Alice Weber Mansfield,
Grand President of Pi Beta Phi.

Come for fun—the Delta and Gamma Province Pi Phis have arranged many things for your pleasure, including a special tour of the White House.

Come for reunions with old friends—and the joys of reminiscing.

Come to meet and enjoy Pi Phis from all over the United States and Canada—to make new friends.

Come to work—to share in decisions that will promote the strength and progress of the Fraternity.

Above all come with happiness and security in being a member of a strong, proud friendship organization—Pi Beta Phi.

The Shape of Our Future

The future of our Fraternity has gained the outline of its dimension in recent weeks—for in that period new members have been welcomed into many chapters through the ceremony of initiation. The members who will maintain its purpose of friendship, its tradition of leadership, and its dedication to noble ideals in the decades to come are now among us.

These thoughts are directed to those new members in whose minds the ritual of initiation is still fresh and in whose hearts there is a strong desire to be worthy members.

The entire Fraternity welcomes you with warmth and sincerity—it appreciates your many and varied talents as outstanding individuals—it hopes to offer you in return the rewards inherent in an organization instituted for the purpose of bringing congenial young women together.

Pi Beta Phi has great need of your present enthusiasm as new members—but its greatest need of you is yet to come—for it is totally dependent on your continued interest and above all on your resolve to live by the ideals on which it is founded—both now as college students and later as women in communities across the land.

In essence those ideals—or guiding principles—are truth, honor, loyalty, understanding and love. All of us know these are the foundation pillars of our Fraternity but the vital consideration here is—do we feel the force of them in our lives?

Perhaps we can test our measure of feeling with frank answers to some interrogatory thoughts . . .

Is truth a word solemnly repeated in a vow? Or is it a path to guide our planning, a yardstick to measure our efforts and actions—above all a principle that constantly reminds us of our most important responsibilities to ourselves as college students, to our parents as worthy daughters, to our sorority as dedicated members, and to mankind as worthy individuals?

Is honor merely symbolized by a candle lighted in a ceremony? Or is it a lasting flame—warming our hearts as we work together, as we stand beside a sister, and as we uphold our ideals not only in word, but in irreproachable deed?

Is loyalty an inspiring word? Or is it a sparkling, many-faceted jewel in our souls—a constant well spring of strength to all who need and trust us?

Is understanding a flower that blooms briefly and then wilts like the wine carnation of initiation day? Or is it a radiant, ever-fresh, consecrated blossom of love in our beings—that causes us to support the weak with willingness, follow the strong with trust—judging not, but sustaining always—in honor preferring one another?

Is love like a badge worn only on special occasions? Or is it a deep consuming emotion that nurtures humility, inspires forgiveness, withstands disappointment, spans both time and space, and is truly “strong, long and enduring”?

Our answers and our reflections on these thoughts will lay down the pattern for our future growth—and our application of these principles in our daily living could see that pattern’s product shaped true. Particularly is this so when these reflections and actions are a part of the lives of new initiates—who hold in their minds, hearts and hands the shape of our future.—DDS

From Your Editor Emeritus

And so we come to another Convention!

By that time there will be many new initiates; we hope that many of them can come to Washington.

There will be so many thrills to share—hundreds of Pi Phi sisters to know—knowledge of the Fraternity to be gained from many sources, especially if chapters have had programs of instruction for new girls so that they may already know much about Pi Beta Phi as a foundation for the Convention program.

For years that program had at its heart the presence and inspiration of the Founders themselves. From the twelve girls of that original chapter to the hundreds of members present representing many chapters—what a long way we have come and what a glorious road that has been!

So many memories come crowding in as we think of the Founders.

There was the night at Yellowstone when dear little Mrs. Soule in her pretty blue lace gown resisted all attempts of her granddaughter to get her to go to bed. She was up in someone’s room at three o’clock in the morning surrounded by as many girls as the room would hold, and many of them begging for “one more story.”

Or the day at the Huntington with five Founders present when Emma Brownlee Kilgore, always their spokeswoman, stood on the platform and said, “I

off the Arrow hook

The ARROW is hastening on stage for a brief chance at front and center . . . well aware that it may soon be relegated to the wings . . . for it notes the heralds of spring tuning up for that symphony of nature's loveliness designed to lead one and all away from such sedentary pursuits as magazine perusing into gardens, picnic spots and all manner of happy outdoor endeavor.

Before you go though—if you're planning one of those biennial Pi Phi pilgrimages this summer to the 1962 Convention in Washington, your Convention Committee hopes you'll sign and send the registration blanks found on pages eight and nine of this issue. It makes the problem of planning so much simpler when the bulk of registration comes in early.

If you haven't registered already, please use the blanks in this Spring Issue and not those which appeared in the Winter ARROW. Those blanks had an error in the address of the Registration Chairman—which hasn't made her job any easier.

The worries of the Centennial Fund Committee may be eased slightly thanks to the interest shown in the teacup conversation of the two winsome little ladies on the back cover of the Winter ARROW. Any number of folks have asked who the appealing models were and how I came upon them.

The answer to that is that I didn't. It was a sort of relay match that ended with the Centennial Fund the winner. Fund Chairman Paula Regan McDowell relayed her wishes for a special display of the contribution request. I handed the baton off to Harold Bachmann, who handles the ARROW account for the George Banta Company. Harold looked at a clipping Paula had enclosed and then passed his thinking on the matter along to Dick Machamer, Banta Art Department head. The thought was that Dick's 6-year-old daughter, Susan, would be an ideal model for the picture. Dick took to the idea and it was he who finally took the picture . . . and this picture is quite authentic according to Dick who reports that as he snapped the picture, Susan, who was on the right, was actually saying, ". . . have you sent your contribution to the Fund." Susan's friend, 8-year old Barbara Braun, obviously was like many Pi Phis—she couldn't say "yes" at that moment.

But if Pi Phis across the land can find the time to act in the affirmative after a little discussing of their own, then the Centennial Fund just might head into its stretch drive with the impetus it needs for a successful finish in 1967.

There has been a positive note in your editor's life this time around thanks to the gradual increase in material that is being sent for the magazine and though much of it still arrives right at deadline time, some contributors are beginning to send news and pictures early which does help in cutting down on the amount of midnight oil that has to be burned in the final days of putting these pages together.

The Iowa Alpha Alumnae Club at Mount Pleasant was one which sent its news in well in advance of the deadline, and with that news came word that they lost one of their most helpful and inspirational members last year, Lillian Kendrick Rogers, who had originally been initiated into I. C. Sorosis in 1887. Mrs. Rogers was the mother of three Pi Phis and was grandmother of three third generation members. Always a devoted and diligent alumnae club worker, Mrs. Rogers had the unusual distinction of holding four degrees from Iowa Wesleyan College: Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees and an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree awarded for her outstanding services as a college trustee.

The Fraternity also lost a sister who was quite instrumental in re-establishing its mother chapter, Illinois Alpha, at Monmouth College. Lena Lee Powell, Illinois Beta-Delta, died in Wichita, Kansas, on the last day of 1961. Mrs. Powell had presented a petition from a Monmouth group at the 1927 Convention in Breezy Point, Minn., having accompanied founder Clara Brownlee Hutchinson to the convention. Mrs. Powell was also a leader in proposing the purchase of Holt House by the Fraternity.

The Arrow Hook collected an interesting letter from a former ARROW staff member, Anna Holm de Monseige, New York Beta, who at one time edited "Pi Phi Pens." Writing from her home in Pittsfield, Mass., Mrs. de Monseigle included a clipping that covered excerpts from a talk made at the National Interfraternity Conference by Rev. James A. McInerney, P.P., professor of philosophy and theology at De Paul University. The professor said in part . . .

"The open, the underhand, the half-hearted attacks on lawfully constituted fraternities and sororities are the results of ignorance or malice. For an institution of higher learning to be guilty of either is unthinkable. To proclaim the attack in the sacred name of patriotism, civil rights, man's humanity or his religion reveals the grossest kind of ignorance.

"To belong to a fraternity or not to belong; to prefer this one or that, have nothing to do with a man's patriotism, his duty to mankind, or to accurately defined civil rights . . . for another to impose his notion of congeniality on a private association is, of course, arrogance. Congeniality is not the same as rights and duties which belong to the nature of man. These rights and duties are of necessity. There is an immense difference between the preferring of one man to another and the denying of another man his rights . . . human friendship is not a right; it is a privilege conferred. To be a true friendship it must be freely conferred. If it can be freely conferred, it can also be freely withheld. To try to compel men to be friends by law or fiat is folly."

Pi Phi actives who join with Kappas on their campus in an annual Monmouth Duo will, no doubt, take note from a picture in this issue's NPC report of the fact that their national officers carry on the tradition every two years at National Panhellenic meeting. The 1961 meeting found the Pi Phi officers as the entertaining group. They came through nobly and the party highlight was a clever mobile which held gold Arrows and Keys that were used as favors.

The Kappas in attendance enjoyed the story that a Pi Phi active had told me at Gatlinburg last summer. It seems it was her chapter's turn to play hostess for the Duo on its campus. This chapter was like the Pi Phi Council; it wanted everything done up right and even went so far as to order some specially printed napkins and favors imprinted with "Monmouth Duo."

But printers are like editors—they make mistakes too, and in this instance they came up with a dilly—all the favors and napkins were delivered with the words, "Monmouth Duel."

I forgot to find out if the standard greeting at that event was "en garde."

As this magazine headed toward the press, the nation was still gripped in the frosty jaws of a cold wave and Pi Phi suffered a couple of bad breaks as a result.

The first came during a bitterly cold night at Gatlinburg when fire did severe damage to the Settlement School Teachers Cottage. Several of the occupants barely escaped injury and all lost their personal belongings in the blaze. Rebuilding repair got underway almost immediately.

The other was a literal "bad break," when a patch of ice caught our Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield in an unguarded moment and felled her. She broke her left wrist in three places and by now probably knows just how busy a one-armed paper hanger can be!

Across the length and breadth of Pi Phi, plans are now beginning for the annual observance of our founding. Founders Day observances give all participants the much needed opportunity to refresh their minds on the facts of our beginning and the inspiration that is so necessary if we are to give of our best.

With that thought in mind we might all do well to read together what a writer in an ARROW issue of May 1885 had to say on the subject of the nature of our group.

"The general principle of all secret unions is to further members socially, intellectually and morally; what could be more worthy of approbation? In this vast chain of secret organizations we are a link. While a noble sister thought the ideas which fasten us together, yet public opinion breathed them abroad and proud are we of the results.

Our bonds overcome jealousies and enmity, transplanting in our bosoms sympathy, charity and love, ameliorating different characters, softening diversities in tastes, welding together the weak and the strong into one symmetrical whole—making of us sisters."

Transportation from the pier to the hotel is provided. The cost of this tour is $6.64 including the Mt. Vernon admission.

At the close of the Convention on Saturday, June 30th, Gray Line Tours similar to those described will be available.

A Report To Pi Phi

On the 37th Biennial National Panhellenic Conference Meeting

by Marianne Reid Wild, Pi Beta Phi National Panhellenic Delegate

For over sixty years the National Panhellenic Conference has met to consider questions of interest to the college and Fraternity world. The thirty-seventh regular meeting of the Conference, held November 13th to 17th at the San Marcos Hotel, Chandler, Arizona, continued to carry out the expressed purposes of the organization.

Because the rights and responsibilities of fraternities have always been of paramount interest the following resolution adopted at the recent Conference is highly significant.

"WHEREAS, the following resolution was passed by IRAC June 3, 1961;

'WHEREAS, College Greek letter societies had their birth in our country's revolutionary period; and

'WHEREAS, The Constitution and Bill of Rights formulated for the people of our country protection of life, liberty, property, freedom of religion, freedom of speech, peaceable assembly and privacy of houses and papers; and

'WHEREAS, Greek letter societies, lodges, fraternal orders and other voluntary associations reflect those principles;

Therefore Be It Resolved, As follows:

1. It is the responsibility of the Conferences represented in the Interfraternity and Advisory Council to aid Greek letter societies interpret those principles to undergraduate and alumni members.
2. It is the responsibility of the Conferences to help clarify for their members the difference between our country's revolution and revolutions now current in various parts of the world.
3. That in harmony with constitutional principles the Conferences can supplant the present coercive attitudes by the principle of mutuality of respect for natural desires to preserve religious convictions and ethnic integrity which may be diluted by intimate social relations.

'ALSO, WHEREAS, The recent concept of colonialism as "the white man's burden" has been replaced by strong nationalism throughout the world;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That it is the responsibility of the Conferences to assist undergraduates and alumni in understanding the constitutional structure and personal rights which have made our country the most stable country in the world.'

"AND WHEREAS, The same source of principles was emphasized in the 1957 National Panhellenic Conference Declaration for Freedom which was as follows:

'Statements are frequently made advocating the teaching of the theory and practice of communism. Because of our devotion to our country and allegiance to God we agree with those who emphasize that before communism is studied there must first be thorough and accurate education about the Constitution of the United States and debates that dealt with its purpose to avoid concentrated Federal power and the insistence upon the principles which became the first ten amendments to the Constitution, known as the Bill of Rights. Such knowledge is essential to the preservation of freedom in contrast with its destruction under totalitarian systems.

'The freedom "peaceably to assemble" stated in the first amendment to the Constitution makes possible a great array of clubs, societies and organizations known as voluntary associations which provide diversity of interests and satisfactions to members. We are voluntary associations. We are dedicated to the preservation of freedom of citizens to choose their associates, which is a freedom characteristic of civilized cultures, a freedom protected by the Constitution of the United States, and sustained by the courts of our country since the time of its founding.

'We, the members of NPC, agree that we have a responsibility to contribute to accurate and thorough knowledge about the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights and to know the ideologies destructive of our Country.'

"AND WHEREAS, The members of National Panhellenic Conference recognize the historic concept that the United States of America is a government under God, and

"WHEREAS, The members of National Panhellenic Conference know that the Ten Commandments and Christ's teachings which together form the Judaic and Christian ethics are historically related to our country's culture but without involvement with any school of theologians, and

"WHEREAS, Carefully documented records prove the initiating forces in political, economic and social conflicts in every country including our own, and

"WHEREAS, The founders of our country pledged 'their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor' to achieve for themselves and posterity 'the blessings of liberty'

"Therefore, As inheritors of that liberty, National Panhellenic Conference endorses the IRAC Resolution and the members of National Panhellenic Conference accept responsibility for the educational effort among their members to accomplish understanding of the principles of the IRAC resolution and the National Panhellenic Conference Declaration for Freedom."

Among other resolutions adopted by the 1961 Conference there were those which provided that:

- Member fraternities should emphasize to their chapters the limitations of a College Panhellenic, and the desirability of the policy of rotation of officers.
- Where Greek Weeks are held NPC promote more constructive programs.
- NPC discourage excessive and expensive participation in Greek Weeks.
- NPC encourage emphasis on fraternity education during pledgship with a comparable reduction of pressures toward over-participation in campus activities and attendance at social affairs.

- Member fraternities encourage even greater emphasis upon assisting pledges in their academic adjustment, and on high scholarly achievement on the part of all members.
- College Panhellenics be urged to evaluate and simplify its rushing rules, eliminating those impossible to enforce or which bring criticism and misunderstanding of the fraternity system.
- NPC oppose Rush Registration Fees and urge local College Panhellenics to assume the expenses of rush themselves.
- NPC urge College Panhellenics to list only the average cost of fraternity membership in their Panhellenic booklets.
- The period between ribbon pledging and formal pledging not exceed one week, except on campuses having pre-school rush where the longer period might be necessary.
- Neither NPC nor a College Panhellenic has the authority to poll members to obtain information concerning private affairs or to pass resolutions or rules or suggest policies which infringe upon the basic right of individual national organizations within NPC.
- NPC foster individual campus Panhellenic workshops rather than area or regional Workshops.
- NPC suggest Panhellenic Welcoming parties on particularly large campuses to be followed by visits to individual houses by invitation.
- NPC urge College Panhellenics to make a con-

MONMOUTH DUO AT NPC

National officers of Pi Beta Phi and Kappa Kappa Gamma attending the NPC meeting enjoyed a Monmouth Duo during the meeting with the Pi Phi officers as hostesses. Above them are the "Keys" on a mobil that was a center of attraction at the gathering.

Left to right are Mrs. Paul Blanchard, Kappa Director of Alumnae, Mrs. Benjamin Lewis, Pi Phi Convention Guide and NPC first alternate, Mrs. Edith Crabtree, former Kappa national president, Mrs. Kent Morgan, Pi Phi Grand Vice President, Mrs. Stanley Kyle, Pi Phi Director of Programs, Mrs. Robert Wild, Pi Phi NPC Delegate and Mrs. Frank Alexander, Kappa NPC Delegate.

scious effort to eliminate the colloquial use of the term "houses" or "house" when referring to women's fraternities on campus.

- NPC reemphasize to local College Panhellenics the necessity for supplementing formal rush with continuous open rushing and bidding throughout the year.
- Housing Agreement policies be re-emphasized and defined additional procedures.
- For a trial period of two years the Education and Citizenship Committees be combined, as were the Eligibility and the Extension Committees.
- The Executive Committee of NPC be authorized to distribute material covering the Agreement of 1949, its significance and its implementation.
- The position of fraternities as voluntary social associations rather than student activity groups under the jurisdiction of student associations be restated.
- Rules and penalties voted by City Panhellenics be upheld and accepted by all member groups.
- City Panhellenics be instructed to use the name of the National Panhellenic Conference in connection with the name of the local City Panhellenic in all publicity releases.
- Two new manuals for City Panhellenics—for existing or prospective Panhellenics—be authorized.
- City Panhellenics be asked not to write Administrators or Deans of Women concerning problems involving City Panhellenics or the campus, but to work through NPC channels.
- A study be conducted by the College Panhellenic Committee through local Panhellenics relative to time and cost involved in campus activities with a view obtaining accurate information and being able to suggest areas and means for eliminating excessive participation.
- Policies for City Panhellenic procedures were stated.

- City Panhellenics may not abridge the rights of College Panhellenics to formulate and carry out rushing rules.
- The Executive Committee of NPC be authorized to investigate the possibilities for a public relations program and report to the membership.
- The Executive Committee of NPC be authorized to plan for some undergraduate attendance during a part of the 1963 meeting of NPC on a trial basis.

There were programs that inspired and stimulated thought. We had as guests and speakers Miss Lillian Johnson, Dean of Women, University of Cincinnati and currently President of the National Association of Women Deans and Counsellors, whose talk was followed by a question and answer period; Inspector W. C. Sullivan, Assistant Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation; Miss Kay Wonderlic, Gamma Phi Beta, representative of the Student Committee for Accurate National Representation, and Dr. Homer G. Durham, President, Arizona State College.

There was gracious leadership from the Chairman of the Conference, Mrs. Joseph Grigsby, Delta Delta Delta and her Executive Committee composed of Mrs. William Nash, Alpha Xi Delta, and Miss Elizabeth Dyer, Chi Omega. At the conclusion of the meeting the gavel changed hands and we welcome Mrs. Nash as the new Chairman and Mrs. Karl Miller, Sigma Kappa, as the new incoming member of the Executive Committee.

There were many small conferences, many small friendly conversations all of them portraying the purpose of NPC. These manifested mutual interest and mutual concern among all of the twenty-nine member fraternities working together. These organizations of voluntary associations—friends among friends—were exercising that basic right of free assembly.

Mrs. Spring

Agnes Wright Spring

HISTORY IS HER BUSINESS

Former Arrow Editor has carved colorful career as writer, editor and historian as vast as her West.

The limitless spaces, colorful life and fascinating history of the West have their match in an indefatigable Pi Phi who has found much of her life set against its rough and beautiful tapestry.

Agnes Wright Spring, a charter member of Wyoming Alpha and currently the Colorado State Historian, is apparently never too busy to collaborate on a book, write a pamphlet or edit a magazine—for she can lay claim to a play, some 600 feature articles, a number of children's stories and some western fiction, and sixteen books.

She assumed her duties as state historian in 1954. Some of her literary accomplishments in just the past four years have included editing, The Horse Wrangler by Floyd Bard, which was a runner-up for the Silver Spur Award of Western Writers of America for the best non-fiction Western Book of 1960, collaborating on Hoofbeats of Destiny, a story of the Pony Express, also published in 1960, writing a history of the First National Bank of Denver, editing A Pioneer of the Black Hills by Hughes, collaborating under a Rockefeller grant on When Grass Was King and writing in 1961 a special pamphlet, "Colorado In the Civil War."

Around the edges of her busy days she also finds the time and talent to edit The Colorado Magazine, which is the official publication of the State Historical Society of Colorado and performs the same tasks for the Gold Nugget, which is a Junior Historical Magazine.

Good copy herself, Mrs. Spring has been the frequent subject of feature stories in Denver papers.

Howard Siddon said of her in the Rocky Mountain News, "Colorado's relatively short and lusty history owes much of its documentation to Mrs. Spring's tireless efforts . . . her knowledge, national reputation and innumerable friends enable her to uncover historical strikes comparable to a miner's mother lode."

This remarkable chronicler has shared her talent generously with Pi Beta Phi. She was president of her chapter and was an ARROW Chapter Letter Editor before assuming the post of Editor in 1921, which she held until 1928. She then served the Fraternity as National Historian and wrote the History of Pi Beta Phi. Later she was Public Relations Chairman. She is a former member of the Settlement School Committee and during World War II was Director of Settlement School for three months. She is the author of the pamphlet on Settlement School which pledges receive.

Agnes Spring was born in Colorado but grew up on a ranch on the Little Laramie River in Wyoming and carried from there her love of the life and people of the West. She prepared for her writing career at the University of Wyoming and after graduation there studied journalism at the Pulitzer School of Journalism at Columbia University as the holder of the Pi Beta Phi Fellowship. She came back to Wyoming and was its State Librarian and State Historian, ex-officio until her marriage to Archer T. Spring of Boston in 1921.

Wyoming let her marry and return to her native Colorado but it still claimed her—a fact borne out by her work as Woman's Editor of the Wyoming Stockman-Farmer for 27 years, though twenty of those years she was living in Colorado.

Last year Wyoming called her home for a unique honor befitting her career—she became the first woman to receive the University of Wyoming Distinguished Alumni Award. It was the first time in the eight-year history of the award that two individuals were selected in the same year for the honor. Mrs. Spring shared the spotlight with Wyoming United States Senator J. J. Hickey, who is also a former governor of that state.

The role of being a "first woman" is not a new one for our biographer of pioneers, as one might expect. She got her first set of spurs in that department in 1960 when the Colorado Cowboy Hall of Fame tapped her for its roster—and its first woman nominee.

The "twain" of East and West have met in the marriage of Agnes and Archer Spring—for she says "He's as Old Boston as I am Old West"; but he too is a literary artist of success, though his profession before retirement was that of petroleum engineering. He writes verses and epigrams for the Saturday Evening Post, and has also published articles in Sports Illustrated, The Rotarian, American Legion Magazine and similar publications.

The Springs live in an apartment close by the State Historical Museum and Mrs. Spring walks to her office daily. When she can she pursues more rigorous exercise as a fisherman. She and her husband take frequent trips throughout the West and the nation, concentrating their travel in the continental United States rather than abroad. She frequently attends meetings or conventions of one of the many professional or historical groups of which she is a member. Some of these are the Colorado Women's Press Association, the Mississippi Valley Historical Society and the Pioneer Men and Women of Colorado, an organization made up of descendants of people who came to the state prior to 1864.

wish you could have known them all; they were all such pretty girls." and her sister, Mrs. Hutchinson spoke up and said, "And Em was the prettiest of us all!"

Or the night of the banquet at Asheville when Mrs. Libby stood up with the sextet of girls and sang a Pi Phi song she had written coming out on the train.

Precious memories, indeed, to add to our store of gracious things to be cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing alive fine women; when they founded the Fraternity, they were lovely girls like yourselves.

We have such a wonderful heritage—one worthy of our best efforts and hardest work so that it may be preserved for many years to come.

Here's to our best Convention ever! Let us live up to the ideals those twelve women left for us.

Pi Phi Is Only Woman Delegate to Conference

Mary Elizabeth Lomen (Mrs. Alfred J.), Washington Alpha Pi Phi, now of Fairbanks, Alaska, had the honor to be selected the only woman delegate to the fall conference of the Western Interstate Commission of Higher Education.

This conference was held in Denver, Colorado, November 30-December 1, 1961. Its purpose was to discuss the problem of the out-of-state student in the public colleges and universities of thirteen western states. Mrs. Lomen represented Alaska at the meeting. The findings of the conference will be widely circulated on publication.

Mrs. Lomen was president of the Seattle Alumnae Club in 1953 and is a former chairman of the Alumnae Advisory Board of Washington Alpha. She is the mother of three children: Gilbert, 16, Julie, 12, and James, 1.

A HAPPY MOMENT for the San Francisco Pi Phi Alumnae Club came when its check for $1,000 was presented to "Meals on Wheels" officers. Left to right are Emilie Pope Plake (Mrs. F. Marvin), Missouri Beta, and Virginia Sanford Gibbons (Mrs. Henry, III), Illinois Epsilon, representing Pi Beta Phi in presenting the check to Mrs. Ivan Miller, "Meals on Wheels" co-chairman, and Mrs. Frederick J. Northway, President, Women's Auxiliary to San Francisco Medical Society.

"Meals on Wheels"

SAN FRANCISCO CLUB SHARES IN COMMUNITY PROJECT

Members of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of San Francisco are sharing in a unique project in their city this year. It is the "Meals on Wheels" community service program for San Francisco's aged, needy and handicapped who are unable to prepare their own meals because of a physical disability, the absence of cooking facilities or inability to carry on normal activities.

The program is shared as a project with the Women's Auxiliaries to the San Francisco Medical Society and San Francisco Dental Society.

$1,000 CHECK

In September, 1961, the Alumnae Club gave a check for $1,000 to the Auxiliary for the "Meals on Wheels" project. This was part of the money which the Club had made from its rummage sale in April.

Current plans call for a third day a week to be added to the program and it is hoped that this day will be chiefly manned by members of the Pi Phi Alumnae Club. Ten members of the Club began work last summer in the volunteer program.

Preparation and packaging of all food delivered by "Meals on Wheels" is centered in the kitchen of the San Francisco Medical Society Building. Menus are planned by a volunteer dietician in conformity with regulations established by the National Research Council.

Cars owned and operated by volunteer members of the Women's Auxiliary at their own expense rush the piping hot meals to shut-ins at midday.

ORIGINATED IN ENGLAND

The idea of "Meals on Wheels" came from England where it started in 1939 during World War II when the Women's Volunteer Services were organized to help Civil Defense. The first successful program in the United States began in Philadelphia in 1954 and spread rapidly to many large cities. The program was undertaken on a pilot basis in San Francisco in 1960 and a year later was adopted as a permanent community project.

To Pi Phis With Love

Philadelphia Alumnae Club
Sponsors a New Recording Of Favorite Pi Phi Songs

by Jane Melick Austin, Wisconsin Beta

It was a slightly incongruous setting. The August temperature outside the Broad Street Memorial Methodist Church of Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania, was a withering 102 degrees, yet the two men in the choir loft had methodically closed every door and window, virtually sealing themselves inside. One of the men sat ready at the pipe organ. The other man bustled back and forth, busily placing and adjusting a complicated assortment of electronic gear. Ten weary hours later the organist and the recording engineer emerged, carrying with them a master tape of selected songs that Pi Phis sing and love during their undergraduate years.

For the Philadelphia Alumnae Club this recording had been a long hard time coming. An eager and hopeful committee, made up of volunteers, held their first meeting in February, 1960, with only an idea with which to work. Many, many meetings were to follow before the committee was able to accomplish what they set out to do—make a record of Pi Phi Songs. But should you ask, every member will tell you that it was an unforgettable and rewarding experience. Two club presidents, Myra De Palma Reimer (Pennsylvania Gamma) and Nancy Minnick Stanton (Pennsylvania Gamma) gave their time, interest, and encouragement to the very loyal and permanent Record Committee whose members are Jane Melick Austin (Wisconsin Beta) Chairman, Sandra Seabring Hall (D.C. Alpha), Marjorie Mathers Iliff (Colorado Beta), Joan Lang Le Pard (Nevada Alpha), Patti Child Rivnak (Wisconsin Alpha), and F. Barbara Law Shanno (Michigan Beta).

Chairman Austin with Mr. Wetherill and Mr. Gehman and THE RECORD

To the amateur and unsuspecting the recording industry holds many pitfalls, not the least being union dues for musicians and high prices for arranging and recording the music. How to meet these expenses too excessive to be included in the club budget? The four area groups of the Philadelphia Club came to the rescue with the necessary financial backing by sponsoring theatre benefits, making voluntary contributions, and promoting special group money raising projects. Once the financial problem was solved, the going became easier.

It was the primary concern of the committee to produce a recording that would give listening pleasure as well as encourage the use of the lovely music composed just for Pi Phis. The ever popular Fred Waring and Mitch Miller were asked for their assistance but regretfully bowed out due to previous commitments. The Record Committee was greatly helped by the answers and suggestions which were forthcoming from the questionnaire which had been sent out to all alumnae clubs. Most important, everyone was in accord as to the songs they wanted to hear!! Warm support for the record came from Mrs. William H. Mansfield and Mrs. Kent R. Morgan. Without the cooperation and technical assistance of Mrs. John W. Ballard, Jr., National Music Chairman, the committee would have been at a loss to know which tunes and tempos are in use from coast to coast.

After the selection of the songs, it was decided that the organ was the best single instrument for the recording. Edward H. Wetherill, a prominent organist in the Philadelphia area, was approached by

Patti Rivnak, a committee member who sings in his church choir, in the hope that our unique idea would interest him so much that he would consent to play the organ for the recording. He was not only enthusiastically interested, but he offered to supervise all the various and complicated details involved in making the recording with the assistance of William H. Gehman, Jr., an experienced and extremely capable recording engineer. The Philadelphia Alumnæ Club is deeply grateful to Mr. Wetherill and Mr. Gehman for their advice and untiring efforts during the many hours they spent arranging the music for the recording, securing the church organ, recording the tape on the latest electronic equipment, overseeing the pressing of the album, and supplying the jackets and mailing cartons.

