Announcements

It is with regret for the necessity for such action that the Grand Council of  $\Pi B \Phi$  announces the withdrawal of the charter of Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  chapter of the University of Pittsburgh.

When the failure of the chapter to meet the requirements of the Fraternity became a matter of grave concern, the Grand President made a personal investigation of conditions, and in April, 1930, the chapter was told that its charter was in question. At the annual meeting of the Grand Council (See Information ARROW, September, 1930), the Grand Council voted to allow the chapter an additional semester in which to try to prove itself worthy of retaining its charter. At the end of that period, the officers, upon whom the Fraternity places the responsibility for a final decision, gave the required unanimous vote for the withdrawal of the charter.

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN,
Grand President

$\Pi B \Phi$  offers an attendance cup at convention. The award is based upon the following points: total number of chapter present, active and alumnae; mileage; actives present; active enrollment; and total enrollment. Every chapter has an equal chance to win.

The Convention Guide announces the following additions to the Convention Directory:

Convention Committee Member and Banquet Chairman: Mrs. Herschel G. Smith, Pennsylvania A, 625 Parrish Rd., Swarthmore, Pa.

Transportation Assistant: Mrs. H. A. Zimmerman, New York A, Apt. 4a, 73 Ellwood St., New York, N.Y.

Week-end House Party Chairman: Miss Evelyn Ihrig, New York  $\Delta$ , 261 Hancock St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

Chairman New England Tourist Information: Miss Mildred Hood, Massachusetts A, 93 Hobart St., Brighton, Mass.

Chairman Alumnae Club Exhibits: Mrs. Warren T. Smith, Iowa  $\Gamma$ , 1015 Tremaine, Los Angeles, Calif.

On June 1, 1931, the present address of the Pi Beta Phi Central Office will be changed to:

Pi Beta Phi Central Office
Room 1312, American Industrial Building
Hartford, Connecticut

TO GREET YOU AT CONVENTION

Jessie Baker Wade, Illinois E, as chairman of the hospitality committee will welcome members of II B  $\Phi$  at the 30th Biennial Convention at Asbury Park, New Jersey

The ARROW OF PIBETA PHI

EDITORIAL

ONLY convention itself can give you a true picture of the Fraternity—its ideals, its purpose, its accomplishments, its personnel, and its true worth. You are not only invited, but urged to attend the 30th Biennial Convention of  $\Pi B \Phi$  at Asbury Park, New Jersey, June 22-27. There is every incentive—a week at one of the greatest seashore resorts on the eastern coast; opportunities of renewing old friendships as well as gaining new ones; after-convention trips and house parties; and every comfort and entertainment planned for you. Let's meet at Asbury Park!

WITH the announcement that a member of  $\Pi B \Phi$  was awarded the Panhellenic Scholarship for the year 1931-32, it is indeed interesting to learn of the manner in which this scholarship is financed.

The money is raised by a stamp week at Arnold Constable's on Fifth Avenue. During the stamp week this year the Panhellenic made sales throughout the departments in the store totalling \$13,000. The commission of ten per cent netted the organization \$1,300. Of the total sales  $\Pi B \Phi$  was responsible for \$2,400, the largest amount ever achieved by a fraternity during a stamp week and is \$1,000 more than the sales credited to the fraternity next in order. It can be readily seen why  $\Pi \Phi$  members of the Panhellenic felt more than rewarded for their time and efforts when Katherine Noble, Illinois  $\Delta$ , was announced the winner.

The three years that the New York City Panhellenic has been functioning have seen fine teamwork and real results under the leadership of Beatrice Ecks, the  $\Pi B \Phi$  member on the board of governors. The first year  $\Pi \Phi$  sold the largest number of tickets for the bridge; last year it was leading on the benefit ball; and this year it surpassed all other groups during stamp week.

WE TAKE everything, as well as life, very often too much for granted. It is this spirit that very often carries over into our fraternity life and things that mean the most to us are unmentioned. One of the outstanding pieces of work done for the Fraternity this year was the publication of the Directory under the supervision of Mabel Scott Brown, director of the Central Office. Any directory represents a tremendous piece of work, and the 1930  $\Pi B \Phi$  Directory meant more than just the ordinary directory preparation, for it contains a chapter section and an alphabetical cross reference. For this publication, unique in fraternity circles,  $\Pi B \Phi$  owes a debt of gratitude to Mabel Scott Brown and her staff.

FOR the past three years, active chapters, alumnae clubs and members of the Fraternity generally have been very generous with suggestions for the ARROW. It is a very great satisfaction to an editor to have definite evidence that readers are interested and eager to help with their publication, for surely the ARROW is only a reflection of the Fraternity. It is deeply regretted that it has been impossible to use all the contributions, but the last two issues have brought so many that it has been necessary to eliminate some—especially since this is convention year and many additional pages must be devoted to convention news. With this continued interest the ARROW will grow with the Fraternity, and the Editor and her staff wish to express their sincere appreciation.

THERE was a time when it was considered only proper for a girl to finish college and return home to assume domestic responsibilities from the standpoint of training and to wait until some Prince Charming discovered her talents and appreciated her ability. And then as time and society progressed, the truly "finished" girl completed her college work and left for a year of travel in foreign countries before pursuing the art of home making.

But not today—if one may judge from the prospective plans of 249  $\Pi B \Phi$  seniors who are to receive their degrees in June. Home making is no longer studied, traveling is done during vacations before graduation and Prince Charmings needs must wait.

It is interesting to note that despite the rapid progress women have made in the business world, the teaching profession is still favored by a great majority. To explain that today is simple—the business depression of the past two years has necessitated salary cuts; large houses that could afford to experiment with college girls are eliminating this luxury; and even with business at its best, there are few "positions" to step into—one begins with a "job" at a nominal salary and supersticker-to-itiveness is the main winning quality.

On the other hand, teaching is an ideal profession for one who wants to work "just a year or so"; the salaries on the whole are very attractive; two or three months' vacation is an incentive to anyone who wishes to further her education or to travel; and finally there is seldom the uncertainty of holding one's position, which, sad but true, is characteristic of the business world.

Thirty  $\Pi \Phi$  chapters, with a total of 249 seniors, reported what their seniors contemplated for the coming year. The results are interesting and follow:

Pursuing a higher education .....	15
Entering the business world .....	78
Teaching school .....	105
Marrying .....	17
Remaining at home .....	18
Traveling .....	14

$\Pi \Phi$ s coming through Philadelphia Sunday or Monday, June 21 and June 22, are invited to call at the Philadelphia alumnae club headquarters at the Bellevue-Stratford, where they can rest and refresh themselves, receive assistance in arranging for an impromptu tour of the city, or get any other information they desire.

Night: Banquet.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27

Morning: Regular session.

EVERYONE who is coming to convention or who may be considering such a possibility no matter how remotely, will find the convention news in the February ARROW well worth reading.

And again, the first instruction is to fill out a registration slip or write a letter for reservations and mail it promptly either to the Convention Guide or to Mrs. R. D. Duncan, Jr., 250 Harrison Street, East Orange, New Jersey. Mrs. Duncan is in immediate charge of room reservations which, by the way, are coming in rapidly. But even though we should more than fill the Berkeley-Carteret, nearby hotels will afford excellent accommodations for the overflow at no more than the \$7.00 per day rate offered by our convention hotel. The Berkeley-Carteret will continue its special rates for those guests who stay on beyond the time of convention. Miss Evelyn Ihrig, New York  $\Delta$ , will be the official  $\Pi B \Phi$  hostess for the house party which will last through the week-end.

Those of you who expect to attend only the banquet on Friday night, please notify Mrs. Herschel G. Smith, 625 Parrish Road, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania. The order of reservations will be of considerable importance in this instance, and so, if you would be fortunately placed, do not hesitate to put your name now on the banquet roll! The charge will be $5.00.

A desk will be located in the lobby of the Berkeley-Carteret where information will be available concerning side trips, railroad tickets, stopovers, New York, New England and nearby resorts, metropolitan hotels, motor routes, etc. And you will be able to find out just what post-convention entertainment has been planned for you by different eastern cities. They are expressing themselves as being eager to welcome their westerly visitors! Even reservations for New York theater tickets will be handled for your convenience.

But don't expect an answer to the question: "Where can I get a fancy dress costume?" You'll either have to bring it with you or depend on some extemporaneous talent to equip you for the fancy dress party to be held after the stunt program on Wednesday night. The hospitality committee has yielded to the temptation of New Jersey's early traditions and plans a colonial setting for this party, but, though your hostesses may wear crinolines and powdered wigs, they will extend their hospitality to fair visitors from any time or clime! The active girls of Pennsylvania A will assist with this gala event.

You really are coming now, aren't you? But, if at the last minute you find that you can't and still want to keep in touch with things, do remember to send fifty cents to Miss Alice Evans, 161 East Elm Street, Greenwich, Connecticut (or after June 15, to her in care of the Berkeley-Carteret, Asbury Park, New Jersey). She will see that you receive the Convention Daily. Being a subscriber will do much to minimize that "left out" feeling!

Those who are coming on the special, please have two checks ready; one made out to the Berkeley-Carteret Hotel for thirty-five dollars, and one to  $\Pi B \Phi$  for ten dollars. These will probably be collected on the train.

Registration Fee

WITH the exception of our Founders, everyone enjoying the special convention rates at the Berkeley-Carteret and all  $\Pi B \Phi$ s attending sessions but not staying at the hotel must, as usual, pay a registration fee. A change has been made in the regulations governing this fee, however, and the following schedule of fees will be in effect:

Fee allowing attendance for part or all of any single or isolated day, banquet not included, $3.00.

Fee allowing attendance for part or all of Friday, banquet included, $5.00.

Fee for banquet alone, $5.00.

Fee allowing attendance for part or all of any two consecutive days, banquet not included, $5.00

Fee allowing attendance for part or all of any two consecutive days (Thursday, Friday, or Saturday) including the banquet, $7.00.

Fee allowing attendance for part of any three or more consecutive days, including the banquet, $10.00.

Children will be required to pay one-half of the regular fee, in each case. In order to simplify the book-keeping arrangements, each convention visitor's fee will date from the beginning of her stay through the official closing, and a proper refund will be made upon the return of the badge which will have been given her upon the payment of the registration fee. This badge or tag will be a most necessary requisite at convention and must be worn at all times since it will serve as an admittance card to all fraternity functions. Non-Pi Phis, staying at the hotel and therefore paying the fee, will be given badges which will admit them to the dining room but not to closed sessions. In no case will the registration fee for those staying at the hotel be accepted for a period less than that covered by their hotel registration during the time of convention.

Purchase Direct Tickets

ALL convention visitors should buy their tickets directly to Asbury Park, N.J. Those who are not traveling on the II B & Special and yet wish to be met are requested to notify Mrs. H. G. Burd, 110 Monmouth Drive, Deal, New Jersey. Transportation each way between station and hotel is twenty-five cents; hand baggage, twenty-five cents; trunks, one dollar.

Every piece of luggage should be marked with a baggage tag and sticker which will be mailed with the room assignments during the latter part of May. Check all baggage through to Asbury Park, New Jersey. Mrs. Burd will furnish any additional information regarding baggage.

Anyone wishing to be assisted in New York City in regard to baggage or transportation problems, should write to Mrs. H. A. Zimmerman, Apt. 4a, 73 Ellwood Street, New York, New York.

Miss Mildred Hood will be glad to advise anyone about New England travel either before or after convention. Her address is 93 Hobart Street, Brighton, Massachusetts.

Settlement School Night

IN MANY respects Settlement School night is the outstanding event of convention. It is the only occasion to which outsiders and representatives of all other fraternities are invited; it is, in a peculiar way, the time when we show respect for our Founders in portraying and discussing the memorial we have raised to them.

Settlement School night will be on Thursday. Sophie Woodman will be in charge of local arrangements. Dr. Edith Gordon will speak on the history and problems of the school, and Evelyn Bishop will bring the latest news from Gatlinburg. La Delle Allen is arranging a stunning exhibit of craft work, and Nita Hill Stark will present the best looking mannequins in garments woven at the school. There will be slides shown, perhaps every day, and maybe a play—but that is a secret.

Alumnæ who cannot attend during the whole week of convention are urged to reach Asbury Park in time for the Settlement School meeting Thursday evening.

Committee Appointments

DUE to the recent marriage of Ethel May Johnson and her removal to Pittsburgh, Ellen Miller Smith, Pennsylvania A, has been appointed a member of the Convention Committee in her stead.

During her college days Ellen Miller's academic interests were centered largely in the French department, but her extracurricular activities were numerous and varied with perhaps dramatics in the ascendancy. Shortly after her graduation, she married Herschel

MRS. HERSCHEL G. SMITH

EVELYN IHRIG

G. Smith, who was himself a graduate of Swarthmore. They have four children.

Mrs. Smith is this year closing her term as vice president of the Philadelphia club, and will next year assume its presidency. She has served  $\Pi \Phi$  in many ways and in many places and, both because of such a background as well as on account of her unusual ability and enthusiasm, she is exceptionally qualified to assume her share of the responsibilities of the Convention Committee.

POST CONVENTION CHAIRMAN

Evelyn Ihrig, New York  $\Delta$ , will serve as chairman of the post-convention week-end house party at the Berkeley Carteret.

While at Cornell she was especially interested in dramatics. After her graduation in 1923, she attended Teachers College, Columbia, receiving her M.A. degree the following year. Since that time she has been a teacher of English at the Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn. For the last two years Miss Ihrig has been the magazine agency chairman of the New York alumnae club and has been elected its corresponding secretary for the coming year.

Transportation Assistant

KATHERINE BAXTER ZIMMERMAN (Mrs. H. A.) attended Syracuse University where, as a member of New York A, she was especially identified with class and literary activities. Her graduate studies were pursued at Columbia University several years later.

KATHERINE BAXTER ZIMMERMAN

Mrs. Zimmerman has combined the profession of teaching along highly specialized lines with that of homemaking, for she has two splendid sons. And yet, in her full life, she has found time to serve  $\Pi B \Phi$  in exceptional ways. After graduating from college, she moved to Michigan and for one term was president of the Detroit alumnae club. On her return to her home town of Rochester, New York, she served twice as the president of that club. At Columbia University she was president of the summer school group of  $\Pi B \Phi$  students. Mrs. Zimmerman attended the Washington Conference, and as a result of her many fraternity contacts will be of valuable assistance in preparing for the coming convention.

NEW ENGLAND TOURIST CHAIRMAN

After a childhood spent in Massachusetts and Jamestown, New York, Mildred Hood, or "Peggy" as she is better known in  $\Pi \Phi$ , prepared for Boston University at the Girls' Latin School in Boston, Massachusetts. In the fall of her freshman year, she was initiated into Massachusetts A. While in college she was active in college affairs, being class president in her senior year and Massachusetts A's delegate to the Swarthmore Convention in 1910.

Following her graduation from Boston University in 1911, Miss Hood spent a year in study at the State Normal School at Salem, Massachusetts, in preparation for work as a teacher of business subjects and she has been a teacher in the Newton high school at Newtonville, Massachusetts, for several years.

Mildred Hood attended the Evanston Convention as representative of the Boston alumnae club and was one of Massachusetts A's large delegation at the Washington Conference. At the close of the next convention, the "New England Tourist Chairman" is planning to qualify as a cross-country tourist chairman by motoring to California and exploring the various points of interest en route.

A NEW HOSTESS CLUB!

The convention hostess clubs are happy to announce that they have added to their number! The recently chartered Southern New Jersey Club will give convention visitors an opportunity to observe a very new club functioning at a very high level. In spite of its youth, the club's members are intensely interested in all convention arrangements and are entering upon their new responsibilities in a decidedly experienced fashion! They enthusiastically join with the older groups in urging you to avail yourselves of the hearty welcome that will be awaiting you at Asbury Park in June.

Special Convention Railway Fares

THE Fraternity has arranged for special convention reduced fares to Asbury Park and return on the Identification Certificate Plan which provides for optional time limits on tickets. These special convention rates may be secured only upon the presentation to one's local railway ticket agent of the identification certificate which authorizes their use. A supply of these identification certificates will be sent to each active chapter and alumnae club for use by their members or by any  $\Pi B \Phi$  who applies for them; individual  $\Pi B \Phi$ s, not in touch with chapters or alumnae clubs, may obtain these certificates by writing direct to the Grand President.

W. J. WOOLLEY,

Under the Identification Certificate Plan, members going and returning via the same route may secure tickets at the special rate of a fare-and-a-half for the round trip, with a final limit of July 3 for those living in the territory bounded on the west by Chicago and St. Louis and with a slightly extended time limit which will allow them to reach their destinations by continuous travel following the close of convention for those living west of these points. At a fare-and-three-fifths, round trip tickets under the same travel conditions may be secured with a thirty day limit.

Members desiring to use one authorized route going to convention and another returning to their homes may secure round trip tickets with a thirty day limit at approximately eighty per cent of the one-way fare from their homes to

Π Β Φ SPECIAL

The Π Β Φ Special will leave Chicago at 12:30 noon, central standard time (1:30, Chicago daylight saving time), Sunday June 21. Please refer all questions regarding fares, routes, regular long-time limit fares, and the use of identification system to Mr. R. C. Caldwell, Division Passenger Agent, Pennsylvania Railroad, Room 1027, 33 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Asbury Park plus eighty per cent of the one-way fare back from Asbury Park to their homes over the routes chosen. A minimum fare of $1.00 is set for any ticket issued under either of the above plans.

For identification certificates, address Amy Burnham Onken, Grand President, Chapin, Illinois.

An Interview with the Mistress of the Benjamin Franklin Inn

WHEN I interviewed Miss Carrie E. Stroud of the Benjamin Franklin Inn, North Asbury Park, New Jersey, this Π Φ from Syracuse answered my question

"How did you come to be a hotel proprietor?" with one of her own: "If you have a hobby, why not a background for a career?"

Miss Stroud is a confident and poised person, and it was with a quiet smile that she unfolded her story.

"You see, I like slogans, they make a daily motto, so may I start with one of mine, 'Hospitality Begins at the Threshold.'"

At her words I seemed especially to feel the hospitality of which she spoke. It was reflected in the atmosphere of friendliness and refinement; in the quaint individuality achieved through the blending of mahogany antiques and comfortable armchairs.

"Well," she queried, "I suppose you will want me to start with college days? After spending three years at Syracuse University, I brought away many happy memories of my days at the  $\Pi B \Phi$  chapter house. My last year's work I took at Columbia and there affiliated with the New York Bs. Then came several interesting years of travel abroad and in this country. Upon reaching home again, I took up club work, and devoted much time to our local organizations. The realization that I must have a definite interest was growing, and shall I tell you what led me to acquire my hobby and my work?

"The small inn of sixteen rooms which my father and mother started in 1887 was called 'The Franklin.' I always remembered the story they told that Rene Bache, the great, great, great grandson of Benjamin Franklin, was their first guest, brought there by the inn's name.

"I found that I had unconsciously assembled much data on Franklin. His life story, his part in our country's history, appealed to me, and I developed a real enthusiasm for the man, my Patron Saint, as I sometimes call him now. And so my hobby gathered impetus! In and out of antique shops, always asking the same question, 'Have you anything in connection with the life of Benjamin Franklin?' Searching museums and having pictures made of all they had of Franklin interest. Meeting other Franklin enthusiasts, and becoming a charter member of the International Benjamin Franklin Society. So my collection of Frankliana has grown, from my first scrap book to items a museum would like to own.

"When my father and mother retired, I decided to purchase the inn which then accommodated about one hundred and fifty guests. I wanted to incorporate the many ideas and ideals I had absorbed into making it a truly American inn, with my hobby as a background. After changing the name to 'The Benjamin Franklin Inn,' plans were completed for the new fire-proof addition, and that is when I needed my nerve, for building costs were then at their height.

"There was a great deal to be done, but I was fortunate in meeting a decorator who had a rare gift of color, besides being in sympathy with the featuring of my hobby. From the lobby of a summer resort hotel, with its rocking chairs, she developed this charming interior with its colonial feeling which extends through the library, the writing rooms, and the dining room.

"I could go on endlessly telling you what I have done and showing you my Frankliana, but there is not time. You see, my work is my hobby, and my hobby becomes part of the interest which my guests and I take in the Benjamin Franklin Inn."

After Convention . . . Philadelphia

NO TRIP to the eastern coast of the United States would be complete without a visit to Philadelphia, the most historic city in America.

All Americans know its many claims to distinction; we list but a few:

1. The city where the first Congress assembled.
2. The city in which the Declaration of Independence was written.

3. The custodian of the Liberty Bell.

4. The first seat of Government of the United States.

5. The city where the first President lived for eight years.

6. The city where the first American flag was made.

7. The city in which Benjamin Franklin lived and died.

8. The city in which a battle of the Revolution was fought, Germantown.

The Philadelphia alumnae club and the Pennsylvania A chapter have arranged an entertainment we hope you cannot resist.

Saturday, June 27—Supper at Swarthmore at the  $\Pi \Phi$  Lodge.

Sunday, June 28—10 A.M. Tour of some of the places of historical interest.

Sunday, June 28—1:30 P.M. Visit to Valley Forge and Longwood, the gorgeous DuPont Gardens, including a special organ recital in the Conservatory and followed by tea.

In case you are interested in any or all of the above plans, write to Miss Lucile Clarke, Kenilworth Apartments, Alden Park, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Bellevue-Stratford Hotel will allow a special discount of twenty-five per cent to any members of the Fraternity or their guests staying in the hotel either on their way to or from convention.

AT SWARTHMORE

Motorists passing through Swarthmore on their way to convention are cordially invited to visit the Pennsylvania A Lodge on the college campus, where a hostess will be ready to assist you. Here you may rest up, freshen up, and, if you drop the hostess a card a few days before, be refreshed by a "wee bite and sup." The hostess is Mrs. Herschel G. Smith, 625 Parrish Road, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania.

The Panhellenic Houseparty

DON'T miss the after convention house party at the Panhellenic. Although detailed information cannot be given at this time, plans are being made for those who care to come from Atlantic City to New York by boat. All the thrills that come to a voyager returning home are promised in the sky line of New York.

A morning sightseeing tour of New York, taking about three hours, will be arranged, with the idea of giving a general impression of things to be seen and done. This will cover uptown New York, Riverside Drive, Columbia University, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Riverside Church, Grant's Tomb; then downtown to the canyons of New York's financial district and to the Battery. Special rates of \$2.00 each a day for double rooms and \$2.50 for single rooms are being made at the Panhellenic. There will be a special register for  $\Pi \Phi$ s at the hotel desk, and all  $\Pi \Phi$ s are asked to see Margaret Chatfield,  $\Pi \Phi$  and manager, in order to make arrangements for special trips or for information about New York. The New York alumnae club of  $\Pi B \Phi$  will maintain headquarters at the Panhellenic and members will act as guides.

A Wonder Day in Washington

IN WASHINGTON, the cosmopolitan city of the United States, a full day of sight-seeing is being planned by the members of the alumnæ club. The Gray Line busses are giving private busses for the use of the members of the Fraternity and competent guides to show the exterior of public buildings, residential Washington, the cathedral, Lincoln Memorial, Arlington and all the other wonderful things Washington boasts of and which make it the unique city of the country. The Gray Line system has three different trips around the city and if fifty  $\Pi \Phi$ s take advantage of these the rate will be \$1.25 a trip.

There will be a  $\Pi \Phi$  hostess on each bus. Every comfort will be offered those who do not wish to go sight-seeing and if anyone wishes to see friends or go some special place private cars will be at their disposal.

New York, a University City

By FRANCES McNULTY,
Pi Beta Phi Fellow

IF I had not already seen in my mind's eye many bored smiles which could only mean being interpreted, "Same old Thing!" I should boldly have called this article "My Year in New York." Yet there are too many college girls scattered throughout the country, who plan each year to do graduate study there, for a few more observations and pointers to be entirely valueless. I hope that this personal account, when adapted to their special needs, will contain a little help for them.

One of the beauties of the  $\Pi \Phi$  Fellowship is the fact that it may be used at any university in the world. Consequently, I was much puzzled and tempted before deciding on Columbia. Because I wish to teach, I needed a master of arts degree in the shortest time that the best universities give it. Having found that the English universities demand three years of study for a bachelor's degree after one has already taken one's American bachelor's, I decided on Columbia, of four great American schools, frankly because it is in New York. For it is possible, provided one uses intelligently the resources to be found in it, to consider the whole city an enormous university. Granted that New York has all the disadvantages, it also has most of the advantages that other cities possess, and, because of its size, its wealth, and its comparative closeness to Europe, many things which cannot be found anywhere else in America. Looking upon New York as a great storehouse of customs, learning, and art means that every act of the day there is significant from listening to a professor's lecture to buying a new blouse. From this point of view, and for reasons which I shall try to unfold, "My Year in New York" need not stand for the "same old thing," but may mean something different for every person who experiences it. My viewpoint has been, of course, that of the student.

In the words with which a well-known Columbia professor of English advised a group of beginning graduate students, "After a year of leisurely, painstaking effort to acquaint yourself with your chosen field in English literature you should be able to take an examination with pleasure." This is the ideal of all graduate work. And, though many fall short of it and either give up too soon or else resort usually with an unhappy outcome, to the sophomoric method of cramming at the last minute, this is what the graduate faculty in English literature at Columbia appears to expect of its candidates for degrees.

Requirements

For the master's degree in English it is necessary to write a long research paper, and to pass two examinations at the end of the year; one on the whole field of English and American literature one day, and another on one's chosen field, the next: residence for the winter session or its equivalent and enrollment in a certain number of classes are, of course, required, but there are few other exactions of any sort. One writes the thesis under the guidance of an instructor. But in no other case is there much contact with one's professors, for as a rule the classes in English have between one and two hundred members. This order of things may seem like indifference, and, indeed, may be, since the size of the university makes relations impersonal in most departments. But in English, at least, with lectures from some of the most interesting and best prepared men in the country and with the splendid libraries of Columbia and of New York City so close at hand, this freedom to work out her own salvation should all the more quickly turn a green dependent graduate into a student who is conversant with her own strength and her own weakness and thus, in a large measure, able to teach herself. Needless to say, the last phrase expresses the real aim of education.

Being interested in the Eighteenth Century, not alone for its literature, but also as a period whence came nearly all the important social and economic theories with which we have since experimented, I took it as my field of special study. When I expressed a desire to choose for a thesis subject the poetry of the years at the close of the century which lead into the romantic revival, I was told that Columbia has a particularly fascinating collection of early English periodicals, most of which took their rise in the eighteenth century. I restricted the material of my essay to magazine verse and found it to be a fruitful and interesting subject. Everything I have been able to find out about eighteenth and early nineteenth century poetry and philosophy has been worth while; and it will prove of equal value for rounding out my background for both examinations.

The Libraries

A full description of the Columbia libraries and departmental reading rooms would fill the rest of this issue of the ARROW. A few of the most interesting are the Chinese and Japanese rooms of the main library and the reading rooms in the Casa Italiana, the Deutches Haus, and the Maison Française, three centers of culture maintained in the vicinity for students and visiting professors from the three respective countries.

One fascinating collection is the Brander Matthews Dramatic Museum, named for the critic and writer who for many years before his death was a beloved member of the Columbia faculty. Here, among the three dimensional scale models, may be seen medieval, Shakespearean English, and seventeenth century French theaters, and modern English, American, and Japanese stages. There is the old Comédie Française where tiny actors are ready to play Molière and every candle sconce is reproduced in miniature; the Globe Theatre of Shakespeare's London stands complete in reconstructed modern cardboard; a modern play of Japan is in progress; the stage is set for David Belasco's production of The Return of Peter Crimima. There are puppets of every description, from Italy, France, England, and the far East, which helps bring to life the amusements of other days and other countries: a Siamese princess; an eighteenth century French marquis; an Italian Orlando Furioso; an English Punch and Judy, and Charlie Chaplin, made in France. Then, one may see the original programs from the first productions of many plays given in various places during the last one hundred and fifty years, signed sketches and photographs of famous actors, and much other material of interest to all those to whom the history of the stage is an absorbing study.

The university maintains the Institute of Arts and Sciences, under whose auspices some noteworthy lecture or production is given every night in the week at the MacMillan Academic Theater. A host of distinguished lecturers, as well as many singers, dancers, and entertainers whose names are by-words in the down-town theater district, come to Columbia through this agency, and thus may be seen in the Morningside Heights neighborhood.

