> From Kansas City Alumnæ Club comes this interesting idea: Virginia Reinecke Weaver, chairman of the Centennial Fund for Kansas City Alumnæ Club, has come up with a novel idea for promoting contributions to the Centennial Fund.

Called "a link to the future," it is a chain with links made of gold foil. On each link is written the name of its contributor in black. Virginia regularly urges Club members not to be a "missing link."

The attractive chain is pinned to the draperies behind our meeting table set-up. It now reaches about half-way, and Virginia expects it to stretch much farther before the year's end. Virginia is a past president of the Kansas City Alumnæ Club.

(If all clubs would link their chains together, perhaps we could have a chain that would stretch around Convention Hall.)

SPRING 1958 VOLUME 74 NUMBER 3

EDITORIALS

In connection with the story of the meetings of National Panhellenic Conference in this issue, we give you real food for thought. Our Panhellenic delegate, Marianne Reid Wild, gives us her over-all appraisal of the meeting; Marian Wiley Keys, Alpha Phi, gives us the account of the proceedings, including the always interesting meeting of the Editor's Conference; and in conclusion we print in full the significant speech of Dr. Humbert, president of DePauw University, given at the final banquet.

Read these, think of the points they make, and you should arrive at a greater comprehension of the duties and responsibilities that fall upon us as members of national fraternities. We have been honored with the opportunity of participation in the work of our college organizations, work which justifies the existence before the world of thirty-two NPC member organizations.

How may we best live up to the requirements of our high task?

Grand Council held an extra meeting in January to complete plans for Convention in June. There should be much of interest in its deliberation, much of pleasure and inspiration in the gathering of Pi Phis from all over this country and Canada! Plan now to attend—June 24 through June 28, 1958, at the New Ocean House, Swampscott. The Convention Committee calls it a gathering of the Pilgrim Maids. Please don't miss it!

Pi Beta Phi's Centennial and You

1958 brings us closer to our Commemoration Anniversary A modest individual program—only one dollar a year from you Will make big dreams come true.

The pioneer among national fraternities for women, aware of its heritage of friendship and service, looks ahead to celebrating its one hundredth anniversary in some fitting manner. This year's donations to the Centennial Fund are made in honor of Ada Bruen Grier, in whose room the twelve girls gathered on that never to be forgotten evening of April 28, 1867.

Each of you, and especially those not privileged to live in an area where there is an alumnæ club or chapter, may send your contribution to the treasurer of the Centennial Fund Committee:

Come to Convention

The Landing OF THE PI PHIS

→ THIS is for all Pi Phis making the pilgrimage by train or plane to the 1958 Convention at the New Ocean House in Swampscott, Massachusetts.

The "Pilgrimaids" will meet all trains and planes bringing Pi Phis to Boston. They are arranging to have busses to take all who arrive by train to the New Ocean House. Pi Phis arriving by plane will be met by limousines from the hotel, although if we find that a great many Pi Phis are flying to Convention, we will arrange for busses to be at the Boston Airport.

In order to do this, it is a MUST that the "Pilgrimaids" have the following information. Please fill in the blanks on the following page and send to the Chairman of "Pilgrimaids." ALSO—if you are coming by TRAIN and wish bus transportation, please enclose your check for $1.50 made out to Ethel M. Adams. This assures you of round trip transportation to and from the hotel.

If you are arriving by AIRPLANE, the cost of the limousine to the hotel is $5, but it holds five passengers so will probably cost you $1 (we will try to see that each limousine is full)—payable at that time.

Your cooperation in giving us this advance information and making your bus reservations will make it very much easier for the Pilgrimaids to get you to the New Ocean House.

PLEASE take care of this just as soon as you know how and when you are arriving.

AIRPLANE FARES

All fare quoted include 10% federal tax. Forty pounds is the maximum free baggage allowance. These quotations are round trip to Boston:

Convention THE NEW OCEAN HOUSE

Swampscott, Massachusetts, June 22-28

Priscilla Pi Phi Saus - -

→ WE KNOW you will be eager to get to Convention, but please do not plan to arrive before June 22 (unless officially instructed to do so) and please do not arrive at the hotel early as there is another convention checking out that Sunday morning.

Are you an "Old Timer"? You can be if you have already attended just two previous Conventions and come to this one. "Old Timers" are those who have attended three or more Conventions including the present one.

