As One Says Farewell . . .

by Sarah Pearson
Alabama Gamma

Seniors from all of our chapters are now departing, taking their places as alumnæ. To put into words what four years of your life has meant to you is difficult because one's feelings include many intangibles. From my first day as a Pi Phi Pledge, I was determined to give the fraternity everything I could for I felt that it could be no better than I as either a dedicated or undedicated member. During my college life, the ideals of Pi Beta Phi strengthened my faith daily enabling me to meet life's many challenges. Of course, each fraternity member feels that hers is the best, but there could be no other organization with more warmth and sisterhood than is found in Pi Phi. There is truly nothing more thrilling than to be a part of a large group of enthusiastic Pi Phis.

The knowledge that we gain about our fraternity as actives will inspire us to live dedicated years as alumnæ. When one stops to think of the foundation upon which our fraternity is based, she cannot help but have a sense of wanting to give her very best. To each sister that I leave as an active I say, use your potential to the fullest. The rewards and blessings to your life will be unmeasurable. Great riches will be yours if you make Pi Beta Phi a part of your life.

News of ARROW Editor Emeritus

Adele Taylor Alford, ARROW Editor Emeritus is recuperating from a recent illness at Point Loma Convalescent Hospital, 3202 Duke Street, San Diego, California 92110. Her health is improving and we know she will appreciate hearing from her many Pi Phi sisters.

off the Arrow hook

Pi Phi's special candlelight and wine and silver blue ceremony, Senior Farewell, will be casting its soft glow, warm feeling and nostalgic aura across many a chapter room as this issue of THE ARROW makes its way into the homes of the sisterhood. We are indebted to Sarah Pearson, Alabama Gamma, a very capable chapter president and dedicated young Pi Phi for our cover and some meaningful thoughts related to this occasion. It was my privilege to meet Sarah and her chapter sisters in a visit to the Auburn University campus last year and I know from that association, that she speaks from experience and conviction as she puts down her thoughts about this milestone moment.

It is heartening to know that the ideals of Pi Beta Phi have been a source of strength to Sarah and so many of her contemporaries as they met the challenges presented by today's campus life. There is a challenge to each of us, who seek to make a contribution to today's youth through our work with the fraternity, to strive to live by those ideals and to help interpret them for our active members in the light of present day needs and demands.

Elsewhere in this magazine, on page 23, alumnae members are asked to "exercise your privilege" as Pi Phi and recommend potential future sisters who will be participating in rush during the coming school year. Hundreds of dollars and untold hours of time could be saved each year, if alumnae members would take the time early to send in blanks or information on deserving young women of their acquaintance to the club or chapter concerned.

With 111 chapters stretched across the land and with an increasing number of rush week participants, advance preparation for that all important activity becomes increasingly necessary—waiting until the last minute to recommend a young woman of our personal acquaintance works an unnecessary hardship on her and the chapter interested in her.

If you are interested in the future of Pi Beta Phi, one of the best ways to "turn over a new leaf" toward that future is to turn now to that section beginning on page 23, that seeks your interest and provides a convenient listing of alumnae recommendations chairmen, active chapter membership chairmen and the rush week dates at the colleges and universities where Pi Beta Phi has chapters.

The printing deadline for the Spring ARROW and completion of the Summer Craft Workshop brochure did not mesh in March and we are late in carrying the details on that workshop in the magazine this year. The information contained on the page facing this one may be of vital interest to a friend or neighbor interested in crafts as a hobby or for use in their work. You are asked to share the work program of the Workshop with these persons and to encourage their interest in this unique and rapidly expanding center for study and training in the field of art and crafts. More complete information is easily obtained by writing for a brochure.

Another volume of THE ARROW is completed with this issue and that brings your editor to her annual expression of appreciation for the cooperation of so many, without whose help the 82nd volume could never have been opened—much less closed.

This has marked the first year for chapter ARROW correspondents and the young ladies who have had this responsibility have given the innovation an auspicious and highly satisfactory beginning. The quality of their contributions has been splendid in most instances and in this issue we have chapter reports on initiates and honors from all but eight of our chapters.

Pi Phi readers are also indebted to alumnae sisters for some outstanding contributions this year. One of these, Miriam Thrall Erickson, provided us with a story in this issue on our distinguished sister, Eugenie Anderson, which I had long hoped we might have.

It has been good to work with each of you who have contributed—and to work for all of you through another year.

—D D S—

Eugenie Anderson

When the Minnesota United Nations Association met in Minneapolis recently to honor Mrs. Eugenie Anderson, Pi Beta Phi was very much in the foreground.

Mrs. Anderson (Helen Eugenie Moore, Iowa Beta) was guest of honor at the Association's reception observing her appointment as United States delegate to the United Nations Trusteeship Council. The event was held in the home of Mrs. Lili Gronna Rice, South Dakota Alpha. During the festivities Mrs. Connie Fegles Adams, Minnesota Alpha, presented Mrs. Anderson with a white orchid in behalf of Pi Phi sorority sisters in the area.

Today Mrs. Anderson refers to "fond recollections of friendships I made at Iowa Beta when I was a student at Simpson College." Two of her nieces, Lydia Sargent Meyer and Barbara Hedin Bayley, are Pi Phis, as are two of her best friends in Minneapolis, Mrs. Orville Freeman and Mrs. Arthur Naftalin, both prominent in the news.

The United Nations appointment continues Mrs. Anderson's long record of public service. She first gained national prominence in 1949, when President Truman appointed her United States Ambassador to Denmark. She thus became the first woman in the history of the United States to attain ambassadorial rank, and embarked on a career which has carried her to positions of responsibility in many parts of the world.

Born in Adair, Iowa, one of five children of a Methodist parson, Mrs. Anderson's early life centered around the typical activities of a small, Midwestern town, and her own intense interest in music. During the years she was completing her education, and during the early years of her marriage, she worked at the pipe-organ and piano, and was specializing in the music of Johann Sebastian Bach. In 1930 she married John Pierce Anderson, an art student she met while studying a year at Carleton College. After a two-year residence in New York City, where Mrs. Anderson studied at the Juilliard Institute of Muscial Art, the couple settled down to life on a 400-acre farm five miles outside of Red Wing, Minnesota. Two children, Johanna and Hans, were born to complete a model of idyllic life in a beautiful natural setting with emphasis on the arts and the best of simple country life.

During a trip to Europe in 1937, Mrs. Anderson saw Hitler's Nazis parading, and felt the first stirrings of what developed to be an enduring sense of public responsibility. By 1944 both children were in school, and Mrs. Anderson had given herself an intensive training in international affairs. She became active in local politics at the precinct level. Five years later she had achieved political distinction in Minnesota, and had developed political ties with three other Minnesotans still active in public life, Hubert Humphrey, Orville Freeman, and Arthur Naftalin.

Those qualities which helped her achieve success in politics have been needed in her later positions. Attractive and poised, her calm demeanor conceals a well-developed streak of determination. Though soft-voiced, she is an eloquent public speaker, and became known early for being quietly but effectively persuasive.

When President Truman appointed her as United States Ambassador to Denmark, family life assumed a new perspective for the Andersons. Artist John Anderson and the children accompanied Mrs. Anderson to Denmark where residence was set up in a villa formerly occupied by the chief of the Gestapo when the Germans overran Denmark in World War II. The United States had purchased it after the war and redecoreated it. One phase of the remodeling of special interest to the Andersons was the plan to convert the air raid shelter into an amusement room for the family.

