THE GREAT SMOKIES

THE ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

MAY, 1938

EDITORIALS

TO THE Founders of Pi Beta Phi, this issue of the ARROW, coming out so close to our founding date, is lovingly dedicated. Those Founders who have gone on have left to us a memory to be ever treasured, those still with us are to us a constant inspiration. To them we cling in loyalty and affection. We are proud of their lasting interest in and love for Pi Beta Phi, proud of their ever-young, ever happy spirit. May it be given to many of us to preserve our loyalty and our devotion to the Fraternity through seventy-one years of active membership! What an example they are to us, young and not so young, active and alumnae alike!

Convention comes near again—will you be with us in Asheville? Convention is yours to make what you will, a great experience in friendship, a lovely vacation, a time of hard work if you are in any way charged with responsibility for its success. Whatever your part in Convention, whether it is your first or your tenth, a great experience awaits you. What are you bringing to it?

We need your help in making it a never to be forgotten time, one to be cherished among all the fine memories that life in a fraternity leaves with us. A revival of fraternity spirit should come from it—who can attend unmoved the model initiation, who can watch with dry eyes when Convention rises to greet the entrance of a Founder, who can stand with others from her chapter when the Grand President calls the roll of chapters at the banquet without a thrill of pride, not only in the thought of her own chapter, but in the strength of the bond which calls together so many women of charm and intellect? Even for a few moments to be so drawn out of our every day selves, so lifted to heights of inspiration, makes all our efforts worth while, makes us for a little time neighbors of the stars!

As a fitting preparation for the experiences that await you, we give you in this issue the address made at the Alpha Chi Omega Convention last summer by Mary Bash, Washington A, Associate Dean of Women at the University of Washington, the special guest of that occasion.

A fine example of Panhellenic spirit, that! And not the only time Alpha Chi Omega has shown such spirit. On March 19 the Editor of the ARROW was invited to be guest speaker at the Panhellenic luncheon held in Tucson, Arizona, during the Pacific Province Convention of A X Ω. To speak that day to representatives of all the women's fraternities on the University of Arizona campus was a pleasure and a privilege indeed, and to A X Ω the Editor extends again her gratitude for a truly wonderful experience, a manifestation of the real fellowship which Panhellenism should mean.

A great fraternity has in these days come to be a great business concern as well. Perhaps you have not realized the size of that business. We have in our chapter houses property valued at more than $1,000,000, with furnishings in them worth more than $200,000. Think of the expense involved each year in the care and upkeep of all that real estate! Think of the market it affords for all sorts of household equipment, think of the quantity of food that must be bought each year for the girls who live in those houses—think too, of the families behind those girls, with all their myriad needs to be supplied—and you will see that we offer a field for advertising that should be attractive to the national advertiser. For years efforts have been made to reach those advertisers, to convince them that the fraternity magazines offer a promising field for the advertiser, but only this year have we begun to see results. For the first time national advertising is coming into our pages. Fraternity Magazines, Associated, has begun to see results from its efforts to act as a general advertising agency for all the fraternity magazines in combination, representing a circulation of something like 400,000 readers.

Will you help us to keep what we have gained by showing those who advertise in our pages that we really read their advertisements and respond to them? Will you patronize our advertisers? When you do so, will you mention the fact of your membership in $\Pi \text{ B } \Phi$?

Nothing pains the Editor quite so much as to have the ARROW come out late! Will you help us to have it out on time, you who are in any way responsible for sending in material? Will you study the calendar in the front of each issue of the ARROW, find out when your material is due, and send it in on that date?

Please do so—you will be earning the everlasting gratitude of the editorial staff.

It is a pleasure to give editorial space to a fine release from the Committee on Interfraternity cooperation of the National Panhellenic Congress, whose chairman is Margaretta Orem Lindsay, $\Lambda \Phi$.

"INTERFRATERNITY COOPERATION

"By THE COMMITTEE ON INTERFRATERNITY COOPERATION OF N.P.C.

"Interfraternity cooperation is essentially a state of mind, an enlightened viewpoint. The Greeks, in their maturity, have realized that beyond the chapter, beyond the individual organization, looms the Greek letter system, which propounds a definite philosophy of living, which aims at a single objective: the development of women of strong character and a high degree of culture and ability.

"N.P.C. consists of twenty-three fraternities, so closely interrelated in aims and responsibilities that disaster to one is immediately reflected in the affairs of the others. The prosperity of each therefore becomes the concern of all.

"Panhellenism, based upon cooperation rather than upon competition, is not just a beautiful ideal; it is sound, practical sense. Competition in the acquisition of new members and in the striving for awards is inevitable and what is more it is healthy, if, that competitive spirit does not degenerate into a selfish scramble for power and prestige to the detriment of the strength and prosperity of other competitors. Temporary triumph on the part of a few chapters, which leaves the others starving for membership, is a two-edged sword which eventually cuts the victor as well as the vanquished by bringing about a badly balanced, unhealthy Panhellenic condition in which no one can long prosper.

"A pledge day is only successful when each group has acquired sufficient new members to carry on its affairs with profit and pleasure; when no group has pledged so many members that the chapter has become so large as to defeat the real purpose of chapter life—the working out of social adjustments in a group small enough for intimacy and understanding. Indeed the overlarge chapter causes as much concern to fraternity leaders as the undersized.

"Various forms of the quota system have been tried to bring some balance between the swollen and the shrunken chapter. Some have succeeded partially, others have failed, and it is the opinion of this committee that the difficulty can be corrected only by educating the Greeks to an intelligent awareness of their joint responsibility in the Panhellenic affairs of their campuses. Legislation has succeeded in wiping out few evils, but common sense understanding of the implications of a problem is half the solution of that problem.

"Some campuses are fortunate in that their joint responsibility and participation in each other's affairs is made tangible and clear by joint ownership of a Panhellenic house or something of the like. One group's failure to meet the rent can upset the budgets of all the others. Under such conditions it is not hard to convince the chapters that Panhellenism is cooperative!

"On other campuses where the issue is not so clear-cut the interrelationship is just as definite. Each college Panhellenic may be likened to a building, with the foundation the Greek letter system. Smug satisfaction that one's own wall is strong and firm, and complete indifference to the fact that some of the other walls have serious cracks is not only blind selfishness, it is sheer stupidity. It takes more than one wall to hold up a roof but if one collapses it is likely to pull down the sound walls too.

"Each of the twenty-three groups which make up N.P.C. has its strong chapters and its weak ones. There is no chapter problem in any one fraternity which can not be duplicated in each of the others. They just come in different places. If yours is a strong chapter, do not disdain to lend a helping hand to a struggling one on your campus, or if yours is weak, do not hesitate, through false pride, to accept assistance. Remember that the position is probably reversed some place else. It may even be reversed within a college generation on your own campus. Intelligent, cooperative Panhellenism will bring balance and stability and guarantee the security necessary for the Greek letter groups to serve their community and their members to the full."

ADÈLE TAYLOR ALFORD

TO OUR FOUNDERS

There were twelve young girls. This was long ago,
But were those girls different from girls today?
They wore their crinolines quite correct,
Their manners were staid and circumspect,
They certainly never smoked or necked,
But they studied and laughed and were sad and gay.

Jennie and Fannie and Libbie and Rose.
This one had beauty and that one had brains,
This one would worry and fluster and fret,
This one could easily get in a pet,
This was a blonde and this a brunette,
This one was one of my Lady Disdains.

This one could giggle at nothing at all,
This—dreamed "Love" was the name for each fancy,
Oh, but you know them—these girls were not new,
They were just girls like me and like you,
With most of the faults but some virtues, too,
Margaret and Clara and Ada and Nancy.

They met in a room and they locked the door,
And they smothered their giggles in the feather bed,
They would form a club. They thought of a name,
"But, Inez and Emma, what's our Aim?"
The serious one of the little group said.

The aim—the idea—the basic thing
For this little club of long ago—
Friendship—could an ideal be more high?
The twelve friends looked in each other's eye,
That was the cord and the silken tie;
And the minutes passed, hushed and slow.

First twelve links in friendship's chain,
Who long ago glimpsed so high;
Dear Founders, dear friends, you have led the way,
And are you surprised at your friends today?
Your thousands of friends who join to say,
"God bless you, and Pi Beta Phi."

TO OUR FOUNDERS

*Twelve maidens lit the candles bright,
In Monmouth town so long ago,
That were to be our beacon light
While our Pi Beta Phi did grow.*

*In darker hues these candles glow:
For those who tarry with us here,
Alas, but two are in this row!
Our love for them is very dear.*

*For those who passed across the glade
Beyond the starry realms of night,
Are candles of a lighter shade.
For them glow bright, O candle light!*

*Will someone light a candle gay,
In friendship's heart, a keepsake true,
When we have gone that starry way?
We, too, have loved our wine and blue.*

NANTAHALA GORGE

COME TO CONVENTION!!!

A LOVELY summer climate, a setting of great natural beauty make Grove Park Inn ideal as a Convention location. Add to this the interest of the program being worked out by Grand Council and the Convention Guide, and this should be a never-to-be forgotten Convention. Here are some of the things which will lend interest: Beatrice Edmonds, California A, who so delightfully read "First Lady" for the Edgewater Beach Convention, will give a review of the current stage play with a reading of "Susan and God" on Wednesday evening; Dean Maria Leonard of the University of Illinois, Indiana Γ , will be one of our speakers, talking on Student Stewardship.

The honor guest of Convention will be Nina Harris Allen (Mrs. Ford J.), Illinois B, former Grand Vice-President. Mrs. Allen has been always a most devoted member of Pi Beta Phi. Convention goers who have had the pleasure of travelling on our special trains for many years under Mrs. Allen's guidance, will be glad to know that she has again consented to take charge.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT AS TO STUNT NIGHT

Stunt Night will also be Fancy Dress Night this time. It is urged that all appear for dinner that evening in their costumes. All costumes must be brought to Convention from home—there is no possible way of obtaining them in Asheville. Remember that and avoid the last minute disappointment of finding yourself out of the fun because you have no costume! Prizes will be awarded as usual for the best stunt, for the most beautiful costume, and for the most original costume.

If you take good pictures, bring your camera, and report to the ARROW Editor on your arrival. We want really fine pictures for the Convention number next fall.

SPECIAL!!

A great pleasure awaits Convention goers this time—Charlotte Lansing, New York A, our own prima donna, star of Broadway successes, who charmed the Asbury Park Convention with her voice and personality, will be a special guest during the whole of Convention. She promises to sing all the time!

DOROTHY ROTH WILSON

Now resides in Washington, D.C. At present, a junior at the George Washington University Law School, a member of the Washington Alumnae Club and a member of Φ Δ Δ, international legal sorority.

MEETING ARRANGEMENTS

Grace Porter attended the University of Nebraska and was initiated into Nebraska B in 1913. She was the daughter of Ona Saunders Porter of Lincoln, Nebraska, initiated into Iowa A in 1881 and transferred to Iowa I in 1887.

Miss Porter taught kindergarten in the Lincoln Public Schools and was very active in the Alumnae Club and a member of the Advisory Board for the Nebraska Beta chapter for two years.

In 1932 after the death of her mother she went to Winter Haven, Florida, to make her home with friends, and became an active member of the Lakeland Alumnae Club.

MARY CARNES

HOSPITALITY

Mary Carnes was pledged to Π Β Φ at Florida State College for Women September 30, 1929, and initiated by Miss Onken in model initiation at Florida State Convention in Orlando, May 12, 1935. Assistant editor of the Convention Daily at the Chicago convention in 1936, and president of the Tampa Alumnae Club, 1937-38. Also a member of the Tampa Junior league, and Assistant society editor of the Tampa Morning Tribune.

"CONVENTION DAILY"

The staff of the Convention Daily as so far chosen, promises an unusually interesting newspaper. Ruth Wilson, Kentucky A, Chapter Letter Editor of the ARROW, will be its editor; the business manager will be Ellen Mellick Rollins (Mrs. Thomas S., Jr.), North Carolina A, of Asheville.

If you are coming to Convention and will help on the Daily staff in any capacity, reporting, copywriting, or just plain typing, will you write to Ruth Wilson and volunteer for service, or if you have not written before, report to her on arrival at Convention, ready for work. We can promise you lots of fun.

"CONVENTION DAILY"

COPIES of the Convention Daily will be mailed each day to all subscribers who are not in attendance at Convention. The subscription price is fifty cents, and subscriptions may be sent now to the Business Manager of the Daily, Mrs. Thomas S. Rollins, 224 Chestnut Street, Asheville, N.C. Chapters should subscribe for their files, and delegates may order such subscriptions at the Daily desk at Grove Park Inn.

What a fine gift for a friend who cannot attend in person!

An Invitation from Chapel Hill

Visitors to the Convention are cordially invited and urged to visit Chapel Hill, a delightful Southern village, the seat of the oldest state university of our nation and the home of North Carolina A.

Twelve miles east of Chapel Hill in Durham, is the beautiful Gothic campus of Duke University which in the past decade has rapidly mounted to national reputation. At this institution is located North Carolina B.

The Carolina Inn at Chapel Hill and the Washington Duke Hotel in Durham afford comfortable and pleasant over-night accommodations.

Chapel Hill is on U.S. Routes 501 and 15, and N.C. 54. Durham is on U.S. Route 70, and on the Southern and Norfolk and Western Railroads.

Members of the Chapel Hill Alumnae Club will be pleased to guide visitors around the University of North Carolina. Send notice regarding time of arrival to any of the officers listed below.

Mrs. Wallace E. Caldwell (Harriet Wil-mot, New York B) 412 E. Rosemary St.

Mrs. Alfred S. Lawrence (Elsie Mellicent Perkins, New York B), 501 E. Rosemary St.

Mrs. Hugo Giduz (Edith Baker, Missouri B), 508 Pittsboro Road.

Mrs. Glover Campbell (Marjorie Adams, Wisconsin A), Westwood, Chapel Hill.

Convention Keynote

By MARY I. BASH, Washington A

Miss Bash, Associate Dean of Women at the University of Washington, and member of Π Β Φ, sounded the keynote of the convention of Alpha Chi Omega last summer with her thought-provoking address delivered at the open session.

I CANNOT tell you how much I appreciate, both for my sister and myself, your very warm welcome. Thank you for your cordiality and for this opportunity to talk with you. I feel as if I were halfway in the position of hostess, too, because the northwest is my country, by birth and as home.

The mountains make a fine setting for a convention. In such a setting I want to make a threefold wish for your convention. If you will think of one word which most characterizes mountains, I am sure it will be "strength." I wish for you a realization of your strength. In these days may you draw upon the strength of your past years to build solidly upon the foundation you already have, and may you find strength for the future in the cooperation and power that is in the womanhood of your membership.

Those who live in the mountains live in the midst of beauty, and I wish for you a realization, deeper than you have known before, of the beauty in your relationship as fraternity sisters. There is a third thing that always goes with mountains, and that is vision. I wish for you the vision of understanding, and, before you leave this beautiful place, a vision of what is possible in future accomplishment.

Dean Rienow of Iowa says that "a Greek-letter fraternity outside an educational institution is unthinkable." We are considering ourselves today as very much a part of the educational system, and not a small part when we remember that there are 40,000 members of women's Greek-letter fraternities on 155 campuses in the United States. Forty thousand women! What a force they can be, if they will!

This field of education in which we have so large an interest is an unlimited battleground. Every citizen, with or without background for his comments, feels called upon to point out what is wrong with the system, and it is subjected to more experiment, tampering, and general beating than almost any other phase of our organized life. Such criticism and searching scrutiny, however, are but an indication of how much people care about what is taking place in the growing-up process of their young folks.

I should like to think with you along a suggestive line of discussion, the first step of which is the statement that all educational systems are the outgrowth of the voluntary activities of individuals and (or) groups, and schools have incorporated into their formal programs much of such activity. We take so much for granted when we think of our schools that we fail to realize how very recent, historically, is the growth of our present formalized system of education. For instance, you cannot imagine a university without a department of sociology, and yet the first department of sociology was established at the University of Chicago, which, itself, great leader as it is, was only born in 1893. And how soon do campus customs, started perhaps but one year ago, become "traditions"! The very speed of change indicates how soon blind acceptance gives way to an attempt to fit the needs of the times. No age is static, no matter how much we try to settle things in a fixed form to lean on. Professor Messenger in our neighboring state of Idaho says that "the educator's perpetual relapse is a relapse into formalism. Nearly every reform has been a protest against the formal, but the protest has been followed by a new formalism as binding as its predecessor."

Let us see some of the things that have come into our curricula in the last fifty years as the result of such protests. I have here a copy of the annual catalogue of Otterbein University for the year 1875—my mother's class. Otterbein is a small church school in Ohio, but it was one of the pioneers in coeducation. We can never measure the debt we owe the church schools—schools which with courage, conviction, and very limited resources have blazed the trails others have followed. The list of subjects offered at Otterbein in 1875 amuses us now. There were a classical course, a scientific course, and—a ladies' course! All emphasized Latin, mathematics, science, and logic. The classical course added Greek, the scientific course specified required courses in Bible (doubtless as an antidote), and the ladies' course omitted one term of mathematics! Laboratory science was, of course, unknown, but this open-minded notice appears elsewhere in the pamphlet: "The University is provided with philosophical and chemical apparatus for experimental illustration of the different departments of science. Contributions to the cabinet are earnestly solicited from friends in different parts of the country." And this forward-looking announcement is on the same page: "Instruction is given at the expense of the student, in the modern languages, instrumental and vocal music, drawing, and oil painting."

Compare the offerings listed in the catalogue of any university of today. How your grandparents would have been appalled at the thought of college credit being given for such things as The Speaking Voice; Play Acting; Community Organization; Posture; Interior Design; Theater Workshop; Needlework; Play and Leisure Time; Costume Design; and—of all things—Tap and Character Dancing! Can we not trace many of our now "regular" subjects to the voluntary activities of groups? Where is the old "singing school"? Much more effectively handled through the music teaching which begins with the lowest grades, and finds public expression in chorus, glee club, and operetta. Dramatics, once entirely extracurricular, are now part of the academic program, and the same is true of debate. The activities of former departmental clubs have in large part been absorbed into the curriculum itself.

Women have been responsible for not a few of these incorporations and the development of practical interests. What tremendous growth has occurred in the fields of nursing education and home economics! In 1898 Mrs. Ellen Richards said, "Ten years ago domestic science meant to most people lessons in cooking and sewing given to classes of poorer children, supported by charitable people . . . to teach parents how to make pennies go as far as possible." In the early 1900's came the Lake Placid Conference and the organization of what is now the National Home Economics Association with its emphasis on and support of the educational program in adequate curricula, research, and experiment.

Women's work for the education of women is a fascinating story. Mrs. Beard says that "in 1849 diplomas and advanced courses of study were things entirely outside the intellectual life of women." With what sturdy determination did women "break in" to higher education! There was Lucy Stone at Oberlin, in 1850, quite literally "striking" for a fair deal for the brave girls who took their courage in both hands and actually went to college. This is an excerpt from one of her letters home in her senior year. "It has been the custom for the ladies who were appointed to write for the commencement to have their essays read by Professor Thome. . . . Some of them thought ladies ought to have the privilege of reading for themselves. Accordingly, I prepared a petition to the faculty, and to the ladies' board, asking that we might do so; but the petition was rejected, on the ground that it was improper for women to participate in public exercises with men. . . . I came at once to the conclusion that I would not write. . . . All of the ladies except one who were appointed to write essays resigned, as did two of the gentlemen. Others were appointed to fill their places, and these too refused to accept the conditions." And there was Antoinette Brown, our first woman preacher, denied her degree in theology at the time of her graduation, who lived to see, during her long lifetime, the ordination of over 3,000 women preachers in this country! The Blackwell sisters (1849-52) pioneered for women in medicine, and in 1854 founded that great East Side hospital, the New York Infirmary for Women and Children, Invasion of the field of law came later, in 1869, with the admission of Mrs. Mansfield to the bar in Iowa. Women have without question established their intellectual ability. The relative scholastic standings sheet published yearly by every university shows the men's ratings consistently lower than the women's. We have yet to see, however, what women's influence will be in education. No real "women's education" has yet been developed. Mrs. Shryock of K K T says that "our greatest challenge is in the fact that we are women."

Among the contributions to the educational process made by the voluntary activity of "interest" groups, what has the sorority given? Let us see what different people say. First are administrators—college presidents, deans of men, deans of women. The presidents mention primarily the good homes provided by the fraternities. Dr. Wriston of Brown University says, "The educative process is not merely an intellectual process. . . . Education is the growth of the individual, his response to every item in his total environment, not only within the institution but outside the institution as well. . . . Emotional responsibility and aesthetic awareness are caught and not taught. Those are the things which, more than anything else, the student gets from his environment." And he declares that the colleges are fifty years behind the fraternities in the matter of housing. Discipline is another phase of fraternity life credited with being more effective than the general discipline of the college. The opportunity which the Fraternity gives in the midst of mass education for emphasis on individual development is another genuine contribution.

Deans of men also emphasize the value of the good housing provided by the groups, and call attention to the fact that the groups are easy to reach, and make rallying points for student morale. Dean Rienow speaks especially of their contribution to a well-rounded personality. "The world has been calling for well-rounded, well-balanced men and women as well as learned men and women; and it has been only recently that we have come fully to realize that these two objectives are not antagonistic, with the result that every well-organized educational institution is coming to take a very active and deep interest in the living conditions, social environment, and extracurricular activities of its students as a part of a complete educational program."

Deans of women, according to Mary Alice

Jones' interesting survey, give a fifty-two per cent vote for the helpful influence of the sorority on its members. The advantages listed are: the development of social charm; the bringing out of the individual by the group; the raising and stabilizing of personal standards; congenial friendships; development of understanding; training in tolerance and in the ability to get along with others; and an active participation in campus life.

Another group of people has something to say about what a sorority does to help educate a girl, but the comment is not made in so many words. What does an employer mean when he specifies that he wants, preferably, a sorority girl? I believe he means that he knows he may expect certain things from the training the sorority gives. First, he expects poise. He wants a girl who will be equal to any situation, and who can meet all sorts of people graciously and understandingly. Next, he expects tolerance. He wants a girl who can get along with the other members of his staff, and can take correction when it is needed. And third, he expects a well-developed sense of responsibility. He wants a girl who will finish the job she has undertaken, and who will have a care for people as well as for things.

Lastly, what do the members themselves say of the sororities? Alumnæ, who are perhaps in the best position to evaluate their experiences, will, I am sure, thank Mrs. Saunders of $\Delta \Gamma$ for her beautiful summary of the gifts of the Fraternity to its members. Let me give you briefly the high points of her fine editorial. "The Fraternity gives us ideals—ideals of friendship, truth, loyalty, gentility, and scholarship. . . . The Fraternity gives us a name . . . bringing us both prestige and responsibility. . . . The Fraternity gives us a family. We share one another's failures and triumphs, one another's deepest secrets of love and sorrow. . . . The Fraternity gives us a home . . . to defend and beautify. . . . The Fraternity gives us friends in a strange city, for our fraternity connections are not ended with college but with life." For the actives, I leave it to you, and you, and you, to say what your fraternity has meant in fun, in fellowship, in inspiration for your life.

You notice that no criticisms are brought you. You know your own mistakes and weaknesses, and you will be doing much heart-searching these next few days in an endeavor to make better use of all the gifts which are yours. I agree so heartily with President Wriston in decrying the "defense attitude." If our emphasis is strong enough on the constructive side, the shoddy and the weak cannot stand. Darkness cannot withstand light.

According, then, to all these comments, the sorority has done some interesting things in the way of educational contributions. Its greatest work has of course been along the line of group methods, group control, group solidarity. It has been a sociological experiment in living together; a psychological experiment in individual reactions; a philosophical experiment in practical idealism and character training. Experiments always pave the way for a wider use of the good results obtained, and that brings me to the logical conclusion of my first statement about the contribution of voluntary groups to the whole educational process. When a satisfactory answer to any certain need has crystallized into the formality of a program, it becomes the function of the voluntary group to experiment in new fields of human development. It takes courage to leave the known and venture into the unknown. We are not only creatures of habit, but we are fearsome. Have you ever tried counting the number of times you use the word "afraid"? It is surprising. Nor is fear the only hindrance to growth. It is so easy to settle down and not make the effort to get outside yourself, your own friends, your chapter. Just see yourself twenty years hence in the alumna who has "set" ("jelled," somebody has expressed it) in the terms of her own college generation. Pathetic, isn't she? Complacency and ingrowingness are the bindweeds of progress. We need constantly to voice Untermeyer's "Prayer"—"Lord, thy most pointed pleasure take, and stab my spirit broad awake!"

You are part of the educational system. Where does that system need venturing? What fields has it not explored productively? Where may new experiments be initiated by the voluntary group? May I suggest to you four challenging points for your consideration and discussion. Do college graduates, because they are college graduates, have a growing intellectual interest—a vital intellectual curiosity? What can guarantee a continued alertness? In many years of "required readings" we have learned to use books as tools, and from early childhood we have expected entertainment from books, but how many of us know books as real companions? Can a voluntary group teach its members anything about that? Can a voluntary group do anything to help keep women college graduates aware of what is going on in the world? Nor do I mean classes in current events! An energetic, sophisticated lawyer once talked to a crowd of high school students at one of our conferences on the campus about what they should get out of college. He spoke first about the feeling for and use of our mother tongue and then he went on to say that the most important thing was to learn to feel at home in the world—the natural, as well as the civilized world—and he talked about the stars!

The second point is in regard to the use of leisure time. From Wickham Steed comes this thought-provoking statement: "Hitherto education and training have gone to fit human beings for work. In the future they may have to fit them for creative, ennobling, and unselfish play. By 'play' I mean healthy forms of mental and physical activity, of which the object is not material gain—the pursuit of knowledge for its own sake, of art for the expression of beauty, of science for the conduct of truth, of skill in craftsmanship, of bodily fitness to increase the joy of living. Unless my estimate of human nature is wrong, these things cannot be done by command in a super-discipline state without some loss of individual human worth. If they could be done by the voluntary coordination of effort, under the stimulus of high ideals in truly democratic communities, this loss might be avoided." What can the voluntary group do toward helping us realize the preciousness of time? We know what it means to waste money, and destroy goods, but how lightly do we speak of "killing" time. Bridge, movies, gossip—what is our standard? And this matter of drinking. I hope you will take hold of that question with both hands in this convention, and deal with it honestly. There is but one answer to its subtle and strangling hold.

We have seen that people credit the sorority with developing personality. How about balance? This is a tense age. There is a tremendous increase in the numbers of those needing hospitalization for nervous and mental disorders. Most of these are disturbances of emotion, not of intellect. What is it to reach emotional maturity? This generation has heard much more about self-expression than about self-control. We have

THE AXENSTRASSE, SKIRTING THE LAKE OF LUCERNE

After Convention — Why Not Go to Europe with the Pi Beta Phi Tour

A letter from the Director of the Tour

MY DEAR PI PHIS:

When Miss Onken asked me if I could go with some Pi Phis on a European trip this summer my first reaction was "Impossible" as I had refused to go with another group for what seemed to be good and sufficient reasons.

But the more I meditated on going with a crowd of Pi Phis the more the idea appealed to me and I wired to Miss Onken that I would go.

Since then there have been conferences and discussions galore until at long last we, the American Express Company and I, think that we can present to you an exceedingly attractive itinerary with most excellent accommodations at a very moderate cost.

The Company reports this summer's bookings to be the heaviest in their history and only a limited bloc is now held for us so you should decide as soon as possible if you care to join us.

MAY CARNEY
MIDDLETON

Things being as they are in Europe it is uncertain when we may be able to go again so it does seem important to go now if it is at all possible.

We are planning such a lovely trip. We expect to see the things that every traveller talks about. We shall visit points of modern and ancient history: Geneva, Rome, Versailles. We shall see points of famous beauty: Interlaken, Lucerne, Amsterdam, Heidelberg and Venice. And we shall go frivolous and hunt up the newest fashions at the places where fashions are made and buy choice perfumes where they are distilled, and visit the playground of Europe in the Riviera. Just fancy motoring through that lovely section!

To see these things with a congenial group, at a moderate price and with most comfortable surroundings is pretty fine, isn't it?

I think it is just grand.

And, since we have our feet lifted and our heads turned toward travel, what do you think of joining about twenty of us for a two weeks' trip to Mexico, leaving Chicago and St. Louis, May 8? This tour includes the most interesting points in the vicinity of Mexico City and sounds most alluring. The folders are not ready yet but will be by the time you make inquiry about them. The cost will be under $200 from Chicago and it does look like a good way to see our picturesque old neighbor. If you or your friend think this is what you would like, just let me know.

Does it not seem that Pi Phis may spend an interesting and profitable time in the next few months?

Opportunity is knocking hard just now, so try to embrace her.

MAY CARNEY MIDDLETON

had such a horror of being "repressed" or "inhibited"! What is the value of a vivid and sparkling personality if it cracks under the strain of our swift living? Can a voluntary group be of practical help in the matter of self-possession?

How many of you are sociology majors? Perhaps you will lead in the discussion of this last question. To what extent should the college expect a continued responsibility for community welfare on the part of its graduates? What is the function of the voluntary group in this respect? Especially in small towns, who are the leaders who are making the nation—its attitudes, its activities, its interests?

New fields of experiment beckon you on every side—experiment fraught with rich and fruitful possibilities. You have the strength and the freedom to make new gains in real education. "Go in and possess the land!"

Switzerland — a Summer Vacation Paradise

THE little land of the Alps is a paradise, where scenery, invigorating climate and health springs combine to refresh and rejuvenate human bodies and minds. Sparkling streams and lido-studded lakes are equally suited for day dreaming, fishing and aquatic frolics. Flower strewn pastures invite to rest again to be presented in the Tell playhouse at Altdorf, near the lake of Lucerne, on Sunday afternoons, from July 17 until September 11, and in the open-air theatre at Interlaken, also on Sunday afternoons, from July 10-September 11.

Of exceptional interest this year will be a while next to Nature's heart, and mountains and heaven-aspiring peaks hold out a promise to satisfy that urge for conquest which pulsates within every human breast. Shining tennis courts and excellent golf links are the country's pride.

Swiss summer season events start in an alluring parade early in June and include festivals and competitions far too numerous to be cited in detail.

The immortal "William Tell" drama is the performances of Passion Plays on Hofkirche Square at Lucerne, from July 9 to September 11, on Wednesdays (Thursdays in case of rain), Saturdays, and Sundays, at 9 P.M. The Lucerne biblical plays date back to 1470 A.D.

Other noteworthy dramatic offerings are the Faust Festival Plays in the Goetheanum at Dornach near Basle, from July 24-August 9. Take the Pi Phi Tour and enjoy some of these!

LOIS ELDRIDGE, Illinois B-A

BY THE time the May ARROW is in your hands the race to win the privilege of sending a member to Convention will be over. But the race to reach the $12,000 which we set as our goal by the 1938 Convention will still be on, and there is yet an opportunity for every member of the fraternity to have a part in this contest.

If every Pi Phi—who reads this statement will feel—that the responsibility of completing the Endowment Fund rests upon her; if she will say to herself—"I am the Fraternity, and if I do not take this responsibility no one else will"; if she will anticipate—the satisfaction that will come to her to have a part in making for finer clubs and chapters and so a finer fraternity; then it must follow that she will hasten—to send a contribution, large or small, in the next mail, and by so doing she will possess—that pleasant feeling of being a worthwhile and vital part of a great organization,

PI BETA PHI FRATERNITY.

On April 10 a little over half the $12,000 we hope for had reached Mrs. Gregory. The leaders in the contest on that date are recorded on the race track. Since that time, however, the race has been won and two fortunate groups have appointed one member each to attend Convention. By this time these happy Pi Phis are looking forward to the friends they will make at Convention, to the contacts they will have with Grand Council and other fraternity officers, to the thrill of visiting the Settlement School, and last but not least, to the store of fraternity information they will receive from Convention, all of which they will take back to their groups. Two other clubs and two other chapters are now planning what use they will make of the $50.00 and $25.00 they received for finishing in second and third places, respectively.

Congratulations to these six groups who won, and sincere appreciation to all clubs, chapters and individuals who cooperated so heartily in the endeavor to complete our Endowment Fund. The Fraternity will always be grateful to you for your part in making this Fund available for club and chapter development.

To all Pi Phis, everywhere—if you have already given generously to this Fund, but still want to contribute a little more, or if you have not yet sent in your bit—this is the last call for you to serve your fraternity by the Endowment Fund route before Convention. There is still time to send a contribution to Mrs. Gregory which will be included in her report to Convention. Wouldn't you like to be one who gave a final push to put the Endowment Fund over the top this year?

MALCOLM TULLIS, QUEEN OF REX

Patterson Photo

Again the Queen of the Mardi Gras in New Orleans

MALCOLM TULLIS, Louisiana A pledge, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garner H. Tullis (Mary Lee Brown, Louisiana A), was Queen of Rex, and of Atlanteans also. In her court as Queen of Rex were Gretchen Thomson and Elaine Richardson, Louisiana A; among the Maids to the Queen of Comus were Barbara McIlhenny, Marie Louise Stauffer, and Margaret Hart, all Louisiana A.

The entire court of Oberon was made up of Pi Phi—Claire Dolph (past chapter president), Eva Allen, Dorothy Mary Brenchley, Margaret Hart; and most of these girls also took part as Maids to the Queen of several other balls. A member of K K Γ was Queen of one of the balls; the other Queens were not fraternity members, something most unusual.

MERCEDES

FROM PI PHI PENS

Edited by MERCEDES BAKER JORGULESCO, Massachusetts A

PROPHET IN HER OWN COUNTRY

This is the story of a prophet in her own country who won both honor and acclaim. Two Maryland towns near Washington, D.C., have always looked askance at textbooks by local authors. That is they always have until they thumbed through the attractive pages of Emilie Margaret White's Ein Ausflug in Die Deutsche Sprache. Here was no ordinary, uninteresting German text. Tossing aside the usual extra gauntlet of inspection required of local authors, these towns adopted it on sight. And many important cities did likewise. But suppose we let another prominent Pi Phi describe this unusual work.

Maud Esther McPherson, Ph.D., who wrote the following review is a teacher of English in the Western High School and a past president of District of Columbia A. As a member of the General Textbook Committee for high schools in the District of Columbia, she speaks with authority.

"Ein Ausflug in Die Deutsche Sprache by Emilie Margaret White, District of Columbia A, is in two volumes Anfangsschritte and Fortschritte.

"A vital feature around which the texts are built is such presentation of material as makes possible the progressive development of ability to read German with ease and enjoyment without the process of translation. Throughout, the emphasis is placed on ideas within context, to the intent that meaning be gained always through connotative significance rather than through mechanical dependence upon glossaries.

"So expertly is the material chosen that there is progressive and climactic broadening of theme in the portrayal of Germany and its people, in the recital of its history and legends, in the presentation of its natural beauties, its folk-lore of the past, its youth customs of today. The reading maintains an instructive, yet pleasing, balance between the old and the new, the factual and the imaginative, the humorous and the serious, including, as it does, narrative, letters, proverbs, quotations, and games.

"Of this wealth of carefully sifted material three aspects appeal to youth with singular power. A proverb which voices the wisdom and philosophy of the people heads each lesson as succinct expression of its underlying theme. The theme is then illustrated and illuminated by frequent songs of a people who accompany all their activities, particularly those of youth, by singing. Both words and music of many well-known folk melodies and of famous songs of later composition are given. In like manner to exemplify and interpret lesson themes, there are utilized many of the poems and dramatic excerpts which have made German literature familiar and famous beyond the confines of its own land.

"The same principle of exemplification of reading content is followed in the selection of maps and illustrations. The customary, familiar and hackneyed school-text photographs have in these volumes been replaced by modern ones, which not only vitalize the reading, but possess artistic merit of their own; as, for example, those of the interior of the Cologne Cathedral, of modern methods of transportation, of the out-of-door stage activities, of the Nibelungen stories and of the youth activities.

"Miss White's texts have been adopted on sight by Washington and Boston and are at present under consideration by a number of large cities.

"These volumes are compiled not only from the experience of a successful and enriching career as a teacher of German in the Central High School, Washington, D.C., but also from understanding gained from three periods of travel and study spent in Germany, during one of which she had the honor of speaking at the Goethe tomb in Weimar.

"To come under the spell of Anfangsschritte and Fortschritte is to forsake appointed tasks under pressure of irresistible desire to furbish forth one's own all-but-forgotten German."

Emilie Margaret White has served the Fraternity long and well. She has been chapter Treasurer and President, President of the Alumnae Club, Gamma Province Vice-President, Assistant to the Grand Vice-President and from 1926 to 1929 Grand Vice-President. In her professional work she has been Vice-President of the American Association of Teachers of German, from 1935 to 1936 Vice-President of the Modern Language Association of the Middle States and Maryland, and from 1936 to 1937 President of the latter association.

MURDER IN AMBER

If all mystery stories seem alike to you, you have a treat in store when you read Colver Harris' new book Murder in Amber. Just read the first three pages and see if you can put it down!

Timothy Fowler of the Manhattan Homicide Squad, returning from a vacation, sails from Shanghai with his vivacious wife. They, with the other characters of the book, are placed at the ship doctor's table. A murder on the first day out, turns Timothy's vacation into a busman's holiday.

Strange events centering around a string of amber beads, which everyone wants to steal, come thick and fast. From the first murder (and there is a second one in store later on) until the last mysterious happening, the reader holds on tight while he is whirled through one exciting chapter after another. The accusing finger is pointed in turn to each character seated around the table. The reader may be as sly as he likes in guessing "Who did it"? But we'll wager it will be the surprise of his mystery-reading life when he finds out who the murderer was and just why a string of ordinary amber beads were not ordinary beads at all.

Aside from the intricacies of plot, which Mrs. Harris has handled especially well, the characters have been masterfully drawn. No words have been wasted in packing this book with thrills, suspense, humor and character interest.

Reviewing this book in the New York

Herald Tribune, Will Cuppy said, "This is a smoothly written affair, containing no mean amount of neat chatter and miscellaneous gayety to offset the diabolical doings of a certain person. Surprises come thick and fast in the home stretch."

When we asked Mrs. Harris, who was Polly Anne Colver, Maryland A, to account for herself since her biography appeared in the ARROW three years ago, she wrote:

"After five mystery novels in as many seasons, I'm beginning to feel like quite a practiced murderer, not to say actually steeped in gore. With the current fashion, instituted by the Reverend and revered S. S. Van Dine, (the spiritual daddy of us all) of having multiple murders in each story, I've now killed off more characters than I like to think about. I still think mystery stories are the most fun of any to write, as they seem to fall about half-way between farce and 'straight' stuff, and therefore it's possible to introduce all sorts of exaggerated type characters without spoiling a story. There is also the fact that once a mystery is more or less blocked out in outline, it can be written pretty much piecemeal—a distinct advantage when one must work, as I must, with at least half an eye forever cocked on household affairs.

"My entrancing, but nevertheless strenuous, two-year-old Jeremy has already learned that when the typewriter is out 'Mamma is busy writing books,' but still his attitude during the morning work-session cannot always be described as one of intelligent cooperation! Just what young Jeremy will think of the subject matter of 'Mamma's books' when he's old enough to appreciate them, I cannot say—but perhaps the fact that his father is an associate editor of that perennial child's favorite, The Book of Knowledge, will raise the average of parental endeavor sufficiently to maintain his respect. Meanwhile I continue to invent diabolical murderers and hateful murderers and hosts of suitably innocent bystanders, and look hopefully toward the day when I manage to sell the first movie rights that will put us all on Easy Street."