Morningside Heights contains a number of other institutions which may be said to make up an extracurricular university.

The splendid cathedral of Saint John the Divine is rising a few blocks to the south. Affiliated with Columbia is the Union Theological Seminary built around its quiet grassy court, a restful place where all students may dine in its refectory or attend its chapel services. And at the new Riverside Church, just completed largely through the interest of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., for Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick and his vast congregations, one can sit in a place that resembles a great cathedral with the light falling through jewel-like stained glass and listen to a man who is one of the most fearless and stimulating preachers in modern America.

The Explorers' Club, to which most well-known American and some European explorers, both present and past, do or did once belong, has recently moved to within six blocks of Columbia. In company with a member, its rooms full of trophies from all over the world may be visited. Seeing and touching the souvenirs and personal belongings of so many famous men brings very close their hardships, their failures, and their successes. Whether or not Peary actually reached the Pole loses its meaning for us as we look upon the notes, maps, sketches, and flags he used on his expedition, remembering into what regions they must have been, and for what enthusiasms they once stood.

Musical Advantages

While graduate students have too little time to complete their own allotted program for any opportunity to study music as well, the presence in the neighborhood of one of the best conservatories in the United States, the Julliard School of Music, provides a gathering place for musically-minded people. It maintains a slight but official connection with Columbia.

The university has a well-trained chapel choir and, for men, a band and an orchestra; an immense chorus is directed every year in order to sing with the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra in a Christmas program.

While we are concerned with the geography of Morningside Heights, we may mention living quarters for women graduate students at or near Columbia. There are innumerable apartments for rent which people secure without much trouble, either by applying in person after they arrive in New York, or through the university. Or, if one chooses, as I did, to have the additional time gained by freedom from keeping house—and by freedom from an influx of visitors at inopportune hours!—which residence in a dormitory gives, she may live in Johnson Hall. (The similar Teachers College graduate women's dormitory is Whittier Hall.) There are good meals, regular maid service, and only enough rules to run the place smoothly. Every year a number of girls just out of college live there, many of them fraternity people, including several Phis. Among its residents may be found students of medicine, art, archeology, anthropology, etc., not a few from lands as widely separated as France and the Philippine Islands. This diversity of companionship is in itself no small part of a university education.

International House

Particularly interesting as a college home is the International House, another of the many worthwhile Rockefeller hobbies. It is on Riverside Drive overlooking the Hudson, Grant's Tomb, and the Riverside Church. Selected young men and women from all nations who are attending any school in New York City may live there. There is organized social life and everyone makes an effort to learn through friendship, regardless of color, race, or creed, about the good qualities, points of contact, and differences among all the others. About one hundred of the five hundred or so members are Americans.

The mention of living quarters takes us to the Panhellenic House, and therefore to downtown New York. Situated on First Avenue, looking down on the East River and the huge buildings of the tower section of Manhattan Island, this is an exciting place in which to live. However, because of Columbia's removed situation, few of its students stay there, although the House is immensely popular with women whose work or study is nearer. This was attested by its being one of the three women's residence clubs to be discussed in an article in the New York Times Magazine several months ago. The unusual photograph on page 308 of the February ARROW, taken by Miss Sophie Woodman, president of the New York alumnae club, shows a part of the beautiful view one may see from the top of the Panhellenic by night. I was so fortunate as to attend a settlement school tea given at the Panhellenic House by the New York alumnae, at which Miss Bishop herself told us about the exhibit of school products and the lovely pictures of the Great Smokies, done near the school by two artists, which were at that time on display.

Leaving comparatively peaceful Columbia for the swift pace of many parts of downtown New York always brings breathless feelings. If one keeps one's eyes and ears open, the impact of sensations may be almost too much for comfort, but I had rather support the undue stimulation of many faces, many strange sights, many queer sounds, that acquire that well known "set" expression which only means indifference to the variety of life that is to be found in New York.

Just to show that I am decidedly aware of them, let us note the Metropolitan and Natural History museums in passing; any effort to describe either would be futile. Equally fruitless would it be to try talking about the marvelous shops, except for the remark that there are few more absorbing pastimes than the effort to keep one's mind clear about what one's thin dollars must be made to buy while walking past aisles and floors and stores full of things to wear.

Being personally most interested, as "extracurricular activities," in music, and after that, in the theater, it is difficult not to go into detailed accounts of what were to be heard and seen during the past winter.

Maybe readers closer at hand will forgive at least a mention of what to me were the high spots, for the sake of some who wanted to come to New York this year, but for some reason or another did not.

In the face of the usual losing box office the Metropolitan Opera continues to turn out elaborate and artistic productions. This year saw the rise of a brilliant young singer, Lily Pons. As ever, the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra keeps the best of the old and remains awake to the new. It is not unusual to find works chosen from Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Sibelius, Stravinsky, or Ravel side by side on the same program.

Katherine Cornell, in the play about Robert and Elizabeth Browning, The Barretts of Wimpole Street, chose the play herself, is acting in it, and directs her own company, which it is just possible, may become a permanent one with a repertory like Jane Cowl's.

The Green Pastures, which affected me as deeply as a religious service might, and delighted me, too, with its gentle humor, has long since ceased to be thought of as an experiment, being well on in its second year.

Eva Le Gallienne is ending her fifth repertory season of good plays, efficiently and sympathetically presented for a small price, by taking a well-deserved vacation. Here is another topic on which one could write a whole article with ease.

One event which I shall always remember was the enormous Flower Show at the Grand Central Palace. If  $\Phi$ s who read the New York papers probably saw photographs of the complete gardens, perfect in every detail, of living trees, grass, moss, and flowers, with water running over the rocks. Even the marvel of the President Hoover roses and the seven-inch tulips could not, for me compare with the feeling to be gained from seeing trees in bud or early leaf, flowering Japanese prints, dogwood, redbud, laurel and rhododendron, and bank upon bank of moss, ferns, and shrubbery in every shade of green.

Economical Entertainment

Nearly every college girl in New York is anxious to fill out her own background in as many ways as possible. Yet she is probably intent on conserving both her time and her money. For these reasons, it is gratifying to be able to say that the very activities which proved least expensive for me have been the ones which I feel most definitely contributed to my understanding of literature, in very much the same sense that foreign travel does. The free symphony concerts at the Metropolitan Museum; the many exhibits of painting, both traditional and modern; the second-hand bookstores and antique shops to prowl in whether one buys or not; the foreign communities where some people say the old world restaurants have more "atmosphere" than similar places in the old countries themselves; and even the conducted tours, of which the beautiful one that goes around the Island on a boat, is an amazingly good way to introduce oneself to many and varied modes of living all in one morning.

To return to the university, let me give some idea of the daily life of a woman graduate student at Columbia. One's living accommodations, as before intimated, determine to some extent the amount of one's free time. In a dormitory it is possible to read or write or, in the case of scientific students, go out to work in the laboratory from breakfast till lunch, and to do the same in the afternoon, stopping only to attend classes, of which in English there are two or three a day as a rule. Breaking the afternoon for tea at four usually means picking up some useful information from other students in conversation at the Women's Graduate Club. After that, there may be another class, for Columbia's class hours send city business people and teachers for a walk, or more study, or a swim in the excellent Barnard College pool.

In the spring and fall there is tennis. In the evening the libraries are all open till ten; or if one has studied hard up until dinner time, a treat at the theater may be in order. For recreation and exercise I enrolled in a weekly class of tap dancing at Teachers College; the result is not to be taken seriously, but at least provides amusement for my friends.

To a newcomer from a small college or a middle-sized town, I suppose that meeting new people at Columbia never seems easy. Still, one soon forms acquaintances among the students with whom one lives and works and, in the congenial world which grows up around any school, although it cannot be so intimate here, makes friends. The Women's Graduate Club is a help toward this end. Besides having daily teas, it invites all sorts of interesting and well-known people to speak or perform for its members at their gatherings. This club has its room in Philosophy Hall in which is housed, with philosophy and languages, the department of English and comparative literature.

I find my year's study meaning so much to me that, although it is possible to make a great many more observations on living in New York, I find it very difficult to express its major results briefly. Yet anyone who has read these pages must have sensed my delight in discovering a field which is so absorbing that I should be very sorry to leave, if it were not for the fact that since I hope to teach English I can go on adding to the store of knowledge which this year has so generously begun.

Illinois A Wins Health Contest

IN AWARDING the prize for the best result attained in the Fraternity Health Competition to Illinois A chapter, the members of the Health Committee who sponsored it feel duly gratified. The contest was planned to see which active chapter could turn in the best health record for one continuous year. Each day or half-day on which a girl was ill was to be counted and at the end of the year that group with the least total number of days of illness per girl to its discredit was to be considered the winner. It was hoped that all active girls would make a real effort to keep well and in so doing incorporate general health rules into their daily lives. Twenty-six chapters entered the competition and sent in partial returns, but unfortunately, only fourteen carried on to the end. These chapters were Illinois Z; New York Γ; Montana A; Michigan B; Manitoba A; New York Δ; Florida A; Louisiana A; Ohio Δ; Iowa B; Illinois A; Pennsylvania Γ; California Δ; and Texas A.

The winning chapter, Illinois A, is composed of three seniors and twelve additional active members. In the first four months of 1930 these three seniors lost only three days through illness: for the complete year 1930, twelve other members lost only six days, truly a worth while record. This works out to 1.0 days illness per girl per year. The Iowa B chapter was the runner-up. Its group was larger and did extremely well. Florida A came third. All the chapters who entered are to be congratulated on their record.

The question arises—why can't all do it? Most illness is preventable. Surely one can pay enough attention to one's health to keep well without becoming neurotic. It seems that the main ingredients for maintaining health are: a basis of agreeable work; a measure of exercise and enough recreation to prevent monotony; the free use of water and simple natural foods to simplify metabolism; sufficient common sense and backbone to make the ingredients adhere; and enough sleep to allow the whole to mould into a smooth useful life.

Agreeable work for all is not beyond the realm of possibility. I lose patience with people who say they hate their job and yet make no change. Of necessity they become irritable, dissatisfied and less efficient than they should be. In time it affects their own health as well as that of those with whom they come in contact. I am a great believer in everyone having a hobby outside her ordinary sphere of action. It is a great safety valve for nervous energy. We read so much on diet in the magazines of today, that one becomes bewildered. One faddist claims that to eat potatoes and meat at the same time is poisonous to the system; another claims that fruit juice and milk at the same meal form an absolutely indigestible mass in the stomach. In view of these late theories it is marvelous how our grandparents survived to adult age at all. We do need to get back to a simpler dietary but do let us eliminate fads. Most of us do consume too much sugar—let us reduce that. Eat meat or fish once a day, always have a second vegetable and have a fresh fruit or vegetable salad every day with a leafy vegetable as the foundation; eat more puddings and fewer pies; more bread and less cake; drink more milk and water and much less tea and coffee; add to this one egg a day and one has a well-balanced menu.

Sleep is a thing most of us unfortunately cannot do without. There are a few exceptional people who survive with three or four hours rest a night but most of us cannot follow them successfully. Modern life is too noisy, too competitive, too ramified, and too mechanical to permit of much relaxation by day. Worry and over-fatigue are the two most common causes of functional diseases. Backbone is needed to forego a certain amount of pleasurable excitement to secure adequate rest.

If another Health Competition is arranged for it's hoped every chapter will enter. The record of Iowa B should be emulated by every member of the Fraternity. We want  $\Pi B \Phi$  to hold its cherished position as one of the most progressive of women's fraternities. Let every member make it her motto to keep fit so that she may be able to accomplish some useful purpose and prove not only to be a strong link but a growing link in the fraternity chain.

Pi Phi Wins Panhellenic Scholarship

KATHERINE NOBLE, a member of  $\Pi B \Phi$  and a graduate of Knox College, Galesburg, Illinois, has won the 1931 Scholarship Award of \$500, given by the New York City Panhellenic, Inc.

Miss Noble is expected in New York City in September where she will prepare herself for the position of dean of women, taking a special course in this work which is given at Columbia University. At present she is a teacher of Spanish and Latin in the public high school in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and has served for one year as the chapter of the  $\Pi B \Phi$  house in Ann Arbor. She has shown unusual ability in this field in which she wishes to develop herself.

Dorothy Brown (librarian) of  $A X \Omega$ , a graduate of William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Virginia, and Honor Gregory (journalist) of  $Z T A$ , a senior this year at Butler University, Indianapolis, were announced as first and second alternates.

The fifteen candidates submitted this year for the award represented fourteen colleges scattered in almost as many states. The types of training sought also showed much diversity. Two of the applicants sought to be librarians, but there was only one in each of the other fields: Bacteriology, physical education, Latin, English literature, speech and dramatics, journalism, dietetics, mathematics, child development, French, diplomatic service, college administration (one registrar, one dean of women).

The 1931 New York Panhellenic Scholarship Award Committee was composed of: Mrs. Beverley Robinson, chairman,  $A \Xi \Delta$ ; Mrs. Margaret Wardell,  $A O \Pi$ ; Mrs. C. Grant Cleaver,  $\Pi B \Phi$ ; Miss Winifred Weekes,  $\Phi M$ ; Miss Dorothy Woodward,  $\Sigma K$ ; Miss Marion Boyd,  $X \Omega$ .

The women who wrote the Panhellenic creed meant much when they began thus: "We, the fraternity women of America. . ."

All of us, we fraternity women, have experienced the bond of sisterhood and the very experience draws us closer. All of us at some time in our fraternity careers have stood before an altar of some sort and seen the jeweled pin fastened over our hearts. All of us have sat in formal meeting with our sisters and made decisions and all of us have had the joy of seeing some especially beloved pledge put our little pledge pin on her dress. All national fraternities must stand for the same things, the best in the social life of the college, the highest standards in scholarship, the co-operation with the authorities for what is best for every girl, the promotion of everything worth while on a college campus.—The Lyre of A X :

And How Does the Chapter Profit?

By MILDRED TINGLEY BEISEL
Delta Province President, Pi Beta Phi

TO THE undergraduate student the official visit of a national or province fraternity officer often seems something of a nuisance—another social event on an already crowded calendar. The desire to make a good impression on the visiting officer arouses general excitement and anxiety, all social engagements are sacrificed, all chapter skeletons are covered up, and everyone's "best foot is foremost." She wonders how much the chapter really profits. There is a certain amount of truth prompting these undergraduate reflections: why then is the frequent visit of an inspecting officer becoming more and more recognized as a vital and necessary factor in the strength of a fraternity?

A visiting officer brings to her chapters a consciousness of the organization at large—its aims and ideals. It is not desirable that chapters develop in a stereotyped manner after the same detailed pattern, but it is necessary that they build upon the same basic foundation, that they keep before themselves the ideals of their fraternity, and that they do not become lost in the petty details of the moment or in unjustified self-satisfaction. The desirability of close supervisory contacts between a national fraternity and its chapters is confirmed by the opinion of Dr. Edward A. Ross of the University of Wisconsin, one of America's greatest sociologists, who says: "History shows a marked drift of authority from the local toward the general. . . . A Greek-letter fraternity will see its standards lost sight of if it lacks in district organization and a strict supervision over its local chapters. Owing to chance, circumstances, and faults of leaders, any local association for general objects is subject to vagary and fatuousness unless it is steadied by membership in a general organization, which of necessity has attained to clear-cut aims and rational methods."

After all, it is well that local and personal interests of a chapter be set aside occasionally—at least for the time of an officer's visit. Local and immediate problems and methods are scrutinized closely before an officer arrives: if a chapter finds that the purposes of the national fraternity are being sacrificed to petty demands upon chapter attention or to local standards of questionable value, these latter things are apt to be put out of sight of the visiting officer or "hushed up" during her visit. A chapter feels a keen pride in parading a good plan or a worthy accomplishment: when, therefore, it finds that some favored ideas or methods need to be kept from the knowledge of the visiting officer, it often gains an understanding of their futility which results in their permanent abandonment. Time spent in thoughtful comparison of local accomplishments with national ideals is never wasted.

Because of her wide contacts, a visiting officer can do much to eliminate the costly "trial and error" method of chapter development, since she can save a chapter from experimentation with a plan which, to her knowledge, has already proved itself unable to accomplish its intended purpose. An ever-present problem in the development of group life is the lack of continuity not only in personnel but in leadership. Given a second chance, almost any chapter officer could do better because of her experience, but this is not always either possible or desirable. The visiting officer provides the experience which makes possible continuity of development and progress even under constantly changing local leadership.

Mothers are notoriously unable to see anything but the best in their children: it takes a stranger to make an impartial judgment. So, it is often easier for those not closely associated with a chapter to see fairly its points both of strength and weakness. Many times a visiting officer can give more understanding and impartial advice than is possible for alumnae close at hand. The opportunity for a chapter to present both sides of a situation to an unbiased person will often, of itself, clear away a misunderstanding which would otherwise spend itself in conflict and wasted energy.

Membership in a chapter which has responsibilities to a national organization is one of the greatest socializing agencies in college life. The visit of an inspecting officer emphasizes to each girl her personal responsibility for maintaining standards and helps her realize that not only the individual but also the group suffers when she fails to meet those obligations. Membership in a national fraternity must mean, she learns, the subordination of petty personal desires to the good of the larger group, even while it also means untold and invaluable opportunities to express initiative and individuality.

And how does the chapter profit? It gains everything—wise counsel, incentive, and inspiration. It is the responsibility and opportunity of a chapter to express the ideals of its fraternity in terms of its environment and so no two chapters are ever exactly alike, but the growth and development of every chapter is limited only by its desire and ability to use the help which national and province officers, with their advantages of experience and breadth of vision, offer to them.

Extracurricular Control by Pi Phi Chapters

Ontario A

ONTARIO A regards activities as having a definite place in the college and fraternity requirements of a college woman, so has adopted a compulsory system to control them, just as in the case of her scholarship. Every active of Ontario A is a member of some one society on the campus, whether literary, dramatic, or athletic, and is obliged to attend without fail its regular meetings.

Before each meeting of the chapter, a report is made to the chairman of activities on the attendance of each girl at the various activities, and this report is read in meeting. A fine of one dollar is imposed on those who fail to attend the meeting of their activity, except in the case of any one previously excused by the chairman. A complete list of activities for the following week is read out at each chapter meeting, so that the entire chapter is constantly kept in touch with college functions.

This system, however, does not effect such activities as the University Settlement School, to which two of the active members voluntarily offer their services one afternoon each week.

This stand of "compulsory attendance at activities" is taken by Ontario A because it is felt that if an active regularly attends the activity in which she is most interested, not only she, but the entire chapter, will benefit greatly by it.

Oklahoma A

At the beginning of each semester every freshman has a conference with the chairman of the activity committee and discusses which activity of those open to her would be most interesting and helpful. She is encouraged to become a leader in her chosen sphere.

The regular activities meet every other week, so for the free weeks she is required to attend one meeting, preferably Y.W.C.A. There is also a series of about five or six lectures at the beginning of each semester for the purpose of instructing the new girls in the customs, traditions, organizations, and ideals of Soonerland. Attendance at these lectures is required since they are extremely beneficial. If the freshman wishes to change her major activity she must have the consent of the committee to do so.

The freshmen and upperclassmen who are members of the same departmental clubs, usually go to the meetings together.

There is a rule on the campus which goes into effect the spring semester of this year, that freshmen are barred from attending any meetings of campus organizations for the first six weeks of school. This plan was submitted by the upperclasswomen and has the hearty approval of the chapter president and the faculty. This allows the new girls to become oriented, and to look about before blindly leaping into something uninteresting to them.

Idaho A

The associated women students of the University of Idaho inaugurated this year the point system for various activities and it is still a new practice on this campus. Because of its newness it is hard to say whether or not it is going to be entirely successful. There is no point system within the house regarding the activities that the girls go out for. Idaho A places a great deal of emphasis upon extracurricular activities and is coming more and more to be one of the most active fraternities on the campus. The pledges are required to go out for at least three activities during the year. Every one of the pledges has at least that number now and many of them have become well known already through their interests in campus activities. They have responded splendidly to the efforts of the members to interest them in outside activities. A chart is kept on the bulletin board with the names of every member and pledge and the activities which they have to their credit. This acts as a spur to those who have not any outside interests or more than one or two activities. Idaho A is constantly emphasizing the importance of being an active group on the campus and judging from the response of the pledges this year, this chapter should soon become a very active part of the Idaho campus life.

New York Γ

New York Γ has always insisted that each active have two and each pledge one activity per semester. However, St. Lawrence University has recently adopted the point system. We shall still insist that every girl have two activities per semester, but if her scholarship is low she will be unable to have more than two.

The point system for activities recently adopted is as follows:

This system has been made on a basis of expenditure of time only. It is in no sense a merit system and no points have been given on consideration of rank or campus recognition.

No student may at any time engage in a number of activities the points for which shall exceed the number allotted her in the following schedule.

Scholarship average	No. of points
60-70	15
70-75	20
75-80	25
80-85	30
85-90	35
90-95	40

Minnesota A

In the Minnesota A chapter activities are under what might be called "voluntary control." An activities committee is appointed once a year. It is made up of the chairman and at least one member from each class in the chapter. The committee maintains a file with a card for every active member listing her extracurricular and chapter activities. There is no compulsion brought to bear. Each girl tells her class committee member what type of activity interests her most; that is, Y.W.C.A., W.S.G.A., W.A.A., dramatics, journalism, etc. It is the business of the class committee member and the committee to help her get a start. Entering pledges are strongly urged to do at least two hours of work a week in extra-curricular activities, so that they may make an early beginning, and at the same time find out just what interests them most. The college point system and scholastic average rule make individual chapter rules unnecessary.

California Δ

A chart has been made which includes every form of campus activity that there is. Each activity is allotted so many points in accordance with its importance, and the amount of work that it requires. This file is open to any girl in the chapter so that she may make a choice of the activities in which she desires to participate.

Each pledge is required to have twenty-five points for initiation.

Each member is required to have twenty points each semester. A file is kept for each girl by the chairman of activities, and the points are recorded.

California Δ has never had a penalty for not obtaining at least the required number of points, because it has never had the need for one. If the situation ever arises, the matter will probably be placed in the hands of the executive council.

This plan has been in practice in this chapter for the last year or two, and it has been very successful. Every girl is closely associated with campus organizations and functions. This not only keeps the chapter in high favor with the university officials, but it makes the college life of each girl more broad and therefore, more beneficial.

The William and Mary Restoration

More than ten millions of dollars are being spent to restore, as nearly as possible, William and Mary, the oldest college in the United States, and the town of Williamsburg to their original state of being.

One million dollars has been spent in locating the plans of the main college building, reading them and starting the rebuilding of that edifice—the Christopher Wren Building.

An "old grad" went back last fall to see what it was all about. She says it will make a beautiful campus and town; that already there is a noticeable increase in the number of applicants for admission; that, of course, the scholarship standards will be higher as a result because the student body will always be limited to about six hundred men and six hundred women.

In place of decay and disorder will be quaintness and beauty; in place of haunted houses will be true old colonial homes and buildings; in place of weed-grown grounds will be well kept lawns, shrubs and lilac bushes . . . and perhaps some magnolias.—The Alpha Xi Delta

Pennsylvania B Members Active in Dramatics

PENNSYLVANIA B holds the dramatic honors of the campus within its chapter. This is rather remarkable since only six of the twenty members of Frill and Frown, the local women's dramatic fraternity, are  $\Pi B \Phi$ s. Betty Dill, president of this organization, is an outstanding senior in  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

The plays which Frill and Frown have presented this year are:

The Cat and the Canary; Edna Cleckner, a sophomore, had the leading rôle. Mary Smith, a junior, and Betty Dill were in the cast.

Dulcy and Craig's Wife; Bessie Margaret Snyder, one of our most promising pledges, had the title rôle in both of these productions. Virginia Dunkle, a pledge also, and Edna Cleckner, were members of the supporting cast.

The Swan is now being produced, its first showing to be April 9 and 10. Betty Dill has the leading rôle and Mary Smith has one of the leading parts.

Outward Bound is soon to be produced with Betty Dill and Mary Smith playing two out of the three feminine rôles.

Eddie Garvey, a junior, has done the make-up for all of these plays and she and Edna Cleckner have done the costuming for all of them.

Five out of six women members of  $\Theta A \Phi$  are  $\Pi \Phi$ s. They are: Mary Smith, Betty Dill, Louise Ziegler, Eddie Garvey, and Edna Cleckner.

The Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Contest Play, called Jeeves, was written by a Bucknellian and is to be presented at State College April 18 in the Intercollegiate Contest. The only two feminine rôles are to be played by  $\Pi \Phi$ s: Mary Smith and Louise Ziegler, both members of the junior class.

A Brief Survey of Panhellenism

From the Crescent of Gamma Phi Beta

1. Earliest Events.

- (a) Invitation to other sororities from Boston University chapter of K K  $\Gamma$  to meet in August, 1890, at Boston.
- (b) Attempts made to secure
  1. Uniformity of interfraternity courtesy.
  2. Cooperation in purchasing fraternity jewelry and stationery.
  3. Panhellenic plan for World's Fair.
  4. Uniformity in dates of fraternity publications.
  5. Inter-chapter cooperation and etiquette.
- (c) Failure.
Because there was no city in which representatives from all sororities could meet conveniently.

2. Intersorority Conferences.

- (a) First conference called by Margaret Mason Whitney (grand president of A  $\Phi$ ) for May 24, 1902, at Chicago. Delegates present from A  $\Phi$ ,  $\Gamma$   $\Phi$  B,  $\Delta$   $\Gamma$ ,  $\Delta$   $\Delta$   $\Delta$ , K A  $\Theta$ , K K  $\Gamma$ ,  $\Pi$  B  $\Phi$ .
- (b) Conference of 1903.
Admitted A X  $\Omega$  and X  $\Omega$ .
Suggested formation of Panhellenic associations.
- (c) Conference of 1904.
Admitted A  $\Xi$   $\Delta$  and  $\Sigma$  K.
Decided upon rotation in office.
Defined purpose of Panhellenic.
Took up problem of social service.

Recommended establishment of women's leagues.
Made preparations to form a Bureau of Comparative Legislation.

Raised the question of the advisability of asking that deans of women be appointed in all coeducational colleges.

- (d) Conference of 1905.
Admitted A O  $\Pi$ .
Defined a national sorority as one having at least five chapters at institutions of collegiate rank.
Provided for the drafting of a model constitution for women's leagues.
- (e) Conference of 1906.
Remodeled constitution of 1905.
Approved a model constitution for Panhellenics.
Condemned high school sororities.
- (f) Conference of 1907.
Reported progress along the lines of social service and of local Panhellenics.
Favored a late pledge day, preferably in the sophomore year.
- (g) Conference of 1908.
Made another plea for sophomore pledge day and for definite scholarship attainment.
Changed name to National Panhellenic Conference.
Admitted Z T A and A  $\Gamma$   $\Delta$ .

- (h) Conference of 1909.
 Provided for annual appointment of committee on extension.
 Arranged through committees for reports on college facilities for student social affairs and on scholarship standards in the Conference sororities.
 Admitted  $\Lambda \Delta \Pi$  and  $\Delta Z$ .
- (i) Conference of 1910.
 Voted to request the sororities to vest in their delegates such limited legislative power as the Conference might deem necessary to make its action effective. Recommended that every effort be made to encourage scholarship among sorority women; that the sponsor system be inaugurated in all chapters; that chaperons be salaried and given unlimited authority to enforce rules for the common good.
- (j) Conference of 1911.
 Adopted a constitution. Changed name to National Panhellenic Congress.
3. National Panhellenic Congress.
- (a) Policies.
1. To make laws pertaining to its own government.
  2. To admit at its discretion petitioning sororities.
  3. To levy annual dues.
  4. To make final settlement of local Panhellenic difficulties.
  5. To have advisory power over local Panhellenics.
- (b) Order of Members.
 Governed by their seniority as members.
- (c) Eligibility.
 To be represented in the Congress a sorority must have at least five chapters in institutions of a collegiate rank; and a college of collegiate rank is one that requires fourteen entrance units.
- (d) Meetings.
 Since 1915, biennial. Most of them held in Chicago; 1914 in New York; 1915 in Berkeley.
- (e) Government.
 The sororities, in rotation, according to the official list, preside at the Congresses. The prospective chairman acts as secretary, the prospective secretary as treasurer. These three officials constitute the executive committee which carries on the business between sessions, and is the final court of appeals in college disputes.
- (f) Publications.
 Quarterly bulletins.
- (g) College Panhellenics.
 Under general direction of Congress, and expected to abide by its recommendations.
 Furnished a model constitution.
- (h) City Panhellenics.
 Encouraged by Congress.
- (i) Voting.
 Majority rule effective.
- (j) Rulings.
1. Congress of 1912.
 Elected historian to serve for five years.
 Condemned high school fraternities.
 Admitted  $\Phi M$  and  $K \Delta$ .
  2. Congress of 1913.
 Adopted uniform scholarship card and uniform house rules.