Mrs. Anderson is remembered in Denmark today as the people's favorite diplomat. She learned the Danish language and made a point of getting out to talk directly to the people, establishing human as well as political contacts. Johanna and Hans attended public school, and the family took up bicycling. The first official party at the embassy after

Mrs. Anderson arrived was for the eighty Danish workmen, and their wives, who had rebuilt the forty room embassy building. This party established proof of "real democracy" in the minds of the Danish people. American journalists visiting Denmark brought back high praise of Mrs. Anderson's work there, and when she resigned in 1953, she left an enviable record behind her.

For the next ten years the Anderson family maintained residence at the farm near Red Wing, and Mrs. Anderson was called on continually to help with state and national problems. At the request of Governor Freeman she served as the Chairman of the Minnesota State Commission for Fair Employment Practices, launching the work of this Commission in such a way as to gain the confidence of all groups in the state. As a member of the Zellerbach commission she toured Iron Country refugee camps in Western Europe in 1957. She was a member of the American delegation to the Atlantic Congress in London in 1959. In 1961 she lectured for seven months in India under the auspices of the Asia Foundation and the Indian Council of World Affairs.

In 1962 Mrs. Anderson became the first woman to hold a top diplomatic post behind the Iron Curtain, when President Kennedy appointed her as United State Minister to Bulgaria.

The move to Bulgaria differed markedly from the earlier move to Denmark. The children were grown and would not accompany Mrs. Anderson. Whereas the Danish people had welcomed the Andersons warmly, the atmosphere in Bulgaria was ticklish to say the least. Bulgaria was a loyal Soviet satellite. During the decade of the 1950's the United States and Bulgaria had not even maintained formal diplomatic relations. The Russian influence was everywhere in Sofia, the 2000 year-old city where the United States Legation is located.

Indominatably, Mrs. Anderson took up the study of the Bulgarian language and set out to reach the people in this country as she had done in her earlier assignment. She made it apparent from the beginning that she intended to do her job with energy and enthusiasm wherever and whenever the Communist regime would permit her to do so. It was also necessary to show that she would stand up resolutely for American interests on every necessary occasion.

In November of 1962 newspapers across the United States carried the story that Mrs. Anderson had walked out of a Soviet reception after Bulgarian President Ganev accused the United States of "piratical action" against Cuba. She insisted on, and received, protection at the United States Embassy during the Cuba quarantine. When the Bulgarian regime found she would not be pushed around, it decided on a more cooperative approach.

On July 4, 1963, Mrs. Anderson scored a triumph by becoming the first Western diplomat to speak on Bulgarian TV, conveying, in the Bulgarian language, "the peaceful and friendly greetings from the American people on the eve of our fourth of July."

By this time every Western diplomat in the Balkans agreed that Eugenie Anderson had been an active and imaginative minister to Bulgaria, who was known and respected by both the Communist leaders and the people.

She could soon list positive achievements, such as expanded cultural exchange between the two countries; growing contacts at many levels between America and Bulgaria, and a three-and-a-half million dollar settlement of a United States property claim against Bulgaria.

Looking homeward late in 1964, Mrs. Anderson resigned her post in Bulgaria and returned to the United States, bringing with her a conviction that the Bulgarian people themselves did have good will, affection, and respect for the people of the United States.

When asked about her impressions of college women formed during her travels in other coun-

Lolita Snell Prouty . . .

1966 Convention Guest

The name Prouty has become synonymous with devoted interest and service in Pi Beta Phi. Thus it is fitting that Lolita Snell Prouty is to be honored as the 1966 Convention Special Guest.

Four generations of Pi Phi in this family began with the initiation of Evalyn Barney Snell into Colorado Alpha in 1885, the first chapter initiate after a charter was granted. Lolita became a Colorado Alpha Pi Phi in 1911 and graduated from the University of Colorado in 1914 with B.A., B.E., and M.A., degrees having completed work on these degrees in four school years and one summer session. She was a Phi Beta Kappa.

Despite her heavy scholastic schedule, she had served her chapter as corresponding secretary and vice president and was quite active on campus. She was a member of Hesperia and Mortar Board, president of the Women's Athletic Association, president of the YWCA and Associate Editor of the Coloradan.

She married her Beta Theta Pi sweetheart, Frank H. Prouty of Denver in 1916 and they will celebrate their 50th anniversary this year. Mr. Prouty is one of Colorado's most distinguished engineers.

The Prouty's have three daughters, Evalyn Hickman, Caroline Shreve and Jane Percella, all members of Colorado Alpha. Now there are three Prouty granddaughters wearing the Arrow. They are Tia and Lyn Hickman, Colorado Gamma and Sara Shreve, Colorado Alpha.

Lolita was a member of the Settlement School Committee from 1941 to 1946. She served as Grand Treasurer from 1945 until 1952, when she assumed the office of Counselor for Chapter House Corporation for four years. She has been a member of the Board of Trustee Funds since 1946.

In 1940, she and her mother and her two older daughters Evalyn and Caroline attended the Pi Beta Phi Convention. She and her three daughters have been in attendance at several conventions since that time and Tia Hickman was with them at Washington in 1962.

This year the honored mother, the daughters and the granddaughters are all looking forward to being in Gatlinburg together.

Asked to comment on the occasion and Pi Beta Phi's role in Gatlinburg, Lolita said, "I feel very proud to have been invited to be the Special Guest of the 1966 Pi Beta Phi Convention, and very humble too, as I realize I represent so many other Pi Phis who have had love and devotion for the Settlement School and given of their time and effort to further the work in the Gatlinburg community. The foremost of these was Amy Onken, and it was through my friendship with her that I first developed my interest in and love for the School and was asked to serve on the Committee.

Pi Phi's accomplishments over the years have been many, not only in the field of education, but in health service and the furthering of the craft program which has helped to furnish a livelihood to many families through the development of their native crafts and the sale of their products to Arrowcraft.

For years Pi Beta Phi was also the center of community life in Gatlinburg, enlarging the horizons of the people and enriching their existence. Our health service and nurse gave invaluable aid not only to the babies and children but to adults as well. In the early days we helped the families on small farms to improve their stock and their farming methods by teaching agriculture in our school and having a model farm for them to work in. Through letting children from outlying districts live in our dormitories, they received financial help and training in gracious living, and because of what we brought to Gatlinburg, its citizens have been able to cope with the influx of tourists, and adapt to modern times. All these services brought enlightenment to an isolated community.

Now times have changed and Sevier County and Gatlinburg have become more prosperous and able to finance their own schools, their health center and their community projects so that we can turn our attention away from these things to emphasize our Craft Program which has gained increasing notice over the years with Arrowcraft articles sold by most of our alumnae clubs, and because of the courses taught in our Summer Workshops to students coming from practically every state. Arrowcraft has become internationally known for the excellence of the articles produced.

Our facilities at Gatlinburg are ideal for the contemplated enlargement of our Arts and Crafts Program to a year-around school so that our philanthropy can be extended beyond the confines of the community and we can visualize having (with the cooperation of the University of Tennessee) a craft school which will grow until it becomes a foremost Craft Center, known everywhere for the training it will be giving to craftsmen coming from all over the country and returning to their local communities to help in rehabilitation hospitals, schools for retarded children, and to teach handicapped people of all ages to help themselves be self supporting and able to lead happier, more normal lives.

What finer goal could we have? And how could we be of better service? Too, we will be doing something in an uncrowded field and something other organizations like ours are not doing.

