College Men, Not Boys

From College Fraternity Editors' News Release

SOME OF THE BEST CONSTRUCTIVE PUBLICITY FOR FRATERNITIES appeared in the Indianapolis Star in March, with the above editorial title. It read: The Indiana University chapter of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity has provided further evidence that a mature sense of responsibility distinguishes today's college generation from some of its predecessors. The ATO chapter utilized its recent pre-initiation "Hell Week" to perform good deeds for the community. Instead of "assuming the angle" before paddle-wielding upperclassmen and submitting to other childish tortures, the fraternity pledges were put to work for the Monroe County Welfare Department. During the week they painted a nursery school, chopped wood, repaired roofs, shoveled snow and did other useful welfare work. There may be a few unreconstructed rebels of the John Held, Jr., era who will say this is a sign today's collegians are going soft. We say it's a sign they're tougher than ever and have a better understanding that they are preparing themselves for an adult world which increasingly separates the men from the boys. And after all, the puerile mumbo-jumbo of the old-fashioned Hell Week must seem pretty silly to college freshmen whose older brothers took the worst Hitler and Tojo had to offer. ATO has set an example for other fraternity chapters to follow.

Let's Give More for Scholarships . . .

Editorial by

RUTH WILSON COGSHALL IN Mountaineer

If the chapters had contributed even a few more dollars to the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship Fund, perhaps some of the 10 girls whose applications had to be refused might have been able to remain in college.

The number of these scholarships which Grand Council is able to approve each year, depends upon the amount of money which the chapters give. In addition there is the sum of $900 already set aside from the money formerly used for the scholarship rings.

This year there were 16 girls to apply; sixteen girls whose records were unusually fine. But only six of these could be granted the money necessary to keep them in college. Letters from their professors, their deans of women, the alumnae who know them intimately stressed their irreproachable conduct, their stable character, their dependability, their valuable contribution to chapter functioning, and their scholastic record. The six chosen will go on to greater accomplishments. But what of the ten whose applications had to be turned down? Some of them may find outside employment. Some of them undoubtedly will remain in college because the added income from part-time work will help defray the essential college expenses. But what about their scholastic records? And what about their contribution to college and fraternity life? Are they to be forced to be content with average accomplishments, sacrificing their brilliant records, their chance for growth through fraternity and organization service simply because they will have insufficient time to devote to their studies and their campus life?

We have only to glance through a sample of the letters submitted with the applications to realize that here is a superior class of girls. There is the one about whom the dean of women wrote . . . she had the greatest influence in the development of successful programs of any student I have known. There is the girl about whom her chapter says . . . we have been able to count on her doing whatever is expected in a cheerful and unassuming way, outstanding in looks and manners, with conduct irreproachable. There is the one who has the wise grasp of college life, a persistence to finish school, a stable person.

The Fraternity needs these girls, and the Fraternity can keep them if the Scholarship Fund is increased by your contribution.

General Instructions

Chapter treasurers should see that the Financial Statements to Parents and Pledges are sent approximately two weeks before the proposed initiation. They should be sent only to the parents of the girls who have met the initiation requirements and whom the chapter definitely plans to initiate. This means too that the blanks should be sent only for the girls who have received the required vote of the Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee for approval of initiation.

Chapter treasurers should see that badges are ordered through the Central Office. It takes six weeks or more, under present conditions, to complete badge orders. Badges for prospective members should not be ordered until all initiation requirements have been met.

Chapter treasurers should send the initiation fee for each initiate with Form GT1 to Central Office within three days of initiation. Canadian chapters send initiation fees to Mrs. Frank H. Prouty, 1760 Locust Street, Denver 7, Colorado.

Chapter Treasurers should send monthly reports to Busey Fraternity Accounting System.

The corresponding secretary should report to the Central Office changes in chapter officers if they are made, any time during the year.

When college schedules make it impossible to comply exactly with fraternity calendar dates, chapter officers should contact Central Office, explain the situations, and receive special permission to vary from the established dates.

THE ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

SEPTEMBER, 1950

Review

Convention is over—all its thrills are in the past, and we can sit down to a cool evaluation of its events and its results.

Delightful in setting, outstanding in personnel, it proved to be a most inspiring meeting. True, there were difficulties, such as late trains (the Editor and the Grand Treasurer were 14 hours late!), delays due to washouts, slides, and finally the railroad strike in the states, all beyond the power of the Guide to prevent; and everyone was late for everything, beginning from the time the Special from Chicago forced the cancellation of the whole first session, and the delaying of the Model Initiation, and continuing because of the magnificent distances between the Lodge and the cabins. Yet we discussed issues with a fine tolerance of one another's views, and with keenly intelligent thinking. Perhaps the fact that the attack on South Korea came the very day that Convention opened made us a little more cautious in our judgments—whatever the cause, there was evident a serious tendency in discussion, a straight facing of problems that made for wise decisions. If all-out war is to follow the Korean outbreak, then Pi Beta Phi will be in a good position to face whatever another such war may do to our colleges and to our chapters, without new projects which might bring crippling responsibilities. We came away with a renewed interest and enthusiasm for our great Settlement School, and with increased desire to take care of such of our older people as may be in need of direct aid. The way to do that is already in our hands, as we know from Mrs. Copp's report in this issue—but that way needs additional funds and should get them, now that the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund is one of the three 100% funds for contributions. With the progress of time the work of this committee will be constantly expanding. The small addition to our alumnae dues voted in Convention will put us in a position of financial safety nationally, better able to face constantly rising costs of operation of the great business that a great fraternity has become.

Again, Economy!

For the coming year still more strict economy must be the policy of the ARROW. How it does cramp our style! If fine material sent to our office is never published, if fewer pictures are used, look on us with a tolerant eye, and know that whenever conditions change for the better, we'd like a much larger issue, perhaps even a bi-monthly or a monthly magazine, with color pictures! Well, we can dream anyway, especially in an issue like this one, made up of reports, which may appear to need a little color, but which make fascinating reading. Pi Beta Phi is still the only fraternity to offer to its members a chance to read every word of the reports of its officers—what an opportunity it offers to know your Fraternity!

Of Alumnae

Convention always makes clear the strength of our alumnae organization, when we see the group of alumnae delegates—117 this time, not as many as might have come, out of our present strength of 241 alumnae clubs—but such fine women they were, from the four corners of the continent—and one from Hawaii.

Membership in our alumnae department is one of the rights given us by our membership in Pi Beta Phi, a right that we should use to the utmost. Such membership does not mean simply paying dues to the national organization and to a local club—it means a real dedication of oneself to the work of the organization, real work for its advancement, whether it be through a near-by active chapter, or through the many money-raising activities of a club which provide funds for its gifts to our national projects. Elsewhere in this issue we print a blank for use of isolated alumnae in joining the national organization—and through its use perhaps some members may find that they are within reach of some one of the regional clubs.

Pi Beta Phi Fellowship

For the year 1950-51 the Fraternity will offer one graduate fellowship with a value of $500. The fellowship is open to any member of the Fraternity who has received her bachelor's degree, and it may be used at any university which offers special opportunities in graduate work along the line desired by its holder.

Two points will be considered by the Grand Council in awarding the fellowship: scholastic standing and all-around development of character with its resultant ability worthily to represent the Fraternity. Each applicant must state definitely the university she wishes to enter, the courses which she desires to pursue, and the ultimate aim of her graduate study.

Applications accompanied by photographs of applicants, transcripts of college grades, credentials from college professors, and other recommendations, must be in the hands of the Grand President not later than January 1, 1951.

All material must be collected by the applicant and submitted as a whole. Blank forms for application for the fellowship may be obtained from the Grand President at any time. If she so desires, any applicant of former years who has not received the fellowship may make a new application.

West Virginia Beta-To-Be

Convention added a chapter to our roll, compensating numerically and in small part indeed for the loss of Maryland Alpha through college regulation. Phi Chi, local group at Davis and Elkins College, at Elkins, West Virginia, will be installed September 21. The ARROW extends a warm welcome to our new members.

So begins the eighty-fourth year of Pi Beta Phi, again with war and all its troubles facing us—troubles to be met as we have met them before, with strength and courage.

DEAR MRS. ALFORD:

May I express through THE ARROW my deep appreciation to Pi Beta Phi for the most wonderful opportunity of being the Honor Guest of the recent Convention.

Although many fine things have come to me from the Fraternity, through the years, none have been more inspiring than to be the guest of such a thrilling gathering.

My thanks to you all.

Sincerely in Π Β Φ,

Agnes Wright Spring

Report of the Meetings of Grand Council

THE Annual Meeting of the Grand Council of Pi Beta Phi was held at Jasper Park Lodge, Jasper National Park, Alberta, Canada, June 17-23, 1950. The Grand President opened the meeting with the Ritual and presided over the morning, afternoon, and evening sessions held throughout the week preceding Convention. All members were present.

The first order of business was the reading and discussion of the annual reports of all officers and committee chairmen. Grand Council gave consideration to the recommendations made by the various officers and chairmen concerning their work, to general trends in the fraternity, and to all special individual and chapter problems. From this detailed study of the fraternity came the final recommendations to Convention, the awards, and the decisions as outlined. Special attention was given to fraternity finance, the legal aspects of a Home for Pi Phis, serious problems in present day campus Public Relations, and to chapter supervision and fraternity Extension.

In addition to those announced in advance, Grand Council made the following recommendations to the 1950 Convention: To the Regular Session—

(1) That Statutes, Part I, Article VII, new Section 2 be amended by adding: The ten dollar payment shall be apportioned by the Grand Treasurer as follows: $5.00 to the Convention Fund, $3.00 to the Contingent Fund, and $2.00 to the Alumnae Fund.

(2) That Statutes, Part II, Article IV be amended by inserting between the words "meetings" and "and" the words "Chapter Presidents' Workshops" so that the heading would read: "Chapter Meetings, Chapter Presidents' Workshops, and Conventions of National Fraternity."

(3) That Statutes, Part II, Article IV be amended by adding a new division III, to read: "Chapter Presidents' Workshops. Section 1. In the year following a Convention a two-day Chapter Presidents' Workshop, under the direction of the Province President concerned, shall be held in each province.

a. Attendance shall be limited to one official representative for each chapter in the province, who shall be the chapter president.

1. The pledge supervisor may attend at chapter expense.

b. The expenses for railway and Pullman fares and hotel bills for the chapter presidents and the Province President concerned shall be paid from the Convention Fund."

(4) That Statutes, Part I, Article II, Section 9, "Duties of the Province President" be amended by inserting a new "c" to read: "To conduct the Chapter President's Workshop for her province after plans for program, location, and expense have been approved by the Grand President."

(5) That the plan of having State Rushing Recommendations Chairmen become an established fraternity practice, using the general procedures now in effect, the appointments to be made biennially, beginning January, 1951.

(6) That Statutes, Part II, Article III be amended by striking out Section 11 and inserting a new Section 11, to read: "Duties of Chapter Rush Captain and Assistant Rush Captain. The duties of the Rush Captain and the Assistant Rush Captain shall be:

a. To plan and to direct the rushing of the chapter.

b. To make certain that all local and national Panhellenic regulations governing rushing are observed.

c. To work under the supervision of the Director of Rushing and Pledge Training.

d. To send to the Director of Rushing and Pledge Training, within five days after Pledge Day, a recommendation and/or consent or consents to bid, for each girl pledged.

e. To send within ten days after every pledge day or after any other pledging, to the Rushing Recommendations Chairman of the Alumnae Club concerned, a list of all girls pledged from the town or towns under that Alumnae Club's jurisdiction."

(7) That when college regulations permit fraternity chapters to engage and to dismiss chapter house chaperons, the Pi Beta Phi chapter president and the chairman of the Alumnae Advisory Committee, before they notify the chaperon of the chapter's intention to release her, must together report this decision to the Dean of Women.

(8) That the following resolution be adopted by the Regular and the Alumnae Sessions of Convention:

"Whereas, as a consequence of the timely action of the American Legion in calling a meeting of representatives of more than sixty distinguished organizations to consider ways and means of uniting 'all truly patriotic and American organizations in a battle against the one immediate common enemy—Communism,' there has been formed the All-American Conference to Combat Communism and

Whereas, the stated purpose of the All-American Conference is 'to unite in a nationwide crusade to defend and promote our freedoms and to expose and curtail Communism' in America, and

Whereas, National Panhellenic Conference in recognition of its potential power has been honored by an invitation to become a part of this group

Be it therefore resolved That Pi Beta Phi, in Convention assembled, go on record as wholeheartedly approving of this affiliation. That it pledge its full support to National Panhellenic Conference as it meets its responsibility in this crusade, and further, That it call upon all Pi Beta Phis as individuals, chapters and alumnae clubs to meet this challenge with positive action."

And, to the Alumnae Session of Convention, Grand Council made the following recommendation:

That Statutes, Part III, Article II, Section 2, b, 4 be amended by striking out "the unallocated part of the Alumnae Convention Fund" and inserting, "the Alumnae Fund and be allocated to the Convention expenses of the Alumnae Department."

Grand Council further decided: That it be recommended to the incoming Council that the present Historian, Marian Keck Simmons, be asked to write the history of the Fraternity from 1936 to date; that the Director of Extension be assigned the responsibility of the planning and supervision of the four uniform "Pi Phi Night" programs; that the Grand Treasurer be asked to work out suggested pages for alumnae club treasurers, for large and small club accounting; that the pledge supervisors, rather than the individual sponsors of pledges, be asked to give the response for the sponsor in the Pledge Ceremony; that Beta Chi Theta at Carroll College be discouraged definitely and that groups at Southwestern Missouri State and Ball State colleges be investigated; and, that, in the future, the payments from the Alumnae Convention Fund be made at the end of Convention to the delegates who qualify under the new regulations.

Recommendations for the Balfour Cup, presented by the Province Presidents, were carefully considered and the recommended chapters checked with the Standardization and Survey report. By unanimous decisions the following awards were made:

Balfour Cup—Colorado Beta
 Stoolman Vase—Indiana Gamma and Iowa Beta
 Philadelphia Vase—Connecticut Alpha Theta Province Award—Illinois Theta

Recommendations for the National Amy B. Onken Award, made by the chapters and the Province Presidents concerned, were studied. By unanimous decision, this award was given to Betty Bruce Stake, Missouri Beta.

A review of the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship applications followed. From the fourteen who applied Grand Council was able to make the following six awards, limited by amount of money available in the fund: To Barbara Lucille Stowe, Washington Alpha; Frances R. Curns, New Mexico Alpha; Barbara Jean Gormley, Colorado Alpha; Joyce Herreid, Wisconsin Gamma; Alice Jean Palmer, Washington Gamma; and Donna Jean Rabinoff, Colorado Beta.

Time was taken to discuss and plan the Joint Meetings of Province Officers, the separate ones for Province Presidents and Province Vice Presidents, and final plans for Convention. Individual conferences were held with the National Historian, the Chairman of the Settlement School Committee, and the Convention Guide.

Grand Council then recessed to meet in a post-Convention session, following the adjournment of Convention.

POST-CONVENTION MEETING OF GRAND COUNCIL

The post-Convention meeting of the Grand Council opened with a study of the annual report of the Director of Central Office and decisions indicated in the report, concerning the revision of manuals, office supplies, salaries, and the new directory.

Palo Alto moved: That the meeting of the Alumnae Session on Friday A.M. shall convene at 8:30 A.M. in place of the usual 9 o'clock. Meeting recessed at 12:15 P.M.

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1950, 8:30 A.M.

Meeting was called to order by the Grand Vice-President at 8:45 A.M. After announcements, the pages for the day were introduced. The ARROW Editor honored California Epsilon in Lucy Cornett of that chapter, and the Director of Rushing and Pledge Training honored the last chapter she visited, New York Delta, in Nancy Crain.

Report of the Nominating Committee was given as follows:

BETTY STOVALL KING, Chairman

Delegates from the following clubs were appointed as tellers in the election: New Haven, Cincinnati, North Shore, Des Moines, and Dallas.

The report of the Committee to Nominate Members for Holt House Committee reported that the North Shore and Detroit Alumnae Clubs had been selected as the clubs from which new members of the Holt House Committee are to be selected. Acting Eta Province Vice-President moved that these clubs be accepted as the ones from which the members are to be selected, which was seconded and passed.

Report of the Special Committee for the Allocation of Convention Funds was made by its Chairman, the Grand Treasurer, and the following recommendation was moved, seconded and passed:

That Statutes, Part III, Article III, Section 2, b, 2, be amended by adding: "Exception shall be made for the state, territory, or Canadian Province in which the convention is to be held, wherein the transportation of each alumnae club shall be computed separately."

Beta Province Vice-President asked for information on the salaries received by Pi Phi Officers. The Grand Treasurer replied with a definite statement.

Glendale moved: That the ARROWS between now and the 1952 convention include an appeal to all Pi Beta Phi Alumnae to pay their national dues, either through their local club or to a person so designated to handle said dues. It is also recommended that this appeal carry interpretation regarding the need for such additional funds and the obligation of every Pi Beta Phi member to shoulder her part of this expense. Seconded and passed.

Glendale moved: That reports of National Officers and Committee Chairmen usually given in alumnae session be condensed and have a definite time limit, not to exceed the time of a morning and afternoon session, in order to leave plenty of time for new business. This was seconded, and the Springfield delegate moved that it be amended by inserting the words "for workshops and" before "new business." Seconded and passed.

The Washington, D.C., delegate moved that the Constitution, Article VI, Section 1 (a) be amended by striking out "and" before "a Convention Guide" and inserting at the end "and two Active Convention Directors." Add a new Section (f) to read: "The Active Convention Directors shall be the active chapter delegates to Convention from the chapters which hold the Balfour Cup and Stoolman Vase."

And that the Constitution, Article VI, Section 2 be amended by adding: "Two Active Convention Directors shall be temporary members of Grand Council to sit with it and vote at all its meetings during the pre-convention, convention, and post-convention periods."

And the Statutes, Part I, Article IV be amended by inserting a new Section 15 to read as follows:

"Duties of the Active Convention Directors: The duties of the Active Convention Directors shall be, (a) to attend all meetings of Grand Council during the pre-convention, convention, and post-convention periods, and to participate in the deliberations and to vote on all questions; (b) each to preside over at least one active session of Convention."

This was seconded, and after discussion, was lost.

A recommendation was read by the Pasadena delegate that:

"WHEREAS, It is desirable to secure for the fraternity in the future, the same strong leadership which has contributed so much to our growth in the past, and,

"WHEREAS, Such development is best assured by the existence of a large number of experienced officers;

"Therefore, That a limited tenure of three (3) two (2) year terms in any one office for all members of Grand Council, be established; such tenure to take effect two years after establishment with the terms of officers staggered so that all officers are not replaced at one time."

Since this recommendation involved necessary changes to the Constitution and Statutes and had not been submitted to all national officers, chapters, and alumnae clubs at least 60 days prior to the meeting at which they were to be voted upon, as provided in the Constitution, it was ruled out of order by the Chair.

Los Angeles moved that this recommendation be considered by the Alumnae Session. This was seconded and lost.

The Washington, D.C., delegate moved that it be recommended to active session that Statutes, Part I, Article IV, Section 11 (a), be amended by striking out the present Section II (a); which provides for a nominating committee to be appointed by the President, and inserting a new section to read: "A Committee to nominate fraternity officers at the ensuing convention shall consist of a Province President, the active chapter delegate from the chapter which holds the A. B. Onken award, the active chapter delegate from the chapter which holds the Philadelphia Vase, one member of Grand Council to be elected at the interim summer meeting of Grand Council, and a Province Vice President. The Province Presidents will serve on this committee in rotation alphabetically according to provinces; the Province Vice Presidents will serve on this committee in reverse rotation alphabetically according to Provinces. The personnel of this committee shall be determined immediately following the summer interim meeting of Grand Council and shall be announced in the ARROW for September of the same year. The Nominating Committee shall present two candidates for each national office to convention at its last meeting."

This was seconded and lost by a vote 59 for and 74 against. The delegate from the Baltimore Alumnae Club read the following resolution: "The Baltimore Alumnae Club wishes to tell this convention of the great joy it has found in working with Maryland Alpha during the many years of the two groups' existence. Granted, there have been rough spots; but, particularly during the past year, this delegate has felt among the girls a spirit of unity and a sincere desire to be the best Pi Phis possible. Our combined Founders' Day banquet, April 25, 1950, was a memorable occasion. Miss Onken, Mrs. Wild, Mrs. Lingo and many Maryland Alphas from all over the country were our honored guests. As the final celebration of Maryland Alpha, it was a sad time, but for the Baltimore Alumnae Club, receiving over 50 new members, it was a great inspiration. We salute Maryland Alpha and look forward to working with these girls and helping them to find their places as loyal Pi Beta Phi alumnae."

Pasadena moved: That Statutes, Part I, Article IV be amended by adding a new "17" to read: The required majority on any question shall be figured on the number of votes actually cast and not on the total voting personnel of the Alumnae Sessions of Convention.

This was seconded and in the discussion that followed the Chair was asked what was meant by "Convention." The Parliamentarian was asked for her interpretation and ruled that "Convention" would include all persons whose expenses were paid by the fraternity. After discussion this motion was lost.

An explanation of the vote required on motions was given by the Parliamentarian.

A report of the tellers appointed to count the vote was brought in and the slate nominated was declared elected.

Epsilon Province Vice President moved adjournment, and after reading of the Ritual, the Grand Vice-President declared the Alumnae Sessions of the 37th Convention of Pi Beta Phi adjourned.

Respectfully submitted

Director of Extension
Acting Secretary

MESSAGE OF GRAND PRESIDENT

To Pi Beta Phi:

PERHAPS the most important reason for a convention is that it may deepen loyalty. As this Convention gives increased understanding of the basic purposes of the fraternity, there can come only a greater pride in the achievements and prestige of Pi Beta Phi and a resulting deeper love for it and it is upon pride and love that true loyalty depends. This, the Thirty-seventh Convention of Pi Beta Phi, might well set as its special goal a clarification of what true loyalty means and what it demands in conviction, attitude, action, and service!

Dean Joseph A. Park, Educational Adviser at Ohio State University, in answering Mr. Kenneth Brown, who had said that fraternity members place loyalty to the fraternity above that to the institution, reach for prestige, and are indifferent to cultural interests, said that since these are very human faults, they probably could be assigned with equal fairness to faculties and added: "I like Dr. Brown's phrase, 'They will be judged, as they deserve to be judged, by the calibre of the men and women whom they aid in training.' When the College Alumni Secretary or Finance Director sets out to enlist alumni support of some worth-while endeavors, to whom does he turn? Is it merely because such people are extroverts and enjoy enlisting the aid of their fellows or is it possible that training in a lesser loyalty has developed a greater?" Pi Beta Phi has long recognized its responsibility to "that greater human fraternity to which we all belong" and it believes with deep conviction that as it deepens loyalty to the things of Pi Beta Phi it automatically deepens it to the things of good citizenship on college campuses and off of them as these are demonstrated in a sincere interest in an effort to further the best in education, government, culture, and right living. The Interfraternity Decalogue of Fraternity Policy gives as the chief purpose of a fraternity "to provide training and discipline of the individual who, in seeking an education, desires to make himself a useful member of society, possessing knowledge, trained skill, and capacity for accomplishment." The effects of such training and discipline could not possibly be kept within the limits of one's fraternity!

After the First World War, H. G. Wells said that civilization was in a race between education and catastrophe; Dr. J. Walter Malone, president of Milikin University, now says that "after World War II, it was no longer a race. Education went over to catastrophe" and became "too much education for profit and not for personality, too much education for prestige and not for character" and that "one of today's greatest needs is an education which will place emphasis on spiritual things, personal responsibility, honesty, and character." How completely this ideal ties in with those of Pi Beta Phi! And how it emphasizes the importance of a definite stand by Pi Beta Phi, active and alumnae, for this, the only kind of an education which will insure the future of colleges by attracting boys and girls who want for themselves the things of beautiful living for which fraternities stand and so will insure the future of fraternities, too. Let Pi Beta Phi be leaders in swinging education back from catastrophe! Undergraduates can do their part by choosing courses and professors which build right thinking and right attitudes, and alumnae can do theirs by insisting that their colleges and universities provide such courses and such teachers.

Pi Beta Phi's responsibility for good citizenship cannot end on college campuses, highlighted though it is there by the fact that there Pi Phis live together as groups and are judged as such for their qualities of citizenship. It should not sound like "the same old story" when one speaks of the desperate need for citizens who are intelligent about the forces which gravely threaten the American way of life, who will look beneath the surface in order that they may know motives as well as appearances and protestations, and who will stand fast against the most insidious and destructive propaganda campaign which our country has ever known. Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, this month of June, 1950, has declared that the forces of Communism in the United States present a terrifying danger—a danger most terrifying because so many of those who are supporting the cause of Communism do not wear its colors openly and so are able to work even more effectively than if their allegiance were known. When one has been given both a college training and the privilege of being a Pi Beta Phi, she has a responsibility which she cannot evade for taking a firm and active stand against ideologies which are diametrically opposed to what generations of right thinking Americans have proved are the things which make for the best way of life which the world has ever known.

Pi Beta Phi dare not shut its eyes to the fact that Communism has declared its intention of taking over America by way of the college campuses on which it is playing upon the idealism and the inexperience of college students. The IRAC Bulletin of last September said: "The National Council for American Education does not see Communism on the various campuses as a bogeyman. It sees thirty-six Yale faculty members with one hundred and fifty-seven affiliations in eighty-two Communist fronts. It sees seventy-five Harvard faculty members with three hundred and thirty-six affiliations in one hundred and twenty-four Communist fronts, and it sees Communists on many of the college faculties, many of whom have been active in the anti-fraternity campaign." Mr. Jerome Koehler, Supreme President of Pi Kappa, in a wonderfully fine article, "What Price Discrimination," said: "Communists have been recently openly blasting Americans for not building an 'economic democracy,' for not accepting a 'social democracy' and for our refusal to 'implement racial brotherhood.' These allusions by the antidiscriminationist supporters should be critically examined. We know that 'political democracy' means political equality—one man, one vote; we imagine that their meaning of 'economic democracy' would be economic equality—one man, one unit of property. We assume that the meaning of 'social democracy' would be social equality—one man, one body of men of common equality. The attainment of these ideals would be conformity without choice, unity without diversity; and it would be Communism and not Americanism . . . Their pious chant of blending all our people into a strong united democracy has every evidence of being a sham and a double-cross. Their true intent appears to be to divide and separate; to array class against class, race against race, and creed against creed. . . . Much bitter opposition has been expressed of late against fraternities. While most of this criticism is because of membership discrimination, the entire gauntlet of incriminations has been used against them. But despite all of these false accusations, most college students would still like to join! . . . Fraternities have been a wholesome contribution to the American concept of education, in that they have given primacy to the development of the individual for his future place in society. . . . Although much has yet to be done in correcting certain of their known weaknesses, college fraternities have proved to be the best demonstration of democracy in action on any campus." Dean Park says: "The two features of college life in which there seems to be the greatest public interest are Athletics and Fraternities. Unfortunately, the curriculum seems to be of interest to academicians only. One might argue that the public has a vested interest in athletics because it is the public's money that keeps them going. This is definitely not true with fraternities, which pay their own way and have no support from anyone except their own members. That's unusual in these days, isn't it?"

Perhaps it is permissible to repeat that "fraternities as such are, of course, not the major target of Communism; they are a practice target, important in themselves but most important because if they, as one democratic institution, can be destroyed the entire structure of America will be irreparably weakened." Mr. Koehler says of discrimination: "Discrimination without unjust distinction is good taste. If college fraternities were not discriminatory in selecting their members there would be very little need for their existence. To use discrimination in selecting companions has always been smart. This is freedom and freedom of choice is an accepted principle of democracy." It seems rather strange, does it not, that nothing is said by the enemies of fraternities, about the fact that fraternity membership is contingent upon selection not only by the chapter but also by the rushee? Acceptance of an invitation to membership is surely as much a matter of discrimination as is the giving of a bid and both are the exercises of true democracy. Pi Beta Phi should stand as a solid unit for the basic right of a fraternity, or of any other organization whose purposes and achievements are good, to select as its members those who will promote its unity, congeniality, and success.

The firm stand which National Panhellenic Conference fraternities have taken against attempts to force them to allow their membership qualifications to be determined from the outside calls for the staunch support of all Pi Beta Phi's. This stand has been sneered at by a few undergraduate journalists as an indication that fraternities "are scared to death about their own future" and are making mountains out of the molehills of these coercive demands by some student bodies and by the National Student Association that no fraternity set up any membership requirements which seem to these groups "discriminatory." Fraternities are interested in self-preservation, yes; because they believe in the infinite value of what they give to their own members and through them to the college campuses and the civic communities in which they live. But their firm stand for the right of freedom of assembly has back of it a realization that infinitely much more than the survival of fraternities is involved; the future of Americanism is at stake.

