- f. Install all officers at a meeting following election and before the close of the club year. All officers shall be installed with the installation pledge as prescribed in the Statutes, Part I, Article IV, Section 9, a. (p. 19).

The motion carried.

The secretary of the Alumnae Department read the proposed amendment to the Statutes as presented by Grand Council.

To amend Statutes, Part III, Article IV, Section 1, by striking out the word "three" and inserting to read: "Membership in the alumnae department shall be contingent upon payment of annual dues of four dollars, which shall be forwarded to Central Office by November 15 or by April 1."

To amend Statutes, Part III, Article IV, Section 2, a, by striking out the word "two" and inserting to read: "Three dollars shall be placed in the alumnae fund from which expenses incidental to the work of the alumnae department shall be paid."

The motion carried.

The secretary of the Alumnae Department moved that two Ruth Barrett Smith Scholarships be awarded each year during the biennium, and that the funds for the scholarships in the total amount of $700 per year be allocated

Annual Reports of National Officers

GRAND PRESIDENT

As this report is being written your Grand President has left her city apartment for her summer home. This officer is now able to absorb the beauty of the evergreen trees, the blue water and the snow capped mountains with a serenity not felt in city living. The simple pleasures of the birds' song, the strolls on the beach, the fun of attending a small town dance recital, the spontaneous questions and hugs from small ones put the greater part of the year and its concerns, into a different perspective—one of calm regard for things less complex.

With the implementation of the pilot program of I.C. '71, much credit must go to our Traveling Counselors, Deanie Fulton and Sharon Smith, for their assistance to the I.C. Steering Committee, chaired by Nancy Blaicher Pollock. Their guidance to these sixteen chapters, as well as all other chapters visited and aided, made us ever grateful for the addition of two young women in this area.

It was a sad moment when we lost our chapter in Winter Park, Florida—Florida Gamma at Rollins College. The heartbreak is that the decision of so few legislated for the long list of loyal and dedicated alumnae members of this chapter.

Appointments are always a part of this officer's duties and these included members on the Convention committee, the Ritual and Ceremonies Study committee, the election coordinator, actives on the resolutions committee, and placements on the nominating committee.

Another appointment of the Grand President is the chairman of the Arrowmont Board of Governors. Due to reasons of health, Hesperia Aylesworth Henderson was forced to resign and Betty Bailey Hall most graciously accepted the chairmanship for the continuation of the term.

Regretfully the resignations of the following officers were accepted: Susan Stevenson Landis, Delta Province President; Patricia Shiner Hakes, Lambda Province President; Marion Kunkel Hild, Phi Province President, and Cynthia Seifert Tousley, Mu Province President.

These positions were filled by the Grand President and we welcome the following members on our officer roles. Delta Province President, Mary Liz Smith Sadler; Lambda Province President, Mary Taggart Timmcke; Phi Province President, Ernestine Garcia Ohlson, and Mu Province President, Dorothy Jean Baker McFadden.

In November this officer had the privilege of visiting Texas Beta and Texas Delta and was once again impressed with this most pleasurable part in the life of a national officer. During this trip the Grand President had the rare privilege of attending, as Honorary Chairman, the Nashville, Tenn., Christmas Village.

Obligations for the Grand President also included the attendance at the National Interfraternity Foundation dinner during the N.I.C. meeting in December in San Francisco; the Edgewater Conference in New Orleans in January and the Grand Council meetings in Kansas City and San Antonio.

Incidental visits were made with California Beta and Colorado Alpha; as well as a speech at the Northern California Council of City Panhellenic. Founders' Day was celebrated, as speaker, with the Santa Barbara Alumnae Club and the California Zeta active chapter.

Increasingly in the past ten years the cry has gone out against sororities—as to discrimination and usefulness. Sororities are subject to easy attack by the very nature of their being secret, ritualistic societies. There is an immense difference between the preferring of one person to another and the denying of another person their rights. Public opinion is difficult to change and the printed media not very helpful, but the philosophy of your Grand President is that we have something of value—tested by time—truly, not for everyone, and we who love it must fight to maintain it.

Our actives have continued, many under harassing circumstances, to bring credit and honor in scholarship and activities to Pi Beta Phi. Their lives, too, have benefited by this enrichment, growth, and experience. One need only to read their accounts in The Arrow to be impressed by their achievements in the fields of community service and chapter and individual growth.

Sensitiveness to change and the ability to appreciate certain demands of our actives does not always come easy to one of my generation. Only through day by day correspondence and contact does one learn a tolerance not previously known. This officer has not yet learned to accept the occasional, deeply critical letters from members that cross her desk. They question whether we DO or DO NOT have members of all races and creeds—they state we are frivolous, hypocritical, without heart, etc. This officer's feelings are always the same. A Pi Beta Phi association is not an isolated thing—it is friendship—it is love, and these spiritual qualities don't just come out of nowhere—but from life and the everyday living of it. Pi Beta Phi can be enjoyed by one's self alone, or in your club or with your family and dearest friends. There are deeper meanings in Pi Beta Phi than can be revealed in words. Pi Phi helps us understand the strivings, experiences, and struggles of those around us and helps us rejoice in our privilege of membership.

On the Archives Building in Washington, D.C., the following inscription appears—"The heritage of the past is the seed that brings forth the harvest of the future." Pi Beta Phi, legitimately proud of the accomplishments of the past one hundred and four years, must prepare for the challenges ahead. With the thought "if any copying must be done, let others copy us" it was that Pi Beta Phi initiated her pilot program last fall—I.C. '71. We treasure the best of the past while seeking to insure the future by developing for today—mental, moral and social capacities.

So it is with the "sweet smell of success" emanating from most of the sixteen pilot chapters that Grand Council is introducing the proposed I.C. '71 plan for all chapters. The program is flexible and yet remains within the basic framework of our Founders. Their desires were "to cultivate sincere friendship, establish the real objects of life, and promote the happiness of humanity—to secure the intimate association and mutual cooperation of the membership in moral, mental and social advancement." The meaning of this for Pi Beta Phi in the 70's—"sincere friendship" is self-explanatory and can be emphasized by exchange and sharing of ideas and projects of the individual sisters. The "objects of life" will be individual values and standards. "Happiness of humanity" can be represented by Pi Beta Phi philanthropies and national and local community efforts. Scholarship obviously comes under "mental advancement" and "social advancement" attained by parties and retreats.

Pi Beta Phi hopes to accomplish a number of objectives through I.C. '71 by making fraternity education a continuing thing for actives and pledges by breaking down barriers between actives and pledges, by bringing in a new positive approach, by providing innovative discussion for rush, by promoting senior participation and producing newsworthy material for publicity and public relations. The major aims of the I.C. Plan are to develop contemporary programs and activities and to have a greater total involvement and total development of pledges and actives alike rather than just a few officers carrying all the burden. This, we hope, will be our return to excellence which we do dedicate to our Founders.

The entire fraternity system, now two hundred years old, has a membership of over seven million. In the past six years it has been invited on over four hundred college campuses. With 75% of all individual funds contributed to college and universities coming from fraternity people, it is hardly a system subject to dissolution. As loyal members we must all re-examine the many phases of fraternity life and operation to be armed with positive information when we read and hear unfair and biased criticism of fraternities and sororities.

Consider the thousands of dollars spent on philanthropic work, the changes in membership restrictions, the changes in emphasis from a purely social organization to the image of a culturally and community-minded student. What has not been changed, however, is our membership based on living together in mutual respect, thoughtfulness, cooperation and dignity.

One is ever aware of the vastness of our organization as the daily correspondence is handled. Over 300 letters have been recorded as received by your Grand President and these requests, questions, and concerns have been answered. This officer is ever grateful for the extreme dedication and devotion of her fellow Grand Council members; for the efficiency of our Central Office Staff; for the faithful efforts of the directors and all the national officers. Gratitude, also, for the cooperation by the active officers.

For these past two years this officer has attempted to fill this awesome post previously held by such capable officers. To each office a part of the officer's personality, a part of her being, is given. So it is with your Grand President—who has tried and has done her best.

SARAHJANE PAULSON VANASSE

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF CHAPTERS (ADMINISTRATIVE)

As my last year to serve as an officer of Pi Beta Phi comes to a close, I wish to report on the work done during the fiscal year, express thanks for the rewards received through Fraternity service for seventeen years as an officer on both active and alumnae levels, and express my gratitude for the opportunity to serve Pi Beta Phi and make it a vital part of my life.

After a year as treasurer in training and three years and two months as Grand Treasurer, understanding Grand Council members accepted my resignation as Grand Treasurer. My successor, Orpha O'Rourke Coenen, very graciously and efficiently assumed the duties of that office in August, 1971, following the annual audit of the treasurer's funds by the firm of Ernst & Ernst, Little Rock, Arkansas. By appointment of the Grand Council, I then assumed the duties of the office of Grand Vice President of Chapters (Administrative), the office formerly held by Mrs. Coenen. In this office I have found inspiration in the contacts I have had with the directors, province officers and the members of Grand Council, both by correspondence and through personal contact. The latter included meetings of Grand Council in Gatlinburg for the dedication of the new Emma Harper Turner Building at Arrowmont, in Kansas City in the fall, and in San Antonio in the spring, and with the directors and province officers in San Antonio. Visits with active chapters, Arkansas Alpha, Arkansas Beta, Oklahoma

Alpha, and Oklahoma Beta, demonstrated that Pi Beta Phi is just as meaningful to the present active members as it was to the Golden Arrow Pi Phi I met at the celebration of Founders' Day with the Little Rock Alumnae Club and Arkansas Beta. I found alumnae serving on alumnae advisory committees and house corporation boards giving dedicated and inspiring service to each chapter.

A revised version of a Manual for Chapter House Managers, covering chapters having houses, lodges, apartments or rooms, has been prepared and will be distributed soon.

In memory of Amy Burnham Onken, in honor of Frances Rosser Brown and Oklahoma Alpha, in loving appreciation of Olivia Smith Moore, Alice Weber Johnson, Marianne Reid Wild and Edythe Mulveyhill Brack, in gratefulness to the many other officers with whom I have served through the years, and especially to Sarahjane Paulson Vanasse, Dorothy Weaver Morgan, Evelyn Peters Kyle, Elizabeth Turner Orr, Sarah Holmes Hunt, Fay Martin Gross, Orpha O'Rourke Coenen, Helen Boucher Dix, Jean Orr Donaldson and Freda Stafford Schuyler, and in sincere thankfulness to Sally Perry Schultenburg and the staff at Central Office, I sign off this report to all members of the fraternity as I remain, Yours faithfully in Pi Beta Phi,

LOUISE ROSSER KEMP

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF CHAPTERS

A changing year in our collegiate chapters has been witnessed by this officer. Fewer administrative demands have lessened external pressures, but the influence of societal turmoil has been felt in chapter life. We cannot expect our present active membership to be unaffected, but we can hope to provide a forum for unbiased programming. This year has produced our first nationally endorsed program aimed in this direction—I.C. '71. Several articles in THE ARROW have described this philosophy which in essence is a return to our founding principles. A national steering committee was appointed in Gatlinburg at the June meeting and a planning conference set up for August which this officer attended in an ex-officio capacity. Sixteen pilot chapters operated under this concept throughout the year. With their reports analyzed we were able to present this new programming idea for consideration of the Convention.

We have been fortunate in having the awareness and enthusiasm of two traveling graduate counselors this year. The joy of guiding their activities has been a real delight. The fraternity is most grateful to Sharon Smith and Deanie Fulton.

Travel began with participation in the leadership conference sponsored by Operation Greek. Our two traveling graduate counselors and Rho Province president were also in attendance, joining with representatives of other nationals. The interchange of ideas provided fertile fields for exploration with the directors, resulting in a new look for Convention workshops.

Grand Council meetings were attended in Kansas City and San Antonio, plus a special planning conference in San Francisco. All of these emphasized the dedication of Grand Council members to the welfare of Pi Beta Phi in its active commitments as well as in its alumnae departments.

As usual chapter visits brought the greatest demands but equal rewards. Missouri Beta, Wisconsin Alpha, Wisconsin Beta, Wisconsin Gamma, Colorado Alpha and Arizona Alpha all proved to be individually different but all representative of their own university environment. Without these on-the-spot reports, it would be impossible to evaluate the campus situation in a contemporary light.

Many thanks are due the province presidents for their thoughtful reports and for their cooperation. Appreciation must be expressed to the directors for their specialized assistance, to the I.C. Steering Committee for its willingness to work tangibly with an intangible subject, and to fellow officers for their guidance. With mutual effort we hope the changes of this year are leading us toward continuing growth.

ELIZABETH TURNER ORR

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF ALUMNÆ

Anticipation is one of the most exciting words in the English language, for it indicates action, fulfillment and pleasure. Over the years a great deal of anticipation has brought us the realization that in becoming members of Pi Beta Phi, we have brought much pleasure, action and fulfillment into life. Anticipation also indicates what may come, the future. But one must always remember that what may be is strongly dependent upon what has been, the past. Everything must have a beginning, a foundation on which to stand. Whether the construction is tangible like brick and stone or intangible like a set of principles and values it depends on a firm foundation. Given such, the finished product depends on the success of those who build. In an organization such as ours two fundamental principles have been followed. One is that those who have brought us to the present have maintained a happy balance between practicality and idealism. The other is that whatever has been made a part of our organization has been adopted only after careful consideration. Pi Beta Phi has strongly resembled the Indian Guide who led travelers safely through a deep forest at night. The wise Indian told the travelers, "I have a near look and a far vision. With the near look I keep my feet on the path; with the far vision, I chart my course by the stars." We too must have the near look and the far vision. As actives and as alumnæ we need not only a near look but a clear look.

We have never been guilty of sitting in a corner and watching the world go by. But as the pioneer of women's fraternities, we have always weighed our assets, our interests and our needs. Because of our close relationship we have come to realize that whatever strength we possess has come not from asking and getting, but from offering and giving. We have offered and given friendship with invitation to membership. This gift is a lasting one, far beyond college days if one's interest in Pi Phi is a continuing one.

Living examples of this interest are the 343 alumnæ clubs and 22 Pi Phi Pockets which exist in this 78th year of the Alumnæ Department. Two clubs, Ocala-Marion County, Fla., and Clay-Platte, Mo., relinquished their charters. Ocala-Marion County became a Pocket and Clay-Platte has announced its intention to become a Pocket also. Pi Phi Pockets have been a means of preserving the nucleus of several groups which felt too small to meet charter requirements. The two original Pockets, Daytona Beach, Fla., and Southern Prince George's County, Md., increased their membership sufficiently to take on the responsibility of a club and have chartered. Three newly chartered clubs in addition to those named are Shenandoah Valley, Va., Southwest, Fla., and Naples, Fla. All new clubs are in Gamma, Delta and Epsilon Provinces. Anne Logan Heflin, Epsilon Alumnæ Province President, is to be congratulated on helping to charter three clubs in her province. We welcomed the following Pockets this year: Effingham, Ill.; Fallon, Nev.; Brattleboro, Vt.; Sylacauga, Ala.; Mexico, Mo.; Paris, Tex.; Dundee, Ill.; McPherson, Kan.; Longview, Wash.; Imperial Valley, Calif.; Opelousa, La.; and Mary Esther, Fla.

Once again the blue envelopes were sent out under the direction of and at the suggestion of the Director of Central Office, Sally Perry Schulenberg. This resulted in a total of $20,537.15 or about $747.35 less than last year. However more people participated, even though amounts were less, and Arrowmont benefited from this campaign.

It is with regret that the decision to propose a raise in national alumnæ dues was presented to this Convention. Operating expenses have risen so that the $3.00 national alumnæ fee is not only unrealistic but is totally inadequate.

As of May 31st, contributions to Settlement School were $35,828.73; Emma Harper Turner Fund $3,925.50; Holt House $3,248.10; Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship Fund $2,299.00; Junior Group Scholarship Fund $659.50 and Canadian Philanthropies $1,095.66. The record of contributions to national projects is an increase of $5,490.88 to Settlement School. Emma Harper Turner Fund decreased $109.75; Holt House increased $144.90; Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Fund decreased $298.00 and Junior Group Scholarship Fund decreased $17.00; Canadian Philanthropies decreased $129.00. Local contributions have in many cases consisted of volunteer service rather than monetary gifts. While local projects are necessary to a club's community service, it is hoped that clubs will always keep firmly in mind that Pi Phi projects and philanthropies receive only the help and contributions from members of Pi Beta Phi and the major monetary contributions should therefore be budgeted to Pi Phi philanthropies. Yearbooks were again interesting and decorative and about 230 clubs sent either books or program schedules for the club year.

As of June 1, 277 annual club questionnaires had been received. Three provinces, Gamma, Iota and Xi, were complete.

The number of clubs selling Arrowcraft was exactly the same as last year, 188.

Active chapters benefited in a variety of ways, from gifts to awards to help in rush. Slightly Older Sister and Alum Mum sponsorship of actives and pledges was well carried out.

Chapter visits were made to the far east and far west at Massachusetts Alpha, Maine Alpha, and Arizona Beta and as always were greatly enjoyed. This personal contact with actives, pledges and their alumnæ advisory committee members and house corporation members is one of the greatest privileges and pleasures of a Pi Phi officer.

Attendance at Edgewater Conference in January was a stimulating experience, as methods and problems of the fraternity world were discussed with leaders of both men's and women's groups.

It was also a pleasure to meet and visit the Junior Groups of Los Angeles and Pasadena, Calif., and to participate in the installation of officers of Pasadena Juniors and Central Orange County, Calif.

Delta Province, which had been without an alumnæ province president for a year, is now under the guidance of Phyllis Foster Parker, who relinquished Iota Province when she moved to Durham, N.C. Our thanks to Maurine Stuart Dulin for working with both Gamma and Delta provinces until an alumnæ province president became available. Phyllis Parker was able to succeed in Iota Province by Elizabeth March Marshall. Kappa alumnæ province president, Frances Faulk Patterson's resignation was accepted with regret. We were fortunate to have Sally Moore Hines succeed her.

Recognition for alumnæ service to one's club has come to the Alumnæ Department. This is an award similar to the Chapter Service Award for actives. Through the thoughtfulness and generosity of the alumnæ province presidents, the Angel Service Award was created and established at the Workshop held in Gatlinburg, Tenn., in June of 1970. The Angel Award will be presented biennially at Convention beginning with this year. Like the Chapter Service Award, the national winner will be chosen from province winners, who have been selected by the alumnæ province presidents of the provinces concerned.

As we close this 1970-71 chapter of history of the 78th year of the Alumnæ Department, The Fraternity can take great pride in our members who have been a part of their communities as full citizens. There is an Italian proverb which states their role quite descriptively. "There is no limit to the amount of good one can do, so long as he does not care who gets the credit for it." The alumnae do not rest on their laurels. Appreciation is extended to the alumnae directors, the alumnae province presidents, the loyal and dedicated members of alumnae advisory committees and house corporations and to many, many unsung members of alumnae clubs, who cheerfully assume their duties and carry them out to the best of their knowledge and ability. By carrying Pi Phi beyond the walls of their alma maters, they have opened the door to an even richer fraternity life. Our anticipation is that Pi Phis of the future will follow the principles of the near look and the far vision, with their feet on the path as they chart their course by the stars. We have the arrow to help to point the way. As we weigh our assets, our interests and our needs, let us keep ever constant in our hearts and minds that firm foundation laid in 1867 by those twelve young ladies of Monmouth College as they anticipated what was to be, and incorporated in their future, all things that are lovely and worthwhile.

EVELYN PETERS KYLE

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT OF PHILANTHROPIES

In a world clamoring for change, Pi Beta Phi can be proud that her philanthropic program has remained the same in character but grown in service to mankind. The only discernible change would be the awareness for greater need followed by greater effort. Greater effort was expressed in the increase in total donations to philanthropies. A good share of the increase for Arrowmont, $12,228.00 to be exact, resulted from a mailing sent to every Pi Phi by the director of Central Office. The mailing, intended for those not members of clubs, was responded to by 1,639 loyal Pi Phis.

The reports of the individual philanthropy chairmen appear elsewhere in this publication and we are grateful for their continued fraternity service. A listing of philanthropic projects shows our fraternity's concern for members and others alike.

1. Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts assumed a greater dimension in 1970 when the new classroom building was dedicated. Spacious and suited to latest teaching techniques in arts and crafts, the building offers great possibility for the present and future. Since the school is supported entirely by members of Pi Beta Phi, the periods of instruction are governed by available operating expense funds and so far this has consisted of summer classes only. Some monies have been ear-marked for equipment by donors but a great deal more money must be available before Arrowmont can operate on a year around basis. One outstanding feature of the school is the accreditation offered by the University of Tennessee.

2. Arrowcraft sales held by alumnae clubs and active chapters contribute very much to the livelihood of many craftsmen in the Gatlinburg area.

3. The Canadian Philanthropy consists of two projects in Canada. One is a loan fund providing assistance to deserving students of Canadian schools of social service. The other, the Northwest Libraries Project, supplies books to libraries in the Yukon and Northwest Territories.

4. Holt House is the restored founding place of Pi Beta Phi and is supported by contributions of alumnae clubs and chapters. This is just barely enough for operation and some repairs to the property. Local and visiting Pi Phis enjoy the gracious hospitality of this home and it is rented for meetings and social functions. However, without air conditioning it becomes increasingly difficult to rent it in the summer.