Single rooms are officially designated and the rate is $16.00 per day. So—please do not sign up for them. We'd hate to disappoint you.

Do learn the Cooky-Shine Song. We are going to have a giant cooky-shine for you and want to sing the song then. It's in the new song book and it will sound so much better if all of us know it ahead of time.

The cooky-shine will be a real supper and served at tables. You see, if we were to sit you on the ground, as usual, we would stretch all the way to Gloucester!

Planning a post-convention trip? How about Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard or Nantucket—The White Mountains, the Maine coast or Vermont? For further information please write to:

> The Gray Line Vacation Tours Sheraton Plaza Hotel Boston 16, Mass.

If you would like to give your home state some publicity, bring some favors to Convention. If you intend to do so, please notify the Favors Chairman,

> Miss Barbara Putnam Boston University Junior College 688 Boylston Street Boston, Mass.

(This for groups exclusive of the two hostess Provinces)

Please be sure to let the Chairman of the "Pilgrimaids" know your method, time and place of arrival. It will make life so much easier for her.

RECREATION DAY—June 25th

→ STEEPED in early American history and landmarks of the 17th and 18th centuries, Boston, the Hub of the Universe, and its surrounding environs provide much for those who would like to take sightseeing tours on Recreation Day. See the places that you have read of in your history books. There will be a choice of three trips from which you make chose.

1. This tour takes approximately two hours and includes historic and modern Boston. Some of the stops which are included are, Old North Church, Navy Yard, Faneuil Hall, site of the Boston Massacre, the British State House, Kings Chapel and Old South Meeting House.

3. The route that Paul Revere made famous will be followed for the most part in this tour to the birthplace of American liberty and the homes of America's foremost authors—Longfellow, Lowell, Hawthorne, Louisa May Alcott and Emerson. Stops will also be made at the Mapparium, the Aggassiz Museum of Harvard to see the glass flowers, Lexington Battleground, Concord Battleground, Graves of the British Soldiers and the Old North Bridge in Concord. This trip will also take about four hours.

In addition to the tours above—the tennis courts and golf course at the hotel will be available and, of course, the great Atlantic Ocean is in the front yard, so to speak. For swimming in the surf or just for lazing in the sun, the private beach of the hotel will be at hand.

We are allowing time for you to catch your breath after your full day—then follows the cooky-shine supper. Maybe one of the traditions your Chapter follows will be used !

We hope we are going to see you here next June.

National Panhellenic Conference

→ IN THE YEARS when the United States was acquiring territorial possessions—Puerto Rico, the Philippines, Hawaii, and Alaska—and bringing them closer together, the women's national fraternities were effecting an organization. It was to serve not only as a forum where common objectives, and mutual problems could be discussed, but also as a means of bringing them closer together. That organization, now composed of thirty-two women's fraternities, is known as the National Panhellenic Conference. With the passing of the years there has grown among the members the realization of the importance of that mutuality.

Out of that spirit came many important decisions at the 1957 meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference. Among them, two stand out as being significantly important. The first, The Declaration for Freedom is an Agreement unanimously passed by the delegates and later ratified by each National President. An Agreement thus entered into and adopted becomes binding upon each group and component thereof. The second is the Statement of Rights.

From reports which come to us in America by various media we know that in the satellite countries the pressures for uniformity are becoming unbearable. We must stand fast to defend our right to form various kinds of voluntary associations which are not necessarily uniform in nature.

Before we are prepared to defend our rights we must educate ourselves concerning the constitutional documents and the principles which they espouse, as well as to become familiar with the ideologies which threaten them. Dr. Russell Kirk in his recent book The American Cause said "Many Americans are badly prepared for their task of defending their own convictions and interests and institutions against the grim threat of collectivism."

It becomes a challenge to each Pi Beta Phi to inform herself fully and carefully on our basic rights for Freedom. And thus we shall be doing our part to make this National Panhellenic Conference Declaration for Freedom and the Statement of Rights living and vital forces in the defense of our country.

NPC DECLARATION FOR FREEDOM (Agreement)

"Statements are frequently made advocating the teaching of the theory and practice of communism. Because of our devotion to our country and allegiance to God, we agree with those who emphasize that before communism is studied, there must first be thorough and accurate education about the Constitution of the United States and the debates that dealt with its purpose to avoid concentrated Federal Power, and the insistence upon the principles which became the first ten Amendments to the Constitution, known as the Bill of Rights. Such knowledge is essential to the preservation of freedom in contrast with its destruction under totalitarian systems.

