

Sends Thanks

As the newest chapter of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity we the Sisters of New Mexico Beta would like to express our thanks and sincere appreciation to all those individuals and chapters who sent gifts, telegrams, and congratulatory notes. We are indeed proud to be affiliated with Pi Beta Phi Fraternity. Sisters of New Mexico Beta \rightarrow We regret that this is the only letter received for this column this issue, but maybe it's just as well. Such a note deserves to stand alone! But how about it? Surely someone has something she'd like to air on this page. MSF

THE COVER—In keeping with the new I.C. program, these Arkansas Alphas are learning the fun of being a Pi Phi. This skating party is just one of the many activities they have shared this year.

Arrow File and In Memoriam

Pi Beta Phi Central Office, 112 S. Hanley Rd., St. Louis, Mo. 63105

It has been brought to our attention that we made a rather grievous identification error in the Spring ARROW. Seems we called Elizabeth Hill our Grand Recording Secretary. Well, we don't know whether to apologize or sympathize, but the truth of the matter is that Liz is our efficient Grand Corresponding Secretary, while Vernah Gardner is our equally efficient Grand Recording Secretary. But you knew that, didn't you? It's really a good thing that our Grand officers are so grand or we might have been fired a long time ago. Here's a test to see how well The ARROW is read. In a recent issue which officer did we fail to say was re-elected at the San Antonio Convention?

We really should know better than to test to see how many read our quarterly efforts. Sally Schulenburg at Central Office recently received this request: "Dear Sir: I am interested in receiving The ARROW if it is still being published." Oh, well!!!

Congratulations are in order to the president-elect of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors. She is none other than our own Dr. Dorothy Truex, who was the Convention initiate in 1964. We hope to hear more from Dr. Truex, through these pages, in the near future.

One suggestion has come that The ARROW run features on Canadian sisters, and we think the idea is a splendid one. We have had stories from time to time, but we're quite sure there are many Canadian Pi Phis who should appear in these pages. However, we can't do stories without definite subjects, so let's have some information on interesting Canadian Pi Phis and their activities. We would also welcome stories about or by overseas Pi Phis and their special activities.

For a long time now we have been lamenting, to ourselves and aloud when anyone would listen, about the fact that collegians don't seem to smile as much as they used to do, and that young people just don't seem to have very much fun any more. We realize, of course, that this is a pretty serious world in which we live, but we have always felt that college days needed to have a little something besides a serious contemplation of the problems of the world. It is a delight, therefore, to discover, when reading the stories submitted by chapters, that the fun is coming back—but with a purpose. More and more parties are being given—but for retarded children, underprivileged children, the elderly, the handicapped. Sororities and fraternities frequently combine in hosting these get-togethers and they prove to be an activity that benefits all concerned.

There are also more "just for fun" activities. We particularly liked an article that says the Pi Phis and other Greeks on campus had a "new kind" of fun this year—"group exchanges." Shades of the forties!

It's always a thrill to know of fathers and/or husbands who are proud of their Pi Phi women. A brief note came to us recently from a Mr. Helsop in Martins Ferry, Ohio. All it says is, "Just a note about my girls. I have 3 daughters all at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, and all three are Pi Phis. Mrs. Heslop is also a Pi Phi." Brief. To the point. But enough said.

We have a story in this issue about Beverly Griggs Hudson who has been named outstanding alumna of the University of Nevada. The outstanding alumnus is Dr. James Botsford, whose wife is Pi Phi Joanne Hoag Botsford. We even know how to pick 'em, don't we?

Mary Mitchell Couch, left, has been named Local Convention Chairman for the Hot Springs gathering in June, 1973. Frances Richardson Buzbee heads up the official welcoming group as Hospitality Chairman.

Convention VIPs Begin Their Work

Arkansas Alpha will be figuring prominently in any news about the forthcoming Pi Beta Phi Convention, to be held in June, 1963, in Hot Springs, Ark. There's a good reason for it, too, since three out of the first four announced "big wheels" are alumnæ of the chapter.

Mary Mitchell Couch, Local Convention Chairman, was born in Little Rock, but somehow has ended up in Hot Springs, where husband, Bill, is in investments. She attended the University of Arkansas, and was initiated into Arkansas Alpha in 1946. She finds herself involved in all kinds of activities, not the least of which was serving as state recommendations chairman for Pi Phi for four years. She is a member of the Hot Springs Junior Auxiliary, the Shreveport, La., Junior League, P.E.O., P.T.A., and Red Cross. The Couchs have four children: Mary, a student at Randolph-Macon; Christi, a Tennessee Beta Pi Phi; and Jessie and Elizabeth at home. Then, if there's any time left over, Mary enjoys antiquing, bridge, water sports, and needlepoint. There won't be much time for any of the latter during this next year, because plans are already being put into action for one of the biggest and best Pi Phi Conventions yet.

Frances Richardson Buzbee became a Pi Phi at Virginia Alpha, and attended her first Convention at Asbury Park, N.J., while a student at Randolph-Macon. She was president of her chapter and assisted at the installation of North Carolina Beta. A native of Little Rock, she has served as the president of the alumnæ club there. Since 1947 she and husband, Jack, have been residents of Hot Springs. Son Dick lives in Little Rock with his wife, Linda. Daughter, Peggy, a Texas Beta alum, is in Dallas. Frances is hospitality chairman for the 1973 Convention.

Perhaps because of the expected large attendance, or because they'll give each other moral support, Dorris Karcher Welling and Jane Hammans Miller are co-chairmen of registration.

Patricia Austin Is Awarded Fellowship

Patricia Louise Austin, Nebraska Beta, was graduated from the University of Nebraska with distinction in 1970. She earned a bachelor's degree with zoology as her major and minors in chemistry and mathematics. In September, 1970, she entered the University of Iowa Medical School, intending to specialize, eventually, in pediatrics with a sub-specialty in cardiology.

In March, 1972, Grand Council named Pat Austin the recipient of the $1,000 Pi Beta Phi Fellowship for 1972-73.

Pat's record at Nebraska was an enviable one. She was very active on campus, having served as managing editor of The Cornhusker, president of the Pre-Medicine Club, a member of Angel Flight, AWS Court of Appeals, Student Tribunal, and the Symphonic Band. She was Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Beta Kappa. Her physical beauty was such that she held a number of beauty titles, culminated by being selected the National Rose of Pi Kappa Phi in 1968. In her chapter, Pat was pledge class president, chapter treasurer, and an outstanding scholarship chairman.

In making application for the Pi Beta Phi Fellowship, a number of letters of recommendation must be forwarded. One such letter was written by Dr. R. M. Lauer, Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Iowa. Dr. Lauer says, "I have found her (Pat) to be a most conscientious student with a great willingness to work. Her personality is such that she is a joy to have around."

In November of last year, Pat presented a paper at the Midwest Society for Pediatric Research in Ann Arbor, Mich. This was considered unusual progress for a medical student who was only a sophomore at the time.

A fellow student in the College of Medicine, Jim Crouse, wrote, "Academically or otherwise, I have never known Pat Austin to be able to stand by and watch when there has been work to be done. She gets involved, she gets things done, and she learns from her experiences. . . . She is never satisfied to be mediocre or simply average. She has set very high standards for herself and never wavers from those standards."

An interesting sidelight is the fact that Pat is an identical twin. Her sister, Pam, went to the University of Iowa and pledged Pi Phi there, with neither of the girls consulting the other about her choice of fraternities. Pam was as outstanding on campus as was Pat, and Pam was named province ABO winner in 1970. She has since married a medical student.

Pat, however, is more interested in her future career. This doesn't preclude outside activities, however. She is a flutist and a pianist and is excellent on both. She enjoys athletics and traveling, and is vitally interested in world events. Her cooking comes highly recommended by fellow students. Says one letter, "Her appearance is always neat and her naturally striking beauty is accentuated by her fine taste in clothes."

Perhaps another of Pat's professors said it best when he summed up her qualifications as follows: "She is highly intelligent, industrious, and has good initiative. She has a warm, bright personality, and is a pleasure to work with. She is one of the most outstanding medical students I have worked with, and I expect a brilliant career is ahead of her in medicine."

It is little wonder that Patricia Louise Austin has been awarded the Pi Beta Phi Fellowship for the coming year.

Open House Is Celebration Feature

by Scottie Thompson Illinois Eta

March 28, 1972, was the official day to bake a cake and send it to Illinois Eta. The candles glowed brilliantly on April 9, however, when the actives celebrated, a little late, but in Pi Phi style, the 60th anniversary of the chapter. Invitations were sent to all Illinois Eta alumnæ, Decatur alumnæ, and national officers to an open house at the chapter home. The actives presented a program on the history of Delta Theta Psi and its change to Pi Beta Phi, and depicted how Illinois Eta has incorporated IC'71 into the chapter. It closed with personal reflections of Pi Phi by actives, and the loving cup ceremony.

The growth and change of the house was a surprise to all those alumnæ who had not been back since their college days. Not only has the house been redecorated a number of times, but many additions have been needed because of growing membership. Two charter members of Delta Theta Psi, along with two charter members of Illinois Eta, were present at the open house.

To many the open house brought back fond memories of Illinois Eta as it had been. But to all it symbolized Illinois Eta's future and potential in fraternity life at Millikin.

Illinois Eta was delighted to have Bessie Lamb Mc-David and Lelia Lamb Gilman, charter members of Delta Theta Psi which became Illinois Eta, and Virginia Bowyer Pritchard, charter member of Illinois Eta, attend the anniversary celebration.

Panhellenic Pals Formed

The women's Panhellenic at the University of Mississippi has developed a new program for the Greek houses. This program is referred to as "Panhellenic Secret Pals." The program was devised to establish a closer relationship among the chosen houses. Each sorority draws a secret sorority pal, and for a month each sends the other little "happies" when honors are received, or to promote spirit. After a month the secret pals are revealed.

Madam Secretary Serves Third Term

"Somehow," says Thyra Thomson, "I find it difficult to view men as the enemy."

A strange statement? Not at all, when you know that Thyra Godfrey Thomson, Wyoming Alpha, is probably better known as Thyra Thomson, Wyoming's Secretary of State. She is presently the highest elected woman executive official in the United States. She is first in line of succession to the governor and is acting governor of Wyoming when the chief executive is absent or displaced. In addition, she serves in the dual roles of secretary of state and lieutenant governor, elected first in 1962, and reelected in 1966 and 1970.

Mrs. Thomson didn't set out to become such a high-ranking state official. She was graduated with honor from the University of Wyoming where she studied business administration, sociology, and psychology. She was a secretary before her marriage, kept up her skills and worked in the health professions and as a news columnist during the first years of her marriage. She also had a lot of on-the-job training working with her husband, Congressman and United States Senator-Elect Keith Thomson. When he died of a heart attack at the age of 41, Mrs. Thomson moved her three sons from Washington back to Wyoming, and ran for Secretary of State two years later. The rest is history.

Women educators (Alpha Delta Kappa) named her International Woman of Distinction. The University of Wyoming gave her its Distinguished Alumni Award. The federal government has recognized her by naming her to two posts, the Youth Committee—UNESCO; the Allied Health Professions Council—HEW.

She is the only female securities administrator in the United States and is second vice president of the prestigious North American Securities Administrators Association. Her horizons appear limitless and her energies seem boundless. She has attended international conferences, served the United Kingdom on its Marshall Scholarships Committee, and chaired the National Resources Committee for the 13 western states.

The June, 1971, Reader's Digest carried her article "Second Thoughts on Women's Lib."

No, Thyra Thomson doesn't view men as en-

Wyoming's Secretary of State

emies. Rather, she sees them as worthy competitors who shouldn't be saddled with the full blame for any inequalities that exist. As she says, "I wish we could see equality as something we share 'with' men instead of trying to be the 'same as' men."

Texas Delta Completes Plans To Roll Back The Clock For Rush

by JANICE HOGLE, Texas Delta

Elvis fans awake! Bobby socks, penny loafers, and pony tails are alive and kicking at Texas Christian University. Yielding to a creative urge, the members of Texas Delta are currently engrossed in writing original skits for use in rush next fall. The result is a 1950s skit, complete with various paraphernalia indigenous to the fifties such as a soda shop setting and a soda jerk (an alum no less!). Betty Lou and Bobby Joe swing to the sounds of a juke box playing the "Duke of Earl" and "Tell Laura I Love Her." Needless to say, Texas Delta Pi Phis are anxiously awaiting fall rush and the chance to send the rushees back in time for a glimpse of life and Pi Beta Phi in the golden age of Elvis.

Miss Jessie W. Harris

Jessie Harris, Tennessee Alpha, Pi Beta Phi's 1938 Convention Initiate, passed away in Little Rock, Ark., February 1972. To a large degree the Fraternity is indebted to her for our present Arrowmont program. She loved the Gatlinburg area where she had a summer home in a lovely Swiss chalet overlooking the rocky river which tumbles through the town. She had a strong commitment to all forms of crafts. In 1945 when the Settlement School Committee was considering an enlargement of the Arrowcraft program, her advice as Vice Dean of the Home Economics Department at the University of Tennessee was sought. The result was our first summer craft workshop jointly sponsored by the University and Pi Beta Phi.

There were many problems, as there always are in the beginning of any venture. But Miss Harris dida't know the meaning of the word "can't." With a telephone call here, and a conference there, a faculty was assembled, furniture for both housing and the classes was secured, plans were made for feeding our larger "family," and a promotional bulletin was prepared and mailed to attract students to our workshop—all under her guiding hand.

Our new plan was launched and was an immediate success. Mildred Sale, chairman of the Settlement School Committee at the time, said of her, "With someone less far-seeing, the project would never have been thought of, and even after it was conceived it might have died aborning except for her ability to cut through problems to a solution."

Each year the enthusiasm of the departing students at the end of the sessions spread far and wide, brought growing enrollments in the school, and increasing prestige to Pi Beta Phi. Virginia Green, another Settlement School chairman, who served during Miss Harris' active guidance, said, upon learning of her death, "She was always hoping this could be a yearround school, and I rather think she would be pleased with the possibilities of Arrowmont."

Many benefited from her talents, and honored her for them and for her leadership qualities. After her retirement from the University of Tennessee as Dean of the School of Home Economics, a new building for the department was dedicated and named in her honor.

During her service at the University Miss Harris took a year's leave of absence to become chief nutritionist of the Food Distribution Division of War Food Administration and, in 1950, spent six months in Germany as home economics consultant for the U.S. State Department.

Later she represented land-grant home economics colleges on the Point Four Program. In 1952 she was one of six women recommended for appointment as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

In 1954, at the invitation of the Indian Home Science Association, the Indian government, and International Cooperation Administration, she helped negotiate a contract under which the University of Tennessee aids in increasing the home economics program in several Indian colleges.

She served as national vice-president and president of the American Home Economics Association. She authored two widely used textbooks for home economics. She held membership in Phi Kappa Phi, Omicron Nu, and a large number of other societies and organizations.

Grand Council pays its tribute to her by a donation to Arrowmont. Others who knew and worked with her have added to that gift as still others may do so. Our finest tribute to Jessie Harris' vision in urging us on in our project will come when, through the efforts of all of us, we are able to make her hope for a year-round school become a reality.

Speaker Is Featured At Arrowcraft Tea

The special feature of the recent Muskogee (Okla.) Alumnæ Club Arrowcraft Tea was the presentation of Ruth Moore Malone, Arkansas Alpha, author, editor, lecturer, and world traveler, in a talk and book-autographing session. This was indeed a privilege as Mrs. Malone is limited in the number of her annual appearances.

On learning that Mrs. Malone would appear in Tulsa near a date set for its Arrowcraft Tea, the Muskogee Pi Phis invited her to attend their affair. The invitation was made through Portia Wallace Hite, also Arkansas Alpha, a recent addition to the Muskogee Club. Happily, Mrs. Malone accepted the invitation.

The tea was held in the Muskogee Holiday Inn. From two until five o'clock Arrowcraft articles were shown and refreshments served. At three o'clock Mrs. Malone spoke, charming guests with anecdotes regarding the writing of her latest work, "Holiday Inn International Dads are every Arkansas Alpha's best friends, so last fall we planned a Razorback football game day in their honor. Dads were entertained with skits before the game, followed by a buffet lunch. Then, they were prepared for the cold outside with wine colored blankets reading PI PHI DAD'S DAY, given as favors by their daughters. Judge William Culpepper, Alexandria, La., flanked by daughter Mallory, is ready for the game with his blanket. The sisters had as much fun as dads, and showed, once again that dads are always #1 in a PI Phi's heart.

Nancy Reistle Holliday, president of the Muskogee (Okla.) Alumnæ Club; Ruth Moore Malone, author and guest speaker; Dana Springer Lewis, vice president of the club.

Cook and Travel Book." She also recounted incidents in her position as food editor of Holiday Magazine and as a lecturer and traveler.

Proceeds of the affair were allotted to the club's annual pledge to Arrowmont, and to the Five Civilized Tribes Museum, Muskogee, for a monetary award to be made at the Museum's annual Competitive Indian Art Show.

Indiana Alpha Hosts State Day Gathering

by JENNIFER BEAN, Indiana Alpha

For the first time since its founding, Indiana Alpha at Franklin College hosted the annual Pi Phi State Day, April 22.

Approximately 450 attended the yearly gathering in the new campus center at Franklin. Hostesses, besides the Franklin Alumnæ Club, were members of the Columbus and Southport Alumnæ Clubs.

Following a luncheon, Mrs. Jo Pruitt Mozingo, president of the Franklin Club, welcomed all the Pi Phis, followed by the introduction of nine new Golden Arrows.

Members of Indiana Alpha sang the song "Collegiate" while the new initiates sang their pledge song for this year.

Guest speaker, Roger D. Brannigan, former governor of Indiana and alumnus of Franklin, entertained everyone by reminiscing about his days as a member of Phi Delta Theta and how great it was to be a Greek. He also added that it is great being married to a Pi Phi.

New TGCs Are Named for 1972-73

Genny Hobbs, Arkansas Alpha, and Barbara Bittner, Tennessee Alpha, have been chosen to carry the Pi Phi word from chapter to chapter during the next school year, as the new Traveling Graduate Counselors. Both girls come highly recommended for the job, and, as the ARROW was being readied for the press, were looking forward to their first assignment at the national officers' workshop in June.

Genny is an elementary education major, and within her chapter has served as vice-president of moral advancement, rush coordinator, card key chairman, member of executive council, Arrowboard, and social chairman of her pledge class. On campus she served in the Student National Education Association, A.W.S., the campus security board, the senate committee, and the union committee. She is well respected by everyone who knows her, is easy to talk to, level-headed and full of great ideas.

Since Genny has seen her own chapter benefit from the I.C. program, she is most excited about the continuing prospects for this type of fraternity experience and is ready, willing, and able to spread the word. In addition, the word is that she is a good listener and diplomatic two attributes that stand anyone in good stead, but particularly one in the position of traveling graduate counselor.

Genny's home is in Overland Park, Kansas.

Barbara Bittner calls Atlanta, Ga., her home town. She holds a bachelor's degree in home economics, and graduate school in the field of child development are in her future plans. At Tennessee Alpha she served as censor, vice-president of member development, secretary, senior delegate to executive council, and served on the award committees for chapter service and Amy B. Onken awards. She was on the college yearbook staff for three years, serving as senior editor the past year. She was a member of Newman Club, Home Economics Club, Kappa Chi Epsilon, a campus service organization of which she was vice-president, vice-president of the Women's Residence Hall Association, and a member of the Student Union Governing board.

Barbara says she is really excited about her new traveling job, and compares her enthusiasm to that of her initiation day or the opening session of the 1971 Convention. "I am really looking forward to the challenge of using all my energies to the best of my ability to work with Pi Phis all over the country," she says.

