Lotta Weir Resigns

Ill health has forced the resignation of Lotta Johnson Weir, Illinois Z, as alumnae club editor of the ARROW, and the Editor of the ARROW finds it hard to express strongly enough her personal as well as official regret over the loss of her services. She has been the kind of a staff member that an editor dreams of finding, ever competent and ever reliable. For fifteen years Lotta has faithfully edited the letters from alumnae clubs, sometimes close to two hundred of them, and how trying a task it was the Editor once realized when Lotta was away on a trip, and the letters came to the Editor instead. They came, in every possible form and on every kind of paper, typed and handwritten, long ones and short ones, well-written ones, and hasty, poorly written ones, and it took days to get them in shape for the printer. That was Lotta's work for all those years, and always the letters reached the Editor on time, and in fine form, for many of them had been typed or re-typed. It has always been a joy to know for the whole period of the present editorship that her part of the work would be done perfectly. Thank you, Lotta, and to you go all good wishes from Pi Phis everywhere for perfect recovery and happy days.

Another Loss

Nita Day Carman, editor of our Exchanges and College Notes has resigned too—in her case because she was making an extended tour of Europe. Her work has perhaps not been as generally known as Mrs. Weir's, because her department has seldom been used as a unit of late years, since war-time restriction, paper shortages, etc. forced cutting the size of the magazine. Her contributions, always well-chosen from the magazines of the other fraternities, have been used as filler material, and have added much to the interest of the issues—and they were always forthcoming when the Editor wanted them. She will be missed—especially because of her sense of humor which made life gay!

New Staff Members

Appointment as alumnae club editor has been accepted by Virginia Sherman Kozak, of Syracuse, New York, who will be remembered at French Lick as the delegate from her club, and as one of the most faithful workers on the Convention Daily. The new Exchange Editor brings back a well-known name to the Staff—Mercedes Baker Jorgulesco, of Tarrytown, New York, formerly editor of From Pi Phi Pens—her work in that department was always full of life and interest. Her husband, Jonel Jorgulesco by the way, is Art Editor of Red Book Magazine. A new editor of the News from Little Pigeon also joins the staff—changes in the personnel of the Settlement School Committee have brought as editor of that section Harriet Goodsell Rauch, Iowa Beta, in place of Olivia Smith Moore, Missouri Alpha. To her we are indebted for the fine picture of the new Health Center at the School—it appears on the cover of this issue.

Some Plans

The December issue is always crowded with the accumulation of material which has come in since last March, since the September issue carries strictly business matters. This time the interest leans rather heavily towards the active girls, with honor girls, and with the stories of the two new chapters. The chapter letters in this issue seem more interesting than usual, full of the enthusiasm and the fresh interest in national affairs which Convention should always bring in its train—they are well worth reading. The turn of the alumnae will come in the March issue, deadline January 10—it will be devoted largely to their interests, with an interesting article by Marianne Reid Wild, much news of the alumnae projects, and such personal material as Pi Phis are good enough to send in. On hand are some interesting stories of Pi Phis who are doing things, but more are needed. If you know of Pi Phis who are in interesting work, preferably of national interest, and also if you know Pi Phis who may be elected to office in the forthcoming elections, or whose husbands may be coming into office, please send brief articles about them, with pictures if possible. Especially interesting would it be to have something about members who are rounding out fifty years of service to their own chapters—we have many like that who have served on House Corporations or on Advisory Boards for many a year. Will you help?

New Project

Pi Beta Phi's new project, the Alumnæ Home, is introduced to readers of the ARROW on the page following this one, and the ARROW will continue to give the committee as much publicity as possible for this new plan, which should become one of the great interests of Pi Phis everywhere. We have devoted the Settlement School, that great memorial to the Founders, to altruism—now there is a chance to do something for the happiness of our own people. The Cleveland Committee has made a fine start in their work.

Sympathy to Delta Gamma

Pi Beta Phi extends to Delta Gamma its deepest sympathy for the loss of its distinguished Editor, Alta Gwinn Saunders, who was killed in the tragic plane crash at Mt. Carmel, Pennsylvania last June, while on her way to the Delta Gamma Convention at Swampscott. Under Mrs. Saunders editorship the Anchora was always interesting, always attractive—hers is a real loss not only to her own fraternity, but to the Editor's Conference of National Panhellenic, which she had served with distinction as chairman, and in which she always took a prominent part. To the Editor of the ARROW Mrs. Saunders' death is a personal loss—she was a good friend.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Home

Mary Wallihan Gibson, Chairman

I WONDER if we alumnae realize, in founding and supporting an Alumnae Home, that we are helping to meet what is rapidly becoming a major social problem in our country. How many of us realize that the proportion of older people to younger ones is rapidly increasing? People are living much longer than they used to, thanks to preventive medicine and the treatment of the degenerative diseases that come with age. In contrast with this, modern housing is doing away with all but necessary space. The "spare room" is practically extinct. Also there are many women past middle age who cannot or do not wish to live with their families or who have no family to live with; women with some means, perhaps, but not enough to maintain themselves alone. These women would enjoy the friendly spirit, the similarity of background of a group of Pi Beta Phis with whom they could share a home.

It is with the idea of meeting some of these conditions that the recent Convention of Pi Beta Phi has authorized the project of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Home. It is the idea of the Committee that two homes be established, one in southern California, perhaps, and one in Kappa Province, though exact locations have not yet been decided on. These will not be charitable, though provision will be made for needy cases. Admission will be made by an entrance fee, as in similar homes of the better type. But first, buildings must be provided—and inquiry has determined that it is far better to design and build a home especially for such needs than to remodel an existing building. Once the Home is established, it should be self-supporting.

This is a Pi Beta Phi alumnae project. We shall need from $250,000.00 to $300,000.00 to finance it properly. Consider this as you would consider an equivalent fund for new buildings on your college campus. If all, who can, will give generously, we can put this over in a way that will make us all proud. Miss Ethel Van Cise has said that she would like to be the first $100.00 donor. We have one $500.00 donor in Cleveland.

Your Committee is authorized to accept gifts, and these gifts are deductible on income tax returns. Make checks payable to "Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Home, Mrs. E. J. Rupert, Treasurer," and mail to her at 18181 Clifton Road, Lakewood 7, Ohio. Let's get this going and get it completed quickly!

To Our Active Members—An Appreciation

DEAR ACTIVES—Convention is long since over, your delegates have given their reports and you have discussed in chapter meetings the many important events and decisions of that busy period. For the delegates, I hope the memories are all happy, and for the chapters, I hope the reports have given you all new enthusiasm, and filled you with new pride in just being a Pi Phi.

At Convention, there was one report that came at the end of a long hot day, when you had every right to leave with the thought, "Oh, that doesn't concern me." Instead you stayed and listened and at the end you rushed up and practically mobbed the speaker. I refer, of course, to Mrs. Middleton's report on the work of her Committee for the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Home. She was pleased and greatly touched by the interest and response shown by the active girls. She is no longer Chairman of the Committee, but the present Committee wants you to know that they, too, appreciate your attitude.

As you know, the Home is to be purely an Alumnae project, and the active girls are not being asked or expected to contribute to it in any way. The Committee wants you to know, however, that any time that any of you wishes to make any contribution, as an individual, as a gift from one of your family, or from a friend, or from the chapter it will be most gratefully received. Meanwhile, go ahead with your many active projects and get all you can from and do all you can for Pi Phi.

(You know, You'll all be alumnae some day—it creeps up on you!)

FROM Anne Guthrie, California A, comes this latest word of her activities since her resignation from her Y.W.C.A. work:

1. Sail Queen Mary September 14 for Europe to:

1. Attend the opening of the Assembly of the United Nations in Paris September 21
2. Spend a couple of weeks in Switzerland and Italy with the "United Nations World Tour."
3. After the Tour to remain in Paris at the Assembly as long as it is interesting and funds permit!
4. Visit Holland, Belgium, and maybe Spain and Poland to see friends and families of our International Study Conference now in session with 50 women from 26 countries.

5. End with the British Isles to visit my cousins and several friends of India days now back in Britain.

II. Return in time for Christmas with Mother.

III. 1949—Join the Lecture Bureau of Harold J. Peat, 2 W. 45th Street, New York.

Miss Guthrie says of these plans: "As an adventure, I have taken a year's leave of absence from the Y.W.C.A. to do this. If any of you who see this want to hear of my adventures, get a Woman's Club, or a Rotary, a high school or a college, a Forum, or ??? to decide they really must hear my words of wisdom.

The Convention Story

THE 36th biennial convention of Pi Beta Phi, held at French Lick Springs Hotel, Indiana, June 27-July 3 had one of the largest registrations in Convention history—950, with more coming in for the banquet.

Chapters and alumnæ clubs of Delta province, plus Kentucky A and the Louisville alumnæ, were royal hostesses, with the kind of welcome that is traditional in the Hoosier State and in Kentucky. Virginia Brackett Green, Indiana Γ, Convention Guide, Mary Covert Pritchard, Indiana A, in charge of registration, and LaVonne Larison Mannfeld, Indiana Γ, chairman of hos-such gatherings, and enacted legislation for the benefit of the organization. The business done has already been reported in the September ARROW—this account tells the interesting programs which varied the business meetings, and the play of Convention.

Francesce Evans Ives, Louisiana A, was the former member of Grand Council who is traditionally selected the special guest of Convention—Mrs. Ives was Grand Secretary from 1922 to 1927.

Four distinguished members of Pi Phi played special parts in the activities. Helen pitality, all of Indianapolis, were the general committee which planned and carried to completion one of the most successful conventions in Pi Phi history; their assistants from the clubs and chapters of the province gave wonderful help and co-operation—the result was an organization which functioned perfectly and unobtrusively. Their work was done with their hearts, and nothing was left undone for the comfort and pleasure of those who came.

From the first moment when a hostess welcomed the first member of Grand Council, until the last good-bye was said, all through the intervening six days and nights, hundreds of Pi Phis enjoyed the fellowship that goes with

Moore, Dean of Women at Kansas State College, and Virginia Reinecke Weaver, former Counselor of Women at the University of Oklahoma, were in charge of the active discussion groups.

Anne Guthrie, California A, World Consultant for the YWCA, and its observer on the United Nations, was the speaker on Pi Phi Night, when she charmed a packed audience with her dramatic presentation of great women of the world, making use of her most unusual and beautiful collection of costumes of all nations, worn by girls chosen for their likenesses to the different countries represented—the actors were introduced under the names of Miss Guthrie's distinguished friends all the world over. Miss Guthrie's talk is summarized elsewhere.

The speaker of Convention, Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette University and president of B Θ II (and also a good Pi Phi husband and father!) thrilled Pi Phis, representatives of other National Panhellenic fraternities, and deans of Indiana colleges and universities at the formal Monday night dinner.

Mr. Johnson, acting superintendent of the School, came from Gatlinburg just for the day. Those charming children—their voices went straight to the hearts of every listener, in touching picture of the real object of our work at Gatlinburg, the development of the children of the region. The same theme ran through Ruth Smith's fine report at a Convention session—the entire presentation of the Excerpts from his inspiring appeal to Greek letter organizations to live up to their ideals and so meet fraternity criticism follow this article.

Holt House and the history of Pi Beta Phi came alive at the opening program on Sunday evening, when Gladys Nall, chairman of the Holt House Committee, and Marian Simmons, former Holt House chairman and now National Historian, presented tales of the Fraternity when it was young. The Holt House movie, Mrs. Simmons' talk of the Founders as girls, with emphasis on the fact that Pi Phi was the first fraternity to honor the place of its founding—all this was a fine background for the week that was to follow.

Settlement School night had its interesting program on Wednesday night, with Ruth Barrett Smith, Iowa Γ , in charge of an Information Please program, followed by ballads of the Great Smokies sung by the quartet of girls and by two delightful children from the Settlement School, who with their music-teacher and Settlement School left no doubt of the continuing value of the great project, and sent those who heard it to the Settlement School display off the main lobby of the hotel, with renewed interest.

Chosen as special initiate for Convention was charming Evelyn Gabel Enteman, of East Orange, New Jersey, graduate of Vassar and of New York University, trust administrator of the Irving National Bank in New York City. She is the wife of Verling C. Enteman, $\Delta \Phi$, former chairman of National Interfraternity Conference, and speaker at the Pi Phi Convention in Swampscott in 1946. Read her talk, which we give in full, to share some of the feeling which she gave to those who heard her.

Informal get-togethers, province get-togethers, luncheons honoring various groups, such as the Canadians, members of Mortar Board, Pi Phi mothers and daughters, Golden Arrow members, and old timers who had attended more than three conventions, were scattered through the week. Wednesday afternoon was devoted to recreation, with a special trip to the restoration at Spring Mill State Park, and sports and games besides—a day which ended with an informal 'Hoosier covered wagon supper.

These things make up the factual story of Convention, but words can scarcely describe the life and color of it all. All through the week, old French Lick rang with gaiety and Pi Phi songs, was filled with arrows and girls and girls and more girls. There were happy meetings with old friends, fast-developing new friendships, small conferences and large ones, noisy, happy luncheons when Gene Eyeman of the hotel orchestra, played requests in honor of officers and provinces—sometimes the lineup to put in requests was long enough to block traffic in the crowded dining room! and how well those Pi Phi songs were played, too. There was something going on every minute, ending often in the small hours of the morning. Crowning event of the memorable week was the banquet, a brilliant picture of beautiful girls, lovely gowns, wonderful flowers, made lovelier still by the background of mirrors, made impressive by the toast program beautifully planned by Marianne Reid Wild, rising to heights of Pi Phi devotion, and closing with the candlelight ceremony of the loving cup, and the singing of the Anthem by over a thousand voices.

There were funny things, too—not always so funny at the time, such as the waiters' strike the first night, which the hotel management so cleverly camouflaged as a buffet supper that few people knew it happened; the literally "moving" story of the Convention Daily, without a permanent home, and quartered everywhere from a corner on the porch to the dance studio, shared with the interesting couple of dancers who liked the Pi Phis so much.

Everyone in the hotel liked the Pi Phis too, and Grand Council was indeed proud of the comments of the management when Convention was over and grateful, also, to the managerial staff for very much courtesy and kindness.

Truly it was a Convention to remember, for its progressive legislation, its fine spirit, its always interesting, well-informed discussion, its intelligent and attractive delegates, both active and alumnae, and through it all, its good fellowship and its fun. It was one of the great gatherings of Pi Beta Phi, one to be cherished always.

Live Up to Our Ideals

Excerpts from an address by DR. G. HERBERT SMITH

FRATERNITIES and sororities need only to live up to their ideals to deter fraternity criticism, Dr. George Herbert Smith, president of Willamette University and Grand President of B Θ II, told members of Pi Beta Phi and their guests at the Panhellenic Banquet. The ideals of every chapter are lofty and beautiful, he said, and we should make ourselves worthy of those ideals.

Dr. Smith said that colleges and fraternities have been living together for more than 150 years and not always quite harmoniously. In the beginning, they were looked upon suspiciously as "secret Greeks" and were considered as a possible threat to democracy. Persons were warned of the possible overthrowing of the young democratic nation by these "secret societies."

G. Herbert Smith

"As time went on, we have learned that the secrets of the fraternity are no more serious than a grip, a password, and some Greek letters that express the high ideals on which the organization has been developed. Colleges no longer fear and criticize fraternities on the basis of secrecy.

"Our whole problem now is caused by the lack of understanding on the part of the college and the aloofness of the fraternity," Dr. Smith emphasized. "The college now thinks of the fraternity not as a threat to American democracy but as a promoter of undemocratic spirit," he said. Mr. Smith defended the fraternity, saying that the fraternity is the closest thing to family life. We have a right to select our friends according to our own standards of intelligence and mutual assistance to certain objectives, he maintained, and a democratic government cannot stop this.

In behalf of the college, Dr. Smith said that it is a definite mistake for the fraternity to remain aloof from the college. After all we exist on campuses only by the invitation of the administration and we stay there only as long as the administration wants us. He emphasized that we must be considered an essential part of the college; otherwise we are nothing.

The college fraternity is the best possible medium for student government. A fraternity can bring high ideals and leadership to every campus. If colleges could realize this, it would help to alleviate the misunderstanding between colleges and fraternities.

"Sororities," he said, "do better in many ways than men's organizations." He cited examples of their providing better chapter houses than the men, their having better house management, and their providing greater philanthropic projects. He paid special tribute to the Pi Phi Settlement School, and said that while men's organizations so often feel that only brotherhood is necessary, sororities provide for and think about others less fortunate than themselves.

"The fraternity system is certainly not without fault," Dr. Smith said. He quoted Dr. Tressider, late president of Stanford University, who said:

"My objection to women's fraternities is not what they do to those within membership but what they do to those outside their membership. I don't feel that way about the men, but I do object to what they do to those within membership."

Dr. Smith cited the men's poorer scholarship and the "Hell Week" for prospective members. He blamed the scholarship in part on the undependability of the expectancy from high school grades. He said that often men who made high grades in high school and were pledged on this basis, fail completely in college. As for "Hell Week," he maintained that anyone has a right to criticize those things that fraternity men do to pledges as part of "initiation."

"I am greatly concerned about the development of social drinking in the chapter houses,"

Dr. Smith said, "because group drinking leads to excess drinking and excess drinking is bad." He said he feared that some fraternity may get caught by a photographer or reporter at some such party and cause much bad publicity for the fraternity system. He further said if such a thing should happen, the college would certainly stand by and let the fraternity bear the whole brunt of such a scandal.

In developing Dr. Tressider's point about what women do to those outside membership, he claimed that there are enough brains within the fraternity system to devise means to keep from hurting as many girls as we do now. He urged that we consider the freshmen and not the sorority so much. He said that the sorority can always save face, but that we don't give the freshman a chance because of such rush rules as registering and paying a fee before pledging. He also charged the sororities with carrying prospective pledges too long. He cited the example of the sorority which carried fifty girls up to the last dinner to assure filling twenty-five places.

"Women are guilty of over-public display, Dr. Smith said. "Sororities have entirely too much undue publicity about rush and we get a reputation of being clannish because of this," he said. He pointed out the case of a sorority that published a list of the fraternities in which its pledges could date.

"Thoughtfulness is the key by which we can solve these problems," Dr. Smith said. He urged the Convention delegates to go back to their respective campuses and take a stand on these matters. "Get rid of registration and payment-to-be-considered," he urged. "Try to remember the freshman's feelings. The fraternity is well enough established to save its face; the freshman is not."

He asked the women's fraternities to confine their expressions of joy over new pledges to the chapter house in order not to hurt other girls who didn't pledge. He cited as a bad example of over-public display a university where the girls who have pledged are received on the front steps of the administration building by fraternity men, while those who haven't pledged have to sneak out the back door to save embarrassment and because they are not allowed to come out the front door.

To help for better feeling between fraternities and all persons on campus, he suggested that chapters instruct their members to make friends outside the house and to plan affairs where outsiders can come into the house. He emphasized our keeping out of print as much as possible. The less that is heard of us the better, he said, because reporters don't want the good things about the fraternity but only those things which bring discredit to the fraternity system as a whole.

"In spite of the criticism and opposition," he concluded, "this is the golden age of the American college fraternity system. We now have the strongest position on the college campus that we've ever had," he said. "The general acceptance of the college fraternity has resulted from the growing realization that the fraternity is an essential part of the educational program of the college or university."

OUR 1948 Convention at French Lick became an international one when on Tuesday evening, June 29, Anne Guthrie, Colorado B and California A, brought the United Nations into close view for us all. The introduction of 16 delegates of the Convention by Miss Guthrie as representative women from the Philippines, China, and India effectively set the stage for her tour of the United Nations at Lake Success. The following girls were dressed in the native costumes of these three countries; Pat Williams, Arkansas A; Emily Ann Tiller, Arkansas A; Mary Anne Hyman, Indiana T; Betty Beck, Indiana T; Jean Claire Dunbar, Indiana B; Mary Jane Brittain, Indiana E; Nancy Kelsey, Indiana Δ; Betty Ann Lewis, Indiana T; Nancy King, Washington A; Grace Dilts, New York A; Janet Adams, Colorado A; Eileen Hoye, Colorado A; Pat Means, Wisconsin A; Zelva Moeser, Washington B; Joyce Carlson, Colorado B; Joan Hermes, Wisconsin B. Since Anne Guthrie has spent five years in each of these three countries, she came to know personally the distinguished women she briefly introduced on the platform. One of the girls represented the first woman to be elected to the Senate of the Philippines. Another delegate came dressed as the woman in charge of the Bureau of Public Welfare in the Philippines. The only representative of China was the wife of Dr. Sun-Yat-sen, a most beloved person in China. Several celebrities came to visit from India. There were present the wife of the Governor of Bombay, the Minister of Health of the Indian Cabinet, the National President of the Indian Y.W.C.A., and the most distinguished of all Indian women, the sister of a greater leader, Mrs. Pandit. Mrs. Pandit is the only woman to head a delegation to the United Nations, and she also holds the title of Ambassador to Russia.

By skillfully depicting the UN as an effective world organization, and by describing the various sections and entrances to the Security Council and Economic and Social Council, Miss Guthrie was able to impress upon her audience the worthiness of the very existence of the UN. A comparison was made between the UN and Panhellenic, by which she pointed out that we expect wonders from an organization three years old, yet do we demand as much from a three year old child? Panhellenic tries to establish harmony among groups so very similar in aims and organization, while the UN tries to do the same things with countries made of incongruous types of government and peoples. "The marvel of it is that it exists, it is here."

An interesting incident was told by Miss Guthrie about the Chinese alphabet. It seems that the Chinese were hunting for a character to form the word "peace." The Chinese finally put two characters together which meant "food" and "mouth." With the use of interesting incidents to illustrate her stories, Miss Guthrie brought us human interest anecdotes mingled with her own personality to make the United Nations more vivid to us all.

"Only conflicts make the front page," said Miss Guthrie, "and if we all return to our home after Convention safe and sound we will not make the front page." By this statement we realized that harmony and success in matters which concern us all at the UN, are less likely to be publicized and noticed by the world.

In conclusion, there were stated five qualifications which Miss Guthrie felt were needed by all to prepare and work for peace:

1. Knowledge—We are down on what we are not up on. Observance of the world about us is necessary with scholarship.

2. Understanding—This comes as we gain capacity to put ourselves in others' places. We must find our path and pursue it.

3. Courage—Not only physical courage is needed but intellectual courage as well. We must learn to think for ourselves and have the courage of our convictions.

4. Patience and Steadfastness—We must have forbearance in all things. The Orient taught Miss Guthrie to be less impatient, to remember that things take time, especially important things.

5. Love of Humanity—We must extend our brotherly love to all people and nations of the world. The only real progress is progress in Charity, all others are second to it. Speaking to all Pi Phis present, Miss Guthrie said that we are all sisters together and found it easy to love one another. Love of one's enemy is more difficult. The opposite of love is not hate but fear. We are never afraid of that which we understand. Urging more faith in the world and less fear, Miss Guthrie closed her most inspiring and informative talk by quoting from a Chinese proverb.

"Love conquers hate or fear as water conquers fire. But most of us practice love as though with one little cup of water we could put out a cart full of wood on fire."

Mothers and Daughters at Convention

In Philanthropy

An address by EVELYN GABEL ENTEMAN, Convention initiate at the Convention Banquet

AS EARLY as the third century after the birth of Christ one of the greatest Roman jurists, Julius Paulus, in his famous digest of Corpus Juris laid down the legal maxim, "Qui facit per alium, facit per se." During the intervening years that expression has come to be the touchstone of philanthropy and, in the words of your toastmaster, is now freely translated as "What is done for another, is done for oneself." Philanthropy is a gracious word, but what is it and why is it associated with this quotation?

Philanthropy is derived from two Greek words: philos—loving, and anthropos—man. In a literal sense it means love for mankind. In a broader sense it is the spirit of active good will towards one's fellow men, especially as shown in efforts to promote their welfare. Philanthropy is generally considered in the terms of monetary gifts, but may also be viewed from the truly Christian standpoint of giving oneself in service for the benefit of others.

Philanthropy has played a significant role in the development of America, where civilization has comparatively recently emerged from the pioneering era. Two controlling motives have inspired American men and women to give money during their lives or after death. One is an all-encompassing desire to relieve human suffering and the other an almost mystical belief in education and what it can accomplish.

When John Harvard made his modest gift to the Massachusetts Bay Colony, when Trinity Church in New York opened its vestry room to Samuel Johnson and his handful of students, these and similar steps laid the foundations of American scholarship. During the ensuing years each gift toward the advancement of learning has taken its place on the structure laid on these foundations. In this land where capitalism and democracy have flourished, our people have been free to use their funds and their services in accordance with the dictates of their own conscience and a togetherness of philanthropy and education has been evident.