So, I feel especially honored and proud that Grand Council has asked me to be the Special Guest of this Convention, where the Settlement School is the center of interest and where I hope our active girls and our alumnae will gain a knowledge of services accomplished, foresee what wonderful possibilities there are for the future and be able to carry all this back to the Pi Phis who were not blessed by being present, so that they too, will see the value of our program, give it their full support and be as proud of its accomplishments as it deserves."

Ceramic Wing will honor Mrs. Prouty

Pictured below is an architect's sketch of the new ceramic wing that will be dedicated during the 1966 Convention at Gatlinburg. It joins the structure containing the weaving studio and Evelyn Bishop Lounge.

This building will be known as the Lolita Snell Prouty Ceramic Wing in appreciation of this devoted Pi Phi's service and recognition of the fact that her family members were the original donors to this project.

EUGENIE ANDERSON

tries, Mr. Anderson noted particularly "How much we all have in common—shared human values and hopes for a free and peaceful future." Considering the concern of many college students today with social and political problems, Mrs. Anderson believes "everyone should do the best that he or she can to better human relationships."

Mrs. Anderson's latest post with the United Nations Trusteeship Council has again sent her traveling for her country. Accompanied by her husband, she recently visited Guam and the Pacific Islands Trust Territory with the House Committee on Insular and Territorial affairs. She has set-up residence in New York City, and considers this present assignment an opportunity to work for peace and international co-operation, human equality, and all the fundamental problems that confront our country. She feels "a deep responsibility to represent our country here to 117 member Nations of the United Nations, and to work to help our Trust Territory develop towards self-government and self-determination."

The Encyclopedia Americana lists Mrs. Eugenie Anderson as "an American diplomat." To have achieved this distinction in her lifetime, and to have also developed her particular artistic talents, maintained her role of devoted wife and mother, and continued a world conscience which is still leading her to new areas where help is needed, places Mrs. Anderson in a position equaled by few women in any country, at any time.

Jane Kuhn Pelton

Alice Wiedmer Wuertenbaeher

St. Louis Women of Achievement include Two Pi Phis

Two of the ten St. Louis women tapped by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat as 1965 Women of Achievement are Pi Beta Phi. Included in that elite group were Alice Wiedmer Wuertenbaeher, Missouri Alpha, and Jane Kuhn Pelton, Missouri Beta.

Mrs. Wuertenbaeher was named Woman of Achievement for Civic Responsibility and was cited as one who has shown an interest in community activities since graduation from the University of Missouri. She is currently a member of the board and executive committee of the St. Louis unit of the American Cancer Society and member of the Missouri Board and state publicity committee of the Cancer Society. She is secretary of the board and a volunteer working with patients at the Rehabilitation Center of Greater St. Louis.

She is a member of the Clayton district advisory committee for Family and Children's Service of Greater St. Louis, and serves on the advisory and membership committees of the Friends of City Art Museum. She was chairman of the latter organization two terms.

She has won high praise for her ability to lead major fund raising drives. In 1965 she was vice-chairman of "Extravaganza '65" which raised money for the burn unit at Barnes Hospital. She has been co-chairman of the drive to raise money to enlarge Children's Hospital and served on that hospital's board. She has held offices in both Heart Association and United Fund drives.

Mrs. Wuertenbaeher calls one of her "nicest experiences" that of serving as president of the volunteer bureau for the Social Planning Council, which trained volunteers for all agencies and did the placing of the volunteer workers.

She was described by the Globe-Democrat as one who "has risen from regular volunteer assignments to top leadership positions in most of the organizations for which she has worked."

Mrs. Pelton was chosen Woman of Achievement in Community Service for "decades of service to the community in jobs ranging from two years of volunteer work for the Federal Probation Office to being extremely instrumental in instigating reform at Missouri Hills, the city's institution for delinquent boys."

As an undergraduate student at Washington University she studied architecture and later became one of the first two women to receive her master's degree in architecture there. She won both Sophomore honors and Senior honors at Washington as undergraduate.

Active since 1931 on the Board of the Central Institute for the Deaf, she has served on its scholarship, house, financing and building committees.

During World War II, Mrs. Pelton volunteered with the USO as well as serving as a receptionist at the Officers Club and a Red Cross volunteer.

In 1951 she was appointed to the Board of Children's Guardians of St. Louis and because of her tireless efforts in this capacity, Missouri Hills became a fully accredited member of the National Child Welfare League.

Noting her activities in this capacity, her Woman of Achievement citation stated,

"At the time of her appointment, she discovered unjustifiable conditions and cruelty to the boys. Jane Pelton and another member of the board fought the battle for improvement, enduring criticism from the public and the board. She even supervised 22 boys overnight when one of the cottage supervisors and his wife quit.

She is presently serving on the Auxiliary Board of the Division of Children's Services on the Missouri Hills Committee and in related endeavors is a member of the Advisory Committee for the Northeast District of Family and Children's service.

She is in the St. Louis Wesley House Association, which she has served as vice president three times and is now chairman of the program committee for that community center and for Carver House, which is operated by the Association.

She is a member of Pi Beta Phi's Order of The Golden Arrow.

Pi Phi Dorris Fleck Davis Is . . .

Outstanding Young Woman of St. Louis

Dorris Fleck Davis has been described as "one of those enviable people who always has time to take on another job and do it well." Her generosity of self and enthusiastic and talented service in the area of civic endeavor was recognized recently when she was named this year's Outstanding Young Woman, an annual award presented by the St. Louis Jaycee wives.

The Missouri Pi Beta Phi has been nominated by the St. Louis Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club. She was chosen for the honor by a panel of judges made up of prominent men and women in St. Louis, who based their selection on the service the recipient had given to her community, profession and family.

Dorris reached her present point of honor via Rosati Kain High School in St. Louis, Webster College and Washington University, from which she received a Bachelor's Degree in Retailing in 1951.

She was a member of Missouri Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi and two business school honoraries and was Washington University Homecoming Queen in 1950.

For the past thirteen years she has been married to Stuart A. Davis, real estate broker and they have two sons, Skipper, 12, and Jay, 10. She winds up five years of Cub Scouting this year. In that period she has also found time to be active in school organizations and to lend her support when needed to her husband in his work for two years as president of the Webster Groves Chamber of Commerce and as a Lions Club member.

This year Dorris served as one of three co-chairmen of the Flea Market, which benefits the Missouri Historical Association. She was in charge of moving articles from storage for the three day sale and will oversee personnel and cashiers during the sale. This was a year long job.

While she worked at that task, this indefatigable Pi Phi was also serving as first vice president of the St. Louis Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club and as such had the chairmanship of the Pi Phi Carrousel, which this year included not only a luncheon and sale of gifts and handmade items but a house tour arranged in cooperation with the American Institute of Interior Designers. This event was on May 5 and on May 8, she had to begin supervising the moving of items into place for the Flea Market which opened on May 12.

She has also worked for municipal elections and bond issues and was chairman of a PTA membership drive last year. With her husband she is a charter member of the Webster Groves Ice Skating Association and Parents Association of the Webster Groves Swim Club. Recently she has become a member of the Junior Division of the Women's Association of the St. Louis Symphony Society and also works as a volunteer in the coffee shop at St. Louis Children's Hospital.

Kentucky Beta's New Home

by Ann Pladies, Kentucky Beta

The Kentucky Beta Chapter has recently moved into a new house. Located at the University of Kentucky, Pi Beta Phi has been on this campus for only five years, but from its start, a new house has been the dream of every member. Last fall the dream was realized and became our home.