The Record Committee then breathed a sigh of relief for just a moment before turning their attention to the jacket design. First, it was necessary to select a title and that in itself proved to be somewhat difficult. All sorts of ideas were considered from putting suggestions into a hat for drawing to sponsoring a nation-wide contest among all Pi Phi groups. The first was considered too risky and the second too time consuming and expensive. So the committee threw caution to the winds and put on their "thinking caps." Here again fine cooperation and collective thinking resulted in "Π Β Φ Keep Singing" the very appropriate title which graces the artistic jacket of the album. Now Sandra Hall, a committee member, was able to go ahead with designing and supervising the printing of the beautiful and attractive jacket cover.

From then on the final stages of the project seemed to fall into line and gain momentum. Enthusiastic husbands and friends assisted with the printing of the jacket, advised and guided the sales campaign (even getting an assist from faithful secretaries) and put a professional stamp on the very fine design and descriptive material which eventually became the back cover of the jacket. Not the least of the undertakings at this time was the arranging and mimeographing the words to the songs which was done so capably by Barbara Shanno. In November, 1961, "Π Β Φ Keep Singing" became an album!! This recording, put together with such tender and loving care, is a high fidelity, 12 inch long play album of Pi Phi Songs. Side one provides music, with introductions, as accompaniment for singing. Side two features clever song arrangements for relaxed listening or background music.

Orders have been coming in from both actives and alums who are discovering interesting uses for this album such as providing music at parties and social gatherings, for Christmas and initiation gifts, and for assistance in learning new songs.

The Philadelphia Alumnæ Club salutes Pi Phis everywhere with "Π Β Φ Keep Singing"—a musical interlude, bringing to mind warm memories, glad times, good friends and best of all Pi Beta Phi.

EN ROUTE TO JAPAN

By Diane Haige, Florida Beta

Diane

Diane Haige, Florida Beta, was one of 240 United States College students selected to take part in the Experiment in International Living last summer. She was one of ten students sent to live in Japan for two months. The article below was prepared for the St. Petersburg Times and described her voyage en route to her summer home with a Japanese family in Nagano, Japan. Diane is a graduate student at Florida State University this year. She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Sigma Alpha and Florida Beta Arrow Board Chairman.

On the President Cleveland members of the Experiment found ourselves already in quite an international setting. Accompanying us were many Japanese college students, two on a Fulbright scholarship returning home after a year's study in the United States. Also there were several Chinese, many people from the Philippines, including the Philippine Ambassador to the United States, a Japanese baseball team from Kayo University, Tokyo, a Negro woman and her child from McDill Air Force Base, and Groucho Marx.

We enjoyed showing each other and learning from each other many new things about our countries' customs. We American girls showed the latest jitterbug steps to the Japanese baseball team and invited them to sit with us at dinner so we could practice eating Japanese food with chopsticks and conducting a dinner conversation in Japanese. They in turn, showed us how to dance the Japanese folk dance and how to write our names in Japanese characters, and they invited some of us to their big baseball games in Tokyo.

Our fellow American students on board from all over the United States were just as interesting. In our group of 10 with the Experiment, one boy had studied Japanese history and language at Harvard University from Professor Reischauer, now the new United States Ambassador to Japan; three had been on the Experiment previously; and one girl had sailed with a group of 20 young people all around Africa and the Mediterranean Sea for 18 months.

Aside from our group there were other United States college students going to Japan, Hong Kong, Okinawa, Korea and the Philippines to work and live with families. The World Council of Churches was sending a group of 20 to work with other Christian students on a summer work program; the 4-H group of 20 were young people sent to live with a different family each week in the five countries mentioned to help improve their agricultural methods; other high school sons and daughters of the Lions Clubs in California were being sent to Japan to represent America to families; and the Girl Scouts of America sent girls over to live with the families of Japanese Girl Scouts.

On July 19 we steamed into the same bay that impressed Commodore Perry about 100 years ago. The two hour bus ride from Yokohama to our Japanese Inn in Tokyo gave us a quick look at the capital city. We saw the Diet Building, passed the Emperor's Castle with the big moat encircling it, viewed the pretty green park with fountains erected in honor of the Crown Prince, saw the building where MacArthur had his headquarters, and also saw the internationally famous Imperial Hotel. The first thing that impresses one is the crowds of people everywhere, and the second thing is that they seem to be driving and walking down the wrong side of the street. In fact they drive on the left side of the street, whereas we drive on the right side.

The streets are very narrow and the open stores (no windows) are built so they end right on the street. All the people must walk in the streets since there are no sidewalks, and they do so seemingly unconcerned about the myriad of bicycles, motor scooters, and cars whizzing by. If one is observant, he will notice little garden plots of rice in every spare niche among the houses of Tokyo. Not an acre of fertile land is wasted in this country, where only 17 per cent of the land is suitable for farming.

After a five hour train ride, second class on a Japanese train, we arrived at Nagano station to be greeted by our "families," the mayor and other civic leaders, newsmen, photographers, and TV cameramen. After a short press conference and welcoming speech by the mayor, our first meeting with our "families" was televised and we Experimenters separated to go home with our "families."

Eighty-eight adopted daughters gave their "Mom O'" away last November in a marriage ceremony at the Ohio Beta chapter house. The daughters were members of the chapter and the bride was their beloved housemother for the past eight years, Mrs. Garnette Lilly O'Connor.

The Columbus Citizen-Journal took note of the event in a warmly written feature article by its society editor Gail Tabor. A portion of that article written ten days before the wedding is reprinted here—

Mrs. O'Connor has been the housemother for Pi Beta Phi sorority at Ohio State University for the past eight years. In August, 1960 she was visiting some friends, Prof. and Mrs. Frank Hurt of Westminster, Md. While she and Mrs. Hurt were taking a walk one day, they met Prof. Dean White Hendrickson.

"That's the way it started," she said. As the relationship deepened, she realized that Dean was the only one who could make her leave her beloved Pi Phi girls. But the decision was difficult.

To understand this, one would have to see Mrs. O'Connor surrounded by the sorority members and observe the bond between them. "Mom O'," her nickname to everyone on campus, isn't an ordinary housemother.

Some "daughters of the bride" and Mom O' in a happy moment. Seated, Cindy Schmidt; Merry Maidlow, chapter president; Mrs. O'Connor and Carolyn Brahm, house president. Merry was Mom O's maid of honor.

88 Daughters Give Bride Away

The girls show her a respect prompted by love. They don't just come up and talk to her—they put an arm around her shoulders, kiss her on the cheek, then say what they have to say.

"Mom O'" always remembers the little things that make this a home rather than just a house," said Cindy Schmidt. "Anyone can feel free to go into her room, the door is never closed."

"She has such understanding of the girls," said Merry Maidlow. "She can always be counted on for advice; she's never lost faith in us; she encourages us when we're down in the dumps. She remembers the names of all the girls' boyfriends and makes them feel welcome; she makes our parents proud that we're Pi Phis."

"I was a transfer," chimed in Danny Jeffers, "and Mom O' made me feel so much at home here when I felt rather alone."

"And she helps set the mood of a home," added Jan Ellis. "She's our mother here."

Like a true mother, Mom O' goes the second mile for her charges. She makes the best fudge on campus (hundreds of endorsements over the past eight years can't be wrong). During homecoming, initiations, or other times of stress, Mom O' is always there with the fudge or hot chocolate for a pick-up.

She sews for them, makes alterations. "Before a formal," she said, "my room looks as if I've gone into the alteration business." If a girl encounters a personal tragedy, such as losing a parent, Mom O' always knows the right thing to say. And of course boy-friend troubles are poured into her ears constantly.

Mom O' sets an example for the Pi Phis. She loves to have them go to church with her.

Lest anyone think that romance is only for the young, Mrs. O'Connor is a living example that it's wonderful at any and all ages—it's for the young at heart.

The night Mom O' announced her engagement to the girls she did it the Pi Phi way. In this ritual the girls link arms; a candle is passed around the circle. The lucky girl blows out the candle on the second time around for a pinning and third time around for an engagement.

When she blew out the candle the third time around there was complete silence—then shrieks of "Mom O'." Thinking they weren't taking it too well, Mrs. O'Connor started up the stairs. And then the girls were all over the hall, the stairs and Mom O', tears streaming down their faces. And they began singing a song, "My Pi Phi Girl"—the second line of which is "I love you."

The secret of this giant love affair that's been going on for years—and which will continue—is a simple one. Mom O' says it's a secret anyone can share and follow:

"Love," she says, "responds to love."

A Return to Wiesbaden

Wiesbaden continues to be a residential town and international health resort, but many buildings have gone up in recent years adding a note of modernity to the city.

Last summer a Missouri Beta Pi Phi accompanied her husband to a new assignment in Europe. She was Wilda Van Gieson Landon and her husband is General Truman H. Landon, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Air Forces in Europe. In the fall she responded to the request of Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield that she write some of her impressions for the ARROW. She wrote—

"Among the most pleasant assignments in our Air Force career was the one that brought General Landon and me back to Wiesbaden, Germany, in July of this year.

"Of course, each new assignment brings new friendships, but in Wiesbaden there was the added delight of meeting old friends. Although nearly eight years have passed since we left Germany for Washington, D.C., in August 1953, there were many—especially among our German friends—who remembered us and who helped to make our return a homecoming.

"Wiesbaden itself has changed. The remnants of bombed and broken buildings which one still saw here and there in Wiesbaden in 1953 have disappeared and many new and very modern buildings have been built. The charm of the city has remained. There is still an easy gracefulness about the city in the many lovely parks and on broad promenades of the fashionable Wilhelmstrasse.

"The USAFE command covers a broad area: England, France, Germany, and Spain, then east along both shores of the Mediterranean as far as Saudi Arabia. General Landon's duties have taken him to many parts of the area. I have been able to join him on trips in Germany and to England, France, and Spain. Soon I hope to visit Italy, Turkey, and Greece.

"My husband's responsibilities also include those of a NATO organization, the Fourth Allied Tactical Air Force, consisting of Canadian, French, German, and US air force units. His duties take us very often to Ramstein, Germany, where this command has its headquarters, located near the world-famous "Wein Strasse."

"The visit to Ramstein provide me with wonderful opportunities to meet with the families of German, French, and Canadian personnel who, along with the American Air Force personnel, form a truly international community there. There, too, each national group takes pride in displaying its customs and manner of doing.

"I find the wives of our US Air Force personnel keenly aware of the importance of the role which they play in creating a favorable image of our country in their contacts overseas.

"Outside of London, at South Ruislip, the headquarters of the Third Air Force in Paris at NATO headquarters; at Torrejon Air Base, near Madrid, the headquarters of the 65th Air Division; everywhere I travelled, I met American wives and families who are ably representing America in their frequent contacts with the communities in which they live.

"These women will return home with a greater understanding of international affairs and will certainly help to give their children the background for leadership which comes from an understanding of the world outside our own country.

"Being abroad is a stimulating experience for all of us, and if the responsibilities are great, so are the satisfactions. The world is growing constantly smaller. The need to know and understand our neighbors was never greater."

General and Mrs. Landon welcome the Secretary of the Air Force, Eugene M. Zuckert, on his arrival at Wiesbaden.

Long History of Mountain Weaving Represented at Craftsman's Fair

by Sutton Christian

From "kiverlids" to ponchos, the history of mountain weaving was represented in the Arrowcraft Shop exhibit at the Craftsman's Fair in Gatlinburg, October 24-28, 1961.

Mountain woman's skill and adaptability was on display in the handsome sweaters and ponchos she has created for the skiers who will come to Gatlinburg for the first time this year.

Most of the weavers who made the ponchos, modelled by Betty Sipe, Gatlinburg Ski Club hostess, have never seen a skier in costume, but they can follow any pattern whether for a placement, or a stole to wear after skiing.

Miss Winogene Redding, Arrowcraft Shop weaving designer, says the adaptation to winter sports attire is but one phase of a long history in Gatlinburg weaving.

The Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, established in 1912, has sustained the tradition of weaving in this area and that has been the core of revival of all handicrafts. In its awakening of interest in the crafts the school had the help of Aunt Lizzie Reagan, who worked at an ancient loom until she died in 1926 at the age of eighty-seven, and the versatile craftsman, Aunt Lydia Whaley. The two women taught their neighbors, many of whom required only refresher courses in spinning and weaving, and the school found a ready market for the products through the widely scattered Pi Beta Phi chapters and alumnae clubs.

IT'S TRADITIONAL

Craftsmanship is traditional for those dedicated artisans who weave for Arrowcraft. Here Izora Keener, center, whose weaving covers 40 years, Jean Carter, left, who comes from a family of 16 weavers, and Winogene Redding, Arrowcraft Shop weaving designer for 20 years give their approval to finished products.

Miss Redding, a native of Wollaston, Massachusetts, arrived at the Settlement School in 1925 to direct the weaving operations and to design patterns to meet modern demands. At about the same time Arrowcraft Shop was established to provide the market, both locally and nationally.

Today Arrowcraft employs seventy-five weavers on a year-around basis. They own their looms and do their weaving in their leisure time at home. Arrowcraft supplies the threads and yarns and supervises and directs the work.

The oldest weaver is Mrs. Mollie Moore, eighty years old. She has several daughters who weave for the shop.

Mrs. Izora Keener, who started working for Pi Beta Phi Settlement School in 1921, has the longest record of employment.

Mrs. Laura Watson heads the largest family of weavers. Joining her in the craft are four daughters, six daughters-in-law, and four granddaughters.

Among the hundreds of patterns in Arrowcraft weaving the most popular continues to be the traditional Whig Rose, which was adapted to a luncheon mat that has been sold in great quantity.

Under Miss Redding's direction the Arrowcraft weavers make not only traditional but contemporary weavings in tweeds, bags, luncheon mats, stoles, blankets, aprons, and yardage.

The roster of weavers includes hundreds of local women, many of whom have started their own business and prospered with the growth of the tourist industry. In the early years of the program weaving was taught in the high school and is now a part of the Arts and Crafts classes.

There are approximately 1,000 looms in the Gatlinburg area. Thus, weaving is the most important of local handicrafts, and probably no other area in America has greater claim to importance as a hand weaving center.

About twenty-five years ago the Arrowcraft Weavers organized a Guild, and under Miss Redding's direction sponsored the Gatlinburg Garden Club in 1937. The club, open to both Guild members as well as interested women in the community, held annual flower shows in the school.

Although she came to Gatlinburg thirty-six years ago, Miss Redding has not worked continuously for Arrowcraft. In her first period of employment she rode horseback to homes of weavers living in remote sections. She taught weaving in Norris, Tennessee, under the TVA program in 1934-35. In 1948 she opened her own studio in Wollaston, Massachusetts, where, in addition to teaching weaving, she authored and published REDDIGRAPHS for WEAVERS, a series of designs that had international circulation.

She taught weaving in summer schools in Mason, New Hampshire, Natchitoches, Louisiana, and at Pi Beta Phi (school) before returning to Arrowcraft as weaving designer in 1958. She became a member of the Southern Highlands Handicraft Guild during its pioneer days, and she has served the organization in many capacities. She is presently chairman of the jury on standards and is president of the Tennessee unit of the Guild.

SETTLEMENT SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

A Special Invitation

The 1962 Convention in Washington, D.C. will recognize the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. Many Pi Phis have served as resident staff members, teachers, or committee members during the half-century the Settlement School has been developing as a living Memorial to our Founders. If you are one of these who helped to "build the Settlement School," we extend a special invitation to attend the 1962 Convention, especially the commemorative dinner and program on Tuesday evening, June 26. Please make your former position and service years known on your official Registration Blank. Mrs. Carl W. Hensley, Secretary Settlement School Committee, 1126 Fay Avenue—Baybreeze, Kemah, Texas, will also like to know if you plan to attend.

Fire at Settlement School

At 2:00 A.M. on January 11—the coldest night in sixty-seven years, fire broke out in the boys' dormitory (Teachers Cottage) at our Settlement School. Fortunately and thankfully, all in the building were safely evacuated. The prompt response of the Gatlinburg Volunteer Fire Department undoubtedly prevented further extensive damage, even though there is heavy loss.

Much of the first floor and contents were destroyed, including office equipment and all personal possessions of Mrs. Adams, our treasured house-mother and cook. There was considerable loss in the belongings of a teacher, Mr. Carnes, and the boys. The Boys Dorm has been moved to the first floor of the Red Barn, Mrs. Adams is now at the Staff House where the Director's office is also temporarily located. It is hoped that restoration will be completed in time for the necessary housing of summer Craft Workshop Students.

While insurance is expected to take care of replacement of structure and contents, it will not cover any improvements (such as better wiring, the traceable cause of the fire) thought desirable to undertake at this time. In addition those who work closely with the Settlement School believe the Fraternity should attempt restitution of personal losses to the greatest possible extent.

It is believed that Pi Phis—as chapters, clubs and individuals—will welcome the opportunity to help in this emergency, the first of this kind in 50 years. Gatlinburg offered its help—as a community and as individual friends of the Settlement School—immediately and wholeheartedly. Can we as Pi Phis, do less? If you wish to help, please designate your check to "Emergency Fund" and send to Mrs. Richard E. James, Jr., Treasurer Settlement School Committee, 3903 Gladney Drive, Doraville, Georgia.

Pi Phi Seniors

The 1962 Craft Workshop offers three Graduate Assistant positions to graduating seniors who are art majors or minors. How would you like to live and work at the Settlement School for six weeks early next summer? There is financial reimbursement, one free credit course, and free room and board. If interested, write soon to Mrs. Robert R. Russell, Chairman, Settlement School Committee, 6823 Crest Avenue, University City 30, Missouri.

Arrowcraft Manager Needed

The Arrowcraft Manager's position is still open to a qualified member of the Fraternity. Surely there is a Pi Phi somewhere who is available and truly interested in this challenging position which calls for experience in business management, good health, congenial relationships, handcraft appreciations, and freedom from family responsibilities. If interested, please contact immediately Mrs. Robert R. Russell, Chairman Settlement School Committee, 6823 Crest Avenue, University City 30, Missouri.

Members of Tennessee Alpha visited the Red Barn and toured Settlement School in October. Louisiana Beta, Tennessee Gamma and South Carolina Alpha have made inquiries about possible visits. The Red Barn has been used also by church groups, craftsmen, and recreation groups.

Exchanges and College Notes

Edited by Freda Stafford Schuyler, Arkansas A Success Can Be Deadly

The Aglaia of Phi Mu printed the following address given by Dr. John A. Hunter, dean of student services at Louisiana State University, at the Phi Mu initiation banquet. The thoughts expressed carry a message for all sorority members.

"One of the most difficult problems for fraternities and sororities to handle is, strangely enough, success. An examination of the historical development of a specific sorority chapter on any given campus will reveal periods when the group was strongest with interim periods of weakness. The weakest fraternal group today may be the strongest tomorrow, and the leading group today may exercise poor leadership tomorrow. Are these cycles of competency and incompetency necessary? It is quite obvious, of course, that they are not, for the success of a fraternal group depends upon the kind of leadership exercised by the group.

"Success, therefore, can be dangerous, for if a group becomes content and assured that all heights have been scaled, this group becomes static and soon deteriorates. Continued achievement by a sorority requires greater and greater effort, for if the group bases its future on past achievements, it soon faces mediocrity.

"If you are going to be campus leaders—if you are going to be leaders in life, you must maintain the ideal of truth. Seek the truth, for truth leads to understanding, and you must have knowledge and understanding if you are to assume responsible positions of leadership. The road toward truth is a difficult path; for in seeking truth, bias, prejudice and half-truths must be recognized and put aside.

"Sorority membership is synonymous with service. Leadership requires service. Service to your sorority, service to your school, service to your classmate, service to your community, service to your country—all are qualities characterizing leadership. Sorority membership stands for unity and teamwork, and it is a wonderful thing that unity of action does not mean that you lose your individualism."

Dr. Hunter further states that a sorority will be as strong as the weakest member rather than the strongest member, for too often groups are evaluated upon the "weakest link in the chain. Your individual responsibility, therefore, is very real."

If a sorority is "to achieve even greater heights, each of you must firmly resolve that you will use your time wisely—that you will develop your talents to the fullest—that academic excellence is of paramount importance to each of you. The campus leader has achieved emotional stability. Real leaders understand the concept of human relations." Dr. Hunter says that the most difficult job in administration is getting people to work together, and, therefore a sorority can have no factions no cliques, and no favored few.

"As sorority members, you also must be socially efficient. This, too, is a matter of human relations. Friends are to be treasured and friendships should be nurtured so that they flower into the finest experience that a person may have. I am not suggesting aimlessly following the majority! I am saying that once a decision is reached after careful evaluation, the democratic concept is majority rule.

"Leadership requires work. A successful sorority or fraternity has no place for the person who is not willing to work. Leadership requires moral strength and integrity of character.

"If you are going to assume responsibilities . . . you must be ready, willing, and able to answer for your actions. Never forget that you are to be held accountable—subject yourself to self-evaluation and criticism—when objectively done, it is amazing how readily we identify our own weaknesses."

A Sigma Phi Epsilon pledge was quoted in their Journal with a thought we might all consider.

"Brotherhood is a give and take procedure. A person must give and receive in order to understand what brotherhood really is. It is something that is hard to explain but that which I have now acquired has made living more joyful for me."

Holt House

By Beth Olwin Dawson, Holt House Committee

ENTERTAINING IS EASIER NOW . . .

Holt House is one of Pi Beta Phi's most notable memorials in its living testimony to the Fraternity's founders, for it daily provides a pleasant background for civic and social groups who hold functions there. However, for some years it has lacked the functional arrangement that makes entertaining a pleasure.

Recently a number of improvements have been made which provide more adequately for the needs of the many groups who use the House each year.

The kitchen was enlarged to give additional storage space and open up new work areas. Entertaining is usually done by fairly large groups with equally large hostess committees. The new kitchen arrangement eliminates a pile up of helpful, but helpless hostesses wishing they could find a place to work.

The improvements include a new tile floor and coordinated counter tops in grey-green. A new wall storage area has sliding wood finish doors.

Other improvements include refinishing the powder room in pleasant pink and white color scheme. Walls are pink and the tile floor has a white background with a marblized gold design in both this room and the lavatory.

Above—A view of the newly redecorated powder room.

Lower Left—A hostess lifts plates from a storage cupboard between sink and stove. A new corner cabinet (not seen) by the stove provides space for large coffee urn storage below and use above.

Lower Right—Hostesses preparing refreshments now find ample room to work.

WORK BEGINS ON NEW OKLAHOMA BETA HOUSE

Work began in November on a $300,000 three-story, 20,000 square foot sorority house for the Oklahoma Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

The style of architecture chosen for the new home is country colonial. Situated on a corner lot, it will have front and back brick and concrete patios inside a service drive around the entire house top provide adequate parking space.

Club and card rooms will be in the colonial style with beamed ceilings, wood and brick floors, turned columns and a decorative screen dividing them from the gallery. Living room will be formal in character with colonial moldings, carpet, and a wood burning fireplace. The dining room will offer seating capacity of 100 persons and will have a vinyl floor, which can be used for dancing.

There will be bedrooms and baths for 72 occupants, a stainless steel kitchen, a project room, a hostess suite, and combination chapter room and study hall. Also planned are large shower and tub rooms, automatic washers and dryers, and a lounge and snack bar on the second floor. The third floor will have storage for formals and luggage.

CALIFORNIA ZETA IS LIVING IN NEW HOME

Forty-one happy Pi Phis moved into the new California Zeta chapter house on the Santa Barbara Campus of the University of California in the fall of 1961. Occupation of this lovely new home was the culmination of a ten year dream for the Chapter.

The two story structure features a spacious lounge and dining area on the first floor which are reached by an attractive lobby. Also on the first floor is the hostess suite, a library, large kitchen, cook's room, laundry, several storage rooms, and two bedrooms. There are 18 bedrooms on the second floor.

Landscaping will come in a three phase program beginning with the entry, then patio construction and complete fencing of the property, and finally the "little" touches that complete the work. Recreational aspects of the plan include a large volley ball court, a shuffleboard area, and a spacious dining and lounging patio featuring a circular area with boulder and plantings to be seen from the dining and living room windows.

AT ILLINOIS ALPHA — CHAPTER ROOM REDECORATED

by Mary Sheese, Illinois Alpha

Illinois Alpha is extremely proud of the redecoration of her chapter room and of the alumnae and other interested persons who contributed to the project. Sororities at Monmouth do not have houses, and the chapter depends heavily on its chapter room for meetings and other sorority gatherings. The newly redecorated room is a particular asset during rush.

Jean Cowan, with the help of a decorating committee made up of representatives from different classes, compiled plans for the room, which were then approved by the chapter. Under the guidance of Mrs. Thomas H. Hamilton, who is associated with the Art Department of Monmouth College and a sponsor of Pi Beta Phi, a color scheme of silver blue with accents of seafoam green and violet was chosen.

The actual work took place over the summer months. The walls and woodwork were painted an eggshell white, with shutters tinted light blue. A new sectional couch and modern desk set were purchased, and carpeting of silver blue laid. Large throw pillows of seafoam green provide contrast. Perhaps the most unique object in the room is a combination radiator-cover trophy case. Still-life drawings sketched by Marjorie Fritz were contributed to the room. They will remain there as a cherished memorial to Marjorie who passed away this December during her sophomore year.

The new wing of the Indiana Gamma House

INDIANA GAMMA HAS NEW 3-STORY WING

by Judy Pope, Indiana Gamma

The Indiana Gammas are thrilled with their new addition and remodeled old house on the Butler Campus, at Indianapolis. The three-story wing, sundeck, and enlarged kitchen were completed last November. The entire third floor of the new wing is the dormitory which has loads of wall storage space in addition to the girls' double deck beds. The first two floors of the new part are study rooms, a lovely apartment for the housemother, and a much needed town girls' room equipped with study tables and three roll-out sofa beds for their overnight visits. Each study room has built-in desks, shelves, and dressers.

The dining area was extended by means of a deep bay window. The same space on the top floor includes the sundeck, and this area on the bottom floor enlarges the chapter room.

The building now houses 38 lucky girls, whereas the old house built in 1936 could handle only 15 girls comfortably, and though changes over the years had provided for more girls living in the house, conditions were crowded to say the least.

In addition to the new wing, there is a remodeled basement with new furniture and wall hangings throughout the house. The remodeled basement conveniently serves as an informal lounge and study room, plus the adjoining chapter room which was newly tiled, painted, and provided with new drapes.

As a result of many hours hard work on the part of Indianapolis alumnae, the Indiana Gamma chapter house is conveniently roomy, modernly comfortable and tastefully decorated and provides excellent facilities for study, recreation and chapter activities for 54 Butler Pi Phis.

1962 Orange Bowl Queen

CAROL HAIR, Florida Beta Pi Phi, greets her subjects from the Orange Bowl Queen float in the 1962 Parade. Queen Carol (also pictured in inset) was crowned Orange Bowl Queen in November and shortly afterwards appeared on the Bob Hope Show and Play Your Hunch TV show in New York. She is a 21-year-old Florida State University senior. She was a 1961 Orange Bowl Princess and has also been Kappa Alpha Rose, Kappa Alpha Province Rose, IFC Week Greek Goddess. She is a Dean's List student.

A PRINCESS TOO—JO ELEN EYSTER, another Florida Beta Pi Phi, was a member of Carol's court as an Orange Bowl Princess.

FOUR PI PHI "MISS AMERICAS" represented their states or cities with charm and dignity in the 1961 Miss America Beauty Pageant at Atlantic City, New Jersey. The lovely young ladies pictured here quickly found a common bond at the Pageant when they discovered they were Pi Phi sisters.

Virginia Alpha, Frances Jane Anderson, carried her state's colors into the finals and was designated Alternate Miss America when she won first runner-up honors.

"Ocean to Ocean— Pi Phi Calls Out to You . . . !"

Once again, let's all answer the call of the wine and blue. Once again let's experience together the joy of reaching upward toward a worthwhile ideal—a dream of a philanthropy made possible by our generosity in celebrating our Centennial Anniversary.

How wonderful to know that we can do this if each of us shares the responsibility. Then, in fact, our philanthropic dream will belong to each of us 70,000 Pi Phis.

Our goal? One million dollars for a Centennial project to be named at Convention this summer. Think, it is possible, isn't it? That is if each sends her share either by a partial donation each year until 1967, our Centennial year, or a complete share in one donation.

Your share? 70,000 Pi Phis will share in donating one million dollars. Simply divide, and you'll understand that united, we can build this wonderful dream. Do your part, Pi Phi!

Chapters should send donations to Centennial Fund Treasurer, Mrs. Theodore N. Shreve, 417 Leyden Street, Denver 20, Colorado. Alumnae and clubs please send your donations to your province vice president. Her address may be found in the Directory in this ARROW.

PAULA REAGAN MCDOWELL (MRS. THOMAS, JR.)
Chairman, Centennial Fund Committee

Time Is Drawing Near

If you have ideas on the Pi Beta Phi Centennial Project to be inaugurated on our one-hundredth birthday, please write to your Centennial Projects Committee. The response to our letter and card had been most rewarding with over two hundred clubs and many individuals having written to the committee.

According to the last convention minutes, a motion was passed for a projects committee to present a report to the 1962 convention on possibilities for another national project in addition to our Settlement School. WE WANT TO PRESENT YOUR IDEAS.

With the committee made up of members from all over the country—it takes time to contact them, so please write to us now, so that the committee may study all proposals and recommendations prior to convention.