We think of the magnificent gifts of John D. Rockefeller to the University of Chicago and those of Senator and Mrs. Leland Stanford. We also think of the establishment of independent foundations such as Carnegie, Rockefeller, and Sage—these and many others represent a degree of available financial support for the advancement of learning never previously realized during the history of mankind.

But tonight we particularly think of a philanthropic endeavor very close to our hearts. When the oldest national women's college fraternity decided to establish a memorial to its Founders, it chose to make that memorial a living altruistic educational project. As a result in 1912 Pi Beta Phi pioneered in yet another way and founded a settlement school to meet the needs of a backward community in the Southern Appalachian Highlands.

Since its modest inception at Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the members of the Fraternity have responded in a truly philanthropic manner. Due to your voluntary support in money and in service the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School has today become the great educational stimulus of the Smokies. Through your efforts and devotion to an inspirational idea, which has become a realization, you have learned from experience "What is done for another is done for oneself." Concretely, if the standard of living in such a section of this country is raised, does it not follow that the standard of living of the country as a whole is thereby improved? Not only have you given the people whom you chose to serve a vision of better things, but in a larger sense, you have made it feasible for them to put those better things into their lives. In so doing your own lives have become richer and more meaningful. You have known real gratification since, in the words of Henry David Thoreau, "Philanthropy is almost the only virtue which is sufficiently appreciated by mankind." Such a national philanthropic project has set the example for other fraternity groups. It is indeed a fitting memorial to the Founders of this pioneer fraternity. Let us accept for our heritage not only the funds and services so freely and generously given, but also something of the bubbling enthusiasm, the spirit of eternal youth, the gallantry and yet humility of attitude, for all of which we can find no greater inspiration than the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

Just one word in closing. While your interest in philanthropy has been unceasing, it must be ever increasing. Never let it be said that the members of Pi Beta Phi are like the first four lines of that great poem by Sam Walter Foss:

"There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
In the peace of their self-content;
There are souls like stars that dwell apart,
In a fellowless firmament."

Four Council Members: Left to right—Carson, Prouty, Onken, Wild

But rather like the next two lines:

"There are pioneer souls that blaze paths
Where highways never ran."

And doesn't the last line epitomize the philanthropic spirit of Pi Beta Phi:

"And be a friend to man."

"These are of us, they are with us,
All for primal needed work, while the followers
there in embryo wait behind,
We today's procession heading, we the route for travel clearing,

Pioneers! O Pioneers!

O you daughters of the West!

O you young and elder daughters! O you mothers and you wives!

Never must you be divided, in our ranks you move united,

Pioneers! O Pioneers!

THE GOLDEN arrow pierced the jeweled triangle when $\text{K} \Sigma \Theta$, local at the College of Puget Sound, became Washington Γ chapter of Pi Beta Phi at installation ceremonies conducted by Miss Amy Burnham Onken, grand president. The group was installed as the 94th chapter September 7-10, 1948. Miss Onken and the local alumnae were assisted by Mrs. Howard Winkler, national director of rushing and pledge training; Miss Harriet Johnstone, national scholarship chairman; Mrs. E. M. Draper, Lambda Province president; Mrs. Clare R. Dobler, Lambda Province vice-president; Mrs. Warren T. Smith, chairman of the Settlement School committee.

Active chapters in the province were represented by Barbara MacDuffe, Oregon Γ ; Helen Veatch, Washington A; Alice LeBlanc, Washington B; Sally Fitzpatrick, Kansas A, also assisted. She will attend C.P.S. as active supervisor of the new chapter. Mrs. E. J. Cooper was installation chairman.

The history of $\text{K} \Sigma \Theta$ began in 1903 when it became the first sorority on the campus. Mrs. Dix Rowland was founder of the group. Finally in 1946 and 1947, the college administration opened the campus to national groups and $\text{K} \Sigma \Theta$ immediately petitioned Pi Beta Phi. In October, 1947, Mrs. Winkler visited the campus. In February, 1948, the local was honored by visits from representatives of all the Pi Phi chapters in Lambda province.

Mrs. Leonard Brown—Mr. Cleone Soule—son and daughter of Inez S. Soule, Founder, taken at the reception.

July 2, 1948, was the fateful day for the arrival of the anticipated news from convention. Fifty-six nervous Θ s had gathered for a picnic at a beach home on Puget Sound when a telegram was delivered from Mrs. Cooper. "Hurrah!" said her telegram, "You will soon be Pi Phis."

And true to the words of Mrs. Cooper, the petitioning group was pledged the last two days of August. Mrs. E. M. Draper conducted pledging services for 114 actives and alumnae at the home of Rose Carbone. The new pledges gathered in the chapter room in the Student Union Building the evening of August 31 for the reading of the constitution. Marion Cromwell, Washington A; Frances Burkhalter, Ohio B; Mary Jane Krissman, Missouri B; and Helen Davison, Washington B, conducted the constitution reading.

Initiation ceremonies began September 7. Miss Onken officiated in the Little Chapel of Jones Hall. The Inez Smith Soule Alumnae club entertained at an informal buffet in the reception room of Anderson Hall that evening. Mrs. Gladys Forester, Kansas B, was chairman of the event. The chapter was formally installed September 9. The Crystal ballroom of the Hotel Wintrop was the setting for the installation banquet Thursday evening, with over 250 local and visiting Pi Phis present, including large delegations from the alumnae clubs of Seattle and Olympia. Jane Hagen and Mrs. Edward Burkhalter were co-chairmen for the banquet. Theme for the dinner was "Visions." Wine and silver blue were dominating colors in the decorations.

The banquet program opened with the vision theme. "For yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision, but today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope." Orchids to Ruth Barrett Smith who so ably took over the toastmistress position when Jean Warner Philips was unable to attend the banquet.

Florence Boden, Oregon B, from the Inez Smith Soule Alumnae club, spoke on the spirit of the Pi Beta Phi vision. Mary Katherine Long, Washington Γ alumna told guests of the dream of happiness for the newly installed chapter. "Yesterday is but a dream" was the theme of Barbara MacDuffee's speech. Jean Lawton, president of Washington A, titled her speech "Today Well Lived." Mary Agnes Gallagher, Washington Γ , represented the new chapter

Washington Γ would like to thank all those who helped to make our initiation and installation an experience which we will always remember.

Being initiated and installed by Miss Amy Burnham Onken gave us a foundation on which we hope to build an outstanding chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

We especially would like to thank Mary Weir Cooper (Mrs. Edward J.), Washington A, for her untiring efforts that resulted in the granting of a chapter to our group.

The loyalty and enthusiasm of the members of Grand Council, the Province Officers, Alumnae, and the Active Delegates was felt strongly by our group. We are proud to be a part of the oldest fraternity for women and a group with the highest aspirations and ideals.

Sincerely in Pi Beta Phi, and spoke on "The Vision of Hope, Pi Beta Phi." When Miss Onken's turn came, she smiled graciously at the new Pi Phi members and alumnæ and gave her speech, "Visions Fulfilled."

A candle lighting ceremony closed the program. Louise Montford, gold arrow Pi Phi from Minnesota A and the Tacoma Alumnæ club, represented the Founders group. In her old fashioned dress, she presented a picture that will linger in the memories of all who were at the banquet. Gretchen Swayze, Washington I, lit 12 candles to honor the women who organized the sorority that we all love so dearly. As a finality to a memorable evening, the entire group sang the "Loving Cup" song.

Friday morning, newly initiated members gathered in the chapter room with a shining new name plate on the door. Miss Onken installed the new officers. The first chapter meeting followed.

Invitations were issued to 750 friends and relatives of the newly installed chapter to a formal reception Friday evening. The affair was held in the reception rooms of Anderson Hall. Martha Wright, Gloria Nelson and Mrs. Paul Kirk were reception chairmen. Janice Ludwig, talented harpist in the chapter, played for the guests. Wine carnations were prominent in the floral decorations.

In addition to visiting Pi Phi notables, Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, president of the college, Mrs. Thompson and Martha Wright, chapter president, were in the receiving line.

Outstanding Thetas to be initiated into the new alumnæ club were Mrs. Leonard Brown, daughter of Inez Smith Soule, one of the Pi Phi founders, Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, wife of the college president, Mrs. Lyle Ford Drushel, dean of women, and Mrs. Dix Rowland, founder of K Σ Θ, the local sorority.

After a week of remarkable sunny weather, our visitors left the campus of the College of Puget Sound. They left behind them the first chapter of Washington Gamma's book of memories—a book that is fast becoming one filled with high aspirations and loyalty to Pi Beta Phi.

History of the College of Puget Sound

THE College of Puget Sound was first incorporated as the Puget Sound University on March 17, 1888, upon the application of the Puget Sound Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Its academic organization was changed from that of a university to that of a college of liberal arts in 1914. In 1927, it became strictly a four year liberal arts college. Its work has received the highest accreditation from the various accrediting organizations and it has been on the approved list of the Association of American Universities since 1932.

The campus comprises 60 acres in the heart of the finest residential district in Tacoma and commands a view of majestic Mount Rainier.

There are ten buildings on the campus. Work on a field house, new music building and the president's home have been started. This summer a ski lodge at Mount Rainier was obtained for the exclusive use of the college students.

College attendance has hit the 2,000 mark. The college is the largest privately endowed institution of higher learning in the Northwest.

There are two national fraternities, K Σ and Σ N on the campus. The other three men's groups are making plans to go national in the future. Pi Beta Phi is the only national women's group on the campus. There are three local sororities.

The College of Puget Sound campus features the Gothic type of structure in all its buildings. It is the rambling castle of the northwest—"Its guardian is the mountain beside the silver sea."

Tennessee Gamma Installation

ON MAY 15, 1948, the dream of sixteen girls and the members of the Knoxville-Little Pigeon Alumnae Club became a reality when $\Pi \Phi \Gamma$ at the University of Tennessee was installed as Tennessee Γ of Pi Beta Phi.

The dream began in the summer of 1947 when the alumnae clubs of Knoxville and Little Pigeon laid plans whereby Pi Beta Phi's 93rd chapter would be chartered on the University of Tennessee campus. A very successful rushing season was conducted in competition with all the other national women's fraternities, and on October 6, pledging was held. Then began the enthusiastic work of the new members of $\Pi \Phi \Gamma$ with their special supervisor, Peg Ward, Indiana E, and three other Pi Beta Phis on the campus, Julia Hildebrandt, D.C. A, Carroll Thompson, Tennessee A, and Charlotte Townsend Owen, Arkansas A, toward their goal of a chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

The culmination of this dream took place last May 14 and 15 in Knoxville, for on those days pledging and initiation of sixteen girls into Pi Beta Phi were held. After pledging on Friday, May 14, a buffet supper-cooky-shine was given by the Knoxville-Little Pigeon Alumnae in the lovely home of Mrs. John Oliver in Holston Hills. Each new pledge read an original tribute to Pi Beta Phi and sang a song with original lyrics about Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. Frank E. Williams, Epsilon Province President, read to the girls from the Pi Beta Phi Constitution during the evening, and a discussion was held.

The Delta Gamma chapter gave a special luncheon at noon Friday in the Delta Gamma room for the official Pi Beta Phi visitors.

Saturday noon, May 15, the X Ω actives and alumnae gave a luncheon for all out-of-town Pi Beta Phi visitors in the X Ω room in the Panhellenic Building.

That afternoon the sixteen charter members of $\Pi \Phi \Gamma$ were initiated and installed as charter members of Tennessee Γ of Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. Robert S. Wild, Grand Vice-president, was the installing officer, and she was assisted by Mrs. Frank E. Williams, Epsilon Province President, and Mrs. John M. Foster, Epsilon Province Vice-president. Pi Phis from Chattanooga and Nashville were also on hand to witness the birth of the Fraternity's 93rd chapter. Miss Leslie Milligan, Tennessee A, and Miss Betty Ruble, Tennessee B, were the official representatives from their chapters.

Following initiation and installation, a banquet was held in the Farragut Hotel in Knoxville. Miss Ruth Dyer of the Settlement School in Gatlinburg was toastmistress, and the theme of the program revolved around the "Pi Beta Phi Symphony." The program included inspirational talks by Mrs. Wild, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. H. H. Everett, Knoxville alumnae, Jean DeVault, Tennessee Γ , and Peg Ward, Indiana E. Several lovely gifts to the chapter were opened and many telegrams and letters of congratulations were read. Gardenia corsages worn by all the Pi Phis at the banquet were gifts of Mrs. James E. Lindley, Zeta Province Vice-president.

Joan Edington was awarded a special recognition pin for being the "outstanding pledge," and Martha Parks was given the scholarship ring for the greatest improvement in grades during the year. The Oak Ridge Alumnae presented a gavel guard to Peg Ward for her year as president of the chapter. The program was concluded with the singing of the Loving Cup Song.

Sunday morning a model chapter meeting was held in the Pi Beta Phi room with Mrs. Wild presiding. The Pi Phis then attended the First Presbyterian Church in a group. In the afternoon a formal reception for the faculty, administration, student body, and friends was held in the beautiful $\Sigma A E$ fraternity house.

Thus, the ceremonies for the installation of Tennessee Γ were concluded, but the joy and work in building Tennessee Γ into one of the strongest links in the chain of Pi Beta Phi chapters has just begun; and all of those connected with Tennessee Γ look forward to a great future in Pi Beta Phi.

HISTORIC University of Tennessee, founded in 1794, is a fitting background for the new chapter. The University is fully accredited, and its student body is drawn from all over the South, by its various colleges, Liberal Arts, Engineering, Agriculture, and its Graduate School, all at Knoxville, and its Medical and Dental Schools, at Nashville. Co-operation between the University and the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School has long been close, with of late years a definite link in the University's support of the Summer Work Shop at the School, and the granting of credits toward a degree for properly accredited work done at Gatlinburg. The character of its student body makes it a fittingly strong home for a chapter of Pi Beta Phi, and the new group there will have support from the entire Southern region.

NEWS FROM LITTLE PIGEON

Edited by HARRIET GOODSSELL RAUCH, Iowa B

The New Health Center

Our first nurse for the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, Phyllis Higinbotham, Ontario A, went to Gatlinburg in 1920. There was great beauty in the Smokies; the brilliant and variegated show of fall colors in October; icicles hanging from the trees transforming the mountains in winter; the procession of spring flowers and flowering trees beginning with the first wood violets and wind flowers in March through the dogwood season and the pink mountain laurel to the flaming azaleas of May; the white rhododendron blooming until late in July; and the ever-changing white clouds hovering over the peaks of the foot-hills. But mid all of this beauty "Miss Phyllis" found great need for health and emergency medical assistance. There were no doctors or nurses within a radius of many miles and health and sanitary standards were unknown. Nurse Phyllis had no clinic, no hospital, no office, but carried her clinic, hospital and office in her brown saddle-bag as she rode over the almost impassable roads on her horse, "Lady." She served the people out of her saddle-bag for two years until the old Ogle Cottage was remodeled into a combination clinic, hospital and nurse's living quarters.

Our first Jennie Nicol Memorial Hospital was dedicated on May 8, 1922. "Miss Phyllis" in addition to answering her many calls, taught hygiene, taught a class of mid-wives, examined the school children for nose, throat, eye or general health troubles and in her six years of service there built the Ogle Cottage into a model rural health center.

Since then the new highway has been built through Gatlinburg and the Great Smoky National Park has been completed. Our health program has outgrown the little Ogle Cottage.

Our present nurse, Marjorie Chalmers, in her report of last year said, "The modern tendency for education and prevention in medicine is quite apparent in comparing the work of the past fifteen years.—Typhoid and diphtheria inoculations have not increased much, while vaccinations for small-pox, forbidden in some homes in 1933, have trebled in number. Serum for whooping cough is almost universal now. Field visits have dropped nearly one-third but office calls are up two and one-half times.—In 1933 1,600 pupil inspections were made and last year there were 4,180. When we stop to consider there are nearly seven hundred students in the district served by the Health Center and nearly as many younger children, we realize the importance of education.—Regular Friday afternoon well baby clinics were held throughout the year with special ones added from time to time.—Community health is a community problem. It is bigger than any one individual or any one organization. It requires leadership but more than that it must have the approval and support of the community. Through the many years of service, the Fraternity has supplied the leaders and community support has grown steadily. It should be a source of pride and satisfaction to know we have the cooperation of individuals and civic organizations. Without it, we would be, to a certain extent, interlopers. With it, we can go far in service to humanity."

This past June, nurse Marjorie Chalmers moved into our newly built and completed health center. Funds for this building came largely from the estate of Dr. W. F. Garshwiler of Indianapolis, Indiana; $1,000 from Washington, D.C., A; and California Alpha's contribution. Dr. Garshwiler's contribution was given in memory of his wife, Florence Province Garshwiler, who was an Indiana B and a loyal supporter of all Indiana chapters as well as the Indianapolis Alumnae Club. Washington, D.C., Alpha's contribution was given in memory of Mabel Scott Brown, a former D.C. A II Φ. California Alpha's gift was part of the money which the chapter had left in its funds when the chapter was withdrawn from Leland Stanford University because of university action. On July 12, while the Settlement School Committee and Miss Onken were in Gatlinburg, the new health center was appropriately dedicated to its broadened health service.

The building stands conveniently on the main highway near Arrowcraft Shop. It is built of hand-hewn, native, white-pine shingles. It has field-stone trim and a grey slate roof. The architecture corresponds to that of Arrowcraft and, in time, the shingles will take on the same lovely grey sheen as those of Arrowcraft. The entrance hall, office, and class-room are finished with pine walls. The first-aid room and clinic are finished in standard white. The windows of the three former rooms are hung with hand-woven draperies, made by Arrowcraft weavers. The panels on the windows at either side of the front door were designed by Mary Elizabeth Sullivan of Eugene, Oregon, one of the staff of the summer work-shop. Mrs. Eleanor Simms of Gatlinburg gave the pen and lamp for the desk in the office. There was a new air-guide, a gift of Mrs. Elizabeth Peck, a former director of the school. The many beautiful flowers which brightened all of the rooms for the dedication service came from the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Trentham, Gatlinburg friends came to witness the dedication and there were numbers of little folks there who had known "Miss Marjorie" and the old health center well. They had their picture taken and had to be "weighed in" on the scales in the new clinic room.

The dedicatory service was very simple. Reverend Blanton gave the invocation. Ruth Barrett Smith, Chairman of the Settlement School Committee, read the Love chapter from the Corinthians. Mrs. Armstrong, our Pi Beta Phi Musical Director, brought nine of her young high school girls who sang "Bless This House."

Miss Onken gave an interesting resume of the life of Dr. Jennie M. Nicol, one of the founders of the Fraternity, and one of the first American women to enter the practice of medicine. The old Health Center had been dedicated to Jennie Nicol twenty-five years ago. Because of her life of service, the new building will be called "The Jennie Nicol Health Center."

Miss Ruth Dyer, our resident director at the Settlement School, gave a fitting tribute to the interest and painstaking care of the men who had labored on the building.

Nurse Chalmers said, "All things considered, I should be at least three times as happy as any one else here tonight.

"First, because I am a citizen of Gatlinburg and, as such, have a civic pride in this beautiful building, not only because of its architectural worth, but because of its value to the life and safety of the community.

"In the second place, I am proud to be a member of the staff of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School and to have some small share in the generous and untiring work of the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity.

"And, last of all, and greatest of all, in the personal pride and gratitude in so attractive and efficient a center. The old building has served its purpose well. Its doors have ever been open to the folk of the community, whatever their need.

"Together, we have seen much joy and much sorrow. From you I have learned much of kindness and patience, and the innate goodness of mankind. We have changed from the old to the new building but the spirit of service remains the same and shall so continue so long as the house, itself, shall stand."

With the words, "we dedicate this building to the service of mankind," the new Jennie M. Nicol Health Center entered upon its official service in the community of Gatlinburg.

Chapter Meetings

One of the dangerous tendencies in some fraternities at present is the slighting of ritualistic practices, particularly in the conduct of regular meetings. There are so many things going on in modern college life that there just doesn't seem to be time to do everything and so the old, time-honored chapter meeting suffers.

The inflated size of chapters today has contributed to the difficulty to the extent that old chapter halls and meeting places will no longer accommodate the large number of members. "Close communion in the chapter hall" is a mockery and the time for thoughtful programs and discussions doesn't seem to be available.

The present tendency, if it is not checked, is certain to change the aspect of the American college fraternity. The fraternity has been a unique institution, combining the features of free masonry, the old-fashioned literary society, the co-operative boarding house, and the social club. Through it all has been a fine idealism and a close cementing of abiding friendships which constant contact with ritualistic ceremonies engendered.

A "return to the altar" was never so strongly indicated.

Holt House News at Convention

WHAT joy it was to bring Holt House to convention in the form of booklets and by motion pictures! The new Holt House booklets were given as souvenirs to the officers, delegates, and visitors attending the Historical and Holt House program, giving to those who have not had the opportunity to see the House more knowledge of its beauty and of its important historical value to the Fraternity.

The cover of the booklet is silver blue with a white shaded picture of the stately entrance framed with trees, fully leaved, with the branches meeting across the top of the picture. Protecting the cover is web patterned fly-tissue paper with the simple title, "Holt House at Monmouth, Illinois," and the Fraternity crest below, printed in wine colored ink.

Pi Phi will find The Story of Holt House written by our national historian, Marian Keck Simmons, most enlightening and interesting as it tells of the Holt family; why the name of Holt House was given to the memorial; of two of our Founders, Ada Bruen and Libbie Brook, who roomed in the southeast bedroom which is the room where Pi Beta Phi was founded; of the furnishing of the House; and of Holt House as it was in 1867 and as it is today. The whole is a thrilling and delightful Pi Phi publication.

The sixteen full-page pictures are beautifully finished and under each one is a caption telling the name of the room, or of some object of special importance. The first picture shows the receptionist greeting an active and a pledge, and the pictures which follow show the girls visiting the various rooms of the House.

A copy of Holt House will be sent to each club, chapter, and officer for official files, and to each new initiate. Pi Phi desiring copies of their own may secure them from Central Office at fifty cents each.

The short motion picture film of Holt House shown at convention has had one hundred more feet added to it and now gives a complete picture of the House. The film will soon be available to chapters and clubs for showing.

During convention, Pi Phi from Theta Province expressed the desire to present a special gift to Holt House. Since a silver tray has been needed for the silver tea service which Epsilon Province gave to the House last spring, the chairman suggested that this tray would be a useful gift and greatly appreciated. Within two days, eighty-three dollars and twenty-five cents had been contributed. This generous amount of money was given to Mrs. Spoehrer, president of the St. Louis Alumnae Club, who had selected the tea service, to purchase the tray in the same design. The beautiful tray is now at Holt House proudly supporting the silver tea service. How grateful this committee and the future committees will always be to Theta and Epsilon Provinces for these fine gifts!

A committee was selected by Grand Council to submit names of clubs to be represented on the new Holt House Committee. Serving on this committee were: Chairman, Carol R. Sheppard, Miami, Florida; Mrs. James R. Ryan, Seattle, Washington; and Mrs. Emerson R. Miller, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The alumnae clubs chosen to be represented are: Peoria, Illinois; Lafayette, Indiana; Monmouth, Illinois; Iowa City, Iowa; and Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Under the new rules governing the Holt House Committee, the chairman and the treasurer shall be appointed to office by Grand Council. The members selected to serve on the incoming committee are: Chairman, Nancy J. Swisher (Mrs. Scott H.), 1022 Newton Road, Iowa City, Iowa; Carol M. Cook (Mrs. Warren T.), 1201 Gardner, Ann Arbor, Michigan; Frances Small Trost (Mrs. John F.), R.R. 1, Lafayette, Indiana; Alice McDougall Jensen (Mrs. R. M.), 303 East Broadway, Monmouth, Illinois; and Carmen Pletz (Mrs. Samuel L.), 215 South Glenwood, Peoria, Illinois. The appointment of the treasurer will be announced later.

The chairman regrets that it is impossible for her to complete her term of office. She will miss the close association with Holt House which she has been privileged to have the past two years. One can not carry on the duties of this office without acquiring a lasting love for the House so filled with Pi Phi history and traditions. It is a great satisfaction, though, to be succeeded by Nancy Swisher who has always been interested in Holt House and proud of all that it symbolizes. Mrs. Swisher has been president of the Iowa City Advisory Committee, and of the Iowa City Alumnae Club and has served on the building corporation board. In all her fraternity workings, she has shown superior executive ability. Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Trost, Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Pletz have all held offices in their alumnae clubs.

A new fiscal year has started for Holt House with a newly appointed committee to watch over its welfare. Let us all give this committee our generous support as they serve us in maintaining Holt House as the supreme memorial it is . . . to the founding of Pi Beta Phi.

GLADYS STUMP NALL

FROM PI PHI PENS

Edited by MARY ELIZABETH BARNETTE, Ohio A

SHIRLEY SEIFERT, The Proud Way, J. B. Lippincott Co., 316 pp.

