THE EASTERN CONFERENCE

April 11 and 12, 1924.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

A CALL

Ho—Baltimore, and Ye lassies of the land of William Penn; Ye of the melting pot of old New York—and Ye of the land of bracing air and pungent pines, land that gave us our lady of the White House—Come; and Ye, Out where the West begins, and beyond to where the daylight dies in the Golden Gate—all Ye of the clans tried and true, bound by the cords of wine and blue,
Come, let us reason together, and when day is done, make merry.

THE EASTERN CONFERENCE

The Eastern Conference is a big new venture in Pi Beta Phi. It was endorsed by the Convention of Estes Park, Colo., 1923, and will be held under alumnae auspices but every wearer of the arrow the world 'round—active and alumnae—is most cordially invited to hearty participation in its activities.

Attendance is of course voluntary and no legislation will be passed since the meeting is purely a "conference."

The present splendid development of our active and alumnae organizations challenges our every effort, the best of which may be to safeguard the future from lack of vital contact.

The Conference proposes by general discussion to further better preparation for national legislation, not forgetting the personal element or delights of more general acquaintance.

IN GENERAL

All business sessions, exhibits, and the Founders' Day Banquet will be held at the New Willard Hotel, Pennsylvania Avenue and 14th Street.

Mr. Balfour, the jeweler, is very kindly furnishing conference badges and will have a representative at the hotel during the Conference.

The Settlement School will be shown in exhibits, and the Head Resident, Miss Evelyn Bishop, will be in attendance.

Four Grand Presidents are expected to attend: E. H. Turner, Mrs. Elise Bradford Johnson, May L. Keller, and Amy B. Onken.

The Grand Council will be represented officially by the Grand President, Amy B. Onken and the Grand Vice-President, Mrs. Anna R. Nickerson, who will also have a large part in developing the program. The Province Presidents and Vice-presidents are expected also.

Inquiries concerning the Conference are pouring in from all sections of the country.

Richmond alumnae and Baltimore active chapter and alumnae have voted to forego their local banquets and join in the Washington celebration. The Clarksburg, West Virginia club plans to attend in a body. Word comes from both actives and alumnae of Syracuse, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Lancaster, Swarthmore, Atlanta, Ga., and the new chapter at Chapel Hill, N. C., Cleveland, Omaha, and Texas—yes and New England. Indianapolis has an organized committee to look after its delegation.

COMMITTEES IN CHARGE

GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS—The Washington Alumnae Club
 Honorary Chairman—Emma Harper Turner, The Iowa Apts.,
 14th and O. Sts., N. W.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN—Margaret B. Mackey (Mrs. Stuart J.)
 1201 M. St., N. W. This Committee includes the Province
 Presidents and Vice-Presidents of A, B, F, Provinces.

HOSPITALITY CHAIRMAN—Helen Harrington Compton
 (Mrs. Wilson), 2900 Cathedral Ave, N. W.

TENTATIVE PROGRAM

Evening Reception, Library of Congress.

Hostess for the Fraternity—Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley.

Presentation at the White House.

Evening Reception at the Department of Agriculture.

Hostess for the fraternity—Mrs. Henry C. Wallace.

Pilgrimage to Mount Vernon.

Hostess Committee—Columbia Alpha.

Founders' Day Banquet, 57th Anniversary.

Business Sessions: Friday April 11, Morning and Afternoon.

Saturday April 12, Morning.

Early registration is urged in view of D. A. R. Convention the following week. Special rate of one and one-half fare issued for D. A. R. Convention, effective April 9. Consult local D. A. R. Regent as to how this rate may be secured.

For further particulars and also reservations outside the hotel, address the Chairman of Hospitality, Mrs. Wilson Compton, 2900 Cathedral Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

FOUNDERS' DAY BANQUET

57th Anniversary

NEW WILLARD HOTEL

Program in the making. Mrs. Coolidge has been invited. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt is expected to attend and speak.

A minimum attendance of 500 is expected.

A royal welcome awaits every visitor. The Washington Pi Phis—active and alumnae will not fail you. The resident constituency numbers 200 representing almost the entire chapter roll.

These notes are written on February 10. All programs and plans are subject to change—principally that of enlargement and embellishment. All committees are in most competent hands.

COME!

SCHOLARSHIP

In writing of the things which he considers essential in order that a fraternity chapter may qualify for first place on its respective campus, Dean Thomas Arkle Clark, A T  $\Omega$ , brings up the points of leadership, scholarship, representation in college activities, unselfishness and high moral standards.

Relative to scholarship he says:

The chapter that would substantiate its claim to being the best one must show some distinction in scholarship. It isn't enough that it be composed of a bunch of good fellows, whatever that may mean, whom everyone likes and who are generally known about the campus. No amount of popularity or prestige, no long list of distinguished alumni, and not even an organization history dating back to the discovery of America can take the place of grades. Colleges were organized to give men and women an opportunity to study, to become acquainted with books, and fraternities were organized in large part to further this purpose.

The fraternity that does not stand high in scholarship is commonplace, no matter how long it has been organized, no matter how many ex-presidents of the United States or eminent jurists or college officials it counts among its alumni, no matter how many social stars and good fellows it numbers among its active members. We might as well all face this issue squarely.

Pi Beta Phi has always placed great stress upon high scholarship and for many years has had a well-organized National Scholarship Committee with an individual member to supervise the scholarship of each province in cooperation with the province president and national officers. But the organization of a committee means nothing without the support of the chapter and of the individual fraternity member.

Ways and means of emphasizing scholarship are being discussed by many fraternities at present and during the past few months a great deal of publicity has been given to this subject in the Greek press.

For instance, at the last conclave of Kappa Sigma, scholarship was pronounced, "an aim which should transcend every other aim, whether athletic, non-athletic or social." Pi Kappa Psi through its chapters recently amended its constitution so that no candidate shall be initiated until after he has satisfactorily completed one-half year's college work. Articles have appeared in the Palm of Alpha Tau Omega, the Chi Phi Chakett, the Star and Lamp of Pi Kappa Alpha and many other magazines containing statistics, discussions and interesting data concerning the scholastic standings of chapters.

No fraternity expects its members to become grinds to the exclusion of all other phases of college life—but it does demand that each individual realize that effort and time must be devoted to college work and good average grades must be attained if she would be worthy of the organization to which she belongs.

You may say that in a large institution and with so many groups competing it is impossible for your chapter to take the lead or even to climb up near the top. For inspiration and encouragement study the following facts gleaned from reports sent in to the chairman of our Pi Beta Phi National Scholarship Committee in December 1923.

PI PHI SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

CHAIRMAN MARION WILDER
North Dakota A

Pi Beta Phi is fortunate in having as chairman of the National Scholarship Committee, Marion Wilder, North Dakota A, whose grades during her entire four years in college were never below 90 and who at the close of her senior year at the University of North Dakota had the highest scholastic average for the four years of university work. For this achievement she was honored at graduation by having her name engraved on the Ganssle Cup.

Marion Wilder, however, did not devote all of her time to her studies. She is one of the most representative young women in our fraternity. And this year in addition to carrying a heavy course in graduate work at Columbia University, New York City, she is giving hours of her time to our scholarship committee in an endeavor to inspire each chapter to do its best work.

Marion graduated from the Grand Forks High School as Valedictorian of the class of 1918 and the next fall entered the University of North Dakota. There she was a member of the French club, the Press club and the Sketcher's club, whose members have since been granted a charter of Delta Phi Delta, honorary art fraternity.

In the line of art, Marion Wilder was Art Editor of the Co-ed, the women's edition of the college paper for 1920-21; Art Editor of the 1923 Dacotah, N. U. D. annual; won second prize in the Dr. Remer Panel Contest with the "Baa, Baa, Black Sheep" panel exhibited by North Dakota A at the last convention; and won first prize in the Dakota Playmaker Poster contests for two years.

In student activities, Marion served on the Women's Senate, was secretary of the Dean's Assistant Council and president of the same organization in 1921-22. She served on the Junior Prom Committee and on the Senior Prom Committee and was one of four girls chosen from the Junior class of 1921 to act as a Commencement usher.

As the author of the second prize play in the Arneberg contest for one-act plays in 1921, Marion was elected to membership in the Dakota Playmakers. In her senior year she was elected as one of the three members of Phi Beta Kappa.

As a petitioner and charter member of North Dakota A, Marion Wilder has been one of the outstanding young women of the group and when no longer a member of the active chapter continued her interest in Pi Beta Phi as a member of the Committee on Examination for Epsilon Province.

Last year she held the position of Art Supervisor at Valley City, North Dakota and during the summer taught in the State Normal School. This winter she is studying advanced work in art at Teacher's College.

With the heavy work which she is carrying, it is a real sacrifice for this enthusiastic member of Pi Beta Phi to give her time and strength to her national work but she is doing it loyally and most efficiently.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

The members of her national committee are: Mrs. H. D. Corkum (Helen Richardson, Massachusetts A); Mrs. B. H. Flynn (Margaret Sutherland, Ohio A); Rose Nowell, Florida A; Mrs. Wallace Hampton (Lisette Woerner, Wisconsin A); Mrs. C. A. Fredell (E. Verna Smith, Minnesota A); Mrs. R. R. Glynn (Lillian Boyd, Missouri Γ); Jane Beck, Wyoming A; Mrs. Gaylord Nelson (Hallett Fraley, Oklahoma A); Mrs. E. P. Datson (Edna Prescott, Oregon A); Mrs. Roy E. Warner (Frieda Watters, California B).

CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP ATTAINMENTS

Pennsylvania B, Bucknell University, has ranked first continuously with the exception of three years.

Pennsylvania A has ranked first in scholarship at Swarthmore College for four years.

Illinois H, James Milliken University, has held first place for nine out of eleven years.

Iowa B, Simpson College, has been first for eight years except for two semesters when it ranked second.

Texas A, has led the University of Texas campus in scholarship for the past three years.

Kansas B, Kansas State Agricultural College, has led for five consecutive semesters and will win the silver tray offered by the City Panhellenic if leading for another semester.

Indiana A, Franklin College, has ranked first for the past two years.

Washington B, Washington State College, has twice won the scholarship cup by holding first place for both semesters last year among the forty-one organized groups on the campus.

Last June, Louisiana A, Newcomb College, had highest average of any fraternity on the campus.

Nevada A, University of Nevada, ranked first both semesters last year.

Arizona A, University of Arizona, has stood first for three semesters out of four and will own the Hattie Ferris Solomon scholarship cup permanently by winning it another semester.

Wisconsin A was first last year among the twenty-one fraternities for women at the University of Wisconsin.

Arkansas A, University of Arkansas ranked first for the two semesters last year, surpassing the non-fraternity and fraternity average.

Oklahoma B, Oklahoma A. and M., has ranked first for three semesters of the past two years and now holds the Panhellenic Scholarship Cup.

Indiana  $\Delta$ , Purdue University, led the forty organizations on the campus in 1923—thus winning the Shewmaker scholarship trophy.

VERMONT ALPHAS AND SCHOLARSHIP CUP

Vermont A, Middlebury College, has held the Panhellenic Cup for the last two and one-half years with the exception of one semester.

Florida A and Louisiana A held first place in 1922-23.

Idaho A still holds the scholarship cup for making the highest average of any organized group on the campus at the University of Idaho.

West Virginia A, Colorado B, Illinois B, Kansas A, Florida B, Montana A, and Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  won second rank in scholarship last year.

At the University of Michigan, Sorosis, a local, ranks first with Pi Phi fourth on the list, but for the past seven years Michigan A has had an average of second, and of first of women's national fraternities.

INDIVIDUAL HONORS

MILDRED MARONEY

Down in Stillwater, Oklahoma, if you ask for the secretary to the President of the College you will find Mildred Maroney, Oklahoma B, who has the distinction of being the youngest member in the 1923 Senior Class, and who ranked second in scholarship in the entire class.

She received her degree last June at the age of eighteen years and held the highest scholastic average of any senior in commerce and marketing. She was also elected to Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternity. She was also a member of the girls' debating team, charter member of the Women's Life Saving Corps, Oklahoma amateur champion typist, treasurer of the senior class; news editor of Orange and Black, student publication and secretary of the Efficiency Council.

MILDRED MARONEY, Oklahoma B
An Honor Graduate at Eighteen

Mildred made eight grades in six years, high school in three years and college in three years.

She served her chapter as corresponding secretary and is now Theta Province Representative on the Committee of Fraternity Study and Examination. This fall she was one of two girls elected to the newly organized Press Club at Oklahoma A. and M.

DEAN LEONARD

Maria Leonard, Indiana T, recently elected Dean of Women at the University of Illinois, has been elected to membership in Mortar Board, being the first dean in the history of that institution to receive such an honor.

ALICE SIMMONS

ALICE SIMMONS, Illinois B

Alice Simmons, Illinois B, now a junior at Lombard College, Galesburg, Ill., holds the record of having made "A" in every subject which she took during her freshman and sophomore years. As a sophomore she carried seventeen hours of work and was Associate Editor of the weekly paper. This year she is Editor in Chief of that publication. The fraternity examination paper submitted by Alice Simmons last year was so perfect that it was sent to the Chairman of the national committee by the Province Supervisor and was exhibited at Convention.

HOLDERS OF FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Caroline Dudley, Michigan A, won a $500 scholarship through a competitive examination and is taking her second year of work at Columbia University.

Dr. Dora Neill Raymond, Texas A, holds the Alice Freeman Palmer Memorial Fellowship of the A. A. of U. W. for the second time.

Laurel G. Cissna, Indiana F, has been awarded a scholarship for two years at Columbia University by the Board of Education and Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church and will work for a Master's degree in sociology.

Dorothy Wilson, Genevieve Behen, and Helen Donnen of Colorado B are scholarship holders this year.

Alice Norcross, Nevada A, holds the Azro E. Cheney Scholarship of $300 awarded annually to the freshman or sophomore who is considered by the head of the department of English to be the best student of English during that year.

Louise Grubnau, Nevada A, holds the Lewis D. Folsom Scholarship of $100 awarded annually to a member of the junior class who is deemed most worthy.

Leota Maestretti, the youngest student at the University of Nevada last year, being only fourteen years old when she registered, was among the students whose work for the entire year averaged 90% or better. The names of Alice Norcross, Louise Grubnau and Nevada Semenza were also on this list. These four names and that of Laura Durkee were on the University Honor Roll for the second semester, 1923.

Helen Campbell, Washington B, holds the scholarship which was awarded in January, 1924, by Mortar Board to the junior girl having the highest grades, best service to her campus and most attractive personality.

Leila May De Mers, Washington B, holds the Omicron Nu scholarship given to the girl of most merit in the home economics department.

Lois Haworth, Wyoming A, was chosen by the university officials as one of the most deserving of several students for $100 scholarships.

Five members of Indiana A are holding college scholarships—Marion Brown, Norwich, N. Y.; Velva De Moss, Kewana, Ind.; Jeroline Powell, Zionsville, Ind.; Florence Hall, Franklin, Ind.; and Margaret Phelan, Sheridan, Wyo.

Dorothy Jeffrey, Michigan A, is holding a Henry Strong foundation scholarship for the literary college at the University of Michigan.

The following members of Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  are holding scholarships: Ruth Trimble and Margaret McConahey.

Helen Witmer, Louisiana A, holds a Fellowship in Industrial Relations at Bryn Mawr this year.

Marjorie Tapham, Pennsylvania A, will read for honors in French and Elizabeth Colket, for honors in mathematics beginning in February.

Edith Klenke, Ruth Barber and Elinor Jennings, New York  $\Delta$ , hold state scholarships at Cornell this year.

Martha Bolton, Vermont A, holds a fellowship in the English department at Middlebury this year. Dorothy Tillapaugh of the same college has a scholarship.

In New York A, Ruth de Lano, Dorothy Coleman, Evelyn Van Alstine, Doris Mills, Larry Lawrence, Leda Metzger, Lucia Fry, Bernice Bohlman and Elizabeth Newberry are now holding scholarships at Syracuse University.

Margaret Shippen, Illinois E, holds a scholarship this year.

WHAT THE CHAPTERS ARE DOING TO STIMULATE HIGH SCHOLARSHIP

(The following outstanding facts have been selected from the reports sent in from the chapters concerning efforts to raise scholarship and awards for achievement. Many of the chapters have similar methods and much material has had to be omitted on account of lack of space.—The Editor.)

ONTARIO A—Requires each member and pledge to study thirty-three hours a week, including lectures. To the girl obtaining the highest ranking in the first year a recognition pin is presented by Jean McQueen; for the second year there is a shield and for the third year a cup upon which the name of the girl having highest scholarship is engraved. A special award is also made to the senior who graduates with the highest honors.

MAINE A—offers to the members making the Dean's List, Average B, a pendant with fraternity coat-of-arms. Each member pledges herself to devote a definite number of hours each day in concentrated study. Pi Beta Phi ranks third at the University of Maine.

Vermont A—The pledge who attains the highest rank her first semester receives a recognition pin. The sophomore who makes the greatest improvement during her second year receives a Pi Beta Phi ring. The chapter always presents its Phi Beta Kappa members with their keys. All pledges are required to pass fifteen hours work satisfactorily before initiation.

VERMONT B—A bulletin board is used in the chapter house upon which the scholarship committee posts the grades. A gold star is placed by every A, a silver star for B. A black star designates a failing mark. The alumnae club has offered a Pi Beta Phi bar pin to the member who shows the most marked improvement during the year. The class which averages the highest rank is entertained by the class with the lowest rank. Required scholarship average for initiation is 79 per cent.

NEW YORK A—An average of 80 per cent required for initiation. An average of 78 per cent is customary on the campus. Scholarship cup on which name of sophomore with highest average is engraved.

NEW YORK DELTA—Each girl is obliged to report all marks on quizzes, preliminary examinations, etc., in chapter meeting. Sigma Kappa leads the Cornell campus with Pi Phi fourth.

PENNSYLVANIA A—Study Hall required for those below certain average. Sophomore Scholarship Cup with the requirement of a 2.5 average for entire year before a name may be engraved upon it. An alumnae will award an arrow to freshman showing greatest improvement during semester.

PENNSYLVANIA Γ—The Pi Beta Phi alumnae of Lancaster offer a cup to the woman's fraternity at Dickinson ranking first in scholarship. This alumnae club also awards a bracelet to the member of Pennsylvania Γ who raises her average the greatest number of points during the year. This is awarded at the Annual Founders' Day banquet in Harrisburg. Panhellenic rules that no freshman may be rushed who has an average for six weeks below "C" (70). Chapter requires an average of C plus or 75 per cent for initiation. Pi Beta Phi bar pin awarded to freshman making highest record. Averages of actives and pledges posted in chapter rooms. Phi Mu ranks first at Dickinson with Pi Beta Phi second.