5. The Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund, rich in compassion for those less fortunate, provides confidential assistance to alumnae members, either in single or continuing gifts. For twenty-five years many less fortunate Pi Phis have had their burdens eased with monetary assistance.

6. The Pi Beta Phi Loan Fund was established sixty-one years ago to assist collegiate members with their education. Repayment of loans are payable after graduation.

7. Fellowships and scholarship grants emphasize the high regard The Fraternity places on scholastic achievement. A fellowship for graduate study and scholarships for undergraduate work are granted each year to Pi Phis meeting the requirements. In 1970, there were twenty girls given this recognition and monetary assistance.

Besides the national philanthropies, alumnae clubs and active chapters engage in many community and campus projects on the local scene. Where there is a need Pi Phis are ever present with many volunteer hours and thousands of dollars in contributions.

In June of 1970 this officer attended Grand Council meeting as well as the meeting of the Arrowmont Board of Governors in Gatlinburg. During this time many dignitaries from the University of Tennessee, the state, and Gatlinburg gathered to attend the dedication of the new Arrowmont building. It was dedicated to Emma Harper Turner, who not only conceived the idea for the original philanthropy, the Settlement School, but helped to pick the site. Little did she or The Fraternity realize that a dream to bring schooling to a portion of Appalachia would grow to be a valuable contribution to people in other parts of the world.

The fall meeting of Grand Council in Kansas City was attended, followed by the Holt House Committee meeting in Monmouth. It was with regret that other meetings and chapter visits had to be cancelled but I am grateful to the officers who visited chapters in my stead.

It has been a satisfying experience to be a part of the philanthropic work of Pi Beta Phi and to appreciate the unselfish aims as set forth by our Founders. I am equally grateful for the devotion of my sisters in Pi Beta Phi whose full measure of thoughtfulness and help have made my endeavors possible this past year.

SARAH HOLMES HUNT

GRAND SECRETARY

Visiting active chapters is one of the most interesting phases of The Fraternity work. This year I was privileged to visit Kansas Alpha, Kansas Beta, and Missouri Gamma. This makes a total of ninety-two chapters I have visited during the time I have been a Pi Phi officer.

Grand Secretary attended a Grand Council interim meeting in October at Plaza Inn, Kansas City, Mo. Also, attended interim Grand Council meeting in February at the Hilton Palacio del Rio, San Antonio, Tex. This meeting was held in conjunction with a directors' meeting. These meetings projected detailed plans for the 1971 Convention.

In December five hundred Christmas greetings were ready for an early mailing.

A fraternity statutory policy includes pre-convention preparation by active chapter delegates and the filing of a convention delegates' report. This year the delegates and their chapter were asked to give information on the following: Please rank in order of importance to your chapter's needs the topics which you think should be presented during the Convention workshops.

Moral Advancement

- a. Should the interpretation of standards be disciplinary or attitude building?
- b. Can you be an individual and still be committed to a group?
- c. Is the Pi Beta Phi standards program workable on your campus today?
- d. What is honesty for a sorority woman in 1971?
- e. Do you believe in the principles upon which Pi Beta Phi is founded?

Mental Advancement

- a. What do pledges need from The Fraternity in preparation for initiation?
- b. Is a scholarship program necessary?
- c. "True education is not a problem solving laboratory but a learning experience." Is Pi Phi a four-year learning experience?
- d. Does sorority membership cultivate greater idea exchange than non-affiliation?

- e. How do you develop leadership in your chapter? On campus?

Social Advancement

- a. What is the definition of a pledge in 1971?
- b. What is the basis upon which members are elected to Pi Phi?
- c. What do we have to offer prospective members?
- d. What does sharing mean in Pi Beta Phi?
- e. Is social "know how" important in our contemporary society?
- f. Do Pi Phi's philanthropies promote significant concern for others in 1971?

What type of presentation would you prefer in the workshops?—discussion? speakers? panel, led by actives?

Grand Secretary will end her duties at Convention. It has been interesting and rewarding work. I will miss the many new Pi Phi friends but will keep in touch with my "pen."

NATIONAL PANHELLENIC CONFERENCE DELEGATE

Why do the Statutes require of every officer an annual report to the members? It is to acquaint those most interested, the "stockholders," with the work done, innovations attempted, and accomplishments achieved. An evaluation may provide, then, a recognition of areas of strength and/or weakness, stimulate ideas for improvement, and generate the cooperation of all in seeking the best possible procedure to attain the goal.

The Pi Beta Phi Delegate to the National Panhellenic Conference is commissioned by The Fraternity to extend a large part of her efforts in the area of general and specific Panhellenic relations and concerns. This report will deal with 1) an urgent current panhellenic concern which is the need to stimulate interest and enthusiasm for fraternity experience, 2) a consideration of resources for such interest, and 3) ways to develop the incentive needed to instill enthusiasm. The final portion will cover briefly the report of work done in this past year.

Of genuine concern to all informed fraternity people, active and alumni, women and men, is the evidence of decreasing interest in the opportunity to participate in traditional group experiences, particularly in fraternity membership. We are well aware that this disinterest begins in the secondary school and is fostered after matriculation in college or university. Its effect is insidious and even can, and sometimes does, permeate a portion of the chapter membership.

How do we combat this? What are the answers?

There are no pat answers, no programs for instant success, of course. There are concrete and positive steps which will begin to reverse this trend.

Before we can hope to make an effective move we must give intensive consideration to an evaluation of our own performance. Are we living up to the purposes for which The Fraternity was founded? Are we, truly, working toward the idealistic goals which have a timeless validity—the social, mental, and moral advancement of our members—and not being distracted by passing fads and fancies? Do we demonstrate in our daily activities the precepts of concern for the well-being of each other, for those less fortunate, and for the support of campus and community affairs? If we are not, then we must re-orient our program at the grass roots; we must reinforce the conviction and dedication of the individual member within the chapter or club. Only then can we carry into the college or city panhellenic this dedication and conviction where its power will be multiplied and its influence broadcast in ever widening circles.

Let's get down to specifics.

We hear much about apathy these days—apathy of the main body of students in matters of general concern and responsibility, as in student government where capable and qualified people refuse to stand for office or the student body majority will not take the time to give them supportive votes; campus wide projects and service to the college community which, here-to-for, the Greeks have been relied upon to organize and support—apathy within fraternity chapters regarding chapter functions, projects, day-to-day participation—apathy among incoming students to the challenge of extending themselves beyond what is the absolute minimum.

What is apathy? A dictionary defines it as 1) absence, or suppression, of passion, emotion, or excitement, 2) lack of interest in, or concern for, things which others find moving or exciting, and 3) stoicism, or freedom from emotion of any kind. In reality, apathy is zero. It does nothing for the individual; it does nothing for The Fraternity; it contributes nothing to the college community. It is a Zero.

It would seem, then, that to combat apathy it is necessary to find a way to generate interest, excitement, and emotional involvement.

Who can best generate interest? Only one who knows his subject well and can speak fluently on it. Who can best stimulate excitement? Only one who is involved personally and is himself excited about his experience. Who can best create an emotional reaction? Only one whose emotions are aroused and committed to an appealing concept.

How do we apply this within The Fraternity? Consider this. Only those chapter members who understand and believe in the special attributes of her own fraternity can instill in others a recognition of the impact of membership on one's personal life. This understanding and belief is developed through study and experience. As a pledge one should learn about the ideals which her fraternity has set as its ultimate goals—and how they can strengthen her own personal goals, the purpose for which it was founded—and how this purpose relates to her development and enrichment as an individual in a world of rapid change, and the history of its achievements and periods of trial—to better understand the current wave of unrest and hostility toward fraternal organizations. What could be more challenging and exciting than to learn that the young ladies who set down the guidelines and goals for our Fraternity one hundred and four years ago were stating the very concerns of young people today?

Day to day experiences within the chapter and contact with interested and supportive alumnae should teach the quality of friendship and life-time loyalty which fraternity participation and involvement always has produced.

Emotional involvement can and will grow only as she experiences the inspiration and beauty of the initiation ceremony and the moving sentiments of The Ritual shared in unison with her sisters. Her eventual realization that this total experience of learning, living, and emotional impact has been shared and cherished by over 100,000 members will strengthen her commitment to her own fraternity.

We recognize that every fraternity offers advantages common to all, the experience of communal living, friendships fostered through intimate and perceptive association, life-time membership, and the opportunity to develop intellectual potential, experience in leadership, concern for and service to the world about us. These are expressed in general terms in The Panhellenic Creed. It is only through its ceremonies and rituals that each fraternity expresses its individual personality and exerts its special influence upon the philosophy of its members. Never has Pi Beta Phi demanded that her members fit a prescribed mold. Her arrow and chain have bound us only through our willingness to accept her ideals and to attempt to live by her precepts for a quality of life. Our understanding that these precepts serve to complement and reinforce our own religious faith, the qualities we have chosen to emulate, and the goals we have set for ourselves confirms our belief in the lasting value of our membership in Pi Beta Phi.

How does this affect the College Panhellenic?

To be effective and influential the College Panhellenic organization must be imbued with a dedication to and conviction of the validity and value of the fraternity system. To achieve this it is necessary that each chapter on campus choose delegates who derive a stimulation and emotional response from their own fraternity experience. Such representatives are well equipped to project their enthusiasm and commitment to the campus and the community. Realistically, we must recognize that this result cannot be achieved overnight. Just as campus leaders develop their knowledge and expertise through service on committees, with assignments of increasing responsibility as their interest and ability is proven, just so is the chapter and Panhellenic leadership developed. Long range planning is required to implement and improve upon new ideas, to foster new attitudes, to influence and change old programs and images.

Let us consider another specific.

In an attempt to devise a more effective approach to rush there began to develop, about three years ago, a trend toward a less structured program for the formal rush period. Experiences have ranged from complete success to utter failure. The successes have been achieved where the need for good planning and full participation was recognized. On the campuses where little or no guidelines were provided, and no structure was defined, chaos ensued. Judging from these experiences one may assume that many traditional restrictions may be eased or eliminated to permit more natural communication and social exchange between rushee and Greek member but retention of those fundamental regulations which provide for an ethical and orderly program is essential. Latitude should be allowed for chapter innovation in party planning and informal contact.

Within such a flexible framework the emphasis of the college panhellenic should be directed to 1) promote trust, respect, and enthusiasm among its members, 2) to support a cooperative summer program of recruitment in the home towns of fraternity members and alumnae, and 3) to plan a pre-rush orientation which provides specific information to prospective members, challenges their interest, and encourages their participation through the complete rush program.

Exciting ideas offer great hope for exciting results. However, the best idea in the world can be smothered in a morass of detail. In developing a promising new concept great care must be exercised to keep procedures simple enough to prevent petty concerns from obscuring the desired result and flexible enough to allow for variety, initiative, and for correction of weaknesses which may appear. Time to perfect the process must be planned. Procedures which are not effective in the first attempt must be revised or replaced in the next. A one-time experiment is not a fair test.

A flexible program, executed by capable, enthusiastic representatives and combined with a demonstrable spirit of trust, respect, and cooperation, can do much to disarm the critics of rush and dispel the mistrust of the very purpose of Fraternity.

In concluding this portion of the report an admonition is offered: Be receptive to, but critical of new ideas. Keep the ultimate goal before you. Think through to long range effects of possible actions or decisions. If you remember these points, your influence upon your chapter, your Panhellenic, and your campus will be beneficial.

As a member of the Grand Council, five chapters were visited this past year. Maryland Beta, Kentucky Alpha and Beta, Louisiana Alpha and Beta all exhibited a warmth of welcome, receptive audiences, and interested and cooperative officers which made these visits most rewarding.

Meetings of the Grand Council were attended in October and February. Planning for the 1971 Convention and future meetings, as well as the routine business of The Fraternity, formed the agenda for these meetings.

The fall and spring reports of the chapter panhellenic delegates were received, tallied, and a condensed report prepared for Grand Council. Ninety-four chapters filed fall PH reports; eighty-seven sent spring reports. One hundred and forty-eight of our alumnae clubs completed the annual City Panhellenic report.

In the National Panhellenic Conference this officer is a member of the College Panhellenics Committee and, as such, is the area advisor for the State of Ohio. With twenty-one college panhellenics to assist and advise, attendance at three college panhellenic workshops was requested. Correspondence was conducted with most of the others, involving suggestions on questions of rush, organization, and revisions of by-laws. A Panhellenic discussion period was held at the annual meeting of the Ohio Women Deans and Counselors Association in November, 1970.

In addition, meetings of the Edgewater Conference in January and the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors in March offered opportunities for inter-fraternity discussions and exposure to the thinking and concerns of administrators and personnel workers in the field of education.

It is gratifying to be able to report that the representatives of Pi Beta Phi always are accorded the respect and confidence engendered by our Fraternity's long record of honesty, dependability, and consideration for her associates in the world of Greek affairs.

Once again it has been a privilege to serve Pi Beta Phi in a challenging and stimulating office. The knowledge that Pi Phi continues to pioneer in the areas of chapter structure and program, of national philanthropies in tune with the needs of the times, and that her purpose and goals continue to fulfill the needs and enrich the lives of contemporary members is a source of great pride and satisfaction. The rewards of an ever-widening circle of contacts with members of Pi Beta Phi, the lengthening chain of personal friendships in Pi Phi and the Greek world more than compensate for the long hours at a desk and the necessary absences from home and loved ones.

HELEN BOUCHER DIX

DIRECTOR OF ALUMNAE ADVISORY COMMITTEES

Pi Beta Phi active chapters continue to flourish and grow strong under the guidance of several hundred alumnae who are dedicated to our chapters in an advisory capacity. It is to these women that we owe a debt of gratitude and thanks for their continuous service to our Fraternity. They are the women who help to keep the continuity between the active chapter and the national fraternity.

To aid the alumnae advisory committees in their association with a chapter, the AAC Manual was completely revised and updated this past year. It was sent to the committees in December. A second copy was also included. It was to be divided as instructed among the other members of the committee. They were encouraged to update their procedure notebooks for each position on the committee.

Letters to the committee were sent in August and December of 1970, and in January, March, and May of 1971. A questionnaire was sent in the spring of 1971. The 85 questionnaires returned have been carefully studied. It was interesting to note that, from the questionnaire sent in March, fifty-one percent of AAC chairmen have served two to three years in that capacity. Twenty-two percent have served four to nine years, while only twenty percent have served a year or less. Only six percent have served for ten years or over. Also revealed was the fact that the committees who meet regularly with the chapter officers seem to have the best rapport, fewer problems, and the chapter tends to be strong. Many facts concerning the status of the Greek System were also revealed. Fifty-one of the eighty-five AACs reporting indicated that the Greek systems were accepted and strongly accepted. It is gratifying to note that sixty-seven of the AACs reporting felt that the Greek system was presenting a unified front, both to their college and the community.

This is the second year this officer has served as chairman of the House Directors Committee. There were two letters sent to the chapter house directors—one in October and the other in May. These women have a strong influence in our chapters today. They provide stability and a focal point for the whole chapter. We owe each and every one of them a deep debt of gratitude for their help and guidance to our young women in Pi Beta Phi.

It was my pleasure to visit Mississippi Alpha, Mississippi Beta, and Tennessee Delta this year. The ability and charm that our young women have today is a rewarding experience to any officer. I felt especially fortunate to be able to visit chapters in an area of the country with which I was not well acquainted. The great difference in the activities, attitude, and the manner in which the chapters conduct their living together was a pleasant experience. We who are traditionally bound to the urban scene, can gain much by seeing how effective a calm and purposeful existence can be, when the pressures of instant change are not present. I shall always remember with warm feelings the hospitality, kindness, and enthusiasm of these three chapters.

My sincere thanks go to the many Pi Beta Phis who have helped and encouraged me this past year. It is a pleasure to work with the dedicated and loyal women of Pi Beta Phi, who have given so generously of their time and talent, to maintain the principles and ideals of our Fraternity.

MARGARET WALKER HORNING

DIRECTOR OF ALUMNÆ PROGRAMS

"Happiness does not depend upon what happens outside of you, but on what happens inside of you; it is measured by the spirit in which you meet the problems of life, and happiness does not come from doing easy work but from the afterglow of satisfaction that comes after the achievement of a difficult task that demanded our best."

This has been a most rewarding year, working with the alumnae of Pi Beta Phi. We have had an active year. As alumnae travel throughout our countries, Pi Phi becomes more meaningful to them. To move to a strange city and have ready-made friends brings out the true spirit our fraternity offers.

Working as Pi Phis in our communities and for our philanthropies will prove to the public the Greek system is worthwhile.

A letter went out to each club last August from your director with reminders of dates and suggestions for programs and projects. 272 yearbooks or programs and officer listings came to this office this year. There were all types, formal and informal, and the varied programs seem to meet the demands of members in all areas. 99 letters were received asking for programs or ways and means ideas. These requests were answered and a number of follow-up letters came back giving the results. 301 presidents' reports came to this office this spring, with seven provinces 100%.

To be the source of exchange, receiving ideas and clever programs in order to share them with all clubs is very gratifying.

A booklet of ideas for programs, projects and ways and means was made last summer and given to the alumnae province presidents at our work shop in Gatlinburg. They in turn shared the ideas with their clubs from time to time.

This past February, the yearly booklet was made and sent to all clubs by your director. This book included many ways and means ideas, and articles for discussion. I do hope this book is given to each program chairman and year book chairman and kept from year to year. There are many traditional programs included, that can be used each year.

16 programs were presented this spring for the Jesse Moeur French award. They were all interesting and informative, and most of them were quite original. Certificates were given to the following:

- Arlington Heights, Ill. club. "The magic combination of the number twelve."
- Champaign-Urbana club. "Pi Phi Follies."
- Dallas, Texas, club. "Think on These Things."
- Houston, Texas, club. "Memories Are Made Of This—Fifty years of Pi Phi."
- Kansas City, Mo., club. "Carrie Chapman Catt—A New Look."

San Mateo, Calif., club. "Pi Phi Ritual, Biblically Speaking."

Spokane, Washington, club. "Loyalty Day—Points to Ponder."

Stillwater, Okla., club. "Discovery Night."

The Jessie Moeur French award was presented by Jessie Moeur "Pete" French to the Cleveland West club. "Old Hats and the History of Pi Phi."

For Convention, your Director made 405 booklets with ideas for programs and for ways and means.

We now have available needle point kits ready to make, pin cushions (5" x 5"), pillow or picture (8" x 10"), and glass cases. The design is the pin, the crest or the carnation. They are lovely and can be ordered through your club.

The alumnae continue to be a vital force within the Greek system. The majority of alumnae who back the universities are Greeks. They come back to the campus more often. If our Pi Phi alumnae will support our chapters and be active in our communities as Pi Phis, we will overcome the force that is working actively to destroy us. We must keep our system strong and give out correct, positive information so that the coming generation will want the same association.

Support for the Emma Harper Turner fund helps our needy Pi Phis, both young and old. Support for Holt House joins us with the past, and the Canadian project is a very fine one.

Arrowmont is making an outstanding name world-wide as our national philanthropy. You only have to talk to some of the therapists who go there for instruction to know the contribution we are making.

The money we make through our ways and means, and the countless hours of many alumnae are all worthwhile in helping these worthy projects as well as our active chapters.

It has been a pleasure to work with the alumnae, the national committee chairmen, the wonderful alumnae province presidents, Grand Council, and especially Evelyn Kyle, our Grand Vice President of Alumnae. These years of service to Pi Phi will always be a cherished memory.

In closing my report may I say:

- Wherever you go, wherever you are,
- Keep in your heart the Pi Phi star;
- Keep in your eyes the Pi Phi gleam,
- And keep in your heart the Pi Phi dream;
- May Faith, Hope and Love mark your Pi Phi way—
- And keep you safe in your heart always.

MYLDRED ALLEN HIGHTOWER

DIRECTOR OF CHAPTER HOUSE CORPORATIONS

Pi Beta Phi strives for excellence in all aspects of sorority life. The manner in which the chapters are housed is of prime importance. The local alumnae who faithfully serve the chapter house corporations make it possible for The Fraternity to achieve excellence in practically every area of housing. Figures from the annual reports sent by these alumnae have been compiled and are as follows: for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1970, the corporations list as total assets $14,433,404.65; total liabilities $5,067,478.79; total net worth $9,365,925.86. These represent an increase in total assets of $587,165.51 and an increase in total net worth of $189,873.77 over the previous year.

Other than correspondence and compiling figures, this officer is afforded the wonderful opportunity to visit active chapters. November brought visits to three New England chapters—Vermont Beta, Connecticut Alpha, and Massachusetts Beta. In April the two chapters in Virginia were visited—Virginia Delta and Virginia Gamma. As always, the many external courtesies are appreciated, but the real reward is experiencing the warmth and friendship extended by our younger members. Although the national officers and chapters continue to seek improvements in procedural methods, loyalty to our Fraternity and founding principles is maintained at each level. All Pi Beta Phi alumnae can take pride in the younger members, now active in chapters across the country, who seek academic excellence and make invaluable contributions in service to their colleges, communities, and philanthropies—oftentimes performed under the stress of campus unrest and anti-Greek sentiment. These younger Pi Phis reaffirm our belief in the value of worthwhile and positive actions and in the continuing strength of our Fraternity—these are the alumnae of the future.