She Is USAF Archivist

Marguerite K. Kennedy, Oklahoma Alpha, Recognized For Her Outstanding Service

Miss Kennedy

Miss Marguerite K. Kennedy, initiated by Oklahoma Alpha in March 1931 has recently received high recognition for her work as Archivist of the USAF Historical Division, Research Studies Institute, Air University, at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama.

After having been granted a Bachelor of Arts degree, Miss Kennedy tried her hand briefly at teaching and in the business world. In January 1945, however, she bade farewell to her native Oklahoma and went to Washington, D.C., to accept a position with what was then the Army Air Forces' Air Historical Office. The position was not an exalted one, but it provided an ideal starting point for her career as an archivist. As a member of the Accessioning Section Miss Kennedy was enabled to take note of the documents that came to the Archives from AAF units scattered all over the world; this opportunity, coupled with a remarkably tenacious memory, gave her a knowledge of the contents of the Archives that has been of immeasurable value to other members of the Archives staff and to patrons of the Archives as well. After leaving the Accessioning Section for positions of greater responsibility, she continued to keep an eye on the flow of material coming into the Archives, so that her knowledge of the collection would always be up to date.

On the first day of October 1949 Miss Kennedy became the Chief of the Archives Branch. Ten years later she was awarded the "Meritorious Civilian Service Award." This award is made for a contribution which merits recognition by the commander of a major air command or by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force.

The citation on her award reads as follows:

"In recognition of outstanding service performed as Chief, Archives Branch, Research Studies Institute, Maxwell Air Force Base, from 16 May 1959 to 15 May 1960. With energy and foresight she managed her staff with efficiency and leadership permitting the accomplishment of a greatly increased workload. Her sustained and successful endeavors were performed in such a manner as to reflect credit upon the Air University and the United States Air Force."

Miss Kennedy is a member of the Anita Van de Voort Hudson Alumnae Club in Montgomery, Alabama and is known to her friends as Margot. She has been an active and interested member of the club and has served as Alabama State Rush Chairman.

• Cream rises to the top because it is rich, and often so do members of Pi Beta Phi rise to the top on their campuses because they use their rich blessings of personality, beauty, brains and talent to serve the best interests of their Fraternity and college. Consider the contributions of these at . . .

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Karen Kline, Indiana Beta, was recently selected by a vote of the Indiana University student body as queen of the yearbook Arbutus. As Queen of Indiana University she will be featured in a yearbook pictorial display. She was crowned queen at the annual Christmas Eve on Campus Dance.

Choosing from a field of thirty-two past all campus queens and representatives from each sorority and dormitory, a panel of judges selected Karen and Diane Luzar, an Indiana Beta junior, as two of the eight finalists. The final judging was based on intelligence, personality, beauty, poise and photogenic qualities.

Karen, a sophomore from Evanston, Illinois, is majoring in Comparative Literature. She is a member of Enomene, the sophomore girls honorary, Alpha Lambda Delta, the Singing Hoosiers and YWCA. She is also the new activities chairman of her chapter.

Karen's warm smile and personality also won her the title of Miss Fascination in an all-campus vote her freshman year.

PERSONALITY PLUS

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

The 1961 Homecoming of Northwestern University was especially important for Illinois Epsilon for one of their members, Barbara Walter, (center) reigned as Homecoming Queen. Among the four attendants in Queen Barbara's Court were two of her sisters, Jean Mair, left, and Jeane Nolte, right.

Barbara is a senior in primary education and handles most of the art direction for the house. Under her leadership Illinois Epsilon won first place in the homecoming decorations last year.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Capable Nancy Natwick, Wisconsin Alpha, was named University of Wisconsin Outstanding Junior Woman last year. She is president of the Associated Women's Students, both a Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi member and a member of Mortar Board.

WILLIAM AND MARY

Pat Graves, Virginia Gamma Pi Phi, holds a position of respect and popularity on the William and Mary campus. In her sophomore year she won the coveted title of Miss William and Mary. She was Homecoming Queen in 1961 and had been in the Court the previous year. She is the current chairman of the Women's Judicial Council and past president of Landrum Dormitory.

Her campus leadership is recognized in her role as an Official Aide to the president of the college and membership in the Student Senate. She is secretary of Panhellenic this year too.

Pat also finds time to be an active participant in women's basketball, tennis and swimming and was in Mermettes, the campus swimming group this year.

Barbara Jo Allen, a Colorado Gamma junior, was named Miss Colorado State University this year. Brunette Barbara climbed to the top in the pageant with a pantomime dance. She was judged on talent, poise, beauty and personality. Her other activities include Aggie Hostesses, Newman Club, Counselettes, Group Leader, and Pi Phi rush chairman.

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

by Marjorie Helen Martin, D.C. Alpha

Pat Poindexter

D.C. Alpha Pi Phi, Pat Poindexter, is a beauty with both brains and talent. Her academic record matches her impressive queenly one, and she has danced, sung, and acted her way through a multitude of musical and dramatic productions.

Pat began this outstanding record in high school in Salem, Virginia where she was Christmas Snow Queen, May Queen and a class beauty. She continued to garner honors in her two years at Mary Washington College. There she reigned as Miss Roanoke and Southwest Virginia, Miss Roanoke Fair, Christmas Queen of Roanoke, and Dogwood Queen of Virginia and represented her state in the Miss Universe contest. She had the lead in campus dramatic and dance productions, "The Bad Seed," "Lancelot and Elaine" and "Walpurgis Night."

Pat pledged Pi Phi at George Washington in 1960. She was vice president of her pledge class and served as vice president of the Junior Panhellenic Council. She was a member of the cast of "The Boyfriend" and "Judgement Ale," was a yearbook queen candidate and runner-up in the Miss Auto Show Contest. In the chapter she received the pledge scholarship and was voted the Outstanding Initiate.

Last fall Pat represented Pi Phi in the All-Campus Fashion Show during Orientation Week, was a member of the Big Sis, and served on the sorority rush committee. She appeared in the November issue of the Engineering School magazine, the Mechelecivi as "Mech Miss" and will be a candidate for Engineering Queen this spring. She was Homecoming Queen runner-up and was in the Homecoming production of "Pajama Game." Pat is currently representing George Washington with a two page spread in Campus-Illustrated magazine. She is manager of Dance Group III and will dance the lead in the spring dance concert.

Pat holds a Columbia College Women's scholarship, and when she graduates in January, 1963, will have a double major in psychology and drama. She has proved a willing and untiring worker and is an outstanding and loyal Pi Phi.

JULIE PRATT

A Pi Phi Queen

by Karen Yenna, Indiana Zeta

Julie Pratt rates tops in the eyes and hearts of her Indiana Zeta Pi Phi sisters. And Pi Phis the world over will surely be proud of this Pi Phi sister who has held four queenships in the past three years.

Not long after Julie donned her golden arrowhead, she was chosen Orient (yearbook) Queen of 1960. Criteria for this honor were talent, beauty, poise and personality. Julie possesses all four.

The title of Miss Ball State Teachers College also went to Julie as a result of this contest. And she represented Ball State regally in the Miss Indiana contest in July, 1960. During her reign as Miss Ball State, she represented the college at various college campus, community and state functions.

In May, Julie made nationwide news by being crowned queen of the 1960 Indianapolis "500" Festival. And she witnessed her first of the annual Memorial Day races not only as a spectator but as queen of the event in its entirety.

Julie's beauty, poise and personality rated tops over the other 32 contestants in the eyes of the judges. As a part of her title, she officially reigned over social, sports and promotional activities preceding the race. And she was the first queen ever to present the Borg-Warner trophy to the race winner. Perhaps you saw a picture of Julie with race-winner Roger Ward in your local paper or witnessed the whole show on television.

The military honored Julie when she was elected queen of the AFROTC Arnold Air Society D2, representing Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky and Tennessee. This honor was bestowed on Julie in April, 1961, at Bradley University; and she will reign in this capacity until this spring.

Reigning as a queen is not something new for Julie. In her high school years, she was chosen as Military Ball Queen at Howe High School in Indianapolis. She was State Sweetheart of Demolay and is a past honored queen of Jobs Daughters.

Julie has also served on the fashion board for an Indianapolis department store for several years and has done modeling in her high school and college career.

Beauty is not Julie's only asset. This junior elementary education major is now sororities director of the college yearbook. She is a member of the Greek political party steering committee and has been active in residence hall work. She served as a grooming advisor to the ten finalists in last year's Orient Queen contest and will serve in the same capacity this year.

Julie's Pi Phi activities are also many. As assistant rush captain, Julie was co-ordinator of the Indiana Zeta rush parties last winter and she is now serving as rush captain of the chapter.

Julie is the epitome of Pi Phi beauty and charm and her Indiana Zeta sisters' pride in her soars as high as the Arrow.

A Pi Phi Architect

Betty Lou Custer, Missouri Beta,
Is Featured in St. Louis Article

Betty Lou Wielandy Custer, Missouri Beta Pi Phi was the subject of an interesting feature in the St. Louis (Mo.) Globe-Democrat last fall. Lucinda Benzel, staff writer, has given her permission for a portion of the article to be reprinted here.

Have you ever met a woman who didn't want to rearrange the floor plan of her house? The urge to knock out a few kitchen walls or convert an unused closet into a picturesque powder room seems to be a universal feminine instinct.

But have you ever met a woman who can do these things plus rechannel the heating pipes, the water pipes and the electric wiring?

Betty Lou Custer does all that and more.

The lone feminine corporate member of the St. Louis Chapter, American Institute of Architects, has a list of creative accomplishments ranging from redoing a single room to designing and supervising new construction.

"Most of my work has been remodeling," the diminutive architect says while displaying her well equipped studio in the basement of her home.

"Though most people my age are doing contemporary work, my taste leans toward the traditional. It's very challenging to re-do an old house trying to preserve its historic value, working with what's already there. I like to bring old homes up to today's living with the latest materials and ideas."

In 1954 when she was serving as a staff architect with the County Planning Commission, Betty Lou had a cluster of jobs come her way all at once and decided it was time to start her own practice. May Day, 1954, she set up her own studio.

Originally planning to find a quaint artistic setting for her work-space, she reconsidered the added overhead expense of driving home late at night and decided instead to brighten up a corner in her parents' basement.

"I've never been an eight to five worker," the brown-haired designer explained. "When I get involved in a drawing, it becomes a real thing for me and I like to work it through."

Now in her eighth year of practice, Betty Lou keeps a ladylike record of her work on a trio of gold charm bracelets where she has memento of each job.

Though most of her work has been in private homes . . . the energetic young woman seems to come up with a non-residential job each year. Currently covering her drafting table are drawings of the east wing of Jefferson Memorial which she is remodeling for the Missouri Historical Society.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat Photo

From the time of her graduation from Washington University School of Architecture until she received her professional registration, Betty Lou served an apprenticeship with the small firm of a consulting engineer. Her exposure to varied practical experience stands her in good stead today, for she handles all aspects of her own practice including the supervision of construction.

Though there are about 15,000 members of the American Institute of Architects, only 129 are women. The only woman member in the State of Missouri is Betty Lou Custer.

Nevertheless she maintains that her profession is not unusual but "a fascinating and natural one for women, whether as a vocation or avocation.

"I don't believe we are competing with men in the field of architecture," she said, "But I do feel we have at least a slight edge, at least in the field of residential design.

"When men come home at night, the house is usually in order. But women have been using it all day. We see a house in action."

Eleven boys and eight girls moved into the Settlement School dormitories last fall, with three boys on a waiting list to come in if space becomes available. One boy is president of the Student Council and four are on the football team. One girl is captain of the girls' basketball team and two others are on the squad.

Kansas Alpha's All-around Angel

by Jean Barron, Kansas Alpha

Marcia Casey

It has been said that to have a well rounded college life, a person should find a well balanced interest in scholarship, activities, and social events. If this is true, Marcia Casey, known to her sisters as "Case," a Pi Phi at the University of Kansas, will have one of the most rewarding college careers a co-ed could hope for. It certainly is one of the busiest as Marcia's sisters can testify.

Scholastically speaking, Marcia's name has appeared regularly on the Dean's Honor Roll and she is a participant in the Gifted Students Program.

Marcia is engaged in so many activities that one wonders just how she can find time to maintain that high scholastic standing. During her three years at K. U., she has worked on the K.U.Y. Cabinet, been secretary of the Rock Chalk Review, and participated in the Student Union Activities, Young Republicans, and the Jay Sister Program.

She has not neglected her obligations to Pi Phi either. She was president of her pledge class, rush chairman and has been both junior and senior representative to Panhellenic Council. Her senior year finds her busy as the Pi Phi scholarship chairman, Student Council and Panhellenic representative to A.W.S. Senate, and a member of the College Intermediary Board, a board which works closely with the Deans and Administration to promote better relations between the faculty and students. Last spring, Marcia was recognized for all her achievements when she was tapped for Mortar Board.

Nor has Marcia neglected that third aspect of college life—the social interests. Her fun loving nature and wit make her a favorite among her sorority sisters, and she is held in esteem by all who know her. And to top it all off, she's a beauty queen. She was chosen Best Dressed Co-ed in her Freshman year and was Greek Week Princess as a sophomore.

To sum it up, if one wants to have a stimulating conversation on philosophy, or a discussion on the values of different activities, or just have a fun time—Marcia Casey is your girl!

ALPHA PROVINCE

*MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. Pledge Day, December 10, 1961. The Pi Beta Phis opened their fall semester with an overnight outing held at a nearby lake. All the Maine As had great fun eating, relating stories of their summer experiences, and learning the new dance, the twist.

Women's fraternity rushing began on October 16 with informal open houses. All freshman and transfer students who were interested were invited to all chapter rooms. Actual rushing parties began early in November with the theme LITTLE ABNER predominating. Rushing activities were climaxed by a bowpinning supper sponsored by the Eastern Maine Alumnae Club.

Alice McKiel and Sally Kennett were both candidates for Honorary Lieutenant Colonel at the Annual Military Ball which was held in December this year. Virginia Barnes was also a Calico Queen candidate for the Farmer's Fair.

Christmas season on the Maine campus was highlighted by the parties held by the men's and women's fraternities for the many orphans in the area. Pi Beta Phi and Φ Γ Δ entertained Saint Michael's Orphanage from Bangor.

On the Sunday evening before classes ended all the senior girls on campus joined together to sing carols in a candlelight procession throughout the freshman women's dormitories.

PLEGDED: Bonnie Adams, Brewer; Stephanie Berry, Bucksport; Amy Cook, Tenants Harbor; Mary Kate Foote, Syracuse, N.Y.; Daphne Goodwin, Waterboro; Pamela Goodwin, Westbrook, Mass.; Karen Helliwell, Jeanne Woods, Kittery Point; Judith Kay, Reading, Mass.; Julie Love, Melrose, Mass.; Sandra Moores, Bangor; Paula Reddy, Barbara Waters, Kittery; Barbara Rider, Needham, Mass.; Joanne Weeks, South Paris.

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1934. Pledge Day, November 5, 1961. INITIATED, October 22, 1961: Donna Crockett, Nancy Grant, Jean Hattie, Joan Hattie, Margot Horne, Janet Renouf, Carol Shatford, Halifax.

Nova Scotia A began a very busy fall season with the first meeting being held at the home of the president on October 4.

Initiation was held following the first rushing party on October 22 and coffee and fancy breads were served to the new initiates after the ceremony.

The rushing parties this fall, a tea, dessert party and Scottish theme party were highly successful due mainly to the efforts of Sally Ross, the rush captain, and the Pi Beta Phis welcomed eighteen new pledges at a ceremony held on November 5.

On Monday evening, November 13, Nova Scotia A welcomed the province president, Mrs. Philip E. Adams, to Halifax. Upon her arrival, coffee was served at the home of Naomi Smith and Mrs. Adams met informally with the actives and new pledges. She attended the regular chapter meeting on November 15.

The Pi Beta Phis were entertained by A Γ Δ of Dalhousie on November 22 at a delightful supper party followed by an interesting talk on cosmetics by a beauty counsellor.

In an effort to improve scholarship, a banquet is to be held by the scholarship chairman, Joan Stewart, following the posting of the results of Christmas examinations. Those members not obtaining a certain specified average will be required to wear black to the banquet and will be served beans while those who do obtain their average will wear white and qualify for a chicken or steak dinner.

Following a Pi Beta Phi meeting in November, President Naomi spoke enthusiastically to the actives and pledges on the Alpha Province Workshop held in Gatlinburg during the past summer. She and pledge supervisor, Carol Quigley, brought back many beautiful samples of work done in the Settlement School.

This year Nova Scotia A is again offering a bursary to a co-ed at Dalhousie who best fulfills the requirements of scholarship and financial need.

Playing field hockey this year are Joyce Smith, Jean Hattie, and Donna Crockett.

Some Pi Beta Phis working on the staff of the Gazette this year are Beth Creighton, Jean Hattie, Joan Stewart and Joan Smith. Beth is also the graduate editor of the Dal year book, Pharos, and the president of Δ Γ, an organization of all co-eds on campus.

Gail Young, a new pledge, gave Nova Scotia A its first queen of the year when she was crowned Law Queen at the annual Law Ball.

PLEGDED, November 5, 1961: Leslie Baldwin, Janet Davison, Mardi Donahoe, Eleanor Dunsworth, Carol Fogo, Barbara Gough, Jane Gill, Peggy Mahon, Lynn Ross, Halifax; Judy Fingard, Jeanette Seager, Linda Thomson, Gail Young, Dartmouth; Alice Wile, Liverpool; Gill Ash, Ann Suydam, Toronto, Ont.; Judie Bollman, Wexford, Pa.; Betsy Whelan, New York.

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, November 4, 1898. Pledge Day, February 18, 1962. On October 31 and November 1 and 2, Vermont A was pleased to welcome Mrs. Philip E. Adams, Alpha Province President. A tea with the chapter and the Panhellenic council was given in her honor.

A Halloween party was held with Σ E, members and guests appearing in a variety of costumes. The party was such a success that a dessert was held a few weeks later at Σ E. The annual Pi Beta Phi-K K Γ debate held November 6 was decided in favor of K K Γ after considerable deliberation by the judges. This year's question was: "Resolved: That Middlebury should have co-educational dorms." December 2 Pi Beta Phi and K K Γ held their yearly tea and dinner at the Middlebury Inn, the sororities' biggest social event of the year.

Recently an all-sorority party was given by the chapter. The highlight of the activities presented in a Mexican theme was the breaking of the piñata. The piñata, shaped like a Christmas tree, was filled with candy, gum and small games. Needless to say, there was a mad scramble when the piñata was successfully opened in mode with the festivities of the evening.

Betsy Barkentin was elected to Φ B K on the basis of six semesters of college work.

*VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. Pledge Day, February 11, 1962. INITIATED, October 17, 1961: Ashley Miller, Alexandria, Va.; Mary Bunting, Cambridge, Mass. November 11, 1961: Hanna Crane, Shelburne Falls.

Vermont B entertained Vermont A with a supper and song fest on October 16. After the supper, slides were shown by both chapters which were taken at the biennial President and Pledge Supervisor's Workshop held at Gatlinburg, Tenn. The slides were very interesting and gave both chapters a better understanding of the Settlement School.

Homecoming weekend was held the weekend of October 20 on the university campus. Pi Beta Phi won third place for the poster entered in the campus contest.

For the third consecutive year, a Vermont B member was crowned the Military Ball Queen. Marty Russell won the honor for the chapter.

After the dedication of the new Bailey Library on October 21, the students participated in a campus-wide book-moving program. Classes were cancelled on November 15 which enabled the whole moving process to be completed in one day.

Another new building on campus, the Alice Blundell Home Management House, was dedicated on December 9.

Vermont B had their annual Christmas party on December 18. The chapter went caroling after which cocoa was served at the chapter house.

JOYCE ALEXANDER

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 17, 1896. Pledge Day, January 4, 1962. INITIATED, December 6, 1961: Martha Best, Larchmont, N.Y.

The past months have been exciting ones for Pi Beta Phi here at Boston University. The Greek Sing was held the week before Christmas vacation, and Mary Lou Clark and Martha Best did an excellent job directing our octet, which, by the way, consisted of our new pledges. They did a fine job on "Basin Street Blues."

Pi Beta Phi was also well represented in the homecoming festivities at the university. The pledges and the sisters had an excellent time preparing the float for the parade. Jane Porter and Lynne McWilliams were candidates for homecoming queen, and in the final judging Jane was chosen for the court and Lynne was chosen queen.

Massachusetts A also was paid a visit by the province president, Mrs. Adams. A tea was given in her honor, and she spoke at one of our meetings.

The Christmas spirit of the Pi Beta Phi was well appreciated by a needy family in Boston this year, as the chapter decided to donate money that would otherwise have been used for gifts within the chapter.

PLEGGED: Kathy Broderick, Worcester; JoAnne Cal, Quincy; Elizabeth Carlton, Raleigh; Elizabeth Gieger, Maine; Linda Herbert, New York; Sue Colcox, Brookline; and Sonia Mills, South Harbor, Me.

*CONNECTICUT ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT. Chartered, April 10, 1943. Pledge Day, October 3, 1961. INITIATED, October 8, 1961: Beverly Ball, Cheshire; Elizabeth Crossmon, Amherst, Mass.; Judy Cutler, South Windsor; Margaret Dodson, Berlin; Jo-Ann Guay, West Franklin, N.H.; Martha Heilman, Middlebury; Ursula Jasch, Hartwinton; Marilyn Jones, Bristol; Marilyn Martinson, Stamford; Paula Maynes, Woodstock, Vt.; Grace Miner, North Franklin; Nancy Moore, Basking Ridge, N.J.; Cynthia Murray, West Hartford; Patricia O'Keefe, Bethel; Ann Olmstead, Manchester; Sandra Page, Danielson; Sally Sargent, Storrs; Joyce Scott, Fredrick, Md.; Elaine Steckley, Brookfield; Marian Walker, Milwaukee, Wis.

On the University of Connecticut campus, expansion is a constant element. Since last spring a new business building, a new education building, and a new life sciences building have been opened. Plans have also been made for the opening of a combined dental and medical school in the near future. Among the important social activities on campus was homecoming which featured the Dave Brubeck Quartet.

Connecticut A proudly received the news that they ranked second in scholarship for the all women's average for spring 1961. Other scholastic honors were the election of Carol Wilson to $\Phi K \Pi$, Margaret Karbovanec's election to $K \Delta \Pi$, the national education honorary fraternity and the election of Ursula Jasch and Elaine Wheeler to $\Phi T O$ the national home economics honorary fraternity.

Louise Okon was voted the queen of the Military Ball and reigned as the Co-ed Colonel. Kathleen Short was queen of $\Theta \Sigma X$ Margaret Dodson was $A \Sigma \Phi$ Playmate and Margaret Barrie was a runner-up in the $\Phi \Sigma K$ Moonlight Girl Contest.

Connecticut A enjoyed a visit from province president, Ethel Sanford Adams early in the fall semester.

Margaret Barrie is president of Panhellenic and Patricia Cleary was a Winter Weekend committee chairman.

Connecticut A's fall semester was filled with many social activities including a coffee with $A \Gamma P$; exchange dinners with Lafayette House and $A \Sigma \Phi$; and informal gatherings with $K \Psi$, $A \Sigma \Phi$, and $\Phi \Sigma K$.

Included among Panhellenic's activities for the fall semester were a Mother-Daughter Breakfast and a Rush Workshop which Connecticut A helped to precipitate.

PLEGGED, October 3, 1961: Judith Biezad, West Hartford; Sally Borg, West Suffield; Elaine Caggiano, Waterbury; Frances Carbone, Riverside; Susan Clark, Darien; Judy Clifford, Manchester; Joy Daddona, Stamford; Frances Dineen, Woodbury; Joyce Dion, Willimantic; Harley Emmons, Vernie Rochon, Milford; Nancy Pink, New Britain; Diane King, West Willington; Mary Powell, Greenwich; Linda Robertson, Ridgefield; Virginia Shaw, Summit, N.J.

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 28, 1896. Pledge Day, February 15, 1962. New York A greeted the long Syracuse winter by having Joan Walker chosen overall chairman of the Winter Weekend Dance. Kate Antony, Jean Clapper, Kathy Rothwell and Sue Temple all held subchairmanships for this annual event.

Debbie Danielson escaped the cold by being selected to participate in Syracuse's highly competitive Semester-in-Italy program.

Bev Lewis has been elected chairman of the Joint Student Government Organizations Committee, and Linda Morrow has been selected a Panhellenic Rushing Counselor. Pat Hahn, Joyce Her-genhan and Nan Plotnick are new members of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, national woman's journalism honorary.

Pam Dillon was recently chosen for $\Phi K \Phi$, scholastic honorary. Nan Plotnick and Janet Caserio were among five Syracuseans appointed to senior editorships on the Daily Orange, the campus newspaper. Nan is the new Executive Editor; Janet is Entertainment Editor.

New York A finished second in the annual sorority stepping competition. Chapter president Pam Dillon, a member of the two honoraries that jointly sponsored the program, was chairman of the competition.

Short visits by Beta Province President, Mildred O'Donnell and National Director of Programs, Evelyn Kyle, kept New York A in touch with National, while dinner guests such as Dean of Women, Marjorie Smith, and Dean of Men, Earle Clifford, better acquainted us with university personalities and policies.

PLEGGED: Jill Bilas, Dumont, N.J.; Judy Ferrara, Amsterdam; Marilyn Heuss, Penfield; Bev Lewis, Des Moines, Iowa; Ann Shepherd, Lakewood; Sue Stacy, Oswego.

JOYCE HERGENHAN

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1914. The holiday season was celebrated at New York with a Christmas party, at which an unidentified member presided as Santa Claus. She passed out surprise gifts to the other members and then revealed her identity; it was Pat Conly. On December 14, the chapter also entertained at a luncheon given for the area alumnae of Pi Beta Phi.

The chapter has gained new scholastic honors. Scotty Babcock and Ann Pfeifer were elected to ΨX , the national psychology honorary. Bev Beyer, Marian Katz, and Sue Vosseller were chosen for membership in Irving Bacheller, English honorary.

Dawn Nigey was chosen Military Ball Queen. She will reign as ROTC sponsor for the coming year. Judy Florchak, a new Pi Beta Phi pledge, was candidate for the $\Sigma A E$'s Yukon Day Queen.

Carol Sansone has passed her sixth test in ice skating. She is now a Silver Medalist.

The annual Bake Sale was held in October. Funds from the sale are donated to the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

PLEGGED, October 12, 1961: Edith Schmidt, Hastings-on-Hudson; Judith Florchak, Avenel, N.J.; Beverly Bancroft, Arlington, Va.; Sandra Besseghini, Colorado Springs, Colo.

PLEGGED, October 23, 1961: Heather Wilson, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

*NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1919. Pledge Day, Feb. 12, 1962. New York Δ started the fall with a tea in honor of their new housemother, Mrs. Allmendinger.

This fall the chapter has been entertaining a foreign student for dinner each week. A boy from Uganda was the first guest and one week later Uganda received news of its coming independence. He called to tell the good news and several girls took him out to celebrate. Other foreign students have been from India, Netherlands, Russia, Japan, Ghana, and Nigeria.

Social exchanges have been held with $\Sigma \Pi$, $\Phi \Sigma K$, $\Sigma A E$, and $A \Sigma \Phi$. The Monmouth Duo was held in November. The Pi Phi Hi Fi's and the Kappa Keynotes entertained with several numbers. The Hi Fi's sang $K K \Gamma$ a song they made up called "The Last Time I Saw Kappa." December 10, a Christmas tree trimming party was held for foreign students and dates.

Joan Kather, Betsy Shomo, Pat Carlin, Marcia Allen, Debbie Tracy, and Jan Weller were named to the Dean's List for the spring term of 1961. This fall Lois Weyman, Zoe Walter, Sandy Vogelgesang, and Pat Carlin were initiated into $A \Delta$, the freshman women's honorary, which is based on academic average during the freshman year. Lois Weyman was elected vice president.

Sandy Vogelgesang will be a director for freshman orientation next fall. Three New York Δ Pi Beta Phi were candidates for fall weekend queen, Glenna Klett by $A X A$, Nancy McConnell by $T K E$, and Mary Dietrich by Pi Beta Phi.

ELIZABETH SHOMO

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, February 12, 1962. Pennsylvania B was extremely proud of our President, Judy Smith, who reigned over Bucknell's Homecoming festivities in October. Our brother fraternity, $\Phi K \Psi$, serenaded the Pi Beta Phi's as a group for the first time in Bucknell's history. We all enjoyed it very much and are glad we were the first!

Also, during the fall semester Mrs. Kyle visited us. We enjoyed seeing her and are looking forward to seeing Mrs. O'Donnell, Province President, in February.

A group of Pi Beta Phi's visited Laurelton State Village, an institution for wayward girls, in the fall. We played basketball, danced and participated in games with the girls. The girls felt that this was a very worth-while experience and are planning to do it again next fall.

At Christmas we helped the $\Sigma A M$'s give a Christmas party for the orphans. It was lots of fun seeing the children enjoying themselves.

In order to give some added incentive to the girls for scholarship, the sorority decided to challenge $\Delta \Delta \Delta$. As it looks now, our chances for winning are pretty good.

Our congratulations go to Sally Seiningger and Nancy Barlow, who were elected to ΨX , psychology honorary, and Margie McLean, who was elected to $O \Phi \Sigma$, biology honorary. Also Sally Steinger, a junior Pi Beta Phi, is going to spend her spring semester studying in France.

We are looking forward to February which brings formal rush and our new pledges.

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1903. Pledge Day, November 6, 1961. INITIATED, October 9, 1961: Ann Esterline, York.

Pennsylvania Gamma's annual fashion show for the benefit of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School was titled "Fashion Flurry" this year. Wearing clothes from the Boutique and the Bridal Boutique of Carlisle, the climax of the show was the modeling of a bridal gown. The entire campus, faculty wives, and townspeople were invited. Settlement School articles were on the sale, and the entire show proved a financial and entertaining success. Other recent money-raising projects have been a rummage sale and the making and selling of curler bags.