The outside of the house gives an appearance of grandeur, for it is a large, square brick house with a traditional colonial entrance. There is a sizeable front lawn with a cement walk leading to the door. Inside, the large entrance hall, usually filled with busy girls, reflects the warmth of the entire house. Many times this hall has been used to welcome serenading fraternity men or rushees. This hall is the place where the social aspects of Pi Phi college life begin and end.

The living room is big, but at the same time comfortable and friendly. It is furnished in Eighteenth Century reproductions, and you almost always see people sitting on the couches talking or someone playing the piano. It is the center of activity as well as a gathering place where everyone meets before a chapter function. Hibiscus is the main color of the room and adds to its warmth as does the fireplace. The walls, woodwork, and draperies are the color of rice cloth providing a contrast with the hibiscus. There is a large dining room which seats about fifty girls, and at mealtime, singing can usually be heard as an after dinner relaxation.

An enclosed carpeted stairway from the main hall leads to the girls' rooms upstairs. Forty-four girls live on two floors in two and four girl rooms, each with a different color theme. The rooms reflect the personalities of the girls living in them and are all decorated differently. On the first floor of bedrooms there is also a lounge that can be used as an extra meeting room, for guests, for television, for playing bridge, and various other leisure time activities.

Anything from study halls to parties are held in the all-purpose room in the basement. And sometimes music can be heard during a jam session. This is where meetings are held and many other chapter functions. The basement is not yet finished and we hope to have it wood panelled.

There is much yet to be done, however, for our new home, and the Kentucky Beta's along with their Alumnae Club are getting it done. We are keeping up a shutter fund to eventually get the thirty-seven pairs of shutters for the outside of the house. The Mothers' Club has contributed greatly to the landscaping.

Realizing this dream of a new house took hard work, elimination, and give and take. It took an entire summer of negotiation just to get the lot, another to decide on an architect, and another year for plans. Then, it was one year more to build the house. But we got the three things we were promised at the beginning of it all—a roof instead of a flat-topped building, closet doors (some sorority houses had to eliminate these), and a staircase in the entrance hall so that when a girl got married she could throw her bridal bouquet from it.

Indiana Delta House Gets Three Story Wing—

Indiana Delta Pi Phis have enjoyed the comfort of more space and convenience of several new features since January of this year when a $280,000 three story wing on their house on the Purdue University Campus was completed.

The Journal and Courier, Lafayette daily paper, noted that this wing gave the Pi Phis the distinction of being the first sorority house on campus to have a houseboy's room. It gained that and much more in the well planned and executed building expansion.

The wing, added to the rear of the original house is in Georgian architecture that matches the original design. It was made possible by the purchase of an adjacent lot and this also made thirty-five more parking spaces available.

The new wing includes a dining room, kitchen, and commissary on the first floor; eleven study rooms on the second floor and six study rooms and a large dormitory on the third floor. In case of power failure, the latter area is equipped with standby automatic lighting.

Included in the new basement is the houseboy's room, laundry and storage areas and a new furnace.

The building project included extensive remodeling of the present house to provide new telephone, mail and coat centers near the entrance foyer, where there is also a powder room for guests. A kitchenette was made available for the use of members and the entire house redecorated.

In addition to Lafayette alumnae who worked on the building program, there were an estimated 45 alumnae across the country who served as area chairmen in fund-raising activities.

At Settlement School . . . .

- ... Our roots are deep in craft programs
- ... Since the beginning of Arrowcraft in 1925 we have been conscious of the value of crafts.
- ... Arrowcraft was one of the earliest cottage industries and is a project of which all Pi Phis should be proud.

A Many Faceted Program

Emil Jensen of Lake Worth, Florida, and Jo Hansen of Fort Worth, Texas, work in a 1965 Summer Craft Workshop jewelry class. Jo is a Texas Gamma Pi Phi and was an assistant in 1965. The Craft Workshop program is a many faceted program that appeals to all ages and offers preparation in a wide variety of fields.

Welcome, Delegates

High Praise For Settlement School Program

by Trish Crowley, New Mexico Alpha

As one of the three Pi Phis selected as graduate assistants for the 1965 Craft Workshop, I know that I speak for the other two in my high praise for the entire Settlement School program. What a meaningful experience to participate in what had previously been nothing more to me than rather abstract reports from the Settlement School Committee. The school is staffed by a wonderful group of Pi Phi Alumnae. It was certainly my pleasure to work with one of the finest Pi Phis I have known, Mrs. Maria Tate, Manager of the Arrowcraft Shop, while giving Arrowcraft a somewhat new and modern look. We both worked every evening until after eleven and never did Mrs. Tate complain of the late hour or the fact that she had been working at Arrowcraft since eight that morning. The window of the hanging handwoven purses increased the sales to almost a sell-out. With proposed plans the Arrowcraft Shop will certainly be the most striking and unique shop of the main street.

Pi Phi Craft Workshop was for me a wonderful creative opportunity. With the well supplied labs, excellent instruction, and the beauty of the Smoky Mountains for design inspiration, even the beginner in any of the crafts areas will find Gatlinburg a rewarding and exciting experience.

The graduate credit offered through the University of Tennessee was applied to the graduate work that I am currently doing at the University of New Mexico. My most recent work has been on exhibit at the Southwest Ecclesiastical Show, The World's Fair, the University of New Mexico, The Designer-Craftsmen of New Mexico and in Gatlinburg. Examples of my weaving were included in the "Stichery, Lace and Loom" show in Bloomfield, Michigan in January and February of 1966.

Away from the complexities and daily routine, the Craft Workshop offered an atmosphere of friendliness, including personal touches of daily fresh flowers, Southern cooking specialties and tours of local craftsmen's shops. A delight was the vegetable dyeing course, using age-old methods and common flowers to produce colors unattainable with modern dyes. Who could imagine the delicate color achieved with the Queen Anne's Lace. But the beauty from the simple Marigold surpasses all in its depth of brilliant golds and oranges.

Speaking as a recipient of this fine opportunity to research unexplored areas of Americana I feel that the Fraternity should be commended for its excellent forward thinking in this meaningful experience.

A Dream Fulfilled

by Frank E. Dean

Over the past thirty years, my wife and I spent our spring and fall vacations in Gatlinburg, following with great interest the wonderful work Pi Phi has done, and is doing in stimulating and developing the handicrafts. I, personally, spent countless hours watching and admiring potters at their wheels, wishing I had the time to try my hand. Fate intervened and at the age of fifty-three I was forced into early retirement due to a cardiac condition, after having spent thirty-three years working with a major oil company. Now at long last I did have the time, but could I do it and where could I get instructions?

We had made many friends during our stays in Gatlinburg and after repeated invitations and urging from Mrs. Elizabeth Rue, Ken and Barbara MacDonald and others, I sent in my application for the pottery courses of the 1965 Craft Workshop. I have never spent a more profitable and enjoyable time—not only for the "pots" I have made and will make, but I find it a grand therapy to be able to go into my workshop, grab a ball of clay, spin the wheel and forget the cares of the world.

So, the age-old adage, "Every Cloud has a Silver Lining," has never proven more true for me than when forced into retirement, I turned to my favorite hobby of Flower Arranging, affiliating with a florist, to occupy my time and supplement my greatly reduced income. To be able to make pottery for myself and to find homes for it carrying my flower arrangements, is indeed a wonderful satisfaction. I feel deeply indebted to Pi Phi for making it possible for me to gain a working knowledge of handicrafts and words cannot express my appreciation and praise of the excellent staff. I am anxiously looking forward to the 1966 Craft Workshop—my only regrets—that I did not find the time to take advantage of this golden opportunity years ago.

