sherry Glenn as president of Tassels, a sophomore women's honorary sorority. In the scholastic department the chapter had the highest average on campus.

Rush Captain Martha Mueller worked all summer making preparations for a very successful rush.

PLEGDED: October 3; Liz Cosby, Patsy Higgins, Dina Kocsis, Betsy Short, and Elizabeth Westcott.

MARY BOYD

VIRGINIA GAMMA—WILLIAM & MARY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1925. Pledge Day, April 19, 1960. INITIATED, May 1, 1960: Judy Crummett, Carolyn Roosevelt, Carrie Lee Tepper, Nancy VanSchreeven, Richmond; Cynthia Fulwiler, Alexandria; Lesley Ward, Arlington; Susan Shaw, Portsmouth; Patsy Railing, Fort Lee; Libby Heise, Annapolis, Md.

Virginia's did quite a bit of socializing last spring. The formal Spring Dance and Pledge Presentation was held April 9 at the Williamsburg Motor Lodge. The next week we were joined by $\Sigma \Phi \Theta$ in giving an Easter egg hunt for underprivileged Negro children in this area. Our last fraternity social before buckling down to exams was with ΣN . April 23 brought many of our Pi Beta Phi friends from Norfolk, Richmond, and Williamsburg to the campus for Virginia's Founders Day Luncheon. After initiation on May 1, all actives, old and new, enjoyed a banquet at the Williamsburg Lodge. Awards given at this time were: Nancy VanSchreeven, Best Pledge; Nancy Moore, Chapter Service; and Joan Costabell, Highest Overall Academic Average. Our annual Mothers' Day Tea on May 1 was well attended and enjoyed by all. It was our pleasure to have as a May weekend visitor, Mrs. Masenberg, province president.

The William & Mary campus certainly has taken notice of many of our sisters. Beth Humrickhouse is Sweetheart of $\Theta \Delta X$, Julie Morgan was re-elected Sweetheart of $K \Sigma$, and Lorna Bowen is $K \Delta$ Rose. Ann Perkins was the Apple Blossom Princess from William & Mary at the festival in Winchester. Maureen Rumazza is secretary-treasurer of Student Government and is a new member of $K \Delta II$, honorary education society. Pat Wade is secretary-treasurer of the junior class. Sponsors for freshman Orientation Week were Libby Heise, Susan Shaw, Carolyn Roosevelt, Carrie Lee Tepper, and Nancy VanSchreeven. Nancy was also tapped for membership in $A \Delta \Delta$ freshman honor society. Cheering the William & Mary team on to victory this year are Maureen Rumazza, Sue Hairston, and Lesley Ward. Kay Davenport is co-editor of the Royalist and was also tapped for Mortar Board, and won the Ruth Barrett Smith Scholarship. Maureen Rumazza was tapped as vice president of Mortar Board. Sydney Seville is a Merit Scholar. The campus chose Pat Graves as Miss William & Mary.

On July 11, 1960, Dr. Davis Y. Paschall was appointed as the twenty-third president of the College of William & Mary. Beth Humrickhouse, president of the Executive Council of the Women Students' Cooperative Government Association, has been selected as a President's Aide.

Virginia I won first place for the third time in the fourth annual campus Greek Sing.

Our chapter is more than proud of Judy Dickerson, Delta Province Amy Burnham Onken Award winner.

So far this semester, we have had a "swinging" party with ΣII and are to have a party with $II K A$ in the near future. A slumber party at our house for all actives and pledges is planned for Oct. 7 with the intention of everyone being ready and eager to work the next morning on our float for the Homecoming Parade, Oct. 15.

PLEGDED: Shirley Pinkston, Alexandria; Carolyn Hundley, Covington; Francine League, Salem.

REGINA HOLLAND

WEST VIRGINIA ALPHA—WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1918. Pledge Day, October 2, 1960. West Virginia A completed the spring semester with many honors. Anne Taylor was elected to $\Phi B K A$. Sarah Brawley and Patricia Greenlee were tapped for Mortar Board. Diane Brown was tapped for Li Toon Awa. Kay Miles, Lynn Cromwell, and Sarah Brawley were chosen for Spokes. Kay Miles and Patricia Full were delegates to the national convention at Hot Springs, Ark.

The May L. Keller Award for the best Settlement School Program has been given to Patricia Meyer. West Virginia A has won the Province Pigeon for selling the most magazines. OHIO BETA—THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1894. Pledge Day, January 18, 1961. INITIATED, May 25, 1960: Bonnie Bell, Jane Bower, Bonnie Brinkman, Judy Bush, Susan Dose, Judy Dykstra, Ginni Gray, Judy Morrison, Roberta Simpson, Karen Starn, Linda Varley, Sue Youngen, Columbus; Sylvia King, Granville; Pat Hein, Cynthia Schmidt, Nancy Strayer, Cincinnati; Carolyn Beery, Willimansett, Mass.; Sara Mae Ridgway, Ashtabula; Mary Lou Chase, Alliance; Marty Hover, Galion; Sonia Phipps, Oberlin; Mary Pringle, Chillicothe; Judy Stubbs, Upper Sandusky; Jane Conyers, Toledo.

Spring quarter brought many honors to the members of Ohio B. The chapter was very proud to learn that Sally Phipps had won the Amy Burnham Onken award for the province.

Recent tappings for campus honoraries find Pat Hein, Judy Morrison, Bonnie Bell, Sylvia King, Karen Starn, and Ginni Gray selected for membership in Mirrors, an honorary for sophomore women. Pat Hein is the president of this organization. Jo Ellen Dunfee was tapped for Mortar Board. Members of $A \Delta \Delta$ include vice president Ginni Gray, secretary Judy Morrison, senior advisors Jo Ellen Dunfee, Karen Starn, and Jane Conyers.

Many Pi Beta Phis are active in campus activities. Karen Fasta serves as editor of the Desk Book, a campus publication. Pat Hein and Sylvia King are members of the Student Senate. Judy Morrison was elected president of Junior Panhellenic. Karen Starn and Sonia Phipps hold Ohio Union activity positions. Carol Sievers, Bonnie Bell, and Sonia Phipps are members of W. S. G. A. Board, while Ginni Gray acts as sophomore secretary. Carol Sievers was selected chairman of the all-campus Goldigger's Dance. Members of Angel Flight are secretary Mary Lee Corder and Cynthia Schmidt. Helping to cheer the Buckeyes on to victory are Marty Hover, Cynthia Schmidt, and Sue Van Voorhis, who were recently selected as members of the cheerleading squad.

Mary Lou Chase was a member of the $K \Sigma$ Stardust Bowl Court, and Marcia Reid served on the ΣII Orchid Court.

Pi Beta Phi placed third in the Greek Week sing and took second place in the May Week Carnival.

PLEGDED: Ann Raney, Columbus.

SUD FROBERG

OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 3, 1925. Pledge Day, September 26, 1960. INITI-

ATED, September 18, 1960: Danny Jeffers, Columbus; Judy Daniel, Cuyohoga Falls; Julie Schettler, Oberlin.

Two trophies have been added to those previously won by Ohio Δ . The Σ X Derby Trophy was presented to the chapter last spring after the girls succeeded in winning six blue ribbons and one red ribbon at the annual spring event. The most prized trophy, however, is the recently received Scholarship Trophy awarded to Ohio Δ by Panhellenic for having the highest point average among the sororities on Wesleyan's campus for the previous spring semester.

With the beginning of the fall term Pi Beta Phi continued its active participation in college activities. Gwen Greenfield and Jan Dunham, as judicial and executive presidents, respectively, of AWS, assumed the responsibilities of directing the policies of the women students at Ohio Wesleyan. Ginna Coultrap, as YWCA President also began her term of office. Lois Oswald is serving as social chairman of Panhellenic, Bobbie Schumacher as publicity chairman for the Home Economics Club, and Pat Martin as vice president of Orchestra. Barb Jones is the new president of the Students Education Association.

Two new Mortar Board members are Judy Gartung and Jan Dunham. Other Pi Beta Phi's elected to honoraries are: Julie Kirkpatrick, Δ Φ Δ ; and Kay Galyean, Π Δ E .

To help cheer the Battling Bishops on to victory this fall will be Janet Lance re-elected to the cheerleading squad, and at half-time majorettes Gwen Greenfield and Brenda Lucky will perform for the crowd. Among the AFROTC sponsors who were presented on October 8 were Janet Lance, deputy commander; Barb Jones, and Julie Kirkpatrick.

Last spring Jan Duham became the first runner-up to Miss Heart of Ohio in one of the preliminaries for the Miss America Pageant. Judy Moore was the Brown Jug Queen for the annual county fair held in Delaware each September, and Sue Bear was recently chosen Sweetheart of Σ Φ E .

Jackie Joy, Kathy Davey, Kay Galyean, and Julie Kirkpatrick, Ohio Δ representatives at the Pi Beta Phi Convention this summer, brought back many interesting suggestions and experiences to share with the chapter, many of which were incorporated into the rush program.

Ohio Δ welcomes back Diane Waechter, who spent her junior year studying at Exeter University, England.

PLEGDED: Linda Alexander, Cleveland; Karen Andrews, Gwen Vestal, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Margaret Chandler, London, England; Linda Double, Sharon Fairchild, Oberlin; Ann Foster, Springfield; Mary Gasink, Rochester, N.Y.; Eleanor Hanna, Charleston, W.Va.; Laura Hardy, Midland, Mich.; Barbara Hites, Elizabeth Johnson, Cincinnati; Ann Hofstra, Bethesda, Md.; Jane Jack, Berea; Tanya Kossiakoff, Barb Tatun, Silver Spring, Md.; Lynn Kummer, Carolyn Rietz, Steubenville; Beth McNaughton Aberdeen S.D.; Nancy Mollin, Akron; Janet Pitt, Lexington, Mass.; Susan Reading, Lebanon, N.Y.; Sharon Tischen, River Forest, Ill.; and Susan Woods, Garden City, N.Y.

OHIO EPSILON—UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO. Chartered, April 28, 1945. Pledge Day, March 9, 1960. INITIATED, March 13, 1960: Janice Askey, Betty Bing, Martha Bruce, Donna Carroll, Ann Haase, Judy Harris, Janet Landis, Peggy Larmore, Ardith Mayo, Judy Moore, Patti Pasch, Gloria Rehkopf, Janice Wass, Toledo.

Women's Songfest was one of the many activities the chapter participated in during the spring semester. Under the direction of Judy Connors, the chapter placed third.

On May 10, the chapter sponsored its first spaghetti dinner. The dinner served as a moneymaking project to send members to Convention. Ardith Mayo was chairman of this very successful event.

Ohio E spent many enjoyable times together, during the summer months. Lake George, Ind., was the scene for the chapter's annual week at cottage. Other summer events were the out of town party and the Centennial dance.

The fall semester opened with the completion and dedication of the new Engineering Science building at the University of Toledo. The new addition gives added attraction to the beauty of the campus.

Individual honors were received by many members. Janet Landis, Sandy Underwood and Judy Connors were elected as class officers. Louise Miklovic was tapped to Peppers, a women's honorary. Serving on the Student Union Board of Governors are Donna Carroll and Sharon Osterud. Sandy Underwood is the D. N. W. Club men's dorms, Homecoming Queen candidate. Janice Wass and Donna Carroll have leads in the theatre production, "Our Town."

PLEGDED: Shirley Bower, Margaret Brower, Marilyn Morris, Joyce Stein, Bonnie Upton, Toledo.

MARY DUWVE

OHIO ZETA—MIAMI UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 10, 1945. Pledge Day, September 22, 1960. INITIATED, September 13, 1960: Marilyn Bradbury, Hamilton; Bonnie Dean, Evanston, Ill.; Jeanie Grimm, Dayton; Joan Lodeski, Wheaton, Ill.; Bonnie Poznik, Cleveland; Janet Williams, New Philadelphia.

Miami University has begun a new scholastic program for the year 1960-61. Any entering freshman with a 3.25 accumulative average or any sophomore with the same is asked to join. One honor course each semester is required. This course is accelerated and includes much independent study and seminar work. The 3.24 average must be maintained, and a comprehensive test and a written paper are required at the end of the senior year. If these are passed, the student will obtain an honor diploma upon graduation.

Ohio Z was proud of its members who were chosen last May to join several of the scholastic honoraries. Judy Holcomb and Virginia Sick were tapped for Mortar Board, while Lee Evans, Joan Lodeski, Emily Niemi, and Liz Savage were tapped by CWEN, the sophomore women's honorary. Joan Lodeski was later elected secretary of the group, and Virginia Sick was chosen to be vice president of Mortar Board. Sally Butzberger was asked to join K Δ Π , the education honorary, and Bev Brown and Sally Martin became members of Aletheoi, the English honorary. Π Δ Φ , the French honorary, initiated Judy Holcomb. A freshman women's honorary, new to Miami University's campus, was initiated here in the spring of 1960. All freshman women with an average of 3.5 were asked to join, while a charter membership was extended to sophomore women with a 3.5 accumulative average. Nancy Becker, Joan Lodeski, Emily Niemi, and Peggy Parks became members of A Δ Δ , with Nancy Becker being elected the group's historian. The entire chapter, paired with the SAMs, was honored when its team took first place in the Greek week College Bowl Contest.

Each year the freshman women of Miami University sponsor a May Day, at which time outstanding women on campus are honored. The 1960 chairman was Lee Evans. Bonnie Dean and Barbara Mathews were representatives from their resident halls who served under her as committee chairmen. Numerous Pi Beta Phi's were recognized that evening. SPER, the junior women's service organization chose Nancy Benko, Pat Fritzen, Ruth Snycker, and Nancy Wickman as members, with Pat Fritzen elected president. Sophomore counselors for the freshman residence halls included Lee Evans, Jeanie Johnston, Joan Lodeski, Barbara Mathews, Liz Savage, and Anne Wiseman. House chairmen included Judy Holcomb, Sally Martin, Bonnie Poznik, Sally Schaefer, and Gretchen Stimpfle.

Members of Ohio Z were most happy to see two very familiar faces in the August 1960 issue of Mademoiselle; those of Sheila Beck and Ann Bohlin. Ann Haughey was honored by tying for first place in the National Rose of Δ Σ Π contest. Carlyn Hastings was chosen the Sweetheart of A T Φ , while Lee Evans was elected as Freshman Queen. Air Force Angels are Ann Bohlin and Joyce Eschenfelder.

Since September 1960, Mary Ann Rudyk has become co-editor of the AWS newsletter and was elected as an assistant house chairman. Ann Haughey was elected as Homecoming Queen of 1960, to be the second Pi Beta Phi in two years to win the award.

Ohio Z has several individual chapter awards which are very important to its members. The Mickey Claypool Award, for the pledge who best served the chapter in the spirited manner of its namesake, went to Lee Evans. The other honor, represented by a solitary diamond pin, went to Lynne Hunt who contributes a great deal in spirit and service and who most typifies Pi Beta Phi.

Pre-school rush was begun on Miami University's campus for the first time this September. As a result, much of the confusion and rush criticism has been alleviated. Although there are many things to be improved, the new system was quite successful.

PLEGDED: Sally Blom, Lakewood; Jean Bryon, Celina; Pat Dietz, Elm Grove, Wis.; Carol Emmons, Bellefontaine; Nelle Eshelman, Battle Creek, Mich.; Ruth Ewald, Waukegan, Ill.; Bess Ferguson, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Sandy Grosscup, Villa Park, Ill.; Linda Hiestand, Hillsboro; Sue Ann Hill, Marilyn Pratt, Columbus; Chris Hubert, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; Lynn Irwin, Frances Risson, Lynn Winterich, Cleveland; Marilyn Jones, Bay Village; Jan Kellerman, Elaine Woodley, Toledo; Sally Meyer, Winnetka, Ill.; Sally Mullikin, Terrace Park; Connie Neil, Evanston, Ill.; Peggy O'Hara, Hilliard; Ellen Plummer, Eaton; Nora Shera, Oxford; Susanne Taylor, Youngstown; Sarah Webster, Painesville.

MICHIGAN GAMMA—MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, February 17, 1945. Pledge Day, January 24, 1960. INITIATED, May 7, 1960: Anne Cioffi, Allen Park; Susan Fries, Battle Creek; Susan Furry, Webster Groves, Mo.; Jane Hansen, Deanna Phillips, Holland; Linda Holliday, Hemlock, N.Y.; Jayne Hultman, Glenview, Ill.; Susan Ludwig, Grosse Pointe Woods;

Marilyn Marston, East Lansing; Sandra Mezey, Manhasset, N.Y.; Joan Printz, Detroit; Pamela Rowland, Julie Sassaman, Charlotte; Mary Carol Tuescher, Hunting Woods; Jill Veenhuis, St. Joe; Sandra Walczyk, Lincolnwood, Ill.

Michigan Γ was welcomed back to campus this year with a partially redecorated house for which they thank the Lansing-East Lansing Alumnae Club. The university also has something new added, a graduate dormitory and the start of a large classroom building.

Last spring brought many hours to Pi Beta Phi. Janie Denison was tapped for Mortar Board and she also became Editor-in-Chief of the university's yearbook, the Wolverine. Marilyn Detwiler and Doreen Wood were elected to the 60 Club, which is for outstanding seniors, and were also among the fifty outstanding graduating senior women selected by Mortar Board.

Sharon Jones, one of the seniors, brought honor to Michigan Γ when she became secretary of her class and also Chief Justice of Student Traffic Appeals Court. She also acquired a Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship over the summer.

Spring also brought third place in Water Carnival, of which Doreen Wood was executive secretary. The chapter was also proud of its first place in the Greek Olympics, which were held during Greek Week.

In the University Theater production of "Darkness At Noon," Anne Cioffi played the part of Luba.

Betty Hughes was awarded the title of Miss Chester County in the competition for Miss Pennsylvania, and Jill Veenhuis was a member of the Sweetheart of $\Sigma \chi$ Court.

Michigan Γ is now looking forward to its annual Dad's Day, October 8, when the dads will be taken to the Mich. State-Iowa football game, served dinner at the chapter house, and then presented a skit given by the chapter.

PLEGGED: Betty Jayne Hughes, Spring City, Pa.; Kendra Van Sciever, Dearborn; Vicki Stewman, Julie Zemper, Grosse Pointe.

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO. Chartered, 1909. As the fall term opens again at the University of Toronto, Ontario A begins the hectic formal rushing season. For our final parties we have chosen a Roman theme, and we greatly appreciate the efforts of Judy Shaw, who wrote the script, and Connie Garrow, who was responsible for making the scenery.

The twentieth and newest member of our chapter is Fay Lindley, a transfer from Alberta A, whom we are very happy to welcome here.

Since university has only been in session for a week, the organization of teams and clubs is not yet under way. A further report on activities will be included in our next letter.