On some campuses, newspaper propaganda aimed at active chapter members has urged them to ignore their national officers, fraternity regulations, and National Panhellenic Conference rulings, saying that they should make decisions on the basis of local opinions and preferences only. Loyalty to oneself as well as to one's fraternity demands that undergraduate fraternity members make it very clear that they realize that with their privilege of national affiliation came national obligations which they assumed voluntarily and both wish and expect to honor. A campus on which all decisions are made solely upon the basis of local sentiment should offer local affiliations only since its students are not yet ready for broad responsibilities and privileges such as those of national fraternity membership.

While there has been some undesirable fraternity publicity in low grade fiction and in Life, attacks upon fraternities have, according to Mr. L. G. Balfour, Chairman of I.R.A.C., been fewer than in recent years. May the Grand President remind all Pi Beta Phi's that the policy of the fraternity and that of all NPC fraternities is against any publicity whatever in Life and the other magazines of its type? Life, for example, has never yet given wholly desirable publicity to any college or to any fraternity. The chance that it will change its ways is too slight to make it acceptable for any Pi Beta Phi to be included in its campus presentations.

The Grand President's annual message might be called her "Report on the State of the Nation," and she has very great pride in what she can say if continued strength shown in unexcelled campus representation by active chapters, recognized leadership in the fraternity field, and prestige which is the result of more than eighty-three years of established high goals and exceptional achievements. Since Pi Beta Phi publishes in its annual Information Number of the ARROW the detailed reports of all officers and standing committees, it should not be seriously handicapped by the fact that only a very few reports are read at conventions. No summaries by the Grand Vice-President and the Grand President, however, can possibly give an at all inclusive understanding of the organization, aims, and accomplishments of the alumnae clubs and the active chapters of the fraternity or of what these mean to the fraternity as such. No member of the fraternity should be willing not to read carefully the reports of all officers and the minutes of Grand Council meetings and convention. Few fraternities make it so easy for their members to be intelligent about themselves.

The delegates' reports speak for themselves of the effective work of chapters and of the recognitions which have come to them. It seems to the Grand President that, exceedingly gratifying though the annual confidential reports from Deans of Women consistently are, those reports, this year, indicate the highest degree of effective meeting of responsibility which chapters as a whole have ever attained. The appreciation for the national fraternity, its methods, and its high standards which is so evident in the Deans' comments is another cause for extreme gratitude and pride. Not all chapters measure up to the fraternity's scholastic ideal for them—which is that each girl's grades shall represent her best scholastic ability and shall prove that she is assuming her personal responsibility as a student—but there is reason for much pride in the record of eighteen first places on the comparative lists of fraternities for the full college year of 1948-49, the latest for which statistics are available, a gain of five first places over the immediately preceding year. The national goal—every Pi Beta Phi chapter in the upper third of its comparative list—is one which is perfectly possible of achievement and the only one, really, which is worthy of the fraternity. Each delegate should go home determined that her chapter will not accept from its members scholarship which gives it a less worthy place on its campus and in the fraternity.

The contacts between active chapters and province and national officers have for the most part been close and effective. The interim meeting of Grand Council members and province officers and the province conferences of Province Presidents and chapter presidents and pledge supervisors have resulted in improvements in techniques, the setting of constantly higher goals, and a deepened understanding of fraternity policies. This Convention must consider, however, the question of continuing these interim conferences in the light of the great expense which they involve. The Grand President of another strong fraternity recently wrote, "Like all fraternities, we are having endowment troubles," due to the fact that even though endowments have been built up faster than financial experts expected, the interest does not carry the greatly increased running expenses of the fraternity. No other women's fraternity, apparently, has the background of endowment funds which Pi Beta Phi has. When these endowments were established, the stable value of the dollar, available interest rates, and relatively low cost of operation made it seem that they could insure the fact that Pi Beta Phi could indefinitely continue to function successfully without adding to its extremely low national financial requirements from active chapters. It was thought that the annual, automatic growth of the Contingent Fund Endowment, for example, would adequately take care of the increased annual cost due to the growth of the fraternity. The devaluation of the dollar to the point where it represents approximately half of its once stable value of one hundred cents and the resulting inevitable increases in all costs mean that each year the Contingent Fund is using up more and more of the surplus accumulated during past years and that the Convention Fund can no longer be expected to take care of conventions and biennial Chapter Presidents' conferences. Convention registration fees, even at this year's figure, are exceedingly low for NPC fraternities, one of which last year had a registration fee of forty dollars and several of which, this year, have fees of from fifteen to twenty dollars. When Grand Council's recommendation for a pledge fee is presented to Convention for its action, more detailed explanations will be given. The recommendation is made with reluctance but with a realization that unless some new source of income is established, it will be increasingly difficult for Pi Beta Phi to continue to make its work of internal supervision and help as effective as it now is and as it should be. Active chapter delegates should weigh the effects of the presidents' conferences in greater efficiency and finer fraternity spirit in their respective chapters against the problems which a national pledge fee would entail for them. For many years, Pi Beta Phi has been the only NPC fraternity without annual active dues and with a total payment by actives which is below the amount collected by other nationals for their combined initiation fees, other required payments, and annual dues. Apparently even Pi Beta Phi cannot meet greatly increased operational costs without some increase in active member payments, and a national pledge fee seems preferable to an increase in the initiation fee.

Pi Beta Phi's Settlement School, its memorial to its Founders and their gift to the fraternity, continues to deserve the place which it holds in the hearts of Pi Beta Phis. It is still a living memorial—one not static in its service but expanding and changing that service to meet changing needs and opportunities. Even with the increased State aid which Tennessee now gives its schools, it would be impossible for Sevier County to maintain an accredited school system at Gatlinburg were it not for Pi Beta Phi's assuming full responsibility for the departments of music, art, physical education, wood work, and health. The relations between the community and the Settlement School are increasingly a cause for gratification, as the community becomes more articulate about its appreciation. The wonderfully effective and wise Settlement School Committee, working under the chairmanship of Ruth Barrett Smith and the treasurership of Olivia Smith Moore, has given the Fraternity unexcelled representation in all matters relating to the Settlement School. The Fraternity, this year, lost from the committee at the conclusion of five years of outstanding service, Eugenia Brooks Smith, whose successor is Nellis Hemple Gibson of the Baltimore Alumnae Club. The fraternity can feel a very special pride in the summer workshop for handcrafters which is the result of co-operation between the University of Tennessee and the Settlement School and which is meaning a continent-wide constructive service to the cause of hand crafts and an equally wide-spread recognition for Pi Beta Phi as a leader in that field.

Holt House, the significant memorial to the founding of Pi Beta Phi, continues to delight all those, Pi Phis and non-Pi Phis, who are privileged to enjoy its warm and gracious hospitality. This expression of sentiment has nothing of sentimentality associated with it. It is a beautiful and worthy reminder of the days when our beloved Founders were college undergraduates, very like undergraduates of today, and when Pi Beta Phi had only one tiny chapter—the forerunner of the ninety-seven active chapters which today keep Pi Beta Phi first among fraternities.

The Harriet Johnstone Scholarships, which the 1948 Convention established, have had gratifying support from active chapters with the result that in 1949, the fraternity was able to grant five $300 undergraduate scholarships. While improved economic conditions in Europe have resulted in a somewhat lessened need for help to children in war-torn countries, the hearts of Pi Beta Phis are still touched by individual instances of acute need and are warmed by the thought that they can bring happiness to little children whose lives are even yet filled with uncertainty, deprivation, and insecurity. Many Pi Phis, too, have become so attached to their little Pirkkos or Arnos that they are unwilling to lose touch with them even when actual crises are past. During the year 1949-50, eight active chapters and five alumnae clubs gave full sponsorships and others shared children whose sponsorships had to come from a combination of small gifts. All in all, Pi Beta Phi contributed more than $2300 to Save the Children, this year, and so strengthened the bonds of world friendship. One can only guess at the additional boxes of gifts and clothing which told of Pi Beta Phi thoughtfulness and generosity.

Pi Beta Phi's extension has continued to be consistent and conservative, as it has held to its accepted policy of taking no new group just for numbers, of accepting the petitions only of groups which have proved themselves capable of becoming strong chapters, and of keeping in touch with general extension trends and newly opening fields. The past year saw chapters installed at the University of Alabama, in response to the expressed wishes of the 1948 Convention, and at the San Diego State College and Santa Barbara College, campuses newly opened for nationalization. All new chapters are giving the fraternity distinguished representation on campuses of importance both now and for the future. The Grand President cannot refrain from expressing her interest in Phi Chi of Davis and Elkins College, which will petition this Convention. For the past several years she has known this group through correspondence and from those contacts she has developed an appreciation for Phi Chi and its college which makes her feel confident that they offer a true opportunity for wise Pi Beta Phi extension.

The regret which Pi Beta Phi feels at the decision of Goucher College that national fraternities may no longer maintain chapters on its campus is as great as is its pride in the long record of fine service to Goucher and to the fraternity by Pi Beta Phi actives and alumnae of Maryland Alpha. What a comfort lies in the knowledge that being a Pi Beta Phi is a thing of life-long happiness!

The national awards for chapter and individual excellence will be announced at the Convention banquet. This year, for the first time, the Theta Province Award for Chapter Improvement, a handsome sterling silver bowl presented to the fraternity by Vera Lee Moss, former Theta Province President, will be announced. The Province winners of the Amy Burnham Onken awards are as follows:

Alpha East—Jean Ritchie, Vermont Beta.

Lambda—Joan Minnaugh, Oregon Alpha.
Mu—Jacqueline Yarbrough, California Delta.

The Pi Beta Phi Graduate Fellowship for 1950-51 will be held by Dorothy Davis Randall, Missouri Gamma.

As Pi Beta Phi's delegate to National Panhellenic Conference, the Grand President has sincerely tried to make a constructive contribution to the cause of fraternities and to make evident always Pi Beta Phi's true Panhellenic interest. At present, she is serving as the Committee on Education and as the Contact Member for the National Council of Women of the United States. Her interest in City Panhellenics remains great even though pressure of work made it impossible for her to add membership on that committee to the other assignments so she feels a special pride in the several newly organized and affiliated City Panhellenics which are the result of the interest and effort of Pi Beta Phi alumnae. At the special invitation of the chairmen of the Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council and the National Committee of College Fraternities and Societies, she attended the annual meetings of these two inter-Panhellenic groups, in April. The value of these groups and of the service which they give to colleges, fraternities, and honor societies is increasingly evident.

During the year, just ended, the Grand President has been privileged to install California Epsilon, California Zeta, and Alabama Beta and to enjoy cherished fellowship with the loyal local Pi Phis who made each installation a rare and treasured fraternity experience. At the time of the Santa Barbara installation, she was honored by the alumnae clubs in the Los Angeles area at a Panhellenic tea whose beautiful decorative scheme of camellias was breathtaking and whose Pi Phi spirit was heartwarming. She was privileged at that time, too, to meet with the officers and the Executive Committee of the Los Angeles Alumnae Club and to share their pleasure in a delightful luncheon given by its president, Ethel Hogan Copp; to have dinner with California Gamma; and to be very conscious of California Delta's warmth of hospitality. She has visited officially New York Alpha, Gamma, and Delta; Tennessee Alpha, Beta, and Gamma; Colorado Alpha; and Kentucky Alpha, and has loved her contacts with them and with their alumnae. Because this would be the last Founders' Day for Maryland Alpha as an active chapter, Grand Council allowed the Grand President to accept that chapter's invitation to share its celebration and she gained a deep inspiration and pleasure from this opportunity to be with Maryland Alpha, the Baltimore alumnae, and Maryland Beta and to be welcomed too by D.C. Alpha whose members she unfortunately didn't have an opportunity to see. She was the guest speaker at the Panhellenic Workshop at the University of Tennessee and found it a most valuable and valued experience. A conflict in dates makes it impossible for her to accept an invitation to speak at the Phi Sigma Sigma convention, in June, but she will speak at the Panhellenic dinner in connection with the convention of Delta Sigma Epsilon, in Chicago, in August. These evidences of inter-fraternity friendship mean much to her, and she hopes to represent Pi Beta Phi acceptably. She found a deep pleasure in going to Kansas City for its beautiful Founders' Day banquet at which she shared an abiding inspiration with the Kansas City Alumnae Club, members of other alumnae clubs in the vicinity and practically the complete active chapters of Missouri Alpha, Missouri Gamma, Kansas Alpha, and Kansas Beta. There are no words to express the warmth of Pi Beta Phi hospitality or what it means in happiness for your Grand President.

May the Grand President, once again, express her deep appreciation for the heartening support and the real joy which have come to her in working closely with the national and province officers who have so endeared themselves to her and in knowing that back of them and of her have been the countless, equally devoted chapter and alumnae club officers, the standing committee members, the alumnae advisory committee members, and the faithful, individual actives and alumnae whose constant hard work and loyalty are the true source of the fraternity's greatness. For these, for the opportunity to serve Pi Beta Phi, and for the privilege of being a part of a fraternity which so consciously strives towards its ideals of beautiful and purposeful living, she is increasingly grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN
Grand President, Pi Beta Phi

MESSAGE OF THE GRAND VICE-PRESIDENT

To the alumnae of Pi Beta Phi:

AT THE National Panhellenic Conference last November one of the speakers used William Allen White's words "I enjoyed Yesterday, I love Today, I am not afraid of Tomorrow." In reviewing the work of the Alumnae Department for the past two years we might well paraphrase those same words and say—We are proud of Yesterday, We worked for Today, We are planning for Tomorrow.

We ARE proud of yesterday. We are proud of the rich heritage which is ours in the high ideals which our Founders have given us, in the privilege of membership in the first national fraternity for women, and in the many other "firsts" which belong to Pi Beta Phi because of their vision, and the vision and leadership of those who have followed them. As for today—a review of the accomplishments of the past two years is convincing evidence that we HAVE worked. If we put first things first we must consider membership, for the measure of your success in interesting a large percentage of your membership is felt in so many other ways. Some one said "Your organization will take full advantage of its assets only when it keeps its full membership" as active members, and we are proud indeed to pay special tribute to our hundred percenters—four of them new clubs. They are: Oxford, Ohio; Southeastern Indiana; Shelbyville, Indiana; Lakeland, Florida; Pensacola, Florida; Avon, Illinois; Carthage, Illinois; Hutchinson, Kansas; Manhattan, Kansas; Lawrence, Kansas; Lake Charles, Louisiana; McAlester, Oklahoma; Midland, Texas; Osceola, Arkansas; Pauls Valley, Oklahoma; Wenatchee, Washington; Solano County, California; and Roswell, New Mexico. It is of interest to note that for as far back as records are available the Lakeland, Florida Club has been 100% in membership!

Currently 118 clubs, not including the new ones, had an enlarged membership. Three more clubs have moved into the over 100 member category this year, making a total of 19, and Los Angeles continues to be in the over 200 group. The eleven provinces showing a gain are: Alpha East, Beta, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, Zeta, Eta, Iota, Kappa, Lambda, and Mu.

Some of these gains can be attributed to the thirty-one clubs chartered in the two year interim, sixteen of them becoming actively participating groups this year. We welcomed into the fraternity the following alumnae clubs: Midland, Texas, with twenty-four members; Centinela Valley, California, with twenty members; Roswell, New Mexico, with eleven members; Amarillo, Texas, with thirty-six members; Lexington, Kentucky, with twelve members; Klamath Falls, Oregon, with twelve members; Pensacola, Florida, with nineteen members; The Palm Beaches, Florida, with eighteen members; Hudson River, New York, with fifteen members; Lubbock, Texas, with fourteen members; Solano County, California, with ten members; Sioux Falls, South Dakota, with ten members; Springfield, Ohio, with sixteen members; and Lake County, Florida, with thirteen members.

But unfortunately we must take four steps backward with the loss of our four clubs at the end of this year—Northern Indiana; Crowley Ridge, Arkansas; El Dorado, Arkansas; and Rio Grande Valley, Texas, so that we end the year with 241 clubs on our roster.

A great many clubs indicate their concern over their inability to enlist as active members a larger percent of the resident alumnae. This is not a new problem, and we strive constantly to find the answer.

We have wondered if part of the fault has not been in the kind of training, or lack of it, we give our active members. This year this became the topic for one of the required Pi Phi Night programs. The chapter chairmen were asked to send their reports to this office and the best one was selected from among them by a committee headed by Emilie Margaret White, former Grand Vice-President; and working with her was Nell Anderson Spruce, former Gamma Province President and Vice-President, and Beatrice Tait Trussell, past president of the Washington Alumnae Club and member of the Maryland Beta Alumnae Advisory Committee. The award goes to Oregon Gamma chapter.

These reports show an awakening to the problem, and offer such suggestions as more frequent contacts with alumnae for more purely social occasions, alumnae sponsors for pledges, a fuller knowledge of what alumnae clubs do, interchange of actives at alumnae club meetings, and alumnae at active chapter meetings, and newsletters with an alumnae section.

This year 868 seniors paid alumnae dues, and it is to be hoped that this program will have stimulated their desire to affiliate with their local club and that the clubs will go out of their way to welcome them and find a place for them to serve their fraternity as alumnae members.

The companion of membership is attendance. The best way to keep attendance high is by having set dates for meetings so that time can be set aside for them with fewer resulting conflicts of obligations. Programs should be planned to appeal actively to all age and interest groups. Material for two of the required meetings was sent out from Central Office this year—one written by the National Historian dealing with the 1888 Convention, and the other written by Marjorie Chalmers, nurse at the Settlement School, giving a word picture of a typical day at the School Health Center. Both of these were used extensively by a large majority of the clubs, and a desire has been expressed for more of this type of program aids. The Year Books received from 148 clubs showed variety in program, and ingenuity in make up. Founders' Day programs in Tacoma and Honolulu had added meaning for their members in that they had as speakers children of Founders. Cleon Soule, son of Inez Smith Soule was the guest of the Tacoma Club, and Mrs. Martin Anderson, daughter of Libbie Brook Gaddis, was the guest of the Honolulu Pi Phis.

The real work for the fraternity came with support given to the projects of Pi Beta Phi. The words of praise for our Settlement School spoken at the meeting of National Panhellenic Conference last fall still ring in our ears and make one realize that the first philanthropic project of any NPC group remains first.

Eight clubs contributed over $200.00 to the Settlement School. For the fourth consecutive year St. Louis has given $1,000.00. Other high contributors are Philadelphia, Pennsylvania giving $500.00; Kansas City, Missouri, and Cleveland East, Ohio each $300.00; Milwaukee, Wisconsin $225.00; Lafayette, Indiana $203.51; and Denver, Colorado and Indianapolis, Indiana $200.00.

A number of clubs remembered the School at special times during the year. Many boxes of toys, candies, and clothing were received at Christmas time, and helped to make this special day one of happiness for the children. Cincinnati continued its annual custom of sending a box of athletic equipment. Westchester again used meeting time to sew on layettes for the Health Center. Other clubs sent books for the Grace Goodhue Coolidge Library, money for the purchase of records for the music appreciation programs, and maps for class work. The Memorial Fund has had an even wider appeal for those who like living memorials and gifts of remembrance.

Another year, another increase for the business of the Magazine Agency—that most painless of all ways of earning money for the School. Total commissions realized on magazine sales for the year amounted to $10,724.69 earned by subscriptions sent in by 210 clubs and 89 chapters. Congratulations to the following winners of the sales contest;

For highest total commissions

Dallas, Texas Alumnae Club, Mrs. Chester R. Cole, Chairman, commissions $457.22 Maryland Beta, Letitia Earll, Chairman, commissions $154.50

For highest per capita commissions

San Jose, California, Miss Ida Karsten, Chairman, commissions per capita $6.60 Maryland Beta, Letitia Earll, Chairman, commissions per capita $3.96

For greatest percentage increase

Mobile, Alabama, Mrs. R. W. Deshon, Chairman, percent of increase 12,833.33% Alabama Beta, Beverly Goodwin, Chairman, percent of increase 12,833.33%

There were many more Arrowcraft sales this year with 74 of them realizing a larger gross profit than last year. Of this number 9 paid Arrowcraft over $1,000.00 after deducting their 25% profit. They are as follows: Houston, Texas; Champaign-Urbana, Illinois; Portland, Oregon; Albuquerque, New Mexico; Marin County, California; Denver, Colorado; Cleveland East, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; and Omaha, Nebraska.

Several sales were unique in their approach. One club held their sale in conjunction with a benefit square dance, another displayed and sold the products in the lobby of a theater during a benefit performance. Invitations to place downtown window displays were accepted in several instances. A few clubs have changed from a fall pre-Christmas sale to one in the spring that might also be used as rushing—some have both. Arrowcraft not only has invitations for such sales available for club use at a small fee, but this year have added posters which may be used to publicize their sale. Pre-sale meetings have been held as refresher courses for our members so that they might be able not only to answer questions, but to be ambassadors of good will for the School, and in a larger sense for the fraternity system, in letting non-fraternity people know that we are not a purely social organization.

We wonder if we fully realize what a tremendous value this sort of publicity has had for Pi Beta Phi over the years. One club in searching for a local project interviewed a professional social worker about possibilities, only to be asked why they were even thinking of another project when they had their own Settlement School. Her comments about the School were so full of praise for the nature and calibre of our service that the club gave up any idea of a local project and turned their efforts to support of our own already established one.

We can best sum up our work for the Settlement School by repeating the words of Elizabeth Clarke Helmick, an early Committee Chairman as she spoke at the Washington, D.C. Founders' Day luncheon this year. She said "Dreams can come true."

The Holt House film, which has circulated among the clubs has increased the knowledge of and appreciation for this possession of the fraternity. Twenty-four clubs increased their donation while others gave their customary amounts. This year there have been many fewer token gifts. Iowa City, Iowa, and Kansas City, Missouri, led the fraternity in their gifts of $50.00 each.

This is the second year that the Emma Harper Turner Fund has been included in the three projects for 100% recognition for clubs. The growing appreciation for this project with its two fold purpose of assisting chapters with their building programs through loans, and of extending a helping hand to those in special need by means of gifts to them out of the fund built up by interest on the chapter house loans is evidenced by the fact that forty clubs increased their donations. Special mention should go to St. Louis for their gift of $350.00; to Kansas City, Missouri for $100.00; to Portland, Oregon and Berkeley, California for $50.00; and to the following clubs for their contributions of $25.00 each, Columbus, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Washington, D.C. Senior Club; Detroit, Michigan; San Mateo, and Los Angeles, California.

The following provinces were 100% in support of these projects: Alpha-East, Beta, Delta, Theta, Iota, Lambda, and Mu.

This record for our three projects is all the more amazing in view of the authorized campaign for funds for the proposed Home for Pi Beta Phi. Gifts to this fund have come from individuals contacted by local chairmen for the drive as well as actual club gifts earned by the project method. Some clubs are holding funds earmarked for later contributions. Clubs sending $200.00 or more are as follows; Long Beach, California $774.90; Glendale, California $683.30; North Shore, Illinois Senior $600.00; San Fernando, California $500.00; Chicago South, Illinois $460.00; Cleveland East, Ohio $350.00; Pasadena, California $350.00; Omaha, Nebraska $250.00; Oak Park-River Forest, Illinois $200.00; Minneapolis Afternoon, Minnesota, $200.00; and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, $200.00.

Comment about this phase of fraternity work would not be complete without words of high praise for the Committee of Five composed of members of the two Cleveland clubs—a job inherited from the last Convention—so ably guided by Mary Wallihan Gibson. Enough cannot be said for the work of the members of the two Cleveland clubs, who worked with this Committee in stuffing, stamping, and sealing the more than 35,000 brochures which went out, telling of the proposed home and enlisting support for it. The work of this Committee has been supplemented by the Committee of Forty. These clubs were designated by last convention and the clubs in turn selected the person to serve. These members have followed up the appeal of the brochure.

Interest in our work through the Save the Children Federation continues. Many clubs and chapters have held partial or full sponsorships and have further added to the care and comfort of these children and their families by the food and clothing sent them. The following clubs have contributed sufficient amounts to hold full sponsorships: Champaign-Urbana, Illinois; Honolulu, T.H.; North Shore, Illinois, Senior; Oak Park-River Forest, Illinois, and Tulsa, Oklahoma. Berkeley, California has given more than enough to care for two children for one year.

Space does not permit a review of, or even extended comment about the number or kind of local projects carried on or supported by our clubs. There are those giving money, others volunteering time and effort, while some give both. These, like our Settlement School sales, are good public relations, to say nothing of the joy one feels in the doing.

Our greatest delight is our work with and for our chapters—in helping with rushing, in serving on Advisory Committees and House Corporations, in helping raise funds for building or repairing or just adding some item of furniture or equipment, but most of all in just knowing them for the fine young women they are, and taking pride in their accomplishments, and the honor they bring to Pi Beta Phi. Perhaps the two significant gifts to chapters are the $1,000.00 given by Junior Groups—if you please—to Texas Beta by the Dallas group, and to Indiana Epsilon by the Indianapolis group. A special mark of interest in the active chapters is the awarding of the Ruth Barrett Smith Scholarship to an undergraduate by the Alumnae Department. This is the third year this award has been made and goes to Cheryl Bastian, Ohio Delta, for 1950-51.

No less important but falling into a more regular pattern in the plans of clubs is the celebration of Chapter Loyalty Day, and the recognition and honoring of our members of The Order of The Golden Arrow. As Grand Council went over the applications for the Harriet Johnston Scholarships they were touched by the fine quality of the girls and the representation which they make for Pi Beta Phi on their campuses. It seemed an idea for the future that individuals or clubs might express loyalty to their chapters on Chapter Loyalty Day by remembering this fund which makes possible the continuation of education for a number of girls whose service to their chapters might otherwise be lost.

It is a matter of considerable pride that our alumnae continue to fill positions of leadership in City Panhellenic affairs, and have in many instances been the instigators and leaders in organizing new City Panhellenic groups. The day when we can go our way alone has long since passed, and it is fitting that the pioneer among fraternities for women should find its members working diligently in an organization that contributes to the preservation and strengthening of the whole fraternity system.

In our report last year we spoke of the financial problems of the Alumnae Department. These same problems must be a part of the report of this year.

It was hoped that an increase in the number of paid members might alleviate the condition, but the difference between income and expenses continue to be such that it leaves no choice but the recommendations which are being presented to Convention by Grand Council.

The Province Vice-Presidents have made the majority of their club visits this year, and it is gratifying to see the impetus in effort which these personal contacts give to both the clubs and the officers. We wish to speak a warm word of praise for each alumnae club officer, and the manner in which she has fulfilled the duties of her office. We urge especially that plans for instructing and training new officers be a part of the summer planning of every club. Only in such a way can we be assured of continuity and growth. The same words of praise go to the Province Vice-Presidents. It is through their eyes that your Grand Vice-President and the other members of Grand Council see the individual parts that go to make up the Alumnae Department.

We were greatly disappointed that the Flu germs kept us from visits with Pennsylvania B and I and Ohio E and several alumnae clubs in Beta Province. The pleasure of knowing and being with Ohio A, B, Δ, Z, and West Virginia A and alumnae clubs in Athens and Columbus, Ohio made us regret the more this necessary cancellation of our plans. We are grateful to the Grand Secretary, Mrs. Carson, for making these visits for us on short notice.

We enjoyed the privilege of attending the National Panhellenic Conference last fall, the informal contacts with D.C. A, Maryland B, and Indiana I, and were honored to have had a small part in the final Founders' Day Banquet of Maryland A.

In all of these ways we have worked for Today. And now we are planning for Tomorrow. If each club would examine its own record and then consider the question "What kind of an Alumnae Department would we have if every club was just like ours?" we need have no concern for the future. Many of the plans for Tomorrow will come out of the decisions of this Convention. May these deliberations, then, be marked by the same wisdom and foresight that guided our Founders so that when Tomorrow becomes the past we may continue to say—We are proud of Yesterday.

MARIANNE REID WILD, Grand Vice-President

GRAND SECRETARY

ANOTHER fraternity year has come to an end and the accumulating reports begin to bring its record into focus. Pi Beta Phi with its ninety-seven chapters, its two hundred and forty-one alumnae clubs and its membership of almost fifty thousand could seem to the uninitiated too large to be personal in any way. But this is not true. The most satisfying thing about membership in the fraternity is the constant awareness of the individual and, about working in the fraternity, the awareness of the attitude which the individual takes toward her responsibility to the fraternity.

The Grand Secretary begins the fraternity year with a memory of Grand Council at work as she records the proceedings of the annual meeting. And she closes the year with a study of chapters and clubs at work as she receives the annual reports. One cannot read the ninety-seven reports of the Convention delegates and not be proud of the record of Pi Beta Phi chapters in the year 1949-50. At almost the same time the applications for the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone scholarships have been arriving and again, in the Pi Phi active, we see individual charm, loyalty, service, and scholastic performance—special qualities which seem to mark the wearers of the Arrow on the campuses of our continent. From a third direction have come to the Secretary the reports of national officers and chairmen, setting down their accounts of chapters and clubs. The Pi Phi must read these reports in the ARROW, carefully, if she would know her fraternity as she should, and if she does she will be very proud. The record written there is not an account of the accomplishment of the fraternity's large corps of volunteer workers, although they have had a share in it, but of the day by day performance of every club and every chapter and of their able and devoted membership.