Favored extension of sorority system.

Contributed to Chicago Bureau of Occupations.

3. Congress of 1914.

Adopted a code of ethics.

Authorized a study of the chapter house system.

Arranged for extension and supervision of city Panhellenics.

4. Congress of 1915.

Adopted a Panhellenic creed.

Authorized a study of cooperative buying and catering.

Voted for biennial meetings.

The 1931 Census of N. P. C. Sororities

BY OLGA ACHTENHAGEN

Editor, the Angelos of Kappa Delta

FORTY-SIX chapters were installed by N.P.C. sororities during the last year (March, 1930-March, 1931), an increase of two over the number chartered during the preceding year. The total number of chapters in all groups is now 1,075. Last year the total was 1,036. Several groups have had chapters become inactive during the last year because of the Hollins College ruling; others were affected by the union of Knox and Lombard. In one case, a charter was transferred from Hollins to Rollins. For these reasons the figure in column headed 1930 plus figure in column of charters granted does not in every case total the figure in column headed 1931.

Four sororities, K A Θ, A Ξ Δ, Z T A, and Π B Φ granted no charters during the year. Three groups, X Ω, Σ K, and Φ M granted one each. Four groups granted two charters each: Δ Δ Δ, A O Π, A Φ, A Δ Θ. Six groups granted three charters each: K Δ, Δ Z, A X Ω, Δ Γ, Γ Φ B, Θ Y. Three groups granted four each: K K Γ, A Δ Π, B Φ A. One group, A Γ Δ, granted five charters.

PIPHKIN IN THE PUBACBYE

Margaret Schoenfeld

MARGARET SCHOENFELD, District of Columbia A, has had a varied and brilliant career. She received her B.A. and M.A. degrees from George Washington University and a Certificate in Social Economy from Bryn Mawr College. The following year she was an investigator for the U. S. Coal Commission. In 1923 she became industrial research assistant on the faculty of the Wharton School of Finance of the University of Pennsylvania. She resigned in 1926 to be at home with her mother after the death of her father, Doctor Hermann Schoenfeld, who was head of the department of Germanic language and literature at George Washington University from 1894 to 1926.

From 1927 to the present time she has been assistant economic analyst for the U. S. Tariff Commission and for the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

In 1930 Margaret was "loaned" for six months to Brookings Institute to collaborate with F. G. Tryon on the book, Physical Conditions in the Bituminous Coal Mines of the U. S. She has contributed to the Monthly Labor Review and is author of The Trend of Wage Earners' Savings in the City of Philadelphia. Margaret is also co-author of other works, among them being Comparison of the Physical Conditions in British and American Coal Mines and numerous other studies dealing with conditions in the coal industry.

"Playing with Fire"

THE proverbial "thrill that comes once in a life-time" was granted to Eloise Sterling Hirt, Colorado B, 1911, when the Dallas Little Theater, Dallas, Texas, presented her three-act play, Playing With Fire, in a workshop performance Friday and Saturday nights, February 20 and 21, 1931.

This is Mrs. Hirt's first venture into the field of playwriting, though she has acquired fame in the amateur theater as an actress and director of ability. She was one of the founders and also a director of the Pasadena Community Playhouse and later served as director of the Santa Ana Little Theater, Santa Ana, California. She was at one time on the faculty of the Columbia College of Expression in Chicago.

In the spring of 1925, Mrs. Hirt appeared at the Dallas Little Theater in the guest production of Outward Bound as the representative of Pasadena; in November, 1928, she appeared there as Julie in Liliom. Her most recent rôle was as Mrs. Alving in Ibsen's Ghosts, which the Fort Worth Little Theater produced the week of February 26, and which will be taken to the Texas Little Theater Tournament in April.

The local critics evinced an unusual amount of interest in the première, since the play is the first full-length original to be presented on the Dallas stage. John William Rogers, of the Dallas Times-Herald, says, "In offering Playing With Fire, the Little Theater has taken the first genuine step to claim its rightful place in the creative side of the American theater." Critic J.A.L. in the Dallas Morning News, February 21, says, "Mrs. Hirt has produced a play that is creditable to an unusual insight of student life in a modern American co-educational institution, an artistic treatment of the reaction of youth to a college curriculum that is in purpose often beyond the comprehension of a large number of inexperienced students it attempts to benefit. The words and actions of her characters have a counterpart in every college in the land, which is, after all, a test of reality that not all acceptable drama may stand and one that should be sufficient to justify the stamp of approval of the critical. Granting that the play may have its shortcomings, it also has much that should make it acceptable and more than just an attempt."

Π Β Φ was well represented in the production as well as in the audience. Ruth Murray, Texas A, acted as publicity manager for the event while Sara Gibson, Π Φ pledge at Southern Methodist University, gave a creditable performance in the leading rôle of the play.

Any chapter of Π Β Φ wishing to produce the play for a Settlement School benefit may write to Eloise Sterling Hirt, 421 Capps Building, Fort Worth, Texas. It is in the hands of a New York firm, but Mrs. Hirt reserves the right of a special royalty for Π Β Φ productions.

Written Nine Books

DR. GRACE RAYMOND HEBARD, Iowa Σ, is the subject of an article in The Daily Iowan, March 1, printed on a page entitled, "With Iowa Alumni."

The article tells that Dr. Hebard was the first woman to receive a B.S. degree from the University of Iowa in 1882, where she majored in engineering. She received her M.A. degree from there in 1885. Previous to her graduation she was offered a position as draftsman in the United States surveyor general's office in Cheyenne and went to her new job immediately upon graduation. From there she was for a short time deputy state engineer at the capitol and then came to Laramie to take an active part in the building up of the new University of Wyoming.

The nine books written by Dr. Hebard, who is head of the political economy department at the University, are discussed in the article. They are: Washakie, The History and Government of Wyoming, The Pathbreakers from River to Ocean, The Bozeman Trail: Historic Accounts of the Blazing of the Overland Routes into the

Northwest, War Service, University of Wyoming, Civics of Wyoming, The First Woman Jury, Marking the Oregon Trial and Historic

Heads Nutrition Research Laboratories

YOUR light is on top of a hill. Don't you dare to cover it under a bushel," were Professor Lafayette B. Mendel's parting words to Icie G. Macy, Virginia A and Colorado A, when she left Yale University with her Ph.D.

Her light is still brightly burning, and Icie G. Macy, who is in charge of the nutrition research laboratories of the Merrill-Palmer School and the Children's Hospital of Michigan, Detroit, now heads both the division of biological chemistry of the American Chemical Society and the society's Detroit section. Neither post has ever been occupied by a woman.

"Were you as a child conscious of having a scientific bent?" we asked Miss Macy. "Indeed not," she replied. "Father wanted very much to have a musician in the family and he chose me. I was eager to do the thing he wanted, so I studied music a great deal, both piano and voice. But I realized all along that my talents did not lie in that field. It was agony for me to go through with concerts. I was on the verge of giving a recital that would have meant a degree in music, when I sat down and wrote a letter to father, explaining how I felt. It was a hard thing to do, but I did it. However, I don't regret my musical training because it taught me to appreciate and enjoy music.

"I was started on my present business in life through the influence of two women teachers, and especially that of Dr. May Sherrill, now professor of chemistry at Mt. Holyoke. She was once my botany teacher and such a charming woman that I wanted to follow literally in her footsteps to see if I could not grow to be like her. If instructors at colleges and universities could only realize the profound influence they have on the young people floundering about in their classes trying to find their proper sphere, and then could have the time to direct toward them a personal interest, how much it would mean!" continued Miss Macy. "I was greatly favored in this respect. At the University of Chicago, Professor Julius Stieglitz, of the chemistry department, by his words of encouragement gave me the assurance to go on working for higher degrees. And at Yale Professor Mendel gave me the same sort of inspiration."

TEACHING THEORY

Miss Macy believes that even among seniors in college one can't expect students to have "found" themselves. Acting as faculty advisor for a short time in the University of California she related with feeling the case of a certain small town boy in his freshman year who came to her for help in planning his course. When she asked him what he wanted to major in, he said music. Then she explained that he would have to take certain other studies to get his degree, and mapped out a course for him. For an entire week he kept coming back to her.

"I can't get anything out of that botany class," he complained. "We don't even have text books."

Kindly she pointed out that college meant lecture courses.

"But I don't know what the professor is talking about," he insisted. "I am not familiar with the words he uses."

Thereupon she advised him to buy a simple text book on botany and get acquainted with the terms used.

"And we don't have desks," he said another day.

Once more Miss Macy explained that in college one had to learn to write upon one's knee. Then after an absence of several days he came back again. She asked him what class he liked best. His answer was his French class.

"Do you know why?" she questioned us, and we could not guess.

"Because there were but 17 members in that class and several hundred in the botany class and the instructor called him by name," was her smiling reply. By the second semester he had found himself, and all because two of his teachers had given that personal interest without which he would have been lost.

OPPORTUNITIES OPEN TODAY

It is Miss Macy's belief that industries are not yet prepared to take many women chemists—that is, outside of library research and work of that type. But there are great possibilities in the medical and teaching fields, she added.

"I can count all the full-fledged women professors of chemistry in the country on one hand," said Miss Macy. "There are more high school and normal school women chemistry teachers, but here is a field for many." Hospitals have their laboratories, groups of physicians and state health institutions have them. In these the laboratory technician finds interesting work. She examines throat cultures for diphtheria, cultures of typhoid fever, takes urinalyses, blood counts, blood chemistry, etc.

Questioned about the course of training she would recommend, Miss Macy named the studies she prescribed only last week for a freshman at Smith. She advised her to include inorganic chemistry, organic chemistry, physical chemistry, physiological chemistry, mathematics and physics. To go far one must be thoroughly grounded in the basic sciences, it is her belief.

"The salary a woman in the field of applied chemistry may expect is not munificent," said Miss Macy. She named an average of $1,500, but remarked that salary depended largely on the type of training and the type of institution in which one worked. But here, she is convinced, is work into which women fit nicely, and they get from it personal satisfaction that brings happiness.

"The big place for women in my profession," she concluded, "is in the development of maternal and child nutrition and child development. Here the woman chemist can do as well as or even better than the man, and there is much work along these lines to be done."

COOKY-SHINE

*Four candles in a square upon the floor
Are vaguely lighting every girlish face,
Neglecting not a one inside the door
But binding all within this quiet space,
The magic circle, weaving round each maid
Its spell of sisterhood and faith and love.
This perfect bond, the words of which have bade
Us all to look for truth and hold above
The outer world our sisters singing here.
Soft-eyed and tenderhearted when our woe
Would bear us down they bring us succor dear
As we on paths of high endeavor go.
Sing loved ones, friendship blessed does bind us fast;
This spell, this dream, through all our lives will last.*

Aunt Lizzie Reagan

ONE of the greatest privileges of belonging to the "good old days" of our school was that of knowing some of the older people of the mountains. The past ten years have taken a heavy toll and there are now few left who belong to those days.

Many Pi Phis who have been in Gatlinburg have heard Aunt Lizzie say "I came one day and she came the next" and that was the way it was. From the first day I was at the school Aunt Lizzie was there and what a staunch friend she has been to the school and to each of us individually. And what a strong link she has been to join the past with the present.

Aunt Lizzie came to take care of the little Prickett baby while his mother and father were in the schoolroom teaching, but before the first year was over she had taken on her shoulders many household cares in our little family. She said she soon found that if we were to have light bread all the time she must learn to make it, for I was sure to be away just the time the bread should be mixed and with pride she found she could bake a better loaf than I could. Cooking was not nearly all Aunt Lizzie looked after. The second year we bought our first cow and Aunt Lizzie was the proud caretaker of it, not trusting the milking to any male resident of Gatlinburg. That same year she was the sole caretaker of my little pet pig and brought it from a wee thing to the  $\Pi \Phi$  market. The first chickens were Aunt Lizzie's care. In fact, as our farm animals grew in number it was hard for the men to persuade Aunt Lizzie that the chickens were going to have to be put in the new chicken houses and yards, farther from the convenient kitchen door. And it was with many a misgiving and much reluctance that the milking was finally turned over to the dormitory boys and the man who had come to the school as a farmer. The flowers continued to be hers, though, as long as she stayed.

How could Phyllis Higinbotham ever have done her first years of nursing here without Aunt Lizzie's help? She knew every family for miles around and their family history. Few long trips were taken without first consulting Aunt Lizzie about direction, roads, and family, for Phyllis saw early in the game who she could trust, which speaks for her wisdom as well as Aunt Lizzie's.

But changes had to come. Our little family that used to number four or five during the winter and one or two in summer—and that included all who lived on the place—kept growing until there were about forty-five to live with. Even the summer that used to be so quiet never found us with less than twelve or fifteen in the family. The home life had changed, there was a hurry and bustle that Aunt Lizzie didn't enjoy, and the work was too hard. She bought a little place on Mill Creek and the house is at the low of the hill. She can look down into the valley and says she hears our dinner bell and some days watches us go to dinner. Now and then we have supper on her porch—and on those too rare occasions we always say we soon will go back for another good visit.

Aunt Lizzie is versatile. Giving up her work at the school didn't mean that she gave up all interests, any more than bringing up five children and under especially hard conditions meant that she had given up caring for children. Far from it. Six grandchildren in one family and that many and more in another one mean that every night some of them stay with her. With their help she puts in a small crop and has a garden anyone may well be proud of. She has her pet cow that she says she can tell anywhere and that she uses as an excuse for always going home before dark each night.

All this would keep most folks busy but the past two years another occupation has been take up and I only wish I could begin to tell you of the joy that has come with it. Some years ago we bought the big old-fashioned loom that used to belong to Aunt Lydia. It couldn't be set up, as the weaving room then was under a porch and the space too small for such a big thing. When the new building was completed and they moved into the big weaving room, there was a lovely corner just right for the Aunt Lydia loom. Of course Aunt Lizzie was the one they turned to help set up the old resider. Miss Strand, the weaving teacher, suggested that Aunt Lizzie put on a warp and thread it for the old jeans patterns. After thirty-five years Aunt Lizzie set up the loom, threaded it and wove. Not a single thing had she forgotten in all that time. In fact she knew many a little "turn" that Miss Strand had never heard of and that Aunt Lizzie told her of with great pride. In short Aunt Lizzie is queen of the weaving room. All winter she has woven because she said the room was warm, I know she will continue this spring and will have an equally good excuse but the great reason is that she just loves it. Besides weaving she winds bobbins for several women living near who weave for the school. She not only can manage the old loom better than anyone else but can manage the spinning wheel the bobbins are wound on.

There is no finer example of the older mountain person, with splendid native ability and intelligence,

Aunt Sabria King

THE household of Aunt Sabria of King's Branch is a miniature kingdom and its subjects are the members of her family whom she rules with a firm hand. Nobody even notices Aunt Sabria's husband when she is present, for she simply brushes him aside as if he were a child in her way. A quiet old man with a patriarchal white beard, by virtue of which Victoria Strand, the weaving teacher, has named "the minor prophet," he sits all day on the porch or by the fireside. Apparently he never ventures to speak a word in regard to affairs of the innate dignity, and courtesy and strong character. No one is dearer to me as a friend and no one more loyal to our school.

family. The daughters, Emmaline and Katherine, are equally meek in submitting to their mother's autocratic management. They are weavers for the school, but Aunt Sabria is really mistress of ceremonies. In years gone by she was an expert weaver but now she leaves the actual work to others and assumes the rôle of critic and director. Not infrequently she undertakes to dictate to Miss Strand her opinions about prices and designs.

Aunt Sabria considers herself an authority on most domestic subjects. Although the need for handmade cloth has passed, on King's Branch, as in other mountain communities, her hands have not forgotten their skill in the old arts of carding and spinning. At the first Old Timers' Day program she won the prizes for these accomplishments. Certainly she is a thrifty housewife and a gracious hostess. Not only does she watch over the looms of Emmaline and Katherine but she directs the cultivation of the farm. Her garden and fine flock of chickens are her chief pride. The three-room house, its walls papered with seed catalogs and newspapers, is always immaculate and the little dooryard is swept as clean as a floor. Not a weed or blade of grass mars its smooth surface, only the rose bushes and other shrubs tidily arranged about the fence.

AUNT SABRIA KING

Sometimes on hot summer days Aunt Sabria and the two daughters will stop work to sit in a solemn row on the porch. Few families live above them on the branch, so a chance passer-by is always noted with interest. "Come in and set awhile out of the sun," Aunt Sabria will call, "Goin' up to Mollie's?" When I tell her that I'm going to see Mollie's daughter and the new baby she will say, "Well, the baby's pert enough, but that girl don't know a thing about raisin' a young un. I've been telling them . . ." and on she will go with a lecture on the rearing of babies.

Aunt Sabria is a midwife and has a vast store of pseudo-medical knowledge that has gathered from various sources. She is reputed to be the best "granny-woman" for miles about and many a patient would rather have her services than those of the best physician in the country. With her neat calico dress and white apron, and her trim little midwife kit, she really is a figure worthy of respect.

Scores of babies she has welcomed into the world. She boasts proudly that she has dressed five pairs of twins. Not only is she kind to her patients and scrupulously clean in caring for them, but she has very good judgment and is most unwilling for them to incur any risk at her hands. Though she privately considers herself a remarkably clever midwife, she never hesitates one moment to call for a physician's assistance if she feels at all doubtful about the case. One of the doctors said, "If Aunt Sabria sends for me, I know I'd better get there."

She is a mighty influence in her own little community, setting a fine example of homemaking and neighborliness. In every home along the creek one finds evidence of her teaching. Everywhere the people say, "Well, Aunt Sabria told me." By these tokens Aunt Sabria represents the finest stock of the mountains. She is a real pioneer who faces life with courage and dignity.

The Southern Mountains Handicraft Guild

ON MARCH 27, 1931, the third annual meeting of the Handicraft Guild of the Southern Mountains was held at the Mountain View Hotel in Gatlinburg, with more than forty members and friends of the guild in attendance. If we can judge the future by the interest of the present we can be sure that a big, really worth-while thing will evolve from this small beginning.

The reason for establishing the guild is no doubt apparent to all.

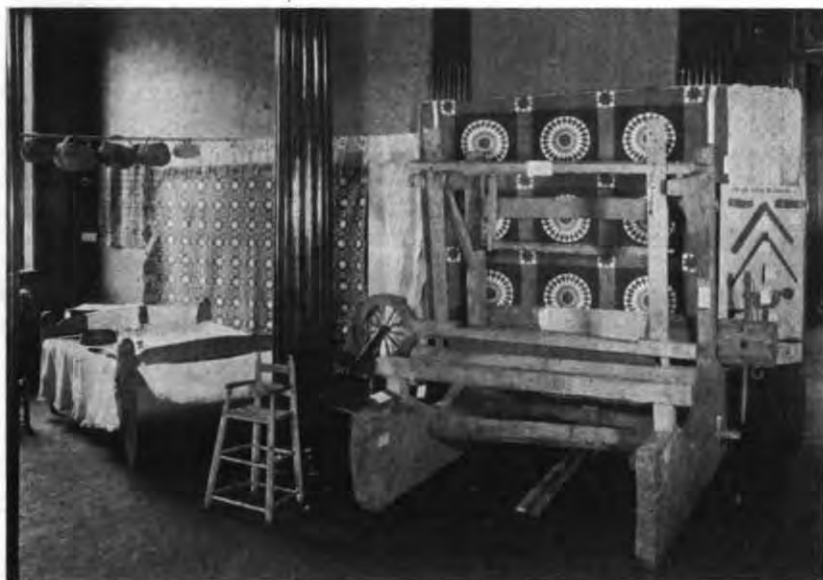

There is the desire to preserve the handicrafts of the mountains, to encourage the home industries with their individuality and their beauty of color and design, to improve in every possible way the crafts, and to make a very definite study in regard to the marketing of these products.

There are more than thirty producing centers and individuals in the guild membership, as well as several people who have joined as interested friends. Quite the ma-majority of the centers are schools more or less like ours and located in the mountains of Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Georgia and Tennessee. The crafts include weaving, basketry, furniture making, pottery, toy making, wood carving, broom making, quilting and no doubt others that I am less familiar with.

had passed the one hundred mark.

In the near future there will probably be one central place where samples from various centers can be seen and also where the standardizing of prices can be worked out. In the main the schools have a pretty uniform price but some vary a good deal, as many  $\Pi \Phi$  clubs have found out, and there has

TREASURES AT THE HANDICRAFT DISPLAY

At the annual Mountain Workers' Conference held in Knoxville a year ago this spring there was a most beautiful exhibit of the handicrafts, each exhibiting center or individual sending not more than three of their products. It brought only the most beautiful and choice things and was a great inspiration to all who saw it. This year there was an exhibit but of only old things. Many coverlits, counterpanes and old pieces of furniture been much distress among some clubs because of this variance.

The United States has been slow in recognizing the work done through its crafts. Several European countries have guilds of long standing maintained by their governments: Canada has a most splendid organization. New England is now working along this line and we are proud to belong to the Southern Mountains Handicraft Guild and to be a charter member.

A Needed Gift

WHERE is the Pi Phi School?" How many times this question has been asked and how useless it is to say "Look for the stone wall." There are stone walls and stone walls in Gatlinburg now as well as painted buildings and painted buildings. The question has really been answered in a most attractive way, as the accompanying picture shows.

Last spring Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gibson (Mary E. Wallahan, Colorado B) of Cleveland were here on a visit and were impressed with the need of something to tell the visitor or the passerby who and where we were. In the winter a beautiful bronze plate 20" by 36" was sent and is now placed at the entrance to the grounds. Again we have a  $\Pi \Phi$  husband to thank for a generous gift to the school. Again we say we just couldn't get along without these  $\Pi \Phi$  husbands who have helped us in so many, many ways.

Gatlinburg Notes

ONLY a Dickens could do it justice! Picture them filing into the home economics room, where they are met at the door by the primary teacher with a bottle of cod liver oil and a big spoon, a dose which they gulp down bravely, and then proceed to the sink. There one of the older girls pours a little liquid soap into their outstretched hands. They briskly rub it in, rinse it off under the faucet, and then pass on to the table, where they sit quietly until grace is said. This is the routine of the primary children.

The food is provided by the women of the community, and the home economics teacher starts the fire and gets things going during a free period, while the other teachers and the older girls help with the serving and clearing up. Only one dish is supplied each day, the children bringing the rest of their lunch from home, and not the least valuable part of the program is the fact that they have to sit quietly and eat slowly.

New dishes are viewed with suspicion by children in Gatlinburg as elsewhere, and it takes ingenuity to think of ways to make the new food appealing. Cocoa was not especially enjoyed until someone called it "hot ice cream"—now it is a real treat! And boiled custard, which they had never seen, was promptly christened "sweet gravy" by the children themselves, and still goes by that name.

Future Farmers of Tennessee is an unusual organization, of which there is a flourishing  $\Pi B \Phi$  chapter at the school, was only chartered in November, 1927, yet it already has over a hundred chapters, with a total of over three thousand members in the high schools of Tennessee.

There are three grades of membership: the lowest, the "Greenhand," the next, the "Tennessee Farmer," and the highest, the "Tennessee Planter." To progress from one grade to the next requires a definite achievement of money from practice work and certain investments in farming or stock. These investments total a very imposing sum—over a hundred thousand dollars in farming and nearly twenty-five thousand in banks in the first year of its existence.

The emblem of the Future Farmers of Tennessee is an owl (wisdom) perched upon the beam of a plow (labor), with a rising sun in the background, representing hope and opportunity. The Greenhand wears the insignia developed in bronze, the Farmer, in silver and the Planter, in gold. The Planter must have competed with other chapters and his degree is conferred by the governor of the state with appropriate ceremonies. To attain his degree he must have had two years organized instruction in vocational agriculture, with outstanding supervised farm practice work, at least $200.00 earned from farming either in the bank or productively invested, a general high school average of 85, and in addition he must have outstanding qualities of leadership!

There is a convention each year at the state capitol and the incorporators include the governor, the state commissioner of education and the commissioners of agriculture and of vocational agriculture.

A Case from Laurel Lick

Not long ago the nurse discovered a fifteen-year-old girl in Laurel Lick (a community about fifteen miles from Gatlinburg and most difficult to reach) suffering from pellagra, a bad leg ulcer, and in a miserable physical condition generally. Her parents were dead and she was living with a married brother under what seemed utterly hopeless home conditions. Failing to get the girl into a Knoxville hospital, the nurse brought her to the school hospital for two weeks, where she received treatment.

But not only did the girl receive physical help but she learned to write her name! It was hard, too, for a fifteen-year-old with absolutely no mental training, but she persevered, and then she even learned to read a little from the primer that the girls at the school brought her. And she was given her first doll, and she made some clothes for it, as well as an outing flannel gown for herself.

In two weeks there was such a marked improvement, both physical and mental, that it stimulated the brother and sister-in-law so that to everyone's delight, they are now doing their very best to carry out the nurse's instruction at home and the girl has a chance to recover completely. The  $\Pi B \Phi$  nurse is helping in every way she can—even taking her the canned salmon that is so good for pellagra. This is just one of many cases that should make every  $\Pi B \Phi$  feel that her effort is bringing very real results.

HIDDEN behind a couple of initials, "H.C." is the anonymity of one of our most specialized and commendable  $\Pi \Phi$  writers, Helen Comstock, California B.

More than a year ago she wrote in answer to an inquiry from this department of the ARROW that she was "just an associate editor" of International Studio. Now this happens to the finest art treasures the world over. Paintings to pewter, bronzes to tapestry . . . such subjects are described and pictured in a beautiful manner.

At last an article which is attributed directly to the pen of Miss Comstock has appeared in the magazine, but it was only through a revelation in the Reader's Digest, that handy guide which helps track down many an elusive  $\Pi \Phi$  writer, that the identity of this  $\Pi \Phi$  writer was discovered. The article in the magazine was signed simply, "H.C." but the Reader's Digest showed that the initials stood for Helen Comstock.

"Buddhist and Shinto Shrines at Nara and Nikko" is the title of the article. Photographs of some of the rarest and most exquisite of Japanese shrines are reproduced.

The very adjectives used in the description show Miss Comstock to be one of the earth's persons who loves beauty, fine detail, and painstaking artistry.

The two towns are described as being in the "center of a crescent formed by the islands of Japan."

Nara was the first capital of Japan, according to Miss Comstock, and some of the buildings were erected in 1624 and are still standing.

"Buildings resplendent with lacquer and gold and color, and the same kind of artistry has gone into the making of their exteriors as might be lavished on a jewel box or casket designed for inviolable seclusion . . ." so goes her account of these temples.

A consideration of International Studio as a magazine makes one wonder at the widespread delicately technical knowledge of art that must be possessed by the editors in order to maintain their position as authorities of the widely varied subjects contained within its pages. A connoisseur par excellence . . . that must be Miss Comstock's rating, for she has been on the staff for several years.

One sure-fire source of material for this department is Margaret Weymouth Jackson, Michigan A. A check back through the ARROW files for the time since it came under my direction shows that Mrs. Jackson's name, like Abou Ben Adhem's "leads all the rest" in frequency of mention.

But there's a reason—a very good one.

—but not particularly necessary at this time!

I wonder if when Esther McDonald was just a freshman at Northwestern, and going through pledging to Pi Phi, and probation, and Freshman lectures, and all other awesome-to-a-freshman experiences, if she ever thought she'd some day be an adviser to that same type of girl after she had earned her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees. She must remember those freshman days of hers, or she wouldn't be the success as an adviser that she is. It's just such women as she is, that make worth-while college dreams come true for the girl entering her college career.

All power to Esther McDonald Lloyd Jones!

Pancakes fresh off the griddle bring a thrill to some persons. Books fresh off the press bring a different thrill to others. Then there's some of us who would prefer to have our new-printed books to enjoy right along with our fresh-cooked pancakes.