BRENDA SPROULE

ONTARIO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO. Chartered, 1934. Pledge Day, October 2, 1960. Ontario B actively welcomed twenty-four new pledges at the Chapter Convention held on the weekend of September 24. As it was our first event after the summer, there was much news and business to be attended to. Also, Bev Baldwin, Martha Farncomb and Sue Peever, our Convention Delegates, showed us the slides they took at Convention and told us about the great time they had there.

Going back a while to the Spring, Ontario B members did wonderfully well as far as awards for graduates are concerned. The awards were Martha Farncomb and Connie Gardner, University College Council Awards; Adrienne Salmond, Huron College Honour Award; Judy Jarvis and Carol Anne Coutts, Oxy Honour Awards; and Lois James, Publication Key.

The London Alumnae Club held their annual barbecue for the pledges and actives on October 3 at the home of Mrs. Sutton. The food was great and everyone had a tremendous time. This event offers the opportunity for present and past members of the chapter to get to know one another better.

Pi Beta Phi are taking part in every phase of campus life this fall. In Student Government, Ann Evans is director of Cultural Activities and Liz Ferguson is social director on the University Students' Council while pledge Heather Johnston is a representative on the University College Council. Shirley Grieve is the Women's Sports Editor for the Gazette. Bev Baldwin and Noelle Grace are both in the Undergraduate Women's Organization. As co-convenor of the University College Ball, which is held in February, Wendy Smith is busy working on plans.

Western's Cheerleaders and Majorettes are predominately Ontario B members this year. Carol Brown, Di Murphy and Sue Peever are back as Majorettes joined by pledge Noelle Grace. Likewise Pat Moloney is cheering again joined by pledges Peggy Richardson and Marg Ring.

This year there are two medical students, Liz Ross and Marg Westcott, in Ontario B and Marg is secretary of the Hippocratic Council. Linda Jolly, Nan Mowry, Di Murphy and Wendy Robertson are again members of the Purple Spur.

With Homecoming Weekend only one week away the pledges are in the middle of plans for our float for the parade. Things are progressing very well and this year's entry should be outstanding. Open houses are also being held after the football games.

A real transformation took place on campus during the summer. A new Arts College is nearly complete now and construction is still under way on the Law School and the Nursing School.

Ontario B is looking forward to another tremendous year for our college, our chapter and ourselves.

PLEGDED, October 2, 1960: Barb Burrows, Stratford; Ann Christiansen, Waterloo; Jeanne Elliot, Petrolia; Sally Fauquier, Clarkson; Noelle Grace, Elspeth Hederson, Heather Johnston, Judy Myers, Ann Sutherland, Anne Walkey, London; Bunty Gullitinan, St. Catharines; Karen Hendry, Peterborough; Carolyn Hogg, Sault Ste. Marie; Barb Husser, Marg Rins, Niagara Falls; Marg Hughes, Bradford; Martha Jackson, Goderich; Mary Kirkpatrick, New Hamburg; Jan Lumsden, Owen Sound; Libby McAskile, Woodstock; Ann McClatchie, Delhi; Joan Mortin, St. Thomas; Peggy Richardson, Sarnia; Cynthia Sanders, Nipigon.

ZETA PROVINCE

INDIANA ALPHA—FRANKLIN COLLEGE. Chartered, 1888. Pledge Day, September 17, 1960. INITIATED, September 10, 1960: Nancy Stout.

Last spring Indiana A was well represented during the annual Honors Convocation. Barbara Erlandson was awarded the "Benjie" for the outstanding actress of the year. Listed on the Alpha Honor Roll for outstanding scholarship were Jane Demaree, Donna Calvin, Georgia Bullard, Alice Gill, and Grace Cleveland. There were four girls linked for Laurels, underclasswomen's honorary at the May Day ceremony. The chapter also received the college scholarship trophy for having the highest scholastic average. The chapter was also awarded a trophy for first place in the annual Variety Show.

Twenty-four Pi Beta Phis returned to Franklin for the opening of school and rush. At the finish of a very busy and successful week, golden arrowheads were pinned on nineteen happy girls. The pledges were then feted at the traditional luncheon and cooky shine. At the cooky shine, honors were awarded to Peri Irish, grade improvement over her sophomore year, Grace Cleveland, highest grades in freshman year, and Judy Ulrey, outstanding pledge.

Indiana A is honored by having Sandra Hamilton, pledge, as a leading character in the college theatre's fall production, "The Glass Menagerie."

Becky Redmon was chosen as one of Franklin's cheerleaders, and she was chosen as a candidate for Homecoming Queen.

CHARLOTTE HENSLEY

INDIANA BETA—INDIANA UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1893. As students arrived on campus this fall, there was no doubt that the enrollment of Indiana University had increased by 800. Students are sleeping in bunks, fifty to a recreation room, classes are crowded, and everywhere there is a lack of facilities.

Returning to the house, Indiana B was surprised to see lovely new carpeting in the entrance hall, the rooms in old wing painted light, cheery colors, and the card room redecorated. Sincere thanks go to the Bloomington Alumnae Club for these improvements.

The school year was officially commenced September 18 with a retreat at Cascades Park in order to orientate the pledges and review house rules. A picnic lunch was taken, and each class gave a skit.

Janie McFadden, who was chosen I Men's Queen last spring, returned from a week in California with ten other girls selected as Lettermen's Queens of the campus.

Congratulations go to Jan Coffey, who was chosen Outstanding Junior at State Day last spring and to Diane Roe, who was selected for the Amy B. Onken Award. This spring also, Pat Jones was voted the Outstanding Supporting Actress, an honor which is rarely given to a freshman.

Although school has been in session only two weeks, the Pi Beta Phi house is humming with activity. Plans are underway for the booth at the annual Fall Carnival, a United Fund project, and for Dad's Day.

The pledges sponsored a Lil Abner dance October 1 for the actives since there were no summer pledges. The boys were greeted at the door as in rush and after several rounds of dancing, they were blindfolded and claimed by their dates.

Pledge class president, Pauline Hosler, was elected president of Enomene, a sophomore activities honorary.

INDIANA GAMMA—BUTLER UNIVERSITY. Chartered, August 27, 1897. Pledge Day, September 10, 1960. INITIATED, October 9, 1960: Sondra Moon, Susan Vandivier, Julie Webster, Indianapolis; Karen Bergstrom, Rockford, Ill.; Nancy Hunt, South Bend; Emily Kurrie, Deerfield Beach, Fla.; Jenni McKinney, Kirklin; Nancy Wachter, Glenview, Ill.

The fall semester at Indiana I began in the midst of the remodeling of the house and the building of a new wing, which includes a dormitory, study rooms, a room for the many town girls, and an apartment for the house mother. Enough of the redecorating was finished at the beginning of school so that rush, which added 23 pledges, might be held in the house while the building of the addition continued.

Last spring, Lana Shaw was chosen "Miss Indianapolis" and was the Talent Winner in the "Miss Indiana" contest this summer. She was recently named "Miss Cinerama." Ann Stewart was selected as the state "Σ N Sweetheart," and Georgia Herring has been nominated as Indiana I's candidate for Homecoming Queen. Carolyn Dixon, Bonnie Page, Kay Cross, and Pam Ulrey are new members of Pastels, a professional singing group composed of Butler students.

At the annual Θ Σ Φ Matrix Table, Toni Ferris was presented the Spoke award for her activities on campus. Barbara Adams was tapped for Mortar Board; Ginger Lukacs and Ann Stewart were selected for Chimes, the junior honorary; and Carolyn Dixon, Bonnie Page, Mary Jo Kendall, and Susie Morrow were chosen for Spurs, the sophomore honorary.

PLEGDED: Ann Booe, Suzanne Barnhart, Sallie Frauman, Lydia Hildreth, Diana Jones, Norma Jo Kolbe, Ann Linsmith, Lyndel Lowry, Barbara Madden, Mary Louise McCain, Cynthia Phister, Indianapolis; Carolyn Allhands, New Richmond; Jo Ann Beard, Fort Wayne; Linda Burton, Tipton; Kay Cross, Kokomo; Karen Dooley, Elwood; Sue Eagleson, Des Plaines, Ill.; Ruth Ann Marshall, Lafayette; Celana Morrow, Newman, Ill.; Joan Nordman, Columbus; Bonnie Page, Angola; Pamela Ulrey, Goshen; Sue Whitney, Hutchins, Kan.

DIANA DEITSCH

INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1921. Pledge Day, February 14, 1960. Indiana Δ ended the past semester with several members being chosen for honoraries. Jeanne Edmond and Ann Brockman were selected for membership in Mortar Board, Gold Peppers, activities honorary, tapped Nancy Osborn, Jerri Paskins, Linda Rice, and Jill Sweet.

The chapter came back to school to welcome the new house-mother, Mrs. Ruth Rogers, who is from Anderson, Indiana. She is in the process of getting to know all of us and learning the Purdue campus.

Karen King is busy these football weekends working with the freshman card section as a junior officer. The Junior Class Council selected Lois Moffit, Alice Ogle, and Karen King to membership. Suzanne Schwanz, Judy Alpert, and Barbara Branch were chosen for Sophomore Council.

Σ X and Pi Beta Phi have been very busy preparing an act for the semi-annual "V2" variety show. It is based on a medieval theme.

CAROLANN EICKMEYER

INDIANA EPSILON—DEPAUW UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1942. Pledge Day, September 22, 1960. Back on campus for another year, the chapter at DePauw is bursting with the enthusiasm of fifty-eight girls, "Mom" Dietz, and twenty new pledges.

The Pi Beta Phis remember last spring; when Alice Stout was crowned Sweetheart of Σ X for the State of Indiana; when Carolyn Phillips received the Zeta Province Chapter Service Award; when Mortar Board capped Betty Sue Garner, Phyllis Osborn, and Alice Stout; when Lynda Bayliff took first place in the National Women's Oratorical Contest.

On the Dean's List for last semester were Jane Bowman, Martha Dorsett, Betty Sue Garner, Liz King, Jane Medaris, Lyn Orwig, Carolyn Phillips, Marilyn Wehrman, and Becky Zabel.

Studying abroad this year are Bonnie Warner at Strasbourg, France; Penny Tall who is in Lausanne, Switzerland; and Lynda Bayliff in London, England. We welcome to the house Dana Gillham, a transfer from Kentucky A, and Ellen Combs who returns to campus from a year at Colorado University.

To help the "DePauw Tigers" to victory are Jackie Calkins, captain of the Cheerleaders, Sally Ried, and Sally Smith.

PLEGDED: Katherine Ault, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Katherine Baechler, Battle Creek, Mich.; Jean Davies, Shaker Heights, Ohio; Judy Diehl, Libertyville, Ill.; Sharon Farkas, Millstadt, Ill.; Pamela Fuller, Champaign, Ill.; Susan Greenhoe, Midland, Mich.; Judy Huffman, Kirkwood, Mo.; Catherine Kim, Beech Grove; Katherine Mosley, Bar Harbor, Me.; Dianne Nielsen, LaGrange, Ill.; Maria Ninos, Elgin, Ill.; Judy Peters, Godfrey, Ill.; Kathryn Saxton, Downers Grove, Ill.; Julie Scholz, Ladue, Mo.; Martha

Sigmond, Washington, D.C.; Stephanie Smith, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Deena Tanton, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Shirley Jo Unruh, Clayton, Mo.; Mary Lynn Wilder, Dayton, Ohio.

Indiana Z was quite proud of all the honors given to individual members during the past year.

Those tapped for Clavia, women's honorary, last May were Joene Wagner and Ruth Neel.

Those selected for Who's Who were Sharon Ronneau, Gyneth Sprunger, and Paula Bolerjack Gruber.

Outstanding seniors chosen were Gyneth Sprunger and Sharon Ronneau.

Joene Wagner has been selected to serve as secretary of the Student Center Governing Board.

Julie Pratt who was Ball State's representative to the Miss Indiana Contest was chosen Queen of the 500 Mile Race.

During the past summer, Sue Berlien acted as co-chairman for freshman camp. Counsellors from Pi Beta Phi were Sandy Baughman, Ann Kincaid, Susie Craig, and Betty Huntoon.

At the present time the chapter is preparing for Homecoming. Our theme is "Oops They're Reluctant." Linda Lewis is our candidate for Homecoming Queen. Publicity and float arrangements are now in full swing.

PLEDGED, April 6, 1960: Leona Groshans, Mishawaka; Joyce Steinkamp, Batesville.

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE. Chartered, October 9, 1925. Pledge Day, September 21, 1960. INITIATED, October 9, 1960: Judy Heaton, Millie Sensbach, Cynthia Wade.

Kentucky A ended its year with a busy spring semester and is beginning its new school year with hopes for a profitable future. We are situated in our new house, and are now looking ahead optimistically to one of Kentucky A's best years.

In March, the Pi Phi Misses won first place in the annual campus Barbershop Quartet Contest. The winning quartet consisted of Linda Caudill, Betty Christian, Joyce Freeman, and Mary Irwin Young. At Fryberger Sing in May, Kentucky A was proud to receive the Φ K T trophy awarded to the Outstanding Sorority on campus, and also the Student Council trophy for the annual Red Cross Blood Drive. Also at this all-university affair, several Kentucky As were tapped to honoraries. They were: Linda Caudill, Dana Gillham, Madelyn Kast, who were tapped to Cwens, the sophomore women's honorary; and Phyllis Bader, Linda Kambach, and Caroline Roulston were tapped to Mortar Board. Jane Harmon was named by the Student Council as the most outstanding Sophomore Woman on campus, and Caroline Roulston was awarded the K D prize as the outstanding woman student in the Psychology Department.

Several Kentucky As were tapped to departmental honoraries. Jane Harmon and Eva Griffith were elected to Π Δ E, the journalism fraternity, and Carol Trautwein Shields was selected to Ψ Π Σ , a physics honorary. Alice Ferguson Smith was tapped to Ψ X and Caroline Roulston was elected president of the group. Beverly Hester was elected to K Δ Π , ad Φ K Φ , and along with Barbara Miles and Mary Irwin Young, she was tapped to the Woodcock Society.

Jane Harmon was elected President of P G O, the woman's service organization, and Judy Heaton was elected vice president of this group and of Westminster Club. Peggy Choate and Judy Heaton were chosen publicity chairman and social chairman, respectively, of the International Relations Club. Eliza Stout and Betty Christian were elected membership chairmen of the Student National Education Association.

At the close of the semester Betty Christian, Peggy Choate, Eva Griffith, Jane Harmon, Madelyn Kast, and Meredith Swann were elected to the University Student Senate. Eva Griffith was named editor-in-chief of the Thoroughbred, the university yearbook, and Linda Caudill, Sherry Penn, Peggy Choate, and Meredith Swann hold offices on the staff.

Kentucky A was proud to boast Joy Middleton as K A Rose, and Mary Irwin Young as the University of Louisville candidate to the annual Mountain Laurel Festival.

Our greatest honor was awarded at the Pi Beta Phi Convention this summer when our delegates, Peggy Choate and Eva Griffith, accepted the Philadelphia Bowl for Kentucky A.

BETTY CHRISTIAN

TENNESSEE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 21, 1960. INITIATED, October 2, 1960: Pat Norris, Chattanooga; Jerry Stone, Harrison; Judy Varner, Findlay, Ohio.

Tennessee A finished the 59-60 school year well satisfied with its many activities and honors. The chapter won two awards at the annual Blue Key Follies, winning Best Sorority Act and Best Act in Show with a skit entitled "Malice in Wonderland." Pi Beta Phi sponsored its first fraternity intramural swim-meet, which was won by A X A. The chapter took second place in the annual Σ X Derby, losing by only one point.

Gaylor Holder was selected editor of the Mocasin, university annual, was elected corresponding secretary of Panhellenic Council, and was tapped into Mortar Board. Pat Kaylor was presented as A X A Crescent Girl, while Jerry Stone and Pat Norris were members of the Σ X Sweetheart court. Susan Howard and Mickie Wade were candidates for Π K A Dream Girl. Helen Barrett Green was recipient of the Dorothy H. Woodward Outstanding Junior Award, presented by Σ X.

Jerry Stone was named "Miss Chattanooga of 1960" in the Jaycee-sponsored pageant, and Mickie Wade and Vicki Daniel were contestants for the title.

Marlene Wright was elected president of the Home Economics Club, while Connie Cheal was chosen vice president. Marlene also was elected third vice president of the Tennessee Home Economics Association.

Margaret Bromley and Marilyn Voges Brown are treasurer and secretary, respectively, of the senior class. Elizabeth Bridge is junior class representative.

Barbara Painter and Ardian Ansel were Tennessee A's representatives at Convention this summer. They returned to Chattanooga with the National Historian's Vase, awarded for the chapter history with its "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" theme. Elizabeth Bridge and Connie Cheal were historians.

Tennessee A started fall rush in the chapter house newly redecorated by the alumnae. Interior and exterior paint jobs, new drapes, and new bathroom and kitchen floors improved the appearance of the house considerably.

The new pledges were honored at a banquet following pledging, as well as at a slumber party after one of the football games. Plans are being made for the chapter's annual weekend trip to Settlement School at Gatlinburg.

CONNIE CHEAL

TENNESSEE BETA—VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 9, 1940. Pledge Day, February 6, 1961. Saturday, September 17, 1960, was a proud day for Pi Beta Phi and especially for Tennessee B. On that day, Trish Champion was crowned Miss National Football in Berkeley, Calif. Last spring, Trish, president of the chapter, was chosen Miss Vanderbilt by the undergraduate men on campus. In the same election, Betty Anne Curtis was elected Lady of the Bracelet, outstanding senior woman. Barbara Grayson was chosen as Eta Province candidate for the Chapter Service Award. Pat Haggard was tapped for Φ B K and Ellen Pearson received membership in Delphians, scholastic honorary for freshman women. Ellen was also selected for Meletians, honorary writing society.

Ann Dobson and Marge Thorpe were elected to the Student Senate and Judy Holke was chosen for the Student Court. Three members of the chapter, Lucy Lee Kerr, Carole O'Daniel and Diana Shanklin, are members of Residence Halls Council. Diana was elected vice president of the Council and serves on the Judicial Board. Carole was also chosen to represent all sorority women on the Judicial Board. The Student Christian Association has Barbara Hancock as a member of its General Cabinet, Kathy McDaniel as secretary of the senior cabinet, and Cornelia Cunningham as a member of the sophomore cabinet.

Chapter members chosen for fraternity sweetheart courts are Angela Welker and Molly Nelson for K Σ , Ann Dobson and Kathy McDaniel for Σ X, Gail Rasmussen and April Fisher for Π K A, Judy Holke for K A, and Linda Loy for Σ N.