"The freedom 'Peaceably to assemble,' stated in the first amendment to the Constitution, makes possible a great array of clubs, societies and organizations known as voluntary associations which provide diversity of interests and satisfactions to members. We are voluntary associations. We are dedicated to the preservation of freedom of citizens to choose their association, which is a freedom characteristic of civilized cultures, a freedom protected by the Constitution of the United States, and sustained by the courts of our country since the time of its founding.

"We, the members of NPC, agree that we have a responsibility to contribute to accurate and more thorough knowledge about the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights, and to know the ideologies destructive of our country."

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS

"WHEREAS, We believe that all individuals have inherent rights to free choice in their associations with others; and,

WHEREAS, Certain conditions exist inimical to basic human rights which prompt the statement of the Declaration of Rights; and,

WHEREAS, These conditions have been strongly felt by the membership of college fraternities; and,

WHEREAS, The First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America specifically states that Congress shall make no law abridging the right of the people peaceably to assemble; and,

WHEREAS, These rights are asserted in the Constitutions of the various states; and,

WHEREAS, All powers not specifically granted to the Federal government are reserved to the States or the people by the Tenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution; therefore,

We declare, That the women's fraternities represented in the National Panhellenic Conference shall constantly affirm these rights and freedoms basic to the formation and continuance of voluntary associations. Such associations have freedom of choice under the law in the selection of their members;

We Further Declare, That we are united in our determination to preserve these rights and freedoms not only four ourselves but for all citizens."

National Panhellenic Conference Meets at French Lick, Indiana

By Marian Wiley Keys, Alpha Phi National President

→ THE THIRTY-FIFTH session of the National Panhellenic Conference, under the efficient and gracious chairmanship of Mrs. Cicero F. Hogan, $\Gamma \Phi$ B, convened November 4-8 at the French Lick Sheraton Hotel in French Lick, Indiana. Mrs. Hogan set the tone of the conference when she said "May our deliberations be forthright, far seeing and productive, all in the best tradition of the ideals that founded this Panhellenic organization."

The entire executive committee won the admiration and appreciation of the conference for the work well done during the biennium and for the fine spirit of the meeting. In addition to the chairman, the other members were: Mrs. Darrell R. Nordwall, A X Ω , and Mrs. Joseph D. Grigsby, $\Delta \Delta \Delta$.

Mrs. Nordwall, secretary, reported the addition of 68 new chapters and 69,515 new members and said it seemed safe to predict a million members for NPC by 1960. The past ten years have seen a 50% increase in the number of chapters over the number in 1947.

Mrs. Grigsby, treasurer, reporting a balanced budget, suggested that the budget of special committees be increased to cover a larger share of the expenses borne by fraternities whose delegates serve on the most active committees.

Several officers of each of the three hostess groups were present to carry on the usual duties given the executive committee fraternities at each session of NPC. Registration and presentation of credentials was smoothly accomplished by $\Delta \Delta \Delta$. Alpha Chi Omega furnished the pages for the main meetings and made arrangements for group meetings. $\Gamma \Phi B$ was in charge of the hotel arrangements and the social events.

"Cooperation at its best," the theme of the final banquet address by Russell J. Humbert, president of DePauw University, was fully demonstrated during the week. Representatives of 31 member groups (including I A II, which was admitted to full NPC membership the first day), all intent on bettering and strengthening the fraternity system, came together at this biennial meeting, to report on the past two years, to exchange ideas, to plan for the future.

The reports of the hard working committees of NPC are always impressive, showing as they do the devotion to the fraternity principles and the prodigious amount of actual work done during the biennium. They were never more so than at this session.

Workshop meetings were held on three important phases of fraternity work. Administration (national officers' meetings) was under the chairmanship of Miss Maxine Blake, A Δ II. Housing workshops, always numerous, were chairmaned by Mrs. Robert S. Wild, Pi Beta Phi. Case study workshops, under the College Panhellenics committee, Mrs. Crecene A. Farris, chairman, and several group leaders, also provided much food for thought and suggestions for possible solutions of problems. As in so much Panhellenic work, one of the important aims should be the education of our own members. They should be informed, as well as student governments and administrations to the fact that fraternities are not activity groups, but friendship groups, private, voluntary social organizations.

