

THE ARR(S)W

of Pi Beta Phi

Summer 1962

THIS IS HOW PI PHI GROWS

FOUR PI PHI PRESIDENTS CONFERRING on the course that will be followed in the establishment of Kentucky Beta as a strong chapter in the national structure of Pi Beta Phi are (seated) Alice Weber Mansfield, Grand President; (standing l to r) Vanda Marcum, Kentucky Beta President; Mary Ann (Skip) Harris, Graduate Counselor, who served as Colony President, and Pat Whitesides Akers, Eta Province President.

Yes, this is how Pi Phi grows. It is through officer cooperation and a coordinated leadership based on a warm liaison between administrative officers at each level of the fraternity framework. It is not a chain of command. It is a strong bond of shared interest and a feeling of mutual responsibility that gain strength from friendship and resilience through understanding. Such leadership is a key factor in charting a true course for a college fraternity for women which is dedicated to goals of worthy purpose and service.

FRONT COVER:

COVER GIRL IRENE LILLY, North Carolina Beta, symbolizes the hundreds of Pi Phi actives who will complete undergraduate college careers in June. Known to her friends as Renie, this lovely Pi Phi is a Dean's List student at Duke University and member of such scholastic honoraries as Phi Kappa Delta and Tau Phi Omega. Her beauty honors have included being selected to Peeress her freshman year and as a member of the Chanticleer beauty court this year.

off the Arrow hook

The ARROW has gained a little weight this time around. Its expanding girth is due mainly to the fact that this issue brings readers reports from a large number of the Fraternity's 316 alumnae clubs in annual letters, and it also has tucked in its middle a cross indexed section containing alumnae club recommendation chairmen who serve those clubs.

Something had to give in this ballooning issue and as some will note, it was the editorial page that was pared away. It isn't a permanent move only an expedient one.

Before we leave the weight metaphor, I'd like to express the hope that the Fall issue of the magazine doesn't look as if we'd hit a dietary supplement too hard, and would remind the sisterhood that we now have four news issues a year and that come July it will be time to put another one together.

Active chapters with news and features they would like to have in that issue would do well to send them along before school is out, for the summer vacation months don't lend themselves too well to news-gathering.

MUM'S THE WORD for the newest honor collected by South Dakota Alpha's talented Tamara Ullyot, and Pi Phi members of the green thumb lodge may have already seen this picture on one of the 2½ million advertising circulars sent out by a South Dakota nursery firm or in one of its national magazine ads.

Tam was featured in the Spring ARROW after she had been chosen Miss Dakota of 1962. Shortly after she had received that honor, a Vermillion, S.D., florist, H. L. Sletwold, named a new variety of hardy chrysanthemum, colored a soft apricot pink, "Miss Dakota." Of his choice of the name Mr. Sletwold said,

"We just had to name this outstanding new mum for a beautiful, talented young lady. We chose Miss Dakota, so well exemplified by Tamara Ullyot."

The Gurney Seed and Nursery Company of Yankton, S.D., chose to use Tam's picture in its advertising program for the new chrysanthemum. Her reaction to having her picture so widely distributed was, "It's unbelievable."

Typically, however, Miss Dakota was busy in a different field as the ARROW went to press—she had turned from flowers to fiber and was in San Angelo, Texas, as South Dakota's representative in competition for the national "Miss Wool" title.

The chant "Convention's Coming" is dropped from this issue for the simple reason that the big event is might nigh here. In Washington and across the hostess provinces of Delta and Gamma final preparations are well underway. It's still not too late to register though, and this magazine contains a last chance offer with its registration blanks. Your chances of a delightful Pi Phi week are the very best in the world if you send them along now and then follow in person on June 24.

Convention Committee Chairman Betty King writes in answer to the inevitable feminine query, "What shall I wear?" . . .

"Washington is hot and humid in June, though the Mayflower is air conditioned. The hotel is right in the city so resort-type clothing will not be suitable. I would suggest simple cottons or similar fabrics of a style that would be suitable for classroom wear for daytime and something a little dressier as a change for the evening—and of course, a formal for the banquet. Two other items it might be well to include would be a sweater in case air conditioning gets too cool and perhaps a raincoat."

The accent will be on youth on the 1962 Convention Daily staff and that should promise convention-goers and others who order a set of the papers a highly readable account of convention highlights and sidelights. Virginia Gamma's Kay Davenport has accepted the editor's post. Kay was the 1961 national ABO award winner and will wind up a year's graduate work in English at Tulane University just in time to head for Washington and her post-graduate work for Pi Phi. Working with her as assistant editor will be Carole Tucker, Missouri Beta, who was one of the hardest working and most talented volunteer staff workers on the 1960 Daily. She went from Hot Springs to George Washington University as a graduate student and fortunately for Pi Phi stayed in the capital city after completing work on her Master's Degree.

Frances Goodridge rounds out the Daily staff as business manager and she has already logged many hours of preparation for the little paper in selling ads and working with the printer on pre-convention arrangements.

These staff members will be looking for reporters at the Daily office on Monday, June 25. Active visitors who want to be in the big middle of fun and work at Convention can get a ticket to both by signing on the Daily staff as soon as they arrive.

Ten Pi Phis from the Washington Gamma chapter were among members of the Adelpian Concert Choir from the University of Puget Sound that left the middle of April on a three weeks tour of the British Isles and Eastern Canada. Their tour took them to London, Wolverhampton, Birmingham, Dublin, Glasgow, Belfast, Toronto and Simco, as well as New York City, where they performed before leaving the U.S. They also were to have several side trips to points of interest along the way and have promised a full report for their Pi Phi sisters in the Fall ARROW.

Another three week tour not quite so far-reaching in miles—but undoubtedly so in results is the one followed by Pi Phi's Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield earlier in the spring when she led the installation weekends at the three new Pi Phi chapters at Memphis State, Kentucky and Ole Miss. She encountered a wave of exuberance and enthusiasm in all three instances and reports this was adequate elixir to strengthen her for that rather exhausting schedule.

One of those "pep" pills came from the new Kentucky Beta initiate who declared that in her new loyalty to Pi Phi and all of its symbols she had switched her headache pills and now takes the brand that bears the impression of an arrow head on its surface!

If there had been space for an editorial in this issue of the ARROW it undoubtedly would have followed a theme that asked for cooperation among alumnae and active members of Pi Beta Phi in the area of rushing and particularly in that phase of rush concerned with membership reference.

The section of this magazine devoted to listing the names and addresses of chapter rush chairmen and alumnae club recommendation chairman is preceded by a brief explanation of the increasing need for thoughtful and objective aid from the individual alumna in the matter of referring prospective members to chapters or club recommendation committees.

This information was prepared by Director of Membership Lou Ann Tuft. It should be of particular interest to alumnae who have not been directly associated with college chapters in the last two decades when marked changes in rushing patterns and rules have taken place.

A speed reader should be able to digest it in a split second and any interested reader won't need much longer—and the time and trials saved through being better informed will be of inestimable value to all concerned from the rushee to the alumna.

Volume 78 of the ARROW is now complete—I'll be looking for your interest and help as we head toward its successor.

Ruth Eisenhower Will Be '62 Convention Initiate

A Swarthmore graduate now combining public relations duties with a famed institution's International Club is to be the 1962 Convention Initiate of Pi Beta Phi.

She is Ruth E. Eisenhower, daughter of Milton Eisenhower and the late Mrs. Eisenhower. Her mother was the former Helen Eakin, a Kansas Beta Pi Phi who took an active part in alumnæ work.

Miss Eisenhower is now Assistant to the Director of Public Relations of the Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions in Baltimore and also serves as Executive Secretary of the International Club for the Institutions.

She will be initiated in the city of her birth, Washington, D.C., and notes that she is one of the few "natives" of the nation's capital. Her childhood and youth were spent in the East and Midwest—Falls Church, Va., Manhattan, Kansas, State College, Pa., and Baltimore. She graduated from Swarthmore in 1960 with a major in Political Science and International Relations.

Her interest in international affairs grew out of her year spent in France in 1956 with the Experiment in International Living and her travels with her father when he was representing the U. S. Government during the administration of his brother, President Dwight D. Eisenhower. These trips included Mexico, Central America and Panama. She was her father's official hostess on these trips.

The Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions International Club is an organization designed to "make more available to foreign members the social and cultural activities in the area." Last year it included members from forty-three nations including the United States. Miss Eisenhower and her staff prepare a program of activities ranging from square dances, instrumental recitals and topflight movies to informal lectures, debates and English classes.

Pi Beta Phi's Grand President, Alice Weber Mansfield, will initiate Miss Eisenhower in the convention initiation ceremony Monday afternoon, June 25.

Welcome to Convention

The Washington Committee welcomes you to the 43rd Biennial Convention of Pi Beta Phi! Those of you who have attended conventions before know the inimitable thrill that comes with being a proud part in such a gathering of sisters from across the United States and Canada. It seems especially appropriate to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Settlement School here where the idea was conceived—in our nation's capital. Your Pi Phi week includes discussions, workshops, and programs, as well as regular business sessions. In addition, you may see the White House, Mount Vernon, the Capitol, the Smithsonian—with a special exhibit of Arrowcraft products. . . . Best of all, you will make so many new friends. Let June 24 mark the beginning of a memory to treasure for a lifetime.

CONVENTION CHAIRMEN

Model Pledging and Initiation

Barbara McCollum Shoemake (Mrs. John H.), Maryland Beta Pi Phi, will be in charge of setting up Model Pledging and Initiation at Convention. Barbara has twice served as president of the Marianne Reid Wild Alumnae Club and this year is chairman of the Maryland Beta Advisory Board, and in her third year on that Board. Things are as busy on her home front as they are civic-wise, for she has four small children ranging from three months to seven years, two boys and two girls. Actives of the Maryland Beta and D.C. Alpha chapters will assist her in her convention tasks.

Arrowcraft Shop

A Vermont Beta Pi Phi, Dorothy Scott Hopkins (Mrs. Alan R.), will be chairman of the Arrowcraft Shop representing the Baltimore, Md., Club. She will have assistance from the Ohio clubs of Athens, Ohio Valley, Lake County, Youngstown-Warren and from West Virginia, Southern and Western Clubs. Dorothy was Baltimore Club president for two years. Her eight and ten year old sons keep her busy in Cub Scouts and PTA, and at home there is a four year old daughter.

Transportation

Transportation arrangements are under the capable hand of Frances Spruce, D.C. Alpha. Frances represented the D.C. junior alumnae at the Miami Convention. She later served as president of the Washington Club. She is active in Little Theater work both as an actress and director and has a weekly radio program.

Flower Committee

Flower Committee Chairman, Beryle Edminston Pledger (Mrs. Charles) will also serve as the Convention's Assistant Hospitality Chairman. She is a D.C. Alpha and has held every office in the Washington Alumnae Club except that of treasurer. She is also a supporter and worker of the Florence Crittenton Home. Mr. Pledger takes an active role in National Interfraternity Council affairs. The Pledgers have three teen-age daughters.

P.S. For More Fun Try New York

KANSAS CITY CLUB SPONSORS POST-CONVENTION TOUR

Washington, D.C.—then on to New York . . . a short but graphic description of a thrilling "Pi Phi Fun Week in New York" being offered to all convention delegates, relatives and friends. Scheduled to get underway immediately after convention adjournment on Saturday, June 30, the trip features five wonderful days in New York with smash hit plays—both on and off Broadway—not the least of its many exciting attractions.

"Pi Phi Fun Week in New York" is the outgrowth of a ways and means project of the Kansas City, Missouri Alumnae Club. Five years ago the Kansas City club hit upon the idea of sponsoring a theater trip to New York and offering it to people of the Midwest area. After long consultation with Martin Snyder, Inc., in New York, a company which handles such tours, the Kansas City club launched its first Theatre Holiday.

The enthusiastic response of the people who took the first tour convinced the club that the trip should be repeated. It was, with equal high praise from patrons, and this spring the 10th Theatre Holiday from Kansas City to New York had a most successful run.

It was a logical move from Theatre Holidays for Midwesterners to a New York "Fun Week for Pi Phis" when the Kansas City club learned of the location chosen for the '62 convention. With Washington only a few hours from New York, the club decided a New York trip could easily be offered to convention delegates with Settlement School sharing in the proceeds.

Result—a trip that is fun-packed from beginning to end as emphasized in the tour agenda.

SATURDAY, JUNE 30—Arrival in New York
Evening performance of "Take Her, She's Mine"

starring Art Carney

SUNDAY, JULY 1—Evening performance of an off-Broadway hit and a visit to Greenwich Village

MONDAY, JULY 2—Afternoon reception

Evening performance of "Mary, Mary" starring Barbara Bel Geddes

TUESDAY, JULY 3—Tour of the United Nations with lunch in the delegates' dining room

Evening performance of "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" starring Robert Morse and Rudy Vallee

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4—Late afternoon departure from New York

"Pi Phi Fun Week is offered on a package basis with total price of $125.00 covering double room reservations at the Hotel Manhattan, choice play tickets, a performance at Radio City Music Hall and special events listed above. No meals are included and each Pi Phi will arrange and pay for her own transportation from Washington to New York; train and plane service between the two cities offering a wide schedule range.

"Pi Phi Fun Week" not only includes all the planned events mentioned in the program, but it also allows plenty of time for shopping, browsing and seeing parts of New York on your own. Tickets to daytime TV shows will be available, and members of the Martin Snyder staff will be happy to plan other activities in which Pi Phis might be interested.

All in all, the Pi Phi who returns home from convention via "Pi Phi Fun Week in New York" will have many happy memories of a wonderful convention and a glorious visit to Manhattan.

Three New Pi Phi Chapters Installed at Universities of Memphis State, Kentucky and Mississippi

In a period when "count down" was the watchword across America, Pi Beta Phi was reversing the procedure with a "count-up" as it installed its 106th, 107th, and 108th chapters on successive weekends the last of February and first of March.

While Florida, Washington and New York welcomed the nation's newest hero, Astronaut John Glenn, Memphis State, Kentucky and Mississippi Universities were the scenes of less riotous, but warm and cordial welcomes to new Pi Phi chapters.

Tennessee Delta came first on the weekend of February 23-25. Kentucky Beta followed on March 2-4 and Mississippi completed the triad on March 9-11.

There was a constant theme of happy fulfillment with variations only in the type of motifs followed in social functions and the faces that reflected the inspiration and excitement attendant to that rare blend of new and old that accompanies the installation of a chapter in a ninety-five year old fraternity.

Each weekend began on Friday night with a venerable Pi Phi tradition, the Cookie Shine, carried out in the manner each new chapter hopes to establish as its interpretation of the event. Pledges-for-one-more-night found booklets, candle-decked cookies or other mementoes and in an aura of repressed excitement heard inspiring words their own pledge sisters had written and other similar thoughts of Pi Phi now touched with the dust of years but still bright with wisdom and love.

Saturday in each instance was the day of initiation and installation with Grand President Alice Weber Mansfield leading the ceremony. National Officers there to assist her were Grand Treasurer Olivia Smith Moore, Eta Province President Pat Akers, Eta Province Vice President Susan Saunders and ARROW Editor Dorothy D. Stuck at Memphis State; NPC Delegate Marianne Reid Wild, Convention Guide Helen Lewis and Mrs. Akers at Kentucky; Director of Membership Lou Ann Tuft, Director of Programs Evelyn Kyle, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Wild, Lambda Province officers, Van Mechlin Flett, President, and Madeline Closs Lafon, Vice President at Mississippi.

The strength of the Pi Phi sisterhood was underlined always with the presence of representatives from other active chapters—coming to stand beside their newest sisters. At Memphis State were members from Tennessee Alpha, Tennessee Beta, Arkansas Alpha. At Kentucky these came from Kentucky Alpha, Tennessee Gamma and North Carolina Beta actives. Mississippi had the distinction of having with it members of the two newest chapters, Tennessee Delta and Kentucky Beta, as well as active visitors from Missouri Alpha, Missouri Gamma, Alabama Beta and Mississippi Alpha.

From "Ocean to Ocean" there were "Pi Phi Lights" to brighten the strong "Heritage of Pi Beta Phi" at the formal banquets which followed the initiation ceremonies. Tennessee Delta fashioned the "Ocean to Ocean" theme with a gold chain encircling a map. Kentucky Beta saw "Pi Phi Lights" reflected in a shimmering pool at its banquet. The traditional beauty of the Old South formed the background for the "Heritage of Pi Phi" theme at Mississippi.

Chapter roll call, toasts, gifts of loving cups from sister chapters in the province, candle lighting ceremonies and words of challenge from Grand President Mansfield marked each banquet program, and each ended on a moment of fulfillment and solemnity with the traditional Loving Cup ceremony.

Installation weekend closed on Sunday with an installation, in each instance that meant the induction of new chapter officers and a model pledge meeting preceding church services on Sunday morning. Finally in the afternoon there was a reception attended by faculty, families of new members, representatives from other Panhellenic groups on campus and others. Pi Phi was honored to have with its officers in the receiving lines at the three campuses representatives of the University administrations as follows: at Memphis State Dean of Women Flora Rawls; at Kentucky, the University President, Dr. Frank Dickey and Mrs. Dickey, the Vice-President, Col. Frank Peterson and Mrs. Peterson and Miss Pat Patterson, Assistant to the Dean of Women who presided at the tea table; at Mississippi the chancellor's wife Mrs. Williams and Dean of Women Katherine Rea and Miss Julian Waits, Panhellenic Advisor who presided at the tea table.

What did it all mean? Many things . . . Pi Phi ready to establish new traditions and a reputation of leadership on three of the nation's finest state universities . . . Pi Phi sisters of all ages joining together to forge three new links fast in a chain of friendship . . . and above all it meant new strength for Pi Beta Phi in the youthful members of its new chapters. The promise they hold might best be summed up in the promises made by two new initiates in thoughts set down on the eve of initiation for each. In Memphis Barbara Faye Capooth wrote . . .

"I give my fraternity a conception of responsibility because I love Pi Phi and have received so much from my association with it. I feel a sense of obligation to act for the best interest of my sisters. This responsibility might be known by many names—loyalty, fidelity, devotion, and dedication.

"Thus being fully aware that my manner is representative to others of the ideals of Pi Phi I pledge responsible behavior in my relationships with my . . .

"God—I will manifest the highest ideals of Pi Phi through consecration to righteous service.

"Fellowship—I will display that brotherhood of which Pi Phi is a bright symbol as a fraternity.

"Country—I will give wholehearted allegiance to it because it is from its freedom that we are able to enjoy our friendship in Pi Phi.

"University—I will give constant appreciation for its fostering higher learning which promotes greater understanding.

"Our chapter—I shall display diligence in acting according to its judgement for the more effective functioning of our organization.

"My Pi Phi Sister—To each I give my warmest love and affection with a pledge of mutual cooperation.

"All these things constitute my conception of responsibility—my gift to Pi Beta Phi."

In Kentucky Joy Creech wrote:

MY EIGHTH GIFT TO PI PHI

To my seven gifts to Pi Phi
I'd like to add an "eight,"
'Cause Pi Phi's more than special . . .
She's nothing less than great!

With loyalty and scholarship
With effort and with trust
Sincerity, integrity—
They're all, of course, a "must."

With "faith and hope and charity,"
And "friendship tried and true,"
My "eight" is but a small, small gift
For the wine and silver blue.

Pi Phi's great fraternity
Is all my very own
It's mine to hold, but mine to share
To make our friendship known.

And so to my Pi Beta Phi
I give my little "eight"
It's a present given selfishly
'Cause I can hardly wait.

Because I am a Pi Phi
She has given me her name.
Because I am a Pi Phi
I would like to do the same.

So this is it, dear Pi Phi
What could the eighth gift be?
Because you gave me "Pi Phi"
I give to Pi Phi "me."

Golden Anniversary Is

Zoe Saunders James, Virginia A, Treasurer, Settlement School Committee

*Fifty years of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School!
Fifty years in Gatlinburg, Tennessee!
Fifty years of service!*

All Pi Phis will celebrate the Golden Anniversary of the Settlement School this summer at the Convention in Washington. On March 6, 1962, the school children, the townspeople, and the local and visiting Pi Phi observed a day of celebration in Gatlinburg.

Fifty years ago on February 20, 1912, Pi Phi's teacher opened the doors of the one room school house to the children of the community. Several of the pupils in those first classes were on hand for the festivities, and many of the present day school children who are descendants of the early students took a prominent part in the activities.

School was not closed for the day, although it seemed for a while that the steady snowfall might force a holiday until the school buses could safely travel the mountain roads. Fortunately the snow was only enough to add to the beauty of the day and prevented only a few who live on the steepest roads from attending.

First on the agenda for the memorable day was a program for the high school students, townspeople, and visitors. The school auditorium with its folding chairs placed in rows will no longer seat all the children (625) attending the twelve grades in the five buildings, so the program had been given the previous day for the elementary school children. Mrs. Marion Mueller, Director, gave a brief introduction explaining the purpose of the program, and then Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers, Health Center Nurse, read the story of the Settlement School while tableaux were presented on the stage. There were scenes of children going to the early school, of the nurse tending a sick baby, and of our Weaving Designer, Miss Winogene Redding, instructing a weaver. The eight dormitory girls and the eight dormitory boys were introduced for another tableau. Our school has many second and third generation pupils now and about 25 of them appeared on stage. There were also scenes showing the school crafts and the craft workshops.

The High School Glee Club, assisted by our music teacher, Mrs. Walter Enloe, led the group singing of "On Top of Ole Smokey," "Pi Beta Phi to Thee," which is the school song, and "God Bless America."

The students were fascinated with the history of our school and all during the day they gathered around the bulletin boards where old snapshots had been arranged by Margaret Struble, Iowa Gamma, the School's Arts and Crafts teacher.

The second event of the day was the luncheon at the Mountain View Hotel given by the Little Pigeon Alumnae Club for the visiting Pi Phis: Mrs. William Mansfield, Grand President; Mrs. Henry Moore, Grand Treasurer; Mrs. Robert Wild, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate; Mrs. William Akers, Eta Province President; and Mrs. Richard James, Settlement School Committee Treasurer. The occasion was a pleasant one with much talk of the past, present, and future of the Settlement School. Most of the fourteen very active members of this club were once students or teachers at the school or are now on the staff, and their love and devotion to the Settlement School knows no bounds.

The fitting climax of the day was a dinner party held at the Ruth Barrett Smith Staff House. Fifty yellow roses graced the head table and yellow spring flowers adorned the other tables. The theme of the after-dinner talks was the warp and the weft—the warp being the fifty years and the weft being the contributions of the many who have helped to make Settlement School what it is today.

Members of the classes of 1912-13-14 were to Pi Phi for giving them and their children and grandchildren the opportunities of a better education and a broader outlook on life.

In the early days Pi Phi brought new ideas and information into the mountain community through its teachers and nurse and arranged trips out into the world for many who had never seen the flatlands and the big cities. Today Pi Phi continues to bring new blood into the community and to open up broader vistas for the people through its teaching of arts and crafts and music, and through its scholarships for those who need help to finish high school or who need assistance for further education.

The Pi Beta Phi Settlement School has had a spectacular fifty years—from a one teacher, one room school in 1912 to an institution of twelve buildings, 77.8 acres, and a five-point program including education for grades 1-12, a livelihood for the people through Arrowcraft, a dynamic health program,

Celebrated in Gatlinburg particularly honored at the dinner and eight of them were able to attend: Orlie and Josie Watson, Jack Huff, Jim Huff, Sue Huff Cox, Mattie Huff Lawson, Pearl Parton, and Ray Bohanon. It was a time for living in the past and conversations beginning with "Do you remember"—the strict school teachers, the temptations to stop and fish in the creek along the way to school, the possum hunts, the Christmas parties, and the Friday night socials at the school. There was talk of the first basketball teams; of the scandalized looks when the girls played in bloomers and of the timidity of the boys who wore their basketball trunks over their blue jeans. There was also pride in "their" school and the grateful appreciation adult and college level education through workshops, and dormitory facilities for high school boys and girls.

The Golden Anniversary celebration in Gatlinburg was impressive and inspiring, and the day ended with talk of the next fifty years and the wonderful things ahead for the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

Students of the 1912-13-14 classes of the Settlement School were honored at a dinner party given at the Staff House in Gatlinburg. Seated l. to r. Mattie Huff Lawson, Pearl Parton, Sue Huff Cox, Josie McCarter Watson. Standing l. to r. Orlie Watson, Jack Huff, Ray Bohanon, Jim Huff.

The Howard Chandler Christy painting of Grace Goodhue Coolidge presented to the White House by Pi Beta Phi in 1924.

A year after Calvin Coolidge, choosing not to run, had left the White House, he began to write daily paragraphs which were syndicated to newspapers and met with considerable criticism from persons who thought them rather trite.

He was impatient of this judgement and commented to his friend, advertising executive Bruce Barton, "Perhaps some day I'll write one on 'The Importance of the Obvious.' If all the folks in the U.S. would do the few simple things they ought to do, most of our big problems would take care of themselves."

New Biography of Pi Phi First Lady

SPECIAL REVIEW OF ISHBEL ROSS'S BOOK,
GRACE COOLIDGE AND HER ERA

From the Ishbel Ross book, Grace Coolidge and Her Era (370 pp), just published by Dodd, Mead & Company, one is compelled to draw the obvious conclusion, of which President Coolidge certainly would have approved, that no more appropriate name than Grace could have been chosen for the wife of the nation's thirtieth President.

Visually Grace Goodhue Coolidge fulfilled such synonyms for her name as attractive, charming, and possessed of natural elegance; even more desirable for a First Lady she had the quality of graciousness and a sense of the rightness of things, which enabled her to move effortlessly from the obscurity of virtually complete domesticity to the most public of positions.

Although the dust jacket describes the book as a biography, calling it "the story of a President's Wife," and although it does contain anecdote and comment of a personal character, Miss Ross has placed her emphasis on the era of Grace Coolidge.

That this is not the intimate type of biography is perhaps as revealing of Mrs. Coolidge as anything else that might have been written. Invariably described as beloved, warm, and friendly, a First Lady whom virtually no one criticized, she somehow managed to keep her personal relationships private to a remarkable degree.

In his lifetime President Coolidge's reserve was the subject of unceasing comment, but this new view suggests that his wife's ebullience was an even more effective mask for her deepest feelings.

There seems no question, however, as to one of those deepest feelings being an abiding affection for those who shared sorority experience with her at the University of Vermont where she was one of the founders of the Vermont Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

Miss Ross records that the organizers of the Vermont group stayed at the Goodhue home and held their first meeting in the parlor where later the Coolidges were married. The house had been built when she entered college, and her father finished the third floor for Grace's fraternity.

Descriptions for her as a lively girl, fond of singing and play-acting, spontaneously generous, charming, and unassuming, help make it clear why she attracted and held this group of friends from undergraduate days on.

From 1915 until her death in 1957 she participated in a round robin correspondence with her closest Pi Phi friends. Her first letter (dated August 21, 1923) from the White House she contributed to this series which twice baffled the Secret Service.

In the mid-twenties it seemed as if the unbroken chain of letters would suffer a breach, for on returning to the White House after a renewal of friendships in Burlington, Grace could not locate the expected round robin letter. Ultimately in a Secret Service file marked "seemingly silly letters" it was found.

Amused, the First Lady noted that all were "Written by college graduates of some years' standing," but the security officers were understandably puzzled by the various forms of address it entertained the correspondents to use. Some of Mrs. Coolidge's own creations included Dear Knightdresses of the Robin Round and Dear Robinettes, Sister of the Skillet.

When once again the chain was threatened in the same fashion, Mrs. Coolidge reported to the Robins, "I explained to him (the Secret Service man) that I was a human being before I was the wife of a President and counted myself fortunate in having friends who knew me before I came here and who still had the good sense to continue to regard me as a human being. Would he, therefore, not continue to regard with suspicion a letter arriving with a strange beginning such as Dear Honey-Elephant or Dear Mate or Dear Goody and signed all sorts of things as The Skipper, Your Ol' Pal, etc."

Along with the triumph of position the Coolidges faced the greatest tragedy in the White House where their younger son, Calvin died, the victim of a blood infection which today's drugs would have fought with ease but which in 1924 not all the medical skill the President of the United States could command was able to overcome.

After this unhappiness fortitude became a word often included in descriptions of the First Lady.

There were happy moments in the four White House years which followed Calvin's death, but often they had their roots in the past.

One such occasion was the unveiling of the now well-known Howard Chandler Christy portrait of Grace Coolidge in a red dress with her white collie Rob Roy beside her and the White House showing in the far background.

The painting was a gift of Pi Beta Phi, its execution having been suggested by Katharine Tower Barnes, a Michigan Pi Phi, who felt it would be an appropriate recognition of the first fraternity member to become First Lady. Author Ross notes that it was the first painting done of Mrs. Coolidge and that she saw to it that her Pi Phi pin appears in the painting.

The President thought it a fine portrait and that verdict continues to prevail, the present First Lady, Mrs. Kennedy, considering it one of the most effective paintings in the White House.

There were 1,300 college women, including such distinguished members of Pi Beta Phi as Carrie Chapman Catt, women's suffrage leader, in the White House for the portrait's presentation made in April, 1924, by Amy Burnham Onken, grand president; Anna Robinson Nickerson, grand vice-president; May Broadhead Wallace, mother of Henry A. Wallace, ultimately Secretary of Agriculture, Dr. May L. Keller, president emeritus, Adele Taylor Alford, Emma Harper Turner, Grace Lass Sisson, Frances Evans, Irma Kerr Norwald, and Erminie Pollard, a Vermont Beta relative of the President's.

The guests gathered in the East Room with Mrs. Coolidge who was wearing a new, diamond-studded arrow pin, the gift of her round robin Pi Phi friends, on her gray georgette dress. The opal pin of her college days she later gave to be attached to her gown in the Smithsonian Institution.

To the assemblage Mrs. Nickerson said, "For the first time the Nation has as its first lady a member of a national college fraternity. From the days of Martha Washington until now never has it had as the wife of its President a woman more universally admired and loved. It seems distinctly fitting that to Pi Beta Phi, the first national college fraternity for women . . . has come the signal honor of claiming as its own Grace Goodhue Coolidge, first lady of the land."

When she discussed the experience in the next round robin, Mrs. Coolidge wrote: "I do not believe anyone here had a more enjoyable time than I when the fraternity paid me a visit. . . . I wear my Robin arrow everyday and love it for all that it expresses. When it comes to my position here, I feel very humble but when I think of my friends I am proud and haughty. How truly rich I am."

Ishbell Ross, once a New York Herald Tribune reporter, parallels each segment of her subject's life with a resume of the headline events of the period in all the major categories of human activity. Because the Coolidges lived in the Twenties, but despite their position of leadership, were not of the Twenties, this device accents their often anachronistic quality.

One suspects that with a different type of man for her husband the woman, who showed leadership characteristics as an instructor in the then quite underdeveloped field of teaching the deaf and as a founder of her Pi Phi chapter and later national officer of her fraternity, might have been quite a different sort of public figure.

However, this book shows her primarily as the public figure she was, and as a review of her place in the history of her era it has its special interest.

Golden Arrow Pi Phis

Another Link in Margueritte's Golden Chain

Margueritte Graybill Lewis has forged a golden chain of Pi Phi friendship across five decades and perhaps one of her happiest moments in that process came on February 17, 1962, when she was surprised with a special program and luncheon in her honor marking her arrival in that select Pi Phi group, The Order of the Golden Arrow.

She had accepted an invitation to an 11:00 brunch at the home of Pi Phi sister Mercedes Ellis Senteny. She was on time—but she found some forty Pi Phis had preceded her and they rose to greet her with "Ring, Ching, Ching—When YOU were a student at college."

Barbara Varner Frizell, Hutchinson Alumnae Club president, presided at the ceremony, presenting a corsage of winter carnations tied with wine and silver blue ribbons, the Order of the Golden Arrow certificate and gold carnation guard.

Ada Dykes Peagues gave the Pi Phi history of Margueritte and the Hutchinson Alumnae Club and presented Mrs. Lewis with an album she had compiled for the Alumnae Club containing pictures, telegrams and many letters from Pi Phi friends throughout the United States even to its newest state, Hawaii.

A luncheon at the Town Club followed the ceremony. A special guest at both the surprise program and luncheon was Dorothy Weaver Morgan, Grand Vice President.

Margueritte and her Hutchinson Pi Phi sisters thoroughly enjoyed the historical highlights recounted at the ceremony—which showed how this first Hutchinson Golden Arrow member's life was entwined with that of Pi Phi in Hutchinson through the years.

The account pointed out that as a small girl she could remember when the first young woman from Hutchinson pledged Pi Phi in 1898 at Colorado Alpha. Her own initiation came in on the exact date of the program—February 17, 1912, at Kansas Alpha.

She returned to her chapter just nine years later in the role of housemother and filled that role with charm and adequacy until 1923 when she married Arthur Lewis of Kansas City. Earlier that year she had attended the Pi Phi Convention at Estes Park, Colo., and rejoiced with her Kansas Alpha chapter when it won the coveted song cup with "My Pi Phi Girl."

Margueritte Graybill Lewis

In 1924 her son, Robert, was born while the Lewis's were living in Kansas City. Seven years later she was elected president of the Kansas City Alumnae Club and served in that capacity for two years, until she and her family returned to Hutchinson.

The Hutchinson Pi Phis had always enjoyed a happy relationship but without the benefit of a chartered alumnae club. Margueritte Lewis began immediately to sell her sisters on the merits of organizing such a club. Now, its members will tell you that it was due to her interest, inspiration and efforts that the Hutchinson Alumnae Club was chartered in 1940 with thirteen members signing the original application for the charter. The application for the charter, saved by the club, is written in Margueritte's handwriting. She was the club's president in the years 1942-44.

This brightest new link in Margueritte Graybill Lewis's golden chain of Pi Phi friendship was sealed in place with thoughtful letters and greetings from friends in twenty states—friends made as an active club member and as a Convention attendant in a series of happy experiences over the years.

An Invitation from . . .

THREE PI PHI "FAIR" LADIES

As spring turns the corner into summer, three busy Pi Phis in Seattle, Washington, will have turned another corner from their roles as planners to roles as participants in the Seattle World's Fair.

Georgia M. Gellert, Colorado Beta, Marjorie Thompson Strickland, Washington Alpha, and Barbara Bye, Washington Alpha, are hoping that among the millions of people expected at the big, bright exposition in Seattle will be many of their Pi Phi sisters and they have joined together to issue a warm invitation to "Come to the Fair."

Georgia Gellert is assistant to the Fair Exhibits Director, Donald I. Foster. Marjorie Strickland is secretary to Norman Davis, Fine Arts Director and Barbara Bye is secretary to Jay Rockey, Director of Public Relations for the Fair.

Miss Bye is the veteran of the trio insofar as tenure is concerned. She joined the Fair staff as Mr. Rockey's secretary in January 1960 when there were only some 30 people on the staff and has earned a reputation as one of the staff's most efficient workers.

Mrs. Strickland was caught up in the Fair's fascinating merry-go-round of preparation in June, 1961, when she was hired by Mr. Davis who is a Seattle businessman, world traveller, and art buyer. She had a wide field of experience in radio, TV and newspaper work, and now will be able to add a wealth of new knowledge about art when she has completed her stint with the Fair staff.

Mrs. Gellert is another veteran of the news media fields, including copy writing, society editing and publicity director experience. She joined the Fair staff in August, 1961.

The exhibits division's responsibility has been to lease exhibit space to all foreign governments and domestic commerce and industry. Georgia Gellert has worked closely with domestic commerce and industry and a particular interest has been a Fashion Pavilion and Interiors Pavilions sponsored by the American Institute of Decorators.

The Fashion Pavilion will feature four daily fashion shows sponsored by Vogue. These parades of fashion will take place around a perfumed pool. Surrounding the fashion show area will be exhibits by fiber, fabric and pattern companies, cosmetics and accessories of all kinds, all of which contribute to the "finished" woman as seen in the fashion shows.

"The theme," says Georgia Gellert, "will be to tell visitors why the American woman is the best-dressed woman in the world."

She describes her work as "exhausting, sometimes frustrating, but extremely rewarding" and says with a smile, "Why don't you come up and see the re-

Marjorie Strickland reports,

"The World of Art at the Seattle World's Fair will be strictly "Fine Arts," old and contemporary . . . we will have famous, even priceless works of art from the United States, the Continent of Europe, the Far East, and Canada. There will be the work of the "old masters," Titian, Van Gogh, Goya, Gauguin, Braque, Renoir and others, coming from great museums generously lending these precious works of art so that they may be enjoyed by most of the expected 7½ million visitors to the fair.

"The man in charge of selecting these "Masterpieces of Art" is Dr. William M. Milliken, director emeritus of the Cleveland Museum of Art and an internationally known authority on fine arts. Contemporary art or "Art since 1950," where the Brussels Fair left off, will be handled by William Sandberg, director of the Stedelijk Museum of Amsterdam, Holland and Sam Hunter, director of the Poses Institute of Fine Arts, Brandeis University, Waltham, Mass., who will select the international and American selections in modern art respectively."

This eighty-million dollar world's fair is also billed as Century-21—and it has keyed its opening and closing dates to that number. It began on April 21 and will run through October 21. Its theme is "The Space Age of the Future." Of this Mrs. Strickland says,

"We have the Space Needle, a 600-foot-high revolving restaurant with an unbeatable view of our town and its surrounding lakes and mountains; we have the huge Coliseum which will show what is expected of the future within its handsome walls; there will be the Swedish-inspired and consummated Monorail which will bring visitors to the fair rapidly from the major downtown area, a system that may become prevalent in many an American city in the future. These and many more are a part of our Forward Fair.

"But my particular part to play will be in the World of Art, in the Fine Arts Pavilion, which will be lodged between the Playhouse Theater and the Opera House—all exciting, permanent buildings that will add to Seattle in years to come. There will be the difficulties, the thrills, and the confusion of receiving, unpacking, checking, and placing of priceless works of art from all over the world in our own World of Art here—and I'm looking forward to it all!

"Come to the fair! It may sound, here and there, as if it were our fair. We are proud of it. But we here cannot lay claim to it—it was planned to be everybody's and it is everybody's."

Pi Phi Project

San Mateo Club Brightens Children's Wards

After the close of World War II when war work had just been gratefully laid aside, a new project was presented to San Mateo (California) County Pi Phi alumnae. Charlotte Johnson Benson, Indiana Alpha, had spent many hours in the children's ward of Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo where her young son had been a long time patient. She had learned how much music helped dispel the boredom of the long days, and how quickly the phonograph records became worn and scratchy. She proposed that the club provide new records for the ward at various times during the year. This happy idea was accepted unanimously by the members, and a "March of Pi Phi dimes" at each regular meeting has been used to finance the project.

For fifteen years Charlotte acted as chairman, purchasing agent and liaison with the hospital staff. When Peninsula Hospital was built in Burlingame the children's ward there was included in the gifts of records. Larger gifts have been made occasionally at Christmas time, one year a television set, and again a new stereo record player to replace one which has collapsed from long use. In 1960 Charlotte took on the larger job of president of the club, and much as she loved being a "big sister" to the children she turned over the chairmanship to Jessie Morton Wolfe, Wisconsin Alpha, who has carried on most capably. Now each hospital has an Auxiliary of young women, many of them Pi Phis, who assist in many ways, but the club continues its special interest.

A letter from R. D. Burness Jr., Administrator of Mills Hospital, tell of the enjoyment the young patients and staff had from Christmas records received from Pi Beta Phi alumnae, and how pleasing it was to discard the old records for new selections. He closes "We are most appreciative of the warm and friendly relations which have been maintained through the years with the Pi Phis. Thank you so much."

Golden Anniversary Observance at Convention

Pi Beta Phi's fifty years of inspired, rewarding, and nationally recognized endeavor at the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, will be celebrated officially by the fraternity at the 1962 Convention in Washington, D.C. It is sincerely hoped that as many as possible of the members of the fraternity who have worked with or for the Settlement School over the years, either on the committee or on the staff, will be able to attend Convention and will make themselves known when registering.

An especially gratifying recognition of Pi Beta Phi's achievement is the EXHIBIT to be placed for a full month in the Rotunda (the main entrance) of THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION from June 22 to July 21, 1962. An Arrowcraft weaver will be demonstrating at a loom both at the Smithsonian and at the Mayflower Hotel during the week of Convention. To have an institution of the stature of THE SMITHSONIAN acknowledge in such a manner the high quality of the products of our weavers and the leadership of the fraternity in this field is a signal honor; no Pi Phi attending Convention this year will want to miss this display. The fraternity in general, and the staff and committee of Settlement School in particular, acknowledge with sincere appreciation the foresight and the great amount of time and thought given to making the arrangements for this exhibit which Marie Lingo, D.C. Alpha, Delta Province Vice President, has devoted over the past two years. The official opening of the Exhibit will be noted by a reception on June 22, to which THE SMITHSONIAN will issue formal invitations to its regular mailing list and to others whom the fraternity will designate.

Fire Damage Described

When Zoe Saunders James attended the Fifty-Year celebration in Gatlinburg as the representative of the Settlement School Committee, she inspected the damage at Teachers' Cottage and reported to the Committee as follows, "Teachers' Cottage is a mess! You've seen logs in a fireplace only half burned. The exposed beams in the living room and in Nadine's office look like that. Doors that did not actually burn got so hot that the resin seeped out and is now dried. The men had pretty well cleaned up the debris on the second floor and in the attic, but the first floor still had ashes everywhere, the sofa looked like something that has been on a dump pile for years, and what windows are not broken are now brown. There are only a few actual breaks or holes in the structure of the house and they are next to or near the chimney, but everything is a charred and sad sight!"

The work to renovate the damaged building has begun and is to be finished in time for use as a dormitory for the Pi Beta Phi—University of Tennessee Craft Workshop, June 11 to July 17, 1962.

New Loom House

The new Loom House, or Weaving Studio, is under construction at this time to be completed in time for use at the 1962 summer Craft Workshop. This building has been a serious need for some time, if the Craft Workshop were to expand, if the possibilities for other workshops at all times of the year were to be displayed, and to save wear and tear on the looms which have had to be dismantled and moved twice a year. Thus another dream of those who know so well the needs and the possibilities of our national philanthropy is being realized.

AT GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM—In the tableau presented at the program (see pages 14-15), Winogene Redding, weaving instructor, reenacted the scene when she had Mrs. Lee Johnson in her first class. Miss Redding was the first weaving teacher in 1925 and has been with Arrowcraft at various times for a total of over 20 years.

Nora Kizer Reigns as College May Queen

Queen Nora

A college career sparkling with academic and extra-curricular accomplishment was crowned with one of the outstanding honors accorded a Randolph-Macon Woman's College student for Virginia Alpha Pi Phi, Nora Kizer, this spring when she was named Queen of the May Court.

Nora's classic beauty and warm personality had earned her election to the R-M May Court in her freshman, sophomore and junior years, as well as a place in the feature section of the school annual, The Helianthus in those years.

Her scholastic achievements brought her a place on the Dean's list in her sophomore, junior and senior years and membership in Pi, secret honorary society and in her senior year she has served as head of that society. In her Junior Year she was a Junior Usher, which is an academic distinction.

The 1962 May Queen's extra-curricular activities have covered a wide range on and off campus. She is a member of Sock and Buskin, dramatics club and has been a member of the International Relations Club and Y.W.C.A. She was an Assistant Training Group Leader in her junior year. That year she also served as Fashion Editor of the School literary magazine and was chosen business manager of Behind the Red Brick Wall, a brochure for incoming freshmen.

Off campus honors that have come to Nora have included serving on the Mademoiselle College Board in her freshman year and then being among the five R-M students selected to appear as models in the Mademoiselle January issue in 1961, her junior year. During her sophomore year she was a princess in the West Virginia Forest Festival. In the fall of her senior year she represented Sigma Alpha Epsilon as its candidate for Homecoming Queen at Washington and Lee University.

Nora pledged Pi Phi at Randolph-Macon in 1958. She was vice-president of her pledge class and received the pledge scholarship award. She was chapter historian the following year and had been elected treasurer the spring that college authorities voted to remove sororities from the campus.

She has majored in philosophy and has been a student assistant in the Philosophy Department this year. Her minor is music and she has taken both piano and organ since her freshman year and has appeared frequently in student recitals.

Nora, who is from Charleston, West Virginia, has yet to make a decision about her future plans—but they could lead to achievements in still another field since she has been accepted for study by both Duke University and Yale University Law Schools.

Marion Link Receives Top SU Alumni Award

Marion Clayton Link, New York Alpha Pi Phi, has been awarded the Syracuse University George Arents Pioneer Medal, given annually to three SU Alumni. The award was made to Mrs. Link for "excellence in her chosen profession," and recognized her work as an underwater archeologist, author and newspaperwoman as well as her devoted service as a wife and mother.

Mrs. Link is a 1929 graduate of the Syracuse University School of Journalism. After her graduation she was a reporter for the Binghamton Press for two years before her marriage to Edwin Link, an aviation engineer. He became the developer of the famed Link trainer so widely used during World War II. Today he is the head of the Link Aeronautical Co. and the General Precision Equipment Corporation in Binghamton.

The Links have become internationally known for their underwater explorations that have included the sunken port of Caesarea off the coast of Israel, a search of sunken galleons near the coast of Haiti, and a retracing of the discovery route taken by Columbus. Some experts believe that they discovered the anchor of Columbus' Santa Maria which was wrecked Christmas night, 1492.

Mrs. Link wrote a book Sea Diver, which is about her archeological experiences in the Caribbean, and has also had articles on the subject in Life and National Geographic.

The Arents Medal presentation is usually made during commencement week activities, but Mrs. Link was unable to be present last June because she and her husband were on an expedition in the Mediterranean. She received the award in ceremonies following a formal reception and dinner in her honor at the Hotel Syracuse on January 11, 1962. Chancellor William P. Tolley made the presentation. The citation read,

"Marion Clayton Link, member of the class of 1929, Pi Beta Phi and Theta Sigma Phi, the promise of your undergraduate leadership has been fulfilled. You have combined your skill as a journalist, energy as a leader, and intellectual curiosity to the creation of enduring values. Nothing that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is under the waters has been beyond your interest.

"Following your graduation from Syracuse, you were employed as a reporter by the Binghamton Press. Two years later you married Edwin A. Link, Jr. and worked with him in the pioneering contributions of Link Aviation to pilot training and air safety. Together you have reared two fine sons, William Martin and Edwin Clayton Link.

"Your avocation of submarine exploration and marine archeology has been shared with a wide audience through Life, the National Geographic, and in 1959 the publication of your own book, Sea Diver. You have contributed enormously to historical knowledge through exploration of the Santa Maria, of the British frigate Looe, and of Herod's Harbor at Caesarea."

Hays, Kansas Tradition Comes "Home" to Founder

A unique Pi Phi tradition in Hays, Kansas came home quite literally this fall to the front door of the Pi Phi who originated the idea some twenty years ago.

It was Ann Horton Jeter, Kansas Alpha, who instigated the idea of doing something special for Pi Phi pledges on their first trip home to Hays after pledging. Her idea was to trim the door at the home of the pledge as a Pi Phi greeting.

Through the years the tradition has prevailed and this year Ann's daughter, Margaret Ann, was pledged to Kansas Alpha. On Margaret's first weekend at home after her pledging she found the front door of her home decorated with a silver blue background, with the welcome in wine and a gold "jeweled arrow" replete with chain. The decoration had been done by Marianna Beach and Betty Stewart, Kansas Beta members.

Leota Motz, Kansas Alpha and publisher of the Hays Daily News, says that the tradition is original with Hays alumnae and as far as anyone knows is an "exclusive" one with the fifteen or so Pi Phis who live in Hays.

A wine and blue homecoming for Margaret Ann Jeter.

SHE HAS A TALENT FOR LEADERSHIP

Agnes Hilderbrand Leonard

by Nancy Bodwell, Virginia Alpha of Mortar Board, and served on the Panhellenic Council. She was selected for L. S. V., which is the highest honor given Missouri U women students, and she was tapped for membership in the Education honorary, Pi Lambda Theta.

After her graduation from college, Agnes was instrumental in forming a bridge club of her former Pi Beta Phi college friends, and this group still meets regularly in Kansas City. Among its members are such notables as Pi Phi's national historian, Marian Keck Simmons (Mrs. Oliver), and two past Epsilon Province vice presidents, Margaret Foster (Mrs. John M.) and Katherine Lyons (Mrs. Donald E.).

Agnes Hilderbrand Leonard, Missouri Alpha Pi Phi, has a talent for leadership and the energy to share that talent with a wide variety of groups.

Currently she is completing a term (1961-62) as president of the Panhellenic Association of Greater Kansas City. She has given the undertaking her interest and support and a recently completed project under her direction was a joint meeting of Deans of Women of nearby colleges and universities and Kansas City area alumnae group rush chairmen. Six Deans came to the meeting.

Agnes has friends in every section of the Pi Phi world, many of them made during her attendance at eight different conventions. She represented Missouri Alpha as a chapter delegate to the 1925 convention at Bigwin Inn, Lake of Bays, and since then had attended seven more at Breezy Point, Pasadena, Yellowstone Park, Edgewater Beach, Houston, Miami (where she was chairman of the Awards Banquet) and Swampscott (in 1958). She is the former Province President, having served old Epsilon from 1933-38, and was Chapter Letter Editor of the ARROW from 1927 until 1933.

That talent for leadership was evident when Agnes Leonard was a student at the University of Missouri majoring in history and education. She was secretary of the Women's Student Government, President of the Y.W.C.A., May Queen, a member

For two consecutive years 1950-53, Agnes capably led the Kansas City Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club as president, and for the last two money-raising projects of the club, she has been the energetic and enthusiastic ticket chairman. She also was the president of the Missouri Alpha Pi Beta Phi Mother's Club of Kansas City in 1959.

This indefatigable Pi Phi also finds time for a great variety of community and civic interests which include serving as general chairman of the United Fund Drive, member of the Board of Women's Auxiliary of the Rehabilitation Institute, PTA officer, Junior and Senior Sponsor for the Girl's Club in Southwest High School and a member of the Second Presbyterian Church. Because of her enthusiasm for gardening, she was the founder, a charter member and president of the Holmes Wood Garden Club. Another claim to her interest is art and she is a member of the Kansas City Art Institute, Friends of Art and the Art Institute Gardening Club.

Agnes is the wife of Kansas City attorney, George W. W. Leonard, who is the general counsel of the National Manufacturing Company. They have one daughter, Travis Daniel Reichmann, whose husband, George, is now attending the University of Missouri Law School and there is now a granddaughter to call for a good bit of Agnes's time these days, one-year old, Elaine Ann Reichmann.

Catherine McKinney Butler

Midwest Authority on Near East

Catherine McKinney Butler, Oklahoma Alpha Pi Phi, was described this spring as a "midwestern authority on the Near East." The assessment is heartily endorsed by the many groups across the nation which have heard Mrs. Butler as a lecturer with the International Associated Clubs.

Her lectures this year have stressed the importance of the Near East and she has been able to bring her listeners a graphic word picture of conditions there having recently made her fourth trip to that section of the world. This latest trip took her to Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, Israel and Turkey. While in Israel she attended the Eichmann trial.

The brilliant lecturer, who combines charm and eloquence in a rare blend, is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma where she was named to membership in Phi Beta Kappa. She majored in English and speech and did graduate work in speech at both Northwestern and Columbia Universities. She formerly headed the Speech Arts Department at Oklahoma City's Classen High.

She is a lifelong student of the Bible and has been a Sunday School teacher since she was 19. Her father was a pioneer Baptist minister in Oklahoma and she is married to John Francis Butler, Oklahoma City attorney.

Catherine McKinney Butler

Mrs. Butler's approach to her subject is to relate the history and background of the region to existing conditions there. She says,

"We may accept many of the economic problems of the area, but the religious problem is more involved since Moslems, Jews, Christians and Russian atheists live side by side."

She cites the contributions of the Hebrew nation to the religions of the world and brings attention to the fact that Jewish, Christian and Moslem faiths were through Hebrew traditions.

Mrs. Butler has described herself as "a realist who believes in the future, enjoys the present and studies the past."

FELLOWSHIP WINNER—Marian Hauke, Oregon Gamma Pi Phi, has been awarded a Rotary Foundation Fellowship for International Study in 1962-63. Marian was also tapped for Mortar Board this year.

Carol Jones

Carol Jones and Lynn Hammond—Top Dickinson Duo

Pennsylvania Gammas Carol E. Jones and E. Lynn Hammond are senior students whose records at Dickinson College have reflected the highest honor on both their college and their sorority.

Carol won the coveted title of Senior Sophister of Dickinson for 1961-62. This award made by the Board of Trustees goes to the highest ranking junior student and carries with it a full-tuition scholarship for the final year. Her qualifying average during that junior year was a 3.9 of a possible 4.

Carol is majoring in French and her minors are Spanish and education. She is also a member of the feature staff of the college yearbook, Microcosm. She has qualified as a college level tutor in French and is also doing her students practice teaching in French.

She has an active role in planning the French film program at Dickinson.

Carol has been her Pi Phi chapter's historian, its scholarship chairman and has served on executive council.

What Carol does for French, Lynn does for English. She is majoring in that subject with a minor in education and foreign languages. She has a perfect 4 average in all of her English hours and a 3.5

overall average. She is currently doing honors work on Shakespeare's use of poetry.

Lynn won the freshman award for the first year student with the highest English record. Last year she was tapped for membership in Wheel and Chain, a Dickinson equivalent to Mortar Board, with selection for membership based on scholarship, outstanding leadership and activities and service to the college.

She takes a role of active leadership in campus religious activities. She is a member of the Student Christian Association and serves as its secretary, fellowship chairman and on its cabinet. She is executive secretary of this year's "Religion-In-Life Week" which means she will have a key role in organizing a week-long session that will feature talks by prominent clergymen along with discussions of controversial questions. She also is a member of the Dickinson Religious Affairs Council, which is the coordinating body of all religious groups on campus, serving as its student body opinion representative.

Lynn has been a member of her Pi Phi Chapter executive council, served as junior Panhellenic Delegate and editor of the Arrowette, chapter pamphlet of activities and news. She served this year as vice-president and chairman of the Arrow Board.

