Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency

SUBSCRIPTIONS for any magazine published may be made through the Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency. Club rates are given and special offers are made. Place your renewals with and send your new subscriptions to:

MRS. E. S. STEPHENSON
 224 SOUTH CRESTWAY
 WICHITA, KANSAS

The Settlement School receives all profits from this Agency.

Announcements

THIS year there are many changes in officers and members of national committees, and also changes in the addresses of old officers. Please look these up on the directory pages in the front of this ARROW before undertaking any correspondence this fall.

The Editor announces with pleasure that the special rate of $7.50 for life subscription to the ARROW will be continued for a short time, and hopes that many will take advantage of it. Subscriptions are to be sent to the Central Office, and will bring to you both the new edition of the Directory of the Fraternity, and the Golden Anniversary number of the ARROW.

The Endowment drive will continue, under a new chairman. Many Pi Phis have not yet given to this fund, which means so much for the future development of the fraternity—to them the opportunity is still open, and to them a special appeal is made.

The report of the Magazine Agency in this number shows the importance of this added means of income for the Settlement School. Mrs. Stephenson will continue as its director.

All girls who may be transferring to another college where there is a chapter of Pi Beta Phi are urgently requested to notify the chairman of the Committee on Transfers.

Attention is called to changes in the standing pages at the back of this issue: for the future the wine and blue ribbon of the official shade and quality will be kept by the Central Office, and should be ordered from there; and chapters and clubs in the vicinity of Chicago will be interested in seeing that carnations of the true wine shade may be ordered from a florist in that city.

On account of the change in the schedule of the ARROW for this year only, made necessary by the publication of the Directory number, corresponding secretaries will find that they have one less letter to write than usual, and that the letters are due at different dates. Chapter letters must be in the hands of the chapter letter editor October 10 and March 5; alumnae club letters must be in the hands of the alumnae club editor October 10 and March 5, and their reports for publication in the September ARROW of 1935 must be in her hands on July 20.

The fact that the Editor lives at so great a distance from the publishers of the ARROW has caused a revision in the schedule for the magazine, allowing more time for mailing. This makes it more than ever important that material reach the Editor on time, and that an absolute deadline be established and kept. For this year, all copy must be mailed by her to the publisher on October 20 and March 15, and she asks the cooperation of you all in making possible the completion of copy by those dates.

Are you transferring to another college this year? If so, please notify the Committee on Transfers whose address is given in the Directory at the front of this issue.

The following statistics as to the growth of Pi Beta Phi are of interest:

Total members initiated into the fraternity 25,766

Total members of Pi Beta Phi now living and in good standing 24,326

Total active members 2,372

Total alumnae members 21,954

Total ARROW subscribers 20,990

THE ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

SEPTEMBER, 1934

EDITORIAL

THE editor hopes that this issue will be read with interest. It represents many hours of work on the part of those who wrote its reports. The story of the life of the Fraternity for the last three years is here. It is a story of achievement, of success under difficult conditions. It is given to you with pride.

* * *

THE information ARROW of Convention year is not only the largest number of the ARROW that we ever publish—more than that, it comes always with a significance all its own. To those who have had the privilege and the joy of attending Convention, it serves to summarize the business done there, to repeat in black and white the things heard there—and besides, there is added zest in reading reports of clubs and chapters, with our happy meetings with some of their members fresh in our minds. To those who could not go, but who long to keep in touch with the activities of $\Pi B \Phi$, it brings a record of the proceedings of the serious side of Convention, and the story of the work of the chapters and clubs which lies behind the strength of the Fraternity. Convention is something like a revival meeting, in the renewal of interest and loyalty that it brings, and in the demonstration it gives of the growth of the Fraternity. It is the work of the Information ARROW to bring this inspiration to every member. It is yours for the reading.

* * *

A GRACIOUS gift, one from the heart and in the real spirit of $\Pi B \Phi$, is the recent one made to the fraternity by New York Beta alumnae. When faculty regulation closed the life of this fine chapter, the funds in its treasury were saved in the hope that some day the charter might be restored. There seems little hope of such a thing now, and the girls have divided their fund among the national projects of the Fraternity. The details of the gift appear in the annual report of the Grand President in this number. It is accepted with gratitude, and with a deep sense of pride in such loyalty.

* * *

IT IS with pleasure that the editor calls attention to the splendid record of Lambda Province, which was 100 per cent in its donations to all funds in the philanthropic work of the Fraternity. In this province also the Yakima, Corvallis, and Wenatchee clubs were 100% in paid memberships—truly a splendid record!

AN INTERESTING NEW PHASE of the alumnae work will be the organization of an Army and Navy Auxiliary, to take care of the many alumnae members who follow husbands in the military services. It is seldom that these girls are in one place long enough to become really identified with a club, even if there is one nearby—and this grouping of them will not only give them an active touch with the work of the fraternity but will immediately bring them to the attention of the nearest club when they move. The chairman of the new auxiliary is Eleanor Arden Craig (Mrs. James E.), Florida B, Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida. Will Pi Phis who are connected in any way with the Army or the Navy, send their names to her at once?

TWO CHANGES have occurred in the staff of the ARROW. Dorothy Jeffrey Wulp, associate editor and business manager, felt last winter that she must give up her work, but was persuaded to stay on to help the editor with the difficult task of a first issue, until a successor could be found for her. The Fraternity owes a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Wulp for much fine work, especially during the time she acted as temporary editor when Mrs. Brown was forced to resign as Editor, before a successor could be appointed. Mrs. Wulp will remain on the staff as a contributor, and her experience will be valuable there. Her place will be taken by Mary Emrich Van Buren, Illinois E, who now lives in San Diego, and so will be able to work closely with the editor.

The other change is in the chapter letter editorship. Business matters have compelled Candace Secor Armstrong to give up the department she was handling so ably, with a record of greatly improved chapter letters, and with a letter from every chapter in each issue. Her successor is Ruth Wilson, Kentucky A, former Delta Province Vice-President.

THE November issue of the ARROW will be a new directory of membership, sent out as a regular number of the magazine. It will be complete, giving the names of members in alphabetical order, by chapters, and in geographical distribution. The news and pictures of Convention, usually in the November number, will come this time in the February one—and this number will come to subscribers early in December, since it seemed unnecessary to hold this material as long as the regular publication date.

* * *

THIS year the ARROW reaches a memorable milestone, the completion of a half century of unbroken, always interesting life. Fifty years ago this fall, at the convention in Iowa City, the establishment of the ARROW was voted by the fraternity, following a suggestion made at the Convention in Burlington two years before, that the "fraternity should establish, when funds would permit, a magazine devoted to literary purposes and the interests of the society." The first issue appeared in May, 1885, under the direction of Kansas A chapter, with Mary Miller Barnes as the first editor. In commemoration, a special anniversary number of the ARROW will be given to the Fraternity in May, 1935. Our Golden Anniversary ARROW—the editor hopes to make it of real interest and historical value. She will be grateful for any information relating to the early years of the ARROW, and any pictures of interest.

From the twenty page pamphlet of 1885, established by a convention in which only eleven chapters were represented, to an anniversary issue in 1935, authorized by a convention of something over five hundred members, with 78 chapters represented! What a long road it is! and what an honorable one!

ADELE TAYLOR ALFORD

Minutes of Thirty-First Biennial Convention

Old Faithful Inn, Yellowstone National Park,
Wyoming, June 24-30

FIRST SESSION, SUNDAY, JUNE 24, 1934, 8:30 P.M.

THE Thirty-First Biennial Convention of $\Pi B \Phi$ Fraternity was formally opened by the Grand President, Amy Burnham Onken, at the convention hall, Old Faithful Lodge, Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming, on the evening of June 24, 1934. After the entrance of the Founder, Inez Smith Soule, escorted by Bess Randall Erskine, Convention Guide, and Emma Patton Noble, Grand President in 1878, escorted by Betty Stoolman, the Anthem was sung. Following the reading of the Ritual and the invocation by Frankie Cochran Hill, chairman of the Settlement School Committee, Fae Rowley Huttenlocher, escorted by Elizabeth Fuller, Iowa Z, was introduced as the Convention Initiate. Convention honored as its guest, Emma Patton Noble, Martha Kimball, former Grand Treasurer, and Elda Smith, former Grand Secretary, were introduced. Other present and former National Officers; the Settlement School Committee Chairman and members; the chairman and members of standing committees in attendance; the Convention Guide; and Christina Meredith, Pennsylvania Γ , $\Pi B \Phi$ Fellow for 1934, were introduced. Betty Stoolman, daughter of the Grand Treasurer, was introduced as the Grand Council Page. Mr. Roger W. Toll, superintendent of Yellowstone Park, gave an address of welcome to $\Pi B \Phi$. A demonstration of Convention attendance showed that both the Grand President and the President Emeritus had attended ten previous Conventions.

A demonstration was then called for $\Pi \Phi$ mothers and daughters both in attendance in Convention, also for Founders and granddaughters. The scholarship demonstrations of individual and chapter honors such as $\Phi B K$ and $\Phi K \Phi$, followed; at least five-sixths of the delegates represented chapters who had had such honors in the interim of convention. Kentucky A, in the showing of first place in scholarship on a campus, showed that she had held first place for five consecutive semesters out of six since the last convention, with the results of the sixth semester still unreported. There were also activity demonstrations showing individual members and chapters who held positions of extra-curricular leadership and honor on their respective campuses. A demonstration of beauty, prom, carnival and engineering queens followed, as well as the showing of the elections of the most popular girls on their respective campuses. The Grand President gave a brief inspirational address to the assembled convention. Formal pledging for the Convention Initiate followed after the meeting was adjourned.

SECOND SESSION, MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1934, 9:30 A.M.

THE meeting was called to order by the Grand President. Following the Ritual and the invocation by Laura Storms Knapp, Theta Province President, $\Pi B \Phi$ songs were sung. The Grand Secretary reported for the Committee on Credentials, that the delegates of all active chapters were in attendance and that the Mu Province Vice-President was not in attendance; and recommended that the Founder, Inez Smith Soule, be seated; that

RULES AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE AMY B. ONKEN AWARDS

Mr. Lloyd G. Balfour has presented to Pi Beta Phi a system of awards, to be called The Amy B. Onken Awards. These shall be administered under the following plan, approved by Mr. Balfour and enacted by the Grand Council.

The Awards shall be conducted under the auspices and direction of the fraternity and their bestowal shall be recognized as a special national fraternity honor. The Province Presidents and active chapters shall be advised early each year by bulletin publication or otherwise of the conditions and rules of the Awards. There shall be one Award for each province and one national Award.

The Awards shall be administered under the following rules and conditions:

1. The Awards shall be given on the basis of the following four qualifications—(1) Scholarship, (2) Personality, (3) Fraternity Service, and (4) Student Activity Participation.

2. Opportunity shall be given each active chapter to nominate to its Province President a candidate for the Province Award. The winner of the National Award shall be selected from the candidates named by the Province Presidents as the winners of the Awards in their respective provinces.

3. The Province President, in each province, shall receive all nominations from her chapters; shall determine the winner of the Province Award, following such consultation with chapter Alumnae Advisory Committees, college authorities, etc., as she may require; shall notify

Mr. Balfour and the Grand President of the winning candidate, giving the girl's name, address and chapter; shall receive the Province Award from Mr. Balfour; and shall present the Award to the winner. When presentation can be made in person, that shall be considered the preferable method; presentation shall otherwise be made by registered mail and each award shall be accompanied by an official letter of congratulation from the Province President. There is no allowance for travel for personal presentations.

4. Any special plan desired by the Province President for deciding the Award for her province, such as a committee of local fraternity members, may be used, but must be reported to and approved by the Grand Council, in advance. When a committee is used, its decision must be unanimous in order to determine the Award.

5. The nominee of a chapter for the province Award must be a member of the Senior class or, if she is matriculated in special or departmental work, must be of such classification as shall be considered by the Province President concerned to be equivalent to Senior classification.

6. The chapter candidate shall be selected by a four-fifths vote of a committee which shall be made up of five active members and the five members of the Alumnae Advisory Committee. The chapter shall elect by majority vote, at a regular chapter meeting, the five active members who shall serve on this joint committee and shall elect three Juniors and two Sophomores.

7. All nominations for the Province Awards must be in the hands of the respective Province Presidents by February 15 of each year. All Province Awards shall be decided upon and reported to Mr. Balfour and to the Grand President by March 31 of each year.

8. All nominations for the National Award must be in the hands of the Grand President by May 1, of each year. Each nomination, which represents the winner of a province award, shall be submitted by the Province President concerned and shall be accompanied by a letter of recommendation prepared by the joint chapter committee responsible for the original nomination of the candidate. WHEREAS, The Thirty-first Biennial Convention of $\Pi B \Phi$ Fraternity will this day adjourn, and

WHEREAS, It wishes to express appreciation of the untiring efforts of its officers and members, the many acts of thoughtfulness, the painstaking work in preparation for this Convention, and the lasting friendships which we feel will result therefrom, therefore

Be it resolved, That we, delegates and guests, are deeply grateful for the honor of the presence of our most beloved Founder, Inez Smith Soule. We mourn the loss of Jennie Horne Turnbull and Libbie Brook-Gaddis, whose passing from our midst deprives us of their charming personalities, but the memory of their lives will ever be a challenge to our own best efforts. We are regretful that circumstances have prevented our other two Founders, Fannie Whitenack Libbey and Margaret Campbell from honoring us with their attendance but were cheered by their kind messages of greeting. By our renewed pledge to the ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$ we recognize our debt to all these loved women and pay them tribute.

to Emma Patton Noble, past Grand President, we are grateful for the inspiration of their presence and are hopeful that they will inspire many succeeding conventions.

That to Amy Burnham Onken, beloved Grand President, we not only acknowledge her superior leadership of our fraternity under all situations with deep appreciation, but we attest our admiration of her noble personality and her undying loyalty and devotion to the ideals, aspirations and projects of $\Pi \beta \Phi$. We also acknowledge the distinct honor brought to the fraternity through the conferring upon her of the honorary degree of Master of Arts by Monmouth College on the occasion of their 78th anniversary. That we also thank Grace Filler, National Historian; Helen Kammerer McKendrew, National Supervisor of Chapter Accounting, and Edith U. Stephenson, Director of the Magazine Agency, for their part in the success of the Convention and their continued efforts during the interim between conventions which have made possible such splendid results.

That we appreciate the work of our Province Presidents and our Province Vice-Presidents, not only during the interim of conventions when $\Pi \beta \Phi$ has seen a strengthening of her chapters and alumnae clubs, but during this Convention in their concentration to the tasks before them. And may we here call special attention to the work during Convention of Ruth Wilson, Mary Frost, and Helen Corkum in the assumption of the duties of province officers who were unable to attend Convention.

That we express our deepest gratitude to Frances Carpenter Curtis for her long and faithful service as Beta Province Vice-President and for the distinct contribution of her delightful personality to the Convention.

A check of delegates showed all present save the Denver delegate and Lambda Province President.

The Grand Vice-President announced the Order of Business for the Alumnae Sessions to be: Reports of officers and committees; recommendations of Grand Council; recommendations of Province Vice-Presidents; recommendations contained in reports; Round Tables; Question Box on Settlement School; Election of Officers.

The following Committee on Nominations for the Alumnae Department was appointed by the Grand Vice-President: Elizabeth C. Buxton, Theta Province President, Chairman; Mary W. Gibson, Cleveland; Lillian Eldridge, Orlando; Marie B. Hagee, St. Louis; Grace Shrader, Yakima.

Reports of alumnae officers were then in order. The report of the Grand Vice-President was read and was accepted on motion of Epsilon Province President. The report of the Assistant to the Grand Vice-President was read and was accepted on motion of Zeta Province President. The report of the Settlement School Treasurer was read by the Treasurer, Miss Grace Post, and was accepted. It was moved by the Grand President, Amy B. Onken, that there be a rising vote of thanks for the services of Miss Grace Post as treasurer of the committee.

The report of the Settlement School Committee was read by the chairman, Frankie Cochran Hill, and was accepted on motion of the Ames delegate.

On the motion of the Indianapolis delegate it was voted to defer the report of the Magazine Agency and the Endowment Committee until the second session of the Alumnae department, at which time the active delegates would be present.

The report of the Committee on Educational Qualifications was read by the chairman, Winslow H. Nesbitt, and was accepted on motion of the Sabine District delegate.

The recommendations of Grand Council and the Province Vice-Presidents were considered. They were as follows:

1. That Article III, Section 10 (present 10 to become 11) be amended by inserting, "All national officers and members of national standing-committees shall be members in good standing of the alumnae department of the fraternity with dues paid by November 15 of each year."

This was put in the form of a motion by Delta Province Vice-President and was adopted by the Constitutional vote for amendments to the Constitution.

2. That $200.00 annually be paid to the Undergraduate Loan Fund from the Alumnae Fund was moved by the New York City delegate. The motion carried.

3. That three-fourths of the fraternity appropriation for the 50th Anniversary issue of the ARROW be taken from the Alumnae Fund was moved by Iota Province Vice-President. The motion carried.

4. That Stat. III, A, Sec. 5 be amended by inserting a new "g," the old one to become "h"—the paragraph to read as follows: "g. To visit or send a substitute, who shall preferably be from Grand Council, to every club during the interim of Conventions. 1. The length of visits shall be limited to one day. 2. Necessary expenses involved shall be paid from the national treasury."

The Austin delegate made the above motion. It was moved by the Louisville delegate that (1) be amended by adding, "at fraternity expense." Motion to amend carried.

The Grand President moved that (2) be amended by striking out "national treasury" and inserting in its place "Alumnae Fund." Motion to amend carried. The motion as amended was then voted on and adopted by the required constitutional vote. The motion as adopted reads:

"g. To visit or to send a substitute, who shall preferably be from the Grand Council, to every club during the interim of Conventions. 1. The length of the visit shall be limited to one day at fraternity expense. 2. Necessary expenses involved shall be paid from the Alumnae Fund."

5. That Army and Navy Auxiliaries of $\Pi B \Phi$ be established in the Alumnae Department to permit $\Pi B \Phi$ be established in the service but not living in towns where alumnae clubs are located to become affiliated with the national Alumnae Department was moved by the ARROW Editor. Motion carried.

6. That interest from the Alumnae Fund be applied annually to the Settlement School debt was moved by the North Shore delegate. It was moved by the New York City delegate that the motion be amended by adding that this policy may be changed at any time conditions warrant so doing. The motion to amend was lost. Iota Province President moved that the word "present" be inserted before the words "Settlement School debt." The motion to amend was carried. The motion as amended was then voted on and was carried.

Upon motion of the St. Louis delegate, it was voted to adjourn until 8:30 Wednesday evening.

Wednesday, June 27, 8:30 p.m.

The adjourned session of the Alumnae Department was called to order at 8:30 P.M. by the Grand Vice-President. The report of the Committee on Credentials was read and accepted on motion of the Louisville delegate. This provided for the seating of two additional alumnae delegates.

MINUTES OF PRE-CONVENTION MEETING OF GRAND COUNCIL

THE annual meeting of Grand Council was held at Old Faithful Inn in Yellowstone National Park June 15-23, 1934, all members being present. Reports of the national officers, the province presidents, the province vice-presidents, and the chairmen of standing committees were read and discussed, and policies formulated.

The recommendations of the committee on Extension were considered, and the following decisions were made:

I. It shall be the policy of the Fraternity that the visit of the Grand Council member to a petitioning group shall be made as promptly as possible after the preliminary requirements have been met. These preliminary requirements shall be:

- a. Receipt of the preliminary application for information, etc.
- b. Return of the formal, filled-in application for consideration.
- c. Meeting of the requirements by the college or university.
- d. The receipt of the cards from nearby chapters, clubs, and members expressing opinions on the group.

II. That the Fraternity encourage further investigation into extension possibilities at the University of Georgia, Louisiana State University, and North Carolina State College.

Grand Council voted

1. That a plan be submitted to the chapters for required chapter meeting programs.
2. That it be the policy of the Central Office that work done for chapters at their request be paid for by them.
3. That an official vote of appreciation be given the Director of the Central Office for her efficient work.
4. That the Fraternity issue a certificate of honorable mention in the Balfour Cup award.
5. That this certificate of honorable mention be made retroactive to 1929.
6. That the enforcement of the new initiation fee be further deferred until 1935 (July first).

7. That a new issue of the Directory be printed as a regular number of the ARROW, and that it be in three parts.

8. That a special appropriation, not to exceed $750 for the fiftieth anniversary number of the ARROW be authorized.

9. That the Editor of the ARROW be the member of Grand Council to maintain close contact with the Historian.

10. That the ARROW Editor supervise the writing of a new History and have general charge of its publication.

11. That in the working files of the Grand Treasurer and the Editor of the ARROW there shall be statements of the fact that the contingent fund has advanced money to the ARROW fund over a period of years, and that this amount is to be repaid to the contingent fund from any surpluses of the ARROW fund as this is possible from year to year.

12. That the Fraternity purchase copies of the book, "Building and Balancing Budgets," and supply these to members of Grand Council, the province presidents, and the active chapters, to be placed in their respective files.

After studying the report of the committee on Standardization and Survey, and the recommendations of the province presidents, Grand Council decided to award the Balfour Cup to Illinois Z, the Stoolman Vase to Colorado A, and honorable mention to Missouri Γ and California Γ, as there was a tie in the grades of the last two chapters mentioned.

Conferences were held with the chairman of the Settlement School committee, the assistants to the Grand President and the Grand Vice-President.

Grand Council formulated recommendations for action by the Thirty-first Biennial Convention, and completed final arrangements for Convention.

NITA HILL STARK, Grand Secretary

MINUTES OF THE POST-CONVENTION MEETING OF GRAND COUNCIL

FOLLOWING the Convention in Yellowstone Park, a post-convention meeting of Grand Council was held, all members being present.

The province presidents, province vice-presidents, the assistants to the Grand President and the Grand Vice-President, as well as the Director of the Central Office and the Supervisor of Chapter Accounting met in joint sessions with the Grand Council. The chairman of the Settlement School committee attended one meeting and spoke about Settlement School plans for the coming year.

It was voted by Grand Council:

1. That the installation fee paid by new chapters be $200.
2. That Mrs. Jennie Barbour Plym be re-appointed to the Board of Trustees.
3. That for the present interim of conventions Ontario B chapter, to be installed at the University of Western Ontario, be placed in Beta Province.
4. That the sentiment of Grand Council favor the middle west for the next convention.

The following changes in the Constitution were voted by Grand Council:

That Stat. II be amended by inserting section 9, to read:

Stat. II, Sec. 9. Procedure of Appeals to Convention from Action of Grand Council, Other Than the Withdrawing of a Chapter. The following rules and procedure shall govern and control in the event of appeals to Convention from action of Grand Council, other than the withdrawing of a chapter.

a. Any individual member or chapter, if it desires to appeal to Convention from action of Grand Council, shall, within sixty (60) days after the date of such action by Grand Council, send by registered mail to the Grand Secretary written notice, signed and dated, of its appeal to Convention from such action, and shall also send by registered mail a copy of such notice of appeal to each of the other members of Grand Council. The notice of appeal shall contain a brief statement of the intention to appeal to Convention and of the reasons for taking such appeal. Thus Subsection (a) shall not apply to any such appeal pending at the time of the adoption of this amendment to the Fraternity Statutes.

b. Upon the convening of any Convention to which such an appeal is pending, the Grand President shall announce to the Convention the pendency of such an appeal, and the Grand President shall thereupon appoint, out of the voting personnel five (5) impartial persons, of whom no more than two (2) shall be active members of active chapters, to be designated as the "Committee on Appeal of (the appealing chapter or person) Chapter or person," the first person named on such Committee to be the Chairman of the Committee. No member of the Grand Council and no person connected or affiliated with the appealing Chapter or person shall be qualified to act on this Committee. The Committee, as soon as practicable, after its appointment, shall fix upon and announce to the Convention the time and place it will meet to hear and consider the appeal. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Appeal, during the meeting of the Convention to which the appeal is pending, to hear and consider all evidence and testimony pertinent to the matter of appeal, and after full hearing, to make written report to the Convention to which the appeal is pending of the Committee's conclusions and recommendations upon the matter of the appeal.

c. The Chairman of the Committee on Appeal shall preside at all meetings and hearings before such Committee. The Committee shall keep a complete record of all its proceedings and all evidence and testimony submitted before it, and shall have authority to procure or employ a stenographer or reporter, who shall preferably be a member of the Fraternity, and who shall take down and transcribe all of the proceedings of such Committee and all of the evidence and testimony submitted to it. Any member of the Fraternity in good standing may testify in person before the Committee or may submit a signed written statement of facts. The Committee shall have authority to adjourn its hearings from time to time during the sitting of the Convention to which the appeal is taken.

d. Any member of the Fraternity in good standing may attend the meetings of the Committee at which evidence and testimony is heard. No other person shall have the right to attend the meetings of the Committee. (The appealing Chapter or person and the Grand Council shall each have the privilege of having one counsel or attorney present at such meetings of the Committee, provided such counsel or attorney is a member of the Fraternity in good standing.) The burden of proof shall be upon the appealing Chapter or person to show that the action of the Grand Council in question was improper and such Chapter or person shall first produce before the Committee its evidence. The Grand Council shall then be entitled to produce evidence and facts to justify the actions of the Grand Council. The appealing Chapter or person may then offer evidence in rebuttal only. If any new matter is introduced on such rebuttal, the Grand Council shall have the opportunity to rebut such new matter. No arguments shall be made before the Committee upon the merits of the question involved.

e. At the conclusion of all the evidence and testimony offered, the Committee shall then retire in closed session to consider its report, conclusions, and recommendations to the Convention. The form of the report, conclusions, and recommendations shall be adopted by a majority vote of the whole Committee, including the Chairman, who shall be entitled to vote thereon. The report of the Committee must be in writing and signed by the members of the Committee approving thereof, and must contain a brief summary of the evidence and testimony produced before it, and the conclusions and recommendations to the Convention of the members of the Committee adopting such report. The report shall recommend either "that the action of the Grand Council be sustained by Convention" or "that the action of the Grand Council be set aside." The report of the Committee, together with the record of its proceedings, shall be filed immediately with the secretary of the Convention and shall be presented to the Convention to which the appeal is pending for action by such Convention.

f. The Committee on Appeal shall have the power to adopt any other and additional rules which it may deem proper for the conduct of the hearing before it, provided such rules are not inconsistent with the rules and provisions set forth herein above in this Section 9, of Statute II.

g. Upon the presentation to the Convention of the report of the Committee on Appeal, reasonable time for debate and discussion upon the report shall be permitted. At the close of the debate and discussion the Convention shall then proceed to vote upon the adoption of the report of the Committee and the recommendation therein contained. Every voting member of the Convention present shall be entitled to vote thereon. A four-fifths vote of the Convention shall be necessary to set aside the action of the Grand Council in connection with the Chapter or person in question. If the report and recommendation of the Committee is "that the action of the Grand Council be sustained," such report and recommendation shall be adopted and the action of the Grand Council sustained unless four-fifths of the voting members of the Convention shall vote against the adoption of the report and the recommendations therein contained. If the report and recommendation of the Committee is "that the action of the Grand Council be set aside," such report and recommendation shall be adopted and the action of the Grand Council set aside upon the vote of four-fifths of the voting members of the Convention for the adoption of such report and recommendation. If less than four-fifths of the voting members of the Convention vote to adopt such report and recommendation of the Committee, then such report and recommendation shall be considered to have been disapproved by the Convention and the action of the Grand Council shall be declared to have been sustained. The action of the Convention upon the report and recommendations of the Committee shall be a final determination of the matter.

h. This Section 9 of Statute II, shall take effect and be in force immediately on its adoption by Convention, and the rules and provisions as to procedure, contained in this Section, except wherein it is above specifically provided to the contrary, shall apply to and control any appeal to Convention from action of Grand Council which may be pending at the time of adoption of this Section.

That Stat. IIIA, Sec. 4j, be amended by striking out "during the interim of conventions," and inserting "once during each two-year period beginning July 1, 1934."

That Art. V, Sec. 4, be amended by striking out Art. V, Sec. 4, and inserting a new section, to read: "Regulations Governing Dates for Initiation:

"a. A pledge may not be initiated later than six weeks before the college year closes.

"b. Initiation shall be held within ten days after final grades have been issued, college regulations permitting."

Plans for official visits to the chapters were formulated.

Annual Reports of National Officers

For the Year 1933-34

ANNUAL MESSAGE OF GRAND PRESIDENT

THERE is no greater inspiration than that which comes from personal contacts with a woman whose life is an every-day revelation of beautiful character: $\Pi B \Phi$ is privileged beyond measure that it may have at this convention this inspiration in its fellowship with Inez Smith Soule, who for more than sixty-seven years has lived her loyalty to the fraternity and its ideals. Our hearts are filled with humble gratitude and great love for her, Fannie Whitenack Libbey, and Margaret Campbell, as we again dedicate the fraternity and ourselves to a striving towards the "noble womanhood" which their lives exemplify. Within the past two years, Jennie Horne Turnbull and Libbie Brook Gaddis have joined those other beloved Founders before whose memory we bow in tender tribute and because of whose death we are poorer indeed.

Chapters live in the hearts of their members even more truly than on their college campuses, and $\Pi B \Phi$ has in a very real sense never lost its New York B chapter even though the life of that chapter at Barnard College ended in 1915. The alumnae of no chapter have made their loyalty more evident and the fraternity finds special pleasure in expressing its appreciation for this and for a recent, most gratifying evidence of it. When Barnard College closed its campus to fraternities, the members of New York B cherished the hope that eventually it would allow their re-establishment and they determined that when that time came, New York B should have financial support for a chapter. A fund was established and has been kept practically intact until now. Recently these loyal alumnae decided that they wished their fund to be actively at work for the fraternity as a whole, and on Memorial Day, the anniversary of the founding of their chapter, they gave most generously to the altruistic projects of $\Pi B \Phi$, contributing \$300 to the Settlement School Endowment, \$300 to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment, and \$166.49 to the Loan Fund. Most truly New York B still lives in so splendid a realization of fraternity purposes and opportunities.

In a message published in her fraternity magazine recently, the Grand President of another fraternity said that if, two years ago, she could have foreseen the difficulties of the just ending interim of conventions, it is probable that she would not have had the courage to accept election. These have not been easy years for any person or any organization but they have presented a challenge for one to give her best and there have been victories for the fraternity which have made them rich ones for $\Pi B \Phi$.

Perhaps no other institution has felt the effects of the general unrest, uncertainty, and questioning of values more keenly than has the educational system. It was inevitable that fraternities, which for more than a hundred years have been so truly a part of that system, should have been included in the present demand that every established phase of education prove its right to continued existence. Criticism of fraternities is, of course, not a new thing; it re-appears periodically and has simply been given a new impetus by this general questioning. There have always been and always will be those who decry everything which represents special privileges, since there are always those who fail to realize that civilization began and has continued only because there were a few men who were not satisfied to have only the things which were possible for every man, and who reached out for something better and used it to the advantage of themselves and eventually of humanity. Fraternities do represent special privileges but never before have they so sincerely tried to justify these privileges by accepting them as responsibilities and by using them wisely and well. As each fraternity is increasingly successful in impressing upon its members their obligation to be worthy of their affiliation, fraternities will increasingly be recognized as invaluable assets to college administrations, training schools for right leadership, and factors in the development of fine characters. And those of us who are fraternity women know for ourselves the inestimable value of the fraternity as it expresses itself in friendships dear beyond measure and in inspiration!

Anti-fraternity agitation has centered, during the past two years and a half, at Middlebury and Swarthmore colleges. On both campuses, this year, under-class sentiment showed a swing back towards fraternities, but fraternity membership had so decreased during two year moratoriums on pledging and initiating that it was possible, in spite of this fact, to secure majority votes unfavorable to the continuing of fraternities. $\Pi B \Phi$ is proud indeed of the loyalty of its chapters on these two campuses, who gave such splendid support to the cause of fraternities! Pennsylvania A was the only chapter on the Swarthmore campus which voted one hundred per cent for the retention of fraternities last December. At Swarthmore, where the agitation was much more than a student one, the Board of Managers accepted the student vote as a reason for discontinuing all women's fraternities, and on May 4, $\Pi B \Phi$, with keen regret, withdrew its charter from a chapter which in 1924 won the Balfour Cup and which for more than thirty-two years had represented the fraternity with distinction and had brought to it members who are outstanding in personality, character, and achievement, and who will, it is confident, continue to be a source of strength and pride. At Middlebury, the Board of Regents refused to take action abolishing fraternities and all chapters are now back to normal functioning. Each chapter was able to secure enough pledges to assure the future of the group and $\Pi B \Phi$ is happy indeed that this splendidly loyal chapter is to continue active. One significant and gratifying thing has resulted from these two critical situations—a willingness on the part of the national fraternities involved to recognize the need for cooperation in the meeting of common problems! For more than two years, national officers concerned have helped keep each other informed of campus conditions and trends, and it is largely because the national organizations presented a united front, agreed upon a uniform program for their chapters, and worked together consistently and helpfully, that fraternities were saved for Middlebury. Unfortunately the situation at Swarthmore was beyond the control of the student body or fraternities but even there, conferences laid the foundation for future cooperation, exchange of information, and concerted action. The fraternities which lost chapters at Swarthmore have recommended to National Panhellenic Congress that all fraternities, in the future, follow the plans made by them for future cooperation.

While general financial conditions have brought unavoidable problems and acute situations, $\Pi B \Phi$ has come through these trying years in remarkably fine financial condition. Chapters have had to cut their expenditures and incomes have been materially reduced, often because of university or college action which reduced drastically the cost of living in dormitories and so forced down the living charges in chapter houses, sometimes to a dangerous point. Budgets have been adjusted, however, and while there are too many members delinquent in their accounts with their chapters, the chapters themselves are in generally sound condition and without large outstanding bills. Much of this soundness is directly due to the splendid work of the Supervisor of Chapter Accounting and the Committee on Chapter House Financing and to the faithful service of the Finance Members of the local Alumnae Advisory Committees. Because the building program of $\Pi B \Phi$ chapters has been sound, many house associations have been able to reduce rents and in that way be of great practical help to their chapters. The present crisis has, however, made evident the fact that a few fraternity members have a wrong idea of the rights of fraternity membership and have used their affiliation as a means of avoiding meeting just debts. The fraternity has long held that any person who fails to meet obligations fails to be worthy of privileges and it has, in its Constitution, provisions for probation and eventual dismissal for members who leave college without having met in full all financial obligations. In fairness to chapters and to the girls themselves, who should receive training in right business principles, it seems that perhaps the fraternity should set up a further protection to both in a ruling which would limit the amount which a girl may currently owe her chapter and still be considered a member in good standing. If the maintenance of a chapter and a house is not to be a burden upon the conscientious member, it must be carried by all members. No Pi Beta Phi chapter has lost its house or been forced to sacrifice it and the fraternity is proud indeed of this record and grateful for it.

A study of the report of the Grand Treasurer will show that the fraternity nationally is in sound condition. The value of its securities has, of course, decreased on the market, but because these are fundamentally sound, income has not been seriously affected and a return to normal market values will, it seems, come with a general return of prosperity. There are no words to express the debt which the fraternity owes to Lois Franklin Stoolman, whose judgment, foresight, and ability are so invaluable an asset to $\Pi B \Phi$!

$\Pi B \Phi$, as a whole, has had no problem of decreased membership and decreased initiations. The truth of the prophesy, made two years ago by a leading fraternity man, that the depression would end with the strong fraternities stronger and the weak ones weaker than ever before is every day more apparent. Decreased registrations on some campuses have unavoidably affected the membership in the chapters directly concerned, but $\Pi B \Phi$ has continued to attract its full share—and more—of the most desirable and desired students and to keep its numerical as well as its internal strength at an exceedingly high level. All members of the fraternity should feel a keen pride in this proof of the strength and prestige of their fraternity in a day when prospective pledges study the merits of the different groups more closely than ever before and affiliate only with the ones which they know have much to offer.

The two chapters, Alberta A and South Carolina A, whose charters were granted by the 1931 Convention, were installed by the Grand President in the fall of 1931 and have made for themselves worthy places on their campuses and in the Fraternity. Upon the postponement of convention in 1933, the Grand Council allowed the group at Duke University to petition in the interim of conventions and its charter was granted unanimously by the officers and chapters whose votes were required. This chapter too is advancing in a most gratifying way. All new chapters and those whose organization or general effectiveness was not entirely acceptable to the Grand Council have worked under the close special supervision of the Grand Secretary. Their development and increased strength are in large part the result of the helpful and devoted interest and service of Nita Hill Stark. The fraternity is greatly indebted to Marjorie Bright, Texas A, for her special help to South Carolina A and North Carolina B, as they have made the transition from local to national groups. All new chapters and all chapters with special problems have also had local advisers to whose hard work and support these chapters owe much.

A three year interim between conventions has meant an understandable, even though most regrettable, increase in the number of changes in official personnel. Grand Council has been forced to release two able and loved Editors when ill health necessitated the resignations of Mabel Scott Brown and Mary Katherine Lutz. Their successor, Adele Taylor Alford, has brought to the Grand Council a store of world-wide fraternity contacts, experience in fraternity work, and ability which are reflected in the continued high standard of the ARROW. May the Grand President speak very personally of the resignations of her Assistants, Margaretta Fenn Putman and Virginia Hutson Getto, young women who represent the best things of $\Pi B \Phi$ and with whom official and personal contacts had been a joy? She has welcomed as their successor, Marie Winsor Stebbins, who had served the fraternity with distinction as Beta Province President. The fraternity as a whole as well as the Alumnæ Department benefited greatly from the services of Jane White Comer and Bernyce Scott Humphrey, Assistants to the Grand Vice-President. They have been succeeded by Marianne Reid Wild, former Delta Province Vice-President, who is putting into her specialized work the enthusiasm and qualities of leadership which endeared her to her own province. These changes in Grand Council members and Assistants, together with added responsibilities and ill health, have meant many changes among province officers. It is gratifying indeed that outgoing officers have left their provinces stronger for their services to them and that incoming ones have taken up the work and carried it forward successfully.

This interim of conventions has seen put into effect the changes in the plans for the Central Office which were authorized by the 1931 Convention. Beatrice Stephenson Purdunn, after an intensive study of the office in Hartford, assumed charge of it as Director and transferred it to Bloomington, Illinois. Later, upon her marriage, she moved the office at her personal expense to her new home in Marshall, Illinois. Under her direction, the Central Office has been outstanding in efficiency, effectiveness, and economy. It is a pleasure to express appreciation for work so well done and for unflinching, cheerful, and constructive cooperation! The change of the Central Office to a more central location geographically has resulted in many economies for the fraternity both in running expenses and in distribution costs.

Since, in accordance with the decision of the 1931 Convention, no reports of province officers will be read at this convention, the Grand President urges all members to study these reports when they appear in the Information Arrow. In no other way, than by studying such reports, the tabulated club reports, and the detailed chapter reports, can the fraternity at large gain an understanding of the internal strength of active chapters and alumnae clubs. These reports are a history of the past three years which the Grand President believes shows gratifying growth, development and progress for the fraternity. Much of the internal strength of the fraternity must come from the effectiveness of its province officers who maintain close and regular contacts with clubs and chapters: $\Pi B \Phi$ cannot be too grateful for the high service which these officers and the members and chairmen of the various standing committees have given, or too proud of the results which they have achieved. $\Pi B \Phi$ continues to be the envy of other fraternities because of the active, loyal support which its alumnae give. No fraternity has greater cause for gratification in the place which its chapters hold on their respective campuses. Measured by the standard of the ability of its chapters to attract desirable pledges, develop them in such a way that the chapters hold the esteem, respect and approval of their faculties and student bodies, and graduate them as women with abilities, capabilities, and standards which qualify them to hold constructively contributing places in their own communities, $\Pi B \Phi$ is, the Grand President sincerely believes, proved to be a fraternity without a superior.

Although it is the province of the Grand Vice-President to speak of the accomplishments of the Alumnae Department, the Grand President cannot refrain from expressing her pride in the constructive growth of this phase of fraternity work under Ruth Barrett Smith. During years when it has been universally necessary to cut expenditures and to give up affiliations with organizations whose benefits were largely personal, $\Pi B \Phi$ has held its alumnae members in a remarkable way. Surely it is in days which are hard that we realize most fully the joy of fraternity affiliation and find in it happiness and encouragement and help, dear beyond measure and full repayment for personal sacrifices.

The usual publications of the fraternity have been issued during the past interim of conventions. Among new publications of special importance and value are the Manuals for the Settlement School Committee, the Director and the Bookkeeper of the Settlement School, the Rush Captain and the Pledge Supervisor. A new edition of the Constitution is greatly needed and would have been issued except for two facts: one is that a convention is usually followed by changes in the Constitution and this made it seem advisable to wait until after convention to print a new edition, and the other is that the Grand Council has been anxious that before another edition was issued the Constitution should be carefully gone over by an authority on parliamentary procedure and on constitutions, so that the fraternity might be assured that its constitution was correct in form and in content. $\Pi B \Phi$ is deeply indebted to Mr. Lynn Milam of Dallas, Texas, $\Pi B \Phi$ father, husband, and cousin, for donating to the fraternity the many hours necessary for such a study. The outgoing Grand Council will recommend to the incoming one that the Constitution be reprinted at once. All chapters, clubs, and officers have, however, been supplied regularly with mimeographed copies of all changes in the Constitution so that it has been possible for each to have available, with little effort, a currently accurate Constitution. A new Directory is now required since the supply of copies of the 1930 edition is exhausted. Grand Council has authorized the publication of this new Directory as an issue of the Arrow in order that all Arrow subscribers (which means approximately 90 per cent of the members of the fraternity) may have available a complete list of members of the fraternity and their addresses. It hopes that fraternity members will find the Directory Number of the ARROW of so much value that they will welcome it even though it means the giving up of one open issue of the magazine, this fall. In using this publication plan, the fraternity is following the example of several other fraternities which have used it with gratifying results.

The usual meetings of the Grand Council have been held during the interim of conventions—at Asbury Park, immediately following the 1931 convention; at Gatlinburg, at the time of the Settlement School Committee meeting, in 1932; at Yellowstone Park in 1933; and again at Yellowstone Park immediately preceding this convention. The Asbury Park meeting was held in connection with a post-convention meeting of the Assistants to the Grand President and Grand Vice-President and old and new province officers, and the meeting immediately before this convention was held in connection with a similar meeting of these national and province officers. All Council meetings have been or will be reported in the Information Numbers of the ARROW.

Conditions have not been generally favorable to the building of new chapter houses and Indiana Γ and South Dakota A have both felt it desirable to postpone building the houses for which definite provisions have long been made. Nevada A and Vermont B have completed beautiful new homes, during the interim of conventions, and Oklahoma A has bought one of the fraternity's most adequate and attractive houses. With the exception of two chapters whose housing conditions are so inadequate as to present serious problems for the chapters not only in rushing but, still more important, in providing right and safe living conditions, all $\Pi B \Phi$ chapters are now living under most acceptable conditions. It is hoped that alumnae of the two chapters which so desperately need new houses will find it possible to provide accommodations in keeping with the position of the chapters and calculated to insure their continued strength. The fraternity has always discouraged competitive building but it cannot avoid recognizing the fact that, unless a chapter houses its members safely and adequately, it cannot retain the position which it must have on its campus. Houses should always be built conservatively, of course, and should never be so large or so pretentious that they force chapters to pledge girls for numbers or require too heavy financial support. Forty-two chapters now own houses and four including Pennsylvania A, which has recently sold its bungalow to Swarthmore College, own bungalows for meeting purposes only, making a total of forty-six houses and bungalows owned by house associations and valued at approximately \$2,000,000. It is extremely gratifying to know that the houses of California A, California Γ , Illinois H, Indiana B, Iowa Γ , and Wisconsin A are completely paid for and are owned without any indebtedness whatever. The fraternity is proud of the splendid women who are chaperoning its houses. This service is attracting women of increasingly fine personality and ability and they are meaning to its chapters much that is fine and constructive.

Changing economic conditions have unavoidably been reflected in the fraternity's cherished altruistic project at Gatlinburg. The thing which the fraternity should keep in mind and in which it should feel an unlimited pride is that, although contributions have materially decreased during the past three years, loyalty and devotion to the school have not decreased and contributions have been kept at a level surprisingly high. The Grand President believes that few if any other similar institutions have been able to maintain their services to their communities at as nearly normal and as splendid a level as has the fraternity's school at Gatlinburg. The most careful planning by the committee and the utmost economy on the part of the staff have been required to carry on with so greatly reduced a budget, but it has been done successfully. Because in 1932-33, all departments of the school showed a deficit and the committee had to anticipate a further cut in income for the current year, 1933-34, it was necessary to find a way of making a noticeable cut in costs with the least possible cut in service. It was felt that the dormitories, which, while they gave much to the boys and girls who received their training and financial help, reached only a comparatively few families and those from the sections most remote from Gatlinburg, represented the only material curtailment possible without affecting too greatly the entire community. No dormitories have been in operation during the just ended year. The economy of the year at Gatlinburg, however, and the wonderful support given to the school by the fraternity mean that it will be possible to reopen the dormitories next fall and again to give their valuable help to worthy boys and girls. The Health service has not been curtailed in effectiveness even though the nurse has worked without the usual assistant. The Bookkeeper has taken over the records for the hospital. Changes in personnel at the school have necessarily meant readjustments but these have been made and the school has had a constructive year. The resignation of Evelyn Bishop, who had given so many years of her love and devotion to the school, was accepted in 1933 and she is now with the Tennessee Valley Project. Maryalice Chaffee took over the work as Director in the fall of 1933 and has given much to the school. The Committee loses, this year, its capable and devoted treasurer, Grace Post. Under her direction, the finances of the school and its financial system have been placed upon a splendid working basis: it is a pleasure to speak of the fraternity's great debt of gratitude to her. Her successor will be Josephine McCleverty, Kansas A and California B, who brings to her work a background of specialized training, business experience and fraternity loyalty. Grand Council expresses its deep appreciation for the way in which the chairman, Frankie Cochran Hill, and her committee members have carried on under trying circumstances and have made hard years constructive and fruitful ones.

In 1931, Michigan B had the distinct honor of winning the Balfour Cup for the third consecutive time and so becoming the permanent possessor of the original cup. To Illinois Z, in 1932, went the privilege of being the first chapter to hold the new Balfour Cup which, like the first one, is awarded upon the basis of effective meeting by a chapter of its responsibilities to its college, its fraternity, and itself. This honor was won in 1933 by Colorado A. Highly coveted, too, is the honor of winning the Stoolman Vase, presented to the fraternity in 1929 by Lois Franklin Stoolman. This award was won by Washington B in 1931 and 1932 and by California Γ in 1933. The fraternity's graduate fellowship was held in 1931-32 by June Pickens, Alabama A, for study at the College of Law of the University of Alabama; in 1932-33 by Jean McAllister, North Carolina A, for study at the School of Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania; and in 1933-34 by Leona Baumgartner, Kansas A, for study at the School of Medicine of Yale University. The fellowship for 1934-35 has been awarded to Christina Meredith, Pennsylvania Γ , for study at Johns Hopkins University.

The Grand President has served as $\Pi B \Phi$'s delegate to National Panhellenic Congress and has tried to contribute for the fraternity constructive cooperation in projects for the bettering of interfraternity relations and general fraternity conditions.

No phase of fraternity work is more important than official visits. From them officers gain both an understanding of conditions which make wise supervision and direction possible and an inspiration which gives them courage to carry heavy responsibilities. The Grand President cannot express adequately in words her pleasure in contacts which have been hers with chapters, clubs, and individual Π Φ Σ and her gratitude for their cordial, gracious and heartwarming hospitality. During the interim of convention, she has visited thirty-six different chapters and approximately the same number of alumnæ clubs. She has also visited the petitioning group at the Connecticut State College. In 1933, she had the pleasure of attending the All-State Founders' Day celebration at Des Moines, Iowa. This spring, she found great inspiration and a special joy in attending the Chicago area Founders' Day luncheon at the Blackstone Hotel on April 21; the All-State Founders' Day celebration and Fiftieth Anniversary Conference held at the Broadmoor Hotel, Colorado Springs, Colorado, April 28-29, honoring $\Pi B \Phi$'s fifty years in Colorado; and the Founders' Day luncheons at Decatur and Springfield, Illinois, on May 12 and 19. She expresses her deep gratitude to the other members of Grand Council and to Margaretta Fenn Putman and Marie Winsor Stebbins, Assistants to the Grand President, for their help in completing the visits to chapters. All chapters and clubs have had their required official visits during this interim of conventions.

For the privilege of close associations with the members of Grand Council, for the joy of contacts and friendships with $\Pi B \Phi$ s, and for the opportunity to try to express her love for the fraternity in service to it, the Grand President expresses her immeasurable debt of gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN

GRAND VICE-PRESIDENT

THE Alumnae Department of our fraternity stands as a very real monument to the vision and foresight of those women who conceived it. A former ARROW editor said, "When I recall that I served the fraternity when it had twenty chapters, no Settlement School and no Alumnae Department, it is not surprising that I marvel at its present stature."

The years in the interim between the 1931 and the 1934 Conventions have been testing ones in the life of every one. Under the most favorable conditions and even more so under the existing ones alumnae may well be proud of the records of achievement. At the time of the 1931 Convention, alumnae clubs were 152 in number. Since that time 21 new clubs have been chartered as follows:

In Alpha Province, the Connecticut Club separated into the two new clubs at Hartford and New Haven; Beta Province has the Ohio Valley and Portsmouth, Ohio, clubs; Gamma Province, Columbia, South Carolina; Delta Province, Hillsdale, Michigan, the Calumet Regional, which includes the towns of Hammond, Indiana, East Chicago, Indiana, and Calumet City, Illinois; Epsilon Province, St. Joseph, Missouri; Zeta Province, Tampa, Florida; Eta Province, the Chicago Business Women; Iota Province, Colorado Springs, Colorado; Kappa Province, Stillwater, Oklahoma, Bryan, Texas, Corpus Christi, Texas; Lambda Province, Edmonton and Calgary, Alberta, Canada; Mu Province, San Jose, California, Monterey Bay, California, El Paso, Texas, Fresno, California, and Santa Barbara, California.

The clubs of Columbia, South Carolina, and the two Canadian clubs are the outcome of newly installed chapters which are now profiting by their inception. The Chicago Business Women's Club represents the separation from a larger group to care for the business women who could not otherwise enjoy Pi Phi activities. As it has been very successful, it may be recommended to other cities with a similar situation. The other clubs have resulted from the congeniality manifested in Founders' Day contacts or from the enthusiasm of a few fine resident alumnae who could see the advantage of organized activity for $\Pi B \Phi$.

Of these twenty-one newly organized groups, only two, Bryan, Texas, and Monterey Bay, California, through changing residents and decreased numbers have been unable to continue actively. Colorado Springs, Colorado, Santa Barbara, California, and Fresno, California, speeded their organization plans in order to be chartered for Convention. They will start active participation in fraternity affairs this fall.

Regrettably, our alumnae roll is not quite as cheery as it sounds from the above as a few other clubs have ceased to function. The Ohio Gamma alumnae group has dissolved since last Convention and its members have been absorbed by other clubs. Nine other clubs, for various reasons have ceased to function actively, but it is to be hoped they will resume participation in fraternity affairs as soon as circumstances permit. They are: Beaver Valley, Pennsylvania, Carrollton, Missouri, Joplin, Missouri, Chariton, Iowa, South Central, Kansas, Ponca City, Oklahoma, San Antonio, Texas, Wichita Falls, Texas, and Sacramento, California.

The Settlement School is ever the binding link in our alumnae department and the great impetus toward achievement in every club. Too much gratitude cannot be expressed, ever, to those fraternity officers and alumnae who brought the school into existence and to those who have fostered and furthered its development since its opening in 1912. The greatest source of pride is the fact that the school is maintained by voluntary contributions. It had been the desire that every club and chapter would contribute this year. Only twelve clubs have failed to do so and it is the hope of the Grand Vice-President that another year will see every club sending a donation. Alumnae clubs, by donating this year a total of $12,914.85 have expressed their confidence in the fraternity and the school and their belief in the value of this educational project as an indicator of fraternity strength.

Six provinces, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, Eta, Theta, and Lambda are 100 per cent in Settlement School donations from their clubs, while six provinces, Beta, Epsilon, Zeta, Theta, and Kappa have increased their donations over last year.

The alumnae response to the Endowment Drive has been general but not as universal as was desired. Clubs which understand that the completion of our Endowment Drive means the greater strength of the internal organization of the fraternity will include the Endowment in their annual budgets another year.

These past three years the appeal of the Loan Fund to the hearts of $\Pi B \Phi$ has been apparent. Any fund which makes possible the completion of a college girl's education is worth while. This year more than six hundred dollars was contributed to the Loan Fund by 54 chapters and 88 alumnae clubs. Eta, Theta and Lambda provinces were 100 per cent.

Lambda Province and its officers deserve particular mention here for every chapter and club in the entire province were 100 per cent in donations to all fraternity projects.

While in some sections of the country, there is protest at the "red tape" necessitated by the size of our organization, for the most part clubs have been cooperative. As evidence, from the present total of 162 clubs, 139 have submitted their annual presidents' questionnaires to province and national officers, 138 have sent their officers' lists for next year, and 56 alumnae clubs, with every province represented, have submitted credentials for Convention delegates this year.

In the sorting of activities to be pursued or discontinued, because of economic strain, $\Pi B \Phi$ has not suffered. An indication of the maintained love and interest of alumnae in their fraternity is the fact that seven provinces made substantial increase in membership. The membership chairmen, alert to their opportunities, have helped to bring this about.

Fewer clubs were visited by their Province Vice-Presidents this past year since almost all clubs had received their allotted visits the two previous years. This relationship is of inestimable value to both club and officer. The requests have been many for further visits from national officers and it is hoped this can be arranged when national officers are making chapter visits. All visits serve as informational and inspirational contacts between club and the national organization.

The Grand Vice-President has been in close touch with the Province Vice-Presidents both through her general monthly letters and other correspondence. In addition, information contained in the letters of the Grand President, sent monthly to all Province officers, has been most useful to the alumnae department.

While one cannot say that the success or failure of a province depends entirely upon the Province Vice-President, the responsibility and the balance of credit go to her. Her tasks are exacting and her tact and sense of humor must be ever at hand. These past three years have found numerous changes in the official personnel of the alumnae department. The resignations in turn of Jane Comer and Bernyce Humphrey brought the appointment of Marianne Wild to the office of Assistant to the Grand Vice-President. Aline Burt succeeded Mrs. Wild as Delta Province Vice-President in February of this year. Laura Knapp has succeeded Lucy Potter in Theta Province, while in Lambda Province, Juanita O'Day assumed the duties relinquished by Bernyce Humphrey when she became Assistant to the Grand Vice-President in 1933. When Frankie Hill became chairman of the Settlement School committee in the fall of 1931, her place as Kappa Province Vice-President was taken by Carrie Williamson. Dorothy Miller, moving away from Epsilon Province, was relieved by Elizabeth Gentry. Deep gratitude is here expressed to those no longer serving, who, with the present faithful Province Vice-Presidents and loyal Assistant have contributed their efforts in behalf of the alumnae department.

The Grand Vice-President has made few chapter visits in the interim of Convention but has greatly enjoyed the contacts made. College girls and university campuses are a source of inspiration as well as education and furnish a spark for further fraternity endeavor, always. Also the privilege of meeting with so many fine alumnae during these visits has been most pleasurable.

To celebrate the 67th anniversary of the founding of $\Pi B \Phi$ is an achievement and this year more alumnae than ever united to honor our twelve founders. The loss of Mrs. Turnbull and Mrs. Gaddis saddened the occasion but all have cherished more deeply their memories of them and pledged anew their loving homage to the three remaining: Mrs. Soule, Mrs. Libbey, and Miss Campbell.

This report could not conclude without a special word to the Director of Central Office who has given prompt and expert attention to all correspondence; to the Province Vice-Presidents who, hurdling the "red tape" have brought their clubs successfully to the finish line; to her Assistants for their willing aid; and to all officers, who have cooperated so ably, the Grand Vice-President here expresses her appreciation. The opportunity of serving $\Pi B \Phi$ as a member of Grand Council is an experience to be cherished.

RUTH BARRETT SMITH

GRAND SECRETARY

IT IS with a deep sense of humility and without complete satisfaction that your Grand Secretary submits this report upon the close of her twelfth year of active official service in the interest of $\Pi B \Phi$. Because of her connection with the Settlement School, the Board of Trustees, and her position as Theta Province President, your secretary felt that she might be able to render some signal service to the fraternity as a member of Grand Council, but in looking over the past three years of constant effort, she finds nothing in her mind but a wish that her work might have been more fruitful.

A concise report of her activities may be worded in the following manner. All of her constitutional duties have been attended to promptly, and such additional work as she was requested to undertake has been performed. That you may know some of the duties of the office of Grand Secretary, the following are listed:

Preparation of minutes as the Recording Secretary of the 1931 Post Grand Council meeting held at Asbury Park, the 1932 Grand Council meeting held at the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, and the 1933 Grand Council meeting held at Yellowstone National Park.

Your Grand Secretary has undertaken to direct the work of the Standing Committees, with their constant correspondence throughout the year.

As a member of Grand Council she has visited more than twenty-five active chapters officially during the three years, spending at least two days in each chapter, and in addition directing the rushing of one chapter for a period of ten days. In 1931 your secretary visited six chapters in Alpha Province, Maine A, Vermont A and B, New York A, I, and Δ ; in 1932, Arkansas A, Illinois H, Z, and E, Michigan A and B, Ontario A and Alabama A; in 1933, Missouri A, B and I, Kansas A and B, and Nebraska A twice; in 1934, Tennessee A, West Virginia A, and Ohio A, B, and Δ . In addition to these required visits, the following chapters were visited unofficially: Oklahoma A once, Arkansas A twice, Texas B three or four times, and Texas A, because it is her own chapter, constantly.

Your secretary has visited the alumnae clubs of Syracuse, Ann Arbor, Northern New Jersey, Chattanooga, St. Louis, Columbia, Springfield, Decatur, Cleveland, Delaware, Houston, Austin, and Dallas. Naturally being a member of the Sabine District Alumnae Club, she has worked for the best interests of $\Pi B \Phi$ and the Settlement School particularly through this club, which comprises the Pi Phis of Beaumont, Port Arthur, and Orange, Texas, and Lake Charles, Louisiana. At the request of the New Orleans Alumnae Club, your secretary visited them during the week of May 21, 1934.

Never having lost her love for the Settlement School, she has made seven unofficial visits to Gatlinburg, at one time meeting with the entire staff in an endeavor to smooth over difficulties which had arisen. In the interest of the Settlement School she has held conferences with the Director of the School in Gatlinburg and Knoxville, has conferred in Detroit with Mrs. Wyer and Mrs. White, then members of the Settlement School Committee, took part in a round table discussion held in Cleveland this spring, and has been in constant touch with the present Chairman, Mrs. Hill.

These unofficial visits of your secretary were sometimes "pop" calls, as she was passing through, and sometimes requested visits; and in each instance were made at no expense to the fraternity.

In addition to her other duties, your secretary has had under her direction the programs of the eleven chapters which did not seem to be functioning well internally, and the three new chapters, Alberta A, South Carolina A, and North Carolina B. This has naturally entailed a large amount of regular correspondence, both with each chapter and the Special Adviser.

During her service your secretary has endeavored to expedite the distribution of $\Pi B \Phi$ news among the committee chairmen, and as a consequence the old form of Round Robin has been abolished. In its place direct correspondence has been substituted, thus getting the news among committee chairmen more regularly and simultaneously.

In the interest of specific information, new annual chapter report blanks have been prepared; with the aid of the Grand President, a manual for Special Advisers has been compiled; and instructions for annual, ARROW, and Convention reports have been issued.

A complete statistical analysis has been compiled and worked out during the last three years, and your secretary must here thank those chapters who have always sent in their reports promptly, and explain to the others, who have not done so, that because of their slowness they have held up the work of the entire fraternity until their information was at hand, also causing needless delay.

In 1932-33 the fraternity had less than 1 per cent decrease in initiates in comparison to 1931-32. In 1933-34 the report shows an increase of 4.12 per cent over the former year. In 1932-33 $\Pi B \Phi$ won 83.57 per cent of the bids given, while in 1933-34 the per cent was 89.2. These figures prove that the past year has been more successful than any during the interim of convention.

In the passing years, the Constitution of $\Pi B \Phi$ has become encumbered with many amendments, which properly belong to the By-Laws. Under the direction of Grand Council, and with the assistance of Mrs. Stoolman, your secretary has endeavored to have prepared a new Constitution and By-Laws, the new Constitution to contain all of the constitutional essentials of $\Pi B \Phi$ legislation, and the By-Laws to be really by-laws. Unfortunately because of the press of business of the lawyer, this work has not been completed. Your secretary requests that this committee be authorized to continue this codification of the Constitution and Statutes of $\Pi B \Phi$.

There has never been a time in any live, worth-while organization when changes for betterment do not suggest themselves, and your secretary claims no pride of authorship in the following suggestions which have become apparent to most of those working in the interest of the fraternity.

1. Having discovered the amount of good accomplished in conferences and in meetings between the directors of the fraternity and the various chapters, clubs, and committees, your secretary has no hesitancy in recommending that $\Pi B \Phi$ work towards securing some contact officer whose sole duty it shall be to visit the fraternity groups under the direction of Grand Council, not regularly but continuously, spending the necessary time in each place where she can do the most good.

2. Knowing the situation as she does because of her residence, and realizing that $\Pi B \Phi$ can confer benefits on the students of these institutions, and in return receive help from them, your secretary feels no hesitancy in recommending the extension into Louisiana State University, and several well-known colleges in Texas. With the exception of Louisiana State University, there are no fraternities upon these campuses. $K K \Gamma$ is now about to place a chapter in Louisiana State University. Your secretary recommends going into this old established institution when the rest of the fraternities are beginning, and not waiting until the other fraternities have become too firmly entrenched. The institutions in Texas are all old, well regulated, well supported schools, and at present have no fraternities upon their respective campuses. Having visited forty campuses at least, throughout the United States and Canada, your secretary is ready to recommend that all of these institutions are of such a caliber as to add prestige to $\Pi B \Phi$, and that those in Texas should be further investigated.

Your secretary could not close this report without paying her respects to the loyalty and earnest effort of her predecessors, Francese Evans and Gail DeWolf, two worthy Pi Beta Phis, and cannot leave this subject without saying to them and acknowledging to $\Pi B \Phi$ that she has gained much inspiration from their work.

To Ruth Smith, Mary K. Lutz, and Adele Alford only praise can be given for their efficiency and sincere understanding of those with whom they are associated.

Never has $\Pi B \Phi$ had a more loyal, energetic, enthusiastic, and capable Treasurer. Lois Stoolman has worked incessantly for the best interests of the fraternity, and the results are best shown by the improved financial condition of all departments under her charge.

Your secretary wishes to thank all of those with whom she has come in contact during the years, for their prompt and efficient aid to her in helping direct the affairs of the fraternity. The associations, both through personal contact and correspondence, have meant much, and the friendships established she hopes will live throughout the years.

In closing, your secretary extends to all her heartfelt gratitude for the privilege of serving the interests of $\Pi B \Phi$, and above all does she wish to express her appreciation for being able to serve in close contact with our Grand President, Amy Onken. Your secretary at times has differed from our Grand President over matters of policy, but she wishes here to place herself on record as saying that there is not another woman in the fraternity with more untiring ability, unquestioned loyalty, unswerving bravery, unstinting and unselfish service, and sound judgment. In these times of stress and trouble, when every organization is facing its crisis, your secretary feels that the fraternity has been fortunate to have had her leadership in the past three years.

Respectfully submitted,
NITA HILL STARK

REPORT OF THE GRAND TREASURER

August 7, 1934

TO THE GRAND COUNCIL, $\Pi B \Phi$ FRATERNITY: Pursuant to the request of Mrs. Lois F. Stoolman, Grand Treasurer, I have made an examination of the cash receipts and disbursements of $\Pi B \Phi$ Fraternity for the period beginning July 25, 1933, and ending July 31, 1934.

All cash receipts as recorded on the books of the Grand Treasurer were deposited intact at the designated depositories. All cancelled vouchers, paid by the depositories, were examined and compared with the respective entries in the cash disbursements record and all were found to be in agreement. The balance at the close of July 31, 1934, was reconciled with the statements obtained from the various depositories.

Statements from the First Trust Co., Lincoln, Nebraska, and the Harris Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, Illinois, listing securities held by these banks were inspected and the remaining securities in the custody of the Grand Treasurer were all examined. These securities are all carried at the cost price paid for same.

The attached Balance Sheet as of July 31, 1934, together with the supporting schedules thereto were prepared from the books and records of the Grand Treasurer.

I have audited the Cash Receipts and Disbursements for the period beginning July 25, 1933, and ending July 31, 1934, of the Grand Treasurer of

REPORT OF THE ARROW EDITOR

August 15, 1932—February 1, 1934

IT IS with a sense of deep regret that I consider my year and a half's work on the ARROW and make formal report on it to you. I am grateful for having been allowed to serve and I cherish the memory of my association with Grand Council and their generous help.

During the period within the dates set forth above, seven issues of the ARROW were prepared for publication, one of which was edited by Dorothy Wulp, acting editor. The seven issues represent two information numbers and five open numbers all of which had 128 pages and cover, except the September 1934 issue, which had 140 pages and cover.

In the fall of 1933 a subscription drive was put on. This really belongs in the report of the Director of Central office, who managed it, but is mentioned here to explain the disposition of the back copies of the ARROW which were sent as sample copies to all non-subscribers.

The bound volumes of the ARROWS for 1931-1932, and 1933-1934 were obtained for officers and chapters, and the unbound information ARROWS in the Historian's files were ordered bound.

Prices on a new Directory to be issued as a number of the ARROW were solicited from the printer, and plans for an ARROW of a larger page size were drawn up and submitted to the ARROW Editor. No action was taken on either of these projects.

A few preliminary plans for the Convention Daily were made.

The above represents a brief account of the things actually accomplished by the Editor within the above dates. About March 1, all materials and information were turned over to the present editor, with the exception of the account book, and some unfinished correspondence which were sent some weeks later.

The ARROW is a vital factor in the life of the fraternity and it is with the knowledge that its future is a bright one that this report is respectfully submitted by

MARY KATHERINE LUTZ

February 1—June 1, 1934

I took over the work of ARROW Editor February 1 of this year so this report will cover only the time since then. The February issue was then in the hands of the printers, it having been prepared by Mary K. Lutz. At first the task of mastering the technical details of the work seemed insurmountable; but among the files which came to me I found much that was helpful, especially in the carefully thought-out Manual for the Editor which Mabel Scott Brown left behind her as a help for future editors. I found an active editorial staff, who were most ready to cooperate with me, and with one or two exceptions, every one of the correspondents whose names appear on the title page of the ARROW sent material to me. I cannot express too strongly my appreciation of the help given me by my predecessor. She not only wrote me every detail she could think of concerning the magazine, but answered most carefully and patiently my many questions.

I had always imagined that the most difficult part of editing the magazine would lie in getting sufficient material, but such was not the case with the ARROW. There was of necessity a great amount of material which belonged automatically in the May issue, such as the detailed information about Convention, and the instructions to delegates and visitors, and in consequence many articles had to be omitted. The department devoted to Phi personalities, the always interesting "With the Actives" section, some good feature articles, all had to be left out, and many of them at the last moment.

Early in the spring most of the planning for the Convention Daily was as nearly completed as possible, material and cuts gathered, staff selected, so that work on it could be taken up after our arrival at Convention with the minimum of confusion.