The Director of Chapter House Corporations acknowledges with gratitude the assistance of many people during this term of office. The members of Grand Council were available for consultation and advice. Sally Schulenburg and the Central Office staff were indispensable. Delaine H.

Kelly has received and acknowledged the fire protection affidavits, thus making the "work load" lighter. The three province presidents whose chapters were visited are to be commended for the outstanding guidance they have offered their chapters—Anne Cioffi in Alpha, Myra Reimer in Beta, and Susan Landis in Delta. This officer feels humble and grateful for the opportunity to work with the above mentioned Pi Phis, to know the friendship of many other officers, alumnae, and active members, and to wear the arrow of Pi Beta Phi.

FREDA STAFFORD SCHUYLER

DIRECTOR OF CHAPTER PROGRAMS

This was a year of transition for chapter programming with the trial launching of the I.C. '71 Pilot Program for sixteen chapters and the reduction in required chapter programs and reports for the remaining chapters from four to three.

According to the reports of the Steering Committee, the Fraternity's new approach to programming and membership development has proved successful. The two capable traveling graduate counselors, Deanie Fulton and Sharon Smith, who have been in closest touch with the undergraduates involved in this program, have given I.C. their enthusiastic approval. Required programming had become a chore apparently to many chapters so that slow changes evolving were not sufficient to satisfy them. My feeling is that if this big change is what undergraduates desire, let's give freedom in program planning a try. However, chapter responsibility to national should never be eliminated entirely, and there must still be adequate communication provided for this purpose.

Continuing the past policy, material for Pi Phi Nights was coordinated with the questions for the fraternity exam for undergraduates. The subjects for Pi Phi Nights this year with the purpose of creating interest in fraternity education were: Pi Beta Phi Loan Funds, Scholarships and Fellowships Available; Preparing for the 48th Biennial Pi Beta Phi Convention, June, 1971; and the History of each individual chapter.

The fraternity exam for actives continued to be simple in form, and the thought question, which is ungraded, gave undergraduates a marvelous chance to express themselves this year. The question:

"The present standards program of Pi Beta Phi was voted on and approved by the undergraduate membership. Considering your pledge of 'dual acceptance' of Pi Beta Phi and Pi Beta Phi's goal of 'noble womanhood' what do you suggest for improving the standards program of The Fraternity? To what extent do you think Pi Beta Phi should be involved in the future in defining standards of conduct for its members?"

A question dealing with a subject as controversial as this provoked varied comments. Excellent summaries of the answers were made by each province supervisor of FS&E, which I shall coordinate so that the opinions will be available to anyone interested. The answers certainly give an insight into the feelings of the actives of today.

The closing paragraph in the report of one supervisor of FS&E summarizes the undergraduates' feelings quite well. "It would seem that girls want codes of conduct but at the same time they want the freedom to decide individual behavior for themselves. No one should tell them what they can or cannot do, but at the same time they do not wish their sisters to reflect unfavorably on them."

Many critical comments were made about the specific rule on drinking as being out of date.

Suggestions for improvement of the standards program included the need for thorough character references for pledges and the thorough explanation of Pi Beta Phi standards during pledgship.

In one province only about two girls out of 134 felt that the current standards for Pi Phis were good. Everyone else thought that they needed to be updated and thought so very strongly to keep up with "changing attitudes, moral values and relevance to the changing world atmosphere."

Chapter visits were made to three chapters in Eta Province: Ohio Alpha, Ohio Epsilon, and Ohio Zeta. As always, these visits were delightful! Indeed, I feel that meeting undergraduates, house directors, AAC members, and alumnae is one of the most pleasant tasks of a national officer.

The contact with fine college women and the friendships made while serving Pi Beta Phi can never be duplicated.

As I leave this office after four years, I extend my appreciation to each member of Grand Council for their confidence in me and to the directors, acknowledgement of their cooperation. To Sally Schulenburg, Director of Central Office, and the staff there my thanks for their assistance. To the province supervisors of FS&E my deepest gratitude for their hard work in supervising and grading fraternity exams for actives. A special thanks goes to Deanie Fulton and Sharon Smith for their refreshing enthusiasm.

MADELEINE C. LAFON

DIRECTOR OF MEMBERSHIP

The Director of Membership had a most interesting and worthwhile year. The new chapter membership manual helped the chapter chairmen send in their materials correctly. Continuing education of the actives and alumnae on membership procedures is an important phase of this director's work. Letters were sent for the chapter mailings to chapter officers who work with the Director of Membership. Additional letters and forms went to alumnae club rush information chairmen, AAC chairmen and membership advisors, alumnae club presidents and national officers.

An article on the Chapter Membership Selection Committee was written and appeared in the winter ARROW. Questionnaires for the CSMC study were revised and sent to the various groups requesting statistics. The study group presented its findings in a report to convention concerning the two year trial period. This Director wishes to thank the women who served on the study group the past two years.

Although it added work to their already busy schedules, the results hopefully helped Convention with decisions concerning membership legislation.

Membership statistics were checked each month with Central Office. The chapters have continued to pledge outstanding young women. All Rush Information Forms were checked, recorded and filed. As of May first we had approximately 2,800 new pledges.

The Director of Membership also processed all broken pledges and was responsible for transfers and affiliates. The chapter corresponding secretaries were generally prompt and efficient in turning out forms necessary to keep the records straight.

Delightful visits were made to Alberta Alpha, Manitoba Alpha, Minnesota Alpha, and North Dakota Alpha. Meeting Pi Phis in our Canadian and states' chapters reaffirms one's belief in the united bonds of sisterhood. Meeting the AAC's, house corporations, house directors, alumnae and college officials added to the dimensions of the visit.

Officers' workshop was attended in Gatlinburg last summer. In February this officer went to San Antonio for Director-Grand Council meeting and returned again in June for Convention. At Convention it was interesting to meet many of the actives and alumnae who had previously been only named on correspondence.

Enough thanks cannot be expressed for the many wonderful Pi Phis with whom this director has worked. It is only fitting to give especial "thank-yous" to members of Grand Council for their help and understanding, to Sally Schulenburg and Central Office staff for concrete assistance, and to the other directors and province officers for being such good friends and dedicated Pi Phis. It has been very rewarding to serve The Fraternity as Director of Membership.

VERNAH STEWART GARDNER

DIRECTOR OF MEMBER DEVELOPMENT

Pledge programs for the college year 1970-71 have generally shown that the chapters are making meaningful changes in their programs. These creative and sensitive changes have produced more pledges being initiated and certainly a more satisfied chapter of both pledges and actives. The Centennial Award Committee will find it most difficult to select the outstanding pledge program since so many chapters have done a remarkable job this year in thoughtful planning for their pledges.

Along with reading each chapter's pledge program, this officer also visits chapters. This year Iowa Alpha, Iowa Beta, Iowa Gamma, and Iowa Zeta were visited and each chapter visit was a warm and wonderful experience. One cannot help but be enriched by the intelligent and provocative discussions with pledges, actives, and AAC members. By the end of the visit, there no longer exists either a credibility or a generation gap; we are simply all Pi Phis enjoying an organization still hopefully committed to the ideals of friendship possibly best expressed by Emerson: "I awoke this morning with devout thanksgivings for my friends, both the old and the new, because friendship like immortality of the soul is too beautiful to be believed."

A new and most interesting phase of fraternity service was serving on the I.C. '71 committee. Innovative plans were first discussed at a summer meeting and sixteen chapters accepted the opportunity to participate in the program. Their progress has been observed by all members of the committee. Frequently their ideas were sent to other chapters by this officer when pledge programs needed different approaches.

My deepest gratitude this year is to all the Pi Phis everywhere who answered with their life saving gifts of blood to me when the need was critical. The response was tremendous and so overwhelming that I truly am at a loss for words and can only say with all my heart, Thank you. Your compassion was truly friendship defined.

MARY JANE DERRINGER

DIRECTOR OF RUSH

Nothing in the Greek world and in Pi Beta Phi has changed as dramatically as rush over the last few years. Rush is becoming less structured, more informal, more honest. Rushees do not want to be entertained; they much prefer a party where they can become involved and be themselves. On many campuses new Pi Phi firsts were accomplished as chapters of Pi Beta Phi assumed Panhellenic leadership in initiating informal rush parties where members and rushees together enjoyed games, singing, and even make-it-yourself refreshments such as miniature wieners cooked over coals or ice cream sundaes with a variety of sauces.

This year more reports included announcements that college Panhellenics are adopting a Rush Greek policy. On some campuses, the first parties are strictly Panhellenic in nature—NPC groups entertaining in pairs, together, or an all-Rushee all-Greek-women barbecue picnic may open the rush season.

The creativity with which our chapter members planned their newer type rush parties makes reading their letters and reports a rewarding experience. The best ideas, songs, party plans and skits have been presented in the Pi Phi Times for Spring, 1971. Many expressions of appreciation for these usable and adaptable ideas were sent to this director; it is good to know that rush chairmen from ocean to ocean are eager to share ideas.

In February this officer enjoyed visiting Tennessee Alpha, Tennessee Beta, and Tennessee Gamma. It was also a pleasure to present "A Challenge By Candle Light" at the Founders' Day luncheon in which members of Minnesota Alpha and the St. Paul and Minneapolis Alumnae Clubs participated.

It has been a challenge and an honor to serve as Director of Rush this year. My sincere thanks go to all who spend their time and talents in Pi Beta Phi, especially our Grand Council members who are always ready with help and encouragement.

CONSTANCE F. ADAMS

DIRECTOR OF SCHOLARSHIP

The year began in an unusually inspiring and helpful way with the privilege and pleasure of being present for the dedication of the new building at Arrowmont and the Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg in June. The Director of Scholarship enjoyed sharing the inspiration of these two events with the Hartford Club in September.

The statistics which result from working in the scholastic area of Pi Beta Phi are a constant source of interest to this officer, and it is a pleasure to share some of them.

The grade point average of 106 chapters under or converted to the 4.00 system was 2.8605 for the school year 1969-70—an increase of .0336 over the previous year.

Illinois Eta, West Virginia Alpha, Florida Beta, Texas Delta, Arkansas Beta, and Massachusetts Beta all ranked first in scholarship on their campuses for the year. Surely other Pi Beta Phi chapters would have been first had campus rank been computed, but the trend today is not to do so.

The number of our chapters who maintain a B-average for a complete year continues to increase and for 1969-70 there were twenty:

Nova Scotia Alpha
Michigan Beta
Ontario Alpha
Wisconsin Gamma
Missouri Gamma
Alberta Alpha
Oregon Alpha
Illinois Epsilon
Pennsylvania Epsilon
Ohio Zeta

Illinois Zeta
Texas Delta
Idaho Alpha
California Delta
Massachusetts Beta
Michigan Delta
Indiana Delta
Nebraska Beta
New Mexico Alpha
Washington Gamma

Chapters which had a B average for at least one semester or quarter were even more numerous and deserve special mention: Indiana Zeta, Ohio Delta, Virginia Gamma, Ohio Eta, California Zeta, Ohio Epsilon, Florida Beta, Washington Alpha, Iowa Beta, New York Delta, Oklahoma Alpha, Kansas Alpha, New York Alpha, Oklahoma Beta, South Dakota Alpha, Iowa Zeta, Illinois Eta, Washington Beta, Michigan Alpha, Louisiana Alpha, North Carolina Beta, Massachusetts Alpha, Connecticut Alpha, California Beta, Ohio Alpha, Oregon Alpha, Minnesota Alpha, and Ohio Beta. Only a few of these could be attributed to the inflated grades which resulted from the strikes of May, 1970.

Seventy Pi Phis were elected to Phi Kappa Phi or Phi Beta Kappa with five attaining membership in both. Sixty-three were members of other scholastic honoraries and 134 were graduated with honors.

There were 33 "straight A" initiates into 25 chapters, and their scholastic careers are being followed with interest by this officer.

1970-71 NATIONAL SCHOLASTIC AWARDS

The Doctor Hazel Rutherford McCuaig Award is presented annually to the Pi Beta Phi chapter having the highest grade on the scholarship portion of the Fraternity's Standardization and Survey Report. For the second consecutive year, Washington Gamma was the winner with a perfect score of 40. West Virginia Alpha, Florida Beta, Michigan Beta, Illinois Eta, Kansas Alpha, and Oregon Alpha should be commended for their almost perfect scores of 39.

The Grand Council Scholarship Incentive Award of $50 is presented each year to the chapter in the upper third or first category which has shown the greatest improvement over the preceding year. This was awarded this year to Minnesota Alpha.

The Westchester Club Award is presented annually to the chapter in the lower third or last category the preceding year which has made the greatest improvement. Missouri Gamma was this year's winner.

The National Scholarship Plaque is presented now to the chapter which has maintained a B-average for the greatest number of consecutive semesters or quarters. This award was presented to Washington Gamma.

The Adda Prentice Williams Award of $25 is presented to the chapter scholarship chairman whose program has been most effective in promoting or sustaining strong scholarship within her chapter. The Tau Province nominee, Susan Crosby of Washington Beta, is the winner this year. Other nominees were:

Alpha Province—Connecticut Alpha—Mary Ellen Blanchard
Beta Province—New York Gamma—Anne Marie Scully
Gamma Province—Pennsylvania Epsilon—Kathy Sperling
Delta Province—North Carolina Beta—Robin Bounous
Epsilon Province—Florida Beta—Judy Ferris
Zeta Province—Michigan Delta—Paula Vierheilig
Eta Province—Ohio Zeta—Candace Conrad
Theta Province—Indiana Delta—Sheryl Branner
Iota Province—Tennessee Beta—Kathy Beto
Kappa Province—Alabama Beta—Sally Clark
Lambda Province—Minnesota Alpha—Cynthia Fischer
Mu Province—Illinois Eta—Linda Booth
Nu Province—South Dakota Alpha—Marty Larson
Xi Province—Missouri Gamma—Anne Coats
Omicron Province—Oklahoma Alpha—Terry Reid
Pi Province—Texas Gamma—Jo Whyman
Rho Province—Montana Alpha—Shirley Lueck
Upsilon Province—Nevada Alpha—Jackie Roush
Phi Province—California Epsilon—Julie Heath

In addition to the workshop in Gatlinburg, Pi Phi travels during the year included delightful chapter visits to Ohio Beta, Ohio Delta, and Ohio Eta in the fall, as well as Grand Council-Directors' meeting in San Antonio in February.

The three years that I have served as Director of Scholarship have been a constant joy, made more so by the splendid Pi Phis with whom I have worked—loyal and devoted province scholarship supervisors, outstanding chapter chairmen, helpful and cooperative advisors and province presidents, wonderful and wise Sally Schulenburg and her Central Office staff, and Grand Council. My sincere appreciation to them all.

FRANCES FARRELL ROSS

DIRECTOR OF STANDARDS

Although the academic atmosphere has improved on most campuses this past year, practically all universities have continued to liberalize or eliminate their standards and policies. Even some of the very small private colleges, thought to be the last strongholds of conservatism, are now allowing twenty-four hour visitation, coed dorms, alcohol in the dorms, and are besieged with drug problems.

These first two issues seem to be the ones hardest for a national fraternity to deal with for many reasons, for neither of these privileges are in accord with our standards and policies; plus, there are many legal and ethical angles to be considered.

A great majority of Pi Phis feel that these liberalizations are harmful to the health and welfare of our members, and in the case of open visitation, an invasion of privacy and infringement on the rights of members who are not in favor of this policy. Our policy this year has been to grant dispensations to chapters, who, after a chapter vote, desire open visitation on specified days for specified hours. Most chapters feel their need for individual privacy is great and since most have adequate facilities for entertaining both men and women, they have wisely selected times seemingly agreeable to all.

The problem of alcohol is heightened by its increased social acceptance and by the variety of state, federal, and university laws and varying age limits required for use or possession.

The thought question of the fraternity exam concerned Pi Phi's role in standards today. The many honest, well thought out answers received from the actives in all chapters are most helpful in trying to continually re-evaluate and update our standards and policies within the framework of our organization.

Working with the actives of our Fraternity continues to be a most gratifying and educational experience. Our members are sincere, mature, extremely bright, and think carefully on these problems which confront them and affect us all.

During the year, I had the privilege of attending the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors Convention in St. Louis and sharing breakfast and conversation with other Pi Phi officers and deans. It was heart-warming at that convention to find very few hostile attitudes from the deans who attended the session on "Women's Fraternities on the Campus of the 70s."

The pre-convention meeting of Grand Council and the directors in San Antonio proved to be productive and inspiring.

At the Founders' Day Banquet celebrated jointly by Illinois Eta and the Decatur Alumnae Club, I had the privilege of speaking on "Pi Phi Pioneers," thus providing the opportunity to include the introduction of the I.C. '71 plan to this group.

My year was further enhanced by visits to two chapters operating under the pilot plan of I.C. '71, namely Colorado Beta and West Virginia Alpha, and a visit with one of our newest chapters, West Virginia Gamma. It is always a pleasure to make these new Pi Phi friends and to observe how three more of our chapters are successfully pioneering in the fraternity world of today. For, in this day and age, everyone who strives for "that which is best" must be as alert, innovative, and adventurous as were our twelve first pioneers at Monmouth College.

A special thank-you to Grand Council, the directors, travelling counsellors, province officers, chapter officers, actives and alums, for each and every Pi Phi contributes daily to serving the Fraternity and each and everyone is available for much needed help when it is sought.

ELIZABETH FRUSHOUR HILL

ARROW EDITOR

As our year of ARROW editorship draws to a close, we continue to be impressed by the activities and honors earned by Pi Phis, both on and off the campus. It has been our pleasure to publicize those activities and honors whenever they are submitted for publication. This would not have been possible without the good and faithful services of chapter ARROW correspondents, alumnae club corresponding secretaries and interested Pi Phis all over the world.

Our thanks must also go to our Alumnae Club Editor, Adele Alford Heink, who is responsible for editing the club letters that appear in the winter issue. Marianne Reed Wild, Exchange Editor, spends many hours reading and selecting items for publication in the "What Others Are Saying" section. Gathering material for "News From Arrow-mont" has been the responsibility this year of Mariantha James Williams. Without the services of these "good and faithful," our magazine would not have been complete.

As a member of the NPC Brass Tacks Committee, we attended a weekend meeting of that group in Indianapolis in November. This was a profitable meeting, aside from the considerable work done, because it gave us an opportunity to know the editors with whom we have been working but had met only briefly two years ago at NPC.

It continues to be a great pleasure serving as ARROW editor. It is a privilege to work with the many fine officers—national, province and local—who are helping spread the word about our fine fraternity.

MARILYN SIMPSON FORD

SECRETARY OF THE ALUMNÆ DEPARTMENT

In addition to the duties of this office which have been reported and discussed in previous annual reports, this officer has this year enjoyed the responsibilities of the chairmanship of the Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award Committee.

The Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award is an alumnae club service award. It was created by the alumnae province presidents and the alumnae directors to honor our beloved and highly esteemed Grand Vice President of Alumnae, Evelyn Peters Kyle. It provides a long overdue and much needed award that would recognize the long hours of service to alumnae clubs which is provided through the years by faithful alumnae whose work, generally speaking, has gone unrecognized. There are province awards and one national award, a ceramic angel, and they will be presented in the years of Conventions. In addition to the individual awards, there will be a permanent display at Arrowmont which will be inscribed with the names of all national winners. The initial expenses of this award have been paid by the alumnae province presidents and the alumnae directors.

In the year of Convention, alumnae clubs are asked to nominate a highly qualified member by sending that nomination to their alumnae province president. She selects the province winner who is the nominee for the national award. The award is based on leadership within the club promoting the ideals of Pi Beta Phi, reliability, initiative, consistent contribution to the well-being of the club, and unstinting loyalty.

The first Angel Award Committee members were, in addition to the chairman, three alumnae province presidents, Sabra Hansen Qua, Eta, Harriet Haycock Brown, Mu South, and Aileen Aylesworth Welgan, Tau. A new committee will be appointed for the coming two years.

The above chairmanship, the duties which apply specifically to Junior Groups, and the responsibilities of secretary and director have filled this officer's days with intriguing work which carries with it the knowledge that a contribution is being made to the ongoing thrust of our ever traditional but ever changing Fraternity in the dynamic world which we call "our way of life."

BETTY ROWTON HOLT

DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The Director of National Archives has compiled the history of The Fraternity from the annual reports published in the Information Issue of The ARROW and from the various materials sent to her from Central Office during the year.

This officer taped and compiled the minutes of the national officers' meeting held in June, 1970, in Gatlinburg, Tenn., and the minutes of the Grand Council-Directors' meeting held in San Antonio, Tex., in February, 1971.

Louise Rosser Kemp, Grand Vice President of Chapters (Administrative), met with the Director of National Archives on April 3, 1971, in Stillwater, Okla., in order to go over the materials to be included in the new "Ceremonies Manual." This manual will be completed for distribution in the fall mailing.

Chapter visits were made at South Carolina Alpha, North Carolina Alpha, and North Carolina Beta in April, 1971. These visits were very rewarding and enjoyable.