Social exchanges with the fraternities this fall included dessert parties, Saturday morning breakfast parties, decorating for homecoming floats, Christmas caroling and spaghetti dinner. The biggest Pi Beta Phi social event was senior formal, given by the underclassmen in honor of the seniors. Held in the Phi Delta Theta fraternity house, the theme was "A Night in Vegas."

The chapter is busy putting the finishing touches on rush skits and programs. Formal rush begins with the first week of spring semester, lasting for ten days.

PLEGGED, November 6, 1961: Lynne Archibald, Pittsburgh; Pam Maxwell, Linda Morrow, Pittsburgh; Judy Warren, Bethesda, Md.; Emily Zug, Haverford.

JANE BIDWELL

*PENNSYLVANIA EPSILON—THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 15, 1953. Pledge Day, January 12, 1962. AFFILIATED: Carolyn Lindig, Michigan A.

Preparation for a new term and rush is keeping Pennsylvania E busy as 1962 begins. Rushing began with open houses in November and is continued in January with one week of formal rush.

Mulled cider and cinnamon doughnuts welcomed alumnae at our annual homecoming breakfast which was attended by more alumnae than ever before.

The chapter gave a surprise Halloween party for Delta Delta Delta and everyone came dressed in appropriate costumes. Fraternity songs were sung over cider and pretzels and two Pi Beta Phi put on a skit. The following evening Delta Delta Delta serenaded the chapter.

During the fall term, Pi Beta Phi took top honors in both the Greek Week Bridge Tournament and the WRA Bridge Tournament. The blue ribbon was also awarded to the chapter for its Greek Week window display.

December graduate Lynn Stevens was marshal of the College of Liberal Arts. Barbara Vincent was selected for the Mademoiselle College Board. La Vie, the yearbook, has selected Ann Ghiglione and Diane Gimber as Personalities.

Carol Kunkleman was tapped by Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary, Business honorary, Phi Chi Theta, tapped Mary Lou Lord and Margie Zerbe.

*OHIO ALPHA—OHIO UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, September 26, 1961. The first semester saw many Ohio Alpha active on the campus. New members of the Kitten Kadets, girls' drill team, are Janice Hughes, Joan Waldron, and Sue Zimmerman. Jan Hall was chosen to be a majorette with the Ohio University band. Penny Pritchard began her fourth year as head majorette. Also as director of the annual student-produced Varsity Show, Penny was quite busy. Helping her in this capacity were Judy Jurkovic, writer, Susie Apple, choreographer, and Mary Beth Crimmins, publicity chairman. The Four Arrows also added their talents.

Sigma Xi chose Fifi Reider to reign as Miss Siglympics. Susie Shields was selected a member of the All-Star Hockey team.

Phi Beta Kappa tapped Becky Cotterman for membership. Beth Breitenstein was initiated into Kappa Delta Pi and Pat Nolan into Phi Alpha Theta. Chosen for Psi Chi were Jesse Campbell, Beth Breitenstein, and Judy Hill. The new secretary of the Lost Chord club is Becky Morelock.

The social calendar registered "Harvest Happenings," a theme party given jointly by Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Xi, and Alpha Zeta Delta.

Twenty underprivileged children had a merrier Christmas due to the sponsorship of Pi Beta Phi and Acacia. Santa Claus with lots of presents made the boys and girls' eyes sparkle. Jane Stephenson led the chapter in caroling to several fraternities.

CAROL DOWNING

OHIO BETA—OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1894. Pledge Day, January 18, 1961. INITIATED, October 21, 1961: Gertrude Berthold, Cleveland; Charlotte Boyd, Columbus; Jan Ellis, Washington Court House; Marsha Cummings, Huron.

AFFILIATED: Sue Whitehead, Ohio A.
Autumn quarter activities at Ohio State began with the O.S.U. style show in which Bonnie Hedges and Merry Maidlow were two of the ten coeds chosen to model in the annual style show for freshman women.

Ohio B was also proud of Linda Meyers who was chosen runner-up to Queen Isabella at Columbus Day.

Campus recognition was frequent. Pi Beta Phi rocked the campus by getting seven out of the thirteen girls chosen for Coed

Cadet Corps after many rounds of competition. These girls include Pat Hein, Paulette Pennington, Shelia Long, Patty Boden, Linda Meyers, Karen Sylvester, and Jan Bernard. These girls were selected on the basis of beauty, poise, and personality. Arnold Air Command had their first elimination fall quarter and Gertrude Berthold and Bonnie Hedges were selected to compete again winter quarter for the Arnold Air Queen title.

Pi Beta Phi were quite excited at the scholarship banquet because we were presented the Panhellenic Scholarship Trophy for having the highest scholastic average the greatest number of times on campus and have the honor of keeping the cup permanently. This past year we placed fifth among the twenty-two sororities scholastically.

Jan Bernard, who was chosen Sundial girl last year and runner-up to Miss Boulton Landing, was Pi Beta Phi's candidate for Homecoming Queen. Pi Beta Phi placed third in the Homecoming Rally this year.

Pi Beta Phi are quite honored that Sonia Phipps was elected first vice president of W.S.G.A. while Judy Morrison was elected as first vice president of Panhellenic.

Ohio B enjoyed having Mrs. William Smetts, Gamma Province President, as our guest during November.

Our quarter ended with just as big of a bang when the Pi Beta Phi from Ohio H and Ohio B had their winter formal together at the Desert Inn. Pi Beta Phi gave their dates toys for presents and everyone had a fun-packed time!

PLEGGED: Sally Parrish.

DONNA AYERS

*OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 3, 1925. Pledge Day, September 26, 1961. This fall the Ohio Delta chapter was well represented in various activities. Bobbie Schumacher is serving as president of the Home Economics Club, Julie Schettler as secretary of the Student Education Association, and Kay Galyean as secretary of Phi Delta Epsilon.

Selected to serve as senior advisors for the year 1962-1963 were Barbara Babcock, Nancy Fairchild, Julie Schettler, and Millie Wille.

Reigning as the Ohio State Conference Track Queen is Linda Keedy.

Elected to the Dolphin Club were Poppy Gerrard and Sue Oatey. Linda Deuble, Ann Hofstra, and Sue Reading were chosen to be members of the women's field hockey team.

Student Government committee positions were filled by Lynn Kummer, Sue Reading, Mary Selby, and Barbara Tatum.

Honored by high scholastic standing were Ann Hofstra, Nancy Mollin, and Janet Pitt, newly elected members of Phi Society.

In November the chapter members certainly enjoyed and profited from a visit by Mrs. William Smetts, Gamma Province President. Before Christmas the Ohio Delta Pi Beta Phi were busy raising money to provide their adopted family with food, clothing, Christmas tree, and gifts. By charging a small fee for ironing, sewing, cutting hair, etc. the necessary funds were obtained.

The visit of C. P. Snow, British author and lecturer, to the Ohio Wesleyan campus proved to be one of the highlights of this semester. The outstanding social event was the pop concert which featured Johnny Mathis.

MARY ALICE BOYD

*OHIO EPSILON—UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO. Chartered, April 28, 1945. Pledge Day, March 14, 1962. INITIATED, Nov. 12, 1961: Theresa Blazic, Sandy Fuire, Margaret Gaspari, Andrea Moroski, Joanne Szor, Joyce Szor, Toledo.

Bob Marks, Toledo's leading disk jockey, will host Ohio E's Fraternity Men's Open House. This twist record hop is the chapter's way of returning the many fraternity invitations which it receives during the year. Martha Weaver and Margaret Gaspari are chairmen of the event.

This year the annual Dads' Night and Mothers' Tea are being combined into one Parent's Night with Janice Askey as chairman. The theme will be a rush party one and the Pi Beta Phi will try to persuade their parents to follow the arrow. Again this semester the Ohio Es will participate in Pepper's, women's honorary, annual women's songfest.

Under the leadership of Judy Moore the chapter took first place in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Olympics. The pledge class took the trophy for earning the most money in the World University Service slave auction.

Honors came to individual members as well as to the entire chapter. Diane Pasch was elected freshman class secretary. Theresa Blazic was appointed to Student Senate and Andrea Moroski became a Student Senate secretary. Sandy Fuire and Jeanne Florence were elected Pershing Rifles honorary officers. Nancy Dennis has a female lead in the forthcoming University Theatre production of Oklahoma. Gloria Redhopf, Leslie Turby, and Nancy Dennis are members of the University Rockettes Drill Team. Sandy Underwood and Sharon Osterud were tapped for membership in Who's Who.

PLEGGED: Patti Crawford, Elaine DePrisco, Ellen Gibson, Jeanne Florence, Diane Hering, Sue Kern, Doreen Mowery, Pat Sullivan, Toledo; Sue Irey, Silver Spring, Md.; Kathy Vaughn, Temperance, Mich.

JANICE ASKEY

*OHIO ZETA—MIAMI UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 10, 1945. Pledge Day, March 1, 1962. Ohio Z found homecoming a very busy but rewarding time. Nancy Wichman was chairman of the homecoming festivities and on the queen's court. The Pi Beta Phi-K A float won first prize with the theme of "Carousel."

Several members of the chapter were initiated into scholastic honorary. Pat Dietz was asked to join $\Sigma \Delta \Pi$, the Spanish honorary. Anne Wiseman and Ellen Plummer are now members of $K \Delta \Pi$, the education honorary. The government honorary, Les Politique, initiated Liz Savage, Nancy Becker and Gretchen Stimpfle. New Air Force Angels include Jeanie Bryan and Sally Meyer. Mary Ann Rudyk was chosen Panhellenic dance chairman, while Judy Lookabel will be a member of Sophomore Cabinet.

This fall the chapter had their second retreat at Issac Walton Lodge. At this time the pledges were able to become more acquainted with their big sisters, and the members participated in a Fireside ceremony. The Hamilton Alumnae Club came to Oxford with their Settlement School sale, and the members enjoyed seeing the Arrowcrafts.

Before Christmas, the chapter invited several Miami University faculty members to a dessert in the suite. The Pi Beta Phi and $\Sigma A E$ chapters had their traditional Christmas orphan party before vacation but next year will join the newly organized Panhellenic Christmas project which hopes to extend the Christmas spirit throughout the year.

CARLYN HASTINGS

OHIO ETA—DENISON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, September 8, 1954. Pledge Day, October 3, 1961. After the homecoming festivities last fall, Ohio H had the pleasure of entertaining Gamma Province President, Mrs. William A. Smetts, on the first weekend in November. Sunday afternoon of the same weekend, the chapter gave a tea for the Denison faculty and administration to see our new room and meet our new province president.

Before Thanksgiving, the Pi Beta Phi found time to have a socializing with $A X$, $\Sigma A E$, and $X \Omega$. The "twist" is here and a good time was had by all. The fall party this year consisted of a hay ride followed by a dance at the house. The pledges were lucky enough to be up bright and early the next morning to pick straw off the rugs and out of the cushions. On November 21, the chapter gave a Thanksgiving party at the County Old People's Home, with singing and refreshments. Requests for "old favorites" helped make the party a great success.

A different request, by $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ gave the Pi Beta Phi pledges an opportunity to raise money. They are now employed as breakfast cooks for $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ on Saturday mornings. The actives are selling baked goods on the fraternity circle and in the women's dorms. Susie Duck has been chosen art editor of the Adytum, and Pam Maky was chosen "Playmate" of the Christmas party given by ΔT , $\Sigma A E$, $K \Sigma$, and $A X$. Two of the other three candidates were Lynda Lokay and Pat Higgins.

Ohio H celebrated the holiday season with Ohio B at their Christmas party at the Desert Inn in Columbus. Jolly Santa Claus distributed gaily wrapped red and white striped night shirts to the escorts after dinner, and then everyone adjourned to the ballroom for dancing. Meeting the Pi Beta Phi from Ohio State University made the evening a special treat.

Another special evening was the pledging of "Mrs. Mac," Mrs. Dorothy McMullen, Pi Beta Phi's house mother, on her birthday. This is her last year as house mother, and, not wanting to lose her, the chapter chose this way of keeping "Mrs. Mac" with us. The chapter also pledged Mrs. Louise Wright, wife of Dr. Edward A. Wright of Denison's fine theatre department. They have shown an interest in Pi Beta Phi and helped on many occasions.

PLEGDED: Ruth McGregor, Columbus; Mrs. Dorothy McMullen, Mrs. E. A. Wright, Granville.

ELIZABETH CHAMBERLAIN

*MARYLAND BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND. Chartered, 1945. Pledge Day, October 1, 1961. The fall semester for Maryland B was a busy one. Open house was held for Parents' Day and also on homecoming. The overall theme for homecoming this year was "Maryland Mirror." Jean Richie was chairman of the Queen's Committee.

Maryland B was the second runner-up in the Harmony Hall, annual barbershop quartet competition.

The chapter was honored by $A X A$ in November as "Sorority of the Month." This award makes the chapter eligible for "Sorority of the Year."

On December 13, Maryland B had their first Fireside Chat with Thomas Nugent, coach of the Maryland football team. Another discussion will be held in January with Dr. Steinmeyer talking on Russia.

Maryland University will compete in the G.E. College Bowl on January 21. Christy Merrill, secretary of the Public Relations Committee on campus, helped with the arrangements of the appearance.

New awards and positions held by Maryland B members: Elizabeth Ross and Linda Poore were nominated for the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. Joline DeHart was section editor for the Terrapin, University of Maryland year book. Jean Richie is art editor of Old Line, campus humor magazine. Jean also writes "Greckness," a column on Greek life, for the campus newspaper, Diamondback. Virginia Wright writes a Panhellenic column for the Diamondback. Ellen Flood was elected secretary of the Spanish honorary.

The annual chapter Christmas party was held with Diana DeLanoy as Santa Claus.

MAUREEN A. BARNES

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ALPHA—GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, February 20, 1961. INITIATED, December 3, 1961. Ann Garner Long, Clarksville, Mo.

District of Columbia A has been very busy with the usual mid-winter exams and activities of George Washington University campus life. Besides having several Pi Beta Phi nights and programs, we have had exchanges and coffee hours with $\Delta T \Delta$, $\Phi \Sigma K$, ΣX , $\Pi K A$, and $A E \Pi$.

The month of November was mainly filled with homecoming weekend, when Patricia Poindexter was the runner-up for queen. She was also in the homecoming play, "Pajama Game." Margie Martin served as one of the technical assistants for the play. Another high-light of the month was the Parents' Tea on November 19. Many of the girls' parents were able to attend, and it gave everyone a chance to both know the parents and for the parents to get to know the girls and the sorority.

December was opened with both Gay Herzog and Pat Morgan being nominated for the Sweetheart of ΣX . Pat was the runner-up. On the 3rd we initiated Ann Long in the Pi Beta Phi rooms. Afterwards, there was a dinner given in her honor. Our pledge formal was held on December 8 at the Indian Springs Country Club. A breakfast was held afterwards at Margie Hughes' house. Earlier in the fall, the pledges had been treated to a breakfast provided by the $A A X$. Our scholarship Chairman, Barbara Warrick, really outdid herself this semester with the dinner she provided based on our grades. It was held at her beautiful house, and it's one event we won't soon forget. The annual Messiah Concert was presented on the 18th with several of District of Columbia A's participating in the event.

Coming back from vacation we had an exchange with $\Pi K A$ before settling down to study for finals which will come only too soon. We are looking forward to the Panhellenic weekend next semester, and will be soon eating lemons getting ready for the Panhellenic Sing. This weekend and the anticipated initiation of our sixteen pledges in February are part of a full winter schedule for the Pi Beta Phi at George Washington University.

PLEGDED, October 18, 1961: Jean Brown, Baltimore, Md.; Carol Waters, Falls Church, Va.

*VIRGINIA GAMMA—COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY. Chartered, 1925. Pledge Day, December 4, 1961. INITIATED, October 22, 1961: Sue Hubbard, Lynchburg.

Virginia Γ opened up the fall semester with a bang. Homecoming was a big event for William and Mary this year with the inauguration of our twenty-third college president, Dr. Davis Y. Paschall; and this weekend was especially thrilling to the Pi Beta Phi when we saw our own Pat Graves crowned Homecoming Queen. Our homecoming float also placed in the parade.

We are all pleased that Sue Roache, Patty Bayliss, and Pat Wade are candidates for Miss William and Mary. Nancy VanSchreeven was tapped for $\Phi B K$ and she was also selected as senior advisor to $A \Delta \Delta$, freshman honorary society. Carolyn Roosevelt was selected into $K A \Pi$, honorary education society. Carrie Lee Tepper was elected sweetheart of $K \Sigma$ at Hampton-Sydney College.

All of us have also been kept busy this fall with various sorority functions including our semi-annual spaghetti dinner, our house-mother's tea, and participation in Campus Chest Week, plus fraternity socials with $\Pi K A$, $\Sigma A E$, and $K \Sigma$.

The Monmouth Duo with $K K \Gamma$ was a traditional grand success held at the Williamsburg Motor Lodge. We all ended up the pre-Christmas season with our open house.

Now we will soon be facing exams which are quickly followed by the opening of formal rush.

PLEGDED: Emily Vawter, Alexandria.

WEST VIRGINIA ALPHA—WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1918. Pledge Day, October 1, 1961. The fall semester included chapter dinners, cooky-shines, and listening parties with $K \Sigma$ and ΣX . Mountaineer Weekend was very exciting for the chapter, as Judy Brinkley was first runner-up to Mountaineer Queen and the chapter placed third in the house decoration contest.

Mrs. Bertha Petty came to West Virginia A this fall to be house-mother. On November 5, $A \Delta \Pi$, $K \Delta$, and Pi Beta Phi gave a reception at Elizabeth Moore Hall to honor their new house mothers.

The week before Christmas vacation was a very busy one for West Virginia A. The annual chapter Christmas party was a great success. Santa was there to hand out presents and poems. The pledges decorated the recreation room and everyone enjoyed dancing and refreshments after Santa's visit. The chapter went Christmas caroling with $\Phi \Sigma K$ and afterwards hot chocolate was served to the chapter at the fraternity house. The week was climaxed with the annual fraternity serenades. The chapter treated $\Phi K \Psi$ to hot chocolate and doughnuts after the serenades.

West Virginia A has not lacked its share of campus honors this semester. Velma Conley was asked to serve on Greater West Virginia steering committee. Diane Hunter and Kay Huffman had parts in a Studio Theater Production of Tartuffe. Evanthia Kostakos was elected president of the freshman dorm. Carol Greenlee is $\Phi \Theta$'s candidate for yearbook queen. Patricia Meyer is a foreign student guide and Velma Conley was elected secretary of Goldiggers Ball steering committee.

PLEGDED, November 8, 1961: Suzanne Moore, Fairborne, Ohio; Royce Ann Leeson, Fairmont; Mary Ellen Dailey, Mount Lebanon, Pa.

won the limbo dance contest and a relay team of pledges won the kissing contest. Another victory was in the derby chase contest in which all of the campus females chased after and captured derbies worn by the Σ Xs, the winner having scored the highest number of points from the collection of the derbies. As a result, we were presented with five trophies, one for each event won and one as the over-all winner of Derby Day activities.

Indiana T's represented in the sophomore women's honorary, Spurs, this year are Lyndel Lowry, Lydia Hildreth, Norma Jo Kolbe, Suzanne Barnhart, secretary of the organization, and Pam Utery and Dagnia Ozols who are also members of A A Δ , freshman women's honorary.

Participating in the political youth organizations on campus are Barbara Madden, publicity chairman of Young Republicans, and Cindy Hopping, treasurer of Young Republicans.

Carolyn Allhands, sophomore drama major, played one of the lead roles in the Footlight Musicals Production of "The Boy-friend" presented in Indianapolis. Another of the talented artists in our chapter, Becky Obenauf, senior dance major, danced one of the lead parts in the Christmas Ballet presented by the Jordan College of Dance. Jan Eyden was recently selected for the court of the Drift Beauty Queen. She also was co-chairman of the homecoming house decorations which placed second in the campus competition.

Getting ready for the Christmas holidays presented a busy schedule at Butler. On December 10 our annual tree-trimming party was held for the chapter and their dates. December 13 was the evening of the senior walk-out when 16 seniors walked out of meeting and spent an enjoyable dinner hour together at an Indianapolis restaurant. The actives sponsored a Christmas dance for the pledges on December 15, and John Howard, Φ Δ Θ , was crowned Ring Ching King during the joyous evening. Ann Linsmith and Lydia Hildreth were co-chairmen of the Christmas drive for the Goodwill Industries' contest in which we placed third in the collection competition. The seniors, engaging in their last project before graduation, served dinner for the chapter on December 20 when they sponsored the mother-daughter gift exchange, the guest of honor being none other than Santa Claus, bearing presents for all. The last holiday festivity was the "good fairy" party on December 21, when secret gift givers from the previous week were revealed.

We were happy to have Mrs. Marianne Wild, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, visit our chapter on the first of November.

Among campus honors presented to Indiana T prior to the holiday season was the initiation of Barbara Madden into Σ T Δ English honorary; Barb also was a member of the homecoming court. Judy Gray was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

PLEGDED: Roberta Bowsher, Indianapolis; Mary Duckwall, Napanee; Connie Stravopolis, South Bend.

*INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1921. Pledge Day, January 31, 1962. INITIATED, October 22, 1961: Lolitia Beaty, Gary; Maureen Beutler, Marianne Grove, Peggy Savage, Constance Sherman, Shirley Werner, Indianapolis; Carolyn Brewer, St. Louis, Mo.; Joyce Buckles, Los Angeles, Calif.; Nancy Butridge, Los Gatos, Calif.; June Cable, Alison Eckles, Jane Galloway, Debby Smith, Vivian Van Camp, West Lafayette; Susan Carlson, Chicago, Ill.; Valerie Cison, Hammond; Carolyn Comin, Stephanie Keegan, Memphis, Tenn.; Jacqueline Cramer, Park Ridge, Ill.; Judy Flaven, Evanston, Ill.; Judy Garst, Somerset; Judy Hughes, South Bend; Sharon James, Bonnie Pottlizer, Lafayette; Carol Kramer, Lincoln, Neb.; Martha Lumpkin, Mexico, Mo.; Marianne McKellips, Valparaiso; Diane Parent, Hebron; Sharon Probst, Fort Wayne; Carol Ritter, Fond du Lac, Wis.; Martha Van Kirk, New Haven.

We have many people active in various committees on campus. Serving on Junior Prom committees: Alison Eckles and Margaret Lahrmann, ticket committee; Sevilla Gross is chairman of the publicity committee. Nancy Butridge is also working on this committee. Babs Branch is chairman of the queen committee, and Judy Hughes is on the decorations committee.

Jan Aikman is co-chairman of Goldiggers. Other girls are serving on the following Goldiggers committees. Sue Schwanz, steering committee; Kitty Landwehr is chairman of the ATOM Week committee, and Mary Beth Douglass and Stephanie Keegan are working on this committee. Judy Winchester is co-chairman of the decorations committee. Lolitia Beaty is on the invitations and reception committee. Mary Jane Randolph is chairman of the tickets committee, and Judy Flaven is working on this committee. Four girls were selected to work on Greek Week committees: Margaret Lahrmann is on the booklet committee; Bobbi Tenzer is on the carnival committee; Sevilla Gross is on the publicity committee, and Lolitia Beaty is on the secretariat committee.

With fall came football games and open houses. Dads' Day we entertained our Dads with a skit. We then serenaded them and presented them with their favors. Homecoming brought many familiar faces of returning alumnae. On Sunday morning we had our traditional cooky-shine with the alumnae.

Several girls have been chosen for honoraries. Judy Flaven was selected for the Green Guard honorary. Bev Osmon is now a member of O N. Peg Savage is a member of T B Z, a band honorary, and was also chosen Outstanding Majorette. Mary Beth Douglass is secretary of the Cheerleading Squad. Babs Branch and Lois Moffit were selected as hostesses for Old Masters.

We have also had several queens: Carol Kramer was selected as queen of the Halberdier Fall Festival; Joyce Buckles was on the homecoming queen court; Judy Garst was on the court for Moonlight Girl of Φ Σ K, and is on the Army Ball Queen Court; Babs Branch was on the Sweetheart of Σ X Court.

*INDIANA EPSILON—DEPAUW UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1942. Pledge Day, September 21, 1961. INITIATED, October 8, 1961: Margaret Hendrick, Mendota, Ill.; Sue Lewis, Cairo, Ill.; Bonnie McLaughlin, Anchorage, Ky.; Nancy Ratcliff, Hinsdale, Ill.

Indiana E has had an active winter semester. Anne Gilbert, Suzy Charbonneau, and Suzanne Doud are members of DePauw's newly formed Angel Flight. Judy Diehl was chosen K T K Queen. Σ A E crowned Jackie Holtzgrieve as their new sweetheart and Σ X bestowed a similar honor on Patti See. Kathy Saxton was selected for Naiad, DePauw's synchronized swimming honorary. In the campus production of "Li'l Abner," Code Battey played the part of Stupefied Jones and in addition was in charge of costumes. Lynda Bayliff was nominated for a Woodrow Wilson fellowship. Pam Fuller acted as co-chairman for a college admission conference held at DePauw.

The chapter honored their fall pledges at a dance, "Stairway to the Stars," in October. Indiana E decorated the chapter house in a Western theme and welcomed their fathers for Dad's Day weekend. Then, just prior to Thanksgiving vacation, DePauw's administration was entertained at Pi Beta Phi's annual Thanksgiving banquet. In December, with the advent of the Christmas season, Indiana E shared the fun of a party for underprivileged children with Σ X, and had a Christmas dinner with the Greencastle Pi Beta Phi alumnae and their families as guests. "Santa Claus" and two "elves," all of whom are normally waiters at the chapter house, visited the chapter and presented gifts for the annual Settlement School party gift exchange.

Indiana E's pledges joined in the Christmas spirit, giving a party for their sorority mothers and presenting them with gifts. Later, the seniors gave a red pajama party for the pledges. The dress for the party, why, red pajamas of course.

Finished with finals and making preparations for their faculty-administration tea, the Pi Beta Phis wished bon voyage to Maggie Hendrick and Kathy Jones who will spend the spring semester studying abroad. Maggie is in Aix, France, and Kathy in Freiberg, Germany.

BETTY BRODERICK

INDIANA ZETA—BALL STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE. Chartered, August 23, 1952. Pledge Day, January 30, 1962. INITIATED, November 5, 1961: Margie Miller, Goshen.

AFFILIATED: Lynda Burton, Indiana T.

Indiana Z members began the new school year by meeting in the suite for a buffet supper our first night back. Summer memories were recollected and plans for rush and homecoming filled the air.

Our homecoming efforts were well rewarded as we placed second in the sorority division with our float, "Bowl 'em Over." Much credit goes to our very capable chairman, Sara Stewart.

Four Pi Beta Phis were elected to honoraries in the fall. They are Carolee Atkinson, journalism; Karen Davidson, music; Karen Peterson, speech and hearing; and Gloria Tobler, art and social science.

Also, Indiana Z is very proud of Jinny Atkinson who is doing an excellent job as one of our varsity cheerleaders.

Pi Beta Phi is also well represented on the staff of the college newspaper. Betty Huntoon is efficient in her post as managing editor, while Sunny Lloyd claims the feature editor's job. Carolee Atkinson also serves as copy editor.

Our current star on the campus activity list is Nancy Lee Cambridge who is to be commended for her excellent handling of the annual Christmas dance, "Christmas by Candlelight." Serving as chairman of the Social Area of the Student Center Governing Board, Nancy Lee and her committee, also composed largely of Pi Beta Phis, get the credit for a most successful dance.

Indiana Z was also busy planning for the annual visit of our province president, Mrs. Arthur. We were proud to show her our newly redecorated suite complete with new carpeting. A room divider will also be added soon to give us even more pride in our home.

Our treasury was swelled by selling mums at homecoming time and by selling Christmas trees as the holiday season approached. Also, to celebrate the season, we had our annual Christmas party and brightened it with a gift exchange.

Rush is our main interest now as with our delayed rush system, pledges are not taken until January. Pi Beta Phis are really doing their job in this respect and a bright future is foreseen when pledges are taken.

ETA PROVINCE

*KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE. Chartered, October 9, 1925. Pledge Day, September 27, 1961. INITIATED, October 8, 1961: Susan Althaus, Ann Dodge Heiberg, Kathleen Kast.

Kentucky A has enjoyed a very wonderful fall semester filled with studying and fun. The chapter enjoyed the visit of Eta Province President, Mrs. William Akers, in November. Other special events have included an open house after the judging of the homecoming house decorations, a pot-luck dinner given for Φ K T, and a luncheon given for the Pi Beta Phis by A X A. Kentucky A held its dance, The Golden Arrow Ball, December 30, 1961. It was preceded by a senior dinner and an open house and followed by a breakfast.

The chapter sponsored a Christmas party for twenty orphans and went to old people's homes caroling during the Christmas holidays. The Pi Beta Phi is cooperating with the International Center at the University of Louisville and have agreed to give house privileges to a foreign student this year.

Many Pi Beta Phi have been elected officers of organizations this semester. Judy Heaton is president of the Sociology Club, while Heidi Heiberg is president of the Dental Hygiene freshman class. Madelyn Kast is vice president of the Business School Student Council, and Marilyn Ritter is vice president of the Arts and Science junior class.

Many more honors have been won by Kentucky As. The chapter won first place in the homecoming house decorations competition, while Pat Rayburn was on the homecoming court. Pat Rayburn also reigned as Miss Thoroughbred. A Pi Beta Phi has been chosen queen for three consecutive years. Mary Beth Rose was elected an alternate cheerleader. Eva Griffith and Peggy Choate were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. In intramural activities Pi Beta Phi placed second in hockey and won first place in the tennis doubles.