Further work has been done on the new Directory for the fraternity. It will be issued next fall as a number of the ARROW, bringing to every subscriber to the ARROW the satisfaction of possessing a complete list of members of the fraternity arranged alphabetically, by chapters, and according to geographical distribution.

The work done on the ARROW is aimed at making the magazine interesting to every member of $\Pi B \Phi$. We want to give to you a vivid record of the doings of the fraternity, to bring to you the story of what Pi Phis are doing in the world, to interpret for you the ideals for which the fraternity stands—if we can even in part succeed in doing this, then our magazine will not have been published in vain.

It is of interest that this number of the ARROW was 20,000 copies, several thousand more than the magazine which is next to us in size. We are spending a large sum yearly on our magazine, as you have already heard in the report of the Grand Treasurer, but we hope that it brings a rich return to the fraternity at large. It is with pleasure that we report that we have kept within our budget for the year.

Your editor appreciates very deeply the honor conferred on her by Grand Council in her appointment, and has given her best effort to the task. It is indeed a privilege to serve on the Grand Council of $\Pi B \Phi$.

Respectfully submitted,

ADELE TAYLOR ALFORD

ASSISTANT TO THE GRAND PRESIDENT

THE Assistant to the Grand President has as her definitely established and specific duty the supervision of Pledge Supervisors and Alumnae Advisory Committees. During this past year, in her work with the Pledge Supervisors, she has sent out two general letters—the one in the fall, stressing important features of the regular work with pledges; calling attention to the Manuals to be used and pointing out the opportunities for service to the fraternity, which are theirs. The second letter was sent early in February and directed attention to the program for second semester training outlined in the Manual; asked that special attention be given the pledges who failed to make their averages—and suggested methods of keeping both pledge groups interested and happy. None of these letters was returned, although it is understood that some were not received by the Pledge Supervisors. Replies to the fall letter came from 63 of the 77 chapters—but the February letter, aided by follow-up cards to Province Presidents and finally also to the still delinquent chapters, themselves, attracted a 100 per cent response.

In the work with Alumnae Advisory Committees, a fall letter was mailed outlining the work of the year and offering suggestions that were thought to be helpful. There were only 48 replies to this mailing, but the spring letter, with its questionnaire form for the annual reports, is expected to bring returns from every group.

The Assistant to the Grand President has made a special survey of initiation statistics—which indicates that scholarship is the most difficult hurdle for the pledge—with finances a close second in certain sections of the country. She made official chapter visits to North Carolina B; Pennsylvania B and Γ; Illinois A and B-Δ; and Wisconsin A and B. She also visited the two petitioning groups—one at Halifax, Nova Scotia, and the other at London, Ontario—stopping off at Toronto to be the guest of Ontario A at the Panhellenic Banquet; when it received the scholarship cup, and of the Toronto Alumnae Club at its Settlement School Bridge Benefit.

As she herself was so recently a Province President, the Assistant to the Grand President did not increase their duties by demanding a reply to her letters and enclosures sent them twice during the year—so she doubly appreciates the helpful letters sent her by the Presidents of B, Γ, Δ, H, Θ, and Λ Provinces.

In every possible way the Assistant to the Grand President has tried to be of help and service to the Grand President and to Π B Φ and is grateful for the opportunity—for her work has always been a privilege and a pleasure!

Respectfully submitted,
MARIE W. STEBBINS

ASSISTANT TO THE GRAND VICE-PRESIDENT

SINCE the last Convention, the office of Assistant to the Grand Vice-President has been held by three different members. Jane White Comer was elected at Convention and served until June 1933. Bernyce Scott Humphrey was appointed to fill the vacancy and served until February 15, 1934, at which time she was forced to resign because of her health. I have held the office since the time of her resignation.

One of the first duties I performed after my appointment to this office was the sending out of letters to three members in each of the fifty communities where no club exists, but where there are ten or more Pi Phis, urging them to hold a Founders' Day celebration and at that time discuss the formation of an alumnae club. The responses to these letters have been most gratifying and it is hoped that by next fall we shall have several more clubs.

With the establishment of new clubs both my predecessors and I have written the president of each group a word of welcome and suggestions for the club—offering them assistance at all times. It has also been the duty of this officer to offer help to those clubs who have found it somewhat difficult to carry on, suggesting ways their problems have been successfully overcome by other clubs.

Among other things it is the duty of the Assistant to assist the Grand Vice-President as she may direct. In this capacity I have compiled statistical reports and charts. I am also preparing a chart for each province and some on general information for the 1934 Convention. Alumnae Club exhibits are being collected and prepared. This officer also works with the Province Vice-Presidents and handles the report of the Magazine Agency.

At the last Convention the Assistant to the Grand Vice-President was appointed to serve at the next Convention as the Chairman of the Nominating Committee. Recommendations have been received and notice sent to the other members of this committee of our added responsibility at Convention.

The Mothers' Club Committee has been disbanded and that work has been relegated to this office. Central Office mimeographed and sent out for me questionnaires on the subject to all chapters. This revealed that 22 chapters have Mothers' Clubs. I wrote each chapter that did not have such a club, and enclosed a letter to be passed on to one of the mothers, explaining the functions and benefits of such an organization. After correspondence with several of the mothers' clubs I have formulated a model Mothers' Club Constitution.

Although my term of office has been brief it has shown me what a truly fine and efficient fraternity we belong to. I am indeed very grateful for the opportunity of serving in this office and for the privilege of knowing and working with the members of Grand Council and the Province Vice-Presidents.

Respectfully submitted,
 MARIANNE REID WILD

ASSISTANT TO GRAND TREASURER

THE audited report for the year 1933-34 shows that "Greater Prosperity" characterized the jewelry orders for our fraternity. This has been an excellent financial year for my office. Many lovely badges have been ordered which accounts for our increase in profits.

I thought 1932-33 was a good year, but this year 919 jeweled badges were ordered through my office whereas last year 897 approximately were sold. Plain badges totaled 314, with 282 worn new in 1932-33.

Recognition pins are becoming more and more popular with the chapter girls. A Recognition Pin makes an ideal initiation gift by a Chapter "Mother" and 195 girls did this sort of thing this year. Five Recognition Pins were the lovely one-diamond pins which cost $6 plus tax. Then many chapters bought the one-pearl Recognition Pins costing $4 plus tax as awards for scholarship, activities, or some other outstanding work.

Many Pi Beta Phi Mothers are wearing Mothers' pins this year as well as brothers' sporting new pins and charms. These items along with pledge pins, and scholarship rings total 176 orders.

The Alumnae Clubs are to be congratulated upon their interest in local chapters. Many clubs have shown this by awarding recognition pins to Freshmen or Sophomores for scholarship, etc.

Chapter Treasurers have had a difficult time in figuring badge amounts correctly. In fact, I sometimes wondered how many read their correspondence where explanations were given in detail about the 10 per cent tax for surcharge and 6 per cent Government Tax in Mrs. Stoolman's letter of October 9. Collection of these taxes caused me much worry.

All Jewelry Order Blanks come in duplicate to me. One is kept in my files to be checked with Balfour's monthly bills and the other is sent immediately to L. G. Balfour, Attleboro, Massachusetts, to be used in filling the order. No jewelry is kept on hand at my home. It all has to come through Balfour's office. This is why it is so necessary for Chapter Treasurers to anticipate jewelry needs. If orders are filled within ten days, one should be pleased.

Lois Franklin Stoolman has been a real Captain through these troubled financial seas. I wish every member of our Fraternity would be as loyal and untiring in their efforts to further the interests of Pi Beta Phi as she has been and still is. No one can appreciate her fine foresight until they have worked alongside her. No trivial problem was too small for her to help me solve. This is why it is difficult for me to resign, but I have had the fraternity experience that will always be a happy remembrance.

Miss Onken, I thank you sincerely for the trust you imposed upon me in June 1931 at Asbury Park Convention. You will continue to be my inspiration and symbol of Pi Beta Phi as long as I live.

Respectfully submitted,
 SARAH J. FISHER

NATIONAL HISTORIAN

THE Historian always feels the inadequacy of her report when compared with the work of the other officers of the Fraternity. A great deal of time is spent upon matters for which no report can be made or account given.

The work this year was facilitated by the suggestions formulated by Grand Council for this department, and the Historian feels that some definite things have been accomplished. In the first place, with the cooperation of the ARROW Editor and the Banta Publishing Company, the ARROW file of bound copies has now been completed. This entailed the binding of the back numbers of the ARROW in a way similar to that now employed as a routine matter—the binding of each year's ARROWS in a permanent volume. Secret ARROWS have been thus preserved also.

The chapter letters and the Gatlinburg News have now been arranged in a more acceptable manner, and can be more readily retained for historical reference. Since both of these publications have been discontinued for the time being, the Historian feels that they should be a part of the permanent record of the Fraternity.

The Historian has made a detailed study of the material in her possession and has on record an inventory of the articles now included in the files and available for reference. She has also made a brief résumé of the events of the year of interest to the Fraternity and hopes by this means to have an annual account of the outstanding phases of the Fraternity development and accomplishment.

The Historian is planning to make a systematic collection of the signatures of the officers of the Fraternity for the files. Many of these are now on hand, of course, but the others will be asked for.

The Historian hopes she has been able to be of assistance to the many members of the Fraternity who during the last year have asked for information of a historical nature. She is always pleased to place at the disposal of the members any information in her power. She is grateful for the suggestions given from time to time as to the procuring for the archives matters of historical interest. In some cases the follow-up of such suggestions has led to the learning of very pertinent facts, the securing of letters and other exhibits for the files.

Especially does the Historian wish to thank Miss Onken and the other officers who have been most generous in sending photographs, letters, business correspondence, and other memoirs to be preserved among the prized possessions of the Fraternity. She asks the cooperation of every $\Pi B \Phi$ in making the historical files a worthy and adequate part of the Fraternity they represent.

Respectfully submitted,
GRACE FILLER

NATIONAL SUPERVISOR OF CHAPTER ACCOUNTING

BY SEPTEMBER, 1933, every chapter had sent in its final report of the school year and its final reconciliation sheet. The Busey System is self-auditing, and the book balance should agree with the bank balance at the close of the school year. The books of sixty-six chapters checked accurately for the year, and the errors in the other chapters were due to entries not in accord with the system.

During the month of September, the usual letters of instructions were sent to the chapter treasurers. A letter of instructions and advice was enclosed, written by Mr. Busey. A letter of instructions was also sent to the financial advisers as well as a copy of the letter to the treasurers, so that they would be able to check up on the points brought out in that letter, when checking the various report sheets. A Budget Control Sheet was received from every chapter with the exception of Vermont A, which was excused, as it was difficult to plan a budget under the conditions existing at that chapter. Pennsylvania A, whose conditions were much the same, sent in a Control Sheet and was permitted to balance its budget by using its reserve funds as income, as the need for such funds was no longer present. The budgets of almost all the chapters have worked out very well, and no chapter shows a serious loss for the year. It is felt that chapters have learned to watch their expenditures more carefully during these past few years. Chapters should realize that the planning of a budget is an important phase of their work. It should be worked out by using the figures of the previous year, taking into consideration the relative number of members. Some expenses, such as rent, are not variable, and so it is often hard to plan a budget with reduced income, but judgment should be used and reductions made in expense estimates wherever possible, and then constant watch should be kept throughout the year to see that estimated expenses are not exceeded and that the actual income is keeping up to the estimated income.

As it is necessary to make out this report at an earlier date than usual because this is Convention year, this survey is based upon the reports of chapters maintaining houses as of April 1, and of chapters reporting quarterly as of March 1. This is not as satisfactory to this office as the usual survey which is based upon the reports of the entire year, as Cash Gain or Loss and delinquent lists may change materially by the close of the school year.

All chapters have cooperated splendidly throughout the year. The reports have been prompt and accurate and it will be noted that the grades for cooperation are much higher this year than previously. Grades for Financial Responsibility are higher than those of last year, but several chapters have received low grades due to long delinquent lists, to Bills Payable and to Cash Losses. A total of 20 chapters show a Cash Loss for the year to date and it is hoped that some of these will be made up before the close of the year. The total loss amounts to $2,066.96. It is noted that during the last three years, 50 chapters have shown cash losses, but only 12 chapters have shown losses for two of the years. Two chapters have shown losses for each of the three years. Five chapters showed losses for the two previous years but show very satisfactory gains for this year. It is interesting to note that two of these chapters, which received low grades for the past two years have received grades of 4.8-10 and 5-10, respectively, for this year. These facts, taken all together, seem to show that most chapters realize their financial responsibility only when their conditions have reached a crisis, but that they then take things in hand and improve their circumstances.

The first several reports of two chapters were late as the books were in a confused condition. An audit was made in one case, and a change in treasurers in the other, and the reports from these chapters have been prompt and accurate since that time, although the delinquent lists of these chapters increased considerably during the period of laxness, which is always likely to happen.

Delinquency is still one of our great problems. It increased materially last year, due to the nation wide banking conditions and it was hoped that it would show a great decrease this year; but such has not been the case. Unless great changes take place in the last two reports of the year, the final total of delinquent members will be fully as high as that of last year. It has been observed that if chapters which have been free of delinquents, once allow them to exist, they mount month by month and thus it becomes a serious problem, which it never was before. Thus it is apparent that members, realizing that other members are allowed to run delinquent accounts, take advantage of the situation, and the personal feeling of responsibility of the members is gradually undermined. Of the total of $11,381.23 due from delinquent members at the close of school last year, $4,105.44 is still being carried. It is hoped that most of this will be collected by the close of this school year, as most of it is covered by notes which fall due at the close of this year.

Respectfully submitted,
HELEN KAMMERER MCKENDREW

CENTRAL OFFICE

THE Π Β Φ Central Office was moved from Bloomington, Illinois, to Marshall, Illinois, in October, 1933. Since that time the office has been located on the first floor of the National Dixie Building in Marshall, Illinois. The office occupies three airy, light rooms.

Golda Mathews and Eleanor Murray moved with the office from Bloomington to Marshall and have made their homes in Marshall and have continued their work with the Central Office.

The Central Office has had many interesting projects this year and a report is given herewith of these projects.

Retyping Mailing List Cards. During the summer of 1933 the assistants retyped old cards in the "green" file or mailing list file. Many of these cards were very old and were becoming illegible. All of the cards in this file are now uniform and in good condition. Other summer work consisted of mimeographing manuals for chapter Corresponding Secretaries, Vice-Presidents, and Historians. These manuals were sent out with fall supplies.

Non-Subscribers' Drive. In order to give our non-subscribers the opportunity of renewing their acquaintance with Π Β Φ the alumnae department gained permission, for a short time, to allow members initiated before 1908 to subscribe to the ARROW for life for $7.50, or exactly one-half of the regular price for life subscriptions. In order to advertise this drive, sample ARROWS were sent to the Banta Publishing Company, and from there the ARROWS were sent out to all non-subscribers. In each ARROW a coupon was enclosed soliciting subscriptions. The Central Office had a great many old ARROWS that had been returned as undeliverable and these were sent out as samples. This drive was a very inexpensive and satisfactory one.

Province Presidents' Check on Files and Records of Chapters. This year, the Director was anxious to have the records of chapters carefully checked. Mimeographed sheets were sent to each Province President, giving the items that were to be carefully checked this year. Province Presidents then returned these completed reports and this method was a very good check on what chapters had or had not done for their records.

Endowment Fund Drive. Endowment Letters and Pledge Cards were sent out to all members of the fraternity by the Central Office in February. This drive was one of the largest the present staff of the Central Office had ever undertaken. The cost of this drive was as follows:

25,000 letters	$ 78.50
25,000 cards	26.80
25,000 envelopes	308.00
	(including postage)
Foreign Postage	7.27
Extra Office Help	5.00
Total	$425.57

This complete mailing to all members took seven days to finish, with all members of the Central Office staff working on this project.

Busey System of Financial Education. The Central Office mimeographed a bulletin for Mr. Busey which was sent to the financial advisers of all chapters for their education in the supervision of chapter Treasurer's work. This was a very helpful course of lessons which was developed to help financial advisers to understand this system more clearly. With this course of lessons samples of forms which were to be used in the Busey System of Accounting were enclosed, and also a questionnaire to enable financial advisers to review their knowledge.

Material for Committee on Educational Qualifications. Another mimeographing project which the Central Office undertook was the mailing for the Committee on Educational Qualifications. Both sides of the question in regard to the advisability of members of Grand Council holding degrees were presented in this project and copies of this bulletin were sent to all alumnae clubs, chapters, and national officers.

Postal Card Mailing. Every other year the Central Office sends out postal cards to all alumnae in order to ascertain that the records in the files are correct, and to endeavor to find "lost" members. This year the postal cards were sent out but a different plan for getting correct data was employed. Each card was filled out in pencil in the spaces where data was requested according to Central Office records. Each member was asked to check the data which was contained in the records of the Central Office in regard to themselves, and if data was correct to return the cards with some mark of approval. If data was incorrect they were asked to give the proper data on return side of the postal card. This was a very effective method and although it took a considerably longer time than the old way of simply addressing cards and asking for data, the Director believes the extra time spent was justifiable.

Numbering the Chapter Cards. As a result of the careful checking of chapter records by Province Presidents, the Director had many requests from chapters for lists of their chapter's members arranged chronologically according to initiation. This is the form in which data in chapter Record of Membership Book is kept, but such a form is not kept in the Central Office. The Director sent out a request to all chapter Vice-Presidents asking that they send in a list of all members initiated into their chapter, arranging this list chronologically according to initiation. These lists were received and then checked against the cards in the Central Office chapter file. After the checking each card was numbered in the chapter file of the Central Office according to chapter number contained on the list and likewise contained in the Record of membership. To date all chapters are complete with the exception of twelve, and these twelve reports have been received, but have had to be returned to the different chapters for corrections. The Director is very enthusiastic about this arrangement of files for in the future there should be very little confusion in regard to membership if this method of numbering is employed. Quite a number of the chapters have expressed themselves that it will be a satisfaction to have a file in the Central Office which is in the same form as their Record of Membership Books.

The "lost" list for the year 1933-34 is very much higher than the year 1932-33. The reason for this is that the Director did not place names on the mailing list for the ARROW if addresses were sent only from the post office officials. She found many errors occurred from post office addresses so each address was verified by sending out a card to the "lost" member asking for a verification of her address before her name was again placed on the mailing list. If no answer was received in verification of the address as given by the post office department, the "lost" member's name was removed from the mailing list. Although this increases the "lost" percentage, the Director believes it is an economy measure to follow the procedure as outlined above.

From July 20, 1933, through May 31, 1934, the operating expenses of the $\Pi B \Phi$ Central Office were as follows:

Salaries (two regular secretaries and one part time girl)	$1,037.55
Rent	270.00
Express and Postage	1,395.73
Miscellaneous Expenses and Supplies	699.09
Telegraph and Telephone	44.11
Light	8.87
Tax	4.68

The reader will note that the express and postage item is very high this year. It must be remembered that there were two large mailings to the entire membership this year.

The Central Office collected $1,453.00 from chapters, alumnae clubs, and individuals for supplies this year.

The fraternity has initiated 1085 members this year, 1933-34. In the year 1932-33 the number of initiates was 1140. It must be remembered, however, that North Carolina B was admitted to $\Pi B \Phi$ in 1933, and also it must be remembered that Pennsylvania A did not hold an initiation in 1933-34.

The Director is now looking forward to the biggest project of all, the printing of the Directory. This work will probably be completed in the late summer or early fall. Data which was received on return postal cards will be used in the new Directory.

The Director wishes to thank all members of Grand Council, national, chapter, and alumnae officers for making her two and a half years of activity in the $\Pi B \Phi$ Central Office such happy ones.

PI BETA PHI NATIONAL MAGAZINE AGENCY

THE Director of the National Magazine Agency takes great pleasure in giving a report for a most successful year, 1933-34, which has just closed.

The amount of $2050 profit has been accumulated this past year, and has been sent to the Settlement School Treasurer at various times during the year. $2050 is the largest profit that has yet been made, of which the national agency has any record.

I have rated the alumnae clubs and chapters according to their commissions earned per club, and also the commissions per paid member. It is interesting to note that many of the smaller groups, of from ten to twelve members have accomplished a great deal this year. They are to be congratulated on the amount of business they have created. The active chapters are aiding in this work and amid their busy days, we find the active girls very much interested in the magazine agency. All the clubs and chapters over the U.S. have shown a tremendous increase in business this year.

We sincerely hope all the chapters and clubs will visualize this business, as many of our alumnae clubs do, and see that this magazine agency is a vital thing in the support of our mountain school.

It is most interesting to note the profits from the agency for the past few years:

	Approximately
1927-28	$1,200
1928-29	1,100
1929-30	810
1930-31	950
1931-32	1,500

For this year, St. Louis, Missouri; Detroit, Michigan; Wichita, Kansas; New York, New York; Decatur, Illinois; Kansas City, Missouri; Beaumont, Texas; and Hartford, Connecticut, in the order given, are the clubs that rank the highest, in commissions. These clubs have met with unusual success.

Following is the list of alumnae clubs with the record of their highest total commissions:

It is very plain to see that this business is constantly growing, and becoming one of the greatest money-making schemes which the $\Pi B \Phi$ Fraternity has ever attempted. This agency is of nation-wide interest, as almost every club and chapter, over the U.S. has at least one order to place, during the year.

The important feature of this agency that we consider from year to year, is just how we may increase our sales.

First: How may we obtain new ideas of ways in which to present the magazines?

Second: How may we attempt the apparently impossible, by creating greater business than ever before?

Third: How may we compete in the business world today?

Going back to our first point, in obtaining new ideas, in which to present our magazines, did you ever consider the importance of giving out special sample copies? These may be obtained from the agency with no extra cost to the clubs or committees, and it is easy to see that sample copies are a great aid in stimulating more business.

Next for bridge prizes, nothing is more acceptable, than a subscription to a magazine and the cost is no more than other gifts.

By remembering your friends on their birthdays, anniversaries, etc., with a magazine subscription, you'll be delighted to know how very happy your friend is with such a gift.

Then of course, we have the Christmas gift problem solved so easily, by sending magazine subscriptions. At that time of the year, when we're all edgy with nerves and in a jitter over the holiday rush, why not end all that great worry, and give an attractive gift, such as a magazine subscription. Gift cards accompany each Christmas order. Even the men are taking advantage of this unique way of solving their Christmas, by giving subscriptions to magazines to their family and business associates.

To create more business, we must have more of the type of workers we already have; inspiring and enthusiastic chairmen and untiring committees, who will put this business across in a large way.

To compete in the business world of today, we must all be high-pressure saleswomen; that is, as one business man put it, have faith in what we sell, persistence, concentration, and daring, as the mainsprings of business success are concentration and persistence.

It has been proved, time and again, that we all have in us, a latent capacity for far greater things than we ever accomplish in our daily routine.

If we would all take advantage of introducing the magazines, urging orders from our dentist, doctor, and hairdresser, think for one second of the marvelous increase in sales we would have. There is a wonderful possibility of increased business in selling magazines to the public libraries, school libraries, clinics, etc., as of course, we handle every magazine published. Perhaps the commissions are not so great on these professional and business magazines. However, after we secure their business, we are very apt to obtain more orders from these same subscribers.

Many clubs are stressing the importance of the magazine agency and urging their members to sell more magazines, for after all, this method of making money for our settlement school is not only so very simple, but is very interesting. The contacts we make are invaluable. Benefit parties and selling tickets for any such charity affairs often become irksome and very little recompense for all our labor.

We urge you to carry home the fact, that the National Magazine Agency takes any order for any magazine published, and they are available at the lowest possible rate. This is a very important point to bring out to our families and friends.

I hope we may all have a most successful year. Let us say, we shall have a goal of $2500. Here's hoping we reach that amount, if not more.

I wish to thank all of you, for your great cooperation, marvelous enthusiasm, and devoted efforts, which have made a wonderfully successful year, for the magazine agency, as well as a very pleasant and interesting year for the Director of the National Magazine Agency.

COMMITTEE ON ENDOWMENT FUND

ALTHOUGH this year found the Endowment Fund committee making a concentrated drive for funds, the goal of "completion by Convention" was not reached. We have gained many friends, a goodly number of whom have shown their loyalty by additional contributions.

Detailed information has been sent out to our province officers who have been most helpful in stressing the Endowment Fund to the clubs and chapters. Alpha Province was the only one in which the alumnae clubs gave 100 per cent and Epsilon, Zeta, Eta, Iota, and Kappa Province active chapters are in the 100 per cent class.

We have continued the ARROW publicity, sent out a letter to the entire membership, and written numerous personal letters. The committee members have done a real service and they are looking ahead to the very near future when they can see a worth-while work well done.

SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

LITTLE did the women who searched for a place for the Π Β Φ Fraternity to found its Settlement School think that the one they chose, the isolated community of Gatlinburg, would serve as an entrance to one of America's great national parks, one which is drawing great numbers of scientists, botanists and geologists to study the flora and fauna in that section. It is most fitting on behalf of the Settlement School to bring greetings from this youngest national park, Great Smoky Mountain National Park, to the oldest, Yellowstone National Park.

As you know, Gatlinburg was an isolated community when the Pi Phis sought it out for a field of philanthropic work twenty-two years ago, and for a long time our School dominated the life—was the pulse for a radius of many miles. Now, however, although our School continues to wield tremendous power, it must be acknowledged that it is not working altogether with native mountain people. It takes only a short time in the village to become aware of the outside forces which have entered into the life of the community. The rapid changes have constituted the greatest problems and will continue to do so more and more in the coming years. Our Government has located the offices for the Park in Gatlinburg, and the Bureau of Public Roads has also established its offices within a stone's throw of our School. These two organizations have brought some fine spirits into the community and many of their children have come into our schools, and the parents are counted among our splendid patrons. Perhaps one of the biggest problems arising within the past year was brought about by the locating of several Conservation Camps in close proximity to the School. Several of our staff assisted in the educational work done in the camp, and also took part in many of the entertainment features.

From this it is not to be inferred that the need for our School no longer exists. Far from it—only a short distance back from the main highway, there has been only slight change in conditions, and in the remote coves the need for our work is as great as ever.

The School had the largest total enrollment in its history. The classes from the primer through the sixth grade were in the Grade School Building. Eleanor Brabson and Miriam Swann, two fine Tennessee girls who have been with us a number of years, taught the primer and first grades respectively. They worked faithfully with the children in school and out of school, visiting the homes several days a week after school hours. A very fine contact is made with the parents through these personal visits, and the children's needs are ever in the teacher's mind and heart. Jean Handley, Missouri T, came to us for her first year of teaching—and such a roomful she did have, trying to teach two grades. When she was met in Knoxville and told she was to have the second and third grades, her very characteristic repartee was, "My word, does the second grade come one day and the third the next?" To be very frank, some of the fifty-six enrolled in the two grades overflowed into Miriam Swann's and Mattie Huff's rooms. Mattie Huff, Iowa Z, has grown up in our School and has helped in many ways. She did a splendid piece of work teaching the fourth grade and part of the third. Mattie, as you know, was the first girl from our own School who went to a college where there was a chapter of Pi Phi and became a loyal member. Stella Huff has been on our staff two years and her excellent work in the fifth and sixth grades is most highly commended. More than two hundred children came daily to that building and it was truly overflowing all the time.

Within the last year, two new high schools have been opened in the county, and our high school has suffered in consequence, because of the absence of the children who formerly lived in our dormitory, and who have now gone to these schools.

We regretted exceedingly last summer, as we prepared our budget for 1933-34 to have to close the dormitories. The indefinite and unstable economic conditions existing in the country—and world, for that matter—to say nothing of our losses by various clubs in the bank failures in every state, made us figure very closely, and we believed it the wise thing not to run the risk of incurring a heavier debt than we were already carrying. Mr. Virgil Hampton, a graduate of the University of Tennessee, came to us for the first time to act as principal of the School. He taught the classes in math and history, while Pauline Whaling, Illinois A, conducted classes in geography and English.

Mr. Don Smith, our Smith-Hughes representative, completed his fifth year's work with our boys, and too much cannot be said in praise of the splendid work he has done with our boys, teaching them agriculture and farm management, just the practical things that boys in that section of the country find so necessary and helpful. Miss Jessie Branham had her usual classes in home economics. The discouraging feature to her was the smallness of her classes, but she was faithful to the few, and we know the girls benefited greatly from her careful instruction. Her classes among the women in several nearby communities were well attended. One of her most enthusiastic groups was a class of high school boys who asked her to teach them cooking in a night class. Just an hour spent visiting this class made me realize that boys need lessons in the culinary arts. These boys were apt listeners, and their delicious food attested to their ability to execute their instructions. We realize the high school teachers were discouraged, but this did not retard their interest in carrying on the work both in school and after school hours. Pauline Whaling worked faithfully with the high school boys and girls, teaching a Sunday School class, working in the B.Y.P.U., and holding gym classes both in the afternoons and evenings. We regret her resignation, but we are assured of her active interest in the community, as she is now Mrs. Jack Huff, and her home address is Gatlinburg, Tenn., or Summit of Mt. Le Conte.

Virginia Moore has continued her work as nurse for the school and has given of her services day or night to the entire community. She has worked alone at the hospital as we could not afford an assistant she has had in the past. She has done an exceptionally splendid work in the School, and her health groups were awarded more blue ribbons than any other school competing in Sevier County. She has been most appreciative of the aid that has come to her through the gifts of clubs and individuals, in the form of layettes, and nursing supplies, such as bandages, dressings, etc.

Lucy Field, Texas A, has been bookkeeper for the past year. This was her first year out of school, but her degree signified a good foundation, and her willing spirit of cooperation has been a great help to the Treasurer of the Settlement School, Miss Grace Post. It has been a source of great gratification to see the spirit of our workers as they have made sacrifices to help bring us through a period when schools like ours and larger, too, have had to close their doors. We cannot claim that we have made any great strides in advancement, but we are most sincerely grateful that through a loyal cooperation on the part of the staff and the fraternity there has been a way opened for us to keep step with the steady progress we have made in the past twenty-two years.

Too much praise cannot be given to Mrs. Mary Ella McDonald who has served for two years as House Manager and Matron of the Girls' Dormitory. Due to her wise guidance the expenses of our boarding department are held to a minimum. The staff are ever grateful to her for the attractive surprises she plans to make living cheerier for them.

Those in charge of the Arrow Craft Shop have been able to call this the biggest and best year in the history of the Shop, and owe a debt of gratitude to the alumnae clubs and chapters who have come to them and sold the beautiful handwoven articles in all parts of the country. Strange as it may seem, our Shop has had a splendid business and increasing sales each year since it began operations. Mrs. Pattengill, Iowa Z, became manager the first of the year, and with her direction, and Miss Redding and Miss Carr to plan new and attractive articles, the alumnae have found a ready market for the finished products. In the month of April there was four times as much sold in the Arrow Craft Shop and Mountain View Hotel Shop as was sold for the same month last year. The cooperation received by the Shop is truly a most satisfying and conclusive evidence that we are filling a need for the community and the women who weave. In one instance, one woman's weaving supports a family of eleven. A visit to our exhibit in the hotel here is a treat and we are happy for each one to come and look at the display. Last fall the American Federation of Art prepared an exhibit of Southern Mountain Handicraft, and as members of the Handicraft Guild, we were asked to contribute some of our weaving, and we proudly prepared a collection which we felt was most representative of the type of things our weavers made. At the time this exhibit was at the Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington, D.C., the Guild presented Mrs. Roosevelt with many articles from the various exhibits. We were delighted to present her a dress pattern of white cashmere, woven by one of our own girls, and great was the thrill to Mag Parton when she received a lovely note of thanks from the First Lady of the United States.

Miss Maryalice Chaffee, Michigan A, came August 1 to become Director of the School. She has taken hold of the work and has found a place in the life of the community.

The Staff has taken an active part in community affairs. The teachers have attended county and state teachers' meetings. We have been represented at the Mountain Workers' Conference and Guild meetings. The teachers, under the direction of Pauline Whaling, presented a play, and with the proceeds bought a curtain for the stage in the auditorium of the high school building. Community parties have been given several times during the year and at Christmas time baskets were taken to many families who would have had no Santa Claus had it not been for our School. For the first time the children brought gifts to the Christmas tree and had the joy of giving a gift to another child. The Christmas entertainment was said to have been the most elaborate and successful one ever given.

The native women have two rather interesting organizations which have functioned this year. The Weavers' Group held a meeting in the Weaving room each month, and proved a most enjoyable afternoon for its membership of some thirty-five women. There was usually a program and one of the staff instructed them in their art of weaving, and a group served as hostess for the social hour. The other organization was the Parent-Teachers' Association, which sponsored various activities. The largest responsibility they assumed was fostering the lunch room and serving a hot meal to the children at the noon hour. A rather interesting fact is that the past president of the $\Pi B \Phi$ PTA was a $K K \Gamma$.

The sale of our Cottage in the Sugarlands has been consummated during this year, and the Government paid us $3,000 for it and our two acres of land. With this sum and an amount appropriated in the budget for reducing the indebtedness of the School, we have reduced our mortgage held by the Lutch-

Moore Lumber Co. of Orange, Texas, from $10,000 to $5,400. This year's amount budgeted will further reduce this amount to $3,900. The First National Bank of Sevierville which failed a year ago is liquidating and paying off 60 per cent to the depositors. Arrow Craft was the heaviest loser as it had $2,000 in a savings fund. We are happy that we will recoup three-fifths of that amount and perhaps more.

We have deeply felt the loss in the high school of our boys and girls whom we have always had in our dormitories. It is with optimism, based on a more secure financial status that we are counting on reopening the dormitories and caring for the twenty girls and boys whom we have had in them. It is the plan to use the beautiful building given us three years ago by Mr. Voorhies for the boys' dormitory. While it was primarily built for a Wood Shop, it lends itself admirably to a dormitory and we believe ten boys can be housed most comfortably in it. If the clubs and chapters continue their loyal support, which they have given so generously and in many instances by dint of hard work and real sacrifice, we have every reason to believe we can carry on this needed phase of work for our teen-age boys and girls.

To the entire Staff, on behalf of the Committee, I should like to express our deep appreciation of their interest in the school and their untiring efforts in working for it. To the members of the Committee and to Grand Council, the chairman wishes to express her appreciation for their constant support, their advice and council and help.

In closing, may we quote from an article which appeared in The New Republic of April 4, 1934. "The question of educating the Appalachian mountaineers is more important than most Americans realize. The mountaineers are not a handful of quaint folksy people distilling moonshine and singing Elizabethan ballads in the forgotten coves of the Blue Ridge. They number millions. From Cambria County in Pennsylvania their territory extends to northern Georgia and a corner of Alabama; it includes portions of ten states. Some of the Appalachian counties are among the most densely populated—and overpopulated—rural districts in North America. The mountain people closely resemble the Ozark mountaineers and the poor-land people of central Kentucky. On the other hand, they are sharply distinguished from the poor whites of the Cotton Belt, who labor under the triple burden of poverty, dependency, and contempt. The mountain whites, though equally poor, are proud and self-dependent.

"Even in the fifth year of the depression, they are receiving more education than they did at the beginning of the century, and this in spite of the fact that their living conditions have declined during the same period. There are now primary schools almost everywhere, and even high schools of a fair quality. But the poorer children often can't attend them, because they have no shoes for the winter and no money to buy textbooks. And college is usually an insuperable problem for families that don't see thirty dollars in cash from one year's end till the next. A limited approach toward solving this problem has been made by the mountain colleges of which the largest and best known are Berea in Kentucky, Lincoln Memorial University in Tennessee and the Berry School in Georgia.

"The general problem of educating the mountain people is too big for them ever to solve with the resources at their disposal. It is a problem too widespread and important for private charity. Perhaps the greatest untapped human resources in America are locked up in the Appalachian coves; they must be released; the mountain people must be given a chance to show what they can do. Abraham Lincoln came from stock like this, in the poor land country of Kentucky. The leaders of the American proletariat in the future may possibly be drawn from much the same back ground."

In memory of the group of twelve college girls who at their first meeting in April 1867, voted to send a load of coal to a poor and needy family living near the campus of Monmouth College so are we, their successors, carrying our torch lighted from theirs and doing our share in continuing the responsibility of education we have been doing for twenty-two years in the heart of the Great Smokies. We are pioneer workers in the field; our work has prospered, the community needs us. Let us heed the call for service to the mountain people, we can not fail them!

FRANKIE COCHRAN HILL, Chairman

DIRECTOR PI BETA PHI SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

SCHOOL opened August 6, 1933, with an enrollment of 240 pupils, a decided increase in the grammar school but, because of our closing the dormitories, a decrease in the high school. It was necessary for us to have another teacher in the grammar school, where, as a result, we were able to have better organization in the lower grades.

The teachers not only give their services in the school room but do community work as well. Without the enforcement of the state attendance law, we depend largely upon the teachers' visits to the homes for keeping up attendance.

This year the county board of education paid the salaries of six primary teachers and have been most accommodating in supplying the school with chalk, erasers, and floor oil. The county also furnished a bus to bring the grammar children from Cherokee Orchard, Elkmont Mountain, and Sugarlands. We hope that next year the county will see the need to furnish transportation for high school pupils.

Our junior high school, consisting of the seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth grades, had a total enrollment of forty pupils with thirteen dropping out before the close of school in April. Some of these pupils moved away, a few were forced to leave school because of sickness, while others said that they had lost interest.

While our athletic program did not come up to that of last year because of decreased enrollment, we did have a basketball season directed by Mr. Hampton, the principal, and physical training and volley ball for the girls under the supervision of Pauline Whaling.

Diplomas were given to eight girls who completed their eighth grade work, and tenth grade state certificates to four boys and one girl. Practically every one of these last five students hopes to finish his high school work.

Parent-Teachers' Association

Again we have had a very active and large group in the Parent-Teachers' Association, with more mothers than ever working to continue to provide hot lunches for the school children. At the beginning of the year, the equipment in the lunch room, which is in the basement of the elementary school building, was repainted and necessary supplies were replaced. Many undernourished children were brought to a normal weight through the efforts of the Parent-Teachers. About seventy children were fed in the lunch room daily. The members raise money to meet the expense of the lunch room by selling pop corn and candy at the basketball games and before and after the movies on Friday nights.

During the fall the P.T.A. sponsored a rummage sale and a pie supper. In the spring they had box suppers, and this summer they had a number of ice cream socials. In this way they hope to have a good fund to start the lunches in the fall.

Home Economics

The Smith-Hughes home economics work was continued in the high school and the rural districts by Jessie Branham, a graduate of the University of Tennessee. Because of the small number of girls enrolled in the two high school grades, we thought it advisable to give the seventh and eighth grade girls sewing and cooking. There was a total enrollment of twenty-four girls in these three local school classes, six leaving school before the close of the year. Even though classes were small, many practical problems were worked out by the girls, who also have several finished articles which show splendid workmanship. In the fall Miss Branham proved to be very helpful to many of the local women when she sponsored a canning class. During the early spring eight of the local women enrolled in an evening dress-making class where many dresses were made. Along with the local teaching, Miss Branham sponsored adult classes in the Glades and Laurel Lick and had a class of eighth-grade girls in the school at Elkmont. For six weeks she taught cooking to an evening class of high school boys.

Agriculture and Farm

Undoubtedly our Smith-Hughes vocational agriculture work has been a wonderful influence for the boys attending our school, as well as being an inspiration to the adults in this area. In the junior high school agriculture classes, Don Smith had fifteen boys who completed their home project work which consisted of the care of milk cows, laying hens, truck gardens, horses, and potatoes. The school farm project work which has heretofore been done by the dormitory boys, was kept up as well as possible by Ambers Ogle and Arlie Watson, who have been employed by the school for the past five years. In the regular agriculture course soil improvement, cattle judging and farm shop work were studied. Mr. Smith took the agriculture boys on several trips to observe the work going on at the University of Tennessee Farm and other outstanding dairies in the state. He also had afternoon classes at Laurel Lick, McCookville, Caney, and Banner schools, where more simple farm shop work was stressed.

The $\Pi B \Phi$ chapter of the Future Farmers of America had fifteen paid members from the school this year. The chapter's live stock judging team came out with the highest honors in Sevier County, and was thereby made the representative of the Smoky Mountain District at the East Tennessee Fair at Knoxville. The chapter also won third prize for the best exhibit of work done in the farm shop at the Tennessee Valley Agriculture and Industrial Fair held in Knoxville last September.

The facilities of the breeding stock have been kept at the disposal of the local community farmers.

Health

During the past year Miss Virginia Moore, R.N., has been carrying on the usual health program in Gatlinburg and nearby communities with the cooperation of the county health physician. Many children have been weighed and examined by Miss Moore and the county doctor. Dental clinics have been held at different times during the year for the children from the Gatlinburg, Elkmont, Caney, Banner, Glades, and McCookville schools. Well baby clinics were started in the early spring and will continue throughout the summer in various communities in and near Gatlinburg. During the past eleven months regular weekly clinics in the Jennie Nichol Memorial Health Center were necessary for the purpose of infant advice, inoculations, and dressings.

The number of communicable diseases increased this spring. It was fortunate for us that the greatest number of cases of measles and chicken pox developed during and after the last week of school and did not seriously interfere with attendance. Tuberculin tests were made on 169 children in the $\Pi B \Phi$ School, of whom ten were found to be positive. These children will be examined at the regular tuberculosis clinic in Sevierville. A few children at a time were taken all during the summer.

During February and March children in the Grades School received cod liver oil and milk at the noon hour from the funds of the Friends of Mountain Children. A large number of children were found to be underweight at the time of the school examination.

One of the most outstanding health projects of the year was the Blue Ribbon health parade which was held in Sevierville on March 10. We had 117 Blue Ribbon children from the Pi Beta Phi School this year. Last year we had only fifty from the same grades (primer through the eighth). Our school issued more blue ribbons to children than did any other school in the county. A blue ribbon child has had all remediable defects corrected, has been immunized against typhoid, diphtheria, small pox, has kept a satisfactory health habit record for one month, and has done satisfactory school work.

Three ninth-grade girls received certificates from the State Health Department in Nashville for completing the course in home hygiene and care of the sick.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF PI BETA PHI SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

NATIONAL BOARD OF TRUSTEE FUNDS, Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, Mrs. Lois Franklin Stoolman, Chairman, 1001 South Third Street, Champaign, Illinois, Ladies:

In accordance with the request of Miss Grace Post, who is your Settlement School Treasurer, I have made an audit of the books and records of your Settlement School, which she keeps as Treasurer, for the year ended June 30, 1934. I have also received a copy of the audit of your Settlement School books and Arrow Craft Shop books in Gatlinburg, which was made by Messrs. Homer K. Jones & Company, Certified Public Accountants, of Knoxville, Tennessee. The figures contained in this report have been combined with those shown by the books of your Settlement School Treasurer and the resulting figures are shown in the accompany report.

BALANCE SHEET

It is gratifying to note that the cash position of the School has improved during the year under review and that you now have $9,500 on deposit with the First Trust and Savings Bank of Pasadena, California, as against $3,900 at the beginning of the period.

At the same time, the current position of the Arrow Craft Shop has not improved. The cash on deposit has been reduced from $980 to less than $15. The Accounts Receivable have increased $1,500 and the Inventory of Supplies has increased $1,000.

Schedule A-2 shows the Fixed Assets in detail, less the reserve for depreciation, and the Live Stock Inventory which was forwarded to your Treasurer from Gatlinburg. Deferred Charges consist of the unexpired portion of insurance and a convention charge against the Arrow Craft Shop.

The deposits in the Bank of Sevierville, which was closed at the date of the last audit, have been re-classified by Messrs. Homer K. Jones & Company as Certificates of Deposit and Deposits. As I understand it, 60 per cent of the amount left on deposit has been turned into five equal Certificates of Deposit, which are payable, the first on September 5, 1934, and the other four semi-annually thereafter.

Accrued Interest Payable represents the interest accrued to July 1, 1934, at 4 per cent, for a six months period on the mortgage of $3,900. The amount shown as due the School Endowment Fund represents cash paid into the Endowment Fund which was expended for school purposes prior to June, 1929. This was originally set up as $16,573.41, of which $3,530.96 has since been repaid to the Endowment Fund.

During the year the property at Sugarlands was sold to the Government for $3,000.00 and the proceeds applied upon the mortgage. The Hazel Todd Meaden Fund money had been invested in the Sugarlands property. This fund has now been discontinued and adjustments have been made therefor in the Net Worth.

SETTLEMENT SCHOOL INCOME AND EXPENSE

The income for the Settlement School for the year exceeded the expense by the sum of $7,051.36 and this amount has been added to your Net Worth. However, three-fourths of the contributions of the Active Chapters, or $1,622.16, has been transferred from your Net Worth to the Reserve for the School Endowment Fund and the cash has been forwarded to your National Treasurer. During the year contributions were received for the Endowment Fund amounting to $302.34. These contributions have been forwarded in cash to your National Treasurer and the amount thereof has been applied upon the balance due your Endowment Fund.

ARROW CRAFT SHOP

The Statement of Income and Expense for the Arrow Craft Shop, which is included in this report, has been condensed from the report of Messrs. Homer K. Jones & Company and you are respectfully referred to their report should you wish additional details pertaining to these operations.

There is also included in this report a schedule showing in detail the contributions and Magazine Agency profits by provinces, chapters and alumnae clubs.

In conclusion, I would like to say that I am deeply grateful to have had this opportunity of serving your organization.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS GRACE POST, Treasurer, Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, Gatlinburg, Tennessee,
Dear Miss Post:

As requested, we have made an examination of the books and records of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School and the Arrow Craft Shop of Gatlinburg, Tennessee for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1934.

We submit herewith our report which sets forth the financial condition of both the School and Arrow Craft Shop at June 30, 1934, the results of operations for the year and the scope of our examination.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION AND GENERAL REMARKS

Accounts with your banks were thoroughly examined and the accounts reconciled with bank statements. Lists of checks not properly signed or endorsed are included herein for your information.

The books of original entry were thoroughly examined, the additions verified, the postings to the general ledger checked and a trial balance taken showing same to be in balance. Clerical errors noted during our examination were adjusted.

During the year a system for estimating inventories and preparing monthly operating statements was installed for the Arrow Craft Shop. This system appears to be operating smoothly and your bookkeeper is to be commended for her work in this connection. The perpetual inventory account for weaving supplies showed a balance of $3,860.97 at June 30, 1934, while the physical inventory of weaving supplies submitted to us indicated a total of $3,969.55, the difference for the entire year being only $108.58 or 2.7 per cent of the actual physical inventory at June 30, 1934.

Respectfully submitted,
HOMER K. JONES AND COMPANY
By H. Clay Jones, C.P.A.
Knoxville, Tennessee,

DELEGATE TO NATIONAL PANHELLENIC CONGRESS

IF THE meetings of National Panhellenic Congress have no other value, they make possible personal contacts and friendships between officers of different fraternities which result in better interfraternity relations and more effective meeting of common problems. Even though National Panhellenic Congress is apparently still unwilling to take a stand on any issue of real importance, something has been achieved when individual fraternities will work closely together to meet specific situations. Perhaps it is not too much to hope that eventually National Panhellenic Congress itself will attain its potential position of influence and effectiveness by adopting a constructive program of cooperation in the things which are vital to the future of fraternities.

A situation which is very definitely a Panhellenic problem has arisen, within the past three years, in decreased college enrollments and in decreased financial ability of students to affiliate with fraternities. When all college expenditures must be closely watched and represent sacrifices on the part of parents, it is inevitable that girls should study chapters carefully and affiliate only when they may join the fraternities which represent their real preferences and which offer much both locally and nationally. This situation has tended to strengthen the strong chapters and to weaken those less well established. Although some fraternity chapters have been forced to discontinue and some National Panhellenic Congress fraternities have amalgamated with the newer nationals, it is gratifying that no member fraternity of N.P.C. has failed to survive these days of severe testing.

Faced with the probability of losing chapters which were unable to pledge and initiate enough girls to make it numerically and financially possible for them to continue, several campuses have put into effect a so-called Quota System. Last fall, five campuses used such a system, each campus having its own rulings which set some sort of limit upon the number of pledges which any chapter might have. The hope was that if the strongest groups pledged fewer members, the weaker ones would be able to pledge enough to assure their being able to continue. The N.P.C. Committee on College Panhellenics, whose chairman is Miss Green of K A Θ, has recently issued a report on the results achieved this year and has stated that in its opinion the system has failed of its purpose. The results have been that the strong chapters have been unable to pledge all the girls who wished to affiliate with them, in many instances, but that the unsuccessful chapters have still been unable to fill their quotas. In spite of the questionable success of the quota system, however, there is apparently an increased demand for it on the part of struggling chapters and many more campuses will have some such system in effect this coming fall. There are more serious and far-reaching issues involved than the mere ability or inability of any one chapter to pledge during a rushing season as many pledges as it needs. Fraternity members must face the fact that by keeping girls out of the fraternities which they wish to join, Panhellenics are either building up a strong body of women students with no fraternity affiliations, or are forcing girls, who wish the contacts and privileges of fraternity life, to find these in groups where they are not congenial or happy. There is no more dangerous foe to fraternities than the disaffected, disinterested fraternity member who has never been a real part of her own fraternity. When $\Pi B \Phi$'s delegate has been asked for her opinion as to the advisability of installing a quota system, she has expressed her lack of confidence in its ability to solve successfully the problem of the weak chapter and her feeling that any system which makes it impossible for a girl to join the fraternity of her choice when that fraternity wishes to affiliate her is fundamentally unfair and consequently unsound. $\Pi B \Phi$ has, however, in every instance agreed to cooperate when a situation was acute, but has insisted that there must be a definite understanding that the quota system is a temporary expedient only and is not to be continued. It seems that a more safe and effective way to insure the future of all present N.P.C. fraternities would be to build up a recognition of the fact that all fraternities are established for the same fine purpose—to be a force for good and for happiness in the lives of college women; that no one fraternity could possibly fully satisfy the needs of every fraternity woman; and that while no two fraternities function in exactly the same way—and there are differences in age, prestige, and present effectiveness—each has much to offer which is of value.

During the interim of conventions, $\Pi B \Phi$'s delegate to N.P.C. served on the Committee on Publicity and the Committee for a Special Survey on Rushing Costs and acted as chairman, for two years, of the Committee on College Panhellenics. She attended the 22nd and 23rd National Panhellenic Congresses, held in St. Louis and Chicago, respectively. These congresses were reported in the February ARROWS of 1932 and 1934. The February, 1934, ARROW contained also a report, for which she is indebted to Miss Merdian, Editor of ΦM , of the College Panhellenics' Session of the 23rd N.P.C. over which your delegate presided. As chairman of the Committee on College Panhellenics, she was the official N.P.C. representative to the meetings of the Association of Urban Panhellenics held in Indianapolis in 1932 and in Syracuse in 1933. She has tried to keep in touch with Panhellenic conditions affecting $\Pi B \Phi$ chapters and to help these chapters function acceptably in their interfraternity relations.

Because it believes that College Panhellenics need the support and the stabilizing influence of experienced fraternity women, especially during these trying times, N.P.C. is asking all College Panhellenics to include in their Constitutions the recommended provision for an alumna delegate from each fraternity. $\Pi B \Phi$ provides, through its Alumnae Advisory Committees, for such alumna representation, and it urges that both Advisory Committees and chapters use their full influence to secure alumnae representation in the Panhellenic if there is none and to make it effective and helpful if there is.

It is much more than an obligation—it is a privilege as your delegate to N.P.C.—to urge all members of the fraternity to increase their knowledge of all fraternities, to accept their responsibility for a fine sense of honor in all interfraternity relations and to make apparent their true desire to keep $\Pi B \Phi$ a constructively cooperating member of National Panhellenic Congress.

Respectfully submitted,
AMY BURNHAM ONKEN

Annual Reports of Committees

COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION

THE Extension Committee wishes to present to the members of $\Pi B \Phi$ two outstanding groups who merit your most thoughtful consideration. These groups are $\Sigma \Theta \Pi$ located at Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and $\Upsilon I \Sigma$ of the University of Western Ontario in London, Ontario. Both chapters have been in correspondence with $\Pi B \Phi$ since the early part of 1932 and each offers a sound opportunity if we are to continue our policy of international expansion, for the establishment of chapters in these universities will strengthen immeasurably the Fraternity's position in Canada.

Dalhousie University is an old Canadian college with a very high academic rating. It is rather isolated geographically from the chapters of $\Pi B \Phi$ and for this reason offers a most advantageous location for expansion. The college is the intellectual center of the maritime provinces and the granting of a charter to $\Sigma \Theta \Pi$, which has proved to be a most satisfactory group, would add definitely to $\Pi B \Phi$'s history and fame in years to come. The University of Western Ontario offers to the Fraternity a splendid opportunity for representation, and recognition of $\Upsilon I \Sigma$, the superior group on this campus, would unquestionably strengthen $\Pi B \Phi$.

$\Upsilon I \Sigma$ and $\Sigma \Theta \Pi$ have existed as local chapters for five and six years respectively. During this period these groups have effected real accomplishments and show every indication of further development. Each chapter has a strong internal organization, is the leader on its campus in extracurricular achievements, meets our scholastic requirements satisfactorily, offers new and worthy fields for expansion geographically, and presents to $\Pi B \Phi$ the advantage of gaining a secure foothold in desirable territory in precedence to other national women's fraternities. The members of these groups have won the enthusiastic endorsement and support of nearby chapters and of the visiting officials of the Fraternity. Moreover, as previously stated, the colleges represented are of recognized standing and are geographically located so as to further a balanced extension program. If granted recognition by the Fraternity both $\Upsilon I \Sigma$ and $\Sigma \Theta \Pi$ will add real strength to $\Pi B \Phi$.

For more than a year the Extension Committee has corresponded with $\Gamma \Sigma$ of Connecticut State College in Storrs, Connecticut, and during the past year an unofficial visit was made to this group by Miss Onken who feels that both the college and the petitioning group are deserving of our attention. However, the college must first receive the educational recognition required by $\Pi B \Phi$ and this matter is receiving attention by the college authorities at the present time. This college is well located and is one with a very fine future. $\Gamma \Sigma$, which is a well organized group and unquestionably the outstanding one on the campus, offers to the Fraternity a valuable possibility for increased strength in New England.

During the past year A M, the only local fraternity for women at North Carolina State College in Raleigh, North Carolina, has become interested in $\Pi B \Phi$ and has started affiliation proceedings. The Extension Committee has also been contacted by several alumnae concerning the establishment of a group at Akron University but this interest has not resulted in any action on the part of the local group.

Interested alumnae clubs in Atlanta, Georgia, and Little Rock, Arkansas, have contacted the Committee concerning possibilities of expansion in the University of Georgia and Hendrix College. To these inquiries the Committee has assumed an attitude of tactful encouragement.

Other members of $\Pi B \Phi$ have made inquiries regarding the establishment of groups at McGill University in Montreal, Canada, and at Louisiana State University located at Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Several interested members of the Fraternity are attending McGill so that we shall probably hear further concerning a group there, but we are at a disadvantage regarding the Louisiana situation for though several inquiries have been received from alumnae no direct contact has been made with students at the University.

In reviewing the work of the Extension Committee during the past few years one notes a decided tendency toward fewer inquiries from interested groups. This lack of interest can probably be attributed to two reasons other than the depression: $\Pi B \Phi$'s conservative extension policy which has in the past definitely discouraged many groups, and the fact that there exist each year fewer colleges which are open to fraternities where we are not already represented or where representation would be deemed advisable.

Because our opportunities for further extension are becoming more and more limited in this way, and since in maintaining $\Pi B \Phi$'s prestige as the foremost women's fraternity a well balanced extension program seems advisable in territories where we are not sufficiently represented, the Extension Committee bespeaks your most earnest and thoughtful consideration of $\Sigma \Theta \Pi$ and $\Upsilon I \Sigma$, the two petitioning groups who fulfil so well the requirements of the Fraternity.

I should like to express to Miss Onken my deepest appreciation for her constant help and inspiration and to the members of Grand Council and the Fraternity my sincere thanks for this opportunity of service to $\Pi B \Phi$.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN BROWN RUSSELL

COMMITTEE ON SCHOLARSHIP

REMEMBERING the inspiration of the last convention, I regret exceedingly my inability to be present to give my report in person.

There have been no changes in the methods of the Committee on Scholarship during the past year. I feel sure that the present system if properly executed will produce the scholarship in our chapters which $\Pi B \Phi$ wishes to maintain. As in any type of work covering so large a territory, it is absolutely essential that there should be cooperation in all branches from the individual members of the chapters and most especially from the chapter scholarship chairmen, through the province supervisors to the national chairman. There has been a continued improvement in the attitude of chapters generally in this respect. Especially to be commended for their promptness and accuracy throughout the year are: California Γ , California Δ , Illinois A, Illinois B- Δ , Illinois Z, Illinois H, Kentucky A, Nevada A, New York A, Texas A, Utah A, Vermont A, Virginia A, Wisconsin B, and Wyoming A.

Dividing the chapters into the classification of upper, middle and lower thirds scholastically for the school year 1932-1933, it is very gratifying to note the large percentage of chapters which are in the two upper brackets with only fourteen in the lower third. It is to be hoped that by another convention this number may be decreased materially. In the upper third are twenty-three chapters including the five first place chapters: Colorado A, Florida A, Kentucky A, Missouri Γ , and

Ohio A. Six other chapters held first place for a part of the year, namely Arkansas A, Montana A, North Dakota A, Oklahoma A, Oklahoma B, and Wisconsin B. A few of the thirty-eight chapters in the middle third were in the upper third a part of the year. Perhaps some of these can maintain the higher average for a full year another time.

Epsilon Province has two first place chapters and Beta, Zeta, and Iota have one each. The provinces as a whole rank as follows: Zeta, Eta, Epsilon, Lambda, Iota, Theta, Alpha, Mu, Kappa, Beta, Delta, and Gamma.

The response to the Honor Graduate report was by no means as good as last year when it was sent under separate cover instead of with the regular supplies. Nearly half the chapters did not respond so the report is not as comprehensive as last year's, listing but fifteen $\Phi B K$ s and seven $\Phi K \Phi$ s in twenty-eight chapters. Every chapter should send a report whether there are honor graduates or not. Then we can know that our report is fair.

For use this year two of the blanks have been rearranged, the important Table of Information being completely revised. There was formerly some confusion in the making of this report, but not a single chapter made the error this year that has been so common in the past.

A chapter which is keenly alert to the scholarship situation will realize that it is slipping even before an official report from the college office. In such a case, the chapter scholarship chairman, if she is conscientious, will seek aid from her province supervisor at once and in this way be able to prevent more serious difficulties. The purpose of the Committee on Scholarship is not to act as a policeman in regard to grades but to guide and advise chapters who wish to improve their scholarship. If each one of you will carry this thought back to your chapter, perhaps the fraternity as a whole will be more scholarship conscious in the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
ALICE HULCE DOW

COMMITTEE ON TRANSFERS

THERE were fewer chapters reporting transfers to the committee this year than last and more chapters not replying to letters.

23 chapters reported no transfers

29 chapters reported transfers totaling 90

26 chapters failed to report to the committee at all.

32 chapters reported 66 girls from their chapters going to other schools.

No transfers reported to this committee of their own accord.

This committee would like to offer some suggestions for next year:

1. Notice in the September ARROW to all transfers to notify the committee.

2. If practical lines in several places in the ARROW "Are you transferring to another school this year? If so have you notified the committee on Transfers" or some such notice.

3. In the fall Letter of Instructions to the chapters from the Central Office, ask the chapters to notify the committee of all girls transferring from their chapter and of the ones coming to their college.

This gives a double check so that the committee will not be notifying chapters of transfers they already know about.

Each fall a letter is sent to every chapter asking for this information but I believe if it were included in the letter from the Central Office, it would receive more prompt attention.

All chapters were notified of each transfer that was reported if the chapter had not already sent her name to the committee. When a girl was reported as transferring to a school where there was no active chapter but there was an alumnae club the club was notified and asked to get in touch with the transfer and acquaint her with the activities of the club.

Fewer girls must have transferred this year than before, usually there are several chapters having eight or ten transfers, this year no chapter reported more than five, but nine reported having that number.

Respectfully submitted,
CHRISTINE YERGES CONAWAY

FRATERNITY STUDY AND EXAMINATION

IT WAS with sincere regret that the chairman of the Committee on Fraternity Study and Examination was not able to be present at Convention.

To the Grand President, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer she wishes to express her thanks for their continued assistance in her work.

All of the province supervisors who have served on this committee so willingly and efficiently the chairman is quite unable to thank adequately. However, she wishes to express publicly her sincere gratitude for the privilege of having worked with so many splendid women. Particularly does she wish to mention Frida Hendrickson and Ruth Mitchell Deeds for their constant assistance, unselfish help and perfect cooperation these eleven years; and also Florence Hutchinson Kewley and Jessie Howser Job recently resigned, after eight and nine years of service. Elizabeth Larzalere Thorpe and Candace Cloyd Johnson are next in line of long and faithful service.

Habit is a great force in one's life. The chairman realizes that she will miss her national activity with $\Pi B \Phi$. She trusts that the Grand President and members of the Grand Council realize that she will always be ready to serve her fraternity in any capacity whatsoever, whenever she may be needed.

It is with mixed feelings: one of regret, in relinquishing an activity long cherished; the other of "the time is at hand," that the chairman of the committee on Fraternity Study and Examination tenders her resignation.

The following report is respectfully submitted by

COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL EXCHANGE

DURING the year 1931-32, sixty-two chapters contributed material for the Social Exchange Bulletin. During the year 1932-33 fifty-one chapters contributed, and during 1933-34 fifty-four chapters contributed.

In 1931-32 Florida B won the cup.
In 1932-33 Louisiana A won the cup.
In 1933-34 Washington B won the cup.

While more chapters responded in 1931-

32, the quality of the material submitted in 1932-33 was superior to either of the other years. The purpose of this bulletin is to exchange ideas and suggestions that have been successful for stunts, rushing, homecomings, floats, and Founders' Day. If your chapter has something good, pass it on; and some other chapter may send something you can use.

COMMITTEE ON FRATERNITY MUSIC

THIS year has been an especially busy one. Our committee has found that the interest in fraternity music is growing among national fraternities. We have had to answer numerous inquiries about our music.

During this last year we have printed new songs and words to popular tunes in the ARROW, and after each issue many favorable comments have been received. These songs were written by our own people and we are proud of them. However, our chief problem is still how to reach more Pi Phi with new songs.

In December, the first letter in regard to the song contest for convention was sent out from the Central Office to all active chapters, alumnae clubs, etc., and in the spring another letter as a reminder of the close of the contest was also mailed. The contest ended April 1 and was quite successful as twenty-eight songs were submitted for consideration, many of which were very lovely. At the present time, the chairman has received the votes of two of the committee members, both of whom were pleased with the results of the contest and had some difficulty in judging the songs as there were so many good ones. Consequently, we are going to submit more than three to convention for voting as we want the opinion of as many as we can get in this instance. There probably will be six or seven songs sent to convention for voting there, all of which are original tunes.

There were only two songs entered in the Memorial Song Contest, and the opinion seems to be that neither one is really what we should have. However, that will be decided later.

The chairman has not written regular monthly letters to her committee members but has written at intervals to them, and they have all responded well to the work.

We send greetings and good wishes to Grand Council!

COMMITTEE ON CHAPTER FINANCES

THE advisory committee on chapter finances, house building and plans has a rather brief report in comparison with its report of 1933. It will be remembered that last year this committee made a complete study of chapter budgets, together with monthly reports and house costs, and gave a summary of same in its yearly report. We also made some general suggestions and some definite ones to some thirty chapters.

This past fall your supervisor of chapter accounting forwarded to our committee the new budgets for this year of 57 chapters. These budgets were carefully checked with our report of last year. We were glad to note that a number of chapters had made changes in this year's budget themselves but where advisable we sent letters to chapters with our suggestions for changes. It was noticeable that a number of chapters had fewer girls living in houses and smaller chapters, also that budgets had been revised downward, with a marked decrease in some rents paid and in charges to girls for board and room. Some budgets did not seem adequate and quite a few had no leeway in the income side over the expense side. There should be several hundred dollars difference in income and expense to take care of emergencies that might arise during year. On the other hand there were several chapters that might well reduce their rates.

This committee has written again to those chapters who signified last year that they were interested in building in the near future. We have had correspondence with only one chapter this year on building, that being South Dakota A. They have made excellent progress in their building fund in the past two years, but it is difficult to get a mortgage anywhere at the present time unless possibly through a private party. South Dakota A are looking into a government loan.

In summary, the budgets of chapters show an improvement this year, and all those checked showed that finances were being closely watched. This committee feels very strongly that our fraternity should give some supervision to costs of its chapter houses, at least limiting the amount of rent that a chapter could pay in proportion to its income. We suggest that good financing would limit the rent paid to income to be one-fourth to a possible one-third. We feel this limitation would help future chapters in the finance problem tremendously, and should not be resisted by anyone.

SYBIL GUTTERSEN

COMMITTEE ON CHAPERONS

THIS committee has no innovation to report this year.

Since chaperon cards were started on October 1, 1931, the number of cards not in on time has each year decreased. Last fall so few were delinquent, that I am hoping for 100 per cent next October 1. I thank the many secretaries for their care, accuracy, and promptness; to the few late and messy is a hint sufficient? I appreciate the explanation, apology, and regret that some of these tardy ones sent; a few did not bother about such politeness.

September found only thirteen chapters with new chaperons. A chaperon continuing from year to year is a stabilizing influence of great value to the chapter.

The moral support and honor which Grand Council gives to chaperoning helps to attract to the position women of fine social and educational attainment. Many have had two years of college; some are graduates; and a few have done graduate work; many have travelled extensively and belong to educational clubs. It is my hope that all may be of such scholastic standing that they may be to the house what a dean is to the college. A head of a house should be a councilor and a creator of a helpful cultural atmosphere. Consensus of opinion of the girls should demand their well-bred behavior; a guardian should not be needed.

Eight of our chaperons are Pi Phi. I know one who is very much obliged for the Special Dispensation that let her in!

To Mrs. Stark whose monthly letters cheer me and keep me in touch with the other committees and to Grand Council for their continued encouragement, I am deeply grateful.

JESSIE LOCKETT

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

THE thirtieth biennial convention of Π Β Φ held at Asbury Park, New Jersey, in June, 1931, authorized the appointment of a committee to present to the next following convention recommendations with regard to the requirement of a college degree for election or appointment to the Grand Council. It had been the unwritten law of Π Β Φ that only holders of degrees might hold such offices, but the practice had never had the sanction of constitutional statute. This unwritten law was unwittingly violated in 1929 and this fact was responsible for the matter being brought up for determination. An unwritten law cannot be a fair one to any one concerned, and if the fraternity wishes such a requirement to be made, it must be incorporated into the constitution. This committee was authorized in response to a motion from the floor calling for such an amendment to the constitution. The motion was put in the closing moments of the last session and so was tabled and a substitute motion adopted providing for the appointment of the committee to consider the question in the interim of conventions and to report to the following convention.

As a preliminary to the consideration of this question, the committee addressed a questionnaire to the Grand Presidents of all N.P.C. member fraternities requesting their cooperation in securing the data called for.