The editors had their usual clever and slightly hilarious Brass Tacks Dinner the first night, and their helpful work meetings daily under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold S. Eberhardt, A $\Gamma \Delta$. Their witty representatives Mrs. James Stannard Baker, Σ K, and Miss Ann L. Hall, A X Ω , cleverly informed the conference of some of the problems of editors, sugar coating their pointed remarks and providing some of the laughter of the conference.

The Association of Central Office Executives, the other "conference within a conference" had a similar pattern of a formal dinner the first night, daily meetings and a report to a business session of NPC on central offices—the small office, the large office, and the national headquarters or executive house. Their interesting panel consisted of the president, Miss Roberta Abernethy, $\Delta \Gamma$; Miss Clara O. Pierce, K K Γ ; Mrs. J. Ann Hughes, A O II, and Mrs. H. Winton Jenkins, Z T A.

The 1957 Fraternity Month Award, gift of Mr. and Mrs. Leland F. Leland, was presented this year to the University of North Dakota, and the dean of women and the president of the College Panhellenic were at French Lick to receive it personally.

Another handsome and meaningful tangible traveling award is the gift of the outgoing executive committee and will be given for the first time at the next NPC meeting in 1959.

The new officers for the 1957-59 biennium were introduced at the final meeting: Mrs. Darrell R. Nordwall, A X Ω , chairman; Mrs. Joseph D. Grigsby, $\Delta \Delta \Delta$, secretary; Mrs. William Nash, $A \equiv \Delta$, treasurer.

There were three guest speakers during the week. Mrs. Frances M. Lee, $\Delta \Delta \Delta$, spoke at the Tuesday night dinner on her work as vice-president, Inter-American Commission of Women, and permanent delegate of the United States. Dean Fred H. Turner, dean of men at the University of Illinois, and president of IRAC, the Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council, spoke Wednesday evening on "Purpose—Procedures—Plans" of that organization, with a question and answer period following. The speaker for the final and formal banquet was Dr. Humbert, of DePauw. After urging fraternity leaders to "stand tall in this dwarfing world" he gave a challenging creed. His talk appears in full following.

Cooperation at Its Best

An address made by Russell J. Humbert, President, DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind. Delivered at National Panhellenic Conference

→ THE CHIEF END of cooperative living is to help the individual stand tall in a dwarfing world. This takes for granted an individual worthy of stature in spirit, character and intelligence. I want to develop a simple, yet, I believe, important theme —cooperation at its best or some high expectations in a dwarfing world.

Some may feel that I am pessimistic by calling this a dwarfing world and with this charge I will partially agree. Look for a moment at the panorama of history and see the greatness of things and the littleness of the individual. Long before our current interest in Unidentified Flying Objects, we said with the Psalmist: "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou has ordained; what is man, that thou art mindful of him?" (Psalm 8:3-4) Or turn to a man on the modern scene who has become an authority in this area of science, Dr. Fred Hoyle of the University of Cambridge; he writes on "The Nature of the Universe" and comes to this humiliating conclusion: "I think that all our present guesses are likely to prove but a very pale shadow of the real thing. . . Perhaps the most majestic feature of our whole existence is that while our intelligences are powerful enough to penetrate deeply into the evolution of this quite incredible Universe, we will have not the smallest clue to our own fate." (page 142)

Let us now focus our attention not on the starry heavens or the long panorama of history, but rather upon those of us in the here and now who are attempting to give stature through cooperative living. Fraternity life represents this cooperation at its best. It demands some expectations on the part of the individual, the fraternity and the public.

What does the individual have a right to expect from the social group—the fraternity of which he or she is a member? In a very real sense I am standing on the outside looking in, but as I do I represent a large segment of society which passes value judgments upon you.

The individual has a right to expect an opportunity to associate with a group selected according to a set of standards designed to build a nobler life. The right of selectivity is yours in a democratic society so long as it is accorded to others in the same degree. This right of selectivity will remain yours so long as it is not abused and does not tear down or destroy the sacredness of the individual.

A member of a select social organization has a right to expect the privilege of participation in a program of quality. We have little time in these critical days for puny or worthless causes. These days demand great causes of divine proportions, which in turn challenge your best participation. A newspaper friend of mine carries in his wallet three pieces of paper yellowed with age which illustrate these high individual expectations. One says: "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with Thy God." He asks himself: "Did I do so today?" Another says: "I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now; Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again." He then asks: "Did I measure up to that—this day?"