Santa Rosa, California's "Lady of the Year"

by Ruth McKay Eck, Illinois E

Lucile McKay Kelly (Mrs. Paul B.) of Washington Beta ('14) was recently voted "Lady of the Year" by the directors of the Greater Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce and received a presentation of a sterling silver box, so inscribed, at their annual dinner. The award goes to the lady citizen who, during the current year, has contributed most to the Santa Rosa fields of art, music, health and welfare, business or education, or a combination of these.

Lucile received the award in recognition of her establishment of The Paul B. Kelly Memorial Cardiopulmonary Institute in Santa Rosa as a tribute to her late husband, a prominent timberman who suffered from a heart disease. The $125,000 Institute is a clinic and laboratory devoted: to the diagnosis and treatment of heart, blood vessel, lung and allied disorders; to research and study designed to improve such diagnosis and treatment; to the instruction of all interested physicians in the techniques involved. The Institute is connected by a long corridor to the Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital.

The facilities are available to all patients regardless of their financial situation, and to every physician in Sonoma County who has need of the Institute's facilities for his patients, or has the desire to participate in the clinical or academic programs. It will be staffed by one trained and experienced specialist—a cardiovascular physiologist—and by voluntary services of physicians. Patients of all ages will be treated. The operation of the Memorial will be supervised by the Board of Directors, composed of both medical and nonmedical members who bring qualifications in the many skills required for proper administration. The Institute is a nonprofit corporation, supported by tax-exempt grants and contributions.

Lucile is also a tireless worker in many other fields as well. Among her civic activities, she is active with youth organizations, being a member of the Santa Rosa Camp Fire Girls Council, a Director of the Santa Rosa "Boy's Club" plus being a member of the Red Cross Finance Committee.

In politics she serves as an associate member of the Sonoma County Republican Central Committee; a member of the Executive Committee of the Federation of Republican Women of Sonoma County; and has been a member of the California Republican State Central Committee for many years. In addition she was Co-Chairman of the Sonoma County "Nixon for President" Campaign in 1960.

Lucile McKay Kelly

In the business world Lucile is the sole owner and manager of the Paul B. Kelly Development Company which built fifty miles of heavy duty access highway for a very large body of timber—2 or more billion feet—which enabled the marketing of this timber that heretofore had been inaccessible. This is operated as a toll road, belonging exclusively to the Paul B. Kelly Development Company. She is owner and manager also of the Paul B. Kelly Timber Company that is marketing around 3 million feet of redwood and fir.

Pi Beta Phi, too, has truly enjoyed her many talents, for she has been a dedicated Settlement School Chairman for four years, has served as Chairman and Hostess for a literary sorority luncheon and has served as club president. Her beautiful home, a recipient of many architectural honor awards, featured in Life, Sunset, other national magazines and television, has been the scene of Bay Area Art Exhibits, Panhellenic Teas, Settlement School Sales and our very own Cookie-shines.

Indeed, Lucile is a "Lady of the Year" every year.

Anna Sloan

Pi Phi Politician

by La Nita Joyce Jordan, Washington Gamma

Anna Sloan, an active Pi Beta Phi from Washington Gamma, has been outstanding in her college career. During her freshman and sophomore years at the University of Puget Sound she was an asset to the chapter as Activities Chairman, and later, as historian. Her artistic abilities delighted many as Virginia Marie, a tiny white kitten, pattered over the pages of the history.

Campus activities captured Anna in many varied positions. She was historian for her freshman dorm, and on the standards board of the dorm. As Student Christian Council delegate, she was chairman of the Lenten Services. For her own enjoyment she joined the Chinook Club, a skiing club. Outstanding in many fields, she was named Honorary Junior Member of the National Association for the Advancement of Science. Her creativity was challenged when she joined the newly formed Co-Rec Committee of Central Board which planned the recreation programs to be sponsored in the recreation room of the new student center.

In politics she was a leader for the Evergreen Conference Student Association Convention which plays host to the student body officers of the schools in the Evergreen Conference.

Washington Gamma was sad to have Anna transfer to the University of Washington, but her charming personality and diverse talents have held her in good standing. As a junior transfer student to a large university she easily could have been lost in the shuffle; but she pitched right in. She wrote articles for Dimensions, the Thursday edition of the University of Washington daily paper. And, soon she was elected as an officer of Austin House, her section in the dorm. She was elected to the Women's Inter-House Council, and was awarded the chairmanship of the Standards Committee. Because of her exceptional ability she was elected Second Vice-president of the Associated Women Students after just one quarter of work at the university. As Second Vice-president of the Women Students she has one of eighteen seats on the student body Board of Control. She is AWS Standards Council Advisor and serves on the AWS Standards Revision Committee.

She is a member of the HUB (student center) Operating Committee of ASUW. And, she is the only girl member of the Ad Hoc Political Union Committee which promotes campus interest in politics.

This fall she worked in the office of Senator Jackson from Washington. As political science major with a 'B' average in her academic work, Anna is already on the political road to success.

Pi Phi Tapped as State Fund Drive "Mother of Year"

Five years of dedicated work in the National Foundation's fund raising programs in Arkansas brought recognition to a Missouri Beta Pi Phi in December, 1961. Jean Ann Rosenbaum Morris (Mrs. Robert) was selected as the Arkansas "March

Calling Pi Phis in Puerto Rico

There's a Pi Phi search on in a tropical isle in the Caribbean. Currently nine sisters of the wine and blue are in touch and they are seeking more. The nine are: Peggy Nichols Zonneville, D.C. Alpha; Marilyn Legge, Boydston, Nebraska Beta; Sue Dabbs Tippetts, Florida Beta; Doris Ray Pullen, North Dakota Alpha; Rae Pullen Alexakos, New York Delta; Jane Ottman, Michigan Delta; Barbara Oak Robinson, Massachusetts Alpha; Nancy Hemphill Dawson, Nebraska Beta and Jeannie Sinnock Glinski, Indiana Delta.

The number grew from two to nine after placing a "calling all Pi Phis" ad in the San Juan Star. The nine think there may be more sisters on the island or headed that way and would like for them to get in touch by writing to: Mrs. Richard E. Glinski, 483 De Diego Ave., Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico.

of Dimes Mother of the Year" by state representatives of the Foundation.

Mrs. Morris, who received her undergraduate degree at Washington University, and her masters degree at Texas Tech, is a resident of Scott, Ark., and a member of the Little Rock Pi Phi Alumnae Club.

She has been Lonoke County campaign director of the March of Dimes for five years and has also worked on the state level in planning the Foundation campaigns.

This year she participated in a weekend Tele-rama for the Drive on Little Rock's ABC station, KATV, that featured such Hollywood stars as McDonald Carey, Cathy Nolan, Peter Brown, and Roger Smith. The show netted $41,000 for the fund drive.

The attractive Mrs. Morris is the mother of two young sons. She frequently appears on Little Rock television shows as a fashion model and is a member of that city's First Methodist Church Choir.

On the Subject of Sponsorship

The strength of a fraternity can be measured in the depth of cooperation that exists between all of its members in every area of its activity. There is a special need for this cooperation in the realm of sponsorship of prospective members. The purpose of this article is to remind the fraternity at large how Pi Beta Phi's system of references and sponsorship works. If there is a clear understanding of mutual concerns alumnae and active chapter members can work together for the best interests of the fraternity.

Many Pi Phis initiated before the quota system came into general use fail to understand that on most campuses today the chapter is given a set quota on the number of girls it can pledge. The number to be "cut" from the rush first after each party is also given so that it is not possible for a chapter to entertain every girl who is recommended to them.

It is not uncommon for a chapter to have 500 to 800 rushees and a quota of 20. They must start eliminating after an open house, at which time forty girls often try to look at 600 rushees and decide which ones they wish to invite again. This makes the Alumnae Reference material very valuable because an honest appraisal of the relative potential of several girls from a community makes this first screening much easier. The chapter learns to depend upon alumnae who recommend girls with the proper qualifications. The chapter's job is not an easy one because there are so many desirable girls that their list could be filled many times with fine pledges.

An individual Pi Phi who wishes to recommend a girl should make her appraisal realistic in view of the great numbers a chapter must entertain. Is the girl really fraternity material? Is she suited to group living? Will she add to the chapter the strength it needs. Is she a good scholar? Will she make her grades for initiation? Will she be willing to continue to work for the Fraternity upon graduation? All of these questions should be answered by the individual in her own mind before she gives a chapter a recommendation.

The rushee from a town with an alumnae club receives this preliminary evaluation from the alumnae club recommendations committee. This committee can function very well in towns of moderate size and cities where interested alumnae will cooperate. The work can be divided by high schools, so that an honest judgment is the result. In our largest urban communities, the responsibility becomes very great. This brings the emphasis back to the individual. Every Pi Beta Phi alumna should feel responsible for knowing girls in her community who are good prospective members. She should look up the name of her recommendation committee chairman in the ARROW. If her city has a club, the consent to bid must be signed by the recommendations committee. The chapter has the final right of appeal to the Grand President on a refusal of consent to bid.

The state membership chairman does not sign consents to bid but she does secure information on prospective members from towns in the state where there are no chartered alumnae clubs.

The reference blank included in this issue of the ARROW is one that may be used by individual Pi Phis. It should be sent to the chapter concerned or to a local recommendations committee. On the pages that follow are listed the names and addresses of chapter rush chairmen, alumnae club recommendations chairmen and state membership chairmen.

With the cooperation of all Pi Phis in this important matter it will be possible to have a continuing membership of outstanding women in the fraternity world.

Pi Phis on the Map

Six new arrow flags have been added to the Alumnæ Club map since January, 1962 ranging from Florida to Montana. This brings the total of chartered alumnæ clubs to a proud 316.

The clubs are in Hollywood, Florida; Gainesville, Florida; Ocala, Florida; Savannah, Georgia; Billings, Montana, and Altus, Oklahoma.

The club in Altus is the latest to join the Pi Phi chain of friendship. Adele Alford Heink, ARROW Chapter Letter editor, moved early in the year to Altus and inspired the chartering of the club. Adele has several clubs to her credit. As she has moved about the country, she has been the inspiration for the chartering of new clubs.

The clubs and their officers are:

Paging 70,000 Pi Phis

Paging 70,000 Pi Beta Phis!! Have you answered the Centennial Call? Success depends upon each of you. Pi Beta Phi will establish a Philanthropy in 1967 to commemorate our one hundredth anniversary. This philanthropic project should in no way affect our support and loyalty for our established projects and scholarship funds, but should be a new challenge and adventure into a worthwhile legacy to our century by our generation. Participation in good works by Pi Phi should not end on Graduation Day! Stand up and be counted today. Send your share of voluntary donations to establish our million dollar dream. Your share? Simply divide one million dollars by 70,000 and send your share a dollar at a time or in full in one donation, but do send it, sisters in the Wine and Blue, and prove to the skeptics that our dream can become a reality!

Alumnæ and Clubs, please send your donations to your Province Vice-President (refer to your ARROW for name and address). Chapters, please send donations to Centennial Fund Treasurer, Mrs. Theodore N. Shreve, 417 Leyden Street, Denver 20, Colorado.

PAULA REAGAN MCDOWELL (MRS. THOS. J.)

FROM Pi Phi Pens

Edited by Mary Elizabeth Lasher Barnette, Ohio A

NANCY McLARTY, Chain of Death, Doubleday & Company, Inc., 192 pp.

There's a feeling of being behind some very current headlines in this cloak and dagger mystery with its setting Guatemala and its theme the corrosive effects of sub rosa communism. Chain of Death is a first novel for Miss McLarty, and the author had the good fortune of achieving Crime Club status with it, so she will be introduced at once to a large audience of dedicated mystery fans. The good fortune should be mutual, for, as an initial effort, this book is definitely above average.

It has such standard equipment as beautiful, poised, and intelligent Colin McLeod, a reporter on vacation, and handsome, resourceful, and intelligent Scott Hamilton, a lawyer on a mission.

It also has some delux extras including several minor characters interestingly developed and effective descriptive passages so colorful that it comes as no surprise that the author wrote this after a tour of South America.

Above all this is reading for fun and relaxation.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Although philosophy was her major at Sophie Newcomb College, where she was a member of Louisiana Alpha, Nancy McLarty has been involved in public relations activities, both professional and volunteer since her 1947 graduation. After serving as assistant director of public relations for the Port of New Orleans she returned to her native Atlanta, Ga., where she has promoted both the Metropolitan Opera's annual season there and Atlanta's Theatre-under-the-Stars, and where in 1955 she formed her own agency. More recently travel, writing, and golf have occupied her.

MARY RAY ROBERTS, Wagon Train of '43, Exposition Press, 47 pp.

One hundred and nineteen years ago the first large train of over one hundred covered wagons left Independence, Mo., for the Oregon Territory, and unbeknownst to the sturdy, determined pioneers who manned them provided subject matter for the inspiration of enumerable twentieth century movie and television script writers.

There has been so much embellishment and distortion, that Miss Roberts' forthright children's book is refreshing to read, and it is to be hoped that the youngsters who read it will appreciate that fortitude, persistence, and job competence contributed far more to the train's success than did flashy Indian fighting techniques.

Nancy McLarty

AUTHOR INTEREST: One of five Pi Phi sisters, whose mother is also a member, Mary Ray Roberts was initiated into Colorado Beta in 1939 and received both Bachelor and Master of Music from Denver University. For nine years she taught cello and piano at the university, but since then she has been a public school music teacher, for the last five years in Portland, Ore. Her fondness for travel has taken her to Europe, Hawaii, Canada, and Mexico and in imagination along the Oregon Trail.

RANDOM NOTES: A Broadway play has been made of the book, Death of a Man, in which several years ago LAEL TUCKER WERTENBAKER, Kentucky Alpha, described frankly, movingly, and for many, shockingly, the devastating attack of cancer on her husband Charles Wertenbaker, reporter, editor, and novelist. Garson Kanin authored the play, "A Gift of Time," which opened in February at the Ethel Barrymore theater with Henry Fonda and Olivia de Havilland in the principal roles. New Yorker magazine critic John McCarten says the play "exploits the shock impact of cancer to the fullest degree" and is full of praise for Fonda, but he feels the play falls short of establishing Wertenbaker "as the kind of man of charm, consequence, and talent (all of these, incidentally, Wertenbaker had) who might excite our sympathy."

Mrs. Wertenbaker's work was first reviewed here in 1952 when her novel, Lament for Four Virgins, appeared. She has worked for Fortune, Life and Time, where her late husband was foreign editor at the time of their marriage.

Alumnae LETTERS

Edited by Virginia Sherman Kozak, New York A

ALPHA PROVINCE

BERKSHIRE COUNTY

The lovely colonial Crane Inn was the setting for the September meeting honoring Mrs. Louise Beggs, province vice president. Contributions to Settlement School and Holt House were discussed and an increase in local dues was decided upon to help the nearest active chapter, Massachusetts B at Amherst, as well as national contributions. A bank account had been started last year to give the Massachusetts B chapter a worthwhile gift for their house. Plans were formulated for the Settlement School Tea to be held in the Spring.

The November meeting was held at the home of Mary Jane Bender in Lenox. The Pi Beta Phi Constitution and History was the subject discussed by president Grace Hutchins and a surprise quiz followed. The members selected Settlement School goods and these were ordered and displayed and sold at the Settlement School Tea held April 7 at the home of Betty Walker Gaither in Pittsfield. Each member sent in a list of names and invitations were sent to those friends of the members. It was delightful to have as a guest, Betty Gaither, mother of Ruth Pyle Walker, charter member of Nevada A.

Founders' Day, as has been the custom, Vivian Moss opened her lovely home for a buffet dinner. Many members unable to make many of the meetings because of the distances involved, joined us on this occasion.

JEAN CARYER LOVEJOY

BURLINGTON

The Burlington Alumnae Club was guided through a very enjoyable and profitable year by the president, Sally Hackett. One special project was a campaign for contributions to be used toward the redecoration of the chapter room. Alumnae from far and near responded generously. The actives have been delighted with the bright decor and functional furnishings.

Lois Horsford of Charlotte opened her beautiful home in the country for the first meeting in September. Janet Preston supervised the buffet supper. Alumnae had previously expressed a desire to become better acquainted with actives. Consequently, sophomores were invited. Their attendance proved they welcomed such an opportunity. Mrs. Harry G. Beggs, province vice president, was a special guest. Peggy Van Dine gave an interesting report of her trip to Gatlinburg, supplementing it with slides which she had taken. Janice Cole, sophomore, told some of her exciting experiences as Miss Vermont at Atlantic City.

Kay Blakely's spacious home made a wonderful setting for the November Settlement School Sale. Jean Pease was chairman assisted by Barbara Hunt. It was a delightful social affair and financially a great success. Alumnae and actives with their friends enjoyed refreshments, selected beautiful Arrow Craft articles, and purchased delicious food made from members' favorite recipes.

In December, alumnae of K A Ø were entertained. Jean Pease presented a very interesting program. She illustrated her talk with some of the slides she had taken while working in the United States Foreign Assistance Program to Southeast Asia.

The March meeting was held in Essex Junction at the home of Marian Marvin. Mr. Stephen Moore, husband of a member, gave an informative talk on "Mortgages" with particular reference to the chapter house problem.

Middlebury alumnae and actives joined with the club and actives in celebrating Founders' Day at a luncheon meeting. Miss Mary Jean Simpson, former Dean of Women at the University of Vermont, gave an inspiring talk on "The Value of Women's Fraternities To-Day."

Gwen Aiken's home, located on the shore of Lake Champlain, was the meeting place in May. Marjorie Vanderventer assisted as chairman of the buffet supper. New officers were installed. The club paid tribute to the seniors and welcomed them as alumnae.

Another successful year will be concluded with the traditional June Spread at the chapter house with Betty Dowe serving as chairman.

HELEN BARBARA HUNT

EASTERN CONNECTICUT

The first meeting of the year to be held by the Eastern Connecticut Alumnae Club was at the home of the President, Mrs. Barbara Heditian.

In October we held our Settlement School Sale in the Storrs Community House and served tea and cookies to provide a festive occasion. The active chapter was invited to join us in having a booth to display and sell their Settlement School articles. We feel very happy as the results of this sale shows we sold approximately $425 of Arrowcraft articles. The actives also had a successful sale.

We were very proud this year to have the opportunity and honor of presenting one of our members, Mrs. Lois Bristol, membership in the order of the Golden Arrow of Pi Beta Phi.

In November the Alumnae Advisory Committee joined with the girls at the Pi Beta Phi Chapter House for a Workshop Meeting which proved to be extremely beneficial for the year's activities.

In December, the Patrons, Patronesses, and A. A. C. members were invited to the Chapter House to enjoy with the actives their festive Peanut Party, a most delightful affair.

This Club works very closely with the Connecticut A Active Chapter so on February 24, a Brunch was held at the home of Ada Hawkins in honor of all the new pledges. Slides of Holt House were shown and enjoyed. This was a most happy affair and it was a great pleasure to meet such an outstanding group of girls.

Girls from the active chapter are invited to join us at our April meeting at the home of Harriet Ecker.

Our Founders' Day Banquet was held at the Storrs Community House. Members from all Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Clubs in the State and Connecticut A joined together for this grand and unforgettable occasion.

ADA TOWLE HAWKINS

EASTERN MAINE

During the 1961-62 year the Eastern Maine Alumnae Club has had many enjoyable meetings with Maine A. The activities have been many and varied and I'm sure we have all gained from the cooperative planning.

Our season started off during the summer with a picnic at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brush at Ledge Hill in Orono. At this get together we met sisters who were back for summer school plus the actives and alumnae who were able to attend. We enjoyed the report on the meeting at Gatlinburg. The September meeting was held at the home of our president and the program for the coming year was presented. October saw the arrival of some crisp cold weather and a very warm and interesting visit from our province vice president Mrs. Harry Beggs. The bowpinning supper for the actives was held in December and we were happy to take part in greeting the new pledges. Again we were aided by the Portland Alumnae Club in giving this. In February we met with the actives in their lovely chapter room. We played a few games and had some refreshments. It is always fun to meet informally with the girls. This year we had our own "Beau Night" with a dinner for our husbands during the month of March. In April we had a very lovely and inspiring banquet with the actives to celebrate Founders' Day. The final meeting was held in May and we had the installation of Officers for 1962-63. We left looking forward to the next year and many more worthwhile activities.

We made contributions to Holt House, Settlement School and to the Hospitality and Emma Harper Turner Funds. We also sent a contribution to a new province scholarship award.

DOROTHY WILLIAMS BICK

GREATER BOSTON

The Boston Alumnae Club under the able leadership of their president Miriam Doane had an interesting and diversified year. A dinner buffet in September at the home of Kerry Glass served as a welcome to all new members and the actives of Boston University. Mrs. Louise Beggs, A Province Vice President, attended our Settlement School meeting at the home of Lois Stone in October. Midred Wilde supervised the Arrowcraft Sale after the meeting. Japanese flower arranging under the direction of Mrs. Helen Von Sneider in November gave each of us ideas for our holiday decorating. Barbara Hankins was the hostess for this delightful evening. Pi Beta Phis and husbands spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Kerry Glass in December by opening the holiday season with a buffet dinner. Miss Marsha James spoke to us about her part with "Operations Crossroad" in Africa. Their project was to help construct a school house and this was greatly appreciated by the natives. February found the Boston Alumnae at the home of Carol Thatch in Cambridge. Mr. Barret Williams lectured to us on "Highlights of New England" giving us ideas for tours throughout the Boston area. Election of Officers and History and Constitution were reviewed at the March meeting. Afterwards we all took part in the traditional cooky-shine. The Boston Alumnae and West Suburban Alumnae Clubs in conjunction with Boston University actives celebrated Founders' Day at the Charter House in Waltham on April 28.

Throughout the year husband and wife bridge nights have been scheduled monthly and the turnout has been exceptional. We also have monthly bridge nights for Pi Beta Phi alumnae which has met with unlimited response. Two Arrowcraft "coffees" were held in October at the homes of Miriam Doane and Carrie Jones. Both were well attended and netted us $500.

May found husbands, children, and alumnae at the home of Nancy Zuelke in Lincoln. A picnic and cookout was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. With the Installation of New Officers in May a most enjoyable and successful year came to a close.

JAN McLAUGHLIN HOGIE

HALIFAX

Our first get together this Fall was a dessert and coffee party on October 12 to entertain Mrs. H. G. Beggs, our provincial vice president. Her flight was delayed so the meeting was unavoidably short, but pleasant and profitable. Because of our geographical situation it is very easy to begin to feel very remote in the Pi Beta Phi scheme of things and so our visitors are always especially welcome.

Our major interest here is always the local active chapter. We have a wonderful group now, fifty girls in all, a much larger chapter than we have had at Dalhousie in some time. They are lovely girls, active, attractive and doing well on campus and we are very proud of them. They have recently been given the use of a lovely old home here for their meetings and equipment.

Because University regulations insist that girls remain in residence, Nova Scotia A has never had a house and this is a happy solution for them. Recently the actives entertained the alumnae club in their new home and introduced them to their kind hostess, Dr. Roberta Bond Nichols.

In January we held a buffet supper for members and discussed money raising projects so our next meeting will take the form of a Dutch Auction. Following that, in early May, we entertain the Chapter in our annual coffee party to honour the graduates.

JEAN HARRINGTON

HARTFORD

The Hartford Alumnae Club has enjoyed an increasing acquaintance with our nearest active chapter, Connecticut A; a number of actives were with us for our April meeting, thus giving us a greater understanding of the chapter, of college life 1962, and of ways in which we could help the actives. A wardrobe closet was given for their initiation robes. In June, at Senior Farewell, we happily presented a silver bracelet to the graduating senior who had shown greatest all around improvement during her years as an active.

A delightful December evening was provided when our members of twenty five years standing reenacted a cooky-shine and meeting from the good ole days. What fun they had!

Representatives from three Panhellenic sororities joined us in February telling us about their group's history and philanthropies. This program has been very informative and enthusiastically received for a few years now. We believe other alumnae clubs would enjoy this inter-sorority exchange also.

A visit from Mrs. Beggs, a showing of Settlement School slides; and a lively current events discussion rounded out our program for the year.

CHARLOTTE BRASH HAMLIN

MANCHESTER

Our year began in September with a pot luck supper at the home of our president, Jean Weiss, followed in October by a Teacup Auction which netted $52 for our Ways and Means Committee. In November, we held a combined meeting with the Hartford Alumnae Club due to the visit of Louise Beggs, our province vice president. Our Men's Night which was also scheduled for November was unfortunately snowed out. Hazardous driving conditions kept attendance to a minimum at our December Christmas meeting, but those who attended enjoyed the fun and games despite the weather.

We began the new year with an interesting "visit to Settlement School" provided by Adele Wright of the Hartford Club. Our February meeting, a workshop for the Founders' Day Banquet, was postponed a week due to snow. In March we enjoyed a wonderful program of ideas for Children's parties presented by Jackie Iseninger.

April found us very busy in our role as hostess for the State Founders' Day Banquet. Our committees had put a lot of time and hard work into planning the Founders' Day Banquet and were greatly rewarded with a very successful day. At the May meeting, we had installation of officers followed by cards.

As the second year of the Manchester Area Alumnae Club draws to a close, our members look back over another fruitful year. We have 25 paid members and look forward to increasing this number next year.

EDNA JOSLIN WOODBURY

MONTREAL

The year was off to a fine start for the Montreal Alumnae Club with a visit from the province vice president, Mrs. Beggs, who was present for the first meeting in September. Slides of Settlement School were shown in October, and the members benefited greatly from closer contact with the work of the fraternity and its officers.

November is the time for the Silver Sherry Party which is the annual money raising project. This year the club was able to donate more than ever to the Canadian Project. This is a loan fund available to social studies students in universities across Canada. The December Auction among the club members raises money for the Centennial Fund, and as ever was a huge success.

A new type of meeting was added to the schedule—a demonstration. In January, there was a short talk of Yoga Philosophy by a Yogi who also showed some examples of the exercises and meditation positions. Certainly this was one of the more unusual meetings. The February Bridge Night is still a favourite, and an interesting speaker was planned for March. Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon, and the Annual Meeting for the installation of new officers was the last meeting in the spring.

As there is no active chapter in Montreal, the club is continuing to take an interest in Nova Scotia A at Dalhousie University in Halifax. This is being done in conjunction with the Halifax Alumnae Club.

The Montreal Club is extremely proud to have 33 very active members this year. This includes several newcomers and represents more than half the Alumnae in this area.

MRS. R. M. HART

NEW HAVEN

An interesting year was enjoyed by the New Haven Alumnae Club under the leadership of Gene Hoyt. To begin the year, an informal gathering was held at the president's home. For the remaining meetings a newsletter was sent out to each member, as well as to the active chapter at Storrs and Mrs. Beggs, province vice president, informing the group of previous doings and future events. October was a busy month with first, a program on dried floral arrangements and second, the annual Settlement School Sale. The club sold over $460 worth of Arrowcraft goods. Plans have been made to enlarge the sale next year into a Christmas sale.

In November the New Haven Club held an Educational Night, at which time we learned much about our Fraternity, including Settlement School and Holt House, through slides and discussion. Mrs. Beggs was with the group in December when the club held a pot luck supper. Each member brought a toy, article of clothing, or a toilet article to be given to the Settlement School Health Center. Also, "surprise" gifts were auctioned off to the members.

A group of fourteen stepped out to the theater in January, while February brought a speaker from the Yale Art Gallery. Mrs. Sharon Tucker gave an illustrated talk on American art, silver, and furniture. A luncheon and fashion show highlighted March.

The alumnae visited the active chapter at Storrs in April. At the statewide Founders' Day Luncheon in Manchester the New Haven Alumnae Club presented its annual award to Connecticut A, who exemplified the high ideals of Pi Beta Phi.

The club set a new record with twenty one nationally paid members.

SARAH H. JAYNES

PORTLAND, MAINE

Our October meeting was much anticipated, as we were to meet Louise Beggs, province vice president. Her visit with us was most enjoyable and informative. We gathered at Marjorie Yale's home and each member contributed towards the Pot Luck Supper with a mouth-watering dish prepared from the Pi Beta Phi Cookbook. Some of us did our Christmas shopping at an Arrowcraft Sale held after our November meeting at Mildred Norwood's home. Emma Ledger was hostess to us in December, at which time we brought clothing to give to a local needy family. The History and Constitution program was based on the new television program, "Password," and was enjoyed by all at our January meeting with June Johnson. The actives from this area joined us at Frances Soderberg's home at our February meeting and this meeting is always delightful when our sisters meet with us. Our annual Sophomore Award recipient was chosen at our March meeting when we met with Dorothy Kane. Another interesting and pleasurable year under the leadership of Frances Soderberg, came to a close in April when we observed Founders' Day with a luncheon.

SUSAN M. JOHNSON

SOUTHERN FAIRFIELD COUNTY

The Southern Fairfield County Alumnae Club had a most successful year, with the addition of several new members and many new ideas. Last summer the club presented a television set to the Mystic Oral School for the Deaf in Mystic, Conn., and enthusiastic thank yous were received at our September get acquainted meeting. Our interest in the children of the Mystic School continued with a benefit dessert-bridge in October. Also in October, our annual Settlement School Sale and Tea resulted in an excellent turn out of Pi Beta Phis and their friends.

During the Christmas holidays, all active Pi Beta Phi and pledges in the area were invited to attend a coffee in their honor. As there is no local chapter near by, it was especially rewarding to visit with the girls in this manner.

Many interesting programs were planned throughout the year. An enlightening afternoon was spent with Mrs. Elizabeth Donlon, Chairman of the Womens Committee of the Connecticut Banking Association, who spoke to us on the fundamentals of investing. The opportunity to talk with Elizabeth Bowne after a panel discussion of her best selling book, "Gift From the African Heart," was a thrilling experience and the highlight of our February meeting. The local Panhellenic sent a panel to our club in May to discuss present day problems of fraternities on college campuses. This was eagerly attended by the membership, as was the annual visit of our own Louise Beggs, A Province Vice President.

Our husbands again had an opportunity to join in our fun at the Christmas party, which turned into a Twist lesson, and at the ever popular swimming and pot luck supper party, which concluded our year in June.

SUZANNE B. MASON

WEST SUBURBAN (BOSTON)

The new West Suburban (Boston) Alumnae Club under the enthusiastic and capable leadership of Patricia Cloward Erikson had a most successful beginning.

We entertained our province vice president, Louise Simminger Beggs, at the October meeting with an informal reception and card party. During her visit Mrs. Beggs was also honor guest at a luncheon held at the lovely home of Marian Wilkerson Rutledge.

On November 17, we had a morning and evening Settlement School Coffee. The Arrowcraft sales were very profitable.

Our January meeting was a "come as you were in college party." We also brought a sample of our favorite dessert with six copies of the recipe. They sold for ten cents each and the proceeds went to Pi Beta Phi.

We were sorry to lose our president, Mrs. Erikson, due to her husband's transfer to California. We were most fortunate to have Barclay Savin Slade consent to replace Mrs. Erikson for the remainder of the year.

We held joint luncheon meeting with the Greater Boston Alumnae Club on Founders' Day.

BETA PROVINCE

ALBANY

A varied and interesting program was enjoyed this year by the Albany Alumnae Club under the presidency of Mrs. William Kinard.

Our traditionally popular Pot Luck Supper initiated the season at the home of Mrs. Robert Fallon.

October was a busy month with the preparation for our annual Settlement School sale and tea which was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Eisenhart. This is an annual highlight of our program and continues to increase in popularity.

A very enlightening travelogue on Uganda given by Mrs. Randolph Gardiner, wife of a Fulbright Exchange Professor, comprised the program for our November meeting with Mrs. William Weilbacher, as hostess. The life, customs and environment of the African natives were most vividly described.

Colorful Christmas favors for hospital trays were made at our December meeting at the home of Mrs. John De Graff.

The usual fun of a White Elephant sale was enjoyed by all at our January meeting. Toys seemed to be the most popular items for sale. Miss Betty Glass was hostess.

In February a bridge luncheon was held at the Albany Country Club.

We were delighted to have the opportunity to have Mrs. Vernon Tompkins, province vice president, visit and share our March meeting with us at the home of Mrs. Julian Creighton. Election of officers also took place.

In April Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon meeting and program. The members of the Schenectady Alumnae Club were our guests.

Newly elected officers were installed in May at the home of Mrs. William Collins.

At our annual June picnic get together, with Mrs. George Little as hostess, a busy and successful year came to an end.

BUFFALO

Our program year under the leadership of president Betty Schmitt Sheedy started in September with Active Chapter Guest Night. Pi Beta Phis from Cornell, Bucknell, and Penn State College campuses told us about sorority life today. We enjoyed hearing about rushing procedures and how chapters use our recommendations.

In November Howard and Eleanor Volgenau spoke to us on U. S. Curb Communism In South America. Mr. Volgenau is Industry Officer with the Agency of International Development assigned to Bogota, Colombia. He told how this agency teaches 65 countries to harness their resources by using United States methods to improve their country. His wife, Eleanor, in South American costume sang folk songs illustrating the culture and temperament of these people. This provided a most informative program well liked by all.

Pi Beta Phis and their husbands had a social get together in January. After carefree spending of paper money at A Night At Monte Carlo, all heartily consumed roast beef on kimmel prepared by the "girls."

Founders' Day was celebrated by a "dinner out" on our regular April meeting night. A late dinner hour eased the home dinner hour for Pi Beta Phi mothers. The table centerpieces were maypoles made of wood dowelling painted gold stuck in a blue floral foam base. Each maypole had twelve wine and silver blue streamers. At the end of each was a white arrow with the name of a Founder printed in gold ink. These decorations, made by Pi Beta Phis, can be easily stored and may well become a traditional part of our Founders' Day celebration.

This year Ella M. Donnocker, N.Y. A was our Golden Arrow member to be honored at our Founders' Day festivities. It gave us pleasure to honor Ella as she has been a loyal and active member of our alumnae club. It is good to have this way of saying thank you.

ELIZABETH M. HOWELL

ITHACA

During its second year as an affiliated club, the Ithaca Alumnae Club grew as a happy, healthy, and active group under the fine leadership of President Susan Jones Thatcher.

On October 14 a tea was held at the chapter house to welcome Mrs. De Grasse Allmendinger, the new house mother for the New York A active chapter.

Coffee hours with the active chapter preceded the regular meetings of the alumnae club in November when the upperclassmen were guests, and in February when alumnae greeted the new pledge class. These informal "coffees" proved to be a good way for actives and alumnae to get to know one another.

The Pledge-Mother project also strengthens the bonds between actives and alumnae when a club member adopts two pledges and entertains them in her home or offers them any help she can.

Mrs. June Tompkins, province vice president, visited the regular February meeting of the club. Hearing her speak on the team work in Pi Beta Phi and getting to know her personally, made Mrs. Tompkins visit one of the year's highlights.

Another came at the April Founders' Day Celebration when Margaret McCarl Wright was presented the Golden Arrow Insigne during a special ceremony. It was a happy occasion for all to see this outstanding leader of Pi Beta Phi and of the community, receive this honor.

In May every year the alumnae entertain graduating seniors at a Sunday breakfast at one of the members' homes. This year was no exception, and the enthusiastic talk at this morning affair told that everyone enjoyed this friendly, informal gathering.

As the only money making project for the year, used clothing was sent to the Ithaca Service League Shop. The alumnae club receives two thirds of the money from all the clothing they sell. And that money, along with local dues, buys new chapter house furnishings, etc.

Add to all this the interesting programs on the Constitution and Settlement School, the usual rushing help given to the active chapter and City Panhellenic, this turns out to have been a busy and eventful year for the Ithaca Alumnae Club.

JANE W. BAILEY

LONG ISLAND-NORTH SHORE

In September we had a get acquainted meeting at the suggestion of our idea filled new president, Connie Wilder Compton. Alumnae were especially contacted to start the coming year with new faces. The covered dish luncheon with regular members bringing their favorite dishes or desserts made a delightful afternoon. We made a contribution to our Long Island Panhellenic group.

Late October, found us all busy making Christmas decorations in a room filled with colorful balls, bells, ribbons, and beads. We also bought the recipes from the previous month's luncheon. Now we can all be good cooks.

Early December brought Christmas to Khris Kreisle Harder's beautifully decorated home. Each of us had a dollar wrapped gift which was put in a surprise box to be distributed at random after our coffee and homemade cookies. What a good time we had! The left over cookies were sold. Then we donated a Settlement School skirt length as a prize for the Panhellenic Bridge.

Mrs. Tompkins, our province vice president, visited us in January. After lunch she gave us an inspired talk and impressed us all with her warmth and good companionship.

In February we tested a fund raising idea. Bridge tables were sold, cakes were homemade, favors were donated by a husband's company, a prize for each table was bought, and many Settlement School articles were sold. This was held in Margaret Cochran Murray's home and was a grand success.

In March we had a guest speaker to tell and show us about spring flower arrangements. Many alumnae gathered for Founders' Day Luncheon in April, and May ended our meetings with Holt House slides. This has been a most rewarding year.

MARGARET COCHRAN MURRAY

NEW YORK CITY

The New York City Alumnae Club enjoyed a most stimulating program for the 1961-62 season. Under the able leadership of Ellen Sibray, president, and Betty Dunn, vice president, the members took great pleasure in exploring some of the many facets, which make up New York's business, art, and professional worlds.

The opening meeting in the fall was of a political nature, with a talk by Dorothy Bell Lawrence, the first woman candidate for Borough President of Manhattan. Our November speaker was Dr. Jerome A. Urban, a noted cancer specialist at Memorial Hospital and the Sloan-Kettering Institute for cancer research.

A cold Saturday in early December was the scene of our Christmas shoppers' luncheon, which turned out to be a great success. Members met at a mid-town restaurant for lunch and a needed break from fighting the holiday crowds. It also was an opportunity for many of our members, who have moved away or cannot attend regular evening meetings, to join the group again. Table decorations were Christmas corsages, which we later pinned on our coats.

As in previous years, we continued our project of collecting new toys for children, from three months to twelve years old, and giving them to the Windham Children's Service to be used as birthday and convalescent gifts for boys and girls in foster homes. Our big money making event was the matinee theater party on January 27 of the Broadway musical "Subways Are For Sleeping."

The January meeting featured a speaker from the Metropolitan Opera Guild, Mrs. John De Witt Peltz, who showed slides to accompany her talk on opera and its place in history. Also in January, we entertained our province vice president, June Wakefield Tompkins, at a dessert meeting.

In February, Mr. Randolph Lewis Speight, an investment consultant, enlightened us with his discussions of securities and finance. The Eleanor Gould Theater, an off-Broadway playhouse, was the scene of the March meeting, and Mrs. Eleanor Gould told us of the challenges and problems in the theater of today. It was a fascinating program.

The traditional Founders' Day tea, featuring lovely wine and blue decorations, was held in April at the home of Mrs. Donald McGill, and completed a most enjoyable year.

SUE DOMEIER ROSS

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club has enjoyed an interesting and satisfying year under the inspiring leadership of our President, Jean Dunbar Socolowski. Our September opening meeting was a tea. We had an interesting and very informative talk by Dr. Harold N. Moldenke on plants of the Bible.

Later in September, the Chatham area organized the only Settlement School Tea planned for the year. The day was most enjoyable and quite profitable.

The controversial film "Operation Abolition," showing the attempt of the Communist Party to influence students, was presented at the October luncheon.

In November, we were privileged to have a demonstration by Miss Grace Howell. Miss Howell is one of a family of famous glass blowers, and presented an entertaining program.

Instead of a regular meeting in December, we had our annual Christmas Buffet for our husbands. Mr. and Mrs. Max Minnie were our host and hostess for a delightful evening.

The January meeting was replaced by "small gatherings" in each of our five areas.

A special brunch-fashion show was held in February at the B. Altman store in Short Hills for Pi Beta Phi and their guests. Six club members modeled lovely spring ensembles. Margaret Gesner Twyman, member of the Centennial Projects Committee, was our speaker for the March luncheon.

We were pleased to have June Wakefield Tompkins, our province vice president, speak to us at our Founders' Day celebration. Our year ended with the annual meeting in May.

MARILYN WATKINS STONE

PHILADELPHIA

The Philadelphia Alumnae Club is organized as one chartered unit, but it is subdivided into four area groups, based on geographical location. Each of the area groups holds monthly meetings at times and places convenient to its own membership, while the general meetings are held four times a year, with one or more area groups serving as hostesses.

Our chief project this past year has been the production of an l.p. record of Pi Beta Phi music. The record, entitled "Pi Beta Phi—Keep Singing," went on sale locally November 1 and will be offered for general sale at Convention this summer. It is felt that it will be a valuable rush aid to both active and alumnae chapters throughout the country, as well as a pleasure to individual Pi Beta Phi to hear and own. Numerous projects were undertaken by area groups to underwrite the expense of producing this record, but when we heard it, we felt our efforts were entirely worthwhile.

In October two Settlement School sales were held in widely separated locales of the metropolitan area. Each lasted all day and was quite successful. One included as an added attraction a Christmas Bazaar, at which items handmade by one of the area groups were sold, the profits going toward that area's own project.

Programs for area group meetings included lectures on Civil Defense, the Peace Corps, world tours, and even hair styling. Work sessions were held to make items for Christmas Bazaars, to sew for the Settlement School, to make favors for patients at the Rehabilitation Center and to decorate the Center at Christmas Parties included bridge luncheons, pot luck suppers, cocktail parties and an Hawaiian luau with our husbands.

The program for the November general meeting was provided by Mr. Glenn Doman, Director of the Rehabilitation Center of Philadelphia, who spoke on techniques used in their treatment of patients suffering from brain damage. Since support of the Center is another project of the general group, this program was of special interest. In January we were visited by our province vice president, Mrs. Vernon J. Tompkins, who gave an informative talk on the viewpoint of National on current issues. Election of officers was held in March, and the year's activities ended in April when the Southern New Jersey Alumnae Club joined us for our Founders' Day celebration.

ANN SHARPE MASON

PITTSBURGH

The Pittsburgh Alumnae Club opened the fall season with a buffet supper at the beautiful home of Harriet McCaslin. The husbands of the members were guests. We were happy to have our president, Marian Cunningham, back with us after a serious illness. After the supper, Dr. McCaslin entertained us with colored movies of their trips to Puerto Rico, visiting Dr. Matthew Mellon. Dr. McCaslin gave an interesting narration of the work being done by Dr. Mellon on his project and the building of his hospital.

On November 8, we had a most delightful visit from our province vice president, Mrs. June Tompkins. The executive committee entertained her at dinner at Stouffer's before the meeting.

On November 1 and 2, we held our annual Arrowcraft sale at the home of Marie Davidson. Chocolate, coffee and cookies were served to the guests. We had a very successful two days with sales totaling $1,324.

December brought our annual Christmas party with a most delicious buffet supper at the home of Marie Davidson. Every member brought a gift for the male patients at the C. Howard Marcy State Hospital.

In February, a benefit was held at the Playhouse Theater by the local Panhellenic alumnae organization to raise funds for their yearly scholarships.

In March, we had a dessert meeting with the election of officers and the History of Pi Beta Phi.

Founders' Day was celebrated again jointly with the South Hills Club. This year we were the hostess club with a luncheon at Skibo Inn on the Carnegie Tech campus.

We ended the year in May with a dessert at the home of Ellen Nicoden and the installation of officers.

MARY BUZZARD DENINNO

PITTSBURGH-SOUTH HILLS

The Pittsburgh-South Hills Alumnae Club opened the 1961-1962 season in September with a covered dish supper at the home of Ruth Zimmerman Miller. A report was given by Brenda Anderson Helmer of her visit during the summer to Settlement School. The visit helped Brenda with the plans for our Settlement School Sales which were in October. The two teas to promote sales were held in the homes of Jeanne Myers Gilmore and Brenda Helmer.

In November we were honored with a visit by our province vice president, June Wakefield Tompkins. June was the delightful houseguest of our president, Myra Little Reitz, and a guest of the board at a dinner meeting at the home of Mary Jane Chandler Seaman, at which twenty attended. A meeting the next day with the club completed Mrs. Tompkins' visit with us.

December was a very busy month for the club which included our sales of pecans and Christmas decorations made by the club members. A very enjoyable Christmas supper dance was held again this year at the University Club, and a coke party for the local actives home during the holidays was well attended at the home of Helen Dove Cook.

In February our two hundred dollar scholarship was again presented at Mt. Lebanon Senior High School. The girl selected by the club was named in June.

Founders' Day is always celebrated in April jointly with the Pittsburgh Club. This year they were the hostess club at a lovely luncheon with a program afterwards. A white elephant auction, with each member bringing a guest, completed the money raising projects for the year. This took place at the home of Mary Lu Walsh Kumer.

ROBERTA KEITH

RIDGEWOOD

At a casserole luncheon in September the Ridgewood New Jersey Alumnae Club made plans for interesting and provocative programs. The October meeting was devoted to Settlement School. The feeling of gaiety and fun that prevails through the holidays was established December 3 at the annual "Husbands Night." Everyone enjoyed a covered dish supper.

In January members assisted the Ridgewood Cerebral Palsy center by folding seals. Mrs. June Tompkins, province vice president, spoke about activities within the province and throughout the Fraternity. "Why women should invest" was the topic of Mr. E. A. Dryden, stock market representative, speech at the February meeting. His remarks stimulated a lively question and answer period. In March, Mrs. C. J. Welles once again was hostess at a tea for elderly and infirmed ladies of the Bergen Pines Home. The joy our simple gifts and party atmosphere gave these patients is always a rewarding experience for all members.

Founders' Day was celebrated this year at a casserole luncheon. At our closing meeting our guest speaker, a local pastor, presented slides of his Mediterranean trip. We were delighted to welcome many new members into our club this year. It was difficult saying goodbye to our president, Mrs. T. B. Vaughan who moved to another community. Her enthusiasm and unselfish giving of her time and talent will be sorely missed.

JOAN EVANS PATRICK

ROCHESTER

Another successful season drew to a close with a swim and picnic party including our husbands, at Dorothy and Bob Phillips.

The year included such diversified activities as a dinner meeting in October, at one of the larger department stores, with a tour of the Furniture galleries and a talk on House Decor.

Highlight of the year, as always, came in January, when we had our annual cooky-shine. Each member brought her favorite dish for a buffet dinner, and afterwards were reminisced about "Pi Beta Phi Vintage Years."

In February, a luncheon meeting at the A.A.U.W. clubhouse featured a marvelous slide talk by our much traveled Janice Rummell. This concerned her recent trip to Finland.

We are so proud of our club member June Tompkins, who is serving so excellently as province vice president. She brought us up to date on Settlement School with recent slides and a talk of her visit there.

JANE SPRINGER DOBLES

SCHENECTADY

The Pi Beta Phi Schenectady, New York Alumnae Club as usual had many and varied meetings throughout the year. We started out our September meeting at the home of Margaret Frank with our traditional covered dish supper. Our club has had two bridge affairs this year, one for just Pi Beta Phis and a couples bridge party in February. In November, we conducted our yearly Settlement School Sale at the home of Virginia Timberlake, Nancy Pollock by dint of much labor and good organization inspired us all to sell over $1000 worth of goods for the school. Virginia served tea and coffee and our guests and customers seemed to have an enjoyable time as well as buying many things for a good cause.

A Pi Beta Phi Christmas open house is held every year here in Schenectady at the home of Lucille McLachlan. We all enjoy it and our husbands seem to, also. It is always held early in December before the Christmas rush and seems to start the season off right. Lucille's lovely colonial house was this year decorated in the traditional red and green with many good things to eat and drink served.

The Schenectady Alumnae Club has one meeting which is most unusual. This takes place in January. We have a joint luncheon with the K K I Alumnae Club. This year was our turn and we invited them to the home of one of our members, Barbara Landon. Barbara and her committee prepared several simple dishes, salads and desserts. We think this Panhellenic spirit is a very nice thing and does credit to our club. In March of this year our elections for new alumnae club officers was held along with a box lunch. In April, we held our Founders' Day Luncheon at the home of Virginia Cain. The final meeting of our year was a May Brunch at the home of Jill Lewkowicz.

PATRICIA HUEBNER

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY

The Southern New Jersey Alumnae Club has had a very interesting year, starting with a Luncheon in October at The Princeton Inn, and a tour of the Morven, our Governor's Mansion.

Under the able leadership of Betty Dargen, three Settlement School Sales were held in October with splendid success.

One Sunday Evening in December, our Guest Night for husbands, included a Buffet Supper and Christmas Entertainment, enjoyed by all.

We entertained our Beta Province Vice President, Mrs. Vernon Tompkins, at Cherry Hill Inn for luncheon in January.

March was our Annual Business Meeting, election of officers and allocation of funds for the year, followed by a Tea, given by our gracious hostess, Jane Coolidge.

In April, a joint luncheon meeting with the Philadelphia Alumnae Club as our hostess, celebrated Founders' Day.

We close our year, with an out door picnic with our husbands at the home of one of our lovely past presidents, Rae Louise Porch.

MRS. JOHN THOMPSON

STATE COLLEGE

The State College Alumnae Club initiated the year's activities with the annual Arrowcraft Sale which was held at the Woman's Club Building. It was held from 2 to 9 P.M. and area residents made the sale again a successful one. Nancy Bales Hartle was chairman, assisted by members of the club and Pennsylvania E chapter members. In November, the club was happy to meet and entertain June Tompkins, our province vice president. We enjoyed dinner together in the State College Hotel and Mrs. Tompkins spoke informally.

The Alumnae Club's January meeting was held at the home of Evelyn Keller Murray. Members listened eagerly as Mimi (Miriam) Sprague Wellington, Chairman of the A.A.C., and Mariana Evans Carpenter, club president, reviewed the rushing parties held by the active chapter and reported on the new pledges. In February, the club entertained the new pledges at a dessert party held at the chapter suite, and February 24, the club, with husbands and/or friends as guests, met at the home of Robert and Marjorie Putnam Ramsey for a potluck supper and games party. The active chapter feted the alumnae club in March at a bridge party held in the suite.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with the active chapters of Pennsylvania State University, Dickinson College, and Bucknell University and their area alumnae. The last meeting of the year was in May and included a farewell for seniors of the active chapter. Each senior was presented with a Pi Beta Phi Cookbook and welcomed into alumnae life. The seniors spoke about their plans after graduation and each girl was encouraged to take the initiative in contacting alumnae club wherever she might go to live and work.

EVELYN KELLER MURRAY

SYRACUSE

The Syracuse Alumnae Club opened the fall season with a cooky-shine at the home of Sue Jerome. We were privileged to have as our guest that evening, Grand Vice President, Mrs. Kent R. Morgan.

The club's money making project for this year was a coffee hour and book review. This was held in October at the home of Martha Duffy. At this meeting we also had a sale of Settlement School articles.

Our November meeting was held at the home of Ellen Beattie. A member of the Speakers' Bureau of the General Electric Company addressed us concerning "The Shape of the 60's." Club members also worked on Chappell's Women's Day in November, earning credit of $100. This credit was used to purchase furnishings for the chapter house.

The annual Christmas party with the actives was held early in December at the chapter house. The alumnae provided a covered dish supper. The actives presented a skit and also sang selections for the Step Singing Contest in which they placed second.

We met in January for a luncheon and business meeting at the Mizpah Restaurant. Our annual Couples Party was held in February at the Hotel Syracuse when twenty Pi Beta Phis and their husbands got together for supper dancing.

Betty Dunbar was our hostess for the March meeting when we elected our officers for the coming year. The province vice president, Mrs. Vernon Tompkins, was present at this meeting.

Founders' Day in April was observed with the actives at the chapter house with a dessert party. At our final meeting in May at the home of Marjorie Kirk, we had the installation of officers.

NANETTE UNGER BROWN

WESTCHESTER

The more than 100 members of Westchester Alumnae Club enjoyed another successful year with Nelda Darling Darrow as President. Regular monthly luncheon meetings, Volunteer Service with the Admitting Office at Burke Foundation, and the Settlement School Sale and KAFFEE KLATSCH were the highlights of the year's activities.

Eleanor Herman Pustay, Program Chairman, scheduled local alumnae for the program, "Focus on Pi Beta Phi Personalities." At our fall meeting, JOURNALISM, Madeline Bradley Wilson, feature writer for Macy-Westchester newspapers, charmed us by stories of interviews with "Those Interesting People." In October, MENTAL HEALTH, Barbara E. O'Connell, M.D., psychiatrist, spoke informally on "Some Psychiatric Aspects of the World Situation," then conducted a thought provoking question and answer period.

The annual benefit KAFFEE KLATSCH, with Kathryn Trask Deedman as chairman, featured a fashion show with member models as well as the sale of Arrowcraft and Christmas candy wreaths; held in November, this was especially rewarding in every way. The Christmas Bazaar and luncheon provided Burke Foundation Occupational Therapy Department with a hand printing press, and Settlement School teenagers with gifts.

Returning to "Focus," June Wakefield Tompkins, province vice president and honored guest for FRATERNITY AFFAIRS, in January, was an inspiration when she briefed us on Pi Phi current affairs and future plans. As usual, weather cancelled one winter meeting, WESTCHESTER PI BETA PHIS, MUSIC, in March, featured concert pianist, Jane Blue Clark, but included a business meeting and Loyalty Day. ART, with Josephine Spencer Wilson's "Hats," guest speaker as a charter member of Mortar Board Ohio Wesleyan, highlighted the Founders' Day luncheon. TRAVEL, in May with Eloise Bilyeu Dibble in Europe, concludes "Focus." However, during this month of June there will be the annual tea for Pi Beta Phi Actives, and their mothers, and the traditional covered dish supper for Pi Beta Phi alumnae and their husbands.

Betty Scott Starr is incoming president and she, and all Westchester Alumnae, are looking forward to Convention in Washington this year.

VERA HENDRIX STARBUCK

GAMMA PROVINCE

AKRON

Our year began with the "Cooky-shine" in September, held at the lovely Turkeyfoot Island Club. Our President, Carolyn Thatcher Stitt, welcomed our many new members. October was filled with the many plans for the Arrowcraft Sales, which were indeed a success, thanks to the help of so many capable hands. In November, we held benefit bridges for the Panhellenic Association's philanthropy, The Children's Home.

