"LADYBUG LADYBUG"

Watercolor, 23 1/2 X 17 1/4

Helen Wagstaff Paul, Utah Alpha

From an early age, my mother instilled in me and my three siblings a great appreciation of art and a passion for books. Some of my fondest memories of childhood are of hours spent atop our storm shelter in a weathered structure affectionately called the Hobby House – a youngster's utopia! There we were encouraged to be creative. Never were our efforts squelched. Each piece of art, a polished rock, hand-thrown piece of pottery or paint-by-number portrait met with rave reviews and produced hundreds of "oohs" and "aahs." We were told, and believed, we could do or create anything.

If paradise could not be found in the Hobby House, I was certain to find it within the bound pages of a book. The same woman who nurtured our creative spirits, fed our minds with line upon line of literature. Bookshelves in our home were always bulging, and trips to the library or local book mobile were among the best excursions.

Only in recent years, have I learned the value of these experiences. In my naivete, I did not realize a childhood was lived any other way. Art and literature were simply a part of me. A favorite author, Harper Lee ("To Kill A Mockingbird"), put it best. She said, "Until I feared I would lose it, I never loved to read. One does not love breathing."

I was reminded of my own creative genesis while working on this issue featuring Pi Phi artists and authors. Our goal was to highlight those members who, by vocation or via hobby, fashion works of art. In response to notices placed in the last two issues of The ARROW and other requests, we were inundated with materials. Books, manuscripts, slides of art, as well as original pieces, filled my office. I was held in awe by the talent of our members and the diversity of their craft.

With this issue we pay tribute to those who enrich our world by what we see, read and feel. May they touch or inspire the artisan or writer in each of us.

A UNIQUE PROFILE OF TALENT WITHIN PI BETA PHI

Jill Kerns Halvorsen

*California Zeta
Igo, California*

This printmaker and mixed media artist, a native of Eugene, Oregon, currently works at the Zeno Vatali Studio in Iga, California. She studied art all over the world: Italy, Brazil, Japan, at the University of California Santa Barbara, the University of Oregon and finally completing her degree in printmaking at California State University at Chico. Jill has been selected to exhibit in regional, national and international juried shows, winning numerous awards. Her public and private collectors span the nation and include the Governor of Idaho, Cecil D. Andrus, former Secretary of the Interior and actress Barbara Rush. "What interests me the most," says Jill, "is the mystery of things, the flawed nature of perfection - how we try so hard to establish order, only to end up spreading havoc instead."

Evalyn Prouty Hickman

*Colorado Alpha
Fort Collins, Colorado*

For thirty-five years, Evalyn taught art at Colorado State University. She is now Professor Emeritus and retired from teaching and able to realize a lifelong dream of being a full-time artist in her home studio. Her studio includes a papermaking center, an intaglio press and a small gallery. She makes handmade paper, a piece at a time, in a raised bathtub on screens. She then carves images into various materials which are run through the press over the handmade paper, making her "handmade paper embossings." She treats each piece as an original work, though images are used again in various ways and with altered colors and textures. Most of the flavor of the works reflect Southwestern and Native American influences.

Helen Wagstaff Paul
Utah Alpha
Salt Lake City, Utah

Utah artist Helen Paul has resided most of her adult life in Salt Lake City, Utah. Although she has traveled and painted in China, Japan, Europe, Mexico and Israel, her main source of inspiration comes from the simple beauty of everyday life. She loves to paint fresh bouquets of flowers, her flower garden, antiques, collections of toys and furniture and the pottery she has collected on her travels. She is noted for her use of color, both bold and soft pallets, and her application to a diverse range of subject matter. Because of her impressionistic fresh style, Helen has found her speciality in the watercolor medium. Helen's original works have been accepted in numerous juried exhibits and have graced many galleries and professional establishments. Her prints and cards are meeting tremendous success through world-wide distribution. Her designs are also being used on needlepoint, puzzles, dishware, T-shirts, shopping bags and eleven calendars.

Carolyn McPeck Dubiel
Oklahoma Beta
Sussex, New Jersey

Carolyn attended Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, received her bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State University and her master's from the University of Pittsburgh. Marriage to a career Army officer meant many moves throughout the United States and Europe. Upon her return from Belgium, Carolyn began drawing and painting in watercolor and casein, winning many prizes. Work in collage began with her husband's retirement and their subsequent move to northernmost New Jersey. Carolyn commented, "Collage has given me the freedom to create works of art that I could not find in traditional painting. By using a palette not associated with the usual painting mediums, I have discovered an artistic signature."

Cynthia Moore Fehr

Kate Anderson Askew

Tennessee Beta
Little Rock, Arkansas

Kate and her father Philip S. Anderson have joined together as author and illustrator to create "Eli the Elf: A Christmas Story." Written in verse, the story tells of a young elf named Eli P. Duff who "thought that his best was not good enough." Kate, who is a part-time securities trader at Stephens Inc. in Little Rock (the largest investment-banking house off Wall Street), and the mother of two, has been writing verse since she was a child. She did not begin writing for others' enjoyment until she was an undergraduate. Kate holds a degree in English literature from Vanderbilt University.

Sarah Breck Bertram

Ohio Epsilon
Toledo, Ohio

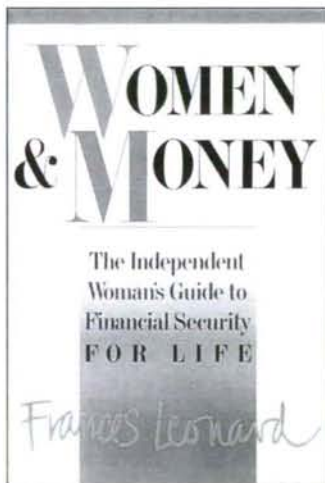

A charter member of Ohio Epsilon, Sarah graduated from the University of Toledo and was winner of the Gold Medal Activities Award. A former teacher, she was voted Outstanding Teacher of the Year in 1970. When school was in recess, the author worked as a freelance fashion model for fifty years. But Sarah claims the highlight of her life was her marriage to the Reverend O.H. Bertram. Her book, "Pastor Honey and Angel," (their nicknames) offers a unique, behind-the-scenes portrait of life with this special spiritual leader. Sarah takes the reader on a journey from the television studio in Toledo and the halls of government in our nation's capital to the Holy Land and across Europe.

Frances Leonard (Best)

Oregon Gamma
Placerville, California

Frances Leonard is a former legal counselor for the Older Women's League in Washington, D.C. The mother of three, she took the bar exam on her 40th birthday. She is a frequent contributor to the OWL Observer and AARP's Modern Maturity on financial and policy issues concerning older women, and lives and practices law in northern California. Her book, "Women & Money – The Independent Woman's Guide to Financial Security for Life" focuses solely on the financial needs and concerns of midlife women. Frances offers readers a consultation on such issues as retirement benefits and pension plans, property rights and divorce laws, health insurance needs, and laws regarding wage, age and sex discrimination.

Linda McReynolds Bryant

Ohio Beta
St. Louis, Missouri

Linda Bryant, together with Diane Pearl and Ellie Williams, authored "99 Great Answers to Everyone's Investment Questions." The book, now in its second printing, offers helpful advice and information about the more complex aspects of investing successfully. Topics discussed include: choosing a financial planner, buying and selling any investment, IRA and pension plan rollovers, and stocks, bonds and mutual funds. Linda comments, "The purpose of the book is to arm people with the questions to ask about money... of themselves and their advisors, so they can protect themselves." The three authors are partners in MONEYWISE, a St. Louis-based financial planning and education company. They are also adjunct professors at the University of Missouri, where they offer financial management workshops. They currently publish MONEYWISE Update, a financial newsletter, and are popular speakers and seminar leaders on financial issues.

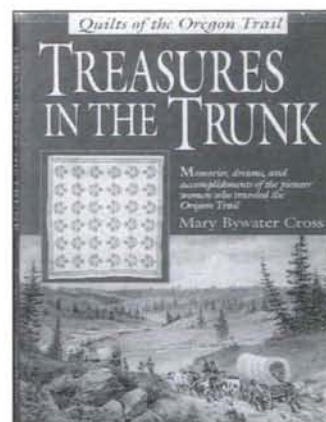

Dana Russell Carlsen

Wyoming Alpha
Loveland, Colorado

Inspired by her daughter and the difficult choices facing today's children regarding alcohol and drugs, Dana Carlsen began to write books for children. In her first book, "Creative Coloring for Healthy Living: Mommy, What are drugs?" Dana and her daughter wrote a story about the difference between prescriptions and narcotics and why drugs and candy are not the same thing. "Mommy, What is Smoking," her second book, explains the harms of smoking and how children can talk to parents who smoke about quitting. Her third book focuses on the dangers of alcohol. All her books are published by American Outreach of Colorado Springs. Dana continues to think of new ideas for her books including inhalants, AIDS education and minority education.