Cut from the "Angelos" of $K \Delta$ Russell J. Humbert

The last piece of paper says: "Make big plans; aim high in hope and work, remembering that a noble, logical diagram once recorded will never die, but long after we are gone will be a living thing, reasserting itself with ever-growing insistency." At the end of each day, in communion with God he asks this final question: "Now what of that?"

With these high expectations of association and participation you will help each other gain stature of soul and mind, as God's children.

Let us now look at the social group and what it should expect from those who accept its ideals and swear to its oaths and obligations.

Here in America as we live in a democracy we are a proud people, rightfully placing the individual at the center of our social stage. Let us now see this individual in relationship to his or her fellow beings.

You as an organized group have a right to expect that your membership will accept your ideals and your living creed. Before the member is pledged he or she knows the ideals and the creed. This has many implications for those who are responsible for the selection and subsequent training of members, as you look forward to the ways of group living.

You as an organized group have a right to expect loyal cooperation and participation to the fullest possible extent. One of the benefits to our social order of group living is the impression made upon our society by those who have ideas and ideals held in common. Our way of life in a democracy depends upon this expectation of cooperative participation.

I come now to one of the most important aspects of cooperative living—what does society in general or the world as a whole have a right to expect of you as members of a highly selected social organization? In some circles your very existence is being questioned; they believe that your exclusiveness is detrimental to the growth of a better individual and in turn a better society. This I do not believe, but I am concerned and convinced that you can and must justify your cooperative life through a number of specific results.

As a social order we have a right to expect that you will serve educational ends by becoming knowledgeable persons. Because you live on a campus and are a definite part of our educational life you are expected to foster a membership which promotes our culture at its best. By your very corporate nature you represent the educational, spiritual and ethical aims of the campus upon which you live. This is a high responsibility.

Then, too, as a social order we have a right to expect individual integrity on the part of your members. This is becoming more and more important in the life of our nation and our world. We depend upon the best of leadership, trained for their professions, and imbued with a sense of moral responsibility. This, too, is a high responsibility.

Most youth on a college campus do not need urging to be activity-minded. In the minds of some faculty members we have become activity centered rather than study centered. In spite of this seeming dilemma, I plead for the acceptance on the part of the student—an individual responsibility for corporate action. Instead of being neat, little, exclusive self-centered groups you are expected to take a place of leadership in the setting of the moral and intellectual tone of the entire campus. This, too, is a very high responsibility.

Yes, we do live in a dwarfing world and in this dwarfing world we must stand tall. To do so we will accept high expectations such as association with a sclect group, acceptance of those ideals which will produce a knowledgeable leadership of integrity for a needy social order. This requires a challenging creed for you as leaders, may I share this one with you for your consideration.

- I believe that the common life of man is not the cruel joke, the stupid laugh, bleating across the mystery of the centuries, that on the surface it may seem to be.
- I believe that there can be seen in men a greater mankind than our dull and uncreative society reveals.
- I believe that this greater mankind of tomorrow is latent in the lesser mankind of today.
- I believe that its capacity to leap forth at the touch of a divine fire is already proven.
- I believe that a flame within the soul, a torch to guide the awakened emotions, a plan of action for the footsteps of enobled purpose, make this whole business of living worth all the tragedy of its human and divine cost.
- I believe that the task of the true leader is to create for others those living situations in which this coal from the altar of the life of God will touch the lips of growing souls.

I believe that such is our task.

And so, in humble fellowship with Him who has always brooded over the souls of men, wakening them to the power and beauty of life, we dedicate ourselves to the making of this creed come true.

NEW NPC trophy, presented at the formal banquet, gift of an anonymous donor. Standing behind this trophy, which is to be presented for friendship and loyalties, admiring it, are members of the Executive Committee for NPC. Left to right: Mrs. Joseph D. Grigsby, Mrs. Cicero F. Hogan, and Mrs. Darrell R. Nordwall.