Three Hold Positions On Student Union Board

by MARSHA MACDONALD, Michigan Delta

Three Michigan Deltas have been chosen to serve in top positions of the Student Union Board to bring entertainment to an otherwise overly quiet Albion campus. Pi Phi Karen Collins is chairman, Sherry Scott will be serving as chairman of the cultural events committee and Jan Chamberlain will be putting her talents to work as publicity chairman.

Michigan Delta also had three members tapped for the national women's honorary, Mortar Board. Chosen for outstanding leadership, citizenship, campus and community involvement were Carolyn McDonald, Sherry Scott, and Jan Sperry. Sherry Scott has been elected president of Mortar Board for the coming year. Sherry is also chapter president of Michigan Delta.

Another Pi Phi president is Carolyn Mc-Donald. Carolyn has been elected president of the Alpha Alpha chapter of Beta Beta Beta, the national biology honorary. Cheryl Bennett is treasurer of the same organization.

Michigan Delta has retired another campus scholarship trophy. The Helen Scripps cup is awarded annually to the sorority with the highest grade point. To retire it the Pi Phis have won it for the past five years.

In the music department Pi Phi Margie Wetherby was chosen outstanding choir member of the year while Christie Ulmer was named outstanding band and orchestra member of the year.

Win Trophy for Food

Members of Lambda Chi Alpha kidnapped presidents of 16 University of Florida sororities this spring and held them for a ransom of food to be distributed to needy local families. A total of 3,654 pounds of food was collected, with Florida Delta's 750 pounds bringing them the second place trophy.

Marilyn Horne Is Superior Musician

Marilyn Horne, California Gamma, star of the Metropolitan Opera, La Scala, Royal Opera House Covet Garden, Lyric Opera of Chicago, and the San Francisco Opera, among others, is one of the most exciting singers ever and has brought back the "Golden Age of Song."

On September 19th, 1972, Miss Horne will be opening the Metropolitan Opera in a new production of "Carmen." It has been said that her Carmen staggers the imagination and competes with any vocal memory and most vocal dreams.

This will be the first production offered by the Met's new general manager, Goeran Gentele, who has been serving as general manager of the Stockholm Royal Opera.

Marilyn Horne grew up in Los Angeles where her first teacher was her father. She studied under a scholarship at the University of Southern California, majoring in voice, and later attended master classes conducted by Lotte Lehmann. Among the first to present her was the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. She was introduced to Igor Stravinsky with whom she often performed in programs ranging from Monteverdi to the moderns.

During the past season, Miss Horne made three important Carnegie Hall appearances. These appearances invariably bring audiences to a feverish pitch of excitement. In November, 1969, when she sang her Carnegie Hall recital, the audience applauded wildly through five encores, as if they never wanted to go home. At her most recent Carnegie Hall appearance, on February 9, last year, with the New Jersey Symphony, she "drew the audience to her like a magnet" and at the end "the audience acclaimed her as their own."

This type of pandemonium response and critical acclaim greets Marilyn Horne whenever and wherever she performs. Foreign critics acclaimed her as one of the greatest singers of the century: "A vocal phenomenon"; "Today Marilyn Horne is without contest the head of the American school of Bel Canto"; "Marilyn Horne is without a doubt the most exciting coloratura since Giulietta Simionata."

On March 3, 1970, she made her long awaited debut at the Metropolitan as Adalgisa in the new production of "Norma." Joan Sutherland sang the title role. The two women had sung together for many years, and had, in fact, made New York concert debuts together in 1961. This night, however, was to be Marilyn's and when the standing ovation that greeted her Act III solo curtain call had finally subsided after nearly ten minutes of pandemonium, Miss Horne's debut became one of the most historic in the Metropolitan's history.

Equally acclaimed in her appearances with orchestras, Miss Horne has sung with all the major symphonies from Boston to San Francisco. Her recitals are among the most spectacular anywhere—complete with standing ovations and rave notices. She is among that rare handful of singers who can fill Carnegie Hall to standing room only.

Her recordings have been most enthusiastically received and universally praised. Her album "Presenting Marilyn Horne" is a Grammy Award winner. Of her recordings, Stereo Review said, "The sheer sound of Marilyn Horne's voice is a joy to the ear. Her smooth technique in executing ornamented music is matched by few singers in any vocal register. She is clearly one singer in a million."

Arizona Beta Tackles Unique Problem

Arizona Beta recently was presented with a rather unusual problem. The "problem", concerning the financial situation of Arizona Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi, had developed over the past two years, and could be identified as a result of a line of unique treasurers who had held office during that time. Diane Marks, current treasurer of the chapter, initially identified its existence and presented it to the executive council in hopes of finding some form of practical solution.

What was the problem? Surprisingly enough it was not typical—I refer here to the ever-present question some chapters face, "How can we raise more money to meet our expenses?" Instead, it was a problem of having too much money, of deciding what to do with excess funds. The problem, presented to the executive council in the early fall was quickly resolved—and its solution has already shown its effect on the chapter members.

The council, with the approval of AAC and the chapter, had decided to deposit the excess in a loan fund. The fund would have approximately $900.00 in it to start. It would make available a short term loan of up to $50.00 for a maximum of 60 days. The loan would be noninterest bearing and would be available only to active members. In order to receive the loan, an application would have to be filled out and submitted to the executive council. Exec. would decide if the loan would be granted, one criterion being that the member was in good financial standing with The Fraternity and another, the promptness with which she paid her bills.

The fund has been an unbelievable aid to many of the members. As all Pi Phis know, there are certain times of the year when everyone seems to run a little low on personal finances. One such time just passed for Arizona Pi Phis—this being semester break. (A time when everyone could use a bit of extra vacation funds, not to mention funds for new books that must be purchased upon returning to school.)

Besides its personal effect on the members who do need limited aid, the fund has also created the incentive it was originally designed to facilitate; that is, getting the chapter members to pay their bills on time. by CAROL WOODWARD Arizona Beta

As can be told, we are extremely happy with the implementation of the fund. As far as we know, it is the only one that exists in a Pi Phi chapter. We hope other chapters who are in similar financial states will consider the value of establishing this type of loan.

Both are Arkansas Alpha alumnæ, and both live in Little Rock.

Since her graduation, Jane has been active in alumnæ clubs in New Orleans and Little Rock. She is currently president of the latter group. Her husband, Bob, is the only man in the family, since they have two daughters. Nancy is a student at Texas Christian and a Texas Delta initiate. Cindy is a high school senior. The family devotes many hours to volunteer work, enjoys all sorts of water sports, are red hot St. Louis Cardinal fans, and spend every summer traveling. This summer they are driving to Alaska, simply because they haven't been there. Jane says that their happiest hours are spent with the many young people who are always welcome in their home. She also admits that she's really going to need this co-registrar job, cause it will keep her busy after all the kids are gone to college.

Dorris attended Gulf Park College before transferring to the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. She is a Little Rock native and joined the alumnæ club in 1955. Exactly 11 months later she was elected corresponding secretary of the club and has held that office ever since! She is also yearbook chairman for the club. Dorris participated in the colonization and installation of Arkansas Beta and was a sponsor for one of the initiates. Husband, Duke, is a Korean veteran and holder of the Air Medal and Distinguished Flying Cross. He also lays some claim to fame on the golf course, having been Little Rock City Golf Champion two different years. The Wellings have one daughter, Pamela, who is 13, and one part-Persian cat, Puff, who is 10. Want to guess who runs the house?

Jayne Shover Holds Easter Seal Post

Jayne Shover (Mrs. Wallace Dickey), Iowa Zeta, has been named executive director of the National Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

She is the first woman to hold the post in the 52-year history of the society, the oldest and largest voluntary health agency providing services to the handicapped.

After receiving bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Iowa in speech pathology, clinical psychology, and special education, Miss Shover did postgraduate work in Europe and held faculty posts first at Purdue University and later at her alma mater. She received extensive training in social work and community organization at the University of Chicago and was a medical research fellow at the University of Wisconsin.

She has been associated with the National Easter Seal Society for more than twenty years. Previous to her recent appointment she held the position of associate executive director in the Society's Chicago headquarters.

In 1969 Miss Shover was appointed to represent the National Health Council on President Nixon's Voluntary Action Program. She also serves on the National Committee for Research in Neurological Disorders and Strokes and on the U. S. Department of Labor's Advisory Committee for Sheltered Workshops.

She was selected as one of the three national advisors of former HEW Secretary Gardner's Task Force on the Handicapped and has served as the spokesman for voluntary agencies in hearings before the President's Task Force on the Handicapped. She has also served with other public, private, and professional organizations including the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

Miss Shover is also a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Theta Alpha Epsilon, Psi Chi, and Phi Delta Gamma honorary fraternities.

Smile Campaign Lifts Campus Spirit

During the week of April 16, the Drury College campus had its spirits uplifted by the sisters of Pi Beta Phi. Felicia Brown initiated the idea of having a Smile Campaign to promote the spirit of spring. This campaign was carried through in order to brighten the "pre-exam" lull that occurs every year at this time.

The week prior to the campaign was spent in painting dozens of signs, ordering bumper stickers and smile buttons. Some of the mottos used on the signs were: "Smile and the World Smiles With You," "Smile, It Costs Nothing," and "Put on a Happy Face." The bumper stickers and collar buttons said, "PI BETA PHI SAYS, SMILE!" and were adorned with the familiar yellow smiling face.

The signs were posted all over the campus and Pi Phis, as well as many other enthusiastic students, displayed the buttons and stickers. Felicia wrote several little verses and placed them in the campus daily bulletin.

All in all, we had a lot of fun working on this type of project and the results were . . . well, the weather was great, the sun was shining, and there were a lot of smiling faces!

City Panhellenics Need Imagination To Meet Challenge

by HELEN BOUCHER DIX, NPC Delegate

Ph Factor is becoming a widely accepted term since the University of Oklahoma Panhellenic Association submitted it as a title for the new College Panhellenics News Exchange, being published under the auspices of the NPC College Panhellenics Committee. This term can be just as important when applied to City Panhellenic organizations as well.

What does Ph Factor mean? Ph is the generally accepted abbreviation for Panhellenic in Greek usage. Factor is an agent, distributor, private banker, or any contributing cause or element. Thus, City Panhellenics are agents or distributors of fraternity information contributing to the understanding of fraternity values and purposes, and stimulating interest in the advantages of membership in a Greek organization.

How IS your Ph Factor?

Are City Panhellenics successful in broadcasting the good news about the healthy and unparalleled growth of the fraternity system in the past decade? Do you know that:

- this expansion has occurred despite a quarter of a century of concentrated antifraternity propaganda and activity
- 2) the history of the American fraternity system records periodic waves of public esteem or disfavor which reflect, in general, public reaction to periods of prosperity or recession, of war or peace, and that these peaks and troughs have been evident since the birth of fraternity in 1776, and
- 3) during the decade of the sixties, a period of campus turmoil and diminishing interest in any form of structured activity or organization, the fraternity system has continued to flourish and expand?

The chairman of the NPC Survey and Projects Committee, Mrs. Joseph H. Backsman, A Σ A, has reported the following statistics on women's fraternities for the 1961-1971 period:

Net Increase in Collegiate Chapters . . 20.3% or 399 new chapters

(Increase of 32.9% or 647 new chapters less 12.6% or 248 chapters lost)

Net Increase in Alumnæ Chapters 17.9% or 838 new chapters

(Increase of 30.8% or 1,438 new alumnæ chapters less 12.9% or 600 closed)

How can the Ph Factor be more effective? City Panhellenics can actively seek out prospective members for the collegiate chapters. They can develop new approaches to interest enrolling students in fraternity membership.

Have you heard:

- that SUMMER PANHELLENIC RUSH has been successful in many areas where a more personal contact has been used with small area coffee or coke parties (mothers and fathers included); by swim and/or pizza parties, where undergraduate and alumnæ members present, in an informal setting, factual information about the benefits and responsibilities of membership; or by informal visits to the homes of incoming students to explain campus and fraternity life.
- 2) that some institutions are sponsoring caravans of students (Greeks) who visit towns to meet with prospective students; that these representatives present the opportunities offered by their colleges to further academic goals and by fraternity membership to extend the campus experience through learning-living situations.

City Panhellenics can consider such innovations and use them to support the efforts of College Panhellenics to move in new directions.

City Panhellenics should recognize the trend toward more personalized, less restrictive rush programs which has been developing on many college campuses. Many College Panhellenics have eliminated petty rush regulations which deter normal relations with new students and hamper diversity and creativity in planning rush parties. Rapidly disappearing are the ice-water teas, the elaborate skits which entertained (or did they?) but did not communicate the concept of fraternity life. In their place are parties which involve the rushee in chapter projects or activities which serve the campus or community.

Texas Initiate Is Tournament Champ

by SUSAN WINTERRINGER, Texas Alpha

University of Texas Pi Phis are proud of all 45 spring 1972 initiates, but one is a real champ. She's Nancy Hager from Dallas, a golfer who has won many tournaments all over the United States.

Nancy, with dark brown hair in a shag cut, has the total outdoor look of a golfer.

"I started playing golf seriously when I was nine, and I played in my first tournament at 10," said Nancy, an interior design major. She won the third flight in that tournament and the victory started her on the road to prominence.

She won the Girls' State Junior Tournament for three years while in junior high and high school. She was selected one of the eight best women amateur golfers in the nation in 1970 and was chosen to play on the U.S. Curtis Cup team in a biennial tournament played between the United States and the British Isles.

The United States won the 1970 Curtis Cup Tournament in Boston. "I was the lowest scorer on the first day of the tournament, but the second day I didn't do as well," Nancy explained.

This year Nancy was picked as an alternate for the 1972 team which plays in Ireland this summer.

"I haven't had time to play in as many tournaments to build up my record," she explained.

Playing only in major tournaments which don't conflict with school, Nancy said, "I like the competition of playing in a pro tournament as an amateur."

Nancy, a 19 year old freshman, has participated in the Western Amateur, the U.S. Amateur, the TransMiss, and the U.S. Open.

She reached the semi-finals in the U. S. Amateur and finished runner-up in the TransMiss and the Western Amateur.

During Christmas vacation this year Nancy won first place in the South Atlantic Tournament in Florida. She also participated in the Harder Hall Tournament while in Florida and placed second.

Definitely not a women's libber, Nancy says, "I don't want to play golf for a career or as a professional. I don't want to play for money it's only a pastime for me.

Nancy Hager, Texas Alpha

"Pro sports are men's fields," she affirmed. "I'm not a women's libber, and I think that women just should be wives."

A busy girl, Nancy manages to keep up her grades, be involved and active in Pi Phi, and play golf almost every afternoon.

"I have to play a lot or my game will go bad," she added seriously. "I try to play at least nine holes a day."

With a two handicap, her game averages about 70 to 75.

Nancy Hager is not only an asset to her Pi Beta Phi chapter and the University of Texas, but also the world of women's amateur golf!

Pledges Have Fun With "Baby" Actives

On the evening of April 23, 1972, the pledges of Pennsylvania Epsilon held a surprise party for the sisters. The festivities included a beauty contest and refreshments. The beauty contest was based on baby pictures of the current sisters. These pictures were secretly sent by the parents of the sisters at the pledges request. The contest was judged by members of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity who are good friends of the girls. The pictures were judged on the basis of the following categories: funny face, most flirtatious, glamour girl, most devilish, and the girl they would most like to take home to Mom! The sisters were completely surprised since they had no idea that the pictures had even been sent in. It turned out to be a fun, but a little embarrassing, night !!

The Broyhill Memorial Fountain on the University of Nebraska campus has become a popular gathering place for university students. (Nebraska Alumnus Magazine photo.)

Broyhill Fountain Is Nebraska Memorial

A beautiful addition to the University of Nebraska campus serves as a memorial to a former Nebraska Beta, Lynn Broyhill. The Broyhill Fountain now marks the Memorial Plaza in front of the Student Union. It serves as a dedication to Lynn by her parents after her tragic death in 1966 following an automobile accident.

The basin of the fountain is 48 feet in diameter and is equipped with jets which send into the air a cone of water 20 feet high and 12 feet in diameter. In addition, there are 12 small water jets which can be adjusted to produce a variety of shapes. Underwater lights provide color as well as a brilliant white, and the water is heated for use year-round.

Lynn was a prominent student leader on campus as well as in Pi Phi, where she served as vice president. Among her activities were vice president and honorary lieutenant colonel of Cadence Countesses; a member of Nebraska Union Hospital Committee and the Talks and Topics Committee; and a finalist for honorary sponsor of Pershing Rifles. She was a member of Kernels, Tassels, and the Young Republicans.

The fountain is an appropriate tribute symbolizing the zest for life which Lynn so constantly displayed. It serves as an inspiration for all the students on the Nebraska campus.

Artist To Paint Mural

by JANIS HOGLE, Texas Delta

An unusual honor has recently been bestowed upon one of the more talented Texas Delta Pi Phis. Ida Garless, sophomore from Midland, Tex., has been commissioned to paint a new mural on the student cafeteria wall on main campus. The Student House of Representatives has been searching for a satisfactory design to replace the old mural. Ida, an art major, submitted her design to the House where it was passed unanimously. It consists of a large sun with rays streaming out into the universe. Work on the mural will begin the day after finals.

Greek Leaders Challenged To Action

Is the Greek system dead on today's campus? "No!" comes loud and clear from one of fraternity's most outspoken advocates, Miss Caryl Lenahan, Florida Beta. Caryl is executive director and president of OPERATION GREEK, Inc., an organization based in Denver, but operating throughout the United States via workshops, films, speeches, manuals, and seminars.

"The days are over for spelling FRATER-NITY and MEDIOCRITY the same way," says Caryl. "Fraternity was, 100 years ago, and must be once again a pursuit of excellence—excellence in responsible behavior and citizenship to combat the moral jungle . . . excellence in rush selectivity so that membership is not for any and all, but for those willing to set common goals and aspirations . . . excellence in ritual and fraternity idealism so that members once again experience pride and self-respect during their membership."

Caryl grew up in Atlanta, Ga., and became aware of the Greek system at an early age, since her mother was deeply involved in her own sorority. Both Caryl and her younger sister Dana were Florida Beta Pi Phis, and they maintain close ties with many of their chapter sisters. Caryl has always been an active Pi Phi, and after graduation from Florida State with a bachelor's degree in recreation leadership, she returned to Atlanta to become a counselor for girls and director of public relations for a private school, and a member of the Atlanta Alumnæ Club. She earned her master's degree in guidance and counseling while working as Panhellenic advisor and assistant dean of women at the University of Georgia.

In 1970, she became the owner and guiding light of OPERATION GREEK, a nationwide consulting firm for sororities and fraternities, making her one of the few women owning a national company before the age of 30. Activities of the organization have made their mark in the Greek world by providing idea assistance, program planning for national conventions and leadership schools, and the re-education and training of Greeks at the grass-roots level as well as the national level.

Caryl and OPERATION GREEK have helped turn the tide to a less structured, more personalized, rush. Potential rushees are being turned away "by rush rules, sign-up procedures, 20 minute open houses, silence, not dating during rush, rules on where rush has to be conducted, how many songs and what type skits there can be. . . . You must give potential members a taste of what Greek life is. Just telling them about Greeks isn't the way to make friends. True friendship is based on caring, being honest, and mutual enjoyment in doing things."

Expanding her activities within the Greek world is of constant concern to Caryl. While her initial involvement was concerned almost exclusively with the collegiate aspects, she is currently directing energy toward alumni involvement as well, and in bridging the gap between alumni and collegians.