PEGGY CHOATE

*TENNESSEE BETA—VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 9, 1940. Pledge Day, February 5, 1962. INITIATED, October 22, 1961: Jan Christiansen, Coral Gables, Fla.; Evie Kirtley, Nashville.

The annual dinner honoring the officers of all men's fraternities was given in October by Tennessee B and was enjoyed by all who attended. At the Christmas party the Pi Beta Phi actives were surprised with a skit by the promisees, and each class presented an original Pi Beta Phi song in the holiday spirit.

Pi Beta Phi enjoyed the visit by the province president, Mrs. Wm. Akers, and a dessert was given in her honor. Much work was projected toward plans for our future new house.

The Nashville Alumnae Club sponsored "Christmas Village" to raise money for charity. It consisted of many booths set up by local merchants along with entertainers. It was a big success and was well attended by Nashvillians, as well as Tennessee B.

Pi Beta Phi is proud to be represented in the Vanderbilt extension school in France by Betty Boyle and Ann Wingate. These girls spent the fall semester there and will return to Vanderbilt to complete the year.

Tennessee B placed second and fourth in the badminton tournament in sorority intramurals. Teammates Jane Hanna and Anne Kagey came in second while Winny Duncan and Lynn Mayes placed second. Jane Rogers was elected to the Miss Charm court by the house mothers. Anne Kagey was a candidate, also.

The faculty of Vanderbilt University presented to the campus "Founders Capers," an original production written by the Dean of Men, Samuel Babbitt, and his wife. It was a complete sell-out and was enjoyed especially by the students.

Vanderbilt is proud to have a newly elected Rhodes scholar, John Sabotka. Construction on the campus is progressing rapidly and several fraternities and sororities are in the midst of building new houses. Tennessee B is in the process now of planning and expects to build this spring.

BETTYE THACKSTON

TENNESSEE GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE. Chartered, May 15, 1948. INITIATED, October 15, 1961: Nancy Johnson, Knoxville; Sarah Kirk, Etowah; Linda Snowden, Oak Ridge.

Pi Beta Phi started this year with many activities and honors. Pamela Stroyan was elected treasurer of the freshman class in the fall campus election. Bette Stubbs was selected co-chairman for the 1962 All Sing, Connie Cox was tapped for Senior Citation, and Helen Iddins was named in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

The chapter is also proud of its beauties. Pat Huff was among the top finalists in the Vol Beauty Contest, Susan Thompson was chosen to represent the chapter on the II K A calendar, and Diane Johnson won the best figure contest in the E X Derby. The Tennessee I pledge class stole the most derbies to capture third place in the annual Derby.

In women's fraternity volleyball competition, the active chapter placed first in the senior division, and the pledge class seized the top position in the junior division.

Christmas time brought with it the annual Christmas party for all members of Tennessee I. Dinner was served, gifts exchanged, and songs were sung. As part of the Christmas project, the chapter gave a party for the colored division of the John Tarlton Orphanage, and helped give the All Greek party for the John Tarlton Orphanage. Santa Claus, cookies, and gifts made Christmas brighter for these homeless children.

Tennessee I welcomed transfer Margaret Kirchoff to the University of Tennessee campus at the beginning of fall quarter.

NOLLIE HELEN SHARP

KENTUCKY BETA COLONY—UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY. Pledge Day, September 25, 1961. Kentucky B Colony began its first year with enthusiasm by winning first place in the E X Derby poster contest.

Later a fall retreat was held at the home of Nancy Harding, a Lexington active. The retreat included discussion groups, skits, a song fest and delicious evening meal. Concluding this eventful day, the girls returned to the house to make jack-O-lanterns for Halloween to present to each sorority.

November was the colony's first experience with a visit from the province president. Later that month a tea was given honoring the new housemother, Mrs. Robert Rodes.

The year has been full of events such as desserts with fraternities and bridge parties with other sororities.

Homecoming was also busy with campaigning for the Pi Beta Phi candidate and building a float.

The Christmas season brought a raft of gifts for the new house.

After such a short time on campus the colony is very proud to have Pru Darnell, vice president of A.W.S. House of Representatives; Nancy Auer, one of two freshman A.W.S. senators; Vanda Marcum, chairman of a Greek Week committee; Marthanne Warren, dormitory president; Lucia Bridgforth and Marthanne Warren, Blue Marlinis; Beverly Barr, Barbara Dean and Roxanna Grever, A T Q "Little Sisters"; and Barbara Dean, assistant stage manager for the play "J.B."

Now Kentucky B Colony is looking forward to the initiation and chartering of the chapter in March.

PATTY PINSON

TENNESSEE DELTA COLONY—MEMPHIS STATE UNIVERSITY. A Halloween Party was given by the actives and new pledges, who were pledged last spring, for the 29 new pledges in the home of Gail Grimes.

The chapter gave an informal dance on the 5th of November for all the other sororities and fraternities.

The Mothers' Club entertained with a lovely Christmas dinner. A skit was given afterwards by the pledges.

The pledges were kidnapped by Σ A E for an afternoon of fun. Mary Ann Holloway and Bobbie Lynn Morrow were elected as candidates for the DeSoto Beauty.

ALABAMA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA. Chartered, September 19, 1949. One of the highlights of the fall semester of Alabama B occurred when Carol Cowan and Dee Dee McFadden were chosen at two of the top twenty-one campus beauties. Carol Cowan was also chosen as A X A Crescent Girl and Barbara Carlton was in the top ten finalists for II K Φ Sweetheart.

Alabama B was not left out of campus activities, either. They include: Joy Clark was elected to Φ B K; Sara Jane Harmon was chosen president of Triangle, a woman's honorary; Barbara Carlton is copy editor of the Corolla, the school yearbook; Jan Wood is office manager of the Crimson-White, the school newspaper; and Judy Murdock was selected as president of the School of Home Economics. AWS Senior Council selected by Joy Clark, Jan Ruffin, and Nancy Copeland; junior council selected Judy Murdock; and sophomore council chose Donna Manning. Joy Clark was chairman of Mortar Board mum sales and Sara Jane Harmon as co-chairman.

One of the major projects for this year was the revision of our present study hall and this was accomplished through the diligent help of our pledges.

Our annual pledge banquet was held on December 19 with delicious meal, humorous skit, inspiring talk, and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

MARILYN ALVERSON

*ALABAMA GAMMA—AUBURN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, February 2, 1957. Pledge Day, October 23, 1961. INITIATED, November 5, 1961: Charlotte Keller, Betty Jo Liles, Birmingham.

The fall quarter started off very busy for Alabama Γ. During the first part of October, Mrs. Speaker, Grand Secretary, paid us a short, but very enjoyable visit. She met with all the officers and with the chapter as a whole giving us much encouragement and many good suggestions. Before she left we had a picnic at the nearby lake.

On November 5, we held our pledge tea and were proud to show off our new pledge class. The chapter also enjoyed a pledge swap with II K Φ and a coffee with K Σ.

We had two girls running for the student government positions. Ann Barber ran for vice president of the School of Education and Judy Self ran for vice president of the School of Home Economics. Judy may not have been elected as vice president of her school, but she was chosen as Miss Farm Bureau for the state of Alabama. She went to Chicago during the Christmas holidays to compete with girls from all over the United States.

Nadine Vogel represented us as a candidate for the title of homecoming queen.

Now contending for various titles are: Barbara Atwater running for A X A Crescent Girl, Missy Montgomery for A X sweetheart, Pat Hill for Σ II sweetheart, and Betty Jo Liles for Θ X sweetheart.

Missy Montgomery was selected as the president of Junior Panhellenic and Linda Lane was chosen as advisor to Junior Panhellenic. Linda is also serving as the secretary-treasurer of the Student Education Association on campus.

Mary Elizabeth Daniels is the editor of the Links, the Baptist Student newspaper.

Contenders for a dance scholarship to be chosen by Mrs. Louise Turner of the School of Physical Education are Brenda Gray and Nancy Brown. The scholarship is to the Perry Mansfield School in Steamboat Springs, Colo.

Pi Beta Phi had an excellent volleyball team this fall. Our team placed first in our league and won second place among all competition. We also entered the intramural sports with shuffle board, ping pong, and a co-rec volleyball team with II K Φ.

PLEGDED, October 23, 1961: Margaret Earl Buford, Huntsville; Pat Hill, Orlando, Fla.

*FLORIDA ALPHA—STETSON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, January 30, 1913. Pledge Day, October 14, 1961. INITIATED, October 17, 1961: Patty Evans, Anderson, S.C.; Marcia Ravinas, Lima, Peru; Marilyn Richards, Suzy Hankins, Karin Severud, Miami.

With fall semester just beginning, one of our brand-new pledges, Edwina Whitnel, brought us the honor of II K Φ Freshman Beauty Queen, the prettiest girl in the freshman class. Ginger Barnett, another new pledge, was second runner-up. This is the third straight year we have won this honor.

After a rugged two weeks of practicing, cheerleading tryouts were held with Jane Hall and Cissy Harris coming out victorious. This is Jane's third year on the squad, and Cissy's first.

The first part of November brought Green Feather to the campus. This is the only charity drive held on our campus. Each sorority teams with a fraternity and a carnival is held. The sorority and fraternity whose booth in the carnival makes the most money each receive a fine trophy. Pi Beta Phi teamed with Σ N to win this year. A Miss Hatter contest was also held in connection with the carnival. Our contestant was Ginger Barnett. Penny Gray represented Σ N and was first runner-up.

Ginger Barnett was elected the new secretary of the Business School.

Our annual retreat was held this year at the Hawaiian Village in Daytona Beach. After a baseball game between the actives and pledges and a delicious dinner, we got down to work and made plans for our spring week-end and other future events.

Greek Week came and brought good times for all the Greeks. Judy Wood was our candidate for Greek Week Queen. The whole week of activities was climaxed by the Presentation Ball held in Daytona Beach. At this ball all sorority pledges and their escorts were presented to everyone there. Florida A was really proud of its twenty pledges.

Lynn Evans has just received word that she has been tapped for Who's Who.

A Σ Δ challenged us to a football game toward the end of the year and we accepted. Led by quarterback, Lynn Pullen, we were victorious 7-0.

Our alumnae presented us with their annual Christmas dinner early in December. Both alumnae and actives and pledges brought some small gift to give to the needy children at Christmas. After dinner and a program our alumnae presented us with a set of lovely bowls and also some pots and pans which we really needed.

We held our Christmas party this year at DeLeon Springs. Under the leadership of Eloise Thomas, the whole thing was a huge success. Our theme—"There's No Time Like Snow Time With A Pi Phi."

Just before leaving for Christmas holidays the Miss Basketball Contest was held in connection with the Hatter Invitational Basketball Tournament. Our contestant was Nancy Atsma. Virginia Hill representing Σ N was second runner-up, Suzy Hankins representing Σ Φ E was first runner-up and Judy Wood representing A X A was crowned Miss Basketball of 1961 by Penny Gray. It was truly a wonderful Christmas present for Florida A.

The highlight of Florida B's fall semester was the crowning of Carol Hair as the 1962 Orange Bowl Queen and Jo Ellen Eyster as a princess. Carol was also voted to the homecoming court along with Peggy Traylor. Linda Walton was honored to be selected as Army Queen, and Peggy Traylor was selected to be in the court. Susan Slaughter, Noel Doepke, Pam Carleton, Marilyn Barneau, and Diane Goodwin reigned in the Gymkana Beauty Court. As representatives on F.S.U.'s Modeling Board are Jo Dietrich, Cindy Cline, Ann Schloss, Marilyn Barneau, and Judy Nealing. Pam Carleton will spend part of her Christmas vacation in Memphis, Tenn., as a finalist for the Maid of Cotton.

Who's Who in American Colleges will list Gail Gillespie, Jo Ellen Eyster, Linda Walter, and Linda Walton. The F.S.U. leadership honorary, Garnet Key, tapped Judy Cox, Diane Goodwin, and Cary Lenahan. Village Vamps, the campus hostess honorary, chose Susan Slaughter and Mandy Harby. Linda Walton was voted president of Little Sisters of Minerva, and Martha Ann Roebuck was chosen as an A T U little sister. Dana Pharr won her election as freshman class senator. Tapped for Φ A Θ was Linda Miller.

Florida B took first place in the annual Σ X Derby, and Jo Dietrich was chosen to be in the Derby Court. Raquettes tapped Susan Slaughter, and Tarpon selected Judy Travis.

Mrs. James Speaker, Grand Secretary, visited the chapter in October. At this time rush skits were presented, conferences held, and Mrs. Speaker joined Florida B in a cooky-shine.

Florida's governor, Farris Bryant, and his wife gave a lovely Christmas party for the F.S.U. Pi Beta Phis. Mrs. Bryant is a former Florida B and is an active alumna in Tallahassee.

Individually many outstanding honors were won, also. Judy McMillan was awarded the Blanche Kingery Carey award for being the most outstanding religious leader of 1960-61. Lou Rich was chosen as one of two student government leaders to represent Florida State at the annual convention in Wisconsin. As one of five seniors in the Hall of Fame, Glenda Powers was honored. Sophomore Council tapped eight Pi Beta Phis, Lynn Gordon, Peggy Neel, Noel Doepke, Phyllis Webb, Bunny Worsham, Sally Dunlap, Beth Ann LeGate, and Libby Gentile, and elected Lynn Gordon president and Peggy Neel, social chairman. Junior Counselors serving in freshman dormitories are: Joan Gillespie, Denise Edwards, Liefie Lund, Diane Goodwin, and Lou Rich is serving as vice president of one. Φ B K tapped Gail Gillespie and Φ K Φ, Diane Maige. Florida B was well represented in departmental honoraries also. O N chose Linda Walter; Γ A X, Julie Bryant; Φ A Θ, Susan Kittredge; II Σ A, Diane Haige. In student government, Beth Ann LeGate won her second term in Senate, Lynn Gordon was elected to serve on Women's Judiciary, and Diane Goodwin won her election as clerk of the Honor Court. Carol Hair reigned as Greek Week Queen and was also honored to be a Military Ball Princess. Linda Walton was chosen to be in the Greek Week court. Spring fraternity weekends crowned two sweethearts; Jo Ellen Eyster, Φ Δ Θ, and Peggy Cooper, A X A. Denise Edwards was in the Φ Δ Θ court. Leading the Florida State Seminoles to victory this year on the cheerleading squad will be Linda Hagen and Peggy Traylor.

The Pi Beta Phis returned to school and were presented with the new first place scholarship trophy besides retiring the old scholarship trophy for taking the most first places in this.

CHARLOTTE SCHILDECKER

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE. Chartered, September 18, 1929. Pledge Day, October 8, 1961. For the second consecutive year, Florida Γ had the largest pledge campus among women's groups. This was due mainly to the increase in our active chapter size, from 13 to 22.

Two weeks after rush was over we enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Speaker. She gave the sorority many new ideas and suggestions about running the inner workings more efficiently. Mrs. Speaker was guest of honor at a tea which the chapter gave for her in the house.

The pledges surprised the actives one early morning with a breakfast of pancakes, coffee, and juice; they entertained the campus at the first all-college open house which had a Polynesian theme, all the Pi Beta Phis wore sarongs! They are again working on a raffie to be held the end of January.

Shortly after pledging, we had an afternoon party with K A Θ in order to have everyone get acquainted with the new pledges. We also had a pizza party with the K K Γ pledges for the same purpose.

We ended a successful term by Christmas caroling with K A Θ. PLEDGED, October 8, 1961: Sharon Alden, Madison, Wis.; Donna Fowler, Carole Lawrence, Ft. Lauderdale; Meredith Fuller, Cincinnati, Ohio; Jane Gardner, Pat Kaye, Tampa; Cory Howard, Atlanta, Ga.; Susan Kaiser, West Palm Beach; Karen Kaitenborn, Palm Beach; Karen Krein, Evanston, Ill.; Monica Mann, Larchmont, N.Y.; Sandra Norvell, Danville, Ky.; Dolina Rich, New York, N.Y.; Anita Roncaglione, Ft. *GEORGIA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA. Chartered, February 4, 1939. Pledge Day, October 4, 1961. One of the highlights of the fall for Georgia A was the visit of the Grand Secretary, Mrs. Speaker. She spent several days on the Georgia campus and gave the chapter many new ideas and helpful hints. She was presented to faculty members and alumnae at a buffet dinner given at the chapter house. Her visit was enjoyed by everyone.

Judy Hosch was chosen pledge sweetheart of Σ II. Marvel Nacy was selected for Angel Flight. Carolyn Wynn was elected to the governing board of the student center and is the publicity chairman. Annette Rowell and Gail Welch were chosen for the Modern Dance Club.

The front lawn was decorated at homecoming this year by a giant kangaroo with the slogan, "Georgia's Got The Jump On Kentucky." Everyone had a lot of fun working on him.

This Christmas the members of Georgia A sang carols to the residents of the Yearwood Nursing Home. At the Christmas party afterward the pledge class presented the chapter with a portable television set.

The Athens Banner Herald took pictures for an article about the new Pi Beta Phi house that will appear in the Sunday edition of the paper.

The Atlanta Alumnae Club entertained active members and their mothers at a tea given during the Christmas holidays.

A Φ is the newest women's fraternity to be established on the Georgia campus. They will begin rushing after regular winter rush. Their chapter will make seventeen Panhellenic members new on campus. A new fraternity, Σ Φ E, was also installed this year.

*ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE. Chartered, April 28, 1867. Pledge Day, February 20, 1961. Illinois A, with the assistance of Φ A Σ , won first place with their Homecoming float again this year. Sue Wichert served as freshman attendant. Pat MacFarland, Linda Thornburg, and Linda Warnock are all currently representing Pi Beta Phi on the cheerleading squad.

On Scholarship Day, November 1, Ann Mack and Ann Matthews were tapped for Σ O M, our college's equivalent of Φ B K. Both girls have also been recently initiated into Σ T Δ , English honorary. Laura Turner has been chosen to study in Washington, D.C., second semester, while Karin Loya and Livvy Lunn are spending their junior year abroad.

A major change in Monmouth's curriculum will take place next year when the college adopts a three-term, three-course plan. Deferred rush is also being discussed.

Illinois A won the Intramural Volleyball Tournament this year, a definite upset for the "athletic Pi Beta Phi!"

Our social calendar has been full, with teas at Holt House both homecoming and Parents' Weekend, a Christmas formal and informal, and a get-together with our neighboring sisters at Knox College. Our annual Christmas party, held at Holt House on December 14, was highly successful. Five little girls from needy homes in town were our special guests.

MARY SHEESE

*ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 26, 1894. Pledge Day, September 24, 1961. Homecoming at Northwestern was a special occasion for Illinois E. Barbara Walter reigned as queen while Jean Mair and Jean Nolte were in the queen's court.

Barbara Hettler was chosen for a leading role in the University Dolphin Show. Susie Stoner, Susan Vinnebeck, Bonnie Horsch and Barbara Hettler are in Lorelei Club. Lou Graessle is on the Dean's Advisory Board of Journalism School.

Barbara Ausbeck was runner-up in the Δ T Δ Pajama Queen contest. Sandra Schubert is president of Φ B, a music honorary.

The chapter is especially proud of their president Judy Bauernfeind who is a member of Φ B K, and of their pledge class of which thirty per cent are standard members of Associated Women Students.

PLEDGED: Julianne Perlit, St. Paul, Minn.; Julia Walbridge, La Jolla, Calif.

MARY GROMER

ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, November 27, 1961. INITIATED, January 2, 1962: Ellen Carr, Joliet; Ann Chaney, Belle Rive; Nancy Demorest, Glenview; Carol Liston, Carlinville.

Probably the one most exciting event for Illinois Z this fall was bringing home the first place trophy from the annual homecoming stunt show. Our fraternity partner was A X A, and the judges agreed with us that "That Sweet Secret Place" was the best show presented.

The week before Christmas vacation saw Illinois Z sneaking through the house bringing tiny gifts and goodies to their secret pals. The night before vacation, after the house was closed, we each found a little present under the tree. And inside the present we found the name of the person who had been supplying us with candy bars and cartoons all week. The Sunday before vacation we all went to the A K A fraternity house. There we gave gifts to and played with second graders, about thirty boys and girls, who came from homes where there wouldn't be much money for Christmas presents.

Don't get the idea that we are all play and no work. Our house grade average last spring was high enough to put us in the upper one fourth of all campus sororities. At mid-semester this fall our pledges had the second highest average of all sororities on campus. As for individuals, Karen Richardson just became a member of Φ B K. And five freshmen were invited to A A Δ mid-semester tea for having a 4.0 or better grade average at mid-semester.

PLEDGED: Regina Liessmann, Mt. Prospect; Betty Carpenter, Mt. Vernon.

JOYCE HALE

*ILLINOIS ETA—MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 29, 1912. Pledge Day, September 23, 1961. Illinois H was very busy during Millikin's 1961 Homecoming. "M.U. Shell Win" depicting an underwater scene, the center of which was a huge shell gave them a second place honor in women's float competition. Carolyn Baldwin and Rachel Schlotzhauer played leading roles in the homecoming show with Nancy Cope, Darlene Heit, Judy Hutton, Barbara Flint, and Claudia Smith in supporting roles. Beverly Bray was the choreographer. Beverly Lentz was co-chairman of the Judges and Awards Committee, with Nancy Dehner co-chairman of the Alumni Registration and Reception Committee, and Judy Hutton co-chairman of the freshman-sophomore games.

Beverly Bray, Nancy Guy, Pat Major, and Sharon Skidmore were among the twenty Millikin students elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Beverly Bray is serving as chairman of the newly formed Student Union Board and Linda Dustin is one of four members. Barbara Carlin was the Millikin Alumni Bulletin Cover-Girl. Sharon Skidmore was elected the senior class representative to Student Council.

During the fall semester many Pi Beta Phis have served as chairman or members of school committees. Beverly Bray served as chairman of the Student Council Social Committee with Judy Hutton, Beverly Lentz, and Carole Wilson as members. Pam Morrow served as Student Council Publicity Committee co-chairman with Rosalie Smith and Lynn Staedke on her committee. Nancy Guy was selected to serve on the Steering Committee for Campus Chest and four Pi Beta Phis were selected to head committees: Rozalind Cordts, Work Camp; Nancy Guy, Dance; Pam Hamman, Style Show; Lynn Staedke, Carnival. On the yearbook staff, of which Sharon Skidmore is the editor, are Judi Larson, Sara Jane Klingler, Margot Brown, Nancy Dehner, Linda Downs, Sarah Gillogly, and Lois Wilcox. Beth Gage has been named co-chairman of Religious Emphasis Week and Rozalind Cordts will serve as chairman of the discussion committee, Sharon Skidmore of the dedication service, and Lynn Staedke of the publicity committee.

Social activities for the semester began with a dance given by the pledges to honor the actives. Just before homecoming Illinois H enjoyed the visit of Mrs. Lou Ann Chase Tuft, Director of Membership. An all-campus tea was given in her honor at the chapter house.

The Christmas season began with the chapter entertaining the entire campus at their annual caroling party. Other events included a tree trimming party and a Christmas dinner. Over twenty members of Illinois H participated in the Lincoln Parents' Organization's Fund Drive to aid the mentally retarded children of the Lincoln State School.

*ILLINOIS THETA—BRADLEY UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 17, 1947. Pledge Day, September 17, 1961. Tanya Lopez, Karen Miller and Judith Angell have become new members of Angel Flight.

Who's Who in Colleges and Universities now includes Pam Fauss and Judith Easterbrook.

Sue Brockmeier, Anne Maple and Karen Miller have been selected to join Chimes, the national honor organization to which junior women are elected. The election is based on scholarship, leadership and service. Sue was elected vice president.

At the annual Panhellenic Scholarship Banquet, Judith Easterbrook received the scholarship trophy for the highest ranking junior woman and Judith Angell received the trophy for the highest ranking freshman woman.

The 1961-62 homecoming was a spectacular event in which Bonnie Roth and Sue Brockmeier were selected as finalists for homecoming queen. The second place trophy for stunt show was awarded to "Main Street, U.S.A." put on by Pi Beta Phi, Δ T, and T K E.

Two positions on the Student Center Board of Activities are now occupied by Linda Janson as Special Events and Hospitality Chairman and Pat Eidswick as Fine Arts Chairman.

Gail Pitchford has been elected to the Board of Control of undergraduate publications.

Σ X held their annual homecoming and Verla Sandrock was a nominee for queen.

Marianne Langton represented the chapter at the A X A pajama race and Σ Φ E Diamond Princess Ball.

Jackie Helm is a new member of Φ X Θ , the national business fraternity for women.

At the annual White Rose of Σ N formal Sue Sayles and Bonnie Roth were queen candidates.

KAPPA PROVINCE

*WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN. Chartered, November 1, 1891. INITIATED, October 14, 1961: Sherry Barnes, Madison; Pamela Phelps, Virginia DuBrucq, Wauwautosa; Susan Sedwick, Milwaukee; Janet Muench, Karen Muentz, Green Bay; Pamela Hawkins, Evanston, Ill.; Gretchen Brown, Kankakee, Ill.; Charmaine Tetik, La Grange, Ill.; Marcia Lawton, Southfield, Mich.; Sara Wareham, Chappaqua, N.Y.

October was a busy month for Wisconsin A engaged as they were in six-week exams and preparations for an exciting homecoming weekend. Teamed with the Evans Scholars for the second year in a row, we put our artistic talents together with theirs and designed and made a display around the theme: "Songs of the Century." Homecoming awards brought us a third place in the fraternity-sorority decorations division while our pledges won additional honors by winning first place in the WRA Pompon selling contest, and in doing so they defeated all the other sorority pledge classes on campus.

During November, we were honored by the visit of Mrs. Orpha Coenen, Kappa Province Vice President, who, during her overnight stay, talked especially with the alumnae and pledges. Early in December, our province president, Mrs. Sorem, also paid a visit to our chapter and, from her, we received much constructive criticism as well as interesting news about other chapters in our province.

A team of ten enthusiastic Pi Beta Phis captured the WRA Intramural Swimming Trophy during late November while the busy days before Christmas vacation were filled with a chapter Christmas party, the Settlement School Sale, and a pledge-sponsored Christmas party in the Children's Hospital.

Four Wisconsin As, Gretchen Brown, Ginny DuBrucq, Sharie Emmerich, and Jill Sligh, were among the AWS models who, under the direction of Pi Beta Phi model chairman, Carol Greer helped make the annual AWS Style Show, "Fashion Gourmet," a stunning success. Capturing other beauty honors for 233 Longdons were Carol Greer who became Dream Girl of $\Theta \Delta X$, and Marcia Lawton, who was one of six girls selected from a field of 300 for the honor of Badger Beauty.

Panhellenic elections revealed the selection of Jane Hollingsworth as the council treasurer for next year while Lynda Shelker will serve as General Rush Mechanics chairman during the approaching rush period. Carole Nechroy was elected secretary of the Union, while Lynn Van Vleet, in addition to being our Ideal Girl, also serves as secretary-treasurer of the Actuary Club. Margo Calamaras will represent our chapter in the Wisconsin Players Production of The Gondoliers.

We are also very honored that $\Phi K \Phi$, choosing its members on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and service to the university community this year elected six Wisconsin A Pi Beta Phis to membership: Mary McCarter, Alice Kuitath, Lynn Van Vleet, Jane Hollingsworth, Jean Beck, and Rosa Rappaport.

NANCY NATWICK

*WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE. Chartered, August 20, 1919. INITIATED, November 11, 1961: Gretchen deWinter, Mound, Minn.; Judy Robeson, Prairie Village, Kan.; Barbara Young, Rochester, Minn.; Kilby Young, Glen Ellyn, Ill.

Saturday, November 4, culminated a week of hard work at 843 College Street, as the Pi Beta Phis assembled their homecoming decorations. In adherence to the event's general theme of the Civil War, the slogan, Sss-Boom-Ahh!, was chosen, because it was the battle cry of the GAR Seventh Rocket Brigade, and became the first football cheer (used at Princeton), a large cannon draped with the Beloit flag and a giant "explosion" on the house were made of crepe paper and chicken wire, and dry ice was used to make "smoke." Because Pi Beta Phi had won first place for the past three years, it was with surprise and excitement that the fourth golden trophy was received.

On November 17, the Pi Beta Phis gave the annual "Get-Together" for all women on campus. This year the event was held in conjunction with AWS Week and was the final event. Pi Beta Phi provided entertainment and cider and donuts and was pleased by a large turn-out.

December, as usual, was a busy month, with the Christmas spirit encouraging festivities. On December 4, the sorority formal was held at Island View, in Burlington, Wis., with K Δ and K Λ Θ . The dance was preceded by a dinner and later a Pi Beta Phi "King" was crowned. On the 12th, an alumnae dessert sing was held and the actives and pledges sang Christmas carols. After the singing and the serving of punch and cookies, the pledges were surprised by presents under the tree, each pledge received a white pillow with wine, blue and gold decoration which her pledge mother had made. Both the alumnae and the actives enjoyed the presentation. B Θ II invited Pi Beta Phi over to their house on Friday, the 15th, and provided entertainment and refreshments; dancing ended the party. Sunday, December 17, the biennial Pi Beta Phi Open House was held. Christmas decorations, a fire in the fireplace and girls in cocktail dresses provided a holiday spirit. On Monday, the 19th, the annual Pi Beta Phi- Φ Christmas party was the final event before vacation. On the 20th, everyone happily headed for home and two weeks of non-academic life, and hopefully, some rest.

KARIN HERTEL

*WISCONSIN GAMMA—LAWRENCE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 12, 1940. Pledge Day, December 9, 1961. Wisconsin Γ has again placed in the homecoming house decorations competition, this time taking second prize, working with B Θ II. Margot Ryan was one of the attendants to the homecoming queen.

Fall activities continued with a joint serenade with $\Delta T \Delta$ in honor of Sue Herr, who was recently pinned to one of their members. A Christmas serenade with $\Phi T \Delta$ and the annual pledge formal, this time with $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, completed the fall's social activities.