In her most recent historical novel, published last spring, Shirley Seifert has again reconstructed the little-known, youthful years of persons who, in maturity, shaped a portion of America's destiny. Essentially this is the story of Varina Howell and the two years of her girlhood when her romance, which culminated in marriage to Jefferson Davis, was developing. More than that, however, and more than being a delightfully warm and spirited love story, it is a delineation of two nationally prominent personalities.

As the novelist, herself, explains: "This is the portrait of a young lady. In later years she became, I think, one of the great women of our national chronicle—the brilliant wife of one who was in turn Congressman, Cabinet Member, and Senator in the ante-bellum circle of the National Capital, later still a lovely capable and distinguished First Lady of the Confederacy, and a heroic figure through long years of bitter defeat and loss. With all who know her story, I offer homage to those accomplishments; but my interest as a novelist is not so much in the years of momentous events as in the earlier ones when those traits of character were developing which made heroism answer later to the demands of time and circumstance."

So much of what one reads, both fact and fiction, gives the impression that until the twentieth century American women contributed at best only to the physical well-being of their families that it is refreshing to meet a young woman whose head did more than carry an intricate coiffure, whose eyes did more than flirt, and whose lips did more than sip the social amenities.

Even by today's standards Varina was a modern woman, a well-educated, thinking person whose opinions were her own and logically conceived. For this reason, as well as others, her story is interesting and meaningful to present day readers whose contemporary she might easily be.

While The Proud Way is first of all the story of this lively, intelligent, and stimulating girl, it also supplies a satisfying insight to the character of Jefferson Davis and helps to explain the multiple forces which led him and others of his background and upbringing to advocate a nation of the South.

In a year when the historical novel has become a vogue to the point of ennui and when publishers seem to feel that the sale of a specific book will be in direct ratio to how low cut gowns the heroine wears, particularly in her book jacket portrait, both Miss Seifert and Lippincott are to be congratulated for having written, illustrated, and published a book without resort to such obvious tricks.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Shirley Seifert, a charter Pi Phi of Missouri B chapter, will be remembered for Captain Grant and other historical works. She lives near Kirkwood, Missouri, and after college and a heartily disliked bout with teaching began writing short stories. More recently she has devoted her attention to longer literary works, of which The Proud Way is her latest.

MARY ALBERTA BACON, Poems of Color, The Exposition Press, 61 pp.

A different portrait of the South emerges through the poetry of Mary Bacon in this recently published volume. It is the world of the slave Negro written about in his dialect and expressed through his point of view.

Of course the Negroes Miss Bacon knew in her childhood Tennessee days were free, but the tasks by which they earned their chicken and biscuits, the standards by which they lived, and the religion by which they were guided were little different from those of their slave grandparents.

Consequently, the inspiration by which she writes of the slave-holding days is comparatively unwatered by intervening years and the changing status of the Negro.

Miss Bacon has achieved a nostalgically serene picture of the past in the neighborhood of Jonesboro, Tennessee, and has effectively incorporated a difficult dialect into pleasantly readable poetry.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Now a Hollywood, California, resident Mary Alberta Bacon was brought up in Tennessee where she was a member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The study of music first interested her, and accordingly, she took her training at the Chicago Music College as well as at the University of Washington where she joined Washington A. Currently her writing includes articles and animal stories as well as poetry.

AGNES WRIGHT SPRING, Collected Writings and Public Addresses of William Chapin Deming, Volumes III and IV, The Arthur H. Clark Co., 367 and 393 pp.

Valuable to historians and students of the daily newspaper these books are worthwhile sequels to the book, William Chapin Deming of Wyoming, which Mrs. Spring prepared several years ago.

In the course of his career Mr. Deming published both the Warren (Ohio) Tribune and the Wyoming Tribune, served as president of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, and participated in numerous land, irrigation, and building projects. He also knew well such personalities as Theodore Roosevelt and "Buffalo Bill" Cody.

It is evident, therefore, that his writings and speeches will be useful to many other writers and that Mrs. Spring has performed a very real service by her tireless collection and editing of Mr. Deming's papers.

AUTHOR INTEREST: A Pi Phi from Wyoming A, Agnes Wright Spring is the former state librarian and historian of Wyoming. The history of her own state is plainly a source of great interest to her and has stimulated much of her work. For example, a little over a year ago the magazine Rocky Mountain Life contained one of her articles, "Million Dollar Gossan," which concerned the history of the now ghostly Ferris-Haggarty copper mine in Wyoming's Battle Lake country.

RANDOM NOTES: The critical acclaim which greeted the publication of Across the Wide Missouri (reviewed in this column last May), product of the collaboration of Bernard DeVoto with Mae Reed Porter, Iowa Pi Phi, has been signally substantiated. The book received the Pulitzer Award for the best historical work of 1948.

Last August's issue of The American Home Magazine contained an article, "The Closet of the Good Samaritans," written by Dorothy K. Salisbury, New York I.

Ellen F. Boyer, Ohio I, is the author of an article, "Disc Jockeys of Shakespeare," which appeared in last December's issue of the Journal of the Association for Education by Radio. A leader in the use of this instructive tool, Miss Boyer had her work in the field recognized last year when she received a citation at the School Broadcast Conference in Chicago.

Camp Miniwanca

Pi Beta Phi was well represented at Camp Miniwanca, a national Christian leadership training camp near Shelby, Michigan. There were fourteen Pi Phis at the older girls' camp during the first two weeks of August. To be a camper, one must be selected and sponsored by American Youth Foundation Associates, on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and general personality. In the 1948 session there were forty-six states represented and four foreign countries.

Easton Whitney Coy, Maryland A, and her husband, Glenn W. OVER THE WORLD

A new United States three cent stamp features 100 years of progress of women, with portraits of three great workers in the cause of women—Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and Carrie Chapman Catt. Of these the last two were members of Pi Beta Phi—Mrs. Catt, an always active member of Iowa Γ, Mrs. Stanton an honorary member, especially invited to become one by the Founders of the Fraternity. The invitation was accepted in a most appreciative note from Mrs. Stanton.

Perhaps most unusual of careers chosen by Pi Phis is that of Helen Parks Gallini, Indiana A, now a policewoman in Detroit. Preparation for her present work came when she was a caseworker in the children's aid department of social work in that city, where her fine mind and qualities of true gentleness and charity, added to her finely trained mind, have made her invaluable—although perhaps few of those whom she helps would ever guess the knowledge stored away behind her uniform, as one of her Pi Phi friends has said. Her husband is an Italian engineer, Emil Gallini, who came to Detroit on one of Henry Ford's scholarships for work and study in his plant.

Among donors who gave the Φ B K Scholarship Fund a substantial pre-campaign uplift is

Julia Ellen Rogers in her garden—81 years old—1947.

Julia Ellen Rogers, Iowa Z, of Long Beach, who, at the age of 82, is remarkable for her mental vigor, her keen interest in the contemporary world scene and especially in Φ B K affairs.

Springing from a sturdy pioneer family, she received most of her early upbringing in Iowa, was valedictorian of her class in Iowa City Academy and, after graduating from the State University of Iowa with honors, took a master's degree at Cornell University.

She became a distinguished author, publishing The Tree Book (1905), The Shell Book (1908) and from 1909-15 published a volume a year in the series Every Child Should Know (Trees, Wild Animals, Earth and Sky, etc.).

In 1910 she toured Europe, not as a Thomas Cook & Son joy tourist but for educational purposes. In 1912 she came to live in Long Beach. Here she has written three books, lectured in extension courses under the auspices of S.C. and served ten years on the local school board. Then two years prior to the crash of '29 (how fortunate was her timing!) in company with a brother and sister she made a leisurely tour of Europe. She still retains those priceless memories. Another six years of quiet at home was followed by a world tour on a freighter with a group to the Orient and South Africa.

In a letter sent to Miss Onken, Miss Rogers says "The Centennial Commencement of the University of Iowa included a ceremony: Citation for Achievement honoring 100 alumni, out of the 40,000 living graduates. I was in Hawaii, so could not be in the procession. Ten of the hundred 'distinguished graduates' were women—I was among the ten."

Shiloh School Got Sponsors

By KENNETH FOREE

TALLISH, blond Pat Garrott was worried. Little red-haired, rich-red-brown-eyed Mary Jean Johnson was worried. Ditto half a dozen other lovelies of Pi Beta Phi.

They had revived the Dallas Pi Beta Phi Junior Alumnae Club, but only ten or twelve attended the monthly meetings and it was evident that cokes, cookies and chit chat would never keep it alive.

Therefore, they needed a project. And therein hangs a tale.

Each member looked and was disappointed. The war was over and there was no burning movement on each corner.

But after a while President Pat Garrott noticed an item. It was about an organization named Save the Children Federation and it sounded interesting enough to get Pi Phi junior alumnae to a meeting. So she phoned the Texas representative, Mrs. Dorothy Porter-Smith, and asked her to come explain it.

An attractive, fortyish brunette responded. Yes, her organization had projects—by the multitude. It needed sponsors for European schools where pupils got their lunch from garbage cans. The Pi Phis cringed. But the SCF also had Texas schools where children did without lunches, there being no garbage cans, and where barefooted boys used a rock for a football. Did the club want something like that from an organization which believed in "Build the World of Tomorrow by Saving the Child of Today"?

Y-Yes. They quickly wrote a check for $5 down on a $60-a-year sponsorship and left it to the SCF to pick a project.

The national SCF wrote that the Shiloh Negro School down in the Brazos delta in Burleson County had been assigned the club.

Well, said the Pi Phis, OK.

Down to Caldwell drove small, blond, cute Pat (Mrs. William) Fleming and red-headed Mary Jean Johnson. They turned off onto a ratty dirt lane that pierced thickets and shivered as the Oldsmobile dragged at high centers. Would they ever find it? Negro women in men's shoes smiled and waved. One supplied a guide with a runny nose for theah sponsuhs. Sho they all knew it. Great day!

The big car halted at a 1-room box school and a large chocolate woman in a plain blue dress came out grinning, Elsie Moore, the teacher. Inside were thirty-one pupils from big barefooted boys in overalls in back to tiny 6-year-olds in front. But they were clean. The girls had ribbons tied to pigtales and every one wore one thing in common—a great smile.

What did they need? Grateful Elsie Moore pointed things out—window shades in tattered strings, blackboards on which the blacking had been erased; the dark, gloomy interior that needed its first coat of paint, a little money to feed the unfortunates who couldn't even bring a piece of old bread for lunch. Where was the playground equipment, asked Mary Jean, who teaches at Walnut Hill School. There wasn't none; they just stood around with their hands in their pockets at recess. If they could get a ball. . . .

The girls looked at the school library—twenty dog-eared volumes out of the ark. They looked at the textbooks, the cast-offs of Texas. Behind a partition were several fruit jars with water from the school well outside. The Pi Phis gagged at the wiggletails and waterbugs in the jars.

Two girls, sick in heart but with fire in their veins drove back and electrified their club. First they collected old clothes and fired seven or eight bags down to Shiloh. "They was wonderful," wrote back grateful Elsie Moore. "May God bless you all."

Mrs. Robert Stafford talked her father, D. D. Grindell, of Ginn & Company, out of forty arithmetics and Mrs. Jimmy Long made her husband with Practical Drawing Company supply blackboard, football, baseball and bat at cost.

Meanwhile, the fathers of the pupils as per agreement rebuilt the well box to keep out bugs, painted the inside of the school and built swings.

When Thanksgiving, 1947, neared the club decided to furnish a good Thanksgiving dinner.

Wrote Elsie Moore: "It was wonderful . . . every child was full. We had a short program and thank God for enabling you dear girls to give us such a nice dinner. We cannot express in word. . . ."

For Christmas the club sent a gift for each child and the teacher, candy, two bushels of apples and oranges and decorations for a tree.

Wrote Elsie Moore, "This is the best Christmas we ever had." Wrote L. D. Moore, Jr.,

pupil, "Old Santa Claus were very, very nice and we sure did enjoy it." Wrote Pupil Earl Merida, "Oh, Santa Claus come!"

When the school turned out last June Elsie wrote, "You all is making my school grow." Her thirty-one pupils had become forty-eight.

School had become pleasure.

And the Pi Phi's? Their attendance had jumped from ten to forty, their membership to 100, they had learned the joy of doing for others and the lesson that charity should begin at home.

ALPHA PROVINCE EAST

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1934

With the resumption of campus activities at Dalhousie University there was also a great enthusiasm shown in the return to fraternity interests. The Nova Scotia A delegates increased this enthusiasm with their vivid accounts of Convention.

Informal meetings were held during the latter months of the summer by the members of Nova Scotia A who had remained in Halifax. Plans for the rushing party were discussed and some preparations were made. It was suggested that the rushing-party be a ghost party. This idea was enlarged upon and finalized at the first official meeting which was held on October 6. Classes at the University were resumed on October 4, and it was not until then that all the Active members were able to hold their first meeting. Until this year the Chapter had been holding its meetings at the homes of various members but now, all the meetings are to be held at the home of Frances Doane. The Chapter is to have the use of the recreation room in this home as its permanent headquarters. This will aid in the carrying out of fraternity work for the coming year and will also be a source of much pleasure for the members.

Nova Scotia A has eight less members this year, but this will not remain true for long, it is hoped.

The "ghost" rushing party was held at the home of Leslie Ann Hayes and the many white-sheeted figures moving slowly about the dimly lit rooms created an eerie atmosphere. Chains were dragged along the floor, and now and then loud cries would resound through the rooms. The party was returned to normal with a sing-song, which was held after a few games had been played.

The altruistic project undertaken by Nova Scotia A, the awarding of a scholarship to a woman student on entrance to Dalhousie University, met with success. The award was made to Miss Kathryn Murray, a Halifax girl of outstanding ability, character and charm.

AND—last but not least, Nova Scotia A is feeling justly proud that one of her own very dear alumnae has been appointed Province President of Alpha East Province. The chapter feels certain that this young lady lawyer, Eileen MacLean, will become just as dear to the members of all the other chapters in Alpha East in the ensuing months.

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

INITIATED, October 11, 1940: Natalie Tarr.

Registration began at the University of Maine September 16. Over 200 freshman girls were registered, and about four times as many men. One more men's dorm is in use this year, and a new tech building and a new agricultural building are being erected.

The college football team has made a good beginning, and girls' hockey has started with games scheduled between the four classes. The Panhellenic Council is sponsoring a stag dance to be held after the rally for the Maine-Bates game. This event will take place on October 22. The Panhellenic Council has also made plans for a Silver Tea to be held sometime in the near future.

Phyllis Osgood has been made a Sophomore Eagle for this year.

Judy Coffin made a most interesting report on Convention. All the actives had a chance to enjoy her experiences there.

Maine A gave a tea for the new members of the faculty in South Estabrooke on October 24.

The annual Ski Clog will be held the Friday night before semester finals.

MARY CURTIS

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

Chartered, 1893
Pledge Day, November 15, 1948

INITIATED, May 7, 1948: Ann Drysdale, Pelham Manor, N.Y.; Janice Foote, Middlebury; Helen Highley, Medford, Mass.; Ellen Hight, Winchester, Mass.; Beth Huey, Swarthmore, Pa.; Mary Krum, Carol Osborn, Shaker Heights, Ohio; Marilyn Murphy, Waban, Mass.; Caroline Sackett, Larchmont, N.Y.; Mary Sellman, Scarsdale, N.Y.

After an eventful spring and an exciting summer, Vermont A has settled down to fall rushing for the first time in three years. It is hoped that the reinauguration of first semester rushing in Middlebury will prove as effective here as on other campuses.

Last spring Pat MacFarland and Jean Holmberg were elected to Mortar Board. This year Jeannie is Co-Chairman of Middlebury's annual Cultural Conference. This Conference is held every spring and features discussions of cultural, political, and economic subjects of both national and international interest. Also honored in the spring was Rachel Adkins, who was elected to the May Queen's Court.

Vermont A sent four representatives to Conference and they came back this fall with such fascinating tales that everyone wished that they could have gone. Pat MacFarland was the delegate, Jean Holmberg the alternate, and Kathy Pell and Jane Murdoch went along for the ride. It sounded like such fun!

This year Peg Drysdale is Co-Chairman of the annual Winter Carnival. Winter Carnival is run by The Mountain Club, of which Peg has been an active member for four years. According to Peg, Winter Carnival this year is to be the best ever. Kathy Pell and Margy McNair are Officers for the Sailing Club. Ann Drysdale and Carolyn Sackett are Assistant Business Managers for the Campus, the College weekly paper. Reggie Stryker is President of the French Club. Diane Brehm is Treasurer of Women's Forum, the foremost women's organization on campus. Carol Osborn, Mary Krum and Marilyn Murphy were on Deans List last spring, which means that they attained an average of eighty-five percent with no marks below eighty. With last year coming to a tremendous close, the chapter looks forward to an even more successful year in 1948-49.

PLEGDED: Joan Allen, Buffalo, N.Y.; Barbara Lukens, Swarthmore, Pa.

*VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

Chartered, November 24, 1898

INITIATED, May 8, 1948: Martha Atwood, Joan Coffman, Alexandra Dzikielewski, Anita Elliott, Joyce Foster, Mary Ellen Fuller, Patricia Greenup, Norma Hale, Jean Hard, Sonja Leach, Maud Mason, Polly McMurdo, Geraldine Noyes, Ellen Page, Georganna Prime, Barbara Purdy, Thelma Royer, Barbara Shimmmin, Joan Slayton, Ann Stanger, Carolyn Thorell.

Initiation was followed by a formal banquet at the Hotel Vermont. Short speeches on the meaning of pin and guard were given by representatives of each class and by the alumnae. Jean Hard spoke on behalf of the initiates.

Previous to their initiation, the members of the pledge class were very busy. They gave a picnic for the actives and a tea for the pledges of the other sororities on campus. As their pledge project, they undertook the task of re-decorating the chapter room.

Vermont B's spring formal was held early in June at Oakledge Manor on Lake Champlain in Burlington. Each boy received as a favor a miniature beer mug with Pi Beta Phi written on it.

When elections to the honoraries were announced May 1 at the Founders' Day exercises, Vermont B found itself well represented. Jane Atwood and Pat Malmquist Doyle were elected to Mortar Board with Pat being chosen as President; Elected to Staff and Sandal, for junior women were Betsy Bigelow, Katherine Kidder, and Jean Ritchie; Martha Atwood, Alexandra Dzikielowski, Mary Ellen Fuller, Norma Hale, and Jean Hard were chosen as Sophomore Aides. Mary MacBratney was elected to All Sports.

Vermont B has five members among the officers of Student Union, the women's governing body. They are Betsy Bigelow, Patricia Doyle, Alexandra Dzikielowski, Norma Hale, and Beverly Hillmann.

At the annual Interfraternity-Intersorority Sing held in June, Vermont B tied with K A Θ for first place among the women. Merideth Wilson's "Pi Phi Sweetheart" and "Pi Phi Symphony" were the songs used.

At commencement time the Annual June Spread was a little more elaborate than usual because it was the Alumnae celebration of Vermont B's fiftieth anniversary. Many alumnae from the years back were present making the occasion one of great interest and inspiration.

Five Vermont Bs spent the summer abroad, Jean Ritchie went to Denmark and surrounding countries with the Experiment in International Living, where she lived with a family and had many interesting experiences. Joanne Howard, Ellen Page, Barbara Purdy, and Lillian Tucker went to Europe with the Marshall Plan in Action, a University of Vermont sponsored Experiment.

Classes started on October 1 with a record enrollment of 3100 students. Classrooms and dormitories are filled to capacity.

Vermont B has many new plans for the coming year including the celebration of its fiftieth anniversary on November 24. Formal rushing season will also begin in November.

Vermont B is looking forward to the visit of its new province president, Miss Eileen MacLean.

KATHERINE KIDDER

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896
Pledge Day, October 22, 1948

INITIATED, September 30, 1948: Elaine Boggs, Elizabeth Grignon, Elizabeth Kirby, Natalie Roberts, Ann West.

The following girls were included on the Dean's List for last semester: Aline Bangsberg, Arlene Brackett, Beverly Hill, Lorraine Kiley, Joan Mills Smart, and Stella Tamke, Beverly Hill, Betty Kirby and Irene Pearson all attended Boston University's Summer Session.

The Freshman Acquaintance Tea was held on September 24 in Charles Hayden Memorial. Harriet Menides and Stella Tamke were on the Planning Board Committee.

A banquet was given in honor of the initiates at Ola's in Boston, immediately following the ceremony. Singing was the main entertainment (besides eating).

September 28 was set aside as Convention Night. Stella Tamke gave a talk on Convention and A scrap book full of the Convention doings was passed around among the girls.

The Rushing season opened officially on October 1 in Charles Hayden Memorial with speeches by the Dean of Women and the President of the Panhellenic Association. The speeches were very good, brought out the importance of fraternities in college and of their affect on the girls themselves. Rushing rules were emphasized.

The chapter Rush party was held on October 17, at the Oakley Country Club in Watertown. Over fifty people attended "Ye Old Vaudeville Night." A buffet supper preceded the evening's entertainment and several of the older members were present.

The annual Scarlet Key Ball held on October 15 at the Continental Hotel in Cambridge was preceded by the President's Reception, Jean MacKenzie, Bev Hill and Stella Tamke were pourers.

The Panhellenic Dance was held on November 20. All the chapter was able to attend this year along with the pledges as the dance was held in a larger ballroom.

Bev Hill was recently elected President of the Psychology Club.

The Σ A E chapter at Boston University gave a banquet in November for all the fraternity and sorority presidents.

President Marsh announced around the first of October that the School of Theology will have moved up on the new campus by next September. The Chapel will be completed about six months after this new school is completed. Boston University's building program is really beginning to take shape. There are now four colleges up on the new campus.

*MASSACHUSETTS BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS

Chartered, 1944
Pledge Day, November 6, 1948

INITIATED, May 15, 1948: Alice Chorebanian, Newport; Suzanne Crone, Shelburne Falls; Barbara Dean, Belmont; Joan Della, Great Barrington; Norma Falconer, Ludlow; Beryl Fanning, Brockton; Jeannette Harris, East Deerfield; Carol Hooker, Raynham; Janice Luther, Springfield; Louise Martin, Amherst; Ruth Sheppard, Needham; Ruth Schorer, Northampton; C. Frances Smith, East Taunton; Janet Smith, South Hadley Falls; Marjorie Sullivan, Marilyn Whipple, Pittsfield.

This fall, the members of Massachusetts B returned to a sparkling house, shining in its new coat of white paint, and trimmed with maroon shutters. The expense for this and a few other improvements was covered by renting the chapter house during the summer to a group of tobacco workers in the Connecticut Valley. Quite a few other fraternities on campus use this plan for money-raising.

The college is still engaged in an active program of expansion. The University enrollment, including Fort Devens, now tops 4000. The 1371 students in the junior class alone exceeds the total enrollment of pre-war years. To meet the needs of the increased number of students, sixty-four members have been added to the faculty, and new dormitories and classroom buildings are springing up in all directions.

All the students on campus have caught the fever and excitement of the football season. Adding to the spirit on the football field is the university band followed by the Girls' Drill Team. Approximately one-fourth of the Drill Team members are Pi Beta Phis this year. After all the home games, there is a coffee hour at the chapter house which is open at this time to all who wish to come. These social gatherings proved to be very successful.

Marie Matthes, one of the seniors, is doing honors work on cancer research, a very vital topic at the present time.

This summer the members of Σ K on campus were fortunate enough to be able to purchase a duplex home, which they have made over into a spacious chapter house. In the near future they plan to give a welcome dance in their new house for the men that have transferred here from Fort Devens. They have asked the Massachusetts Bs to join them at that time as hostesses to the Devens men.

MARION E. MOODY

*CONNECTICUT ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT

Chartered, April 10, 1943
Pledge Day, October 12, 1948

INITIATED, March 20, 1948: Doris Berggren, Collinsville; Jean Boone, East Hartford; Gene Goodwin, Farmington; Eleanor Hepburn, Storrs; Joan Miles, New Haven; Lois Palmer, Rockville; Jane Weber, South Windham.

April 24, 1948: Winnifred Sye, Danielson; Mary Duffy, Broadbrook; Barbara Banner, June Peterson, New Britain; Barbara Beckwith, Yantic.

President Albert Jorgenson informed the students in his greeting this fall that nineteen permanent buildings are under construction. Four of the eight men's dormitories on north campus have been completed and are filled to capacity. The St. Thomas Aquinas chapel, started early last spring, was ready for its dedication on October 31. Among the other buildings are a new men's gymnasium and swimming pool, a student health center and infirmary, several agricultural buildings and dormitories for the students of the Radcliff Hicks School of Agriculture. President Jorgenson announced that it is the greatest building program in the history of the school.

For the first time since the beginning of the war the freshman class has been issued the traditional blue beanie hats with white class numerals which they are required to wear until Thanksgiving vacation.