Requests for historical material and information were received and answered throughout the year.

JEAN ORR DONALDSON

DIRECTOR OF CHAPTER HISTORIES

Chapter histories were again exhibited at the national Convention. The display room was large, well lighted, and conveniently located near the convention hall, enabling many visitors to enjoy the histories. The two winning histories for 1969-70 were on display, with the Nita Hill Stark Vase and the Historian's Cup. A large table on which all of the Pi Beta Phi trophies were arranged, completed the exhibit room.

Some chapters failed to have histories displayed, because the historians did not send the histories to the delegates in time for the delegates to bring them. These books will be mailed to me for grading. This year's histories showed quite a change in character and theme from the previous two years, reflecting the lessening of turmoil and violence on the campus. By actual count, "happiness" and "friendship" were continuing themes in fifteen histories, and four others had quotes on such subjects, for prefaces and title pages.

It must be remembered that each history is judged by how well it shows the achievements of its particular group, be it large or small. In doing this, it must contain all required information and be neatly compiled. Both of the winning histories shared the qualities we seek: fine essays on the year's activities, which are history in the making, with art work only used to enhance, and not overpower the typed pages.

The Nita Hill Stark Vase, for the most outstanding history, was awarded to Oklahoma Beta, a chapter which has achieved distinction several times for its history. Their theme, "From Within (the chapter) to Without" (the school and the community) gave an interesting and detailed account of the year, artistically presented. The historian was Corabell Bennet with assistant historian, Gayle Gray. The Historian's Cup, for the second best history, was awarded to Arizona Beta, a chapter which has consistently had a good history. From the needlepoint cover picturing "Snoopy" (made by several members) through the pages on which he appeared, the historians gave a splendid account of the school year, with "Happiness" as their theme. The historian was Barbara Goldberg, with assistant historian, Alyce Ketner.

Eleven chapters were awarded Honorable Mentions. They were (alphabetically) Connecticut Alpha, historian, Nancy Creighton, assistant historian, Chris Keet; Illinois Eta, historians Sally Hanson and Mary Kay Florence; Kansas Beta, historian Kathy Mullinex, assistant historian Lisa Peine; Massachusetts Alpha, historian Susan Crust; Michigan Beta, historian Tamara Larsen, assistant historians, Barbara Miller and Kersten Odmark; Ohio Epsilon, historian Jennie Scherer; Ontario Beta, historian Mary Ellen Hogan, assistant historians Carey Fleming and Barb McComb; Oregon Delta, historian Phila Johnson; Texas Alpha, historian Janie Passel, assistant historian Maria McCampbell; Virginia Delta, historian Martha Boone, assistant historian Karen Seel; and Washington Gamma, co-historians, Trish Ohlson and Pam Olson.

The Director enjoyed visiting California Delta, California Epsilon, and California Zeta this year. We hope that we were able to share some fraternity experience and national enthusiasm for Pi Beta Phi during these visits. It was wonderful to again meet these actives at Convention, feeling that we were all genuine friends in Pi Beta Phi. We were proud of their participation in Convention.

We especially appreciate the understanding and assistance of Mrs. Vanasse and Mrs. Orr of Grand Council. Many thanks to the province presidents who cooperated so well with us. We could never survive long were it not for Mrs. Schulenburg, and the staff of Central Office who have been so helpful.

As a new era of I.C. approaches, we earnestly hope that the collegians will realize the importance of continuing the chapter history, as it is the one place that if their goals and achievements are worthwhile, they must be written in the chapter history, and other Pi Phis must be able to read about them in being able to view the history at a Convention exhibit, a custom started by actives themselves over twenty years ago.

ROSE MCCOLLOCH DRESSLER

NATIONAL CONVENTION GUIDE

At the time of this report the chairman has not yet been through the experience of a Convention in the office of National Convention Guide. However, the June, 1970, officers' workshop and Arrowmont dedication was at least a glimpse of the work that will be required to arrange a successful meeting.

We are privileged to have a most capable Local Convention Committee in San Antonio, Tex. Patty Lou Burns Moore, Local Chairman; Carol Ann Moore Killian, Hospitality Chairman; and Marilyn Allen Cazort, Registration Chairman, have been hard at work for over a year in preparation for our 48th Biennial Convention at the Hilton Palacio del Rio Hotel and the San Antonio Convention Center.

The Chairman traveled to Kansas City, Mo., in the fall to attend Grand Council's meeting to discuss the plans that had been made to date and to gather information pertinent to planning the Convention.

The Chairman was among those officers who met in San Antonio in February, 1971. This was very worthwhile for all concerned to have the opportunity to see first hand the facilities of the hotel as well as the San Antonio Convention Center where the business meetings, the large meal functions, and the workshops were to be held. All of the many details of planning were discussed with the personnel of the hotel and the convention center. A welcome relief from the duties at hand was a lovely dinner party hosted by the San Antonio Alumnae Club honoring the officers present at the meeting.

A constant stream of mail has been answered from hotels across the land wishing to host conventions for our group. Plans have been made for an officers' workshop to be held at the Mountain View Hotel in Gatlinburg, Tenn., early in October, and the 49th Biennial Convention will be held at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Ark., in June of 1973.

Almost another full year of learning has gone by for this chairman. She is most grateful for the gracious manner in which mistakes have been overlooked, and the encouragement that has resulted in a more confident feeling that enables her to handle the duties of the office.

The Chairman appreciates the help and understanding from the members of Grand Council and the Director of Central Office, and the long hours of work from a dedicated group of Pi Phis in Pi Province. The rewards to this chairman will be overwhelming if this report can be read in the Information ARROW with the memory of a successful Convention.

GERI WHITE KUREK

NATIONAL PUBLIC RELATIONS CHAIRMAN

"How can we improve the fraternity image? The most important steps are these: 1) Make sure our members know what we stand for; 2) Help them prove that we stand for it."

The Public Relations Chairman began her second year of service by preparing a six-page compilation of comments on this theme for presentation to national and province officers at their summer workshop in Gatlinburg. Source material included Operation Greek publications, Banta's Greek Exchange, The Fraternity Month, The Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council bulletin, and various newspaper articles submitted by interested members. The primary objective was the establishment of a public relations policy.

At the request of The ARROW Editor, the PR Chairman photographed Arrowmont dedication events. Twenty of these photographs were published in the Winter ARROW.

The PR Chairman was invited to meet with the Arrowmont Board of Governors during dedication week. From this meeting evolved a special Pinpointer devoted to Arrowmont, illustrated with nine photographs. Copies were distributed to national and province officers, BOG members, and all clubs and chapters. The PR Chairman was asked to participate in the Arrowmont program at the 1971 convention.

The chairman also prepared an illustrated souvenir bulletin for officers who attended the workshop and dedication.

An album of photographs and clippings depicting the development of Arrowmont from the Settlement School was prepared for the use of interested clubs and chapters. (Material about Holt House was also included.) Copies were sent to the Grand Vice President of Philanthropies and the Arrowmont Executive Coordinator.

To satisfy requests for photographs of prominent Pi Phis, particularly in the entertainment industry, for use during rush week, the chairman collected portraits from a variety of sources and duplicated them for limited distribution.

A new candle-lighting ceremony, "Challenge by Candlelight," was written by the PR Chairman for use at the Southern California Area Council Founders' Day celebration. Many clubs in other parts of the country also decided to use it, and it was printed in Pi Phi Times.

The PR Chairman wrote several articles for publication in The Arrow. She was the featured speaker at the South Coast Alumnae Club Founders' Day celebration. She was asked to prepare take-home material for alumnae delegates to the 1971 convention and to assist in the preparations of the convention daily "flyer."

Throughout the year the PR Chairman has been sorting and filing information submitted on candidates for a proposed Who's Who in Pi Beta Phi.

ELEANOR BUSHNELL LEHNER

TRAVELING GRADUATE COUNSELORS

Serving as Pi Beta Phi's Traveling Graduate Counselors has been the most rewarding and gratifying year we have ever had. Meeting hundreds of wonderful Pi Phi actives and alumnae has helped us to realize how lucky we are to be a part of such a fine organization . . . and more than that, what a privilege it is to represent Pi Phi.

Our initial meeting and training took place at Gatlinburg's national workshop. Especially beneficial was the Operation Greek Leadership Training School which we attended in early August. Along with field secretaries and national officers from numerous other sororities, we were brought up to date on campus conditions, drug and standards problems, and current Greek trends. Before starting our chapter visits, we spent two weeks in St. Louis at Central Office, familiarizing ourselves with its function and services.

Our chapter visit experiences were both memorable and varied. This being the first year for Pi Phi to have two Counselors, we were able to visit all chapters who did not receive a national visitor this year. Rush visits were made to seven chapters; and we especially enjoyed our fall visits with the sixteen I.C. '71 pilot chapters. It was challenging and rewarding to work with these selected chapters in adapting to and implementing the ideals of I.C. '71 into their chapter life.

Officer training was the purpose of several visits; and we worked together with two chapters in reorganizing their chapter goals and needs. Those chapters visited include Massachusetts Alpha, Massachusetts Beta, Nova Scotia Alpha, New York Alpha, New York Gamma, New York Delta, Vermont Beta, Pennsylvania Beta, Pennsylvania Gamma, Pennsylvania Epsilon, West Virginia Alpha, West Virginia Gamma, Florida Alpha, Georgia Alpha, Michigan Alpha, Michigan Beta, Michigan Gamma, Michigan Delta, Ontario Alpha, Ontario Beta, Ohio Delta, Indiana Alpha, Indiana Beta, Indiana Gamma, Indiana Delta, Indiana Epsilon, Indiana Zeta, Kentucky Alpha, Tennessee Beta, Alabama Alpha, Alabama Gamma, Mississippi Beta, Wisconsin Alpha, and Wisconsin Beta. Also visited were Illinois Alpha, Illinois Beta-Delta, Illinois Epsilon, Illinois Zeta, Illinois Eta, Illinois Theta, Iowa Alpha, Nebraska Beta, South Dakota Alpha, Missouri Alpha, Arkansas Beta, Oklahoma Beta, Louisiana Alpha, Texas Gamma, Colorado Alpha, Colorado Beta, Colorado Gamma, Montana Alpha, Wyoming Alpha, New Mexico Alpha, Utah Alpha, Idaho Alpha, Washington Alpha, Washington Beta, Washington Gamma, Nevada Alpha, Oregon Alpha, Oregon Beta, Oregon Gamma, Oregon Delta, California Beta, California Gamma, California Delta, and California Epsilon.

We have enjoyed the chance to instill in other college women the ideals, values, and responsibilities of membership in Pi Beta Phi . . . because they mean so much to us. We have learned and grown with each day's opportunities and experiences and have a collection of unforgettable memories.

Our year would have been impossible were it not for the faith and guidance of Grand Council. Mrs. Orr has been especially valuable to us; and Mrs. Schulenburg's willingness to help is greatly appreciated. We thank all of you for allowing us this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity; and we thank each Pi Phi who helped to make the past nine months so worthwhile.

DEANIE FULTON
SHARON SMITH

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL OFFICE

It doesn't seem possible that a month after this is written your Director will have been behind this particular Pi Phi desk for four years. She hopes that there has been some noticeable progress in those years. There have been rewarding ones for her, though occasionally there are times when the problems seem merely to be repeating themselves. She has especially enjoyed working with the office staff and with the officers and members of The Fraternity. It was a pleasure to share ideas with others behind similar desks at the October meeting of the Central Office Executives in Indianapolis—and the renewal of friendships which takes place at such meetings as the officers' meeting and the Convention in San Antonio makes up for a lot of paper work.

There were a number of personnel changes in our chapter accounting department during this past year. With the addition to our staff of a new Central Office Financial Director, Dorothy Mayne Campbell, Missouri Beta, we're beginning a new year with a goal of increased communication with chapters, financial advisors and province presidents.

Our bookkeeping department continues to handle all dues, fees, and contributions from the membership. For the second year we sent out a general mailing asking for national alumnae dues and contributions to Arrowmont. The response was gratifying, with about the same amount of money sent in as last year, and with more people contributing. As of the close of our books on May 31, 1,639 people had contributed $11,946 to Arrowmont, and we had received national dues from 2,864 Pi Phis. Again, about 2/3 of those dues came from Pi Phis who live where there is a club, and lists of these people have been sent to each club president.

Our supply and printing department has been going just about full steam all year. It is continually amazing that such a small office can print and send out so much material. New manuals put out this past year were: Awards, Scholarships and Loans; Chapter Manual; House Director Manual; Panhellenic Delegate Manual; Policies and Standing Rules; Chapter President's Notebook; Manual for Chapter and Club Philanthropy Chairmen; and Vice President of Member Development Manual. The Assistant Director, Caroline Barrere, has again done an excellent job of heading the membership and jewelry functions of the office. The processing of jewelry orders has been made more difficult by rather frequent price changes, which often have to be handled by additional billings to chapters. There were 2,600 initiates this past year, and a separate record was kept of the pledging, initiation, payment of fees, etc. of each one of them.

There has been a great deal of work done on the various IBM listings which the office is responsible for keeping up to date. Lists are printed out by maiden name, alphabetically, alphabetically within chapters, by club and state, and of those eligible for the Order of the Golden Arrow, in addition to the regular print-out of ARROW labels for those Pi Phis for whom we have addresses. For the Summer, 1971, ARROW, nearly 75,000 labels were printed.

Since Pi Phis seem to move a great deal, the task of keeping these lists up to date is a difficult one. The response to the lists of "lost" Pi Phis in The ARROW has been good, and we do appreciate it. We also appreciate any notification of address change that you can send up; these are always so much more accurate when sent in by the person herself.

Since the cost of a new directory would be prohibitive, we are trying to have these lists as accurate as possible for your use. Any time any of you would like addresses, we will be glad to send them.

Your Director wishes to thank the office staff and the officers of The Fraternity, and she wishes to take this opportunity to remind Pi Phis everywhere that Central Office is here to serve them. Please don't hesitate to let us know if there is any way in which we can help you.

MAGAZINE AGENCY

Following is our annual report of commissions earned for the year 1970-1971. Total sales were somewhat above last year, due mainly to the South Coast Club, whose order for Air California was greatly appreciated. Total commissions were down somewhat, mainly because of a decrease in chapter commissions. However, it was heartening to see the increase in club commissions. If we can have a total increase with only five provinces having an increase, think what could be done if ten provinces could have an increase next year!

Our congratulations to Texas Gamma and St. Louis, Mo., for the highest total commissions for chapter and club; to Louisiana Alpha and South Coast, Calif., for the highest dollar increase; and to California Epsilon and Little Pigeon, Tenn., for the highest commissions per capita.

Remember that buying magazines through the Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency is an easy way to make money for Arrowmont—all the earnings go to our major philanthropy, the arts and crafts school in Gatlinburg. Please help us to make the agency's contribution larger.

Mary Kerth Bowles, Missouri Beta, has taken over the day-to-day operations of the agency, and she will be glad to do anything she can to help. Please write her if you have any questions.

Pi Beta Phi Settlement School

CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF GOVERNORS, ARROWMONT SCHOOL OF ARTS AND CRAFTS

On Tuesday, June 23, 1970, Pi Beta Phi truly moved into its second century. The new class room building of Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts was dedicated, marking the completion of a plan voted on by Convention delegates in 1964 and further sanctioned at the 1967 Centennial Convention. In an impressive ceremony held in the auditorium of the beautiful new Arrowmont, an outstanding Pi Phi who had guided the establishing of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School in 1912 was honoured. To quote from the program "because of her dedication to Pi Phi, her organizational ability and inspiration, the class room building at Arrowmont is lovingly dedicated to Emma Harper Turner." Those at the ceremonies heard another Pi Phi honoured. The library will be known as the Marian G. Heard Resource Center. Marian Heard is Professor of Craft and Design in the College of Home Economics at the University of Tennessee and has been Director of our Craft Summer Workshops for twenty-six years. To again quote from the program "No individual has had a more effective role in shaping the dream of Arrowmont than its Director Marian Heard." On hand for the ceremonies were members of Grand Council, members of the Board of Governors of Arrowmont; plus national and provincial officers; officials from University of Tennessee; representatives from the world of crafts; town dignitaries; friends; faculty and staff, as well as students from twenty-two states and Italy and Pakistan.

As we go into the second century of Pi Phi, we must change the past image of our philanthropy to the new image, as of June, 1970. No longer is it a program to bring education and medical service to a remote district in the Smokies. This is no longer required. We have moved upward with our projected programs which will send skilled hands trained at Arrowmont to all parts of the continent and to the rest of the world. Skilled hands trained by instructors of the highest quality chosen by Marian Heard. This summer there will be eighteen instructors with masters and two with doctorates in the arts and fine arts; famous names of the craft world of such quality that the University of Tennessee gives graduate and undergraduate credits to those working to that end. At the same time, those not working for credits can come to learn and be trained in the wide variety of crafts taught.

It is important that Pi Phis UNDERSTAND the full scope of the plans for Arrowmont and realize the potential for greatness that Arrowmont possesses. Only through understanding will the Pi Phis of today and tomorrow have the enthusiasms necessary to make the plans and dreams into reality. They will understand that money sent for Arrowmont will have influence in places other than Gatlinburg. They will understand the need for financial assistance. Contributions and support of the various money raising projects will increase. There are so many ways Pi Phis can support their school. To mention only one—Did you know that all money from the sale of the new cook book goes to Arrowmont?

The 1970 annual meeting of the Board of Governors was held in Gatlinburg at the time of the dedication. The Chairman made a visit to the school in May, 1971, and once again thrilled to its beauty and efficiency. A review was made of the different aspects of the complex and several phases studied in depth. In keeping with our step into the second century and progress there has been considerable reorganization in the methods of business management.

Lucile McCutchan, our enthusiastic Executive Coordinator, has her heart and soul in Arrowmont. She is respected in Gatlinburg and serves on various town committees giving continuity to the excellent rapport that has existed between Pi Beta Phi and the citizens. The Board of Governors has served with diligence, contributing generously of their time and talents. The Grand Vice President of Philanthropies, Sarah Holmes Hunt, has been our guide, giving wise and considered counsel. The Chairman gives thanks for being a part of this great work, the creation of Arrowmont that will serve all humanity.

HESPERIA AYLSWORTH HENDERSON

EXECUTIVE COORDINATOR, ARROWMONT AND ARROWCRAFT

ARROWCRAFT SHOP—

Arrowcraft has new circular ramp walk leading to shop from Parkway which now draws people in more readily than former steps. Previously City of Gatlinburg changed street frontage of Arrowcraft Shop by taking out curve near Baskin Creek Bridge thus widening bridge making new railing necessary. We were permitted to submit plans for bridge rail in keeping with our frontage on Parkway. This improved corner has set another example for City for preservation of rustic mountain appearance. Daily appreciation is voiced by visitors for our setting—Arrowcraft Shop, the Mall and our Gates, our face to the public.

Clubs are now allowed to return unsold merchandise if they pay shipping charges and package goods correctly to prevent damage. Arrowcraft Shop has received merchandise that has been sitting for many years and was able to place it on sale in shop. We can unload inventory where clubs cannot. Many clubs had been waiting until the end of their fiscal year to pay their accounts so we made an appeal to pay-as-you-go, remitting part when order received, part when sale was completed and remainder when inventory was cleared. This helped us in taking care of our overhead here more promptly. We are very proud of excellent record of payment and for letter of explanation when there were delays.

The Curator of Gunston Hall in Lorton, Va., the historic home of George Mason, requested vegetable dyed hand-woven yardage to cover a couch. We were to duplicate original fabric as closely as possible. Arrowcraft produced 12 yards for them and is proud to be represented there.

United States Department of Labor sent Miss Thongterm of Thailand's Women Labor Department to visit and observe our operations with craftsmen and our cottage weaving industry. Remi Sogunro of Nigeria was also a foreign visitor sent here to learn about our cottage weaving industry. American Craftsmen Council sent graduate students from Pakistan to see both Arrowcraft and Arrowmont. These are but a few of our visitors. Pi Phis of all ages continue to come, as well as regular customers from all over the United States.

ARROWMONT SCHOOL OF ARTS AND CRAFTS—

Summer of 1970 was eventful! Dedication of Emma Harper Turner Building complex was a dream come true. Centennial year-round program could now get underway. It was a great moving experience to use the new facility in Summer Workshops, 1970, as you could feel respect and stature grow as each teacher, each craftsman, each student became exposed to our professional atmosphere. Summer

Workshops, 1971, are filled and we are turning down applications for lack of housing space.

Financial support from clubs, chapters, and other Pi Phi members continues to strengthen our national philanthropy and to help us in our growth. Every Pi Phi who visits or attends school leaves with pride and determination to spread the word of our work and our needs.

The former Emma Harper Turner building was leased to Community Tectonics as of December 1970. They restored the building and it is a beautiful addition to our Pi Beta Phi Compound. . . . Other additional income comes from renting the Red Barn every weekend when school is not in session to religious groups, college groups including Pi Phis from University of Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Memphis, South Carolina, craftsmen from Craftsman's Fair, Wildflower Pilgrimage leaders, and on and on. We have permanent winter boarders, teachers from Pi Beta Phi Elementary School plus many paying guests at Staff House.