Mary Bywater Cross

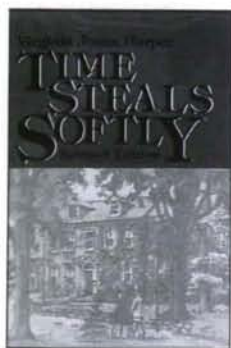

Iowa Zeta
Portland, Oregon

Mary is a quilt researcher with specialized interest in women's history. A graduate of the University of Iowa, she also is a board member of the American Quilt Study Group. In celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Oregon Trail, Mary wrote the first quilt book about the quilt-maker's experiences on the journey west. "Treasures in the Trunk; Quilts of the Oregon Trail," honors the courageous pioneer women who traveled the Oregon Trail and their quilts. Beautifully illustrated with more than 100 color and 50 black and white photographs, it recounts the stories of the women whose quilts are featured, including their reasons for traveling west and the conditions encountered. The quilts are visual records of women's experiences along the trail.

Dallas, Texas

With a bachelor's degree from Washington University and a master's degree from Columbia University, Marian has written "Read to Succeed" and several other textbooks on the craft and uses of writing. Following a 15-year tenure as an associate professor of English at St. Louis Community College, she taught rhetoric and composition and also tutored law students in writing skills as an instructor with Southern Methodist University from 1981 to 1986. Her Response Writing program has been used by Baylor Hospital's Eating Disorder Unit since 1986, applying current research in linguistics to help patients express themselves on such issues as anger, lying, control, denial, verbal and physical abuse, and more. She found this work so fascinating that she stopped teaching, took early retirement, and has devoted her professional time since to that work.

Florence Brown Mason
California Beta
Carmel, California

Florence Mason's interest in people and words has turned into a second career: author. Her book, "To Love Again: Intimate Relationships After 60," reveals what seniors think about friendship, love and marriage. She takes the reader out to meet many people - most of them single, some recently married, all over 60. Their stories are funny, poignant, sometimes sad. Divorced with four children to raise, Florence worked for nearly 40 years as a secretary, social worker and finally, a hospital personnel director. Florence notes that writing, in one form or another, has been a part of every job she has had. After retiring to live in Carmel, Florence wrote for the Carmel Pine Cone newspaper for five years. Now, she volunteers her time at the local hospital and the Monterey Bay Aquarium. And she writes.

Marcia Mobley Mitchell
Missouri Gamma
Tulsa, Oklahoma

Marcia presented her recently published book, "Milestones & Miracles" at the Tulsa, Oklahoma Alumnae Club's November meeting. In 1970, Marcia established a Christian developmental center for visually impaired children and infants, a first of its kind in Tulsa. The center, now known as the Little Light House, is the major beneficiary of the Tulsa Alumnae Club's annual fund-raiser "Hot Tamale Hoe-Down." In its 20-year history, the center has expanded to serve the special needs of hundreds of children with a wide diversification of disabilities. Marcia still serves as the executive director of the Little Light House, and her book chronicles the miraculous development of this ministry with compelling stories of struggle and victory filled with hope, guidance and faith.

Judith Crowe Odom

Alabama Alpha
Johnson City, Tennessee

Judith Odom recently received the Friends Arts and Humanities Achievement Award for her outstanding contributions to the Johnson City, Tennessee community. The award is presented annually by the Friends of the Johnson City Public Library. The Friends held a reception in her honor at which Judy read some of her poems. Judy is acclaimed as an inspirational English teacher and an accomplished author. She has twice received the Sherwood Anderson Award for short stories and has contributed works to many publications, including "Homewords: A Book of Tennessee Writers" and Now and Then magazine. Her new book of poetry is entitled "Blossom, Stalk & Vine."

Anne Hatfield Oliver

Louisiana Beta
Atlanta, Georgia

Anne Oliver's professional career as executive director of fashion, public relation and protocol for Saks Fifth Avenue was preceded by seven years as a top high fashion, commercial print and television model who appeared in advertisements in Vogue and Bazaar. Anne introduced the Old World finishing school concept to the contemporary world by founding L'Ecole des Ingenues and L'Ecole des Executifs finishing schools. Eagerness for her social know-how and her philosophy for being poised, polished and beautifully prepared for life, have persuaded Anne to pack the essence of her knowledge into "Finishing Touches." Ann Oliver is fast becoming the nation's most noted expert on today's manners and etiquette, having attained cover story status in The Wall Street Journal for her endeavors in the etiquette education field and having pioneered the return of graciousness to both the drawing room and the boardroom.

Betty Reed Packard Voris

Indiana Alpha
San Francisco, California

As a management consultant, Betty J. Packard has been the creative force behind specially designed training and interpersonal development programs. In addition, she is the author of two books. As a speaker and writer, Betty's talents have sent her to three continents and 17 countries. Highlights of Betty's career include a total of 12 National Federation of Press Women writing awards and 88 Indiana and California writing honors. She received the 1989 California Press Women's Sweepstakes Award for her writing and editing skills in its annual communications contest. In 1975 Betty was awarded the Adela Rogers St. John HONEYCOMB award as the outstanding Hoosier woman in journalism. She also has been honored for her contributions to life underwriters associations. Betty was a 1992 Carolyn Helman Lichtenberg Crest Award winner.

Joyce Lester Pond

North Dakota Alpha
Bemidji, Minnesota

Joyce comments that as a married student, she was a pioneer in the changing lives of women. The Pi Phi at the University of North Dakota welcomed her and she was initiated in 1948. She began teaching music, band and vocal in 1958. For many years, she and her husband participated in the Grand Forks City Band and the Grand Forks Symphony. A children's literature fan, Joyce wrote a book of children's poems one summer. The book sat on a shelf for almost five years. In 1989 she took early retirement and met up with another teacher who volunteered to illustrate the book. "Lost in the Corn" is filled with nostalgia about rural North Dakota. She and her husband spend several hours each week promoting the book.

Lauren Brown Smith

Ohio Beta
Dublin, Ohio

A new journal packed with old-fashioned feeling is now available through the efforts of writer Lauren Brown Smith. Messages From the Heart is the publications name. On the pages of this quarterly journal's first three issues, have appeared heart-warming letters, stories, diary entries and poems. Lauren, who is editor and publisher of the journal, invites readers to submit entries and people have responded. Mothers have sent letters to children who are going off to college or across the country to be married. There is a letter from a man who wrote to his wife back home while he was a prisoner of war. There are accounts of exciting trips, emotional heartaches, joys, challenge, wonder and dreams.

Marjorie Shepherd Turner

Texas Alpha Sisters, Oregon

Marjorie Turner studied economics at the University of Texas where she was a Texas Alpha and elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She earned her Ph.D. in economics there in 1954. She taught at the University of Arizona, Tucson and San Diego State University where she took her turn as department chairman and director of the Institute of Labor Economics. In 1963, Marjorie and her husband took sabbaticals at Cambridge University in England. This was the beginning of her interest in the work of both Joan Robinson and Nicolas Kaldor, the subjects of books in 1989 and 1993, both written after she became Professor Emeritus. "Joan Robinson and the Americans" chronicles the life and times of one of the best known economists of recent decades. Her latest book, "Nicholas Kaldor and the Real World," spans that man's economic theory and policy.

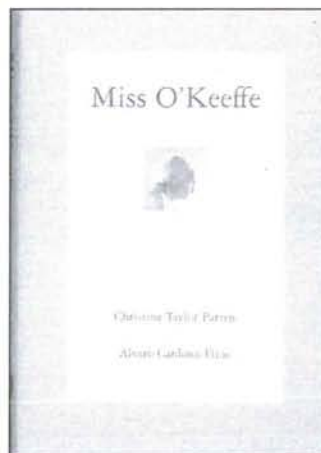

Mary Kapp Allton
Indiana Gamma Wailuku, Hawaii

Author and illustrator of four books, "Color Your World Like a Rainbow," "Dear God," "Reflections on Beauty," and "Good Morning, Morning," Mary Kapp Allton enjoys painting, music (she plays the organ, violin and piano and composes and arranges for chorus, orchestra and vocal and instrumental solos) and writing both poetry and non-fiction. For many years she was accompanist for musical shows that her husband directed. After moving to Maui she continued that activity, as well as becoming a musical director for three or four shows per year produced by the Maui Youth Theatre and occasionally other groups. In 1988, from the Hawaii State Theatre Council, she received the Pierre Bowman Award, given for a "lifetime of achievement which reflects courage and commitment to quality and, through whose efforts the life of theatre in Hawaii has been uplifted." In 1992 she was the recipient of the 1st Annual Lifetime Achievement Award from Maui Community Theatre.

Christine Taylor Patten
Oregon Alpha Ranchos de Taos, New Mexico

In 1983, when Georgia O'Keefe was 96 years old, Christine was hired as one of the people who took care of her. An artist herself, Patten served as nurse, cook, companion, and friend to the formidable old woman. "Miss O'Keefe," co-authored by Christine with Alvaro Cardona-Hine, is an intimate account of the 18 months of Christine's employment and offers a rare glimpse of O'Keefe's daily life in the days when she could no longer see well enough to paint. Christine is currently writing the text for "Georgia O'Keefe: At Abiquiu," which will be published in 1994. As an artist, Christine has been studying wave movement, wave form, the abstract simplicity within movement, the complexity of movement, the paradox of scale in relationship to understanding movement. Since the early seventies, she has exhibited consistently throughout New Mexico and in California.

Elana Hanson
*Illinois Zeta
Divide, Colorado*

A graduate of the University of Illinois, Elana Hanson is featured in the book "Horses and Their Women." In response to notices placed in national and local equine journals and magazines, more than 300 photographs and letters were sent to the authors. A friend of Elana's who is an amateur photographer shot a roll of film and Elana submitted a story. Elana was one chosen to be featured. Her passion for horses began at the age of seven or eight. She was 35 when she got her first horse. She and her husband both ride and show horses.

