To the 1959 pledges of Pi Beta Phi we dedicate this issue of The Arrow

Asked why she pledged Pi Beta Phi, a recently pledged member made this statement—"The girls in Pi Phi were the girls I would like to have as my friends and with whom I would be proud to be seen. They are sincere, pleasant, friendly, and natural. But, I think that the thing that pleased me most was that the Pi Phis had a wonderful reputation and high ideals."

In the weeks since you first put on the little gold arrowhead, symbol of your affiliation with Pi Beta Phi, you have studied the proud history of our fraternity, and you have learned of its size and its outstanding philanthropic program. I hope that you have gained a knowledge, as this pledge has, of what membership in Pi Beta Phi is going to mean. . . .

For then you will understand the responsibilities that come with initiation; that you must join the members in fostering the best interests of your university, your chapter and your fraternity. You will realize the importance of the value to be placed on worthy scholarship, high social standards and irreproachable personal conduct. You will realize that every act of yours should reflect credit on your fraternity sisters. And succeeding generations of rushees will be as proud as you were to put on the golden arrowhead—symbol of affiliation with Pi Beta Phi.

Call to Convention

On June 19, 1960, Pi Beta Phis from the United States and Canada will gather at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Arkansas for the fraternity's forty-second biennial convention. Every Pi Phi who has ever attended Convention agrees that there is no experience in life that quite compares with a Pi Beta Phi Convention. For Convention has as many facets as the famed Arkansas diamonds. It is a time of fun and hard work; of late nights and early rising; of inspiration and song; of reunion with old friends and the opportunity to make new ones. Above all it is a time of carefully considered action, by Pi Beta Phis, to assure the continued strength and development of their fraternity. And pervading every meeting and event there is the satisfying sense of devotion to those fundamental objects and ideals which have met every test for some ninety odd years. All these things are waiting for you—to be shared with hundreds of others who feel as you do about the golden Arrow of Pi Beta Phi.

It is our hope that you will come and help make this the best Convention ever.

Holt House

Florence Deppe Holmgren (Mrs. Eric), Holt House Committee

HELLO FROM HOLT HOUSE! The seasons change, summer passes and the snow comes, but things don't change much at Holt House. One night last fall I was working in my kitchen when I heard a newscaster on TV cut into the program with a special news bulletin and tornado warnings. My ears really pricked up when I heard him mention "the little town of Monmouth in Western Illinois." I scurried to the den when my husband was watching the telecast and caught the concluding words. It seems that a tornado had passed over Monmouth leaving considerable destruction in its wake.

I was tremendously concerned and apprehensive and for several days watched the papers for any further comment regarding the storm, but saw none. A few days later I wrote to our Holt House hostess, Mrs. Johnson, and inquired concerning the house and how it had fared during the storm. She replied, "Yes, we had a terrible storm and they say if it had been twenty feet lower it would have wiped out a good portion of the town. Horrible thought! Here at the house it just blew out two screens, smashed a storm window and twisted off a large walnut tree, leaving just the trunk standing. It (the tree) fell to the north and did not hit the house. It is still there as the tree men are still busy removing the ones which fell on the houses so repair work can be done. When I see some of the destruction close by I marvel that we were so lucky here at the house."

I am certain everyone will sigh with relief to learn that Holt House was not seriously damaged in what might have been a destructive storm. It would be interesting to know how many storms the old house has weathered. There is no way of determining this, but we all know there have been many. Moreover, not all the storms have been atmospheric in nature. There have been many storms, and will be many more, and I am certain that all Pi Phis hope, as I do, that the storms will never prove too much for the old house and everything she symbolizes. As fraternity women we must be constantly on the alert for unfriendly elements which assert themselves more and more frequently in opposition to the fraternity system as a whole. As we would support any other cause in which we believe, let us not become lax in our defense of the fraternity cause in general and the Pi Phi cause in particular. Monmouth and Holt house are "home" to Pi Beta Phi, so just as we would defend our homes, let us keep a watchful weather eye on anything which might prove "stormy weather" for Pi Phi and her home.

Mrs. Johnson also said in her letter that after a rather quiet summer at Holt House the fall season opened with the usual whirl of activities culminating, on the day my letter arrived, in the end of rush activities and the formal pledge dinner. During the hot summer months most clubs suspend activities, but there were a few meetings, and one wedding reception (the sister of a Pi Phi). About fifty people, mostly Pi Phis visited during the summer. They came from Florida, Ohio, Iowa, Arizona, Colorado, Michigan, Washington, Virginia, Missouri, California, Kansas, and Illinois. If you have never visited Holt House why not chart your route in that direction next vacation? You'll be glad you did.

Distinguished visitors were Alice Mansfield and Amy B. Onken.

If your chapter or club hasn't seen the Holt House slides you should arrange to program them through Mrs. David Turnbull, 301 E. Main, in Monmouth. Those who have seen them report enjoyable and instructive programs. The slides are constantly on the move so get your bid in early.

One more word concerning planning. When setting up your budgets remember that the revenue derived from the organizations and individuals who use the facilities of Holt House does not nearly cover the cost of maintenance. The support of every Pi Phi is needed to keep Holt House in repair structurally as well as in maintaining the charming interior.

The Red Barn—Before And After

With tremendous pride in a dream that has become a reality, Pi Beta Phi formally dedicated THE RED BARN at the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee on June 22, 1959.

Present for the ceremony were the members of Grand Council, the Province presidents and Vice-presidents, the Settlement School Committee, representatives from the University of Tennessee, resident members of Pi Beta Phi, and many local friends of the School.