That was my case with Rowena Rides the Rumble, by Ethel Powelson Hueston, Iowa A, which was released for publication by Bobbs-Merrill Company, of Indianapolis, April 8.

I have one more word to add to the comments made on Mrs. Hueston in the February, 1931, ARROW. *A Φ II who knew Mrs. Hueston back in the days when she was pledged to Iowa A, said this the other day: "How that girl did surprise us. None of us ever guessed that she was going to turn out to be the successful writer that she is now. She was such a quiet girl!" And so, actives, look around your chapter and be nice to the quiet ones. If you don't, they might turn out to be writers, too, and how would you like to be the model for their villainesses?

Not that there is a really-truly villainess in Rowena Rides the Rumble. There is one character, however, who vacillates between the deepfelt conviction that never again does she want to see her fiancé and the fact that she must catch the next train to return to his adoring arms, and she's the exact summary of most of the things I'd not want to be.

Rowena was the advertising copy-writer who answered an ad requiring a presentable young lady to travel across the United States and act as model for her painter companion who was a young man. They were advertising the superlative points of a certain automobile in settings from New York to California. An elegant situation—except that they had to have a chaperon, according to the dictates of the manufacturers of the automobile. And what a chaperon the person who answered their ad turned out to be! She, the aforementioned summary of all the things I wouldn't want to be.

When she deserted them to return to her lover on a moment's notice the artist and Rowena went through a marriage "in name only" for propriety.

And there's where the trouble started. When the artist-husband deserted Rowena in the bridal suite, the hotel management branded him an ingrate and a wretch. When the automobile manufacturers sent them wedding presents, Rowena "divvied" them up and pawned her share.

So, married and yet unmarried, they journeyed across the country and back again . . . almost to New York, where Friend Husband decided he'd had enough nonsense, took the bride in his arms, and found she really wanted to be married to him, after all.

Of course my sympathies were with the nice, competent, good-looking man all along the route. Perhaps the fact that his name was Peter would account for that!

It's a good popular story, and we hope the book has the success that Mrs. Hueston's previous best sellers have had.

Because some persons loved birds enough to protect them, and study them, and learn to be friends with these little feathered creatures, Audubon societies were formed over the country. Harriet Williams Myers is president of the California Audubon society and is also editor of the Phainopepla, monthly bulletin of the society. Mrs. Myers graduated from Iowa Z at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, in 1889.

"The Rufus Hummingbird" is the title of the main article in the February issue of this bulletin. Mrs. Myers describes a pugilistic encounter between two of these tiny long-billed birds that she witnessed in the garden of her home in the Sierra Nevada mountains. She says the needle-like bill is a formidable weapon when the tiny bird attacks an enemy.

Mrs. Myers also has an article describing "Whe-O," a black-headed grosbeak who she rescued and cared for. The little wild bird used to beg her to feed him even after it had learned where the feed box was and how to obtain food from it.

EDITH EMILY HUMPHREY

This is Edith Humphrey, Ohio A, whose thrilling experience of coming home from Europe to find that she had won a short story contest while away was told in the February, 1931, ARROW. Miss Humphrey at present is working on some articles and stories of which future ARROWS will carry accounts.

Following is an article sent to this department from the Oklahoma City alumnae club, which is being reprinted here "wholesale" because the writer of it is quite evidently in full possession of the facts concerning the  $\Pi \Phi$  writer described, and has done a far better job than any Book Notes editor in Iowa could, when the subject described is in Oklahoma:

If you should chance to ring the bell at the home of one of our Okla-service to the State of Louisiana; to one who has loved beauty in all things and who has shared such love with those around him; to one who has maintained throughout the years, had the love and respect of students and faculty alike and whose friends are legion; to one who has maintained a growing professional interest in his studies and who has created among his students a zeal for knowledge; to one who has through precept and practice exerted for thirty years at the Louisiana State Normal College an uplifting and wholesome influence among his students; to Professor George Williamson, this testimonial of the Louisiana State Board of Education is given in grateful recognition of his services in the development of Louisiana's public school system; in sincere admiration of his character as a cultured gentleman and devoted student; in respectful acknowledgement of his influence in the lives of men and women in his classes and in deep appreciation of his ideal life as father, teacher, citizen, and Louisianian."

For thirty-three years Professor Williamson has been with the department of biology at Louisiana State Normal College and for forty years he has made a study of the early South and especially of the life of Louisiana Indians, collecting specimens of various types of Indian arrowheads, spears, knives, and pottery, and also rocks and minerals, from which much has been learned of the life of these primitive men. Nor has he stopped with the study of Louisiana alone but extended it to all parts of the United States and into foreign countries, Asia, Europe, Honduras, Turkey, and Japan. Mr. Williamson has presented his collection to the alumni association of the Louisiana State Normal College and this Williamson Museum is now housed in its own permanent room in the science building of the school. In January of this year Louisiana papers carried notices of his recent discovery of a fossil palm tree, the first silicified trunk of this size ever located in that section. It is thought this fossil is 5,000,000 years old.

Open Letter to Pi Phis and Friends:

ARE you perchance, making arrangements to attend the Pi Beta Phi Convention? If so, why not follow it with a trip abroad to take a bird's eye view of several European countries with a minimum of expense and a maximum of fun? I am planning to act as hostess, not chaperon or censor, for a group ready to sail from New York, June 27. I have been a Pi Phi long enough to satisfy the most particular Mother and am modern enough in my contacts to accept the latest 1931 model freshman. I have covered the ground in Europe and am an experienced traveler in this country. If you are interested in what I have to offer, will you write to

OPAL WRIGHT HARVEY Indiana A

Opal Granford Wright was born in LaFayette, Indiana, August 16, 1898, and was graduated from an Indianapolis high school. In 1916, Opal entered Franklin College, where she was initiated into Indiana A of  $\Pi B \Phi$ . She made an excellent scholastic record, and was a chapter officer, president of Panhellenic, class president, member of scientific and dramatic clubs, and associate editor of the Almanac.

After graduation in 1920, she taught in the high school at Hartford City, where she met Bruce Harvey,  $B \Theta \Pi$ , Purdue University, to whom she was married in September, 1921. Two children, Philip and Eleanor, came to complete their home.

MRS. OPAL WRIGHT HARVEY

On December 20, 1930, Opal sustained in an automobile accident, the spinal injury which resulted in her death February 9, 1931. Through seven weeks of intense suffering Opal's every word was of comfort and encouragement for her family, to the last, thinking of others, rather than herself.

Opal was a working church member, interested in club work and a popular social leader. She was devoted to her family, a gracious wife and mother. Her attention to older people, ability to see the best in others, her zest for living, endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. Her character, charm, and tact, made for Opal an unusually large circle of friends, whose lives have been enriched by hers. A delightful companion, a true friend, a loyal Pi Phi has been taken, but a wealth of beautiful memories remain to comfort and inspire us. Though her life was brief in number of years, it was lived beautifully and well.

Indiana A extends deep and sincere sympathy to Opal's family.

MARIAN GILMER ADKINS Virginia A

All of Gamma province was grievously shocked to learn of the tragic death of Marian Gilmer Adkins on March 8, 1930, following an automobile accident near Petersburg, Virginia.

Marian was born in Greensboro,

North Carolina. She attended the Greensboro high school where she was editor-in-chief of the Sage, the school publication. At sixteen years of age she entered Randolph-Macon Woman's College from which she received her B.A. degree in 1924. While in college she held various offices and participated in all phases of college life. Because of her rare beauty and well-deserved popularity she was twice chosen to the May Day court. During her junior year Marian was secretary of her chapter and was sent as its delegate to the Estes Park Convention where she presented the petition of B A  $\Phi$ , now North Carolina of  $\Pi B \Phi$ . In her senior year she was president of her chapter and assisted in the installation of North Carolina A at Chapel Hill.

After finishing college Marian taught English for a year in Pomona High School in Greensboro. The next year she spent in New York City, studying library work. Although temporarily out of the province she was chosen as Gamma Province President at the Bigwin Inn Convention in 1925. In this capacity Marian served her Fraternity most efficiently and faithfully for two years.

On October 2, 1928, she married A. Howard Adkins, a graduate of Virginia Military Institute. She made her home in Washington, D.C., then until the time of her death.

Marian Gilmer Adkins was a girl whose great depth of character was equaled by a rare charm of manner which won her friends wherever she went, for it may be truly said, "but to know her was to love her." To those who knew the privilege of her friendship, her cheery disposition, her radiant smile, and her beautiful character will ever be a cherished memory.

She leaves to mourn her going her husband, her mother, father and brother.  $\Pi B \Phi$  wishes to extend sincerest sympathy to this bereaved family.

LASALIA McCaffrey Appel
Columbia A

It was in the fall of 1915 that Lasalia McCaffrey came down to George Washington University and became a loyal and beloved member of  $\Pi B \Phi$ . Through her four years in college she took a far more active interest in all fraternity and school activities than her nickname, "Lazy," might have implied. She was graduated from Teachers College with a B.A. degree and a teacher's diploma.

For a year she held a position with the United States Board of Vocational Education. On October 4, 1920, Lasalia married Charles Appel, now with the United States Department of Justice. She had two sons: Charles, Jr., born March 2, 1924, and William McCaffrey, born September 22, 1926. After her marriage Lasalia, with her usual enthusiasm and cheerful determination, put all her interest in her home and her children. Due to her husband's position Lasalia lived some of these years away from Washington but the last few years her friends in the Washington alumnae club had rejoiced to know that she was back with them again.

The little every-day circumstances which surround the tragedy of her death make it more real and more tragic. On Saturday, January 31, Lasalia stepped out of a grocery store near her home where she had been doing her weekend marketing. Her arms were full of bundles. Her eyes were on the two little sons, waiting for her in the parked car on the other side of the street. She started across. She was struck and killed instantly by a passing car.

Columbia A and the Washington alumnae club extend to her husband, and the two little boys and to her mother their deepest sympathy in this their great loss which must continually be our loss also.

NINA PHILLIPS
Florida A

Nina Phillips, a charter member of Florida A, passed away in February with acute Bright's disease.

HAZEL ALLEN WELLS
Iowa A

Mrs. Claude Wells died January 29, 1931. She was a wonderful mother, talented, loved by all. Her husband and three children mourn her loss and bless her memory.

MARGARET KIRWIN SHINE
Kentucky A

Mrs. Hill Shine passed away this spring.

ELEANOR JUST KINSEY
Illinois E

Eleanor Just Kinsey, wife of Raymond Warner Kinsey, passed away at her home in Lansing, Michigan, on March 6, 1931, after a day's illness of peritonitis.

Eleanor Just came to the Cumnock School of Oratory, now the Northwestern School of Speech at Evanston, Illinois, after her graduation from Ann Arbor, Michigan, high school. She was initiated into  $\Pi B \Phi$ , October 26, 1903. She graduated in 1905 and spent the following year doing postgraduate work at Northwestern.

Eleanor was a loyal member of  $\Pi B \Phi$ , through the years she has identified herself with the  $\Pi \Phi$  alumnae clubs in the various cities to which Mr. Kinsey's business called him. She has been associated with alumnae groups at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Dayton, Ohio, Grand Rapids, Michigan, and for the past year at Lansing, Michigan.

Those who knew Eleanor Just Kinsey remember her as a vivid, capable personality, a girl of rare ability as a dramatic reader; pretty, witty, and full of charm.

Eleanor was born in Ionia, Michigan, May 9, 1885, and is buried there by the side of her father and mother.

She was married to Raymond W. Kinsey on December 11, 1912, and to him  $\Pi B \Phi$  extends sincere sympathy.

SARA L. WILLIS
Illinois \Delta

Sara L. Willis passed away July 5, 1930.

HELEN CAROLINE WILLARD
GILLET
Illinois \Delta

Helen Caroline Willard Gillet was born and spent the earlier years of her life in Oskaloosa, Iowa. When her family moved to Galesburg, Illinois, she attended Knox Academy and Knox College, graduating from the latter in 1898. Throughout her college course she was a loyal member of  $\Pi B \Phi$ . She excelled in dramatics, and after graduation continued her studies in this line at the Columbia School of Expression in Chicago, where her proficiency was recognized. For several years she taught at Oberlin College and at the State Normal School at Winona, Minnesota. She gave up teaching upon the removal of her parents to New York City, about thirty years ago. Here she pursued further studies at Columbia University, and for a time maintained a studio and was in demand as a reader before women's clubs. During the years of the war, as president of the Women's Club at the Broadway Tabernacle, she did extensive work for the soldiers and sailors. She also interested herself in work with the girls of the High School Student Clubs of the Y.W.C.A. as part of the New York War Camp Community Service. In 1929 she was married to Louis Bliss Gillet of New York City. He is of an old New England family, was formerly professor at Wesleyan University and Amherst College and is now associated with the American Federation of Arts, Washington, D.C. The late Helen Willard Gillet died there Good Friday night, April 3, 1931.

In the funeral tribute at the services in the Broadway Tabernacle in New York City, of which she was a member, the Reverend Russell J. Clinchy emphasized the following characteristics: "Her's was a tolerance not because it was bereft of foundations or certainties or convictions, simply flying from one thing to another, not tolerance because there was nothing to be tolerant about, but a great tolerance of a soul which was founded upon things which she knew were true and real and eternal. . . ." Her's was a tolerant spirit . . . opening up in other lives the realities which lay there, until men and women understood, because of that great heart and soul, that they too had values and meanings, the greatness of which they had never comprehended until they touched the grace of her heart and mind. . . . Both from her beauty of faith and her kindly womanly spirit, she was never so happy as when she could share life with others."

ANITA A. WELCH
Indiana I

Anita A. Welch passed away at the Irene Byron Sanatorium, Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

MADLINE ATWATER NORTON
New York A

Jessie Edwards Rich (Mrs. Charles B.) passed away December 26, 1927.

CARRIE E. RUTLEDGE PARK
Iowa A

Carrie Rutledge Park (Mrs. L. E.) passed away December 3, 1930.

EFFIE SCOTT FRANKLIN
Kansas A

Effie Scott Franklin (Mrs. E. C.), beloved mother of Anna Franklin

Barnett (California A) passed away March 31, 1931.

Friends in Lawrence received word March 31 of the sudden death of Mrs. Edward C. Franklin, wife of Dr. Franklin, formerly a member of the chemistry faculty at the University of Kansas and now head of the chemistry department at Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, California. Mrs. Franklin, whose death occurred Tuesday, had been ill only three days and was not considered to be in a serious condition until a few hours before her death.

A son of the Franklins, who was an aviator, was killed in a wreck about a year ago.

Mrs. Franklin had many friends in Lawrence, where she lived for a number of years. She was a teacher of German in the university previous to her marriage and for a short time afterward, and was prominent in musical circles. She was a member of the  $\Pi B \Phi$  Sorority and was a sister of Charles Scott of Iola.

LUCY WALTON FOGLE
Oklahoma A

Lucy Walton Fogle (Mrs. Hugh) passed away March 23, 1930.

MYRTLE MOSIER BURNETT
Vermont A

Myrtle Mosier Burnett (Mrs. Delbert M.) passed away in West Berkshire, Vermont.

TO MY MOTHER

*My mother, I shall know through you
The deepest meaning of fraternity,
Just as your love has always shown to me
Real values, high ideals to pursue.
Whatsoever things are true and fair,
Lovely, pure as is your arrow's gold,
Honest, sweet as wine carnations hold,
Just—in every way beyond compare:
Mother, in your soul are these things bright,
Your life shows their profound significance,
You are my symbol of fraternity;
I follow now with you as guiding light,
My heart rejoicing in obedience
To standards you have set for me.*

Toast given by Ruth Kewley at the initiation banquet at Swarthmore, February 7, 1931.

James W. Clift, husband of Helen Mac-

Leod has been appointed one of the nine examiners-in-chief of the U. S. Patent Office and a member of the board of appeals of the U. S. Patent Office, the final board under the chairmanship of the commissioner of patents, and consisting of twelve members.

The Hersey Scholarship to Vassar College has been awarded for September, 1932, to Helen Hale, daughter of Helen Evans and Worth Hale, M.D., secretary of the Harvard Medical School.

Mary Isabel Kelly, who has lost both her father and mother this winter, is sailing in May to be with her friend, Faulein Lucie Schwarenka, daughter of the German composer, Xaver Schwarenka, in Berlin, for an indefinite period.

A recently published Little Directory of Columbia A brought acknowledgments from many parts of the globe, from Nelle Jones in Mexico, from Helen Gregg Gerry, in London, from Adele Alford, Margery Hege, and Theodora Henckels Fortier in California and from Florence Knode Webster in Spokane. Elise Bradford Johnson writes interestingly of grandchildren, the children of her Pi Phi daughter. Ruth Pears Skinner has a son and two daughters, and asks Pi Phi's coming west on the Santa Fe to write her at Albuquerque. "Buffy" Schaaf Porter and Mary Schaaf Greear are busy with their households. Edith Bettys Giles and Peggy Browne Mackey live near each other in Rochester, N.Y. Mildred Volandt Thomas has returned from the Philippines and is living in Dayton, Ohio. Frances Bethune Melby's son is in college, and her daughter graduates from high school this year. She is district president of the Music Federation in Western Wisconsin. Adeline Bradburn writes from Ardmore, S.D., that her daughter Mary will be in high school next year, and her two younger children, Betty and John are busy in the grades. Mary Birch's son, Richard, Jr., is a freshman and a  $\Sigma$  X at the University of Pennsylvania this year. Frances Nickel's son, who is getting his Ph.D. at Chicago, is majoring in the history of comparative religions. Almost every letter speaks of membership in an alumnae club, and active service for Pi Phi. But one letter came back for better address, so that District of Columbia A feels that its Directory was a success.

The sympathy of her friends in Michigan B goes to Mary Burns Vary in the loss of her baby.

Alice Callender, who for some time has been the Ann Arbor alumnae club magazine agency representative, has gone to Detroit, Mich., as head of the medical library in the Henry Ford Hospital. The club will miss Alice's loyal support and faithful attendance at meetings.

Jessica Brown has been appointed to fill the position of local magazine agency chairman.

It is with great pleasure that members of the Ann Arbor alumnae club learned that the scholarship given by New York City Panhellenic has been awarded to Katherine Noble, Illinois A, who for the past two years has been chaperon at Michigan B chapter house and a teacher in the Ann Arbor High School. Katherine is also a member of the National Scholarship Committee. She will study for a year at Columbia University. It is with keen regret that we lose her, for under her guidance the girls of the chapter have won and maintained their present high position in campus and national affairs.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ibbotson (Marguerite Ainsworth) will be interested to know that on February 28 they adopted a baby boy, Robert Dean, four months old, from The Cradle, Evanston, Ill.

Martha Downey will arrive in San Francisco April 30 from India, where she has been associated with the Oxford Mission in East Bengal since March, 1927. She will spend the summer months with her sister, Mrs. Alfred H. White (Rebecca Downey) in Ann Arbor, and return to India in October.

Clara Starr, who supervises music in the Detroit schools, is also treasurer of the women's association for the Detroit symphony orchestra.

Mrs. S. C. Stebbins (Marie Winsor) went to Florida the latter part of March.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Andrus (Lucy Huber) will sail on July 17 for a year of study abroad. Peggy Lou, aged 4, and Billy, aged 2, will accompany their parents, as will also Dr. Andrus' mother and father. The greater part of their time will be spent visiting medical centers in Germany and in France. Dr. Andrus will study especially at Strassburg and at Berlin. On their return to the United States the Andrus' will be located in New York City, where Dr. Andrus will become a member of the staff of the New York Hospital and Cornell Medical Association. He goes with Dr. Hoyer from the General Hospital in Cincinnati to the department of surgery of the New York Hospital, Dr. Hoyer to be chief of the department and Dr. Andrus to be his first assistant. The Cincinnati alumna club regrets that they must lose one of their most active members and a past president, but they send with the Andrus' their best wishes for a pleasant trip and for a happy home in the east.

Mrs. Alfred Hayes (Christine Robertson) recognizes Soviet Russia.

Dr. Helen Lee is on the staff of the San Jose Hospital, San Jose, Calif.

NEW YORK BETA—BARNARD COLLEGE

Personals

The New York alumnae club is tremendously thrilled that, in the Panhellenic Club Stamp Week held at Arnold Constables, the Pi Phis came out ahead on the sales. We are especially glad to have done so well as the award of the Panhellenic Club Scholarship for next year has gone to a Pi Phi from Ann Arbor, Katherine Noble. She will study here next winter and how we shall welcome her! Credit for putting over our part in Panhellenic activities for three years has been due to Beatrice L. Ecks, our very able representative on the board of governors.

We wish to express our appreciation of the courtesy of Miss Josephine Shain, Wisconsin A, national director of the Girl Scouts, who permitted us to use her name as patroness for Pi Phi Day.

Maud Klein-Van Nostrand is president of the women's club and of the library association in Floral Park, L.I.

Mary B. Wilson has written a charming new book, New Dreams for Old.

Sophie P. Woodman, who has served as president of the New York alumnae for the past two years, has been asked to take charge of the Settlement School night at convention. She is not president of the Panhellenic club—though she has been asked to accept that honor—and regrets the error in the February ARROW.

Referring back to the Stamp Week—word has just been received that the total sales of the New York City Panhellenic during its Stamp Week at Arnold Constable for the scholarship fund was $13,000. The commission received was ten per cent, or $1,300, for the organization. Pi Beta Phi was responsible for sales totaling $2,400, which is the largest amount ever brought in by a fraternity, and $1,000 more than the sales of the fraternity next in order, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The achievements of individual Pi Phis and the alumnae club for the New York City Panhellenic have been most gratifying this winter and this final success is a matter of great pride with us.

Elizabeth Nitchie was this year appointed professor of English in Goucher College, 1930. Her recent looks are: The Criticism of Literature, Macmillan, 1928, and Master Vergil, Heath, 1930.

PENNSYLVANIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

The Pittsburgh alumnae club wishes to express its sincere regret that Grand Council has deemed it advisable to remove the charter of Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  chapter of the University of Pittsburgh. Pennsylvania  $\Delta$ s have always been loyal, enthusiastic workers in our club, and relations with the active chapter have always been most pleasant. At the March meeting the club voted unanimously to give the chapter its confidence and support in the proposed appeal to convention.

ALPHA PROVINCE

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Chartered, 1908

Pledge Day, November 12, 1930

GRADUATES: Helen Anderson, B.A., 151 Spadina Rd., Toronto; Dorothy Barber, B.A., 61 Russell Hill Rd., Toronto; Hilda Daly, B.A., Napanee, Ont.; Patricia Godfrey, B.A., 72 Lowther Ave., Toronto; Grace Matthews, B.A., 199 Poplar Plains, Toronto; Grace Martin, B.S., 123 Blythwood Rd., Toronto; and Mary Trainor, B.S., 4 Shorncliffe, Toronto.

The rushing captain for next fall is Mary Ripley, 20 Cottage Ave., Hamilton, Ontario.

Of the outstanding offices on the campus this year Grace Martin acted as household science representative on the students' administrative council, Patricia Godfrey was vice president of both the players' guild and the literary society, while Mary Trainor was household science representative for the Toronto Nensis. During recent elections of officers for next fall Mary McLean was elected secretary for fourth year arts.

On the first Friday in March, a most successful formal was held in the Alexander Room of the King Edward Hotel. This marks the last of the outstanding fraternity functions before final examinations. Although among the minor activities was a subscription bridge on March 21, at which each active member was made responsible for one table. To cut expenses five of the actives acted as bridge hostesses for the afternoon and six tables were allotted to each home. A donation to the Loan Fund was voted from the proceeds.

The rushing rules for next fall on the principle of preferential bidding have been drawn up by local Panhellenic, and due to the influence of local fraternity alumnae the system of rushing has been greatly simplified.

The dean of women entertained at a tea on March 30 to discuss plans for the traditional senior-freshman house party which is held at the opening of each college year. It will be a particularly enjoyable event this year as it will formally open the new Women's Residence to the college activities of the ensuing year.

A very interesting plan which Ontario A has employed to encourage scholarship is a chart drawn up each week by the chairman of the scholarship committee. A percentage for the study hours of each class year is averaged, showing a rise or fall for that particular year on the chart. This provides enthusiastic competition among the different years and has helped to raise the scholarship standard.

MARGARET MCFARLANE

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Chartered, 1920

Pledge Day, February 17, 1931

INITIATED: Emily Lyon, '34, Bangor, Me.; Barbara Edes, '34, Dexter, Me.; and Ruth Clark, '32, Castine, Me.

The members of Maine A recently enjoyed a short visit from Alpha Province President, Mrs. Campbell. During her visit a delightful tea was served at the  $\Pi \Phi$  cabin. On the morning of her departure a pajama breakfast and bridge in Balentine Hall was held as a farewell get-together. Mrs. Campbell's visit was very helpful and inspiring to Maine A and its pledges.

An incident of unusual interest to all students and alumni of the University of Maine was the loss of the  $A T \Omega$  house by fire on March 10. The house had been occupied by the fraternity for nearly fifty years. Fortunately it was covered by insurance and the occupants did not suffer any injuries. Plans are under way for a new house to be erected this summer on the lot between the  $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$  house and the  $\Phi K \Sigma$  house.

The home economics department has been informed by the national secretary of O M, a national honorary society for majors in home economics, that its petition for a local charter has been favorably acted upon. This acquisition in the home economics department is especially important because it offers for the first time equal opportunity for scholastic recognition with students in other departments of the university.

A cooky-shine was held in the  $\Pi \Phi$  cabin for the new pledges. The party was very impressive and enjoyable. A pledge dance in the form of a St. Patrick's party took place in Oldtown on March 13, with a number of alumnae attending. Everyone present was dressed in attractive costumes appropriate for the occasion. Plans are now being made for a formal dinner dance to be held on June 4 at the Dorothy Memorial Hall in Bangor. As it has been possible to change the customary time for this much anticipated event Maine A is looking forward with more enthusiasm than ever.

A number of Pi Phis have been elected to important campus offices. Margaret Davis was chosen treasurer of Y.W.C.A. and Marjorie Moulton was elected vice president of W.A.A. and has been nominated for vice president of W.S.G.A. In the dormitories Margaret Davis was elected treasurer of Balentine Hall, Ethel Thomas was elected vice president of Balentine Hall, and Doris Osgood was elected president of Colvin Hall. Emily Lyon, an outstanding pledge, was elected secretary of the freshman class. Mary Galaher was elected a member of the commencement ball committee.

One of the chapter's outstanding English majors is Lyndell Smith, who came out one of the seven highest in the English major examinations. Ethel Thomas has been very busy with debating, and she was chosen to make a debating trip to Boston, Springfield, and Providence. Abbie Sargent is a member of Spanish club and is to take part in one of the plays to be presented by El Circulo Español on Spanish Night. Anna Buck has been initiated into  $\Phi \Sigma$ , the honorary biological organization. Maine A had on the dean's list for the fall semester: Marjorie Moulton, Erma Barton, Margaret Davis, Charlotte Cleaves, Ethel Saunders, and Doris Hutchinson.

In basketball Marjorie Moulton was a member of the varsity and captain of a group team. Rachel Gilbert was also captain of a group team and a number of Pi Phis were out for the teams. With the opening of the volleyball season Rachel and Marjorie were chosen captains of two volleyball group teams.

Hazel Sparrow leads with the highest score in riflery. Doris Hutchinson, Janet Young, and Erma Barton are on the varsity rifle squad.

INITIATED, February 20, 1931: Mary Carrick, '34, 68 Chester St., Newton Highlands, Mass.; Thelma Croft, '34, 26 High St., Middlebury, Vt.; Dorothy Crowe, '34, 41 Spring St., St. Johnsbury, Vt.; and Elizabeth Fernald, '34, 109 Oaktree Pl., Leonia, N.J.

GRADUATES: Lucy Booth, B.S., Park Ave., Vergennes; Alice Hagen, B.A., 34 Park Rd., Maplewood, N.J.; Mary Hough, B.A., 193 Main St., Ingham, Mass.; Prudence

Ingham, B.S., Main St., Vergennes; Barbara Joy, B.A., 4 Pine St., Proctor; Ellen Kellogg, B.A., Main St., Vergennes; Gwendolyn Mason, B.A., Proctor; Elizabeth Moyle, B.A., Wilford Rd., Indian Neck, Branford, Conn.; and Marian Tolles, B.A., 17 Orchard St., Terryville, Conn.