Our honors have been numerous, Marian Heard, Director of Arrowmont, was named this year's Alumni Distinguished Service Professor at the President's Honors Banquet at University of Tennessee. Tennessee Art Commission awarded Pi Beta Phi a commendation for our work. They also have given us $2000 to hold a workshop for Craftsmen of State of Tennessee this next year. Arrowmont has been chosen for meeting place of National Council of Education for Ceramic Arts in March 1972 . . . 500 to 600 potters will attend. Persis Grayson, one of our teachers, has been made president of Handweavers Guild of America. (Note new wrap in Arrowcraft catalog called "The Grayson" which she designed.)

Harland Bartholomew & Associates has just submitted new comprehensive plan for City of Gatlinburg. In the letter of transmittal for the plan is the following statement:

"The cultural center of the city should be Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts. Continued construction of motels, shops and 'attractions' may soon reach a point in which congestion and commercialism might begin to outweigh the things that have made the town so attractive to visitors in the past. This tremendous economic pressure might be counterbalanced by a strong cultural force in the community."

Many local groups use our facilities for meetings and are interested and enthused about our program. Bus tours bring visitors to Arrowcraft and now some are asking to see Arrowmont. This year the representatives of Junior Colleges of Southeast were in Gatlinburg for convention and asked to tour and hear about our work. We are always proud to extend exposure to the work of philanthropy of Pi Beta Phi.

The Pi Beta Phi Settlement School as part of corporation of Pi Beta Phi is proud to give members continuing and lifetime objectives for support of their philanthropy. The dedication of Board of Governors has been due to vision each has. It has been a cohesive group. We salute them, as well as members of staff here at school at the closing this year. The combined support of Board, staff and members of Pi Beta Phi has kept inspiration high. AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
GATLINBURG, TENNESSEE
May 31, 1971

Pi Beta Phi Settlement School Committee
Pi Beta Phi Settlement School
Gatlinburg, Tennessee

We have examined the balance sheets of the following funds of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School (a division of Pi Beta Phi) as of May 31, 1971, and the related statements of income and expense and fund balances for the year then ended:

Current Fund
Special Funds
Endowment Funds
Invested in Plant

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We made a similar examination of the financial statements for the preceding year.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of income and expense and fund balances present fairly the financial position of the funds (as described above) of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School at May 31, 1971, and the results of their operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Standing Committees

CANADIAN PHILANTHROPIES COMMITTEE

As the great Northland of Canada is developing, so are the library facilities. There are now seventeen member libraries servicing almost all of the vast North West Territories.

With our $1000.00 donation in the summer of 1970, the eight branch libraries of the Yukon profited by an excellent collection of books on Canadiana, while the N.W.T. further expanded their stock of Northern Canadian items.

There has been much interest and enthusiasm engendered from Canadian chapters and clubs over the possibility of providing audio-visual aids with future donations.

This would require greater financial support from all, as the equipment for media services is very expensive. Let us aim high with our "Arrow in the Arctic" Project.

The Schools of Social Work foresee an ever-greater need in the future for the kind of financing the Pi Beta Phi loans provide, namely short-term, interest-free, and quickly negotiated loans.

The support of all Pi Phi clubs, chapters, and individuals is asked for, and the committee wishes to thank all those who have contributed so generously.

PAT FOSTER WEIR

THE EMMA HARPER TURNER MEMORIAL FUNDS COMMITTEE

Twenty-five years ago, at the Swampscott Convention which followed World War II, Pi Beta Phi created the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Funds by assigning $50,000 for the principal of the funds, taking that amount from the General Fund. They were to be available to chapters for loans for chapter house building purposes and the interest, paid by the chapters, was to be used to assist Pi Phi alumnae in times of crisis or continuing hardship. The Fraternity has fulfilled these assigned objects faithfully and has brought comfort and aid to many alumnae, young and old. One cannot estimate the blessing this has been.

In the current biennium the committee has processed seven new gifts and continued aid to six others, previously authorized. Of the seven new gifts, four are granted to young alumnae who have the responsibility of young or teenage children and three of these have heavy medical bills to pay, following tragic illnesses. We were saddened to be called upon in a first drug addiction case and are supplying a small monthly check so that this Pi Phi adult may have change for snacks and personal needs, in a state institution where she is receiving rehabilitation treatment. Two, on this list, are older Pi Phis whose grave physical condition has made Pi Beta Phi's checks a blessing.

Pi Beta Phi is continuing to assist three Golden Arrow Pi Phis, two by monthly checks and the third, who was initiated seventy years ago, as those who keep in touch with her see the need. A fourth one missed the Golden Arrow status by five years, at the time when she met a tragic death. She had been assisted by monthly checks throughout the biennium. Only one younger member receives continuing monthly checks as she works and strives alone to hold together a large family. The sixth of these is one of Pi Phi's finest and most loyal members who, through no fault of her own, has reached retirement years with inadequate income and has been receiving monthly checks throughout the biennium.

It is important that you understand that when you sense a need which we can fulfill, you should contact the committee to find out whether aid is possible. This is the special service which the individual can render in this particular project of Pi Beta Phi. Remember, too, that this Pi Phi giving is limited to aid to our alumnae in the way that many scholarships assist our actives. No monthly check which we can offer is adequate for living expenses and no single check, in emergency situations, covers the emergency. The funds of this committee can provide only a lifting of the burden. But, in an hour of need, Pi Beta Phi is there with a comforting and helpful gift which says, "We care—because you are enduring so much."

It seems important, also, to recognize always that this service of Pi Beta Phi to her alumnae is a sweet and intimate one, beyond the somewhat impersonal one which public welfare seems to be, and, that it is designed to support the dignity of the receiver and to build morale within the circle of lives touched by each gift. It is never charity. It is the act of love which is a part of Pi Beta Phi's traditional relationship and idealism.

This ends the period of service of the present chairman, the third in the history of the committee. A notebook is being prepared which will contain a confidential record of every recipient found in the file and which will offer items of historical interest, of policy, and of procedure. It has been a joy to work in this compassionate endeavor of Pi Beta Phi and the privilege will be one of my happiest memories. I would pay tribute to Lillian Farrington McNaught, who was a wonderful coach when I began nine years ago; to Lillian Beck Holton, Nenabelle Green Dame, and Ruth Williams Hansen who have been wonderful teammates; and to each member of the Grand Council, in its changing pattern over these years, for her prompt and deeply interested response to every question and request. Tribute is due, also, to the many fine Pi Phis who have given time and earnest attention, as sponsors of those who have been assisted. It has been a privilege to work with them. The impact all the way through is very rewarding and evidence of the worth of this project. I am sure that we all feel what one of the current recipients expressed when she wrote, "I knew the words 'whole life through' but they never had the meaning they have now."

DIRECTOR OF EXTENSION

Prime considerations in our present extension policy should be caliber of the school, caliber of the students, attitude of the administration toward fraternities, number of interested alumnae in the area and housing requirements.

During the current year 28 inquiries have been received by the Director of Extension. There were 18 local groups, 4 from alumnae, 2 from Dean of Women and 4 from Student Coordinators and Panhellenic Advisors. The following are the extension requests received in the past year:

Quinnipiac College, Hamden, Connecticut
Wisconsin State University, Eau Claire, Wisconsin

 By unanimous vote of Grand Council in February, 1971, the local, Kappa Chi Upsilon, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, N.M., will be allowed to present a formal petition for vote at the 1971 Convention. Prior to the vote the chairman of Extension Research Committee, Mary Emrich Van Buren, Sigma Province President, Lucile Johannesen West, Alumnae Province President, Jean Anderson Viney and chapter presidents of Arizona Alpha, Arizona Beta, New Mexico Alpha and Utah Alpha had visited the local at New Mexico State University.

FAY MARTIN GROSS

EXTENSION RESEARCH COMMITTEE

The purpose of this committee is to accumulate information pertaining to The Fraternity's requirements for considering the establishment of a chapter and reporting this information to the Grand Council.

In September, 1970, it was the chairman's privilege to visit New Mexico State University at Las Cruces, New Mexico, and the local group of Kappa Chi Upsilon.

The 2½ day visit included interviews with President, Dr. Gerald Thomas; Vice president—Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. P. S. Thomas; Dean of Women, Dr. Mary Jane Donnalley; each active and pledge of Kappa Chi Upsilon individually and as a group at luncheon, dinner, and chapter meeting; luncheon with the resident alumnae; and a tour of the campus including visits to the N.P.C. groups already established.

Kappa Chi Upsilon members have abundant fraternity background and honors which include president of Associated Women Students, Miss Venus, runner-up for Miss New Mexico in the state contest, Maid of Cotton, and the highest academic record among the established groups.

The University offers degrees in 5 colleges. The School of Engineering ranks among the top ten nationally. More than 300 of the faculty hold PHD degrees. Masters and Doctorals are offered in 3 colleges.

MARY EMRICH VAN BUREN

COMMITTEE ON FRATERNITY MUSIC

I am happy to report that a large percentage of the chapter song leaders have sent letters to me this year, either in the fall or the spring. Typical music activities continue to take place on all campuses. Favorite songs have been noted and will appear on the Convention song sheets. Several letters inquiring about certain songs, arrangements, books, etc. have been answered.

Entries for the 1971 Convention song contest are very slow in arriving. A letter of reminder was sent to all chapters with an extension of the deadline. It is hoped that interest will pick up, thus enabling a continuance of a most delightful event at Convention. Encouragement has been sent to all song leaders to submit new songs with original melody and lyrics, so that they may be shared with every chapter. Every effort is being made to keep Pi Phi a "singing" fraternity.

MARY SWANSON ENGEL

HOLT HOUSE COMMITTEE

When the members of the Holt House Committee return to Monmouth this fall for the annual meeting, it will mark the 30th year Holt House has been a memorial for the Founders of Pi Beta Phi. It has been said that progress is made because there are those who care. It is the caring members of Pi Beta Phi who shared in this project and through the sharing found it a rewarding experience, working with understanding and love for each other and Pi Beta Phi.

Changes at Holt House are never dramatic; just a consistent program of improvement coupled with a recognition that consideration must be given for the replacement of faulty equipment when it fails to function completely. During the year, this happened when the roof leaked around the chimney and major repairs had to be made. Due to this, redecorating of the Historical Room and the hostess' suite will be necessary. Plans for the unpredictable emergencies must be of prime importance. It is far more pleasant to think of decorative changes, such as, the new braided rug made possible by a generous contribution or the Mt. Ash planted recently in the yard as a memorial. As you see both the designated gift and the undesignated contribution are essential to successfully maintain Holt House.

This year a "wishing list" was prepared by the Committee. This list is available for anyone wishing to make designated contribution or it may be possible there are those who have something they would like to share with Holt House.

In the past six years the Memorial Garden has developed and now makes an impressive surrounding of flowering shrubs, trees, and evergreens for this charming white house in the midwest. I hope the members of Pi Beta Phi may have an opportunity to visit Holt House to see what thoughtful planning and generous sharing has accomplished.

The Committee is grateful to all who have participated in the Green Stamp Plan to acquire adequate flatware for all occasions. It is a continuous program and Holt House benefits.

Each year Holt House continues to serve the community of Monmouth as well as alumnae clubs who come some distance to hold their meetings, or active chapters from a surrounding campus may choose to have their initiation at Holt House.

This year Caralee Reynolds joined the committee as treasurer. She has skillfully performed these responsibilities and offered many helpful suggestions. The Holt House Committee has worked together for several years and it has been a very pleasant association. Lois Foreman, slide chairman, reports the slides were requested seven times; if you have not used them recently, please include them in your program. Mary Patricia Warneke has handled the acknowledgement of gifts and contributions, listing them in the Holt House Gift Book. Mary Huff is very diligent as the Monmouth member, making the on-the-spot decisions. It has been a privilege to have Sally Hunt as our liaison member from Grand Council for she has given much valuable counseling to the committee.

The members of the Holt House Committee wish to express to Grand Council their appreciation for this opportunity to work on this committee, and to thank all the Pi Phis for their generosity to this philanthropy of Pi Beta Phi. Whether pride stimulates participation or participation develops pride, I can not say; but surely, both have been essential elements in the restoration of Holt House 1971.

STATEMENT OF FUND BALANCE
 HOLT HOUSE TREASURER—PI BETA PHI
 MONMOUTH, ILLINOIS

May 31, 1971

Holt House Committee
 Pi Beta Phi
 Monmouth, Illinois

We have examined the accompanying statement of fund balance of the Holt House Treasurer—Pi Beta Phi, resulting from recorded cash transactions, for the year ended May 31, 1971. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records, and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We previously made a similar examination of the statement of fund balance for the preceding year.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement presents fairly the fund balance of the Holt House Treasurer—Pi Beta Phi at May 31, 1971, resulting from recorded cash transactions, and the receipts collected and expenses disbursed during the period then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding period.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee's focus must always be on the election of the national and province officers at the biennial Convention. In 1971 its objective was to present to the active and alumnae sessions assembled at Convention a slate containing the names of competent and dedicated officers with potential to lead The Fraternity for the following biennium. At the San Antonio Convention certain constitutional changes concerning the makeup of Grand Council and the Directorate meant that the Nominating Committee had to react quickly to these changes in the time available to it once an affirmative vote had confirmed the restructuring.

During the early part of the year the committee concentrated its efforts on preparing lists of qualified Pi Phis in all sections of both Canada and the United States where alumnae are serving The Fraternity in small and large roles. Names for these lists were received from many sources: officers following chapter and club visits, individual members, and chapters and alumnae clubs. Without the energetic support of each of these sources the work of the committee would become almost impossible given the offices to be filled as well as the requirements of those offices. Prior to Convention the work of the committee is carried out by the three alumnae members through correspondence and telephone contact. On arrival at Convention they are provided with invaluable assistance by the undergraduate members of the committee who are the alternate delegates of the four top chapters of the previous year. Such participation and involvement from the campus Pi Phis lend to the committee's decisions a balance of outlook and judgment which ensure that the selection of future officers is representative of all sectors of The Fraternity membership. There is no generation gap for the members of this committee.

The chairman attended the 1970 Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg and discussed with the officers the procedures for nominating and the importance of their role in recommending for office those alumnae known to them through visits and work. The value of such references cannot be underestimated when the committee begins to assemble its roster of eligible women for consideration for province office. Once again such officers gave of their time to communicate with the members of the committee throughout the year and to respond when assistance was required. To each of them the committee extends its warmest appreciation.

The committee established contact in the fall of 1970 with the lists of prospective nominees to determine their availability to serve in 1971. Such lists contain names held over from 1969 as well as new candidates recommended in the following two years. A mailing to all chapters and clubs explaining the work of the Nominating Committee and asking for nominations was sent in the spring of 1971. It is a matter of some regret that many chapters and clubs do not forward as many new names to the committee as it might wish; however, there is recognition that additional information about nominating procedures is required in the future.

The Nominating Committee realizes the responsibility it bears towards The Fraternity at large and is aware that its task can be accomplished because of the excellent cooperation of the members of Grand Council, the national and province officers and the director and staff of Central Office. To each of them we express our sincere appreciation and, in turn, we are grateful to The Fraternity for the privilege of serving Pi Beta Phi as members of this Committee.

PI PHI TIMES

The publication of the Pi Phi Times was made possible by the valuable assistance received from the fine province coordinators and their chapter correspondents. Connie Adam's editing of the spring rush edition was especially appreciated, along with the splendid work done by Central Office.

While not all chapters participated, IC chapters having been excused, those who did contributed many clever and workable ideas for all facets of chapter life.

The Pi Phi Times Award for this year was presented to California Epsilon for splendid cooperation and especially refreshing ideas. Honorable mention went to: Arizona Beta, Arkansas Alpha, Georgia Alpha, Illinois Eta, Illinois Zeta, Indiana Beta, Indiana Epsilon, Kansas Alpha, Kansas Beta, Kentucky Beta, Michigan Delta, Minnesota Alpha, Mississippi Alpha, Missouri Gamma, New York Gamma, Tennessee Alpha, Tennessee Beta, Texas Alpha, Virginia Delta, and West Virginia Gamma.

My sincere thanks to all whose countless hours of endeavor culminated in the two fine editions during the past year.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The Resolutions Committee was appointed by Grand Council to consider legislation presented by chapters and alumnae clubs for the 1971 Convention. The committee was composed of three former province presidents, Mrs. W. R. Wing, Mrs. Dean Karr, and your chairman, and at the Convention we had the help and assistance of three active Pi Beta Phis, newly graduated from college. The committee worked entirely by mail and received some 35 resolutions proposed by various chapters. The committee felt that, in the best interest of The Fraternity, many of the resolutions presented should be referred to special committees for further consideration and study before putting anything in written form to be formally presented to the voting body at Convention. For this reason much of the work of the committee was handled after reaching San Antonio, but we felt the wait and work most rewarding and hopefully we were able to present something favorable to all members of our Fraternity, active and alumnae alike.

It was a pleasure to have served as chairman and the entire committee thanks the members of Grand Council, and directors and other various committee chairmen for their able assistance.

ELOISE FRINK CLEVELAND

Reports of Province Presidents

ALPHA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

I have been studying the faces of Alpha Province trying to decide how to begin. The composites of my girls hang over the desk and encourage me. And what a fine group of young women they are. I first met the current chapter leaders for Alpha Province in Beta territory, Valley Forge to be exact. The Beta and Gamma girls came too and we started off the year with a bonus, sharing discussion with representatives of 11 chapters, 7 AACs, 3 PPs and Deanie. Myra Reimer had done a fine job of organization. Carol Miller and I, as new recruits, could never have handled such a task. And our smiling graduate counselor helped to brighten the work sessions.

Since no two Alpha chapters are alike, we found it most helpful to draw from this large group of sisters. The wide diversity of Alpha Province women is reflected in the types of housing on each campus. It ranges from living at home in Halifax, to apartment dwellers in Boston, to a common dorm at Storrs, to many dorms at Orono. And Massachusetts Beta has a house. We were so pleased to see the newly constructed home ready at Amherst this past fall.

I found these chapters similar in their periods of transition and questioning. I was most relieved to have Freda Schuyler and Evelyn Kyle as the advance guard in visiting four of my chapters. The guidance they so graciously gave was both necessary and appreciated. I braved Nova Scotia on my own before the snow set in. All of the Haligonian women were charming and I thank them for breaking me in as a traveling Pi Phi. Which brings me nicely to the next point.

It was with great pleasure that I was able to recognize Tamarin Dunnet, president of Nova Scotia Alpha, as our province ABO winner. Among her many virtues she deserves credit for guiding a small chapter through a fine Pi Phi year. Joan Hannigan, likewise, served as a chapter president (Massachusetts Beta) and faced the enormous task of "settling in." The honor of province Chapter Service winner belongs to her. Another active sister who rounds out our "top three" comes from Maine Alpha. Tracy Bronson (also an ABO nominee) was awarded the silver bracelet sponsored by all of the alum clubs in our province. Eleanor Roberts (APP) sent it along with the designation "to our most best" Pi Phi. Tracy's attributes are well rounded and of high quality. Other nominees for the ABO award include Beth Lindberg, Connecticut Alpha, and Judith Levine of Massachusetts Beta. Chapter Service recognition also goes to Katherine Hanley (Maine Alpha), Reiko Brown (Massachusetts Alpha), and Susan Shepard (Connecticut Alpha).

Our ranks include panhellenic presidents, campus queens, dramatic & musical talent, all-university leaders, and some fine scholarship records. Massachusetts Beta and Connecticut Alpha deserve special mention in this field. Kinds, times, and quantities of rush varied this last year. Maine Alpha and Nova Scotia Alpha made very special movies. And the most remembered event for Massachusetts Alpha was the celebration of their 75th Anniversary. We wish to thank all of you who shared the day with your greetings.

In reading over past reports I see that it is customary to use this means to thank any little angels who may have helped through the year. I had several. Deanie Fulton joined the girls at Boston, Halifax and Amherst. She made a unique contribution at each stop . . . and we appreciate it. Frances Ross helped me off in the right direction and Myra Reimer answered many desperate phone calls. Sally Schulenburg answered many a letter. Elizabeth Orr and Sally Vanasse are something special. And I have mentioned with gratitude the Mesdames Kyle and Schuyler. Closer to home Isobel Smith and Jackie Boazman, the former a "newie" like myself, and the latter more experienced, guided the girls with Scholarship and F S & E respectively. My AAC ladies worked very hard this year, but especially Marcia Tepper as chairman of House Corporation at Massachusetts Beta . . . sometimes a lonely role.

The nicest thing to happen to me in this year of Pi Phi travel was to be able to attend three distinctly different Founders' Day ceremonies. My own alum club of Southern Fairfield, Conn., presented "This is Your Life" for two Golden Arrows. Boston girls combined an affiliation ceremony and the senior farewell the same evening that we lit twelve candles in an old colonial home (now turned restaurant). Connecticut held a statewide celebration coordinated by Manchester's Margaret Mulhern. After each of the four state alum clubs presented individual awards to the actives, we witnessed a beautifully traditional Golden Arrow ceremony.

Meeting so many new Pi Phi faces has been a marvelous reward during this year as province president.