Although OPERATION GREEK is her business, she continues to work with Pi Phi. She served on the steering committee of I.C. '71, and was a consultant on the San Antonio Convention Workshops. It is Caryl's contention that the fraternity system is a "people business," and that "we have acquired problems as we've grown, but the basics of fraternity are still here . . . Sororities were not founded as problem solving laboratories, but rather for the purpose of giving young women a means for living in an environment of high ideals, with emphasis on personal growth and sincere service to mankind."

Caryl's current personal activities include tennis, handball, golf, and entertaining in her new, fabulous apartment in Denver. She isn't there a great deal since her travels have carried her over

Patricia Neal Tours Arrowmont

"It makes me proud to be a Pi Phi!"

Patricia Neal, Academy Award winning actress and an Illinois Epsilon Pi Phi, gave her own rave notices to Arrowmont, on her first visit to Gatlinburg, last April, since she was 16 years old.

Accompanied by her husband, Raold Dahl, noted writer of horror stories and fine children's books, and her teacher-therapist, Valerie Eaton-Griffith, Pat was greatly impressed with the physical plant at Arrowmont. She wished she could have seen the school while it was in session, so that she could see the students and teachers at their work. Her therapist even expressed the desire to attend an Arrowmont session to take a course or two.

Miss Neal had returned to the United States from her home in England to participate in a conference on brain injury in Savannah, Ga. She took a few days to visit Knoxville, Gatlinburg, and other scenes of her childhood and youth.

Board of Governors' Guests Recall Formative Years of Settlement School

Four Gatlinburg ladies—who remember the days when the Settlement School was young were luncheon guests of the Board of Governors during their recent meeting at Arrowmont.

As Mrs. Pearle Whaley Ownby, Mrs. Emma Maples Pollack, Mrs. Emma Reagan Ownby, and Mrs. Lucinda Oakley Ogle shared their reminiscences, each expressed her gratitude, not only for what the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School had meant to her personally but also for the benefits it brought to the community of Gatlinburg.

Board member Henrietta McCutchan Huff, Missouri Beta, who came to the Settlement School as a teacher and stayed on as the bride of one of Gatlinburg's leading citizens, introduced the four guests.

Pearl Whaley Ownby was the wife of the late Steve Whaley and their six children attended our school. Mr. Whaley was a member of the local advisory committee for Settlement School, and gave a large sum of money for the purchase of land for the school. On December 19, 1919, he wrote the following letter for The ARROW:

Standing: Betty Bailey Hall, Chairman, Arrowmont Board of Governors, Lucinda Oakley Ogle, Emma Reagan Ownby. Seated: Emma Maples Pollack, Pearle Whaley Ownby.

I take this pleasure to congratulate you for what your school has done for our community and the advancement and improvement on our boys and girls. I think it is wonderful how they can perform on the stage, debate subjects and recite recitations. A great number of them could not read or write, in fact many of them did not know anything when you came to us with your Blessed School. I can't express the gratitude of my heart for what you have already done for our children. My good wife and I are working hard on our little mountain farm to clothe and feed our little ones. Was it not for your school we never could educate them in the world. I feel very glad that I helped you with a little mite of money to establish your school. I wish I was able to help with more. Your good work is just begun. There are many ... children yet that must be brought into your school. Many of them are poor and without much clothes, yet these precious minds must be developed by somebody, or else they will grow to the stature of ignorant manhood and womanhood. I feel you all need help in a financial way but wherever is it to come from? Probably somebody will get a vision of the great work you are doing and lend a helping hand to develop our boys and girls.

Another of the luncheon guests, Emma Maples Pollack, was one of the school's early students. Because Miss Martha Hill, the first teacher, was afraid to stay alone, Emma Maples (a young girl of 9) lived with her that first year. Emma's father, Squire I. L. Maples, lived beside the road just a short distance from the first teacher's cottage, now called Pollard Cottage. He also gave a large sum of money to help buy the land for Settlement School. On March 11, 1920, Emma wrote the following account for The ARROW:

How I wish each of you Pi Beta Phis knew just how much the dear old Pi Beta Phi School has meant to our community and the many girls and boys of this section of the Great Smokies.

In the year 1912 the school was first started with one teacher, Miss Martha Hill from Nashville. The Pi Beta Phis purchased their land from Mr. E. E. Ogle which bad a three room cottage, a barn and a store. I lived in this cottage with Miss Hill for a year.

Soon the dear little Pi Beta Phi school began to grow. The people saw what the school was doing for the boys and girls who attended.

In 1914 the Pi Beta Phis went to work and built a six roomed school house with all the desks necessary, and running water, good heating system, and were equipped for manual training and domestic science, and year by year we have more teachers till now we have four.

In 1916 they finished up an eleven roomed house for the teachers. The girls and boys enjoy open house in this building on Friday nights. We sometimes sing and play games.

The Pi Beta Phis now use the old cottage for a girls' dormitory and recently have remodeled the Stuart cottage for which they use as a boys' dormitory.

The School has not only inthused the people to build good roads . . . so the children can come to school in more ease, but inthused the girls and boys to look forward in life to bigger and better things.

We sincerely hope with the help of the Pi Beta Phis we can some day have a high school.

Mrs. Lucinda Oakley Ogle, another luncheon guest, was the first dormitory student when she was eleven years old. Recently she has compiled maps of the area as it used to be and has helped to write a history of the section.

In anticipation of the Board of Governors' luncheon, she penned the following reminiscence:

I, Lucinda, was eleven years old, never had gone to school, but Grandfather Oakley had taught me a little. I was the baby sitter for our family of twelve children. My older brother and I were walking five miles (to school) ... When the weather got so bad I stopped going.

Miss Evelyn Bishop and little Emily P. Burton came and persuaded my parents to let me come and live with them. They put me in a cot in the hall. This was not my home for long.

The Teachers Cottage had no central heat at that time, I don't think, because Miss Lucy Michelson, the weaving teacher, would have me sleep with her. She called me her little heating stove. All I remember of her is her cold feet.

I did weaving for my keep and belped Aunt Lizzie Reagan in the kitchen. The weaving was sent to sorority places to be sold. Later more girls were brought to keep at what we called the girls' dormitory. My sister, Martha, was one of these.

In six years I had finished all the grades we had at that time, through the second year of high school. Nothing else to do, I got more interested in boys.

In November, 1926, I was a child-bride. I married my school days' sweetheart and I have never regretted it for one minute either. But I have never forgotten or quit being thankful for what the school did for me. One important thing, it helped prepare us all for the invasion of tourists so we could make a better living.

Many thanks to the Pi Phis for always.

Mrs. Emma Reagan Ownby's first husband, Otha Reagan, was the maintenance supervisor at the Settlement School from 1924 to 1935. Emma wove for Arrowcraft Shop for 25 years. When the Great Smoky National Park was started, she built one of the first motels on Roaring Fork Road. Their son, V. Hal Reagan, now operates the motel.

Attention!

A full-time Administrator for Arrowmont is needed. Applicants should have broad business experience since the Administrator will serve as personnel and public relations director. It is preferable that applicants be members of Pi Beta Phi, but other applicants, both men and women, will be considered. For further information, please write to:

Gunston Hall on the Potomac, historic home of colonial patriot George Mason, one of the Virginia delegates to the Constitutional Convention.

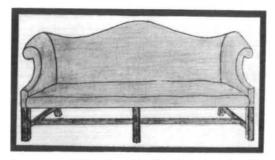

Arrowcraft Goes Colonial In Gunston Hall Sofa

Arrowcraft has stepped into the pages of colonial history through the doorway of Gunston Hall, the home of an early patriot, George Mason, who authored the Virginia Declaration of Rights on which the first ten amendments of the United States Constitution are based.

Located 15 miles south of Alexandria, Virginia, Gunston Hall was completed in 1758. It is now owned by the state and is supervised by the National Society of Colonial Dames through a board of regents.

Early last year when the board wished to order some hand-woven wool with which to reupholster a Chippendale camel-back sofa at Gunston Hall, they consulted Mary Frances Davidson, who has taught vegetable dyeing at Pi Beta Phi-UT summer workshops for many years. She agreed to dye the wool, and it was arranged, through Arrowmont, for Blanche Huskey, longtime Arrowcraft weaver, to do the weaving. Nella Hill, Arrowcraft designer, labored to duplicate the original pattern, which had a cotton warp and a woolen weft. Since this could not be copied accurately, the fabric was woven with all woolen threads.

Madder was ordered from Australia in order to obtain the correct shade of red. Mary Frances's biggest problem was finding a large enough container in which to do the dyeing. For the weft she needed to dye eight pounds of wool all at the same time—in a pot which would hold enough water to give it a proper bath. Eventually she found an old-fashioned galvanized bathtub that holds 38 gallons. She carried it to the Staff House kitchen, and she and Lucile Woodworth stirred the wool over the Arrowmont stove.

After the thread was dyed and dried, Mrs. Huskey wove it into a fabric 12 yards long and 34 inches wide, with 30 thread ends to the inch. The job took about two weeks. And then the upholsterer took over.

Now, whenever Pi Phis visit Mount Vernon to see the home of George Washington, they should follow through by driving a few miles further south to visit the home of one of his dear friends, George Mason, and to admire the hand-woven Arrowcraft fabric on his Chippendale sofa.

Knox County Teacher Uses Craft Therapy

Most of us will be lucky. We will never lose the use of our arms or legs. We will never become blind. We will never be permanently bedridden.

But what about those who are not so lucky? Who will help them? Can we?

We can't all become doctors or nurses—or even therapists. So what can we do?

We can remember people like Sarah Lawson, an arts and crafts hospital teacher from the Knox County school system in Tennessee. We can make it possible for others to follow in her footsteps.

Miss Lawson, who holds a Distinguished Service Award from the Tennessee Federation of Councils for Exceptional Children, has augmented her craft training at Pi Phi-UT summer workshops, although she has an M.S. degree from UT and has taken advanced training in special education at Syracuse University. She has taught arts and crafts to hospitalized children in Knoxville's five hospitals for many years.

In order to give the young people as many creative experiences as possible, Miss Lawson must often improvise special methods. Handicapped herself, she has a special understanding for their problems.

She has served as president of the Special Education Teachers of Knox County and is a member of Alpha Delta Kappa teachers' sorority.

Pi Beta Phi, through Arrowmont, continues to offer encouragement and inspiration to hundreds of temporary students who, like Miss Lawson, will utilize their Arrowmont experiences in their personal, enduring efforts to brighten the lives of the handicapped.

Arrowcraft Afghans Make Flashy Fashions

Pat Wright Bercel, California Alpha, above left, didn't need an afghan. But she loved the textures and colors of the lovely coverlets in the Arrowcraft sale. So she bought them anyway and took them to her dressmaker, who converted them into the fashionable skirts modelled, in the accompanying photograph, by Pat and Shirley Gage Lesnett, California Delta.

From the fabric left over from the skirts, the dressmaker created a stole to match the skirt Shirley is wearing and a vest to go with the one Pat is modelling (not shown.)

The skirts are belted with luggage bands, also from Arrowcraft. Woolen fringe adds a finishing touch to both outfits.

The skirt Shirley is modelling is in shades of green and rust. Pat is wearing a white skirt, highlighted with rust-colored threads.

Spectacular Egyptian necklaces and Arrowcraft tote bags complete the outfits, which might inspire other imaginative Pi Phis to explore new uses for Arrowcraft products.

Teacher Praises Quality of Courses

(Ed. Note: The following letter was sent to Henrietta McCutchan Huff after last summer's workshop. Our purpose for quoting it here is obvious.)

Dear Mrs. Huff:

This is my opportunity to thank the Albuquerque (N.M.) Pi Phi Alumnæ Club for awarding me their 1971 scholarship to Arrowmont and at the same time give you a little information about me and my trip to Gatlinburg. As a Minnesota Alpha I was familiar with Arrowmont but really didn't realize all that it had to offer until I arrived for my two weeks in August.

I took the crafts media and jewelry courses for graduate credit and found them to be a tremendous help in my work. I teach art at an Albuquerque high school, and this year we incorporated an extensive crafts course into our program.

The 30 to 40 slides I took at Arrowmont have been shown to many people, from my students to the local Pi Phi alumnæ club. The beauty of the school, its surroundings, plus the quality and concentration of the courses made my two weeks at Arrowmont a fabulous experience.

> Sincerely, Mrs. A. T. (Barbara) Schwyzer

Boulder Triad Sponsors Santa's Visit

by SHIRLEY SCOTT EVINGER Boulder Alumnæ Club

A most interesting project was undertaken last December by the Boulder (Colo.) Alumnæ Club, when that group, along with Theta and Kappa alumnæ, brought Santa Claus to Boulder for two weekends. Santa's Boulder home was historic Bergheim House, owned by the city. Santa came with his colorful entourage of elves, storybook characters, and Mrs. Santa. Hundreds of volunteers worked nearly a full year to make sure all was ready for this special visitor.

Barbara Clingman Galm, club president, was general chairman. Other Pi Phis on the steering committee were Sue Sayre Ieuter, Cirrelda Barnard Mills, and Carol Richardson Smythe. The alumnæ clubs were the chief sponsors and were ably assisted by the Jaycees, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, church youth groups and many businesses in the community. Many groups, such as the children from Headstart, were admitted free.

While the adults browsed in their special boutique, the children frolicked between their playroom, the puppet show, the children's boutique where all items sold for a dollar or less, had their picture taken with Santa in his sleigh, and visited Mrs. Santa in the candy kitchen where each child received a candy cane.

Children from the Presbyterian Preschool in Boulder visited Santa's House and were enthralled with the show playing at the puppet theater. Mrs. Santa, who had a basket full of candy canes for the kids, was there through courtesy of Mrs. Lucille Andrews, Pi Phi housemother.

Winnie the Pooh welcomes an excited young lady to Santa's house. The imposing but friendly character agreed to station himself on the front porch and make sure visitors find their way in.

The alumnæ manned the boutiques and made most of the items sold. Each group provided 1,000 items. 200 alumnæ worked in some capacity on this project as well as many actives from each group.

The profit from this exciting adventure was $2,900.00 which was donated to the Attention Homes of Boulder. Attention, Inc. is a community sponsored organization that manages three homes in Boulder where young people are sent to live with house parents and other young people because they cannot live successfully with their own families. Some are awaiting court decisions, some are on probation, and some have serious family or school problems. In 1971, 4,662 young people were cared for in the three homes.

Santa's visitors numbered 4,200. This was a delightful contribution to the community as it benefitted not only the Attention Homes but all the children of Boulder.

TAR Leaders Meet To Discuss Issues

Barbara Wells, California Delta, National Director of the Teen Age Republicans, is looking forward to a busy summer and fall this election year.

At a National TAR Leadership Conference, held in June on the campus of Marymount College in Arlington, Va., TAR representatives from the fifty states met with top echelon governmental leaders for in-depth discussion of the issues which will shape the 1972 elections.

Barby, who has held her position as national TAR director since 1964, received many honors while she was a student at UCLA. She was named one of 25 outstanding juniors, one of 20 outstanding seniors, and the Pi Phis selected her as their outstanding senior. She served on the UCLA class council for four years and was president of Trolls, an honorary service organization, and the UCLA Young Republicans.

TARs do not limit their efforts to political activities. During the year they engage in a variety of worthwhile programs, such as participating in area clean-up campaigns, donating services to local hospitals, soliciting donations for charitable projects, collecting toys and clothes for needy children, assisting at community teen centers, performing services for members of the Armed Forces and for POWs, and fighting the drug problem.

A speech Barby made on the dangers of drug abuse and suggestions for controlling it has been recorded in the Congressional Record.

Discussion of Bible Holds Wide Interest

by TAM NETZLY Obio Zeta

Ohio Zeta has been the proud instigator of a very successful Bible discussion group. Alison Hurt, a soft-spoken, dedicated individual, has given much of her time to the organization of this special interest group which has been in existence for one year.

Alison is assisted by Julie Green, and together they formulated the plans and put into effect what is now an enduring and vital part of Pi Phi life. These two conscientious individuals decided to initiate a discussion group in order to share their Christian experiences with others.

Because Pi Beta Phi is the only sorority at Miami University with such an organization, Alison felt it would be worthwhile to open up the group meetings to anyone who was interested.

The purpose of the Bible discussion group, in Alison's own words is, 'to explain who Jesus Christ is and the basic concepts of Christianity." Also, Alison and Julie are attempting to show what it really means to be in a relationship with Christ and to really understand the word of God. A few of the topics have been faith, God's definition of love, and sin.

To attend one of these discussions is to share in the fellowship and the deep, personal religious beliefs of many individuals. The discussions are held in the Pi Phi suite, where the atmosphere is very informal, with people openly participating and explaining their own personal growth in Christ.

Alison went a step further by incorporating a little discussion on the Bible into an overnight retreat held for all Pi Phis at a sister's home. The discussion was so worthwhile, that even though it was planned to last about an hour, it continued practically the entire evening! It was fun to talk about something besides last week's date for a change!

These Bible discussion groups have provided an opportunity for deepening the personalities and characters of many Ohio Zeta Pi Phis. It has become an invaluable experience for which we are grateful. We hope other chapters will be able to participate in similar programs.

New York Artist Has Jamaica Show

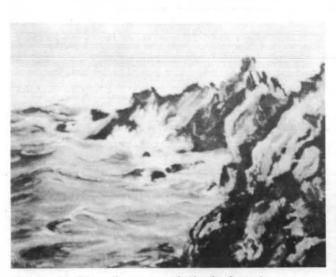

"If my work in any way approaches John Keats' aphorism 'Beauty is truth, truth beauty,' I feel that I have fulfilled a bit of my purpose in life."

Those are the thoughts of Phyllis Crane, whose paintings are well-known to art lovers throughout the country. Miss Crane, Vermont Alpha, is an active member of the Westchester (N.Y.) Alumnæ Club, and lives in her studiohome, Boscobet Point, overlooking Haverstraw Bay at Crugers-on-Hudson, New York. She is a native Californian, however, and holds a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Southern California and a Master's Rating for advanced work in Creative Dance.

Through her creative dances, Phyllis has always taught that "art, in any of its various forms, is the bridge to international understanding and appreciation." It was a particular thrill, therefore, to have experienced this fact as the Contemporary Jamaica Artists Association presented a showing of 40 of Phyllis' oil paintings in Kingston, Jamaica. She was delighted that the show was successful in all respects, and felt that it was a wonderful experience. Twenty of the oils were painted especially for the show and are the result of recent travels to her native California, the Bahamas, and Jamaica. They also include Hudson River-scapes as seen from her home. The other 20 paintings resulted from her travels in England, Scotland, Germany, France, and Greece. Some were sketched or painted during her travels, and some were painted from memory.

Last fall Phyllis served, for the second year, as chairman of the Annual Greater Peekskill Area Art Exhibition. The event, in its 19th year, is sponsored by the YWCA, of which Phyllis is a member of the board. She is in the process of planning another one-man show, but shows her paintings at Boscobel Point by appointment and a few are at the Hills and Peterson Galleries in Kingston. In addition, five of Miss Crane's marines are a featured exhibition at the Carroll-Condit Galleries in White Plains, N.Y.

In speaking of her work, Phyllis Crane says, "I strive to catch an atmosphere—an impression —of the unusual, not the bizarre. I try to do this as simply as possible, eliminating all but the essentials needed to satisfy my feelings of the subject." She apparently achieves that goal, especially in her seascapes, since it has been said that "Phyllis Crane's work looks wet!"; "Miss Crane's water really moves."; and "I can actually hear the waves crashing against the rocks."

Phyllis Crane is an artist member of the National Arts Club in New York City and she exhibits there annually. In addition, her paintings hang in private homes, schools, and offices throughout the country.