Pi Beta Phi is represented on the Panhellenic Council by Eugenia Cherry, who is president of that group. Lucy Lee Kerr is president of Tri-Arts and sponsor of the aquatic club. Barbara Hancock, president of Women's Advisory Council, also serves as vice president of Social Standards and secretary of Mortar Board.

Trish Champion and Jane Rogers are serving as cheerleaders for their second consecutive year. Jane was also recently honored by being selected a member of the homecoming court.

Ten members of Tennessee B joined members of Alabama A in Hattiesburg, Miss., early this fall, for the purpose of establishing the new Mississippi A chapter. It was a rewarding experience, and the girls were very proud of the nickname "Mississippi Alpha Chapter" which Mrs. Speaker and Mrs. Tuft bestowed upon the members of the various chapters respectively.

Vanderbilt University recently received a $4,000,000 grant from the Ford Foundation, the greater part of which will be used for the construction of a building for the Law School. In the near future, the television program "College Bowl" will present students of Vanderbilt University as its panel.

Under the new university ruling concerning fraternity housing, several fraternities on campus have begun construction of their new lodges. One fraternity, K Σ , has already occupied its new lodge which is a modernistic brick structure across from the campus.

Tennessee B spent its first month of the school year preparing for deferred rush which this year is based on a new quota-limitation system.

LUCY LEE KERR

TENNESSEE GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE. Chartered, May 15, 1948. Pledge Day, May 2, 1960, and October 3, 1960. INITIATED, May 1, 1960: Pat Donahoe, Carol Dych, Paula Hagedorn, Pat Huff, Gatlinburg; Hope Holcombe, Linda Swanson, Chattanooga; Emily Saffold, Knoxville; Carol McCormick, McMinnville; Mary Sullenberger, Dandridge; Nancy Sams, White Pine, October 9, 1960: Anne Goddard, Dandridge; Sara Johnson, Soddy; Linda Koger, Falls Church, Va.; Carole Long, Lynnville; Patsy Moss, Nashville; Linda Seyfried, Oak Ridge; Kaye Smith, McMinnville; Linda Joy Wilson, Chattanooga.

At a banquet following spring initiation, Paula Hagedorn was named best pledge and Carole McCormick received the pledge Scholarship Cup.

Tennessee I won the Panhellenic Scholarship Trophy of the Year in the spring as a result of placing first on campus three out of four quarters last year.

Pi Beta Phi was a finalist in the annual Carnicus production. The title of their skit was "Alfred Hitchcock Presents," written and directed by Brenda Clement and Karen Jammes.

In the spring the pledge class presented the active chapter with a large Pi Beta Phi banner to be used in fraternity and sorority roll call at pep and political rallies. The banner has a wine field and blue greek letters.

Tapped for Mortar Board were: Rachel Jinks, the chapter president, and Delores Pratt, the vice president. Delores was elected secretary.

Helen Iddins was elected Liberal Arts Representative to the All Students Council, Official Delegate to the Southern University Student Government Association, Secretary of the Young Democrats Party, and to the Executive Screening Board.

Initiated by $\Sigma A I$, international women's fraternity, were: Sharon Little and Fran Cartier. Connie Cox was pledged to the same organization.

This fall a new freshman dormitory was completed to house six hundred and twelve of the one thousand freshman girls entering the university. Seven hundred and seventy-three of these girls went through rush. Selected as Sophomore Aids to this dorm were: Linda Swanson, Sandra Freeland, Pat Huff, and Paula Hagedorn. New pledges, Lynn Oliver and Ann Wilkinson were elected as presidents of their respective halls, and Rosalynn Doublin was elected vice president to serve with Ann.

Brenda Clement has been elected to the Publications Council, and also Business Manager of the Torch, a freshman handbook to university life.

Rachel Jinks has been elected to the Advisory Board of the Campus Beautiful Committee.

Elected to K T A, Journalism honorary fraternity, was Gale Buchanan. Gale is also president of Henson Hall, the sophomore dorm.

Phyllis Swann was selected as a majorette of the "Pride of the Southland" band for her second year.

The most exciting news for all women's fraternities on campus is that by next fall they will be able to rush in a new Panhellenic Building. Each fraternity will have an apartment consisting of a meeting room and kitchen. There will also be room to house two or three more sororities than are already on campus.

PLEGDED, May 2, 1960: Sandra Freeland, Chattanooga; Mary Moran, Oak Ridge; Amelia Thompson, Pulaski. Pledged October 3, 1960: Betsy Irwin, Nancy Johnson, Margaret Kaderly, Sharon Kelly, Louellen McKnight, Alice Myers, Sue Ogdin, Teri Shevlin, Rosemary Smith, Mary Jo Stewart, Carolyn Varner, Knoxville; Linda Snowden, Bette Stubbs, Ann Wilkinson, Oak Ridge; Margaret Collins, Elizabeth Tufts, Atlanta, Ga.; Rosalynn Doublin, Chattanooga; Mary Lou Gray, Madison; Kathleen Haynes, Castalian Springs; Jane Johnson, Soddy; Sarah Kirk, Etowah; Karen Kelton, Cleveland; Glenna McMahan, Sevierville; Lynn Oliver, Readyville; Elizabeth Peck, Springfield; Sammie Sullenberger, Dandridge; Susan Thompson, Elizabethton; Anne Canaday, Little Rock, Ark.; Susan Dell, Falls Church, Va.; Pat Nichols, Morganton, N.C.

FRAN CARTIER

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 28, 1960. INITIATED, September 14, 1960: Nan Gray Atkins, Atlanta, Ga.; Harriet Jackson, Cartersville, Ga.; Alice Risien, Houston, Tex.; Kaye Shaffer, Greensboro.

Our college year has started out with the Pi Beta Phi holding many outstanding offices on the campus. Mary Steward Baker is co-chairman of the Women's Orientation and is also associate editor of our school paper. Judy Albergotti is secretary of the Student Body, on the President's Cabinet along with Nancy Johnson and Carolyn Kelley, and on the Academic Affairs Board with Wallie Sayner, Jo Ann Sory and Wendy Hobson. Several members were chosen to serve on various publications staffs. Emma Jones is Yack Fraternity Editor and Memmie Mosier is the copy editor. Patricia Litchfield will also do work on the yearbook.

North Carolina A won first place in scholarship with the help of Pat Sawyer, Martha McKinney, Wendy Hobson, Judy Albergotti, Vicki Gruelack, Libby Russell and Wallie Sayner who made Dean's List. Judy Albergotti won the Ruth Barrett Smith Scholarship Award. Among the awards won last spring we won first prize in the Mock Democratic Convention. We came in second place with the Athletic Award. Martha Hodsdon was first runner up in the Miss Modern Venus contest put on by ΣX . Claudia McLaughlin was chosen as one of the four marshals at graduation.

Leading our team on to victory are two Pi Beta Phi cheerleaders, Georgia Fuller and Linda Moose. Harriet Jackson was one of the finalists for Cu Queen. Last spring Dottie May, Martha Hodsdon, Carolyn Kelley, Claudia McLaughlin, and Blair Maddison were chosen to be on the ΣX Sweetheart Court. Carolyn Kelley is $\Pi K A$ Dream girl. In the Yack Beauty Court of 1960 were Frances Scott and Becky Roberson.

In the spring, the chapter enjoyed a Founders' Day party at Duke with the Pi Beta Phi from there, where awards were presented at this time to various girls in each chapter.

Social events for this year have already begun. Parties in the near future will be given in honor of the Pi Beta Phi by ΣX , $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$, $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, ΣN , $\Sigma A E$, $K \Sigma$, $K A$, and $\Delta K E$.

The most exciting event for this semester has been rush. We entertained our rushees with a Cowboy Party, Hawaiian Party, and a skit entitled Rainbow Girls. We were most successful and delighted with our twenty four new pledges.

PLEGDED: Carolyn Benbow, Beverly Bunn, Winston-Salem; Susie Cecil, High Point; Dottie Claiborne, Atlanta, Ga.; Sally Clement, Roanoke, Va.; Carol Council, Durham; Ann Davis, Greensboro; Gail Fambrough, Chapel Hill; Sue Froneberger, Gastonia; Janice Haley, Lookout Mountain, Tenn.; Betsy Hendrick, Shelby; Lynn Hoffman, Huntington, W.Va.; Alice D. NORTH CAROLINA BETA—DUKE UNIVERSITY.

Chartered, 1933. Pledge Day, October 9, 1960. INITIATED, September 25, 1960: Melinda Edwards, Miami, Fla.; Jeanne Innes, La Grange, Ill.; Cinda Kitchen, Kansas City, Mo.; Katie Mason, Norfolk, Va.

The last six months have been full ones for North Carolina B. The chapter entertained North Carolina A at a Founders' Day picnic in April. During May, Pi Beta Phi joined the other sororities on campus in an informal rush program by having a swimming party at the Holiday Inn. The officers went on a retreat to North Gate Park to make plans for this year. May 15-16, North Carolina B and K K I began a new tradition, Monmouth Duo Days. On these days we dressed in the K K I colors, wore our arrous straight and had a Pi Beta Phi-K K I dinner at which a political science professor spoke on the coming presidential election. The last project of the semester was float building for Joe College weekend. Pi Beta Phi carried the weekend theme, The Fabulous Fifties, through by characterizing the White Dove of Peace.

After rush, North Carolina B had many dates on its agenda. There was a Hawaiian cabin party with the A Δ II's and a Homecoming breakfast. The new pledge class was welcomed with a pledge banquet, a big 'n' little sister dinner, a slumber party and coffees given by each class. November 12, the entire chapter went on a weekend retreat.

Honors received by Pi Beta Phi: Freshman Advisory Council, Nancy Heilman, Renie Lilly; Panhellenic president, Patti Peyton; cheerleaders, Patti Peyton, Ann Irwin, Suzy Knoblock; sophomore class officers, president, Ann Irwin; secretary, Patsy Davis; treasurer, Bette Garratt; Sandles (sophomore honorary) Sue Curry, Ruth Lupton, Ann Irwin; White Duchy (similar to Mortar Board), Lissa Cook; W.S.G.A. assistant treasurer, Debbie Gallup; Judicial Board chairman, Lissa Cook; house president, Evie Murphy; Social Standards, Sandy Harrison, Diana Graham, Joanne Fowler, Mary Morgan, Francie Hitchcock; rush adviser, Libby Garvin; junior class W.S.G.A. representative—Karen Hanke.

Special recognition should be given to Karen Hanke who was given the Memphis Alumnae Award for the most outstanding sophomore in Eta province.

GINI HUDNELL

SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Chartered, October, 1928. Pledge Day, October 8, 1960. The members of South Carolina A are participating in a wide variety of campus activities this year. Val Jean Derrick is vice president of ΔO . Rose Mary Fellers is a member of K ΔE , honorary education sorority, and president of Euphrosyne Literary Society. Brenda Williams is secretary-treasurer of Sophomore YWCA. Jane Coffman is senior class secretary-treasurer and a member of Student Council. Anita McCartney has been elected vice president of Panhellenic Council, secretary of the Press Club, and president of $\Phi E N$, the journalism sorority. Sara Sturdivant is serving as secretary of ΨX . Pat Adair was elected to the Honor Board, Student Council, Carolina Religious Council, and junior class vice president. Pat Adair, Rose Mary Fellers, Jane Coffman, and Jill Ryan are members of junior-senior YWCA cabinet. Jo Lynn Huffman was recently tapped by A K T. Gayle Peterson and Rosemary Orr have been chosen as members of ΨX , honorary pharmacy fraternity. Martha Dabbs, Dorothy Gray Noce, and Glenda Gunter were elected to Student Council. Glenda Gunter was also selected Junior Class Historian.

Members of Pi Beta Phi have also been outstanding in beauty contests. Glenda Gunter was selected Miss Golf of 1960, Miss Aiken of 1960, and a winner in the swimsuit division of the Miss South Carolina Contest. Jean Carroll was first runner-up in the Miss Gaffney Contest. Brenda Williams was chosen Honorary Cadet Private at Clemson College.

The members of South Carolina A are in the midst of a very busy rush season. A Hawaiian Luau has been planned. It will include a water ballet, a hula, fresh shrimp, pineapples, and native dress.

AFFILIATED: Leiser Chandler, Alabama A.
The fall semester is in full swing now and Alabama B is very busy making plans for the coming year. The chapter house was freshly painted and a new modern electric kitchen was installed during the summer.

Rush week proved very successful and the chapter owes many thanks to the housemother, Mrs. Freeman, for her wonderful help during this time.

Pi Beta Phis on campus were tapped for many honors last spring. Sixteen members of Alabama B were selected for membership in Triangle, a women's service honorary; Joy Clark and Sonie Cook were elected to English honorary; Home Economics honorary claimed Claire Roberts. Many Pi Beta Phis are active on campus this fall also. A few of these girls are: Joy Clark, member of AWS Junior Council, SGA Student Honor Committee, and Student Legislature; Judy Murdock, Homecoming Committee Corresponding Secretary, Student Court Clerk, program chairman of YWCA; Sara Jane Harmon, secretary of Alabama Cotillion Club, an honor we have had for the past five years, secretary of Philos, secretary pro-tem of SGA Legislature; Sonie Cook, editor of the Co-Ed; Claire Roberts, acting president of YWCA.

Beautywise, Alabama B claims Mabout beauty, Erin Briggs and Bama Belle, Jackie Wall; Miss Bama Day, Pat Proctor; Homecoming Queen candidate, Karen Buice.

The chapter has been asked to present a display in the Student Union on the history, honors, and activities of Pi Beta Phi. Ten of our members were asked to serve as hostesses for the Cotillion Club presentation of Dave Gardner on October 4.

We are looking forward to a visit from the province president, Mrs. Conley in November.

PLEGDED: Suzanne Hardenburg, Nancy Harned, Donna Manning, Elease Mullins, Jane Ann Pfeiffer, Donna Smith, Jan Wood, Birmingham; Joleen Haskins, Nancy Haas, Mobile; Peggy Garrett, Kay May, Sandy Hughes, Montgomery; Emily Hayes, Tuscaloosa; Carol Chenault, Moulton; Beth Grimes, Bessemer; Sarah Catherine Justice, Geneva; Kay Lockridge, Gadsden; Jane Raines, Decatur; Sandy Streater, Sheffield; Carol Thompson, Virginia Wheeler, Jasper; Phyllis Aberle, Wayne, N.J.; Kathy Barr, Leesville, S. ALABAMA GAMMA—AUBURN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, February 2, 1957. Pledge Day, October 6, 1960. INITIATED, April 3, 1960: Joan Hartman, Birmingham; Judy Cole, Huntsville; Kay Kight, Waycross, Ga.; Claire Roberts, Andalusia; Brenda Gray, Gadsden.

"Everybody's going Pi Phi." This theme song was sung by everyone from the singing starfish in the "Under-the-Sea" skit to the Bongo-beating lasses in the Calipso party during fall rush at Auburn University. This seemed to be a very appropriate song too, for Alabama I pledged twenty-three top girls.

On "squeal" night, as the girls picked up their bids, they were welcomed into the chapter room with cokes, cookies, and welcoming arms.

After formal pledging, the alumnae entertained the new pledges and actives with supper in the chapter room.

Adding additional laurels to Alabama I last spring quarter were many girls.

Paula Huffstutler was selected as II K A Calendar Girl. Frances Dudley, a very talented and versatile member, won third place in the 13th Annual Speaking Contest of Auburn University. She is also the present reigning Sweetheart of T K E.

Linda Rowe was among the top five competing for II K Φ Sweetheart.

In Scholastic Honoraries, Pi Beta Phi did equally as well. Kitty Arant was tapped for Mortar Board. Linda Lane was tapped for Cwens, and Sandy Whittinger and Gail Lee were invited into the recently established National Educational Honorary at Auburn. Pi Beta Phi surpassed Δ Δ in scholarship spring quarter, thus gaining for itself an additional trophy.

Jane Bauer was elected secretary of the Newman Club. Martha Wilkes was selected and pictured in the Glomerata as Campus Favorite.

Alabama I is planning to have a tea in the near future to present its new pledges. We are also looking forward to a visit by Mrs. Conley, province president.

FLORIDA ALPHA—STETSON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, January 30, 1913. Pledge Day, October 8, 1960. INITIATED, October 7, 1960: Jo Parks, Albemarle, N.C.

Since the last publication of the ARROW, Florida A has accumulated several more honors. Nancy Kohler was crowned "Miss Stetson" at Hatter Holiday and in a mock beauty contest the same day Carolina Burnette was crowned "Miss Ugly." Penny Gray was selected by the Reserve Officers Training Corps as their Military Ball Queen.

Four of the seven girls tapped for Mortar Board last year were members. Liz Frix, president; Eva Lynn Newton, secretary; Judy Hohman, historian; and Diana Kunze, the treasurer of Mortar Board, Joan Holzman, is a pledge.

Liz Frix is secretary of the student body, and Liz Frix and Diana Kunze are on Women's Executive Council. Joan Holzman is president.

Florida A retired the scholarship trophy last year. Several Pi Beta Phis won individual recognition for their achievements. Φ A Θ , the history honorary, tapped Jean Donnelly and Liz Frix. Φ B, the music honorary, tapped Eleanor Dickey, who was also chosen as the Outstanding Freshman in the band. Σ T Δ , the English honorary, selected Sue Johnston, Eva Lynn Newton, and Liz Frix for membership. La Francade, the French honorary, added Penny Gray and Eva Lynn Newton. Linda Allen and Jean Donnelly are on the Honors Program.

JEAN DONNELLY

FLORIDA BETA—FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 14, 1921. Pledge day, October 5, 1960. Florida B began the year with a tea honoring the new housemother, Mrs. Louise Miller.

The new pledges were introduced to the university fraternities by the traditional "Yell-In" on the night that they pledged. Dancing and socializing in the recreation room followed the "Yell-In."

Last spring Pi Beta Phi won the overall Women's Intramural trophy and placed third in campus scholarship for the second semester.

Those chosen to help the freshmen as Sophomore Counselors this year were: Denise Edwards, Lou Rich, and Diane Rickett. Junior Counselors this year are: Carlyn Donath, Gail Gillespie, vice president of her dormitory, Lucy Ann Griffin, Susan Kittredge, Sally Mouré, Charlotte Shildecker, and Linda Walter.

Student government officers are: Kitty Wade, clerk of Honor Court; Beth Ann LeGate, Glenda Powers, Lou Rich, and Bunnie Worsham, senators; Diane Goodwin and Lynne Williams, Judiciary; Judy Cox, secretary of Judiciary; Judy McMillan, secretary of the senior class. Cheerleaders for this year are Carlyn Donath and Linda Hagan.

Pi Beta Phi weekend, held annually in May, found Duke Scott, Φ A Θ , "Pi Beta Phi Man of the Year."

