Minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Grand Council June 19-25, 1970

The annual meeting of the Grand Council was held at the Gatlinburg Motor Inn, Gatlinburg, Tenn., in conjunction with an Officers' Workshop (June 22-24, 1970) and the annual meeting of the Board of Governors of Arrowmont.

The Grand President, Sarahjane Paulson Vanasse, presided over all meetings. All members of the Grand Council were present, as was the Director of Central Office, Sally Perry Schulenburg. The Fraternity attorney, Mr. Harry McDermott, and the chairman of the nominating committee, Shirley Bradshaw, were each present for part of the meeting. The meeting was opened with the ritual.

Winners of Fraternity awards for 1969-70 were selected, based on annual reports and recommendations by the Grand Council.

Annual reports of members of Grand Council, national officers, and national committee chairmen were reviewed. The recommendations they contained were studied and the reports were filed for inclusion in the Information Issue of The Arrow.

By consent, the new name for the Pledge Supervisor will be Vice President of Member Development.

The Grand President announced the names of appointed members to the Resolutions Committee: Eloise Cleveland, chairman, Marian Wing and Jean Karr, all former province presidents. Dorothy Birdwell, chairman, Barbara Killins, and Lynn Fay, former province presidents, were appointed to the Chapter Balloting Committee.

The Grand Vice Presidents of Chapters reported that a tentative schedule has been worked out for the two new traveling Graduate Counselors, Deannie Fulton, Texas Beta, and Sharon Smith, Indiana Zeta.

Grand Vice President of Alumnae announced that Washington, D.C. Club is giving a drinking fountain for the patio to Arrowmont in honor of Marianne Reid Wild, Grand President Emeritus.

Three new awards will be given in the future. The first is the Evelyn Peters Kyle Award for alumnae service. Requirements for this award will be worked out by a committee consisting of Sabra Qua, Eta Alumnae Province President, Aileen Weigan, Tau Alumnae Province President, and Harriet Brown, Mu Alumnae Province President. Two silver Revere bowls, to be known as the Marianne Reid Wild Awards, have been purchased from money left in the D.C. Alpha treasury. One award will be based on cooperation between chapter and alumnae advisory committee, and the other will be based on chapter cooperation with Panhellenic.

Future meetings were discussed. A fall Grand Council meeting in Kansas City, Missouri. A spring Grand Council meeting in San Antonio, Texas to plan the June Convention in San Antonio.

On Sunday evening, June 21st, there was a joint meeting with all officers and the Board of Governors of Arrowmont. The Grand Council session recessed Tuesday, June 23rd, at two-thirty in the afternoon to attend the Arrowmont Dedication in new class room complex.

Following the closing ritual the Grand President adjourned the meeting on June 25th, 1970.

Grand Secretary

INTERIM MEETINGS OF THE GRAND COUNCIL

An interim meeting of the Grand Council was held September 22-25, 1969, at the Clayton Inn in St. Louis, Missouri, in conjunction with an Officers' Workshop.

The Grand President, Sarahjane Paulson Vanasse, presided over all meetings. All members of the Grand Council were present, as was the Executive Director of Central Office, Sally Perry Schulenburg. The meeting was opened with the ritual.

Each member of Grand Council made a report of her work. The Council had conferences with each Director. A review was made of the legislation voted on at the 1969 Convention in June in Pasadena, California. The following committee was appointed to evaluate the two-year trial period on AAC voting on the Chapter Membership Selection Committee: Vernah Gardner (Director of Membership), chairman; Sabra Qua, APP Eta Province; Jo Sudduth, APP Pi South; Myra Reimer, PP Beta Province and Pauline Burns, PP Lambda Province.

The following committees will be appointed later in the year: Extension Research Committee, Nominating Committee, committee to study chapter balloting procedures, and the Resolutions Committee.

The Grand Council voted to investigate making improvements on a building in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, to house the Pi Beta Phi archives.

Future meetings were announced—National Panhellenic Conference in Miami Beach, Florida, in October 1969; National Association of Women Deans and Counselors meeting in March 1970 in Los Angeles, California, and the June 1970 Province Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg.

The meeting was adjourned with the closing ritual on September 25, 1969.

* * *

Interim meetings of the Grand Council were held at the Staff House in Gatlinburg, and the Fontainebleau, Miami Beach, in conjunction with a meeting of the Board of Governors of Arrowmont and the 1969 National Panhellenic Conference meeting.

The Grand President, Sarahjane Paulson Vanasse, presided over the meetings. All members of Grand Council were present. The Executive Director of Central Office, Sally Perry Schulenburg, and The ARROW Editor, Marilyn Simpson Ford, were present in Miami Beach. The meeting was opened with the ritual.

The Grand President reported that Mady Emrich Van Buren, former APP, and Mary Hart, Registration Chairman of the 1969 Convention, had accepted appointments to the Extension Research Committee. Mady Van Buren will be the chairman. Dorothy Birdwell, former Director of AAC, will be chairman of the committee to study chapter balloting procedures.

The Grand Council met with the Board of Governors one day and attended the ceremony to lay the cornerstone of the Pi Beta Phi Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts.

The meeting was adjourned and Grand Council traveled to Miami Beach to attend the National Panhellenic Conference meeting. Meetings were held after hours where reports were made and each chapter was reviewed.

Future meetings were announced—Board of Governors in June 1970 in Gatlinburg, in conjunction with the Province Officers' Workshop. The 1971 meeting of the Board of Governors will be held at the San Antonio, Texas, Convention. The Edgewater meeting to be held at the Washington Hilton, Washington, D.C. on January 15-17, 1970.

The meeting was adjourned with the closing ritual on October 23, 1969.

* * *

An interim meeting of Grand Council was held at The Metropolitan Club, San Francisco, from March 16-20. The Grand President, Sarahjane Paulson Vanasse, presided over all meetings. All members of the Grand Council were present, as was the Executive Director of Central Office. The meeting was opened with the ritual.

It was voted that Pi Beta Phi will have two Traveling Counselors for next year. Grand Council reviewed reports from the directors and province officers and reviewed each chapter.

The result of the blue Dues and Donations Envelopes was reported at $18,700 to that date. Grand Council accepted the resignation of Louise Kemp as Grand Treasurer and accepted the appointment of Orpha Coenen as Grand Treasurer, with Louise Kemp filling the position of Grand Vice President of Chapters (Administrative) for the remainder of the interim. The change will take place after the annual audit.

The local convention officers for the San Antonio Convention were announced: Mesdames Patty Lou Burns Moore, Carol Ann Moore Killian, and Marilyn Allen Cazort.

The 1970 Pi Beta Phi Fellowship of $1,000 was awarded to Patricia West of Tennessee Delta.

Mr. Eliot Nymeyer, administrator of the Pi Beta Phi Insurance Program, with Mr. Milo Bowers and Mr. John Ahlers, met with Council. The company was pleased with the previous mailing and requested that a second letter be sent to club officers.

Plans for the June Province Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg were reviewed. The dedication of Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts will be held Tuesday June 23, 1970.

The meeting was adjourned with the closing ritual on March 19, 1970.

FAY MARTIN GROSS, Grand Secretary

Annual Reports of National Officers

GRAND PRESIDENT

A report by your Grand President, should, of necessity, contain goals and accomplishments. However, in these disturbing times, one would be remiss to omit campus and chapter concerns. In stepping into this not-to-be-imagined position, one only hopes to continue in the ways so wisely established. Yet the wish to improve or simplify operations was one goal and to be a guiding force for our active chapters, at all times, another. It is to be hoped some of these goals have been accomplished.

This officer feels she can proudly point to a number of adjustments that have and will lighten the work of chapter members and officers. A clarification of the alumna status and dispensations was made. The improvement of the IBM lists allowed us to eliminate the requirement of the card file for chapters. The exclusion of at least seven reports or letters expected from chapter officers was instigated.

The services of our Traveling Counselor, Nancy Wright, have proven to be most valuable for more reasons than to meet crises alone. Nancy has assisted individual officers, listened to entire chapters and met their problems with them as one of their peers. The enthusiasm with which the Traveling Counselor has been received has encouraged Grand Council to choose two Traveling Counselors for this coming year, as well as two Graduate Counselors.

An innovation was approved by Grand Council and national officers at the recent Gatlinburg Workshop with a pilot plan for fall—the "I.C. '71 Program"—with a new concept in chapter meetings and programs.

It was with sincere sadness that we lost one chapter this year, D.C. Alpha at George Washington University, but by no means was it because of a lack of cooperation on both our parts. The physical set-up on the campus made it impossible for the chapter to carry on its obligations as an active group, so it was with sincere regret that we accepted the return of their charter. Hopefully, the day will come when they may return to active status again.

Appointments were a part of this officer's duties and members were recruited for the Extension Research Committee, the Resolutions Committee, the Balloting Procedures Committee and members for the Membership Evaluation Committee. It was with regret that Grand Council had to accept the resignations of Marjorie Yale, Alpha Province President; Nancy Pollock, Gamma Province President; Henrietta Jernigan, Delta Province President; Isabel Dautel, Eta Province President; Polly Burns, Lambda Province President; Nancy Smetts, Mu Province President and Vera Starbuck, Sigma Province President.

These positions were filled by the Grand President and we welcome the following officers onto the national officer roster: Anne Zantop Cioffi, Alpha Province President; Carol Hagaman Miller, Gamma Province President; Susan Stevenson Landis, Delta Province President; Nancy Stewart Smetts, Eta Province President; Patricia Shiner Hakes, Lambda Province President; Cynthia Seifert Tousley, Mu Province President; and Lucile Johannessen West, Sigma Province President.

It was with concern for health reasons that Louise Kemp, Grand Treasurer, submitted her resignation in March. After deep consideration Grand Council filled this demanding and administrative position by an exchange of offices, with Orpha Coenen assuming the Grand Treasurer's role in August, after the annual audit. Louise Kemp will fill the term of Grand Vice President of Chapters (Administrative) for the remainder of the biennium.

Grand Council appoints two officers for the Arrowmont Board of Governors at the end of their two year tenure of office so the chairman for 1970-72, Hesperia Aylesworth Henderson, was appointed and the treasurer in training with Olivia Smith Moore for 1970, and then treasurer for 1971-73, will be Geraldine Hall Dalton. Grand Council is sincerely grateful to Betty Yelm Kingman, former chairman, and Olivia Smith Moore, treasurer, for all their dedicated service.

The issues of unanimous ballot, autonomy, and ritual changes were dissonant notes during the year. Our concern with drugs, sensitivity groups with non-qualified leaders, requests for liquor to be served in chapter houses, and unrestricted and unlimited visitations are ever present and must be met with the wise counseling of our officers. When no positive program can be shown by the disruptive, activist groups—those who tend to tear at our tried and tested programs—we can do nothing less than continue in the strength of our one hundred years of experience. We are not smug enough to not be aware of the 'now' generation and we continually work toward understanding their concerns. We feel that sororities offer scholarship incentives, moral values, leadership, and cooperation to campus living and the sense of belonging, and surely, these qualities are applicable to higher education.

Obligations for this officer began in the fall of 1969 with the National Officers' Workshop, held in St. Louis. In October, a Grand Council meeting with the Board of Governors for Arrowmont was held in Gatlinburg, followed by the National Panhellenic Conference meeting in Miami Beach.

In January, the Grand President visited Missouri Alpha and again realized that chapter visits are a most pleasurable part of being a national officer. A social visit with Missouri Beta, while in St. Louis becoming acquainted with our Central Office personnel, was also enjoyed. Attendance at the Edgewater meeting in Washington, D.C. was the culmination of this trip.

Attendance at the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors meeting in Los Angeles in April was followed by the most happy times of attending and speaking at Founders' Day with the Portland, Oregon Alumnae Club and representatives of Oregon Alpha, Beta, Gamma, and Delta in attendance. Then on to Seattle to join with family and friends where your Grand President's Pi Phi service began. The actives from Washington Alpha joined with the alumnae for the occasion.

A return trip to Los Angeles was made most enjoyable by a reception for Pi Phi and Panhellenic friends, held the day preceding the Founders' Day luncheon, which was celebrated also with actives from the California Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, and Zeta chapters.

Joining with the San Jose Alumnae Club and those from surrounding areas culminated this officer's Founders' Day celebrations.

The first year ended in June with the National Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg which also gave all present an opportunity to be a part of the dedication of the Emma Harper Turner classroom building at Arrowmont.

The daily correspondence makes one ever aware of the complexities of our organization, aware of the efficiency of Central Office, aware of the dedication of all officers, aware of the compliance of the active officers, and aware of the concern of administrations. Aside from the many personal letters, this officer has recorded more than 271 letters answered for requests, information or concerns.

To fill the awesome post so capably held by this officer's predecessors has been a challenge not anticipated in this officer's life. To each office a part of the officer's personality is given—a part of her being—so your Grand President can only hope to guide her officers with the best she has to give. My eternal thank-yous to all who have and will help me "on my way."

SARAHJANE PAULSON VANASSE

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF CHAPTERS (ADMINISTRATIVE)

In order to lighten the work loads of both the Grand President and Grand Vice President, the 1969 Convention authorized the election of an additional member to Grand Council; and the offices of two Grand Vice Presidents of Chapters were created. Grand Vice President of Chapters (Administrative) designates the officer who has served as the liaison between Grand Council and the national directors concerned with chapter work. This year and the remainder of the interim of conventions will necessarily be a period of trial and error as the Grand President and Grand Vice Presidents of Chapters determine the specific duties of each office.

This year correspondence with the national directors of Alumnae Advisory Committees, Chapter House Corporations, Chapter Programs, Membership, Pledge Education, Rush, Scholarship and Standards has been extensive as these officers continue to develop programs relevant to today's college campus. The following new procedure manuals revised by national directors passed through this office before being forwarded to Central Office for duplication and distribution to chapter officers: Arrow Correspondent, Pi Phi Times Reporter, House Corporation, House Director, and Chapter Membership Chairman. Projects completed by this officer included revisions of the Chapter President's Manual, Chapter Manual, Uniform House

Rules and House Director's Duties.

Preparing the national officers' chapter visit schedule, a fraternity organizational chart, and serving as the fraternity's contact with Pi Phi Mothers' Clubs were additional responsibilities of this office.

Fraternity travel during the year included journeys to St. Louis for an officers' workshop, the cornerstone laying of Arrowmont's new classroom building in Gatlinburg, the NPC meeting in Miami Beach, Grand Council meeting in San Francisco and visits to South Dakota Alpha, Nebraska Beta and Wisconsin Alpha.

Undoubtedly the greatest satisfactions in serving Pi Beta Phi are the personal contacts with fraternity officers, alumnae, actives, and pledges bound together by an indefinable something called "sisterhood". The opportunity to participate in a Founders' Day cooky-shine with members of Wisconsin Gamma and the Fox River Valley of Wisconsin Alumnae Club was one of the highlights of the year.

My sincere gratitude is extended to each member of Grand Council, the national directors, the Director and staff of Central Office and other fraternity officers for the cooperation, help and understanding shown this officer throughout the year.

ORPHA O'ROURKE COENEN

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF CHAPTERS

Any attempt to make an annual report to the fraternity membership necessitates spotlighting those things of greatest importance. An awareness of the devoted hours accumulated by all Pi Phi officers has been intensified. The wisdom and experience volunteered to our fraternity must be respected. The vibrant response and thoughtful support of Pi Beta Phi by many active chapters must be acknowledged.

As Grand Vice President of Chapters the emphasis of this office has been with the work of the province presidents. From them monthly reports have been received, reviewed and suggestions offered. Always in evidence is the care-full content of these reports.

Another area of responsibility has been the direction of our Traveling Graduate Counselor, Nancy Wright. In scheduling her visits an attempt has been made to bring her assistance to our active chapters at the most propitious times. This year visits have been made to thirty-seven chapters. The success of this relatively new office has resulted in a Grand Council decision to add an additional Traveling Graduate Counselor for the college year of 1970-71.

After a summer of orientation, the year started with a Grand Council meeting and Province Officer's Workshop in St. Louis. Basic training was the theme of this conference since many new officers had joined us at convention. October was filled with a joint meeting of Grand Council with the Arrowmont Board of Governors at Gatlinburg, then on the the National Panhellenic Conference at Miami. Other meetings were a Grand Council meeting in March and the Deans' meeting in April. A broader concept of fraternity resulted from these varied contacts.

Chapter visits were made to New York Alpha, Gamma and Delta, a new section of the country for a northwesterner. What a delight to find the same warmth, spontaneity, inventiveness, combined with questing minds, that we look for in all collegiate Pi Phis. A bonus came at the end of the trip with a luncheon hosted by the Philadelphia Main Line and Delco clubs. Brief times were also spent with Colorado Alpha and Wyoming Alpha.

The provocative newness of this office has been time consuming yet full of intangible rewards. Without the tolerance and perceptive guidance of the other members of Grand Council and without the full cooperation of our twenty-one province presidents, there would have been no accomplishments.

ELIZABETH TURNER ORR

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF ALUMNAE

History is made by those with vision and ideas and the implementation of dreams and ideals. As this year closes it brings with it a continuing realization that it is tomorrow that will power Pi Phi just as it was yesterday that inspired it. It is therefore up to its members to make that tomorrow bright, productive and progressive. To do this requires not only interest but alertness, judiciousness, and continued enthusiasm on the part of the alumnae department.

The problem we have to solve is not that we do not have vision or energy necessary to utilize the wonderful possibilities of our inheritance. The supreme problem we are seeking to solve is how we can best help the present and future generations to become the best possible citizens in society. Confusion, apathy, and uncertainty are the elements that combat us in the world to today.

Oliver Wendell Holmes once remarked, "I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving. We must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it, but we must sail, and not drift nor lie at anchor." The greatest secret of Pi Phi's success is that it has kept sailing, and that its navigators have continually followed the course that has been the wisest, not the most expedient. It then becomes the responsibility of the membership not only to keep sailing but to stay on course, buffeting winds which blow against the principles upon which The Fraternity was founded.

This past year has been a year packed with activity in the alumnae department. Following Convention many new officers took their places in the redistricted organization, which increased the number of alumnae province presidents from 21 to 25.

At present we have 340 alumnae clubs. Greencastle, Indiana, Altus, Oklahoma, Shawnee, Oklahoma and Paris, Texas, relinquished their charters and became Pi Phi Pockets. On January 15 Central Orange County, California, was granted a club charter and on February 19, Fargo, North Dakota, club chartered.

Pi Phi Pockets are serving a dual purpose. Formerly when a club relinquished its charter members tended to become inactive, but a Pocket keeps members not only active but able to sponsor potential members of the The Fraternity, by serving as rush information committee. Okmulgee, Oklahoma, an inactive club for several years, became a Pi Phi Pocket in April. Also welcomed as Pockets are Prince George County, Maryland; Grand Junction, Colorado; Cape Cod-Hyannisport; Waycross, Georgia; Solano County, California; and Orange, Texas. We hope in the months to come to add many more.

The membership of the alumnae department was increased this year due to a valuable suggestion of the Director of Central Office, Mrs. Schulenberg. A mailing of an attractive blue envelope was sent out to the entire alumnae membership, asking that national dues of $3.00 be paid, and if possible that a donation be made to Arrowmont also. In addition to members of alumnae clubs there were 3,013 Pi Phis, who sent in national dues and $12,245.50 was contributed to Settlement School as a result of this mailing. Those who paid dues by mail, yet who lived in an area where there was a club totalled 2,094. Next year the clubs will receive the names of these members and it is hoped that the clubs will be able to increase their active membership by absorbing these people into their organizations. In the area of membership, Walla Walla, Washington, deserves special recognition for having 100% paid membership, 28 out of 28 resident Pi Phis.

As of May 31, 1970 contributions to Settlement School were $29,337.85; Emma Harper Turner Fund, $4,032.25; Holt House $3,103.20; Harriet R. Johnstone, $2,597.00; Junior Group Scholarship Fund $676.50; and Canadian Philanthropies $1,223.56. Dues totalled $55,870.00, an increase of $9,100.00 due to Central mailing. But the amounts contributed by clubs were less. Although Settlement School received $6,911.39 more this year, this represented a decrease from the clubs since more than $12,000 was contributed through the mailing. Holt House decreased by more than $300. Emma Harper Turner was about the same. Harriet R. Johnstone decreased $674., which meant more than the amount of two scholarships. The Junior Scholarship Fund had a slight increase. The record of contributions to national projects was much improved as far as 100% participation was concerned. The amounts to national projects in too many cases failed to equal contributions to local community projects. When money is raised by Pi Phi in the name of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, the national projects deserve the first and greatest support. Local projects are both necessary and commendable but they may receive donations from many community sources, while only members of Pi Beta Phi contribute to Fraternity projects.

The number of interesting and varied yearbooks received was approximately 280. The number of annual club questionnaires was 296 as of June 1, 1970.

Arrowcraft was sold by 188 clubs. Anchorage, Alaska, again "did itself proud" when a membership of 18 had $1,280 in sales, and Lafayette, Louisiana, with 22 members sold $1,959.00.

Active chapters received a great deal of support from the clubs from rush information to parties, gifts, Founders' Day awards and as always, unlimited hours of volunteer service on house corporations and alumnae advisory committees.

Visits to active chapters this year were to Alabama Alpha, Beta and Gamma where true southern hospitality was greatly enjoyed. It was an added pleasure to meet with the newly chartered alumnae club of Auburn-Opelika, Alabama, and with both the day and evening groups of the Birmingham Club.

Attendance at National Panhellenic Conference in October and the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors in April were interesting and stimulating experiences.

It was a treat to accompany Phi Province Alumnae President Maxine Clyde Goldback, to the charter meeting of Central Orange County Alumnae Club in January and the installation luncheon in May. Also in May it was a pleasant privilege to help San Fernando Valley Alumnae Club celebrate its 25th anniversary at a beautiful party.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the Southern California Area Council. "Operation Greek," a Panhellenic venture in February, was participated in by more than 500 active and alumnae Panhellenic members of Southern California. A seminar at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena was conducted under the direction of Pi Phi Caryl Lenahan, Executive Director of "Operation Greek". This was a valuable learning experience for all participants.