Group Exchange Is Fun Idea on Mizzou Campus

by ANNE O'CONNELL, Missouri Alpha

Pi Phis at the University of Missouri joined with several other fraternities and sororities for a new kind of fun this year. The "group exchange" became the latest collegiate way of making fun.

It started with a Monmouth Duo party with the Kappas. Then, Pi Phis, Phi Delts, Sigma Nus, Gamma Phis, and Chi Omegas met with the Kappa Sigs in their back yard for a fall evening get-together.

A winter dance with the Thetas and Delta Gammas almost matched the fun of the spring party with the Tri-Delts and Thetas. Another exchange with the Phi Delts this time included the Fijis and Thetas. Judging from the success of these mega-exchanges, next year's relations between houses at Mizzou should be monumentally good.

Dating Game Girl Wins Russian Tour

by JANE STANSBURY California Delta

If you happened to be watching ABC's The Dating Game Friday, May 5, you would have heard the following question directed to three eligible bachelors by the attractive girl contestant: "I live in a sorority house with fifty beautiful, sexy girls. Every time a new guy comes over to the house, he is initiated. How would you like to be initiated?"

The Dating Game girl asking the men for their responses was Karen Sears, chapter president of Pi Beta Phi at U.C.L.A. Karen is currently studying to be a model and it was at the request of her modeling agency that she first went to ABC studios for a Dating Game interview. After going through a series of preliminary interviews, Karen was chosen to participate in the TV show, but actually the excitement had just begun. After Karen and the bachelor-ofher-choice met on stage, TV host Jim Lange announced that their special date would take them for eight days to Russia! The couple was to see many fascinating sights since the itinerary included the cities of Leningrad, Moscow, and Kiev. Needless to say Karen was really excited, and the plans for the trip remained hard to believe until she stepped aboard the plane headed for Russia on June 9.

For Pi Phis who may have missed the original telecast of Karen's contest, there is still another date to look forward to. Since the Russian trip is a Dating Game special, Karen's journey will be recorded on film and shown this summer as a Dating Game documentary. We at California Delta hope you don't miss it!

Campus Limelight Shines On Eight Maine Alphas

by LYNN YARDLEY, Maine Alpha

Eight Pi Phis from Maine Alpha were honored on the University of Maine campus recently. Six girls were selected to be Sophomore Eagles, an honorary group that serves the campus in various ways: Victoria Jordan, Kathleen Keaney, Linda Levesque, Anne Matthews, Christine Tyndall, & Lynn Yardley. They were chosen on the five points of the star, their symbol: dignity, character, friendliness, dependability, and scholarship. Their function is to uphold and promote the ideals, standards, and traditions of the university and administration; to act as a service group of the university; and to help the freshmen get oriented into college life.

Trish Riley and Mary Weaver each received the honorary title of "All-Maine Woman," awarded to the most outstanding junior girls. They too are chosen on their character, as well as their service to the university and their leadership qualities.

Over the last two years, students have carved a long list of four letter words. Finally they seemed to have exhausted their vocabularies of gutter terms, ending with burn—hate—kill.

How Are You Rushing?

In my opinion, the firing of the first Russian sputnik in the mid-fifties was the real beginning of change within the fraternity system. Certainly the Greek system cannot deny that the entire educational system has undergone a complete analysis and drastic change since that historic event. We found many things which were sacred cows on our campus were no longer held in high esteem. By the same token, some of the hitherto unimportant things became more vital. It was a natural consequence in this total reevaluation on the college campus that the Greek system was forced to become more aware of its relationship to the pursuit of education on a somewhat different and, hopefully, higher plane. Immediately there were several vital questions to be answered-was the system serving a real purpose in a new era called the Space Age? Was there any longer a need for the system? Even more important-was the system adequate for the needs of a new generation of idealistic students?

(in conclusion, speaking of the changes . . .)

Our Heads Aren't In Sand

Those of you who are old enough to be devising rush programs are already old enough to realize that each year rushees are less impressed by pretense, more concerned with 'involvement' and 'meaningful relationships'. The good old days of sharing scrap books, producing tearjerking dramatic skits, asking such profound questions as, 'What is your major?' and 'Where are you from?' have gone. The people whom you will be rushing next year have during their high school careers seen men walk on the moon; they have sent their friends to Vietnam; and they have already come to grips in one way or another with pot and speed and 'the pill.' The kind of approach which your alumnæ made to prospective pledges who were earthbound children with decisions to make about cigarette smoking, drinking, and what is 'heavy petting' just isn't the approach for a new generation. Their response, when told of the frivolous advantages of fraternity membership is very apt to be: 'So?'

Must Show Benefits of Greek Life

To become a Greek in 1971 is undoubtedly a difficult decision. Reflecting the changing attitudes and more political tenor of campuses, the label "Greek" unjustifiably connotes the political terms, "traditional" and "conservative." Viewed in this way, the purpose of Greeks is unclear to those outside, and even many within. Thus, lack of understanding breeds criticism.

This element of self-sacrifice and positive commitment is often lacking in the 'do-your-own-thing' style of some of today's groups, fracturing a closelyknit group and pitting its sub-groups against each other. Prospective rushees need to see the opportunities offered by fraternities as they are today, and the benefits to personal lives derived from membership, instead of an ambiguous image partially created by outside criticism. Fraternity Story Is One of Growth

Men's general fraternities during this nearly 150 years of existence have constantly changed to meet the changing needs of their members. The 113 years of Delta Tau Delta's history have seen many changes in undergraduate life styles and needs, Fraternity organization structure, alumni participation, financial stability, campus community, and student member attitudes. The decade just past has been no different except the accelerated rate and the extent to which the Fraternity had adapted to changes taking place in

Credit Rings For Knights of Old

Credit cards may be 20th century conveniences, but the concept is centuries old. Practice seems to have had its beginnings in medieval Germany, where carrying coin of the realm down the country's dark, heavily forested roads was done strictly at one's own risk. The Teutonic Knights, therefore, developed a solution to the problem. They designed special signet rings engraved with their personal coats of higher education, the services desired, and the growth opportunities afforded the Fraternity.

This has been a decade when the news media has declared that the fraternity system is a dying dinosaur and an anachronism, etc; student newspapers, most often controlled by independents, have raised the same cry; but the story of Delta Tau Delta, and most major national fraternities, has been one of growth and progress, adjusting to new life styles, but at the same time not rejecting most of the important values and traditions of our fraternity.

New Mexico Beauty Earns Top Grades

by BETSY FEEZER Wisconsin Beta/New Mexico Beta

Nora Nelson, New Mexico Beta, viewed her undergraduate education as merely the springboard to higher and more exciting educational goals. She was graduated in May, is 20 years old, and completed her high school and college careers in just six years. While maintaining a 3.7 over-all grade point, she was very busy in the home economics department. She served on the expansion committee of Phi Upsilon Omicron and was instrumental in establishing a home economics honorary and professional fraternity at New Mexico State.

This Pi Phi received the Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Award for 1971-'72: was Honor Pledge (1971) and Honor Initiate (1972) in Pi Beta Phi, both determined by a 4.0 g.p.a. the two preceding semesters. In addition, she was one of two juniors selected for membership into Phi Kappa Phi.

Nora has written a monthly column for the New Mexico Rural Electrification Association magazine, and has attended several R.E.A. conventions. At the tri-state convention in 1971, she made a presentation "Representing the Youths' View" which Attorney General David Norvell had asked her to prepare. In 1972 she was appointed with Jimmy Dean to present youths' side at the national R.E.A. convention. Also this year Nora was the second place winner in the national Miss Rural Electrification Association contest in Las Vegas, receiving a scholarship to be used in her graduate studies. She will be working toward a doctoral degree in family living, and would like to teach at the college level after that.

Retreat Renews Spirits in Spring Snow

Spring quarter started off in the true Pi Phi spirit at Georgia Alpha. A retreat was planned for the first weekend after school resumed from spring break. Our special guest was Kaye Holmes, Traveling Graduate Counselor. Everyone was thrilled at the opportunity of learning more facts about our more distant chapters, and exchanging ideas.

On Saturday morning everyone packed blankets, bed rolls, and pillows into the trunks of our cars and went up to Lake Rabun, Georgia, for a weekend of fun, ideas, and sisterhood. Expecting a sunny afternoon, we were all surprised by the sudden gust of snow flurries. Lake Rabun was transformed into a fairy land.

set out to teach us many new ways to find out more about ourselves. K.P. was established by drawing ballots, thus not giving any one person too much work. Kaye and our executive members broke the assembly into interest groups to plan events of spring quarter and rush for the fall. We were extremely proud to give birth to Pi Phi Pooh—Georgia Alpha's answer of a pick-me-up for anyone who was depressed. Roommate swaps, beauty parlor night, the diet table, and many more fantastic ideas emerged from our weekend.

The spirit at Georgia Alpha has skyrocketed this quarter. We owe it all to Kaye and our wonderful retreat.

Greek Week: Try It! You'll Like It!

by MARILYN ROY California Zeta

We want people to like us—and join us. But we must let them know that "they" and "us" are "we," made up of the same stuff. So we constructed Greek Week to say, "Try it! You'll like it!"

February 22, sororities made spaghetti, hosting Greeks from all houses. It was a chance to meet other Greeks, see different houses, and eat lots of good food. Then the fraternities hosted the crowd for a progressive wine-tasting party.

On Wednesday night we watched a boxing tournament between independents and Greeks, followed by a pizza parlor party.

Thursday, we rested. But we did let the campus know who was Greek when we attended classes donned in our house T-shirts.

The Friday night basketball game between U.C.S.B. and Long Beach State found the Greeks in one cheering section. Greek unity sprang up in this moment of glory. A dance in the Lambda Chi's front yard followed the game. Many danced, many observed from the balcony. It was a "warmly" spring evening. Great for dancing.

Saturday, the Delta Gammas hosted a breakfast before a drive to clean up the trash in Isla Vista. It was called a "trash-in," and while it did not rank as high as some of the other Greek Week activities, the Pi Phis tried it and liked it. While the Greeks were picking up trash, two pledges—Gail Norton and Wendy McQuade played in the volleyball tournament. "Did you win?" we asked. "We had fun," they replied. Duke Ellington held a concert for the student body that night.

Finally, Sunday came pushing along with the infamous Push Cart Races. Little cars with tiny wheels were pushed by two people at a time around a track. Pi Phis and Phi Delts linked up for a girl-boy team. Our lightest girl was pushed by the boys and their lightest boy was pushed by the girls. We came in second and shared the prize with the number one team. The afternoon called for a time out, so we went to a park for a T. G. with a sigh and a chuckle. Greeks are pretty nice. "Try 'em! You'll like 'em!"

Chapter's Trophies To Have New Home

by VALERIE BROWN Texas Gamma

Texas Tech's Pi Phis can surely be proud of their record in 1971-72. Activities have ranged from a rodeo to weekly Bible study. In March Kathy Garver paid the girls a visit when she was here starring in a play. Kathy, who was a California Delta Pi Phi, portrays "Sissy" on TV's Family Affair.

Texas Gamma has been very active in the city of Lubbock. They participated in the Phi Psi canned food drive, the Lubbock Crippled Children's Campaign and the Heart Fund Drive. The chapter has financed Bluebird and Camp Fire Girl troops also. Active members who participated as sponsors for the girls felt it was really a rewarding experience.

All year long the Pi Phis have been involved in intramural sports. In the fall it was volleyball and basketball. This spring it turned to baseball, track and swimming. The Pi Phis even won a school-wide track meet. The results in April proved that the vivacious Pi Phis had really done it by overwhelmingly winning the Sorority Sweepstakes Trophy in women's intramurals. Last fall the Pi Phis entered the All-School Rodeo. Through their skills of riding and quickly putting on boots, they came out the high point sorority and received a trophy.

Activities and ideas this year have been at the center of Texas Gamma. As the sisterhood grows and changes, they are always striving to continue to enrich the heritage of Pi Beta Phi.

Scholarship Group Makes Grades Fun!

The scholarship interest group within Arkansas Alpha chapter has been buzzing with projects to make more scholastically-minded angels.

For instance, in order to honor outstanding achievements in scholarship for the fall semester, a Scholarship Banquet was arranged, provided with a guest speaker. This guest speaker was the pleasant surprise. He was an architecture professor at the University, and a favorite with our chapter. After the dinner and the distribution of the various awards, he gave a short talk followed by a question-answer session. Needless to say, everyone was present at this event.

Also, a Smarty Party was held at dinner one night. To gain admission into the dining room, each girl had to be dressed like her grade point. On a four-point scale, a 2.00-2.49 g.p.a. represented the lower-middle class; 2.50-3.00 represented the middle-class; 3.00-3.49 represented the upper-class; and 3.50-4.00 represented the millionaires. It was certainly reassuring to see some upper-class and millionaires gracing our dining room tables.

And finally, as an elegant touch to the scholarship being emphasized, the scholarship interest group organized a faculty tea on Valentine's Day. Each girl was encouraged to invite as many of her professors as she desired, with formal invitations sent to the various faculty memby PEGGY TAYLOR, Arkansas Alpha bers involved. The affair was a drop-in, with cookies and punch served on tables decorated with elaborate pink flower arrangements. This function was a lovely way to develop a more personal relationship between the professors and students.

Our scholarship interest group is quickly becoming one of our busiest groups, owing to projects such as these. At last grades are becoming less drudgery and more fun to think about.

Chapter Entertains Retarded Teen Agers

by KAREN MCEVER, Georgia Alpha

The Georgia Alphas entertained ten children from the Athens unit of the Georgia Mental Retardation Center last February.

Carolyn Williams and Wana Shelton, two psychology majors, have been doing volunteer work at the center. They work mainly with teenagers, chaperoning their dances, giving personal attention to those with problems, and trying to help them learn how to act in real life situations. The children were fascinated with the idea of a sorority, and kept asking to see the house and have some sisters, so Carolyn and Wana planned a party for them at the house.

Several carloads of sisters went to the retardation center to pick up the ten girls, who were from 11 to 20 years old. They were brought back and taken on a tour of the house before they had dinner. After dinner we conducted a treasure hunt with candy and a carnation for each girl as a prize. The washboard band entertained them, and then they entertained us.

Several girls have kept in touch by letters and by taking some of them to the movies occasionally.

According to Carolyn, the girls still talk about coming over, and they have a good view of sororities. They weren't the only ones who benefited though; for many sisters it was their first contact with the mentally retarded.

As a result of their work at the center, Carolyn and Wana plan to go to graduate school and be child psychologists specializing in mental retardation.

Innovative Inspiration Days Are Successful

All Greek chapters have an immediate problem after pledging—incorporating prospective members into the group. Fraternity orientation that teaches the history and ideals of the organization is simply not enough.

For years the problem has been a task assigned to one person, the pledge trainer. But within the last two years, members of Pi Beta Phi have seen a new trend. Through adoption of the I. C. '71 program, members are realizing that the days of a single pledge trainer, classroom style pledge meetings, required study hours and pledge demerits are over. The responsibility for resolving the gap between actives and pledges rests on all members.

After adopting the I. C. '71 program this year, South Dakota Alpha at the University of South Dakota renovated its pledge program. One of the distinct accomplishments was a necessary change in "Inspiration Days" prior to activation.

Most Greeks are familiar with the harassing, degrading activities that have for years constituted the stereotyped hell week that preceeds activation. The point, some think, was to force a unity within the pledge class. But the South Dakota chapter views the whole idea as being meaningless. It was a case where the ends did not justify the means. For the end was actually to teach pledges to be pledges, and to turn about abruptly and expect them, as new members, to incorporate their ideas and activities into the active chapter.

The chapter's interest group for Fraternity orientation first asked what was to be accomplished in the inspirational period. The goal was set to inspire both members and prospective members to give and renew their pledges to the ideals of the sorority. With this purpose in mind, the interest group initiated a new plan for "Inspiration Days" that involved everyone —not only pledges.

The pledges were invited to live in the house for four days. They shared rooms with actives and ate meals at the house. Throughout the four days, actives and pledges realized how little they had known each other. "By living in the house for four days," one pledge said, "I saw things in my roommates that I had never seen before." by MARY LOU WILLITS South Dakota Alpha

Each night the girls met for a fireside chat. The theme for the first fireside was "Appreciation." The pledges presented a skit with that theme. Following the skit, actives spontaneously commented on someone in the house they appreciated and why. The first fireside provided a morale booster that carried through the following days.

"Chapter Heritage" was the theme of the second fireside. Alums were invited and informally told the girls what their pledge lives had entailed. Scrapbooks from the founding of Pi Phi on campus to the present were displayed, and each class presented a skit they had done during their own inspiration days. The purpose of the fireside was not only to inform but to convey that everyone there belonged to a stable and continuing organization.

The third fireside was serious but informal. A candle was passed among pledges and actives giving each a chance to say what Pi Beta Phi meant to her. The spontaneity and meaning of what was said was exhilarating. Comments following the fireside ranged from, "I had no idea she cared that much," to "I had never stopped to think how much this sorority means to me."

Activation was followed by a special breakfast early the next morning. The pledges previously had been asked to evaluate the inspirational period in writing, and their responses were read following breakfast. Referring to one of the actives, a pledge wrote, "I had known her only by name, but through letting her see me in all lights, and seeing her . . . with human emotions, we have both begun to tear down the barriers of separation. I am happy for the experience because I build walls around me and live inside them, and hope that someone will care enough to break them down."

Another pledge wrote, "I never thought this type of mutual friendship could be possible. We've planned together—we've shared so much together. We're proud together." Another added, "Throughout 'Inspiration Days' I've grown much closer to many girls, and that has strengthened my love and my desire to become a full-fledged Pi Phi!"

Manitobans Have Happy Spring

by MELANIE HALL Manitoba Alpha

Spring 1972 was a very happy time for the Pi Phis of Manitoba Alpha. Many achievements and joyous occasions were celebrated by the chapter. The most meaningful celebration for Manitoba Alpha was the initiation of their firstever spring pledge class. The excitement was doubled by the fact that the Pi Phis initiated the only spring pledge class on campus. Five new members were added to the ranks of the wine and silver blue.

Springtime also means the approach of exams and graduation. Manitoba Alpha was blessed with several fine graduates. These Pi Phis were honored at a "Grad's Farewell" reception held at a local hotel, feted by the Mother's Club at their annual spring luncheon, and by chapter alumnæ at Founders' Day celebrations. The actives of Manitoba Alpha were indeed proud of the record of accomplishments of their senior class.

April showers and May flowers also meant the approach of another annual gathering. After exams were concluded in April, the members of Manitoba Alpha met at Falcon Lake in the Whiteshell Reserve for Sorority Camp. Twenty Pi Phis, seeking sun and relaxation after difficult and trying finals had been written, squeezed into Patti-Jo Biddulph's charming lakeside retreat. The joys and disappointments of the past year were discussed with fervor; and plans for future events were made with all good intention of becoming reality. When camp broke up, the Pi Phis parted in various directions; their minds and hearts very much filled with that intangible Pi Phi entity, Pi Phi spirit.

Special Dinners Generate Spring Enthusiasm

A series of special Pi Beta Phi dinners made last spring an eventful one at Indiana Gamma. The first was a Pi Phi Olympic Awards Dinner, the brainstorm of sophomore Janie Beals. Gold, silver, and bronze medals, plus booby prizes, were presented in such gag categories as weekend couch warming, "rock" lifting (for the engaged) and dieting.

A Professors' Banquet was held on the occasion of our faculty advisor earning his doctorate. The Pi Phis invited favorite professors and their wives for a buffet dinner in his honor. At the conclusion our advisor was presented with a desk nameplate including his new title.