Albuquerque Scholarship Winner

Cathy Russell, the 1965 winner of the Albuquerque, New Mexico scholarship to the Craft Workshop, has been an art teacher in Alaska and now in New Mexico for the Board of National Missions of the United Presbyterian Church USA. The Church has provided schools in those areas where schools were needed. However, when the State or Federal Government is ready to provide adequate schools in those areas the Board withdraws the mission stations. In the mission school in Sitka, Alaska there were many Eskimos, as well as Aleut and Athapascan (a northern interior Indian) and several Anglo students from logging camps.

In New Mexico it is the Spanish American with the greatest education need. A small tuition is charged those who can pay and each student is required to participate in some aspect of the work program.

As Cathy writes: "Needless to say, my excellent instructors and the many rich experiences at Gatlinburg this past summer have been invaluable to my own instructing this year. The ceramics which my students have produced show both a respect for the clay, as well as a creative experimenting with the media. I hope to have at least two students work on the one table loom. As weaving is not taught at the University of New Mexico, where I have been taking graduate work, the fine instruction I received in weaving at the Craft Workshop further points out the reason this last summer was so important to me.

A Day To Remember

by Louise Kelch Vandivier, Indiana Alpha

It all began in the summer of 1965, Indiana's own First Lady, Josephine Mardis Branigin (Mrs. Roger D.) an Indiana Alpha, graciously offered the use of the Governor's Mansion to the Franklin and Indianapolis Alumnae Clubs for a Pi Phi project of their choosing.

This was a natural for an Arrowcraft Tea and Display. Virginia Brackett Green, a former chairman of the Settlement School Committee and experienced in the ways of teas and Arrowcraft lore, agreed to be the general chairman. Committees from our two clubs began thinking in terms of a thousand guests, but only in a whisper, lest we alarm our hostess.

It was then that our thoughts ran thus—if, happily, our many guests arrived, must we not have a great variety of Arrowcraft to show and sell? So Virginia, always ready to go that extra mile for Pi Phi, drove the Arrowcraft chairman several hundred miles to Gatlinburg. There, aided and encouraged by Maria Tate and Marion Mueller, hundred of articles were selected, from the lowliest pot holder to the brightest afghan, from a tiny copper ashtray to a long cabin broom.

Meetings were held to get ready for the big event on October 27th. Promptly at eleven-thirty on a perfect Pi Phi day guests began coming and never stopped until our hostess closed the doors at four-thirty. Tea, coffee and homemade delicacies were served in the beautiful dining room. Guests visited, had tea, looked and bought, to such an extent that soon we were wishing we had more to show and sell.

It was truly a success—outstanding sales was one sign—but if one wished to look for other values, they were there too, the "intangibles"—the image of Pi Phi that this occasion presented to the public, the opportunity for Pi Phis to work together, the chance to show the success of our own Settlement School.

Good Arrowcraft Year

Arrowcraft has had its biggest year since 1962. Weavers have been working at top speed.

Our appreciation and thanks to all those loyal clubs—both large and small—who had such outstanding Arrowcraft sales. But our apologies for our inability to fill all your special orders for Christmas. It was not only embarrassing to you, but also to us at Arrowcraft.

Please keep up your good work. Remember that the weavers can only do so much, so order as early as possible, anticipating your future needs. We want to be better prepared to supply you with merchandise you need.

Attention—Canadian Pi Phis

A questionnaire has gone out to all Canadian Alumnae Clubs and Chapters asking for an evaluation of the Canadian Project. If you, as an individual Pi Phi, have any concrete suggestions to offer please let your executive know, or write directly to the Chairman of the Canadian Project, Mrs. J. M. Traill, 1736 West 68th Ave., Vancouver 14, B.C.

California Alpha Scholarships

For those who might not know, the California Alpha chapter has been perpetuated by the California Alpha scholarship fund. When the house was sold to Stanford, the money was put into trust with national. From the interest earned on this money, three $340 scholarships a year are given to incoming senior class members in Pi Beta Phi chapters. These scholarships are awarded on the basis of need, fraternity service and loyalty, school activity participation, scholastic record, and future plans for the use of education. Usually the recipient would be forced to drop out of school her senior year if not helped financially.

STUDYING ABROAD—Illinois Beta-Delta chapter is fortunate to have one of its members, Janet Sanford, chosen to study abroad in France in the spring semester. She is attending the University of Poitiers, in Poitiers, France, through the Syracuse University program which is open to only twenty students in the United States. Some of her campus activities include membership in French Club and the Board of Public Relations. Janet was also the recipient of the Lorraine Smith Prize in French her sophomore year. She plans to return to Knox her senior year to complete her studies as a French and Russian language major.

New Honor for Carolyn Kovener of Iowa Alpha

by Miriam Thrall Erickson, Ohio Zeta

Carolyn Ottinger Kovener, past-president of the Minneapolis Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, has been selected to appear in the 1965 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America, on the basis of her achievements and contribution to her family, community, state and nation.

Carolyn was nominated for this honor by Iowa Wesleyan College, where she is remembered as being a campus leader, having served as Student Union President among other activities. Since graduation she has continued to support the college, particularly helping the alumnae office to keep in touch with other alumnae.

Carolyn

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Ottinger of Park Ridge, Illinois, Carolyn now lives in Wayzata, Minnesota. She is married to Ronald R. Kovener, Controller of the American Rehabilitation Foundation in Minneapolis. With their two-year-old daughter, Martha, the Koveners enjoy living in a 65 year-old home fronting on Lake Minnetonka.

A Home Economics major, Carolyn has worked since graduation for Marshall Field Company and Kraft Foods Company in Chicago, and the Pillsbury Company in Minneapolis. At Pillsbury she has helped with the Grand National Bake-Off. She has also done recipe development and testing for several cookbooks, including books for Pillsbury and Kraft.

Members of the Minneapolis Alumnae Club are particularly conscious of Carolyn's friendly smile and complete dedication to whatever task is at hand. Her loyalty to Pi Phi has been constant. In Park Ridge she chartered an alumnae club in 1955. She is presently President of the Twin-Cities Panhellenic Society, having just finished a term as Vice-President.

In her busy schedule she finds time to do volunteer work at Kenny Rehabilitation Institute in physical therapy.

A Member of Jr. Wamso (Women's Association for the Minneapolis Symphony Organization) she is also a member of the Minneapolis Institute of Arts and Walker Art Gallery. Sunday mornings find her helping in the crib room at Wayzata (Congregational) Community Church.

A Pi Phi's Service To Others

by Elaine Brodas, Pennsylvania Gamma

Pennsylvania Epsilon's Joan Bowman is in every sense of the word outstanding. Joan's aim is to "experience as much of college life as possible." She has said, "I want a liberal education with a people-oriented approach."

As president of her chapter, Joan was considered the backbone of the chapter. Her common sense and diplomacy have brought her the respect and confidence of the entire chapter.

At Penn State her search for a full college life led her to many clubs and organizations. Her interests include Liberal Arts Student Council, Fencing Club, Gymnastics Club, AWS Council, AWS Treasurer and finally as AWS President.