December was full of fun. A lovely "Open House" and a Tea honoring Pi Beta Phi Actives and Pledges. In January, we enjoyed a sumptuous luncheon at the Portage Country Club in honor of Loyalty Day. We had the pleasure of the company of Isabel Dautel and were thrilled at the announcement of two new Who's Who in American Women members, Pauline Barcus Cunningham and Juanita Spors Varner. We also enjoyed our annual play at the "Weatherlane Theater" in January.

In February, we were fascinated by our guests from the "Beauty Box" who gave a make up demonstration and hat style show. "The Art of Japanese Floral Arranging" was presented in March by renowned flower designer Mrs. S. D. Stanson. Founders' Day Luncheon, held at the Fairlawn Country Club, featured "The Artists' Conception" as its theme. Our installation of Officers in May was followed by our lovely dance at the Silver Lake Country Club. Proceeds from this dance went to Juvenile Detention Home, our local philanthropy.

JANET DEMMING

ATHENS

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club at Athens, Ohio, meets on the third Thursday of each month in the home of one of the members. The social chairman and her committee serve a dessert and the business meeting follows. This year we have forty three members. For the opening meeting the pledges were invited to a potluck dinner. We had one meeting which we called Pi Beta Phi Wisdom. After the business meeting, two teams were chosen and the program chairman asked questions about Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. Nancy Stewart Arthur Smetz, the province president, was in Athens on November 12. The province president and the province vice president are both from our club. During the year we will have one meeting with the girls in the active chapter and a dinner meeting to honor the senior girls.

The alumnae club gives an award to a girl in her Junior year at Ohio University. This is based on scholarship. Miss Jean Alice Foster from Wellington, Ohio received the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Award on Honors Day last June. The selection for the award was made by the Ohio University Scholarship Board.

We had the Easter Bazaar again this year. This is a money making project for the next year. The members donate their time and their work, and has been very successful. Aprons, Easter baskets, hand decorated eggs, baked goods, various articles from the Settlement School, and a raffle drawing for an Easter hat are among the items of interest for the invited guests. A display of flowers from one of the local florists always adds a great deal to the spring atmosphere of the bazaar. These are also for sale. This year the bazaar was on April 14.

ANNA MARGARET FULKS

CANTON

The Canton Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of Emilie La Barre Hune, has remained an active group though small in size. However, with the addition of two new Pi Beta Phis to our group we hope to start growing again.

Last June the alumnae gave a dinner party for our active members at the home of Louise Whitney Dykes. Our September meeting at the home of Mary Elizabeth Downes Roderick was devoted to rushing and the discussion of the forthcoming October visit of Mrs. Dautel for which we planned a luncheon at the home of Helen Rennecker Steen.

November found us laboring to learn the art of making pine cone wreaths at Jeanne Murray Lothamer's house with Mrs. Murray as the very talented instructor. Pine cone wreaths were "The thing" in Pi Beta Phi homes this Christmas season. Our December meeting was held at the home of Marilyn Goetz Markling with our usual homemade gift exchange bringing forth the many talents of the group. Our president spent the evening snapping pictures of the gifts as we opened them.

January found us at a College Club lecture and entertained later at the home of Kay Kelley Sullivan. February was devoted to planning our annual March party for the psychiatric ward at a local hospital and learning more about our Constitution and Settlement School.

Our spring plans included a study of Pi Beta Phi History, Founders' Day celebration in April, and the May installation of new officers.

MRS. JAMES A. MARKLING, JR.

CINCINNATI

The Cincinnati Alumnae Club had a very interesting year under the able leadership of Betty Berry Rose. For the first time, the city was divided into three areas, and chairmen chosen for those groups. There were four general and three area meetings.

The first general meeting was in October and was devoted to hearing the latest news from Settlement School, plus having a display and sale of Arrowcraft goods. During the month following several members had Settlement School coffees in their homes for their neighbors and friends. At that first meeting, the members were told that Gamma Province had been named co-hostess for Convention in Washington, D.C. The Cincinnati Alumnae Club had been asked to do the decorations for the initiation banquet, and the area meetings in November, February and April were devoted to that project.

During Christmas vacation a delightful tea was given for the actives living in the Cincinnati area. Julia Bowman Leedy and her daughter Barbara were hostesses, and their committee was made up of four club members and their Pi Beta Phi daughters.

At the January meeting, Mrs. Erich Zwertchek gave a talk entitled "America for Me." She has been in the United States for only a few years and it was fascinating to hear her impressions of this country. Cooky-shine and a covered dish supper, followed by elections were held in March.

The club's largest fund raising project was a dessert bridge held in February. A talk on fashion was given by a representative of the Gidding's store. The club also had its annual rummage auction sale in May.

The main event of the year was the Founders' Day luncheon May 5. It was attended by the Ohio Z chapter and members of the Hamilton, Dayton and Oxford Alumnae Clubs. Installation of club officers was held, and Helen Boucher Dix, former province vice president and now in charge of "News From Little Pigeon" for the ARROW, gave an inspiring talk.

NANCY PARKS

CLEVELAND EAST

The alumnae of Cleveland East were privileged to begin their yearly program with a visit from our province vice president, Isabella Brown Dautel, whose talk renewed and rekindled our ever present interest in Pi Beta Phi and its goals both locally and nationally. It was learned that the Settlement School dinner for Convention this year would be our responsibility and the group began to ponder how they might best carry out a theme that would include the fiftieth anniversary of the School.

Our Settlement School Sale in October was held in the very lovely home of Ann Smoot Matia and was most successful under the enthusiastic direction of Susan Parkins Wroldstad.

The program for November was a timely showing of the film "Operation Abolition" which brought many questions to the minds of our members and provoked a lively discussion.

The ability of our program chairman, Marcelle Daubenmire Wisely, to give us a varied, educational and entertaining program may be seen in the topics covered by guest speakers. In December a program of particular interest to Clevelanders was a lecture on "Old Euclid Avenue Houses," the "Grand Avenue" of Cleveland in the Victorian Era where once resided such famous families as the John D. Rockefeller's.

Nancy Stewart Smetts, our charming province president, greeted us in January. Subsequent programs dealt with "Our Speech," "Interior Decorating," and a "Demonstration of Modern Painting."

In addition to our monthly program, the club held a benefit dance jointly with Cleveland West, and celebrated Founders' Day together. Our annual Benefit Bridge, always most enjoyable and profitable, was held again in May.

Under the able leadership of our devoted President, Betty Deal Calhoun, we concluded our program year with a joint meeting in June with our energetic and active Junior group.

JEAN BAILEY GAEBE

CLEVELAND EAST JUNIOR

Our group commenced upon its 1961-1962 activities in September under the guidance of Sabra Hansen Qua. At this meeting we held our recipe exchange dinner. Also in the fall we assisted the senior group with the Settlement School sale, and held an informal couples party at the home of Marge Caylor McLean. In November we turned our attention toward Russia when Ken Armstrong, a television broadcaster, showed us slides of his travels there. Our activities during the winter included a Christmas party, a lecture by Mrs. Jackson of the Maternal Health Association, a project meeting, and the Pi Beta Phi dance held for all members of the Cleveland area. Both our benefit bridge party and Founders' Day dinner were held in April.

In August of each year the Cleveland East Junior Auxiliary sponsors a luncheon-bridge party for all active members in this area. This is our greatest undertaking of the year. Last August it was held at the Shaker Skating Club and was attended by thirty-one alumnae and nine actives. There was a punch held in the main lobby before lunch was served. The tables were decorated with large wine and blue topiary trees. Following dessert everyone introduced herself giving her name, chapter and any other information she cared to. Talented members of our group gave a clever skit of our club's coming activities for the coming year.

ANN GERKIN MILLER

CLEVELAND-WEST ALUMNAE CLUB

It would be difficult to name the high point of Cleveland-West's year, a year of fine programs, hard work, and service. Members have again contributed many volunteer hours to our local philanthropy, the Cleveland Psychiatric Hospital. A sewing machine and a radio have been added to Ward Eight's equipment, we have subscribed to local papers for the patients, and monthly parties have been held in the ward. Cleveland-East has joined us this year in this rewarding work. Our next project is refurbishing the drab conference room. Funds for the hospital were raised at an open dance in Lake Shore Hotel in March.

The year began with our annual pot luck supper and closed with a June picnic for all actives in our area. Other programs included one on the weather with a local meteorologist, a look at TV news programming with a prominent newscaster, humor in department store complaints, sketches by a local theater group, and a card party.

Last year's popular open house for husbands was repeated during the Christmas holidays.

Settlement School sales were again held in four homes in our area with excellent sales results.

The club was happy to entertain Gamma Province Vice President Isabella Brown Dautel in October.

We commemorated Founders' Day with Cleveland-East at a dinner in April, at which we welcomed Dorothy Allen Burns from Pi Beta Phi Central Office as speaker.

ALICE MCPHERSON

COLUMBUS

Darby Dan Farm provided the setting for the opening meeting. Gamma Province Vice President Isabell Brown Dautel honored the Columbus Alumnae Club by her presence and inspired us with her message.

An innovation this year was the simultaneous holding of Regional Meetings in three areas of the city in October. In addition to Arrowcraft Sales, Helen Dix, Edith Rankin, and Marilyn Shreffler each spoke to an area group on Challenge in the Smokies.

Guests joined members of the Columbus Alumnae Club at a Sherry Tea at the Scioto Country Club in October. Miss Celeste, a New York City style expert, intrigued those in attendance with her presentation, and later with personal interviews. Credit is due Mary Ruth Patterson and her committee for an outstanding program.

At the home of Helen Wilson, Edith Vuchnich, National President of the Y.W.C.A. of Canada, was welcomed back to Ohio B. She spoke on Communism and College.

Husbands were invited to attend the December meeting at the Pi Beta Phi House. Dr. John H. Dines, a specialist in space medicine was the speaker.

The new pledge class was introduced, and the graduating seniors were honored in February. It was also a pleasure to present the new housemother of Ohio B, Mrs. Tobin.

The alumnae invited parents of the pledges to a tea held at the Pi Beta Phi Chapter House so they might visit the campus home of their daughter.

The spring programs were unusually interesting. Helen Fox presented Talented Ladies of Past Pi Beta Phi Classes, and Velva Shortz entertained with We're Gonna Have a Cooky-Shine.

As always, Founders' Day, celebrated with Ohio B, was the highlight of the year. Dinner was at the Maramor, with Chet Long, a local radio and television celebrity, as the guest speaker. Both the wife and daughter of Mr. Long are members of Pi Beta Phi.

April was also the setting for the traditional Alumnae Dance, held jointly with K K I and Δ Δ Δ.

The June picnic at the home of Jean Stine brought to a close an outstanding year under the leadership of President Billie Knotts Jones.

Throughout the year an effort was made to become better acquainted and to make Pi Beta Phi newcomers to Columbus feel at home. Each meeting honored members from a different Ohio Chapter, and at the picnic, those from out of state chapters were honored.

Rhoma Berlin continued to publish the Newsletters which brought news to Pi Beta Phi to area alumnae. The sale of fruit cakes proved to be a financially profitable project, along with the collection and redemption of sales slips at a super market. Virginia Miadlow again headed the collection and sale of usable clothes, through a church outlet.

Lynce Gilbert, the Convention delegate, and Mildred Rader, worked with their committee on the Convention Honoraries Luncheon.

The most rewarding new project was the supervising of the exits at the Student Book Exchange at the beginning of each University quarter. Carol Young has done an exceptional job as chairman of projects.

VIRGINIA HOOVER FRANKLIN

DAYTON

The Dayton Alumnae Club has had an interesting year. After several months of planning, a great deal of activity began.

The club welcomed Mrs. Charles Dautel, Gamma Province vice President in November. She spoke on "The Unity of the Golden Arrow."

At the Christmas luncheon, Congressman Paul F. Schenck was a very interesting guest speaker.

On December 27 Mrs. James Herrman opened her home to Dayton actives and alumnae for a tasty and warming Christmas coffee.

Cooky-shine time came in February when Ohio Z invited the club to Oxford. It was a pleasure to meet such an attractive and enthusiastic active chapter. Their new president is Jeanie Grimm from Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Young were hosts to the Dayton alumnae and their husbands in February.

The March meeting was a luncheon at the Rike-Kumler Company. An inspiring talk on self improvement was given by the guest, Mrs. Martin Adams.

On March 24 the Dayton City Panhellenic Association sponsored a baton twirling contest to raise money for its scholarship program. Our capable president, Mrs. Paul Young, was chairman and many club members worked during the contest.

In May the Dayton club met with several nearby alumnae clubs and actives from Ohio Z for a Founders' Day luncheon and much conversation. Also in May the club gave a bridge party. The big feature was a clever style show of wedding gowns from the past modeled by the club members.

A program on fabric painting was enjoyed by the members at the potluck supper on May 8. It was held in the home of Mrs. J. H. Muehlstein and as usual the food was wonderful.

In May the members parted company for the summer, each one feeling she had made lasting new friends through Pi Beta Phi.

CYNTHIA S. MORRIS

LAKE COUNTY

The Lake County, Ohio, Alumnae Club scheduled only six meetings this year as our small club of thirteen members finds traveling hazardous during the winter months to the five represented communities. However, the enthusiasm in our club is great and our projects we feel are worthwhile.

Under President Madilyn Hadley Grigsby, we began our year with the sincere thanks from the Denison College chapter for the gifts we sent them in May. The portable hand mixer the girls use for dates in the kitchen, and the large lace tablecloth is used in entertaining. Plans are to continue sending useful household items to this, our newest Ohio chapter.

Marcia Payne Lunka gave a talk to the members in September on Settlement School and a sale followed. We also heard of the recommendations which were sent on girls from our area. Judith Kneen pledged at Ohio A.

In October, Mrs. Isabell Brown Dautel, Gamma Province Vice President, was our guest at a luncheon held in Painesville. She brought to us the inspiration of a National Fraternity and gave us much of her enthusiasm and outlook.

Once again we enjoyed our traditional Christmas dinner with our husbands. Social games were played and everyone became better acquainted.

As part of the Convention Hospitality Committee, we were busy in March making five hundred silver blue book marks, upon which we inscribed our wine Greek letters. This was a big project for the ten present, but everyone enjoyed participating. We are looking forward to the time we can send a representative.

June found us entertaining at our annual luncheon all actives in our area. Hearing of campus activities keeps us closer to our fraternity.

NANCY ROZELL

NEWARK-GRANVILLE

Newark-Granville Alumnae Club's first meeting of the 1961-62 year was October 24. It was held in the new wing of the Ohio H chapter house at Denison University and followed a dessert party given for the new pledges of the chapter. The addition to the house, which was under the supervision of a building committee of the House Corporation, was completed in time for rushing in September.

On initiation day the club served luncheon to chapter members and new initiates. In addition to the 20 Denison girls who won their golden Arrows, two longtime friends of the Ohio H chapter were initiated. They are Mrs. Earle McMullen, the chapter's devoted housemother since 1955, and Mrs. E. A. Wright, wife of Denison's professor of theater arts, who has graciously given of her hospitality and friendship to the girls of Ohio H in past years. Both will be welcome members of the Newark-Granville club.

The club will get together for a dinner meeting in March and is planning its annual party for graduating seniors of the chapter in May.

MARY BLACKMAN PARSONS

OHIO VALLEY

The Ohio Valley Alumnae Club held its first meeting in December in the form of a luncheon, honoring actives, pledges and alumnae. An interesting program was enjoyed by all those attending. Our February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John Osborne with Mrs. Robert Leibold as co-hostess. A delicious covered dish dinner was served. Plans of the coming Convention were discussed by President, Mrs. Jane Goodwin Frantz. The nominating committee was appointed and asked to present the slate of officers for the March meeting. We looked forward to having our province vice president, Mrs. Charles Dautel, at this meeting. We planned a cooky-shine in her honor. Our April meeting was our Founders' Day Dinner, April 23, at Oglebay Park at which time we had our installation of officers by Mrs. Carl Gustkey.

JOANN LATIMER CONAWAY

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

The Springfield Alumnae Club started their year with a meeting that was held in the home of our president, Barbara Miller. We all exchanged box lunches. This October meeting was the first that was held since we received the letter from Mrs. King asking us to be the coordinator for Gamma province for obtaining favors for Convention. We discussed this undertaking, which at the time seemed huge to us, since we are such a small club. We also discussed rushing at this meeting.

Our next meeting was held shortly after Christmas in the home of Sue Pierce. We decided to send a form letter to all the alumnae clubs in Gamma province asking for favors. After this part of the meeting, we all had a grand evening of bridge.

February 9 was our next meeting and only a few girls turned out because it was a terribly snowy day. Peg McKenzie had a lovely luncheon and later the letters were read that had been received from different clubs telling us various things that they had gotten or were making as favors. We, as a club, had gotten 1000 match book covers.

Our next meeting was held in the home of Louise Harris. We wrote to our province vice president, Isabell Dautel, asking her to join us for lunch.

SUSAN NOLTE DOEGE

TOLEDO

The Toledo Alumnae Club met for its first dinner meeting in September. Exciting details were heard from those who had been working hard all summer readying their committees for our "Crafts in Creation" show.

"Crafts in Creation," a fund raising project held in October at the University of Toledo Armory, was the highlight of our club's activity this year. Every kind of Arrowcraft material was represented and sold at this huge sale which was open to the public. To add an extra attraction to the sale, local craftsmen set up booths to demonstrate such crafts as weaving, wood carving, rug hooking, antique refinishing and caning. Each member made her favorite recipe so that a dessert smorgasbord could be served throughout the afternoon.

This was the second large project of this type the club has undertaken and many ideas were incorporated to beautify and increase the sale over the previous year.

In addition to our Arrowcraft sale, we continued as in the past, to sell Christmas and occasional wrapping paper.

Again this year our dinner meetings have been a huge success with an average attendance of eighty. We met usually in local churches where kitchen facilities were available. Our programs have been varied and most interesting.

Our Christmas Party for the Luella Cummings School (a home for underprivileged and girls from broken homes) was again held this year. We prepared and served dinner at the school to all the girls plus our alumnae club. Every alumna brought a wrapped gift which was placed under a beautiful Christmas tree and passed out to the girls during the evening. Each girl was given $10 in play money to purchase gifts for her family from a huge supply of unwrapped white elephants brought by the alumnae.

In April our Founders' Day Dinner was again held at Inverness Country Club. A most inspirational evening was spent with girls from our local active chapter.

We are looking forward to the Convention and the reports from our own girls who are busy making plans to attend.

NANCY GILMORE HINDS

YOUNGSTOWN-WARREN

The Youngstown-Warren Area Alumnae Club opened the year with a casserole dinner at the beautiful new home of Mrs. H. D. Johnston in Warren, Ohio. Assisting her were Mrs. Robert Day and Mrs. Paul Gauchat. After a tour of the house, visiting province vice president, Mrs. Charles Dautel, gave an interesting talk to the members. In November, Mrs. C. A. Covington and Mrs. Susan E. Taylor entertained with a white elephant auction, followed by tea. December 28 was the date for the annual Christmas coffee for actives and their mothers. This popular breakfast was given by two Girard members, Mrs. Frank Anderson and Mrs. O. C. Baumgartner. In February separate bridge parties were held in Warren and Youngstown. Hostesses for the attractive valentine party in Youngstown were Mrs. William Shumacher and Mrs. John Perkins. Mrs. Richard Price and Miss Marie O'Rourke entertained for the Warren group. The March meeting was a dessert luncheon at the home of Miss Betsy Berlin assisted by Mrs. J. L. Jones. There was a guest speaker and film with the title, "Wake up or blow up." Founders' Day was celebrated in Warren at the home of Miss Helen Brown. Mrs. John Milligan was also a hostess for this occasion. Closing the season was a picnic, a delightfully informal affair, at the home of Mrs. William Wood of Warren. He assisting hostesses were Mrs. Glen Job and Mrs. Wiley Garrett.

This club was asked to take charge of the Canadian breakfast at Convention, Mrs. William Wood, who was appointed chairman, has worked very hard fixing a centerpiece, place cards and favors as well as gathering other materials for this occasion. This group is expected to number fifty or more.

LUCILE OTTMAN PARDEE

DELTA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON-ALEXANDRIA

The successful June Convention will climax a year of many interesting and informative events. Martha Donley, our past president is chairman of registration for Convention.

At our first meeting we enjoyed a delicious barbecue dinner which was followed by the settlement School Skit, "A Doin' What Comes Naturally."

For our fall meeting we joined with the Washington Alumnae Club to hear Dr. Fern Steukenbroeker, Special Agent for the F.B.I., who spoke on "America's Answer to Communism." Refreshments and a social hour preceded the lecture.

The traditional Settlement School Sale and Tea turned out to be a huge success in October. An Illusion tablecloth was given in a raffle and our hostess was the fortunate winner.

A Christmas display on decorations was provided by one of our outstanding members. Our November meeting made Christmas decorators of us all. To celebrate the season and bring in the new year, the Pi Beta Phi's entertained their husbands with a lovely Christmas dinner and dance.

A delightful speaker, Mr. McGahey of Donald Interiors Ltd., of Bethesda, Maryland, gave an inspiring speech on interior decorating. We all retired with our "Do's and Don'ts" with great dreams of homes beautiful.

A lovely luncheon was held in January followed by a very interesting tour of the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington. A splendid time was spent by all.

The Spring benefit was highlighted by a "Silent Auction," at which each member brought various articles and items from home. The money received went to our local philanthropic project, The Paxton Memorial Home in Leesburg, Virginia.

In April, we were hostesses for the Founders' Day luncheon at the Army-Navy Country Club in Arlington.

After everything was said and done we all said farewell to an enthusiastic old year and began looking forward to a new year of inspiring speakers, binding friendship, and enjoyable programs. We endeavored to accomplish certain goals and whether we succeeded or not we all felt that we tried and put our best foot forward for the year 61-62.

EVANGELINE WITTMER NOLL

BALTIMORE

In September Baltimore began its new program for the year with a film of The Williamsburg Restoration at the home of Mary Alsop Hubbard. Our capable president, Mary Louise Woodford Boeman, outlined our part in Convention and the activities for the year.

Edna Olson Archibald opened her lovely home again for our annual Settlement School sale and tea. At the sale and through the year we sold $1,000 of Settlement School merchandise under Edith McCormick Smith and Gertrude Kutzleb, chairman and co-chairman.

December offered a varied program. We had our Christmas party and gift exchange at the home of Carey Jennings Winters. Katherine Black Massenbun, province president, was hostess at a brunch to the Baltimore alumnae and actives in colleges and universities home for the holidays.

Plans were formulated in January at the home of Nancy Ford Helms for Convention. Dorothy Scott Hopkins is chairman for the Settlement School Sale with Alice Shasto Schmidt as co-chairman. Dorothy Ruark Jump is chairman of the Sisters' Breakfast to be held on Friday morning. In February we made favors and decorations for the breakfast. Mary Alsop Hubbard, Panhellenic delegate, sold tickets for the Panhellenic luncheon. She also announced plans for the tea for girls graduating from high school in June to be held in August.

Dorothy Krug was hostess in March for the group for Chapter Loyalty Day and election of officers. Mrs. Harrison Lingo, province vice president was guest speaker.

A Founders' Day Dinner in April was held at the home of Libby Jones Pierce. We had a shower for Maryland B, each member bringing a small gift.

RUTH MARCHANT

MARYLAND-D.C. SUBURBAN

A "Gardenia Dinner" honoring Marianne Reid Wild opened the year's activities for the Marianne Reid Wild Alumnae Club.

In the fall members made dried floral arrangements, had a theatre party, and made favors for the 1962 Convention to be held in Washington, D.C.

The Holiday season got underway with an Arrowcraft Holiday Bazaar. In December members shared their talents by bringing Christmas decorations and food for a silent auction. This provided fun and added to the treasury. Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, province vice president, was present and brought members up-to-date on Fraternity concerns and events. Pi Beta Phi, husbands and guests ended the holiday season with a post-Yule party in early January.

The Marianne Reid Wild Club was hostess to the Washington Alumnae Club for a joint meeting in January. A film, "Pi Beta Phi Through the Ages" showed the different styles of dress Pi Beta Phi have worn through the years.

In the spring members learned to "Be A Sweetheart" with a program of beauty hints, watched a demonstration on party foods and sampled the results, and prepared for summer fun with a safety film.

New officers were installed at a special dinner meeting in May. The year's events closed with a buffet supper and party for members, husbands, and guests.

The club is looking forward to Convention in Washington, D.C. in June.

ANN MULLENDRE COPELAND

MORGANTOWN

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Morgantown, West Virginia, held its February meeting in the home of Mrs. Ward D. Stone with twenty members present. Miss Blanche E. Price, president of the group, presided over the meeting. Topic for the meeting was the National Convention which will be held in June at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D.C. Also discussed was Founders' Day to be celebrated with Clarksburg and Fairmont Alumnae Clubs in Clarksburg, West Virginia on April 28. The Morgantown Chapter will provide the program.

Mrs. Mary Jane Baker Schuster, West Virginia A, has been appointed as assistant to Miss Betty Boyd, Dean of Women at West Virginia University.

Mrs. Ralph G. Mitchell (Irene Finan), Massachusetts B, is a new member of our alumnae club. Her husband is a member of the West Virginia University faculty.

June Plus, West Virginia A, is President of one of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Clubs in Los Angeles, California.

In April, the Morgantown Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club honored the graduating seniors with a breakfast and in May, Mrs. P. I. Reed entertained both chapter and alumnae members with a garden party at her home.

MRS. ALBERT M. ROWE

RICHMOND

Under the leadership of its president, Mary Louise Wellman, the May L. Keller Alumnae Club of Richmond has had another successful year of Pi Beta Phi fellowship, fun, and work. Regular monthly meetings continued the custom of business and program after an always delicious dinner furnished by a hostess committee, the others present paying into the treasury the price of a meal, thereby meeting the budget for local and national projects.

Membership was increased after Mary Lous made a card file from the Central Office list and divided the cards among members to invite inactive alumnae to join in the activities of the club.

In the home of Ruth Williams Hansen in October, new members were welcomed into the club. Marie Tunstall Lingo, Delta Province Vice President, was the honored guest in November at the Deanery, the home of May L. Keller and Pauline Turnbull on the campus of Westhampton College. Pauline showed slides of Settlement School and the enthusiastic response developed many orders for Arrowcraft, samples of which Pauline had on display.

The Christmas party was held at the State Farm for Women where dinner was served by the prisoners in the staff dining room. After dinner the party moved over to the home of Elizabeth Kates, director of the Farm, with gifts for the Christmas game, Christmas gifts for the babies of prisoners, and used clothing for the prisoners themselves to wear when released.

May L. Keller described Pi Beta Phi's scholarship program at the March meeting in the home of Mary Thomas Cox Hatcher. In April the club put finishing touches on favors and decorations for Convention's Golden Arrow luncheon. Through the winter small groups had enjoyed work sessions preparing for this Convention project.

Founders' Day was celebrated in Richmond at a luncheon on Saturday, April 28, the first time in several years that the club had stayed at home for this event.

ELIZABETH U. WILSON

ROANOKE

The Roanoke Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club began the 1961-1962 year in August at the annual Roanoke Panhellenic sponsored College Preview and Fashion Show.

Our next meeting was held at the home of one of our members with the program being on Active Chapters and Rushing.

In November, a very pleasant luncheon meeting was held at a downtown Club. The Arrowcraft sale was held at that time and it turned out to be our most profitable to date.

After this meeting also our club started a concentrated effort to find souvenirs and favors for the Annual Convention in Washington in June 1962. We were requested to do so, with one other alumnae club in our region, which is the province in which the convention is to be held.

Election of officers was held at a meeting in February. The program was on History and Constitution.

Our annual Founders' Day celebration was held on April 27 at the home of a member alumna. This is always a delightful occasion with a pot luck supper and guests invited.

ANN STEPHENSON

WASHINGTON, D.C.

A meeting of unusual interest at George Washington University in October began a new year of activities for the Washington Alumnae Club under the able leadership of Laura Lovett. Other area clubs and active chapters were invited to share with us the opportunity to hear Dr. Fern C. Steukenbroeker, Special Agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, speak on "America's Answer to Communism."

In November, Pi Beta Phi and their friends enjoyed Marjorie Hendrick's hospitality at The Renaissance for our Arrowcraft Sale and Settlement School Tea. On Loyalty Day we were guests of the Marianne Reid Wild Club for the showing of a film from Holt House.

Washington Alumnae take an active interest in local philanthropic and civic organizations, many of them doing tremendously important volunteer work for the Florence Crittenton Home. Our club, wishing to be identified with a special local project, is now adding to the services already being donated to this home and has also undertaken to help, when possible, in providing social activities for the aged at D. C. Senior Village. In February, Pi Beta Phi and their husbands gave a Valentine party for 165 inmates.

The meeting in March was devoted to reports of the Washington Convention Committee, and final plans for our own club's participation in Convention activities. Founders' Day was celebrated in April at the Army-Navy Country Club, with the Arlington-Alexandria Club serving as hostesses to all area Pi Beta Phi.

Our year came to a close with the traditional May supper and installation of officers.

MAURINE LANE GARWOOD

WILMINGTON

The Wilmington Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the year 1961-1962 in September at a pot luck dinner. Plans were made for the Settlement School Tea in October. It was a most successful tea. Arrowcraft sales yielded over $200. We were pleased to have Marie Tunstall Lingo (Mrs. Benjamin H.), Delta Province Vice President as special guest.

Annie R. O'Brien invited the Alumnae Club to tour her new home, The Methodist Country House. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served followed by a concise business meeting. Before Christmas the members were found carefully stuffing and assembling toys for a local social service agency.

The new year brought a bridge party for the benefit of an active chapter. A speaker on Wilmington Urban Renewal was heard in February. Film strips were used as visual aids. A new slate of officers was proposed. An election of officers was held in March after which the Alumnae Club enjoyed the Holt House colored slides.

Founders' Day was observed in April with a dinner. The new officers were installed. The final meeting of the year was held in May during which plans were made for the coming year. A bake sale and a spirited white elephant auction served to culminate the country's activities as well as to supplement the treasury.

JANET WOOD SCHIRMER

EPSILON PROVINCE

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

The enthusiastic leadership of Ruthmary Voelker has resulted in a very successful year for the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club.

We began our monthly meetings last fall with a terrace luncheon and invited our fifty five local actives to join in the fun.

Our Arrowcraft Sale in October was a successful venture with many Pi Beta Phi's helping. During the sale we entertained our friends and neighbors at a morning coffee that was followed with an afternoon tea.

As an altruistic project this year, we elected to help the Lapeer State Home. And so in October we made forty five stuffed animals for the little children. Then in December we remembered thirty forgotten patients by personally shopping for their requested wants and giving them as gifts.

In December we again invited our husbands to a whist party. This has come to be a most enjoyable evening, with even the husbands looking forward to it.

We are pleased this year to have so many new members in our club. We are also proud to have had several local girls pledged to Pi Beta Phi throughout the country.

Because of our fund raising projects we were able to send a sizeable monetary gift to one of our province chapters. Also, to help another by making twenty five dozen cookies for a rush party.

In April we joined the North Woodward group, along with other Detroit area groups, to celebrate Founders' Day at Red Run Country Club.

All in all it has been a wonderful year and we look forward with anticipation to the beginning of another one.

ANNE CHESTNUT BARTLETT

DETROIT-DEARBORN

The Detroit Dearborn Alumnae Club opened its fall season with a September Luncheon and Board Meeting at the home of Ann Walker Brown. Ruth Ann Teetzel, of Grosse Pointe, Vice President of Epsilon Province gave an inspiring talk on the Convention.

Sally Voegtly Ericke open her lovely home for a successful Arrowcraft tea and sale. Ann Harwood Williams and Shirlee Nash Zopf had charge of the sale. Members invited their friends and sandwiches and cookies were served.

"The Fall Get-Together," under the supervision of Diane Wiggins Ledbetter, was held at the new Dearborn Civic Center. Mrs. Olivia Smith Moore, Grand Treasurer, gave a most interesting and informative talk on the future of fraternities.

Lois Hon Robinson, Ways and Means Chairman, with the help of her committee and loyal members, carried out a profitable money making project. Tickets were sold for the Broadway hit, "La Plume de ma Tante" at the new Fisher Theater. Calendars were also sold during the year.

Four joint meetings and six separate meetings were held during the year. A film on "Holt House" was shown, C.W.V.S. work shop held and toys were made. An enjoyable Christmas Party was held in December. Margaret Pickett Sagan, one of our members, spoke on her life as a daughter of a Missionary while living in India. Support was given to the Dearborn Panhellenic Dance held at the Country Club. Several new members were gained during the year. Cookies were sent to Michigan B for the Rushing Parties. Snack Boxes were sent to Michigan A, T, and A. Flat wear table service for eight was also sent to Michigan A. Generous donations were given to Settlement school, Emma Harper Turner Fund, Holt House and Centennial Fund. Book markers were sent to each of the four Michigan Chapters for the new initiates from this area.

The four Michigan Alumnae Clubs joined together in presenting the "Helen Lewis Award" to the outstanding Sophomore in each of the active chapters in Michigan.

Identification Bracelets were presented to Jane Henderson, Michigan A, Betsy Carroll, Michigan B, Judy Haock, Michigan T, and Lynne Brown, Michigan A. These girls were outstanding Seniors who were candidates for the Amy B. Onken award.

In April the alumnae clubs in this area attended the Founders' Day Luncheon at Red Run Golf Club. North Woodward Alumnae Club sponsored this enjoyable event.

The year closed with a husband and wife Picnic in June. We have had a most successful and enjoyable year together.

LUCILLE W. WRIGHT

GRAND RAPIDS

The Grand Rapids Alumnae Club began its activities for the year 1961-62 with thirty active members under the leadership of Claire Collins Souter.

At the September meeting a local florist presented a most interesting program on "Fall Dry Art." Also, plans were discussed for the Settlement School Sale which was held in October. Suzanne Willgren Haymaker did an excellent job as chairman of the sale.

In November, we had a social evening of bridge. The club's Christmas party was held at the home of Nancy McLeod Morgan and featured a gift exchange.

For our potluck dinner in January, Dorothy Tuttle Hagerman reviewed a book on the life of Emily Post.

In February we were pleased to have several of our inactive members join us for a luncheon at the Grand Rapids Athletic Club. After lunch everyone enjoyed a program of dramatic readings. Also in February a group of Pi Beta Phi and their husbands attended the Panhellenic Dance which is an annual affair in Grand Rapids.

The club enjoyed a visit by the Epsilon Province Vice President Ruth Ann Christiansen Teetzel in March who brought news of Settlement School and other fraternity activities.

Our Founders' Day Banquet was held in April, and in May a Punch Bowl Party highlighted by the Installation of Officers ended the activities for the year.

LOLA WHITMORE KARCHER

GROSSE POINTE

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae Club opened its Fall Program with a discussion entitled, "We Must Know About Communism." Our three panel members, Mrs. R. L. Shepard, Mrs. Robert Perez, and Mrs. Paul Wheeler reviewed for us the history of Communism, its spread outside of Russia, and Russia today. Our Settlement School sale in October was held in a member's home. In the morning coffee and coffee cake were served. In the afternoon we had a tea. It was very successful. We had our cooky-shine before Christmas, Singing Along with Mitch and exchanging gifts.

One of our members, Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, won a trip to London to see the Chelsea Flower Show after she took first prize at the Detroit Flower Show with her display of five chrysanthemums. At our November meeting she told us of her trip.

In April we celebrated Founders' Day with the other Detroit area clubs. It was a luncheon. Our sign-off supper was in May, at which time our new officers were announced.

MRS. JOHN L. KING

HAMILTON

The Hamilton Alumnae Club, now in its sixth year of existence, has fourteen paid members. Monthly meetings have been held from September to June.

In August of 1961, the club held a special meeting to discuss plans for a Settlement School Sale which was held at the lovely home of Mrs. Louise Rowland on October 27 and 28. The club also took the Settlement School Sale items up to the Pi Beta Phi Chapter at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio for the girls to see. The sale was a big success, and everyone who came was overwhelmed with the exquisite weaving and hand work. This was our Ways and Means Project for the year and well worth the work entailed.

Our December meeting was a Dinner meeting. This club members drove to the nearby Tri County Shopping Center and had a delightful dinner at Shilito's "Captain's Table." Afterwards everyone enjoyed doing some Christmas Shopping.

In March the club members entertained the Miami University active and pledges with a breakfast in their campus suite. Home-made baked goods, juice and coffee were served, and the morning was enjoyed by everyone.

Since Founders' Day usually comes during Greek Week at Miami University, the date of May 7 was selected for the celebration. Alumnae from the Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Richmond, Indiana areas joined with the active chapter of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, at a lovely luncheon held at a nearby Northern Cincinnati Restaurant. The Founders' Day Luncheon was lovely and very inspiring.

BARBARA HOLLOWAY

JACKSON, MICHIGAN

The Jackson Alumnae Club began the season with an active membership of twenty eight, under the leadership of Pat Dolan Steusloff. The first meeting of the year was held at the home of Dorothy Dake Boris. Rushing was discussed and a raffle was held in which Settlement School items were used as prizes.

A most enjoyable social evening was held in November at the home of Frances Dibble Avis. In January the members met at the home of Beverly Belyea Kluber. A history of Pi Beta Phi Conventions was given by Suzanne Craft Butterfield. A most informative speaker was the guest in February at the home of Betty Asselin Munro. The topic was Michigan's Constitutional convention and a great deal was learned from the evening's discussion.

Election of officers was held in March at the home of Eileen Willoughby. Founders' Day was celebrated in April, and our members were guests of active and alumnae of Hillsdale College. A pot luck supper and a wonderful evening getting acquainted with the Pi Beta Phi at Hillsdale was enjoyed by all.

The installation of officers took place in May at the home of Pat Dolan Steusloff, followed by a pleasant social evening. To conclude the year's activities, the annual husband's party was held in June at the lakeside home of Pat Grunner. This is an affair everyone looks forward to with great pleasure.

JANE TALLEY SELL

LANSING-EAST LANSING

The Lansing-East Alumnae Club opened its year activities with a dinner meeting at the home of Marion Klockow Jago, at which new members were greeted and plans discussed for the Fall Rummage Sale. The November meeting, held at the home of Jane Cookson Oyer, featured a demonstration by one of our members, Barbara Strand Soderquist, on making Della Robia wreathes. We were also honored at this time by a visit from Mrs. Teetzel, Epsilon Province Vice President. December brought the Christmas party with the actives at the Michigan I Chapter House, at which carols were sung, the tree trimmed and gifts given to the girls. In February, we were pleased to welcome the new pledges at a party at the home of Martha Fleming Banta. Joan Stapleton entertained the group at the March meeting with a talk and slides on her Experiences in Alaska and April was a busy month with the Founders' Day Celebration with the actives, an Auction of articles made by the members and Installation of Officers. The year was brought to a close with the Senior Farewell Party at the home of Dorothy Edleshymer Cotes.

MARGIE MOONE LOTT

LONDON, ONTARIO

The London Alumnae Club opened its programme of activities for 1961-1962 with a tea held at the chapter house. Our guest of honour was Clara Sipherd, a former National Officer of Pi Beta Phi, and a woman who has always been a tremendous source of inspiration and help to our club. It was a delight for us to see Mrs. Sipherd who had moved from London. A presentation to Mrs. Sipherd was made by Barbara Corbet, our club president, in gratitude for all her assistance.

The tea gave club members an opportunity to meet several of the new pledges who so capably assisted during the afternoon.

A "Visit to Eldon House" was the highlight of our November meeting. This magnificent old London home has recently been turned into a museum, and a conducted tour provided a fascinating evening for us all.

A particularly heavy January snowstorm was braved by a large number of London alumnae who turned out for a Pot Luck Supper held at the home of Noreen Gunn. Mrs. Teetzel, our province vice president, was a most welcome guest. Plans for Convention were outlined by Mrs. Teetzel, and she urged us to send a delegate. The annual House Corporation meeting was held the same evening, and possible major renovations to the chapter house were mentioned.

Jane Armstrong was the hostess for dessert and coffee at our final gathering of the year. That evening, our speaker was Miss Rosemary Bere, who outlined several new and interesting ideas in interior decorating.

Again this year, the London club raised money for various Pi Beta Phi projects through the sale of tickets for the performances of the National Ballet of Canada.

MARTHA MITCHELL

NORTH WOODWARD

Under the leadership of Jean Clark Auchterlonie, the North Woodward Alumnae Club began an enjoyable and active year.

The first meeting in the fall was devoted to a talk and movies about handicapped children in this community. Since the group contributed last year for two handicapped children to go to camp, this lecture was very rewarding to the members. In October, an interesting presentation of decorating ideas for Christmas was held followed by a hobby sale the next month. The group made money through the hobby sale by auctioning off a variety of things they had made at home and brought to the meeting. The Christmas party was a little different than previous years and very pleasant. Each member brought two dozen of her favorite Christmas cookies to the party and everyone traded.

Jane Gruber Waples, Jane Germany Maddox, and Pat Gilpin Bailey were chairmen for the Arrowcraft sale in October. The club added to the treasury in November by having a rummage sale under the guidance of Elaine Phillips Gunderson.

Again this year the group presented a chapter service award to an outstanding senior girl at the active chapters at Hillsdale, Albion, Michigan State University and the University of Michigan. They also presented a traveling award for an outstanding sophomore at each of these schools, in honor of Helen Anderson Lewis.

During the winter, a potluck dinner and card party was held, a talk about yard care was given and the members listened to a lecture about children. The spring activities included a stimulating talk by an exchange student from Germany and a picnic with the husbands.

The most satisfying event of the year was the Founders' Day luncheon at which the members were hostesses for three other Detroit area alumnae clubs.

AUDREY LAFRANCE HOWELL

SOUTHWESTERN MICHIGAN

Members of the Southwestern Michigan Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi have enjoyed a most interesting schedule of activities this year. Mrs. Richard Higgins has been our excellent president.

Two of our departing alumnae were complimented at a luncheon in August. Then in September Mrs. Albert Teetzel, province vice president, was entertained by the officers at a luncheon, meeting for the general membership followed. Mrs. Teetzel gave us many helpful suggestions to aid us in our planning. A toy demonstration by the George Toy Co. was held at Mrs. A. M. Shavers' home in October and each member brought one guest. In November a 24" doll was purchased and each member contributed an outfit for the doll. Most of the outfits were handmade, and a suitcase for the clothes was donated by one of the members. Tickets were sold to friends, and a drawing was held for the Pi Beta Phi doll. The project was such a success and so enjoyable for all, that we hope to repeat the project another year. A Christmas luncheon was held for alumnae and actives in our area at the Athelstan Club, the second week in December. We listened to the record of Pi Beta Phi songs, and we have since purchased it for our club. The K K I's entertained us in February, and we shared our knowledge of present sorority problems.

We looked forward to our Husbands' Nite in March when we all met for a pot luck dinner. Also we had an exchange bridge with the K A O's and the Δ I's as our guests. We celebrated Founders' Day with the Albion College Active Chapter. And we will conclude our year with a Picnic Luncheon in June.

MRS. ROBERT KNOBE

TORONTO

The Toronto Alumnae Club has had an active and especially rewarding year. At our first meeting this fall, we were enlightened by a talk given to us by Edith Myers Vuchinich (Ohio B). This year she became President of the Canadian Y.W.C.A. and she spoke to us concerning the conditions in West Africa, particularly in the Gold Coast and Sierra Leone. We were all very proud to see her career written up in the Winter Arrow.

On November 27 we held an extra special alumnae meeting in the form of two receptions, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. This was to celebrate the redecorating of our Ontario A Chapter House which took place during last summer. This was a huge job, undertaken by a hardworking Alumnae Committee. It involved major construction and renovating as well as interior decorating, and we also owe a large vote of thanks to our generous alumnae who made this project so successful. The actives showed us their appreciation by doing very well during Fall Rush and getting their full quota. An exceptionally large turn out occurred at this meeting to observe and admire all the changes that had taken place.

A novelty at our February meeting on February 27 was an "auction" composed of "white elephants" brought to the meeting by our members. Everyone howls with laughter and oddly enough what seems like a white elephant to you, seems like a treasure to somebody else.

ELIZABETH BELL

ZETA PROVINCE

COLUMBUS, INDIANA

During the summer the Columbus Alumnae Club enjoyed a pitch in dinner at the country home of Evelyn Tucker. Husbands of the members were included and enjoyed both a game of croquet before dinner on the lawn and also the fun of "party-bridge" later in the evening.

The fall season started with a pitch in dinner at the home of Ann Thompson. At this meeting there was discussion of Columbus girls attending schools where there is a chapter of Pi Beta Phi. Dolores Day conducted a short business meeting, followed by bridge.

With arrangements by Mary Emerson, capable chairman, the Arrowcraft sale attracted many guests invited to see the display at a morning "coffee" at Mary's home in November. Also in November, Ruth Hoeltke was hostess for a meeting emphasizing Settlement School. Sale of Christmas ribbon and wrapping paper was featured.

Barbara Grimmer was hostess in January for a meeting of Fraternity Study. The March meeting at the home of Marge Silva was in the afternoon and was well attended, including two prospective alumnae as guests. Daffodils, used as centerpieces, gave a welcome note of spring. Bridge prizes were attractive articles from the Arrowcraft Shop. Business of the day included election of officers for the coming year. This meeting closed with some members making plans for attendance at State Founders' Day in April.

ELIZABETH FINDLEY MEEK

FORT WAYNE

The Fort Wayne Alumnae Club under the most capable leadership of Lou Ann Kelly Stearns as president opened the year at Madelyne Sheets Gerding's "Knitting Nook." She presented an unusual and interesting program. In October we heard a book review, The Remarkable Kennedys, and made final plans for our Settlement School Tea which was held at Jean Bielby Bash's lovely home and was most successful. In November we entertained Mrs. Ralph McQuiston at a cooky-shine and December found us greeting the actives and pledges at a brunch.

In January, Jerry Kierspe Erwin our vice president and program chairman scheduled the controversial film "Operation Abolition." Those of us who braved one of our many blizzards to attend were fascinated and enlightened by both the film and the speaker. In February we entertained our husbands at a pizza party.

Elections in March were followed by a Founders' Day program in April. In May we held our installation dinner and in June closed our busy year by entertaining the actives and pledges at a box lunch picnic at Helen Jones Dinius' country home.

KITTY ANDERSON RISH

GARY

In September, the Gary Alumnae Club began their year under the capable leadership of Joan Pruitt Rearick, our president and 1961 delegate to State Day, who enthusiastically sparked attendance to a new high. Ways and Means Chairman, Marion Davies Roser, rallies the members to successfully replenish the treasury through the sale of gift paper and ribbon. In November, we honored province vice president, Barbara McQuiston with a tea attended by the executive board. Mrs. McQuiston spoke to the entire membership on the 1961 Convention and brought us news of Settlement School. In January, we received a Settlement School kit and "Showed it" to friends and neighbors at coffees throughout the city. Harold Moody, principal of Hobart High School, spoke to us on the threat of communism in February when we entertained the K K I alumnae club. April found us celebrating Founders' Day with the Hammond Alumnae club and trekking to Indianapolis for State Day on the 28. In May, our thoughts reminisced to final exams, and we sent a "goodies box" to Indiana E. To end the year, we invited husbands to a fun-filled barbecue at the home of Diana Carbonargi Hape, the reward for a year of accomplishment in Pi Beta Phi.

MRS. VLADIMIR GASTEVICH

GREENCASTLE

The Greencastle Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club entertained the pledges of Indiana E at a breakfast at the home of Hazel Winsy on November 10, and on April 15, the seniors of the active chapter were our guests at dinner.

Settlement School goods were displayed and sold at the active chapter house during Dad's Day and Mother's Day festivities; an afghan was also raffled. We had luncheon with Barbara McQuiston, province vice president, at the Union Building on September 12.

A lamp was given to the active chapter at Christmas. On February 17 we enjoyed dinner with Marianne Wild at the Union Building, with an informal discussion later at the home of Marian Mullendore. Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at the home of Marian Cassidy in Spencer, Indiana on March 26, with a business meeting following.

MARIAN B. CASSADY

HAMMOND

This has been an especially successful year for our Hammond Alumnae Club, under the enthusiastic leadership of Pat Takacs, President.

Our activities began in September, when we all enjoyed a "Kick-off" potluck dinner, followed by a business meeting at the home of Diane Wiley Gustafson. We welcomed two new members into the club; Barbara Brown from Indianapolis and Camille Smith from Pennsylvania.

In October we had an Arrowcraft Coffee Hour and bake sale in the recreation room of a local bank. Baked goods donated by members, along with a complete display of Arrowcraft items on sale. This coffee hour was held from 10:00-12:00 on a Saturday, which proved to be quite convenient for everyone, as indicated by the number who attended. Refreshments, which included coffee and sweet rolls, were simple and inexpensive.

We entertained Mrs. Barbara McQuiston, province vice president, at the Woodmar Country Club in November. The table centerpiece consisted of beautiful autumn flowers, and was later raffled off with proceeds going to the Centennial Fund.

Active Pi Beta Phis and their mothers were entertained at a lovely holiday tea in December at the home of Frances Rees. Friendly conversation and familiar songs, helped to make it an enjoyable afternoon for all.

Members of the Gary Alumnae Club were our guests in March, at the home of Jody Snook. We played Bingo, with white elephant items as prizes.

In April, six members of our club traveled to Indianapolis for Founders' Day at Butler University.

We concluded our activities for the year in May, with a "Men's Night" potluck supper party at the home of Pat Takacs.

KATHLEEN HUNT

INDIANAPOLIS

The Indianapolis Alumnae Club began its 1961-62 season with a cooky-shine, held at the Indiana I chapter house. Everyone had such a good time renewing friendships and greeting new members. We especially enjoyed a songfest, expertly led by Marjorie Vale Wilson.

For a number of years we have had a holiday tea in November, designed, primarily, to display and to promote the sale of Arrowcraft products. This year, however, there were nine coffees, held at the homes of club members, for their friends and neighbors. Sales totaled over $1900, as a result of these coffees.

During the Christmas holidays, senior girls from Indianapolis and their Pi Beta Phi mothers were entertained at a coffee in the beautiful home of Jane Beasley Lookabill.

Over eighty members were present for our sandwich exchange luncheon in January at the home of Nadine King.

One of the highlights of our year was the "Peppermint Twist" dance in February, sponsored together with the Junior Auxiliary. A capacity crowd attended this affair at the Columbia Club. To be sure, there was a twist contest. Proceeds from this will be divided among our various projects, one of which is the LaRue Carter Hospital for emotionally disturbed children.

Other activities of the Junior Auxiliary included the clothing of four boys at Christmas, and the dyeing of dozens of eggs for the annual Easter Egg Hunt on the lawn of the Governor's Mansion, sponsored by the Crossroads Rehabilitation Center for Crippled children.

The Founders' Day Luncheon was held in April at Atherton Center on the Butler University Campus. Once more the Butler Campus provided the setting for our meeting when in May, a lovely tea was held in the Holcomb Garden House.

High school daughters and new members from the Junior Auxiliary were honored guests at a pitch in luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ralph McQuiston, our province vice president, in June. This brought to a close a very successful year, under the leadership of our president, Lucy Beasley Edwards.

MARILYN BOWMAN BLEWETT

KOKOMO

Initiating its fifth year, the Kokomo Alumnae Club entertained active, their mothers, and several new alumnae members at a desert party in August. Rowene Higbee Hall and her committee arranged the get acquainted affair.

The main activities for the group began in October under the leadership of Janet Bassett Henricks. A very successful Settlement School Tea and Arrowcraft Sale was held in Peru, where there are now ten active alumnae members. Sonia Rouch Guyer efficiently directed the sale, which was a financial success, and also provided a chance to demonstrate the work being done by Pi Beta Phi at Gatlinburg. At the October meeting two new members were welcomed, making a total of seven newcomers for the year. Settlement School Chairman, Rowene Hall, displayed the Arrowcraft items available for Christmas.

January found the club making final arrangements for a gift to be used as an award at Indiana Z. Plans for the project were made by Jean Rine Heinemann in cooperation with the active chapter. The group was also pleased to learn that five more local girls are Pi Beta Phi pledges.

The March meeting in Peru featured the election of officers with Charlene Weimer Moore serving as chairman of the hostess committee. Cookie treats were sent by the members to Indiana B and Indiana J. Climaxing the activities of the year, many members attended State Founders' Day in April at Butler University.

JUDY CLINGAN MOORE

LAFAYETTE, INDIANA

The Lafayette Alumnae Club opened the 1961-62 season with a delightful "Beaux and Arrows" picnic for our husbands and guests. We then got busy and had two successful projects: a rummage sale with Nancy Weisiger at the head, and our annual Settlement School sale, which was again directed by Jo Anne Bloodgood. Our magazine chairman, Mary Gene Brock, works throughout the year to keep our sales going strong in that area.

The programs for the year proved both enjoyable and informative for the eighty four members of our club. From the report by our representative, Jane Long, on the President's Workshop, we were enlightened, amused, and enthused, all of us wishing we could have been there.

Mrs. Ralph McQuiston, our province vice president, brought us up to date on the present and future of Pi Beta Phi, when she visited with our group in November. It was equally enjoyable to hear some of our past reviewed by Mary Rose, one of the four charter members of the Lafayette Club who are still active in the group. It is interesting to note that the Lafayette Alumnae Club was organized in 1918.

Our chapter at Purdue University afforded us added enthusiasm when we entertained the delightful new pledges, and again when we welcomed the graduating seniors into our fold.

Thus another year has drawn to a close, and we are now anxiously awaiting our picnic in the fall and back to work again!

BERTA IRWIN PICKARD

MUNCIE

The Muncie Alumnae Club has had another busy and interesting year. Our year opened with a successful rummage sale and a large number attending our first business meeting and dinner held at the home of our president, Mrs. Peggy Edwards. Here we heard an interesting report from the Gatlinburg Workshop.

December brought our candy sale and a lovely Christmas coffee at which we were happy to see Pi Beta Phis who were home for the holidays.

In January we met with Indiana Z and again in February to help celebrate their tenth birthday with a special dinner. The occasion was highlighted by the presence of Mrs. Marianne Wild.