Dr. C. Louise Caudill
*Ohio Beta
Morehead, Kentucky*

"Rowan's Progress," is a book written by Cornell University English professor James McConkey. The inspiration of the book is Dr. C. Louise Caudill. It was McConkey's memory of Dr. Caudill stitching the split lip of his son that was the genesis of the book. "Rowan's Progress" chronicles the history of the Kentucky county of Rowan and its people. More than half of the book is about Dr. Caudill. McConkey says, "Here was a woman who has never sought honors and awards, never tried to pretend to be anything other than what she was - an extraordinary woman who represented the attitude of goodness." Dr. Caudill received a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1934. After teaching physical education for seven years at Moorehead State College she got up the courage to pursue her life-long goal of being a doctor and went to medical school. She earned her M.D. from the University of Louisville School of Medicine in 1946.

Pi Beta Phi Foundation

Convention Highlights

The Magic of Friendship in Pi Beta Phi" was the perfect backdrop for the introduction of the Pi Beta Phi Foundation at the 1993 Convention. Having been established to continue the legacy of Pi Beta Phi into the future, the Foundation provided all attendants an opportunity to learn more about its operation and to take an active part in its development.

One popular Foundation attraction was the "Giving Tree" display. Each member was able to make as many memorial and recognition gifts as she desired. For each gift made, an ornament was displayed on a "Giving Tree" which was set up in the main hall of the convention center.

The ornament recognized the person for whom the gift was made and that person was allowed to take her ornament home as memorabilia at the end of the week. Each of the gifts was also recognized in the Daily Dart, a daily publication of Convention happenings, written by the staff of The ARROW. This special opportunity to honor friendships and loved ones prompted such gifts as the recognition of a yet unborn Pi Phi legacy and a celebration of a wedding anniversary. Over $4,000 was raised through this first-time endeavor, and hundreds of people were honored for their contributions to Pi Phi and for their special friendships. Look for this opportunity at the 1995 Convention.

Another magical highlight of the Convention was the Academy of Angels Dinner which was hosted by the Foundation and Arrowmont. This black and white evening was punctuated by sparkling decorations and exciting awards presented in all the drama of an Academy Awards show. During dinner, members were updated on the progress of the Foundation and its many programs. The dinner also served as a celebration of the success of the Campaign for Arrowmont. Thus far, 70 percent of the $2.3 million dollar goal has been raised in this effort. Now that's worth a celebration!

Finally, a powerful presentation was given by a Foundation-sponsored speaker, Richard P. Keeling, MD. Dr. Keeling, Director of the University of Health Service and Professor of Internal Medicine (Hematology) at the University of Wisconsin at Madison, gave an electrifying talk which focused heavily on values and ethics and decision-making related to campus issues. His poignant remarks were met with a standing ovation.

These activities gave all Pi Phis the opportunity to see how the Foundation is making an impact on Fraternity concerns, from scholarship programs to the growth of Arrowmont. It is important to remember that convention activities are a very small part of the Foundation's agenda, and that donations may be made any time of the year.

Marianne Reid Wild Society

The Marianne Reid Wild Society recognizes those who have provided for the Foundation through a deferred gift. If you have made such a gift through your will, insurance policy or other estate-planning vehicle, please inform the Foundation Office to obtain information of Society Membership. All who informed the Foundation of their deferred giving plans prior to June 1993 are recognized as Charter Members:

Alumnae Continuing Education Scholarship Recipients Selected

Pi Beta Phi Foundation Recipients

With pride, the Pi Beta Phi Foundation has awarded its first Alumnae Continuing Education Scholarships to five worthy Pi Phi alumnae for the 1993-94 academic year. Each of the recipients is an active member of an alumnae club, has been out of school at least two years, and is involved in a course of study to enhance career qualifications.

Nancy Looney Henry, Colorado Gamma, Fort Collins Area Alumnae Club, a social worker since 1985, was also a scholarship winner last year. As a master's degree candidate in the School of Social Work at Colorado State University, Nancy will be doing an internship this year to complete a research project. In addition to her academic pursuits, Nancy has served on the Colorado Gamma Alumnae Advisory Committee since 1975 and is involved with the area Panhellenic.

Charlotte R. Halsema, Indiana Delta, Indianapolis, Indiana Alumnae Club is Fundraiser Chairman in her alumnae club and serves on the Indiana Gamma Alumnae Advisory Committee. Charlotte is working to complete an associate's degree in nursing at Indiana University.

Pam Zenger, Kansas Beta, Manhattan, Kansas Alumnae Club, is working to complete a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Kansas State University. Pam has served her club as ACRIC and as vice president.

Donna Cunningham Wood, Texas Zeta, Dallas, Texas Alumnae Club, teaches kindergarten and will attend East Texas State University to complete her master's degree. Her goal is to qualify as an elementary school principal and eventually earn a doctorate in education.

Mary E. Dickey, Tennessee Delta, Memphis, Tennessee Area Alumnae Club, currently an elementary school teacher, will use her scholarship to pursue a master's of education in curriculum and instruction at Memphis State University. Mary served four years on the Alumnae Advisory Committee at Tennessee Delta.

Pi Beta Phi Fraternity Recipients

The Alumnae Committee for Continuing Education is pleased to announce recipients of Alumnae Continuing Education Scholarships for the 1993-94 academic year. Each of four $500 winners is a committed and active volunteer outside of her home and involved in Pi Phi as an alumna.

Sheryl L. Ball, Pennsylvania Eta, Boston, Massachusetts City Alumnae Club, is enrolled as a full-time student in the Boston School of Occupational Therapy at Tufts University. She will use her scholarship for living expenses. Sheryl served on the Founders' Day and Philanthropy Committees for her alumnae club.

Susan L. Gruber, Colorado Gamma, Southern Fairfield County, Connecticut Alumnae Club, is currently a member of the Alumnae Advisory Committee for Connecticut Beta. She plans to pay tuition and textbook fees with her scholarship money. Susan will study information technology at Fairfield University so that she can become a research analyst and consultant for intelligent document management.

Michelle Laub Griffin, California Gamma, North Woodward, Michigan Alumnae Club, will attend Wayne State University in Detroit part-time to study fine arts with an emphasis in interior architecture and design. She will pay tuition and buy art supplies and books with her scholarship money. Michelle has served her alumnae club as Vice President for Membership and Programs and on various club committees.

Mary Walton Koronowski, Virginia Delta, St. Louis, Missouri Alumnae Club, has served her club as Hospitality Chairman, Corresponding Secretary/Newsletter Editor, and Volunteer Display Coordinator for Sign of the Arrow Gift Shop. She is a candidate for a master's degree in public relations/media communications at Webster University in St. Louis, and will apply her scholarship toward tuition.

1992-93 Recipient Update

Last year's scholarship recipients expressed gratitude to Pi Beta Phi for the money and also for the faith and emotional support which the award demonstrates.

Celeste Ulrich Crowder, Texas Gamma, was a full-time student at Texas Christian University earning double certification at the secondary level in art and special education. Celeste is a 26-year member of the Arlington, Texas, Area/Mid Cities Alumnae Club and was the club delegate to the 1993 Convention.

Marla Klostergaard Meyer, South Dakota Alpha, has finished one year of nursing school. The scholarship money was used to pay tuition and fees. She is in the process of moving to Fargo, North Dakota, where her husband has taken a new job. She plans to finish her BSN degree there. Her goal is to work in a local hospital in pediatrics or obstetrics/gynecology.

Jennifer Morford Reed, Indiana Delta, is finishing her first year with her goal of a master's degree in audiology. She used her scholarship money to pay for tuition and books. "Thank you so much Pi Phi for making my journey a little easier with your financial support. I would suggest to anyone interested in continuing their education, to plunge in and enjoy -you can do it!"

Rosalie Smith Watters, Washington Beta, has taught elementary education since 1968 and has completed a master's of education in professional development at Heritage College in Toppenish, Washington. She is a 15-year member of the Fanny Whitenack Libbey, Yakima, Washington, Alumnae Club currently serving as vice president. Rosalie used her scholarship to pay for her master's project. She said she would have been unable to finish if it had not been for the scholarship.

Nancy Looney Henry is completing her second year of graduate school as a master's candidate in the School of Social Work at Colorado State University as she continues to work full-time as a social worker at two kidney dialysis units. She applied her money toward tuition and had a 3.83 grade point average after three semesters.

ARROWMONT

by Cynthia Huff

Reminiscing with the First Board of Governors of Arrowmont

by Kay Murray Pirrong, Wisconsin Gamma,
Chairman, Board of Governors - 1985-1990

With every issue of The ARROW I am delighted and gratified to read about the happenings at Arrowmont...a long sought program being instituted, a new building under construction and projects (that were not even imagined in my tenure) in the planning stages.

One of my thoughts has been that if I am in awe, how do early members of the Board of Governors perceive the wonders they have wrought. To answer this question, I reminisced in a series of telephone conversations with various members who served on the first Arrowmont Board of Governors.