Engaged, pinned and lavaliered women inspired a Sweetheart Dinner in early April. Housemother Josephine Weldon crocheted tiny yarn couples in the colors of the appropriate fraternity for placecards. Unattached Pi Phis had small yarn dolls at their place settings in wine and blue. These had pins on the back and could be worn on State Day. While dessert was being served, fraternity sweetheart songs were sung by the chapter.

Every meal was special for Mom Weldon during her birthday week. She received a different flower every evening, and on her birthday itself, she dined on steak. At State Day luncheon at Indiana Alpha two days later, Mom Weldon was presented with a silver bowl by President Kit Ford. The chapter rose and sang "My Pi Phi Mom."

Each of these dinners was new to Indiana Gamma. Meals are one time when even the busiest Butler University coeds can get together, and these special dinners will surely become annual events because of the enthusiasm they generated in the chapter and on campus.

OPERATION BRASS TACKS

You Can Learn to be Kind to the Environment

by FRANCES CERRA

When Ralph Nader appeared at a Long Island college recently a petite woman had a question for him: "I'm a housewife and I'm concerned about pollution and the consumer," she said, straining to make herself heard in the auditorium, "but what can I do to help?" Her question expressed the frustration of most Americans who have noticed that air pollution has dulled the autumn leaves, that water pollution is closing beach after beach and that pollution of the earth is surrounding our cities with foul garbage dumps.

It's true that industry produces four to five times as much liquid waste as consumers, uses 70 percent of all the nation's electric power and throws away about 94 percent of our solid wastes. But, as that woman recognized, industry's sins do not absolve consumers of their responsibilities to the environment. People can learn to be kind to the environment as individuals, and then, in groups like sororities, on campus or off, can band together to pressure the government and industry to clean up.

Nader answered that housewife's question by telling her not to use products that pollute. He could have listed items for an hour. Until now, consumers have not used their buying power to tell industry that they do not want products that pollute. Take the disposable craze in bottles, diapers and even cigarette lighters.

Americans are fond of throwing things away, so fond that the U. S. Bureau of Solid Waste Management is doing research to find out why. Only a few years ago, people not only returned empty soda bottles; the empties were coveted by children as a source of pocket money. Today, most people prefer to throw out disposable soda bottles and cans rather than inconvenience themselves to collect a measly few cents. Out of sight, out of mind. But government studies have already shown that if this trend continues, nonreturnable containers will virtually replace the deposit bottle in 1972. That means that there will be some 20 billion cans and bottles littering the landscape and filling garbage dumps unless Americans come to their senses. And don't forget, aluminum cans don't rust.

The "Throwaway Age"

Industry is already calling the 1970's the "Disposable Decade" and the "Throwaway Age," because they are convinced that consumers' desire for convenience is so strong that they will ignore the threat to the environment. It's time housewives faced a fact: You cannot speak righteously about the local power company polluting the air and then go home and pop a TV dinner into the oven and a disposable diaper on the baby. Prepared foods mean packaging. Garbage. Disposable diapers, paper cups, plates, paper towels-all are unnecessary sources of garbage. And garbage today is either burned, meaning air pollution, or buried in wetland areas like swamps which are homes to birds and animals and spawning grounds for the small organisms that ultimately keep ocean fish alive. Washing diapers and doing your own cooking is trouble, no question; but is there a rational choice?

Many college cafeterias have also been swept by the disposable craze. A collegiate chapter of a sorority is in a fine position to object to the use of disposable plates and flatware. Disposables may save the cafeteria management some labor costs, but what are they costing the environment?

There are other products that ecology-minded consumers can avoid. The phosphates in detergents are thought to be the cause of something called eutrophication, a process that makes lakes and bays fill up with algae and become unfit for swimming and death traps for fish. Lists of detergents and their phosphate contents have been published by the U. S. Department of Interior and Consumer Reports. And forget about enzyme pre-soaks. They are an additional source of phosphates.

Lead in gasoline is another major pollutant. Some non-lead or low lead gasolines are available now. Buying them will encourage all the oil companies to make unleaded gasolines, and fast.

Long lists of products to avoid can be obtained from local conservation groups, and these are the groups that both collegiate and alumnæ chapters can ally with to start efforts to improve the environment. For example, many companies are paying for each aluminum can or bottle returned to them. Besides being beneficial to the environment, this isn't a bad way for a group to make some money.

But the possibilities for group action go far beyond picking up cans or setting up anti-litter days. The place to start is by raising the ecology consciousness of the members of your group and anyone else you can get to listen. Bring in guest speakers from conservation groups, ask representatives from local power companies or health agencies to come to meetings and answer questions on what they are doing about pollution. Use college resources, such as the science department, to help organize full-scale teachin's on the environment.

Focus Responsibility

And how about finding out just who is responsible for polluting that lake near you? If the health department doesn't know who is responsible, put pressure on them to find out. If

"Suppose there were two billion whooping cranes and only twenty-eight of us — would they care?" they do know, then ask them why they haven't done anything about it. If you don't get action fast, show up in a group at your next town board or county legislature meeting. Watch how fast you make headlines when you demand enforcement of existing pollution laws and ask for stronger ones. Watch and see how polite your local politicians will be.

A good example of what can be accomplished happened in the state of Washington last year. The whole thing began as an academic project in a political science class, an exercise to see if students could get enough signatures on petitions to have a referendum put on the November ballot. The students chose an ecology issue, the non-returnable soft drink and beer container. They proposed that at least a five-cent deposit be required on all such containers. The task seemed staggering because the students needed over 100,000 signatures to get on the ballot. Nevertheless, in a little over two months, the students gathered more than 180,000 signatures. The state Democratic convention endorsed the proposal, and so did the Republican governor and attorney general of the state.

Unfortunately, this study does not have a happy ending in the traditional sense. The referendum was defeated, apparently because of strong opposition from brewers in the state. But it is certain that the issue is not dead, and the students found out in the process that they have real power.

Ralph Nader has recognized this fact more strongly that almost any other consumer-ecology leader in the country. He believes that to fight polluters effectively, consumers need public interest lawyers who will represent citizens groups in court cases against polluters big and small and against government agencies that hesitate too long to enforce the law. One such public interest law firm in Washington was recently responsible for stopping the Alaska oil pipeline which conservationists fear would do irreparable damage. The problem with forming such law firms is that they cost money. Nader has proposed, in speeches on campuses around the country, that college students pay $5 or $10 as part of each semester's general fee to set up their own public interest law firm. Instead of demonstrating, then, student groups with a gripe could use the courts to voice their objections. Nader's proposal is just getting off the ground on at least one campus, but the idea offers hope.

Original thinking like this and quick action by individuals and groups is what is needed if the world is to remain a fit place to live. Crowds, noise, dirt and air that stings the eyes are now commonplace characteristics of big cities. Nobody wants to live this way and large numbers of people have fled to the suburbs for escape. But they took with them their cars, their washing machines, their mania for convenience and their indifference. We can learn to be kind to our environment. We must. Or else.

Operation Brass Tacks

Frances Cerra is a graduate of Queens College of the City University of New York with a master's degree in journalism from Columbia University. She is currently consumer affairs reporter for Newsday, traveling to Washington, D.C. for stories as necessary. She is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma.

"You Can Learn To Be Kind To the Environment" is one of a series of articles prepared for sorority magazines by the Operation Brass Tacks Committee of the National Panhellenic Editors' Conference. Members of the committee are Ann L. Hall, Alpha Chi Omega, chairman; Marilyn Simpson Ford, Pi Beta Phi; Mary Margaret Kern Garrard, Kappa Alpha Theta; Florence Hood Miner, Delta Zeta; Caralee Strock Stanard, Alpha Delta Pi; Dolores Friess Stephenson, Theta Phi Alpha.

Permission to use the article or any portion thereof in other publications must be obtained from the Operation Brass Tacks Committee. Reprints of the article may be ordered at the following prices: 1-25, ten cents each; quantities above 25, five cents each.

The Operation Brass Tacks Committee is constantly looking for material for its program and welcomes submission of manuscripts or ideas for manuscripts.

Theater Major Handles Many Roles

Mississippi Beta's talented senior, Marte Rovelstad, is an asset to her chapter as well as to the University of Mississippi. Marte's days are filled with her theatrical work and extracurricular activities.

At Ole Miss Marte serves as vice-president of the University Players and last year was selected as one of the Top 20 Best Dressed Coeds. Her stage credits at Ole Miss include: Viet Rock, John Brown's Body, The Glass Menagerie, Cactus Flower, The Tender Trap, Fiddler on the Roof, A Perfect Analysis Given By a Parrot, and The Killing of Sister George.

Marte still finds time to be a dedicated and hard working Pi Phi. Last fall she sang and played her guitar for several rush parties, and she wrote, produced, and directed a new rush skit, "Oliver," which was a great success. She also has written two winning campaign songs for Mississippi Beta.

Marte, who is from Potomac, Md., transferred from Sullins College her junior year. At Sullins, she was vice-president of Sullins Players and a member of Delta Psi Omega, honorary fraternity. She also participated in the choir, Mardi Gras Court, May Court, was feature editor of "Sullins Reflector," and performed in No by GRETA ROBERTS, Mississippi Beta Exit, Night of the Iguana, and Picnic.

Marte's plans include entering graduate school this fall working towards a masters in theatre.

Marte Roverstad portrays Sister George in The Killing of Sister George.

Need Info On Ornamentals? Ask Kate!

In August, 1970, Kate Goldman Gholston, Alabama Beta, was graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in marketing and economics. She knew nothing, really, about ornamental plants. Now that statement alone probably doesn't do much for the reader. But then you're told that Kate, at the age of 23, is the only woman marketing specialist in Florida and one of only two in the United States. And her field is ornamentals!

Kate is responsible for providing a marketing news service to Florida growers and wholesalers, in relation to ornamentals, cut flowers, foliage plants, container nurseries and cut fern. Her responsibilities are the result of her position with the marketing division of the Florida Department of Agriculture. She spends a great deal of her time on the phone, gathering information from growers all over the state. This is then compiled and sent out as periodic reports to the growers and wholesalers, keeping them informed on prevailing prices, availability, and current market trends.

Mrs. Gholston was not only new to the job when she took it over, but the job itself was fairly new. She had a great time traveling through the state visiting growers. And, as most any woman knows, just let a man have the opportunity of explaining something to a woman, and she's a long way down the road to acceptance. Since Kate was not a horticulturist, those men thrived on their explanations, and she was on her way to really knowing her job.

Kate is actively involved in Pi Phi work, as well. She has served as rush information chairman and assistant Panhellenic delegate for the Orlando-Winter Park (Florida) Alumnæ Club. With all this, however, she still finds plenty of time to devote to her fairly new husband Joseph, and to all the indoor plants she has accumulated during her travels.

Slides, Music Are New Rush Ideas

by BETSY TAYLOR Tennessee Beta

For rush this year, Tennessee Beta tried a new approach in familiarizing the rushees with Pi Beta Phi. Rather than emphasizing entertainment, we tried to acquaint the girls with our sorority and its activities by means of a slide show. Instead of telling our story with words, we expressed it through music and pictures, illustrating aspects of the sorority that both members and rushees could relate to and enjoy.

This is one of the pictures used in the Tennessee Beta slide show. It was taken at the alumnae Christmas tea.

The main theme of the show was embodied in the song "Tapestry," by Carole King. The "tapestry" motif symbolized the spirit of our chapter-individuality and diversity working together to create a unique and special whole. We shared pictures of different Pi Phi functions that had gone on during the year. We included pictures of various members and matched their personalities with songs such as "Honky Tonk Women," "Sugar Magnolia Blossom," and "Hard-headed Woman." The show was meaningful, yet humorous. It was even interesting to us at the last party, after we had seen it five times, so our enthusiasm never lagged. Putting the slide show together was fun and it meant something special to each of us.

Best Pledge Shows Pi Phi Heritage

by MARILYN ROY California Zeta

Marcy Head was a Pi Phi before she knew she was a girl: her birthmark was shaped like an arrow! Fourteen relatives span through Pi Phi roll sheets. When Marcy joined the California Zeta chapter, as a junior transfer from Oklahoma, she thought Pi Phi was the best sorority on campus. She immediately added so much friendship and hard work to the house, that she was appropriately voted "Best Pledge of Phi Province." This occurred during the same month that Marcy's grandmother Helen Alford Johnston, Oklahoma Alpha, received her Golden Arrow for fifty Pi Phi years.

Marcy, daugher of Mary Johnston Head, Oklahoma Alpha, began her Pi Phi career as president of her pledge class. She was voted "Most Outstanding Pledge" and then went on to bigger and better things. She was elected scholarship chairman, appointed membership chairman, and was censor, with the highest grade point average in her pledge class. But that was not enough for Marcy. She accepted the job as chairman of our rush interest group, and hosted the best rush in four years.

At a luncheon last April in Los Angeles, Marcy was presented with $100 as an award for her Fraternity loyalty and service.

Sixteen Members Show Arrowmont Pride

Undaunted by a total membership of sixteen, the Antelope Valley (Calif.) Alumnæ Club decided to present a series of displays on Arrowmont at the Lancaster Public School District Office, the Lancaster Public Library, and Antelope Valley College Library.

It was the desire of this small group, whose ages span three generations, to inform the community of the fine training and interesting opportunities offered at Arrowmont. Under the enthusiastic encouragement of the club's president, Valerie Kroll Lunstrum, Idaho Alpha, and the philanthropies chairman, JoAnn Jones Morrison, Oklahoma Alpha, the club hoped to interest specialists in the area working with the handicapped, the retarded, the elderly, school children, as well as enthusiastic home hobbyists.

As Valerie said, "We are making the community aware of Pi Phi and Arrowmont and making ourselves available for those wishing Arrowcraft products. Our displays take relatively little time and can be done by a small group."

Through organized steps the club set up their displays on Arrowmont:

- Contacted locations where display cases were available—libraries, art galleries, recreation centers, art and hobby stores, craft centers, schools and colleges.
- (2) Scheduled times and places, making display times consecutive to avoid storage of handcraft items and assuring continuity of interest.
- (3) Located handcraft items from Arrowmont to use in display, either from local Pi Phi club members or others in the province. Also requested usable materials from Arrowmont, such as photographs and printed matter.
- (4) Arranged publicity by placing posters in store windows, churches, teachers' lounges, libraries, club buildings, retirement centers, and other areas where those interested in such handcraft training would take note. Newspaper and radio coverage was also used. Contact was made with other organizations, asking them to announce display dates and locations.

(5) Placed brochures and other handout materials at the display cases where detailed information on Arrowmont, including local names and phone numbers, would give further encouragement to those interested.

(6) Finally, scheduled were small teams of Pi Phis to set up the displays, then dismantle and relocate them.

Displays, such as the ones presented by the Antelope Valley Alumnæ Club can be elaborate or very simple. They can be scheduled for several days or weeks. They require few people to set up and are well worth the effort.

"This entire project has been so meaningful," said Antelope Valley's club president, "because we are proud of our Fraternity and it's philanthropies. Perhaps this idea will encourage other clubs, particularly small ones, to express their pride and devotion to Pi Beta Phi with other similar endeavors."

Luncheon Honors Mothers

"God couldn't be everywhere, so he invented mothers" . . . The girls at Pennsylvania Epsilon once again honored their mothers this year with a traditional Mothers' Day buffet. Sisters and pledges and their families gathered at the Nittany Lion Inn, a restaurant on campus, to share a delicious buffet luncheon. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon as it gave the parents a chance to meet one another and get to know what the chapter is doing. Once again Pennsylvania Epsilon carries on tradition!

Juniors Sponsor Easter Egg Hunt

by NATALIE PETERS ROLLIER Dallas Junior Day Club

Since many members in the Dallas (Texas) Junior Day Club have young children, we decided to do something for them. On March 28 we held our second annual Easter Egg Hunt at a park near the S.M.U. Pi Phi house. We sold $1.00 tickets to members' and friends' children to cover the expenses. The Tuesday morning hunt was limited to preschool age children and the little ones arrived all dressed up and very eager. Some carried baskets as big as they were!

Before the hunt began, the kids were entertained by a junior-sized carrousel, a clown, and a lady who made animal shaped balloons. We had already hidden about 2400 eggs which were individually wrapped. Since the children were so young, the hiding consisted mainly of scattering them on the ground. The area for the hunt was roped off by paper streamers until time to begin. Prizes were awarded to those children who found the five magic bunnies that were hidden with the eggs. Punch and bunny-shaped cookies were served to the children after the hunt. It was a big success and the mothers had as much fun as the kids!

Ingenious Pledge Plans Perfect Projects

by Scottie Thompson, Illinois Eta

As the only member of her pledge class, Nancy Wright, Illinois Eta, was having quite a time thinking of worthwhile pledge projects that one person could handle. But thanks to innovation and ingenuity, Nancy came up with some excellent ideas.

Since Nancy is interested in theater and spends a lot of time working for the theater department, she had noticed what a mess the scripts were in. So for her school project she spent many long hours catagorizing and making a file system for playbooks and scripts.

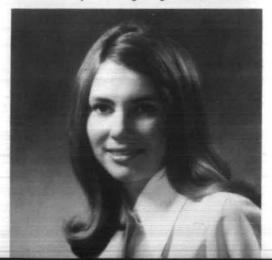

For a community project Nancy derived an idea that was particularly rewarding. She had read about a newly organized hospital near Litchfield, III., that badly needed equipment. With a little investigation she learned that much of the equipment could be purchased with Betty Crocker coupons, so she wrote a letter to the mother of each Illinois Eta, asking for coupons.

Finally, Nancy's house project both improved the house and surprised all the girls.

Nancy kept everyone in suspense until one night at 1 A.M. she secretly planted marigolds, tulips, and daffodils in the front of the house. Now the house looks as friendly on the outside as it is on the inside.

Lyn Schoenfeld, Missouri Alpha, was recognized for outstanding scholastic work and activities by the St. Louis Alumnæ Club with their annual Outstanding Sophomore Award. Lyn is in Angel Flight and Mo-maids.

Mrs. Vanasse Inspires Chapter

by MILDRED KEIR Maryland Beta

Maryland Beta welcomed in the spring semester with a visit from Grand President, Sarajane Paulsen Vanasse. The visit was Mrs. Vanasse's first trip to the East coast and Maryland Beta was more than proud to have her. Her presence alone was enough to generate spirited enthusiasm for the spring semester.

A notable experience for Mrs. Vanasse was touring the Smithsonian Institution and viewing the Hall of Presidents' Wives, featuring Mrs. Calvin Coolidge with her Pi Phi arrow. Maryland Beta wishes that all chapters could experience the delight of a visit from the Grand President.

On Founders' Day, Maryland Beta bestowed its first annual "Outstanding Alumna Award" on Marianne Reid Wild. In addition to being Grand President Emeritus, Mrs. Wild is a very active alumna. Maryland Beta thanks her for her constant moral support and encouragement throughout the years.

Our chapter has been very busy this spring! Many Pi Phis participated in the Panhellenic sponsored Bridal Fair. Rena Rodeman was chairman of the fashion show which boasted four lovely Pi Phi models.

The Panhellenic Outstanding Sophomore Woman was our own Dale Alicia Ganley. Dale qualified for this award for her leadership in Panhellenic as social and activities chairman, Panhel Presents chairman, Panhel banquet chairman, and as a member of the vice chancellor's entertainment advisory committee.

Maryland Beta's Outstanding Senior Service Award was presented to Cyndee Blaine. Cyndee has been a responsible and respected member of our chapter since her pledgeship.