April brought our talent sale which proved to be profitable as well as lots of fun for everyone.

In May we entertained the active Indiana Z chapter with a picnic. It has been our hope to become more personally acquainted with each of the girls.

Our husbands were in the spotlight for our closing June meeting as we entertained them with the Annual Husbands' Party.

POLLY REYNOLDS RICHMAN

SOUTH BEND-MISHAWAKA

Last summer the Pi Beta Phis decided to stay in touch with each other by playing a Round-Robin bridge game. There were about four tables going and the girls were so enthusiastic about this that they started another in the fall.

An interesting display of Autumn Flowers helped to get our meetings off to a good start. We have had good attendance this year with an interesting variety of program from a talk on "The Freedom of Choice" to Wills and Trusts.

As we have always had a good response on our Settlement School Sale in the past, we decided to augment our sales with the sale of nut bread which was donated by each member in the club. All the bread was sold by noon with only a few loaves left to serve with coffee. This idea turned out to be a real money maker with a profit of $60 and next year it was decided that each member would donate three loaves.

Our meetings were presided over by Mrs. Bruce Leakey and we look forward to the traditional year's ending potluck with the installation of new officers.

MARY WENGER SHAFER

SOUTHEASTERN INDIANA

Southeastern Indiana Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year in Greensburg. Following a luncheon at the Elks Club the members met at the home of Ruth Olinger. During the business meeting the rush chairman reported and programs for the year were distributed by Winona Emerson, program chairman. Favorite recipes were exchanged.

In November our club met in Rushville. A luncheon meeting was held at the Durbin Hotel. Phyllis Joyce gave a most interesting travelogue, telling of her summer trip to Japan. As a money making project for the club, Donna Crenshaw conducted a sale of holly snowmen.

The February meeting was held with Margaret Morrison in Greensburg. A luncheon preceded the meeting. During the business session the officers for coming year were elected. It was voted to send Margaret Shazer as a delegate to Convention. Mary Swartz spoke on the History of Pi Beta Phi and Margaret Sahzer gave the story of Orla Watson at Settlement School. Sue Moster talked on Founders' Day.

Our May meeting was in Shelbyville. We had a pitch-in luncheon at the home of Kathryn Crenshaw. At this meeting we installed our new officers.

RUTH OLIGER

SOUTHWESTERN INDIANA

That fascinating subject, rush, was the topic of conversation at Southwestern Indiana's September meeting at the home of Anne Butterfield.

To add variety to our meetings a speaker from a local investment firm was invited to talk about stocks and bonds and how they may be tailored to fit each family's needs. That talk was given at our October meeting at Martha Wiske's home.

In November, we were delighted to entertain Barbara McQuiston with homestyle cooking at lunch at the Homestead.

The Evansville Country Club was the meeting place for our December meeting. We met for brunch after Christmas shopping.

Sue Heseaman hosted our "Greek Coffee" when EACH Pi Beta Phi brought a Panhellenic friend. A Greek coffee will become a part of our yearly program as it has been fun to bring our friends from other sororities to a social get together.

Our annual "Meet the Husbands" Dinner Dance was held at Rolling Hills Country Club in May.

We are looking forward to our summer swimming party which will be held in August.

ELIZABETH M. SHIPLEY

TERRE HAUTE

It was a real treat for the Terre Haute Club to have as their guest for the first meeting of the year, Mrs. Barbara McQuiston, Zeta Province Vice President. Following dinner, our business meeting was held with Phyllis Whitney, President, presiding. Mrs. McQuiston then spoke to us on the latest happenings in the Province. She also spoke of the 1962 Convention, and her hopes that our club would be represented in Washington, D.C. Mrs. McQuiston also discussed various methods whereby we could increase Settlement School Sales, thus helping the school and our own treasury as well. Following these suggestions, we requested and received a sample kit of Arrowcraft from Settlement School. Our October meeting was devoted largely to showing the items to members and taking orders. Our budget was presented with contributions to Settlement School, Emma Harper Turner, Holt House, and Convention Hospitality.

Election of Officers was held in February. Polly Anshutz, President; Nancy Rubey, Vice President; Grace Gerrish, Corresponding Secretary; Sally Pierce, Recording Secretary; Ronnie Templeton, Treasurer. This very capable group was installed in April at Betty Hamilton's home. Preceding the business meeting and Installation Ceremonies, a Pot Luck Dinner was served, with members bringing their favorite dishes.

Once again we closed a year with a sense of achievement and pleasant memories of good times spent together in the traditional spirit of Pi Beta Phi.

BARBARA BELL

ETA PROVINCE

CHAPEL HILL

The Chapel Hill Alumnae Club has forty five listed resident members with about one third being active. After assisting the local University of North Carolina active chapter with all of their rush parties, the alumnae later invited the new pledges to the annual buffet supper at the chapter house.

The members schedule five meetings a year, and at our November meeting, we had a special report by our province vice president and local member, Susan Rose Saunders, concerning the past summer workshop at Gatlinburg. She had brought back a paper place mat which was a pictorially illustrated map of the Settlement School area. In this way, we took a tour of the buildings, heard their history, met the numerous individuals connected with the success of the school, met some of the students, heard about the Red Barn completion, visualized the Arrowcraft shop full of mountain handicrafts, met some of the other province vice presidents, and decided that we all should visit or revisit Gatlinburg.

Founders' Day was observed by a combined dinner meeting with the active University of North Carolina chapter in Chapel Hill and the Duke University active and alumnae chapters of Durham also attending.

MAXINE HAFFNER COX

CHARLOTTE

The Charlotte, North Carolina, Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club has had another banner year. Never have we seen so many new faces, so many Pi Beta Phis moving into our area.

Our first meeting began with an old fashioned Cooky-shine, which we had not had for several years. It brought back many fond memories.

We were very fortunate to be able to secure the talents of Mr. Lacy S. Sellars, Quality Control Manager of television station WBTB, who spoke to us on the problems and pressures leveled upon television stations when they start to schedule and produce programs. Our group has never discussed a subject so spontaneously, all the way from "Why was my favorite show taken off the air?" to "How much of a part does the sponsor play in what we see on television?" All of us now have a new and greater respect for the industry.

Mrs. Susan Saunders, our province vice president, visited us in March. She was very much at home for we have many girls who knew her in Chapel Hill where they were active North Carolina A's. Mrs. Saunders truly was an inspiration to our club. We plan to work even harder next year.

Again this year we observed Founders' Day with a special program given at a Covered Dish Supper. Our husbands were invited to the party given at the home of Mrs. Donna Pledger Shugart. Everybody had a very good time.

With the incoming slate of officers, we are looking forward to a much larger active membership next year.

ANNETTE NIVEN MORROW

CHATTANOOGA

The Chattanooga Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Nan Chamberlain, met at the University of Chattanooga chapter house on October 24 to make plans for the coming year. On October 27 the alumnae gave a party at the Tennis Center for the new pledges and included guests from other sororities and fraternities. About 300 students attended. We further honored our pledges by giving a tea jointly with the Mothers' Club on November 12. Our president, Nan Chamberlain, chose December to be married. As Nan moved out of town we were fortunate to have Gaylor Raley step in as a very efficient replacement. January's meeting was devoted to a program on the Settlement School given ably by Marguerite Hickey. March was a busy month. The initiates were honored with a banquet at Wimberly Inn on March 2. On March 13 the new officers for the coming year were installed at our regular meeting. Then the Panhellenic Luncheon and Style Show was held March 23 to raise funds for scholarship to be given to a worthy girl at U.C. Our own Martha Bass is the new president of City Panhellenic. In April we entertained the legacies in this area which has become a regular event with our club. Our Founders' Day Luncheon was well attended on April 28. Then we ended the year with our regular meeting on May 8 and the graduating seniors were special guests.

JOAN HILL HANKS

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

The Columbia club was delighted when newly elected president Joan Deal assumed leadership in September. At the first fall meeting plans were laid for the year's work devoting immediate attention to aiding South Carolina A in every way possible. A lovely dinner was served for them and their rushee guests at the home of Linda Hall during rush week. Refreshments and flowers have been furnished for several of their campus drop ins. There have been several sewing bees at which versatile alumnae have made new initiation robes. Many of the actives had never been to a Cooky-shine so a delightful one was held at the home of Fontie Stith for both actives and alumnae.

The Loyalty Day luncheon in January was a lovely affair for the alumnae only while a more elaborate one was held on Founders' Day. Once again the actives were included and their grace and talents lent much to the festivities. Featured were slides of Holt House. Honor guests were charter members of South Carolina A and a special invitation was extended to all alumnae of South Carolina A who still reside in the state. It was gratifying to all who worked on the plans for the luncheon to see so many Pi Beta Phis in attendance.

ANN MIKELL

KNOXVILLE

The Knoxville Alumnae Club got an early start with a pre-academic year meeting and plans were made at this time to help in whatever way we could with rushing at the University of Tennessee. Co-chairman Mrs. John F. Christopher and Mrs. Ray S. Peebles were appointed to make all the arrangements for our annual supper for actives and new pledges which climaxes rush week. Who is happiest that night thrilled new pledges happy but exhausted actives or nostalgic alumnae reliving the thrill of their own pledge day.

In October, our ways and means chairman, Mrs. Ray Peebles had us all working at a series of called gatherings and in our homes. We cut, embroidered, sewed and stuffed numerous colorful, washable, corduroy animals which we subsequently sold as our years project. Though complete results are not in, we expect it to have proved successful.

Through the winter months our meetings proved to be mostly of a social nature. This included an evening for enthusiastic bridge players to get together.

January saw our Advisory Board Chairman, Mrs. J. E. Acker Jr., being hostess for the annual active chapter scholarship dinner. The "deserving" were treated to fried chicken and the rest served beans.

In February we enjoyed the hospitality of the Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club with Mrs. Saffold as our hostess. From this meeting came plans for a barbecue supper to honor graduating seniors. It was held at the home of Mrs. George Shevlin, Jr., who is a member of both clubs. We hope this is the beginning of close cooperation between the two groups.

AMANDA CAPEN

LEXINGTON

The Lexington Alumnae Club began its fall activities amid the excitement of helping establish a Pi Beta Phi Colony on the University of Kentucky campus here in Lexington.

During the summer all members (and some husbands, too!) were busy with the redecoration of the old E X house to welcome the new Pi Beta Phi in the fall. Under the capable direction of Katherine Gable Thompson (Ohio A) the house was transformed into a lovely home of which all are so proud!

The house was dedicated in September with Marianne Wild and Helen Lewis present. Soon after this the alumnae club helped the active chapter honor the new housemother, Mrs. Robert Rodes, at a reception.

A rummage sale was the fall money raising project. Besides having a good time selling, the club made $110.

Susan Saunders, Eta Province Vice President, was guest of the alumnae club during the winter and spoke to the members at the pot luck supper meeting in January.

The weekend of March 2, 3, and 4 was the highlight of the year; the initiation and installation of Kentucky B! The alumnae participated in all the weekend's activities which included: an informal supper for the active chapter and alumnae club on Friday night, followed by a cooky-shine; Saturday morning's initiation and a formal banquet that evening, at which time the alumnae members presented their scholarship awards to the actives and pledges; chapter-club attendance at church services Sunday morning, and a reception that afternoon, winding up the excitement of the weekend. Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. Wild, Mrs. Lewis, and Pat Akers, Eta Province President, were honored guests at all the ceremonies.

Initiation robes made by alumnae club members were their gift to the new Kentucky B chapter, and their gift to the new initiates were recognition pins.

In April the Founders' Day banquet was held at the Tates' Creek Country Club with the active chapter.

The spring project was a card party.

SHARON LITTLE CARDWELL

LITTLE PIGEON

Little Pigeon Alumnae Club, of Gatlinburg, Tennessee, can report a busy and a profitable year. Meetings were held each month, with interesting programs, a Christmas party and a luncheon.

The annual Spring Style Show was held at the Civic Auditorium with the cooperation of three prominent shops from Knoxville, a number of adults and children acted as models, as well as several actives from the University of Tennessee.

The theme was the Golden Anniversary of the Settlement School, and a goodly sum was realized, some of which will help with the furnishing of the new Loom House on the school grounds.

MARJORIE CHALMERS

LOUISVILLE

An August style show opened the year's activities for the Louisville Alumnae Club. This fund raising project offered door prizes and both alumnae and Kentucky A actives served as models.

The September program centered around interior decorating when the meeting, presided over by President Bette Pence Beck, was held at a local furniture store. The Christmas meeting, held in November at the home of Betty Ann Matthews Glass, followed a demonstration of numerous decorations on doors, tables, and gifts.

Susan Saunders, Eta Province Vice President, visited the group in January and suggested stimulating ideas. After the University of Louisville-Dayton game the alumnae and escorts met at a local restaurant for a chip-and-dip party. In addition to these enjoyable aspects of fraternity life, the club began collecting items from members for a public auction which is becoming an annual method of raising funds.

Several alumnae attended the installation of Kentucky B occurring in March. At this month's meeting the program was given at Barsh Mullin Mather's home by a Louisville nurseryman on the subject of spring planting.

In April was held the Founders' Day luncheon with Kentucky A and Kentucky B celebrating with us. Another project to bring in more capital, the bridge tournament, ended in May with a large party attended by all the participants when prizes were awarded.

The year was climaxed by the Senior Farewell Ceremony at the country home of Betty Richardson Stoess. During this ceremony gifts are presented to the graduating seniors of the active chapter as they are leaving the undergraduate group to join the alumnae.

The Louisville Alumnae Club looks forward to an equally successful coming year.

MARY BEVERLY WADE

MEMPHIS

The Memphis Alumnae Club has had an extra stimulus this year in the formation of Pi Beta Phi's 106th chapter at our own Memphis State University. Most of our activities revolved around the new chapter and our efforts to help it get a good start on this growing campus.

Our one big money raising project for the year was a bazaar held in November. Everyone was busy for months with the result that many new talents were discovered among the members. Children's clothes, Christmas decorations and candles, baked goods, ceramics, and Settlement School items kept the cash register ringing, and now that we think we know which items sell best, we plan to make this pioneer effort into an annual pre-Christmas sale.

Any of you who have had a part in colonizing a new chapter understand what a big job that is. Our president, Sue Condit Durschlag, has capably managed our busy schedule and with Peg Proctor Garrecht, the President of the new House Corporation, has directed us in the details of decorating the chapter room, rushing, pledging, forming a Mothers' Club, etc.

Needless to say we were proud to be present on February 24 when Tennessee Δ was installed and its first twenty six pledges initiated by our Grand President, Alice Weber Mansfield.

It has been our busiest and most productive year, but with an active chapter in Memphis, we have many such years in view.

KATHRYN SUMMERS SKINNER

THETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA

The Atlanta Alumnae Club opened its year with the annual dinner for the actives and alumnae. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Robert Ott, club president, and a delicious dinner was served by the executive board. In October we had the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. Kay Tanton, province vice president, while she was visiting us. The busy weekend included meetings with officers, a Panhellenic Coffee which was held at the homes of an Atlanta Alumna, and several of the Atlanta Pi Beta Phi Alumnae had the pleasure of taking Mrs. Tanton out to dinner.

Our projects for the year were a Rummage Sale which was a successful event in the fall, and a Benefit Bridge held in the spring. The Atlanta Childs' Home is also one of our projects. Two Alumnae go to the Home each month and give a birthday party for these underprivileged children. Both Alumnae and children look forward to and enjoy this very much.

The Atlanta Alumnae Club is closely associated with Georgia A in Athens, Georgia. Our Area groups have several projects which benefit the active chapter and our Founders' Day Banquet was held this year in Athens with the sisters.

Another of our Area Groups is very much interested in making books for the Blind Childrens' School in Atlanta.

Our main social event of the year is the annual Mother-Daughter Coffee which is held in Atlanta every Christmas season at the home of one of our alumna. This is always a most exciting and well-attended event.

CLARE EARNEST LASSITER

BIRMINGHAM

The first important date on our calendar this year was a pleasant visit from our province vice president, Kay Tanton, in October.

We also had a very successful annual Arrowcraft sale in October. This tea sale headed by Emily Fincannon grossed about $750. Credit also goes to Lois Wash for a presale in her home. At the sale we had a display to show how the sale helps Settlement School.

This year we held our first Mother Daughter tea. All active Pi Beta Phis from Birmingham and their mothers were invited. The planning and success of this tea was due to work of Helen Kohl.

In January we presented a gift to Alabama A and Alabama B to commemorate Chapter Loyalty Day.

Our second annual dinner dance was a gala affair. Each year at this time an award is given to the most outstanding alumnae. Margaret Perritt received this year's award for her contributions in the field of speech therapy.

We celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon with Alabama A. This luncheon rounded out an excellent year for our group.

SARA OXFORD

CLEARWATER

The Clearwater Florida, Alumnae Club highlighted its Club program for the year by honoring its ten Golden Arrow members at a morning coffee on February 17. At this meeting the officers simulated the initiation ceremony so that each member could recall to her memory her own "special day." Wine carnations tied with silver blue ribbon and a golden arrow were given to our ten honored members.

In the fall we held benefit card parties in the homes of individual members using Settlement School products for table prizes.

Our province vice president, Kathryn Leutwiler Tanton, was our guest in March. Following a board meeting the group gathered for luncheon and a reception so all could visit with Kathryn Tanton before the afternoon meeting.

Our Club closed with the traditional Founders' Day meeting which this year honored Jennie Nicol.

HENRIETTA STEWART BROWN

DE LAND

The De Land Alumnae Club began its year with a meeting in the home of Marguerite Grimm McKenzie.

In October, the members enjoyed a luncheon at the Holiday House with Mrs. G. C. Tanton, province vice president, as our special guest. Plans were begun for the annual fashion show which was an event of late October.

The fashion show, entitled "Artists and Models," was combined with many varied exhibits by local artists. Mary Briscoe Lausch and Betty Dreka Knox provided the latest fashions for children and adults. The affair was an outstanding success.

One of the occasions we all look forward to each year is the Christmas party held for Florida A. This year the dinner was given in the Calico Kitchen in December. Each member brought a gift, later to be distributed to needy children through the schools.

The March meeting in the home of Joanne Pickens Collette featured the election of officers, in addition to the regular program.

Our Founders' Day dinner, again held jointly with the actives, was served on the patio around the pool at the home of Mrs. Morton McDonald. The actives provided the program, which completed another successful year.

BARBARA RUTTER DYKES

FORT LAUDERDALE

The seventh charter year was begun in September with Cynthia Hadley Blake presiding and thirty two chapters represented by fifty eight members.

Betty Schmidt Tonking planned interesting and varied programs which included School Daze, when members arrived dressed as children returning to school with huge suckers and yo-yos as prizes; Coiffure Capers, hair fashions demonstrated on attractive models by two leading local hairdressers; Christmas Party with husbands and actives invited; Cooky-shine, reminiscent of college days; Card Party, following a business meeting with our Kay Leutwiler Tanton, Theta Province Vice President; Double Header which included election of officers and Easter crazy hat party; and a dinner dance to end the year.

The November Settlement School Tea and Sale was held in chairman Margaret Van Duzen Jeltstrom's home with members taking active part in preparations and inviting friends to attend.

Under the guidance of Elinor Doughty Jensen the club sponsored a production by the Children's Theater Showcase with part of the proceeds earmarked for Broward County Pediatrics Care Center.

The local Founders' Day luncheon in April was joined by the new Hollywood Alumnae Club which now includes some of Fort Lauderdale's former members.

The seventeen Pi Beta Phi members of Panhellenic include two board members and three standing committee members. Jett Monroe Schmelz designed the association's yearbook cover depicting the official pins of member women's fraternities.

Panhellenic, the only women's organization asked to work with the city fathers, formed a Public Relations Committee, with Kay Leutwiler Tanton a co-chairman, to be in charge of the Hospitality Booths along with the Junior Chamber of Commerce in an endeavor to furnish interesting and organized entertainment for college students here for spring vacations. Club members volunteered to man a booth for the six Thursdays of this period.

JOAN BUNNELL GAMBILL

GAINESVILLE

On December 1, 1961, nineteen alumnae signed the charter establishing a Pi Beta Phi Club in Gainesville, Florida, home of the University of Florida. While it is hoped that an active chapter will be established on the campus, the more immediate purpose is to meet and keep in touch with the many Pi Beta Phis in this area. The thirty-five alumnae here represent twenty-three different chapters. In addition there are ten transfers presently enrolled in the university.

The most enthusiastic new president is Delyn Armstrong Barton (Alabama A) daughter of Candace Secor Armstrong (Iowa Γ). Though the Club is quite new the members are already par-participating in Panhellenic activities. It has a Panhellenic representative and some of its members will model in the Panhellenic Fashion Show.

We looked forward to a visit from our province vice president, Kathryn Leutwiler Tanton, who was full of suggestions for a particularly inspiring Founders' Day celebration.

ELLEN WESTFALL MERING

HOLLYWOOD

The Hollywood Alumnae Club received its charter on November 10, 1961. We are especially proud of this achievement since we are the first fraternity of the eighteen represented in our City Panhellenic to become a nationally chartered club. Our membership already shows signs of increasing. Eight Pi Beta Phis in our area have expressed an interest in our group, and we hope they will join with the fourteen charter members soon.

In September an organizational meeting was held at the home of Jeanne Kelly Salvesen. Plans for locating Pi Beta Phi in our vicinity were made.

At our November meeting, in the home of Sue Poyer Hamman, officers were elected. Leah Lindley Marks was chosen to lead our group during its first important year.

We were honored in having Kay Leutwiler Tanton, Theta Province Vice President, as our special guest and installing officer in January. Five members of Fort Lauderdale Alumnae Club were able to be with us also. The presentation of an engraved gavel to our president by Cynthia Hadley Blake, president of the Fort Lauderdale Alumnae Club, helped to make this evening a memorable one. In addition to the installation ceremony, our members enjoyed Settlement School slides.

Each member attending our March meeting sent a message to her chapter as part of our program on active chapter interests.

The highlight of our spring meetings was a Founders' Day celebration with Fort Lauderdale in April.

JO NELL PROCTOR DUDA

LAKELAND

The Lakeland Alumnae Club has had a most successful and inspiring year under the leadership of our president, Jane Herndon.

We were delighted to pledge three girls from this area. Our opening meeting was a luncheon with Dorothy Vennell as hostess.

Twelve members attended. We were proud to be able to give $100 toward the new Florida B chapter house fund. This was the largest donation received from an alumnae club at this date.

We are especially fortunate to have as a member in our club, Bessie Kibler, who shares with us, each year, her lovely home for a Christmas tea. The actives and their mothers are the honor guests. Each active received the Pi Beta Phi crest for a blazer as a gift. We were happy to have alumnae present from Winter Haven, Haines City, and Sebring.

Kay Tanton, our province vice president was guest of honor at our March meeting. Jane Herndon entertained in her spacious home with a luncheon. The club had a pleasant and inspirational meeting with Mrs. Tanton.

Jane Bradley served as chairman of the Pi Beta Phi Committee who hosted the Panhellenic luncheon in April.

MARY WALDROP

MIAMI

The Miami Alumnae Club began a most interesting year under the leadership of Alderine Jennings Moore. At the June meeting actives were guests and they reported on activities at their colleges. Another summer function was a lovely covered dish supper honoring actives and their mothers at the home of Danner Baker Poppe. There was a grand turnout and the food, chatter and surroundings made a lovely start for the year.

The theme, "Friendships under Freedom" was chosen for the year. The September program carried out this theme with a speaker, Gerardo J. M. Abascal, a refugee from Cuba, who enlightened us on the conditions in Cuba today.

In October, another program of a serious nature titled, "Communism in our Colleges" was given. This was a tape recording from the school of Anti-communism. A very successful rummage sale was held in October with Ann Huggins Goff as chairman. $500 was cleared on this sale.

The Settlement School Coffee and Arrowcraft sales held at the home of Karen Christiansen was a tremendous success. Under the co-chairmanship of Jane Edwards Holbrook and Helen Nold Clarke the club sold $1800 worth of Arrowcraft products.

In December a program "Christmas in the Atomic Age" was presented by Mildred Wright Charles. Kings Bay Yacht Club was the setting for the annual Christmas Dance. Bettie Rossmann Seckinger was chairman of this lovely affair.

January began with new leadership. Alderine Jennings Moore moved to Bogota, Colombia, so Carolyn Irwin Feimster, the vice-president took over her duties. Loyalty Day was celebrated with a Cooky-shine, February and March programs were "Philanthropic Projects of other Women's Fraternities" by Leone Woodard and a "Mock Initiation" by Diana Kunze.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon honoring "Golden Arrow" members held at Coral Reef Yacht Club. Jayne Dunker was chairman.

LENORA WILLIAMS KING

MONTGOMERY

Under the inspired leadership of President Elizabeth Williams Copeland, the Anita Van de Voort Hudson Alumnae Club has had a year filled with fellowship and activity.

There were two major projects planned for the fall and winter months. In September we assisted Alabama Gamma at Auburn with a Space Rush Party. Jane Reing Sudyam, Margaret McNabb Ward and Rae Wille Hawthorne took some clever refreshments along to help carry out the theme. In December we had a lovely coffee at the home of Idelle Steth Brooks to which each member brought a prettily wrapped Christmas gift of clothing or toilet articles for an elderly person. A community project, which was undertaken this year in connection with the local Salvation Army, has been a traditional activity of the Christmas season for the Montgomery Club.

Our October meeting was a high point in the year's calendar for we had a most helpful visit from Kay Leutwiler Tanton, province vice president, whom we enjoyed not only as a capable Fraternity officer, but as a former member of our club and a cherished friend.

This spring, at the Panhellenic Luncheon, Pi Beta Phi's Rae Wille Hawthorne graced the President's chair and Marian Pratt Thornton was the charming model representing our club in the luncheon's Fashion Show.

The Alabama Gamma Chapter at Auburn and the Auburn-Opelike Alumnae group were invited to join Montgomery Pi Beta Phi in our Founders' Day observance this year. We hope to make this an annual custom.

For the first time in several years, plans are being made to send a delegate to the Convention in Washington. We look forward to hearing all the news firsthand from our own Pat Shadoin Williamson.

ELIZABETH PHILLIPS TURNER

OCALA

The newly rechartered Ocala Alumnae Club is looking forward to a successful and rewarding year. Our club is proud of an active membership of twenty one, with Gene Robbins Spencer serving as President. Several informal meetings were held at the home of Dorothy Bierly Clark in planning for the rechartering and for future events.

We began our activities of the year by participating in the annual Panhellenic Tea held in early September for alumnae, actives, and prospective pledges. Several of our members prepared a most attractive display of Pi Beta Phi emblems, jewelry, magazines, flowers, for the tea.

Our annual Christmas Party was an informal tea held at the home of Dr. Margaret Palmer on December 22. Dr. Palmer's house had been decorated by the local Garden Club for viewing on the Holiday House Tour. It made a lovely setting for this delightful event to which we all look forward. It was a pleasure to have actives and pledges join us for this occasion.

We anticipated with pleasure and great interest a visit from our province vice president in March.

POLLY BRIGGS

ORLANDO-WINTER PARK

Under the capable leadership of Mary Hayes, President, this alumnae club has had an exciting, eventful year. The Alumnae Advisory Committee has worked closely with the Rollins College Active Chapter. In the previous year the club led Theta Province in magazine sales through Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency. Participation in city wide Panhellenic affairs included representation at the annual Panhellenic luncheon, at which Mrs. Joseph Grigsby, retiring Chairman of National Panhellenic Association, spoke on "The Anti-Fraternity Movement." At this time Pi Beta Phi delegate, Elaine Daley, was installed as Panhellenic Treasurer for the coming year.

The first fall meeting was at the new Orange Blossom Playhouse, where Pi Beta Phi Director Lisa Hawley arranged for the group to see a preview performance of a coming play. In October, the club had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. Kay Tanton, Theta Province Vice President, at which time there was also an Arrowcraft display and an inspiring program about Settlement School.

A benefit preview performance of a play at the Orange Blossom Playhouse was the club's annual fund raising project. Two hundred dollars, about half the profit, was contributed to the local Sunland Training Center for handicapped children; and the remainder is reserved for Pi Beta Phi philanthropies.

At the club's Christmas dinner a large collection of toys was assembled for underprivileged children. After Christmas a coffee was given, honoring pledges, active members, and their mothers.

Loyalty Day was celebrated with the Rollins College Active Chapter. The program gave important consideration to "The Status of the Fraternity in Today's Society." Interesting variation in programs has been combined all year with increased effort in stimulating the interest and participation of all alumnae throughout the area.

Founders' Day was observed with the Rollins College Active Chapter in April.

JEAN PALMER HARMON

PENSACOLA

The Arrow of Pi Beta Phi is shining brightly in Pensacola, Florida. We were quite proud to have thirteen active and pledged members from Pensacola at Florida B, Alabama A, Mississippi A and North Carolina A this year.

The Alumnae Club honored these actives, pledges and their mothers at a Christmas Coffee in the attractively decorated home of Mrs. Sarah Gunn Moore. This annual event afforded an opportunity of renewing friendships and catching up on activities at the chapter houses.

October and March meetings were planned for the planning and completion of club business, while April found us celebrating Founders' Day at a Luncheon meeting. The completion of a successful year of work and fellowship came in May with the installation of our new officers at this meeting.

DOROTHY LAMB DAVIDSON

ST. PETERSBURG

By late summer our plans for the year were almost complete, and we extended special invitations to new St. Petersburg Pi Beta Phi residents to meet with us at Craft Village for our first get-together of the year.

November was a busy month as we held our first rummage sale and our special meeting to which we invited husbands, dates, and other guests. Mr. Earl F. Kohler, professor of political science at St. Petersburg Junior College, was our speaker on world affairs.

Our annual Christmas Coffee was held at Marge Bartlett's lovely home. This year we honored our actives, our pledges, and their mothers, and it was a special treat to honor our own Elizabeth Allee and her daughter, Sydney, who is an active at the University of Missouri.

Carrying on with our traditional plans we had a paper bag luncheon and Settlement School program in January followed by the benefit luncheon and fashion show in February. Genevieve Kaleel and Betty Littrell were co-chairmen of the latter event which benefits Settlement School and our local mental health project.

The highlight of our year was the March meeting at which Mrs. Kay Tanton, province vice president, was guest of honor and speaker. March also found us busy with another rummage sale. Betty Dietz was chairman of these sales this year. We are all proud of Betty, who is now principal of Roser Park Elementary School.

Spring found us honoring our Founders in April and installing our officers in May, at our annual cookie-shine, covered dish supper.

We closed a very successful and eventful year in June by meeting with our actives, Helen Hamilton, our very active and capable president, deserves much credit for guiding us through another wonderful year.

MARY BUMPOUS CAMPBELL

TALLAHASSEE

The Tallahassee Alumnae Club began its activities for the year with a meeting at the lovely home of President, Betty Ann Skelton. A delightfully interesting program on the Settlement School was given by Louise Weichert, who had recently visited Gatlinsburg.

Early in October a coke party was given at the old plantation home of Louise Weichert. At this time we became acquainted with the charming new pledges of Florida B.

The next event on our calendar was a meeting at the Chapter House. The pledges entertained us with a skit about the Founders of Pi Beta Phi.

One of the highlights of the year was our Christmas Coffee at the Governor's Mansion. We are honored to have as one of our active members the charming wife of the Governor of Florida, Mrs. Farris Bryant.

Our annual Bridge Benefit was held on Valentine's Day and was again a grand success. We had thirty five tables for bridge. Everyone enjoyed home made cake and coffee and the fascinating fashion show presented by Kelley's Casuals. We were pleased to have as one of the Florida B models, Carol Hair, the 1962 Orange Bowl Queen.

We were delighted to welcome our province vice president, Mrs. G. C. Tanton, to a luncheon at the Chapter House, in March.

The year was ended with our annual picnic honoring the graduating seniors of the active chapter.

MARILYN W. LITTLE

TAMPA

Since our last report in March 1961, the Tampa Alumnae Club has had another interesting year. For our final meeting of the year in June, we let our husbands in on the fun and had a "shrimp-a-roo" at the home of Patti Angel Tunno. A good time was had by all.

Instead of a rush party, the Tampa Alumnae Club sent out an informative rush bulletin made in the form of large books entitled "There's More To A Pi Phi." The books, done largely by Nancy Sossamon Buck, Meredith Goar Norman, and Susan Sossamon Twoomey were greeted enthusiastically as we pledged four lovely girls at the various universities.

Fall began with a large attendance at our first meeting. At this time the new members of our club were introduced. They are Carolyn Cole Hightower, Lynda Hanshaw Flanagan, Patti Myers, and Elizabeth May Jones.

In November we had our first Benefit Bridge to raise money. Lou Hatton and her well organized committee served delicious cakes and coffee to the large crowd. There were many nice door prizes given at this very successful affair. It will become an annual function of our club.

In the wee hours of December 2, 1961, Lou Parmelee Hatton and Joanne Moore Baldy in their station wagons crept out to Ybor City and sold all of the rummage our club had collected over a two year period. The girls were good saleswomen and had quite an interesting time.

One of the outstanding events of the year was a Christmas Dance given with the A Δ II's, X Θ's, Δ Δ Δ's, and K Δ's. The dance was held at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club to honor the new pledges of the five groups. Each pledge was presented at the dance and given a remembrance of the occasion. The Pi Beta Phi were well represented, and it was indeed, a thrill for the pledges.

Loyalty Day was celebrated in January with a dinner at the lovely home of Marjorie Knapp Nickell. We had a good time reminiscing about college days and telling of Loyalty Day when we were actives.

Pi Beta Phi, Patti Wiehrs Moore, was among the lovely models at Tampa Panhellenic's second fashion show and benefit bridge. The proceeds of this event go toward a scholarship at the new University of South Florida, located in Tampa.

The highlight of our March meeting is a visit by our charming province vice president, Kay Tanton.

Joanne Moore Baldy has guided us through a year of interesting and worthwhile work. We have renewed old friendships, made new friends, and we look forward to many more years of working together in Pi Beta Phi activities.

LOU ANN BURKHIM LEVY

TUSCALOOSA

Mrs. Tanton, province vice president, met with us in October for a luncheon meeting and helped us make plans to revive our one year chartered alumnae club. We are now meeting once a month for lunch in a restaurant, but plan several night meetings so that those can attend who are unable to come at noon.

In November the Tuscaloosa Alumnae Club had a dessert party for the pledges of Alabama B (University of Alabama) at the Pi Beta Phi House.

At our December meeting we had a program on the Constitution. A number of the alumnae attended the Pi Beta Phi active chapter banquet honoring the pledges on December 18, and the guest speaker was the husband of an alumna.

Our January meeting was snowed out (in Alabama!) and had to be postponed a week when we had a small attendance but a good program on the Settlement School presented by an active.

In February we had a most interesting program on history. On February 25 several alumnae assisted with initiation while others had a supper party for the pledges who were not initiated.

We hope interest will continue and attendance will increase among our members.

ELSIE LAWRENCE GRIBBIN

WEST PALM BEACH

In addition to several regular business meetings during the past year, Pi Beta Phi alumnae of the greater West Palm Beach area particularly enjoyed the meaningful Founders' Day Luncheon in April. In charge of arrangements were Mrs. Charles Rowe and Mrs. John L. Burns. The program centered on highlights and early activities of our twelve founders. New officers installed were: president, Mrs. Charles F. Ward, Jr.; vice president, Mrs. Emery Newell; treasurer, Mrs. A. G. Varn; secretary, Mrs. Donald J. Smith, and recommendations chairman, Mrs. Harry W. Massey.

Highly enlightening was our summer meeting when several active members from Florida B were present to discuss rushing procedures and the participation of their chapter in college activities.

Early in September many of our alumnae attended and took part in the city wide Panhellenic tea which replaced individual sorority rush parties.

Our fall meeting was graced by the presence of our province vice president, Mrs. G. C. Tanton. Her visit proved to serve as a stimulus to our comparative newly organized club.

To honor our local actives and pledges during the Christmas holidays, Mrs. Robert M. Lewis was hostess to a lovely come and go coffee. This was also a money raising project.

During the coming year we are planning to have several daytime luncheon meetings in hopes that a greater percentage of our members will be able to attend.

JANE BURTIS SMITH

IOTA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The Arlington Heights Alumnae Club had an enthusiastic and successful year under the able leadership of Ann Cox Otzen. Late in September we held two Settlement teas, in the Inverness Country Club in Palatine and the Rolling Green Country Club in Arlington Heights. Both were a tremendous success under the direction of Louise Health Lemmons and her committee.

In October, we had an inspiring talk by a Polish Refugee, warning of the ever present communist threat.

Our two fun programs were the Christmas party and February bridge, plus two monthly bridge groups.

In January, Betty Newman Swanson gave a most enlightening and thought provoking program on "Problems Facing the College Fraternities and Sororities of Today." Her interesting material was gathered from articles and speeches given by prominent men and women from various parts of the country.

The annual Founders' Day Banquet was a lovely dinner meeting, with Dorothy Coleman Thorman, Iota Province Vice President, as our guest.

Our Centennial Fund Money was "earned" this year. At one meeting we held a profitable White Elephant sale with each member bringing one of her valuables from home. The next project was raffling off a luscious spring hat; made and donated by Maxine Morrison Horwath.

We again selected the outstanding sophomore in Iota Province and presented her with a bracelet.

Our spring activities included election of officers; a dinner dance with the "men in our life" and assisting in the Panhellenic information tea for local high school senior girls (and their mothers), who plan to attend college.

Our membership is ever changing and it is with sadness that we say good bye to many fine friends who move from this area. Fortunately, we are awarded the pleasure of meeting and working with just as many genial new friends. Belonging to Pi Beta Phi is a gratifying and pleasurable experience which goes on.

JEANNE JANETT

AVON-BUSHNELL

Since our last report in March 1961, the Libbie Brook Gaddis Alumnae Club of Avon-Bushnell, has had another successful and enjoyable year.

The first meeting was a luncheon held at the home of Mrs. C. W. King in September, under the new leadership of Mrs. James Haynes. Although our Club is small comparatively, it does not lack in interest and its fulfillment of its obligations to Pi Beta Phi. What we lack in numbers is compensated by the fact there is always the atmosphere of congeniality and the evidence of "togetherness."

Our Christmas luncheon, high light in our club year, was again held in the home of Miss Ruth Woods. It has been the custom the past few years to have the Arrowcraft Sale at this meeting. However the Sale is continuous, to a degree, throughout the year, as the Sales Committee keeps an assortment of articles on hand.

Another project which vies with our interest is the magazine sales, headed by Mrs. Stanley Manning. Per capita wise we are toward the top.

CARRIE CLARY CHAIN

BLOOMINGTON-NORMAL ILLINOIS

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae of Bloomington, Illinois filled this year's calendar with an interesting variety of events under the leadership of Kathleen Asheim.

Beginning with a potluck dinner in September we planned our year's activities, including the annual Settlement School Tea, a pre-Thanksgiving luncheon with Mrs. Floyd Thorman, province vice president, as guest, a dessert-bridge in January and we hosted a lively Panhellenic luncheon in February. This month was a cooky-shine, followed by our last program for the year in April which was in commemoration of Founders' Day.

Our luncheon in November was of special interest to us. Mrs. Floyd Thorman presented us with a broader view of our role as women in an interesting, challenging world, urging that we support and maintain the high standards of our Fraternity. She also offered us helpful suggestions in planning our programs in the future. After the luncheon she showed us slides of life at some previous Conventions and scenes at Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

When a meeting has as its theme, "Communist Infiltration in College," it is usually a lively, interested group in attendance. Such was the case at our February luncheon meeting. An informative film was presented, pamphlets distributed and a short talk given on this timely subject. This was our first opportunity as hostesses for the annual Panhellenic luncheon and I believe it to have been a most rewarding one.

MARY LOU RANDOLL

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA

The Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club activities began with a pot luck supper held in September. Highlight of the meeting was the enthusiastic report of the Gatlinburg Workshop given by Dorothy McGaughey Mynard.

The October pledge party was honored with the presence of Mrs. Floyd M. Thorman, Iota Province Vice President. Guests and members were entertained with skits presented by the alumnae under the direction of Harriet Haycock Brown, and by the actives with the assistance of Yvonne Young Dalton.

The enthusiasm of the alumnae club reached a peak in November as the entire membership prepared for the annual Settlement School sale held at the Urbana-Lincoln Motor Inn. As in recent years, the sale was very successful and well attended by many friends in the community. For this success, credit must be given the Settlement School Chairman, Anita Wood Collins, and the director of the sale, Nancy Webb Parkhill. The alumnae club is justifiably proud of the results of combined and continued efforts in distributing the lovely Arrowcraft merchandise from Gatlinburg. Later in the month an enjoyable buffet and bridge party were held at the Urbana Country Club completing the fall programs.

Bertha Kinnear Berger was the January hostess for a dinner honoring the June graduates of Illinois Z. Speeches and lively discussions provided the program for the February and March meetings. The topics were "Fraternity Situation" and "Commodities and Securities" and proved to be very informative. Later in March a number of mother-daughter parties were held in the homes of alumnae.

The Illini Union was the scene of the annual commemoration of Founders' Day. As always, it was a fitting climax to the year's endeavors. The plans for May included a club tour to Holt House, followed in June with a party honoring the town pledges.

HELEN ADAIR HAYES

CHICAGO BUSINESS WOMEN'S

The Chicago Business Women's Alumnae Club initiated an interesting year by attending a performance of "Sunset at Campobello" at the Lincoln Park Theatre in August. In November another special event was a lecture by John E. Burchard on "Old and Contemporary Japanese Architecture" at the Art Institute which was also featuring a Japanese art exhibit. After the lecture we had dinner at a nearby restaurant and held a short business meeting.

On December 15, Dorothy Wheeler entertained us at her home with a delicious Christmas dinner. A number of Settlement School products were sold and a contribution was sent to the Foster Parents' General Fund. This delightful evening was concluded with an exchange of gifts.

At the regular business meeting on February 23 the nominating committee presented the following slate for the 1962-1963 year: Lois Ann Lenz, president; Helena Hunt, vice president; Dorothy Wheeler, secretary; and Dorothy Tousey, treasurer. It was voted to send our regular contributions to Settlement School, Holt House, and the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund, together with a contribution to the Centennial Fund.

The officers were elected in March and installed at the May meeting at which time we had with us Mrs. Thorman, our province vice president.

Founders' Day was celebrated on April 28 with a luncheon at the Cafe of Seven Countries in Wheeling.

All Pi Beta Phis working in Chicago are most cordially invited to join the Chicago Business Women's Alumnae Club.

MILDRED N. BOYCE

CHICAGO SOUTH

The Chicago Alumnae Club South welcomed new members at the September Cooky-shine, held at the home of Mardie Pontius MacKimm. Shirley Cole showed pictures of her trip to Europe, Egypt and the Holy Land. In October, we enjoyed the fall coloring in our journey to Hinsdale to visit the new home of Virginia Powers Brandt. The Settlement School Sale and Tea was held in November at the home of Sue Howard Delves. Friends and neighbors were welcomed through the day and evening. Our Christmas party was held at the home of Nancy Marshall Scheidt; we brought toys for retarded children at Dixon, Illinois, and exchanged small grab bag gifts. Virginia Rundberg Daugherty opened her house for the annual Holiday Brunch, with our special guests the actives and pledges. In February, we met at the home of Ann Grasse Guelle and packed snack boxes for the actives. The March meeting was held at the home of Cecile Gilroy Munnecke. It was Panhellenic Guest Night and an interesting travelogue was presented by Mrs. Harry Curtis. Founders' Day, always a memorable occasion, was celebrated with the South Suburban Club, by a luncheon at a local restaurant. In May we attended a fur fashion show, a money making project for the year, and a Spring Tea was also held at the home of Kathryn Brown Cramer. We will end our year in June by having a pot luck Dinner at the home of Sue Howard Delves with the actives as our guests.

JOAN LAUNSPACH KLENK

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN

The Chicago West Suburban Alumnae Club has had another busy and interesting year. Programs have been varied and informative, including Japanese Paper Folding, (Origami) by one of the members, Barbara Short Peterson, a "do it yourself" auction with one very interesting item being colored sprayed weeds which was exceedingly attractive.

Top fashion styles were modeled by members at the annual Settlement School Sale and Tea. This event was one of the highlights of the fall season in the suburbs and was well attended. This year's theme was a circus motif with gay clowns and balloons used as background for the Settlement School booths.

The Alpha group held a potluck for one meeting and had their husbands in attendance.

At Christmas a coffee was given for the actives, pledges, and their mothers who live in the area at the home of Mildred Meek Trumbo. The actives and pledges enjoyed getting together to discuss their respective schools.

Our Founders' Day Banquet was again enjoyed at the Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale with the joint effort of six West Suburban Alumnae Clubs with the Hinsdale Township Club acting as hostess.

HELEN CABEEN JACKSON

DECATUR

Led by Nancy Smith Quigle, our capable and enthusiastic president, the Decatur Alumnae Club enjoyed a most successful year.

The club was entertained in September, at the newly redecorated chapter house, by Mr. Whittingham, an interior decorator. At that time the new pledges were introduced. The active chapter was also pleased to introduce Ruth Davidson Cottle, an Illinois H member, as their new chaperon.

Margaret Dick, former director of Pi Beta Phi Central Office, honored the club with a visit and spoke on Decatur and Macon County Hospital Auxiliary, of which she is president. Dorothy Coleman Thorman, Iota Province Vice President, was also a guest. All those who met and visited with her enjoyed her very much.

Enterprise had its day in the form of the fall Settlement School Sale held at the homecoming dinner. Many members attended and old friendships were renewed.

The Decatur Alumnae Club is proud to have many of its members represented as officers of St. Mary's and Decatur and Macon County Hospital Auxiliary, United Fund, Fun Fair, city Panhellenic, National Foundation for Polio, Junior Welfare, Mental Health Cotillion and Y.W.C.A.

A bridge benefit was the big money making project. It took place in February at the chapter house. The success of this was due to the outstanding work done by Katherine Hamilton Young and her committee.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a birthday party commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of Illinois H. The Golden Arrow members of Pi Beta Phi were honored at the party.

Millikin University honored Ruth Bicknell Walker, its first homecoming queen and long service chaperon, by dedicating the new women's dormitory, Walker Hall. Everyone is certainly proud of her.

The final meeting in May was a breakfast honoring the seniors.
JEAN KOLB HUBBARD

DUPAGE COUNTY

The year's activities for the Nina Harris Allen Alumnae Club started off with a buffet supper at the home of our president, Marijean Hutchison Ducett. At that time final plans were made for our Settlement School Sale. It was decided to have two sales this year, since our members come from several suburbs. On two successive mornings, "coffees" were held in the homes of two of our members, one being in Elmhurst and the other in Glen Ellyn. We were especially pleased to have two of our Golden Arrow members pour, Clara Gloss Bates at Elmhurst and Nina Harris Allen at Glen Ellyn. Pi Beta Phi and their friends enjoyed looking over and ordering the beautiful hand made articles in this informal and friendly atmosphere.

Mrs. Dorothy Thorman, Iota Province Vice President, honored us by her presence in November. We found her visit both helpful and enlightening.

The following month our annual coffee for actives and pledges was held in the home of Barbara King Pollard. This is always held during Christmas vacation and it gives a chance for these girls in our county to become acquainted and to exchange ideas.

Our club joined with the Hinsdale Township Alumnae Club and others in the Founders' Day celebration. As in other years, a dinner was held at the Old Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale and everyone enjoyed the program given by Mary Merryfield, a Pi Beta Phi and well known newspaper and radio personality.

A bridge party at the home of Eddee Patterson Lilliston ended the schedule for the year.

HELEN WAGNER PIERCE

GREATER ALTON

The Greater Alton Area Alumnae Club enjoyed the visit of Iota Province Vice President, Mrs. Floyd Thorman, at the opening meeting last October. Plans were made for the year and included sessions devoted to Constitution and History, and Settlement School. Highlights of the Club Calendar were the April Founders' Day Luncheon and a Tea given in May.

ANNE NARANICK HOAGLAND

HINSDALE TOWNSHIP

Even before the regular schedule of monthly meetings began in September, Hinsdale Township members were busy selling tickets to a benefit performance of "The Song of Norway" staged by the local amateur theater group in August. The proceeds of the benefit, $195, were donated to the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital for use in its expansion program.

The October meeting was highlighted by a speech by Mrs. George Havelka entitled "It Can Happen Here." Mrs. Havelka told us of the methods used by the communists in taking over control of Czechoslovakia, her native country, following World War II. She emphasized that apathy of the citizens is one of the biggest dangers confronting the fight against communism. Another outstanding event of the fall and winter schedule was the Christmas brunch given for area actives and pledges who were home for the holidays. It is always a pleasure to meet the girls who are currently active on the campuses.

In the spring came the Settlement School Sale and the Founders' Day Banquet. This year, our club served as hostess club for the joint Founders' Day Banquet. Five other area clubs joined with us in celebrating this day. Instead of the usual after dinner speech, Mary Merryfield, Chicago Tribune columnist, delivered a short speech followed by a panel discussion. A representative from each participating club served on the panel and discussed various aspects of woman's role as a servant of the community. Following the panel's comments there was a "talk back" when anyone attending could state her views on this subject.

Installation of officers at the May meeting brought the year's meetings to an official end, but the buffet supper for our husbands was a very enjoyable unofficial end to the year's events.

SARAH HILL

ILLINOIS FOX RIVER VALLEY

The Illinois Fox River Valley Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi gathered at a coffee, given by Helen Yates, in August of 1961, to bid farewell and wish good luck to Ruth Rogers, who moved to California. The opening meeting of the 1961-62 year was held at the home of our president, Marianne Geyer, on September 21. It was decided, at that time, to invite Mrs. Floyd Thorman, our province vice president, to meet with us at a luncheon in October. The luncheon was held October 19 at the home of Nancy Marks. We enjoyed becoming acquainted with Mrs. Thorman, who gave us a most informative talk.

We met in November at the home of Aileen Ekman in Batavia and in December, Grace Grant of St. Charles entertained us at a Christmas Coffee. Phyllis Pitcher welcomed us to her home on January 19. Florence Froland gave us a very original and unique program on the Settlement School in which everyone participated. We met in February with Bonnie Krause and were so interested in the slides of Holt House which were shown. A bridge party at the home of Judy Marti in March was enjoyed by all who participated.

We were welcomed by Louise McKee at her home for our annual Founders' Day dinner on April 26, at which we honored our Founders. New officers were installed for the coming year, as our May meeting was a dinner to which our husbands were invited. We closed the year with our annual June luncheon at which we are always happy to welcome any actives that are able to attend.

MARGARET CLARK

When certain meetings have been thoroughly enjoyed by the participants they tend to be repeated and thus become permanent parts of the club program. Our opening luncheon at the home of Chris Frederick, presided over by Phyllis Doscher, president, is one of these.

At other fall meetings we enjoyed a discussion of the Settlement School and a visit from our province vice president, Dorothy Thorman. Instead of the usual corsage, with Mrs. Thorman's approval, we increased our annual Holt House donation.

Another program which has become traditional is the Christmas Pot Luck Supper at the home of Mary Ann Owens. Our husbands add to our pleasure by joining us at this time. The delicious food at this supper usually leads to recipe trading.

Slides of Holt House were shown during our History meeting and Spring get togethers found us with "New Ideas for the Home," the Candle Lighting Founders' Day Ceremony, and some May Day Fashions. In May a number of Pi Beta Phi joined other city Panhellenic members in inviting high school senior girls to a tea with a panel discussion of the problems and pleasures the girls will face in sorority life at their universities.

In early summer Mitzi Frost will be the hostess for our annual picnic supper for the local Pi Beta Phi actives. At this time the recipient for our small annual scholarship award is decided upon. At our final and unofficial meeting in July our husbands will again join us, this time for a pleasant outdoor barbecue at the home of Nancy Ross in Libertyville.

DOROTHY LASHER RODGERS

MILTON TOWNSHIP ALUMNAE CLUB

A September splash party at the beautiful home of Francine Nickolas Gardiner began the year for the Milton Township Alumnae Club. There are thirty two paid members under the capable leadership of Alice Turner Dashner.

It was guest night at our October meeting, at which time we had our Arrowcraft display. With Christmas not far off, we were pleased to take quite a few orders. A most interesting book review, "The Dean's Watch," was given by Blanch Tibbets and enjoyed by all.

November saw us gathered at the home of Jane Ayers Davis for a most informative tape recording entitled "Can the West Win?" written by the author of "The Naked Communist."

In December we enjoyed our annual Christmas pot luck supper with our husbands at the lovely home of Laura Clock Conkey.

We were honored by a visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Dorothy Thorman, in February. Her talk was most interesting and we were delighted to see a copy of one of the early ARROWS she brought with her.

In March we had our election of officers and a fun night of bridge.

Our Founders' Day Cooky-shine was held in April along with the installation of officers. Later in the month we joined with other area alumnae clubs for the Founders' Day Banquet at The Old Spinning Wheel.

Our last meeting was in May and we are now looking forward to another active and busy year in Pi Beta Phi starting in the fall.

MAE OSBORNE DYER

MONMOUTH

Under the capable leadership of our president, Marian Armstrong, the Monmouth Alumnae Club has had a busy and exciting 1961 and 1962 season. Alice Jensen led us in a whirlwind campaign to earn money for the new decorations in the Illinois A active chapter's room. In November, the Boy's Town Choir performed on the Monmouth College campus with the members and friends housing the guests. Ann Smith, treasurer, told us how pleased the girls were with our donation as well as gifts from other alumnae groups and individuals. A bake sale and rummage sale helped increase our donation. Also the handling of Settlement School Arrowcraft articles by Althea Gittings, who showed them to the alumnae club as well as the actives and their parents during Parent's Weekend, helped to supply the treasury.

Under the supervision of Ruth Turnbull and Cleone Rawson, rushing was again a project for members who gave their time and cooking abilities. The Pledge Dinner was handled by Shirley Grier and Mary Louise McConachie.

A special report was given by Dorothy Merillat on her trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, for the presidents of advisory boards, at the October meeting held at Holt House.

At the annual meeting of the alumnae club and the Mothers' Club, held at Holt House, Lois Kritzer showed slides of her recent trip to the Scandinavian countries.