Dormitory mail delivery and daily collection has been initiated this year by the Storrs Post Office which will greatly ease the crowded conditions of the small community post office and eliminate a long walk for the students in getting their mail.

New hours for freshman women have been put into effect this fall. All freshman women have to be in their dormitories by eight o'clock Monday through Thursday nights. It is hoped that this will aid in the development of good study habits in incoming women.

During the summer, rush teas were given for incoming freshman girls. The Hartford and New Haven Alumnae Clubs were generous with both their time and their homes to make these teas successful.

Fall rushing started the Sunday after upper classmen returned to campus with an open house for all freshman women. A new chapter of $\Lambda \Xi \Delta$ was installed on campus late last spring and it has joined wholeheartedly and co-operatively in the new rushing system authorized by the Panhellenic Council.

Ora Belle Holdridge returned to school filled with enthusiasm over her trip to Europe this summer. She was sent to France by the Congregational Christian Service Committee and there attended a work camp. She also made a tour of Switzerland, England, and Scotland.

Jacqueline Dudack made a trip to Minnesota this summer to attend the national convention of the Newman Club. She is New England Province Secretary for this club.

As a result of winning the Danforth Scholarship in Home Economics, Jane Spencer, junior winner, and Barbara Beckwith, freshman winner, spent two weeks at a leadership camp in Michigan.

Margaret Murray was awarded the Ardele Valcourt Loughlin honor in Home Economics and Jane Spencer received the Borden award.

Upon their return to school many activities resumed their duties as officers in extracurricular activities. Ellen Marie Herr is Secretary-Treasurer of the Laurels, a group equivalent to Mortar Board. Virginia Clark is head house chairman of one of the largest women's dormitories on campus. Justine Hoxie is a member of Carolers, a noted musical group in the state. Adelle Wadhams is secretary of the W.S.G.C. Jane Weber is also a member of W.S.G.C. and secretary of the university band.

JEANNE LAWSON

ALPHA PROVINCE WEST

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

New York A is in full swing. The house opened with the usual hustle and confusion common to heavy registration. It is a fine sight to see orange "lids" adorning the flustered heads of freshmen once again after a three year discontinuation of the fine Syracuse tradition.

Formal rushing started October 1 with a weekend of open houses. There is an exceptionally high calibre of coed going through the rushing program this year, and New York A is looking forward to acquiring an excellent pledge class.

On September 30 an exchange dinner was held with A X P. The affair was a very enjoyable success.

As a chapter activity project this semester, New York A is planning to redecorate the chapter room. In W A A activities, the chapter is well represented in hockey and tennis.

T. A. Howard is tennis manager. In Women's Student Government the chapter is expected to play a major role this year. Jean Maxwell, T. A. Howard, and Beverly Strong have taken over the duties as Junior Clerks of which there are six in W. S. G. Also, the two junior and two senior guides from the Fraternity are participating in the direction of campus life.

New York A is anticipating an active and successful year. The members are looking forward to hearing news of their sisters and wish them great success.

SALLY COWAN

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, March 20, 1914

INITIATED, October 3, 1948: Janice Anglebeck, Hemstead; Anne Dawson, Syracuse; Elizabeth Kidd, East Orleans, Cape Cod, Mass.; Marjorie Manuel, Rockville Center; Virginia Minners, Bronxville; Gretchen Tector, New Hartford; Patricia Timmerman, Radburn, N.J.

The girls of New York G are experiencing more than the usual excitement that comes with the beginning of a new school year. Although the redecoration of the second floor of the chapter house had been planned since last spring, the results were far more wonderful than had been anticipated. All of the rooms have had their faces lifted with paint, new carpets, and most important of all they have been entirely refurnished with chests, chairs, and studio couches of maple wood.

During the opening weeks of school the Pi Phi have been busy with their new offices and activities. Virginia Stanton spends her time running from one athletic meeting to the next. Besides being president of SLU club, the honorary athletic club for women, Ginny is treasurer of Outing Club and a member of the board of Women's Athletic Association. Virginia should find plenty of assistance as Adrienne Gessner, Caroline Reamon, Theresa Howard, Virginia Minners, and Alice Wilson have been elected to SLU club.

Mummers, the campus dramatic club, was ably supported in their first production of the year, "The Male Animal" by James Thurber and Eliot Nugent, by Anne Thornton, who had the lead, and Adrienne Gessner, with a supporting role. The house has reason to be proud of Annie. Besides her dramatic talents, she proved her musical ability by writing a song which won third prize at the National Convention in Indiana last June.

Patricia Hagan was re-elected Associate Editor of the Scarlet Saint, campus humor magazine, Managing Editor of the Laurentian, the alumni magazine. Pat is also Publicity Director of Mummers and a member of the Student-Faculty Committee.

Two of the girls hold offices in the honorary fraternities.

Wilhelmina MacDougle is Secretary-Treasurer of A K Δ , the national honorary sociological fraternity, while Marilyn Stewart is Vice-President of B B B, the honorary biological fraternity.

Jean Rugen is this year's Feature Editor of the Hill News, the weekly campus newspaper. As Program Director of KSLU, which is a part of the Inter-Collegiate Broadcasting System, Rugie helps to keep the campus up on things from the radio angle.

To start the semester with a festive touch, the alumnae surprised the chapter by having a much appreciated cooky-shine. Needless to say it was wonderful to have some of the old Pi Phi back again.

MARTHA THOMSON

NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1919

Pledge Day, March 1, 1948

INITIATED, October 2, 1948: Mary Stuart Cooper, Iris Frampton, Martha Gotthoffer, Elizabeth Hannon, Barbara Linschied, Elizabeth Meng, Marcella Norgore, Jean Pete, Joan Peterson, Jean Schmanke, Sally Skidmore, Louise Squire, Marybeth Weaver, Betsy Zobel.

Cornell students returned to register for the fall term on September 20. New York Δ was not long in getting organized, holding a meeting that same night. Initiation was planned for October 2, followed by a formal banquet at Taughannock Farms on Lake Cayuga. On October 5 the traditional "cooky-shine" followed the first chapter meeting for the initiates.

Last Spring there were three parties in honor of the new pledges. The sponsors took the pledges to dinner at the Hotel Ithaca after which there was an informal date party. Panhellenic Council sponsored a formal pledge dance at which all the pledges of the thirteen sororities were introduced. New York Δ then gave a formal pledge dance at which carnations were presented to each pledge. The pledges surprised their sponsors by taking them out to dinner.

New York Δ was in the limelight at the finals of the Inter-Fraternity Sing contest as the only sorority participating. The group sang "Follow the Arrow" at the intermission. The quartet, Lila Smith, Doris Eggen, Virginia Clark, and Nancy Sprott, entertained with two gay nineties' songs in real barber shop fashion.

The social activities of New York Δ ended in the late Spring with a barbecue at Stewart Park.

Pi Phi spent one afternoon at the Settlement School. The girls took dates with them and entertained the children whose ages ranged from 4 to 12. There was little to work with. The entertainment consisted of musical chairs and relay races, followed by a supper of hot dogs, potato chips, and soft drinks.

Highlights of an active year at Cornell were as follows: Lee Jurkewicz was chosen the "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi"; Pat Cary was awarded a scholarship for a year's study in Paris. Joyce Graham was elected Senior class president and a member of Raven and Serpent, and tapped for Mortar Board. Ann Horan was elected president of Clara Dickson Hall-Unit 5 which shelters 200 freshman girls. Four other New York Δ s are dormitory vice-presidents. Clara Ann Newell is Secretary of the Women's Self-Government Association and Cynthia Foster is Activities Chairman.

*ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Chartered, 1908

With the finishing of examinations last spring, members of Ontario A brought out their summer clothes, and on the eighteenth of May, departed via car or bus for Big Chief Lodge at Orillia, Ontario. Although it rained often, many girls were able to manage some golf, and bridge was the popular game played in the lodge. Everyone enjoyed the week, especially as it enabled the actives to get to know the new initiates.

On June 3, the alumnae and actives of the chapter met at the annual garden party. This year, it was held in the lovely garden of Mrs. J. S. Atkinson's home on a perfect summer afternoon. Each of the graduating members were presented with a II B Φ silver spoon.

Mary Alice Burton, Mary Macdonald, Flora Mulligan, and Janet Thompson were able to get to Convention at French Lick, as well as Dorothy Taylor, the delegate. In the report, the feeling of maturity and cooperation which was shown in dealing with the subjects under discussion at Convention was emphasized. Even in hearing about it, the girls who were not there felt some of the spirit of sisterhood which those present had appreciated.

Joan Dauphinee, Ellen Gairdner, and Diana Troop have been chosen as cheerleaders this year. They will be among the nine to help cheer the "Varsity Blues" on to victory during the fall rugby season. Meanwhile, the chapter house is having a "facelifting," with an attractive cement porch complete with iron railing and carriage lamps replacing the antique wood and brick structure.

A new system is being tested this fall in rushing, which was held from the fourth to the seventh of October. The local branch of the Panhellenic Congress has decided to have fall rushing of second year students rather than the January rushing of first year girls. This gives newcomers to U. of T. a year to settle down and become acquainted with the girls on the Toronto campus before entering a fraternity. A beach wiener roast and a gay Paris Café party were two of the parties arranged for the rushing week.

Six members of the chapter, Ann Burton, Valerie Carson, Susie Davidson, Margaret Fleming, Mary Haldenby and Pat

Noble accepted the kind invitation of the New York Δ to attend their Initiation and Banquet on October 2. The visitors were given such generous hospitality by the girls of the New York Chapter, that it was with real regret that they left the following afternoon. It was indeed a wonderful experience to feel the friendship and unity manifested through Pi Beta Phi.

Pledge Day, September 30, 1948

The first chapter event of the fall term was pledging. Then the members and pledges of Ontario B plunged into the activities of the University. Football games, of course, were the center for most of the fall social activity and the members in the house were pleased to make room for the Ontario A's who came from the University of Toronto for a football weekend here. Janey Edwards led the enthusiastic cheers at the Pep Rally and at all the games of the season.

Very helpful to the three women's fraternities on this campus was a meeting on October 19 of all pledges, actives, and alumnae in the University common room to discuss fraternity problems. Mrs. Owen, the National Panhellenic Delegate from $\Gamma \Phi \Theta$, who was attending a $\Gamma \Phi \Theta$ Convention here in London, kindly consented to lead the discussion. Her main talk was followed by speeches from each of the fraternity presidents on a particular problem relating to her chapter. This open meeting was followed the next day by a closed meeting of the executive members of the three women's fraternities in which the problems were pursued in more detail. The Panhellenic Council was most enthusiastic about these meetings and they have helped immensely to promoting interfraternity understanding.

INITIATED, September 26, 1948: Marion Bucher, Mount Vernon; Marian Heady, Upper Darby; Barbara Kaiser, Elkins Park; Barbara Planz, Ridgewood, N.J.; Mae Williams, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Nancy Wolfinger, Philadelphia.

A new semester brings new faces and many changes. The freshman women number one hundred eighty-five, many more than in the last two years, and the football team is much better than usual. "Chet's and Clyde's," formerly "George's" or "The Bison," is now exclusively "Chet's" and Clyde has taken over the "Pardoe's," the local night spot. Another important change is that the Music Department has expanded making it possible for many talented Bucknellians to receive a music degree.

The Pennsylvania Bs overflowing with new ideas, are back to prepare for the rushing season. Much time is now spent in song practices and planning skits.

Martha Woodburn, Doris Wellenkamp, Carol VanAllen, Eleanor Leiper, Mary Ann Shimer, and Jean Bailey were elected to be freshman counselors. Genevieve Fowle and Harriet Arnold earned initiation into Mortar Board. Harriet Arnold and Emily Hill are living in honor house. Genevieve Fowle was elected vice-president of Hunt Hall, the largest dormitory. Two Pi Phis, Barbara Kates and Betty Lou Peterman, are living in German House, of which Betty Lou is social chairman. Ann Cooper is president of Bucknell Cottage, and Marion Bucher is a member of the House of Representatives, over which Harriet Arnold presides as president.

As vice-president of the Junior Class and rushing captain of the chapter, Martha Woodburn is one of the busiest Bucknellians. She and her committee are planning for a gala Junior Prom to be held in December.

Pennsylvania Bs president and vice-president, having been fortunate enough to attend the Pi Beta Phi Convention, have returned to school with many new ideas, new songs, and new inspiration to lead the chapter.

Pennsylvania Γ was honored with a visit from Amy Burnham Onken, Grand President, from April 23 to 25. Miss Onken attended several college alumni and faculty affairs in addition to her conferences with chapter officers. The chapter was thrilled to observe Founder's Day with her at a banquet which was attended by many of the alumni.

Coinciding with Miss Onken's visit was the celebration of the 175th anniversary of the founding of Dickinson College. Pi Beta Phi won third place in the all-college parade with a float depicting the refusal of professors to permit women to be inside the classrooms even after their admittance to Dickinson.

The building of New South College, which houses classrooms and a recreational room, was completed last spring. Definite plans have also been made for a new women's dormitory on this campus.

Jane Jackson was presented with the X Ω Social Science Award at the commencement exercises last June.

The chapter won second place in the inter-fraternity softball tournament.

The spring tea, spring formal, Commencement banquet, and senior farewell party culminated last year's social events.

On September 26 the Θ Xs entertained Pennsylvania Γ at a tea.

Pledge Day, September 27, 1948

INITIATED, October 2, 1948: Joan Erdman, Lakewood; Janet Ingerham, Ellen Nichols, Sara Lee Roach, Athens; Judith Zeller, Zanesville.

The fall semester officially started September 27, 1948, following a four-day rushing period. Due to new Panhellenic rules, neither bids nor any forms of verbal invitations to pledge could be extended to a girl until the time of the second function. During the rushing period Ohio A gave three traditional parties, a tea, a hotel party, a rodeo party.

This past summer the alumnae redecorated the chapter house. The members of Ohio A are justly proud of the lovely improvements made. The school now has an enrollment of 5,570, which is the second largest in the history of the university. A new girls' dormitory has just been completed and construction has been started on a new pool, an engineering building, and a new building for the College of Fine Arts.

Ohio A has started football practice for the Powder Bowl game, an annual affair to raise money for the American Cancer Fund. This affair was first held in the fall of 1947. As then, the A Ξ Δ s will be the opponent. Plans have been started for the Christmas dance and the other social activities for the school year. This year the sororities on campus will also have an opportunity to compete for the float cup at Homecoming. Mary Newkirk is the chapter candidate for Homecoming queen.

INITIATED, May 1, 1948: Maurine Bowen, London; Alice Fleming, Zanesville; Bette Ann Gragnon, Cincinnati; Jo Ann Harris, Martins Ferry; Margaret Doris Hoyer, Sawdusky; Nancy Ann Krieg, Nelsonville; Ann Pribble, Cleveland; Joan Springer, Worthington; Virginia Lou Stansbury, Toledo; Virginia Brush, Katherine Cline, Louise Fallon, Janet Monahan, Dorothy Seelig, Columbus.

Spring quarter found many Pi Phi nominated to honoraries, as follows: A Π Δ , freshman honorary, Janet Monahan, Virginia Brush and Janet Teachnor; Δ O, music honorary, Janet Teachnor; Mirrors, sophomore honorary, Nancy Krieg, Janet Monahan, Virginia Brush and Louise Fallon; Mortar Board, senior honorary, Patricia Rector; home economics honorary, Virginia English; political science honorary, Marjorie Patton; Φ B K, Julia Dieble; Women's Ohio, Donna Morris; and May Court, Genevieve Tetlow.

The Pi Phi theme party was probably the most outstanding one of rush week. The rushees entered the gates of "heaven" and were serenaded by Gabriel, song leader Virginia Smith, who was sitting in the upstairs window. At the door the rushees were greeted by St. Peter, the rush captain, and ushered into the Devil's Hideaway for a "Cocktail." The living rooms were entirely hung with sheets and stars dangled from cheesecloth clouds. The whole chapter joined in enthusiastically to decorate for the party.

The quarter got off to a fine start with an open house after the first football game, at which time the pledges were introduced. For the Homecoming game all of the big sisters are planning to send their little sisters mums and to take them out to dinner.

The alumnae worked very hard all summer and redecorated the south living room of the house for the chapter. In addition all of the bed rooms have new matching spreads and drapes. Further plans have been made to have the porch glassed in and furnished as a game room.

The chapter set the date for the annual Christmas formal for December 5. The traditional gifts from Santa will be under the tree and distributed to dates during the formal.

The second week in November Ohio B will be honored by a visit from the new province president, Mrs. C. W. Gustkey.

In addition to the delegates, Patricia Rector and Donna Morris, several other girls went to Convention this year. The girls told the chapter about the wonderful experiences they had and more girls are planning to attend the next convention, probably in Canada.

INITIATED, October 3, 1948: Hazel Mutersbaugh, Olmstead Falls; Susan Werner, Delaware; Phyllis Wiborg, Hamden, Conn.

The fall semester opened at Ohio Wesleyan with an enrollment of approximately 2100 students. Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, the new president and an alumnus of Wesleyan, gave a very inspiring welcome speech at the first Convocation Service of the year. Dr. Flemming was the former director of the United States Civil Service Commission in Washington, D.C.

The freshman caps and the tugs-of-war are helping to build more college spirit. The Bonfire and Snake Dance the night preceding the Battling Bishops' first football game filled everyone with enthusiasm.

Ohio Wesleyan has done much to foster an international feeling on its campus with the enrollment of students from India, Puerto Rico, Germany, China, Uruguay, Holland, and Czechoslovakia.

Phyllis Steward, chapter vice-president, received the Amy B. Onken Province Award. Myra Rowley Ohio Δ president, is president of Mortar Board, and Claire Woehling, was also tapped for this women's honorary; Mary Nouse is president of Monnett Dormitory; Sue Basquin is president of Women's Recreational Activities; Peggy Jo Gordon was elected to the national music scholastic honorary; Kathryn Marsh is a Senior Advisor in the freshman dormitory; Peg Bender was elected to A K Δ , sociology honorary; Claire Woehling and Sue Basquin are members of the Twin "W" Club, athletic honorary.

Seven members of Ohio Δ were privileged to attend the National Convention at French Lick, Indiana. The enrollment of day students at the University of Toledo for this semester of 4,154, is a decrease from last year. The Glass Bowl, which has been enlarged to accommodate more students, was the scene of the Bates-TU Game. A fireworks display and the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps entertained the spectators during half-time.

The YMCA and YWCA started the year with a dance which was held in the parking lot. Ruth Gogel, president of the YW, helped with the arrangements. Mrs. Wilbur W. White, first lady of the campus, was hostess at the YWCA party honoring freshman women and held in the Student Union. A portrait of the late President Phillip C. Nash was presented to the University by the graduates of 1947 and 1948 at the September Commencement exercises in the Doerman Theater.

Actives and pledges who appeared in the Freshman-Sophomore Variety Show, the first of its kind, which was held in May were: Joanne Wenner, Sue Niles, Bea Kiker, Clydale Padgett, Mary Lou VanBuren, Beverly Freeman, and Mary Pat Duffey.

Panhellenic Council held a tea for freshman women on Sunday, October 3, in the Student Union. At this time Panhellenic and its functions and rushing regulations were explained.

Initiation in March was followed by the annual dinner and cooky-shine at the home of Laura Kaseman. Ohio E celebrated Founder's Day with the alumnae. The banquet, followed by singing and bridge, was held in the Toledo Woman's Building.

At the regular X B X serenade in April Dorothy Nan Williams was chosen Sweetheart-of-the-Month. The serenade was followed by a coke party at the fraternity house for both groups.

The annual Women's Songfest, which is sponsored by Peppers, women's honorary, was held April 23. Three Ohio Es were chosen for Peppers at this time: Nancy Butler, and president of the Woman's Association; Margery Garrett, Panhellenic president; and Marjorie Keller.

At the annual Women's Athletic Association luncheon many honors and awards were presented. Ohio E at this time received the Basketball Trophy finishing the season undefeated and untied. Virginia Andrews was installed as WAA president at this meeting.

The women on campus were very busy last spring in preparation for the annual May Day festivities. Nancy Butler was elected May Queen and crowned by the last year's queen. The royal court included Joanne Finucan, Alice Eichman, Laura Kaseman, and Marjorie Keller.

Ohio E played hostess to mothers on Mother's Day with the annual tea in the Fraternity apartment. Shirley Hill was chairman. The Mothers' Club entertained the graduating seniors at a tea in the home of Mrs. Otto Winsinger, president. The seniors were presented with graduating gifts from the mothers.

The chapter had a Bridge Party in the Student Union, May 12. Marilyn Hellrung was chairman. All the Pi Phis donned jeans and went to work on a paper sale. The chapter was divided into two teams, the winning team was to be entertained by the losing team.

Virginia Andrews and Margery Garrett represented Ohio E at Convention. Other members attending were Patricia Dolan, Cecilia Wood, and Suzanne Preece Poll. Convention proved to be all they had expected and more. Many new ideas and suggestions that were brought back have proved very helpful in making plans for the fall term.

The new semester started with a bang after a very enjoyable summer vacation. Barbara Riblet, Marjorie Lunn, and Mary Spieker visited California I and spent six weeks at the house while they became acquainted with the western sisters and their beautiful country. The Pi Beta Phis were among the 2000 who attended the political mock convention which was quite real with its mules, bands and motor scooters. Delegates representing every state for the day cheered prominent speakers who really made the convention a success.

A Founders' Day Banquet was attended by the Beta Province President, Mrs. W. D. Humphrey, alumnae from Oxford, Richmond, Ind., and Cincinnati, and by chapter members and pledges.

INITIATED, March 7, 1948: Jane Ellen Queen, Kathryn McClung, Huntington; Susan McConnel, Mary Esther Fike, Martha Ezell, Charleston; Barbara Wyckoff, Fairmont; Mary Bateman, Helen Louise Merryman, Clarksburg; Janet Spencer, Patricia Lattimer, Parkersburg; Cynthia Taylor, Morgantown; Betsy Ferguson, La Porte, Texas; Jo Ann Bell, Hagerstown, Md.; Marjorie Craig, Rand.

During the spring term, the students of West Virginia University were presented with a much needed student center. The new center was officially opened May 14 and is appropriately named "The Mountainlair." The building is a government grant and consists of bowling alleys, large dance floor, and snack bar.

West Virginia As are proud of Jane Ellen Queen who was elected Miss W.V.U. in April. Talent as well as beauty was required. In July, Jane Ellen represented the University at Moundsville to compete for Miss West Virginia. Jane Ellen won the title Miss W.V., a $2,000 scholarship, and a chance to compete for Miss America. The chapter was especially pleased because Jane Ellen was the third beauty queen that West Virginia A had during the 1947-1948 school year. "Mim" Lowther had been Homecoming Queen, and Mary Ann Burnside was chosen as the Sweetheart of Sigma Phi E in April. At the Military Ball on May 9, it was disclosed that Mary Lou Hart had been chosen as an R.O.T.C. sponsor.

Miss Onken paid West Virginia A a visit on Founders' Day. Never was Founders' Day more impressive. The alumnae held the banquet at the University cafeteria and the Founders' Day ceremonies took place at the chapter house. The memory of Founders' Day, 1948, will always remain one of inspiration for each West Virginia A.

With the closing of the school year, Betsy Ferguson was chosen president of Li-Toon-Awa, sophomore woman's honorary, and Mary Ann Burnside was initiated into the English Club. Three West Virginia A's were able to attend Convention: Barbara Burnside, Emily Ice, and Eleanor Carson.

With the opening of the fall term, it was revealed that the enrollment of West Virginia University had reached an all-time high of 6,720. Three West Virginia A's were chosen by the Dean of Women to serve as Freshman guides, chosen on the basis of their character, personality, and scholarship. They were Roberta Wildman, Neville Marsteller, and Mary Lou Hart.

Rush Week was very successful. For the party night, the colonial style house at 1493 University Avenue became a southern mansion complete with Spanish moss, Crepe paper flowers were wound around the white columns in the front of the house and the rushees were welcomed by two "little darkies" as they approached the house. Colored butlers and southern belles showed the rushees real southern hospitality. An old-time minstrel show was held and a Pi Beta Phi version of mint julep refreshed guests. The backyard was decorated with Japanese lanterns and watermelon was served. The new housemother, Mrs. James Sullivan, impressed the rushees as a distinguished and sweet southern lady.

Eleanor Carson was elected to Alpha Psi Omega, speech honorary, as well as to Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary; and Neville Marsteller was elected to Alpha Psi Omega early in October.

PLEDGED: Claire Colson, Emmy Lou Randall, Doris Jean Miller, Barbara Clark, Morgantown; Ann Dahlstrom, Lois Beth Bruford, Dorothy Dyer, Charleston; Jean Pritt, Fairmont; Jane Repp, Dina Scholl, Parkersburg; Jo Ann Atkinson, Clarksburg; Barbara Zoekler, Wheeling; Carolyn Tracker, Hamlin; Elizabeth Dexter, Silver Springs, Md.; Virginia Harr, Roncovevte.