PENNSYLVANIA Δ—Recognition pin to initiate having highest grades. Kappa Alpha Theta holds Panhellenic cup although Theta Gamma Phi, a local, stands first in scholarship. Pennsylvania Δ ranks tenth among seventeen. Averages are very close, some varying by less than one-tenth of one per cent. Pittsburgh Panhellenic Association awards a scholarship of $100 each year to the junior girl of highest standing.

OHIO A—Silver loving cup upon which is engraved name of girl who has done most for the chapter each year, scholarship being the first basis of judgment. Average grade of eighty-five required before initiation. Grades of actives and pledges read in chapter meetings three times each semester. A beautiful arrow set with diamonds was left to the chapter upon the death of a member and this pin is to be worn by the girl making the highest average. Zeta Tau Alpha leads the campus with Pi Beta Phi second.

WEST VIRGINIA A—The chapter offers to the pledge whose grades are highest at the time of initiation, a silver loving cup. The alumnae award a recognition pin to the pledge who stands highest. Kappa Gamma won the Panhellenic cup for high scholarship last semester. Pi Beta Phi has held it several times in the past. Average of eighty percent is required for initiation. Panhellenic will not permit the pledging of a girl until she has made a required average at the end of the first semester.

MARYLAND A—A scholarship cup on which is engraved name of the freshman who leads her class in scholarship for second semester. Panhellenic will permit the initiation of a girl who makes a certain numerical average even though she may have a condition or failure. The chapter, however, will not initiate any one who has either a condition or a failure. Alpha Gamma Delta ranks highest at Goucher College with Maryland A, fourth.

FLORIDA B—Panhellenic requires an average of 85 for initiation. Florida B has ruled that a member forfeits her right to vote on fraternity matters if she has an average below 85. Sigma Sigma Sigma won the Panhellenic cup last year with Pi Beta Phi second. There was a difference of only one point.

MICHIGAN A—A B minus average is required for initiation and supervised study is held to help those who are below. Grades are published on a chart which is displayed in the house every six weeks. There is a scholarship cup given by one of the alumnae which is awarded to the girl in the chapter who makes the most improvement in scholarship during the year. Chapter has a scholarship ring which is the property for one year of person ranking highest during previous year. Anyone winning the ring for three consecutive semesters may keep it. Pi Phi urges her freshman to make Epsilon Delta Alpha, the college honor society.

MICHIGAN B—Members are limited in social engagements if grades are low. Sorosis has held Panhellenic cup for two years Pi Phi this year ranks fourth on list, but for the past seven years has had an average of second and of first of national fraternities Pi Phi bracelet awarded to freshman ranking highest. Fifteen hours and an average grade of C required for initiation. Have a study hall conducted by seniors for pledges. Each pledge is required to give fifteen hours to study under supervision each week, irrespective of the time spent at the library or at home.

INDIANA A—Scholarship cup given to girl making highest record. C plus required for initiation. Marion Brown won Panhellenic scholarship for 1922 which is awarded to the girl making the highest number of credit points in the greatest number of hours for one year. If a girl falls below C in any subject she automatically becomes inactive from chapter life until the grade is raised.

INDIANA B—A silver loving cup for freshmen. Goes to girl who makes the highest average for two semesters. Her name is engraved upon it and it becomes her property for one year. Study hall for freshmen each night from seven until ten o'clock with upperclassmen in charge. Professors are consulted and efforts made to bring up all low grades. The week before mid-semester and final examinations the freshmen are allowed no dates. C average required for initiation. A C plus average is required in order to vote on fraternity matters. A fine is imposed for each hour of failure. Have a scholarship cup for upperclassmen. Sigma Kappa now holds the Panhellenic scholarship cup at the University of Indiana.

INDIANA F—Silver Cup for freshman. Average of 78 for initiation. All active members who make an average of 85 receive Pi Beta Phi bar-pins. Special award to the senior having the highest scholastic record. Spread given at close of year in honor of class with highest average. Money fines are required for each hour of D, C minus, etc. Delta Delta Delta holds Panhellenic cup now with Pi Beta Phi second with an average of 83.66.

MINNESOTA A—The chapter has been permitted to use a vacant room of Folwell Hall for a study room. Every freshman is required to be present there every hour when she has no class. The study hall is supervised by Pi Phi upper-classmen. Both lower-classmen and upper-classmen benefit by this study hall. Scholarship cup given by alumnae. C average required for initiation. Sigma Kappa ranks first at the University of Minnesota now with Pi Beta Phi fourth.

WISCONSIN A—Look up grades of rushees before pledging. Talk to pledges upon importance of scholarship. Recognition pin to the initiate having highest standing. Grades of actives read in chapter meeting and all girls are required to report cuts.

NORTH DAKOTA A—Requires an average of 80 percent in all work taken the semester preceding initiation—an average of 2 percent above that required by local Panhellenic. Grades obtained from professors every six weeks. Study hall. Panhellenic with the Interfraternity Council will in the future take charge of the ranking of the fraternities.

ILLINOIS B—Delta Zeta ranked first on Lombard campus last year with Pi Beta Phi second. Scholarship cup upon which is engraved name of girl in chapter having highest average. One Pi Beta Phi received all straight A's last year.

ILLINOIS Δ—Supervised study for pledges. Chapter scholarship cup awarded each year to the junior making highest grades. She automatically becomes chairman of the scholarship committee for the following year. The College awards a cup to the sorority standing highest on campus.

ILLINOIS E—A scholarship cup. A recognition pin awarded to freshman with the highest standing. A banquet is presented by the chapter to the class which has the highest average. Phi Omega Pi leads in scholarship at Northwestern University. An average of 1.5 (B minus) is required for initiation.

IOWA A—Grades reported every month. C average required. Only once has the comparative ranking of the different fraternities been published, that was the first semester of last year. At that time Pi Beta Phi held first place.

IOWA B—The alumnae of Zeta province have given a cup to the Pi Beta Phi chapter with the highest scholarship and best general conditions. Iowa B has won the cup for the past two years and if winning it a third time will be permitted to keep it. Pi Beta Phi stands first on the Simpson campus.

IOWA Γ—Women's Guild, a campus organization, offers a cup to the woman's organization holding the highest average on the Ames campus. We require an average of  $82\frac{1}{2}$  percent for initiation. A reward is offered to the pledge with highest average.

MISSOURI Γ—A recognition pin offered to pledge. Scholarship Cup for freshmen. Average of 80 percent required for initiation.

KANSAS A—A gold bracelet is always worn by the freshman having the highest grades her first year. The bracelet bears the letters Π Β Φ and has engraved inside the names of the girls who have worn it. Silver loving cup on which are engraved names of seniors making Φ Β Κ. Pi Beta Phi ranks second in scholarship with Alpha Xi Delta first by a few hundredths of a point.

COLORADO B—Pledges are informed that their average for initiation must be 85 percent. Grades are read in meeting of both pledges and actives every six weeks. Scholarship cup upon which name of girl with highest grade is engraved at end of sophomore year. Sigma Kappa now is in possession of the Panhellenic cup having won it from Pi Beta Phi by 1-10 of a point.

KANSAS B—A loving cup for one semester is given to girl having highest average in chapter for preceding semester. Pi Beta Phi ranks first on campus. All pledges must have an average of M.

WYOMING A—Freshman scholarship cup. Delta Delta Delta holds the Panhellenic cup at the University of Wyoming. The study hall supervised by upperclassmen was not a success so the chapter is now trying study hours without supervision and putting the girls on an honor system. An average of "3" is required for initiation.

OKLAHOMA A—All initiates falling below an average of 85 must attend study hall for at least two hours daily. All pledges must attend regular study hall, four hours a day. The Panhellenic cup is now in the possession of Alpha Xi Delta. A recognition pin set with a diamond is offered to pledge making highest grades.

ARKANSAS A—Chapter scholarship cup. Alumnae have offered diamond recognition pin to pledge and initiate making highest averages. Pi Beta Phi pledges won the Panhellenic pledge cup the first quarter of last year. For initiation, freshmen are required to have 16 hours B or thirty hours C while upper-classmen must have sixteen hours in the University of Arkansas in order to be initiated. Talks to pledges on scholarship. Heavy fines are imposed for an F, E or D.

TEXAS A—For the third time Panhellenic has presented to this chapter a most coveted scholarship cup which is now in its permanent possession. With the cup there was also a prize of fifty dollars awarded anonymously. Every member of this chapter strives to do her best. The chapter requirement for initiation is higher than that of the university. Alumnae club offered prize of $10 to most all around girl.

LOUISIANA A—Thorough supervision of scholarship committee. Last June, had highest average of any fraternity on the campus. A bracelet is awarded for high scholarship. Recognition pin awarded to sophomore. No one can be initiated until she has passed one year's work without a single condition.

MONTANA A—Won second place on campus last year and first this year. Intensive work is done by scholarship committee. Chapter gives arrow to the pledge who makes highest average.

WASHINGTON A—An average of 86 is required for initiation. Last year Kappa Kappa Gamma led the University of Washington campus. Chapter has a supervised study table for freshmen. Also has a freshman cup upon which is engraved the name of the freshman receiving highest average. For the seniors there is a Phi Beta Kappa cup. Last year had a system of fines for poor grades. This was not found satisfactory.