As the 77th year of history is added to the record of Pi Beta Phi's alumnae department, we are thankful that we have not drifted nor lain at anchor but that we have maintained a strong and direct course. This would have been impossible without the help of the alumnae officers, the Director of Central Office and the other members of Grand Council to whom grateful appreciation is extended. In our possession are the inspiring memories of our past, the joy and pride of the present and best of all the challenges and prospects of the future. If we face these last two with renewed energy, we will continue to be a vital force in the tomorrow that will power Pi Beta Phi. For "we learn the inner secret of happiness when we learn to direct our inner drive and out attention to something outside ourselves".

EVELYN PETERS KYLE

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF PHILANTHROPIES

In shifting from one area of fraternity service to another, this officer has had a busy if not frantic year broadening her knowledge of the wide scope of Pi Beta Phi philanthropies. It has been cheering and gratifying to promote one of the original aims of our fraternity "to promote the happiness of humanity" through our undeniable history of greatness through good deeds. In each of her 103 years, Pi Beta Phi has expanded her awareness of human needs as well as expanding humanitarian aid to fraternity members and mankind in general. As the following list of current projects testifies The Fraternity has also broadened educational interest in order to relate to a wider segment of society. The reports of the individual chairmen will appear elsewhere in this publication and to them we are grateful for their continued fraternity service.

Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts is far more important than the name implies due to the unique feature which no other craft center offers, that is, college credit which is furnished by the University of Tennessee. Graduate or undergraduate students who attend for credit or non-credit courses are enthusiastic about the high level of instruction. Through the encouragement and revival of native American crafts the curriculum has grown to attract domestic and foreign students whose vocations relate to practically every phase of human need. This year has seen the completion of a fine class room building designed to inspire the best in promoting skills of students. In order to dream for the future, we must build for the future and this has been done at Arrowmont with present facilities adequate for year-round instruction.

The Arrowcraft Shop offers a market for handwoven articles and crafts of many local craftsmen in the Gatlinburg area. In addition to shop sales, Arrowcraft articles are marketed through the alumnae clubs. Besides providing a market for the fine workmanship of these native artisans, this cottage industry provides a livelihood for many residents of the Great Smoky Mountain territory. It is a mistaken idea that those selling Arrowcraft are contributing to the shop profit. The discount given to clubs is offered as an incentive for a lively market, making it possible for clubs to use part of their profit as contributions to Arrowmont.

Holt House, site of the founding of Pi Beta Phi, is the property of and has been restored by The Fraternity. It is used as a social gathering place by the community, local active and alumnae members as well as many Pi Phis who return to enjoy the nostalgic history and memorabilia of early day members.

The Canadian Projects Committee of Pi Beta Phi is responsible for two philanthropies. One is a loan fund providing assistance to deserving students of Canadian schools of social service. The other, the Northwest Libraries Project, supplies books to libraries in the Yukon and Northwest Territories.

The Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund provides confidential financial assistance of outright gifts to needy alumnae members. Age is no respecter of need and it is heartwarming to read letters from young mothers whose load has been lightened by a gift of love—or the sunset years made more comfortable by knowing that someone cares.

The Loan Fund, established in 1910 to aid chapter members, continues to help girls achieve their education. Repayment of the loan is deferred until the recipient leaves college. In 1969, seven such loans were granted.

Fellowship and scholarship grants emphasize the importance our fraternity places on educational achievement. Each year a fellowship for graduate study and scholarships for undergraduate work are awarded to deserving members. In 1969, twenty-one girls were recognized with monetary assistance.

Community and campus concerns are exemplified by the many local philanthropies in which our clubs and chapters engage. Many thousands of dollars and volunteer hours of service are contributed each year giving alumnae and collegiate groups alike an image justifying their existence in concern for others. With many clubs giving local scholarships to Arrowmont it is hoped that the recipients will be a means of tying in a local philanthropy with our national philanthropy—Arrowmont. Although the need for local philanthropies is recognized it is still disconcerting to note the vast amount of money given to unrelated, local charities. Local contributions are possible only through funds raised in the name of Pi Beta Phi, consequently it is difficult to rationalize that national philanthropies should suffer by second best contributions. Only Pi Phis maintain Pi Phi philanthropies and since the membership-at-large voted unanimously to sponsor the Arts and Crafts school we hope that their generosity will better assist this institution.

The corner stone was laid for the new classroom building while Grand Council and Arrowmont Board of Governors met in Gatlinburg in October. The flamboyant fall colors coupled with the hazy splendor of the Smoky Mountains as a background was a fitting symbol for new horizons which the building represents.

Other travels included the National Panhellenic Conference in Miami in October followed by the Holt House Committee meeting in Monmouth in November. It is a joy to be a part of the group charged with the preservation and care of this house. January brought attendance at Edgewater Conference in Washington, D.C., which was a stimulating experience. Grand Council meetings were prime occasions of learning, working and planning in an atmosphere of happy association. Highlights of the year were enjoyable chapter visits to Montana Alpha, Utah Alpha, New Mexico Alpha and sharing Founders' Day with Kansas Beta.

It has been a privilege to serve Pi Beta Phi in the capacity of perpetuating fine philanthropies which serve as living memorials to great Pi Phis of the past. This has been possible only by the confidence and counsel of Grand Council members, former officers and the cooperation of the Executive Secretary of Central Office, national and province officers.

SARAH HOLMES HUNT

GRAND SECRETARY

This officer missed her eighth convention in June 1969, in Pasadena, California. A million thanks to the Grand Secretary pro tem, Helen Boucher Dix, for doing my job.

The Officers' Workshop in September in St. Louis was a highlight for the new school year—meeting all the new officers and finally get the right name and face together. Each officer benefited from this workshop.

Grand Secretary visited West Virginia Gamma on its second birthday, March 2nd, 1970. The chapter is well established and holds a "high-spot" on the Bethany College Campus, in Bethany, West Virginia.

In addition to the duties connected with this office, a visit was made to Florida Gamma, Florida Alpha and Florida Delta—our newest chapter. It is amazing in one year how much the members of Florida Delta have learned about Pi Beta Phi. The chapter has made great progress. A chapter visit is an adventure in friendship.

The Grand Secretary attended a Grand Council interim meeting in October in Gatlinburg and Miami Beach while attending the National Panhellenic Conference. Also, attended interim Grand Council meeting in March in San Francisco.

Another year has come to an end. It has been a year of changes with seven new provinces and many new officers.

To be a Pi Phi is a privilege but to have the opportunity to serve Pi Phi is also a privilege.

FAY MARTIN GROSS

GRAND TREASURER

The routine activities pertinent to the office of the Grand Treasurer have continued through the year on a daily basis. Early in the fall letters were sent to chapter treasurers concerning their duties and responsibilities and to new pledges and parents of pledges explaining their financial responsibilities.

Loans to chapter house corporations administered by the Grand Treasurer now number 42. On May 15, 1970, the total of the unpaid balances on the loans was $970,542.09. New loans were made to Iowa Beta, Nebraska Beta and Massachusetts Beta during the year.

With the approval of Grand Council, all money collected as fines from active chapters was donated to the Settlement School (Arrowmont); that part of the Pi Beta Phi Trust in the Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, which were Settlement School funds was withdrawn and used to help defray the cost of building the new classroom building at Arrowmont. Fraternity funds, on a loan basis, were advanced to cover the cost of completing the building.

Insurance and bonding programs, and the group annuity contract for the benefit of Central Office employees, have been renewed and brought up to date.

Chapter visits were especially rewarding this fiscal year. Ontario Alpha, Ontario Beta and Michigan Beta delighted this officer with their true spirit of Pi Beta Phi and demonstrated that sisterhood in Pi Beta Phi knows no international boundaries.

The financial statement prepared by the auditors for The Fraternity, Ernst & Ernst, Little Rock, Arkansas, is attached hereto as part of this report.

It is my great privilege to pass the duties of Grand Treasurer to Orpha Coenen. Her interest, efficiency and knowledge will be invaluable assets in a position that is absorbing, rewarding and at times overwhelming. My best wishes go with her as she takes on the duties of this office.

I want to express my sincere appreciation to all the dear friends in Pi Beta Phi who have, in every way, showed their confidence, love and loyalty to a grateful officer.

We have examined the financial statements, resulting from cash transactions, of Pi Beta Phi Trust for the year ended June 30, 1970. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We previously made a similar examination of the financial statements for the preceding year.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of investment income, principal, and undistributed income present fairly the assets and principal and undistributed income of Pi Beta Phi Trust at June 30, 1970, resulting from cash transactions, and the income collected and expenses disbursed during the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Grand Council
Pi Beta Phi
El Paso, Texas

We have examined the financial statements, resulting from cash transactions, of Grand Treasurer's Funds—Pi Beta Phi for the year ended June 30, 1970. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records, and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We made a similar examination of the financial statements for the preceding year.

The accompanying statements include only the twenty-five funds having equities in the Grand Treasurer's Funds; other funds of Pi Beta Phi are reported on separately.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statement of income and expenses present fairly the financial position of Grand Treasurer's Funds—Pi Beta Phi at June 30, 1970, resulting from cash transactions, and the income collected and expenses disbursed during the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NATIONAL PANHELLENIC CONFERENCE DELEGATE

In this period of dissent and testing of established values it is with mixed feelings that this annual report is tendered. There is a measure of relief that fewer chapters were confronted with imperative demands for immediate action or compliance on matters beyond the domain of the questioning body, although a certain few chapters still exist under future deadlines or under committees whose authority has been curbed by the administration or governing body. Also, there is a concern for those chapters whose campuses were disrupted by violent dissent, even though the objectives of the dissenters tended to divert attention and pressure away from the operation of the fraternity system.

There are signs of hope for a return to a sane and democratic process. These are: 1) the awakening concern of the majority members of the student body about the actions of the militant minority taken in pursuit of their goals, and the total disregard of the rights and privileges of the many by the few who are preoccupied with their own views and wishes; and 2) the beginning perception of this same majority that, to these radical groups, freedom of speech and freedom to assemble peaceably are freedoms available to the dissenters only; that those who disagree with the views of the militants are to be shouted down or denied the opportunity to meet and to hear other points of view.

It is necessary to remember that, just as the forces causing the present turbulence were building strength and gathering support over many years, just so will it take considerable time for the weight of the student majority to exert the necessary influence and pressure to quell the advocates of violence and direct the legitimate complainants to constructive channels of redress.

Pi Beta Phi's Delegate to the National Panhellenic Conference has a dual role. The first, as indicated by her title, is to represent The Fraternity in all interfraternity matters; the second is to serve The Fraternity as a member of the Grand Council.

As The Fraternity's representative the following meetings were attended: the 1969 Biennial Meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference in October, an interfraternity meeting in January, and the annual convention of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors in April.

The N.P.C. meeting brought appointment to the College Panhellenics Committee with assignment as Area Advisor to the twenty-one college panhellenics in the state of Ohio. This involves correspondence and counseling with college panhellenics ranging in size from four to twenty-one member groups. It is both an interesting and challenging responsibility. The College Panhellenics Committee met two days prior to the NAWDC Convention to combine travel expense and time. When Mrs. Chastang of Kappa Kappa Gamma, the Chairman, was unable to attend due to sudden illness in her family, the substitute to preside whom she requested was Pi Beta Phi's Dorothy Morgan, thus demonstrating once again the esteem and respect which she is regarded among all fraternity leaders.

For several years much interest has been expressed in seeking ways to encourage undergraduate members of the NPC fraternities to hold area Panhellenic workshops geared to Panhellenic needs and goals, in lieu of attendance at intra-league College Panhellenic-Interfraternity Council Conferences where the main stress has been upon societal concerns. When the Ohio State University Panhellenic Association expressed a desire to hold an area workshop, following ideas gleaned from the Undergraduate Session of the October NPC Meeting, it was decided to make this a pilot program. With the enthusiastic cooperation of the Ohio State University Panhellenic, Mrs. Moore, their Panhellenic Advisor, and the guidance of Mrs. Chastang and this officer, Miss Caryl Lenahan, Florida Beta, of "Operation Greek", prepared and presented the pilot program. Invited to send representatives were all chapters and college panhellenics, all alumnae groups and city panhellenics in Ohio, plus all district and national officers residing in the state. The nearly two hundred who attended, despite problems of communication created by a postal strike, were in general agreement that the workshop was a real success. New ideas were presented and discussed, knowledge and techniques were exchanged, and understanding of varying campus situations was developed. Clearing committees for both college and city panhellenics were established for continuing contact and exchange of information. A special committee was established for the purpose of encouraging the formation of new city panhellenics in communities where most NPC fraternities had too few alumnae to maintain clubs. This committee is to work under the direction of the NPC City Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor. It is hoped that this pilot program will provide incentive and guidelines for more such fraternity oriented area workshops over the country.

An official visit to Wyoming Alpha was extended by participation as a consultant to the University of Wyoming Panhellenic Association Workshop. The Workshop of the Findlay (Ohio) College Panhellenic Association was attended in April.

The second role, involving service within the fraternity, required attendance at the fall, spring, and annual meetings of the Grand Council. The fall meeting was planned to incorporate in one trip attendance at the cornerstone laying of the new classroom building of Arrowmont, a meeting with the Arrowmont Board of Governors, and the NPC meeting. The annual meeting preceded the Province Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg, where all officers attended the dedication of the Emma Harper Turner Building of Arrowmont.

Official visits to two chapters, Colorado Gamma and Wyoming Alpha were planned to precede the spring meeting of the Grand Council, once again combining travel expense in one trip. Chapter visits are not only rewarding and stimulating but serve to keep officers abreast of current chapter and campus situations and to preserve the very necessary personal contact with undergraduate members of the fraternity.

Reports received from chapter and city Panhellenic delegates provide data helpful in evaluating programs and procedures. Correspondence with these delegates builds mutual confidence and cooperation as questions on problem arise.

Greeting were sent to seventeen NPC member fraternities meeting in convention this summer. In addition, floral tributes were sent to the two fraternities celebrating their centennial anniversaries this year, Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

This report cannot be concluded without a sincere expression of gratitude to the capable and devoted officers who give so much of their time and energy to furthering the goals and nurturing the ideals of Pi Beta Phi. A very special appreciation must be expressed to the dear friends and fellow officers on the Grand Council who eased the burdens of a very trying and sorrowful year. Each year of service in the fraternity adds immeasurably to the sustaining values of our spiritual heritage and to the enriching friendships, old and new, in Pi Beta Phi.

HELEN BOUCHER DIX

DIRECTOR OF ALUMNÆ ADVISORY COMMITTEES

At the 1969 convention in Pasadena, I was honored to be elected the Director of Alumnae Advisory Committees which also includes the Chairmanship of House Directors. My predecessor, Dorothy Jones Birdwell, had set up a well organized program in this department. I have attempted to follow the direction she had established in this my first year.

Consistent with the wishes expressed at the convention, wherever possible and practical the five and six member alumnae advisory committees have been increased to seven and eight member committees. The effect of this is to decrease the responsibilities of each member, with the result that the work load of the committee is more evenly distributed.

The goals and the directives to these alumnae advisory committees have been as follows:

1. To improve the education in Pi Phi of the alumnae serving on alumnae advisory committees, and to give them guide lines for conduct of affairs with the active chapter.
2. To encourage inter-communication between the alumnae advisory committee and the province officer, active chapter, local alumnae club or clubs and the house corporation.
3. To increase the awareness of the alumnae advisory committee to the duties of their offices, with the campus and chapter situations, and with the need to keep national officers informed as critical situations develop.
4. To stress fraternity secrecy.
5. Emphasize the positive side of fraternity life, and the tremendous potential for growth.
6. To encourage alumnae serving on alumnae advisory committees by making them aware that the national officers recognize the valuable assistance they are giving the fraternity.
7. To stress the importance of the pledge program by interviewing each pledge before initiation, emphasizing her responsibilities to Pi Beta Phi, and assuring her of the benefits to be gained from her active association with The Fraternity in the years to come. This is perhaps the most important task the AAC faces, for by this activity we can develop our future alumnae and thus continue to strengthen our fraternity.

To better understand the relationships of the alumnae advisory committees to the active chapters, and to more fully appreciate the role of the house directors, two questionnaires have been distributed and the results analyzed.

The hundreds of women who are serving on the alumnae advisory committees are to be commended for their dedication and valuable assistance that they are giving to our fraternity system. My sincere appreciation to each and every one who is serving as a member.

Chapter visits were made to Illinois Epsilon, Illinois Zeta, and Illinois Eta. These chapter visits were certainly both a delight, and a revelation. It is easy to forget the vitality of youth and their dedication to both The Fraternity and their educational goals. These visits renewed my faith in our young people. I feel sure that these chapters represent a fairly standard cross section of our undergraduate fraternity. They inspire me to even greater dedication to the tasks assigned to me within the fraternity.

It is an honor and a rewarding experience to serve as Director of Alumnae Advisory Committees for Pi Beta Phi. I sincerely appreciate the help and encouragement I have been given by countless Pi Phis everywhere. My special thanks go to the members of Grand Council, and to our Grand President Sally Vanasse.

MARGARET WALKER HORNING

DIRECTOR OF ALUMNAE PROGRAMS

Many alumnae clubs have had a "303" party this year. We are happy for our Greek sisters, Kappa and Theta, on celebrating their centennial year. In our troubled times, it is rewarding to know we have a sorority system that is more stable and longer lasting than most organizations within the educational institutions. Our longevity shows that we stand for true friendship, excellent scholarship and community service.

As of May 10th, I have received 245 year books or forms.

It seems that more people are reading the program booklets that go to clubs in February and carry the required information for year books and programs. We hope that each incoming program chairman will read this booklet in the spring and keep it on file for reference. Much of the material came from alumnae clubs and have been good programs or projects.

Many clubs have written that they used the Loyalty Day program and quiz that your Director sent the alumnae province presidents and there are many more suggested ones in the February booklet.

Be sure to send to your Director the unusual and best programs, to be considered for the Jessie Moeur French award which will be given at the 1971 convention in San Antonio.

All of our alumnae have a very responsible and important part in Pi Beta Phi. We are actives for four years and we are alumnae the rest of our lives. Each Pi Phi promises to work for The Fraternity and support its projects. Are you supporting the Emma Harper Turner Fund which helps the actives and is also a friendship project, helping needy Pi Phis? Do you contribute to Holt House which is joining the past with the future? Do you contribute to our Canadian project?

In 1964 all Pi Phis were given the opportunity to vote on our Centennial project. Is your club giving substantial financial support to Arrowmont? It would be wonderful and very rewarding if all clubs joined together these next two years and had a project for our Arts and Crafts school. This project is so current and can be so rewarding to all people.

As of May 10, 196 president reports have come to this office.

Everyone has enjoyed the Arrowmont slides and a meeting with the actives is always popular.

Many letters were received and answered throughout the year, asking for help on programs and projects.

Starting last August, a letter from this office went out to remind all clubs about yearbooks and general procedure for the year.

It is always a pleasure to have contact with our alumnae province officers and with Grand Council.

Again we are asking for more alumnae to be active in clubs. Our actives are influenced by the people they work with. We must stand up for what we have experienced to be good. We need to keep Pi Phi strong and worthwhile in order that the coming generation will want to share our fraternity life.

Thank you for your participation. Continue to be aware and see that true facts and information are given. We hope that each Pi Beta Phi lives up to the ideals and principles on which our fraternity was founded.

MYLDRED ALLEN HIGHTOWER

DIRECTOR OF CHAPTER HOUSE CORPORATIONS

The chapters of Pi Beta Phi extend across the United States and Canada. The types of "Pi Phi homes" are as varied as the locations of the chapters. There are the large, medium, and small "live in" houses, lodges, apartments, Panhellenic suites, and rooms. Each type of housing is fundamentally essential to the continuing existence and excellence of the related chapter. Pi Beta Phi alumnae render invaluable service to The Fraternity through their efforts in behalf of the chapter house corporations, whose responsibility is to provide the chapter housing. The magnitude of the service of these alumnae is reflected in the housing figures for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1969. The figures project total assets of $13,846,239.14, with total liabilities of $4,661,187.05, and a total net worth of $9,185,052.09.

The 1969-70 academic year brought an increase in campus tensions and unrest. It was particularly rewarding, during these troubled times, to visit four active chapters of Pi Beta Phi—Iowa Alpha, Nevada Alpha, California Beta and California Gamma. The fine, loyal young women who are active in these chapters expressed a warmth and friendship to this officer that will long be remembered. The Director of Chapter House Corporations was reminded again of the immense value of thinking about truth, honesty, justice, purity, loveliness and things "of good report." How wonderful it would be if each alumna had the opportunity to know these younger Pi Phis who continue to make positive and worthwhile contributions to their respective campuses.

The previous guidance rendered to the chapters by the province presidents must be acknowledged. A special "thanks" to Dorothy Hunter, Pat Swan, and Marian Hild, and to Iowa Alpha, Nevada Alpha, California Beta and California Gamma for their response to the leadership of these officers.

The Director of Chapter House Corporations expresses appreciation to the members of Grand Council for their assistance, to Sally Schulenburg and Central Office (whose help is indispensable), and to Sally Jennings Hunt for her assistance in handling the fire protection affidavits. The third year in this office brings even greater awareness of the contributions of the alumnae, who so faithfully serve The Fraternity in the vital area of housing, and whose dedication makes it possible for the active chapters to continue in the tradition of Pi Beta Phi.

FREDA STAFFORD SCHUYLER

DIRECTOR OF CHAPTER PROGRAMS

My work for the past year has again been concentrated in two areas: chapter programs and fraternity exams for undergraduates. Exam questions are coordinated with required chapter programs to insure more efficiency and less work for all concerned.

Since the primary reasons for fraternity education are to inform the members thoroughly about all phases of Pi Beta Phi and to remind them constantly of significant facts, the topics for the four required Pi Phi Nights were as follows:

Pi Phi Night #1—Report on Convention in Pasadena—gave members a much better understanding of the national scope of The Fraternity.