Mrs. Stewart Tuft, Director of Membership, visited Illinois A in February. At this time she was honored at a tea with the active and alumnae clubs present.

The meeting in March was concerned with Panhellenic. In April, the alumnae club observed Founders' Day with the active chapter.

JEANNE ROBESON

NORTH SHORE

Our year 1961-1962 started off in September hearing about Settlement School first hand from Mrs. Harold V. Hopkins who had attended the Gatlinburg workshop.

We had our usual Board Luncheon in October and had an excellent speaker, Mrs. George Hvelka, a Hungarian refugee. She gave her personal account of her escape from Communism.

The Settlement School Sale was held in November at the Evanston home of Mrs. Everett F. Eckenbeck and not having a formal meeting that month, we decided to have our husband-wife party. It was held at the Glenview Naval Air Base and Captain C. P. Oakes, retired, gave a talk "The Growth of Communism in This Country." Believe me, we feel well informed.

Mrs. Melvin Pearce, wife of Rev. Pearce, Northminster Presbyterian Church of Evanston, gave an interesting talk of "The Madonnas of Florence" at our December meeting.

At the January meeting, Bob Atcher, well known WGN television star, spoke on "The Origin of American Folk Music." Mr. Atcher also provided the entertainment for our Benefit Luncheon and Style Show in March, which was held at the Michigan Shores Club.

At the February meeting, Miss Sally Wynn, interior decorator for the Pi Beta Phi House on the Northwestern campus, gave an interesting talk on history and background of types of furniture. While still thinking about decorating, at the March meeting we saw slides of the remodeling done to Holt House, April 27, we had our tea celebrating our 95 birthday at the Northwestern Chapter House. After our installation of officers at the May meeting, we will end the year with a talk by Dean Patsy Thrash of Northwestern University on "The Problems of Greeks on the Campus."

A wonderful, educational and entertaining year was enjoyed by all.

BARBARA M. HANSCOM

NORTH SHORE JUNIOR

This season's activities began in the summer with a series of neighborhood coffees for prospective members. The coffees proved highly successful, as the new girls learned of the activities of our club and met some of the members before the first meeting.

October was highlighted by a profitable Settlement School Tea and Sale, held in a member's home. That month we met at the Pi Beta Phi chapter house on the Northwestern University campus, where Mrs. LeRoy G. Shelton, National Vice President of A Φ gave a most informative talk on "Understanding Our Fraternity."

A Christmas party was given in December at Randall House, a home for dependent boys in Chicago. There were gifts for each boy, refreshments and entertainment. At the January meeting we heard a report, aided by slides, informing us how our contributions are used to help the exceptional Children in the Evanston Schools.

Our Benefit this year, "Gaslight Gaities," held in February, was enjoyed by all. The dance featured dixieland music, entertainment and gay decorations of the era. The money raised through the sale of dance tickets and a raffle was donated to Pi Beta Phi Philanthropies and our local project.

New officers were elected at the March meeting, and in April we enjoyed a Founders' Day Tea, with the North Shore Alumnae Club at the Northwestern University chapter house.

A luncheon in May closed a most rewarding year for the North Shore Junior Alumnae Club.

VIRGINIA WATSON GLENN

OAK PARK-RIVER FOREST

Another enjoyable club year began in September, at the home of Betty MacNeal. After the Potluck Supper, our president Jane McInerney, reported the success of the theatre benefit, which was held the previous June. Three hundred tickets were sold for "Showboat" at the Melody Top in Hillside.

In October, Margo Sheehan presented a most interesting program with colored slides of Settlement School.

Helen Polk was chairman for the Settlement School sale and tea, held in the home of Dorothy McEachran. The club cleared $140 with the wooden tic tac toe games being one of the most popular items sold.

Oak School for mentally retarded young adults in Oak Park has been our local philanthropic project for the past two years. Mrs. Clarence Benson, secretary of the school, spoke at the February meeting. Her talk enlightened the members about the progress of the school's program.

The local Panhellenic held their annual Scholarship Bridge and Fashion Show in March. Maxine Montgomery and Dian Meek were the lovely models in the show. Our province vice president, Mrs. Dorothy S. Thorman, was our guest at the March meeting.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale with the other West Suburban clubs. The Hinsdale Township club was hostess for another gala evening.

Everyone had a wonderful time at our last meeting in June. Active members and pledges from our area were our guests.

MARILYN MULLIAN ALTER

PARK RIDGE-DES PLAINES

The Park Ridge-Des Plaines Alumnae Club opened its fall program with a club birthday party. The final arrangements were then made for our most successful Settlement School and Arrowcraft Sale and Tea which was held later in the month.

"Communism on the Map" was our theme for November. Our guest speaker presented an extremely informative and educational anti-communist program and film, which was followed by a thought provoking discussion by the club members.

Our wonderful Christmas party was highlighted by games and songs. Each member brought a donation with which we purchased a hi-fi phonograph for an Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society foster home for boys.

Several members became actresses and presented a skit, "Histories of the Past," for our January meeting. The girls depicted Pi Beta Phis throughout the ages and across the country. February was the month for our annual pot luck supper for which the members prepared their most favorite recipes. We all agreed that the dinner was a feast fit for a king.

Following our March Cooky-shine, we had a most enjoyable Spring luncheon and Founders' Day celebration at Marshall Field's Crab Apple Restaurant at Old Orchard. Spring also found us installing our new officers for the coming year.

A guest speaker at our May meeting discussed his shop and his work with straw goods. And, thus, a most successful year was concluded under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Bengtson.

CAROLYN COXE

PEORIA

In September, and with only 83 days "Til Christmas," all Peoria Club Alumnae members were invited to do some leisure Christmas shopping. The club met for a cooky-shine and a Settlement School sale at the very lovely home of Jeannette Brown McCuskey. Many new and old members joined in the fun.

Corinne Woodruff Michel was the gracious hostess for the October meeting. The program was, "A Peek at Active Life 1961, and Meet the New Pledges." It was a panel discussion comprised of three active members and headed by Joann Frisk Svikhart, the Alumnae Advisory Council Chairman. Everyone discovered that there had been considerable changes in active life in recent years.

The chilly days of November didn't keep many members away. A wonderful crowd of club members, guests, Mothers' Club, and the active chapter turned out to view fashions at the annual fall guest luncheon and style show at the Country Club of Peoria. Settlement School articles were on display for sale.

Christmas greetings were exchanged at the chapter house for the December meeting. A very beautiful and inspirational Christmas program was given by Eleanor Sykes Peters, of the Peoria Players.

The club members could have skated to the meeting in January. It was held in the pretty home of Ruth Belsterling Miller. Those who braved the ice and snow brought delicious casseroles, desserts, and "goodies" for a pot luck luncheon. The annual meeting followed.

"An on the scenes" meeting was held in February. Members met at the Womens' Exchange for one of the most humorous programs of the year. A white elephant auction was held. Jean Clatfelter Scheffler was the grand auctioneer and did a terrific job of describing and auctioning some of the most hilarious odds and ends. The proceeds went to the shop. For information concerning the Womens' Exchange, refer to the summer 1961 edition of the ARROW.

In March the club had the honor of meeting Lou Ann Chase Tuft, National Director of Membership. March also brought thoughts of spring and Easter. Mary Lou Cornick Gates was the hostess for the regular meeting. The program "Dessert and Hats Old and New" was delightful. Election of officers was held.

The Founders' Day gathering will be held April 30, 1962, at the University Club. It will be an "old fashion evening" going back to the days of the Founders. The active chapter always joins us for this wonderful celebration.

SONDRA SEIFERT OWEN

ROCKFORD

The Rockford Alumnae Club began its years' activities with an evening of renewing old acquaintances and meeting new members. Final plans were made for the Settlement School Sale on September 29 at the home of Mrs. Vivian Hickey. In addition to the handmade articles on sale, we also displayed personal postal cards and recipe cards. The sale of these cards were continued throughout the year as another money making project.

In November our members and guests gathered at the home of Pat Brown to participate in the annual Rockford Panhellenic Bridge Party. The proceeds of this event are donated by Panhellenic toward a scholarship for a Rockford College student.

In the true spirit of Christmas we met at the home of B. J. Eberhart to wrap appropriate gifts we had purchased for the old people at River Bluff Nursing Home of Rockford.

In February our husbands were the honored guests at a Valentines' pot luck dinner at the home of Mrs. David Marth. An abundance of good food and strains of college songs made for a very enjoyable evening.

A cooky-shine was held in March at the home of Carolyn Bailey. We also had election of officers and collected donations for our Centennial Fund.

The traditional Founders' Day celebration was observed in April with a luncheon at the Sweden House.

In May we had installation of new officers and heard a special report for possible fund raising projects for next year. We also participated in the city wide Rush Party sponsored by Rockford Panhellenic for the high school senior girls.

The home of Barbara Strausser was the setting for our annual picnic for the members and their husbands. This gathering of the crowd put the final touch on another delightful year in Pi Beta Phi.

JEANNE MARSH CHESNEY

SOUTH SUBURBAN

Mabel Lee Gray of Park Forest graciously opened her house to welcome old and new members for a cooky-shine in September, beginning a busy year for the South Suburban Chicago Alumnae Club. For the occasion, Lois Gibbons Sikorsky donated a giant cooky, the largest ever made in her husband's bakery.

For the first time, the October Settlement School sale was held in two separate homes and on two different dates, an idea which proved both convenient and profitable. An afternoon tea was given in the home of Barbara Rosenburger Doster in Homewood, and one week later an evening party was held in the Park Forest home of Jean Belair Hass.

"Get Ready for the Holidays" was the theme of the November program, and in early December this advice was followed by inviting husbands of members to a Christmas dinner dance, held at a local club because of increased membership. Food and toys were contributed to the Jones Memorial Center in Chicago Heights.

Another "first" this year was a January joint meeting with the K K I alumnae club to hear a program on the communist threat. During the February Settlement School program, members embroidered dresser scarfs for the boys whose dormitory there burned this winter. Joanne Jenkins Andrews also gave an illustrated talk on her recent experiences in West Berlin.

March marked election of officers, and members aided the Panhellenic scholarship fund by attending the first Panhellenic Benefit Ball, of which Linda Wilson Alberty was co-chairman. The Founders' Day luncheon was held in April, attended again by neighboring Chicago South Alumnae Club.

Rounding out the year's activities, an American Field Service exchange student spoke at the May meeting. In June, members and their husbands will attend the picnic which is held each year at the picturesque home of Sally McCoy Germeraad.

JOCKEY BUCHSBAUM McCALLUM

SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

Under the leadership of Fran Platt Bradley, the Springfield Alumnae Club has had a very busy year. Several new members have joined the group. The club had made its usual cash contributions to the Pi Beta Phi projects, plus a gift to Illinois A to help redecorate their chapter room.

The year started in October with a very successful Settlement School Sale at the home of Mary Tobermann. It was an all day affair with baby sitting provided while guests shopped and enjoyed coffee. The meeting this month was at the home of Berenice Wanless. Election of officers was the main business of the evening as three officers had moved during the summer.

The December meeting was a Christmas luncheon at the Illini Country Club with forty members attending.

The new year started with our January meeting at the home of Liz Saner. The president Fran Bradley presented a program on Chapter Loyalty. A bridge party was held in the home of Judy Dees for the February meeting. In March the group went to the home of Mary Schnirring. Election of officers was held and for the program the group enjoyed the colored slides of Holt House.

Highlight of the year was the Founders' Day Luncheon at Illini Country Club. We are always happy to have many inactive members join us for this very special day.

TRI-CITY

Pi Beta Phis of the Tri-City area have had a busy and eventful year which included several money making projects as well as fellowship and many good times. One of the highlights of the year was the October meeting when members drove to Monmouth to visit Holt House. Following a tour of the home, Mary Ellen Weber Todd gave a most interesting report on the history of the house. Those present also visited the chapter room of Illinois A which has recently been redecorated. The Tri-City club had a special interest in this project since it contributed to the fund for that purpose.

In November members spent a most enjoyable and informative evening at the home of Mary Jean Frankenberger Priebe. The hostess and Jane Cummins Hollingsworth conducted a Christmas Decoration Workshop during which Pi Beta Phis received many helpful hints for decorating their homes for the holidays. The December meeting at the home of Edith Prior-Leahy Lischex was a Christmas coffee honoring actives, pledges and their mothers. The alumnae were happy to welcome four new pledges this year from the Tri-City area. Twenty four mother-daughter combinations attended this coffee.

The annual Founders' Day dinner was held at the Outing Club in Davenport. All four of the club's Golden Arrow members participated in the program which was reminiscent of Pi Beta Phi fifty years ago. The year was climaxed at the May meeting with a Tasting Party held in Betty Callahan Castricone's home. Each member brought a favorite dish. After the fun of sampling the delicious food, members purchased the desired recipes. This proved to be a successful money making project.

LOUISE LORD JOHNSON

KAPPA PROVINCE

BELOIT

The Beloit Alumnae Club began their activities for 1961-62 assisting the chapter during rushing, by helping in the kitchen. Each monthly meeting was held at the Beloit College chapter house, with dinner being prepared by a cateress.

At the October meeting we had the pleasure of meeting the twenty-two new pledges to Wisconsin B. We saw a very interesting demonstration on making table and other home decorations out of a most unusual assortment of odds and ends. In October, our Settlement School tea and sale, under the direction of Ethel Butcher Shogren, was as successful as always.

At the November meeting, our province vice president, Orpha O'Rourke Coenen again urged us to send a delegate to the National Convention in Washington this year. She announced that our club ranked second in magazine sales for Kappa Province.

In addition to our usual Christmas party, we were entertained by the chapter members at a dessert-sing in December. In place of our usual February meeting, we were guests of the Delta Gamma Alumnae Club for a dessert-bridge.

The Beloit chapter was this year hostesses to the other two active chapters in Wisconsin for Founders' Day in Beloit. Our club was invited to join the group. The May meeting was a business meeting with plans for Commencement and addressing cards to all alumnae for the evening's activity.

MARY MARTHA WHEELER KNODE

DULUTH-SUPERIOR

The Alumnae Club of these Twin Ports had a gay gathering in the summer at the well equipped lake home of Mr. and Mrs. Odin Ramsland (Vivian Helgerson). Our husbands joined us for the fun of boating, outdoor games and a social hour before the charcoal broiled steaks were served.

Mrs. Coenen, our province vice president, visited us in early October. She was the house guest of Ruth Jones Russell in Duluth. A supper meeting in Superior at Mary Sinclair Howard's and a luncheon meeting in Duluth with our club President, Patricia Geraldson Germond, and rush chairman, Betty Bonage, brought her in close touch with the group. Mrs. Coenen spoke to us on the Settlement School.

The Settlement School sample kit is displayed at each meeting. Our members find it a source of ideas for gifts throughout the year.

Panhellenic of Duluth is becoming more active. Through our representative to that body, we helped with a Mother-Daughter Tea in August. This is for girls entering college and qualified transfer students, with their mothers.

Contributions have been made to Holt House, Settlement School, Centennial Fund, and to Duluth's Rehabilitation Center for the Handicapped.

This year has taken a toll among immediate relatives of our members. Clinton Russell and Elmer Blu, both husbands of long time, faithful members Ruth Jones Russell and Jessie Schee Blu. The mother and brother of Eleanor Abbott, our faithful treasurer, and the mother of our present President, Patricia Geraldson Germond. We also feel the loss of a young member, Patricia Kileen Fleming. In memoriam, we sent a donation to the favorite charities of each family.

Our organization was listed nicely in the Duluth News Tribune's Annual Woman's World Edition.

The Founders' Day luncheon and the election of officers for next year complete our year.

CHRISTINE CANTWELL HILL

FOX RIVER VALLEY

The Fox River Valley Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi resumed its regular activities in August under the fine leadership of Joan Tucker. The first meeting was devoted to rushing recommendations and making preparations for fall rush at Lawrence College.

September brought about pledging at the college and the annual pledge banquet which was held on September 24.

October was a busy month for the alumnae club. A party was given to welcome all the new pledges of Wisconsin I. Later in the month a rummage sale took place and was a great success.

We had our annual pre-Christmas party in November and fun was had by all.

In January the husbands were guests at our annual cocktail party at the home of Mary Grist and all had a most enjoyable time.

At our February meeting we were very fortunate to have Mrs. G. K. Dickerman of Wisconsin Rapids speak on "An African Adventure." The program was very interesting.

A later program was devoted to a trip to Settlement School by Orpha Coenen and Nan Duthie.

We ended our year with a farewell party for the seniors of Wisconsin I at the home of Mary Whitehead.

JULIE MCDANIEL KELL

MADISON

The Madison Alumnae Club meets each month for a buffet supper meeting at a member's home and this procedure has long proved to be popular with everyone. Our September meeting got us into the swing and excitement of rush week for Wisconsin A and Gertrude Burley, the alumnae chairman, reported on the activities. In October, Mrs. Blaus of Hendrickson's Inc. talked to us about antiques and interior design. Our November meeting gave us the opportunity to meet the twenty seven pledges when they were entertained by the club. Mr. Richard Wilson, director of the local office of civilian defense, presented a lively talk and discussion on the aspects of nuclear attack. Also, we were honored to have Mrs. Coenen with us, who told of her visit to Gatlinburg last summer. It was indeed interesting to hear her personal report of the CPW-AAC Workshops, the Settlement School, and the Arrowcraft Shop. In December, our traditional Christmas party was at the home of Jo Ann Kelsey. Our January meeting was the annual party for the seniors of Wisconsin A. Dr. Sala Yashruti of Lebanon entertained us with the showing of slides and a talk on his country. In February we had our party for the husbands, gathering at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Samp and proceeding to the Vikingtown Inn for dinner. In March and April officers and the convention delegate were chosen and Founders' Day celebrated with the active chapter. One meeting a year we are pleased to have a Pi Beta Phi husband speak on his field of endeavor, and in May, Chuck Webster, husband of our president, discussed insurance. Our annual Arrowcraft Sale, under the able direction of Dorothy Nelson, was most successful this year. She was the celebrity of the day when she appeared on a local television program to tell about our sale and discovered the advertiser has been using our Arrowcraft place mats to show off his products!

ELLEN EKMAN GARLINGHOUSE

MILWAUKEE

The Milwaukee Alumnae Club opened the 1961-62 season with the traditional September buffet dinner. After a delicious meal, Lenore Ladewig Page, club president, introduced Orpha O'Rourke Coenen, province vice president, who presented a "bird's eye view" of Settlement School. This was a fitting prelude to the two Settlement School sales held in October. The type of sale was changed this year and a casual coffee with babysitter provided proved very popular.

The November meeting featured Mr. Donald J. Burg of Schmitter-Burg Jewelers, in a "Gem Session" including fascinating facts and exciting samples.

The December Active-Alumnae brunch, another greatly appreciated tradition in Milwaukee, included high school senior daughters of members this year. The club hopes to see many back as actives next December.

January emphasized the upswing of interest in Theatre in Milwaukee. Mr. Alan Furlan, director of the Sunset Playhouse, gave some excellent Shakespearean readings which were thoroughly enjoyed.

The Sweetheart tea dance in February was such a success that in all probability it will become a tradition, too! It was held to benefit Neighborhood House. The setting was the charming Elm Grove Woman's Club and the music and buffet were delightful. Several hundred red and white carnations decorated the tables and formed an enormous heart with II B Φ written across it. This was placed behind the bandstand. Everyone participated and even the most conservative guests joined in and learned the Twist!

In March, Miss Nancy Kelsey, Indiana Δ and an outstanding member of a Milwaukee advertising company, gave a talk entitled, "Advertising—Naughty or Nice." The election of officers dominated the business meeting that evening.

The Founders' Day observance was a lovely luncheon held at Bolders-on-the-River in Mequon, Wisconsin. This concluded a very successful and rewarding year.

ELEANOR NICHOLS GENGLER

MINNEAPOLIS

The Minneapolis club under the leadership of Dorothy MacKenzie launched the year's activities with a delightful Pot Luck supper at the home of Connie Adams. It was a pleasure to welcome as guest of honor Orpha O'Rourke Coenen, Kappa Province Vice President.

The biggest project of the year was tackled at the November meeting. Members spent a busy afternoon with needle and thread trimming hats to be sold at Convention. The alumnae and Minnesota A actives each decorated half of the 400 hats with appropriate Pi Beta Phi symbols. Convention delegates will see the results of our handiwork in June.

During the winter we met at the Minnesota A chapter house for a musical program and Christmas party with the actives. 1962 started off with a traditional Cooky-shine. Connie Adams surprised the group with real "treasure," a copy of the first ARROW of Pi Beta Phi, which was discovered by accident among old family books. Kay Darrell, St. Paul alumna, gave an interesting report on her trip to Settlement School workshop. Other meetings included a Valentine luncheon and an evening program at which Holt House slides were shown.

In April the club treasury was boosted by proceeds of a "silent auction." Members and guests enjoyed bidding on a wide variety of articles donated for the sale. Minneapolis and St. Paul alumnae met together in St. Paul for a Founders' Day luncheon. The year concluded with a buffet supper and a distinguished guest speaker. Dean Edmund G. Williamson, Professor of Psychology and Dean of Students at the University of Minnesota, addressed the group on the role of fraternities at the University.

MRS. C. A. CROUCH

ST. PAUL

Under the able and enthusiastic leadership of our president, Barbara Gesell Lauder our club has had a very successful year.

The opening event of the year commenced in September with the meeting being devoted to rushing. Two actives discussed the plans for their fall rush activities. Members of the club helped the actives with rushing by furnishing two meals for them.

At our October meeting we were pleased to have with us the province vice president, Orpha Coenen, who gave us a very enlightening talk.

We are still actively involved in our local philanthropic project, that of staffing the Coffee Shop at the Children's Hospital two days a month. A sense of worthwhile accomplishment is certainly felt by all those that participated in this activity.

The holiday season was ushered in by the delightful Christmas luncheon at the Women's City Club. Jean Johnson and Pat Von Rueden were co-chairmen of this event. As usual it was most enjoyable.

One of our most notable social events occurred in February and included our husbands. It was a Valentine dinner party at the home of John and Mary Swenson which has grown increasingly popular and is one of the highlights of the year.

Election of officers was held at the March meeting and was followed by bridge and canasta.

The Mendakota Country Club was the setting in April for our annual Founders' Day celebration with the Minneapolis club and the active chapter. We all look forward to this event as it is an opportunity to become better acquainted with the actives at the University of Minnesota.

The highlight of our meeting in May was an auction of members' White Elephants. We have discovered that this is an excellent means of raising money.

This year we continued the custom of giving an award to the active at the University of Minnesota with the highest overall scholastic average.

All in all we consider this past year a most successful one for the St. Paul Alumnae Club.

BETTY MARSH RASMUSSEN

WINNIPEG

The Winnipeg Club began its fall activities in September with a dinner meeting at which the Manitoba President of the Voice of Woman presented the ideals and activities of that organization as part of the program.

The highlight of October's meeting was the visit of Orpha O'Rourke Coenen, the province vice president. A lively discussion involved plans for the library which the chapter will sponsor at the new Rehabilitation Hospital here in Winnipeg.

A most successful project was the Dessert Party and Paper Tea to which members, mothers and all friends were invited. Strawberry Shortcake and Coffee were served, while paper goods and all types of crafts made by chapter members were sold.

Active and alumnae members of Pi Beta Phi joined together for a city wide Treasure Hunt in November. The same evening an Auction Sale of the goods remaining from the Tea was held with Nan Stewart as a most lively auctioneer. A profit of $180 was realized from these events.

In January the new initiates were honored at the annual Initiation Banquet and Dance held at the Fort Garry Hotel. Each initiate was presented with a wine carnation and a token gift from an alumna "grandmother." A sing song of fraternity favorites followed.

Following the regular meeting in February a Carnival Night of fun and games for all brought the group together once again.

Featured on Pi Beta Phi Night in March was Rita Maddin speaking on her visit to Settlement School.

The final gathering of the year was the Founders' Day Dinner, always a popular event. The graduates of 1962 were honored in verse and a presentation made. Thus ended a memorable and rewarding year under the capable leadership of the president, Maureen Philp.

PHYLLIS MCGIMPSEY

LAMBDA PROVINCE

ALEXANDRIA, LOUISIANA

The Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi of Alexandria, met October 19, 1960 for the purpose of organizing an alumnae club. Sixteen members signed the charter and committees were named and work was begun on the program and year book. Under the able leadership of Jane Ann Tudor, the club had an enthusiastic beginning.

Since that initial meeting, we have gained new members and been interested participants in the pledging and initiation of some fine additions to the college groups.

Mrs. T. H. Lafon, Vice President of Lambda Province, visited us September 19, 1961, and attended our luncheon at the Alexandria Golf and Country Club. She brought us interesting news of the two new Mississippi active chapters. At this meeting new officers were installed, Mary Grovier becoming our new president.

On November 10, we held our first Settlement School Tea at the home of Joyce Hayne. Although we didn't realize as much out of the sale as we had hoped, a great deal of interest was evident, and we feel that our next effort will meet with greater success.

DEE BARNSDALE ROBERTS

BATON ROUGE

In August, a poolside coffee was held by the Baton Rouge Alumnae Club for the purpose of introducing five new patronesses. A discussion of the coming rush season was led by Nanny Peabody, the chapter rush chairman.

Rushing in September was a big event this year with many of the alumnae assisting the active chapter. A dinner was held at the Baton Rouge City Club by the alumnae club for the actives and the new pledges in October.

Under the capable direction of Arthe Allen Jenkins, the Settlement School Coffee held in October was a tremendous success. The coffee was held at the home of Katherine LaCour Miller. A second sale was held at the next regular meeting of the club.

With Communism so much in the news, the alumnae club invited Dr. Beverly Covington, Professor of Civil Engineering at the University, to give a talk on Communism. Following the talk a very interesting discussion period was held. Dr. Covington is president of the "Tapes For Freedom" organization.

At the home of Doris LaRoche a pot luck supper was given for the seniors who are graduating from the university.

The Founders' Day Banquet was held with the active chapter as is the custom of the alumnae club each year.

LUCILLE HOPKINS HODGE

CAMDEN ALUMNAE CLUB

We organized and received our Charter in the late Spring of 1961, and under the capable presidency of Ruth Malone, we had a most successful year.

The highlight of our organization was an interesting lecture by Helen Corbit of Neiman Marcus of Dallas, followed by a sale of our Settlement School Products. Mrs. T. H. Lafon of St. Louis, and Mrs. Henry Moore of Texarkana, honored us by their presence and brunch was held at the Hotel Camden afterwards. It was a most exciting occasion and Mrs. Lafon's comments and encouragement on the future of our club was enjoyed by everyone.

We were proud and gratified when one of our most popular young girls, Kathy Hite, was pledged to Pi Beta Phi at the University of Oklahoma last Fall. Kathy is the daughter of Portia (Wallace) Hite, who attended the University of Arkansas. Kathy was initiated Sunday, March 11, 1962.

Our club is still small but our enthusiasm is great and we wish each and every alumnae club the same success that we hope to achieve this year.

MRS. JULIA S. WALKER

CLAY-PLATTE COUNTIES

The Clay-Platte Counties Alumnae Club enjoyed its fifth year under the leadership of Joan Smith Borden. Fine cooperation and organization made the year a most rewarding one for this small chapter.

The Lambda Province Vice President, Madeleine Closs Lafon, visited the chapter at the first fall meeting. Her charm and poise were inspiring and her willing assistance was most valuable and appreciated.

This year the club was honored to have one of the members, Jewel Cartland Neal, as president of the newly formed Clay-Platte Panhellenic Club. The Panhellenic Club compiled its first master file and held its first Campus Caucus. Both proved to be beneficial in obtaining recommendations. This new club will be a great help in bringing about a closer relationship and understanding among the women's fraternities in this area.

A Settlement School Sale and Bridge Party was held this year in place of the usual Settlement School Tea. It was an informal and delightful way to make new friends and sell Arrowcraft articles. Arrowcraft gifts were given as table prizes.

Founders' Day was a special occasion. The chapter was invited to the Kansas City, Missouri Alumnae Club Founders' Day luncheon. Alice Weber Mansfield, Grand President was the guest. It was a wonderful way to celebrate the ninety-fifth birthday of Pi Beta Phi.

JOANNE KNIGHT

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI

Following the September picnic supper for Missouri A, when the actives presented a sneak preview of skits and songs to be used during rush week, October brought two high events for the alumnae: the visit of Madeleine Closs Lafon, province vice president, and the annual meeting of the Pi Beta Phi Club Corporation at which Ethel Robnett Estes and Ruth Jones Scurlock were honored as retiring president and secretary-treasurer respectively. The chapter presented each a crest bracelet while the alumnae gave to the Missouri A Chapter House a plaque which now hangs in the recent addition.

A party for the pledges marked the November meeting featuring Barbara Kohler, an active, who as Miss Missouri, was the fourth runner up for Miss U.S.A. in the Miss World contest.

January began the new year with a book review. February was the Settlement School program. Dorothy Martt, a former member of the Frontier Nursing Service in the Smoky Mountains area, was guest speaker. March included the election of officers and an evening of making Easter bonnets for the cerebral palsied children of Columbia.

Founders' Day cooky-shine was with the actives at the chapter house in April. A recipe exchange and bake sale brought the year to a delightful close, May 17.

MARY MILLER PEGUES

FAYETTEVILLE, ARKANSAS

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Fayetteville, Arkansas has enjoyed a well-rounded year of activity and fellowship, with a paid membership of thirty-four and an approximate monthly attendance of twenty. Beginning the year auspiciously was the September picnic buffet given annually by the club for Arkansas A and its new pledge class, and held this year at the home of Mary Campbell Gregory. James K. Gregory, Pi Beta Phi "brother," was on hand to greet all his "sisters."

Madeleine Closs Lafon, province vice president, visited the club in October and brought national and regional perspectives on fraternity affairs to the club's attention. The Settlement School coffee, perennially successful, achieved even happier results this year under the continuing direction of Ann Whitfield Jones. Held at the Pi Beta Phi House, this event is one of Fayetteville's most popular fall affairs.

The club looked ahead to Founders' Day in April, which is always jointly observed with Arkansas A. This year's celebration was planned and guided by Juanita Bass Trumbo. The club has been equally fortunate in conducting its year's round of activity with the deep interest and well-planned leadership of Shirley Cary, club president.

MOLLIE HARDING FRANZ

JACKSON

For a new club our alumnae group has certainly had a busy and demanding program with much responsibility still to come.

Our activities began with the rush party in August at the pool of Mary Jane Primos one of our members. Mary Jane is also president of the Jackson Panhellenic Association. The pool was beautifully decorated with floating arrows made by Martha Andre and Kathy McLean.

We voted this year to meet every month. Versie Rae Massey, Program Chairman, published a yearbook with the programs listed, plus a list of all our alumnae. The monthly meetings have meant so much to us and we have benefited by the help given to us by Mrs. Lafon on her April visit.

So far our most interesting meeting has been the covered dish luncheon where many good recipes were exchanged. At this meeting we had a Pi Beta Phi sing using the Pi Beta Phi Record that we ordered from the Philadelphia Alumnae Club. Then we learned a new song, "Hi Fi Pi Beta Phi" composed by our talented president, Gwen Reeves.

Especially are we proud of Gwen since she was chosen to be toastmistress at the banquet following the installation of the new chapter at the University of Mississippi on March 9. Plans were made for some of the alumnae to go to Oxford to attend the installation and to assist the extremely busy, small group of actives. Since several of our members had been on hand in October to help with rushing when the colony was started we looked forward to the installation and initiation.

MARY GUY BLANTON

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

During this busy and exciting year, the Kansas City, Missouri, Alumnae Club, under the capable and enthusiastic leadership of Dorothy O'Donnell Muck, had the largest membership on its record.

Starting in October, the "Serendipity," under chairman June McGinnis Stearns, was a financially successful money making project. Items for sale included imports, picture frames, burlap wreaths and cloths, and many unusual novelties for Christmas decorations.

The Theater Holiday project has become increasingly popular under the chairmanship of Barbara Kellogg Elliott. Approximately 100 people enjoyed the Fall and Spring tours to New York, which included four popular Broadway shows, transportation, and hotel accommodations. Immediately following the Washington Convention on June 30, a summer New York tour is planned for Convention delegates, relatives, and friends. This includes several Broadway plays and other interesting New York events.

For the alternate dinner and luncheon monthly meetings, Jean McIntosh Hoffman planned a variety of very interesting programs. Madeleine Lafon was the guest speaker in October. Members of the alumnae club presented "Clever Christmas Capers" featuring gifts and decorations, "Christmas Traditions in Music" and "Dividends Are a Girl's Best Friend." During January smaller informal area meetings were well attended and enabled Pi Beta Phi neighbors to get acquainted. Alice Weber Mansfield was the honored guest and speaker at the Founders' Day luncheon which was a celebration of the 95th birthday of Pi Beta Phi. Both she and Agnes Hildebrand Leonard, President of the Panhellenic Association of Greater Kansas City, were honored at a tea the previous day.

A newcomer's party initiated the social events last Fall. During the Christmas holidays the Board entertained actives home on vacation at a coffee. Concluding activities for the year, a dinner dance for husbands and escorts was a highlight of the spring season in May.

NANCY BODWELL

LAKE CHARLES

The Lake Charles Alumnae Club, under the presidency of Barbara Halsted Swain, had a very successful year.

A Panhellenic Tea was held in August in honor of the graduates of this area. There were five delegates from each women's fraternity. Jo Ann Thorson Dimmick was general chairman. Laura Alexander was hostess for the club's August meeting which included several actives.

In October Mrs. T. H. Lafon, province vice president, met with the officers at the home of Barbara Halsted Swain for coffee. This was followed by a luncheon at the Lake Charles Club with Helen Hudson Radford as chairman of arrangements.

A Christmas Coffee for mothers and daughters was held at the home of Gladys Daly Pierson.

In February eleven members drove to DeRidder for a meeting and luncheon at the home of June West Brandt. Lady Hall was co-hostess. An interesting talk on the history of Settlement School was given by Betty Pilchard. The traditional Founders' Day was celebrated with a banquet in April.

We were very proud to have sold approximately $500 worth of Arrowcraft products this year. This was accomplished by the individual members taking the Arrowcraft Kit to their homes and inviting friends for a coke or cup of coffee and then taking orders for the items.

GLADYS DALY PIERSON

LITTLE ROCK

The Little Rock Alumnae Club enjoyed a most interesting year with Pud Steele Westphale presiding.

At our February meeting Mary Jean Schallhorn Mayes, president of the Little Rock Panhellenic Association and our club Panhellenic representative, gave a very informative program on the anti-fraternity movements. Open discussion by members followed.

The Little Rock Panhellenic Association held its annual book review March 29. It was given by Mrs. Ladd Davies at St. Paul's Methodist Church. Proceeds are for support of the Panhellenic Library for children.

Founders' Day was celebrated at our April meeting in the home of Mrs. Harld Engstrom with a program presented by club members. This year special tribute was given to Rosa Moore. Installation of new officers followed the Founders' Day program and the meeting was closed with the Loving Cup ceremony.

On Saturday, June 10, our club was hostess for Pi Beta Phi State Day held at the Country Club of Little Rock. Sara Steele Ott and Pud Steele Westphale presided as co-chairman. Registration began at 10 A.M., lunch and a style show followed. Models were actives and members from our club and fashions were furnished us by The Clothes Horse of Little Rock. A short program followed. Recognition was made to several Pi Beta Phi for outstanding service, to 50-year members, and to Mr. Gregory of Fayetteville who was made a Pi Beta Phi Brother.

June 18 the Panhellenic Association held its registration party for rushees and their mothers in the new Arkansas Power & Light building. Each sorority had a display. Our display consisted of Pi Beta Phi official jewelry and publications, plaque of the Arkansas A actives and pictures of girls who had received honors during the year at Arkansas, and our flower and colors.

We were happy to have our actives with us at our July and August meetings.

We are very honored to have from our state, the 1st runner-up to the 1961-62 Miss America, Miss Frances Jane Anderson of Pine Bluff. All of Arkansas is proud of Frances Jane and certainly all Pi Beta Phi are proud of her. Frances pledged and was initiated at Virginia A and had transferred to Arkansas A for the 1961-62 school year, but because of the honor bestowed upon her she will have to resume her studies at a later date. Congratulations again, Frances Jane!

In October, we were pleased to have Mrs. Madeleine Lafon, Lambda Province Vice President as guest speaker at our luncheon meeting.

With a Christmas Brunch honoring the actives and their mothers in the home of Mrs. H. C. Thomas, December 27 our year's activities were concluded.

DORRIS KARCHER WELLING

MARKED TREE-JONESBORO

Good attendance and interesting programs have characterized the year for the Marked Tree-Jonesboro Alumnae Club.

Maxine Ammons Smith, new president, was hostess for the first meeting in October. Members heard highlights of the colonization of the new Pi Beta Phi chapters at Memphis State University, the University of Kentucky and the University of Mississippi at the meeting program.

The club held its first Arrowcraft sale for members in November using the Beginners Packet. Frances Brigance Calvert conducted the sale in addition to presenting an interesting program on Settlement School. At this meeting members also brought babies' and children's clothing for a box which was sent to Marjorie Chalmers at the Settlement School Health Center.

Betty Teeter Sloan provided a clever and informative program on the Constitution at the February meeting.

In February, four members of the club, Maxine Smith, Frances Calvert, Loree Tribble Melton and Dorothy Davis Stuck represented the group at the installation weekend of Tennessee A at Memphis State. The club gained two new members that weekend when Sue Bray Jennings of Marked Tree and Rosalie Graham, Watson of Jonesboro were selected as alumnae initiates and were initiated with active members of the new chapter.

Lambda Province Vice President Madeleine Closs Lafon, visited the club the first week in March and was entertained with a dinner at the Jonesboro Country Club preceding the regular meeting at the home of Doreen Barrett Deacon.

This club looked forward to Founders' Day with unusual anticipation. Plans were made to join with the Newport and Blytheville-Osceola Alumnae Clubs for a Founders' Day luncheon with Pi Beta Phi's Grand President, Alice Weber Mansfield, as guest speaker.

LOREE TRIBBLE MELTON

MONROE

The Monroe Alumnae Club has enjoyed a most successful year under the capable leadership of Loretta Ray Rivers. Bethia McCay Brown was hostess for the October meeting at which Settlement School articles were displayed and purchased by the members. Also, at this meeting the events of the coming year were discussed and scheduled.

The true charm of the Old South was prevalent throughout the March meeting of our club. The scene for this occasion was Grecian Bend Plantation, the family home of Olive Guthrie Munholland. Spring arrangements of flowering peach, crab apple blossoms, and violets placed throughout this gracious colonial home welcomed twenty three members to a delicious lunch, featuring fried chicken and for dessert, coconut cake.

Janet Key Biekman Cash, Jean Ford Williams, and Bethia McCay Brown gave the program on Pi Beta Phi History. Posing as radio newscasters, each one gave an exclusive coverage from the founding to the present day activities of Phi Beta Phi. After the program officers for the coming year were elected.

The Founders' Day Banquet, held at Bayou DeSaird Country Club, was, as always, a delightful occasion. Original decorations and good food made this an outstanding event for our organization.

For the last meeting of the year, the members are looking forward to a boat ride along the Ouachita River with the actives. The plans are to leave on the house boat in the morning, dock on a sand bar up the river for swimming, and have a pot luck lunch before returning home. The high point of the day will come when the actives relate some of their many experiences of the past year in Pi Beta Phi.

DOROTHY D. BARNSDALE BUFFINGTON

NEWPORT

What the Newport Alumnae Club lacks in age and experience is more than made up for in enthusiasm and congeniality! We organized April 25, 1961, with 22 charter members, and have since added three more. In July we met at the Thaxton's summer home on the river for a luncheon and in September we met at the Minor's river home for lunch with four members of the Little Rock club coming to help and instruct us.

On December 28 the Newport Alumnae Club entertained fifty high school junior and senior girls at a coffee in the beautiful new home of Mary Alice Connor. Our club sent a representative to the installation of the new chapter of Pi Beta Phi at Memphis State University on February 24. We entertained Mrs. Madeleine Lafon, province president, on March 7, with a luncheon, meeting and dinner. We had a complete representation at the Founders' Day meeting in Jonesboro May 12.

Under the very able leadership of our President, Mrs. Ralph McDonald, Jr., we hold seven meetings a year and have filled all the requirements prescribed, we trust.

HARRYETTE M. HODGES

SAINT JOSEPH

In April the Saint Joseph Alumnae Club began its second year under the efficient leadership of Helen Hansen Wood. The first meeting of the year was a very important one to us, for it served a twofold purpose. Following the Founders' Day program, our new constitution and bylaws were presented for the club's approval.

We dedicated our June meeting to our actives. A luncheon was given in their honor, and they were each presented with a corsage. Later in the summer we conducted a drive for contributions to the Missouri A redecoration fund.

The highlight of our year came in October when we were visited by Madeleine Closs Lafon, province vice president. The evening of her arrival she was entertained by a small dinner party, followed the next day by a luncheon meeting in her honor. "Pi Beta Phi Kisses," the luncheon theme, was depicted by a large arrow in the center of the table. This was surrounded by candy kisses in the form of flowers. There were also individual favors. Since this was the club's first visit by a province vice president, we were especially pleased to receive her advice and encouragement.

Business was the mainstay of our January meeting. In spite of the snow, most of the loyal members attended, and we made plans for the coming year.

MARILYN KELSO CHIPPS

ST. LOUIS

The first event of the fall season participated in by the St. Louis Alumnae Club was a barbecue, given with the St. Louis Junior Alumnae, to honor the active chapter and new pledges of Missouri B. This has become an annual affair, and gives the alumnae the opportunity to meet and enjoy these girls as they in turn introduce their pledges and entertain with informal skits.

The October meeting was highlighted with a talk by Dean Catherine Draper of Washington University on present conditions and future plans of the sororities and fraternities on that rapidly growing campus.

Of special interest at the November meeting was the speaker, a young minister, who represented the local project which is the Youth Counseling Service. He gave a very thorough explanation of the services performed, cited case histories as examples, and told how the funds furnished them are used.

The Christmas meeting, a covered dish supper, was jointly given with the St. Louis Junior Alumnae. Guests at this party were the active chapter and pledges of Missouri B who entertained with their songs. The club felt very honored to receive the Little Pigeon second place award for its contributions to Settlement School in 1960-61.

Another December event was the Christmas coffee for all actives who live in St. Louis, whether they go to school here or elsewhere. High school seniors who are daughters or sisters of Beta Phi members were also invited.

The big event of this year was the Country Carousel and House Tour on May 3. Preparations for this outdoor bazaar begin a year in advance. The Arrowcraft booth, among others, was very popular. Ticket sales for the house tour, which was held the same day, began in March, and definitely helped make this project a success.

ST. LOUIS JUNIOR

The St. Louis Junior Alumnae Club started out the year with a record attendance at its September meeting, where new members were welcomed with a dinner. At this same meeting the club's new charity project was explained by Ted Schmidt, case worker for the St. Louis Public School Welfare Fund. The fund provides lunch money, car fare, shoes, or school supplies for needy St. Louis public school children. At the end of the month the club held its annual barbecue honoring the actives and pledges of Missouri B.

There was a most successful card party, complete with prizes and refreshments, following the October meeting and Settlement School sale. The November meeting was a luncheon, at which the featured speaker was Pat Fontaine, local television personality. In December the Juniors joined the Seniors for the traditional covered dish supper and were entertained by the Missouri B chapter, who were the honored guests.

At the January meeting Alfred A. Speer, II, Missouri State Representative, gave a very enjoyable talk on the state legislature, followed by a question and answer session. Husbands and dates were guests for a spaghetti supper in February. Founders' Day was celebrated this year with a luncheon at the Junior League Tea Room.

The club hopes to wind up a good year with another successful Country Carousel in May. June Thursby Siegerist is the Junior chairman for this money raising bazaar, on which the two St. Louis clubs combine their talents and efforts every other year.

BARBARA SHARP GOULD

SHREVEPORT

President Imogene Whyte Murphy has lead the Shreveport Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club in another busy and active year. With seventy members on roll we are glad to report that our meetings have been well attended.

Our year was off to a good start in September when Margaret Seamster Schweiger, Recommendations Chairman, announced that thirty four girls from the Shreveport area pledged at various schools during fall rush.

October brought a delightful and inspiring visit from Madeleine Lafon, province vice president. A morning coffee honoring Mrs. Lafon was held on October 26 at the home of Martha Sibley Simmons. Alumnae club members and mothers of actives enjoyed meeting and visiting with Mrs. Lafon.

During the year there were two very informative programs on the evils of Communism. Jacqueline Labry Nesbitt gave a most inspiring talk on Anti-Communism and urged all alumnae to attend the Anti-Communism School held here in October. The second speaker was Mr. Sam Schweiger, husband of one of our alumnae. His talk was entitled "Of This We Can Be Sure." This was an excellent and thought provoking program for our October meeting.

The February meeting was given over to a highly successful benefit bridge and style show at Barksdale Officers' Club. Approximately 160 women played cards, viewed the latest styles, and placed orders for Settlement School items. Barbara Dyess Williamson was the capable general chairman for this affair. Suzanne Hendrix Nicholls, style show chairman, took us on a Caribbean Cruise as the models showed us the latest in sports wear apparel.

The last social event was a picnic and installation of officers in May at the home of Betty Kendall Mack.

Another very successful year in Pi Beta Phi is eagerly awaited.

CAROLYN COX COPELAND

SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI

May 1961, rushed the club into an early, extra busy "new" year.

A Drury Pi Beta Phi was returning to Commencement activities to receive a distinguished service award. This honored college guest, Miss Mary Jane Poole, was also the club's honored guest at an open house at the Pi Beta Phi Suite. This occasion not only reunited many Pi Beta Phi who attended college with Miss Poole, but it also enabled others to meet her.

House Corporation, too, assumed duties early in the summer. The members devoted immeasurable time to impeccable planning, endless investigation, and flawless execution of a redecoration project which completely changed the suite on Drury campus!

August initiated a god-daughter program between the alumnae and actives which was successfully begun with an informal "getting-acquainted" session in October.

November witnessed the club's annual Settlement School Tea; December saw the Pi Beta Phi gathered for the Christmas luncheon; January again seemed against the covered dish dinner at the Pi Beta Phi Suite, but several boot clad members trekked through the snow to an enjoyable dinner and meeting.

February heard a collective "welcome" when the alumnae club honored the ten newly initiated Missouri I actives and presented Pi Beta Phi "angels" to them at the traditional Cooky-shine.

March completed final plans for Founders' Day and the eagerly anticipated visit of Amy Burnham Onken, President Emeritus.

April brought her to us. The club was fortunate to have such a remarkable, inspirational Pi Beta Phi who amplified the significance of the Founders' Day celebration.

This event appropriately climaxed a fruitful, enjoyable year for Missouri Alumnae Club.

CONSTANCE ELMORE OLLIS

MU PROVINCE

ALLIANCE

The Alliance Alumnae Club met for its first meeting in September at the home of Aurel Hord, president. We were pleased to have as our guest, Mrs. Robert Pilling, province vice president, who spoke about the summer workshop.

In January we met at Jane Bowhay's for a meeting on Settlement School. For Founders' Day in May we had a luncheon meeting here in Alliance with the Panhandle Alumnae Club. In August we will meet with the actives home for vacation to discuss recommendations and to check on rushees who plan to attend college in the fall.

We are a new and small club, but certainly our enthusiasm and interest for Pi Beta Phi is great.

AMES

Eighteen new pledges at Iowa State University were welcomed at a September morning coffee at the home of Mabel Hasbrouck Stafford, treasurer of the Pi Beta Phi House Corporation. The club membership of seventy one includes eighteen alumnae in Boone, Collins, Colo., Madrid, Nevada, and Story City.

At an October evening dessert in Abby Sinclair Sorenson's home, members hemmed linen napkins for the chapter house. Betty Summerwill Koza, Mu Province Active Chapter President, met with the Advisory Board in early Fall.

The Settlement School Tea in the chapter house in November brought several hundred guests and resulted in a worthwhile sale of Arrowcraft items.

An attractive display and explanation of easy to make Christmas gifts was presented by Ann Leichter Munn at a December luncheon meeting in Lennadore Berg Schilleter's home. Elaine Vitquin Woodard, club president, reported on the November visit of Ruth Preston Pilling, Mu Province Alumnae Vice President.

Loyalty Day was observed at a February luncheon, with Iowa F actives and pledges as guests in the chapter house. Sally Pfremmer Lamison presented colored slides of "Pi Beta Phi Through the Years." The slides were rented from the Columbia, Missouri Alumnae Club. The Columbia Club prepared the slides with a commentary, as their fund raising project for the Centennial Fund. Susan Tomlinson, chapter president, related some of the outstanding activities, awards, and recognitions of actives. Actives and pledges entertained with songs and harp solos.

A March Dessert Bridge Party was held at the chapter house to raise money for replacement of the actives' table service. Guests were invited by alumnae who paid one dollar per person. Prizes were not purchased, but were provided by alumnae.

Chapter members joined in Founders' Day observance with Des Moines and other visiting alumnae as luncheon guests in Memorial Union. Special annual awards were presented to outstanding actives by the chapter president.

A May Potluck Picnic, honoring seniors at Lydia Armstrong Adams' home, concluded the year's activities.

KATHERINE GOEPPINGER

BURLINGTON, IOWA

The Burlington Alumnae Club met for their Founders' Day meeting at the local Country Club for a luncheon and program conducted by our President, Barbara Awbrey.

Our programs have been varied and informative as we discussed rushing, our Constitution, and the History of our local alumnae club.

In October, we held a dessert luncheon at the home of Marjorie Dwight's, when we discussed the Settlement School. Individual Arrowcraft orders have been sent this year from our members and friends.

The highlight of our year was the visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Robert (Ruth) Pilling. A luncheon meeting at the Country Club drew members from Fort Madison and Galesburg, as well as Burlington. They were all inspired by the enthusiastic and stimulating report of Mrs. Pilling.

The club plans a trip to Holt House soon and we look forward to a busy year together, promoting the spirit of Pi Beta Phi.

IMO DORIS ABRAHAM

CEDAR RAPIDS

At a downtown luncheon and style show, we all were delighted to honor Edna Westfall Foster with flowers and fifty year car nation pin. We have all thought so much of Edna through the years and have been very proud of her as a province officer, as our convention delegate several times, as a past chapter president, and as our magazine chairman who for many years has kept us on our toes and at the top of the list. We surprised her with the pin at the luncheon, but it took some conniving to have her join us that day as the next morning she was leaving for Hawaii as representative for her garden club.

Our programs during the year have been especially interesting. One in particular was the talk on investment clubs by a very capable advisor from our local newspaper staff. We also enjoyed "living awhile in Israel" with a poised and charming exchange student who thoroughly enjoyed her stay in that country. And of great importance we feel has been the program given on teaching mouth to mouth resuscitation especially with the upcoming swim season.

Last summer one of our highlights was the husband's night. We all danced on the Kappa Ann river boat as it chugged it's way up the Cedar River. Afterwards we met for pizza. Plans are underway for another husband's night which will be as successful.

JIMMY LOU ROSS

DES MOINES

The Des Moines Alumnae Club has had an interesting year under the presidency of Shirley Tollefson Phillips. A picnic in September was enjoyable in spite of a rainy evening.

An outstanding five day sale of Settlement School products was held in the lobby of Youngers Department Store tea room. Many Iowa Pi Beta Phis, as well as other Iowans, were thrilled to find Settlement School products for Christmas gifts.

Ann Larson Wilson again opened her beautifully decorated home for a Christmas dinner party for alumnae, Ann's husband and children cooperated to make a family project of treating us to delightful Scandinavian food.

The Alumnae Club officers were pleased to have dinner with Ruth Preston Pilling province vice president. Later that evening Mrs. Pilling met with the A and B groups at the home of Ester Fuller Jans.

Boxes of snacks were sent to our four active chapters in Iowa during exam weeks. Also during Christmas vacation the Des Moines actives and pledges were entertained at a coffee in Marie Shay's home.

In May the A groups enjoy a dessert bridge, and the B group entertained their husbands and escorts at a picnic type party.

Our A and B groups join for our final picnic and business meeting of the year in June.

ROBERTA SMITH STARK

HUTCHINSON

Superb teamwork and planning combined to make an outstanding year for the Hutchinson Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Barbara Varner Frizell.

From our first meeting in October every detail was set for our Annual Charity Ball, one which has become a social favorite for the Christmas Season, and which, this year, engineered by Runne Anderson Sellers, was the most successful ever.

Having completed our Kansas A Building pledge, the profits from the Ball will enable us to start fulfilling our pledge to the Kansas B Building Fund; to contribute adequately to the Settlement School, Holt House, and to the Emma Harper Turner Fund, as well as to our local projects at the High School, the Junior High Schools and the Library.

On February 17, Marguerite Graybill Lewis becomes our first member of the Order of the Golden Arrow, in a surprise ceremony which was followed by a luncheon at the Town Club. It was indeed an honor to welcome for that occasion, Mrs. Kent Morgan, Grand Vice President, and many other out of town guests.

We are proud, too, of Shirley Jones Mann, who has been appointed new Chairman of the National Holt House Committee, and thus will attend the National Convention.

We looked forward to a Spring Vacation luncheon for our Pi Beta Phi pledges. And in May we closed the year with our annual Cooky-shine, and with our traditional dinner dance for our husbands, which last year was such fun at the Prairie Dunes Country Club.

ROSE CATHERINE REYNOLDS ROBERTSON

INDIANOLA

Indianola Alumnae Club launched the year's activities in September with a cooperative dinner held at the home of Ruth Sayre. Jo Eddy presented the rushing report. During this month the Mothers' Club and the Alumnae Club participated in a successful rummage sale.

A gratifying number enjoyed Homecoming Dinner October 21 at the chapter house.

The following month the new pledges were introduced. It was apparent that they were well established on campus and would bring many honors to Iowa B. Betty Buxton also reported on House Corporation and its extensive activities.

A brunch was held at the home of Helen Grant in honor of visiting Mu Province Vice President Ruth Preston Pilling.