WASHINGTON B—A nightly supervised study table for all under classmen and others whose grades are below the average. A spread is given for highest half of house by those with lowest grades. Girls having grades lower than the house average at end of mid-semester marks, are required to spend three hours on Saturday mornings in library. Won the scholarship cup for highest record of forty-two groups. Chapter presents an arrow to freshman making highest grades.

IDAHO A—won the Elizabeth Kiddie Lindley scholarship cup for two years. Require B or 5 out of a possible 6 average for initiation. Supervised study. The committee on scholarship is now working on a plan for rewarding high scholarships.

OREGON B—An average of 86 is required for initiation and probation. If a girl falls below that she is required to do six hours of studying over the week-end and must give up one night and one afternoon date. Helen Snyder offers a cup to the girls receiving the highest average. Alpha Xi Delta now holds the Panhellenic cup. The average for Pi Beta Phi last term was 87.64.

CALIFORNIA A—In June, 1922, three members of this chapter were elected to Phi Beta Kappa. In congratulating the chapter, members of the faculty said they could not remember three men or women from the same fraternity ever being elected to Phi Beta Kappa at the same time at Stanford University. Chapter scholarship committee enforces rigid rules. No visiting is allowed between rooms except for study during study hours. Those members of the chapter who in the preceding quarter did not make the fraternity scholarship average have to abide by the rules applicable to the class below them. Each girl is fined for cutting a class. Chapter scholarship cup for Phi Beta Kappa names. C average required for initiation.

CALIFORNIA Γ—The alumnae gave a freshman scholarship cup to be engraved with names of highest freshmen. They also present book-ends to the senior who graduates with the highest honors. B average required for initiation. A fine of $20 is imposed for each failure, incomplete or condition unless it is removed before the fraternity scholarship ratings are made out. Fines are also imposed for cutting classes. Alpha Kappa Delta ranked first this year in scholarship. Pi Beta Phi was eleventh on the list and second among national fraternities, the first place being held by honor fraternities.

ARIZONA A—Has won the Solomon scholarship cup three semesters out of the past four. The chapter requires an average slightly higher than that of the university for initiation.

NEVADA A—Ranked first in scholarship last year. A semester average of 2.5 (80 percent) is required for initiation. To stimulate high scholarship, the chapter is divided into two teams. The team with the highest average will be entertained by the losers at a cooky-shine. Members are fined for all unexcused absences from classes.

FELLOWSHIPS OPEN TO WOMEN

The Committee on Fellowships of the American Association of University Women of which Dr. Agnes L. Rogers, Smith College, Northampton, Mass., is the chairman, has the administration of many splendid fellowships for women. These fellowships offer opportunity not only for advanced research work but also for travel in Europe.

The fellowships for the academic year, 1924-25- have either been awarded or will be awarded by the A. A. of U. W. this spring. Many of these fellowships, however, are awarded each year and if you desire to make application for one begin to look into the matter now.

The following information concerning some of these fellowships is exceedingly interesting in the light of educational advantages for the women of today:

ALICE FREEMAN PALMER MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

Candidates for this research Fellowship of one thousand dollars must not only have the degree of Doctor of Philosophy or Doctor of Science, but must also present evidence of distinctive subsequent accomplishment in research.

THE SARAH BERLINER RESEARCH AND LECTURE FELLOWSHIP

The Committee on Fellowships of the American Association of University Women has been made the committee on award of this Fellowship, of the value of from one thousand to twelve hundred dollars, offered annually. It is available for research in physics, chemistry or biology. This Fellowship is open to American women holding the degree of Doctor of Science who give promise of distinction in the subject to which they are devoting themselves.

The committee in charge of the Sarah Berliner Fund desires to give explicit recognition to those candidates who can carry on research and at the same time have the privilege of giving one or more courses of lectures at some university or institution of learning.

THE A. A. U. W. EUROPEAN FELLOWSHIP

This Fellowship of one thousand dollars for research in Europe, is open to any woman having a degree in Arts, Science, or Literature, who has met all the requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree with the possible exception of the completion of the dissertation. This Fellowship will be awarded only to one who gives promise of distinction.

JULIA C. G. PIATT MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

This memorial Fellowship of seven hundred and fifty dollars is offered in alternate years by the American Association of University Women as trustee of the memorial fund given by the Anna C. Brackett Association.

This Fellowship is open to any woman having a degree in Arts, Science or Literature, who intends to make teaching her profession. In general, preference is given to those applicants who have had successful experience in teaching and in addition have completed at least two years of graduate study. The award is based upon evidence of character and ability of the candidate and promise of success in teaching.

BOSTON ALUMNAE FELLOWSHIP

The Boston Branch of the American Association of University Women aided by the Radcliffe Alumnae Association, the Boston Alumnae Clubs of Smith College, Bryn Mawr College, Vassar College Wellesley College, Boston University, Mount Holyoke College, and Tufts College offers a graduate fellowship of five hundred dollars, for the purpose of stimulating scholarship among women.

The holder of this Fellowship must be a graduate of an approved college, and must have good health, excellent character, ability, and initiative. The Fellowship may, however, at the discretion of the Committee of Award, be given to an applicant who submits reports of a limited amount of investigation, provided the work is of high quality and shows exceptional promise. The award will be postponed unless the conditions are fully met. The Fellowship must be used in Europe or in America for one year of constructive work, and not merely for the purpose of general culture.

Applications for the fellowship should be made to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowships of the American Association of University Women, which is the Committee on Award.

Announcements may be addressed to the Chairman of this Committee, (to be announced later).

ROSE SIDGWICK MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

This Fellowship of one thousand dollars has been established by Americans and the American Association of University Women in memory of Rose Sidgwick, a member of the British Educational Mission which visited the United States in 1918, and in recognition of her services to the cause of Anglo-American friendship.

The Fellowship is open to British women of graduate standing and is to be held for the purpose of graduate study in American colleges or universities.

The award of this Fellowship will be made by a committee of the British Federation of University Women. Further information may be obtained from

Miss Theodora Bosanquet,
92 Victoria Street, London, S. W. 1
England

A. A. U. W. INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP

The American Association of University Women offers a fellowship of the value of $1000 to enable the holder to carry on a year's research in some country other than her own during the academic year 1924-25.

A $1,000 fellowship to be paid each year by the Phi Mu Sorority, and also one of $1,000 to be paid by Pi Lambda Theta, Education Honorary Sorority. The latter is to be awarded to a woman holding the Master's degree who has done significant work in educational research and who has a definite plan for further research in the field of education.

Applications must be in the hands of the committee each year by February 4.

DR. MAY LANSFIELD KELLER

President Emeritus and Panhellenic Delegate

Dr. May Lansfield Keller, Maryland A, is known and loved by every member of Pi Beta Phi. The esteem in which she is held is proved by the fact that in recognition of the splendid service rendered as Grand President of Pi Beta Phi during four successive terms, she was made President Emeritus by unanimous vote of the Charlevoix Convention, 1918. Since that time in addition to assisting the fraternity whenever possible she has served as the National Panhellenic Congress representative.

Dr. Keller was graduated from Goucher College in 1898 and did graduate work in the University of Chicago before studying three years in Germany, where she received the degree of Ph. D. from Heidelberg University. Subsequently, she was professor of German at Wells College and professor of English at Goucher College. In 1914 she was appointed Dean of Westhampton College, Richmond, Virginia, which position she now holds.

May Keller was a charter member of Maryland A and since the day of her initiation has always displayed a keen interest in fraternity life and affairs. With the many demands upon her time because of her position as Dean of Westhampton it was a real personal sacrifice for her to remain in office as Grand President but she finally consented to do so until 1918.

Dr. Keller is a national figure not only in fraternity work but also in many fields of educational endeavor. She has just completed most successfully a term of office as a regional director of the American Association of University Women and was one of the one hundred eminent alumnae from Goucher College selected by the Board of Trustees to assist in raising the $6,000,000 fund for Goucher.

DR. MAY L. KELLER, Maryland A

REPORT OF NATIONAL PANHELLENIC DELEGATE

The Eighteenth National Panhellenic Congress was held in Boston from October 17 to 20, at which meeting it was my privilege to represent Pi Beta Phi. The business of the Congress has been so well covered by the editorial staff, that I shall confine this article to certain rather well defined impressions, rather than to a discussion of the business of the Congress.

On the way to Boston I stopped in New York where together with Dr. Matzke, Π Β Φ, and Dr. Cady of Κ Κ Γ, we met Dr. Snow and Dr. Exner of the Social Hygiene Board and Dr. Galloway of the Interfraternity Conference, with whom we spent a morning talking over a health program for fraternity women. After a charming luncheon with Dr. Galloway and other members of the staff, Dr. Matzke left for further consultation with the American Hygiene Board, while I boarded the train for Boston.

Arrived in Boston, the Parker House proved a very pleasant meeting place, my room overlooked the old grave yard in which Paul Revere lies buried, and Boston Common was not far distant. By the time Mrs. David Nickerson and Mrs. Paul Ingraham had appeared early in the morning for the first session and were shown up to my room already decorated with the wine carnations sent by Massachusetts A, I was feeling very much at home.

Later when we gathered around the table to transact Congress business, this impression continued for old members outnumbered the new and many greetings were exchanged between old friends.

Owing to the recent sudden death of the Chairman, Mrs. McCausland, the meeting was called to order by Miss Laura Hurd, who presided throughout the sessions, accepting the burden that had fallen upon her shoulders in a very philosophical and friendly spirit.