Florida B is anticipating a successful fall semester which will be highlighted by Homecoming and the annual Soapbox Derby.

LYNNE WILLIAMS

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE. Chartered, September 28, 1929. Pledge Day, October 22, 1960. Spring term the chapter was sixth in scholarship and finished the same for the year average. We assigned rush jobs for the summer to each girl and are looking forward to a very successful rush. Rush begins October 10 and pledging is October 22.

This summer Sally Olson, Ibbey MacLeod, Sid Burt, and Polly Wanless toured Europe. Nini Thompson attended the University of Hawaii, Ellen Day, the University of North Carolina, and Ann McCarthy, the University of Jacksonville.

Paula Jones and Judy Wells reported on their exciting trip to Convention. They brought back many new and useful ideas to the chapter.

Aside from rush, we are busy with our various jobs. Nini Thompson, Jody Frutcher and Paula Jones were on the Orientation Committee. Paula is secretary for the new Rollins Union and Jody is corresponding secretary of Student Council.

ELLEN DAY

GEORGIA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA. Chartered, February 4, 1939. Pledge Day, September 29, 1960. INITIATED, September 21, 1960: Judith Kessler Smalley, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Georgia A is proud of its large pledge class, the result of a successful rush season.

Pi Beta Phi placed second in scholarship for the year. Outstanding in scholarship were Norma Golden and Carolyn Wynn who were chosen for membership in A A Δ and Lucy Howard who became a member of Φ B K. Carolyn Wynn was also first runner up in the Most Outstanding Freshman contest and was chosen to be a counsellor for Freshman Camp.

Peggy Garrison has won several beauty honors including Miss Roxanne Bathing Suit and Miss Walton Electric Membership Corporation. She was elected to be A Γ P Sweetheart, Alice Smith is Miss Rockdale County.

Pat Sommers was elected to represent the School of Home Economics in Student Council in the spring elections. Ellen Thompson is on the Executive Council of Canterbury Club.

This Fall Georgia A returned to an entirely redecorated chapter house due to the thoughtful efforts of the Atlanta Alumnae Club. We are enjoying the house very much and we thank the alumnae club for all they have done for the chapter.

PLEGDED: Billie Joyce Baskin, Mary Rebecca Hogg, Katherine du Val Tisdale, Decatur; Andrea Vicki Burel, Suzanne Garrett Gadd, Sandra Marie Gay, Jane Doane Gilson, Tomasia Trammell Hancock, Nancy Ann Macfarlane, Susan Flower McCrea, Shirley Marie Noble, Susan Caroline Pollard, Roselyn Carmichael Shropshire, Atlanta; Justena Burns, Athens; Charlotte Jayne Copeland, Patricia Ann Rheney, Tennessee; Sally Moore Herbert, Enfield, N.C.; Carmen Elizabeth Hickox, Brunswick; Laura Lee Hinson, Milhaven; Patricia Loflin, Nancy Elizabeth McElmurray, Anne Branch Phillips, Augusta; Harriett Matthews, Kansas City, Mo.; Anne Lynn Mosley, Columbus; Patricia Elaine Padgett, Conyers; Jeannine Louise Phillips, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Nancy Lee Powers, Savannah; Barbara Annette Rowell, Orlando, Fla.; Charlotte Ann Sapp, Hawkinsville; Anne Cooper Simpson, Washington; Helen Elizabeth Snead, Sterling, Colo.; Jacquetta Bernice Stone, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Ruth Bryant Wellons, Smithfield, N.C.; Georgia Matilda Williams, Hamilton.

ELLEN A. THOMPSON

IOTA PROVINCE

ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE. Chartered, April 28, 1867. Pledge Day, September 24, 1960. INITIATED, October 1, 1960: Colleen Fisher, Monmouth; Olivia Lunn, Lombard; Grace Phelps, Milwaukee, Wis.

Although Monmouth College has been in session less than a month, Illinois A has much to report from the spring semester.

On Scholarship Day Barb Ditch was tapped for E O M and T II, Mortar Board equivalent. Lynette Lyndrup, Ann Mack and Anne Matthews were tapped for A Γ Δ. Ann Mack was elected president of this freshman women's honorary fraternity. Pat McFarland received a scholarship in Latin proficiency. Also on Scholarship Day it was announced that Pi Beta Phi had placed second in the Kiwanis Scholarship competition for the highest fraternity grade average.

In April, twenty-two girls were tapped for Pep Club, nine of whom are Pi Beta Phi. They are Judy Hadley, Jane Hamburger, Olivia Lunn, Lynette Lyndrup, Ann Mack, Pat McFarland, Janet Patterson, Joellen Russel, and Sue Walters.

Late in April Ann Mack was chosen Outstanding Freshman Woman by T II. Ann was also chosen to be a member of the Student Affairs Committee.

In May Linda Thornburg was chosen as an attendant to the Monmouth Relays Queen. Patty Baird and Karen Richter were chosen sweethearts of Θ X and A T Δ respectively.

Barb Divinsky was May Fete Queen with Karen Sundberg as senior attendant. Karen Bowman was elected Miss Warren County in the Miss Illinois beauty contest.

Illinois A had a very successful Founders' Day last spring. Following a banquet of both alumnae and actives at the Colonial Hotel a special ceremony was held at Holt House.

The three Pi Beta Phi on the Monmouth cheering squad are Pat McFarland, Linda Thornburg, and Linda Warnock.

Ellin McDougal was elected president of the senior dorm.

PLEGDED: Jean Cowan, Karin Loy, Monmouth; Jean Divinsky, Chicago; Gail Fitton, Peoria; Faith Friberg, Riverdale; Marjorie Fritz, Chappaqua, N.Y.; Judy Gray, Garden City, N.Y.; Mary

Gustafson, Aledo; Valerie Hamilton, San Diego, Calif.; Margaret Henderson, Rochester, Minn.; Connie Husser, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mary Leffler, Lake Bluff; Melissa Menhall, Edgerton, Wis.; Kathryn Preucil, Evanston; Ellie Robbins, Amboy; Sharon Rumohr, Westmont; Dee Ann Smith, Stronghurst; Barb Stewart, Minneapolis, Minn.; Sally Thornhill, Charleston, W.Va.; Linda Warnock, Alexis; Lucy Work, Homewood; Gretchen Wright, Jacksonville.

ANN MATTHEWS

ILLINOIS BETA-DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE. Chartered, 1930 (Beta 1872—Delta 1884). Pledge Day, November 21, 1960. INITIATED, October 7, 1960: Linda Lenz, Lincoln; Barbara Ludwig, Diana Woodward, Streator; Julie Turnquist, Duluth, Minn.

Illinois B-Δ is proud of its president, Linda Karger, who was elected to Mortar Board last spring, received the Pearl Harris award as outstanding junior, and reigned as Military Ball queen.

Pi Beta Phi is already busy with campus activities. Jo Manning was chosen to lead the chicken wire brigade while we build our homecoming float. Judy Gleason will be guarding the finances for both the Knox Association of Women Students and Newman Club. Rosalie Kinitiez will be secretary for Newman Club also. Mary Karr was elected a member of Williston Hall Council and Dale Klama a Student Senate representative. Chris Johnson will lend both musical and executive talents as vice-president of E A I, secretary of Panhellenic Council, and a member of the "Madrigals" and Women's Octet. Chris' original song, "Look Behind the Arrow" was sung at Convention last June.

The chapter continues to stay in the theatre spotlight. Vice-president, Miriam Thompson, and Jane Aarnes have roles in the fall production of "Dr. Knock," while Nicky Parsons directs the annual Children's Theatre Production.

College-wise, the biggest news on campus is the completion of the new student union and coeducational dining rooms. The president of the college recently announced that several other buildings will be added. Construction will begin in the near future on a women's dormitory, and plans are being completed for a fine arts building which will include a theatre.

The Panhellenic Council is initiating several changes in rush this fall. A quota limitation will be placed on each chapter, and the rushees will not show preference until the last day of rush.

BETTY RUCKER

ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 26, 1894. Pledge Day, September 24, 1960. INITIATED, September 15, 1960: Anne Miller, Hammond, Ind.

Fall quarter started for Pi Beta Phi at Northwestern with ten days of rushing. Now that classes are once more under way, there is more opportunity for participation in campus affairs. Many Pi Beta Phi are taking advantage of such opportunities.

Ann Darlington is president of Mortar Board, and Barbara Stanton is a member of Mortar Board. Cynthia Borgen is a new member of A K Δ, Sociology honorary.

Pi Beta Phi has also won honors from fraternities. Jill Muliken has been named Sweetheart of Φ Δ Θ, and Sylvia Linde has been elected Sweetheart of Acacia. The new Queen of X Φ is Joanie Brain.

Mary Sue Haydon is currently quite busy planning for Homecoming because she is a member of Homecoming Executive and Governing Board. Ann Darlington will guide Student Service Fund this year as chairman. Carolyn Goodman and Sally Blair are on the Executive Board of SSF. Carolyn Goodman is quite busy as she is also chairman of publicity for the Big-Little Sister Program, and she is a member of Pep Commission. Margo Hubbard is secretary-treasurer of the American Foreign Service, and Jean Mair is publicity chairman of the same organization.

PLEGDED: September 24, 1960: Ellen Andrews, Hopkins, Minn.; Linda Baldwin, Tannie Benson, Pound Ridge, N.Y.; Catherine Bates, Reading, Mass.; Connie Billian, Bala Cynward, Pa.; Jill Borland, Buffalo, N.Y.; Judy Bracken, Darien, Conn.; Karin Brant, Ridgefield, Conn.; Christine Comstock, Cleveland, Ohio; Carol Craft, Bozeman, Mont.; Mary Sue Dunbeck, Winnetka; Sally Earl, St. Paul, Minn.; Jane Garten, Indianapolis, Ind.; Julie Hoyt, Littleton, Colo.; Jean Ann Humes, Sara Schumacher, Rochester, N.Y.; Jill Lawrence, Canton, Ohio; Carol Martin, Fullerton, Calif.; Jacquelyn Mayer, Sandusky, Ohio; Susan Medway, Highland Park; Sara Micher, Jackson, Miss.; Julie Murphy, Riverside; Linda O'Riordan, Mission, Kan.; Donna Reyburn, Tulsa, Okla.; Jane Slater, Birmingham, Mich.; Susan Spitzer, Dayton, Ohio; Kim Stephenson, Lancaster, Pa.; Barbara Wallace, Kansas City, Kans.; Sally Witmer, Des Moines, Iowa.

NANETTE RUSK

ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, October 3, 1960. INITIATED, May 21, 1960, Judy Dale.

The spring semester of 1960 ended successfully for Illinois Z. When the honoraries were tapping, Sally Williamson was tapped for Shorter Board, senior women's activity honorary; Joyce Hale for Torch, junior women's activity honorary; and Barb Stanley and Laurie Cappa for Shi-Ai, sophomore women's activity honorary. Pi Beta Phi was well represented in Panhellenic, as Karen Richardson was chosen assistant rush chairman and Barb Stanley was chosen activity adviser for Junior Panhellenic. Sue Boodin was selected as director of Campus Chest, thus gaining a spot in "Who's Who" at the University of Illinois. To prove Illinois Z wasn't lacking in beauty, Sue Bach was selected as Miss Illinois Press Photographer and represented the state in the national convention, and Sandy Dewar was chosen as one of the six Illio beauties to grace the 1960 yearbook. Liz Roberts helped scholarship by making the grades to enable her to be elected to Φ B K. Fun wasn't missing in this full semester, either, as Pi Beta Phi and B Θ II managed to capture second place in Sheequeon, the campus spring event, and had a wonderful time doing so.

Although school has been in session only two weeks, Illinois Z has been busy every minute. We returned to school to discover that the alumnae had worked very hard the past summer remodeling the main floor of the house. It has been done in wine and silver blue, and is our pride and joy. We're sure this energy exhibited by the alumnae will increase our eagerness to make Pi Beta Phi tops on our campus!

We have been working with Z B T since last summer on Stunt Show, and are pleased to see that this effort has paid off as we are one of the twelve finalists for this popular Homecoming show. Kris Wanberg is in the Queen's Court which will reign for the Golden Anniversary Homecoming the weekend of October 8. Kay Karraker, Brenda Payne, and Betsy Wachter are Pom-Pon girls and will be rooting in a special cheering section for the Fighting Illini. Other Pi Beta Phi's vying for queenly honors this fall include Barb Maurus, Merilee Patterson, Brenda Payne, Judy Retzer, and Betsy Wachter, who are finalists for Dolphin Queen. We hope one will be crowned Dad's Day weekend to succeed Sue Bach, the reigning queen.

Illinois Z is anxiously awaiting the results of Panhellenic scholarship for the past spring semester. Pi Beta Phi kept the traveling trophy last spring for having the highest sorority house average for the preceding semester, and the pledge class won the pledge scholarship trophy for the highest class average. Results will be announced October 10, and we hope to keep "our" trophy in its place of honor.

October 15 is the night chosen by the actives to formally introduce our class of '64 to the campus. Those girls pledged October 3 who will be honored at the pledge dance are:

PLEGDED: Arlene Andersen, Stephanie Bates, Chicago; Ellen Carr, Joliet; Ann Chaney, Belle Rive; Nancy Demorest, Glenview; Carol DeVry, Kenilworth; Barbara Frey, Urbana; Winifred Gentry, Glen Ellyn; Patricia Greene, Rock Island; Kristina Hagman, Effingham; Susan James, Ellen Moore, Frances Wachter, Kay Karraker, Champaign; Carol Liston, Carlville; Judy Mank, Belleville; Margaret Massie, Toledo; Diana Packwood, East Peoria; Merrilee Patterson, Winnetka; Brenda Payne, Ewing; Candy Proteau, Riverside; Judy Retzer, Park Ridge; Claudia Thompson, East St. Louis; Susan Whiteley, Mt. Prospect.

MARCIA GLASGOW

ILLINOIS ETA—MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 29, 1912. Pledge Day, September 24, 1960. INITIATED, October 8, 1960: Carole Ann Jewell, Decatur.

Illinois H feels very honored to have five chapter members serving in important campus positions. As a result of Student Council elections held last May, Sandy Bertash is a member of the Religious Life Committee, Pat Major is co-chairman of Religious Emphasis Week, Jan Van Ausdall is co-chairman of Parents' Day, and Sharon Skidmore is co-editor of the yearbook. Emilyann Berg is editor of the Student Handbook and also served as editor of the summer issue of the school newspaper, the Decaturian.

Other campus events last spring brought more honors to Illinois H. In the all-school elections, Karla Fleck was chosen vice-president of Student Council. Rosalind Cordts, a new pledge, was elected president of the Resident Women's Association Council.

The chapter was well represented in queen contests. Jan Van Ausdall reigned as Σ A E Sweetheart, and Sharon Skidmore was selected Shipwrecked Girl of Δ Σ II. Nancy Myers represented Decatur in the Miss Illinois contest.

The chapter was very pleased with the results of the annual University Sing. Singing three songs depicting the theme "Lazy Daze," Illinois H walked away with first place in the women's division.

Illinois H was very proud of Judy Hagebush who graduated in the 1960 class with the highest honor of summa cum laude. She was the recipient of the Erna Pritchett Memorial Award for having the highest scholastic average in her class. Karla Fleck and Mary Gage were chosen for Π M Θ , a scholastic honorary.

Barb Bates, Roma Bradley, Nancy Dehner, Karla Fleck and Sharon Skidmore represented Illinois H as counselors at Freshman Camp. Karla Fleck served as co-chairman of the Discussion Committee.

The student body chose the cheerleaders for this year, Karla Fleck, Bev Bray and Judy Hutton are members of the squad, with Bev Bray serving as co-captain for the group.

The fall semester finds many other Pi Beta Phi's serving in leading positions on campus. Sandy Bertash is president of Conant Literary Society; Nancy Dehner, treasurer of W.A.A.; Barbara Butler, treasurer of Panhellenic Council; Pat Major, vice-president of Σ A I. Barb Bates is secretary for Homecoming; Bev Bray is co-chairman of the Freshman-Sophomore Games for Homecoming. Roma Bradley has the lead in Romeo and Juliet, which is Millikin's annual fall play.

Illinois H was again awarded the scholarship trophy, having maintained the highest scholarship average on campus for five consecutive semesters.

JAN VAN AUSDALL

ILLINOIS THETA—BRADLEY UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 17, 1947. Pledge Day, September 16, 1960. INITIATED, September 18, 1960: Joan Conley, Karen Sutton, Peoria; Patricia Eidswick, Oak Park; Jan Giuffre, Springfield; Diane Huevelman, Chicago; Sandra Limbos, Lincolnwood; Linda Nauta, Waukegan; Sharon Plocher, Highland.

Spring semester brought many honors to Illinois Θ . The chapter took a first place in Pan-Fra Sing for the third year in a row and another first place in the Σ X Derby Day.

Many queens stepped into the season's spotlight. Vi Shelby was crowned Junior-Senior Prom Queen, as well as being a finalist in both the Illinois Press Photographer's contest and the Inter-Fraternity Ball. Sharon Jones was a Campus Carnival Queen candidate and was crowned "Miss Chassis" on Derby Day. Σ N honored Judy Boucher by crowning her as their sweetheart. She was also a candidate for the ROTC Queen. Joan Eidswick Widekehr was chosen Sweetheart of Θ Σ .

The members are also proud of the girls who were elected to high positions in campus activities. Bonnie Roth was voted pledge trainer and vice-president of Φ X Θ , a women's business honorary. Marta Tragethon and Judy Boucher were tapped by Mortar Board. Angel Flight chose seven new members from Illinois Θ ; they were Sue Brockmeier, Judy Easterbrook, Pam Fauss, Linda Janson, Barb Miller, Sue Sayles, and Vi Shelby. Judy Easterbrook became junior representative of student senate, Judy Getz, president of A.W.S. Board, and Barb Miller, parliamentarian and vice-president of the student activities board.

Among the national Pi Beta Phi awards there are two which Illinois Θ received this year. Sondra Seifert was awarded the Iota Province and Chapter Service Award, and Jan Schooley received the Amy B. Onken Award.

On the athletic side of college activities, the chapter has two new cheerleaders, Gail Pitchford and Sue Woolsey. This makes a total of five Pi Beta Phi's on the team. Joyce Taylor won the Intercollegiate Invitational Championship in tennis.

Joan Peddicord, rush captain, gave a sigh of relief as the formal rush period came to a close and the chapter feted its twenty-two new pledges with a cozy shine after formal pledging.