Pi Phi Night #2—Preservation of the Fraternity System—an open discussion of the fraternity system proved to be a terrific idea for most chapters and proved members like to discuss issues and take a stand on them. The subject matter renewed awareness of the responsibilities of Pi Beta Phi.

Pi Phi Night #3—The "Nitty-gritty" of the Chapter Treasury Dept.—turned out to be one of the most informative and needed.

Pi Phi Night #4—Introducing Grand Council and National Directors—again provided wonder and amazement to many members that national officers are real and normal people.

Enclosures in the fall mailing included a sample Founders' Day program, and the Pi Beta Phi creed by Harriet Brown for Chapter Loyalty Day.

The fraternity exams again were quite simple and included one true and false question concerning the Higher Education Act of 1965. The grades were excellent.

The thought question, which is ungraded, gives undergraduates a chance to express themselves and most supervisors think it is the most important part of the exam. This year the question "Pi Beta Phi membership is a continuing life-long membership. How can that membership be made more meaningful after college?" provided a variety of suggestions. A summary of the answers will be made and will be available to any member interested. Obviously they will be of great interest to the Alumnae Department. Most members expressed a desire and an obligation to continue active participation in The Fraternity after graduation by membership in an alumnae club, by serving on AAC and house corporations, by sending recommendations to chapters, by reading The Arrow, by visiting and contributing financially to Arrowmont and other philanthropies, by attending conventions, forming new clubs and Pi Phi Pockets, and by joining Panhellenic groups.

However, there was criticism by some concerning alumnae being "behind the times" and an urgent need was expressed that alumnae keep informed on current campus trends and be flexible in their thinking by looking towards The Fraternity's future instead of its past glories.

I feel a change should be made in future chapter programming—decreasing the number of required Pi Phi Nights from four to three due to the changing tempo of universities and the varied division of periods making up a school year: semesters, quarters, trimesters, winterims, etc.

My chapter visits this year to the great Northwest were delightful. Washington Alpha, Washington Beta, Washington Gamma and Idaho Alpha proved excellent hostesses and I enjoyed every minute with the undergraduates, the house directors, the AAC, and alumnae members I met.

The nominations by province presidents for the Frances Rosser Brown Award for the best chapter programs have started to come to my attention and make me realize what an inspiring job most program chairmen do.

As this year comes to a close I wish to express my appreciation to Grand Council for their guidance; to Sally Schulenburg and the Central Office staff for their able assistance; and a special thanks to Dorothy Morgan for her inspiration and help. The accomplishments of this department are due in large measure to the efficient and hard working Province Supervisors of FS&E,—to them my deepest thanks.

MADELEINE C. LAFON

DIRECTOR OF MEMBERSHIP

Pi Phi chapters continued to select outstanding young women. As of May 1, 1970, there were 2,948 new pledges. The chapter membership chairmen were efficient and cooperative in their work with the Director of Membership. Many thanks are due them for their many duties and how readily they responded to new legislation. They faithfully followed the procedures as best they could and are responsible for the nearly three thousand new Pi Phis-to-be. It was pleasant too, to work together with Caroline Barrere at Central Office in keeping the membership statistics accurate.

The changes in legislation at Pasadena necessitated immediate work on providing new forms and information to effect these changes. Throughout the year the Director sent general letters and continued to update the calendar and membership materials. She has completed a manual for chapter membership chairmen, which should provide many answers and suggestions.

As chairman of the CMSC study group, this director, in cooperation with her committee, prepared questionnaires which were sent to chapter membership chairmen, AAC membership advisors, alumnae club rush information chairmen, alumnae province presidents and Grand Council members. The two year evaluation will be presented at the next convention. The cooperation and assistance of all has been appreciated.

In the interest of streamlining Pi Phi organization, the transfer and affiliation committee was put under the guidance of the Director of Membership. Many thanks are due Mrs. Arthur, who formerly was in charge of transfers, for her faithful services. Corresponding secretaries will be responding to the Director of Membership once a year hereafter.

After working many years at the chapter level, the Director of Membership has enjoyed her new association with the alumnae department through her work with the alumnae club rush information chairmen. They continue to be dedicated Pi Phis. A new manual will be prepared as soon as possible to assist them in their work. It is hoped the alumnae will try harder than ever to send in rush information. The new cards and ARROW form are available and any additional information is appreciated by the chapter membership chairmen about potential Pi Phis.

The Director of Membership was fortunate to visit the four Oregon chapters in April. Chapter visits are one of the highlights of this officer's service. The girls were charming, delightful hostesses and their appreciation of Pi Phi sisterhood was genuine. Happily, too, the opportunity to meet with other national officers, supervisors, AACs, house corporations, and other alumnae added to the dimensions of the experience. Truly it was a wonderful and worthwhile trip.

As the first year ends, the Director of Membership is grateful for the wonderful young women and officers with whom she has worked. The workshops in St. Louis and Gatlinburg have provided not only a broad education into the many areas of Pi Phi but also the renewing of friendships formed through the year as a Pi Phi officer. Special thanks must be given to the members of Grand Council who have been ever ready to advise and encourage, to Sally Schulenburg and Central Office for their assistance, to the other directors who work so hard, and to Pi Phis everywhere—both active and alumnae—who make the job of Director of Membership worth all the effort.

VERNAH STEWART GARDNER

DIRECTOR OF PLEDGE EDUCATION

The transition from Director of Membership to Director of Pledge Education seemed to follow so naturally that this officer was able to assume the new responsibilities with enthusiasm and intense interest. Pledge programs from one hundred eight chapters were read and evaluated for the annual Centennial Award which is given to the chapter with the best pledge program. This has not been an easy task this year since many chapters submitted creative and imaginative programs, all of which are truly deserving of high recognition. Hopefully we are writing the kind of pledge programs which appeals to the mature college woman of today. This is a program which emphasizes friendship and enjoyment along with the kind of education necessary to become an active member of the chapter.

Local pledge booklets were also read and thoroughly enjoyed. Many of these have been extremely helpful in formulating plans for a new national pledge book to be published next year. Everyone has been aware of a need for a new book. However, until we were certain that the majority of chapters wished to change to a new concept of pledge education, recognizing that pledges were indeed members of the chapter, we were unable to plan a different pledge book.

Chapter visits were made to the chapters of Gamma Province and to Florida Gamma. As always, in the opinion of this officer, these visits are the highlight of the year. This year was certainly no exception. The chapters proved to be stimulating and challenging. The fact that this officer was able to resolve some questions for them and to be a part of their provocative discussions was most rewarding and memorable. It was a privilege to meet the pledges, actives, and alumnae advisors of Maryland Beta, Pennsylvania Beta, Pennsylvania Gamma, Pennsylvania Epsilon, and Florida Gamma. Being the recipient of their warm and wonderful hospitality was sheer pleasure.

My very special thanks must go to all the dedicated pledge supervisors whose intelligence and perception have made it possible to attempt new ideas. Also encouraging and assisting in that field was Caryl Lenahan, a marvelous Pi Phi and presently a consultant with Operation Greek. One final, but most sincere, thank-you is extended to all Pi Phis who are supporting our Fraternity with their time and talents. Without their cooperation and friendship, none of us could function as national officers.

MARY JANE DERRINGER

DIRECTOR OF RUSH

The most rewarding bonus this director received this year was the prevalence of the phrase, "Rush is over and Pi Phi has the best pledge class on campus!" found in reports from rush chairmen from ocean to ocean. A good rush season is the result of cooperation and dedication of the highest order; it is an inspiration to witness the proof of successful endeavors.

This director was also the recipient of letters of introduction from newly elected rush chairmen. The attitude of enthusiasm and thoughtfulness with which they face the duties of their office is convincing proof that Pi Beta Phi and her future are in capable hands—and hearts.

The present trend is toward simplified and more relevant rush. Today's rushee does not want to be merely entertained during rush—she wants to learn the answers to such questions as, "Why go Greek?" and, "Why choose Pi Beta Phi?" To aid our rush chairmen in planning more meaningful rush, this director edited and had circulated the best ideas, skits and songs which she received from our 111 chapters. These are to be found in the winter, spring and summer letters from the Director of Rush and in the Spring '70 Pi Phi Times rush section.

In November the Director of Rush made enjoyable visits to Illinois Alpha, Illinois Beta-Delta and Illinois Theta. A dinner at Holt House given by Monmouth alumnae was one of the highlights of this trip. It is interesting to note the many differences in chapters within a small geographical area; and to note the similarities—the characteristics that bind them together as unmistakably Pi Beta Phi chapters.

It was an honor for this director to have a part in the Candle Lighting Ceremony at Founders' Day celebration hosted by St. Paul Alumnae Club and attended by Minneapolis alumnae and Minnesota Alpha chapter. Seven new initiates, initiated only a few hours before, were introduced, as were the Spring pledges.

My hearty thanks go to all who serve Pi Beta Phi, especially to the members of Grand Council, whose thoughtfulness and guidance are examples of excellence.

CONSTANCE J. ADAMS

DIRECTOR OF SCHOLARSHIP

1969-70 has been an exciting year for the Director of Scholarship as she has seen more and more Pi Beta Phi chapters show how well they are meeting the academic challenges of today. In looking over the records of the past few years, one can see with pleasure and pride the steady improvement which most of our chapters are showing. Pi Beta Phi is proud of the thousands of young women who have done—and are doing—their best to get the most out of their college years.

The grade point average for 106 chapters under or converted to the 4 point system was 2.8267 for the year 1968-69—and improvement over the previous year's 2.7637.

Seven chapters ranked first in scholarship on their campuses for the year:

Iowa Gamma	Ohio Epsilon
Texas Delta	West Virginia Gamma
California Epsilon	New Mexico Alpha
Tennessee Beta

19 chapters ranked first at least one term, and 37 were in the upper third of the NPC groups on their campus. On the ten campuses where rank is not available, surely some of our chapters would have been first as several on these campuses maintained a B-average for the entire year! Our B-average chapters for the entire year 1968-69 were:

Ohio Zeta	Michigan Delta
Texas Delta	Washington Gamma
Ontario Beta	Alberta Alpha
Indiana Delta	Nova Scotia Alpha
Washington Beta	South Dakota Alpha
Ontario Alpha	Michigan Beta

18 chapters reported a B average for at least one term.

86 Pi Phis were elected to Phi Beta Kappa or Phi Kappa Phi with seven tapped for both. 117 were chosen for other scholastic honoraries and 170 were graduated with honors.

It was a great pleasure this year to have the privilege of making chapter visits to Nova Scotia Alpha, Florida Beta, and Georgia Alpha. Working and corresponding with the undergraduates and advisors for these chapters was a particular joy.

1969-70 NATIONAL SCHOLASTIC AWARDS

The Doctor Hazel Rutherford McCuaig Award is presented annually to the Pi Beta Phi chapter having the highest grade on the scholarship portion of the fraternity's Standardization and Survey Report. Washington Gamma is the winner this year with a perfect score of 40. Mention should be made also of the 39 points earned by Nova Scotia Alpha, Michigan Beta, South Dakota Alpha, and Texas Delta.

The Grand Council Scholarship Incentive Award of $50.00 is presented annually to the chapter in the upper third or first category which has shown the greatest improvement over the preceding year. This was awarded this year to Florida Beta.

The Westchester Club Awards is presented each year to the chapter in the lower or last category the preceding year which has made the greatest improvement. Illinois Eta is the winner this year.

The National Scholarship Plaque is presented annually to the chapter which has ranked first on campus for the greatest number of consecutive semesters. This year's winner is Tennessee Beta.

The Adda Prentice Williams Award of $25.00 is presented annually to the chapter scholarship chairman whose program has been most effective in promoting or sustaining strong scholarship within her chapter. Mary Bessette, New Mexico Alpha, and Sigma Province nominee is the winner this year. Other nominees were:

Alpha Province—Julie Cunningham—Massachusetts Beta
Beta Province—Constance Cartier—Vermont Beta
Gamma Province—Jemel Lawless—Pennsylvania Epsilon
Delta Province—Elizabeth Mosier—West Virginia Gamma Epsilon Province—Judy Ferris—Florida Beta Zeta Province—Jan Fleischmann—Michigan Alpha
Eta Province—Susan Abts—Ohio Zeta
Theta Province—Terrie Mahin—Indiana Zeta
Iota Province—Elaine Walton—Tennessee Alpha
Lambda Province—Julie Panke—Wisconsin Gamma Mu Province—Janice Carrell—Illinois Eta
Nu Province—Carol Chapman—Iowa Gamma
Xi Province—Jo Anne Kemper—Missouri Alpha
Omicron Province—Jeanne Finan—Oklahoma Beta
Pi Province—Janet Heineman—Texas Gamma
Rho Province—Donna Marie Kiesling—Montana Alpha Tau Province—Linda Cameron—Washington Gamma Upsilon Province—Vickie Edwards—Oregon Alpha Phi Province—Betsy Eick—California Delta

I wish to express my deep appreciation to the 21 province scholarship supervisors who have corresponded so faithfully and helpfully with the chapter chairmen and me this year. To them, as well as to the equally hard-working and cooperative chapter chairmen, is due much of the credit for Pi Beta Phi's constantly improving scholastic image. I am indebted also to Grand Council (especially to Orpha Coenen) for much patience and good advice, to the province presidents and chapter advisors, and to Sally Schlenburg and her helpful Central Office staff. What wonderful people Pi Phis are to work with!

FRANCES FARRELL ROSS

DIRECTOR OF STANDARDS

At Convention in Pasadena, the active session devoted to standards requested that a policy statement on campus disruption be sent to each chapter for discussion and suggestions. The policy had been presented at this session by the National Standards Committee and since there were some points of disagreement, it was felt that every chapter should have the right to discuss the policy before a decision would be made regarding its adoption as a national policy. This was sent to every chapter in the spring. The answers received to date are varied. Most chapters agree in principle but many have suggested some changes and these will be considered and again discussed at the national officers meeting before any decision concerning its acceptance is reached. One important benefit gained from this procedure was providing the opportunity for every girl in every chapter to think about and voice her opinions on a very timely national issue.

Early in the fall, the Director of Pledge Education suggested that a detailed explanation of our standards and a suggestion for presentation of same be sent to all pledge supervisors. This was sent with the suggestion that ample time for discussion and thought be given so that each pledge could decide for herself whether or not she felt she could live with our high standards. The chapter vice president and alum pledge advisor also assisted in these presentations.

In November, this Director had the privilege of visiting Pennsylvania Epsilon. In March and April more delightful visits were made to Michigan Alpha, Michigan Gamma, and Michigan Delta, thus adding many more valued links to her chain of Pi Phi friends. My visits ended with a visit to Illinois Zeta as guest at Mu Province State Day where I had the great privilege of being once again with the members of Mu Province whom I had known and worked with since they were first pledged.

Some of our immediate areas of concern include increased acceptance and usage of drugs and alcohol; lack of security brought about by absolute abolishment and/or lib-eralization of all rules by most universities regarding hours for women and open visitation; as well as campus unrest in general.

One dean has said that the sororities are rapidly becoming the last stronghold for high standards; although this becomes increasingly difficult in this age of permissiveness, our girls continue to make wise decisions in this area and thus provide themselves with the opportunity for a lifetime of happiness rather than just a one time fling.

ARROW EDITOR

One of the joys of the past year has been the opportunity to meet Pi Phis from all over the United States and Canada during the Pasadena Convention. Collegians and alumnae alike widened this editor's viewpoint of our fraternity, and made her realize even more how important it is to spread the word of the many accomplishments of our fraternity. Thanks to chapter correspondents, alumnae club corresponding secretaries, and interested Pi Phis everywhere, THE ARROW has been able to tell the Pi Phi story. The winter, 1969, issue was the largest we have ever had—172 pages.

The editor's thanks go, as always, to ARROW staff members who ease the burden of time spent. Adele Alford Heink is responsible for editing the many letters from clubs that appear in the winter issue. Marianne Reed Wild, Grand President Emeritus, serves as Exchange Editor, which means that she is constantly on the look-out for interesting items from sorority and fraternity magazines as well as other sources. Mary Elizabeth Lasher Myers continues to serve as book review editor, keeping up with our many Pi Phi authors. Henrietta McCutcheon Huff has been responsible for assigning stories about Arrowmont, so that all may know of the progress of our national philanthropy, as well as personal interest stories about students at the school.

ELIZABETH FRUSHOUR HILL

The editor attended the National Panhellenic Conference in Miami in October, 1969, and has the honor of serving on the Brass Tacks Committee of the National Panhellenic Editors Conference.

And thus we start Volume 87 of The ARROW of Pi Beta Phi, filled with the knowledge that none of it would be possible without the help and good will of Pi Phis everywhere.

MARILYN SIMPSON FORD

SECRETARY OF THE ALUMNÆ DEPARTMENT

The Junior Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi make up an important part of The Fraternity's total organization. Their loyalty, enthusiasm, energy, and inventiveness bring to the alumnae clubs a constantly renewing spark which is much appreciated by Pi Beta Phis of all ages.

This year, progress has been made toward helping this vital, young segment of the Alumnae Department function in an even more rewarding manner. As chairman of the committee to study Junior Groups, this officer presented to the 1969 Convention recommendations for Junior Group policy changes. With a few modifications, these changes were adopted by the Convention. It is anticipated that these changes will be instrumental in creating a closer relationship between the groups and the clubs of which they are a part. It is important to stress that such groups are a part of the club as a whole. For instance, the president of the Junior Groups is the second vice president of the alumnae club. Also, at least one meeting is held with the club as a whole. Furthermore, representation on committees of the entire club is distributed between junior and senior members. It is also important to remember that the revised policies call for a fair distribution of income from dues and projects. Finally, the election of the club's convention delegate is held by the entire club. The delegate can be from either the Junior Group or the Senior Group.

The first Junior Group workshop was held at the 1969 Convention. One request that came out of the workshop was that Juniors be asked to vote on all important club business, especially, such items as the selection of the club's convention delegate and decision concerning philanthropic and ways and means projects for the entire club. It is further recommended that individual votes be counted and combined so that the vote is truly a total club vote.

A manual for Junior Group presidents has been prepared. Included in this manual are the revised policies, some specific suggestions, the calendar for juniors, the duties of Junior Alumnae Group officers, and a helpful section on general Fraternity information.

Also, this is the first year that there has been an annual questionnaire for the Junior Group presidents. These questionnaires reveal a wide range of worthwhile activities. Ways and means projects, assistance for active chapters, local philanthropies, and generous contributions to the Junior Group Scholarship Fund, were mentioned frequently. Many of the activities were carried out in cooperation with the entire club.

The Junior Group Scholarship recipient was selected this year by the Bloomfield, Michigan, Junior Alumnae Group. Each year a different group is appointed to make the selection. The appointment is made on a rotating basis which is determined by the year in which the group first made a contribution to the Junior Alumnae Group Scholarship. The amount of the scholarship is $300.00, which is donated voluntarily each year by the Junior Groups. The selection of the recipient is based on scholarship, financial need, chapter service, and campus activities.

In addition to the rewarding responsibility of working closely with the junior alumnae, this officer has carried out the usual duties of secretary and director. Though, secretarial in nature, they are never routine; rather they are interesting and challenging.

It is an honor, a privilege, and a joy to serve Pi Beta Phi. The love and friendship of the many gracious women who have helped this officer are deeply appreciated.

BETTY ROWTON HOLT

DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The Director of National Archives has completed the compilation of material from the annual reports in the Information Issue of THE ARROW for the year 1968-1969. Additional material will be added during the summer months. This material shall include pictures, articles indicating campus trends, and clippings from the various issues of THE ARROW which indicate alumnae and chapter activities.

This officer recorded the minutes of the National Officers' Workshop which was held in St. Louis in September. She prepared and presented the historical program for the 1969 Convention and prepared a historical exhibit for Convention, also. The 1969 Convention historical program, using the theme of the history of N.P.C. and Pi Phi Rush, was adopted for presentation at the Stillwater City Panhellenic Banquet honoring four groups who observed their fifth year since installation on the Oklahoma State University campus. This program was also presented by the College Panhellenic at their annual Spring Reception.

The Director of National Archives visited Indiana Alpha, Indiana Beta and Indiana Gamma chapters in November where she met many new Pi Phi friends which will always be cherished. In April, she attended Pi Phi State Day in Norman, Oklahoma, and enjoyed seeing and visiting with Oklahoma Pi Phis.

JEAN ORR DONALDSON

DIRECTOR OF CHAPTER HISTORIES

Chapter histories were to be sent to the Director of Chapter Histories on May 15, and this is not a convention year. Normally, we have a few phone calls or letters, as the deadline approaches, explaining delays, but there were many more this year, and all with identical reasons; campus disturbances, school delays and then unexpected examinations. The director really gained an insight into campus disturbances with this first-hand knowledge of wide-spread school disruptions. She was tolerant in granting some extensions, which all of these girls appreciated. However, there has not been complete cooperation, so there will be some chapters who will be fined for failing to give any cooperation this year in compiling and submitting a chapter history. Those chapters which had not fulfilled their responsibility last year, and were fined, were very good in their response this year.

There was an exhibit of some of the chapter histories at the summer officers' workshop in Gatlinburg and then each province president will have her own girls' histories at the province workshop.

Most histories are now well made and follow the prescribed format. Valuable historical information will be gleaned from them for any future supplements to the national history, as many include articles on both fraternity and campus problems. Quite a number of the historians have editorialized on fraternity membership and Pi Beta Phi this year.

The Nita Hill Stark Vase for the best history of 1969-70 is awarded to Virginia Delta, a chapter that has won "Honorable Mention" for its last two histories. Material is attractively presented by historians Janet Holmgren, Elizabeth Cahoon and Linda Holmgren, with the theme, "Wishing for the Wine and Blue! The Historian's Cup goes to Michigan Alpha, for a very neat, interesting book compiled by historian Stephanie Kersten and assistant historian, Vivy Bradbury.