PRIZE WINNING PI PHI

Just let there be a prize offered by the New Jersey Federation of Women's Clubs for the best short story submitted, and Jane Toy Coolidge, North Carolina A, is sure to walk off with it. For that is just what she did for two successive years. In 1936 and 1937 she won first award in the short story division of that organization's creative literature contest.

Not content with these honors, Mrs. Coolidge won the prize (in cash no less) in a nation wide short story contest held by the Order of Bookfellows of Chicago. This organization is an international association of readers and writers whose advisory board boasts no lesser personages than Henry Seidel Canby, Carl Van Doren, Irving Bacheller, James Branch Cabell and others.

When this author was at the University of North Carolina, two of her plays were produced and taken on tour by the Carolina Playmakers. One of these, Agatha, was later included in a volume of plays entitled Carolina Folk Comedies, published by Samuel French.

"For a number of years," she writes, "I have been occupied mainly in taking care of a young family (I have a son who is twelve and a daughter six) but now that they are both in school I am finding more time to write. I am interested in short stories, particularly those that deal with the southern scene. Incidentally, it seems to me that the South badly needs an interpreter who can show actuality that lies somewhere between Tobacco Road and Gone with the Wind." And who knows but Mrs. Coolidge will be the one to do it!

JANE TOY COOLIDGE

She spent the first twenty-five years of her life in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. On a trip to England she met her to-be husband, Charles B. Coolidge. Returning to the United States, she lived two years in Laramie, Wyoming, and since 1928 has made her home in Merchantville, New Jersey. She is actively interested in the Southern New Jersey Alumnae Club and for the past two years has served as its president.

SURGEON TURNED NOVELIST

In the long list of distinguished Pi Phi relatives, Dr. John Finch Barnhill deserves a prominent place.

Dr. Barnhill, who is a former Professor of Otolaryngology in the Indiana University School of Medicine and formerly Chief of the Department of Head and Neck Surgery in the Indiana University Hospitals, has recently had published such diversified books as Disease of the Ear, Nose and Throat and Hatching the American Eagle. The former is a scholarly text written by one of the country's greatest surgeons while the latter is an unusually well-written narrative of the American Revolution.

In Hatching the American Eagle, the author has chosen Philadelphia as the locale, and the Revolution as the period of the story. He vividly depicts the lot of the non-combatants during the sombre days of the war and the life of the plain soldiers who did the real fighting.

Spies and counter-spies, Tory intrigues, thrilling sword-play, tragic battles—these make the tale told by young Philip Fenton, bashful lover, but a bold and devoted follower of Washington.

In the telling there is all the versimilitude of a diary, all the personal touch of one who was the next-door neighbor of Benjamin Franklin, and an eager follower of the doings of Jefferson, the Adamses, Patrick Henry, and the other men who signed the Declaration of Independence, who wrought our Constitution, and who, in the early days, set the course of our country toward liberty.

To Stoney Point with Anthony Wayne, to the rescue of the southern colonies with General Green, to defeat, despair and to victory with Washington goes Philip Fenton, and over the same road, through the same forests, and into the thick of battle rides the reader with him.

After Dr. Barnhill retired from active practice in Indianapolis ten years ago he started on the research for this novel and made a thorough study of records, towns, etc., by visiting these places many times. He drew the maps reproduced on the inside front and back covers.

In praise of the book, the Washington, D.C., Post said, "The author's primary purpose is the presentation of an interesting account of the events of the American Revolution, and the purpose has been admirably fulfilled."

This eminent surgeon and novelist is the uncle of Edna Barnhill Dorney, Indiana B, and a great uncle of Celeste Dorney, District of Columbia A. He is an honorary member of N Σ N Medical Fraternity at Indiana University.

TYPEWRITER CLICKING IN ALBANY

There is a typewriter in Albany, New York, busily clicking out a new book by another Pi Beta Phi. Audrey DeGraff, New York Γ, who writes under her own name and under the nom de plume Elizabeth Carden Brown, is hard at work on another volume.

Mrs. DeGraff's literary biography is somewhat turned about, for her latest book The Room Downtown, brought out under her pen name, was actually one of the first she wrote. Two other books appeared in 1936. Dance as They Desire, which bore her pen name, is the story of an underprivileged girl. The Game and the Candle, which was brought out under her own name, is the story of life in a small town.

The author, who graduated from St. Lawrence University, married an alumnus of her own university. John T. DeGraff is an Albany lawyer and a member of A T Ω. They have three sons, John, Richard, and David.

NEWS FROM LITTLE PIGEON

JEFFRIES GREEN PACE

AN URGENT INVITATION TO CONVENTION AND THE SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

Greetings to everyone from your filler-inner. I have no claim to fame, was a charter member of Virginia A, when Miss Keller was Grand President, married early into the United States Navy and have been nothing but a wife, mother, and reluctant traveler ever since. However, the Settlement School exerts a consistent charm for me and that is why I happen to be writing this.

Convention time is nearly here and I hope you will be patient with me for reviewing a number of items which may interest the readers enough to get them to Asheville and incidently to Gatlinburg.

First, I want to introduce the members of the school staff, who will be most in evidence during that time. Mrs. Eunice Weaver, our small directress, who like the rest, begins her day at six A.M., and keeps at her job of leavening the loaf until bed time. She meets dozens of problems of management each day, corresponds regularly with the committee and maintains a cordial and interested contact with the members of the community as well as being a cheerful hostess for the visitors, who have crowded the school every day since the park has been open.

Mrs. Ethel Snow presides at Arrowcraft. Even larger crowds swarm into the shop during the daylight hours and she must be deaf and dumb often, to avoid unpleasant response to some of the very rude and stupid behavior which exhibits itself before her. Our native tourists are not always "those charming people." She also sees that orders are turned over to the weaving director and that they are shipped in time for the needs of the clubs ordering.

Mrs. Georgia Duffield keeps the hotel shop and I defy you not to remember her charm and graciousness.

Miss Winogene Redding is the weaving supervisor. She is particularly gifted with artistic sense and originality and provides all the patterns for her weavers, whose workmanship she checks after instruction in their homes. She handles both the stock of raw material and manufactured articles. She takes an active interest in the weavers as personalities and, as head of the garden club movement and the monthly weavers' meetings, means a tremendous lot to them all.

Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers, the nurse, is constantly on the go, caring for the ailments of the school personnel, as well as those of the community—which extends miles around into the hills and necessitates a daily schedule of medical clinics at some far-distant concentration point.

Mr. King, the principal of the high school, will be in evidence too, I am sure. You won't be able to miss him, as he is a big man, with a very cheerful smiling look that he apparently never loses, and the heartiest handshake in the world.

Look out, too, for our sweet little new book-keeper, Frances Brown, Missouri T', who has achieved fine results at grasping her job in a few short months.

There are many more that I should like to mention but these are the only ones I am sure will be at the school in late June.

One of the most interesting experiences about the Settlement School, is a trip with the nurse, which of course you will not be able to take. I shall never forget my first one. We drove in her car along dirt mountain roads on the edge of nothing, even limping along up the rocky bed of a stream when the road failed us. At last our car could go no farther, so, getting out, we began a long climb up to a new little mountain cabin. From its porch, one could look down the surrounding ridge, through a cleft in the surrounding ridge, with beauty everywhere, sunshine, trees and flowering wild shrubs and a stream trickling musically somewhere near.

In the house however, problems presented themselves. The patient was a little mother of seventeen with her second baby—the first having died of pneumonia. She was in bed cuddling the infant, which since its birth three days before had had no care save that of a neighbor's eight year old child. A fire had to be built in the wood stove, water boiled and the baby washed with strong yellow kitchen soap. It was then rubbed with oil from the nurse's kit, its eyes attended to and it was ready to snooze away in comfort. No visible supply nor source of food was at hand and even the wood had to be picked up and chopped by the little girl in attendance. The husband and father had chosen that time to go away—just an itching foot as far as we could learn. Fortunately the nurse was able to arrange with a neighbor farther up the mountain to keep a weather eye out for the little family.

At another time I accompanied the nurse on the scheduled visit to the Big Ridge School, which stood on the top of the mountain and served the slopes running in all directions. The program called for typhoid and diphtheria injections and vaccinations. The school house was a rough log cabin, standing in a clearing, where the ground about had been trodden bare by many restless and energetic little feet. The teacher was a lank sleepy mountaineer in his shirt sleeves, who provided instruction up to and including the eighth grade. The one room held crude wooden benches and tables and one small black board. The only modern note was the health records tacked on the wall and kept from day to day for the nurse. The children were studying from books not then on the required list of the state, for requirements had been changed two or three years before and red tape had as yet kept them from such remote districts. There were about thirty pupils—all ages and both sexes; the boys clad in overalls and bare-footed; the girls often beautiful with the wildrose complexion they sometimes have in spite of hardships and poor living—and wearing any odd-fitting faded or handed-down garment available. The children down to the smallest, were all interested in having the inoculations, which had to be given for all three things at once, for as soon as the bad weather set in the school was isolated until spring.

A stranger is a novelty among them and they felt too shy at first to do anything but whisper cautiously to the nurse—but I was proud that they became accustomed to me before the visit was over and one little girl shyly gave me a reed basket she had made when her mother was making them for sale in the "burg."

We visited her family later on the way home and found her little sister ill. Her mother had just walked down to the nearest store—two miles down—and back, with crackers for the ailing one to use in milk as she could retain no other food.

Father and mother were both young—but so worn and tired with the hard work of wresting a living from the few poor acres never meant for farming—raising corn, a few vegetables, and a little cotton for spinning. They made brooms and baskets in the bad weather to market in town on good days.

Please remember this and consider that conditions in our early days at Gatlinburg were even more primitive—contrast our progressive and modern conditions at the present school and forestall any feelings that we have done our share for the school and are no longer needed. No Pi Phi's share is ever done. Now we have a whole new set of needs for influence and help as the outside world presents its vices as well as its advantages.

Do come and see the school and be convinced. Until June then—Cheerio.

JEFFRIES GREEN PACE

In his address, at N.I.C., Conference Chairman H. Maurice Darling, Δ K E, gave the minimum requirements of a well-conducted chapter, the objectives of the college of today as they relate to the Fraternity, and the program of the Fraternity in co-operating with the college in meeting those objectives.

The nine minimum requirements set up for the 2359 chapters in this country are: No member dropped for deficiency in scholarship; no chapter bills left unpaid or bills receivable from members to the chapter; no insanitary or unsafe chapter house; appetizing meals, conforming to dietetic requirements; no departures from the best standards of conduct and behavior; no members elected merely for their athletic ability; no breaches of accepted rushing rules; no foolish initiation practices; no chapter expanded to the extent that congeniality, cohesion, and responsibility are lost.

MRS. F. M. ROBINSON AWARDED MEDAL FOR CHILD WELFARE WORK

MRS. F. M. ROBINSON

Mrs. F. M. Robinson, of 777 Briarcliff Road, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia, has been awarded the Child Welfare Association Medal for the individual performing the outstanding work for children in Atlanta during the year.

The award was made known by the board of directors of the association, which covers Fulton and DeKalb Counties.

The award was made chiefly in recognition of Mrs. Robinson's years of service as founder and life president of the Atlanta Child's Home. She began her work more than fifty years ago at the old Barclay Mission. In 1892 she was one of a group starting the Florence Crittenton Home, and in 1907 she founded the Atlanta Child's Home. In 1914 the home was moved to Angier Avenue and in 1923 Mrs. Robinson's husband gave forty acres of land for the present location, 609 Hightower Ave. It is a Community Chest agency.

DR. ELINOR BLACK WINS HIGH DIPLOMA IN LONDON

Dr. Elinor Black, Manitoba A, of Winnipeg, has passed examinations and fulfilled requirements for a diploma admitting her to the British college of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists, according to word received from London. The diploma carries with it the title of M.C.O.G., and Dr. Black is the first doctor in Winnipeg to obtain it. One Winnipeg doctor has the higher title of F.C.D.

Dr. Black's medical career had a promising beginning in Manitoba. She graduated from the Manitoba Medical college in 1930. During 1930-31 she took post-graduate study in Great Britain. In 1934 she was assistant in gynaecology and obstetrics at the Winnipeg General hospital. Last year she was appointed lecturer in O. and G. at the University of Manitoba.

Dr. Black is the only woman lecturer in a medical subject in a general teaching hospital in Canada, and also the only woman to have held the position of clinical assistant.

WRITER OF AMERICANA

By MARIE TUNSTALI LINGO

Florence Seville Berryman, District of Columbia A, B.A. 1924, cum laude, George Washington University, was presented by the Washington Alumnae Club as 1938 Honor Guest to the Panhellenic Association of the District of Columbia during the seventh annual luncheon meeting, Shoreham Hotel, February 19, Washington, D.C.

The District of Columbia Panhellenic is composed of delegates and alternates from 23 national women's fraternities representing some 400 colleges, meeting usually six times yearly for necessary business and climaxing with the luncheon meeting attended by some eight hundred Greek letter women. Although cooperation and friendship is the primary objective of the group several talking books for the blind were presented from the association to worthy groups in 1936, and a substantial gift was sent to the American Red Cross for flood relief in 1937.

Honor Guest selection from each of the 23 fraternities is awarded upon the basis of the most recent distinction won by the individual member of the alumnae clubs.

Florence Berryman became an art writer on the Washington Post upon graduation, continuing this work for five months when she joined the staff of the American Federation of Arts and their official publication The American Magazine of Art.

One of her most outstanding contributions to early Americana appeared through the medium of Historical Exhibition of Portraits at "Virginia House" published in the American Federation magazine July 1929, accompanied by pictures of Pocahontas, James I. Governor, William H. Cabell, President William Henry Harrison and others of the splendid collection of Contemporary Portraits of Personages associated with the Colony and Commonwealth of Virginia between the years 1585 and 1830.

These portraits were lent by many associations, institutions and private owners not only in the United States, but England and France, to be exhibited in Virginia House, the home of Alexander Welbourne Weddell, a reconstruction of the ancient Warwick Priory built 1565, which Mr. Weddell saved from the house wreckers in 1925 and had shipped to Virginia. There it was rebuilt chiefly according to the design of the original Priory, with one wing reproducing a portion of Sulgrave Manor, the English name of the ancestors of George Washington. This wing is used by the Virginia Historical Society which will eventually own the entire building.

Florence Berryman's writing has spread through many facets of interest as staff writer for the American Federation of Arts including not alone magazine stories but publicity for the organization, interpretative, biographical and other kinds of material for their exhibitions sent out in mimeographed sheets and published in hundreds of newspapers, gallery catalogues and similar sources, tabulated by a New York clipping bureau for the American Federation files. She has written also for six years an annual review of painting in the United States for the American Year Book, a New York publication. "Uncle Sam"—a biography published December 1924 in the Daughters of the American Revolution was followed in the next 9 years by 50 articles dealing with historical subjects, early American portraits and other fields of art including antiques, all published in this magazine under Florence Berryman's name. The George Washington Calendar published monthly in 1932 and "War Posters as a Peace Hobby" appearing July 1935 seems to have attracted more than ordinary attention according to letters received by the editor.

As assistant to the art critic, Miss Lelia Mechlin of the Washington Evening Star—daily newspaper, Florence has written numerous articles on art, current exhibitions, and historical subjects such as "Washington and Its Planning," "Contemporary Photography," and a recent long review of the Modern Salon of Art opened in the capitol.

The Volta Review, the official monthly journal published under the Alexander Graham Bell Foundation since 1899 has published some twelve of her articles such as "Art as Compensation for the Deafened," "The Nose Knows," and the present serial of her trip to England in 1937, besides miscellaneous subjects of special appeal for educators, physicians, social workers, the hard of hearing and their friends.

But the little monograph "Early American Bookplates" written and published in 1925 has remained to date the most individual of all her contributions to Americana. Not more than an hour's reading but capable of endless possibilities of education with reproductions from the originals (through the courtesy of the Daughters of the American Revolution) of book plates of William Penn, 1703, William Byrd, Edward Shippen, John Adams and many others.

The reproductions of the book plates are further enhanced by pen portraits, striking likenesses of the owners of the bookplates, the same size as the accompanying plates, drawn by Mr. Clifford K. Berryman, dean of the cartoon artists, originator of the Theodore Roosevelt "Teddy Bear" and for over forty years a daily event cartooner for the Washington Evening Star, and father of Florence Berryman.

With the foretold background of achievement Florence Berryman received and accepted the invitation from the Sesquicentennial Constitution Commission, to write a 6,000 word article on Bookplates of the Signers of the Constitution, for inclusion in the official Sesquicentennial Book published by and under the direction of Honorable Sol Bloom and his associate directors by Act of the United States Congress.

CHOSEN ON REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE

By MARY JEANETTE SYMON, Missouri A

Mrs. Helen Cook Zwick, Missouri A, Φ B K graduate of 1913 has recently been chosen as the only woman and one of a group of four to represent the State of Missouri on the National Republican Policy Committee. This is a group chosen by the National Republican Committee and headed by Dr. Glenn Frank to determine the future policy of the party. It is indicative that this committee has been made up only of leaders in varying educational and economic fields.

This honor is by no means the first to be earned by Mrs. Zwick who is a native Missourian, born in St. Louis. She began her career while in college where she majored in history and political science. As an officer in her chapter and as a campus figure, she showed her capability for important positions even then. She helped to organize the first woman's glee club at the University of Missouri.

Since her graduation, Mrs. Zwick has taken an active interest in educational as well as political affairs. She has always had time, though, to devote some of her interests to Π B Φ alumnae functions. She has been president of the St. Joseph, Missouri, Runcie Club and has served as a member of its board for years. This club is one of the most influential from the standpoint of literary and cultural achievements. Mrs. Zwick has been president, at one time or another, of most of the women's clubs in St. Joseph besides being active in church affairs. She has been a member of the Y.W.C.A. Board and has constantly worked with the young people of her own community and of the state.

Among Mrs. Zwick's most outstanding achievements besides being chosen on the Republican Policy Committee are as follows: In 1928, she was delegate at large to the Republican National Convention in Kansas City, Missouri; from 1932-1936 she was the first woman to take her place as a member of the Board of Curators of the University of Missouri; in 1937, she was presented the award for meritorious achievement as the most outstanding woman graduate of the University of Missouri; and recently she was made a member of the St. Joseph, Missouri, Health Board as the Republican representative of a bi-partisan board.

Mrs. Zwick is recognized locally and nationally as an astute politician with a mind for practical politics. As a result she is consulted not only by the women interested in politics, but by the men as well. She organized a woman's Republican Club which is the oldest in the State of Missouri to have continuous life and has been president of the Women's Republican Club of Buchanan County for many years.

Besides being prominent and active in social, educational and political fields, Mrs. Zwick has made two other contributions to Π Phi, which although mentioned last are by no means least important. They are Helen and Mary Gale Zwick, her daughters, both Π Phis attending Stanford University at the present time.

More Chapter Houses

INDIANA BETA HOUSE

A picture of this house appears on the cover of this issue.

Completion of an enlarged and remodeled house, accepted in October by the chapter alumnæ, has given the chapter at Bloomington, Indiana, a new home that will accommodate fifty girls.

INDIANA BETA

Top: Dining room. Bottom: Living room.

The house, of Southern colonial architecture, was enlarged under the direction of Burns and James, Indianapolis architects, by Hughes Brothers of Bloomington. It was decorated by Miss Dorothy Helmer of L. S. Ayres and Company of Indianapolis.

It combines the latest accepted necessities for student group living. The left wing ground floor includes living room, alcove, stairway and student director's suite, guest rooms, and hospital isolation facilities. In a sub-basement is a large game room and quarters for a houseman and his wife and for two maids. The second floor contains a smoking lounge, student rooms, a room for town girls to be used as a lounge with in-door beds, laundry and pressing rooms and the third floor contains a dormitory and a corner bedroom with a double decker bed. These rooms are furnished in maple.

French doors lead from the living room to a stone porch. Three steps from the living room give access to a high ceilinged reception hall. Recessed windows flank the colonial doorway. The stairway is of spiral design and in the hall, right and left, are the telephone booths and the men's coat room and lavatory.

Flanking the reception hall on the left is the large dining room. In the dining room is a marble fireplace paneled to the ceiling and a triple window overlooking the campus. Double doors from the hall and dining room make a large study and trophy room available as extra space for social functions.

Back of the study is a fireproof, inclosed stairway leading to the third floor. Modern kitchen space, servant coat rooms and two pantries are to the rear.

Wine and silver blue, the sorority colors, are used in the decorations on the first floor. The main entrance from the four-columned portico reveals the free-hanging staircase which is the outstanding feature of the hall. The formal drapery treatment on the landing window offers a pleasing contrast of wine-colored satin against a classic patterned blue background paper above the dado.

The fireplace grouping in the living room opposite the hall entrance blends harmoniously with the background of wine-colored carpeting, soft gray-blue walls, and eggshell and gold damask draperies. In this room there is a warm and friendly atmosphere due to the convenient grouping of the Georgian furniture throughout the room, with a less formal lounging alcove off the living room.

In the dining room there is a refreshing appearance of orderliness. This room was treated effectively and predominantly in white, with uncarpeted herringbone floors, white dado, the white background colonial paper and all white draperies trimmed with wine fringe. The dining room furniture is Chippendale with ladder-back chairs and is designed to accommodate sixty girls.

Feminine charm is expressed in the furnishings of the bedrooms. The maple furniture lends a warm and cozy glow through the room and is enhanced by the use of light and airy ruffled curtains. The third floor bedroom dormer windows are treated with cretonne draw curtains. An interesting feature of the rooms is the convenient two-way study desks.

The simplicity and livable charm expressed throughout the entire house is in perfect harmony with the early American architecture.

A spacious chapter room in the sub-basement of the right wing has been dedicated and used to its best advantage.

The grounds surrounding the house have a front triple terrace and terraces arise from the rear sun porch to a wooded area, rustic with trees and shrubbery.

The Indianapolis alumnae club of the chapter and Lee Burns presented the lighting fixtures, which include crystal chandeliers and lanterns, all authentic colonial reproductions.

TWO VIEWS OF FLORIDA GAMMA'S HOUSE

A section of one of the Little Rock, Arkansas, papers in which appear pictures of "Arkansas Stars" features several Pi Phi relatives:

Lum of "Lum and Abner," whose wife is the former Harriet Wood;
William Paisley, executive of Music Program Department, Radio City, whose sister is Elizabeth Paisley Huckaby, president of the Little Rock Alumnae Club;

Louis Leighton, Hollywood producer of "Captains Courageous" is a brother of Dorothy Leighton, of Benton, Arkansas;

Jack Davison, Hollywood dancing star, brother of Martha Davison.

WISCONSIN ALPHA'S NEW HOUSE

Every member of Wisconsin A beams with pride at mention of their new house. And they have good reason. It's really not a "new" house in the strict sense of the word. The old chapter house, however, has been completely renovated.

WISCONSIN ALPHA'S HOME

Top: Library. Bottom: Looking into library and hall from living room.

To begin, the exterior of the house was changed from tan stucco to red brick, Georgian style. Inside, the living room and hall were completely refurnished with 18th century furnishings. Chippendale's Chinese influence was carried out in two panels in the hallway and in all the living rooms lamps.

Pale green wall paper and flowered chintz draperies on the bay windows in the living room furnish the background for the Chippendale settees, Adam, Queen Anne, and Duncan Pfyfe chairs, and gold framed Duncan Pfyfe mirrors.

The fireplace, a gift from the interior decorator, Genevieve Hendricks, who is a Wisconsin A alumna, was taken from an old home in Washington, D.C.

A library, paneled with knotted pine, is furnished with overstuffed furniture. The bluish green of the draperies is carried out in the flowered designs of the linen upholstery. A book case, radio, piano, and card tables complete this informal room.

The dining room wall is covered with a large floral design, the predominant colors of which are rose and pale green. The rose color is repeated in the draperies on the floor length windows.

Crystal chandeliers and side-lights are used in all the first floor rooms except the library, in which gold side-lights are used.

New maple furnishings have been put in the three front rooms on the second floor. New draperies and matching overstuffed chairs were put in the bedrooms on both second and third floors. Since the house was enlarged, another bedroom was added on the second floor and a sleeping porch on the third floor.

While Jane Beck Johnson (Mrs. Nelson T.) was visiting in Laramie, Wyoming A entertained for her at a joint alumnae and active buffet supper at the chapter house. The supper was followed by songs and skits. Mrs. Johnson talked and showed some of her beautiful Chinese dresses. This party was a memorable one, for over 100 Pi Phis attended, and the alumnae from Wheatland, Wyoming (80 miles away), attended in a body, in spite of a bad Wyoming blizzard.

During her visit, Mrs. Johnson was initiated into Mortar Board. When she was in college she was a member of "Cap and Gown," the local that became Mortar Board.

Former Epsilon Province Vice-president

ALPHA PROVINCE EAST

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Chartered, 1920

Pledge Day, March 1, 1938

Maine Alpha chapter entertained Hazel Sawyer, the president of Alpha Province East and a Maine A alumna, the week-end of February 11. The actives held a luncheon for her at the room Saturday noon, and the pledges took her to the cabin for dinner.

The long week-end from February 18 to 22 was a very busy one at Maine. Midwinter house parties were held by the fraternities on Friday and Saturday. Monday night was the intramural ball. At the ball, Elizabeth Libby, Δ Δ Δ pledge, was chosen as queen to preside at the annual winter carnival on Washington's birthday. Because of lack of sufficient snow for the events, the State Intercollegiate Meet was cancelled. Intramural competition was held as scheduled, but on a modified basis. Σ X won the annual snow sculpturing contest, with B Θ II and A T Ω in second and third places respectively.

The Maine Masque held its third production of the year, "Johnny Johnson," March 8, 9, and 10. The "Pale Blue Review," Maine's first varsity show, was held March 18. The show was followed by a formal dance. April 8 was the night of the sophomore hop.

Two Maine A actives were advanced on the Campus board. Marion White was promoted from cub reporter to reporter and Marguerite Kyer was made a cub reporter. Janet St. Pierre was elected as chapter delegate to Convention. Elizabeth Mitchell was nominated as the chapter's choice for the Amy B. Onken cup.

PLEGGED: Mary Curran, Lewiston; Lillian Mitchell, Orono; Edith Stevens, Pleasant Point.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Marion White, Hammond St., Bangor, Me.

DOROTHY DAY

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, November, 1934

Pledge Day, November 1, 1937

INITIATED, December 11: Maureen Allen, Helen Connor, Allison Conrod, Shirley Kirkpatrick, Margaret Mack, Margaret MacAskill, Lorna MacLeod, Helen MacMillan, Margaret MacMillan, Margaret Merkel, Margaret Morrissey, Halifax.

A minimum of 15 hours of study is required in Nova Scotia A, and a fine of $.05 is placed on each hour missed. A record is kept of all classes, attended or not attended, for the purpose of checking with professors if any dispute should arise over skipped classes. Scholarship has seen a considerable rise, and it is the aim of Nova Scotia A to better it.

Meetings are held every Monday evening at 7:45 P.M. in the chapter room in the Lord Nelson Hotel. The meeting is planned beforehand by the censors, and the president, as well as any short program to follow. Actives go twice a week to the Children's Ward in the Victoria General Hospital, to read to the children. The members have enjoyed doing this very much and it is hoped that this program will be continued next year.

Nova Scotia A has had a very gay winter season, with a continuous round of banquets, teas, and two dances. The Initiation Banquet was held on January 10, with about thirty actives and alumnae present. On Sunday, January 16, Mrs. MacNeill, one of the patronesses, entertained at tea for the actives and alumnae. The informal party of the winter term was held at the home of Shirley Kirkpatrick, in the form of a buffet supper. After supper, we went in a body to one of the Glee Club productions.

Miss Sawyer visited Nova Scotia A the week-end of February 20. On that Sunday afternoon the chapter entertained at tea in her honor at Margaret MacAskill's. Miss Sawyer was here for only the week-end and the chapter felt that her visit was all too short. She helped Nova Scotia A so much with her very apt suggestions for chapter improvements, and her information of the other chapters in Alpha Province was very much appreciated. Her departure on Tuesday morning ended an all-too-short stay.

Nova Scotia A held its formal dance on Friday, February 26, at the Lord Nelson Hotel, and it was voted one of the best social events of the season. As Founders' Day comes on April 28, Nova Scotia A was forced to forego any celebration, because this was spring exam week, so instead Founders' Day was combined with the senior farewell ceremony, held at the Nova Scotian Hotel on Saturday, April 9. The Panhellenic Tea was held at the home of a member of A Γ Δ, Margaret Schwartz, on Sunday, March 27. The annual spring rushing tea was held on Sunday, April 3.

The President of Nova Scotia A, Margaret Drummie, is the delegate for the Convention this year. Margaret graduated in arts last year, and is now taking her second year at the Dalhousie Law School. She is prominent in both social and scholastic fields. Margaret comes from St. John, New Brunswick. She stays at Shireff Hall and has done a great deal in furthering the aim of II B Φ at the Hall, as well as among the city girls. Nova Scotia A expects Margaret to graduate next year in law with honours, and at present she is holding a lofty position among her fellow prospective lawyers. Nova Scotia A looks for her return from Convention with much enthusiasm.

This year Nova Scotia A has been represented in many different fields of campus life. Shirley Kirkpatrick, Evelyn Embree and Lorna MacLeod have been in at least two Glee Club productions; there are two members on the Students Council; two have held class offices; Margaret Drummie has been in Moot Court trials and the Mock Parliament; one member in the Newman Club; almost the whole chapter plays badminton, and Maureen Allen, our ace badminton player, won laurels for Dalhousie this year in the City and Province Club matches; then last, but not least, two members played on the ground hockey team, and one member was the manager of the ground hockey team.

RUSHING CHAIRMAN: Shirley Kirkpatrick, 50, Vernon St., Halifax, N.S.

JOSEPHINE ALLISON CONROD

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

Pledge Day, November 19, 1937

INITIATED, February 12, 1938: Elizabeth Bradt, Evans-ton, Ill.; Lois Dale, Rochester, N.Y.; Mildred Falken-bury, Fair Haven, Vt.; Eleanor Gillett, West Orange, N.J.; Shirley Metcalfe, Chatham, N.J.; Alice Noppel, Montclair, N.J.; Elizabeth Robertson, Ridgewood, N.J.; Evelyn Robinson, Peekskill, N.Y.; Marie Stockmayer, Rutherford, N.J.; Faith Wobnus, Hollis, N.Y.

Middlebury has been especially fortunate this year in having a great number of interesting events on the entertain-ment program: Mr. Ede came from the Tate Gallery in London; the Mozart Boys' Choir from Vienna; Mr. Cecil Tilton, an authority on oriental problems; Jay Allen, the foreign correspondent of the Chicago Tribune in Spain; and John Mason Brown, a well known lecturer and dramatic critic.

This winter has also seen the organization of a new local Greek letter society for women, Θ X Ω. The increasing number of undergraduates and the unbalanced ratio between fraternity and non-fraternity women, created by the quota system, made the entire women's college greatly in favor of the new group.

Winter Carnival took on greater importance than ever before with the annual meet of the Intercollegiate Ski union being held at Middlebury. Members of the competing teams were the cream of the American collegiate group, and it was a thrilling sight to see them in action. Betty Anne Dunning, new president of Vermont A, was a very charming Mary Lou, the singing, lead in the Carnival musical comedy "Southern Style." Other members of the chapter taking minor parts in singing and dancing choruses were: Marilynn Manning, Helene Cosenza, Jane Appleton, Edith Finlay, Louise Hoyt, Doris Keffer, Edith Egbert, and Marjorie Kohr.

The Middlebury College combined glee clubs are planning an extensive tour through five states during spring vacation. Of the sixteen chosen to compose the women's group, three are active $\Pi B \Phi$ s: Betty Anne Dunning, Marilynn Manning, and Rebecca Abbott.

In recent elections, Helen Brewer and Irene McGaughy were elected to the Skyline, governing board of the Mountain Club. Mary Heckman has received the much coveted honor of receiving a scholarship to the Bread-loaf School of English this summer. Committees for the Frosh Frolic include several $\Pi B \Phi$ freshmen: Betty Ryder, Eleanor Gillett, and Evelyn Robinson.

Those eligible to Dean's list are Jane Acker and Irene McGaughy, Betty Robertson and Marie Stockmayer.

Initiation was held on February 12, and included two ceremonies, one at six in the morning for three sophomore pledges, and one in the late afternoon for the incoming freshmen. The banquet, held that evening, was in the form of a $\Pi B \Phi$ train of thought and the chapter felt extremely privileged in having Hazel McLeod Wills, Vermont A, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor of Vermont, as its "conductor." The Fraternity was especially proud of the fact of having seventeen alumnae back for the ceremony and the banquet. A deepening of friendship with the alumnae has been made possible through several teas which they have given for each of the four classes.

In the past it has been customary for Vermont A and Vermont B chapters to observe Founders' Day celebration together. This year, on April 30, the chapter was transported in a body to Burlington, in cars provided by the alumnae, as last year Middlebury had acted as hostess to Massachusetts A and Vermont B. It was a grand day, and all expressed the wish for more opportunities for get-togethers.

PLEDGED: Elizabeth Ryder, Attleboro, Mass.; Elizabeth Wolfington, Penfield, Pa.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Irene McGaughy, College, Forest East, Middlebury; home, 501 W. 120th St. New York City.
MARJORIE KOHR

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

Chartered, 1898

Pledge Day, February 17, 1938

Vermont B is glad to welcome Miss Hazel Sawyer as president of Alpha Province East and extends best wishes to Lydia Douglass Rollins.

The second semester opened January 31 and was followed by a three weeks' rushing period. During the first week of this period the freshmen women were entertained at teas given by the various sororities. About forty invitations were issued for the chapter tea, which was in charge of Phyllis Mann and Lois Brown. The following week eligible freshmen and transfers were entertained at formal dinner parties. The chapter entertained twenty girls at dinner, prepared by the active girls and held in the chapter house. The sophomore girls acted as waitresses. The climax of this entertainment came when the chapter sang the "Pi Phi Goat Song" and a live goat, tied with a "bow of wine and silver blue," was led into the room.

Bids were issued the next week, and the chapter closed a very successful rushing season by pledging fifteen girls, the largest number pledged by any sorority. Many telegrams of congratulation were received from alumnae and friends.

Elizabeth Gurney was elected president of the pledges. Jane Allen and Jeanette Thompson are freshman class officers. Maywood Metcalf and Margaret Crowley are members of the W.A.A. Health Council. Maywood is also a member of the Chapel Orchestra.

The 41st annual Kake Walk was held February 19. Kathryn Scott and Gretchen Keelan ushered. Frances Hennessey served on the committee for the Father-Son-Mother-Daughter Banquet and was also one of the speakers. The chapter held open house February 20 for visiting alumnae, fathers, and mothers.

The annual pledge banquet was held at the Hotel Van Ness Roof Garden, and Priscilla Savage was in charge of the affair. Jean Soule made arrangements for the pledge tea, and the $\Pi B \Phi$ pledges were the first to entertain the pledges of the other Greek letter sororities. Madge Hendee was in charge of the pledge dance held at the chapter house March 5.

Miriam Healy recently represented the Y.W.C.A. at a conference in Miami, Ohio. Ruth Palmer, Shirley Mayforth, and Harriet Ranney attended the New England Music Festival in Boston. Mary Arms has been elected to the Press Club. Martha Douglass, Priscilla Savage, and Lois Brown served on Junior Week committees. Ruth Palmer and Shirley Gray had parts in the French plays. Priscilla Savage is a candidate for the third time in the Ariel Beauty Contest.

At the March Women's Mass Meeting Phyllis Mann, Martha Douglass, and Miriam Healy were models for the Spring Style Show. Nominations were announced at this meeting for officers of Student Union, Y.W.C.A., and W.A.A. Besides having several candidates for the other offices, the chapter has a member up for president of each of these important organizations on the campus. They are: Priscilla Savage, Miriam Healy, and Kathryn Scott.

In an effort to raise the scholarship the chapter was divided into two teams, the wine and blue. The blue team, having the highest average, was treated to a dinner by the losers, the wine team.

Vermont B was hostess to the chapters of Alpha Province East on Founders' Day. The chapter always looks forward to this day and enjoys this opportunity for a closer relationship with the members of the other chapters.

PLEDGED: Jane Allen, Elizabeth Gurney, Elizabeth Marshall, Grace Meekin, Jean Soule, Jeanette Thompson, Burlington; Patricia Johnson, Northfield; Shirley Mayforth, Barre; Maywood Metcalf, Waterbury; Harriet Ranney, Springfield; Caroline Trask, Rochester; Agnes Conley, Brockton, Mass.; Shirley Gray, Montclair, N.J.; Jane Lyons, New York City; Margaret Crowley, Hastings-on-Hudson, N.Y.

RUSHING CHAIRMAN: Joyce Stearns, College, $\Pi B \Phi$ House, Burlington, Vt.; Home, Johnson, Vt.

LOIS B. BROWN

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

Pledge Day, October 24, 1937

INITIATED, February 12, 1938: Gail Chase, Barbara Oak, Lois Schubert, Jean Smalley, Betty Welch.

Many things have been happening since the ARROW last heard from Massachusetts A. Second semester brought with it elections, both at college and in the chapter, and $\Pi B \Phi$ is still prominent.

Vivian Greene, chapter president, was appointed associate-editor of the Hub, the University Yearbook, and was elected assistant treasurer of the class. Vivian also received many honors in the recent Senior poll. She was voted the most prominent girl, the most likely to succeed, the most colorful, and the best dressed.

Miriam Taylor is on the Junior Week Committee and is chairman of Tea Dance.

Klatsch, the annual dance sponsored by $\Gamma \Delta$, the all girls club, was a success under the chairmanship of Muriel Scott.

Initiation was held at 131 Commonwealth Ave. After the ceremony the chapter and alumnae enjoyed an initiation banquet at 146 Commonwealth Ave., the Boston University Women's building. Verina Rogers '38 was toast-mistress and Astrid Malmsten '37, Vivian Greene '38, Muriel Scott '39, Vera McMahon '40, Jean Smalley '41 and Mrs. Saul were speakers. Their speeches were all hinged on the topic "Friendship's Chain." It was a most inspiring banquet.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a cooky-shine and entertainment to which the alumnae were invited. The evening ended with $\Pi B \Phi$ songs. Some of the alumnae told of different ways in which they have seen Founders' Day celebrated. Much hidden talent was discovered in the short impromptu acts which were put on by some of those present.

PLEDGED: Luba Britsko, Boston; Gladys Farren, East Weymouth; Phyllis Hoyle, Woonsocket, R.I.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Ruth Carney, 15 Lund St., Worcester, Mass.

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

Pledge Day, February 7, February 27, 1938,
March 7, 1938

All conversation at present and plans for the future revolve around the "new house." The announcement has just been made for the transfer and exchange of the $\Pi B \Phi$ house and the University Faculty Club. Desire for increased proximity to University buildings has induced the $\Pi B \Phi$'s move. Complete remodeling and renovating is expected to make over the Faculty Clubhouse. Following the architectural trends of University buildings the formulated plans are of Georgian style. Although the present building has been the residence of $\Pi B \Phi$ since 1920, the shift will be a more than welcome one.

Three Monday evenings a month the chapter gathers before meeting for buffet supper. One Sunday a month is reserved for tea. These teas alternate, in that one month they are for the chapter while the next one is a men's night affair. In this way pledges are given the opportunity to gain experience in serving.