The first motion of the meeting was one of particular interest to us for it was to send a telegram of greetings to Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, the first fraternity woman to preside over the White House. The telegram is as follows:

"The Eighteenth National Panhellenic Congress representing 150,000 Sorority Women in session at Parker House, Boston, Mass., sends greetings and best wishes to you as the first Sorority Woman to grace the White House.

MAY AGNES HOPKINS, Secretary."

This note of friendly interest and cooperation struck at the beginning of the Congress seemed to prevail throughout and day by day a desire was shown by all delegates to consider and study the larger activities of the various Congress fraternities. For the first time an outline of points to be considered in the reports had been furnished the delegates in advance, and the returns on the question relating to philanthropic work were so productive of information concerning real work that was being accomplished by the women's fraternities, that the secretary, Dr. Hopkins, put a motion to enlarge these reports and print them in booklet form, so that this information should be available for all desiring it.

Especially delightful were the dinners arranged for delegates and visitors at which important matters of policy, etc., were discussed over the coffee cups. Mrs. Martin was the chief speaker at the Wednesday evening dinner, and Dr. Galloway on Thursday evening. This was the first time also that a member of the Interfraternity Conference had appeared before the N. P. C. as the bearer of a direct message from that body. Dr. Galloway plead for cooperation with the Interfraternity Conference on the health problem in our colleges and universities. The most direct need being the appointment of properly equipped and well poised men and women physicians as the heads of the departments of Health and Hygiene.

The banquet on Friday evening at Young's Hotel closed the series of social events with a group of delightful speakers, among them Miss Northrop, who entertained the entire company by her delightful wit and humor.

Our fraternity jeweler, Mr. Balfour, arranged an enjoyable automobile trip to his factory at Attleboro. A stop was made at the famous Weber Duck Inn for luncheon, after which a thorough inspection of the factory was made and the delegates were permitted to inspect the jewelry at all stages of its manufacture. Dainty gold mesh bags, the souvenirs of the day, will long remind us of the pleasant afternoon at L. G. Balfour and Company's plant.

Another innovation was an entire afternoon program devoted to matters of vital importance to women and of wider interest than merely a fraternity one. Mrs. Maud Wood Park, President of the National League of Women Voters, made a most inspiring plea to the fraternity women of America to live up to their responsibilities as American citizens. Miss Hirth of the Vocational Information Bureau of New York emphasized the need of wise guidance early in the college course and also the need for the correlation of courses.

The Health Program closed the afternoon meeting where three fraternity women, Mrs. Collins, X Ω; Dr. Hopkins, Z T A, and your own delegate out of the depths of their experience expressed what they felt as the great need not only of college women but of all women today, namely splendid health coupled with a sane and wholesome attitude toward life and its problems. The fraternity women should lead in this movement and the way is open to them.

From many standpoints the Panhellenic meeting in Boston seems to me the most productive of lasting good of any held for a number of years. We recognized ourselves, for the most part, as a deliberate not a legislative body and as such discussed many important problems both of the fraternity and university world.

MAY L. KELLER.

EXTRACTS FROM PANHELLENIC REPORT

The following extracts taken from the Panhellenic Congress Report should prove interesting to every member of Pi Beta Phi:

The Executive Committee for the next biennium is: chairman, Dr. May Agness Hopkins, Zeta Tau Alpha; secretary, Miss Louise Leonard, Alpha Gamma Delta; treasurer, Miss Irma Tapp, Alpha Delta Pi.

The Congress felt itself sufficiently grown-up to need a history, or handbook of information about itself, so that was among the numerous projects referred to the incoming executive committee for execution.

The usual reports of delegates were devoted to questions of extension policy, central office organization, social welfare and philanthropic work by fraternities. The almost universal development of scholarship loan funds, and the turning of philanthropic effort toward service to children, were significant features of these reports.

The Committee on College Panhellenics stressed the raising of scholarship standards and the fostering of fine social relations, as matters that College Panhellenics might well include in their programs.

The reports of the Committee on City Panhellenics showed a wide diversity of interests, and an equally wide diversity of opportunities open to the alumnae who form these organizations. The most ambitious work, developed to meet a real housing need, is the Fraternity Women's Clubhouse project in New York City.

The Congress increased its membership by admitting to full membership Beta Phi Alpha, and to associate membership, Alpha Delta Theta and Theta Upsilon.

Beta Phi Alpha, the newest member of N. P. C., was founded at the University of California in 1909 under the name, Kappa Phi Alpha. The name was changed because Kappa Phi Alpha was found to be also the name of another organization (of men), in a few Eastern Colleges.

In 1919, Beta Phi Alpha, having grown in strength and numbers decided to become a national, rather than a local, fraternity, and so altered its laws and plans.

Its chapter roll today is: University of California, University of Illinois, Colorado State College, University of Washington, Southern Methodist University.

All but the last chapter, operate chapter-houses and the Mother chapter owns its chapter-house. Before Beta Phi Alpha grants a charter, it requires that a group prove its stability as a local and have the approval of its college and its Panhellenic.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

The two new associate members of N. P. C. are Alpha Delta Theta and Theta Upsilon.

Alpha Delta Theta was founded in 1921 at Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., under the guidance of fraternity faculty women of that institution. It has chapters also at Cincinnati, Butler and Illinois.

Theta Upsilon has chapters at the Universities of California, Illinois, Ohio State, Washington State, Ohio Wesleyan, and Brenau College.

By a set of resolutions the N. P. C., accepted the invitation of The League of Women Voters through its president, Mrs.

Maud Wood Park, to take part in a campaign for efficient citizenship.

Pi Beta Phi was represented at the Congress by our official delegate and by official visitors, Anna Robinson Nickerson, Grand Vice President and Lulu Clark Ingraham, former Grand Secretary.

NATIONAL OFFICERS

SARA EIKENBERRY SIGLER, Historian

SARA EIKENBERRY SIGLER
Historian

Sara Eickenberry Sigler, Iowa B, who was re-elected National Historian, at the Estes Park Convention has always been intensely interested in Pi Beta Phi and expresses her devotion not only by serving in a national capacity but also in giving a great deal of her time and service to Iowa B at Indianola, Iowa.

Mrs. Sigler was born in Chariton, Iowa, and received her early education there, being graduated from the high school in 1890. In the autumn of 1891 she entered Simpson College where she was initiated into Pi Beta Phi.

In addition to participating in college literary societies she gave particular attention to Y. W. C. A.

In 1895 she was married to Frederick Carl Sigler of Corning,

Iowa, a classmate. For many years they have lived in Indianola, where Mr. Sigler is a member of the Board of Trustees of the college.

Mrs. Sigler has frequently served as chaperon for the Ladies' Glee Club, has a large Sunday School class of college girls, is an active worker in the Y. W. C. A. and an adviser for Iowa B.

In previous issues of THE ARROW special attention has been called to the "Town Mother" idea originated by Mrs. Sigler. According to the plan, town women of Indianola apply to the dean of women for a "daughter," to whom is extended the hospitality of the home. The "town mother" custom is now one of the most distinctive and cherished traditions of Simpson College.

Among Mrs. Sigler's "College Daughters" have been a Burmese girl, now in Rangoon; a German girl, now a fine and useful woman; a number of interesting American Girls; and a dainty Japanese girl.

Mrs. Sigler's own daughter, Helen Elizabeth (Mrs. G. C. Carpenter, Jr.), attended Swarthmore and is a member of Pennsylvania A.

Mrs. Sigler became Province President of Zeta Province in 1918 and carried into her work the same enthusiasm and interest which she has since displayed in her work as National Historian. Especially active has Mrs. Sigler been in searching for old charters and in perfecting the records relative to them. She has not only concerned herself with the dusty volumes and documents of history but has been ready at all times to serve Pi Beta Phi in any way possible.

MABEL SCOTT BROWN, Cataloguer

Surrounded by tier upon tier of card indexes, or making a special chapter visit upon request of the Grand President, or helping to supervise parties for Pennsylvania  $\Delta$ —wherever there is need of personal service and good sound advice, you will find Mabel Scott Brown, Columbia A, our new cataloguer.

With unusual insight into human nature, with a keen appreciation of the ideals towards which Pi Beta Phi is striving and with a capacity for accomplishing things in the most efficient way. Mabel Scott Brown is a valuable fraternity worker.

Mabel Scott was initiated into Maryland A in the spring of 1904 and in the fall of 1905 was transferred to Columbia A, graduating in 1907 from George Washington University with the degree of A. B. She also received the degree of A. M. in 1914. At George Washington University she helped organize and was the first president of the Y. W. C. A. She was active in senior dramatics and public speaking, winning the first Davis Prize in 1907, and was an assistant in the college library for a year.

She was president of the Washington Alumnae Club 1916-17-18 and was sent as delegate from the club to the 1918 Charlevoix Convention. During her presidency she made a wide acquaintance among Pi Phi war workers temporarily in Washington. She attended the Evanston 1912 Convention and the Estes Park 1923 Convention. For two years she was Chapter Letter Editor of the ARROW and did such splendid work that the

MABEL SCOTT BROWN Columbia A

Editor reluctantly released her from the staff in order that she might assume the bigger work as Cataloguer. At present Mrs. Brown is treasurer of the Pittsburg Alumnae Club.