Histories deserving "Honorable Mention," listed alphabetically, are Alabama Gamma, historian Lizzie Stevenson, assistant historian Janet Woodard; California Epsilon, historian Margo McCord, assistant historian Liz Corrin; Connecticut Alpha, historian Sue Shepherd, assistant historian Mary Hastings; Florida Alpha, historian Kay King; Illinois Eta, historian Kathleen O'Mullen, assistant historian Carol Lithgow; Indiana Delta, co-historians Kathy Krypt and Helen Follis; Kansas Alpha, co-historians Connie Cerne and Rebecca Wieland; Missouri Gamma, historian Jan Rose, assistant historian Cinda Edwards; Montana Alpha, historian Jan Walter, assistant historians Martha Macdonald and Judy Weaver; South Dakota Alpha, historian Colleen Schoepp, assistant historian Susan Strand, art, Patricia Fosheim; and Wisconsin Alpha, historian Gail Sticha. Again we notice the wide geographical distribution of these quality histories!

The Director is happy to have had the opportunity to visit Indiana Delta, Indiana Epsilon, and Indiana Zeta. All groups were most hospitable, and we hope that all of us gained by sharing our thoughts on Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. Fontaine, the province president, was very helpful in making visit arrangements, and the visits were concluded by an overnight visit with her, at her home in Greencastle, on the night the astronauts landed on the moon. A memorable occasion all will remember. Mrs. Donaldson, who was to visit the other three Indiana chapters, and this director drove together to the state, separated for individual visits, meeting on this last night, an added pleasure for all.

We appreciate the understanding and assistance of Mrs. Vanasse, our Grand President, and the advise and counsel of our Grand Vice President, Mrs. Coenen, in her work with directors. It is inspiring to work with and learn to know members of Grand Council, and the province officers. We would never succeed in accomplishing much if it were not for the great cooperation of Mrs. Schulenburg and Central Office. This year we are anticipating great things from Sharon Smith, one of our new graduate counsellors whom we met as the president of Indiana Zeta chapter.

ROSE MCCOLLOCK DRESSLER

NATIONAL CONVENTION GUIDE

This first year serving as the National Convention Guide has been one filled with many new activities and lots of new things to learn.

The year started out gathering reports from the 1969 Convention chairmen so that these reports could be forwarded to the retiring officer, Helen Lewis, for her inspection. She then shipped a complete and very thorough file to me in the fall. A study of the contents of the file gave me a much better idea as to what was expected and, of course, answered many questions.

In February I traveled to San Antonio, Texas, the site of the 1971 Convention, and met with the convention manager of the Hilton Palacio del Rio Hotel and with the local convention committee, Patty Lou Moore (Mrs. Richard B.), Chairman; Carol Ann Killian (Mrs. Richard L.), Hospitality; and Marilyn Cazort (Mrs. Robert M.), Registration. What a joy to arrive in San Antonio and find such an enthusiastic and congenial committee and the Southern Hospitality is as exceptional as proclaimed!

Several requests have been received from hotels and clubs across the land wishing to host a convention. Practical and desirable requests have been forwarded to Grand Council for their final decision.

Time is being spent now making arrangements for the Officers' Workshops and dedication of Arrowmont that will be held in Gatlinburg this June.

Looking back for a year, it has been busy but so rewarding. How wonderful the Pi Phi friendships, a few minutes together so often results in a lifetime bond. We are so fortunate to have the dedication of the members of Grand Council, always ready to serve. Our Grand President and our Grand Vice President of Alumnae deserve my very special thanks for the information, assistance, and encouragement they have given this year that has made my office easy and most enjoyable. My report closes with a big thank you to the Director of Central Office. What a pleasant surprise to find that she will do all kinds of work and with a smile.

GERI WHITE KUREK

NATIONAL PUBLIC RELATIONS CHAIRMAN

Appointment of a National Public Relations Chairman by Grand Council at a post-convention meeting in Pasadena on June 28, 1969, officially established a new Pi Beta Phi department of activity.

A twelve-page folder of public relations materials for distribution to national and province officers at the September workshop was prepared by the chairman during the remaining summer months. Included was the following statement of objectives:

To Inform

By gathering all the information available about various aspects of fraternity life and circulating it as needed, in cooperation with the ARROW Editor and the Central Office Director.

By pointing out our many tangible achievements—both to our own members and to the general public—in order to emphasize the value of the fraternity system and the part Pi Phi plays.

To Interpret

Information does not mean the same thing to everyone who receives it. An effort will be made to provide interpretive clues to clarify the intent behind words and actions. Before we can relate successfully to the rest of the community we need to relate successfully to the members of our own organizational family.

To Inspire

The inspirational element is one significant factor that differentiates Pi Beta Phi from other types of social or service organizations. Inspiration comes from many sources. The need is to report and interpret this material in such a way as to show how all of these various elements blend into a harmonious whole.

In order to reach as many members as possible, both active and alumnae, a "Pinpointer" bulletin was designed. Its purpose was stated by the Grand President as follows:

"Pi Beta Phi members are moving with the times. The active are continually being subjected to many 'anti' statements, publications and speeches . . . Therefore, your Grand Council has created the office of National Public Relations Chairman, and we are proud to present her material for your use. It is our hope you will speak out and be prepared to combat any and all who seek to destroy the fraternity system. . . . Use this material with dignity."

"Pinpointer" #1 was distributed to alumnae club presidents in December and to active chapters in their winter mailing. (A ten-page inspirational interpretation of the Pi Beta Phi creed was also distributed to the chapters at this time.) Bulletin #2, pinpointing the philanthropies of all NPC members, was included in the spring mailing to both clubs and chapters.

A letter requesting information from the chapters regarding worthwhile fraternity activities on their campuses was also included in the spring mailing. Alumnae clubs received a questionnaire on which they might recommend outstanding Pi Phis for a proposed Who's Who in Pi Beta Phi. Both chapters and clubs received a sample news release on Arrowmont which had been requested by the Grand President.

In November, 1969, the Public Relations Chairman addressed delegates to the Southern California Area Council. Immediate past presidents of 18 alumnae clubs serve as delegates to this council. The Province President, Alumnae Province President, and Grand Vice President of Alumnae attend whenever their schedules permit. Delegates requested that copies of the talk be mailed to them, and this was done.

The chairman attended an Operations Greek seminar in Pasadena on February 12, 1970.

During the year a number of articles and photographs were submitted to and published by the ARROW Editor. One of the photographs was requested by Fraternity Month magazine for republication in its pages.

The chairman served as Founders' Day Chairman for the Southern California Area Council. At a luncheon attended by 265 actives and alumnae, the principal speakers (as arranged by Program Chairman Helen Knapp Hauser) were the Grand President and the Grand Vice President of Alumnae.

The chairman thanks all of the Pi Phis who have encouraged her in this new venture—from the Grand President to the members of her own clubs and chapters. She appreciates the opportunity to serve Pi Beta Phi in a new capacity.

ELEANOR BUSHNELL LEHNER

TRAVELING GRADUATE COUNSELOR

This year has been an extremely busy and personally rewarding year for me as Pi Beta Phi's Traveling Graduate Counselor. My term of office began at Convention with officer training. At this time I learned much about the scope of The Fraternity and its policies. Training was continued after August 15 at Central Office. At this time I became familiar with Central Office procedures, reviewed chapter accounting, finished reading all officer manuals, and further familiarized myself with fraternity policies.

In addition to attending Convention and visiting Central Office in August, my term also included two other periods of time at Central Office, attendance at the national officers workshop in September and June, and visits to 37 chapters in 16 provinces during eight months of travel. My chapter visits can easily be divided into three major categories: rush, treasurer assistance, and officer training. As a rush adviser I provided technical information and assistance during membership selection and pre-rush meetings and helped the rush chairman organize and complete her duties. I also explained and emphasized the new trends in rushing and the importance of a strong Panhellenic. In the capacity of "Traveling Treasurer" I attempted to solve already existing problems and to teach the treasurer the proper accounting procedures. During my other visits I was primarily concerned with officer training. I tried to make an exchange of useful, new ideas as much a part of the individual officer conferences as checking on procedures and fraternity knowledge. In most cases the officers and chapters as a whole responded well to any help given and especially to new ideas.

I wish to thank Grand Council for the opportunity to be Pi Beta Phi's second Traveling Graduate Counselor this year. I also wish to thank all the fraternity officers, especially Mrs. Orr and Mrs. Schulenburg, for their assistance and friendship. This has been a growing and learning year for me. Because of my experiences I now have a much better understanding of myself and others; my personal beliefs and values are more clearly defined in my mind; I have a deeper and warmer feeling and belief in the objects of Pi Beta Phi. It has been an honor to serve Pi Beta Phi as Traveling Graduate Counselor.

CENTRAL OFFICE REPORT

This has been a busy year for the staff at Central Office. Summer usually is a light time, but the summer of 1969 set some sort of new record for work to be done. With the redistricting of the fraternity, all our files were wrong, and the great majority of fraternity officers had the wrong stationery. A revised Constitution and Statutes was printed, along with a new Policies and Standing Rules. The changes made at Convention also necessitated changes in a number of the forms we use, and the new system of membership selection entailed a number of letters. Other new things in the fall mailing were an Awards Manual, a Treasurer's Manual and a manual for the chapter ARROW Correspondent.

We just barely had the fall mailing out when it was time for the September workshop of national and province officers, held at the Clayton Inn, a block from the office. We enjoyed seeing everyone and meeting the new officers, though our files were somewhat depleted when they left!

In October your Director attended the sessions of the Central Office Executives which were held in conjunction with the National Panhellenic Conference meeting in Miami. It is always helpful to talk with others in the same position with the same tasks, but it was good to get back to the office and settle down to the normal chores of a school year.

The chapter accounting department has had a very good year. Thanks to Mrs. Benjamin Dorlac, Financial Director, this area of our work becomes more efficient every year. The turn-around time for a treasurer's report from the time it was received here, through audit by our chapter accounting clerks and running by our IBM service bureau, until it was returned to the treasurer, was a little over six working days on the average. Those reports which came in early and which were in good shape often took only three or four working days.

Bette Melliere, our bookkeeper, has spent the year receipting checks received for dues and contributions, plus those sent in response to bills to chapters and clubs for supplies and services. February has never been a particularly busy month for her department, but it certainly was this year. The response to the first general mailing sent all Pi Phis in the United States asking for national alumnae dues and contributions to Arrowmont was beyond anyone's expectations. There were days in February and early March when we had six or seven boxes in the safe waiting to be processed. We finally got all the checks receipted and acknowledged, and we want to thank everyone who participated. We closed the books at the end of May and were very pleased with the results. 1,435 people contributed $12,245.50 to Arrowmont, and 3,013 Pi Phis paid $3.00 national alumnae dues as a result of the mailing. It was a surprise that 2,094 of these lived in areas where there is a club, because we had felt that this was mainly an opportunity to pay alumnae dues for those people who live where there is no club. Lists were sent to each club president of those people in her club's area who paid national alumnae dues through the general mailing, and we hope that many of those Pi Phis, when they receive the mailing next year, will already have paid dues through their local club.

Our membership and jewelry departments have also been busy during the year, handling about 1,000 name and/or address changes each month, plus all the new initiates, 2,668 this year. Each one received a membership certificate, and her jewelry order was processed here. At various times during the year we have sent out IBM membership lists to chapters and clubs. The club lists went out early in June, and it is our hope that more clubs will return corrected lists to us than have done so in the past. This year, any time a club tells us that a name we have does not live at that address, we will delete the address from our records. In the past obsolete addresses have appeared over and over because we had no definite information—and we hope that this change will take care of that.

Needless to say, there has been work for our supply and printing departments, too. A new Guide for Constitutional Reading to Candidates for Initiation, Pi Phi Times Correspondent Manual, Chapter House Corporation Manual, Activity Chairman Manual, Censors' Manual and a new manual for the Chapter Membership Chairman were sent out. Throughout the year letters and questionnaires were sent out as directed by national officers, along with keeping up with the supply orders of chapters, clubs and individuals. In the spring it is particularly hard to keep Rush Information Forms in stock—and there have been weeks when 2,000 of these printed on a Monday were not enough to last the week. It is sometimes hard to believe that a small office like this can put out as much paper as we do, but our postage bill is proof!

Aside from her supervision of the office, the Director attended the spring Grand Council meeting in San Francisco, and the Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg in June. These meetings always turn out to be learning experiences, and she is grateful for the opportunity to attend them.

The entire year has been a rewarding one, and she wishes to thank all the members and officers of The Fraternity for their cooperation and help.

MAGAZINE AGENCY

Below is our annual report of commissions earned for the year 1969-70.

California Epsilon advanced from second to first place this year in highest total commissions for chapters with the help of their magazine chairman, Laurie Peterson. Ginger Van Hoose's efforts won top honors for Mississippi Alpha in highest dollar increase.

The St. Louis, Missouri, club, with Mrs. Joseph Charleville as chairman, again topped all others for the highest total commissions. Highest dollar increase went to the Houston, Texas, club. The chairman, Mrs. W. J. Letts, also won second prize in our contest last fall.

We had just one contest last year, and the prizes went directly to the magazine chairmen. Mississippi Alpha and California Epsilon won first and second respectively for the chapters, and St. Louis and Houston were first and second among the clubs. Their chairmen won new suitcases.

We will again hold one contest next year, in the fall, so that we may offer better prizes—and we hope that everyone will participate.

Magazine Agency sales have been disappointing. We know that in this computerized age it is sometimes a little faster to buy a magazine directly from the publisher. On the other hand, we all know ahead when renewals are coming up—and this is such a painless way to contribute to our major philanthropy, Arrowmont. All profits from the Magazine Agency go to Arrowmont.

Will every magazine chairman try to get more orders—both new and renewals—this year? Arrowmont needs our help, and we need your help so that the agency will be able to continue its service to Pi Phi.

Pi Beta Phi Settlement School

CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF GOVERNORS, ARROWMONT

A new Grand Vice President of Philanthropies, Sarah Hunt, (Mrs. Harold B.) met with us at our second conference of the Board of Governors, on October 16-19, 1969, in Gatlinburg, Tenn. She has special talents which will be of value to our meetings. The series of meetings were extraordinary this year, because we had the privilege of being with Grand Council part of the time. Its members planned their fall meeting to coincide with ours. There were serious working moments and fun moments, but most of all a sense of excellent ideas being communicated, to build, to promote and to enjoy being a part of the unique adventure of launching our school. And launch it we did, with a Cornerstone Laying in the crisp and sunny morning of October 18, standing in the roofless concrete second floor level court, Grand Council in shiny hard hats, to wield mortar with a trowel, to seal in the engraved cornerstone with accompaniment of prayers of thanksgiving and hope. The articles which were placed in the cornerstone were as follows:

- History of Settlement School
- Settlement School publicity pamphlets
- Whig Rose Book Mark
- 1969 Arrowcraft Catalogue and Arrowcraft Pamphlet
- 1969 Summer Craft Workshop Brochure
- The new Arrowmont Brochure
- Dean Odland's 10th Annual Letter to Alumnae and Friends
- A copy of the booklet "These Shining Things" compiled by Evelyn Peters Kyle.
- A copy of the booklet "They Stand Tall" compiled by Marianne Reid Wild and Ruth Williams Hanson. This is a biography of May L. Keller and Amy B. Onken
- Pages from the Information Arrow (1969) giving:
 - Grand Council Members
 - Board of Governors Members
 - Staff of Settlement School—Arrowmont
 - Annual Report of Chairman, Elizabeth Y. Kingman
 - Annual Report of Executive Coordinator, Lucile Woodworth

The meetings of Grand Council and the Board of Governors continued jointly and separately as pre-arranged. A bonus was the preview of the Southern Highland Guild exhibits in the town auditorium on our last night.

The committee work of the Board of Governors is mainly in the areas of communication and funding—making the concept and work of Arrowmont understood, accepted, and inspiring. This is still an uphill job, of course, because of the need to replace the old idea of the grade school with the new idea of our unique Craft School. So, at present, our committees are as follows: Academic, Communication with Actives and Alumnae both in Canada and the U.S., Consultants, Cookbook sales, Objectives of the school, Personnel, Policies of the Governors. Program and Promotion, Property Advisory, Public Relations, Scholarships, Slide Programs, Ways and Means, and special gifts in the name of individuals or clubs. The committee work will increase and change as we progress in understanding our role and in attracting the interest of The Fraternity at large.

The members of Grand Council have given wise advice at all times when asked. We are grateful for their viewpoints and support. We all appreciated, too, the individual meetings and rapport engendered.

We feel fortunate to have as Executive Coordinator a dedicated Pi Phi, Lucile Woodworth. She has great ability in administration (staff, buildings, grounds), in merchandising (Arrowcraft Shop stocking and sales), and in public relations (she tries to be available to visit with all tourists from afar, and she keeps in touch with many alumnae). She is civic-minded and is helping to foster a fine relationship between Gatlinburg and the Settlement School. Through her training and guidance the members of the very small staff are able to take on other tasks that arise with the growth of the number of visitors.

Professor Marian Heard continues to be the valuable and respected academic director and craftsman that she has always been. The 24 years of successful Summer Workshops on Pi Phi Hill attest to her stature and popularity in the craft world. We have a fine team in Lucile & Marian, working in accord. But their success and the projection for the future means that additional staff must be obtained very soon to maintain the momentum of the initial phase.

Do I need to remind all Pi Phis that 1970 is our year of important "firsts"? We expect to inaugurate the school on a year round basis, so we shall have to have winter staffing for the first time. We shall have to prove that we can support the challenge of this unique complex in Gatlinburg. It is an idea which has been long evolving through dedicated Pi Phis with vision, and it has been kept alive by faith, hard work and generosity. It can flower into significance if it is backed by the same Pi Phi attitudes of optimism and purposeful giving, expressed with increased awareness. Because it fosters some of the most positive thinking and activity in the United States, who can predict where its influence will stop? Arrowmont is Pi Phi implementing itself in education and creativity. The training of the mind, eye, and the hand generates beauty and satisfaction.

Thank you all for your continued and increasing philanthropic donations for Arrowmont to obtain its high goal. "A Pi Phi is an angel in disguise."

ELIZABETH YELM KINGMAN

EXECUTIVE COORDINATOR, ARROWMONT AND ARROWCRAFT

ARROWMONT SCHOOL OF ARTS AND CRAFTS—Beautiful new Arrowmont is completed. The donations you have made and the shingles you have bought have helped get the Centennial program underway. We have just started the new year-round program but 25 years of experience in this field and a reputation for excellence in arts and crafts will promote our growth and the results will reach into every community of our country.

This past year a slide program was made available for all of you and we hope this coming year that new slides showing our modern facilities in use will be viewed by every club and chapter. The Summer Workshops were doubled in length with outstanding teachers from many sections of our country participating. We would like for more

Pi Phis to attend as students so they can better appreciate the work accomplished here and become ambassadors for Arrowmont . . . spreading the word as we will continue to need help in obtaining additional housing and other facilities.

The Southern Highland Guild held their annual meeting at Arrowmont in April 1970. Each member was deeply impressed with our new building complex. Professor Marian Heard, Director of Arrowmont, was made a Life Member of the Guild. Her efforts and our affiliation with the University of Tennessee have been most instrumental in the progress we are making. It has been said that if in 1912 the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School had been programmed for the future, Arrowmont would have been the answer.

We can be truly proud of the support that every Pi Phi has given to our philanthropy through the past 58 years and now through the years to come.

ARROWCRAFT SHOP—Your Arrowcraft Shop has had its face lifted! Working conditions have been improved with additional shipping areas and enlarged storage space. The sales room was also updated. All this should make for more efficient operations.

This past year was a banner year as clubs and chapters continued to hold those wonderful Settlement School sales. Visitors flocked to the door of Arrowcraft since it is recognized as the outstanding craft shop in the area. Our weaving is a big drawing card and the 62 weavers who weave for us are kept busy. It is hard to realize that over 20,000 Tote Bags and 15,000 Daisy Chain Mats were woven and sold this past year and that this is just a part of our weavers' production. In addition, we keep 70 other craftsmen busy producing other crafts. Pi Phi truly contributes to the craft economy of the Southern Highlands.

With the constantly growing interest in crafts all over the country, Arrowcraft is called upon for numerous exhibits. One was the Cooperative Craft Exhibit held by the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, D.C. in October 1969. Arrowcraft was also honored with a request to vegetable dye yarn and weave material for a sofa at Gunston Hall in Lorton, Virginia, the historic home of George Mason. The original material was faded and worn and we successfully duplicated it. These are just two of our extra curricular activities of participation in the Craft World.

In closing, I want to say that the work involved at Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts and the Arrowcraft Shop is handled by a very able staff—management, supervisory, clerical and maintenance. It is their devotion and dedication to their responsibilities that deserve praise from all of us.

LUCILE McCUTCHAN WOODWORTH

LITTLE PIGEON AWARDS June 1970

Total contributions to Arrowmont was $44,930.99. This includes contributions by active chapters and alumnae clubs, the fund for shingles, special individual gifts, and donations sent to Central Office as a result of the blue envelope mailing.

77 chapters gave $4510.14.

$920. of this was for shingles.

328 alumnae clubs gave $25,517.25.

$5,708. of this was for shingles.

Various individuals contributed $14,560.00. $1260 of this was for shingles and $12,283 came as a result of the Central Office blue envelope mailing.

Quiet Pigeons are awarded to the province officers whose clubs or chapters have contributed 100% to Arrowmont. This year they are awarded to the following province presidents:

Kappa, Xi, Omicron, Rho, and Tau

Thirteen alumnae province presidents are awarded Quiet Pigeons: Alpha, Beta Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, Theta, Lambda, Xi, Pi North, Pi South, Sigma, Tau, Phi North.

Xi and Tau are the only two provinces with both clubs and chapters 100%.

Soaring Pigeons are awarded for the largest contributions by chapters, and by clubs according to size categories. Texas Gamma was the largest contributor again this year and Alabama Beta was second and both receive Little Pigeons. Honorable Mention goes to Washington Gamma. There were fourteen other chapters who gave over $100.00.