A few weeks ago W.S.Y.R. invited the chapter to participate in the "Hill Salute" by offering a 15 minute program. After the ordeal of rising at 6:00 o'clock, everyone hurried into four taxis and managed to reach the radio station at 7:10. Among the selections sung by the chapter was "Pearls of Pi Beta Phi," the winning song submitted by Vermont A. "My Pi Phi Girl" was sung by Jean Vercoe. Esther Fernald, chapter president, gave a short history of the fraternity. By the time coffee and doughnuts were served no one even minded the early hour of rising.

After many postponements due to lack of snow the Winter Carnival snow sculpturing contest was finally held. Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs were most popular and made their appearance before many houses. The Pi Phi girls worked very hard on a huge "Jeep." He was complete from the tip of his large red nose to his fat black tipped tail. Everyone had lots of fun building him and the judges laughed aloud when they saw him.

Among prominent people who have visited the campus lately are Kirby Page, authority on international affairs; Mrs. Max Gentry, wife of the head of Syracuse in China unit at Chungking; and Mrs. Katherine Bleeker Meigs, president of the New York League of Business and Professional women.

On Founders' Day last year the alumnae entertained the active chapter at dinner. This year the chapter reciprocated by taking the alumnae to Drumlin's for dinner. At this time the recognition pins and other awards were given. For entertainment the play "I. C. Sorosis" was presented by members of the active chapter.

Soon after midyear exams the chapter held an informal dance at Sedgwick Farms. After study confinements the function served as a welcome outlet and was enjoyed by everyone.

The chapter has selected Phyllis Kidwell as Convention Delegate. She is second vice-president of Women's Student Senate and active on the varsity debate team. In addition she is chapter vice-president. Her home is in Martinsburg, West Virginia.

"The Kingdom of God" was recently presented by Boar's Head, drama society, at the University theater and was enthusiastically acclaimed by both critics and students. Lois Wintermute and Jane Bagnell were among members of the cast.

Eleanor Baker and Elsie Ames are candidates for junior beauty. Esther Fernald and Madeline Deuel have been elected to Φ K Φ , scholastic and activity honorary. Elsie Ames is secretary of the Outing Club.

PLEGDED: Athena Caperonis, Betty Nichols, Saratoga Springs; Janet Ryder, Troy; Doris Smith, Glen Falls; Shirley Cole, Larchmont; Jean Houghton, Washington, D.C.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Nancy Wright, 215 Euclid Ave., Syracuse, N.Y.

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1914

Pledge Day, September 29, 1938

INITIATED, February 15, 1938: Acker Marion, Ogdensburg; Balcolm, Lurlene, Boston, Mass.; Clifford, Jean, Malden, Mass.; Coakley, Mary, Canton; Kulp, Evelyn, New York City; Lang, Mary Jane, Utica; McMackin, Eileen, Jersey City, N.J.; Merrill, Elizabeth, Carthage; Morrison, Ellen, Clayton; Vainoski, Frances, Frankfort; Welch, Jane, Guilford, Me.

After a strenuous week of final examinations, New York Γ welcomed the mid-semester holiday and the round of houseparties that came with it.

But it was soon time to settle down to serious business and at the beginning of the new semester "Mummers," Saint Lawrence's dramatic society, decided to sponsor "Skit Night." Each group on the hill was called upon to present a humorous ten minute skit. There were three prizes awarded: one to the best men's skit; one to the best girls' skit; and one to the skit, either boys' or girls', which proved next best. The chapter was awarded this second prize for presenting its version of "Saint Lawrence Fifty Years from Now." It was written by Elizabeth Merrill, one of our freshmen.

The first important chapter function of the new semester was initiation. New York Γ formally initiated eleven freshmen. The initiation banquet followed some days later. For this event our initiates were dressed in gaily-colored gypsy costumes, and placed against a background suggesting a country plain, with a gypsy wagon in sight. Speeches were given by four girls (one from each class), and one alumna. Since all the sororities on the hill hold their banquets on the same night, it has become the custom for the fraternities to go from house to house, serenading the initiates, and presenting them with gifts. The chapter finds this a very happy plan, as it provides a particularly enjoyable form of entertainment.

Very shortly the annual Song Contest will be held. The Π B Φ 's plan to participate by singing an original song entitled "Our Fraternity," written by Jane Welch, a newly initiated freshman.

The chapter held its annual Hollywood houseparty a short while ago, and as usual it was a great success. This was probably due to the informality of the occasion. Each couple dressed to represent the leading man and woman in a recent Hollywood production, and the house was decorated to give the impression of a studio, with cameras on tripods, and large colored moving picture placards to contribute to the effect. A prize was given to the most convincingly dressed couple. The chapter recently entertained its patronesses and local alumnae at a Bingo Party.

Our Founders' Day celebration consisted of a one act historical play on the subject of the founding of I. C. Sorosis. The patronesses and alumnae assisted the actives in preparing this program by contributing authentic costumes and properties and directing the acting. Refreshments and the singing of fraternity songs completed the evening.

New York Γ 's delegate to convention is Isabella Phelps, of Camden. Isabella is now a Junior whose activities are as follows: Panhellenic Council, Literary Club, Debate Club, Hockey, '35, '36, '37; Basketball, '35, '36, '37; Tennis, '35, '36, '37; Baseball, '35, '36, '37; Archery, '35, '36.

Pledge Day, October 18, 1937

INITIATED, March 12, 1938: Jane Baer, Oswego; Helen Disbrow, Ozone Park; Ruth Driggs, Richmond Hill; Doris Gorman, Englewood, N.J.; Elizabeth Holdridge, East Aurora; Florence James, Brooklyn; Gertrude Pasto, Lockwood; Mary Strong, Onley, Va.; Jane Simmons, Newark Valley; Doris Stead, Bainbridge; Barbara Brown, Flushing, L.I.; Marian Neunert, Elizabeth, N.J.

New York Δ celebrated Founders' Day with an old-fashioned cooky-shine. Formerly, cooky-shines here had been elaborate buffet suppers provided by the alumnae—not the kind that the alumnae used to know. New York Δ chose Founders' Day this year for the re-inauguration of the old fashioned cooky-shine.

Long paper table cloths were spread on the dining room floor. Each alumna, active and pledge brought something that could be eaten with fingers; having arranged the contributions on the table cloth, members and alumnae curled their legs up at its edge. The chapter found this sort of cooky-shine more interesting because of their work and thought spent in preparation. Of course, Π B Φ songs were sung at intervals throughout the meal.

The annual glee club and orchestra concert, the most important musical event on the campus, was the evening of April 28. For some Π B Φ 's it was the climax of weeks of rehearsals. For others, it was an evening of entertainment long looked forward to. For all, the concert brought to a close a day important in the interests of Pi Phi and of Cornell.

PLEGDED: Ruth Maughan, Etna; Jane Morse, Lakewood, Ohio; Verah Mae Smith, Ithaca; Marguerite Wilder, Pierrepont Manor; Florence Strite, Union Springs; Muriel Vasbinder, Sparta, N.J.; Nina Jordan, Sacramento, Calif.

Pledge Day, January 17, 1938

INITIATED, March 14, 1938: Kathleen Baker, Catherine Brians, Patricia Cole, Helen Colter, Jean Edwards, Gertrude Evans, Peggy Forgie, Marion Gallie, Norma Ger-shaw, Mary Gow, Betty Harrison, Gwen Jardine, Mary Marshall, Patsy McLaren, Nonie Robinson, Helen Sutherland, Anna Marie Smart, Phyllis Thompson, Betsy Trees, Frances Trees, Marion Vanstone, Molly Vila, Eleanor Jane Warwick, Joyce Wookey.

As usual, the rushing period took place as soon as college opened after Christmas. It consisted of two teas, a luncheon, a supper, and two evening parties. The supper party was rather unique, taking the form of a farm party. The rooms were decorated with hay and toy animals, and the food was designed to resemble animals. The chapter was very fortunate in having cold weather and snow, so that a sleigh-ride was given at one of the evening parties.

A dance was given for the pledges on January 20. Initiation ceremony and banquet was held on March 14, and at the banquet, Lucille Graham, Mary Nagler, Isobel Younge, and Kathleen Magladery, were presented with scholarship awards for first, second and third year respectively. The Panhellenic banquet and dance was held on February 7. Mary Carter is the new president. The formal dance took place on March 4, and Jean Patterson came as representative of Ontario B. On February 26, Margaret Beck was invited to the formal dance of Ontario B.

This year the Panhellenic is attempting to raise money to help the University Settlement School Music Club. This is one of the first large efforts made by the fraternities jointly, and it is hoped that it will promote further interfraternity spirit.

The Founders' Day this year will be celebrated on April 2, by a high tea with Ontario B at Ancaster Golf and Country Club in Hamilton.

PLEGGED: Isobel Carpenter, Helen Carpenter, Brantford; Margaret Corkett, Brampton; Martha Reesor, Lindsay; Eleanor Greene, Phyllis Kelk, Toronto.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Mary Carter, College and Home; 124 Lawrence Crescent, Toronto, Ontario.

Cooky-shines are held twice a month at the fraternity house. This gives the active members and the members of the alumnae club an excellent opportunity to see one another, now and then. Mrs. Sipherd has been present at a few of them. She also stays afterwards for the meeting and gives the chapter many very good ideas.

The annual fraternity dance was held on Saturday, February 26 at the London Hunt and Country Club. A few members from Ontario A came to London for it, and many of Ontario Beta's own alumnae members were there.

This year's rushing is over once again. It started on Sunday, February 27, and lasted for a week, ending on Saturday, March 5. There were parties held every night, and the traditional tea, in the form of a picnic was held the last day, to which every rushee was invited. The chapter and rushees were honored to have Mrs. Sipherd, the Province President, present at many of the parties.

Founders' Day was celebrated this year on April 2, with Ontario A. Many members from the alumnae clubs of the province were there also. It was held in Hamilton at the Ancaster Golf and Country Club, and took the form of a high tea.

BETA PROVINCE

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

Chartered, January 4, 1895

INITIATED, February 25, 1937: Edith Baker, Blanch Belles, Elizabeth Davies, Carol Martin, Betty McCormick, Helen Morgan.

A celebrity-studded, four-day parade of literary personalities took place from February 10, to February 13 with six distinguished guests leading a unique Literary Week-End on the occasion of the formal dedication of the Vaughan Literature Building. This dedication formally marked another milestone in Bucknell's building program. In addition to the addresses which were the high points in the program, the Lewisburg Association of Φ B K held an important meeting in connection with the literary program. Of the seven girls who were invited to this meeting, three were from the chapter; Elizabeth Davies, Carol Martin, and Hannah Mervine.

The chapter held its annual formal dinner dance on February 14; the dinner being held at the Lewisburg Inn and the dance at the Tustin Gymnasium. The gymnasium was decorated, in the spirit of St. Valentine's Day, with large red hearts hung from the ceiling and small ones covering the basketball baskets. In addition to this, a large wire heart was covered and hung in the doorway.

Junior Prom was an outstanding success in the social events of this semester. Dick Stabile and his orchestra supplied the music and certainly supported the reputation which preceded them. The dancers stopped several times to listen to leader Stabile "reach for the high ones" and marveled at the man who could reach the highest note ever played on a saxophone. Palms, colored lights on the dance floor, and colored spotlights on the orchestra, were features of the decorative scheme. Each girl received a combination bracelet and dance program as a Prom favor. The grand promenade proved to be more than just a publicity stunt, and the observers who saw President and Mrs. Marts led the procession of promgoers through the evolutions of the ceremony called the sight "impressive."

After bombarding the Lewisburg High School auditorium with Elizabethan tragedy—star-crossed lovers and murders done contemplatively—in three of its last four Artist Course productions, Cap and Dagger turned its battery of talent upon "Twelfth Night" on February 18 and 19, and proved that, beyond a reasonable doubt, Shakespeare is still funny. Warren Young, '34, was the star in this sprightly Shakespearian comedy. Mr. Young is now on the professional stage in New York City, where he does both acting and scenery designing. While in college he was outstanding in dramatic activities. In the critics' minds this comedy was the most nearly professional piece of work of the dramatic society.

The Student Board of Health supervised by Dr. John W. Rice undertook a campaign to make the Bucknell student body Syphilis conscious. The American Social Hygiene group started this work in a nation wide program with General Pershing at the head. All students were urged to take the test, either the Wassermann, or the shorter test. The complete program of the Health Board was too comprehensive to fulfill in one semester, so it was limited to three specific aims. These aims were to get the students to take the blood tests for Syphilis, tests for Tuberculosis, and to get the fraternities to cooperate in having their food-handlers given medical examinations.

On January 23, Pennsylvania B was particularly proud of Lois Chapin. Lois had studied voice during her four years at Bucknell and on January 23 she presented a song recital at the Baptist Church in Lewisburg. Her program consisted of nine selections and the presentation of "The Blessed Damozel," a lyric poem for women's voices. Lois sang the part of the Blessed Damozel and was supported by a chorus of twenty-seven girls of the Glee Club.

Hannah Mervine, delegate to Π B Φ convention, is a pre-medical student with an excellent scholastic record. Hannah served as Treasurer to the chapter for a year and because of her very satisfactory cooperation, unusual ability, and sorority spirit the chapter knew that she would bring back to them enthusiasm, spirit, and accurate reports from convention. Many of our girls are planning to attend convention this year, and their plans are well under way for convention discussions and stunts.

Founders' Day celebration consisted of a luncheon with Pennsylvania Gamma chapter in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Last year the alumnae did not attend this luncheon, but this year the alumnae of both chapters as well as the actives and pledges entered into the spirit of the day. After the luncheon, there was a certain time set aside for the exchange of ideas of the chapters' traditions, policies, and customs; for the singing of songs; and for short speeches by the chapters' presidents. The entire celebration was very informal and every active and pledge returned to her chapter full of spirit and increased loyalty.

PLEGGED: Jean Alston, Swarthmore; Jane Brooke, Pittsburgh; Elizabeth Davies, Forty-Fort; Frances Gilson, Erie; Bette Griffith, Harrisburg; Jane Gundy, Altoona; Betty McCormick, Ashland; Helen Morgan, Wilkes-Barre; Harriet Myers, Hean Steele, Vandergrift; Alberta McCree, Elkins Park; Peggy Rain, Alderson, W.Va.; Ferne Raymond, Corry; Margaret Symington, McKeesport; Ruth Titman, Tunkannock; Marion Voris, Milton.

Pledge Day, September 27, 1937

INITIATED, February 16, 1938: Margaret Burt, Peekskill, N.Y.; Joyce Crickmay, New York City; Helen Flumerfelt, Jane Gilmore, Picture Rocks, Pa.; Ruth Leavitt, Cranford, N.J.; Ardythe LeFevre, Mary Mohler, Lancaster; Isabel Norcross, Carolyn O'Hara, Louise Peters, Carlisle; Mary Alice Samuel, Mt. Carmel; Bernadine Zeigler, Claysburg; Alice Ziegler, New Cumberland.

Pennsylvania Γ this year initiated the third largest group of girls in the history of the chapter, thirteen, from a group of sixteen pledges, the largest group on the campus. The initiation banquet was held at the Argonne Hotel where Major Bowes and Professor Quiz kept everyone alert with an amateur show and a "Battle of Wits." The chapter and new initiates, after dinner, saw Bucknell defeat Dickinson in basketball.

Two weeks after initiation Charlie Barnett and his Million Dollar Band reigned supreme at the Junior Prom. All the music notes ever played were hanging from the rafters of the Alumni Gymnasium, and cutting capers on the side walls were life size figures of "Suzie Q 'n' Sady," "Trucking Tom," "Peckin' Pat," "Sissy Pants Sue," and "Sugar Footin' Shirley." Many alumni and alumnae returned for the big week end. On Saturday no one was allowed to recuperate because of a swimming meet with Gettysburg, tea dances, informal dances, and formal dinners. Pennsylvania Γ 's member of the committee for the Prom was Marian Rickinbaugh.

On March 5 the Women's Athletic Association of the college was host to the representatives of five colleges; Gettysburg, Bucknell, Lebanon Valley, and Susquehanna. There was basketball in the morning, luncheon at the Argonne Hotel, a round table discussion, and a tea in the new Women's quarters in Denny Hall, in the afternoon. Last year Lebanon Valley was host at such an event. Virginia Heisey was chairman of the tea.

Mrs. Stark, Grand Secretary, arrived on March 6. Her visit was both interesting and instructive. After her visit with Pennsylvania Γ Mrs. Stark set out for Bucknell.

In order to raise the scholarship of the chapter a very novel contest was put on. Every girl, active and pledge, was paired with another in her one class who had an average for the preceding roll call, nearest hers. At semester the losers in each bracket had to prepare and give a "feed" for the winners. This "feed" was held March 6, and at the same time the chapter entertained Mrs. Stark and Suzanne Young who was pledged on March 3. Also at the "feed" were; Mrs. Meredith, Dean of Women, and the Alumnae Advisory Committee. Wine and silver blue was the color scheme.

The last social event before Spring vacation was held April 7. The Panhellenic Dance was a little different this year, each woman's fraternity doing a certain part of the decorating instead of having a professional decorator do it. Each fraternity's colors and theme was carried out. Margaret Brinham Z T A is President of Panhellenic Council this year.

The latter part of April the Omicron chapter of $\Omega \Delta \kappa$ at Dickinson sponsored a Guest Day or a Sub-Freshman Day. Many high school seniors and 1938 prospective students were the guests of the college. Luncheon in the Gym, baseball game, tours of the campus, interviews, scholarship exams kept the visitors busy. Many $\Pi \beta \Phi$ s were guides at this annual affair.

Last year the Pennsylvania Γ celebrated Founders' Day with the Harrisburg-Carlisle Alumnae Club at the Old Stone House near Mechanicsburg and at the grave of Rosa Moore. This year the chapter met with Pennsylvania β in Harrisburg at the Harrisburger Hotel. This was the second joint meeting of the two chapters and the girls of both chapters hope that these will become annual customs.

The Spring Formal was held at the $\Phi \kappa \Sigma$ house, while the Spring Formal Tea was held at the home of one of the patronesses. Both were gala affairs to which were invited prospects for next year's pledge group.

The Pennsylvanians and Marylanders of Pennsylvania Γ are planning to take several carloads of actives to Convention in June. This is one year when Convention is being held near enough so that such a thing is possible. Will they be seeing you? They hope to.

INITIATED, March 12, 1937: Barbara Brenner, Mahel Connett, Eleanor Crow, Ruth Danner, Kathleen Elder, Betty Jean Handley, Helen Hogben, Martha Jones, Patricia MacKinnon, Florette Martin, Ruth Maves, Helen Maves, Millie Anne Sellers, Dorothy Jane Smith, Julia Vineyard. The theme of Ohio A's Winter Formal was "top Hats." The dance was held at the Hotel Berry with Rex Koon's orchestra playing. The entrance was covered with gold cloth and the walls of the ball room were decorated with top hats, canes, and stars.

March 12 the new initiates were honored with a formal banquet at the Hotel Berry.

Ohio A chapter of $\Pi \beta \Phi$ and $\Xi \Delta$ introduced a new idea on the campus. The two women's fraternities went together to give a "Duo" dance at the Armory. Rex Koon's orchestra played for the dance which took place March 12. The decorations carried out the color schemes of both groups.

The chapter will be represented by its President, Jean Kimball, at Convention. Jean is a very busy girl with her many social and scholastic activities. A few of her activities are: Y.W.C.A. cabinet, Panhellenic representative, Student Faculty public relations, and Women's League Senate.

Jessie Cooper was recently initiated into Cresset, senior women's honorary.

When the Senior Class Day committee was named Betty Howe was a member of it. Frances Batten was appointed on the 1938 Junior Prom committee. Virginia Gray was one of the five entrants out of eighteen chosen to compete for the 1938 Athena's Silver Mirror Queen.

"Boyd Meets Girl" was the name of the 1938 Prep Follies. This year there was no award for the best skit so the competition wouldn't be too keen. Ohio A's part of the Follies was a skit to show the gymnasium to Margaret Boyd, the first woman graduate of Ohio University. It began with a modern dance class and ended with the students showing the teacher how to do the "Big Apple."

Founders' Day was celebrated by the active and alumnae chapters with a formal dinner at the Hotel Berry.

Winter quarter at Ohio State is the shortest and therefore the most concentrated period of the year. Naturally, it has called for intensive study at the same time that extra-curricular activities have been in full swing.

Mrs. Carson visited the chapter in February for several days. She talked with both active and pledge groups and gave the officers individual conferences which were as pleasurable as they were helpful and stimulating. She was entertained also by the Executive and Advisory Councils.

Projects for raising funds for the chapter house turned out to be very successful. All ages enjoyed the large informal at the Neil House, dancing to Don Bestor and his famous orchestra. Chances on merchandise from one of the leading department stores were sold and the winner was announced in the ballroom.

A Valentine party was held for the pledges in the form of a cooky-shine. Favors were given and all joined in the spirit by singing and rendering individual talent. These little affairs always renew good feeling and bind the actives and pledges in a closer relationship.

The winter formal was an open dance held at the Sciota Country Club. Being near Valentine's Day, this theme was carried out in decoration. The effect was quite satisfactory.

This year the Student Senate devised a plan to make the Junior Prom into a week-end affair. On the night following the Prom all fraternity and sorority houses held "open house" and gay parties circulated from one to another.

Cornelia Evans was appointed to presidency in the Student Senate. It is the first time in the history of the University that a woman has held this office and she is the only girl holding a similar position in the country. Margaret Brown was elected president of the Women's Self Government Association and Jean Allen Senior Representative. Eleanor Evans was awarded District Fencing Championship. Pi Beta Phi was well represented in Stroller's production of "Stage Door." Five Ohio B girls had important rôles in the play. The chapter also won the cup for ticket sales, this making the third successive year, so now the cup is ours permanently.

Delegate to Convention is Lorabelle Calloway with Margaret Brown and Sara Ann Moore, alternates. Barbara Clouse was chosen representative for Makio queen.

Founders' Day this year was celebrated with a delightful luncheon. The alumnae joined in singing Pi Beta Phi songs. There were some interesting addresses and awards were given for attainments in scholarship.

Plans have already been made for the formal of May 27. It is to be held at the Columbus Country Club.

Rushing season has begun for the high school girls of the city. Only a few girls are asked for supper each Sunday night. The season will be climaxed by a large tea held at a private home.

Members of Ohio Δ chapter entertained the faculty of Ohio Wesleyan at a tea on Sunday, February 13. On Friday, February 18 a pledge dinner and show were enjoyed by the chapter before initiation on February 22. On Friday, March 18 the annual Mardi Gras dance was held for which each fraternity and sorority constructed clever booths as money making schemes. The $\Pi \Phi$ concession was a duck pond where one threw rings at live donald ducks for 10 cents.

A banquet was held March 6 at the chapter rooms when the Blue scholarship team entertained the winning Wine team. Mrs. Webster's visit the week of April 4 was characterized by dinners and conferences and was a recognized benefit and opportunity for the chapter.

The $\Pi \Phi$ spring formal on May 13 was enjoyed alike by chapter and rushees and $\Pi \Phi$ s were hostesses at the last Panhellenic tea dance of the year.

Ruthmary Watkins is the newly elected secretary of Y.W.C.A. Ruth Jones was stage manager for the Wesleyan Player's production "High Tor." Barbara Clinton's name is on the ballot for Secretary-Treasurer of the Sophomore class.

This year for the first time at West Virginia University a Vocational Guidance Week, March 11 to March 17, is being held for the college women. Direction and advice will be given in this conference by Miss Florence Jackson, a vocational specialist from Wellesley College. Two of the round table discussions will be led by $\Pi \Phi$ s—June Finnegan, '38, and Lucy Jones, '39.

Shirley Curry, '40, was pledged March 4, to Matrix, women's honorary journalism society. Caroline O'Neale, '38, president of Matrix, spoke over radio station WMMN recently on the regular Wednesday night broadcast of the University.

Caroline O'Neale has been chosen as the regimental sponsor of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps for the spring semester. Jane Linn Osborn, '39, was named a company sponsor at the same time.

On Saturday, February 26, the Morgantown Alumnae Club entertained the actives and pledges of West Virginia A at a bridge party in the chapter house. Each player paid according to her age. The proceeds from this were used for the Endowment Fund.

Mrs. Nita Hill Stark, Grand Secretary, arrived in Morgantown, March 14, for a visit with the local chapter.

The Founders' celebration held each year in cooperation with the local Alumnae Club is this year under the direction of the alumnae.

INITIATED, February 1, 1938: Beverly Ferlig, Dorothy Krug, Baltimore; Marion Hamilton, New York City; Ruth Huxman, Topeka, Kansas.

The first big event of the second term at Goucher College, was the City Girls' Dance—an all-college affair. The dance too place in the Recreation hall on January 14.

On January 28 college Sing-song was held in the Catherine Hooper Hall gymnasium. Sing-song is an event in which the four classes compose songs to be sung before judges. The judges are usually the Dean and a few professors. The sophomore class had as accompanist Esther Evans, '40, a $\Pi \Phi$.

The first Fraternity activity in the second term was the house party, when Maryland A went to the quaint old inn at Belair, Maryland. This famous inn dates back to Revolutionary times and still reminds one of stage coaches and highway men. On house party the chapter had a cooky-shine for the new members.

On January 17, the Monday after house party, the Alumnae Club of Baltimore entertained Maryland A at the home of Mrs. Telinde. After a delightful buffet supper, the actives and alumnae sang $\Pi \Phi$ songs. Both groups learned songs which they had not previously known.

The following Sunday, January 23, Maryland A entertained the faculty of Goucher College at a tea in the Chapter Rooms.

The annual Panhellenic Association dance took place on February 4 at the Maryland Casualty Company Ballroom. Although the ballroom is quite large, it was filled to capacity. All fraternities at Goucher (there are only eight) support it.

On February 22 Mrs. Lindsay, former Grand President of A Φ , spoke at a Panhellenic meeting. Her topic was "Interfraternity Cooperation." She said that the only way in which fraternities can hope to survive is by cooperating with each other.

The active members of D.C. A, with the Alumnae

Club of Washington, attended Founders' Day Banquet at Columbia Country Club. The color scheme was wine and silver blue, carried out in the decorations. The program included songs and skits by the active chapter.

On Friday evening, March 4, the Interfraternity Prom was held at the Willard Hotel, with Russ Morgan's orchestra. On April 6 the Panhellenic Prom was held with Don Bestor furnishing the music. The Grand March was led by Jane Saegmuller, Chairman of the prom.

The Annual Panhellenic Luncheon was given at the Shoreham Hotel this year. There were many women's fraternities represented and many interesting speeches were heard, including Georgette Ross Howard, widely-known commentator on current events.

A banquet was held at the Kennedy-Warren Hotel on February 13 in honor of the new initiates. Each new initiate is given an alumna sponsor, who attends the initiation and banquet with her "daughter." Menus of wine and silver blue marked their places.

Delphi, honorary interarsity, held a tea on February 20 for the pledges of all the sororities. Jane Saegmuller, president of Delphi, acted as hostess.

The Mothers' Club of D.C. A gave a tea for the active chapter at the rooms. For some, it was the first opportunity to meet the parents of the girls and the affair proved most enjoyable for all present.

Sorority Council, made up of a representative of the active chapter, alumnae club, and Mothers' Club of each woman's fraternity on campus, has put into effect a new plan for meetings of pledges left over from the previous semester. They have monthly meetings together and at each meeting a speaker gives a talk on the fraternity. Mrs. Arthur Nesbitt, alumnae advisor to D.C. A., gave the first talk on "Philanthropies of Pi Beta Phi."

Each year the George Washington University has a May Day sponsored by Sorority Council. Girls from high schools in the city and suburban districts are invited. The program includes inspection of buildings, athletic and modern dance exhibitions, luncheon in the various sorority rooms and a tea in the dormitory. During the day, the girls rotate and are introduced to each sorority group. This May Day has been a very successful undertaking and has been added as a permanent program for each May.

INITIATED: Louise Davis, Lynchburg; Geta Becker, Battle Creek, Mich.; Virginia Johnson, Pine Bluff, Ark.; Mary Claire Denman, Luffkin, Tex.; Marjorie Moss, Dallas, Tex.; Eleanor Amos, High Point, N.C.; Katherine Aycock, Little Rock, Ark.; Mildred Campbell, Beaumont, Tex.; Dorothy Ann Blaire, Fort Smith, Ark.; Sarah Allen Cofer, College Station, Tex.; Suzanne Conrad, La Grange, Ill.; Elizabeth Hardie, El Paso, Tex.; Zoe Saunders, Birmingham, Ala.; Barbara Shoemaker, Middletown, Ohio; Elizabeth Lacy, Longview, Tex.

On March 12 Randolph-Macon Woman's College dedicated its new science building to Dr. Fernando Wood Martin who was a member of the first faculty of Randolph-Macon Woman's College and a co-laborer with the founder in the establishment of the college. Visiting the campus was Professor Mary L. Sherell of Mount Holyoke College, a former student of Dr. Martin, who gave an address. The tablet was unveiled by Professor Nan V. Thornton also a former student of Dr. Martin and Professor of Chemistry here. This dedication took place on Founders' Day when the college celebrated its 45th anniversary. Professor Edwin Grant Conklin of Princeton University gave the Founders' Day address.

Following Founders' Day the Even Classes, those who graduate in even years, held their annual celebration on March 14. The campus was transformed into a picturesque representation of various well known places in New York City. Several members of Virginia A chapter who were chairmen of committees on decoration, brought out clever schemes. Margie Powell transformed the front campus into Central Park while Jean Blanton brought the gaiety of night life into reality in the banquet hall. Clay Carter decorated the front of Main Hall as the Customs House.

Virginia A chapter has been active this season. Glennes Teter was appointed chairman of May Day. This is one of the outstanding days at Randolph-Macon, colored with the spirit of interscholastic sports, the presentation of May Court followed by a short skit, and the May Day Dance. Three actives, Marjorie Turner, Edna Wood, and Glennes Teter worked on the production staff of the Spring Sock and Buskin Play, Monsieur Beaucaire. Mamie Clay Carter and Ethelinda Reynolds were brought out in H, an honorary Even organization. Sarah Allen Cofer has been appointed chairman of a committee on decoration for Odd Day which was April 13. During the first semester, five active members, Winefred Dickey, Lillian Frances Dowling, Frances Margaret Grey, Dottie Ann Blaire, and Sarah Allen Cofer were on the Dean's List.

Virginia A was honored by a visit from Mrs. Lutzer Stark, Grand Secretary. Mrs. Stark's visit proved very valuable because of the constructive criticism which she offered and the enthusiasm which she brought to the campus.

Initiation carried an added interest for Virginia A because of the many suggestions made by Mrs. Stark. Following initiation the chapter and new initiates enjoyed a traditional cooky-shine. The next morning the old actives entertained the initiates at breakfast at a down town tea room.

The chapter celebrated the Fraternity's Founders' Day with a banquet at the Boonesboro Country Club.

Virginia A is looking forward to the Convention and hoping many may attend as a fitting climax to a successful year.

PLEGGED: Virginia Lee Pratt, Omaha, Nebraska.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Catherine Ann Shepherd, College: R.M.W.C., Lynchburg, Va. Home: 1220 W. 2nd, Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

Rainier, Md.; Elizabeth Cutler, Newport News; Martha Johnson, Walters.

Dr. James W. Miller, head of the department of Philosophy, was named as Dean of Faculty by President John Stewart Bryan. His appointment will become effective at the opening of the 1938-39 session.

On February 15, Dr. W. H. Kilpatrick, an eminent educator, spoke to the college on the "Social Nature of Individuality." Dr. Kilpatrick holds the distinction of having taught students of sixty foreign countries.

On February 28, a Concertino was presented in Phi B K Hall by the Barrère-Britt company. Georges Barrère has won world renown as a flutist.

Virginia Gamma held its Initiation banquet at the Williamsburg Inn after the ceremony at the Chapter House. On February 27, the actives entertained at a tea in honor of the Initiates.

The Richmond Alumnae Club celebrated Founders' Day with the Virginia Gamma chapter at a luncheon on April 8 at the Williamsburg Inn. On April 28, the Chapter also had its annual banquet in observance of Founders' Day.

Betty Moore left on March 6 for the six day Southern debate trip. The team is scheduled to debate Duke University, Charleston College, the University of South Carolina, Brenau College, Converse College, and the University of Athens.

Lucille Eldridge and Jane Baker had leads in the operetta, "The Mikado," which was given on March 17 and 18. Lucille Haynes and Sybil Burkit had parts in the production. Lucille Haynes was elected president of the French Club. Jean Warren was chosen as Convention Delegate by the chapter. Margaret Peck was elected treasurer of the J. Leslie Hall Literary Society.

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Pledge Day, October 15, 1937

INITIATED, January 30, 1938: Adelaide Bailey, Bluefield, W.Va.; Virginia Bower, Lexington; Alice Cheshire, Raleigh; Mary Crockett Evans, Bluefield, W. Va.; Kathryn Fleming, Wilson; Mary Betty French, New York City; Mary Taylor Hinnant, Beaufort; Eleanor Jackson, Charlotte; Mary Adelaide Linton, Hopkinsville, N. Y.; Connie Lee Thigpen, Rocky Mount; Elsa Winters, Raleigh; and Vivian Veach, Rockford, Ill.

INITIATED, February 28, 1928: Olive Cruikshank, Raleigh, N. C.

North Carolina A has thirteen new initiates. After initiation, they were honorees at a cooky-shine and buffet supper at which each one gave a stunt as her part on the program. Afterwards the Loving Cup was passed, and the whole chapter sat around and sang $\Pi B \Phi$ songs.

Mrs. Luther Stark, known to all $\Pi B \Phi$ s as Nita Hill Stark, Grand Secretary of the Fraternity, paid the chapter a visit in January. During her visit, she stayed at the chapter house. So much had to be done in the short length of time that she spent nearly every minute having conferences, but still the members of the chapter managed to get a great deal of inspiration and knowledge about $\Pi B \Phi$ from her. Sunday night, she was the honor guest at a buffet supper at the $\Pi B \Phi$ house. Other guests were alumnae and friends of the chapter.

Mary Betty French, initiated into this chapter in January, has transferred to the University of Southern California. The members of North Carolina A are proud that she can represent their chapter, but so very sorry to have her leave Chapel Hill.

Olive Cruikshank has been elected chapter delegate to Convention, with Kathryn Fleming as alternate. Olive takes a very active part in the work of the Y. W. C. A., is a member of the University club, and Girls Glee Club, and works on the business staff of the Yackety-Yack. She is also interested in athletics. Olive transferred here as a junior from St. Mary's in Raleigh. Incidentally, she is a $\Pi B \Phi$ little sister.

The President's Ball, given at the Carolina Inn, had three $\Pi B \Phi$ sponsors. They were Eloise Broughton, president of the chapter, Dorothy Bass, transfer from West Virginia A, and Patricia Dicks, alumna of North Carolina A.

At the Law-Med set of dances, too, the $\Pi B \Phi$ s were well represented, with Clover Johnson, transfer from Virginia T, in the figure at the Law dance, and Adelaide Linton taking part in the Medical figure.

The last of February once more brought $\Pi B \Phi$ dance leaders when Elsa Winters was one of the sponsors for the dances at State College in Raleigh.

Anne Perry, pledge of North Carolina A has written an essay which is to be published in the April issue of the Carolina Magazine. Her "College Metamorphosis" was recommended for publication by Philips Russell, author and teacher. The magazine accepts only the best of the works contributed by the students.

The University of North Carolina was very fortunate in being able to play host to many well-known speakers during the Religion in Life conference sponsored by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Among those present were T. Z. Koo, Gertrude Rutherford, Douglas Steer, Dean Wicks of Princeton, Grace Sloan Overton and Mordecai Johnson. Each night during the week, one speaker was entertained at the house, and afterwards led informal discussions with the girls.

The two North Carolina chapters celebrated Founders' Day together in Chapel Hill. A luncheon was given at the Carolina Inn, and Mrs. H. C. Johnson, vice-president of province was the guest speaker. The chapter was delighted to have as special visitor the mother of one of its own members, Clover Johnson.

Pledge Day, October 9, 1938

INITIATED, February 27, 1938: Babbette Baker, Mary Elizabeth Crawford, Elise Curry, Rosemary Forsythe, Fredrica Gardener, Katherine Lynch, Ellen Schrup, Bertha Southwick, Martha Wall.

This has been one of North Carolina B's most fortunate years. Babbette Baker, Martha Wall, and Carol Wagner were chosen to become members of the Freshman Commission because of their outstanding work in the Y. W. C. A. Last year an honorary scholastic society for Freshmen was organized, and two pledges, Elise Curry and Carol Wagner, were initiated into the "Ivy."

Not only have the Freshmen done justice to the standards of $\Pi B \Phi$, but two actives, Jane East and Martha Kate Schmidt, made $\Phi B K$, and Jane Gunn, our pledge supervisor, is a member of $X \Delta \Phi$, honorary literary fraternity.

This year, our Founders' Day observance was held at Chapel Hill, North Carolina with North Carolina A as our hostess. A luncheon was given at the Carolina Inn with entertainment and after-dinner speeches. The chapter returned home determined to carry out the ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$ with renewed enthusiasm.

April 8 was a memorable day for the new initiates for a dance was held in their honor. They were introduced through a gilt framework representing the arrow head of the pledge pin. Each initiate carried a bouquet of wine and blue flowers to match the other decorations.

Another social function was the annual cabin party. Everyone invited their "dates" and drove out to the Y. W. C. A. cabin near the river. After supper there were games, dancing, singing and roasting of marshmallows. As usual, everyone decided it was the best one that has ever been held.

Every year North Carolina B is hostess at two teas. One given for the non-sorority girls, and one for the Durham High School girls who are going away to college next fall. This year, little festivity was added to the occasion, giving a play built around the $\Pi B \Phi$ songs and presented each girl with a favor as she left.

INITIATED, February 19, 1938: Margaret Blackwell, Charlotte Burch, Columbia; Jane Cox, St. Matthews; Lillian Dowling, Brunson; Mary Harris, Irene Mars, Abbeville; Josephine Johnson, Union; Alice Ringham, Bristol, Virginia.

Through appropriations received this year the University has been able to reconstruct and redecorate many of its buildings. This has been a source of joy to the student body. Another very interesting project is the construction of an arboretum in which will be cultivated plants indigenous to South Carolina. This garden is under the direction of Professor E. C. Coker.

With the coming of spring there was revived, on the campus, an old publication, the Carolinian, which had flourished here for many years. This magazine was banned in 1931 by the faculty but is being edited now on a much higher literary plane and is endorsed by the entire faculty.

The University Players presented, for the first time in the history of the University, a Varsity Show as a gay prelude to the Easter holidays. Only Carolina talent was used, the script, music, and songs being furnished by the students. The Varsity Show was a great success and is expected to become an annual occurrence. South Carolina A has been very active all year in this organization. Ilse Marx, the active from Germany, took the leading part in a radio drama presented by The Players recently. The Modern Language Department has just presented a German play under the auspices of The University Players. Among those taking leading parts were Ilse Marx, Elinor Brand, and Lillian Brunson.

The annual Columbia Music Festival was held March 25 and 26 in the Township Auditorium. This was a gala event, having as its guest artists, Grace Moore, The National Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Hans Kindler, and Dalies Frantz, pianist. Peggy Bailey and Lillian Brunson sang in the college chorus at the matinee performance.