The formidable objective they were given for their tenure as board members was to "put into reality the Centennial Project approved by the 1967 Convention." As envisioned by its first Director Marian Heard, Tennessee Gamma, the project was to establish a year-round, structured craft school that would offer credits through the University of Tennessee. The school was to provide a place of learning for students of all ages, skills and backgrounds. It was to be a leader in the art and craft movement that would set the standard – the benchmark – toward which other institutions could aim. These goals translated into constructing a studio building, upgrading existing housing, building a new dormitory, and offering innovative programming. Unfortunately, the amount of funds needed dictated that housing and programming would have to be addressed over the long term.

First on the agenda was the design of a studio building. Grand Council retained a firm of architects from Chicago. After seeing the terrain, the firm concluded that no building of this size could be built on the property. The Board, believing that a local firm would not be intimidated by the limitations of the site, then contacted Hubert Bebb of Community Tectonics in Gatlinburg. The project became very dear to Mr. Bebb, and he, together with Marian Heard and the School's Executive Coordinator Lucile McCutchan Woodworth, Missouri Beta, devoted much time and effort to creating the "perfect building." Their efforts were rewarded when the Emma Harper Turner building won an Award of Merit from the American Institute of Architects and the American Association of School Administrators in 1969.

The Board undertook many projects to raise money for the building. Among them were: printing and selling 10,000 Arrowmont Cookbooks produced by early board member Carolyn Kovener, Iowa Alpha; selling paper shingles for $1 to defray the cost of the roof; selling chairs for the auditorium at $50 apiece; and promoting Arrowcraft sales and In Memoriam donations through The ARROW. However, it was the funds provided by the Fraternity that ensured the success of phase I.

In addition to creating the proper environment, the Board needed to promote Arrowmont to members of the Fraternity and to potential students and teachers. The most ambitious program was a national tour of craft items produced during summer classes. The traveling exhibit was organized by board member Allece Locke Garrard, Oklahoma Alpha, and her husband Tom. A number of footlockers containing ceramics, enamels, weavings, etc. were shipped to 30 alumnae clubs coast to coast for showings in their local areas. It was a logistical marvel and one that would be difficult to repeat today.

Not all time was spent in serious discussions. Most members remember vividly the laying of the cornerstone in 1969. It must indeed have been a sight to see twenty-five members of the Board and Grand Council, all in yellow construction helmets and led by Sis Mullis, South Carolina Alpha, pushing Miss Olivia (Olivia Smith Moore, Missouri Alpha) in her wheelchair, traipsing up and down the ramps while Mr. Bebb escorted them on a tour of the partially finished studio building. Also, the selection of a name offered some lighter moments. All agreed that the "Arrow in the Smokies" title of the former summer Craft Workshops was too long. Various frivolous and serious alternatives were offered and from the final three, Arrowmont was chosen. It combined both the symbol of Pi Phi and a reference to the mountainous area where the school is located. Marian Heard held one of the few dissenting opinions correctly forecasting that it would forever be confused with Arrowcraft.

Members of the first Board take great pride in their involvement with the beginning years of Arrowmont and what Arrowmont is today. They find it rewarding to see that their long range plans have come to fruition and that the School is still a benchmark. In the words of former Chairman Betty Yelm Kingman, Colorado Beta: "I am confident that Arrowmont continues to evolve as a valuable asset for Pi Beta Phi, for the University of Tennessee, and even for Gatlinburg. Far beyond its educational importance for the arts and crafts, it contributes to the ethical, philosophical and even spiritual qualities of our existence."

The current $2.3 million Campaign for Arrowmont ensures that the dreams of the Pi Phis of a quarter of a century ago are realized and expanded. We shall continue to enrich the lives of all – children, adults and senior citizens – through art.

Pi Phis attending workshops at Arrowmont the week of June 21-25 were Kila Herland Larson, Oregon Delta; Jennifer Hoffman, California Eta; Nancy Huntley Thompson, California Gamma. Jennifer was a recipient of the Isabel Mulholland Cramer Scholarship. She participated in a quilting workshop taught by Susan Webb Lee.

Pi Phi Arts Weekend

Ohio Delta Nancy Ericsson Hern prepares to rinse a sheet of marbled paper.

Marbling is just one of the classes that will be offered during Arrowmont School's 4th Annual Pi Phi Arts Weekend, May 5-8, 1994.

For information, call Arrowmont at 615/436-5860.

New Resident Artists Involved in Numerous Programs

Arrowmont welcomed four new resident artists in September for the third year of its Artist-In-Residence program. Artists from Oklahoma, Ohio, and Wisconsin were selected as resident artists, and even before they had a chance to move into their studio spaces at Arrowmont, they were scheduled to teach during Arrowmont's fall community classes.

The residents will also be teaching periodically at Sevier County's Wearwood School, this year's target school for the Dallas Alumnae Club's Rural Outreach Program. Wearwood has nine faculty members, 120 students in grades kindergarten through eighth, and no full-time art teacher.

In recognition of Arrowmont's past success with its county-wide Artist in the Schools Program, the Tennessee Arts Commission has awarded Arrowmont an Arts in Education Grant to provide stipends for resident artists visiting Sevier County Schools during the current school year.

The start of residency program's third year also saw the inauguration of The Trabue Professional Arts Program for Women. Resident artist Mary Perry, a photographer from Athens, Ohio, is the first recipient of the scholarship which is funded by the women of the Trabue family and provides financial support for a woman resident artist during her nine-month tenure at Arrowmont.

Sharing the Resident Artist Studio Complex with Mary is Lisa Bare, a ceramic artist from Worthington, Ohio, John Finney, a painter from Edmond, Oklahoma, and James Jones, a sculptor from Madison, Wisconsin.

This chili pepper coat with blinking lights was made by Houston, Texas Pi Phi Mary Jean Fowler. The coat was given to Arrowmont to be sold during one of the School's two annual summer art auctions. The 1993 auctions raised $9,500 for Friends of Arrowmont Scholarships. The coat is modeled by Arrowmont Studio Assistant Mary Duwyenie.

Pi Phis attending Arrowmont workshops the week of June 14-18 were California Epsilon Diane Gamble Briney, Illinois Eta Helen Moffett Russell, Tennessee Gamma Barbara Blanks Bullard, recipient of the Margaret Marshall Wood Scholarship, and Mississippi Beta Susan Barnett.

Suzannah Hider of Athens, Georgia was the recipient of the Helen Anderson Lewis Scholarship. She studied Stone Setting with Pat Flynn, July 12-16, 1993.

Paperworks '93

In September, Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts was the site of "Paperworks '93," a Southeast regional papermaking workshop organized by Ellen Zahorec of Brevard, North Carolina. The workshops were held in conjunction with the touring papermaking exhibition, "Paper USA/ Finland: Contrasts and Connections" which featured works by 13 American and 13 Finnish artists. The workshop series was popular with participants, and one artist came from Finland to join in on papermaking demonstrations, covering topics such as latex molds, Nepalese papermaking, graphite surfaces, and multicolor paper layering.

After leaving Arrowmont in October 1993, the handmade paper show will travel to North Carolina, Michigan, Georgia, Florida, Ohio, and to the Embassy of Finland in Washington, D.C., before it crosses the Atlantic for exhibition in Helsinki.

Campaign

“You’re Invited to Join the Party!”

A party? Yes, a Mad Hatter’s Phantom Tea Party. All alumnae in non-alumnae club areas will be receiving an invitation to enjoy a cup of tea with their Pi Phi sisters from around the world. This party will be held on Tuesday, March 15, 1994. Just think – thousands of Pi Phis on that day, united in purpose and enjoying Pi Phi thoughts and memories. No silver to polish, no dishes to wash, no food to prepare. Just time for a cup of tea, while remembering college days, alumnae friends and the twelve Founders. Many Pi Phi alumnae clubs also will participate in this national Mad Hatter’s Phantom Tea Party. It is not unusual for groups to hold phantom tea parties as fundraisers, but this may be the first “international non-event.” Another first for Pi Beta Phi!

As part of the Campaign for Arrowmont, a committee was formed to choose a designated gift in the new dormitory that would be from Pi Beta Phi alumnae. The committee selected the third floor of the dormitory. This floor has 12 bedrooms and will be known as The Founders’ Floor; each bedroom being named for one of the Founders.

The Combined Club Leadership Gift, as the project is known, was introduced with a skit to club delegates at convention. The Mad Hatter, Alice at Arrowmont and the White Rabbit explained the project. The goal is to raise $200,000 to name The Founders’ Floor. Alumnae clubs are pledging $1,000 to be paid over a three-year period and will be fulfilling their pledge with fund-raisers of the club’s own choosing or by asking club members to pledge $12.50 per year for three years. The Mad Hatter’s Phantom Tea Party will be the single international fundraising event linking all Pi Phis in support of naming The Founders’ Floor.

Whether you are a club member or reside in a non-alumnae club area, please join thousands of Pi Phis in naming the third floor of the new dormitory – and dedicating it in memory of the twelve Founders. Be part of the Pi Beta Phi non-party goes on March 15 by responding to the invitation you will receive in the mail, by joining in your alumnae club’s event or by contacting the Pi Beta Phi Foundation office for details.