Alumnae Clubs in the 10 to 25 size of membership making the highest contributions:

AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 PI BETA PHI SETTLEMENT SCHOOL
 GATLINBURG, TENNESSEE

May 31, 1970

Pi Beta Phi Settlement School Committee
Pi Beta Phi Settlement School
Gallinburg, Tennessee

We have examined the balance sheets of the following funds of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School (a division of Pi Beta Phi) as of May 31, 1970, and the related statements of income and expense and fund balances for the year then ended:

Current Funds
 Special Funds
 Endowment Funds
 Invested in Plant

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We made a similar examination of the financial statements for the preceding year.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of income and expense and fund balances present fairly the financial position of the funds (as described above) of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School at May 31, 1970, and the results of their operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTE B—Fund Accounting

The accounts of the Settlement School are maintained on a fund basis of accounting appropriate to non-profit organizations. The format of the financial statements displaying these funds is presented in a manner which is appropriate for colleges and universities and, accordingly, no provision has been made for depreciation.

Certain expenses paid from other funds of Pi Beta Phi are allocable to Settlement School and these financial statements reflect these expenses.

Standing Committees

CANADIAN PHILANTHROPIES COMMITTEE

According to Pierre Elliot Trudeau, Prime Minister of Canada, "Excitement, awe, and pride overwhelm the northern traveller. And this great land, vast and rich, is Canada's. Let us develop it." The $700.00 donated by Pi Phi last year to provide books for the libraries of the Yukon and Northwest Territories should make us feel that we are helping in the development of the north. Now that the S.S. Manhattan has made her dramatic voyage through the Northwest Passage, Canadians as well as Americans are realizing how little they have known of the northern part of our continent.

The Schools of Social Work are finding the Loan Fund a very useful resource to help students in need of short term funds. Reports from the schools are not in yet for this year so it is not possible to give any specific instances of the ways in which the fund has been used. The loans are interest free and can be quickly transacted.

The committee wishes to thank all those active chapters, alumnae clubs and individuals who have contributed so generously to the fund.

RUBY WHITE TRAILL

EMMA HARPER TURNER MEMORIAL FUNDS COMMITTEE

For twenty-four years Pi Beta Phi has brightened the lives of many in The Fraternity who, in the years after they have left school, have met the "slings and arrows of outrageous fortune." This service is uniquely Pi Phi and expresses the life-long extension of the value of dedicated membership. It is never a charity project but, rather, an expression of concern which is "of worth untold" to ones who bear some of life's heaviest burdens.

Within the year just ending, the roll of the Emma Harper Turner Funds recipients has been cut by two deaths among those who receive monthly checks. Five others are receiving these small, monthly payments which are never enough to provide sustenance but, rather, to make life a little easier and pleasanter. The one who has received the attention of this committee over the longest period of time has had various types of grants, according to her personal situation. Today she is in a nursing home. Her affairs are being handled by her Church, while essential expenses are taken care of by the State. Pi Beta Phi has assisted in the building up of her burial fund and, this year, has made a single contribution to provide for those small needs which one in a nursing home has.

Counting one who is in process of consideration, we have four in our concern who are Golden Arrow members, the oldest was initiated in 1901! Pi Phi continues to reach out to young mothers who have been left alone to care for children, some of whom have lost their husbands in grievous illnesses. We have been moved by the courage which they have shown and by the loyal compassion of their Pi Phi sisters.

The money which we spend for you in this fashion is money from the interest paid by chapters who have borrowed from the Fund to meet house-building costs. It is not a great amount, as modern giving is calculated but no one can measure its effect, as an expression of Pi Beta Phi's loving concern. It is a gift that is never "without the giver" which makes it such a blessing, not only to the recipients but also to the sponsors who rejoice with them.

We commend every Pi Phi and every alumnae club where their interest has brought to us word of those to whom this Pi Phi service can be offered effectively. We cannot function as a committee without this assistance throughout The Fraternity. We believe that such activity is evidence of Pi Phi spirit and devotion at its best.

Lillian Beck Holton and Nenabelle Green Dame have served on this committee for many years. Their immediate attention and response have made the work of the chairman so much easier and each gives wise counsel in the decisions to be made. The Vice President of Pi Beta Phi's Philanthropies and the Grand Treasurer have a share in the processing of every grant and give the same prompt and careful consideration to this quiet Fraternity effort as do the members of this committee. It is a joy to work with each one and to work in a cause so rewarding. May every Pi Phi who has been involved in any way find joy and comfort in this thing which we do—"because we care."

LUCILE DOUGLAS CARSON

EXTENSION COMMITTEE

At the Grand Council interim meeting in October, 1968, the following motion was made and passed: "Recommend to the incoming Council that an Extension Research Committee be appointed. This committee shall study all aspects of extension; such as locales, college or university attitudes, available alumnae interested and population, chapter housing conditions, costs and all other such points pertinent to the establishment of a new chapter, and be ready to report at any time." The Grand Council has appointed Mady Emrich Van Buren, former Alumnae Province President of old Pi South Province, Mary Custis Hart, Registration Chairman of 1969 Convention. Other members will be appointed.

During the current year 40 inquiries have been received by this officer. They are as follows:

University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida

C. W. Post College of Long Island University, Brookville, New York

Saint Peter's College, Jersey City, New Jersey

Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois
Rio Grande College, Rio Grande, Ohio
Western Maryland College, Westminster, Maryland
University of Virginia, Fairfax, Virginia
California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, California
Edinboro State College, Edinboro, Pennsylvania
University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio
Wisconsin State University, River Falls, Wisconsin
Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio
Elon College, Elon College, North Carolina
Brooklyn College, Brooklyn, New York
New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, New Mexico
Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, Illinois
California State College, Los Angeles, California
Shippensburg State College, Shippensburg, Pennsylvania
University of South Alabama, Mobile, Alabama
Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Illinois
Catholic University, Washington, D.C.

Missouri Southern College, Joplin, Missouri
 Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky
 Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, Kansas
 University of Delaware, Newark, Delaware
 University of New Hampshire, Durham, New Hampshire
 Clarion State College, Clarion, Pennsylvania
 Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky
 Northern State College, Aberdeen, South Dakota
 Millersville State College, Millersville, Pennsylvania
 Wisconsin State University, Whitewater, Wisconsin

 Kutztown State College, Kutztown, Pennsylvania
 Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, Virginia
 PMC Colleges, Chester, Pennsylvania

Kutztown State College, Kutztown, Pennsylvania
 Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois
 Troy State University, Troy, Alabama

These inquiries came from local groups wishing to affiliate, from administrations wishing to establish chapters, and from individual members of The Fraternity.

This officer assumed her duties on this committee after the 1964 Convention. Since that time 287 inquiries have been received.

As chairman of Extension Committee the two new chapters, West Virginia Gamma and Florida Delta have come under my supervision. This has been a pleasant duty to watch these new chapters grow and learn.

At the present time no commitments have been made for new chapters for the coming year.

FAY MARTIN GROSS

COMMITTEE ON FRATERNITY MUSIC

Because this is a non-convention year, the activities of the Committee on Fraternity Music have been rather limited. The chairman answered several letters requesting information about songs, song books, etc. About seventy-five per-cent of the chapter song leaders sent reports of their chapters' musical activities in November and again in March. From these reports it appears that dinner singing, special shows, inter-fraternity sings and songs for rushing are still very popular. It is heartwarming to learn that many chapters have learned the songs presented last summer at Convention. Next year will be more active with chapters preparing songs for the Convention Song Contest.

MARY S. ENGEL

HOLT HOUSE COMMITTEE

In preparing my report this year this thought occurred to me, "What is it which makes Holt House different from the other century old white frame houses which line the streets across our country?" Is it not the challenge picked up by Pi Phis when threatened demolition of Holt House was considered?

This restoration was not accomplished by large grants but by continued giving of loyal members of Pi Beta Phi. At times the progress seemed slow due to limited funds. The committee members were ingenious and energetic stimulating Pi Phis to share in this endeavor giving of their time, money and cherished keepsakes. Thus a dream became the pride of all Pi Phis and an asset to the community.

I am sure each one of us is truly grateful for the wonderful planning and the accomplishments of those who preceded us. Our aim is to have Holt House a bit nearer the ultimate plan as we close each year. As we close this year the committee wishes to thank all Pi Phis who have supported Holt House with generous contributions. We had hoped it would be 100% but we did not reach our goal this year.

In checking the report of rentals, it is interesting to note that three Pi Phi chapters in addition to Illinois Alpha have used Holt House for initiation and meetings. What a delightful place in which to be initiated. In addition to these events, the house is used by the Monmouth community for wedding receptions, teas, and scheduled monthly meetings of organizations.

Maintenance and improvements are the necessary consideration of the committee. This year, due to severe storms, the house required repairs to the siding and painting the outside. Also, we were able to clean the walls and paint the woodwork on the second floor. Our newest addition was a door at the rear entrance. This attractive door will improve the appearance of the entrance which is near our parking lot.

Through the generosity of members of Pi Beta Phi in providing Green Stamps, we have acquired our new flatware. Since this is a continuous program, we hope you will remember Holt House with additional books so we may have sufficient flatware to serve at all occasions.

This year the Holt House Committee welcomed Sally Hunt as our Grand Council representative, and Betty Koza replaced Helen Lovejoy as our new Treasurer. I have appreciated their helpful assistance as well as Mary Patricia Warneke's who has continued as secretary, acknowledging the gifts and making entries in the Holt House Gift Book.

Lois Foreman has prepared a very interesting series of slides, revising them each year to bring to the attention of the fraternity the new changes being made at Holt House. We hope all clubs and chapters will request the slides for their special programs.

Our Monmouth committee member, Mary Huff, gives the assistance needed by handling the day-to-day problems which occur and require immediate attention. As chairman, I wish to thank the members of the committee and Sally Hunt for assisting in all the decisions made throughout the year.

STATEMENT OF FUND BALANCE
HOLT HOUSE TREASURER—PI BETA PHI
MONMOUTH, ILLINOIS
May 31, 1970

Holt House Committee
Pi Beta Phi
Monmouth, Illinois

We have examined the accompanying statement of fund balance of the Holt House Treasurer—Pi Beta Phi, resulting from recorded cash transactions, for the year ended May 31, 1970. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records, and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We previously made a similar examination of the financial statements for the preceding year.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement presents fairly the fund balance of the Holt House Treasurer—Pi Beta Phi at May 31, 1970, resulting from recorded cash transactions, and the receipts collected and expenses disbursed during the period then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding period.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The role of the National Nominating Committee during the interim of conventions is a self-effacing one. The alumnae members remain in contact; the chairman has frequent correspondence with the Grand President and Grand Alumnae Vice President when they require assistance in filling vacant offices. At the same time, all national officers have been urged this year to forward names of prospective candidates for national office or standing committees as they made their visits to chapters and alumnae clubs. While this has always been a part of the officer's task, the encouragement to do so has not always been as strong as was urged during the Officers' September Workshop. The renewal of the files of alumnae able to volunteer for office is a continuous activity of the Nominating Committee and one which requires the assistance of all Pi Beta Phi to ensure The Fraternity of competent, loyal and dedicated leadership in the future.

SHIRLEY BRADSHAW

PI PHI TIMES

During the 1969 Convention in Pasadena, I was asked to assume the position of National Coordinator for the Pi Phi Times. This has been a learning experience, to quote a few educators, and I have needed and received all the help I could get from the excellent province coordinators who have worked quietly and efficiently with their chapters. The chapter reporters, in turn, have submitted fine copy for use in the two issues published this year. Ideas for rush, scholarship, parties, community service, etc. are invaluable to all chapters, hence the importance of the Pi Phi Times.

A new manual went to chapters in last year's fall mailing which spelled out the duties of the chapter reporters. This aid, written by Vernah Gardner, has resulted in fine cooperation from all chapters, for the most part, and the year ahead should bring even more.

Once again Michigan Delta has received the Pi Phi Times award for sending interesting and original material for publication. Honorable mention goes to: Illinois Eta, Iowa Zeta, Texas Gamma, Missouri Gamma, Kansas Beta, California Zeta, Florida Alpha, Florida Gamma, South Carolina Alpha, Washington Gamma, West Virginia Gamma, North Carolina Alpha, Manitoba Alpha, Alabama Beta, Alabama Gamma, Mississippi Beta, Tennessee Alpha, and Tennessee Beta.

My thanks to all those who spent countless woman-hours on this area of communication which could become even more important for chapter growth and cooperation.

JANET HEMPHILL JENKINS

COMMITTEE ON TRANSFERS

This year a total of 64 Introduction Transfer Blanks were received by this committee, and 37 Note of Affiliation Blanks. Fifty three chapters received a perfect grade for cooperation. Only one province was perfect in sending reports at the specified time. Eleven chapters failed to respond to either deadline.

The primary function of this committee is to receive two reports during the year accompanied by Transfer Blanks which indicate those Pi Phis who are transferring to another campus. This blank is their introduction to the new chapter. It is always the duty of the original chapter to inform the new chapter when one of their members is transferring to another campus where there is a Pi Beta Phi chapter. Upon receiving copies of these blanks, the chairman of this committee then sends a letter of explanation to the transfer informing her of her new status. Affiliation may take place when the proper procedure has been followed and when chapter and school policies permit. Even if affiliation does not take place, the transfer is made to feel at home in her new environment. The chapter recording secretary is responsible for inviting the transfer to participate in chapter functions and for the transfer program within the chapter. Transfer Pi Phis are constantly amazed at the close touch which exists within the framework of our fraternity. It is this individual contact which keeps our sisterhood strong. The corresponding secretaries are responsible for sending the two reports to this committee in October and March, as well as filling out the respective blanks and sending them to the proper persons. A special thank you goes to these chapter officers as well as the Central Office for keeping accurate records on the transient Pi Phis. It is always rewarding to hear from the actives and learn how much a new chapter's friendship means when transferring to a new campus. This is one of the many links that sustains our Pi Phi loyalty all through the years.

Reports of Province Presidents

ALPHA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The fine achievements of Alpha Province chapters this year were inspirational and combined with excellent chapter leadership and chapter cooperation, individual efforts, AAC guidance and a definite desire to abide by and maintain the high standards of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity. Many of the chapters can boast of campus queens, commendable leadership in campus activities and student government, individual membership in diverse honor societies and greatly improved scholastic averages. Maine Alpha received the University Girl. Congratulations are certainly due to the members, actives and pledges, for individual achievements and cooperations in each chapter for 1969-1970.

Frances Ross visited Nova Scotia Alpha, and we are sure they all enjoyed her visit. Nancy Wright visited all the Alpha Province chapters, and we are sure she was a great help to all.

The Province Amy Burnham Onken Award went to Suzanne Burdge. The other chapters' nominations were Lynn Ridings from Nova Scotia Alpha and Karen Heiser from Massachusetts Beta. The Chapter Service Award went to Kitty Murray from Nova Scotia Alpha. The other chapter nominations were Patricia Provoda from Massachusetts Beta, Patricia A. Stefka from Maine Alpha and Marcie McIntire from Connecticut Alpha.

Nancy Creighton of Connecticut Alpha was honored with the Portland Alumnae Award for the most outstanding sophomore.

The Alpha Province Scholarship Plaque, given to the chapter with highest percentage of the membership with scholastic averages above the all fraternity women's average was awarded to Nova Scotia Alpha. To Connecticut Alpha goes the Program Award and the House Manager award. Pledge Program goes to Massachusetts Beta. The Angel Award goes to Maine Alpha for their work with retarded children at the Brewer Opportunity Center. The Standards Award goes to Connecticut Alpha.

Special thanks and appreciation are due to our AAC chairmen Mrs. Robert G. Votaw, Mrs. Richard Leonard, Mrs. Robert McLucas, Mrs. Dennis Stiles, and Mrs. Ted Brown. Their help has been invaluable to both their chapters and to me. Thanks must also go to Mrs. David C. Forker, our scholarship supervisor and to Jacqueline Boazman, our fraternity study and education supervisor.

Alpha Province of Pi Beta Phi wishes to thank Grand Council and Mrs. J. Gordon Orr, and the national officers for their encouragement, their advice and their guidance. I wish to thank Sally Schulenburg and her efficient staff at Central Office for their assistance in making my second year a joy and a delight to be working for Pi Beta Phi. It has been a privilege, a challenge, and a joy to serve as Alpha Province President.

MARJORIE M. YALE

BETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

With a memorable convention in lovely Pasadena to renew the depth of our pride in our blest Fraternity, we began another challenging year with the province reduced to four chapters. As a result of redistricting at convention, we welcomed Vermont Beta into the province and continued with the three New York chapters.

All chapters were visited during the fall semester and there are many pleasant memories of the thoughtful and gracious hospitality extended by the collegians, members of the alumnae advisory committees and house directors. It is a delightful and rewarding experience to share a small part of the busy lives of our actives and to be included in some of their "fun" traditions. We were honored in having the newly elected Grand Vice President of Chapters, Elizabeth Turner Orr, as our national visitor for the three New York chapters during March. Not only did her humor and warm personality captivate the girls but her wise counseling during discussions and the inspiration she imparted were deeply appreciated by the chapters.

Despite advance comments of the lack of interest in fraternity life and the gloomy reports of lower rush registrations, Beta Province chapters did exceptionally well in rush and pledged 107 girls during the year. On most campuses rushing is becoming more unstructured and it is very encouraging to note that positive steps are being taken to counteract the adverse impressions of the Greek system. Vermont Beta and New York Delta were both fortunate to have the capable assistance of our Traveling Graduate Counselor, Nancy Wright. She performed many duties during rush, was helpful in training new officers and indeed was an understanding, delightful advisor.

It is always most gratifying to review the many contributions of our actives in their service and leadership to the college and community. The overall talent, resourcefulness and boundless energy truly shine forth in an amazing list of accomplishments. Space does not permit naming the many things the Beta Province girls have done on their respective campuses but certainly all chapters can be justly proud. It will suffice to note the Pi Phis hold important positions as Panhellenic officers, class officers, on student governments, school publications, judicial boards. We have 10 Mortar Board members, 31 academic societies, several in Who's Who, a campus queen and other queen contestants and many serving on prestigious committees.

In community involvement, New York Alpha worked on a tutorial program, held several holiday parties for underprivileged and handicapped children and continued with the adoption of a child in India. New York Gamma also helped needy families by preparing food baskets, providing toys for youngsters and won a prize for having the highest number of donors in the local Blood Drive. New York Delta continued their support of a Colombian child through Foster Parent's Plan and participated in a number of community projects. Vermont Beta expanded their interest in the Sara Holbrook Center to include holiday parties, running a Brownie Troop, a dancing class, a cooking class, and giving lessons in arts and crafts to underprivileged children.

Scholarship as always enjoys emphasis and we are proud of the admirable number of Beta Province girls on the Dean's List. The Westchester Prize for the highest percent of its membership above the campus Panhellenic average was awarded New York Gamma who barely missed first place on campus. This chapter established "The Mel Parker Scholarship Fund" to honor their devoted alumna advisor who will be moving from the area. The Rochester Club Silver Bowl was awarded to Vermont Beta for having the greatest rise in scholarship. Barbara Paquin, Vermont Beta, won the Long Island-North Shore Golden Key. Again, our deep appreciation is expressed to Judith Friend Strohm, Beta Province Scholarship Supervisor, for her fine suggestions and willing assistance in helping the girls attain high achievements.

The Amy Burnham Onken Award was given to Alice

McCann of New York Gamma. The other chapter nominees for the province award were Sharon L. Wolchik, New York Alpha; Shirley K. Egan, New York Delta; and Judith Ann Bruce, Vermont Beta. The outstanding seniors selected by the alumnae advisory committees for the Chapter Service Award included Pamela Abraham, New York Alpha; Nancy Perro, New York Gamma; Gail Campbell, New York Delta and Christine Scott, Vermont Beta. The province winner and also the recipient of the Buffalo Alumnae Club Service Award was Christine Scott of Vermont Beta. A moment of great pride came in late spring when New York Alpha received word that it had been awarded the coveted Hilton Cup. This is the highest sorority honor on campus and is based on scholastic achievements, leadership qualities, unity, effort to strengthen Greek relationships and service to the campus and community.

A very special word of appreciation is given to the loyal women on the alumnae advisory committees for their hours of unselfish and valuable service to the girls. They are of immeasurable help to a province officer in being on the scene to handle the nitty-gritty emergencies and indeed provide much continuity for plans and advice. We express thanks also to Lydia Lueder Darling, Supervisor on Fraternity Study and Examination and Lujane Johnson Munson, Pi Phi Times Coordinator, for their time and interest.

As the second year of service draws to a close, this officer notes with gratitude the further enrichment of life—through association with many talented young women, through the cherished Pi Phi friendships across the country and through the inspiring dedication of our national officers and directors to keep Pi Beta Phi a growing strength in a disturbed era. My deepest thanks to the members of Grand Council for their patient guidance and encouragement; to Sally Schulenburg for her beautiful spirit and most efficient operation of Central Office; and lastly, to the Beta Province actives for more happy memories to add to my Pi Phi treasury.

MYRA DEPALMA REIMER

GAMMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

A new year in the newly formed Gamma Province began with the enthusiasm and inspiration of the Pasadena Convention. Delegates and alternates returned to their campuses re-dedicated to fraternity ideals and objectives, aiming for even greater chapter achievements. Although I did not share the experiences of Convention, the full reports from active members and other officers—as well as the St. Louis workshop in September—provided the substance and spirit of the occasion.

Because of continuing campus climate and changing enrollment, D.C. Alpha found it necessary to relinquish its charter in September. The loss to The Fraternity reflects a valiant struggle and a great Pi Phi heritage. Special thanks are due President Emeritus Marianne Reid Wild, Traveling Graduate Counselor Nancy Wright, AAC Chairman Ethel McCarty Evans, and the many loyal alumnae who worked unceasingly with the active members of D.C. Alpha.

Chapter visits in the fall allowed early personal contact to develop into fine working relationships through the year. It is most reassuring to see chapters in action, to enjoy the gracious hospitality and friendship of the girls and AAC members, and to know that through their efforts Pi Beta Phi maintains a position of respect on each campus and within the fraternity system.