A visit from Mrs. Sorem, province president, late in November culminated in a serenade in her honor, given by the members of Wisconsin Γ .

Polly Novak was elected to the Women's Judicial Board, and Karen Kress was selected for membership in Aqua-fin, synchronized swim club. Judy Jacobs was elected president of the freshman dorm, while Mary-Claire Vander Wal, Jean Sydow, and Peggy Crane were elected to other offices in the same dorm.

Wisconsin Γ won first place in the inter-sorority field hockey tournament, and third place in the volleyball tournament. Tracy Brausch played one of the major parts in the play "Three Sisters," which was presented in November. Sandy Karlson was elected social chairman of the Lawrence Women's Association.

The administrative body of Lawrence College has just announced that the school will begin operating next year on a three-semester basis. Everyone is very excited about this change, and are anxious to see how it will work out. Comprehensive examinations will be given to the class of 1965 at the end of their senior year. This is the first time that this has been tried here, too.

PLEGDED, December 9, 1961: Judith Anderson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Marian Cope, Columbia, Mo.; Margo Englehardt, Palatine, Ill.; Barbara Wood, Scarsdale, N.Y.

CAROLYN RAYMAKERS

*MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA. Chartered, May, 1929. Pledge Day, October 19, 1961. The actives of Manitoba A had their first opportunity to get better acquainted with their new pledges at an exchange party held with ΔT on October 20. Skits were performed by the pledge class of each fraternity, and following the party the pledges and actives of Manitoba A enjoyed an informal pajama party at one of the members' homes. The chapter attended a second exchange party with T K E on November 27 at the Malborough Hotel.

Manitoba A's annual Open House was held on November 10 at the home of the president, Sharon Jacques. Attendance exceeded that of last year and comments from the guests were very favorable. On December 23, the chapter held a Christmas party for twenty needy children. Games, carols, food in abundance, and gifts presented by the chapter's "Fraternity Sweetheart" who came dressed as Santa Claus for the occasion, made the party a great success for the children and members alike. The party, as well as the donating of a Christmas hamper, are to become an annual event in the future.

The pledges of Manitoba A were each delivered a candycane by their "big-sister" just before the week of Christmas examinations. It was the hope of the actives to give the pledges a bit of chapter encouragement in facing the hard week ahead.

Heather Sigurdson, a recently graduated member of the chapter, has made two appearances during the last month as guest singer on one of the local television shows. Irene White, a pledge of the chapter, is a member of the chorus on the same television show. Five members of Manitoba A have been asked to skate in the annual Winter Carnival held by the University of Manitoba early in February.

January 7 and January 13 will see the chapter attending the initiation ceremony, and the initiation banquet and formal dance, respectively. The main event planned at the University of Manitoba for the coming term is the annual Inter-Fraternity Song-Fest to be held in February. Plans are being made to bring in outside entertainment for the first time this year, which along with songs from each of the men's and women's fraternities should do a great deal to help publicize fraternity life on the Manitoba campus.

PLEGDED: Carole Avery, Maureen Dandenaull, Deanne Fogg, Lila MacDonald, Linda Muir, Irene White, Winnipeg.

LINDA MCMILLAN

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA. Chartered, October 7, 1921. Pledge Day, October 20, 1961. North Dakota A captured the first place trophy in the sorority division of the annual Greek Week Games, November 11.

Kathleen Christensen, Judith Paus, and Patricia Patterson were initiated into $\Pi \Omega \Phi$, $\Pi \Lambda \Theta$, and $\Delta T K$, respectively. Elizabeth Skarperud was selected for membership in $\Sigma A I$, music honorary.

Ruthanne Nedrud and Kathleen Stroup were named as Little Sisters of Minerva.

Our pledge president, Arlene McNeill, was selected as the Sweetheart of ΔT . She is also a candidate for All-Campus Pledge Princess and was selected as a hockey cheerleader.

PLEGDED: Sandy Lystvedt, Northwood.

KAY ANDERSON

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA. Chartered, 1906. INITIATED, November 4, 1961: Sharon Anderson, Mankato; Wendy Bargen, Fairbanks, Alaska; Donna Eyre, Miles City, Mont.; Janet Nelson, Beverly Potts, Minneapolis.

Fall quarter began with preparations for homecoming. Although Minnesota A did not go out for the all participation trophy, the chapter was kept busy working on the house decorations and selling buttons.

The Panhellenic Council sponsored a Pledge Cotillion Dance for the new fall pledges and their grandmothers. Other social events of the quarter included the annual Dad's Day luncheon, the theme being "Our Hearts Belong to Daddy." Afterwards daddys and daughters went to the Purdue versus Minnesota game. A tea was held in honor of the Kappa Province President, Mrs. Sorem; the fall formal was held at the Minneapolis Country Club on November 18; and a Christmas party with the St. Paul and Minneapolis alumnae clubs rounded off the social calendar for the fall quarter. Exchanges were held with ΘX , $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, $\Sigma A E$, and ΔT .

Special honors bestowed on members of Minnesota A include Linda Miller chosen ΔT Dreamgirl, Sue M. Benson reigned as a finalist in the queen contest during homecoming. In campus activities, Jane Moening was selected to direct the Greek Chorus for the university, Janet Gustafson was elected to $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, national art fraternity, and Peggy Vihstadt was elected secretary of the speech pathology fraternity, Σ A H.

At the annual fall scholarship program Susan Lowe was presented the award for the active with the highest average. Janet Nelson won the award for the pledge with the highest grades for the quarter.

PLEGGED: Betsy Briton, Minneapolis; Lynn Bailey, Willernie; Dianna Bedow, Edina.

NANCY WAELN

*ALBERTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA. Chartered, September 22, 1931. Pledge Day, October 22, 1961. Fall term was eventful for Alberta A. Mrs. Sorum, province president, spent three days here from November 24 to the 26. Alberta A hopes she can come again soon.

November 25, the fraternities at the University of Alberta joined to sponsor Club '62, the annual dance that for the second consecutive year was entitled "Mardi Gras."

During December, members of Alberta A attended the Panhellenic Banquet December 4, had a cooky-shine where each active gave her little sister a "bookworm" for success in the mid-session exams, sponsored a Christmas orphan party with the K Σ fraternity, and had the pledge party on a western theme December 19.

Exchanges have been held with the Δ K E, Λ X A, Σ Ψ and K Σ fraternities from October to December. Members are now looking forward to our formal on January 18.

Songfest will be held in the first part of February. Pi Beta Phi girls are spending all their free time practicing for this event.

PLEGGED: Ann Archibald, Lenore Binkley, Mona Bryan, Lynda Cunliffe, Sandra Day, Ruth Dodds, Penny Farnham, Judi Kales, Marilyn Kropp, Rene McElroy, Judy Reeves, Shirley Robertson, Ruth Rodger, Shirley Sadler, Pat Sherbanuk, Pat Sutor, Sherrin Wasson, Edmonton; Beverly Campbell, Yukon; Mona Drever, Castor; Carol Friesen, Eckville; Lynne McLaughlin, Spruce Grove, Barbara Nuttall, Eleanor Urch, Lethbridge.

*MISSOURI ALPHA—MISSOURI UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, September 8, 1961. INITIATED, October 15, 1961: Nancy Curtis, Springfield; Nancy Wright, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Sally Ginn, Columbia; Joanna Hash, Kansas City; Perry McLeod, Salem; Jean Riemeier, St. Louis; Kay Earlandson, Evanston, Ill.

While New Year is a time for resolution, it is a time for study too. Christmas vacation is over and the Missouri A Pi Beta Phi are settled down for a long January study session.

Christmas spirit was inspired by Angel Week, when the angel leaves surprises every day. The secret angels are unmasked at the Christmas party, and poems, presents, and egg nog are the agenda. Pi Beta Phi's Christmas formal, held in the chapter house, brought the outdoors inside. The pledges decorated the house with frosty pine trees. A Christmas caroling party at the Student Clinic increased the spirit.

An earlier highlight was the fourth annual Pi Beta Phi Pops weekend. The fathers stayed at the house, saw the Kansas State football game, and had Saturday night dates with their daughters. In return for all the fun and a fund with which the driveway will be fixed, every girl gave her father an ash tray.

Along with studies for this semester, girls are selecting courses for next semester. Another selection is one of new rooms and roommates. Because of the new rush system, the number of girls living in the house has changed. There are several three-girl rooms now.

Jean Gregg is a finalist for Savitar Queen. Troy Donahue from Hollywood will judge this contest. Missouri A congratulates Suzanne Grayson and Martha Freeman who were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges. Suzanne is also the assistant director of Savitar Frolics, and Martha is a new member of Φ B K.

BARBARA BROWNING

*MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1907. Pledge Day, November 16, 1961. This fall Missouri B was busy preparing for the 1961 Bearskin Follies, which were held at Kiel Auditorium on Friday, December 15. The Φ Δ Θ fraternity combined with Pi Beta Phi in presenting the skit, "The Wolf in Granny's Clothing."

In November Mrs. Flett, the province president, came for a pleasant visit, and to meet the new pledges.

Late in November the annual houseparty was held at P \acute{e} re Marquette. At this time everyone was entertained by parodies on the various classes.

Several honors were received by Pi Beta Phi this fall. Carole Robinson was elected corresponding secretary of Student Senate and co-chairman of Freshman Orientation. Suzanne Earhart was elected to Freshman Council, the freshman branch of Student Senate. The co-chairman of the new Pep Club on the campus is Nancy Paton, and everyone wishes her the best of luck with this new venture.

Angel Flight, an Air Force ROTC honorary, selected Nancy Hazelton, Ann Boyer, and Barb Dolva to become members. Robin Jay was chosen for the newly formed Pershing Petites, and Army ROTC honorary.

Elaine Earhart represented Missouri B as a maid in the homecoming court, and Peggy Kerwin was co-chairman of homecoming. The Hay Hop candidate was Lynne Mara.

Carol Kent was selected to represent Washington University on the television program, "Youth Speaks Up." With a boy from Washington University she teamed against a couple from St. Louis University in a seminar discussion entitled, "Is Berlin Worth Nuclear War?"

PLEGGED: Ina Fitzhenry, Falfurias, Tex.; Nancy Hazelton, Atlantic Highlands, N.J.; Susan Lander, Roswell, N.M.

HELEN CAMPBELL

*MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, September 23, 1961. The Drury student body elected two Missouri Γ Pi Beta Phi, Mary Horton and Saunna Burks, to the cheerleading squad.

Carol Pfander was chosen Miss Merrie Christmas, an honor for which all Springfield girls between the ages of 18 and 21 are eligible to compete.

In the early fall, each member of the chapter was assigned an alumna "mother" by the Springfield Alumnae Club. The alumnae and their respective daughters met in the Pi Beta Phi suite for a "get acquainted party."

Lambda Province President, Mrs. Deane R. Flett, visited the chapter in November. Luncheons were held in her honor by both actives and pledges.

PAMELA NAKIS

*ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS. Chartered, December 29, 1909. Pledge Day, September 8, 1961. INITIATED, October 11, 1961: L'Moore Alford, Little Rock; Marinel Freeman, Stuttgart; Carol Harper, Hot Springs; Mary Wilkie, Heber Springs; Judy Wheeler, Pittsburg, Kan.

Arkansas A was pleased to welcome Λ X Ω to the University of Arkansas this fall.

Homecoming weekend was successful for the Pi Beta Phi as Gene Chambers was chosen in the homecoming court. Riding in the parade after a brunch at the chapter house were Mary Russell, cheerleader, and Jane Kitchen, majorette. ROTC sponsors Linda Kay Cooper, Vikiann Clark, and Honorary Cadet Colonel Frances Jane Anderson, who is also Miss Arkansas, participated in the gala event. After date call Saturday night the pledges presented a skit for actives and house guests.

Betty Copeland is treasurer of Associated Women Students, and Carolyn Smith is secretary. Other Pi Beta Phi holding campus honors are Ruthann Luedicke and Shelia Boylan, co-editors of the A Book; Sandra Wilson and Joyce White are chairmen of Razorback committees. Andrea Anthony and Carolyn Smith are on Mortar Board, and Andrea was chosen for Who's Who.

Among the Christmas activities at the chapter house was a faculty tea held December 10 in honor of Arkansas A housemother, Mrs. Renfrow. Gifts were exchanged on December 12 at a party for pledge mothers and daughters and alumnae. Attending a dinner at the chapter house December 13 were members of the Arkansas Alumnae Club and the faculty. The same night the Pi Beta Phi, directed by Dorothy Nelson, won third place in the college Singfony.

Arkansas A and Λ X A sponsored a party for underprivileged children December 14. Actives and pledges entertained dates December 17 at a Christmas party marking the climax of activities on the Christmas calendar.

The Pi Beta Phi are anxious to support the University of Arkansas football team in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's day.

*LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE. Chartered, October 29, 1891. Pledge Day, October 2, 1961. INITIATED, October 23, 1961: Camille Shamis, Bastrop; Joey Grace, Ann Wisdom, New Orleans.

Louisiana A has enjoyed an exciting and rewarding fall semester. The volleyball team placed first in the Panhellenic volleyball tournament. Anne McDonald, Kathy Sangster, and Burdine Anderson were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Camille Webb was elected president of Assets, the sophomore honorary leadership society.

The chapter was again honored to have another of its members, Kathy Sangster, tapped for Mortar Board.

Ann Williams was chosen a member of the Jambalaya Beauty Court.

The pledges have also been very active this year. Gridley McKim was elected secretary of the freshman class. Jill Peavy was selected for the Freshman Beauty Court. The members gave a surprise breakfast for the pledges November 19.

Tulane had a successful homecoming weekend, and Pi Beta Phi won second prize for the best homecoming decorations.

The chapter's annual Christmas party was held on December 11. Dinner was served, followed by tree trimming festivities and Christmas carols.

The semester was highlighted by the annual pledge-sponsored Christmas party Pi Beta Phi Indian "Wonder Land" given in honor of the actives, which included surprises, gifts, and skits.

MARGARET M. MAGEE

MISSISSIPPI ALPHA—MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN COLLEGE. Chartered, April 8, 1961. Pledge Day, September 24, 1961. Mississippi A celebrated its first Pi Beta Phi Night in connection with a spend-the-night party in the Panhellenic House. The following morning the group was entertained by several members of the Hattiesburg Alumnae Club with a swimming party and brunch at the home of Mrs. I. H. Bass of Lumberton. Members of the chapter aided the Hattiesburg Alumnae Club at the Settlement School Tea held at the Lake House of Mrs. Hughes for the sale of Arrowcraft products.

Using the theme, "Southern Holds the Winning Hand," Pi Beta Phi's float in the homecoming parade won second place in the beauty division. Judy Clark and Barbara Askew are both serving as dormitory officers in their respective dormitories. Joann Watts was elected secretary of the junior class.

This year ten Beta Phis are serving on the Committee of 100 for Religious Emphasis Week. Barbara Bilbo, Judy Still, and Joyce Sanders are serving as chairmen of three of the committees.

Members of the Hattiesburg Alumnae Club and their families were entertained by the chapter at a Hobo Party in the Panhellenic House. The annual Christmas Dance was held at the Lake House on Elks Lake. Members and their dates danced in the patio area around the pool. Pledge mothers and daughters exchanged Christmas gifts at a special party in the room.

Participating in the annual X Ω Song Fest, the Pi Beta Phi sang "The Wine and Silver Blue" and "Rise Up Shepherd and Foller." Eight Pi Beta Phis were recognized scholastically at the end of the fall quarter. Judy Still made the President's List. Making the Dean's List were Barbara Askew, Emily Jones, Carleen Neacise, Helen Murphey, Susan Parker, Nancy Ramsay, and Susan Sieber. Recognized in other ways were Joyce Sanders, selected to K Δ II, and Judy Still, selected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and Φ Δ P, a local leadership honor society for senior women. Pi Beta Phi had two of its members selected as II K A Calendar Girls. They are Sandra McLeod and Joann Watts.

PLEDGED: Carolyn Middleton, Memphis, Tenn.; Carleen Neacise, Henderson, Ky.; Kay Vandergrift, Fort Island, N.Y.; and Joann Watts, Poplarville.

MISSISSIPPI BETA COLONY—UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI. At the end of the winter quarter, Mississippi B Colony is looking forward to the initiation of its first pledge class. This event will take place on March 10, with both national and province officers present for the occasion.

Representing Pi Beta Phi in the Ole Miss "Parade of Favorites" were Beryl Gene Daniel and Laura McEachern. Beryl Gene was also elected to Angel Flight, and is now serving as historian of that organization. Laura McEachern and Patricia McGehee were elected Women's Recreational Activities representatives, and Patricia is also a member of the Megaphone Club. Mary Randall was elected to the Campus Senate and also serves on the Judicial Council. Sally Hines was chosen to serve on the Committee of 100, and Sara Mieber and Sandra Smith are both on the staff of the Ole Miss, our yearbook.

The Pi Beta Phi volleyball team finished in second place in the recently held intramural tournament.

PLEDGED: Sue McCullough, Tupelo; Sylvia Abernethy, Oxford; Linda Lou Evans, Fort Smith, Ark.

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE. Chartered, 1867. Pledge Day, October 1, 1961. Iowa A is very proud of their achievements during Homecoming. Patty Hileman was chosen as Homecoming attendant. Also the chapter gained two new trophies one for third place skit given Boom night and the other for their first place float.

Peggy Parks has been chosen to Who's Who.

The pledges, on Friday, October 13, gave Iowa A and their dates a fun evening beginning with a hayride and ending with a dance with the unusual theme of "Happy New Year." The winter formal, "Candy Land Dreams" was a success.

Lori Williams toured the Southern states in December on basketball trips.

Avon Coe, Gwen Gooding, Karin Johnson, Marcia Moser, Janet Smith, and Susan Templeton participated in the Christmas presentation of Handel's "Messiah."

Patty Hileman is in the cast of the "Second Shepherd" given December 19. Karin Johnson, Susan Spero, and Susan Templeton were on the stage crew.

*IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1874. Homecoming this fall was a victorious time for Iowa B. The chapter won first place in the women's float division with the theme "Catch 'Em Napping" based on the Broadway show, "Pajama Game." A Luther football player was depicted asleep under a brightly colored quilt. Judy Foster reigned as Homecoming Princess during the activities. And for the best over-all spirit, the Pi Beta Phi were awarded the annual Tomhawk. The scholarship cup for the 1961 Spring semester was presented at the intermission of the dance which the Pi Beta Phi won with an average of 2.957.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities has claimed four of the girls this year. They are: Suzanne Germeraad, Martha Hann, Judy Pilmer, and Judy Foster. Another celebrated Iowa B is Cary Ashbacher who portrayed Amahl in the campus presentation of "Amahl and the Night Visitor."

The Student Senate this fall has been organizing and sponsoring the Simpson Campus Bowl fashioned after the national "College Bowl." Two participants are Suzanne Germeraad and Judy Pilmer. There is much student interest in this project and the results have been successful.

Simpson Pi Beta Phi were literally dragged by their hair by their dates at the Pi Beta Phi "Cave Party" in November. A contest was held to discover the "Ideal Caveman." Dick Mordaunt, A T U, was awarded an authentic "Pi Beta Phi Bone."

The pledges, in charge of a Pi Beta Phi night program, surprised the actives by presenting the paddles to their "Moms." All the paddles are quite original and each "Mom" is proud of hers. The most recent party was held the night before vacation. The Christmas party was complete, even Santa Claus arrived down the chimney. Genelle Morain, a former Iowa B, passed out all the gifts under the guise of the long white beard.

IOWA GAMMA—IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1877. Pledge Day, September 5, 1961. INITIATED, November 12, 1961: Pamela Helm, Cedar Rapids; Cynthia Loy, Rockford, Ill.

With winter quarter fast approaching, Iowa Γ made haste to complete a busy fall season. A late October highlight was Dad's Weekend, during which time fathers and daughters share a "typical busy weekend" with a football game and buffet supper, a skit and "look-alike" contest and a serenade. Then the daughters turned the house over to their fathers for the night.

The "Little International" Livestock and Dairy Exposition held at the university was graced by the beauty of Barbara Haugen, who reigned as queen of the event.

Homecoming weekend found the lights burning late and many busy hands working on our lawn exhibit, "Of Course We Can."

The Gatlinburg Tea held in early November received a good response from alumnae and the community.

December activities concentrated on preparing our skit for the annual Varieties which is held in January. With preliminaries past, and the Iowa Γ presentation, "The Wizard of ISU Land," in the finals, all hopes and efforts will be aimed at a good performance. Members of the Varieties Central Committee include two Pi Beta Phi Jean Suhr, ushers chairman, and Judy Suhr, publicity chairman. One of the "Flash Acts" to be presented will be Barbara Flickenger, singing "Hey, Look Me Over."

The annual Christmas party this year was a huge success, with Santa giving lots of presents to actives, pledges and alumnae. Throughout the dinner, we especially enjoyed the Christmas music presented by Sharon Holets on the harp. During this busy season, we also found time to go on several caroling exchanges with different fraternities.

Announcement of the finalists for Bomb Beauty found three Iowa Γ's among the eight selected. These girls are Barbara Haugen, Sue Hoppe, and Jan Smith.

Although Veishea activities do not officially begin until spring, plans are already underway, and several Pi Beta Phi are sharing in the preparations. Betts Baukol is understudy for one of the leads in the production "Wonderful Town," whose director, Deanna Smith Waters, is an Iowa Γ. Serving in the capacity of secretary of Veishea is Gleteta Miller.

Other honors have come to Pi Beta Phi, with Memi Rodriguez named to Δ Φ Δ, art honorary and Sue Tomlinson to Φ Ψ O, home economics honorary. Sally Blanchard was named recipient of a $300 Borden award.

In the near future, the chapter is looking forward to the Monmouth Duo, to be held at the Des Moines Country Club, with K K Γ.

PLEDGED, December 13, 1961: Karen Coletti, Ames; Barbara Flickenger, Minneapolis, Minn.; Jan Smith, Boone.

*IOWA ZETA—STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA. Chartered, 1882. Pledge Day, September 15, 1961. This school year has been a very active and eventful one for the members of Iowa Z. Homecoming weekend brought much excitement when Ann Lorack was crowned Miss SUJ and the chapter's float, "Hi Ho, Hi Ho, It's Off to Win We Go," built with O Γ Δ Fraternity, won both Beauty and Sweepstakes awards.

Pam Shannon was selected as Miss Perfect Profile and Jean James was second runner-up at the Profile Previews style show presented each year by the freshman women. The title of Σ II Pledge Queen was awarded to Marilyn Steele.

Social events included the annual football dinner given in honor of the varsity football team, a Christmas buffet at which the girls entertained their dates, and the Winter Formal.

Activities did not go unnoticed as Anne Davis was elected program chairman of Junior Panhellenic Council and Tani Graft was chosen for AWS Freshman Council. Nancy Files became a Student Senate representative. Several members of Iowa Z worked on a new university program, "Aid," which provides scholarships to worthy students.

SHARON KARR

*SOUTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA. Chartered, 1927. Pledge Day, September 16, 1961. South Dakota is very proud of Tamara Ulyot who was selected to reign as Homecoming Queen on Dakota Day. Sue Muilenburg was selected as one of the Battalion sweethearts at the annual Military Ball. Candidates for the Rose of $\Delta \Sigma \Pi$ were Barbara Ehrmann, Joan Miller, and Eileen Will. Jackie Gist, Patricia Leavitt, Linda Smith, Lerry Swark, and Connie Vance are candidates for Miss Vanity Fair. Sue Clawson was selected Freshman Class Queen.

Bunny Aikens, Meredith Auld, Molly Gleason, Judy Perkins, and Tamara Ulyot were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities from South Dakota A.

NELL WILLIAMS

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, September 11, 1961. Throughout the semester, Nebraska B has been determined to make this an even better year. We started out with our pledges winning $\Sigma \chi$ Derby Day and with Ann McDaniel being chosen as $\Sigma \chi$ Derby Day Queen. Other Pi Beta Phi sweethearts are Kaye Schnurr who is the Rose of $\Delta \Sigma \Pi$, Gayle Branigan who was a homecoming queen finalist, and Karlyn Kuper who was a finalist for the $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ pledge sweetheart. Miss Ruthie Read was selected as Miss Air Force and was an honorary commandant finalist.

Interest and hard work in activities is shown by the fact that four Nebraska Bs, Diane Armour, Kathie Farner, Sue Hovik, and Susie Salter were selected to represent their four respective activities, and two, Kathi and Susie, were chosen as finalists in the University Activity Queen contest. Sue Guenther was recently honored as the Outstanding Actress with the University Theater. Mary Knolle was recently elected to $\Pi \Lambda \Theta$. Kathie Farner and Susie Salter were initiated into $\Lambda \Delta \Delta$. Karen Skoda is the president of the Ag Executive Board.

During the Christmas season the chapter enjoyed many festivities. At the annual pledge Christmas formal, the pledges selected Kathie Anderson as the girl who had done the most for them as a pledge class. The entire chapter joined the K Σ s in giving a party for underprivileged children. We also entertained the alumnae's children at an annual party to which Santa Claus also attended. The Omaha Alumnae Club held a brunch for Pi Beta Phi actives, legacies, and mothers.

*KANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS. Chartered, April 1, 1872. Pledge Day, September 10, 1961. INITIATED, November 4, 1961: Mary Baumgartner, Overland Park; Sally Brown, Prairie Village; Kay Cash, Fairview Park, Ohio; Marilyn Cromb, Kansas City, Mo.; Connie Coberly, Hutchinson; Donna Gould, Shawnee Mission; Rae Pat Heath, Salina; Nancy Jasper, Topeka; Ann Leffler, Pittsburg; Linda Machin, Ottawa; Marilyn Miller, Larned; Sally Mize, Atchison; Lois Rhodus, Kansas City; Virginia Schubert, Lawrence; Beth Stockton, Independence, Mo.; Sherry Zillner, Mission; Suzy Zimmerman, Kirkswood, Mo.

It's hard to believe that the first semester of the 1961-62 school year is nearing a close, but this semester has been fun and rewarding for Kansas A. The year got off to an exciting start when Kay Cash was chosen SUA Carnival Queen and the Pi Beta Phi Carnival booth won second place. Later in the semester Jane Dunlap was an attendant to the Senior Calendar Queen and Marcia Myers was an attendant to the Military Ball Queen. Marcia was also chosen to be on the Mademoiselle Board, and Judy Hill was selected for Angel Flight.

During the middle of October we had the pleasure of a visit from Mu Province President, Mrs. Koza. This was a very thrilling time for us since this was our first opportunity to meet our enthusiastic province president.

The Christmas season was certainly a busy time for Pi Beta Phi. We and the men of $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ greatly enjoyed giving a Christmas party for underprivileged children. The holiday mood was also enhanced by having a Christmas dinner and gift exchange and a Christmas buffet for the Pi Beta Phis and their dates, at which time the men were presented toys which were given to the Toys for Tots.

The Pi Beta Phis were quite thrilled to be the first place winners in the Miss Smop contest, and Associated Women Students drive to raise money for memorial scholarships for deserving coeds at the University of Kansas. The reward for raising the most money with the most original project will come in January when our president, Kise Krueger, will become "Dean for a Day" and our Dean of Women will take over the duties of president of Pi Beta Phi.

Another project undertaken by Pi Beta Phi is selling Hi-Fi records of Pi Beta Phi songs, recorded at our chapter, to raise money for our new chapter house. We have long been awaiting the building of this new house and are certainly looking forward to its completion next year.

SUE HARDISTY

*KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 8, 1961. Kansas B became the first women's fraternity at Kansas State University to turn in 100 per cent participation in the Second Century Fund Drive sponsored by the university.

A Christmas party for underprivileged children was held jointly with members of $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ fraternity.

Queen honors were awarded to Marjorie Atwood, K Σ sweetheart, Lydia Howell, K Σ sweetheart attendant, Gloria Wagner, $\Pi \Lambda \Theta$ sweetheart attendant, and Mary Jo Rupp, $\Sigma \Lambda \Theta$ $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ Flush Bowl Queen. Debby Dick was selected as the University Barnwarmer Queen, and Brenda Morgan was attendant to the homecoming queen.

Mary Kay Dunlap was elected president of Whi-Purs, freshman pep club. Other officers are Kay Ingersoll, vice president, Marilyn Miller, secretary, and Diana Williams, assistant treasurer.

Officers of the freshman women's dormitories are Jane Martin, president, Rae Ann Mettlen, vice president, Sue Carson, secretary, all of Boyd Hall, and Rita Mundhenke, AWS representative and Brenda McClean, publicity chairman of Putnam Hall.

$\Phi \Lambda \Theta$ arts and sciences honorary, tapped Judy Gorrell, Pat Harrison, Gay Marsh, Martha Schwartz, Mary Sue Snider, and Suzanne Young for membership. Penny Heyl was chosen honorary lieutenant of Pershing Rifles, while the Little Sisters of Minerva selected Linda Myers to serve as president. Suzanne Young is the president of the Cosmopolitan Club.

EUGENIA MANGELSDORF

*OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA. Chartered, September 1, 1910. Pledge Day, September 11, 1961. When scholarship awards were announced last fall, Pi Beta Phi received the first place trophy for members for the ninth consecutive semester, and the pledge class placed second. Linda Cashion was topped by A T honorary medical technology fraternity, and Dawn Dobbins was named to $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, honorary art fraternity. Pat O'Neal was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges.

The fall semester brought several queens and queen candidates to Oklahoma A. After two exciting campaigns, Sally Manning was named Honorary Cadet Colonel of the Army ROTC, and Mary Ann Bell was selected to be Honorary Cadet Lieutenant Colonel of the Air Force ROTC. Cynthia Curtis was a proud and happy Pi Beta Phi when she was named Homecoming Princess. The $\Sigma \Lambda \Theta$ s honored Karen Cullen when they chose her to be among their Little Sisters of Minerva.