Virginia Brackett Green, Settlement School Chairman, traced the history of the barn and presented the key to the Grand President, Alice Weber Mansfield, who, in turn, gave it into the keeping of Marion Mueller, Director of the Settlement School. A trio composed of Elizabeth Waitt Rue, Majorie Chalmers and Dorothy Manley sang BLESS THIS HOUSE, and the ceremonies were closed with prayer by Lois Summers. In the social hour which followed guests were taken through the building and refreshments were served.

The red barn, now completely remodeled and christened THE RED BARN, was built in 1923. It served its purpose then as a model barn where the herd was kept and where boys of the School were taught the care of livestock. It was the home of Lady, the horse which the first Pi Phi nurse, Miss Phyllis Higinbotham, rode far into the hills to serve the mountain people. In the hayloft a new form of education was introduced when the first movies ever shown in the Burg were shown there. It was the site of the first basketball games. It has continued to be of service all through the years, and most recently it has been the winter storage space for the scenery of the Gateway Players, a New York Stock Company which plays in the Pi Phi high school auditorium during the summer months.

Now, thanks to the generous bequest of a deceased University of Michigan Pi Phi, Joanne King Hempstead, the old red barn begins a new career and a period of new usefulness. It will provide attractive and comfortable housing for students who attend the Summer Craft Workshop; it will make possible a series of special workshops in early spring and late fall; and it will provide housing facilities for those participating in the Craftman's Fair. Pi Phi groups may use it, at a minimum cost, for weekend retreats and it will be open to other organizations that are directly concerned with education in craft arts, fine arts, rehabilitation, teacher training, youth leadership and similar educational areas.

Occupants and visitors find The Red Barn a well-planned, modern building with an attractive background for their work and recreation. They enter the inviting CHANTICLEER LOUNGE on the first floor. Designed for small group use, it is furnished with study tables, chairs and lamps. A saucy chanticleer decorates the native wood mantle above a large woodburning fireplace. Nearby is a cleverly enclosed hotel unit of stove, sink and refrigerator to be used for snacks or for informal entertaining. The remainder of the first floor contains three bedrooms with adjoining baths, service closets, other laboratories and a utility room.

On the second floor the front half of the hayloft has been retained as it originally was built, with the ceiling extending to the roofline. This spacious lounge—fashioned for relaxation and recreation—is called THE OWL'S NEST. Three large windows overlook a beautiful valley with its mountain backdrop. Two walls and the adjoining hip roofline are paneled in knotty pine with the old supporting rafters exposed to form an interesting contrast. A huge fireplace of native stone extends to the ceiling and dominates one corner of the lounge. This room seats twenty-five comfortably and it has been known to have over eighty guests at one time without overcrowding. The colorful and attractive furnishings were made possible by a special contribution from the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Pasadena, California.

The rear half of the original loft was divided into two floors, and both may be reached from an interior stairwell or from an exterior fire escape. From The Owl's Nest the second floor continues on toward the rear to provide four bedrooms for ten, plus one large multiple bath. The third floor is named THE LITTLE PIGEON LOFT—to continue the barn atmosphere, and also to pay respect to the nearby Little Pigeon River. This is a one-room dormitory for twelve, with adjoining multiple bath. The building, in addition to the two fireplaces, is equipped with electrical heating throughout.

It is hoped that The Red Barn, Pi Phi's newest and perhaps the most fascinating of its building projects will fulfill the purpose for which it is intended—that of widening the scope of the Fraternity's usefulness in educational fields.

Mr. Warner Ogden wrote in the NEW YORK TIMES of Sunday, May 17, 1959 in a story about the Great Smoky Mountains—

"Many visitors like to see handicraftmen at work. . . . The annual Craftsman's Fair of the Southern Highland Handicraft Guild will be held in Gatlinburg July 27-31.

The five-day fair will bring together a hundred or more craftsmen from several states. Potters, weavers and spinners, metal workers, enamelists and broom makers . . . will be there to demonstrate and to explain their work. . . .

A new 'red barn' workshop-dormitory is being added to the annual Crafts Workshop at Gatlinburg, June 15-21. The Workshop is sponsored by the University of Tennessee Home Economics Department and the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School at Gatlinburg.

The new Workshop quarters is a converted barn. Among the 16 courses will be pottery, metal work, enameling, jewelry, textile and craft design, and weaving. The Workshop each year attracts students from all over the United States and other countries."

The October issue of BANTA'S GREEK EXCHANGE carried a detailed story of Pi Beta Phi's venture in the field of Arts and Crafts, stressing the fact that this venture has resulted in Gatlinburg's rating as an outstanding craft center in the nation. In congratulating Pi Beta Phi, BANTA'S GREEK EXCHANGE believes that this new project brings credit and honor to the entire fraternity world.

FROM Pi Phi Pens

Edited by Mary Elizabeth Lasher Barnette, Ohio A

MARION CLAYTON LINK, New York Alpha, Sea Diver, Rinehart & Company, Inc., 333 pp.

Who has not known at some time or other the irresistible lure of the treasure hunt? It presents itself in many a guise: the attic on a rainy day, an antique shop, a shell scattered beach, flecks of gold in a mountain stream. For Marion and Edwin Link it is the treasure left by treasure hunters of the past on the bottom of the ocean.

The inventor of the Link trainer and other aids to aviation and his wife are revealed by this book as persons of enthusiasm, energy, and enterprise, who have developed a skin-diving hobby into a program of ocean archaeology of growing historical importance.

Fortunately for the reader Mrs. Link is a trained newspaperwoman with the ability to report vividly and meaningfully what she sees and experiences. She is also historian enough to have done the kind of thorough research which gives the discovery of a wrecked ship significance beyond the monetary value of the treasure it carried.

A sturdy shrimp trawler, skillfully outfitted by Ed Link with such modern tools as radar, metal detectors, and a sand suction hose, has taken the Links and various amateur and professional scientists on numerous tours of the Florida Keys and the West Indies, with the discovery of an anchor which may mark the wreck of Columbus' Santa Maria being their most romantic achievement to date.