In spite of all her activities, Joan has fared well academically. She has all-University average above 3.00 and is a member of Cwens, Chimes, women's hat societies, Alpha Lambda Delta, and Mortar Board, national honorary societies.

Joan is spending the spring term, her last as a Penn State student, in Spain in the University's Study Abroad Program. Then she plans to go to drama school in London to become a character actress. Her choice of a career, she says, was dictated by a want "to share what I think is good with other people."

The essence of learning, conversation, and service to others, have always been most important to Joan. She is a student who does give of herself in a humble way. Joan's outstanding performance as a person, a student and a Pi Phi can be perhaps summed up by her selection to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Louisiana Beta Has a Queen

by Charlotte L. Everett, Louisiana Beta

We can be proud of our Sweethearts, our Darlings and our favorites; but this year Louisiana Beta has a queen. Carol Childress of New Orleans was chosen by Congressman Hebert to reign as the Mardi Gras Queen in Washington D.C. on February 19. The weeks before Mardi Gras were filled with excitement and anticipation for everyone, but Carol remained her usual calm, happy-go-lucky self.

On February 16, the final preparations began. Early that morning Carol met with her court at the Capitol House in Baton Rouge. This was the last relaxing moment they were to have for several days. After this brief meeting, the girls appeared on a local television show, then were whisked off to the governor's mansion for a luncheon with Mrs. McKeithen. With no delay, their pictures were taken and they were off again to New Orleans.

Carol was interviewed that evening by a leading New Orleans paper just prior to a reception given in her honor at the International House. The reception was followed by a banquet where Carol was presented with a key to the city and an award for outstanding citizenship and service by the mayor of New Orleans.

Just a few hours of rest was sufficient for our vivacious queen. She was up at dawn and ready for her flight to Washington. The queen's party arrived at the Sheraton Park Hotel and the Mardi Gras festival began with a reception hosted by Congressman Hebert. Here Carol met with the Governor in an air of excitement and delight. With only a moment to change, the queen was ready for another party given by the Louisiana State Society. A meeting with dignitaries, a mock crowning, and the presentation of a silver goblet filled Carol's evening with unforgettable memories. And then to bed while visions of royalty danced in her head.

Friday began with a tour of the White House, after which the queen and her court were received in the Rose Garden by Mrs. Johnson. Later that morning Carol visited Arlington Cemetery where she placed a wreath on President Kennedy's grave.

Entertained at a luncheon by Congressman Hebert, Carol and her court were presented to many of our national leaders. The whirl of parties would never cease as the evening began with the "King's Party" followed by dinner and dancing to the lovely music of John Gary.

With the sound of trumpets the Presentation Ball began. Carol, in a long dress of mint green crepe, was escorted by an Air Force Cadet to meet her king. This was one evening Carol hoped would never end—but did, all too soon.

How could one girl be so tired, get so full of energy with so little rest. "We never got more than three hours of sleep a night," Carol recalls . . . but who could sleep with so much going on.

Following a lengthy rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Childress gave a champagne party in their daughter's honor. As was the custom of queens, Carol presented her parents with a silver tray, just a small token of her love and affection; and small gifts of thanks to Congressman and Mrs. Hebert. The party closed with a toast to the queen by Governor McKeithen.

The Grand Mardi Gras Ball began at ten o'clock, and the queen was received by her king. The Krewe, masked men in gala Mardi Gras costumes, started the festivities with five call out dances. Trumpets blew as the first Grand March began, led by the kind and Queen Carol, and followed by her court. Guests were received at the royal throne of the king and queen as was the custom in days of old.

All too soon the clock struck one, the King took Carol's hand as the final grand march was called for and the Mardi Gras Ball ended. An early morning breakfast was hosted by the King and a weary Queen retired gratefully.

Sunday was Carol's day to rest and remember all of the exciting events for the past four days. After a brief visit and tour of New York City, the Childresses' returned to New Orleans and Carol to Pi Beta Phi House. Back to the old routine of books, classes, and study. Carol told her sisters that, "This was the most thrilling and rewarding experience I've ever had, which could never have been possible without my mother and father."

Queen Carol Childress

Pat Gronowski

Pat 'Ski' Flies High

"Pat 'Ski'" is a familiar sound heard often around the chapter home of North Dakota Alpha and the campus of the University of North Dakota, and is the alias of Patricia Gronowski, outstanding Pi Phi and college leader. Presently a senior, Pat is majoring in Natural Sciences and has been accepted by the Committee on Admissions of the University of North Dakota Medical School for the fall of 1966. North Dakota Alpha would like its Pi Phi sisters to know more about Pat 'Ski', who lives by the motto: "The surest way not to fail is to determine to succeed."

Last spring Pat was tapped by the Quo Vadis chapter of Mortar Board, senior women's scholarship, leadership, and service honorary, and now serves as its Editor. She was vice-president of the UND Religious Council, and served as External Affairs Chairman for the Newman Parish Council. Active in the Association of Women Students, Pat has been a member of the Governing Board for two years and is presently the budget chairman of the Region II Convention of LAWS, to be held at UND, April third-sixth, 1966.

The University Theatre claims Pat 'Ski' as one of its proteges. In her freshman year she had major roles in She Stoops to Conquer and The Lesson. Pat has portrayed such "lively" characters as Maggie in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof and Martha in Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolfe? Elvira in Blithe Spirit, Angelique in The Imaginary Invalid, and the Queen in Hamlet brought her once again to the stage in her junior year. Presently, she is secretary-treasurer of Dakota Playmakers.

Pat has worked for the student body on Student Relations Committee and served as chairman for the Student Senate "Books for Asian Students" drive. Interested in sorority-fraternity affairs, she was chairman of one of the Greek Week Committees this fall.

But her interest in people has not stopped at the campus boundaries. Pat was a college-community ambassador to Egypt in 1964 on The Experiment in International Living. She speaks of her "baba and yamama" as lovingly as if they were her very own parents. Her Egyptian sister Aziza and her brothers, Monnie, Adel, Sahwky, and Ismail, are 9000 miles away, but you would never know it when you hear Pat enthusiastically and fondly relate her tales (in Arabic, too!).

As a Pi Phi, Pat flies high on the wings of her golden arrow! She was president of her pledge class, assistant pledge trainer, pledge trainer, rush counselor, and is currently ARROW correspondent. In her freshman year she received the Ideal Pledge Award for chapter service, scholarship, leadership, and campus activities. Pat was also the 1964 winner of the Pi Beta Phi Junior Alumnae Group Scholarship.

Locally, Pat was the recipient of the Delta Delta Delta Scholarship and the Mortar Board Outstanding Sophomore Scholarship. She has also received two Elks National Foundation Scholarships. And to climax this busy and full life, Pat was selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT—Kittie Zittel, Washington Gamma is serving as National Spur President this year. She is also a member of Mortar Board and was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Sherry Abel

An "Abel" Ohio Alpha

by Phyllis Yeager, Ohio Alpha

Ohio Alpha, winner of the Balfour Cup, owes its high standing to members such as Sherry Abel. During her four years at Ohio University Sherry has demonstrated outstanding qualities quite equal to her name by excelling in all phases of campus life.

She began her long list of Greek activities as historian of her pledge class. Sherry then went on to become one of Ohio Alpha's outstanding leaders by serving as scholarship chairman and recording secretary. Her steady leadership and enthusiasm has proved quite an asset in committee work also. Sherry has served as chairman of the awards committee, Amy B. Onken Committee, and chapter by-laws committee.