Vermont A was very happy to have Mrs. Campbell, Alpha Province President, with them for a short visit on March 27 and 28. On March 28 the chapter gave a cooky-shine.

Ellen Kellogg has won more honor for herself and the chapter in being named the recipient of the Dutton Fellowship which will enable her to study one year abroad. She plans to spend the coming year in Paris. The Dutton Fellowship is the highest honor attainable in the college. It is awarded to the senior man and the senior woman who are most outstanding in scholarship, personality, and sportsmanship.

The chapter is well represented on publication staffs with Ruth Nodding and Mary Duryee elected to the Campus staff, the college weekly, and Frances Davis, the associate business editor of the 1933 Kaleidoscope.

Mary Omwake represents  $\Pi \Phi$  on the mountain club committee, a newly formed organization.

On Palm Sunday a cantata, The Seven Last Words of Christ, was given in Sunday chapel by the choir and members from the men's and women's glee clubs. It was one of the most impressive productions of the current year.

Lucy Booth and Sally Harnden represented Vermont A at the initiation and banquet of Vermont B, held March 25, in Burlington.

The annual formal dance was a dinner dance this year and was held at the Middlebury Inn on April 18.

The chapter is pleased to announce the pledging of three members of the freshman class: Helen Bachelder, of Manchester Center, and Winifred Bland and Dorothy Wunner, both of Rutherford, N.J.

The rush chairman for next year is Mary Duryee, 7714 Eastlake Terr., Chicago.

INITIATED, March 25, 1931: Barbara Belcher, '34, Maplewood, N.J.; Mary Bennett, '34, Springfield; Helen Cook, '34, Bennington; Alice Gunn, '34, Turners Falls, Mass.; Dorothy Harwood, '34, Rupert; and Harriette Willard, '34, Hartford, Conn.

GRADUATES: Marjorie Bracken, Ph.D., Woodside, N.Y.; Jane Corwin, Ph.D., Brooklyn, N.Y.; Barbara Douglass, Ph.D., Winchester, N.H.; Frances French, B.S., Proctor; Cynthia Lynch, Ph.D., Brookline, Mass.; Frances McKean, Ph.D., Montclair, N.J.; Ruth Small, B.S., Brooklyn, N.Y.; Margaret Stanley, Ph.B., Waterbury; and Harriet Wright, B.S., Essex Junction.

The chairman of rushing is Marjorie A. Bracken, Woodside, N.Y.

Mrs. Andrew H. Campbell, Alpha Province President, visited the chapter on March 25 and 26. She was present at initiation and for the banquet which was held at the Hotel Vermont Roof Garden in the evening. Charlotte Brown, the former Province President, was toastmistress and toasts were given by Harriette Willard, Marion Kiel, Verna Carrier, and Ruth Small. Mrs. Campbell also gave an interesting talk.

As a result of the student union elections which were held on March 26 and 27, two Pi Phi's received important positions. Olive Fields is the new chief justice. She was chairman of the student union committee last year, belongs to the press club, dramatic club, of which she was secretary last year, is junior class vice president and representative on the student conference committee. She was a member of the freshman house committee and class basketball team, sophomore volleyball team, and has served on football hop, basketball hop, and will serve on the junior week prom committee.

Priscilla Perry is a member of Blue-stockings, dramatic club, women's cynic board, health council, sophomore hockey team, has been in the university choir, women's glee club and orchestra for two years, and is now assistant manager of women's debate.

A proposed women's dormitory, unprecedented in beauty and capacity, has been described by President Bailey and is hoped to be ready for occupancy in 1932. The new dormitory will cost $300,000. It will rise to four stories and will contain one hundred single rooms, a large reception hall on the first floor, dining halls, and coat rooms; it will be absolutely fireproof. The construction of the building has been worked out by the architects who planned the Fleming Museum.

Norma Freeman was chairman of the spring formal which was held at the Burlington Country Club on April 17.

Isobel Torrens, '33, leads the Fraternity at present with an average of 92, while Ruth Small, '31, is a close second.

INITIATED, March 7, 1931: Helene Barton, 334 Bay State Rd., Boston; Janet Brown, 106 Suffolk Rd., Chestnut Hill; Lois Harper, 334 Bay State Rd., Boston; Beth Hoffman, 206 Pine St., Lowell; Dorothy Hunter, 247 Albemarle St., Newtonville; Eleanor Johnson, 334 Bay State Rd., Boston; Virginia Magness, 304 Beacon St., Boston; Alline Phelps, 127 Oakdale Ave., Dedham; and Vera Victoreen, 334 Bay State Rd., Boston.

Massachusetts A held its initiation and banquet at the Woman's Republican Club.

From February 16 to 19 the chapter was very glad to welcome Mrs. Campbell, Alpha Province President. Her helpful suggestions were very much appreciated.

On February 27 the chapter held a very successful informal dance. This year the spring formal was a dinner dance held at the Westminster Hotel.

Beth Hoffman represents  $\Pi \Phi$  on the board of the Beacon, the literary magazine of Boston University. Vera Victoreen is the only girl desk editor of the University News.

Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. are going to have a faculty-student stunt night, on May 6. This is something new at B.U. Eileen Brown and Elizabeth Glover are on the committee.

On March 13 Boston University celebrated Founders' Day at Tremont Temple. The faculty was present in academic procession and practically all the students from every department were present.

Eileen Brown was on the committee for sophomore hop. Doris Kothe, Eileen Brown, Marjorie Dickinson, and Eleanor Johnson took part in the gym meet. Doris was captain of the sophomore group. Alline Phelps plays the viola in the university orchestra; Margaret Eden sings in the glee club; Cynthia Darling, Margaret Eden, and Marjorie Dickinson are in the university chorus; and Marjorie Dickinson and Margaret Eden sing in the college choir.

INITIATED, February 28, 1931: Elizabeth Broad, '34, Jamesville; Irene Burrell, '34, Syracuse; Doris Cumings, '34, Oneida; Eldora Dolbear, '34, Syracuse; Dorothy Henderson, '34, Haddonfield, N.J.; Eleanor Howard, '34, Syracuse; Hazel Ingalls, '34, Plattsburg; Ruth Knetzer, '34, Woodhaven; Margaret Loop, '34, Westfield, N.J.; Rhea Nicholson, '34, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Dorothy Richards, '34, Westfield, N.J.; Margaret Unger, '33, Fort Washington, Pa.; Elizabeth Vincent, '34, Syracuse; and Vivian Whyte, '34, Syracuse.

GRADUATES: Rozella Boyd, 215 Euclid Ave., Syracuse; Clara Brown, 2401 S. State St., Syracuse; Sara Craig, Jasper; Marylee Tiedemann, Tenafly, N.J.; and Eloise Vines, 134 Hastings Pl., Syracuse.

Officers for many of the university organizations have been elected for the coming year. Adelaide Cornell is the new treasurer of Y.W.C.A.; Marian Wilner is chairman of the national committee of University Women's Council; Ruth Hobler is the president of Σ A I, national honorary musical fraternity; Janet Dunbar is secretary of Z Φ H, national oratory fraternity; Clara Brown has been chosen for senior honorary recital; Margaret Loop and Dorothy Richards are assistant associate editors of the Daily Orange, the university newspaper.

The Syracuse-Andean expedition to South America is being sponsored by the university. The expedition is under the direction of Prof. Parke Struthers, of the zoology department. The scientists who left here December 31 expect to return before May 15 with many interesting discoveries and specimens from South America.

Last year's rushing rules have been revised, changing the period from two weeks to ten days. During this time five parties will be given and no personal rushing will be done except at the dinner dates which will be held at the chapter house. Next year's rushing chairman is Vance Sullivan, 215 Euclid Ave., Syracuse, N.Y.

The chapter is proud of the pledge class which made an average of 1.36, the second highest on the campus for the semester ending in February.

The rushing chairman for the coming year is Elisabeth Dewhirst, Middleport, N.Y.

The initiatory banquet was held on February 28 and as is the custom of this chapter the initiates wore costumes. This year they represented small children, dressed in checked gingham rompers, short socks and sport oxfords, and wearing big hair ribbons. The background was a nursery scene and each child carried her pet doll. The usual cook-shine was held after the first chapter meeting after initiation.

On March 21 New York Γ held its second informal house party of the year. This was an informal and the only decorations were colored flood lights in each room.

Jean Woodcock made debate this year and was selected to go on the debate trip to New Rochelle and Syracuse. Elizabeth Wagoner has been chosen assistant manager for the girls' varsity basketball team for the coming year.

The chapel choir and the glee club of the university sponsored a sunrise service on Palm Sunday. There were eleven girls from this chapter taking part in the service and Elizabeth Wagoner was one of the soloists.

Elisabeth Dewhirst has been elected as convention delegate. However, at least ten other New York Γ girls are planning to attend convention.

"Davy" Hoy, university registrar for many years, passed on just before second term and left Cornellians dazed; he had been so much a part of Cornell and of each student's life here that it was hard to readjust. Later, and within a week of each other, Dean Fish and Dean Emeritus Moore of the veterinary college died.

The spring formal on March 21 was a great success, especially with the new punch bowl doing duty, not to mention the fact that the marriage of one of the juniors (Marjorie Davis to Howard Jennings) was announced during the dance.

Marian Lasher was elected to the board of the Cornell Countryman.

The lunch room project during Farm and Home Week earned $100 under the able management of Dorothy Foley. The proceeds will be used as a scholarship for the most worthy junior in home economics.

Ellen Kuney, president of the home economics club, attended the convention of the New York State Home Economics Association at Syracuse on April 17 and 18, where she was one of the principal speakers at the student banquet. Immediately following Easter recess the club conducted a drought relief drive.

Miss Virginia Thomas, the chaperon who is a Randolph-Macon II  $\Phi$ , has been elected to  $\Phi$  B K. Elizabeth Chadwick was elected to X T, women's honorary geological society.

On the freshman fencing team II  $\Phi$  is represented by Priscilla Holcombe.

At the last women's mass meeting two of the girls received special athletic awards: Virginia Urban her bar (for 1,000 points), and she and Tina Olsen the blazer (for 1,200 points, the highest honor).

The chapter has been steadily doing some rushing with Harriett Davidson as chairman. She will be chairman next year, too, and will live at the house, 114 Kelvin Place.

Pledge Day, October 12, 1930

Loretta Mercer is chairman of the Mothers' Day tea for this year, an event which is always enjoyed by both parents and students.

Preparations are also being made for the annual Founders' Day banquet. Though this is always a solemn occasion, it is a time for renewing friendships with alumnae who return to celebrate with the actives.

Marian Pierce is dance chairman for the spring formal which is to be held at the Wilmington Country Club in Delaware. On May 2 Pennsylvania A will canoe up the Rancocas Creek in New Jersey and will hold its annual picnic. No one ever wants to miss this outing.

A new practice of holding teas in the lodge every Monday afternoon from four until six, meets with the approval of all. The hostesses volunteer, and this makes it possible to have one more get-together every week. Other fraternity girls are always welcome and many attend, thus promoting interfraternity friendliness.

Nancy Harvey, 6 College Ave., Swarthmore, has been appointed rushing chairman for next year. Katherine Hibbert, of Wallingford, is to act as her assistant. Incidentally, there is some agitation on campus for second year bidding instead of first semester rushing as it now exists. The outcome remains to be seen.

Anna Kurtz was elected to Mortar Board, and Anne Mode was elected to membership in Gwimp.

Sunday evening vesper services have been instituted as a new feature by the college administration. These services are characterized by organ programs, vocal selections, piano recitals, and inspirational talks. They are well attended both by college students and townspeople.

Student government rules have been entirely revised and brought up to date. Students may now remain out until twelve-thirty any night without asking permission, provided they register in the student government book.

Meals are now served with radio music, and the administration is about to install freedom of choice in menus.

INITIATED, March 14, 1931: Lillian Wilson, '33, 5432 Baywood St., Pittsburgh; and Eleanor Jacobs, '33, 615 Hampton Ave., Pittsburgh.

Pennsylvania B held an informal benefit dance on March 14 in the living room of Larison Hall. The proceeds of this dance were sent to the Settlement School.

The alumnae advisory board of Pennsylvania B sponsored a bridge party on April 28 in the drawing room of Hunt Hall. The purpose of this party was to raise money to send one of the active members to convention. The girl who will receive this reward is the one who shows the most improvement in this semester's grades over last semester's. By this means the scholarship of the entire active chapter will be improved.

Bessie Snyder played the leading part in Craig's Wife, a play given by Cap and Dagger on March 12, in the high school auditorium. Edna Cleckner also played an important part.

Pennsylvania B had the plaque which is awarded the women's interfraternity basketball champions for three years. II B  $\Phi$  has won the three games that she has played.

The chapter is expecting to have about fifteen members attend convention this year.

INITIATED, February 11, 1931: Corelli Batten, '33, Hatboro; Doris Brandt, '33, Mechanicsburg; Lois Green, '33, Carlisle; and Christina Meredith, '34, Carlisle.

GRADUATES: Margaret Handshaw, B.A., Harrisburg; Eleanor Lehman, B.A., Newville; Adelaide Markley, B.A., Harrisburg; and Madeline McCrone, B.A., Aldan.

The close of the first semester of the year found Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  in the lead in scholarship, a long hoped for position. The chapter had an average higher than any other organization on the campus.

With the start of the new semester, social events came into full swing, and the dances have been many and varied. Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  held an informal dance on February 28 at the  $\Phi K \Psi$  house.

The beginning of March marked the end of one of the most successful basketball seasons which the college had ever seen. With a record of only two losses it has been said that the team is the unofficial champion of Pennsylvania.

The junior prom was an important event of the year and a delightful one indeed.

When the elections for the Dickinsonian board were held, Esther Chambers was elected editor-in-chief. It is the first time in fifteen or sixteen years that this position has been held by a girl. Emma Shawfield also has a position on the reportorial staff of the same publication.

Primary elections have been held for the women's student offices for next year. Aline Callahan has been nominated for president of W.S.G.A. and Emma Shawfield for treasurer. Isabel Super has been nominated for chairman of the music committee, and Priscilla McConnell for secretary of the Y.W.C.A., while Mary Grove was unanimously elected president of the Y.W.C.A. for next year.

In March the chapter gave a tea for the patronesses at the rooms in honor of Mrs. Masland, a new patroness.

Isabel Super has won a part in Tommy, a play to be given by the Dickinson players.

All the students of Dickinson are deeply mourning the death of the president, Mervin G. Filler. He died several days ago, after spending his whole life in service to the college. His daughters are both Pi Phi's, and his sister is National Historian. It is with a great deal of sorrow that the chapter sees the passing of so fine a man.

The rushing chairman for next year is Elizabeth Clarke, Carlisle.

GRADUATES: Martha Stewart, B.S., 15 N. College St., Athens; Susan Porterfield, B.M., S. Gill St., State College, Pa.; and Betty Wilson, B.S., Yankee Rd., Middletown.

Ohio A is pleased to announce the pledging of Mary Louise Berendt, Portsmouth; Ruth Prickman, Canton; and Helen Schaefer, Pomeroy.

The rushing captain is Mary Ellen Wood, 22 W. Washington, Athens.

The past month has been a busy one for Ohio A. Mothers' Day was celebrated at Ohio University on March 22, and many mothers were entertained. The Pi Phi's honored their mothers with a dinner at the chapter house. The color scheme which was effectively carried out in decorations and table appointments was of green and white, the university colors, and each mother was presented with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and roses. The annual skit show was given on this same week-end. Many of the girls took part in this production, while Aline Wills, Martha Frederick, and Mary Elizabeth Kessenger were on the committee in charge.

On March 27, Ohio A entertained with a unique informal dance at the Varsity Inn. The hall was decorated to resemble a gambling house, and the programs were made of playing cards.

Many honors have been won on the campus, the latest being debate laurels won by Helen Louise Cline, who not only is a member of the varsity debate team but is a member of the honorary forensic women's fraternity. Betty Wilson, who by the way is president of  $\Delta \Phi \Delta$ , honorary art fraternity, recently won first national prize for a piece of work which she submitted in a contest with  $\Delta \Phi \Delta$  members from all over the states.

The largest social event of the year, the junior prom, took place on Friday night, April 10, with Dorothy Roe leading the grand march.

Ohio A had a pleasant visit with Mrs. Reding Putnam during her official visit here on April 20 and 21.

Main St., Col-umbus; and Charlotte Worrell, B.A., 1462 Pennsylvania Ave., Columbus.

A new natatorium and field house is being built on the campus of Ohio State University. The botany and zoology building is being improved and enlarged.

Ohio B is very well represented this year in campus activities. Four girls have been appointed on senior committees: Dorothy Dillon on the senior class day committee; Jean Bostwick on the senior dress commit-tee; Marian Riggs on the senior memorial committee; and Dorothy Russell on the com-mencement day committee.

Among the outstanding juniors is Vir-ginia Denbrock, who has been elected vice president of Panhellenic on the campus.

On the Y.W.C.A. senior cabinet Mildred Marquardt is chairman of appreciation hour committee; Jean Blake is chairman of the fireside sessions, and Emily Young is chair-man of the industrial committee.

Ellen Wiley has been elected sophomore representative of W.S.G.A. for next year.

One of the sophomores, Pauline Hender-shott, made a straight A average during the winter quarter. Harriet Metzger, a pledge, has received an invitation to the scholarship banquet for outstanding fresh-men.

In dramatics Ohio B is also well repre-sented. Marjorie Dressell had one of the leading rôles in Strollers' play for the winter quarter, and also has a rôle in their next play to be given this quarter. Lucille Caudill had the lead in an operetta given by the Hillel Players, another dramatic or-ganization. In the Browning dramatic so-ciety's spring play, The Merry Wives of Windsor, Charlotte Worrell will play Fal-staff, the leading rôle. Sybil Dally and Dor-othy Jane Snashall also have parts in this production.

This year the active chapter has kept in close touch with the alumnae chapter by send-ing two seniors to the alumnae meeting each month to take news of the actives to the alumnae and bring back their news to the chapter.

The spring party will be a formal dinner dance at the Brookside Country Club on Friday, May 8.

At each of the three class dances of Ohio State University a  $\Pi \Phi$  has been the maid of honor, Rosalie Moore, a pledge, at the sophomore dance, Virginia Bond at the junior prom, and Dorothy Delzcamp at the senior prom.

Ohio B has received news of other chap-ters from Marian Riggs, who during spring vacation visited Virginia  $\Gamma$ , and from Sybil Dally, who attended the spring party of Illinois B  $\Delta$ .

Sybil Dally, 1371 Highland Ave., Colum-bus, has been appointed rushing chairman for the coming year. MARY E. COOK INITIATED, March 21, 1931: Mary Fran-ces Adams, '32, Highland; Ruth Bettles, '34, 104 Ave. B N.E., Winter, Fla.; Barbara Dove, '34, 2112 N. Broadway, Shelbyville, Ill.; Catherine Johns, '33, 366 Emerson Pl., Youngstown; Harriet Greenwood, '34, 156 Overhill Rd., Youngstown; Jane Lowe, 255 Shenandoah Ter., Portland, Ore.; Geneva Moyer, '33, 821 9th St. S.W., Massillon; Margaret Pardee, '34, 4133 Southern Blvd., Youngstown; and Lois Wilson, '31, 3825 Windom Pl., Washington, D.C.

Ohio  $\Delta$  held initiation on Saturday, March 21. Following the ceremony, a formal ban-quet was given in honor of the new actives. At the banquet, Harriet Greenwood, who had been selected by the chapter as its model pledge, was presented with the recog-nition arrow for this year. Several of Ohio  $\Delta$ 's alumnae returned for the occasion.

On Friday evening, March 13, the pledges entertained the actives with an informal ban-quet. During the evening they presented a short play on the history of  $\Pi \Phi$ . As a gift to the chapter, they are furnishing and decorating a new dressing room for the fraternity rooms.

Panhellenic held its annual formal dance on Saturday evening, March 28. Florence Hodge was appointed to serve on the dance committee. Marjorie Milligan has recently been elected to the office of treasurer of the League of Women Voters. Dorothy Kep-ner has been honored by election to  $\chi \Gamma \eta$ , national honorary chemistry fraternity. Mar-ion Orth had a part in the play Holiday which was presented by the Wesleyan play-ers. Mary Long, Martha Jane O'Neil, and Betty Coultrap took part in the fun fest sponsored by Wesleyan players.

Stuyvesant Hall, the new dormitory for freshman women, is nearing completion. Miss Lois Harbage, an alumna of Ohio Wesleyan and a member of  $K \Lambda \Theta$ , is to be in charge of the new hall.

The faculty of Ohio Wesleyan has recently taken action on second year rushing for all women's fraternities. The new ruling was passed in favor of second year rushing, and will go into effect with the opening of the fall term of 1931-32. It was passed with the idea of creating a more normal atmosphere for all freshman women.

Margaret Amrine has been chosen by Ohio  $\Delta$  to represent them at convention.

GRADUATES: Bonita Blair, B.A., 209 S. Walnut St., Morgantown; Dorothy Brand, B.A., 438 Park St., Morgantown; Irma Ayers, B.S.H.E., Box 55, Grantsville; Johnnie Cooke, B.A., 1009 Second Ave., Charleston; Jean Crile, B.A., 268 Carr Ave., Clarksburg; Lucille Fox, B.A., Box 111, Sutton; Bertha Handlan, B.A., 91 Lynwood Ave., Wheeling; Virginia Miller, B.A., Woodsdale, Wheeling; Jean Rogers, B.A., Monongah; Eleanor Stone, B.A., 208 Maple Ave., Morgantown; Anna Mary Tropf, B.A., 328 Cobun Ave., Morgantown; Elizabeth Weidner, B.A., Lumberport; and Ruth Wycoff, B.A., 320 Walnut Ave., Fairmont.

The initiation ceremonies held on March 28 were followed by a formal banquet in the Hotel Morgan. Covers were placed for about fifty guests, including a number of out-of-town alumnae.

As a result of second semester rushing the following girls were pledged: Kathleen Berthey, '34, Cowan; Margaret Wilson, '34, Wellsburg; Virginia Gibson, '33, Kingwood; and Katherine Roach, '34, Washington, D.C. A buffet dinner was given at the chapter house following pledging.

Mrs. Harry Bissell, Beta Province President, paid her official visit to the chapter on March 11-12. More than 130 guests were invited to attend a tea given in her honor at the chapter house.

Mathilde Withers, Ruth Wycoff, and Gonell Danielson presented a play entitled Up Little Pigeon at a recent meeting of the Morgantown alumnae club.

In the spring elections which were recently held a number of Pi Phi's received important offices for next year. Betty Carson was named treasurer of W.S.G.A. and corresponding secretary of  $\Phi X \Delta$ , national Presbyterian group. Phyllis Buck was elected treasurer of W.A.A. Virginia Kelly was named baseball manager of W.A.A., historian of  $\Phi X \Delta$ , and was chosen as a member of the new Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Mary Ellen Weightman was also elected to the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Margaret Wilbourn and Mary Ellen Weightman will represent the chapter in Panhellenic next year. Bonita Blair is president of  $\Phi E \Phi$ , honorary botanical fraternity and is social chairman of  $K \Phi$ , national Methodist group. Mary Ellen Weightman and Eleanor Stone were initiated into  $B \Pi \Theta$ , national honorary French organization.

Phyllis Buck, Mary Ellen Weightman, Jean Crile, and Eleanor Stone were among the six students elected to English club. Anna Mary Tropf is secretary of the dramatic club. Elizabeth Edwards and Regina Cochran were in charge of booths at the Mardi Gras, which is sponsored annually by the Y.W.C.A. Bertha Handlan, president of W.A.A., represented the university at the W.A.A. convention held in Syracuse, N.Y.

Members of West Virginia  $\Delta$  entertained with a formal dance at the Hotel Morgan on April 10. The Morgantown alumnae club gave a benefit bridge party for the Settlement School at the chapter house on April 16.

Mortar Board, of which Irma Ayers is president and Bertha Handlan is a member, has recently started a cooperative cottage fund for the benefit of girls who wish to work their way through college.

Eight members of the chapter were among the sixty students listed by the dean of the college of arts and sciences on the honor roll for the first semester. These were Betty Carson, Bertha Handlan, Betty Edwards, Virginia Miller, Jean Orton, Mary Ellen Weightman, Margaret Wilbourn, and Eleanor Stone.

Annette Wiley will be rushing chairman next fall. Her summer address is 2436 Kanawha St., Charleston. Her address at the beginning of college next year will be 445 Spruce St., Morgantown.

Pledge Day, Indefinite

INITIATED, March 9, 1931: Madeleine Bowler, '34, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Jane Coffin, '32, Uniontown, Pa.; Mary Ellen Hermetet, '32, Macomb, Ill.; Mary Frances Nichol, '34, Emsworth, Pa.; Louise Oglesby, '33, Lewisville, Ark.; Charlotte Parker, '34, Washington, D.C.; Sarah Jane Reed, '34, St. Thomas, V.I.; Helen Townsend, '33, Great Bend, Kan.; and Jane Woodward, '34, Kane, Pa.

GRADUATES: Sally Cobau, B.A., 325 Lincoln Ave., New Castle, Pa.; Katherine Flagg, B.A., Bradley Blvd., Meridan, Conn.; Mary Margaret Gordon, B.A., 342 E. North St., Marshall, Mo.; Dorothy M. Greig, B.A., 22 Clifton Blvd., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Martha Lindstedt, B.A., 703 E. Carroll St., Macomb, Ill.; and Sophy Perry, B.A., 409 W. Third St., Sterling, Ill.

The chapter announces the pledging of Jane Delevett, Baltimore.

February was indeed a full month for Maryland A. On February 12 the alumnae entertained the chapter at a roller skating party. This was followed by refreshments at Alumnae Lodge. The following Sunday the alumnae gave a tea at the Tottles' home for the juniors and freshmen. Mrs. Brown, Director of Central Office and an alumna of Maryland A, was present at the tea. Her visit to the chapter was a most fruitful and inspiring one. On February 18 the benefit bridge party was held in Alumnae Lodge, the proceeds of which were sent to Settlement School.

The annual Panhellenic dance was given in the Maryland Casualty ballroom. Dr. and Mrs. TeLinde acted as chaperons for  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

Of the twenty-two students elected to  $\Phi B K$ , an unusually small number were fraternity women. The Also-Rans, who must combine activities with scholarship honors, after the announcement of the  $\Phi B K$  elections, made a proud exit bearing huge keys and their class colors in the form of four leaf clovers. Four Pi Phis were among this number: Katherine Flagg, Martha Lindstedt, Mary Margaret Gordon, and Dolly Greig.

The new dramatic organization made its bow on March 6 and 7 in its initial presentation, Eugene O'Neill's Marco Millions. Martha Lindstedt took part in the production and Dorothy Kelley was publicity manager.

In the ranking of the fraternities on the campus  $\Pi \Phi$  maintained fourth place. The scholarship chairman, Jane Margaret Ream, has worked out a system of charts which shows the relative scholarship of actives and pledges. The scholarship ring was awarded to Dolly Greig.

The Goucher debating team again triumphed over the Princeton debaters. The Goucher team upheld the affirmative: Resolved, that chain stores are a detriment to the welfare of the United States. The Goucher debating record is as yet unbroken. It is interesting to note that the Goucher debaters in the bout with the Tigers were members of the freshman class.

Founders' Day was celebrated in Baltimore this year. District of Columbia A was the guest of Maryland A at a luncheon at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Many members of the chapter are anticipating the convention at Ashbury Park. The convention delegate is Dorothy Kelley, and the alternate Mary May Keith.

Pledge Day, December 1, 1930

GRADUATES: Mae Harris Clark, B.A., Hyattsville, Md.; Wilhelmina Gude, B.A., Winterburne Farm, Laurel, Md.; Mary Hudson, B.A., 2006 Columbia Rd.; Maude Hudson, B.A., 2310 Ashmead Pl.; Myrtila McGraw, B.A., 1650 Lamont St., Jeanne Miles, B.A., 3907 Jocelyn St., and Lorene Nelson, B.A., 761 Quebec St., all of Washington, D.C.

To further good scholarship in the fraternity a study hall plan has been adopted in which actives with high grades act as librarians in the college library. The pledges and girls with low scholarship are required to study every day for an hour and a half and report to the girl on duty upon their arrival and departure.