Eighteen responded with the following results:

Seven require a degree for Grand Officers:

Kappa Alpha Theta	Alpha Delta Pi
Alpha Chi Omega	Delta Zeta
Sigma Kappa	Theta Upsilon
Alpha Omicron Pi

Five do not require a degree:

Kappa Kappa Gamma	Alpha Gamma Delta
Alpha Phi	Phi Mu
Gamma Phi Beta

Four have no rule but by practice require a degree:

Delta Delta Delta	Beta Phi Alpha
Alpha Xi Delta	Alpha Delta Theta

The following by practice require a degree for Province Officers:

Kappa Alpha Theta	Sigma Kappa
Alpha Chi Omega	Beta Phi Alpha
Delta Delta Delta	Theta Upsilon
Alpha Xi Delta

This questionnaire, with the tabulated results, was enclosed in the letter which was sent February 2, 1934, by the committee (Emilie Margaret White, Chairman) to all clubs and chapters, asking them to take as the starting point of their discussion a statement such as the following: "Resolved that $\Pi B \Phi$ shall have as a requirement for membership upon the Grand Council the possession of a college degree, this requirement to become effective July 1, 1934, for new members. (It is understood that the proposed legislation shall in no way affect the right to reelection of any past or present member to the same office which she now holds or previously held.)" It would be understood, of course, that the mere possession of a degree could not of itself constitute sufficient qualification for election to Grand Council. Both sides of the question were fully stated and arguments both for and against the resolution were enclosed. For further information the committee presented in the May ARROW two articles, one for (by May Lansfield Keller) and one against the regulation (by Ruth Heseltine). Chapters and clubs were asked to report, after full, open-minded, and thoughtful discussion, giving the sentiment of the group for or against the amendment and were reminded that this is a question of the establishment of a principle rather than the determination of personal preferences on one side or the other.

From the active chapters came 35 replies—20 for and 15 against the amendment.

From officers and committee chairmen came 6 replies—5 in favor of the amendment and 1 opposed, making a total of 61 for and 47 against the amendment.

Although the result of the vote is not decisive, showing only a small majority in favor of requiring a degree, in order to bring the amendment before the convention, the committee recommends that the following resolution be adopted by the convention:

$\Pi B \Phi$ shall have as a requirement for membership upon the Grand Council the possession of a college degree, this requirement to become effective July 1, 1934, for new members. Annual Reports of Province Presidents

ALPHA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THESE four months during which I have had the enjoyable experience of serving as Province President have been interesting and busy ones! Each of the eight chapters has been visited and visits have been made to the two petitioning groups, $\Sigma \Theta \Pi$ at Dalhousie University and $\Upsilon \Gamma \Sigma$ at the University of Western Ontario. On each of these ten campuses I found the girls to be sweet, gracious hostesses and I shall always remember their many courtesies.

The chapters have kept me informed of their progress through the months by letters. Unfortunately my visits were delayed until late in the year but these informative letters greatly helped me gain an understanding of chapter conditions before I could become personally acquainted with Alpha Province Pi Phis.

Some improvement has been made in scholarship in some chapters, I am happy to report. Ontario A held first place for last year and so did Vermont B. All chapters are definitely trying to interest their girls in good sound scholarship.

Vermont A announces that it has had a complete resurrection! We do rejoice over the fact that the anti-fraternity agitation has quieted down and the moratorium on bidding has been lifted. The chapter is back to normalcy, inspired with a deeper loyalty and fired with ambition to live fully the high ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$.

In each case my conference with the Dean of Women was most satisfactory. In one situation where fraternities are not officially recognized, I was able to gain only general impressions of the chapter but good reports on individual members. Pi Phis in this province are highly regarded by college authorities.

The strength of the Alumnae Advisory Committee is a good index of the strength of the chapter, usually. High commendation should be given the loyal Pi Phis who are serving chapters so faithfully in this capacity.

Only four of the chapters in the province have houses: Vermont B, New York A, New York Γ , New York Δ . Each of these has a very satisfactory chaperon. Maine A has had to rent their attractive little log cabin and give up the use of it entirely for the present. Massachusetts A, Ontario A and Vermont A have apartments or rooms. New York Δ feels the depression is over. New rugs, new curtains, new furniture, even a new grand piano are evidences of their new deal.

Each chapter has stressed participation in extra-curricular activities and a number of girls have received recognition for their leadership ability through being elected to hold office. One college dormitory has a Pi Phi president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer! There is one president of Y.W.C.A., one president of the student body, a president of Mortar Board whom the dean considers the "most outstanding president I have ever worked with," several editors, managers of various sports, queens, and class officers. A number of Pi Phis are $\Phi K \Phi$ s and members of other honorary societies.

All chapters have not contributed to the Endowment Fund and Undergraduate Loan Fund, but we hope to include both as well as Settlement School in next year's budgets.

As the year closes I wish to thank all of the chapters for their cooperation and their friendship. To Miss Onken and Grand Council I owe a great deal of gratitude for this opportunity of experiencing chapter life with the actives. Through these contacts $\Pi B \Phi$ has come to have even more significance for me.

Respectfully submitted,
LOUISE SALE CASSADY

BETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THIS has been an eventful year to me as Beta Province President, one full of most interesting experiences and real pleasures which will never be forgotten.

At the beginning of the year I tried to make my girls feel that Beta Province could accomplish great things only through the efforts of the individuals in its chapters; that success would come only as each active realized her own responsibility and gave her support.

I feel that the girls have accepted this challenge, and that each chapter has a feeling that it has accomplished something of which it can be proud and is looking forward with definite plans to some future victory in the field of Pi Beta Phi.

The cooperation of my seven chapters has been practically 100 per cent—a condition which has made me very happy and given me the desire to put forth my best effort for the good of the chapters. Besides the visits which I made to my chapters—all of which were delightful and beneficial in that they increased the effectiveness of both the officer and the actives through personal contact—I have had monthly letters from chapter officers and committee chairmen. These contacts through letters were most interesting and fascinating, and gave me the feeling that I was sharing with the girls their activities and their plans for the future.

Although I am very new in this work, I believe I can say that there has been real advancement in the chapters of Beta Province this year. Scholarship has improved in every instance—a thing which we have stressed especially. There has been good representation in extracurricular activities, and the honors have been gratifying. The province boasts of four Φ B Ks, nine members in Mortar Board, six Chimes, two Wheel and Chain, two Crescent, two Phoenix, one Θ A Φ , one Cap and Dagger, one K Δ Φ , two Σ A I, one president of Phoenix, four presidents of W.S.G.A., two presidents of Y.W.C.A., one president of Panhellenic and three delegates to national conferences besides other important offices in honor societies and campus organizations.

Rushing has been successful, generally, and the fine groups of pledges I met give me added optimism as to the future of the chapters in Beta Province. I am especially proud that they are 100 per cent on the Honor Roll.

Only three of the chapters maintain houses, one has a suite in a dormitory and two have attractive apartments for chapter meetings and for entertaining. All of our chaperons have proved themselves to be charming and effective, and are a real factor in the improvement of our chapters.

The value of the important and unselfish assistance given the chapters by the Alumnae Advisory Boards cannot be set down in words. Their reward comes in seeing the chapters progress under their guidance.

I am proud to say that the chapters of Beta Province are 100 per cent in contributions to the Endowment Fund, and that all of them have contributed generously, according to their ability, to the Loan Fund and to Settlement School. I know they have found a great amount of pleasure in the projects they have sponsored and put through with these worthy causes in view.

The one sad event in our year came on December 12, when we found that we had really lost our much loved and especially fine chapter at Swarthmore—Pennsylvania A. It is a great loss to Beta Province and we shall miss them indeed. Our big consolation is that they will always be Pi Phis and that we still claim them as our own.

This year has brought to me, more than ever before, the real worth of our Fraternity, and has deepened my appreciation and love for it. I feel that I have gained immeasurably, and my hope is that my chapters have gained as much as I have.

It would have been impossible for me to have carried on without the wise council of my predecessor, Marie Stebbins, and the patience and guidance at all times of Miss Onken. To them and to the members of Grand Council I wish to express my sincere appreciation for this inspiring year in Π B Φ .

LOIS SNYDER FINGER

GAMMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

ALTHOUGH my friendship with the chapters of Gamma Province was but a year old when this school year began, I felt considerably better prepared to offer advice and interpret situations than I did a year ago when I took over the work of province president. Also I think I see a greater inclination on the chapters' part to cooperate and confide in me as we grow to know each other better.

Problems that have arisen in this province during the last year, as I trace them to their source, appear to have been chiefly the result of the depression and its aftermath, rather than any lack of desire to make Π B Φ stand at the top of the list on all seven campuses. The seemingly unavoidable discouragements with which the chapters have been faced arise from inability of girls to return to college because of finances, the necessity of strong chapter members becoming inactive at parents' insistence, and inability of pledges to be initiated because of finances.

But despite these handicaps, our chapters are weathering the fifth year of the depression remarkably well. I have never seen more attractive and promising pledge groups than Gamma Province chapters had this year. Though rushing allowances have been drastically curtailed, the chapters have proved that it is their personality, not entertainment, that wins freshmen.

All members of $\Pi B \Phi$ will be interested to hear what splendid progress our one-year old chapter at Duke University is making. With the aid of several transfers, this chapter is fast becoming a potent force on the Duke campus where it must compete with chapters of all the major national fraternities.

I visited all chapters during the year, most of them in the early part. Being a new chapter, North Carolina B was entitled to a visit from a member of Grand Council. This visit was made by Mrs. Stebbins. When I visited the chapter in the spring I was pleased to see how effective her many valuable suggestions had been.

The method of correspondence I am finding generally satisfactory consists of a letter each month from the president and corresponding secretary, then from committee chairmen and other officers when they have something to report. In addition, two of the chapters are assigning letters to individual chapter members at regular intervals.

Scholarship has had its ups and downs and I am afraid the downs have slightly outweighed the ups this year. Three chapters, holding second places on their campuses, are working for first places in June. At the time of this writing there is only one $\Phi B K$, compared with five last year. In one chapter, the low average was attributed to a lack of upperclassmen who always seem to get better grades than the younger girls.

Chapters in this province range in size from 14 to 32 actives. The largest pledge group this year was 25, the smallest six.

Living conditions among the chapters have improved, especially in the case of South Carolina A, which took a larger house nearer the campus, and of North Carolina A, which began to serve meals again this year, bringing members together more often. Three chapters in the province rent houses, one owns a lodge, two rent apartments and one a chapter room. New furniture, redecoration and new drapes have added to the cheeriness and attractiveness of the various meeting places in the past year.

On the whole, chapters have been more all-round in their activities this year. There has been a fair sprinkling of athletes, editors, executives and popularity contest winners, but I am sorry to say, more secretaries and treasurers than presidents. Several honors have come to chapters by pledging upperclassmen who may have developed late.

The ever-interested support that the alumnae in this province have given the active chapters is certainly gratifying. I am more and more impressed with the way $\Pi B \Phi$ alumnae give of their valuable time and energy to help the actives. My only wish is that every member of the advisory committees would be as conscientious in her efforts as the chairmen have been.

The Arrowette, Gamma Province's interchapter magazine has been a rather defunct publication this year, though the District of Columbia A and Virginia T have issued very interesting numbers. We do not intend, however, that Gamma Province's own publication shall dwindle out of existence. It must stage a come-back next year!

If I have any general suggestion to make to my chapters, I think it would be to encourage them to try new ways of doing things. Instead of figuring out the best course for their own group, they have too often relied on the pattern laid down by the chapter the year before and the year before that. They need to develop initiative. Chapter programs are one way of expressing initiative, yet only about half the chapters in the province have any well thought-out plan for these.

In closing, I want to reiterate my thanks for the wonderful opportunity that has been given me of associating and working with the splendid young women in my seven chapters. I am realizing more and more the magnitude of the duties assigned me if they are done correctly, but the pleasure that has come with them makes me forget that they might be burdensome.

MARY HORNADAY

DELTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

MY POSTMAN thinks I am very popular but he does not understand that my volume of mail is not a measure of my popularity but of the National Viewpoint of my chapters. I feel sure that it is a real desire to serve the fraternity which has prompted the 100 per cent cooperation from every chapter in Delta Province.

My work with the chapters in Michigan and Indiana started four years ago so I have known this senior class since they were freshmen. Such a long established acquaintance made it possible for us to cast off disguise and apprehension and work together very closely on problems needing attention. In this respect I feel that my chapter visits this year were more constructive than in the past. It is a joy to have revealed to you in conference the sincere desire of each officer and committee chairman to do her job to the best of her ability. Such an experience would be discouraging to the "critics" of modern youth, I am sure.

We seem to play up and down the scale of success—and those who were up last year are likely to be down this year and vice versa. For instance Michigan A, which was lowest in rank in scholarship at Hillsdale last year, now is the proud possessor of the scholarship cup for first place. This is our only first place but with one exception Pi Phi ranks near the top in the list of comparative rankings on the other campuses in the province. Every chapter can boast of individual honors as a reward for high scholarship. Indiana Δ had no conditions or failures among the members of the active chapter. Five of the ten freshmen cited for high scholarship at Hillsdale were pledges of Michigan A. When every girl does her best then we will have reached the ideal for which we strive in Delta Province. We are still striving.

There have been a few changes in our housing situation this year. All of the women's fraternities at Franklin College moved their chapter rooms to the first floor of the dormitory. Indiana A added some new furnishings since their quarters were enlarged by this move. Indiana B celebrated the completion of the payments on their house by refurbishing and renovating the entire second floor and adding some new furnishings to the first floor. Indiana F has moved to a very attractive house which is located near the Butler campus. Michigan B had extensive refurbishing and redecorating done this year. We are quite comfortable for the present in this province and will be satisfied with minor improvements until we are more sure of what the future holds for us.

The Deans of Women have made gratifying reports to me. In one instance the Dean told me that the Pi Phis were always willing to support her program and help insure its success. This is my ideal for every chapter in the province.

Since I am writing this report earlier than usual only two of the Advisory Boards are organized for next year. However, this year we have had a splendid committee functioning for every chapter in the province. It would seem impossible to carry on without these groups of loyal sympathetic alumnae. They are one of our best assets and have been tireless in helping us over all kinds of hazards this year.

We have continued our plan for exchange delegates for initiation and parties. Our cooperative rushing plans in Indiana not only serve a practical purpose but foster a fine friendly feeling among the four chapters. On Founders' Day the chapter convention delegates met at the state luncheons in Indiana and in Michigan to become acquainted before going to Yellowstone. In Indiana there was a conference for chapter presidents and for rush chairmen.

I am very proud that Delta Province has evinced a fine National Viewpoint in supporting 100 per cent the national projects of Π B Φ. In some instances perhaps we might have made larger contributions but on the whole we are conscious of the aims and plans of the fraternity at large.

I close this year grateful for our successes and mindful of our shortcomings. I feel deeply indebted to the individual alumnae, to the alumnae clubs, to the advisory boards, to the mothers' clubs, to the chaperons and to all the national officers and committee chairmen who have contributed to the success of the chapters in this province. I must commend the active chapters for their splendid efforts and for their willingness to allow us to share with them the joys of building for the fraternity. It is with sincere regret that I relinquish my work this year.

MILDRED TINGLEY BEISEL

EPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

IT HAS BEEN a pleasure and an inspiration to serve as Epsilon Province President this year and to make the initial contacts with such charming chapters.

I visited three of the chapters in the fall, the other two immediately after the first of the year, and Tennessee A had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. Stark.

Missouri A, the only chapter in the province living in its house, has a beautiful house which accommodates thirty-six girls. They have a very lovely chaperon who has been with the chapter for eight years. Missouri B was fortunate this year in having their alumnae redecorate their room in the Women's Building. Missouri I has a new apartment this year which is the second floor of a home and is located directly across from the campus. It is convenient in that the chapter can use the entire house at any time for social functions. Kentucky A has the same apartment which is located across from the campus. Tennessee A has a bungalow which is owned by the alumnae and rented to the chapter.

The Deans of Women have reported excellent cooperation and admiration of the chapters. The alumnae advisory boards have been a constant help. I think it is fine for these splendid women to give of their time and effort to help the chapters.

The scholarship has come up in most of the chapters this year but is still a problem with some chapters. Kentucky A won first place again on the University of Louisville campus this year. This is the third time in succession that they have been first. Missouri I also won first place at Drury College which makes the second year for them to hold this position.

Rushing was most successful this year. Each chapter pledged from fifteen to nineteen splendid girls.

All of the chapters have held their share of extracurricular honors. Tennessee A reports that they have had three elected to $\Theta A \Phi$, two elected to $\Gamma \Sigma E$, Secretary of Student Body, five freshmen elected to W.A.A. (only seven were elected), one elected to $\Sigma T \Delta$, a girl elected, by popular vote, the most popular coed, one elected the most beautiful coed, and one elected the best actress. Kentucky A girls have been very active in dramatics, having the leads in several plays, the associate editor and society editor of the Cardinal. Missouri A announces these campus honors: one elected to $A Z \Pi$, one elected to $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, two beauty queens who placed first and third among the nine Savitar queens, Artillery Queen of the Military Ball, Queen of the "M" Men's Ball, a girl voted the best actress, and they won the golf shield. Missouri B reports the following: two elected to Mortar Board, five elected to $A Z \Pi$, Hatchet Queen, vice-president of W.S.G.A., honorary captain of Military Ball, May Queen, and leads in several plays. Missouri I had two elected to Skiff (similar to Mortar Board), two elected to $\Sigma T \Delta$, president and secretary of Y.W.C.A., president of the Student Body, May Queen, and leads in several plays.

The internal efficiency and cooperation with the province president which had been effectively organized by my predecessors, is entirely gratifying. I cannot praise too highly the charming personnel of the various chapters and their gracious hospitality to a visiting officer.

This year as province president has been a revelation of the worthiness of Pi Phi, both active and alumnae. To my chapters who have given me fully of their cooperation and ability, to Miss Onken who is always an inspiration, and to Mrs. Terrell, my able predecessor, I express my most sincere appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,
AGNES HILDEBRAND DANIEL

ZETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

AS THE YEAR draws to a close the province president pauses to review the work done by her chapters. Many problems have arisen and in most cases have been successfully met, but many good things have happened also. The chapters have cooperated unusually well and all requests have been cheerfully answered.

In the main, her chapters have had efficient officers, and their strength has been reflected in the improvement seen in many ways. The province needs the stimulus of convention as some of the chapters are too local in viewpoint.

There has been a decided improvement in scholarship in the province in all the chapters except Florida B. There have been good individual records in this chapter but there must be more concrete improvement in the chapter as a whole. A new plan has been put into use which the province president hopes will do much to help the situation. During the past year Alabama A regained first place in scholarship and Florida Γ moved from seventh place to third. Florida A received first place in the fall for the grades of the previous year.

In rushing, the Pi Phi chapters on their respective campuses have done exceedingly well. The province president is glad to say that all of her chapters have reputations of keeping the spirit of the rules as well as the letter.

Conferences with the deans of women have been most enjoyable and helpful. It was very gratifying to know that in no institutions had there been a lack of cooperation with the college or Panhellenic. Three deans of women ranked Π Β Φ as unquestionably first on their campuses while the other one ranked it among the best.

The two chapters living in houses have been most fortunate in having fine women as chaperons. The province president cannot say too much in praise of the wonderful work that these women are doing for the chapters.

Interest and participation in activities has improved very much in the province during the past year. The activities no longer rest with a few outstanding girls but all the members of the chapter have taken an interest in this important phase of college life.

All the chapters have felt the stress of the times and have had to give up many things that would have helped their chapter life. In quite a few cases girls have had to become inactive, others could have become members in honorary organizations but could not afford the expense. In spite of all of these difficulties the chapters have supported the Settlement School, the Undergraduate Loan Fund, and the Endowment Fund.

It has been a great disappointment to the province president that Florida A and Florida Γ have not been able to become better acquainted, living so close together. But the active programs and rules on both campuses seem to prevent planning for a suitable time for them to get together.

It is impossible for Zeta Province President to express adequately her love for her four chapters. Their kindness and willingness to do all that she has asked has been a source of great inspiration to her. She is proud of all the chapters in the province and of their fine achievements.

Words fail to express to Miss Onken her thanks for her help at all times. No request for help no matter how trivial has ever been refused. To the Grand Council she expresses her thanks for their ceaseless help. It has been a great pleasure to represent Π Β Φ in this province. Respectfully submitted,

REBEKAH STEWART

ETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THIS third year as an officer of Eta Province has brought me, because of closer acquaintance, a more workable knowledge of my chapters' needs. I visited the chapters early in the fall, meeting the new pledges and renewing old friendships with actives before the year's work was too far under way. This is such a decided help in the rest of the year's work. Knowing the girls that you are corresponding with, knowing their pledges and the condition of the house during the year, brings a much closer relationship.

I visited Illinois A and B-Δ this second semester, as I am so well acquainted with them, their problems, etc., that an official visit isn't necessary to inform me of their status. However, I thoroughly enjoy working in such close contact with these two chapters. I only wish I might know all others as well.

Four of my chapters, Wisconsin A and B, and Illinois A and B-Δ, were visited by Mrs. Stebbins this spring and were much inspired by her help.

Three of our four chaperons have fortunately remained the same. Our one change has proved a most welcome addition to the province house mothers. Mrs. Arthur Stites came to Illinois E and has been a great help in all lines of chapter endeavor. She was formerly chaperon at Wisconsin A and has endeared herself to a host of Π Β Φs.

There have been so many honors coming to the girls in my seven chapters that it would be impossible to name them here. However a list of the most outstanding may show how well we have been represented. We have had six $\Phi B K s$, one $\Phi K \Phi$, six members of Mortar Board, two editors of yearbooks, three presidents and two secretaries of W.S.G.A., three presidents, one secretary and one treasurer of Y.W.C.A., and one president of W.A.A. There are many other presidencies of clubs of all kinds, other offices and committee positions.

The scholarship of pledges has been so varied that it is impossible to make any statement covering this point. In two chapters I was very proud that every pledge made her grades so that she could be initiated. In another chapter, at the other end of the list, only one pledge made the required scholarship rating required for initiation. Between these two extremes lay the rest of the chapters, most of the freshmen doing very well. In one school our pledges made the highest average of any group on the campus.

In scholarship of the whole chapter the average has fluctuated as with the pledge grade. The largest chapter in the province with the biggest membership on the campus raised its grade from sixth place to first this last semester. Another group went from third on a list of four competing fraternities to fourth place. There has been real effort on the part of each chapter this year to raise its grade. Whether lack of success is due in part to more girls earning more of their schooling, is not certain. I feel sure this is responsible in many instances.

All the chapters have budgeted gifts for the Settlement School and the province was 100 per cent in February in giving to the Loan Fund. Gifts for the Endowment Fund were also in the chapters' budgets for this year. Every chapter has cut its expenses as much as was possible this year. All unnecessary items were removed to allow more girls to stay active. The finances of all the chapters have been exceptionally sound this year.

The advisory boards of all chapters have been very active, more so than any time in these last three years. These have all been more active in rushing this year than formerly. The results have been clearly shown. There is never a time when a chapter needs more help from interested alumnae than with its rushing.

As the year closes I want the active girls to know how much I have appreciated the way in which they have all, without exception, taken criticism, accepted suggestion, and at all times given perfect cooperation. They have made work that might be a task, a real joy, and have given much more to me than I have to them.

For the ever-ready help of Grand Council and the opportunity to serve my fraternity in such a happy manner, I am most grateful.

FLORENCE HUNT WEBSTER

THETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

AS THE time spent in the work as Province President increases, so does the inspiration and joy received from the chapters and individual girls grow proportionally. This third year has meant more to me and has strengthened my friendships and love for the fraternity more than I dreamed possible. Work in Theta Province is far from monotonous, for geographically the Province extends from the southern part of Iowa to Winnipeg, Canada, and it is comprised of chapters located in schools of from three hundred to ten thousand registered students. In spite of these vast differences in material things, there is the same love for $\Pi B \Phi$, the same earnest desire to strive for it, and the same sincerity of purpose in all things undertaken, wherever one goes.

Three chapters in Theta Province were especially privileged and honored to have a visit from Miss Onken this spring. Manitoba A, Minnesota A and North Dakota A all gained much in inspiration and broadened visions from our Grand President.

Scholarship is first in our thoughts, and rightly; a definite effort has been made to create this attitude in the chapters this year and never to fail to give it first allegiance. In the past year, the importance of the right attitude toward scholarship on the part of individuals has been stressed more and more. There has been a decided effort to break away from stringent rules and to place the major share of the responsibility on each person. There is no question but that this is the most effective way of bettering scholarship, although the hardest. Although the official rankings have been disappointing, we are not discouraged. I sincerely believe that progress has been made and that this will be evident eventually. The attitude in each group has been one of earnest endeavor and there is no criticism of any one chapter. Individuals have lagged behind and consequently—the chapters had lower rankings. Of the seven chapters in the Province, three are in the upper third, Iowa Γ , Manitoba A, and North Dakota A. Three are in the middle third, Iowa A, Iowa Z, and Minnesota A. Iowa B is in the lowest third. Only one group, Minnesota A, has raised in rank this year, and there are no first places. Although we had anticipated reporting some first places this year, perhaps a more important thing has been accomplished: the realization that has come to the groups of the value of good scholarship.

Theta Province chapters have, with only one exception, been outstanding in extra-curricular activities. I believe $\Pi B \Phi$ has been a force on every campus in bringing about a realization of the worth of sincere and earnest effort in active participation. The girls have made themselves felt in their activities. Each chapter has been urged to have each member participating actively in at least one activity. I have very definitely discouraged wholesale entrance into activities and have tried to have the committees guide each girl so that she is in something in which she is interested and so that she is really giving to that organization. Very few girls in the Province have not succeeded in finding some activity. Many very splendid honors have come to us but I shall enumerate only the outstanding ones. Iowa A had a homecoming queen, two in the honorary scholastic organization, three on the Y.W. Cabinet, three on the W.A.A. Board, two on the Activity Council, and one on the Student Council. Iowa B has three May Queen attendants (out of six), second place in the Miss Zenith (college annual) Contest, two representative women (out of four), president, treasurer and two activity heads of W.A.A., treasurer and three committee heads of Y.W., and won the prize for homecoming float and the cups for the best stunts presented at the College Carnival and Little Orpheum programs. Iowa Γ has a freshman representative on W.S.G.A., five on the Y.W.

Cabinet, chairman of Freshman Girls, lead in the "Student Prince" and in "Both Your Houses," won the intramural athletic cup for the winter quarter, has one $\Phi K \Phi$, three ΦY , and three Jack O'Lantern, which is composed of representative freshman and sophomore girls. Iowa Z has a member of the Union Board, secretary of Y.W., treasurer of Y.W., two $\Phi B K$, Dolphin Queen, second in the Beauty Contest, the associate editor of the Yearbook, three Mortar Boards, and the president of Mortar Board. Manitoba A has no honoraries on its campus and its activities are on an entirely elective basis. It has had some outstanding athletes, especially in hockey, and has had two years' vice-presidents (a man is always president), vice-president of Coeds Executive, chairman Junior Executive, Junior Stick of Science, two presidents of Coeds in own classes and the lead in the Mikado. Minnesota A has the vice-president of Y.W., Cap and Gown president, leader of the Senior Prom, president of A A Γ , W.S.G.A. board member, member of board of publications, Y.W. cabinet member, a member of $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, two $\Phi B K$, two on the honor roll for freshmen and sophomores (prospective $\Phi B K$ s) and two Mortar Boards. North Dakota A had a member presented with the Madrigal Key for four years of music, one $\Pi \Lambda \Theta$, one Mortar Board, vice-president of Y.W., vice-president of Women's League Board, treasurer of N Δ Π , two on Women's League Board, two on the Y.W. Cabinet, and the Sioux Pep Queen. Needless to say, many minor honors have come to our girls and a great many girls have been chosen as members of less important honorary organizations.

Rushing seasons were generally very successful. Last spring a state-wide plan for securing recommendations was inaugurated and proved to be quite helpful for the four Iowa chapters. Emphasis was placed on organization and results justified this. Better feeling between alumnae clubs and chapters also prevailed. Very few bids were lost and five chapters lost none.

The chapters have all contributed as generously as possible to the national and also local philanthropies. I am happy to say that there have been 100 per cent contributions to the Endowment Fund and that all but one chapter have contributed to the Settlement School and all but two to the Loan Fund. Some of these donations are not as large as we would like but they represent real sacrifices in some cases.

This report would not be complete without a word of appreciation for the splendid cooperation given me by the Advisory Boards. There has been no Board in the Province this year that has not worked diligently and that has not had the interests of the girls at heart. A great deal of the credit for the success of these chapters goes to these women.

Conferences with the Deans of Women were highly satisfactory. Words of praise for the groups were unanimously given and through these I realized more clearly the place our girls and our fraternity are making for themselves in the collegiate world.

Two definite projects have been placed before Theta Province this year: more comprehensive pledge training and development of chapter programs. I feel that a great deal has been accomplished and that the way before us is clear. The chapters are learning the finest lesson of all: to place first things first and in doing so to really strive after and develop a most noble womanhood.

It has been a real privilege to be able to work with such splendid girls and women for three years and we are all happy to give as good a report as this to the officers who have aided us so materially and generously. I can wish nothing better for these leading girls of mine than that some day they may be able to serve the national fraternity in an active way. We sincerely hope that through the efforts of Theta Province there may be brought forth results productive of good for $\Pi B \Phi$.

ELIZABETH C. BUXTON

IOTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

MY CONNECTION with the seven chapters of Iota Province has brought me a great deal of pleasure and a keen realization of the work of the fraternity. The last three years have been ones with exceedingly gratifying results. The chapters have realized potential positions of which the fraternity may be very proud, especially that of Colorado A which was awarded the Balfour Cup for 1933. I appreciate the attitude of the girls more than anything else; they have been most conscientious about all reports and have shown a desire to give full information at all times. The monthly exchange of letters was the main contact in addition to the official visits of which there were at least two to every group.

No chapters could vary as much as these seven, five being in state universities, the sixth in an urban university, and the seventh in an agricultural college; however, the greatest differences are in the state universities, since the enrollment of the smallest is around 900 and that of the largest 8,000. With differences in size, type, and environment of college, most interesting chapter characteristics have developed. Though there are these differences, there is the same spirit and idealism which makes them identical and a worthy part of the Fraternity. Faculty members and Deans of Women always speak of their democratic attitude, willingness to serve, and loyalty to each other.

Scholarship for the last three years has had its ups and downs. Colorado A has stayed up consistently, Nebraska B has stayed down at the end of the list. The other chapters have remained in the upper third and in most instances held second place since the last Convention. There is no reason whatsoever for not having first places in all the chapters. Kansas B was the first to have its name on the Panhellenic plaque for Kansas Aggies. Though Wyoming A now has second place, it has held first for many semesters during the last three years, as has Colorado B.

To record the activities of the chapters would take hours. Each chapter has such an overwhelming list of scholastic and social accomplishments that it will be necessary to group them in a general way. Each chapter has one or more representatives in honorary scholastic groups such as $\Phi B K$ or its equivalent. The largest representation is Colorado B which has five out of the fifteen Mortar Boards on the campus, and of these five, three are officers. All chapters have had members receive scholarships to other universities and colleges, among them being: Smith, Columbia, George Washington University, University of Paris and the University of Hamburg. Each chapter has had combination awards for which scholarship, activities, and leadership are taken into consideration, and usually considered the outstanding awards on the respective campuses. Again, each chapter has more than its share in university offices, clubs, and committees. The greatest number of social honors comes in the category of Queens which attests to the popularity of the girls all over the Province; among them beauty queens, queens of engineers' balls, and military functions, etc., with whole retinues of $\Pi \Phi$ attendants. To really realize the successes of the chapters one would have to view the exhibits.

The strong campus positions which these activities and this outstanding success in rushing show are due to chapter cooperation, splendid Alumnae Advisory Committee contacts, and most important of all, the $\Pi B \Phi$ heritage. During the past three years all chapters have had the privilege of a visit from one of the national officers. Colorado A, Colorado B and Wyoming A were most fortunate in having Miss Onken with them for the 1934 Founders' Day celebration. We endeavored to present to Convention a 100 per cent record for contributions to national projects, though tabulations are not as yet complete; great enthusiasm was shown in Settlement School programs with good financial results. Some chapters have contributed to local charities, milk funds, and provided work for students.

There has been no change in housing since the last Convention. All houses seem adequate and building programs throughout the Province have been possible because of the devotion of the alumnae and financial status of the chapters. South Dakota A and Colorado B are the only ones who do not own their own property, but both wish to build in the near future.

It is with regret that I end my work with Iota Province. I wish to express to Grand Council my appreciation for all their assistance and guidance; to the chapters for their splendid cooperation; and to the Fraternity at large for the privilege of serving as Iota Province President.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN STANAGE LEWIS

KAPPA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

WITH much regret I close my term as president of Kappa Province, for it has been one of the most interesting experiences of my life. It has been a pleasure to serve $\Pi B \Phi$, and I hope my work has given my chapters constructive results. The national Fraternity can be proud to have the six chapters of this province on their roll, for they command distinct respect and prestige on their campuses and in their states.

Two of the chapters of this Province have acquired new homes during the past three years. Oklahoma A lives in a most attractive Colonial home, beautifully furnished by the alumnae of the chapter. Arkansas A built their home on English design, and furnished it accordingly with the help of their alumnae. Texas A and Oklahoma B are most adequately situated in their chapter houses which they have had for some time. Louisiana A and Texas B do not enjoy the privileges of a home, but they still hope for the day. Both of the chapters, however, have ample space for their meetings.

I have every reason to be proud of the scholastic record of this province in the past three years. Oklahoma B has been first three terms out of the possible six. Arkansas A has been first twice, and Oklahoma A has been first once. The remaining chapters have been in the middle third most of the time. We have had seven $\Phi B Ks$ in the past three years, two from Texas A, four from Arkansas A, and one from Oklahoma A. All of these chapters have worked on a definite scholastic plan and the results have been gratifying. Therefore with much pride we offer a scholastic reward at Convention this year for the chapter making the highest competitive average on a chapter's respective campus. This shall be awarded at each Convention for the preceding interim.

Oklahoma B is fortunate and proud to have Mrs. C. M. Noble as their chaperon. Mother Noble is a past Grand President of our fraternity and is the Convention Guest for this year. She has contributed untold benefits to the chapter. Oklahoma A has an alumna of their chapter for chaperon, Miss Gladys Scivally, who is largely responsible for the success of the running of their new home. Texas A and Arkansas A have chaperons who have proven themselves adequate in every way.

The advisory boards have given every assistance to me, and an invaluable amount to their chapters. They have been very frank in presenting the problems of the chapters, and this in turn has given me a better understanding of the chapters' affairs. The chapters which have houses are most grateful to their faithful alumnae and House Boards for their help.

The Deans in this province have made me feel that our chapters are leaders in many ways, and are certainly influential on their campuses. I have not had any notice of unfortunate relations between chapters and Deans.

Participation in activities has been unusual. All chapters have gained honor officers both by election and appointment. Each year I have noticed more interest, and bigger results. With the use of files and charts the chapters now can see where they stand, and the activity chairman has a definite goal to work for.

In donations to the Settlement School, Loan Fund and Endowment Fund we are 100 per cent contributors.

Rushing has been well managed and quite successful. I attribute this to the excellent work of the committee who drew up the new Manual for Rush Captains. It is inclusive in every detail, and has relieved the Rush Captains of an already too heavy duty. Some chapters have pledged too many girls I think, but have managed the resulting situation remarkably well.

During the three years since our last Convention this Province has enjoyed visits from both Miss Onken and Mrs. Stark. These visits have been an inspiration and specific help to my chapters. Visits from members of Grand Council give chapters a better national viewpoint than almost anything, and I trust this custom will always be kept up, and visits made as often as possible.

My personal contact with chapters through my visits have been delightful. My conferences have all been properly arranged, and too many personal attentions showered on me. Cooperation from these chapters has been good with a few exceptions, and these in time were corrected.

With much gratitude to Grand Council for their untiring efforts in helping me I end my term as president of Kappa Province.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY McLARRY BYWATERS

LAMBDA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

AS I BECAME Lambda Province President in November, I was later in visiting my seven chapters than I would otherwise have been. This, I feel, was a distinct handicap as it is so much easier for the province president and the chapters to understand each other and work together after they have met and have talked over the various chapter problems.

I found a spirit of optimism prevailing, with everyone feeling that the worst of the depression is over and that we are again to have easier sailing. In all of the chapters, I found the officers working in harmony with each other and several of the presidents mentioned to me what their work for the chapter had meant in bringing the fraternity so much closer to them. Lambda Province did not have a visit this year from any member of the Grand Council and has missed the inspiration which this always gives to a chapter.

The scholarship of the province has been rather disappointing. We have had three of our chapters in the upper third, two in the middle third, and one in the lower third. At the University of Alberta, the groups are not compared in any way, so we have no way of knowing the scholarship standing of Alberta A. In one of the chapters, a senior is graduating with the highest average ever attained by any graduate from that institution and, at another chapter, we have a valedictorian of this year's graduating class. There are four straight "A" students in the province.

I found a fine group of freshmen in the chapters and feel that, as a whole, $\Pi B \Phi$ was very successful with rushing last fall. Because of several that were unable to be initiated at the end of the first semester, on account of grades, the chapters realize that they must pay more attention to the scholarship of the rushees than they have been doing. I feel that the chapters have assimilated their new members very well and have started them on the right path to becoming active $\Pi B \Phi$ s.

The financial condition in the province seems to be very satisfactory, although some of the chapters are having more of a struggle than others. All of the chapters, with the exception of Alberta A, are living in their own homes, and not one of them has fallen behind on its payments.

Each one of the Deans of Women that I visited spoke of the splendid cooperation of her particular Pi Phi chapter and of the fine way that the chapter was adhering to Panhellenic rushing rules. There was no infringement of any rushing rules reported in this province against a $\Pi B \Phi$ chapter.

The chapters throughout the province have been very fortunate in having the fine women for chaperons that they have had this year. Their influence could be felt in the hospitality of the chapter houses and their good management was reflected in the financial condition of each chapter. We will be having two changes for the coming years, as Mrs. Crouch is leaving Oregon A and Mrs. Weaver, an Illinois $Z \Pi \Phi$, is not returning to Montana A. Mrs. Weaver has been with Montana A for several years and her departure will be a distinct loss to that chapter.

Lambda Province has had its share of campus honors and activities for this year. We have three $\Phi B K$, eight Mortar Board members, four $\Phi K \Phi$, and one president and one treasurer of Associated Women Students. There have also been members in the various honoraries as $O N$, $K \Delta \Pi$, $\Phi X \Theta$, and many others. One of the Pi Phis has just won \$100 prize for excelling in advertising.

The fine cooperation that I have received from all of the Alumnae Advisory Committees, with one exception, has been greatly appreciated. The amount of time and thought that this fine personnel of women have put on the welfare of their chapters has been of inestimable value to the chapters.

I am so happy to report that each one of my seven chapters has contributed to the Settlement School, to the Loan Fund, and to the Endowment Fund. Several of the chapters have also done philanthropic work in their own communities.

Since Convention in June is to be held in this province, the letters from all of the chapters are filled with enthusiasm over the number of girls that are planning to attend. The benefit that the inspiration of Convention will give to them should be reflected, in a great measure, throughout the province for the next several years.

I wish to thank the officers of $\Pi B \Phi$ for the opportunity they have given to me for serving my fraternity and to thank the chapters for their splendid cooperation with me throughout the year. I also wish to express my appreciation of the assistance that has been so graciously accorded me, at all times, by the members of the Grand Council and by Miss Onken, our Grand President.

LILIAN MACLEOD RUSCH

MU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

ALTHOUGH it is difficult to know persons and conditions only through the medium of correspondence, the period since February 1, when I became President of Mu Province, has been most enjoyable. With but few exceptions the chapters have given me excellent cooperation in their correspondence and so made as easy as possible the taking over of my work.

Without exception, the chapter correspondence indicates this year to be better than last; financial conditions are less stringent, although still preventing some girls from returning to school. There has been a general improvement in scholarship, greater interest in activities, and the chapters, without exception, have pledged fine classes. National feeling appears excellent throughout the province, particularly as evidenced by the number of girls planning to go to convention.

The province as a whole has improved quite noticeably in scholarship over last year; because Mu Province has always been weak in scholarship, the serious efforts made by the chapters to strengthen it are most gratifying. All but one chapter has improved its standing among the other fraternities and one, from a very poor average, has attained first place on its campus.

The results of rushing have been splendid although two of the chapters were faced with great difficulties: in one case, the illegal rushing of other fraternities almost prevented all houses from pledging this year, but ended up in a short moratorium, and in the other, the school increased the number of women students permitted to enter by sixty per cent, which, since the fraternities could only accommodate the usual number, gave rise to a strong anti-fraternity movement. Fortunately, this movement did not become critical. We are faced with the difficulty experienced on many campuses, wherein girls from certain preparatory schools are monopolized by other fraternities for one reason or the other, and the problem is not easily met.

Activities are in most cases participated in generally and with great success. The reports that have come in to me of the really outstanding honors that many of the girls have received in their activities make me very proud of them and show that in most cases $\Pi B \Phi$ leads in activities on her campuses.

Because I have not visited the chapters, I have no adequate knowledge of their financial conditions, but this does not seem to be a pressing problem. Those chapters which do not own their houses completely seem to have the matters of payment well in hand.

Although there were several new chapters in the province this year they seemed to work out very well on the whole and the girls are very well pleased and satisfied with one exception, where the chapter is now looking for a new housemother and having a little difficulty in finding one, due partially to the lack of salary. I am hoping that the girls will find some solution of this problem for the importance of finding the right housemother cannot be stressed too much.

Perhaps my greatest source of pleasure is the manner in which the girls are becoming delightful and gracious hostesses; in no case do I know of older and better-established groups of women which make such a charming impression upon their guests. The training the Fraternity can give in this regard is, to me, one of the greatest and highest functions that the Fraternity can perform.

I wish to express my great joy in the cordial friendship extended me by all the girls with whom I have come in contact and for the frankness and cooperation with which they write to me, whom most of them have never met. I know I should find difficulty in writing to a name and doing it as beautifully as have my girls. I am proud of them.

To Miss Onken and the Fraternity I owe the deepest debt of gratitude for the friendships and happiness which work with the Fraternity has offered me.

Annual Reports of Province Vice-Presidents

ALPHA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

ALTHOUGH it is true that $\Pi B \Phi$ as mere letters mean little, as symbols they mean much, and never more than when a year of success and failure is being analyzed. Alpha Province Vice-President is rejoicing in the fact that these magic symbols are responsible for the planning of attractive programs, the striving for new members, the raising of money, and the making and keeping of friendly contacts throughout the province. The greatest problem is the inability to recapture the lost interest of hundreds of once active Pi Phis who are scattered about here. But the loyalty of the many devoted club members has more than compensated for this lack.

With one exception the clubs are in excellent condition. Western Massachusetts, on account of many unforeseen and unavoidable difficulties, has not been able to live up to her past reputation, but now plans are formulated for next year and ten strong alumnæ have pledged themselves to a year of service. The other nine clubs have nearly equalled their membership of last year, and this has not been easy. The province has lost only 13 members. Boston has increased from 40 to 71; Syracuse and Hartford have also increased. More than usual interest has been shown in several clubs to reach Pi Phis from distant chapters who have recently located in their vicinity; Boston has attracted alumnæ from 22 different chapters to membership or attendance at one or more meetings; Burlington is trying sub-secretaries in nearby towns. The average attendance at meetings has increased; Boston, Burlington and Toronto have shown the greatest growth there.

Never before in her five years of service has the vice-president seen better programs; they have been broad in their scope and varied in their character. It is impossible to select any club that has excelled, for all have presented many attractions.

The alumnæ and actives have worked together most happily; Burlington, Syracuse and Toronto being very generous with their time and money. The actives have been prompt in all their obligations. All chapters but one have contributed to the Settlement School, Ontario leading with $50.00, Vermont A second. Five gave to the Loan Fund.

The province need not feel ashamed for its financial showing. All have given to the Endowment Fund, though not all repledged this year. Three clubs did not give to the Loan Fund. More articles than ever before have been sold from the school, New York, Buffalo and Boston leading. More money has been raised through the magazine agency, New York, and Hartford leading. Gifts for the school have dropped about $150; but when it is remembered that last year about $50 came from a fund in Maine, it seems that the province is holding its own. New York and Boston lead here, almost equalling their gifts of last year, while Buffalo and Syracuse equalled their gifts, and Hartford and New Haven increased theirs.

In a letter written last fall to the alumnæ clubs the Grand Vice-President urged all to work for the National Alumnæ Recovery Act. Alpha Province has done this. Club officers have never been more faithful, programs never more stimulating, and clubs never more alert. By these attainments which are less than hoped for, the province is expressing its gratitude to the Founders and its allegiance to the Fraternity. The Province Vice-President adds her especial gratitude to the members of Grand Council for understanding and inspiration during the past five years.

Respectfully submitted,

E. LOUISE RICHARDSON

BETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

LIFE may "begin at forty" for a great many people, but how sorry we feel for them, those of us for whom life began in the early "teens" when we became members of $\Pi B \Phi$.

For some of us long years have passed, each bringing its opportunity for service to the Fraternity. Counted as chief among these years are the nine that gave me the opportunity to serve Beta Province as Province Vice-President.

Reviewing these years, we note clubs being formed, clubs becoming inactive, and the older clubs still going strong.

The two years just past have been crowded with difficulties, but almost without exception the true $\Pi B \Phi$ spirit has enabled the clubs to overcome obstacles and to continue their activities.

An entire issue of the ARROW might be devoted to the Fraternity conditions, spirit, and activities of the clubs in Beta Province and then their merit and Fraternity valuation would be but inadequately described.

As retiring Province Vice-President I can but commend the clubs for their untiring efforts to maintain the highest standards. For their cooperation, for unfailing courtesy, for invaluable and lasting friendships formed during the past nine years, I have a feeling of the deepest gratitude and appreciation.

Almost the "green-eyed monster" rears its head as I betake myself to the proverbial "shelf" from which overcrowded eminence I shall continue to observe the workings of the clubs and always be wishing for the club members the very best that life has to offer.

I take this opportunity to thank again the clubs and the members of the Grand Council, collectively and individually, for nine years of aid, advice, and consideration.

FRANCES C. CURTIS

GAMMA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

AS PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT of Gamma Province, my work has given me a great deal of pleasure, which increases as more personal contacts are made from time to time.

My visits to the clubs this spring will always be cherished among my most delightful trips. Our newest club at Columbia, South Carolina, under the able leadership of its president has shown us what a young club can accomplish. The rest of us can look to them as a model in loyalty, cooperation and promptness. With the exception of Washington, our clubs are small in number, but have a large viewpoint and strive to do their part to help each worthy cause, following the example set by our big sister in the nation's capital.

There are 511 resident Pi Phis in Gamma Province with 142 paid members. We are struggling to increase the number of paid members, and are planning to vary our programs so as to interest more people.

Each alumnae club is near an active chapter, and there is a feeling of leadership on the part of the older ones to guide the students in solving problems, planning parties, or helping wherever help is needed. The Advisory Committees function actively and are a source of usefulness to the younger girls.

Founders' Day was fittingly observed throughout the province, and Baltimore had the distinct honor of having Dr. Keller and Miss Turnbull join us at our banquet. We borrowed them from Richmond for the occasion and enjoyed the amusing incidents

Dr. Keller revealed about previous Conventions. Through the courtesy of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad we saw lovely lantern slides of Yellowstone Park. I feel sure everyone was filled with a keen desire to attend Convention.

The clubs have contributed a total of $543 to Settlement School. It is interesting to note that in some cases where people cannot be members of the local clubs they still want to, and do, contribute to the Settlement School.

Four clubs made contributions to the Loan Fund, and four to the Endowment Fund. Active chapters received aid in two cases.

We must feel that times are better, the nation is getting back to normal. Have we all not gained something to balance the losses? We have gained finer sensibilities and keener perceptions of the true value of simpler things. We have not been able to go so far for our pleasures, and have found the truest happiness near at hand. We have appreciated our friends more than before and many of our friends are our club associates.

As we close this year and look forward to next year, let us ask ourselves this question, what will I do for my Fraternity? Let us answer the question conscientiously with action, and the success of the coming year is happily assured.

Gamma Province Vice-President is most grateful to national and club officers for their hospitality and continued cooperation.

EMMA DRURY SIPPEL

DELTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

ALL of the credit for the glory of Delta Province must go to Marianne Reid Wild who served it and worked for its success during these past two years and more. As you all know, she has served it and the Fraternity so well that she was honored by the appointment as Assistant to the Grand Vice-President. We in Delta Province are all very proud of her, although—as the well-known phrase goes—the Fraternity's gain is our own local loss.

The work of the province has been of immense pleasure to me. The insight into national matters, the broad scope of the Fraternity's interests, and most of all, the inner organization of this great Fraternity of ours, have all combined to kindle anew in me a pride and loyalty and enthusiasm and love for my $\Pi B \Phi$, the like of which I have not felt in just this same way since college days. I wish that every "lay" Pi Phi could have this same knowledge of our Fraternity's inner organization and broad scope. I know that I shall always be a better Pi Phi for having had this national contact, and only wish that all Pi Phis could catch the same vision.

Mrs. Wild made the visits to the clubs during the Convention interim, and I feel at a great loss in giving a fair report of the province for not having had this personal contact.

The Indiana State Luncheon held on April 28 of this year at Indianapolis, in celebration of Founders' Day, provided me with quite a few helpful contacts. This yearly gathering, the thirty-sixth annual one, reaches greater heights every time it is held. About 400 attended, an outstanding event in our Pi Phi year in Indiana.

A Michigan State Luncheon was also held on Founders' Day this year on the campus of Hillsdale College, with Michigan A and the Hillsdale Club as hostesses. 217 attended this affair, the largest in Michigan history. Mrs. Stebbins, assistant to Miss Onken, was their principal speaker; and a number of lovely teas and gatherings completed the day's program.

These annual state gatherings are miniature Pi Phi Conventions, very broadly speaking; and we in Delta Province recommend them unreservedly to all of you in sections that do not have any such group contacts.

They renew Pi Phi enthusiasm amazingly.

We are mightily proud of our membership record. We have 49 more paid members in the whole province than there were last year, a real achievement in a year when economic conditions are still serious enough to warrant a pause before each dollar spent for dues.

Special mention should be made of the Bloomfield Hills and the Southwestern Indiana clubs who again have 100 per cent membership records. Bloomington, Fort Wayne, and Lafayette each have all but five of the resident Pi Phis as paid members of their clubs, making them nearly 100 per cent in membership. A splendid record, I think.

The signs of the times are again reflected in all contributions to national Pi Phi projects. It has been impossible to come up to the standards of other years back, but the willingness to raise money for Pi Phi has been just as apparent as ever before. However, we fell slightly below our contribution to Settlement School for last year, with a total of $785.

Our Loan Fund contribution fell off somewhat in comparison with last year, with a total of $148. But again we cannot help crowing a bit at having sustained our reputation for being 100 per cent contributors to this project. Every active chapter in Delta Province has contributed to this Loan Fund for three years in succession. And every club has contributed for two years in succession.

I believe that every club in the province will have contributed to the Endowment Fund also before the final reports for the year are in. If this should be the case, our pride will know no bounds. With a total of $85 from the clubs in Delta this year, including $5 from the Mothers' Club of Indiana Δ at Purdue University, we have given practically two-thirds as much more as we did last year to this fund. The fact that every club in the province is contributing so consistently to this "triumvirate" of Pi Phi projects, practically 100 per cent to all three funds, shows that we are gaining wonderfully in national viewpoint. I believe this one fact, gain in national viewpoint through consistency of donation to national funds, to be the outstanding achievement of Delta Province this year.

Our magazine record grows better by leaps each year too. With $185 to our credit so far, this is a large gain over last year. More clubs are beginning to realize the value of magazine commissions and are stressing the agency. The magazine agency happens to be a pet project of mine, and I hope that by another year of pushing it, we will win even greater laurels in this field.

I am happy to report that we have a new club in our province. It is called the Calumet Regional, with members in and around Calumet City, Illinois, and Hammond and Whiting, Indiana. Here especially, all credit for its being brought into the province must go to Mrs. Wild, who made the contacts and carried on the correspondence. The charter was granted this spring, in time for a Founders' Day celebration of their own.

I think that special mention should be made of the fact that such excellent cooperation was had from the active chapters with this office. I have an idea that Mrs. Beisel's and Mrs. Wild's conference with the chapter officers from the four Indiana chapters held just before the luncheon proper at the Indianapolis Athletic Club on Founders' Day, had much to do with the final promptness of the year. But wherever the credit is due, the results are a joy to me, and the chapters are all to be congratulated.

As for the honor gavel which Mrs. Wild instigated in our province last year and awarded to the Lafayette Club, again it seems that we should really have two of them to make the awarding absolutely fair! This year it will go to the Franklin Club; not because the Lafayette Club has not just as excellent a record, for they have; but because Franklin has bettered its own record of last year so notably. A hard job, this awarding of the gavel! but a fascinating one watching the progress of the different clubs.

Let me tell you all again what a sincere pleasure it has been to learn about the individual clubs and to come to know so many $\Pi B \Phi$ personalities. I only wish that my province and Fraternity at large might have benefited from this contact of mine as much as I have myself. It has been a great honor to serve in $\Pi B \Phi$.

ALINE MORTON BURT

EPSILON PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

AGAIN the Vice-President of Epsilon Province feels very proud of the clubs and chapters in this province. The clubs have worked faithfully and consistently, and the results of their untiring efforts show a marked improvement over last year with growing interest, larger attendance, and a very fine national viewpoint.

As of last year we can boast of being 100 per cent in contributions to the Settlement School and to the Loan Fund, every club and every chapter having sent a gift to both funds. Eight of the nine clubs are 100 per cent in all Pi Phi projects which is twice as good as last year. Six of the nine clubs show an increase in paid memberships, thus making a substantial increase for the entire province. Our Settlement School and Loan Fund contributions show an increase. Epsilon Province ranks first in the sale of magazines with St. Louis leading the country.

The chapters in this province located at Columbia, St. Louis and Springfield, Missouri, Louisville, Kentucky, and Chattanooga, Tennessee, contributed generously to the various projects. These chapters find the assistance rendered them by the clubs in their towns to be invaluable.

Epsilon Province Vice-President wishes to take this opportunity to express her appreciation to the National Officers, club officers and members for their loyal cooperation, sympathetic interest and inspiration throughout her term of office.

ELIZABETH ESTES GENTRY

ZETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE ALUMNÆ CLUBS of Florida, Georgia, and Alabama have completed their first three years as a separate province, a redistricting of clubs having been made at the last Convention.

As a province, then, we have no pre-1929 record to live up to, and are thankful. As for the individual clubs, some have grown, and some have declined. We choose to look upon the first state as permanent, and the second as temporary. The total number of alumnæ in this province is probably smaller than anywhere else in the country; therefore a few memberships more or less affects our percentages in a rather startling way. Last year we were much cheered by an increase of 9 per cent, made, largely, by the addition of the new club at Tampa. This year, however, we are not discouraged that the membership is less, and are hopeful that the two clubs that are inactive this year may find renewed vitality next year.

The brightest spot in our present horizon is that, this year, all the eight active clubs and all chapters have contributed to the Settlement School. The gifts of the clubs amount to a 75 per cent increase over last year. This was because all clubs did their share, and Orlando and Tampa increased their contributions materially. Three of the four chapters have given liberally to the Loan Fund, and six of the eight active clubs to both Loan and Endowment. Support of the magazine agency was better than in preceding years.

The list of isolated alumnae has been divided, and each club given a list of those in their region, and urged to keep in touch with these.

The whole-hearted support that our clubs are giving to our fine national objectives seems to me the best possible evidence of the interest and loyalty of the alumnae of the province. With the coming of better days, will come, I am sure, an increase in our membership and ability to work for these causes so dear to our Fraternity life.

It has been a privilege to serve $\Pi B \Phi$ these three years, and I am most grateful to you who have helped me, and, also have borne with my shortcomings. No one knows, until she has served as a province officer, how much and how splendid is the work done by our Grand Council and by national committee chairmen; and no one knows better than Zeta Province Vice-President how gracious alumnae clubs are to a visiting officer, and how cooperative with a correspondent who is constantly asking them to do this and that.

HILDA BEGGS HENRY

ETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

WHEN I wrote my report after one year as Eta Province Vice-President, I began by saying that it was a very great pleasure to write the record of Eta Province Alumnae Clubs for the past year; now after three years association with the province, that statement is still true. I am so proud of the fine spirit and loyalty shown and I feel it a personal honor that I may tell the Fraternity at large of the achievements of my clubs during the past three years.

The financial statistics remain practically constant for the three years. There have been advances in some cases and slight, though regrettable, losses in others. However, although there have been no overwhelming gains financially, that does not indicate that there has not been a steady growth in province unity and national consciousness. Every contribution during this period has been significant because of the hard work and in some cases, real sacrifice, involved. Your officer feels increased respect and love for the Fraternity which can continue to arouse such devotion in its alumnae.

Only one new club has been chartered—Chicago Business Women's Alumnae Club which has been from the beginning the finest type of organization in every respect, with an enviable record. There are several localities within the province where an alumnae club would be a real joy to the resident Pi Phi as well as a fine addition to the alumnae department. It is hoped that clubs may be chartered in these places in the near future.

Paid memberships were 585 this year as against 569 last year. There are still enormous possibilities for increasing this figure, the Chicago area alone offering a fine field. The problem of contacting and interesting city Pi Phi is still an acute one, however, and I hope that some new methods may be discovered at Convention.

The Undergraduate Loan Fund again received the united support of Eta Province clubs and this year the active chapters were also 100 per cent. With the concerted drives made the past two years for this Fund and the successful results attained, I believe that each club will continue to plan a yearly contribution and that in the future, the amount may be greater. Along with the national drive, special efforts were made within the province for the Endowment Fund and fifteen clubs responded with a total greater than last year. The commissions earned on magazine subscriptions are particularly gratifying, being almost 100 per cent larger than for last year. In checking over these figures for the past years, I find a steady increase each year which augurs well for the future. The Decatur Club merits special mention, being credited with $75.58, and will surely be among the leaders for all clubs.

Because support of the Settlement School is so much a part of the very existence of my clubs, it has never occurred to me in the past to make a special note of the fact that Eta Province clubs were 100 per cent in contributions to the school. This has been the case, however, each year, although in 1931-32 one club's contribution arrived too late to be considered on the year's report. This year, the total, $1,980.47, is a little less than in the past. I want to commend those clubs which increased their contributions and reaffirm my belief that those which were forced to cut their gifts this year will be able to make up for those cuts next year.

Arrowcraft sales continue as do alumnae treks to Gatlinburg, both of which stimulate interest and pride in the Settlement School. Clubs and individual alumnae feel a strong personal responsibility for the Fraternity's efforts in connection with the school.

While there are no 100 per cent membership clubs, there are fifteen clubs which contributed to all three projects—Settlement School, Loan Fund, and Endowment Fund.

The achievements and honors of the seven active chapters continue to be a source of pride to alumnae in the province. Each of the chapters has cooperated with the province vice-president. $56 in senior dues was received and five chapters gave a total of $290.75 to the Settlement School.

All of the twenty clubs were visited during the past three years; seventeen during 1932-33 and three during the past year. In addition, the province vice-president was the guest of the nearby clubs on several other pleasant occasions. She is sorry that she was unable to accept the invitations of the distant clubs to repeat the pleasures of the official visits.

Founders' Day was celebrated appropriately throughout the province; in some cases serving also as a Convention Rally. Chicago area clubs, Illinois Epsilon active chapter, together with representatives from the newly chartered Calumet Regional Club from Delta Province and many unaffiliated Pi Phis, celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Blackstone Hotel in Chicago. We were honored by the presence of our Grand President, Miss Onken, and a notable list of other Pi Phi dignitaries, including the toastmistress, Mrs. Lardner, former Grand Vice-President; Mrs. Stebbins, Assistant to the Grand President; Mrs. Webster, Eta Province President and Mrs. Buxton, Theta Province President. Mr. Dick Randall, father of our Convention Guide, gave a short talk on the pleasures awaiting us at Yellowstone and the Northern Pacific Railway furnished many attractive posters and literature pertaining to Convention.

My association during the past three years with Eta Province alumnae clubs and chapters and with other officers has indebted me still further to the Fraternity from which I had already received so much. I shall always cherish my experiences as a province officer of $\Pi B \Phi$. To Mrs. Smith, Miss Onken, and Mrs. Stoolman, I offer my sincere appreciation for constant inspiration and guidance.

RUTH NICHOLAS SUTTON

THETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THETA PROVINCE started its year with two objectives: 1, an increase in membership; and 2, that each club show its material interest in each of our national projects. Although we did not quite reach our goal, we close the year rather pleased with ourselves. We have made a substantial gain in membership and all clubs sent gifts to each of our national projects except one which has not sent anything to the Endowment Fund.

Nine of our alumnae clubs have made a gain in paid members, two of these doubling their numbers of last year, one has held its own and but three have fewer than a year ago. We have made a total gain in the province of 78 paid members.

Theta Province is 100 per cent in sending gifts to the Loan Fund and the province as a whole has contributed $26.50 more to this project than we were able to do in 1933.

Twelve of our thirteen clubs have added their names to the roll of those in the friendship links for the Endowment Fund and the one club that is not on this list has been making an especial effort this year in behalf of its nearby local chapter.

We are of course 100 per cent in giving to the Settlement School, including both alumnae clubs and active chapters and have to our credit gifts amounting to $1,216.11. This amount includes some checks received last year too late to be included in that report of the treasurer of the Settlement School. In the charts which appear in the September ARROW the amounts were credited to the year in which they were given.

Our active chapters have cooperated with the national fraternity in a most gratifying way. Of the seven chapters all sent gifts to the Settlement School, five to the Loan Fund and six to the Endowment Fund. We are glad when the girls can contribute to our national projects for by the time they become alumnae they should be educated to a national viewpoint.

Last fall the Province Vice-President visited the five alumnae clubs which had not had an official visit from the Province Vice-President since the last Convention. Mrs. Potter, the former Vice-President, had visited the other eight clubs. In each case we met delightful groups. It is impossible to estimate the value of these contacts to a new officer. They give her an insight into the needs and interests of the clubs which she is eager to serve and also give her some idea of what contribution she may be able to make.

It was an added pleasure to attend the Founders' Day celebration of the Minneapolis and St. Paul Clubs and Minnesota A. This was a day of real inspiration due in large part to the fact that Fannie Whitenack Libbey was the guest of honor.

We have found that Theta Province is composed of loyal groups of alumnae eager to cooperate in every way and anxious to place their province high among the alumnae groups of our honored Fraternity. If Theta Province now occupies a more favored spot in the sun than formerly, it is due to the fact that cooperation and loyalty have been the watch words for the year.

It has been a delight to work with the splendid women who give so much of their time and interest to our Fraternity and we wish to thank the officers and committee members who have been more than patient with our inexperience and to express to Miss Onken and Mrs. Smith our appreciation for our appointment which has given us this opportunity to serve $\Pi B \Phi$.

Laura Storms Knapp

IOTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

Now that $\Pi B \Phi$ has celebrated another birthday anniversary with fitting observance, and all departments have taken stock of the Fraternity's progress during another interim of Convention, the facts and figures thus gleaned are very encouraging in many respects. All questionnaires thus far received by Iota Province Vice-President report increased interest in the meetings, and in many clubs, larger average attendance.

The matter of paid memberships seems to remain the big problem for all clubs. Four clubs, however, Cheyenne, Omaha, Topeka, and Wyoming, have increased their memberships this year, while several clubs report greater interest among the young alumnae.

Though Iota Province has dropped from first place last year, to second place this year, in magazine subscriptions, it has actually increased the total amount obtained. Thus indicating that, more and more, the clubs are realizing the advantages of this method of raising money for the Settlement School. Casper has made a big gain this year, having earned $25.60 from subscriptions as against $8.70 last year. Denver earned $29.15 last year and $37.55 this year. Lincoln has made a steady gain each year, from $14.85 in 1931-32 to $25.05 this year. Topeka has increased its sum thus earned, from nothing two years ago to $2.10 last year, and to $14.85 this year. To the Wichita Club, however, goes the palm for obtaining money from this source. Two years ago, it raised $57.55, last year $66.92, and this year $105.06.

The interest in the Settlement School is as keen as ever, though a few clubs have had to cut down on their cash donations this year. The Denver Club, due to the ability and enthusiasm of its Settlement School Chairman, has sold over \$500 worth of Settlement School products this year. Eight of the clubs have contributed to the Undergraduate Loan Fund this year and six to the Endowment. Thus, it would seem that their interest in these two projects is growing. Of the seven active chapters, six have given to the Settlement School, four to the Loan Fund and one to the Endowment. The Denver, Lincoln, Manhattan, Omaha, Topeka and Wichita clubs have contributed to all $\Pi B \Phi$ activities, as has Colorado A also. Cheyenne, Denver, Omaha, and Poudre Valley contributed to local causes. Cheyenne, Denver, Lincoln, Manhattan, Omaha, Topeka, and Wichita gave money to the active chapters. So, all in all, Iota Province is holding its own in spite of bitter handicaps.

Colorado State Association of $\Pi B \Phi$ held a two-day conference at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs on April 28-29, combining its Founders' Day celebration and the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of $\Pi B \Phi$ in Colorado. Invitations were extended to National Officers and to all chapters and alumnae clubs in Iota Province. About three hundred Pi Phis from Colorado and Wyoming attended, and all pronounced it a complete success. So great was the enthusiasm aroused, that an alumnae club was established in Colorado Springs as the result. Iota Province takes great pleasure in welcoming the Colorado Springs Club as the fourteenth member of its alumnae club family. Miss Onken attended the conference as its guest of honor and inspired all with several talks on subjects of national import to the Fraternity. Colorado Pi Phis feel honored indeed when our Grand President pays us a visit.

The two Nebraska clubs celebrated Founders' Day in Lincoln with Nebraska B. The Kansas clubs reported several delightful "get-togethers" during the year, either with members of the active chapters or in inter-club groups. Thus showing that Pi Phis are recognizing the inspirational value of broader contacts.

In closing, I wish to thank Miss Onken, Mrs. Smith, and other members of Grand Council for their patience, and for the help and encouragement they have given to me, an untrained worker, during the past three years. To the clubs too, I am most grateful for their cooperation and support. With one or two exceptions, they have been most faithful in their correspondence and in prompt attention to reports and the payment of all money. I thank all Pi Phis in Iota Province whose hospitality I have enjoyed and whose problems I have shared.

Respectfully submitted,

HALLIE COLLINS

KAPPA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

AS THE YEAR 1933-34 draws to a close, Pi Phis everywhere and especially in Kappa Province have just cause to be congratulated upon having had a part in the wonderful improvement that has been felt throughout the Fraternity. The letters from the clubs are most encouraging and the support of the different funds has increased in a most gratifying manner. The most marked improvement is shown in the membership increase which, including senior dues, is $509. Tulsa Alumnae Club is to be congratulated upon the fact that their membership was doubled in the past year. The total membership for Kappa Province last year was 369 paid members.

The interest in the Endowment Fund has been awakened this past year, due to the concentrated efforts of the committee of that fund. There has been great need for the completion of this fund, and I am sure that every member who has contributed to it, has a feeling of pride in its success. More clubs donated to this fund, this year than last; Sabine District being especially generous.

The Loan Fund has also received a share of the generosity displayed by the clubs in Kappa Province. In fact the widespread generosity of the alumnae clubs shows that conditions have improved and the viewpoint of the alumnae has been widened to a national extent. More clubs gave to this fund than did last year, and the active chapters were 100 per cent in contributing to this cause.

The Settlement School still holds the center of the stage, as it receives the bulk of the contributions, and the clubs are stressing its needs in many ways; holding exhibits of the products, and having meetings devoted to the interests of the school. They fully realize their responsibility and will not be found lacking. Sixteen out of eighteen clubs in Kappa Province and all six active chapters contributed to the school, and Sabine District was particularly generous, which proves that the popularity of the Arrow Craft products has materially increased.