Goucher opened officially on Friday, October 4, with Convocation, at which the new president, Dr. Otto Kraushaar, addressed the student body for the first time. He was received with a great deal of enthusiasm by both the faculty and the students.

Maryland A, about to embark upon fall rushing for the first time in three years, is looking hopefully forward to the rush season. Bending great energy toward repainting old furniture, the chapter is quite proud of the improvements made on some old and unattractive pieces by sanding them down, painting them white, and applying Pennsylvania Dutch designs.

Maryland A is looking forward to a detailed account of Convention as soon as the excitement of rushing is over. There are numerous new suggestions for conducting chapter business, and many new ideas for a more socially active season this year.

All members of D.C. Alpha are looking forward to a wonderful year. The semester started off with Rushing, of course, and parties included a Hawaiian Party, a Gypsy Party, and an Angel Party.

At one of the Big Sisters functions Chapter President Betty Ann Paisley, President of Mortar Board, tapped for Tassels, Sophomore Honorary, and Helen Joy and Janet Wildman were among those chosen.

A new pep club was organized at George Washington University this Fall, and it is already the second largest of its kind in the country. Betty Ann Paisley and Marilyn Brownfield are on the Executive Committee, and Pi Beta Phi was the first organization to achieve one hundred percent membership.

Many honors have come to the Chapter in the past year. Phyllis Patterson was tapped for Mortar Board last Spring, and she is now studying at the Sorbonne in Paris as an exchange student. North Carolina Alpha began the fall quarter with plans to be active in all phases of campus life this year, inspired by various honors won last spring. Randy Hudson was elected president of the W.A.A. Two of the six girls tapped by Valkyries were Sally Woodhull and Katherine Royall; Valkyries is the equivalent of Mortar Board. Pledge Day, October 3, 1948

INITIATED, October 7, 1948: Barbara Corpening, Roanoke Rapids; Pamela Bedell, Greensboro; Barbara Cruthers, Teaneck, N.J.; Jean Barnett, Westfield, N.J.

When Duke University opened on September 8 for Freshman Week, many actives and pledges were already back ready to greet the freshmen. Jane Chivers, Jo Hendricks, and Betsy Buck were on the Freshman Advisory Council. Pam Bedell, the Co-Ed Business Manager of the annual, was back to help get the yearbook off to a good start with freshman pictures and the like. Working with her were Mary Lou Britton and Mary Seaberg, staff members of the yearbook. Norma Feaster and Pat McAllister, members of Sandals, the sophomore leadership honorary, were here also.

During the week following Freshman Week normal relations prevailed. The two weeks following were set aside as official rushing. This year Panhellenic Council decided upon a two-week system of rushing. The first week during the rushing period was for visiting and informal openhouses. On Wednesday and Thursday of the following week each sorority had formal parties. This chapter gave its usual hilarious Circus Party and the beautifully simple and impressive Angel Party. Bids were distributed on Friday.

On October 7 the Durham Alumnae Club had a celebration for the new pledges and initiates. On Sunday, October 10, a scrumptious pledge-initiation breakfast was held and after breakfast the chapter attended chapel in a body.

All of the members have been eagerly supporting the Duke Blue Devils in their early efforts, especially Mary Brinkman, who is again one of the cheerleaders for the University.

Last spring Mary Brinkman was tapped for White Duchy, the highest leadership honorary on campus; Mary Ann Atkins was chosen yearbook beauty queen; Jean Barnett and Jo Hendricks were in the beauty court; Nancy Mall was appointed head of Student Forum Committee and Betsy Buck is working with her.

North Carolina Beta is very glad to welcome Jo Ryan, a transfer from Goucher College, to this chapter.

SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Chartered, 1931
Pledge Day, March 22, 1948

South Carolina Alpha was hoping to have province president Mrs. Jack Herod down for her annual visit during the Founders' Day Banquet, but she was unable to work it into her schedule. So she visited the next week, and the chapter reaped great benefit from her suggestions and presence.

Barbara Raffield is secretary of the Junior class, and Barbara McSwain holds that same office with the Sophomores. Evelyn Plyler is doing a fine job leading cheers at football games, being one of four coeds to receive that honor at the polls. Evelyn was also nominated in a beauty pageant last spring to be one of three girls to run for May Queen.

Greta Miley is historian of the Sophomore class, and Jean Hill was elected second vice-president of the student body, thereby receiving a seat on Student Council.

Helen Harbin was tapped for A K Γ, the only honorary service fraternity for women here. Helen is co-chairman of Vespers Committee and will serve again this year on the Honor Board. She has been named associate editor of the Carolina Review, campus magazine. Jean Hill is managing editor of The Gamecock, weekly paper.

Evelyn Plyler was delegate to Convention this summer, and she is bubbling over with many helpful suggestions and memories of a wonderful experience!

Last spring in the annual A K Γ sorority "Stunt Night" Pi Phi walked off with second honors. Joyce Hayes directed the skit, consisting of five dances representing different countries.

The chapter house was completely painted inside this summer, the parlor furniture upholstered and new rugs bought, so it really looks brand new. Pi Phi is one of the two sororities on the campus fortunate enough to have a house.

PLEGDED: Elizabeth Buechal, Gloria Hall, Frances LaBorde, Jane Lever, Nathalie Thomas, Harriet Ann Way.

MICHIGAN ALPHA—HILLSDALE COLLEGE

Chartered, 1887
Pledge Day, October 30, 1948

The fall semester at Hillsdale College officially started on September 24. Hillsdale is enjoying the largest enrollment in the school's history.

The chapter had cause to celebrate during the opening week of school for Michigan A was awarded the Scholarship Cup for achieving the highest grade average of the sororities on campus. The chapter's average also exceeded the average of the highest fraternity on campus. This occasion was a pleasing compliment to the honor the chapter received last June when Barbara Boughner was the valedictorian of the class of 1948.

Sports are currently prominent on the Hillsdale campus, for not only is the varsity football team on its way to win again the M.I.A.A. football championship, but the women's intramurals have begun, with field hockey being the first sport series.

Once again the method of rushing has been altered, and the chapter is no longer participating in delayed rushing. Rush week at Hillsdale will begin, and pledging will be held during the first semester.

Chapter President Lou Ann Kelley returned from Convention with many interesting comments. The chapter found the program and the exhibits which Lou Ann described to be of great value in Michigan A's plans for the year.

After the chapter had been awarded the Scholarship Cup the girls were pleased to entertain Mrs. Leithel Ford at dinner. Mrs. Ford has been Michigan A's Alumnae Supervisor of Scholarship for four years and did a great deal towards helping the chapter attain this goal.

MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Chartered, 1888

Michigan B returned to Ann Arbor this fall to find a newly decorated living room, sunporch, music room and hall, and the rooms are really lovely. The chapter is very appreciative of their generous alumnae who made such a beautiful new first floor possible.

The football season got underway the first weekend after classes began, September 20, and Michigan B held open houses after almost every game to entertain visiting Pi Beta Phi alumnae, and friends.

The chapter enjoyed a visit last fall from Delta Province President Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis.

Michigan B is particularly proud of its sophomores this year, with every one of them going out for the U of M all-sophomore project, "Sophomore Cabaret." That's a mighty fine record. They are also working hard in other League and campus activities, and they are indication that Pi Phi is going to leave its mark in activities this year.

The Homecoming game with Illinois was held on October 30, and Michigan B's display was the result of much careful planning and hard work. The chapter enjoyed seeing so many of the graduates who returned for the weekend and who, in turn, were delighted to see the redecorated house.

Panhellenic Ball was held in November. This was a particularly special event for Michigan B this year as Mary Stierer is President.

Michigan B held a "Mothers' Weekend" November 6. The mothers were entertained at the Michigan-Navy game, and Saturday night at a party given for them. As the fathers did last year at "Fathers' Weekend," the mothers took over the entire second floor of the house, while the girls slept downstairs. It was a great weekend, and created some never-to-be-forgotten memories.

Many exchange dinners were held this fall and were enjoyed by the chapter as well as the visitors.

A Christmas house party and dance were also highlights of the semester, having become traditional with the chapter. Formal rushing begins in February.

MICHIGAN GAMMA—MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE

On September 27, Michigan Γ returned to college to find the house had been painted during the summer. The alumnae had also added new furniture to the living room.

The enrollment was the highest in the history of the college with 16,000 students. Many new buildings were near completion, and the new Electrical Engineering building was open for classes. The pride of the campus, however, was the enlarged football stadium which now seats 51,000 spectators. Highlight of the first game, the annual Michigan State-University of Michigan contest, was the dedication ceremony which was witnessed by a capacity crowd. After the game, open-house was held at the chapter house for parents, friends, and the Michigan B chapter from the University of Michigan.

The traditional summer newsletter, the Golden Chain, of Michigan Γ, was compiled by Lou Ann Woelk and Donna Gillard from the letters written by all the chapter members.

October found the chapter busy working on homecoming decorations for the game with Arizona. Many alumnae from the chapter were at the Pi Beta Phi house to see old friends and make new ones.

Miss Emma Mueller, the new director of the Y.W.C.A., and Mrs. Gonon, Counselor for Women, were entertained at dinner in the chapter house. Different from the usual run of exchange dinners was the picnic given by the Θ X fraternity.

Last spring the chapter was honored at the May Morning Sing when Patricia Gilpin, Harriet McCall, and Ann Wilbur were chosen for Tower Guard, the sophomore women's honorary. The presidency of the Spartan Women's League, campus service organization, went to Jacquelyn Smith; publicity chairman to Colleen Sweeney.

Those becoming secretaries of organizations were Doris Woodward of Panhellenic; Gloria Cromwell of Θ A Φ, the dramatics honorary; Patricia Gilpin of Tower Guard; and Betty Wilkenson of Δ Φ Δ, the art honorary. Ellen Ude was asked to join Orchestria, the women's modern dance honorary and also M Σ, music honorary. Loraine Anderson became a member of Σ E, the Business Administration honorary, and Sally Dimmers was asked to become a member of Φ K Φ, senior scholastic honorary. Lou Ann Woelk was honored at a dinner given by Φ K Φ for obtaining the highest marks during her freshman year of any girl from a class "A" high school. The chapter is proud of Loraine Anderson, who won the all-college women's singles tennis tournament. "Pi Beta Phi" is now written on the tennis plaque which will be held in the chapter house until the tournament next spring. Mary Gravius was asked to join K Δ II, the education honorary, and Patricia Watrous has a part in the all-college play, "The Night of January the 16th." Several new initiates became officers of North Williams dormitory this fall: Kathryn Otterbien, president; Nancy Letton, secretary; and Patricia Watrous, social chairman.

The chapter was happy to have Mrs. Lewis, the Delta Province president, visit the house November 8, 9, and 10. The alumnae, actives, and pledges all entertained Mrs. Lewis during her stay.

INITIATED, September 11, 1948: Janet Chappell, Ft. Wayne; Beverly McClintick, Indianapolis; Barbara Williams, Danville; Norma Warrick, Sheldon, Ill.; Nancy Gant, Laurel Larson, Marjorie Ragsdale, Franklin.

Indiana A initiation was held at the home of Mrs. Field Daily. The following day the initiates were honored with a brunch held at the Gibson restaurant. This preceded a rush period of one week which ended September 18. Pledging was held at the home of Mrs. Leroy Cooke followed by a luncheon for the fourteen pledges. Later that day the alumnae of Indiana A entertained with their traditional cooky-shine for the pledges at the college Student Center. The Emma May Burton Award for outstanding work in the humanities was presented to Mary Catherine Brewer. Beverly McClintick received the diamond recognition pin for her high scholastic average as a pledge. Actives and alumnae alike were pleased that Mrs. Robert S. Wild and Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis could be with them for this event.

Franklin College sponsored the annual open house for all women's fraternities in order that they might introduce their pledge classes to the public. Indiana A pledges, dressed in white formals and holding arm bouquets of red roses, were introduced to those attending by Mrs. Howard Rice, Franklin alumnae club president and the Indiana A president, Mary Catherine Brewer, and rush captain Martha Jane Dungan.

Among other fall social events for Indiana A were the swimming party and supper given by the patronesses at the summer home of Mrs. Roy Amos September 24, an all-campus open house following the football game October 16, and the Mothers' Club dinner for actives and pledges October 18.

New on the Franklin College campus this year is a move, sponsored by the Student Council Executive Board, for a form of student government elected by popular ballot rather than by the merit system based on scholarship and activities as it is now. The main building has been extensively redecorated and several new professors have been added to the faculty, including Mary Owen, Indiana A '36, Phi Alpha Theta, national history honorary, was installed on the campus November 11 by Dr. Earl Pomeroy of Ohio State University.

Convention at Frenk Lick Springs this summer brought much happiness and many new friends to Indiana A. Being awarded the attendance trophy was an honor appreciated by the entire chapter. Workshops at Convention gave Indiana A's ideas and at their instigation, Panhellenic abolished rush fees and forbade demonstrations after pledging. The Convention delegate from California B was kind enough to furnish the chapter with a pledge point system which has been adapted to this campus and is in practice now. The nine girls who attended Convention from Indiana A have re-lived that glorious week many times and will do their utmost to aid the rest of the chapter to benefit from a wonderful experience.

Spring honors which Indiana A received were many. Four campus presidencies are held by chapter members and include Mary Catherine Brewer, House Council and $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$; Joanne England, Gold Quill, equivalent of Mortar Board; and Virginia Anderson, W.A.A. Patricia Cooke was chosen to Gold Quill and is Panhellenic treasurer and secretary of I.R.C. Gyneth Wilson is secretary of F.C.C.A. Council and secretary-treasurer of $\Phi \Lambda \Theta$.

CAROLYN MILLER

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1907
Pledge Day, September 27, 1948

INITIATED, June 21, 1948: Barbara Taylor, St. Louis. Washington University welcomed many old and new faces as the college opened its doors, September 23, to a student body of over 12,000. During the three-day registration period in the field house, Missouri B actives and pledges participated in the sales campaigns launched by the many organizations on campus offering calendars, directories, publications, and tickets.

Fall rushing this year was two weeks in length, ending very successfully the evening of September 22, with the actives welcoming the pledges in the newly decorated Pi Beta Phi room for songs and refreshments. The chapter was serenaded by the Σ N fraternity and escorted to their house for cokes and dancing.

One of the first highlights of every school year is Freshman Orientation Week. The entire student body enjoys the freshman courts at noon and are envious of all the freshmen who end the week's activities with a mixer in the field house. Delores Kriegshauser represented Missouri B on the Freshman Orientation Committee.

Looking back on the late spring social activities of last semester, Missouri B finds many pleasant memories: Gloria Gross was chosen Esquire Girl of Washington University for 1948; Jean McElwee was elected maid to the Engineer's Queen; Delores Kriegshauser was chosen, by popular vote, maid to the 1948 Hatchet Queen; and at the annual ΣX Sweetheart Dance the retiring Sweetheart, Peggy McElwee, crowned Betty Stake the 1948 Sweetheart of ΣX and Betty Jane Lovell was chosen a maid. The Founders' Day Banquet, the tea given for the St. Louis alumnae honoring the twelve Founders, and the annual spring dance filled the social calendar for the Missouri B. Nan Meier and Marion Buck were chosen "Best All Around Pi Phi" and "Active with Greatest Improvement in Scholarship," respectively, and these awards were presented at the Founders' Day Banquet.

Jane Campbell, Mary Ann Moore, Virginia Rodriguez, and Polly Andrew were elected to Mortar Board, and Mrs. Douglas V. Martin was chosen honorary member; Pat Krueger, Barbara Smith, Betty Stake, and Delores Kriegshauser were elected to Chimes; Betty Tracy, Georgia Dunbar, Bebe Elleard, Betty Moore, and Virginia Reddish were elected to Freshman Commission; Betty Dangerfield was elected to H M II, retaining honorary. Virginia Rodriguez was elected vice-president of Mortar Board, and Georgia Dunbar and Betty Tracy were elected president and vice-president, respectively, of Freshman Commission.

Further spring elections at the University found many Missouri Bs taking high honors. Pat Krueger was elected president of Panhellenic; Betty Stake, chairman of the Red Cross; Marjorie Ritter, co-chairman of the Student Senate; Marguerite Rice, president of WUMS, the women's swimming club; and Frances Newport, president of the McMillan Hall Dormitory.

Under the leadership of Barbara Smith, the chapter sold the highest number of tickets to the annual musical production sponsored by the Quad Club, receiving the first prize for the second consecutive year. Barbara and Marilyn Campen have been elected members of the governing board of the Quad Club for 1948.

Seeing a need for help at the St. Louis Training School, each member of the chapter devoted one hour or more twice a week to organizing and executing a general recreational plan for the retarded girls from twelve to sixteen years of age at the school. This program was carried out during the last two months of the school year and was sponsored by the Girl Scouts.

Many Missouri Bs attended summer school or were working girls during the three months of vacation this year but the members who are most proud and enthusiastic about their summer are those who attended the Convention at French Lick, Indiana. Missouri B saw its highest dreams fulfilled as it was awarded the Balfour Cup for 1948. Each member has received a personal inspiration from this award and all it stands for and realizes what a full effort must be put forth to retain this cup. The entire chapter is looking forward to a very happy and successful year.

Pledged: Elizabeth Barrows, Katie Berry, Shirley Dougherty, Peg Hallauer, June Harlow, Betty Lu Harris, Dolores Hey, Joane Johnson, Joyce Kretzer, Sarah Metcalfe, Carolyn Metzger, Kathy Mirjanich, Mary Virginia Roberts, Peggy Rodgers, Nancy Scott, Fay Voelker, St. Louis; Frances Carer, Inglewood, Calif.; Peggy Childress, Centralia, Ill.; Sarah Jane Richards, Janesville, Wis.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

Chartered, 1914
Pledge Day, September 25, 1948

INITIATED, September 2, 1948: Jeanne O'Connor, Betty Farnham, Springfield.

Drury College from all indications, construction of a boy's new dormitory, a new gymnasium and a Student Union Building and the increased enrollment, is looking forward to a wonderful year.

After a highly successful rush season, which included a Heaven party and the traditional S. S. Arrow Cruise, pledging was held for the nine prospective Pi Phis. Following the ceremonies, the pledges were feted at a banquet at the Kentwood Arms Hotel.

On October 1, Missouri Is abandoned their books for the week-end to journey to Lake Taneycomo for their annual Fall Houseparty as guests of Catherine Johnson whose summer home is near Rockaway Beach. Saturday night the chapter went to Gardner's Golf Ranch for a chicken dinner and hayride through the Ozark Hills.

Pat Mack and Julie Johnson were initiated into Skill, local women's honor society.

Missouri I won the Scholarship Cup last year, the second consecutive year the chapter has been first in Panhellenic scholarship. The members are trying desperately to win it again this year and so make the cup permanent property.

Ann Angle was chosen Sou'wester beauty queen and reigned over the annual Sou'wester Spring Formal.

Ann Lusk was elected president of the Drury pep club, and vice-president of the cappella choir.

Jeanne O'Connor was chosen secretary of the pep club. Marjorie Long and Carolyn Compton had major roles in Drury's production of "Comedy of Errors."

The middle of October the pledges had an open house at the rooms for all of the other new women on campus.

A delegation of six girls from the chapter had the pleasure of greeting President Truman and Margaret when they were here recently. The girls, representing the chapter, presented Margaret with a bouquet of wine and blue carnations.

PLEGDED: Suzanne Anderson, Nancy Holland, Roberta Lohmeyer, Pat McQueen, Springfield; Cynthia Sanders, Kansas City; Judy Kelly, Rolla; Peggy Atkins, Carol Moon, St. Louis; Virginia Michelas, Carthage.

The Mothers' Club gave the chapter many new articles for the house which were badly needed. Among them were dish towels and face towels.

Rush started September 25 and was over October 4. The girls worked hard and had a very successful rush season. A cooky-shine was held October 6 following pledge ceremonies.

Homecoming is the next big project for the chapter. Awards are given for the best decorated house on campus and for the best float in the parade which is held the night before the homecoming game.

Chartered, 1923
Pledge Day, October 8, 1948

INITIATED, May 30, 1948: Joan Cowell, Ann Dixon, Chattanooga; Margaret Dean, Waco, Tex.

INITIATED, October 3, 1948: Dorothy Hoback, Cowen; Shirley Maxey, Chattanooga.

On September 26 the members of Tennessee A returned to the campus of U. of C. to start its twenty-sixth year.

The best greeting possible was given the members the first time they went to the house and saw the new and beautiful decorations in the modern trend. Paint, new drapes, and newly covered furniture made a completely new house. Not to be outdone by the actives and alumnae who financed the decorating, The Mothers' Club gave a large new rug to add to the improvements in the house.

Making plans for the annual rush parties started at once with even more than the usual enthusiasm. A meeting of Alumnae and actives was held jointly at which sixty-five were present.

The traditional "Promaine Tavern" was the chapter's off-campus party held at "The Little Club" on Lookout Mountain. There was never a dull moment as "Horace the wandering photographer" and numerous skits, including the "Jazz Wedding," kept the girls in a state of hilarity. A note of seriousness was introduced in the form of short talks on the interests of Pi Beta Phi.

The Rushes came down Sorority Row Friday afternoon and were pledged, following a dinner at the home of Joan Jarrett.

Last spring was one to be remembered by all members of Tennessee A. The chapter placed first in the annual Swimming meet, with Joan Cowell winning three first place ribbons. Leslie Milligan, Doris Deakins Bryant, and Bettye Krug won membership in the Mocettes, women's letter club, at the annual Play Day program. At the election of officers immediately following, Doris Bryant was elected President; Bettye Krug, Vice-President, and Leslie Milligan, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Student Body elected Joan Jarrett, Secretary-Treasurer of the student body; Leslie Milligan, Student Reporter; Martha Foster, Student Pianist and member of Indocination Committee; Sue Eldridge was elected Program Chairman of Y.W.C.A. Quadrangle, Women's Service Fraternity, tapped Leslie Milligan, Marjorie Ann Parks, and Dorothy Bradley. During the summer five representatives from Tennessee A attended the National Convention at French Lick; Leslie Milligan, Joan Cowell, Marjorie Ann Parks, Margaret Dean, and Ann Dixon. Ideas brought back from Convention were used at rush parties and will be used in chapter activities for the coming year.

*TENNESSEE BETA—VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

Chartered, September 9, 1940
Pledge Day, September 24, 1948

INITIATED, April 19, 1948: Margaret Brearley, Dorothy Green, Nashville.

Vanderbilt University has kept pace with the many campuses whose enrollment is at an all-time high with its 3600 at registration this fall. And Tennessee B is not out of line for the total of sixty-eight in the chapter is also a peak. New dormitories for men, more parking areas, and the abandonment of the quota system by Panhellenic are compensating for a few of the subsequent difficulties. A more efficient system of extending invitations for rush parties was used with much success.

In the space of a few months, Tennessee B has had three major sources of inspiration, which are even now proving invaluable. The first occurred on April 2 when Grand Secretary Lucile Douglass Carson paid the chapter a week-end visit. May 15 began another week-end of unforgettable memories, for it was then that seven of the members made the trip to Knoxville to witness and participate in the initiation and installation ceremonies of the baby chapter Tennessee G. Meeting national and province officers, and seeing the enthusiasm of the new Pi Beta Phis renewed fraternity spirit of the home chapter. Perhaps the greatest thrill is the third, for fourteen members were able to go to French Lick in June. Reports of the fun, new and renewed friendships, fraternity education and suggestions, and inspiration have spread from the fourteen to every member of the chapter.

Members actively participated in Spring Term campus activities such as the Cappella Choir trip to Alabama, the Student Christian Association planning retreat, the annual Co-ed Ball, and the intramural softball tournament. Elected to Φ B K were Jane Ransom and Diane duPlantier. Diane also won membership in Φ Σ I, honorary French society, and to X Δ Φ , the literary fraternity, as did Laura Miles. Marguerite Gamble became a member of the Spanish fraternity, Σ Δ II. Sperry Knox and Dorothy Dickson rated pictures in the beauty section of the annual Commodore. Helen Bircher was tapped for Mortar Board at the same time

Dean of Women, Nora C. Chaffin was made an honorary member.

Along the Fraternity line, Founders' Day Banquet on April 28 was the most impressive Tennessee B has ever seen. The spring rush party on April 17 was an elaborate trip around the world. Sailors escorted rushees to Hawaii, Holland, Spain and France where natives served the appropriate foods in the appropriate surroundings. The chapter invited all the girls on the campus to an informal "pink tea" on May 21. The first day of Fall rushing included a train party at which several campus events were reviewed, vaudeville style, for the arriving freshmen. The theme for the second day was "Follow the Arrow," and the wine and blue motif was expressed the last day.