Entertain Midshipmen

Anchors away! Michigan Beta got off to quite a start fall semester, when it opened its doors to the midshipmen of Annapolis. After the October football game, pitting Navy against Michigan's Wolverines, 200 midshipmen returned to 836 Tappan where dancing, snacking and flirting ensued. Needless to say the girls were perfect hostesses !!!

Pi Phi-Sigma Nu Community Project Entertains Children

by TERRY L. ALGREN, Illinois Beta-Delta

Snow almost foiled the plans, but Good Friday turned out to be a "good" day for the children of the Louise A. Harrington Home, and the Knox County Day Care Center. The members of Illinois Beta-Delta and Delta-Theta of Sigma Nu, Knox College, put their heads together to come up with plans for a Good Friday afternoon of games, "piggy-back" rides, songs, and play, topped off by a mad-scramble hunt for Easter eggs.

Illinois Beta-Delta joins efforts with a fraternity on the Knox campus each term to provide for a joint-effort community service project. Last spring, Junior Panhel and Junior IFC sponsored an Easter-egg hunt similar to the one held this spring for the Harrington Home children, and the Pi Phi pledges (now initiated) had such a good time at it that they suggested that the whole chapter work on the project this spring. And so, the Pi Phi-Sigma Nu effort was one of the spring service projects.

Approximately 40 children from the Harrington Home and the Day Care Center participated in the afternoon at the Sigma Nu house—and during that time, sixty peanut-butter-and-jelly sandwiches, fifteen gallons of Kool-Aid, and heaven-knows-how-many candy Easter eggs were consumed. After returning the children to their destinations, both the Pi Phis and the Sigma Nus were a bit bedraggled, but all agreed that, after all, it had been a good afternoon both for the kids and for themselves.

Receive Patchin Award

Pi Phis have been distinguished again at Oklahoma State University, having received the Dean Patchin Award, presented to the outstanding sorority on campus.

The award is based on pledge education, scholarship and educational opportunities, rush, public relations, member development, honors, and activities. The major emphasis was on the development of the chapter internally. With our new concept of I.C. '71 and re-evaluation of our goals and purposes, we were judged #1.

Mary McCleary has been hard at work preparing for the two-man show held in April. Mary was graduated in the spring from Texas Christian University.

Printmaker Exhibits In Two-Man Show

Texas Delta recently was privileged to have the art work of Mary Fielding McCleary, a senior printmaker from Houston, exhibited in a two-man show at the University Art Gallery. Included in the show were her recent prints in lithography, intaglio, and a series of drawings. Mary's prints have often dealt with nostalgic and photographic images. Recently she became involved in the exploration of images in her immediate environment. The show, which ran from April 4-14, was well received by both students and people in the community. Her work has been viewed on both local and national levels.

Although Mary has dedicated herself to her art, she has found the time to serve as rush chairman for Texas Delta. As a result of her discipline and zeal, she was graduated this spring with honors. She will continue her work in the fall at Washington University with a tuition grant.

A nostalgic, photographic image was used as the background for promotional material pinpointing the art show.

Pat Bercel Becomes Surprise Affiliate

On Tuesday night, Novenber 30, 1971, Mrs. Pat Wright Bercel, AAC chairman for California Delta, was invited by Chapter President Diane Pirie to come to the house for dinner and attend a special meeting of the active members. Any Pi Phi who has ever served on an advisory board fully understands that such a request can be a disturbing thought in view of the numerous matters that arise in the workings of a large group. It was therefore with considerable trepidation that Pat Bercel entered the chapter room when summoned by a censor. The AAC chairman did not find a busy meeting in progress as she expected, but rather she walked into a room set for an affiliation ceremony—her own!

Guided into the center of the candlelit room, Mrs. Bercel stood in complete amazement as she turned to find all the actives lined in a horseshoe singing "Pearls of Pi Phi." Our advisor was deeply touched when the president ended the song by announcing it was the desire of each girl to have Mrs. Bercel as an affiliated member of California Delta, Because Mrs, Bercel has captured the admiration and friendship of all our chapter members, to see her overwhelmed with the news made the ceremony a moving experience for all. Upon completion of the ceremony, she was presented with two gifts from the entire chapter-a hand-painted vase and a special plaque, designed by Diane Pirie, to commemorate her affiliation date.

To trace the events preceding this special affiliation, one must go back three years when Mrs. Bercel first came to the position of advisory board chairman. All those who worked with Mrs. Bercel were impressed by her energetic personality and helpful attitude, characteristics which have helped her form many mutual friendships. Since that first year as chairman, Mrs. Bercel has often confided that the U.C.L.A. chapter seems her true home in Pi Phi since she was never able to enjoy being an active at her original chapter, California Alpha. Pat was a new pledge when Stanford University abolished sororities, and when the initiation book of California Alpha was closed for the final time, the last name to appear on the pages was Patricia Wright. Pat's disappointment at not living in the sorority house as an active was by JANE STANSBURY California Delta enhanced, too, by the fact that her mother, Ruth Jones Wright, had shared many memorable times as a member of the same chapter. The California Delta members were really happy, therefore, to affiliate their friend and give Mrs. Bercel a bustling chapter house to come to and call her own.

Because the affiliation was such a unique event, two special guests attended the ceremony. One guest was Mrs. Ernestine Ohlson, Phi Province President, who first met Mrs. Bercel at Convention last July. That week Mrs. Ohlson became aware of Pat's predicament of not having an existing chapter when it required five days for Pat to finally track down the one other California Alpha alumna at Convention! Also joining in the special affiliation ceremony was Pat's good friend, Barbara Bassett, who once was the chapter president of California Delta.

In addition to her work for the UCLA chapter, Mrs. Bercel is president of the Los Angeles Alumnæ Club and has served as the club's program and Arrowcraft chairman. Pat's energetic personality is also seen in the interest she takes in her two favorite hobbies, bridge and paddle tennis. Pat has had the exceptional honor of twice winning the Los Angeles City-wide Bridge Contest sponsored by the Epilepsy Society. An avid paddle tennis player, she has also won the women's doubles championship in the Jack Kramer Far Western Paddle Tennis Tournament.

California Delta Pi Phis are extremely fortunate to have such an energetic and devoted woman to head their advisory board.

200,000 miles in just two years. But she does manage to work in an alumnæ club meeting from time to time, in Denver or wherever she happens to be. And, as Caryl says, "I stand as another 'Ring Chinger' who is finding alumna days as rewarding as those dear days at Florida State University."

Official Appointment Stems From Hobby

by CAROLYN CARLSON BLAKE Ridgewood Alumnæ Club

Whether she's making maps for her town of Tenafly, N.J., or writing texts for history sections in the Tenafly League of Women Voters' books on the town and schools, Virginia Tasher Mosley, Colorado Alpha, is busy keeping us aware of the past and changes in the present.

Virginia became involved in the hobby of map making (probably stemming from her geography major at the University of Colorado) and was officially appointed borough historian by the mayor of Tenafly in 1961. Virginia laments that she is one of the few official historians in New Jersey, which, unlike New York, does not require that a historian be appointed for every community. Though she does not receive a salary, Virginia does have a limited budget which enables her to attend historic conferences on county, state, and national levels. Virginia's latest appointment is to the local Revolutionary War Centennial Committee.

Virginia's historical duties include reporting to the community on her various conferences, as well as preparing historical exhibits. She developed an historical slide collection for the borough which was the basis for introducing such a project in the schools.

The slides are available on loan and have been shown to various groups such as the Scouts, women's clubs, and hospital therapy groups. Virginia was Tercentenary chairman for Tenafly in 1963-64, and she wrote the text for the 75th anniversary booklet "1894-Tenafly-1969." Her writing talent landed her the task of preparing two history sections in the League of Women Voters books on the town and schools.

Virginia was a trustee for the Bergen County Historical Society, belongs to the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Bergen Community Museum, New Jersey Historical Society, National Trust for Historic Preservation, American Association for State and Local History, and Bergen County Mineralogical and Paleontological Society.

Virginia Tasher Mosley

Once a historian, always a historian. When the Presbyterian Church of Tenafly wanted their church history covering one hundred years done, Virginia was the natural choice for chairman. She has also served as publicity chairman for the Presbyterial.

If this isn't enough to keep a mother of four busy (now she's a grandmother too!), we must remember she's a Pi Phi! Actually she's a Pi Phi daughter and sister—her mother being Louise Neil Tasher, Colorado Beta, and her sister being Margaret T. Smith, Colorado Alpha. She is a member of the Ridgewood (N.J.) Alumnæ Club, was a delegate to the Victoria Convention in 1964 and served on the Convention Daily at Swampscott (1958). She attended the first Swampscott Convention in 1947 and the Asbury Park Convention in 1930.

Among many fond Pi Phi memories are those of hearing Carrie Chapman Catt speak to the New York City Alumnæ Club and knowing Libbie Brooks Gaddis and her family.

To the Ridgewood Alumnæ Club, Virginia brings a warm friendliness and helpfulness that bridges all generations. She's always an interesting conversationalist and the club's favorite historian!

Parents' Day Is Casual and Fun

by PAULA LOFTON Georgia Alpha

Georgia Alpha held its annual Parents' Day on Saturday, April 29, 1972. Invitations were sent to all of the parents and our plans included having open house from 1:00-5:00 o'clock. From 3:00 to 4:30 we would have a picnic on the lawn with our Washboard Band playing for entertainment at 3:30. We tried to consider those who would have to drive for long distances and plan accordingly.

Saturday came and with it came fun and laughter. The parents enjoyed seeing the house, their daughter's room, and becoming acquainted with many of her closest friends. They thought the Washboard Band was delightful and the picnic was a refreshing idea. It was exactly what we had wanted—casual and cordial.

Parents' Day provided an excellent opportunity for our parents to take a closer look at Pi Beta Phi—to see the endearing relationship of sister to sister and to meet the lady who takes care of us all, our housemother, Mrs. Smith. It can be written down as a success and will continue to be an annual gathering for the parents and daughters of the Georgia Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

Poli. Sci. Major Gets First Hand Training

In May, Washington Beta welcomed back Mary Gallagher after her semester spent at Washington's state capitol. Mary, a political science major at W.S.U., was selected to serve on the Public Relations Planning Committee at Olympia. For this, she will receive twelve credits, and a keen preparation for her future in this area. Mary has always been avidly involved in student government, yet has maintained her 3.9 G.P.A. Law School is possibly in the future for Mary. But with her enthusiasm, all doors are open to this energetic Pi Phi, no matter what she chooses.

Beverly Griggs Hudson

Graduate Student Is Outstanding Alumna of University of Nevada

Beverly Griggs Hudson, Reno (Nev.) Alumnæ Club, has been named one of two outstanding alumni of the University of Nevada for 1971.

As a collegian and a member of Nevada Alpha, Beverly was a song leader, a cheer leader and rally chairman. She was politically active in the Young Republicans and later in the Nevada Republican Party. She is a former Miss Reno and was first runner-up in the Miss Nevada pageant. She has been active with that pageant since 1952 and is now the judges' chairman.

Bev has been a member of the Executive Committee of the University since 1961 and has always accepted committee assignments and seen that the project was accomplished. She has served on many important committees for the University and in the Alumni Association.

In addition to being a wife and the mother of two daughters, Beverly is the Director of Publications and Public Relations for the National College of State Trial Judges, and is a graduate student in the journalism department of the University of Nevada.

Named Carnival's Lady of the Realm

Ann Crigger, Arkansas Alpha, was appointed to serve as a Lady of The Realm for the Mid-South Cotton Carnival held annually in Memphis, Tenn. Ann, a sophomore at the University of Arkansas, is currently involved also as vice president of mental advancement for her chapter.

Ann Crigger, Arkansas Alpha

During the Mid-South Cotton Carnival, which is designed to promote the cotton industry nationwide, Ann participated in a busy week of activities. She was presented as a Lady of The Realm at the Crown and Sceptre Coronation Ball in April and later in May while coming down the Mississippi River on a barge. She was also honored at the Maid of Cotton Luncheon and Cotton Carnival Parade held during that week.

Receives Scholarship

Mary Murphy, Tennessee Delta, has been selected as the fifth woman ever to receive the Robert E. Talley Memorial Scholarship in journalism at Memphis State University. She has a 3.23 grade point average, is majoring in magazine writing and studying news writing in her journalism courses at MSU.

Golden Arrows Share Memories At Founders' Day

by TERESA BROWN, Vermont Beta

1972 found the Vermont Beta chapter celebrating a memorable Founder's Day with several local alums. The celebration began with a buffet dinner with sisters, pledges and alums. Program chairman and chaplain, Barbara Molter, shared Vermont Beta history, recalling the early days when Grace Coolidge, Ada Hurlburt, and other of Vermont's first Pi Phis met on Pearl Street in Burlington before the house was constructed in 1938. Two of our 50-year alums shared their experiences here as Pi Phis, reminiscing of gala balls, pledging ceremonies, and the Pi Phi friendship that continues today. Two 50-year alums, Mrs. Flossie Hard and Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, had daughters who were outstanding Vermont Beta Pi Phis and campus leaders.

The Founders' Day celebration culminated in a candlelight ceremony around an arrow cake. Twelve candles were lit commemorating each of our national founders. The most touching moment occurred when everyone sang "Pi Phi Lights Anew," and "My Pi Phi Girl." We all share in congratulating Mrs. Flossie Hard, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, and Miss Barbara Hunt, three Vermont Beta Golden Arrows.

Millikin Sisters Are Real Thing

We may all be sisters through the bonds of wine and silver blue, but ties between sisters at Illinois Eta go beyond that. Our family tree has seven branches especially reserved for the real sister teams and more for legacies.

To start with, we have three mom-daughter combinations. Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, Grand Corresponding Secretary, has two daughters, Nancy and Diane, who are Pi Phis here. Kathy Smetts follows her mother, Mrs. Nancy Smetts, our former province president. Debbie Moore and newly initiated Deanna both follow their mother, Mrs. Joyce Moore.

As for other sister teams there are Kathy and Pat Gardner, Mary Ann and Debbie Simpson, Melina and Laurie Ahlgren, Trecie and Jody Weller, and Kathy and Lynn Daschler.

Remember

When the small disappointments in life combine and you think, "If only these problems weren't mine."

If you want to believe that you aren't alone or need calming down to a neutral tone, Then smile, my friend, for as long as you care to trust or confide in us, we'll be there. When you're feeling so low that the sky disappears and the air is heavy with unshed tears, If moments you wish for don't come to pass or if the things people say seem to be crass, If life seems to be just another cheap thrill and you want to reach out and touch something real,

Then is the time to touch our minds Whatever you need, we'll try to find. If the day is as sharp and bright as a knife and you want to surround yourself with life To walk in green meadows and wade through small streams and when day is done to say "pleasant dreams." Then is the moment to reach for our hands to know and realize that we understand. Throughout your joys, your sorrows, your life, If you need a friend in joy or in strife, If you want someone who loves and cares, Remember, my sister, that we'll be there.

JANET JONES New Mexico Beta

Win Special Award

by VALERIE BROWN, Texas Gamma

On April 15, Texas Gamma ended weeks of preparation when they competed in Texas Tech's annual University Sing. Singsong, as it is commonly called, is a competition among the Greeks with their presentations of a series of songs. Dancing, costumes, and sets are necessary for a good seven minute, thirty second show. Piano and flute accompanied the Pi Phis as they did "Memories of Rogers and Hammerstein." Songs from State Fair, Oklahoma, South Pacific, Carousel, The King and I, and The Sound of Music were performed with ballet and jazz numbers. The Pi Phis competed without a fraternity and received the Judge's Special Award for the third year in a row, for the best overall production.

Jana Bullard, Texas Gamma, has received many honors, including the Dunlap Voice Award Scholarship with which she is attending Tech. A rising sophomore, Jana is a member of the first Tech choir and the Collegium Musicum Madrigals. In March, she competed in the Miss Lubbock contest where she won the talent award and was named second runner-up.

Tutoring Small Children Brings Special Rewards

by HEATHER HITCHCOCK, Vermont Beta

How can reading, writing, and arithmetic be made more exciting to children these days? One way, Vermont Beta girls have discovered, is through tutoring at one of the local children's centers in Burlington, Vt. Once a week, the girls go to the Sara Holbrook Center to help children with special scholastic problems. More important though, the girls are learning more about children through personal guidance and finding it a very rewarding experience.

Furthermore, the Vermont Betas have tried to get other Greeks on campus involved in Sara Holbrook. Last Halloween, the Pi Phis presented a party for the children with Sigma Phi Epsilon—both the students and the children wore costumes and it was hard to tell who had more fun! In addition, at Christmas time Pi Phi and Sigma Nu gave a party for the Sara Holbrook kids and gave each a gift donated by local merchants.

Jam-Jam Trophy Is Pi Phi Repeat

by NANCY NORMAN Louisiana Beta

Jambalaya Jamboree or Jam-Jam, as it is traditionally called, is an annual event on the L.S.U. campus which gives each group, independent or Greek, a chance to compete with and against each other. It could have originated only in Louisiana because it is a Cajun-Creole type festival. Each group entering provides entertainment, such as a short play or a 1950's rock'n roll band, a fun-and-games booth, or serves food usually native to Louisiana, such as oysters or crawfish. There are pirogue and crawfish races, a Mr. and Miss Jam-Jam are chosen, and there is a crawfish eating contest.

This year our skit was "All in the Tribe," a satire on ethnic groups centering around Columbus' discovery of America. The chairman was Sandy Hebert and other Pi Phis in the cast were Bonnie Trinka, Sally Craig, Kathleen Loe, Mary Helen Burns, Lynn LaBreche, Lane Gisclard and Eva de Laureal.

For two years our chapter, in collaboration with Lambda Chi Alpha last year and Kappa Alpha this year, has captured first place in entertainment—the trophy to take home from Jam-Jam. It takes a lot of work and even more, cooperation and patience from the entire chapter, to be successful. It is something to enjoy and another way of strengthening Pi Phi bonds.

City Panhellenics

Included in these activities are making bean bags, joining functions for underprivileged children or senior citizens, touring campus or local points of interest, or just having fun on picnics or whatever the members enjoy doing together.

Give imagination free range and the Ph Factor will soar—success and enthusiasm will be the reward.

Will City Panhellenics meet the new challenges of the seventies, the new directions being taken by the College Panhellenics, the new opportunities open to the alumnæ?

Fraternity officers and NPC officers know that vision and energy will be equal to the potentials and the challenges of this decade.

Texas Gamma's new lodge on Greek Circle.

Texans Occupy Permanent Lodge

by VALERIE BROWN Texas Gamma

A nineteen year old dream of Texas Gamma has come true! In June, the Pi Phis moved into their permanent lodge at Greek Circle, adjacent to the Tech campus. Twenty fraternities and sororities have bought acre lots there for their new chapter houses. Although the lodges at Tech are used only as meeting places, a couple will live there as caretakers. One of the new initiates is being married this fall so she and her husband will take care of the lodge for the next few years.

The lodge has taken much work and the house corporation has done a fantastic job. There is a lighted parking lot in the rear and a built-in sprifikler system for the lawn. The French country-style lodge is done basically in gold with accents of blue. The interior consists of a large kitchen, entertainment area and an adjacent terrace to be built later. A small bedroom or conference room with a private bath is upstairs. Two stairways lead to the spacious basement which is the chapter room. A convenient work-room adjacent to this, for painting and building, will come into much use, as will the rest of the lodge. The long awaited dream has come true.

In Greek Who's Who

Mississippi Beta is very proud to have seven sisters in Who's Who Among Greek Fraternities and Sororities. These girls are: Jeani Duckett, Linda Ritchey, Marte Rovelstad, Ann Latture, Laurie Blackwell, Ethel Seay, and Becky Runyan.