The combination of past adventures with present adventuring makes Sea Diver fascinating entertainment. It whets the appetite for future reports of Link expeditions, one of which is currently underway at Port Royal, Jamaica, where the Sea Diver is anchored over a sunken city. A winter issue of the National Geographic Magazine will report on this exploration which the magazine is sponsoring along with the Links and the Smithsonian Institute.

Next year it is to be diving in the old port of Caesarea off the coast of Israel for the Links. There's excitement ahead for them and for Marion Link's reading public.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Marion Clayton (Mrs. Edwin A.) Link, New York Alpha, dedicated her book to her husband "who first introduced me to the wonders of forest and sky and sea—and now to that new frontier, the bottom of the ocean." Once introduced she became actively interested and a writer of articles in the field of sailing and diving. She has been a newspaperwoman, is the mother of two sons, and, via her latest career, is a member of the Society of Women Geographers.

RANDOM NOTES: One of the nation's outstanding professional women, Kansas Alpha's Dr. Leona Baumgartner, Commissioner of Health for New York City, spent five weeks early this year observing medical practices in the Soviet Union. Her report, "A Doctor Diagnoses Soviet Medicine," appeared in a May issue of the New York Times Magazine. In it she discussed the differences she found between the two countries and expressed the belief that with societies so different the variations may well represent what is best for each in its own case. For example, she found the very young children and government nurseries to be "remarkably healthy and happy" indicating that this system which has met with "almost universal opposition" here is satisfactory for the Russians.

ARROWCRAFT NEEDS MANAGER. CAN YOU HELP FIND HER?

On January 1, 1960, Elizabeth Rue will retire as manager of Arrowcraft. Somewhere there must be a Pi Phi who is qualified for this position and who would enjoy working with the lovely Arrowcraft products. The beauty of the Smoky Mountains is an additional incentive, not to mention the opportunity of giving service to the philanthropic project of Pi Beta Phi at Gatlinburg, Tennessee. If interested, write to Mrs. Robert R. Russell, 6823 Crest Avenue, University City 30, Missouri, Chairman of the Settlement School Committee.

On Scholarship—The New National Chairman Speaks—

Pursuit of Excellence in Scholarship

→ "PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE" is the theme of our forthcoming convention. No thought could be more exemplary of what Pi Phis everywhere should strive for in all the paths they follow, and the path of scholarship is no exception.

Unfortunately, in this competitive world the true meaning of real scholarship has been lost because more emphasis and reward have come to be put on grades rather than on the true intention of an individual to develop his mind and thoughts. People are not educated simply because they have, upon receiving a diploma, theoretically terminated their days in the classroom. They are only educated if they have learned to think clearly, alertly, thoroughly, and optimistically, and if they are prepared to face each day as it challenges them to greater heights in the classroom of the world. If students pursue their studies in college with the excellent intention of becoming educated, good grades will automatically be the result, and consequently they become meaningful and indicative.

Pi Beta Phi Fraternity encourages scholarship as a personal goal because of the importance of individuals realizing their ambitions and the necessity of and development of mature thinking. It is the hope that these individual goals will eventually become the mainstay of Pi Phi scholarship ideals, but until this becomes a reality, the fraternity has wisely promoted the use of chapter scholarship programs in order to safeguard its goal of developing the very best in each of its members. These programs should be workable and as fair as possible but in a sense quite demanding because of the failure on the part of some to realize the obligation they owe to themselves to rise above mediocrity. It takes good sportsmanship and a real desire to make the rules of the programs effective, and the conscientious have a right to expect the same demonstration of these traits in regard to scholarship as would be shown in other phases of college life.

Because of the prevalent "live for today" attitude it has become easy and sometimes more convenient to neglect the more practical and serious aspect of an education. However, tomorrow always arrives with its expectations and if they can't be met, life becomes meaningless. It is imperative for peace of mind and fulfillment of life to be prepared so that each tomorrow becomes exciting intellectually as well as socially.

In the pursuit of learning, assistance in the form of tutoring and group discussions is sometimes necessary and helpful, but these aids, if used as an easy means to an end, are destructive to the morale of a student because they rob him of the sheer joy and self-satisfaction derived from exercising enough curiosity to learn the answers for himself. There is no better way to develop self-confidence than to discover latent abilities and promote them to the fullest.

Although authors and lecturers sometimes seemingly leave a great deal to be desired, quite often an analysis of personal attitude and endeavor reveals that the fault lies with the student himself. Too often he discovers that because he has not read an assignment diligently a lecture becomes meaningless and fruitless, and consequently boredom and frustration set in. At this point an education becomes a complete waste of time.

True intelligence is not synonymous with snobishness. It tends to seem so at times because it elevates those who have taken advantage of their privileges and opportunities to become intellectually secure and useful. We can be grateful for those who are willing to make the necessary sacrifices to prepare themselves for accomplishment and leadership. There is no better defense against those who would destroy us as a free people. This fact alone should instill in every true Pi Phi a never-ending desire to develop every potential she has for we cannot dismiss the obligation we owe to society and future generations as well as to ourselves.

Pursuit of Excellence in Scholarship is a very real challenge. It can be accepted or rejected. This is your decision to make.

Honor Students 1958-1959

→ IT IS INDEED a pleasure to close my seven years as Chairman of the Pi Beta Phi Committee on Scholarship with the Honor Students Report. I am happy to be able to report to the fraternity that there was an improvement during 1958-59 over the two preceding years which had showed a decline from the all-time high of 1955-56 with the largest number of elections to Scholastic Honor Societies ever reported in any one year. Although other phases of a well rounded modern education are more glamorous and receive much emphasis and publicity on many campuses, it is evident that many collegiate members of Pi Beta Phi consider an academic education of primary importance.