PLEGDED: Judy Angell, Webster Grove, Mo.; Cynthia Bach, Joan Heinz, Marilyn Hoerr, Denise Portman, Marian Singer, Peoria; Jill Berve, Aurora; Jackie Helm, Mt. Carmel; Judy Hoffman, Springfield; Virginia Holmes, Mt. Prospect; Linda Janson, Waukegan; Nancy Karnes, Carol Kelley, Kathy Knoesel, Brentwood, Mo.; Dawn Kenny, Berwyn; Nancy Krchov, Chicago; Chris Larson, Evanston; Yolanda Maquet, Pekin; Gail Pitchford, Kirkwood, Mo.; Sharon Snider, Yorktown, Ind.; Judy Weglarz, Evergreen Park; Marcia Wigg, Homewood.

SUZANNE REYBURN

KAPPA PROVINCE

WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN. Chartered, November 1, 1894. Pledge Day, September 25, 1960.

Wisconsin A began the semester in a special way this year. At nearby Camp Wakonda we met before classes started to discuss together such topics as scholarship, chapter unity, and group activities. The retreat produced a spirit which carried through the next three weeks of rushing. Thirty-four pledges were greeted at a welcome party by the entire chapter.

Early in October we had the honor of a visit from Mrs. Alice Weber Mansfield, Grand President. We enjoyed getting to know Mrs. Mansfield and learned a great deal from her. In addition, the Wisconsin Panhellenic student, Inge Ludescher, is living with us this year. Inge is from Austria and also holds a Fulbright Scholarship.

Pi Beta Phi is again represented on the cheerleading squad this year with Joan Morse joining Betty Miller on the team. Betty is also being kept busy as general chairman of Humorology. Pi Beta Phi's active in other campus activities are: Carolyn Stevens, Nancy Natwick, and Margo Calamaras, serving as activities chairman, publicity chairman, and secretary, respectively, of Associated Women Students; Leslie Spear, co-chairman of New Student Week; Judy Schwartz, chairman of the rushing counsellors. Jane Hollingsworth has been elected treasurer of Langdon Hall. Ellie Averill is serving as secretary of one of the Chadbourne Hall units, and Margo Calamaras was chosen judicial chairman for a unit in Langdon Hall.

Initiated into honorary societies were: Judy Nagley Hidde, Φ K Φ ; Nancy Natwick, Crucible; Pat Leveros, Σ A H; Margo Calamaras, Φ B K; Judy Schwartz, Θ Σ Φ ; and Kathy Murray, H K A.

Wisconsin A is the proud possessor of the Vera Moss Bowl, awarded annually to the Pi Beta Phi chapter showing the most improvement on the Standardization and Survey Report. Our study efforts brought us a ranking of second on campus for the last semester.

PLEGDED: Ann Haberman, Norma Himsel, Maxine Lippolt, Sue Trewartha, Madison; Carol Greer, Wendy Roth, Sue Sedgwick, Milwaukee; Ginny DuBrucq, Betsy Marx, Wauwatosa; Ann Bergemann, Beaver Dam; Mary Lynn Estes, Evansville; Gail Fitzpatrick, Menasha; Gayle McCullough, Cedarburg; Carole Nechrony, Whitewater; Susan Ohde, Manitowoc; Carol Schilz, Oconomowoc; Judy Schuler, Ripon; Ginger Vetter, Stevens Point; Carol Condon, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Kris Ekstrom, Rockford, Ill.; Karen Kasten, Alton, Ill.; Pam Pollard, Elmhurst, Ill.; Rosa Rappaport, Norridge, Ill.; Jill Sligh, Oak Park, Ill.; Gretchen Ten Eyck, Northfield, Ill.; Midge Borosage, East Lansing, Mich.; Karen Jensen, Grosse Pointe, Mich.; Marcia Lawton, Southfield, WISCONSIN GAMMA—LAWRENCE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 12, 1940. Pledge Day, September 25, 1960. INITIATED, September 18, 1960: Sharon Bestrom, Minneapolis, Minn.; Barbara Larsen, Appleton; Elizabeth Pestrui, Marinette; Viv Reinhard, San Rafael, Calif.

Mrs. Alice Weber Mansfield was a guest of Wisconsin Gamma in October. A tea was held in her honor and the chapter presented an after-hours serenade for her.

New dormitory officers include Mary Wilder, Barbara Richards, Charla Gaskin, and Lucy Bridges. Kathy Fagan and Nancy Nelson hold positions on the Lawrence Women's Association Board.

Several Pi Beta Phi's will assist with Lawrence publications this year. Ann Kearns has been selected editor of the college literary magazine, while Betsy Myers, Kristie Zahn, Sue Herr, and Mary Helscher are section editors of the yearbook. Secretary of Lawrence United Charities is Helen Edelhofer.

Susi Brehm serves as president of Orchestis, modern dance group, with Sheila Moyle as secretary-treasurer. Leading roles in "The Boyfriend," all-college musical, were taken by Mary Grace Brausch, Susi Brehm, Sheila Moyle, and Susan Schneider.

Fall social activities included a pledge formal with Phi Kappa Tau, and informal parties with Phi Tau Alpha, Delta Tau Alpha, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. Pi Phi Pops were honored on Dads' Day with a special section at the football game and an evening banquet.

PLEGGED, September 25, 1960: Janet Austin, Des Moines, Iowa; Coralee Burch, Elmira, N.Y.; Peggy Buresh, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Peggy Cairns, Barbara Ives, Albert Lea, Minn.; Ann Esch, LaCrosse; Diana Furry, Wheaton, Ill.; Audrey Gratz, Libertyville, Ill.; Mary Hales, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Cathryn Hoehn, Evanston, Ill.; Judy Johnson, Palatine, Ill.; Carolyn McCannon, Bloomington, Ill.; Patricia Neville, Sault Ste. MARY HELSCHER

MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA. Chartered, May, 1929. Pledge Day, October 12, 1960. Immediately following the Founders' Day Luncheon, the active chapter held its annual Sorority Camp at Gwen Lewis's cottage at Pembina Lake. Everyone attending had a marvelous time.

Later on in May a Legacy Party was held at Sharon Jacques home. The traditional Treasure Hunt led the legacies and the active chapter all over Winnipeg. This hunt was followed by refreshments.

All summer long we held rush meetings to prepare for the parties. Thus we were able to get ideas for themes, songs, skits, and decorations. All is now in readiness for the Rush Parties beginning on October 12 and ending October 20. We are looking forward to a successful rushing. Pledging will be held on October 20 followed by a reception and the Panhellenic Formal. At this time we are coffee dating in order to become acquainted with the rushees. This year we are starting a new quota system on our campus. This will apply to all the sororities in the Panhellenic Association.

Registration at the university was held from September 12 to September 17. Freshie Week started with a bang with the Guy's and Doll's dance, the Freshie Parade in which our chapter was represented in the Panhellenic Float. The selection of the Queen was made at the Royal Premiere Ball.

For the first time on our campus the Panhellenic Association held a Greek Week. All the sororities participated in the stunts and races on the Quadrangle, serenading in the Union Building, congo lines through the various buildings, followed by a parade of cars decorated with sorority banners; all advertising the commencement of rush.

ISABEL MCLEAN

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA. Chartered, October 7, 1921. Pledge Day, September 20, 1960. Excited over the prospect of returning to a newly decorated house and anxious to greet their new housemother, North Dakota Alpha returned to campus anticipating another successful year. Besides experiencing a most regarding Rush Week, Pi Beta Phi also received one of the top honors in the scholarship field on campus. North Dakota Alpha was listed fourth among all the competing housing units and was greatly above the campus average.

In addition to this great scholastic improvement, Pi Beta Phi has gained merit in other campus activities. Sandra Fleischfresser, North Dakota Alpha president, will preside over the Panhellenic Council this coming year; Judy Paus is the new treasurer of the Religious Council; Carol Wenstrom is the Greek Week decoration chairman for the entire campus; and Judy Morris will head the Triton Swim Club. Also carrying the Pi Beta Phi banner on campus are: Marjorie Costello, elected outstanding senior in business education; Carol Kanwischer, recipient of a Smorgie award for cooperation in Student Union activities; Betty Butts and Joan Bakuska, members of the Y.W.C.A. executive board; and Pat Olson and Elizabeth Skarperud, members of the University Chorus, which includes the top sixty voices on campus. Initiated into business education honorary were Carol Kanwischer and Cheryl Danduran.

One of the greatest honors for North Dakota Alpha came last spring when Mrs. Charles Axe was chosen outstanding sorority alumna, in connection with last year's Greek Week.

Homecoming activities seem to be uppermost in the minds of North Dakota Alpha and the excitement of building our float is spreading throughout the house, as all the Pi Beta Phi's prepare to display our slogan "We're Wishing Well" to its best advantage in the Homecoming parade. Janet Grove is our queen candidate and Rosalie Kuntz, Michon Rude, Dawn Tweten and Ruth Green are in charge of arrangements. After the parade North Dakota Alpha will hostess an open house. The coinciding arrival of Mrs. William Mansfield, Grand President, will certainly compliment the Pi Beta Phi's and will also give our visitors an opportunity to meet an outstanding Pi Beta Phi.

During the past year North Dakota Alpha has participated in many campus activities that have brought great fame to Pi Beta Phi. The vocalizing talents of our Flickertail Follies act, "Come to the Fair" and of our "Mothers Sing" have been complimented many times by all those who saw these performances.

As a gift to North Dakota Alpha, the 1960 Convention delegates presented a special thank you note to the girls, in the form of a president's pin. This gift expressed their gratitude for selecting these two North Dakota Alpha members to attend the Hot Springs Convention.

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA. Chartered, 1906. Pledge Day, September 15, 1960. INITIATED, October 1, 1960: Linda Alexander, Janet Platzer, Wayzata; Mary Ann Evans, Susan Lowe, Minneapolis; Janet Gustafson, Nancy Waelen, Duluth; Judy Hallbeck, Worthington; Dorothy Howard, Rochester; Sheila Knapp, Stewartville; Margaret Wright, White Bear; Sandra Vincent, Eau Claire, Wis.

Last spring quarter began with a very busy week of spring formal rush and Campus Carnival. Carnival found Minnesota Alpha working with Sigma Alpha Epsilon on a show entitled "Grandma's Nightcap." This year Carnival had its most successful year in history with proceeds of $22,000 going for university scholarships.

Sponsored by the St. Paul Alumnae Club, Founders' Day was held at the Mendakota Country Club. The main event was presentation of scholarship awards. This year a new tradition was begun honoring the grandmother-granddaughter team with the highest combined average. A permanent plaque with the girls' names was given the chapter to be continued in future years.

At the annual Mothers' Day Tea the Pi Beta Phi's presented their housemother, Mrs. Hanson, with a wine and blue afghan for which each girl in the chapter had knit a block.

Exchanges were held with Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Theta Xi, and Kappa Sigma. The spring formal was held at the Bayport Yacht Club.

The seniors were escorted by their granddaughters to the annual Cap and Gown Day Luncheon sponsored by the University. The chapter held its annual Senior Dinner and Farewell, at which time the seniors were presented with gifts, a program, and the traditional cooky-shine on May 23.

Minnesota Alpha received many honors and awards spring quarter. Carol Sue Passi, Nancy Hyde, and Elinor Adams all received Ski-U-Mah awards and Nancy Hyde also received a Gopher award, all for service to the university. Mary Cooke was chosen area chairman both for Homecoming and Greek Week. Mary Jane Wostrel was a finalist for Engineering Day Queen. Mary Olson was chosen as Business Day Queen. Mary Olson and Marge

Blackburn were selected as members of the American Brother-Sister Program.

The University of Minnesota was honored to be the host for the Big Ten IFC-Panhellenic Conference. Marge Blackburn, Carol Sue Passi, and Jana Penk served as area chairmen for this.

Fall quarter began very busily for Pi Beta Phi. Following a very successful pre-school rushing season, Minnesota A members were busy working as Welcome Week advisors and chairmen, Freshman Camp counselors, and chairmen of various Homecoming events. Homecoming week was highlighted by a visit from our Grand President, Mrs. Mansfield, Minnesota A had three candidates for Homecoming Queen; Mary Olson, Kay Knudson, and Carole Millett. Sarah Streich was selected as a member of SLA Board.

PLEGGED, April 8, 1960: Susan Lowe, Donna Peterson, Minneapolis; Janet Gustafson, Nancy Waelen, Duluth; Judy Hallbeck, Worthington; Sheila Knapp, Stewartville; Janet Platzer, Wayzata; Sandra Vincent, Eau Claire, Wis. INITIATED, April 10, 1960: Barbara Browning, Leslie Lyndon, Dorothy Dunlap, Ann Rowley, Kansas City; Beverly Morris, Barbara Kohler, Judy Artley, Columbia; Ann Havens, Elsa Newman, Joplin; Janet Barnes, Chillicothe; Mary Ann Prather, Memphis; Julia Arnold, Kirksville; Janet McGregor, Bonne Terre; Susanne Grayson, Springfield; Becky Reick, St. Joseph; Linda Blackmore, Trenton; Claudia Barbee, Longview, Tex.; Deirdre Garty, Miami, Fla.; Judy Smith, Tulsa, Okla. INITIATED, October 2, 1960: Joan Bolte, St. Louis; Anne Parkinson, Janet Fowler, Kansas City; Susie Callihan, West Plains; Elizabeth Gould, Evanson, Ill.; Kitty Agee, Pleasantville, N.Y.; Marilyn Wilsey, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Spring semester ended very successfully for Missouri A. For the second consecutive year the shining gold loving cup is on display for winning first place in Sorority Sing. Pi Beta Phi beauties added many honors to the chapter. Among these were: Diane Wallace, Sweetheart of A T O, a first at the University of Missouri; Marilyn Wilsey and Martha Freeman, attendants to the Greek Week Court; Pennie Pierson, who served as Military Ball Queen; Judy Yount and Debbie Duncan Walker, attendants to the Sweetheart of E X; and Barbara Jones, first attendant to K E Dream-girl. The chapter was also honored in having Susie Mars tapped for Mortar Board and being elected president of the Association of Women Students. Martha Freeman was awarded the Outstanding Sophomore Award of Lambda Province. The semester ended at our Pi Phi Beau party where Jim Shankland, E X, was officially crowned the "man of the year."

Missouri A is mighty proud of Carol Ann Krebbel Judd who received the National Service Award at Convention this summer.

"Everybody's going Pi Phi" closed the rushing season this fall and brought together twenty-one girls to wear the wine and blue pledge ribbons.

The chapter enjoyed its first meeting with the new Lambda Province President, Mrs. Deane P. Flett, during her visit to the chapter house in October.

The "Pi Phi Pops" were royally entertained in November for the Colorado game. Our "dates" for the weekend proved to be quite "entertaining" and were enjoyed by all.

Homecoming time found Lari-Le Leaver as co-chairman and many Pi Phi active in its various committees.

Can anybody dance? This has been a familiar call as Savitar Frolics draws near. The Pi Phi-E A E skit, entitled "King Helmer IV—With Apologies to William Shakespeare" is a sure first place winner!

PLEGGED: Mary Ann Azar, Joan Osiek, Jeanie Riemer, Kathleen Stevenson, St. Louis; Sally Ginn, Sara Lee Faurot, Columbia; Sally Schuske, Prairie Village, Kan.; Judy Stanley, Pleasant Hill; Meredith McLeod, Salem; Susan Lingle, St. Joseph; Kay Francis, Joplin; Geraldine Wieman, Washington; Nancy Curtis, Springfield; Claire Chamberlin, Carrollton; Betsy Cartland, Jefferson City; Sidney Allee, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Jane Armstrong, Albany, N.Y.; Rebecca Engel, Evansville, Ind.; Judy Foeller, Gouffrey, Ill.; Gail Kennedy, Tulsa, Okla.; Madeline Wallace, Houston, Tex.

*MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1907. Pledge Day, October 10, 1960. Spring semester was active and rewarding for Missouri B.

The chapter won first place in the sorority division of Thurne Carnival with their "Pi Phi Medicine Wagon." When Greek Sing came they again won a first place trophy to add to their collection.

Pi Beta Phi beauty reigned on campus also with Carole Robinson as Engineers' Queen and Martha Lewis as E X Sweetheart. Starr Walker was elected special maid in the Beaux Arts Ball. Missouri B also graced the Hatchet Court, K E, E A E, and E X Sweetheart Courts.

Mary Alice Pieske, Kathie Schumacher, and Cheri Lee Kruse

were tapped for Mortar Board with Kathie and Cheri Lee elected treasurer and secretary respectively. Carol Robinson was selected for Sophomore Commission. Joan Fedder was elected to Phoenix W.R.A. honorary.

Student Government has not been overlooked either, with Nancy Boyd and Carole Robinson elected to Student Senate and Pat Dougan as secretary of the Fine Arts Council.

Janine Renaud has followed another Missouri B as co-chairman of the Campus YMCA-YWCA and Joan Fedder is treasurer of W.R.A. Helping lead the team to victory is Pat Dougan as a cheerleader.

With Kathie Schumacher as co-chairman of Homecoming for the entire campus the chapter worked hard to build a float and also had several members as sub-chairmen of the Homecoming committee. Due to a new university ruling no pledges were allowed to help with any of the Homecoming activities this year.

Preparations have also begun for the annual Bearskin Follies Show in February. This year the chapter is entering with B O H.

In October the chapter enjoyed its first visit from the new province president, Mrs. Deane R. Flett.

PLEGGED: Suzanne Arnold, Haddonfield, N.J.; Ann Boyer, Robin Jay, Aurora, Ill.; Deanna Deerr, Kansas City; Barbara Dolva, Cleveland, Ohio; Mimi Glassell, Belcher, La.; Pat Hoelsner, Highland Park, Ill.; Virginia Jekel, Phoenix, Ariz.; Mary Murphy, Batesville, Ark.; Shirley Cleary, Manon Cleary, Jessica Davis, Peggy Fisher, Marianne Heinecke, Carol Jarvis, Carol Kent, Marie Murphy, Suzan Murray, Betty Rice, Cyrella Sennert Sally Spolier, Doty Sydow, Lynne Turner, St. Louis.

MISSISSIPPI ALPHA COLONY—MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN COLLEGE. Pledge Day, September 16, 1960. The new colony of Pi Beta Phi at Mississippi Southern College participated in the school's first pre-school rush program, September 13-16. Pi Beta Phi is the eighth sorority on the campus; others are A E A, Δ Δ Δ, Δ Z, K A, Φ M, Σ E Σ and X Ω. With the aid and co-operation of acts from Alabama A and Tennessee B, the Grand Secretary, Director of Membership, Lambda Province President, and the Mississippi alumnae, fifteen girls were pledged. Six girls had been pledged in the spring of 1960.