The highlight of Sherry's Greek service came this fall when she was selected "Miss Sorority 1965" of Ohio University. This award is based on popularity, scholastic achievement, activities, and contributions to the Greek system. Sherry, chosen from representatives of thirteen sororities, was crowned along with a Mr. Fraternity.

Not only has Sherry been extremely active in sorority life, but she has also contributed much to campus activities. As a freshman, her winning smile won her the title of "Delta Tau Delta Regatta Queen." Student dormitory counselor, Christmas chairman, and delegate to Mock Political Convention and Mock United Nations are just a few of her campus interests. Sherry also served as Secretarial Director of Center Program Board which is the governing body of the Student Center.

As a senior with a 3.87 average on a 4.0 system, Sherry is indeed an outstanding student. A member of Alpha Lambda Delta (freshman women's honorary), Chimes (sophomore women's honorary), and Mortar Board, Sherry was chosen for membership in Phi Beta Kappa. Her many scholastic honors have not been overlooked, for Ohio University recently nominated Sherry for the Woodrow Wilson and Danforth graduate fellowships.

Besides her experiences at Ohio University, Sherry has had many other opportunities to advance herself culturally. As the daughter of an Air Force colonel, she has had the unique experience of living in twenty-one different places in twenty-one years. She has traveled extensively in Hawaii, the Philippines, and Vietnam, and lived for two years in Bangkok, Thailand. As a result of her travels and scholastic achievement Sherry received a summer internship in the Bureau of Far Eastern Affairs of the United States Department of State.

Because of members such as Sherry Abel, Ohio Alpha can hold its head high. "From ocean to ocean" Ohio Alpha feels there is no finer representative of the high ideals of womanhood in Pi Beta Phi.

Deborah Anderson, West Virginia Alpha was a delegate to the national AWA convention last year and is chairman of the 1967 AWS Convention to be held at the University of West Virginia. She is treasurer of Chimes and campus Leadership Conference secretary.

Cooper Claims Coveted Crowns

It has been said, "Life is measured by the meaning we give it, and some people can crowd more meaning into a single day than others can squeeze out of a whole year." Such a person is Oklahoma Beta's Jeanie Cooper.

Jeanie has been named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She is one of the Ten Outstanding Seniors at Oklahoma State University, and she is Phi Kappa Phi. Why?

Jeanie's grades have been exceptional. She has maintained a 3.9 overall on a 4.0 scale. She has been on the President's Honor Roll for five semesters. She was a member of Orange Quill, Orange and Black Quill and this year was tapped for Mortar Board. As a freshman and sophomore, Jeanie received a drama scholarship. This year she was presented the Theater Guild Scholarship and OSU's own Lew Wentz Scholarship.

Jeanie's beauty and winning smile has led her to the throne. She represented the University as "Miss OSU" in the Miss Oklahoma Pageant, and won the much coveted "Miss Congeniality" title. She is Sigma Tau Engineering Queen, Collegiate FFA Queen, a Varsity Review girl, and as a senior was honored as a Redskin Beauty, a title given to the six most beautiful women at OSU. She was also Varsity Cheerleader for 4 years.

But at OSU, Jeanie is most famous on the stage. As a drama major, she has been an active member of Theater Guild and is now serving as president. Jeanie has been in fourteen Theater Guild productions, starring in seven of them. She was choreographer for the university musical, "My Fair Lady". This year Jeanie's crowning achievement was the "Unsinkable Molly Brown." As Molly, Jeanie was loved because everyone knows that Jeanie is "unsinkable."

Although she has devoted a great deal of time to the University, Jeanie is an ideal Pi Phi. She has been Scholarship Chairman and served on the scholarship committee for two years. She is on Executive council and Alumnae Advisory Board. Jeanie is writer and director during Rush for all chapter skits. And last Spring she was director and choreographer for Oklahoma Beta in the annual Varsity Revue.

Just mention the name Jeanie, and every Oklahoma Beta Pi Phi will grin with pride. For Jeanie is a unique person. She is a friend. She is a true sister in Pi Beta Phi.

Pi Phi Rockette

As summer approaches one Ohio Beta Pi Phi will be somewhat nostalgic about the summer of 1965, but full of plans for the summer to come.

Connie Wilson, Ohio State University co-ed and Ohio Beta Pi Phi spent last summer in New York City—not as a tour guide or worker at the World's Fair, but as a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall. Connie, 5'6" with a perfect figure and fifteen years of dancing experience auditioned and was accepted as a member of the nation's most outstanding dance company.

Connie

Although being a Rockette requires considerable talent, years of experience, and many hours a day rehearsal time culminating in twenty-eight perfect performances a week, it also has its glamorous aspects. Connie met Johnny Carson, Danny Costello, Jerry Lewis, and Joey Bishop and is still receiving scripts from Hollywood movie studios.

At Ohio State Connie has danced in productions of "West Side Story," "Carousel," and "The Music Man," has been a varsity cheerleader for three years, is a finalist in the Miss O.S.U. Pageant, maintains a high academic average in her dual major of drama and English, and is an active Pi Phi.

Although most summers after being a Rockette might seem anti-climactic, this won't be the case for Connie. Instead of returning to the Rockettes, she will be featured dancer at The Sands in Las Vegas.

Pi Phi Angels are First Angel Flighters

by Sally Brown, Oklahoma Alpha

A new honorary organization—Angel Flight—has created a lot of interest and excitement on the University of Oklahoma campus—especially in the Pi Phi house when seven of the thirty new members and three alternates were Pi Phis.

Much thought was given to the selection of the charter members of Angel Flight. Candidates handed in detailed applications stating their previous honors, activities, and their grade point. Then after these were screened, each girl was privately interviewed by a selection committee made up of members of the Arnold Air Society, Staff members of Air Force ROTC and a previously selected Angel Flight Commander.

After the excitement of selection was over, the girls discovered the actual duties of Angel Flight. Each Monday and Wednesday morning, they assemble for drill practice. Next year OU's Angel Flight will participate in competitive drills, in parades, and at football games. Already they have performed a routine in Sooner Scandals, the campus variety show.

Besides drilling, members of Angel Flight are the official hostesses of Oklahoma University; they have helped the Athletic Department at the Big Eight Swim meet, and they plan to sell programs at football games next year.

With all these activities, one wonders how they have time for studies or other activities. Yet the overall grade point is 3.4 and each girl has many outside interests.

No wonder Oklahoma Alpha is proud of its good representation in this society of outstanding university women!

Pi Phi Is Area Little Colonel

Patty O'Mar, Illinois Theta Pi Phi, was selected at the fall area conclave at Purdue as Area Little Colonel of Angel Flight. Angels from Ball State, Butler University, Southern Illinois University, University of Illinois, University of Louisville, University of Tennessee, Evansville College, Indiana University, and Purdue University vied for this honor.

Patty has been outstanding in service to her school and to Pi Phi. She has served as Angel Flight Commander and Drill Team Commander, was voted Outstanding Angel of the Year by the ROTC, and was on the ROTC Queen Court. She has been Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, IFC Panhellenic Queen finalist, Homecoming Princess, and All-Campus Queen Finalist. Her campus honors include Who's Who; Waukapa, a senior honorary; Chimes, a junior honorary; Dean's List; and President of Pi Gamma Mu, a Social Science honorary. She has also been active in the Student Senate, Merri-a-nets, the Bradley drill team, Scout (Newspaper) reporter and the Student Board of Activities, to name only a few. Patty has served Illinois Theta on Executive Board as Scholarship Chairman, and as Program Chairman, Pi Phi Times Reporter, Social Committee, on Pledge Board, in Stunt Shows, and in the All-Fraternity, Sorority singing competition.