Only the names of those elected during the year 1958-59 to the highest general scholastic Honor Societies are included in this report. The standards of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi have been used. Limited space prevents printing here elections to departmental, professional, and class honoraries. They are reported in the chapter letters.

Below are the comparative figures for the past three years:

	1956-57	1957-58	1958-59
Phi Beta Kappa	58	45	62
Phi Kappa Phi	48	43	58
*Similar to the above ...	46	38	31
Chapters not reporting ..	18	25	21
Graduation honors	49 (19)	121 (59)	146 (65)

The figures in parentheses in the above table indicate the number of chapters which returned the blank provided for reporting graduation honors. The number is larger for the past two years, because a special blank was sent to chapters.

For provinces, Beta, Zeta, Mu, and Nu were 100% in sending Blank #4 on which scholastic Honor Students are reported. All chapters except one in seven provinces, Alpha, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, Iota, and Lambda, sent Blank #4. Three provinces were 100% in returning the Honor Graduates Report, Delta, Zeta, and Nu.

Maine Alpha has the distinction of reporting the largest number of elections to national general Scholastic Societies with three chosen by Phi Beta Kappa and four by Phi Kappa Phi. Other chapters

* In this classification are included: (1) local Honor Societies which have scholastic requirements similar to those of Phi Beta Kappa with membership limited to a small percentage of the graduating class; (2) national Honor Societies in university schools or colleges, such as Beta Gamma Sigma in Schools of Commerce or Business, which have similar requirements; (3) other organizations of a general nature with similar requirements, such as Alpha Chi with 45 chapters located principally in southern colleges and universities; (4) local general Scholastic Societies with equivalent standards. A few chapters are on campuses which have no comparable Honor Societies.

with three elections to Phi Beta Kappa are Vermont Alpha, Ohio Alpha, Ohio Zeta, Iowa Zeta, and Oklahoma Alpha.

Ohio Alpha and Wisconsin Alpha are tied with Maine Alpha for the honor of having the most members of Phi Kappa Phi with four each. Chapters with three elections to Phi Kappa Phi are Wyoming Alpha, Utah Alpha, Massachusetts Beta, Illinois Eta, and Kansas Beta.

It is gratifying to be able to include for the second year a more complete number than formerly of our members who were graduated with honors. Maine Alpha, Vermont Alpha, and Idaho Alpha, with seven each, tied for the honor of reporting the largest number of Honor Graduates. Maine Alpha is classified as a medium sized chapter; Vermont Alpha, large; and Idaho Alpha, small. Indiana Delta, a large chapter, is second with six Honor Graduates. Massachusetts Beta and Michigan Gamma, both large chapters, had five.

Special commendation is due to Alpha Province for an unusually large number of Honor Students and Honor Graduates. This province reported six elections to Phi Beta Kappa; ten elections to Phi Kappa Phi; two to similar general Scholastic Honor Societies; and 23 Honor Graduates.

The Committee on Scholarship is pleased to note a gradual increase in the proportion of correct Blanks #4. This year only a very few chapters reported names and sent photographs of members elected to organizations which are not general Scholastic Honor Societies, or that do not meet the high scholastic standards of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi.

May all good things come to the chapters of Pi Beta Phi, including worthy scholarship.

Respectfully submitted,
Marie West Wever

INITIATED, March 15, 1959; Carolyn Durrant, Lois Gerwin, Joan Jackson, Linda Marshall, Julie Overmeyer, Sandra Underwood, Kerry Vinson, Martha Weaver, Carol Welker, Toledo; Lee Giarnella, West New York, N.J.

This summer was a busy one for Ohio E. The annual party for out of town Pi Beta Phi was held in July and the chapter attended a Centennial Dance in August. Both events were very successful. Several weddings plus monthly meetings were also on the agenda.

Everyone was anxious to return to school this year because of the new Student Union and Engineering-Science building. The Union contains six bowling alleys and a pool room for student use. It also has a cafeteria, lounges, meeting rooms and a much-needed bookstore. Piped-in music is another of its attractions. The Engineering-Science building is near completion and will be ready for classes by the second semester. These new additions to the campus are the first since the library, which was built in 1952.

Ohio E started off the college year well by winning two trophies. One was for the winning booth at the T K E street dance and the other was the national Pi Phi Times Award. The chapter is very proud of this one and extended congratulations to Valeria Loos who was Pi Phi times chairman last year.

Honors were received by several members. Among them were Judy Fassler, Φ A Θ, Π Γ M, K Δ II, Judy Patterson, Peppers (similar to Mortar Board), Gloria Rehkopf, Miss Toledo and Miss Ohio Talent, Barbara Gruggman, assistant general chairman of homecoming and Judy Harris, varsity cheerleader. The fall term began with three exciting and challenging weeks of rush, which left the actives quite exhausted, but pleased with its fourteen new pledges. The Homecoming theme is Pages from the Ages. Our float is to be entitled "Another Chapter in Albion's History" and will show our founding as the eighth and most recent sorority at Albion. BEVERLY MARTIN

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO. Chartered, 1908. Pledge Day, October 19, 1959.

Since the president, Dr. Bissell, delivered his opening address on September 23, Ontario has been eagerly participating in the formation and organization of the new term's activities. Elections for positions on the executive committees of various social, academic, and athletic societies are taking place; the formal rush period is in full swing; and tryouts for many different Varsity and intramural teams are being held.

Academically, Sandy McMullen was awarded a scholarship by Panhellenic. Several of 1959's graduating Pi Beta Phi received prizes and coveted "A's".

In rushing, we are busily painting trees and honey pots, making rabbit and pooh-bear costumes and learning many "hums," for the theme of our final party is "Winnie the Pooh." The teas and dinner parties were very successful.