The active chapter entertained at Christmas time. Their skit was delightfully received by the Mothers' Club and the Alumnae Club, who gave the Christmas Dinner.

During February, Mary McKee and Jackie VanderLinden presented the Settlement School program with interesting firsthand accounts by Jackie.

Second semester rushing introduced us to two new pledges. Our March meeting brought discussion on Constitutional changes, Centennial plans, and election of officers.

Founders' Day Tea was held with the actives in April. Seniors were entertained in May and honored at the Annual Commencement Tea in June, thus concluding a busy year.

CONNIE STEEN

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS

Fall activities for the Kansas City, Kansas, Alumnae Club began in September with an evening meeting under the leadership of Chris Solberg Nesselrode, president. New members were welcomed, a report from the rush chairman was given, and plans were laid for the spring project.

A delightful occasion took place during the holidays' at the home of Mrs. James Speaker, Grand Secretary. Local girls, all members of various active Pi Beta Phi chapters, were guests of the alumnae at an informal coffee. Each girl gave a brief resume of the chapter's activities, honors and accomplishments. The chapters represented were Kansas A, Kansas B, and Louisiana A.

After election of officers and business meeting in March, more fun was ahead with the Founders' Day Cooky-shine in April. The dinner and song fest with Mrs. John Ballard, National Song Leader, was participated by all members. The project, an auction under the guidance of Jean Proudfit Roberts, and the patio party, honoring husbands and best beaux, closed the year's activities.

BARBARA BAKER KIPPES

LAWRENCE

In September, the Lawrence Alumnae Club held their annual evening dessert meeting in the Student Union Building. The Kansas A active chapter spring and fall pledges were special guests for the meeting. The Leavenworth members were hostesses for a luncheon meeting at the Leavenworth Country Club in November. The guest speakers were Major and Mrs. Willis Knipe who showed slides and told of their experiences while stationed in Moscow, Russia. We left with a deeper appreciation of our American Heritage.

Our Christmas auction was one of the highlights of the year. Members made Christmas gifts of their own choice and these in turn were auctioned off to other members or their guests. The wide assortment of gifts included baked goods, appropriate gift items, and various Christmas decorations. The intense bidding was spiced by the humorous wit of Ellen Proudfit Williams as our able auctioneer. We netted $63 and plan to make this an annual money making project.

Virginia Ward Graves is editing a bi-annual Kansas A Newsletter which will be available to all Kansas A Alumnae for a one dollar annual subscription.

Carolyn Bailey Berneking was hostess at a luncheon at her home in January. Ann Roehl Erickson reported on her trip to Gatlinburg. Our March luncheon meeting was held at the home of Lois Greenless Buhr. A program of the Pi Beta Phi Constitution was presented.

A benefit dinner was held by the club at the chapter house on April 5. Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon meeting in May at the home of Juanita Youmans Jackman.

The Kansas A House Association had a reunion April 30, and May 1 with registration at the chapter house, banquet and lodgings at the Hotel Eldridge. The chapter house has been sold to the Kansas University Endowment Association and the new chapter house will be ready for occupancy in September.

JANICE LYON YATES

LINCOLN

The Lincoln Alumnae Club, under the presidency of Mrs. William Wiese, began the fall season by entertaining the pledges with a buffet dinner at the home of Mrs. Lee Stover.

The November meeting, at the home of Mrs. Kenneth McCaw, was a sandwich luncheon. Mrs. Katie Von Gillern, a member of our group, and a noted interior decorator, gave a most interesting program on "Love of Home."

Our time was consumed during the fall months with our Settlement School project. This year our members had coffees in their individual homes and displayed Settlement School crafts. It was most successful financially.

Mrs. William Edgcomb entertained us at her home in January. We had two honored guests, Warden Maurice J. Sigler of the Nebraska State Penitentiary, a Pi Beta Phi husband, gave a very enlightening talk. Mrs. Robert Pilling, our province vice president, was a charming addition to our group.

We entertained junior and senior high school daughters and the actives at a luncheon in February and attended initiation in March. On March 30 our husbands joined us for a dinner party at the Country Club.

We honored our fifty year Pi Beta Phis with a box supper at the chapter house in April. Our year concluded with a luncheon for the seniors in May at the home of Mrs. William Beachley.

We have been inspired this year by having Dorothy Weaver Morgan, Grand Vice President and a member of our own Lincoln Alumnae Club, with us.

MARILYN MOORE GROFF

MANHATTAN, KANSAS

With its capable president, Jacqueline Timmons Brewer, setting the pace, the Manhattan Alumnae Club has enjoyed an interesting year of entertainment and accomplishment.

The summer meetings, with Genevieve Conner Munger in June and with Gertrude Tobias Wassberg in August, were well attended.

At a delightful buffet dinner at the chapter house in September, Kansas B's thirty four pledges were introduced.

Huge pumpkin Jack-O-Laterns, with the greek letters Pi Beta Phi forming the eyes and noses and with mouths cut to resemble enormous arrows, were conversation pieces at the Halloween Smorgasbord at which the alumnae club entertained the pledges in November.

The report given by Kay Koon Billings, who attended the Advisory Board Meeting at Gatlinburg last summer, was the highlight of the November meeting with Cecile Brosseau Kendall.

A festive Valentine party for graduating seniors at the home of Nadine Smith Green and the buffet and Cooky-shine at the chapter house before initiation were both gala events.

The impressive Founders' Day Banquet in April, at the Manhattan Country Club, was stamped by the creative artistry of its chairman, Diane Hill Dollars and was a memorable meeting for both active and alumnae members.

The annual rummage sale, with Edith O'Brien Brewer as its chairman, netted the club $300. The $400 realized on an antique sale completed the $1000 pledge made to the building fund by the Manhattan Alumnae Club. Mrs. E. L. Holton, 217 N. 14th Street, is receiving pledges and contributions for the new house. Every class is hoping for a hundred percent participation. The house, a beautiful brick French Regency, will be completed in July.

At a "Holiday Shop" at the Wareham Hotel, the Mothers' Club, which includes many Manhattan Alumnae, sold their delectable merchandise for a profit of $1000 which they donated to the building fund.

This year our thinking, our planning, and our activities have all been revolving around the new house. July will see our dream come true!

RUTH RICHARDSON SMITH

Mt. PLEASANT, IOWA

In September the Mt. Pleasant Alumnae Club started upon its new year of activities under the leadership of Mary Swaney. An interesting report of the Chapter Presidents Workshop held at Gatlinburg in June was given by Dorothy Hoppe, Karen Johnson, and by Helen Rhode, an alumnae member of the Advisory Board, who also attended the workshop.

On October first the club members served coffee, cocoa, sandwiches and cookies after pledging, at the home of Helen Rhode.

One of our most enjoyable events was in November when the alumnae entertained actives, pledges and patronesses at a buffet supper. Seventy were present. The actives gave a short skit they had used at their informal rushing party. There was much interest in the singing of Pi Beta Phi songs, old and new. Later in November the club officers entertained Mu Province Vice President Ruth Preston Pilling for dinner at the Student Union. Then she spoke to us about Fraternity projects.

The Pi Beta Phi Constitution, History and examination topics was the program in January. The Settlement School and its products was the program for the March meeting. Also the election of officers for 1962-63 was held.

Founders' Day is always celebrated with a dinner at the Hotel, to which all the alumnae in the surrounding country are invited as well as the actives and pledges of Iowa A. Golden Arrow members are honored. We felt especially fortunate this year to have Miss Onken as our Founders' Day speaker. It is a great inspiration to listen to her.

In May the new officers were installed. Our year activities closed with Commencement breakfast on June 4 honoring the Seniors and the Alumnae who return for Commencement.

Helen Phelps Devin, member of our club, has been serving as Mu Province Scholarship Chairman.

October 21, 1961, Iowa Wesleyan College dedicated their new Trieschman Hall of Science with Dr. James Van Allen, discoverer of the Van Allen Radiation Belt, an alumnus of Iowa Wesleyan and a native of Mt. Pleasant, as the speaker.

On November 8 the College and Community were saddened by the very sudden death of our College President, Dr. J. Raymond Chadwick. He passed away in New York City, where he had gone on business for the College.

BEULAH BILLINGSLEY HAYES

OMAHA

The Omaha Alumnae Club, under the leadership of President Annis Gilmore Fletcher, opened the year with the September meeting at the home of Kay Garret Skinner. The high point of this meeting was an extensive report by the recommendations chairman, Small coffees, at the homes of four members, were held in October.

The traditional Holiday Luncheon was a festive affair at the country club. Actives and pledges, home for the holidays, members of the Mothers' Club, and high school daughters of the alumnae were guests.

Since this was not the year to hold a large Settlement School sale, it was decided to have individual coffees in private homes. In this manner it was hoped to reach new customers and enlarge the scope.

Ruth Preston Pilling, province vice president, was guest speaker at the February meeting. Since she is a member of our club it was a special pleasure to hear about her first year in office.

The club joined the Kansas City Alumnae Club in sponsoring a spring Theater Tour. It is the aim of the members to build this into an annual money making project.

Election of officers was held at the March meeting. With the installation of new officers at the May meeting, the year activities were concluded.

KATHERINE TURNBULL CAMPBELL

PANHANDLE

The 1961-62 year began for the Nebraska Panhandle Alumnae Club with the announcement that Ruth Preston Pilling was the new Mu Province Vice President. Also work was received that Mississippi A was the 105 chapter and a telegram was sent by the club to welcome them.

The fall meeting brought the club a new member, Nancy Bradford Redding, Colorado B, which gave an enrollment of twelve active members. Recommendations were then discussed.

The winter meeting was scheduled early this year as the club had the privilege to be visited by Ruth Preston Pilling, province vice president. She was honored at a luncheon held at the Scottsbluff Country Club. Representatives of the new Alliance Alumnae Club participated on this special occasion.

Spring as usual brought the election of new officers. The club was proud to be able to increase its donation to Holt House and Settlement School both with monetary support and green stamps. Telegrams were also sent to welcome Tennessee B, Kentucky B and Mississippi B to Pi Beta Phi Fraternity.

The Panhandle Club felt it had a very successful year and is looking forward to growing in strength as well as in love for Pi Beta Phi.

NANCY BRADFORD REDDING

SIoux FALLS

The Sioux Falls Alumnae Club helped to make the dream of a patio for South Dakota A come true with the proceeds from a summer rummage sale. A picnic in July was highlighted by a first hand report on Settlement School from Mollie Gleason, an active, who had just returned from her trip.

Discussions of antiques, interior decorating, Christmas decorations, and Settlement School provided interest for the fall meetings.

Winter activities began with a very successful holiday bridge luncheon at Minnehaha Country Club for alumnae and vacationing actives. A Cooky-shine in January, the first in years for many of our members, was enhanced by slides of Holt House and singing of "College Days" songs. A party for husbands and boy friends brought our winter season to a close.

Spring was welcomed by all after many feet of snow and once again Founders' Day found us in Vermillion with the members of South Dakota and the Vermillion Alumnae Club. An enjoyable year under the able leadership of Grace Vandel Kolb closed with installation of officers in May.

DONNA-LEE OLSTAD HOGAN

VERMILLION

The Vermillion Alumnae Club began its year under the direction of its president, Janet Krueger. The alumnae assisted the chapter during rush week. In October, Mrs. Robert Pilling, province vice president, visited the club, and a pot luck supper was held in her honor.

In November the pledges entertained the club at the chapter house. At the January meeting a magazine raffle was held. This was done to boost our magazine sales. The pledges about to be initiated were entertained by the alumnae club in March, and the Constitution was read to them. The Founders' Day luncheon was held in April with Mrs. Kent Morgan, Grand Vice President, as a guest. There were also alumnae from surrounding towns. A program was given by the actives. An informal coffee hour at the chapter house followed this.

MRS. DEAN H. LEE

WICHITA, KANSAS

The September "Dues and Donuts" meeting was the first of the year for the Wichita Alumnae Club. There was much talk about after three months vacation. Several new comers attended and we all got acquainted with the help of name tags.

Our annual Settlement School sale was held in October. The sale took place in three of the local grocery stores around town. The items were well received by the public and the sale was a great success.

Our husbands joined us for the November meeting. We saw movies of an African safari. The films were made by a member's husband on his trip to Africa. This was an exciting evening for everyone.

The Christmas holidays found the Wichita Pi Beta Phi Alumnae entertaining the actives and their mothers at an informal coffee.

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae held their annual children's movie in February. The movie shown was Hans Christian Anderson's "Snow Queen." The grand prize was a log cabin for backyard play. The proceeds go to the Wichita Medical Service Bureau.

At our March meeting we held a jewelry auction. This involved the auctioning off of donated jewelry to those present. It was lots of fun besides adding money to the treasury. We had a cocktail and buffet in March for our husbands. It was a wonderful party.

The "Cooky-shine" was held in April. We had a buffet and a skit presented by the members. The officers for next year were then installed. This was our final meeting of the year.

LOIS M. WEIGAND

ALTUS

An organization meeting of Pi Beta Phi alumnae in Altus was held February 13, and an application for a charter was sent in to the Grand Vice President, with the signatures of fifteen charter members.

On March 19, the charter was presented and the officers installed by Adele Alford Heink, Chapter Letter Editor, now residing in Altus. Betty Davis was installed as president, Beverly Badger, secretary, and Frances Mock, treasurer.

Members of the club attended Oklahoma State Day in Ardmore in April, and plans are being made to send a delegate to Convention.

BEVERLY REYNOLDS BADGER

ARDMORE

The Ardmore Club has just passed its forty-fifth birthday. We have wondered who else, in our area, has an equally long and happy record. Last autumn, three girls pledged, from Ardmore, at Oklahoma University. We were real happy about us. One of them is Carolyn, the daughter of Mrs. Wilbur Jones. (Mary Elizabeth Stanton). We enjoyed the usual rush parties, including one during the Christmas holidays.

Our current club program is working out well. We meet once a month, usually on Thursday. Our time for meeting varies, from morning coffees, through luncheons, to a cooky-shine or two. We participate a hundred percent in national alumnae activities, and every one has paid their local dues! This year, our activity focused on State Day, in April, when we were the hostesses, together with the Duncan and the Pauls Valley Clubs. The meeting was at Lake Murray Lodge, with our State President, Virginia Paramore, presiding at the business sessions.

It is a little soon to know who can go to Convention, in Washington, in June. Mrs. T. G. Gibson (Inez McMillen), one of Oklahoma Alpha's founders, is serving on the national board of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and since their convention runs almost concurrently with ours, we are counting on Inez, to be there. Membership in the Ardmore Club stays fairly stabilized, with about thirty eight members, the personnel varies slightly, usually because oil company employees still move around a lot.

Our President is Mrs. Julian Cohenour, (Margaret Flow), she is both gracious and efficient, and we feel we are very lucky. Our local program, so far, has included an evening on Pi Beta Phi History, and another on the Constitution. We had a successful Settlement School Products sale, a rush party, a cooky-shine, and one meeting devoted to our plans and hopes for next year. We should like to extend greetings and good wishes to all the alumnae clubs of our fraternity, and especially to former members of the Ardmore Club, where ever you are!

ANTOINETTE HOLLINGSWORTH

BARTLESVILLE

The Bartlesville Alumnae Club has had its usual active year. Forty eight members are listed on the roster. When Joyce Schultz Pasque moved from the city in the fall, she was succeeded in the presidency by Midge Markgraf Tucker. We were proud to have a local girl, Joyce Barker, elected by Oklahoma A and two initiated by Oklahoma A, Kay Meyer and Pam Heritage (daughter of Imogene Harris Heritage). Another Bartlesville Pi Beta Phi, Diane Straight, was elected to Φ K Φ at Oklahoma State. We were most pleased to learn that Oklahoma A had been awarded the Bel-four Cup. Margie Lausten Staten is serving as president of the City Panhellenic. This group has set up a master file of information on the academic standing and extracurricular activities of all graduating senior girls. Some of the information was submitted by the potential rushees at a coke party given by Panhellenic in the spring.

Programs throughout the year were varied and stimulating. The executive committee met with the province vice president, Isabel Storm Simmons; a luncheon followed for all of the members. Founders' Day was celebrated with a cooky-shine. One program outlined the activities of our alumnae club through the years from the date of receiving a charter from National. Ruth Welty Stewart reported most interestingly of her visit to Gatlinburg and the Settlement School. Patty Marshall, a senior in Bartlesville High School, showed slides and told of her experiences in West Berlin last year as a member of the American Field Service.

As spring approached, planning began to determine our rushees and to interest them in pledging Pi Beta Phi.

BETTY REED KASTNER

CLAREMORE

The Claremore Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of its efficient president, Wilma Scott, has enjoyed a year in which there has been a deepening knowledge of the responsibilities, advantages and the pleasures of being an organized alumnae club. The members regret that alumnae from Pryor are no longer affiliated with the club, but are proud to have added three new members, Virginia Wilson Lewis, who recently moved to Claremore from Tulsa, Jane Goodpaster Snedden, Centralia, and Elizabeth Wheatley Coppedge, Vinita. There are now six members in Claremore, one in Chelsea, two in Vinita, and one in Centralia. At a recent meeting it was decided that a more appropriate name for the club would be the Will Rogers Area Alumnae Club, since the members come from an area of fifty miles to attend meetings.

Two members, Wilma Collins Scott and Rebecca Nichols Heritage, attended Pi Beta Phi State Day at the "Trade Winds" in Tulsa in April, 1961.

Linda Scott, daughter of the president, was pledged by Missouri A in September, and was initiated March 18, 1962.

At the November meeting, a luncheon in the home of Janelle Stallings Gordon, it was voted to contribute to the Centennial Fund in honor of Gettrude Bayless Mills, Golden Arrow Pi Beta Phi who was a charter member of Missouri A. The Centennial Chairman is Maureen Allison O'Bannon, charter member of Kansas B.

The February meeting was a luncheon meeting in the home of Jane Gillett Price, Vinita, where the History of Pi Beta Phi was reviewed, and new officers elected.

Plans for the future included a meeting at which the Settlement School will be the chief topic of discussion, and in April, the Founders' Day dinner.

A closer fellowship in Pi Beta Phi has been a rewarding experience for the members who look forward to another busy and happy year working together.

REBECCA NICHOLS HERITAGE

DUNCAN

The Duncan Alumnae Club, under the efficient leadership of Nola Sue Beall, has enjoyed a most gratifying year. A Founders' Day Dinner was held again this year in the home of Marion Brown. Marcia Green presented the program which was sent from National, and the meeting closed with the candle lighting ceremony.

In May we enjoyed a Dutch Treat dinner at the Country Club. Fifteen of our seventeen members were present.

During the Christmas vacation our members helped with the Panhellenic Tea which gives us all an opportunity to meet the high school girls who are interested in pledging a sorority.

We were busy making plans for Pi Beta Phi State Day in April.

Duncan, Ardmore, and Pauls Valley were hostesses this year with the president, Virginia Paramore, being a Duncan alumna.
MARCIA MULLENDORE GREEN

OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City is proud to claim 150 paid members in both the Junior and Senior clubs this year. We welcome all Pi Beta Phis to join us when they move to town.

We started our year with a registration coffee at the home of Virginia Diggs. Our capable president Gladys London presided over the discussion of the Settlement School coffee coming in November, at our October buffet supper in Helen Johnston's home. We were happy to give $525 to the Adult Rehabilitation Center, which was the profit from our ticket sales for the settlement School sale. In December we had a most enjoyable Christmas party with our husbands as guests, at the home of Patty Cox. At our January luncheon meeting, we voted to give our merit award to a very deserving member of Oklahoma B at Stillwater. The check for $50 was presented by Frances Bennett, who is also chairman of the Oklahoma B house corporation. Our club has been very helpful both individually and collectively in manpower and financially with a gift of $500 to apply on the new house which will be completed in August. February found Elizabeth Brannon entertaining us again for a buffet supper as she does every year. In March we had another luncheon meeting and in April we celebrated State Day and Founders' Day at Lake Murray Lodge as guests of the Ardmore Alumnae Club. Our final meeting of the year was a joint meeting with the Junior group at the home of Babs Smith. Installation of officers was held and plans for the summer rush were discussed.

EMMA ADELE SWIM BENNETT

PONCA CITY-KAY COUNTY

The Kay County Alumnae Club began its 1961-1962 activities with a Cooky-shine supper in the home of Ella Merry Hayman. The fall rush season was reviewed and reports were given on the active chapters.

As a Settlement School project a lovely pre-Christmas coffee was held in the home of Martha Welch Jones. A large crowd including alumnae club members and friends from Crowell, Newkirk, and Ponca City attended. In addition to Arrowcraft products, a food sale of cookies, candies, and other holiday fare added to the funds raised.

One of our meetings featured a travel talk by Carolyn Bagby who has traveled extensively in Europe.

Our annual Founders' Day Luncheon at the Ponca City Country Club is always a high light of the year.

In December our Pi Beta Phi Panhellenic representative, Martha Jones, assisted with the Annual Christmas Homecoming Dance. Money from this project is used to help worthy senior girls. Plans are being made for the Easter party to be given for the children attending the Special School.

The year will close in June with the installation of new officers. Lou Ann Montgomery Carter is concluding her second year as President.

VIRGINIA BAGBY HARSH

STILLWATER

The Stillwater Alumnae Club sparked enthusiasm for the coming year with a patio supper the last of August. The club's guests from the active chapter brought the group up-to-date on the final plans for rush week.

In September after dues and dessert, the club took the history of Pi Beta Phi test which is taken by the actives, annually. Our method for taking the test was easy, for we only had to match the questions with the proper answers, orally. Thank goodness, the club score will never be known.

October found the alumnae busy entertaining the new pledges; holding a profitable Settlement School sale; raising funds at a rummage sale; and most exciting of all, breaking ground for a new chapter house.

Highlighting the November meeting was a report on the summer advisors convention in Gatlinburg.

December found the club combining the fun of a white elephant gift exchange with the money raising project of a silent auction. The silent auction contained many valuable items. The alumnae had ten minutes to write bids for the desired items. There was much competitive bidding, but all on paper. The profits from the auction were contributed to the building fund.

The dean of women talked to us in January explaining some interesting aspects of the fraternity system on the O.S.U. campus.

March was the month of entertaining. The seniors were our guests for a cooky-shine, and our husbands, for a dinner-game night.

April found the alumnae busy with Founders' Day.

In May, the club installed officers and was looking forward to completion of the new chapter house.

MARILYN SHORT THOMPSON

TULSA

The Tulsa Alumnae Clubs with a membership of 128 were superbly led the past year by Edythe Lister, Senior group president, and Rosemary Dyke, Junior group president.

Early in the year we enjoyed a visit from our own Isabel Simmons, province vice president.

Bridge Marathons, summer and fall, were not only money making projects, but great fun; and many times enlightening. A Children's Theater Party was also sponsored by our group. Plans are in the making, at present, for a larger money making project to support our "Shoe Gifts" to needy Tulsa children; and a Local Student Fund, that is still in the stages of a dream.

Our other events experienced were: The Founders' Day Dinner, The Cooky-shine, and The June Picnic, with Pi Beta Phi husbands as guests.

ABILENE

The Abilene Alumnae Club began its year in September under the leadership of Gloria Beatty McDaniel. The main topic of interest and discussion at this first meeting was the pledging of two girls from Abilene and one from Sweetwater. We were delighted with these new pledges.

At the October meeting, Lucy Haynie Wallace was elected to serve as president, since Gloria McDaniel had moved out of town. It was announced at this meeting that Abilene Panhellenic's scholarship fund this year would be in memory of Vera Hall Minter, who passed away last May. She was a charter member of the Abilene Alumnae Club and was very prominent in Abilene social, civic, and cultural circles. Our alumnae club and the entire city of Abilene were saddened by her death.

After our business meeting in October, we had a white elephant sale which proved to be very enjoyable as well as profitable. This sale was our only money making project this year.

In February our club was very honored with a visit from the Nu South Province Vice President, Mrs. Reginald Brack from Dallas. We had a covered dish luncheon before the meeting which gave everyone an opportunity to visit with Mrs. Brack. She made a most interesting and inspiring talk, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed getting to know her.

The March meeting was mainly devoted to the election of officers and to discussion of sending a delegate to the 1962 Convention. We were delighted to announce about a mid term Pi Beta Phi pledge from Abilene.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a lovely luncheon at the Abilene Country Club. After a very interesting program, the new officers were installed for the coming year.

The last meeting of the year was held in May, and the principal business was planning for rush.

LOIS AGNOR SMITH

ALBUQUERQUE

The Albuquerque Alumnae Club started the year with a September luncheon presided over by Mrs. John Moore, President. The Club voted to contribute Savings Stamps Books to the House Board for miscellaneous items needed by the chapter. In October, we honored the New Mexico A members and new pledges with a pie supper, Crisp autumn air, football games and the Settlement School Tea under the direction of Mrs. G. B. Moneymaker and Mrs. Jay Root were a part of the Pi Beta Phi's November activities.

A monthly Bridge Brigade which culminates in May with a dessert bridge party at the New Mexico A House has become an annual money making project enjoyed by Pi Beta Phis and guests. As an additional aid to the scholarship fund the club has sponsored several rummage sales. In February we began thinking about Convention plans and incoming officers. In March the province vice-president, Mrs. Reginald Brack, visited the Albuquerque Club.

JO WHITE

AUSTIN

Our first meeting was held at the home of the club president, Mrs. Jerry Bell. Lucille Avery gave a delightful account of her summer visit to the Settlement School workshop. In November we met at the chapter house and were brought up to date on activities there by Nancy Cotton, chapter president, and Mrs. Shirley, the housemother.

The province vice president, Mrs. Reginald Brack, made her visit in February, and we were especially glad to have her suggestions concerning our new building program. For several years we have hoped to purchase the University Club property next door to the chapter house for needed expansion. After long negotiations Mrs. John Chiles was able to report its acquisition.

The 60th anniversary of Texas A was celebrated at the March meeting followed in April by celebration of Founders' Day with the active chapter.

The Welfare Committee allocated contributions this year of three hundred dollars to the Science Fair, the International Hospitality Committee, the Austin Council for Retarded Children, and an art scholarship for a University student.

CAROL TYLER LONG

BRAZOS VALLEY

The Brazos Valley Alumnae Club opened the fall season with a meeting at the lovely old home of our president, Kate Bernath. Our membership covers a large area, and it is always a happy time when we gather again to start a new year and renew our warm Pi Beta Phi friendships.

We are pleased to welcome two new members this year, Patsy Porter and Sue Howell, Texas A pledges from Bryan. Good news from rush week makes a good beginning for the year.

A new slate of officers took office this fall for a two year term, serving under the leadership of Kate Parker Bernath. We are appreciative of the work and efforts of those who have served us for the last two years.

According to our custom we have contributed to Holt House, Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund, Harriet Johnson Fund, Settlement School, and in addition this year to the Convention Hospitality Fund. Brazos Valley is proud of being a 100 percent chapter in contribution to the Centennial Fund. We look forward with much interest to further reports from this year's Convention regarding our big, new project that is to be.

Programs were presented in November and January on Settlement School and Loyalty Day. The abolition of summer rushing having left us with funds that we will no longer need set aside. It was decided during the winter to make a gift of $100 to the Brazos Valley Children's Therapy Center, a project our group has long been interested in.

On February 19, Mrs. Brack, province vice president, visited us. It is always a stimulating experience when our officers come to visit, and Pi Beta Phi seems blessed with a never ending supply of capable and inspiring women to carry on its work.

An Arrowcraft sale was held March 1 in the home of Louise Porter, Settlement School chairman. We are proud of our first such effort in many years. A box of our beautiful Galinburg craft work was on display, and our friends enjoyed looking and ordering. Proceeds of the sale will go to the Therapy Center.

With Founders' Day celebrated at the Briarcrest Country Club on April 27 we ended another happy and successful year.

MARTHA JAMES PARTEN

CORPUS CHRISTI

The Corpus Christi Alumnae Club under our extremely capable president, Shirley Shockley, has enjoyed a very active year.

Our first meeting, an evening Cooky-shine saw some new faces as well as many old ones which had been dearly missed.

In April, we were informed of a forum, by our Panhellenic delegate Mary Crawford, which is now the successor of summer rush. This is perhaps a more democratic, though not as much fun way of meeting potential rushees.

The May meeting dealt primarily with the discussion of proposed candidates for Rush. Although we were not as successful last year, we are looking forward to a more profitable 1962.

Our September meeting found us making many new and important changes in the Rush meetings for this year. Although hindsight is not supposed to be better than foresight, we intend to capitalize on it.

In October we had our combination Men's Night and small fund raising project. Poor men. We each brought a casserole and a white elephant wrapped and ready for sale. It was an extremely successful occasion, but it was the general consensus that next year the elephants should have some slight monetary value.

Our November meeting saw an interesting Settlement School program by Lucita Darden, our able vice president, who also showed us products of the school she had bought during a recent visit.

Our January meeting highlighted the year with the presence of Mrs. Reginald Brack, our new province vice president from Dallas. We also had an interesting talk on "The Future of the Fraternity System" by a local attorney and fraternity man.

Our February and March meetings consisted of the election and installation of officers, and the coming year already promises to be as active and rewarding as the last.

ANNE CAIN

DALLAS

Elwyn Bagwell gave the Dallas Alumnae a year of excellent leadership. Elwyn had a busy year being President and a Pi Beta Phi mother. Over a hundred members assisted in carrying out the club's activities.

There were a variety of programs from "Worries or a Will?" by a bank trust officer to "Changing Social Symbols" by an interior designer. Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi also contributed their talents to give the members interesting programs. Mrs. Floyd Hightower, chairman on rush, had the fall program with "A Panel Discussion on Rush." This was a joint meeting and had a large attendance and interest. Mary Nash (Texas B) brought us a program with models, dresses, and accessories for "Wardrobe-Stretchers" and delightful commentary. Laughter reigned at the January meeting when the Pi Beta Phi Sewing Club gave a program, "The Thread that Binds." Yearly, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Foscoe (Texas B) give an outstanding program. "Human Habits Throughout the World" was a photographic tour and lecture on the countries and peoples around the world this year. The American Flag greeted the members at the entrance of their home, and Dr. and Mrs. Foscoe stressed the ways of life in foreign countries and why Pi Beta Phis should do their part in preserving their American heritage.

The Arrowcraft Exhibition and bake sale was in the fall. The chairman, hostess and invitation committee worked diligently to get a large attendance for the tea. In April at the SMU Student Center the Founders' Day Banquet was held. "Remember" was the theme with a large golden arrow for the centerpiece and tables decorated with spring flowers and greenery.

There was an increase in membership and attendance at all meetings. The club made every endeavor to fulfill their obligations and carry out Pi Beta Phi traditions.

DOROTHY BIRDWELL

EAST TEXAS

The East Texas Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi was organized five years ago. It was the first alumnae sorority group to organize a club in East Texas and now has seventeen members from Longview, Henderson and Pittsburg, Texas.

Eugenia Francis, active Pi Beta Phi at Southern Methodist, represented Longview as Duchess on East Texas Day at the State Fair in Dallas last fall. Eugenia also was of valuable assistance in charge of Pi Beta Phi activities during the allowed Panhellenic Information Tea late last summer.

Our project this year has been a Cook Book sale. Although the club is small, meetings have been well attended, and the prospect of a larger East Texas Club is promising.

HELEN MILTON

HOUSTON

Under the capable and efficient leadership of Lucy Eastham, the Houston Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi made tremendous strides this year.

Margaret Atwood, chairman of the Recommendations Committee, reported at the September meeting the outcome of rushing at the various colleges. In October, a delightful and informative skit was presented to the membership extolling the merits of the Settlement School in preparation for the bi-annual Settlement School Sale held in November. The sale was most successful, and overall participation by the group was excellent.

The Christmas tea in the home of Geneva Bradley was a lovely holiday party which honored the actives, pledges, and their mothers.

In January, the club was delighted with a visit from Edythe Brach, Nu Province South Vice President. Many new ideas and valuable advice were gained from her. At the January meeting, some of the members presented an original and clever program on their talents and trades.

The cooky-shine was held in February at the home of Frances Taylor. At this time, the Founders and seven Golden Arrow members were honored.

The final affair of the year was held in May. Alumnae Club members and their escorts enjoyed an evening party at the Sagewood Country Club, paying special tribute to the newly elected officers.

CAROLYN RUSSELL HOLMES

LUBBOCK

The Lubbock Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, under the able leadership of Helen Fulgham, has enjoyed a most successful year.

In September the new Texas F pledges were honored with a poolside spaghetti supper at the home of Bernice Spears, our new province president. The actives entertained with a take off on their rush party programs.

The October meeting consisted of our annual luncheon given for the Patroness and Mothers' Club. Texas F President, Linda Barnhill, gave an inspiring talk on the activities of the chapter.

Our November meeting was held in the home of Helen Fulgham. We were entertained with a skit by the new pledges and each pledge had a chance to meet and visit with her Alum Big Sister.

In December, the Patroness and Mothers' Club entertained the alumnae and the actives with a lovely tea in the home of Mrs. Edwin Forrest. Also in December, the alumnae gave a get acquainted party for the local Lubbock actives and those actives home for the holidays from other schools.

The Valentine Benefit Bridge was such a success last year that it was held again this year in the Student Union Ballroom with a most successful turnout.

Edith Brack, our province vice president, paid us a visit in February and attended our monthly meeting in the home of Jane Henry. Her visit was most beneficial and was certainly enjoyed by all.

Our annual Founders' Day Banquet, held jointly with Texas F, was held on April 26 at the Lubbock Women's Club.

The club year was closed in May with the installation of new officers.

MARYBETH TOLES MANGUM

MIDLAND

The Midland Alumnae Club began its official year in April with the Founders' Day luncheon at the Midland Country Club. This was followed by a party for the husbands. In June the members participated in giving a Panhellenic coke party for high school graduates who were interested in rush. We were very pleased to welcome nine pledges during the September rush weeks.

Our alumnae club gives support to several charities; the Community Ambassador, High Sky Girls' Ranch, Midland Council for Retarded Children, and during our November and January meetings, contributions of canned goods and clothing were made to worthy causes. Our December meeting was in the form of a coffee for the actives, pledges, and their mothers. This February we were pleased to welcome a new pledge at Tulsa University.

We have all enjoyed our frequent buffet luncheon at a member's home before our business meetings; there are three hostesses who bring the food and each member pays one dollar. It has been a successful way of raising funds and we have a very large attendance.

JOAN HUTCHENS WANAMAKER

ROSWELL

The Roswell Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, with a membership of twenty one, spent an active year under the guidance of our capable President, Nancy Rawson Hinrichs. We have a dinner meeting the first Monday of each month in the homes of members. Attendance has been splendid and we have enjoyed a highly successful year.

The Summer meetings were devoted to rush plans. Sally Stringer Burkstaller, served as Rush Captain, and many members cooperated in writing letters of recommendation. Our efforts were well rewarded as we pledged eight girls. Five at New Mexico A, one at Arkansas A, one at Arizona A and one at Missouri B. These eight pledges and their mothers and our actives and their mothers were honored with a Brunch during the Christmas holidays at the home of Mary Eichenberger Ely, with a large number of alumnae club members present to meet and welcome our pledges.

In October, our annual rummage sale netted enough to make our usual gift to New Mexico A Building Fund. We have planned another rummage sale for March.

All dues have been collected, we have contributed to Settlement School Fund, Holt House, Emma Harper Turner Fund, paid $1.00 per capita to the Centennial Celebration Fund, and paid all national dues. Jo McRae Boswell, won the Womens State Golf Championship Tournament in Socorro, N.M. This is the fifth time she has won this honor. Linda Neal McDonald, is modeling for Pi Beta Phi, in the Panhellenic Style Show. Proceeds from this event go toward scholarships for worthy college students. Last year Pi Beta Phi were hostesses for the show and netted $416.

LILLIAN COLL

SAN ANTONIO

The San Antonio Alumnae Club had had a most successful year under the leadership of Frances Ferguson. The current officers were intalled in May. We did not have a summer rush party because Panhellenic made a new rule this year not to have summer rushing.

The first formal meeting of the year was in October at the home of Frances Ferguson—"dues and do-nut" meeting. Rushing was discussed and we were pleased to hear the report of the pledging of four girls at Texas A, four at Texas B and one girl at Missouri B.

In November the Alumnae Club honored the mothers of the nine pledges at a coffee in the home of Nita Allens. In January Mrs. Reginald Brack, province vice president, honored us with a visit. We had a luncheon meeting at the Argyle. It was a most enjoyable and informative visit. On February 28, a meeting was held at the home of Nino Osbourn at which time we had the election of officers. We closed this year with a Founders' Day luncheon in April and at this meeting the new officers were installed.

ELSIE MILLER

TYLER

The Tyler Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi, sends greetings and best wishes to all alumnae groups of the Fraternity. We have had an unusually gratifying year, under the able leadership of our gracious president, Mrs. G. C. Clark, Texas F.

Our first business meeting of the year was held in June, at the home of our president. Thirty members gathered to hear the report of the recommendations committee concerning rush, and to discuss the qualifications of the rushes.

Engraved silver card trays were presented to our pledges in September, bearing our alumnae club name and the pledge date.

Eight new members of the club were honored with a buffet luncheon at the home of Mrs. G. C. Clark, in November. Mrs. S. W. Brookshire, program chairman, presented an interesting program entitled "Behind the Iron Curtain," a tape recording by Princess Catherine Carodia of Rumania. This tape, as well as many others, on the dangers of Communism, may be obtained from the Tyler Freedom Forum for use at any time.

The annual holiday tea was given by the alumnae club, honoring the new pledges, Lynn Lasater, Ann Turner, Cecile Bergfeld, and Dale Palmer. This lovely affair was held at the home of Mrs. R. J. McMurray. Mothers of the pledges and actives were special guests at this festive occasion.

Our group traveled to Lake Tyler during March, for a Tasting Luncheon held at the lake home of Mrs. David Russell. Special recipes from each member were featured and the event was most delightful as well as "tasty."

Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon in April at the Woman's Building. Reports from the various club officers were given and all agreed that this year has been a most memorable one for the Tyler Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club.

SAMEERA HAMRA MASSAD

VICTORIA

Our second year started with receiving into our club Mrs. Howard Kacy, from Washington, D.C., which brought our membership to fourteen active members. The highpoint of our year was the visit of Mrs. Reginald Brack, our province vice president, on Valentine's Day. Due to our small size our activities are limited, however, we feel that time will solve this problem. We would love to hear from any other small clubs as to their activities.

MRS. RICHARD DUNN

WACO

Due to the recent organization of Waco Panhellenic Association, our only rushing was done at the rush forum in May this year, and the first meeting of the Waco Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club was held in August for recommendation purposes.

Our president, Martha Witt Seley, sent letters to all of the Pi Beta Phi alumnae in Waco inviting them to join our organization, and in November we had quite a large group for lunch at Ridgewood Country Club. We were proud to present our new active (Texas Δ) at T.C.U., Susan Harwell, at this time. It was also unanimously decided to contribute to the various Pi Beta Phi funds.

In February we were honored by a visit from our lovely new province vice president, Mrs. Reginald Brack, Sr., from Dallas. She met with us at a brunch meeting in the home of Mrs. Walter Dossett, Sr. She is a wonderful inspiration and gave our club a "shot in the arm" with her contagious enthusiasm.

Our Founders' Day meeting as always was on April 28. The new officers were installed and plans for the Panhellenic rush forum on May 10 were completed.

KATHLEEN CEARNAL BRIDGES

XI PROVINCE

BILLINGS

The Billings, Montana, Alumnae Club received their charter in January of this year and are very proud to be among the National Alumnae Clubs of Pi Beta Phi.

Our project last year was helping the Welfare Service at Christmas time. For two days we sort and group all the donated toys, and then for three days we help the people select toys for their children. It is a very gratifying and fulfilling experience and one that our alumnae club enjoys doing.

We prepared for our annual Founders' Day Dinner in April. This is always a sociable and fun evening. We have dinner and then the program committee presents us with some entertainment.

With our new charter, our club is looking forward to many interesting and active years to come.

MARILYN RYAN MAHONEY

BOZEMAN

The Bozeman Alumnae club began its year activities in September with a meeting at the home of our president, Mrs. Elva Cowan.

October was the cooky-shine for the new pledges, held at the chapter house. We were honored to have as our guest at this party Mrs. Cecil Bon, our province vice president.

We were also delighted to have our grand president, Mrs. Mansfield, pay us a visit this month, and we held a luncheon at the hotel in her honor.

The Settlement School tea this year was at the home of Mary Lou Field, and it was very successful. We also sell Settlement School items at a Mothers' Day luncheon held in May.

The December meeting was mostly concerned with business and plans for the coming month. Right before Christmas we had our annual Christmas party with the actives at the chapter house.

Margaret Post's home was where we held the January meeting. We made plans for the coming house corporation meeting to be held in February. Then Betty Wolcott had some interesting items to tell about her trip to Convention.

We will have our dinner honoring the seniors this year at the Riverside Country Club. Shortly after this we will have a visit from our province president, Mrs. Johnston.

April 23 is the day of our Founders' Day brunch, which is usually held at the Bozeman hotel, and enjoyed at both alumnae and actives alike.

We will close our year with a May meeting and installation of new officers.

ANITA SAUNDERS

CASPER

Isn't it interesting to note that all over the United States "sisters" are following the same basic plan and nurturing the principles of Pi Beta Phi.

The Casper, Wyoming Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, too, has done the usual things written up in the ARROW by the other clubs; such as Arrowcraft sale, magazine sales, Founders' Day luncheon, rushing activities, Panhellenic participation, travel film, Christmas party, card party and zone coffees.

But we feel especially fortunate to have one of our members, Gladys Phillips Bon, as the Xi Province Vice President and it has been interesting and inspiring to hear of her Pi Beta Phi adventures around her territory. As one member said, "her description of a typical day in the life of a province vice president left us all a bit breathless and very awed by her stamina." It was through her contagious enthusiasm that our donations to the worthwhile Pi Beta Phi funds were increased, that we gave a successful Arrowcraft sale, and that we are all looking forward to Convention time with its resultant greater knowledge and love of Pi Beta Phi.

We have discovered a painless way to make money. Tickets are sold to the Casper College play and for every dollar ticket sold we make 50¢. This adds up to an enjoyable cultural evening for our members as well as a monetary advantage for the club.

Casper is an enviable position of having many transfers to this oil Capital from other states and it has been stimulating meeting the newcomers to our alumnae club. If you are planning to head Casper way, we will be happy to roll out the red carpet for you, too. It adds a new zest to our club meetings to mingle the new with the old and know immediately we will be friends because we are "sisters."

Yes, this has been a good year for the Casper, Wyoming Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Amy Harris Garbrecht.

JANE BON SWANTON

CHEYENNE

Florence Shillock Brookover guided the Cheyenne Alumnae club through another successful year, which began with the regular fall rush meeting that drew many alumnae and actives together. Martha Rogers and Adele Heink, the daughters of Iomilla McCleneghan Rogers and Adele Alford Heink were among the pledges of Wyoming A. They were initiated in February. In October the club was privileged to have a visit from the province vice president, Gladys Phillips Bon, who spoke on the development of Settlement School and the general progress of the Fraternity. A very successful Settlement School Open House Tea was held in November at Florence Brookover's home, with the first guest arriving at 10:00 A.M. and the last leaving at 9:00 P.M. Adele Alford Heink was chairman for this event. The highlight of the December meeting was a candy making demonstration that featured the art of hand dipped chocolates, recipes, and delicious samples from the demonstration.

January breezes and slight traces of precipitation prevented a formal meeting to begin 1962, but, undaunted, the Arrow Ball committee, headed by Lynn White Applegate, forged on with its plans and succeeded in making the evening of February 24 one of Cheyenne's outstanding social events. The Coach Room of the Hitching Post was the scene of the gala affair which was attended by 170 alumnae, actives, pledges and their guests. The unusual decorations consisted of sparkling miniature cupid atop gold and white topiaries that centered each table.

The Mothers' Club was entertained in March with a special program from the East High School speech department directed by Marian McAllister Milstead.

The Founders' Day celebration served a dual purpose because the club not only recalled the original members of Pi Beta Phi, but also honored the founders of this club through a delightful thirty four year progress report cleverly written by Meda Carley Walke and presented by Katherine Symons Halverson.

The year's activities were concluded at the annual Cooky-shine with the installation of officers.

JOSEPHINE SAVORY LYNCH

COLORADO SPRINGS

"Get-together" a most appropriate theme following summer vacation launched our Colorado Springs Alumnae Club into another successful year. Successful because of our many new members; our pleasure in meeting Mrs. Cecil Bon, province vice president; and hearing her very inspirational talk; meeting and entertaining the actives, pledges and their mothers at a Christmas coffee and knowing our gifts to a home for the aged were deeply appreciated. It was a profitable year for us in that our silent auction, personalized post card and recipe sales added a nice sum to our treasury.

We are, of course, proud of all our members but this year special recognition must go to Herron Chaffee Folk, president, and Laurenda Thompson Bunker, past president. Hats off to Herron for her many efforts particularly the wonderful planning of Founders' Day celebration at Ent Officers Club; and to Laurenda who served as chairman of the Women's Division of the United Fund Campaign and through her able leadership the quota was exceeded. Recently a local organization named Mrs. Bunker "Woman-of-the-Year."

Our many thanks to Bay Crouch, Marie Ofutt, Joyce Johnson, Nancy Hereford, Herron Folk and Mela Carraway for entertaining us so graciously in their homes this past year. It is this informal atmosphere that has proved our alumnae club to be most friendly and enthusiastic.

MARIGRACE O'BRIEN FREYSLAG

DENVER SENIOR

The Denver Alumnae Club (Senior Group) has had an interesting and successful year under the leadership of our efficient President, Charlene Damron. The September luncheon meeting was held at the newly remodeled and enlarged chapter house. Gifts for the house were brought and a tour of the new house followed the luncheon. Also rushing reports were given from the three Colorado chapters.

In October area meetings were held in the form of morning "coffees" on the regular meeting day. We held our "House Tour" and Settlement School tea and sale. Four beautiful homes were visited and the sale was most successful. Also in October our annual Bridge Marathon got off to a flying start.

The November meeting was a morning "coffee" at one of our larger homes followed by travel pictures shown by Mrs. Lolita Prouty. Our guest of honor was Mrs. Cecil Bon, our province vice president, with whom the board members later met for a luncheon at the Cherry Hills Country Club, after which a joint meeting of the executive officers of the Senior and Junior groups was held.

Again in December area meetings were held. A joint supper meeting of the Senior and Junior groups was held in February. Business was kept to a minimum and a skit was presented by the actives.

A dessert luncheon, hosted by the board member, at the chapter house constituted our March meeting. Election of officers was held followed by a showing of fur styles. March 20 was the date of the annual luncheon and style show which is always fun and a great success financially.

Founders' Day was celebrated on April 28 with a luncheon at the Columbine Country Club.

Our splendid year came to a close with our annual "swap sandwich" luncheon at one of our homes followed by installation of the new officers.

WEILA BELL PATCH

DENVER JUNIOR

The Junior Alumnae Club of Denver has had a busy fun filled year. Ably led by our president, Betty Lou Bradley, we have been involved in many worthwhile projects. September 1961 brought us together for the first meeting of the year with a Get Acquainted Night at the newly remodeled Pi Beta Phi house at Denver University. Many new members were welcomed at this meeting as we hoped they would continue to come throughout the year.

Meetings to follow were filled with informal fashion shows with an eye toward making us well dressed Pi Beta Phis, and even a fashion show displaying children's clothing for those "future Pi Beta Phis." In November, we were entertained with a very informative talk on floral arranging. This year found us enjoying a joint meeting with the Denver Senior Alumnae Club. A delicious spaghetti dinner was held this night. Interesting speakers at other meetings ranged from those on gourmet cooking to a highly informative talk on the Berlin Crisis.

Throughout the year we were active in several projects, the principal one being our House Tour and Settlement School Tea. This was a highly successful project both from the standpoint of the monetary value and from the fellowship and fun achieved by working together. This year we also held a bridge marathon which was most rewarding as it gave us an excellent opportunity to become closer friends.

All in all, 1961-62 has been a most rewarding year for our alumnae club. We have enjoyed the companionship and togetherness that being alums affords.

BARBARA JONES DAY

FORT COLLINS

The Fort Collins Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi honored two of its original members who are now fifty year members of Pi Beta Phi.

The occasion was a one o'clock luncheon held in the chapter house of Colorado F. These members are:

Norma Nye (Mrs. A. L.) whose maiden name was Norma L. Chase.

Lois Auld (Mrs. Matthew) whose maiden name was Lois Silcott.

The Fort Collins Alumnae Club entertained with a Brunch honoring the new members of Colorado F. Among the new members was Tia Hickman, who is a fourth generation Pi Beta Phi.

We closed our regular meetings this year with the celebration of Founders' Day in April.

MARY LANE

PUEBLO

Public Alumnae Club was very pleased to start the year off with a visit from Mrs. Cecil Bon, our province vice president. A luncheon was held in her honor, and Mrs. Bon gave an interesting talk on Settlement School and the main Pi Beta Phi projects. This talk was very enlightening, and a great benefit to us.

We had a busy time during the Christmas holidays. First, we held our annual luncheon for the local actives and pledges at the Pueblo Country Club. It was a festive and gay afternoon, and we enjoyed being with the college girls and learning of their activities and plans. Secondly, we provided a family of nine with Christmas presents. We gave clothing, toys, games and a lovely Christmas tree so this family could enjoy the season. This was our main project this year, and the club felt great satisfaction in being able to help others.

In February we treated our husbands and dates to a fun afternoon and evening at a near by Dude Ranch, The Don K Ranch. This was our annual snow party, but due to the absence of snow, the couples were content to play bridge, sing songs, or just "talk." We ended the day with a delicious steak dinner.

The club tried something new this year, which was so delightful we will do it again next year. We held a "Greek Coffee" and each member invited a guest from another sorority. Ideas were exchanged, and the friendship which we received from this gathering was an inspiration to all of us.

For the third year in a row at our Founders' Day Luncheon, we honored a fifty year member. Our seventh Golden Arrow member is Mrs. Charles W. Streamer, Sr., who was initiated into Colorado A, February 9, 1912 as Mary Elizabeth Robertson. We are very proud of our "Golden Arrow Pi Beta Phi's" and they are a great asset to our club.

The club has enjoyed a wonderful year under the able leadership of our President, Frances Allison Weaver. Plans are already in the making for our goals and aspirations for next year.

DORALIE FLUTCHER MILLER

OMICRON PROVINCE

BELLEVUE

The Bellevue Alumnae Club opened the year in October at the home of Margaret Barton Ressa. The meeting, traditionally a buffet luncheon, was called to order by Barbara Meston Stuart, president. The year's activities were outlined briefly and plans for an Eastside Scholarship Fund to be available to outstanding University of Washington Pi Beta Phi Actives were initiated. In following months, this fund was established and the name of the girl to receive this scholarship was to be announced at the Founders' Day banquet in April.

In November, the group met at the home of Jane Collins Temple on Mercer Island. Members all enjoyed a very interesting and educational demonstration of various methods of making Christmas bows. After exchanging Christmas cookies and candies and their recipes, everyone left a bit more anxious for the Christmas season to arrive.

In January, the month when so many people leave winter behind and travel to other parts of the world, those alumnae from the Eastside were treated to colored slides obtained during the travels of Cozette Henry Miller and Sally Bergen Jarvis.

The beautiful Beaux Arts home of Helen Gilkey Kamphenborg was the site of the February meeting, after which members enjoyed a very fascinating book review and exchange.

All Seattle area alumnae joined together with actives from the University of Washington to celebrate Founders' Day in April.

A guest luncheon was held in May at the Overlake Country Club. Japanese flower arrangements were demonstrated and given as door prizes.

The calendar year of Bellevue Alumnae Club activities was closed in June with a very festive dinner dance for wives and husbands at the Sandpoint Naval Air Station.

PATTY O'NEAL CHRISTY

BOISE

The Alumnae Club of Boise, Idaho began the year with a potluck dinner.

Highlight of our year was the lovely Christmas luncheon at which Pi Beta Phi actives from Boise and surrounding communities were entertained. At the close of the luncheon the actives sang many Pi Beta Phi songs. Some were dear old favorites and several were very catchy, clever new ones.

We held a rummage sale in October to raise funds for our club. To add to the fund, members gather one morning each month for a bridge game at which each player contributes fifty cents. One evening each month Pi Beta Phi's and husbands gather for the same purpose. The bridge games have now been played for several months and are proving to be not only a successful means of raising money for the club, but also many pleasant gatherings.

Pi Beta Phi participated in a delicious tasting luncheon sponsored by the Panhellenic to raise money for the scholarship fund. Many Pi Beta Phi recipes were represented by exciting and original dishes.

Members have also been active in the Panhellenic Bowling League and looked forward to the tournament in the spring.

We have experienced a very good and active year under the leadership of our President Virginia Johns Lind.

RUTH B. BRINKLEY

CALGARY

Lively and varied programs inspired by Program Convenor, Marilyn Diamond Miller, have kept attendance at an all time high this year. In September, the Calgary Alumnae welcomed Mrs. Leslie Stilson, our province vice president, who brought us news of Pi Beta Phi elsewhere in Omicron province. The club president, Mary Wilson Phibbs, exhibited paintings from the Allied Arts Centre and explained the unique art rental program available in Calgary.

A lecture on hypnosis fascinated members in October followed the next month by an evening of Irish poetry read by Dr. Irial Gogan. The executive played hostess at the Christmas party. Our annual white elephant auction resulted as usual in an hour's merriment and fifty dollars profit.

January found us discussing the world of high fashion with a Canadian designer, Madame Marie-Christine. Frigid February seemed temporarily warmer after seeing slides of Burma, but relief was short lived when the mercury dropped to thirty below before our March meeting! Then, appropriately enough, we had financial advice, not on income tax but rather on investing excess money! Our spring telephone bridge tournament was worthwhile money making venture.

For Founders' Day Robin Williams Harvie invited the club to use her lovely Glenbow ranch home for a pot luck dinner. We were privileged to see the Holt House and Settlement School slides on this occasion.