Letters to Alumnae Advisory Committees have been written throughout the year and the annual questionnaire was sent out in January. A preliminary study of replies has been made as they have been returned and the fine cooperation of many in the personal and helpful tone of the completed report has been deeply appreciated. We have almost five hundred women engaged in this close association with our chapters and no one can estimate the hours of service and the importance of the guidance given by these loyal alumnae. In many instances the delegates to Convention have spoken their recognition and appreciation of the faithfulness of alumnae service and devotion.

There have been five chapters in the fraternity this year which have been under the special supervision provided by Grand Council through the Secretary for a period of two years. Washington Gamma and Tennessee Gamma have completed their orientation period and are no longer fledglings. These two chapters have tried their wings and, especially in scholarship, they have lifted them above chapters very much older and more experienced. Alabama B and California E have ended their first year and California Z, one semester. The Alabama B chapter is a new group, colonized by Pi Beta Phi, while the California chapters are in the process of making the transition from strong, long-established locals into the national fraternity. Regular contact has been established with the chapter president, the special supervisor and the chairman of the Alumnae Advisory Committee of these five chapters and a clear picture of each has been maintained through their faithful correspondence. Each group has made progress and will start out in the fall with full assurance.

The Grand Secretary has the privilege of working with the national chairman of the Music, Fraternity Study and Examination, Social Exchange, Chaperon, Transfer and Scholarship Committees. In each case the chairman is experienced in her assignment, having served long enough to know what she wants to do and how to promote her own project. Thus our work together has proved to be less of serious consultation and, more, of mutual encouragement. The material sent out by these chairmen has been studied and their reports and suggestions have been carefully considered. Here, too, if you will read the brief reports of these chairmen you will find a new understanding of detail and results in fields of real value to the fraternity and often little known.

For instance, is there a realization that major emphasis has been placed upon good scholarship throughout the whole fraternity world and that Pi Beta Phi has continued her long-time policy of great emphasis, under a very hard-working chairman? And, the awareness of the widespread development of competitive Song Contests, which have become almost universal, challenging chapters to provide trained leadership and good group singing? And, is there the knowledge that the fraternity keeps track of the individual Pi Phi who leaves her original campus; has developed an extensive program of sharing interesting and successful party, decoration and celebration ideas; keeps a record of chaperons, giving guidance in their duties and relations with chapter and campus, and a reference list of available applicants; and that it studies continually to make the active and pledge examinations really effective toward an informed membership?

The Grand Secretary has kept track of, and arranged for, the moving of the national trophies according to the awards made; has sent out the Cipher and Key as needed; has corresponded with applicants and winners of the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone scholarships, and, fulfilled the recording and correspondence duties of her office.

It was a very great pleasure to accept the assignment to Alpha East Province this year and to visit its seven interesting chapters. The gracious hospitality of these chapters and their Advisory Committees is remembered very gratefully, as is the pleasure in the fellowship enjoyed in the Hartford Alumnae Club and at their City Panhellenic tea. Regretting the illness of Mrs. Wild and the loss to the chapters of her special helpfulness, it was good to be with Pennsylvania Beta and Gamma chapters once again. The Founders' Day celebration with the Bucknell chapter and the Central Pennsylvania Alumnae Club is a happy memory.

This officer was asked to make the inspection visit for Grand Council at Davis and Elkins and enjoyed her contacts with the petitioning group and the administration. The understanding of inter-fraternity problems and inter-fraternity cooperation which comes from attendance at the biennial meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference is invaluable and the one at Skytop, Pennsylvania was no exception in training. A key-note talk before the Bethany College Panhellenic in their first workshop gave opportunity to serve.

The Grand Secretary is deeply grateful for the opportunity of serving her fraternity and of enjoying the precious privilege of many associations, happy and inspiring.

LUCILE DOUGLASS CARSON
Grand Secretary

ARROW EDITOR

THIS year has been one of much interest and much hard work for the ARROW Editor!

We were confronted with the necessity of reducing expenditures, and since printing costs continued to be high, this meant a reduction in the already small number of pages of the ARROW—small, that is, in proportion to the quantity of material that comes in about Pi Phis who are doing things. Adequately to present, or rather, to represent the Fraternity and its doings, would take at least 128 pages. Instead we used 96 pages in December and March, with a rise to 112 pages made necessary for the May issue by the publication of the usual section of pictures of social honor girls—it was interesting that the pictures used were those which came in from well-instructed corresponding secretaries who had read their manuals and complied with them—no special request was sent out, since we knew it would be impossible to use all the pictures it would have called forth. As it was, the task of cutting down the May issue was very difficult, and in the end we were forced to use 112 pages, since to have cut to 96 pages would have required the omission either of the picture section, or of the alumnae club letters. If further cuts must be made for another year, they can only be made by using chapter and alumnae letters only once a year for each—each letter to be made a brief record of the doings of the entire year. Pictures in the feature section, too, have been sacrificed and the magazine would have been less attractive had it not been for the generosity of Mr. Paul Busey, National Auditor and good friend, whose double hobby of photography and Jasper National Park led him to make the ARROW a present of not only the pictures but also the expense of making the cuts which made beautiful the December and May issues, while for the March issue the cuts with the Convention section were supplied by the Canadian National Railway, which has been most cooperative.

In return for Mr. Busey's generosity, we made him Convention photographic editor of the ARROW, and he has great plans for supervising all picture taking for Convention, cooperating with the official photographer of Jasper Lodge. Mr. Busey's lovely colored slides of Jasper were in such demand that he has kept four sets of them circulating all this year, and our people have been charmed with them.

The amount of this year's saving in costs will appear in the report of the Grand Treasurer.

For the past two years we have used two grades of paper in the ARROW, with the object of having the best pictures appear on paper of fine finish which allows for the clearest reproduction of cuts. At its meeting last summer in Decatur Grand Council voted to place the Directory pages, 17 pages of them, at the front of the magazine, and in consequence those routine pages appeared on the good paper, with a corresponding reduction of the pages which allow the best reproduction. We are looking for a solution of this problem, as the use of the more expensive paper is impossible for the entire issue with our present revenues.

It is with pleasure that we can announce that a fraternity Directory will be issued within this year, but with regret must say that owing to a ruling of the Post Office Department, this cannot go out as an issue of the ARROW to all of our 40,600 subscribers. After competitive bidding, the contract for printing the large volume which this will mean, even with only two sections, geographical and alphabetical, has been let to the George Banta Publishing Company, whose bid was the lowest, and whose work for the ARROW is outstanding. Central Office has been working on the material for the Directory all this year, gathering data and training personnel in the operation of the new machines. The printing will be done by an entirely new process, using the veritytype machines to set the pages, and the offset presses for printing them, with a considerable saving over old methods of typesetting. The Directory will be issued to all those who have had the cost of a Directory included in their initiation fee but have never received a Directory issue; to all chapters; to all alumnae clubs; to all officers for their official files. For all other members the Directory will be on sale at Central Office, the price $2.00 covering the bare cost.

It is with regret that the Editor hears that Lorraine Peters, National Director of Publicity is resigning. Her work has been outstanding, her releases interesting and welcomed by clubs and chapters.

The Editor's contacts with the National Historian and her assistant have been an inspiration as always. Mrs. Simmons has her office splendidly organized, her material accessible and well-protected—but more than that she brings to it a real love for fraternity history and tradition and a real desire to do careful research on doubtful points which come up in connection with the early history. She has besides done excellent service in visiting clubs on their invitation, giving talks on the history in an always charming and interesting manner. Her assistant, Mrs. Delaney, has her files of chapter histories well organized, but they are outgrowing all possibility of storing them indefinitely. The subject was discussed, and the Editor's conclusion is that some new plan must be devised for taking care of this storage problem—perhaps to have chapter historians prepare along with their histories a brief resume of the year, no more than a page, to be kept in the national files for possible future reference—the original of the History to be returned to the chapter for its files when the national competition has been decided. The Editor recommends that some such plan be discussed by Grand Council.

This year has been made a very full and happy one by the work of supervision of California E—with never a dull moment, and very few idle ones! It has been fascinating to watch the development of the new chapter. Their cooperation has been fine, her association with them a joy. A new and larger room has been secured, and will be furnished and equipped during the summer. This Spring the editor has tried more and more to make the chapter and advisory board independent of her, and will continue that policy for the second year of her work.

The meeting of the Editors' Conference at the time of NPC was interesting as usual, and the enlargement of its numbers along with the new members of NPC brought new viewpoints that were worthwhile.

Last summer was spent in preparation for the installation of California E, with Miss Onken's visit to install the new chapter as its climax. It was a privilege, too, to attend the installation of California Z in February, again as assistant to Miss Onken.

During the Spring chapter visits were made to Utah A (which has been under the special supervision of the Editor for the past year), and to Arkansas A, Oklahoma A and B, Louisiana A and B, Texas A and B. A schedule complicated by varying dates of Spring vacations made it impossible to accept several alumnae club invitations in Kappa Province, but it was a pleasure to have luncheon with the Fayetteville club; a dinner in Tulsa with a group of alumnae; a dinner and evening with Stillwater alumnae; dinner in Oklahoma City with a large group; Founders' Day luncheon with the Texarkana Club; luncheon and Founders' Day dinner with the new club in Bryan-College Station; dinner in Austin at Dorothy Thrasher's with 200 chapter and alumnae club members; Founders' Day with Fort Worth club; and finally Founders' Day with the Dallas club, at the Dallas Country Club with more than 200 present. All these visits were made happy by the wonderful spirit and loyalty of these Pi Phis—for all this the Editor is grateful.

We are grateful, too, to all who have helped the ARROW during this busy year; to the faithful ARROW staff; to Grand Council for its unfailing support; to Harold Bachmann of the Banta Publishing company for much fine work this year.

It is a privilege as always to have served Pi Beta Phi.

ADELE TAYLOR ALFORD

REPORT OF THE GRAND TREASURER

August 29, 1950

BESIDES duties directly connected with finance, and correspondence in regard to loans and fraternity matters, the Grand Treasurer visited the six chapters of Zeta Province the last two weeks in October, attended the N.P.C. meeting at Skytop, Pennsylvania in November and visited Colorado B the first of May. It was her good fortune to represent the fraternity at the Centennial celebration of the founding of the University of Utah in Salt Lake the last of February and while there she was entertained by Utah A and its Alumnae Advisory Committee, and during the year she met with the following alumnae clubs: Birmingham, Atlanta, Orlando, Northern New Jersey, and Fort Collins.

The letter about national finances for Parents of Actives and Pledges was revised, a letter was written in the fall to chapter treasurers, and a statement written on Instructions on Finance for National Committees handling money. In January a letter was sent to all Canadian chapters and alumnae clubs calling attention to directions concerning Canadian fees and contributions. It has been a privilege to serve the fraternity.

My records for the year have been reviewed by Ernst & Ernst, Certified Public Accountants, and the contents of their REPORT OF EXAMINATION AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA is reproduced on pages 45-53.

Respectfully submitted,
LOLITA S. PROUTY

Grand Council
Pi Beta Phi Fraternity
Office of Grand Treasurer
Denver, Colorado

WE HAVE examined the balance sheet of the Grand Treasurer of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity as of July 31, 1950, and the statements of fund transactions for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in their circumstances.

In prior years, deficits incurred by the Alumnae Fund and the ARROW Publication Fund were absorbed by the Contingent Fund. It is now the policy to allow the deficits in these two funds to remain as such. In addition, the July 31, 1949, deficit, $4,481.99, of the Alumnae Fund was transferred from the Contingent Fund back to the Alumnae Fund.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and the related statements of fund transactions present fairly the position of the Grand Treasurer of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity at July 31, 1950, and the changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied, except as stated in the above paragraph, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

DIRECTOR OF RUSHING AND PLEDGE TRAINING

THE OPPORTUNITY for service to Pi Beta Phi which this past year has given this officer has been a source of real pleasure to her. The responsibilities of this office have been unusually heavy these past twelve months and many extra hours have been devoted to the work. Two new duties were added last summer, the organization and planning of the new set-up for the State Rush Chairmen and the preparation of four uniform Pi Phi Night Programs for the chapters.

There are two factors of great importance to the future strength and high standard of Pi Beta Phi; wise choice of new members after a well planned, ethical rush and the early training of pledges in the high ideals and history of our fraternity. Always, we strive to select girls who meet only the highest standards of fine character, intelligence, and moral integrity. As we receive these girls into the bonds of friendship we must recognize our responsibilities toward them. We must give them a well planned, carefully supervised pledge training in order to help them become well-adjusted, mature, loyal and cooperative members of their group. By the time that they have fulfilled all fraternity requirements and are initiated, we expect them to be ready and eager to assume their place of leadership and responsibility in their chapter.

The saying, "as a twig is bent, so grows the tree," applies well to fraternity training of new pledges. Thus the duties which fall upon all officers who work with pledges become especially interesting and challenging ones.

It has been a privilege to work with the fine rush captains and pledge supervisors of our 97 chapters these past twelve months. Their cooperation has been gratifying. Approximately 2,400 new pledges have been reported to this office this year and the required recommendations and consents for each girl have been carefully checked to see that all national requirements have been met. These have been recorded and placed on file. The Director of Rushing and Pledge Training keeps the recommendations and consents of all pledges for a period of two years.

At the 1948 convention, the alumnae department recommended a set-up of State Rush Chairmen. This office planned and organized that new set-up last summer and prepared a manual of the work and duties. This has been planned as an experiment aimed at giving assistance to the rush captains of our chapters in obtaining information on rushees when other sources have failed. Each province in Canada and each state has a State Rush Chairman who has worked under the supervision of this office. The experiment has proven of real value and this assistance to the chapters seems worthy of being continued.

This past year, 1949-50, opened with Grand Council meeting and a Province Officers' workshop. It was the privilege of this officer to plan and conduct the meeting of the Province Presidents.

Out of the Grand Council meeting came the request for some uniform Pi Phi Night Programs. Four such programs were planned and sent out this past year, two for each semester. The programs were prepared as discussion programs and their subjects were as follows:

1. How Can Our Pi Beta Phi Chapter Best Contribute to Life on Our Campus?
2. Courtesy and Consideration of Others Week (a week devoted to practicing little courtesies followed by a planned chapter discussion).
3. Soon You Will Be an Alumna.
4. A Year-end Inventory of Our Chapter.

The program chairmen reported to this officer following each program. The report on the third program went directly to Marianne Reid Wild who generously offered an award for the best report.

The Director of Rushing and Pledge Training had the pleasure of visiting the eight chapters of Delta Province last fall. The Indiana chapters were visited in October and the Michigan chapters in November. It was a joy to have this opportunity to meet and learn to know so many fine Pi Beta Phis, both active and alumnae.

It was an honor to have been asked by Michigan B to be guest speaker at their annual Initiation-Senior Farewell Banquet on May 13. At noon this officer was also invited to be present at the Golden Arrow Luncheon honoring nine Golden Arrow Pi Phis.

Immediately following the visits to the Indiana chapters in October, this officer joined the other members of Grand Council at Skytop, Pennsylvania, to attend the National Panhellenic Conference. This proved to be a valuable and interesting experience.

During the winter, a revision of the manual of the Chapter Delegate to Convention was completed. This revision incorporated suggestions and recommendations from a questionnaire of the delegates of the 1948 convention.

The required health certificates for all employees handling food in our Pi Beta Phi chapter houses were received, recorded and placed in the files of this office.

During the year, a great amount of individual correspondence has been cared for, but the satisfaction that comes from having given service to a cause so worthy is, in return, full recompense for any amount of time and labor spent.

I am deeply grateful for this opportunity to serve Pi Beta Phi and to work with so many wonderful Pi Phis. It is my firm belief that if we choose our members intelligently and educate them wisely, we can continue in the way that our Founders intended us to go. We shall surely continue to be the pioneers—the leaders among educated women of the world today and in the future.

CLARA HALL SIPHERD

★ "If we are to achieve security and stability in this period of crisis the matter must be resolved by hard-headed thinking based on the kind of thinking women do best," said Dr. Raymond B. Allen, President of the University of Washington, in his address to the Pi Beta Phi convention. "This kind of thinking puts its highest premium on human values and resists to the last any weakening or betrayal of its essential dignity."

DIRECTOR OF EXTENSION

LIKE all Pi Beta Phi officers, the Director of Extension has had a busy and interesting year, beginning in June when she presided over the meetings of the province Vice-Presidents at the workshop for province officers which was held in Decatur during the annual meeting of Grand Council.

In October visits were made to Lambda Province where as the guest of Montana A; Idaho A; Washington A, B, and I; Oregon A, B, and I; and Alberta A she enjoyed the warm hospitality of those chapters and the breath-taking scenery of the North-West. There were opportunities for many pleasant contacts with alumnae, and meetings of the Portland, Everett, and Seattle Clubs were especially enjoyed. A most delightful week-end was spent in the home of Louise Dobler, Province Vice-President, who was kind enough to drive the visitor to Seattle. There during the chapter visit she had the pleasure of having dinner with Emily Draper, Lambda Province President, and her husband.

It was a matter of regret that her decision to make these visits in the fall prevented the Director of Extension from attending the National Panhellenic Conference at Skytop.

Later in the spring additional chapter visits were made to two chapters in her own province—Missouri Alpha and Beta, which of course were delightful.

Reports from chapters were received each semester from chapter treasurers of delinquencies, and a check was made to see that constitutional requirements concerning them were met.

Sixteen new clubs were chartered this year but since three became inactive, the real gain was only eleven. In Alpha West Hudson River was chartered; in Beta, Springfield, Ohio; in Delta, Hammond and Muncie, Ind.; in Epsilon, Lexington, Ky.; in Zeta, Pensacola, the Palm Beaches and Lake County, Florida; in Kappa, Midland, Amarillo, and Lubbock, Texas; in Lambda, Klamath Falls, Oregon; and in Mu, Centinela, Salano County, California, and Roswell, New Mexico. Those surrendering their charters were Northern Indiana; Crowley Ridge, Arkansas; El Dorado, and Rio Grande, Texas.

Extension was a very active issue this year, with the campuses of state teachers' colleges becoming eligible for NPC groups. Pi Beta Phi was contacted by local sororities, or inquiry was made by alumnae or college authorities regarding the possibility of the fraternity establishing a chapter on these campuses:

University of Florida—Gainesville, Florida
Ball State College—Muncie, Indiana
Southeast Missouri State College—Cape Girardeau, Missouri
University of Pennsylvania—Philadelphia
North Texas State College—Denton
Fresno State College—Fresno
Indiana State College—Terra Haute
Western Michigan College—Kalamazoo
Hartwich College—Oneonta
Bowling Green University—Bowling Green, Ohio
Pennsylvania State Teachers College—Indiana, Pennsylvania

As directed by the French Lick Convention two campuses were examined to find out whether extension was desirable on either or both. At the time Grand President reported that Panhellenic felt that due to the drop in enrollment there were as many fraternities for women as the campus could support. At the University of Kentucky, inquiries were made of the university authorities by Pi Phi alumnae who reported that general feeling was that no more groups should come on that campus at the present time.

As a result of the contacts made during the past two years it was decided by action of Grand Council that inspection of the local group at Davis and Elkins at Elkins, West Virginia, should be arranged. Therefore visits to that campus were made by the Grand Secretary, Lucile Carson; Jean Gustkey, Beta Province President; and the eight chapters in Beta Province. Following favorable reports made on the group by these visitors, Grand Council decided unanimously to allow Phi Chi to petition Convention. Therefore a booklet of information and an exhibit has been prepared by the group to be presented at this convention.

There are many rewards in working for the fraternity, but perhaps chief among these rewards is the knowledge that as an officer of Pi Beta Phi, one is helping to promote a way of living for college women which will make them finer citizens. A more selfish one is the satisfaction of being in touch with such pleasant people.

As always it has been a privilege to work with the Fraternity with its conscientious officers and delightful membership.

COUNSELOR FOR CHAPTER HOUSE CORPORATIONS

D. R. G. HERBERT SMITH, President of Willamette University and President of Beta Theta Pi, said in his address before the Pi Beta Phi 1948 Convention that one of the greatest fraternity problems in the next few years would be housing. If the amount of correspondence of the Counselor for Pi Beta Phi House Corporations during the two years since that statement was made is an indication, housing for Pi Beta Phi chapters is a big problem, but it is being met and solved as rapidly and efficiently as seems advisable. The alumnae personnel of our sixty house corporations deserve great commendation for the way in which they meet housing problems as they arise, and the treasurers are deserving of praise for keeping the finances of these corporations on a sound basis.

Much repair and improvement work and redecoration has been done on all chapter houses since materials have become available. In addition to those mentioned in former reports, the Oklahoma A and Missouri B houses were completely redecorated when the girls returned last fall. The New Mexico A chapter was thrilled to be in their new Lodge for rushing. Ohio Δ's new Lodge was finished and occupied during the year. Maryland B started the college year in the house which had been bought and remodeled during the summer. Michigan I was happily housed in their remodeled apartment house. Illinois H is delighted with a completely remodeled and refurnished house. During the year an addition has been made to the Texas A house giving the chapter a large room with an outside entrance to be used for art work and for making homecoming, rushing, and party decorations. Servant quarters and extra closets are also included.

Two new houses are under construction, one for New York I and one for Indiana E. These include all the latest ideas for chapter houses and will give these chapters housing second to none on their campuses. A large addition is being built to the Oklahoma B house which will change the present structure into a beautiful and commodious house on their fine present location across from the campus. The Wyoming A corporation is remodeling their house so that chapter will come back in the fall to an enlarged and modernized home. The Texas B corporation has plans underway for a large new house on the SMU campus which they hope to have completed by February. The hope for a new house on the lots purchased three years ago may be realized for Idaho A during the next year or two. North Dakota A is considering remodeling plans.

An apartment in a Panhellenic House has been realized by Florida A. Florida B is planning for an addition in which they can serve meals. The rooms used by Alabama A have been redecorated. Alabama B and Washington I, two new chapters, are planning to form house corporations and are working on building funds. Connecticut A will have an apartment in a new residence hall on the campus and is accumulating a fund for furnishings.

This enumeration of housing projects gives some idea of the reason for the large amount of correspondence of the Counselor. In all cases plans for raising house funds from actives and alumnae were suggested to and adopted by chapters and corporations. Budgets were planned so that indebtedness could be amortized. Rules for Fraternity loans were explained. When no house corporation existed, help was given in setting one up. These and numerous other things were discussed in correspondence.

The usual fall letter was sent to all house corporations and in January another letter with the blanks for the annual report went to all corporation treasurers. As the reports were returned, a letter commenting on each report was written to the treasurer concerned. With this went a receipt for the $5.00 fee for the treasurer's $2,000 bond.

As costs for repairs, improvements, furnishings, and taxes have gone up, the amount of rent the chapter pays to the corporation has been increased necessarily in many places. New tax appraisals are adding to already heavy taxes in some places. In a few states fraternity houses are still exempt. The counselor watches carefully to see that the income of each corporation covers the expenditures and advises that the income should be large enough to cover a regular amount placed in a depreciation fund, thus building up a fund for the time when a new house or a big remodeling project is needed. This year Oklahoma B had such a fund which was a great help in financing the remodeling which will make a practically new house.

Michigan I, New York I, Indiana E, Illinois E, and Texas B corporations are to be commended especially for their fine work in raising house funds from alumnae, actives, and parents, in addition to money raising projects put on by actives and clubs.

The Counselor has enjoyed working with the Grand President and the Grand Treasurer, and hopes that she may have been helpful to the alumnae who are doing so much for the Fraternity by managing the building and the financing of chapter houses.

NATIONAL HISTORIAN

THE NITA HILL STARK VASE for the best active chapter history written during the year 1949-1950 has been awarded to Illinois Θ. Illinois Θ's historian was Cathie Calhoun. Her assistant was Thelma Moore.

The award for second place has gone to Kansas B. Kansas B's historian was Joan Newcomer and the pledge historian was Jancey Hunter.

(With the approval of Grand Council, the National Historian and the Assistant National Historian are this year presenting a trophy cup, known as the National Historian's Vase, to be awarded annually to the chapter placing second in the national chapter history competition. Kansas B will be the first chapter to receive this new award.)

The history of Colorado B received honorable mention. Colorado B's historian for the first semester was Marion Brink, with Margie Opie as assistant. The Historian for the second semester was Jo Ann Gohlsen, with Bee Russ as assistant.

In January of this year the Assistant National Historian sent to all active chapter historians a condensed letter of instruction, emphasizing deadlines and outlining basic requirements. As a result there have been fewer inquiries from chapter historians and the histories have shown substantial improvement.

The national archives of the fraternity now contain carbon copies of 1753 chapter semester histories. The total of missing histories from various chapters for the twelve year period is 238. During the current year twelve carbon copies were lent to chapters for copying.

The Assistant National Historian wishes to commend Carol Goltra, historian of Illinois H chapter, for her efforts in copying, and in some instances, compiling, a total of five semester histories which had been missing from previous years. Appreciation is expressed to Ellen Miller Slifer, president of A Province West, for her cooperation throughout the year.

Acquisitions to the National Archives for the year 1949-1950 are as follows:

A photograph of the Lawrence Convention of 1892—from Tella Talbot Clammer (Mrs. George), Iowa B.

A collection of fourteen group and individual photographs of Kansas A chapter members in the 1890s—from Emily Hulme Cooke (Mrs. Thornton), Kansas A.

A collection of five individual and group photographs of charter members of Michigan Beta as they appeared at the time of chartering; three snapshots of the above members taken forty years later; some typewritten notes by Fanny Read Cook concerning the conventions of 1888, 1890, 1892 and 1893; a photograph of the three living charter members of Michigan B, taken at their fiftieth reunion on April 30, 1938—all from Mary Ellen Read, niece of Fanny Read Cook (Mrs. Justin), Michigan B charter, Grand Vice-President from 1901 to 1904.

Program and complete description of Michigan B's 1950 luncheon in honor of its Order of the Golden Arrow Alumnae; group photograph of those attending; memorial tribute to Fanny Read Cook—all from Rebecca Downey White (Mrs. Alfred H.), Colorado B and Michigan B.

(Note: The Historian wishes to take this opportunity to express her appreciation to Mrs. White. The fraternity has no member who takes a greater interest in its history. Her contributions to the already comprehensive history of Michigan Beta, which she herself assembled, continue to arrive every few months.)

I.C. arrow worn by Isabella Love, Kansas A '79, and by Agnes Love Crawford, Kansas A '86—from Elizabeth Crawford Scott (Mrs. Wardner G.), Nebraska B, through the courtesy of Lucille Nitsche Junge (Mrs. Carl L.), Nebraska B, I Province President.

Copy of the first printed ARROW—from Elberta Smith, Illinois E.

Three Kansas A chapter pictures, fully identified, for the years 1916, 1917, and 1918—from Matilda Smithmeyer Longnecker (Mrs. Harold J.), Kansas Alpha.

An extensive collection of biographical notes concerning the life of Emma Harper Turner, former Grand President—from Gertrude Deer Owens (Mrs. Roger B.), Indiana A.

Appreciation is expressed to the following for assistance in gathering information concerning Miss Turner: Irene Hay Hoggatt (Mrs. Wilford J.), Indiana B; Grace McGaw Phelan (Mrs. William), Indiana A; and Eunice McGaw Records (Mrs. Frank S.), Indiana A.

Appreciation is expressed to Jane Griffith Stevens (Mrs. Richard B.), Kansas A, and to Clara Poehler Smithmeyer (Mrs. F. H.), Kansas A, for assistance in identifying old photographs.

The Historian wishes to thank Mary Lou Borders Cook (Mrs. Sam), Kansas A, for her assistance in preparing the very attractive Album of the Founding.

All gifts have been appropriately labeled and complete descriptions have been entered in the archives gift book.

In accordance with Grand Council's request that an historical paper be prepared for clubs and chapters to use as program material, an account of the convention of 1888 was written and mimeographed copies were sent out in the fall to each club and chapter president.

This year much time has been devoted to refileing of the contents of the archives. Hundreds of worn folders have been removed. Much miscellaneous material has been destroyed. Over four hundred new folders with typed labels have been added. The task has not yet been completed.

An extensive exhibit was prepared for display at convention. In addition to items shown at the previous convention, more than a dozen convention group photographs were mounted on mat board and covered with acetate sheeting for display. Two new posters contained photographs and excerpts from the letters of Emma Harper Turner. Photographs of the Founders were shown in a new album. The archives collection of jewelry was augmented with items lent by Lillian Kendig Rogers of Iowa A.

To W. H. H. Piatt, the author of a history of the University of Kansas, the Historian lent a fully identified photograph of the Kansas A chapter of Pi Beta Phi in 1895, for inclusion in his book.

The jewelry collection is far from complete. The historian most earnestly desires to obtain: All types of guards, a colonization pin, a platinum arrow, a diamond-in-the-chain arrow, and one of the elongated angular arrows, usually set with emeralds, which were worn in the '90s.

During the months of January and February the Historian was asked to speak on the subject of fraternity history before the Kansas City, Missouri, Alumnae Club, the Kansas City, Kansas, Alumnae Club, and the Kansas City, Missouri, Mother's Club of the University of Kansas. It was a pleasure to meet with these groups.