The homecoming celebration on October 22 marks the Fiftieth Anniversary of the school. From a state normal training school, Mississippi Southern College has grown into a school with several colleges and an enrollment of more than 4,000 students. The Pi Beta Phi's float theme is "They Came, They Fought, We Conquered." Sandwich selling in the dormitories, Panhellenic and fraternity get-togethers, "spend the nights," plus the very important work of laying plans for the foundation of the first Mississippi chapter of Pi Beta Phi keep the twenty-one pledges busy.

Joyce Sanders and Edith Miller serve as presidents of their dormitories; Prissy Baker is a counselor in one of the freshmen dormitories. Barbara Bilbo, Judy Goff, Linda Lee and Edith Miller serve as officers in their church youth groups. Joyce Sanders is a member of the Dixie Darlings.

PLEGDED: Gail Alston, Macon; Barbara Askew, Pascagoula; Prissy Baker, Natchez; Barbara Ann Bilbo, Lumberton; Glenda Cooley, Meridian; Lena Sue Mathews, McComb; Edith Ann Miller, Lauderdale; Nancy Ramsay, Gulfport; Joyce Sanders, Westpoint; Marilyn Thornton, Greenville; Judy Goff, Rosemary Oliphant, Kathleen Poole, Hattiesburg; Diane Ederer, Wilmette, Ill.; Fredrica Geiger, Birmingham, Ala.; Mary Beth Goodbread, Sebring, Fla.; Evelyn Hill, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Linda Lee, Atlanta, Ga.; Susan Sieber, Falls Church, Va.; Sandra McLeod, Lynda Zirkelbach, Pensacola, Fla.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1874. INITIATED, October 2, 1960: Carolyn Bakker, Crete, Ill.; Sheri Barker, Emily Kite, Jodine Corell, Barbara Van Ginkel, Des Moines; Marian Bennett, Mt. Airy; Judy Caskey, Humboldt; Sue Ann Haldeman, Joan Yates, Indianola; Margo Keil, Springfield, Ill.; Janet Readhead, Corning; Bonnie Wright, Le Center, Minn.

Spring semester brought several honors to Iowa B girls. Judy Foster was named Beauty Queen and her court included Kay Thomas, Ardene Kildal, Janet Lanning and Linda Trpkosh. Pat Walker, Liz Miller, and Janet Lanning were named representative women. Ann Kliever and Wilma Thomas were named to E Σ, honorary fraternity for scholastic achievement. Barbara Kuszmaul, Wilma Thomas and Ann Kliever were named to Gold Key, honor society for women. Wilma Thomas, Ann Kliever, Kay Thomas, Pat Walker, Wendy Tutt, Joan Yates, Barbara Van Ginkel, Carolyn Bakker, and Suzanne Germeraad were named to the Dean's List. Sue Ann Mason was named A T O Sweetheart.

The fall semester brings the girls up to homecoming for which they are busily preparing. Janet Lanning is one of the four candidates for princess. Five of the six cheerleaders elected this year are Pi Beta Phi: Ardene Kildal, Janet Readhead, Joan Yates, Jodine Corell, and Linda Trpkosh. Pi Beta Phi are very active in campus activities with Sue Ann Mason serving as president of ISEA-Nea and Wendy Tutt as president of WRA. Other girls are serving on various campus committees: Kay Thomas, Martha Hann, Pat Walker and Judy Pilmer were chosen as four of Simpson's representatives to attend American University in Washington, D.C., for a semester study in the nation's capital.

Iowa B is very proud of a shining new addition to their trophy case, the song vase won at National Convention this summer for the winning song in the light song category, "Follow the Arrow of Pi Beta Phi."

IOWA GAMMA—IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1877. Pledge Day, September 6, 1960. INITIATED, April 3, 1960: Ann Buntrock, Storm Lake; Anne Collison, Marshalltown; Katy Georlett, Moline, Ill.; Jackie Hash, Noblesville, Ind.; Barbara Haugen, Rake; Nancy Houghan, Ft. Morgan, Colo.; Jackie Jepson, Kathy Kerl, Sioux City; Mary Susan Lee, Ames; Karen Scott, Des Moines; Deanne Smith, Regina, Saskatchewan, Can.; Sherry Stoddard, Elm Grove, Wis.; Diana Thomas, Cedar Rapids; Susan Tomlinson, Minneapolis, Minn.

INITIATED, August 28, 1960: Elizabeth Crane, Madison, Wis. Spring quarter 1960 was a busy and exciting one for Iowa Γ. Marcia Grunwald, Veishea co-chairman, worked hard all year to make our annual Iowa State festival a success. The four-day festivities began with tapping for Mortar Board, to which Pi Beta Phi Marty Keeney and Carolyn Kirk were elected. Carolyn also starred in the Stars Over Veishea production of "Pajama Game."

Our float, "Once Upon a Time," won honorable mention in the elaborate, three mile Veishea parade, which was led by Barbara Kurtz, reigning as Veishea Queen of Queens.

Other queen honors came to Leslie Graham, as Navy Ball queen attendant.

Pi Beta Phi were outstanding in scholarship, too, leading the university in grades for winter quarter. Our scholastic efforts also brought us the Panhellenic 1950-51 scholarship trophy. JoAnn Schampfer, graduating senior, was named salutatorian of the 1960 senior class.

During one of our many serenades the SAE's sang especially to Marty Keeney, their new Sweetheart of SAE. We Pi Beta Phi did some serenading of our own and for our annual spring serenade, visited and sang to the fraternities on campus.

Pi Beta Phi elected to honoraries include: Marty Keeney, $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$; Patti Walter, $\Pi \Sigma \Sigma$; Sherry Stoddard and Jackie Jepson, $\Lambda \Delta \Delta$. Sharon Phillips was elected president of $\Phi \Gamma \Theta$ and, Marty Keeney was chosen as co-editor of the "Iowa Homemaker."

This fall the members returned determined to make this an even better year and began by getting twenty-five new pledges during formal rush. On the night of September 16 all actives moved out to Camp Kanwita for our annual over-night retreat. We discussed our goals for this year and laid the plans by which to achieve them.

Greek Week was the next major activity on the campus calendar and again Pi Beta Phi were honored. Sharon Phillips was chosen Greek Week Queen and Anne Ward was tapped for $\Gamma \Gamma$, Greek honorary.

PLEGDED, September 6, 1960: Carol Black, Ames; Bev Boatsma, Pella; Brenda Carlson, Aurora, Ill.; Sheila Haggard, Watertown, S.D.; Lynne Hendry, Beaver, Pa.; Sandra Hindrichs, York, Neb.; Sharon Holets, Cedar Rapids; Sue Hoppe, Moline, Ill.; Sue Knapp, Ames; Sondra Krumrey, Charles City; Gleneta Miller, Marshalltown; Judy Morgan, Bonnie Talley, Sioux City; Judy Okrop, Minneapolis, Minn.; Nancy Lessel, Hinsdale, Ill.; Pat Reister, Oskaloosa; Memi Rodriguez, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico; Karen Sachse, Suzy Pillars, Des Moines; Rachel Stock, Early; Jean Suhr, Judy Suhr, Rochester, Ill.; Sue Uhlinger, Worcester, Mass.; Priscilla Wilder, Dallas Center; Jane Williams, Waukesha, Wis.

IOWA ZETA—STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA. Chartered, 1882. Pledge Day, September 16, 1960. The Scottish Highlanders, the world's largest all-girl bag-pipe band, played a major part in the lives of several members during the summer and will continue to do so this fall. Pat Smith and Camille Case, the band's drum major, spent the summer traveling and performing with the group in Europe. Julie Stewart was tentatively accepted for the organization at the beginning of the college year.

Union Board work is another favorite activity of the chapter. Nancy Files, Nikki Patton and Nancy Glenn were recently selected for committee work.

At the annual Panhellenic Scholarship Dinner the chapter was announced as ranking third among the women's fraternities for scholastic achievement. The girls honored for high grades last semester were as follows: Nancy Files, Winifred Files, Deanne Algyer, Mary Janss, Jane Griffel, Judith Janssen, Barbara De Haan and Teresa Smith.

The good news among the women's fraternity system now is that a new women's fraternity is in the process of founding a chapter on the campus. It will be the fourteenth women's fraternity at the State University of Iowa.

PLEGDED: Karen Hendryx, Elaine Hogan, Cedar Rapids; Sarah Willson, Charles City; Jacquie Wilson, Davenport; Linda Newell, Julie Stewart, Des Moines; Mary Lea Blakey, East Moline, Ill.; Rae Griffel, Eldora; Sally Rae Jensen, Estherville; Linda Fehske, Fort Madison; Mary Bywater, Iowa City; Anne Parham, Kirkwood, Mo.; Linda Cossitt, La Grange, Ill.; Diane Durfee, Omaha, Neb.; Patricia Moyer, Marion; Ann Lorack, Mendota, Ill.; Rebecca Ross, Shenandoah.

A tea honoring Nebraska B's new chaperon, Mrs. Ruth Campbell, was given in October.

Karen Petersen was chosen as the Outstanding Senior Woman, and also as Outstanding Nebraskan. The chapter was thrilled to have the National Amy Burnham Onken Award presented to Karen at the 1960 Convention.

Marilyn Pickett was attendant to the queen in the Ivy Day Court and Jane Foster was chosen one of the two pages for the court. The chapter, under the direction of Janet Rhoda, won second place in the women's Ivy Day Sing.

Mary Ann Harris was tapped as president of Mortar Board, and she was elected president of A.W.S.

Mary Knolle and Ruth Read were appointed to chairmanships in the Nebraska Student Union.

Janet Rhoda was elected president of Young Republicans, and Carole Langhauser was elected secretary of Young Democrats.

Leah Smith and Jackie Gatto were chosen the two sophomore cheerleaders and Sandra Johnson will continue as the junior cheerleader.

Our annual pledge banquet was held at the Student Union. The pledges were honored at an annual dinner given by the Lincoln Alumnae Club at Mrs. Grace Ames' house. Mrs. Ames is a fifty year member of Pi Beta Phi.

$\Sigma \chi$ Derby Day was a very exciting time for the campus, the chapter pledge class won second place in the events. The pledge class also won the contest for the most original sign, welcoming Lyndon B. Johnson to the University campus.

The University of Nebraska feels very proud to be chosen one of the few homes of the Kellogg Foundation.

Gail Galloway had the lead in the musical comedy Oklahoma, at Lincoln's Pine Wood Bowl.

The chapter is looking forward to the visit by Mrs. Wild.

KANSAS ALPHA—KANSAS UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 1, 1872. Pledge Day, September 12, 1960. At the close of the spring semester, many honors were attained by the Pi Beta Phi at Lawrence. Scholastically, Kansas A claimed six $\Phi \beta \kappa$ s: Margot Brown, Jeanie Garlinghouse, Mary Ann Mize, Judy Allen Morris, Alice Gould, and Marilyn Mull. Also a Carnegie research grant in sociology was awarded to Sue Cross.

Activity-wise, Mary Gay Dillingham, Judy Gorton, and Nancy Haskin were tapped by Mortar Board. The sophomore honor society, Cwens, chose Sue Hardisty as its president and Susan Callender and Dixie Kaufman as members. Alice Gould was awarded the AAUW Award for the outstanding senior woman. Janie Dean was honored as one of eleven outstanding seniors in the Jayhawker, the university annual. Susan Callender was elected president of the Junior Panhellenic.

Spring also meant several campus queens. Elizabeth Reidel was chosen Kansas Relays Queen; she and her attendants, who included Marcia Myers, reigned over all the exciting activities. During Greek Week, Marcia Casey was the first attendant to the queen.

The chapter won other honors during Greek Week. Under the direction of Mary Bennett, the Pi Beta Phi won first place in the intrafraternity sing. Also, the Panhellenic scholarship cup was given to Pi Beta Phi for the year 1958-1959.

After summer vacation, the girls at 1246 Mississippi found many changes on the campus. Close next door was the new addition of the Student Union. In honor of former Chancellor Murphy, the Music and Dramatic Arts building had been renamed Murphy Hall. The new Kansas University Chancellor, W. Clarke Wescoe, was inaugurated at convocation on September 19.

Before classes began, rush was held for upperclass women. On September 30, the actives entertained both the fall pledges from upperclass rush and the spring pledges from freshman rush at a fall open house.

PLEGDED: September 12, 1960: Jeanne Barrow, Macon, Mo.; Barbara Bueskings, Marilyn Cromb, Kansas City, Mo.; Melinda Hall, Jean Ann Low, Coffeyville; Dixie Kaufman, McPherson; Barbara Mullen, Kansas City; Mary Lynn Rogers, Salina.

The members of Texas A returned to school to find a very pleasant surprise. The downstairs of the chapter house had been partially redecorated and looked more beautiful than ever. This certainly was a pleasure during rush week. The chapter is privileged to have a set of twins, Nan and Sue Chipley, who made our rush skits a lot more fun. When rush week came to a close, Texas A was very pleased with their fifty new pledges.

The pledges were hostess to the fraternity pledges at the traditional Pledge Line, which is planned in order for all of the new sorority and fraternity pledges to meet each other.

Texas A is proud of the many honors which have come to individual members of the chapter. Marilyn Allen was chosen as Portia of the University of Texas Law School last spring. Peggy Pace was selected to serve as cheerleader for the University of Texas again this fall.

Several members of Texas A have been chosen as members of campus honorary organizations. Susan Reed was tapped for membership by Orange Jackets, an honorary service organization for women. Sally Brockschmidt, Mike Colton, and Linda Smith were chosen for the national honorary scholastic fraternity for freshman women.

Advisors for the dormitories are selected at the end of the year, and Michelle Guillot and Nancy Maxwell were chosen for Kinsolving Dormitory.

Girls from the chapter who have been elected to campus offices include Susan Reed, vice president of the "Y," and Michelle Guillot, treasurer of Spooks, an honorary service organization for women.

Texas A has planned several exchange dinners with fraternities. The members of the chapter are looking forward to visiting the various fraternity houses and having the boys as guests at our house.

As this semester gets underway, the members of the chapter are looking forward to working on the annual sign contest for the Homecoming game, as well as entering into numerous activities on campus. Texas A is anticipating a very eventful and successful year.

"Everybody's going Pi Phi . . ." and since those thirty-four wonderful pledges walked into our heaven, the chapter has been singing that song day and night.

The sun shined on Texas B last spring too. With Kay Howard as chairman of Manada, the Pi Beta Phis danced to first place with the skit entitled "Prindevilla and the Cince." Manada is spring carnival time at SMU. Among the queen finalists were Sue Barnes, Janey Goff, and Peggy Hodges.

Helping the chapter toward higher scholarship achievement, Sally Rhodus was invited to join $\Phi B K$, and Marianna Haberle and Carolyn Seilheimer were pledged to A A Δ . Marianna also achieved the distinctive honor of having the highest grade average of all freshman women students at SMU. Sue Knickerbocker was selected to wear the Mortar Board; while graduating Carol Bowers received a scholarship to Harvard Graduate School.

The Pi Beta Phi name has been carried to the SMU campus by such actives as Margaret R. Miller, AWS president, and Bette Barcus, elected to M ΦE (music honorary) and B K Γ (comparative literature honorary). Mary Sue Kendrick, chosen "most outstanding advertising student at SMU," was awarded some experience this summer at a New York advertising firm. Sue Knickerbocker was elected vice president of the Wesley Fellowship. And the chapter is ready to yell for SMU as Janey Goff, her second year as cheerleader, shows us how. Sophomore Liz Hamilton was elected to represent the College of Arts and Science on the Student Council. Finally, thanks to a fine sports manager, Gay Calloway, who was honored as the Most Outstanding Sports Manager, Texas B received the Best Sportsmanship Award.

Fun came in with the K As and did not stop 'til the fading strains of "Dixie" told us that the "risen South" was just a fond memory. The K A Old South Ball was a wonderful event as the Pi Beta Phis joined the K As to hostess the festivities. Held in the new Sheraton-Dallas Ballroom, the Confederate atmosphere glittered with candlelit chandeliers and swishing ball gowns.

Watch for Texas B active, Carol Dean, Queen of the 1960 Tyler Rose Festival. She will be attended by many Pi Beta Phis from all over the South Central States.

Spring elections brought many honors to Texas Γ . Marilyn Gardner Vardeman, Jean Schepers and Johanna Zourmas were chosen by Tech Salutes and also by Who's Who. Donna Sue Christopher was another celebrity in Tech Salutes list. She was also elected second vice president of the AWS.

In the election of class favorites, Pi Beta Phi shone again; Shirley Stephens was Junior Favorite, her third time to be chosen for this honor; and Kay Woody was elected for the second time, this spring by the sophomore class. Kay was also elected to serve on the Student Council.

The chimes heralding the day for Mortar Board tapping rang for five Pi Beta Phis: Donna Sue Christopher, Blair Mellott, Marilyn Gardner Vardeman, Anne McElheny, and Karen O'Brien.

Pi Beta Phi displayed their athletic abilities by overwhelmingly winning the annual Fiji Olympics.

The Woman of the Year, chosen by an all-campus woman vote, was Jean Schepers. Other nominees were Marilyn Gardner Vardeman and Johanna Zourmas.

Betsy Baker, Glenda Link and Kakkie Shaughnessy were selected to be legislators in Drane Hall, where Anne Weaver is president. Betsy, Kakkie, and Betsy Kaiser were elected to be members of the Freshman Council for the spring term.

After much vigorous campaigning for Shirley Stephens, we were thrilled when she was elected cheerleader. Shirley was also crowned Miss Topflight as the annual AFROTC Ball, and she placed third in the Miss Lubbock Contest. Gail Pfluger was one of the top ten finalists; Susan Graham and Jo Anne Dobbs Hale were two other entrants in the Contest.

Sharon English was nominated for the Sweetheart of ΣX . Barbara Underwood was chosen to be Panhellenic Rush Chairman for the fall formal rush period. Barbara, historian of $\Pi A \Theta$, is also a member of $\Sigma A \Pi$, along with Anne McElheny and Johanna Zourmas.

A new administration building has been completed on Texas Christian University campus. The building has spacious new administrative offices, as well as a new Post Office and classrooms. The old administration building is under reconstruction. It will be used for additional offices and classroom space. The school cafeteria and Student Center are to be enlarged to accommodate the expanding enrollment.

The spring of 1960 found the members of Texas Δ very active. The chapter won first place in Greek Review with songs from the Broadway play "Miss Liberty." The chapter also placed third in the campus Song Festival.

Sally Ranson was among the top five finalists in the Miss Fort Worth Contest. Jan Beaty was elected as Activities Council Director. This office is one of the major offices on the campus. Sara Sturges was selected as a member of $\Phi M \Sigma$, an honorary math society. Sally Tobin, Cynthia Harvey, and Sally Ranson received honorable mention in the annual college Creative Writing contest. Julia Tipton received the SKIFF, campus newspaper, award as most outstanding Student Congress member.