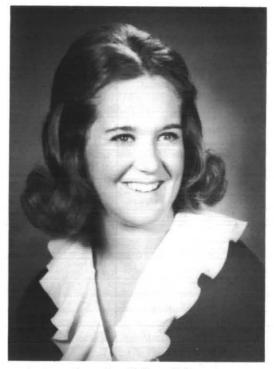

Susan Barnett Earns Honors and Titles

by JANICE HOGLE, Texas Delta

Texas Delta experienced a great loss this spring as one of its graduates, Susan Barnett of Odessa, Tex., has given much not only to the chapter but to T.C.U. as well. She served as a member of CESCO, a Drill Commander in Angel Flight, treasurer of the Physical Education Professionals, and a mainstay of the chapter intramural volleyball team. She is a physical education major and plans to teach in Dallas.

Throughout her college career, Susan has been recognized for her leadership ability. As a freshman she represented her dorm in the University House of Representatives. Her sophomore year she was again chosen as a representative from the Pi Phi house and was elected by the T.C.U. student body to the office of Secretary of the House for 2 terms. She became a member of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education sorority, and Delta Psi Kappa, physical education sorority, where she served as reporter and sargeant at arms. Susan was elected to Mortar Board, was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, was chosen the Most Outstanding Junior Woman, and was runner-up to the 1971 T.C.U. Homecoming Queen.

In the chapter, Susan has been the pledge scholarship chairman, a member of Arrow Board, philanthropies chairman, house manager, and membership chairman. This spring at Founders' Day she received the Amy Burnham Onkin award. The friendship and memories she leaves behind are both a reminder to us and a tribute to Susan.

Chapter Visits Ease Lonesome Blues

You don't have to be a traveling graduate counselor to visit other Pi Phi chapters. Three Illinois Eta Pi Phis, Jan Hill, Nancy Soukup, and Claudia Roberts, recently recognized this by visiting the chapters at the University of Maryland and William and Mary.

During Millikin University's Winter Term the girls did an individual project with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Hyattsville, Md. The first night in Maryland they worked up the courage to call the Maryland Beta Pi Phis and told them that three lonely Pi Phis from Decatur, Ill., were there for the month. The next day they found themselves timidly knocking at the Maryland Beta door, but soon were put at ease by friendly, smiling faces! The Maryland sisters showed their friendship by including the girls in many activities, such as a weekly trip to the "Vous," a "Blue Party," given for their pledges, a Lobster Thermador dinner, a study break for pizza, and generally just talking and sharing ideas in Pi Phi. Some of the girls were even on hand to help Nancy celebrate her twentieth birthday at the Hill's home in Adelphi.

The girls also made a visit to Virginia Gamma at William and Mary during rush preparations. Again this was a good time for the sharing of ideas as they helped make decorations and were included in a popcorn party.

Spring Derby Fosters Greek Spirit

One of the Greek traditions on the University of Georgia campus is the Sigma Chi Derby each spring. The derby consists of a week of social events and competition between participating sororities, sponsored by Sigma Chi fraternity. Only the pledges and initiates are allowed to participate in actual events, but other members may help and support the participants. This year all of the sororities on campus participated in the derby, and the competitive spirit between sororities was heightened by the fact that a trophy was to be awarded to the sorority displaying the most spirit.

At the beginning of the week, the Sigma Chi fraternity financed a barbecue for all sororities in the derby. This occasion gave the sororities the opportunity to meet the Sigma Chis and to enjoy the company and ideas of other sororities. At this function all the rules and restrictions for derby contestants were specified. The barbecue began a week filled with hours of practice, mad scrambles, and much fun. Each sorority selected two representatives to compete for the title of "Miss Modern Venus." These girls attended dinners and met with the fraternity members on different occasions. The other participants in the derby were selected to enter different competitions and all members made signs supporting the derby.

The first event began the day after the barbecue. All sororities congregated at the Sigma Chi fraternity house to get as many signatures as possible from each Sigma Chi. At the end of the day, three names were drawn from a derby and sororities received double points for each time these signatures appeared. Points were also given for the highest number of names appearing the most times. The sorority with the most points won this event.

The next event began at 5:45 A.M. the following morning. All participants received clues concerning the whereabouts of derbies hidden all over the city by the Sigma Chis. The clues were not obvious ones, so each sorority divided into groups, each taking a certain number of clues. All derbies turned in before 8:00 A.M. were given double points. At 8:00, a second set of clues was presented. The event ended at 1:00 P.M. and a sorority was given points for each derby that it turned in.

The biggest event was Derby Day. This was

by DEBORAH C. WILLIAMS, Georgia Alpha

the day that the sororities had been practicing for all week. Events included a tricycle race, tug-a-war, an egg throwing contest, and skits produced by all the pledges of each sorority.

Although Georgia Alpha did not win the derby, it placed in many of the events and was proud of the spirit and good sportsmanship exhibited by its participants. The derby required much work, practice, patience, and good will, but the overall effects were worth the confusion and frustration. Each sorority was knit more closely as a group, but at the same time, each cooperated with and worked with other sororities to make the derby a success. The derby brought out competiveness among the sororities but also brought out good will and good sportsmanship. The fellowship, fun, and thrills were well worth the work and frustrations of the derby.

Chapter Campaigns In Student Body Election

by GRETA ROBERTS, Mississippi Beta

Spring means election time at the University of Mississippi. This spring Becky Runyan, one of Mississippi Beta's outstanding members, ran for the position of secretary of the Associated Student Body.

For two days Pi Phis were seen all over campus holding signs and handing out hand bills to passing students. They were always ready to back their candidate and encouraged all students to get out and take an active part in their student government. In the end, all the hard work paid off, for Becky was elected to the office.

Becky, a very deserving candidate, is a sophomore majoring in Liberal Arts. Not only is she very active in Pi Phi, but she also gives much of her time to campus activities. These include past assistant student body secretary, officer in Angel Flight, Cwens, Alpha Lambda Delta, Committee of 100, University Dancers, University Scholar, Honor Roll, and secretary of various student body committees. Becky has served as a member of Junior Panhellenic, is our present rush chairman, and she was recently elected to Who's Who Among Greek Fraternities and Sororities.

Scholarship Award Honors Teacher

by DORRIS KARCHER WELLING Little Rock Alumnæ Club

For the Little Rock (Ark.) Alumnæ Club, Pi Phi's Founders' Day is a very special and important event each year. This year we celebrated the founding of I.C. Sorosis-Pi Beta Phi with seventy members present.

Joining us for dinner at Trapnall Hall were Arkansas Beta actives and pledges who presented a program honoring the Founders, and guests from the Grand Prairie Alumnæ Club, Stuttgart, Arkansas.

Our fifty year honoree this year was Frances Sue Edwards East, of Little Rock, initiate of Arkansas Alpha. Frances Sue has spent her years in Pi Beta Phi by working "overtime" for Arkansas Alpha, helped with the colonization and installation of Arkansas Beta, then became very active on house board. Jane Miller, our club president, presented Frances Sue a wine carnation tied in silver blue ribbon and a golden carnation to attach to her pin, and then an arm bouquet of wine carnations tied in silver blue ribbon was given by Arkansas Beta president, Shari Yeargain, to Mrs. East. Sitting with her mother was Susan East Gray, a 1954 initiate of North Carolina Alpha, where she was president of the chapter.

A surprise recognition was made to our Miss Pauline Hoeltzel when Lynda Blodget Forsythe, member of the Arkansas Beta Alumnæ Advisory Committee, presented Miss Hoeltzel with a scholarship plaque, reading "Pauline Hoeltzel Scholarship Award." On this plaque, which will hang in the Arkansas Beta Lodge, will be engraved the name of the Arkansas Beta Pi Phi with the highest grade point each year. The first to be listed was Christine Carrado with a 3.6 grade point. Christy received a recognition pin which she will wear until her predecessor is named next year. Miss Hoeltzel is a retired associate professor of German and English and chairman of the division of humanities at UALR where Arkansas Beta is located, and was a fifty year honoree in 1966.

Another outstanding Pi Phi of Arkansas Beta was named by AAC this year for the first time. This young lady is presently chapter vice president, is president of the UALR Panhellenic, has worked diligently in her chapter, school, and on school committees, and has the honor of being the 1972 youth chairman of Easter Seal Drive. Jeanne Turnbow received a Pi Phi bracelet which she will wear for the next year.

We are very proud of our fifty year members and wish to identify each one here: Margaret McCain Campbell, Virginia Alpha; Jeff Murphy Dorough, Coro Lee Reed Earl, Frances Sue Edwards East, Ethel Estes Hancock, Miss Pauline Hoeltzel, Ruth E. Pye King, Miss Florence Kruger, Thelma Reed Milliden, Miss Mildred Moss, all Arkansas Alpha; Tillie McCammon McFaddin, Texas Alpha; Frances Howie Hall Wadsworth, California Alpha.

Egg Hunters Win

Pi Phis at Auburn University have discovered a new talent—hunting Easter eggs. Each sorority on campus entered four girls in an Easter egg hunt sponsored by Pi Kappa Phi. Alabama Gamma won second place for finding 15 eggs, including two golden ones. For their efforts, they received a trophy complete with a dyed Easter egg.

Library, Study Hall Are New Installations

by SHELLEY HENDRICKSON Oklahoma Beta

Oklahoma Beta's emphasis on learning as a dynamic exchange between individual and environment has been incorporated into the life style of our house. We opened a new study hall where all could go to have quiet and concentration. We installed a library, complete with books, magazines, encyclopedias, and dictionary. We have a teacher file with comments on classes, teaching methods, course material, and approach. This helps each individual to take courses which are best geared to her style of studying and her approach to course material. We also provide a list of the actives' majors so that pledges or other actives can get assistance or advice. Finally, our file of requirements for majors gives each the opportunity to plan her course of study.

In order to stress the types of activities and experiences that constitute learning, we have created a new office of head of cultural activities. She is responsible for keeping the chapter informed on cultural events in Stillwater, Oklahoma City, and Tulsa. We have also emphasized the importance of learning outside the classroom by having a series of dinners and guest speakers. One program consisted of a speech on self defense, while another was a discussion of the counselling office at O.S.U.-its trials, its undertakings, its workings, and its importance. We had a scholarship dinner combined with a speech on woman's role in the career world, exemplified by a personal involvement in veterinary medicine. One dinner was held in honor of Black Heritage Week and another had faculty members as guests.

Our attempts to emphasize the individual's responsibility for her own education have taken the form of abolition of almost all required study hall hours. We have found that enforced study in a specified location is not as conducive to learning as individually planned study.

The new scholarship program resulted in the pledges having the top grades on campus, and the members in having the highest grades we've had in several terms.

Seventeen Pi Phis Are On Sweetheart Courts

by SALLIE PAQUETTE, California Gamma

With twelve national sororities and twentyfive fraternities, the Greek system is strong and active on the University of Southern California campus. California Gamma is proud to announce the outstanding number of sweetheart titles held by our gals for 1971-72: Alpha Tau Omega crowned Cyndi Shearer as their Queen for this year. Beta Theta Pi announced Diana Billings as Beta Girl in their fourth annual contest. Linda Everson is Queen of Delta Sigma Phi. Kappa Alpha Order chose Jill Kakionzes as KA Rose Queen and Irene LaVigne as one of the six princesses. Alison Pickens is Kappa Sigma Sweetheart with Sallie Paquette and Randee Shrader as princesses. Two of the Phi Delta Theta's princesses are Ann Marie Pianata and Amy Keck. Nancy Stein is Sigma Alpha Mu Sweetheart, and Dannine Trapp, USC songgirl who was Kappa Sigma Sweetheart last year, is the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. Phi Kappa Tau has three Pi Phi princesses, Dana Webster, Kat Sullivan, and Laura Gibbons. In addition to this Tina Wood was just crowned Delta Tau Delta Queen and Marji Bailey is a princess.

Iowa Alpha Raises $2,000 In Marathon For Campus Courts

by GAYLE EILBRACHT, Iowa Alpha

Iowa Alpha recently held a tennis marathon to raise money for new tennis courts for their campus at Iowa Wesleyan College. Their small chapter of thirty-two girls played tennis continually for 169½ hours when they reached their goal of raising $2,000.00. Two girls played one hour shifts which meant that each girl played about every fourteen hours.

Publicity was willingly given by local newspapers and radio stations. The townspeople also backed the girls which was a tremendous help.

Iowa Alpha president, Mary Davis, commented that "all members of the sorority felt the marathon was worth the time and we have all earned a great sense of accomplishment from the project."

The Gruesome Tale of Iowa Zeta's Quiz Kids

MARY ANNE BEATTIE, JOCELYN FURTWANGLER, AND SALLY NAREY

You all may have heard of the Three Musketeeresses Furtwangler, Narey, and Beattie the Fearlessest. One cold winter night they drove out in the snow To find wealth and honor on the local quiz show.

The cream of the crop of the Pi Phis they knew They just HAD to conquer downtown Waterloo. For a two hour drive they were a tense bunch Eating cupcakes and Hersheys from E's neat sack lunch.

And then they arrived at the great TV station; Right in their hands was the fate of the nation. Chewing their fingernails right to the quick, They tortured their minds to make the knowledge stick.

The quiz host was handsome, he tried to be cheerful "Smile, please, ladies, and do not be fearful." There sat the enemy, the fierce Jaycee-ettes The audience was teeming, placing their bets.

All of a sudden the room was too bright There was the signal; Action ! Camera ! Lights ! The questions were loaded, the competition high "What is the capital of Mu-gung-ho Tai ?"

"How long can a crocodile stay under water?" "What is the attention span of Maylasian otter?" "Who ran the 440 in 38.4?" Barney Zuffel, of course, from Baltimore.

"Who won the Cy Young Award this fine year?" What the blank, blank, please is Cy Young? A beer? "How many molars has a Nepalese moose?" The contestants were vicious, they played fast and loose.

At the finish; exhaustion. Both teams were dead. And the wicked Jaycee-ettes, they came out ahead. The gallant Pi Phis were saints in defeat They took their 25 dollars and bolted for the street. They got into their car and drove straight through. You might say for this one: They met their Waterloo.

"At this time, when our world is beset with generation gaps, racial violence, and a not-too-welldefined morality, a fraternity offers a standard of conscientious, upright living . . . the opportunity to participate in a group which has as its main goal the building of better men who will themselves build a better world." ROBERT E. LAUE, Sigma Pi.

Pledges Repeat Traditional Deed

by JANE KENTCH, Pennsylvania Gamma

In the 1950s, the pledges of Pennsylvania Gamma kidnapped a sister and tied her to a flagpole in the middle of the Dickinson College campus. The freshmen pledges of 1969 had heard vague rumors about the mischievous deed and decided to revive the tradition. After a brainstorming session the pledges came up with an almost unbelievable plan-they would take their pledge mistress Lucy to Harrisburg on Saturday morning. But that was not the worst of it. Lucy would end up on the steps of the capitol building in her bathrobe at 8 A.M. with only nine pennies. She would have to find her own way back to Dickinson. Unfortunately for Lucy, all went according to plan. Yet she managed to borrow a penny and soon called a Pi Phi sister to come to her rescue. That was the start of the revival of Pennsylvania Gamma's kidnapping schemes.

At rush during the next few years the sisters often retold the infamous Harrisburg Kidnapping. Other pledge classes attempted to stage unique abductions but the one scheme which really caused a stir was that of the pledge class of 1971. That pledge class roused their pledge trainer, Marti, at 6:30 A.M. on a spring Saturday. Clad in her pajamas and raincoat Marti boarded a plane for Cleveland where her pinmate went to school. Except for the rude awakening, Marti enjoyed her weekend in Ohio.

With such schemes the pledge classes of Pennsylvania Gamma are continually striving to devise diabolical kidnapping plots—each one trying to outdo the previous classes. Each pledge mistress now lives in fear, carries a concealed dime and a list of phone numbers, and is never seen alone with a group of pledges unless she has been KIDNAPPED!

Three Study Abroad

Pennsylvania Epsilon has been learning about Europe through the correspondence of Kathi Brady, Lanie Bevan and Sue Graham who have been studying abroad since the beginning of April. Kathi is studying in Rome, Italy, Lanie is in Barcelona, Spain, and Sue is in Cologne, Germany.

Chapter Activities Include Fun Ideas

by BARBARA MANSFIELD Colorado Alpha

Colorado Alpha has enjoyed an active and successful spring semester. In January and February we held weekly "firesides" in the living room, complete with refreshments. These gettogethers provided a study break as well as a fine chance for the girls to relax and talk. We also held our annual Ski Weekend.

Informal rush was casual and relaxed. Our most successful party had a Mexican theme, including Mexican food, decorations, and appropriate costumes. After dinner we all assembled in the living room to listen to folk music performed by several Pi Phis and our "hashers." Later in the month we held a rush party at a nearby park where we had a football game and frisbee contest before sitting down to a picnic dinner.

Spring activation was held in March and twelve girls were initiated. Activities lasted into the early hours of the morning.

The month of April was a busy month for the chapter. There was a food coupon sale to raise money for the Boulder Day Nursery. Later the pledges had a sneak dinner for the actives at a nearby restaurant. They took the evening's dinner, leaving a big sign in the dining room telling actives where they could retrieve their meal. The annual Founders' Day luncheon was held in Colorado Springs and attended by all the active Pi Phis and many of the alums.

Recently we had a party for graduating seniors and a special cooky-shine for our past president, Pat Kane. A short history of her life was given through pictures and stories, and she was presented with a gift.

The remainder of the semester was jammed full of activities and exciting plans. The weekend of April 29 was "Mom's Weekend." All the mothers were invited to come to the house for a Saturday luncheon, evening at a drama production with their daughters, cooky-shine late that night, and a Sunday brunch.

Our annual spring formal was held the first weekend in May. One of the final activities for the Pi Phis this semester was the traditional scholarship banquet where the girls with the highest grade averages were honored.

Miss Rodeo Oregon To Wed On Horseback

Miss Rodeo Oregon is a Pi Phi. She is 21 year old Sharon White from Portland State University.

Sharon was crowned Miss Rodeo Oregon last July at the tryouts in Vale, Oregon. Her reign ends this summer and has included appearances at most of the rodeos in the northwest, and hostessing Portland's indoor rodeo. She is riding in style on her new saddle and wearing the new attire that the rodeo association presented her.

The highlight of her reign was participating in the Miss Rodeo USA tryouts in Las Vegas last November. Sharon placed sixth out of 23 contestants but felt that even though she lost she has had some rewarding experiences.

The result of her greatest experience will come when she is married on July 22. She met her fiancee, Sam Johnson, at the Madras Rodeo last August. Their wedding will be a little out of the ordinary because they will be exchanging vows on horseback at Mt. Hood and Sharon plans to wear a white western suit. She hopes to Oregon Delta re wedding party on horseback but have the entire wedding party on horseback but she is having problems securing a minister to perform the ceremony. Since both Sharon and her fiancee have spent most of their lives around horses and they met at a rodeo it seemed natural for them to get married on horseback.

Sharon has been participating in rodeos for about nine years and received her first title as Washington County Sheriff Posse's Junior Rodeo Queen in 1968. In 1969 she was a princess on the Sheridan Rodeo Court and in 1970 reigned as the St. Paul Rodeo Queen.

Sharon explained that in any rodeo court competition contestants are judged on personality and appearance as well as horsemanship. At Las Vegas, in the Miss Rodeo USA tryouts, she had to model her own outfits and participate in various personal interviews where she was asked both general and political questions. The horsemanship competition consisted of goat tying, barrel racing, pole bending, and pattern riding which consisted of figure eights and other fancy riding.

It Is Nice To Have A Man Around The House!