The province was honored to have Mary Jane Stein Deringer, Director of Pledge Education, as the visiting national officer in the early spring. Her experience and understanding were a true inspiration and source of encouragement to the chapters as they seek to fulfill the objectives of Pi Beta Phi. Our appreciation also for the help and advice of Elizabeth Frushour Hill, Director of Standards, and Nancy Wright, as they made visits to individual chapters.

Academic achievements are again encouraging and impressive. Pennsylvania Gamma and Epsilon attained chapter averages over 3.0; Pennsylvania Beta had more than half its membership on Dean's List; and Maryland Beta proudly initiated its entire fall pledge class of 22 members. Pennsylvania Epsilon received the Gamma Province Scholarship Award for the highest overall average, a silver pitcher presented jointly by the Philadelphia Main Line and Delco Alumnae Clubs. Each chapter is well represented in a variety of academic and departmental honoraries. Marion Kah Lancaster, our new province Scholarship Supervisor, has done a fine job in encouraging and advising chapter scholarship chairmen.

Chapters also claim recognition in campus activities and honors. The range of participation is wide, with many important positions in student government and AWS, publications, dormitory officers and counselors, and many special interest groups. The large number of beauty queens reminds us that our chapters have most attractive as well as capable members.

Of increasing interest to Gamma Province chapters is involvement in community service as a major activity. The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club encourages and recognizes this service through its province Community Service Award each year. Pennsylvania Beta has been named the third-time winner and permanent owner of the club's award and plaque, for the organization and operation of a morning school for retarded children in Lewisburg. Pennsylvania Gamma assists in a pre-school for disadvantaged children in the Carlisle area. Members of Pennsylvania Epsilon "adopted" the family of a graduate student whose baby needed foot surgery and corrective shoes. In addition, Penn State Pi Phis volunteered their time and supplies at the Odd Fellows Orphanage in Sunbury and worked with Alpha Phi Omega for the Muscular Dystrophy Campaign. Maryland Beta received the Spirit Award for the Campus Chest Drive, as recognition for the greatest support and originality in the university's main money-raising event. Gamma Province's nomination for the new Lucille Douglass Carson Community Service Award is Pennsylvania Beta.

Chapter nominees for the ABO award are Suzanne Race, Maryland Beta; Linda Faltings, Pennsylvania Beta; Susan Liccardo, Pennsylvania Gamma; and Bonnie Kay Smith Haase, Pennsylvania Epsilon. Each of these girls well deserves the honor her chapter has bestowed, for they are all outstanding seniors. Linda Faltings, Pennsylvania Beta, was named Gamma Province winner and nominee for the national award.

Nominations for the Chapter Service Award, made by AAC members, include Nancy Browning, Maryland Beta; Monica Lewis, Pennsylvania Beta; Shelley Ruehrmund, Pennsylvania Gamma; and Deborah Kling, Pennsylvania Epsilon. The winner of the province nomination and of the Marianne Reid Wild Alumnae Club Award is Deborah Kling, Pennsylvania Epsilon.

Fortunately the pleasures of Founders' Day celebrations were possible before the disruption of campus life this spring. Maryland Beta joined with the three Washington, D.C. area alumnae clubs and representatives of D.C. Alpha. The occasion also honored the chapter's new house-mother, Mrs. Lovelace, as Sherry Absher, chapter president, presented her with a mother's pin. Pennsylvania Beta and Epsilon celebrated twice: first with a joint chapter picnic, complete with birthday cake; and then with the respective alumnae clubs for traditional awards banquets. Founders' Day marked the 75th anniversary of the Pennsylvania Beta chapter, and returning alumnae participated in that special celebration. Members of Pennsylvania Gamma were guests of the Harrisburg-Carlisle Alumnae Club and we were able to share the awarding of chapter honors with their interested alumnae.

The accomplishments of the past year would not have been possible without the continuing assistance of dedicated AAC members. The chapters and I owe immeasurable thanks to these alumnae advisers and their committee members: Kathy Jerome, Maryland Beta; Hannah Miles, Pennsylvania Beta; Lena Stover, Pennsylvania Gamma; and Mimi Wellington, Pennsylvania Epsilon. I must also express appreciation to Nancy Head, Supervisor of Fraternity Study and Education, and to Lillian Anglicker O'Shaughnessy, Pi Phi Times Coordinator, for their contributions in time and service. The many alumnae clubs without active chapters also offer support and interest, and Gamma Province thanks them all.

DELTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The Pasadena Convention of 1969 was one of the most eventful in Pi Beta Phi's history and we in Delta Province were inspired, enlightened, and united—as true sisters—regardless of age or from which section of the country we came. And we returned to our own province with new insights of Pi Phi—that we each might try to give to The Fraternity the leadership, the love and the wisdom it deserved.

Chapter visits were made to West Virginia Gamma and West Virginia Alpha in October while Virginia Delta and Virginia Gamma were made later in November. It was the middle of March before North Carolina Beta and North Carolina Alpha were visited. After each visit I returned home with renewed hope and much enthusiasm given me by each member of the chapters. West Virginia Gamma was honored by a visit from the Grand Secretary, Mrs. L. Morell Gross, and our travelling counselor, Nancy Wright, visited that chapter as well as North Carolina Beta.

Scholarship was very much in evidence this year. For the past semester four of the chapters ranked in first place; one in second place; and one chapter which ranked first the semester before is now on a campus where grade averages will no longer be computed. There are more Phi Beta Kappas than in previous years, members in Mortar Board, campus honoraries, and Who's Who. There are two AWS presidents as well as a president of student association; honor council officers; student legislature; class presidents; and dormitory officers. Each chapter is well represented with beauty queens, beauty court attendants; cheerleaders, and fraternity sweethearts.

But also the chapter members have been more aware of campus and community involvement such as tutoring culturally-deprived children, giving blood, participating in campus symposiums, working with Girl Scouts, and being involved with campus groups to constructively make this world just a little better.

Province Supervisors, Mrs. William Briot, Mrs. Andrew Landis, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Hechtkofare are to be complimented for their hard work in the areas of scholarship, fraternity education and Pi Phi Times. To Mrs. Sally Schulenburg and her devoted staff may I thank you again for such tremendous help?

This year the province nominees for the Amy B. Onken Award are: Judy Scott, West Virginia Alpha; Margaret Kravchuk, West Virginia Gamma; Diane Boykin, Virginia Delta; Patty McKinney, North Carolina Alpha; Joanne Yoder, North Carolina Beta, with the province winner: Margaret Kravchuk, West Virginia Gamma.

The Chapter Service Award nominees are: Sara Dunn, West Virginia Alpha; JoAnn Rector, West Virginia Gamma; Beth Hill, Virginia Gamma; Janice Ragland, Virginia Delta; Cynthia Kane, North Carolina Alpha; and Margot Beach, North Carolina Beta. The province winner is Margot Beach of North Carolina Beta.

Founders' Day is always a very special occasion for all of us and to this Province President it was doubly nice. Besides celebrating here with the Charleston Alumnae Club I was honored to be the guest speaker for the Kentucky Alpha and the Lexington Alumnae Club in Lexington, Kentucky at their dinner.

It is with sadness that I leave as Province President. The past three years have been full of wonderful experiences of knowing so many fine Pi Phis from pledges to members of the Grand Council. To all may I reiterate my deepest thanks for giving me such an opportunity to serve my fraternity, Pi Beta Phi!

It is a privilege to serve as Gamma Province President.

NANCY BLAICHER POLLOCK

EPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Epsilon Province began the year with a new name, two new chapters, and a new province president. At Convention we were proud when Florida Delta received its charter, honored when Georgia Alpha received the Westchester Club Award, and happy to welcome South Carolina Alpha to our province.

Most of the chapters have done very well in scholarship, placing among the top 3 positions. This is mainly the result of desire within the chapters, good scholarship programs, and the invaluable help and encouragement from our province supervisor, Doris Littlefield.

A "Mini-workshop" was held in December here in Winter Park. The president, vice president, scholarship, rush, membership, pledge supervisor, and program chairman from each chapter was invited. Unfortunately, distance made it impossible for South Carolina Alpha and Georgia Alpha to attend, but the four chapters in Florida sent representatives. Pre-selected topics for each officer were covered in the morning and a general discussion was held in the afternoon. A great deal of information was shared. Each chapter learned that they were not the only group trying to solve various problems confronting them.

For the first time in this province several chapters are experiencing student government and administrative pressures, and campus unrest. The problem is compounded where the administrative representatives to Panhellenic are not interested in the Greek system or are opposed to it altogether.

The chapter visits were informative as well as delightful experiences. The girls were gracious, helpful, and most appreciative. Through increasingly difficult times, their standards remain high. The desire to correct various problems and work toward improving chapter unity were evident on each campus. New and interesting programs concerning current topics, strengthening pledge education, how to improve scholarship, how to update rush, and spirit booster ideas were among the many subjects discussed.

Frances Farrell Ross, Director of Scholarship, visited Florida Beta and Georgia Alpha, and Fay Martin Gross, Grand Secretary, was the official visitor to Florida Alpha, Florida Gamma, and Florida Delta. They were very helpful to all of us, and we are deeply appreciative.

The Province Amy Burnham Onken Award was won by Patricia Dullard, Florida Alpha. Other nominees were Margie Gowing, Florida Beta; Linda Long, Florida Gamma; Mary Jo Codianne, Florida Delta; Ann Olsen, Georgia Alpha; and Joanne Oettinger Reed, South Carolina Alpha.

The Province Chapter Service Award was won by Joanne Oettinger Reed, South Carolina Alpha. Lynn Jackson, Florida Alpha; Margie Gowing, Florida Beta; Melinda Crockett, Florida Gamma, and Kay Barbin, Georgia Alpha, were the other candidates for this honor.

The Becky Conley Bowl for the Outstanding Active in the province went to Lynn Jackson, Florida Alpha. The Jacksonville, Florida, Alumnae Club Annual Sophomore Scholarship Award was won by Florida Beta. The Deringer Bowl for Scholarship Improvement now rests in the trophy case at Florida Gamma. The Candace Armstrong

Bowl, given to the pledge class with the highest grades and most proficient in fraternity service and education, was presented to Florida Delta.

Leadership on each campus in government, in honor societies, in Panhellenic, in campus publications, as queens, as sweethearts, as outstanding students is evident from the list of honors to each chapter from their respective schools.

As in every province there have been problems through the year; however with the help of AAC, who have had many occasions to work overtime, and the ever present helpful advice of Grand Council they were solved. Thanks and appreciation also go to the alumnae clubs for their continued interest and help spiritually, physically, and financially; and to Anne Heflin, our capable Alumnae Province President, who passed on our needs. The Province Supervisors Doris Littlefield, Scholarship, and Rosemary Rupnow, FS&E, receive a grateful thank you, also.

To Marian Wing, past Province President, the national directors, and especially to the chapter members go my deep and sincere appreciation for the education, inspiration, guidance, and much patience. The opportunity to serve and work with these actives has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life.

ELIZABETH KRAFT SCHWEIZER

ZETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

"Think on These Things" was the theme of the banquet program at Convention last June in Pasadena. Indeed, we have with a great deal of love and pride in our Fraternity.

Zeta Province was honored to have Michigan Delta come home from Convention with the Dr. Hazel Rutherford McCuaig Award, the Pi Phi Times Award plus an honorable mention for their history. Ontario Alpha's Carolyn Webster was granted an Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship.

We are so very pleased with the fine enthusiastic leadership in all the chapters. The chapters are doing well scholastically. There have been many Pi Phis bringing honor to their chapters because of honors earned scholastically. Our plaudits to all!

It was my pleasure to present the Amy Burnham Onken province award to Nancie Fisher, Michigan Beta. Outstanding and well qualified nominees were: Sally Phillips, Michigan Alpha; Jane Scholz, Michigan Gamma; Peggy Lamb, Michigan Delta; Julie Glover, Ontario Alpha; Judy McLean, Ontario Beta.

For Chapter Service the following were nominated: Nancy Hitchcock, Michigan Alpha; Jo Ellen Palazzola, Michigan Beta; Ann Peterson, Michigan Gamma; Cathy

West, Michigan Delta; Denis Jacques, Ontario Alpha; Bonnie MacRae, Ontario Beta. Nancy Hitchcock was the province winner.

A real thrill for me were the visits I made to the chapters last fall. I found Michigan Alpha in their new home. It is a place of beauty and comfort, and the house corporation members should be congratulated for their efforts. To meet with the actives, pledges, AACs and the members of the house corporations was truly a delight. Everyone made me feel right at home. I was impressed with the sincere dedication of everyone to do her best. My appreciation goes to all.

My first year as Zeta Province president has been exceedingly pleasant. Thanks must go to Mary Jane Meire, our scholarship supervisor. Thanks too for the aid and encouragement given me by Bar Killins, and the helping hand of Sally Schulenburg at Central Office. The knowledge that Grand Council is standing by ready with kind assistance and understanding has given me the necessary assurance, and I am most grateful.

MARGARET KRAUSE YOUNG

ETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The Pasadena Convention marked the high spot of the year for all delegates and visitors. Meeting with the members of the Grand Council, the exchange of ideas with other chapter delegates and the friendships formed were an inspiration to carry on the ideals of Pi Beta Phi.

Not to be forgotten were the awards: Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarships were received by Pamela Disken, Ohio Beta and Kathryn Durnford, Ohio Beta. A California Alpha Scholarship went to Mary Johnson, Ohio Epsilon. Nancy Armstrong of Ohio Zeta won the Adda Prentice Williams Chapter Scholarship Chairman's award. The Grand Council Scholarship Incentive award was given to Ohio Epsilon and Ohio Beta won the Harriet V. Evans award.

We started the school year with great enthusiasm. Ohio Alpha pledged ten sophomores. They also had homecoming queen and third place in float competition. A fall officers' workshop and a cooky-shine for the alums were enjoyed by Ohio Beta. Ohio Delta had a visit from Nancy Wright, Traveling Graduate Counselor. A fall pledge class of twenty and homecoming queen were triumphs for Ohio Epsilon. Ohio Zeta returned to a newly decorated suite. Ohio Eta felt that the new grading procedures on the S&S in scholarship was a great improvement.

Scholarship is still a great concern of each chapter and through strong scholarship programs, dedicated scholarship chairmen, we have made some improvement.

The alumnae of Eta devote many hours helping the chapters. Jean Sprague, Pat Fowler, Marian Brink, Helen Sidwell, Charity Dickey, and Myra Gallant were AAC Chairmen. Special thanks go to Anna Kier who gave excellent guidance to all chapters in her position as Scholarship Supervisor. Betty Calhoun, Supervisor of Fraternity Study and Education, helped the chapters achieve a high degree of excellence in the pledge and active fraternity examination. Ginny Wood helped with the two editions of the Pi Phi Times.

Selected as nominee for the National ABO Award was Nancy Armstrong, Ohio Zeta. Other outstanding nominees were Judy Hattersley, Ohio Alpha; May Braley, Ohio Beta; Jean Gulliver, Ohio Delta; Cathy Duszynski, Ohio Epsilon; and Ann Townes, Ohio Eta.

Mary Johnson, Ohio Epsilon, was chosen as Eta Province nominee for National Chapter Service Award. Other outstanding nominees were Debbie Gray, Ohio Alpha; Phyllis Condit, Ohio Beta; Sue Haight, Ohio Delta; Babbie Griffin, Ohio Zeta; and Susan Stover, Ohio Eta.

This year each chapter has had its share of campus queens and attendants, leadership in campus activities and memberships in diverse honor societies.

The most delightful part of a province president's work is visiting the chapters. I would like to express my appreciation and gratitude to all the girls, chaperons, and advisory board members who made me feel so welcome.

THETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Theta Province delegates, alternates, and visitors returned from the 1969 Pasadena Convention renewed and inspired. Many new ideas and suggestions were gathered from the informative workshops and then used this year by our six chapters. At Convention, Theta Province was honored when Nancy Wright, Indiana Gamma, was named National Chapter Service Award winner; Indiana Alpha received the Historian's Vase for their history which was judged second best in The Fraternity; and Sharon Smith, Indiana Zeta, was named a recipient of a California Alpha scholarship for the 1969-70 school year.

September brought everyone back to their campuses and beautiful fall weather made a perfect backdrop for the formal membership selection periods at Franklin, Butler, and DePauw. Deferred rush in December is held at Ball State, and Indiana University and Purdue have their major rush season the last of January. Each chapter has an informal rush season also; thus we have pledged 152 girls this school year. 155 pledges were initiated during the year.

National officer visits in November were made by Jean Orr Donaldson, National Director of Archives, to Alpha, Beta, and Gamma; and by Rose McColloch Dressler, National Director of Chapter Histories, to Delta, Epsilon, and Zeta. Each chapter was richer because of the visits from these devoted Pi Phis who brought a wealth of information, inspiration, and enthusiasm to the girls. Spring semester, the chapters were gracious hostesses to the province president. It is always a pleasure to visit with our collegiate members and one returns home with renewed enthusiasms and faith in the future of Pi Beta Phi after visiting with them.

April to Indiana Pi Phis means State Day, which was held this year on the Indiana University campus. Four hundred collegians and alumnae gathered for a delicious salad luncheon followed by music, reports from the six chapter presidents, and the announcing of the province awards.

Each chapter again nominated their outstanding senior in scholarship and activities for the Amy Burnham Onken Award. The Province ABO Award, a sapphire guard, was presented to Cynthia Hubbard, Indiana Zeta. Other chapter nominees who received the ABO certificates and crested circle pins were Sally Battin of Indiana Alpha, Patricia Kishman of Indiana Beta, Linda Honan of Indiana Gamma, S. Jill Parent of Indiana Delta, and Sally Jo Skinner of Indiana Epsilon.

The Chapter Service Award nominees were those who have contributed "that something extra" to their chapters. The Province Chapter Service Award and the silver arrow presented by The Fraternity was earned by Sharon Smith of Indiana Zeta. Others nominated by their alumnae advisory committees were Susan Klein of Indiana Alpha, Susan Warner of Indiana Beta, Patricia Wright of Indiana Gamma, Marian Edwards of Indiana Delta, and Mary Jo Kuhl of Indiana Epsilon. Each nominee received a Chapter Service Certificate as well as a silver charm which was presented by the Columbus Alumnae Club.

The Barbara McQuiston memorial pins, gold arrows with two emeralds on the shaft, were presented to the outstanding junior in each chapter. Those who will wear these honor pins for the coming years are Nancy Martin of Indiana Alpha, Sally Dunn of Indiana Beta, Kathy Kilburn of Indiana Gamma, Hazel Woods of Indiana Delta, Lou Ann Hollingsworth of Indiana Epsilon, and Susan Bigler of Indiana Zeta.

The province got together for State Day, hosted by Ohio Alpha. All enjoyed the exchange of ideas and meeting new sisters.

It has been an honor to serve The Fraternity as Eta Province President, and it has been a privilege to work with so many fine officers, in the development of Pi Beta Phi.

This farewell is underlined with warmest appreciation to each of you.

ISABELL BROWN DAUTEL

The Southwestern Alumnae Club Outstanding Sophomore Plaque was awarded to Candie Cox of Indiana Gamma. Other sophomores nominated for this honor were Ginny Ehalt of Indiana Alpha, Margie Price of Indiana Beta, Jane Ryker of Indiana Delta, Joan Erlandson of Indiana Epsilon, and Bonnie Pearson of Indiana Zeta.

The Province Scholarship Cup for the highest chapter scholastic average for the preceding year was won by Indiana Delta for the second year. They maintained a chapter average of B for the entire 1968-69 school year, the Province Award to the chapter with the most improvement in their scholarship since last spring was presented by the Gary Alumnae Club to Indiana Zeta for the second year. Dawn MacNab of Indiana Alpha has been awarded a California Alpha scholarship for 1970-71.

Sharon Smith, Indiana Zeta, has accepted the position of Pi Beta Phi Traveling Graduate Counselor for the 1970-71 school year.

Theta Province Pi Beta Phi chapters have worked and gained many honors this year. We have Mortar Board members and officers, membership in Phi Beta Kappa and many other scholastic and activity honoraries, Who's Who listings, Panhellenic officers, yearbook editors, and numerous queens and sweethearts.

No chapter is without the willing work and advice of the sympathetic and understanding women who serve on our alumnae advisory committees. They have given of themselves and their time over and over again. The house corporations are constantly working to improve the lovely houses and suites for our collegiate members. Theta Province is proud of our four extremely capable House Directors: Mrs. Helen Lemert at Indiana Beta, Mrs. Mary Weldon at Indiana Gamma, Mrs. Naomi LeVor at Indiana Delta, and Mrs. Boz Edwards at Indiana Epsilon. The Fraternity is indebted to each and every one who has worked with our chapters this year. The chapters are stronger because of their interest.

Our province officers—Emily Walter Wallace, Alumnae Province President; Marjorie Vale Wilson, Province Scholarship Supervisor; Pamela Cagle Walters, Fraternity Study and Education Supervisor; and Mary Giles Armington, Pi Phi Times Coordinator,—have again provided much help and encouragement to our girls. The office of Province President is made much easier because of their able assistance.

Grand Council, the national directors, and Central Office have provided the inspiration, help, and encouragement to us all. Pi Beta Phi continues to be strong because of their dedication and devotion.

It has been a delight to work with the collegians, alumnae, and Fraternity officers this year. Truly the bond of sisterhood and friendship is strong, and this Province President's life has indeed been enriched by each one. It is a privilege to serve Pi Beta Phi in this office.

NANCY COX FONTAINE

IOTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

As the year 1969-70 draws to a close, the new Iota Province chapters have proved to have an added strength of love, loyalty, sisterhood, friendship, and understanding. I have felt closer to my chapter girls than ever before—a completely exhausted stationery supply can verify the close touch we have kept.