"From OUR EXCHANGES

Edited by Ruth Wilson Cogshall

Youth vs. Age

"Youth is not entirely a time of life—it is a state of mind. It is not wholly a matter of ripe cheeks, red lips or supple knees. It is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of emotions. Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years. People grow old by deserting their ideals. You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your selfconfidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hope, as old as your despair. In a central place of every heart, there is a recording chamber; so long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer and courage, so long are you young. When the wires are all down and your heart is covered with the snows of pessimism and the ice of cynicism, then, and only then, are you grown old!"—GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR on the occasion of his 75th birthday. On Relaxation

There are many lost arts that have succumbed to the battering of time. But there is one art that has succumbed to the battering pressures and hurry of modern living. That is the art of relaxation.

Just being completely relaxed (in other words being shamelessly lazy) is something that has gone out of fashion. Most people just don't have the time. Even when modern America enjoys its leisure time, it has to be busy. There's TV, movies, outdoor recreation, all sorts of things to help one relax.

But we'd like to see a revival of the old fashion method of relaxation . . . just sitting, thinking and rocking.

Perhaps if more persons took time to revive this old art someone would, while they're sitting and rocking, think of a way to solve the world's problems and maybe even a better way to relax. Triangle of Sigma Sigma Sigma

An excerpt from: Look Away into the Future

In group living and working, the care and feeding of ideas bears importantly on the effectiveness of the group. Emerson said "Ideas must work through the brains and arms of good and brave men, or they are no better than dreams." Resolve now to be considerate of your chapter sister's ideas. Ideas cannot survive in a negative atmosphere. Oliver Wendell Holmes said "Man's mind stretched to a new idea, never goes back to its original dimensions." Theta U teaches you to create a positive atmosphere through Christian loyalty and understanding.

The galleries are full of critics. They play no ball. They fight no fights. They make no mistakes because they attempt nothing. Down in the arena are the doers. They make mistakes because they attempt to try new things.

The person who makes no mistakes lacks boldness and the spirit of adventure. That person is the one who never tries anything—she does nothing but criticize those who do things. She is the brake on the wheel of progress.

Excerpts from: The Heights We Seek

WHAT IS MATURITY?

First, and above all, I believe we are seeking the height of maturity. Without it, nothing else can succeed. Can a fraternity be mature? Yes, just exactly as mature as the members who compose it.

What do we mean by a mature person? A mature person has many characteristics. Let us list a few of them. A mature person is able to accept disappointments gracefully. For example, if her prize rushee is not accepted by the chapter, she does not go into a decline and become disgruntled. She realizes that a feeling of friendship cannot be forced between two individuals nor into a group of individuals.

A mature person is emotionally stable. She weighs carefully all circumstances in an issue, and then makes her decisions to the best of her ability. She is considerate of other people.

The mature person is one who accepts her responsibilities. She looks for the things that are needed, and then attempts to lay the groundwork for activities that will keep her fraternity strong and progressive.

HEIGHTS OF LEARNING

Second, we seek the heights of learning. I have not said, "high scholastic standing," but I have used the word, learning, because we are attempting to be mature people, and we learn for the sake of learning, and not for the sake of grades. Furthermore, there is never a time in our lives when the learning process stops.

I believe it was Socrates who said that only through learning can a man know the goodness of his own soul. To study, to learn, to retain what we have learned; in other words, to cultivate our minds—that is our goal.

AND GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Third, we seek the heights of good citizensbip. This is directly dependent upon the first two, maturity and learning. The learning begins first when we are taught to obey the rules of conduct set down by our parents, and then to respect the laws of the land in which we live. Later, as we mature, we help to make those rules and laws.

The fraternity itself is one of the finest organizations in which to develop good citizenship, with its own system of self-government and multitudes of opportunities for developing leadership. The selection of membership offers an education in the proper judgment of people, stressing, as it should, real rather than superficial values of human character.

HEIGHT OF SERVICE

Fourth, we seek the height of service. Real service extends even beyond the realms of good citizenship. It requires that extra something which depends upon understanding, compassion, and love of justice.

Here again, maturity plays an important role. Service without wisdom may not be service at all, but may lead to the promotion of those "isms" which can threaten the peace of the world. But service with wisdom is of tremendous benefit to mankind. To me this is one of the finest of the heights we seek.

What about such things as faith, truth and integrity? All of them are included. Without faith we could not seek the heights. Truth is the fabric of learning. Integrity is the soul of good citizenship.