ANNE ZANTOP CIOFFI

BETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Our year began with an unique and exciting experience . . . a regional active workshop which combined Alpha, Beta and Gamma provinces. With twenty active delegates and eight members of alumnae advisory committees, the regional workshop was an interesting cross-section of Pi Phi living situations, chapters and campuses, as well as personalities. The broader aspect of discussions and the stimulation of close association with sisters in other chapters and provinces provided impetus for a greater understanding of the national scope of our Fraternity. The assistance of Deanie Fulton, Traveling Graduate Counselor, who shared her vitality, know-how of chapter operation, and mathematical brain, was a tremendous asset. During the workshop an enjoyable dinner hour was spent with several members of the two Philadelphia clubs who joined the group one evening. A highlight of the evening was the announcement of several national awards won by the chapters and members. New York Gamma won the Harriette W. Evans Award for Standards, Vermont Beta won the Lucille Douglass Carson Award for Community Service, and Janet Langlois of New York Gamma was awarded a California Alpha Scholarship.

The innovative tone of the year continued with the selection of New York Alpha to participate as one of 15 chapters in the pilot program of I.C. '71.

All chapters were privileged to have the services of the "Traveling Twins" in October with Sharon Smith visiting New York Alpha to assist in the launching of I.C. '71, and also visiting New York Gamma and New York Delta for general chapter help which unexpectedly included participation in homecoming festivities and synchronized swimming ballet. Deanie Fulton carried the workshop spirit and information to Vermont Beta since an early school opening prevented their participation. Vermont Beta also was fortunate to have Freda Stafford Schuyler, Director of House Corporations, as national visitor this year. Her valuable counseling was greatly appreciated and her personable nature was thoroughly enjoyed by the girls.

Because of the other visitors to the province during the fall semester, the province president's tour was made in March. It was an extremely hard winter in the "northern" country and although weather conditions disrupted flight and bus schedules, every arrival was welcomed with smiling faces. The delightful hospitality of the girls and the kind cordiality extended by house directors and members of alumnae advisory committees and house corporations will always be a source of pleasant thoughts.

Rushing rules and structures were modified some as most campuses experienced a drop in registrations. New York Gamma was the only chapter that indicated an upsurge in rush registrations and consequently, Beta Province can report moderate success in rush this year with approximately 75 girls pledging. New York Alpha and Vermont Beta will face new challenges next year with fall rush optional for freshman women.

Scholastically, the achievements of Beta collegiates reveal a proud and noteworthy record. A total of nine girls in the province had 4.0 averages for the fall semester with an admirable number making the Dean's list. New York Gamma has held first place of national Panhellenic groups for two semesters. The Westchester County Club Prize was awarded New York Alpha for achieving the highest scholastic chapter average this year and Vermont Beta retains the Rochester Club Silver Bowl a second year for making the greatest improvement. Coleen Fitzsimmons, Vermont Beta, won the Long Island-North Shore Golden Key. New York Delta's continued pride and emphasis on individual achievement was evidenced by the chapter having the highest proportionate number of girls attaining 3.0 averages and over for the past two semesters. Our most grateful thanks are expressed to Judith Friend Strohm, Scholarship Supervisor, for her conscientious effort and constant interest in assisting the girls over the past three years.

All Beta chapters enjoy an excellent reputation for their contributions of talent and effort on their respective campuses and in the surrounding community. Honors and high positions of leadership have been many, but space will permit only a brief highlighting of these. We number among our girls several Panhellenic officers, Senate members, varsity athletes and team captains, Mortar Boards (including a president and vice president), several holding journalistic positions, Who's Who selections, as well as a long list of underclass honorary societies, and girls chosen for dormitory positions, spirit and orientation committees and other university commissions and councils.

The community endeavors reveal the abiding consciousness of these young women who care about others and want to improve their world. New York Alpha was involved both as a chapter in some projects and as individuals which included the adoption of a local girls' club, Christmas party for underprivileged children, tutorial programs, hospital work, UNICEF and "Send a Mouse to College" campaign for cancer research. New York Gamma again this year provided food baskets for needy families at Thanksgiving, supplied gifts for mental patients, held fund-raising projects for Operation Kanzenegaha to provide library facilities for Indians, and again took the top honor for having the highest number of donors in the Red Cross Blood Drive. The New York Deltas advanced their community interest through tutorial programs, participation in the local hospital activities and took a fatherless family under their wing for special attention over holidays. Vermont Beta continued its fine work at the Sara Holbrook Center for underprivileged youngsters which involved numerous projects and the chapter also had several members working on a tutorial program for emotionally ill children.

All the province nominees for the Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service Awards were exceptionally well-qualified and represented such outstanding talents and achievements that decisions were particularly difficult. Anne Replogle of New York Alpha was the province winner of the Amy Burnham Onken Award and the other chapter nominees were Janet Langlois, New York Gamma; Marty Coultrap, New York Delta; Barbara Paquin, Vermont Beta. The selections of the alumnae advisory committees for the Chapter Service Award included Jan Ormasa, New York Alpha; Carolyn McMaster, New York Delta; Gwendolyn Beck, Vermont Beta. Eloise Beckerer, New York Gamma, was the province winner and recipient of the Buffalo Alumnae Club Service Award.

Beta Province has been quite fortunate in having dedicated members serving on alumnae advisory committees and words of high praise and thanks are due all for giving unstintingly of their time and energy. Besides providing invaluable assistance to a province officer, their loyalty and understanding are a bulwark of strength to the chapters. Words of appreciation also must be given to Lydia Lueder Darling for hours of devoted service in grading examinations and to Lujane Johnson Munson for coordinating the material for Pi Phi Times.

These past three years have indeed been a challenge, a joy, and a fulfillment . . . years of happy associations, new and warm friendships and of great privilege in working for our beloved Fraternity. Only in serving with the "official" Pi Phi family does one truly realize the devotion and dedication of our Grand Council members, directors, and so many others who strive to keep Pi Phi a growing, relevant fraternity. My grateful thanks are extended to our Grand Council and directors for their guidance and inspiration; to Sally Schulenburg for her happy and willing assistance at all times; and especially to all my wonderful girls for sharing so many experiences with me and for making me even prouder of my Pi Phi membership.

MYRA DEPALMA REIMER

GAMMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

As my first year as Gamma Province president draws to a close, I realize how much I have enjoyed the contacts made during the chapter visits. Actives, AAC members, the new house mother at Maryland Beta and the wonderful and inspiring pledges at the four chapters have been so gracious and hospitable, it is most rewarding.

The Alpha, Beta, Gamma chapter presidents' workshop, held the last week of August in King of Prussia, Pa., was the introduction to my new Pi Phi job. The details for this combined meeting had been organized during the Leadership Workshop in Gatlinburg. It was a most successful meeting with 34 in attendance. Our appreciation to Myra DePalma Reimer, Beta Province President, for carrying the load, since both Alpha and Gamma had newly appointed presidents. Deanie Fulton was our guiding light throughout the three days. She was definitely indispensable! So many topics were discussed and worked out within the group. The delegates were filled with enthusiasm to share with their chapters the knowledge and inspiration derived from the workshop. The close communication and real friendships with Pi Phis from Nova Scotia down through Pennsylvania, certainly strengthened their ideas of the national scope of Pi Beta Phi.

Maryland Beta was honored to have Helen Boucher Dix, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, pay a short visit in September. The Pennsylvania chapters were among the first to have Sharon Smith "drop in." She became involved with procedure notebooks and rush at Pennsylvania Gamma, initiation at Pennsylvania Beta, and rush and I.C. '71 at Pennsylvania Epsilon. All in all she gave each chapter a special lift, passing on her spirit and fun for the task at hand. How they all loved her visit and anticipate the next T.G.C. I feel the chapters that had Deanie and Sharon visit them were much blessed.

We were fortunate to have few campus disturbances this year. After the previous disastrous spring we were still trying to collect scholarship averages ten months later on one campus. The academic achievement of the Gamma chapters was very high with 10 Pi Phis having 4.0 averages and many named to Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and other honor societies. Pennsylvania Epsilon received the silver pitcher presented jointly by the Philadelphia Main-Line and Delco Alumnae Clubs for the highest overall scholarship average in the province. We express our gratitude to Marian Kah Lancaster for the wonderful job of encouraging and advising the chapter scholarship chairman.

It was a most difficult task to choose the province winners of the awards, as each of the girls nominated is truly deserving. Chapter nominees for the ABO award were: Sherrill Absher, Maryland Beta; Elizabeth Smith, Pennsylvania Beta; Molly Flower, Pennsylvania Gamma; and Chris Brown, Pennsylvania Epsilon. Sherrill Absher was named Gamma Province winner and nominee for the national ABO award.

The Chapter Service Award nominees selected by the AAC for devoted service to their chapters were: Susan Allen, Maryland Beta; Cherie Martin, Pennsylvania Beta; Linda Bell, Pennsylvania Gamma; and Susan Opel, Pennsylvania Epsilon. The winner of the province nomination and nominee for the national award is Cherie Martin.

Every chapter has reason to be proud of its individual members. On each campus Pi Beta Phi is well represented in the various major activities. The ever increasing interest in community service as a major activity is very apparent throughout Gamma Province chapters. Along with hours spent with road blocks, fund drives, Bounce for Beats, etc., each chapter has a special philanthropy. The Bucknell Pi Phis devote their free hours to the Lewisburg School for Retarded Children and Laurelton School for Girls. Pennsylvania Gamma has special events for a local orphanage in the Carlisle area. Pennsylvania Epsilon, among other projects, entertained a group of veterans from Valley Forge Hospital for lunch and football game at Penn State this past fall. Maryland Beta recently was winner of the Oneida Community Service Award on the University of Maryland campus, for their untiring efforts at fund raising for so many worthy causes, and for their interest in the local orphanage.

As usual, Founders' Day was a grand occasion throughout the province. The Maryland Pi Phis joined with the three Washington, D.C., area alumnae clubs. Pennsylvania Beta, Pennsylvania Gamma, and Pennsylvania Epsilon were all hosted by their local alumnae clubs, and at each celebration they honored our 12 Founders, the fifty year Pi Phi, loyal alumnae, and the outstanding Pi Phis of each respective chapter with formal presentation of the ABO, Chapter Service and scholarship awards.

At this time I would like to express my gratitude to the dedicated AAC members and to the following AAC chairmen: Molley Frantz, Maryland Beta, Hannah Miles, Pennsylvania Beta, Lena Stover and Joan Stehley, Pennsylvania Gamma, and Mimi Wellington, Pennsylvania Epsilon, my deepest appreciation for your time and efforts for making this a most memorable year. My chapters join me in thanking Sally Schulenburg and the many national officers for their help and understanding throughout this past year.

With the excitement of Maryland Beta and Pennsylvania Beta being redecorated, the many Pi Phis working hard over the summer on new rush plans, the wealth of new ideas to be gleaned from the San Antonio Convention, we can all look forward to a successful 1971-72.

CAROL HAGAMAN MILLER

DELTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The 1970-71 recipients of chapter ABO awards in Delta Province were: Mary Vallier, North Carolina Alpha; Gigi Sanders, North Carolina Beta; Cathy Fulwiler, Virginia Gamma; Ruth Kricher, Virginia Delta; and Therese Smith, West Virginia Alpha. The province nominee for the national ABO award was Mary Vallier. Chapter Service Award winners included: Lee Gussenhoven, North Carolina Alpha; Elizabeth Hannifin, North Carolina Beta; Suzann Wilson, Virginia Gamma; Alice Meekins, Virginia Delta; Roberta Wilson, West Virginia Alpha; and Nancy Cuckler, West Virginia Gamma. Roberta Wilson was province winner. The Kitty Black Massenburg Bowl for the best chapter in the province went to West Virginia Alpha. The province scholarship plaque went to North Carolina Alpha.

Three Delta province chapters received Panhellenic Awards for ranking first on campus in academics for the year: North Carolina Alpha, West Virginia Alpha, and Virginia Delta. Duke University no longer computes fraternity rankings, but North Carolina Beta deserves first place recognition for maintaining a B average for the entire chapter. Six Delta Province Pi Phis were tapped into Phi Beta Kappa.

Chapter members served their classmates as president of the student association, editor of the yearbook, members of Mortar Board and Chimes, president of the Association of Women Students, chairman of the Women's Honor Council, president of the Women's Dormitory Association, class officers, house presidents, and vice president of Panhellenic. Pi Beta Phi was well represented in academic honoraries.

There were several changes or new trends in the province. All or some portion of formal rush was moved from second to first semester at Virginia Delta, North Carolina Alpha, and Virginia Gamma. Formal rush parties tended to be more informal and natural. There have been more joint active-pledge meetings in the spirit of the IC program. Chapters are increasingly involved in community and campus projects. Service projects have been gifts of time, interest, and effort rather than gifts of money.

Delta province will miss the fine assistance of three experienced AAC chairmen next year. Mrs. Dorothy Ward Stone, Mrs. Eloise Cleveland, and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith (West Virginia Alpha, Virginia Delta, and Virginia Gamma AACs) will be training new chairmen. Mary Liz is leaving her position to assume the duties of Delta Province President.

A special thank you goes to everyone who helped me . . . particularly the actives who helped me solve their problems. It has been a rewarding year.

SUSAN STEVENSON LANDIS

EPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Our year started with the province workshop held in Winter Park, Fla. We were fortunate to have Mary Jane Derringer, Director of Member Development, to guide and counsel us and to instill an even greater enthusiasm and desire for excellence for the coming year. All enjoyed the fellowship and exchanges of ideas.

On their return to campus, the actives found houses and apartments redecorated and ready for rush. This was very successful and all got fine pledge classes.

Each chapter has worked to uphold the standards, the scholarship, the leadership, and congeniality of Pi Beta Phi. For this I thank every officer, member, and pledge.

In October, the few members of Florida Gamma decided they could no longer function to the benefit of Pi Beta Phi and requested that Grand Council accept their charter.

Scholarship has been a main concern of each chapter and through strong scholarship programs, dedicated scholarship chairmen, and the members in each chapter, there has been improvement in the province.

There have been problems, of course, but most of these were solved and now the province is striving for greater accomplishments.

Each chapter has its own special strengths and personality and each functions in the campus situation where it is located, but each is aware of the other chapters and the worth of our national interests.

All groups have revealed much enthusiasm for activities. Key positions on campus have shown leadership and responsibility. The members have amassed many honors, recognitions, and crowns this year. There are leaders in campus government, campus publications, Panhellenic, dramatics, athletics, public service, honor societies, queens, sweethearts, and listings in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The alumnae advisory committees have done splendid jobs in handling some difficult decisions, and neither the chapters nor I could function without them. The house corporations are also indispensable.

Each year we seem to get more support from the alumnae. We're grateful for the rush information, donations of money, parties for the chapters, and loans to individual Pi Phi actives.

Chapter visits, as always, were enjoyable and informative. The warm hospitality and Pi Phi spirit and charm are ever present.

ZETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The National Officers' Workshop reported Michigan Beta honored with a Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship awarded Pamela Lynn Jordan; Michigan Delta the happy recipient of the Pi Phi Times Bowl; Ontario Beta, the Grand Council Scholarship Incentive Award, and Michigan Alpha, the Historian's Vase. This officer, not having attended workshop due to being out of the country at the time, missed all the pleasant Pi Phi associations and the valuable information given by our directors and officers. However, all pertinent information was forwarded by Central Office in time that a reportedly successful chapter presidents' workshop was conducted in Albion, Mich., August 24, 25, and 26, 1970.

Chapter visits were made to Ontario Alpha, Zeta's I. C. chapter; Ontario Beta; Michigan Gamma, Michigan Alpha, Beta, and Delta.

In the fall, Sharon Smith, Traveling Graduate Counselor, visited the Michigan chapters, and in the mid-year, the Ontario chapters. Everywhere this young woman went responses were favorable. This type of visitation was helpful, inspiring, and worthwhile.

Our chapters are all participating in worthwhile projects outside of the Fraternity philanthropies. Canadian chapters worked in Save the Children Fund drives as well as for the Heart Fund. In addition these chapters entertain orphans and aid in programs for the underprivileged child. Michigan chapters participated in the Muscular Dystrophy Drive, helped in programs for the retarded child, and assisted in programs for the underprivileged. Zeta actives are listed in Who's Who in American Universities, Who's Who in Fraternities and Sororities; have been tapped for Alpha Province nominees for the Amy Burnham Onken Award were Evelyn Solheim, Florida Alpha; Kathleen Dolan, Florida Delta; Jan Bankhead, Georgia Alpha; and Adair Watson, South Carolina Alpha. The province winner was Jeanette Hauseman from Florida Beta.

Province nominees for Chapter Service Award were Linda Ross, Florida Alpha; Beverly Polson, Florida Beta; Hanna Berman, Florida Delta; and Lou Rogers, Georgia Alpha. The province winner was Julia Hydrick from South Carolina Alpha.

Other province awards are the Becky Conley Bowl for the outstanding active in the province which went to Evelyn Solheim, Florida Alpha; the Jacksonville, Fla., Alumnae Club Annual Sophomore Scholarship tray won by Florida Beta; the Derringer Bowl for Scholarship Improvement which now rests in the trophy case at Florida Delta; and the Candace Armstrong Bowl, given to the pledge class with the highest grades and most proficiency in fraternity service and education, which was presented to South Carolina Alpha.

I want to express my thanks and appreciation to Grand Council and the directors, to Central Office and Sally Schulenburg, to Romy Rupnow, our province FS&E Supervisor, and particularly to Candy Armstrong, our province scholarship supervisor, who assumed this difficult job during a time of personal strain.

My rewards continue to grow from working with these fine girls, and I become more convinced each year that we do get better and stronger, despite our opposition.

ELIZABETH KRAFT SCHWEIZER

Lambda Delta, Mortar Board, and Phi Beta Kappa.

The chapter nominees for the ABO award are: Michigan Alpha, Priscilla Bachman; Michigan Beta, Deborah Gersell; Michigan Gamma, Tammy Tabb; Michigan Delta, Linda Avery; Ontario Alpha, Wendi Mackay; and Ontario Beta, Lynn McCaw. The province nominee was Deborah Gersell.

The Chapter Service award nominees are: Michigan Alpha, Rosemary Reed; Michigan Beta, Marilyn Smulsky; Michigan Gamma, Heidi Weber; Michigan Delta, Gwenth Lewis; Ontario Alpha, Nora McKay; Ontario Beta, Diana Wright. Province nominee was Gwenth Lewis.

Thank yous go to Mary Jane Meier, Zeta Scholarship Chairman, and FS&E Chairman, Nancy Walton, as well as to the AAC chairmen, Betty Sharpley, Mary Jane Bradbury, Gretchen Gibson, Robina Quale, Nancy Barber and Jan Smith.

Especially to be thanked are Sally Schulenburg for the many contributions she makes to the effectiveness of this office, as well as the directors and members of Grand Council for their ready assistance.

This officer was delighted to be the guest April 24 of the Detroit-Dearborn Alumnae Club at their Founders' Day celebration to which area alumnae and active chapter members were invited. An outstanding event held at beautiful Plum Hollow Country Club will long be remembered by those present.

Meeting with the actives and alumnae of Pi Beta Phi is always a refreshing and rewarding experience and serving as Zeta Province president is an honor and a privilege.

MARGARET KRAUSE YOUNG

ETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The year for Eta Province had its beginning at the officer's workshop held in August at the Cincinnati Club. It was here that I had the opportunity to meet the presidents and to discover how the chapters had fared in the province since my previous term of office. It is interesting to me to see that the Greek system is still going strong in Ohio despite the dire predictions to the contrary of a few years ago. The Greeks will survive for they are the ones on campus who are working toward building their universities rather than destroying them.

served as Scholarship Supervisor in the face of personal tragedy; to Sara Mieher Hinds for overseeing Fraternity Study and Examinations; and to Jo Ann Walker Wiggins who coordinated the Pi Phi Times reports.

Mississippi Alpha and Mississippi Beta benefited from the wise counsel of Margaret Walker Horning, Director of Alumnae Advisory Committees, who visited in February. Alabama Alpha was delighted to have Sharon Smith with them during rush; and Mississippi Beta welcomed Sharon and Deanie Fulton for a spring visit. Sharon also visited Alabama Gamma briefly. For the province president, five chapter visits in two months could have been a fatiguing experience; but the sharing of ideas in officer conferences, the warm welcome by all the girls, and the fun things planned by the chapters made this officer's visits memorable. "Happies" included a cooky-shine with the seniors, Stepping, dinner cooked and served by the girls, tea at the Governor's mansion, softball game followed by a cookout in the back yard, a candlelight serenade, and being received by the President of the University.

LAMBDA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

This report is written for Patricia Shiner Hakes, who left in April to live in South Africa. All Lambda Province Pi Phis miss her and wish her well.

A three day province workshop was held in September. Active from five chapters and AAC chairmen from three chapters attended. Sharon Smith, Traveling Graduate Counselor, aided in the planning of the workshop, and Orpha Coenen, Grand Treasurer, and Marcia Welsh, Wisconsin Alpha's Graduate Counselor, added their help and ideas to make this a valuable and inspiring experience for us all.