The spring initiation was held at the chapter house, followed by a banquet in the Crystal room of the Columbia Hotel. A valentine motif was carried out which proved to be very entertaining. Alumnae from over the state were invited, and Margaret Yeadon, class of '34, acted as toastmistress. After the banquet the chapter gave a dance to its initiates at the Little Chatterbox, Jefferson Hotel.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly by South Carolina A and alumnae at an informal luncheon in the English room of Hotel Columbia. Several inspiring talks were given appropriate to this memorable occasion.

Rushing at the beginning of the spring semester was informal and lasted for a week. Several teas were given, one of which was in honor of Wilbur Kirkland, recently married active. One of the outstanding events of the season was a formal tea given by the pledges for the actives, alumnae, patronesses, and mothers.

Many of the chapter are participating in various activities on the campus. Lillian Brunson was elected president of Damas, dance club, this semester; Mary Harris, Irene Mars, Lillian Dowling, and Ann Arthur were elected to membership. Amelia Arthur, Irene Mars, and Sara Robson were selected for the beauty section of the Garnet and Black, University Annual.

Last semester all of the offices of the freshman Y.W.C.A. were filled by Π B Φ pledges, and Clifton Strohecker is now president. Recent members of Le Cercle Français are Lillian Dowling and Lillian Brunson. Those in X Δ Φ are Lillian Dowling and Alice Ringham. Serving on the Gamecock staff are Jane Cox, Charlotte Burch, Jane Williamson, Margaret Rollins. In the Glee Club are Barbara Sledge, Peggy Bailey, Josephine Johnson, Jane Cox, Ray Overton, Clifton Strohecker, and Lillian Brunson. Lillian Brunson was elected to Non de Script, exclusive tea dance club.

PLEGDED: Ann Arthur, Sumter; Elinor Brand, Florence; Sara Robson, Charleston; Ann Scott, Columbia; Barbara Sledge, Honolulu, Hawaii.

INITIATED, March 5, 1938: Jean Uncapher, Marion, Ohio; Jean Bassett, Royal Oak; Julia Hart, Ann Arbor; Jean Stroud, Cleveland, Ohio; Barbara Raymond, Rochester, Minn.; Dorothea Burlew, Hillsdale; Ann Gould, Betty Gould, Owosso; Virginia Merrill, Detroit; Virginia Neely, Dearborn; Eleanor Smally, Jackson; Sally Thomas, South Bend, Ind.

Initiation was followed by a banquet at the house. Among the fifty in attendance were three past presidents and the active president. One of these past presidents acted as toastmistress. Decorations were carried out in green and white and the tables were arranged in the shape of the Pi. Following the speakers, who were chosen from each class to speak on the ideals of Π B Φ , the pledge supervisor was presented with a gift from the initiates and the model pledge was announced and presented with a bracelet.

Throughout Π Φ Courtesy Week the pledges were busy preparing their Stunt night which they gave before the active chapter on Thursday of that week. Each pledge wrote an original song and an epitaph for her sponsor.

A feature of the first few weeks after the beginning of the second semester is the Mardi Gras. "Rex" is chosen by the student body and he chooses his own queen, Margaret Pratt was the Queen of the Mardi Gras this year and Roberta Simpson was General Chairman. During the evening all organizations present a stunt—both fraternal and independent organizations.

Ida Jane Spicer is president of Σ T Δ , National English Fraternity, and Nellie Welch and Martha Jose are active in the organization. Newly chosen pledges are Marthe-Alece Hauck, Hattie Marie Moore, Barbara Smith, Ardath Hagaman, and Betty Haberkorn. Ardith Helmick is a member of E Δ A, honorary scholastic fraternity. Ida Jane Spicer is president of the Women's Athletic Association, Ardith Helmick is president of International Relations Club and Mary Lou Sharkey is secretary. Nellie Welch is vice-president of the senior class and Julia Hart is vice-president of the freshman class. Marthe-Alece Hauck is Associate Editor of the Winona, the college year book, Nellie Welch is Editor of the Collegian, the college weekly paper, and Dorothy Carlise is associate editor. Betty Haberkorn and Barbara Smith have been appointed as members of committees for teas sponsored by the Public Relations Department for prospective students.

We are happy to have with us again this year as the housemother of Michigan A, Mrs. Louise Donely, whose daughter is a Φ B Π from Colorado B.

Each school year Michigan A presents a ring to the girl who has made the most improvement in her grades. Mary Glenna Stone was awarded this improvement ring for this semester. Ardith Helmick won the Scholarship ring for the highest scholarship in the chapter.

Mrs. Ruth Searles Kirk, ex-'22, has again registered in college to complete her four years at Hillsdale. She was a member of Michigan A and we have had her for dinner at the house several times.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a luncheon at noon for the alumnae and active chapter and pledges, followed by the Founders' Day program.

PLEGDED: Bette Marker, Detroit; Betty Gordon, Royal Oak; Jane Martin, Hillsdale; Charlotte Biske, Detroit; Doris Labbitt, Royal Oak. College address, 111 S. Manning, Hillsdale.

MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

INITIATED, March 12, 1938: Betty Ann Chaufy, Janet Fisher, Ann Arbor; Harriette Babcock, Birmingham; Marjorie Strand, Dearborn; Ruth Allen, Highland Park;

Mary Ashley, Janet Homer, Doris Marschner, Doris Merker, Detroit; Betsy Honhart, Helen Jean, Suzanne Stevenson, Grosse Pointe; Annabelle Van Winkle, Howell; Mary Alice McAndrew, Ypsilanti; Joanna Beem, Hillsdale, Ill.; Bettie Nichols, River Forest, Ill.; Mary Martha Hobrock, Fort Wayne, Ind.

At the end of the first semester, Michigan B elected and installed its new officers. Barbara Teall was chosen president, Frances Mary Robinson, vice president; Jane B. Holden, corresponding secretary; Marjorie Merker, treasurer; Margery Roebeck, recording secretary; Betty Spangler, pledge supervisor; Jenny Petersen, convention delegate; and Barbara Heath, alternate.

Founders' Day was the most recent memorial occasion for all Michigan B as at that time the chapter's fiftieth anniversary celebration was also held. A dinner was given at the chapter house to honor four of the founders of Michigan B, and it was with great pride that the members welcomed Mrs. William H. Chaddock, Mrs. G. Carl Huber, Mrs. Justin T. Cook, and Mrs. William N. Aursler.

J-Hop, which is the Junior class dance and incidentally the most outstanding campus social function of the year, was held February 11. The decorative scheme was in coral, black, and white and two sides of the floor were lined with fraternity booths. The Michigan B were in great evidence at the Hop and also at the week-end fraternity house-parties which followed.

Shortly after the Hop, a dance was given by Mortar Board called the Pay-Off. This dance was given in order to give the women on campus an opportunity to pay the boys back for the good time they had provided over J-Hop week-end. Betty Gatward, Michigan B and president of Mortar Board, acted as chairman of the dance which was a great success.

February 23 was the date set for the Tommy Dorsey Swing Concert which was sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, the proceeds of which went toward the proposed women's swimming pool. Mary Jane Mueller, secretary of the Women's Athletic Association, and Marjorie Merker, Golf Manager of the W.A.A., assisted in the selling of tickets for this affair.

At the March initiation, eighteen girls became active members. The sophomores followed tradition by serving at the initiation banquet. Janet Fisher received the scholarship ring which was awarded to her by Jenny Petersen, a former winner of it. It was very gratifying to Michigan B to have many alumnae at the initiation, and the inspiring and entertaining address given by Mrs. J. Wilson Robinson was enthusiastically received.

Michigan B is very pleased to announce the affiliation of Mary Lou Hart and Lillian Zimmerman. Grace Snyder graduated last February and is now teaching in Lakewood, Ohio.

The Junior Girls' Play, "The Mulberry Bush," was given during the latter part of March; many of its junior members participated. Jane Holden was chairman of programs, and Barbara Teall had the part of the leading lady in the production. Other Michigan Bs in the play were Barbara Heath, Mary McCrory, Marjorie Merker, Phyllis Miner, Jenny Petersen, Jean Rheinfrank, Margery Roebeck, and Betty Spangler. Over 300 junior women participated in the production and needless to say, it was very successful. The opening night, "The Mulberry Bush" was presented for all senior women on campus and it was enthusiastically received by them.

PLEGDED, February 25, 1938: Suzanne Stevenson, Grosse Pointe.

Pledge Day, September 18, 1937

Mrs. Webster, assistant to the Grand President, visited the chapter on February 8, 9, and 10. The pledges gave a luncheon in her honor; and the active chapter gave a formal dinner and entertained with a tea to which faculty women, faculty wives, and Indiana A's patronesses were invited. Mrs. Webster's visit was very inspiring.

Indiana A celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its founding January 16 at the home of Mrs. Wayne Walters, alumna. Appointments at the dinner were in the fraternity colors. An impressive candle-light ceremony honoring the fourteen founders of Indiana A preceded the dinner. Miss Jennie Zeppenfeld and Miss Harriette Palmer two of the founders of the local chapter gave interesting talks. The first pledge and the first initiate were present. The pledges presented a skit portraying costumes fifty years ago up to the present.

Blue Key opened the semester by sponsoring a mixer January 31 to which all of the student body were invited. This was the first attempt at such a thing, and it proved very successful. The new students became better acquainted with the old students.

Wigs and Cues, local dramatic organization, held initiation for new members March 3. $\Pi B \Phi$ had seven new members: Frances Hyde, Jane Dolen, Barbara Uran, Jean VanVoorhees, Mary Jane Cooke, Betty E. Brown, and Jeanette McElroy. The neophytes presented a stunt after the dinner. At this meeting officers were elected and Betty Reed, a $\Pi B \Phi$ was elected vice-president.

The Junior Class is concentrating upon plans for the Junior Prom. Jeanette McElroy has been appointed chairman of the decoration committee.

W.A.A. had initiation February 24. Betty Reed, Elizabeth Baker, Eleanor Jane Dixon, Jane McDaniel, Jean VanVoorhees, Eileen Simmons, and Annabelle McAlpin were initiated.

The local Panhellenic chapter sponsored their annual dance March 25. Emmett Wright's orchestra furnished the music.

Frances Hyde, a sophomore, represented Franklin College, February 11, in the state oratorical contest. Frances tied for first place in this contest and as a result received a gold medal and a scholarship. Sarah Haas, a senior, has been appointed managing editor of the Franklin, the school paper.

A $\Phi \Gamma$ national journalistic fraternity installed a new chapter on the Franklin campus March 26. $\Pi B \Phi$ has three members in this organization Sarah Haas, Jeanette McElroy, and Rosemary Chappell.

The college choir has started on its annual series of public appearances throughout the state. An important feature of the choir is the girl's sextet of which three members are Pi Beta Phi, Jane McAnnelly, Carolyn Mann, and Marjorie Records.

Franklin was very proud of its basketball team this year. It had a very fine record and is in third place in the Indiana Conference.

William B. Nelp, a graduate of Franklin College with the class of 1917, has been appointed as assistant to the president to aid with the Second Century Development Program. This program has been established for the benefit of bringing more students to Franklin College. Mr. Nelp is a very capable man and Franklin is fortunate in having him on the campus.

Ruth Audra Miller has been chosen as the delegate to convention and Frances Hyde has been chosen as alternate. Ruth Audra is a member of Y.W.C.A. and is on the business staff of the college annual.

The Alumnae Club of Indiana A entertained the active chapter with a dinner on March 9 at the home of Mrs. Harry Hougham an alumna.

On March 14, the Mothers' Club entertained the active chapter at dinner at Ye Wayside Inn.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the state luncheon and dance in Indianapolis April 30.

The pledges gave a dance for the active chapter on March 18 at the Golden Glow in Shelbyville. The motif was that of a bowery dance, and Mr. and Mrs. Hatlen and Mr. and Mrs. Rake, members of the faculty served as chaperons.

Indiana University has opened up a new field this semester which will broaden the opportunities for many students in the line of broadcasting. A regular period of campus programs has been instituted, the times of broadcasting being 4:00 on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and 9:30 on Sunday mornings; the station is WIRE, Indianapolis. Programs consist of original script by participants under the supervision of various faculty members, with Dr. Lee Norvelle as chairman. Another new extra-curricular activity is the Student Self Survey Committee, whose responsibility is the solving of student problems in campus activities, scholarship, and all matters pertaining to the varying college environments. This committee was chosen by acting-president Herman B. Wells, and consists of the presidents of campus organizations and eight members at large from college enrollment.

Fraternity activities for Indiana B have been numerous in the past months. The new semester started with rejoicing over the fact that out of sixteen women's fraternities on campus, the $\Pi B \Phi$ freshmen were the only ones to complete university and fraternity requirements 100 per cent for initiation. There were twenty-five pledges initiated.

The chapter was happy to have as their guest on the week-end of February 5, 6, and 7, Mrs. Florence Hunt Webster, Assistant to the Grand President. Pleasure was combined with business during the visit. On Sunday, February 6, a tea was given to introduce Mrs. Webster to Dean Agnes E. Wells and her staff, alumnae, chaperons, and house presidents of the other women's fraternities. The tea table was decorated in a wine and blue motif, with Mary Ellen Bibbee presiding over the service. That evening a traditional candlelight cooky-shine was given, followed by a serenade by the chapter on the terrace beneath Mrs. Webster's window. Active fraternity meeting on Monday night was preceded by a formal dinner.

The winter formal rush dance was held on February 12, with twenty-five guests and fifty chapter members dancing in the atmosphere of appropriate decorations in celebration of Valentine's Day. On April 2 the spring rush dance was a great success with sixty guests attending. Jimmy Cathcart's band played the program of dances from their bower of spring foliage and flowers. Indiana B joined with Indiana A, P, and A to celebrate Founders' Day with a luncheon and dance at Indianapolis on April 30.

Among the members of $\Pi B \Phi$ who have been outstanding on campus are Elizabeth May, who headed the presidents of organizations in the Student Self Survey Committee, and Martha Mull, one of the members at large on that committee. Peggy Sue Leininger has been inducted into $\Theta A \Phi$ honorary for dramatics, and served as chairman of the Committee for the student broadcasts. Jane Bosart was elected R.O.T.C. cadet colonel and selected as one of the Arbutus beauty queens. Four members of the chapter are now on the Arbutus staff: Ann Abbott, Frances Watkins, Phyllis Landis, and Roberta Haskell.

The delegate to Convention from Indiana B is Edythe Cale Thornton, house president. Edythe served as assistant rush captain, and is very active in many organizations on campus such as $H \Sigma \Phi$, Latin honorary organization, Y.W.C.A., A.W.S., W.A.A., Classical Club, and has maintained a splendid scholastic record. Her alternate is Peggy Sue Leininger.

On February 21 Alice Marie Elshout was affiliated with Indiana B from Ontario A.

A successful finish to the fall term was given to Indiana Γ when $\Pi B \Phi$ pledge Jean Forrest was selected Freshman Rose by the men of her class. Also coming toward the close of the semester was the Christmas play given by Theopis in which Jane Ludwig, Jean Booth, Margaret Parrish, and Joan Keller had parts. Montrew Goetz played in the last production of the dramatic club, called "Squaring the Circle," a Russian satire.

At present the entire chapter is organizing its dramatic talents in preparation for Geneva Stunts. This is a semi-annual show sponsored by Y.W.C.A. at which all the women's fraternities compete for a loving cup. The chapter's stunt is under the direction of Jean Booth and Jane Ludwig.

Betsy Murbarger is now president of Blue Gills, the honorary swimming club. Dorothy Springer and Ann Harder have recently been invited to join. Also among athletic honors is the fact that Jane Kraning has been taken into W.A.A.

Indiana I is for the first time exchanging dinners with the different men's fraternities on the campus. Although it is quite a tradition at some colleges it is an innovation at Butler and all the organizations on the campus are enjoying the idea and profiting from the increased friendship and understanding which results.

Founders' Day was observed April 30 with a luncheon at the Columbia Club and a dance at the Marrot Hotel. Helen McMahan arranged the dance. All four Indiana chapters were present in almost perfect attendance. The chapter having the highest scholarship average received a cup, and the girl with the highest grades in each chapter received an award.

One of the outstanding campus events of the spring semester is always the Butler Indoor Relays. This year it was an unusual success with athletes from all the neighboring schools competing. A dance preceded the affair and store windows decorated by the different organizations stirred up enthusiasm among the other people in the city.

Indiana I's delegate to Convention is Gerry Johnson. She has received chapter recognition first with a recognition pin as outstanding pledge her freshman year, and then a Scholarship Plaque and the office of Corresponding Secretary her sophomore year. She is now a junior and is the retiring chapter president. Gerry belonged to Spurs, the sophomore honorary, and is now secretary of K Δ I and president of the Sorority President's Council.

Following a beautiful initiation service the initiates were entertained at a formal dinner at the Memorial Union Building. The main speaker was Mrs. Richard Holden, a Pi Beta Phi from Boston University, whose daughter was one of the initiates. The first Indiana Δ daughter, Dorothy Eberhardt, was also initiated.

Indiana Δ entertained with a tea, Sunday, March 20 honoring members of the faculty. This tea enabled the Pi Beta Phis to become better acquainted with their professors.

Mrs. Webster, assistant to the Grand President, visited the chapter and by her talks both entertained and inspired the girls.

Although February is a lax month for recognition of activity workers two Pi Beta Phis have been honored. INITIATED, February 21, 1938: Nancy Cortelyou, Kansas City; Mary Margaret Jones, Okmulgee, Okla.; Peggy Maupin, Gainesville, Tex.; Mary Alice Messerly, Virginia Scott, Sedalia; Mary Ellen Reymur, Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; Frances Shirky, Nancy Taylor, Columbia; Ruth Schifflin, Texarkana, Ark.; Helen Stigall, Jefferson City; Mary Ellen Warmpler, Webb City.

Missouri A had initiation February 21. After the ceremony and the opening of initiation presents, the new members were entertained by a formal dinner in their honor.

Kay Johnson has been elected chapter delegate to the national convention at Asheville. Kay is chairman of the scholarship committee, sophomore representative on executive council, and was recently elected captain of the University Women's Varsity debate team.

The chapter and alumna celebrated Founders' Day, April 28, with a banquet at Pennant Tavern. The program included a dramatized history of Missouri A from 1899 to the present. The alumnae ransacked their trunks for old dresses representative of different periods, and the actives modeled the clothes in the skit.

March was a particularly busy month for the chapter, with Fathers' week-end March 5 and 6, the first II B Φ spring formal March 12; the Mothers' week-end March 26 and 27. To entertain the fathers on the night of their arrival, during dinner the members had a cabaret party with a floor show and specialty numbers. After the party, a special II B Φ section was reserved at the Big Six track meet for the girls and their fathers.

For the mothers, faculty, and townspeople, there was a formal reception at the chapter house March 26. On both Mothers' and Fathers' Sundays, the program included Burrall Bible class and dinner.

Four members of the fraternity, Mary Ellen Dacy, Jane Force, Ruth Schifflin, and Helen Stigall, were in the chorus of the annual journalism show, To Swing or Not to Swing, presented April 16 and 17. The musical comedy was written and produced entirely by students in the University School of Journalism. Mary Ellen Reymur and Ruth Kinyon are on the Journalism Commission.

In February the University yearbook had every fraternity enter a six-minute stunt in a benefit performance called the Savitar Frolic. Missouri A's entry was a "chug" number. While the II B Φ chorus sang an original song about the new dance known as "chuggin," Jane Force and Libby Hanley dramatized the lyric of the song.

Virginia Lippard was elected State Secretary of the Junior League of Women Voters and to membership in Ψ X, national honorary psychology fraternity. Frances Logan was elected secretary of Φ Σ I, honorary romance language fraternity. In the scholastic honoraries Ellen Stine, Kay Johnson, and Mary Jane Yates were elected into Σ E Σ, the sophomore organization; and Frances Shirky, Peggy Maupin, and Mary Ellen Wampler, into Freshman Commission.

This year Missouri A has started a new form of spring rushing, whereby a smaller number of rushees is entertained at each party, and the actives and rushees can become better acquainted. Instead of the annual rush tea, the chapter had a series of three buffet suppers. Additional rush parties were not legal according to local Panhellenic rules.

The more musical minded members of the chapter are diligently practicing fraternity songs, in the hope of retaining the loving cup presented every year to the winner of the Interfraternity Sing, to be held later in the spring.

PLEGDED: Joan Carghill, St. Joseph.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Mary Alice Messerly, college, 511 Rollins, Columbia, Mo. Summer: 705 W. Broadway, Sedalia, Mo.

VIRGINIA NYSTROM

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

INITIATED, February 28, 1938: Isabel Andrews, Frances Anne Choate, Virginia Coughlin, Jean Curry, Lois Curry, Marion Louise Endres, Virginia Lee Eppler, Martha Jayne Holthouse, Laura Louise Stealey, Alice Louise Stephens, Ruth Thym, Mary Ellen Weber, St. Louis, Mo.; Mary Catherine Carruthers, Little Rock, Ark.; Mary Yocum, Galva, Ill.

With the second semester well on its way, the campus at Washington University is bustling with the usual spring activity. Quadrangle Show, the annual musical comedy production was presented March 10, 11, and 12. "One For The Money" is the title for the show. Kathryn Galle had the leading rôle for the second consecutive time. Pi Beta Phis were also well represented in the choruses—both singing and dancing.

The Junior Prom queen is known on this campus as the Hatchet Queen named after our yearbook Hatchet, and this queen is the most important of the various campus queens. March 8 the candidates for this coveted crown paraded in front of the judges. Five girls are chosen from the group and the queen is selected from the five—the other four being maids. Kathryn Galle and Elberta Herget are among the five chosen. The choice of queen will be kept secret until the night of the Prom.

Alice Louise Stephens received a jeweled recognition pin for being the most outstanding and best all-round pledge.

The actives and alumnae of Missouri B celebrated Founders' Day with a banquet as it has usually done. The annual awards to the active chapter were presented.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Elva Hassendeubel, 5749 Delor, St. Louis, Mo.

BERNICE MEYERS

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

INITIATED, February 23, 1938: Mary Jean Eckert, Elizabeth Ann Sheppard, Betty Curtis, Ruth Alice Freeman, Katy Lou Nadal, Annabelle Heard, Springfield.

Activities for Drury Homecoming March 4 and 5 have taken most of the spare time of Missouri Γ girls. In the homecoming parade the Π B Φ float took the first prize. The float was covered with blue paper and silver stars; it depicted a much-crippled blue-jay—mascot of the opposing basketball team—knocking on the pearly gates of heaven which were guarded by St. Peter and two angels. On Saturday afternoon the chapter gave a tea in honor of the alumnae. Homecoming was climaxed Saturday evening by a basketball game in which Drury Panthers, M.C.A.U. champions, defeated the Westminster Blue-Jays for their twelfth straight conference victory. The homecoming queen, elected Friday by a tug-o'-war between the freshman and sophomore classes, was crowned between the halves of the game. She was attended by the losing queen-nominee and the Sou-Wester beauty queens. Four of the five attendants were Pi Phis.

The delegate to convention this year from Missouri Γ is Alice Louise Hamlin, who was initiated by Miss Onken at convention last year. Alice Louise was chosen in her freshman year as the best pledge in Epsilon Province.

Founders' Day was observed by Missouri Γ actives and alumnae at a formal dinner. Besides the usual musical numbers, a special program of the biographies of the living founders was enacted by chapter members.

An informal dance was given by the chapter on April 2. Decorations and refreshments carried out the theme of April fool. Each month the chapter has a Birthday Supper in the chapter rooms. Members of the chapter who have birthdays during the particular month are guests of the evening.

Recognition pins awarded by the chapter to the new initiates went to Mary Jean Eckert for the best grades, and to Katy Lou Nadal as the best all-round pledge.

PLEDGED, March 14: Mary Louise Wetzel, Springfield, Mo.

MARTHA ANNE ANTHONY

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Chartered, 1925

Pledge Day, February 13, 1938

INITIATED, March 11, 1938: Nancy Adams, Marcia Hamilton, Janet Hughes, Martha Love Johnson, Margaret Ponder, Elizabeth Woodson, Louisville.

Kentucky A began her social activities of the semester with a buffet supper at the home of one of the actives. It was an informal affair which afforded a splendid means of mixing with the rushees. It climaxed the chapter's rushing season.

The local Panhellenic held its annual formal dance at Columbia Hall on February 25. It was attended by all the fraternity women on the campus and their dates.

Belknap Campus announces with pride a new Law School which has been begun on the campus. President Kent broke the first ground early in February and it is now well under way. The building is to be of Southern Colonial architecture and will be part of the Hundred Years Plan for the University.

The Music School is fortunate in having a new faculty member, Dr. Gerhard Herz, an exiled scholar from Germany. A graduate of the University of Zurich in Switzerland, he is professor of history and appreciation of music.

An innovation is the addition of Dr. Margaret Limper, a practicing physician in Louisville, who will have office hours on the campus two afternoons each month for consultation with the girls on individual problems.

Kentucky A has just finished second in the intramural basketball tournament.

The active chapter and the alumnae club commemorated Founders' Day with a luncheon held at the Crescent Hill Women's Club on Saturday, April 30. The program was different from the usual and proved very impressive.

The Woman's League entertained the women of the college with a luncheon served in the Alumni Rooms on Tuesday, March 15.

The March initiation was followed by a formal banquet at the Pendennis Club. Wine and silver blue flowers served as center pieces and the theme was Convention. Snapshots of the Smoky Mountains were scattered about on the tables while the center of attraction was a log cabin. Pi Phi arrows reading "on to Convention" were pointing to it from all directions on the table. Placecards were calico-dressed mountain girls heading in the direction of the arrows. Pi Phi songs were sung between the courses.

Kentucky A's delegate to Convention is Florence Hunt Isert. An all-round girl, she has served her chapter as president for a year and has been active in the Panhellenic and the Home Economics Department. She attended the Epsilon Province Convention in Chattanooga last summer as her chapter's delegate and was so efficient that it has chosen her for this bigger honor.

PLEDGED: Jane Arterburn, Lucile Tafel, Louisville.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Elizabeth Miller, college, 127 N. Barbee, Apt. 2; summer, 315 Raymond Ave., both Louisville.

INITIATED, February 26, 1938: Vera Crumbliss, Ethel Mary Gaston, Virginia Johnson, Jane McConnell, Nancy Stinson, Louise Thompson, Chattanooga; Mary Brown Morrison, Centerville; Katherine Estes, Fort Ogelthorpe, Ga.

Tennessee A chapter has eight brand new initiates and will have another as soon as she recuperates from a very serious illness. Pre-initiation week is one of the most interesting times of the year to members of Tennessee A. This year the girls ate lunch three days and supper the other two days of the week before initiation, at the house. The pledges learned a great deal about the fraternity and recited to the actives. On the day of initiation the actives entertained at a luncheon for the initiates-to-be. After initiation the alumnae had a banquet at the chapter house. Elizabeth Sussdorf served as toastmistress. The loving cup was awarded to Virginia Johnson for the Best All-round Pledge and a beautiful Π Φ compact was presented to Katherine Estes who made the highest grades in the pledge group. A recognition pin with a pearl in it was given to the active making the greatest improvement in grades, Eleanor Overend. This is a new award and will be given each semester.

On February 14 the actives and pledges had a cooky-shine and exchanged valentines. Later everyone went to the gym for an hour of folk dancing.

Marjorie Hixson is the new treasurer for Tennessee A. Barbara Martin and Katherine Estes were taken into Co-ed Cotillion Club.

The U. C. basketball team went to the semi-finals in the Dixie Conference meet held at Jackson, Mississippi, the first part of March. The Women's Athletic Association held their annual "Play Day" April 26 at which time representatives of about twenty-five high schools were present. The sororities on the campus each presented a folk dance on the program. Luncheon was served at noon.

The March 4 edition of the University paper, Echo, was the girls' edition. Co-editors were Louise Sutton and Louise Willis, non-fraternity. Nine other Pi Beta Phi's worked on the Echoette.

Eleanor Overend was selected as the partner of the Senior Class president to lead the Junior Prom which is lead by the Junior and Senior Class presidents.

The cast for the third play of the season to be given by the University Players has been announced. Gaby Taylor has the comedy rôle in "Craig's Wife." Marie Amacker and Gertrude Witt also have parts in the play. All three Pi Phi's are experienced actresses.

Louise Sutton is delegate to Convention from Tennessee A chapter with Marie Amacker as alternate.

At a recent cooky-shine the chapter had a stork shower for Mrs. Daniel who was the Epsilon Province President.

The new Epsilon Province President, Mrs. Parks, was entertained in March for two days. Actives and alumnae entertained at dinner for her.

Founders' Day was observed by actives and alumnae with a large banquet. There were about one hundred twenty-five there. Pi Beta Phis from Gatlinburg were the honored guests. A pageant was staged and the candle lighting and loving cup ceremonies were made very impressive.

Chartered, 1927

Pledge Day, February 3, 1938

INITIATED, February 11, 1938: Ann Berry, Grace Fealy, Virginia Hudson, Virginia Van der Veer.

Alabama A maintained its standing of first in scholarship among the other sororities on the campus. Katherine Lide was elected into Φ B K, Pi Phis hold offices in K A E, Belles Lettres, A I, "Y."

Alabama A's president, Mary Charles Illingworth married and left school. The new officers elected to fill the vacancies were Catherine Sims, president, and Mildred Blair, vice-president.

Alabama A celebrated Founders' Day with a large banquet at a local hotel. Inspirational talks were given by several alumnae and actives, and humorous skits were presented by the pledges.

At the Beauty Review held annually by the La Revue staff, seven members of Π B Φ were nominated by various organizations to appear: Virginia Bartlett, Bill Pettit, Margaret Anne Wilmore, Annette Mitchell, Virginia Van der Veer, Mary Collier, and Catherine Sims.

February rushing is always very limited, but this year Π B Φ gave a very enjoyable tea in the form of "sweet-heart party."

The most entertaining event of the year was a weekend visit to Tennessee A and the football game between University of Chattanooga and Birmingham-Southern.

Virginia Bartlett represented Π B Φ in May Court. Π B Φ presented a beauty show in which various merchants of the city cooperated to raise money for the Settlement School.

Alabama A entertained at the annual dance April 21, and were in the lead outs of Σ A E, Θ K N, B K, K A.

Chartered, 1913

Pledge Day, February 15, 1938

INITIATED, February 2, 1938: Barbara Moore, De Land.

INITIATED, February 23, 1938: Grace Ahlers, Dayton, Ohio; Evelyn Cates, Anna Cornell, Marian Estridge, Sanford; Dorothea Clarson, Jacksonville; Patricia Clark, Stuart; Doris Hill, Cocoa; Nell Latham, Miami; Penelope Knox, Ray Jordan, Gwendolyn Powell, De Land.

Florida A recently held election of officers with the following results: Lois Thacker, president; Mary Brown, vice-president; Helen Stoltenberg, treasurer; Alice Smith, recording secretary. The Convention delegate was also elected, with Ruth Orum being chosen as delegate, and Lois Thacker as alternate.

Stetson's second semester has been a busy one: To start off the season, a rush party with the Valentine motif as a theme was held at the home of Dean and Mrs. Smith. The Pi Beta Phis began the series of spring formal given by the various fraternities with a very successful program dance given at the Mayfair Hotel in Sanford. The initiation banquet was held at the College Arms Hotel. Marian Estridge was given the award for the most representative pledge, while Dorothea Clarson received the scholarship award.

A Play-Day with Rollins College was celebrated in which Mary Ellen Lord and Lois Thacker participated. Mary Ellen Lord also had the leading rôle in the Little Theater's presentation of A. A. Milne's delightful play "Mr. Pim Passes By." Sadie Rae Gardner enacted the major rôle of Tessa in the presentation of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, "The Gondoliers."

Stetson was indeed honored to have as a guest speaker during the month of February, the noted American poet, Robert Frost, who gave a most interesting lecture. Another important event was the recital given by Professor Harold M. Giffin of the Voice Department of the School of Music. He was accompanied by Jane McCarty, Founders' Day was observed with an enjoyable picnic party given for the actives by the alumnae club at DeLeon Springs. The Springs, not only make a very charming spot for a party, but have a historical significance in the early history of Florida.

Florida A has the highest scholastic average among the fraternities on campus for the second successive semester. Fight Phi Beta Phis, Lola Hammer, Frances Ogilvie, Jane McCarty, Mary Ellen Lord, Lois Thacker, Ruth Orum, Dorothea Clarson, and Barbara Moore were on the Honor Roll. Four others, Jane McCarty, Frances Ogilvie, Lois Thacker, and Ruth Orum were on the Dean's List, which is a list composed of all Juniors and Seniors with a B plus average. Lois Thacker is a member of Σ Ω Ξ , honorary scholastic fraternity. Jane McCarty and Ruth Orum are members of The Order of the Torch and Scroll, high honorary scholastic organization. Ruth Orum was elected to membership in the Honor, honorary leadership fraternity. Helen Bass is the new Π B Φ representative on Panhellenic Council. Nell Latham is a member of the Women's Student Government Association.

PLEGGE: Sara Smith, Orlando.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Helen Bass, college and summer, Chaudoin Hall, De Land.

INITIATED, March 11, 1938: Dorothy Daniels, Miami.
The morning of February 27, an initiation breakfast was held at the Floridan Hotel, and the theme of the "Pi Beta Phi Garden" was carried out. Gold arrow pins were given to the initiates as favors. At this time the cup awarded annually to the pledge who makes the highest scholarship average was presented to Charlotte Huffman. Π B Φ bracelet was awarded to Dorothy Mitchell as the best all-round pledge, and a scholarship bracelet was also presented to Janet Jewett as the active raising her grades the most from last semester. Informal speeches were made by Florine Morris, president, and Ruth Atkinson, pledge president, who responded in behalf of the pledge group. Ermine Lawrence, ex-president, read a poem entitled "The Beta Garden," and Marion Heper, alumna, gave an inspiring message.

Panhellenic Hop was held March 19 at the College Gymnasium. This is an annual event for sorority girls. Preceding the dance the chapter had a buffet supper at the house for the Pi Beta Phis and their dates.

Every Thursday afternoon the chapter has an informal tea. Each girl is allowed to have one guest. These teas have proved to be a great success in fostering closer friendships between Π B Φ and other sorority as well as non-sorority girls.

Mary Jane Lambeth, freshman, has been chosen as a candidate for the Freshman-Sophomore Hop at the University of Florida.

The chapter is continuing the practice of having a cooky-shine once a month, and several after dinner coffees for faculty members.

Before semester examinations the chapter was divided into two sides, and the side which had the lowest grades gave the winning side a party.

Florida B's Founders' Day service was held at seven o'clock in the chapter house. Following the service a breakfast was held for all actives and pledges. The girls were required to wear white throughout the day, and fraternity colors were worn beneath the pin.

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE

Chartered, July 3, 1929

INITIATED, February 16, 1938: Eleanor Ham, Mississippi; Margaret Davis, New York; Betty McCutcheon, Arkansas.

GRADUATES: Mary Dudley, Portland, Me.; Emily Oldham, Albany, N.Y.; Elizabeth Harbison, Evanston, Ill.; Mary Gulnac, Rensselaer, N.Y.; Margaret Bashford, Miami, Fla.; Elizabeth Mills, Winter Park, Fla.; Jane Harding, Grand Rapids, Mich.

The college had its renowned "Animated Magazine" a short while ago. Among the speakers was Mr. Luce, editor of Time and publisher of Fortune. There has been a new English studio just completed, which is a continuation of the Spanish type campus plan.

A change in student government is being discussed. The present form which has a representative from each fraternity is inharmonious. For closer spirit between the fraternities a large interfraternity dance is being given, in which all the fraternities contribute the funds they would ordinarily use for their own dances.

The chapter has recently given a tea for alumnae and patronesses, and also one for mothers of the actives. Plans are being made now for a bridge party to be given for the Settlement School. Just before initiation there was a highly successful stunt night in which the pledges had to make up songs and skits. They then curled up on the floor on home made beds and spent the night in their new house. The chapter also had an informal breakfast for President Holt and his sister.

Honors Day brought some honors to the chapter and some disappointments. The varsity crew honors went entirely to Pi Beta Phi's. Barbara Babb won the fall horse show and the Orlando horse show. Augusta Yust came in fourth in the same show. Barbara and Augusta were also asked to pledge Φ B, the honorary dramatic and music fraternity. The scholastic standing of the chapter as a whole was not all that could be expected, but Augusta Yust made the honor roll.

Frances Daniels has been prominent in the peace work of the College. She has been making speeches and attended the Bethone Cookman conference as a delegate from Rollins to express the attitude of the College. Peggy Bashford has been doing outstanding work in dramatics in both acting and backstage work. Several of the Π B Φ graduates have been back to visit the chapter.

PLEGGED: Lenore Feschman, Pennsylvania; Rosemary Glenn, Orlando; Gracia Tuttle, Glencoe, Ill.; Marjorie Wilson, Kenosha, Wis.

BARBARA BABB

INITIATED, March 12, 1938: Marie Horning, Chevy Chase, Md.; Barbara Lyon, Barbara Morey, Mary Louise Rose, Decatur, Ill.; Eileen Collins, Edith Wagner, Detroit, Mich.; Janet Peterson, Eau Claire; Margaret Stephens, Evanston, Ill.; Virginia McCormick, Virginia Schmitz, Madison; Janice De Bolt, Charlotte Ann York, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mary Rowlands, Racine; Mary Bigelow, Riverside, Calif.; Marjorie Atwell, Ruth Nason, Stevens Point; Janet Bickler, Claire Tienthaler, Wauwatosa; Eleanor Roodhouse, Whitehall, Ill.

After much deliberation, Wisconsin A decided to act contrary to its usual custom and hold no second semester rushing this year. Therefore the chapter is now doing its rushing informally.

On March 19 the pledges gave a surprise party for the actives. They entertained with skits, songs, and dance numbers, completing the evening by serving refreshments.

Wisconsin A has not been inactive in the other affairs of the campus, however. On February 9 Π B Φ acted as hostesses at President Dykstra's February tea, and had great fun doing so. Then on February 16 the chapter entertained the alumnae advisory board and their husbands at dinner. About nine alumnae and their husbands attended. On February 23 the members again entertained, this time the deans of the University. It was a fine opportunity for the girls to become personally acquainted with the deans, and for them, in turn, to meet the girls.

Individually, too, the girls have been active in campus activities. Jane Johnson was in charge of invitations for the 1938 Prom, while Ada May Roe and Virginia Torcum share the leads in the present University Theater production, "Marco's Millions." Ruth Nason, one of the pledges, was elected to Coranto, professional journalism sorority, Founders' Day was celebrated April 30. A banquet was given, which was attended by the alumnae from Milwaukee and Madison, in addition to the active members and pledges of the chapter. At the dinner the chapter awards were presented to the outstanding girls.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Ruth Tanafeldt, College; 233 Langdon St., Madison, Wis. Summer: Riverview Drive, Jefferson, Wis.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE

Chartered, 1919

Pledge Day, September 28, 1937

INITIATED, February 19, 1938: Mary Lou Agur, Jane Caldwell, Jean Launspach, Joan Launspach, Chicago, Ill.; Betty Jane Burton, Margaret Burton, Wheaton, Ill.; Frances Cramer, Doris Biddle, Betty Witthoft, Evanston, Ill.; Suzanne Essington, Stretor, Ill.; Jane Fairbanks, Ardelle Hanke, Winifred Licht, Oak Park, Ill.; Lois Douglas, Brodhead; Maybeth Hart, Springfield, Ill.; Miriam Haried, Aurora, Ill.; Polly Stevens, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Catherine Yarnelle, Fort Wayne, Ind.