About forty alumnae attended the cooky-shine given March 26 for those who had once been active in Columbia A. It was a most interesting for the actives to meet those who had particular interest in this chapter. Entertainment was provided.

At present a nucleus has been formed to foster the installation of a chapter of  $\Phi B K$  in George Washington University. Now that the university is on the accredited list of the American Association of Universities, it is hoped that this added honor may be attained.

President Marvin has had an honorary degree conferred upon him by the University of Mexico.

The actives have been winning honors. Maude Hudson is now president of the student council. This is a difficult position to fulfill, for the council is still in its infancy.  $\Sigma \Pi \Phi$ , a national honorary fraternity for women in various studies of speech arts, has invited Louise Berryman, Maude Hudson, and Wilhelmina Gude to become charter members in a chapter which is to be installed soon. At George Washington University Mildred Burnham has founded  $\Phi$  II E, the first foreign service women's fraternity in the United States. Hour Glass, which is petitioning Mortar Board, has as its president Mary Hudson, and as new pledges Maude Hudson, Wilhelmina Gude, and Mildred Burnham.

Louise Berryman is the convention delegate. Louise was pledge instructor and is therefore well equipped to contribute to the discussion of pledge training which is the topic of Gamma province.

The usual Easter Monday tea dance was given for the benefit of the Loan Fund and the Endowment Fund.

-Pledge Day, February 28, 1931

Virginia A announces the pledging of the following girls: Elizabeth Ballenger, Spartanburg, S.C.; Florence Black, Louisville, Ky.; Georgette Oliver Black, DeWitt, Ark.; Bettie Brainerd, Washington, D.C.; Eleanor Cranfill, Dallas, Tex.; Helen Gatewood, Mt. Sterling, Ky.; Anna Catherine Hawkins, Danville, Ill.; Lida Lea, Wichita Falls, Tex.; Betsy Lee, Wichita Falls, Tex.; Catherine Moomaw, Roanoke; Isabel Rowell, El Dorado, Ark.; Frances Taliaferro, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Marian Timmins, El Dorado, Ark.; Editha Williams, Comanche, Tex.; Elizabeth Wilson, Louisville, Ky.; and Virginia Perry, Memphis, Tenn. Carolyn Gore is the pledge supervisor.

The sophomore class presented their play, Kahmadi, on February 14. Frances Richardson and Jane Brainerd had parts in it, and Jane Jones was on the committee who wrote the play.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College celebrated its seventeenth annual observance of Founders' Day on March 12. President Frank LeGrand McVey, of the University of Kentucky, was the speaker for the occasion.

Even Day, March 14, and Odd Day, April 1, are annual celebrations of the Even and Odd classes.  $\Pi$   $\Phi$  pledges were active in working out the scheme for Even Day, which was Virgil's Aeneid. The Odd Day scheme was Famous Odd Women in History. Page Peck had charge of decorating East Hall, and Frances Richardson West Hall.

Mary Elizabeth King presented her graduation recital in music on April 23. Mary Lee Forney assisted.

May Day was held on May 2. The scheme was quite old fashioned and unique—The Legend of Sleepy Hollow. Pi Phi who were elected to be in the court were Georgette Oliver Black, Elizabeth Cardwell, and Carolyn Gore. Helen Louise Duckett had charge of the dances.

The alumnae advisory committee cooperated with the chapter in giving a benefit bridge party on February 6, for the purpose of raising money for the Settlement School. The party was quite successful, as thirty-seven dollars were taken in. Virginia has now sent a hundred dollars to the Settlement School.

The scheme for the Founders' Day banquet was The Drama. The stage was set with a miniature theater on the table which represented the living room of the Virginia A house. The scheme was carried out in the place cards, representing tickets for admission, and the menu cards, representing the program of the performance to be given. The performance consisted of toasts: to the dramatists, the Founders; to the directors, the Grand Council; to the theater, the house; to the audience, the alumnae, and to the actors, the chapter. Other appropriate toasts were given to the badge, the flower, and the colors.

The rush captain for next year is Frances Richardson, 2408 State St., Little Rock, Ark.

Virginia  $\Gamma$  announces the pledging of Virginia Clark, Philadelphia, and Jean Marchant, Healy.

After the initiation ceremony, a banquet was held at the home of Mrs. E. M. Gwathmey, an alumna of Virginia A.

Spring has brought many improvements to the campus and to the town. The work of the restoration has already manifested itself in new buildings and the town is rapidly taking on the aspect of the old colonial town which was the dream of the originator of this idea. The old Christopher Wren Building has been completed and will be open to classes by the summer term. A new girl's dormitory, Chandler Hall, has been completed, also.

Since Christmas much has been going on in which Pi Phis have taken part. The play Just Suppose was taken to Wellesley College. Gladys Monroe had the leading feminine rôle in this play and LeBaron Coleman was the assistant director. Close upon this was the musical light opera, The Pirates of Pensance in which Agnes Downs had a leading part. Agnes also took part in a one act play written and directed by Marjorie Lanston.

The Y.W.C.A. recently held annual elections and installation. Agnes Downs was installed as chairman of the music committee.

Jane Clark and Catherine Crane were elected to the art club, of which Catherine Hasseltine is president. Catherine Crane went with the varsity basketball team on their northern trip as center on the team. She and Jene Cook were instrumental in the attractive decorations for the spring co-ed dances, sponsored by the German club, of which all the Pi Phis are members and Dorothy Reese is secretary.

In an election of officers of the senior class, Mary Lewis Mayhew was chosen as secretary to fill the place left by the former secretary, who had left college. Virginia Hawthorne was chosen as a representative-at-large in W.S.G.A.

Three groups of one act plays are to be given in the near future. Marjorie Lanston and LeBaron Coleman are taking a part in one, directing one, and being the assistant director of another.

The rush chairman for next year is Marjorie Lanston, 29 Kalorama Circle N.W., Washington, D.C.

LEBARON COLEMAN

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—
CAROLINA

Pledge Day, October 13, 1930

INITIATED, January 24, 1931: Eloise Barwick, '32, 130 Hawthorne Rd., Raleigh; Alice Carr, '31, Mooresville; Mary Lillian Correll, '34, Chapel Hill; Virginia Ferguson, '32, 833 Westover Ave., Norfolk, Va.;

Blanche Baker Hanff, '32, Scotland Neck; Ruth Newby, '32, Hertford; Elizabeth Nunn, '32, 6 New St., New Bern; Gabrielle McColl, '32, Bennettsville, S.C.; Closs Peace, '32, Henderson; Margaret Powell, '32, Asheville; Jean Rose, '32, Chapel Hill; Frances Wagstaff, '32, Chapel Hill; Elizabeth Webb, '32, Hillsboro; and Mary Wiatt Yarborough, M.A., '31, Louisville.

North Carolina A is very glad to announce the pledging of Ann Gordon Edmunds, of Danville, Virginia, who entered the university after Christmas as a graduate student.

Scholarship reports have not yet been completed for the winter quarter, but the chapter has done well toward maintaining its high scholastic standing on the campus. Three actives and one pledge made all A's, and A being from ninety-five to one hundred numerically. Of these Virginia Turner and Josephine Parker were both carrying extra courses.

Π Φ has been rather prominent in Carolina Playmaker activities. Most outstanding have been Closs Peace and Adelaide Reed. The former has appeared in several productions, including a one act play of her own composition; and the latter has had parts in four plays and served as hostess at the Playmaker theater for the presentation of another play.

Definite plans for next year have not been made. There has been some talk of getting a larger house to accommodate the larger number of girls who are expecting to live in it next year, but the house that is rented now is so conveniently located, near the campus and town, and directly across the street from the Woman's Building where many of the girls get their meals, that they may decide to crowd up a little and keep the same place.

The chapter joined with the rest of the campus in petitioning the general assembly of North Carolina not to cut the appropriation for the university. It was to be feared that a reduction in appropriations would result in a retardation of the progress and expansion of the institution. A bill has since been passed by the legislative body of the state to consolidate the three state colleges of North Carolina under one head, as the University of North Carolina. Prominent educators and state officials consider that such an arrangement would make for a more economical and efficient state educational system.

An anonymous gift to the university has made possible the resumption of the work on the Graham Memorial, a social hall for the students, the completion of which was delayed because of lack of funds. Work on the Patterson-Morehead Memorial carillon tower has been started. This tower is the gift of two prominent alumni. The scaffolding which has been put up is very high; the tower is going to be one hundred and seventy-five feet tall and equipped with bells and chimes, a four faced clock, as well as a powerful airplane beacon.

After much discussion on the part of the faculty and the student body, the system of optional attendance at classes for juniors and seniors has been somewhat modified and curtailed. For the present, class attendance regulations are as they were before the matter came up, except that they are subject to the discretion of the various departments. But a new plan has been drawn up which will go into effect next fall and by which only those juniors and seniors who have made the honor roll for the past two quarters will be granted the privilege of optional attendance.

The chapter has been giving its bi-monthly teas more or less regularly. The girls have found that the informal teas are the more enjoyable, so they have had small drop-in affairs lately. One of these teas during the winter quarter was given especially for the alumnae.

On the campus the recent social achievements of the chapter A have been by no means insignificant. Virginia Turner was elected the most beautiful co-ed in the senior class, and Clyde Duncan was selected as the most popular of the co-eds. At the midwinter dances, one of the three important sets of dances given by the German club of the university every year, several members of the chapter were in the figures for the two night dances. This is still a conspicuous honor for co-eds.

The rush chairman is Blanche Baker Hanff, Scotland Neck, N.C.

INITIATED, March 28, 1931: Mabel Brooks, '33, Pocono Manor, Pa.

GRADUATES: Ethelyn Dorman, 1412 Devon Rd., Winter Park; Betty Douglass, 2609 Henry St., Augusta, Ga.; Wilna Jennings, Middleburg; and Elizabeth Wilhelm, 145 Eighth St. N., St. Petersburg.

The rushing chairman will be Donna Van Dyne, Stetson Hall, De Land, Fla.

Florida A pledged Flora Lytell of Pittsburgh, Pa., on March 18.

The Forum Lectures which have been presented at the university auditorium were so well liked that there is to be another series of twelve lectures next year. The entire expense of these lectures is being borne by one of Stetson's trustees, Dr. Robert Holmes.

Pi Phi has received a large share of the honors on the campus this year. Nena Belle Green was initiated into Torch and Scroll, the honorary scholarship organization on the campus; also, she was elected president of student government, and was delegate to the Southern Intercollegiate Student Government Convention. Florida A is also proud of the fact that it was the only national fraternity on the campus to have three members elected to serve on student government.

Two Pi Phi's have been cast for the Shakespearean play given at the end of the year in the parts of Nerissa and Jessica, and a third Pi Phi is trying out for the part of Portia in Merchant of Venice.

Local Panhellenic entertained in March with a reception to which the university was invited. Panhellenic voted to lower the standard of grades for initiation to a C average, but the chapter voted to keep the Pi Phi standard up to a standard of a B and two C's.

The chapter celebrated Founders' Day with a reception, and invited Florida Gamma.

The members of the chapter have gained a great deal of benefit from the two visitors, Miss Smith, Gamma Province President, and Mrs. Brown, Director of Central Office.

GRADUATES: Louise Aulls, B.S., 819 Anderson St., Orlando; Mary Graves, B.A., Quincy; Ellen Knight, B.A., 2467 S.W. Fifth St., Miami; Evelyn Lyle, B.A., 1014 Catalonia Ave., Coral Gables; Janet Poulson, B.A., 535 Sixth Ave. N., St. Petersburg; Gervais Prentiss, B.A., 3248 Washington Blvd., Indianapolis, Ind.; Jean Rowe, B.A., 1208 Salzedo Ave., Coral Gables; and Mayme Tatum, B.A., 184 S.E. Fourteenth St., Miami.

The annual initiation breakfast was held at the Floridan Hotel. The tables, decorated with spring flowers, were placed together to form a horseshoe. The toasts as well as the decorations carried out the motif of a garden of flowers.

This same week-end Mortar Board installed a chapter on the campus. Two  $\Pi \Phi$  alumnae were among those initiated: Betty Larzelere, Jacksonville, and Florentine Holmes, Miami.

The chapter announces the pledging of Eleanor Knight, of Miami, who entered college second semester, and Katherine Ballard of Birmingham, Alabama, on February 17.

Florida B had for its guest, February 26, 27, and 28, Miss Harriet Smith, Gamma Province President. On Friday, February 27, a cooky-shine was given in her honor, with Elizabeth Sharp in charge. The pledges presented a skit and specialties throughout the evening.

The most outstanding social event for the year at F.S.C.W. is the junior-senior prom. This year it was held Saturday, March 14. During the entire day the fraternities gave breakfast dances, morning dances, tea dances, and supper dances. This chapter gave a breakfast dance from eleven to one. At the prom that evening Dorothy McCranie gave several specialty numbers.

Every year the junior class presents a musical comedy, termed the junior minstrel. This year it took place March 19, and the comedy presented was I Am The Heroine, written by two of the girls on campus. The  $\Pi$  Phi participating in the dances were Dorothy McCranie and Elinor Estes. Janice Prince, besides singing several numbers during the play, gave an entre-act; and Martha Parrish had one of the speaking parts.

The chapter entertained on March 22, 23, and 24, for Mrs. R. D. Brown, Director of Central Office. On Monday, March 23, a tea was given for her.

The local Panhellenic is seriously considering making a radical change in the present rushing system. In the present rules rushing lasts for one week only, with pledge day ten days after matriculation in college. As nothing definite has been decided upon, no statement of new rules can be made in this issue of the ARROW.

Honors won by individuals since Christmas besides those already mentioned are numerous. Louise Aulls was elected president for this year of  $O N$ , honorary home economics society. Adeline Clough was elected senior representative to judiciary for 1931-32 and was in charge of the sale of tickets for this year's junior minstrel. Elinor Estes was chosen by the Pirates to be first maid at the Pirates ball held during the spring house parties at the University of Florida in April. The Pirates is the oldest social organization on the campus. Elinor was also one of the sponsors for the military ball at Gainesville in February.

Helen Gray is in charge of the senior-sophomore breakfast, an annual event held every May 1. She was also recently elected editor of the F.S.C.W. yearbook, the Flastocowo, for 1931-32. Ellen Knight and Mary Hill were sponsors for the annual military ball at the University of Florida. Ellen has been president of cotillion club this year. Quite a number of her poems were found in the Distaff, the quarterly literary magazine.

Nancy Lang was also chosen by the Pirates to be second maid at the Pirate ball. On March 27, Nancy and Nellie Gunter were initiated into cotillion club. In the election of "Notables" for the Flastacowo, Nancy was voted the most sophisticated. Lucy Pope is in charge of the costumes for the May Day festivities. She was elected vice president of Y.W.C.A. for 1931-32. Jean Rowe was a knight in the coronation ceremonies for king and queen of the carnival held after junior minstrels. Beth Robinson was elected assistant advertising manager of the Flastacowo for 1931-32, and was tapped for freshman commission for 1931-32. Mayme Tatum was chosen to play the lead in Moliere's comedy Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme presented by  $B \Pi \Theta$ , French honorary society.

Florida B is glad to welcome to the chapter, Evelyn Meadow, who transferred to this campus last fall from Birmingham-Southern.

The rush chairman is Susan Stovall, 4621 Baysshore Blvd., Tampa.

GRADUATES: Marguerite LoBean, Orlando; Mathilde Mizener, Erie, Pa.; Gladys Morton, Sarasota; Marjorie Rushmore, Hudson, N.Y.; and Candace Secor, Des Moines, Iowa.

Florida  $\Gamma$  takes pleasure in announcing five new pledges: Holly Edwards, Abbeville, La.; Harriot Hiller, New York City; Eleanor Horner, Kansas City, Mo.; Alice Swan, Oshkosh, Wis.; and Lottie Turner, Tampa. The pledging took place on February 17, after which all active members and pledges had dinner at the Green Gable Tea Room.

Rollins is now in the process of adding two new buildings of Spanish-Mediterranean style of architecture to its campus. New Knowles Chapel is being built at the head of the campus horseshoe and the Annie Russell Theater, which is to house the Little Theater Workshop players, is to be started very soon in the same block with the chapel. A number of dormitory units are being contemplated by President Holt but have not yet been brought to a final arrangement.

Rollins is adopting this spring term the new curriculum plan of study, which is eliminating the grading system, although it is optional to students who have before registered under the older conference plan of study. The new plan uses the division system, the lower and upper divisions, instead of having four classes. A student completing all required subjects in the lower division, passes a test which allows him to pass to the upper division.

It will not be long before Florida  $\Gamma$  will

Michigan A is very proud to have won the scholarship cup for last semester and to have six of its members in the highest ten of the freshman and sophomore classes.

Pauline Southwick, Catherine Coleman, Betty Bentz, Evelyn Harwood, Marian Klochow, and Helen Howard were initiated into E  $\Delta$  A, a honorary scholastic fraternity. Virginia Bury and Pauline Southwick have been initiated into  $\Theta$  A  $\Phi$  a national dramatic fraternity.

The model assembly of the League of Nations is to be held at Hillsdale College the latter part of April, and Elizabeth Phelps, who is president of the international relations club, is in charge of the arrangements.

A new system for extracurricular activities has been organized in the chapter. This is a point system, each active having to have twelve points a month. These may be obtained by attending or participating in any campus activity outside the chapter.

Michigan A announces the pledging of Frances Murray of Detroit, and Marjorie Brown of Coude, S.D.

Gladys DeYoe, Ruth Barrett, Marian Gallup, and Evelyn Harwood were among those who contributed to the Tower, the literary magazine of the college.

have been elected to Wyvern, the junior honorary society, and Dorothy Birdzell and Katharine Sitton to Mortar Board.

Membership in the honorary scholastic societies has been announced: Cecelia Shriver receiving an invitation to  $\Phi$  K  $\Phi$ , and Isabelle Rayen, Dorothy Birdzell, and Katharine Sitton to  $\Phi$  B K. As the last two girls are juniors at present, the honor is even greater.

A very successful initiation banquet was held in March. Representatives of twelve chapters were present, coming from colleges from Vermont to Oregon and from North Dakota to Texas. The initiates included three  $\Pi$   $\Phi$  sisters.

The rush chairman will be Winifred Root, 114 Clinton St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

Michigan B takes great pleasure in announcing the affiliation of Elaine Hogen-son, formerly of Virginia A.

During the first week after vacation, the University of Michigan was hostess to the national convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students. The entire management of the convention was in the hands of Helen Jones, the vice president of the Women's League. Helen DeWitt had charge of the program, and Josselyn McLean of the hostess committee. The delegates were housed in the new Mosher-Jordan Dormitory, all the initiates and pledges of campus fraternities moving out for the week to make room for the delegates.

Commencement preparations are now being made. For the women the traditional senior breakfast and play will be given. Helen Domine will have charge of the publicity for these affairs.

Michigan B is making plans for its annual Mothers' house party, to be given over the week-end of Mothers' Day. At that time all the mothers stay at the house with their daughters, and many social affairs are planned for them. An annual event is the luncheon which the Ann Arbor alumnae give in honor of the mothers and the seniors in the house.

Lantern Night is the final event of the year for women. It is at this time that the freshman pageant is presented and the ceremony symbolic of the passing of the classes is given. Caroline Hyde is in charge of the publicity for the pageant, and Helen Domine will be general chairman of Lantern Night. Helen Jones and Helen Domine will lead the line of honor guards which escorts the march around the field, the only affair of the year in which all women of Michigan participate.

INITIATED, March 14, 1931: Vivian Dickson, '32, Hammond; Genevieve Gambell, '33, Chicago, Ill.; Sara Marshall, '33, Memphis, Tenn.; and Florence Alice Province, '33, Franklin.

GRADUATES: Margaret Lanam, B.A., Franklin; Mary Louise Rainey, B.A., Eliasville, Tex.; Tasca Smith, B.A., 119 Walnut, Evansville; Margaret Stillwell, B.A., Columbus; and Ruth Yeager, B.A., 171 Broadway, Shelbyville.

The rush chairman for next year is Annette McOsker, Brownstown.

Initiation took place on Saturday, March 14, 1931, at nine o'clock at the home of an alumna. Following the ceremony, luncheon was served at the country club to actives, initiates, and alumnae. The chapter is justly proud of these four girls as two of them had a straight B average, while the others had more hours of A than B.

Margaret Lanam entertained both active and pledge groups and friends at her birthday party February 24, at the new club house at Franklin.

Gold Quill, honorary junior and senior women's organization, tapped one girl for membership this spring semester. The new member is Kathryn Miller.

Vivian Dickson has been chosen convention delegate. Several members of Indiana A are also planning to attend convention.

$\Theta$  A  $\Phi$ , national dramatic fraternity, initiated several new members, March 24. Among those initiated were Agnes Medsker, '32, Vivian Thomas, '32, and Claribel Flowers, '33, all members of Indiana A.

Hendricks, Shelbyville; Virginia Evans, 7317 Harvard, Chicago, Ill.; Ninetta Chapman, '34, 407 N. Dunn, Bloomington; Margaret Morgan, '34, Austin; Marjorie Giffin, '34, 1016 N. Michigan, Plymouth; Leah Lindley, '32, Sullivan; Margaret Birge, '32, 3005 Coleridge Rd., Cleveland Heights, Ohio; Sara Jane Humphrey, '33, 928 Arrow Ave., Anderson; Martha Long, '33, 4801 N. Pennsylvania, Indianapolis; and Virginia Ray, '34, Montpelier.

GRADUATES: Nell Corbin, B.S., Switz City; Elizabeth Karsell, B.A., E. Tenth, Bloomington; Kathryn Creigmile, B.A., Osgood; Frances Dunn, B.A., 321 W. Fifth, Bloomington; Arnell Kendall, B.A., Crothersville; and Marion Morgan, B.A., Austin.

The chemistry building, which has been under construction for the past year, has recently been completed and was dedicated April 2. Ground for the long contemplated and planned for union building was broken a few weeks ago. It is to be finished next year and to contain the university cafeteria, the bookstore, Y.M.C.A., and other features of the university which have been scattered over the campus in various buildings.

An informal Saint Patrick's Day dance was held at the chapter house on March 21.

Margaret Morgan was promoted from assistant dancing director to dancing director of Jordan River Revue, a campus production. Leah Lindley, Susan Jane Dikeman, and Virginia Ray were in the choruses. Nelle Corbin had the honor of being initiated into  $\Pi A \Theta$ , honorary educational fraternity, and was also chosen as honorary colonel of the R.O.T.C. Jane Thorn was elected president of  $A M X$ , honorary music fraternity, and Ione Swan was nominated vice president of the Association of Women Students.

Mary Marjorie Mull was appointed a co-editor of the Schandal Sheet, which  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , journalistic fraternity, publishes the morning of the junior prom. Sara Jane Humphrey was chosen as one of the associate editors of the Arbutus staff for next year. Virginia Ray was pledged to  $A \Lambda \Delta$ , honorary scholastic fraternity, and was also on the recognition list of Mortar Board.

The chapter attended a Founders' Day luncheon on April 25 with the other chapters in Indiana. The luncheon was held in the Athletic Club, Indianapolis, and Mrs. W. Bartlett Marshall and Mrs. Robt. E. Beisel were guests.

Forty-fourth St.; Louise Sumner, B.A., 5008 Broadway, all of Indianapolis; and Truth Wakeman, B.A., Mooresville, Ind.

The four Indiana chapters celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club on April 25. Mrs. W. Bartlett Marshall, Arrow editor, was the guest of honor. Recognition was given the girls having the highest scholarship in each of the four chapters. The  $\Pi \Phi$  state dance was held at the club in the evening.

To a member of Indiana  $\Gamma$  has come an unusual honor. Helen Weyl attended the recent Panhellenic Convention in Chicago, and was elected the National Panhellenic President of Urban Universities for 1931. The next convention will be held in Indianapolis, and at the request of the delegates, the Grecian dinner will be given at the same time. Butler established a new tradition on the campus with the introduction of the Grecian dinner, and the idea seems to have aroused much interest in other colleges.

Dorothy Jane Atkins was elected "freshman rose" of the annual freshman hop. Virginia Seeds and Hope Willcuts have been initiated into W.A.A., and Anna Marie Dungan, Helen Gearen, Elizabeth Hadley, Janet Jermen, and Bernice Brown are pledges in the same organization. Beatrice Burgan, as president of  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , was toastmistress of the annual razz banquet.

The chapter announces the pledging of Bernice Brown and Sarah Elizabeth Miller.

Indiana  $\Gamma$  is looking forward to convention with much pleasure and anticipation. Mary Louise Mannan has been elected as convention delegate.

The rush captain for next fall is Jane Allison, 4709 N. Pennsylvania St., Indianapolis.

GRADUATES: Emily Boyd, B.S., Amboy; Margaret Mace, B.S., Scottsburg; Ruth Acton, B.S., 1115 Wilson Dr., Dayton, Ohio; and Bernita Williams, B.S., 382 W. Elm St., Canton, Ill.

One hundred and fifty couples attended the annual formal dinner dance, which was held in the beautiful memorial union building early this spring. The girls have entertained the faculty of the university at dinner.

Six Pi Phis have had the honor of classification as distinguished students: Bernita Williams, Virginia White, Mary Blind, Mabelle Cutler, Gladys Lloyd, and Bernice Link. Of these, Mary, Mabelle, and Bernice made Δ P K, science honorary. Scribes, honorary journalistic society which sponsors the "Meow" razz banquet, has pledged Rose Cassell, Charlene York, and Mabel Welton. Ruth Acton has been the president of Scribes the past year. Gold Pepper, co-ed booster organization for athletics, has initiated Rose, Charlene, and Mabel. Charlene is the only girl on the junior prom committee. Hope Van Sciever and Martha Scudder played on the volleyball varsity team. Billie Simpkins was captain and manager of the freshman basketball team. She had a leading rôle in a recent Playshop production, By Candlelight. W.A.A. has awarded freshman numerals to Billie, Bernice, Hope, Martha, and Jeanette Peterson. The house team played in the finals of the basketball intramural tournament. Mabel Welton has been chosen as convention delegate.

The rush captain is Charlene York, of Carlisle. Her college address is 171 Littleton Street, West Lafayette.

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Pledge Day, Indefinite.

INITIATED, April 16, 1931: Amelia Minary, '34, Douglas Blvd., Louisville; Sarah Stites, '34, 1278 Everett, Louisville; and Marian Hershey, '33, Prospect.

GRADUATES: Helen Feamster, 2750 Graham Ct.; Kitty Park Long, Puritan Apts.; and Clara Louise Robertson, 331 Birchwood, all of Louisville.

The initiation ceremony was held on April 16, and was followed by a banquet at the Pendennis Club. The new initiates were presented with corsages.

Kentucky A was well represented at the class elections. Gertrude Vogt was elected president of the junior class, Lyda Gazley secretary of the senior class, Donnie Carmack secretary of the sophomore class, and Uta Cobb Hutcheson student council representative of the junior class.

Miss Onken visited Kentucky A in April. This was indeed an important event, because many of the members had never met her.

The Panhellenic Association of the University of Louisville is sponsoring a swimming meet in May. Many of the Kentucky A girls are entering the different events, and hope to bring back the cup.

Pi Phis had charge of the "props" for Taming of the Shrew, given by the university players on April 10. Sarah Stites was in charge, with Elizabeth Frost and Shirley Jenkins helping her.

The chapter announces the pledging of Shirley Jenkins, Sarah Haley, and Jane Wyman. These girls have entered into many of the activities on the campus.

Gertrude Vogt, the new president, was elected convention delegate, and Uta Cobb Hutcheson was elected alternate.

Pledge Day, September 25, 1930

INITIATED, February 20, 1931: Margaret Brammer, '34, 2113 Union Ave., Chattanooga; La Blanche Biggs, '32, Ducktown; Mary Lou Catlett, '33, 14 Rose Terr. Chattanooga; Agnes Gabbard, '34, 318 Mississippi Ave., North Chattanooga; Gladys Roberts, '34, 3200 E. Forty-fourth St., Chattanooga; Sara Sue Robinson, '34, 1012 Hanover St., North Chattanooga; Vivien Shaw, '33, 509 Boynton Terr., Chattanooga; and Ruth Shipp, '34, 2134 Ringgold Rd., Chattanooga.