Founders' Day in Memphis brought tears of gratification to my eyes as I personally received into the Order of the Golden Arrow three deserving 'slightly older sisters'. The three chapters in attendance showed the greatest of admiration and expressed the desire to have this goal as one of their own for the future. The enthusiasm and applause was overwhelming—a touch of yesterday carrying into tomorrow's world.

As usual, the decision on personal recognition through our Amy Burnham Onken Award and Chapter Service winner for this province presented a problem. All of the names submitted concerned such deserving and outstanding young women. After much deliberation, Linda Lennon of Kentucky Beta became the nominee from Iota for the national ABO Award. Special mention also must go to Betty Jo Stocker, Kentucky Alpha, Joanne Cleverdon, Tennessee Alpha, and Glenda Galtelli, Tennessee Delta. The Chapter Service winner of Iota Province is Jenny Flippo of Tennessee Beta. Not to be overlooked are the other nominees: Pam Seigle, Kentucky Alpha, Linda Parker, Kentucky Beta, Pat Owens, Tennessee Alpha, Maureen Garman, Tennessee Gamma, and Cheryl McAnespie, Tennessee Delta.

Rush proved to be most successful for all chapters. We added to the rolls 146 Pi Phi angels—this was during fall rush—25 new 'angels' have pledged during open rush and spring rush.

Scholarship still finds Tennessee Beta first on their campus after eight consecutive semesters. Two chapters maintain second place, one third; none have fallen below the previous year. This is certainly a step in the right direction, although scholarship still presents a challenge.

Excellence in activities and beauty queens are a big thing for us this year. Linda Venable (also national winner of 'Miss-Make-It-With-Wool' contest) of Tennessee Delta and Barbara Ramsay (also Miss Vanderbilt) reigned as Homecoming Queens of their respective campuses. Homecoming Queen finalists graced the other four campuses. The following achievements can be mentioned with pride: Mortar Board or equivalent—8 members; Angel Flight—14 members, 2 commanders; ROTC sponsors—11 members, 1 ROTC queen; cheerleaders—8 members, 2 co-captains; 1 SNEA president; 1 Panhellenic president; 1 Pi Delta Phi president; 1 Canterbury Club president; Alpha Lambda Delta—9 members; Cwens—2 members; Links—2 members; Athenians—2 members; Lotus Eaters—2 members. Too many to enumerate are the dorm council presidents, dorm counselors, student senators, members of governing boards, members of judicial review boards, class officers, Honor Council members, AWS legislative board members, and finalists in best dressed coed contests. Active participation in publications, members of student information teams, and fraternity sweethearts cannot be overlooked. Never can it be said that Iota Pi Phis are not active on their respective campuses.

Community and charity projects are included in all chapters' busy schedules. Special attention this year went to the mentally retarded, orphans, handicapped, and aged. There may be a "generation gap" today but you'll have to prove it to me when it comes to Pi Phis.

I cannot close without paying tribute to those fine ladies 'behind the scene'—AAC chairmen, AAC members and house corporations. Special thanks go to Mrs. Robert Smith, Kentucky Alpha, Miss Linda Renschler, Kentucky Beta, Mrs. J. L. Bailey, Tennessee Alpha, Mrs. D. A. Floyd, Tennessee Beta, Mrs. George Wood, Tennessee Gamma, and Mrs. A. F. Madison, Tennessee Delta—AAC chairmen—you are the "greatest." I could not have carried on without you and your fine members.

Grand Council, the directors, and Central Office have been ever ready and eager to help me. They are true "Pi Phi angels" in every sense and I do want to thank them.

I am eagerly anticipating my Workshop here in Memphis in mid-July as a means of concluding a successful year and planning an equally good future.

JEAN HARLOR THOMAS

KAPPA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Elected "in absentia" at the 1969 Convention, I felt almost as if I had attended when I read the glowing yet thoughtful and analytical convention reports of chapter presidents and alternate delegates. Convention information and inspiration was carried over into chapter life all year. The girls showed good judgement and maturity in the use of new membership selection procedures during rush.

Mississippi Beta appreciated and greatly benefited from the help of Traveling Counselor, Nancy Wright, during fall rush. The three Alabama chapters were privileged to have official visits from Evelyn Kyle, Grand Vice President of Alumnae, in the spring. Her warm personality and boundless knowledge of Pi Phi won the love and respect of all the girls.

Grand Council deserves and has my gratitude for patient and helpful support. My special thanks go to Liz Orr and Sally Schulenburg for "nursemaiding" me through my first year in office. During a stopover at the Jackson, Miss., airport, I had a very pleasant though brief visit with Nancy Warren Peters and Sara Mieher Hinds, Scholarship and Fraternity Study and Examination Supervisors for Kappa Province. Both are doing fine jobs. The girls appreciate their efforts and those of Jo Ann Walker Wiggins, Pi Phi Times Coordinator.

To me it is the active chapter member who makes Kappa Province special. My first chapter visits were undertaken with some misgivings, but proved to be exhilarating experiences. Fraternity membership is important and significant to the actives and pledges of Alabama Alpha, Alabama Beta, Alabama Gamma, Mississippi Alpha, and Mississippi Beta. The dedication, loyalty, and efficiency of chapter officers delighted and inspired me. In return I tried to share with them my deep feeling for Pi Phi as well as practical suggestions for improved chapter organization.

For the first time, this year all five chapters have chartered alumnae clubs in the college towns. These clubs will strengthen the support already given so ably to the chapters by alumnae advisory committees and house corporation directors. Excellent active-alumnae relations exist in Kappa Province with attitudes of mutual respect and Pi Phi love.

At Founders' Day celebrations special recognition was given to these outstanding ABO nominees: Chris Paulk, Alabama Alpha; Margaret Temple, Alabama Beta; Elizabeth Garber, Alabama Gamma; Lynn Berry, Mississippi Alpha; and Barbara Cox, Mississippi Beta. The province winner, Lynn Berry has been selected by Grand Council as a graduate counselor for next year. Unselfish service and devotion to their chapters earned Chapter Service nominations for these girls: Cathy Rogers, Alabama Alpha; Janette Rush, Alabama Beta; Joan Hairston, Alabama Gamma; Ann Grove, Mississippi Alpha; and Nancy Owen, Mississippi Beta; with Joan Hairston being chosen province winner.

Activities of wide scope and variety reflect the personalities and abilities of Kappa Pi Phis. Alabama Alpha and Alabama Beta have Phi Beta Kappas. Every chapter is represented in Mortar Board or its equivalent, in Alpha Lambda Delta, and in department honoraries, thus reflecting the strong scholastic traditions of Pi Beta Phi. Popularity and beauty titles such as homecoming queen, Miss Ole Miss, Miss USM, yearbook beauties and favorites, and fraternity sweethearts attest to the charm and good looks of the Pi Phis. Student government and class officers, yearbook staff members and at Alabama Gamma yearbook editor, cheerleaders, Who's Who, and Panhellenic officers reflect the intelligence and leadership ability of our collegiate members. Individually and collectively Kappa Province actives are my ideal "Pi Phi Girls."

ANNETTE MITCHELL MILLS

LAMBDA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Lambda Province delegates were most enthusiastic and eager to return to school and share their ideas with their Pi Phi sisters after attending Convention last summer. It was a rich and rewarding experience for all who attended this Convention in Pasadena.

Lambda Province has had many campus honors—academically and socially—Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, AWS, queens and their attendants. Many Pi Phis have distinguished themselves working on major campus committees. I am very proud and pleased that so many girls are working for various civic organizations—doing voluntary work—as a group and as individuals. They are giving freely of their time and talents.

Our ABO Province Award winner was Linda Swanson of Minnesota Alpha. Other girls nominated for this honor were: Patricia Maskell, Sandra Gronowski, Mary Westing, Linda Scalucci and Fay Thompson. The Chapter Service Award was given to Barbara Brownawell of Wisconsin Gamma. Other nominees were: Marilyn MacDonald, Michelle Jaakola, Pamela Ravine, Dianne Seitz and Donna Rae Pasch. All of these girls are to be congratulated for being nominated for these awards by their Chapters or their AAC's.

My chapter visits were interesting and worthwhile. Nancy Wright visited two chapters in the fall—Minnesota Alpha and Wisconsin Alpha and assisted with rush. Pi Phis are well-known for their hospitality and our Lambda Province girls are no exception. The deans on these campuses were high in their praise of our Pi Phis. They referred to them as "mature, intelligent leaders on campus and fine examples of true womanhood." Several chapters rated first in scholarship. On several campuses the administrations do not release "group ratings."

I would personally like to thank the various members of our Fraternity who have given me such help and support—Grand Council, the directors, Central Office, the province supervisors, AAC's, house corporations, the understanding house directors and last but not least the many loyal and dedicated alumnae who have helped in so many ways. With this help and guidance my position as Province President has been made much easier—and for this help I am very grateful.

PAULINE HACKETT BURNS

MU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

As I sit writing year end reports, I realize how much I will miss these lovely girls and their dedicated alumnae advisors. The very best part of the job of any Pi Phi officer is visiting chapters. It is refreshing to meet so many intelligent, articulate, attractive young people. National feeling is good in every group and pride in Pi Beta Phi is very evident. We are highly respected on every campus in Mu Province.

The selection of the Province ABO and Chapter Service Award winners is difficult. Each girl is outstanding and well qualified. Selected for the National ABO Award was Mary Fasulo, Illinois Theta; other nominees were Mary Dubois, Illinois Alpha; Rebecca Ann Holmeyer, Illinois Beta-Delta; Jackie Noller, Illinois Epsilon; Carole Wrigley, Illinois Zeta and Nancy Arms, Illinois Eta.

Cynthia McIlwain of Illinois Eta was chosen as the Mu Province Nominee for National Chapter Service Award. Janet Watson, Illinois Beta-Delta; Jean Huchausen, Illinois Epsilon; Kathy Katovich, Illinois Zeta; and Jane Beiser, Illinois Theta, were the other nominees.

Regular visits were made to Illinois Epsilon, Zeta and Eta in the fall and to Illinois Alpha, Beta-Delta in the spring. The National Director of AAC, Margaret Horning, and the National Director of Rush, Constance Adams, visited in the province this year. Words can not express the good that personal visits can do for a chapter and my appreciation is extended to these women.

A State Day was held in March. It was planned and hosted by Illinois Zeta. The National Director of Standards, Elizabeth Hill, was present.

Space is not available to list the many many names of women who devote hours to helping our chapters and who provide the needed continuity in an every changing chapter situation. I refer, of course, to the alumnae advisory committees and house corporations of Mu Province.

The Scholarship Supervisor, Katherine Andert, has worked closely with each chapter and the reward has been prospects for continued good scholarship. Our girls are involved in so many worthwhile campus and community activities as well as chapter functions. We have our share of queens as well as members of honoraries.

I now turn this province over to Cynthia Tousley who has served it for five years on the Fraternity Study and Education Committee. Many of the girls have worked with her and they all are looking forward to meeting her soon. She is sure to enjoy them as much as I have during this all too brief year as Mu Province President.

My thanks must go to Grand Council for their continued support and encouragement.

NANCY STEWART SMITTS

NU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

This has been a most enlightening and rewarding year for your Nu Province President. The Province Officers' Workshop held last September in St. Louis was invaluable for someone so new in this type work. The help and sympathetic understanding of Grand Council, national directors and Central Office has been deeply appreciated by this officer.

In looking back over this past year I find that the chapters in Nu Province have been outstanding. Each chapter has been one in which our National Fraternity can be extremely proud.

The girls are lovely, well mannered young ladies. They are always among the leaders on their respective campuses. Nu Province Pi Phis are very much in evidence in all major campus activities. They hold positions of leadership in student government, are class officers, and are members of many honoraries including Phi Beta Kappa. They are members of Mortar Board and are listed in Who's Who. Pi Phis are in concert choirs, have had leads in musicals and plays. Another way to prove that Pi Phis are held in high regard by the students on their respective campuses is evidenced by the number of queens and sweethearts we have in Nu Province. We have also had more than our share of varsity cheerleaders.

One of the most difficult decisions this officer had to make was in selecting the province winners for the various national awards. Each of the girls nominated by her chapter was most deserving. The girls nominated for the Amy Burnham Onken award were: Betty Atterberry Cecil from Iowa Beta; Betty Carlson, Iowa Gamma; Pamela Austin, Iowa Zeta; Kathy Kuethe, Nebraska Beta; and Cindy Cimpl, South Dakota Alpha. The province winner was Pamela Austin from Iowa Zeta.

For the Chapter Service Award the nominees were Cindy Houghan, Iowa Beta; Beth Collison, Iowa Gamma; Becky Alexander, Iowa Zeta; Connie Clifton, Nebraska Beta; and Linda Anderson, South Dakota Alpha. The Province winner was Connie Clifton from Nebraska Beta.

During the year, chapters in Nu Province welcomed several distinguished visitors. Orpha Coenen, Grand Vice President of Chapters, visited Nebraska Beta and South Dakota Alpha. Freda Schuyler, Director of Chapter House Corporations, and Nancy Wright, Graduate Counselor, were at Iowa Alpha. Dorothy Morgan, past Grand President, was a guest of the Pi Phis at South Dakota Alpha when she attended a Panhellenic Conference on that campus. During the year Nebraska Beta has been privileged in having Mrs. Morgan as their dinner guest and we thank her for the guidance and sound judgment which she has given them. Each chapter was happy to have these delightful ladies with them and are indebted to each for their assistance and excellent advice.

Nu Province has so many interested and hard working alums, and I am especially indebted to the Province Supervisors: Lucile Bostwick, Scholarship; Margaret Buck, Fraternity Study and Education; and Jeanne Hubbard, Pi Phi Times Coordinator.

My thanks to the AAC boards of each chapter. These are a group of dedicated women who spend many hours guiding our local chapters. The chairmen of these AAC boards are: Josephine Carper, Iowa Alpha; Shirley Bunch, Iowa Beta; Marvel Smith, Iowa Gamma; Diane Butherus, Iowa Zeta; Suzi Wagner, Nebraska Beta; and Ann Ward, South Dakota Alpha. We do appreciate their loyalty and support.

Visits to each chapter were a thrilling experience for this officer. I must admit that before starting I was somewhat apprehensive but upon arriving at each chapter I was met by the most wonderful girls in the world—members of Pi Beta Phi—their courtesy, cooperation, enthusiasm, desire for achievement, and loyalty will always be remembered by me. These visits were indeed a highlight of my year.

In closing may I again express my thanks to all who have helped make this such a good year for the Pi Phis of Nu Province. It has been a great honor and privilege to serve as your Province President.

DOROTHY NELSEN HUNTER

XI PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The redistricting of the provinces has changed Xi Province so it now encompasses Kansas and Missouri, and includes Kansas Alpha at the University of Kansas, Kansas Beta at Kansas State University, Missouri Alpha at the University of Missouri, Missouri Beta at Washington University and Missouri Gamma at Drury.

Attending a national convention, and all the exciting moments it entails as meeting the members of Grand Council, the directors, making new friends, collegiate and alumnae, from all over the United States and Canada, is always an inspiring, heartwarming and memorable affair. The Pasadena Convention was no exception, and all the girls returned to their chapters with renewed vigor and enthusiasm to instill in their sisters a part of the warmth, love and respect for the national organization that each delegate experienced at Pasadena.

We were particularly happy and proud to have Kansas Beta bring the Balfour Cup to our province.

Scholarship is uppermost in the goals of each chapter, and all chapters in Xi Province raised their grade point averages this year. A special thanks goes to Alice Fontron Holmes who is finishing her first year as scholarship supervisor for the province. Her excellent, constructive suggestions have been a factor in the improved grade point averages. The chapter scholarship chairmen deserve an accolade too for their untiring efforts to spur the chapters on in spite of all the extra-curricular activities.

Our Grand President Sally Paulson Vanasse and Missouri Alpha were mutually enchanted with each other when Mrs. Vanasse visited them in January. Although Missouri Beta was not on her itinerary, she visited them one morning. Needless to say, Missouri Beta was charmed too.

In addition to the increased academic load at all colleges and universities, the Pi Phis continue to be leaders on their campuses in all facets of college life. Xi Province has many Mortar Boards, one president; Phi Beta Kappas, Phi Kappa Phis, and similar senior honoraries; Chimes, Spurs, Cwens, dorm counselors, student government representatives, committee chairmen, choir members, year book editor, college newspaper editor, presidents of councils, and queens and sweethearts galore. It is easy to see why college administrators are pleased to have Pi Beta Phi chapters on their campuses.

Selecting a nominee for the Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service awards are the most heart-rending decisions a province president has to make during the year. I was fortunate this year in having Alice Fontron Holmes, Xi Province Scholarship Supervisor, help me in making these difficult decisions. The nominees for the ABO were Kansas Alpha, Lynne Birney; Kansas Beta, Barbara Mistle; Missouri Beta, Carol Ahearn; Missouri Gamma, Marcia Williams; Missouri Alpha, Sonja Hillgren, who is the province nominee.

The loyal, hardworking alumnae advisory committee members nominated the following girls for Chapter Service: Missouri Alpha, Julie Boyer; Missouri Beta, V. J. Dickson; Kansas Beta, Jackie Basham; Kansas Alpha, Pamela Russell; and Missouri Gamma, Marcia Williams who is the province nominee.

Nell Bly of Kansas Alpha won the outstanding sophomore award which the St. Louis Alumnae Club gives. The winner is selected by a committee of St. Louis women.

A vote of thanks and appreciation go to Helen Gorse for her work as Fraternity Study and Education Supervisor, and to Iris Miller Gamber for her untiring efforts as the Pi Phi Times Coordinator.

Chapter visits are always the highlight of the year. Meeting the girls at the Missouri chapters for the first time was a joy, and it always is rewarding to visit chapters like Kansas Alpha and Kansas Beta where one renews friendships from the last visit, and forms many new ones with the pledges, officers and as many other girls as it is possible to meet in such a limited schedule.

There will be a chapter president's workshop in Kansas City, Missouri in August. Each president, pledge supervisor, and AAC chairman will attend. We are indeed fortunate that Sarah Holmes Hunt, Grand Vice President of Philanthropies, Rose McColloch Dressler, Director of Chapter Histories, and Mary Zimmerman Knipmeyer, former province president, all live in Kansas City and will be able to contribute to our workshop.

The loyal, devoted Pi Phis who live in our college communities are entrusted with guiding our college members when they serve on the alumnae advisory committees. Xi Province is blessed with many of these fine women who give unstintingly of their time to help Pi Beta Phi continue to be the outstanding women's college fraternity.

My sincere thanks to our Grand President, Sally Vanasse, to our Grand Vice President, Elizabeth Turner Orr, and to Sally Schulenburg, Director of Central Office, for their understanding and guidance. To each member of Grand Council we owe a special vote of appreciation for their love and labors of behalf of all Pi Phis.

SHIRLEY JONES MANN

OMICRON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Omicron Province chapters are a joy. To see the relationships with the pledges, actives, and alumnae is inspiring and heartwarming.

Convention delegates returned with glowing reports and new insights in the depth and scope of Pi Beta Phi and the challenges of the future. The many facets of Fraternity were truly learned and appreciated: the continuing love and interest of alumnae; the wisdom and untiring service of Grand Council members; the hopes and dreams of all Pi Phi angels. Each is a binding golden link in our chain.

Chapter visits were made in the fall to Arkansas Alpha and Arkansas Beta. February visits were made to Oklahoma Alpha and Oklahoma Beta. These visits were pure delight. They welcome you with warm hospitality and genuine Pi Phi spirit. The girls possess beauty, happiness and enthusiasm. They strive for excellence in scholarship, service, leadership and friendship. Their houses and lodge abound with a friendly, hospitable atmosphere.

University administrators on all campuses look for strong leadership in Pi Phi. Chapters list individual members of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Who's Who, and other honoraries. Leadership is represented on campus with officers in AWS, SUAB, Student Senate, and similar student government organizations. Omicron chapters are well represented with queens, yearbook beauties, cheerleaders and sweethearts. Chapters contribute to local philanthropic projects; many individuals contribute time and talent to tutoring and other social restorative programs.

Appreciation and recognition for distinguished service to The Fraternity and university are expressed in the chapter selection of ABO Awards: Pam Seneff, Arkansas Alpha; Vicki Hufsmith, Arkansas Beta; Rochelle Rudd, Oklahoma Alpha; Dana Downing, Oklahoma Beta. Oklahoma's State Day and Founders' Day proved an appropriate time for the announcement of Dana Downing, Oklahoma Beta, as Omicron Province's ABO Award.

The alumnae advisory committees select Chapter Service Award Winners in recognition for service, loyalty, and sympathy to the chapter and The Fraternity. Chapter winners were: Alice Howell, Arkansas Alpha; Mary Jane Farquharson, Arkansas Beta; Sally Uhlenhop, Oklahoma Alpha; Dottie Hays, Oklahoma Beta. Alice Howell of Arkansas Alpha received the Omicron Province Chapter Service Award.

Academic excellence, campus leadership, individual achievement, irreproachable conduct and outstanding chapter recognition are Pi Phi's raison d'être. Omicron Province Pi Beta Phis endeavor to uphold these ideals. I am grateful to each of these lovely young women for their trust and friendship.

CAROLINE E. HUGHES

PI PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The six chapters of Pi Province are of sterling quality, and it has been this officer's pleasure to work in close association with each of them. Visiting the chapters is always a rich and enjoyable experience for a province president. The gracious welcomes given this officer while making official visits were deeply appreciated.

Chapter presidents and alternate delegates to the Pasadena Convention returned to their chapters with many new ideas and with a clearer picture of the scope of the national Fraternity. Several chapters initiated new concepts in rush, pledge education and scholarship programs, and have been rewarded with improvements in these areas.

Rush was successful for all six chapters—pledging full quotas. All stressed academic achievement and campus activities in pledge training. Every month brought new laurels to the chapters. All the groups were recipients of trophies, awards and other honors. Key positions on campuses prove the leadership and responsibility of our members. Pi Province is well represented in student government and class officers, Mortar Board or its equivalent, Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities, and honorary fraternities. In the areas of leadership Pi Phi is well known; however, Pi Phi is also well represented in the beauty field with many queens, sweethearts, and court members. Pi Phis possess intelligence, integrity and beauty.