Excitement reigned when the Pi Beta Phi act placed second in Engine Show, an all school variety show. The act, "Way Out," was built around a space theme and included astronauts, a space ship, and Martians. The chapter also received the first place trophy for women's intramural volleyball.

At Christmas time the Pi Beta Phis entertained their dates at a "Beaux and Arrows" party with individually decorated red flannel nightshirts as favors. $\Sigma \chi$ joined the chapter in giving the annual Christmas party for children from an Oklahoma City orphanage.

PLEGGED: Sue McCoy, Cleveland; Linda Evans, Poteau.

MARTHA MATTHEWS

*OKLAHOMA BETA—OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, August 12, 1919. Pledge Day, September 8, 1961. Oklahoma B has been very active in scholastic honorary groups. Most important was Diane Strait's invitation to join $\Phi \Lambda \Theta$. Pi Beta Phi active in other groups include Martha Bramlett in O N (home economics honorary); Jan Johnson, $\Phi \Gamma \Theta$ (home economics honorary); Lynda Ward and Sara Hill, $\Phi \Lambda \Theta$ (history honorary); Janie Purlee, B $\Gamma \Sigma$ (business honorary); Diane Ferrell and Judy Martin, $\Sigma \Gamma \Delta$ (English honorary); and pledge Mary Ann Smith, T B Σ (music honorary).

Also, Oklahoma B is very proud of Anne Larason and Martha Bramlett for receiving the Lew Wentz scholarships.

Pi Beta Phis of Oklahoma B have been very honored to be chosen as queens in several campus contests. Courtney Risner was chosen FFA (Future Farmers of America) Queen; Sharon Dixon, Redskin (Yearbook) Beauty—incidentally Sharon was the only Greek finalist chosen; Judy Jones, Fairest of the Fair; Linda Richardson, one of the three finalists for Homecoming Queen; Lynda McFarlane, Princess Athena which is elected by all the fraternities on campus; Suzanne Crawford, Civil Engineering Queen; and Janet Terrell, one of fourteen Varsity Review Chorus Girls.

Oklahoma B ended the busy 1961 year with a Christmas Dance, the annual Christmas Party for our alumnae's children, and Christmas caroling, with the other fraternities and sororities on campus, with the $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ fraternity.

SARA INGER HILL

*TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS. Chartered, February 2, 1902. Pledge Day, September 2, 1961. INITIATED, October 9, 1961: Judith Burnell Tucker, Houston.

Texas A has had a most rewarding fall. An exciting football season, many interesting guest speakers, and the construction of a new undergraduate library have contributed to an invigorating atmosphere on campus at the University of Texas. Pi Beta Phi has done more than its share towards creating this atmosphere. The pledges and the $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ pledges won the Cowboy Spirit Award for gathering the most wood for the Aggie Bonfire. The pledges also planned and executed a lovely Dad's Day brunch over Homecoming Weekend. The chapter was hostess to Norman Mailer, noted author, for an open discussion.

Kay Bailey was elected freshman cheerleader. Sally Middleton and Sue Chipley were finalists for the Ten Most Beautiful at the University. Rickie Robinson was elected a member of the College of Business Administration Cabinet. The Texas Cowboys, an honorary service organization for men, nominated Candy Gray for their sweetheart. Martha Sealy was Civil Engineering Sweetheart for October; Pam McGuire held this honor for November. La-

Trelle Berkman was elected to A Δ Δ, freshman scholastic honorary for women and Sally Brockschmidt was elected to II Δ Φ French honorary. Finalist for Scheherazade, Organization of Arab Students queen was Susan Kline.

The Christmas season brought many activities to the Pi Beta Phi. The season began by a decoration party to decorate the house for Christmas. The chapter joined with A T Ω in an annual Christmas project of gathering food and clothing for the needy. Pi Beta Phi and Φ Δ Θ held their annual Christmas party; after the party the two groups attended the University's Christmas Carol program. The chapter has Pam McGuire to thank for a lovely holiday open house.

At present the Pi Beta Phi are looking forward to Round-Up festivities and Varsity Carnival, which are to be held in the spring.

*TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1916. Pledge Day, September 11, 1961. INITIATED, October 29, 1961: Kathleen Brooks, Atlanta; Diana Goodwin, Kathryn Hooks, Alice Shelburne, Dallas; Judy Haskins, Durant, Okla.; Karen Brown, Graham; Lynn McCollum, Jacksonville; Nancy Dial, Kilgore; Sandra Aughtry, Lynn Finley, Memphis, Tenn.; Judy Windrow, San Antonio.

AFFILIATED, November 20, 1961: Lucy Reinking, Texas A; December 4, 1961: Pam Schrom, New Mexico A.

Texas B has had a very busy and successful fall semester. Early in the year elections for class officers were held. Prissy Davis was elected junior treasurer, and Suzy Scrafford, sophomore secretary. Soon afterwards, Margaret McKenzie and Ellen Pharr were selected for Modeling Squad. Pam Schrom was asked to design the cover of the University Student Directory.

Bette Barcus was chosen as a delegate from Southern Methodist University to attend the United Nations seminar in New York City in November. Later in the semester she again was a delegate to the district Student Center Convention.

Several Pi Beta Phi are active as officers of AWS. For treasurer, the women students selected Marianna Haberle. The chairman of the Policy Committee is Carolyn Seilheimer. And serving as a member of the AWS Evaluation Committee is Melinda Mayes.

Tommy Espy and Bette Barcus were selected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Tommy and Marianna Haberle were circled to become new members of Kirkos, the honorary women's organization.

The new officers of the Student Center were announced near the end of the semester. Several Pi Beta Phi are serving as committee chairmen. Frances Shields is chairman of the Evaluation Committee. The co-chairmen of the Fine Arts Committee are Prissy Davis and Carolyn Seilheimer.

Initiated into II Δ Φ, the French honorary, were Liebe Mayo, Carolyn Seilheimer, Joan Spradlin, and Carolee Knittle.

Serving as officers in the freshman dormitories are Molly Porter and Melinda Mayes. Their offices are secretary and vice president respectively. Carolyn Upton is a floor representative. On the Freshman "Y" Council are Carol Crosby and Nancy Holland.

Carolyn Fulham was named "Area Sweetheart" at a four-state convention of the honorary Arnold Air Force Society. In the spring she will travel to Los Angeles, Calif., to compete with seven other girls for the title of National Sweetheart. Also in the line of sweethearts, two girls were selected to be pledge sweethearts. Shirley Betty is the A T Ω pledge sweetheart, and Laura Huddleston, the K Σ pledge sweetheart. Representing east Texas at the Texas State Fair was Eugenia Frances.

Christmas was a festive season for Texas B. A Christmas dance was held with K K I at the Dallas Country Club. Later the traditional party for underprivileged children in the area was held with Σ A E.

CAROLEE KNITTLE

*TEXAS GAMMA—TEXAS TECHNOLOGICAL COLLEGE. Chartered, April 23, 1953. Pledge Day, September 9, 1961. The Texas T traditional Ivy League all-college dance took a new twist this year. Decorations centered about the new dance craze and the Rec Hall was filled to capacity with Pi Beta Phi, dates, guests, and chaperones.

Big sisters and members were surprised at an Aloha party at the lodge. Orchids leis and corsages, flown from Hawaii, were presented by the pledges, dressed in muu-muus. This fall, the pledges received their alumnae big sisters, and the mothers and patronesses honored Texas T with an afternoon tea.

The pledges retreated to the ranch home of Celia Forrest, in part to prepare a skit which later won second place at the Panhellenic luncheon. The members won first place skit honors at Club Scarlet, where Tech's Most Handsome Man was chosen.

In December, the pledges hosted at a Christmas party for a group of children, and the paddle party was focused about a Christmas tree decorated with blue lights and wine ribbon bows.

Texas T Pi Beta Phi students honored on campus include Mary Jo Garrett and Becky Madole who were selected Army ROTC Sweethearts. Mary Jo was also runner up to the sweetheart who reigned at the A T Ω invitational basketball tournament.

Kathy Gordon was selected to be a President's Hostess, a group of official college hostesses. Kathy is also chairman of the Special Events Committee of the Student Union Building, where June Bunker is a member of the Public Relations Council.

Elected to Freshman Council were Cecile Camp, Lee and Lynn McElroy, Sharon Davis, Gay Haight, and Ginny Ridge.

Beverly Hamlett and Barbara Sudduth were initiated into Φ T Ω honorary home economics organization.

Linda Barnhill was named to Who's Who, an honor justly bestowed.

The Alumnae Advisory Council and the chapter representatives were served a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Charles Kathy. Mrs. James Spears, Nu Province President, attended the meeting.

DIANE WINSLOW

TEXAS DELTA—TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, August 30, 1956. Pledge Day, October 5, 1961. The fall of 1961 has been a busy one for the chapter. The pledges and the alumnae worked together in making the pledge class project a success. The pledges financed their project by setting aside a work day for the alumnae. It proved to be fun and profitable.

Serving as secretary of Panhellenic is Carolyn Ann Pavletich. Panhellenic is considering adding more sororities to the Texas Christian University campus.

Texas Δ is proud of the honors awarded to the members during the semester. Julie Ullrich was elected Freshman Prom Queen. Bonnie Kingston is a new member of Angel Flight, and new members of Corps-Dettes are Lynellen Bennett and Mary Roberts. Lynellen Bennett and Julie Ullrich were in T.C.U.'s top eighteen beauty finalists. Beverly Jamison was chosen one of the nine Horned Frog beauties.

The highlight of the Christmas season was a party with Δ T Δ for underprivileged children. An afternoon of games, carol singing, and refreshments was topped off by an exciting visit from Santa Claus who distributed gifts to each child.

CAROLYN FARRINGTON

NEW MEXICO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO. Chartered, September 11, 1946. Pledge Day, September 20, 1961. INITIATED, October 15, 1961: Donna Dalbey, Marny Metzger, Susan Fietsch.

A Panhellenic workshop comprised of all Greek women met on October 21 to discuss improvement of individual group functions and better coordination within the council.

The University of New Mexico expectantly prepared for a victorious homecoming with elaborate house decorations which followed the theme "U.N.M. Honors the World's Contributions to Mankind" and a regal coronation of a queen to reign over the coming gridiron conflict. Pi Beta Phi worked laboriously to construct out of conglomeration of cardboard, coal, colors, and imagination a crude similitude to a locomotive to portray the theme "Locomotive to Victory." All efforts were rewarded with a 21-6 victory over Utah and a victory dance featuring Connie Stevens. Diane Blair, assistant homecoming chairman along with committee chairmen Penny Naughton, Pat Hamilton, Jeannie McGillan, J'nita Arthurs and Donna Clauser, helped to make the weekend a complete success.

The Albuquerque Alumnae Club entertained actives and pledges at a dessert November 9. After refreshments were served several alumnae acted out a skit imitating a typical "hash session."

On November 9 the annual Settlement School tea was held at the chapter house. Over three hundred people attended.

Pi Beta Phi who are in the spotlight on campus this winter are Diane Blair, Sandra Tulbee and Peg Kelly who were chosen for Who's Who. Newly elected officers of Angel Flight are Diane Blair and Sandra Abrahams. Pledged to Angel Flight were Pat Hamilton and Stephanie Redd. Jan Huff became a Little Sister of Minerva. At their annual winter formal Jeannie McGillan was crowned Σ A E sweetheart. Φ Δ Θ crowned Julie Schroeder their sweetheart and Carolyn Volpato attendant at the Blue and White. Diane Payne was voted princess at the Junior Interfraternity dance.

The Dean of Women spoke to Pi Beta Phi and A Δ Φ at a dessert December 7 at the chapter house.

Christmas season at the Pi Beta Phi house officially started November 28 when Pi Beta Phi joined in the annual "hanging of the greens" ceremonies sponsored by Mortar Board. On December 14 the Mothers' Club honored us at a delightful Christmas party. A Pinata party given for young boys from St. Anthony's orphanage was enjoyed by all on December 18.

DONNA CLAUSER

XI PROVINCE

*COLORADO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO. Chartered, 1884. Fall semester was a busy one for both the actives and pledges of Colorado A. Actives achieving recognition for their poise, attractiveness and personality included Jerry Comley who was an Air Force Ball Queen attendant, Diane McQuown who is a Coloradan Queen finalist. Diane McQuown was also the Date of the Week in December. The Σ Δ X calendar included Judy Van Deventer as the cover girl and Judy Knott as Miss December.

Sue Sayre was appointed to the position of publicity chairman for the AWS Revue which is to be held in the spring. Barb Sadler serves as Organizations Editor of the Coloradan. She is also a member of the YWCA advisory board. Debby Daves was student director for plays put on by the University Little Theater.

Ann Elbon and Sandy Timmerman were elected to the education honorary, II A Θ.

Stephanie Lincoln was honored to be a Freshman Queen attendant. Donna Beavor was a Σ X Derby Queen finalist and Carol Bell was the Pledge Queen of the Week.

Silver and Gold tapped Nona Beber, Ginger Larson, Jackie Hully, Connie Porter, Ann Coleman, Sherry Ginn, Barb Hall, Susie Day, Sandy Geist, and Pat Irwin.

Susan Rosse's dancing ability won her a position in Orchesis. Sandy Cleman was chosen AWS Songfest chairman.

Offices in the dormitories held by pledges include Stephanie Lincoln who is vice president and Jan Newcomb who is floor representative of their wing. Ann Coleman is secretary of her wing and Pat Irwin is floor representative of hers. Sandy Cleman, Connie Taylor and Carol Murray are AWS representatives. Nancy Nesbitt serves both as president of her wing and representative to Central Board in Sewell Hall.

Miriam Scott is a member of the university's High School Orientation Panel.

Cathy Cooper, Judy Field, Betty Steele, Joan Robie, Miriam Scott and Judy Knott do cottage work with teenage boys at the Golden State Industrial School for Boys. Many of these girls also donate their services to the State Home for Girls in Morrison.

The Boulder Shelter Workshop, which is for the mentally retarded, is receiving the services of Barb Sadler, Linda Skaff, Colleen Calderwood, Leslie Works, Margie Kepner and Paula Richardson.

Colorado A's annual Retreat was held at Peaceful Valley lodge this year. The Pledge Formal, held at the University Club in Denver, was a huge success.

The chapter was honored to be host to Paul Goodman, author of Growing Up Abroad, for dinner. A short lecture and informal discussion followed.

Colorado A was also host to a unit from the Air Force Academy following the football game.

Christmas activities included the annual Faculty Sing and a party given in conjunction with the Air Force Academy for the underprivileged boys in the Golden Home.

*COLORADO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF DENVER. Chartered, 1885. Pledge Day, September 25, 1961. INITIATED, December 3, 1961: Cynthia Skevington, Charla Toller.

We were pleased to have as our guest the National Housing Director, Mrs. Kemp, on October 14 and 15. We had a cooky-shine in her honor, and found her a delightful guest.

Also, our Grand President, Mrs. Alice Mansfield, dropped in for a short visit, and we held a coffee in her honor.

The next event in which we participated was the annual ΣX Rodeo. One of our pledges, Melinda Miller was chosen as Freshman Beanie Queen. She was chosen from among pledge candidates from each sorority, and the choice was made by members of ΣX , their housemother, and several members of the faculty. We were also honored to win the over-all Rodeo trophy, for the second year in a row.

We also participated in the annual Greek Week celebration, during which we held an afternoon tea for alumnae and members of the faculty. During this week, Cynthia Skevington was chosen to represent the pledge class as a candidate for pledge princess.

Our pledges presented their pledge dance on November 10. It was called "Garden of Buddha," and the house was decorated in a tropical garden theme. Shortly following this, our pledges had their pledge sneak—in a Trailways bus! Their sneak was entirely successful, as they escaped without being "caught in the act." They returned to the house at 6:00, collected the actives, and treated us to dessert.

Five of our members, Susie Templeton, Sandy McGowan, Patt Vigil, Pauline Enequist, and Le Anne Jakub were chosen to be Little Sisters of Minerva, and Le Anne Jakub is now serving as president of this group.

Also, Trena Lewis won a first prize trophy in an Oral Interpretation contest.

This quarter five of our members are attending the International University in Mexico City. They are Gene Dudley, June Morrison, Judy Elliot, Patt Vigil, and Sandy Stith.

On November 13, our scholarship banquet was held with prizes for those having the highest grade averages and the greatest improvement in grades. At dinner, all those having C+ or lower grades were served beans, those with C+ to B grades were served meat loaf, and those with grades above B were served roast beef. A fitting reward for work done!

*COLORADO GAMMA—COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, September 8, 1954. Pledge Day, September 25, 1961. INITIATED, October 29, 1961: Bonnie Bromley, Broomfield; Anne Heermann, Haxton; Carolyn Greer, Denver; Janet Kay Laman, Littleton; Catherine Kharitonoff, Bonnie Simonson, Colorado Springs.

The highlight of fall quarter was the Pi Beta Phi Presentation Pledge Dance, the first time for this type of pledge dance for Colorado Γ . This formal dance is the start of a new tradition for the Pi Beta Phi on the C.S.U. campus and the fathers of the pledges, who presented the new Pi Beta Phi pledges, seemed to have as much fun as their daughters.

Another big event of the quarter was the Greek Weekend of which Karen Miller was co-chairman. Bonnie Bromley was secretary for the Central Committee and Carolyn Greer, Barbara Jo Allen, Linda LeQuire, Karen Miller, and Edith Fedinec took part in the Greek discussions. The weekend came to a close with the all-Greek Talent Show on Saturday night. Karyl Gilmore, Pat O'Hearn, and Suzanne Matis were assistant directors and Jane Frisk was in charge of scenery. Frances Gonzales did a modern dance and Karyl Gilmore, a jazz tap.

Other honors received this fall were Varsity Ball Queen Attendant, Jacque Snyder; and Miss Plum Street, Nancy Erbert, who was chosen by the ΣX s. Two of our girls, Jan Laman and Edith Fed-inec, were selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities; Anne Heermann was district Wool Queen and went on to win third in the State Wool Contest. Colorado placed third in the all-sorority swimming meet with Sue Morrison, Carolyn Greer, Paula Baldwin, Nancy Baker, Lynn Frazier, Bonnie Bromley, and Peggy Dixon participating.

Helen Quinlan and Mary Atkinson won the trophy for the Pig Catching Contest at the Little National Western held each fall and had a lot of fun participating. The chapter had their retreat at Cherokee Dude Ranch in Wyoming where they discussed goals for the year and grew closer to Pi Beta Phi. To bring the quarter to a close, the girls had a party with the $\Phi K T$'s for underprivileged children. It was fun playing Santa Claus and the children all had fun.

*WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING. Chartered, 1910. Pledge Day, November 13, 1961. As the school year of 1961-62 progresses, we find the Pi Beta Phi at the University of Wyoming busily involved in their tight schedule of scholastic and social endeavors, 1961 was the Centennial celebration for the University of Wyoming's existence. Thus, when homecoming time rolled around, Wyoming A helped to complement this anniversary celebration by participating in the various homecoming activities: the sing, parade, homecoming queen competition, and a post game tea for the alumnae and guests of the university.

Soon after homecoming and during the first weekend of November, we welcomed a wonderful visit from our Grand President, Alice Weber Mansfield. Although she was able to stay with us only a short time, the entire chapter was delighted by the opportunity to have her with us, and Wyoming A was bettered by her valuable suggestions.

Since this important occasion has passed, the Pi Beta Phi on our campus have settled down to more serious achievements. Those receiving honorable mention to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities are Judy Gardner and Sue Ann Morgan. New additions to the Air Force Angel Flight are Janice Seivert and Darlene Tippetts, while Karen Felt is our new representative in the Army Corpettes. Jo Ann Slack was chosen recently to become a member of Little Sister of Minerva. Candace Boughn was Spurlonality of November, and Mary Guthrie was selected the Greek of the Month of December. Also included in the campus-wide social calendar for December was the annual Miss U.W. pageant, the winner of which will compete for the title of Miss Wyoming. Our entrants included Gail Coleman, Karen Felt, Barbara Gilroy, Darlene Tippetts and Suzanne Trowe who was a runner-up for the Miss U.W. title.

Wyoming A's pre-Christmas season was climaxed by a glowing Christmas party given by the pledges for the actives. The program consisted of the pledges' impersonation of each active, a gift exchange and visit from Santa Claus, refreshments, and the pledges' presentation of their song to the active chapter—a truly wonderful gift.

PLEGDED, November 13, 1961: Karen Felt, Sidney, Neb.; Darlene Tippetts, Laramie.

JANE MCKINNEY

*UTAH ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF UTAH. Chartered, 1929. Pledge Day, September 24, 1961. INITIATED, October 15, 1961: Elizabeth Blackett, Midvale; Carole Brockbank, Susan Freed, Kaye Hardy, Jean Lund, Carol Reichman, Susan Simpson, Salt Lake City.

Fall quarter brought honors to many of the girls at Utah A. Karen Rosenbaum and Judy Ralphs were elected to $\Phi K \Phi$. Sandra Speers was chosen attendant to the I K Duchess, Sandra was also crowned the Baby Orchid Queen of $\Sigma \Pi$. Mary Jo Maero was chosen attendant to Baby Orchid Queen.

Betty Rae Jergensen and Mary Jo Maero were selected by $\Sigma A E$ to be Little Sisters of Minerva. Betty Rae was runner-up in the Sweetheart of ΣX contest.

The engineers selected Gene Thuli as "Cute Ute of the Month." Marilyn Funk was crowned the Utah Printing Week Queen. Kathy Brown was chosen attendant to the A X A Crescent Queen.

Marianne Sonntag was elected the Freshman Personnel Coordinator.

Two Utah A dancers, Jan Poole and Stephanie White, had parts in the university production of the "Nutcracker Ballet."

On December 2, Utah A's had their annual Christmas party. The party was held at Log Haven, a nearby mountain lodge. Pi Beta Phi and their dates enjoyed a dinner of flaming shish-kabob and an evening of dancing. To add to the Christmas spirit, Pi Beta Phi presented their dates with Christmas stockings.

Utah A has recently purchased the house next door to the present house and is planning to join the two houses together. The chapter is helping the house corporation by having several money raising projects, under the direction of Jane Aldous. During fall quarter the Pi Beta Phi sold Hershey chocolate as one of the projects. On December 16 and 18 the chapter held a successful rummage sale. Jane has planned several other projects and the girls of Utah A are hoping to have a new house in the near future.

After a very full and busy fall quarter, Utah A Pi Beta Phi are looking forward to winter quarter and the annual Monmouth Duo with K K T.

NANCY MILLER

*MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 30, 1921. Pledge Day, September 28, 1961. Fall quarter began with much fervor for Montana A. Janean Kessler, was chosen as one of the attendants at homecoming. Pi Beta Phi came in first in house decorations and float decorations, making it a successful event.

Helen Hagen was one of two selected students to attend the Merrill-Palmer Institute in Detroit this quarter. Helen is active in Mortar Board and Home Ec Club.

Jo Swecker and Grace Tschache were pledged to $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, Art honoree.

Several class offices are held by Montana As this year. Barbara Anderson is serving as treasurer of the sophomore class; Joan Keene president of the junior class with Sandee Quickenden as secretary; and Marge DeWit, secretary of the senior class with Helen Coffman as co-social chairman.

Nine of the newly initiated members of Angel Flight are Pi Beta Phi pledges. They are: Dorothy Adams, Peggy Bartlett, Barbara Eisenmen, Karen Hanson, Carolyn Kelly, Judy Lohr, Kay O'Connell, Carol Stevenson, and Linda Yeoman.

A workshop was held during the first part of the quarter with much helpful discussion being held. New ideas were presented and are being tried out.

The quarter came to a festive close with the annual Christmas Party followed by the college Christmas Sing, which the sorority participated in.

Geraldine Blackman, Helen Coffman, Marjorie DeWit, Helen Hagen, Marjorie Mattson, and Fran Roda were among the 34 students chosen from Montana State College to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

MARJORIE DEWIT

OMICRON PROVINCE

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON.

Chartered, January 7, 1907. Pledge Day, September 22, 1961. INITIATED, January 20, 1962: Judith Buck, Kris Dahlgard, Ann Hamilton, Linda Haney, Susie Horsefield, Jenene Johnsen, Patty Klinker, Linda Knutzen, Laurel Leonardson, Carmel Mackin, Ardie Marlatt, Judy McBride, Katy Morcy, Tobe Sue Roberts, Kay Roessler, Dedee Schram, Tarry Smylie, Laurie Stanfill, Geri Urquhart, Sue Rosene, Gretchen Vadheim, Jan Vincent, Fran Watson, and Lean Webb.

Looking back on the past fall quarter, we can certainly say that we have had a wonderful beginning for the year to come.

One of our biggest moments was the crowning of Sandy Law as Homecoming Princess for 1961. This was the first year that our school has had princesses and you can well imagine our delight when she was chosen. The game and homecoming signs were topped off with a big all-school dance at the Hub featuring five great bands. This also was a "first" for homecoming.

In another queen contest, Timber Queen, Tarry Smylie, a freshman, was one of five finalists.

We now have representatives on the freshman song staff to accompany our Varsity Songleader, Linda Williams. These two peppy girls are, Linda Haney and Suzy Ward.

Many other honors were received by our girls too. Linda Schlorredt and Holly Williams were tapped for Angel Wings, a girls' group associated with the Air Force ROTC on campus. Selected for $\Sigma \text{H P}$ was Lynn Perham.

Under the heading of scholarship, two more girls received recognition. Sue Rosene was tapped for a sophomore honorary, ΣE and Marilyn Hall for an education honorary, $\Pi \text{A} \Theta$.

To keep us up on the latest fashions we have a freshman, Nancy Edwards, who was selected to model on the University Fashion Board.

In addition to these honors, we have had other exciting moments such as when President Kennedy spoke at the university's Academic Centennial Convocation. Many of us were able to go and hear his inspiring talk.

Another event was our annual Christmas party. This year, however, it was somewhat hard to be in the Christmas mood since we had it on December 4. In spite of this early date though, we had our usual wonderful time and the gaiety helped lessen our fears for finals. Our cooks and houseboys were the honored guests so many of us were garbed in white jackets to serve cake and coffee. To make the evening exceptionally exciting, one of the big packages around the tree turned out to be a "twinkle-toed elf" who came to announce an engagement of one of our seniors.

This being the last happy event before the dreaded finals we now come to the events forecast for this winter quarter.

Happening very soon will be the AWS elections for which we are running Sue Risk for the office of second vice president. As a rare coincidence, her opponent is a Pi Beta Phi transfer from Washington Γ , Anna Sloan.

JULIE SANDSTROM

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, July 1912. As the end of the first semester approaches, Pi Beta Phi members are to be found in groups that run the gamut of every phase of college life. Following fall elections, two representatives were given positions in class government; Susan Crocker will serve on Junior Executive Council and Lynda Hofstad on Freshmen Executive Council. After being tapped for Crimson W , an organization of the Women's Recreation Association, Kathy Quinn was also chosen, as was Jennie Knopf, a $\Sigma \text{A E}$ Little Sister of Minerva, over which Susan Crocker presides. Beverly Roe, semifinalist in the contest for $\Sigma \Phi \text{E}$ Queen of Hearts, was selected by members of the Arnold Air Society, drill corps of the Air Force, to be in Angel Flight. Fish Fans, synchronized swimming group, can claim Linda Kellman as one of their number, while Evi Cartony is now in $\Sigma \text{K} \Phi$, foreign language honorary. To make a pledge dance centered around Christmas and the theme of "Golden Grandeur" even more special, at this time it was announced that Carmen Snitily, Pi Beta Phi candidate for $\Phi \Sigma \text{K}$ Moonlight Girl, had won this title.

To a recent dinner were invited ten faculty guests of Pi Beta Phi. Slides were shown of a summer camp sponsored by the university for handicapped children at which one of the girls worked last summer as a counselor.

Lately, with a vote of living groups already present, Panhellenic ruled in favor of admitting another women's fraternity to Washington State's campus, bringing the total to 14. This decision is in accord with an ever increasing student population.

Plans are now under way for the Fiftieth Year celebration of the founding of Washington B to be held April 27 and 28, 1962. Included will be a banquet and tea in honor of all alumnae, especially charter members. If we fail to contact any of our alumnae about the forthcoming celebration plans, please feel free to write to our chapter for all necessary information.

EVELYN CARTONY

WASHINGTON GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND. Chartered, September 9, 1948. Pledge Day, September 20, 1961. We find it hard to believe that 1961 is past and 1962 is here. We love to reminisce about all the terrific times we've had together.

Our superb pledge class has made us very proud. Their pledge dance, Farmyard Fantasy, was held with the new chapter of B Z II . It was very successful with a hayride to and from the dance. The traditional pledge sneak was held on a yacht, and was successful, much to the chagrin of the active members who searched frantically for their hide-out. But the actives had their revenge when they surprised the date of the kidnap breakfast and were all decked out in weird hats, jewelry, and jeans. A few of us were caught by surprise. Betty Jameson was crowned, for her "stunning" appearance, as Queen of the Morn.

Social activities have been well planned by our social chairman, Roberta Whinery. Coffee hours, a punch party with $\text{K} \Sigma$, the Harvest Hogstomp with the $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, Christmas by Candlelight, our dance with the ΣX , carried out in tones of pink.

Following the pink theme, our room was frosted in pink by Nancy Gerber with soft music provided by our new stereo from our Mothers' Club. A background for the radiant Pi Beta Phi who announced pinnings and engagements. All the packages, candles and poems were lovely, but especially clever was Laura Carlson's which was a group of balloons with funny faces and a pin to pop each one to get the poem inside.

Christmas was a time of sharing also. We found it so rewarding to help families at Thanksgiving that we got food and toys for another family at Christmas. The actives gave the pledges robes made of blue towels. Puffy sleeves and a personal touch on each one made them extra special. The pledges gave the actives little felt arrow-bookmarks.