One of the most delightful experiences of the year came with the invitation to attend the Michigan State

Day luncheon in honor of the Founders. The Historian will not soon forget the many fine Michigan Pi Phis who have long shown such deep appreciation for the fraternity and for its history. The dinner with Michigan I chapter was a high point of the visit.

The visits of Mrs. Alford in March and of Miss Onken in April were a source of pleasure and inspiration to the Historian and to all Kansas City Pi Phis.

Work on the chapter histories has been handled with the utmost efficiency by Elizabeth Heryer Delaney, Assistant National Historian. She has brought to the duties of her office a competence and an objectivity which have simplified the work of all concerned.

The Historian wishes to thank all the members of Grand Council for their patience and their encouragement. She is especially grateful to Miss Onken for prompt attention and unflinching interest in every phase of the work, to Mrs. Alford for her understanding and excellent guidance, and to Mrs. Prouty for her continued interest in the archives. She appreciates the prompt replies received from the Director of Central Office, and the latter's readiness to lend all the facilities of her office whenever they are needed. The many delightful and informative letters received from Pi Phis everywhere have enriched the contents of the archives and been a source of very real pleasure to the Historian throughout the past four years.

Respectfully submitted,
 MARIAN K. SIMMONS, National Historian

"If I Were a Freshman Again"

By a GREYBEARD OF FORTY

If I were going to college next year, I would aim for:

1. A letter in athletics—Because play is an essential part of life. Athletic contests—some of them—are play at its best for a normal, healthy man.
2. A grade average of "B"—Grade "C" or "D" usually means shoddy work and that's bad habit. "A" for me would require a grind and neglect of life—which I refuse. "B" is all that's left.
3. Time for some real friendships, both men and women—Life's chief value finally is friends. These four years must not be friendless or hurriedly, superficially "friendly."
4. Some real piece of service on the campus or in the community—A great growing selfish life—"There ain't no such animal."
5. To do well what I do—It's a slow college that has less than fifty extra-curricular activities on the campus. Well, about forty-six of these I would let the other fellow run and I would "saw wood" on the few that seemed to me of the most value.

Would I date and "Say It With Flowers?" Sure, but I wouldn't talk myself hoarse saying it.

Would I join a fraternity if I had a chance? By all means, for through the medium of the fraternity I would be able more easily to attain those other things for which I would aim.

Fraternity Month, June 1950

Settlement School Reports

CHAIRMAN OF THE SETTLEMENT SCHOOL COMMITTEE

IN VIRGINIA lives a wood-carver whose output runs heavily to bears. He carves them swiftly and unerringly from almost any sort of wood. Each one has a remarkably individual bearishness. "I don't see how you can do it so easily," said one as she watched his quick knife. "Well, ma'am," explained the wood-carver, "I just look at a little block of wood 'til I see the b'ar; then I cut away the wood, and thar's the b'ar!"

Perhaps that is what happened in Pi Beta Phi. They just kept lookin' and whittlin' and all at once, there was a pretty sizable b'ar, the Settlement School, carved out of the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee for all to see and admire.

It is true that the original site-selection committee did not altogether have in mind a beautiful setting for our school, as that was not the primary purpose, but it would have had to seek far to find a lovelier one. It is colorful from early spring until the frosts bring the fall foliage into full colors. Last month the Committee received great inspiration for its meeting from the hills where the new young forest greens were combined with the iridescent whiteness of the dogwoods and here and there a wild flaming azalea for contrast.

Because primarily the fraternity plan was for a project in Tennessee which embraced the three Rs, perhaps it is wise to start with a resume of our educational program. From our beginnings in 1912 with one teacher and one school room to benefit the thirteen pupils, the program expanded year by year with other grades being added as the enrollment increased. In the twenties not only was a grade school building erected but an extension plan had been inaugurated at Sugarlands, now a part of the Smoky Mountain National Park.

With the start of the thirties the school had grown into ten grades with an enrollment of one hundred seventy. The county then paid the salary of four teachers. A new building was erected for the use of the high school grades and 1936 found us with a complete high school curriculum, thus offering our young people full educational opportunities through the twelfth year. In the late thirties and early forties, two surveys of our program were made. Both recommended that we turn over to the County the costs of maintaining the school as fast as the County could assume that burden and by 1943 the community and the fraternity convinced the County that it could assume the costs of basic education and offer to Gatlinburg as much as it gave the other schools of the County. A satisfactory Lease-Agreement was drawn up between the fraternity and the County to cover a period of twenty-five years. Since then, from time to time, we have added supplementary courses—Physical Education, Music, and Arts and Crafts to increase the physical well-being of the young people and to expand their natural skills.

In 1947 the State School Planning Commission recommended an immediate building program to care for the fast increasing enrollment. At that time the Grand Council and the Settlement School Committee unanimously agreed to deed 1.8 acres of our property to the County and to draw up a new Lease-Agreement for a longer period of time. However, the Planning Commission felt that the grade and high schools should be kept together and be erected on County owned, not leased, property. For two years the County sought to purchase acreage in Gatlinburg, in order to satisfy the Commission but found only inflated purchase prices. Again the County Board of Education came to Pi Beta Phi. (For more complete details see Information Arrows: 1948, Page 94; 1949, Page 59.) After numerous conferences with the people of the Community and the County Board, ably handled by Miss Onken, and with legal advice, the Council and the Committee, for the second time, agreed to deed about two acres to the County and draw up a new Lease-Agreement on a fifty year basis instead of the original twenty-five year plan, but on the same general terms. This was done and at present writing the first unit of a new grade school plant is in process of construction. It will be ready for the opening of school. This unit accommodates six grades and later a second will be added, at which time our grade school building will revert to us. For the information of those who have visited the Settlement School, the new building stands between our grade school and Teachers' Cottage and the balance of deeded land lies behind Teachers' Cottage.

It should not be our desire to relinquish entirely our supervision nor to remove our helping influence. Perhaps our guidance is needed as never before. The mountaineer of pioneer stock is now outnumbered by the outsiders who have come to Gatlinburg but his family still needs our aid in preserving this native heritage of staunch ideals, integrity and intelligence.

This year Mr. Walter Ogle, once a pupil in our school, has served as Superintendent and High School principal and has won the respect of both students and community. He is eager to work with Pi Beta Phi and appreciates Miss Dyer's counsel.

Physical Education was taught by William J. Miracle, University of Tennessee graduate. In addition to special emphasis on Basketball, he introduced other sports in season and completed each activity with a tournament among the classes. The intramural competition was new and increased general interest in sports for girls and boys. The inauguration of baseball as a spring sport which could be supported by a small school such as Gatlinburg was well received. The cooperation of the American Legion in loaning uniforms and their playing field was a great help.

In Music, Mrs. Althea Armstrong has continued working with all eight grades and the high school to broaden each pupil's musical appreciation. Major programs were a Stephen Foster evening; the Christmas presentation of Satis Coleman's "Mystery of the Nativity" in pantomime and introducing rare carols of many countries; the pretentious musical, "The Snow Queen" by Cooke. This latter production at the close of the school year used almost one hundred children's voices and would do credit to a much larger school. The lead was sung by Barbara Steele who with Paul Clabo entertained us on the Settlement School program in 1948. Various smaller groups and the high school chorus gave programs before several local and county organizations.

In Arts and Crafts, creative expression was stressed in the lower grades through the media of chalk, charcoal and paint. Poster making in all grades was rewarded by cash prizes from the American Legion Auxiliary for their poppy posters. The fifth grade produced three original plays for glove puppets all of which were made by the children themselves. Chalk murals, soap carving, metal repousse and making "tie dye" scarves were other activities. In the higher grades some outstanding results were evident in metal work, bowls, ash-trays, candle-holders, coasters. Weaving occupied the winter months for the girls, while stenciled luncheon sets and aprons were outlets for basic designing. The boys found these subjects beneath them but painting had great appeal. Miss Van Roekel and Mr. Miracle were co-sponsors of the Junior class and Miss Van, as the children call her, directed their class play. Her ability to make the backdrops put her in special demand on other occasions also. It is with extreme regret that we accept Miss Van Roekel's resignation in order for her to continue her education toward a Master's degree at Cranbrook.

The Committee was greatly impressed with the progress of the Woodworking class under the supervision of Mr. Carl Huskey, who had a part-time program for the high school boys. Each made some article for the home—a lamp, coffee table, book ends or magazine rack. For those boys not going on to college this course is a practical one toward seeking employment in one of the several furniture factories near-by.

The Health Center is a true center for school, community and district or as our nurse, Marjorie Chalmers, describes it, "a cooperative, not exactly community cooperative, but nation-wide . . . composed of people from all walks of life, all parts of the country, all working for the service of mankind." Under the nurse's leadership, the days are filled with inoculations, first aid, talks on health, nutrition or safety. She has papers to be written and delivered before Knoxville or other Tennessee organizations, writes a weekly "Health Shot" column for the local paper. Through the latter medium she is able to prescribe many sugared bits of health admonition.

This year the County Health Department arranged for twenty clinics in which the first graders were given medical examination now required by Tennessee law. Two of the clinics were held at our Health Center, one for Gatlinburg and the other for the five nearby rural schools. The two local doctors officiated. Hereafter, the state-wide clinics will be held in the summer in order that remedial defects may be corrected and necessary inoculations given before the start of school.

Our little babies continue to hold the spotlight and it is indeed a matter of pride that not one baby has been lost this past year; one premature was returned to the hospital incubator for a time. In our part of Sevier County there are but three children of school age as yet unable to attend. One is a spastic and the others, post polio cases. All receive regular instruction from the State Homebound teacher. A small six year old boy, totally deaf as the result of an attack of meningitis has been placed in the Tennessee School for the Deaf. Our constant efforts toward good health for the younger generation have borne fruit.

Very successful was the day spent in assisting the technicians who brought their large mobile X-ray unit from the Division of Tuberculosis Control to the Health Center where more than seven hundred were processed.

We are very grateful to Sigma Phi Gamma who through their welfare work for mountain children help to provide fitted glasses and dental care. This year nine children were cared for. There is a gradual awakening to the health needs of the community and there are encouraging signs which reflect our influence over the long period. Most recent is the completion of a new system of pure water for the town and when its citizens finally sense the danger of only local sewage systems, one more of our great concerns will be at an end. There is always more to be accomplished at the Health Center than can be done, be it summer or winter, but the unselfish service contributed to school and community is felt throughout the countryside and Marjorie is loved by all the children.

It may be that less need be written about Arrow Craft than any other department since all are so keenly cognizant of it through the beauty of its wares. Under Ethel Snow's capable management Arrow Craft has had an excellent year. We appreciate your sales because the school could not operate without them and we solicit the participation of even the smallest clubs for, in addition to the increased income, it gives us the subsequent fine publicity which the products indeed merit. Though they were by no means leading in membership, last year fourteen clubs each sold more than a thousand dollars worth of goods. This year there are nine with two of them exceeding the two thousand dollar mark. Here is the list: Houston, Texas, $2220.24; Champaign-Urbana, Illinois, $2120.98; Portland, Oregon, $1890.00; Albuquerque, New Mexico, $1596.39; Marin County, California, $1398.21; Denver, Colorado, $1339.15; Cleveland East, Ohio, $1326.73; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, $1278.63; Omaha, Nebraska, $1210.08. Those considered are only those whose money in these amounts had been received at Arrow Craft by the time of audit. To them and many others, a heartfelt "Thank you!"

It would give Arrow Craft fewer headaches and the Committee far less the appearance of ogres if every club or chapter would make complete payment in full or return the unsold goods for credit after the annual sale. No business, large or small, can operate without cash and no shop gives unlimited credit, does it? With an ever increasing number of enthusiastic alumnae clubs we ask for more sales but we also ask that each club give more thought to why Pi Beta Phi is conducting its Arrow Craft Shop and how much better use there is for the money there than lying idly in some local bank.

The design and colors of Arrow Craft products continue to gladden the eye of all who see them. Tina McMorrin has brought to her work a concept of the practical as well as the beautiful. At the suggestion of the Committee, she set to work to reduce the tremendous stock of raw materials on hand, necessarily purchased during wartime shortages, and ingeniously she has cut that inventory; at the same time, not knowing what economic turn might come, she has operated on a greatly reduced budget, dropping those items less in demand and reducing the quantity of others. Unfortunately this has meant a temporary reduction in the number of weavers but with the present furor of the chain stores for woven nylon bags, those released have found work elsewhere. This past year our insurance has been carried on a monthly inventory basis, a sound protection against loss.

One interesting demand this spring is for the longer and brighter neck-tie. This has prompted the weaving of some tie material in Aunt Lizzie's old three harness twill pattern which throws more color to the top, with clearer stronger colors. Izora, long one of our good weavers, feels great pride in being chosen to carry on Aunt Lizzie's weave and she will demonstrate its use at the Craftsman's Fair late this summer.

Tina has worked toward a Master Craftsman award this year and received it from the Southern Highlands Handicrafts Guild at its spring meeting. This is only the third given by this Guild and there are but twelve in the country. She was asked by the University of Tennessee to be one of a very limited few to attend its two-week weaving short course this winter and was also honored in being asked to teach in the Guild Workshop at the Penland, N.C. School of Crafts last fall.

We must not fail to mention the attractive little shop maintained by Arrow Craft in one corner of the Mountain View Hotel, now presided over by Mrs. McCutcheon, mother and grandmother of Pi Beta Phi. Her love of our products, combined with a wide acquaintance among the hotel guests, makes her a worthy proponent of sales. No hour is too early nor too late to accommodate the departing guest in her purchase of last minute carry-home gifts.

This year our Grand Vice President offered a prize to the Pi Phi submitting a poster suitable for advertising sales of Arrow Craft products. The Committee appreciated Mrs. Wild's offer and regretted that none of the designs submitted seemed exactly to meet the needs at this time, according to the judges from the University of Tennessee Crafts faculty who considered them.

One special item of interest ere we leave the Arrow Craft department: The Director of Cultural Affairs for the State Department in Washington D.C. has contacted Pi Beta Phi often in the last few years since foreign visitors and students wish to take back the profitable use of native materials to their own countries. The State Department has honored Pi Beta Phi in sending, when possible, both men and women from foreign countries to visit the Settlement School. The most recent occasion was the Prime-Minister and his wife, the Begum Ali-Kahn of Pakistan. She spoke fluent English and held two degrees from the University of her native land. The Begum was most anxious to learn of our industries in order to further assist the women of her country in the establishment of their Cottage Industries. It would seem, therefore, that our service to people has gone afar and we are honored that the State Department so highly classifies our Settlement School.

Earlier in this report we mentioned the surveys which had been made of our project in Gatlinburg as they applied to the educational program. These surveys placed great emphasis on the opportunity Pi Beta Phi had in the Southern Highlands for the furthering of the native crafts and since that time an effort has been made to that end. This summer is the sixth for our Summer Workshop. It has passed its "trial and error" period and in the opinion of the present staff, the 1950 organization is running more smoothly than any year. It has been a matter of mutual satisfaction to the University of Tennessee and to Pi Beta Phi to work together for the success of this annual six week project. Miss Marian G. Heard, Professor of Craft Design at the University, again serves as Director but the whole staff of the Applied Arts Department unites in lending its own or helping to find the best possible instruction. We are eternally grateful to Miss Jessie W. Harris, Pi Beta Phi Convention initiate in 1938, head of the Home Economics Department at the University, for her constant inspiration, wise help in planning, and her expert belief in the Settlement School program. For the first three weeks of the six weeks' Workshop there are twenty-one states represented by fifty-four students. Thirty-one are graduate students, seven are undergraduates and sixteen are enrolled as non-credit pupils. Twenty-nine of these will remain for the full six-week period. Until such time as larger housing facilities are available, further expansion is impossible. Miss Dyer and her corps of workers completely transform our grade school building into a dormitory. It is an herculean task with less than two weeks between the closing of school and the opening of the Workshop. Every vacant cranny is made available to those in attendance.

The Gateway Players, a stock company of New York, will again transform our gymnasium-auditorium into a theater for six weeks, paying rent to us and providing excellent casts in good plays as entertainment for summer visitors. Pi Beta Phi reserves Friday night for the P.T.A. for a money-making plan. The P.T.A. has done a magnificent piece of work in raising money for its school cafeteria where all the school year, two paid cooks, the assisting mothers in turn, with the aid of government surpluses provide hot, well-balanced school lunches. It provided new basketball uniforms for the girls' team and in various other ways has assisted the school program.

The Craftsman's Fair will make its third appearance on the Pi Beta Phi campus in late July and again Governor Browning will officiate at the opening. Here will be demonstrated the makings of many handicrafts of that area and the native folk dances. Also there will be a great exhibit and sale of the best under each classification. Pi Beta Phi through its membership in the Southern Highlands Handicrafts Guild shares the responsibility in staging this undertaking. One's pride increases, knowing the part the fraternity has played in the renaissance of these native crafts. At this Convention we hope to bring a widened vision of what the Crafts are in the Southern Appalachians and what the preservation of this early Americana means to that area.

Last but by no means least in the year round picture is the regular staff which keeps the Committee policies in operation. Miss Ruth Dyer in her six years as Director has found no consistent pattern for each day brings new activities and new problems. There have been seven dormitory students this year, five of whom have just graduated, so we shall have room for new material in September. Each boy or girl enters the dormitory only after a clear understanding with the parents that their boy or girl is to work a certain number of hours in part payment for room and board. This, together with our financial assistance in running a bus to distant Elkmont for students, is important Extension service.

A number of years ago the auditors for the Settlement School advised, as for any good business, that certain amounts be set aside each year for depreciation. Since then all committees have budgeted toward a Sinking Fund to cover this. The present committee at its recent meeting came to an important decision after studying the contents of this Sinking Fund, taking into account the $17,000, final generous bequest from the Garshwiler estate, and the prospects in contributions and continued Arrow Craft sales, that now is the time to erect a new Staff House. Several reasons controlled the decision to proceed. Part of our staff has been domiciled in Pollard Hall which was originally the old Ogle family farmhouse. It also houses the dormitory boys and the dining rooms and kitchen for all. If Pollard is much longer used, extensive repairs will be necessary, for termites and old age take their toll; should more boys come to school and need housing, space must be found. If the Summer Workshop is ever to expand, additional housing must be provided. That is the big bottle-neck to progress since all applicants prefer to live right at the School. Last year the University of Tennessee could have secured us government barracks for transportation costs but the Committee considered this poor economy as it would have been only a temporary arrangement. In addition, the problem of feeding the staffs and students of the Workshop is most difficult in our kitchen for it is not properly arranged for Institution Management. We also feel that more comfortable surroundings for our regular staff will mean greater efficiency and strengthened morale. So with courage and faith that the best interests of the School will be served, we plan to start a new building this coming year. It is our hope that alumnae clubs and chapters will be interested in contributing direct to the cost of a room or its furnishings, thus to honor an outstanding member. We solicit your interest and aid, as always.

The fraternity is grateful for the way in which contributions have come in. Three-fourths of the active chapter contributions, going as they do into the Endowment Fund each year, help to spell security against unforeseen emergencies. The balance, together with all other contributions, governs the amount which the Committee can budget annually for the maintenance of the School. Top-most honors go to the St. Louis Alumnae Club with its one thousand dollar donation: it has maintained this record, or better, for a number of years; Philadelphia has sent $500; Cleveland East and Kansas City, Mo., $300 each; Milwaukee, Wis., $225; Lafayette, Indiana, $203.51; Indianapolis and Denver, $200 each. The chapters leading in contributions were Missouri B; Nebraska B; in third position, Ohio A and Texas A; while Florida B, Illinois B-D, Illinois O, Colorado A, Kansas B, and Louisiana A tied for fourth place. Twenty nine clubs gave one hundred dollars or more. It was interesting to discover that twenty chapters and forty-three clubs increased the amount of their donations over 1948-49 and the contributions of fifty-four chapters and one hundred twenty-five clubs equalled those of last year. The chapters of Beta, Delta, Eta, Iota, Kappa, and Lambda provinces were one hundred percent as were the clubs of Alpha East, Beta, Delta, Zeta, Iota, Lambda, and Mu. Right here let us say that it is only ethical and right that money raised through a benefit in the name of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School should all go to that project. Thank you all!

The gifts received from clubs, chapters and individuals brought both joy and comfort to the School. The many boxes of toys, books, fruit and candy at Christmas time made possible individual gifts to each child in our grade school and for those of the three out-lying rural schools as well; a special room gift of lovely book or game for each grade room; special athletic equipment; clothing for many of the needy. At the hospital layettes made so thoughtfully by some clubs had special use as do the additions to the loaning closet. This latter always has need for more cotton blankets, sheets, bed jackets or night-gowns, which our nurse is thankful to loan in case of sickness or emergencies.

Sigma Phi Gamma, national business organization, through its Southern Mountain Workers division contributed $50 this year toward eye and dental care, and three of their chapters became so interested they too sent their separate donations toward our health program.

Many Pi Beta Phis and others, too, have found expression of a loving thought through our Memorial Fund. This was particularly true this year when our Grand Vice President and her husband suffered the tragic loss of their son Leonard. The Memorial Fund contributions are being used at the Health Center this year but the donor may specify a particular use, if she desires. A gift to this fund direct, or the gift of a particular book to the School Library are two lovely ways for an expression of sympathy.

The final settlement of the estate left in part to the Settlement School by Dr. William P. Garshwiler in memory of his wife, an Indiana B, has been completed and we are indeed appreciative of this loving generosity.

We are very pleased to have the amount of $8,943.41 which the Magazine Agency has sent us. Mrs. Alford says, "Pi Phi can't read!" but how we do like for them to keep on trying! We also have done many things with the returns from the Pi Phi best-seller, the Cook Book, first produced by the Los Angeles club some fifteen years ago. The Pi Phi girl graduating into a career or to become a summer bride continues to offer a fine field for their continued sales.

One hears a remark now and then that we are finished in Gatlinburg. For the fraternity to be without the Settlement School would be like Arrow Craft existing without its trademark. Do we wish to abandon an undertaking dedicated long ago as a living memorial to our Founders, which has paid through honor to them but not alone to them? Every men's and women's fraternity gives us tremendous acclaim for our foresight in establishing a philanthropy dedicated to unselfish service. We pioneered in this now almost complete trend among National Panhellenic groups. The president of a large alumnae club said on a recent visit to Gatlinburg that we should not talk of giving prestige to Gatlinburg because of having a school there but instead that every club and chapter receives tremendous publicity and prestige by virtue of the establishment and continued operation of the Settlement School.

What would happen if we withdrew our Health program? There would be only the local doctors, with days already crowded, to care for the school inspections, inoculations and to give advice to the mothers of young babies and the pre-schoolers or the parents of the school children. The advice given so frequently in the community, the tremendous program of disease prevention and sanitation, all these would go with the loss of the Health Center and our nurse.

What would happen to the School if we withdrew, and to the Community which has depended upon Pi Beta Phi for so long? The school would not yet be accredited without our supplementary help in Music, Crafts, Woodworking and Physical Education. The community groups, P.T.A., election boards, churches, all make use of the school buildings as centers of activity while Stuart Cottage and Helmick House are open on many occasions for teas or gathering places for various town groups and school clubs. Old Timers' Day is still held upon our grounds and we wonder where some of the people who lean upon us would be, should we depart. An insurance man not long ago walked down the village street and as he passed first one hotel or another tourist court—and then another—remarked to his companion, "We own this one, we own that," on down the street. And still the local people, intrigued by what appear to be quick money-making schemes continue to build for the tourist trade. There will come a saturation point, one day, and we trust these businesses may be paid off ere that time. Get off Highway 71 and there are more tangible evidences of need for our help nor do the people hesitate to ask of Pi Beta Phi. We hope to help them bridge other adjustments if they come.

An excerpt from a note received by Miss Onken from Miss Anne Guthrie, Pi Beta Phi, world lecturer and traveler, whose delightful program pleased so many at the last Convention, is worth quoting here. It was written this spring after a week's vacation stay in Gatlinburg. "What an interesting piece of work we have been responsible for! And to realize its effect on the community makes one very proud."

Just one last whispered word on this subject! When one hears that we are finished in Gatlinburg, think again! In addition to believing that there are still things to be done there, bear in mind that Pi Beta Phi is a "Not for Profit" organization and that an educational purpose in Gatlinburg has merit. We should not lose our classification.

Arrow Craft alone cannot be relied upon to support the needs of the School because economic conditions are too uncertain and the demand for hand-woven articles, beautiful and inexpensive as they are, may not continue at the present high level. Time was when the contributions to the School were taking care of the development of Arrow Craft.

The load of the chairman has been greatly lightened by the happy associations and complete cooperation of the Committee members this past year. Each has had her particular assignment and each has followed through with whole-hearted endeavor. At the beginning of the year, Grace Granger, Indiana Δ, of Indianapolis found it necessary to resign and her place was taken by Ethel Gillespie Smith, Indiana Δ, of Atlanta, Ga. At the time of the Chairman's fall visit to Gatlinburg, Mrs. Smith came to the Settlement School for a few days and also was able to attend the conferences on the 1950 Summer Workshop held at the University, excellent means of orientation for the year's work. Her assignment has been the County School and Library and this year she will have the Secretaryship added to her duties. You have known our Publicity member, Harriet Goodsell Rauch, through the fine "News of Little Pigeon" in the ARROW and here at Convention as the New York City Club delegate. Her responsibility is to give a true picture of the School to the readers of the ARROW and to lend all possible assistance to chapters and clubs with their publicity about the Settlement School. Only words of praise, well deserved, should be given the Treasurer of the Committee; Olivia Smith Moore, Missouri A, of Texarkana, Texas has clarified the budget making for the committee and has kept track of the rise or decline in funds receivable in meticulous fashion. This month we lose by tenure, Eugenia Brooks Smith, Indiana Γ, Salem, Oregon, who has handled the routing of the Settlement School film, kept an over-all eye on the Crafts, and this past year served as Secretary. Her latest contribution was the planning of the new film which you shall see here and which will be available for distribution in the fall. No assignment was ever too difficult and the Fraternity loses a valuable person from the Committee. We welcome Nellis Hempel Gibson, Pennsylvania Δ, of Baltimore, Maryland, who will take over the responsibility of the film and the supervision of the department of Arts and Crafts.

The Settlement School Committee is deeply grateful for the assistance of Grand Council, especially Amy B. Onken who was chosen the contact member from the Council, and for all the diligent efforts of the alumnae clubs and chapters whose benefits and Arrow Craft sales made possible a practical working budget and future planning in Gatlinburg. We feel richly rewarded by serving Pi Beta Phi through the Settlement School and humbly ask that all of you share this privilege with us.

Respectfully submitted,
RUTH BARRETT SMITH

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

1950

TALKING, or writing to Pi Phis is one of the most important phases of the job that I have for the Fraternity. As Director of the Settlement School project it is my privilege to review with you, in this report, the main events of the past year. Life in the Smokies is a busy one as the various seasons follow each other. The pattern of our days is more or less a repeat design with ever changing variations, due to new personalities and interests.

Community

In this rapidly growing area, each year brings changes and improvements. Some of the most far reaching ones of the past year are the completion of a city water system, the installation of traffic lights at two busy intersections and the work done on two roads leading into the village. A second power line is being constructed which should provide the town with adequate electric service when it is completed. Building went on all winter so that spring found many new tourist courts and motels ready for business. A new picture theater was opened in May. The Methodist Church was completed and work started on a small Episcopal Church. The Riverside Hotel was enlarged and on the Greystone Hotel grounds a special building, called the Gatlinburg Playhouse, was constructed. This has filled a long felt need by providing a place for lectures, Convention gatherings and Community affairs.

Of most interest to Pi Phis, is the new grade school building that Sevier County is constructing on the plot of ground deeded to them by the Fraternity. This will have six class rooms, two toilet rooms, a small storage room, and a boiler room with a heating plant sufficiently large to take care of this building and future units as they can be built. The Contract was for $79,000.00 and it is hoped to have the building ready for use this coming fall.

Each year the village Library Board sponsors a community party in February, to raise funds for the library which is entirely dependent upon donations for its operation. This event netted $615.00. The books have been moved from a room above the bus station to a small cottage on the River Road. The Garden Club has undertaken the landscaping of the grounds around the building and the Girl Scouts are mowing the lawn.

Community Union church services were held at Thanksgiving time in the Baptist church and an Easter sunrise service was held on the Greystone lawn. The Garden Club again sponsored the Community Christmas tree, a pine that grows in our little park across from the Arrow Craft Shop. Other annual events of the holiday season were the beautiful candle lighting service held in the Methodist Church on Christmas Eve and a party for all of the community children given by the American Legion Auxiliary. An awakened interest in the welfare of our young people has been evidenced. Scouting for both boys and girls has been actively revived under adequate leadership. Thirteen boys attended the International Jamboree at Valley Forge under the leadership of Mr. William Cron, Head of the Bureau of Roads. The churches sponsored an Easter egg hunt on the Whittle lawn that was enjoyed by many small children.