One of the greatest pleasures that the alumnae clubs have to anticipate, is the visit of a member of Grand Council, whenever that National Officer is visiting the active chapters in the vicinity of the clubs. Those desiring such a visit, have only to notify the Province Vice-President, and the visit will be arranged if possible. What a treat is in store for the clubs! This is a recent ruling and should meet with enthusiastic approval of all the clubs.

During the past two years, one club has ceased to function, but just a few days before Founders' Day, a request came from Corpus Christi, Texas, for a charter to be sent in time for their Founders' Day celebration. So the number of clubs remains the same; all are hale and hearty, full of enthusiasm and splendid plans for next year. We welcome the Corpus Christi Club into our family, and hope that they will enjoy the alumnae work as much as the other clubs do.

Several interested groups were contacted the past year, with the idea of organization, but nothing of a concrete nature resulted. These will be contacted again with hopes of better luck.

The usual monthly letters have been written, carrying instructions and items of interest from the active chapters and other clubs, which tended to keep the alumnae in closer touch with the happenings of the Fraternity.

Including membership dues, Settlement School, Loan and Endowment Funds contributions, Kappa Province is credited with a total of $1,898.54. The magazine agencies have been credited with $145.54.

In closing, I wish to express my appreciation to all who have worked with me during the past year. It has been a pleasure to have known these loyal Pi Phis through my monthly contacts and I wish to tell each one personally just how much I have enjoyed knowing them. To the members of Grand Council who have so patiently helped me over the rough places, I wish to express my sincere thanks and gratitude. To have carried on the work successfully without their ready cooperation and sympathy would have been impossible.

CARRIE H. WILLIAMSON

LAMBDA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

A SUMMARY of the year 1933-34 brings out many interesting and encouraging facts. Early in the year, ten of the twelve clubs were visited, the two new clubs at Edmonton and Calgary having been visited at the time of their installation. The Province President met with these clubs at the time of her official trip to Alberta A, so all the clubs have been contacted. The cordiality and good fellowship expressed by the members compensate for any labor spent in holding to our common goal, the upbuilding of $\Pi B \Phi$. The memory of friendships made will be full recompense.

Although the province cannot measure its progress in figures, it feels that with Convention in the air, it has been awakened to a better knowledge of the Fraternity nationally and has widened its interests locally.

A foundation for reaching isolated groups has been laid which should lead to the formation of several new clubs in the near future. Idaho A and Washington B have always exchanged courtesies on Founders' Day, but this year for the first time all the alumnae were invited and about 85 Pi Phis enjoyed the luncheon and program provided by Idaho A at their attractive chapter home. Joint Founders' Day celebrations were held in Corvallis and Seattle, and isolated groups have been contacted to arouse interest in the Endowment drive.

According to the recommendations coming from the meeting of Grand Council last June and from the letters of our Grand Vice-President, Lambda Province has tried to cooperate in every line of endeavor. Membership chairmen have worked hard to increase the total membership from 240 to 274, including seniors. Clubs increasing their membership are Boise, Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma, and Yakima, the latter having doubled its number. Yakima, Wenatchee, and Corvallis are 100 per cent in membership, while Edmonton lacks but one. It is worthy of note that these smaller clubs also have nearly perfect attendance at meetings. Forty graduating seniors have paid their alumnae dues this year.

Although there have been changes in officers in some of the clubs, most have progressed most satisfactorily. Following an early suggestion of the Province Vice-President, clubs adopted a budget, which included each national project and as a consequence clubs and chapters have contributed 100 per cent to the Settlement School, Loan Fund, and Endowment. Money making schemes have not been so remunerative as formerly. The Settlement School contributions fell off $191.80 from last year's record. Seattle was the highest donor. The Loan Fund profited among the actives by $30, but barely held its own among the clubs. The Endowment benefited by $262.85, due to the added enthusiasm of the Lambda Province member of the National Endowment Committee. The magazine agency has been stressed, netting an increase of $14.50. Because of the distribution of funds, amounts are necessarily smaller, but national spirit has been fostered by participation in all national enterprises.

Many clubs help with summer rushing and entertain the actives socially, and most take an active part in community welfare. Those in college towns furnish members for the Advisory Board and assist the actives in many ways.

It has been a pleasure to serve the Fraternity and it is hoped that real progress has come from our work together.

Respectfully submitted,

JUANITA GREGORY O'DAY, Vice-President

MU PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

FOR the third year the Province Vice-President closes her books with the feeling of real appreciation for her clubs. The response to the various funds has not been as high as last year, but the discrepancies have been slight enough to indicate that there has been no real falling off in interest. In fact some clubs have shown a marked increase in the interest of the members, but of a kind not translated into money.

As the club visits had been completed the previous year, all contacts have been through letters and many delightful memory-journeys. The older and larger clubs have developed their money raising efforts along lines which have become traditional. The smaller and newer ones show as much ingenuity in a different way. One fact is always assured in the accounts sent me, and the ones which come indirectly, of all Pi Phi functions: they are conducted along lines of taste, and show the conscientious effort of the individuals responsible.

Two clubs have just been organized at Santa Barbara and Fresno and are welcomed into this province most heartily.

It seems especially fitting to close this year with words of praise. The figures in the chart cannot set forth the effort which lies behind them, and my brief is for that effort, rather than the figures themselves. With Convention at hand, we can look forward to renewed enthusiasm and greater zest in our Fraternity work.

A minimum of 30 hours a week study is demanded, a report upon which is given at each chapter meeting by the scholarship committee. Failure to attend a lecture is penalized by two hours extra study. Fines are imposed for any breach of these regulations. A chart is kept in the chapter rooms recording the scholarship of each member. A chapter by-law forbids the initiation of any pledge who has failed to get an average of 60 per cent in her Christmas examinations. Ontario Alpha presents a scholarship cup yearly in the local Panhellenic to the chapter ranking first in scholarship on the campus. Each sponsor is responsible for the scholarship of her sponsee and aids her if necessary. Ontario Alpha won the cup in 1933-34, came third in 1932-33 and fifth in 1931-32.

IV. Chapter Work: An alumna is placed in charge of pledge study. Each pledge is put under the care of a sponsor who must be in her junior or senior year. Pledges attend the weekly cooky-shines. They choose a president and a representative on the Scholarship Committee, and share in the house duties and Settlement School work. The Executive Council consists of the President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, one sophomore, one freshman, and one member of the House Committee. The Council is elected by the chapter. General subscription dances have been given, the proceeds of which were divided between Settlement School, the local Settlement School and the Endowment Fund. Two members of the chapter are chosen to help once a week in the local Settlement School. Other members frequently help. A new plan for philanthropic activity has been undertaken through local Panhellenic. After each meeting a talk is given by some outstanding person on a topic of interest.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Luncheons, teas and dinners for rushing, a theatre night, a mothers' tea, the Panhellenic and the initiation banquets, the fraternity birthday party, the annual dance, Founders' Day luncheon, and the annual house party at the close of college.

1932-1933. A subscription dance, a luncheon for the petitioning group from Western University, a tea for the members of the faculty; the regular rushing luncheons, teas and dinners and a tea-dance; the fraternity birthday party; Panhellenic banquet; the annual formal dance, Founders' Day luncheon, and the annual house party.

1933-1934. A subscription dance; the fraternity birthday party; the initiation banquet; the Panhellenic banquet and dance; the annual formal dance; the Founders' Day luncheon, and the fraternity house-party.

VI. Chapter House is a lower duplex which is rented. It is situated near the university. The chapter moved to its present location in 1932, having formerly rented an apartment in an apartment house. The decorating of the new rooms was done largely by the members of the chapter. A day-bed and a new rug were purchased for the pledge room.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest. The alumnae attend a great many active meetings and cooky-shines.

There is close cooperation between the Chapter Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee; both active and alumnae members attend the annual house-party. The alumnae play a large part in rushing by giving both practical assistance and helpful suggestions. They take charge of our rushing party. The alumnae are represented at every social function. Alumnae and actives join in the philanthropic work of the chapter.

I. Membership: 1931-32: Initiates 9, active members 26; 1932-33: Initiates 7, active members 21; 1933-34: Initiates 10, active members 21. Resident active members 20, resident alumnae 3, total membership up to May 1, 1934, 159.

Miss Junior X, 1 Mid-Winter Queen, 3 A.M.W. Pageant.

III. Scholarship: Alumnae Scholarship Chairman meets with the chapter after each marking period and suggests methods of improvement. The upper-class girls have helped the pledges and other members in any subject that is difficult for them. Study rooms in the dormitories have been designated. A by-law was added stating that any girl with an average under 2.2 should be under restricted ruling. The Scholarship Chairman is in charge of this. Pledge and chapter average that we demand is an average of 2.0 for the pledges and 2.4 for the chapter. For the year 1931-32 we ranked third among the other sororities; for 1932-33, second; for 1933-34, third.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges meet weekly. They have their own officers who conduct the meetings. The chapter roll is learned by degrees and the other questions looked up and learned. We have given them charge of the Founders' Day program for the last two years and have found the idea beneficial in bringing them together. They also gave the members a very nice picnic last fall. The Executive Council is made up of one member from each class and a representative from the financial committee. The Council meets weekly with the President. In fall of 1931 the Chapter had a sale of the Settlement School materials. Faculty and townspeople were invited as well as students. Tea was served and cards were played. The proceeds were donated to the Settlement School fund. In 1933 we held a stag dance which gave us a profit to contribute to the mountain work. This spring to raise money for the Settlement School and Loan Fund we had a benefit bridge at the home of our faculty adviser. Light refreshments were served and a towel from the Settlement School was the prize.

V. Entertainment: In the fall of each year we give a tea for our patronesses to which we invite faculty members and dormitory matrons. If our treasury allows it, we usually have two informal dances annually with a formal one in the spring. At Christmas time in 1931 the Phi Phis gave the Phi Mu Delta boys a spaghetti dinner. Afterward they enjoyed small gifts around a Christmas tree. Another affair at which we and our many other sorority guests had a great deal of fun was a Kid's Party.

VI. Chapter House: It has been necessary for us to rent our log cabin for a tea room. Last year we were allowed to have our fraternity meetings there, but this year the new proprietor has it completely for his own use. By renting it we are able to pay off some of the mortgage and thus look forward to having it back for our own use.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae come to meetings often. They are kept in touch with the chapter's activities through the social secretary. Any time we need their help they are always ready to assist. The use of their homes is always offered for any parties or ceremonies. There has only been one Pi Phi transfer on this campus, and she has entered in with us without any hesitation.

Class having lowest average gives party to class having highest average. Rank of chapter among socially competing fraternities for women for the year 1931-32, sixth; 1932-33, fourth; 1933-34 (first semester), third.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges meet once a week for pledge study under the instruction of one senior who has entire charge of this work. Each sponsor keeps in close contact with her pledge, watches her marks, her extra-curricular activities, and her general standing on campus. It is a tradition for the pledges to send home-made candy to their sponsors at Christmas to show their appreciation and friendship. The executive council consists of the president, vice-president, treasurer, and one representative from each of the four classes. The members are elected by ballot and meet once a week. Small red stockings are given out at Christmas to be filled with spare change during the vacation, and the total amount is sent to the Settlement School. A rummage sale conducted by the freshmen adds to the chapter's contributions to the Loan Fund and the Pi Beta Phi Endowment Fund. Every Christmas a small contribution is sent to a Pi Beta Phi mother.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae are invited to one meeting a month beside entertainment evenings. There is monthly calling on alumnae for informal tea. By rotary system each active member at end of year has called on each alumna. The alumnae are invited to initiation and initiation banquet. They join with the chapter on Founders' Day, spring house party, and senior farewell ceremony. Six unaffiliated transfers in last three years. Transfers are invited along with the freshmen to rushing parties and are asked to come to the "open house" held by each women's fraternity before the actual rushing period. IV. Chapter Work: The pledge supervisor directs the work of the pledges and meetings are held regularly every week before chapter meetings. Each pledge has a sponsor, an upperclassman, who serves as her special adviser. Executive council consists of the president of the chapter (an ex-officio member), the chairman, the recording secretary, and a representative from each class, all elected by ballot by the chapter. Chapter gives $25 each year for the Settlement School. A silver loving cup, called the Pi Beta Phi Character Cup, is given to the girl who, by the vote of the chapter, most nearly lives up to the ideals of Pi Beta Phi and is most representative of the chapter. The chapter elects assistants to each of the major offices who help those officers and learn the duties which they will later be expected to perform. A chart is kept on which the activities of each girl are recorded.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Visit of Grand Secretary, Nita Hill Stark, dinner at "Twist O'Hill." Formal opening of chapter house and teas for alumnae, mothers, and patronesses. Initiation banquet. Cooky-shine after pledging, pledge luncheon, and breakfast. Pledge dance. Sunday night suppers at house. Settlement School tea and sale. Alumnae Club supper for actives, Mothers' Club supper. Initiation banquet. Visit of Louise Sale Cassidy, Alpha Province president. Celebration of Founders' Day at Middlebury with Vermont A.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house, which was completed in February 1932, is owned by the incorporated alumnae to whom the actives pay rent. The house is valued at $29,797.30. Since the original furnishing of the house numerous items have been added to the equipment; radio, lamps, coffee table, card tables, lace dinner cloth, linen tea napkins, silver, pewter, dishes, and kitchen utensils. The floors have been done over each summer, and the grounds have been landscaped.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: We are fortunate in having a group of extremely enthusiastic alumnae. They hold their meetings at the chapter house frequently, and on several occasions the actives have been invited to attend their programs. The alumnae are always welcome to attend regular meetings, and are invited to the pledge luncheon, the initiation banquet, Founders' Day, June Spread, and the various dances of the year.

No affiliated or unaffiliated transfers, 1931-1934.

Pledges have had a study hour before meetings. Personality charts have been used in which scholarship has been rated. 1931-32: Middle third; 1932-33: Lower third; 1933-34: Middle third.

IV. Chapter Work: The rush captain has charge of pledge study. The organization of the meetings is similar to that of the active chapter. They have their officers, report marks and cuts, and use pledge ritual. Each week they are quizzed on one province for chapter roll. Each girl has a sponsor who helps her in preparation for fraternity life.

The Executive Council consists of the president (ex-officio member), a senior, a junior, and a sophomore. A box was passed around each meeting night in which each member put a dime on pleasant days and a nickel on stormy days. This money went to Settlement School. We assist in giving Christmas parties, gifts, and money for the Settlement School children about Boston. Members have also given of their time for social service work. Contributions were given in the Red Cross Drives.

This apartment was about fifteen minutes walk from the University. This same apartment was used in 1932-33, and also during the first semester of 1933-34. Because of college restrictions it became necessary to give this up, and we now have one room directly opposite the former apartment. The room is furnished.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Joint meetings of alumnae advisory board and executive council are held once a month; Founders' Day celebration is always with the alumnae; alumnae visit meetings frequently; active members sometimes attend alumnae meetings; alumnae attend our teas and dances; the alumnae also often serve as chaperons of our dances and house parties; three members have had Pi Phi mothers and two have had Pi Phi sisters.

III. Scholarship: In all chapter meetings stress is laid on improvement of grades. Our scholarship fell considerably this year so the chapter consulted the alumnae for advice as to the action to be taken for raising our grades. The plan submitted was an individual proposition and most satisfactory. Every Monday night between 7 and 10:15 uninitiated members study at the house. Active members observe quiet hours. Our Province President stressed the importance of doing something about our scholarship.

IV. Chapter Work: Each pledge has a sorority mother, a junior or a senior in the chapter, who is responsible for her scholarship and activity record. The pledges elect regular officers and conduct their own meetings under the direction of a pledge supervisor. After the weekly pledge meeting on Monday nights, there is supervised study hour. Pledges and actives meet once a week for social hour on Sunday evenings for tea. Executive committee composed of 5 members: President, Vice-President, Pledge Supervisor, 1 junior, and 1 sophomore. Contributed money from the chapter treasury to Loan Fund and Pi Beta Phi Endowment. Baticques and other articles purchased from Settlement School and money sent every year. Contributed to Community Chest and loan fund of Syracuse University. Minor positions in chapter given to underclassmen in preparation for future responsibility. We have elections early enough in the spring for new officers to be trained by predecessors, and we try to give each girl some responsibility in the chapter so that she may become an integral part of it. At graduation every senior is given a gift of her own choosing by the chapter.

III. Scholarship: Scholarship committee, headed by a senior, investigates grades and confers with delinquent students and their professors. Study hall is held twice a week for those whose scholastic average is below 80 per cent. A record of each person's marks is kept and checked over by the alumnae committee on scholarship. The number of one's activities is limited according to scholastic average. A definite schedule of quiet hours with increased number during finals is enforced. The freshman with the highest average during the first semester is given a scholarship ring. Pledge average is 75 per cent, no failures. The chapter average is 80 per cent. The chapter ranked in 1931-32 first semester, first; second semester, fourth; 1932-33 first semester, fifth; second semester, fourth; 1933-34 first semester, second.

IV. Chapter Work: Weekly meetings are held under the leadership of the pledge supervisor and the president of the pledges while the active meeting is taking place. Preparations for chapter examination, informational talks by the supervisor, occasional social gatherings with the whole chapter following the meetings complete the work. Executive council is composed of the chapter president and one member of each class. "Banking on the Weather," a system of dividing the chapter into two groups, one to contribute pennies on stormy days and one on sunny days, was organized to raise money for the Settlement School. Movie benefits were also held to raise money for contributions to the Loan and Endowment Funds. Dinner exchanges between the sororities and the non-sorority group are held monthly. The Aunt Julie Memorial Cup is awarded annually to the girl who has done most for the chapter during the year.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Four rushing parties were held including a tea, a barn dance, a cabaret party, and a formal banquet. A pledge tea was held for patronesses, professors' wives, and alumnae, to introduce the freshmen. For Hallowe'en the town alumnae gave a party for the chapter members and pledges. The dances of the year consisted of a "depression party," a spring informal, a winter and a spring formal. The Christmas party, Founders' Day program, May Day breakfast, all were held for the patronesses and alumnae as well as chapter members and pledges. Alumnae luncheon at Commencement, cooky-shines, initiatory banquet, and social get-togethers every month completed the year's entertainment.

1932-33: Rushing consisted of only three parties—a tea, a whirlpool party, and a formal banquet. Two teas were given during the year, one to introduce the pledges and the other to introduce Mrs. Stebbins, Beta province president, when she visited here. The annual Christmas party was held as usual. For Founders' Day the freshmen presented an original and clever musical comedy. They also prepared the May Day breakfast. During the year the dean of women and the patronesses were invited to the chapter house for dinner. The alumnae luncheon, initiation banquet, cooky-shines, and other annual affairs were held as usual.

1933-34. A tea, a circus, and a formal banquet completed our rushing parties. House parties consisted of two formal and two informal dances. A pledge tea was held as well as a tea to present Mrs. Cassidy, Alpha province president, at the time of her visit. Besides the regular chapter affairs—Christmas party, Founders' Day program, May Day breakfast, cooky-shines—the chapter invited a patroness and her husband or a professor and his wife to dinner every week. The patronesses, in return, gave a picnic for the chapter, and one of them held a tea for the Pi Phi. At Christmas time several of the chapter members attended the formal dance given by New York Alpha in New York City.

VI. Chapter House: A house valued at $11,000 is owned by the alumnae and rented by the active chapter. Improvements in the house include increased bathroom facilities, redecoration of the chapter room, acquisition of a new set of furniture, slip covers for the living room furniture, overdrapes, pictures, china, radio table, lamps, luncheon sets.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae are invited to all entertainments, cooky-shines, and chapter meetings. Once a month the alumnae advisory committee meets with the executive council. At each informal and formal chapter dance alumnae are invited as guests. In June, the chapter holds an alumnae luncheon during commencement week. The Founders' Day program is also presented for them. Frequently they are invited to meals at the house and are encouraged to come back for overnight visits if they live at any distance.

III. Scholarship: There is a scholarship committee, composed of one member from each class. This committee figures the average of the house, decides the winner of the scholarship ring. The scholarship ring is given to the member who has made the greatest improvement. A recognition pin is given to the initiate with the highest average. A file is kept of old Examinations to which all can refer. The pledge average is to pass every hour of university work with an average of C. For the year 1931-32, the chapter ranked 6th among 14 women's fraternities, for 1932-33 7th, and for the year 1933-34 9th.

IV. Chapter Work: Weekly pledge meetings are held under the supervision of the pledge supervisor who is generally a senior. The regular pledge ritual is used and the president of the pledges presides. Their organization is very similar to that of the active chapter, having parallel officers and work. Their work for these weekly meetings is apportioned through the semester in preparation for the pre-initiation examination. Each meeting written quizzes cover the assignments on chapter roll and the constitution. Meetings are then opened to discussion or talks either by active members of the chapter or by resident alumnae on some phase of Pi Phi tradition. They also keep a record of their marks in their class work, and they are encouraged to go to active members for assistance. The Executive Council consists of the president, the ex-president, 1 senior, 2 juniors, 1 sophomore, 1 freshman after initiation, and 1 from the house at large. At Christmas time the chapter gives food, clothes, and money to a needy family in town. Last year the house entertained a group of children from the community house at a Valentine party. For the past three years there has been 100 per cent contribution to the Red Cross. The chapter also sends annual contributions to the Settlement School, and to the Endowment Fund. The seniors pledge contributions to the college endowment fund. A letter is published for the alumnae of the chapter telling of the activities of the house for the past year. An activities chairman supervises the extracurricular activities of each girl, encouraging each one to participate in some way. A social chairman attends to matters of social nicety. Every member of the chapter is entertained at the chapter house on Sunday evenings at supper, which the girls prepare.

V. Entertainment: Formal rushing, which consists of 8 teas, an informal dinner, and 2 formal dinners, takes place in the fall. Pledge breakfast and a pledge formal dance follow. There are two informal dances held, and a spring formal. An alumnae tea, a student tea, a formal faculty reception, a senior farewell supper, a Christmas party for another sorority each year, and one for the chapter and a chaperon tea make up the entertainment program. The chapter hostess invites professors and patronesses to Sunday dinner. The pledges entertain pledges from the other houses once during the year. Every Thursday night two girls from another sorority are our guests at dinner and two girls from our chapter go to their house.

VI. Chapter House: The house is owned and valued at $20,000. There have been many improvements in the past three years. Among them have been complete new furniture for the living-room and the sun-room, a new baby grand piano, furniture for 2 bedrooms, 4 rugs, new desk, studio-lounge, and draperies for the chaperon's room, floors refinished, new china, new silverware, coffee service, a kitchen stove, a radio-victrola, a card-table, and new draperies for the dining-room.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The chapter has an alumnae advisory committee. This committee supervises our rushing, scholarship, expenses, refurbishing, and so forth. There is a local alumnae club which has been organized in the past year. The chapter is entertained by them about four times a year at cooky-shines. The actives also call on them during the year. One tea is given for them. There have been no unaffiliated transfers. One transfer was affiliated during the last three years.

The Sponsor represented the pledges at executive meetings until initiation. As assistant to the sponsor, a chairman from among the pledges was selected. The Pledge sponsor spoke at each meeting of the pledges and endeavored to assist the freshmen in working out any problems that perplexed them. III. Scholarship: The scholarship chairman of the alumnae advisory board cooperates with the scholarship chairman of the active chapter in checking the grades of the pledges twice during each quarter, and advises those girls whose scholarship is low. The Mothers' Club has donated a plaque upon which is engraved the name of the active who has received the highest scholastic average of the entire year. This year for the first time two pins were awarded in the chapter; one pin to the girl having the highest grade for the first two quarters, and a second to the girl who showed greatest improvement over the first quarter. The awarding of these pins will be a tradition which will take place at each Founders' Day banquet. For the years of 1932 and 1933 we enforced a fine for low scholarship. For every hour of E (failure) pledges were fined one dollar, and actives were fined three dollars. For every hour of D each active and pledge was fined one dollar. This year the fine has been replaced by a study hour which is supervised by actives with low grades for pledges with D's or E's. The chapter demands that a pledge shall complete forty-five hours with a C average to be initiated. In 1931 and 1932 the chapter ranked sixteenth among twenty-eight national Panhellenic fraternities. In 1932-33 the chapter ranked sixth. The ranking for 1933-34 has not yet been determined.

III. Scholarship: Ohio Delta has worked hard to improve her scholarship. Various methods have been employed, but the one most successful was that of having each girl hand in a study hour card each week upon which she has listed the number of hours studied daily. She is also required to record on the card the grades she has received in examinations and quizzes during the week.

A study table is conducted every Saturday morning and afternoon for the pledges and active members whose point averages are below the pledge requirement for initiation. The penalty for low mid-term reports is partial social probation. The active member who raises her point average the most from one semester to the next has her name placed upon Ohio Delta's scholarship cup. Pledge requirement for initiation is a point average of 1.5 (a B— average). This applies also for voting privileges within the active chapter. The rank of Pi Beta Phi among the socially competing fraternities for women for the year 1931-32 was seventeenth; for the first semester of 1932, eleventh and for the first semester of 1933 was ninth.

IV. Chapter Work: Weekly pledge meetings are held under the supervision of the pledge master, who is, generally, a senior. The pledges are organized and elect officers; they conduct their meetings in a formal manner and use the pledge ritual. Their work is apportioned through the semester in preparation for the pre-initiation examination. Each meeting written or oral quizzes cover the assignments. Each year the model pledge of Ohio Delta is presented with a recognition pin. This is awarded on the basis of scholarship and service to the fraternity.

The executive council is composed of one representative from each class, the pledge supervisor and the president. The proceeds from rummage sales are contributed each year to the Settlement School. A sum is drawn from the treasury for Loan Fund and Pi Beta Phi Endowment. At Christmas time the social committee purchased groceries and fixed baskets for poor families in Delaware. Each year the chapter as a group contributes to the Student Chest Fund as well as making voluntary individual contributions.

The chapter publishes an annual paper at the close of each college year which tells of the activities, the social events, and other matters of interest during the year. This paper is sent to chapters in the province and to alumnae.

VI. The Chapter House: Situated near the campus, the house is rented from a private individual. In the last two years notable additions to the furniture have been made. The living rooms have been refurnished and the kitchen remodeled. The commissary department has been able to buy a new kitchen stove and to make other needed improvements.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Successful methods for maintaining alumnae interest consist of giving buffet luncheons for the alumnae, teas, inviting each resident alumna to dinner, writing a yearly letter to alumnae members and sending them the May Day Sun. This year we have inaugurated a Pi Beta Phi homecoming, and wish to make it an annual custom. We will endeavor to have it on Founders' Day and celebrate it with a luncheon, formal dinner and dance, as well as buffet suppers. The entire week-end is alumnae week-end and given over to entertaining visiting alumnae. We have no affiliated or unaffiliated transfers on our campus.

III. Scholarship: The Scholarship Program has recently been changed to provide more freedom not only for the actives but also for the pledges. Study hall for the pledges has been discontinued, and neither the pledges nor the actives pay fines for poor grades or cuts. There are no social regulations set up by the fraternity. However, the college does not approve of freshmen receiving permissions during the week. Each week the Scholarship Chairman records the number of hours of study, the number of cuts, and the grades of each member. College and fraternity requirements demand at least nine hours of C grade and not more than six hours of D grade for initiation. The Scholarship Cup was awarded for the school year 1931-32 to Frances Nixdorf, last year to Jane Margaret Ream, and this year to Josephine A. Fleming. The scholarship standing of Pi Beta Phi with the seven other national fraternities on the campus is as follows: 1931-32, first semester, 7th; second semester, 7th; 1932-33, first semester, 4th; second semester, 4th; 1933-34, first semester, 4th.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges meet once a week with the pledge supervisor, and the hour is spent in fraternity study and the preliminary examination. The pledge ritual is used. Each sponsor tries to keep in close touch with her pledge, and makes it her personal obligation to know and help and advise, when possible, concerning the pledge's academic work, activities, and general attitude. Pledges meet with the chapter at suppers and teas in the rooms, and are invited to all social functions—house party, dances, banquets, etc. Executive Council is made up of the chapter president, one representative from each of the three upper classes, and the chapter treasurer, making an entire group of five. $50 was sent to the Settlement School, and this money was raised by means of a benefit theater performance and a benefit bridge party. The chapter also contributed to the Loan Fund, the Endowment Fund, and the United Campaign Fund. The Arrowette, a Gamma Province literary project, was published annually by the chapter.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Pledge banquet, Panhellenic dance, fraternity formal in the spring, pledge house party, Christmas party, Founders' Day banquet with District of Columbia A in Washington, alumnae party, alumnae teas, spring house party, pledge tea, and tea for the chapter's friends.

1932-33: Pledge banquet, and theater party afterwards, Panhellenic dance, fraternity dance in the spring, initiation banquet, pledge party, Christmas party, Founders' Day banquet with District of Columbia A in Baltimore, alumnae party, alumnae teas, pledge tea, and tea for the chapter's friends.

1933-34: Pledge banquet and theater party afterwards, Panhellenic dance, fraternity dance in the spring, initiation banquet, pledge house party, Christmas party, Founders' Day banquet in Baltimore, alumnae party, alumnae teas, pledge tea, and tea for the friends of the chapter.

VI. Chapter House: In the fall of 1932 the fraternity moved from a basement apartment of one room and a kitchen to a second floor apartment at 2111 North Charles Street. The apartment is rented. There is no comparison between the old apartment and the new one with its two large rooms, a hall, a kitchen with a frigidaire, and a bath. The alumnae were wonderful to the chapter, and gave them a shower and several contributions of money for the redecoration of the rooms. Pi Beta Phi now boasts the best rooms on Goucher campus.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae advisory committee meets with executive council once each month, and there is an alumnae representative at Panhellenic meetings. There is a standing invitation to the alumnae to supper and meeting in the rooms. Alumnae chaperons are invited to all social functions—house party, dances, etc. The alumnae and the active chapter and the pledges join in celebrating Founders' Day. The alumnae club has been particularly hospitable to the chapter in recent years, giving teas and an annual party for all the actives and pledges. There have been no unaffiliated transfers on campus for the past three years, and one affiliated transfer.

III. Scholarship: Daily supervised study for pledges and for actives on probation. A bracelet is awarded to the freshman maintaining the highest average. A chapter girl who does not have an average of 75 per cent must forfeit her pin for two months. A pledge must have an average of 75 per cent to be initiated. In February, 1932, Pi Beta Phi was eighth among women's fraternities; in February, 1933, third; and in February, 1934, fifth.

IV. Chapter Work: Weekly active and pledge meetings are held on Monday nights. Pledge business meetings are conducted by their own officers and supervised by the pledge instructor. The Junior Panhellenic society serves to bring contacts among pledge groups even as the Panhellenic Association functions with active groups. Executive Council is composed of the chapter president, 1 member of the senior class, 1 junior, 1 sophomore, and one member at large. Each year a benefit has been given for the Settlement School, Endowment Fund, and Loan Fund, and we have cooperated with the Magazine Agency to aid the Settlement School. At Christmas time each year we provide a dinner for a poor family and this year we participated in an all-university food drive to provide Christmas dinners for a hundred families. The chapters in our province have endeavored each year to keep in closer contact with one another through the Arrowette, a miniature publication issued throughout the year by each of the chapters in turn, which by picture, story or rhyme tells the local news of the chapter.

V. Entertainment: The social season began each year with a tea given by the Panhellenic Association for all freshman women with fraternity women acting as hostesses. A week following the tea, rush week begins and we always include the Arrow Night Club party and the Arrowcake ceremony which is peculiarly symbolic of the ideals of the fraternity. During the year, various members of the faculty were entertained at dinner and many members of the faculty and administration attended the annual spring openhouse. A dance was given each year in honor of the new pledges and the local alumnae association gave a luncheon for them. The annual Christmas and Senior dances were held. Founders' Day banquet is usually celebrated with the alumnae and with visiting chapters from Maryland and Virginia. There is an annual scholarship luncheon to which are invited the active and pledge having the highest scholarship average. The annual luncheon for seniors is an official farewell for them at which time tokens of remembrance are presented.

VI. Chapter House: A suite of rooms is rented on the third floor of the university building. An additional room has been added and equipped for a study room. Outside of study hours it is used as a lounge and smoking room. The living room has been repapered and re-decorated. We have been given a radio, a large rug, a studio couch, a bookcase filled with books, a writing desk, and silver and linen.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae advisory council meets with the chapter monthly. Our alumnae are invited to all social and official functions. Founders' Day banquet is held with the alumnae annually. The alumnae entertain at a luncheon at which the pledges are presented. During rushing the alumnae are actively interested and are most helpful to the chapter. There have been four unaffiliated transfers at the university during the last three years. All transfers are invited to attend the weekly dinner and meeting and are sent formal invitations to all chapter social functions. Five transfers have become affiliated members of the chapter.

III. Scholarship: The grades of the members of the chapter and pledges are read at chapter meetings after each quarter. A member of the chapter who makes a general average below 85 loses the privilege of voting and using the house, and a member of the chapter who makes a general average below 80 loses the right of wearing her pin until these respective averages have been attained. The name of the sophomore who makes the highest average for the year is engraved on the chapter scholarship cup. The freshman making the highest average is presented with a small silver loving cup. Pledges are required, by local Panhellenic ruling, to make at least an 80 average in six semesters hours work, and a 70 average in the other nine hours. Compulsory study hall for the freshmen is held the first quarter of the year. Rank of the chapter: 1931-32, tenth; 1932-33, fifth; 1933-34, twelfth.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges are organized with a president and secretary-treasurer. They hold weekly meetings outlined according to the instruction in the pledge manual and led by a pledge supervisor. Through these meetings and through the sponsor relationship a definite attempt is made to help the pledge feel a part of the fraternity and adapt herself to the school environment. A weekly activity chart is kept and the pledges are encouraged to take part in as many activities as possible. Every active member and pledge must have at least two activities a week. Every other Sunday the chapter has closed house for the pledges and a dinner once a month after the regular fraternity meeting. The executive council, composed of the chapter president, one senior, one junior and one sophomore representative, meets with the alumnae advisory committee once each month. The chapter has contributed $62.00 to the Loan Fund; $45.00 to the Settlement School; and $25.00 to the Endowment Fund. The chapter has published two issues of the Gamma Province Arrowette, one in January, 1932, the other in January, 1933. Both issues contained information concerning the chapter, pledges and special activities. During the last three years each member in the chapter held a chapter office or was a member of a standing committee.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: We had two open houses for the freshmen followed by three rushing teas. After pledging in the fall and after initiation in February cooky-shines were given. Two teas were given for the faculty, and the chapter and pledges entertained at dinner for the councilor of women. Closed house for the freshmen was observed by the chapter on the first Sunday evening of each month. A Christmas party was held before the holidays at which the chapter presented their individual gifts to the house. Panhellenic representatives were entertained when the national officers and province president made their visit. 1932-33: We had two open houses and two teas for the freshmen at the beginning of the year. Two cooky-shines were given as in the preceding year. The faculty were entertained twice and the councilor of women was invited to the house for dinner. A Christmas tree and stockings were fixed for the freshmen, and the house received gifts from each of the classes. Founders' Day banquet was given both years at the Virginian Hotel. In the spring a picnic was given for the chapter by the patron and patroness. 1933-34: One open house and two teas constituted the rushing program for this year. Two most attractive cooky-shines were given after formal pledging and initiation. The scheme for the Founders' Day banquet was cleverly worked out in the "S.S. Pi Beta Phi." A large ship of red carnations was at the head of the table and individual ships were placed by each plate. Place cards and menus helped to carry out the theme. A Panhellenic coffee was given for the province president when she visited the chapter. A Christmas party and faculty teas were carried out as in the two previous years.

VI. Chapter House: Our house is owned by the chapter but is located on the college campus. The house is made up of a living room, dining room, sun parlor, kitchen, and a newly added chapter room. The house is valued at $5,000. In 1932 the freshmen presented a new stove and in 1933, the freshmen had new linoleum laid on the kitchen floor. Additions, such as linen, china and kitchen utensils have been made each year. In the spring of 1933 the house was completely redecorated inside and the outside was also repainted.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae living in town are invited to all initiations, cooky-shines and Founders' Day banquets. The alumnae advisory committee meets with us once each month and has been of great assistance in the past three years. In 1932 the alumnae gave a bridge tea for the chapter, and in 1933 they entertained the chapter at two teas. The chapter has made a practice of sending Christmas greetings, each year, to the alumnae. There have been no transfers on campus during the past three years.

(1 president); G.G.G. (2 presidents). 4. Social Honors: Colonial Echo Sponsor (1); Flat Hat Sponsor (1); Cotillion Club Sponsor (1); Winner in Declaration Contest.

III. Scholarship: Through constant stress on scholarship, Virginia Gamma has pulled itself up from fourth to second place on the campus this year, being only two-tenths of a point behind the leaders with an average of 86.5. The chapter is working earnestly for the first place once again among the fraternities. The initiation average of 83 is held still, although many other groups have lowered theirs in order to increase membership. By adhering to this principle, the chapter feels that it is enabled to bring up the standing and at the same time the chapter believes that initiation will mean more to its members.

In the fall, a pledge study hall was kept each week night with a twenty-five cent fine for absence. This system, however, did not seem to be entirely successful, and it was abandoned. In place of this, each pledge agreed on her honor to study fifteen hours a week. These hours of study are kept on a chart.

A member in the chapter who falls below an 80 average for two successive months is penalized by the removal of social privileges for a length of time determined by the Executive Council. A chairman in charge of scholarship reads the grades of both actives and pledges each month in fraternity meeting. A close check is thus kept. If a pledge has a noticeably low average, she is reprimanded by her "big sister," who keeps her under close observation until such time as a marked improvement is shown.

Rank among socially competing fraternities, 1931-32, fourth; 1932-33, fourth; 1933-34, second.

IV. Chapter Work: In the pledge meetings, the history of one fraternity is read each week in addition to the regular lessons on the history of Pi Beta Phi. Brief quizzes are given at the beginning of the meeting on some phase of the fraternity with which the pledges should be familiar.

The Executive Council includes the chapter president, one senior member, one junior member, and one sophomore member. The junior member is usually the chapter treasurer, as it is thought that in this manner the treasurer can serve in a very useful capacity.

The chapter holds joint meetings with the pledges at frequent intervals in order to impress upon them the importance of scholarship and activities. The actives seek to hold ever before the eyes of the underclassmen the ideals and aims of the group. A better understanding is reached, and there is wonderful spirit of cooperation present. We feel that a well taught pledge is the foundation of a well rounded active. Every other Saturday night the house gives a party. Everyone is welcome, and several non-fraternity girls are always invited in order to promote good feeling. These parties are looked forward to by all, and new stunts and games are always being tried.

This year Virginia I decided that the Arrowette, the chapter publication, should reverse the usual colonial idea and turn modernistic. The result of our labors has made us very proud. The editing of this booklet was one of the most pleasurable jobs the girls have done. The exchange of these Arrowettes among the chapters of Gamma Province has been an enjoyable means of keeping in touch with the sisters of the province.

On a Health and Activity Chart is kept a record for each member and pledge. Personal appearance is stressed as well as general health. Each individual is made to realize that as a member of Pi Beta Phi, she is regarded by outsiders as representative of the Fraternity as a whole.

For the Settlement School rummage sales and card parties were given. In addition, the chapter sold Christmas cards this year which were designed by Frances Lamar. A minimum of $20 was set for this fund, and $10 for the Endowment Fund. Each year the chapter also donates to the American Red Cross, a custom followed by all the women's fraternities on campus.

In order to further the interest in scholarship, the girl receiving the highest average for the year has her name engraved on a silver loving cup. The scholars in the house vie for this honor with real enthusiasm.

Rushing on the campus is rather difficult on account of the opposition of the faculty. The chapter is very careful not to overlook any upperclassmen in its selection of potential Pi Phis. Virginia I has found it very profitable to choose several juniors and sophomores each year in order to fill in the depleted ranks.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rush party in the form of a "Golden Arrow Night Club," teas for pledges, initiates, faculty and Province President.

1932-33, rush party in the idea of an artist's studio, tea for pledges. Reception for newly installed chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, and card party for Gamma Phi Beta pledges given by the pledges. Christmas party given by town alumnae with gifts and a Santa Claus. Tea to introduce initiates, and one for the patronesses. An oyster roast was given at Yorktown for the entire chapter.

1933-34, Bazaar for the rushees with fortune telling and gay booths. Cooky-shines and teas for pledges and initiates. The Richmond alumnae gave a dinner and card party for the chapter. Christmas party as in previous years. The chapter serenaded the other fraternities on campus with various fraternity songs. One of the patronesses gave a tea for the chapter. Exceptionally large Founders' Day banquet and celebration. Senior Farewell party with prophecies and "take-offs" of each senior.

VI. Chapter House: The house is owned by the College Administration and rent is paid per semester by the Fraternity as a whole. A set of maple furniture with lamps and a table was one of the most notable gifts to the house. It was given for use in the smoking room. New drapes, lamps, slip covers for living room suites and rugs have also made marked improvements in the general appearance of the interior of the house.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: There have been no unaffiliated transfers on campus in three years, and only one affiliated transfer. Yearly an alumnae letter is sent out by the chapter, re-establishing contacts and strengthening the bonds of fraternity. In 1934 the pledge of the alumnae to return expired after five years, and there were approximately twenty-five old members back. To see these Pi Phis once again seemed to inspire each active to work and strive for the highest aims and achievements of Virginia I. It is indeed impressive and encouraging to know that we have such a group of supporters behind us, spurring us ever onward.

I. Membership: 1931-32: Initiates, 18; active members, 34; 1932-33: Initiates, 12; active members, 27; 1933-34: Initiates, 12; active members, 22. Resident active members, 5; resident alumnae, 15; total membership up to May 1, 1934, 142.

II. Honors: 2 Phi Beta Kappas; 1 honor student; 1 Beta Gamma Sigma (honorary commerce); 2 graduates;

W.S.G.A., 3 presidents, 3 vice-presidents, 1 secretary, 1 treasurer, 3 town representatives, 1 chairman of handbook committee; Women's Athletic Association, 2 presidents, 3 staff members; 3 on co-ed all-campus basketball team; 2 on tennis team; 1 poetry editor of Carolina Magazine; 2 on staff of humorous magazine, Buccaneer; 2 on staff of paper, Daily Tar Heel; 1 on staff of annual, Yachety Yack; 7 Carolina Playmakers; 4 in Union Forum; 1 chairman of Student Red Cross; all senior co-ed statistics, including 1 prettiest, 2 most popular; 10 cotillion leaders.

III. Scholarship: A scholarship chairman is elected who has charge of averaging the grades of actives and pledges. Those whose average is below a C are required to go to the library for two hours every night. So far we have not found it necessary to deprive of social privileges or to fine because of scholastic standing. A C average has to be made before any girl can be initiated. In our chapter meetings, great emphasis is put upon scholarship. For the years 1931-32 and 1932-33, North Carolina A ranked first among the women's fraternities and second among all the fraternities including the men's and women's. For the year 1933-34 our chapter ranked second among the women's and fifth among all of the chapters on the campus.

IV. Chapter Work: For pledge training, careful consideration is taken to elect an active member who is best fitted to train and supervise in fraternity work, to criticize constructively, and to build up personality and ideals among the pledges in accordance with that of the fraternity and campus. Meetings of the pledges are held regularly once a week and the pledges are required to come. A fine of fifty cents if absent and twenty-five cents if late is imposed on them to insure regular attendance. The pledges are organized with their own president, secretary, and treasurer, and cooperation among them is encouraged. In order to form closer contact among the actives and pledges, the pledges are asked and encouraged but not required to come to the house every day. Several times during the year the actives come in after the pledge meetings for a little informal get-together. After most of the pledges were initiated in the winter quarter of this year, there were still several pledges who had taken their examinations but were unable to be initiated due to finances and grades. For these girls a half hour meeting was held once every two weeks at which time the pledge supervisor had some planned program relating to the Fraternity. After this meeting, all the actives were asked to come in and a little informal party of games and light refreshments was held.

The executive council is composed of the president, the vice-president, the corresponding secretary, the recording secretary, and the house president. Big sisters are appointed by the council to work with the little pledge sisters and help them in any way concerning fraternity life.

In order to raise money for the Settlement School, a Pi Phi vs. Chi Omega basketball game was held and the proceeds went towards the Settlement School. A small mite box was put on the mantel at our chapter house in which the members were asked to put contributions for the Settlement School. The Loan Fund was also raised through contributions. Our chapter gave five dollars in order to help keep the campus in shape, and we were also instrumental in obtaining a new athletic field for women.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rush parties, including teas, bridge parties, picture show party; formal dance; tea for alumnae; tea for faculty members; Christmas party; initiation banquet; cooky-shine for spring initiates; formal Founders' Day banquet; tea for Chi Omegas and stray Greeks. 1932-33: Rush parties, including teas, bridge parties, picture show parties, dinner party; formal dance; alumnae tea; initiation banquet; cooky-shine for spring initiates; formal Founders' Day luncheon; tea for Chi Omegas and stray Greeks. 1933-34: Rush parties, composed mainly of informal gatherings and a dinner party; formal dance; tea for alumnae; tea for faculty; tea for province president; initiation banquet; cooky-shine for winter initiates; informal get-togethers among actives and pledges; picnic with North Carolina B to celebrate Founders' Day; tea for Chi Omegas and stray Greeks.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house is rented, furnished completely. It is very satisfactory, accommodating all of the actives who are able to live there and having sufficient number of rooms downstairs for fraternity use. The location is very good, being only one block from the women's building and near the campus and town business section. We have an attractive yard with a lawn, shrubbery, and flowers.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The chapter and the alumnae club maintain a close contact. The alumnae are always welcome at our chapter meetings, initiations, and parties. A tea is given particularly for the alumnae once a year and the alumnae give a tea for the chapter. The alumnae and the actives celebrate Founders' Day together.

During the past year there have been two unaffiliated transfers on the campus, but due to heavy programs of studies they have not felt able to affiliate. However, one of them has been very active and willing to help whenever she can. There have been no affiliated transfers in the past three years.

III. Scholarship: We have a regular supervised study hall for pledges. Nine hours a week are required. Those making low marks are assisted by actives in their weak subjects. All actives failing courses are required to attend study hall a certain number of hours a week. We have a growing collection of examination questions, which help in the preparation for exams. Dates are limited for those with a low record; any girl failing a subject is limited as to the number of dances she may attend. A recognition pin is awarded to the pledge and the active making the highest grades. A "C" average is required in fifteen hours work for initiation. Rank of chapter among other chapters on campus in 1933 (spring), sixth; in 1934 (fall), second.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledge group has a president, secretary, and treasurer. The meetings are very orderly. The pledge supervisor attends each meeting, and offers suggestions. Reports are made by pledges; talks are given by actives. Pledges were required to write songs and give stunts before initiation. The pledge examination is given in sections, since it is believed that the material will be more easily retained if learned in parts. The executive council is composed of the president, corresponding secretary, the treasurer (when needed), and a representative from each of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes. A project for making money was prevented by university rules, which prevent selling in the dormitory, so we assessed for our contributions of $15 to the Settlement School, $5 to the Loan Fund, and $10 to the Endowment Fund. Gifts for local charities are given through the Y.W.C.A. The chapter contributed to a Panhellenic scholarship. The chapter has noticeably improved in internal organization during the year 1933-34. The national viewpoint has been developed by the visits of national officers, as well as other Pi Phi visitors.

V. Entertainment: 1933 (spring): At the time of installation we had a banquet and a reception-dance. We joined North Carolina A in a Founders' Day banquet, along with the alumnae of the two groups. We had a farewell picnic for our seniors, 1933-34: For rushing, we had two open houses, and four afternoon parties. After pledging we entertained the new pledges at breakfast. We introduced our pledges to the campus with a dance. We had a formal banquet after initiation. The pledges entertained the actives at a breakfast, and a Christmas party. We had a formal tea honoring our Province President. Many members of the faculty were special guests at this tea. Our alumnae and advisory committee entertained the chapter at a cooky-shine; our seniors were the honor guests. During the year, we had informal teas every other Friday, to which we invited alumnae, prospective rushees, friends in other sororities, and non-sorority friends.

VI. Chapter Room: Our chapter room is located in a section of the dormitory occupied by members of the chapter. In the fall of 1933 we bought a new rug, two chair covers, and new draperies. The pledges gave the chapter a table and a lamp.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: We invite our alumnae to chapter meetings, as well as to social functions. They are frequently called upon for assistance and advice. We have had only one unaffiliated member on the campus. We have made various efforts to form contacts—by invitations to teas, etc. We have four affiliated transfers.

III. Scholarship: 1931-32: All members failing one or more subjects required to attend study hall two hours two nights a week. Members of the active chapter rotated in supervising this work. Pledges required to report each week the number of hours of study. Sponsors required to coach pledges having difficulty with work. All members living in the house who pass less than four courses allowed only week-end dates. Recognition pin presented by the chapter to the initiate making the highest average. C average required for initiation by registrar and chapter. Actives failing to make a C average fined $1.00. Rank of chapter on campus has been: February, 1931, first; June, 1931, first; February, 1932, third; June, 1932, sixth; February, 1933, fourth; June, 1933, fifth; February, 1934, second—missing first place by one-hundredth of a point.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held once each week during first semester and once every two weeks during second semester. The pledge captain in charge of the pledges is under the supervision of one of the young alumnae. Pledge organization is similar to that of active chapter. They report their activities, grades, and hours of study. Each week they are examined on one province of chapter roll. Sponsors are responsible for the progress of their pledges, watch their grades, efforts to enter campus activities, and general standings on campus. During pledgship, prominent representatives of various campus activities speak to the pledges of those activities—concerning requirements for membership and other general information. The Executive Council is composed of four members: the president, and one representative from each of the three upper classes, elected by the chapter. Money for the Settlement School is raised by bridge tournaments and by the sale of articles from the school. Individual contributions are made to campus projects. Gifts are made also to community Christmas work. In 1931-32, the chapter sent $10.00 to the Loan Fund. Due to a large debt, we have been unable to give further. Each year "Arrowettes," containing pictures and information about the chapter, are sent to the other chapters in Gamma Province and to our Province President.

V. Entertainment: In accordance with the faculty ruling, the chapter has given no formal dances since the installation dance on October 8, 1931. House dances are given at regular intervals, to which rushees and members of each fraternity are invited. After pledging services, the new pledges are entertained with cooky-shines. Banquets are given in honor of the new initiates. For better acquaintance between actives and pledges, weekly "Pi Phi Hours" are held. For these gatherings, pledges, actives, alumnae and congenial rushees meet at the chapter house for tea. A tea was given in honor of the house chaperon, to which faculty members and wives, patronesses, mothers, alumnae, Panhellenic representatives, and the Dean of Women were invited. To improve the feeling between sororities two dinner guests are exchanged at regular intervals. Teas are given during the visits of national officers to the chapter. The chapter has been entertained by the alumnae with several parties. A Christmas "spend-the-night" party is given each year in honor of the pledges. Annual house party is held in mountains or at beach. Rushing consists of a formal tea and informal parties, Japanese circus, chatter-box, boating, lake, garden parties and picnics are given in honor of the rushees.

VI. Chapter House: Before 1932, the chapter had only a club room. In 1932 a five-room bungalow was rented. In 1933 the chapter rented a nine-room house, located within three blocks of the campus.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: A representative from the alumnae advisory board attends a chapter meeting once a month. Executive Council of chapter and alumnae advisory board meet once a month for discussion of mutual problems. Alumnae are invited to banquets, teas, initiations, pledgings, house party, etc.

There have been two unaffiliated transfers on the campus in the last three years. One lived at the chapter house and acted as special adviser during the year she was with us. The other showed no interest in the chapter, though she was invited to several social functions, and chapter meetings. There have been no affiliated transfers.

Scholastic averages are demanded: a pledge must have C or C plus, and an active 6 or B—. IV. Chapter Work: The pledges organize and elect officers who conduct formal meetings under the supervision of a pledge master, who directs the pledge study. Alumnae speak once a month to the group and the pledges themselves are responsible for short talks on subjects necessary for their development. An activity chart is posted and points are earned for campus, cultural and scholastic activities. Executive council is elected by the chapter and consists of the chapter president, 2 seniors, 2 juniors, 1 sophomore, and 1 freshman. Each member earned $1 for Settlement School. 2 $5 gifts were sent in memoriam and one $10 gift. $10 was donated for the Loan Fund. Christmas gifts were given to poor children. The value of the property is $30,000. During the three years, the back yard has been landscaped and is now a lovely garden with a white picket fence, shrubs, and lawn furniture. The house has been repainted outside and inside, a new fire room and cupboard has been built, a new study room with bookcases and tables has been added in the basement. New bed-spreads have been purchased for the sleeping porch which has been redone in light green. Through the kind donations of alumnae and patronesses, many new things have been added to the house—two chests of II B Φ silverware and dishes included. A new electric refrigerator also has been put in. Each Christmas, every member buys some useful article as a Christmas gift for the house. A new electric vacuum cleaner is one of our prized possessions.

III. Scholarship: We have a scholarship committee with a senior chairman and a junior and a sophomore member. This committee distributes cards to each girl at every weekly chapter meeting on which she is to record all the grades she has received in every course, and also the number of times absent from each one. The girls whose grades are not up to standard are brought before the committee to determine the cause and, if possible, be given immediate help. This is done through girls in the house tutoring the pledges or each other, through the tutoring of the alumna in charge of scholarship, or through conferences with the instructor in whose course the girl is having difficulty. Usually the conference is with the girl herself, but in extreme cases, a committee from the house interviews the instructor. The scholastic average of each girl is one of the three criteria on which assignment of rooms is based. We conform to the campus standard in observing closing and quiet hours. Supervision of pledge scholarship is carried on under the same system with even a closer check being kept. A considerable responsibility rests with the active girl who is mother of the pledge and to whom a report is made if the pledge shows any indication of falling grades. There is competition among pledges for grades and at the annual initiation banquet a II B Φ scholarship ring is given to the initiate with the highest average. If the initiate who receives the ring is an upperclassman, a gift is also presented to the freshman with the highest average in her class. A minimum of 15 honor points is required by the chapter for any pledge to be initiated. For the year 1931-32 the chapter ranked first among National Panhellenic Women's Fraternities on campus. We stood eighth for the year 1932-33, and the averages for this year have not yet been computed.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges are organized with their own officers and hold their meetings at the same time as the active chapter under the direction of the Pledge Supervisor. A certain portion of the chapter roll and questions on the fraternity in the pledge examination are given to them each week to learn and be tested on the following week. In addition, the Supervisor herself, another active, or an alumna gives a talk on some phase of the fraternity. The pledge ritual is used. The pledges are urged to take as many meals at the house as possible, and to spend whole week-ends when they can. Each pledge has phone and door duty about twice each month depending on the size of the pledge class, of course, for some pledge is at the chapter house each evening for this purpose. In addition, one active and two pledges are on tea duty each Sunday. These are certain responsibilities for the pledges, to be sure, but their main purpose is to make the girls feel closer to the chapter and better acquainted with the active girls. The Executive Council is composed of the president, vice-president, corresponding secretary, treasurer, rushing chairman, and one representative from the senior, junior, and sophomore classes. For the years 1931-32 and 1932-33 each active member contributed $5.00 per year to the Settlement School, and for the year 1933-34, each contributed $3.00. An attempt was made to earn this money whenever possible. Contributions are sent to the Loan Fund from the chapter treasury at certain periods throughout the year. Contributions to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment Fund are made in the usual form of $5.00 at the time of each girl's initiation. This resulted in a total of $110.00 for the year 1933-34. In addition an indirect aid is given to the Settlement School through the public sale of its goods at the chapter house each year about Christmas time, of which the alumnae are in charge. Contributions to local charities include gifts to Galens (hospital organization for the benefit of crippled children), to the University Fresh-Air Camp for under-privileged children, to the local Community Fund, to the Children's Theater to provide tickets for poor children, and to the County Tuberculosis Association. The girls give constantly of their energies to the projects of the Women's League which have as their purpose the payment of the debt for that building. The chapter is so organized that each girl living in the house has some particular duty even if it is only to check on long distance phone calls or provide candles for the table. Those living outside the house are given duties which concern the chapter but not the house management. Initiates are worked into positions of responsibility as early as possible.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: We started the fall season with open house after the conference football games. At a tea given by the active chapter and the alumnae our new chaperon was introduced to the campus. We later had a pledge tea, a dinner for the staff of the Dean of Women, four faculty dinners, three sorority dances, a Christmas party and breakfast for the pledges, a Mothers' house party, a Panhellenic breakfast, a cooky-shine for the Junior Girls' Play cast, an initiation banquet, a luncheon for the alumnae at the annual meeting of the Michigan Beta Association. 1932-33: The house was open to all our football guests again on the days of home games. We entertained the pledges of other sororities at a pledge tea, had two formal faculty dinners, a Dean's dinner, a formal party given in honor of the pledges, and one given by them for the actives, an open spring formal dance, a Christmas party for the pledges when they all stayed at the house over night, a Mothers' house party, cooky-shines for the seniors, the cast of the Junior Girls' Play. We participated with other sororities on campus in the Panhellenic and installation banquets, the exchange dinners, and the Panhellenic ball after which we had a breakfast at the house for the girls and their guests. We entertained the Michigan alumnae and Michigan A at a Founders' Day luncheon, and the Michigan Beta Association at luncheon after their annual meeting, 1933-34. We had the football teas, closing the season with a tea dance after the last conference game, and a tea for the pledges of other sororities on campus. We had a formal dinner for the members of the Advisory Board and their husbands, one for the Deans of the university, two for the faculty, and a dinner on Valentine Day at which the girls entertained their men guests, and two exchange dinners with other sororities. We attended the Panhellenic and installation banquets, had a breakfast after the Panhellenic ball, had two formal parties and an open spring formal dance, a Christmas party for the actives and a breakfast the following morning for the pledges, a Mothers' house party culminating in a family dinner on Sunday, a shower for our retiring president, a cooky-shine for the Junior Girls' Play cast, a party for the seniors, and guest-dinner night each week.

VI. Chapter House: The house is owned by the Michigan Beta Association and is valued at $50,000. Improvements and furnishings since May, 1931, include the following: a new roof, landscaping of adjacent lot owned by the association, four bathrooms tiled in black and white, four bedrooms completely refurnished, four studio couches and six inner-spring mattresses, painting and papering of bedrooms, enameling of the kitchen with addition of new tile sink and linoleum, refurnishing of the hall with a new desk and chair, love-seat, table and carpet; glass curtains, draperies, and shades for the dining room; refurnishing of the sun room in blue with putty-colored Venetian blinds and two new lamps, new love-seat, davenport, and fire-side chair in the living room; new wall hanging in the music room, new linen closet, two new vases, three mats, a footstool, a radio, weather-stripping of fourteen windows and one door, new silver, dishes, and glassware; new card tables with matching chairs, and planting of 200 tulip bulbs.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The spirit existing between the alumnae and the actives is exceedingly fine and is fostered chiefly by personal contact, though of course, there are other more mechanical means. Each year the chapter gives a luncheon for the alumnae attending the meeting of the Michigan Beta Association; they are invited to our initiation banquet, and this year we had a formal dinner for the Advisory Board members and their husbands. We try to make calls on the alumnae each year and always send them Christmas greetings. We ask them to all of our rushing parties, invite them to be chaperons at our parties, and celebrate Founders' Day with them. Their interest in us is manifest in a multitude of ways throughout the year. There have been four unaffiliated transfers on campus in the past three years. We have asked these girls to come to our formal parties, have had them to dinner, and invited them for several other special occasions like the Christmas party. We have affiliated seven transfers in the last three years.

III. Scholarship: We have used several methods this year to improve our scholarship. First of all, we recognized the fact that poor grades are not always to be blamed upon the pledges, so we have adopted a plan by which restrictions that are made for poor grades fall equally upon actives and pledges. We have experimented with study table for two hours in the evening for those students making below a C average required for initiation.

This has proved impracticable this semester, since most of the members of the chapter made the grades required. We have adopted the plan now of having those students, who make unsatisfactory grades, turn in outlines daily in the subjects in which they are doing the poor work to students majoring in those subjects, or to the members of the scholarship committee. We also keep a chart of the chapter grades, and we have an honor roll posted on the bulletin board. The chart shows the students whose work is unsatisfactory, and it shows exactly what subjects these people have done the poor work in. Pledges are not allowed to have dates during the week, except from 9:30 to 10:00 in the evening, and they are not allowed to have any dates at all during the week of final exams. No chapter average is demanded, but special awards are given each year for a good average. First of all, an award is given each year at the state luncheon for the chapter having the highest average for the year, and an award is given to the girl in the chapter having the highest average. A ring is also given to the senior maintaining the highest average for the four years. No comparative averages are given out by the college registrar.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held regularly each week, at which business meetings are conducted in the usual parliamentary form. The meetings are opened with the ritual provided for them, and are closed in the same manner. The first semester the meetings were devoted largely to pledge study and examination, but this was interspersed with talks by certain alumnae on social usage and attitude toward the active chapter, etc. The pledges also come into the active meetings of the chapter at the end of these meetings to attend what is known as Court of Law, at which announcements are made; and songs sung. This serves to bring actives and pledges together more, and, since the pledges are required to give little talks on fraternity news, it serves to keep both actives and pledges better informed about the things going on in the fraternity at large.

The executive council consists of: president, vice-president, corresponding secretary, treasurer, and underclassman representative.

Each year the chapter has a Christmas party at which we wrap gifts that we send to the Settlement School. We have learned that they particularly need baby clothes, so it has become our policy to send baby clothes every year. We contribute money to the Settlement School Fund as well. We also contribute to the Loan Fund, and to the local good cheer fund. We send money to the Endowment Fund, too. As to internal development, the chapter executive council, and the advisory board, aided by the suggestions of our visiting officers, try to take care of this aspect of our chapter, that is the plans for this development are formed here, and the chapter tries to cooperate to the best of its ability.

V. Entertainment: Each year our first social function is the dinner held for the new initiates, which is held the night of initiation. This usually comes a few days before school opens in the fall, since girls are required to be pledged for an entire year before initiation. We have an open house the night of pledging. We have also a formal dinner dance, a tea for the mother's club and patronesses, a rush tea, a formal rush dinner, a tea for the mothers of the actives and pledges on Mother's Day, a tea given by our seniors for the seniors in the other sororities, an informal pledge dance, a chapter Christmas party, a party given by our pledges for the pledges of the other sororities, a faculty May breakfast, a spring drive, and an alumnae party the night of graduation.

VI. Chapter House: Sororities do not have houses on this campus, but the college furnishes each of the four with rooms in the dormitory. Our rooms are on the southeast corner of the dormitory, on the first floor. Our rooms used to be on the third floor, but the administration decided to have us move this fall. We have four rooms, one large one in which we have our fraternity meetings, a telephone and card room, a hallway, and another room in which is the closet which contains the archives. The new rooms are really better than the old ones because we have more room than we had upstairs. We have acquired some new furniture in the past year. We have a new end table, a large chair and ottoman, a new lamp, and a new davenport. Also, the alumnae have given us new drapes and glass curtains, which light up the room considerably.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Monthly spreads are given by our alumnae, and each time the alumnae entertain one class. This serves to make all the members of the chapter personally acquainted with our alumnae, and fosters a better spirit for all concerned. Our closest contacts, however, are with the Advisory Committee, who hold frequent meetings with us in our rooms. The alumnae are invited to attend our chapter meetings, and they are frequently present. They are also given special invitations to our initiations and pledgings, and there is a very great interest in II B Φ in the town of Franklin, for we have a rather large number of resident alumnae, and a strong and active alumnae club.

III. Scholarship: To maintain a high scholastic rating every active must have a C average or forfeit her Arrow. If, by mid-terms, the girl has the required C in every subject, the pin is returned. A pledge must have a C average to be initiated. Freshman study table from 7 to 10 P.M. is supervised by an upperclassman every week night and Sunday. There are separate scholarship cups for the upperclassman and freshman making the highest grades. Our scholarship committee is composed of the one girl from each class who holds the highest average, the chairman being a senior. This committee enforces study hours for both actives and pledges, and checks on grades, helping those who are low. Rank: 1931, sixth place; 1932, sixth place; 1933, eighth place.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meeting is held every Tuesday night, at which time the pledge supervisor gives the freshmen their instruction. Their officers are elected in the fall. The freshmen and upperclassmen both have dinners. A dinner is given on Mothers' Day for the parents. The senior breakfast is held every spring. At Christmas, the freshmen give a cooky-shine for the upperclassmen. Every Wednesday night and Sunday noon dinners are open guest dinners for friends and faculty. This spring a tea was given for Miss Onken, our guests being alumnae and faculty members and wives.

VI. Chapter House: Our chapter house is owned by the chapter and is under the management of the alumnae club. Last summer the club supervised the remodeling of the second story study rooms and bathroom. The study rooms were also refurbished. The total improvements amounted to $6,000.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: We entertain our alumnae at dinners, call on them informally, invite them to our rushing parties and to initiation banquets.

Once a month the advisory board meets with the executive council. A representative from the alumnae comes to chapter meetings frequently. Our alumnae are always very cooperative in every way and we have especially appreciated their help in town rushing. There have been ten unaffiliated transfers on our campus, all of whom have been invited to dinner.

III. Scholarship: The chapter expects improvement in scholarship by particular concentration on the first six weeks of each semester. Study tables could not be held at the house or effectively at the school library. There are no fines for low grades and no social regulations for pledges except before final examinations. Each year at the annual scholarship dinner, held to honor the girls with the highest grades, two particular awards are given. A ring goes to the senior having the highest average for four years. A plain recognition pin is awarded to the girl who has increased her average most the preceding year. An outstanding pledge is allowed to wear the diamond recognition pin for one year after her initiation. This award, however, is not based entirely on scholarship. The freshman with the highest average has her name engraved on the chapter scholarship cup.

The pledge average must be 1.3 (about B-) for 15 hours for one semester. An active loses her vote if she falls below a C average in scholarship.

Indiana Γ ranked tenth on the campus first semester 1931-32 with 1.461; ninth the second semester with 1.553. She was sixth the first semester 1932-33 with 1.640; ninth the second semester with 1,6481. First semester 1933-34 saw an average of 1,583, the sixth in rating.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledge supervisor allows the pledges to conduct their meetings without the assistance of actives so far as possible. Members of other campus sororities are asked to discuss the history of their organizations before the pledge group. Alumnae explain phases of Pi Phi work, sometimes giving inspirational programs. Pledges sometimes make reports on Pi Phi history at their meetings. Pledge-active meeting is a forum for common problems and follows immediately the separate meetings of the groups. The meetings are weekly. Pledges prepare and serve a spread before each meeting under the direction of an active member.

Executive council includes two representatives from the three upper classes and the president, treasurer, and pledge supervisor. The officer may count as a representative from her class.

The chapter has a $25 pledge to the Settlement School for each year. In 1932, $37 profit on the state dance was given to the school by consent of the Indiana chapters.

The chapter keeps up a $25 yearly pledge to the Loan Fund.

Two families were cared for at two Christmas seasons. Seals were purchased for the benefit of the Marion County Tuberculosis Association. Contributions were made to the Butler clothes drive for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The Dart is the only chapter publication. It appears at the annual June dinner-dance as a chiefly humorous paper but also a record of the year's honors.

An activity dinner in the spring of each year honors the girl with the most activities with an award.

V. Entertainment: Annual events: open house, Christmas formal dance, June dinner-dance (formal), pledge dance for active chapter, Mothers' Day breakfast, Christmas party for seniors for the chapter, final formal dinner (rush), spring rush breakfast, tea (fall rush), major fall rush party, alumnae luncheon for active chapter, luncheon for chapter by Mothers' Club, breakfast for seniors by Mothers' Club.