A man living in a sorority house? Neverunless he's a house parent. Martin and Sue Nadelman, Charlotte, N.C., spent the past year as house parents at Vermont Beta.

Martin was a graduate student at the University of Vermont earning his masters degree in student personnel. He did his undergraduate studies at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute majoring in economics. Susan spent the year working in Burlington. She was a home economics graduate of Winthrop College in Rock Hill, S.C. Both Sue and Martin were graduated in 1971.

Martin had had previous experience as a dorm counselor in college, but living in such a situation was a first for Sue. She found the companionship and friendship of girls close to her own age most enjoyable, and she also enjoyed not having to cook. According to Susan, "The food was great!" Martin was impressed with the informality of the setting. They enjoyed beby TERESA BROWN, Vermont Beta ing included in activities such as spring formals and rush functions.

Martin and Sue agree that houseparents create a convenient situation for all. Both found that our local alumnæ were extremely helpful and emphasized the many house improvements made which often go unnoticed.

Although with us for only one year, Martin and Sue have happy memories of their stay in Vermont. Southerners at heart, they did have a time adjusting to our brisk northern weather and long winters, but both feel that Vermont is one of the nation's most beautiful states.

The future is bright for the couple. Martin has an excellent job at Atlantic Christian College in North Carolina (a little closer to home for the Nadelmans) in student personnel and a chance to work on his doctorate. We all join in wishing them the best of luck and happiness next year and always, as well as thanking them for being with us in 1971-1972.

ATTENTION ALUMNAE:

Can you help? Our collegiate chapters need voluntary information about prospective rushees more than ever before. In some instances, your advance letter or Rush Information Form may be the only way a chapter can learn of girls for consideration. Your assistance is vital! If you know of a girl planning to attend a school where there is a Pi Phi chapter, will you please forward information without delay. Don't wait for the formal rush period because most chapters today have informal and open rush periods as well.

Any alumna may be a personal reference for any girl, regardless of where the girl lives.

Please fill in as much information as available on both sides of the form.

Political Activist Plans Law Career

Mary Alford, Colorado Gamma, has been active and very interested in politics since childhood. She has often canvassed from door to door, and was only $1\frac{1}{2}$ when she began to circulate petitions. She is also busy attending rallies and functions.

She has met such people as Senator Mc-Govern, President Johnson, Senators Muskie, Kennedy, Harris, Percy, Stevenson, and Bayh, Congressman Wilbur Mills, National Democratic Chairman Larry O'Brien, Mayor Daley, and Governor Kerner.

During the 1968 presidential campaign, she was active at the county level and worked as an assistant to the precinct committeemen. She attended the 1968 National Democratic Convention in Chicago, and also debated for Humphrey in front of her high school student body.

When in high school, she won an essay contest which gave her a free trip to Washington D.C., on the REA Youth Tour. Mary is a political science major, and plans to go on into law school.

She has been active in politics at Colorado State University also. She is vice president of the Young Democrats club, and co-coordinator for Edmund Muskie to assist with the Teff Foundation this summer at C.S.U.

She has done such things as lobby for better farm prices with the Farmers Union during its national convention in Washington, D.C. in 1971. She has typed letters, addressed envelopes, and telephoned voters for various candidates seeking office, since 1964; has driven cars to get voters to the polls on election days, since 1968; has been a poll watcher and election judge in 1970 and 1972; has attended every state Democratic convention since she was 6. She also hopes to attend the National Democratic Convention in Miami Beach this month. Next fall she has secured a job actively campaigning in her home state of Illinois.

Mary is active as a member of the Colorado Century Club, a Democratic club that sponsors receptions for all of the national Democratic figureheads who visit the state.

In addition to all this, Mary is a very active member in Pi Beta Phi, and we are all very proud of her.

Pledges Auction Grab Bags As Money Maker

One of the best money-making projects ever undertaken by an Arkansas Alpha pledge class, and one of the easiest, netted our fall pledge class approximately $70.00. It was planned for our annual Pledge Mother-Pledge Daughter Christmas Party, and incidentally, served as the entertainment. inexpensive present and wrap it so as to conceal the contents. Also, a few expensive presents were added to increase the value of the group. Then, two fraternity men auctioned off these grab-bags to the actives of the chapter.

Thanks to the generosity of the bidders, craftily encouraged by planted bidders, the project was successful . . . and fun.

The idea was to have each pledge purchase an

Amateur Golfer Is Leading Contender

Marcia Thayne, 23, Utah Alpha alumna, is the state's top amateur woman golfer, and is the leading contender in this summer's State Amateur, City Parks, and Pax Invitational tournaments.

When Marcia was 20, she took first place in the state amateur tourney for the first time. She has won many area tournaments, and is a three year winner in the three above named tournaments.

Marcia started golfing when she was 14. The first tournament she won was the All Church. She played for the University of Utah and traveled to Colorado, Idaho, and North Carolina for the National Collegiate tournament. She also coached the University women's golf team for two years.

Mary Best, Colorado Gamma

Panhellenic Leader Wants Greek Unity

by CAROL CASSON Colorado Gamma

Colorado Gamma is proud of one Pi Phi in particular, Mary Best, a junior from Elkhart, Ind. After attending Convention last summer, Mary came back enthusiastically ready to put I.C. '71 into action. As chapter rush chairman, she incorporated I.C. into rush, as we did away with costumes, decorations, and skits. Instead, we had much more relaxed parties which enabled us to become better acquainted with the rushees.

Near the end of fall quarter, Mary was elected Panhellenic president and has now had the opportunity to install the ideas of I.C. '71 into the entire Greek system of C.S.U. Her main goal is to achieve Greek unity on the campus. She has innovated many programs to make Panhellenic a coordinating body, exchanging ideas between houses to aid in such programs as scholarships, philanthropies, etc. In order to increase communication between Panhellenic and I.F.C., she established a new office, that of Inter-Greek Coordinator, who acts as a tie between the two groups. Mary has also worked to increase the Greek system's involvement in C.S.U. and the community by having Panhellenic take on a major portion of the cancer drive in Ft. Collins. By acting as co-chairman of College Days, she worked especially hard to involve independents with Greeks.

Delegates Present Updated Rush Plans

by MELANIE HALL Manitoba Albha

Manitoba Alpha Pi Phis were ably represented by Donna Cronmiller and Donna Hedley at the University of Manitoba's annual Paphellenic rush workshop. The Pi Phi delegates were very much in evidence as they took charge of the meeting and laid out a new program for the major rush period.

The Pi Phi reps were revealing a plan formulated by an entire chapter which was very anx-, ious to reckon with all the difficulties encountered in previous rush periods. They wanted their representatives at that important meeting armed to the teeth with pertinent information and data. Donna and Donna mentioned the importance of using such available aids as the Operation Greek handbook that Pi Phis had received at the instigation of Traveling Graduate Counselor, Kay Holmes. Unfortunately, the other delegates were in the dark about such information, but the two Pi Phis were able to make each other sorority consider the ramifications of their proposed system. At that particular gathering, the Pi Phis engineered some daylight into an outdated plan of rushing, with the promise of future changes as the sorority delegates become convinced of the feasibility of Manitoba Alpha's plan.

The realistic notions of Manitoba Alpha regarding rush techniques are presently being heeded at the U. of M. With the presence of two Pi Phis on the new Panhellenic Council, Manitoba Alpha is assured of having ample means of communicating with all sororities on campus. Jill Hart, Panhellenic rush chairman, and Gail Osland, Panhellenic publicity chairman, control two of the most important and influential offices on the entire council.

Three On Paper Staff

Three Illinois Beta-Delta Pi Phis have been very active on the weekly college newspaper, The Knox Student, this year. Terry Algren, a sophomore, was managing editor of the paper during Fall and Winter terms, and was news editor spring term. Marie Winters was layout editor for the year and Gloria Pyrka joined the production staff of the paper this spring.

"Good Grades Are Bustin' Out All Over" Is Springtime Theme

by MARGIE ROBERTSON Arizona Alpha

The chapter's new scholarship program this year has been quite a challenge. We no longer hold formal study tables. Actives have no hours at all, and pledges are required at least five hours of individual study at the house during the week. At the beginning of the week, they are each given a card, which they fill out according to the number of hours they study at a time, and for each block of time the card is signed by an active. This is basically the same program used by Caroline Greene last year when the house was number one on campus.

The theme of the first semester scholarship dinner was "We've Only Just Begun," with the decorations centered around the number "1." This semester the theme was "Good Grades are Springing Up All Over," with a springtime theme. A bulletin board, entitled "Pi Phi Lights," displayed all of the girls in academic honoraries. Signs were put up with a picture of an angel with the caption, "The Pi Phi Angel is watching, are you studying?" Although there is no more published "D" list, we tried to keep people on the ball through private conferences. We feel this program has been successful since we again were high on campus last semester with a number three on campus rating.

24 Make Dean's List

West Virginia Alpha is very proud to have 24 members on the fall 1971 Dean's List. These girls helped earn for the chapter the honor of having the highest grade point average on campus for all the sororities with a 3.05 average. The list includes Maryanna Angotti, Carolyn Bachman, Kathy Basil, Jackie Bryan, Anne Bucher, Anne Coombs, Denise Crites, Ann Cunningham, Debbi Dunning, Margaret Foster, Becky Garret, Debbie Garret, Diane Griffin, Peggy Haberstroh, Susan Jarvis, Bonnie Mc-Keever, Janice Offit, Mary Jo Porterfield, Hilarie Price, Trish Rice, Jeanie Schnably, Pam Sheperd, Peggy Tennant, Ann Wilson.

Happiness

Happiness is being a Pi Phi

Learning to aim high

For the best things in life.

Happiness is 80 sweet sisters

Sharing and caring what happens to you.

Happiness is having a friend when you're down and out

And happiness is feeling cared about.

Happiness is having a social,

Kidnaps and candlelights and roadtrips at dawn.

Happiness is wearing an arrow,

Finding Big Sisters at the end of a string.

Happiness is talking and playing and laughing loud

And happiness is a Pi Phi walking proud.

Happiness is shoulders to cry on

Friends to rely on too

And happiness is sisterhood

And bonds of wine and blue

And Pi Phi too.

LALLIE WEATHERLY Georgia Alpha

Presented to sisters by Winter 1971 initiates. May be sung to the tune of "Happiness Is" from "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown."

Volunteers Help At Easter Seal Shelter

Arkansas Beta's community involvement this year has mostly been oriented toward helping handicapped and underprivileged children.

Probably the largest project was the work with crippled children at the Easter Seal Shelter. Pi Phis volunteered a few hours of their time every week to aid the children in learning arts and crafts. One Pi Phi, Jeanne Turnbow, was also chosen to head the youth segment of the Easter Seal fund raising drive in March. With Jeanne, other members helped in the Easter Seal Telethon, answering telephone money pledges and keeping tally on the money raised.

Singer Represents School In Pageant

April 15 was a memorable day for all Vermont Beta Pi Phis. Our nominee for Miss University of Vermont, Carrie Towne, was chosen to represent the University in the Miss Vermont Pageant held April 29.

Carrie is a third-year nursing student from Underhill, Vt. One of her most striking characteristics is her beautiful voice. In the pageant she sang and played guitar as she has done so often for Pi Phi functions as well as for informal gatherings.

Vermont Beta is proud to announce their second Miss Vermont candidate in the past three years.

The Good Ole Days Live Again In Texas

A spring calendar filled with exciting and entertaining events kept everyone in Texas Alpha busy. The season began with a TGIF (Thank Goodness It's Friday) party at the Delt house February 4. Everyone had a great time getting to know some new Greek friends.

As always, both Pi Phis and Kappas looked forward to Monmouth Duo. This year the gala affair was held on February 19. The conversation and company combined to make an unforgettable evening for Pi Phis, Kappas, and their dates.

February 26 was initiation, with the banquet following the next day. Kate Bower was awarded the pledge class scholarship award; Georgia Graham was honored as the best intramuralist, and Lucy Crow as named best pledge.

With the University of Texas Round-Up in early April, so came the excitement of helping the Sig Eps build a float for the parade. During Round-Up week was Greek Sing-Song. Pi Phis did a rip-roaring rendition of songs from the '50s... and placed second in competition!

Theme for the Spring Casual was a return to the '50s, with a be-bop band, "Daddy Doo Wah and the Waddelles." It was a fun party—bobby socks and all!

University of Texas Pi Phis had a great spring of 1972!

CORRECTION—It was erroneously reported in the Spring ARROW that Mrs. Barbara Holbrook Frey passed away.

Lost Pi Phis!

EDITOR'S NOTE: Somewhere along the way, many Pi Phis have been misplaced—at least insofar as the Central Office address list is concerned. It is important that all Pi Phis be located, and in an effort to find the lost members. The ARROW will publish a list, by chapter, each issue. If the reader knows the current address of one of those listed, please forward that information to Mrs. Ralph Schulenburg, Director of Central Office, 112 S. Hanley Road, St. Louis, Missouri 63105.

NOTED & QUOTED

"Man's behavior is always below his ideals. Where his ideals are low, his behavior will be lower still. Sweep away his ideals and we go back to a barnyard of morality and a jungle of ethics, and out of this comes an unworkable society." JENKINS JONES, Editor & Publisher of the Tulsa Tribune.

"Unless you view your chapter and fraternity as worthy of your loyalty, unless you have pride in your affiliation and make this fact known, unless you know why you belong, membership will have no appeal to others." KATHLEEN DAVIS NYE, The Trident of Delta Delta.

"Fraternity is a Dream. Sheltered by a house, decorated with glories of trophied achievements, residing far beneath those fifty faces in fifty souls." JON A. NIELSEN, Lambda Chi Alpha.

"It is ironic that a society which is looking increasingly for love and fulfillment, for a greater closeness and brotherhood among all men, should also be a society which is rejecting fraternities, whose very foundation is based upon such love and closeness among men." STEPHEN BULLOCK, Sigma Nu. Quoted in Banta's Greek Exchange.

"Granted that the main purpose of any fraternity should be to provide fun and friendship, pledge programs should also strive to develop character and unity among pledges. They can be used to build mature, responsible men." DAVID R. CUTRIGHT, Sigma Chi.

"Scholarship is that measure of a fraternity's life which gives the best clue as to how all other things are going." DR. WILLIAM T. GILLIS, Theta Chi.

"The moderate student and citizen, the one interested in progress, in change under the law, in making the university and our society responsive to the needs of the day, represents our hope for tomorrow." J. EDGAR HOOVER, Kappa Alpha Order.

A university library is "a source of ideas for change and a workshop in which they may be developed and refined. It is for problem-solvers who want to help design the new society." THOMAS R. BUCKMAN, Director, Northwestern University Libraries.

"The establishment of fraternities as centers where a diversity of people can conduct a diversity of dialogues would be one of the most innovative educational steps in this century." DR. FRANK A. ROSE, President, University of Alabama

"For a generation fed up with adult hypocrisy, one is struck by the amazing amount of effort put in by many young people to look like what they ain't." DR. FREDERICK D. KERSHNER, Delta Tau Delta.

"The object of education is not manpower, but manhood—The man who is truly educated, rather than narrowly trained, is ready for anything—He is prepared by this education to go on learning." ROBERT MAYNARD HUTCHINS.

"The barriers that separate actives and pledges must be reduced. As the pledge-active relationship improves, the more successful the chapter will be." BOB MOSBORG in Triangle Review.

"To change ritual, one must understand it, and a close study of our Rituals will most certainly result in the keen awareness that the principles upon which we have grown for 124 years are not only still relevant but vitally necessary in our searching world." DR. WILLIAM R. HAUSER, Phi Gamma Delta.

"Sororities were not founded as 'problem solving laboratories,' but rather for the purpose of giving young women a means for living in an environment of high ideals, with emphasis on personal growth and sincere service to mankind." CARYL LENAHAN, Operation Greek

"We need a whole lot less of how to put 2 and 2 together and a whole lot more of how to put you and me together." DR. DORIS M. SEWARD, University of Kentucky

"I tell young faculty not to worry about campus politics, to work first on teaching and research. That's the real business of the University." DR. LEON MANDELL, Emory University

"I have watched this generation and concluded that most of them are fine. A minority are not and the trouble is that the minority threatens to tyrannize the majority and take over. I am aghast that the majority 'takes' it and allows itself to be used." PROFFESSOR K. ROSS TOOLE, University of Montana, in The Beta Theta Pi

"The sorority complements your personality. It gives you the opportunity to develop in all areas. It does not ask you to conform but requests that you contribute your individual personality to make a stronger organization." Atlanta City Panhellenic Newsletter

"The heritage of the past is the seen that brings forth the harvest of the future" Inscription on ARCHIVES BUILDING, Washington, D.C.

"Every fraternity embodies its tenets, its principles, its ideals in its ritual, and no fraternity which is not founded upon the desire and determination to build character has any right whatever to exist." Kappa Alpha Journal

"The student is transient at best, is usually unversed in matters of finance and teaching and is incompetent to take over, even for a short while, the administration of the institution." JAMES E. MCCLELLAND, Director Maintenance and Construction for St. Louis Public Schools. The Unicorn of Theta Xi

These Are a Few of Our Favorite Things

Pledge swaps and beer busts And formals in winter Soft candlelights for that time When he pins her. Scholarship banquets where we laugh And sing, These are a few of our favorite things.

But most important to last your life through Loyal sisterhood that is faithful and true I.C. '71 will begin things anew Come take that step forward Pi Phi waits for you.

Rush is hectic, This we know Because we've been there too, But now we're so happy, Just ask any guy And He'll recommend Pi Phi. BETTY YANN, Alabama Beta

> The Prophet has told us: We must not eat From one loaf alone But from two-You and yours, Me and mine, Sharing mutually, infinitely. I have convinced myself: I must not need you All of the time But most of the time Because I need myself too-And you need yourself For us to be able to need each other. So this is my attitude Because I know That if you leave You'll take the loaf And the love And leave me with none

So for now, I tell myself I must be free With my own life But you can have a part of it, If you'll take it. JULIE BRIER, Kansas Alpha

PI BETA PHI IN EUROPE

September 12-October 3, 1972

For all Pi Phis and friends.

A sparkling trip through Spain and the North Coast of Africa, leaving New York Sept. 12 on overnight flight to Madrid. Three full days in Madrid, with a side excursion to Toledo for a visit to the home of El Greco and the magnificent 13th century Cathedral. On Sept. 16, it's on to Don Quixote country and Cordoba, staying overnight in this distinctly Arabic city famed for its exquisite filigree and embossed leather work.

Granada is the next stop where the beautiful Alhambra is included in the visit. On to Malaga, for sightseeing, and then to Torremolinos, playground of the international set, for two nights at the Hotel Riviera.

Sept. 20—Cruise from Malaga on the blue Mediterranean thru the Straits of Gibralter to Tangier, where it's sightseeing in the famous Casbah and native market places. Leave the following day for a four-day motor tour of North Africa, including Rabat, capital of Morocco; Fez, the most romantic city on earth; Merakech, the rose pink city; and Casablanca, city of mystery and intrigue.

Three days in the lush Spanish Canary Islands and two days in Madeira are on the itinerary before jetting to Lisbon for this fabulous tour's final two days!

COST FROM NEW YORK $1139.30 DEPOSIT $50.00 (due when reservation is made)

Final payment due August 12, 1972.

For reservation or information write to: Mrs. Bob Brewer, 525 Westview Drive, Manhattan, Kansas 66502.

To Pi Phi Parents:

Your daughter's magazine is sent to her home address while she is in college and we hope that you enjoy reading it. If she is no longer in college, however, and is not living at home, please send her new permanent address to Pi Beta Phi Central Office, 112 South Hanley Road, St. Louis, Missouri 63105.