Later in the evening a cooky-shine was held in the home of Mrs. John Oliver, Oklahoma B. On Saturday afternoon initiation and installation ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Wild assisted by Mrs. F. E. Williams, Epsilon Province President, and Mrs. John M. Foster, Epsilon Province Vice-President. That night a banquet in honor of the new actives was held at the Andrew Johnson Hotel. Miss Ruth Dyer of the Settlement School acted as toastmistress. The following afternoon a formal reception was held at the Σ A E house. Approximately four hundred guests called during the receiving hours.

Activities of individual members for the coming year include the election of Peggy Ward as vice-president of Playhouse, and her initiation into A Ψ Ω , honorary dramatics fraternity. Mary Ann Anderson was chosen Moonlight Girl of Φ Σ K fraternity. She was also elected secretary of the Beaver Club and a member of the Traditions Club. INITIATED, April 26, 1948: Rosemary Johnston, Blytheville, Ark.; Dorothy Kicker, Evanston, Ill.; Betty Whittington, Mt. Pinson.

This fall Alabama A has been very much interested in helping the Birmingham Alumnae Club with plans for colonizing a new chapter of Pi Beta Phi at the University of Alabama. Several actives from Alabama A visited the university during Rush Week to help with rushing.

Last spring ended a very successful year for Alabama A. At an intramural banquet five sports cups were awarded to Pi Beta Phi. They included: the softball cup, two tennis cups, the free-throw cup, and the badminton trophy. Also awarded to Alabama A was the "Miss Victory Trophy," an award given each year to the sorority with the greatest number of intramural points for that year. Sara Killingsworth and Betty Ray Price were elected to the all-star basketball team, and Frances Martin and Katherine Price were elected softball all-stars.

In May, Sue McNamee was initiated into Φ B K, and Betty Ray Price was tapped by Mortar Board. At the same time, Hope Kirby was tapped by A A Δ .

At a dance sponsored by the executive council of the student body last February, the five beauties for the college annual were chosen. Joy Barnhart, A X Ω , was chosen "Miss Southern Accent." The other four beauties included three Pi Phis, Anne Lewis, Ann Coats, and Phyllis Anderson. Nancy Johnson was one of the twelve favorites.

Sue McNamee was chosen to be May Queen last spring and three other Alabama As served in her court. They were Anne Lewis, Sara Killingsworth, and Ann Coats.

Anne Lewis and Maude Diseker were elected to the executive council of the student body.

Alabama A tied for first place with Z T A in the Interfraternity Sing contest which is an annual event sponsored by the music department of the college.

With the busy fall rushing Florida A is anxiously awaiting the completion of their long-needed chapter meeting rooms. Working together with the university officials, all the sororities on campus have planned the erection of a 4-unit building which will provide a convenient place for the groups to hold meetings and informal parties. Each sorority in this 4-unit building will have its own kitchenette, powder room, and parlour. The building will be located within a block from the university campus and is expected to be completed by the beginning of the winter quarter. In previous years Florida A has been forced to rent a room in a city office building or use a university classroom for its meetings. Therefore, it is easy to understand how thrilled the chapter will be with a modern chapter meeting room.

The fall rush parties began on October 3 with the usual Panhellenic tea given in Chaudoin parlours. Open House was next given in Stetson Hall parlours on October 5. All social sororities entertained with Open House, and Florida A served cake to the rushees. An informal rush party was given October 6 with all decorations in a "Gay Nineties Bar Room" style. Entertainment was provided by singing waiters (Florida As in disguise), comic quartets and "can can" dancers. Favors were mimeographed barrel song books and red and white checked gingham napkins monogrammed with the Greek letters. The invitations to this bowery party were double sheets of paper which opened with hand-painted "swinging doors."

The formal rush party of October 13 was a progressive supper beginning at the home of Mrs. Kirk Gumby and ending with a reception at the home of Mrs. Morton McDonald. At the reception the traditional Pi Phi wedding ceremony was given and Pi Phi dream cake served. The place-cards were miniature paper bridesmaids wearing blue net dresses and carrying a wine carnation. The table decorations were gold arrows and wedding bells fashioned out of plaster of Paris and bronzed.

Florida A was more than honored to have Mrs. T. N. Alford, ARROW editor, visit last April. A cooky-shine and buffet supper were given during her visit.

Florida A was very happy the end of last year to win the inter-fraternity sing with the new Pi Beta Phi Sweetheart song recently written by Meredith Wilson. Hats off to Mr. Wilson for giving Pi Beta Phi such a lovely song! If the chapter retains the silver and gold inter-fraternity sing cup for two more successive years it will be permanently engraved and presented to Florida A.

INITIATED, April 16, 1948: Dorothy Van Epoel, Tampa; Mary Finley, Orlando; Becky Koons, Lakeland; Mary Jean Move, Tampa.

With an all-time record enrollment of over 5,500 students, Florida State University opened for the 1948 fall term on September 30. All chapter members returned to school September 27 in order that the house could be thoroughly readied and rushing plans completed before rush week began on October 1.

Rush week lasted the usual three days with Florida B parties consisting of a formal reception, a fashion show, a minstrel show, and the Pi Phi Hotel. Rush week ended most successfully when eighteen freshmen donned the wine and blue ribbons and the arrow head on October 9. Pledging was followed by a cooky-shine, after which all the members and pledges attended the first FSU football game of the season. It was indeed a thrill to see Florida State's team march down the field for a 30-0 win over Cumberland University of Tennessee with Pi Phi's Margaret Strum, Jett Munroe, and Phyllis Bach among the cheerleaders.

The members entertained the pledges at numerous social functions during the fall with the annual pledge banquet, held on October 25, the outstanding event. The surprise Halloween party held in the basement of the chapter house proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

At the first chapter meeting of the year, Florida B's convention delegate, Patricia Dillard, gave a most complete and amusing report. She told of the humorous instances and sidelights of the Convention as well as the social, legislative, and inspirational phases.

Florida B is off to a good start on campus this year due to the large number of its members who were elected to school offices last Spring. Esther Rasmussen, was chosen Chief Justice of the University Honor Court; Patricia Dillard now serves as Chairman of Women's Judiciary. Barbara Jean Morgan is the vice-president of the University Student Government and thus presides as the chairman of University Senate. Jean Cayer, Ann Eidson, and Anne Carter participate as members of Student Senate. In addition to these elected campus offices, Florida B is also well represented in the various honoraries. Esther Rasmussen was elected to Φ B K last Spring and Pat Dillard and Anne Carter were chosen for Mortar Board. Joan Hiscock was one of forty freshmen deserving of A A Δ , freshman honorary. Joan, together with Ann Eidson, was among fifty freshmen selected for Sophomore Council.

In addition, Florida Bs proved to be beauties last Spring. Esther Rasmussen and Patricia Dillard were in the Junior-Senior Prom Court, while Betty Kennedy and Anne Tucker were attendants in the May Court.

With plans for the year now well underway, Florida B, along with all the other men's and women's fraternities, is looking forward to a very successful college year. The pledge party, the initiation banquet, and the formal dance are events yet to come and bring moments of pleasure.

PLEGDED: Phyllis Bach, Shirley Moreland, Sanford; Helen Coith, Nell Troy Kincaid, Orlando; Ann Dillard, Deland; Ann Evans, Jerry Struthers, Tampa; Evelyn Gray, Betty Lou Morris, Quincy; Jean Jarrett, Jean Livingston, Jeff Munroe, Tallahassee; Arden Moore, Jacksonville; Charlotte Oldham, Leesburg; Connie Purvis, Lucille Rogers, Miami; Doris Jean Smith, St. Petersburg; Jean Wade, Ocala.

With the deferring of rushing until after Thanksgiving, again this year, Florida Γ had an opportunity to become well acquainted with the Freshman class. The fraternities opened their rush season October 2, with the annual Panhellenic Coffee. A series of fraternity teas, parties, and rush dates will be given before pledging, which will take place in November.

Florida Γ is busy making plans for the annual Christmas dance. This affair always proves to be one of the season's highlights.

Chosen to compete in the Miss America contest in Atlantic City this year was Van Louis McDaniel as Miss Arkansas.

Patty Ann Jackson was selected for a leading role in a Broadway musical.

GEORGIA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Chartered, 1939
Pledge Day, October 1, 1948

The enthusiasm and spirit of Georgia Λ was expressed during rush week by the pledging of twenty-five girls which was the quota. Several rush parties given during the summer in Atlanta, and one in Griffin, aided in getting some of the girls. Joanne Rae, a graduate of Duke University, introduced a rotation system of rushing. Joanne, who is very talented, sang "Romance Around the World" at one of the rush parties. This was written for her by two Duke students.

During the summer the chapter house underwent some major redecoration. The lower floor is decorated in the more modern shades—the brightest room being the chapter room. This room features the new red walls with a dark green asphalt tile flooring. The new blue carpet for the stairs and hallway blends in perfectly with the walls of the living room and hall. Upstairs the closets were enlarged and living conditions made better. All the Pi Phi's are very proud of the additions to the house.

Georgia Λ was well represented during fraternity rush week for the girls were asked to rush by most of the fraternities on the campus.

Football now takes over the athletic interest. At present, Georgia has one victory and one defeat.

Katherine Lanman is President of the Art Student League. Joan Wright is President of the Women's Athletic Association, and Woman's Sport Editor for the Red and Black, the college paper. Ann Andrews is President of Woman's Student Government, Vice-President of the senior class, and Secretary of Mortar Board.

Katherine Lanman gave the chapter a very descriptive and inspiring message about Convention.

The opening of the fall semester at the University of Wisconsin failed to show the expected drop in enrollment. The housing shortage still remains a problem to incoming freshman, but even with this the campus spirit still remains.

Wisconsin Λ is indeed proud of the honors her members received at the closing of school last year. Patricia Johnson was elected to Mortar Board and Janet Williams to Crucible.

Lenore Ladewig was elected to be one of the court of honor for Centennial Ball held on October 9 in honor of the University's hundredth birthday.

After each football game, this semester, open-houses have been given for visiting parents and friends. Father's weekend is being planned, and ideas for homecoming decorations are already being formulated. The traditional all-campus open-house was given in honor of the pledges of Wisconsin Λ .

Rushing was ably directed by Nancy Lindblom, and a very fine new pledge class was the result. The theme of the informal rushing party for this season was Pi Phi Heaven. Georgeanne Levis wrote and directed the skit, and Jane Stouffer took charge of the decorations. The house was literally turned into a Heaven, with pink clouds, angels, pearly gates, stars, and to complete the effect Mary Lacey played her harp.

PLEGDED: Jean DeYoung, Madison; Jo Ann Lindemann, Ruth Doege, Marshfield; Joan Donalds, St. Croix Falls; Carolyn Gardiner, Lenore Ladewig, Ann Pidcoe, Jean Schaper, Milwaukee; Betty Lally, Appleton; Patricia Madden, Wauwatosa; Gay Phillipson, Kenosha; Virginia Shockley, Jessie Lichtfeldt, Thiensville.

During the busy first few weeks, Wisconsin β had a very successful rushing season. Informal rushing was September 22, 23, and 24, followed by the "Pi Phi Hotel," with the famed Panther Room as the theme. The afternoon party was patterned after a carousel, with music furnished by the "Pi Phi Five," and a puppet show. October 1, the formal was held.

Panhellenic celebrated the end of rush with a dinner which proved so successful in creating a friendly atmosphere, that it will probably be continued in the future. At the last Panhellenic meeting, plans were made to have interfraternity pledge parties, enabling freshman men and women to become better acquainted. Everyone seemed very much in favor of this idea.

Early every year, the freshman class holds a mixer where the most "typical freshman boy and girl" are chosen. Caroline Garrett, one of the chapter's pledges, holds half the honors this year.

One of the big events on the college social calendar was the Dad's Day weekend which included a football game and the Greek play, "Antigone." Mary Crabtree was appointed one of the co-chairmen for Dad's Day, and Anne Knoll had the part of the old nurse in the play.

PLEGDED: Patricia Brown, Oak Park, Ill.; Joanne Christensen, Betty Harmeling, Madelyn Larsen, Shirley Park, Sally Risetter, Martha Tinker, Ruth Ullsperger, Rhoda Waterman, Margaret Whittier, Chicago, Ill.; Cecilia Kastholm, Elmhurst, Ill.; Elinor Jones, West Frankfort, Ill.; Martha Blake, Franklin, Ind.; Janet Rudolph, Michigan City, Ind.; Ruth Ellen Cramer, Roscommon, Mich.; Polly Wyant, Mentor, Ohio; Anne Kieckhafer, West Bend; Suzanne Helgren, Milwaukee; Jean Zillmer, Wauwatosa; Nancy Jo Gullett, Janesville; Marjorie Markgraf, La Crosse; Catherine Cronis, Polly Spalding, Helen Macklem, Beloit; Caroline Garrett, Land O' Lakes.

INITIATED, September 26, 1948: Mary Catherine Hipke, New Holstein; Mary Margaret Lamers, Appleton; Jane Sharpe, River Forest, Ill.

March 14, 1948: Margaret Wolf (name omitted before). Wisconsin Γ opened first semester activities with a very successful rush week, ending with pledging, held at the home of Mrs. Johnson. Following the ceremony, a formal Pledge Banquet was held at the Riverview Country Club. A group picture was taken before the banquet. Following the Pi Phi tradition, the pledges composed a very clever Pi Phi song in their allotted ten minutes.

On October 4, the actives presented the pledges at an open house in the newly decorated fraternity rooms. The afternoon ended with an unplanned but enthusiastic songfest. A Splash party followed by a picnic was held for actives and their "little sisters" later in October. Competition was keen in all of the races and diving contests.

This new semester finds Wisconsin I's again active in campus activities. Ann Cox has been appointed one of Lawrence's Homecoming co-chairmen and Anne Kompass is one of the co-chairmen for the newly organized Lawrence Pep Committee.

Jane McNamara and Katherine Elwers were chosen to act as counselors in the Freshman Women's Dormitory and Nancy Beckham, president of Lawrence Women's Association, planned and directed the program to welcome Freshman women to the campus.

With the enthusiasm which has been so evident at meetings, song rehearsals, and parties up to this time, this promises to be a gala year for Wisconsin I.

Illinois B-D's thirty-six members began the year actively with a week and a half of rushing. On a Sunday night rushing was completed with the traditional Witches' Party and on Monday twenty-one girls were pledged.

Activities are already well under way and chapter members hold many positions of importance. Tryouts are being held for the Homecoming play, "My Sister Eileen," and Elsie Peyer has one of the leading roles. Behind the scenes Illinois B-D has several crew heads; Jane Webster, props, and Ann Ahlum, scene painting. Most of the members serve on at least one crew. Six Illinois B-D's have been elected to Curtin Call, honorary theater group composed of students who have accumulated more than three hundred hours in the various theater divisions.

Chartered, May 26, 1894

Illinois E's are in very high spirits this fall for two reasons. The chapter emerged from a week of fall rushing with a terrific pledge class of thirty girls, the full quota set by the Panhellenic rules.

The second reason for such elation is due to the fine prospects of the football team. Though luck may change, Northwestern still has "Rose Bowl" hopes. After the first home game, Illinois E held open house—complete with music furnished by campus combo for dancing in the living room, and coffee and doughnuts served in the dining room. Though the house was packed, everyone enjoyed the chance to see old friends and make new ones.

At present the chapter is deeply engrossed in plans for homecoming floats and house decorations. Also of campus interest is the Northwestern Fashion Fair, a style show featuring N. U. Co-eds as models. M. L. Fisher holds a position on the fashion board, with Pat Olmstead carrying one of the leads in a skit. Jan Rutledge and Julie Gallaher are Illinois E's model Pi Phi's.

A tea dance given by B & O II began the social life of Illinois E. Following this, the chapter held an informal dance at the Edgewater Beach Country Club.

The chapter won the Inter-sorority swimming trophy, of which it is very proud. Also, Pat Olmstead was initiated into Shi-Ai, women's honorary, and Jan Rutledge and Marjorie Hendry became members of A A A, freshman honorary society.

PLEGGED: Sarah Adams, Higginsville, Mo.; Jean Boren, Marinette, Wis.; Barbara Brown, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Joan Carroll, Rosemary Cheli, Chicago; Eileen Risjord, Julia Dicus, Highland Park; Gwen Ely, Appleton, Wis.; Nancy Falder, Rock Island; Nancy Fisher, Washington, D.C.; Elizabeth Taylor, Martha Gladson, Wilmette; Anne Gregory, Oak Park; Nancy Harris, Lincoln; Barbara Heil, Milwaukee, Wis.; Elizabeth Lane, West Newton, Mass.; Anne Lawless, Wisconsin Rapids, Wis.; Gwen Underwood, Lois Lindgren, Elgin; Elizabeth Lobdell, Alma, Mich.; Carolyn Longabough, Columbus, Ohio; Nancy McCloed, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mary Rich, Staten Island, N.Y.; Martha Sady, Rochester, Minn.; Kathleen Shay, Sturgis, Mich.; Natalie Smart, Kansas City, Mo.; Barbara Streblow, Birmingham, Mich.; Nancy Joyce, Donna Lindstrand, Par Vos, Evanston.

INITIATED, September 19, 1948: Beverly Beaver, Champaign; Sarah Funk, Bloomington; Janet Moore, Wilmette; Diane Verry, Arminston; Vera Lea Williams, Marion.

With a charming new chaperon, Mrs. Donna Taylor, formerly of the chaperon staff of Drake University, the chapter commenced a busy fall semester. Bobbie Byrnes, Shirley Nay, Ruth Munkvold, and Vera Lea Williams were elected to the annual Homecoming Court of Honor. A huge newspaper predicting an Illini victory in the Homecoming football game formed the house Homecoming decorations. Under the directorship of Ann Duvall a minstrel-show skit was presented with the members of $\Sigma \Lambda \Theta$ in the all-University Stunt Show.

Get-acquainted exchanges consisted of three dessert exchanges with $\Delta \kappa \Theta$, $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, and Tribe of Illini, athletic honorary organization; a one-legged football game with $\beta \Theta \Pi$; and two buffet dinners, one with $\chi \Omega$, and one with $\kappa \Lambda \Theta$. On October 30 the pledge class was honored at a Halowe'en dance. $\kappa \kappa \Gamma$ and $\Delta \Gamma$ were invited to attend as special guests at Illinois Zs Christmas formal on December 4.

Miss Margaret Dick, Eta Province President, delighted the Illinois Z with a three-day visit in November. With her sincere interest and far-sighted suggestions, she thoroughly inspired the chapter.

In September, Sally Lovejoy took over as first vice-president of the University Y.W.C.A. Barbara Long was installed as president of Mortar Board and Burta Fleharty was appointed co-senior director of Star Course, the University Concert Board.

PLEGDED: Dorothy Armstrong, Charlotte Camp, Champaign; Marion Rogers, Carolyn Clark, Marilyn Hindsley, Urbana; Patricia Gillam, Evansville, Ind.; Mary Hurst, Normal; Joanne Lomax, Annette Towle, Chicago; Henrietta Tomlin, Barbara Witty, Pleasant Plains; Janet Hemp-hill, Mary Riley, Marjory Tompkins, Bloomington; Mary Lu Traylor, Springfield.

A Panhellenic Dance was held October 16 in the Hotel Orlando.

During Homecoming, the weekend of October 30-November 1, there was a dance at the Decatur Armory featuring Jack Fienna. Several Illinois Hs were on Homecoming Committees.

ILLINOIS THETA—BRADLEY UNIVERSITY

Chartered, May 17, 1947
Pledge Day, October 1, 1948

The spring term found many Pi Beta Phis receiving honors for work done during the college year. Mary Blair, Pat Stewart, Betty Coriell, and Joanne Beyer were chosen as members of Chimes, Bradley University's equivalent to Mortar Board; Patricia Cleary and Elva Schoaff were among the distinctive seniors, and Elva was also chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Mary Blair was elected president of student council; Myra Kingston received the departmental award in French; Barbara Schfelbein was named Bradley University's outstanding senior. Peggy Webb was chosen sweetheart of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity and Lee Leman was elected queen of the university's year book.

Illinois Θ was pleased to have the province president, Mrs. Kinney Schroeder, visit for a few days in April. Mrs. Schroeder arrived in time to attend the Founders' Day dinner which took place at the Country Club of Peoria. At this time Elva Schoaff and Barbara Schfelbein were awarded first and second place recognition pins respectively for their participation in activities. Following the dinner a skit on the founding of Pi Beta Phi was given by the alumnae.

On May 22 the clown was king as Illinois Θ used a circus theme for their spring dinner dance. Girls dressed as clowns greeted guests at the door and ushered them into the Peoria Country Club. When the guests went into dinner, they found the place cards depicting elephants and clowns. As a center piece for each table, stuffed clowns and boxes of animal crackers were used. Streamers of ribbon running from the ceiling gave the effect of the big top and balloons filled the air. Since it was a perfect spring evening, the couples danced on the terrace after dinner.

As graduation time grew near, a luncheon in honor of the seniors was given in the garden at the home of Mrs. Stern Lohnes.

With the coming of fall Bradley campus was busy with plans for rushing and homecoming. At the suggestion of Panhellenic and other organizations, competitive stunt shows were eliminated and in their place was presented, for the first time, an all-school variety show which proved to be very successful. Shirlee Puckett directed the dance routines for the show and Helen Bruns designed the costumes. Many other Illinois Θ s also participated in the program.

This fall the rush week theme was French. When the rushees arrived for the informal party they were taken to a sidewalk cafe complete with candles and checkered tablecloths. At the formal dinner they had an evening in a French night club.

Pledging took place at the chapter house October 1, and a cooky-shine for the pledges was given following the ceremony.

PLEGDED: Carol Cryer, El Paso; Jody Gilliam, Benton, Ky.; Thelma Moore, Decatur; Lou Lita Sapp, Princeton; Marguerite Schuller, Wilmette; Joy Dirksen, Joan Hackler, Pekin; Norrine Ambrose, Ann Bruninga, Carol Fahnestock, Ann Fischer, Louise Ann Hale, Madelyn Love, Dolores Manuel, Diane Schuller, Connie Jo Smith, Lorraine Smith, Renna Thurman, Janet Whalen, Peoria.

INITIATED, October 16, 1948: Shirley Campbell, Janice Jeffries, Sioux Lookout, Ont.; Wilma Vuitard, Olds, Alta.

The University of Manitoba again initiated its frosh into campus life with the traditional welcome event "Freshie Week" held at the beginning of the fall term. Included on its calendar were a co-ed hike and reception. "Meet the Campus" gatherings, tea dances, the "Freshie Frolic" featuring the crowning of the freshie queen, a fashion show, a gigantic outdoor "pow-wow," an inter-faculty track meet, freshie parade of floats and students; faculty receptions and an inter-varsity football game climaxed by the Foot Ball.

Allison Malcom, as Lady Stick of Arts, directed the sponsoring of Arts freshie by senior girls and Margaret Shore, as a member of the Freshman Week committee, was supervisor of the freshie queen candidates.

Previous to these events was rush week which began September 22 with a Panhellenic fashion show. Manitoba Alpha first rushing function featured a "gay nineties" theme and at the second tea members modelled styles "around the clock and around the season." This fashion show was a fitting build-up to the final formal reception held the following evening.

Preparations are already underway for such varsity functions to be held in the near future as the major drama presentation of the year, the symphony concert, the choral society recital and the annual glee club presentation. Also all UMSU sub-committees are busy preparing their annual calendars of activities.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Chartered, 1921

A newly redecorated chapter house welcomed the members of North Dakota Alpha to the university this year. Thoroughly inspired by this, the girls completed the formal rush week very successfully. Important display was made of the first place trophy won by the $\Pi B \Phi A T \Omega$ combined act of the Flickertail Follies last spring. Assisting the freshmen with registration were Campus Big Sisters, Shirley Scheving and Marjory Jacobsen. The total enrollment numbered 2623 this term.

The whirl of social events started immediately. Presentation of the seventeen new pledges took place at an informal "coke" party Sunday afternoon, September 26. Two representatives from every organized group on this campus were invited. Open houses have been held with ΣN and $A T \Omega$ thus far. Of special interest was the presence of Miss BeBe Shoppe, "Miss America" of 1948 as a dinner guest one evening at the Chapter house. A farewell picnic at the Lincoln Park Clubhouse was held by the alumnae and active members for Miss Regina Brennan, October 6. Miss Brennan was one of the charter members of North Dakota Alpha and was always active in chapter activities, so her absence will be a great loss to all of us.