Immediately after graduation Mabel Scott did clerical work in the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory and the first Immigration Commission in Washington. Later she taught English and German for three years in Parkersburg, W. Va., and English and Journalism for five years in Washington, D. C., resigning to go abroad.

In 1918 she was sent overseas by the American Red Cross as a war worker and became director of a canteen at St. Brieuç, near Brest, where a million men were fed. In 1919 she was sent to Coblenz, Germany to open and become director of the A. R. C. with the American Forces in Germany and while there was one of the founders of the Coblenz Panhellenic club.

Mabel Scott was married on June 19, 1920 to Robson D. Brown,  $\Sigma \Phi E$ , George Washington University 1907. They now live at 1354 Singer Place, Wilkinsburg, Penn.

LORENA ACCOLA FITZELL, Alumnæ Editor

Every Pi Phi who attended the last convention at Estes Park knows well the splendid ability displayed by Mrs. Grant R. Fitzell (Lorena Accola, Colorado A), who with her corps of assistants housed and fed the Pi Phi Multitude! The last one to retire at night and the first one to be on deck in the morning was our Convention Guide who so skillfully supervised the shifting of scenery and the commandeering of supplies that no noise of the "machinery" was heard.

LORENA ACCOLA FITZELL Colorado A

After the tremendous task of "putting over" the biggest Pi Beta Phi Convention ever held, Mrs. Fitzell was reluctant to assume immediate additional responsibility but was prevailed upon to accept the office of Alumnæ Editor and has plunged into the work with a will.

Lorena Accola received her first college work at Christian College, Columbia, Missouri, and while there was a member of Phi Mu Gamma, national Class B fraternity. During her three years at Columbia she served on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet and in June, 1915, received the degree of Associate in Arts.

In September 1915, she entered the University of Colorado as a junior and a week later found herself wearing the wine and blue. She was initiated into Colorado A on February 4, 1916 and has since then been a most enthusiastic worker in the fraternity.

Two months after she was graduated from Boulder in 1917, she married Grant R. Fitzell,  $\Sigma X$ , University of Colorado, who is an exceedingly loyal fraternity man and who was most liberal with his time and assistance in helping to make the Pi Phi convention a success.

For two years, Mrs. Fitzell served as secretary of the Denver Alumnae Club and takes up her new position with the determination to fulfill its requirements to the best of her ability.

FLORENCE CLUM TEMPLE, Mailing Clerk

FLORENCE CLUM TEMPLE, Penn. B
Mailing Clerk

With a family of ARROW subscribers as large as that of the Old Woman Who Lived in the Shoe — Florence Clum Temple finds that she has worlds of work to do.

With more than 10,000 Pi Phis whose names are on her mailing list constantly moving, changing names and addresses, it requires almost every spare moment of Mrs. Temple's time to keep up with them and to see that the ARROW reaches each one who is entitled to receive it.

But Florence Clum Temple, Pennsylvania B, has proven equal to her task and has during the past two years and a half put the Arrow mailing list into splendid shape.

Florence Clum prepared for college at Peddie Institute, Hightstown, New Jersey and finished second in her class in 1908. Her zeal for high scholarship standing was carried into Bucknell University where she graduated in 1912, cum laude.

In college activities, she won the freshman declamation contest and was on the sophomore and junior programs, also on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet for three years. In her junior year she was sent to Granville, Ohio as Y. W. C. A. delegate from Bucknell. In her senior year she was president of Women's League.

Mrs. Temple's fraternity life began when she was a freshman and her interest in Pi Beta Phi was demonstrated while she was Panhellenic representative as a junior and chapter president as a senior. At the Swarthmore Convention in 1910 she was chairman of the cooky-shine and stunt party.

Florence Clum was married on July 30, 1914 to C. E. Temple and has two attractive little daughters.

At present Mrs. Temple is teaching civics and American history in the Stevens High School for girls, Lancaster, Penn. But in addition to her other responsibilities, she serves most efficiently on the ARROW staff.

CAROLYN REED, Chapter Letter Editor

As Chapter Letter Editor of THE ARROW, Carolyn Reed, Nebraska B, brought to the Arrow staff the knowledge and assistance of a trained worker as she was active in journalistic pursuits in the University of Nebraska.

Carolyn Margaret Reed was born at Crete, Nebraska, in July, 1899, and graduated from the Lincoln High School, Lincoln, Nebraska, 1915. She was initiated into Nebraska B in March, 1917. She holds an A. B. degree and state teacher's certificate from the University of Nebraska and a B. M. from Nebraska Wesleyan University.

CAROLYN REED,
Chapter Letter Editor

While in the University of Nebraska Carolyn Reed was president of her fraternity for one year, treasurer W. S. G. A. and member of the Board, 1917; belonged to the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, 1919-20; made Silver Serpent, junior honorary, 1919; president of senior class, 1920; charter member of Delta Omicron, honorary musical fraternity; editor, associate editor and reporter of "Daily Nebraskan," the daily newspaper of the University and was elected to membership in Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic fraternity. In 1919-20, she held the Presser Foundation Musical Scholarship at Nebraska Wesleyan University.

For two years Miss Reed taught music in the high school at Fremont, Nebraska and is now in New York City where she is interested in journalism.

As a member of the Convention Daily staff at the Estes Park Convention, Carolyn Reed displayed exceptional ability and upon the resignation of Mabel Scott Brown, former chapter letter editor, consented to give her time and energy to the chapter letter work.

At the present time when the subject of the chapter letter is being discussed in the various fraternity magazines, our new editor is striving to prove that the chapter letter is a most worthwhile institution and is assisting corresponding secretaries by sending personal letters of suggestion and helpful criticism.

BOOK NOTES

BY DOROTHY K. CLEVELAND, NEW YORK
11 University Ave., Canton, N. Y.

"Michelet and his ideas on social reform," by Anne Reese Pugh. Columbia University Press, N. Y., 243p. O. $2.00 net.

A recent volume in the Columbia University studies in Romance philology and literature is "Michelet and his ideas on social reform" by Anna R. Pugh, Kansas A. To perhaps the majority, Michelet is merely the author of a monumental work on French history. The man himself and his relation to his time is unknown. Michelet was one of those French thinkers immediately following the Revolution whom DeQuincey characterizes as "crazy with the laughing gas of recovered liberty." Michelet's volatile temperament found an outlet not in his history alone, but in a long list of works sociological, philosophical, historical and religious. All of these were used by Dr. Pugh as the basis for thorough and comprehensive study of the man and his plans for the reform of society. Perhaps the most interesting section is that devoted to woman and society. In his ideas on woman's education he was influenced by Rosseau, Pestalozzi, and Froebel. Of all the women in his country's history he dealt tenderly with very few but there were few whom he did not pity. Of "emancipated" women, only one, Theroigne de Mericourt drew from him spontaneous and unqualified expression of admiration. Dr. Pugh is professor of Romance languages at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.

Mrs. Wallace E. Caldwell (Harriet Wilmot, N. Y. B) is the illustrator of "Stories and poems of the Old North State." Mrs. Leavitt, editor of the volume, writes as follows: "Harriet Wilmot Caldwell, now living in Chapel Hill, has won considerable distinction in illustrating Stories and poems from the Old North State, the official volume of prize selections recently published by the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. The character of her work is of such high standard that she has been offered a position with one of the leading printing establishments of the state."

A pamphlet on "English pronunciation for foreigners" by Sarah T. Barrows, Iowa Γ, has recently been published by the California Department of Education. Miss Barrows, now assistant professor in phonetics, Department of speech, State University of Iowa, was at the time of writing the pamphlet, a teacher in the San Francisco State Normal School. Her work consisted particularly in training teachers to teach English to foreigners, both adults and children. "The foreign child and his speech handicap," an article by her in the Educational Review for December 1922, describes her original methods in this work.

Mrs. C. E. Edmondson (Edna Hatfield, Indiana B) is joint author of a pamphlet on Child welfare legislation, published by Indiana University as Bulletin No. 1, vol. 7.

* * *

The Quarterly Journal of the New York State Historical Association for October 1923 contains an article, "The development of trade and trade routes of northern New York from the beginning of settlement to the coming of the railroads" by Dorothy K. Cleaveland, N. Y. Γ. This article was the thesis for a Master of Arts degree from Cornell University.

Among the recent publications are two which should be of general interest to fraternity workers. Alpha Phi is commemorating its fiftieth anniversary with "History of Alpha Phi fraternity, 1872-1922," and William K. Doty has written an account of the early history of Kappa Alpha southern entitled "Samuel Zenas Ammen and the Kappa Alpha order."

"How Your School Can Aid Eager Graduates" is the title of an interesting article by Grace T. Lewis, Maryland A, Dean, Mount Vernon (N. Y.) High School. The article which appears in The Scholastic for October 27, 1923, explains how the Mount Vernon High School raised $10,000 for a "Students' College Fund." The method is explained in detail and could be used by high schools throughout the United States.

"The Political Career of Lord Byron" by Dr. Dora Neil Raymond, Texas A, has been accepted for publication by Henry Holt & Co., and will appear in book form within a few months in this country and in England.

"I don't want to go to bed"; "I don't want to wear coats and things"; and "Three little kittens who lost their mittens" by Ruth Kauffman. Altemus, 1923. $.50 each.