We took the Christmas season as a time to honor our advisory board and their husbands. It was a wonderful opportunity for the men to see what was taking so much of their wives' time, and for us to shine for the women who do so much work in our behalf.

The reasons for our being proudest are those girls who have achieved high honors for themselves and for our chapter.

Who's Who among American Students in Universities and Colleges named Mary Brown one of three juniors named from the university. It is exceptionally wonderful to receive the honor twice and Judy Cordsen has achieved this. Mary Murrils, our president, was also named.

Others have joined the ranks of outstanding members. Ivonna Hanlin was named to $\Phi \Sigma$, the biology honorary. La Nita Jordan was chosen for $\Sigma \text{A I}$ and performed for the initiation ceremony of this music honorary. Mary Brown is actively preparing the program for Religious Emphasis Week of which she is co-chairman. Diane Peterson has been working diligently in Silver Seals, the special synchronized swimming group. Carol Roberts was elected president of Anderson Hall, the freshman dormitory. Another of our pledges has been doing extremely well as a reporter for the Trail, our newspaper. Ann Driver has received several bylines. Jeanne Evans shared the spotlight of the last article. In dramatics and speech Carole Hibbard did a fine job in Choral Readers and Carolyn Owens as Mary in the Christmas pageant. Carolyn, besides her work with the Campus PlayCrafters, received a second place prize in the Burmeister Oratorical Contest.

OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Chartered, October 23, 1915. INITIATED, December 3, 1961: Marilyn South, Portland; Ronda Fraser, Moro.

The chapter had complete attendance at the assembly for the university's new president this fall, Arthur S. Flemming. Mr. Flemming was the past U.S. Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Several members of the chapter were on various committees for homecoming. Mikell Thurston was one of the chairmen on the Forming Committee. Pam Holfert was chairman of the Post Bonfire Dance. Mary Jo Delyea was chairman of Button Sales. Linda Lowry wrote the script for half-time entertainment at the game.

Other chairmen of committees were Mary Jane Kuratli, chairman of the junior class Tennis Court Dance, and Mikell Thurston, chairman of programming during World Affairs Week. Pat Wahlstrom was editor of the AWS Handbook this fall.

Bringing academic honors to the chapter were Dennie Allen who was tapped for $\Phi \times \Theta$, the business honorary, and Sandy Polk who was tapped for $\Lambda \Delta$, the freshman honorary.

Kay Davidson, Mikell Thurston, and Ginger Leaming are members of the University Singers.

Mary Gage Lund was a finalist for $\Phi \times \Sigma$ Dream Girl. PLEDGED, October 3, 1961: Gail Abrams, Kathy Armstrong, Sue Brown, Sue Farley, Mary Gill, Carol Krage, Joyce Lowery, Karen Sherwood, Judy Yeomans, Portland; Ann Barker, Medford; Barbara Benson, Beaverton; Joann Green, Pendleton; Carol Johnson, Bend; Linda Kinnee, Carol Willis, Eugene; Ginger Leaming, Klamath Falls; Jodie Ray, Fairview; Chris Swanson, Astoria; Linda Weber, Keating; Lynne Barrett, San Francisco, Calif.; Sandra Brooks, Seattle, Wash.; Mary Faeh, Pasadena, Calif.; Barbara Gilmore, Sherman Oaks, Calif.; Sharon Keyes, Woodside, Calif.; Vicki McLeod, Piedmont, Calif.; Jennifer Wilson, San Marino, Calif.; Joanne Rising, Honolulu, Hawaii.

PHYLLIS KUHLE

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1917. Pledge Day, September 18, 1961. INITIATED, November 16, 1961: Carol Ann Ray, Pamela Ann Thomas, Portland.

The Oregon B pledge class has been active on campus and within the house. They kidnapped their big sisters early one morning, taking them to breakfast and presenting each sister with an individually decorated pillow. Melissa Pfouts is a member of Rook Rally, and Sharon Treoy and Margaret Palmer were semi-finalists for $\Phi \times \Sigma$ K Moonlight Girl.

The Oregon B members are no less active on campus. The chapter won the blood trophy for the greatest participation in the Campus Blood Drive for the fourth consecutive term. Oregon B beamed with pride when it received highest grades on campus fall term.

Pi Beta Phi still maintain their reputation for campus honors too. Nancy Hutchinson was welcomed at the front door one evening with congratulations on her new office as Panhellenic President. Carol Lindbloom represented Oregon B and OSU at the Far West Classics held in Portland during the Christmas holidays. Jan Marquis returned from Fresno, a third-place winner in the Western Speech Tournament.

Beaver Belles, newly organized welcoming committee for visiting teams, finds Terese Rogers and Patricia Warner busy promoting school spirit and good school relations. Angel Flight, national service honorary, opened its doors to Karen Morlan and Marilyn Duke.

At the termination of fall term, Pi Beta Phi found themselves represented in other honoraries. Barbara Bennett was tapped for $\Lambda \Delta$ scholastic honorary and Sharon Bauer was tapped for Orchestral, modern dance honorary.

Within the chapter, Christine Pasley was selected by the Standards Board as the Girl of the Term, having contributed unselfishly to the chapter and having cooperated with those about her.

Christmas festivities found the Pi Beta Phi entertaining their houseboys and cooks at a luncheon in their honor. Santa was present to distribute gifts and provide entertainment for the afternoon. Then, one of the houseboys reciprocated by playing Santa at the chapter's annual Christmas party, providing laughs and fun for all.

PAT ROGERS

OREGON GAMMA—WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, June 3, 1944. Pledge Day, September 24, 1961. INITIATED, October 8, 1961: Cathy Campbell and Anne Kaufman, Salem; Darlene Ridley, Portland; Barbara Morse, Los Angeles, Calif.; Linda Clark, Kansas City, Mo.

Honors and offices have found their way to Willamette's Pi Beta Phi chapter, too. Marion Hauke, Marcia Ruby, and Judy Smith are in Mortar Board. Tapped into $\beta \Lambda \Gamma$ were Heather Birnie, Linda Clark, Cathy Vielhauer, and Linda Crawford who is serving as president of this sophomore women's activity and service honorary. In $\Lambda \Delta$, sophomore women's scholastic honorary, are Linda Clark, Linda Crawford, and Jacquie Graber. Pi Beta Phi is working for the Associated Women Students, as well. Judy Smith is AWS President, Thelma Ray is Orientation Vice President, and Mary Ann Wright is Judiciary Vice President. On the rally squad are Cathy Campbell, Pat French, Linda Swan, and Cathy Vielhauer. Serving as the new Drill Captain for the Angel Flight is Jacquie Graber and Cathy Vielhauer is Membership Chairman for the Campus YWCA.

The pledges, too, have been working hard. Linda Jongeneel is president of Lausanne Hall, one of the freshman women's dormitories, and Carol McNeil was recently elected freshman class secretary. Members of Honeybees, the University dance line, are Cheryl Bohannon, Sharon Brown, Elizabeth Griffith, Victoria Hull, Sharon Schroeder, and Mikie Thomas. Freshman Angel Flighters are Cathy Dorman, Lynn Howard, and Karen Zumwalt.

Two of the Oregon Γ pledges were honored by being named to the two fraternity courts to be chosen at this time of the school year. Sharon Overbey was chosen to be on the $\Sigma \Lambda \Theta$ Queen of Violets court, and Victoria Hull was selected for the $\Sigma \times$ Sweetheart court.

Trish Evans, a junior, was elected a homecoming princess, and sophomore Heather Birnie has been selected as Willamette University's Snow Princess and will represent this university at the annual Winter Carnival held at Mt. Hood, a nearby ski resort.

During December, Sandy Stageberg was honored by being chosen to represent Oregon on a trip to Sweden and Norway as this state's Lucia Bride. A similar contest was held in that area of Europe and their representative will be visiting America as part of this exchange.

Marian Hauke, chapter president and a member of the senior honors program, has received the 1962-1963 Northern-Oregon Southern-Washington college Rotary Scholarship. She will attend the National University of Litoral in Santa Fe, Argentina, for graduate work in political science.

Willamette University has been selected to compete on the television program "College Bowl." There are eight team-members, six of whom are men, and Oregon Γ proudly claims the two women: Marcia Ruby, senior, and Linda Clark, sophomore. The selection of the final team will limit the membership to four students but the remaining four members will accompany the team as alternates.

PLEDGED: Drue Barnum, Sharon Brown, Candy Coeffelt, Phoebe Finley, Judy Francis, Terri Mitchell, Karen Nelson, Sally Stone, Portland; Cheryl Bohannon, Tillamook; Cathy Dorman, Roseburg; Elizabeth Griffith, Oswego; Sue Meeker, Amity; Mikie Thomas, Springfield; Karen Zumwalt, Forest Grove; Shauna Dougher, Linda Jongeneel, Sharon Schroeder, Los Angeles, Calif.; Candy Chapman, Hillsboro, Calif.; Lynn Howard, San Mateo, Calif.; Tori Hull, Sacramento, Calif.; Carol McNeil, La Habra, Calif.; Laurie Osborn, Palo Alto, Calif.; Sharon Overbey, Mt. Shasta, Calif.; Cindy Janes, Evanston, Ill.; Janelle Sevy, Twin Falls, Idaho.

OREGON DELTA—PORTLAND STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, December 4, 1960. Pledge Day, October 25, 1961. With the commencement of school, Portland State College's student body experienced a sixteen per cent increase in day school enrollment over last term. As a result of this increase, informal rush periods began shortly after the termination of formal rush. It was at this time that our first rush functions were held in our new apartment.

Our freshman pledges are quickly becoming active in student affairs: Pat Flanagan serves capably as contact chairman for the Associated Women Students, Karla Hartley as secretary to the Student Body President and Jean Kautz as a member of the Rally Board.

Honors have come to upperclassmen as Barbara Halen serves the junior class as treasurer and Francie Johnson prepares for her duties as official Hostess of the 1962 Winter Carnival, Bend, Ore. is the location of the 6th Annual Winter Carnival and many chapter members will participate in the various activities planned for that February weekend.

The weekend of November 3, 4, and 5 was an especially busy one for Oregon Δ , including both school and sorority events. The school was actively engaged in homecoming events. The girls were found busy with different committees and displays. Three of our girls, Brenda Bay, Donna Lawrence and Marilyn Runkle, were among those in the preliminary judging for Homecoming Queen. Of these, Donna was then selected as a semi-finalist.

As for sorority events, the first formal visit by a national officer was made to our chapter. We were all very much inspired by Mrs. Morgan, Grand Vice President, and her talks to us. After two days of scheduled meetings, the weekend was concluded by an open house and coffee hour honoring Mrs. Morgan.

Chapter functions have been various. Highlights for the term included a slumber party and a bake sale. For the dual purpose of announcing big and little sisters and entertaining the pledges, the members held a "slumber snatch." To this, the pledges reciprocated by holding a bake sale and song fest.

Paramount this next term is our First Anniversary Open House commemorating our Charter Day. Also on the agenda is formal rush, initiation and Winter Carnival.

PLEDGED, October 25, 1961: Diane Emerson, Nancy Ewing, Pat Flanagan, Sandra Karr, Jean Kautz, Kathy Kellogg, Portland.

*IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO. Chartered, 1923. The 1961 fall semester has been busy and exciting for the members and pledges of Idaho α .

The members honored the pledges and new initiates at the annual pledge dance which was this year entitled "Nuclear Blast."

An emblem was presented to the chapter for first place in the yell contest during Dad's Day week-end.

The chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. Dorothy Morgan, Grand Vice President, after nine weeks of school. A demitasse was held for alumnae and the presidents and chaperones of each campus living group in Mrs. Morgan's honor.

The traditional Wassail Hour was held December 10 for alumnae, faculty, and friends.

The chapter has had its share of queens and queen finalists: Linda Elliott, $\Sigma \Theta \Lambda$ Violet Queen; Jan Thompson, Gault Hall Snow Ball Queen; Linda Bachellor, runner-up for Navy Color Girl; and Beverly Arheart, finalist for $\Lambda \times \Theta$ Esquire Girl. Tapped for Little Sisters of Minerva of $\Sigma \Lambda \Theta$ were Pat Kelley and Linda Wilson.

Linda Smith appeared again this year as the soloist for the annual Vandaleer Christmas concert. Barbara Blair entered into campus politics and was elected treasurer of the junior class.

Karen Petersen was chosen for $\Lambda \Delta$, a freshman women's scholastic honorary. Peggy Phillips was chosen $\Phi \times \Sigma$.

The following are among the members and heads of campus committees: Bette Vickerman, Vandaleer drill leader; Pat Kelly, general chairman of Dad's Day; Sue Carneff, Dad's Day Dance committee chairman; Barbara Brooks, Women's Disciplinary and Board of Reference; Marcia Studebaker, hospitality; and Jan Thompson, Rally Committee.

*CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT BERKELEY. Chartered, 1900. Pledge Day, September 16, 1961. The recent fall semester has been most rewarding for California B. In November the chapter was honored by the visit of Mrs. Sarah Pauline Wild Gordon, province president. And in December the officers of California B had an enlightening discussion with the advisors on the aims of the chapter.

Honors continued in our direction in December. The most outstanding were of a scholastic nature. Helle Stueland was selected for membership in Prytanean, the junior and senior women's honorary group, and Betsy Bright was asked to join Panile, the sophomore women's honorary group. Martha Wright, who graduated last year in 1961, was elected to $\Phi B K$.

Recognition was also brought to California B when Elizabeth Blanchard was chosen as first runner-up in the $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$'s Dream Girl Contest.

Three new rooms, Goat's Nest, Fish Bowl, and Coffee Pot, were redone over Christmas vacation and offer new incentive to studying for finals as another semester moves to a close. And we are looking forward to the beginning of next semester when California B has the opportunity to model clothes from Saks Fifth Avenue for the Mothers' Club annual fashion show on February 27.

MARCIA FINCH

*CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 15, 1961. The Master Plan for the university is well under way this year because of recent grants from nearby industries. These recent endowments bring closer the reality of new buildings on the campus.

Distinguished visiting faculty in the School of Music this semester are teaching a special master class of advanced music students. The masters include Piatagorsky, cellist; Heifitz, violinist; and Primrose, violist.

Some seventy-five alumnae who recently attended California Gamma Night have decided to start a new alumnae club for California Gamma alumnae. Interested alumnae should write or phone c/o California Gamma Vice President, Pi Beta Phi, 647 West 28th St., Los Angeles 7, California, Richmond 8-8501.

President Linda Petrie reigned as princess for homecoming this year and was also a queen for the annual Basketball Classic. Jill Carlson, too, was a princess for the X Φ Watermelon Dig and has recently been tapped for Little Sisters of Minerva. Bobbe Hensley is keeping herself busy as freshman class vice president, and Shirley Sweet and Jane Hoffman were recently presented as debutantes.

February 18 was an exciting evening for chapter members and their escorts. Dinner, followed by viewing of "The Westside Story," proved to be a most enjoyable evening.

The annual Spring Fashion Tea, put on by the Mothers' Club to raise money for the chapter, will be held this year on March 23. Last year authentic costumes, worn when alumnae members were active, were modeled by current members of the house. Fashions included a gown worn for the unveiling of Tommy Trojan in the 1930's. This year's show will be equally as fascinating. Pi Beta Phi Delight will be served.

Songfest this year will be held on May 12 in the Hollywood Bowl and this year the chapter will be singing with $\Sigma \Phi E$.

NINA K. SMITH

*CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, September 1927. Pledge Day, February 18, 1962. California Δ made a clean sweep of homecoming honors this year. Many hours were spent working on house decorations with the members of $\Delta T \Delta$, which gave us a first place trophy in the Most Humorous Division. To add to the excitement of the week, Linda Dill was crowned as Homecoming Queen, while Sue Ellen Alexander, Jeanette Amberson, and Jeremy Armstrong were finalists.

Maureen Webb, great granddaughter of Inez Smith Soule, was chosen as a Southern Campus finalist. We are looking forward with anticipation in seeing her in our annual yearbook as a princess or queen.

New items to be included on our activity list are AWS Fashion Board of which Abby Dickow and Barbara Harsell are members, and Bruin Belles in which Nicolae Pollack is active.

The brothers of ΣN have formed a little sister group. "Adams Madams" is the name of this fine organization and its members are chosen only from the housemothers. Of course, our Mrs. Porter was tapped as a charter member.

PHYLLIS BLACKMUN

*CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 1, 1949. Pledge Day, September 24, 1961. Homecoming was a big success this fall. The chapter's float, "Liberty for Eternity," built with T K E, won first place in the real flower division. Carolyn Butler, Sara Romberg, and Judy Thompson were attendants to the Homecoming Queen.

In campus activities Susan Rieff was elected freshman treasurer, Linda Thompson, freshman representative, Dexter Fisher, sophomore representative, and Sara Romberg, senior class treasurer. Mary Jane Schroeder was appointed to the Senior Class Cabinet. Peggy Hunt was appointed Panhellenic Rush Chairman.

At the A.W.S. Banquet, Cetza, the lower division women's organization, tapped Margie Boyd, Stephanie Evans, and Susan Rieff. Spurs, sophomore women's honorary, pledged Charlotte Benson, Kathy Kemper, Susan Ritland, and Linda Wood, Mary Jane Schroeder and Judy Thompson were pledged to $\Delta \Phi T$, national education honorary. Sandy Jaworski was elected Treasurer of Little Sisters of Minerva.

In the beauty spotlight, Sandy Jaworski was elected Miss Playmate at ΘX 's annual Playboy Dance. Betty Adams was named Sweetheart of A $\Phi \Omega$, service fraternity. Chosen as queen candidates for the Fraternity Pledge Chariot Races were Judy Jones, sponsored by T K E, and Michen Fischer, sponsored by ΣX .

The chapter thoroughly enjoyed the visit of Mrs. Gordon, Pi Province President. A tea was held in her honor on December 13.

During the Christmas season California E had a Christmas party for underprivileged children. The Mothers' Club also gave a party for the chapter and their families. The highlight of the season was the annual Christmas Formal held at the La Jolla Town House Hotel.

*CALIFORNIA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT SANTA BARBARA. Chartered, February 2, 1950. Pledge Day, September 17, 1961. INITIATED, November 19, 1961: Sue Belsey, Los Angeles; Leanne Moffet, Santa Barbara.

Pi Beta Phis at Santa Barbara have recently been witnessing a large expansion of their university. A new, circular lecture hall is due to open this February, and the campus library has been doubled in size. In addition, two new administration buildings are nearing completion, and a new eight story dorm, called San Miguel, has broken ground.

Several chapter activities have been outstanding in university activities this semester. Ann Robinson was chosen Homecoming Princess in October. Sue Stevenson was appointed editor of the yearbook, and Robin Ryland was selected to tour the Orient as part of the cast of Wbere's Charlie, a university musical production. Little Sisters of Minerva included Katie McMillan and Jan Swartz this semester. Joining the Colonel's Coeds this fall were Barbara Tompkins and Nancy Brooks.

Chapter pledges have also been extremely active this fall. Leanne Horine was chosen Frosh Princess, Patsy Parrish was elected freshman vice president, and Meme Magee was chosen RHA (resident Hall Association) Queen. Colonel's Coeds include Janet Cooper, Sally Green, Leanne Horine, Meme Magee, and Valerie Young.

Pi Beta Phis planned new entertainment for their pledges this semester. Saturday, December 9, they held a retreat at the home of Leanne Moffet. The meaning of Pi Beta Phi was discussed in various small groups before pledge and active skits were presented. Fun, food, and fellowship between actives and pledges were the main purposes accomplished at the retreat.

To prepare their spirits for the holiday season, the chapter held a masquerade Christmas dance, December 2, in their new house. Old Saint Nick and his host of guests danced to the music of Al Kingsley and his band. The favors were clever Christmas stockings, filled individually by each girl. The evening was a complete success.

KAY DE LA GUARDIA

*NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 18, 1961. During the Homecoming festivities held in October, Barbara Brannen was crowned Homecoming Queen. At the dance, the chapter was presented with the trophies for Wolves Frolic Skit and dance attendance.

At the AWS Fashion Show, the chapter was honored by being awarded the highest active scholarship trophy, the highest pledge scholarship trophy and the chapter improvement plaque.

In campus organizations, Patricia Plenn was elected AWS representative. Jeanne Sadler and Susan Forden are serving on the senate. Joan Ruark was chosen for membership in Who's Who.

In the queen department, Mayre Swanson was chosen Princess of $\Phi \Sigma K$ at their Christmas formal. Lola Bankafer was one of the four finalists in the A X A Christmas Queen contest. Jean Tachois was the chapter's candidate for Military Ball Queen.

Winter Carnival will be held in February. Serving on the committee is Mimi Patrick.

The chapter is proud of Sherri Wagner, who was chosen Miss Nevada of 1961.

ELAINE PISCIOTTA

*ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA. Chartered, August 1, 1917. Pledge Day, September 16, 1961. INITIATED, November 4, 1961: Pat Edie, Decatur, Ill.; Chrissy Perry, Tulsa, Okla.; Susan Smith, Glenview, Ill.; Lynne Vignolo, Long Beach, Calif.; Joan Wyatt, Menlo Park, Calif.

Arizona A won sweepstakes in the float contest at homecoming. The theme for the float was "Sunrise of a Golden Age" which depicted the products for which Arizona is famous. Lynne Vanerka was chairman.

Linda Marshman and Patty Poulson were chosen to the freshman cheerleading squad.

Carole Raymond was elected senior class vice president. Sharon Smith was elected freshman secretary.

Ellen Bechtel and Patti Cohn received Certificates of Merit from the National Honor Society of $\Phi K \Phi$. Judy Hodge Carole Raymond, Joan Savage, and Lynne Vanerka were chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Several girls in the chapter have been elected members of men's fraternity auxiliary groups. Linda Slay and Jan Glover are members of Phi Delta Theta. Nan Doubet was elected to Lit-the Sisters of Minerva of $\Sigma A E$. Carole Raymond is now in Stardusters of $K \Sigma$.

Sue Cheairs and Rogue Guiry were elected to be members of the sophomore and freshman class councils, respectively.

Judy Hodge was Whiterose Queen at the ΣN Christmas formal. The chapter had a very nice formal at the Wilmont Inn. Ted Reed, a $K \Sigma$, was chosen to be Pi Beta Phi man. Mr. Joseph Vanerka was chosen as honorary Pi Beta Phi man because of the tremendous amount of work he did on the float.

The Christmas party for the children from the Yaqui Indian Reservation was very successful. There was also a party for the chapter at which funny gifts were exchanged.

The annual Barn Dance was held at the Double R Roping Arena. Everyone dressed western.

This year Arizona Λ has had several exchanges with men's fraternities. The $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ exchange was a "Harriet High School" party. The $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ and the $\Sigma A E$ exchanges were dinner and dessert parties, respectively. Before Christmas the chapter and the ΣN 's went caroling to several hospitals.

Shortly after pledging the new pledges went to the annual party given by the Tucson Alumnae Club. The pledges collected $80 for Tag Day.

Ruth Ann Lubbers gave a short talk and showed some slides on Japan. Judy Hodge did the same on Switzerland. Both of them were on the Experiment for International Living.

New members of Mermaids, the synchronized swimming club, are Karen Bergstrom, a transfer, Susan Blue, Meridith McKee, and Lynne Vignolo.

Recently the chapter has had the opportunity to have two foreign students from Mexico stay in the house for a short period of time.

FRANCES KOHFELDT

Does anyone have Arrowcraft articles of the early years (1915-1930) which would be suitable for an historical section of the Arrowcraft weaving display to be held at The Smithsonian Institute during the Pi Beta Phi Convention in Washington, D.C. in June, 1962? Please contact Mrs. Albert G. Mueller, Director, Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE ARROW

The ARROW of Pi Beta Phi exists to serve the news needs of the Fraternity membership—but to render this service its staff needs news of the accomplishments and outstanding activities of both individual Pi Phis and its active chapters and alumnæ clubs.

To guide members in their contributions to the ARROW we offer the following suggestions.

DEADLINE DATES

Deadline dates for the four news issues of the ARROW are:

Fall—July 15

Spring—January 15

Winter—October 10

Summer—March 5

WHERE TO SEND MATERIAL

Material to be used in news stories or features (including that for Pi Phi Personalities) should be sent to Mrs. Howard C. Stuck, P. O. Box 21-B, Marked Tree, Arkansas.

Information concerning Pi Beta Phis who have published books should be mailed to Mrs. Kenneth A. Barnette, 8 Cloister Ct., Tonawanda, New York.

In Memoriam information should be sent to Pi Beta Phi Central Office, 264 Citizens Building, Decatur, Ill.

Alumnæ Club letters, prepared annually for the Spring ARROW go to Mrs. Andrew J. Kozak, R.D. 1, Bridgeport, N.Y. (All other alumnæ news of news or feature nature should go to Mrs. Stuck.)

Active Chapter letters prepared for the Winter, Spring and Summer ARROWS go to Mrs. Hans Heink, 2802 Snyder, Cheyenne, Wyoming. (Chapter news of a feature nature should go to Mrs. Stuck.)

PREPARATION OF MATERIAL

Where it is possible, the editor would appreciate receiving material typed, double spaced. If the article is prepared in such a way that only editing is required, the writer will receive byline credit.

If the article concerns an individual her maiden name and chapter should be given along with her married name. (The contributor should give similar information about herself.)

Newspaper or magazine clippings should be accompanied by a letter and the address of the contributor in the event further correspondence is required.

Pictures should be black and white and where possible glossy prints. They should be properly identified on the back. (Polaroid pictures can be used only if the contrast is good. Color photographs do not reproduce well.)

THE WAY TO FORGE ANOTHER LINK in the PI BETA PHI CHAIN OF FRIENDSHIP

Are you supporting our fraternity by paying alumnæ dues to a chartered alumnæ club? And do you know that ten or more members of Pi Beta Phi in any area may charter a new club for a $2.00 club charter fee and individual payment of $2.50 per year for national dues? These national dues support the many and varied activities of the fraternity at large, the alumnæ costs of our Central Office, and travel and office expense for officers. From these same funds every chartered club receives a generous allotment to help its delegate with convention expenses.

The requirements for chartered clubs are easy to meet and maintain:

- 1. Charter applications may be obtained from the Grand Vice-President.
- 2. The application blank, accompanied by the $2.00 club fee for charter and supplies and $2.50 yearly national dues per member, is sent to the Grand Vice-President who issues the charter and forwards the fee and dues to Central Office.
- 3. Each chartered club agrees to a minimum of four meetings per year: One to active chapter interests, one to fraternity history and constitution, one to Settlement School, and one to the observance of Founders' Day.
- 4. Each club agrees to support fraternity projects and further fraternity ideals as a club to the best of its ability. All contributions are voluntary. No club is ever taxed!

Chartered clubs receive spring and fall supplies free of charge and monthly news letters from the Province Vice-President. In the interim of convention each club receives a one day visit from the Province Vice-President whose traveling expenses are paid by the national fraternity.

Pi Beta Phi, since its founding ninety-four years ago, has been a potent force in the society of educated women. Your active alumnæ support and loyalty will assure succeeding generations of women the same fine friendships, the opportunity of service to others, and the fun we in alumnæ clubs share today.

By placing your name on the rolls of a Pi Beta Phi alumnæ club, you have an opportunity to enrich your life and that of others.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- CHAPTER TREASURERS: Should see that letter from Grand Treasurer to the Parents of Actives and Pledges is sent to the parents as early in the fall as it is possible. The local letter on chapter finances which goes with it should have been approved by the Province President the previous Spring. It is necessary that parents understand the financial obligations at the beginning of the year.
Should see that Financial Statements to Parents of Pledges are sent approximately two weeks before the proposed initiation. They should be sent ONLY to the parents of the girls who have met the initiation requirements and whom the chapter definitely plans to initiate. This means too that the blanks should be sent only for the girls who have received the required vote of the Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee for approval of initiation.
Should see that badges are ordered through the Central Office. It takes six weeks or more, to complete badge orders. Badges for prospective members should not be ordered until all initiation requirements have been met.
Should send the National pledge fee for each pledge with Form GT1 to Central Office. Canadian chapters send fee to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form. Send within two weeks of any pledging or repledging.
Should send the initiation fee for each initiate with Form GT1 to Central Office within three days of initiation. Canadian chapters send initiation fees to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form.
Should send monthly reports to Pi Beta Phi Central Office, 264 Citizens Bldg., Decatur, Ill.
- CHAPTER CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES: Should report to the Central Office and to the Province President changes in chapter officers if they are made any time during the year.
- CHAPTER RUSH CAPTAINS: Should send within five days after any pledging, to the Central Office, a recommendation and consent to bid blank, or letter of recommendation, or blue blank of information from the State Membership Chairman, for each girl pledged. All blanks or letters must be counter-signed by the chapter alumna rush advisor. Should send within two weeks after the close of the formal rushing season, a report to the Province President on the result of rushing and pledging. Also report to the Province President and the Central Office, the name and address of the newly elected rush captain.
- CHAPTER PLEDGE SUPERVISORS: Should send a list of pledges, on forms intended for that purpose, to the Central Office within five days after any pledging or repledging.
- CHAPTER VICE-PRESIDENTS: Should send to the Province President within three days after any initiation a report that new membership cards have been placed in the card file.

CHAPTER HISTORIANS: Should send to the province President within three days after any initiation a report that names of the new initiates have been recorded in the Record of Membership Book.

CHAPTER PROGRAM CHAIRMEN: Should send a report to the Director of Programs (see current ARROW for name and address) within one week following the holding of the program based upon material sent by that officer from Central Office.

CHAPTER PANHELLENIC DELEGATES: Should send semi-annual reports to the National Panhellenic Conference Delegate on blanks sent out by her for that purpose.

When college schedules make it impossible to comply exactly with fraternity calendar dates, chapter officers should contact Central Office or the officer concerned, explain the situations and receive special permission to vary from the established dates.