In other extracurricular activities, Alison Grant and Cathy Sheldon were elected to the House Committee of Cody House, a University College residence. Kathy Kennedy has resumed her duties as a coach and manager of an intramural basketball team. Mary Timmins, Lynn Philpot, Sandy McMullen and Signey Paulsen are vying for places on the Varsity basketball team. Swimmers are Signey, Liz Bell, and Pam Purdy. Pam is also playing on a Varsity ground hockey team.

Even though this year's activities are really still in the embryonic stage, Ontario A is becoming well immersed in the academic, social, athletic and cultural life of the new term.

ONTARIO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO. Chartered, October, 1934. Pledge Day, October 4, 1959.

Ontario B welcomed eighteen new pledges and twenty-nine actives at the Chapter Convention held on the week-end of September 26. A feature attraction were the slides of a trip which four of the actives took in the early summer. The girls, Diane Hammar, Carol Anne Coutts, Wendy Smith and Joy Honsberger, travelled from London to Florida visiting as many Pi Beta Phi chapters as possible. The girls made a special point of visiting the Settlement School at Gatlinburg which was the high-light of the trip. Connie Lawson and Kathy Smith who spent the summer in Europe also showed their slides which were enjoyed by all.

The London Alumnae Club entertained the pledges and actives at a barbecue at the home of Mrs. Blackburn. This event has become an annual affair and provides an excellent opportunity for past and present members of the chapter to become better acquainted.

On October 14, our pledges and the pledges of Γ Φ B and K A Θ held a joint beatnik party which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The focal point of the evening was a scavenger hunt which included visits to all the fraternities on campus.

A square dance was held for the pledges on November 6. Although few members were very adept at following the caller, the event was a romping success.

As this is Ontario B's twenty-fifth year on campus, an alumnae reunion was held on the week-end of November 14. Former members of Ontario B returned to London to meet the present members of the chapter and to remember their years at college.

Last spring we won second place in the Swim Meet, a newly organized inter-fraternity contest.

Along the line of talent, The University Echo, the school paper, is edited by the newly married Helen Barrett Green. Three of our members are staff editors of the school yearbook, the Moccasin. Pat Haggard is the new president of the Vanderbilt University Theater, and Betty Ann Curtis serves as chairman of the Advisory Council for freshmen and transfers to the Vanderbilt campus. Since the Advisory Council are the first girls to greet the prospective freshmen, Tennessee B was fortunate to have eight members elected to the council. Peyton Cockrill, Julie Scheffer, Ellen Pearson, D-t Martin, Carol O Daniel, Barbara Hancock, Linda Loy, and Sharon Ligon were on hand during orientation to meet all the new co-eds.

Cheerleading elections gave Tennessee B three of the five co-eds on the cheering squad. Trish Champion, Jane Rogers, and Ellen Pearson are looking forward to their first football game as cheerleaders.

The ΣX 's think Betty Ann Curtis in an ideal girl, so they chose her to serve as their Sweetheart for 1959-60. Betty Ann was very active last year on the Student Senate and was tapped along with Pat Haggard for Mortar Board.

The pledges were not to be out done by the actives, so they organized carefully and set out to win the ΣX Derby Day cup.

The other pledge classes could not compete with the snappy Pi Beta Phi, and consequently Tennessee B now boasts a lovely, new trophy.

Among campus activities that find Pi Beta Phi members enthusiastically working are the Honor Council and the Student Christian Association. Ann Kagey and Eugenia Cherry were elected to the Honor Council for the fall semester, and Elise Dobson, Ellen Pearson, Peyton Cockrill, and Connie Siegrist served on the summer council. Eugenia Cherry is co-chairman of the junior class in the S.C.A., and serves with Barbara Hancock on the general cabinet. Van Kirtley is a member of the senior cabinet of the S. C. A.

Rush and homecoming come within the same month this fall so Tennessee B is busy finishing the final plans. Among fall plans is also included a trip to the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School in Gatlinburg.

NORTH CAROLINA BETA—DUKE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1933. Pledge Day, October 8, 1959.

North Carolina B had a rather complicated rush schedule due to the fact that our Panhellenic building was condemned as a fire hazard and we were forced to rush in a class room. But spirits remained undaunted and after nine days of extensive rushing, we gathered twenty top pledges. On Wednesday, October 8, pledging and the annual pledge banquet were held at the Carolina Country Club. The fall promises to bring many social activities including several parties with fraternities on West, and of course the annual Golden Triad pledge dance held jointly with the K K I and K A O. For the first time this year we plan to have a buffet supper after the homecoming game to welcome all our alumnae back to Duke. Adding to the festivities will be our two candidates for homecoming queen, Myrna Pope, and Judy Heckroth, who is also the chairman of the Freshman Advisory Council and a member of White Duchy along with Mary Rhamstine.

PLEGGED, October 8, 1959: Jayne Williams, Paducah, Ky.; Patti Roberts, Teaneck, N.J.; Bette Garrett, Marian; Holly Hicks, Mason City, Iowa; Sue McKensie, Carolyn Jones, Spartenburg, S.C.; Jean Innes, Lagrange, Ill.; Ann Irwin, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Patsy Davis, Richmond, Va.; Kitten Horack, New Orleans, La.; Debby Gallup, Sue Curry, Indianapolis, Ind.; Connie Finrock, Winter Park, Fla.; Liz Waters, Tampa, Fla.; Melinda Edwards, Miami, Fla.; Diana Graham, Denver, Colo.; Sandra Harrison, Madison, Ky.; Ruth Lupton, Burlington; Katie Mason, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Hitchcock, Lawrenceville, N.J.

ANNE SWANY

SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA. Chartered, 1928. October.