The American Mercury:

The College Forum section of "The American Mercury" in a recent issue published a letter from an undergraduate student at Columbia, commenting on the collapse of the Columbia chapter of Theta Tau under "ideological and official pressure." The writer says in part:

"Not content with this victory, by infiltration into the local unit of one fraternity, the radicals at Columbia are stepping up the 'heat' on all other local chapters. Each must appear before Columbia's Committee on Student Organizations and swear that from now on they will be 'clean', with no 'discriminatory' selections of members. Thus the pseudoliberals of Columbia—faculty, overseers and undergraduates—are now intent on destroying individual liberty on the Columbia campus; they pose as collegiate 'leaders' in this campaign which they soon will be trying to extend beyond Columbia into other college campuses and fraternities."

The editor of The Mercury in bold type comments as follows:

"Fraternity Brothers, you had better stand up and help, wherever you are! If the infiltrators can knock off one chapter after another, particularly through the supposed prestige of Columbia, where will your national organizations be—come next year? Ed."

Pi Phi Personalities

Above: Mrs. Harry Massey, Club President; Mrs. Robert Strozier, honoree; Mrs. Leon Parks, Province President; Mrs. Charles Grigg, Club Secretary, and Miss Betty Hatton, FSU active chapter president. Below: Mrs. Robert Strozier and Mrs. Leon Parks.

These pictures were taken at the Christmas luncheon given by the Tallahassee, Florida Alumnæ Club, given in honor of Mrs. Robert S. Strozier (Colorado A), whose husband has just become president of Florida State University here in Tallahassee.

Naturally we are honored to have Dr. Strozier's wife a new member of our club. About thirty members lunched in the Cacus Room of the Duval Hotel and had a grand time singing the familiar songs and meeting Mrs. Strozier.

The club was also honored to have Mrs. Leon C. Parks, Theta Province President, with us for this special event.

A Denver woman prospects for historical gold

For Agnes Wright Spring, Wyoming A, Colorado State Historian, every day is a treasure hunt. Keeper of the historical archives of the State Historical Society, Mrs. Spring holds the sometimes nip-andtuck job of tracking down rare prizes for Colorado.

Family albums and fragments of love letters; old railway folders and theater programs—all can be precious pieces of history. But without Mrs. Spring's nimble footwork and maneuvering; many such relics of a rich past might be lost. "History, like gold, is where you find it," Mrs. Spring declares, her brown eyes sparkling with recollections of pay dirt.

An avid reader of obituaries, she is quick to spot the owners of outstanding trophies. More than once, she has grabbed a cab and reached the home of the deceased in time to prevent a priceless piece from being thrown out as junk.

Besides her job of finding, sorting, and evaluating photographs and manuscripts, Mrs. Spring edits the society's Colorado Magazine and in her spare time, writes books and articles of her own. She is the author of 13 books, including Caspar Collins, Seventy Years—Cow Country, and Cheyenne and Black Hills Stage and Express Routes.

Mrs. Spring has had first hand experience with the pioneer west. Daughter of a Colorado and Wyoming stage owner, she grew up on a Wyoming ranch, often tended the bellows in the stage line's blacksmith shop. Later, she attended the University of Wyoming and Columbia University. In 1921, when she was head of the state library at Cheyenne, she married Archer T. Spring, now a retired mining engineer and a writer himself.

In her plans for the future, Mrs. Spring thinks back to the past. She dreams of a reconstructed mining town, an out-of-door museum in the mountains, sponsored by the historical society.

A very unusual and interesting reunion took place on October 17 in Chicago. The Pi Phi pledges of 1928 at Iowa Z at the University of Iowa met at the Sheraton Hotel, and out of the 17 pledged, 10 were present at the reunion—and not one of them had CHANGED A BIT.

We had breakfast together, then attended Mary Merryfield's hour-long radio program, "Radio Journal," broadcast over WMAQ, the National Broadcasting Company station in Chicago, which she has conducted for 6 years. We then had luncheon together at Chicago's famous Pump Room, and had the picture taken which is inclosed. We then held a delightful "Open House" which was attended by many of the husbands, some other Pi Phis and their husbands from the Chicago area, and some of their families. We were then guests of Wallace Dickey at dinner at the enchanting new Trader's Restaurant at the Palmer House.