Mrs. Reginald Wright Kauffman (Ruth Hammitt, Pennsylvania B) is the author of three little books for very little children just published by Altemus. "I don't want to wear coats and things" and "I don't want to go to bed" are modern ballads for little children telling what happened to Jacky Jones and Tommy Gray when they didn't do as they were told. "The three little kittens who lost their mittens" retells in ballad rhyme the old story of the Three little Kittens. In the same series with the latter is "Jack the Giant Killer" by Mr. Kauffman. All the books are attractively illustrated in color.

THE PI BETA PHI COOK BOOK just published by Iowa Z for the purpose of making money for a building fund is a splendid little volume. It contains the tried and true recipes of both actives and alumnae of the chapter and you know what that means. Iowa is famed for her wonderful housekeepers and excellent cooks!!

The recipes are arranged under the headings, cocktails, soups, meats and fish, vegetables, breads, salads and salad dressings, pastries, cakes, cookies and doughnuts, desserts, puddings and saucers, breakfast and luncheon dishes, sandwiches, canning--preserves and pickles, ices, ice cream and frozen desserts, candies, beverages, measurements, time table.

If you would like a fluffy chicken pie, a delicious date pudding, a sunshine cake, or a cocoanut cream pie you will find most excellent recipes in this clever Pi Beta Phi Cook book attractively bound in white oil cloth.

The book would make a splendid gift for Pi Phi brides-to-be and would be particularly interesting as a gift for a "shower" since there are blank pages in the back of the volume upon which those attending the shower could write their favorite recipes.

Order through Katherine Cox, Pi Beta Phi House, Iowa City, Iowa. Price $1.50. —A. W. S.

"Oberamergau," by Louise Parks Richards, Indiana A, is a valuable booklet on Oberamergau and the Passion play. A new edition with photographs from the 1921 play is now available from the author. Mrs. Richards has lived much abroad and has spent much time at Oberamergau, so that she writes with a personal knowledge of the play and its producers. The book is profusely illustrated from photographs.

PI PHIS IN THE PUBLIC EYE

ESTHER McDONALD,
Illinois E

There is always honor in achievement but the honor increases in volume compared to the competition which one has to meet in endeavoring to achieve.

To have accomplished all of the things and to have won all of the honors that Esther McDonald, Illinois E, did at Northwestern University brings to the attention of Pi Beta Phi the record of one of its most promising members.

At present Esther McDonald is attracting much attention on account of the exceptional work which she is doing as a graduate student in educational psychology at Teacher's College, Columbia University, this year. She is also prominent as a member of the National Executive Board of the Y. W. C. A.

Esther Leone McDonald was born at Lockport, Illinois on January 11, 1901 and attended the Lockport Grade and High Schools through the junior year. She spent her senior year at Grafton Hall, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin where she was graduated with honors in June, 1918.

In the fall of 1919, she entered Northwestern University and during her four years there was connected with all of the largest activities and movements in the university and twice won the beauty contest.

Her college activities were varied and yet everything which she attained—every organization into which she was chosen for membership—carried with it honor. She was president of Alethenai, literary society; made the freshman hockey team; was May Queen in her junior year; president of Y. W. C. A., senior year; delegate to the national Y. W. C. A. convention; charter member of Mortar Board; elected to Shirai, inter-sorority organization; made Ro Ku Va, literary organization; belonged to the Women's athletic association and to Epsilon Phi, senior women's fraternity.

Esther McDonald was elected to Psi Xi, honorary psychology fraternity, to Phi Beta Kappa and won the Bowright Prize for scholarship.

She was very active in chapter life serving as scholarship chairman, vice-president and president.

As an example of an all around fraternity woman, Esther McDonald holds a foremost position.

AUGUSTA RUDD McDONALD

It is most interesting to introduce to Pi Beta Phi at this time one of our newly initiated members—Augusta Rudd McDonald, the mother of Esther McDonald, who has just become a member of Illinois E.

Quoting from the Chicago Tribune:

Mrs. Augusta Rudd will be 49 years old in June and has two daughters who were graduated from Northwestern, which university she has entered herself. More than that, Mrs. McDonald has plunged into university life in all its phases. She has been "rushed" by sororities and has become a member of Pi Beta Phi.

She is a graduate of Oberlin, '97, and will receive her M. A. degree from the College of Liberal Arts at Northwestern next June. Her son Donald is now attending Knox, and another son, Leon, was a freshman at Dartmouth last year but decided to remain away from college a year on account of his age. He was only 16 when he entered college.

"There are several reasons why I decided to go back to school," Mrs. McDonald said. "I think it is a good thing for all widows to do. A woman works for a club or some organization of that kind, but accomplishes little and gets no reward. At school reward is sure. A mother should keep up with the times, keep abreast of her daughters, who are too apt to look upon her schooling with an air of superiority."

Mrs. McDonald is also the mother of Louise, a member of Illinois E.

VELMA JOHNSON FRY,
Missouri A

At the national convention of Beta Sigma Omicron, Junior class fraternity, held at Hardin, Missouri, in November, 1923, Mrs. W. Wallace Fry, Jr., (Velma Johnson, Missouri A of  $\Pi B \Phi$ ), was elected Grand President and Mrs. Paul Shirmer Baker, (Wilmoth Green, Missouri B of  $\Pi B \Phi$ ), editor of the Beta Sigma Omicron.

The Beta Sigma Omicron says:

Charming, delightful, possessing all the poise and culture of a thoroughly modern woman, tall, slender, beautifully built, ideally suited physically, intellectually, socially and spiritually to lead Beta Sigma Omicron.

All phases of her life have been marked by activities which blend harmoniously in producing this outstanding character.

From her entrance, as Velma Johnson, in Hardin College, 1907, through the University of Missouri, to her present new home on Olive Street in 1923, she has been vitally interested in education and its various problems, and in all that time, it is impossible to estimate the contributions in creative work which she has given to all organizations with which she has been identified.

To establish her versatility one has only to note her achievements in diverse lines in the university, Home Economics, basketball, and Pi Beta Phi. Following her graduation she was elected to teach in Stephens College, but married W. Wallace Fry, Jr., Sigma Nu, University of Missouri, and returned to Mexico, where she continued to be a charming and graceful figure in Mexico's social life.

For two years Mrs. Fry was president and one year secretary-treasurer of Beta Sigma Omicron Alumnae of Mexico. She was secretary of the Women's Federated Clubs for three years and for two years was district chairman of public welfare in that organization.

At this time, in addition to her official position for the Beta Sigs, she is president of the Chautauqua Reading Circle and Superintendent of the Primary Department of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

MRS. PAUL SHIRMER BARKER, Editor

WILMOTH GREEN BARKER
Missouri B

Those who attended the convention will remember Mrs. Barker, who so capably revised our constitution.

Mrs. Paul Shirmer Barker, better known as Wilmoth Green is our new Editor of Beta Sigma Omicron, and a more pleasing versatile and efficient editor could not have been appointed.

Wilmoth was initiated into Lambda Chapter on December 3, 1915, at Hamilton College, Lexington, Ky. She later entered Washington University where she obtained both A. B. and M. S. degrees. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Xi, an honorary scientific sorority.

On December 26, 1922, Wilmoth married Dr. Paul Shirmer Barker. Dr. Barker attended Westminster College where he obtained his A. B. degree. He then entered Washington University for his M.D. and is now connected with the Washington University Medical School in St. Louis. Dr. Barker is a member of Phi Delta Theta, Nu Sigma Nu and Alpha Omega Alpha Fraternities.

Wilmoth has been an active member of the St. Louis Alumnae for several years. With her talent and experience in sorority work Mrs. Barker brings to the Grand Council the qualities necessary to make her a worthy successor to Mrs. Will Batty, editor retired.

ALICE FREEMAN PENNY, Nebraska B

Alice Freeman Penny, Nebraska B, has been appointed republican national committee woman for Nebraska and according to a Nebraska newspaper, "her appointment brought much joy to other women republican leaders of the state."

In the March ARROW, 1923, an account of Mrs. Penny's life was published and it contained a story of how when she was a young school teacher she saved the lives of her school children in the terrible blizzard of 1888. By using a rope to tie the children to her she piloted them safely to their homes from the little rural school building.

Mrs. Penny has held many non-political positions of importance. She was recently president of the Nebraska Federation of Woman's Clubs and served one year as president of the state auxiliary to the American Legion. She was appointed by Governor McKelvie to assist in designing a new state seal. But despite these many duties she has never allowed them to interfere with her family. Her husband and two sons are willing to testify to that.

MAY WOOD SIMONS, *Illinois E*MAY WOOD SIMONS, Illinois E

Pi Beta Phis who attended the convention at Charlevoix in 1921 remember with pleasure May Wood Simons, Illinois E, who spoke upon the subject of "Citizenship."

A recent number of the "Purple Pepper" published by the alumni of Northwestern University says:

Northwestern University has produced writers, teachers, industrial leaders, lecturers, sociologists and home makers, but in Mrs. May Wood Simons can be found a combination of all of these accomplishments.

Mrs. Simons took part of her undergraduate work at Northwestern, her Bachelor's degree at the University of Chicago and returned to Northwestern for her Master's work.

Her earlier postgraduate days were spent in teaching—and home making. When war threatened, she was teaching in Milwaukee, including in her work a substantial amount of civic enterprise. She was immediately asked to take the Chairmanship of the Americanization Committee of Milwaukee County Council of Defense and soon after she also became the first Chairman of Citizenship work for the state of Wisconsin. Wisconsin co-operated loyally and Citizenship schools were established all over the state.