Committee members Alice at Arrowmont (Pat Emens Anderson, South Carolina Alpha), the White Rabbit (Martha McWilliams Weishahn, Maine Alpha) and the Mad Hatter (Ann Denker Webster, Arkansas Alpha, Chairman) dressed the part for a convention skit announcing a Mad Hatter’s Phantom Tea Party and plans for a combined alumnae gift to name the third floor of Arrowmont’s new dormitory The Founders’ Floor.

Campaign Questions

Q. What is the dollar goal in the Campaign for Arrowmont?

A. $2.3 million dollars

Q. How much has been pledged and received to date?

A. Just over $1,600,000.

Q. For what will the money be used?

A. A new dormitory... Artist in Residence program (building and endowment including scholarships)... New and remodeled studios (painting, wood and drawing)... Childrens’ Program... Gallery endowment.

Q. Who are the donors to date?

A. Fraternity and Foundation officers, Arrowmont Board of Governors, Campaign Committee, Leadership Clubs and Donors, Friends of Arrowmont

Q. Will there be a general solicitation?

A. Yes, as leadership calls continue, support will be sought from Pi Phis everywhere and from Arrowmont students and faculty.

Q. How does one contribute?

A. Cash, appreciated stock, three-year pledge, matched gift from employer... there are many ways. Contact the Campaign Committee or the Pi Beta Phi Foundation office for help arranging your gift.

Q. Who is conducting the Campaign for Arrowmont?

A. The Pi Beta Phi Foundation is conducting the campaign on behalf of Arrowmont. A nine member Steering Committee chaired by Jean Wirths Scott and several sub-committees oversee campaign activity.

Q. How will we hear of Campaign progress?

A. Campaign news will continue to appear in this section of The ARROW, in the Foundation Newsletter and in mailings from Arrowmont.

Celebrating 125 Years of Friendship: The History of the Quilt

The beautiful Pi Beta Phi Friendship Quilt, made in recognition of the Fraternity's 125th Anniversary, was presented to the Fraternity at the 1993 Convention in Orlando, Florida. The quilt was on display throughout the convention, where it drew many admirers. All thought the quilt was beautiful and that it reflected the diversity of the membership, their feelings about the Fraternity, and the strength of many coming together with one purpose in mind.

More than 160 alumnae clubs contributed squares with varying artwork in the center of each block. In addition to the club squares, one was made for the members of Grand Council to sign, one contained the Founders' names, one was for the committee and another for the women who worked on the quilt to sign.

The San Diego Alumnae Club Quilters Interest Group took on the big job of quilting the Friendship Quilt for the Fraternity. It was set up on a frame in Marilyn Lindsay Mead's quilting studio. Work was started mid-winter of 1992, and the quilting was finished by Founders' Day 1993. The hours required were many, but the quilting generated a lot of conversation and fun as it has for many generations of women, making the time slip by quickly. The quilters were: Julie Baker Adkins, Betzy Bruset Baker, Jerelyn Wright Biehl, Ann Hammond Blackwell, Karen Emberton, Connie Chavez Ewens, Jill Reynolds Fiero, Mary Jean Harris Holmes, Nancy Skelton Johnson, Cindy Davis Mead, Marilyn Lindsay Mead, Joan Jefferson Reynolds, DeAnn Wright Reynolds, Marian Knight Turner, Ann Denker Webster. They are especially indebted to Karen Emberton for her help in developing the Friendship Quilt idea and Joan Reynolds for sewing the squares together, no small task.

The quilt concept was created by 125th Anniversary Committee members Charlotte Ann Eckel Edwards, Lucinda Trabue, and Ann Denker Webster. Following convention, the quilt will hang in the new dormitory at Arrowmont as a lasting tribute to the women of Pi Beta Phi.

Each year the University of Oklahoma Panhellenic presents an award to the person who best epitomizes the goals of fraternities for service throughout the years following college. This year the committee honored Oklahoma Alpha Sue Ann Hyde with the Outstanding Greek Alum Award for years of outstanding service to the Greek and civic communities. The National Association of Community Leadership has also recently recognized Sue Ann with a 1993 Distinguished Leadership Award at the 14th Annual Leadership Conference held in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Sue Ann has served as executive director of Leadership Oklahoma, Inc., president of the Junior League of Oklahoma City and has given countless hours and creative services to civic and service organizations in the city. She is well known to Oklahoma Pi Phis through her travels as Alumnae Province President and her dedicated work on the Alumnae Advisory Committee.

Indiana University Pi Phis from the pledge class of 1962 returned for Indiana Beta's Centennial Celebration in April. Standing: Katy Chapin Dessent, Cheryl Fike Topoligus, Susie Crouch Bornt, Nancy Gift Needham, Sally Webb Amstutz, and Mary Jo Thompson Carlson. Seated: Carole Miller Finkelmeier, Heather Whittemore Harper, and Dolly Weninger Hunnell.

Texas Alpha June Gripper Grissom, a graduate of the University of Texas, is co-founder and publisher of Phideaux Publications in New Orleans, Louisiana. She is presently involved in graphic designing and writing.

Indiana Gamma Susan Warsaw has joined The Joey Reiman Agency as Director of Broadcast Production. For the past eight years she has been one of the most sought-after free-lance producers in the industry. Her clients have included Long John Silver's, Pepsi, Ford Motor Company, Wal-Mart, Texaco, IBM and Coca-Cola.

In August, Grand President Jo Ann Minor Roderick and Grand Vice President of Collegians Beth van Maanen Beatty organized an officer training for new Directors and new Collegiate Province Presidents at Central Office in St. Louis, Missouri. Standing: Sigma CPP Mindy Holbrook Jones, Eta CPP Karlyn Watson Sullivan, Director of Alumnae Records Emily Russell Tarr, Zeta CPP Margaret Batson Ballard, Alpha-Beta CPP Michelle Murrell Gosoco, and Beta CPP Debbie Hawkins. Seated: Director of Alumnae Extension Mary Lu Pendergrast Meixell, Gamma CPP Holly Means, and Beth Beatty.

Cleveland Releases Second Album

Tennessee Gamma Ashley Cleveland, a rock/pop recording artist on RCA records, is currently promoting her second album, Bus Named Desire.

Born in Knoxville, Tennessee, Ashley first fell in love with music while listening to the hymns sung in her local Presbyterian church. She taught herself guitar, absorbed the sounds of such personal favorites as Stephen Stills and James Taylor, and followed a long, winding road that finally took her to Nashville.

Although she struggled for three years, Ashley finally found steady work as a background musician and guitarist. When she began participating in "songwriter's nights," in the round performances at local clubs, she attracted a strong following gleaned from Nashville's music elite. Eventually, Ashley was working with the best of the best Emmylou Harris, John Hiatt, Etta James, Patty Smythe and many more.

But it was not until she performed on a Memphis Horns album, with John Hiatt, Steve Winwood, Joe Cocker and Robert Cray, that Ashley finally found her record deal. Atlantic Records' founder Ahmet Ertegun was so impressed by the young singer's vocal presence that she was signed within three weeks to the label. Years of hard work finally paid off. Her debut album, Big Town, was released in 1991 and received critical acclaim. She left Atlantic Records to sign with the smaller, more personal Reunion Records in early 1993.

Ashley Cleveland's debut Reunion/RCA release, Bus Named Desire, co-produced by the Grammy-nominated production team of her husband, guitarist Kenny Greenberg, and Wally Wilson, is a reflection upon love and loss, divine inspiration and bitter disappointment. Kinetic, expressive and deeply intelligent, Ashley's music reflects an extraordinary woman's take on the tapestry of her life.

She assists as a tour guide and watches over the new children's "Hands On" exhibit.

Indiana Delta Mollie Rose is in her third year of Purduettes, an elite musical performing group at Purdue University. Their shows consist of a wide variety of song and dance numbers with music ranging from jazz to country to rhythm and blues. The Purduettes perform a number of shows on campus and in Lafayette, as well as the surrounding Chicago area.

Jennifer Mitchell, from the Michigan Alpha Chapter at Hillsdale College, spent one month this past summer in the French cities of Bordeaux and Paris. Jennifer, a French and marketing major, studied intensive French everyday at a school in Bordeaux.

Louisiana Alpha Cecille Deason has been very active in the dramatic arts. She acted in "Spoils of War," "The House of Berbarda Alba," and "Judevine." This past summer, she spent three months working as an apprentice at the Flat Rock Theater in North Carolina, where she did everything from costume design to acting. Cecille was also chosen as the undergraduate representative to the theater department at Tulane University, which involves making decisions on behalf of the undergraduates in the theater department.

Over the summer, Indiana Gamma Dawn Hennig danced for The Dance Company of Green Bay. She held a major role in the production of "Swan Lake" which was done in collaboration with the prestigious Milwaukee Ballet Company. She was also heavily involved in the three-day Art Festival of Green Bay. Dawn danced in scenes from "Keystone Cops," "Don Quixote," "Sleeping Beauty," "Tarantella," and "Nutcracker." Butler University student Cynthia Fortune worked as an actress at the Flat Rock Theater in North Carolina this summer. Cynthia worked with Ann B. Davis, otherwise known as "Alice" on "The Brady Bunch" and Richard Kind of "Mad About You," among other respected actors and actresses. She performed in "City of Angels," "Hello Dolly!" and "Dearly Departed."