The services of re-dedication for the remodelled Edward Dwight Eaton Chapel were held February 13. Dr. Eaton, the second president of the college, and President Maurer were the speakers. In March President and Mrs. Maurer held open house in the old Chapin home, which they are now occupying.

Beloit had a very successful basketball season, taking second place in the Mid-West Conference, this year. The March Marathon, an all day dance and one of Beloit's unique social highlights, was accounted by all a great success.

The chapter has two new plans to work on for the remainder of the year. The one is a social service project worked out in conjunction with the city family welfare. The second plan is to form a recreational fund, each active member contributing five cents a week; the money will be used for magazines, books and games.

Ruth Barrett Smith made a visit to the chapter on March 15 and was entertained with a formal tea at the chapter house.

The K Δ chapter combined their initiation celebration with the dedication of their new house; many national officers were present. A tea was given for the faculty at which the presidents of the other three women's fraternities assisted.

PLEGGED: Gloria Gaiselman, Wauwatosa.

Pledge Day, November 5, 1937

INITIATED, March 12, 1938: Dorothy Chalmers, Topeka, Kan.; Betty Dodge, LaGrange; Marian Kaiser, Oak Park; Frances Simpson, Buffalo, N.Y.; Jean Malley, Ruth Moffet, Bette Smith, Monmouth.

New chapter officers were elected in February for the year 1938-39. Frances Hand was elected president, Evelyn Frederick, vice-president, Martha Campbell, recording secretary, Marilouise Hite, treasurer, Lauretta Drayson, corresponding secretary, and Maxine Winbiger, chapter delegate to convention with Frances Hand as alternate.

In February Betty Dodge represented Monmouth College in the district women's oratorical contest at Naperville.

The pledges entertained the pledges of the other women's fraternities with a George Washington party on February 22 at the home of a patroness.

Mrs. Ruth Barrett Smith, Grand Vice-President, made an official visit to the chapter on the week-end of February 26. She was taken on a historical tour of Monmouth, viewing the house in which Π B Φ was founded and the markers upon the graves of the founders buried in Monmouth. The chapter entertained her with a cooky-shine on Sunday evening and assisted the alumnae club with a tea in her honor on Monday afternoon.

Ruth Moffet, Bette Smith, and Jean Malley were initiated into the Women's Athletic Association of Monmouth College in March.

Margaret Ward, Betty Dodge, and Frances Simpson had important rôles in the freshman play, "Pride and Prejudice," presented by Crimson Masque, dramatic organization.

Frances Hand was made general chairman of the annual May Fete, one of the leading affairs of the campus. Betty Dodge and Sue Viering are also serving on committees for the affair.

The pledges entertained the active members with a taffy-pull early in March at the home of Ruth Moffet.

Monmouth College's basketball team won the Mid-West basketball championship also in March.

Founders' Day was observed with a cooky-shine followed by a historical play presented by several members of the chapter.

May 14 is the date set for the annual spring party to be held at the Monmouth country club.

PLEGDED: Doris Hatch, Greenville; Ann Kenan, Cameron; Muriel McIlwreth, Aurora; Helen Smutz, Moline; Betty Teeter, LaGrange; Jane Tipton, Milwaukee.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Maxine Winbigler, 402 North G St., Monmouth.

ILLINOIS BETA-DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE

Pledge Day, February 12, 1938

INITIATED, February 19, 1938: Margaret Handke, Virginia Parsons, Mary Jean Stanton, Jean Andrews, Meredith Boller, Florence Dexter, Helen Kost, Barbara Anderson, Natalie Bell, Jean Crawford, Mary McClanahan, Kathleen McKinstry, Jane Montgomery, Jeanne Peterson, Mary Louis Porter, Betty Jean Rogers, Harriett Russell, Jane Sperry, Jean Todd.

Illinois B-Δ enjoyed the visit of the Grand Vice-President, Mrs. Warren T. Smith. She was with the chapter several days during which time she attended the B-Δ chapter meeting and cooky-shine and was entertained by the alumnae club of Galesburg.

The Knox College theater presented its annual amateur show, "Kampus Kapers," January 9. Wanda Goode and Barbara Boyden, who were creators of complicated dance routines and chorus work, Jean Andrews, Kathleen McKinstry, Jeanne Peterson, Natalie Bell, Jean Todd, and Helen Kost exhibited their talents which were very delightful.

The chapter winter formal was held February 5 at the Elks Club. The great success was due to the splendid management of our social chairman, Doris Dexter, and her committee.

Jane Montgomery, Jean Todd, and Jean Crawford have been admitted into L.M.I., the women's literary society.

Francis Lafferty, Jean Todd, Natalie Bell, and Jean Crawford are to be in the cast of the next theater play, "The Taming of the Shrew."

The pledges gave a dinner for the actives on Friday, February 18 at the Galesburg Club. They presented a very clever little program during the dinner hour.

The alumnae of Galesburg entertained the actives at a cooky-shine following initiation, February 19. The alumnae, actives, and new initiates enjoyed the evening together. Following the dinner, everyone enjoyed singing II B Φ songs.

Marion Beatty has been chosen to represent our chapter as chapter delegate to convention this coming June. Dorothy Alsen will attend also as alternate delegate.

Illinois B-Δ had as its guests on Founders' Day the Monmouth active chapter, the Avon Alumnae Club, the Carthage Alumnae Club, the Peoria Alumnae Club, and the Galesburg Alumnae Club. The active chapter was on hand to greet the guests on this occasion.

Pledge Day, February 23

INITIATED, February 19: Jean Chubb, Annette Copeland, Jean Crawford, Betty Kettlety, Evanston; Virginia Baker, Chicago; Irma Jean Kelly, DuQuoin; Jane Mitchell, LaGrange; Phoebe Love, Pelham Heights, N.Y.; Elsie Clarke, Marjorie Mitchell, Adel; Ruth Shellito, Independence, Iowa; Jean Sprague, Cleveland, Ohio; Mary Jean Ziesel, Elkhart, Ind.; Sally Douglas, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Dona DuBeau, Alexandria, Minn.; Catherine Howe, Josephine Veazie, Reading, Mass.; Jane Ellen McConeley, Sterling, Colo.; Catherine Crossan, Bethany, Jean Rogers, Kansas City, Mo.

The second semester found both the campus and Illinois E fairly whirling with activities. The St. Charles Conference was attended by three of the chapter: Marjorie Mayland, Lorraine Gaylord, and Jane Good. Queens for the yearbook, the Syllabus, were nominated, and our candidate, Nancy Powell, was among the five chosen. Rehearsals for the Waa Mu show, "Of Thee I Sing," have been in full swing for over a month, and Dona DuBeau has the feminine lead. Mary Jean Ziesel is also taking part in the show. March 1 Thomas Mann lectured at the campus, affording a rare opportunity.

Marjorie Mayland was pledged to Θ Σ Φ, honorary journalism sorority, and Jane Good and Peggy Wagner were pledged to Z Φ H, honorary speech sorority.

Two of our girls deserted the group for marriage. Shirley Chandler was married to Bates Booth, of Washington, D.C., and Charlene Eddleman was married to Gene Allen of DuQuoin, Ill.

The new initiates and pledges entertained the actives with a dance at the house, February 25. The first mid-semester rushing tea was held February 16, and the rushing dinner was February 21.

The chapter has recently had exchange dinners with Δ T Δ, K K Γ, Φ K Ψ, B Θ Π, and Σ N.

Founders' Day banquet was held April 28. It is a Northwestern custom for the alumnae to have charge of this affair.

AFFILIATED: Janet Ferguson, Colby, Kan., from Kansas B. and Katherine Steel, Texarkana, Ark., from Arkansas A.

After the stress of second semester registration and the first days of school, the entire campus became interested in activities once more. The Woman's League presented the comedy "Follow Through" in February 25 and 26. Betty Lovegren had the leading rôle in this year's annual musical production. Jane Chapeck was the chairman of the house committee for the show. Virginia Swann did a solo tap dance as a golfer in the play. The chapter held a formal dinner at the house before the first performance of the show and then went to the play where most of the women's fraternities had reserved blocks. The evening ended with a dance at Bradley Hall.

The house has entered teams in the inter-house basketball and volleyball tournaments sponsored by W.A.A. Betty Hines was chairman and Helen Prescott a member of the Table Tennis Committee at the Illinois Union. Ruth Buchholz was chairman of the annual Activity Banquet at the Y.W.C.A. Barbara Littleton was initiated into Mask and Bauble, the honorary dramatic organization. Betty Fuermann and Helen Prescott with an average over 4.5 are new members of A A Δ, the freshman scholastic honorary for women.

II B Φ enjoyed an all too short visit from Mrs. W. T. Smith, the Grand Vice-President. A tea was given in her honor at the chapter house March 8. Illinois Z held its long-planned tea dance for members and their guests at the house on the afternoon of April 9.

The fraternity participated in the celebration of the University of Illinois Founders' Day on March 2. That evening a Founders' Day program with an address by President Arthur Cutts Willard was broadcast from the campus on a nation-wide hook-up. On this seventieth anniversary of the college, the first work was begun in the razing of the oldest building on the campus, University Hall. It is hoped that a Union Building and another class building will be erected to take its place. II B Φ Founders' Day was celebrated with a large Wine and Blue banquet with the alumnae club as special guests. The twenty new initiates furnished the entertainment.

A week of probation for the pledges who were to be initiated began February 3. The entire chapter ate dinner at the house during the week and thirty girls stayed there every night. On Saturday night all class rules were waived and a fudge party took place. Initiation was followed by a cooky-shine which Margaret Hall, Ellen Horn, and Jessie McKeown planned. The pledging of Dorothy Dashner brought the total membership of the chapter to forty-five, thirty-four of whom are actives. The initiates and pledges were honored at a house dance February 18.

In a report issued from the office of the Dean $\Pi B \Phi$ was listed as having the highest scholastic average on the campus. Ten girls on the semester honor roll comprised one third of the list.

A faculty edition of the Decaturian, weekly newspaper, was put out on February 25. The issue was printed in royal purple because the faculty did every bit of the work on it.

Defending the 1937 intersorority basketball title, $\Pi B \Phi$ finished in a tie with the Indees, who, until last year, had claimed the championship for thirteen years. The Millikin W.A.A. basketball teams were invited to be the guests of the Illinois College W.A.A. in Jacksonville on February 19. A week later they visited Millikin and W.A.A. entertained them after the games at the $\Pi B \Phi$ house. June Bilgere and Dorothy Dashner were on the freshman team and Laurabelle Fischer, Ellen Horn, Helen Margaret Kyle, Joanne McDavid, and Elizabeth Thalman played with the varsity. Millikin W.A.A. sponsored the Humphrey-Weidman modern dance troupe in concert on March 31. The annual intercollegiate tennis tournament was held again this year on the Millikin campus, Margaret Hall, as tennis manager, was in general charge.

The dramatic department presented "The Rivals" by Sheridan as its spring production. On April 19 the Panhellenic Sing, a non-competitive song fest, was held.

The traditional exchange party with $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ was a potluck held at their house. Dorothy Allen served as $\Pi B \Phi$ chairman of this dinner which seventy girls attended on March 7.

The modern language department sponsors an International Night every year at which time characteristic exhibits and entertainments are given. The feature of the evening is the International Cafe. Margaret Allen and Margaret Hall were in the chorus which provided the floor show in the cafe and Elizabeth Duerr was in charge of flowers. Joanne McDavid was costume director of the French play and Margaret Allen was on the Spanish committee.

A group of social behavior chapels were presented by members of the Greek organizations. Katherine Hamilton was chairman of the model dance which $\Pi B \Phi$ and $\Sigma A E$ presented. Helen Sona, Janet Hamilton, and Ellen Horn were on her committee.

The social calendar for the second semester was opened with the Freshman Frolic, February 19. Roberta Hamman, class secretary, served on the ticket and decoration committees. $\Pi M \Theta$, senior women's honorary organization, sponsored a matinee dance February 25, to raise money for the scholarship which the group gives annually to an outstanding woman student.

The Sophomore Cotillon March 26 was followed by the Junior Prom, April 23, and the Senior Ball on May 27. Margaret Hall was in charge of the $\Pi B \Phi$ formal given May 7 in the Decatur Club.

A particularly interesting Easter service was presented April 7. A verse speaking choir and modern dance group were organized especially for the program. Erika Thimey, internationally known religious interpretative dancer, came from Chicago to supervise the dancing and to appear as soloist. Dorothy Dashner, Elizabeth Duerr, and Laurabelle Fischer were members of the verse choir and Dorothy Allen, Margaret Allen, Roberta Hamman, Billie Harmon, Joanne McDavid, and Elizabeth Thalman were in the other group.

Founders' Day was observed by a luncheon on April 23. The Decatur Alumnae club was in charge of the party and Mrs. Dan Bopp (Edna Rybolt) was chairman of the committee.

Pledge Day, October 12, 1937

INITIATED, January 11, 1938: Mavis Curry, Mary Evans, Lydia Klein, Dorothy Matthews, Bette Pickup, Muriel Richards, Beth Tooley, Sylvia Washington, Beth Welton.

On February 8 the regular meeting was cut short in order that the fraternity might attend a debate, the resolution being "Dutch Treat Is an Aid to Romance." The negative side, composed of men, was awarded the decision.

In honor of the new initiates a banquet was held on January 11 at the Fort Garry Hotel.

Five performances of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Gondoliers" were presented by the U.M.S.U. Glee Club in February. Mavis Curry, Norma Kendall, Lydia Klein, and Mary Evans were Pi Beta Phis included in the cast. Diana Peacock was in charge of costumes, and Sylvia Washington headed the properties. Many others of the Fraternity were members of committees.

The interfaculty one-act play competition was held in the auditorium of Gordon Bell High School on February 24, 25, and 26. Lenore Morgan, Bette Pickup, and Betty Gray, of the Arts Faculty, were Pi Beta Phis who took part in the winning play, and Janet Turnbull managed the costumes.

In the intersorority basketball competition, which was won by the $A \Phi$ sorority, the $\Pi B \Phi$ team advanced to the semi-finals before being eliminated.

After meeting at the sorority house and proceeding to the suburbs of the city, the Fraternity enjoyed skiing and hiking and the afternoon was concluded with refreshments at the Cairn Ross Tea Cabin.

Balloons of all colors and wine and blue streamers decorated the gold room of the Royal Alexandra Hotel at the annual spring formal on February 21, and at one end of the room a banner with the $\Pi B \Phi$ coat of arms was hung. Many private parties were held both before and after the supper dance, and special guests of the occasion were Marie Crary and Judith Jacobson of North Dakota A.

An open meeting which the pledges attended was held on February 22 at the home of Jean Landreth, and the Fraternity was fortunate in having present Jane Duff, who spoke on "The Use of Cosmetics."

As a result of the recent election many Pi Phis will occupy executive offices in the various faculties. For the fourth successive year a Pi Beta Phi, this time in the person of Molly Ann Manning, was elected to the position of Lady Stick of Arts. In the same faculty, Jean Landreth was elected senior representative to the Co-ed Council; Bette Pickup, junior co-ed representative; Mary Evans, vice-president of 2nd year; Catherine McLeod, swimming representative, and Lydia Klein, junior athletic representative. For Wesley College, Gudrun Bjerring is junior representative to the Women's Association and Norma Jane Verner vice-president of athletics. In Home Economics, Beth Welton is vice-stick, and president of the Home Economics Club; Olive McArthur is vice-president of athletics; Elspeth McLenaghan was elected "Brown and Gold" junior representative.

The U.M.S.U. Co-ed Association Banquet was held in the main dining-room of the Hudson's Bay Company on March 2. Miss Doris Saunders, a member of the faculty and a $\Delta \Delta \Delta$, was guest speaker. Betty Dean, social chairman, was presented with an executive award; Norma Jane Verner received her senior athletic letter; Yvonne Sharpe, the Badminton Cup. At the Color Night Banquet, held March 4 in the Royal Alexandra Hotel, Betty Dean received a junior executive award.

Eleanor Moore has been chosen delegate to Convention and is also the chapter's newly-elected president. She is a home economics student with high scholastic standing and has been active in Glee Club work behind the scenes as well as in dramatics. Since her initiation two years ago, the efficiency of her work in the chapter has been outstanding, particularly in the position of corresponding secretary.

PLEGDED: January 8, 1938, Pearl Barker; January 30, 1938, Elspeth McLenaghan.

The University celebrated its fifty-fifth annual Founders' Day on February 22. The twenty-eighth annual Carney Song Contest was held the same evening and was won by the junior class. However, three of the most musically inclined girls in the chapter were quarantined for the mumps for four weeks in the house. One of them, Cheryl Rodger, would have been the sophomore accompanist.

President and Mrs. West and the new patrons and patronesses were entertained at dinner on March 13.

Marie Cray and Judy Jacobson were guests at Manitoba A's spring formal February 28.

The II B Φ Founders' Day Banquet, with Anne Bethel, alumna, in charge, was held April 27 in the Hotel Ryan. The II B Φ coat of arms, painted in gold on wine satin, was used for the first time as the chief decoration. Place cards of golden arrows were used and wine carnations were placed in bowls as centerpieces, with wine and blue candles at each end of the tables.

Cheryl Rodger was one of the nine students at the University with a straight A average.

Madelon Stephenson was appointed art director for the Playmaker plays. Jean Hoagland, Cleo Nelson, and Blanche Horton Stephenson were three of the puppeteers in the recent puppet shows put on by Z Φ H.

Panhellenic and the Interfraternity council are collaborating on a booklet containing cuts of the various sororities and fraternities, University buildings; and articles showing the importance of fraternity and sorority organizations on the campus, explaining their social, cultural, and academic significance in university life.

II B Φ was the first sorority on the campus to invite non-fraternity men to open house.

Ruth Davies, chapter president, has been elected delegate to Convention. Ruth is very active in campus affairs and in the Fraternity. She is treasurer of the Women's League Board, member of the Student Board of Publications, and is continually thinking up new ideas for the chapter. She is also a member of the Dean's Advisory Council, a very influential group on the campus.

GRADUATED: Cleo Nelson, Crookston, Minn.; Marie Cray, Lewiston, Idaho; Claire Stromberg, Langdon; Grace Johnson, Williston; Adeline Aas, New Rockford; Betty Willtrout, Oslo, Minn.; Alice Paige, Bernadine Mahowald, Grand Forks; Catherine Davies, Minot.

During the last week in January an informal luncheon was held at the chapter house for girls going through rushing during winter quarter.

In order to stimulate interest in the history and development of II B Φ the alumnae members have started a series of discussions—Know Your Fraternity. Eunice Chapin gave the first talk.

February 18 the annual Snowball Formal was given by the chapter. The walls of the chapter room and dining-room were draped with blue and silver curtains, spangled with glittering stars. Cotton snowballs and confetti added to the gaiety of the occasion, while ice-cream snowballs, cookies and coffee were served as refreshments.

Minnesota A won the cup for first place in the Panhellenic song-fest by singing "The Chain of Pi Beta Phi," and Ruth Ellison's original arrangement of the "Tribute."

On March 7 the traditional Panhellenic dinner was given in the Minnesota Union for members of all women's fraternities on the campus. Miss Anne Dudley Blitz, Dean of Women, gave a short inspirational talk on the aims of fraternity life. There were also skits and several musical numbers.

II B Φ was well represented in the Junior Ball line-up by Frances Healy in fourth place and Marjorie Cummins in eighth. Previous years the line-up positions were gained through political connection, but this year a new merit system has been established whereby the positions are filled by those of high scholarship who are most outstanding in activities. Frances Healy has also been awarded the activity locket by Minnesota A.

Founders' Day was celebrated as usual on April 28, with the two alumnae clubs, of Minneapolis and St. Paul, meeting the active chapter for a formal dinner. Both the alumnae and the actives gave very clever skits for entertainment.

Ann Gifford has been selected by the chapter as Convention delegate, and Jean Oisted will be the alternate delegate.

INITIATED, February 24, 1938: Margaret Bridger, Richland; Florence Fimmen, New York, N.Y.; Bertha Giddens, Carolyn Hall, Marjorie Smith, Mt. Pleasant.

The Advisory Board gave a dinner for the active chapter and pledges when five new girls were initiated. The dinner preceded initiation services, which were held on February 24. A number of alumnae were present for the service.

Iowa A held open house for the faculty and members of the fraternities and other sororities on the campus including the non-fraternity men and women at the fraternity rooms on February 6.

The annual health program, which is a joint meeting of the alumnae club and active chapter, was held on March 4. Mrs. Engberg, Dean of Women at Iowa Wesleyan, gave a very interesting talk on "Mental Health."

The Founders' Day program was celebrated in the usual manner. This occasion was to honor the Founders as well as to honor those of this chapter who have been Pi Phi for fifty years or over. A dinner was held at the Brazelton Hotel for the alumnae club, active chapter and pledges. A special program was presented honoring this occasion.

The Dramatics Department is giving the play, "Ladies of the Jury," in which Margaret Bridger, Bertha Giddens, and Harriet Tade have important parts.

The chapter is planning to have a mothers' tea sometime soon. The Spring formal party is being planned for May 16.

President Earl E. Harper has returned from California where he was on a two-months' business trip for the college. Religious Emphasis week was held February 7 to 11 with Doctor James Chubb delivering inspirational lectures on campus religion to capacity crowds throughout the entire week.

Members of the five national fraternities on the campus met together for a formal Panhellenic banquet, February 14. The highlight of this dinner was a talk on "Outstanding Fraternity Women" given by Professor Nina Goltry of Ø T.

The second semester of the college year has proved very successful for the chapter. At the annual Miniature Orpheum the ten college beauties were announced, four of whom were II B Φs: Veda Smith, Mary Jane Carter, Mary Jane Steves, and Persis George. The beauty queen is to be selected from the ten beauties by Rosemary and Priscilla Lane and is to be announced at the Beauty Ball to be held soon.

The four representative men and four representative women elected by popular campus vote were also announced at the Miniature Orpheum. Mildred Severs and Charlotte Schrier were selected as two of the representative women.

II B Φ and Λ T Ω won trophies for the cleverest and most original skits given at the Miniature Orpheum.

The chapter has maintained its high scholastic standing for the past semester with Virginia Wheelock receiving the highest grades of the freshman class.

Charlotte Schrier and Edwina Gause are busy debating in state and national tournaments. Marjorie Heaton was elected vice president of Zetelethian literary society with three other members on the cabinet. Eileen Brewer has been elected delegate to the national convention of M Φ F.

music sorority, Helen Hamilton and Mary Eleanor McKee are members of the Zenith staff.

With signs of spring in the air, some redecorating is being done in the chapter house.

Initiation was held March 5, with eleven pledges initiated. Elizabeth Addington was elected representative pledge and Virginia Wheelock was awarded a box of $\Pi B \Phi$ stationery for having the highest scholarship of any of the pledges. Four $\Pi B \Phi$ daughters were initiated and their mothers were present to see the initiation. Twenty-two alumnae attended the dinner held after initiation.

Anna Karr Schuck, Lois Karr, and Catherine Carpenter Karr attended the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Karr, held February 21.

Evelyn Faucett has been elected delegate to represent the chapter at the Convention this summer. Evelyn is active in W.A.A. and Y.W.C.A. Veda Smith has been elected alternate.

The alumnae and actives celebrated Founders' Day with a beautiful candle-lighting service at the chapter house. Some of the active girls gave a short play, "Memories," in which one of the founders recalls her part in the founding of $\Pi B \Phi$.

Since the last ARROW letter some interesting things have happened on the University of Iowa campus. In February, a Vocational Guidance Conference, sponsored by the University's Women Association was held for two days. Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse, from Connecticut College for Women, was the leader, and helped to make a successful conference. This is the first time that anything of this sort has been presented on this campus. To increase the usefulness of the Memorial Union to the student body, a new room has been created; called the music room. In this room there is an adequate library of records, a phonograph, and a radio. It is to be used exclusively by those students who wish to enjoy the music found therein. Recently a new French phonetics laboratory has been constructed, the like of which there are few in the United States.

Many girls in the chapter have been and are active in campus activities. Some of them are as follows: Jane Norman, president of Badminton Club; Genevieve Campbell writes and gives her own skits over radio station, WSUI, University broadcasting station; Eulalia Klingbeil was a member of the committee which sponsored the Vocational Guidance Conference; Helen McIntosh was a member of the Fireside Conference Committee; Madge Jones served as a member of the University Sing committee and was chairman of the Smarty Party committee; Lavanda Carr acted as a member of Smarty Party committee; Jean Allen is a member of the University chorus; Annabelle Anderson, Martha Lois Koch, Catharine Niles, Lillian Locher, Patricia McCarthy and Jane Gotch were appointed to the Hawkeye staff. Edith Leahy has been selected as delegate to the $\Pi B \Phi$ Convention, with Helen Ries as alternate.

The senior farewell ceremony was held for Marian Hurst who was graduated in February. Iowa Z has been participating in the fireside chats sponsored by Y.W.C.A. This provides that a faculty member have dinner with the chapter every Wednesday night and conduct a round-table discussion afterward.

Founders' Day was celebrated April 28 at the Memorial Union. Mrs. Nyle Jones resigned her position as financial secretary of the Alumnae Club, so the program of the Founders' Day was in appreciation of all that she has done for the chapter in building and managing the chapter house. Mrs. Jones has done this work thoroughly and well for fifteen years; both the active and alumnae chapters regret her resignation, and to show their appreciation they presented her with a gift.

GRADUATED, January 31, 1938: Ruth Van Slyke, Aberdeen; Helen Fox, Red Oak, Iowa.

A very lovely banquet was held at the Lincoln Hotel following initiation. The alumnae presented a most interesting program which included the singing of the "Loving Cup" song. Two of the initiates received special awards from the active chapter at the banquet. Betty McGeachin was awarded a recognition arrow set with a diamond for having the highest scholastic average for the semester among the pledge class; Betty Roach was awarded a pearl badge for having the greatest number of activity points in the class. On Founders' Day a formal dinner was held at the chapter house, the new initiates being in charge of the program.

Mrs. Webster paid an unofficial visit February 23 and 24. The formal party on February 19 was considered one of the most successful of the year. Many of the girls had private dinner parties beforehand.

There have been few recent campus elections for activity positions. However, Virginia Geister is now managing editor of the Augwan, the campus humor magazine. Rita Alger is taking part in a new play being put on by the Studio Theater dramatic group, and Ruth Van Slyke and Grace Elizabeth Hill have had leading parts in a series of radio broadcasts put on by the University. Lucretia Greene and Jean Liebendorfer have places in the Lincoln Cathedral Choir, which by the way, is about to become a part of the University.

Mary Jane Wilson is to be our delegate to Convention this summer. She is a junior in school and lives in Lincoln. The alternate, Margaret Dickerson, is a sophomore from Holdrege. Kansas A pledged only one girl between semesters this year. There are no set rules for mid-term rushing at the University of Kansas, and the chapter held no special functions at this time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins gave a home for nurses to the University of Kansas. It has been completed just recently. A W.S.G. Carnival was held February 26 in which all the sororities on the campus participated. Kansas University won the Big-Six basketball championship for 1938.

In the March election Mary Lou Borders and Elizabeth Barclay won positions on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Denny Lemoine was chosen "Hobo Queen" on the annual Hobo Day, preceding the Homecoming football game. Kansas A won prizes for its homecoming decorations at the chapter house, and also for its homecoming float. Jane Coates had a part in "Spring Dance," a play given by the dramatics department. She also wrote an original play which was broadcast over radio station KFKU. Betty Lou MacFarland played a rôle in "Winterset," produced by the dramatics department. Jane Coates was dance manager of a musical comedy "Spring Swing." Maxine Miller, Mary Lou Borders, and Delos Woods were in the production, and Denny Lemoine and Mary Jane McCoy were members of the production staff.

Peggy Anne Landon was elected vice-president of the Intercollegiate Republican Club for Kansas.

Margaret Mullen received $\Phi K \Phi$ recognition.

June Fleming was selected beauty queen by George Petty, and presided over the Royal Purple Beauty Ball. June Fleming and Marianna Kistler were in Fashions, presented by the Manhattan Theatre. June had the lead.

The chapter entertained the varsity football lettermen with its annual football banquet. The dining room was decorated with balloons and confetti. The dinner was followed by two hours of dancing.

The chapter and the Manhattan alumnae club celebrated Founders' Day together, with an arrow banquet at the Wareham Hotel. The pledges entertained with a stunt, followed by short snappy talks by the actives and alumnae. Marianna Kistler was awarded the scholarship cup given to the freshman with the highest grade average. The decorations for the banquet carried out the $\Pi B \Phi$ color scheme.

INITIATED, January 22, 1938: Corabelle Chadbourne, Jo Anne Divisek, Mardell Fankell, Margaret Fickel, Shirley Keybold, Betty Jane Smith, Helen Thompson, and Maxine Tunnell of Denver; Mary Ellen Ball of Loveland; Harriette Conlin of Omaha, Neb.; Nancy Ellzey of Roswell, N.M.; Charlotte Gustavson and Betty Hutchinson of Boulder; Elise Montandon of Brighton; and Phyllis Van Druif of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

The Monday following initiation, the new chapter officers were installed by the retiring President, Mary Sue Thompson. Jeanette Humphrey is the new President with Marion Hackstaff the Vice-President. Harriot McSween the Recording Secretary, Helen Collins the Corresponding Secretary, Evalyn Prouty the Treasurer, Marjorie Drake the Rush Captain, and Catherine Cooper the Pledge Supervisor.

Marion Hackstaff was recently elected vice-president of the Associated Women Students. Also, Nancy Ellzey was elected Secretary, and Evalyn Prouty was elected Chairman of the Social Committee of the A.W.S. The outcome of this election gives $\Pi B \Phi$ three members on Senate. Ruth Benwell and Marion Hackstaff will journey to Pullman, Wash., to attend the A.W.S. Convention which will be held during the second week of April. Both Marion and Ruth have been chosen to be in the Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Evalyn Prouty and Harriot McSween were recently initiated into $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, the honorary art organization on this campus. Marian Epperson was initiated into $\Sigma \Pi$, the honorary chemistry organization. Maxine Tunnell, a pledge this year, was initiated into $\Sigma \Lambda \Gamma$, the honorary music society. Among those chosen to aid in making plans for Colorado U. Day were Jeanette Humphrey, Evalyn Prouty, and Nancy Ellzey. The Women's Athletic Association initiated Marjorie Morris, Marjorie Drake, Evalyn Prouty, and Betty Hutchinson. Patricia Egan was chosen to head the Sophomore Prom Committee. Jean Quaintance had a comedy lead in the Rhythm Circus. During the past quarter, Julia Ann Caldwell has had major parts in several Little Theatre plays.

The chapter entertained at a Circus Dance for their winter formal. The whole dance was carried out in the spirit of a real circus with a fortune-teller, popcorn, peanuts, and soda pop supplied for everyone to enjoy. The room was cleverly decorated with huge brilliantly colored cardboard beasts behind black crepe paper bars placed at intervals around the walls. Large bunches of balloons suspended from the ceiling, confetti, and serpentine supplied the rest of the decoration. Much of the time was spent at the Dart and Bingo games where small, inexpensive prizes were given. A great part of the fun was attributed to the fact that everyone who attended represented a circus performer, and it was not strange to see hula dancers, tight-rope walkers, and clowns represented by the chaperons as well as the $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ girls and their guests.

The chapter unanimously elected Marjorie Drake, the Rush Captain, to represent the chapter at Convention. Jeanette Humphrey, President, was unanimously elected to be the alternate.

The chapter has been working on the skit for the Women's League Vaudeville which will be given after the Easter holidays. The theme of the skit is the presentation of the history of "swing" from the days of Tarzan, through the days of grandmother's time down to the present.

PLEGDED: Janet Smith, Polly White, Margaret Parsons, Denver, Colo.; Lorraine Lavington, Flagler, Colo.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Marjorie Drake, College 890 11th St., Boulder, Summer: 615 E. 19th Ave., Boulder.

Pledge Day, September 19, 1937

INITIATED, January 15, 1938: Mildred Bailey, Norma Burkhardt, Betty Jane Doolittle, Betty Forney, Ruth Hansen, Rose Howard, Betty McConaty, Betty Ann McNutt, Nancy Morgan, Virginia Sargent, Eileen Pettit, Shirley Shepherd, and Marcia Jane Stallmann of Denver; Anne Watson of Edgewater; Mary Elizabeth Ellis of Fort Collins; Merle Hollinshead of Littleton; Margaret Smith, Mildred Taylor, and Katherine Thatcher of Pueblo; and Rosalie Spelts of Sterling.

Colorado B observed Founders' Day, April 28, with a luncheon which was attended also by Colorado A and members of the Denver $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ Alumnae Club. Short skits depicting the founding of the Fraternity were presented by each of the active chapters and speeches were given by several of the prominent alumnae. The program was closed by group singing of $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ songs.

"Better Music Week" recently took its place on the activity calendar of Colorado B. The chapter conceived the idea of devoting one week of intensive work to the improvement of group singing and the learning of new fraternity songs. Under the direction of Helen Monismith, newly-appointed song leader, the week of February 27 to March 6 brought favorable as well as harmonic results.

Selected to have their pictures included in the Beauty Section of the Kynewisbok, University of Denver yearbook, were two $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ s: Louise Simon and Eileen Bowman, president of Colorado B.

Wyoming A sent the chapter a gracious invitation to spend the week-end with them after the University of Wyoming vs. University of Denver basketball game, February 26, at Laramie, Wyoming. The members of Colorado B who made the trip reported that they enjoyed so much meeting the Wyoming A $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ s and that they had been entertained beautifully.

The Associated Women Students' banquet, held February 7, was centered about the theme of "Mining in the West." Programs were made of hammered gold paper and the after dinner speeches carried a challenge of higher education under such titles as "Staking a Claim," "Striking the Vein," and "Assaying the Findings." $\Pi \Phi \Phi$ names found on the banquet committee were: Betty Arnold, Nadine Bancroft, Lois Braun, and Jeanne Brown.

The Associated Women Students' Dance is traditionally a "turn-about" affair. The men receive corsages made up of radishes, onions, and carrot greens and the girls are presented, early in the evening, with talcum powder cans, large combs, and brushes to carry throughout the dance as best they are able. The dance, held March 5 this year and centered about a St. Patrick's Day theme, was well attended by the chapter.

The Panhellenic Dance, January 22, proved to be the best attended dance of the year, and, according to many, the best dance that the organization has ever given. Colorado B was especially interested in the dance this year as Lois Braun, $\Pi \Phi \Phi$, is Panhellenic president.

Athletics play an important part in the lives of many Colorado B members. Shirley Carter was elected captain of the University of Denver basketball team of which Louise Simon is also a member.

$\Phi \Gamma \Lambda$, commerce honorary fraternity, elected Eileen Pettit, $\Pi \Phi \Phi$, president of the pledge class, and pledged Betty McConaty, also a Colorado B, $\Phi \Sigma \Gamma$, honorary romance language fraternity, initiated Martha Anne Lee, Mary Elizabeth Ellis, Colorado B, was recently elected secretary of the Y.W.C.A.

Mareta Lucas was speaker for the Week of Student Thought held annually on the University of Denver campus.

Of course, every Colorado B member wants to attend Convention and most of the thoughts and conversations are centered about Asheville, North Carolina, at present.

INITIATED, January 8, 1938: Luwana Bennett, Dae LeBar, Janet Portz.

Wyoming A celebrated Founders' Day with the Laramie Alumnae. The annual cooky-shine was held. The alumnae quartet and the chapter quartet were responsible for the music and the pledge group for a stunt.

February 14, 1938, the Laramie Alumnae Club entertained Jane Beck Johnson at the Wyoming A chapter house. Mrs. Johnson is wife of the Ambassador to China. A buffet supper was served to one hundred people, including pledges, actives, and alumnae of $\Pi \Phi \Phi$. Mrs. Johnson told of many interesting experiences with the Chinese people.

Margaret Lee was chosen Honorary Cadet Major for 1938.

Wyoming A's Arrow Quartet, composed of Linea Irene, Bette Cordiner, Patricia Sullivan, and Olive Williams, sang at the State Press Convention Banquet in February.

Linea Irene took two firsts in figure skating at the University-sponsored and community-sponsored carnivals. Patricia Sullivan also took two firsts in single competition and couple racing.

Wyoming A placed second in the basketball tournament. Eva Hastings, Luwana Bennett, and Lois Downing were chosen for the varsity team, which played in Denver.

Patricia Sullivan will be the chapter delegate to Convention. She is an outstanding sophomore and is very active in campus affairs. Last spring she was voted the Most Popular Girl in school. She was also an officer of her freshman class. She received Mortar Board recognition. This year she is sophomore senate representative, business manager of the Student Directory, assistant business manager of the Branding Iron, a weekly publication, and a member of Spurs.

PLEGDED: Edna Anderson, Belle Fourche, S.D.; Meredith Ankey, Y.W.C.A., Cheyenne; Gwendolyn Breitenstein, Rawlins; Bette Cordiner, Dorothy Costin, Evelyn Davis, Laramie; Jane Devine, Cheyenne; Eva Hastings, Torrington; Edna Hill, Marguerite Hill, Whitehall, N.Y.; Sally Hill, Laramie; Dee Hoffman, Belle Fourche, S.D.; Helen Hutchinson, Cheyenne; Francis Jackson, Newcastle; Mary Martha Moreland, Pasadena, Calif.; Jeanne Newton, Cody; Nadine Rabe, Scottsbluff, Neb.; Charlotte Spurlock, Douglas; Katherine Symons, Cheyenne; LaNez Welsh, Rawlins.

After initiation, the old members gave a surprise dinner party for the newly initiated members. Each "big sister" took her "little sister" to dinner for the last time.

One of the largest Founders' Day banquets ever observed by Oklahoma A was celebrated April 28. Not only were the members and pledges of this chapter present, but also the alumnae clubs from Norman and Oklahoma City joined with the chapter to make it a gala occasion. The high spot of the evening was drinking out of the Balfour Cup while singing the loving cup song.

Oklahoma A was particularly fortunate in being visited by the Grand President of $\Pi B \Phi$, Miss Amy Burnham Onken, on April 8 and 9. The chapter felt highly honored to have entertained so important a personage. On her arrival she was greeted by a true cooky-shine. During the interim of her short visit she was entertained by a tea given by the chapter, at which she met all the faculty members and dignitaries of the campus, and by a dinner at which there were only $\Pi B \Phi$ s present. Her visit was most inspiring to the chapter, and the members and pledges alike were entranced by her personality.

The quota system for the number of members and pledges living in a house, has been under discussion by Panhellenic council on this campus. The larger fraternities will be allowed about fifty-five members and pledges together. The plan has been accepted with enthusiasm by all the fraternities represented.

PLEGGED: Constance Cleary, Ponca City.

Pledge Day, September 11, 1937

The entire campus is very happy to see the construction work start on three new buildings. A new field house, biology, and engineering buildings will greatly increase our facilities. The grounds are also being landscaped and a very beautiful campus is expected by spring.

To get all the girls better acquainted, the W.S.G.A. sponsored a matinee tea Sunday afternoon, February 6, in the parlors of Murray Hall. This was a lovely tea and the program was furnished by girls from all over the campus. The presidents of all sororities and women's campus organizations were in the receiving hall.

A series of dinners are being given for the faculty members by $\Pi B \Phi$. The chapter hopes that by doing this all may know the professors on the campus and develop better relations and closer friendships between professors and students.

Intersorority basketball started March 7. The team has a very good chance to win this year.