LOIS BADGLEY LAYCRAFT

COOS COUNTY

The fall meeting of the Coos County Alumnae Club was held at the Coquille home of Maxine Mauney. Because of a nice total in our bank account at the end of the previous year the group had contacted the active chapters in the state for a worthy scholarship candidate. The committee decided upon Linda Ann Dumas to be the recipient of our $100 scholarship which was awarded the beginning of fall term 1961.

We were honored by a visit from our charming province vice president, Alice Turner Stilson of Spokane, Washington. Our one regret was that more were not able to meet with her.

Our Founders' Day was celebrated in Coos Bay with a pot luck dinner at Elinor Chandler's home. This was our club's first Founders' Day celebrated with our husbands as guests.

We are happy this year to add two new members to our group: Jackie Dashney Morton of Gaylor and Helen Callaghan Thom.

ALICE PEAPER JENKINS

EDMONTON

The Edmonton Alumnae Club undertook three successful money ventures. A rummage sale, a bridge and a sale of Christmas cards and novelties put our club in a good financial position.

Our members enjoyed a varied program at our meetings. The advisory board chairman, Irma Young, gave an interesting report on 1961 workshop. Another member, Marjorie Bowker, presented an informative and thought provoking evening discussing "The Challenge of Our Times." Walter Kaasa, Director of Recreational and Cultural Activities for the Province of Alberta, entertained us thoroughly with a variety of readings and mimes on another occasion. Two meetings were held at the fraternity house at which times we were joined by the actives and pledges. November heard us all join in a memory stirring sing song and January saw us joined by the members of the Mothers' Club for our yearly "Birthday Party." At this time gifts were presented to the active chapter.

We also assisted the actives—during rushing, pledging and initiation. Several alumnae hosted dessert parties made up of small groups of pledges, actives and alumnae. These are held in an effort for us all to meet and get to know one another.

Our president, Jean Ward, has led us through an interesting and successful year and we extend our most sincere thanks to her.

ARLENE JONES MELDRUM

EUGENE

The Eugene Alumnae Club met once a month from September to May, under the enthusiastic leadership of Jody Greer Stouff, President. Meetings were held in homes of members with dinner or dessert preceding the program and business. This has resulted in a very friendly, congenial alumnae group with 55 dues paid members! (We use metal trays with matching paper plates, serve a main dish with salad, rolls, and coffee. Later we pass finger desserts on large trays and more hot coffee. Members serve as hostesses only once a year and find this a most delightful way to spend a Pi Beta Phi evening.)

Our fund raising activities were directed by Susie Barrett, Prescott, Vice President. The Christmas Bazaar, from which we netted $40 for the Centennial Fund and the Benefit Bridge and auction sale, which added $26 to the City Panhellenic Scholarship Fund were both profitable and entertaining.

A highlight of the October meeting was a fashion show at which the pledges were introduced as they modeled campus fashions. Hope Hughes Pressman was hostess for a Board Luncheon honoring Mr. Leslie Stilson, province vice president. Her many choice ideas for a successful Settlement School Sale and Tea were welcomed by Billie Bartle Cabbage and Kay Macy Sogge.

Edna Prescott Davis, a most active and dedicated alumnae, whose efforts brought Pi Beta Phi to the University of Oregon campus in 1915, was the center of attention at an especially festive Chapter Birthday Party celebrating 47 years of Pi Beta Phi at the University of Oregon.

In November, slides of Settlement School and the beautiful Gatlinburg area illustrated an informative Pi Beta Phi Workshop report given by Alumnae Advisory Committee President, Billie Hammett Robertson and actives Linda Cook and Sue Burke who had many happy memories of their trip.

We elected new officers, enjoyed a foreign student, welcomed seniors as alumnae and brought this well rounded year to a close in May with the annual Founders' Day celebration and a much enjoyed cooky-shine.

SARA LEE KITCHENS SUTTLE

MEDFORD

The year for the Medford, Oregon Alumnae Club began with the installation of officers, President Pat Massinger, Vice President Janeen Johnson, Secretary Janeth Trowbridge and Treasurer Mary Lou Harvey, at the Founders' Day luncheon in the Rogue Valley Country Club. Spice was added to the meeting by a contest to identify our current members from unnamed college photographs.

Our summer highlight was swimming and patio dining the evening of August 8. At this meeting our special guests were the local actives who took part in our prerush business. It was also at this gathering we took the vote for sending an official delegate to the Rogue Valley Panhellenic which we have been instrumental in starting.

Came fall and our November meeting. We were entertained and enlightened by an exchange Fulbrighting teacher from Australia who showed slides and discussed life "down under."

Our group has served well in providing newcomers a contact with members of the community of longer standing. We are looking forward to our next year of successful association.

JANETH TROWBRIDGE

PORTLAND, OREGON

In September, the Portland Alumnae Club opened the Fall Season with a dessert at the home of Mrs. G. Martin Blakely. Many actives and alumnae were present. The October Cooky-shine was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Taylor. Mrs. Stillson, our province vice president, was present to give a most inspiring talk. A report also was made on rushing.

In November, the Settlement School Tea was held. This year it was held at the fashionable Portland Garden Club. This proved to be an excellent location, as the sales exceeded all other previous years. We tried a bake sale, in addition to the other merchandise, and found this added to our profit. Mrs. Lowell Paset, Jr., was in charge of the planning.

The Alumnae Club had a tea in November, honoring Mrs. Dorothy Morgan, Grand Vice President; our own Lu Ann Tuft, director of membership; and Rita Dunkin, province president. It was held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Titus. Even considering last minute changes, the tea was a huge success. Representatives of many sororities, Panhellenic members, actives from most Oregon schools and faculty dignitaries were present.

The December meeting was a Christmas party for all alumnae. For February, we had informal coffees at several homes throughout the city. A rummage sale, which is the big money raising project of the year, was in March. Much planning was done and it was most profitable. Founders' Day, this year, was a dinner planned by the Junior Alumnae club. The Junior Alumnae Club has worked hard this year, and have done much to help the Pilot School, which is a school for mentally retarded children.

DOROTHY J. WILLIAMS

SALEM

Fall rush at Willamette University launched the year's activities for the Nancy Black Wallace Alumnae Club. Many members assisted Oregon F in their efforts and aided in bringing the week to a very successful conclusion.

The club year began officially with the September business meeting. Delegates to the CPW-AAC Workshop guided an interested and envious membership on a pictorial tour of Gatlinburg and shared with us their knowledge gained at this memorable meeting.

In October, the club welcomed Mrs. Leslie Stilson, Omicron Province Vice President, at a luncheon at Salem's new and elegant Illahe Country Club. A week later, our husbands joined us for an evening of food and fun at a pot luck-bingo party at the home of Margaret Breitenstein Miller. The men and their money were soon parted, resulting in a tidy profit for the treasury.

The November Arrowcraft Sale and Tea was again held at the gracious home of Odell Savage Ohling. New items this year added interest and variety to the always popular affair. The devoted efforts of Odell and chairman, Clarice Busselle Anunson and of the entire membership were justly rewarded when receipts were totaled and a handsome profit announced.

Holt House was featured at the January meeting with slides and commentary renewing the interest and pride we have in our historic landmark.

One of the most notable social events was the March coffee honoring city actives. The charming hostess was Eugenia Brooks Smith, wife of the President of Willamette University, G. Herbert Smith.

Founders' Day was celebrated by actives and alumnae at the traditional banquet. A special program presented Irene Morley Brand, new Golden Arrow member, who delighted everyone with her tales of rushing and Fraternity life fifty years ago.

The year has been a busy and rewarding one under the tutelage of our president, Suzanne Huggins Ramey, and her efficient cabinet.

TEDDY CROLEY SKILLERN

SEATTLE

The Seattle Alumnae Club got off to a successful year after much summer planning by the executive board.

In October we joined with the chapter in giving a tea in honor of Mrs. Kent R. Morgan, Grand Vice President of Pi Beta Phi, and Mrs. Bradley T. Jones, President of Seattle Panhellenic.

Our new president, Aileen Welgan, conducted our first meeting in November. The new pledges entertained us with a fashion show.

Thanks to Peg Tennant and Grace Ballinger a successful Settlement School Sale and luncheon took place November 15 at the home of Ruth Williams.

We were honored in December by the visit of our Omicron Province Vice President, Mrs. Leslie Stilson. A delightful luncheon was held at the Harbor Club in honor of the occasion.

A city wide bridge tournament was our money making project for the year and was carried out most enthusiastically.

During the year several area groups have been meeting for lunch, bridge and talk.

At the last meeting of the executive board it was decided to furnish cookies and apples to the actives during exam week at the end of winter quarter.

Our annual election of officers was held at the March meeting in the home of Jean Sweet. At this meeting Cosette Miller, a Pi Beta Phi, gave a pictorial talk of her trip around the world.

Also, we joined with the actives and the Bellevue Alumnae Club to celebrate Founders' Day at the Seattle Tennis Club. Once again Jeffra Swanson offered her lovely home and pool for the Senior Picnic May 26. Gifts were given to graduates as they are welcomed into the Alumnae Club.

MARTHA W. MORRISON

SPOKANE

In September, the Spokane Alumnae Club began a busy year with a swimming party and dinner meeting at the home of Sue Fry George. The board members, headed by the president, Carole Cooke Jones, assisted the hostess. That same month, a two day rummage sale under the direction of Faith Johnston Boulac and Carol Nelson Schacht was a financial success and strengthened the treasury.

The October meeting was held at the home of Peggy Melzer Hasstedt where a member of the Freedom Fighters spoke on communism. Later that month we were all inspired by Dorothy Weaver Morgan at a coffee hour at the home of Alice Turner Stilson, Omicron Province Vice President. We learned more about Civil Defense at the November meeting at the home of Maurine Martin McLaughlin.

During the Christmas holidays a drop in luncheon was enjoyed at the home of Peggy Vorous Gale. This year the guests were the actives and their mothers as well as mothers of the alumnae.

The chief probation officer of Juvenile Court spoke to us about Juvenile Delinquency at the January meeting at June Anderson VanLeuven's home. Loyalty Day luncheon, planned by Dorothy White Byrne and Peggy Melzer Hasstedt took place in February. In March, our meeting was held in the new home of Marian Folger Salt. An informative and interesting talk about the Seattle World's Fair was appropriate at this time.

A tasting luncheon and Settlement School sale at the lovely home of Joan Hansen Degerstrom occurred in April. The big job of planning the luncheon was capably handled by Ann Marie Ayres King and Marilyn Brumblay Stocker. Jeanne Jones Holter was chairman of the Arrowcraft sale.

The year's activities ended at the home of Marjorie Richardson Sherwin with a picnic dinner and meeting.

FAITH JOHNSTON BOULAC

TACOMA

September marked the opening meeting of the Inez Smith Soule Alumnae Club under the wonderful leadership of Dodie Ramsey Mathews. Our traditional pot luck supper was enjoyed by all at the home of Bev Goodwin where those that wished could swim in her lovely heated pool.

In October we enjoyed hearing a highschool exchange student, Sue Phillips, who had studied in Germany the past year. Her slides of the city and of her German school made her talk even more enlightening.

Our Settlement School sale was held in the beautiful home of Dorothy Fewell. In December we extended our Settlement School sale by participating in the Δ Γ Coffee Klatch which was very successful and netted us $165 in two hours. In February we also added to our treasury by a rummage sale.

We entertained the active chapter of the University of Puget Sound at their new Student Union Building for our annual Founders' Day Banquet. It was most enjoyable to be with the girls in their own school. May brought with it our installation of officers in preparation for the year to come.

We wound up the year with a fun swimming party and dinner for all of the alumnae and also all of the actives from Tacoma who were home for their summer vacation.

MARY JANE HARRISON FELKER

WALLA WALLA

The outstanding event of the year for the Walla Walla Alumnae

Club members was the visit to the club on September 28 of Omicron Province Vice President, Mrs. Leslie A. Stilson of Spokane. She met with the executive board for a conference and coffee hour at the apartment of Mrs. Ward Gardner, and at a luncheon at the Walla Walla Country Club, members from Dayton, Walla Walla, Waitsburg, and Lewiston, Idaho, met to honor Mrs. Stilson and to hear her discuss the various sorority projects. Mrs. Mike Reser was in charge of arrangements for the occasion.

In April of 1961 we observed Founders' Day with a luncheon at the country club. Several Pi Beta Phi's from the Tri-City area attended. Mrs. Jack Schell and Mrs. Fred Sherry were co-chairmen for the affair. As part of the beautiful table decor silver blue candles in silver candelabra represented the Founders of Pi Beta Phi. For several years we have enjoyed reciprocity gatherings on Founders' Day with members from the Tri-City area.

Four additional meetings have been held, at one of which recommendations for rushing were considered. At a dessert meeting at the home of Mrs. E. W. Copeland in February, Mrs. Tom Copeland presented a dramatic motion picture showing of "Operation Abolition" which sets forth incidents in connection with the communist inspired riots at City Hall, San Francisco, May 1960, against the House Un-American Committee hearings.

Contributions have been made to the Settlement School, Holt House, the Centennial Fund, and to the Emma Harper Turner Fund. Mrs. C. F. Martinsen from Washington I has been added to our group this year.

Mrs. Don Taylor is president for the current year.

JUANITA FREY LUDWIG

WENATCHEE

Under the able leadership of our president, Ella Mae McBride Crowl, the Wenatchee Alumnae Club has had a very enjoyable year.

The opening event in August was at the home of Betty Perkins for the purpose of discussing the rushing rules, and making recommendations to the active chapters. The Wenatchee Alumnae are very happy over the outcome of rushing this year. At Washington State University we pledged Ann Nicholson, the daughter of Becky Allen Nicholson, Sue Kienitz, the sister of Beverly Kienitz Linville, and Carmen Snitely.

In October, a dinner was held at the home of president Ella Mae in honor of Omicron Province Vice President Alice Turner Stilson. She told us that it may be possible to hold the 1964 Convention in the Pacific Northwest. We hope that the decision will be in favor of it.

On January 3, a luncheon was held at the home of Jean Wheeler in honor of our new pledges and their mothers. A picture of the pledges was taken and appeared in our daily newspaper.

In March we attended the annual Panhellenic dinner, where Pi Beta Phi usually has the largest number present. The chapter also helped at the annual Panhellenic tea for seniors going to college.

The year was closed with our Founders' Day dinner, held as usual at the home of Wardine Jessup Fenton.

GRACE WIESTER

YAKIMA

The Fannie Whitenack Libbey Alumnae Club began another memorable year with a lovely buffet dinner at the home of president, Elise Cunningham. The members enjoyed the privilege of entertaining Mrs. Alice Stilson, Omicron Province Vice President. We had an enlightening discussion of Gatlinburg and the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

The November meeting afforded an opportunity for members to hear the latest civil defense information from our local director.

The December luncheon at the Country Club for actives and pledges, home for the holidays, gave alumnae members the opportunity of hearing news of college activities first hand. It is rewarding to see the interest about the club that the actives show. Most know little or nothing about our clubs. This is a part of Pi Beta Phi that they are happy to find really exists.

We all looked forward to our Founders' Day celebration in April. With the theme "Come As Dressed In College" it promised to be a highlight. The annual June picnic starts off the summer season to carry us through a busy and productive 1962-1963.

SHERRY HOPKINS SMITH

PI NORTH PROVINCE

ANTELOPE VALLEY

The Antelope Valley Alumnae Club began the 1961-1962 season under the able leadership of Merica Edwards. Two of our active members, Betty Porter and May Rogan, have moved to other cities, but we were happy to welcome Lee Kidd Anson to our group in September.

Our programs this year have been interesting and varied. The highlight of our year was a visit in November of our province vice president, Mrs. Jessie Hamilton. We all enjoyed meeting and talking with her at a luncheon. Mrs. Hamilton gave us much encouragement.

In May we held our installation of officers, and concluded the year's activities with our annual pot luck luncheon at the home of Shirley Brevidoro.

JEAN BJERKE PEDERSON

BERKELEY

The Berkeley Alumnae Club held its first fall meeting at the home of Margaret Walker Horning. Preceding the meeting a lovely luncheon was enjoyed. Province vice president, Jessie Moer Hamilton, was guest speaker. Jane Rader, alumnae club vice president, presented Irene Spears, California B housemother, as a newly initiated member of Pi Beta Phi. Shirley Long Riss presented an interesting talk about Convention.

In November the Settlement School Tea was held in a private home, for the first time. The Piedmont home of Eleanor Penfield Angwin was used for this event and the tea was well attended by both members and guests.

The pledges were entertained in December, at the home of Betty Lathrop. Following dessert and coffee, a tour of the Lathrop's interesting new home was enjoyed by members and pledges.

The February luncheon business meeting was held at the home of Peggy MacAlpine Allen. Irma Riley gave a brief history of Pi Beta Phi and the slate for the coming year was presented. Also, this month the traditional banquet for new initiates of California B of Pi Beta Phi was held at the Claremont Hotel. Two annual club scholarship cups were presented; one to an upper classman and one to an initiate.

Founders' Day luncheon, in April, was hosted this year by the San Francisco Alumnae Club at the Fairmont Hotel.

May found the members busily engaged with plans for a major fund raising event. Bridge luncheons were held in the homes of Margaret Walker Horning and Eleanor Penfield Angwin. This event was very successful financially and gratifying to those members who had participated in the planning.

MARGARET BOLLMAN WEST

CONTRA COSTA

The Contra Costa Alumnae Club opened its program in September under the leadership of Alice Victor Buis. Heading the various activities for the year was the annual dessert bridge party held in conjunction with the Arrowcraft sale. Various desserts, made by members, were enjoyed at the poolside garden home of Amy Burlingame Davies. Highlight of the afternoon was an excellent art tour of her home which was decorated with treasures from extensive travels in Arabia and Europe. The Arrowcraft sale was beautifully displayed and timed perfectly for pre-Christmas selections. The club netted $167.

October proved to be another exciting gathering as Jessie Moer Hamilton, province vice president, attended the club meeting to relate other alumnae news, both national and local. She was an inspiration for all and the meeting provided a grand opportunity for members from this suburban area to reunite.

A very interesting film of Summer Craft Workshop was shown in November and in December a jolly White Elephant sale was conducted. Another affair, repeated by popular demand, was the pot luck supper in January for members and husbands. The menus were so delicious that a recipe tasting party was conducted in February so members could sample such delicacies as exotic casseroles and desserts. Those attending could obtain their choice of recipes after contributing to our Settlement School fund.

Contra Costa has a large percentage of newcomers to the area. With this in mind, each year a meeting is devoted to those who have color slides of their various travels. Members celebrated Founders' Day with a cooky-shine and pot luck dinner in April, and in May enjoyed films of Holt House. In June we ended our official activities with a swimming party.

CATHERINE CAMPBELL RASMUSSEN

LAS VEGAS

A highlight of our year was when our two golden Pi Beta Phi met for the first time, Martha Stanley Crellin, 86, Iowa B, and Gertrude Bayless Mills, 83, Missouri A (Charter) have become, because of the wine and blue, close friends. This has been a warm inspiration to each of us.

Our current activities have included a lovely visit at a pot luck supper from our province vice president, Pete Hamilton. Later we entertained the K K P alumnae at an afternoon luncheon and card party. Our Christmas dinner with husbands included the K A O's as guests.

Juneve Key Damas was elected "Clubwoman of the Year" by the Las Vegas Panhellenic group. Amy Stambough was initiated into A Δ K, an international teachers' honorary. She is now the president of the Nevada State Education Association. Peggy Perkins Casey and family have hosted an exchange student from Singapore.

ELIZABETH MCCOLLUM SMITH

MARIN COUNTY

Marin County Alumnae Club has had a very interesting and rewarding year under the enthusiastic leadership of our charming president, Jane Newton Perry.

The summer interlude featured a Pi Beta Phi family picnic on Angel Island, cleverly planned by past president, Marilyn Morse Stuart. Everyone enjoyed the day, especially the trip to and from the Island on the Stuart cruiser.

In August, Marin county actives were our guests at the annual Panhellenic out door luncheon at the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Our calendar year opened with a pool side luncheon in September at the home of Helen Brown Hagens, where new members were welcomed, and plans for the year were discussed.

The October cooky-shine at the lovely home of Carolyn Huber Quinn, was highlighted by the presence of our dear friend, province vice president, Jessie Moeur Hamilton, who gave us an inspiring talk.

We had a record year in the sale of Arrowcraft products. We again had an Arrowcraft booth at the annual Sunny Hills Grape Festival, the profits of which all went to the Home for Mentally Disturbed Children. The Settlement School tea was a tremendous success staged by Mary Gramer Von Kaesborg and Arlene Allen Anderson at the lovely lagoon home of Lillian York Kettenbach.

The Christmas dinner party with our husbands has become so popular that we held it at the Tiburon Peninsula Club, and were entertained by Betty Woodman Fagerstrom's husband and his "Good Time Washboard Three."

In January, we were guests of the Tri Delt Club for dessert and a color slide talk on landscaping. Our theater party in February, "The Gazebo," was very successful under the chairmanship of Betty Fagerstrom.

Election of officers was held at the home of Jane Matheson Michalak, Founders' Day luncheon and the installation of officers concluded a very successful year.

VIOLA BUCKLEY PETERSON

MONTEREY PENINSULA

The Monterey Peninsula Alumnae Club has had a pleasant and enjoyable year under the capable guidance of our President, Leona Gaul Doolittle. The first meeting of the fall was a lovely luncheon held at the home of Mary Govier Kennedy, in Pebble Beach, with June Danforth Downs, Isabelle Cluff Faw, and Elizabeth Anderson Foote assisting. We were especially fortunate to be able to have "Pete" Hamilton, our Pi North Province Vice President, with us for the meeting, and her valuable suggestions have been a big help all year.

On December 2 we held our Settlement School Sale and Tea at the Carmel High School. Although it was a very rainy day we had a large turn out and the Sale was a success, thanks to the hard work of all club members, and especially that of Settlement School Chairman, Patricia Kelley Troutman and Hospitality Chairman, Laura-Linda Wood Spillers.

Our Chapter Loyalty Day luncheon was held on January 27 at the home of Kathryn Dayton Aurner, Carmel, with Nina Craig, Mary Jane Grewello Erickson, and Beatrice Ann Elwell Whitworth co-hostesses. We each brought stamps and premiums to the meeting to be sent to California Z in Santa Barbara.

The March meeting was held on March 17, and was a dessert-luncheon at the home of Elizabeth Adams Brown. Laura-Linda Wood Spillers, Gretchen Spear Chatworthy, and Louise Price Wooden assisted. Elections were held, and an article read on the Constitution.

Our Founders were honored on April 28 with a luncheon held at one of the Monterey Peninsula's lovely resorts.

LORA BROWN WINN

PALO ALTO

First get together for the fall season was our traditional swimming and bring your own sandwich party held at the Menlo Park home of Mrs. Kenneth M. Ackles. Our president, who was elected the preceding spring, Mrs. Don B. Wagener, was forced to resign because of illness, and her place was taken by Mrs. George Boyd, who has served very ably during the entire year.

A meeting was arranged for the visit with our province vice president, Mrs. James M. Hamilton of Sacramento, at the Atherton home of Mrs. A. P. Montgomery.

Our Settlement School Tea was a well attended affair this year chaired by Mrs. Gordon Pipe and given at the Atherton home of Mrs. Bethune Ireland.

November 14 found a representative group attending the area Panhellenic luncheon held this year at the Caravan Hotel in Los Altos. Mrs. Thomas E. Haven was in charge of arrangements and an interesting talk on the subject of Handwriting Analysis was featured.

Our annual Christmas wrapping party for elderly patients at Agnews State Hospital was held this year at the Stanford campus home of Mrs. John Almack. Candies, cookies and Christmas cards are brought by the alumnae members.

In February members and husbands gathered for cocktails at the Atherton home of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Argall and then went on for dinner dancing at the Pioneer in Woodside. The Twist was very much in evidence, and performed most ably by parents of teenagers.

In March a pot luck supper and election of officers meeting took place at the home of Mrs. John W. Cox, Jr., in Los Altos.

April 27 found us at the newly finished Palo Alto Hills Golf and Country Club, where we joined for luncheon and bridge the nearby alumnae clubs of San Mateo and San Jose. (Palo Alto club members include those residents in between, including the towns of Atherton, Menlo Park, Palo Alto, Los Altos and Sunnyvale.)

JANE WILSON COX

RENO

The highlight of last August's "Tahoe trek" to the home of Mrs. Jacquie Black was the distribution of this year's program and the announcement of its dedication to Katherine Riegelhuth, charter member of Nevada A, who in June of 1961 had the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters conferred upon her.

In September at the home of Mrs. Alice Lombardi we were taken on a tour of Settlement School by Mrs. Thelma Armbruster, who had attended the summer workshop.

The Roaring Twenties was the theme of the cooky-shine held in October at the chapter home where later that month we met for the annual homecoming luncheon.

In November we got off to an early start on preparations for the holidays with a program on making Christmas decorations at the home of Mrs. Harriet Uhalde.

An evening of fellowship was enjoyed by alumnae club and active chapter members at the Christmas party when entertainment was provided by both groups.

January's meeting at the home of Mrs. Jean Van Gorder brought to the group a most-welcomed visitor, Mrs. Jessie Hamilton, Pi Province Vice President. In addition to "Pete's" inspirational and witty remarks we were presented a sketch on the History Fashion by a local fashion expert.

Mothers and others were guests of the club at the February meeting which featured a fashion show with modeling done by members and their children.

In March enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Virginia Plath, we marveled at the talents of Howard and Jean Hickson, creative muralists.

Reno Alumnae Club again presented a $250 scholarship to a member of Nevada A at the Founders' Day Luncheon. Joan Ruark, a 1962 graduate, was last year's recipient of the award initiated in 1961 as a tribute to the members of Δ P Sorority which became Nevada A.

ELAINE ZEITLMANN ALTENBURG

SACRAMENTO

The Sacramento Alumnae Club had an active year under the able leadership of Jo Ann Benard Cox. We met for a swimming party and pot luck supper at the home of Kiefie McDuffee Breuer in September, with husbands as guests.

Our club had a very successful Settlement School Sale at the lovely home of Henrietta "Onyet" Geer. Margaret Betts and Donna Menkenmaier Becker and their committee made our sale and tea an outstanding affair.

Our December meeting at the home of Ruth Lagomarsino proved to be a big success, with Mrs. Maurice Cohen demonstrating many clever Christmas decorating ideas.

In February we celebrated the Silver Anniversary of our Alumnae Club with a luncheon honoring our twenty two first year Pi Beta Phi's of the Sacramento Alumnae Club.

Our own Jessie Moeur Hamilton, province vice president, opened her home for the March meeting. We had election of officers and a pot luck dinner.

Founders' Day this year was an outstanding affair, held in conjunction with other clubs from the surrounding area.

The club has continued its most worthwhile project of assistance at the Starr-King School for the handicapped. Under the chairmanship of Mitzi Dowse, workshop activities help teachers and therapists.

Our year came to a close with the installation of new officers at a meeting in the home of Marge Knowles Simpson.

We are looking forward to next year and know it will be as rewarding as this year has been.

JAYNE BALL FEHR

SALINAS

The year old Salinas club started its second year of activity under the guidance of newly elected Mary Fredericks Hoff in May of 1961. Four regular meetings were held throughout the year with an average attendance of twelve to fifteen members out of a maximum group of twenty.

Two of these meetings were held in a private room of a local restaurant "The Tee 'N Turf" and two took place in the homes of members Patty Fleming and Mary Hoff.

A most enjoyable gathering was the salad bar luncheon at the home of President Mary Hoff in honor of visiting officer Jessie Moeur Hamilton, who gave a great deal of help and information to the group concerning fraternity policies and problems and who also displayed a Settlement School kit which kindled interest in exploring these articles further. A small number of items was ordered and sold to the members of the club so that the contribution to the Settlement School could be made from the profits of this activity.

A fitting climax to a pleasant year of activity for the Salinas club was a joint luncheon meeting in April with the much larger Monterey club, held in honor of Founders' Day at the beautiful Corral de Tierra Country Club.

THELMA KEM MAHRT

SAN FRANCISCO

Our 1961-1962 year began with a dinner meeting at Cecile Opsahl's home. Mrs. Hamilton, our province vice president, was our guest and we were reimbursed with the national feeling for our Fraternity. A previous news letter sent to all Pi Beta Phi alumnae brought many recent graduates from distant chapters to this meeting. We have considered giving these newcomers a chance to know each other as one of our important functions.

Emily Plake was hostess for an oriental dinner meeting, at which a travelogue of far away lands was given with appropriate motion pictures.

The Christmas meeting was with Virginia Gibbons. Frances Feist gave a Christmas reading and carols were sung, led by the Junior Group.

A luncheon meeting was held at Marion Bevis's home and a talk, with slides shown on "Easy To Do Parties," was given by a local home economist.

A luncheon meeting at Fort Mason was primarily a business meeting to formalize plans for our rummage sale, which is a tremendous undertaking. The proceeds give us funds for our cash contribution to "Meals on Wheels." Last year we gave $1,000 to this project. We are co-sponsors with the San Francisco Medical Auxiliary and Dental Auxiliary in providing meals and the transportation there of to people who are unable to prepare their own food and would otherwise require additional hospital or institutional care. Our club has Monday as its special day.

We gave a substantial check to California B and sent $100 to California Z for their new house fund.

Founders' Day luncheon was an enjoyable affair in cooperation with the Berkeley Club and California B. We met in the new tower of the Fairmont Hotel. The active chapter was in charge of the program.

LURA MASSENGALE WILSON

SAN JOSE

Due to the fantastic rate of population growth in the Santa Clara valley during the past few years, more and more Pi Beta Phis from all parts of the United States have been moving into this area and have begun to attend the San Jose alumnae club's monthly meetings. The name "San Jose" is misleading as members attend from surrounding cities of Saratoga, Los Altos, Campbell, Cupertino, Santa Clara, Sunnyvale and Mountain View. In our 1961-1962 directory we have the names of nearly 70 Pi Beta Phis, running the gamut from several who hold a 50 year pin to very recent graduates.

Altho we do not have a local chapter at San Jose State College, we do send a delegate to their Panhellenic council and are participating in their big spring "bridge-dessert-fashion show" entitled: "18 Designs For Giving," there being 18 Panhellenic members with each having on display something representative of their own particular philanthropic project. Naturally, Pi Beta Phi will have no trouble in setting up an attractive display of Settlement School products.

Other highlights of the year include a Christmas party when we have a "goofy" gift exchange; an unplanned pot luck dinner where the menu is a surprise; and this year an old fashioned cooky-shine was arranged by the officers and surprised the members who arrived to find themselves seated on the floor. The last meeting of the year, held in June, is a dinner when husbands are also invited to attend and get acquainted.

JODY ADAMS

SAN MATEO

The San Mateo County Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Harold Strand, began another busy and successful year with a dessert for actives and alumnae in June.

The fall season opened with a barbecue and swim party at the lovely home of Mrs. Robert Ames. This event and the February dinner-dance at the Olympic Country Club were well attended by Pi Beta Phis and their husbands. Both events added a great deal of gaiety to the year, and were enthusiastically received.

During the year the club was proud to present an aquarium to the children's ward in the new wing of Mills Hospital. At Christmas, record albums were given to the children's wards of both Mills and Peninsula hospitals.

At our September meeting an interesting letter was read from our scholarship recipient, and in October the club was honored with the visit of Mrs. James Hamilton, our province vice president. Her report gave members a fresh insight into the local and national activities of the Fraternity. Settlement School articles were displayed and sold at two of our meetings and slides of Settlement School were shown in November.

The Christmas season was ushered in with a luncheon at Peninsula Country Club. Door prizes were made by members of our club. A model initiation ceremony was the highlight of the January meeting. It not only brought back fond memories, but was an inspiration to all. The February meeting was a cooky-shine, and in March a book review was heard.

The rummage sale in March was our big project of the year. A bridge tournament among Pi Beta Phis and their husbands is continuing and has grown into three groups. This, and a monthly daytime tournament, are excellent treasury builders as well as popular social functions.

The final event of the year was the Founders' Day luncheon held in April.

MARILYN GRIFFITH KOHLBY

SOLANO COUNTY

Four events highlighted the activities of our club during the past year.

April 29, 1961 we celebrated Founders' Day at a joint luncheon meeting with the Sacramento Club. Also present were active members from the University of Nevada. The hostess club staged a charming program at which fashions of the 19th century were modeled.

Lovely handicraft articles from Gatlinburg were the center of interest for members and their guests, at the successful Arrowcraft brunch held in December.

Mrs. James Hamilton, Vice President of Pi Province, was our guest for the evening at the Christmas Dinner Party held in the home of Mrs. Mildred Hodgden. At this affair, each member donates a gift to Santa Claus Consolidated, an organization to insure that needy children in Solano County will have a gift at Christmastime.

The traditional luncheon party was given in February in honor of Mrs. Clara Ripsom's 93rd birthday. This marks her 75th year as a member of Pi Beta Phi. Clara was overwhelmed at the birthday wishes she received from numerous alumnae clubs.

MRS. CLAUDE WILSON

STOCKTON

Under the enthusiastic and able leadership of our president, Mrs. Robert Bowe, the Stockton Area Alumnae Club has had a very enjoyable sixth year of Pi Beta Phi activities.

Again the Stockton group was invited to join in the Sacramento celebration of Founders' Day on May 6 which many of our members attended.

After summer vacation, the organization met in October for its annual fall luncheon at the Stockton Golf and Country Club. The highlight of the afternoon was a talk given by Mrs. James Hamilton telling us of the successful Convention and giving us ideas for projects for the year. We were delighted to have several new girls join our group at this time.

A farewell party was given for Mrs. John Adams, one of our very active members who was leaving for Fresno, in the home of Mrs. William Baltzer in November.

And in December members met for a Christmas Bridge party in the home of Mrs. Howard Lenz.

Instead of the usual Settlement School Tea, this year's plan was to have a Dessert-Bridge and a display of Settlement School items which may be ordered by members and their guests. It was to be held at the Oakmoore Club House in March; and from the interest shown, it was another successful event.

ALICE GOODWIN LENZ

VALLEY OF THE MOON

The September meeting, a delightful talk on "World Vagabonding" by Mariana Roeding Butler, set the pace for an interesting and valuable year here in the Valley of the Moon. Undoubtedly, the highlight of our year was in October when our province vice president, Jessie Moer Hamilton, visited us. We had a delightful and profitable exchange of information, after which we all enjoyed the beautiful display and sale of Arrowcraft.

In November, Mary Day created an informative discussion after her talk on the new chapters of Pi Beta Phi formed in the last decade. Another outstanding event was our January meeting when Ruth Mitchell Deeds presented the Initiation Ceremony. This was a most impressive service to us all, for, unfortunately, it has been too many years since most of us have witnessed it. Another auction of "white elephants" in February provided funds for the California Z Chapter House at Santa Barbara.

In March the members were treated to a first hand tour of the Near East by Virginia Grannis Morrison. In April Founders' Day was celebrated with a pot luck luncheon, and mothers of actives in the area were invited to attend and were presented with mothers' pins. With heartfelt thanks to President Katherine Hoppaugh Andrews and the other officers for a rich and rewarding year, we brought our May meeting and our year to a close with the always impressive installation of new officers.

Our special project this year was a $100 donation to The Paul B. Kelly Memorial Cardiopulmonary Institute in Santa Rosa, California. This memorial was established by our fellow member Lucile McKay Kelly in her late husband's name.

RUTH ECK

PI SOUTH PROVINCE

CENTINELA VALLEY

Under Dorothy Johnson's leadership the Centinela Valley group enjoyed an interesting year. Though small in number, 15 paid members, the group held all its scheduled meetings. The past, present and future of the club and its members was discussed at the September get together at the home of the president.

Making Christmas a little brighter for the elderly patients at Harbor General Hospital continued to be the philanthropic project. It was carried out at the November meeting by making 120 festive corsages, at a dessert in Katherine Walker's home. At the December luncheon, at the ocean view home of Betty Barnes, we brought gaily wrapped gifts to be delivered to the hospital.

January brought a luncheon at the Hyatt House. In February Helen MacBoyle hosted a brunch and detailed her trip to the Orient. The province vice president talked on fraternity matters at the March meeting at Willene Snyder's.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the South Bay Alumnae group. Final meeting of the year, installation of new officers, was held at the home of Barbara Armstrong.

Sale of wrapping paper and ribbon, along with cake sales were our money making activities.

JO ANNA BECK WENDEL

GLENDALE

This has been a very pleasant year for the Glendale Alumnae Club. Our meetings have been well attended, new members have been added, and our programs have been most interesting and varied. Our annual pot luck dinner in September was well attended, as usual, and a Handwriting Analyst provided a very amusing program for us. In October, Dorothy Payn Powell, a Golden Arrow member, talked to us about "Our Pi Beta Phi Heritage." We gave a Morning Coffee party and invited all Glendale actives who were home for Christmas. The annual Mother and Daughter party in February gave us a preview of the latest teenage fashions modeled by our daughters.

This year the Settlement School Tea was served inside. We set up our sale outside in a large patio. This seemed a good arrangement. However, as soon as the last guest departed we had to scramble frantically to protect our remaining merchandise from a sudden threatening storm.

We realized a good profit from a travelogue held in January. Rosalie and Marvin Sloan presented films of their travels around the world. Club members, their husbands, and friends made a large audience.

A talk on the dangers of communism the Founders' Day Luncheon, and installation of officers in May rounded out a very stimulating and successful year under the direction of our president, Vivian Bradley Knight.

JANE SWARTZ BAUGHMAN

LA CANADA

The La Canada Valley Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began an active and rewarding year with a husbands' and wives' dinner party at the home of Ann Harbordt.

In September we again assisted California F during rushing by collecting and arranging the flowers for their chapter house.

Various trading stamps were collected during the year for the benefit of Settlement School and California Z. In October we were proud to fulfill our pledge to California Z by sending a check to aid in their building program. Our members also gave over sixteen hundred hours of volunteer service to the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles.

In December the true spirit of Christmas came to each member as we wrapped dozens of packages for the Crippled Children for their Yuletide party.

In January, Ann Harbordt, the mother of one of our new sisters at the University of California at Santa Barbara, gave us an informative and interesting report on the conditions and needs of that chapter.

June Stansbury gave us her province vice president's report at the February meeting.

On April 28 Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena. The program, which was arranged by our own Kay Noble, was enjoyed by all.

The year closed in May with installation of officers and our annual cooky-shine.

JEANNE PEARCE NIELSON

LA JOLLA

The La Jolla Alumnae Club has had a very satisfactory year under the guidance of the president, Connie Geritz. Although a small club with a paid membership of twenty alumnae, several projects have been accomplished the past year.

The club meets once a month, from September through June, at the homes of the individual members for business and social meetings. During this year the club has assisted the San Diego Alumnae Club in selling articles from the Settlement School and have helped substantially in their meeting their quota. Bridge parties were held in several of the girls' homes to raise money toward the building fund for the Pi Beta Phi House at San Diego State College.

The entire meeting held the first of December was given over to making "Surprise Balls" for the trays for the children at Children's Hospital in San Diego. This spring the club is cooperating with the active chapter in providing articles for their Spring Rummage Sale in March to help raise money toward the new house fund.

In order to help promote a closer relationship between the active chapter and our alumnae club, we entertained the active chapter with dinner at the chapter house in April. It is our desire to have the club become better acquainted with the active group, and their problems. Additional monies were raised by having bridge parties at the homes of the different girls for members and their guests, this project being sponsored by the San Diego group.

MARION P. CAMERON

LONG BEACH

A delicious patio pot luck dinner launched the 1961-62 program into social orbit in September. Christmas cards and wrappings were displayed by Louise Frisbie Mangold for our first money raising project.

Settlement School Chairman, Mary Jones Wilson, and Program Chairman, Lee Craig Wright, surprised us with a Settlement School Quiz in October. New and favorite handicraft items were also displayed, which stimulated sales to an all time high. Many Pi Beta Phi relatives received wooden tops and colorful handbags for special occasions this year.

The November meeting featured Mr. John Weeks, acting director of the Long Beach Museum of Art, who discussed progress and problems of our local museum.

The Noritoke China Company paid 50¢ per person for women to view their china and to help select favorite patterns for future production. Inviting guests to look at lovely china was a nice, painless way to earn money, according to Judy Hampton Million, who was in charge of the project.

Nancy Knapp Werner played Santa Claus as head of our committee to collect and purchase clothing, toys, and food for the needy family of five we adopted in December.

A Talent Sale was held this year, with members contributing an item or service to be auctioned. Fancy aprons, special breads and cookies, and baby sitting services were popular items sold.

A Coffee for actives and pledges wound up the holiday season on a festive note.

We are very proud of Yvonne Neal Shaw, elected Woman of the Year in Norwalk, California, because of her many activities in civic organizations.

A bridge luncheon, the traditional cooky-shine, election and installation of officers, an impressive Founders' Day Luncheon with speaker June Stansbury, Pi South Province Vice President, and a June Couples' Party rounded out the year's activities.

While we relaxed, our most capable President, Mary Mackey Sainsbury, prepared for a highlight of the summer, Pi Beta Phi Convention.

WINIFRED ANDERSON SCHLIP

LOS ANGELES

Under the capable leadership of our president Pauline Berg Graves the Los Angeles Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi had a most successful and rewarding year. Pauline inaugurated a monthly newsletter to the alumnae which has created great interest and has brought back many members that have not participated for some time.

Mrs. Norman Chandler's home was the location of the first luncheon meeting this year. She showed models of the proposed Los Angeles Music Center which is to be erected at the Los Angeles Civic Center. Proceeds from the luncheon were contributed to the Los Angeles Music Center fund.

In November we participated in the Doll Fair at Marlborough School with our always popular fortune telling booths. This is a yearly fund raising project for the benefit of Children's Hospital.

Mr. Jose Norman was guest speaker at the November meeting. He reported on his recent escape from Cuba and Castro's regime.

Our December meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Frederick Richmond, with a special Christmas program of instructions on Christmas floral arrangements and Christmas decorations. Arrowcraft items enjoyed a brisk sale.

January took us to the recently rededicated U.S.C. chapter house where we were hostesses to the Professional Chapter and to the Junior Alumnae. Maxine Miller, author of "Bright Blue Beads," told of her unusual and interesting experiences while living in Iran.

In place of a February meeting the annual Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Benefit was held at Perinos, arranged by chairman Helen Jones. This fashionable restaurant and the generosity of I. Maginn, who presented the premier showing of designer Jean Louis' spring collection helped make our benefit for the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County a success.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena with all of Southern California alumnae groups as well as actives from the four Southern California Chapters.

The U.S.C. chapter house was the setting of our Mother-Daughter Brunch. This brunch is always popular with alumnae with daughters who enjoy getting the young ladies in one group and meeting the daughters of old friends.

Our June meeting with installation of new officers concluded another year for the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae of Los Angeles.

BETTY LAUGHLIN EDDY

PASADENA

The Pasadena Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi has had both an interesting and profitable year under the leadership of Helen Madden Russel, Oregon A. The programs for our meetings have been excellent and well planned by Ruth Latimer Day, Illinois B A. Many of you will remember Ruth as Convention Inaite in 1940 at the Huntington-Sheraton.

In November, Marjorie Donaldson, Pasadena City librarian, reviewed "Books for Christmas Giving." At our Christmas cooky-shine, Juniors and Seniors, it was "Stardust on the Holly" by Katherine Kester. Then in January Ethel Simpson entertained us with the history of "Laces and Shawls." In March, we honored Golden Arrow Members and were visited by June Phies Stansbury, Pi South Province Vice President. In April, we had a Greek Tea, at which each member of Pi Beta Phi brought as her guest a member of another sorority. At our June meeting

Mr. Durward Howes, one of Pasadena's leading jewelers, spoke on the "History of Jewels."

We have also had our programs as required by the Constitution. In September, Isabel Mulholland Cramer gave us a most interesting talk on the Centennial Fund, also there were reports on the Workshop held in Gatlinburg last summer. In October, we held a Settlement School Coffee and Sale, which was very successful. Founders' Day was celebrated with all the Alumnae and Active in the Los Angeles Area at the Huntington-Sheraton. Pi Beta Phis are very special people to every one at the Huntington.

Money making projects: in February it was a lovely dance at the beautiful Stuart Building, Kay Monson Hergenrather Iowa I, was the Chairman. The profits from the dance will go to the Jennie Nicol Memorial Clinic at the Settlement School.

GRACE POST

PASADENA JUNIOR

The Pasadena Junior Alumnae Club began the year with a regular business meeting. Ruth McIntosh presented an especially informative and timely program entitled "The United Nations Today."

At our October meeting Dorothy Huse gave an informal talk and demonstration about meat. As a home economist and a representative of the California Beef Growers Association, she was able to give us many helpful hints.

"Our United States Constitution" was the subject of a talk given at our November meeting. Mr. Malcolm Clement discussed some of the controversies and new interpretations of the constitution.

The December meeting was a Christmas Cooky-shine with the seniors. Katherine Kester presented "Stardust on the Holly."

Our annual dinner party honoring husbands and dates was held in January. We truly enjoyed being in the newly decorated home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Palmer.

In February, Miss Lietta Dowd delighted us with her program "Art is Everyone's Business." We all came away inspired to try some original art work for our homes.

Our March meeting found us at the interior design studio of Frank Ferris. His clever hints intrigued us and made us eager to try new ideas.

"Group Entertaining Made Easy" was the topic of our April program. Marianne Manners of the Los Angeles Times showed us how entertaining can be simple and enjoyable.

The May meeting featured the installation of officers and an evening of bridge and canasta.

Our year came to a close in June at a Bar-B-Q Party with husbands and dates. The event was an appropriate ending to a pleasant and successful year.

REGINA ANDREWS BURHENN

PHOENIX

The Phoenix Alumnae Club opened its year in September with a cooky-shine pot luck supper at the lovely home of Jane Turnquist Compton. Many new alumnae were welcomed into the group by the President Sue Kimball Cartmell. In October we sold tickets to the Phoenix Panhellenic sponsored play "Merry Go Round." Also in October Barbara Caine Bogle opened her home and guest house in Chandler for a joint meeting of the actives and pledges at the University of Arizona in Tucson and the Tucson Phoenix Alumnae. Many actives attended and it was grand to have them tell us of their activities and to have them sing songs for and with us.

Under the very able direction of Carol Laudin Lendrum, Koko Robison and Alice Breerton Pafford, Phoenix had their first Settlement School sale, Edna Earl Duncan and Margaret Dutton Hensing opened their homes for the occasion. The sale was a tremendous success and we plan to make it an annual affair. Some of the proceeds were given to the Arizona School for the Retarded.

During the Christmas holidays Betty G. Ryan had a coffee for the actives, pledges, their mothers and the alumnae in the Valley of the Sun." The turnout was excellent. The alumnae presented the active chapter at the U. of A. with 18 candlesticks at this time. Previously this year we had given them money to apply toward the purchase of doors in the new addition to the house in Tucson.

A dessert bridge was held in February at the home of Ann Singer Banes; Founders' Day dinner was held at the home of Barbara Best Connor, Margaret Robinet Bentley and Jan Threlkeld Moore also generously had meetings in their homes. The year closed in May with the annual Husbands' and Escorts' party at the home of Eleanor Talbot Kimball.

ANN SINGER BANES

REDLANDS

The Redlands Alumnae Club is completing its second year with a feeling of successfulness and looking forward to continued progress. At our September meeting we greeted two new Pi Beta Phis in the community and during the year have welcomed several more. In November we met in Mrs. David Rogers' beautiful home. She highlighted the evening with an informative and interesting talk on her summer's visit to the Settlement School. Then and there it was decided to have a Settlement School Tea each fall as the guests at our first one last year had been most enthusiastic about the School's articles.

Linda Rogers, daughter of Mrs. David Rogers, and an American Field Exchange Student made our March meeting most interesting by telling us of her visit to Pakistan last summer. Founders' Day was observed jointly with the San Bernardino and Riverside Alumnae Clubs with a luncheon at the Arrowhead Country Club. In May we planned a luncheon meeting at the Azure Hills Country Club to meet our new province president, Mrs. Kenneth Stansbury.

Pi Beta Phi again assisted with the Spring Panhellenic Tea for Redlands High School girls who are planning to register for rush.

Our year will close in June when our capable president the past two years, Mrs. Virginia Hudlow, opens her lovely home for our husband's party.

MARY QUEVENNE BERKSHIRE

RIVERSIDE

In the fall, the Riverside Alumnae Club started the year by planning and giving a large tea and Arrowcraft Sale. We included many beautiful homemade Christmas articles made by our Pi Beta Phi Alumnae during summer workshops. It was a huge success.

Our annual Mother-Daughter coffee for all active Pi Beta Phis from Riverside, alumnae and daughters was held December 28 at the home of Kay Harris. It was very festive, and fun to see all the college girls home for vacation.

When spring rolled around we continued work on choosing a worthy local philanthropy. Founders' Day was held in conjunction with the Redlands and San Bernardino Clubs. Our speaker was Mrs. George Moor, Jr., Scholarship Chairman from Costa Mesa.

We concluded the year in May with a gala husbands' and wives' Patio Party.

Our year was a success under the enthusiastic able leadership of Mary Brobsky Wadding.

NANCY PEARSALL MCCOY

SAN BERNARDINO

The San Bernardino Alumnae Club began a busy year with an October evening coffee-dessert hour and business meeting held at Rita York Thacker's home. Barbara Steinbeck Sayage, Rushing Recommendations Chairman, gave a comprehensive, informative talk on the new rules for recommendations, explained the forms to be filled in and submitted to active chapters; and reported on the party given by local Panhellenic for prospective Fall rushees. She urged us, as an alumnae group to work harder to get outstanding local girls pledged to Pi Beta Phi.

Eleanor Parsons Baylis, one of our members who recently had returned from a six months' trip to Europe, gave an interesting illustrated talk about Edinburgh festivals.

Once again we are very grateful to Rita York Thacker for her able leadership as president of our club for the second consecutive year.

We are planning ahead for several fund raising affairs for next Fall for both national and local philanthropies, the latter being a scholarship to some deserving high school senior girl. This year our club provided an award to finance graduation expenses of a senior girl at Pacific High School here. Beginning with next year, we plan to annually increase the amount and award it to a girl graduate from one of our other local high schools.

March brought nominations for the coming year. In April we joined with Redlands and Riverside in the celebration of Founders' Day, with San Bernardino Club as hostess.

The May meeting was devoted to installation of new officers and unfinished business of what for us had been an inspiring and enjoyable year.

RUTH KING MELLIN

SAN DIEGO

Under the capable leadership of June Crouch, the San Diego Alumnae Club has completed a successful and enjoyable year. Our first meeting in the fall, held in Imogene Hickman's lovely La Jolla home, brought old friends together and introduced us to many Pi Beta Phis new to San Diego.

Marian Turner, Settlement School Chairman, held a series of "area coffees" to interest members and friends of our community in buying the attractive items from Gatlinburg. At Christmas-time, Mary Jean Morell arranged our annual luncheon honoring out of town actives.

Our January meeting turned out to be one of our most delightful functions. Betsy Baker opened her beautiful Del Cerro home to the club, and assisted by Joan Reynolds and Eleanor Steddom, she modeled fur coats and stoles from a local furrier.

Reinette Waterman and Marie Gaby made February's meeting most interesting with a talk and slides on Pi Beta Phi history and Holt House. Also in February, Pi Beta Phis and their friends throughout the city participated in a series of bridge parties for the benefit of the San Diego State College Chapter Building Fund.

Our Founders' Day dinner was held jointly with our sister club in La Jolla. A very successful fund raising project is our annual bridge marathon, this year under the chairmanship of Colleen Alexander. We have found this activity to be an excellent way to become better acquainted.

PAULA TODD

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

The San Fernando Valley Club began its calendar of ten meetings in May under the leadership of June Plues Stansbury. Its single biggest effort was a Ways and Means poolside luncheon and fashion show given at the home of Merlene Austin White, with Barbara Brasmer Lascher as chairman. Settlement School articles were attractively displayed. The luncheon featured a variety of salads for which the recipes and amounts were predetermined. Approximately 200 persons were served and $475 was realized after expenses.

At a regular meeting, a presale of our very best rummage, especially children's clothes, was a money maker and was looked forward to by mothers in the club.

Volunteering assistance for the Crippled Children and Adults Society Center in the Valley was our local philanthropy. This work included assisting at day camp for one week in the summer, helping with their Sheltered Workshop Program and stuffing Easter Seal envelopes.

Monthly programs included viewing the film "Operation Abolition"; the new slides of Holt House; and a discussion about education conducted by teachers in our group, moderated by Elizabeth Johnson, former Centennial Fund Treasurer. Other programs featured fashions and fabrics by Corinne Smith Pyle, cake decorating, and hobbies of our members. At other meetings we honored new members, charter members, and held our traditional Cooky-shine potluck supper. Our annual Christmas party was especially festive this year and was highlighted by a talk from our world traveler, Fay Kear Minkins.

Strictly for fun members enjoyed a couples card party, a poolside supper and dancing party with a Civil War theme, and a dinner dance at a local country club.

We participated in the Valley Panhellenic fashion luncheon. Our year concluded with an inspiring Founders' Day Luncheon with eleven other clubs in the Southern California area at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena.

We were fortunate to have Pi Province South Vice President, Claire Bently Drake, visit with us in November shortly before her resignation. We feel doubly proud of our President who was asked to assume this important responsibility.

DARLEEN LAWSON TRUMBO

SANTA BARBARA

Another rewarding year has passed for the Santa Barbara Alumnae Club, again capably led by Barbara Gutierrez. Our efforts are still being directed toward the new UCSB chapter house, which, although completed since September, 1961, still needs some furnishing and landscaping.

Our first meeting in October was with the active chapter at the new house, which everyone was delighted to see and for which we again say "thank you" to all those who helped. The pledges presented one of their cleverly arranged skits for our entertainment.

In November, we met at Mildred Welo's hilltop house for a pot luck dinner and business meeting.

Julia Forbes again opened her lovely Montecito home for our annual Christmas party, at which we sang carols, exchanged gifts, and enjoyed a beautiful holiday refreshment table.

In January two representatives from a local modeling and charm school gave a most interesting and constructive talk and demonstration on charm and poise.