South Carolina A is now busily engaged in rush. For the first time at the university, rush will last two weeks, having begun October 4 and continuing through October 17. The Panhellenic Council hopes that the longer rush period will give members and rushees a chance to get to know each other better before pledging. Also, the quota-limitation system will be tried for the first time in many years.

During elections in the spring, Martha Dabbs was elected secretary-treasurer of the sophomore class and Jane Coffman was elected secretary-treasurer of the junior class. In the Panhellenic elections in April, Jo Lynn Huffman was elected secretary for this year. Jo Lynn was also one of two delegates to the Southeastern Panhellenic Conference held during April at Florida State University, Tallahassee, Fla. Many new members were accepted into the Euphrosynean Literary Society in the spring. Jo Lynn Huffman and Jill Ryan were elected secretary and critic respectively of this organization for this year. Dot Warner, Claire Hutto, and Becky Finley were attendants in the USC May Court. The Pi Beta Phi did themselves proud by capturing first place in the annual Sorority Stunt Night, with their skit, "Eloise." Jill Ryan was selected Maid of Chi Psi Fraternity.

The Pi Beta Phi are proud of their chapter since the members worked together to place the fraternity in the number one scholastic position among all campus organizations. Of course, this was not due to the work of any one member. But the chapter naturally is quite proud of Mary Savage, who graduated magna cum laude and number one in her graduating class in August. Out of a possible perfect record of 6,000, Mary compiled a 5,920 over-all average.

A campus-wide drop-in was held September 27 in the sorority room. This was an especially enjoyable evening, since it offered a second opportunity to meet many new students.

The USC marching band this year has a new look—it has maorettes for the first time in many years. Three of the fourteen girls selected to lead the band this year are members of Pi Beta Phi. Jean Carroll, Pat Turner, and Dottie Gray.

Jo Lynn Huffman was a recipient of one of two $500 scholarships awarded each year to rising juniors by Burlington Industries.

The chapter is looking forward with excitement to December 10 when the biennial Arrow Ball will be held for Pi Beta Phis, their dates, and their guests.

On September 1-2, President Pene Keigel and Ass't. Pledge Sponsor, Marcia Krause, met with Wisconsin A and Wisconsin B for an inter-chapter workshop.

After a successful pre-rush retreat, Wisconsin F turned its attention to three weeks of rush. NANCY JEAN NELSON

MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA. Chartered, May, 1929. Pledge Day, October 22, 1959.

On the first weekend in May the chapter held a camp at Gwen Lewis's cottage at Penema Lake. The chapter drove down after the Founders' Day luncheon on Saturday and stayed until Sunday evening. The weather was nice and all had an enjoyable weekend.

Also in May a legacy party was held. Four legacies were present at a type of treasure hunt which led them and the active chapter all over Winnipeg and then back for refreshments.

Rush preparations have been going on all summer with workshops, and song practices. All our decorations and name cards are made and the invitations made out for the rushing parties beginning October 13 and ending October 21. Pledging was held the 22 of October followed by the Panhellenic Formal. We're all coffee-eating like mad now to get acquainted with the rushees who according to the new rule must be in second year at the university. Aldis Thorsteinson, Nancy Stewart and Heather Sigurdson attended two of the rush parties at North Dakota A where Heather was invited to sing. They came back with terrific new ideas for rushing which will help us considerably.

Registration at University of Manitoba took place from the 15th to the 19th of September and classes commenced on September 21. Freshie Week is well underway with The Guy and Dolls Dance past and the Freshie Parade, the selection of the Queen and the Royal Premiere still to come. Sharran Hannah, is representing Education in the competition for Freshie Queen on campus. Pi Beta Phi will also have a convertible in the parade carrying the executive of our chapter.

The Kappa Province President held a worship in Wisconsin at the end of August which Shirley Merritt, pledge supervisor, and Sharran Hannah attended.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA. Chartered, October 7, 1921. Pledge Day, September 20, 1959. INITIATED, February 20, 1959: Brenda Atchison, Rugby; Janet Grove, Hillsboro; Judy Hobbs, Sharran Miller, Grand Forks; Carol Kanwischer, Harvey; Carol Kuchera, Wahpeton; Patricia McGinley, Karen Olson, Minot; Judith Morris, Jamestown; Jean Ann Quenemoen, Peggy Rosenau, Carrington; Bonnie Anderson, Casper, Wyo.; Helene Glimsdahl, East Grand Forks, Minn.; Judith Paus, Scooby, Mont.; Sandra Showman, Detroit Lakes, Minn.

A highlight for North Dakota A last spring was the winning of a trophy for first place in the annual Greek Games. Also in connection with Greek Week was the announcement that Mrs. Roland Severson, a member of North Dakota A Alumnae Advisory Board, was chosen outstanding sorority alumna at the University of North Dakota.

The North Dakota Pi Beta Phi were eager to return to school this fall to carry out plans for the fall rush program. The biggest reason for their eagerness was the arrival of Mrs. Kent Morgan, Grand Vice President. Mrs. Morgan's visit was a tremendous inspiration to the entire chapter. Her guiding hand led to the best rush season North Dakota A has had for many years.

The members are also grateful to Heather Sigurdson, Nan Stewart, and Aldis Thorsteinson of Manitoba A who made the journey down from the north to help with rush week and also get ideas for their chapter.

Important officers and honors on campus this year are Marge Costello, president of Phi Omega Psi, honorary in business education; Judy Paus, president of Y.W.C.A.; Janet Richards, state treasurer of North Dakota Student Education Association; Patricia Swanston and Helen Atkins initiated into Sigma Tau Nu, social work honorary, and Dorothea Prete had the honor of being the junior with the highest average in the College of Business and Public Administration and was initiated into Beta Phi Sigma, honorary of the above college.

The recipient of a "Smorgie" award for outstanding co-operation in Student Union activities was Florence Fischer. The chapter is also proud of past president Kathy Poole who won the chapter service award for Kappa Province.