The chapter gave several of their evenings to a testing program conducted by the Psychology Department. A house fund for the chapter was started in the spring. The members of Texas Δ are proud of their new etiquette booklet, "Arrow Tips." It was composed by a committee under the direction of Zola Morgan. The committee used suggestions gathered during Spring Retreat.

The pre-rush retreat on September 2 was held in Colby D. Dormitory on the Texas Christian University campus. Rush was held September 7-12. It was successful as 30 girls were pledged.

*COLORADO GAMMA—COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, September 8, 1954. Pledge Day, September 27, 1960. INITIATED, April 9, 1960: Sandra Stemmler, Josephine Urlling, Denver.

Highlighting spring quarter for Colorado Gamma was the election of two attendants for the two biggest dances of the quarter. Sheri Green was selected as an attendant for the Military Ball, and Liz Lips was an attendant for the Junior Prom.

Our Spring Formal was a gala event even though weather conditions did not coincide with the theme of the dance, "Swing Into Spring." It snowed that day. The evening was brought to a climax with the crowning of the king, Ken Turner, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Pi Beta Phi also made their way into the whirl of fraternity sweetheart dances. Linda Carlson reigned as sweetheart of Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Barbara Plank was sweetheart attendant for Alpha T O.

Many Pi Beta Phis will be leading the pep and spirit of CSU this coming year. Elected as cheerleaders were Liz Lips, Sheri Green, and Em Barta. Peppettes elected were Betty Hutchins, head peppette, Verena Young, Pat O'Hearn, and Karen Miller. Skyliners, the newly formed precision drill team, chose Barbara Jo Allen as a new member.

We were all very proud of Judy Sheehan who received the title of Best Dressed Coed. Another title went to Maiddi King; she was chosen All-Around Cowgirl. Barbara Perry received the Amy Burnham Onken award, and President Pat Leech was selected for the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone award.

The quarter was brought to a grand climax with Honor Night which brought many honors. New Spurs are Carol Burns, Lynne Evans, Nancy Dodd, Pat Fry, Ann Heerman, Kathy Peavy, and Mary Wenke. Hesperia, the junior honorary, chose Sandra Sechrest; and the senior honorary, T I O, tapped Pat Leech and Joan Burns. Pat Leech was also elected president of the organization. Chosen for Alpha A Delta, which recognizes those freshmen who excel in exceptionally high grades, were Nancy Dodd and Zoe Ann Wolfe. Wearing the green Army Cadette uniform will be Nancy Dodd, Pat Fry, and Linda LeQuire; and wearing the blue Aggie Angel uniform will be Betty Hutchins. Presiding as president of Student Union Board this year will be Eileen Wrockloff Porschbacher. Also on the board will be Kathy Peavy and Charlene. Sheri Green received the AWS scholarship which was also a great honor.

PLEGDED, Spring: Barbara Jo Allen, Janet Lehner, Denver; Susan Cathey, Fort Collins; Alta Chapin, Greeley; Ann Heerman, Hax-

WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING. Chartered, 1910. Pledge Day, September 17, 1960. INITIATED, September 8, 1960: Cynthia Lee Knight, Kay Kraus, Laramie; Lucille Sarcelletti, Rock Springs.

Torch Light Laurels climaxed the 1959-60 school year when Katherine Kugland was tapped for Mortar Board. Judy Gardner, Martha Carlson, and Sue Ann Morgan were chosen for Chimes. Selected for Spurs were Carol Crow, Anne Gilroy, Mary Guthrie, Susan Kirkpatrick, and Judie Sinko. Elected to Iron Skull were Martha Carlson and Georgia Doll.

Reigning as queens were Judy Gardner, Air Force ROTC Queen and Nancy Long, Army ROTC Queen. Selected for WYO Queen was Janet Hawley with Ann Morgan serving as an attendant. Anita Simons was chosen Miss Wool of Wyoming and was an attendant to the National Miss Wool. Also, Anita Simons was Wyoming's delegate to the Miss Universe Contest. Gail Asiala was the A T O Sack Queen.

Our chapter has already accumulated many honors since the beginning of the semester. Representing the chapter as Army Sponsors are Anita Simon, Tuni Stuart, Nancy Long, Judy Martin, Judie Sinko, Joanne Ludwig, Mariam Cooper, and Sharon O'Melia. The Air Force Sponsors for this year are Georgia Doll, Katherine Kugland, Connie Steele, and Janice Voss. Candy Boughn was chosen as an alternate Pepster. Nancy Long and Donna Evans are the co-editors of the university's yearbook, the WYO. Katherine Kugland is commander of Angel Flight.

Wyoming donated a $600 positive breathing machine to Iverson Memorial Hospital in Laramie in commemoration of the chapter's 50th year on the University of Wyoming campus.

PLEGDED: Sharon Lucas, Mary Jo Thompson, Casper; Shirley Correll, Patricia Brimmer, Georginia Guy, Susan Larson, Ann Sherard, Cheyenne; Judy Seivert, Kay Sturholm, Rock Springs; Virginia Schwartz, Joyce Taylor, Janice Voss, Worland; Sharon O'Melia, Rawlins; Donna Hardy, Douglas; Candy Boughn, Jerra Johnston, Wheatland; Betty Korhonen, Torrington; Gretchen Kuiper, Jeanne Mercer, Cody; Anne Siren, Janice Thomas, Laramie; Leota Heil, Riverton; Susan Biernbaum, Rapid City, S.D.; Joanne Ludwig, Hutchinson, Kan.; Barbara Bruce, Dunsuir, Calif.; Betty Cooke, Denver, Colo.; Vickie Larson, Manson, Iowa; Bobbye Thatcher, Las Vegas, N.M.

UTAH ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF UTAH. Chartered, 1929. Pledge Day, September 18, 1960. INITIATED, September 25, 1960: Linda Covey, Nancy Miller, Marion Raleigh, Beverly Roberts, Kay Secrest, Salt Lake City; Linda Drown, Elko, Nev.

Spring quarter Utah A members received many campus honors. Freshmen Linda Drown and Jan Poole were named to A A Δ and Spurs tapped Mary Kaye Carlquist and Linda Lehner. The junior honorary Cwen chose Linda Covey, Nancy Folland, and Karen Rosenbaum for its ranks, and Cathi Peterson is now sporting a Mortar Board blazer.

Fraternities realized Pi Beta Phi beauty as Σ Φ E named Marion Brown as its Queen of Hearts and Cheryl Anderson was picked White Rose of Σ N. Utah A swept the campus during preseason rush. Thirty-one outstanding girls were seen wearing wine and silver blue ribbons Freshman Week. The Pi Beta Phi chose Ocean to Ocean as the theme for the week. New York, San Francisco, and Gatlinburg were visited with the first three rush parties. Casual day the house was transformed into a southern plantation complete with pickaninnies and chickens. A minstrel show was the highlight of the day. The week ended with a lovely Ocean to Ocean candle light dinner.

The new pledges soon brought home garlands when Leslie Robinson was chosen the K Σ Pledge Queen and Florence Reeve was elected president of Junior Panhellenic.

In November all the chapter members donned the grab of pilgrims to attend the Canterbury Tales party. A combo of Utah Symphony members supplied baroque music to eat the roast suckling pig by.

Topping the busy and full fall quarter was the annual Christmas Dinner Dance. Each Pi Beta Phi gave her date a red Christmas stocking filled to the top with the things he likes best.

ANN MARIE BOYDEN

MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1921. The opening of fall quarter finds the chapter busy with Homecoming which was September 15. Phyllis DeJana was one of the three finalists for Homecoming Queen.

The night of September 7 the chapter started working on the float for Homecoming with a dance afterwards for the girls and their dates. The theme is the Fabulous Fifties with the float depicting Princess Grace and Prince Rainier's wedding.

Ann Hanson and Mary Jo McQuire are candidates for the Σ X Watermelon Bust.

Janice Christian was the only girl to receive the Junior Group Scholarship Award.

Ann Hanson is the new sophomore class secretary. The chapter is proud to have as their new housemother, Mrs. Louise Larson from Big Fork, Montana. At her suggestion we are having a friendly get-together every Sunday night with light snacks from 9:30-11:00 for the members, their friends and dates.

MARILYN FRASER

OMICRON PROVINCE

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Chartered, January, 1907. Pledge Day, September 21, 1960. Washington A led a very successful rush program, headed by Kay Buckley and assisted by Jan Jacobson. Our reward was a pledge class of thirty-nine outstanding girls.

The girls are currently looking forward to the big event next month which is Homecoming, scheduled for November 11 with California. This brings with it the traditional signs and festivities. We are planning an animate sign with the theme of "L'il Abner," under the direction of our chairman, Lynn Horsfield.

As the quarter gets under way, we are looking forward to the many fraternity exchanges, queen contests, Nickel Hop, and our Pledge Dance in November, along with a variety of campus activities. Linda Williams is one of the University's Songleaders for this year, Gail Crosthwaite is reigning as campus Queen of Queens, and Harriet Buckman is continuing her office as president of the Associated Women Students.

Special emphasis for this quarter is being put on achieving high scholastic aims. Every girl is striving to do her very best.

PLEGDED: Shari Billesbach, Anne Bradley, Sandy Campbell, Penny Claire, Mary Ellen Copner, Trudy Dryer, Deannie Dunbar, Carol Fewell, Sandra Finley, Sandra Gauntlett, Susan Green, Linda Hall, Evelyn Hamilton, Marilee Hopkins, Kristin Johnson, Susanne Kauzlarich, Nancy Keeler, Linda Keizer, Judy Lone, Barbara McBride, Marlis McCully, Claire Mapes, Mary Ann Moser, Lana Nelson, Adele Newman, Mary Leigh Nunn, Karyn Oberg, Joyce Parsons, Donna Paschal, Lynn Perham, Nancy Reynolds, Melissa Roberts, Sheila Roessler, Judy Ross, Linda Schloedt, Donna Schram, Susan Shaw, Tesse Skach, Penny Smith.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, July, 1912. Pledge Day, February 10, 1961. INITIATED, October 2, 1960: Connie Blank, Spokane; Susan Deck, Ephrata; Joan Grey, Jane Patterson, Seattle.

Spring semester was full of fun and excitement, and it brought many honors to Washington B. Barbara Allen, Betty Johnson, and Marilyn J. Wolfe were among the sixteen junior women tapped for Mortar Board. Spurs tapped Sue Berger, Susan Crocker, and Dixie Schepper. Marilyn J. Wolfe was also elected as Senior Greek Woman to Board of Control. Elected to president of O N, was Sue Curran. In addition, Sue was awarded a scholarship for the 1960-'61 school year for being the top junior woman in Home Economics. Janice Bushnell received the honor of being tapped for Φ B K, and Betty Johnson was tapped for Φ K Φ.

In the queen department, Jill Reed was one of the six finalists for May Queen, the honor going to the senior woman who had been most active during her four years on campus. Vivienne Marlatt was a T K E sweetheart finalist. As Junior Miss Washington for 1959, Vivienne reigned over the Junior Miss Washington pageant held in Pullman, at which Karen Kimsey, a Washington B pledge, was selected as the 1960 Junior Miss Washington. Vivienne was also honored by being tapped to appear on the Σ A X calendar.

Washington B and Idaho A celebrated Founders' Day together with a spaghetti dinner, held at the chapter house in Pullman. Kathy Aetzel played a leading role in the spring campus musical, Carousal.

The annual cook, houseboy dinner was a little sad this time, for the members said farewell to three boys who had been with the chapter for four years.

Gayle Williams, the new Y.W.C.A. first vice president, was selected by the national Y.W.C.A. to attend the leadership school at Union Theological Seminary in New York this summer.

Fall has started out with a bang. Washington B returned to a newly redecorated house, from top to bottom. What a wonderful way to start out the year!

Following a very successful rush week, a dinner was given to thank the alumnae rush advisor, housemother, and cook, who helped so much during rush. Then, on October 9, the alumnae who did so much work redecorating the house, were honored with thanks at a Sunday brunch.

The pledges have already gotten into the swing of college life by participating in the annual A X A Watermelon Bust, the K Σ Waffle Breakfast, a party given by the alumnae, a Greek street dance, and touch football games with T K E and Σ N.

Fall is also marked by college football, and Susan Deck is actively helping school spirit as a member of Rally Squad.

Sue Berger served as the very able chairman of the Registration Ball, an all campus dance sponsored by the Spurs.

The members are delighted to have Hiltrude Haager, a charming exchange student from Austria, living with them this year, to exchange European and American ways of life.

As the semester gets under way, the chapter is looking forward to two big events, the November visit of Mrs. Dunkin, the new president of Omicron Province, and Dads' Weekend, which is October 22, and 23.

PLEGDED: Carol Beckett, Bonnie Berg, Evelyn Cartony, Yakima; Carol Busch, Karen Kimsey, Carol Lee, Pullman; Marlene Elduen, Bellevue; Christy Jochimsen, Puyallup; Kathy Jones, Tacoma; Susan Kelley, Mt. Vernon; Jennifer Knopf, Walla-Walla; Judy Martin, Everett; Kathy Quinn, Selah; Susan Schnebly, Ellensburg; Linda Silzel, Oakesdale; Bonnie Williams, Spokane; Sally Yoder, Sumner.

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1917. Pledge Day, September 26, 1960. At the end of winter term, Pi Beta Phi had the highest grades among the women's living groups on the Oregon State College campus.

Spring term found the members of Oregon B very active and well represented on campus. Antoinette Arena and Donna Biggs represented Oregon B as finalists for Rose of II K Φ. Donna was chosen Rose and won second place in national competition. Patricia Warner was a finalist for II K A Dream Girl and was chosen Forest Fraulein by the Home Economics Club. The men of Σ A E selected Carol Keema as a Daughter of Minerva.

Jean Underwood was a finalist for Betty Coed and Roberta Kay Manning was a finalist for Miss OSC. Barbara Keudell was in the finals for Miss Corvallis.

Roberta Kay Manning was tapped for Mortar Board; Jan Marquiss and Judy Aston were tapped for A A Δ, a freshman women's scholastic honorary; and Shirley Small was tapped for Talons, a sophomore women's service honorary. Also tapped were Deanna Epps by K II, an art honorary, and Susan Briggs by Φ X E, a business honorary. Elverne Bennett was awarded the A X Ω award for the outstanding senior in music.

Campus presidencies went to Roberta Kay Manning, president of house presidents' council, and Janis Baer, president of Women's Recreation Association.

Nancy Johnson was chosen a member of Oregon State's varsity rally squad. Shirley Small was elected vice president and Donna Biggs elected secretary of the sophomore class.

Jan Marquiss sang in many of the variety shows on campus and was on the Oratory and Forensics Squads. She won first place in the women's oratory division at the T K A tournament in Montana.

Suzanne Goeller is serving as a dormitory sponsor for 1960-61 and Roberta Kay Manning is on the Co-op Managers' Board.

OREGON GAMMA—WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, June 3, 1944. Pledge Day, September 28, 1960. INITIATED, Oct. 14, 1960: Merle Gillespie.

Keeping up spirit at games as members of the Rally Squad are Trish Evans, Sandy Stageberg, and Joann Gay. Freshmen Kathy Vielhauer, Pat French, and Kathy Campbell, and sophomores Linda Simonsen and Merle Gillespie have been selected as Honeybees, a dancing group that performs at campus functions.

Candidates for Angel Flight, a women's drill team include Heather Birnie, Julie Boss, Janet Hawthorne, Mary Shaefer, and Jackie Graber.

Thelma Ray, president of B A Γ, a sophomore women's activities honorary, recently tapped Jane Yaple, among other new members selected this fall. Already members are Mary Ann Wright and Joann Gay.

Running for Homecoming Hostess were Marian Hauke, Marcia Ruby, Linda Dumas, and Jean Sherwood. Heather Birnie was elected freshman class secretary pro tem.

Busy with Mortar Board are Elaine Buckinger and Karin Kettenring, tapped last spring.

Campus convocations manager for this school year is Sue Lewis. Joy Davis serves as secretary for the Homecoming committee and Suzanne Smullin is secretary for Parent's Week-end.

Students participating in the junior honors program include Marian Hauke, Marcia Ruby, and Judy Smith. Janet Hawthorne is in freshman honors.

Despite such activities, however, Oregon Γ will be working to maintain the first place position in campus scholastic standing won with spring semester's grades.

SUZANNE SMULLIN

ALBERTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA. Chartered, September 22, 1931. Pledge Day, October 23, 1960. INITIATED, September 18, 1960: Margaret Cormack, Gladys Clandinin, Fay Lindley, Claudette Giguere, Jean Rennie, Barbara Sexton, Calgary.

Frosh Week, September 19-28, at the University of Alberta saw chapter members busy taking part in many and varied activities. Several members dressed in flapper costumes were seen in different spots around the campus selling season tickets to varsity football games.

Panhellenic sponsored a dance on the "Joe College" theme during Frosh Week in which the chapter took an active part in the organization and entertainment.

Each chapter member has a little sister who is a freshette on campus. This is arranged by Wauenita, an organization for all women on campus. Pi Beta Phi took their little sisters to coffee parties and helped them to feel welcome during Frosh Week. The Wauenita Society is holding their annual formal on October 22 to which the chapter is planning to attend as a group.

The weekend of October 8-10 was Homecoming Weekend at the University of Alberta. A variety of activities took place including an inter-varsity football game, dances and the appearance of Stan Kenton and his band. The fraternity house was open to guests on this weekend.

Plans and work parties are underway for rushing and members are busy learning the songs brought back from Convention.

Themes for the rushing parties are to be that of Calypso Capers and Pi Phi Heaven.

At a recent initiation Claudette Giguere was presented with an Arrow bracelet for outstanding academic attainment during her pledge term.

MARSHA BUROKER

PI PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT BERKELEY. Chartered, 1900. Pledge Day, September 17, 1960. INITIATED, October 2, 1960: Nancy Jessalene Hayhurst.

As is always the case in September, the Pi Beta Phis at California opened the front door of the chapter house for rushing, and closed it with an outstanding group of pledges locked inside. Our ranks were increased by twenty-one, bringing the size of the chapter to seventy-two.

One of the most exciting aspects of the rush season was the pride with which we could show the house to the rushees. Many major improvements had been made over the summer—the four sleeping porches were repainted, new carpeting graced most of the downstairs and second floor, and Group Room was entirely redecorated—the latter due to donations by our fathers. Pre-Sents, the traditional introduction of the pledges to the alumnae and campus, took place on September 17.

School got underway the following Monday, and although everything was new and interesting to the freshmen, there was something new and interesting to the returning students—the new multi-million dollar cafeteria and dining commons conveniently located opposite Sather Gate. The other half of the modern student union is scheduled to be completed in December and will feature such recreational facilities as a bowling alley, a free arts and crafts instruction center, and a little theater.