Other events: Tea for national officer; 2 dinners for inspecting officers; Dads' breakfast on homecoming day, 1934, and Dads' Day, 1932; hard times dance (for two years); tea for chaperon; occasional dinners for faculty members and women's council members; social evening at the house for students of all organizations; students of other sororities at the house for lunch (begun 1933-34); monthly Mothers' Club meetings at the house.

VI. Chapter House: The house is rented. It is three blocks from the campus. The chapter has recently (since May 1, 1931) received as gifts or bought the following: a large Frigidaire, dining room suite, 3 chairs, 2 lamps, glass curtains and drapes for living room and dining room, silverware, 2 oriental rugs, 9 card tables, table and bed linen, glassware, kitchen aluminum, silver and pewter serving dishes, radio.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: There is alumnae-active cooperation in fraternity activities. The active chapter supports the annual alumnae play 100 per cent. Alumnae attend meetings, assist in rush, attend chapter dances, etc. They have made many of the above presentations to house furnishing.

The pledges presented a stunt and program for an alumnae club meeting.

There have been three unaffiliated transfers in the three-year period. One person could not afford to affiliate; one planned to return to her own chapter soon. There were two affiliated transfers in this period.

Pledges must spend all off hours during the day studying in the Purdue library. No girl is initiated not having an 80 per cent average, except with special dispensation. The point system went into effect in 1931 and no girl is initiated with an average lower than 3.6. Members are inactive in the chapter if grades fall below 80 per cent, and remain so until average is brought up. Members failing in one or more subjects must attend study hall four nights a week until the grade is brought up. Actives study in rooms three nights a week. A scholarship ring is awarded the senior having the highest average throughout her four years. A silver loving cup which was presented to the chapter by the alumnae is engraved with the name of the freshman having the highest scholarship average. This spring, 1934, the alumnae club is to present a $5.00 award to the pledge with the highest scholastic rating, and $5.00 to the pledge showing the greatest improvement in scholarship over last semester. There were ten other organizations for women on the campus in 1931-32-33. This year there were eight.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges meet each Monday evening while active meeting is being held. They are well organized and have their own officers, while a pledge sponsor maintains the connection between the active and pledge members. They follow the meetings as outlined in the pledge manual. Activities are encouraged and at the end of the year a jeweled recognition arrow is given to the girl who has proved herself most deserving. Executive council meets once a week in the interim of regular chapter meetings. It is elected by popular vote and is composed of the chapter president, one senior, one junior, one sophomore, and one member at large elected from the two upper classes. A circular was sent to all chapter alumnae during the last summer asking their assistance during fall rush, and to send in names of prospective pledges. III. Scholarship: Freshman grades are reported every month to the pledge sponsor, who sees that actives help those individuals who are in need of help in certain subjects. The pledges are all required to spend a certain number of hours a week at the library where actives supervise their study. These hours are increased or decreased according to the monthly reports for each individual. A diamond recognition pin is awarded each year to the pledge who is considered the most outstanding, in respect to grades as well as activities and fraternity spirit. At pledge court, grades are stressed. A "C" average is demanded for initiation. Pledges may have no dates for the two weeks before, or during, final examinations. The active grades are posted every semester. In a point system, grades were considered as well as activities, and all actives with lower than a "C" average were not permitted to come to our pledge dance the fall of 1932. We were not allowed to give our customary spring formal because of our grades. The grades were raised quite a bit. This last year, any girl who had two "D's" or one "F," at mid-semester, was to have her pin taken until she could show these grades to have been raised. A Pi Phi ring set with a ruby is awarded every year to the active who has made the highest grades for the year. For the semester September 1931 to January 1932, we ranked ninth; for the semester January 1932 to June 1932, tenth; for the semester September 1932 to January 1933, seventh; for the semester January 1933 to June 1933, fourth; and for the semester September 1933 to January 1934, sixth.

IV. Chapter Work: An active, the pledge sponsor, has charge of the pledges. The pledges elect their own officers and conduct their own meetings, the active merely being there to instruct and advise. Each week a committee is appointed to take care of the room, and one for the cooky-shine. They are the entertainers for cooky-shines. The girls write out their pledge lesson every week for correction. Every pledge mother writes a letter to the mother of her pledge daughter at the beginning of the year. The Executive Council is composed of the president, the treasurer, the pledge sponsor, and two other members elected at large. However, there must be one representative from each class. After initiation the freshman takes the place of the pledge sponsor. Missouri B has given $75 to the Settlement School and has sent toys there at Christmas. We also had some of the work from the school here for sale. We have given $30 to the Loan Fund and $75 to the Endowment Fund, paying off our pledges. We have given to the Community Fund, and we have given to the United Relief. Also, some of the girls have sold Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. The active chapter has each year assisted the alumnae in selling tickets to their benefit shows. Several scrap-books of chapter happenings are being kept by actives. The chapter usually enters in intramural sports. A pledge court is held to give the pledges criticism and praise. We have many cooky-shines throughout the year, at some of which we entertain prospective rushees. The chapter meets for lunch every Friday noon. We usually have two house parties every year. The actives help the Alumnae Club and the Mothers' Club when they entertain. Our Mothers' Club is quite large and very much interested in our work. They are giving a tea this year for the actives and their parents in honor of the senior girls.

V. Entertainment: In 1931-32: pledge dance, formal dinner dance, spring formal, 2 house parties, Mothers' Day Tea, Founders' Day banquet, homecoming tea, all day picnic and historical cooky-shine, special cooky-shines after pledging and initiation and Senior Ceremony (with alumnae), several rushing teas, four formal rush parties (one Tea, one Mothers' Tea, one Country Club party, and one Ring Ching party). In 1932-33: pledge dance, formal dinner-dance, 2 house parties, Mothers' Day Tea, Founders' Day banquet, homecoming tea, slumber party, Hal-low-en cooky-shine, Christmas cooky-shine, special cooky-shines after pledging, initiation, and Senior Ceremony, five formal rush parties (one Tea, one Mothers' Tea, one Morning party, one Spider Web party, and one Ring Ching party); In 1933-1934: pledge dance, formal dinner dance, spring formal, 2 house parties, Mothers' Day Tea, Founders' Day banquet, homecoming tea, open house at intersorority sing, Christmas cooky-shine, historical cooky-shine, special cooky-shines after pledging, initiation, and Senior Ceremony, rushing cooky-shines during the spring, five formal rush parties (one Tea, a Mothers' Tea, one Country Carnival, one Movie Star party, and one Ring Ching party).

VI. Chapter House: Sorority houses are not permitted at Washington University. Each sorority has a suite in the Women's Building. This room is our college home, where we keep our things, hold our meetings, and entertain. Our room is in the most attractive location, directly above the entrance on the second floor. Since May 1, 1931, we have had our walls tinted a very light green. We have also had some of the furniture recovered, and some new pillows made. This year we bought new cream draperies trimmed in brown, and we also have some new Venetian blinds and screens.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The Alumnae of St. Louis are very active. They take charge of the Founders' Day banquet, and they also prepare the food for our initiation and pledging cooky-shines. The actives are their guests for dinner after the Senior Ceremony. We have splendid assistance in rushing from our alumnae. During the summer they give luncheons for several rushees and several actives, while during formal rushing season they also help. At present an active-alumnae committee is at work on plans for next fall's rushing. The alumnae have given benefits for the Settlement School each year. They are always welcome at our house parties, our dances, our cooky-shines, and our meetings. The advisory board keeps in close touch with our chapter. Two of the members are elected for two year terms. The board is invited to our Mothers' Day Tea, as is the alumnae president. The chapter vice-president attends all alumnae meetings and reports the chapter activities. There has been one unaffiliated transfer on our campus, whom we have invited to various social functions. There have been no affiliated transfers.

III. Scholarship: The scholarship chairman keeps a complete record of each girl's average for each semester. Each semester each girl is held responsible for repeating the highest average on this record, unless this average is below the general chapter average, in which case her goal is the chapter average. If a girl's highest average is below the average on which the Panhellenic Scholarship Cup was awarded, it is suggested that she take this average as her goal. This scholarship program has been very successful, as since it has been in use our rank among the other sororities on the campus has been raised from 4th to 1st. At the end of the year the Alumnae Chapter awards a recognition pin to the pledge having the highest average, and the Active Chapter awards one to the active with the highest average, and to the active who has raised her average the most from the preceding semester. Each pledge mother keeps an accurate account of her daughter's grades, and sees that she obtains help in the subjects needed. The pledges' dates are limited, and they must have permission from their mother for any extra ones. During final week the pledges are allowed no dates at all excepting Friday or Saturday nights. Until this year the average required for initiation, and for voting in the active chapter has been 2.2, but we have raised it to 2.4. The average required by Panhellenic for initiation is 2.0. Our chapter ranked 4th in 1931-32, 1st in 1932-33, 1st in 1933-34, winning the Panhellenic Scholarship Cup the last two years.

IV. Chapter Work: Our pledge groups for the past three years have been very well organized and efficient. They meet once a week at the rooms for supper and have the business meeting afterwards. The pledge mistress, a senior, is present, and from time to time an active or alumna talks to them on special subject relating to Pi Beta Phi or the College. This year we have used the black mark system; after five black marks a girl's pledge is broken. This system proves very effective. No system excepting the advisory system was used the two preceding years. This last year we have adopted a new plan of adding two dollars a month to the pledge dues, this money in payment toward their initiation fee. In this way the initiation fee is made less a burden, it is easier to collect, and in case the pledge does not return it is refunded to her. Executive Council is composed of the president, vice-president, a representative from each class (the treasurer representing her class), the rush captain and the pledge mistress. We contributed to Settlement School $7.50 in 1931-32, $7.50 in 1932-33, $7.50 in 1933-34. This year we collected all sorts of books, and sent them to Settlement School. Every year the alumnae give a tea just before Christmas and sell Arrow Craft products. In the spring they raffle off an afghan from Arrow Craft and give the proceeds to Settlement School. We contributed to the Loan Fund, $7.50 in 1931-32, $7.50 in 1932-33, $7.50 in 1933-34. We contributed to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment, $12.50 in 1931-32, $26.00 in 1932-33, $15.00 in 1933-34. We contributed to local charities, $7.50 in 1931-32, $7.50 in 1932-33, $7.50 in 1933-34.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32; Rushing, annual Pirate party, progressive luncheon; freshman tea, formal reception; annual spring formal, Panhellenic formal dance, tea for our mothers, chapter informal dance, annual reception for the faculty, Sunday afternoon open houses, annual Studio Tea, 1932-33; Rushing, luncheon, formal tea, Pirate Party; freshman tea, tea for mothers, formal pledge dance, annual reception for the faculty, chapter informal house dance, annual spring formal dance, Christmas party for chapter members, annual pledge banquet, open houses, and cooky-shines, 1933-34; Rushing, Pirate party, Circus party luncheon, formal buffet dinner; freshman tea, pledge banquet, informal dance, informal tea for the faculty, tea for the mothers, annual spring formal dance, chapter tea dance, Christmas party for chapter, Manless Dance given by pledges for the actives; open houses and cooky-shines.

VI. Chapter House: Women's fraternities on Drury campus are not permitted to have houses in which the members live. We have new chapter rooms this year, nicer than any before. There are two living rooms, large hall, bath, and kitchen. They are located directly facing the campus. The various pledge groups have presented the chapter with a new tea service, two new lamps, a new lounge and numerous small things. We have some new china and are having some new draperies made. We have added five dollars to the local initiation fee, which is put into a savings account as a Sinking Fund for the house and furnishings. The fines for unexcused tardiness, absence from meeting or delinquent dues are placed in this account. This year the Alumnae added fifty dollars to this fund.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Our alumnae are invited to almost all social functions. They come to active meeting quite often, and to initiation, pledging, and the cooky-shines and open houses. We have the regular monthly meeting of the Advisory Board with the Executive Council at a luncheon, the actives providing the food one time and the alumnae the next. The alumnae always take an active part in rushing.

These cards are gone over several times a semester by the advisory board chairman on scholarship. Members are warned if grades are low, and the advisory board member tries to help them find the cause for the low grades. Study schedules prepared for pledges, under the supervision of actives were not satisfactory. The pledge receiving the highest average is given a recognition pin by the chapter. The sophomore making the highest average is given an award by the Louisville Alumnae Club. In order to be initiated a pledge must have a standing of 1. In 1931-32 Kentucky A ranked first on campus; 1932-33 ranked first; 1933-34 (first semester) ranked first.

III. Scholarship: Scholarship Committee composed of one member from each class (Senior as chairman) reports on all grades every quiz period. Fines 50c, $1.00 and $1.50 are placed on each active respectively for each semester grade of D, E, F and on the pledges a fine of 50c, $1.00 and $1.50 on each semester hour of the same. The Alumnae Club offers a reward of $3.00 to the active who makes the greatest improvement in her scholarship each semester. The Scholarship Committee Chairman has kept a list of the grades of each active from time of her entrance in school up to date and has arranged this in chart form so that a comparison of the individual's work can be made. A rule was passed requiring the lifting of all pins from the actives who failed to make at least a "C" average; personal pledges are given by the active for at least one hour's study a day on the subject in which the lowest grade was made. Pledges for initiation are required to pass every subject taken with an average of "C" in all courses carried in 1931-32, with an average of "C" in 12 hours in 1932-33, and an average of "C" in all courses again in 1933-34; 1931-32, first semester point average 1.43 (third on campus); second semester 1.37 (fourth on campus); 1932-33, first semester point average 1.48 (third on campus); second semester point average 1.50 (fourth on campus); 1933-34, first semester point average 1.41 (fourth on campus).

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges have own organization and officers, conduct regular weekly meetings and are trained in fraternity study and requirements by active sponsors. An Alumna is present at each meeting and explains some phase of the fraternity life. The Pledge Supervisor's Manual is followed as nearly as possible. At the time of initiation a cup is presented to the best all-round pledge. The Executive Council is composed of the fraternity president, 1 member from Sophomore, Junior and Senior Classes, and chairman (all elected by the Chapter). The committee meets once a week before each Chapter meeting, and once a month with the Alumnae Advisory Board. A Mothers' Club was organized during 1932 and has helped a great deal in making initiation robes, curtains, and in rushing, etc. They entertain the Seniors each year at a formal Tea, to which are invited the Faculty, Patronesses, etc. $50.00 was pledged to the University Endowment Fund ($30.00 by the Active, $10.00 by the Pledges, $10.00 by the Mothers' Club). Individual donations to the Chattanooga Community Chest 100%; Christmas and Thanksgiving Baskets to the poor; contributions to the American Red Cross, flowers for the Annual Hospital Day. 1931-32: $4.00 to Undergraduate Loan Fund, $25.00 to Settlement School, and $9.00 to profit on magazines sold; 1932-33, $10.00 to Undergraduate Loan Fund and $20.00 to the Settlement School; 1933-34, $25.00 to Undergraduate Loan Fund and $28.00 to Settlement School.

VI. Chapter House: Chapter house, valued at $1,500.00 is owned by Alumnae Club and rented by active chapter for $15.00 per month. Since last report in 1931, a back porch and kitchen have been added to the house, with furnishings for each. The house was repainted in 1932 and new shrubbery set in; new rugs, two radios, draperies, telephone desk, several bridge and table lamps, an electric clock, and small novelties have been bought; and the dressing room has been redecorated.

The Alumnae Club give the active chapter at least two parties—an initiation cooky-shine and a formal tea during rush season, generally. The active chapter sends one member to the Alumnae meeting once a month. There has been only one unaffiliated transfer on the campus during the last three years; she has been asked to all social affairs and ritualistic ceremonies and is welcomed to the regular meetings at any time.

I. Membership: 1931-1932: Initiates 13, active members 21; 1932-1933: Initiates 7, active members 18; 1933-1934: Initiates 9, active members 23; resident alumnae 44; total membership up to May 1, 1934, 67.

II. Honors: Two honor graduates, 2 members Scroll (petitioning Mortar Board); 31 members honor roll; 1 class treasurer, 2 class secretaries, 1 class valedictorian; 15 members magazine staff; 11 members newspaper staff; 35 members Y.W.C.A.; 5 members of Y.W.C.A. Cabinet; 4 members and 2 offices Alpha Lambda Delta (honoratory freshman scholastic fraternity); 1 member Phi Sigma Iota (honoratory language fraternity); 5 members French Club; 6 members and 3 offices Pi Gamma Mu (honoratory social science fraternity); 10 members Belle Lettres; 2 members Eta Sigma Phi (honoratory Latin fraternity); 5 members and 3 offices Chi Delta Phi (honoratory literary fraternity); 5 members Classical Club; 1 member Sigma Sigma Pi; 1 member Newtonian; 1 member Theta Chi Delta (honoratory chemistry fraternity); 2 members International Relations Club; 3 members and 2 offices of Co-ed Council; 1 member winning Co-ed Cup; 1 member Athletic Committee; 5 members Glee Club; 7 members Paint and Patches (dramatic club); 4 maids in May Court; 3 members in Annual Beauty Section.

III. Scholarship: If a B average is not maintained by both actives and pledges, they must attend a study hall for two hours, four afternoons a week which is supervised by the Chairman of the Scholarship Committee. The official Pi Beta Phi scholarship ring is awarded to the active receiving the highest grades for one school year. At initiation banquets a loving cup is presented to the new initiate having made the highest grade during the preceding semester. Fines for not attending study hall are $.50, and $.25 for being late. To be initiated one must have an average of C. Alabama Alpha ranked first in 1931-32, third in 1932-33, first in 1933-34, among social competing fraternities.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledge meetings of Alabama Alpha follow the form in the Pledge Manual. The president of the pledges has charge of the meetings, appoints committees for cleaning the room and for parties of which the pledges have charge. In this way the meetings make the pledges feel independent and they become used to what is required of them in regular chapter meetings later. The old pledges help the pledge supervisor with the adjustment of new pledges. The pledges enjoy inspirational talks from members of the fraternity other than the pledge supervisor. Interesting and instructive articles in the ARROW are read to them to advantage. Alabama A sent fifty dollars to the Settlement School. 1932-33 the Alumnae Club gave a Benefit Bridge party for the Settlement School. The active chapter helped in selling tickets for the party. May 4, 1934 the active chapter gave a Benefit Bridge party for the Endowment Fund. The whole chapter worked hard in selling tickets and in getting prizes donated. Thirty dollars was made for the Endowment Fund. Representatives of the chapter sell poppies every year on Armistice Day. Five dollars was given this year to the Community Chest.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rush parties; Mothers' tea and kitchen shower; informal dance; steak fry; open house by pledges for actives; picnic on Founders' Day; 1932-33 Scavenger Hunt; rush parties; formal dance; Sunday afternoon tea for faculty and friends; picnic on Founders' Day; house party; 1933-34: Picnic and treasure hunt; formal rushing tea; formal dinner party given by pledges; treasure hunt; cooky-shines; Founders' Day banquet; Sunday night supper given by pledges; initiation banquet; house party.

VI. Chapter House: Alabama A rents a suite of rooms in the new Stockham Woman's Building. It is a new addition to the campus which is used exclusively for sorority rooms. Complete new furnishings have been bought by the chapter, with the exception of the kitchen utensils given by the Pi Phi mothers. New things are being added continually.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: An Executive Council consisting of one sophomore, one junior, and one senior meet once a month with the Alumnae Advisory Board. Their advice is sought on all important matters and their interest and help is invaluable.

III. Scholarship: Chapter scholarship is under the direction of a scholarship committee appointed by the Executive Council with the approval of the chapter. This committee keeps a card-file of grades and checks grades with the registrar making reports to the chapter at the end of each six-weeks period. Florida A requires the highest average for initiation on the campus—a C average with one B—and a recognition pin with one pearl is awarded at the initiation banquet to the pledge with the highest scholastic and fraternity grades. Actives must have a scholarship average free from condition or failure or forfeit their pin until probation grades of two Bs and 3 Cs are made. The chapter has tried the use of study tables, but we have not found them very successful. Help by the pledge sponsor has proved more effective. Florida A ranked third among the socially competing fraternities for women for 1931-32; first, for 1932-33; and third for first semester, 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held every Wednesday evening at the same time as the active chapter meeting, under the supervision of the pledge captain. They have their own organization, a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, and activity chairman. Pledges are given frequent tests both oral and written to prepare them for their official examination; in this way they are shown how to study and the necessity for perfection in their final examination. An activity card-file is kept by the chairman of the activity committee and an award given at the initiation banquet to the most representative pledge, which award is based largely on the number and variety of activities. At least two meetings a month, pledges are required to give some form of entertainment—original fraternity songs, skits, and talks on etiquette and fraternity subjects. In this way the chapter can unearth their variety of talents. Every effort is made to make the pledges feel that they have a part in fraternity life. Individual sponsors have proved very successful in orientating pledges into college life. The chapter Executive Council is composed of the chapter president and one representative from each class. Florida A has made substantial contributions to the Settlement School and the Endowment Fund as well as smaller contributions to the Loan Fund. The chapter cooperates with the alumnae club in its annual bridge for the benefit of the Settlement School. All members are required to attend, the pledges assisting in the serving and with candy sales. We have also sponsored two Little Theatre plays featuring members of Florida Alpha in which we made about sixty dollars. By careful economy and the interest on government bonds owned by the chapter, we have been able to dispense with local dues for the last term. This has greatly lightened the financial burdens of actives. Our Panhellenic representatives have been largely responsible for introducing a more economical plan of rushing to be put into effect this fall.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Annual progressive dinner party—a tour of the world; Chinese costume informal; spring rush breakfast at DeLeon Springs; 2 Cooky-shines; an interfraternity "Good Will" supper in the fraternity room; 2 initiation banquets; script dance at Daytona Beach; 5 monthly get-togethers; one faculty-patroness tea in honor of Mrs. Putman; tea and dinner for Rebekah Stewart; informal pledge supper; bowery party given by pledges for the pledges of other social fraternities; Founders' Day luncheon with Florida Γ, and DeLand and Orlando alumnae clubs. 1932-33: Rushing parties: annual progressive dinner party carrying out the theme of the four seasons; Chinese informal dinner dance; 2 open dates; buffet supper for pledges; faculty-patroness tea honoring Zeta Province president; dinner for Miss Stewart; Homecoming cooky-shine; 2 initiation banquets; beach rush party; Founders' Day luncheon with DeLand alumnae club. 1933-34 Rushing parties: our twentieth annual progressive dinner party—An Evening in Paris; informal dinner dance; formal rush tea. Buffet supper after informal pledging; 2 initiation banquets; interfraternity invitational formal dance; bridge given by pledges for members of the active chapter; after-meeting spread given by the local alumnae club; party in fraternity room for Miss Stewart; Homecoming cooky-shine; bridge get-together in the fraternity room.

VI. Chapter House: Florida A has the use of a large room on the second floor of the Carnegie library. We have had the dark floors sanded and all woodwork re-decorated, giving the room a much more modern appearance. This fall we purchased a new studio couch and window-seat cushions.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae are invited to meetings and all initiation and pledging ceremonies and to all social functions, especially cooky-shines. Alumnae from the entire state have taken a great interest in the rushing season, not only in being present to help us in active rushing, but writing letters and entertaining rushees in their own towns. Letters are written to all alumnae for Homecoming, giving them a program of events and an invitation to our annual Homecoming cooky-shine. Local alumnae have at all times been most gracious in giving us the use of their homes for rushing, teas, and small parties. Our Founders' Day luncheons are usually arranged for us by the alumnae. Alumnae Advisory Board has been very helpful in its meetings with the Executive Council, advising us and offering constructive criticism. There have been two unaffiliated transfers during the past three years.

III. Scholarship: All chapter grades sent to chairman of the scholarship committee and read in chapter meeting. Those making six hours or more below a C average are placed on academic probation, which means the removal of their going away privileges. Members failing to make 21 quality points were put on social probation from Monday through Thursday. Study Hall is kept four nights a week for pledges. A chart is posted upon which the freshmen record the number of hours spent weekly in study; also they hand in an outline at the end of the week covering the material they have studied. If they fail to study the prescribed number of hours, 25, they have their social privileges removed. The average demanded for the chapter members and the pledges is a C average. Rank of the chapter during 1931-32 among the socially competing fraternities was 1,638, with the group average 1,641; for 1932-33, first semester 1,487, with group average 1,540, second semester 1,499, with group average 1,671; for year 1933-34, first semester, 1,396, with group average 1,520.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges have their own meetings and elect their own officers. They are supervised by the pledge mother who meets with them weekly and examines them on fraternity study. The Executive Council is composed of the president, treasurer, and one representative from each class. The chapter gives $50 yearly to the Settlement School, $25 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund, and $25 to the Endowment Fund. At our annual Christmas party actives and pledges contribute toys and clothing which are given to charity. There are no contributions made for college funds for endowment or buildings. Eight chapter meetings each year are devoted to parliamentary procedure.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Teas and rushing parties for rushees; Open House at Thanksgiving; Christmas party; breakfast dance during junior-senior prom; tea for Mrs. Putnam; morning dance during freshman-sophomore hop; 2 alter dinner coffees; 6 cooky-shines; initiation breakfast; breakfast following Founders' Day ceremony. 1932-33: Rushing parties; after-dinner coffees given twice monthly for members of faculty, Dean Beckham, patrons, and patronesses, and alumnae during April and May; Thanksgiving dance; 5 cooky-shines; initiation breakfast; Founders' Day breakfast; Valentine party given by pledges; tea for chaperon. 1933-34: Reception for rushees; pledge banquet; 8 after-dinner coffees; Thanksgiving dance; tea for Miss Stewart; initiation breakfast; Pi Phi-Chi Omega joint dance during junior-senior prom week-end; farewell banquet for chaperon; 5 cooky-shines; breakfast following Founders' Day ceremony.

VI. Chapter House: Florida B owns the chapter house and it is valued at $15,000. It is located on College Avenue one block east of the college. The living room, sun parlor, and kitchen have been refurbished and re-decorated. The lawn and hedges have been replanted. Flowers, new benches, and a swing add to the attractiveness of the garden.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae are urged to attend all Pi Phi functions. The chapter is in close touch with the alumnae advisory board as they have joint meetings with Executive Council monthly, and their advice is sought on all important matters concerning the chapter. We have had one affiliated and 2 unaffiliated transfers on this campus in the past three years.

III. Scholarship: The scholarship committee reads chapter grades at meetings following each of the three semesters. A member must keep a C average to retain her voting privilege. If her scholarship is low the second term, she forfeits her pin. The pledge grades are approved by the office, the grades being given in statement form rather than in numerical numbers or letters. Pi Beta Phi stood seventh for 1931-32 and third for 1932-33. In the fall term of 1933 there were 3 Pi Phis on the honor roll of twenty.

IV. Chapter Work: Our pledge trainer is elected by the chapter and she is chosen for her ability to get along with girls, temperament, and fraternity knowledge. The pledges elect their own officers and hold meetings each week under the supervision of the trainer. They have a written test at each meeting over the work learned and different members of the chapter give talks on the aims of the fraternity, Settlement School, Loan Fund, Endowment Fund, and other interesting facts of the fraternity. A recognition pin is presented to the most outstanding pledge. The executive council is composed of the chapter president, the vice-president, the treasurer, one member of the senior class, one junior and one sophomore. Usually a benefit bridge is given each year for the Settlement School and the Endowment and Loan Funds. Each year at Christmas time baskets of food and clothing are provided for two or three poor families. Pi Beta Phi offers $5 for a dramatic prize to be given to the person showing the greatest ability and progress in dramatics. We also give $15 which is combined with the same amount from a local fraternity for the Sprague Oratorical Prize, a contest which is held each year in memory of Dean J. H. Sprague.

V. Entertainment: We give a tea each year in honor of our Pi Beta Phi officers. Other teas are given during the year for visitors, alumnae, and faculty. We have several informal dances at the chapter house and at the end of the year, we give a formal all-college dance in honor of our graduates. A buffet supper is usually given in the beginning of the year for the faculty and new students. The pledges entertain all other fraternities and sorority pledges, and also give either a dance or supper for the actives and their guests.

VI. Chapter House: Florida I does not own a chapter house, but the college maintains a house on the new unit cost plan. A room and bath has been added to the house on the first floor for the chaperon.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae are invited to all meetings, initiations, cooky-shines, ceremonies, and social functions. Our alumnae advisory board is composed mostly of alumnae from Orlando and therefore are in close touch with the chapter and are able to keep us informed of the activities of the Orlando Alumnae Club. Since May 1, 1931, we have had one transfer who was affiliated with the chapter.

III. Scholarship: For three years study hall was held three nights a week, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, from 7:00 until 9:00. However, this semester Panhellenic Council abolished study hall in favor of a new system, whereby any girl, pledge or active, receiving a D or below in mid-semester or final grades, must study an hour each day for every such mark. As yet the scheme remains to be tried, but it is expected that each sorority be responsible for seeing that the rule is lived up to. Every sponsor takes interest in helping her pledge daughter keep up in her grades and personally supervises her when she is low. To be initiated a pledge must have a 1.3 average, and the highest ranking initiate receives a scholarship ring at the initiation banquet. Pi Beta Phi pays the way for those girls eligible to the Freshman scholarship banquet every year. When a girl is unable to afford initiation dues into Phi Beta Kappa, the chapter takes over the expense. Pi Beta Phi has compared with national Panhellenic fraternities on the campus as follows for three consecutive years (first semester): third, first, and eighth.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges hold weekly meetings, and elect officers at the beginning of the year. These officers see that announcements from the chapter reach all the pledges and take charge of calling them up when there is some function. If anything of especial campus interest occurs, an active talks to the pledges about it in pledge meeting. In an effort to have the pledges come up to the house as often as possible, weekly duties are assigned, such as keeping up the scrap book, and telephone duty. The executive council consists of the president, 3 senior representatives, 2 junior representatives, 1 sophomore representative. In order to make money for the Settlement School, magazine subscriptions were taken, and this year the new plan of selling stockings was inaugurated. Contributions are made each year to the Loan Fund and to the Endowment Fund. Local contributions were made to the Student Loan Fund, Community Chest, and to Mrs. Greeley's (dean of women) personal fund for needy girls. Besides those contributions a "breadline meal" is served for one day in the spring, and the difference between the minimum cost for the meal, and the regular cost per day is given to the Summer School for Industrial Workers' Fund. Tickets to Matrix Banquet and to the Intramural Banquet are bought each year for the girls who are invited to these functions. This year a building fund has been started. Pi Beta Phi has quite an extensive library of used books which are sorted according to author. This library is used by many of the girls in the house, and whenever possible girls are encouraged to leave their books for the general use of all. The exam. file has been kept up to date and is added to each semester. At times the faculty has contributed recent exams which were not on file. Group attendance has been encouraged as much as possible, such as the getting of tickets together for the football games, and to Haresfoot, and Wisconsin theater.

V. Entertainment: An annual faculty-student tea is given and faculty members are frequently invited over to the house for dinner. Each year the pledges give a tea for pledges in other sororities. Open-houses are held a week or so after pledging to which fraternities are invited as a group. Other functions include buffet suppers after the football games; Mothers'-Fathers' week-end; five dances (formal) in 1931-32 and 1932-33, and four formal dances 1933-34; senior farewell dinner; slumber party for the pledges; spring picnics; Milwaukee alumnae luncheon; and Founders' Day.

VI. Chapter House: Our chapter house is owned by the resident alumnae and is valued at $40,000. The mortgage was paid off in full this year, and the Pi Beta Phi house is the only one on the campus to be given A+ rating by the inspectors. Twenty-three girls live in the house. Several additions have been made to the house: last fall a smoking room was built in the basement, and the ping-pong table, gift of the class of '35, was put down there. A bathroom was built in on the first floor in the cloakroom and a container for paper cups for drinking was placed there. New furniture for the living room and the porch has been bought, as well as Simon's mattresses for each girl in the house. On the second floor fire escape, a burglar alarm was installed. This spring the house is being painted again.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae are invited to the chapter house for all the functions, particularly rushing and the dances. Each year the alumnae and active chapter take turns giving the Founders' Day banquet. Occasionally the alumnae give a dinner or a tea for the active chapter, and from time to time alumnae are invited to chapter meetings to speak. Six transfers have been on the campus in the last three years, three of whom have lived in the house. One of the transfers was affiliated this spring. The other transfers are always invited to all the functions at the Chapter house, and to initiation.

III. Scholarship: A chapter by-law requests all members having Ds to spend as many study hours in the library as they have hours of D, and there is a fine of fifty cents for every hour of D, which is to be paid back at the end of the semester if the D is brought up to a C or above. A C average in the number of hours which is required by the college for the year is the average demanded by the chapter for pledgee and active averages. Pi Beta Phi ranked first among the women's fraternities on the campus 1931-32, second during 1932-33, and third for the first semester of 1933-34. The scholarship committee keeps close account of the chapter grades and offers suggestions and help as the occasion demands.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges meet once a week for pledge study under the supervision of the pledge master, a senior. The officers and older girls give talks about the fraternity and help in the pledge study. Each pledge class elects its president and treasurer. The Executive Council consists of the president, treasurer, pledge master, and representatives from the initiated classes—usually just three. Each year we send a gift of at least ten dollars to the Settlement School from money we earn by food sales, bridge parties. We have made no contributions to the Loan Fund or the Pi Beta Phi Endowment. At Christmas time it is the custom to provide for one or two baskets given by the charity organizations of Beloit. Each student contributes to the Beloit-Turkey fund drive which is held every spring. Our chapter publication, the Arrowette, is issued semi-annually, and the members contribute to its content. In appointing our committee members, chairmen, and officers, we try to rotate among the girls as much as possible so that all girls may have an equal chance in chapter work and personal development. We find satisfactory cooperation in interest by this policy.

V. Entertainment: Rushing parties, 1931-32: Dixie supper-sing, studio tea, and formal banquet; 1932-33: Dixie supper-sing, studio tea, and rose banquet; 1933-34: Old Heidelberg supper-sing, tea dance, and rose banquet. Breakfasts on Mothers' Day, Fathers' Day, and Homecoming. Christmas shower for the house and Founders' Day luncheon with alumnae; Panhellenic tea for Delta Gamma, Kappa Delta, and Delta Delta Delta national officers; supper sing for Mrs. Webster, province president, and Mrs. Stebbins, assistant to the Grand President; supper and bridge for the alumnae; 2 informal dances; 2 formal dances, 1 a dinner-dance; Holiday Hop at Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago; all-college open houses; annual reunion banquet at commencement; we average a supper sing for the chapter a month.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house is owned by the chapter. It is valued at $10,000. We use the first floor and rent the second floor to outsiders, since the college regulations forbid group girls to live in their houses. This last year we combined the living and dining room by cutting out the partition. A new chair, several new lamps, and other accessories have been added to the house. At the Christmas sing each girl gave some little necessity for the house, which has made it more attractive as well as more comfortable.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The Christmas sing with the alumnae is always looked forward to each year. Usually we make the sing a gift shower for the house. We celebrate Founders' Day together, either a luncheon or a sing. At the end of the year we have a formal banquet for all initiates and returning alumnae. Through these social events we learn to know our alumnae quite well. During rushing they are anxious to help us and enjoy it as much as we do.

III. Scholarship: The scholarship committee is composed of one girl from each class, who has the highest grades. The committee averages grades and reports twice a semester. The chairman gives talks in meeting. A recognition pin is awarded to the active with most improvement and a scholarship ring for the active with the highest grades. A pledgee with the highest grades receives a bracelet. Any pledgee or active with grade below C has supervised study. Pledgees must have C plus average for initiation. The ranking of Illinois Alpha among other fraternities for women was: 1931-32 First semester, 1. Second semester, 3. 1932-33: First semester 3; Second semester, 4. 1934: First semester, 4.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledgees are organized under their own officers, with a pledge captain. They pay dues, carry on meetings and conduct study hours. They have frequent conferences and special contacts with their sponsors. Each year the pledgees give a tea for the actives, sponsors and alumnae and also a dinner-dance for their own group. Executive Council is made up of the president and one representative from each class. Generally each active has given as much to the Settlement School as she felt she could until this year when we budgeted $15. For several years we have given $5 to the Loan Fund. Lately in our chapter meetings we have been sponsoring ten minute programs and find that they add to the interest and the worth of the meetings.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Entertained at tea the alumnae and the Campus Club, which is composed of women faculty members. The fall formal was a Twelfth Night dinner and had as its motif an Old English Christmas with traditional mistletoe, tree and plum pudding. Rushing parties included a "Broadcast of the Ham and Egg Breakfast Club" and a formal dinner in the form of a Pi Phi wedding. Illinois A joined with Illinois B-D at a formal dinner in celebration of Founders' Day, 1932-33: Tea for alumnae and faculty members of the campus. Homecoming luncheon and a formal dinner-dance at Christmas time. Rushing parties—a clever Hawaiian luncheon and a formal dinner-dance. Celebrated Founders' Day with Illinois Beta Delta chapter at a luncheon. The initiation banquet was a May Day dinner-dance. Entertained the mothers, patronesses, and alumnae at a tea. The spring party was a supper-dance at the Country Club. 1933-34: Illinois A opened their social year with a dessert bridge at the home of one of the actives. Entertained the alumnae and Campus Club at a tea. Homecoming luncheon and a formal dinner-dance at Christmas time. The rush parties consisted of a luncheon and a dinner dance. After initiation a formal dinner was held. In honor of Mrs. Stebbins a luncheon, dinner and tea were given. Following the tea the alumnae gave a cooky-shine in honor of Mrs. Stebbins. They joined with the Galesburg group in celebrating Founders' Day. The spring party was a dance at the Country Club.

VI. Chapter House: There are no women's fraternity houses at Monmouth. We rent a room in the Terrace, the faculty women's dormitory. We are the only group which has a room. This year the room was redecorated and with new curtains, rugs and pillows the appearance has been greatly improved.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The chapter holds regular meetings once a month with the advisory board. Alumnae often attend chapter meetings. Pledges and actives make calls upon the alumnae. The alumnae entertained us at a cooky-shine for Mrs. Stebbins and gave us a cooky-shine after pledging. They are entertained at the dormitory for dinner and at a tea in the fall. There are usually some alumnae at every important social affair. On Monmouth campus we have had no affiliates and only one girl has affiliated with another chapter in the last three years.

III. Scholarship: To promote better scholarship within the chapter a scholarship committee exists. This is composed of one member from each class. Pledges are required to do two hours of study in the library under active supervision each day. Pledges report their grades for the previous semester at a chapter meeting after the opening of the following semester. Pledges from whom a D or an F is reported at the end of the six-weeks period have dates on Friday and Saturday nights only and have two hours of supervised study each night. The scholarship committee reports Ds and Fs after the first six-weeks period. Grades of all chapter members are read at mid-semester. The index required by the chapter for initiation is 3.00 (or straight C average). A fine of fifty cents is imposed for each hour of D or F received. A junior scholarship cup is given each year to the junior having the highest scholarship average. Among socially competing fraternities for women on this campus, Pi Phi ranked third in 1931-32; third in 1932-33; second for first semester of 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: A pledge supervisor is placed in charge of all pledges. She attends and directs their weekly meetings. Each senior girl is pledge mother of one or more pledges. The pledges meet weekly as a group and have their own officers. Their pledge work is given them at these meetings by their pledge supervisor. The executive council which is elected by the chapter, is composed of the president, the treasurer, one senior, one junior, and one sophomore. The class members and the officers are sometimes combined. Each year the chapter unites with the town alumnae to give a Pi Phi Benefit Dance, the profits from which go to the Settlement School. Ten dollars is budgeted each year for the Loan Fund and ten dollars is budgeted each year for the Pi Phi Endowment. The chapter supports the Y.W.C.A. charity contributions, tag day sales, Christmas seal sales, and Christmas and Thanksgiving charities. We have taken away a good deal of disciplinary treatment of the pledges and given them cause to feel more a part of the group of actives than we did in the past. It has aided exceedingly in our internal development, while they are pledges and when they become actives.

V. Entertainment: There are a number of social affairs given each year by the chapter. Informal rushing gatherings, such as picnics; final Fall rushing party, usually a formal dinner with clever entertainment by the actives; a homecoming cooky-shine for chapter, pledges, and alumnae; the Benefit dance for the Settlement School; a faculty tea; a Founders' Day banquet which was formal this year. We unite with Monmouth College chapter and all alumnae. It takes place in either Monmouth or Galesburg. The awards and stunts are presented after the banquet; Mothers' Day cooky-shine; a Winter Formal, a spring party which includes a cooky-shine to which we ask our escorts; and also the cooky-shines following pledgings and initiations. In 1932 we joined with the Tri Delt chapter here and gave an informal dancing party. In 1933 we joined with the Phi Mu chapter and gave an informal dance with them. These functions promoted an exchange of good feeling between the chapters. This spring, 1934, we included our fathers in the luncheon cooky-shine always given for the mothers on the Saturday preceding Mothers' Day. It was one of our nicest gatherings. In an endeavor to make Mrs. Stebbins' visit with us this spring a bit more pleasant, we entertained her as our honored guest at a tea and a cooky-shine. We invited six representatives from each other social sorority on campus. These were chosen by their own chapters. Our patronesses, our advisory board, our alumnae club officers, and our Province President, Mrs. Webster, were also invited. There were, of course, numerous other cooky-shines throughout the school year and also summer rushing parties such as luncheons and teas.

VI. Chapter House: Knox College does not permit women's fraternity houses.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Our alumnae are all invited to attend our formal, our spring party, and all pledging and initiation services. A contact is brought about when the advisory board meets with the executive council once a month for the purpose of watching and aiding in the progress of the chapter. The alumnae entertained the juniors this year in order to become better acquainted with them. Plans are under way for maintaining closer contacts between alumnae and actives next year.

III. Scholarship: Study halls, supervised by actives, are held daily for the pledges. The weekly grades of the pledges are posted and from the grade charts it is determined what pledges need tutoring. The tutoring is done by actives—one active for each field of academic study. At midsemester, those pledges who receive "D" or "F" notices are required to study on week-end nights under the tutelage of an active. Actives receiving low notices are also required to attend study hall. Pledge classes are urged to maintain high grades in order to receive the all-campus pledge class scholarship cup. The pledge class of 1932-33 was successful in its efforts and won the cup. An incentive to the striving for high grades is the award made to one pledge and one active by the local alumnae club. The club awards $10 to the pledge and the active with the highest grades. For initiation into the chapter, a pledge is required to have at least a "C" average. Actives must have a "C" average in order to be eligible for voting privileges. Out of twenty-one women's fraternities the chapter has ranked 21, 10, 11, 6, and 12 during the past five semesters. The pledge class during the first semester of the last three years has ranked 13, 1, and 6.

IV. Chapter Work: A detailed system of charts have been instituted for the purpose of furthering the participation of actives and pledges in all phases of college life. The charts record the scholarship and activities of each individual. In addition, a black mark system is charted for the pledges. Black marks are given for failure to attend meetings, discourtesy, and other similar offenses. Five black marks for one pledge necessitates her attending study-hall upon a week-end night. The pledge class, meeting at the same hour as the active chapter, elects its own officers who conduct the meeting for the first part of the hour. The remainder of the meeting, under the leadership of the pledge supervisor, is devoted to a study of Pi Beta Phi, its history, its ideals, its value, and its personnel. The history of other fraternities are also studied. Actives that are juniors and seniors serve as sorority mothers to the pledges and guide them through their pledgship. The Executive Council is composed of the chapter president, two seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore; by precedent, one junior is always the pledge supervisor. Two rummage sales and one bake sale have been held within the past three years in order to raise money for the Settlement School and the Loan Fund. Children from the Northwestern University Settlement are entertained yearly at Christmas time. Clothes are also sent to them. The Whir of the Arrow, a semi-annual chapter publication that is sent to all alumnae, has grown in size and interest, and its readers follow it eagerly. This year, during the week before initiation, the prospective initiates lived in the chapter house in order that they and the actives might know each other better. During the week, daily quiz section upon the history of the fraternity and the fraternity's songs were held. A cooky-shine was held the night before initiation. The week was considered very successful and will become a yearly event.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: 3 open houses after football games, 1 Dads' Day dinner, 1 luncheon for mothers, 1 tea for house mother, 1 pledge banquet, 1 initiation banquet, 1 post-prom dinner for men, 2 teas for visiting chapter officers, 1 winter formal held in house, 1 Sunday tea dance given by Mothers' Club, and 1 spring formal held at the Medinah Country Club. 1932-33: 2 open houses held after football games, 1 dance held in honor of pledges, 1 tea for house mother, 2 teas for visiting officers, 1 luncheon for mothers, 1 Dads' Day dinner, 1 post-prom dinner for men, 1 dance given by pledges for actives, 1 winter formal held at the Drake Hotel, 1 spring formal held at Exmoor Country Club, and 1 senior farewell. 1933-34: 2 open houses, 1 tea for house mother, 1 tea for mothers, 1 tea for visiting officer, 1 dance for pledges, 1 winter formal held at the Sovereign Hotel, 1 post-prom dinner for men, 1 interfraternity ball dinner for men, 1 scavenger hunt given by pledges for actives, 1 Bowery party given for initiates, 1 spring formal held at Exmoor Country Club, and 1 senior farewell.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house, evaluated at $80,000, is owned by the Illinois Epsilon House association. The inside of the house was repainted in 1932 and new furnishings were gotten for the library and living room. A new smoking room was completely equipped and new kitchen equipment was placed in the house in the fall of 1933. Porch furniture and an awning have been added to the house within the past three years.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The chapter house is open to alumnae at all times. After the homecoming football game a tea is given in honor of all alumnae of the chapter. Once a month the alumnae advisory board meets with the executive council. During fall rushing the alumnae take an active part in the rushing parties. The Founders' Day luncheon is given jointly with the alumnae. There have been six unaffiliated transfers on Northwestern University campus in the last three years. Each fall a tea is given for all transfers and they are cordially invited to come to the house at any time. No transfers have been affiliated.

III. Scholarship: A scholarship committee composed of a representative from each class works with the scholarship chairman on the advisory board to help improve the chapter scholarship. The first semester everyone gets a signed report of her grades from her instructors after the first 8 weeks of school. Everyone receiving a "D" or an "E" is brought before the scholarship committee which makes any suggestions for more intense study that it sees fit. Pledges study every evening from 7:30 until 9:50 under upperclassman supervision with the exception of Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings. Saturday evenings are free for all pledges, and Friday evenings are free except for those who receive a "D" or "E," and they study from 7:00 until 9:00 after which they are free. In case of more than one "D" or "E," the pledge must study Sunday afternoon in the library from 3:00 to 5:00 also. Sunday evenings pledges study from 8:15 until 9:50. Pledges spend all free hours from 8:00 A.M. until 12:00 noon and from 1:00 P.M. until 3:00 P.M. in the library on all week days except Friday when they are there only in the morning. Each pledge is allowed two free hours a week when she does not have to study during the regular study hours. One black mark is given for cutting a study period, and when a pledge has five black marks, she appears before the advisory board and executive council who assign her some extra duty to perform that will be constructive both to her and to the chapter. Except where extra study hours are imposed for poor grades, pledges have dating privileges from Friday noon until Sunday evening at 8:00, and on Wednesday evenings for band concerts. Our advisory board scholarship chairman tabulates all grades and arranges them on a chart showing upward and downward tendencies in grades for as long as a girl remains in school. Every two weeks scholarship cards are passed around, and each girl puts down her grades for the past week, and her approximate grade in the courses so far. Pledges receiving a 4.2 average at the 8 weeks are released from day study in the library. Junior and senior pledges with a 4.0 average receive upperclassman privileges. A 4.0 or above entitles a pledge to a Wednesday evening date over and above the concert privilege. Upperclassmen receiving lower than a 3.0 average for three consecutive semesters lose their pins until their scholarship is brought up to at least 3.0. A recognition pin is given the pledge with the highest average, and some similar recognition is given the sophomore and junior with the highest average in her respective class. A senior ring is given the senior with the highest average. A 3.2 average is required for initiation. Chapter stood eighth, fifteenth, fourth, sixth, and first among national Panhellenic women's fraternities at the University of Illinois.

IV. Chapter Work: While upperclassmen are in chapter meeting, the pledges meet with their adviser who gives them their weekly assignments of chapter material to learn. The first part of the meeting is given over to writing the fraternity material assigned at the previous meeting. Each pledge has a notebook which is handed in to the adviser to be corrected after each meeting. The pledge adviser helps pledges to know the meaning of Pi Beta Phi, helps them to become interested in college activities, and records the number of classes cut each week. The assistant pledge adviser takes any announcements from chapter meeting to the pledge meeting, and acts in the absence of the adviser. Executive council is elected by the chapter and is composed of the president, one other senior, the pledge adviser, two juniors, and one sophomore. One hundred dollars is always given to Settlement School. Ten dollars is given to the Loan Fund, and twenty-five dollars is given to the Community Chest each year, and personal donations for the Christmas gifts for one family. Chapter contributed to the senior memorial fund. Pledges must be in bed by 11:00 except on Friday and Saturday evenings. One late permission a week is allowed if necessary to study for an examination. Girls who are ill must call a doctor, visit the Health Service Station, or go to the student hospital. Continued efforts are made to make a closer bond between sponsors and their freshmen, and each sponsor is in a measure responsible for any act of her freshmen. An attempt is made to provide every girl in the chapter with some chapter duty so she may feel herself an integral part of the whole.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Breakfasts, luncheons, dinners, tea, and house party were given for rushees, Dads' Day banquet, homecoming banquet, Founders' Day banquet, Mothers' Day banquet, pledge tea dance, formal dinner dance. VI. Chapter House: The house is owned by the Illinois Zeta corporation of Pi Beta Phi. It is valued at $85,000. Since May 1, 1931, a lounge has been built on the third floor, a permanent roof has been placed over the back terrace, a water softener and a stoker have been installed, a complete banquet service for one hundred and forty-four purchased, and interior decorations and furnishings made where needed.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The chapter is kept in quite constant touch with the alumnae who come to the chapter house frequently. The alumnae are invited to attend initiation and initiation banquet each year, and homecoming banquet. On Founders' Day they entertain the chapter at the chapter house with a buffet supper. The alumnae are invited to rushing parties, and the prospective pledges are approved by the advisory board before they are pledges. The pledges are also passed in again by the advisory board before initiation. Alumnae are invited to chapter meetings, and the seniors are invited to attend the last alumnae club meeting of the year. The advisory board meets once a month with the executive council and the housemother to discuss problems pertinent to both groups. The chapter and the alumnae club have a tea or bridge party each year to promote the friendship of the two groups and to sell Settlement School goods.

In the past three years there have been about eighteen unaffiliated transfers on the campus. They are invited to Founders' Day dinner, and to transfer dinners the first Tuesday in every month. They have been invited to the chapter dances, and special social functions. There has been one affiliated transfer in this period.

From 7:30 until 9:30 on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights, freshmen study at the house under supervision by actives. Friday nights dates are forfeited by freshmen making a D in any subject; Sunday night may be substituted for this. Actives who fail to make the required 2.5 average must forfeit their voting privilege. Actives majoring in the different departments see the professors of the freshmen in those departments, fill out cards concerning their grades and progress, and report to active meeting every two weeks. A scholarship committee will take over these duties with a chairman from the senior class and a member from each of the underclasses. For the five semesters included in this report (excluding the present semester) Pi Beta Phi has compared with the national Panhellenic fraternities on the campus as follows: sixth, fifth, fifth, fifth, fourth.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges are organized, and have weekly meetings independent of the regular active meetings. A pledge supervisor directs their fraternity study and examinations, and gives to the pledges black and white marks which have been awarded at active meeting. An upperclass sponsor is selected for each pledge, her purpose being to act as a counsellor and guide to the pledge, and to grant her special privileges when necessary. A house manager is in charge of posting and checking on all pledge duties. Executive council is composed of the chapter president and one member from each class, elected by the chapter. The alumnae advisory board and the house chaperon meet with the executive council once a month before active meeting. Bakery sales, benefit bridges, and a silver tea have been given to increase the fund earned by the sale of magazine subscriptions for the benefit of Settlement School, the Loan Fund and the Pi Beta Phi Endowment Fund. The girls have served several different times at a popular tea room near college, getting a percentage on the sales made during the day. $5 is donated annually to the Endowment Fund. A gift of $5 is made annually to the Decatur Community Chest, and for the last two years the Christmas party and exchange of gifts in the chapter has been deferred in favor of giving the money to a needy family.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rushing; summer house party for rushees, tea, hay-rack party, formal dinner and pledging banquet; pledge dance; Christmas dance; spring formal dinner dance; Founders' Day luncheon; June breakfast with alumnae; spring tea; pot lucks throughout the year with alumnae, rushees and college guests. 1932-33: Rushing; fall house party, open house tea, hay-rack party, formal dinner and pledging banquet; Christmas pledge dance; all-college tea; Founders' Day luncheon with alumnae; June breakfast with alumnae; tea for all pledges on the campus; spring formal dinner dance; pot-lucks, cooky-shines and buffet supper with alumnae; homecoming dinner and stunt program. 1933-34: Rushing; summer house party, open house tea, Raggedy Ann preferential party; A Century of Progress formal dinner, and formal pledging dinner; all-college tea; Thanksgiving pledge dance; spring formal dinner-dance; Founders' Day luncheon at Decatur Country Club with Miss Onken as the speaker; entire active chapter attended the initiation of Mrs. Balfour at Illinois Z, and the reception which followed; June breakfast with alumnae; buffet supper for mothers and fathers; potluck with Δ Δ Δ and one with Α Χ Ω; entertained high school seniors during the week-end at Millikin for music and home economics scholarship tryouts; potlucks and cooky-shines with the alumnae throughout the year.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house is owned by a corporation of active and alumnae stockholders and is valued at $18,000. Furniture is owned by the corporation of which Miss Jessie Lockett, house chaperon, is the treasurer. An awning for the side porch was given by the pledges of 1932; the pledges of 1933 gave porch furniture to be used also in the sunroom; and the pledges this year gave new spreads for the beds in the dormitory. A beautiful silver revolving serving dish was sent to the house by the mother of one of the pledges. The house was newly painted a year ago. Because no girls have lived in the house this year, a special interest has been taken by town girls to use the house more than usual. Groups have moved out for week-ends and sometimes for a week. The pledges spent a week-end in the house together, the result being that they have new pride in and feel a real responsibility for their chapter house. The mothers are not formally organized, but they stand ready to do any necessary sewing for the house and to help during rushing to relieve the actives from extra responsibilities.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae have an open invitation to attend active meetings, and several times during the year different alumnae speak at active meeting on such topics as Settlement School, scholarship, fraternity responsibilities, national viewpoint, etc. The list of resident alumnae is called for invitation to initiations, cooky-shines, rushing parties, pledgings, formals, etc. The advisory board does a grand part by bringing together active and alumnae thought and experience. Especially in the last year has there been a wonderful spirit of cooperation between actives and alumnae, and at rushing time the alumnae are indispensable. Last fall, an active was in charge of each rushing party with a group of alumnae working on each committee. Alumnae and actives always combine their observance of Founders' Day, and they also have a June breakfast together.

III. Scholarship: The study requirement for actives and pledges is a minimum of 18 hours per week, with one and one-half hours deducted for a three hour laboratory period. Study charts are handed in each week at the meeting. The penalty for failure to make up study hours by the end of the second week is a restriction to two nights out a week, excluding meeting night. Pledges not obtaining average must study 20 hours weekly, and an additional hour for each supplemental. Recognition pins are given to the active member obtaining the highest average, and the active whose average shows the greatest improvement. This year the alumnae presented an award to the pledge with the highest average. The pledge average is 60 per cent, with one supplemental allowed. The active members are obliged to maintain a chapter average of 65 per cent, the penalty for falling below this level being a restriction of social privileges (local Panhellenic ruling). Manitoba A has been in the upper third consistently. Rank among socially competing fraternities for women, 1931-32; third; 1932-33; third. For 1933-34, first term, the average was five points above the highest women's fraternity's average of the preceding year.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held once a week under the guidance of a pledge supervisor and her assistant, one of whom is an alumna. Talks from individual active and alumnae members at meetings provide contacts with the chapter and alumnae club. The sponsor is held responsible for her pledges progress in every way, and keeps in close contact with her, encouraging her to study and to enter activities. The executive council consists of the president (ex-officio), two seniors, two juniors and one sophomore. Active chapters on this campus are not allowed by college authorities to hold charity events, the alumnae doing most of the charitable work. We sent $10.00 for the Settlement School, $5.00 for Loan Fund each year, and $25.00 for the Endowment Fund 1933-34. In the spring of 1932, $86.45 from the annual Valentine's Day tea was used to complete payment for a quartz lamp for the Children's Hospital (the ruling against charity events not yet having been made). For the past two years the active chapter has been making quilts for the Back to the Land Movement, which sends families out to farms and prevents others from coming into the city. The alumnae club donated a picture toward the furnishing of the girls' common-room in the new arts building.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: New Year's reception, Valentine Tea, formal dance, initiation and Founders' Day banquets, mothers' tea, sisters' tea; 1932-33: tea-dance for pledges, New Year's reception, formal dance, initiation and Founders' Day banquets, mothers' tea, sisters' tea, sisters' tea, Sunday teas on alternate weeks, and formal dance for pledges, New Year's reception, formal dance, formal initiation banquet at which Miss Onken was our honor guest, Founders' Day banquet, mothers' tea, sisters' tea, Sunday teas on alternate weeks, and inter-society receptions. Gifts from the pledges to the active chapter have been: a coffee table, an electric clock, and a fire-side stool. An alumna presented a Swiss etching.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae have an open invitation to everything: pledgings and initiations, social affairs and meetings. The majority of alumnae are residents of Winnipeg, and very much interested in the active chapter so that there is no difficulty in keeping close contact. In rushing they are invaluable. In the Christmas holidays they give the pledges a party. The initiation and Founders' Day banquet have been in their charge for the past few years. The alumnae give the annual charity dance in the fall. There have been no transfers, affiliated or unaffiliated, on this campus.

III. Scholarship: We have a scholarship chairman and an assistant, who obtain the grades for all actives and pledges every six weeks, and these are read in meeting. We have a study table two hours a night, three nights a week for all pledges, those with a 2.0 average and above being excused. A girl with a deficiency notice active or pledge, is placed on a scholarship campus for a six weeks' period. A jeweled badge is presented to the initiate with the highest average, and a recognition pin is given by the alumnae to the graduating senior with the greatest improvement in scholarship. A girl going out the night before an examination is fined $10. The required pledge average is 1.3 and the required active average is 1.0. Our active chapter ranked eleventh among the eleven women's fraternities, first semester, 1931-32; seventh, second semester, 1931-32; second, first semester, 1932-33; first, second semester, 1932-33; third, first semester, 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: For our pledge work, we try to select the best possible pledge leader, who supervises pledge meetings. However, the pledges have their own officers who take charge of the business meetings. Every other week, a pledge reports on some topic concerning our national viewpoint, in joint meeting. Pledges are also required to eat dinner at the house on meeting nights, and serve at one luncheon each week. They are often required to give programs for affairs such as Founders' Day, High School Week, and our Christmas party. They are also placed on committees with actives for rush week, parties, and dinners. Our executive council is composed of the president, vice-president, treasurer, junior and sophomore representatives. We hold an annual Arrowcraft tea, the proceeds of which go to the Settlement School. We contributed $5.00 to the Settlement School, and $5.00 to the Endowment Fund. Last year we paid off the total of our $200 note to the stadium fund. Last year we published the Arrowette, which was sent to all actives, pledge and alumnae members. It contained chapter and university news, and a directory of all North Dakota A members, actives, alumnae, and pledges. This year we are publishing one too, but making it more of a rush news letter to use next fall. We keep two charts, one showing all chapter activities, and the other, an extra-curricular activities chart.

V. Entertainment: Traditional social affairs: freshman tea, given by the pledges for all freshman girls; North Dakota A birthday party, to which patronesses and alumnae are invited; a Christmas party to which patronesses, mothers, and alumnae are invited; a mothers' dinner; a fathers' dinner; a brothers' dinner; faculty reception; patron and patroness dinner; homecoming luncheon; Founders' Day formal banquet; spring picnic; senior farewell breakfast; fall informal "Shindig"; spring formal open houses for each fraternity on the campus. Special social affairs: 1931-32—a sweetheart's dinner on Valentine's Day; 1932-33—a St. Patrick party; 1933-34—a dinner dance for all members and their guests; Rushing: we have teas, open houses, luncheons, dinners, an informal and a formal party the first week of school. We also have dinners each year for various faculty members, many townspeople, the Dean of Women, and special out-of-town guests. We also give teas and dinners for our Province President, Mrs. Buxton, each year during her visit and we gave a formal reception this year for Miss Onken. Each year we also entertain a number of Pi Phis from the Winnipeg Chapter who usually come down for our spring formal.

VI. Chapter House: The house was built in the summer of 1928 and is owned by the Pi Beta Phi House Association, from whom it is rented. The house is valued at $28,000, the lot at $1,500, and the furniture at $4,000. Special gifts and additions the last three years have included a radio, pillows, curtains, and glassware. The actives, alumnae and pledges combined their Christmas gift to the house and had carpets made for the stairs.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Our alumnae attend many of our cooky-shines, parties, pledgings and initiations, besides other special functions and dinners. The alumnae club, during rushing, serve the dinner at our formal party, as well as attend many of the luncheons, dinners, and teas. Our advisory board has been especially helpful this last year in helping us clear up some of our problems. This last year they also sponsored a dance recital by Mary Tree Watson, at which time nearly $150 was taken in.

III. Scholarship: A junior or a senior, appointed as scholarship chairman by the executive council, supervises chapter scholastic matters.

Compulsory study hall has been used for all pledges and actives who fail to make a "C" average. Recently Minnesota A has been experimenting with a different method; that of study schedule. This plan affects only pledges. The schedule of study hours is turned in each week to the respective sponsors. Fines are imposed for all marks below a "C" average. All mid-quarter marks, as well as final grades are recorded by the scholarship chairman. Joint scholarship meetings of actives and pledges are held at intervals throughout the quarter at which time the pledges express their difficulties and actives discuss with them various methods of study. Actives that are best fitted are assigned to work with certain pledges, and offer helpful suggestions to the group. Also the sponsors watch their respective pledges and give such help or advice as is necessary.

Limitation of nights out is a penalty for low scholarship in addition to fines. The scholarship chairman urges those having low grades to make a special effort and also gives talks every second week which serve as incentives and reminders. The name of the freshman girl having the highest scholarship is engraved on a scholarship loving cup which is presented by the alumnae at the Founders' Day banquet. A "C" average in a quarter's work is a requirement for initiation. Minnesota A ranked eleventh among the women's fraternities on the campus in 1931-32. For 1932-33 Minnesota A ranked eighteenth; for 1933-34 Minnesota A ranked eleventh.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges meet every week under the supervision of an active and an alumna who is actively and enthusiastically interested in chapter proceedings. The pledges meet at the same time that the active meeting is in progress and have their own officers who are elected at the first meeting of the group. The first half of the period is devoted to pledge study. The pledges are required to cover a certain amount of pledge study each week, and after a short discussion and the answering of questions that may arise, the girls are tested on material assigned. The pledge president presides during the last part of the meeting when class affairs are dealt with, weekly duties are assigned, and scholarship and campus activities are discussed. The pledges put on stunts or skits for various occasions. Each pledge is also privileged to question her sponsor on any fraternity work she does not understand or other individual problems. The pledge supervisor gives the pledges kindly criticism whenever it is necessary. The executive council is composed of the president, vice-president, pledge supervisor, activities chairman, scholarship chairman, sophomore, junior, and senior representatives. The chapter contributes to the local Community Fund each year. Minnesota A has contributed to the Settlement School, Loan Fund, and Endowment Fund, and the local peace conference. Pi Beta Phi has been cooperating by individual help and contributions with the annual tuberculosis seal campaign carried on each year by W.S.G.A. A corresponding secretary to the advisory board has been an internal development at Minnesota A, the purpose being to send a set of minutes of each meeting promptly to the Advisory Board. The Board knows all the details of Chapter business and have more material from which to advise. The practice in our Chapter has been to broaden our group as much as possible. We have had, aside from business meetings each Monday night, a report on current events, a speaker, a discussion on disarmament or peace, on international relations or the League of Nations, slides on Yellowstone Park, or book reviews or readings.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Fall informal dance; Homecoming open house for alumnae; rushing parties (1 week of formal rushing); Dads' Day luncheon; traditional "Snowball Formal"; Christmas party given by the alumnae for the actives for the purpose of collecting gifts for the unfortunate; winter informal pledge party; a pre-Junior Prom formal dinner; theatre and slumber parties on pledge night; Founders' Day banquet; spring formal; house party for girls; Mothers' Day luncheon; senior farewell dinner. 1932-33: Formal rushing parties; tea for house mother; Homecoming open house for alumnae; Dads' Day luncheon; informal party; Christmas party; tea for Mrs. Buxton, province president; "Snowball Formal"; dinner for the dean of women; informal dance; Founders' Day banquet; Mothers' Day luncheon; spring formal; Sunday buffet suppers; senior recognition dinner. 1933-34: fall rushing parties; tea for new house mother; open house dance after a football game; homecoming tea for alumnae; Dads' Day luncheon; informal dance; Christmas costume party; tea for province president; informal dance; dinner for dean of women; "Snowball Formal"; tea in honor of Mrs. Onken; Founders' Day banquet; Mothers' Day luncheon; informal sports dance; benefit bridge for convention; senior recognition picnic and dinner; pre-senior ball formal dinner; spring formal.

VI. Chapter House: Our house is owned by the alumnae and it is valued at $45,000. It is rented to the active chapter and accommodates sixteen girls and a chaperon. Improvements have been made by the alumnae and Mothers' Club. The additions for the past three years are: a rug in the library, shrubbery, a radio, glassware and Chinaware, refectory tables, end table, two lamps, household linens and articles, a picture, two chairs, a lighted arrow, bedroom rugs, and new chapter benches.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae are given charge of the opening rushing tea at the beginning of fall quarter and it always is successful both as a tea and as a means of holding alumnae interest. The alumnae give a Christmas party at the house every year at which old contacts are renewed and new contacts are made. The alumnae and actives unite again at a luncheon during the Christmas holidays. The alumnae are invited and some come to the house for cooky-shine and meeting afterward. The alumnae are invited to all the active parties and various ones are chosen as chaperons. A special invitation is extended at least once a year to the alumnae to attend an initiation. The Advisory Board meets at the house once a month to give us suggestions and to maintain a close relationship between alumnae and actives. A tea is given in honor of the alumnae after the homecoming football game in the fall. There have been five unaffiliated transfers on our campus during the last three years and two affiliated ones. All transfers are invited to the house for lunches, Monday night cooky-shines, and active parties.

Pledge grades were reported at weekly meetings. A scholarship committee investigated class grades each month. Tutoring was given by actives. Two points above straight "C" average are required for initiation. One scholarship ring is given annually. Iowa Alpha has ranked third years ago we gave $75.00 to the University Scholarship Fund.