It seems that every year it becomes a more difficult task to select the Province ABO and Chapter Service Award winners. The girls nominated by their chapters are all so outstanding and well qualified for the honor. The nominees for the Amy Burnham Onken Award were: Christy Donahue, Louisiana Alpha; Martha Jane McCullough, Louisiana Beta; Elizabeth Holmes, Texas Alpha; Deanie Fulton, Texas Beta; Karen Johnson, Texas Gamma; and Sally Hewell, Texas Delta. The province winner was Sally Hewell, Texas Delta.

For Chapter Service the nominees were: Catherine Dyer, Louisiana Alpha; Peggy Haydel, Louisiana Beta; Polly Grant, Texas Alpha; Marilyn Hesley, Texas Beta; Betty Waller, Texas Gamma; and Paula Cunningham, Texas Delta. The province winner was Catherine Dyer, Louisiana Alpha.

Serving the first year as Pi Province President has been a stimulating and rewarding experience. The loyal AAC and house corporation members are certainly to be commended for the hours of service they have given the chapters and this officer. Bouquets are due to Linda Williamson Barnette for her assistance and interest in Pi's Fraternity Study and Education supervision; to Frances Dilly Boyles for her coordination of the Pi Phi Times; and to Frances Gary Waters for the valuable and thoughtful supervision of the chapters' scholarship programs. Also, carnations are equally deserved by Grand Council and national directors and Sally Schulenburg, Director of Central Office, for their support and advice.

It has been a year of achievement for Pi Province, and with the potential of the Pi Beta Phis of this province, the work of The Fraternity will continue to advance.

JEANNETTE SIMPSON ROBERTS

RHO PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The Forty-seventh Biennial Convention of Pi Beta Phi, held in Pasadena, was just the beginning of a very busy and challenging year for this officer. It was a privilege to attend this convention and to meet many wonderful and enthusiastic Pi Phis from all over the United States and Canada. It also made one realize how fine, capable and intelligent are the active Pi Phi leaders of this generation.

In September a workshop was held in St. Louis for the national and province officers. It was most helpful and instructive; also a rare opportunity to know our national officers better. They are indeed dedicated, knowledgeable, and delightful women. This officer returned home feeling much better prepared to start in her new job as a province president.

This was a year of chapter visits from national officers as well as the Province President. Liz Orr, Grand Vice President of Chapters, visited Colorado Alpha. Helen Dix, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, visited Colorado Gamma and Wyoming Alpha. Sarah Hunt, Grand Vice President of Philanthropies, visited Montana Alpha. The chapters benefited from their wise guidance, friendliness and Pi Phi enthusiasm. Nancy Wright, Pi Phi Traveling Counselor, also spent some time with Colorado Gamma and Wyoming Alpha and was a great help to them.

The Province President made an official visit to each of the five chapters as well as several extra visits in the province. The snows of October and November presented a few problems and one trip to Wyoming was a bit "hairy" over slick highways and through ground blizzards. The Province President has attended three initiations and several social affairs.

The Founders' Day which she was privileged to attend was held on April 29th at the Elk's club in Boulder, Colorado, with Colorado Alpha as the hostess chapter. The group was honored to have Marilyn Van Derbur as the guest speaker. Over two hundred and eighty Pi Phis and guests were present. A special highlight of Founders' Day is the announcement of the Province Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service Award winners. Janet Cogswell from Colorado Beta was the Province ABO winner; other nominees for this award were: Karen Alexander, Colorado Alpha; and Cassie Hendershott, Montana Alpha. Nancy Burks from Colorado Gamma was the Province Chapter Service Award winner. Other nominees for this award were: Mimi Noren, Colorado Alpha; Jeanne Naughton and Carol Reichardt from Colorado Beta; Peggy Rowland, Wyoming Alpha; and Carla Stevenson from Montana Alpha.

Each chapter was a pleasure to visit and each is refreshingly different. Campus demonstrations have taken place on nearly every campus and sometimes it is difficult for the serious minded student to attend classes. Pi Phis in Rho Province are seldom part of these demonstrations, but these girls are concerned and are seeking ways in which Pi Phi can be a constructive influence in the world of today. All chapters in the province have one or more philanthropic projects. Some send food and clothing to under privileged groups or communities, others help retarded children, or with orphans, still others help with tutoring and in other ways assist minority groups.

Pi Phi is represented in Mortar Board, Associated Women Student organizations, student governments, Panhellenic president, year book staffs, Who's Who in American Sororities and Fraternities, Young Republican and Democrat groups, all honorary groups, campus queens and activity groups.

Pi Phis are scholarship conscious and are constantly trying to improve their scholarship programs. Montana Alpha leads the province in scholarship and was the winner for the best scholarship program in the province. Mrs. Ann Dickson, Province Scholarship Supervisor, was a great help to the chapters this year with her inspiring letters full of good ideas. She also sent special notes and suggestions to boost morale when it was needed.

Rho Province house mothers are very special people and are always there when needed, gracious and tireless in their efforts to maintain a happy and harmonious home for their many adopted daughters. These fine women have made special effort to welcome and accommodate visiting officers and guests. In spite of the many problems our house mothers have encountered this past year, all but one of them is returning in the fall.

Rho Province is especially blessed with devoted and dedicated advisory board members. Almost without exception the rapport with the chapter members is excellent. These women give many hours of love and service to their respective chapters. This is also true of the house corporation members, who do such an outstanding job of maintaining five beautiful chapter houses, and sometimes with very limited funds.

This has been a full and rewarding year for this officer and would not have been possible without the help of so many. My special thanks to Liz Orr and other members of Grand Council, the national directors, AAC's, Mrs. Dickson, Province Scholarship Supervisor, Mrs. Olsen, Province Fraternity Education Supervisor, and Sally Schulenburg. To the actives in the province a sincere thanks for cooperation and loyalty; and last but not least my gratitude for a patient and understanding husband.

This officer is looking forward to another busy and happy year working with our Pi Phi chapters in Rho Province.

LUCILLE McCRILLIS RYLAND

SIGMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The 1969 Convention in Pasadena was a joy and an inspiration to Pi Phi in the newly districted Sigma Province. General business meetings, workshops, banquets, were edifying and instructive; close association with sisters from every and all states and Canada with informal exchange of ideas, discussions re campus trends and problems, comparisons of mutual appreciation of The Fraternity, its ideals and standards, resulted in a greater sense of pride and a firm reaffirmation of the national organization and that for which it stands. The enthusiasm of those in attendance has been contagious. The convention reports were concise and stimulated the chapters to higher goals and achievements, and better understanding of the national organization. It is good to report that currently the Greek system is welcomed and encouraged on campuses in this province. University enrollments are steadily increasing though, unfortunately, the numbers going through rush are not keeping pace but in fact decreasing and quotas, of necessity, are being reduced. Fortunately membership in Pi Beta Phi has suffered only to the extent of the reduced quotas. Quotas were filled by all chapters during major rush in the fall and, as vacancies have occurred, other fine rushees have been pledged. In no chapter have all pledges made grades but percentages have been commendable.

The chapters may be justly proud of chapter and individual recognitions given. Pi Phi is well represented on all four campuses—AWS, WSGA, student body and class government, judicial board, campus publications, Who's Who, Mortar Board, etc. Individual honors include membership in numerous honorary societies as well as cheerleaders, campus queens, sweethearts and little sisters. Members have been active participants in sports events, team and individual; the area of the arts—music, drama, ballet; community projects—working with the blind, tutoring underprivileged, Santa's helpers; Greek week and Homecoming.

Scholarship continues to be a major concern of the province. New Mexico Alpha, for the second consecutive semester, is first on campus. Sigma Province thanks Marilyn Tench Alexander, Scholarship Chairman, for her encouragement and guidance; Margaret Boyden for perusing and selecting articles for Pi Phi Times.

New Mexico Alpha and Utah Alpha were privileged hostesses of Mrs. Harold B. Hunt, Grand Vice President of Philanthropies, this spring. The province president appreciated the opportunity to make visits early in the fall. This afforded the early establishment of congenial relationships, warm friendships and mutual understandings. It was a distinct pleasure to be received by gracious hostesses in their delightful Pi Phi homes. The generous contribution of time and assistance by alumnae advisory committees and chapter house corporations can not be adequately described, nor appreciation be fully expressed.

Province nominations for Amy B. Onken and Chapter Service Awards are made with mixed emotion for all nominees have contributed much to their chapters, campus, community and Fraternity; all deserve special recognition. Chapter nominees for Amy B. Onken Award were—Sheryl Hamlin, Arizona Beta, Patricia Kay Gres, New Mexico Alpha and Susie Bauter, Utah Alpha. Province nominee was Patricia Kay Gres, New Mexico Alpha. Nominees for Chapter Service Award were—Nancy Bell, Arizona Beta, Kay Bratton, New Mexico Alpha and Katherine Bird, Utah Alpha; Province nominee was Nancy Bell, Arizona Beta.

1969 Convention Awards in Sigma Province included—Lillian Beck Holman Award—Arizona Beta, Nancy Bell; Honorable Mention Best Chapter Histories, Arizona Alpha and New Mexico Alpha; special recognition for purchase of Arrowcraft products at Convention, Utah Alpha.

It is impossible to thank Sally Vanesse, Elizabeth Orr, other members of Grand Council and directors for their guidance, wise counsel, faith and encouragement throughout the year, or Sally Schulenburg and Central Office for their great assistance. Likewise it is impossible to express my deep appreciation and gratitude to the many dedicated wonderful Pi Phis in Sigma Province for their friendship, their understanding and their cooperation. A special commendation is given to the many who are responsible and who devotedly support "the cultivation of friendship, intimate association, and mutual cooperation of membership in moral, mental and social advancement," Our Fraternity.

VERA HENDRIX STARBUCK

TAU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

This first year as Tau Province President has been a most rewarding experience. The warm gracious welcome and cooperation received on fall visits brought my girls so close to me that working with them throughout the year has been sheer pleasure. Friends rather than just pen pals. Alberta Alpha is a most welcome addition to our province family.

All chapters of Tau had fine rushes and quotas were met. Good pledge supervisory programs paid off in a high proportion of initiates. By good fortune I was able to be with Washington Alpha and Washington Gamma for initiation, a bonus I thoroughly enjoyed. All chapters participated in informal or midyear rush this year with success.

With the able help of Janice Hansen, Scholarship Supervisor, Tau has maintained a high scholarship record of which we may all be proud. Several schools are no longer giving out comparative averages, however all chapters were above fraternity averages or maintained a 3.0 average where not given. Julie Vaux, Fraternity Study and Education, and Joy Goodenough, Pi Phi Times, have given invaluable help and inspiration to all chapters.

Tau as a province is most fortunate to have five dedicated, loyal AAC. My thanks to all of you for your hard work. It has been said that good chapter presidents backed by dedicated, hard working AAC make outstanding chapters. This has certainly proved to be true this year in Tau. We also have the good fortune to have most outstanding house directors (chaperones) with all chapters who have been a strength and inspiration.

Should I try to list the many activities and honors that our sisters have won I would indeed run over my allotted space. In this time of pressure and campus unrest it is gratifying to find so many of our members achieving in all phases of campus life from Phi Beta Kappa and other honoraries, politics, Mortar Board, to all kinds of queens and sweethearts. Each chapter has participated in some local philanthropy as well as supporting our national one.

When the nomination for the Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service Awards arrived it was a most difficult decision to make. All have earned top honors and are outstanding students. The Amy Burnham Onken Award nominees are: Mary Fallini, Idaho Alpha; Carole Kent, Washington Alpha; Janet Daake, Washington Beta; and the Province Winner Gail Anderson, Washington Gamma. The nominees for Chapter Service Award are: Caenie Quelch Pyrez, Alberta Alpha; Sally Kerr, Washington Alpha; Jeanne Hathaway, Washington Beta; Sue Bona, Washington Gamma; and the winner Linda Campbell, Idaho Alpha.

From the indoctrination workshop in St. Louis in September until the final letter to chapters in May this has been a year of learning. My thanks to the able teachers of Grand Council, the directors, and the Director of Central Office who have always given such willing help. Madeleine Lafon, Director of Programs, visited four chapters and Nancy Wright, Traveling Counselor, visited two. They were so enjoyed and much appreciated. They gave to all a feeling of National spirit and gratitude to the alumnae who give so generously of their time. Washington Alpha was the lucky chapter in Tau that was able to join the Seattle and Bellevue Alumnae Clubs for Founders' Day when our Grand President, Sally Vannasse, was the speaker.

My deepest affection and gratitude to the wonderful girls of Alberta Alpha, Idaho Alpha, Washington Alpha, Washington Beta, and Washington Gamma for their cooperation. I look forward to another year of achievement with you in the bonds of Pi Beta Phi.

PAT FISET JOHN

UPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

As this scholastic year draws to a close I'm sure that all members of Pi Beta Phi along with me have many reflections concerning the campus unrest that has settled over our nation. I must add that the universities of Upsilon Province have not been omitted from this turmoil. Some of course more than others. I would like to say that visiting and communicating with the five chapters leads me to believe that there are still some students who are not entirely opposed to "the establishment" and have a sense of responsibility to their families, fraternity, colleges and nation. I know we all seek an answer to the college community disruptions we are seeing so often.

I would like to bring attention to the many charitable projects with which the five chapters have been involved. Oregon Alpha joined with the DUs on Halloween and collected $200 for UNICEF. They then participated in a United Fund drive and worked with the Sig Eps on this project. In the spring the chapter played hostess to underprivileged children as they escorted them to a circus which was sponsored by the local Optimist club.

Oregon Beta had a Halloween project and worked with the Phi Deltas as they presented a party for the children at the state home for the retarded. Later in the year they worked for a Retarded Children's Fund Drive which was sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce. Oregon Gamma also joined forces with the Phi Deltas on Halloween. They entertained and supplied refreshments for a retarded children's home. At Christmas they gave $50 to the NAACP for needy children. This sum was raised by the entire house when they cut desserts and steaks from their menu for a period of time. Although Oregon Delta is small in number, the actives and the pledges have had a continuing special project throughout the year. Each month they traveled to the St. Mary's Home for Boys in Beaverton where they taught them dancing and entertained them with chess, checkers and other such games.

This year Nevada Alpha had a special project close to their hearts. They raised money for a new coat to present to their cook Bessie, who had several unexpected expenses during the year. The freshman at Nevada participated in the Heart Fund Drive, for which the money raised was used for blood needed by a local boy afflicted with leukemia. I'm sure we all feel that as a fraternal organization we can do much for our communities and our five chapters have certainly demonstrated this in a variety of ways.

All five chapters have continued to report outstanding participation in campus activities. A total of 11 girls were on rally this year. Six girls were members of Mortar Board, four of Cap and Scroll, one of Phi Beta Kappa and one a member of Phi Kappa Phi. Four girls were active as student senators and four were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. We had our share of queens such as SAE Queen of Violets, Theta Xi Queen, Delta Tau Delta Queen, a Winter Carnival Queen and a Homecoming Queen plus a Little Colonel. The girls named to courts are too numerous to mention but there were many.

Chosen for special recognition by their chapters as nominees for the ABO Award were: Cheryl Yee, Nevada Alpha; Cathi Howell, Oregon Alpha; Ginger Daggett, Oregon Beta; Leslie Robertson, Oregon Gamma and Jane Werhley, Oregon Delta. Cheryl Yee was the province winner. Honored by their alumnae advisory committees as candidates for the Chapter Service Award were: Kathy Klaich, Nevada Alpha; Vicki Edwards, Oregon Alpha; Gail Sarine Grosness, Oregon Beta; Cindy Carlson, Oregon Gamma; and Karen Boehmer, Oregon Delta. Vicki Edwards received the Province Chapter Service Award.

My visit with all of the chapters was very rewarding and they were most fortunate to have Nancy Wright, Traveling Counselor, work a visit with them into her busy schedule. She was exceedingly helpful in financial advice.

Scholarship in all the chapters has been on the upswing and all have bettered their previous terms grades during the year. Again Oregon Delta won the Panhellenic Scholarship Trophy for the highest average. Special thanks go to Dottie Rasmussen, Province Scholarship Supervisor, Helen Hammond, Province Fraternity Study and Education Supervisor and Dolores Turville, Province Pi Phi Times Coordinator.

The members of AAC of each chapter deserve many thanks from me and the actives for their tireless devotion to Pi Beta Phi as they help keep the girls on an even keel. The Fraternity owes these women a debt of gratitude for their many hours of work. The many fine chaperones also have my vote of thanks for their interest and support of our Pi Phi ideals. A special thought of thanks to Mrs. Dolly Cobb, Nevada Alpha chaperone, who retires this year.

The willing help given by all the national officers and for the cooperation and friendship of the members and officers of the five chapters in Upsilon Province I am most grateful and thank them for a most enjoyable year as province president.

PATRICIA KELLY SWAN

PHI PROVINCE PRESIDENT

With Phi Province serving as hostess for the 1969 Convention, not only delegates and alternates but many others as well were able to gain the knowledge and inspiration attendance at this international gathering of Pi Phis offered. With such a rewarding start, the year was bound to be a good one. It provided doubly so despite the unrest which erupted in major demonstrations on three of the five campuses. These disruptions may have caused brief curtailment of chapter activities, but the anti-Greek feeling prevalent in varying degrees on all campuses throughout the province has actually served as an added reason to demonstrate more fully the value of Pi Phi membership. Desire for continued existence in an unfriendly atmosphere has resulted in self-analysis of all facets of chapter life to assess their importance and effectiveness. The outmoded and inconsequential have been honed away to expose that which is significant and merits continuance. These changes have enriched the meaning and thus the importance of membership in the lives of today's college women. Yet the warm bond of a cooky-shine, the meaningful unity of past and future during the special moment of initiation or the mutual understanding developed through sharing daily experiences and thoughts within the chapter circle are unchanging and timeless in their appeal and worth. The basic ideals of yesterday still serve as the guidelines of today.

Scholarship in the province is not only rated high at each school, but within the fraternity as well. It stands first among all provinces in the percentage of members and pledges who exceed the campus initiation average, and is ranked near the top by the percentage who exceed the all-women's fraternity average. California Epsilon again this year remains first in scholarship at San Diego State while California Delta has achieved a 3.0 plus average for the last three quarters. California Zeta this past quarter has matched Delta's average. For a third successive year all pledges qualified scholastically for initiation at California Delta and all but one did so at Beta and Gamma. The names of sixteen Pi Phis appeared on the Dean's List at the various schools. Special recognition is given to Gina Fox of California Epsilon. She placed first in the province by maintaining a 4.0 or perfect average for the past year. In the severe competition of overcrowded campuses such results deserve high praise.

This scholarship was earned while these members were actively engaged in many pursuits. Paralleling the national trend of increasing emphasis on community involvement over traditional college projects has meant participation in numerous areas with special accent on the young. Deep concern for those economically, socially and educationally handicapped has prompted both individual and chapter support of programs which would aid them. Sponsorship of youth groups, service as summer camp counselors, assistance through tutoring are only a few of the avenues this support has taken. Concern for others also manifests itself in such activities as Project Pakistan and People Corps. Campus participation is not bypassed. At Berkeley the chapter president, Anne Moller, is also A.S.U.C. Second Vice-President while Ava Chu is junior class secretary and Joann Jackson is freshman class secretary. Pi Phi leadership in Panhellenics is illustrated by Melinda DeBerard, president at U.S.C., and Patt Higgins, secretary at San Diego State. To further the cause of Greek membership, the chapter president at Epsilon, Valerie Shields, has spoken on television and elsewhere in its behalf. The more traditional activities of song girl caused the Pi Phi charms of Jeanne Wallace from U.C.L.A. and Suzanne of U.S.C. to be viewed nationwide on television as they cheered on their teams to championships. Diane Swift, Debbie Nichols and Paula Christianson were performing the same services at U.C.S.B. Special artistic and athletic talents gained recognition also as Dana Dunn toured Europe with the U.C.L.A. Madrigal Singers, Trish Harris played with the San Diego State orchestra and tennis teams included Jane Richardson at U.C.L.A. and three Pi Phis at U.C.S.B. In addition there were Pi Phi queens and princesses, official campus hostesses, athletic and fraternity auxiliary members as well as many others learning the value of involvement. News of individual honors resulting from this year's activities are just beginning to be received such as the selection of Susan Pebley of Delta and Nancy Ellerman at Gamma for Mortar Board membership.

For excellence in all fields Valerie Shields was chosen Amy Burnham Onken award winner for the province. Other nominees of like abilities were Cindy Coveney, Beta, Dana Dunn, Delta, and Nancy Wolven, Zeta. Enthusiastic spirit, leadership and continued chapter participation were acknowledged by AAC nominations for the Chapter Service Award of Kathy Lowe, Beta, Susan Schreiber, Gamma, Dede Smith, Epsilon and Tina Bryant of Zeta along with the province winner from Delta, Caroline Walker.

California Beta, Gamma and Zeta gained valuable assistance from the broader scope of fraternity knowledge of Freda Schuyler, Director of Chapter House Corporations and Nancy Wright, Traveling Graduate Counselor, as they visited these chapters. The year's highlight for many was Founders' Day in Los Angeles when active representatives from all chapters but Beta were present to hear the inspiring messages of the Grand President, Sally Vanasse, and Grand President of Alumnæ, Evelyn Kyle.

With my first year as Province President drawing to a close, I take great pleasure in looking back on these past months. Since many of the advisors and housemothers were also new, we all had much to learn about fraternity policies and procedures as well as the thinking of today's collegians. The dedication of the alumnæ serving on AAC and the warm understanding of housemothers has made my task a much easier one. Although there were times when correspondence and reports seemed to reach a flood stage which threatened to engulf family responsibilities, the joy of watching individuals and chapters progress ever higher on the road to excellence made it all worthwhile. As I visited each chapter doors and hearts were opened wide. For me the significance of Pi Phi friendship has taken on a new dimension and a deeper meaning.