Many new offices have been obtained by the members for the ensuing school term. They include: Donna Gilbertson, Secretary-Treasurer of the Sophomore Class; Anne Hollanitsch, Vice-President of $\Sigma A I$; Floy Swen $\Sigma A I$ librarian; Kathleen Fury, I.S.A. Presidency; Beverly Wood, President of $\Phi T O$; Marjory Jacobsen, Madrigal Club Vice-President; Joyce Pond, Secretary-Treasurer of the University Band and Louise Wells is librarian; Mary Sussex, President and accompanist of the Women's Glee Club and Constance Boehne is librarian of the group; Jean Bierke, Secretary of Social Work Club; Lu Rose Kelly, was chosen to one of the cheer-leading positions. Plans for the Campus Religious Emphasis Week were under the direction of Co-Chairman Kathleen Fury. Marjory Jacobsen was on the executive committee and many chapter members acted on committees. Jean McDonald and Marjory Jacobsen handled the plans for Homecoming decorations.

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Chartered, 1906

Campus life at the University of Minnesota was in full swing long before the first class on September 27. The activities began with the traditional freshman camp weekend. These freshmen throughout the state who were leaders scholastically and socially in their high school classes were invited to meet with campus leaders to discuss activities and organizations of the University. Billie Bea Hull, president of A.W.S., and Helen Raible, vice-president of that organization, were chosen as counselors for these meetings. They also had charge of the tea given for the freshman girls by A.W.S. They also had charge of the tea given for the freshman girls by A.W.S. Upper class girls who served as "big sisters" at this tea were Joyce Levesee, Betty Jean Gammel, Jeanne Pat Robb, and Muriel Jacobson.

After freshman week was over, all minds turned to rushing. Because of the revision of rules by Panhellenic last year, formal rushing will not be held until January 1949. This permits the freshman girls to earn the required "C" average before they are pledged. Informal fall rushing, open only to upper class girls who had made this average, began on October 10 with an open house tea. Many informal parties and two theme parties were held throughout the following week, but rushees could not go to one house more than four times. Pledging, held October 18, ended the very successful rushing period.

Minnesota Alpha welcomed Barbara Lagerstedt back this fall after she had spent the summer studying voluntary social agencies in Europe. She and another S.P.A.N. member, Karol Kaiser, visited Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Luxemburg, France, and England.

Betty Jean Gammel was recently appointed to a newly organized University choral group and will be in its musical presentation, "Of Three I Sing." Janna Oppegaard was appointed to the Education Intermediary Board. Joan Witte has been chosen as organizations editor of the year book, and Mary Ellen Locken as circulation manager for the school paper. Helene Bakke and Jean McLean have served as sorority representatives on the Campus Chest. Helen Raible, Billie Bea Hull and Joyce Levesee have been chairmen of all-University homecoming committees.

A large group of rushees attended the Iowa As' "Pi Phi Debut" on September 27, 1948. The main event of the evening was a fashion show. Girls in old fashion dress illustrated the Pi Phis of yesterday. This was then highlighted by Pi Phis of today modeling campus clothes.

The traditional "Alice Blue Gown" formal rush party reached perfection this year. It was held in the Harlan Hotel and demitasse and arrow cake were served at the home of Mrs. Lyons.

Dolly Sandstedt played the leading role in "Claudia," the first play production of the year.

Homecoming is just around the corner and great plans are being formulated by the Iowa As for house decorations, skits, and a float for the Homecoming parade.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the visit of the Grand President on October 8, 1948.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE

Chartered, 1874

Pledge Day, September 25, 1948

Iowa Beta started the new school year in a beautifully redecorated house which was designed to compliment the large tapestry sent them by a Pi Beta Phi missionary then in India. The warm Mandarin red used in the library served as an accent in both the living room and dining room which have a definite oriental flavor—complete with ming tree and hand-carved vases. It was therefore with pride that the girls received their guests at the annual Panhellenic tea held September 16.

Jean Piffer was elected vice-president of Student Congress; Roberta Starry assumed her position as president of $M \Phi E$, a national music honorary; and Genelle Grant, chapter president, represents the Fraternity as president of local Panhellenic Council.

Phyllis Warren was elected secretary of the Iowa Methodist Student Movement, and Martha Karlson won an American Legion Auxiliary scholarship for her essay on "Why I Want to Become a Nurse."

Iowa Beta again claims the scholarship cup for having the highest grade point average on campus at the termination of the last school year. This trophy was officially awarded last spring after three semesters of diligent study.

This year there are twelve Pi Phis in the collegiate choir which is comprised of fifty mixed voices. Rose Marie Conger will serve the group as secretary.

PLEDGED: Luanne Clark, Macedonia; Jean Copple, Clarinda; Anita Garlock, Norwalk; Elynn Groos, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Bernadine Hodges, Cumberland; Helen Knodle, Marshalltown; Betty Borthwick, Marjorie Brown, Joanna Crawford, Deborah Stoner, Nancy Voigt, Indianola.

With the coming of September, Iowa State opened its doors to over 10,000 students, the largest enrollment in the history of the college. Football games, pep rallies, and Homecoming weekend promise a busy social calendar for everyone on campus.

Veishea, Iowa State's largest celebration of spring quarter, was a very special occasion for the Pi Phis. Barbara Berry, one of the Bomb Beauty finalists, was chosen "Queen of Queens" to reign over the three day activities. In addition, Joan Ahern and Marilou Willis were tapped for membership in Mortar Board.

Also during spring quarter, Joan Ahern was initiated into $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$. $\Phi \kappa \Phi$ chose Riley Jean Deal and Betsy Nichols as members. Marilyn Westcott became a member of $\Sigma \Lambda \Gamma$. Gene Carr was elected president of the Women's "I" Fraternity, while Lura Mae Whitfield took over the position of secretary-treasurer. Florence Pavlik and Donna Waterous are also wearing cardinal and gold letters on their white "I" fraternity jackets. Lura Mae Whitfield was chosen the outstanding freshman woman athlete. Five Iowa I's attend the Home Economics Council meetings as presidents of the departmental clubs.

The Pi Phi annual spring formal, using a showboat theme, was one of the biggest and best social events of the year. Mary Lou Taylor and Jo Gray did a grand job of decorating the house so that all the guests were convinced that they were aboard a genuine showboat.

It was announced this fall that Iowa I stood first in scholarship for spring quarter.

The chapter is anxiously awaiting the outcome of the election for Homecoming Queen. Joan Dorsett is the Pi Phi candidate for this celebration, and Mary Lou Taylor is the Iowa I candidate for Harvest Ball Queen.

Pi Phi at SDU returned to a chapter house more beautiful than before. Redecoration which began last winter with the laying of tile in the chapter room was completed this summer with the laying of new green carpeting in the living room stairs, and second floor lounge. New lamps, pictures, drapes, and sectional lounges added to the beauty of the house. A special addition to the house was the purchase of chintz covered dressing tables for each bedroom. The enthusiasm of each returning Pi Phi added the real glow to the newly decorated house.

South Dakota A completed the fall rush week with the pledging of sixteen girls. A plantation party was the theme of one evening party. Nancy Finch, dressed as a southern mammy, met the rushees at the door. Four girls dressed as pickaninnies took the girls to the president's room to sign the guest log. The pickaninnies served the rushees cool drinks before they adjourned to the dining room for cantaloupe a la mode and coffee. The Arrow Inn was the theme of the night club party held in the chapter room. Girls dressed as waiters served punch and hors d'oeuvres while the Pi Phi's sang their favorite songs. A candyland and train theme were carried out for two afternoon rush parties. For the preference dessert, a Hawaiian theme was used.

The actives and pledges had an open house tea for Pi Phi mothers, alumnae, and patronesses October 3, in honor of the new house mother, Mrs. Edward Griebel of Sioux Falls.

Carolyn Cowles was capped Mortar Board president and elected secretary of AWS for the present school year Janet Swab was elected president of A A A. Pat Bauer and Carol Quinn were pledged to Guidon, the national auxiliary of Scabbard and Blade. Mary Lee Cranston was elected secretary of WAA. Many Pi Phis are active at KUSD, the university radio station.

Plans for the Dakota Day float and house decorations are well on their way. A buffet supper will be served to alumnae and guests at homecoming, and open house will be held for out-of-town visitors.

Pledge Day, September 7, 1948

INITIATED, March 20, 1948: Joel Bailey, Joris Devereux, Omaha; Marjorie Canaday, Ruth Ann Curtiss, Barbara Gardner, Rosemary Graham, Harriet Huston, Carolyn Roberts, Lincoln; Marion Norall, Ann Stevenson, North Platte; Joanne Norris, Kathleen Warner, Aberdeen, S.Dak.; Elizabeth Buchfinch, Alliance; Rosemary Motter, Fremont; Gloria

Larsen, Central City; Babbette Marsh, Kansas City, Mo.; Patricia Cheek, Milwaukee, Wis.; Janet Graves, Beverly Hills, Calif.

On April 29, the traditional Ivy Day, Nebraska B was exceptionally well represented. Genevieve Mitchell and Jeanne Kerrigan were masked as Mortar Boards, Dorothy Travis and Elizabeth Schneider were chosen for $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, and Anne Whitman took her place as an attendant to the May Queen.

Nebraska B was both proud and thrilled when they received the news that Mrs. Carl Junge of Lincoln had been elected at the national convention to be the new president of Iota Province.

The active chapter began the new school year with a successful rush week during which they pledged twenty-one new girls. A slumber party for all of the actives and the pledges helped everyone get better acquainted. Food, songs, and entertainment made a gay start for the year.

The active chapter cooperated with the Lincoln alumnae when a Settlement School tea was held at their newly decorated chapter house in the latter part of September. Alumnae of other sororities and friends were guests. A large bedspread was given away in a raffle and numerous other articles were ordered and sold.

An unusual honor was bestowed upon Nebraska B when Marjorie Alexis was elected secretary-treasurer of her freshman Law class.

The chapter's social life began with hour dances with various fraternities on campus. Exchange guests for dinner are also a weekly event.

EUGENIE SAMPSON

Colorado U.-K.U. game. The chapter was glad to welcome visitors from Colorado A, Nebraska B, Oklahoma A and B when their respective teams journeyed to Lawrence for conference play.

Kansas A was very pleased to learn that it had regained the first place scholarship rank among the women's fraternities. The coveted University Scholarship Cup will be presented to the chapter for its 1.97 (just .03 point below B) grade average at a special tea to be held later this semester.

An outstanding event on the chapter social calendar this fall was the scholarship dinner, held in honor of the twenty-three girls cited for scholastic achievement by the university for the past year. Seventeen were listed on the Dean's Honor Roll of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences; three, Fine Arts Honor Roll; two, School of Engineering Honor Roll; and one, School of Education. Members of Mortar Board entertained junior women listed on the various honor rolls at a party November 4.

The new pledge class was honored at the annual open house on October 16. Representatives from all the fraternities jammed into the Kansas Room of the Union in an attempt to meet and dance with these new members of the chapter.

Senior Panhellenic introduced a new workshop program this year in an effort to improve cooperation between women's fraternities and relations with other students on the campus. Kansas A was very proud to have Virginia Reinecke Wever (Mrs. W. H.), former dean of women at the University of Oklahoma and a current National committeewoman, as her fraternity representative. Mrs. Wever served as guest speaker at the opening banquet and, in addition, conducted several workshops. This very successful experimental program, organized and engineered by Peggy Baker, will become an annual Panhellenic activity.

Many individual honors have come to members since the last issue of the ARROW. Joann Ruese was tapped for Mortar Board in the spring and was also elected Engineers' Hobnail Hop Queen. Joann wears the Senior Honor Pin, presented to the outstanding senior by the chapter. She is now serving as treasurer of both the Architectural Society and A.W.S. Senate and business manager of the Kansas Engineer.

Marilyn Sweet is executive vice-president of Student Union Activities, and Margaret Granger is chairman of the organization's secretarial committee. As members of the Student Union Executive Board, they participated in planning the gala Union Carnival, held October 9. Organized houses on the campus were in charge of typical carnival booths and a Union Carnival King and Queen were chosen to reign over the evening's events. The Pi Beta Phi managed the ever-popular mock marriage booth.

Carrie Campbell is president of Quill Club and vice-president of the student U.N.E.S.C.O. Active in Y.W.C.A. are Sally Pegues, as chairman of community service, and Marilyn Sweet, Y-Knot editor. Anne Ellis is a sophomore class representative to the All-Student Council, also a member of A Cappella choir. Louise Lambert was named honor initiate and president of Jay Jones, honorary pep organization. Barbara Hume is vice-president of the Architectural Society and feature editor of the Kansas Engineer.

Pledges are finding time to participate in campus activities. Betty Shartel, Peggy Olson, Helene Steinbuechel and Rita Carl have qualified for membership to Quack Club, elective swimming organization, and Kay Carson has been selected to A Cappella Choir. Karmen Dee Edwards and Mary Swanson have been chosen to the Women's Glee Club.

Visitors at the Pi Phi house are now being royally greeted by the pride and joy of the chapter, "Sandy," a year-old English shepherd, who moved in, doghouse and all, in October.

The chapter enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Carl Junge, new Iota Province President, the last week in October.

PLEGDED: Kay Carson, Albuquerque, N.M.; Peggy Olson, Helene Steinbuechel, Barbara Coats, Janet Maloney, Wichita; Hope Wadsworth, El Dorado, Ark.; Marilyn Thompson, Marion Nearing, Nancy Matteson, Betty Shartel, Mary Agnes Hungate, Mary Swanson, Kansas City, Mo.; Carol Kendall, Marilyn Spruill, Great Bend; Karmen Dee Edwards, Emporia; Carolyn Isern, Ellinwood; Nancy Jane Lindsay, Rita Carl, Beatrice Buehler, Jane Semple, Marjorie Quigley, Lucinda Stevens, Lawrence; Georgianne Hedrick, Newton; Emelie Trickett, Barbara Drohan, Kansas City; Mary Williams, Marysville.

Coming back to K.U. after that relaxing three months vacation and the wonderful thrills and experiences of Convention for eighteen of the chapter was like being caught in a Kansas gale. Orientation activities for new students and fraternity rushing programs were scheduled simultaneously for the grand opening of the 1948-49 college year.

Counseling programs, convocations, and social functions sponsored by outstanding university organizations were designed to help "green Jayhawkers" become better acquainted and adjusted to university living. The U.S.S. II B Φ , captained by Peggy Baker, welcomed 325 girls on board ship during the five day rush week, with ports in China, France, Hawaii, and the United States being visited during the series of parties. At the conclusion of their extended cruise, twenty-six travelers decided to stay on board permanently, the largest of the women's fraternity pledge classes.

Enrollment of 9,743 students was another event of the first hectic week. Registration revealed only a very slight increase this fall over the number of students "on the hill" during the spring term. However, this year's graduating class is expected to exceed last year's all-time high of 1,719 graduates.

Main campus thoroughfares, as well as university study facilities seem more overcrowded than ever before. The completion of the west library annex should somewhat alleviate the latter congestion. The newly constructed Palm Room of the Union Building is helping solve the ever-pressing need for more eating facilities.

In the sizzling, mid-afternoon heat of September 19, the Kansas Jayhawkers inaugurated another football season, with Texas Christian University proving to be a tough foe and the victor by a hard fought 14-13 win. By thoroughly trouncing their next two opponents, the team really gave their alma mater something to shout about. Thousands of Lawrence residents and upper-classmen lined the city streets to watch the antics of the traditional Night Shirt Parade October 1. Freshmen men, accompanied by the smartly uniformed university band and pep organizations, offered sharp contrast in sporting their loudest pajamas and flannel night-shirts in the snake dance down main street preceding the pleasant for Kansas Bs who found a newly decorated chapter house awaiting them. Rooms with pastel painted walls and matching furniture have caused many signs of envy, especially from last year's seniors!

Kansas B is proud of again winning the Philadelphia Cup, which is displayed prominently on the living room mantel. The chapter also won distinction in local scholastic circles by having the highest grade average of the women's and men's fraternities for last year.

Another award which is highly cherished, is the trophy for placing second in Interfraternity Sing last spring. Songs were "Remember" and "The Sweetheart Song."

This fall the Rush Week theme featured "Schooldays," "Pi B Phi Paradise," and "Pi B Phi Beach." A miniature schoolhouse, palm trees, and small live turtles were part of the decoration used to carry out the themes.

Many individual honors have been accumulated. Five Kansas B women won distinction in Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic fraternity for seniors. They were Thelma Jo Stedham, Beverly Hayes, Patricia McCrary Hunt, Nancy Diggle, and Ann Huddleston.

Shirley King and Norma Lou Myers were chosen by Plix, honorary organization for outstanding junior women. Norma Lou was chosen vice-president of the group.

At the close of college last spring, eleven girls received gold K-Keys for outstanding work on Collegian, the college paper, and Royal Purple, the yearbook. They are Nancy Munger, Jean Holmgren Keller, Barbara Kellogg, Shirley Nichols, Gwen Wilson, Mary Fran Zink, Joanne Brewer, Connie Armitage, Carol Bates, Betty Hinkhouse, and Catherine Merrill.

Two Kansas Bs are leading college church groups this fall. Carol Blecha is president of the Congregational church organization and Barbara Flora, proxy of Phi X Delta, Presbyterian women's group. Barbara is also secretary-treasurer of the History and Government club, a newly formed organization on the campus.

Leading cheers for Kansas State College is Shirley King, who was chosen junior assistant cheerleader. Maryellen Phillips is a newly elected member of Purple Pepsters, college women's pep club.

Charlotte Laing, Lillian Hanson, and Shirley King will represent the chapter in the college a cappella choir. Shirley was songleader last year.

Kansas B is proud of its chaperon, Mrs. R. W. Torrey, who is celebrating her twentieth year as housemother. Sixteen of these years have been spent with this chapter.

INITIATED, May 1, 1948: Mary Lou Howell, Nancy Long, Nan McQuarrie, Charleen Morrison, Marilyn Peterson, Denver.

Colorado A tied for third place in the attendance count at National Convention this summer, with two official delegates and nine actives in the group, and already various chapter functions have been improved through the enthusiasm and inspiration gained at French Lick.

Members returned this fall to find a newly-decorated living room and sun room in the chapter house. The predominant colors used in upholstery and drapery are green, gray, and coral; modern and English furniture units are harmonized in keeping with the character of the house.

Eleven states and the District of Columbia are represented by the thirty-seven girls who compose the notable pledge class. Party plans which included themes of Wild West, Circus Big Top, and Chinese Honeymoon, and work done in advance helped the rush season to function smoothly, as well as making the time enjoyable for the actives. The afternoon of pledging an Open House was held and that night the pledges were treated to a cooky-shine and fraternity serenades. The following night a tea dance was given to which all the fraternities were invited to meet the new pledges.

New residents in the house are Mrs. Schumacher, recently-appointed housemother and Nancy Kelsey, '48, Purdue graduate and outstanding member of Indiana A.

Highlighting the activities of last spring were those pertaining to the annual C.U. Days celebration. Pi Phi won third place for their carnival booth and honorable mention for total participation on committees and in events. The chapter entry was one of the yearbook queens. Kathy Butto was named as a "Pacesetter" in the same publication, on which sixteen Pi Phis were named as staff members, and one a section editor. Other girls were given awards for work on the school paper and magazines.

Margaret Ann Forsling was a member of the Art honorary and the Interior Decoration honorary; Nonnie Wagner, recipient of Colorado A's scholarship ring, was one of the three students nominated for most outstanding woman in the graduating class. Betty Dunn and Vera Jean Kunz won first place in the school tennis doubles competition, and Sally Brown took charge of the W.A.A. intramural softball program.

Names of cosmetic shades provided the idea for the decorations for the spring formal, given by the pledge class. The entire Delta Gamma chapter and their dates were invited and the gesture greatly appreciated.

Barbara Bullis has been asked to join the Education Club and is now president of the Home Economics Honorary. Although this college quarter has just begun, it is already established that Sally Brown is to head a YWCA service group this year and that Mary Alice Cook is a section editor for the Coloradoan.

Alumnae of Boulder presented a fashion show of fall ensembles the second week of school, with Doris Henderson, Lynn Marsh, Charleen Morrison, and Jean Willard among the models and Dorothy Kallgren pianist.

The visit of the new Province President is anticipated early in November.

Members have been chosen for the newly-formed Buffalo-Boosters, a pep organization which is functioning at the football games and rallies. Twelve members of Colorado A have been admitted, which is a good representation in proportion to the total membership of the new organization.

This year for the first time a Freshman Queen was elected at Colorado University, and Colorado A is proud that Nancy Morrow and Ruth Morris, pledges, were among the five in the competing court.

The chapter was pleased and honored at Initiation, October 10, by the visit of Mrs. Snell, mother of Lolita Snell Prouty, Grand Treasurer. Mrs. Snell was the first initiate of Colorado A after its founding in 1884.

Colorado B started the college year with an interesting discussion concerning Convention led by Barbara Braun, Convention Delegate.

Rosalind Murray received a scholarship to Finch College this summer to observe the United Nations at work.

Three girls tapped for Mortar Board were Queen Ann Nelson, Rosalind Murray, and Nancy Ward. June Newton was made a member of Phi B K.

Nancy Ward was elected president of Associated Womens Students and Virginia Ahrens was elected president of Parakeets, women's honorary pep club.

Panhellenic Council instituted a new rushing system on campus this fall. There was one formal rush week instead of the one week of personal rushing and one week of formal parties. Carrying out a theme of "Holidays" the chapter parties were Saint Patrick's Day, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and "New School Year's Eve."

The chapter introduced the new pledges to the fraternities by having an open house. It was called "New Numbers" and the pledges wore name tags in the shape of telephones.

Chartered, 1910
Pledge Day, September 25, 1948

INITIATED, September 18, 1948: Patricia Chittim, Newcastle; Marjorie Hejde, Aladdin; Shirley Olsen, Riverton. Wyoming A was pleased this fall to return to the chapter house and find that during the summer months the upstairs bedrooms had been entirely redecorated. The painting had been done by the Laramie actives.

The first event on the fall social calendar was the initiation of three girls and the initiation banquet. Then Wyoming A prepared for formal rush week which began in the evening on September 19 with the Panhellenic Tour. A new system of rushing was established this year in order to equalize the size of each sorority on the campus. The new idea of preference teas was also installed to help the sororities and the rushees. The system proved successful for everyone. A banquet was held in honor of the pledges and later in the evening they were given a welcoming party in the smoker.

Many individual honors have been received since the last issue of the Arrow. In May Glenna Sorensen was tapped for Mortar Board and was appointed Panhellenic President. Peggy Hitchcock was initiated into the National Education Society, K & H. She was also busy fall quarter as editor of the student directory and assistant editor of the year book. Peggy was asked to join the National Journalism Honorary, $\Phi \Delta E$ on October 31. Laura Lee Dakin was elected president of International Relations club. The Spurs, sophomore honor society, chose for membership Lindy Lou Storey, Nancy Edwards and Rosemary Schilt. Mary Ann Foreman and Peggy Cortbell were initiated into Iron Skull on April 21, and Peggy is vice-president of the organization. Lindy Lou Storey is a freshman senator, and Mary Lou Roper is senior treasurer.

Pledges Pat Caldwell and Rita Wick were chosen cheerleaders by the student body.

The last social event in May was a farewell breakfast given by the actives in honor of the graduating seniors and their families.

Mrs. Marguerite Clark, a very charming French Lady, again returned to Wyoming A as housemother and the hospitality of the house knows no bounds.

Fall quarter 1948 wouldn't have been a fall quarter without the ever wonderful homecoming held on October 16. Wyoming A elected Lindy Lou Storey as its candidate for Homecoming Queen and were well rewarded for the placed in the finals. The girls campaigned thoroughly before elections, serenading all the fraternity houses, wearing "Lindy Lou" ribbons, giving away "Lindy Lou" matches, carrying painted balloons and making their own band for publicity. With house decorations, the outstanding cover girl float, the enjoyable alumnae tea, Wyoming A worked hard to prove that the homecoming was the best and the most successful one ever.

Wyoming A welcomed Betty Newell, a senior transfer from Idaho A, into the chapter this fall.

The chapter enjoyed visits from Iota Province President, Mrs. Junge, and vice-president, Mrs. Divisek, early in the semester.

INITIATED: Julie Alder, Barbara Boonstra, Elaine Brown, Janice Burdette, Janet Dean, Mary Jane Holt, Shanna Jones, Carolyn Murphy, Joan Olpin, Margene Poulson, Miriam Robinson, Noel Senior, Elaine Sims, Tanya Tatom, Halene Turner.

Utah A opened its doors this year on September 27. Late registration increased every girl's anticipation to get back to school once more, and there is also a noticeable increase in sorority spirit although Utah A is starting with a very diminished chapter. Besides losing nine girls through graduation, eleven more either transferred or married during the summer.

Last spring Thelma Peterson was tapped for Mortar Board. Thelma has been very active in Cwean, Spurs, and Arpin, is historian for the Associated Students of the University of Utah, and president of the campus chapter of the Red Cross. Mary Hansen was elected to $\Phi B E$; Jeanne Anderson, Cwean; Joan Olpin, A A Δ ; Noel Senior, Tanya Tatom, and Elaine Sims, Spurs.