Our February meeting was a potluck luncheon held on a dark, rainy day around the cheerful fireplace at Clara Sipherd's house.

The capable management by Jo Basye insured the financial success of our rummage sale with very little effort on the part of any member. Each member priced her own rummage before setting up the day of the sale and worked only two or three hours selling during the three day sale. So successful was it that another sale is tentatively planned for later in the year.

Many guests joined us for an all-Pi Beta Phi spring fashion show held in March at the chapter house, with alumnae club and active members modeling, and presented by club member Berenice Giannetta, who showed the latest apparel from her Montecito dress shop. Spring flowers in profusion decorated the house and a sumptuous "dessert smorgasbord" (alumnae club members donated their prize desserts) drew "ohs and ahs" from everyone. This, too, was a simple and successful money-maker.

Our Founders' Day luncheon in April was held at the Mar Monte Hotel and our year closed with the installation of new officers in May.

MARJORIE FRANK BOYLE

SANTA MONICA AND WESTSIDE

Our "Just For Fun" luncheon in August was just what it implies, a fun get-together after summer vacations and before fall activities began.

Our first meeting on September 19 was devoted to reports of our Advisory Board Chairmen's and our province vice president's workshop experiences at Gatlinburg during the summer of 1961. Both were most interesting and informative.

We again assisted California, A with their Fall Rush Week.

In October we had our "Drop-In Luncheon" which had a two fold purpose: to display and promote the sale of our Settlement School items and as a fund raising project. The food (salads, sandwiches and desserts) was contributed by members and served buffet. There was a charge of $1.25 per person and guests were most welcome. We were very pleased with the success of this project.

In November our province vice president, who is also an interior decorator, presented a program on interior decoration.

For our Christmas Party we had a delightful musicale. In January the American Field Service sent two students to talk to us. One was a young man from Norway and the other was one of our own girls who had spent a summer in Greece. It was very stimulating to hear what they had to say.

In February, we enjoyed a travelogue, entitled "We Find No Strangers in the World" given by Rosalie and Marvin Sloan on their round the world by freighter trip. We invited our husbands, the Los Angeles, and the San Fernando Valley Alumnae Clubs to enjoy this program with us.

In March we elected officers for the coming year. Our program was a demonstration of flower arranging by one of our members.

In April Founders' Day took the place of our monthly meeting. Our Cooky-shine Supper in May concluded our year by honoring the A Chapter seniors and installing officers for the coming year.

SARA BOLLINGER

SOUTH COAST

One of South Coast Alumnae Club's claim to fame is that our Orange County is the fastest growing county in the United States. This is reflected in the spectacular attendance to our varied monthly luncheons and evening meetings.

Our efficient and young President, Bonnie Bernard, successfully coordinated the year's events with the assistance of an enthusiastic board. Lynn Newton, vice president and program chairman, captured everyone's attention with local as well as national celebrities. Sue Norman, TV director; Dora Hill, former Mayor of Newport Beach; Joan Irvine Burt, one of the forces behind the new University of California at Irvine; and nationally known nutritionist and author, Adelle Davis, all contributed to the success of our year in giving us "food for thought."

We are fortunate in enjoying three yearly traditions. The Summer Splash at Margaret Corkett's spacious bayfront home, Yule Punch Bowl and Buffet for our husbands and friends at Lucinda Burrows' lovely home, and the four monthly Book Reviews given by Mary Greer Scarborough at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club. The most attractive homes of Ci Barnard, Nancy Turner, Alice Frost, Ruth Kenison, Vera Silver, and Dorothy Duncan correlated the meetings in different cities of our large area. Monthly evening bridge groups brought closer ties between the younger members. Additional groups are planned for next years. Founders' Day honored our new province vice president, June Stansbury, and also provided the occasion for the installation of new officers.

Settlement School sales and philanthropies have grown as a result of our increased sales of Book Review tickets. Leona Egge innovated many clever, new ideas for the sale of Settlement School products. We are grateful and proud of our varied philanthropies in excess of $1000.

This year has been fruitful in covering a wide range of interests, accomplishments and pleasures for all members.

ROSALIE DAUS SLOAN

TUCSON

Under the energetic leadership of our president, Ruth Field Curry, the Tucson Pi Beta Phi Alumnae club this year boasted many members. In October we had a Mexican dinner as a salute to the new pledges. Our November meeting was a White Elephant Sale at the chapter house, in which both actives and alumnae joined, and which netted us $55 for our Elsie Holman Neal Pi Beta Phi Scholarship Fund, established last year in memory of one of our beloved Arizona Founders. Early in December we had a shoppers' lunch at the Skyroom downtown. Complete with fashion show, this meeting had a large, enthusiastic attendance. January, by common consent, was skipped on our calendar while all prepared for the February benefit bridge at the chapter house, the proceeds of which, $195, went to swell the scholarship fund. Altogether we have collected in a year's time almost $450 for this fund. Our April Founders' Day Banquet honored eight Golden Arrow members, while the May meeting, as usual, was in honor of seniors. This year we have been specially proud of our active chapter, their scholarship rating, high on the list, their four candidates elected to Who's Who in American Colleges, their sweepstakes float award in the Homecoming Parade, and the fact that one of their members was chosen Desert Queen. We were particularly grateful to the actives for acting as the chic models at the fashion show in conjunction with the benefit bridge party. All in all, Tucson alumnae have had a wonderful year, with president, officers and Mothers' Club cooperating in every department.

WHITTIER

The fall activities of the Whittier Alumnae Club started in October when we met to make plans for the Settlement School Tea. This year's Tea was held at the home of Alice Rosenberger. The cooperative efforts of all the members resulted in a very successful sale of Arrowcraft articles and homemade cookies. In November, we spent an enjoyable evening learning how to use flowers in interesting and unusual arrangements. The demonstration was given by a local florist.

During the Christmas season we got together for a lovely brunch. Under the direction of our able president, Pat Scheiffy, we spent the afternoon making 30 Santa Claus place mats out of red oil cloth. These mats were distributed to our Philanthropic Project, The Exceptional Children's Foundation. We also collected Christmas gift money which was used to purchase presents for two worthy high school girls.

January was a History and Constitution meeting held in the evening. In order to accommodate more of our members, we have continued to alternate between afternoon and evening meetings. A Work and Play party was on the agenda for February. We played bridge and worked on Tallies for the Whittier Panhellenic Association Bridge Benefit. Pi Beta Phi was the 1962 Chairman for this annual $1000 college scholarship fund raising project.

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. Pledge Day, February 19, 1962. INITIATED, February 25, 1962: Bonnie Adams, Brewer; Stephanie Barry, Bucksport; Amy Cook, Tenants Harbor; Daphne Goodwin, Waterboro; Pamela Goodwin, Westboro, Mass.; Karen Helliwell, Jean Woods, Kittery Point; Mary Kate Foote, Syracuse, N.Y.; Judy Kay, Reading, Mass.; Julia Love, Melrose, Mass.; Sandra Moores, Bangor; Paula Reddy, Barbara Waters, Kittery; Barbara Rider, Needham, Mass.

The end of the fall semester found 19 Pi Beta Phis on the Dean's List.

The following Maine As were recently initiated into an honorary psychology society: Mary Jo Brush and Virginia Barnes. Rosemary Leonard became a new member of O.N.

Brenda Freeman and Ann Walker were chosen to the senior class executive council. Pi Beta Phi dorm presidents for the spring semester were Judith Dorman, Barbara Rider, and Barbara Waters.

Pledge Formal was held on February 23 at the ΦΓΔ House. Decorations followed the theme "Beau and Arrow Ball." Each of the pledges was presented formally in a short ceremony during the evening.

Mary Jo Brush spent spring semester in India and Pakistan with the Maine Masque Theatre Group on a goodwill tour sponsored by the U.S. Senate Department.

PLEGDED: Karen Cooper, Anson.

*NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1934. Pledge Day, January 28, 1962. INITIATED, February 25, 1962: Gillian Ash, Toronto, Ontario; Judy Fingard, Jeanette Seager, Linda Thompson, Gail Young, Dartmouth; Mary E. Whelan, Carmel, N.Y.; Alice Wile, Liverpool; Leslie Baldwin, Jane Gill, Martha Donahoe, Carol Fogo, Barbara Gough, Lynn Ross, Halifax; Ann Suidam, Toronto, Ontario.

Nova Scotia A returned to an activity-filled spring term and new chapter rooms in the home of Dr. Roberta Nichols. Many thanks have been extended to her for making it possible for us to more easily hold not only our own regular meetings, but also various get-togethers. These have included a coffee party in honor of the alumnae club, and a rush party. Other events to be held in the near future include a mothers' tea, and a "splash" party for AΓΔs, to be held during the mid-term break. This break is a new change in policy adopted by the administration of the university.

One of the big events this year was the first Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament, in which Pi Beta Phi entered two teams. This event was sponsored by the Hillel Foundation in support of the Rehabilitation Center.

"Bye, Bye, Birdie," the musical presented by the Dalhousie Glee and Dramatic Society, found Ann Suidam and Peggy Mahon with major roles and many others in the supporting cast and in jobs behind the scenes.

This year three members of the chapter reigned as faculty queens. Peggy Mahon was Dentistry Queen, Joyce Smith, Engineering Queen, and Gail Young, Law Queen. As Law Queen, Gail delivered the speech from the throne at the opening of the Law School's Model Parliament.

The annual Pi Beta Phi formal was held on February 14, and the theme this year was "The Caribbean." Colorful straw hats were distributed as favors. Pi Beta Phi activity will end this year with a "Recuperation Weekend" to be held at a summer home upon the completion of final examinations.

PLEGDED, January 28, 1962: Judith Estabrooks, Halifax.

*VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, February 18, 1962. INITIATED, February 21, 1962: M. Elizabeth Douy, Towson, Md.; Deborah S. Gillette, Barre; Carol J. Hines, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mary G. Jocelyn, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; Susan MacLaughlin, West Roxbury, Mass.; Caroline Tuttle, Brewster, N.Y.

Liza Dunphy was co-chairman of Middlebury's very successful Winter Carnival which was held February 22 through 24. Perfect snow conditions meant impressive snow sculptures and exciting skiing for competitors as well as observers. Louise Gulick starred on the women's team, taking second place for Skimeister. Liza reigned as Queen of Carnival, while Betty Barkentin, Nancy Towne, and Jan Young were also among the six candidates for queen.

Nancy Sise returned in February from Europe where she was one of six women representing the United States in the "Federation Internationale de Ski" competition. She unfortunately broke her leg before the racing began, but is now recuperating for future world events.

Ann Wadsworth was chosen to head the 1962 Middlebury Religion Conference.

The winter season was highlighted by a very successful rush period. Upperclassmen entertained the pledges with a sugar-off party, a come-as-you-are breakfast, and a spaghetti dinner, while the energetic freshmen wrote, learned, and produced entertainment for the actives just one day after bids had come out.

PLEGDED, February 18: Susan M. Emrich, Norwalk, Conn.; Elizabeth Fink, Topeka, Kan.; Andrea L. Georgi, Lincoln, Neb.; Carol A. Haas, Wilmette, Ill.; Barbara Heeren, Teaneck, N.J.; Elaine Henrici, Mt. *MASSACHUSETTS BETA—University of Massachusetts. Chartered, 1944. Pledge Day, February 19, 1962. The University of Massachusetts held its annual Winter Carnival in mid February sponsored by the junior class. The theme of the entire carnival was "With a Continental Flair." Massachusetts B is pleased to announce that it captured third place in the sorority snow sculpture competition with its depiction of an English coach and a royal guard. Pamela O'Donnell, a junior, was co-chairman of the Carnival Fashion Show in which Jackie Kearns and Carol Townsley participated. Pam was also a finalist for Winter Carnival queen.

The chapter congratulates three of its members who were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They are Diann Coyle, Linda Griffin and Debbie Read.

During the month of March Massachusetts B held their annual pledge formal at which all the pledges were presented. This year's formal was held at the Hotel Northampton; the evening was culminated by the election of a "Pi eta Phi Debutante" and her court.

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 28, 1896. INITIATED, March 3, 1962: Diane Decker, Endwell; Judy Ferrara, Amsterdam; Marilyn Heuss, Penfield; Beverly Lewis, Des Moines, Iowa; Ann Shepard, Lakewood; Suzanne Stacey, Oswego.

We at New York A have begun another busy semester with a round of fraternity coffees. So far we have entertained Σ N, Φ Δ Θ , Σ Φ E, Δ K E, A X P and plan an exchange dinner later in the spring.

In the academic field we are proud to say that we had 15 girls on Dean's List and have won a scholarship race with Kappa. This means that they will host our Monmouth Duo celebration this year. Joyce Hergenhan has been chosen to represent the School of Journalism on the University Students Advisory Council. This honor is awarded only to students with outstanding academic ability and leadership qualities.

Our control of the Daily Orange is almost complete with the appointment of Nan Plotnick as Editorial Director and Waine MacAllister and Kate Antony working as reporters.

We were all proud to see Linda Jenkins crowned Sweetheart of B Φ II and of Margaret Steele who served on the court for Frosh Weekend Queen.

Other honors which came our way this semester: Marilyn Howard, Susie Shafter, and Judy Schoenborn were chosen for University Chapel Choir and Karen Palmer and Sylvia Dodson were tapped for Freshman Woman's Honorary.

PLEGDED: Pam Cobb, Linda Temple, Syracuse; Terry Hughes, Toni Patti, Vestal; Nancy Barrett, Mamaroneck; Bonnie Burns, Orchard Park; Bonney Cocheran, Erie, Pa.; Sylvia Dodson, St. Johnsville; Colette Glenn, Sidney; Sandra LaVigne, Ogdensburg; Kathy Jeffe, East Aurora; Lynne Maylone, Upper Montclair, N.J.; Ellen Mayne, Hudson; Lana Merchant, Deposit; Karen Palmer, Gladwyne, Pa.; Rosemary Pires, Norton, Mass.; Anne Pokel, West Caldwell, N.J.; Nancy Preston, Northville; Susan Quinlin, New Britain, Pa.; Sue Shine, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Linda Scott, Morristown, N.J.; Brenda Snyder, Jamestown; Margaret Steele, Nyack; Charlene Steubing, Rochester; Sally White, Yardley, Pa.; Lee Shultes, Camillus; Dorothy Roefs, Lynbrook.

*PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, February 11, 1962. One of the highlights of the fall semester was the surprise serenade given to us by our brother fraternity on campus, Φ Ψ . This was a special honor to Pi Beta Phi, as it was the first serenade to be given to an entire sorority at Bucknell.

As part of our Christmas activities, we were invited by Σ A M to join with them in a Christmas party for underprivileged children. We have helped with this party for two years and we would like to see it become a tradition.

Our congratulations go to the following girls who have been elected to academic honoraries: Nancy Barlow and Sally Steinger to the psychology honorary, Ψ X; Nancy Henderson, Mary Alyce Hermany, and Ellen Voegtlin to the French honorary, Π Δ Φ ; Margie McLean to the biology honorary, Φ E; and Carrie Shilling to the music honorary, M Φ E.

Also our congratulations go to Judy Smith, our president, who was elected Homecoming Queen of 1961; to Mary Alyce Hermany who was recently chosen Sweetheart of Σ A E; and to the members of the Military Ball Court, Sally Miller and Sue Warner.

We will be very anxious to hear from Sally Steinger who left campus to study at the University of Paris this semester. Sally was invited to become a member of a group of students working under the auspices of the Institute of European Studies.

Our first semester's scholarship has brought triple joy to our chapter. Under the guidance of scholarship chairman Camie Schwiager, we soared to our high average of recent years and second place among the nine sororities on campus. In addition, we are eagerly anticipating a steak dinner at the expense of the sisters of Δ Δ Δ , who had accepted our scholarship challenge.

PLEGDED: Jeanne Deredita, Garwood, N.J.; Marilyn Heit, Geneva, N.Y.; Connie Ingram, Kennett Square; Jan Irwin, Locust Valley, N.Y.; Kathy Kelleher, Northport, N.Y.; Jean Kinney, Sue Kreamer, Anville; Sally Klaus, Lancaster; Linda Lenfest, Falls Church, Conn.; Chris Matzko, Berwick; Doty Polek, Towson, Md.; Barb Shaw, Camp Hill; Paula Skibo, Heltertown.

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1903. Pledge Day, February 11, 1962. Pennsylvania T recently entertained Mrs. O'Donnell, Beta Province President. The newly decorated apartment provided an enjoyable base of operations for chapter meetings and individual consultations.

Pi Beta Phi was happy to have five of its members occupy positions on Dean's List for the fall semester: Frances Enseki, Lynn Hammond, Carol Jones, Carol Lawrence, Carol Lindstrom. Responsible offices are held in student affairs by Barbara Price, treasurer of the Student Senate, Susan Earl, secretary of the sophomore class, Carol Lindstrom, a member of the Student-Faculty Judiciary Committee and vice president of President's Council, the women's governmental body, and Pam Maxwell and Jane Bidwell, presidents of their dormitories. Kathy Linduff, presently a freshman counselor, occupies the presidency of the Panhellenic Council after serving as secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Campaign activities are getting under way for the Student Senate elections with avid Pi Beta Phi enthusiasm for the New United Party with Carol Lindstrom, Pennsylvania I president, as co-chairman. The members are also giving active support to the Students For Senate Party.

Dickinson's religious program is in the process of reorganization with emphasis on student-oriented speakers of national prominence as well as an increase of seminars, chapels, and informal student-speaker meetings. Actively involved in this "revamping" process are Lynn Hammond, Kathy Kuhn, Leslie Davidson, Bunny Zug.

Originality, loyalty, and scholarly achievement were shown as Linda Gullum won the national essay contest for the impeachment of Earl Warren. Judy Jurkovic was chosen to receive the Minnie Dean Pin, and Karen Jenkins and Judy Hill were tapped into the social science honorary, $\Pi \Gamma M$.

Pi Beta Phi again showed versatility with Mickey Cope competing in the Louisville women's indoor track meet, and Penny Pritchard receiving the lead in "South Pacific."

On January 5, the twenties came back to the Pi Beta Phi house as everyone indulged in the flapper dresses and "bath tub gin" at our Speakeasy Party.

The pledge party for the actives, "Pi Phi's Gone Hollywood," was a real success. A week later, March 24, the actives staged a "False Alarm" for the pledges who were anxiously awaiting initiation. With poke in hand the pledges arrived late that Saturday night, only to discover that the actives had left the house to them for the night.

PLEGDED: Sandra Bagnall, Poland; Carol Fox, Jane Martin, Cincinnati; Brenda Freeman, Susan Keck, Toledo; Nancy Wells, Cuyahoga Falls.

With the beginning of winter quarter came our rushing season. Needless to say, this was a busy two weeks for Ohio B. The two weeks of successful rushing were concluded with a cooky-shine. Informal pledging soon followed. Soon after pledging came the active-pledge slumber party. It was at this time that the pledges received their Big Sisters.

Pledge week end proved to be a most exciting time for the pledges. At this time, the actives moved out of the house and the pledges reigned supreme for the week end. Also at this time, the pledges had a shoe shine and earned $69.40.

Ohio B is also quite excited and fortunate to have a lovely new housemother, Mrs. Tobin. She has already proven to be a real "mother away from home" and has stolen the heart of every Pi Beta Phi.

Several of our members were elected to high campus positions this quarter. Recently elected as Director of Union Activities was Nancy Bowen. Carol Davis is the new first vice president of W.S.G.A., and Judi Young is the assistant secretary for W.S.G.A.

Campus beauties include Linda Myers, who was selected to serve on the court of Quarterdeck Ball Queen. Patty Webster was a member of the ΣX Sweetheart Court. Anne Bechtle was chosen to run for Orchid Princess, while Judi Young was selected to run for Pledge Princess.

PLEGDED: Karen Adams, Berea; Kay Baker, Carol Bloom, Nancy Dare, Becky Geib, Patty James, Mary Laughlin, Judy McConnell, Barbie Oliver, Carol Sain, Marsha Stewart, Patty Webster, Judi Young, Columbus; Anne Bechtle, Marion; Joan Birckbichler, Westerville; Lyn Casello, Diana Toon, Cincinnati; Ann Esther Gabalac, Akron; Nancy Helsler, San Bernardino, Calif.; Charlotte Jones, Darien, Conn.; Pat Kaercher, Salem; Alice Knapp, Castalia; Laurene Kriscak, Lakewood; Jill Lafferty, Warren; Kitzzi Nettling, Akron; Mary Roush, Lindsey; Barb Smith, St. Clairsville; Pat Whitney, Medina; Bonnie Williams, Cleveland Heights; Sue Wyatt, Memphis, Tenn.

Marcia Schultz and Pat Martin are presently serving as undergraduate fellows in the psychology and mathematics departments respectively.

Honors have been given to several of the new initiates. Margo Johnston has been elected president of Junior Panhellenic, and Libby Bunting is sophomore representative for A.W.S. The chapter's candidates for AFROTC sponsors were Janice Bowling, Libby Bunting, and Lee Metcalf, all of them being selected as final candidates.

Sandra Schatz has been elected to $K \Delta \Pi$, and Mary Alice Boyd is having her work shown at the Artists of Southern Ohio Exhibition in Dayton, Ohio.

The captain of the college cheerleaders, Janet Lance, has been selected as one of the five finalists for LeBijou Queen which is based on academic, extracurricular, and photogenic qualities.

Ohio Δ has put on a campaign running Barbara Tatum for Student Government vice president.

Chapter scholarship awards for the fall semester went to Pat Martin, highest senior accumulative; Ann Hofstra, highest active for the year; Elsa Mann, greatest improvement; and Sarah Aplin, highest pledge.

MICHIGAN DELTA—ALBION COLLEGE. Chartered, March 7, 1959. Pledge Day, February 24, 1962. INITIATED, March 10, 1962: Mary Ann Arnt, Kathy Baselle, Hillsdale; Bonnie Ball, Buffalo, N.Y.; Melissa Cochran, Unionville; Ann Luther, Grand Rapids; Alice Maynard, Wilmette, Ill.; Martha Carol MacDonald, Ann Arbor; Nancy Peckover, Saginaw; Karen Sellhorn, Northbrook, Ill.; Janet Shields, Marilyn Wright, Detroit.

Michigan Delta chapter has been very busy this past semester. On the Dean's List for high scholastic ratings are Mary Maynard, Claudia Stafford, Carolyn Reinhoel, Charlene Hampton Adams, Jill Gardner, Jan Parmalee, Nancy Lenz, Martha Grove, Sandra Maples, Cara Young, Lynn Brown, Gale McDonald, Nancy Pratt, Helen Nott, and Helen Meyn. Of these girls, Mary Maynard, Claudia Stafford, Carolyn Reinhoel, and Cara Young became Albion Fellows, having a scholastic average of at least a 2.7.

The recent Inter-sorority Song Fest took place February 23. Although Pi Beta Phi didn't place in the top three groupings, everyone had a good time rehearsing for the sing. The song director this year was Martha Stiff.

Of special interest this past month was the Valentine dance, Cupid's Capers, at which Kathy Baselle was crowned dormitory queen. The Michigan Delta Pi Beta Phis are looking forward this month to an afternoon coffee with the Sigma N fraternity also.

The pledges entertained the Michigan A pledges from Hillsdale College at an informal tea Saturday afternoon, February 17. The tea turned into a singing party and many new and different songs were learned by all.

PLEGDED: Mary Kathleen Adams, Lachine.

GRETCHEN SUE MILLER

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO. Chartered, 1909. The highlight at the University of Toronto this year was the Winter Carnival, February 2, 3, and 4. On the Friday evening there was a skating show, followed by an hour's entertainment put on by the Brothers Four. Pi Beta Phi was well represented with the following members in the show: Susan Blakely, Nancy Brunton, Helen Hassard, Dellene Raymond, Betsy Severs, and Susy Yarker. Helen Hassard walked 20 miles on snowshoes with ten other students to advertise for the carnival. On the Saturday, among other activities, was a Variety Show, where we watched and enjoyed Jennifer Moore singing 3 delightful numbers.

The Panhellenic Banquet on February 5 was at Toronto's new O'Keefe Centre. Warden Joseph McCulley of Hart House was the guest speaker. His topic concerned university students and their place in the world of today.

Two delegates are being sent to Convention this year. They are Barbara Simmons and Ann Schrand.

The Annual Formal is on March 3 at the Toronto Hunt Club. Nancy Brunton is having a coke-tail party before the dance and the girls and their dates are coming back to the house for a breakfast party.

LYNDA TRENHOLME

ONTARIO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO. Chartered, October, 1934. Pledge Day, October 1, 1961. Winter Wonderland Weekend at Western began the month of February. Nan Mowry did an excellent job as chairman of the weekend committee, contributing much to its success. The highlight of the weekend was the Arts & Science Ball with six out of ten candidates for Ball Queen Pi Beta Phi: Noelle Grace, Ruth Smith, Sue Peever, Peggy Richardson, Sheilah Tweedie, and Libby McAskile. Peggy was crowned the queen and we are still admiring all the lovely gifts she received. Judy Myers was recently a candidate for 2 X Sweetheart. During the Winter Weekend, Ontario B took part in the chariot races and the snow sculpturing contest.

The chapter stood second in the scholarship standings for the sororities at Western.

Participating in student government, Diane Davis was elected to the University Students Council to hold office throughout next year. Peggy Richardson was selected to represent Western on the debating team at McGill University in Montreal for their winter weekend.

This past month, the members held a tobogganing party for Crippled Children at Woodeton, the Crippled Children's Camp in London. We all thoroughly enjoyed the experience and were assured that the children had a wonderful time.

Receiving awards this year were Sue Peever who was nominated our candidate for the Amy Burnham Onken Award and Carole Brown who was presented the Chapter Service Award.

Vernon, N.Y.; Margaret Whitworth, Dordrecht, Nederland; Kate Wilson, Naples, Fla.; and alumna initiate, Mrs. O. T. Evans, Lexington.

The beginning of the spring semester for Pi Beta Phi at the University of Kentucky was busy and exciting. At the top of the list of not-to-be-forgotten events were initiation and installation of Kentucky B as the 107th chapter of Pi Beta Phi on March 3, 1962. Mrs. Mansfield, Grand President, Mrs. Wild, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, Mrs. Akers, Eta Province President, and actives from other Pi Beta Phi chapters were present to make the weekend even more special.

We are also pleased to have two new transfer students at U.K. this semester. They are Susan Staley, Florida B, and Sue Cotton, Louisiana B.

A Mardi Gras Dance the third weekend in February and the Gold Digger's Ball, U.K.'s version of Sadie Hawkins Day, produced Pi Beta Phi's first campus royalty. Skip Harris was chosen second attendant to the Mardi Gras Queen, and our candidate for Gold Digger's King was first runner-up.

Several Pi Beta Phi are active in various campus activities, with Virginia Wesche and Ann Armstrong on the steering committee for Stars in the Night, a program honoring outstanding women students, Bonnie Bader, Harriet Hieber, and Susan Staley working on the annual Little Kentucky Derby, and Lucia Bridgeforth and Marthanne Warren preparing for a Blue Marlin Show to be held in April.

Three of our freshmen, Kate Wilson, Bonnie Bader, and Ann Armstrong, were invited to the Cwens tea, and seven of our girls, Nancy Percival, Bonnie Barnes, Jan Mitts, Beverly Amble, Virginia Wesche, Vanda Marcum, and Carole Harper were on the Dean's List with a standing of 3.6 or better.

A.W.S. elections brought many offices to the Pi Beta Phi on the University of Tennessee campus. Lynn Oliver was elected president, Virginia Lowe first vice president, Pat Huff secretary, Linda Swanson Judicial Board President, and Betsy Irwin was elected to the Legislative Board. Lynn will represent the university at the A.W.S. Regional Convention at the University of Kansas in April.

Pat Huff was again in the beauty spotlight when she was chosen R.O.T.C. Military Queen. She is also the ΣK candidate for Miss Venus, Greek Week Queen. Ann Wilkinson was selected $\Sigma \Phi E$ Sweetheart and was the honored guest at their Hearts and Arrows party on Valentine's Day.

Other activities on campus include Amelia Thompson as the new Panhellenic treasurer and Sue Ogden in the capacity of editor of the Tennessee Girl.

In February, the actives and pledges retreated to Gatlinburg for a house party in the Red Barn at the Settlement School. Entertainment included ice skating at the Gatlinburg Ski Lodge and a fashion show sponsored by the Pigeon Forge Alumnae Club. The show featured models from Tennessee P. Highlighting the occasion was a tour through the Settlement School. The chapter is indeed fortunate in being only thirty-seven miles from the Pi Beta Phi national altruistic project.

In the women's fraternity basketball competition, the active chapter seized first place in the senior division.

Among the activities of the week of February 19, for the observance of the 109th anniversary of Washington University's founding, was a public concert, given by the St. Louis Symphony and the University Choir. Several members of Pi Beta Phi participated.

Missouri B is again participating actively in the extracurricular activities and elections of the spring semester. The chapter is hard at work to make this year's Greek Sing Pi Beta Phi's third victory in a row. At the same time, rehearsals are getting under way for the combined $\Pi B \Phi \Sigma X$ skit which will be entered in Thurstone Carnival, and plans are being made for next year's Bearskin Follies, in which Pi Beta Phi will participate with $\Sigma A E$.

At the Military Ball, Ina Fitzhenry, Phyllis Grothaus, and Robbin Jay represented Pi Beta Phi as three of the seven members of the court.

Barbara Dolva was elected comptroller of Angel Flight, AFROT Honorarium.

Freshman Orientation activities for fall 1962 will be under the direction of Carole Robinson, who was appointed co-chairman of the program.

Marianne Heinicke will serve as vice-president of Panhellenic in the coming year.

Members of Washington's Greek groups enjoyed the Greek Weekend, held March 9 and 10. Highlights included a dance featuring Ray Charles, and a chariot race in which $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ provided the manpower to pull $\Pi B \Phi$'s chariot.

Marshfield, Wis.; Nikki Stotts, Great Falls, Mont.; Susan Rosse, Kansas City, Mo.; Donna Beavor, Boise, Idaho; Carol Bell, Clinton, Iowa; Ann Coleman, Newton, Conn.; Anna Lutnicki, Lincoln, Mass.; Marilyn Hill, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Ellen Maddox, Nashville, Tenn.

Spring promises to be a busy one for Colorado A in house, campus, and social events. Lindalu Parker is currently serving as publicity chairman for the campus Religion-In-Life-Week. Jean Santi is completing her term as both treasurer of AWS and AWS Junior Senator.

Internationally, the Pi Beta Phis have been active too. Sharon Curlee, Judy Fox, Frances Shaddock, Barbara Berney, and Susan Steinemann acted as hostesses and translators for ten Latin American Educators who visited the University of Colorado campus for a five week conference. Their visit was culminated by a dinner at the Pi Beta Phi house where all of the members had an opportunity to test their Spanish and converse with the guests. Also, Bonnie Tracy was one of three students asked to be an interpreter at a NATO conference held in Colorado Springs.

Several members of the chapter are in the royalty spotlight. Judy Knott is the new Miss Wool of Colorado for 1962. After being selected from contestants from all over the state, she was crowned at the Stockmen's Ball. In the spring, Judy will fly to Texas to represent Colorado in the national contest.

Carol Ann Crundwell was crowned the Rose of $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ at a dance sponsored by the business fraternity. The Rocky Mountain Photographers Association, which sponsors a beauty pageant each year, has selected Sue Steinemann as a finalist.

SAE's Little Sisters of Minerva tapped Carol Bell, Ann Coleman, Stephanie Lincoln, Barbara Neff, Karen Sundberg, and Bonnie Zamonick.

Judi Butter is one of the ten Best Dressed Girls on the University of Colorado campus after competing in a contest sponsored by Mademoiselle magazine.

Sandy Timmermann was tapped for $K \Delta \Pi$, the education honorary.

A skit, written and produced by Debby Daves, was chosen to be a part of the AWS Revue. It is a parody on the West of today and yesterday. The traditional social event of the year, the Monmouth Duo, was held with the $K K \Pi$ s at the Lakewood Country Club on February 24.

AFFILIATED: Shirley Carlson, Sandy Timmermann.

COLORADO BETA—DENVER UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1885. Pledge Day, February 26, 1962. INITIATED, February 4, 1962: Carolyn Carhart, Linda Dunn, Laura Helms, Denver; Nancy Wells Cooper, Loveland; Judy Knutson, Colorado Springs; Ann McDowell, Englewood; Melinda Miller, La Junta, Carol Timothy, Greeley; Suzanne Bowman, Sally Dwyer, San Francisco, Calif.; Mary Lou Burch, Hawaii; Betsy Busse, Park Ridge, Ill.; Alice Duncan, Amarillo, Tex.; Pauline Enequist, Mexico; Margrit Hagnauer, New Canaan, Conn.; Isabel Kearns, Green Bay, Wis.; Carol Wilder, Waukegan, Ill.

The Colorado B chapter is now caught up in the whirl of the new all-campus Winter Carnival. To start the week off with a bang Susie Templeton won the University Park Campus Twist Contest. For the costume judging competition Charla Toller represented the chapter wearing a white fluffy igloo. Other events in which the members took part were ski races, novelty races, and snow building competition at Loveland, Colorado, on March 2.

The entire chapter was terrifically excited over the recent tapping of Laurae Fortner, the chapter's former president who is a junior, for $\Phi B K$.

Another item of recognition goes to Izzy Kearns, a new initiate, for being finalist for K-book Queen. Izzy is one of three finalists screened in two judgments based on beauty and personality. The queen will be picked from these three finalists by a known celebrity.

PLEGDED: Lynn Goodman, Alexandria, Va.; Susan Griffiths, Miami, Fla.; Pat Naitove, Hewlett, N.Y.

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Chartered, January 7, 1907. Pledge Day, September 22, 1961. We were honored this quarter with a visit from our Province President, Mrs. V. H. Dunkin, who spent a very busy three days at our chapter. We loved having Mrs. Dunkin and certainly hope that she will soon return to visit us again.

Recognized for their talent and hard work in activities of the Associated Women Students were two of our sophomore Pi Beta Phi sisters. Evie Hamilton was chosen as chairman of Fashion Board for the AWS, and Marlis McCully will be its new publicity chairman. Both girls will serve on the AWS council as part of their new duties.

In the beauty department the Washington As again excelled and added three feathers to our beauty cap. Fran Watson was chosen a finalist in the Theta Delta Chi Playgirl Contest, and Sandy Finley was a finalist for queen of the Navy Ring Dance. And lastly, Sue Horsefield was selected as a princess for Miss Bellevue in that contest. All in all we were just as proud and excited as these girls were in their contests.

Besides having a few campus queens some of our sisters received nationwide recognition for their beauty. Robin Miller will be on the cover of the forthcoming Family Circle Magazine. Judy Dennis will be featured in Glamour Magazine modeling clothes that will be seen on the Century-21, World's Fair, grounds in these coming spring and summer months.

Judy will not be the only Pi Beta Phi with an "in" at the Fair. Maryhelen Fishburne will be working for the Ford Motor Company in their exhibit. Kris Dahlgard will have the wonderful job as a guide for the VIPs (very important persons) that will come to the Fair. And finally Judy McBride will get a taste of riding in outerspace as she operates the elevator in the 600 foot high Space Needle.

One last thought from all of us to all of you "Come to the Fair, we'll see you there!"

LIZ ROBERTS

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, July 1912. As the first semester drew to a close and the second semester began, the Pi Beta Phi members had sifted in and were shining throughout various phases of university life. Pat Johnson, past president, had fulfilled her term and upon leaving the office to Susan Berger, had instilled a genuine spirit throughout the house by perpetuating the principles upon which the fraternity is built. The girls, in appreciation of her job as president and to honor her, have given a banquet in her honor and selected her as our chapter candidate for the Amy B. Onken Award and as the Carnation Girl for the month of March.

Susan Berger, president, was also honored at a banquet by the girls for the wonderful job she did as pledge trainer. The pledge class showed a great deal of originality and it appeared that our chapter had much to be proud of. Susan also received the membership trophy and Deanna Wendt received the pledge trophy for outstanding scholarship.

The students government on campus was to claim a portion of Pi Beta Phi as Lynda Hofstad was elected to the office of Junior Panhellenic President, Nancy Mitchell as Senior Panhellenic Vice President, and Kay Wight as the Greek candidate for Student Body Secretary.

Susan Deck was part of the cast of "Damask Check," a play by John Van Druten, and Judy Bryant presented a reading from "The King and I" for speech instructors and majors.

Evelyn Cartony was a finalist for "Spur of the Moment"; Carman Snitly, $\Phi \Sigma K$ "Moonlight Girl," was informed that she was to be one of six entrants in the national $\Phi \Sigma K$ competition. Susan Kelley was recently chosen to reign as $\Lambda X A$ "Crescent Girl" of seventy fellows for two years. Linda Kellman is the chapter's candidate for $T K \Sigma$ "Dream Girl."

House activities are being centered about the Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration in which a banquet and tea will highlight the two day celebration in which the charter members may renew acquaintances, and friendships may be established between the charter and active members. This semester has again left the Washington B chapter very proud of its members and organization.

*OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY, Chartered, 1917. Pledge Day, September 18, 1961. INITIATED, January 20, 1962: Constance Frank, Barbara Hewitt, Linda Meindl, Margaret Palmer, Barbara Geisler, Portland; Donna Bergstrom, Carol Moe, Diane Frischknecht, Corvallis; Marilyn Duke, Oswego; Melissa Pfouts, Salem; Patricia Epps, Carolyn Pasley, Hillsboro; Virginia Harris, Roseburg; Patricia Sterba, Sharon Bauer, Phoenix, Ariz.; Carolyn Bowles, Webster, S.D.; Georgina Eaton, Twin Falls, Idaho; Charis Huey, Long Beach, Calif.; Mary Ellen Meriam, Berkeley, Calif.

Many girls in the chapter participated in Beaver Preview, a weekend when high school seniors can visit the campus. Lois McFarlane and Sarah Busick were chairmen for registration, Kay Bailey was general secretary, and Thelma Greenfield was in charge of Beaver Preview Weekend for student teachers. Also working for Beaver Preview Weekend was Barbara Bennett who was chairman for the Student Life Committee.

Also active on campus is Sandra Shaw, a committee chairman for the Junior-Senior Prom to be held during the spring.

The chapter was extremely proud of Sharon Bauer who was recently selected as the Sweetheart of T K Σ . Melissa Pfouts was also a semi-finalist for Δ Σ Φ Dream Girl.

At an honors accolade sponsored by Φ K Φ , a national honorary equivalent to Φ B K, Jan Marquis was honored for rating fourth in her class for high grades. All juniors with a grade point average of 3.5 or above attended.

Jan also won a second place in the Senior Division Oratory at a speech tournament at the University of Puget Sound.

At a banquet held in honor of our visiting national officer, Mrs. Moore, the Oregon State University President and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Jensen, and Dean and Mrs. Popovich, the Dean of Administration attended.

MOLLY PERRY

*OREGON GAMMA—WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Chartered, June 3, 1944. The Oregon Γ s have been recognized by the campus in many ways this winter. Mortar Board tapped three seniors for the year, Marian Hauk, Marcia Ruby, and Judy Smith. Linda Crawford is president of B A Γ , a sophomore woman's honorary. Other Oregon Γ members include Heather Birnie, Linda Clark, and Cathy Vielhauer.

Judy Smith, past president of AWS, had the honor of installing one of her sorority sisters, Mary Ann Wright, as the new AWS president for 1962-63. Carol Kitchen and Linda Jongeneel are the newly elected vice president and treasurer.

Oregon Γ s also graced the fraternity courts this year: Tori Hull, Sweetheart of Σ X, Sharon Overby, SAE Queen of Violets and Lin Howard, Little Captain. Heather Birnie represented Willamette as Snow Princess at the Oregon Intercollegiate Winter Carnival, and Trish Evans was a member of the homecoming court.

Marcia Ruby, a senior from Oswego, received the distinctive honor of appearing as the only woman member of Willamette's team for the GE College Bowl program. Marcia was also chosen as Co-ed of the month for January and Judy Smith for February. Pat French was one of the three finalists in the Glamour best dressed contest.

Sandy Stageberg, a junior now studying medical technology in Portland, was chosen a Lucia Bride for the city of Portland. She went to Sweden as the guest of Sweden's Lucia Bride for the Christmas celebrations there.

During Mrs. Moore's visit the pledges surprised the house with the annual pledge serenade, one of the many projects they have planned for this year. Other projects include a "buddy dinner," and a Valentine party for the children of the Oregon Blind School.

BARBARA MORSE

OREGON DELTA—PORTLAND STATE COLLEGE, Chartered, December 4, 1960. Pledge Day, February 14, 1962. INITIATED, February 4, 1962: Patricia Flannigan, Marilyn Jenkinson, Kathryn Kellogg, Nancy Robinson, Marilyn Runkle, Julie Smith, Joani Vonderheit, Susan Wood, Susan Yost, Portland; Karla Hartley, Gresham; Wilma Robbins, Camas, Wash.

We initiated a new scholarship program with a study table at our new chapter house. Also included in this plan was the annual presentation of a scholarship bracelet to the pledge with the highest grades. Nancy Robinson was the first recipient of this honor.

We helped with the Panhellenic dance, a kick-off dance for the annual Winter Carnival. Francie Johnson was Portland State's hostess for this event.

Barbara Halen and Mary Hibbs were tapped for A Σ Ω , the women's scholastic honorary.

Marilyn Runkle is our candidate for Glamour's Best-Dressed Girl contest.

We are making preparations for the delegates we are sending to Convention, Sue Oliver and Pam Powell. This is the first time Oregon Δ has attended, so we are all quite excited about it.

PLEGDED: Carolyn Chase, Nancy Manning, Sally Rosenberg, Portland.

BARBARA HALEN

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, February 9, 1962. As the college year advances, Pi Beta Phi's win new honors and gain new leadership posts. Georgia Tiffany won a music scholarship to Indiana University. The Panhellenic Council has elected Penny Parberry as scholarship chairman, while Joan Rumpeltes has been elected as president of the Junior Panhellenic Council. Barbara Blair, junior class secretary, is currently running for Executive Board. Judy Kienlen has been named Outstanding Home Economics Major. Patt Kelly has been selected to be on the Board of Selection and Control. Patt has also been elected as president of the Student Representative Assembly. Sue Carneix has been elected secretary for the American Institute of Architects.

On the lighter side Pi Beta Phi's shouted the loudest in an original yell, to win the yell contest for the second consecutive time.

Two winter-time queen contests brought new finalists to the Pi Beta Phi house. Jan Thompson was named Holly Week Princess, and Andrea Anderson was chosen as Military Ball Queen finalist. Jan was further honored by being named runner-up to the Queen of the Far West Classic Basketball Tournament.

The Air Force ROTC has tapped Sallie Galloway and Suzie Gregg for its Angel Flight marching group. Nadine Naslund, lieutenant colonel, and Jan Thompson, captain, are sponsors for the Army ROTC.

PLEGDED: Andrea Anderson, McCall; Karen Eason, Boise; Nancy Teft, Spokane; Arlene Ultican, King Hill.

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT BERKELEY, Chartered, 1900. Pledge Day, September 16, 1961. INITIATED, February 24, 1962: Patricia Chapman, Paula Daly, Kentfield; Mary Demarest, Bonnie Drewes, Piedmont; Jane Downer, Wendy Finkenbinder, Carolyn Morrow, Pasadena; Anne Farnsworth, Scottsdale, Ariz.; Barbara Hamberg, Orinda; Georgia Kraus, Carmichael; Susan Otto, Jane Logan, San Francisco; Catherine Pettefer, San Gabriel; Janet Primm, Judith Primm, San Marino; Joan Radonich, Honolulu, Hawaii; Martha Schmitz, Menlo Park; Linda Schwartz, Fortuna; Susan Singer, Berkeley; Helle Stueland, Oslo, Norway.

California B has received many honors so far this year. But I believe the biggest honor was the grades of the pledges on their pledge examination. Each one scored a hundred per cent.

The Pi Beta Phi's have been very active on campus too. Betsy Bright was elected president of Panile, a sophomore honorary group. And we are happy to have five new members of Oski Dolls, a spirit group on campus. The members are Pat Chapman and Jane Downer and the alternates are Elizabeth Blanchard, Harriet Stark, and Marilyn Rodger. Helle Stueland, a new initiate, is president of Oski Dolls.

Scholastically, awards have been given to Helle Stueland for the highest pledge grade average, 4.00, and the most activities, and to Brooks Hagstad for the highest active grade average. Terry Taylor was given an award for the most outstanding chapter service throughout her four years in the house.

Judy Richards, a past corresponding secretary and one of forty seniors selected for the Senior Hall of Fame, is California B's nominee for the Amy Burnham Onken Award.

Linda Schwartz was first runner-up in the Golden Heart Queen Contest.

MARCIA FINCH

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 15, 1961. INITIATED, February 24, 1962: Marcia Beard, Carol Counts, Janis Counts, Geri Goetten, Bobbie Hensley, Shirley Sweet, Los Angeles; Joan Pedersen, Linda Johnson, Inglewood; Bette Bleiler, Ontario; Jill Carlson, Rochelle, Ill.; Pam Corradi, Burbank; Barbara Cummings, Jane Hoffman, San Marino; Doris Hoeneman, Sierra Madre; Mary Lee Larkin, San Bernardino; Mindy Macrate, Liz Tingom, Long Beach; Toni Thomas, Nassau, Bahamas; Judie Thompson, El Monte; Judie Webster, Van Nuys; Mary Ann Wilcox, North Hollywood.

The week of February 18 was a very important one for twenty-one pledges of California Γ , and the active chapter as well, as it was Inspiration Week. An Initiation Party, held Saturday, February 24, at the beautiful Arcadia home of Leslie Hicks, climaxed the week. Two of the new initiates, Judie Webster and Liz Tingom, were elected to the Freshman Women's Council. Because of her excellent scholarship, Liz Tingom was asked to join A Δ , the freshman scholastic honorary. Another new initiate, Bobbie Hensley, was elected vice president of the freshman class.

The start of the new semester finds many California Pi's participating in campus activities. Darlene and Marlene Coleman, Judy Reynolds and Mary Linda Woods are members of Amazons, a senior service organization. Virginia Wilson was invited to join Spurs. Mary Linda Woods is also active in student government, having been elected vice president of the senior class. Both Darlene Coleman and Mary Linda Woods have been elected to Mortar Board. Marcie Tappan was elected publicity chairman of TOPE.

Two members of the chapter, Judie Thompson and Jill Carlson, were finalists in the $\Theta \Xi$ Cinderella Contest. Jill Carlson has also been chosen $X \Phi$ Watermelon Queen and is a Little Sister of Minerva.

Ann Murphy and Linda Chilton were judged semi-finalists in the Glamour Magazine Best Dressed Girl Contest. Linda went on to become one of the four Best Dressed Girls on the University of Southern California campus.

The chapter is looking forward to the spring semester activities, the main one being the annual Songfest, to be held in the Hollywood Bowl. Three California Pi's, Virginia Long, Marilyn Boren, and Linda Chilton, were chosen to be on the Songfest Committee and help co-ordinate this university event.

M. JEAN BRUNTON

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, September, 1927. Pledge Day, February 18, 1962. INITIATED, March 3, 1962: Julie Day, Portuguese Bend; Linda Brinkley, Van Nuys; Sally Christiansen, Santa Ana; Kathy Daugherty, Glendale; Janed Guymon, San Diego; Barbara Harsell, Jeannie Norris, Carol Spence, Los Angeles; Janet Hawley, North Hollywood; Jan Owens, Manhattan Beach; Pat Payne, Reseda; Niki Pollack, Hollywood; Candy Pope, Santa Monica; Pam Ward, Alhambra; Maureen Webb, San Gabriel.

Sisters of Minerva, of $\Sigma \Lambda E$, have tapped three Pi Beta Phi's, Abby Dickrow, Janet Hawley, and Jeannie Norris. New members of FAMACs, $\Phi K \Xi$ Little Sisters, are Marya Voyen, Pat Payne, and Candy Pope.

Sue Schaefer, and Jeannie Norris are now serving on Mardi Gras Committee, and Phyllis Blackmun is assistant chairman of spring drive for Uni-Camp. UCLA student supported camp. Nancy Jusineus is house chairman for the Campus Blood Drive.

PLEGDED, February 18, 1962: Janet Dowler, Altadena; Elizabeth Freeman, Beverly Hills; Robin Mansbridge, Malibu; Rebecca Novelli, Whittier; Christina Panico, Tujunga; Sharon Pouliot, Burbank; Linda Sanson, Fullerton.

ANNE PLUMB

CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 1, 1949. Pledge Day, February 28, 1962. The actives held a surprise "Come as you are" breakfast February 17 for the pledges. The pledges then surprised the actives on February 20 by presenting the chapter two benches covered with pillows, a coffee table with a mosaic arrow design, and a new screen door. The pledges made the benches and coffee table.

A few of the many honors bestowed upon the Pi Beta Phi's: Sara Romberg was invited to join the Spinsters of San Diego; Claudia Pierson was elected president of Cetza, the lower division honorary service organization; Sherrill Bottier is new Panhellenic president; Margie Boyd was crowned Belle of the Blue Book Ball; Nedra Snyder was appointed freshman and new student orientation chairman. Spurs tapped Ann Carroll and Jan Collins.

The chapter held a Rummage Sale on March 3 to raise money for a new chapter house. The sale was a great success and the chapter appreciates the support given by the alumnae and Mothers' Club.

California E will be singing "Ride The Chariot" in Spring Sing on April 13. The actives have planned a retreat in Oceanside for March 25.

PLEGDED: Gayle Griggs, Glendora; Claudia Pierson, San Diego.
NEDRA SNYDER

CALIFORNIA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT SANTA BARBARA. Chartered, February 2, 1950. Pledge Day,

September 17, 1961. INITIATED, February 18, 1962: Jo Jean De Busk, Altadena; Lee Anne Horine, Brea; Sherry Bond, Burbank; Jo Rankin, Chico; Sue Newlin, El Cajon; Barbara Jordan, Falls Church, Va.; Barbara Jean Howorth, Glendale; Lynn Pendleton, La Crescenta; Dee Shropshire, Malibu; Meme Magee, Palm Springs; Jeanie Bergman, Riverside; Vicky Hall, Santa Barbara; Sandy Nielson, San Clemente; Suzie Sharrocks, Sebastopol; Patsy Parrish, Sherman Oaks; Candi Harrington, Tujunga; Nancy Williamson, Van Nuys; Janet Cooper, Victorville; Diana Litts, West Covina; Kaaren Kettle, Whittier.

Pi Beta Phi's at Santa Barbara were pleased to make $500 on their Rummage Sale, held February 13.

Another active retreat is being held by California Z on March 10. Sue Belsey and Suzie Sharrocks are the co-chairmen. The retreat will be held on a ranch, where a surprise lunch will be served.

Pi Beta Phi's at Santa Barbara are too large this year to participate in spring rush. Therefore, after March 17, they will begin to invite a few girls each week to dinner so new acquaintances can be made for next fall. Mary Leinster, Rush Captain, will organize the new dinner system.

Spring Sing rehearsals have begun early for California Z. This year Pi Beta Phi will be singing with $\Sigma \Lambda E$, doing new arrangements of selections from The Westside Story. The annual Spring Sing will be held April 28, at the Santa Barbara Bowl. Both Pi Beta Phi and $\Sigma \Lambda E$ are working hard toward Sweepstakes this year. Cheryl Liggett is doing a fine job as chairman; Patty Denton, Judy Perrill, and Sherry Bond are sectional coaches.

To culminate an exciting semester, the Pi Beta Phi's on Oceanside are planning an exceptional Spring Formal at the Coral Casino on May 4. They will have complete access to both the ballroom and the dining room.

KAREN ALLENDER

*NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 18. Nevada A has begun a new semester busily as usual. Mimi Patrick was chairwoman of the Winter Carnival Banquet held on February 9, 10, and 11. Pi Beta Phi built the Winter Carnival decorations with $A T \Omega$ and $X \Sigma$, under the co-chairmanship of Diane Beyer and Lyndell McGue. Though this chapter didn't win, we recently received a letter from $A T \Omega$ saying the work was like a series of socials and how much they enjoyed it. Also the open house held in conjunction with Winter Carnival was a successful and lovely affair under the leadership of Bev Pincolini. Yvette Borda was Nevada A's queen candidate.

On campus Pi Beta Phi has again been active. Joan Ruark was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges. Pat Plenn and Judy Charbonneau represented the fraternity in a fashion contest sponsored by Glamour Magazine, and Pat placed among the top four on campus. Joan Wagner is on the Women's Upper Class Committee, Susan Forden is on the junior class committee, Jean Tachoures is on the sophomore class committee, and Judy Wilson is on the freshman class committee. Pat White is a justice on the Student Council and Jeanne Sadler is serving as secretary. Anita Tobey and Norma Hubbard are singers and dancers in a musical ensemble put on by the University Music Dept.

JEANNE SADLER

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA. Chartered, August 1, 1917. Pledge Day, September 16, 1961. Several girls have been campus royalty recently. Robbie Collings was chosen Desert Queen. Judy Hauskins, a pledge, was a nominee from her dorm for Desert Queen. Interfraternity Pledge Council Queen finalist was Patty Poulson, nominated by ΣX . Clair Terry was the chapter's candidate for Engineering Queen.

The Pi Beta Phi's from Montana State University Angel Flight stayed in the house for a few days during the annual "Aero-space Days in Arizona," held near Tucson.

Arizona A and $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, ΘX and $A \Delta$ enjoyed a very good speaker at an exchange during Religion and Life Week.

Marjorie Chalmers, R.N., To Retire From Health Center!

The resignation of Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers, Health Center Nurse for over 26 years and 1958 Convention Initiate, is announced with sadness and regret. Miz Charmer, as she is known by her young charges, has given a full measure of concern, love and care to countless Gatlinburg children, and her imprint there and in the fraternity will long be remembered.

Is there a Pi Phi, qualified for this position, who would like to make her home at the Settlement School and carry on the Health Center tradition? If you are interested, please contact Mrs. Robert R. Russell, Chairman Settlement School Committee, 6823 Crest Avenue, University City 30, Missouri