Practice for the Varsity Revue, all campus musical comedy, has been started. Both pledges and members are working on this.

The new officers elected for the spring term are as follows: Rebecca Jane Nichols, president; Betty Slocombe, vice-president; Marian Evans, recording secretary; Mary Gertrude Gray, corresponding secretary; Aleen Plumer, treasurer; and Jo Leftwich, historian.

Miriam Thompson and Phyllis Barnes are both taking part in plays given by Players Club. The Spring Terpsichorean festival has been started and several of the girls are taking part in this.

Women's Panhellenic annual spring formal was held February 18, at Fiscus Hall.

The pledges entertained the active members at dinner February 8 at the College Shop. All appointments were carried out in wine and blue and the flowers were wine carnations.

Robertellen Corbin has been recently elected treasurer of Players Club. Aleen Plumer was initiated into $E \Pi$, honorary commercial fraternity for girls. Betty Slocombe was elected by popular vote of the campus as one of the sixteen outstanding students on the campus.

Thursday, February 24, girls from Stillwater High School were entertained at a formal rush dinner. At the beginning of the spring semester a formal rush dinner was given.

PLEGGED: Betty Crabb, Norman; Jeanne Stangle, Oklahoma City; Betty Jayne Hatfield, Nowata; and Helen Ryan, Douglas, Wyoming.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Helen Louise Pulver, College and Summer: 214 Main, Stillwater, Okla.

ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

INITIATED, February 22, 1938: Milrene Arnold, Bette Bassett, Nancy Ferguson, Frances Guthrie, Jane Jones, Mary Ruth Murphy, Alice Peninger, Mary Prewitt, Louise Seamster, Marilou Smith, Martha Tompkins, Rosemary Wetzel, and Ethel Betty Williams.

Arkansas A began working at the first of the year for a high scholastic record. When the semester ended, this chapter led the entire campus with a 2.76. The initiates made a 3, and the pledges a 2.6+. This is the first time that $\Pi B \Phi$ has been first on the campus for several years. Naturally the chapter is striving to keep this high record.

Mary Prewitt, the pledge president, was selected as model pledge. She received an onyx ring with the crest on it as her reward. Mary Ruth Murphy was awarded a recognition arrow with a diamond for making the highest grade point of the pledges which was a 5.8.

$\Pi B \Phi$ s at Arkansas were prominent in politics in the spring election. Alice Henry, candidate for vice-president of the student body, was elected this spring by a large majority.

In March the Panhellenic Council, of which organization $\Pi B \Phi$ president Betty Barnes is also the president, had its annual vice-versa dance with Fletcher Henderson and his orchestra furnishing the music.

One of the celebrities presented by the University this year was Nino Martini. After his concert, the national music sorority, $\Sigma A I$, of which many $\Pi B \Phi$ s are members, held a reception for him at the Fayetteville Country Club.

Miss Scivally, Kappa Province President, visited Arkansas A in April and everyone enjoyed her stay immensely.

From $\Pi B \Phi$ was chosen the greatest number of pledges for Swastika, the society of outstanding women on the campus. Those selected and initiated this spring were: Dorothy Jones, Victry Burnett, Rita Mark and Ethel Betty Williams. Anne Du Bard, Pi Phi, president of this organization and also Campus Queen attended the annual Texas Round-Up in April to represent the University of Arkansas.

As its candidate for the Amy B. Onken Award, Arkansas A nominated its president Betty Barnes. She has been very outstanding on the campus throughout her four years at college. She was Business Manager of the Traveler, the University bi-weekly newspaper; she was also chosen "Miss Arkansas Traveler." She was elected President of Panhellenic; a member of Who's Who, of Guidon, the women's Military Unit, and of Octagon which is a society composed of the eight most outstanding senior women on the campus. The requirements for membership in this honorary group are: a high grade average and distinct characteristics of leadership. She is also very active in the Women's League and the Y.W.C.A.

During the last weeks of school several evening dinner parties were held for the purpose of rushing the town girls who are planning to attend the University next fall.

Arkansas A's delegate to Convention in June, is Mary Alice Rowell. Her home is in El Dorado, Arkansas, and she is a transfer from Randolph-Macon. Throughout her three years of college she has maintained an exceptionally high grade point. Mary Alice is an outstanding girl and is Pledge Supervisor. During this year she was chosen for membership in A T, national honorary English Society and Deutscher Verein, the German Club. She is also an active member in the Women's League and the Y.W.C.A.

Mary Alice's originality and artistic ability have made her an invaluable member of Arkansas A.

The formal held May 21 will conclude the spring activities.

On February 3 the following girls were pledged after a successful mid-term rush week: Marian Kane, Ft. Smith, Arkansas; Robbie Kimmerer, Magnolia, Arkansas; Mary Tyson, Rolla, Missouri; and Emma Taylor, Stuart, Florida.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Victry Burnett, College: Pi Beta Phi House, Fayetteville. Summer, De Witt, Arkansas.

ELIZABETH ANN PASTON

TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Chartered, February 19, 1902

Pledge Day, September 30, 1937

INITIATED, March 6, 1938: Emily Miller, Austin; Helen Robinson, Austin; Betsy Russell, Bonham; Sue Spivey, Bonham; Sara Holmes, Corsicana; Anna Mary Pierce, Corsicana; Katherine Hamilton, Dallas; Margaret Leachman, Dallas; Florence Thompson, Dallas; Mary Ann Scales, Del Rio; Jeanne John, Galveston; Margaret May Burchard, Gonzales; Dorothy Ball, Houston; Phyllis Childs, Houston; Jeanette Russell, Houston; Susan Walker, Leander; Cassie Mae Springfield, Mercedes; Doris McReynolds, Port Arthur; Margaret Bachtel, San Antonio; Barbara Browne, San Antonio; Mildred Caldwell, San Antonio; Edith Cockran, San Antonio; Betty Jameson, San Antonio; Velma Gene Moore, Vernon; Edna Maude Aynsworth Crosthwait (Mrs. R. W.), Waco; Margaret Staniforth, Wichita Falls; Mary Henry, Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Texas A was happy to start off the second semester with the affiliation of three transfers, Peggy Campbell, Caroline Cheeves, and Frances Dille.

Texas A's first visitor in the new house on March 1, 2, 3 was Miss Gladys Scivally, President of Kappa Province. The chapter enjoyed and appreciated her three day visit. There was given in her honor an open house where were present the Austin alumnae and their husbands.

Carolyn Russell and Evelyn Willie have been elected to $\Pi A \Theta$, an honorary education fraternity. Pierian Literary Society elected Jane Green to membership. Susan Walker, a new initiate, made $A A \Delta$ an honorary freshman fraternity.

Texas A's delegates to national Convention are two Dallas girls, Emily Marshall and Adele Neelev. Emily was rush captain last year, and is a member of Ashbel Literary Society. She was a Bluebonnet Belle in 1937. Adele is rush captain this year, a member of Orange Jackets, and a Bluebonnet Belle nominee.

On February 19, 1902, Texas A was founded and on February 19 this year a tea was held in the new house honoring seven of the original charter members of this chapter. This party was the first entertainment to be given in Texas A's new house.

April was a busy month for Texas A. Heading the list of important engagements was Miss Amy B. Onken's visit on April 3 and 4. A tea was given in her honor to which the University faculty was invited. On April 4 the Founders' Day banquet was held in the new house. The toastmistress was Lorna Hume, fall president of this chapter. Miss Onken and Mrs. Lutzer Stark were guests of honor.

Texas Round-Up, which is the most important social activity of the year, brought many alumnae to the new $\Pi B \Phi$ house. Elva Johnson was the chapter's nominee for Sweetheart of Texas. On April 21 Ann Harley reigned as Queen at the Coronation of the Battle of Flowers in San Antonio. Texas A had about eight girls as Duchesses in the Coronation parade. In March Ann Cartwright represented the University of Texas at the Galveston Mardi Gras.

Three girls selected as the most outstanding pledges were Jeanette Russell, Susan Walker, and Margaret Bachtel.

PLEGDED, February 11, 1938: Adele Grimes and Betty Heaton.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Adele Neely, College: Scottish Rite Dormitory, Austin. Summer: 4311 Hall, Dallas, Texas.

INITIATED: Ruth Angus, Ruth Collins, Gladys Daly, Elizabeth DeWitt, Sylvia DeWitt, Susan Diggie, Jean

Gray, Helen Jones, Ruth O'Donnell, Jean Rowland, Emily Jane Seay, Mary Nell Sharp, Betty Thompson, Houston Trippe, Jeanne Wallace, Margaret Alice Ward, Ethyleen Wright, Ruth Wynne.

Texas B had the pleasure of initiating eighteen girls the third week of March. After the initiation service, a banquet honoring the new initiates was held at the Dallas Woman's Club. The feature of the evening was a skit in which the new initiates impersonated the members.

Texas B observed Founders' Day early this year, in order that Miss Onken might be present. The theme of the banquet was "Magazines," and Time Magazine was present in the person of Mrs. J. M. Clayton, the only I.C. in the Dallas Alumnae Club. Mrs. Dora Foster, recipient of last year's Zonta Club award for outstanding civic service, acted as toastmistress, and a large number of the alumnae joined with the active chapter in the celebration. Miss Onken's presence made it a very inspiring occasion.

The chapter delegate to Convention will be Virginia Austin, rush captain and Panhellenic delegate of Texas B. Virginia will be accompanied to Convention by at least ten other Texas B members.

Texas B girls have been distinguishing themselves in every activity. Samuella Wynne was elected by the Student Council to be the Sweetheart of S.M.U. at the University of Texas Round-Up. Samuella wrote several songs for the show presented by Script and Score, campus musical comedy organization. Mary Ann Potts won first place in the Women's extemporaneous speaking contest in the Rocky Mountain Speech Conference. Susan Diggie and Houston Trippe were selected among the "Ten Cutest Freshmen." Carol Fritz and Gene Higginbotham were elected to Square, honorary organization for the five outstanding senior girls.

The chapter is happy to welcome three new affiliated members. The new affiliates are Catherine Couch from Virginia A, Willois Lacy from Virginia A, and Elizabeth Sharp from Texas A, and Elizabeth Sharp from Texas A.

At mid-term rush season, Texas B filled its quota by pledging four girls.

PLEGDED: Ouida January, Adell Ladue, and Mary Nell Sharp, Dallas; and Jean Wallace, Springfield, Missouri.

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE

INITIATED, March 3, 1938: Nnette Denegre, Elizabeth Dixon, Fairfax Foster, Eleanor Klugh, Minnie Maude May, Mary Nell Porter, Adelaide Rickert, Dorothy Shapard.

All of Newcomb's energy and interest has suddenly become focused upon one outstanding project—the newly proposed Student Center. Tulane and Newcomb have long felt the need for such a building and a great drive is being made to secure funds for its construction. Students have volunteered and are, en masse, tackling every member of the alumni, and dragging from them every possible cent. So true is the spirit and so sincere the co-operation that failure seems an impossibility. The Glee Club has added another feather to its cap by being selected to perform in St. Louis at the National Music Education Convention.

Louisiana A has inaugurated several new ideas which promote $\Pi B \Phi$ spirit and also are fun for its members. The whole chapter, including actives and pledges, meets every other Sunday night for supper at the house. The first was very successful. A house party was given at Pass Christian (Miss.) on the week-end of March 26. Its great success was almost inevitable. The chapter will always recall that week-end as one of the most pleasant times in college. March 12 stands out in the annals of Louisiana A through the Barn Dance, given for the benefit of the Settlement School at Gatlinburg.

Miss Gladys Scivally, province president, paid the chapter a most delightful visit, arriving March 9. The officers enjoyed conferences with her that day, and in the evening a tea was given for her by the alumnae. Patronesses, mothers of the members, were also present, as well as actives and pledges.

The chapter observed Founders' Day with the traditional banquet. Louisiana B joined Louisiana A in celebration. It was a great occasion. Skits were enacted by the actives, pledges, and alumnae, and Louisiana B joined in the fun, feeling immediately at home.

Patricia Woodward, new chapter president, was elected convention delegate. She is a girl of outstanding ability, having won a place of distinction in the scholastic as well as the activity field. Louisiana A is proud to count her among its members. Her more important offices include recording secretary of the Student Body and president of the Junior Class.

Louisiana A feels that this year has been one of progress in the fraternity. It is our hope to continue in this direction with success.

INITIATED, March 11, 1938: Melba Combs, El Dorado, Ark.; Natalie Lyons, Baton Rouge; Antoinette Mazzyk, Shreveport; Marian Moody, Little Rock, Ark.; Genevieve Munson, Houma; Royal Leigh Tucker, Brunswick, Ga.; Virginia Webb, Ottumwa, Iowa; Helen Margaret Yerger, Tallulah.

Π B Φ held its first formal of the year February 18. The arrow was the main feature in decorations, and blue and amber lights added softness in color.

Louisiana B was honored with a visit from Miss Gladys Scivally, Kappa Province President, in March. A tea, given in her honor, was an opportunity for her to meet the members of other fraternities. An informal dinner with the actives and pledges was enjoyable.

Genevieve Munson recently acted in the major production, "The First Lady," which proved quite a success.

Jean Soutar, a pledge, took part in the opera, "La Traviata," which was presented in March.

The "Fraternity Sing," an annual event, will take place in May. Each fraternity contributes its musical talent to the program, and three prizes are to be awarded.

The Women's Panhellenic banquet was held in February. Girls with the highest averages from each fraternity were given honorable mention. Susie B. Speed made the highest average for Π B Φ.

The Bengal Battle, a contest between two teams of artists—one classical, the other swing—was an outstanding feature of the year. A girl from each fraternity was selected to participate in the style show, an added attraction on the program. Mary La Moyné, a pledge, represented Π B Φ.

The University has had some very distinguished guests on the campus this year. John Steuart Curry, the famous American artist, visited the campus and spoke on his paintings. Professor Emile Lauvrière, visiting professor from France, gave a series of lectures on the romance languages. Dr. Maurice Bigelow, Columbia University biologist, discussed education and marriage problems.

The University students will pick their own beauties for the yearbook this year. Each fraternity will select eight girls and popular voting of the student body will be held.

Active and alumnae members celebrated Founders' Day with a formal banquet in Highland Hall dining room.

Pledge Day, February 7

INITIATED, None since November 29, 1937.

The annual formal dance was held in the main dining-room of the Macdonald Hotel on February 2. Dean and Mrs. Alexander, who are leaving next year for the University of California, were the guests of honor. Spring flowers, and candles of wine and blue decorated the supper tables. Joe de Courcy and his orchestra supplied a varied program of dance music, including several of the Π B Φ songs.

Margaret Hutton again played a leading rôle in the presentation of the Philharmonic society. She received wide acclaim for her interpretation of Gianetta in "The Gondoliers." Several Π B Φs sang in the chorus.

The "Happy Journey," a play presented by the Dramatic Society of which Mary MacBeth is president, won first the Regional Festival at Edmonton, then the Provincial Dramatic Festival at Calgary. Sheila Morrison played the leading feminine rôle and won the trophy for the best actress. Muriel Pettigrew gave a very convincing performance of the ingenue. The play will leave for Winnipeg in May to compete in the Dominion Festival.

This year the Founders' Day banquet was held on March 22 at the Macdonald Hotel. It was combined with the Senior Farewell. Place cards and decorations were in wine and blue.

Two Alberta A girls are represented on the Student's Council. Muriel Pettigrew is secretary of the Literary Society, and Doris Gillespie is on the Women's Disciplinary Committee.

This year Convocation is to be held on May 13.

PLEGDED: Doris Gillespie, Edmonton, and Dorothy Menzies, Barrhead.

INITIATED, January 8, 1938: Mary Baxter, Rose Eagle, Bernice Howell, Corinne Harrington, Bozeman; Jeanne Stroup, and Jean West, Billings; Helen Sandvig, Great Falls.

Founders' Day was observed with a breakfast at the Baxter Hotel.

Once more the Montana State College basketball team wears the crown of the Rocky Mountain conference. The team went through the entire conference schedule undefeated, with the "all-conference" star, Ed Exum, breaking all previous records as high-scoring forward.

At the Military Ball, held each winter quarter, Katherine Border, Daphne Dell, and Margaret Seamans were chosen as R.O.T.C. Sponsors.

Mary Ann Flynn was one of the beauty queens selected at the annual Montanan Dance.

Mary Ellen Wiggenhorn is a new member of Φ K Φ. The Fireplace Room in Herrick Hall has been turned over to the students to be used as a student union room until definite arrangements have been made for the new Student Union Building.

"Saberettes," the R.O.T.C. Sponsors' organization, sponsored the publication of a courtesy book, entitled M.S.C. Postscriptis, written by Patricia Hart and illustrated by Margaret Austin. The booklet contains the latest information in regard to what to do, where to go, and how to act on all occasions.

Helen Hagstrom, Meri An Mather, and Margaret Smith are new initiates into Α Λ Δ, national scholastic honorary for freshman women.

Mary Ann Flynn and Patricia Bell are new members of Δ Φ Δ, national art honorary.

The annual Winter Formal was held February 4 at the Baxter Hotel.

Preparations for High School Week are now well under way. Betty Ross is High School Week Chairman this year. During High School Week, Montana State College will be host to all the high schools in the state. Each of the women's fraternities is hostess for one luncheon during the week. The feature attraction for this occasion is the Open House, at which time every department on the campus is on display, and following which is the Barbecue Banquet.

On April 11, 1938, Montana State College inaugurated its first president, Dr. A. L. Strand. Both Dr. and Mrs. Strand are Montana State College alumni. Dr. Strand received his B.S. degree here in 1917, his S.M. in 1925, and his Ph.D. in 1928 from Minnesota.

Hauck, freshman, 714 S. Adams St., Moscow, Idaho; Wilma Hjort, junior, 2005 Ellis Ave., Boise, Idaho; Betty Jo Jeppson, freshman, 914 8th Ave., Lewiston, Idaho; Bernice McCoy, freshman, Eke Apts., Moscow, Idaho; Dorothy McDonald, freshman, Salmon, Idaho; and Jeanette Roddy, freshman, St. Maries, Idaho.

Six of Idaho A's girls will graduate this June. Margaret Barton, will graduate with a B.S. degree in education; Mary Margaret Braxton, with a B.S. degree in pre-nursing; Kathryn Cleveland, with a B.S. in business; Margaret Mattes, with a B.A. in journalism; Phyllis Rand, with a B.S. in education; and Emy Lou Smith, with a B.S. in education.

The number of improvements on the University of Idaho's campus increases each semester. Since the beginning of the second semester, plans have been under way for the remodeling of the main dining room of the Student Union Building. The plans include additions such as a horseshoe-shaped counter and new booths, tables, and chairs. The plans also include a new manager for the dining rooms and a hostess who is in charge of the student union building social affairs.

The latest addition to the staff of the university's new infirmary is Dr. H. D. Cramer, a full-time physician, formerly examining physician in the men's student health service in hygiene at Stanford University.

A torch light parade, in which nearly 2500 students and fans participated, gave Idaho's basketball team an inspiring send-off on its trip to Oregon at the end of a very successful basketball season.

After the Spinster Skip, ladies' choice dance, sponsored by Mortar Board on February 22, the members of Idaho A entertained at a buffet supper for their guests.

Members of Idaho A were pleased to hear that Phyllis Rand was given the comic lead in the light opera, "The Mikado," which is to be presented by the University this spring. Four girls of Idaho A chapter are taking part in "The Seven Last Words," presented by the University Singers.

At the recent elections, Christine Nuckols, Spur, was chosen sophomore class secretary, Kathryn Cleveland is now president of $\Phi X \Theta$, national business honorary, due to the resignation of the former president.

Betty Jo Jeppson, freshman; Rachel Braxton, sophomore; Hester Gentry, junior; Wilma Hjort, junior; and June Viel, junior, were chosen for the class rifle teams of the university which consist of six members and two alternates on each team.

Betty Jo Jeppson and June Viel received bound copies of The Federalist, presented by Senator Borah to the ten students receiving the highest grades the first semester in American Government and American History.

Margaret Barton holds an editorial position, and Phyllis Rand heads the copy desk on the Gem of the Mountains, University of Idaho yearbook.

Idaho A chapter entertained Washington B chapter on Founders' Day.

A recent addition to the chapter house was an automatic, combination radio-phonograph, which provides welcome entertainment for dance exchanges and leisure hours.

INITIATED, January 22, 1938: Helen Burkheimer, Jean Coon, Eleanor Gagan, Patricia Phelps, Gwen Piggott, Jeanne Plath, Betty Polson, Elizabeth Ann Thompson, Jane Valentine, Seattle; Patricia Brown, Ogden, Utah; Emma Esther Hensel, Waterville; Mary McCarthy, Spokane; and Mary Thayer, Redlands, California.

The chapter was alive with activity during the Province Conference which was held in Seattle on April 30 and May 1. On Saturday, April 30, the Founders' Day banquet was celebrated at the Meany Hotel. The following day a tea was given to which the Seattle national officers of all the chapters on the campus were invited. It was a great event for the members of Washington Alpha, as everyone in the chapter was able to participate in all the activities of the Conference.

Winter quarter has not been uneventful for the $\Pi B \Phi$'s on the University of Washington campus. Louise Conner was awarded a scholarship for the most outstanding work in the music department. Dorothy Seamans was chairman of refreshments on the Junior Prom committee, and Audrey Hinkle was secretary of arrangements for the same committee. For the past year Gwen Stranquist has been social chairman of the Executive Board of Panhellenic. She was general chairman of the annual Panhellenic Pledge banquet held at the Edmund Meany Hotel. Phyllis Howard was appointed chairman of activities on the Executive Board of A.W.S. At the annual freshman dance, held at the Trianon Ballroom, Loretta O'Brien was the honored guest.

The University of Washington is building a Showboat on Lake Washington. The division of drama, which has become quite prominent on the campus, expects to present their plays in the new building within two or three months.

There were several parties during the winter quarter, but as usual there are many more planned for spring quarter. In January the Alumnae Club gave the chapter a birthday party at which they had a style show of the various periods of dress from 1900 up to the present day. On February 12, Washington A had a progressive luncheon which started at the chapter house and ended up at the home of one of the town girls. After the luncheon the girls played cards and games. The largest dance of the year was held at Inglewood Golf and Country Club in April. Each girl invited another couple, so altogether there were about 150 couples at the dance. The chapter formal will be held in May at the same place.

Hope Kimbrough, new chapter president, has been elected as chapter delegate to the Convention at Asheville.

Washington B was represented at the Lambda Province Convention in Seattle on April 29 and 30. All of these attending enjoyed the privilege of meeting Miss Onken.

Washington B can again report a successful year in activities. Lucile Ramsey and Sarah Schaldeman were recently initiated into Orchesis, which is putting on an extensive series of dance programs this spring. Phyllis O'Day, a senior member, is taking several solo parts. Phyllis was also chosen to compose and direct dances for the Pullman High School operetta. Mary Nelson was recently appointed on the ASSCW committee for Founders' Day. Marjorie Crane was appointed to the Dad's Day committee, and Barbara Jean Clark is serving on the High School Week-End Committee.

April 12 to 16 the Associated Women Students Presidents from all of the schools west of the Mississippi held their annual convention on this campus. April 28 to 30 delegates from the Women's Athletic Associations of the Pacific Coast schools convened here. Aimee Russell, Bernadine Shore and Barbara Jean Clark acted on committees for this convention.

The finishing points of construction are being made on the new women's gymnasium and it will soon be entirely completed. The new building is modern in every detail and includes plus the general class rooms and offices of the women's physical education department, a beautiful plunge, a game and recreation room, and rooms to serve as offices and meeting quarters for the major women's organizations on the campus. The Associated Women Students will have a large room suitable for teas, firesides and other social functions and gatherings.

Idaho A entertained our chapter at dinner in their chapter house at Moscow on Founders' Day. It has become an annual custom to alternate visits every Founders' Day between the two chapters as they are so closely located to one another. Both chapters thoroughly enjoy the custom as it provides an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and make new ones.

Oregon A was honored by a visit from our Province President, Mrs. Isla Donert, the week-end before initiation. We entertained her with the traditional cooky-shine on Saturday evening. The rest of her time was devoted to individual meetings. Before her departure, however, a house meeting was held in which Mrs. Donert told us about the standards of $\Pi B \Phi$. As a result of this meeting Jane Slatky was elected the Standards Chairman of our chapter.

This term many girls have played an active part in campus activities. On the Emerald, Oregon's school paper, Caroline Hand was appointed circulation manager with Nancy Hunt as assistant manager. Caroline is also in charge of the Sorority Section of the yearbook—The Oregonian. Betty Nock, a Journalism student, is a reporter on the Emerald staff. Jane Slatky was recently selected to write all the publicity ads for an A.S.U.O. membership committee drive.

In W.A.A. activities, Betty Riesch has been chosen to represent them as a delegate to their annual convention and also as one of the candidates for the presidency. Elections are to be held in the near future. Betty was also on the A.W.S. carnival directorate. Joanne Riesch is running for sergeant-at-arms on the same ticket. On the A.W.S. ticket, Barbara Pierce has been nominated as sergeant-at-arms. With three other girls she has been asked to promote a plan for a Student Union Building.

Other appointments were made to the following girls: Helen Wiedmer, co-chairman of Award Party for W.A.A.; Pat Brugman, assistant chairman on Patrons and Programs Committee for the Sophomore Mix; Marjorie Case and Kay Dillard are in charge of making posters for the Faculty Coffee sponsored by A.W.S.; Grace Irvin in conjunction with the Y.W.C.A.; is on the Frosh Council.

The Scholarship returns for last term have been announced and Oregon A was third among all the women's fraternities. Scholarship is being stressed especially this year.

Mortar Board's annual Smarty Party selected the following girls to be honored at their celebration. Each girl must have received a three point or better in her last term's scholastic record; Erma Brown, Eleanor Collier, Dorothy Denslow, Barbara Evans, Caroline Hand, Nancy Hunt, Elizabeth Mushen, Joanne Riesch, Betty Wagner.

The Matrix Table, to select the outstanding women on the campus invited Jane Slatky, Pat Brugman, Elizabeth Turner, and Caroline Hand to be present.

In intramural sports up to date, our house basketball team has maintained a top position, with only a few more games to be played for the championship.

All the students have enjoyed many worthwhile programs including the world-famed Shan-Kar Ballet. Nathan Millstein, noted violinist also gave a concert on the campus.

Oregon A owes much sincere appreciation to their Mothers' Club in Portland who are now raising money in order to present us with two new davenport for our living room.

Our winter house dance with the clever motif of "Swing Time" was especially effective, each room portraying a different night club such as the Cotton Club, The Brown Derby, and the Coconut Grove. Helen Wiedmer, chairman for the dance, was most successful in carrying out the idea.

The past few months have been exceptionally strenuous ones as far as social affairs at Oregon State are concerned, beginning with the Junior Prom, January 29. This gala affair directly followed the $\Pi B \Phi$ initiation, and all eighteen new members attended the dance as a climax to a very eventful weekend. February 12 was the date set for the house dance. The theme was The Hit Parade, and each person came dressed as a song title. It proved to be a very successful dance, and was enjoyed by all. Mortar Board gave the annual Woman's Ball, February 26. A turn about of social customs took place with the girls escorting the boys and paying the bills. As always, merrymaking was at its peak.

AWS sponsors a Lyceum program every term, and this past season included The Portland Symphony, Trude Shoop, and Marion Anderson.

Betty Sturgeon represented Oregon B in an all campus style show given at one of the local theaters.

The chairman of decorations for Mortar Board Ball was Lenore Reynolds, the house's representative to that honorary.

The campus literary magazine, The Lamplighter, offers a prize for the freshman girl who sells the greatest number of copies, and Doris Rudesill, Oregon B pledge, won a $25 money order for the house.

Adel Peters won top place in the annual Beaver sales, a campaign for the Oregon State yearbook, winning a smart looking jacket for herself, and also a bit of publicity for the name of $\Pi B \Phi$.

INITIATED, February 15, 1938: Patricia Rehm, Los Angeles; Mary Gale Zwick, St. Joseph, Mo.

The main point of interest this quarter was the annual rushing period which took place during the first part of January, culminating with two formal preference dinners on January 13 and 14. Pledging took place on Saturday, January 15. The chapter held an informal open house to introduce the new pledges to the campus. The pledge class is eleven in number, all of whom have proved to be outstanding girls in their class.

This year the nine national sororities on the campus pledged only a total of 89 girls out of a class of about 250. This fact caused considerable trouble in Roble, the freshman women's dormitory. The matter was taken up by the Dean of Women. Several conferences were held, one of which was attended by alumnae of the various sororities. There was some talk of abolishing sororities on the campus entirely and turning the houses into living units. No definite steps were taken, however, and the matter seems to have been closed for the time being.

Election of chapter officers was held on January 24. The new chapter president is Jayne Copp, who has been very active in campus affairs. At present Jayne is the junior class representative on the W.A.A. board, on the Rally Committee and vice-president of the Stanford Ski Club. Chapter vice-president is Jean Fox, who is secretary-treasurer of the junior class. The new treasurer is Patricia Johnson, a sophomore, who was assistant treasurer last quarter. The recording secretary is Shirley Wyeth and the corresponding secretary is Nancy Caswell, both sophomores. The new rush chairman is Sally Holt, who very aptly filled the position of assistant during the last rush period.

One of the largest $\Pi B \Phi$ affairs ever held in the bay region was the reading by Beatrice Edmonds, prominent reviewer of the stage, in the Veterans' Auditorium in San Francisco on April 19. Miss Edmonds is a $\Pi B \Phi$ from California A chapter, graduating in 1921. She goes to New York every year and then gives her interpretation of current drama. Both the California and Stanford chapters in conjunction with the Berkeley, San Francisco, and Palo Alto Alumnae Clubs sponsored this review. The affair was given much publicity and an audience of about one thousand attended.

California A celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon which was held at the Menlo Country Club, a private club on the peninsula, to which California B was invited. This is the one time in the year when the two chapters have a chance to become acquainted.

Anne Martineau, a junior, was chosen to represent California A at Convention. Anne has been very active in campus affairs in addition to maintaining a high scholarship record. Last year she was recording secretary for the chapter. California A feels confident that Anne will add considerably to convention and that she will bring back a wealth of inspiration and ideals concerning $\Pi B \Phi$.

Members of California B are having a particularly full and interesting semester with participation in a variety of women's fraternity and college activities.

One of the most important events on California B's program was an afternoon program which was given on April 19 under the auspices of the alumnae clubs of the San Francisco Bay region. Featured on the program was Beatrice Edmonds, an alumna of California A, who gave an interpretative review of the current New York theatre season. Ushers at the program, which was given for the benefit of the scholarship, endowment, and Settlement School funds, were active members of California A and California B.

Social functions held by California B recently include the Spring Formal on April 1, a banquet following initiation at the beginning of the semester, and the Fathers' Dinner, an annual affair which is particularly looked forward to by both the girls and their "Dads."

In college activities several members of California B have received recognition for outstanding scholarship and ability. Mary Elizabeth Allen and Eleanor Mahan are new members of the Honor Students in recognition of their consistently fine scholarship. Margaret Ann Russell and Florence Brown were initiated into Prytanean, an organization of upperclass women prominent in activities and scholarship. Margaret Ann Russell secured a leading rôle in Little Theatre's production of Maxwell Anderson's "High Tor" which was presented in the Greek Theatre as the most important production by that organization this semester. Nancy Lou Glass, who is a candidate for queen of the annual Military Ball, and Mary Elizabeth Allen were initiated into Ace of Clubs, a social organization with elected representatives from $K K \Gamma$, $K A \Theta$, $\Delta \Gamma$, $A \Phi$ and $\Pi B \Phi$.

Two members of California B have just been elected to membership in the University of California chapter of Mortar Board, senior women's honor society. They are Margaret Ann Russell and Florence Brown, each of whom was just initiated into Prytanean, junior and senior women's honor society. The Mortar Board initiation is to be held on March 27.

One of the most outstanding incidents during the spring semester was the initiation of the Entre-Nous of $\Pi B \Phi$ into the California Γ chapter. Entre-Nous was the local chapter. The members have followed the progress of the chapter with great interest and have helped in various ways. The privilege was a great concession on the part of Grand Council.

On the seventh and eighth of March, the province president, Mrs. D'Aule, visited the California Γ chapter. She was entertained at dinner on both nights and spent Monday night at the house. The officers had their interviews with her on Tuesday and meeting was held that night.

The scholarship cup was awarded California Γ by the University of Southern California. For the last year the house has had the highest scholarship average on campus.

March 9 was the $\Pi B \Phi$ Benefit tea. It was held at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles. It was a very beautiful affair and was very popular, the hotel being completely filled. A style show was put on by one of the exclusive dress shops. Several of the girls from the house modeled the new fashions.

The spring rushing season was very successful. Several teas were given for the rushees and the Mexican and Gardenia dinners were very impressive. The season was culminated with a pledge class of six girls. The presentation tea for the pledges proved to be a very popular affair. The house was completely filled during the entire time. Ice cream, tea, and cake were served to the guests.

For the past several weeks the girls have been surprised at the Monday night dinners. Candy has been passed by different girls, sometimes as many as three boxes came in the same evening.

Easter vacation was spent at Catalina Island. A large home was made available for use for the girls of $\Pi B \Phi$. A very enjoyable time was had by all. Much swimming, boating, and tennis being exercised.

The Convention is being looked forward to with eager anticipation by both actives and pledges. The convention delegate of California Γ will be Virginia Conzelman.

ATTENTION ALUMNAE. Due to the fact that rush week at the University of California at Los Angeles (U.C.L.A.) comes before the fall semester (September) it is necessary to have all names for prospective rushees in during the summer. Many girls have been overlooked, or not contacted because their names have reached the chapter house too late. Up to now recommendations of girls have often arrived just at the opening of the semester which is too late. It is hoped that this situation will have the cooperation of the Alumnae.

INITIATED, March 18, 1938: Barbara Bassett, Jane Bozung, Los Angeles; Dorothy Brower, Beverly Hills; Jane Campbell, Sally Grady, Los Angeles; Cordelia Hill, Santa Monica; Barbara Langer, Los Angeles; Ethel McCarthy, Peggy McLeod, Los Angeles; Florence Murphy, Beverly Hills; Willie Mary Nunn, Santa Monica; Emma Puthoff, San Bernardino; Betty Sims, and Dorothy Thornburg, Los Angeles.

California Δ will lose four girls at the June commencement. They are May Beatty, B.E., Jean Heffelfinger, B.A., Mary Sue Howard, B.A., and Jeanne Law, B.A.

The chapter welcomed with a great deal of pride a stunning pair of five-stemmed silver candelabra which were a gift from the Mothers' club. The club has been very active this year, and on February 25 they held another benefit for California Δ . It took the form of a Program-Tea, and a well known reader Mrs. George F. Parker of Beverly Hills presented several of the New York hit plays.

The entire chapter sold raffle tickets for the drawing which was held at the Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles when the Los Angeles alumnae gave their annual Settlement School benefit Fashion-Tea, March 19. Every active and pledge attended the party and several members modeled in the fashion show.

The pledge class under the presidency of Betty Sims honored the active members with an informal supper-dance at the Deauville club on March 4. After the great flood, actives were relieved to find that the club was still standing.

In the way of campus activities, California Δ girls have been buzzing busily about the University. Dolly Wilson was chosen to the junior class council, and the council held a dinner at the Π Φ house under the supervision of Dolly and Margaret Mortonson.

The University Riding club has acquired many new members through the support of the Π Φ house. The new interest has been stimulated by Alice Rankin who is head of the club. The new members include Jane Bell, Rachel Rankin, Mary Sue Howard, Jean Heffelfinger, and Carlotta Stoddart.

The Freshman-Sophomore Barn Dance had elaborate decorations only because of the hard work of Peggy Kilgore. Peggy has also been working on the Y.W.C.A. "Participation" drive. In this same campaign, Laura Chapman and Ethel McCarthy are "majors." Jane Bozung and Pat Hartley have been working diligently as assistant "majors" in the campaign. The purpose of this drive is to urge more members of the faculty to join in the activities of the Y.W.C.A.

Sally Grady is an ardent supporter of the German club and the French club has Ethel McCarthy and Barbara Langer as its new members.

The University Religious Conference elected two new members to the Student Board, one of whom was Virginia Keim. The summer camp sponsored by the Religious Conference is working hard to raise enough money to send unfortunate and underprivileged boys from the slums to a fine, healthy camp in Big Pines for a ten-day vacation. Virginia is on the central committee to raise this money. Betty Bole and Pat Cavanaugh attended the camp as counsellors last summer and plan to do the same thing this summer. Laura Chapman, vice-president of the sophomore class, is also working on the camp project.

Mary Livingstone has been chosen to the dramatics honorary staff and Mask, and Barbara Langer has been working on the production staff for the campus presentation of "Julius Caesar."

Cordelia Hill made the highest grades of any of her pledge sisters and intends to follow in the Φ β κ footsteps of Jean Heffelfinger.

ALUMNAE CLUB LETTERS

Edited by LOTTA JOHNSON WEIR, Illinois 2

LOTTA JOHNSON WEIR

A new club has recently been formed at Bozeman, Montana. Wichita Falls, Texas, now has a group of twenty alumnae. The Elgin, Illinois, club now has its second generation of alumnae members. Letters from 88 alumnae clubs appear in this issue.

MAKING MONEY . . . AND HOW

By DORIS KENT LEBLANC, Louisiana A

Pride is one of the seven deadly sins, but the New Orleans Alumnae Club cannot help gloating a bit, and they believe the Recording Angel will be tolerant, for during the past twelve months they have pulled themselves from rags to riches.

It all goes to prove once again the time-tried principle that casting bread on the waters pays dividends; the New Orleans Alumnae Club's economic boom started in an unselfish impulse. Their Executive Council convinced the group it should identify itself actively with some type of civic work; they chose bandage-making for the Women's Dispensary, a local charity hospital, relieving busy staff nurses of the task. Now they frequently turn out several thousand gauze surgical sponges during a morning. Virtue came to be its own reward in this fashion; from the largely-attended work-meetings there developed a new esprit de corps difficult to obtain in a large city with a group widely diversified in ages and interests.

Closer contact, thus established with the active chapter at Newcomb, brought up the urgent need for money—not only for national alumnae obligations, but to help the actives maintain suitable chapter quarters. But the treasury purse was flat. How to get more money?

With a number of wits at work on the problem a variety of successful schemes were evolved. Some of them seem worth passing on.

A local stationery firm paid a commission on all orders given "in the name of Pi Phi" and families of prospective brides and debutantes were solicited. The same arrangement was made with a concern handling knitting wools.

Through the suggestion of a transfer alumna, the club contracted with the makers of Towle silver to produce a hundred representative women, at the rate of fifteen an hour, on a certain day to indicate preferences in flat silver patterns. The firm paid $75 for this gathering, which they used as a quick and efficient means of conducting a survey. No selling was involved; choices were indicated on an elaborate graph chart and representatives of the company were not provided with names and addresses of visitors to the private home where the survey was held.

A Christmas sale, while not original in idea, proved decidedly so in the variety of objects offered. Asked to contribute "something you can't buy in shops," alumnae poured in such articles as fruit cakes, baby clothes, plantation cane syrup put up in quart cans with individual labels, Louisiana vetivert root (a delicate sachet) and kindling wood tied in red cellophane, with a pine burr atop. Although the tea accompanying the sale was a "silver" one, it was an elegant event, held in a lovely private home with real "party food" and tea girls in pastel frocks. Miss Onken, in New Orleans at the time, was guest of honor and can vouch for its success, socially and (most definitely!) financially.