Ever increasing numbers of tourists, coming to the Smokies, have caused the town to maintain a Tourist Bureau and to reorganize the Chamber of Commerce with a full time secretary in charge. During the winter a caravan of cars from Gatlinburg toured Florida advertising the tourist attractions and handicrafts of the region. Last summer for six weeks the Fraternity again rented the High School Auditorium to the Gateway Stock Company of New York City. They presented a number of Broadway plays in a very creditable manner. The second Craftsman's Fair, held on our green, was a great success.

Pi Beta Phi and the village lost a valuable friend in the death of Mr. Andy Huff, owner of the Mountain View Hotel.

Office

When Esther Mines married last July, we were fortunate in having another Pi Phi, Nancy Holmes, Illinois Zeta, Class of 1949, join the staff as Assistant Director. She has been a great help, especially in taking care of the Workshop correspondence and reports. In addition to her work at the school she has served as the Chairman of the Advisory Board for Tennessee Gamma.

School

A backward look over the past school year brings a feeling of satisfaction. Sevier County, Pi Beta Phi and the P.T.A. combined to provide a well rounded program for over five hundred children attending the school. Nineteen full time and one part time teacher carried on the educational program. In high school we had four new teachers. These were, Mr. Walter Ogle, Principal; Mr. Granville Shields, Science; Dorothy Arnold who had attended our Summer Workshop, Home Economics, and Mr. W. J. Miracle who was hired by the Fraternity to supervise the work in Physical Education. In the Elementary School we had no changes in the teaching staff. It was necessary to have two rooms in which there were two grades each. One was a first and second combination and the other a third and fourth grouping. The faculty worked together very harmoniously. In October the school family, the faculty and their families enjoyed a picnic in the mountains. In January we had a faculty party in the nature of an old fashioned "pounding" for the coach and his bride at Stuart Cottage.

The usual plays were given. The Juniors presented a melodrama, "Only an Orphan Girl," the Senior play was "Brother Goose" and the eighth grade finished their year by giving "Billie's Aunt Jane." The annual Halloween Carnival was enjoyed by the entire school as was the lovely Christmas program. Room parties were held in the different grade school rooms to observe special days. Films were used more frequently than in the past years, as a part of the School program. Twenty-one members of the Senior Class with faculty chaperones went to Washington, D.C. for their trip. This class sponsored a small school annual called "The Mountaineer," which was dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, former Pi Phi employees of the staff. The parting gift from the class to the school was two typewriters which they hope will form the nucleus of a Commercial Department for the school. Nancy Holmes, Assistant Director, was sponsor for the Beta Club. She accompanied several of the club members to the state convention in Nashville. The American Legion Auxiliary entertained the high school basketball teams at a very lovely formal banquet at the New Gatlinburg Inn. The same hotel was the setting for the annual Junior Senior banquet. After the Christmas holidays, the County operated a second bus for Gatlinburg. This helped very much in shortening the day for numbers of bus riding pupils.

Pi Phi Contributions

A backward look brings out the many extras enjoyed by the children attending our school which they could not have were it not for Fraternity help. Mrs. Althea Armstrong for Music, Mr. Miracle for Physical Education, Miss Van Roekel and Mr. Huskey for Arts and Crafts and Wood-work, added much to the program. Several years of training in part singing is showing up when public appearances of the students are made. The carols, making up most of the Christmas program, the Stephen Foster songs and Glee Club numbers given at Community and Commencement events were all very well done. The annual Operetta, "The Snow Queen," was one of the most tuneful and colorful that I have seen. The Arts and Crafts teacher, Fay Van Roekel, contributed much to the program. The beautiful back drops, done mostly on her knees, on strips of brown paper, for the Junior play were used again at the Christmas program and for the Operetta. Her fifth grade class designed and made puppets and wrote the script for an original show, as one of their art projects. The seventh grade made murals for the background of the Stephen Foster program. Fay gave a talk on Art at a County Teachers meeting and another one to a Y.W.C.A. Youth group at Alcoa. She served as a Graduate Assistant at the Summer Workshop and in August studied weaving at the Guild Workshop at Penland. Her high school girls produced some very nice weaving in their class work. Mr. Carl Huskey directed the boys in the wood shop. Some very creditable pieces of furniture were turned out by the class. While our boys and girls did not do as well as usual in basketball competitions with outside schools, our coach started a very valuable program of intramural sports within the high school classes that provided entertainment and interest most of the year. These contests were played off during the noon hour and in bad weather were most useful in helping provide an outlet for energies that are sometimes hard to control. The sports which were used in this program were basketball, softball, volleyball, pingpong, and shuffle board. In the spring a baseball team was organized for the first time. The American Legion allowed the use of their athletic field and they also loaned uniforms for the players. On a beautiful spring day, the whole school held a Field Day which resulted in a victory for the Freshman Class.

P. T. A.

We were fortunate in having a very active and enthusiastic group of parents who also provided "extras" for the school program. Money for this work comes chiefly from the weekly Bingo games operated during the tourist season in the high school gymnasium and from rummage sales. The school lunch room was again operated by this group, providing hot lunches for the children in the Elementary school. Free lunches are provided for needy children. We share in the Government program and receive many supplies from that source. In the fall a book store was set up for the first week of school. This was a great convenience since there is not a store in town that handles school supplies or books. From their funds, the organization voted to give each teacher a sum of $50.00 to be used for supplies. In the high school the teachers pooled their money in order to undertake larger projects. One of these was the sanding and refinishing of the gymnasium floor. An additional gift of one hundred dollars was given for new basketball uniforms, one half to the high school and the other half to the grade school teams, ably coached by Mr. Kelly Huskey, the eighth grade teacher. A class in Parliamentary Law, an old-fashioned Spelling Bee and the sponsoring of a delightful concert by a high school chorus from Knoxville, were other activities of this group.

Dormitory

Miss Lena Hodgen, our efficient housekeeper, was again in charge of our living arrangements. We had the usual household emergencies to meet but were always provided with good meals. Nancy Holmes was in charge of the six high school girls who lived in Stuart College. Five of them graduated, having been with us most of their school days. In their honor we entertained the senior class and high school faculty following Class Night program. The piano at Stuart was used two days a week when a music teacher from Pigeon Forge gave private lessons to a number of school children. It was necessary to replace some curtains this year. Now ruffled ones were placed in Nancy's suite and at Teachers Cottage we have some beautiful new hand woven draperies in the living room and hall. Tina designed them and Lura wove them at the Shop at times when she was not busy with her regular work. It is interesting to note that she has been with the School long enough to weave three sets of draperies for these same rooms. The second set, taken from Teachers Cottage, are in use at Pollard where shiny yellow paint now makes a more cheerful interior. Three sturdy new card tables were purchased and have been in almost constant use at three houses.

Health Center

The health work done by the Fraternity, under the able direction of our nurse, Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers, is indeed a "repeat Design." Year after year, the inspections, inoculations, health talks with accompanying films, classes in First Aid and home visits for the almost 700 children in the district we serve, add up to an astounding total. Emergencies from school and community, clinics for well babies and expectant mothers, fill many busy days. Our Health Center was used several times for Clinics during the year. Twice the Mobile T.B. Unit was in town and used the building as headquarters. The first day 718 chest x-rays were given and the second time 497. A new law in Tennessee states that every child must be examined by a doctor before he can enter school and that a record of this examination must become a part of his school record. Two such clinics were held in December when 65 children were examined. Children from the rural area were brought to the Health Center. Twenty mothers came with the rural children. The State Department supplies serums but aside from that most of the health work done in town and in three rural schools is taken care of by Pi Beta Phi.

That people of the area still look to us for aid was evidenced last winter. A little girl who had never had preventive vaccinations died suddenly of diphtheria. The next day people brought children from town and country to the health center. By night the weary nurse had given 154 preventive shots.

Farm

Two new laying houses for our Pi Phi hens were built this year to replace some unfit for use. We followed plans furnished by the Poultry Division of the University of Tennessee and are proud of the results. These modern houses will make it possible to have a larger poultry flock to supply the kitchen with eggs and chickens. Any surplus can be very advantageously sold to the Mountain View Hotel. Through the year, several litters of small pigs were raised and sold when they were old enough to make it worth while. The garden produced vegetables for our school family and supplied the University staff during the Workshop.

Arrow Craft Shop

The year has gone smoothly, following the usual pattern; busy days for Mrs. Snow—filling and shipping Club orders—months like April and October when, as always, the "buying tourists" visit the shop and other days when the tables in the stock room are piled high with weaving, waiting to be tagged and put on the shelves. An effort has been made to reduce inventories, use up old stocks of threads and to concentrate on patterns that can make use of these materials. However, there will be some new accents in the next price list. We have added yellow and green, in pastel shades, to the baby woolen articles we have always carried. To fill a demand for a heavy textured mat, Mrs. McMorran has designed two sets. The less expensive one is in cotton and is called the Periwinkle, the other one is a very handsome linen set made in a diamond weave on double goose eye threading. Neckties and scarfs in bright stripes are other new items. Our designer, Mrs. McMorran, has been active in weaving circles in the Southern Highland Handicraft Guild. She instructed in weaving at the Guild Workshop, held in Penland, North Carolina, last fall and at the Spring Meeting of the Guild was granted a Master Craftsman's Certificate in Weaving. Upon invitation of the officials an exhibit of Arrow Craft products was placed in the side window of the Hamilton National Bank in Knoxville for a week. A new hand made cabinet for displaying jewelry is a useful as well as ornamental addition to the shop. The Hotel Shop has been operated by Mrs. McCutcheon. Mrs. Snow reports that business has been good and that accounts receivable are better than ever before. Each year brings more craft shops to the village but we feel that the quality of our products, sold in their artistic setting, makes Arrow Craft Shop the best one of all.

This report would be incomplete without the mention of the many wonderful gifts that individual Pi Phis, Active Chapters, Alumnae Clubs and friends make towards the success of our program. Two gifts of money, one spent for records and the other for library books, were given in memory of Leonard Wild. The staff enjoyed a new waffle iron which I purchased with gift funds. A surprise gift came from the Franklin Square Magazine Agency. The check sent for magazine subscriptions for the high school library was returned with a letter saying that the Fraternity business was so much that they wished to give us the magazines as an expression of their appreciation. The nurse is always delighted with the boxes of clothing that come to us and especially so with the layettes and baby things. The many boxes of toys and other Christmas gifts help to make Christmas memorable for many children. This year we remembered the 148 children in three rural schools with gifts in addition to 157 gifts to pupils in the three lower grades. Where there is greater need we try to place the really nice toys and clothing. Sigma Phi Gamma, International Sorority, continues to support our health program with gifts of money from their central office and boxes from individual chapters, to whom we are assigned by their welfare secretary. Their gifts are used for eye corrections and new glasses in most cases.

It has been impossible to give you a complete picture of our days at the School. The six weeks Workshop in Crafts, The Craftsman's Fair and the appearances of the Gateway Stock Company in our Auditorium, make the summers most busy and interesting. I wish to close by expressing my thanks to our fine Settlement School Committee, the loyal local staff and employees and the thousands of Pi Phis over the country who yearly remember the school with kind and loving thoughts as well as concrete gifts.

Respectfully submitted,
RUTH DYER, Director

Securities were verified by examination of securities held by the Treasurer and by direct communication with the Trust Agent of endowment fund securities. All operating income and expenditures of the Treasurer were examined in detail and Arrowcraft transactions were exhaustively tested without a detailed audit of all transactions.

Committee Reports

HOLT HOUSE COMMITTEE

IN GIVING this last report for the present Holt House Committee I have a feeling of sadness, as one cannot assume the responsibilities of maintaining and supporting Holt House without acquiring a deeper appreciation of our heritage and of the twelve girls who founded our Fraternity.

The increase in the number of active chapters and alumnae clubs contributing to the Holt House Fund this year is evidence of the pride Pi Phis have in Holt House.

From these contributions minor repairs have been made, and necessary new furnishings have been purchased. We purchased a new refrigerator and two electrical units for the stove—and are in the process of having the parlor curtains duplicated, as the old ones were beyond repair. As soon as the material can be matched we hope to have the occasional chairs in the Pine Room recovered. Many necessary repairs have been made; such as painting of the shutters, storm windows, screens, and gutters. The foundation has been re-pointed both inside and out—and the floors and basement walls have been repaired and painted. The inside of the house has been painted.

Climbing roses have been planted at the base of the trellises which were given to Holt House last year by Paul B. Wallace, in honor of his mother, one of our Founders, Nancy Black Wallace. Mr. Wallace, in writing of his mother's college life has mentioned her speaking of the beauty of the entrance to the Holt home with its trellises and climbing roses. This he restored in her memory.

The kitchen, the hostess' bathroom, the lavatory off the powder room, and the porch floors have been painted—and minor repairs were made to the roof.

The number of alumnae clubs contributing to the Holt House Fund increased from 179 last year to 217 this year. The highest contributing clubs were Iowa City, Iowa $50, Kansas City, Missouri, $50, and Everett, Washington, $30. Many other clubs sent generous checks.

The active chapters increased their contributions, with 87 chapters contributing as compared with 83 for last year. The highest contributing chapters were Louisiana A $100, Illinois A $50, and Oklahoma A $35. The following chapters each gave $25: Missouri B, Iowa I, Kansas B, and Texas A.

The highest contributing provinces (alumnae) were: Mu, Lambda, and Kappa. Every club in the following provinces contributed; Mu, Lambda, Theta, and Iota.

The highest contributing provinces (active) were: Kappa, Eta and Iota. Every chapter in the following provinces contributed: Kappa, Eta, Iota, Delta, Beta and Lambda.

Besides active chapters and alumnae clubs in and near Monmouth using the house this past year, the following organizations have held meetings or parties there: Woman's Club, D.A.R., P.E.O., Women's Missionary Group, Book Club, Home Bureau, and the Alumnae Sewing Circle. Several showers, luncheons, weddings, and receptions have been accommodated.

Mrs. Carey, known far and wide in Monmouth for her gracious hospitality, continues to manage the house very efficiently.

The chairman is grateful to Mrs. John Trost—our most able treasurer, and to the other committee members: particularly Mrs. R. M. Jensen, Monmouth, who has scheduled the film and done innumerable other things to facilitate the work of this committee.

The chairman gratefully acknowledges the encouragement and guidance given by Miss Onken during the past year. She is grateful also for the many duties performed for the committee by the Director of Central Office, Gladys Hayes Scivally, and by each member of Grand Council. The assistance and cooperation of the province officers has greatly facilitated the work of the committee and of the chairman. Again, this chairman and committee is grateful to Gladys Stump Nall, the preceding chairman, for her advice and help during the past year.

We are drawing to the close of a successful year for Holt House, and already planning for an even more successful year in 1950-1951.

Respectfully submitted,
NANCY ILGENFRITZ SWISHER

COMMITTEE ON LOAN FUND

DURING the year 1949-1950 we made about the same number of loans as in the preceding year. Contributions received from chapters were forwarded to Central Office, for credit to the Scholarship Fund, as it was felt the chapters really intended to contribute to the required project, instead of to the Loan Fund. Following is a report of operations for the year—

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLICITY

THE PURPOSE of the Publicity Committee for the year has been "more and better publicity for Pi Phi everywhere." It is the chairman's honest opinion that the chapter and club chairmen have made tremendous strides not only in their publicity but also in their public relations. It is with a feeling of satisfaction of a job well done on the part of the many, many Pi Phi publicity chairmen that the committee closes the year's activities.

From the beginning the problem to be solved first was an organizational one. A card file with the name and address of each chapter and club chairman was set up, and this file facilitated personal correspondence no end. Five letters were sent out during the year, and in each one the need for factual organization was stressed. Use of the manual was particularly emphasized as well as other trade suggestions derived from professional sources.

In addition to the organizational activities, releases were prepared on Founders' Day, Holt House, Loyalty Day and Settlement School, and were kept on file at Central Office to be disbursed at the request of the chairmen. The committee is also deeply grateful to Ruth Bowen, Edmonton, Alberta, for her invaluable help in preparing convention publicity. She submitted items for newspaper release which were relayed with a letter to all the chairmen for use in pre-convention publicity.

A great many personal requests for specific publicity problems passed over the chairman's desk, and an attempt was made in each instance to solve these problems.

No report of this committee would be complete without a sincere and heartfelt vote of thanks to Gladys Scivally without whose help we simply couldn't have managed.

Respectfully submitted,
 LORRAINE K. PETERS, Committee on Publicity

COMMITTEE ON SCHOLARSHIP

T. E. MURPHY in "Open Every Door" says, "Life is a corridor with many doors. I am hurrying to open as many as I can before the ultimate one is opened. An important thing to remember is that no matter what strange door we plan to open, there are experts to guide us—for free." The scholarship committee has worked faithfully to help each girl open doors and to guide her in her chosen field.

The committee is happy to report that 18 chapters were first on their campuses for the year 1948-1949, five more than for the previous year, and the largest number since 1934 except for 1942, when 20 chapters were highest. In addition to these 18, there were 25 others in the upper third, making a total of 43 in the upper third; 31 in the middle third; 18 in the lower third, including 6 in the lowest place. Nine other chapters were first for one term, while two others were lowest for one term. Two chapters were unable to obtain comparative averages. Of the 90 reporting, 44 raised their average from last year, 39 lowered theirs, and 7 remained the same.

For the five years the present officer has been national chairman, the following chapters have been in the upper third for the entire time:

Connecticut A	Kansas B
Ohio B	Colorado B
Ohio Z	Oklahoma B
Missouri Γ	Arkansas A
Illinois Z	Oregon Γ
North Dakota A

Oklahoma B is unique in that it has received the scholarship cup given by Panhellenic for the last five consecutive years. Epsilon and Kappa are outstanding for no chapter in these two provinces has been in the lowest place for these five years. Epsilon, Kappa, and Lambda have been in the upper third for four years. The grade average for all the provinces for the year 1948-49 is 24.291, just .561 higher than that of the year 1947-48.

The Director of Education of Sigma Chi, Ralph W. Wilson, says, "It is my personal opinion that any chapter of any fraternity is not justifying its usefulness and its existence unless it is able to equal or exceed the all-men's average in scholarship." It is interesting to note that for the year 1948-49, 43 Pi Phi chapters were above the all-women's average, 24 below, and 27 were unable to obtain this information. Of the 24 below, nine were above for one term. The difference between the average of these 24 and that of the all-women varies from .001 to 1.44, the average being .231 below. Considering this information, we should add to our present goal of "Every chapter in the Upper Third," "No Chapter in the Lower Third," this new one, "Every Chapter Above the All-Women's Average."

The December ARROW printed a list of our 198 honor girls, of whom every Pi Phi is justly proud. It is regrettable that because of limited space, not all the names and pictures of the underclassmen could be included.

As the door is closing for this present year, the chairman wishes to express her deepest gratitude to all those who have contributed so willingly to further the work of higher scholarship—the province supervisors, chapter chairmen, Marajane Barksdale, Gladys Scivally, Lucile Carson, and Miss Onken. She has greatly enjoyed the work with the fraternity and counts it a great privilege to be able to serve it.

Respectfully submitted,
HARRIET R. JOHNSTONE

COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL EXCHANGE

THE Social Exchange Committee, whose duty it is to collect and select the best material from all the chapters, has had a busy and profitable year. Even though we were informed that so many chapters were finding the Bulletin most helpful in putting on rush weeks, homecomings and Founders' Day celebrations, we discovered to our satisfaction that Pi Phi imagination and ingenuity still produces quantities of new ideas for the Social Exchange Bulletin. We won't have to close up shop for years at this rate.

Newcomers to our committee have performed nobly under unusual circumstances and the members who have been serving for several years turned in some beautiful reports.

We heard from 86 chapters, receiving information on rushing for the 1949 season and on Founders' Day for the spring of 1949. Twenty-nine chapters received a perfect score for cooperation, nine chapters failed to send in reports, and twelve sent in only one of the two required.

Gamma Province showed as the best in cooperative chapters, with five out of eight receiving perfect scores. Eta Province placed highest in quality and originality of her chapter reports.

The winning chapter with the best all-round reports and co-operation with the province chairman is WISCONSIN BETA. Runner-up is Illinois Z.

For originality in material on rushing the Social

Exchange award goes to MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA. Their skit on "South Pacific" was delightful and clever ideas on favors and invitations were unusual.

Hall of Fame shows the names of Vermont B, Texas A, Ohio Z, and Iowa B. The first three named turned in excellent rush party plans and Iowa Beta rates her place due to the awards she won for originality during the school year; the Tomahawk (Simpson's highest Homecoming festivities award) for taking first places in the varsity show, for their float, in campus spirit and the window decoration contest. Ohio Zeta sent samples of place cards and favors that made us all want to be rushees again so we could have them. In spite of the fact that Alabama Beta is such a baby chapter they have not relied completely on other Pi Phis' for all their rushing ideas, but have sent in some fine examples of their own to pass on to older chapters. They, too, deserve mention in the Hall of Fame.

For the fine spirit of cooperation and friendliness, could with excellent work on reports, this chairman warmly thanks her committee. To Miss Onken and Gladys Scivally she always owes a deep appreciation and to the chapter chairmen who compiled their information so beautifully she gives her vote of thanks.

Respectfully submitted,
VIRGINIA DALE MCMAHAN

COMMITTEE ON FRATERNITY MUSIC

BECAUSE of her appointment as Epsilon Province President, the Music Committee lost one of its members, Marilyn Weigner Brandom, who had served two years. Knowing her capabilities, we can only feel that Epsilon Province is very fortunate in having such an enthusiastic and qualified leader, and that our loss is very much their gain. The Committee wishes to thank her for her contributions to our work during her time of membership.

As a new member of the Committee, the Grand President appointed Dorothe Anderson Lanning, who is well qualified, being a composer herself and very much interested in the musical activities of the chapters. She has been most cooperative and helpful, and the Committee welcomes her to membership and looks forward to working with her.

During the past year, the Committee has been gratified to receive many letters from the various chapter Song Leaders, with an indication that they take their music seriously and are really working to better chapter singing. This year particularly there have been a number of chapters which have sung at off-campus occasions, in town, at hospitals, etc., and several have done local radio work. The Committee feels this is commendable, and hopes that more chapters will do this sort of thing, as it inspires the girls to better singing and to sharing our lovely Pi Phi music, as well as furthering the Pi Phi reputation for good Fraternity music.

With the 1950 Convention at hand, the Committee has received many original songs to be entered in the Song Contest, all of which show above average talent. It will be difficult to choose the winners, but they will be a real contribution to the Fraternity repertoire.

For the cooperation of the committee members, the understanding and help of each Grand Council member, and the rewarding associations with Pi Phis, both active and alumnae, we are appreciative.

The Committee extends to all these Pi Phis and to all chapters sincere good wishes.

Respectfully submitted,
DOROTHY VALE DURAND

COMMITTEE ON CHAPERONS

IT HAS been a pleasure to serve the Fraternity again this year as a Committee Chairman.

The letters from Grand Council members to Province Presidents and Vice-Presidents, the cards and blanks with chaperon data from the Corresponding Secretaries of the active chapters keep us in close touch with fraternity affairs, and we realize the co-operation it takes to keep Pi Beta Phi the strong outstanding women's fraternity that it is.

All chapters which maintain fraternity houses have sent in reports to this committee. We now have sixty-six chaperons, six of whom are members of Pi Beta Phi. Nineteen chaperons are new this year and from reports all of them are the high type of women who grace all of our fraternity homes with distinction.

Letters were sent to all chaperons notifying them of the Training School for Housemothers at Purdue University this summer and of Grand Council's offer to pay tuition for any Pi Beta Phi housemother who wishes to attend the school.

Again this year my hat is off to our prompt active chapter corresponding secretaries, and my thanks to the chaperons who have kept in touch with me. I also wish to express my sincere appreciation to Mrs. Carson and to Miss Scivally who so ably assist this committee at all times and to Miss Onken who gives so generously of her time and enthusiasm, and to all members of Grand Council to whom we may always turn for support and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
LEILA GRAY CLIFTON

EMMA HARPER TURNER MEMORIAL FUND COMMITTEE

'Rememb'ring, yet, that when needs arise
Your Arrow asks of you unstinted measure
Of love and sacrifice for all Pi Phis."

YOUR remembering has given pure delight, priceless courage and material benefit to a little group of dearly loved Pi Phi sisters. To a much larger group your remembering has awakened renewed pride and great satisfaction as they shared in Pi Phi's adventure in friendship which is proving that "Pi Phi love is ever thus abiding."

This committee reports that a total of seventeen gifts of $180.00 each have been given by you to remind Pi Phi shut-ins of your loving and friendly interest, bringing happiness to them and to those Pi Phi friends who love and admire them.

There is need for a more general understanding of the functioning of this four year old Pi Phi service in order to use wisely the small fund now available. The committee foresees the desirability of increasing this fund in order to meet an ever-growing opportunity to serve. Considering Pi Beta Phi's chapter expansion program and recognizing the rate of our annual increase in membership, the law of averages indicates that many, many members will need our help and encouragement.

In the case of need we have found that this gift-form assistance can be given with the minimum amount of Fraternity responsibility. Since our assistance does not involve a pledge to provide income, housing, or physical care, our recipients remain eligible for all possible public aid and the supervisory care is left to members of their home community.

As our fund grows Pi Beta Phi could make gifts which would provide adequately for complete care of a needy member, if we considered the need urgent and justified, but in no sense would we be embarrassed or overburdened by assuming permanent responsibility. We give only as we are able, with no legal involvements. This freedom from obligation is one good reason why we recommend to the Fraternity a continuance of this gift-form assistance.

Because a Pi Phi remembered to request a gift for a friend, many beautiful letters of appreciation are recorded as touching tribute to the worth of this endeavor to live up to our cherished ideals. Strong links in our golden chain of friendship are being formed through the use of the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund.

This committee thanks you for the privilege of serving as your messenger of good will.

ETHEL H. COPP

ALUMNÆ HOME COMMITTEE

DURING this past fraternity year which is just closing, the Alumnae Home Committee and the affiliated sub-committee of forty have put forth their best efforts toward raising money for the Home and acquainting all alumnae with its purpose. In September, 1949, we mailed out to all of our 37,000 alumnae the brochure setting forth the purpose of the Home and asking for funds for its support. Response to that appeal has been generous and widespread. Though the figures change constantly, we have, at this time, about $27,000.00 in the bank. In addition, several clubs and individuals tell us that they have cash or bonds earmarked for the Home, which they will give as soon as actual need for them arises. Also we have promises of gifts of more than $5,000.00 once the Home is actually in operation.

We have not formulated definite plans for establishing and running the Home. Present day conditions change rapidly and it seemed useless to make too many plans until more money was available. However, the Committee has several suggestions and recommendations to make.

We suggest that the next Committee be chosen as this one was—from one strong club or from a group of well-organized clubs in the same locality. It is of great value to the Committee to be able to meet often and sometimes on very short notice.

We recommend that the next Committee, with the advice and co-operation of our Pi Phi lawyer, Mr. Wheat, be incorporated into a Board of Trustees, with all legal rights, duties and privileges appertaining to such a Board. At this point I can do no better than to quote from Mrs. Middleton's recommendation to the 1948 Convention:

"The purpose of the corporation is to establish and maintain a home for elderly Pi Phis and not for profit; to buy and to hold real estate for the use of said home and to sell the same when deemed necessary; to receive, hold, use and dispose of gifts, donations and bequests for the benefit of said home and to do all things necessary to establish, maintain and to carry on such a home."

In any event the lawyer's counsel would be vital.

Details of admission to and administration of the Home could best be left to this Board.

We suggest that a small hotel or a large home be bought and remodeled, if necessary, rather than to build a house, since present construction costs are so high and uncertain. Possibly several smaller homes located in various parts of the country would be better than one large home.

At this time a great deal of attention is being paid to the needs and wants of the older members of our population. Rightfully so, since we are constantly being reminded of the increasingly greater proportion of persons over 65 to the younger people. How fitting that Pi Phi should recognize this condition and be among the first to help meet it by providing a pleasant home, or homes, on the order of clubs, for our members who desire such accommodations! Once established, these homes could be very nearly self-supporting. Helping to maintain them could well be a project which our alumnae would undertake with enthusiasm.

For the plan to succeed it must have plenty of publicity and the enthusiastic and sincere support of all alumnae and alumnae clubs. There is plenty of interest in the Home. Our alumnae need only the assurance that the Home project will be continued to expand that interest.

In closing, I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks to the members of the Cleveland Committee who have worked so faithfully. It has been a closely knit and harmonious group. Also a special tribute of gratitude to the members of the sub-committee of forty. Most of them have worked like beavers and to their efforts we owe a great deal of the success of our campaign for funds.

The Committee acknowledges with thanks the help it has received from Miss Onken and Mrs. Wild. We also thank Mrs. Alford for always giving us space in the ARROW.

Respectfully submitted,

CONTACT MEMBER OF SAVE THE CHILDREN FEDERATION

It is most gratifying to report on the generosity of our organization to the children in the stricken areas of Europe who are needing our help. This personal contact will mean much more in the years to come than we can realize at this time. Our contact is a link that cannot be forgotten. A recent talk which was given here seems applicable to our work. The speaker said, "the best investment toward the beginning of new democratic countries is in cultivating friendships with the young people. Representatives of universities, churches and the press from the United States have made gains toward that end. With them, will be the responsibility of carrying on when the occupation ends and we may be sure they will continue."