The names of those pictured are as follows: (standing) Mrs. Hod Schumacher (Ruth Simmons), Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. Tench Gammon (Helen Joyce), Keokuk, Iowa; Mrs. Maurice Merryfield (Mary Ainsworth), Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. John Falvey (Jane Everett), Wilmette, Ill.; Mrs. John P. Gallagher (Agnes Mealey), Oelwein, Iowa. Sitting: Mrs. Robert Ross (Eloise Crook), Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Wallace Dickey (Jayne Shover), Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Albert Paisley (Lib Winger), Jacksonville, Ill.; Mrs. Parker Beach (Janet Klove), Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Not included in the picture was Helen Howe, Chicago, Ill.

We all agreed that it was one of the most thrilling and endearing experiences of our lives, and only regretted that the other 7 were too far away to be able to attend.

BETTY KITTRELL, Texas A, has done outstanding work in public relations for such celebrities

Betty Kittrell, Texas A

In the Sun Queen's Court of the 1957-1958 El Paso Sun Carnival, the Duchess of El Paso is Linda Hart, Arizona A. The Sun Bowl is to Southwest Texas, New Mexico and Arizona what the Ros Bowl is to California. Linda was chosen by Panhellenic to represent it as its Duchess. There are eleven duchesses in the court, each one sponsored by some woman's organization, such as the Junior League, Pan American Round Table, AAUW and others. The Queen this year is a Stanford student and therefore not a fraternity woman. as Jay P. Morgan, Dorothy Shay, Red Skelton. She had her own radio show for a year and assisted with the State Fair Musicals in Dallas. She has now written a children's book called "My Friend Boogie" (published by Vantage Press, New York, N.Y.). WHO IS BOOGIE? Mercedes McCambridge star of movie and TV says, "Boogie is as delightful as a painted carousel in Paris," Dorothy Shay (Park Ave. Hillbilly) says, "Boogie, delights tots from one to ninety one" and Margaret O'Brien, star of Hollywood says, "I love Boogie, a delightful illustrated book for young and old alike."

WHO IS BOOGIE? She is every child's alter ego, the invisible playmate whom no one else can see. . . . In this delightful book, "My Friend Boogie," she is the lively product of the pint size heroine's imagination . . . a sort of "Harvey," adapted to small-fry requirements. Into the fanciful world every child knows, the moppets go, Boogie fearlessly leading the way.

Boogie, her entranced playmate tells you, owns the circus. She appears on "What's My Line." She knows and admires such big names as Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Steve, Miss Parsons, Mr. Earl Wilson, Miss Hat Hopper and Lassie the dog on TV, which she just happens to own....

In the wonderful world of fantasy, Boogie, a natural pilot, flies her pal to New York, where they skate on Rockefeller Center, converse with a talkative pigeon in Central Park, receive numerous toys from F. A. O. Schwarz (owner of Schwarz's Toy Store, New York) . . . and in more worldly mood, lunch at "21," Toots Shors and the Stork. . . . With Boogie, our heroine visits Texas, which she reports, "is real nice and has oil wells, big buildings and Neiman Marcus"; Calls, quite casually, upon British Royalty and the President of the United States; given impulse they travel to the moon in a rocket ship . . . "that merely goes a million miles a second." In California they visit Will Wrights Ice Cream, they know him "very well" and in Las Vegas they visit the Desert Inn, where they get free ice cream sodas and free piggy banks, "everyone gets free things at Las Vegas"... their trip around the world is just another one of the many things they do to create excitement and it is all very real and understandable ... a child's dream world, wherein one may do the thing he or she secretly longs to do, finding happiness by creating it ... Hilariously illustrated ... for this a pictorial book. ... "My Friend Boogie" is gorgeous wish fulfillment frolic for the young and old....

NIC Approves Principles for National System

The National Interfraternity Council approved in convention assembled at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, November 29-30, 1957, the following principles relating to the national fraternity system:

(1) The choosing of one's own friends and associates is a social right which cannot be confused with civil rights and, therefore, is not subject or amenable to edicts, regulations, laws, and legislative fats abridging that social right.

(2) Each college fraternity is a social organization, voluntary in membership and, as such, is entitled to exercise its fundamental American right to choose members in accordance with its own standards.

(3) The fraternity family is national in scope and the entire fraternity at its regular convention through democratic processes establishes the standards binding upon all of its constituent chapters.

The program adopted by the National Interfraternity Conference provides for the dissemination of information concerning the true concepts of the fraternity system.