In November Mrs. Hakes visited Minnesota Alpha, and Manitoba Alpha and North Dakota Alpha were visited by both province president and blizzards in February. The three Wisconsin chapters were visited by Elizabeth Turner Orr, Grand Vice President of Chapters, in November. Verna Stewart Gardner, National Director of Membership, visited Manitoba Alpha, Minnesota Alpha and North Dakota Alpha during the year. Help in officer training was brought to Wisconsin Beta by Deanie Fulton, Traveling Graduate Counselor, who also paid a visit to Wisconsin Alpha.

MU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Spirited, responsible, gracious, sensitive, intelligent, these are the kind of Pi Phis I've had the privilege and pleasure of working with this year. These girls are refreshing, their national viewpoint is good, and they have much pride in Pi Beta Phi. All the chapters are highly respected on every campus.

The Province Amy Burnham Onken and the Chapter Service Awards are difficult selections to make because each of the girls is most outstanding. The Mu Province ABO winner was Joan Williamson, Illinois Theta. The other nominees were Illinois Alpha, Maureen Shaughnessy; Illinois Beta-Delta, Linda Lou Staley; Illinois Epsilon, Barbara Bengal; Illinois Zeta, Kathy O'Malley; Illinois Eta, Pat Gardner.

Alexa Jones, Illinois Beta-Delta, was the Mu Province Chapter Service Award winner. Other nominees were Illinois Alpha, Barbara West; Illinois Zeta, Wilma Smelcer; Illinois Eta, Linda Booth; Illinois Theta, Jayne Peschke.

Traveling Counselor Deanie Fulton visited Mu chapters

Founders' Day was a time for celebration and for renewing of Pi Phi vows. It was also a time for special recognition of girls outstanding on campus and in Pi Phi. ABO nominees were: Lucy Brown, Alabama Alpha; Celeste Pickron, Alabama Beta; Madge Dunmyer, Alabama Gamma; Jo Anne Frese, Mississippi Alpha; and Beth Williston, Mississippi Beta; with Madge Dunmyer being the province winner. AACs recognized girls who had given outstanding service to their chapters: Patsy Benton, Alabama Alpha; Suzanne Marks, Alabama Beta; Cathy Aderholt, Alabama Gamma; Jenny Troxler, Mississippi Alpha; and Anne Lat-ture, Mississippi Beta. The province winner was Suzanne Marks.

In Kappa Province, 1970-71 was a kaleidoscope of study halls, homecoming floats, candlelights, March of Dimes Walk-A-Thons, pledge projects, Mortar Board tappings, initiation, song practice, community service, of growth as people and as Pi Phis.

ANNETTE MITCHELL MILLS

The Province Amy Burnham Onken Award winner was Cyndy Brehm, of Minnesota Alpha. Also nominated by their chapters were Nancy Brand, Virginia Danielson, Helen Jones and Mary Stiver. Gretchen Diessner of Minnesota Alpha was chosen for the Province Chapter Service Award. Heather Gibson, Sue Gruenhagen, Jenny Nelson and Anne Wilson were also nominated.

All chapters worked hard on scholarship, and we have some Phi Beta Kappa keys to show for it. We can also be very proud of the many philanthropic projects that chapters did on a local basis, as well as their work for Arrowmont.

I know that Pat Hakes would like to join me in thanks to all the dedicated AAC and house corporation members who give their chapters such fine support. Also, all the members of the national Pi Phi "family" who offered warm welcome and generous help. And the biggest thanks of all to the wonderful Pi Phi actives in all the chapters who make being a province president the pleasure that it truly is.

in the fall. I visited the six chapters in February, March, and April. It goes without saying that chapter visits are the most interesting and varied facet of a national officer's job.

Pi Phi never lacks for a pretty girl and many this year were candidates for queens and sweethearts. Pi Phis are involved in numerous university and community activities as well as fraternity functions. The honoraries on every campus list many of our girls among their numbers. Scholarship Supervisor Katherine Andert works very closely with all the chapters to encourage good scholarship throughout.

To you dedicated AAC and house corporation members my sincere thanks. YOU are the most important link with the chapters, you are the unsung heroines of Pi Phi.

This year, like a puff of smoke, disappeared all too quickly. Thank you members of Grand Council for the opportunity to work with the chapters. Thank you for your encouragement, help and support.

CYNTHIA SEIFERT TOUSLEY

NU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

It has been a great pleasure to serve as Nu Province president these past two years. The contact with the active chapters as well as the AAC members has been an experience I shall always remember and cherish.

These have been very interesting as well as trying times for the active chapters. We in the Midwest are faced with some of the same problems which chapters in other parts of the country have had in recent years. Our girls have proved themselves capable of handling these problems and we can be justly proud of our collegiate chapters.

The Pi Phis in Nu Province are definitely the leaders on their respective campuses. When the school administrations have let down on rules of conduct for their school, our Pi Phis have continued to maintain high standards and therefore have been "standard setters" for their schools.

On our campuses we have members in such honoraries as Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Lambda Theta, Sigma Theta Tau, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. We have had beauty queens, editors of campus newspapers, homecoming queens, cheerleaders, and sweethearts of numerous fraternities. In student government the Pi Phis have been very active. They have been members of student councils, student senates, and student associations. Many of these members have held the office of president, vice president, or secretary of these governing bodies.

This year Iowa Alpha had a "first" on their campus when they petitioned for their own floor in the school dorm and this was granted them. It proved to be very successful and it is hoped they will be allowed to have this again. Iowa Beta also had a "first" when a member became editor of the school newspaper—the first time a Greek was given this honor. Iowa Gamma had honor brought to them when one of their sisters was crowned Miss Iowa and will participate in the Miss Universe pageant. Iowa Zeta is unique in that they have had the same house director for the past 27 years! On Valentine's Day they presented Mrs. Evans 28 roses, one for each of the 27 years she had been their house director and the 28th to let her know they wanted her to return next year. To be one of the pilot chapters for the I.C. '71 program was an honor which was given to Nebraska Beta. This has been very interesting and challenging for them. South Dakota Alpha walked off with most of the top honors given at the University of South Dakota.

Our year began last August with our province workshop for chapter presidents. This was a tremendous experience for all in attendance. The girls benefited a great deal from this close association with delegates from the other chapters in their province.

XI PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The 1970-71 school year began for Xi Province with a three day chapter presidents' workshop in August in Kansas City, Mo. Each chapter was represented by its president and one other delegate chosen by the chapter. The chairmen of the alumnae advisory committees arrived in time for the last scheduled meeting with the actives. After lunch the girls left, and the A.A.C. continued with their part of the workshop for another day. Everyone felt the opportunity to discuss their mutual goals and problems were beneficial. The Kansas City Alumnae Club entertained the girls at a pot luck supper. This was particularly enjoyable, not only because of the break from constant meetings, but because it was a wonderful illustration for the actives of the interest and enthusiasm Pi Phi alumnae continue to have for the chapters, and of the fun they have just in getting together.

Administrative officials are pleased with the Pi Phi chapters on their campuses, and count on them for leadership in many areas. Scholarship is one of these, and the chapters

Last fall all of the Iowa chapters were privileged by having Mary Jane Derringer, Director of Member Development, visit them. She was a great inspiration to them all. Sharon Smith was full of excellent ideas and help for Iowa Alpha, Nebraska Beta, and South Dakota Alpha when she visited them as Traveling Graduate Counselor. Each chapter was completely captivated by her enthusiasm. Nebraska Beta and the Nebraska Panhellenic Association are greatly indebted to Dorothy Morgan, Past Grand President, for her wise counseling throughout this year of demands presented the Greek organizations by the University administrators.

Selected as the Nu Province winner of the Amy Burnham Onken Award was Donna Jean Helble, Iowa Beta. The other outstanding nominees were Barbara Beck, Iowa Alpha; Barbara Lamison, Iowa Gamma; Nancy Narey, Iowa Zeta; Terri Albin, Nebraska Beta; and Patricia Reagan, South Dakota Alpha.

The province winner of the Chapter Service Award went to Barbara Lee of South Dakota Alpha. Other chapter nominees for this were Karol Stutzman, Iowa Alpha; Susan Novak, Iowa Beta; Pamela Dreasler, Iowa Gamma; Colleen Wilcox, Iowa Zeta; and Patricia Leistritz, Nebraska Beta. All the chapters are filled with dedicated and loyal Pi Phis, and our national Fraternity can take great pride in them.

We have so many alums who are devoting much time in assisting our active chapters in various ways. We thank them all for their dedication to our Fraternity. I would especially like to thank the province supervisors for their work during the past year: Lucile Bostwick, Scholarship; Judi Chaney, Fraternity Study and Education; and Jeanne Hubbard, Pi Phi Times Coordinator.

To the AAC boards for each chapter, my sincere thanks for all the help and guidance you have given our active chapters. The AAC chairmen are: Helen Eckles, Iowa Alpha; Shirley Bunch, Iowa Beta; Margaret Buck, Iowa Gamma; Margha Larson, Iowa Zeta; Suzi Wagner, Nebraska Beta; and Ann Ward, South Dakota Alpha.

It was a great joy for me to return to each chapter for my official visit this spring. To renew friendships from last year, and to meet new Pi Phis was a great privilege. Our collegiate members are some of the most wonderful girls in the world. They have a deep loyalty to Pi Beta Phi, are courteous, enthusiastic, cooperative, and have a desire to achieve that which is best. I will always remember them.

May I express my thanks to the members of Grand Council, national directors, and the staff at Central Office for the help and support given me during the year. It has been a great honor and privilege to serve as your province president.

DOROTHY NELSEN HUNTER

responded beautifully. Two chapters attained and maintained a "B" average for the year '69-'70; one for the fall semester of '70. The other two chapters were extremely close to a "B." At this writing it is too early to know the results of the spring semester. The chapter scholarship chairmen were particularly grateful to Alice Fontron Holmes, Province Scholarship Supervisor, for her monthly letters of encouragement and advice. Iris Miller Gamber, Pi Phi Times Coordinator, and Karen Jenkinson Barnes, Fraternity Study and Education Supervisor, have also dedicated many hours to serve our chapters in Xi Province.

The loyalty, devotion, interest, and concern of all members of our alumnae advisory committees for their chapters are an inspiration to me. They are ever ready to be of service and help to their chapters.

The Pi Phis have lived up to the administrations' call for leadership in almost every facet of college life. Xi Province has girls in all areas of student government listed in Who's

Mrs. Naomi LeVor at Indiana Delta, and Mrs. Boz Edwards at Indiana Epsilon. Theta Province is indeed fortunate to have these excellent house directors.

Our dedicated province officers include Emily Walter Wallace, Alumnae Province President; Mary Ann Hyman Burns and Julie Pratt Mendenhall, Province Scholarship Supervisors; Pamela Cagle Walters, Fraternity Study and Education Supervisor; and Mary Giles Armington, Pi Phi Times Coordinator. These alumnae have provided so much help and encouragement that the office of province president is made much easier because of their very able assistance.

Pi Beta Phi continues to be strong in Indiana because of the inspiration, understanding, and patience of Grand Council, the national directors, and Central Office. No one was ever too busy to help when we needed answers to questions or problems, or send supplies by return mail.

As my second term as province president draws to a close, it is evident how very much I shall miss the friendships I have made during visits to "my" six chapters. Collegians, alumnae, housemothers—all have been so gracious and helpful. This province president's life has indeed been enriched by each and every one, and it has been a privilege to serve Pi Beta Phi in this capacity. Words cannot express what is in my heart. My deepest thanks to each of you for all your help along the way as Pi Beta Phi continues to thrive and grow in Indiana and Theta Province.

NANCY COX FONTAINE

IOTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

My year started early this past year. After a spirited workshop in Memphis in early July, I felt closer than ever to all of my chapters and could sense in the attending members the inspirational yet realistic attitude that has prevailed all this year.

Iota Province Pi Phis have been very cooperative with me this year—and vitally interested in fellow province chapters, the national officers, and Pi Phi sisters across the nation. I have tried to be all-inclusive in my monthly letters to keep them informed and to pass on to the national fraternity our highlights of 1970-71. We have had a wonderful year but realize that our situation can be only as good as existing situations for all Pi Phis.

We have been most fortunate to have our own Tennessee Beta participating in the pilot program IC '71. Their progress this past few months has convinced so many of us how invaluable and necessary this type of programming can be. On chapter visits, I have striven to impress upon each of my chapters this new overall concept—producing a field for imagination and development as never before seen. I feel we are accomplishing as much if not more by extending to our chapter girls at Tennessee Beta an open door for individual development in a Pi Phi way.

The usual difficult decisions had to be made in regard to the province nominations for our Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service Awards. The candidates always possess such outstanding qualifications that all could well represent Iota Province. Our candidates for this year are Dianne Phillips of Tennessee Beta, ABO nominee, and Kathy Powell of Tennessee Beta, Chapter Service. Special mention must also go to the other ABO province nominees: Donna Shoupe, Kentucky Beta, Elizabeth Shaw, Tennessee Alpha, and Sandra Galtelli, Tennessee Delta. Other Chapter Service nominees were Ann Brand, Kentucky Beta and Kathy Fairleigh, Tennessee Delta. I only wish all of these names could have been submitted on a national basis.

Successful rush—fall, open, spring, and delayed rush—highlighted our year. 180 new pledges were added to our rolls this year. These newest angels—the pledges—continue to be our 'special love and concern' and they have given back to us 'threefold' this year with their scholastic support, activity participation, and fresh spirit and enthusiasm.

Outstanding honors and activity participation are much in evidence for busy Iota Province Pi Phis. Statistics show 1 homecoming queen, 4 homecoming court members, Miss University of Louisville, a Greek Goddess, 16 Alpha Lambda Deltas, 7 fraternity queens or sweethearts, a Navy Queen, a Tassel, 6 Mortar Boards, 2 Honor Council, 4 Cwens, 5 SGA senators, 5 editors of publications, 19 Angel Flight, 1 Commander, 5 varsity cheerleaders, 1 Captain, 13 dorm presidents, 20 SGA, 1 Links, 1-1st Place Sigma Chi Derby, 1-1st All Sing, 1-1st Greek Week, 11 Army and Navy ROTC sponsors, 1-1st Carnicus, 2 majorettes, 1 feature twirler, 1 Best Dressed Coed, Miss Memphis State, 10 Who's Who, 5 Athenians, 4 Lotus Eaters.

Numerous community projects proved how capable Iota Province Pi Phis are of sharing themselves that others might benefit. Each chapter supported community drives and adapted themselves as needy situations arose.

In closing I want to say a special word of thanks to my fine AAC chairmen and pay tribute to their fine works in 1970-71—Mrs. Richard Lasky, Kentucky Alpha; Miss Linda Renschler, Kentucky Beta; Mrs. Donald Arthur, Tennessee Alpha; Mrs. D. A. Floyd, Tennessee Beta; Mrs. P. C. Helton, Tennessee Gamma; and Mrs. A. F. Madison, Tennessee Delta. Thank you too goes to Sally Vanasse, other Grand Council members, and Sally Schulenburg and Central Office for the wonderful cooperation and assistance they have given me all year.

I look forward to a successful Pi Beta Phi Convention in San Antonio, will see so many old friends there and look for the new faces with the confidence that Pi Phi will surge even further ahead in our growing and changing world to meet our needs of the future.

JEAN HARLOR THOMAS

KAPPA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Chapter presidents' workshop held in Birmingham in late August proved a stimulating and enriching experience for collegians and AAC representatives. There was a serious exchange of ideas and techniques, and a fun sharing of local customs and traditions. Two goals were set for the year: improved procedure notebooks for every chapter officer, and more effective organization and better funding for house corporations. Great progress had been made in both areas. The entire province basked in the reflected glory of Mississippi Alpha's Lynn Berry, national ABO winner.

On all campuses Pi Beta Phi was well represented in the honoraries: Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Phi Delta Rho, Who's Who, Cwens, and Alpha Lambda Delta. Pi Phis held major student government offices (including one state president of AWS), edited yearbooks, were cheerleaders, Crimson Girls, Majorettes, and Dixie Darlings. Beauty and popularity titles included Miss University, sweethearts, class favorites, Ten Best Dressed, Derby Day queens, sponsors for R.O.T.C. and Angel Flight.

How can one express appreciation to the many who have enriched the Pi Phi experience for collegians in 1970-71: to Grand Council for their unflagging interest and selfless devotion; to Sally Schulenburg and her staff for careful attention to detail and efficient operation of Central Office; to those dedicated women who have given so freely of their time on alumnae advisory committees and house corporations; in Kappa Province, to Nancy Warren Peters, who

The very best part of a province officer's job is her chapter visits and it wasn't until spring that I was able to visit and actually meet all of the young ladies that I had been hearing from. It is an inspiration to see how involved our girls are in campus life and in civic organizations . . . giving of their time and talent in many ways. We have our share of queens as well as members of honoraries. Each chapter is highly respected on its campus.

The selection of the province ABO and Chapter Service award winners is difficult. Each girl is outstanding and well qualified. Selected for the National ABO Award was Julianne Burns, Ohio Epsilon. Other nominees were Kaye Carr, Ohio Alpha; Audrey Havriliak, Ohio Beta; Ann Bradley, Ohio Delta; Laurann Woerth, Ohio Zeta; and Margery Stauffer, Ohio Eta. Dale Landis of Ohio Alpha was chosen Eta Province nominee for the Chapter Service Award. Sandy Hilbert, Ohio Beta; Jane Sprecher, Ohio Delta; Kathy Teiper, Ohio Epsilon; Mary Jane Kettler, Ohio Zeta; and Helen Berwanger, Ohio Eta, were the other nominees.

The National Director of Scholarship, Frances Ross, visited Ohio Beta, Delta and Eta. Madelaine Lafon, National Director of Chapter Programs, visited Ohio Alpha, Epsilon and Zeta. Visits from national officers can do much to inspire the actives and my thanks must go to these women for their help this year.

Space does not permit the listing of the many women of the advisory boards who are the very backbone of The Fraternity. Their many hours of devoted service are recognized and appreciated.

The Scholarship Supervisor, Jeanne Conly, has worked closely with each chapter and the reward has been continued prospects of good scholarship.

I am very grateful for the help and support of Grand Council, the directors and Central Office, province supervisors and the many devoted alumnae . . . for without them this would be an impossible task.

NANCY STEWART SMETTS

THETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Theta Province was off to an early start with the province workshop for two representatives of each chapter meeting in Indianapolis in August. The ideas exchanged, the friendships renewed, and the problems solved helped to give each chapter added enthusiasm for the beginning of a new academic year.

Membership selection was held throughout the year: Franklin, Butler, and DePauw held their formal rush periods early in the fall, while Indiana, Purdue, and Ball State had deferred periods after the first semester or quarter. Next year will find DePauw joining the ranks of schools with deferred rush periods. The formal membership selection, plus open rush at most of the schools, resulted in 170 girls wearing shiny new darts—an increase over last year! Initiations were held for 153 collegiates. Indiana Gamma was proud to have 100% fall pledge class initiation.

Deanie Fulton, Traveling Graduate Counselor, visited each of Theta Province's chapters this year, bringing new ideas, inspiration, and enthusiasm to our chapters. Each chapter wished she could have extended her visit with them for a longer time. The province president's visits were alternated with Deanie's—three in the fall and three in the spring. I, too, found the chapters most gracious and hospitable, in spite of busy schedules. These girls are most capable, and succeed in the almost impossible task of entering wholeheartedly into their fraternity work, classroom assignments, and campus activities. One leaves a chapter marveling at all they accomplish.

State Day in April brought both collegians and alumnae together at our annual meeting to honor the Founders and recognize the outstanding achievements of chapters and individuals. This year, the meeting was held on the Butler campus with over 400 Pi Phis who were honored to meet and hear Martha Wood Hardin, Indiana Delta, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Each chapter nominated their outstanding senior in scholarship and activities for the Amy Burnham Onken Award. The province ABO award, a sapphire guard given by The Fraternity, was presented to Dawn MacNab, Indiana Alpha. Other chapter nominees who also received the ABO certificates and charms with the Pi Phi crest were: Sally Dunn of Indiana Beta, Leslie Dale of Indiana Gamma, Lynn Dozer of Indiana Delta, Lou Ann Hollingsworth of Indiana Epsilon, and Susan Bigler of Indiana Zeta.

The province Chapter Service award, a silver arrow presented by The Fraternity, was presented to Claudia Kasberg, Indiana Gamma. Other seniors nominated by their alumnae advisory committees for contributing outstanding work and devotion to their chapters were: Deborah Loudenback of Indiana Alpha, Patti Heakin of Indiana Beta, Hazel Woods of Indiana Delta, and Kathy Earle Layman of Indiana Zeta.

The outstanding juniors in each chapter received the Barbara McQuiston memorial pins, gold arrows with two emeralds on the shaft. Those so honored by their chapters were Margaret Height of Indiana Alpha, Margie Price of Indiana Beta, Nora Kariolich of Indiana Gamma, Terrye Bishop of Indiana Delta, Cheryl Hull of Indiana Epsilon, and Linda Colescott of Indiana Zeta.

The Southwestern Alumnae Club Outstanding Sophomore Plaque was awarded to Maureen Merhoff, Indiana Delta. Other chapter nominees for this honor included Sue Brennan, Indiana Alpha; Diana Harrer, Indiana Beta; Susan Ribishop of Indiana Delta, Cheryl Hull of Indiana Epsilon, and Linda Colescott of Indiana Zeta.