Virginia Epsilons Elizabeth Guice and Carrie Keating participated in a six-week Hispanic Studies Program in Spain. The University of Virginia program sent them to live with families in Valencia. To improve their Spanish they took classes every day and had the opportunity to travel to many beautiful places including Barcelona, Madrid and Grenada. Christin Anderson went to London for seven weeks last summer with a program called Instep. She worked in a law firm Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and on Thursdays took a class in British Law at the London School of Economics. Katy Molen worked for three weeks as an assistant sales person at the auctions at Sotheby's in Geneva, Switzerland. Laura Zapalac took part in an archaeological excavation of an Etruscan site at Murlo, Haly, just outside of Siena. Marilou Dreyfuss, a fourth-year architecture student, went to Vicenza, Italy for two months participating in a free-hand drawing program concentrating on Palladian architecture. Marylou took short trips every few days to cities like Mantova, Verona and Venice. Teri Burke, a fourth-year commerce major, spent four and a half weeks last summer in Europe learning from some of the most powerful leaders in the financial world. Through a university program, she traveled to London, Frankfurt and Zurich where she met with top executives of several investment banking firms including Solomon Brothers and JP Morgan.

Three Oklahoma Alphas are active in the University of Oklahoma theater season. Alicia Bramley, Kathleen Early and Beth Swales had performing roles in fall productions.

Twenty Arkansas Alphas from the University of Arkansas volunteered as ushers for a production at the Walton Arts Center.

Oregon Alphas participate annually in a conference entitled COLORS at the University of Oregon. Representatives from each sorority and fraternity on campus attend this forum to discuss multicultural awareness.

Two California Thetas, Mary Quinn and Allison Yant, sing in the University of California, Davis Choir, while Hanna Kahr sings in the University Gospel Choir. Ann Morrell is a feature writer for The California Aggie.

Alabama Alpha Allyson Fertitta won the Journalism Award for her literary contributions at Birmingham Southern College.

In September, Iowa Zetas attended a Panhellenic program called Empowering Women for Life. The seminar focused on women's issues including date rape, hazing, eating disorders, and success in the work place. University of Iowa Pi Phi Amy Primus spoke during the session concerning date rape and relationships.

Texas Alphas emphasized cultural enrichment by inviting guest speaker Kip Dickson to speak in September. Mr. Dickson serves as the student ambassador for the University of Texas and is the founder of Hope Week, a racial awareness program in which 2,500 Texans participated. Mr. Dickson spoke to the chapter about understanding and supporting multiculturalism.

California State University, Chico has started a new interest group for California Iota members. Implemented by Tiffany Randolph, the Wellness Committee will deal with issues faced by many women today such as stress, self-esteem, eating disorders, and relationships. She is organizing speakers to attend meetings and will also be passing out literature about these issues.

The Idaho Alpha pledge class and Sigma Alpha Epsilon pledges at the University of Idaho had a guest speaker come to discuss date rape. The two pledge classes had a chance to freely discuss their opinions as well as hear different sides of the issue.

West Virginia Alpha Jennifer Steiner spent six weeks studying the French culture, history and language.

California Zetas utilize organizations set up within the Greek system at the University of California at Santa Barbara to educate members. S.E.L.F., Sorority Education on Life and Fitness, is helpful in making women aware of eating disorders, how they may start, and how to help someone who may have an eating disorder. Liz Ross serves as a chapter representative to this organization.

"If We Hold On Together," written by Alberta Alpha Naomi Ward, was one of three serious parodies sung by the Convention Choir at the 1993 Pi Beta Phi Convention. The song, written by the University of Alberta Pi Phi, is based on a selection from the movie "The Land Before Time."

Indiana Betas at Indiana University worked with Zeta Tau Alpha sponsoring a speaker on eating disorders.

Molly Hofmeier, a Kansas Beta at Kansas State University teaches a student success seminar each week. Her responsibilities include making lesson plans, attending teachers meetings, and holding office hours.

Montana Alphas encourage educational enrichment through library study tables and study hours. Pi Phis at Montana State University have achieved the highest grade point average among other sororities for the past two years.

The Michigan Gamma Chapter hosted speakers from Michigan State University's Health Center to do workshops on eating disorders, sexual assault and general health and nutrition. Dr. Thomas Veyser, a dentist and recent graduate of the University of Michigan's Master's Program in Health Service Administration, spoke to the Michigan Gamma Chapter last fall about career planning and higher education.

Each spring, Virginia Etas bring an educational speaker to the University of Richmond. In the spring of 1994, the chapter is sponsoring Suzi Landolphi, a speaker on sexual education. She involves her audience with her incredibly humorous presentation, but she delivers a very serious message on the realities and dangers of sex in the '90s.

Illinois Epsilon Katie King, a communication studies major, is making her presence known on the Northwestern University campus as a founding member of EmPower. EmPower is a women's coalition consisting of delegates from each of the twelve sororities on campus. The group started five years ago to examine women's issues that arise within the Greek system, and to educate, promote and support safety for all women. EmPower tackles issues such as harassment between faculty and students, fraternity activities that are demeaning to women, and eating disorders. The coalition plans firesides, arranges for speakers and promotes education through the Panhellenic system.

The Virginia Theta Chapter at Washington and Lee University has speakers come to promote educational enrichment. This year, the chapter's speaker will be Jan Kaufman. Ms. Kaufman will be speaking about nutrition, eating disorders, and self-esteem. These issues and others are also discussed at the meetings of the Women's Forum, open to all students at Washington and Lee.

The Texas Epsilon Chapter at the University of North Texas attended a motivational seminar about achieving better grades. The seminar was sponsored by Campus Crusade for Christ.

Each semester Florida Betas at Florida State University educate themselves with a topic of concern. The chapter has sponsored speakers on topics of eating disorders, AIDS, and alcohol awareness. The chapter prepares for these speakers by having discussions, simulating scenarios and tabulating questions for the speaker. The chapter also creates a bulletin board full of facts corresponding to the speaker's topic.

Brownie Troop #866 has become a source of multicultural exchange for the Wisconsin Alpha Chapter. The troop, made up of first generation Vietnamese and Mexican American children, has been led by Pi Phis for the last five years. It has become a tradition for older actives to pass the leadership role down to younger members. The chapter hosted a Halloween party for the Brownies and intends to plan other events for them in the future.

During the University of Wisconsin's Homecoming week, members of the Wisconsin Alpha Chapter took part in an "Around the World" ethnic food festival sponsored by the Interfraternity Council and the Panhellenic Association. The event was planned in order to bring participation by a larger and more diverse group of students into the Homecoming festivities. The festival was the joint effort of fourteen different international student groups.

The University of Wyoming Chapter has taken part in an educational event, "Greening of the Library." Five Wyoming Alphas and five Sigma Chis participated in this event held at the Laramie Country Club last February. The fund-raiser included a drawing for items donated from local businesses and an auction of more expensive items after dinner. All of the proceeds were given to the local public library to buy books.

Three members of Illinois Iota were chosen to take part in weekly meetings with other interest groups around campus to discuss how they can better inform Illinois State University students about AIDS and what can be done to help people already infected. An AIDS Awareness Week addressing these topics is planned for the end of the semester.

The sororities at Old Dominion University will be offering various educational seminars throughout the semester. The Panhellenic Council has tried to incorporate educational seminars for all the sororities on campus along with the entire student body. These seminars will discuss topic areas such as time and stress management, environmental issues, safety and date rape.

Texas Deltas from Texas Christian University attended an eating disorders forum this September. The forum was very educational and gave the students who attended a new perspective of their body image.

Members of Missouri Alpha have been busy this fall with educational and cultural enrichment. During Rape Awareness Week at the University of Missouri, the chapter sponsored a speaker from Citizens Against Crime to explain self-defense strategies. The chapter was also involved in the campus-wide Multicultural Extravaganza in which two members displayed their talents. Elizabeth McKinley sang an Italian song and Goli Mostaffi-Moab sang a medley in French.

Florida Epsilon Kelly Rupp painted the University of Central Florida's mural for the Mardi Gras theme night of Rush 1993. Dena Croft is also a Pi Phi artist. Lara E. Gilley has put her talent of writing to good use for the chapter by helping write the Homecoming skit. She has recently written a movie, had an article published and plans to get more of her writing into print in the future.

The Tennessee Betas have participated in several lectures on the Vanderbilt campus. The chapter sponsored Professor Lachs, a doctor of philosophy at Vanderbilt University, who discussed the role of the Greek system in the Vanderbilt community. Sandy Stahl, the Assistant Dean of Residential and Judicial Affairs, came to a joint meeting of Pi Beta Phi and Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity to discuss risk management. The chapter had a representative from the Battered Women's Shelter come and discuss the issue of widespread domestic violence and physical abuse against women.

Tennessee Deltas Susan Bruce and Felicia Rich were awarded the Greek Alumna of the Year and the Greek Woman of the Year at the Memphis State University Greek Awards Banquet.

Tennessee Betas also find time to pursue artistic endeavors. Coco Cochran recently had work published in Art Works. She also participated in a summer internship program at the Museum of Fine Arts in Houston. Elizabeth Faulkner, a member of the Aspen Music Festival Opera Center, will play the lead role in "The Medium." This opera production is sponsored by the Blair School of Music in Nashville.

Texas Zeta Jennifer Swayze is a graphic design major and plans to become certified to teach art at all levels. Jennifer helped design and prepare the backdrop for the "Baylor All-University Sing" competition.