There is also great enthusiasm this semester over participation in campus activities. Pi Beta Phi now hold key positions in almost all activity fields at Cal. Hilary Bevis and Kathy Dougherty are on Women's Judicial Committee. Hilary Bevis is also copy editor of the yearbook. Judi Richards, Laurie Hand, Mary McFarland, and Carolyn Hand are members of the Associated Women Students

Board; and representing us in Women's Athletic Association is Patti Meyer, secretary of the group. Janet Crist is the current chairman of the Y.W.C.A. Blind School program and Mary McFarland and Melinda Menzies have been appointed to the "Y" Steering Committee.

Honorary awards were also bestowed on several girls in the house. Carolyn Hand was tapped for Mortar Board; Carolyn Hand and Binnie Busby were elected to Prytanean Honor; and Wendy Mac Millan and Carolyn Hand were appointed by university President Clark Kerr to California Club. Wendy Mac Millan is also the president of Panile Honorary, other members being Barbara Bogue, Melinda Menzies, Judi Richards, Toni Taylor and Terry Taylor.

Our chapter is also well represented in the spirit groups throughout the campus. Carolyn Hand is president of Women's Rally Committee and Barbara Rogue holds a junior appointment on that committee. Terry Taylor is the head of the Card Stunts Committee and on Rally and Games Council. Laurie Bischoff, Judi Richards, and Nickie Severance were chosen to be Oski Dolls.

Laurie Michaels is serving as president of Junior Panhellenic as well as pledge president.

On the social agenda are exchanges with ΣX , $X \Phi$ and A T O. The pledges have already had two successful exchanges with $\Pi K \Lambda$ and $\Phi \Delta \Theta$. Our winter formal is scheduled for December 10 and the plans are spectacular. We plan to have a progressive dinner and dancing party in different San Francisco homes. Music will be by Ernie Hecksher and his orchestra.

PLEGDED: Elizabeth Blanchard, Salt Lake City, Utah; Nancy Bogue, Alamo; Elizabeth Bright, Joan Phillips, Kathleen Riesenbergs, Berkeley; Susan Cookson, Elizabeth McNeill, San Francisco; Marcia Finch, Pasadena; Mary Lamora Harrison, Honolulu, Hawaii; Patricia Hickman, Ross; Noel Jones, Orinda; Laurie Michaels, Marysville; Laurie Mullally, Colette Traverse, Oakland; Nancy Nicolaus, Geraldine Silverman, Sacramento; Julianne Perkins, Fresno; Susan Schreiber, Newport Beach; Joanne Seefeld, Santa Barbara; and Ellen Thiem, Janet Worthington, Los Angeles.

JUDI RICHARDS

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 16, 1960. INITIATED, October 8, 1960: Bonnie Keefe, Glendale; Steffi La Briola, Los Angeles.

California Γ returned to U.S.C. this fall looking forward to a busy year. As a climax to a wonderful rush season, the chapter held a pledge-active party at the home of Susie Chenault in Covina. The theme was Hawaiian, and tiki torches lit up the pool where each pledge had her name on a float which formed an arrow.

Last May at the University Recognition Assembly, the girls of California Γ won many honors. Fran Lay won the award for the freshman with the highest grades and was also selected to Spurs. Darlene and Marlene Coleman were chosen as Amazons, and Mary Linda Woods was selected to both Chimes and Amazons. Carol Ann White was honored by being tapped as a member of Mortar Board. Carol Ann also was elected last semester to serve the university as president of Associated Women Students.

In the field of beauty, California Γ is very proud of Steffi La Briola who was chosen as Princess of $\Phi \Sigma K$, and of Bev Brown who reigns as Engineering Queen.

The social calendar fortells of an Open House with $\Delta \Sigma$ and a four-way exchange with $K \Delta$, $K K \Gamma$, and $\Phi \Delta \Theta$.

Nancy Smith, Joan Neely, and Mary Linda Woods traveled to Convention this summer and had a wonderful time. They brought back many ideas and suggestions which we have incorporated.

PLEGDED: Kathleen O'Hara, Vallejo; Kathy Willis, Arcadia; Kathy Scott, Palm Desert; Lani Cline, Nancy Huntley, Rion Luongo, Judy Maltes, Roberta Ruud, Los Angeles; Bonnie Hutchinson, Susan Kemper, San Marino; Ann Roberts, Beverly Hills; Nancy Farrell, Pasadena; Suzanne Huffman, Long Beach; Peggy Wright, La Jolla; Karen Arnds, La Canada.

SUZI HUTCHINSON

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, September, 1927. Pledge Day, September 16, 1960. INITIATED, October 1, 1960: Phyllis Blackmun, Los Angeles.

After an active summer and a very successful rush season, October finds the UCLA Pi Beta Phis settling down in their new classes and becoming a part of a variety of campus activities.

Many of us are still stary-eyed over an exceptionally rewarding spring semester highlighted by our Spring Sing victory with $\Sigma A E$ in the Hollywood Bowl. The endless song practices paid off when we walked off stage with a first place trophy in mixed division and a sweepstakes trophy by the end of the evening.

We happily joined forces with $\Theta \Xi$ at Mardi Gras and presented their famous vaudeville show, "The Bowery." The \$300 in proceeds went to Uni Camp, a UCLA sponsored summer camp for underprivileged children and we were flattered at being announced the most enjoyable booth at the affair.

Several girls were active in campus service organizations and honoraries. We are especially proud of Kathie Murphy, as she is now serving on Student Legislative Council as the upper division women's representative. In addition, she was one of two undergraduate women appointed to Board of Governors and she and Barbara Wells are members of Prytanean, activities honorary.

Debby Gabbert added a touch of glamour in the yearbook as Spring Southern Campus Princess. Debby also graciously accepted the Spur of the Year award (sophomore women's honorary). Newly tapped Spurs are Vicki Baughman, Carol Mason, and Gayle Etienne. AWS is fortunate to have Kris Kelley, Irene Dunn, and Toni Church in charge of the following boards respectively: Coordination, Philanthropy, and Orientation. Barbara Wells is the capable president of Bruin Young Republicans.

Phi Kappa tapped Mary Ann Chase, Carol Clark, and Toni Church for their little sister group, FAMAC. Susie Evans and Kathie Murphy are little sisters of Theta Xi.

The entire chapter enjoyed the enthusiastic reports from our convention delegates and it certainly increased our awareness of Pi Beta Phi's importance nationally.

Exchanges are off to a great start after joining Delta Tau Delta at a Dogpatch, USA, party. The Delta Gamma's were charming hostesses this week when they invited us next door for dessert.

With the fun experienced already plus exciting things yet to come, this semester should be quite a memorable one.

PLEDGED: Jill Parker, Virginia Sanders, Pamela Simmons, Glendale; Judith Jensen, Inglewood; Berit Andersson, Pasadena; Marya Voven, Sara Voris, Encino; Paula Ziegler, Abby Dickow, Santa Monica; Susan Evans, La Canada; Anne Heald, Patricia Pann, Los Angeles; Christine Jackson, North Hollywood; Anne Plumb, Studio City; Christine Jones, Van Nuys; Antoinette Perachini, Harbor City; Sandra Canische, Sacramento.

*CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 1, 1949. Pledge Day, September 10, 1960. INITIATED: October 2, 1960: Dale Alpert, Caronado; Carmel Campbell, El Centro; Sharon Cermak, Barbara Bender, Sue Riley, Margaret Tamer, San Diego.

On returning this fall the chapter was excited to find that they had new linoleum on the kitchen floor and a new dining room set. These additions were made possible by the House Corporation and the Mothers' Club.

San Diego State has expanded this fall with two more women's residence halls. And the college enrollment reached about 11,000 this fall.

The chapter participated with Kappa Sigma in the annual Spring Sing, which was held May 6. The pledges gave a Come as you are breakfast for the actives, which was a great success. The chapter held a Mothers Day breakfast at the Shelter Island Inn for the mothers of actives and pledges. This was a very rewarding event.

Among many outstanding Pi Beta Phi on campus this year are: Jean Collier, treasurer of Cap and Gown (Mortar Board equivalent); Judy Thompson, representative to the AS Council; Judy Bown, Panhellenic secretary; Nancy Ruehlow, Angel's Flight; Dale Alpert, member of the Pep Board; Sandi Jaworski, songleader. Patsy Boyle and Sherill Bottier were counselors at the Freshmen Orientation Camp, which was held at the beginning of this semester. Patsy Boyle has been chosen president of Little Sisters of Minerva. Lynne Luckey has been honored by being chosen Dream Girl of Delta Xi Phi.

Monty Salutes Cinema has been chosen as the theme for this year's Homecoming, which will be held on October 29. The chapter will be building a float with Sigma Xi. The chapter's Homecoming Queen candidate is Susan Johnson. Carolyn Butler is the Homecoming Queen candidate for Sigma Xi, and Lynne Luckey is the candidate for Zeta Tau Eta.

The chapter is looking forward to Dad's Night on October 15. This is the night when the girls in the chapter take their dads to the football game. After the game, everyone returns to the chapter house for a little get together, with songs and refreshments.

PLEDGED: Carolyn Erskine, Judy Wilson, Glendora; Peggy Hunt, Susan Ritland, Los Angeles; Nedra Snyder, Oceanside; Betty Adams, Julie Baker, Ellen Barbour, Charlotte Benson, Pat Bramblett, Ann Carroll, Jane Chalmers, Jan Collins, Lynne Cowhick, Sharon Culver, Susan Fleet, Diane Gamble, Jo Ann Hansen, Ilene Heiman, Marion McLaughlin, Elaine Michos, Bonnie Miller, Diana Nelson, Sara Nelson, Sharon O'Neill, Sandi Stayer, San Diego.

CALIFORNIA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT SANTA BARBARA. Chartered, February 2, 1950. Pledge Day, September 18, 1960. INITIATED, October 2, 1960: Sue Highnote, Pasadena; Jan Swartz, Westchester; Millie Hendrick, Los Angeles; Kay Moore, San Gabriel.

This summer California Zeta moved from their house in Santa Barbara to a new apartment house in Isla Vista. All but one women's fraternity is now in Isla Vista.

California Zeta still has travelers to far away places. Phyllis Milum took a bicycle tour through Europe. Mischelle Gerien met Phyllis there while on her own tour of Europe which included Moscow.

Diana Livie, Linda Robinson, and Marie Sue Frenchick are all members of the sophomore honorary service group, Spurs. Tommie Nordell is secretary and Kay de la Guardia is president of Spurs.

Millie Hendrick is secretary of the sophomore class and Kay Moore is vice-president of the junior class. Lynn Petersen is secretary of AWS and Sally Spear is secretary of Panhellenic.

After a busy summer Pi Beta Phi started the new year with a retreat and then enthusiastically began rush.

Plans are being made for the homecoming parade and Galloping Gaucho Review, a university talent show.

PLEDGED: Judy Marquand, Arcadia; Margaret Schevill, Berkeley; Tommie Louise Nordell, Burbank; Christina Cabell, Fresno; Kathy Harbordt, La Canada; Linda Sauer, La Crescenta; Barbara Metzger, Long Beach; Mary Brent Mackoy, Judy Calvert, Los Angeles; Bobbie Jean Burnette, Moorpark; Karen Allender, North Hollywood; Judi Harbustan, Oakland; Carolyn Howard, Piedmont; Sally Claridge, Portland, Ore.; Mary Ann Leinster, Reseda; Robin Ryland, Rolling Hills; Jennifer Quine, San Carlos; Marie Sue Frenchick, Roni Cotton, Marion Swanson, San Gabriel; Sue Banks, San Mateo; Susan Weaver, Santa Ana; Susan Savant, Santa Barbara; Carolyn Shepherd, Santa Rosa; Joanne Marie May, Studio City; Caroline Hamilton, Tarzana.

*NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 18, 1960. INITIATED, October 7, 1960: Barbara Coles, Reno; Brenda Barnes, Menlo Park, Calif.; Connie Lil, San Jose, Calif.

The AWS Big and Little Sister Program for incoming women students was directed by Mimi Patrick this year.

The beginning of women's activities was the AWS Fashion Show on September 24. Ellen Murphy was chairman of the fashion show, and the chapter had two models participating, Del Loomis and Joan Ruark.

Greek Week was held September 27 through October 1. Lynn Spell served as chairman of the convocation. Susan Forde was the chapter's candidate for the Greek Queen. At the formal banquet closing Greek Week, Nevada A was presented with the Improvement Plaque for scholarship.

Serving as Cap and Scroll vice president is Karen Decker who is also president of Sagens, the campus service organization for upper-class women. Nevada A has four representatives in the newly formed Spurs colony on the campus. They are Ellen Murphy, Janis Palzis, Mimi Patrick, and Jeanne Sadler. This year's cheerleaders and songleaders include: Joan Ruark, Shirley Smith, Del Loomis, and Elaine Pisciotta. Serving as Panhellenic President this year is Theresa McGuire. Joan Ruark is heading PEM's, service organization for Physical Education Majors and Minors.

PLEDGED: Emily Albright, Susan Black, Margaret Burgess, Marcia Eccles, JoAnn Greco, Elaine Hoysted, Julie LaFond, Carmelita Markhart, Rondi Mattson, Elizabeth McGuire, Marie Murdough, Linda Smith, Carole Sommers, Kay Sorenson, Nancy Teakle, Sherry Wagner, Sally Zwonitzer, Reno; Muriel Ellis, Jerry Ann Elwell, Rochelle Parlanti, Judy Quanchi, Shirley Ross, Sparks; Deanne Anderson, Elko; Marcia Bernard, Carson City; Pam Hinkley, Yerington; Connie Wagner, Las Vegas; Jacqueline Adams, Anita Tobey, Sacramento, Calif.; Jean Tachiores, Lovelock; Diane Beyer, San Anselmo, Calif.; Suzanne Jansee, Brentwood, Calif.; Lyndell McGue, Los Angeles, Calif.; Anne Perkins, Vallejo, Calif.

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA. Chartered, August 1, 1917. Pledge Day, September 11, 1960. INITIATED, October 8, 1960: Jan Glover, Phoenix; Robbie Collins, Casa Grande; Glenna Blake, Altadena, Calif.; Susie Cutler, Santa Ana, Calif.; Cathy Flanagan, Pasadena, Calif.; Connie Kroil, San Francisco, Calif.

Much has happened at Arizona A since the last letter. Everyone was pleasantly surprised at the new addition this fall; they are still getting lost in all the new space. Amidst the building last spring, the Pi Beta Phi had a successful semester. The combined efforts of Arizona A and Sigma E won first place in the annual Spring Sing. The chapter also won the Powder Puff Bowl softball game sponsored by Kappa Xi fraternity.

Clare Terry, Susie Palmer, Linda Cotterman, Margie Tench and Carolyn Stell were chosen as members of Spurs and were honored on Woman's Day. Ann Horlings, Gail Whitney, Nancy Moore, and Liz Thomas became members of Iota Alpha Theta.

Joan Savage was elected vice president of Mermaids, synchronized swimming club, and is also aquacade chairman, Donna Gaylord is secretary, and Holly Hildreth is Mermaidell's chairman. Jill Pennington is also a member. We have two members in the University Quadrill team, Nina Hill and Dorrie Kennedy. Nina Hill was elected All-University Rodeo queen, and Judy Jones was elected Engineering queen. Kathy Hinkle was Spring Sesta queen attendant. This semester Joan Savage is our candidate for Homecoming queen.

Carol Travis is a member of National Collegiate Players and also a member of the University Players. Rae Kenworthy, president of Arizona A, received the Charles Jacome scholarship or the outstanding woman in retail marketing. Linda Cotterman, Margie Tench and Ruth Ann Lubbers received general residence scholarships and Carol Wiedman received the non-resident scholarship.

This semester leading the school in high spirits at the sports events are Joan Savage, Pom-pon girl, Susie Palmer, alternate, and Judy Hodge, varsity cheerleader, with Margie Crissey, an alternate. Kathy Hinkle and Susie Palmer have just been elected as senior class treasurer and sophomore class treasurer, respectively. Arizona A was again honored when Ann Horlings and Nancy Moore received the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone scholarships.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- CHAPTER TREASURERS: Should see that letter from Grand Treasurer to the Parents of Actives and Pledges is sent to the parents as early in the fall as it is possible to get the local letter on chapter finances approved by the Province President to send with it. It is necessary that parents understand the financial obligations at the beginning of the year. Should see that Financial Statements to Parents of Pledges are sent approximately two weeks before the proposed initiation. They should be sent ONLY to the parents of the girls who have met the initiation requirements and whom the chapter definitely plans to initiate. This means too that the blanks should be sent only for the girls who have received the required vote of the Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee for approval of initiation. Should see that badges are ordered through the Central Office. It takes six weeks or more, to complete badge orders. Badges for prospective members should not be ordered until all initiation requirements have been met. Should send the National pledge fee for each pledge with Form GT1 to Central Office. Canadian chapters send fee to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form. Send within two weeks of any pledging or repledging.
- Should send the initiation fee for each initiate with Form GT1 to Central Office within three days of initiation. Canadian chapters send initiation fees to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form. Should send monthly reports to Mr. John DornBlaser, 310 Gazette Building, Little Rock, Arkansas.
- CHAPTER CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES: Should report to the Central Office and to the Province President changes in chapter officers if they are made any time during the year.
- CHAPTER RUSH CAPTAINS: Should send within five days after any pledging, to the Director of Membership, a recommendation and consent to bid blank, or letter of recommendation, or blue blank of information from the State Rush Chairman, for each girl pledged. All blanks or letters must be counter-signed by the chapter alumna rush advisor.
- Should send within two weeks after the close of the formal rushing season, a report to the Province President on the result of rushing and pledging. Also report to the Province President and the Central Office, the name and address of the newly elected rush captain.
- CHAPTER PLEDGE SUPERVISORS: Should send a list of pledges, on forms intended for that purpose, to the Director of Membership and to the Central Office within five days after any pledging or repledging.
- CHAPTER VICE-PRESIDENTS: Should send to the Province President within three days after any initiation a report that new membership cards have been placed in the card file.

CHAPTER HISTORIANS: Should send to the province President within three days after any initiation a report that names of the new initiates have been recorded in the Record of Membership Book.

CHAPTER PROGRAM CHAIRMEN: Should send a report to the Director of Programs (see current ARROW for name and address) within one week following the holding of the program based upon material sent by that officer from Central Office.

CHAPTER PANHELLENIC DELEGATES: Should send semi-annual reports to the Grand President on blanks sent out by her for that purpose.

When college schedules make it impossible to comply exactly with fraternity calendar dates, chapter officers should contact Central Office or the officer concerned, explain the situations and receive special permission to vary from the established dates.