Academic achievement is recognized by two awards in Theta Province, Indiana Delta, for the third year, earned the Province Scholarship Cup, which is presented to the chapter having the highest chapter scholastic average for the preceding year. Delta has maintained a B average for the past five semesters. This year we had a beautiful new cup, given by Frances Epperson Winslow in memory of Ola Yates Scudder, both Indiana Betas. The Gary Alumnae Club Most Improvement Plaque, presented to the chapter with the most improvement in their scholarship since last Spring, was earned by Indiana Gamma. We are proud that all chapters improved or maintained their chapter average.

The province nominee for the Centennial Award for the best pledge program is Indiana Delta. Vicki Godar is the Vice President of Member Development at Delta.

Abigail Tweedle of Indiana Beta was accepted for an assistantship at Arrowmont this summer.

Honors too numerous to list individually have been bestowed on Pi Phis at all six chapters. These include Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Lambda Delta, other scholastic honoraries, Who's Who, Mortar Board officers, other activities honoraries, Panhellenic officers and rush coordinators. On each campus, our members hold key positions in student government, on university student-faculty committees, on yearbook or newspaper staffs, and each chapter is represented by freshmen counselors, dorm advisors, many members of the Dean's List, and of course, queens and sweethearts.

The alumnae advisory committees have again given unselfishly of their time and themselves to help and advise our collegiate members. Their cooperation, love, devotion and friendship have been an inspiration to all. The house corporations have also worked unstintingly to provide gracious living quarters for our girls. A special Thank You goes to our four "Mothers away from Home": Mrs. Lenore Tyler at Indiana Beta, Mrs. Jo Weldon at Indiana Gamma,

Who, in Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Cwens, Chimes, Spurs, Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Lambda Delta; as editor of the year book, editor of the campus newspaper, and as chairmen and members of committees too numerous to enumerate. Service organizations, queens and sweethearts, cheerleaders and pom-pom girls, added to the other honors and activities, make an impressive array of work, fun, and idealism on our college campuses.

Linda Brown of Missouri Alpha won the province nomination for the Amy Burnham Onken Award. Other nominees were Andra Marvin, Missouri Beta; Lana Owen, Missouri Gamma; Deborah Miller, Kansas Alpha; and Rebecca Campbell, Kansas Beta.

Donna Davis of Kansas Beta was the province nominee for Chapter Service. The other girls nominated by their AACs for this honor were Lydia Tate, Kansas Alpha; Pamela Moore, Missouri Alpha; Emily Jane Thursby Baxter, Missouri Beta; and Gayle O'Neal, Missouri Gamma.

Selecting the province nominations for these awards is extremely difficult. All the girls are so outstanding. I was fortunate again this year in having Alice Fontron Holmes work with me in reaching this hard decision.

Cathy Crobett Long, Missouri Gamma, received the St. Louis Sophomore award which is given annually by the St. Louis Alumnae Clubs to the outstanding sophomore in the province.

OMICRON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The relationships between pledges, actives, and alumnae have been inspiring and heartwarming. Chapter visits are pure delight. They welcome with warm hospitality and genuine Pi Phi spirit. The girls possess beauty, happiness, and enthusiasm. They strive for excellence in scholarship, service, leadership, and friendship. Their houses and lodge are beautifully and tastefully decorated, and abound with a friendly atmosphere. Chapter visits were made during the second semester by the province president and Mrs. J. Page Kemp, Grand Council.

University administrators on all campuses look to Pi Beta Phi for strong leadership. Chapters list individual members of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Who's Who, and many other honoraries. Leadership is represented on campus with officers in AWS, SUAB, Student Senate, and similar student government organizations. Omicron chapters are well represented with queens, yearbook beauties, cheerleaders, and sweethearts. Chapters contribute to local philanthropic projects; many individuals contribute time and talent to tutoring and other social restorative programs.

Appreciation and recognition for distinguished service to The Fraternity and university are expressed in chapter selections of Amy Burnham Onken Awards: Susie Robinson, Arkansas Alpha; Mary Katherine Holmes, Arkansas Beta; Sally Burns, Oklahoma Alpha; and Barbara Shepherd Ihrig, Oklahoma Beta. Susie Robinson received the ABO Omicron Province Award.

The alumnae advisory committees selected Chapter Service Award winners in recognition for service, loyalty, and

In October Kansas Alpha was fortunate in being able to entice all the members of Grand Council away from their meeting in Kansas City long enough to have dinner in the chapter house at Lawrence. The chapter was completely charmed by all the lovely gracious women, and were delighted too, to discover that members of Grand Council are down to earth, interesting, and entertaining persons in their own right.

Missouri Gamma, Kansas Beta, and Kansas Alpha were happy to have Fay Martin Gross, Grand Secretary, visit them in March.

Chapter visits are always the highlight of the year. I visited Missouri Alpha, Missouri Gamma, and Kansas Beta in the fall, and Kansas Alpha and Missouri Beta in the winter. It is stimulating, challenging, heartwarming, and fun to meet and know these fine young women who are proud to be Pi Phis. I am indebted to them for the gracious hospitality and warm welcomes they have shown me. It has been a joy and a privilege to work with them.

My sincere thanks and appreciation to our Grand President, Sally Vanasse, our Grand Vice President, Elizabeth Orr, and our Director of Central Office, Sally Schulenburg, for all their help.

SHIRLEY JONES MANN

sympathy to the chapter and The Fraternity. Chapter winners were: Betsy Maxwell, Arkansas Alpha; Jane Ellen Herzig, Oklahoma Beta; and Marsha Lane, Oklahoma Alpha. Founders' Day and State Day in Oklahoma was an inspiring time to present ABO and Chapter Service certificates, and to present Jane Ellen Herzig, Oklahoma Beta, the silver arrow of Omicron Province's Chapter Service Award. Special thanks to AAC chairmen Jean Greenhaw, Arkansas Alpha; Jane Faust, Arkansas Beta; Barbara Simank, Oklahoma Beta; Margaret Thurston, Oklahoma Alpha, and their committees for faithful work with the chapters.

We all appreciate the diligence of house corporation board members in planning and maintaining lovely homes for the collegiate members, and the tender loving care house directors Alice Renfro, Arkansas Alpha; Alice Richardson, Oklahoma Beta; and "Vee" Phlyffer, Oklahoma Alpha, have given their girls. The Oklahoma chapters truly give their best wishes to their retiring "moms."

Our province officers—Marcia Green, Aileen Shuff, Addie Prentiss, and Mrs. Reding Putnam—have provided alumnae coordination, scholarship, fraternity education supervision, and have provided much help and encouragement to the chapters.

I appreciate the willing help given by members of Grand Council, the directors, and Central Office during my four years as province president. I am grateful to the actives for their trust, and will continue to treasure Pi Beta Phi friendships.

CAROLINE E. HUGHES

PI PROVINCE PRESIDENT

As Convention draws close, this officer reflects and recalls the rich experience she has received from the six chapters of Pi Province. Visiting chapters is always a pleasure, and meeting the young enthusiastic members is refreshing.

The chapter presidents' workshop was held in Baton Rouge in August. The twelve presidents and vice presidents of member development were extremely candid in the informal meetings. Much was accomplished in the understanding of concepts and many interesting ideas were exchanged.

All of the province chapters had outstanding success in rush, and each can be proud of the young women who accepted invitation to membership. The percentage of initiation was high, proving the chapters selected wisely and gave scholastic support to their pledges.

Chapters' reports noted achievements of both the total memberships and individuals. Each chapter could boast of campus leaders, Mortar Board members and honorary fraternities' members. Honors and awards are too numerous to list. Also, the list of beauty queens and fraternity sweethearts is long. Pi Province Pi Phis gained the respect of the college administrators as well as the men students.

Nominees for the Amy Burnham Onken award were outstanding. The province winner was Martha Sue Page of Texas Delta. Other nominees: Marcia Bennett, Louisiana Alpha; Elizabeth Blanton, Louisiana Beta; Gene Graham, Texas Alpha; Lisabeth Anne Michie, Texas Beta; and Janet Heineman, Texas Gamma.

The province winner of the Chapter Service Award was Nancy Pittman of Texas Alpha. Other actives nominated by the alumnae advisory committees were Ellen Carter of Louisiana Alpha, Terry Trippe of Louisiana Beta, Diane Jopling of Texas Beta, Patty McFarland Lewis and Nancy Kupp of Texas Gamma, and Susie LaBrose of Texas Delta.

Official visits make a province president's work most delightful. Seeing the members again, meeting their new pledges and being so graciously received is the pièce de résistance. In the fall this officer visited Texas Alpha, Texas Gamma, Louisiana Alpha and Louisiana Beta. Spring visits were made to Texas Beta and Texas Delta.

All Pi Province chapters were honored with Grand Council visits this year. Grand President Sarahjane Paulson Vanasse visited Texas Beta and Texas Delta; Grand Treasurer Orpha O'Rourke Coenen visited Texas Alpha and Texas Gamma, and National Panhellenic Conference Delegate Helen Boucher Dix visited Louisiana Alpha and Louisiana Beta.

This officer's sincere appreciation goes to the chapter officers and loyal AAC and house corporation members. The friendly cooperation and support were truly great. The fine assistance of Linda Williamson Barnette, Fraternity Study and Education supervisor; Frances Dilly Broyles, Pi Phi Times coordinator; and Frances Gary Waters, Scholarship supervisor, deserves a special "thank you." Also, this officer values the friendship and advice of Grand Council, the national directors, and Sally Schulenburg, Director of Central Office.

It has been a year of growth for all the Pi Province chapters and a year of happiness for this officer. Pi Beta Phi is very special in this officer's heart.

JEANNETTE SIMPSON ROBERTS

RHO PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The chapters in Rho Province started a very busy year with a province workshop, which was held in August at Greystone Ranch in Evergreen, Colo. Sigma Province also attended this workshop and everyone agreed that it was even more fun to have the two provinces together.

The province president made an official visit to each of the five chapters as well as several extra visits in the province. Colorado Beta enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Hill, National Director of Standards, and each chapter benefited from visits from one or both of our traveling counselors, Sharon Smith and Deanie Fulton. They leave a ray of sunshine wherever they go and the chapters hate to see them leave.

Campus demonstrations have been fewer this year and the educational process has had fewer interruptions.

A Founders' Day luncheon was held in Colorado, Wyoming and Montana and each one was reported to be a lovely occasion. Unfortunately illness prevented this officer from attending Founders' Day in Colorado. A special highlight of every Founders' Day is the announcement of the province Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service Award winners. Rebecca Clark from Montana Alpha was the province ABO winner. Other nominees for this award were Suzanne Cox from Colorado Alpha, Leslie Bowles from Colorado Beta, and Connie Robb from Wyoming Alpha. Kathy Simmons from Wyoming Alpha was the province Chapter Service Award winner. Other nominees for this award were Vanny Foster from Colorado Alpha, Marcia Miller from Colorado Beta, Amy Garner from Colorado Gamma, and Maureen Chilton from Montana Alpha.

Your province president is happy to report that all chapters in Rho Province have one or more philanthropic projects. Some send food and clothing to underprivileged groups or communities, others help with retarded children or with orphans, still others bring happiness and joy into the lives of some senior citizens.

Pi Phi is represented in Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, Associated Women Student organizations, student governments, Panhellenic, year book staffs, Young Republican and Democrat groups, all honorary groups, campus queens and activity groups.

All chapters in the province are striving for better scholarship, with Montana Alpha again the leader.

The Rho Province house directors are tireless in their efforts to maintain happy homes for their many adopted daughters. These fine women are most gracious and helpful to visiting officers and guests.

This province has many devoted and dedicated advisory board members who give unselfishly of their time to help the chapters in all aspects of fraternity life.

This is also true of house corporation members, who do so much to maintain the lovely chapter houses.

The scholastic year just past has been a challenge with some chapter problems almost insurmountable. Many loyal Pi Phis, both graduate and undergraduate, have helped to make the task easier. It has been a pleasure to work with the national officers and Grand Council; AAC's; Mrs. Sullivan, Province Scholarship Supervisor; Mrs. Olsen, Province Fraternity Education Supervisor; Sally Schulenburg; our traveling counselors; and Caryl Lenahan of Operation Greek. My sincere thanks to all of these Pi Phis for cooperation and loyal support.

LUCILLE MCCRILLIS RYLAND

SIGMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Our year got off to a good start with a late summer workshop in cool, lovely Colorado shared with the officers and AAC chairmen of Rho Province. Good fun and good fellowship marked the two days and we all returned home with high hopes and aspirations for the coming school year. Very soon the chapters participated in rush activities and all of the chapters took the "best pledge class ever." Spirits were high and everyone was enthusiastic about the prospects for the year. Deanie Fulton visited New Mexico Alpha and Utah Alpha in November while Elizabeth Turner Orr, Grand Vice President of Chapters, and Evelyn Peters Kyle, Grand Vice President of Alumnae, visited Arizona Alpha and Arizona Beta, respectively, in April.

Hopes for the year were fulfilled when all of the chapters initiated a high percentage of their fall pledge classes—one of them initiating the entire class! Scholarship was important with three of the chapters ranking second on their campuses. Pi Phis garnered their share and more of campus honors—officers in student government and Panhellenic with two of the chapters holding the presidency and one of them holding both the presidency and rush chairmanship, Who's Who, Mortar Board, Spurs, membership in honorary societies, and sweethearts. All of the chapters participated in Greek Week activities with two of the chapters winning Greek Sing.

The end of the year approaches too soon with the announcement of the Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service Award nominees. The nominees for the Onken award were: Deborah Gibson, Arizona Alpha; Jill McDonald, Arizona Beta; Joan Jordan, New Mexico Alpha; Sharon Carlson, Utah Alpha. The nominees for the Chapter Service Award were: Melinda Manspeaker, Arizona Alpha; Michelle Randall, Arizona Beta; Penny Reichers, New Mexico Alpha; Marcia Thayne, Utah Alpha. The decision was very difficult to make but it was with great pride that I named Jill McDonald, Arizona Beta, and Melinda Manspeaker, Arizona Alpha, as the province winners of the awards.

TAU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

This second year of work with the five chapters of Tau Province began with a most enjoyable workshop in Seattle. Presidents and vice presidents for member development of each chapter were present as well as the five AAC chairmen and several guests. It was climaxed with a dinner meeting where Mrs. Vanasse was our guest speaker. Aileen Welgen, Tau APP, spoke on Arrowmont. Rae Olson, chairman of the National Loan Fund Committee, and the Province members of Fraternity Study and Education, Pi Phi Times, and Scholarship committees were with us. The girls really enjoyed meeting these UTPs and we thank them for their generosity in giving us so much time and information.

All five chapters pledged fine classes and all fall pledges, with one exception, were initiated. We had three classes who all made grades and were initiated as a whole. With such fine scholarship, I am proud to announce that each chapter in Tau has a three point or better grade average for the year. All honors have not yet been announced but I am sure we will have our share and more. Janice Hansen, Scholarship Supervisor, has done an outstanding job. Julie Vaux, Fraternity Study and Education Supervisor, and Joy Goodenough, Pi Phi Times Coordinator, have completed another year of outstanding inspiration and help. I hope each of them will continue to serve for another term of office.

One could not have such fine chapters as the five of Tau without the wonderful dedicated work of the AAC who guide them. Some of these alumnae have given many years of service to Pi Beta Phi, and I welcome this opportunity to thank them each and every one. The active members of Tau join me in thanks to the loyal and lovely ladies who grace their homes as house directors. We thank, also, Grand Council, directors, national committee women, and, above all, Sally Schulenburg and her hard working crew at Central Office. It takes the cooperation of all to build great chapters like the five in Tau.

The Pi Phis of Tau shine not only in scholarship but in all phases of campus life such as student government,

A special thanks is due to Jan Threlkeld Moore, Fraternity Study and Education Supervisor, and to Marilyn Tench Alexander, Supervisor of Scholarship. My undying gratitude to those wonderful, loyal, and dedicated women who serve on the alumnae advisory committees for giving so much of themselves and their time so that Pi Phi's policies and standards are made a part of each chapter.

LUCILE JOHANNESSEN WEST

sports, service groups, academic honoraries and clubs, queens and sweethearts. Each chapter has its local philanthropy as well as loyally supporting our Pi Phi Arrowmont.

The Amy Burnham Onken Award nominees for the year are: Alberta Alpha, Janet Yoneda; Idaho Alpha, Caren Castellaw; Washington Alpha, Shellie Morrison; Washington Gamma, Julie Strobel; Washington Beta, Mary Jo Scaman, the winner for the province.

Chapter Service Awards nominated by AAC are: Alberta Alpha, Monica Judah; Idaho Alpha, Marcia Welch; Washington Beta, Linda Roe; Washington Gamma, Cathy Smeltzer; Washington Alpha, Patty Dalzell, winner for the province. Any girl so honored by her sisters is an outstanding Pi Beta Phi.

My two years as province president have been most rewarding. I have learned more than I have given. Today's youth is, for the most part, more knowledgeable and inquisitive about the world around them. They are most desirous of righting the wrongs they see on all sides. This quiet majority of "good kids" deserve the loyal support of all alumnae members everywhere to help them stamp out the forces for destruction hammering at college students today. Stand up! Be counted! Extend the hand of sisterhood and show them that Pi Beta Phi does not end with college.

In my visits this spring I feel a resurgent spirit of love, loyalty and dedication to the original aims and purpose of our beloved Pi Beta Phi. The Greek system is not for everyone and never has been, but the vocal minority against us seem to be less vocal and the 301 active members of Pi Beta Phi in Tau Province are a most gifted and wonderful band of angels who, by word and deed, are building Pi Phi into a real force for all that is best of our civilization. I am often asked if chapters are changing. My answer? "Yes, indeed! For the better."

PAT FISET JOHN

UPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The Upsilon Province delegates were most enthusiastic and eager to begin a new collegiate school year after attending our province workshop at a Mt. Hood ski resort. Two delegates from each chapter and their AAC chairmen were in attendance. Problems, solutions, and accomplishments were shared among the girls. The Oregon Beta delegates pleasantly surprised the group on the final day with a "cooky-shine." It was truly a memorable event.

On all universities pledging did not end with a formal fall rush. It is becoming more and more common on our campuses to have a less structured and open rush throughout the year. Our chapters in total pledged 109 as of April 15. A breakdown of that total showed Nevada Alpha with 32, Oregon Alpha with 16, Oregon Beta with 32, Oregon Gamma with 21 and our youngest chapter, Oregon Delta, with eight. It pleases me to report that there were fewer broken pledges than in the previous year. It appears that most often pledges are broken because of financial reasons.

The promotion of good scholarship is still a special aim of The Fraternity. Our averages are good and we should be proud of the special efforts that the chapters make. The total average given is for initiated members for fall and winter at schools on term basis and fall grades for those on semester basis. The province average was 2.99. Oregon Gamma had the honor of attaining 1st place for all women's living groups in the fall semester. As time passes it will be more difficult to compile averages as many universities are now offering courses on a pass/no pass basis. As to how these courses will be treated on a point system for our records has not yet been determined.

Honors too numerous to list individually have been bestowed on Pi Phis at all five chapters. These include two girls in Cap and Scroll, three in Mortar Board, eight in sophomore honoraries, three in freshman honoraries, three on rally, four in Angel Flight, one junior class secretary, one on a yearbook staff, one Little Colonel, two queens and 18 girls were named to various university and fraternity courts.

Selected as nominee for the national ABO award was Mary Pat Mikulic, Oregon Beta. Other outstanding nominees were Carol Pallesen, Nevada Alpha; Jeanne Oltmans, Oregon Alpha; and Catherine Ingram, Oregon Gamma.

Betsy Wilson of Oregon Gamma was chosen as Upsilon Province nominee for national Chapter Service Award. Other province nominees were Kristie Kennedy, Nevada Alpha; Jackie Evenson, Oregon Alpha; and Gay Greger, Oregon Beta.

During my chapter visits this past year I believe great strides were made in educating the girls to our outstanding philanthropy, Arrowmont. Being able to tell them about my own personal experience as a student at Gatlinburg was most enjoyable. Their enthusiasm was very evident when, following my talks, so many girls came up to ask individual questions. Many of these concerned the Student Assistant scholarships that are offered at the school. It is my hope that all five chapters in some small way can give some financial support to our Arrowmont and become more aware of what a unique project it is.

Upsilon Province is blessed with four wonderful house directors to chaperone and guide those chapters that have live-in situations. I am delighted that these four lovely and gracious women have all elected to continue as Pi Phi housemothers. It is truly an asset in these changing times to have our chapters under the guidance of such capable women.

What does the future hold? For the chapters of Oregon and Nevada it looks very healthy. A spring visit by Deanie Fulton, Traveling Counselor, was a real treat for us. Her enthusiasm and her ideas were a highlight of the year. Every president voiced great appreciation and thanks for her help which will be a continuing spark of guidance this fall.

I have become more aware over the past two years as province president of the great cooperative effort of our fraternity family—Grand Council, the national directors, Central Office personnel, AAC boards, house corporations as well as respective alumnae clubs. The efforts of all have made my job so very meaningful. The pleasure of working with the actives is a joy. I would hope that many alums in some way at some time could serve as I have and gain the many rewards of friendship that I have received.