Indiana Alpha Melissa Bartlett teaches ballet and jazz to preschool children at the Franklin Community Center. Ashley Locke, a theater major, starred as Shelby in Franklin College's spring production of "Steel Magnolias."

Indiana Alphas will host an AIDS seminar in November. The guest speaker will be Alice Goshorn, a registered nurse and member of the Franklin AAC. The seminar will be a part of the All-Campus Wellness Seminars sponsored by the Panhellenic Council of Franklin College.

Minnesota Alpha members who have traveled abroad, presented a slide show and informational lecture to the chapter. They shared their experiences and offered helpful hints for a successful study abroad experience. In addition, they distributed brochures to members of the University of Minnesota chapter who were also interested in studying abroad.

Pennsylvania Epsilons at Penn State University are in the process of developing a new interest group, the Cultural Growth Group. These Pi Phis have shared interest in attending shows, symphonies, plays, operas, and other such events. Pennsylvania Epsilons are also proud to have a thespian in their chapter. Melissa Scanlon, a sophomore, is currently working on her bachelor of fine arts in theater degree. In addition to being involved with various plays and scenes on campus, Melissa recently lead the Pi Phis as co-chairperson of Greek Sing, an annual musical act competition between fraternities and sororities. Melissa hopes to get involved in television or the cinema.

Missouri Gamma acknowledged the increasing incidents of rape on college campuses by sponsoring an all-campus Date Rape Seminar. Dr. A.L. Marsteller, Drury College Professor, conducted the seminar.

The Pennsylvania Theta Chapter is planning many cultural activities for the 1993-1994 academic year. With the city of Philadelphia only twenty minutes away, they have plans to visit many of the art centers and museums.

Arizona Alphas at the University of Arizona have guest speakers attend each house meeting on Monday nights. Speakers cover topics such as safety, rape awareness, eating disorders and AIDS awareness.

Ohio Thetas attended a date rape workshop with the members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. The facilitators, Bowling Green State University graduate students, acted out a potential date rape situation, and an open forum followed. Ohio Theta's faculty advisor, Sue Graziano, gave two educational presentations. One of the presentations she gave was about sexual harassment and how women can empower themselves to deal with it. Ohio Thetas also hosted a cultural workshop. Nijian Zhang, a graduate student at the university, joined the chapter for a Chinese dinner and then spoke about aspects of the Chinese culture.

California Betas at the University of California, Berkeley sponsor presentations of various corporations and businesses from San Francisco. The chapter most recently sponsored Arthur Anderson, a firm that employs many recent graduates.

New Mexico Betas at New Mexico State University participated in drunk driving awareness seminars through Panhellenic. At chapter meetings, AIDS speakers have led open discussions.

Links to Literacy

PI BETA PHI FRATERNITY

by Jean Egmon

The Houston, Texas Alumnae Club has extended its pride and joy in supporting literacy by sponsoring the Houston Alumnae Club Links to Literacy Award. The award is to be given annually, beginning in 1994, to an alumnae club for outstanding philanthropic contributions that best exemplify Pi Beta Phi's commitment to service in the area of literacy. The Houston Alumnae Club was one of the first Pi Phi groups to formally commit itself to literacy service through its local philanthropy, the Pi Beta Phi Children's Library at Texas Children's Hospital. What began as a dream and a small collection of books in a hospital linen closet has become a 560 square foot full-service library where over 68,000 people have benefitted from the materials and volunteer service provided by the Houston Pi Phis.

Descriptions and nomination forms for the Houston Alumnae Club Links to Literacy Award and the Links to Literacy Award for collegiate chapters are available in the Awards, Scholarships and Loans Manual, in Links to Literacy: A Pi Beta Phi Programming Guide and in the spring mailing to clubs and chapters.

The Par Excellence School for needy children is one of the local philanthropies of the Ohio Eta Chapter at Denison University. Julie Murray is pictured here with three children from the school at a field day that Pi Phi and Fiji co-sponsored. When they are not on the field, women from the chapter go to the school, which is housed in a local church, and tutor the needy children.

Joan Spencer Siegrist, a West Virginia Alpha alumna and member of the Morgantown, West Virginia Alumnae Club, has gained national acclaim for establishing a literacy program that encourages grandparents and parents to read to their children for fifteen minutes a day, five days a week, for five weeks during the summer. With sponsorship by READAmerica and the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), Siegrist, a professor of theatre and puppetry at West Virginia University, uses life-size puppets named Rex and Rita to promote the program in remarkable places. In June, Siegrist held a press conference with the program's chairman and the Deputy Secretary of Education. That same day, she performed live on "Good Morning America." Siegrist and her puppets also flew to Kennebunkport, Maine to shoot a photography session with former First Lady Barbara Bush who is the program's honorary chairman. Siegrist commented on her experiences to the Dominion Post, "Besides meeting Mrs. Bush, the most unique thing I remember is the earphone being in my ear and (a member of the 'Good Morning America' staff) saying 30 seconds - I thought to myself, in 30 seconds millions of people will see me do my performance and in a half-hour I'll be doing a performance for a classroom of 2-year-olds." Siegrist won the 1989 Heebink Award for distinguished public service to the state of West Virginia, helped develop the educational video "Let's Talk Sense About Sex" which is supported by the U.S. Office of Adolescent Pregnancy Programs and the Department of Health and Human Services, serves as National Education Consultant for Puppeteers of America and is the director of the West Virginia University Puppet Mobile which tours the state doing puppet productions. Siegrist has served on West Virginia Alpha's AAC and House Corporation many times since 1974. With a mother and a sister who are also Pi Phis, Joann Siegrist, educator and puppeteer extraordinaire, still has her strings attached to Pi Phi.

Pi Phis from Villanova University bring Links to Literacy to Graterford Prison, outside Philadelphia. Members of Pennsylvania Theta make weekly visits to the prison where they aid prisoners in improving their reading and writing skills. The inmates receiving Links to Literacy service are preparing to re-enter society but are, at present, functionally illiterate. Pennsylvania Thetas are committed to helping those individuals successfully make the transition to reading, writing and social advancement.

Virginia Zeta established its Links to Literacy program at Gilbert Linkous Elementary School in Blacksburg, Virginia. The Pi Phis of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University provide one-on-one attention to the first-grade students of the school as they read to them, help the students write and spell their own stories and listen to them read aloud.

As part of their ongoing program to promote literacy and support literacy education, West Virginia Alpha recently co-sponsored a lecture by Jim Trelease, author of "The Read Aloud Handbook" and "Hey! Listen to This." Among parents and educators across the United States, Mr. Trelease is well-known for his strong support of reading aloud to children. Read Aloud of West Virginia, one of the programs West Virginia Alpha supports, arranged for Mr. Trelease to appear at West Virginia University's Creative Arts Center where several hundred people attended the lecture.

The Pi Phis of Ohio State University participate in two tutoring programs as part of their Links to Literacy service. The programs allow members of Ohio Beta the option of tutoring children or tutoring adults. Each Pi Phi participating in the Northwest Program commits to tutoring a child for five hours each week for one quarter. Each Ohio Beta participating in the Columbus Literacy Council program commits to tutoring an adult for one and a half hours per week for one year.

The Literacy Program of the Los Angeles-Santa Monica Alumnae Club is helping two different organizations. One collects quality magazines and books of all kinds for foster grandparents, who distribute them in the inner-city. The other group is Children's Hospital, and for them the club collects good used and new children's books and aids the librarian in expanding library facilities. (In both these projects the club is enlisting the other fifteen alumnae clubs in their province.)

Winter 1992 ARROW - wow! I am writing because that issue was one impressive piece of work. I was touched and felt incredible pride to be a Pi Beta Phi. It was timely and yet so ahead of what people think a sorority is about. But what we know it's about. But to put this in The ARROW is to show the depth of what it can be about. As a former president of AAC I saw the growing pains of young women. They need the support and the affirmation from their peers and alumnae. They need to know they will be okay but that growing up is a complicated affair. Scary. Your article on self-worth was a beacon in the night for many young women, I'm sure. On behalf of them and the young woman who resides in me. Thank you.

And for the gutsy article on Marilyn Van Derbur, her bravery is unsurpassed. Please pass my thank you to her. I know her candor will help many, many young women. And Pi Phi's bravery to air her story dawns a new day for us all. I am very proud.

Life is for learning. Please keep up the good work!!!

Thank you so much for the Winter ARROW. I, too, am an abuse survivor. The content and importance of the article in the issue was very affirming for me and added to my confidence "to be me," and speak out as well.

My life is full, and growing, and healing. It's good to know Pi Beta Phi supports the emotional health of its members. Thank you.

I have just moved to the Twin Cities area with my husband Joshua, who has started Dental School at the University of Minnesota this past September. We love the area so far and I have my first Pi Phi Alumnae Club meeting next Monday (I am very excited!). I am so glad that Pi Beta Phi provides support for its members after college. I have started a new branch in my life, which once again will be filled with the women of Pi Beta Phi.