Tennessee A announces the pledging of Marjorie Atlee Patton, Gussie Riddle, and Laura Selcer, on March 3.

The chapter held the initiation ceremony in the university chapel on February 20. The cooky-shine was enjoyed by everyone, especially the new members. After the cooky-shine the entire active chapter spent the night on Signal Mountain at The Cliffs. The following night the initiation banquet was given at the Chattanooga Golf and Country Club.

The university was honored in March by the visit of Rear-Admiral Byrd. In the afternoon, preceding his public lecture, he made a talk to the university students and faculty. A car filled with Pi Phis was in the parade which accompanied Byrd from the station to the university.

Two interesting social events have recently taken place in the chapter. On Valentine's Day the active chapter entertained with a dance in the gymnasium. The decorations were very effective, being appropriate to the day. On March 20 the new members gave a dance in honor of the chapter.

Among the members of Tennessee A participating in dramatic events this semester are Vivien Shaw and Grace Bickers, who had parts in the play presented by the French department in April, Le Medecin Malgré Lui, by Moliere. Elizabeth Thomas has been given the feminine lead in the Little Theater play, Bird in Hand, by John Drinkwater.

A change in rushing rules is being discussed by Panhellenic. It has been suggested that second year rushing be adopted.

ALABAMA ALPHA—BIRMINGHAM—SOUTHERN COLLEGE

Chartered, October 7, 1927

Pledge Day, February 4, 1931.

INITIATED, February 16, 1931: Lucia Beddow, '32, Woodward; and Betty Carlson, '34, 216 Canterbury Rd.; Lessie Gewin, '34, 230 Tuscaloosa Ave., and Florence Vance, '34, 3925 Ninth Ct. S., all Birmingham.

GRADUATE: Margaret Shannon, B.A., 4238 9 Ct., S., Birmingham.

Alabama A enjoyed a successful midsemester pledge season, pledging Rosilie Pettus, Dove Beddow, Robena Evins, and Norma Belle Taylor. These pledges entertained the chapter with a bridge party recently at Norma Belle Taylor's home. Corsages were given as favors to the big sisters and lovely prizes were presented to Lucia Beddow and Lessie Gewin.

Mary Johnson and Elizabeth Markham have been recently elected members to the Amazon Club, an interfraternity club. Also Mary has been elected to  $\Sigma \Sigma \Sigma$ , an honorary educational fraternity.

The new initiates, Betty Carlson and Lucia Beddow, have been reaping laurels too. Lucia was selected as one of the six most beautiful girls on the campus in the college annual, La Revue. Betty led the  $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$  dance and the  $X \Sigma X$  annual dance.

The Sunday afternoon teas for the Fraternity have been immensely enjoyed. The most recent hostesses were Lessie Gewin and Mary Johnson.

Leola Armstrong, an alumnae adviser, entertained the chapter and honored the new pledges at a bridge party in February. Each of the pledges was presented with a spray of Red Radiance roses.

At the initiation banquet it was announced that Anita Vandevoort made the highest average for the fall term in the chapter, while Florence Vance and Lucia Beddow were presented with the pledge loving cup for making the highest average of the pledges, both girls had the same average.

Birmingham-Southern College celebrated its seventy-fifth anniversary on March 17, and one of the outstanding events was the laying of the cornerstone of the new women's building. In this building there will be a suite of rooms for each of the women's fraternities on the campus. Alabama A is planning a house warming as soon as they are settled in it.

The rush chairman is Lessie Gewin, 230 Tuscaloosa Ave., Birmingham.

E., Minneapolis; Adelaide Rowley, '34, 63 Barton Ave. S. E., Minneapolis; and Virginia Thomas, '34, 9136 Longwood Dr., Chicago, Ill.

GRADUATES: Florence Ayres, Ely; Eleanor Bower, Bemidji; Elizabeth Collins, 2021 Woodland Ave., Duluth; Marybelle Darrell, 208 Melbourne Ave., S. E., Minneapolis; Muriel Dunn, 2006 Thomas Ave., N., Minneapolis; Marjorie Fleck, 3936 Lyndale Ave., S., Minneapolis; Ruth Kiekenapp, 215 W. Fifth, Faribault; Janet Kreidler, 800 N. Fifty-seventh Ave., W., Duluth; Ruth Riser, Provo, Utah; Eileen Thornton, 1777 Lincoln Ave., St. Paul; and Eleanor Womrath, 3215 Irving Ave., S., Minneapolis.

The chapter announces the pledging of Betty Wood and Dorothy Burlingame.

The beginning of spring quarter found Minnesota A more than ordinarily busy. An informal rushing period was given for those girls who made their scholastic average in the winter quarter. On April 10 the Pi Phi Frivolities was given at the Hotel Lowry in St. Paul. There were three singing and dancing choruses, and several specialties. The St. Paul alumnae club, assisted by the Minneapolis alumnae and mothers' club, took charge of the bridge given in the afternoon.

The chapter has received gifts of money from the mothers' club and the Duluth alumnae club; fifty dollars and twenty-five dollars respectively. This money was placed in the chapter treasury and spent in small amounts for repairs and equipment. On March 8, the mothers' club gave a Sunday night supper at the chapter house in honor of mothers and fathers of the pledges. It is the first function of its kind that has been given, and proved so successful that it is to be made traditional. The mothers' club presented the chapter with four dozen folding steel chairs.

During the recent spring vacation the Duluth alumnae club gave a luncheon for all active Pi Phis as well as for alumnae. The club has made plans for a book shower to increase the chapter library.

The president appointed a new committee which started functioning at the beginning of spring quarter. It is known as the social adequacy committee. A chart has been made and posted on the bulletin board. Vertically it is divided into four parts, horizontally, into seventeen sections. Each vertical division represents one class (senior, junior, sophomore, or freshman) and the name of the girl in charge for that class. The horizontal sections include such subjects as: table manners, unkind comment, cooperation, personal tidiness, hospitality, profanity, chewing gum, wearing pin, courtesy to house chaperon, posture, and politeness. All complaints against any particular class are given to the girl in charge of that class. In her section of the chart she places a check opposite the rule violated. By way of punishment, the losing class will probably give a slumber party.

Mrs. J. E. Webster, Jr., Epsilon Province vice president was in Minneapolis on an alumnae visit, and was present at the Founders' Day banquet.

$\Pi \Delta \Sigma$ , a local chapter, recently won their petition to  $\Delta \Delta \Theta$  national women's fraternity, and has been established on this campus.

Joyce Crysler has been elected chapter delegate to convention. Helen Almars was pledged to  $\Delta \Pi \Delta$ , art fraternity during the winter quarter. Jane Mason is also a member. Eileen Thornton and Eleanor Bowser are members of the Folwell library club; Eileen has been elected president. The freshman class is doing its part in upholding  $\Pi \Phi$  in campus activities. Gloria Boock is a member of the Y.W.C.A. freshman cabinet, and is also on the waiting list of Masquers, campus dramatic organizations. Virginia Mendenhall is doing Y.W.C.A. social service work. Betty Wood occupies the freshman seat on the W.S.G.A. board. Marlys Robertson is treasurer of Bib and Tucker, freshman women's organization.

WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Chartered, 1894

Pledge Day, September 28, 1930

INITIATED, March 28, 1931: Carolyn Bolles, '34, 2040 Scottwood Ave., Toledo, Ohio; Doris Byford, '33, 12574 Maple Ave., Blue Island, Ill.; Barbara Crittenden, '34, 2294 Calvert Ave., Detroit, Mich.; Janet Dean, '34, 636 E. Gorham St., Madison; Mary Daugherty, '33, 183 Warren Ave., Wauwatosa; Dorothea Dreier, '34, 35 Remsen St., Brooklyn, N.Y.; Nancy Duggar, '34, 1938 Rowley Ave., Madison; Barbara Sandehn, '33, 1514 E. State, Rockford, Ill.; Mazy Schultz, '33, Seventh and Washington St., Beardstown, Ill.; Eleanor Verduin, '33, 454 Grant St., Grand Haven, Mich.; Barbara Williams, '34, 1018 Cass St., La Crosse; and Betty Wolfe, '33, New Harmony, Ind.

Initiation ended with the usual banquet followed by an enjoyable formal party given for the new initiates at the chapter house.

On March 15 the chapter entertained with a faculty tea. Each girl was allowed to invite as many of her professors as she chose and thus was afforded the opportunity of talking to them in an informal way. The faculty teas have been most helpful in creating a friendly spirit between the faculty and students.

Among campus events of interest that took place during March was the art exhibit held at the university library and at the memorial union. The original drawings of Peter Arno were on display, some of which were for sale. The works of Joe Davidson were also included in the exhibit which was of interest to nearly every one. Carl Sandburg, the famous poet, visited the campus recently and gave a series of readings.

Barbara Crittenden was chosen as queen of the freshman frolic, an all-university affair held at the memorial union. This is the first year that a queen has been chosen for this event.

Both pledges and actives enthusiastically entered the all-university women's bridge tournament which was sponsored by women's affairs committee of the memorial union. Katherine Truesdall was chairman. The women's affairs committee has also been giving free dancing instruction with an instructor in charge and members of the committee as assistants.

Several Pi Phis gained positions in the recent spring elections. Mary Katherine Mershon was elected census chairman of W.S.G.A. and Charlotte Bissell was elected vice president of Y.W.C.A. and will have charge of religious convocation next spring. Charlotte was also appointed intramural chairman of W.A.A.

Jane Cannon is managing the golf intramurals for this spring. Katherine Ehrler was appointed to the committee in charge of plans for mothers' week-end, which will take place the week-end of May 23.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE

Pledge Day, Indefinite.

INITIATED, February 28, 1931: Evadna Jane Burgett, '33, Delavan; Ruth Bennett, '34, 1033 Ashland Ave., Wilmette, Ill.; Miriam Churchill, '34, 733 Hobart Pl., Beloit; Suzanne Douglass, '34, Barrington, Ill.; Betty Frazer, '34, 12 Orin Ave. S.E., Minneapolis, Minn.; Elaine Jacobson, '34, 10720 Hoyle Ave., Chicago; Neoma Johnson, '34, 2007 Harvard Ave., Rockford, Ill.; Louise Kleinschrot, '34, 9404-212th Pl., Queen's Village, L.I., N.Y.; Mary McCarthy, '34, 1716 E. State St., Rockford, Ill.; Margaret Rider, '34, 10902 Hoyle Ave., Chicago; Mary Adeline Robb, '34, Marengo, Ill.;

Mary Virginia Semple, '34, 245 Vine St., Park Ridge, Ill.; Laura Turner, '34, 211 Fifth St., Faribault, Minn.; Gracelene Wilday, '34, Wheaton, Ill.; and Olive Wilson, '34, 3045 Superior St., Milwaukee.

GRADUATES: Joan Streeter, B.S., Chicago, Ill.; Luella Burt, B.S., Wheaton, Ill.; Joyce Wadmond, B.S., Delavan; Margaret Jorgenson, B.S., Chicago; Peggy Jean Hack, B.A., River Forest, Ill.; Helen Boddy, B.A., Chicago; and Virginia Schafer, B.A., Chicago.

Wisconsin B was first in scholarship on Beloit campus for first semester, with an average of 2.05. The pledge average was 1.18. This is the fifth semester that  $\Pi \Phi$  has won the scholarship record. Luella Burt and Margaret Jorgenson have been elected to  $\Phi \beta \kappa$ .

Joyce Wadmond,  $\Phi \beta \kappa$ , a member of Chamberlin science club, president of  $\Sigma \Lambda \Gamma$  and a member of several other campus organizations, has accepted an assistantship in the department of chemistry at Mount Holyoke College. Her work will begin next fall, when she will instruct several laboratory classes and at the same time work toward her master's degree.

$\beta \theta \Pi$  is the third fraternity to build on the newly organized quad. They have submitted plans and are intending to build this spring.  $\Pi \kappa \Lambda$  has remodeled their house.

The Mothers' Day play is being coached by Virginia Schafer. Beloit players presented three one act plays on March 7. Kathryn Rassweiler, Virginia Schafer, and Gracelene Wilday took prominent parts. Ann Clementson and Virginia Schafer coached the plays.

A musical comedy The Song of Life written by a senior, Spence MacMillan,  $\Sigma \Lambda \Gamma$ , was produced by him on March 20 and 21. The net proceeds of the comedy were turned over to the associated students for the purpose of furnishing the proposed student union. It was an original masterpiece with all the words and music written by college students. Helen Rochling wrote several of the songs. Neoma Johnson originated and coached all of the dances and choruses. She also gave several solos in the play. Leads were taken by Ann Clementson and Elaine Jacobson. Gracelene Wilday was also in the chorus.

Wisconsin B announces the pledging of Roberta Hazard, Three Rivers, Michigan.

On the program of the student recital was Helen Gerds, piano; Miriam Churchill and Laura Turner, violin.

During spring vacation the chapter had a rushing luncheon at the Medina Club in Chicago. The chapter has found that this luncheon aids much in influencing students to attend Beloit and also interests them in  $\Pi \Phi$ , making rushing in the fall somewhat easier. Prospective students from Beloit are entertained at supper sings during the year and are also invited to parties. Rushing chairman for next season is Helen Oelke, Wheaton, Illinois. GRETCHEN HOBBS

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, September 20, 1930

INITIATED, March 20, 1931: Thelma Pangburn, '33, Bismack; Caroline West, '33, Grand Forks; Polly Burhans, '33, Sentinel Butte; and Lina Hutton, '32, Lidgerwood.

GRADUATES: Dorothy Reichert, B.S., Foss-ton, Minn.; and Alice Palmer, B.S., Third St., Grand Forks.

The growth of any institution within an agricultural state is affected by financial success of its agriculture. Only a few sections of North Dakota have been drought stricken, but the price of farm products is less than half the value during normal times. North Dakota University has felt a great decrease in enrollment of its students in the last two years.

North Dakota A has been fortunate in having had as her guest Mrs. Horace Chope, Epsilon Province President. A reception was given in her honor and her visit gave true inspiration and enthusiasm to the chapter.

In developing the national viewpoint North Dakota A has decided to have joint meetings which are held every Monday night just after cooky-shine. Some of the topics which have already been discussed are the Settlement School, outstanding fraternities and their work, and things of interest happening within the province.

Pi Phi is well represented in activities and honors on the campus. Inez Babcock has been elected to Quo Vadis and initiated into  $\Phi \chi \theta$ . Alice Palmer, who has been elected to National Collegiate Players, has received the honor of being selected for Who's Who the past two years. Lillian Morck, a pledge, will dance at the senior prom, April 10. The Pi Phi are entering a skit in the Flickertail Follies featuring Dorothy Thompkins and Lillian Morck.

The chapter was sorry that Mrs. Bannon, former Grand President, could not visit North Dakota A when her husband, Chancellor Bannon, spoke at the dedication services.

The rushing captain for the coming year is Pat Ebert, 4411 Portland Ave., Minneapolis, Minnesota.

ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE

Pledge Day, January 31, 1931

Illinois A was very happy to have Mrs. Chope, Epsilon Province President, with them on February 26 and 27. On the evening of February 26 the Monmouth alumnae club gave a dinner to all active and pledge members in honor of Mrs. Chope and Mrs. Webster, province vice president.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Beatrice Burkhart, Lanark; Frances Fleming, Montrose, Colo.; Eleanor Gehr, Evanston; Dorothy Graham, Abingdon; Elizabeth McCulloch, Swissvale, Pa.; Helen Maynard, Monmouth; Margaret Scott, Monmouth; Sylvia Sidlo, Lorain, Ohio; Jane Tornquist, Polson, Mont.; Katherine Turnbull, Bellevue, Pa.; Gertrude White, Galesburg; Mary Whitmore, Harmon; and Bird Wiley, Little York, Ill. Jane Tornquist and Katherine Turnbull are granddaughters of two of the founders, Clara Brownlee Hutchinson and Jennie Horne Turnbull.

The formal rush party, January 27, carried out the mock wedding idea which seems to have been a very popular theme for rush parties in every province this year. After the ceremony, which took place at the home of Mrs. E. B. Colwell of Monmouth, a chapter patroness, dinner and dancing were enjoyed by the guests and chapter.

Floy Fetherston was tapped for membership to Σ O M, honorary scholastic fraternity. Kathryn Salisbury was elected president of Y.W.C.A. and Marian Clark was elected vice president of Crimson Masque. Ruth Scheidegger was a member of the cast of the annual N.C.P. play, Pirandello's Right You Are—If You Think So. Marian Clark and Alice McDougall served on the production staff for the play.

The seventy-fifth birthday of Monmouth College was celebrated on February 24 with a formal all-college banquet. This banquet is a customary annual affair known as the Washington banquet, but as this year marked the seventy-fifth year of the college's existence it held a double significance.

High tea at the home of Mrs. Ivory Quinby, of Monmouth, was enjoyed by the chapter and alumnae club in celebrating Founders' Day, April 28.

Pledge Day, September 16, 1930

INITIATED, March 7, 1931: Ellen Alspaugh, '31, 220 S. Yellowstone St., Livingston, Mont.; Betty Dyson, '32, Rushville; Betty Larcom, '32, 44 Putnam St., W. Newton, Mass.; Mary Moore, '33, 819 Bridge Ave., Davenport, Iowa; Dorothy Pickens, '32, 3201 Washington, Kansas City, Mo.; Mary Robson, '32, 698 Greenleaf St., Galesburg; Elizabeth Smart, '33, Chicago Beach Hotel, Chicago; Edith Smith, '33, 75 Cook St., Torrington, Conn.; Helen Surey, '32, 516 N. Le Claire Ave., Chicago; and Mary Waterous, '33, Henry.

The Φ B K elections have been announced. Among the thirteen new members are Marion Christy, Janet Craig, and Janet Smith.

On March 21, the chapter held its formal dance. The orchestra was on a platform in the middle of the room and were surrounded by palms. Two large lighted arrows were the only decorations. A buffet supper was served.

Many of the elections for the coming year have been held. Helen Surey is a member of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Mary De Coster and Kathryn Fleming have been elected to W.S.G.A. board. Grace Castle and Helen Surey are two of the new officers for L.M.I., the women's literary society. Marion Christy is on the board of publications of Knox College. Virginia Hinchliff was a member of the women's debating team.

The Knox Players' Club presented Twelfth Night on March 27 and 28. Alice Stevens and Betty Test played the two chief feminine rôles. Irma Brodman was also in the cast. Betty Test and Irma Brodman also took part in The Beggar on Horseback, given in February.

Illinois B Δ received second place among women's fraternities in scholarship for the first semester of the college year.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Irwin were at Knox during April and May while Mr. Irwin, the Honnold lecturer, gave a course on "Writing For A Living." Mrs. Irwin, also a well-known writer, is known by the name of Inez Hayes Irwin.

The chapter originated and gave the first of a series of interfraternity spreads which have proved very successful. Different representatives from each women's fraternity and from the nonfraternity group were invited to each spread. In this way friendship and good-will have been developed among the various groups.

The chapter gave a tea for the faculty in February. Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Kellogg of Harvard University were among the guests.

The patronesses of Illinois B Δ entertained the chapter at a bridge and dinner on March 14. A color scheme of wine and silver blue was used.

The annual Founders' Day banquet was held April 28 at the Galesburg Club.

The chapter announces the pledging of Carlotta Wettach, Coffeyville, Kan., and Kathryn Belden, Peoria.

The spring rushing season consisted of three informal parties and a formal dinner. The three parties were a cabaret party at the Arrow Inn, a treasure hunt followed by a cooky-shine, and a Southern breakfast.

The chapter was very glad to have Mrs. Choep, Epsilon Province President, with them for an inspiring visit the last of February.

Seven or eight of the girls are enthusiastically planning a trip to convention.

Illinois E is very proud that Miriam Bossard was elected to  $\Phi$  B K this spring. Both she and Maxine Board are taking the two-year independent study course in English.

Betty Waggoner, Evanston, and Jean Suduth, Springfield, were pledged this semester.

The subscription dance, the "Pi Phi Frolic," was held on March 21 at the Evans-ton Country Club. Peggy Esch was chairman of the committee that handled the dance so efficiently that about $500 was made. The new radio will be paid for out of this money.

The chapter held its second rummage sale on April 18, the proceeds from which were sent to the Settlement School.

The girls have asked for the chapter room to be fixed up more attractively, and hope that when college starts in the fall, a lovely and inviting room will await them.

Many Thanks, the W.A.A.-Men's Union show, was a success. For the three years that it has been produced a  $\Pi$   $\Phi$  has been chairman of the show board. This year Avis Lundahl held the position; Winifred Hanan and Paula Schumacher were in the chorus.

With Dorothy Verges as Circus Sally, the head of the annual N.U. circus, Illinois E is bending every effort to bring extra glory to the chapter by capturing the cup awarded for the best women's fraternity circus stunt. If they are successful, this will be the fourth consecutive year that the cup has gone to the chapter. Eleanor Jones is in charge of tickets and most of the girls are working in some capacity.

The rushing chairman for the coming year is Georgia Stange, 2545 Logan Blvd., Chicago. SARAH WELLIVER

GRADUATES: Margaret Alexander, B.A., Lincoln; Marybelle Kimmel, B.A., Duquoin; Dorothy Miller, B.A., 5825 W. Erie St., Chicago; Donna Olin, B.A., Little York; Frances Partridge, B.A., Springfield; Patricia Russell, B.A., 6333 Blackstone Ave., Chicago; Josephine Townsend, B.A., Amarillo, Tex.; Lucille Triebel, B.S., Peoria; Mary Anne Carson, B.A., Urbana; Betty Stoolman, B.A., Champaign; and June Whitson, B.A., Urbana.

The chapter announces the pledging of Mary Henley, Champaign.

Two of the outstanding events on campus were the appearance of Mrs. Fiske and her company in Ladies of the Jury and Becky Sharp, and the appearance of Mrs. Patrick Campbell in a lecture recital. Mrs. Campbell was brought here by  $\Sigma$   $\Delta$   $\Phi$ , the woman's honorary public speaking fraternity. A reception was given for her to which prominent women were invited. Betty Stoolman was general chairman of the event and June Whitson was chairman of the invitations committee. Beth Olwin has just been pledged to this organization.

Professor James W. Garner, head of the political science department at the university, has accepted an invitation to lecture this summer at the Academy of International Law at the Hague, which is supported by the Dutch Government and the Carnegie endowment for international peace. Professor Garner was a member of the Harvard Research Committee in International Law which met at Harvard last fall, and is a Knight of the Legion of Honor.

The two outstanding events of second semester for Illinois Z were Mrs. Chope's visit to the chapter and the presence of Miss Onken and members of Illinois H at Founders' Day banquet.

Mary Catherine Gore was chosen as the chapter goat at initiation banquet. Her activities include the chairmanship of the program committee of Orange and Blue Feathers, the freshman women's organization, a position on the all-university parties committee, and a part in the chorus of Courts and Appeals, the Woman's League musical comedy. Melle Russell had a comedy lead in this production and Jo Townsend was one of the models. Glenita Hobbs was chairman of properties.

A record of achievement of junior and senior women on campus is acknowledged by invitation to the Matrix Table banquet given by  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , the honorary journalism fraternity for women. This year June Whitson, Betty Stoolman, Helene Foellinger, and Glenita Hobbs received invitations.

At the twenty-fourth annual Spanish night, March 27, sponsored by  $\Sigma \Delta \Pi$ , the honorary Spanish fraternity, Linda Fitz-Gerald won the first prize in Spanish declamation for the best Spanish pronunciation. She and Ercilia Kiler also modeled Spanish shawls and headdresses. Linda has just been pledged to  $\Pi \Delta \Phi$ , the honorary French fraternity.

Jo Townsend has been chosen to serve on senior ball committee and Alice Brinker on the freshman-sophomore dance committee. Mary Jane Hutton is chairman of the Panhellenic rushing rules committee. Betty Hughes won the Union popularity contest and was given a trip to the Mardi Gras.

Helene Foellinger was elected to  $\Phi \beta \kappa$  in her junior year, and Betty Ford was elected to  $\Lambda \Lambda \Delta$ , the freshman women's scholastic fraternity. Betty Ford and Miriam Buchholz have been pledged to  $\Lambda\theta\eta\eta\alpha\iota$ , the honorary literary society, of which Beth Olwin is treasurer and Edna Frances Hartmann in rushing chairman.

Alice Brinker was one of the five freshmen to make the class swimming team. She is treasurer of Terrapin, the honorary swimming club, and Jean Webster is its secretary. Jean is also Woman's League chairman in Gold Feathers, the sophomore women's organization.

The new rushing chairman is Mary Jane Hutton, 1430 N. Walnut, Danville.

Pauline Waggoner, '34, 1361 W. Decatur, Decatur; Virginia Fulenwider, '34, 120 N. Aurora, Collinsville; and Melba Proctor, '33, 3745 Lindell, St. Louis, Mo.

GRADUATES: Ruth Robertson, B.S., 2217 W. 103rd St., Chicago; Lenore Chodat, B.A., 960 W. Wood, Decatur; Betty Starr, B.A., 137 Park Pl., Decatur; Kathryn Reinhart, B.A., 380 Marietta St., Decatur; Marianna Sheffler, B.S., 1228 N. Adams, Mason City, Iowa; Alicesnow Binney, B.S., 6740 Oglesby Ave., Chicago; and Grace Genseke, B.A., 210 S. Monroe, Streator.

Lela Johnson, Centralia, is rushing captain for next year.

Mrs. Horace Chope, Epsilon Province President, paid an official visit to the chapter during the latter part of February. The chapter enjoyed meeting Mrs. Chope and received from her many beneficial suggestions regarding chapter affairs. She transferred much of her enthusiasm about convention to the chapter. It was a pleasure to entertain her.

Lela Johnson played the leading rôle in the play Children of the Moon which was given by the Town and Gown players of Millikin on March 13.

The Decatur Panhellenic gave a very lovely vesper service of music and readings on Palm Sunday afternoon. Aubrey Royce was the reader. Aubrey will also dance in a revue at the Lincoln Theater the latter part of April.

Two committees for the sophomore cotillion were headed by Pi Phi; Dorothy Knauss was chairman of the decoration committee and Catherine Doane the publicity committee.

The chapter entertained their patronesses and husbands and the faculty at a supper on Sunday night, April 12. The hours were from five-thirty to seven-thirty and the guests were entertained in two groups.

One of the loveliest traditions at Millikin is the Easter sunrise service held each year before Easter vacation. This year Phyllis Seago was in charge of the very impressive service.

There are four Pi Phi on the newly elected Y.W.C.A. cabinet: Phyllis Seago, Lela Johnson, Mary Martha Abrams, and Carolyn Gilman. Lela Johnson and Phyllis Seago were delegates to the Y.W.C.A. conference held in Jacksonville the first week in April.

The chapter was proud of the  $\Pi \Phi$  basketball team, organized to compete with other women's fraternities on the campus. The team, captained by Virginia Fulenwider, was given third place in the tournament.

Illinois Z chapter has invited Illinois H and the alumnae club to share with them the annual celebration of Founders' Day at Champaign, April 27. There will be a formal dinner with Miss Amy B. Onken as a special guest.

INITIATED, March 5, 1931: Lorna and Mary Millman, '34, 392 Oxford St., Winnipeg; Dorothy Mould, '36, Estevan, Saskatchewan; Mary Rogers, '34, Ste. 7, Blackstone Apts., Winnipeg; and Marion Slagsvol, '34, 318 Baltimore Rd., Winnipeg.

GRADUATES: Rhoda Brown, B.A., 754 Jessie Ave.; Joan Campbell, B.A., 95 Sherbrooke St.; Isabel Clark, B.A., 196 Elm St.; Ileané Hemphill, B.A., 208 Chestnut St.; Isabel Hitchings, B.A., 25 Westgate; Ruth Hodges, B.S., 178 Ash St.; Florence Loucks, B.A., 339 Elm St.; and Marjorie Richmond, B.A., 811 Dorchester Ave., all of Winnipeg.

The first event of interest after the New Year was a Chinese tea given by the pledges. They had as their guests the pledges of all other women's fraternities on the campus. The chapter was truly proud, and justly so, of the manner in which the pledges carried out their idea. Their costumes, decorations, and refreshments carried out a Chinese motif in a clever and original way which the guests fully appreciated.

The actives wished to entertain their pledges in some small way. Accordingly, in honor of the pledges, the chapter gave a tea dance at the home of Isabel Hitchings. It was very informal and most enjoyable.