Scholarship this semester was raised one from previous year and ranked fourth of all competing groups on campus.

The most exciting news this past year for the University of North Dakota was the winning of the championship in the National Hockey Tournament held in Troy, N.Y., last March.

The theme for the homecoming float this year was a huge sea shell with the idea of cheering on the UND Sioux with the slogan "Sioux Shell Sea Success." Again this year many parents and alumnae helped to make the annual homecoming open house a huge success. In charge of the homecoming activities were Judy Morris, Judy Paus, and Janet Richards.

PLEGDED: Kay Anderson, Courtenay; Betty Butts, Carol Westrom, Carrington; Cheryl Danduran, Julia Grant, Dawn Tweten, Grand Forks; Judith Erickson, Sharon Sorenson, Dickinson; Darlene Gienger, Jamestown; Judy Grinnell, Pembina; Krisi Jacobson, Alexander; Bonnie Gay Johnson, Sheyenne; Delores Newman, Dorothy Newman, Fessenden; Patricia Olson, Carol Sanders, Sables; Phyllis Osmer, Cavalier; Michon Rude, Watford City; Lois Savelkaul, J. CAROL MCGUINNESS

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA. Chartered, 1906. Pledge Days, April 11, 1959, September 17, 1959. INITIATED, May 4, 1959. Sandra Kingsley, St. Paul.

Last spring quarter found Pi Beta Phi very active on the university campus. They joined ΘX in Campus Carnival by producing the winning "carne" show, "Smitten Kitten." The combined efforts of both groups were rewarding because they won all awards that were given, all participation, best show, most money, best clown, and most advance tickets sold.

Founders' Day, sponsored by the Minneapolis Alumnae Club, was held at Interlarch Country Club. The main event of the luncheon was the presentation of scholarship awards. Awards were given to three girls for maintaining an average of "B" or above for the year, to two girls for the most improvement shown, and also an award to the active with the highest scholastic average.

Kappa Province President, Mrs. James A. McGhie, visited the chapter in May, and was the guest of honor at the annual Mother's Day tea. As her home is in Minneapolis, the members find her a frequent and very helpful visitor.

The girls had a dessert exchange with $\Delta \Gamma$, which proved to be an excellent one, and well worth repeating with other women's fraternities on campus. They also had exchanges with $K \Sigma$, and ΘX .

The highlight of the scholarship dinner was a speech by Dr. Williamson, Dean of the College of Science, Literature, and Arts. Besides his tips on scholastic importance, it was pleasant to hear of his confidence in the Greek system on campus.

The spring formal was, as usual, very colorful. It was a successful event due to the cooperative efforts of the Pi Beta Phi.

The senior farewell celebration, including the traditional cooky shine, was a festive occasion yet with a somber tone. Barbara Hedin and Carol Peterson were chosen "outstanding seniors of the year." Other honors won by chapter members last spring were: Jane Moening was elected to the national women's music fraternity $\Sigma A I$, and Patricia Foss was elected the dietetic representative to the Home Economics Association.

The summer fairly flew by for all the girls, and the chapter soon found itself planning for the fall rushing program. Through the work of rush captains and Panhellenic Council, a new program was established for the university. Previously, rushing was held during the first week of classes, but this fall it began two weeks before the beginning of school. Everyone has agreed that the system was very successful because of the lesser amount of strain on the rushers and the rushees.

The new pledge class and active members are anticipating the work and the plans for Homecoming at the university, and other events of fall quarter.

PLEGDED: April 11, 1959: Karlene Anderson, Alexandria; Mary Olson, Willmar; Sandra Nelson, Minneapolis.

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE. Chartered, October 29, 1891. Pledge Day, October 7, 1959.

The school year started off for Louisiana A with a house party on the Gulf Coast to prepare for rush week. After this hectic week of open houses, Mostly Ghostly, Pearl and Football parties, twenty-five excited and happy pledges were feted at a swimming party by the actives. After the pledging ceremony, actives and pledges enjoyed the traditional dinner at Arnaud's one of New Orleans' finest French restaurants.

Louisiana A's chapter house has just undergone extensive face-lifting, and we feel that our "new" house was a great asset to us during rush week. A formal living room and a paneled chapter room are two of our favorite features.

The opening of Tulane's new University Center has brought an increased interest in campus activities, and Louisiana A's president, Judy O'Brien, in her capacity as secretary of the Student Body, has been in the midst of the organization of various committees and activities. The new building boasts such recreational facilities as a year-round swimming pool and bowling allies, and all campus organizations, such as Panhellenic, publications, and Student Government, are centralized in this building.

Pat Van Scoy represented Tulane at the Berkeley Football Festival in Berkeley, Calif., earlier this month. There she particularly enjoyed meeting another Pi Beta Phi, Diane Meyers, from Oregon B. Louisiana A is very proud of one of its new pledges, Bev Bretz, who has been chosen freshman cheerleader, Virginia Bass, who is serving on Inner Council, and the many other girls of the chapter who are taking an active part in school activities.

After rush week and pledging, Iowa I started out the school year with an all-house retreat at the Larry-Jo Dude Ranch. OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA, Chartered, September 1, 1910. Pledge Day, September 11, 1959. INITIATED, September 1, 1959: Bette Carnahan, Wichita, Kan.; Milburn Hudson, Ardmore; Betsy Manning, Dallas, Tex.

On August 30, sixty-one eager members moved into the beautiful new Pi Beta Phi house, ready for work week and rush week. Two of the foremost topics of conversation were the new chapter house, which we are extremely proud of, and the Balfour Cup, awarded to Oklahoma A this summer, which has a very special place in our hearts. By the end of rush week forty-one girls donned the wine and blue ribbons as the chapter glowed with pride.

