“

Giving is a CALLING. If you're blessed with the capacity to give, you're not obligated to do so—you're called to it. I believe when you give more, you receive more. That's the heart and soul of giving. If you can change someone's life, why would you not?

I joined Pi Phi because I knew it would be a place where other women would build me up and encourage me to be a strong leader and sister. I knew Pi Phi was home for me because they made me feel proud of my INDIVIDUALITY and encouraged me to be myself!

Looking back on it, I don't know where I would be without Pi Phi; I would've been very isolated and lonely. My best friends to this day are women I met in Pi Phi, and I want to do what I can to HELP others have the same experience.

Your donation of any amount will help a sister in need, a sister like me who is trying to better themselves. Furthering my education means I can reach back and bring others along. If we all give a little more and do a little more, we can help many other Pi Phis looking to further their education. We want to keep that LEGACY of giving going.

Alongside the sisterhood fun and camaraderie, the most impactful part of my programming was learning how to gracefully lead our chapter through change. Change is necessary to keep our chapter thriving and to provide an INCLUSIVE experience for all, and I'm appreciative I learned how to navigate and handle conflict effectively.