Manitoba A held its second annual Valentine tea on February 14. There were three tables: an alumnae table, an active table, and a pledge table. The decorations were planned by a committee and the rooms most attractively adorned for the occasion.

The chapter welcomed with great pleasure the Epsilon Province President, Mrs. Chope, from February 15 to 17. All are looking forward to her next visit with a great deal of pleasant anticipation. During her stay Mrs. Chope was able to see part of the dress rehearsal of the U.M.D.S. production, Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion. Eight Pi Phis helped in some way or other in the production of this play. These included the leading lady and the second leading lady as well as members of the costing and properties committees.

The spring formal was held on March 11, at the Manitoba Club. The decorations were most effective, tiny golden arrows edged with wine and blue, covered the walls and were arranged in the shape of large arrows. One mantelpiece was draped as a window, with wine and blue satin. The background was blue and the side curtains wine. In the center of the blue drape were the wine Greek letters  $\Pi \Phi$ . Instead of favors, boutonnieres of white carnations were given to each escort. The chapter was glad that Alice Palmer and Genevieve Tuarne, of North Dakota A were able to come for the formal.

Although Ileané Hemphill is leaving the university as a graduate in arts this spring, her activity in connection with varsity arts will not wane. She has been elected vice president of arts '31, which is a permanent position and the highest honor a graduate can obtain.

Manitoba A is justly proud of the fact that again one of its members is to hold the office of a "Lady Stick." This year the honor of being Lady Stick of the agricultural college has fallen to Ann Livingstone.

In activities Manitoba A is holding its own. Gwen Campbell is to be concert master of the glee club, Mary Millman, Marjorie Craig and Gwen Campbell have been elected as year representatives on the student self government.

The chapter also has had its share of honor in the university athletic world. Ileané Hemphill received a senior "M" in basketball, the award which is given to members of all U.M.S.U. senior teams, as well as an arts' senior crest in basketball. Florence Loucks won a senior arts' crest in curling. Ann Livingstone won a senior "M" in hockey and agricultural college senior crests in basketball and hockey. Eleanor French, a pledge, received a junior arts' crest in hockey.

The rushing chairman is Ileané Hemphill, 208 Chestnut St., Winnipeg.

Pleasant; Elinor Thompson, '34, Mt. Pleasant; and Edith Wheaton, '34, Agency.

The chapter announces the pledging of Josephine McAllaster, Mt. Pleasant, and Velna Klopfenstein, Denmark.

Helen Crane, delegate to convention this year, was initiated into  $\Pi \Phi$ , a local honorary scholastic fraternity. The following girls made the honor roll for the first semester: Dorothy Dyall, Doris Ogburn, Rebecca Rich, Lydia Dyall, Guinevere Wagner, and Josephine Rogers. Elinor Thompson was elected by her class to edit the freshman news, and among her assistants were Doris Ogburn, chosen to membership in  $\Phi \Sigma I$ , national honorary language organization. Gertrude Danielson was chosen as student delegate of  $\Phi \Sigma I$  to attend the convention at Iowa City in May.

Josephine Stewart and Evelyn Endresen have broadcast several musical programs over KUSD. Josephine Stewart presented her senior recital in piano on March 22, and Evelyn Endresen presented her sophomore recital in piano on April 26.

$\Pi \Phi$  is well represented in other activities, too. Gertrude Danielson, Muriel Engler, Evelyn Lindquist, and Cleo Johnson are on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Virginia Pier, Hazel Williams, and Cleo Johnson received points in W.A.A. for taking an active part in rifle. Cleo Johnson was elected captain of the team for next year. Earline Wood, Doris Howell, Pauline Hunt, Muriel Engler, Helen Potter, Martha Hennessy, Virginia Booth, Elizabeth Carey, Helen McDonald, Eldora Rempfer, Katharine Peabody, Jeanne Raebel, Evelyn Lindquist, and Dorothy Daylor were in the Messiah, which was the largest musical presentation given this year. Eldora Rempfer was chosen as a member of T K A, national forensic organization. She also has the lead in the play You and I.

Several money-making projects have been sponsored by the chapter. Recently  $\Pi B \Phi$  took over the sales of the Wet Hen, humorous magazine of the university, and the sales proved very successful.

Jeanne Raebel has been chosen rushing chairman for the next year. Her address is Wessington Springs, S.D.

GRADUATES: Lillie Irene Hagemeyer, 3941 Connecticut Ave., St. Louis; Delphine Roberta Meyer, 5585 Chamberlain Ave., St. Louis; and Dorothea Adair Pohlman, 869 Atlanta Ave., Webster Groves.

Missouri B gave a benefit bridge at the Gatesworth Hotel, St. Louis, on April 11 in order to raise money. The mothers' club cooperated with the chapter. Candy was contributed by the active members of the Fraternity, and there were prizes for every table. The chapter divided into two sections to sell the tickets, and the losing group gave a cooky-shine to the one selling the most tickets.

Sally Crosby, a pledge, was a maid at the junior prom, the social event of the year at Washington University, on April 10. Mary Jane Richards and Delphine Meyer have been chosen from their representative classes, the junior and senior, to take part in the May fête. The queen of May this year will be chosen among these maids through popular vote of the women.

The actives aided the alumnae chapter in selling tickets for Such is Gratitude, and over five hundred dollars was earned by the alumnae in this way.

The rush captain for this coming year is Elizabeth Shilke, 405 W. Swon Ave., Webster Groves, Missouri.

GRADUATES: Betty Love, B.A., 1105 S. Pickwick, Gisela K. Atkinson, B.A., 1439 E. Delmar, and Frances G. Atkinson, B.A., 1439 E. Delmar, all of Springfield.

Following the initiation the alumnae club gave a cooky-shine for the new initiates and actives. The program was given by the initiates and included songs and stunts. As is customary, the chapter awarded two recognition pins, one to Winifred Dark for having the highest grades of the pledge group, the other to Mary McDaniel for being the most representative pledge in all phases of college life.

Two of the most outstanding social events of the year have been the formal tea, given by the actives for the pledges and the mothers of the pledges and actives, and an informal tea, given by the actives for the faculty. Large bouquets of cut flowers were used for decorations on both occasions.

The annual chapter formal dance was given at the beginning of the semester at the Kentwood Arms Hotel. The decorations consisted of modernistic drawings around the walls and the programs in wine and silver blue were also novel with a modernistic touch. The intermission feature was a very clever group of youthful dancers who proved to be highly entertaining.

In intramural games this year  $\Pi \Phi$  has been successful, having taken second place in both volleyball and basketball. The baseball tournament has not yet been played. The chapter hopes to keep the trophy which they won last year in intramural sports.

Jean Handley was president of the W.A.A. the first semester. In this organization three Pi Phis are heads of the following sports: Ellen Reynaud, hockey; Virginia Hogg, swimming; and Helen Hobbs, baseball.

Louise Arcularius and Margaret Lacy were members of the cast of The Hotel Universe by Philip Barry, an all-college play which was given March 27. Ellen Reynaud has been elected secretary of Y.W.C.A. The following are on the Mirror, college newspaper, staff: Helen Hubbell, Mary Lucy Arnold, Dorothy Douthat, Helen Moorman, and Mary Elizabeth Shollenberger. Jean Handley was initiated into  $\Sigma \tau \Delta$ , national professional English fraternity. Ylene Carter is the new treasurer of the dormitory house council. Helen Moorman and Ylene Carter are new members of  $\Lambda \mu \Omega$ , local honorary music fraternity for women.

The staff of the Sou'wester conducts a beauty and popularity contest annually, the results of which are not disclosed until the yearbook is distributed. Louise Arcularius and Betty Anderson are the  $\Pi \Phi$  nominees.

Ylene Carter has been elected chapter delegate to convention. She will be accompanied by Katharine Jones, who is planning to go abroad with the Pi Phis after convention.

The new initiates gave a cooky-shine recently and presented a beautiful Philco Radiola to the chapter.

Nebraska B announces the pledging of the following girls: Melvina Gledhill, Sedalia, Mo.; Marjorie Campbell, Dorothy Frankforter, and Vivian Price, all of Lincoln; and Ann Peterson, Aurora.

The chapter feels very fortunate in having several girls elected to office. Marjorie Peterson was elected president of the Y.W.C.A. Dorothy Weaver was elected a mo were elected to membership in  $\Pi \Gamma M$ , honorary social science organization. Gladys Nimmo was one of the three members chosen by  $K \Delta \Pi$ , honorary education fraternity.

Perhaps the most important social function of the campus is the junior prom. Margaret Thomas led the prom this year. After the prom, the  $\Pi \Phi$ s were hostesses to their dates at a buffet supper, served at the house. The following day the Fraternity entertained with a prom tea dance in their new home.

The mothers' club presented the Fraternity with a lovely set of silver as an Easter present.

Peggy Grisinger represented the Wyoming chapter of Spurs, national pep organization, at its convention in Salt Lake City. Lillian Carlson was Wyoming's delegate to  $\Pi \Gamma N$  convention in Denver.

Wyoming A has been the recipient of many lovely gifts for their new home.  $K K \Gamma$  presented a pair of brass candlesticks, and their patronesses gave the chapter a beautiful brass vase to complete the set.  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  gave a pair of candlesticks in the form of serpents;  $K \Sigma$ , the mounted crest of  $\Pi B \Phi$ ;  $A X \Omega$ , a silver pitcher in futuristic design;  $A T \Omega$ , a set of andirons;  $K \Delta$ , a brass jardiniere; and  $\Pi \Omega$ , a divers colored pottery bowl.

The chapter's scholarship is improving. Strict study rules are in effect, and when the last grades were issued, Wyoming A was standing very high. Twenty-four  $\Pi \Phi$ s are on the university honor roll.

Each spring the dramatic department of the university sends out its most talented actors upon a tour of the state. This year the cast includes three girls, all of whom are  $\Pi \Phi$ s. Nancy Burrage and Hermione Bradstreet hold the feminine leads in all of the plays, and Marion MacAllister was selected as the entertainer for the players. The Good Will Players, as they are known throughout the state, are becoming very well known in Wyoming.

Wyoming's basketball team won the eastern division of the Rocky Mountain Conference this year. All of the six Cowboys are freshmen or sophomores. The conference finals were played in Salt Lake City, and Wyoming was defeated, winning only one out of three games.

The chapter is proud to have three girls chosen for Hesperia. They were Margaret Anderson, Margaret Barnum, and Adeline Roehrig. Helen Reybold was elected president of  $\Delta \Phi \Delta$ , honorary art fraternity.

Mary Jane Arnold was repledged when she returned to college this spring.

A spring rush party was given in the form of a buffet supper at the Denver Country Club. Ruth Gates is the new rush captain, and she is assisted by Margaret Burnett and Betty Howard. This year a new system was used whereby each chapter drew for the day of its party thus avoiding conflicts. There is also a new plan being devised, through which it is hoped that much needless rushing may be eliminated: chapters will entertain at two parties in the fall, both of which must be within the city limits of Denver, and then will make calls during the last two weeks of August. Date books will be issued for the first three parties of rush week, and invitations for the last three will be sent out during rush week.

The chapter sent $100 to the American Red Cross Relief Fund, for help for the drought areas, and sent $100 to the Settlement School, in place of having decorations at the winter dance.

A new entertainment was presented by the Dodo, the campus humorous magazine, as a fashion show for both men and women, under the direction of Maxine Cooley. Members of the various men's and women's fraternities modeled the clothes.  $\Pi \Phi$  entered several acts in the annual Women's League vaudeville, given for women only.

Mercedes Sargent, the new social chairman, has made plans for the annual Mothers' Day luncheon for mothers and fathers at the chapter house, for a brothers' dinner, a tea for the convention delegates, freshman teas, a May Day dinner, several buffet suppers, and the spring dance.

A new movement on the campus has been started for the organization of Fireside Forums, through which, under the guidance of speakers, topics of world interest may be discussed.  $\Pi \Phi$  plans to hold hers on Sunday afternoons after dinner.

The rush chairman is Ruth Gates, Chateau Gates, Evergreen.

The death of Mrs. J. E. McColpin on February 2, was a source of great grief on the part of many of her devoted friends here. She was the chaperon for all of last year and up until Christmas time of this year.

Instead of the usual tea for new hostesses, Mrs. Robert Sellers was honored with a breakfast. The decorations were in pink and green, spring colors, and flowers were boughs of apple, peach, and pear blossoms.

Sara Logan, Pensacola, Florida, and Camille Pressley, Fort Worth, Texas, were pledged on February 7. Sara was elected to  $\Lambda \Lambda \Delta$  this semester, and was also chairman of the freshman Y.W.C.A. banquet.

Martha Watson was awarded the scholarship ring for the highest average among those initiated March 28. She has for her big sister Patty Lee Smith, who, by virtue of the highest average among the members, is entitled to have her name on the chapter scholarship shield.

Alece Locke was praised most highly by critics for her pantomime performance in A Kiss in Xanadu. Mary Ruth Holbrook had one of the leads in The Beggar on Horseback which was given in conjunction with A Kiss. Helen Bethell played the piano for several scenes.

Pauline Sill was elected president of the honorary business club. She has taken Ragna Pearce's place as the outstanding woman in the business department. Sue Turner Fitts has been elected band queen. students who bring them before the faculty for discussion. It is expected that much will be accomplished because of the keen interest and excellent cooperation of both faculty and students. Betty Werlein is one of the leaders of this group.

As a result of the elections now going on, Mettha Westfeldt has been made president of the junior class for next year. Winifred Eskrigge is nominated for vice president of the student body, and a number of others are among the nominees for major offices. Very prominent among campus activities is the National Student Federation of America, an organization which meets to discuss questions of international relationship. Rebecca Barton has been elected president. At the last meeting of the forum there were very interesting and heated discussions concerning the Monroe Doctrine and its relations to the Latin-American countries.

Louisiana A is very proud of one of its alumna, Maridel Saunders, who recently won the Women's Southern Golf Championship.  $\Pi \Phi$  is also prominent in the art world. Nancy Allen is one of the four students chosen to exhibit their work, this being the first time students have received this honor. The book jacket for Frans Blum's new book, The Conquest of Yucatan, designed by Margaret Henriques, was chosen by the New York publishers from the group of thirty submitted.

Mrs. R. D. Brown's visit was thoroughly enjoyed by every member of Louisiana A and the chapter feels that a great deal was accomplished during the two days she was here.

The annual alumnae bridge party for the benefit of the Settlement School was held April 23, and the actives recently made fifty dollars for the school at a rummage sale. As has always been the custom of Louisiana A, a banquet was held on Founders' Day, at which the various awards for the best fraternity spirit, the outstanding pledge, scholarship, etc., were made.

Dorothy Walker has been elected rush captain for next year. Her address is 7821 Freret St., New Orleans.

GRADUATES: Esther Bowman, B.S., Deer Lodge; Josephine Connors, B.S., Townsend; Helen Eagle, B.S., Bozeman; Josephine Gary, B.S., Bozeman; Margaret Rowe, B.S., Butte; Elizabeth Seitz, B.S., Bozeman; and Alice Vandenhook, B.S., Bozeman.

Miss Gail DeWolf, Grand Secretary, made her bi-annual official visit to Montana A in the latter part of March. The members of Montana A enjoyed her visit very much and a great deal of enthusiasm and interest was shown when Miss DeWolf told about the trip abroad that she is to sponsor. A cooky-shine was given in her honor, and following this several entertaining stunts were presented by various members of the chapter.

A new examination plan has been incorporated at Montana State College. Regular classes are held until the end of the quarter, and the teachers give examinations during the last class periods of the quarter as they so desire. Before this new arrangement regular classes were not held during the last week of the quarter and a certain time was designated for each examination.

Montana State College was not appropriated the sum of money which it asked for, but the state legislature did apportion some money to make improvements on the buildings of the campus.

The State University at Missoula, Montana, and the State College at Fort Collins, Colorado, petitioned Montana State College for charters of Spurs, which is an honorary sophomore organization. The mother chapter of Spurs, which is located at Montana State College, granted them their petitions and this organization was installed at these colleges in the spring.

In the middle of March the state basketball tournament was held in Bozeman. A great deal of enthusiasm was shown throughout the tournament, and a contest was conducted among the men's and women's fraternities for house decorations.

Members of Montana A are very proud of Nina Davis, who was awarded a  $\Pi \Phi$  ring for attaining the highest scholarship average among the pledges, and Jean Miller, who was awarded a  $\Pi \Phi$  locket because she was second in scholarship, her average being very close to that of Nina's.

In March the members of Montana A entertained their fathers at the annual Dads' Dollar dinner. The freshman members gave a stunt and the dads presented a very clever skit representing the last State Legislature.

At the annual co-ed prom, which was held in March, Patty Patten won first prize for the best stunt. Constance Wiggernhorn and Lucille Lytle placed first in the prize fox-trot. May Burkhart and Kay Rivers took part in the Looters' annual musical comedy Take It From Me which was presented in April. Josephine Gary and Doris Torongo were chosen as two of the six sponsors of the annual military ball, which was held March 20 at the Hotel Baxter.

Kay Rivers of Miles City, Montana, has been elected as rush captain for next fall.

Montana A is looking forward with much pleasure to the return of their house mother, Mrs. Eunice B. Weaver, in September.

This year the boys' and girls' vocational congress, a scholarship contest sponsored by the faculty, and extemporaneous and oratorical contest, were held April 30, May 1, and 2. These three events were combined under the name of High School Week, and three students from each high school in the state attended. On the last day awards were given to the winners of the speakers' contests. A pageant represented by all of the departments in the college was presented to the representatives of the various schools.

GRADUATES: Katherine Roe, Box 505, Ionemarie Minger, Route One, Louise Cuddy, 1207 N. Fifteenth St., Helen Hanson, 1308 N. Nineteenth St., Catherine York, 1508 N. Eighteenth St., all of Boise; Julia Vallor, 855, W. Clark, Pocatello; Blanche Currie, 719 S. Fifth St., Pocatello; Jane Robinson, Central; Hazel Simonds, Bonners Ferry; Elsie Warm, Pi Beta Phi, Moscow; Lois Porterfield, and Helen Douglas, both of St. Maries.

Idaho A enjoyed a visit from Gail DeWolf from March 24 to 26. A formal dinner was given in her honor to introduce to her some of the most prominent members of the faculty. The chapter was delighted to have Miss De Wolf as their guest and thoroughly enjoyed her visit.

The last local group on the campus has received its national charter. B X, local fraternity, was granted a Δ T Δ charter and will be formally installed on May 2. The University of Idaho is now one of the few colleges to have all the fraternities national.

Hazel Simonds was elected vice president of the senior class for this semester. Belle Porterfield was elected secretary of the Associated Women Students for next semester.

Two of Idaho Alpha's freshmen made a wonderful showing in the women's swimming meet held on March 30. Between the two of them they won five first places and two seconds, making it an easy win for Π B Φ. Lorna McCain and Dorothy Williams were the two and they are both very fine swimmers.

Lois Porterfield returned from Portland and Eugene, Oregon, where she has been debating with the Idaho team. She leaves again for Sacramento and Reno for the same purpose. Lois was recently initiated into Δ E P, forensic society, in appreciation of the outstanding work she has done in debating.

Maybelle Donaldson was pledged to Σ A I, national honorary society for music students. This is an especial honor for May-belle because she is only a freshman and very few first year students are pledged.

The rush chairman is Elsie Lafferty, Kellogg, Idaho.

INITIATED, March 12, 1931: Marjorie Barrett, '33, 2512 Thirty-third S., Seattle; Marjorie Beyer, 6132 Warner Dr., Los Angeles, Calif.; Lenore Berlin, '33, c/o Gamble Robinson Co., Minneapolis, Minn.; Ruth Edwards, '32, Ellensburg; Olive Ehrhardt, '33, 701 W. Fourteenth, Apt. B, Spokane; Margaret Gaines, '33, 809 W. Silver Ave., Butte, Mont.; Elizabeth Jackson, '34, 6414 Brooklyn Ave., Seattle; Elise Tiffany, '32, Ellensburg; and Mary Weber, '34, 5804 Seventeenth Ave., N.E., Seattle.

Miss Gail De Wolf, Grand Secretary, made her chapter visit in April a very enjoyable and helpful one for Washington A. The chapter was very happy to become acquainted with her and received many benefits from this visit. Mrs. Dorothy Cunningham Douglass, Iota Province President, also made her chapter visit during this period and was likewise, very welcome, and Washington A benefited greatly from the visit.

The chapter was greatly honored by having Mrs. Libbey, one of the founders, to dinner on her birthday. The girls enjoyed seeing her again, and were happy to be able to entertain her.

Washington A has been quite prominent in campus affairs during the winter quarter: Vivian Downey was elected secretary of the student body. The chapter felt very honored in that Vivian is the first fraternity girl to be elected to this position for two years. The last fraternity girl so honored, was also a member of the chapter. Vivian has been on many campus committees, also; Frances Wilson was chosen chairman of the local Panhellenic social committee; Pat Reilly has been on all of the three annual university dance committees, and on the ticket committee for the Jamboree; Marjorie Douglass was chosen assistant director for the spring opera; Helen Vernon has been prominent on campus committees; Phyllis Stone was chosen to be one of the participants in the junior girls' vodvil; Marjorie Beyer was chosen as one of the ten most beautiful girls on the campus this year; Margaret Gaines was elected general secretary of the all-American dance committee; Margaret Marjorie Beyer, and Lenore Berlin were also appointed to serve on the presidential election committee of the student body.

Washington A was greatly sorrowed by the death of one of its pledges, Charlotte Svensson, on March 24, 1931.

of a picnic given by the Palo Alto alumnae club to the active chapter. This is the first year this plan has been carried out. California A is making every effort this year toward learning to know better her alumnae. The organized alumnae group has come more than half way in fostering a spirit of close cooperation between active and alumnae members.

Tentative plans are being arranged for an exchange dinner with California B. Members of California B are invited to visit their Stanford chapter as often as possible. Recently several members of California A and I were guests of the chapter. It was a pleasure to have these visitors from the Los Angeles chapter.

Several methods have been used this year to promote closer harmony with other chapters on the campus. Σ K was entertained at a dinner in the chapter house. Π Φ has given several "jolly-ups" to which men are invited. Two days a week are set aside for guests for luncheon in addition to the regular Sunday night supper to which different fraternities are invited.

The chapter has been exceptionally well represented in campus activities. Dramatics sports, Y.W.C.A., the Stanford Fellowship Board, campus committees, and publications are principal activities in which members of California A have engaged.

Barbara Balfour, 1963 Marengo Ave., S. Pasadena, is to be next year's rushing chairman.

GRADUATES: Emory Ardis, B.A.; Mary Herbert, B.A.; Barbara McCartney, B.A.;

Janet McCoy, B.A.; Ella Sandberg, B.A.; Katherine Staub, B.S.M.; and Ethel Ware, B.A.

Since the beginning of the spring term, California Γ, has been busy making plans for all the spring events and carrying them out. The first of these events was the Settlement School benefit. California Δ and the Los Angeles alumnae joined and held one large party as usual. This year the benefit was given in the Gold Room of the Los Angeles Biltmore Hotel. It has become customary that the benefit be given in the form of a bridge party and fashion show. The models were the girls selected from both chapters.

Spring rushing was small but successful with the pledging of Mary Frances Hayward, Jewel Romano, and Roberta von Kleinsmidt, on February 24.

The mothers held their first meeting on point of view and visiting officers have increased this attitude.

Founders' Day was celebrated by the chapter twice this year. Active members met with California B and the alumnae clubs at the new International House in Berkeley, April 4. The second celebration was in the form of a shower for the house. They are planning many events for this spring the first to be a benefit on May 2. California Γ entertained the mothers on March 24 to show how much the chapter appreciated their work.

On Sunday, March 1, Adele Taylor Alford, Kappa Province President, made her official visit to the chapter. This same evening the chapter entertained with a formal dinner, honoring Mrs. Alford. Those attending from outside the chapter were: Miss Mary Sinclair Crawford and Mrs. Pearl A. Smith, deans of women at the University of Southern California, and the presidents of other chapters of fraternities belonging to the Panhellenic Association. The following two days were spent in hard but happy work together.

On Wednesday evening, March 4, California Γ and California Δ held an exchange dinner. Half of California Δ being guests of California Γ and half of California Γ being guests of California Δ at their respective houses. This is one of the ways in which the two chapters keep closely in contact with each other.

Henry Bruce has been appointed controller of the University of Southern California to take the place left vacant by the death of Warren T. Bovard.

At present the university is starting on its ten year extension plan by clearing ground for the Doheny Memorial Library. If the plans are carried out according to schedule the campus will contain forty square acres, most of which will be covered by buildings.

The University of California at Los Angeles has recently had the honor of having a  $\Phi$  B K chapter installed, and Mary Sims of California  $\Delta$  has been elected to membership. Mary was also chosen for the honorary history club. Marion McCarthy has joined Tri C, the honorary journalistic fraternity, Marjorie Barter, N  $\Delta$  O the political science honorary, Helen Zeigler  $\Sigma$  A I, the national music fraternity, and Carolyn Goldwater was chosen for the university dramatics society.

Social affairs have been rather negligent this semester, owing to an attempt to raise the scholarship average. However, there was an exchange dinner with the California  $\Gamma$  chapter, and also the presentation tea which introduced to the campus six new pledges: Katherine Ambrose, Jean Foulkes, Doris Hanna, Flora Lamb, Eleanor Riley, and Elizabeth Sutherland.

The associated students are presenting a musical comedy this year in which California  $\Delta$  is taking a great interest. Virginia Horner is playing the lead, and Bettie Edmondson, Betty Fowler, Peggy Hill, and Mary McKnight are taking part.

The chapter is planning several bridge benefits to raise money for the chapter house, and also an extensive rushing program will start soon. Dorothy Welbourne is rushing chairman.

California  $\Delta$  is affiliating two of her transfers, Jean Marble from California B, and Lillian Sprague from Arizona A.

INITIATED: February 23, 1931: Margaret Brownlee, '31, Tucson; Virginia Burton, '33, Tucson; Lorena Kirby, '32, Dallas, Tex.; Alice Maechtlen, '33, San Dimas, Calif.; Dorothy Maechtlen, '32, San Dimas, Calif.; Ruth Pifer, '31, Urbana, Ill.; Betty Risdon, '32, Long Beach, Calif.; and Jane Wilder, '32, Los Angeles, Calif.

The most outstanding event of the past few months was the official visit of Miss Gail De Wolf to Arizona A. The above initiates have something to remember as a decided honor, that of having been initiated by the Grand Secretary. A formal tea and dinner were given in her honor during her three day stay.

Arizona A is busy planning a benefit bridge party to raise money for the Settlement School. From now on there will be many rush parties, among which will be a Sunday breakfast and swimming party combined. The annual Greenwich Village dance was very enjoyable, the basement of the chapter house being made into a cozy underground café where near-beer, pretzels, and rye bread and swiss cheese sandwiches were served.

Nine girls were pledged at the beginning of the second semester: Evelyn Asher, Ill.; Pauline Fairweather, Tucson; Frances Huddleson, Ft. Huachuca; Patty Newton, El Paso, Tex.; Idella Sainsbury and Roberta Sainsbury, St. John; Elinor Smith, San Diego, Calif.; Marjorie Sweet, El Paso, Tex.; and Virginia Wier, Chicago, Ill.

Idella Sainsbury is to have the part of Viola in the Shakespeare play, Twelfth Night. Mary Jean Eads is one of the ten sophomore girls to be elected to F.S.T., a junior women's honorary organization. Mary Frances Berryman is running for secretary of the student body organization. In a recent horse show Katherine Teague and Frances Huddleson took part, the latter winning a third prize in the basic class.

The University of Arizona polo team, rated as the best in the southwest, left in April for a playing tour of the East, to play Harvard, Princeton, and several other of the best teams in the country. Polo at Arizona is one of the favorite winter sports, arousing much interest among the townspeople.

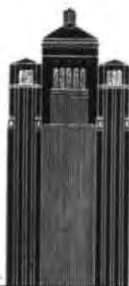

The annual A.W.S. co-ed prom, which only girls attend, in costume, was most entertaining.  $\Pi$   $\Phi$  received honorable mention for its skit, written by Franklin Royer. Virginia Culbertson also received honorable mention for her interpretation of Sadie, the snake.