This year we held a "clean up" day for the chapter, and every member was kept busy cleaning the grounds, rooms, etc. At noon a picnic lunch was served out on the lawn. We hope to make it an annual function. We have made an effort to improve our chapter singing this year and we have held a singing practice before meeting every Monday night.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rushing parties, mothers' day luncheon, tea dance for pledges, two formal dances, faculty dinner, Christmas party, Halloween party, tea dances for fraternities, tea for chaperon, prom breakfast, cooky-shine, buffet suppers, brothers' dinner, senior breakfast, Thanksgiving dinner, announcement parties—are all annual affairs. 1932-33: Little sisters' party, advisory board dinner, guest night for other sorority members every Wednesday night, rushing parties, announcement parties, a dinner attended by Kappa freshmen while our freshmen attended a dinner at the Kappa house, teas for other sororities, mothers' day luncheon, tea dance for pledges, tea dances for fraternities, buffet suppers, faculty dinner, Christmas party, Halloween party, chapter fry, prom breakfast, cooky-shine, three formal dances, tea for the chaperons, brothers' dinner, senior breakfast—were social functions for last year. 1933-34: Open house on Colorado U. day, freshman formal dinner, announcement dinners, tea for pledges, rushing parties, teas for other sororities, tea for chaperons, three formal dances, prom breakfast, Christmas party, Halloween party, Thanksgiving dinner, buffet suppers, brothers' dinner, mothers' day luncheon, little sisters' party, advisory board dinner, guest night once a week, tea dances for fraternities, faculty dinner, cooky-shine, senior breakfast, Founders' Day convention—have been the social affairs for the past year.

VI. Chapter House: Our chapter house is owned and valued at $60,000. Two years ago the lower floor of the house was redecorated—new furniture, new draperies, and the dining room furniture reupholstered. New curtains and bed spreads were bought for bedrooms. The mothers' club has given us linen table cloths and napkins and lamps for the study. This summer the house is to be redecorated in large part.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: We try to cooperate with our alumnae in every possible way. They are more than welcome to come to any function we hold in the house. They are invited to our teas, our formal dances, and all other occasions in which we feel they would be especially interested. This summer we are holding a tea in Denver for all of our alumnae. All meetings of the advisory board and scholarship committee are held in the chapter house and one meeting of the finance committee. The Boulder alumnae give a party for our freshman class and for our senior class every year.

We have had eleven unaffiliated transfers on our campus in the last three years; we do not affiliate girls from other chapters. However, they have their meals in the chapter house; and when the house is not too crowded, they may live in it. Although they are not required to come to chapter meetings, they generally do attend. This year we have five unaffiliated transfers, whom we like very much, and who seem to be very happy here.

Pledges must study ten hours per week in the library and five hours per week at home. Active members receiving a grade below a C must fill out cards weekly stating test grades and the number of cuts made.

Study tables: There are study tables in the library for pledges.

Social regulations: There are none.

Special awards: The girls having the highest record for the first two years of her college work has her name engraved on the sophomore scholarship cup. A senior scholarship ring is given. Scholarship is considered in choosing the freshman for the pledge cup.

Pledge and chapter averages demanded: For initiation pledges must make three C's. Actives must make two B's and one C or the equivalent.

Rank of chapter among socially competing fraternities for women: 1931-32 seventh place; 1932-33 sixth place; 1933-34 fifth place.

IV. Chapter Work: Especially successful methods for pledge training and meetings: (a) Talks on various phases of Pi Beta Phi such as parliamentary rule, Settlement School, etc., by an alumna, an active or the pledge sponsor. (b) Open discussion and questions on the subject. (c) Frank discussions about any phase of college. (d) Study for pledge examination. (1) Province—Examination. Each week the pledges write out two new provinces at meeting. Occasional reviews are given. Examination. Take two or three questions at a time; write answers uniformly in a notebook. A review is given before the test.

Contributions made for college funds for endowments or buildings: Ten dollars per year is paid to the Dean Schuler Fund. Money from a vaudeville is given yearly for a Student Union Building.

There are no chapter publications.

V. Entertainment: Early in the school year we entertain the administrative officials at a dinner. Every quarter a series of faculty luncheons are given.

To better foster the interfraternity and sorority spirit and acquaintances the pledges give a tea for the representatives of sorority pledge groups, and the chapter sponsors a series of suppers for the fraternity men. Open houses once a month also serve as a means for the new girls and men to become acquainted.

Other years the mothers have been invited to a dinner as are the fathers, but this year the girls serenaded all of the mothers on Mothers' Day. A book review and tea given for the Pi Phi Settlement School Fund is enjoyed by numerous relatives, alumni, and towns people. The homecoming alumnae are welcomed at a tea given at the chapter house.

All efforts are concentrated on three formal dances making them exceptionally lovely functions. In the fall of the year the pledges sponsor the pledge dance. At Christmas time Colorado Beta joins in with Colorado A chapter in a Yuletide formal. The spring dinner dance is also an outstanding affair of the year's social calendar.

This year Colorado B had the unusual pleasure of sharing the responsibility of sponsoring the extremely successful state convention at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

VI. Chapter House: The house is rented. The only notable improvement since May 1, 1931, was the installation of new linoleum.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Through various means the alumnae interest and contact has been successfully maintained. Perhaps the advisory board is the best avenue of contact, but to each of the alumnae meetings several of the active members are invited to talk about rushing and other activities of the chapter. Also the homes of the alumnae are often used for functions during rushing and at other times in the year.

Committees of actives and alumnae are combined for functions. To all social functions the alumnae are made welcome, and the chapter makes every effort to maintain an active interest for their part of the alumnae.

III. Scholarship: Study hall is held every evening from 8 until 10 o'clock for the freshmen. For those failing to make their grades the first semester and those actives having F's, study hall is held in the afternoon from 3:30 until 5:30 with an active in charge. Anyone having from one to five hours of D must spend one hour a day in the library. For one to five hours of F must spend two hours a day in the library. Week night show privileges and a Friday night date are taken for Fs. Week night show privileges are taken for Ds. Friday night dates are taken for more than two unexcused cuts a month. A fine of five dollars is imposed at the end of the semester for anyone receiving an F. Quiet hours are observed from one until three o'clock, except on week-ends. For high scholarship special privileges are given. Freshmen who make B averages are given some active privileges. To the freshman making the highest grades a scholarship cup is awarded at the annual Founders' Day Banquet. A scholarship ring is given to the active making the highest average. A pledge must have a C average to be initiated. For three consecutive semesters Kansas B held first place in scholarship. This gave her first recognition on the new scholarship plaque which is found in the memorial library. The last semester Kansas B ranked second in scholarship, not being one point behind the group that ranked first.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meeting is held at the time of regular fraternity meeting. They are under the direction of the freshman supervisor and an alumnae pledge supervisor. The executive council is composed of the president, one sophomore, one junior, one senior, and the pledge supervisor. An advisory board composed of four alumnae members meets monthly with the executive council. During the last three years the chapter has sent $201 to the Settlement School. Money has been raised by rummage sales, an auction, by sponsoring picture shows, and selling stationery. Every year at Christmas time the chapter sends to all alumnae a bulletin of chapter affairs. Alumnae members are very active and interested in chapter affairs. They attend active chapter meetings regularly and are very instructive by giving us helpful suggestions.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rush week parties, open house for new pledges, freshman dance for upper classmen, Halloween party for freshmen, football banquet, Christmas dinner and party. Christmas party for poor children, and cooky-shine for new initiates and alumnae. Mothers' Day dinner, mothers and fathers of town girls for dinner, Founders' Day banquet, brothers' day, dinner for dean of women, dinner for patrons and patronesses, tea for our new housemother, president and his wife for dinner, spring party at the country club, house party for rushees, senior farewells. 1933-34: Rush week entertainments, open house for freshmen, fall formal, Thanksgiving dinner, Christmas dinner and party, Christmas party for poor children, cooky-shines after pledging and initiation, football banquet, members of advisory board and their husbands for dinner, Founders' Day banquet at hotel, sweethearts' dinner, dinner for dean of women, president and his wife, patrons and patronesses, brothers, town girls' parents, spring party at country club, house party for rushees, and senior farewells.

VI. Chapter House: Kansas B owns her house. It is valued at $48,000. New house furnishings include: living room furniture, dining room chairs, new curtains in the bedrooms, light fixtures in living room and dining room, silver ware and glass ware, a Frigidaire, and rugs. Last fall all the walls were tinted.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Town alumnae approve all girls before initiation. Representatives are present at all rush parties. They are invited to pledge and initiation services. Two actives are invited to each alumnae meeting. Through the annual Christmas bulletin the out-of-town alumnae are able to keep in touch with chapter activities as well as with other alumnae.

III. Scholarship: Since we fell from first to fifth place in our rank among campus social fraternities in scholarship, we enforce the most rigid study table practice ever effected in the chapter—every girl, regardless of class distinction or average, is required to come to afternoon study table for two hours. Night study table is held only for freshmen with an average below 85. Freshmen with conditions must come to three hours of study table on Saturday morning, and those with failures must come for two hours on Sunday night. As a result, our chapter average rose enough to place us second. Previously we have held an afternoon study table for about two hours for every girl with an average below chapter average, approximately 82; in addition to this, every freshman with an average below 85 must go to two hours of night study table, and those with conditions or failures are under the same regulations as stated under the first method. No freshman is allowed to date before four in the afternoon; and for the remainder of school, they may not have any dates in the afternoon. The sixth week each member of the sorority reads her grades in answer to roll call. A cup is awarded the freshman with the highest average for the year. A fine of five dollars is imposed upon anyone who fails a course because of over-cutting. Until this year each girl who did not attend study table was required to pay a fine of fifty cents, but this year the privilege of attending our quarterly dance is taken away from those that are absent more than two times. In addition to this, freshmen are assigned extra duties. Freshmen are required to make an average of 75 with no conditions or failures in order to be initiated. Among socially competing fraternities, our chapter ranked first place, 1931-32; first place, 1932-33; third place, 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: We have a pledge sponsor who is elected by the chapter. Her duty is to adjust the pledges to their new environment and to teach them to act for the best wishes of Pi Beta Phi. Each of the pledges has a sorority mother, who exerts every effort to better the scholarship and conduct of her daughter, and to see that she participates in campus activities. Pledge meetings are held not only on Monday night, but also during the week when the freshmen feel there is a special need. In these meetings they help each other to do better, and aid in creating the best of feelings in the chapter by planning special parties and stunts for all of the members. Our alumnae take a great deal of interest in the pledges, and their stories of early Pi Phi days and the Settlement School are an added incentive to the freshmen to make the most of their college days. Major officers, two seniors, 2 juniors, and one sophomore compose our executive council. The personnel of this body is of the highest, and each member is respected by the chapter. They realize their responsibilities and are willing to give their time and energy to the development of the chapter.

Two years ago we gave a silver tea to raise money for the Settlement School, and everyone who attended brought silver coins. Last year we gave a bazaar, and articles from the Settlement School were sold. This year each member was assessed two dollars for the fund. To the Loan Fund we give five dollars a year. We have paid $25.00 toward the $100 that is to be paid for the Pi Beta Phi Endowment in four years. Our chapter keeps a family of seven supplied with food; in addition to this, we give $10.00 to the Community Chest every year. Two a year, in addition to two larger parties. In 1931-32, both of the large parties were held at the house, one was an informal supper-dance, the other a formal dinner-dance. The next two years one large informal dance was held in the house and one formal dance at the Cornhusker hotel ball room. Each year the freshmen give a traditional dinner for the active chapter followed by a house dance. This year we had the pleasure of having Mrs. Stuart Lewis, our Province President, at this party. Open house is held a number of week-end nights for many of the fraternities. Wednesday night is set aside as guest night and many friends and faculty members are invited throughout the year. In the years 1931-32 and 1932-33 faculty teas were given to which every member of the University faculty was invited. These proved especially successful but the necessity of eliminating as much expense as possible, this year, prevented holding them again. The Founders' Day banquet has been held for the past three years in the Cornhusker hotel ball room. We have had two changes in housemothers in the past three years and both were introduced to the University by reception teas at the chapter house. Following the Homecoming football games an informal gathering is held at the house and refreshments served. Nebraska has begun the tradition of a Dads' Day football game and a dinner is held under the auspices of the local mens' activity honorary, the Innocents society. Many of our girls take their fathers to this dinner and the football game afterward. We always honor our mothers on the official Mothers' Day in May by a dinner and informal reception following. It has been the custom to consider this not only for mothers but fathers as well. Each year a Christmas party is given for the children of the alumnae and their playmates. The pledges always prepare a program for special entertainment. The past year the Lincoln Mothers' Club has lunched with the chapter one Friday in the month and then holds its meeting and social hour afterward.

VI. Chapter House: The house is owned and is valued at over $50,000. Improvements and additions to the house since May 1, 1931, include: three chairs newly upholstered; hall bench seat recovered; second and third floors redecorated; new stair carpets and new lamp shades on first floor donated by Lincoln Alumnae club; new sleeping porch curtains; new living room curtains; new bed spreads for sleeping porches; new floor covering in dining room; drapes, desk, lamp, and 4 chairs added to chapter room; the guest room redecorated, and beautifully furnished by the Omaha Mothers' Club even to a handsome quilt made by themselves; housemother's room redecorated and provided with new drapes by the Lincoln Mothers' Club; porch swing cushions recovered twice; five silver coffee pots given, one by the housemother and the rest by several pledge classes; three electric waffle irons given by the Lincoln Alumnae club; and a silver creamer and sugar by the former housemother.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae advisory committee which works with the house council is a link between the active chapter and the alumnae. They meet monthly with the whole chapter. The freshmen are invited to an alumnae club luncheon and the seniors are given a farewell luncheon by the alumnae. The Christmas party given yearly for the children of the alumnae brings many older members to the house as well as making an excellent rush stunt for future Pi Phi hopefuls. Personal invitations are issued to all alumnae in the files for the annual banquet. Local alumnae are advised of pledging and initiation ceremonies and also invited to all teas and social functions. All out-of-town alumnae are always welcomed back to the house on their occasional visits. An alumnae committee has been formed by the advisory board to aid the chapter during rush week to obtain last minute recommendations and to have the final decision on girls whose recommendations cannot be obtained. The alumnae have also offered their services to take care of all the serving and preparing of food for this coming rush week. This year, and the same being planned for the next, the alumnae have given a progressive breakfast as a rushing scheme, just previous to the week closed to rushing. The previous two years, one of our alumnae graciously turned over her magnificent home to be used for a formal summer rush party. Panhellenic rules have since prohibited this practice. In the last two years there have been three unaffiliated transfers on the campus. One ate her lunches and dinners at the house; one lived at the house; and the other was invited to come to the house as often as possible and several times specifically invited to dinner.

No dating privileges are allowed the pledges in the day time. When mid-term grades are averaged, those pledges not having an average of at least 78.5, the average required for initiation, must forfeit Wednesday and Sunday night's dating privilege. The grades are read twice each semester, and those actives not having an average of 81.5 must be in the house studying four nights each week. A diamond recognition pin is awarded to the pledge having the highest average and is released to the pledge having the highest average the following year, and so on. At the beginning of each semester, each pledge and each active schedules her time to allow for 24 hours of study each week, and these are handed to the president. It is required of every girl that she study in the University library at least two hours each Saturday and a fine of 50 cents is levied for non-attendance. The check on dating privileges for low scholarship has been very successful. The average required by other national fraternities for women and by the University is 76.5, but our average for pledges is 78.5, and for actives 81.5. Our ranking in scholarship for 1931-32 was 2nd; for 1932-33, 5th; and for the first semester of 1933-34, 4th.

IV. Chapter Work: A pledge supervisor is elected by the chapter, who acts as an adviser in pledge meetings and supervises pledge instruction. The pledges elect officers and hold a meeting every week. The pledge supervisor takes advice and criticism directly from the active chapter to the pledges. Personnel of executive council: chapter president, 1 senior, 1 junior, 1 sophomore, and after initiation, 1 freshman, and the pledge supervisor. The junior member acts as recording secretary for this group. Shortly before Christmas last year and this year, we sent for articles made at the Settlement School and sold them to girls in the house, alumnae, and patronesses. Each year, we have contributed to the Loan Fund and to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment. The town alumnae publish a newsletter describing the activities of the chapter, and including news of various alumnae. This is sent to all alumnae of the chapter. Last year we published the ARROW, which summarizes the year's work in printed form. We kept it for personal use as well as for sending to various rushees during the summer time. Plans for another ARROW are now under way.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32, 1932-33, 1933-34: Formal pledge banquet, open house for freshmen, initiation banquet, Founders' Day banquet, fall and spring informals, winter formal, teas for patronesses and alumnae, annual Christmas party for the first grade poor children of West-side school, distributing boxes of cookies on St. Patrick's Day to all the other sororities, informal dinners for Pi Phi friends, homecoming dinner for alumnae, Christmas dinner given by pledges, mothers' and dads' banquet on Mothers' Day, Panhellenic luncheon for national officers, Sunday dinners for faculty members, and a sweetheart dinner.

Last year we bought three new lamps, a new hall rug and all new sofa pillows. This year we bought an end table—magazine rack, new furnishings for the bathroom, and some new glassware.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: At least once a year and sometimes oftener our local alumnae publish the newsletter, A Link in the Chain, which is sent to all our alumnae. We have had several pot-luck suppers with the alumnae group this year. We have had several teas and parties for them in the past three years. They are always invited to pledging and initiation ceremonies, and to our formals and informals. At least one attends each chapter meeting. Our advisory committee is located in Sioux City, and we meet with them once a month, and always observe Founders' Day with them. There was one unaffiliated graduate student who transferred here last year. She joined the local alumnae club and was often a guest at the house. She attended all our parties and ceremonies.

If pledges or actives are reported delinquent they relinquish Sunday night dates and attend study hall from 9 to 12 Saturday morning. Actives week night privileges are also removed. Second semester, study hall is held Saturday morning from 9 to 12 for all girls who made less than an 80 average for the first semester, as well as for those who are delinquent. The pledge having the highest average during the first semester is given the award of having her name engraved on the Scholarship cup. The pledge average of 80 per cent for initiation is held as exemplary and was maintained in 1932-33 and 1933-34, but not in 1931-32. The rank of the chapter among socially competing fraternities for women for the year 1931-32 was 21; 1932-33, 20; 1933-34, 16. Our scholarship has received more attention than any other detail of the chapter, the past year, and our slight improvement shows this effort. It also affords an encouragement for more and better improvement.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges are well organized under the guidance of a pledge supervisor. They elect their own officers and conduct their own meetings the same night as fraternity meeting, carrying out ceremony and business. Various leaders in the chapter or alumnae give talks from time to time on fraternity, campus activities, scholarship, etc. The supervisor checks weekly their activities, scholarship and fraternity obligations. The fraternity mothers take a personal interest in their daughters by seeing to their happiness and in making adjustments to fraternity and school life. The executive council is elected by the chapter and consists of the chapter president, vice-president, one senior, one junior, one sophomore, the pledge supervisor, and the scholarship chairman. The chapter yearly contributes to the Community Chest fund. In 1931-32 this amounted to $15; in 1932-33, $15; in 1933-34, $20. We contributed $5 to the Endowment Fund this year. At Christmas time we give all our clothes to the Lincoln Welfare society to be distributed among the poor, as well as the inexpensive gifts we exchange at our annual Christmas party. The only chapter publication is a very small Pi Beta Phi news distributed at the first rush party of the year to give the rushees an idea of Pi Phi both nationally and locally. With active chairmen and their reports for the many committees of the chapter, the entire group interest is kept in all phases of fraternity and campus work.

V. Entertainment: The chapter gives several house dances

III. Scholarship: Observance of study hours after 8:00 P.M. An average of under 2 removes social privileges on week nights. The grades of the actives and the pledges are read every six weeks in chapter meeting. The college requires an average of 1.5 for two consecutive quarters to be initiated, and the same standard to live in the house. Rank among socially competing fraternities for women for the year 1931-32, 1; 1932-33, 3; 1933-34, 3.

IV. Chapter Work: Since pledges are not allowed to live in the house, special arrangements have to be made to have them here regularly. Weekly pledge meetings are held and the freshmen stay for dinner on alternate Tuesdays. This spring we had a joint meeting of pledges and actives for the purpose of discussing Convention. This meeting was very helpful in creating a feeling of interest and responsibility in the pledges. Pledges are invited to all social functions and have two dances of their own. One week-end each year all of the actives move out of the house and turn it over to the pledges. The Executive Council consists of president, vice-president, treasurer, corresponding secretary, and pledge supervisor. This group meets weekly immediately succeeding chapter meeting. Handiwork from the Settlement School is sold at cooky-shines and teas. We sent two dollars and fifty cents to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment Fund.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Homecoming open house; winter formal at Sheldon Munn hotel; cooky-shine; tea for Province President; exchanges; Founders' Day banquet April 23; bridge tea for housemother. 1932-33: Chapter firesides; spread for pledges; homecoming open house; Settlement School tea; winter formal dance; spring informal dance; Christmas party; exchanges; formal dinner before Womens Panhellenic dance. 1933-34: Homecoming open house; Settlement School tea; dinner exchanges with fraternities; fall formal dance at Catherine McKay auditorium; Christmas party; dance exchanges; Sunday night buffet dinners; cooky-shines; winter formal dance at the Country Club; Founders' Day luncheon; spring formal at country club.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house is owned by the Pi Beta Phi Investment company, valued at $35,000. The halls upstairs have been carpeted, new curtains and drapes for guest room, and new bed for chaperon's room have been bought.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae Advisory Committee are guests at dinner once a month and meet with the Executive Council after dinner. Alumnae are invited to all social functions and to luncheons and dinners at the house. The active chapter assisted the alumnae with a benefit bridge. There were seven unaffiliated transfers on the campus in the last three years. We have invited them to all social functions, to dinner, often, and to spend the week-ends with us. There have been three affiliated transfers in this period.

Any active receiving notice of delinquent work is required to attend study hall until delinquent is removed. During the semester examination period no dates are allowed to come in the house except on one week-end night, and quiet hours extend throughout the day except for one hour during mealtimes and from 10 to 10:30 at night. Every senior girl maintaining a B average since affiliation with the local chapter receives a recognition arrow. A four year girl receives one set with a diamond, a three year girl one set with an emerald, and a two year girl one set with a ruby. Any girl raising her average more than .6 (under the Iowa grade point system) above initiation requirement receives a recognition arrow and also any girl who gets a B average receives a recognition arrow as long as she maintains this average. A crested ring is given to the active having the highest grade in the chapter and a recognition arrow to the new initiate with the highest grade average. A C average is required for both pledges and actives, and for the past three years the scholarship ranking has been in the upper third of all women's groups.

IV. Chapter Work: Cooperation and chapter spirit has been developed through joint meetings of pledges and actives at which time an exchange is made of ideas for promoting chapter work on the campus and for furthering the chapter's national standing. Executive Council is composed of the chapter president, the house president, 1 sophomore, 1 junior, and 1 senior all of whom are elected by the chapter. The chapter contributed money to the Settlement School, participated in the sale of Arrowcraft materials held by the alumnae club, and aided alumnae in giving a bridge tea for the Settlement School at the chapter house. Contributions were also made for the purchase of roses given to visiting mothers on Mothers' Day and to local campus funds. Contributions were sent to the Endowment Fund. The chapter publication is The Dart.

V. Entertainment: Four parties are given each year including one formal dinner-dance. Every fall an open house is held to which all mens' fraternities are invited in order to introduce the new pledges. During the winter months tea is served at an informal open house from 4 to 6 on Fridays. Special teas and formal dinners are given in honor of the chaperon and visiting officers. A formal tea is also given for faculty members, and the chapter entertains faculty guests at dinner on Wednesday nights. The chapter participated in the program whereby for a period of 8 weeks one special faculty guest was entertained at dinner each week and stayed to give a short informal talk to the group. A special dinner was given on Mothers' Day and on Dads' Day. Founders' Day is observed by a formal banquet outside the house at which an appropriate program is given by alumnae and actives. A formal dinner follows all initiations.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house is owned and at present is valued at $48,000. Every year complete new furnishings are bought for two bedrooms and new rugs and extra pieces of furniture are purchased for the downstairs rooms. A special new chapter room has been furnished suitably for initiation and a recreation room in the basement. A library has been started and new volumes are added each year. A new hot water system is being installed. Improvements for the outside of the house have been made in the starting of shrubbery, laying of a new brick walk, and the purchase of new porch furniture.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Local alumnae attend chapter meetings at least once a month and serve as chaperons for parties, and other social functions. During rushing the alumnae club sponsor one party at Homecoming a luncheon is given for all visiting alumnae. Chapter news letters are sent once a year to all alumnae and in 1934 a special bulletin, The Dart, was issued. Chapter representatives are guests at local alumnae meetings. Summer rushing is done in cooperation with alumnae throughout the state.

Six calls upon alumnae and patronesses were required of each pledge.

The executive council consists of the president of the chapter and a representative from the other classes excepting the freshman class. This council meets before each chapter meeting and discusses important chapter problems.

Motion picture films of the Settlement School were shown at a meeting and use of the magazine agency has been encouraged. A display of Settlement School articles was furnished by the Burlington Alumnae Club. Thirty dollars have been given to the School by the active chapter in the last three years, and $20 has been contributed to the Endowment Fund. Five dollars was budgeted for the Loan Fund.

This year the chapter inaugurated the publication of an annual newspaper, Goat's Gossip, which was sent to all alumnae of Iowa A, national and province officers, and province chapters. Reports on such topics as the founding of Iowa A, the Settlement School, review of Banta's Greek Exchange, were given at each meeting by actives. Etiquette is read at meetings for both actives and pledges.

III. Scholarship: After pledging in the fall, we have a study table for pledges and any actives that may choose to come, every night of the week excepting Monday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. This table is supervised by the different members of the scholarship committee. This is continued until we are certain of every girl's ability.

Next year study hours are to be strictly enforced. Since the fall of 1932, the alumnae club has given an award to the active girl who has raised her grades the greatest percentage from one semester to the next. This award is a diamond recognition arrow to be worn the following semester. To the pledge having the highest grades her first semester is awarded a box of Pi Beta Phi stationery.

Grades are read in general meeting at the end of each semester. Unsatisfactory grades are reported every six weeks. The girls reported on this list must meet with the scholarship committee and scholarship chairman for suggested methods of improvement.

Our scholastic requirements for initiation are: no grades below C and at least two hours of B. The chapter's rank among socially competing fraternities for 1931-32, the first semester, was fourth, with an average of 2.58; second semester's rank was sixth with an average 2.63. In 1932-33 the first semester's rank was third, with a 2.51 average; second semester's rank was fourth with a 2.59 average. In 1933-34 the first semester's rank was fifth with a 2.54 average.

IV. Chapter Work: Every Monday night our pledge sponsor holds pledge instruction concerning fraternity material. The pledges are organized and meet with actives in a business meeting every Monday night. They then adjourn for pledge meeting. Each pledge is directly supervised by a sponsor who aids her in fraternity life and in making adjustments to college life. The president and two active members from each upper class are members of the executive committee. The committee is elected at each regular election by secret ballot. Money was sent to the Settlement School, the Loan Fund, and the Endowment Fund. The alumnae sponsored a sale for Settlement School articles. This sale was quite successful this year. Next year the chapter is using a chart and merit system for each pledge. They will be graded weekly by the pledge sponsor on items pertaining to college activity and chapter activity. The pledge ranking highest in activities will have her name engraved on our honor pledge cup.

V. Entertainment: The chapter holds each year their traditional faculty breakfast. This year a Miniature Orpheum, made up of Interfraternity stunts was sponsored by the Student Council. Pi Beta Phi won first with their stunt. A college carnival was another Interfraternity gathering. Stunts were given and Pi Phi was first again. Pi Beta Phi offered their house to the independent group for one of their parties. All the sororities were entertained with bridge and dancing. The pledges entertained the pledges of all the other sororities. The mothers and fathers are entertained on Mothers' Day. The pledges worked up a Comic Float for Homecoming and won first. The Mothers' Club was entertained by a Christmas party at the house. The Alumnae chapter, actives and pledges participated.

VI. Chapter House: Our house is owned by a corporation made up of Iowa B alumnae. The value is $15,000. We have new library and drawing room draperies, a new rug for the library, and the floors have been refinished. The cornices, window sills and porches have been painted. This summer papering and painting is to be done. The general upkeep of our house is very good.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae advisory board meet at the house with the executive council once a month. Alumnae are invited to pledging, initiation, and all cooky-shines. We cooperated with the alumnae in observing Founders' Day. This year we had a cooky-shine and business meeting afterwards. The alumnae and active chapter combine efforts for a commencement day dinner for all incoming and local alumnae.

III. Scholarship: During fall quarter all actives and pledges with an average below 2.0 were required to spend 10 hours a week at the library study table. Those who had an average below 2.5 had to spend every free hour in the library. Girls with an average above 2.0 are given special privileges, and an average below 3.0 places a girl on University study hours, with a resulting forfeiture of many social privileges. Pi Beta Phi ranked second in scholarship among women's fraternities on this campus in 1932-33 and 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges meet with their supervisor once a week when fraternity and campus problems are discussed. Reports on matters of fraternity interest are made by the pledges and each girl keeps a notebook of this material. Pi Beta Phi realizes the unifying influence of the use of the pledge ritual. Pledges attend parts of the chapter meetings when it is found best to do so. When necessary, our house chaperon or members of the active chapter talk to the pledges at their meetings. Individual assistance is given by the fraternity mothers of the pledges. The personnel of the Executive Council is the president and one representative of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes. A donation of $25.00 was made to the Settlement School. During the last two years $30.00 has been given the Student Loan Fund; and $75.00 has been given the Wyo Fund since the last three years.

VI. Chapter House: Pi Beta Phi is living in a new house in Fraternity Park. House and lot valued at $51,650.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Previously, meetings were held once a month, but with the new plan of fewer meetings and a special program and purpose for every meeting, attendance and interest has greatly increased. An alumnae advisory council meets with the Executive Council once a month. A joint banquet is held on Founders' Day, and the alumnae sponsor a lovely tea and fashion show each spring. Only one unaffiliated transfer is on the campus, and every courtesy possible has been extended her.

society section in Yearbook; 1 princess O.U. at Texas-Oklahoma football dance at Dallas, Texas.

III. Scholarship: The method by which Oklahoma A hopes to further scholastic improvement is this: If a member makes any grade below a "C" on the nine weeks' report, she is required to go to supervised study hall two hours each day. If any member makes an "F," her professor is interviewed to ascertain the cause. She is told what he has said and she gives her pin into the custody of executive council. When the grade has been raised, her case is brought before a regular meeting of the council and they judge whether she should have her pin or not. There is also a $5.00 fine for each hour of semester "F's." The chapter has a handsome silver and black plaque on which the name of the member making the highest average for the semester is engraved. Study hall for the pledges is held in the dining room. It is a large airy room, with excellent lighting arrangements. There are six tables, allowing ample space for thirty girls. A scholarship ring is awarded the pledge making the highest grade average. Supervised study hall is kept for two hours on Monday and Friday, and four hours on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday by one member throughout the whole week. This helps to place the responsibility securely and by its rotation among the members it brings them all to share in it. Members not making the initiation average attend study hall two hours a day, while those making the average are on their honor to study two hours a day. Any tardy freshman makes up double time in Saturday morning study hall. The house is quiet from one to three and from seven to ten every week day. During finals and the preceding week-end quiet hours are from eight to twelve in the morning, one to six in the afternoon, seven to ten-thirty in the evening, and from eleven at night to seven in the morning. At this time all phones are off the hook, no laughter or talk above a whisper is allowed, and the girls walk on tiptoe. No boys are allowed in the house during final week or the preceding week-end. Each member coaches freshmen in that subject in which she is most proficient. The average for initiation is twenty points, about a B—average. This average is also expected of members. Boys are allowed in the house from three to seven-thirty on Monday through Thursday, from three to twelve on Friday, from twelve to twelve on Saturday, and from eleven to ten-thirty on Sunday. Girls are allowed in boys' houses only on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday at the above hours. All campus dates end at twelve on Friday and Saturday, and on Sunday at ten-thirty, while during the week they end at seven-thirty. The girls must be in the houses by twelve on Friday and Saturday and by ten-thirty on Sunday. Students are not allowed to drive or ride in cars without a special permit. Chapter rank for the year 1931-32 was in the lower third, for 1932-33 was second place in the upper third, and for 1933-34 it retained its position of second place on the campus.

IV. Chapter Work: A contribution to the loan fund and to the Settlement School is sent every year. One poor family are fed and clothed during the winter. Every girl in the house makes a contribution to the box sent by Y.W.C.A. to an Indian reservation at Christmas time every year. The small gifts from the Christmas parties are collected and given to the poor children. The Sooner Target, a paper, is edited for the Founders' Day banquet, by the pledges. Monday evening, which is meeting night, is characterized by special activities. There is a buffet supper, to which all resident actives, alumnae, and transfers are invited. Afterward everyone assembles in the living room to sing Pi Phi and fraternity songs and to be entertained with stunts by the freshmen. After about forty-five minutes of this, meeting is called. The freshmen write a paper just before initiation. Pledges are organized and have committees and officers to carry on work as assigned by chapter. Regular assignment of local and national fraternity study is given by the pledge supervisor. The pledges are required to submit one original and to know all assigned songs. The pledge ritual is read in meetings. Frequent pledge courts are called. There is a charm school which in a tactful way tries to suggest better color combinations and ways of dressing and behaving. Two seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore, with the president, make up executive council. There are two rush captains, one having charge of the parties and the other having charge of the files and the recommendations. Five written recommendations and the unanimous approval of the nearest alumnae club are necessary before any girl is considered for pledging. Oklahoma A and Oklahoma B must approve all of each other's rushees.

V. Entertainment: In the years 1931-32-33-34, we have held the following: Three Brothers' day dinners, two teas honoring Mrs. Bywaters, Kappa Province president, 1 reception honoring Miss Onken, Grand President, 3 receptions for new pledges, 3 faculty teas, faculty dinner every Wednesday night, 1 tea for hostess, 15 cooky-shines, 3 Halloween parties for pledges, 3 Christmas parties by pledges for actives, 3 homecoming house parties for alumnae, 3 mothers' house parties, 3 dads' day celebrations, 5 initiation banquets, 3 buffet suppers for new initiates, 3 senior farewell dinners, 3 house parties for track meet guests, 3 Founders' Day banquets, 4 buffet suppers for resident alumnae.

Each room is furnished with a study table, with a reading lamp on it. Seniors are allowed as many dates as they wish; juniors, one special date (during the week) a week; sophomores, 1 special date every two weeks; pledges and freshmen, 6 special dates during a semester. This year a diamond recognition arrow is offered to the pledge making the highest average above a four point. All lines have been removed for low grades. The first semester a pledge is required to make a 2.35 grade point for initiation. The second semester a 2 point is required. For the first semester of 1931-32, we ranked third, for the second semester fifth; for first semester 1932-33, we ranked second, for the second semester, first; for the first semester 1933-34, we ranked first among the socially competing fraternities for women.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges are organized and meet each Monday night to study fraternity history and to discuss matters of interest to them as pledges in the chapter. The pledge supervisor goes to them each meeting, talks to them, and answers questions. To obtain better cooperation between pledges and actives, the chapter presents a small loving cup with a Pi Beta Phi Crest on it, just after initiation, to the girl who has been the most outstanding pledge. Each pledge has a sponsor. Executive council: president, house manager, 1 senior, 1 junior, 1 sophomore. Annual contributions have been made to the Settlement School Loan Fund, and Pi Beta Phi Endowment. This year each girl in the chapter contributed a quarter toward the completion of the fund. For two years a Christmas box was sent to the Settlement School. For local charities there have been contributions made to the community chest each year. For benefit of the house fund, there have been given two benefit bridges and four rummage sales.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae are intensely interested in anything pertaining to the active chapter. They are invited to every social affair. Homecoming functions, banquets, entertainments, and initiations are well attended. At the first of every month a joint meeting of Executive Council and Advisory Committee is held. Two actives attend the monthly meetings of the alumnae club. There has been one unaffiliated transfer. She lived in the house and attended both meetings and entertainments. She took much active interest in the chapter, but was forced to leave school the second semester due to illness. There have been three affiliated transfers during this period.

The personnel of the Executive Council consists of: the president, the treasurer, the representatives from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Texas A donated $50 to the Settlement School this year. Each year we give money to the Settlement School, either coming from the treasury or it is raised by parties, etc. This year Texas A gave $10 to the Loan Fund. Each year money is given to this. $20 was given to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment this year. A donation is given to this endowment every year. Texas A does not give to local charities nor to college funds. We have no chapter publications.

V. Entertainment: About twice a month Texas A has a "Cooky-Shine" for all pledges and initiates. Each spring Texas A entertains with a formal dance. At Round-Up Texas A entertains the alumnae, mothers, fathers, and visitors with a breakfast. On April 28 Texas A gave a Founders' Day banquet.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: For the first part of the year, Texas A had alumnae luncheon the first Saturday in each month. Now buffet dinners are given about once every two months. The alumnae have an Advisory Board that meets with the Executive Council to settle important questions. There have been four unaffiliated transfers during the past three years. These girls are usually asked to luncheon or dinner at the beginning of school, and they are invited to return as soon as possible. They are always invited to the spring formal. There have been seven affiliated girls during this period.

III. Scholarship: S. M. U. does not require that a girl make a certain average to be initiated, but it does require that the chapter have a C average to initiate. So we ask each initiate to maintain a C average and levy a $5.00 fine for each F made. We require pledges to make a C plus average, with no Fs, on 15 hours work, or a C average, with no Fs, on 30 hours work to be eligible for initiation. Study hall is held for pledges, and for initiates not making a B average, every afternoon from two to five. The penalty for not attending study hall is not being allowed to come to Pi Phi parties. The Dallas Alumnae Club, each year gives a ring to the freshman in the chapter making the highest average. The chapter itself owns a diamond pin which is presented each year to the junior making the highest average, to be worn during her senior year. Among 15 socially competing women's fraternities our chapter ranked 11th and 12th, 1931 and 1932; 12th, 1932-33; and 10th first semester, 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges hold weekly meetings under the supervision of a pledge sponsor. We follow the form in the pledge manual as much as possible. The pledges are allowed to fix their own rules and penalties, and so far they have been much stricter with themselves than the chapter would have been. The Executive Council is composed of the chapter president and one representative from each class. In our work for the Settlement School we have helped the alumnae both with their Settlement School tea, and with their bridge tournament. We have had candy sales, sold magazines, and donated from the treasury. We have given annually to the Loan Fund and the Endowment Fund. Texas B gives a $25.00 prize each year to the junior music student making the best grades. The best evidence of internal development is in our new and complete set of files.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rush party before school opened, rush week festivities, open house for pledges, cooky-shines after pledge ceremony fall and spring, initiation banquet fall and spring, mothers' and fathers' tea, faculty tea, formal dance, leap-year dance, Founders' Day celebration, tea dance, senior luncheon.

1932-33: Garden party, rush week, open house for new pledges, cooky-shine after pledge ceremony fall and spring, banquet after initiation fall and spring, tea for Miss Onken, banquet for Miss Onken, formal dance, mothers' and fathers' tea, faculty tea, Founders' Day celebration, luncheon by pledges honoring new initiates, tea dance, formal dinner, senior luncheon.

1933-34: Sport party, rush week, open house for pledges, cooky-shine after pledge ceremony, banquet after initiation fall and spring, formal dinner, mothers' and fathers' tea, faculty tea, formal dance, "Vice-Versa" dance (pledges honoring the initiates), Founders' Day celebration, luncheon by pledges honoring new initiates, tea dance, formal dinner, senior luncheon.

VI. Chapter House: S. M. U. does not allow women's fraternities to have houses, but it is considering letting us build lodges on the campus. So for the past two years we have rented the attic of a house just a block from the campus. We have bought chairs, tables, a couch, rugs, bookcase, and lamps for it, and have had a victrola and several pictures given to us.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: We are fortunate in having the interest of our alumnae well established. We have our Founders' Day with them, invite them to most of our parties, and help them with their bridge tournament and Settlement School tea each year. They are invited to attend chapter meetings, one of us usually goes to the alumnae meetings, and the advisory board meets with the executive council each month. The alumnae have always helped us rush, and last year they gave us nine dozen plates, cups, and saucers in imitation Wedgewood, and nine dozen forks and spoons of community plate, engraved with II B Φ. The alumnae club bought a silver loving cup which is presented each year to the sorority making the highest average. We have had two unaffiliated transfers whom we have invited to our meetings and included in our parties. We have one affiliated transfer.

III. Scholarship: There is a Scholarship Committee consisting of a member from each class which investigates members' grades and communicates with the faculty and the Scholarship Chairman of the Alumnae Advisory Board concerning scholastic difficulties. Class cuts are recorded when roll call is taken and pledges with an average under 80 are fined for each cut. Pledges are urged to confine their social engagements to week-ends, and sponsors give their pledges individual help. A recognition pin is given to the active and a bracelet to the pledge having the highest scholastic standing. Actives are fined $5.00 for each term condition, and $1.00 for each quarterly condition. Pledges whose scholastic records are unsatisfactory are put on probation until improvement is shown. Pledges must have an average of 75 to be initiated, and the chapter an average of 80 to initiate. For the first semester of 1931-32 the chapter ranked fifth, for the first semester of 1932-33 eighth, for the first semester of 1933-34 eleventh.

IV. Chapter Work: There is freshman pledging and sophomore initiation. The pledges have weekly meetings during the year and elect their own officers, but are instructed by the Pledge Supervisor, who bases her instruction on the "Manual for Pledge Study and Examination." Whenever feasible she leads them in more detailed discussion of the most interesting topics, and officers of active chapter are sent to talk to pledges about college and fraternity policies. Executive Council consists of the chapter president and one member from each class. Annual rummage sales or script dances are given to raise money. This year $60.00 was sent to the Settlement School and contributions were made as usual to the Loan and Endowment Funds. The chapter makes bandages for the Charity Hospital Needlework Guild and blankets and baby beds for the Child Welfare Association. At Christmas time, members of the chapter fulfill requests of the letters to Santa Claus from children in orphan homes. The chapter annually awards a $10 prize for the best science essay in which the entire Student Body may compete. The active who has been most outstanding on the campus is given a pin, the active who has done the most beneficial work for the chapter is given a bracelet, and a cup is given to the best all-round pledge. Each active is expected to go out for at least two, and each pledge at least three, major activities and a chart of participation is kept. Open floor discussion of fraternity study and policies are held at meetings.

V. Entertainment: Annual rushing house parties were formerly held on the Gulf Coast in September. This was followed by numerous parties during rush week: Boat rides, slumber parties, progressive dinners, etc. These rushing rules were changed, and only 3 teas will be permitted, and the house party will be held after pledging. There are two annual dances with representatives from other women's fraternities; informal Sunday night suppers; annual mothers' tea; alumnae party for freshmen; Founders' Day Banquet; chapter parties for holidays, Christmas, Halloween, etc.; suppers after Senior Farewell teas for visiting officers.

VI. Chapter House: None. Rent four rooms and a porch directly opposite campus. Weekly luncheons given for upkeep. A radio is a recent and valuable addition and pledges have started a very attractive garden.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The chapter vice-president attends all alumnae meetings and a number of actives go each time. There is a joint Founders' Day banquet and alumnae are invited to all Sunday night suppers, dances, house parties and other entertainments. They give a party to meet the pledges and assist chapter in rushing. The monthly meetings of the Alumnae Advisory Board and Executive Council are very helpful. There have been 3 unaffiliated, and one affiliated, transfers. Transfers are invited to attend chapter meetings and entertainments.

LYNNE HECHT

LAMBDA PROVINCE

ALBERTA ALPHA

I. Membership: Alberta A was installed in September, 1931. For that year, there were 33 initiates of whom 21 were active members. In 1932-33, initiates numbered 13, and active members 19. In 1933-34, the number of initiates fell down to 6, due to the installation of second-year rushing but the number of actives remained at 19. Resident active members at present total to 10, and resident alumnae number 12. The total membership up to May 1, 1934, is 52 members.

II. Honors: There have been as yet no honorary fraternities or similar organizations formed on this campus. Honor graduates from the chapter from three years number seven. Two members have won scholarships for pre-university work, which pays their tuition fees, making them "scholarship students." In the matter of class executives Pi Beta Phi have held 5 positions on the senior executive, 3 on the junior and 2 on the sophomore. On the Household Economics Club for the past three years, Pi Phi has held 10 positions, on the Literary Association executive, 2 positions, on the Commerce Club executive, 1 position. Five Pi Phi have been active in the work of the college weekly paper, The Gateway, and four have held important positions in the publishing of the Evergreen and Gold Year Book. A Pi Beta Phi is the only fraternity woman member in the Blue Stocking Club. We have had two members elected to the student Council, one of whom was also a member of the Committee on Student Affairs. Pi Beta Phi has held three positions on the Wauneita Council, an organization of all the women students at the university. Pi Beta Phi has been active in athletics. The presidency of women's athletics was held by a Pi Phi for 1933-34. The chapter has won the E. Bakewell Trophy for basketball for the past two years. Two Pi Phi are on the senior basketball team, one on the hockey team, three on the badminton, three on the skiing club line-up, and one on the track team. Two members have been active in glee club productions, one in the orchestra, and two in dramatic productions. The valedictorian for 1934 was a Pi Beta Phi. Two members have served on the social directorate.

III. Scholarship: The chairman of the scholarship committee reports each month to the Executive Council on the work of actives and pledges, and when necessary, the president approaches the negligent members on this matter. Sponsors are responsible for their respective pledge's improvement in standing. Special regulations are made for the pledges and special effort is made to extend aid to them in various courses. Social regulations are the same as those imposed upon residents in the women's residence, Pembina Hall. For a special award the chapter offers a scholarship ring to the active making the highest standing in her final examinations. Pledges have a system of fines, imposed by themselves, if they miss lectures or fail to accomplish the specified study hours. The pre-initiation scholarship requirement for pledges is four-fifths pass in their courses for the term immediately preceding initiation. The university authorities on this campus allow no comparative rating of fraternities.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge-training has been up to now a difficult problem, since pledge-day came so near final examinations. However with second-year rushing we hope to establish a more thorough pledge training. Pledge meetings have been held at the same time as chapter meetings, and pledges and actives joined in cooky-shines afterwards. Alumnae gave interesting talks on the Settlement School, Pi Beta Phi standards and national spirit. The Executive Council consisted of the president, one sophomore, one junior and two seniors. Contributions have been sent for the past two years to the Settlement School Fund and the Loan Fund. The chapter has pledged a contribution to the Endowment Fund. It is to be regretted that the duty on Settlement School products practically prohibited their purchase by us. The chapter has joined in local charity work at Christmas, and is joining with the Edmonton Alumnae Club in their work for the outdoor clinic.

V. Entertainment: The first Panhellenic banquet on this campus was sponsored by the college Panhellenic in 1934. Before this there had been no interfraternity dances. Faculty regulations prohibit the sponsoring of garters or any other entertainment by fraternities. The chapter joins with the alumnae club in the annual mothers' tea.

VI. Chapter House: In 1933-34 seven Pi Beta Phi boarded in one house, and the chapter had the right to use the house as a fraternity house. This cuts off any financial responsibility from the chapter. Previous to this the chapter had rented a club-room near the university.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Two alumnae clubs, one in Calgary and one in Edmonton have been formed since the installation of our chapter. These clubs have aided the chapter in every possible way, and have kept in close contact with us, especially during rushing seasons. There have been no transfers on this campus in the last three years.

III. Scholarship: An average of 76, as accepted by Panhellenic is required for initiation. Each pledge is sponsored by an active member who is personally responsible for the grades of her little sister. Study hours are held between 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock under supervision of house president. There is a special award of a scholarship ring made to the pledge making the highest average. A fine of $1.00 for each credit of E or F is imposed. Among socially competing fraternities the chapter rated third, fourth and second in the 3 quarters of 1931-32. In 1932-33, second, second and first for the 3 quarters. In 1933-34, second and fourth for the first two quarters.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges are organized, have their own officers, and hold meeting Tuesday night of each week. They are under the supervision of a pledge mother who is elected by the chapter. Each pledge has a sponsor. The executive council is composed of the chairman of the advisory board, the chapter president, the chapter vice-president, a sophomore representative, and the chapter treasurer. Each year the chapter contributes $25 to the Settlement School, $15 to the Loan Fund, and $15 to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment. The money for the Settlement School contribution is raised by an annual rummage sale. Every Christmas the chapter gives baskets of food to needy people. Contributions to college funds are made individually.

V. Entertainment: The outstanding social affairs given each year: Self-service dinner the first Tuesday of each month for all members at the chapter house; annual Fathers' Day dinner; annual Mothers' Day chocolate; informal spring party; Founders' Day banquet; senior farewell party; informal firesides; informal open houses; informal fall dance; formal dinner dance. At various times throughout the year, the president, faculty members, heads of departments, and deans are entertained at the house. Exchange guests of other fraternities are entertained once a month at dinner, and a Panhellenic banquet is held once a year. Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Rusch, our Province Presidents, and Miss Onken have been entertained at our house.

VI. Chapter House: The fraternity owns a twelve-room home not including a large dormitory and ballroom, valued $18,000. The house was purchased in 1928 and is to be paid for in twenty years in nine monthly payments per year. Some of the walls have been redecorated.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae attend chapter meetings frequently, and are invited to attend initiations, pledgings, banquets, and all parties both formal and informal. Once a year the chapter sends to the alumnae a letter stating the amount due in pledges, and thus the $100 notes are collected. These notes help pay taxes and insurance on the house. While not organized, the local alumnae meet at a social gathering once a month. During rushing season the alumnae are very helpful by lending cars, decorations, dishes, and personal assistance. One unaffiliated transfer lived at the chapter house but was only in school two years. There have been two affiliated transfers.

III. Scholarship: Scholarship chairman supervises study table for pledges and initiates below a 5,000 average, four nights a week from 7:30-9:30. Besides their regular library hours on week days from 8:00-12:00 and 1:00-3:00, the pledges and initiates spend two hours on Saturday. Pledges below house average spend another additional hour each day in the library. Once a month the scholarship chairman meets with the scholarship committee, composed of a member from each class, and the scholarship alumnae adviser to discuss problems which may arise. The big sister of each pledge looks up the grades of her little sister before the nine-week and semester examinations. Silent hours go on from 8:00 A.M. until noon, from 1:00-3:00, from 7:30-9:30, and then from 9:45 until 11:00 when all are required to be in bed. (While the group average was especially low, stricter rules were placed upon the girls such as a study table for all members below house average, study table for all underclassmen, and Friday night and Sunday study tables.) The penalties for falling below average are the taking away of dates on week-ends for each hour of D, until that grade can be shown to have been raised. Fines of twenty-five cents are levied for unnecessary skipping of classes. A cup was awarded by the alumnae to the house for attaining first place in campus scholarship for the second semester of 1932-33. On this cup is engraved the name of the girl with the highest scholastic average for each school year. The scholastic average required for both pledges and members is 4.5, or half-way between a C and a B. During 1931-32 Idaho A ranked eighth on the campus; during 1932-33 it ranked second; during the first semester of 1933-34 it ranked third.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledge supervisor meets with the pledges once a week, bringing fraternity and scholarship matters before them; pledges are organized, having their own governing offices. Each pledge fills out a personal chart in which she attempts to analyze truthfully her personality, its good points and shortcomings. As part of their social training the pledges give the members a rush tea and a formal dinner. The executive committee consists of the house president, vice-president, treasurer, corresponding secretary, pledge supervisor, and a sophomore representative if she is not represented in one of the aforesaid offices. (In this way each of the three upper classes are represented.) Each year Idaho A sends five dollars each, to the Settlement School, and the Loan Fund. Since 1927 we have paid fifty dollars on the Endowment Fund. This money is raised by a candy store, penny box with contest between pledges and members, work fines, and personal contribution. Personal contributions were given to a college memorial to be erected in the near future.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Annual rushing parties; informal dance for pledges; formal dinner and a fireside for Province President; annual Christmas party for patronesses and alumnae; monthly firesides with pledges in charge; formal dinner and faculty reception for Miss Onken; initiation banquet; Mothers' Day party in honor of our housemother; Founders' Day luncheon with Washington B as our guests; formal dinner dance, 1932-33: Annual rushing parties; informal dance for pledges; formal dinner and a fireside for Province President; Christmas party for alumnae and patronesses; initiation dance; initiation banquet; formal dinner dance; Founders' Day with Washington B at Pullman; spring rushing parties; spring informal or rush dance, 1933-34: Annual rushing parties; informal pledge dance; tea for patronesses, alumnae, and mothers; Panhellenic tea for Province President; Christmas matinee dance; annual Christmas party for alumnae and patronesses; tea and reception given in honor of Sigma Alpha Iota and music faculty; Valentine party for housemother; initiation banquet; initiation dance; tea for the housemothers on the campus; lawn party with Washington B as guests on Founders' Day, the alumnae of both chapters joined with us; formal dinner dance; spring rushing parties.

VI. Chapter House: We own our house, which is valued at $35,000. Since the house is practically new, we have had no great need for any improvements or notable additions to the furnishings since May 1, 1931; that is, in addition to the usual necessary repair work and upkeep.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The chapter elects three resident alumnae to serve on our Advisory Board; the two remaining members are chosen by the alumnae group, itself. We try to keep in close contact with our resident alumnae by having them often to fraternity and social functions. We also refer special problems to the Advisory Board, meeting with them once a month. To our non-resident alumnae we sent out mimeographed letters this year enclosing a form sheet to be filled out and to include their activities while in school, news items since graduation, and prospective rushees. We followed this letter later on in the year with a special letter on rushing and urging all, who possibly could, to return for rush week in the fall.

III. Scholarship: The scholarship committee's plan for 1933-34 contains the following points: (1) To have made and posted charts showing by graph the standing of individuals and to compute in graph form, also, the records of the past two years. (2) To gain cooperation of the parents of the girls by letters explaining our attempt for higher scholarship standing. Study hours will be suggested. (3) To have individual conferences with the girls below initiation average, 2.3, and an effort made to help them. (4) To have mid-quarter cards made out by professors of all the girls. (5) To take date privileges Monday through Thursday away from girls below average of 2.3. (6) To have sponsors try to help pledges and find tutoring in the chapter if necessary. (7) To have study hours of 2-4 in library Monday through Thursday for town and house pledges and actives below 2.3, and study table for house pledges and actives below 2.3 from 7:30-10:00 P.M.

A Pi Phi recognition pin is given to the freshman and the upperclassman who have the highest grade average for the year. A recognition pin is also given to the girl who shows the greatest scholastic improvement. Girls making Phi Beta Kappa have their names engraved on the Pi Beta Phi loving cup. There are no fines for low scholarship at present, since the chapter found them unsuccessful in trying to improve scholarship. A grade point average of 2.3 is demanded as initiation average. In 1931-32 Washington A had a grade point average of 2.602, ranking ninth in comparison to socially competing fraternities for women. In 1932-33 the point average was 2.539, ranking seventeenth in comparison. The statistics for 1934 are not being compiled until this fall.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings and pledge training are held once a week under the supervision of the pledge trainer who is elected by the chapter in the early spring. The pledge trainer also has an assistant. At each weekly meeting one of the actives talks on various aspects of fraternity, house and campus life, and there is a general discussion by pledges and trainers as to duties and suggestions regarding cooperation, conduct, and attitude in the house and on the campus. The pledges have their own meetings at least every two weeks under the direction of a pledge president who is elected soon after school starts in the fall. The sponsors of the pledges hold a monthly meeting in which each pledge's difficulties and improvements are discussed. Then each sponsor and her pledge have a conference in which they discuss various problems of the pledge and beneficial suggestions offered by the active chapter for the pledge. Our executive council consists of the chapter president, pledge trainer, and one member from the senior, junior, and sophomore classes. We find this system most successful because everyone is represented and there is offered such a wide variety of suggestions and methods for the improvement of the chapter. The budget prescribes a definite amount of money from the treasury for the Settlement School. The alumnae are assisted by the chapter in the Settlement School tea. The Loan Fund and the Pi Beta Phi Endowment are cared for by the budget. The chapter gives annually to the Community Chest. This year the chapter gave forty dollars to a local charity for needy families, and also established the tradition of an annual Christmas party for twenty needy children. There has been outstanding development in cooperation, attitude, and congeniality in the past three years. We are all very proud of the fact that our chapter represents a unified whole in everything done. Early in a girl's freshman year she is taught the value of responsibilities and functions of the chapter by placing her on committees which will give her proper training for later years when she will be individually responsible for the chapter's internal development.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: All university breakfast at Pi Phi house, one of five houses having the breakfast for 1932; rushing parties, pledge night open house, Mothers' Club tea for new mothers, Sidewalks of New York informal, actives Christmas party, formal banquet for Miss Onken, Founders' Day banquet, Mothers' Club luncheon, fathers' dinner, spring formal. 1932-33: Pledge dance at the home of one of the alumnae, fall informal, fathers' dinner, Mothers' Club luncheon, senior breakfast, chapter birthday dinner, winter informal, spring formal, seven exchange dinners, rushing dinners, Founders' Day banquet, homecoming dinner, pledge night open house, actives' Christmas party, dinner for Mrs. Russell. 1933-34: Rushing parties, fall informal, winter informal, spring formal, Christmas party for needy children, faculty dinner, fathers' dinner, Mothers' Club luncheon, senior breakfast, seven exchange dinners, homecoming dinner, Founders' Day banquet, alumnae-chapter birthday dinner, pledge night open house, dinner for Mrs. Rusch.

VI. Chapter House: Washington A owns a $42,000 house. New shrubs have been planted around the front of the house; a new oil-burner heating system has been installed; the rooms on the third floor were painted and calcimined; new curtains were bought for the second and third floor windows; two new davenport for the living room were given the chapter by the Mothers' Club and the alumnae, in addition to three new lamps, curtains for the sun room, and a table for the living room; these two groups have also completely refurbished the town girls room; monogrammed guest towels, two brass candelabra, a card table, decks of cards, linen, cake plates, have been given to the chapter by the various alumnae groups; new carpet was laid on the front stairs and in the halls on the second and third floors. Washington A has won about $300 in prizes through winning contests sponsored by department stores, and homecoming rallies. Out of this prize money improvements and additions to the furnishings have been bought for the house.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Interest is kept alive among the alumnae through rushing. Founders' Day banquet, alumnae-chapter birthday dinner, alumnae dances, asking the alumnae to act as patronesses at dances, Settlement School tea, inviting them to annual initiation, sending an annual chapter letter to all alumnae, the chapter alumnae association, the homecoming banquet—all help to keep them in contact. The advisory committee meets with the executive council monthly which stimulates greatly the alumnae's interest in the chapter's internal development. There have been ten unaffiliated transfers on our campus in the last three years. We have a transfer committee of three that contacts the transfers as soon as they come to the university. The transfers are invited to luncheons and social affairs. There have been no affiliated transfers in our chapter in this period, which in some cases is due to the transfers' grade averages.

III. Scholarship: A scholarship committee, composed of one girl from each of the classes, takes charge of the daily study table for pledges and freshmen from 7:30 until 9:30 P.M. This committee also computes averages and enforces scholarship rules. Some constructive work in the form of talks by alumnae and faculty members on study methods and assistance to underclassmen in making study schedules was undertaken by the committee. Social privileges are taken away from both members and pledges for low averages, and supervised study is required over the week-end. Additional privileges are granted to those who earn higher than the house average. A plain badge is awarded each year to the initiate making the highest average. An average of 85 is required of pledges for initiation, and an average of at least 83 for members. Pi Beta Phi ranked second and fifth among women's national sororities for the two semesters of 1931-32. In 1932-33 the chapter rose from twentieth place in the first semester to second place in the last semester, which average the group maintained during the fall semester of 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: Weekly pledge meetings are held under the leadership of an upperclass adviser and the pledge president. At these meetings a definite study of fraternity organization and history is made; various phases of fraternity, house and campus life are discussed; pledges are instructed as to their duties, and suggestions are made in regard to conduct, cooperation and general attitude. An effort is made to interest the new girls in extracurricular work through talks by the activities chairman. During pre-initiation week the pledges are organized into a model fraternity with their own officers. They plan an instructive group project for each day, including a rushing party, a Settlement School meeting, a Panhellenic meeting, preparation for a national officer's visit, etc. The executive council is made up of the president, the pledge supervisor, and one representative from each of the three upper classes. Contributions of $15 to the Settlement School were earned by the members each year, by winning second prize for the All-College Revue, by a rummage sale, and by selling candy in the house throughout the year. Donations to the Loan Fund and to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment were provided for in our budget, and the Red Cross and the Community Chest received small gifts each year. Participation in extracurricular activities is stimulated by requiring three activities for initiation, and new honors are reported at each chapter meeting by the activities chairman. An activity meeting, devoted to talks on different campus organizations and activity opportunities, is held each year.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rushing parties, pledge dance, formal banquet for Mrs. Russell, formal tea for housemother, Christmas party for resident alumnae and children, Valentine friendship dinner, an initiation banquet, honoring Miss Onken, high school week-end, a formal, mothers' week-end, senior breakfast, and tea dance, 1930-31: Rushing parties, pledge dance, tea for housemother, homecoming and Dads' Day dinners, Christmas party, informal, Founders' Day party with Idaho A, dinners for Mrs. Russell and for patrons, and tea dance, 1933-34: Rushing parties, pledge dance, Dads' Day and homecoming dinners, banquet for Mrs. Rusch, Christmas party, informal friendship dinners for members and pledges, formal, Mortar Board luncheon, mothers' week-end, bridge party for housemother, board of regents dinner, tea dance and senior breakfast. Each year we have entertained faculty and student guests at weekly guest dinners. Informal desserts and exchange dinners are given with different fraternities. Alumnae are especially invited to senior breakfast which is given each spring for the graduates by the sophomore class.

VI. Chapter House: Washington B owns its chapter house which is valued at $40,000. The chapter room was refurbished, the hardwood floors on the first floor refinished and the first floor recalculated in 1932. New linoleum improved the kitchen last year. New rugs were purchased for the entrance hall this winter. Silver, table linen and a vacuum cleaner have been recent additions to our household equipment. The yard and landscaping has received expert care, and new shrubs have been planted.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae have constant welcome at the chapter house. We cooperate closely with them in fraternity work, especially through the Advisory Board, composed of five resident alumnae. Personal invitations are sent to all alumnae for initiations, the college homecoming in the fall, and senior break-fast in the spring. An alumnae news letter, written by the vice-president, tells of the chapter's activities for the year, and is important in keeping them in touch with the active members. Resident alumnae are included in the chapter social life as guests and chaperones of dances. They are guests at all initiation banquets, and, with their children, attend the annual Christmas party. We have had no transfers during this period.

III. Scholarship: Scholarship is regulated by a scholarship committee which includes a representative from each of the four classes. Study table is conducted by an upperclassman four nights a week from seven-thirty to nine-thirty o'clock. Freshmen must be on the campus by eight o'clock in the morning five days a week. All members making less than a 1.00 average must attend study table and do not have any mid-week social privileges. Pledges and actives report grades and cuts before each pledge or chapter meeting. For two weeks prior to final examinations social privileges are restricted. The requirement for initiation is a 1:10 grade point average for a minimum of 14 hours. Freshmen may have social engagements from four-thirty to seven-thirty o'clock every week day and Friday and Saturday evenings; but free hours allow for library work. A five dollar fine is imposed for every course that is flunked. An award of a jewelled Pi Beta Phi pin is given to the pledge having the highest grades fall term. A Pi Beta Phi ring is awarded to the member having the highest grades during the school year. The other scholarship award is the freshman scholarship cup on which is engraved the name of the freshman who has the highest grade average of any freshman. Our scholastic rating is: 1932-33, fall term, 15; winter term, 14; spring term, 15; 1933-34, fall term, 12; winter term, 17.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are conducted by the pledge supervisor every Monday after house meeting. Cuts and grades are reported to the pledge supervisor and activities to the extracurricular activities chairman who attends every other meeting. Chapter business and pledge study are administered with an occasional talk by an alumna or an upperclassman on some topic of interest to a Pi Beta Phi. A freshman council composed of three members of the pledge class meets every week before pledge meeting to discuss problems relative to them. The executive council is composed of the president, vice-president, corresponding secretary, treasurer, pledge supervisor and president of the freshman class. In 1931-34, the chapter raised money for Settlement School by individual contribution. In 1933-34 the chapter contributed through the treasury to the Loan Fund and Endowment Fund. The house has always aided the Red Cross and each year has given as much as possible. In 1932 a Christmas party was given for poor children. Regular hours are strictly enforced.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Dinner for faculty and pledges, house birthday (annual chapter affair with the alumnae), dinner for province president, Christmas dinner for poor children, faculty dinner, Founders' Day banquet, pledge dance, winter formal, spring formal, tea dance, exchange dinners with fraternity houses, 1932-33: House birthday dinner, dinner for pledges and alumnae, faculty dinner, Founders' Day banquet, pledge dance, winter formal, spring formal, tea dance, and exchange dinners with fraternity houses, 1933-34: Pledge and faculty dinner, house birthday dinner, dinner for Dads, faculty dinner, Founders' Day banquet, tea and reception for province president, dinner and luncheon for mothers, pledge dance, winter formal, spring formal, tea dance, exchange dinners with fraternity houses.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house is owned by the chapter and the house and lot are valued at $42,000. A great deal of improvement has been made in the house with the assistance of the Eugene and Portland Mothers' Clubs and the Alumnae Club. Since 1931 the exterior of the house has been painted, newly roofed, and the interior tinted. Gifts we have received are: four dozen dining room chairs, two davenport, overstuffed chair, combination radio and phonograph, entire set of china, goblets, sherbet dishes and silver candelabras.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae are invited to teas, dinners, chapter affairs and dances. Homecoming is especially planned for them and they are urged to come that week-end. The Eugene Alumnae Club have been a great help and keep in touch with us through dinners for the pledges, breakfast for the seniors, and such affairs. We greatly appreciate their interest and guidance. We have had three unaffiliated transfers on the campus and we ask them to all our dances, dinners, and house affairs. During this three year period there has been one affiliated transfer.

III. Scholarship: Study table is held for all pledges and freshmen from seven-thirty to nine-forty-five and is supervised by alternating upperclassmen. During this period absolute quiet is maintained throughout the house, each person being required to remain in her own room. Freshmen are allowed one night library permission a week. Everyone is required to study at least two hours in the library every Saturday. To be eligible for initiation a pledge must have completed at least 14 credits with a minimum average of 1.5. All pledges and members whose averages are below 1.5 forfeit one date each week-end and are required to study four hours for that period. Mid-term grades are turned in each term so that close checking may be made on those girls with low grades. A closed weekend immediately precedes each final examination period. The graduating senior with the highest scholastic record has her name engraved on the chapter scholarship cup. We have raised our scholastic ranking from fourteenth place in 1931-32, to eleventh place in 1932-33, and to third place in 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held every Monday night under the direction of the pledge supervisor. The meetings are devoted in part to pledge work and general group discussions and in part to selected subjects dealing with topics such as: college life, honoraries, rushing, and literature. Pledges are graded every other week on appearance, conduct, cooperation, grades, and pledge work. The sponsor of each pledge discusses the grades with her "daughter" so that there will be perfect understanding. Executive council consists of the president and one member of each of the three upperclasses. Each year the chapter holds a rummage sale in its own group for the purpose of raising funds for the Settlement School. This year we contributed to the Settlement School, to the Endowment and Loan Funds, and made a contribution to the Red Cross. A chapter letter, published winter term, was sent to all alumnae members of Oregon Beta. It was printed on blue paper and had in the corner a picture of the long French window, wine colored drape, and winding staircase known so well to Oregon Betas. The letter was newsy and chatty dealing with the campus, fraternity, and alumnae. At each chapter meeting we strive to put aside a few moments to discussion of literary subjects bearing on college and fraternity life.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rushing parties, formal preference-night banquet, open house for new pledges, cooky-shines, informal dance, "Frontier" dance, formal dance, Founders' day banquet, formal Christmas party, homecoming dinner, Mothers' Day banquet, house picnic, formal initiation banquet, class dinners entertaining men guests, and weekly dinners for various faculty and alumnae members, 1932-33: Rush parties, reception for new pledges, cooky-shines, formal Christmas party, initiation banquet, informal dance, Founders' Day banquet, weekly dinners for various faculty and alumnae members, formal dance, reception for house chaperon, cooperative managers association dinner, class dinners entertaining men guests, house picnic, 1933-34: Rush parties, reception for new pledges, cooky-shines, formal preference-night banquet, formal initiation banquet and theater party, Founders' Day banquet, Mothers' Day banquet, Panhellenic dinner, house horseback ride and picnic, Christmas party, weekly entertainment of faculty members, senior farewell banquet, informal dance, sport dance, formal dance, dinner for alumnae and husbands.