As my 25th year college graduation homecoming is planned for later this fall at Florida State, I have done some reflection on the wonderful experience I had there. It occurred to me that one of the highlights ironically occurred even before I was officially enrolled on the occasion of my pre-registration visit in July of 1964. It seems the night before we were due to register, several of us went out and had a meal together and visited until late. Unfortunately I got food poisoning and was deathly ill. One of our group that had palled around the night before volunteered to actually register for me, which she did very unselfishly. Sally Saier went on to become a very active Pi Beta Phi and in fact I recall she was President of the chapter before we graduated.

It has always struck me how incredibly generous and unselfish she was to have taken the extra time in what was then a "mob scene" in Tully Gymnasium to register for me. We had only met in the group we were hanging around with, and had no particular romantic interest, only congenial friendship.

In honor of Sally's unselfishness and apparent affection for Pi Beta Phi, I thought it might be appropriate to send along a contribution to your Foundation in her honor. Sigma Chis have always felt close to Pi Beta Phi. In any case, enclosed is a small check and I know you will use it to further advance the purpose of your fine organization.

I deeply appreciate being honored by the recognition of my seventy-five years of membership in Pi Beta Phi. It has indeed constituted a significant and cherished influence on my life, and I still enjoy happy memories and lasting friendships.

Years ago (in the 1930's I believe) another New York Gamma and I initiated the organization of the Southern New Jersey Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club. It was a very active, successful, happy group for many years, until members moved away or were unable to continue. I am pleased that recently another Southern New Jersey Alumnae Club has been organized.

My activities in college and Pi Phi developed my continuing involvement in scholarship, literature, music and community affairs.

As I approach my 91st birthday I am grateful for my college and Pi Beta Phi experiences that have contributed so much to my later years.

The East Texas Pi Phi Alumnae Club honored me yesterday on becoming a Golden Arrow Pi Phi. Enclosed is a write up on it and poem I wrote commemorating it.

*Fifty years ago this spring
I joined the wine and blue
Mom pinned my arrow on my chest
For she was a Pi Phi too.*

*My college years were not the best
But we lived through World War II
We strengthened our Pi Phi ties
And strove to be true blue.*

*Then 40 years ago this month
An east Texas Alum I became
Our club has lasted through the years
Though we haven't acquired much fame.*

*Twenty two years, I look back upon
My future daughter-in-law so fine
Mom pinned her arrow on her chest
And joined in the Cookie Shine.*

*In 1961 Pi Beta Phi
Honored Mom and Mrs. Kelly too
As Golden Arrow Pi Phis
Fifty years in the wine and blue.*

*So for 50 years I've loved it
As a Golden Arrow, I debut
I'll always remain a part Of Pi Beta Phi and you.*

• A Journey for Justice •

by Carole Sams Hoemeke & Jennifer Moeller Barcus

On Wednesday, August 25, Amy Biehl, Fulbright scholar and member of California Alpha, was killed tragically by a mob of angry black youths in the township of Guguletu, just outside of Cape Town, South Africa. She was killed only two days before her planned departure to begin doctoral studies at Rutgers University in New Jersey. Amy was just completing a 10-month stay in Cape Town researching women's role in the transition toward democracy.

Some would say that her's was a senseless death. It is more appropriate to view it as an inspirational life.

An "All-American" girl, Amy was co-valedictorian of her high school class. Already an accomplished student, she was offered a host of college scholarships. She chose Stanford. And there, she chose Pi Beta Phi.

"From the perspective of big sister and pledge educator, I noted at the onset that Amy was a dream pledge. Not only was she a fine student and dedicated to the ideals of Pi Beta Phi – community and kindness – but she was also a strong social presence and role model for her pledge class. She performed the function that I could not – she infiltrated the pledges and encouraged greatness on all fronts! Amy cared deeply and passionately about her fellow pledges as she did for humankind, and this was manifested in the lengths she went to make sure everyone was having a good time. In Pi Phi at large, Amy continued to have a decisive impact on her sisters by simply being constantly enthusiastic about the group, its members and its activities."

– Kim Wallace Pate, California Alpha

Never one who was satisfied with a standard or accepted what was good enough, Amy strived for more with a fervent intensity. At Amy's memorial service, a college advisor shared that she challenged him. Drive and zeal were her trademarks.

"Amy approached everything in her life with determination - walking on to the Stanford diving team to eventually become the captain, exhausting all academic resources on any given subject, even writing an exceptional honor's thesis that is still used today as a scholarship resource - even after all of her research was destroyed in a fire!"

– Carole Sams Hoemeke, California Alpha

Amy's interest in Africa can be traced to her days at Stanford University, where she received a degree in international relations in African Studies and wrote her honors thesis on Chester Crocker, the United States Assistant Secretary of State who helped bring independence to Namibia. After graduation, Biehl began working in Washington, D.C. as a program assistant for the National Democratic Institute for International Affairs. There, she worked to help establish educational programs aimed at promoting and strengthening democratic institutions in South Africa.

While studying at the University of Western Cape, Amy worked tirelessly with the African National Congress' Women's League and the National Association of Democratic Lawyers to advance the cause of the oppressed, particularly for women. She also volunteered on projects targeted for women and children in the township where she was killed.

"Amy was an ardent activist, feminist and athlete. Amy's conviction and drive inspired us all to push a little harder and give a little more than we thought possible. All along the way, she never failed to let us know how proud she was to be our friend. After graduation, our groups of friends began the next phase of life together - finding jobs and starting graduate school. Now, we have been brutally faced with the realization that we will cross the milestones to come - marriage, children, middle age and our golden years - without one of our best friends. Our circle is incomplete."

– Mimi Ballard, California Alpha

Amy is survived by her parents, Peter and Linda Biehl, her sisters, Kim and Molly (California Zeta), a brother Zach, and her boyfriend Scott Meinert.

Amy's family has established two scholarship funds that will insure that her work continues. The Amy Biehl Fund at Stanford University will help a Stanford student to study South African issues and work on projects of interest in South Africa. It will also assist a student of University of Western Cape to study at Stanford. Gifts may be mailed to The Amy Biehl Fund, Office of Development, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305. The Amy Biehl Fund at the National Democratic Institute for International Affairs will support activities in support of democratization and human rights in Africa and elsewhere in the developing world. Gifts may be mailed to The Amy Biehl Fund, NDI, 1717 Massachusetts Ave., NW, Suite 503, Washington, D.C. 20036. Gifts to either fund are greatly appreciated by her family.

"Amy was an ardent activist, feminist and athlete. Amy's conviction and drive inspired us all to push a little harder and give a little more than we thought possible."

Her death is a great loss to all who knew her, but she will not be forgotten. Amy will be remembered every Cinco de Mayo (one of her favorite holidays), whenever friends gather to dance, and especially on her birthday, April 26. Just one day later, April 27, South African elections will be held. Then the world will remember how her life had been given tirelessly on behalf of those who would, this day, vote in the first national, multiracial democratic election in South Africa.

"Amy was a friend who empowered others - her positive attitude inspired them to strive for greatness. Amy always could find the good in people, that something special that made them unique. I miss Amy terribly, but I try not to feel anger because that is something she fought so hard to put down. She would not blame those who committed this act, but she would attempt to explain to them how their energies could be better directed."

– Carole Sams Hoemeke, California Alpha

Almost 41% of the college and graduate school enrollment in 1991 was 25 or older. Women figure far more heavily among older students; two-thirds of the 35-and-older students are women.

Future Province Officers... We Need You!

Two positions available: Alumnae Province President and Collegiate Province President

Applicants should be enthusiastic and should have a firm belief in the value of Pi Beta Phi membership and the Greek system. Excellent training and support provided by international officers. Some travel is required. Must be able to type.

Alumnae Province President

➤ Vital link between alumnae organizations and the Fraternity

➤ Must have an understanding and a love of Pi Beta Phi heritage and ideals and a desire to share this knowledge and loyalty with others.

➤ The position is challenging ...and greatly rewarding!

Collegiate Province President

➤ Vital link between collegiate chapters and the Fraternity

➤ The position can be demanding, often challenging and very rewarding because of the opportunity to work directly with those who represent the future of Pi Beta Phi - the women in our Pi Phi chapters.

Interested Pi Phis should contact:

Jane Houchens Tuten
Nominating Committee Chairman
10561 Adventure Lane
Cincinnati, OH 45242

Collegiate Extension Update

Pi Beta Phi is adding two new chapters to our collegiate roll. We are pleased to have new chapters at Creighton University and Wake Forest University.

This winter, Pi Beta Phi will join the Panhellenic system at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska. Pi Beta Phi's colonizing rush for Nebraska Gamma will take place in January. The North Carolina Gamma colony at Wake Forest will be participating in their first Panhellenic rush in January.

Please send rush information for any unaffiliated women, no later than January 5, 1994, to the following addresses:

Savor the Past

Pi Beta Phi's rich heritage unfolds in the recently published "History of Pi Beta Phi 1967-1992." This soft bound book matches the Fraternity's first history, "A Century of Friendship in Pi Beta Phi." Both are now available to members through Pi Beta Phi Central Office.

"History of Pi Beta Phi 1967-1992" chronicles the growth of Pi Beta Phi in the last twenty-five years. The reader discovers the changes the Fraternity incurred from the 60s to the 90s and how the needs of fraternity members have altered through the years. There is special emphasis on the women who have led Pi Beta Phi and helped secure its place as a leader in the Greek world.

Order your books today. You can purchase one book, or, for the most comprehensive view of Pi Beta Phi's history, the two-book set.