Last spring, Pi Beta Phi walked off with top scholarship honors for the fourth consecutive semester. The pledge class excelled as well, for they captured the Pledge Scholarship Cup with an average of 3.015. Oklahoma A has not relinquished its hold on the high grade cup but once in the last six years. A woman's fraternity has to maintain the highest average for three consecutive semesters in order to retire a cup and Oklahoma A has retired nine cups. Our chapter is the only fraternity on campus that has retired a Scholarship Cup.

Pat Schubert was one of four students in the junior class to receive a $\Phi \beta \chi$ key and Lynn Biggers, a senior, was also chosen. Tapped for Mortar Board last spring were Patty Flood, Sally Howard, Marilyn McDowell, and Pat Schubert. Jean Bonney, Pat O'Neal, Ann Gallagher and Sherron Shea were named to A A Δ , honorary scholastic fraternity for freshmen women.

We held a retreat October 17 at which the members and pledges got together to discuss our goals for the coming year, and to build a strong, close relationship between the actives and pledges.

Once again Varsity commences for the fall term, and Alberta A begins its activities for another year. It is nice to be all back together again, and to exchange stories of summer vacation. Many of our members have spent their holidays working in the resorts of Banff, Jasper, and Lake Louise. The Edmonton Pi Beta Phi's kept in contact with one another by holding bridge parties throughout the summer.

Fall rushing has begun in earnest. In the late summer the Panhellenic Society held an informal get-together and fashion show for all the Edmonton girls who planned to enter varsity in the fall and were interested in fraternities. The Pi Beta Phi's have also held an Ice Water Party and a tour of the newly remodeled house for the prospective rushees of this term.

Honour-wise Alberta A will have to work hard this fall in order to maintain the prestige won at the end of the last term. At Colour Night, the closing event of the varsity year, Joyce Aylen, vice-president of the Student Union, received a gold A ring, the highest honour bestowed on a student. Delores Shymko received a silver A ring, and Anne Brodie a gold A pin for their work on campus.

Another highlight in the late spring was the winning of Songfest by Pi Beta Phi. Recordings of the songs have been made for the chapter.

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 20, 1959. INITIATED, October 17, 1959: Joan Neely, Palos Verdes; Carol Cummings, Pacific Palisades; Janet Harriman, Whittier.

California Gamma returned to U.S.C. with eagerness for the new year and its busy schedule.

Upon returning in the fall many of the girls were greeted with the exciting news that Kathy Niemeyer had won the National Amy Burnhan Onken Award.

Many exchanges greeted the girls as the term got underway. Heading these was a delicious steak dinner with the Σ A E and later a fun dessert exchange with the B Θ II. A new exchange program has been initiated by California Gamma, one in which dessert exchanges have been arranged with other sororities. K A Θ was the first, followed by K K Γ.

Our first party was held October 3 in honor of the new pledges. This party, an annual event, is our Pledge-Active and was held in the lovely home of Nancy Smith of Whittier.

Another annual event, our retreat, was held October 10 at the home of Phil and Fran Lay. The purpose of the retreat is to acquaint the new members with the chapter and chapter offices and, most important, to formulate and evaluate chapter policies.

Another highlighted and greatly enjoyed event is that of our annual visit with Mrs. Gordon. She spent two days with us, October 12-13, and the first night a dinner was held in her honor. Guest at the occasion included Mrs. John Schaefer, Dean of Women.

Linda Mills was elected secretary of Spurs, a national sophomore women's service organization, and Ann Murphy was elected treasurer of Troeds, a freshman women's organization. Bev Sweeney, chapter president and a Dental Hygiene major, was asked to join A K G, a National Dental Hygiene sorority.

Outstanding among our Monday night programs was a talk and movie about the John Tracy Clinic, school for the deaf located in Los Angeles. At this is the chapter philanthropy it was greatly enjoyed by Mr. Watson, director of the clinic, led an interesting discussion. Donated hours by the girls to the clinic helps fill their calendars.

Anticipated in the remaining semester are more exchanges, and annual Father-Daughter Christmas dinner and homecoming. A new chapter scholarship program is being initiated so studying will undoubtedly head the list of activities.

The California Delta Pi Beta Phi have returned to 700 Hilgard with fond memories of an active and busy summer and are looking forward to a full and rich new year. Looking back to early May, we remember with real excitement the fun of singing with the B Θ II's at the Hollywood Bowl in UCLA's annual Spring Sing. As copies of the year book, the Southern Campus, were distributed in June, it was with pride that we noted Barbara Gustafson chosen as Southern Campus Fall Queen, and Linda Dill as Fall Princess.

In August, Tahiea Sparling again achieved national fame by placing third in platform diving at the Pan American Games held in Chicago.

The excitement of fall rushing is over, and we again feel the II Φ's "swept the row." With the commencement of school, the girls are being quickly enveloped in activities. The weather is cool and crisp and perfect for football. The night game with Purdue was especially fun because it was the first game for the new pledges. We were also able to watch Ann Rice, recently chosen Song Leader. On campus, Kathie Murphy has been chosen co-chairman of Coordination Board, and Debby Gabbert was appointed co-chairman of the Philanthropy Board, both under the sponsorship of A.W.S. Barbara Wells and Sue Schaeffer have been tapped for Bruin Belles, the official Hostess Committee for UCLA.

Many of the girls have been chosen for campus honoraries, both this semester and last. Roberta Condit was selected as a member of Φ B K; Tonya Tuplin and Ruth Neel are members of Mortar Board, with Tonya elected vice president. Kathie Murphy and Debby Gabbert were tapped for Spurs and Susan Plumb was chosen for Prytanean. Susan Burdick was one of a select few chosen for the University Religious Conference Student Board, a discussion panel composed of student leaders. Sue Montgomery was recently asked to be a member of the A T Q Little Sister group.