Again to Iota Province goes the achievement award in the way of praise. Three chapters, Colorado A, Colorado B, and Utah A have taken full sponsorships, and the donations of South Dakota A and Nebraska B have been combined with the Iota Clubs for a sponsorship. The following chapters and clubs each has given full sponsorships: Ontario A, Missouri B, Kansas A. The six chapters in Zeta Province have one together; Illinois Z, Colorado A, Colorado B, Utah A, Texas A, Oklahoma B, Nevada A, Washington B, Cleveland East and West, Champaign-Urbana, Oak Park-River Forest, Tulsa and Honolulu. Twelve of seventeen individual organizations who have sponsorships had full sponsorships the previous year. The Tulsa Club is sponsoring an eight year old Indian child. When it is possible, the donations of a province have been used in the name of the province. The instructions in such cases are that all communications are to be made through the province officers concerned.

Many clubs have been most generous in sending boxes to the children of Europe and it would give a much truer picture of our generosity and helpfulness if it were possible to include this in the report. Some clubs have sent boxes to their sponsored child twice a year and in these included gifts for other members of the family. Some chapters have contributed generously through similar organizations in their respective schools.

Save the Children Federation has a full program for the United States and will send out information about those who need this help. Some clubs have wanted to sponsor children to our own country, and in each instance this has been taken up with the Federation. This choice seems advisable for some of our clubs and chapters feel greater interest in the needs of their own section of the country.

Your Contact Member feels it a real privilege to have served Pi Beta Phi in this capacity.

Respectfully submitted,

LOIS F. STOLMAN

COMMITTEE ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE ALUMNÆ CONVENTION FUND

THE COMMITTEE appointed by the Grand Treasurer worked out as fair a solution of the distribution of the Alumnæ Convention Fund as they were able. There are unavoidable inequities and no doubt some mistakes, but with the help of the passenger departments of the Burlington and Union Pacific Railways to get rates for us our procedure was as follows:

1. On a blank map of the U.S. and southern Canada each Pi Beta Phi Province was outlined and the location of each alumnæ club marked. Then this was compared with a standard map and the city in each province considered the "center" was decided upon. We fulfilled to the best of our ability the terms of the motion adopted at the 1948 Convention that the Alumnæ Convention Fund should be so divided that each club's share would be proportionate to the first-class round-trip railway fare from the center of the province to Convention, plus hotel accommodations.

2. We procured the round-trip rates from these "centers" to Jasper. To each of these we added the minimum hotel accommodations of $68.00. This is the basic figure for each province.

3. This basic figure for each province was multiplied by the number of clubs therein and the results added. This sum ($44,962.97) represents the minimum cost if every club should send a delegate.

4. The Fund totaled $19,329.12 which is 42.9% of $44,962.97. Allowing .3% for expenses and contingencies, the allotment to each club was 42.6% of the basic figure for its province. Where a club had not used its 1948 allotment of $68.00 or in the case of newer clubs, $34.00, that amount was added to the 1950 allotment. Honolulu was treated as a separate province and allotted 42.6% of the minimum cost instead of the amount allotted to other Mu clubs.

The allotted amounts for clubs in each Pi Beta Phi Province are as follows:

Alpha East	$100.98	Eta	$ 75.38
Alpha West	96.21	Theta	67.73
Beta	90.35	Iota	83.37

Province President Reports

Material on campus activities of chapters has been omitted from these reports, since it has already appeared in chapter letters.

Information on contributions to National Funds will be found in the charts elsewhere in this issue.

ALPHA EAST PROVINCE PRESIDENT

IT is a pleasure to review the many honors and activities of the members of Alpha East Province. During the year of 1949-50 the seven chapters placed special emphasis on scholarship, pledge training, pledge-active relationships and extracurricular activities, and as a result of their efforts they have made outstanding records on their respective campuses.

Alpha East Province was privileged to have a Grand Council visitor this year. Lucile Douglas Carson made visits to all of the seven chapters in the fall. Each one of the presidents has written me that the members received great inspiration and help from her visits. In the spring, I was pleased to be able to visit the chapters and to find that they had carried through with Mrs. Carson's constructive suggestions.

The Amy Burnham Onken award for this province went to Jean Ritchie, of Vermont B. The nominees for this award, from the other chapters, were: Connecticut A, Ora Belle Holdridge; Maine A, Barbara Richardson; Massachusetts A, Elaine Boggs; Massachusetts B, Barbara Kinghorn; Vermont A, Katherine Pell; Nova Scotia A, Carol Wood. The Portland Alumnae Club award which is given to the outstanding sophomore in the province, was awarded to two sophomores. The committee felt that there were two girls who were equally outstanding, so they presented the awards to Jane Cook of Vermont B and to Janet West of Vermont A. The following girls were recommended by their chapters for this award: Connecticut A, Fannie Mariner; Maine A, Ida Moorehead; Nova Scotia A, Nancy Briggs; Massachusetts A, Joy Brill; Massachusetts A, Patricia Read. Since all of these candidates had such fine records of service to their colleges and fraternity, the choice was very difficult.

Scholarship was supervised by Ada Hagggett and the chapters benefited by her capable and enthusiastic help. Numerous methods were used to improve the scholastic standings of the chapters. In some instances, the chapters divided into teams and competed for high grades. The losing team entertained the winning team with a picnic, dinner, or some kind of party. Vermont B held a scholarship meeting at which the members assembled into discussion groups according to subjects and they discussed methods by which they could improve their grades. Individual members were appointed to tutor those who needed special help.

ALPHA WEST PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THE COLLEGE year of 1949-1950 is rapidly drawing to an end. It has been an eventful year on many campuses, and with many changes. It is time to take an inventory now of our progress through this year.

My visit to each chapter in this province was made in October, 1949. That was earlier than I prefer to go—however, due to personal reasons, and the planned visits of other officers, it seemed the best plan this year. The chapter visits are a great inspiration to me. The personal contact with the girls—

Nova Scotia A placed first again on their campus and Massachusetts B raised its rank from fifth to second place. In some cases the chapters missed a high standing because of a fraction of a point.

In compiling information on rushing, I find that very few rushees were lost to other fraternities. There is a feeling among the girls that more emphasis should be placed on knowing the rushee better and in getting to know her better by personal contacts rather than by elaborate entertaining. They tried this plan in some of the chapters and the cleverness and ingenuity shown in planning simple rush parties were most outstanding.

The housing situation in the province is the same as it was last year. Vermont B, Connecticut A and Massachusetts B are living in houses. These chapters are fortunate in having fine chaperons who are truly interested in the welfare of the girls. The members of the remaining chapters live in dormitories and have meeting rooms. At Dalhousie University, Nova Scotia A has been fortunate to have a meeting place in the home of one of the members.

All of the chapters have contributed to most of the Fraternity's projects. The chapters have been interested in charitable projects on their campuses, and have worked at Christmas time to bring the spirit of Christmas into the homes of needy families.

Each chapter has a competent financial advisor who has helped check the monthly report and helped to make up the budget. In each chapter visit, I found that the active-alumnae relationship was very strong and that the girls really looked to their advisors for advice and help. It was most gratifying to hear the Deans of Women speak so highly of the Pi Phis.

The honors which have come to the girls in the province, because of their very active participation in college activities, are many.

I wish to express my appreciation and gratitude to Miss Onken and the other members of Grand Council for their help during this past year. Their inspiration and the fine cooperation of the active members and the alumnae advisory committee members have provided invaluable assistance to me in my work as President of Alpha East Province.

Respectfully submitted,
ANNIE LAURIE KEYS WHIPPLE

the chaperons, and the university personnel, is most beneficial to me as an officer—and I hope also to them all.

New York  $\Gamma$  this year has built and moved into a new home on St. Laurence Avenue in Canton. It is the first fraternity house to be built on that campus especially for a fraternity. It is a lovely building, well planned and spacious, and everything the chapter has needed and desired for many years. The girls are very grateful to Grand Council, and to their interested alumnae, for all of the help which they have received on the planning, and building of it, and the financial arrangements made. Every chapter in this province owns its own house. New York Delta hopes to be able to build a new house very soon, as the present one which they now occupy is most inadequate. One of the chapters is handicapped by an advisory board that is too small, which of course cannot be helped. The others all have a very satisfactory and interested group of alumnae, who help them in innumerable ways. The alumnae club of Toronto this year had a very big Bazaar where they made enough money to re-decorate the chapter house, and also to pay the mortgage off on it. New York Alpha just had another very welcome gift from their alums, a radio-victrola.

There is a quota system on all but one of our campuses—no one of them is alike, but all restrict the number of pledges and upper-class women who can be pledged. All chapters have budgeted for each Pi Beta Phi project. The Amy Burnham Onken Award went this year to Carolyn Reamon of New York Gamma. Carolyn has been outstanding on her campus in activities, sports, scholarship, and leadership. She was recently awarded the Danforth Graduate Fellowship—one of twelve chosen in the U.S.A. for that honor. She has been president of her chapter and her leadership and outstanding personality have won her affection and great respect among her college mates.

I should like to give recognition to the excellent chaperons who are in charge of the chapter houses in this province. By their interest, diligence, and their loyalty to the girls and our fraternity ideals, they have made a very real place in the hearts of the actives and their officers. Our gratitude and affection goes out to each of them.

To each girl who has won recognition on her campus in some field of extra-curricular activities we feel must go our thanks and our congratulations—not only for which she has accomplished for her chapter, but for that which comes to her National Fraternity as well, by her efforts.

Comparative scholarship ratings are unavailable at this time—although we know there are no "firsts" on campus this year in this Province. However, all of the chapters are very scholarship conscious—and making every effort to bring averages up. Many have instituted new methods of study to help those girls under average.

To Miss Onken, members of Grand Council, National Committee chairman, I wish to express my appreciation, and thanks for the assistance, and helpful guidance which have been received from them this year, also to the vice-president of this province and the committee chairmen who have helped so materially in the province work, I tender my gratitude and warm affection.

Respectfully submitted,
EVELYN M. SLIFER

BETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

IT HAS been said that a respected name helps young people off to a running start. This is the kind of legacy that the Beta Province chapters will leave to their successors this year. Each chapter has built something of which to be proud. Each has fulfilled her fraternity obligations and has done a wonderful job of bringing Pi Phi ideals and standards into her way of living. It was gratifying to meet with Deans of Women and hear their favorable comment on the Pi Phis, and to learn of each chapter's willingness to work in complete unison with the college Administration. Alumnae also praised the ability and the accomplishments of their respective groups. There existed an unusually pleasant relationship between actives and their advisors. It is, therefore, with a deep sense of satisfaction and pride that I review the highlights of this year's work.

Candidates for the Amy Burnham Onken Award were very outstanding Pi Phis and a final selection was difficult to reach. The Province Honor was awarded to Janet Monahan of Ohio B. The chapter selections were: Doris Wellenkamp, Pennsylvania B; Ethel Peterson, Pennsylvania Gamma; Janet Ingerham, Ohio A; Joyce Bohyer, Ohio Delta; Marianne Chambers, Ohio E; Ann Marshall, Ohio Z; Mary Lou Hart, West Virginia A.

All chapters were pleased with their new pledges and the total for the province is one hundred twenty-three. All chapters held initiation and there are one hundred new Pi Phis in the province. Generally speaking rushing has been more satisfactory this past year because on each campus the Panhellenic organization has increased in strength and forcefulness. Six groups experience fall rushing, so many chapters have a spring 'rushing school' to prepare and educate members for this. Ohio E and Ohio Delta have deferred rushing.

Scholarship was under the capable supervision of Virginia Hussey. So far this year reports for the first semester only are available, but decided improvement has been made throughout the province. Five chapters are in the upper third on their respective campuses. Ohio B and Ohio E rate a first place; Ohio A, Ohio Z and Pennsylvania Gamma rank in second place. Last fall, the Ohio Z actives and pledges each received a scholarship cup for achieving the highest average for 1948-1949 at Miami University. Many individual Pi Phis are on the Dean's list for scholastic achievement and many are recognized in departmental honoraries. The province boasts of its thirteen new Phi Beta Kappa members; Ohio Delta has established a record with eight, West Virginia with three, Ohio A and Ohio Z each with one member.

Three chapters maintain houses in the province, furnished and decorated most attractively. Two chapters have very lovely apartments, two have a suite in the girls' dormitories, and Ohio Delta has just realized a dream and moved into a new house. It has been planned ideally for this group and furnished with excellent taste. Many busy hours are spent in these dwellings, yet many more happy social hours are enjoyed. As a visitor one is affected by an atmosphere of warm friendliness, hospitality and refinement.

Extracurricular activities are always a source of pride to the chapters, and impressive lists are reported each year. Outstanding work has been done by individuals and through chapter teamwork.

It was a privilege to attend Greater West Virginia Week-End at Morgantown. West Virginia A entertained the state alumnae with a very lovely luncheon in the chapter house. This was followed by an interesting discussion on local Panhellenic regulations concerning rushing. A very pleasant time was had by those in attendance and a friendly interest renewed among actives and alumnae. Mutual benefits would be derived from this occasion if it could become traditional.

Another interesting event of the year was a weekend visit in April with the petitioning group at Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, West Virginia. It was an enjoyable yet educational experience and will be pleasantly remembered by all of us who represented Beta Province.

And still another highlight of the year was the inspiration received by the chapters through visits of the Grand Vice-President, Marianne Wild, and the Grand Secretary, Lucile Carson. Each group considered it an honor and a privilege to meet these national officers and were greatly benefited by their understanding of fraternity procedure.

In closing, I want to take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to each chapter for their excellent cooperation with me and the fine manner in which each met her Pi Phi responsibilities; to the Alumnae Advisory Committee members for their close association and guidance to their respective chapters; to the various Province Supervisors for their service; to Central Office and all other Standing Committees with whom I worked; and finally, to the members of Grand Council for their understanding and assistance at all times. It was a joy to serve the fraternity and the Beta Province chapters. Such a truly happy experience will be remembered forever.

Respectfully submitted,

JEAN HOLLER GUSTKEY

GAMMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THE PI PHI year in Gamma Province started with a successful conference of chapter presidents and pledge supervisors. This meeting was held in Washington in September and was attended by fourteen representatives from the eight chapters. Aside from having a very good time, the girls ironed out together many details about the year's work, which helped to get them and their chapters off to a good start.

All my chapter visits were made during October and early November. At this time, I was able to go over with each chapter and its officers their plans for the many phases of the year's activity. This early meeting was most valuable to the girls (I hope) and certainly to me. Our planning together came at a time when it could be most useful, and I have noted with pleasure the results which have been evident as the year has progressed.

In scholarship, District of Columbia A is 1st of 12 groups; North Carolina A, 1st of 5; Maryland B, 2nd of 15; Virginia I, 4th of 9; Maryland A, 4th of 6; South Carolina A, 4th of 7; Virginia A, 7th of 10; and North Carolina B, 11th of 13. I can "point with pride" only to the first three. There is not a single chapter, however, which is not aware of the importance of scholarship. Their scholarship programs have been well thought out, and the scholarship chairmen have put real effort into making them effective.

Rushing was generally successful. The parties showed originality and planning, and the girls enjoyed carrying them out. It was particularly interesting to note that the rush season at Goucher resulted in our chapter's pledging 23 girls even though it was known that this was the last year for fraternities on the campus.

The housing situation has been about as before. Maryland B, Virginia I, and North Carolina A live in chapter houses. Maryland A and District of Columbia A have maintained apartments close to the campus. Virginia A has its sorority bungalow on the campus, and North Carolina B, its room in the Panhellenic House. In the middle of the year, South Carolina A moved from the house it had been occupying into a sorority room and dormitory facilities for the girls.

Founders' Day was marked at Maryland A by a banquet with Miss Onken as the honor guest. Maryland B and District of Columbia A celebrated together with alumnae in Washington. Virginia A and Virginia I were together for the week-end in Lynchburg. North Carolina A was entertained by North Carolina B at Duke; and South Carolina A had an open house and a formal dance with alumnae.

The winner of the Amy B. Onken award for the province is Adeline Andrews, past president of District of Columbia A. Other candidates were: Maryland A, Barbara Westman; Maryland B, Lynn Rossman; Virginia A, Virginia Lee Richardson; Virginia I, Patricia Jones; North Carolina A, Ann Chandler; North Carolina B, Jane Chivers; and South Carolina A, Barbara Raffield.

The work with Gamma Province chapters this year has been a joy. I hope that each chapter will go on with its progress toward the ideal goal we have for each of them.

Respectfully submitted,

BETTY STOVALL KING

DELTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THE DELTA PROVINCE WORKSHOP was held August 30, 31, September 1 in the Union Building on the campus of Purdue University with the eight chapter presidents, and the pledge supervisors of Indiana B and Michigan I in attendance. Every phase of chapter functioning was discussed, and the exchange of ideas and information proved to be most helpful and worth while to all.

During the first semester, the province was honored by a visit from Clara Hall Sipherd, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training. Mrs. Sipherd brought new inspiration and enthusiasm to the chapters and completely won everyone with her charming personality. We only regret that these visits by members of Grand Council must be so short.

Again this year our emphasis has been on scholarship and it is most gratifying to report some excellent results. Both Michigan Alpha and Indiana Gamma were first on their campuses for the fourth consecutive semesters, while Indiana Delta came up to second place. The other chapters have good, if not spectacular records, and we are pleased that all are in the upper or middle third. Membership in scholastic honoraries is as follows: Michigan A, 3 members in E Δ A; Michigan B, 1 A A Δ; Michigan I, 1 Tower Guard and 1 Φ K Φ; Indiana B, 1 Φ B K; Indiana I,

1 A A Δ and 1 Φ K Φ; Indiana Δ, 1 A A Δ; Indiana E, 2 A A Δ.

The chapters have been outstanding in activity participation.

This year has brought about some changes in housing. Michigan Γ moved into a new house in the fall and the girls are extremely happy with the change. The house is attractive inside and out and compares very favorably with the other houses on the Michigan State campus. Indiana Epsilon members have been occupying a temporary dwelling this year, as well as three annexes, and are looking forward to moving into their new house next fall. Michigan A lives in a house owned by the college and Indiana A has a suite of four rooms in the women's dormitory. These two places were completely redecorated last summer and are most attractive. Both Michigan B and Indiana B acquired new furnishings and decorations in their recreation rooms which have added to the pleasure of the girls. All the other houses are in excellent condition and provide comfortable and attractive living conditions.

The Delta Province Amy Burnham Onken award went this year, to Lou Ann Woelk, Michigan Γ, and it was a pleasure to be able to present this award in person at the Michigan State Founders' Day luncheon. The other candidates for the award were Betty Link, Michigan A; Joyce Atchison, Michigan B; Annette Havens Edwards, Indiana A; Phyllis Templeton, Indiana B; Alice Robertson, Indiana Γ; Jane Barkman, Indiana Δ and Nancy Fraser, Indiana E. The Indiana Cup, given each year to the outstanding chapter in the state, went back to Indiana Γ for the second consecutive year.

The second annual Michigan State Luncheon was held April 15 in the Union Building at Michigan State College and was very well attended. Vivian Lyon Moore, former province president, presided as toastmistress and presented Marion Simmons, national historian, who gave an interesting and inspiring talk on the Founders of Pi Beta Phi. Following the luncheon, a tea at the chapter house gave the Michigan Γ girls an opportunity to show off their new home to the many visiting Pi Phis.

As usual a huge crowd attended the Indiana State Luncheon held in Indianapolis on April 22. The speaker was Frances Falvey, Texas A, Dean of Women at James Millikin University. Dorothea Flint, Supervisor of Chapter Accounting, presented the gifts to the ABO candidates and the cup to Indiana Γ. The province president regrets that she could not be present at this event which always is an outstanding highlight of the year, but at the same time it was a pleasure to be in Louisville that day and be the speaker at the Founders' Day luncheon.

Interest in the new chapter house at DePauw was made evident this spring by some substantial gifts of money to Indiana E. The junior alumnae group in Indianapolis sponsored a concert by the Purdue Glee Club and gave the profit of $1000 to the chapter. The Southwestern Alumnae Club gave $350, Indiana A, $50 and Indiana Γ, $50. Also the profit from the State Luncheon which amounted to $101 was sent by the Indianapolis Alumnae Club.

The chapters are proud to report that for the fourth consecutive year they are 100% in their contributions to the Settlement School, Holt House, and Scholarship Fund. All the chapters enjoyed great success in rush and have added many fine girls to their chapter rolls. Hillsdale, Franklin, Butler and DePauw have rush during the first semester, while the other four campuses have rush deferred until the second semester. Hillsdale College is the only one which does not have a quota system in effect.

The chapters in the province have been meeting their responsibilities to their campuses, for all the Deans of Women reported most favorably. They especially commented on the good cooperation which they were receiving from the Pi Phis and on the fact that our chapters are outstanding in their leadership on the campuses.

No report can be complete without mentioning the outstanding work being done by the advisory boards in the province. They give much of their time and effort in helping to further the progress and development of the chapters and in every instance, the relationship between chapter and board has been most satisfying. The province president is grateful for their help and cooperation throughout the year.

One of the interesting experiences of the year was the opportunity to represent Pi Beta Phi at the Beloit College Panhellenic Workshop on March 4. It was a pleasure to meet the other visiting officers present and particularly to enjoy the wonderful hospitality of the Wisconsin B chapter. We feel that such workshops are valuable and hope that more colleges in this province will schedule them in the near future.

All chapter visiting was done during the second semester and as always the chapters were delightful hostesses. In spite of heavy schedules of conferences, the visits were most enjoyable. The province president wishes to express her appreciation to the chapters for their cooperation at the time of her visits and throughout the year.

To the members of Grand Council who have given their help and advice we are deeply grateful. It has been a pleasure and a privilege to serve the fraternity as Delta Province President.

Respectfully submitted,
HELEN ANDERSON LEWIS

EPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

AS THE school year of 1949-50 draws to its close, Epsilon Province records a year of experiences, honors, visits, and friendships dear to the heart of its President, and memorable to all Pi Beta Phis within the seven chapters.

Our Province Workshop was held in August, 1949, in St. Louis, Missouri, at the Mayfair Hotel. Fourteen representatives were present, including seven chapter presidents, five pledge supervisors, one rush captain, and one social chairman.

One of the highlights of Workshop was the evening Missouri B chapter entertained all of us in their attractive chapter room in the Women's building on the campus of Washington University. Marie Bacon Hagee, Director of Extension on Grand Council was our guest of honor. She gave the chapters words of advice as they were ready to begin their new year, and implanted a driving inspiration within the hearts of the representatives to achieve new goals in their respective chapters. After refreshments and beautiful harmony from the chapter choral group, we expressed our appreciation to Missouri B for another inspiring Pi Phi evening. A dinner and joint meeting with the Alumnae Advisory Board of Missouri B climaxed our workshop sessions.

In my first year as Province President visits were the important link between a new officer and her chapters. Since I held a position in the elementary schools of Gallatin, Missouri, I had to stagger my visits throughout the year, rather than complete them in one or two trips.

Very successful rush weeks were reported by all the chapters, and a very high percentage initiated. Two of them reported their pledges in first place on their respective campuses for the Fall-Winter term. One of the active chapters—Tennessee I—secured a first on its campus for the year ending in February, 1950. They were presented a cup by the Women's Panhellenic Association. Three chapters held a close second and two a third rank. Throughout the province scholarship was stressed even more than in the past. It is gratifying to see the continual building and striving for new goals, and near perfection averages for chapters. Next year should show an even greater list of scholarship honors for this province.

The chapters gave liberal donations to our Pi Beta Phi projects as well as to several local and civic needs.

Missouri A redecorated their large, charming house completely, giving the pastel period living rooms more attractive coverings in the new comfortable, livable, lines and colors of contemporary modern design. The project was a combined one of alumnae club, advisory board, active chapter and pledge class. The result is as beautiful as it is overwhelming and phenomenal!

Tennessee B is redecorating under a long range plan that adds to the house each year. A wing is to be added to the house in the future which will give added dormitory space.

Tennessee I added new pieces of furniture to their room in the Panhellenic building and have plans for redecorating the entire room before this coming fall.

Epsilon Province has an exceptional project begun by Missouri B a few years ago. This project is the organization of a girl scout troop at the Training School for the mentally deficient. These young girls are the best qualified in the school and are capable of doing some scout work. The chairman of the project has a great deal of initiative and has carefully worked out a rotation plan for the girls in supervising the scout work. They meet each week and either make plans for the next scout meeting, or go to the school to be with the young girls. This is a splendid project because it lacks a great deal of the glamour of social work. It keeps on going, week after week, and once begun cannot be stopped. We as a province are justly proud of Missouri B for undertaking this project, and the fraternity as a whole sends praise to the chapter for their undying interest in this work and the perseverance displayed by the entire group.

Several chapters in the province have seasonal projects of entertaining underprivileged children, assisting in civic drives as well as all campus drives and projects. The province is commended on its service to other fields as well as its outstanding contributions to the Fraternity.

The nominations for the Amy Burnham Onken awards were so exceptional it would have been just to have made an award to each chapter. However, the award was presented to Betty Stake of Missouri B for her outstanding leadership, long list of honors, and faithful service to the Fraternity. Other nominees were: Missouri A, D. Ann Aultman; Missouri I, Mary Lois Humphreys; Kentucky A, Martha Fowler; Tennessee B, Pat Jones; Tennessee I, Ann Norment.

Activities throughout the province have been many and varied. More emphasis is being placed on activities, service to the campus, and contributions of service to the community as well as the college administration. This year two chapters received letters of praise and recognition for services that were outstanding. Missouri A and Missouri B have set a new standard, and in the future Epsilon Province has promise of higher goals and more achievements. Missouri A was recognized for outstanding campus participation, and Missouri B for outstanding publications participation.

The wonderful cooperation of all the chapters this past year has been heart-warming and gratifying. Tribute should be paid to each chapter, officer, alumnae advisory board, Central Office, and all others who have assisted me this, my first year as Province President. To the members of Grand Council who have given advice and suggestions as well as sympathetic understanding, we as a province are most grateful. As we close the year, our plans for the future are held high that we as loyal Pi Beta Phis may keep the position of the Arrow—ever pointing upwards; as a challenge to the womanhood of today from the womanhood of yesteryear to preserve for the womanhood of tomorrow.

Respectfully submitted,
MARILYN WIEGNER BRANDOM

ZETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

ZETA PROVINCE began the year with a fine spirit of comradeship and cooperation, resulting from the Province Chapter Presidents' Conference held in Atlanta.

The highlight of the year was welcoming Alabama B into the Fraternity and Zeta Province. The colonized group at the University of Alabama was installed by Miss Onken in September. The beautiful ceremonies were witnessed by a large group of happy Pi Phis from other chapters in the province.

All the chapters contributed 100% to national projects, besides contributing to local Red Cross, student funds, and campus organizations. Zeta Province had a full sponsorship in the Save the Children Federation. Through the chapters' generosity, we have furnished clothing and additional pleasant living conditions to a little Italian boy.

Through friendliness and strong internal organization, the chapters have made a name for themselves on their respective campuses. Viewing the fact that several of the chapters do not have chapter houses, strong unity within is a fine achievement.

Florida B is making plans to remodel their chapter house next year. These plans will include enlarging the house, and making a provision to serve meals. Florida A has a new apartment in the Panhellenic House which is very attractive.

Rushing has been very successful in Zeta Province this year. From the various pledge classes, we have received many new initiates who are taking their places in college life. We extend hearty congratulations to these girls who have done, and will continue to do, noble and worthy deeds for Pi Beta Phi. It is the new initiates who will mold the future of their chapter.

Barbara Jean Morgan, Florida B, won the province

Amy Burnham Onken Award this year. The other nominees were: Maude Diseker, Alabama A; Lucy Spain, Alabama B; Lenora Williams, Florida A; Sally McDonald Blake, Florida F; and Elizabeth Neel, Georgia A.

Zeta Province had the honor of Mrs. Prouty's visit this year, and her charm and inspiration were deeply felt and appreciated by each chapter.

It has been a continuing joy to the Province President to know the high regard in which each chapter is held by its Dean of Women. To watch the constant growth in chapter spirit and morale everywhere evident, to learn of successful rushing and pledge training in each chapter, and to see the increasing efficiency in chapter administration are but few of the many pleasures this Province President has known.

Many of the chapters have realized first-place victories in scholarship this past year. Having been weak on this issue, each chapter has strived to improve its scholastic standing. As a result of this, improved scholarship programs have been introduced to the chapters.

Zeta Province President feels the deepest gratitude for the heartening cooperation given by the chapters in the province. Each chapter has set its goals, and climbed toward them in increasing harmony.

To Grand Council, the personnel of Central Office, the National Chairman, and particularly to Miss Onken, I would like to express my deep appreciation and gratitude for their constant help; to the Advisory Boards, my gratitude for their loyal cooperation and friendship.