OUTSTANDING FRESHMAN—Cindy Hardin, Kansas Alpha was named to this honor in 1965 at the University of Kansas, where she was also a yearbook queen, a member of the AWS Senate and CWENS president.

Pi Phi Rockettes Score

by Barb Bertke, Ohio Epsilon

Although the University of Toledo Basketball Team can only claim the second place in the Mid-American Conference, the University of Toledo Dancing Rockettes can claim an outstanding first place in dancing entertainment. And "first" in our hearts are these four lovely Pi Phis who have led the Rockettes on their road to fame.

Rochelle Saris, who has been with the Rockettes since their formation in 1960, is presently the Co-Captain of the group, and a graduating senior this Spring. Carol Jutkowski, a Sophomore this year, has been with the Rockettes for two years, and was recently elected by the student body as TU's Cover Girl for the entire year. The students vote for the Rockette of their choice at each Basketball game on the cover of each game's program, and our Carol was the choice most often made. Barb Glazier, who is a Junior this year, has been with the Rockettes for her three years of college. Freshman, and pledge, Linda Wright is a new member of the dancing team this year.

The Rockettes, practicing from three to five hours per week, are under the direction of Daryl Jervis Dance Studio in Toledo. They make their performances at both home and away games, on request from the home team, during the half-time.

World-wide fame was showered on the Rockettes when they toured Europe for eight weeks last summer. After the U.S. Government had accepted them for the Special Services for the Army, they "packed up" and "took off" for Southern Germany where they gave performances for the Army, boosting their spirits and moral. Pi Phi's Rochelle Saris, Barb Glazier, and Carol Jutkowski were among those on the tour.

Ohio Epsilon Rockette team members are Linda Wright, Barb Glazier, Rochelle Saris, Co-captain and Carol Jutkowski.

"Trish" Kinsella

Sharpshooting Arrow Girl

Patricia Kinsella, West Virginia Alpha Pi Phi wears an arrow but she handles a rifle with rare talent.

This pre-med student at West Virginia University chose that school because of the reputation of the Mountaineer rifle squad, which this year is seeking its third national title in six years.

Currently she is cited as a "key factor in the Mountaineers drive for top National rating" by the Pittsburgh Press.

A feature story on "Trish" in a January issue of the Press had this to say:

"Her 285 score at Johnson City, Tennessee established a new women's national open record for international competition. She placed second in the Kansas State Invitational, the largest collegiate rifle tournament in the nation.

"The record breaking sophomore tomboy is piling up evidence to support her bid to become the first woman All American since 1961."

"Trish," who now lives in Fort Meade, Maryland, first became interested in shooting while a high school junior at Great Lakes, Michigan. Competing in junior tournaments against some current members of the Mountaineer rifle team led friendships that in turn brought her to West Virginia.

She enrolled as an arts and sciences major as a freshman but has since switched to pre-med. Though she had no qualms about invading a men's sport, she reportedly did have some about the propriety of women doctors until she came to know some of the women in Medical School and changed her mind.

Gronk Race Described

by Pam Miles, Alberta Alpha

The Delta Sigma Phi "Gronk 1," held at the end of January, was open to all fraternities on campus. A team consisted of three cars, each manned by a driver and a navigator, whose job it was to plot and time the course from the maps and rally instructions. The course was regulated by time checks and hidden checkpoints at such places as stop signs.

The major portion of the rally, which began on campus with safety checks, was on country roads which were either very slippery or well drifted over.

The basic principle involved was to drive between checkpoints as close to the given official time as possible; it was not a contest of speed. Each section was separate, with its own official time. In other words, time could not be made up or lost in subsequent sections. Points were deducted for times under or over the official time, for missed checkpoints, and for faulty equipment.

Each car had to report to the finish area in order to keep their team in the competition. The women's competition was separate from the men's.

The participants from Alberta Alpha were Marcia Wright, Kay Atkinson, Brenda Webber, Cathy Jackson, Vi Schadeck, and Pam Miles.

Iowa Betas "adopt" Orphans

by Dana Worley, Iowa Beta

The Iowa Beta chapter has decided to indulge in a helpful project concerning the orphanages in Des Moines. Our plans are to visit an orphanage on a Saturday afternoon and spend a day with the children doing such things as playing party games, reading stories, and entertaining the children with skits and refreshments.

Successful Simpson Greek Week

by Kay White, Iowa Beta

After the hectic period of beginning second semester subsides, Iowa Beta looks forward to the busy, fun filled Greek Week, observed each February on Simpson Caampus.

This year, activities were planned around one central project in which all Greek organizations on campus could participate. During the week, special attention was paid to dress, conduct and a general review of fraternity life.

Thursday night a dinner was planned in which each housing unit sent three members to one of the eight houses on campus. This was a great success for not only did everyone have a good time, but it also proved our capabilities as good hostesses.

On Friday, a blood drive was conducted which was sponsored by the Inter-Fraternity Council and the Panhellenic Board. It received a marvelous turnout where nearly two hundred pints of blood were donated for defense purposes.

Friday night was considered the highlight for the week, for there was held an all Greek slumber party where sororities spent the night at one of the four other houses. The houses were broken down by classes and the Pi Phis played host to all the sophomores. It was a fun evening of singing, skits and getting reacquainted with old friends.

All in all, it was an entertaining and rewarding time, enjoyed by both the Greek and independent organizations on campus.

DUAL QUEEN HONORS—Joan Bennett, South Carolina Alpha, reigned as May Queen in the spring of 1965 and Homecoming Queen in October of that year—earning two of the University of South Carolina's top beauty honors. She is president of Alpha, senior honorary, and a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Attention Alumnae

We need your able assistance and ask that you exercise your privilege as a Pi Phi and recommend that brainy baby sitter, the beauty who moved in next door, the president of the student council from your local high school, or any recent high school graduate you think qualifies as a prospective pledge.

All of you have been through rush. You know how important and necessary a personal Pi Phi recommendation is. You also know what information chapters need and want about the rushees.

Fill out the blank and send it to the Pi Phi listed in this ARROW as the recommendations chairman for the city where the rushee resides. If there is no club listed, send it to the Director of Membership, or send it to the chapter concerned.

Please do it as soon as possible. The Chapters must have this information before their formal rush begins.

(If you prefer to use an official recommendation blank, these may be obtained by writing to Central Office, 112 S. Hanley Road, St. Louis, Missouri 63105. They are one cent each.)

THE PI BETA PHI ART AND CRAFT CENTER WILL WELCOME YOU

In recent issues of the ARROW we have seen how our Centennial Project, a new Art and Craft Center located in Gatlinburg, will be of great value to (1) teachers and students, (2) therapists and volunteers, (3) representatives of other countries and (4) professionals. These are all very important, of course, but just as important is the fact that the new center can also benefit you! There will be many courses offered for the benefit of amateurs—"just plain folks"—who might wish to study for personal enrichment of their leisure time.

To open the Art and Craft Center in 1967, the Pi Beta Phi Centennial Fund needs your donation NOW. Funds are necessary before the Center is opened in order to enlarge the present physical plant, and there will also be additional salaries for teachers, administrators and maintenance force.

Make checks payable to the Centennial Fund and mail to the Central Office, 112 S. Hanley Rd., St. Louis, Mo. 63105