The chapter was also very proud to tie with X Ω for first place for the Citizenship Award. Eligible groups included all organizations on the campus. This award was judged on campus activity participation, especially the Community Chest Drive.

The annual Songfest was held in the stadium last May. After weeks of practicing, and preparing blue "southern belle" costumes, the chapter was very happy to win second place.

June Wilkins was chosen Queen of W.R.A. and reigned over the W.R.A. Carnival. Carolyn Chesley was Queen of Sigma Pi Fraternity, with the title of "Orchid of Sigma Pi."

The chapter house was a center of activity as members all worked together to prepare for Homecoming with the Colorado University Buifs on October 27. The theme was "Old Haunting Grounds," and both the house decorations and float were applauded by onlookers. The Pi Phi quartet was a great favorite as they appeared at the assembly to sing "Follow the Arrow."

The alumnae and active chapter cooperated last November in sponsoring the annual Pi Phi Fashion Show. Members of the chapter and alumnae looked very lovely as they modeled "the newer look" of the fall and winter fashions. This social event was termed a great success by the hundreds of reviewers.

PLEGDED: Marilyn Parry, Ogden, Utah.

OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Chartered, September 1, 1910
Pledge Day, September 10, 1948

With the theme "Pi Phis from ocean to ocean" Oklahoma A completed a very successful rush by pledging the top twenty-seven girls who came through rush. It is the largest pledge class in five years. The state rushing system worked successfully for the second consecutive year, and alumnae and actives owe Mrs. Barbara Fred, hearty thanks.

Oklahoma Alpha was well represented at convention by five members—Carol McDaniel, delegate, Ellen Kilpatrick, alternate, Maurine Ditmars, Barbara Whitehurst, and Sara Jean Landsaw, Gladys Scivally, director of the Central Office and Virginia Reinecke Weaver, past Counselor of Women at the University of Oklahoma, were extremely helpful to the girls while they were at French Lick, Indiana. Kappa Province gave a party for the Grand Council which gave the actives a wonderful opportunity to talk informally to Miss Onken and the other officers. Second place was won in the song contest with the pledge class of 1947's song—An Arrow O'er Each Heart.

School started September 20, 1948, and the chapter has been very busy with not only school work but the many activities which reorganize at the first of the school year. Marietta Sipes is Pi Phi's candidate for Honorary Colonel of Scabbard and Blade "R.O.T.C." and Mary Adelyn Roberts (Sweetheart of Sigma Chi of 1948) is the Homecoming Queen candidate. At the Mortar Board Walkout Josephine Taylor was chosen as one of the ten outstanding freshman women. Madeline Wilson, an Oklahoma Beta graduate spoke to the freshmen stressing both scholarship and activities.

Joyce Peters was tapped for Mortar Board in the spring of last year. Margaret Whitehurst has been appointed to the executive board of the Association of Women Students. Ann Jarrett has been elected Vice President of $\Gamma A X$, honorary Journalism fraternity for women and Sara Jean Landsaw is feature editor of the Sooner Yearbook. In the Social Work Club Buie Gibbs is Vice President and Barbara Whitehurst is secretary. Carol Willard serves as secretary-treasurer of the Riding Club.

The Pi Phi annual fall formal was the first to be held this semester. Due to the new Panhellenic regulations for all women's fraternity dances, there were no decorations. The Arrow over the band stand was all that was allowed.

Janice Hight, Jo Ann Kent, Oklahoma City; Jo Lou Douglass, Okmulgee; Pat Allspaugh, Helen Van Winkle, Ponca City; Dorothy Tully, Shawnee; Eleanor Harper, Sandra Stevens, Jeanne Thomas, Stillwater; Joyce McFarland, Tulsa; Lee Carman, Wichita, Kan.; Jean Thomas, Winfield, Kan.

Times are changing rapidly at Oklahoma A. and M. this year. What was a grass plot is now an enormous excavation in the center of the A. and M. campus. The long awaited Student Union Building is actually being constructed and the date for completion has been set for February of 1950. A dream is turning into reality! Another innovation is the division of women students into freshman and upper class living groups. Freshman women, including pledges of the nine women's fraternities, now reside in a freshman hall, and have their own officers, sports league, and planned activities.

One thing that has remained constant is the name of Pi Beta Phi at the top of the fraternity grade point averages. Spring term averages show Oklahoma B first for the eighth consecutive semester. Tapped for Mortar Board were Ruth Ann Schneekloth, Fern Marie Merrifield, and Elizabeth Angerer. Elizabeth is now studying at the University of Leiden, Holland, on an exchange scholarship. Three Pi Beta Phi were pledged to Orange Quill, sophomore honorary society, and eight were pledged to Orange and Black Quill, junior honorary society.

Other spring term firsts were Carma Frizzell, winner of the Talbot Recognition Cup for outstanding sophomore in the School of Home Economics; Lee Carman, winner of the A. and M. All-College Debates; and the II B Φ Σ Φ E skit, combination skits first prize in the annual campus Varsity Revue. Gerrie MacDougall served as national secretary of the National International Relations Club Convention in St. Louis. Queens were Margie Lou Adams Morey, Engineering Queen; Charleen Greer, Θ X Sweetheart; Betty Clifton Thompson, II K A Dreamgirl; and Pauline Dilts, Aggie Princess.

Fall semester has gotten underway with "Let's keep that scholarship cup!" almost a chapter watchword. A successful rush week was completed with thirty new pledges wearing the wine and blue ribbons. Almost overshadowing excitement over rush was the excitement overseeing the Stoolman Vase in the chapter house living room. To acquaint new students with the college, and campus organizations a first annual get-acquainted picnic for all freshman women was sponsored the first week of school by the Association of Women Students.

Laverne Bradford is the newly elected president of the Oklahoma Home Economics Association, the statewide university Home Economics organization. Carma Frizzell is the president of the Leaders' Club, newly organized honorary Home Economics society. Fern Merrifield, Oklahoma A. and M. delegate to the Collegiate Council for the United Nations Institute in New York last summer, is state CCUN chairman.

With Homecoming festivities, the II B Φ hayrack ride, Freshman Queen race and elections, and Varsity Revue skit practice, the house at 923 College will continue to be a busy place through the coming months.

INITIATED, October 7, 1948: Bibi Smith, Mary Winburn, Little Rock; Martha Jane Phillips, Pine Bluff; Dibby Snellgrove, Jonesboro.

New to the University of Arkansas campus this year is the system of deferred rush. The freshman girls are living in a new freshman dormitory, which was completed a short time ago, and Panhellenic Council has passed rules pertaining to sorority contact with the girls.

Classes began September 17, with a total enrollment of around five thousand. School spirit got underway early this year, with a football game September 8 at the new stadium in Little Rock. Most of the games were held there, and classes were dismissed to enable the students to attend.

Arkansas A began the fall semester with a very successful rush week, pledging the quota of sixteen girls, which raised chapter membership to sixty-three. Rush Week followed the usual procedure of having six initial parties, two return parties, and a final preferential party. Original skits were used for the programs, the most effective of which was a "Pi Phi Heaven," which carried out a white color scheme, with Pi Phi "angels."

On October 1, the chapter held a sweater hop for the pledges and their dates. It is an annual affair, with decorations carrying out a circus theme. Following the hop, which was held in the afternoon, dinner was served in the Pi Beta Phi house for the pledges and dates.

This fall, Peggy Jacobs was elected president of the Judicial Board, a disciplinary organization which supervises the student body of the University. Nan Hopper is serving as vice president of the Association of Women Students, and is a member of Mortar Board, besides being chosen as this year's "Sweetheart of Σ X." Liz Brigrance is secretary of Y.W.C.A. and is vice president of the Met Club. Ada Lee Smith is photographic editor of the University annual, and Mary Ann Haley is president of A T, an honorary English organization. Arkansas A has five girls serving as sophomore councilors, whose duties are to advise the freshman girls and help them get adjusted to college life.

TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Chartered, February 19, 1902
Pledge Day, September 15, 1948

Rush week proved a gala and successful time for Texas A as University of Texas launched forth on its new fall semester. The round of rush parties was followed by the pledging of forty-two girls. The pledging of another girl in open rush raised the number to forty-three. In rapid succession came pledge service and the traditional pledge line, and an open house which honored the pledges and extended welcome to all the campus fraternities.

Although this year's enrollment at the University of Texas fell slightly short of last year's peak, the number still has been formidable enough to inspire the students to start a "be friendly" campaign known as "Howdy Week." The main walk on the campus was dedicated to this worthy cause by a group of beauties, among them Texas A's Marian Engelke.

Great excitement was generated when the stop of the presidential train at Austin, on September 27, gave U.T. Pi Phi the opportunity of welcoming Mary Margaret Truman, D.C. Alpha.

Betty Ebaugh has been selected to act as a section editor on the Cactus staff. A campus debating society, Forsenica, has elected Lucita Thornton president. TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1916
Pledge Day, September 24, 1948

INITIATED, June 13, 1948: Ann Martin, Shreveport, La.; Mary Vance Martin, Little Rock, Ark.; Betty L. Smith, Dallas.

The fall semester got off to a good start on the Southern Methodist University campus. Two all-school dances were held to help get everyone acquainted. One dance was the Fall Fiesta and the other was the Pledge Night Dance. Naturally, here as elsewhere, all eyes are on the football team. The main question is: "can they win the conference again?" The Mustangs are hoping the answer is yes. Along with the games there have been torch light parades and pep rallies, all of which are very impressive to the freshmen. Norma Peterson was chosen number one beauty on the campus last year by John Powers. She was also given an all-expense trip to New York to model for a week last summer.

The "new look" hasn't changed the campus much. In fact the only new features seem to be a few new coats of paint and further progress on the new buildings started last year.

With rush week gone and new pledges in the fold, Texas B is beginning to settle down. The chapter hopes to keep right on top this year, scholastically and otherwise. The members felt they were off to a good start when they learned they were first in scholarship last spring. To help maintain this record, all pledges must attend supervised study hall ten hours a week.

Texas B has been invited to open houses by Pi K A and also Δ Σ Φ. Nina Pruter, from California, was chosen to represent California at the Tyler Rose Festival.

Of interest to all in Texas and especially Dallas is the State Fair opening October 9. The chapter wishes that all the Pi Beta Phis could visit Texas B, Dallas, and the State Fair of Texas.

LOUISIANA ALPHA—SOPHIE NEWCOMB COLLEGE

Chartered, October 29, 1891
Pledge Day, October 1, 1948

INITIATED, September 17, 1948: Yvonne Brown, New Orleans; Kathleen Coleman, Shreveport.

INITIATED, September 21, 1948: Nancy Moore, New Orleans.

Rush week began on September 16 with an open house given by all the sororities on the campus for all the rushees. The first Louisiana A party, September 18, was the traditional circus party held that afternoon with the usual balloons, apple-bobbing, fortune-telling, fishing, and clowns riding in a jeep. The Cajun party given the following night was a great success. The next night was the Mountain Folks party. The skit was a pantomimic take-off of the "Shooting of Dan McGrew." Any resemblance between Louisiana A's interpretation of the poem and the real Dan McGrew was purely coincidental. This party ended first rush week. Second rush week began on September 25 with the Malice in Blunderland party. The following night was the traditional and very impressive Dream party. The Pi Phi Purgatory ended the rush season on September 27. The bids were sent out the next day, in accordance with the preferential system. That night the chapter had a big party welcoming the twenty new pledges.

Formal pledging was held on October 1. Immediately following the pledging, there was the usual pledge banquet, attended by pledges, actives, and alumnae. The banquet was held at Arnaud's in the French Quarter.

PLEGDED: Marion Andrus, Barbara Brogan, Evelyn Dietz, Jane Doggett, Agatha Edmundson, Virginia Fairfax, Edwa Farwell, Mary Foster, Dudley Hand, Cheri Hinds, Jean Lawson, Kay Lowrey, Yvonne Lyle, Joan McIntyre, Amelia Munson, Emilie Nott, Maureen Prothro, Marie Roussel, Sedley Roussel, Joan White.

INITIATED, October 8, 1948: Johnnie Louise English, Shreveport; Mary Elizabeth Johnston, Grayson; Suzanne Seymour, Benton, Ill.

Louisiana State University started the school year with restrictions on both parking and phone calls. Parking restrictions are to alleviate the heavy, congested traffic situation and phone calls are prohibited after 8 P.M. into or out of the university to promote quieter study periods and, ultimately, higher scholarship. Two new dormitory units are being constructed on the campus. The one for men, which will house 1,025 students, will cost approximately as much as the State Capitol.

During the recent dormitory elections the following Louisiana Bs took honors: Shirley Doan was elected vice-president of Parker Dormitory, and Indie Ferguson, Christine Hill, Carol Hendrickson, and June Chauvin are on the house committee.

Janette McKeithen was elected president of Evangeline Dormitory, and Emily Feth and Elizabeth Johnston are on the house committee.

Evelyn Toups was elected to the house committee of Annie Boyd Dormitory, and Virginia Shearman to the house committee of Louise Garig Dormitory.

Rush week was very successful this year. Louisiana B pledged thirty-one girls which was its full quota. Δ Z, Δ Δ Δ and X Ω also got their quotas. This has happened only twice before. Pledging was held in Panhellenion and the pledge supper was at the home of Mary Ann Farris with the alumnae serving.

The chapter's first pledge-active get-together was held in the room October 4. Dean Helen Gordon was invited to supper and to speak. She spoke of the pleasant experiences she had had in association with Pi Beta Phi fraternity and on the drinking problem which confronts university students.

LAMBDA PROVINCE

ALBERTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

Chartered, September, 1931

In the closing weeks of the spring term, several Alberta As were elected to hold office for the 1948-49 term: Elaine Brown, vice-president of the Students' Union; Peggy Kendrick and Dorothy Husband, senior representative and education representative, respectively, on the executive committee of the Wauneta Society, the major women's organization on the campus. Elizabeth Weir, a graduate in Honors Chemistry in May, 1948, was awarded a scholarship to continue her studies at Northwestern University. Mary Greer received the Dr. McGugan Nursing Prize for her splendid contribution to the nursing student body. A Board of Governors' scholarship was obtained by Dorothy Shaner.

Fifteen Alberta As were among the 950 students, the largest graduating class in the history of the university, who received their degrees on May 18 and 19. Prior to the graduation exercises, the graduates were entertained at a breakfast party given by the alumnae club, and at a tea given by the Mothers' Club.

The rushing parties held during the summer months took the form of a "Casino Capers," a Garden Party, and a Dessert Party.

In the last week of September, as the leaves exchanged their green for crimson and gold, as the air took on a wonderful tang, one thousand "Indians," with green and gold feathers in their hair, stalked the hushed corridors of the University. These freshmen helped to swell the University's population to 4,100.

The girls attacked the task of cleaning and redecorating the chapter house with great vitality, in order to have it "ship-shape" for the arrival of their house mother, Mrs. Alice Treadgold.

The University of Idaho started 1948-49 on a large scale when its entire student body, the largest in the school's history, turned out to see its football team off to its first game of the year. Idaho's social activities began with the Freshman Mixer and the annual Nickel Hop sponsored by the Spurs.

Spring quarter, 1948, was a very successful season for the Washington A. Barbara Whitehead was elected to a junior class office, and Joanne Tartre to an office of the Associated Women Students. Helen Veatch was tapped for Totem Club, as was Jean Lawton, and Jean also became a member of Mortar Board. The Pi Phi Song Fest group, led by Gerry Stroud, won second place in a group of seventeen competing women's organizations.

Washington A took great pleasure in extending a welcome to Washington Γ at the College of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Washington. Active members of Washington A who live in the Seattle-Tacoma vicinity were on hand for the installation and initiation ceremonies September 7, 8, and 9, and for the banquet September 10. Saturday, September 11, a buffet supper was held at the Washington A chapter house to honor Miss Onken and Mrs. Winkler. The activities of the entire week served as an inspiration to the alumnae and actives who attended.

The Alumnae Club, the Mothers' Club and the active house managers were busy all summer on additions and repairs for the chapter house. On returning this fall, the actives were surprised with fresh paint, new furniture, and many details which are making living in the house even more comfortable this year. Mrs. Charles Stuart, an alumna of Washington A, presented the house with numerous gifts, the chief among these being new furniture for the smoking room and date room, garden furniture for the patio, and two hair dryers for emergency shampoos. The Mothers' Club presented the house with a new radio-phonograph for the smoking room.

Washington A is enjoying an even broader national view of Pi Beta Phi this year, in that the new chapter chaperone is a Nebraska B. The chapter always welcomes an exchange of ideas with alumnae and affiliates, and a special welcome is extended to Mrs. Buckley, who is already proving a guide and inspiration to the chapter.

Chartered, September 9, 1948
Pledge Day, September 15, 1948

INITIATED, September 7, 8, 9, 1948: Betje Liliquist, Wausau, Wis.; Jane Starkey, Auburn; Joan Storhow, Sumner; Patricia Vaux, Kirkland; Martha Wright, Puyallup; Rose Carbone, Beverly Farrell, Katherine Geehan, Virginia Gundstrom, Jean Gudmundson, Jane Hagen, Cynthia Harris, Janet Langabeer, Maxine Lister, Janice Ludwig, Kathleen McElwain, Lucile McIntyre, Marcella Morton, Gloria Nelson, Charlotte Coors O'Connor, Alice Palmer, Carol Sue Petrich, Nancy Riehl, Lorraine Rockway, Patricia Shea, Gretchen Swayze, Ann Vlahovich, Jeanne Williams, Tacoma.

In 1946, the members of $\Sigma \Theta \Theta$ Sorority had a dream: To become the first national women's fraternity on the campus of the College of Puget Sound. After careful consideration, the chapter picked Pi Beta Phi as their goal. After two long years, the good news finally arrived. On July 2, 1948, the members were all gathered at the home of Beverly Farrell for a potluck dinner. During the course of the evening, a telegram arrived from Mrs. E. J. Cooper, Tacoma Alumnae club delegate to Pi Beta Phi Convention, announcing the longed-for news. After much rejoicing, the members settled down to plan for initiation, held the week of September 5.

Pledging for K Σ Θ actives and alumnae took place the week of August 30. Mrs. Draper, Lambda Province President, led the pledging ceremonies.

The week of September 6 was a busy one for all pledges of Washington Γ. On September 7, 8, and 9, 114 persons received the arrow of Pi Beta Phi. On Thursday, September 9, the group received their charter. That evening, a formal banquet was held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Hotel Winthrop. Approximately 300 Pi Beta Phis attended.

Dobler, Lambda Province Vice-President, Mrs. Howard Winkler, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training and Miss Harriet Johnstone, Scholarship Chairman.

Fathers were honored at the traditional Fathers-Daughters night, when California Δs entertained their dads at chapter dinner. Also on the agenda were many exchanges and parties with fraternities.

The annual Pi Beta Phi Benefit for Crippled Children turned out to be a success, as was the Mothers' Club rummage sale.

*ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Chartered, 1917
Pledge Day, September 21, 1948

INITIATED, October 16, 1948: Jacqueline Boevers, Wikieup; Mary Berry, Greensboro, N.C.; Carol Calvin, Downey, Calif.; Ann Orton, Carol Sherman, Salem, N.Y.; Pearl Schindler, Canoga Park, Calif.; Barbara Ann Todd, Tallulah, La.

September 7 saw 5,400 students, from Maine to California, Washington to Florida, arriving in Tucson to complete the largest registration in the history of the University of Arizona. The unsurpassed climate, the academic standing of this college, and the wide variety of activities proved such an attraction that it was necessary for the administration to reject 14,000 out-of-state applicants. The university admitted 800 new non-resident students, of which only 100 were women.

Arizona A returned to find an enlarged and completely redecorated chapter house awaiting them. Three large picture windows were built into the enlarged living room and overlook the spacious wintergreen lawn. The dining room, decorated in a color scheme of dark green, chartreuse and coral is unique with its adjoining terrace furnished with coral-colored wrought-iron chairs and glass-topped tables. The library, converted into a date-room, carries out the theme of wine and blue in furniture, walls, and rugs. The members painted their own rooms in pastel colors and the modernistic look prevails throughout.

The chapter's first social function of the fall season was an open-house to introduce the pledges. Campus men were guests. Dancing, with music furnished by a three-piece Σ A E band, comprised the evening's entertainment. An exchange dinner with Φ Γ Δ was held early in October, and a barn dance, using the Halloween theme, climaxed the month's social activities. Parents were honored at a buffet supper before the football game on Mom and Dad's Day, October 23.

At the banquet following Initiation, Jacqueline Boevers was presented with the jeweled recognition pin for receiving the highest grade average in her pledge class. Carol Sherman was named as the outstanding pledge.

Pi Beta Phi set a precedent on this campus by becoming the first women's fraternity to have two members on the executive council of the Associated Women Students. Bonnie Robinson and Kathryn Pender were elected to their offices of secretary and vice-president, respectively, at the close of school in May. Kathryn Pender was appointed co-editor of the Kitty Kat, University of Arizona magazine, and two other Arizona As are the editorial staff. Carol Houston, Betty Bayne, Jacqueline Boevers, and Kathleen McNabb were initiated into Spurs, sophomore women's honorary; Bonnie Robinson and Georgia Ellsworth were elected to FST, junior women's honorary; and Kathryn Pender was tapped for Mortar Board, senior women's honorary.

PLEGGED: Ann Arrington, Canadian, Tex.; Barbara Beeman, Oak Park, Ill.; Marjorie Berg, Patricia Blanc, Barbara Conover, Suzanne Gillespie, Elizabeth Jordan, Winifred Knight, Ann Mills, Patricia Olsen, Tucson; Mary Berry, Greensboro, N.C. (re-pledged); Sarah Best, Corona del Mar, Calif.; Jacqueline Bivin, Mary Ann Carlisle, Lois Hill, Lila Jean Mercer, Jeanne Mercier, Betty Dee Parker, Phyllis Whitney, Phoenix; Elena Blake, Morenci; Nancy Calvin, Downey, Calif.; Sue Ellen Groover, Jeanne Moeur, Tempe; Carolyn Hyde, Castle Hot Springs; Virginia Jenkins, Kansas City, Mo.; Louise Oman, Columbus, Ohio; Jane Rubel, Newport Beach, Calif.; Judy Walsh, Sherman, Tex.; Sally Wright, Oakland, Calif.

INITIATED, October 24, 1948: Nadene Neff, Las Cruces; Sue Marie Zike, Roswell; Elaine Jackson, Galina; Beverly Odom, Pecos, Tex.; Joan Schulze, Chicago Heights, Ill.; Dolores Traver, Oak Park, Ill.; Janice Anderson, Denver, Colo.; Mary Alice Scott, Trinidad, Colo.; Marilyn Sundstrom, Sioux City, Iowa; Carolyn Dale, Carthage, Mo.

Broad smiles were seen on the campus this fall because of the successful new administration which has been installed. Thomas L. Popejoy has been appointed President of the University and Frances V. Scholes has assumed the office of Vice-President.

The campus has grown considerably since last year. Two new buildings have been completed and more are being built. There is a new Pharmacy Building, built in the traditional Pueblo style, and a new Baptist Student Union Building for all religious groups on campus. A new dormitory for men is also under construction in order to cope with the swollen enrollment and to help alleviate the present housing situation.

Tentative plans for a house for New Mexico A have been submitted, with promises to build in the near future. A large living room, chaperon's quarters and a kitchen are planned for the present. This will comprise one floor of one wing of the complete plans. It is hoped that the house will be completed and ready for use for social functions by second semester.

Student body elections took place on October 15. Blythe Scott was a candidate for vice-president of the Senior Class. She is also in charge of plans for Homecoming for the University, which promises to be one of the most successful events of the year.

After a successful rush week twenty-three pledges were entertained with a banquet at the Hilton Hotel on September 15. Formal pledging was held on September 21 at the home of Patt Wylder with the traditional cooky-shine following.

PLEGDED: Barbara Anderson, Orange, Calif.; Virginia Harriman, Pasadena, Calif.; Isabell Burney, Janet Madden, Denver, Colo.; Mary V. Barthell, Peoria, Ill.; Amy Bond, Thelma Hoyt, Jan Oakes, Patricia Scanlan, Jo Ann Walters, Carol Woods, Albuquerque; Jaci Casler, Tulsa, Okla.; Eunice Gehr, Cleveland, Ohio; Jane White, Findlay, Ohio; Cynthia Hickey, Marblehead, Mass.; Sarah Krakow, Davenport, Iowa; Patricia Senneff, Britt, Iowa; Nancy O'Brien, Amarillo, Tex.; Charline Rutter, Jean McNay, El Paso, Tex.; Rosemary Robinson, Louise Sage, Santa Fe; Lura Ann Tanner, Clovis.