No record of the club's money-making activities would be complete without a word about May Logan Monroe, who has waged a one-woman campaign that leaves fellow-workers breathless. Mrs. Monroe is a kind of special god-mother to the New Orleans group; her house is the scene of many entertainments, as well as the work-meetings for bandage-making. She originated the fast-selling kindling bundles for the Christmas sale, and a list of her further efforts for Pi Phi is a study in variety. Here are a few: picking and selling apples on her summer place in North Carolina, $8; balsam pillows, from North Carolina needles, $5; making and selling jelly, $7.50; orders for kindling bundles, $22.35; selling maids' plain and fancy aprons, assisted by a sewing committee of friends, $43.50; selling camellia japonicas from garden (at ten and twenty-five cents a bloom, though she mourns she could get $1 in New York!) $56.25. At the last alumnae meeting the indefatigable May announced her latest line—live-oak leaves, raked from the parkway opposite her house and neatly sacked for sale. They make the ideal mulch for New Orleans' prize azaleas!

A profitable side-line of revenue also has come from selling Coca-Cola or coffee, depending on the weather, at meetings. Everybody enjoys a sociable sip and a cigarette at the conclusion of business, and the dimes bring one hundred per cent profit for the club, without causing members to feel they're giving till it hurts. The big benefit bridge party and tea, given after Mardi Gras closes the busy social season, has come to be an event many non-Pi Phis look forward to. It was in preparation as this article was written, and the New Orleans group expected to arrive at Founders' Day in a state of affluence.

ALPHA PROVINCE

BUFFALO CLUB

At the January meeting of the Buffalo Alumnae Club reports were given on the various plans used by the Club for raising money. A movie benefit and commissions from the sale of prints and paper products have given the most profit. Adelaide Robertson described her visit to the Settlement School last summer.

In February our province vice-president, Mary Herdman

Scott, and Dr. Edith Gordon visited the Club. Everyone took part in an informal discussion. Ruth Minard Miller, charter member of Missouri Gamma '15, the Club president, was elected delegate to Convention.

Members of the Buffalo alumnae group joined the Toronto, Hamilton, and London, Ontario, clubs on April 2 at the Ancaster Country Club in Hamilton for the celebration of Founders' Day and enjoyed this joint meeting.

ALICE K. BUSCH

LONDON, ONTARIO, CLUB

At the last meeting, arrangements were made for the Building Fund whereby each alumna voluntarily pledges $30.00 to be paid within five years. This applies only to those who graduated previous to the Class of '37 as this pledge is now taken at graduation.

The executive attended the last "cooky-shine" of the actives at the chapter house and stayed on for their meeting. Everyone enjoyed the gathering so much that a joint "cooky-shine" is to be held at the house before our next meeting.

The annual dance was held at the London Hunt and Country Club on Saturday, February 26, and was a tremendous success. The gentlemen were presented with silver watch chains with the Fraternity crest engraved on a disc at one end.

Rushing was held the week of February 27, and there was a party at the house every night at which several alumnae were present each time.

NORRIENNE RANAHAH

NORTHERN N.J. CLUB

The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club opened its club year with a tea and musicale at the Echo Lake Country Club in Westfield in September. In October several members attended the Round Table at the National Panhellenic Congress in New York. At our October luncheon we had 65 members present to welcome Miss Onken, who was our guest and speaker. We felt greatly honored and inspired by our Grand President's visit. The program at our regular luncheon meeting in November was given by several members who reviewed current books. The Christmas dinner dance at Echo Lake Club was a great success, due to the work of Mrs. W. W. Elder and her committee.

Mrs. Matthew Jones (N.Y. Alpha) was so inspired by Miss Onken's account of the Settlement School that in November she opened her home in Madison to Pi Phi's and their friends for a tea and sale of Arrowcraft products. The house, which is 207 years old and furnished in antiques, made a perfect setting for displaying the articles. Much credit is due Mrs. Marion Loop (Ind. Gamma) and her committee on Settlement School and to the Madison group who were hostesses.

Every year in January we look forward to hearing

Mme. Barnouw of New York who reviews current plays. We have been glad to have Mrs. McKendrew and Mrs. Speir of the New York Club at several of our meetings and have been delighted to welcome about a dozen new members.

ELIZABETH M. ROWLEY

ROCHESTER CLUB

The Rochester Club has had a full active year under our president, Rhea Poppink. A meeting for each month, a cooky-shine in January, a Founders' Day luncheon for April were all planned ahead. We have welcomed four new members this year. Mrs. Scott paid us a visit last November at which time our members were given an opportunity of meeting her at a luncheon, a dinner and a bridge party. At our March meeting with Mrs. Raymond Bettys we shall see pictures of the Settlement School. The Founders' Day luncheon in April and a social meeting in May will bring our year to a close.

FLORENCE C. MARSHALL

SYRACUSE CLUB

Four more meetings of the Syracuse Club have been enjoyed since our last letter.

On January 7, a dinner was held at the home of Rena Skerritt, where we had as our guests the Seniors in the active chapter. Mr. John W. Brooks came at the request of the two boards and gave a very complete outline of our compulsory insurance plan.

On January 19 and February 2, we enjoyed luncheon meetings with Martha Wille Coursen and Mabel Ogden. On February 18, we again enjoyed a dinner meeting at Marjory Kirk's beautiful home, with the Juniors as our guests, and Marjory showed us colored films of her most recent trips to Mexico and South America.

Our Bermuda cruise enterprise is progressing well, with the drawing set for April 2.

The alumnae are to entertain the Mothers' Club at a tea on March 9 at the home of our president, Marjorie Kienzle.

By the time this is printed, we shall be deep in plans for our much-needed new chapter house on Walnut Park, for the Board of Directors of our alumnae association, on February 28 bought the Faculty Club House in its beautiful setting on the corner of Marshall St. and Walnut Park.

CHARLOTTE N. CHAFFEE

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA CLUB

The Central Pennsylvania Club is really functioning. Our monthly meetings are well attended because each meeting is carefully planned and has a well-worked-out program. After our business meeting in February a member of the Pennsylvania Beta chapter gave a short talk telling us just what is happening this year in the chapter. After that the members took a true-false test on parliamentary law. Most of us were surprised at the great number of questions answered correctly.

At our March meeting we entertained the seniors of Pennsylvania Beta. This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fetherstone who will exhibit her paintings. Seniors and alumnae all enjoyed this privilege. In April we held a joint meeting with Pennsylvania Beta at which time we commemorated the founding of Pi Beta Phi. The active chapter was in charge of the program.

The Central Pennsylvania Alumnae Club is planning to stimulate interest among its members by having a monthly meeting rather than the usual four meetings a year. The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Shimer of Milton. At this meeting a short play was given by members of the club. The February meeting was held at the home of Joan Hill of Warden Place and was devoted to the study of Parliamentary Law. Mrs. Drum has been appointed head of the committee which will raise money for the Settlement School Fund.

FRANCES MILES

CLEVELAND CLUB

Programs of unusual interest have added much to the enjoyment of those attending the monthly meetings of the Cleveland Alumnae Club. At the January meeting, Ruth Donahower gave a talk on "Social Betterment Activities of Various Sororities." On the same program, Ruth Sprague gave such a vivid account of her impressions of Gatlinburg and our Settlement School.

We were delighted to have Candace Johnson, our Province Vice President, as guest of honor at the January meeting. The program was further enlivened by a fascinating story of the work of a newspaper columnist given by Helen Allyn MacDonald, a Pi Phi on the staff of the Cleveland Press.

A precedent established last year, of having a party to which the husbands of members were invited, was followed this year on the occasion of the February meeting. Dinner and bridge were enjoyed by about seventy guests.

A series of simultaneous bridge parties for the benefit of the Endowment Fund was given on February 25. They were a success from both a social and a financial point of view.

We are all looking forward to the annual tournament in May at the home of Mrs. Kewley, the highlight of the bridge season.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a dinner at the College Club. Carol Hageman is Chairman of the Committee in charge of the program—"Miss Pi Beta Phi from 1867 to 1937."

JANE THOMPSON

COLUMBUS CLUB

This year the Columbus Alumnae Club has varied its regular program of all dinner meetings. Instead teas and evening meetings have been interspersed at various convenient intervals.

At the December dinner meeting Mrs. Howard Schlereth (Mary Virginia Hewitt) of Manila, talked of life and customs in the Philippines, showing pictures of her experiences.

Ohio Beta's new house is again the special interest. A plan of raising funds found to be effective is the organization of bridge clubs throughout the city. The meetings are set by each individual group, some meeting once and some twice a month. Each member pays a set amount, usually a quarter, at every meeting, the money being relayed to the house fund.

At present every effort is being put forth to round out the pledges made to the house fund. The Alumnae Committee is working on letters and circulars to be sent out as a follow-up of the fall campaign.

GWEN L. MEREDITH

HARRISBURG-CARLISLE CLUB

A large Settlement School Benefit Bridge was held Saturday afternoon, March 26 in the auditorium of Pomeroy's Department Store in Harrisburg. The store very graciously gave the alumnae club the space for the party, and the use of their card tables and cards. In one corner of the room goods from the Settlement School were displayed and sold, and in another, candy, cakes and nuts were sold. The proceeds from this party form the nucleus of the club's contribution to the Settlement School. Lucretia Heisey was the general chairman for the affair.

The March 19, meeting of the club was held in the fraternity rooms of Pennsylvania Gamma in Carlisle. The Carlisle members of the alumnae club were hostesses and the Carlisle actives were invited to attend the meeting. At the meeting the new officers were elected.

The club celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon on April 23.

As a grand conclusion to a very pleasant year the club is planning a Panhellenic Tea, to be held May 28, at the home of Mrs. Edward Belt. As it is the desire of the club to continue the friendships formed in college with women of other Greek fraternities, a meeting of this nature is planned for each year. Each member is asked to bring with her at least one woman from another fraternity.

EMMA M. SHAWFIELD

PITTSBURGH CLUB

The Pittsburgh Alumnae Club started the new year with a business meeting and a very original Constitutional bridge in the home of Mrs. C. G. Kinter. A progressive system of tallies and tables utilizing Pi Phi information was arranged by Mrs. Conrad Myhre, program chairman. During the meeting plans were completed for the Towle silver display which was held January 20. Mrs. E. W. Tillotson offered her attractive home for the day and Mrs. P. B. Davidson, chairman of arrangements for the display, handled the affair in such a systematic and efficient manner that we had more than our quota of guests required by the Towle Company. The Club received $75.00 for their efforts, which amount is to be placed in the Endowment Fund.

The February meeting was held in the East Liberty Y.W.C.A. Mrs. Walter A. Wellinger was hostess and, assisted by her committee, served a delicious chop suey luncheon. Mrs. H. C. Johnson, our Province Vice President, gave a most interesting talk on altruistic work of other fraternities.

SOUTH HILLS CLUB

Under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert R. Horne (Ferne Wein) the South Hills Pittsburgh Alumnae Club has had a most active year. Probably our greatest encouragement came with the return of all the members from last year and the addition of Mrs. W. S. Shuttleworth (Varina Wilson) W. Virginia A. Mrs. John M. Dickey (Virginia Lamb) Ohio B, and Mrs. Chauncey B. Yohe (Lois Bishop) Iowa A.

It was with a somewhat hesitant but determined feeling that we, numbering only twenty, set out to do our bit for the Settlement School by giving a benefit bridge at which an Arrow Craft Shop would be featured. With the wholehearted cooperation of all members we were able to have a delightful party of more than forty tables and to sell Arrow Craft Products amounting to $110.00.

But we must have some fun! So we repeated our progressive dinner party making it our December function and one opportunity for enjoying Pi Beta Phi with our husbands. From cocktails to desert we visited four different homes and tarried to enjoy bridge for a finale.

Time Marches On! And we find ourselves in the throes of heaps more work and plans. In February Mrs. H. C. Johnson was to be our guest at a cooky-shine supper after which she refreshed our minds on the initiation ceremony.

March promises another party where we parade the "black coats" for we are to settle down to the reality of raising money for the Endowment Fund by having a miniature Monte Carlo party.

April brought our Founders' Day celebration, and in May the club will provide an evening's entertainment for the local Methodist Home for the Aged. June brings the customary picnic.

HARRIET M. MCLEAN

GAMMA PROVINCE

BALTIMORE CLUB

The Baltimore Club seems to be continuing its usual activities. The cooky-shine given for the actives at the home of Mrs. Te Linde was very enjoyable. At the March meeting a member of the staff of the Enoch Pratt Library, Miss Macaulay, will speak on current books. Arrangements were made to have the Founders' Day banquet at the beautiful new Faculty Club which has recently been built on the campus of Johns Hopkins University. Of course the active chapter at Goucher celebrated with us and this year they furnished the program. We always look forward to this occasion with great expectation. At the cooky-shine the active girls surprised and delighted us with the number and variety of Pi Phi songs they sang.

DOROTHY MAY HOBLITZEL

CHAPEL HILL CLUB

During July actives in the U.N.C. Summer School, town members and alumnae gathered at the home of the secretary to read the Grand Council letter from Miss Onken.

In August our advisory committee chairman, Patricia Dicks, in charge of rushing recommendations compiled a circular letter to be sent to all state chapter alumnae. She was ably assisted by Mary Leigh Scales, our newest club member from the chapter. We wish to express our deep appreciation to Grand Council for the privilege of having this letter sent out by the Central Office. The responses with recommendations and the many personal letters to Patricia Dicks brought out our warm feeling towards alumnae who have been isolated from their own chapter affairs.

Modifications of local Panhellenic regulations permitted alumnae again to attend rushing affairs. At our opening meeting Eloise Broughton, chapter president and rushing captain, Anne Turner Knight, outlined their detailed program, inviting us to attend parties. Alumnae were divided into attendance shifts according to the number of rushees at each affair. At a chapter house tea, patronesses and alumnae met the eighteen pledges.

When Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson (Candace Cloyd, Illinois H) came to see their daughter "Clover," the alumnae living nearby were invited by Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence to meet them at the Rectory.

On January 6 the club cooperated with the chapter house mother, Mrs. Harry Dixon, in giving a buffet supper in honor of Grand Secretary, Mrs. Luther Stark. As usual when a grand officer visits, we had 100 per cent attendance. Afterwards Mrs. Stark talked to our club along constructive national lines. A fortnight later our president, Harriet Caldwell held a meeting at her home. The suggestions of Mrs. Stark had been so practical that we carried them out at once.

In February the club again availed itself of the courtesy and aid of Elizabeth Branson's "The Little Shop," together with the active chapter, Mary Leigh Scales, chairman, and raised funds for the Settlement School. After division with the active chapter, together with our Arrow Craft sales and donations, our contributions to the Settlement School have been brought up to $30.00.

EDITH BAKER GIDUZ

RICHMOND CLUB

The Richmond Alumnae Club has had some very interesting meetings this year. At the January meeting our club had a pleasant surprise. Mrs. Stark was our guest at a luncheon given at the Commonwealth Club. Everyone enjoyed Mrs. Stark's short visit and her talk to the club.

This month Dean Keller took us on an armchair tour to Mexico. Dr. Keller visited Mexico last summer and brought us many interesting and exciting tales of her experiences, and showed us several of the various kinds of Indian and Mexican handicraft.

We are very proud to report that our club has almost doubled its membership this year. We welcome all our new members and hope they will help to enrich our organization.

In April our club went to the new Williamsburg Inn, in Colonial Williamsburg, for our Founders' Day luncheon.

We are all working for the Endowment Fund goal, and are looking forward to Convention in June. Several of the members are planning to go.

BETTY CHAMBERS GEORGE

WASHINGTON CLUB

In January the Washington Alumnae Club met at the home of Mrs. James Greear (Mary Schaaff). A half dozen representatives from other sororities gave brief descriptions of their altruistic projects. Previously at a Panhellenic meeting Mrs. Benjamin Harrison Lingo (Marie Tunstall) gave a résumé of the work done by our Settlement School as there had been many requests to hear about our philanthropic program. It was our good fortune to have at our meeting Mabel Scott Brown who has recently returned from four months in Japan, and we were proud to share her chat concerning the trip with our guests.

DELTA PROVINCE

ANN ARBOR CLUB

On Thursday January 13 the alumnae club had the pleasure of entertaining Miss Onken who was visiting the active chapter at that time. A luncheon was given in her honor at the home of Miss Christian and an informal meeting followed. That evening the active chapter gave a formal dinner at the chapter house and the members of the advisory board were invited.

The fiftieth anniversary of the Michigan B chapter was celebrated in connection with Founders' Day. Mrs. Stebbins was in charge of the program which included a luncheon at the Woman's League on April 30. Four living founders were invited to attend.

Our money making project at the present time consists of the selling of engagement calendars. Mrs. Marshall is in charge of them.

MRS. ARTHUR TWISS

BLOOMINGTON (INDIANA) CLUB

It was the privilege of the Indiana Beta active chapter and the Bloomington Alumnae Club last month to entertain Mrs. Webster, assistant to the Grand President. A dinner was given for her by the club at the Graham Hotel. Both the active and alumnae groups not only enjoyed her brief stay but felt that her many valuable suggestions would be of great help to us.

Mrs. Homer Woolery, one of our active alumnae members, and Dr. Woolery will return to Bloomington about the middle of April from a five months trip through California, Texas, and Hawaii, returning by way of Panama and Florida.

Our club is indeed proud to announce that on February 6 Indiana Beta chapter initiated all of their pledge class, 25 in all. Two of these initiates are daughters of former Indiana Beta girls—Grace Ashby, whose mother was the former Nellie Ward Graybill, and Anna Louise Blakely, whose mother was the former Helen Ikerd. Several alumnae returned for the initiation services and the formal dinner following.

At the recent election of officers the active chapter elected Edith Cale Thornton president. She is the daughter of a member of Indiana B, the former Juanina Marie Young. The active chapter here would appreciate having the names of girls who plan to enter Indiana University next fall. The rush captain is Phyllis Landis.

MARJORIE RICE

DETROIT CLUB

The Detroit Club had a full spring program. Besides the monthly meetings of the sectional groups there were three city-wide affairs. For March 5 we held a lecture on current literature and music; this was followed by a tea. Our Founders' Day celebration took the form of a luncheon and meeting on April 23. Our spring tea is to be on May 28 and will conclude our functions for the year.

Members from our club are planning to attend the initiation ceremonies in Ann Arbor on March 12. April 30

At Mrs. Frederick Shelton's (Charline McCanse) in February, the club really got down to business and made what we hope will be considered constructive suggestions for the Convention to act upon.

The afternoon group has also been active. A delightful tea was held in January at the home of Mrs. George Ober (Mary King). In February Mrs. Smith Brookhart, Jr. (Betty Waller) entertained at bridge and tea. While these meetings are primarily social, the business taken up at the night meetings is reviewed and discussed.

This year's Panhellenic Luncheon at the Shoreham Hotel, attended by several hundred Washington "Greeks" was a most enjoyable one. Pi Beta Phi's guest of honor (each group chooses an outstanding member to be their representative at the speaker's table) was Florence Berryman.

The election of officers took place in March and another bridge tea was held during that month. In April, we honored our Founders and plans were made by D.C. Alpha for that festive occasion. As has become our custom, the last meeting of the year will be a supper, social hour, and installation of officers.

is a big day for Michigan Betas, as the chapter at Ann Arbor is celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of its founding.

A second visit of the Towle silversmiths to Detroit this year has helped us considerably in raising money for our treasury. A Detroit junior group composed of alumnae under thirty is being formed. At the two meetings already held there were over twenty members present. We hope that this organization will develop into an active aid for our established club.

ISABELLE TRYTHALL

FORT WAYNE CLUB

We have held our monthly dinner meetings regularly, and have had the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis, province vice-president, at two of them.

A busy and entertaining spring was planned, for our Rummage Sale and Settlement School Sale were held in March and April. To relieve the similarity all teas have to one another, our Settlement School Sale is being called the "Little Pigeon," and instead of petit fours and tea we shall serve old fashioned "down east" bean soup with corn pone sticks.

Our cook book sales have exceeded our expectations, and we hope to sell more of them at the Arrow Craft tea.

MARTHA GILES REEVES

FRANKLIN CLUB

The traditional cooky-shine was held on September 18, 1937, after a very successful season of rush. The dinner was served to our guests, the new pledges and their mothers, and members of Indiana A at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Cooke. Following the dinner a short program was in charge of the alumnae club president, Mrs. Roger Owens. She gave a history of the origin of the cooky-shine. The pledges were introduced by the active chapter President, Miss Betsy Cohn.

Immediately following the dinner the girls went to the home of Mrs. R. C. Wilson, a patroness, where they were presented to the college faculty, students, and townspeople.

The Membership Committee reports a very great increase in membership for the year and we are enjoying a very successful season.

At the November meeting we had a program of fraternity philanthropies. A representative from all the groups on our local campus told of the philanthropic work her organization was engaged in. They were varied and interesting. Miss Susan Ott told of her recent visit to the Settlement School.

On November 20 the Club held an Arrow Craft bridge tea at the Hillview Country Club. The articles from the Arrow Craft Shop were on display and the guests purchased a number of them. Small jars of preserves were given as table prizes and tea was served at the close of the afternoon.

The December meeting was a buffet supper and a bingo party. We took white elephant gifts and these served as the prizes for the bingo games.

On January 15 we celebrated our Golden Anniversary at the home of Mrs. Wayne Walters. A delicious dinner was served to more than one hundred guests and members. The principal speakers of the evening were two of our founders, Miss Jeanette Zeppenfeld, and Miss Harriet C. Palmer. Miss Zeppenfeld spoke on modern trends in education, contrasting the college and faculty of 1888 and 1938. Miss Palmer spoke about the Founders, going into detail concerning a few of the members typical of the high standards set by the Chapter from its founding.

A silver tea tray was presented to the active chapter by the members of Indiana Alpha. It had engraved in the center of the tray the dates, 1888 and 1938.

The roll call of years was answered by the guests bringing their birthday pennies for the local loan fund. Many letters were received from alumnae unable to attend, and were read to those present. We wish to thank all these alumnae, both for their very interesting letters and their birthday offerings.

At the February meeting we had the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. J. E. Webster, Jr., Assistant to the Grand President. She was very charming and we enjoyed her visit with us. She talked to us and left us with a much greater appreciation of Grand Council and its many duties.

Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis, Delta Province Vice-President, visited us at our meeting in March.

GARY CLUB

The Gary Alumnae Club has fifteen members this year, and is still very young. We began with eight charter members. In December we gave a tea in honor of Helen Anderson Lewis at the home of our club president, Margaret Kerr Kolls, at which time Settlement School articles were displayed and sold. A luncheon was planned for April celebrating Founders' Day. The annual Guest Tea in May will be held in the former home of Mary Whitaker Briggs in Crown Point.

BETTY McCRAY SORRELS

HILLSDALE CLUB

Everyone who met Miss Onken during her visit to Hillsdale in January enjoyed the opportunity and many alumnae attended the all-college tea given in her honor by the active chapter. At our February meeting Vera B. Dritler gave an excellent review and discussion of the Constitution. Members present hemmed table linen for the chapter house.

Harriett Ball Hale spoke at the February meeting of the Hillsdale Womans Club on the subject, "Laughing into Mirrors." The talk was a discussion of a group of humorists contributing to the New Yorker magazine.

Josephine Kerr Raymond, has been appointed Delta Province chairman of the National Publicity Committee. Initiation is March 5th followed by the initiation banquet at the chapter house. Several of the alumnae will attend and alumnae speakers will be Arlene Thomas who will act as toast mistress and Bess Hagaman who will speak for the alumnae. Preceding initiation Ava Closson Green will sponsor a luncheon at her home for the pledges. Founders' Day will be celebrated by a joint luncheon with the active chapter.

ALLENE ACKLEY BIRK

INDIANAPOLIS CLUB

The Indianapolis Alumnae Club is having an enjoyable and successful year. Monthly meetings have been held either at the Indiana Γ chapter home or at the homes of club members. Programs have been varied, guest speakers representing civic, literary, musical, artistic, and social fields. The present membership is eighty-nine.

The club was fortunate in having Florence Hunt Webster (Mrs. J. E. Jr.), assistant to the Grand President, as its guest at the February meeting. Mrs. Webster gave a very informative talk about the quota system and also about the Endowment Fund.

The second guest meeting of the year was held March 11 at which time Mrs. Demarchus Brown (Jessie Christian), Indiana Γ , spoke on "Marguerite of Austria."

The Founders' Day Luncheon was held April 30 at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis.

CHARLOTTE SPEARS BENNETT

LAFAYETTE CLUB

Since our report in the last ARROW our club has had two lovely dinner parties. In February we enjoyed a Valentine dinner with Mrs. J. E. Webster, Jr., as our honor guest. We felt much more national minded after her visit with us. Our March dinner was a St. Patrick's affair, even to the costumes of the hostesses who served the tables. Mrs. John Trost entertained us with a most interesting paper on the early history of the Purdue chapter and illustrated her talk with pictures and programs from her memory book kept about twenty years ago. At our April dinner meeting we plan to have a book review given of "W. Somerset Maugham" written by Pro. Richard Cordell, husband of our Alice.

RHEA E. WALKER

SOUTHWESTERN INDIANA CLUB

The February meeting of the Southwestern Indiana Alumnae Club consisted of a buffet dinner and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Philip Drachman with Mrs. Henry Brabston assisting. Mrs. Curran Reed and Lois Kindermann attended from Boonville, Indiana. Plans for summer rushing were discussed. Mrs. Bernard Schnacke was appointed as rush captain.

In March, members were entertained with a buffet dinner followed by a review of the Pi Beta Phi ARROW.

RAGENE RALPHY WILLIAMS

SOUTHWESTERN MICHIGAN CLUB

Our Club has had a difficult time getting started as our small membership is drawn from several widely scattered communities. However, in spite of handicaps we have held several enjoyable meetings which were well attended. In October we met at the Athelstan Club in Battle Creek for luncheon and a short business session at which we elected officers for the coming year. In November we met in Marshall for a luncheon at the Mansion tea room and then spent a pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stowell Stebbins where we held our business meeting and enjoyed a fine program. Mrs. H. F. Becker gave an interesting account of a visit she and Mrs. Clifford Brainard made at the Settlement School last summer. Miss Ann Marshall gave a delightful history of $\Pi B \Phi$ which was of unusual interest to us all. It was suggested that in view of the rapidly changing conditions in Gatlinburg and the entire Settlement School district, a scientific survey of conditions in that community might well be made in the near future.

In January we met at the Athelstan Club for luncheon and later went to the home of Mary Jane Cummings for a business meeting. We planned to hold only one more business meeting this year but we have set aside the first Saturday in each month as a day when we will all try to drop in at the Athelstan Club for luncheon and an informal social meeting. We feel that we are making real progress in forming a more closely knit group and hope that next year we may be more active.

HELEN WARNER CONROY

EPSILON PROVINCE

COLUMBIA (MISSOURI) CLUB

In January the regular meeting of the club was an evening meeting, held at the home of Mrs. L. C. Green. The reports of the Settlement School Sale were read and the amount of material sold was found to exceed that of last year. The Magazine Committee reported a substantial increase in sale of subscriptions during the year. Mrs. R. H. Westveld presented an interesting illustrated talk on Interior Decorating.

The February meeting was held in the afternoon at the home of Miss Queen Smith. Plans were made for a benefit movie to be given in the near future. The program was a piano recital given by Mrs. R. B. Vaile.

We are happy to welcome Esther Hedges Anderson, Kansas B and Minnesota A, to our group.

MARGARET WICHMAN VAILE

KANSAS CITY CLUB

The Kansas City Alumnae Club has had a very successful and interesting year under the leadership of Mrs. O. B. Simmons.

Our annual cooky-shine and carnival was held on Founders' Day, at the home of Miss Anne Hayden.

The proceeds of the Carnival, which will be at the Indian Hills Country Club on May 21, will go to the Settlement School and to our girl's scholarship at the University of Kansas City. It is always a great deal of fun for all.

On February 24 we gave a dinner dance at the Kansas City Club for members and their guests.

We are very proud to be able to complete our Endowment pledge of $1,000.00 this year.

MARION DAVIS

LITTLE PIGEON CLUB

The February meeting of Little Pigeon club was held in Knoxville in order to get in touch with the Pi Phis there. Founders' Day celebration was held March 26 in Gatlinburg. As school was out and there were so few members here at the usual time for the celebration, it seemed better to have it earlier.

A large benefit bridge party was given during February, and a record crowd attended.

MARY LOUISE DURKEE

ST. JOSEPH CLUB

The St. Joseph Alumnae Club has had, so far, a very enjoyable year under the leadership of Mrs. Florence Davis. Beginning with Founders' Day Dinner last spring, at which we had as a guest, Mrs. Katherine B. Lyons, our Province Vice-President, we have had a noticeable increase in our active membership. Mrs. Lyons did a great deal to increase our enthusiasm.

Although we had only one summer meeting, we have had regular monthly meetings since October and expect to have them for the rest of this year. Mrs. Florence Davis initiated our fall meetings with a tea after our October meeting and our second meeting preceded a tea at Miss Clara Groves. At that time, we were honored with a talk on a Pi Phi Mother's View of Settlement School by Mrs. L. A. Fiquet, mother of Jane Fiquet Hanna, Missouri A, who spent some time this summer at Gatlinburg.

We were all very pleased with her enthusiasm on the subject.

Early in December we had a Settlement School Tea, given by Margaret Noel Pinkston, Ohio A, at which we displayed Settlement School products. This tea proved a great success for us with an estimated sale of about $125.

Our last meeting was followed by a tea at Mrs. Landon Woods with Mrs. Ed Jackson and Mrs. Irene Cook assisting.

MARY J. SYMON

ST. LOUIS CLUB

The St. Louis Club has had a busy year. In January we had an interesting talk on "Famous and Curious Wills" by Judge E. L. Hoffmeister. A Towle silver exhibit was also held during January at the home of Mrs. Lewis F. Thomas, our former president. More than a hundred guests attended to view the collection of patterns.

In February Miss Virginia Breckenridge gave us an interesting description of her year in Russia where she taught. Our annual theater benefit was held in February. The play was "Room Service" and was most enjoyable.

JANE C. EMERSON

SPRINGFIELD (MISSOURI) CLUB

The Springfield Alumnae Club is having a very fine year under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Glynn. Monthly meetings have been held either at the chapter rooms or at the homes of club members.

The Club enjoyed a review by Marion Bissett of four plays which she saw while in New York last summer. At our luncheon meetings the afternoons have been spent in sewing for the Baby Clinic. Our Settlement School Tea at the home of Mrs. Walter Eisenmayer proved very successful.

The active chapter recently initiated six girls, and as has been the custom for many years, the alumnae club entertained with a lovely dinner at the home of our President, Mrs. Robert Glynn. After dinner Mrs. George Baldwin reviewed The Prodigal Parent by Sinclair Lewis.

PAULINE BALDWIN

ZETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA CLUB

The Atlanta Club is in the midst of another interesting year. Meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month at the homes of the members, and we have found that those held in the afternoons have had the largest number in attendance.

There are representatives from 22 active chapters in Atlanta from all corners of these United States, making us realize the binding influence of our ARROW. We hope to have an active chapter in Georgia some day soon to give us a renewed interest in active chapter work too.

Looking back over past months' work we find our activities have included two displays of silver from the Research department of the Towle silversmiths, one in October and another in February. Panhellenic activities which included being co-hostesses at a tea in November and helping in a very substantial way with a benefit bridge in February. Pi Beta Phi has the treasurer'ship this year in the Atlanta Panhellenic, the office being ably executed by Edith Tyler, Arizona A. Then there have been six very interesting meetings with the "Growth of the Settlement School" for one topic, at which time members who had very recently visited the school gave reports of their trips. $38.00 was recently sent the school from the sale of products, and in November the club sent $100.00 as our yearly contribution. At the December meeting we were honored with a visit from Miss Onken and, as ever, her charming personality was an inspiration and challenge. In January Hilda Henry, Maryland A, gave a very interesting report of Lin Utang's, The Importance of Living. We hope to have another review later of some book of Pi Beta Phi authorship.

Realizing that all Pi Beta Phis should review the history and government of our fraternity with convention so near and coming this year we had a study and quiz in March. The April meeting we shared with other Georgia Pi Phis in the celebrating of Founders' Day. With a final business meeting and picnic in May we will close our year and spend the summer months helping the actives in rushing.

The Atlanta Club most cordially invites all Pi Beta Phis to consider the beauties of our city and include it in your post-convention travels. There is, as always, a standing invitation to Georgia Pi Beta Phis to attend any of our meetings.

ETHEL GILLESPIE SMITH

DE LAND CLUB

The meetings of the De Land Alumnae Club are again being held on the first Monday night in each month at the home of one of the members.

We were very happy to have Mrs. Winifred Smith Paige, Zeta Province Vice-president, as our guest in November. After a very beautifully appointed dinner, Mrs. Paige outlined briefly plans for the National Convention to be held in Asheville, North Carolina, in June, at which time Zeta Province will be one of the hostess provinces.

Our December and January meetings were devoted to completing plans for our annual bridge party at the College Arms Hotel which is given to raise funds for the Settlement School. We had a very interesting exhibit and sale of selected articles from the Arrow Craft Shop at Gatlinburg. Miss Ruth Foad, president of the alumnae club is in charge of arrangements for the party.

MARJORIE HAMMER

ST. PETERSBURG CLUB

Cooky-shines, on the second Wednesday of each month, have again been chosen by the St. Petersburg Alumnae Club as the type of meeting for this season. The most interesting event this year was the November meeting at the home of the president, Miss Poulson, the occasion being the visit of Zeta Province Vice-President, Mrs. Winifred Smith Paige of Atlanta. As a result of her suggestions, twenty dollars was afterward cleared from the sale of chances on merchandise at a local shop, the sum forwarded to Mrs. Paige for national activities. Also at recent meetings chances on a magazine, ordered through the agency, were sold, part of the proceeds going to the treasury.

The club was invited by the Tampa Alumnae Club to join in celebration of Founders' Day.

KATHERINE WARMINGTON LEWIS

TAMPA CLUB

The Tampa Club looks forward to the April meeting when we join with the St. Petersburg Club in celebrating Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Cricket Tea Room in Tampa. This will be the first time in several years that the two clubs have met jointly.

Those attending the March meeting at the home of Mrs. Horace Knowlton relished a picnic supper served out of doors. Later officers were elected for the coming year. There was a display of Settlement School work and those wishing to buy had a wide choice of beautiful articles.

We are proud that Mary Elizabeth White was chosen to be one of the four maids in the current court of King Gasparilla and his Krewe. Convention spirit is riding high and we expect a record breaking attendance from Tampa.

ETA PROVINCE

BELOIT CLUB

The monthly meetings of the Beloit Club have been very enjoyable this year. One of our members, Miss Pierce, who has spent a number of years in China and at present is a Y.W.C.A. director in Beloit, gave an interesting talk on conditions in China at our February meeting.

We held our Founders' Day luncheon in April with the Rockford Club. Our Whitewater members have invited us to come to Whitewater for the May meeting. In June we have our annual alumnae dinner at the chapter house.

FRANCES BURNS

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA CLUB

The Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club concluded a successful year with a total membership of 52 and an average attendance of 29. The alumnae meetings were dinner meetings the third Monday of each month.

The first meeting of the year was held in Mrs. George Clark's home. Mrs. C. M. Hobart gave a review of Vaughan Wilkins' And So Victoria and Mrs. Cesare Gianturco showed movies of her recent trip in Italy.

The freshmen of Illinois Zeta were dinner guests of the alumnae at the chapter house for the November meeting. Mrs. John D. Fitzgerald, mother of Linda Fitzgerald Root (an Illinois Z), gave a travelogue with movies of her world cruise, placing particular emphasis on Japan and China. In November we earned money by having a rummage sale which netted $41. In December we had our usual Settlement School Tea in the chapter house. Mrs. M. L. Hecker, our Settlement School Chairman, sold $125 worth of Arrow Craft products.

The January meeting was held in Mrs. H. S. Dawson's home. A dietitian from one of the large retail grocery stores gave an interesting talk on frosted fruits and vegetables and suggested menus for their use.

Mrs. Robert Bishop was hostess to the alumnae group for the February meeting. Sally Fisher gave a play review of Shakespearean plays she had seen in London last summer, of Lawrence Housman's Victoria Regina, and of Tovarich.

At the March meeting which was held in Mrs. H. J. Truman's home we had our annual study of the constitution and history. The proceeds of our White Elephant Sale were sent to the Endowment Fund.

The alumnae celebrated Founders' Day in the chapter house with the members of Illinois Z. The seniors of Illinois Z were our guests at the last meeting of the year which was held in Mrs. Howard White's home.

EMMA JANE ITTNER

CHICAGO BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB

Our January meeting was devoted to a study of the Constitution and the history of II B Φ. Margaret Lindsay, Virginia Cooke, and Marjorie Jenkins made this one of the most pleasant meetings of the year with their painless method of reviewing these subjects. Attendance was very small at our February meeting but the few present enjoyed meeting in a home for a change. The majority of our meetings are held in the Loop with dinner first and business afterwards.

Plans for the spring include entertaining a member of the chapter at Northwestern, a spring rummage sale, and the celebration of Founders' Day in conjunction with other clubs in the city. We hope to have at least one member in attendance at Convention.

COSETTE NELSON

CHICAGO NORTH CLUB

Our activities this winter season have been confined to our three group meetings except for one joint meeting at which we had nomination and election of the new officers for the coming year. We are to have the pleasure of entertaining our Grand Vice-President, Mrs. Warren Smith, at a tea on March 12th at the home of Mrs. H. E. Davis. Our project for raising our contributions to the Settlement School, and the Endowment Fund are progressing nicely and our efforts now are being directed toward representation at Convention this year.

DOROTHY FISHER KIRK

CHICAGO SOUTH CLUB

The Chicago South Alumnae Club is looking forward to a busy spring. The first and most important item on our calendar is the long-anticipated visit from Mrs. Smith. During the time she will spend with us she will be entertained at luncheon at the South Shore Country Club by our president, Mrs. William Pennington (Eugenia Shaw). Afterward there will be a tea for her at the ever-hospitable home of Mrs. Arthur B. Wright.

We had hoped her arrival would coincide with our last general meeting which was a Cooky-shine, held at the home of Gloria Crawford, with the Beverly Hills group members acting as hostesses. We all had a very pleasant evening; we visited and sang Pi Phi songs and, after dinner, took part in a business meeting.

Election of officers for the coming year was held and we discussed the Settlement School Arrow Craft sale, which is planned for the first week in April. We were pleased to have present quite a few members of the newest of the six groups into which Chicago South is divided—the night group, composed largely of employed girls and graduate students.

Committees are already at work on the Settlement School Arrow Craft sale, which is to be a tea and exhibit; Gloria Crawford is chairman and we are hoping to make it an enjoyable event as well as a financial success. Each group is also intent on raising money for the Endowment Fund, and on the sale of vanilla, which is one of our projects this year for the benefit of the Settlement School.

ZITA MILLER THOMPSON

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN CLUB

Our club has been busy with preparations for a card party and style show to be given the week before Easter at the beautiful La Grange Country Club. Because this will be the first of the club's spring parties we are determined to make this an especially attractive one.

At our January meeting Mrs. Trow told of her visit to historic Williamsburg homes, illustrating her talk with reproductions of the beautiful carpets, wall paper, and hangings that she saw there.