VI. Chapter House: Oregon B owns its home which is valued at $35,000. The Mothers' club has given us many wonderful gifts including retinting of the entire upstairs and uniform painting of all study desks and chairs. The club also presented the house with a vacuum cleaner and two handsome "love seats." A dozen spoons and forks were presented by a group of alumnae; two pewter water pitchers by the senior class; a General Electric radio and phonograph by an alumna; Italian candy dishes by an alumna; two lovely trays by a mother; and a standard lamp by the senior class. A large convenient closet for hanging long dress bags has been constructed on the second floor hall.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The yearly letter sent to all alumnae aids in keeping contact with the chapter life and work. A monthly letter is written to the Portland alumnae club telling of the chapter. Through the advisory board meetings and dinners given by the local alumnae for the various classes we have many enjoyable evenings. All rush parties and social functions are open to the alumnae as are initiation and Founders' Day celebrations. All local alumnae are urged to have dinner at the house often and to attend chapter meetings. There have been no transfers on the campus in the last three years.

III. Scholarship: There is a scholarship chairman and a scholarship committee in the house. All grades are recorded at the end of each week and the social privileges of any girl making below a C average are curtailed. All pledges whose grades are below a C average are required to go to study table 3 nights a week, and a C average is demanded for initiation. The chapter maintains a B— average. The alumnae club awards 3 prizes, recognition pins, one to the girl maintaining the highest scholastic average for the school year, one to the girl showing the most improvement during the year, and one to the freshman with the highest scholastic average for the year. For 1931-32 we were 7th among women's fraternities at Stanford; for 1932-33 we were 3th. The rankings for 1933-34 have not yet been tabulated.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held once a week, presided over by the pledge supervisor, and directed by an elective head of the pledges themselves. Their program followed the outline for pledge studies, and at intervals talks were given by both alumnae and selected upperclassmen. The subjects treated in these talks were the Settlement School, the Constitution and Fraternity History, scholarship and activities. A certain time is set aside for the pledges to ask any questions about the house, and criticisms from the actives are tactfully presented. The Executive Council consists of the president, vice-president, treasurer, pledge supervisor, and one representative from each of the 3 upper classes. Every year the alumnae, with the aid of the actives put on bridge tea and fashion show at the chapter house for the Settlement School. This year the actives modeled in the fashion show. California A contributed $55 to the Settlement School, $50 to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment Fund, and $5 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund. The chapter contributed $80 to the Convalescent Home and also dressed 10 dolls for the Home and prepared 2 baskets on Thanksgiving for poor families. The sophomore duties about the house are posted each week, and penalties are rigidly enforced for neglect. The activities chairman stimulates interest in various campus activities while each week in meeting suggestions for improvement in social bearing and conduct are brought up.

V. Entertainment: Fall quarter a series of teas were held for the new women in the university, and during the football season "open house" was maintained, as also during the track season, and on University Day. There have been faculty dinners, the annual Settlement School Bridge Tea, 7 to 8's, and "open house" on pledge night. During winter quarter rushing luncheons and dinners were held and each Thanksgiving, Christmas, and birthday of any chapter members, a party has been given. Sunday supper is the time for each girl to ask a guest, and several exchange dinners with fraternities have been given. For the past two years our initiation dance has been held at the Del Monte Hotel in Carmel, and each year we give the pledges a treasure hunt and supper at the cabin in the mountains of one of our alumnae. The alumnae have given us many teas and the Mothers' Club has been asked to dinner several times.

VI. Chapter House: The house is owned by the House Association, which pays for the major repairs from the rent and the dues collected from each member. The chapter house is valued at $25,000. Improvements during the last three years have consisted of repapering the entire house, 3 new showers installed, new draperies and curtains for the downstairs rooms, some new furniture, and the rugs dyed.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae interest has been very keen in the last three years. They are invited to all the "open house" functions and some of the younger alumnae assist us during rushing. The alumnae give several parties at the chapter house and teas for its members, and once each month the entire Advisory Board comes for dinner. There have been 4 unaffiliated transfers during the past three years, and 4 affiliated transfers. Of the unaffiliated transfers, one lives at home and eats luncheon at the house each day, one is a graduate and lives in the house, and the other 2 have been invited to all our parties and special functions.

III. Scholarship: For improvement of scholarship there is a scholarship committee composed of a senior, a junior, a sophomore, and a pledge. At pledge meetings and at weekly house meetings, grades are reported and a record is kept by the scholarship chairman. Special study table regulations are made for those girls who fall down in their grades, and they are also deprived of dates. For freshmen and sophomores, a supervised study table is held every week night from 7:30-9:30. A recognition pin is given each semester to the girl in the house and to the initiate having the best grades. A fifty-cent fine is imposed for each class cut. For initiation, a pledge must have a 1.2 average, and to maintain her class privileges an active member must also have a 1.2 average. Special privileges are given to those girls who maintain a 1.5 average. Our standing among the national Panhellenic women's fraternities for 1931-32 was twenty-second, and for 1932-33, fifteenth. The comparative average for 1933-34 has not yet been issued by the dean, but is undoubtedly much better since there has been much improvement in the house in scholarship this year.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held weekly under the supervision of the supervisor of pledge instruction. They have their own organization, and in their meetings they follow the "Manual for Pledge Instruction." The executive council is composed of the president, vice-president, supervisor of pledge instruction, and a representative from each class. The active chapter helps the Mothers' club and the Alumnae club in an annual rummage sale and in special teas and bridge parties for the benefit of the Settlement School. The chapter donates $50 a year to the Loan Fund, and contributes to the Endowment Fund. The chapter always supports the Women's Loan Fund on the campus, and contributes in the Y.W.C.A. drives for the Community Chest.

V. Entertainment: Each fall we have a formal dance and each spring an informal. A Sunday evening open house is held each semester to introduce the new pledges to the campus. Formal rush dinners are given every two or three weeks. Once a year a formal dinner is held in honor of the fathers, and a faculty dinner is given each semester. Before important football games a buffet lunch is served at the house for alumnae and friends. Each year just before school closes, the graduating seniors are honored at a breakfast.

VI. Chapter House: We own our own house, and it is valued at $50,000. Each year we try to do over at least one room of the house, and since May, 1931, there have been many improvements. Two bedrooms were entirely redecorated in 1932, with new oak furniture. In 1933 the living room and another bedroom were done over, and the kitchen was repainted. This year the dining room is being done over, and enlarged.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The alumnae cooperate with the active chapter very well. Interest is maintained by the annual Initiation banquet, the Founders' Day luncheon, and the alumnae are always welcome at the house. An alumnae reunion is held alternate years before the big game between Stanford and California. We have no way of finding out about transfers on our campus. Those transfers whom we do find out about through chance meetings in classes are encouraged to come to the house for luncheons and other social functions. There have been no affiliations.

III. Scholarship: Weekly grades received by the girls are kept on file by the scholarship chairman, and any sign of lowered standard by any girl is remedied. A study hall is maintained four times a week for all girls receiving "cinch" notices or girls whose weekly grades show a low average. The scholarship committee deals individually with girls who have too many cuts and poor grades. When a pledge receives a "cinch" her sponsor confers with the professor concerned and then reports to the scholarship committee who recommends certain type of help. The Glendale Alumnae Club awards a recognition pin to the pledge with the highest average each semester. The Los Angeles Alumnae Club presents Settlement School booklets to the girl with the highest average for her four college years. Actives and pledges are required to keep a 1.25 average. Our standing among national Panhellenic women's fraternities on our campus runs from fourth to tenth place in 1931-32, and up to second place in 1933, and down to seventh for the first semester of 1934.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledge meetings are held weekly and are conducted by the pledges themselves under the supervision of the pledge supervisor, who is usually the ex-president of the chapter. Grades are reported at this meeting, duties are assigned, the history of Pi Beta Phi is studied, and suggestions are given as to conduct and courtesy to older Pi Phis. Talks given by older alumnae to the pledges are helpful in keeping them in better touch with the national spirit. The executive council is made up of eight members; the president, representatives from each class, and three other members chosen by a majority vote of the chapter, which generally include the treasurer and pledge supervisor. Each year seventy-five dollars is sent to the Settlement School through the Los Angeles Alumnae Club Benefit at which the chapter assists. Fifty dollars has been given to the Friendship Endowment Fund since the last convention. The chapter gives each year towards the Campus Community Chest. About forty poor foreign children are given a Christmas party at the chapter house each year. There is no chapter publication. The black mark system for the pledges, the activity point plan for all the girls, and the policy of immediately placing new initiates on chapter committees have proven beneficial to chapter development.

V. Entertainment: Rush week is culminated by a formal dinner at the chapter house. Pledging is followed by a cooky-shine. Each semester a formal tea is given in honor of the pledges and to present them to the campus. Two formal dances are given each year, one at Christmas time and the other in the late spring. The regular meetings of the Mothers' Club are held monthly at the chapter house. They have luncheon with the chapter before meeting. The fathers are honored at dinner once each year. Open house is held for friends and alumnae on days of football games. We have two luncheon days a week at the house, one being "closed" and the other day girls may bring guests. We also have fraternity and sorority exchange luncheons. One night each month the transfers on campus are entertained at dinner. "Gamma Night" is also held once each month for our alumnae on the night of chapter meeting. A houseparty is held for one weekend at the beach during the spring semester. We have several parties each year with California Delta, the last one being Senior Breakfast which is held in honor of the graduating seniors.

VI. Chapter House: The House Corporation bought the house and completely paid for it February 1933. The active chapter rents the house from the House Corporation. It is now valued at $12,000. The entire house has been repainted on the outside and some of the upstairs rooms have been painted and repapered. The pledge room has been redecorated with a new color scheme. One bathroom has been tiled. Two bedrooms have been refurnished in Early American maple by the Mothers' Club. The Mothers' Club also gave us this year a new range for the kitchen. A large cupboard addition was made in the pass pantry. We have also added a set of silverware and several new linen sets. In our front rooms we have new lamps and a large new Oriental rug.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae and members are brought into closer contact with each other through rushing, Founders' Day, Settlement School benefits, and social functions at the chapter house. This year a large California Gamma Alumnae party was held in honor of our housemother, Mrs. Kate Arthur, who has been with our group for eighteen years—a year longer than we have had our Pi Phi Charter. The Los Angeles Alumnae Club gave us three lovely rushing parties last summer. The Glendale Club always invites the chapter officers to the Christmas party. In the past three years we have had twenty-three unaffiliated transfers on campus. We have not had any affiliations but have had two graduate students who lived at the chapter house.

III. Scholarship: Supervision of the maintenance and improvement of scholarship is entrusted to a scholarship committee composed of five members whose duties are to govern and supervise study table, to keep a careful record of mid-term and final grades, and to deal with each individual problem concerning scholarship. All pledges are required to spend six hours each week at study table. Members with less than a C average are required to attend study table for the same number of hours and to act as proctors. At the weekly meeting of the scholarship committee, pledge sponsors report the grades of the pledges. Each pledge and member needing individual attention is called before the committee for a discussion of her problem. Freshmen and sophomores are restricted to two week-end dates. Juniors and seniors use their own discretion unless their individual scholarship problems make social supervision by the committee advisable. Each year a recognition pin is awarded the freshman initiate with the highest average and her name is engraved on the chapter scholarship cup. Fines are two dollars for each hour of F or E and one dollar for each hour of D. A C plus average is required for initiation. Members who make less than C average lose their vote in chapter meetings. Our chapter ranked sixteenth among socially competing fraternities for the year 1931-32; fourteenth for 1932-33; eleventh for 1933-34.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledges meet once each week with the pledge captain to study fraternity history and to discuss their mutual problems. They are required to learn one Pi Phi song each week. The weekly duties of the pledges are supervised by the pledge captain and the pledge sponsors. Reprimands are administered by a black-mark system. Five black marks automatically bar the pledge from initiation. Executive Council is composed of the president, vice-president, treasurer, and one representative from each class. Each year California Delta, California Gamma, and the Los Angeles Alumnae Club give a benefit for the Settlement School. The chapter has contributed to both the Loan Fund and the Pi Beta Phi Endowment. It has annually provided the Dean with a fund for the use of needy students and has contributed to the Community Chest. There is no chapter publication. Each year the house rules are reprinted and a copy is given to every girl. Activities are carefully checked by means of both an activity book and a chart showing the relative standing of each girl.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Rushing parties; fathers' dinner; benefit dance; junior-senior house party; two pledge presentations; a Christmas kid party with California Gamma; Panhellenic formal; two faculty luncheons; senior breakfast; spring formal. 1932-33: Rushing parties; two pledge presentations; two faculty luncheons; Christmas kid party; scholarship dance; two initiation dances; a tea for the housemother; Panhellenic exchange luncheon; fathers' and mothers' dinner; spring formal. 1933-34: Rushing parties; scholarship dance; two initiation dances; five-way Christmas formal; two faculty luncheons; a tea for the housemother; three teas for friends of the chapter; spring formal; senior breakfast; two dinners with California Gamma; Panhellenic formal; junior-senior house-party.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter owns its own house which is valued at $40,000. Within the last three years, the library, housemother's room, and the patio have been completely refurbished. The chapter has been the recipient of numerous beautiful and useful gifts from alumnae clubs, the mothers' club, and friends of the chapter.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: The first Monday night in every month is designated alumnae night. We are fortunate in possessing the active interest of a great number of the alumnae who take advantage of this opportunity to make the acquaintance of the new members of the chapter and to renew old friendships. Alumnae are always welcome at our meetings, cooky-shines, and social affairs. There have been four unaffiliated transfers on the campus in the last three years. They have been welcomed upon every social occasion and at the daily luncheon at our house. We have no affiliated members.

Aside from this financial penalty, Sunday night dates are taken away for one delinquent, Sunday and Friday nights are taken away for two delinquents, and the entire week-end taken away for three or more delinquents. Study table is conducted at a table in the college library for an hour a day for all delinquent members. We have a scholarship book which is signed at the initiation banquet by those making above a 2. average. We award a scholarship ring to the graduating senior who has made the highest average above a 2. throughout her four years of college. A framed Symphony is given to the pledge making the highest average. The scholarship committee consists of a representative of each class and keeps a card file of semester averages and delinquents for every pledge and member. The chapter has the following by-law: Anyone not making a 2.5 average goes on probation by losing her vote. If the average is not above a 2.5 at the end of the following semester a member is subject to suspension, exceptions to be handled by executive committee. Scholarship rating has been for year 1931-32: December, 1931, third of six; May, 1932, fifth; 1932-33: December, 1932, fifth; May, 1933, second; 1933-34: December, 1933, fourth.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges held meetings and dinners in town girls' homes once a month during the second semester. Sponsor-sponsee dinners were held in local restaurants. Bicycle riding after meetings was another means of bringing them closer to each other. A pledge merit system was adopted by which points were earned for work in the house. At the end of the semester points were tallied and jewels for pin were given to the pledge with most points. The active chapter has a point system by which points are earned for activities on the campus and in the house. Every active has to have 10 points a year. The Executive Council consists of representatives from each class and treasurer and pledge supervisor called in for consultation. We have been unable to contribute to the various funds, but we have aided the local Red Cross drive and Y.W.C.A. drive. We have also aided the American Legion to sell poppies. Our rushing has been better organized and we have formed an association of house girls to talk over food and heating problems in the house.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Opening of the new house with reception afternoon and evening; tea for mothers' club; 2 informal rushing parties, 1 formal rushing party; cooky-shines after pledges; series of bridge parties to raise money for house fund; informal pledge dance; Homecoming Day open house and buffet supper for alumnae. VI. Chapter House: Moved in new chapter house in October, 1931. Owned by alumnae and rented to active chapter for school year. Rented each summer. House and lot are valued at $32,000. House and furnishings follow the colonial style. At the opening many gifts were received from men's and women's campus organizations, friends, alumnae, and mothers. There have been constant improvements in the landscaping of the sloping lawn and shrubbery around the house.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Our alumnae club is very closely united with our active chapter. They are deeply interested in our rushing and last rushing season provided food for our parties. Once a month at least, an alumna attends active meetings. Alumnae come to initiation, pledging, cooky-shines and take charge of the Founders' Day banquet. We have had an alumnae house manager this past year and during the first two years after the house was opened several alumnae lived in the house. There has been only one transfer on this campus in the past three years and she was unaffiliated.

III. Scholarship: Supervised study table is held for pledges Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at the University library for two consecutive hours in the afternoon and at the house from 7:30-9:30 P.M., except Friday; an additional two hours for actives and pledges on Saturday mornings. Each active must study two hours daily in the University library. Weekly reports of study hours are made in meeting along with the number of cuts. Weekly grades are recorded on cards. A fine of $2.50 is imposed for each unit of five. The scholarship committee and the sponsors stress efficient study. Sunday night study table from 7:30-9:30 is held for all those on the delinquent list. Pledges must make 3.0 for initiation. The rank of chapter among the 10 socially competing fraternities for women for the year 1931-32 was fourth; 1932-33, tenth; 1933-34, first.

IV. Chapter Work: The pledge captain supervises the pledge chapter according to the manual, the pledge officers taking charge. The programs consist of a thorough study of II B Φ history, followed by a survey of national and local Panhellenic questions. Relationship between active and pledge is discussed. Each pledge has a sponsor who aids her in getting adjusted and then progressing in college life. Second semester pledges are given special attention with every possible aid. Weekly skits on meeting nights are put on by the pledge chapter. The personnel of the executive council is composed of the president, the treasurer and house manager, a senior member, a junior member and a sophomore member, one of whom is the pledge captain. Teas for the display of the Settlement School work and contributions have been given each year; $10.00 in 1931-32, $5.00 in 1932-33, $5.00 in 1933-34 was sent to the Loan Fund; annual contributions to the Red Cross drive have been made; annual sums are paid for homecoming and the all-university circus. Illness is immediately reported to the house mother who takes special care of those girls. Assistants official and unofficial lighten the duties of those in office and thus spread the knowledge of fraternity work to the rest of the chapter.

V. Entertainment: Annual affairs: Cooky-shines, initiation banquet, Founders' Day banquet, co-ed formal, Panhellenic formal, 1931-32: Tea dance for pledges, pledge dance for the actives, Greenwich Village dance, Spring formal dinner dance, tea for Mrs. Alford, exchange dinners with fraternities, faculty members for informal dinners, 1932-33: Tea for Mrs. Kingsbury, tea for Mrs. Alford, garden party given by the pledges, Spring formal dinner dance, buffet suppers and exchange dinners, high school garden supper, 1933-34: Tea dance for the pledges, black and white formal given by the pledges, Mother Goose dance, Spring formal dinner dance, exchange dinners with sororities and fraternities, faculty members at informal dinners.

VI. Chapter House: The chapter house, lot and furnishings are owned by the Arizona A II B Φ Building Association. Notable additions to the house consist of a carpet for the upstairs hall and front stairway, new set of crested dishes and various small additions such as lamps, a coffee table and pictures.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: This has been most successful through cooky-shines, Founders' Day banquets, and initiation banquets. The welcomed use of the chapter house for alumnae meetings and social functions aids in forwarding the spirit of cooperation. Alumnae members are invited to meetings, informal dinners, and many of the social functions given by the active chapter. There have been three unaffiliated transfers on our campus in the last three years. The three affiliated transfers have led to the strengthening of our chapter.

(at present), 44; resident alumnae, 128; total membership up to May 1, 1934, 232.

II. Honors: 1931-32: 1 junior class secretary; secretary-treasurer A.W.S.; 1 Chronicle staff (paper); 6 Chi Delta Phi (literary); 2 Theta Alpha Phi, honorary dramatic society; 1 Alpha Beta Theta (literary); 1 Phi Chi Theta, business organization; 1 Phi Delta Delta, national women's legal fraternity; 1 Barristers; 1 Art Guild; 4 Apmin, fine arts society; 7 Spurs; 1 Dramatic Council; 1 freshman play; 5 International Relations Club; 14 Pom Club and president, women's honorary social organization; 11 Trotters; 2 French Club, vice-president and secretary-treasurer; 4 horse show; 1 engineers' beauty queen. 1932-33: Secretary senior class, vice-president freshman class; 3 representatives A.W.S., chorister and organist; secretary of Acorn; 1 Chronicle; 1 Utonian; 4 Humbug, college humor magazine; 5 Chi Delta Phi, secretary; 2 Theta Alpha Phi; 1 Phi Chi Theta; 2 Art Guild; 1 Speech Arts; 6 Apmin; 2 Spurs; 1 Varsity Play; 13 Poms, secretary-treasurer; 14 Trotters, president; 2 French Club, vice-president, secretary; 1 German Club, vice-president; 1 vice-president of the Spanish Club; 3 Beta Delta Mu (music); 1 prom committee. 1933-34: Valedictorian of class of 1934; 2 Phi Kappa Phi; secretary of A.S.U.U.; vice-president A.W.S.; 6 A.W.S. council; society editor, Chronicle; 2 Utonian; 2 Humbug editorial staff; 3 Chi Delta Phi, vice-president, secretary-treasurer; 8 Spurs; 4 Apmin; 8 Beta Delta Mu; 3 Sigma Kappa Phi; 6 Spurs; 2 Mortar Board, honorary senior women's organization, president; 12 Poms; 12 French Club; 4 school double quartette; 1 Orchesis.

III. Scholarship: A scholarship committee composed of a representative elected from each class, with the senior member as chairman, supervises the chapter's scholarship activities. If a girl does not make the scholastic average upheld by the Fraternity, she is compelled to attend study table so many hours per week, according to the number of points she is below the upheld average. The study table is supervised by an active member who checks off the hours of study completed by each girl per week. If a girl is reported as failing in any subject after the first six weeks of the quarter, she is put on probation by the sorority until the necessary work has been made up. Due to the fact that a very large majority of the chapter are town girls, compulsory social regulations cannot be effectively enforced.

The half of the chapter with the highest average for the preceding quarter is entertained at an hour dinner by the other half with the lower average. The ruby and pearl scholarship arrow to be worn until the next honor dinner is presented to the active with the highest average for the past quarter. To the senior having the highest scholastic standing for the four college years is awarded a scholarship ring each year. A recognition pin is presented to the initiate who maintains the best average the quarter preceding each initiation. A 1.5 (C-B) average is required for initiation; a 1. (C) average for pledging.

IV. Chapter Work: Pledges have their own organization with executive officers and committees. They hold their weekly meetings during active meeting. The use of the pledge ritual has been most successful in developing in the pledge group a definite fraternal feeling. The pledge supervisor is elected by vote of the active chapter, and is chosen on the basis of her insight, tact, and general understanding of the problems of pledgehood. She carries messages to the active chapter meetings; and in turn she brings suggestions to actives from the pledges including their complaints and problems. The supervisor also conducts a systematic plan of study for the Fraternity examination. Cuts for the week are reported in answer to roll call in both active and pledge meetings. If a pledge does not do the work assigned her, or does not conduct herself in accordance with Fraternity standards, she is given a black mark. If a girl's conduct is good for a month, her black mark is automatically dropped.

The executive council consists of the president, the treasurer, and a member of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. It meets weekly with three members of the advisory board. The proceeds from the annual bridge tea and fashion show and the pledge's summer earnings are put in the general chapter fund from which the chapter makes its annual Settlement School and Loan Fund contribution. Utah A has contributed 100 per cent to the community chest and to the philanthropic work administered by the dean of women.

Rank of chapter among socially competing fraternities for women for the years 1931-32, sixth; 1932-33, fourth; 1933-34, ranking not yet released, but will be first or second.

V. Entertainment: 1931-32: Tea dansant with alumnae, Founders' Day banquet, Spring formal. "Zeppelin" idea, tea in honor of newly installed Tri Deltas. "Gay Ninety" dance, Christmas kids party, sport dance. 1932-33: Annual bridge tea and fashion show, tea honoring newly installed Kappa Kappa Gamma, Lambda Omega, Phi Sigma Sigma, and Delta Gamma chapters, cooky-shine honoring Miss Onken, Spring formal, Founders' Day banquet, Mothers' Day tea, breakfast for fathers, senior farewell banquet, country club dance, tea for faculty. 1933-34: Annual bridge-tea and fashion show, cooky-shine honoring Mrs. Dick, our housemother, cooky-shine honoring Mrs. Alford, Christmas kids' party, Christmas supper dance, prom week open house, "Devil frolic" for new pledges, Sunday evening supper, Arrow banquet honoring Dean Slavens, mothers' and fathers' reception, pledge bridge tea and fashion show, spring formal featuring "Hawaiian idea."

VI. Chapter House: Chapter house is owned by an active and alumnae organization and is valued at $10,000. The house has been painted inside and out, the furniture in the living room and a few pieces upstairs have been covered. The kitchen has been remodeled. We also have a new refrigerator and stove.

VII. Maintenance of Alumnae Interest: Alumnae have an open invitation to meetings and once a month an alumnae representative attends an active meeting to offer suggestions for chapter improvements. A bond of interest between actives and alumnae is maintained by the joint Pi Beta Phi Holding Corporation in whose name the chapter house is owned. The alumnae are invited to attend all social functions. The alumnae support is 100 per cent with our annual bridge tea and fashion show. The active and alumnae chapters join in a cooky-shine yearly. We have had only one transfer in the past three years and she was affiliated.

VIRGINIA ALLISON

Annual Reports of Alumnae Clubs

ALPHA PROVINCE

BOSTON CLUB

During the past year Boston Alumnae Club has established contacts with more than 100 members of I B Φ, including representatives of 22 chapters, and has increased its paid membership from 39 to 71. In spite of inclement weather, the average attendance at the four regular meetings was 55.

In November we were honored by a visit from Miss Onken, whose delightful informal talk made our first meeting a memorable occasion. At the January meeting keen interest in the Settlement School was aroused by Charlotte Brown's lively account of her experiences as an official visitor to the school. A discussion of proposed constitutional changes led by Alpha Province President, E. Louise Richardson, at the March meeting, resulted in a revision of the club's constitution and by-laws. Founders' Day celebration was in the form of a luncheon and annual meeting. Regular club activities were supplemented by those of the three suburban groups, who enjoyed many informal gatherings, card parties, picnics, and teas.

In addition to the club we have a Massachusetts A Association, informally organized for the purpose of aiding the local chapter. For the annual meeting of the association and the senior farewell in May, Ruth Dennis graciously opened her home in Brookline. Absent members of Massachusetts A wrote or telephoned greetings, and a gift of $15.00 was presented to the active chapter.

The outstanding event of the summer was the annual reunion, picnic, and swim, the club being entertained by Anna Robinson Nickerson at her summer place in Quincy.

Although the Boston Club has stressed personal contacts rather than the raising of money, we have sent $185 to the Settlement School, and have made small contributions to the local chapter, the Undergraduate Loan Fund, and the Endowment Fund.

VIRGINIA CROOKER

BUFFALO CLUB

The seven regular meetings of the Buffalo Alumnae Club were supplemented with a Christmas party, a dinner party, Founders' Day luncheon and a June picnic. All meetings and social functions were well attended. At the Founders' Day luncheon five of the members presented an original historical sketch of the lives of the Founders.

A sale of Arrow Craft products in the fall was most successful, as was the dinner presented by the Alumnae Company of America, in January. This year the club sent $60 to the Settlement School, $25 to the Endowment Fund and $10 to the Loan Fund.

Officers for next year were installed in April and plans for meetings are already under way.

ADELAIDE M. ROBERTSON

BURLINGTON (VT.) CLUB

During the current year nine meetings of the club were held, five of which were business meetings. The others included our annual Settlement School sale and tea, a Christmas party with the active chapter members, a Valentine party in honor of the Mothers' Club and June spread. The average attendance at these meetings was fourteen.

Special effort was directed this year toward more frequent and more informal meetings with the active group, a closer relationship with our most active Mothers' Club, and a definite attempt to interest alumnae living within a radius of thirty to fifty miles of Burlington. At the close of the year we feel that we have succeeded in large measure in these respects.

In addition to our usual gifts to the Settlement School and the Loan Fund, we gave a nominal amount to the Endowment Fund and raised the equivalent of one girl's room rent for the chapter house so that she might take advantage of the honor bestowed upon her by the dean of women in being chosen as an outstanding fraternity girl to receive a fellowship and live in one of the regular dormitories as a sort of "leaven" for dormitory life.

Another innovation, evolving from the need to save expense, was the serving of initiation banquet at the chapter house by the alumnae club. Besides fulfilling the purpose for which it was planned, this proved a real factor in strengthening the bond between alumnae club and chapter, and deepening the affection of the undergraduates for their chapter home.

Looking toward the coming year our president and nominating committee put a great deal of care and effort into a general outline covering the hoped-for accomplishments. This plan is designed to make our program more comprehensive and efficient and to better divide the responsibilities among the members and we feel will prove very helpful.

LOIS B. HORSFORD

HARTFORD CLUB

The Hartford Club has finished its first year as a separate club. There have been ten meetings with an average attendance of fourteen. These meetings have been of varied types and at different times in order to have as many attend as possible. Luncheon meetings and sandwich meetings, at which each person brings a sandwich and the hostess furnishes something to go with it, have proved most satisfactory. The June picnic closed the club's activity for the summer. The informal contract groups met in between the regular meetings, which are held the second Thursday of each month, and added to the Settlement School contribution.

The club has concentrated its efforts this year on the Settlement School, and $120 has been sent in from voluntary solicitation. We have also tried to increase the magazine subscriptions.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the New Haven Club, with our group as hostess. We were privileged to hear some personal remembrances of Libby Brook-Gaddis from Mrs. Stanley Manning, whose mother lived next door to our beloved founder.

Members of the club modeled Chinese costumes after a luncheon at which members of the Western Massachusetts Alumnae Club were our guests. Mrs. C. T. Paul, mother-in-law of our president, very kindly explained the use of each costume and showed other articles which she had acquired during her many years in China. We enjoyed Chinese tea and rice cakes in the approved Chinese manner.

In the future a Panhellenic luncheon will be an annual affair since the one which we sponsored this year was such a success. A hundred members of women's fraternities attended this year.

The club is very proud of Miss Onken's recognition by Monmouth College; we enjoyed her short call on our club this year.

We regret that not one of our members will be at Convention, but hope that our exhibit will take some of our enthusiasm with it.

ERMINE L. POLLARD

NEW HAVEN CLUB

The New Haven Club this year, with twelve paid members, looks back over the joint Founders' Day luncheon and meeting with the Hartford Club, and eight club meetings.

The club has commenced this year a plan of interesting and lucrative meetings which has been successful, that of lectures by members on their travels or profession, for which a charge of twenty-five or thirty-five cents is made. One lecture on Interior Decoration, for the benefit of the Settlement School, was made public, and was advertised by notices in the newspapers, and by posters at the Y.W.C.A., where the lecture was held. Several times the members have met for supper at the cafeteria of the Y.W.C.A., and for a meeting following.

These lectures and a card party were the main sources of our contribution of $30 to the Settlement School, and of $5.00 to the Endowment Fund. In addition, a great many Arrow Craft products have been sold.

MARY MEYER TOLMAN

NEW YORK CLUB

The New York Alumnae Club, due to its location, may have an ever-changing membership, but its programs during the past year have followed the same general idea as in previous years. The October meeting was an informal luncheon and get-together at the Fraternity Clubs Building. Quite a large number of regular members and several new ones gathered for a sociable time followed by a short business meeting. On the first Sunday in November $\Pi B \Phi$ sponsored its annual "tea" held at the Panhellenic. It had been planned in honor of Colorado A girls who had recently been winners of the Balfour Cup; when the time for the tea drew near we learned that Miss Onken would also be present as guest of honor. The occasion proved a most interesting and enthusiastic one with a large attendance of Pi Phi and their friends as well as guests from other fraternities. Mr. Shannon, a Pi Phi husband, entertained most delightfully during the afternoon with character songs. During Miss Onken's stay at the Panhellenic there was also a Sunday night supper for Pi Phi at which there were many inspiring talks and discussions that served as an impetus for our club activities during the coming year.

The December meeting is always a Settlement School meeting. Mrs. Speir had on sale a number of Settlement School articles to supplement the already large sales she had made among Long Island Pi Phi and friends. She also increased our interest in the weaving done by our Arrow Craft Shop workers by showing on a small loom how the work is actually done. At this meeting was taken our annual collection for our Christmas gift to the school. A substantial contribution has also been made to the school for the year from the sale of Arrow Craft and weaving articles, from magazine subscriptions, and from individual contributions.

In February after our business meeting we were whisked off to Portugal in a charmingly illustrated talk by Mr. Lawton Mackail, a Pi Phi husband (you see, we certainly do make use of these Pi Phi husbands!) who is the author of "Portugal for Two," the two being he and Mrs. Mackail, who spent several interesting months in that country prior to his writing the book. Mr. Mackail autographed a number of copies of his book, which were on sale during the social tea hour following the meeting.

In March the annual meeting took place with the usual reports and election of officers. Book reports by two of our own members and an account of current Broadway productions by a third proved a most interesting program.

Our Founders' Day luncheon, on the real Founders' Day date this year, was held at Panhellenic. An unusually large number enjoyed the delicious luncheon and the program, centering around the coming Convention, a representative of the Northern Pacific showing pictures of Yellowstone and the West. Several members from our offspring and neighbor, the Northern New Jersey Club, were present and brought greetings.

The Long Island and Metropolitan groups have been particularly active this year. In November the Metropolitan group sponsored a cooky-shine at Mrs. McKendrew's home; an informal dance in January and a bridge and tea in March, both at Panhellenic, provided entertainment for Pi Phi in the city. Long Island Pi Phi got together for tea and bridge on several occasions. The Hudson River Valley group, recently organized, and the Westchester group have also had interesting informal gatherings from time to time during the year.

In spite of some handicaps we feel that our efforts have had a large measure of success, which we hope will be even greater in the year to come.

MILDRED B. CATHERS

ROCHESTER CLUB

The Rochester Club has completed a successful and interesting year. There have been six regular meetings, a luncheon for Founders' Day, an evening party for husbands, and two benefit bridge parties.

The average attendance at meetings has been fifteen, and we had twenty-three at the Founders' Day luncheon. Of about fifty alumnae living in or near Rochester, thirty-one have attended at least one meeting this year, and fifteen have paid dues.

We contributed $75 to the Settlement School. The money was earned by bridge parties and the sale of furniture polish and floor wax. Next year we plan to have a book club in addition to the other money-making plans.

DOROTHY W. PULVER

SYRACUSE CLUB

The only meeting this year which has not already been reported in the ARROW is our splendid Founders' Day celebration, which was held at the chapter house, with the actives and the Ithaca alumnae group. There were about 95 present, and after a delightful luncheon, we were entertained by Margaret Loop, one of the seniors, in two piano numbers, and by Margaret Gray, a freshman, who gave a reading. Following these, the active chapter sang the songs which they were using for the annual university step-singing contest.

Summing up our year, we feel that it has been an unusually successful one, under the able leadership of our energetic president, Mrs. Fox. We have held 14 meetings; we have 55 paid members; we earned $154 at the rummage sale, and sold $55 worth of Settlement School articles. We held an exhibit of these articles, and enjoyed the films of Gatlinburg which were shown at one of the meetings; we sent our usual $100 to the School, also a gift at Christmas time of 66 dressed dolls. We have sent $10 to the loan fund and a like sum to the endowment fund.

The policy of having speakers at the meetings has proven a decided success, and has added much to the interest of the occasions.

Our circular news letters which are sent annually to our scattered alumnae should be mentioned, also, for we feel that any extra effort involved in getting them off is more than repaid when we hear from such "far-away" members as Louise Coldwell Post in Bangkok, Siam, who wrote recently.

CHARLOTTE N. CHAFFEE

TORONTO CLUB

Toronto Alumnae Club held its annual meeting at the new home of Amy Hector Davidge. The reports of the year's work were very satisfactory.

The altruistic work of the club included sending books and clothing to a worker in Labrador, filling thirty-seven Christmas stockings for children in the Out-patients Department of Toronto General Hospital, and contributing to the Settlement School. Funds of the club were also drawn upon for the annual gift to the active chapter and a special gift in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Ontario A, for the usual gifts of Pi Beta Phi spoons to the brides, and for the cost of the Club's exhibit at Convention.

Two outstanding meetings of the year were those addressed by Professor Norman MacKenzie and Violet Maw Anderson.

The final party was the luncheon for our graduating seniors. They were a particularly brilliant group, and we are proud to welcome them as alumnae.

ELIZABETH CRUICKSHANK

WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS CLUB

We had a most enjoyable day with the Hartford Club at our joint meeting. There was luncheon at the Woman's Club and a Chinese Fashion Show at the home of Mrs. J. W. Paul. Helen Bosworth is our new president and we all look forward to a successful and happy year under her leadership. We cordially invite all Pi Phi in western Massachusetts to join us and help make our club as large and progressive as possible.

We were all happy and proud to hear of Miss Onken's being honored by Monmouth College.

BETA PROVINCE

ATHENS CLUB

The Athens Club met for organization on February 27 with Lucile Finsterwald.

It was decided that four meetings would be held as follows:

Constitution meeting in March, Founders' Day meeting with the active chapter in April, and cooky-shine with the active chapter in May. This program has been carried out.

Officers elected were: President, Lucile Henry Finsterwald; vice-president, Ellen Davis Goddard; treasurer, Merna Mills; corresponding and recording secretary, Helen Reynolds. No officers have been elected for next year. The expectation is that the present officers will carry over until the fall meetings, or until the expiration of the year from date of organization, February 27, 1934.

HELEN REYNOLDS

CINCINNATI CLUB

Due to the combined efforts of all the members of the Cincinnati Club, we feel that we have just completed a most successful year. We have 50 members and 35 paid members, and each of these aided in selling Settlement School products, giving teas and bridge parties, in order that we might be able to make the following contributions: $10 to Undergraduate Loan Fund; $30 to Endowment Fund (to be paid in 3 installments); $100 to Settlement School.

Under Mrs. Wright's able direction, the Club was able to clear $30 from the sale of Settlement School goods. We sold many of these this year at teas, and as bridge prizes, and by exhibiting them at the benefit theater party.

The nominating committee made its report at the Founders' Day banquet and the new officers were voted upon. The result of this brings the following list: president, Mrs. C. N. Burton, 467 Grand Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio; vice-president, Mrs. C. R. Wright, 5450 Hamilton Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio; secretary, Miss Gertrude Addicott, 3962 Smith Road, Norwood, Ohio; treasurer, Miss Mildred Graham, 3424 Brookline Blvd., Cincinnati, Ohio; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. Burton Rivers, 6729 Palmetto Street, Cincinnati.

The Club is very sorry to lose Mrs. Theobald, who has moved to Louisville. She was a most efficient president and the friend of every member.

Plans are now being made for the coming year and we are looking forward to another banner year.

Mrs. L. B. RIVERS

CLEVELAND CLUB

A busy October ushered in the fall season with the first meeting, the annual rummage sale and a benefit bridge party. The sale of Settlement School products in November was more than usually successful. Ways and means of earning money to add to the contribution to the Settlement School have been many and varied. Two new methods are of particular interest. The Towle Manufacturing Company's silver display was brought to Cleveland by the club with substantial profit. The second, and most ambitious plan of the year, was the sponsorship of a dance program held April 19. Doris Humphrey and Charles Weidman, the foremost modern dancers of America, were presented in this recital which was given in Cleveland's unusually beautiful symphony concert hall. This proved to be an outstanding success in every way.

The programs for the regular monthly luncheon and dinner meetings have included book reviews, readings and musical selections by members of the club and the showing of motion pictures of the Settlement School.

A contribution of $900.85 was made to the Settlement School this year, and $10.00 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund. Special effort has been made to add to the Endowment Fund pledges.

Many Cleveland alumnae shared with the Columbus Alumnae Club in their state-wide celebration of Founders' Day.

At the June meeting the new officers were installed and plans made for entertainment during the summer of prospective rushers.

FLEDA I. ADAMS

DAYTON CLUB

The past year has been very successful for the Dayton Club. Attendance has picked up greatly, slightly more money was raised than last year, and the interest in, and enthusiasm for, the club seems to be very much increased.

Money-making projects were the same as last year; the sale of Christmas cards, and Settlement School goods. Also, a benefit card party was held in the spring, an undertaking not attempted for the past few years.

Nine meetings were held, one of which was a Christmas party. In February the usual entertainment for husbands and sweethearts took place. It was a dinner and bridge party at the home of one of the members in Yellow Springs, 15 miles from Dayton. A picnic for the same group is planned for June.

Mrs. Curtis, our Province Vice-President, paid us a visit in February, and made a very interesting contribution to our meeting. In April, the Columbus Alumnae Club invited all the Ohio clubs who could, to celebrate Founders' Day with them in Columbus, at a luncheon, Saturday, April 28. Twelve from the Dayton Club were present, and came home full of enthusiasm for the program.

JEAN M. ROEHM

HARRISBURG-LANCASTER CLUB

During the year 1933-34 the Harrisburg-Lancaster Club held nine meetings. Included in this group were five business meetings. At the September business meeting which was in the form of a luncheon given by Mrs. Shepler, committee chairmen were announced and the business for the year discussed.

In October very attractive program folders were given to each member by the program committee, and these folders have proved most useful throughout the year. At this meeting also a bridge party was held, the proceeds of which went, of course, to the Settlement School. Instead of the regular annual public bridge party, each member held an individual bridge party of her own. Christmas cards were sold and each member was urged to do her share for the Settlement School. This year the Club contributed $125.00 to the School and $10.00 to the Loan Fund.

The social meetings of the year were held in October, December, April and May. The October meeting was in the form of a dessert bridge, and everyone seemed to like this novel way of raising money for the Settlement School. In December Mrs. Rhoads entertained us with a Covered Dish Supper. In April, Founders' Day was celebrated by a luncheon at the Stone House in Mechanicsburg. In May a breakfast was served to the Club by Mrs. Hutchison at her home.

The Club feels that this year has been most successful, and is now enthusiastically making plans for next year.

MARGARET HANDSHAW

MAHONING VALLEY CLUB

The meetings of the Mahoning Valley Club have had an average attendance of fifteen (15) this year, with nineteen (19) paying dues. We have held eight meetings, luncheons—sometimes followed by bridge, and others by the program only. The outstanding meeting of the year was in March when we had as our guests our Province Vice-President, Mrs. Curtis, who is always so welcome, and Mrs. Kewley of the Endowment Fund Committee. It was an inspiration to have such worth while talks from them.

Mrs. S. C. Stebbins was the guest speaker for the semi-formal dinner given by our local Panhellenic on March 17. Her subject was "Trends in Fraternities." We Pi Phi's were so proud of her and some twenty-two (22) of us turned out to hear her. She is surely the ideal of what a fraternity woman should be.

We contributed to the Undergraduate Loan Fund, the Endowment Fund, and the Settlement School and hope that with the coming of better times our gifts will be larger.

A Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon in the lovely garden of Mrs. M. F. Morgan in Poland. At that time we made plans for a more varied program for next year.

Our last meeting will be a picnic June 9th at which time we will complete plans for a party to be given the actives home from school and their rushers.

The new officers are as follows: President, Mrs. E. G.

McConnell; vice-president, Mrs. M. F. Morgan; recording secretary, Helen Durant; corresponding secretary, Mildred White Stalker; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Henry Kale.
MILDRED WHITE STALKER

MORGANTOWN CLUB

Founders' Day was celebrated in a more elaborate manner than usual this year by the local chapter and alumnae club. Invitations to the celebration were extended to every graduate, and a large number of persons in the state attended the luncheon at the Morgantown Country Club as well as the dinner-dance at the Hotel Morgan.

The April meeting was held at the home of Mrs. P. I. Reed with Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Charles Hodges as hostesses. Eleanor Stone was in charge of the program which concerned the Constitution.

ELEANOR STONE

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY CLUB

The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club of II B Φ has held ten meetings during the year 1934-1935, including a membership tea, a guest tea, a picnic, and a Founders' Day banquet. The other meetings included luncheon. Our attendance varied from thirty-five to fifty-six members.

At the time of Miss Onken's visit we had an executive luncheon and a tea, where we could confer with her and hear her advice and news of II B Φ. We also had a visit from Mrs. Curtis in December.

We have eighty-one paid members. We have contributed $80 to the Endowment Fund, $40 to the Loan Fund, and $240 to the Settlement School.

ELIZABETH K. HUTCHISON

PITTSBURGH CLUB

During the year of 1933-1934 the Pittsburgh Alumnae Club has held seven meetings and a picnic. Most of the meetings this year were held in the homes of the members, on the third Saturday of each month.

In November we had a luncheon for Mrs. Arthur Curtis, Beta Province Vice-President. In December we had a cooking school to raise money for the Settlement School. For a little variety our March meeting was held in the evening. A lovely buffet supper was served at the home of Mrs. Tillotson. The election of officers followed. The officers for the coming year are: Miss Harriet Wilson, president; Miss Arvella Weisal, vice-president; Mrs. E. W. Tillotson, recording secretary; Miss Katherine Turnbull, corresponding secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, treasurer.

On Saturday, April 28, we celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Twentieth Century Club. A picnic in June concluded our activities for the year.

The club will miss an active member next year, Mrs. Marie Stebbins. Mrs. Stebbins will make her home in Michigan.

KATHERINE M. TURNBULL

OHIO VALLEY CLUB

The Ohio Valley Alumnae Club gave a Benefit Bridge May 19 to raise money for the Endowment Fund, Loan Fund and the Settlement School. Materials from the Settlement School were displayed and sold. This was the first time for them to be shown before the public in this vicinity.

On June 28 the club had a picnic for all Pi Phis in the district at the home of Mrs. Carl Gustkey. This marked the closing of the club meetings for the summer months.

The first week in September the club, with the help of the town actives, will have a rushing arty for the prospective college rushees.

The program for next year will not be made out until later in the summer.

Dorothy Farnell was elected president of the Panhellenic Association for the Ohio Valley for the coming year.

NELL HALLER

PORTSMOUTH CLUB

On February 14 of this year the Portsmouth Alumnae Club was founded and its officers installed by Mrs. A. R. Curtis. We have had four meetings and added four members to our roll, a progress of which we are very proud. Almost the entire membership journeyed to Columbus for the All-Ohio Founders' Day luncheon.

We are very anxious for all interested and unaffiliated alumnae in the vicinity of Portsmouth to get in touch with the Membership Chairman, Mrs. James Wilhelm (Bernice Martin) 1414 Offeneer Street.

The officers are: President, Maude Wilson, 1637 Highland Avenue; corresponding secretary, Martha Frederick, 520 Union Street; treasurer, Virginia Nye, 1023 Second Street.

MARTHA FREDERICK

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY CLUB

The Southern New Jersey Club has had six business meetings this year, all but one of which was preceded by a luncheon either at Miss Carey's Tea Room in Haddonfield or the Woodbury Country Club. Each has been followed by a program that we have all greatly enjoyed. In January we turned scientific, touring the Franklin Institute and Planetarium. In February we concentrated on raising money for the Settlement School. Several people outside of the fraternity were so interested in the school and the exhibits of hand-work that they sent voluntary contributions.

We are very proud and happy to have Mrs. G. Edmund Strattan as our delegate to Convention and are looking forward to our October meeting and her glowing accounts.

MARGARET POWERS

TOLEDO CLUB

The Toledo Alumnae Club made a plan at its opening meeting in September for attempting to raise the Settlement School pledge at one time so that the remainder of the meetings might be for the promotion of good fellowship rather than concern over how to raise money.

Ruth Fox, Ohio B, was chairman of the rummage sale which netted $125 on September 28. $110 was sent as this year's pledge to the Settlement School and $10 to be applied on deficit of 1931 pledge.

The plan worked out successfully as the nine following monthly meetings were well attended with an average attendance of 25 persons. Seven dinner meetings were held in various members' homes, two luncheons and one evening bridge party for "Pi Phi" men.

At Christmas time Helen Rae Newell of the Toledo Blade staff, was chairman of the committee who selected a poor family to whom they delivered food, clothing, and toys.

On April 21 the club celebrated Founders' Day by having a luncheon at the Toledo Woman's Club. On April 28 the club was invited to Columbus to attend the state celebration.

Mrs. Joseph Hampe, Kansas A, Charlotte Bissell and Carolyn Bolles, Wisconsin A, and Helen Rae Newell, Ohio B, have been welcome additions to our group this year. One active member, Martha Chase Johnson, Michigan B, moved to Washington, D.C.

Financially and socially we feel we have enjoyed a very successful year.

MARIAN RIGGS

GAMMA PROVINCE

BALTIMORE CLUB

The Baltimore Club this year has had a meeting once each month beginning on November 20 with the Settlement School meeting at Mrs. Tottle's home. Gifts were brought for the Settlement School Christmas box. Miss Bishop was our guest and sang and played mountain ballads. The December meeting was a White Elephant bridge party, the members donating the white elephants for prizes. Mrs. Sippel was hostess and the men were invited. In January Mrs. Hammond entertained the active chapter and the club at tea in her new home. A supper meeting was held at Jo Spencer's in February and was as usual much enjoyed. The March meeting again included the active chapter. Mrs. Grafflin gave us a beautiful party, a scavenger hunt. April 28 on the dot, Founders' Day was celebrated at a dinner. Mrs. TeLinde engineered the proceedings and our thanks go to her for a successful occasion. Dr. May L. Keller was an honored guest. In May a business meeting took place at the home of the president, Caroline Diggs. Election of officers and other business not taken care of at the executive meetings was disposed of. The Alumnae reunion is held annually at Mrs. Tottle's the first week in June. Coming as it does, at the Goucher Commencement, it offers an opportunity of entertaining some of the rarer alumnae from out-of-town.

The first Panhellenic dinner in Baltimore was held on May 4 at the Lord Baltimore Hotel. There were 138 present, five of whom were wearing arrows. The Grand President of A Φ presided, and the principal speaker was Judge Matthews of the Tax Appeal Court in Washington, the only woman judge in this federal court.

The Settlement School contribution was made by personal subscription and amounted to $70. We were also able to send $10 to the Loan Fund and $10 to the Endowment Fund.

The year has been rather marked by illness as well as several deaths in the families of club members. And in the death of Helen Lampton Lowe, the club treasurer, we suffered a loss. Nevertheless, we close the season well and look forward to next year's program under the leadership of Mary Dana Carr.

President, Mrs. Merrill R. Carr (Mary Dana), 308 Taplow Rd., Baltimore; vice-president, Mrs. A. D. Kennedy (Margaret Kemper), Ruxton, Md.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Howard Detro (Mildred Gray), 816 Kingston Rd., Stoneleigh, Baltimore; treasurer, Gertrude Kutzleb, 2701 Garrison Ave., Baltimore.

CAROLINE S. WATERS

COLUMBIA CLUB

The alumnae members of South Carolina A are not meeting regularly during the summer but are cooperating with the active chapter in plans for fall rushing. Many of the alumnae joined the actives at a delightful house party which took place at "Seabreezes" on Myrtle Beach Strand the last week in June. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. J. R. Hawkins ('31), and twenty-one girls attended. The occasion was made most happy by letters from Mary Lees Graham ('33) and Katherine Bush, then en route to National Convention on the "Pi Beta Phi Special." This is the third year in succession that an ocean beach house party has been held, and the affair is growing into quite a tradition.

Martha Aiken ('32), who is in training at Presbyterian Hospital, New York, is spending a few weeks at home. Helen Terry Eagles ('33), our Louisville bride, is expected home in August for a visit. Other Pi Phi brides drop in on us from time to time—Adair Aiken Watson, Margaret Dial Norwood, Jane Gibbas Edens, and Emily Mullins Oulla. Charlotte Coker ('33) is wearing a diamond, her fiance being Tom Taylor Aiken, son of Mrs. Wyatt Aiken, one of our most enthusiastic alumnae.

We have been happy to have as our guests Miss Mary Hornaday and Mrs. Emma Drury Sippel during the year. A tea was given in December at the chapter house, from which we were able to send $10 to the Settlement School. We have also made a contribution to the Endowment Fund and hope to increase the sum next year. Mrs. James E. Adams had charge of the sale.

Our meetings have had an average attendance of seven, out of our ten members. We met nine times during the year. The Founders' Day banquet was very fully attended and most successful.

MAUDE MILLER HAWKINS

WASHINGTON CLUB

The Washington Alumnae Club of II B Φ has held six regular evening meetings and four afternoon meetings. In October the club met at Thompson's Dairy Auditorium. Maude Hudson spoke on "Pi Beta Phi Accomplishments in the past Year." Mrs. Stowell C. Stebbins, Assistant to the Grand President, addressed the club at the annual Settlement School meeting in November, held at the home of Marion McCoy. Mrs. Richard W. Hynson was hostess at the Christmas bridge party. In January we enjoyed an evening at the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, given to the discussion of Pi Phis with interesting jobs. The March meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Byron U. Graham. Mr. Clifford K. Berryman, cartoonist for The Evening Star, gave an illustrated talk. Founders' Day was celebrated at the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Wilson Compton was hostess to the club at the annual May supper.

The club has given $10 to the Loan Fund, $25 to the Endowment Fund, and $380 to the Settlement School. A gift of $35 was made to the active chapter.

MURIEL D. HARROLD

DELTA PROVINCE

ANN ARBOR CLUB

The first meeting of the year was a business meeting and tea at the home of Mrs. Homer Heath. The program was planned for the year and the dues were reduced to $2.50 including the national dues. A rummage sale was not considered feasible, so a candy and cooky sale was held in conjunction with the Settlement School sale shortly before Christmas. Over $300 worth of Settlement School products have been sold this year.

The advisory board entertained the pledges at luncheon on initiation day.

At the March meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. A. H. White, the following officers were elected for next year: Mrs. Paul Barker, president; Mrs. Herbert Shaw, vice-president, Mrs. Noyes, secretary; Mrs. Ray L. Fisher, treasurer and Mrs. Walter V. Marshall and Mrs. Chas. L. Jamison, members of the advisory board.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the state meeting in Hillsdale. Marie Winsor Stebbins was the speaker after the luncheon.

A tea was given at the home of Mrs. Henry E. Riggs honoring the active girls and their mothers who were attending the Mothers' Day houseparty.

We have given $10.00 to the Endowment Fund, $10.00 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund and $5.00 to the Fellowship Fund.

MAE KELLER

BLOOMFIELD HILLS CLUB

The Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club has had a paid membership of fifteen out of eighteen resident alumnae this year. Luncheon meetings have been held regularly every two weeks from October until June in the homes of members. The average attendance has been twelve.

This club has contributed $10.00 to the Loan Fund, $15.00 to the Endowment Fund, $3.00 to the Birmingham Community House Fund and we have sold $116.00 worth of Arrowcraft products. Our magazine subscriptions have made a small profit for the Settlement School.

We sent as a gift a chromium salad plate to each of our two nearest active chapters, Michigan 'A and Michigan B.

In comparison with larger clubs our group activities and accomplishments seem small, but our members are genuinely interested and enthusiastic about all fraternity work.

MIRIAM DEMING KICE

BLOOMINGTON CLUB

The Bloomington Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi entertained the thirteen seniors of the active chapter June 4 at the Rose Tea Room. Between the dinner courses Pi Phi songs were sung and the customs of the different periods were told by members of the club.

The "Gay Nineties" was depicted by Miss Pearl Neeld. She emphasized the difference in the elaborateness of initiation then and now, showing how they had real pleasure from "eats" out of a paper sack and drinking from a tin cup.

Mrs. Caroline Karsell represented the period from 1900 to 1910 and commented on the differences in dress. We had forgotten about some of the—what we then thought necessary articles of clothing, which are now not known by the younger generation.

Mrs. Mary Kreuger told of the differences in the "Rush Parties," and Mrs. Wm. Thornbury commented on University activities.

The advantages of membership in an alumnae club was told by Mrs. Lucile Hoadley. Every senior was urged to affiliate with an alumnae club.

Then came the seniors' contribution. One group had been asked to tell why they chose Pi Phi and the other about plans for next year. Some had not expected to divulge their secrets so soon.

We now have the Anna Rott Scholarship Fund of $100 which is to be loaned to a Pi Phi attending Indiana University.

Two of our club members have been married since spring. Mrs. Maude Hughes and Dr. Homer Woolery—Margaret Dunn and Francis Regester.

We are represented at convention by Mrs. Philip Eskew, Mrs. Maude Woolery and Pearl Neeld. Those of us who cannot attend are eager to hear the reports in September.

ALICE CAWLEY

CALUMET REGIONAL CLUB

The first meeting of the Calumet Regional Alumnae Club, as an organized group, was held in January. The election of officers was preceded by a cooky-shine, which was much enjoyed. Plans were discussed for the remaining meetings of the year.

Our second meeting was devoted to the Settlement School. Interesting discussions were given by those who had visited the school, and Arrow Craft products were sold.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a one o'clock luncheon with a program following.

Our last meeting of the year, an evening meeting held in May, was devoted to an election of officers and a discussion of active chapters.

Although our alumnae club is perhaps one of the newest, we feel we have had a very successful partial year. We have seventeen paid members and an average attendance of ten at each meeting. At all meetings we have business first, followed by a social hour.

ELIZABETH THOMAS STIER

DETROIT CLUB

The Detroit Alumnae Club has had a good year, combining its social and charitable activities, both in its groups and as a whole. The teas given by the groups were purely social in character, and a good chance to just visit.

In January some money was raised by a study in flat silverware made by the Towle Manufacturing Company. In February quite a successful dessert-bridge was held at the Wardell Hotel.

We have also been most successful in our Magazine subscriptions this year, and so hope to add to the $65.00 sent to Settlement School. We realize we should make even more money this way another year, for the success thus far has been due to a few members. We also sent $20.00 to the Endowment Fund, and $10.00 to the Loan Fund this year.

On Founders' Day all Michigan Alumnae, and others from Toledo and elsewhere, got together for a luncheon at Hillsdale, followed by a meeting, and later a tea at the Michigan A chapter house. It was a lovely day in every sense of the word, and the effort of the Hillsdale Alumnae Club, and Michigan A was much appreciated.

There are about 150 resident Pi Beta Phi, and this year 63 members. We are hoping very much that more will join us another year.

President, Mrs. Hugh Finch, 17378 Warrington Drive; vice-president, Mrs. Russell Meyer, 18043 Cherrylawn; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Walter Groff, 4875 Courville Road; recording secretary, Retta McKnight, 4861 Bedford Road; treasurer, Mrs. E. S. Reid, 740 Virginia Park.

ANNA STUBBS GROFF

FORT WAYNE CLUB

A May dinner meeting at the home of Dorothy Magley was the final meeting of the year. An installation of new officers followed the dinner. Three reels of moving pictures of Yellowstone Park, and life on a dude ranch were shown in the interest of convention. There will be no regular meetings of the club during the summer, but plans will be made by a joint committee of alumnae and active members for rushing before the schools commence in September.

This year has been very successful for us. We have contributed to the Settlement School, the Loan Fund, and the Endowment Fund, and are happy to have been able to increase our contributions over last year.

HELEN DINIUS

FRANKLIN CLUB

The Franklin Alumnae Club feels a very real sense of achievement when it reviews the past club year. We have had seven regular meetings since last September. These were dinner meetings with five members as hostesses. There has been an average attendance of 29.

We have followed our usual custom of having the patronesses and groups from the active chapter as guests.

We have had three special meetings. The cooky-shine in September for the new pledges, with 100 present. The birthday party in January, when there were 75 present, and our Commencement reunion in June with about 100 present.

We have sent $50 to the Settlement School, $3 to the Endowment Fund, and $3 to the Loan Fund. We gave the Active Chapter drapes for their new chapter room, and have added about $25 to our own local loan fund, which is proving such a boon to fine local girls.

We gave a lovely Mothers' Day tea for Pi Phi mothers. The Mothers' Club entertained the Alumnae Club with a delightful dinner party in March.

We have had the required programs and such other entertainment as the different hostesses cared to have.

The Commencement dinner in June concludes our activities for the year. The Pi Phi seniors are special guests and awards are made at this time.

GRAND RAPIDS CLUB

The Grand Rapids Alumnae Club held six regular meetings during the past year. Although there are twenty-two alumnae in the city, only eleven of these are regular paid members. The club contributes to the Settlement School, the Endowment Fund and has joined with the other Michigan clubs in a joint celebration of Founders' Day. We are anxious to get in touch with isolated members of our fraternity in Western Michigan and shall appreciate help in that direction.

IRENE KINGSTON

HILLSDALE CLUB

On Founders' Day the Hillsdale Club was hostess for the state luncheon. An informal gathering was held at the Pi Phi house, followed by luncheon at East Hall on the campus. Vivian Lyon Moore was toastmistress. We then adjourned to Mauck Hall, where Marie Winsor Stebins addressed us on the topic, "Fraternities in This Changing World." At the close of this session an informal tea was given at the Pi Phi house. The Hillsdale Club was delighted to have the opportunity to entertain all Michigan Pi Phi and to have our campus inspected.

The May meeting of our club was held with our president, Mrs. Pridaux, and luncheon was served in her charming garden. Installation of officers for the coming year was held at that time, and annual reports given. Our June meeting will be in the form of a Commencement luncheon with the active chapter.

KATHERINE LYONS HICKS

INDIANAPOLIS CLUB

The Indianapolis Alumnae Club opened its year with a luncheon-bridge at Highland Country Club.

The October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. H. Straightoff. A lecture on applied psychology was given. In November Mrs. H. E. Miller of Indiana A, an outstanding interior decorator in Indianapolis, gave a talk on her profession, using samples.

The Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Scott. Dr. Stanley Cane gave an illustrated talk on the Smoky Mountain region as a background for our Settlement School meeting.

A delightful guest tea was given in January. Anthony Adverse by Hervey Allen was reviewed.

The February meeting carried out the Valentine motif. The program centered on Italian Renaissance art.

The Constitution meeting was at the chapter house in March with the active members as guests.

In April our luncheon was held at Charm House. Election of officers was followed by a book review on Chinese life.

Founders' Day was observed April 28 at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

May 12 was husbands' night. Michael De Blumenthaw, formerly of Russia, gave a talk on Revolutionary Russia as he remembered it. A musical program followed.

Our year terminated with a luncheon for the Indiana F seniors and installation of officers.

A $10.00 contribution to the Endowment Fund was made from the treasury.

A bridge tournament and card party, plus sales of Settlement School goods made up our fund for the School.

JULIA BOWMAN LEEDY

WEST LAFAYETTE (IND.) CLUB

Some very enjoyable contacts were brought about between the alumnae and active groups here this past year as a result of our carefully planned program. Our dinner for the pledges in October, our "Sophomore Spread" in January, "Junior Jubilee" in March, and "Senior Party" in May, all proved to be gatherings that were quite beneficial from the standpoint of promoting mutual interests. Besides these get-together occasions, we had four party meetings of our own, and two financially successful affairs—a Settlement School tea and benefit bridge.

One of the high points of the year was the state luncheon in Indianapolis, which a good many of our members were fortunate enough to attend. When the Purdue chapter was awarded the scholarship cup on this occasion, we alumnae swelled with pride.

RHEA E. WALKER

EPSILON PROVINCE

COLUMBIA (MO.) CLUB

The Columbia Alumnae Club holds monthly meetings from September to June inclusive. Some of our meetings during this last year were devoted to the Settlement School, the Constitution, and the history of Pi Phi, and at most of our meetings some time was given to the discussion of the needs of and plans for Missouri A, which is probably our greatest interest.

The program committee this last year asked three people prominent in university affairs to talk to the Club. These were Dr. Dan G. Stine, the physician in charge of our Student Clinic; Mrs. Bessie Leach Priddy, the dean of women at the University of Missouri; and Donovan Rhynsburger, director of dramatics at the university. We were also privileged to have Mrs. Charles Daniel, Epsilon Province President, with us at the February meeting.

During the year we have carried several projects to successful conclusions; some of which are, a Settlement School tea and sale, a Christmas card sale, and a summer rushing party. At different meetings during the year we entertain the pledges and active members of the chapter by classes at tea and the social hour which follows our business meeting. At the February meeting we had as guests for tea the mothers of the town actives and pledges. Our Founders' Day Banquet was held at the Tiger Hotel and we were delighted to have several out of town alumnae with us.

We have contributed to each of the various Pi Phi projects, our only regret being that the amounts could not be larger. We have had 22 members in the Club this year. Ruth Jones Scurlock, an Oklahoma Beta alumnae and a member of the Kansas City Alumnae Club, has been a welcome addition to our membership.

SHIRLEY STORM DICKINSON

KANSAS CITY CLUB

The first meeting of the Kansas City Alumnae Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. M. Langworthy. Committees were appointed and plans for the year talked over.

At the November meeting at the home of Mrs. Thornton Cook, it was announced that the rummage sale cleared $42.60, and that a campaign for selling powder specially blended would be started.

At the December meeting, held with Mrs. Judd Benson, $5 was sent to Panhellenic for the Gold Star Girls, and plans for a dinner-dance were considered.

The Alumnae Club held its January meeting at Mrs. Aycock's, where it was decided to have the Towle Silver Company display which gave the club $75. At the end of the meeting Mrs. Henricks spoke on her six months' residence in India.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jenkins, III, where the committees were appointed for the Founders' Day celebration. After the business meeting a bridge party was held with prizes from the Settlement School.

Mrs. Hashins held the March meeting at her home. $10 was sent to the Loan Fund and $200 to the Settlement School. Mr. Chauncey Shepherd gave a talk on Oriental rugs following the meeting.

At the April meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Koontz, a new constitution was read and approved.

The annual Founders' Day celebration was a cooky-shine held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Porter. A voluntary contribution of $105 was received. The total sum sent this year to the Settlement School is $355. The club has sent $15 each to the active chapter at M.U. and K.U. for rushing.

VIRGINIA WILBER TORRANCE

MEMPHIS CLUB

The Memphis Alumnae Club started the year's activity on October 4 at a luncheon meeting. Plans for the year's work were discussed, the hostesses for meetings were assigned, and a committee to make the year books appointed. After the business was concluded the club enjoyed a travelogue, given by one of our group, of her summer trip to Europe.

The November meeting was held on the evening of the fourth at a spaghetti supper. The husbands and escorts of the club were the honor guests. Mr. Old, a Pi Phi husband and an accomplished psychoanalyst, entertained the party by reading their characters.

The December meeting was a luncheon one. It was devoted entirely to the Settlement School and the various ways of making money for it. Later in the month on the twenty-eighth the Christmas tea was given for the Memphis actives and pledges of Pi Phi at schools away from here and their Mothers. We had the tea in place of devoting a meeting to our nearest chapter.

At the January meeting we had an oral examination on the history and constitution of Pi Phi. Following this, we enjoyed a book review of "Miss Bishop" by Bess Streeter Aldrich.

February included two big events for the chapter. On the evening of the 17, we had our benefit bridge party to raise money for the Settlement School. On the 27th the Pi Phi alumnae club, co-hostesses with the Alpha Omicron Pi alumnae club, entertained the city Panhellenic association. The tea was given at the attractive A O II lodge on the Southwestern college campus. A delightful book review was given by Rabbi Eittleson of Christopher Morley's Thunder On The Left. Tea was served to around seventy guests during which time they were entertained by Miss Mary Walton Sohm with some interpretative dances.