Respectfully submitted,
EDYTHE BELTON TYLER

ETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

MY WORK during the past year with the nine chapters of Eta Province has been an enriching experience and has given me a deeper and constantly increasing pride in Pi Beta Phi. Each chapter has given any suggestion from me eager cooperation and all have sincerely tried to achieve the highest standing on their own campuses and in the Fraternity. It is a pleasure to report that the year has seen marked progress throughout the Province.

The Province Conference was held the latter part of August in Evanston. The benefits of this meeting have been reflected in the work of the chapters throughout the year. These benefits have come not only from the exchange of ideas and methods, but in the close province and national feeling which resulted. The fifteen girls attending the conference all contributed greatly to its success and did a remarkable job of carrying back to the chapters the feeling of inspiration and close friendship which it gave, as well as the more factual and concrete material.

Chapter organization has greatly improved during the year, as have chapter spirit and pledge-active relationships. Scholarship is the one field in which improvement is not as great as was hoped. However, only two chapters have dropped down the scholarship ladder. The others have remained the same or moved upwards. Illinois B-Δ and Illinois Θ won the scholarship trophies at Knox and Bradley, respectively, for the year 1948-49. At the end of the first semester of this year, Illinois H ranked first at Millikin, second place rankings were held by Illinois A at Monmouth and Wisconsin A at the University of Wisconsin, Wisconsin B held third place at Beloit, and Wisconsin Γ was in sixth place at Lawrence. Illinois Z ranked in the first quartile at the University of Illinois and missed first place by .01. Semester ratings at Knox and Bradley are not available, but Illinois B-Δ and Illinois Θ have maintained approximately the same averages as last year. Northwestern University does not publish comparative scholarship lists, but Illinois E continues to keep its B— average. The following chapters have representation in Φ B K: Wisconsin A—1; Wisconsin B—2; Illinois B-Δ—2; and Illinois Z—2.

Rushing was conducted most effectively by all nine chapters. Two hundred and twenty-nine girls were pledged during the year. The percentage of girls initiated was not as high this year as last. Twenty-three girls were initiated in the fall and one hundred and fifty-one in the spring.

The housing picture in the province is one of improvement and enlargement. The addition to Illinois H house was started last July and the chapter moved into its beautiful new home the first part of November. Illinois Θ has plans for an addition to its house and it is hoped that construction will start within the year. The bathroom of the present house was enlarged and redecoration done downstairs last summer. During the Christmas vacation the program of complete redecoration at Illinois E was finished and the results are very lovely. Illinois Z has a new terrace, the much longed-for driveway, and the dining room has been refurnished during the year. The living room of Wisconsin B's house has been charmingly redecorated. The House Corporation of these chapters have done a marvelous job. The houses are in excellent condition, physically and financially. Each of these six chapters is most fortunate in having a charming and capable head of house. These fine women have contributed greatly to the gracious and welcoming atmosphere which one finds in the Pi Phi houses of Eta Province. The other three chapters in the province do not have houses. Wisconsin Γ and Illinois A have suites of rooms as meeting places. Illinois B-Δ shares Panhellenic House at Knox with the other women's fraternity groups. Wisconsin Γ carried out a redecoration scheme in its rooms which resulted in a very charming and more spacious effect.

Chapter nominees for the Amy Burnham Onken Award were Janet Williams, Wisconsin A, the province winner; Shirley Fordham, Wisconsin B; Ann Cox, Wisconsin Γ; Virginia Haun, Illinois A; Marjorie Cecil, Illinois B-Δ; Patricia Olmstead, Illinois E; Patricia Wallace, Illinois Z; Mollie Bence, Illinois H; and Mary Blair, Illinois Θ. All are fine Pi Phis who have made outstanding contributions to their chapters and college.

I am happy to report that the province is 100% in contributions to the three fraternity projects. Illinois Z and Wisconsin B have sponsored children through Save the Children Federation. Several chapters have contributed to the support of foster children through their Panhellenic. Each chapter through the year has had some local philanthropy. These included parties for orphans, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, and work in hospitals. Illinois Z has contributed more than one hundred Pi Phi-made toys to the Champaign Probate Court for distribution to children under its care.

Eta Province chapters hold prominent and respected places on their campuses. Every Dean or administration representative with whom I came in contact spoke highly of the girls for their leadership and maintenance of high standards. Each chapter is outstanding in the field of activities. There can be no doubt that Eta Province Pi Phis are leading full and worthwhile lives at college. Lists of the more prominent honors and activities of each chapter cannot give the true picture of activity participation in the province for it is impossible to include the fine and constructive work done by those girls who were members and committee workers for the various organizations listed.

This has been a fine year for Eta Province. Each chapter has made important strides toward its goal, the Balfour Cup. Each chapter has made constructive plans for next year. I am deeply grateful for the grand cooperation I have received and for the excellent work of the chapter officers, Advisory Committees, and chapter members which has made such a good year possible. My very special thanks to Miss Onken and Gladys Scivally for their constant and wonderful help.

And to all Eta Province Pi Phis, I wish to express my sincere appreciation for your fine spirit, friendship, and cooperation. It has been a great privilege to work for the Fraternity, and a real joy to work with you.

Respectfully submitted,
MARGARET JANE DICK

THETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

FILLING in as Theta Province President early in January after the resignation of Verna L. Moss was indeed a new sphere of action for me. However, I soon learned what a rare privilege being an officer in the fraternity and working closely with the chapters could be. Corresponding with and actually visiting the girls have been a source of real pleasure, and through their fine cooperation I have been in close touch with them. I value these contacts highly and do wish to extend my sincere appreciation to them for the help they have given me this year.

It was a real pleasure to visit each of the seven chapters in the Province this winter and spring. All but two are comfortably settled in homes; these two have chapter rooms.

Scholarship in Theta Province has been a source of pride to most of the chapters. Three chapters ranked first and one second by a very narrow margin, while two others slipped below the upper third in rank. The greatest endeavor in scholarship achievement was at Minnesota A where a scholarship board made up of representatives from each class in the chapter set up study method schemes and plans. The entire chapter became spontaneously enthusiastic over scholarship, and as a result, raised its place on the campus from eighth to third! Two pledge classes won the Junior panhellenic grade cup, and Iowa B won first place for the seventh consecutive semester.

Rushing was successful for the most part. However, deferred rushing made it so difficult on one campus, that no sorority approached its former quota to any degree. In most chapters the parties have become traditional with decorations and ideas used from year to year. The chairmen have been active this spring with committees for fall parties appointed and already working. Pledge supervision has been carefully handled, and as a result the chapters are enthusiastic about their fine pledge classes and prospective active leaders.

My conferences with Deans of Women proved interesting, and in each case reassuring that Pi Beta Phis take the lead in campus honor, responsibilities and leadership. It was a pleasure to meet such charming and interested chaperones on the various campuses. Also likewise, the interest displayed by the various alumnae advisory boards was really thrilling, and I fully realized the value each one was to its chapter. Without their interest, counsel, and enthusiasm, the chapters would suffer a real loss. The association between alumnae and actives seemed close and sincere also, and gratifyingly, the chapters greatly appreciated this contact.

The two Big Ten schools, Universities of Minnesota and Iowa, both sent Pi Beta Phis as delegates to the Big Ten Conference held at the University of Illinois. A state wide Panhellenic conference of the University of Iowa was attended by representatives from each of the four Pi Beta Phi chapters in Iowa.

Theta Province is proud to be 100% in its contributions to the Fraternity's three funds: the Settlement School, Holt House, and the Loan Fund. In addition to these Minnesotal A completely sponsors a Dutch foster child, and Iowa Z supports a war orphan.

Each chapter is actively participating in campus events and is receiving the full share of honors and leadership responsibilities.

The untiring efforts and ready willingness of Miss Onken to answer my many queries has been greatly appreciated and I do wish to express my sincere gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,
BETTY WHIPPLE FRANTZ

IOTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

AREVIEW of the correspondence and the reports from the eight Chapters in Iota Province has been most pleasant and gratifying, pleasant to hear the success of their plans and gratifying to realize their efficiency and strong organization.

The Province President's Workshop was held at the Brown Palace in Denver August, 1949. Eight chapter presidents and seven pledge supervisors went back to college with a determination to apply the vast amount of information they exchanged.

The whole Province has been proud that One of Ours, Kansas A, was awarded the BALFOUR CUP for the 1948-1949 National Award. Kansas A was also awarded the Province Social Exchange Award. Kansas Beta received Honorable Mention and 99% on their History 1948-49. Two Scholarships were awarded to Iota Pi Phis; one Harriet R. Johnstone Scholarship award went to Joanne S. Johnston, Utah A, and one California A Scholarship to Shirley King Sikes, Kansas B.

Many new Pi Phi pledges were reported after successful Rush Weeks, either in the Fall or during the year. In most cases, all quotas were either filled or in some cases increased. All Chapters paid particular heed to all Panhellenic Rules.

All Chapter visits were completed by early November. The girls took great pride in showing me the new Decorations. South Dakota A had completely redone their kitchen and had redecorated the house-mother's suite. Kansas A had redone their two living rooms, hall and stairway, complete with luscious gray carpeting, ankle deep. Kansas B proudly boasts a very complete redecoration, starting on third and on to second where there are no two rooms alike. New drapes and furniture in the Living Room and on down to and including the basement recreation room made to resemble a French walled garden with painted espaliers. Colorado A has a new and attractive four bed suite for honor seniors and a new annex for twelve or fourteen. Each quarter half the juniors live in the annex and the other half in the house. Colorado Betas do not live in their house but they have plans for enlarging this very attractive Chapter House. While I visited Utah Alpha, the House Association burned their Mortgage and the actives were so proud of the beautiful new decorations and furniture that was added last summer. Wyoming A had plans to show me this Fall of their proposed remodeling and decorating. The work has gone on since Christmas and at last they are truly proud of their very beautiful house. Nebraska B, the last chapter I visited, had no major improvements, since last year they had completed a complete rejuvenation.

Scholarship has been stressed and emphasized all year. Iota is proud of Colorado B being first for two quarters this year. With a first in Spring quarter, it will mean three years running as first and they can keep the Panhellenic Cup. We are proud too of Kansas A and Kansas B for being 2nd by only a fraction of a point. Wyoming A made a great recovery and they were First Fall Quarter of '49. Kansas B was first this fall semester and they have 4 Phi Kappa Phis. South Dakota A has two Phi Beta Kappas and Colorado Beta has one Phi Beta Kappa.

Besides their contributions to national funds listed in P.V.P. charts, Kansas Alpha donated to their Memorial Tower at Kansas University, Kansas B donated to a fund to present the college with a portrait of President Eisenhower at his Farewell Convocation. All chapters assisted with Community Chest and Red Cross Drives or campus Drives. Nebraska Betas assisted the Red Cross Disaster Group when they fed and housed about 150 victims of a flash flood in Lincoln.

Several chapters entertained at faculty teas, dinners or Sunday night suppers. Only a fine friendly relationship between Pi Phis and faculty could result from these affairs. Christmas parties were given for under-privileged children or small children of local Pi Phis.

Founders' Day was celebrated in several ways. South Dakota Alphas went to Sioux City Iowa to celebrate with the alumnae of that city. Colorado Alphas and Betas had a gathering in Denver with the alumnae. The Lincoln Alumnae Club entertained Nebraska B with a cooky-shine. The entire Kansas A Chapter and two thirds of the Kansas B Chapter went to Kansas City for a banquet honoring Miss Onken. Both Wyoming A and Utah A had joint Club and Chapter meetings or celebrations.

Colorado A waited a whole year for Miss Onken's visit and from all reports it was well worth waiting for. When Mrs. Prouty represented the Fraternity at Utah's Centennial, she paid a visit to Utah Alpha. In May she officially visited Colorado B. Mrs. Alford visited Utah A in March. I would like to add my thanks to that of the Chapters visited, to Miss Onken, Mrs. Prouty and Mrs. Alford for their assistance and counsel.

The nominees for the Amy B. Onken Award were most outstanding and were very proudly presented. Each candidate for the award was an outstanding girl on her campus and had a fine record of scholarship, fraternity service, personality or activities participation. Nebraska B's Eugenie Sampson was the winner of the Iota Province AMY B. ONKEN AWARD. Colorado A presented Sarah Brown; Colorado B, Harriet Hardaway; Kansas A, Ann Learned; Kansas B, Shirley King Sikes and Norma Lou Meyers; South Dakota A, Patricia Bauer; Utah A, Jeanne Anderson, and Wyoming A presented Barbara Jones.

Two chapters had new House-mothers this year and only South Dakota A will have a new one next year.

The activities reports have been gratifying and besides the BALFOUR CUP, SCHOLARSHIP CUPS, PROVINCE AWARDS AND FIRSTS IN SCHOLARSHIP, there have been many outstanding awards and honors.

To have served as Province President, which affords contacts with chapters, their chaperones and alumnae advisory committees has been a rare privilege. I am especially appreciative of the fine close relationship between the AACs and the chapters. Many thanks to Grand Council, these Advisory Committee members and to all actives who have made this such a pleasant experience. I deeply appreciate the opportunity to share the inspiration and to boast the achievements of these wonderful Pi Phis.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCILLE NITSCHKE JUNGE

KAPPA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

EACH year at this time it is difficult, but gratifying, to make a brief written record of Kappa Province for the preceding twelve-month period—difficult because many of the most exciting accomplishments are among the least tangible—gratifying, because the fine records of individual and chapter accomplishment in the varied avenues of Pi Beta Phi development continue to demonstrate their clear understanding of fraternity standards and goals.

The year really began with a two and a half day Workshop at Dallas, with two representatives of each of the seven chapters in attendance for long, but rewarding, hours of discussion of many phases of chapter activity. Chapter visiting—always a cherished part of the Province President's privileges and responsibilities—was done in November and December. This year's contacts with the chapters at visit time seemed even more worthwhile than before, perhaps due, in part, to the friendships begun at Workshop time. All chapters in the Province were visited in April by the ARROW Editor, and the inspiration from her visits did much to bring enthusiastic endeavors to the end of the year's activities.

In scholarship, the Province "first" honors go again to Oklahoma B, who retained first place on their campus for the fifth year. Oklahoma A not only held first place second semester of last year but made the highest average ever made on the University of Oklahoma campus, 2,038—a record they failed to maintain first semester this year when edged out of first place by a narrow margin. Arkansas Alpha nosed out its close competitors to gain first place on the campus first semester this year. Texas A showed the greatest improvement, coming up from eleventh to fourth place for last year.

Oklahoma A and B have both had adjustments to make in study hall requirements and other pledge responsibilities because of school regulations governing the housing of all freshmen in dormitories and their studying there, at least during evening hours. Louisiana B, too, had to discontinue a study-room in a building on campus because of a University plan for dormitory study. Texas B maintained a study hall at the library for afternoon study hours the greater part of the year, and Louisiana A town members studied at the house during free periods.

Arkansas' Panhellenic started a new system of securing grades of fraternity members through the Dean of Women's office at the end of each quiz-period, and held meetings monthly of all scholarship chairmen. While not as efficient as desired at first there was enough value received that both plans are to be continued another year. Following SMU's First Greek Week, in which all fraternities participated, scholarship chairmen held several meetings.

Chapters maintaining houses continued supervised study halls for pledges, where possible, and for actives falling below certain established averages. On the whole a fine acceptance of chapter and individual responsibility for good scholarship was shown, but results in one or two chapters still fall short of province goals. The Province Scholarship Supervisor, Louise Gribble, has given fine assistance to all chapters and it is hoped her efforts will be rewarded by raised averages for second semester.

Pledge-active relationships have again been stressed—a more necessary part of chapter planning for some Province chapters now that by far the larger number of pledges are not allowed to live in the houses. Arkansas Alpha was again under deferred rushing, and cannot pledge until the fall of the sophomore year, when their pledges move into the house. Panhellenic presented an evening program telling of fraternities at the freshman dormitory this year, but aside from this the amount of association between freshmen and fraternity members is almost nil. Only upperclass pledges can live at Oklahoma A and B houses, now; as before, pledges do not live at the Texas A house.

Two chapters this year began systematic programs of inviting one or two pledges at a time to spend a day at the house, during which special conferences were held with them and special attentions shown them. Regular Pi Phi Nights, pledge-active meetings and social affairs were increased in number in most chapters with these oft-times serving in a dual capacity by programming faculty members as guest speakers. Every chapter entertained the Dean of Women and most increased their faculty-chapter contacts. Louisiana A held its first Faculty Tea, Arkansas A continued their regular custom in this, and Oklahoma Alpha's tea this year provided opportunity for an informal "sing" by faculty and members. Texas

A broadened their guest nights to include honoring outstanding students in a wide variety of campus positions, and set as a goal the bettering of "public relations" between the chapter and the independent students.

Two new house-mothers were welcomed by Kappa Province chapters this year; Mrs. G. C. Parker by Oklahoma B, and Mrs. Claude McClellan, mother of two Dallas Pi Phi alumnae, by Texas B. Both will return next year.

Texas B has spent an exciting year, for word was finally given that women's fraternities at SMU might have houses. A University-owned lot has been leased and the campaign for funds begun—now plans are being made and it is hoped building can start before the first of the year. Oklahoma B's house is being extensively remodeled—a new wing added, the old house redone and remodeled—so that when completed it will have an entirely new aspect and be greatly enlarged. Texas A has completed a fine addition to its house with enlarged servant facilities, and a good-sized play room where members and guests can gather for fun or such work as float decorations. Best of all perhaps the play room and adjoining sleeping porch are air-conditioned! Arkansas Alpha is hopefully looking to a new well-situated lot as the site of its future home.

Oklahoma A rejoiced in the completion of its two-year project of complete house-decoration with new bedroom and sleeping porch furniture and a modern, attractive decor throughout the house. Louisiana A added some new furniture and a general redecorating of walls to give a "new look" to its house, and Louisiana B continued to enjoy its room entirely redone only last year.

Several interchapter contacts were made during the year, the most unusual one being the trip made by chartered bus of forty Texas Betas to provide a cheering-section for the Texas A Pi Phi-Kappa football game. The game, incidentally, appeared as "Game of the Week," on television!

Texas A provided room and board and incidental expenses for a Displaced Person, who lived at the house. Texas A and Oklahoma B each gave a full sponsorship of a child through the fraternity Save-the-Children plan; Arkansas Alpha continued help for their French girl through Foster Parents. Arkansas A, Louisiana B and Texas B gave Christmas parties for orphans or underprivileged children. Every chapter contributed generously to Campus Chest drives and similar worthy local causes.

Activities are always high-lighted by the chapter nominees for the Amy Burnham Onken awards, and this year those so honored included: Paula Reagan, Arkansas A; Jeannine McGee, Louisiana A; Dolly Sue Viebig, Louisiana B; Sara Jean Landsaw, Oklahoma A; Laverne Bradford, Oklahoma B; Betty Bollman, Texas A—the Province winner; and Kathleen Minter, Texas B. Only the most outstanding of other honors are included here as all chapters maintained good representation in honor organizations, and contributed to the personnel of school committees.

My sincere thanks to the girls in the chapters who have made this report possible, to the fine advisory committee members who have assisted equally effectively with projects and problems, and to Grand Council whose advice and inspiration were a source of constant help.

Respectfully submitted,

LAMBDA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THE CHAPTERS in Lambda Province have made a conscientious effort to emphasize character development and campus citizenship. The most noticeable result of the right relationship of a girl to her fraternity is the interest in all that pertains to her college. By emphasizing scholarship the chapters reflect character development. Prominent positions in campus activities afford the chapters an opportunity to display true citizenship and a fine interpretation of Pi Beta Phi.

The scholastic rating of the chapters is most acceptable and proves that the memberships are emphasizing this particular objective. Of the eight chapters in the Province there are three in first position; three in second; one in third; one in fifth and one in eighth.

The average size of the chapters in Lambda Province is forty-eight. There are eighty-five Seniors; one hundred two Juniors; one hundred twenty Sophomores; and one hundred twenty-one Freshmen. The statistics on class representation within the chapters indicate that there is a definite increase in the number of women students entering universities, and the desire to continue through the four years is more evident.

Rushing was most successful for all chapters in the Province. The strongest competition in rushing was afforded by K K  $\Gamma$ , K A  $\Theta$ , and  $\Delta$   $\Gamma$ —which evidences the strength within the Pi Phi Chapters.

It would be interesting to note the acceptance of women's fraternities by college women, since there appears to be much unfavorable publicity towards fraternities, generally. The statistics given below refute any statement contrary to the value of fraternity affiliation:

Campus	No. Fraternities	Percentage Affiliated
University of Alberta	4	20.0
Montana State	6	50.0
University of Idaho	8	65.3
University of Washington	21	34.0
Washington State College	13	32.0
College of Puget Sound	4	48.7

MU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

WHEN "Know your Fraternity" was chosen as our theme for the year by the delegates to our Chapter President's Conference, it was with a recognition of the need for better training in fraternity background. Most of our chapters have followed through on a program of education by instituting tours through the archives, studying of national and local history, and improved officers' training programs.

Our Conference took place in August at the California Delta house with two representatives from each chapter, even including a representative from the local  $\Phi$   $\Sigma$   $\Gamma$  chapter at San Diego which was soon to be installed. Second only to Convention in helpfulness, these Conferences are a tremendous spur to chapter officers and Province President as well.

Close on the heels of this Conference came the installation of California E just before the opening of school and the pledging of California Z. There is no need to go into the program of these events as they have been well reported previously in the ARROW. As the second semester opened, California Z at Santa Barbara State College was also installed.

There is a very definite realization within the Province that there has been over-organization on our

University of Oregon	16	50.0
Oregon State College	16	50.0
Willamette University	4	50.0

The percentage affiliated is truly remarkable when one considers that the fraternity woman is definitely handicapped by Panhellenic rules and regulations from informing any rushee on the real worth of affiliation with a fraternity.

All chapters, with the exception of two, have their own college homes which are owned and maintained by an alumnae building association. Idaho A, Washington A and Washington B are to have improvements made on their respective chapter houses this summer. The cost of the seven houses was $299,000, but the present evaluation would be approximately twice this amount.

The chapters in Lambda Province contributed 100% to the Harriet Johnstone Scholarship Fund, Settlement School and Holt House.

Joan Mimnaugh, Oregon A, was winner of the Amy B. Onken Award for Lambda Province. Joan maintained nearly a 4. scholastic rating during her four years in college in addition to being entirely self-supporting. She is regarded as one of the most brilliant students to be graduated from the University of Oregon. She is a Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, and Business Manager of the EMERALD which is the highest paid campus position. Because of her outstanding personality and high scholarship, she was recommended as a candidate for the national Rotary Scholarship which allows a year's study abroad in any chosen place with all expenses paid.

The Province President wishes to express her official and personal appreciation for the splendid cooperation given by the chapters, the alumnae clubs, alumnae advisory committees, and mothers' clubs. With the excellent team work, and splendid spirit manifested by these groups, the chapters in Lambda Province are now enjoying a most enviable position on all campuses.

campuses. Deans of Women and our Panhellenics are taking measures to protect our chapters from being the victims of too many required meetings and projects. As a consequence, our members are being urged by their activity chairmen to choose those activities which give members personal satisfaction and which they can pursue for four years with the certain knowledge that they are giving worthwhile service to the University.

This past year we have held many high campus offices such as those in AWS, student body offices, etc. The province has had an abundance of members in activity honoraries, 9 in Mortar Board and 2 Presidents, as well as 26 in other senior honoraries, 14 in junior honoraries and 26 in sophomore honoraries, 6 in Who's Who. In the realm of beauty, almost every chapter has had some type of winner. We have a PiKA Sweetheart at California E, a Sweetheart of Lambda Chi Alpha at California Z, a Sweetheart of Sigma Chi at Arizona, a Homecoming Queen and the Junior Prom Queen at California  $\Delta$  and at Nevada a Moonlight Girl of Phi Sigma Kappa who went into the national finals.

There are 29 members in departmental honoraries.

California  $\Delta$  was the proud winner of first in the Spring Sing, New Mexico of the college Stunt Night, California Z of the Parasol Prance and Nevada with her song team was the winner at Mackay Day. Arizona has the outstanding Sportswoman of the Year, as well as 2 members of A Club (1000 athletic points.) California B had the Secretary of Homecoming, California Z was the winner of the Southern California College Oratory Contest, California P has the Chief Justice of the Judicial Court and holds the Panhellenic Cup for Scholarship and 6 members in our California State College system are in Cal Club. In addition, we are well represented in all class councils and offices, publications and sports.

Scholastically, California E is our only first on campus. California I is third on her campus with a higher average than when she was first for the entire year last year. There is a great deal of anxiety about the problem of scholarship and I feel that with the proper spirit prevailing our average should be better. However, from past experience, I find that imbuing our girls with a sense of personal responsibility is our greatest problem. We have 3 Phi Kappa Phis in the Province but since reports are not complete, there may be more.

While we failed in being 100% in contributions to our projects because one chapter failed to give to the Scholarship Fund, I feel sure that this was because of an error. The chapter concerned contributed twice to Holt House. The second contribution was probably meant for the Scholarship Fund. Settlement

School received $77.50 from us, Holt House $72.50 and the Scholarship Fund $60.

Our chapter houses are all in excellent condition and are well kept up. None have made any major changes since last year. We are losing chaperons at California B, Nevada A, and California I.

California I was the Balfour Cup nomination from Mu Province this year and the ABO Award was won by Jackie Yarborough of California Delta. Other nominees were Sheila Jo McKinney, California E; Dorothy Walker, California I; Rosemary Stockton, New Mexico A, and Elaine Horton, Nevada A.

While Mu Province has had its very definite problems, I truly feel that we have added much to the prestige of the Fraternity. Rushing methods are changing for the better and chapters are definitely learning the value of alumnæ assistance. A tendency to accept their adult judgement with more confidence than in the past, is apparent almost everywhere. This is one of the most heartening signs of strength, for when alumnæ and actives can work together with complete confidence, much will have been achieved.

As this year closes, I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks to all those who have helped to make my tasks such pleasant ones, to our splendid Advisors particularly for their fine work and for their kindness and consideration and to all members of Grand Council for their valued assistance.

Respectfully submitted,
OLGA CHARLES SILBURG

★ "As for myself, I shall be everlastingly grateful for my fraternity experience. The boys in the chapter did for me what the professors did not have the time or opportunity to do. Every personal trait was examined and checked. I was given first-hand training in the give and take of life. I learned to judge and be judged. I was encouraged to engage in one or more activities outside of my regular studies, and at all times and in all ways to exalt the fair name of my Alma Mater. And above all, I came to realize that the end had not come with the termination of my undergraduate days. Just as the national organization had, in season and out, worked with my chapter in its day to day problems—scholarship, business management, personal conduct, living conditions, loyalty to college, and other phases of campus activity—so had its many thousands of alumni stood ready to greet me and help me, particularly during those early post-graduate years when I was seeking to find my life's work. I spent my undergraduate days at Ohio Wesleyan University—a liberal arts College, having about the same number of fraternities as Amherst. I entered college with a distinct prejudice against fraternities. Among other things, I had been led to believe that they engaged in a lot of frivolities and nonsense—to such an extent as to prove positively harmful to serious scholastic attainment. But as my freshman days wore on, I discovered the fraternity men were not in the minority in any phase of student activities. I found also that the benefits of small group association were not inconsistent with the wider contacts and friendships that flourish in no other place so luxuriantly as on the college campus. In addition, I discovered that the limited brotherhood of chapter life is not inconsistent with universal brotherhood, but inspires one to be ever ready to give freely of himself, not for himself but for all mankind."

These are concluding paragraphs of an address by William R. Bayes,  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ , at a symposium on "Fraternities in a Liberal Arts college," at Amherst College, February 22, 1950.

Province Vice-President Reports

Reports of amounts contributed to National Funds will be found on charts elsewhere in this issue.

ALPHA EAST PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

MEMBERSHIP has showed a slight increase this year and all clubs are 100 per cent in support of our projects. Several have contributed to the Alumnae Home with Portland contributing $90. More clubs have had a place in the budget for a Convention delegate so that five clubs will be represented at Jasper Park.

New Haven doubled the amount of its sale of Arrowcraft and all clubs held displays except the two Canadian clubs.

Portland found it necessary to award two Sophomore bracelets, one to Vermont A and one to Vermont B. Hartford and New Haven each contributed $50 towards furnishings for the new house into which Connecticut A will move in the fall. A group of alumnae near Bridgeport had a benefit bridge for Connecticut A. Between clubs and chapters in the same city there has been fine cooperation this year, and the strong chapters give evidence of loyal Advisory Board members.

Burlington, New Haven and Portland contributed to Save the Children so that next year Alpha East will have a "god child" with whom to correspond.

A decrease in magazine commissions is disappointing. Three clubs did very little and the two in Canada found that the rate of exchange made getting subscriptions for American magazines difficult.

Montreal contributed to local causes: $100 to the Cerebral Palsy Clinic, $150 to endow a bed at the Children's Hospital, $25 to the Joint Hospital Drive.

Halifax gave help to a Home for Unmarried Mothers. Portland made a contribution to the Community Chest. Many members in all clubs take a leading part in community drives and other volunteer services.

Founders' Day was celebrated with true loyalty. I had the pleasure of attending banquets in Boston, Hartford, Eastern Maine, and a "Cooky Shine" in New Haven. Visits have been made to other clubs in the province.