Our March meeting, the study of the Constitution, was an illustrated pageant. Founders' Day was celebrated by a formal dinner at the new Green Shutters Tea Room. We close our year with our annual picnic at the country home of Grace Green Brown.

Much credit for our year's activities should go to our enthusiastic and capable president, Margery Williams Pribble.

DU PAGE CLUB

The Du Page Club has held its meetings this winter under some handicaps. Bad roads prevented a full attendance, our president was in quarantine part of the time, and our vice-president moved away. But we have had some good meetings in spite of these difficulties, or perhaps the mental exercise of meeting these problems has been a stimulus.

It has been fun to visit the new homes for meetings and to try to keep posted on the anticipated Blessed Events. The fall alumnae personals should carry announcements of several new arrivals.

The January meeting was marked by our White Elephant Auction for the Endowment Fund. Each member brought one or more articles which were auctioned off at the meeting. The selection this year was so choice that the auctioneer had little occasion to be eloquent.

The election of officers at the February meeting resulted in unanimous election of nearly all with the promise of a united membership to support the work of the coming year.

KATHLEEN F. BROWN

ELGIN CLUB

Active members, 10. Pi Phi living in vicinity, 13. Average attendance, 10.

Just twenty-one years ago, my mother wrote in these columns of the forming of a Club of the Pi Phi in Elgin and Dundee. With the passing of the years, and the ever-widening circles of Pi Phi membership, the second generation of that group is now entering into the work of the Club. We feel we are acquiring a background of traditions! But those traditions are so united with our "forward look" that our progress is assured. This year we contributed to Pi Phi's three projects, $55.00 to the Settlement School; $5.00 to the Loan, and $5.00 to the Endowment Funds. We have held seven meetings including a Bridge Benefit with sale of Arrow Craft; and a Founders' Day celebration at which we entertained a newly organized alumnae club in our province. Our meetings always open with an informal 6:00 o'clock dinner.

We have two pledges this year at Beloit, Marcy Mills Haeger of Dundee, who is the eleventh Pi Phi in the Mills family; and Patricia Hubbell of Elgin. With this bond of interest, we made a gift to the active chapter in Beloit.

Interwoven into the very fabric of the Elgin Alumnae Club, is the fine loyalty and friendliness of its members, which has endured through this generation.

BARBARA HAEGER ESTES

GALESBURG CLUB

The Galesburg Alumnae Club has had a better year with increased membership and a more active interest on the part of all its members.

The administration is in the hands of Mrs. Florence H. Peckenpaugh and has been managed with care and in inspiring interest on her part.

The club has met with the active chapter Ill. Beta-Delta at a formal rushing party in the fall and at a "cooky-shine" in honor of the initiates on February 19. We will meet with them again to celebrate Founders' Day at a formal dinner as has been the custom for many years.

Mrs. Philip P. Murkland, Eta Province Vice President, visited us in November and gave us an interesting talk of things of interest at other clubs with our problems and merits discussed.

Also at our November meeting we pledged to the Community Chest which is in its initial year at Galesburg.

In October Mrs. Glidden gave us an interesting report of Ill. Beta-Delta which has made us feel even closer to the local chapter than before.

We are looking forward at this time to our monthly "cooky-shine" at which Mrs. Warren T. Smith, Grand Vice-President, will be our special guest.

The history of Illinois Beta is being compiled and written by Mrs. Annie Y. Crissey. That of Illinois Delta by Mrs. Jean B. Trevor and Mrs. Florence H. Peckenpaugh. Mrs. Peckenpaugh is to write the history of Illinois Beta-Delta.

Mrs. Mary Isley, Magazine Chairman, has been conscientious and has built up the agency to a great extent and we feel that we will have had a larger part in this national project.

CORENNE S. SMITH

LIBBY BROOK GADDIS CLUB (AVON)

Our club enjoyed a visit from our province vice-president, Mrs. Murkland, last fall. In spite of some difficulties we have had several meetings this year and look forward to renewing our activities this spring.

EDITH CRISSEY

MADISON CLUB

The Madison Alumnae Club enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Murkland, our province vice-president, in January. She spoke to us on chapter and alumnae affairs and told us many new facts and some interesting anecdotes about the Settlement School. This meeting, a very large one, was held at the chapter house and gave some of the alumnae their first view of the newly redecorated house since it has been entirely completed.

In March the alumnae club will assist at a tea which the members of the active chapter are giving for Mrs. Smith, Grand Vice-President. Later in the month there will be another tea, this one sponsored and given by alumnae club members for their Madison friends who would like to see the interior of the new house.

We are planning a rummage sale to raise money and several other projects are under discussion.

BETTY HUTCHCROFT

MILWAUKEE CLUB

One of the most interesting programs of the year was provided at our January 15 luncheon at the College Women's Club. Leon Pescheret, husband of Grace Wallar, Iowa Alpha, lectured on "The Art of Etching." As the only color etcher in the United States, Mr. Pescheret's work is unique and the majority of his subjects are American, including many Smoky Mountain scenes. We were fortunate in having an artist of his reputation speak to us.

On February 21, Ruth Nethercut entertained the club at a buffet supper following which Mr. Oliver O'Boyle, Corporation Counsel of Milwaukee County, gave an exceedingly interesting talk on "The Constitution."

At this meeting our president, Mrs. Thomson, presented for consideration a plan for holding part of our meetings next year in east and west side groups. The Milwaukee Club has grown to such size that some sectional meetings seem to be the solution to the problem of finding enough homes large enough to accommodate the entire group.

Vivian Clark Ray, Magazine Chairman, has made an intensive campaign for subscriptions and has received such fine support from the club that we are now leading Eta Province in the amount of magazine subscriptions.

One of our members, Irene Eldridge, has been appointed to the Settlement School Committee.

Rushing Chairman for next year is Mrs. Frederick C. Millard, Jr., 2205 North Lake Drive.

We enjoyed the visit of Ruth Barrett Smith, Grand Vice President, at our March meeting.

ALICE MCNEEL ECKSTEIN

NORTH SHORE CLUB

The new year of the North Shore Alumnae Club opened September 17 with a tea at the home of Mrs. Robert Talley at which Jean Burns gave a dramatic reading of The Sea of Grass by Conrad Richter. On September 22 and 23 the club held a rummage sale for the benefit of the Settlement School.

The October meeting was the Settlement School exhibit and tea at the home of Mrs. E. L. Middleton. Also in October the first acquaintance bridge party was given for new members at Mrs. Fred Ringle's home.

A lovely luncheon was given by the board at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Fox in November. The program was given by Mrs. Harris Frazier who gave an excellent review of And So Victoria. There were 70 paid members present at the luncheon, and memberships are still coming in.

The December meeting was also a luncheon at the Pi Phi house in Evanston. Mr. Edwardo Hellmund lectured and showed fascinating films of Scotland, France, England, and Switzerland.

We enjoyed a visit from Ruth Barrett Smith when she visited Eta Province.

ALMINA EPPERSON AURELIUS

PEORIA CLUB

The Peoria Club projects this year have been concerned mostly with plans to earn money for the Settlement School. We held a Thanksgiving turkey raffle on which we cleared over half of the sum set as our goal. We are now sponsoring a roller skating party for March by which we hope to complete our fund. We had a lovely Christmas party at the home of Roberta Tippet at which we entertained active girls from several chapters who were home for the holidays. Panhellenic held a Fashion Review and tea on March 2, in which Pi Phi was well represented. Among the models were Mrs. E. J. McNamera, Mrs. Porte V. Wheeler and Mrs. C. B. Jury and son Michael.

WILLA M. JURY

ROCKFORD CLUB

The Rockford Alumnae Club opened 1938 with a waffle supper at the home of Edith Whiting. We had as our guest Mrs. Phillip Murkland, Province Vice-President. She gave us some very interesting facts about the national organization of Pi Beta Phi and the schools and chapters in our province.

Our February meeting was devoted to a study of Settlement School and election of officers for the coming year. Our March meeting will consist of a Chow Mein supper following by a White Elephant Sale, the proceeds of which will go to Settlement School.

On March 19, Rockford's annual Panhellenic dinner will be held at the Faust Hotel with the Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Club as hostess. There will be a fashion show in connection with it and Mrs. Edward Fox will model for Pi Beta Phi.

MARJORIE RUTHERFORD

OAK PARK-RIVER FOREST CLUB

The year of 1937-38 has been a busy one for our club. At the November meeting, at the home of Mrs. Towle, Mrs. Pardunn of the Central Office told us of her work and the services of her office. The annual Settlement School sale was held twice this year, the Saturday after Thanksgiving at the home of Betty Blair and the following week at the Oak Park Nineteenth Century Club. Almost $150 worth of merchandise was sold. Some of the girls in the club made wardrobes for dolls which sold well.

In December Mrs. Merrill B. Knox took charge of a successful rummage sale. The December meeting was a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Donald Berg. For the January meeting some of the members presented the play, "The History of IC Sorosis," a dramatization of the founding of Pi Beta Phi. Ruth Barrett Smith, Grand Vice-President, visited the club at our March meeting.

PAULA S. ARMSTRONG

THETA PROVINCE

AMES CLUB

A joint committee of alumnae and actives planned the formal reception for the faculty members in order that they might enjoy open house in the new building. It was well organized and the evening was a pleasant and successful one. At least three hundred and fifty guests visited the new Pi Phi house the evening of January 19.

The History and Literature division of the Faculty Women's Club were invited by the Pi Phi Alumnae to hold one of their meetings in the new house the first week in March. Mrs. O. R. Sweeney and Mrs. Hoxie received the guests and Mrs. Derby presided. The program was given by Inez Rosenbush pianist, from Buenos Aires, and Dorothy Stevens, a violinist from Ames.

A cooky-shine was held at the house in February and was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Robert E. Snow, the mother of Jane Snow, Iowa Gamma, who is Director of Arrow Craft at the Settlement School, was a visitor here the first week in January. A luncheon was given in her honor at the Memorial Union. She was also guest of honor at the active chapter formal January 8.

FRANCES H. POLOCK

IOWA CITY CLUB

Iowa City Alumnae club has had a smooth-sailing successful year under the leadership of our president, Mrs. W. T. Swenson.

The club again continued the plan of dividing the pledges into groups of six or seven, entertaining one group at each of the supper meetings held on the third Monday of every month. We have found that, in the informal atmosphere of these meetings, the alumnae become better acquainted with the pledge group.

The February meeting was held in the beautiful new home of Mrs. Vernon Nall. In place of the usual history program Mrs. Frank Mott gave a delightful résumé of the activities of other fraternities particularly as regards the various philanthropies.

The club voted to make the program for Founders' Day in the way of a tribute to Mrs. Nyle Jones whose efforts were in such large measure responsible for the building and the successful financing of our chapter house.

FLORENCE STRUB RAWLAND

WINNIPEG CLUB

During the first part of the year our meetings were held at private homes and now they are held at the Panhellenic Sorority House on Roslyn Road. Meetings in the form of special interest groups were suggested but were voted down so that they have taken the form of a business meeting with refreshments served later. On one occasion Betty Banning gave us a very interesting talk about her experiences in Paris and abroad.

In the fall during raking we had a Deep Sea Tea for the rushees. Tropical fish and a deep sea drop curtain adorned the walls. Colorful fish used as name plates were pinned on each girl, adding to the marine atmosphere.

At our next meeting the girls dressed dolls for the Kindergarten Christmas Tree. Every week two or more girls go down to the free Kindergarten and teach these children various educational projects. To aid this work we sponsored a John Holden Theater Night at the Dominion Theater. This year it was particularly successful financially. Prior to our theater night we entertained at a tea in honor of Grace Matthews, a Toronto Pi Phi who is a member of the John Holden cast.

A few weeks before Christmas Mrs. Klein entertained the girls at a very enjoyable party. After making and filling Christmas stockings for needy country children we played guessing games. Every girl present won a prize so that we debated whether we were all bright or whether it was due to Mrs. Klein's generous nature.

Our initiation banquet was a grand success. This year we had more new initiates than we have ever had.

In order to raise some needed money we had a White Elephant party. Each girl brought a colorful and attractive looking parcel containing an unused white elephant Christmas, birthday, or other unwanted gift or purchase. These were all placed on a table in the center of the room to be viewed, judged and conjectured over by the girls. Thirty-five cents was required from each one and then we could choose any wrapped parcel which took our fancy. Many delighted exclamations were uttered over pretty purses, compacts, scarfs, hankies, ornaments, and other surprises.

In honor of our pledges the alumnae planned a St. Patrick's treasure hunt.

ELAINE PAGET

DES MOINES CLUB

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Leonard West. A talk on Dinnerware, which proved very instructive, was given by a representative from a local store.

At the February meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Harold West, the program consisted of an equally instructive talk on Furniture.

The Director of the Little Theater talked on Dramatics at the March meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Burrows. Both his talk and the ensuing discussion period were very enlightening.

Founders' Day was observed in April, and in May at the final meeting of the year new officers will be elected.

The club is glad to welcome several newcomers to Des Moines and pleased that so many are attending the meetings.

To raise money for current expenses each one present at meetings gives 25¢, thus making money-raising schemes practically unnecessary.

ANNE P. BRUBAKER

DULUTH-SUPERIOR CLUB

The year has progressed very satisfactorily under the guidance of Eloise Clark, the two outstanding events being the Settlement School and Arrow Craft tea and sale, and the annual evening bridge which was given at the home of Margie Dunn. The husbands are getting very well acquainted so it is a grand reunion each year. Our club has been augmented this year by the following members: Virginia Mendenhall Ramsland (Minn. Alpha); Sila Olson (Wis. Alpha); Elizabeth Turney Stewart (Wis. Alpha); Superior, Wis.; Mary Sullivan Olsen (N.D. Alpha).

We hope that any Pi Phis who may visit Duluth and the Arrowhead country this summer will get in touch with us as we have occasional summer meetings. We always look forward with pleasure to Mrs. Philip Murkland's annual visit and hope to have other Pi Phis form the habit of coming to Duluth and Superior.

RUBY BURTNESSE OLMSTEAD

IOTA PROVINCE

BOULDER CLUB

The Boulder Club has had a successful year, meeting each month for a buffet supper after which there is a business session and a pleasant time of sewing and conversation. The Constitution meeting in charge of our president, Harriet Tower, was held in February, and the Settlement School meeting in March. The usual contributions have been made to the Settlement School and the Endowment and Loan funds. Jane Sampson has been appointed chairman of the committee for the recommendation of rushees.

Each year Colorado Alpha and Colorado Beta celebrate Founders' Day together. A summer tea is being planned in honor of Pi Phi who are vacationing in Boulder.

LOU H. McALLISTER

BOZEMAN CLUB

The Bozeman Alumnae Club is very proud and happy to have become a national club this year. As our charter has just been granted since our last meeting, we have no alumnae activities to enter in this edition. However, the club, before becoming national, always has taken a very active interest in the chapter. We entertained the new pledges at a cooky-shine at our November meeting. The charter members are as follows: Edith Waterman Anderson, president; Wanna Finley, secretary; Judith Creel McGinty, treasurer; Elenore Herron, Breta Kravik, Evelyn Kyes Jordan, Eva Hatharon Lovelace, Olga Ross Hannon, Lois Butler Payson, Margaret Campbell Post, Angela Jahant Alderson, Winnifred Story Lovelace, Elva Ayler Cowan, Francis Kyle Napton.

WANNA FINLEY

CASPER CLUB

The 1937-38 season for the Casper Club has been very successful and enjoyable. Regular meetings have been held the first Tuesday of each month.

Our annual September Rummage Sale was received with great enthusiasm and enabled the club to contribute generously to the Settlement School, and to Wyoming Alpha in the form of a Christmas gift.

On September 30 we were fortunate in having the Province Vice President, Mrs. Shrive B. Collins of Denver, visit the club. The Executive board entertained her at breakfast, and a luncheon was given in her honor for all of the members. After the luncheon, an inspiring meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Canfield, at which time Mrs. Collins gave many helpful ideas about Alumna Club activities.

Christmas orders for magazines amounted to $175.00 and an order for Arrow Craft Products was received by the Settlement School. The Pi Beta Phi Cook books have met with great success in Casper.

RUTH SCOTT HOCKER

COLORADO SPRINGS CLUB

With the Iota Province Conference, which was held here last May, to give us fresh impetus, the Colorado Springs Alumnae have had a successful year under the able leadership of our new president, Florence Kisner Corning (Mrs. H. M.). Other officers for this year are: vice president, Frances Bowers Knutson (Mrs. Loyde E.); treasurer, Judith Sharrod Drew (Mrs. E. L.); secretary, Lucile Adams; Settlement School Chairman, Elizabeth Rothwell Lowell (Mrs. J. R., Jr.); Magazine Chairman, Mae Pettibone Campbell (Mrs. W. A., Jr.).

We held our annual Settlement School Tea in November at the home of Mrs. Campbell, selling Arrow Craft Products in the amount of $132. Other money making schemes handled by Margaret Tasher Smith (Mrs. James Barker), such as the sale of Pi Phi Cook Books and candy at our Province Convention, added to our profits. So, at our last meeting we voted to contribute $25 to the Settlement School, $3 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund, and $10 to the Endowment Fund.

We are proud of our Magazine Chairman who has sent in subscriptions amounting to almost $50.

Although we still have our problem of small membership, we feel that we are making steady progress.

LUCILE ADAMS

DENVER CLUB

The Denver Alumnae Club enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Warren Smith on February 25. We were sorry her visit was so short. The benefit card party and style show on February 26 proved successful. Mrs. Milton Warren was chairman, and there were 100 tables, with $112.00 cleared. The ten models were members of Colorado Alpha, Colorado Beta, and the Denver Club. Monday evening, March 7, was a supper meeting at Mrs. Paul Barker's, with a bridge party following. Mrs. James Barker Smith of Colorado Springs spoke at a recent meeting on the endowment fund; Mrs. Earl Loser is the present chairman of the fund.

ALBERTA S. WHITE

LARAMIE CLUB

The members of the Laramie Alumnae Club had the good fortune to have Jane Beck Johnson (Mrs. Nelson T.) of China with us for our February meeting. We celebrated the event with an informal buffet supper at the house with the chapter. Mrs. Johnson entertained us with vivid descriptions and anecdotes of her life in China. Several members from adjoining communities swelled our number to almost one hundred, making it one of the largest, as well as the most significant, gatherings of Wyoming Alpha members we have ever had.

At the annual honors dinner at the University in February, Mary Scott Embree and her son Raymond, new Phi Kappa Phi members, were introduced. Mrs. Embree, a former member of the University of Wyoming board of trustees, is this year finishing her work for her B.A. degree, while her son is beginning his university career.

MRS. M. E. CORTHELL

LAWRENCE CLUB

The Lawrence Club has held regular luncheon meetings each month. In October we were honored with a visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Hallie Collins. She was guest of honor at a luncheon for all members of the alumnae club and as always, her visit proved to be of great benefit to us all.

The club entertained the active chapter with a tea on April 5. This is always a pleasant way of meeting and making new contacts with the active girls. Rushing is already a topic of discussion. The Lawrence Club tries in every way to co-operate with the active chapter on "town" material by compiling a list of eligible girls and submitting these names for approval.

LOIS G. KLOCK

MANHATTAN CLUB

A cooky-shine honoring the Kansas B pledges was the first activity of the Manhattan Club this year. Mrs. S. B. Collins was guest of honor at a luncheon held at the Gillett hotel in October. The November meeting was at Mrs. Russell Cave's home and the January one at Mrs. Paul Weigel's. In February, a luncheon was held for the Kansas B initiates.

The club has 31 members this year with Mrs. Malcolm Aye as president, Mrs. Gerald Smith as vice president, Mrs. Richard Kendall as recording secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Richard Seaton as corresponding secretary. A rummage sale and a pre-Christmas sale of Settlement School products and foods have enabled the club to send $100 to the Settlement School. The Christmas gift from the club to the active girls was two small tables and two lamps to go on either side of the fireplace at the chapter house.

MARY HOLTON SEATON

OMAHA CLUB

The Omaha Club is having a pleasant and profitable year and we have been happy to welcome several new members. Our February meeting was an entertaining and unique one because each member wore the oldest hat in her possession and a style show was presented. Chances were then sold on a certificate for a new hat and the result was financially profitable to the club.

More than four hundred guests were present at the Hotel Paxton on February 18 when we presented Miss Beatrice Edmonds, California Alpha, in a group of interpretative play reviews. March 12 we celebrated Founders' Day in Lincoln as is our custom. Election of officers came in March and the April meetings was turned over to the new officers.

ROSALIE REINHARDT PEERY

VERMILLION CLUB

The alumnae have been especially interested in South Dakota Alpha's new chapter house which was ready for occupancy March 1. Our club members have been helping with the preparations for moving. A news letter, "A Link in the Chain," was prepared and sent out to all South Dakota Alpha alumnae during the holiday season. The night previous to initiation the new initiates were entertained by the club. This meeting was devoted to a study of the constitution. Founders' Day was celebrated as usual with the Sioux City club this year in Vermillion at the new chapter house.

LUCY CONNER

KAPPA PROVINCE

CORPUS CHRISTI CLUB

Our club has held regular monthly meetings and has had a good attendance. Three new members have joined, Mrs. C. A. Hearne, Colorado Beta; Mrs. D. S. Chamberlain, Missouri Beta; and Mary Kenedy, Texas Alpha. A successful Settlement School sale was held with a tea at the home of our president, Mrs. Glover Johns. Letters were written to absent Pi Phis about the Endowment Fund with good results. A Christmas tea was given honoring the pledges and their mothers, the actives and some rushees.

HELEN TUTT

DALLAS CLUB

The Dallas Club has been very active during the past few months. At Christmas well-filled baskets were sent to five families in need. Pi Phi was the first alumnae club to make a donation toward the Recreation room in McFarlin Auditorium for S.M.U. students. Other organizations interested in centering the recreational and social life of the students on the campus are also contributing toward this fund. Robes for the Texas Beta active chapter girls were another gift of the alumnae club.

The Texas Alpha members of the Dallas club made personal donations in addition to that of the club itself to the new chapter house of Texas Alpha at the University of Texas.

The Endowment Fund is being carefully sponsored. Every member of the club is being urged to assist and Pi Phis who live in surrounding towns and do not belong to alumnae clubs are also being interviewed. At the last meeting of the club an interesting talk on Mexico was given by Mrs. Edgar Welch. As she was born and reared in Mexico she gave a most informative talk.

Towel silver was displayed to one hundred guests at the home of Mrs. Lynn Milam on February 22. The affair was pleasing and a success financially. Our club is looking forward to the visit which Miss Onken is to make in April. She will be present at our Founders' Day banquet.

ELISE BUMPASS HELMS

EL PASO CLUB

The January meeting of the club was held January 15 at the home of Mrs. Robert D. Bradford, with Mrs. J. D. Schwartz as co-hostess. We had a pleasant meeting and enjoyable social hour. We were glad to welcome a new member from Denver, Colorado, Mrs. Frank McDonough (Carolyn Harris), Maryland Alpha.

On January 24, the club was delighted to have Mrs. Warren T. Smith, our National Vice President, with us for the day. A few of the members took her for a sight-seeing trip, which included a visit through the native markets of Juarez, Mexico. Then, the club entertained at a tea in her honor at the lovely home of Mrs. J. Page Kemp. We all felt very much inspired by her interesting talk and so enjoyed knowing her. A group took her to dinner at the Hilton Hotel before taking her to her train.

We feel quite honored that one of our members, Mrs. Frank C. Kilpatrick, received a silver medal announcing her as a member of Colleen Moore's "Goofus Club." Membership in the club requires giving Miss Moore an idea which she may use in her doll house. There are only about fifteen members.

ETHEL M. BRADFORD

FORT SMITH CLUB

In February, the Club sent letters to the Pi Phis who are not affiliated with an alumnae club, in interest of the Endowment Fund.

Election of officers for the coming year was held in April.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a banquet on April 28. Plans for rushing for the summer will be discussed at the May meeting.

The number of paid members for this year is twenty-two.

Contributions: Settlement School, $25.00; Endowment Fund, $5.00; Student Loan Fund, $5.00.

Betty Tolson, 123 Belle Avenue, Fort Smith, Arkansas, is Chairman of the Recommendation Committee.

RUTH MORTON

HOUSTON CLUB

Pride in the beautiful new chapter house at the University of Texas was the keynote of the meeting of the Houston club on February 25. The meeting, which was exceptionally well attended, was held in the home of Mrs. Edgar E. Townes, a charter member of Texas Alpha. An interesting group of visitors from the Austin club were our honor guests and provided the program. Mrs. H. H. Finch and Mrs. Sully Roberdeau spoke on the work of planning, building, and furnishing the house. Mrs. E. T. Miller discussed the work which her committee is doing on the history of the chapter. The younger generation of the Austin club was delightfully represented by Virginia Roberdeau who expressed appreciation to her mother and her mother's generation of Pi Phis for their efforts in making the new house a reality. Mrs. Raymond Hill gave an inspiring talk on the Settlement School. Our next meeting will honor new members who have entered our club since last September. We look forward to a visit from Miss Onken this spring.

ALICE HURLEY MACKAY

OKMULGEE CLUB

The Okmulgee Alumnae Club is a small but very much interested and active group.

There are thirteen paid members, every Pi Phi in town, with an average attendance of ten at meetings. Our regular meetings are held on the second Tuesday evening of each month. The extra meetings held last year were a Founders' Day banquet and a lovely rushing tea. The alumnae members were assisted by twenty members of the Oklahoma Alpha chapter who were on a floating house party.

Two of our members went to Norman to the tea and banquet when the Balfour Cup was presented.

We held a most successful rummage sale this fall to make our money for the year.

We were delighted to have two new members this year who add much to our club; Mary Brooks Fleshman, Kansas Beta, and Leila Dee Parks McCauley, Oklahoma Beta.

DOROTHY DEFRESE HARRIS

STILLWATER CLUB

Our most recent meeting was held in the new home of Mrs. Thomas E. Perry (Cynthalice Diggs, Oklahoma Beta). The lesson on the Constitution was in charge of Miss Helen Mullendore and Mrs. Vere D. Fry (Elsa Crites). Letters from the Endowment Fund committee were read and the club decided to comply with the national request for a dollar per member for this fund. We have also given as usual to the Settlement School and Loan Fund this year. The Club is anxious to send a delegate to Convention this year and our next project will be the raising of funds to pay a delegate's expenses.

We look forward to Miss Onken's visit when she comes to speak at the Stillwater Panhellenic Association banquet in April. This is an honor for our club to be able to present so distinguished a member as the speaker at this annual affair. We plan a formal dinner at the College Shop for our husbands and men friends very soon. At our last meeting we welcomed a new member, Miss Edith Fezler, Iowa Gamma, who is teaching on the Campus in the school of Home Economics.

We have a new Pi Phi baby in the club, Aneta Nell Arrington, whose mother will be remembered as Vinita Berry. We are sorry to lose Helen Mullendore whose marriage next month is taking her back to Hominy to be with her family until she is married. The club has started the custom of presenting each bride and new baby with a piece of flat silver engraved with the Pi Phi monogram.

"Mother Noble" (Emma Patton, Iowa Beta) has been compiling the history of Oklahoma Beta to which the club members have been contributing pictures and interesting items. We look forward to Founders' Day which we shall celebrate as usual with Oklahoma Beta.

RUTH SUNDELL ORR

TULSA CLUB

The Tulsa Alumnae Club was privileged to have as guest this week-end, Mrs. Olivia Smith Moore, Kappa Province Vice President, a most capable person with charming personality. Mrs. Moore gave a talk on Pi Phi history and the constitution. We have been greatly benefited by her visit and are inspired to greater efforts.

This year, we were fortunate in receiving as new members an attractive group of young girls who are sponsoring rush activities. Our first party was a tea given in January. Highlighting the rush season, however, was a breakfast of springtime appointments given at the Junior League tea room on February 26.

Our meetings have been enjoyable and well attended. We have recently contributed most generously to the Endowment Fund.

ALLIE YOUNG CONNER

WACO CLUB

In July the entire Waco Alumnae Club were guests of Mrs. Manton Hannah and Mrs. Goodhue Smith for a beautiful luncheon in order to discuss our summer rushing. Jane Brazelton was appointed rush captain of the alumnae club and she in turn arranges small informal parties for rushees throughout the summer, climaxing with a formal dinner just before the opening of school.

The first fall business meeting was held early in October at the home of our president, Mrs. Jerome Cartwright. Favorable reports of fall rushing were made by Ella May Turner and Nancy Darden who visited our nearest active chapter in behalf of our alumnae.

In November we were fortunate in having Mrs. Nita Hill Stark of Orange, Texas, Grand Secretary visit us. Mrs. Joe L. Ward entertained Mrs. Stark and the entire alumnae club with a breakfast at which Mrs. Stark gave us an inspiring talk.

We are happy to have five new members in our club this year; Cecille Inabnit, Fay and Ray Pierce, Dorothy Shands, and Lynn Buchanan. Plans for the remainder of the year include a Settlement School sale in February and a display of Towle Silverware in April.

All year we have been active in selling vanilla extract from which proceeds go to our Settlement School Fund.

ANNE SCOTT

WICHITA FALLS CLUB

Our alumnae group of twenty members is not a chartered alumnae club, but we meet regularly and help with rushing the local girls who are going to Oklahoma, Texas, and Louisiana universities. In the late summer we give a formal banquet for these girls and this is served on a "golden arrow" table just before they leave for college. We enjoy our fraternity contacts and welcome any Pi Phis who may come to our city.

DOROTHY LEE TAYLOR

LAMBDA PROVINCE

EDMONTON CLUB

The Edmonton Alumnae Club has been having a very successful year. Not only have we been working on our chapter history under the guidance of Rene Hayes, but we are also planning to send out news letters to all Alberta Pi Phis who having graduated are scattered and out of touch with the active chapter.

Our meetings have been well attended and our membership larger so our efforts have been worth while.

We had a very successful Cooky-shine with the active chapter last month and are now looking to our Founders' Day banquet with them. Our work for Settlement School through the Magazine Agency has been more energetically pursued this year, and our only regret is that we are unable to obtain as much Arrow Craft work as we would like.

Our annual meeting is being held next month.

FANNIE WHITENACK LIBBEY CLUB

We thought with the excitement of the Christmas parties that our January meeting would be a sort of a let-down but it turned out to be quite as entertaining as the Christmas parties. We met at the home of Ruth Alexander with the Pi Phi constitution as the program subject. Camilla Dunbar Helliessen very cleverly arranged an old-fashioned spell-down in the form of questions and answers and the results informative as well as entertaining.

Our February meeting was with Mrs. Helliessen and we had for our program, "Pi Phis in the public eye." We were surprised to learn of so many different professions in which Pi Phi is nationally prominent. We have another meeting before Founders' Day and we always celebrate our own Fannie Libbey's birthday. The March meeting was held at Mrs. Charlotte Clark's at which time we shall have the election of officers. In May we hold our last meeting with Mrs. Perham and have installation of officers.

BETH MARSHALL JACKSON

PORTLAND (OREGON) CLUB

The Portland Club started the year with two fine meetings. The first being held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Smith in January and the second one, our annual bridge party, at the home of Mrs. Roy Shields. We are making plans for sponsoring the appearance here of Beatrice Edmonds in April. We have been delighted with her programs in the past and hope to help make her appearance an even greater success this year. The Constitutional Program will be held in March at the home of Mrs. Howard Holman, the Founders' Day banquet in April, a dessert luncheon with Mrs. Carl Kinney in May and a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harry Hargreaves in June.

MILDRED SHIELDS ANDERSON

MU PROVINCE

ALBUQUERQUE CLUB

On October 19, the Albuquerque Alumnae Club opened the year with an evening meeting at the home of the president, Dr. Dorothy Woodward, with Mrs. Chester Russell as assistant hostess. At this time, plans for the coming year were formulated and the program arranged. Plans were made for the Settlement School sale, as well. On November 9, the club members were the guests of Mrs. Frederick Hooper at a dinner meeting. On December 2, the Settlement School Tea was held at the home of Mrs. Marshall Farris. The results of the sale were gratifying, most of the goods being sold, and a great deal of interest being displayed in the Settlement School and in the Arrow Craft articles.

ROSELLE GOULD FARRIS

BERKELEY CLUB

Since our last letter the initiation banquet took place according to the schedule prepared at the beginning of the club year, but some changes were made in the latter part of the schedule. The recital planned for February was not given until later and the Founders' Day celebration will not be the usual luncheon this year. Instead it was planned to have a dramatic program by Beatrice Edmonds (California Alpha) of San Diego. Miss Edmonds is a professional reader with an enviable reputation and we are very anxious to hear her. The San Francisco Alumnae Club is sponsoring this event and has asked the cooperation of the Palo Alto and Berkeley Clubs.

The initiation banquet was held on January 31 at the Women's Athletic Club in Oakland with ninety-seven in attendance. Of the twelve initiates honored at the banquet five were Pi Phi daughters and four of the proud mothers were there: Mrs. Warren Sanford (Louise Gimbal, California B), Mrs. Allen Morrow (Pauline Chamberlain, California B), Mrs. M. Ziegenfuss (Marjorie Porter, California B) and Mrs. O. J. Rohde (Merion Smith, California G and B). Mrs. G. N. Bjorge (Mabel Lee Turpin, Missouri A), of Lead, South Dakota, was the mother unable to attend.

Joan Von Schmidt, one of our mid-year graduates, was the charming toast-mistress and the responses were delightful. Mrs. Paul Cadman (Ethyl Miller, California B) had charge of the affair. She was assisted by a committee from the alumnae bridge group to which she belongs. They should all be congratulated on the success of the party.

MARGUERITE ST. CLAIR AUGUSTINE

FRESNO CLUB

The first meeting of our club in October was held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Hamilton, our Settlement School chairman, who had just returned from an eastern trip which included a visit to Gatlinburg. Mrs. Hamilton chatted delightfully and informally during the tea hour which followed the business session. She had a special showing of Arrow Craft articles as a sample of the many lovely things to be displayed at our annual benefit tea to be held in December. At this sale, we took in $293 to be sent to the Settlement School.

On January 27 we were privileged in having Mrs. Warren T. Smith, our grand vice-president with us. Mrs. Smith has a charming manner and gave us much inspiration through her splendid talk. We celebrated Founders' Day with a meeting at Sunnyside Club.

VERA HANSEN

GLENDALE CLUB

Glendale Pi Phi came together for a reorganization meeting in September and each one told of the trips she had taken during the summer. Pi Phis are travellers and tall tales of the national parks, great caves and mountain carvings were related. Ways and means were discussed at this meeting and plans for a most interesting year's program arranged.

One delightful affair which was arranged was the Settlement School Tea at the home of Jessie Wolfe, to which Pi Phis brought outside guests. Settlement School products were displayed and sold. A play reading, "You Can't Take It With You" was given by a talented reader. So far our chief money-making venture has been our rummage sale, under the direction of Nelle Parr. This was held in November and netted us more than eighty dollars.

The program of our October meeting was titled "Letters from Manila." The "Letters" were written by Eloise Sterling Hirt to her sister, Marcella Sterling Van Burgh, who read them to us. They told of Mrs. Hirt's impulse to visit the leper colony on the island of Cullion and how she became interested in their problems and enthusiastically persuaded many to help her bring joy into their lives. We looked forward to having Mrs. Hirt herself at our next meeting when she told us more about her experiences.

We had Ruth Barrett Smith, our Grand Vice-President, with us at our January meeting. To most of us she is just a good friend, but we feel that in her official capacity she brought us good suggestions for club improvement and news of what other clubs are doing.

ELSIE M. SALT

NEVADA CLUB

The Nevada Alumnae Club has found success in the bridge groups which have been formed. On March 12 we held a card party at the chapter house. We looked forward to our annual celebration of Founders' Day.

BLANCHE KEEGAN

OGDEN CLUB

Our meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month from October to May inclusive at seven o'clock in the evening. In November we had a small tea at which time articles from the Settlement School were shown in Ogden for the first time. It proved so successful that we are planning to have a larger tea next fall. We were delighted to have a visit from Mrs. Ruth Barrett Smith, Grand Vice-President, in February. We held our meeting at the home of our president, Mrs. Helen Abbott, and it was followed by a luncheon at the Ben Lomond Hotel. This is only our second year as a club but we have thirteen enthusiastic members and hope to grow each year.

ALTA SMITH HETZEL

PHOENIX CLUB

Members of the Phoenix Club have met regularly for evening meetings given each month by a group committee at the home of one of our members. Our club has grown in numbers and enthusiasm. In November the club had a delightful visit from our Province President, Mrs. D'Aulé, in whose honor a luncheon was arranged. In January our Grand Vice-President, Ruth Barrett Smith, made her official visit. Members of the executive board honored her with a luncheon at the Phoenix Country Club and the club had a beautifully appointed tea following the board meeting at Casa Hermosa on the desert near Phoenix. Mrs. Milton Sanders had charge of the party and invited all Pi Phis in the Salt River Valley.

As our Settlement School project we have sold cook books and had a rummage sale, a white elephant sale, and a raffle of Settlement School articles. Mrs. Victor Randolph had charge of the Pi Phi quota for the Panhellenic scholarship and helped raise a large sum selling theater tickets. On February 26 the Phoenix and Tucson clubs had a joint meeting with the Arizona A chapter. It was a luncheon held at the Vah-ki Inn in Coolidge, Arizona, which is half way between Tucson and Phoenix. It proved a pleasant way for the alumnae to keep in touch with the chapter and we hope to make it an annual affair.

BRENDA TATUM LEPPLA

SAN FRANCISCO CLUB

Plans for raising money for the Settlement School and other various funds occupied the attention of the San Francisco Alumnae Club at its February business meeting. Several bridge groups which have been meeting during the year reported contributions, and the raffle drawing was held which proved a financial success.

The San Francisco Alumnae Club joined with the East Bay and Peninsula Alumnae Clubs in presenting Beatrice Edmonds, California A, on April 19, at the Veteran's Memorial Auditorium. Miss Edmonds gave an interpretative review of the theatre. Each club was responsible for a block of tickets and from the enthusiastic reports we have had of Miss Edmonds' work, we felt certain that the affair would be an overwhelming success. Mrs. L. J. Stookey, chairman of the Pi Phi Magazine Committee, gave a most favorable report of her work during the past few months. The program chairman, Virginia Canfield, gave a reading of a modern three act play at the close of the meeting.

VIRGINIA CANFIELD

SANTA MONICA CLUB

Mrs. Frank Bahnsen and Mrs. Cort Majors were hostesses at the February meeting, at the home of Mrs. Majors. Dessert was served upon the arrival of the guests. A most delightful afternoon was spent in discussing "Antiques," Mrs. Lulu Le Sueur White, Texas A, being the guest speaker. Helen Majors has a choice collection of antiques in her charming home, which were of special interest to the guests.

On March 1, Mrs. Leonard Murray and Miss Ruth Norris entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon at the home of Miss Norris. There were a number of visiting Pi Phis in attendance, among them was Mrs. T. N. Carver (Flora Kirkendall), Iowa A—an I.C. and a member of the Class of 1886, also Miss Dorothy Bernick, Iowa G, who is visiting her sister Beatrice Bernick Hinman, a member of our club. Following the business meeting Mrs. Mable Ocker of Ardmore, Oklahoma, gave us another of her interesting travel talks. Mrs. Ocker spoke to us early in the Fall of a trip she made to the Island of Majorca.

Plans were made for the observance of Founders' Day. The five alumnae clubs located in the Los Angeles area and the two active chapters unite in commemorating this occasion.