The March meeting was purely a business one held in the afternoon. A report was given on the benefit bridge party. We were rather disappointed in its financial outcome. We cleared $30.00. We sent this amount to the Settlement School. We sold several articles from there and some ash trays left over from the party. The Loan Fund and the Endowment Fund each received $5. Plans for a rummage sale to be given some time in May were discussed, so that our contribution to the Settlement School might be increased.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon. This was an unusually large meeting. After luncheon the members sang favorite Pi Phi songs. A toast was given to the Founders following which, we enjoyed a book review of "The Native's return" by Louis Adamic. The rummage sale was discussed and the members urged to bring all the rummage they had to the next meeting.

Our May meeting was purely a social one held as a luncheon. The business of the year was brought to a close and the newly elected officers installed. It was decided to postpone the rummage sale until fall.

Our annual June picnic will complete the year's activities.

The Memphis club had twenty paid members this year. The average attendance has been nine or ten.

The club has been saddened recently by the death of Miss Annie McCollum, Indiana I, who was a charter member of this club and one of the most beloved of our group. We feel keenly this loss.

Two of the club have moved to other cities, Mrs.

Richard Miller, Arkansas A, who has gone to Homer, Louisiana, and Mrs. John McCarroll, Jr., Missouri B, who has moved to Little Rock, Arkansas.

Two new members have been welcomed into the club this year, Mrs. Rupert Johnson, Arkansas A, and Miss Sarah Cogshall, Indiana B.

ELIZABETH MARKHAM

ST. LOUIS CLUB

The St. Louis Club had ten regular meetings this year, held the second Tuesday of each month, at the homes of members. In May we had a garden meeting at a member's country home, and in June the final meeting was in the form of a picnic at Mrs. Arthur Proetz's beautiful country home. Our entertainment chairman provided special features such as talks, games, and stunts for each meeting.

Under the leadership of Mrs. George Hagee we feel that we have accomplished much. Our membership has increased, our theater benefit has been very successful, and more money was made selling magazines than ever before.

We are planning to entertain at luncheon the girls from six chapters coming through St. Louis on the way to Convention. Our own delegate, Mrs. George Hagee, will then leave on the Convention train with our guests. In the late summer we will give a tea for the active chapter and new girls coming to school in the fall.

HARRIET BAUR SPOEHRER

SPRINGFIELD (MO.) CLUB

The March meeting of the Springfield Club was an interesting affair. The meeting was a luncheon held at Heer's Tea Room followed by the regular business meeting. The important part of the meeting took place when one of the beautiful afghans from the Settlement School was raffled off. Mrs. Dula Dysart was the lucky winner.

The Club met in the chapter rooms for a buffet supper in April. Polly Plummer, a visitor from the active chapter, read the list of newly-elected officers. It was voted to send $50.00 to the Settlement School. The annual election of officers was held at this meeting.

The June meeting was luncheon at the Oasis, a delightful place five miles from Springfield. The luncheon was followed by a business meeting called to order by our new president, Inman Sigler.

GISELA ATKINSON

ZETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA CLUB

During the year nine regular meetings were held on the first Tuesday of the month. Six of the meetings were held in the evening and were preceded by a cooky-shine. The average attendance throughout the year was thirteen members.

Founders' Day was celebrated April 30 with twenty-five members from the Chattanoga active chapter and Alumnae Club joining us at a picnic luncheon served at the country home of Mrs. Robinson, one of our members.

The last meeting of the year, held in May, was a social one honoring our retiring president, who is to be married in June.

The club made the following contributions during the year: $100 to the Settlement School; $3 and a Christmas box to the Settlement School at our Christmas meeting; $5 to the Endowment Fund; and $5 to the Loan Fund.

MARGARET MAY BIXLER

DE LAND CLUB

The De Land Alumnae Club has held the usual monthly meetings this year at the homes of members, with an average attendance of ten. Paid up memberships total ten.

The club contributed thirty-five dollars to the Settlement School, five dollars to the Loan Fund, and twelve dollars and fifty cents to the Endowment Fund. The money was raised through the sale of Christmas cards, magazine subscriptions, and a benefit bridge party.

Relations with the active chapter have been very pleasant throughout the year. Rather than give the chapter financial aid we have helped with rushing by assisting with a progressive dinner party and other rushing functions.

FRANCES BARNES PICKENS

ST. PETERSBURG CLUB

Monthly meetings of the St. Petersburg Alumnae Club have taken the form of cooky-shines as usual, Mrs. Jerome Watson, Aillene Garner, and Mrs. Clarence McMillan having entertained the club respectively in April, May, and June. At the latter meeting Miss Onken was remembered by a message sent to Monmouth, Illinois.

Founders' Day was observed with a luncheon and appropriate program at the Virginia Tavern. Virginia Ford of the Washington, D.C., Alumnae Club was a guest at this time.

The club regretted that none of its members was able to attend the National Convention.

KATHERINE WARMINGTON

ETA PROVINCE

AVON (LIBBIE BROOK-GADDIS) CLUB

The final meeting of the year was held on April 25 at the home of Frances Davis with Lois Drake, Margaret Lomax, Marian Hartrick, and Mary Ellen Hermitet as assisting hostesses.

The new officers as elected for the new year are: President, Margaret Lomax; vice-president, Ruth Woods; secretary, Jessie Gaddis; and treasurer, Fern Fennessey.

A short program in honor of Founders' Day was given. It was very fitting that at this meeting Jessie Gaddis, the daughter of one of our founders, was elected as delegate to the 1934 Convention.

HELEN HATCH

BELOIT CLUB

The Beloit Alumnae Club has held, during the year 1933-34, eight meetings, exclusive of the June Reunion banquet. Attendance has ranged from twelve to eighteen, averaging fourteen.

Of the nineteen resident Pi Phi, fourteen are paid members of the Alumnae Club. To this number are added four paid members from Janesville, making a total of eighteen.

All meetings have been preceded by dinner, followed by the business meeting and social evenings.

Mrs. Webster, Province President, was entertained at the November meeting, the Chapter Executive Council in February, and the graduating seniors in April. These contacts have been most beneficial, we feel, in maintaining our very satisfactory relationships with the active chapter.

CAROLINE E. SHEPARD

CARTHAGE CLUB

The Carthage Alumnae Club celebrated Founders' Day with a dinner at the country home of Mrs. U. S. Ferris. The Pi Phi from Warsaw, Keokuk, Macomb and Quincy were invited to celebrate with us.

At the May meeting it was decided to make a contribution to the Loan Fund and Endowment Fund. Miss Anna Glenn reviewed the book, No Second Spring, by Janet Beith. Current events were given by each member.

The July meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. H. McCulloch at which time the fraternity examination questions will be answered.

MIRIAM E. WILLIAMS

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA CLUB

The active chapter and alumnae club celebrated Founders' Day with an informal gathering at the Pi Phi house. An inexpensive buffet supper was served so that each member might contribute to a silver offering for the Settlement School. Mrs. Young as chief spokeswoman of the evening showed how the "New Deal" for Pi Phi was analogous with the ideals and principles of the Blue Eagle. Mrs. Lotta J. Weir, our distinguished guest of the evening, likened herself to the N.R.A. in being a Non-Resident Alumna. Sarah Fisher proved herself to be an efficient "Brain-Truster" by formulating an elaborate N.R.A. Code for the guidance of all good Pi Phis. June Rose Whitely of the active chapter gave two impersonations for which she had received first award in the annual spring stunt show. The party ended with the active chapter singing "Pearls of Pi Phi," the prize winning song of last year.

The last dinner meeting of the year was held May 7 in the home of Linda Fitzgerald. At this time the eleven seniors from the chapter house were our dinner guests. Reports of the various officers and chairmen of committees was the main feature of the evening program. Reports showed that approximately $200 had been sent to the Settlement School since September, and that magazine subscription amounted to $120.35. A pledge of $100 was made to the Endowment Fund, $45 of which had been previously paid.

Miss Sarah Fisher was appointed official delegate to represent the Alumnae Club at Convention. A vote was taken on the question of educational qualifications for Grand officers with the majority opposed to the requirement of a degree for office. The final business of the evening was the report of the nominating committee of the following officers for next year: President, Mrs. Amelia Stern; vice-president; Mrs. Helen Hunsucher; secretary, Miss Linda Fitzgerald; corresponding secretary; Miss Nelle Signor; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Stoolman.

NELLE SIGNOR

CHICAGO CLUB, NORTH

In order that the members of the Chicago North Alumnae Club may hold meetings in their homes, the organization has been divided into three groups, Alpha, Beta-Delta, and Gamma.

The combined efforts of the three Chicago North Alumnae groups have sent $400 to the Settlement School, $10 to the Endowment Fund and $10 to the Loan Fund.

Settlement School Arrow Craft products, Pi Phi vanilla, Pescheret Etchings and other merchandise were on sale at two teas given in December; one by the Beta-Delta group at the home of Mrs. Waldo Urban and the other at Mrs. Leon Pescheret's.

In February, the Alpha group gave a benefit bridge party at the home of Mrs. Calvin Pflingst. It was well attended and a nice profit realized.

A style show and bridge given by the Gamma group in March was well attended.

A Founders' Day luncheon was held in conjunction with other clubs in Chicago area at the Blackstone Hotel. We were pleased to have Miss Onken as our guest and speaker.

In May, Mrs. Edgar B. Penney delightfully entertained all groups of Chicago North at the Grandeur Hotel. Election of officers was held and a very interesting program followed. Mrs. Flora Dingle Jesseph, charter President of Chicago Branch of American Pen Women talked on essentials of story writing and marketing. Mrs. Jesseph, read several of her poems and encouraged the observance of Poetry week in our club.

BLANCHE T. WAGNER

CHICAGO CLUB, SOUTH

The South Shore-Windsor Park groups have had two very successful parties; one was a benefit dinner-dance at the South Shore Country Club, and the other a dinner-bridge at the home of Kathryn King.

The Beverly Hills group gave a large benefit card party at the home of Mary McManus.

Pi Phi day at a Century of Progress was most enjoyable, especially so was the lovely tea which Miss McGrew, Mr. Dawes' assistant gave at the Administration Building for over a hundred visiting Pi Phis, among them several convention delegates, and Mrs. Purdunn.

CHICAGO BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB

During the 1933-34 season, the Chicago Business Women's Alumnae Club met for dinner, followed by a business meeting or sightseeing tour, every third Tuesday. We also held rummage sales and benefit bridge parties and with the sale of Christmas cards, were able to send one hundred and sixty dollars to the Fraternity's school and special funds. Our group joined the other clubs in the Chicago district in a gathering in honor of our Founders and we appreciated Miss Onken's talk on Fraternity matters.

MARGARET WEGENER

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN CLUB

Our club has held the nine monthly meetings as designated by the calendar, with an average attendance of twenty-five. The Program Committee has provided a most varied and interesting program throughout the year.

Our May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John Loring Cook. Mrs. D. S. Sutton, our province vice-president, was present and assisted in the installation of our new officers for the coming year.

The Ways and Means Committee has proved itself worthy of its name and we have sent $10 to the Endowment Fund, $5 to the Loan Fund, and $150 to the Settlement School.

ADELINE RAYMOND GAYLORD

DECATUR CLUB

The observation of Founders' Day was probably the most delightful meeting of the year. Luncheon was served at the Decatur Country Club, and many out-of-town alumnae were present. Miss Onken was the guest of honor, and the club was indeed proud to have her attend this meeting. Placecards at the Pi shaped table were snapshots of each member taken at the time she was in college; the actives and pledges, who were guests of the club, found baby pictures at their places. The committee had secured snapshots for this purpose in such a clever manner that no one knew of the novel scheme. Many failed to recognize their own images, costumes and poses caused much laughter, and the occasion started off with great hilarity. Tiny newspapers called the Review of Delta Theta Psi and II B Φ were given as favors. Between courses the actives led the singing of old and new Pi Phi songs. After the luncheon Mrs. Traver McCormick, club president, served as toastmistress. Mrs. Carleton Mattes told the story of the founding of II B Φ. Mrs. Lindley Huff, a charter member of Illinois H, told about the petitioning and founding of the chapter here. Miss Janet Alsip, vice-president of Illinois H, gave a review of the activities in which the chapter had participated this year. Miss Onken talked about Margaret Campbell, Mrs. Libbey, and Mrs. Soule, national activities, and urged attendance at Convention.

The June Breakfast and Corporation meeting was held at Sunnyside Golf Club. Reports of officers were read, and Miss Jessie Lockett gave a résumé of the achievements of the local chapter of which she is chaperon.

These two meetings were a fitting climax for a very successful year of ten excellent and well attended monthly sessions.

LENORE CHODAT

ELGIN CLUB

The Elgin Alumnae Club has had a very enjoyable year. Our Club calendar provided for a monthly dinner meeting held the third Tuesday of each month at the homes of the different Pi Phis. Because of everyone's interest and enthusiasm in the Club's work this year, we have had a very good attendance at all meetings.

In December an open house Tea was given at the home of Claire Johnson. Arrowcraft articles were displayed and sold. The profits were sent to the Settlement School. In addition to our sale of Settlement School products, each member donates a quarter at each meeting which we send to the Settlement School.

Because of the cooperation and hard work of all the Pi Phis, plus a beautiful cool day, many people came to our Benefit Card Party given at the home of Janet Lowrie Moody in May. We realized a very nice profit, which was divided between the Loan Fund and the Settlement School.

We were pleased to have Mrs. D. S. Sutton, our Province Vice-President, with us at our May Card party.

GLENHURSTON CLUB

Glenhurston joined the Alumnae Clubs of the Chicago Area in observing Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Blackstone Hotel at which Miss Onken spoke. We have discontinued meetings for the summer months.

Convention has been foremost in our minds during the spring. Now the convention special has left, some of us have gone and all of us wish we were going. Nina Harris Allen, who has been transportation chairman for the last nine consecutive conventions, resigned the office this year because of the serious illness of her mother and Althea Gittings is taking the post with Mrs. Allen's able assistance.

Pi Phi Day at the Fair was made memorable by Miss McGrew's tea in the Directors' Room of the Administration Building. Miss McGrew and Mrs. Allen receiving, meeting Miss Keller herself, old friends, new friends, the long, unique directors' table so beautifully and lavishly appointed, all form a memory never to be forgotten. As we gazed at this modern exhibition of progress from the ultra-modern setting of the Directors' Room, and thought of the sixty-seven years of Pi Phi idealism and fellowship behind us, we could not help but wonder what added honors the next sixty-seven years will bring to II B Φ. We thank Miss McGrew not only for her charming hospitality but for a real vision of the future.

CAMILLA REED GILLETTE

MADISON CLUB

The Madison Alumnae Club has had an active membership of 28 this year. The average attendance has been 22. There were 8 meetings held during the year. In December the evening was given over to entertaining the active chapter. The February meeting took the form of a benefit bridge. On Founders' Day we joined with the active chapter for a luncheon at the house.

In May the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. I. L. Baldwin; vice-president, Lucille Kessenich; treasurer, Mrs. P. H. Williams; secretary, Mrs. A. H. Stehr.

MARION ZILLEY

MILWAUKEE CLUB

The Milwaukee Alumnae Club has held the usual monthly meetings during the past year, with an average attendance of thirty-five. The meetings have varied in type, with luncheons, dinner parties, teas, and the final one of the year a picnic at the summer home of Mrs. Carl Hase, on Pewaukee Lake. All of the meetings this year have been especially interesting ones. At one we had the privilege of hearing a noted Surgeon, Dr. G. V. I. Brown, of Milwaukee, give an illustrated lecture on the work which he is known for "Plastic Surgery." At another meeting we had the pleasure of listening to one of our own members, Miss Ethel Butcher, talk on the subject "India."

The Club this year was divided into committees which acted independently to raise money for the Settlement School. Our total contribution to the Settlement School was $175.00. A contribution of $5.00 each was sent to the Loan Fund and the Endowment Fund.

At our March meeting, two new officers were elected. The new vice-president is Mrs. Robert Pritchard, and the new treasurer is Miss Lucy Davis.

A rummage sale is planned for early next fall to raise money for the Settlement School for next year.

MONMOUTH CLUB

June 7, 1934, was a great day for Monmouth Pi Phi, also for Monmouth College. An honorary degree was conferred upon our Grand President, Miss Amy B. Onken on Commencement day. Miss Mary Ross Potter, dean of women of Monmouth College, who was dean at Northwestern University when Miss Onken was a student there, on behalf of and on recommendation of the faculty presented Miss Onken to Dr. T. H. McMichael, president of the college. He in turn recognized Miss Margaret Campbell, one of our Founders, who placed the hood in Miss Onken, thus conferring on her the honorary degree of Master of Arts. History was made that day as Miss Onken is the first national president to be thus honored by any institution.

Mrs. Lois Stoolman, National Treasurer, was a guest of Monmouth Pi Phi for the day. Also there were representatives from Bloomington and Galesburg, Illinois, and Mt. Pleasant and Burlington, Iowa. At one o'clock a luncheon was served to some sixty Pi Phi guests and local members.

Thursday, July 19, Monmouth Pi Phi enjoyed a picnic at Crapo park in Burlington, Iowa, as guests of the Burlington Alumnae club. Pi Phi from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and other nearby towns were there and a very delightful time was enjoyed.

ADELAIDE WARD BARNUM

NORTH SHORE CLUB

As a result of the work of the Telephone Committee, we had a large crowd at our first meeting in October, which was held at the chapter house. Jean Burns entertained us with a reading of May Sinclair's Dark Night.

Mrs. Miriam Simons Leuck gave us a very interesting talk on conditions in Europe in November. The meeting was held at the Georgian Hotel in Evanston. Our December meeting was held at the chapter house, and the program was furnished by Mrs. Harry Eugene Kelly who reviewed Alice Roosevelt Longworth's Crowded Hours. Some of our members, directed by Jean Burns, gave a splendid group reading of Eugene O'Neill's Ab, Wilderness for our January meeting at the chapter house.

Helen Hudson Phillips gave a musicale in February at the home of Marion Van Hoesen Martin in Evanston, and the March meeting consisted of a dramatic interpretation of The Road to Rome, by Jean Burns.

In April there were two important events: a benefit bridge party and fashion show in the Congregational Church House in Evanston; and the Founders' Day luncheon at the Blackstone Hotel in Chicago, when we joined with the other Chicago Area Alumnae Clubs.

Mrs. Hazel Kaiser Fox opened her lovely new home in Glencoe for our May meeting, and we enjoyed a talk by Mrs. Lardner. We are planning a luncheon and bridge party at the Evanston Golf Club in June, at which we shall have the installation of new officers.

We have had a very successful year. From our rummage sale in the fall and the benefit bridge party in the spring, we earned $500.00 which we sent to the Settlement School.

Our chairmen of committees deserve a great deal of credit for their faithful and tireless work. They are: Mrs. C. C. Cummins, Social Chairman; Mrs. Nona Hakes Ward, Program Chairman; Mrs. Virginia Marcon, Settlement School Chairman; and Mrs. C. O. Husting, Magazine Chairman.

President, Mrs. John O. King, 802 Colfax, Evanston; vice-president, Jean Burns, 2724 Central Park Ave., Evanston; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. J. Merriam, 757 Foxdale Ave., Winnetka; treasurer, Mrs. Harry J. Rosenthal, 400 Ridge Ave., Evanston; recording secretary, Mrs. Fred W. Ringley, 118 Keeney, Evanston.

Resident Alumnae, 300; Members of Club, 73; Average attendance, 50.

KATHRYN C. MERRIAM

OAK PARK AND RIVER FOREST CLUB

The Oak Park and River Forest Alumnae Club entertained the Oak Park Panhellenic on February 17 at the Carlton Hotel where most of the afternoon was spent playing bridge. Refreshments were served later. Shirley Boller Grunwald was in charge.

On February 24 a Benefit Bridge was held at the home of Mrs. Irene Kropp for the purpose of raising money for the Settlement School.

Almost every member of the club attended one of two important functions on April 21. Not only was there the Founders' Day luncheon at the Blackstone Hotel but there was also the annual benefit bridge sponsored by the Oak Park Panhellenic for the purpose of raising funds with which to help send desirable high school girls to various colleges and universities.

Our April meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Helene Drummond and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Jean Simpson; vice-president, Helen Miller; corresponding secretary, Beatrice Berg; treasurer, Mrs. Shirley Grunwald.

On April 11 we had our last meeting of the season at the Blue Parrot-Patio Tea Room. The business meeting was held after dinner and the balance of the evening was spent at bridge. We sent most of the balance in the treasury to the Settlement School. We also discussed Convention. Although we were not able to afford to send a delegate to Convention, Mrs. Alice Carrigan was elected to represent us. She drove West with Madeline Roddick and Florence Berck.

We hope that an even larger percentage of the Pi Phi in Oak Park and River Forest will come to our meetings again in the fall.

BEATRICE BERG

PEORIA CLUB

The Peoria Alumnae Club closed a successful year at a meeting held at the Avery's home in Chillicothe. We celebrated Founders' Day with an interesting report from our three guests—Mrs. Glidden, Dean of Women at Knox College, Rose Eleanor Brittan, and Mary Louise Kuhl, two Knox seniors. They reported on the Founders' Day banquet in Galesburg and the progress made by Knox Pi Phis.

Our year was most successful in every way, and everyone is looking forward with pleasure to the meetings of the coming year.

KATHRYNE BELDEN

ROCKFORD CLUB

Founders' Day was observed in April with a luncheon for which Mrs. Clare Pierce and Mrs. Cord Lipe were hostesses. The May meeting was marked by the annual election of officers, held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dennis. A Smorgasbord supper was served before the business meeting. Florence Berck was elected official club delegate to the 1934 Convention after she announced that she was making the trip to Yellowstone Park. It was also voted at this meeting to send an additional amount to the Settlement School rather than hold a surplus in the treasury above necessary expense balance, until fall. We were sorry to learn that we had lost one of our members, Mrs. G. S. Norton having moved to Freeport, Ill. However, a picnic in June was held at her home there and was an enjoyable outing for those who went.

Rockford Alumnae Club has held 10 meetings this year, 9 business and social, and 1 purely social. Of 21 alumnae in the city 15 are paid members of the club. $5 has been contributed to the Endowment Fund, $2 to the Student Loan Fund, and over $25 has been sent to the Settlement School. No summer meetings are held but September will open the Club year again.

FLORENCE G. BERCK

SPRINGFIELD (ILL.) CLUB

Springfield Alumnae Club held four meetings during the year. Three of these were luncheon meetings at the homes of members. The last meeting of the year was a Founders' Day luncheon at the Illini Country Club with Miss Onken as speaker.

The Club had 15 paid members this year and was able to send $30 to the Settlement School and $10 to the Loan Fund.

ALICE STEWART

THETA PROVINCE

AMES CLUB

In addition to the regular monthly luncheon and business meetings, the Ames Alumnae Club enjoyed several functions worthy of special notice. The social session was opened in the fall with a potluck dinner for which the actives turned over the entire sorority house. A large attendance and a genuine good time was had. The husbands of the alumnae were our guests.

In December twenty-five pledges were guests of the club at a luncheon featuring a Settlement School program. Miss Roberts gave a brief history of the origin and development of the school. At the close a silver offering was taken to be sent as a Christmas gift to the school.

January brought the annual luncheon honoring the Pi Phis who would graduate in the spring. Each guest was given a corsage as a favor. The alumnae and actives united in having a cooky-shine in February. This is always a joyous occasion for everyone.

Just after election of officers in March, Mrs. Stafford, our new president, called a meeting of the old and new officers to discuss the past year's work and make plans for the new year.

April 28, all Pi Phis joined in the Founders' Day luncheon held in the Institutional Tea Room. As part of the program special notes of greeting from all living founders and from Miss Onken were read.

In May a benefit bridge was given at the chapter house. Many faculty members and friends attended and the party netted $40 for the Settlement School. Goods from the Arrow Craft Shop were on display and were offered for sale. Our club has sold $460 worth of Arrowcraft goods.

A successful year was closed in June with a picnic at McKose park in Boone. Again the husbands enjoyed the club hospitality and were special guests.

LYDIA ADAMS

BURLINGTON CLUB

The Burlington Alumnae Club celebrated Founders' Day with a dinner at the Y.W.C.A. Four members acted as hostesses. After the dinner and a short program a business meeting followed and officers were elected.

Although our club was small this year we sent more to the Settlement School than last year.

June 7, two of our members attended the luncheon at Monmouth, Ill. in honor of Miss Onken.

Our club is planning a joint picnic in July with the Monmouth and Mt. Pleasant Pi Phis, to be held in Crapo Park, Burlington. Our first picnic two years ago was quite a success and we are hoping this one will be even better.

LOUISE WEIBLY

CEDAR RAPIDS CLUB

The Cedar Rapids Alumnae Club held seven meetings this year, the last one being postponed on account of the weather. At the meetings a simple luncheon is served, with a business meeting and short program following.

Our contribution to the Settlement School was earned by the sale of Settlement School articles, proceeds from a traveling food basket, and magazine subscriptions.

At the Founders' Day meeting all of the officers were reelected for the next year.

ELLA LOUISE K. O'BRIEN

DES MOINES CLUB

The Des Moines Alumnae Club held monthly meetings, alternating the Saturday luncheons with Monday night suppers.

The club dues were reduced to $1.50 and there were forty paid members, practically double the number of last year. Each member was to try to raise $2 individually for Settlement School besides helping with the projects during the year for adding to that fund.

During the year the club donated $100 to Settlement School, $10 to Undergraduate Loan Fund, and $25 to Endowment Fund.

Following the usual custom, at Christmas the club contributed food to the poor.

The customary sale of Settlement School goods was held in December with a sale of $173.13, plus $25 clearing on donated goods. Another showing of the school's products was held at the annual flower show held by the city garden club in June.

CANDACE SECOR ARMSTRONG

DULUTH CLUB

The Duluth Alumnae Club has held luncheon meetings at the homes of members the first Saturday of each month throughout the year. Each one entertains at one meeting and contributes twenty-five cents at each of the others which goes toward our Settlement School Fund. We had picnics last fall and in June at Eleanor Abbett's summer cottage at Sunshine Lake and in July we have been invited to Mrs. W. C. Lounsbury's summer home at Lake Minnesuing in Wisconsin for an outing. Mrs. Elmer Blu entertained us at her home on Founders' Day at a luncheon which took the place of our regular May meeting. Mrs. Roderick Dunn gave several delightful readings during the afternoon.

Our average attendance has been fifteen out of a membership of eighteen. We are very glad to have Mrs. Walter Clark (Eloise Wright) of Iowa Beta, who has moved here recently from Portland, Oregon, as one of our new members. This year we raised money by means of our luncheon meetings, the sale of Christmas cards and individual pledges of one dollar.

We were all so pleased to hear of the honorary degree awarded by Monmouth College to our Grand President, Amy B. Onken.

ELEANOR ABBETT

GRAND FORKS CLUB

The Grand Forks Alumnae Club decided to hold monthly meetings this year combining the business and social meetings. One of the first business matters taken up was the question of getting a rug for the second floor hall and the stairs at the chapter house. With the alumnae club taking the responsibility for raising the money, this was done. The club cooperated with the chapter in a display of Settlement School products and a sale of such articles the first part of December.

Besides an entertainment in the form of a shower for the president of our club who was married Thanksgiving Day, the club had its usual Christmas party during Christmas week with a banquet at the Hotel Ryan and bridge afterwards.

The Club assisted the active and pledge chapters in sponsoring a dance recital by Mary Tree Watson in May. This event, the first of its kind in Grand Forks, was well attended despite the season of the year. Founders' Day was celebrated with a banquet at the chapter house and centered around the Convention theme. Regina Brennan and Winnifred Mulloy announced their intentions of attending. The annual awards of two recognition pins to outstanding actives were made. During the latter part of May a picnic was held jointly with the actives and pledges.

INDIANOLA CLUB

The Indianola Club closed the year with an evening meeting at the home of Ada Proudfoot Samson with Eva Law McGranahan, June Slocum Cox, and Vesta Merritt Anderson acting as assistant hostesses. Following election of officers a surprise "shower" was given our newly elected president, Grace Moss Lippincott. She, with her two children, left the following week to spend the summer with her husband in Minnesota. Much time was spent talking of the oncoming convention. The Indianola Club expects Theta Province President, Betty Carpenter Buxton, to bring both information and inspiration from Yellowstone.

The alumnae club feels deeply the death of Eva Law McGranahan, one of the older members and a most loyal and faithful one.

The alumnae joined with the active chapter in entertaining all visiting Pi Beta Phis and the mothers of the senior girls at a dinner at the chapter house during Commencement.

VESTA MERRITT ANDERSON

IOWA CITY CLUB

During the past year the Iowa City Alumnae Club has had five regular meetings, entertained our Province Vice-President, the Iowa Z pledges, and the seniors, had Founders' Day with the actives, and given a benefit bridge party. Our attendance has been about twenty-four.

We have contributed to the Endowment Fund, the Loan Fund, and the Settlement School.

FANNY C. WICKHAM

MOUNT PLEASANT CLUB

The Mount Pleasant Alumnae Club completed a successful year in May under the leadership of Mary Dutton Wright.

Meetings were held regularly on the first Friday of each month with the exception of April and October at which time parties are held.

This year the program committee arranged two luncheon meetings, two evening meetings, three afternoon meetings and two parties, thus offering a variety which proved satisfactory. Each meeting was held at the home of some member.

The program was a continuation of the study of the South, the general theme being "The South Today." Two book reviews were given and several articles dealing with the South on such topics as "Muscle Shoals," "Warm Springs, Georgia," "Martha Beery School," and "Colored schools of the South," were presented.

In October the annual party given by the alumnae for the actives, pledges and patronesses was held at the Mrs. Russell Weir home. The members were pleased to have as their special guest, Laura Storms Knapp, the Province Vice-President, who was making an official visit to the alumnae club.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the Wallbank home at a joint dinner with the active chapter. Many out-of-town alumnae were present.

Money for the Settlement School, the Endowment Fund, and the Undergraduate Loan Fund was raised through the magazine agency, a benefit bridge party during the holidays, two luncheons and a rental library, which was started this year and is quite successful.

At the annual Commencement breakfast, 75 of the 85 present were members of II B Φ. The alumnae club had 24 active members this year, a gain of three over last year.

SIoux CITY CLUB

The May meeting of the Sioux City Alumnae Club was an outdoor luncheon held at the attractive new home of Mrs. Patricia Duckworth. The club felt very much encouraged over the increase in both membership and financial standing shown during the past year under the steady guidance of our retiring president, Mrs. Elizabeth Harrington.

Officers for the coming year are: President, Miss Elsie Siderius; vice-president, Mrs. Louise Mangold; Secretary, Mrs. Neale Ashenfelter; treasurer, Miss Clarice Lytle.

Convention plans were enthusiastically discussed and Mrs. Duckworth was chosen as delegate with Mrs. Frances Ode as alternate.

WINNIPEG CLUB

This year the Winnipeg Alumnae Club has held one meeting each month in the form of a bridge club. Previous to each of the above gatherings the Executive met and discussed the agenda. Those matters which the Executive decided should be presented to the entire meeting were brought up at the close of the bridge games and voted upon.

In September the annual charity dance was held, taking the form of the Pi Phi Prosperity Prom, the proceeds being for the furtherance of altruistic work.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in October at the home of Katherine Middleton when the Club entertained in honor of Marion Courtice whose marriage took place last November.

In November the bridge club met at the home of Mary Birt and in December the Club was entertained very delightfully at the home of Mrs. G. Klein, Minnesota A. Over fifty stockings were filled to be distributed among needy children.

In January we entertained the pledges at a party at the home of Mary Rogers, this taking the place of the customary Treasure Hunt, and in February the bridge club met at the home of Mary Birt.

In March we were privileged and honored to have Miss Onken with us. Seven girls were initiated by her and we were delighted to have her as our guest at our initiation banquet. Her inspiring personality and gentle charm added much to the occasion that will long be remembered.

The March meeting of the Bridge Club was held at the home of Isabel Hitchings and in April our meeting, which took place at the home of Evangeline Kennedy was devoted to the Constitution and the Settlement School.

Founders' Day, perhaps the most important date on the calendar, was observed by the Winnipeg Chapter at a luncheon at the Fort Garry Hotel. The Club had as its guests at this function, the graduates of the 1934 class. Our President, Gertrude Pickles, was toastmistress.

On May 7 the Club entertained at the home of Mrs. R. W. Craig in honor of Gertrude McNeill, a recent bride. The chapter entertained again this year in honor of our mothers, May 26 at the home of Mrs. G. Klein.

At our final business meeting in May the Executives for the coming year were elected and $5.00 to each of the following was voted: Endowment Fund, Settlement School and Loan Fund.

In honor of three recent brides, Doris Beck, Evangeline Kennedy and Marguerite Le Page the Club entertained June 13 at the Motor Country Club.

President, Gertrude Pickles; vice-president, Frances Parker; recording secretary, Ruth Hodges; corresponding secretary, Margaret McLaughlin; treasurer, Isabel Clark; chairman of Settlement School, Katherine Middleton; chairman of Magazine Agency, Gwen Campbell; chairwoman membership committee, Muriel Beck.

COLORADO SPRINGS CLUB

Founders' Day, celebrating fifty years of $\Pi B \Phi$ in Colorado, was held at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs on April 28 and 29, 1934. Miss Amy B. Onken was our distinguished guest of honor. Over three hundred enthusiastic active and alumnae members from Colorado and nearby states spent a delightful and profitable weekend.

We discovered at this meeting that at last we have in Colorado Springs enough members for the formation of an alumnae club. A luncheon meeting was held at the Antlers Hotel on May 12 at which the club was formed and the following officers elected: Miss Lucile Adams, president; Mrs. Merrill Shoup, secretary; Mrs. William Campbell, Jr., treasurer.

Our members are: Miss Lucile Adams, Missouri A and Kansas A; Mrs. I. A. Anderson (Margaret Hefferon), Wyoming A; Mrs. Stuart Armit (Marjorie Gaillette), Oklahoma A; Dr. Edith Bramhall, Indiana B; Mrs. William A. Campbell, Jr. (Mae Louise Pettibone), Maryland A; Mrs. Harold Chase (Dorothy Emery), Colorado A; Mrs. H. M. Corning (Florence Rebecca Kifner), Pennsylvania F; Mrs. Percy Dobbins (Em Moore), Kansas B; Mrs. David Elliot (Carric Doris Dorr), Colorado A; Mrs. W. H. Hemenway (Marie Haverstock), Wisconsin A; Miss Norma Hill, Texas A; Mrs. Lloyd Knutsen (Frances Bowers), Arizona A; Mrs. Persis McTavish (Persis Perkins), Maryland A and Wisconsin A; Mrs. Merrill Shoup (Dorothy Chambers), Kansas A; Mrs. W. DENVER CLUB

The Founders' Day celebration at the Broadmoor, Colorado Springs which was also the Fiftieth Anniversary of $\Pi B \Phi$ in Colorado, opened the weekend conference with a model initiation, with Miss Onken presiding, and with Mrs. Harry C. Brown of Denver as our initiate, whom we are very proud and happy to have as one of us. There were nearly 250 present at our two big meetings, the banquet and the Founders' Day luncheon. We feel the conference was very successful, for all who attended felt much inspired with new enthusiasm and from it a new Alumnae Club was formed at Colorado Springs with 20 members.

The May meeting was at the Robert's Rose Garden, with election of officers and a delegate to Convention, Miss Kathryn Collins.

The benefit party at Elitch's Gardens in June netted us $246.

List of new officers: president, Mrs. L. N. McClellan; vice-president, Mrs. Lowell White; recording secretary, Miss Margaret Hall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. O. L. N. Foster; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Plattner; delegate to Panhellenic, Miss Margaret Tasher; alternate, Mrs. Hector McNaught.

MABEL LE NEVE FOSTER

LARAMIE CLUB

Six meetings have been held this past year as follows: September: Meeting to discuss rushing. October: Meeting to outline year's program. December: Party for patronesses of active chapter followed by meeting. January: Alumnae luncheon followed by meeting. March: Party for pledges of active chapter; meeting dispensed with. April: Founders' Day Banquet at chapter house followed by meeting. May: Party for seniors of active chapter followed by meeting.

Preceded by some interesting social events, all of the meetings were well attended.

Since the last report two events have taken place; one, Founders' Day, was celebrated at the chapter house with the active chapter. The banquet was well attended and the association with the active chapter at that time was much appreciated. In May the Alumnae Club entertained for the seniors of the active chapter as a farewell honor to them and as a means of arousing interest in the alumnae phase of $\Pi B \Phi$ life. At the meeting following this party officers for 1934-35 were elected and we are looking forward to another successful year.

The Laramie and Cheyenne Alumnae clubs cooperated with Wyoming A in presenting souvenir note pads to all those attending Convention at Old Faithful. Several of our alumnae attended convention and reported an inspiring and enjoyable convention.

HELEN LANE

LAWRENCE CLUB

The Lawrence Alumnae Club has had a very successful year. Following the usual program of having four luncheon meetings during the year has resulted in a steadily growing membership and increased interest in all Pi Beta Phi affairs. With an average of 30 attending each meeting—each member paying fifty cents for her luncheon, the expense of which was met by the committee who served as hostesses for that meeting—we were able to send an average of $11 from each meeting to the Settlement School.

In December a Settlement School Tea was held at the chapter house where articles of Settlement School handicraft were displayed and sold. The commission on the articles sold amounted to $9.08.

Our Founders' Day banquet was celebrated with the girls of the active chapter at the chapter house on Thursday evening, April 27.

A tea given at the chapter house Saturday afternoon, June 9, in honor of the members of 1884 and their friends was an event of unusual interest. The honor guests were: Mrs. Mary Miller Barnes, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Mary Griffith Osmond, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Addie Sutliff Wheeler, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Della Love Riffle, Omaha, Neb.; and Miss Lida Romig, Abilene.

MAXINE F. RADCLIFFE

LINCOLN CLUB

The Lincoln Alumnae Club has held nine meetings during the past year. The first meeting was followed by a tea for the pledges of the active chapter. After a noon luncheon with the girls at the fraternity house we held an exhibition and sale of Arrow Craft articles. A Christmas party for the children of alumnae was also held there in December. We had one evening meeting, at which a buffet supper was served, making a special effort to secure the attendance of former members not active this year and those employed during the day. We were pleased to have a delegation of members of the Omaha club with us on April 28 when we celebrated Founders' Day with a banquet. The May meeting took the form of a luncheon in honor of the seniors of the active chapter. We have had an average attendance of twenty-five out of our membership of thirty-two at the regular business meetings, which follow a simple luncheon at the home of one of our members.

Our money-making projects this year included sales of vanilla, Christmas gift wrappings, and Arrow Craft articles, and a small sum was realized from a Birthday Box and the rental of new books. All these projects we had last year also but found them not quite so lucrative this year. However, we have been able to contribute to all national projects and retire a bond of the chapter house.

MARY D. KESNER

OMAHA-COUNCIL BLUFFS CLUB

More than a hundred attended the progressive luncheon for the benefit of the Settlement School given by the Omaha-Council Bluffs Alumnae Club. Luncheon was served in the recreation room of a Pi Phi home where one hundred and fifty guests were seated at one time. Large and small tables with green and white table services and center pieces of pink and white peonies were used. The dessert course was served buffet style in another Pi Phi home. Larkspur and Talisman roses with white tapers centered the tables.

Our annual picnic breakfast in charge of the newly elected officers was held in June.

Alumnae and active members entertained at a luncheon honoring Mrs. E. L. McKendrew of New York City, national supervisor of chapter accounting. Mrs. McKendrew was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Vernon Parkinson, a member of our club.

LOUISE GARDNER DOTY

TOPEKA CLUB

The Topeka Alumnae Club has just completed a most successful year, both socially and financially. At each of the meetings a good percentage of the members were present. These meetings included a rush party, bridge party, Settlement School, active chapters, marionettes, Constitution and Costume, Founders' Day, cooky-shine and a one act play. Besides these we had a tea and sale of Settlement School articles, and a rush party with the Kansas University Chapter at the Topeka Country Club.

We are quite pleased with the amount of our magazine subscription sales, as well as our other financial endeavors and contributions.

MRS. W. C. EPPERSON

WICHITA CLUB

Wichita Alumnae Club meetings came to a close with a delightful cooky-shine on April 28 at the home of Mrs. Edgar Dunne. At this meeting the nominating committee presented the following officers: President, Jean Wall; vice-president and Panhellenic representative, Lowrie Jane Smart; recording secretary, Mrs. Thomas A. Walker; treasurer, Mrs. Phil K. Cochran; magazine chairman, Mrs. Lee J. Hobbs; rush captain, Mrs. Frank Oliver; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Claude R. Lambe. During

AUSTIN CLUB

The Austin Alumnae Club has met regularly the first Saturday of each month at the chapter house. A luncheon given by three members of the club preceded each business meeting.

In November, Mrs. Raymond Hill gave a tea for Austin friends in order to display and sell her shipment of Settlement School articles. Her sales for the Arrow Craft Shop amounted to $261.15.

The annual rummage sale proceeds were $107.20, and the proceeds from the sale of theatre tickets was $14.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the active chapter by a banquet at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel.

VIOLETTA VAN DEVANTER

CORPUS CHRISTI CLUB

The Corpus Christi Alumnae Club was organized in March at the home of Misses Mary and Ann Pittman with ten members present. Resident alumnae have wanted to organize for some time but this is the first time there has been the required number here. The members are very enthusiastic over renewing their association with Pi Beta Phi through meetings and friendships.

Corpus Christi is growing rapidly and we hope to add new members soon. Mary Kennedy, Texas A., of Kingsville, has joined us recently. We are making plans for rushing parties this summer and for making money for the Settlement School.

COURTNEY JONES McCAMPBELL

the coming year the usual monthly meetings will be held at the homes of members the first Saturday in each month. The 25¢ luncheon charge will be dispensed with, except in the case of associate members who may wish to attend the meetings.

In spite of a slight decrease in membership, this has been a most successful year. Final figures from the magazine agency show that Wichita Club ranks third in magazine sales, highest total commission per club being $105.06, credited to the Settlement School. The club ranks first in highest total commission per paid member, average per member being $5.52. Cash contributions have been made as follows: Settlement School $61.00; Loan Fund $10.00; Endowment Fund $10.00. Early in December the club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Oliver to pack a Christmas box for the Settlement School.

Proceeds from the luncheon and style show held at Hotel Lassen in March make it possible for the club to look forward to a year free from financial worry. A welcome addition to the treasury came in the form of a check from the Geo. Innes Company after several members had modelled in one of the lovely Tea Room style shows. Other activity high lights were the Christmas rushing tea and the Panhellenic dance in April, at which II B Φ was hostess.

Plans are now under way for a season of summer rushing in which the club always takes an active part.

MRS. CLAUDE R. LAMBE

DALLAS CLUB

The Dallas Alumnae Club has just closed an interesting and profitable year.

The active membership has shown a considerable increase since our opening fall meeting, and this is indeed gratifying.

The outstanding events of our year have been the Settlement School Tea in the fall, where articles made at Little Pigeon were displayed and sold. On this occasion we took in $231.00 for the School. Then in the spring we had our annual bridge tournament and style show. There were 500 women present and $250.00 net was made for the Settlement School.

We celebrated Founders' Day with a cooky-shine, which was very successful.

This is the first year that the Magazine Subscription Committee has functioned actively in our club, and we are glad to report that this committee sent in $80.00 in subscriptions, and expects to reach the $200.00 mark next year.

JUNE H. GRANGER

FORT SMITH CLUB

The Fort Smith Alumnae Club has held regular monthly meetings at the homes of various members. After the business session bridge is played. The club has a paid membership of 19 with an average attendance of 12.

We were a hundred per cent in our donations this year, having contributed $25 to the Settlement School, $5 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund, and $10 to the Endowment Fund.

Last fall the club had a successful benefit bridge, having cleared $20. A very lovely tea was given at the home of Betty Tolson for the II B Φ pledges who were home during the Christmas holidays. Founders' Day was celebrated with a banquet followed by bridge.

President, Mrs. Thorton Alexander; vice-president, Miss Mattalou Marshal; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ewell B. Lee. Members of club, 19.

OKLAHOMA CITY CLUB

During the past year the Oklahoma City alumnae club has held seven regular meetings including two teas, three bridge luncheons, and two evening cooky-shines. The average attendance has been about thirty. The Founders' Day banquet was held this year at the student union in Norman, Oklahoma, with Oklahoma A acting as hostess. Guests included members of Oklahoma City alumnae club, Norman alumnae club, and Ardmore alumnae club. Over one hundred were present. Open house was held at the chapter house after the banquet.

By presenting a fashion show in February, Oklahoma City Alumnae Club was able to increase its support for the Loan Fund, Endowment Fund, and Settlement School. Next year with the inspiration gained from Convention news the club expects to have an even better year.

MRS. W. B. KENNEDY, JR.

SHREVEPORT CLUB

The Shreveport Alumnae Club has a luncheon every month followed by a business meeting and a short program. One meeting was held in Minden, La., with Amanda Salisbury, and one in the home of Olivia Moore, in Texarkana, Texas.

A donation of $25 was made to the Settlement School, $5 to the Endowment Fund, and $5 to the Loan Fund. This club also does some local charity work.

At Convention this summer our alumnae club was ably represented by Carrie Williamson, who is Kappa Province vice-president.

HAZEL N. HAYWOOD

STILLWATER CLUB

The Arrow Craft sale directed by Mrs. Harry Orr, Ruth Sundell, was snappy and different. It was held December 8, 9, and 10 in the studio-home of Mrs. Mary Diehl, Stillwater interior decorator, who offered her home to Mrs. Orr for the three day display and sale. This arrangement proved mutually profitable. We made a gift of our profits to the Settlement School. Many ladies here depend on us to supply them with the unusual and the exclusive Arrow Craft-made things to be used for Christmas gifts. With our four successive sales, a real market has been established for Arrow Craft.

The Stillwater Alumnae celebrated Founders' Day jointly with the active chapter at a formal dinner held in the College Shop.

Several social gatherings interspersed the regular four meetings of the year.

Both the alumnae and active chapter were thrilled over the honor bestowed on Miss Onken, our capable leader, by Monmouth College.

FANCHON MOFFETT MCINTOSH

LAMBDA PROVINCE

BOISE CLUB

The Boise Alumnae Club has endeavored to held meetings at times convenient to the members, consequently the club members have enjoyed both evening and luncheon meetings.

It was necessary to postpone Founders' Day meeting until June 4. The meeting was held at the home of Amy Beth Wood and an outdoor supper was served by an open fireplace. In spite of the disappointment of not being able to meet on Founders' Day, the meeting was very enjoyable. Frances McMonigle gave a brief talk about the Founders' Day meeting which she attended at Moscow, where Idaho A is located. A short business meeting was held thereafter and officers for the ensuing year were elected.

The Settlement School Chairman reported that $70.00 had been realized from the sale of Settlement School goods; $5.00 was contributed to the Endowment Fund and $5.00 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund.

JESSIE DUNN

CALGARY CLUB

The Calgary Alumnae Club held its June meeting at the home of Mrs. Harvey Shaw. After election of officers, plans for summer rushing were discussed, and it was decided that the first function would be a picnic on July 3, this date being chosen so that the girls returning from convention en route to their homes, would also be able to attend. We shall have at least one rush party a month until the fall term opens.

During June the active girls and the alumnae held a rummage sale, and it was so successful that we plan to have another one early in the autumn. The active girls entertained at bridge at Hazel Wilkinson's and invited the alumnae. There were four tables of us so we feel that we are growing.

MARY BOWLEN MOONEY

TULSA CLUB

Monthly meetings have been held at the homes of different members. The programs have been varied and most interesting, including a study of recent changes in the Constitution and recent news in the ARROW a display of Settlement School products, a review of a current play, hemming tea towels for Oklahoma B, a cooky-shine, a musical tea, a tea for our nearest chapter, Oklahoma B, and a Founders' Day banquet.

This year we have had seventy paid members with an average attendance of thirty-five at meetings. This is an increase over last year in the number of paid members.

There has been no money raising project. The club voted to assess each member a small amount rather than go to the public for money. A small group within the club, who meet regularly to play bridge, donated $50.00 which was sent as the club contribution to the Settlement School. $12.50 was contributed to the Endowment Fund, and $5.00 to the Loan Fund.

At present the alumnae and actives are meeting to make plans for summer rushing.

ELINOR GRUBB WILLIAMS

WACO CLUB

Opening the season with a rush luncheon in the home of Mrs. W. W. Early, the Waco Club has continued through the year with monthly meetings.

A great deal of interest in the Settlement School has been shown and at the April meeting we are to have the pleasure of hearing a talk by Frankie Cochran-Hill, on this project so dear to the heart of $\Pi B \Phi$. For a further contribution to the School Fund, a dance is being planned for the early summer, the proceeds of which will be thus used.

A new member, Mrs. Laila Jones, formerly Laila Wallace of Cuero, has been added to the club this year, and among former Waco girls who have been guests were Helen Williams-Rankin, of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Almeida McGregor-Harris of New York. Nell Colgin-Miller, whose marriage to Dr. Claire Miller of Marlin was an event of February, is a frequent visitor and it is the hope of the club that she will be able to continue her active membership.

FLORIE NEALE COOPER-HUDSON (Mrs. J. G.)

CORVALLIS CLUB

Although there are only eight resident alumnae, there is such an active interest and friendly spirit that we have perfect attendance at each of our buffet suppers held on the first Wednesday of every month.

We keep in very close touch with the active chapter, not only by means of advisory board meetings, but by attendance at rush dinners and house meetings and by inviting groups of active members to share various of our monthly suppers. The initiates were guests at the March meeting for which a special program was planned. The seniors were honored at the May supper after which we all had a chance to inspect and to purchase some lovely articles made at the Settlement School. Several of the group attend each initiation and practically all were present at the Founders' Day banquet held at the chapter house. The club entertained all of the undergraduates at a Christmas party and one of our number, Mrs. W. E. Mynatt, was hostess to college and alumnae members recently at a tea in her lovely garden.

We are all very much interested in plans for convention in Yellowstone and pleased that the West will be hostess to the fraternity.

CARRIE BOULTINGHOUSE

EDMONTON CLUB

Ten monthly meetings were held, the first in September and the last in June.

Four of these were of a social nature and were held at the homes of members. Four meetings were held to carry out the national requirements while the remaining two were devoted to our Christmas project and our annual meeting.

At Christmas we packed a complete hamper for a needy family and also held two layette showers to assist clinic cases. At Easter we prepared a sack of clothing for a family living in one of the outlying homestead districts.

The Province President visited the active chapter and the Alumnae Club in February. The mothers' tea was held at Mrs. McCuaig's while the Province President was here.

In March, Mrs. McLeod entertained all members of the active chapter and the alumnae club at tea which was followed by the Senior Farewell.

Founders' Day was observed by a bridge tea in the afternoon followed by a talk by Helen Timothy on the significance of Founders' Day and a history of the founders.

On May 12, the alumnae invited the graduates to luncheon at Mayfair Golf Club.

The officers for next session were elected at our final business meeting of May 8.

Following is the allotment of money for the past year: $8.35 to Endowment Fund, $6.00 to Settlement School Fund, $2.00 to Loan Fund.

RUTH SHIPLEY

EUGENE CLUB

The Eugene Alumnae Club has had a most enjoyable year, holding regular meetings the first Monday of every month. We have continued our practice started some time ago of having supper meetings. We have three members serving on the committee each time. We have found it an excellent means of keeping up the attendance. We lowered our regular dues this year to $1.50, and then each member, excepting the three hostesses, pay 25¢ at each supper meeting. We felt the decrease in revenue was more than compensated by the numbers of members. This year, for the first time, we are continuing our regular meetings during the summer and asking for our guests each time the active members who are in town.

According to our usual custom in the fall we entertained the new Oregon A pledges. This year we had a Sunday evening supper in front of the open fireplace at the Marigold Tea Room. In this way we meet all of the new girls early in the year. On the chapter birthday, October 29, the alumnae club was entertained by the active chapter. At the initiations in February and again in April the members of the alumnae club assisted with initiation and were entertained by the chapter at the banquet following initiation. We celebrated Founders' Day with the actives at the chapter house. When Mrs. Roush, our province president, visited the active chapter in January the club members assisted the actives in entertaining with a tea at the chapter house. We were most happy to have Mrs. O'Day, our province vice-president, with us for our December meeting. She gave us a splendid talk which was an inspiration to all of us.

We are glad to say that our club contributed 100% to all of the activities of the fraternity. We were able to send $25.00 to the Settlement School, $10.00 to the Loan Fund, and $10.00 to the Endowment Fund. Besides the club contribution to the Endowment Fund most of the members gave $1.00 each as individual contributions. Our magazine subscription agency was very active this year, under the able supervision of Mildred Coleman.

The actives in town during the summer are doing the usual rushing and the alumnae club plans to assist them with at least one large rush party toward the end of the summer.

KATHRYN WILSON RICKABAUGH

PORTLAND (ORE.) CLUB

Portland Alumnae Club has just completed a most successful year. At each of the nine meetings a very good percentage of the membership was present. These meetings consisted of alternate afternoon and evening meetings, the first being a well attended afternoon meeting at which the year's work was discussed. In October the regular meeting was followed by an old-fashioned Pi Phi cooky-shine. The Settlement School tea was in November and was most successful. In December a large number attended the Christmas party at which time we honored our Province Vice-President, Mrs. O'Day.

On Founders' Day more than sixty Pi Phi met for a banquet at the Campbell Court Hotel.

Many have enjoyed the bridge tournaments during the past year, also the series of dessert bridge luncheons given this spring. In November the club gave a supper dance at one of the downtown hotels. In May, through the kindness of Mrs. Dean Vincent, the club had a bridge party and dance at the Waverly Club.

We have contributed to the Endowment and Loan Funds, the Settlement School, and to the two Oregon active chapters.

EVALYN B. JAKES

Nancy Black Wallace Club

The Salem Alumnae Club observed Founders' Day with a bridge tea at the country home of Mrs. Wolcott Buren. Twelve members attended.

At the May meeting, with Mrs. Edward Sox and Mrs. Walter Fuhrer as hostesses, officers for the coming year were elected. Plans were made for summer rushing and a committee was appointed to arrange for a tea to be held in Salem sometime during the summer. Later, desirable rushees were invited to a tea given in Portland by Oregon A and Oregon B.

The club has decided to sell metal sponges to make money for the general funds. The order was obtained with the Corvallis Alumnae Club. Sponges were purchased for five cents each and are sold for ten cents. Sales so far have been very gratifying.

Contributions have been sent to the Settlement School ($10), the Loan Fund ($5), and the Endowment Fund ($5). Through the magazine agency over one dollar has been sent to the Settlement School. The magazine chairman believes that this is a very easy way to raise money, and she is making plans to interest people in giving their magazine subscriptions to the club.

The past year has been a very successful one. Attendance at meetings has increased and interest in club activities has grown.

SEATTLE CLUB

The seven groups in the Seattle Alumnae Club held their monthly meetings in the homes of members. Each group helped or was responsible for one large alumnae meeting.

In September a dinner was given at Helen Swopes' Tea Room. Plans for the year's work were announced. The October meeting, a dinner and cooky-shine honoring the new pledges, was held at the chapter house. At the D.A.R. house in November a bridge tea and Settlement School bazaar was given. The meeting for January was held after a birthday dinner at the chapter house. In February the Alumnae Club dance was given at Club Victor.

The Founders' Day Banquet in April was at the Hotel Edmond Meany, with Mrs. Roscoe Torrance as chairman. We were very much honored again this year to have one of the founders, Inez Smith Soule, with us. Each year she comes from Tacoma to the banquet in Seattle. In May Mrs. Payne Karr and group gave a dance at the Olympic Hotel for all alumnae and friends. Our last meeting was a picnic for seniors at Mrs. Florence Denny Heliker's "Lochkelden" on Lake Washington. Everyone enjoyed swimming and bridge in the afternoon. After a picnic supper a meeting and election of officers was held.

JETRAL TEMPLETON

SPOKANE CLUB

The Spokane Alumnae Club celebrated Founders' Day at the Davenport Hotel with a formal banquet which was attended by forty alums both from Spokane and neighboring towns. Mrs. Lillian Rusch, our Province President, and Mrs. Juanita Gregory O'Day, Province Vice-President, were with us. Both gave talks appropriate for the day.

At the last meeting on May 21 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Cassill, plans were made to have a picnic when those who attended convention have returned. They will give reports on the activities at convention. A goodly number from Spokane plan to attend.

Plans for summer rushing were also discussed. There were nine of the Spokane Alumnae present at the Senior Breakfast held at Washington State College on June 3.

The club sent sixty dollars to the Settlement School, twenty-five dollars to the Endowment Fund, and ten dollars to the Loan Fund.

MARJORIE NEAL

INEZ SMITH SOULE CLUB

At the last meeting of the Inez Smith Soule Alumnae Club, held at the American Lake home of Mrs. W. Ohlson, with Mrs. Charles Low assisting, both afternoon and evening groups attended and election of officers was held with the following results: President, Alice Whitney; vice-president, Ruth Sturley; secretary, Mrs. A. R. Walker; treasurer, Betty Larson.

Plans were made for a Summer Sports Dance to be held in August for the purpose of raising funds and keeping up interest in the club during the time when no meetings are held. At this dance we hope to raffie off the powder puff quilt which has been in the making these past months.

A late fall picnic will be our first meeting in September which both groups will attend.

The plan of having both an afternoon and an evening group has brought out many members who could not otherwise have attended, and will be continued this coming year.

We are looking forward to hearing about convention from Mrs. Soule, our honorary delegate, and Miss Ruth Sturley, our Official Representative.

ALTA JONES WALKER

WENATCHEE CLUB

The Wenatchee Alumnae Club has a membership of fourteen. Seven meetings were held during the year, all of which were very well attended.

The club has contributed to the Settlement School and to the Endowment Fund. At Christmas time the club also made a donation to the local Christmas Cheer Fund.

One of the outstanding meetings of the year was held in November, at which time we had Mrs. Juanita O'Day, our province vice-president, as our guest.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. Walker Pickens.

JANE WEBB

MU PROVINCE

BERKELEY CLUB

The January initiation banquet was held at the Claremont Country Club with an unusually large attendance. The committee in charge had previously arranged for cards later in the evening which proved to be very successful as many enjoyed bridge while others reminisced with old friends.

In March we held our usual rummage sale in cooperation with the Mothers' Club and netted quite a sum for the Settlement School fund.

April 14 the Founders' Day luncheon was held at the Women's Athletic Club in Oakland. Many of the active girls from the Stanford chapter were with us and our own active chapter was well represented. At this luncheon the officers for the ensuing year were named.

GRACE BLAKE REINHARDT

GLENDALE CLUB

We have had a most successful year. Most of the meetings were held as scheduled and plans carried out as planned. Our main sources of income are from the rummage sale, the bridge groups, each time they are held each member (hostess excepted) pays 25¢ toward the fund, and at each meeting we have dessert and pay 25¢ each which takes the place of local dues or assessments.

We have contributed to the Endowment Fund through our pledge, $50.00; $75.00 to the Settlement School; Loan Fund $5.00; and Christmas Gifts to each active chapter. During the time of the flood in Glendale we contributed $5.00 to our local Red Cross. We also had a bridge benefit tea last fall.

Our Bridge Groups, have been a great source of interest this year and we have enjoyed this diversion. It has also been a help in filling the treasury.

We find that many new Pi Phis are moving to our vicinity and sincerely hope they will make themselves known to us so that we can count on them as future members.

Our final meeting will be held June 9 at which time Pauline Downey Tompkins will read a play.

Grace Post gave us a very delightful story of her visit to the Settlement School and answered our questions regarding the School. In May she brought a roll of pictures taken there which we thoroughly enjoyed.

During the summer the afternoon bridge group is planning to continue their playing.

ETHEL R. ELLINGSTON

LOS ANGELES CLUB

The Los Angeles Alumnae Club has closed another year of interesting activities. The monthly meetings have drawn a large number of members due to the interesting programs Gertrude Niblo, the chairman, has put on. The last meeting was a colorful fiesta given at the Gamma house. A Spanish supper was served, and flower girls dressed in typical costume gave away little nosegays while a Spanish string quintet wandered among the guests. A reunion dinner dance was given at the Del Mar Beach Club at which many alumnae members and their escorts enjoyed themselves.

Julia Kingsberry Wright, next year's president, is Convention delegate, with Clara May Wright as alternate. Mrs. Montague and Isabel Crower are also going to be present.

There have been thirteen bridge groups functioning throughout the year, aside from the Betty Wheat Book Group, which has been most interesting. Six hundred notices were mailed monthly for regular meetings; so you see how many Pi Phis were contacted. Vera Olds is planning several teas for the summer to which girls who are entering college in the fall are invited.

EDWARDA ROTHE CHESTER

PALO ALTO CLUB

The May and June meetings of the Palo Alto Alumnae Club were both well attended. The May meeting was a garden party given for the actives and pledges of the active chapter at Stanford. In June the alumnae members who live at the Sunnyvale Naval Air Base were hostesses for the meeting and tea. Through the efforts of Mrs. E. D. Stanley it was made possible for us to inspect the hangar in which the Macon is lodged, and to have the privilege of being conducted through the Macon itself, a favor not granted the general public. It was a most interesting experience to have explained to one the mechanisms in the control cabin, which seems so insignificant in comparison with the vast bulk of the rest of the dirigible.

We are very sorry to lose one of our most loyal members, Mrs. Frederick Kerman, who is leaving to make her home in New York City. She has been Mu Province Vice-President this last term, and we feel sure the other chapters will miss her as much as we shall in the Palo Alto Club meetings.

DOROTHY NEEDHAM

PASADENA CLUB

During the year 1933-34, the Pasadena Alumnae Club held eight meetings with an average attendance of thirty. The social activities for the year included: October, a luncheon with the display of Settlement School products; November and December, teas; January, a cooky-shine; February, a trip to Max Factor's Make-up Studios in Hollywood; March, Constitution study; April, a program of book reviews; June, a picnic.

Founders' Day was held on April twenty-eighth, in Pasadena, at the Vista del Arroyo Hotel. It was in the form of a luncheon and was largely attended.

During the two weeks preceding Christmas, the club maintained a store for the sale of Settlement School products and disposed of $135.00 worth of goods. Bridge groups within the club were also formed as part of the Settlement School donation. Twenty-five cents a person was paid each time a group played. The Club hopes to send the usual donation to the Settlement School this year.

$5.00 was sent to the Endowment Fund and $5.00 to the Loan Fund.

EVELYN M. PETERS

PHOENIX CLUB

The Phoenix Club has held its own completing this year with 21 members. The meetings have included a cooky-shine, two bridge-luncheons, a bridge-tea and a rush party at the homes of members, and the final meeting, the Founders' Day banquet, held in the Adams Hotel.

The Settlement School money was raised by group work. Contributions were sent to the Undergraduate Loan Fund and the Endowment Fund as well as to Arizona A.

A very lovely rush party was given in March in the beautiful garden of the Donofrio home to afford an opportunity to rush about 75 Phoenix girls contemplating going to school at Tucson. Quite a few active girls assisted in the rushing at this party.

DOROTHY S. THOENY

SAN JOSE CLUB

The San Jose Alumnae Club has thirteen resident members, with an average attendance of nine at our nine regular and three informal summer meetings. Our annual Settlement School bridge tea in November netted us only $17, but at the tea and throughout the year Arrow Craft articles amounting to $352 have been sold by our small club. We have been able to send $40 to the Settlement School and $2.50 each to the Loan and Fellowship Funds.

Nevada A Alumnae, whose chapter is our child, entertained the club with a Founders' Day cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. L. H. Davis. There were several new members and out-of-town guests, among whom was our beloved Helen Kerman, province president. She is the one to whom we owe a large measure of success, especially in our new business venture, the selling of the official sixteen-inch candles, wine and blue, for initiations and banquets.

Our last year's president, Mildred Brown, was elected president of Mu Phi Alumnae of the San Francisco Bay District and was sent to the National Convention at Atlantic City as their representative.

MARION BOWERS STEVENS

SAN FRANCISCO CLUB

The Club opened its fall activities with a tea on October sixth at the home of Mrs. Thomas B. Hunter. During November a luncheon was held at the St. Francis Hotel for Miss Charlotte Lansing, New York A, while she was starring in the musical production "Show Boat."

Mrs. H. C. Hendee was hostess to the Club for its annual cooky-shine. Over forty members were present and during the evening they were delightfully entertained by a monologue given by Mrs. Harold Burdick. The business meeting of the year was held and convention delegates and club officers were elected.

The annual Settlement School Card Party was held at the Hotel Mark Hopkins in February. $50 of the proceeds were sent to the School, and in addition the following contributions were made: Loan Fund, $10. Endowment Fund, $10. California A, Leland Stanford Jr. University, $10.

The Berkeley Alumnae were hostesses at the Women's Athletic Club, Oakland, in April for the Founders' Day Luncheon. Mrs. Harold Burdick presided as toastmistress for a very entertaining program of music and of speakers from the clubs and active chapter. Cards were enjoyed in the afternoon. The hospitality of the Berkeley Club was deeply appreciated by all.

It was the privilege of several members of the club to greet Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt during her brief visit in San Francisco this spring.

Officers

President, Mrs. Eugene Robinson, 40 San Rafael Way, San Francisco; vice-president, Mrs. E. S. Cowgill, 2355 N. Point St.; treasurer, Mrs. Ferris Bagley, 3060 21st Ave.; secretary, Mrs. James McFarland, 710 47th Ave.
CLARA-CATHERINE HUDSON

UTAH CLUB

Meetings of the Utah Alumnae Club have been held on the first Saturday of each month from September until June with the exception of January. The average attendance was forty. Seven of these meetings were in the form of luncheons at the chapter house; the eighth was a tea at the home of Mrs. William J. Lowe (Elsie Ward). Two entertainments were given to raise funds—a bridge and dancing party at the Art Barn in September and II B Φ night at the Club Dorado in March. There were three affairs in honor of the active chapter: a tea for prospective pledges at the home of Mrs. Martin C. Lindem (Marjorie Wasson) in December, a "cooky-shine" for the actives and pledges at the chapter house in February, and a breakfast for graduates at the Art Barn in May. The officers gave a dinner for Mrs. Alford at the Art Barn in November. On April 29, the Founders' Day Banquet was held at the Alta Club with one hundred and nineteen members in attendance.

Under the capable leadership of our president, Florence Groshell Love, the year has been an active and profitable one. Although it has been difficult to raise money, the club was able to present the active chapter with a large electric refrigerator and twin electric stoves for the chapter house. Contributions were also sent to the Settlement School, Loan, and Endowment Funds.

On May 5 the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Gretchen Horst; vice-president, Marjorie Richardson Pace; secretary, Clarice Larson; corresponding secretary, Laura McGhie Lambourne; treasurer, Marjory Lewis Hancock; advisory board, Florence Groshell Love and Mary Caffey.

The following have consented to serve as committee chairmen: Settlement School, Helen Rothwell; Ways and Means, Florence Hammond Hunter; Membership, Rae Zook Rutledge; Magazine Subscriptions, Majel Kipp Payne.

The club is eagerly looking forward to meeting many fellow Pi Beta Phis this summer, both at Convention in Yellowstone and here in Salt Lake City.

Leadership has always been characterized by the qualities of HONOR, STRENGTH, and INITIATIVE. HONOR to hold tenaciously to our personal and business integrity.

STRENGTH to forge ever onward toward the goal of greater perfection in the quality of our product.

INITIATIVE to employ skillful workmen and modern ideas in manufacture.

... these are the dominant qualities that have made the L. G. Balfour Company indisputable leader in the fraternity jewelry field.

There are always those who—falling short of these qualities—fail, and nurse their envy with unscrupulous assaults on the leader.

A company, firm in the conviction of its integrity must bear the brunt of such attacks with dignity—THE PENALTY OF LEADERSHIP.