There are opportunities for other clubs. Anyone moving to a new place can write to her Province President or the Director of Alumnae Extension for help in organizing a club. Ten members are required.

The Vermont picnic was held at the home of the State Rushing Recommendations Chairman, Mrs. Duane Sprague in East Middlebury and plans are made for another one this year.

Although Burlington is not sending a delegate, the members of the club have taken an active part in helping the chapter get funds for a third person to attend—a tribute to the Pi Phi spirit of her mother, Mrs. Flossie Hard.

The cooperation of club officers as well as the support of club members during my term of office has been outstanding. For the guidance and aid of Grand Council, Committee Chairmen, Director of Central Office I am humbly grateful. It has been a rewarding experience to try to help the alumnae clubs of this province.

ALPHA WEST PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

WE ARE delighted to extend a warm and sincere welcome to Hudson River, a new club in our Province, making a total of twelve clubs.

Eleven of the twelve clubs are 100% in contributing to our three projects.

The Toronto Club's bazaar was the outstanding money making project of our Province. With a long range planned program, excellent leadership and co-operation, their proceeds were almost $4,400.00. This was given to the active chapter to be used for re-decorating and repairing the chapter house.

The London club had a talent sale which was most successful.

The Syracuse club sponsored a play, the proceeds to help redecorate their chapter house.

Several clubs who are not close to an active chapter have helped New York Gamma with gifts and money. They are now in their new house. These clubs are Northern New Jersey, Rochester, Buffalo, and Albany.

All the clubs had most impressive Founders' Day dinners and luncheons. It was a real pleasure for me to attend several of them.

The New York City club had Mrs. Enteman, who was the French Lick convention initiate, as their guest speaker. Her talk was an inspiration to all of us. Four members of the Poughkeepsie club joined New York City for their celebration.

The Long Island group which is a part of the New York City club had a beautiful Founders' Day dinner; thirty-two were present.

The Northern New Jersey Club used the twelve figurines representing the Founders as part of their table decorations. One of their members made these figurines. Two of the members of this club have contacted all the Pi Phis in that area and have received $1,000.00 in personal donations for the Pi Phi Alumnae Home.

The Westchester Club has made a number of complete layettes for the Health Center.

Rochester honored three Golden Arrow members at their Founders' Day luncheon, and also honored Mrs. Simmons who was initiated sixty years ago.

We look forward to convention where eight of the clubs will be represented by delegates. The instruction and inspiration which these delegates will take back to their clubs will be of great value to the Province.

My club visits were most enjoyable. My thanks and gratitude to each club officer and member of Alpha West for their help and for making this year such a pleasant one.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation to Miss Onken, Mrs. Wild, other members of Grand Council and Director of Central Office for the inspiration and guidance they have given me.

Respectfully submitted,

EDNA O. ARCHIBALD

BETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE NINETEEN clubs of Beta Province have finished the year 100% in support of the three national projects, Settlement School, Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund. Membership in the province has increased over one hundred. The contributions to the fraternity as a whole, such as chapter help, club gifts to the Pi Phi Home, Save the Children Federation, and the three national projects have increased about one thousand dollars. Arrowcraft sales are higher. Thirteen clubs gave contributions of money to active chapters to say nothing of personal help and cooperation on the part of the others.

Many clubs continue to participate in their local philanthropies. Panhellenic interest is gaining, with Harrisburg-Carlisle and Philadelphia leading the way in forming City Panhellenic groups.

Philadelphia again holds first place in contributions to the Settlement School, Cleveland East second, and Pittsburgh third.

Chapter Loyalty Day observance has taken several interesting forms, and as our Golden Arrows are honored, we more deeply cherish the lasting bonds of Pi Beta Phi.

The province was delighted to have Marianne Wild our visitor from Grand Council but deeply regretted that illness kept her from completing her trip. We were so pleased that Lucile Carson could take her place for some of the visits.

It was a great joy and a keen pleasure to visit all of the clubs of the province during this year. The graciousness with which I was received, the enthusiasm expressed for the work of our fraternity, and the cooperation that followed has been deeply appreciated. Only through cooperation and the realization of the privilege of being a Pi Phi can we best serve our fraternity.

Sixteen Pi Phis put in writing their realization by signing a petition for a club charter May 25, 1950 in Springfield, Ohio. We welcome the Springfield Alumnae Club in the Alumnae Department and wish for the members much success and happiness as they renew their fraternity pledge.

To all officers and club members in Beta Province goes my thanks for the work they have done and for the privilege of working with them.

To Miss Onken, Marianne Wild and the other members of Grand Council, the Director of Central Office, as well as National Committee Chairmen, may I express my deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for your inspiration, help and patience throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,
EDITH HOYER RANKIN

GAMMA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE CLUBS of Gamma Province have reported more than the required four meetings for the year, with two clubs reporting seven meetings in order to enjoy a Panhellenic program of outstanding projects of sister and brother Greek letter organizations, an evening of Christmas celebrations of other countries, and a talk on the work of the United Nations to 1950. They have also contributed to the national projects and in addition have shown local interest in health and dental clinics for children by donating funds for much needed dental work. Three Clubs have reported an increase in paid membership—Charlotte, North Carolina, Wilmington, Delaware, and Washington Junior Group Club, with only one Club reporting a decrease due to the shifting population of Durham, North Carolina.

There is enthusiastic and continuing interest in the nearest active chapter as shown by assisting in rushing, through food preparation, counseling, assisting in house or chapter room decorations and serving as members of the house corporation, as in the case of two members of the Washington Senior Club who were elected by Maryland Beta to the Board of Directors.

The Mothers' Club of Maryland Beta has held monthly meetings and assisted the chapter in many ways including gifts of furnishings.

The District of Columbia A Mothers Club planned a large luncheon and Spring Fashion Show at the Bethesda Naval Officers Club and realized a sizable amount of money to be used for the active chapter. Mrs. Harry S. Truman continued her interest in the Mothers' Club and was guest of honor as were our Mrs. Robert Wild and Miss Kirkbride, Dean of Women at George Washington University.

Columbia and Chapel Hill have given very generously of their time and fund assistance during the year, as well as during rushing.

Baltimore added to their program for the year in joining with Maryland A in plans for Founders' Day dinner at Levering Hall, Johns Hopkins University, with Miss Onken, Mrs. Wild, and Mrs. Lingo as guests. Mrs. Hubeck read a few of the messages received from the many alumnae of Maryland Alpha and because all fraternities will go off Goucher Campus at the close of the school year all of the seventy active chapter members were inducted into membership of the Baltimore Club. A plan is now forming to add further to the alumnae club program for next year in order that the student alumnae members may participate more fully and grow in knowledge of the organization of Pi Beta Phi.

Miss Onken spoke inspiringly on the subject of service to the fraternity and friendship among the members through the years. Although there was regret at the loss of Maryland Alpha after 43 years of establishment on campus, there was a deeper determination expressed by those present to go forward through accepting individually the challenge to defend and sustain Pi Beta Phi and the fraternity system.

Washington was honored on Founders' Day to have Mrs. Eli Helmick, one of our pioneer workers for the Settlement School, speak on the subject of "Dreams Come True" 1912-1950, at a luncheon at Shoreham Hotel which was attended by some 300 Alumnae, District of Columbia A and Maryland B. The active chapter girls presented a play in 1867 style costumes depicting the Founding of I. C. Sorosis. An invitation to join us was extended to the Norfolk and Richmond Club but due to their long standing plans they were unable to accept and sent letters of welcome to Mrs. Helmick recently arrived from Honolulu to visit her son and daughter General and Mrs. Gardner Helmick.

Two clubs observed Chapter Loyalty Day with meetings and one club sent two checks of twenty-five dollars each to the nearest active chapters for the new equipment fund.

Settlement School Exhibits were shown in South Carolina Alpha House in Columbia followed by tea. Washington also displayed Arrowcraft in District of Columbia Alpha Chapter Rooms from three until nine in order to give all our friends an opportunity to attend. Members of the Junior Alumnae Group and the active chapter served as hostesses with the president and officers of the Senior Club.

Members of George Washington faculty, wives and daughters of Senators, Congressmen, high government officials' wives, Mrs. Tom Clark, Mrs. Charles Brannan, and Mrs. Truman called and purchased our wares.

Baltimore Club and Wilmington invited friends to tea, showed samples of Arrowcraft and accepted orders successfully throughout the year. All clubs have shown interest in Settlement School programs.

Norfolk continues work in Panhellenic and year-long alertness to new Pi Phi comers in the community since the military and naval establishments bring many transient members; the custom of calling upon arrival has proven an advantage to roving friends.

Richmond contributes to Elizabeth Kates Foundation which they sponsor in addition to our national projects.

Membership runs from 9 to 154 and with two exceptions all clubs have sent in the questionnaire, the audit card, and new officer lists. However, we list many more resident members than paid members and that is not one hundred per cent. Will you join?

Officers, members and central office have been cooperative, and to each one deep appreciation and thanks.

Respectfully submitted,
MARIE TUNSTALL LINGO

DELTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE 1949-1950 club year was one of progress for Delta Province. The increased giving to the fraternity national projects and to active chapters was the result of 100 per cent cooperation of the 19 clubs which qualified Delta Province as 100 per cent. There was an increase in paid members, affiliated seniors, gifts to Settlement School and Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund and a new high in gifts to chapters. The contributions to Holt House remained $75. The only decrease was to Save the Children which was $55 as compared to the previous amount of $95; however the Pi Beta Phi Home, a new opportunity this year, received $305.

Dues for 764 members including 7 isolated Pi Phis, netted a gain of 44 memberships over last year and 34 affiliated seniors reported, showed an increase of 22 over the 12 of the year before. Six clubs showed membership gains from 1 to 25 paid members. They are, in the order of greatest gains, Detroit, Southeastern Indiana, Gary, Bloomfield Hills, Lansing-East Lansing and Hillside. Shelbyville, Indiana was the only club to have 100 per cent membership of the local Pi Phis. Indianapolis maintained the same membership although the Junior group enlisted 21 affiliated seniors. Jackson and Fort Wayne also reported the same paid membership as of the year before. Two new clubs were welcomed into the province family. They were Hammond, Indiana with 20 members and Muncie, Indiana with 12. Northern Indiana, it is regretted, is no longer active.

Each year brings new evidence of growing interest and cooperation between actives and alumnae. Clubs all over the province willingly rush in whatever way Panhellenic rules permit whether it be by planning parties or working in the chapter house kitchen. Michigan I and Indiana E have received the greatest help because of their new houses although the other chapters have been remembered with gifts and loyal support by the nearest club. The chapters received approximately $2,942.66 in cash and gifts. Clubs have held joint meetings with chapters and both Michigan with 216 and Indianapolis with 316 Pi Phis in attendance, celebrated Founders' Day with State Day luncheons. Other clubs without chapters close-by, entertained actives at Christmas or during the summer.

Pi Beta Phis, in the 12 communities where there are Panhellenics, have supported that organization. In two places, Ann Arbor and Richmond, the Pi Phi club is taking the lead in the organization of the Panhellenic and the president of the Richmond group, is a Pi Phi.

The opportunity to visit the 19 clubs in Delta Province this year was a pleasant experience which proved that Pi Phis are folks you are proud to claim no matter where you are.

VIRGINIA BRACKETT GREEN

EPSILON PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

WE HAPPILY announce a new club at Lexington, Kentucky, bringing our number of clubs in the province to an even dozen. Along with this new club most of our groups have grown in size, Kansas City having hit a peak of 180 and Nashville having doubled its last year's membership. This year the Province Vice-President had the extreme pleasure of visiting all the clubs except the one at Lexington which was chartered just too late to be included in her trip. She came home overwhelmed by their hospitality and inspired by the interest in Pi Phi.

All the clubs except our brand new one have donated to all three of the projects—the donation totals for each being slightly larger than last year. Chattanooga was able to triple in donations to each project and Nashville doubled its gift to each one, while our year old Blue Ridge Club raised its Settlement School donation from $2 to $20. The largest donations came from St. Louis which gave $1,000 to the Settlement School and $315 to the Emma Harper Turner fund.

Arrowcraft sales were not quite as successful this year as last year but the province accounted for some $4,454.97 worth of goods being sold.

In magazine sales the province is in second place and two of the clubs, Kansas City and St. Louis, are among the first eight for the country.

Interest and pride in the Pi Phi Chapters continues to be strong in the province even those clubs not located near a chapter taking as active a part as possible in rushing and giving such help as is needed.

The clubs have tried to serve their own communities, Louisville manned a Cancer Drive Booth, Columbia contributed to an Incubator Fund and to the Red Cross, Kansas City is one of the sponsors of the Rehabilitation Institute with two members on its board, Nashville gave $500 to the Vanderbilt Hospital for care and treatment of indigent pediatric patients, and St. Louis continues its work for handicapped Girl Scouts. Springfield made a contribution to the Community Chest, Chattanooga and Louisville continue to donate to the Save the Children fund.

Six of the clubs will be represented at Convention and in addition the Junior group in St. Louis is sending its president to act as the alternate delegate from St. Louis. Knoxville is proud to be represented by Miss Ruth Dyer, director of the Settlement School.

To the club presidents, their hard working officers and interested members goes the credit for the good year the province has just ended. To them, to Central Office, and to the members of Grand Council who are ever ready with a helping hand I am extremely grateful.

Respectfully submitted,
ALICE W. MANSFIELD

ZETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

ZETA PROVINCE has had another most successful year. We have two new clubs, chartered in March, which bring our number up to fifteen. They are at Pensacola and the Palm Beaches and they are doing nicely. Our total paid membership is 441, which includes eight seniors. Since the number of resident members reported is 860, you can see how much more we are capable of growing. Two clubs are 100 per cent paid membership—Lakeland for the tenth consecutive year, and Pensacola. Tallahassee and Ocala miss this 100 per cent record by only two members each. The clubs showing the greatest percentage gain in membership are St. Petersburg, Tampa, and Jacksonville. The clubs reporting the most new members are Atlanta, Tampa, Orlando and Jacksonville.

We are almost 100 per cent in our contributions to the alumnae projects. One of the new clubs failed to contribute, but did send a generous gift of money to the Pi Phi Home. Total contributions to the three projects amount to $304.00, which is slightly more than last year's. In addition, three clubs reported donations to the Home and six to the Save the Children Federation. Interest in local projects has been excellent, with six clubs contributing money, gifts, or service.

Interest in and cooperation with chapters has been splendid and has taken a very tangible form. The most outstanding piece of work in the province was that done by the Birmingham Club because of its assistance to Alabama Beta. This club raised $800.00 in a little over a year and had charge of installation arrangements, plus the hard but splendid work of the Advisory Board. Atlanta, Jacksonville, Orlando and Tampa also sent gifts and money.

Tallahassee gave $75.00 to Florida B and Atlanta sent $60.00 to Georgia A. Orlando gave lovely gifts to its seniors at Florida Gamma, also a scholastic award. The DeLand Club had a housewarming shower for Florida A's new rooms and gave an $18.75 bond. St. Petersburg, Lakeland, Miami and Jacksonville together sent $70.00 for Florida Alpha's kitchen. Birmingham gave Alabama A $30.00. Other clubs report assistance in parties and rushing, and all clubs report a fine relationship with their actives and the chapters.

Birmingham Club held a state meeting for Founders' Day to which all known actives and alumnae in the state were invited. Tampa, Lakeland, St. Petersburg, Clearwater, and Sarasota Pi Phis celebrated Loyalty Day together in Tampa. Jacksonville and Miami are promoting a state meeting for Florida next year.

My work this year has been particularly enjoyable because of my club visits. Everywhere I went I found enthusiastic response and support. The members have a fine spirit of loyalty; they are working hard to further the ideal of service as expressed in our projects; and I feel sure they have a greater understanding of and interest in our national policies. The greatest problem is still that of membership and I know we can do much better on that if we all work at it. I shall always remember with pleasure the many wonderful Pi Phis I met during my term of office and I thank each of you for what you have given to me.

MARGUERITE BLOCKER BARTLETT

ETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE CLUBS of Eta Province have had an enjoyable and profitable year. They have contributed generously to all the fraternity projects, given help to active chapters, held Arrowcraft sales and Founders' Day celebrations.

We can report no new clubs but we do have several large clubs that hold both afternoon and evening meetings. These clubs feel this interests more members of all age groups.

The membership of the Province shows a slight increase. But in no way do the figures show the spirit behind all the affairs of the clubs. There are still many Pi Phis not members of clubs and this is a challenge to many clubs.

Fifteen clubs held Arrowcraft Sales. Some clubs held these sales with bridge, some style shows, others teas. Some clubs keep a continuous supply of articles to display at each meeting and always available at the home of the Settlement School Chairman. Campaign-Urbana was again high in gross sales in the amount of $2,860.00; Peoria was second with $1,263.89.

Save the Children Federation benefited greatly by the contributions of the clubs of Eta Province. Two clubs paid for full sponsorships. These are Campaign-Urbana and Oak Park-River Forest. Ten clubs contributed $105.00 making another full sponsorship for the Province.

Indiana Epsilon benefited from the generosity of several clubs who sent gifts of money to help in furnishing their new home. Nearly every club has a tie with some active chapter which greatly increases the enthusiasm of its members.

Much enthusiasm was manifested in the clubs for the Home for Pi Beta Phis and fourteen clubs sent donations. North Shore Club was high donor, contributing $600.00. Chicago South was second high donor with $460.00. The total sum donated was $1,764.20.

Many clubs plan summer rush parties for girls who plan to enter college this fall.

Aside from contributions to fraternity projects most clubs aid local charities. Peoria gave $200.00 to two local homes. Seven clubs contributed to their local Red Cross. The total amount was $130.00.

The Chicago Area Council held a large Founders'

Day luncheon at the Chicago Bar Association. Isabel Pifer, a Pi Phi and president of the Chicago Federation of Settlements was the main speaker—her subject was "Opportunities for Services of College Women." All clubs held impressive candlelighting ceremonies with active chapters, where possible.

The past year has been a happy one for me as well as strenuous. The pleasure of meeting so many members of the clubs in Eta Province was most enjoyable. For your cooperation with me and many kindnesses to me I am most grateful. Also to Grand Council and Central office many thanks.

Respectfully submitted,
FLORENCE LAUDER

THETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

IT is indeed a pleasure to review the activities and achievements of the alumnae clubs in Theta Province. It is most heartening to see the wonderful spirit of cooperation and the splendid attitude, and the increased feeling of loyalty to, and interest in, the national scope of Pi Phi. The record for the year is presented with pride with all sixteen clubs 100 per cent in contributions to the three national projects, Settlement School, Holt House and Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund.

The Minneapolis Afternoon Club gave the largest club donation to the Home for Pi Phis Fund. It totaled $200.00. The combined donations to the Save The Children Inc. Fund enabled the province to continue its sponsorship for the little Italian girl, Laura Grimaldi.

Clubs situated in college towns have been most loyal and helpful in giving assistance to the active chapters, both financially and in an advisory capacity. In making official visits at the time of Founders' Day observances I was deeply impressed with the harmonious relationship, which existed between active chapters and alumnae groups as well as the thoughtful courtesies shown to a visiting officer.

Another observance during the past year is the growing interest and love shown to our Golden Arrow members throughout the province. Many have been beautifully and thoughtfully remembered and honored during the past year. We can all take a certain amount of inspiration from the intense interest and continued loyalty the members of the Order of the Golden Arrow have invested in the fraternity.

Worthy of mention is the matter of program building by the clubs in the province. There has been a marked improvement in the types of programs prepared by the different clubs. A veritable panorama passes in review as these programs are enumerated, style shows, teas, white elephant auctions, square dances and pot luck dinners with the husbands present, in order that they too may see and appreciate the workings of our great fraternity. One of the most interesting programs reported was that of the history of the cooky-shine given by Gladys Noll of Iowa City. It was the result of some painstaking research on the part of the leader but from all reports it was highly successful and should be preserved because of its interest and value to the fraternity as a whole.

We are sorry to report a slight decrease in paid members and hope to be able to overcome this in our next year's report. We are also sorry that it was necessary to list Theta Province with the provinces who have not added any new clubs this past year. Suffice it to say our two urgent goals for the year 1950-1951 will be, (1) a noticeable increase in the number of paid members, and (2) the organizing of at least two new alumnae clubs in the province.

It is with regret that we find two of our sister clubs in the province having to re-establish themselves after the major catastrophes which came to them at the time of the Red River floods. We wish to extend to them our sympathy and understanding at this time of crisis.

For the co-operation of club officers, for the guidance of Grand Council members, and for the ever-widening circle of Pi Beta Phi friendships we are deeply grateful for the opportunity to bring to a successful close another year for our great Fraternity.

Respectfully submitted,
HELEN GRANT

IOTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

IOTA PROVINCE has closed a most successful year with 100 per cent rating in contributions, and three clubs, Manhattan, Hutchinson and Lawrence, with 100 per cent membership. We are proud to report the addition of one new club, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, our 245rd club. Although some of the clubs have decreased in membership, others have made substantial gains, and the province as a whole has gained in membership, the total being 879.

Almost all of the nineteen clubs held Arrowcraft sales and reported excellent success, as shown by the amounts on the chart. Splendid publicity with articles about the Settlement School and pictures of local Pi Phis were greatly responsible for the success of these sales. Many clubs felt that the social part of the teas and the publicity given to Pi Phi concerning our philanthropic project would be an invaluable help in rushing this year.

Many of the clubs are continuing their interest in local projects, making Red Cross and Community Chest donations, working on Cancer Fund drives, working with crippled children, Needlework Guild, and supplying food and clothing to the needy. Wichita packed a box of toys and clothing to send to Settlement School at Christmas time. Other clubs sent books to be used in the library.

Although we have had to relinquish our place as first in magazine subscriptions, we are still proud of our record, and hope to regain first place next year. We are happy to know that there is an increase in magazine subscriptions, and hope that many clubs will be stimulated to surpass the record for this year. The Denver Club has been first for several years but it seems that Dallas and Kansas City have taken the lead.

All of the clubs show a keen interest in doing their part in rushing. The Recommendations Committees are doing a splendid work, and wherever possible alumnae are exhibiting a keen interest in rushing, offering invaluable assistance. The help given to active chapters seems to be of this nature rather than specific gifts, although many substantial gifts have been given wherever needed.

We have one junior group in the province, a part of the Denver Club. This group has been an inspiration to the senior club, meeting with them for the four required meetings and having a member on the Executive Board. They have succeeded in interesting many of the girls graduating from college, and bridging the gap between actives and alumnae. The substantial increase in membership this year was, no doubt, stimulated by this junior group.

To date ten clubs have signified their intention to send delegates to Convention and we are hoping there may be more. The clubs fortunate enough to send a delegate will benefit immeasurably from the enthusiasm and inspiration brought back to them. I wish it were possible for every club to send a delegate.

It has been a real pleasure to serve you as Province President these past two years and I wish to thank you all for the cooperation and kindness shown to me. I wish to express also my gratitude to Grand Council for their ever-present help and inspiration and the prompt, efficient service from the Director of Central Office.

Respectfully submitted,
MARIE QUILLIN DIVISEK

KAPPA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

KAPPA PROVINCE has gained three clubs this year, those in Midland, Texas, Amarillo, Texas and Lubbock, Texas, which brings the number of active clubs in the province to thirty-four. The total paid membership is 1,417, including seniors. Every active club has paid dues, and clubs range in size from 9 to 164, with four clubs having paid membership of over one hundred. These are Tulsa, which is the largest with 164 members, Houston with 153, Oklahoma City with 128, and Dallas with 124. Four small clubs have 100 per cent paid membership, Pauls Valley, McAlester, Midland, and Lake Charles.

Twenty-seven of the thirty-four clubs may be classed as 100 per cent, with contributions to the three projects, the Settlement School, Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund. Four clubs made no contributions, one of these being the club just organized in March.

Problems of clubs ranged from trying to make inactive alumnae active, raising money (a very common problem of the small club), collecting dues, poor attendance, finding people who have time to work, almost complete lack of interest except in rushing, getting girls pledged, to the other extreme such as finding homes large enough for meetings, and finding a place to use the talents of the many new members due to the rapid growth of the club. Many of the clubs on their questionnaires spoke of the wonderful spirit of fellowship and the complete cooperation of every member, which is the ideal of every club, and which is really true of many of these clubs.

Visits were made to the clubs in Dallas, Ft. Worth, Midland, Houston, and Brazos Valley, Texas, Lake Charles, New Orleans and Shreveport, Louisiana, Osceola and Little Rock, Arkansas, and Norman, Oklahoma. These visits were most pleasant, and profitable. The increased knowledge of the fraternity is reflected in the increase in the number of clubs contributing to all projects. We still have never achieved the perfect record, which would be for all clubs to contribute to all three projects, but perhaps next year will see this ideal realized.

With the close of another club year, may I thank all club officers and members for their fine work and support of all fraternity projects, and Grand Council for the help, advice, and inspiration given so freely when needed. It has been a very successful year for Kappa province.

Respectfully submitted,
THERESA GIBSON GRAHAM

LAMBDA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

INTEREST, enthusiasm, and accomplishment have run high in Lambda Province this year, due in large part to the fact that, for the second time in history we had the privilege of being hostess to the fraternity at convention. Jasper and its breath-taking beauty, days of working and playing together, and Mary Mooney with her wonderful committee will not soon be forgotten, and we are so happy to have shared them with you. For convention was in truth a Lambda Province success and all the clubs had a part in making it so.

All the while they were busy with decorations and favors, they took time out to enroll the greatest number of paid members we have ever had—877—which is 110 more than last year's all-time high. Many of the clubs were asked to supply favors, but that did not affect their giving to Pi Phi projects for we are 100 per cent as a province, including the club that was organized in Klamath Falls, Oregon in February. Our Settlement School gift amounts to $552.50, Holt House received $136.50 ($12 more than last year), and the Emma Harper Turner Fund was swelled by $153—nearly twice the amount for 1948-49. The largest gift, $50, came from the Portland Club who thought the fund an excellent way to lend a hand to an indigent Pi Phi.

Thirteen of our twenty-one clubs held Arrowcraft Sales, grossing a total of approximately $10,000, eight gave to local charitable causes and 7 contributed to the Save-the-Children Federation. Sixteen clubs had official representatives at convention.

Our record for the past seven years while I have served as Province Vice-President is one of continual progress, and because I know you all so well, I am sure that that is the pattern of the future. It is with sincere regret, knowing full well how much I'm going to miss you, that I have decided this should be my last year to serve you. But in an organization like Pi Beta Phi there are so many who should be given the privilege to share and experience the great pleasures and advantages that come to any one who thus serves, that it is only fair to you for me to step aside for one of them. I can't begin to tell you how very much I have loved working with and for you, how much I shall cherish all the experiences that have been mine as your province officer, nor the extent of my good wishes for your future. Your new officer is indeed fortunate to "inherit" such a fine family, and I know you will continue to give her the very fine cooperation that you have given me; so don't forget that we must continue to work hard, for only one 100 per cent club (Wenatchee) is not enough!

For all the help and understanding from Grand Council members, for the efficient service of Central Office and all the committee chairmen, I am deeply grateful. Very best wishes for each of you always.

LOUISE WHEELLOCK DOBLER

MU PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

As I review the accomplishments in Mu Province for 1949-1950, I feel a glow of satisfaction for not only has our family grown in numbers, but I feel we have grown in stature. We have added three new alumnae clubs to our roster—Roswell, New Mexico, Centinela Valley and Solano County. This brings our total to twenty-eight clubs. All of the clubs, with the exception of Solano County (which was just chartered) are 100 per cent clubs, having supported the three National Projects. The total paid membership in the province is now 1,393, a gain over last year of 145 paid members. Constitutional requirements were met by all the clubs.

One club, Honolulu, supported a child for one year through the Save The Children Federation. San Francisco and Roswell, New Mexico, donated toward that project. San Jose again topped the province in magazine sales for the Settlement School and ranked first of all the alumnae clubs in the country for the highest commissions per capita.

Ways and Means projects included square dances, dessert-bridge parties, hobby shows, puppet shows, rummage sales, and the sponsorship of plays and programs by professional entertainers. South Coast keeps a "pottery Pig" handy; the proceeds are sent to Settlement School.

Attendance at the meeting of Province officers in Decatur in June 1949 was both an education and an inspiration to this officer. It was also my privilege to assist Miss Onken, Mrs. Alford and Mrs. Siburg at the installation of California E and California Z; this was an inspiration I shall never forget. Our Grand President's devotion to Pi Beta Phi was transferred to each new initiate. For us "old Pi Phis" it was like being initiated all over again.

Official visits were made to every club in the province, except Fresno. Business was combined with the pleasure of meeting old friends and making new friends who wear the arrow.

This year brings to a close my term as Province Vice-President. To all of you—Miss Onken, Marianne Wild, Olga Siburg, Adèle Alford, Gladys Scivally and all of the wonderful presidents of Mu's alumnae clubs, who have made my term pleasant and successful, I am deeply grateful.

Respectfully submitted,
MARCELLA MCCORMICK RHODES