After the conclusion of the War, she entered the industrial field in Chicago, and organized the employment department of one of the largest industries of the middle west.

The League of Women Voters in Illinois has made a fine record for doing a very big work and some time ago asked Mrs. Simons to assume the chairmanship of its Citizenship department. As a result Citizenship schools have been held all over the state of Illinois—as many as 17 schools in one county and one or more schools in practically every county.

Northwestern University and the University of Chicago have co-operated splendidly in furnishing teachers for many of these schools and have now offered to back the project even more completely. It is Mrs. Simons' vision to secure the co-operation of all the universities and normal schools in the state so that the work may be pushed even more effectively and completely than at present.

Mrs. Simons' work is unique and of the unusually worth-while sort. Her writings too have proved most note-worthy. In 1909, she was awarded the Harris prize in economics, jointly with one of the men contestants.

Her "Citizenship Handbook" is now used in the public high schools and junior high schools in the state of Wisconsin, and she has contributed to "Pedagogical Seminary," "Journal of Sociology," "Technical World" and other current professional magazines.

Withal, she is a delightful person to know.

ON LITTLE PIGEON

We, Pi Phi sisters here, they, hillfolk sisters there,
 We, in the midst of all things lovely and true,
 They, for whom the whole world seems askew,—
 Shall we, the women on whom God's light
 Shines, not by reason of our right,
 Refuse to share with our sisters there?

NEWS FROM LITTLE PIGEON

(Caroline Lutz, Maryland A, Pi Beta Phi Fellow for 1915-16, who was a recent visitor at Gatlinburg has written the following splendid letter for THE ARROW. — The Editor.

Oak Crest,
 January, 1923.

My Dear Arrow Editor:

Here's the letter I promised you about "Little Pigeon." Ever since I heard May L. Keller tell about her pioneer journey back into the mountains, I have scanned news from the School and wanted to visit there. When a train behind schedule pulled into Knoxville one morning late in August, I begged the taxi man to dash with me over to the Sevierville train. He must have known I did not want to miss a half day at the Settlement School, for he splashed into the mud beside the little car just as the whistle blew.

Out we went across that interesting river with the university on its bluffs. Just when I was about to register disappointment because of lack of mountains, waves of blue began to roll up on the horizon. Then the horn began to blow more often, a blast worthy of rocky curves. I liked that funny little train; I wished I were a man so that I could peer under, too, and say what to do next to make her go on. I must confess I did not know my Tennessee history before I went, but when I landed in Sevierville I had been informed by a volume in that delightful Yale Chronicles of America, and Sevier was a vivid figure to me.

Miss Evelyn had told me that there would be a car to meet the morning train into Sevierville—there were several cars and many people. I did not realize that "Little Pigeon" was in a region fast growing popular for summer resort spots. Nearly all cars were loaded before I called out questioningly, "Gatlinburg?" and was packed into Amos's Ford. Yes, I was going to the School. No, I wasn't the new teacher, you see, they were short up at the School. But this reception made me feel much at home as we rode on beyond Pigeon Forge off the Pike and almost in at the door of the teacher's cottage. Miss Evelyn's welcome to the guest room was more than I had expected, and I really do not think the staff with its variety of responsibilities should be so cordial. There are two hotels there, but let's have a third, a Pi Phi tavern on top of Pi Phi hill, and the Pi Phis in charge can be the guides to all the corners of the Settlement School and the surrounding country.

One morning you'll want to stroll up and down that long, new cement walk that leads from the road to the School buildings and talk with the children as they come in. When a little bleeding bare foot second reader tells you she only walks three miles to school, you'll want to follow her on over to the hospital and hear more about her journey while the nurse cleans and straps up the gash, the result of a fall on those stony roads as she hurried for fear she'd be tardy. You'll want to have time for a visit to every room. You'll wonder at Miss Emily's ability to manage those squirming kindergartners and three readers, all at once; you'll enjoy Miss Marion's older group working into real beginnings of history and literature; you'll admire Miss Helen's dignity which keeps everything moving in and out of class according to the fine standards of Little Pigeon.

You must not let Mr. Denton know, but I did not need to visit his class; I sat on the walk and heard his big voice roll out those mathematical explanations and heard the little voices try to do as well. And you must not tell Mr. Mattil, but I did not get a chance to visit his work in the old one room school, for always his boys were being hiked away to another task, with a voice behind calling "Hurry along there, you boys in front." Assembly brings Miss Evelyn over to play the piano and say a word to the children. Pi Phi is fortunate in having one who seems so thoroughly to understand the hearts of that community, both young and old. And at noon you must go down into the basement and see the lunch served to the little tots by the older girls, with Mrs. Roberts in charge. I'll never forget that picture of the rows and rows of little youngsters singing grace.

The whole program of the day reveals so many contributions to the closed life of those houses tucked in the hills, that as I rode out over the country the Passion Flower, growing wild in profusion, seemed to symbolize the beauty of what Pi Phi is doing thru this fortunate group.

And those rides! I went up Roaring Fork on Miss Phyllis' Prince. Leading out from the open road in the valley is this exquisite climb, nearly all the way along the water-dashed rocks, now on a level with the spray in your face and then high above the musical roar. Every spot a picture calling for the artist's record. I'd like a water color of a foot-log leading across to a quiet cabin almost concealed by a sea of huge whorls of lavenderish rose Joe Pye weeds; an oil of the house at the top and turn of the road where the sun peers in on a rustic porch bordered by a riot of dahlias and geraniums and two peaceful faced women coming up single file from the shadowy stepping stones with milk and butter—innumerable steps travelled three trips each day; a crayon of the wall of rock that confronts one, little trickles of water, huge waxy clusters of laurel leaves, a giant hemlock or two; and etchings of two bits of the community method of work—a pair of huge oxen hitched to a log to prepare the road for winter travel and an old mill with its dam, race, and wheel to take care of the corn. And to think I almost missed that old mill. An unfamiliar sound in a shed at the water's edge caused me to tie Prince to a rail fence. In my strangeness to the country I did not know whether to open the door or not; no spooks grabbed me as I peered in; instead a half hour of real exploration was store for me in investigating the journey of the corn in the absence of any owner. Out in the dense foliage I prowled to locate the race from the dam, followed it down to the base again to enjoy the old wheel, and turned back again to see if I could chuck in those boards to stop the race. Such a fine plaything and such a contrast to the great water power of the largest corn mill in the country where I had been a short time before.

You were very unwise in telling me that I could write as long a letter as I wished, for I could talk endlessly about the School and the surrounding country. My ride over to Webb Creek or Pitman Center was an experience to stretch the mind. That community church school was in a flutter over a church entertainment to be given that night, but the teachers were not too busy to show us about. The looms going after school hours made us wish the Pi Phi looms were not without a teacher. The valley there was very narrow and the school was literally bumping into mountains on all sides. And over those mountains who had the school for the little ones? There was no school for long distances and here the Center sent out wagons to all directions for the gathering in. And who was the nurse for those distant regions? The very same Webb Creek nurse.

All the way home I was reminded of the journey of this little, young graduate nurse of Webb Creek, who had been taken seriously ill, had been visited by our Miss Higinbotham, had been brot covered-wagon style across the rocky roads to the Jennie Nichol Hospital with its efficient whiteness touched up with the blue drapes. That spot surely is the passion flower in full bloom. If it could be possible that you ever were luke-warm in your Settlement School interest, picture the service in that corner, the coming and going day and night, the long folding operating table that goes up the mountain when the patient is in too serious condition to move. While I was there a letter came from such a surgical patient who was visited by the nurse every day for a dressing,—a letter to say that he'd never believed in the School much, but as soon as he was able to take a turn at the work, his boys would be in school.

Everywhere now the spirit of the School is felt. When I went off on Prince or Spark Plug or Sam alone, Miss Evelyn told me to wear my pin. That was an introduction to the community. And so I found it, but that was nothing compared to the eagerness of greeting when accompanied by one of the staff. One evening after school Miss Helen said I might go with her up Sugarlands to deliver magazines. As we rode over the approach to the steeper trail, she told me something of her teaching up there in the one room school before the opening of Little Pigeon this year. And then of the schools around, some of them taught only by pupils who have finished the readers, as they say. We arrived too late, for school was out when we reached the great chestnuts.

"If we can travel a good pace right along we might go to the Chimney Tops," said Miss Helen, and tho I did not know whether they were an old castle or whatnot, I had no trouble in holding my curiosity, for every minute there was a surprise. First it was two little girls in a luxurious flower garden, racing to the road the minute they saw Miss Helen to warn her that the water was high in the ford. Then it was the wildest spot of all and down to our left below a tumble of rocks that suggested lower regions or Indians and white men fighting from crag to crag and slipping off into black pools below. And yet around the bend the most beautiful city park-like bridle path you could imagine. Needles and leaves below, laurel in high banks on both sides and here and there funnels of clear yellow fox glove. Out of this restful path again into the light and right onto a mountain home, we came; the family hurrying to milk the cows before the oncoming storm. Happy greetings were exchanged here, and once more we dipped into the shade, this time to come out upon a wall of stones bursting with ferns and across the top the purple flowering raspberry vine—say the word softly with trilled r's and still you have not one bit of beauty compared with those rich large wild rose-like purplish blossoms. And on our left was the water's edge again—this time with a border of blue cardinal flowers. By that time there were blues and grays and purples in all the atmosphere. The ford looked very dark, deep, and treacherous, but we had reached no Chimney Tops; so we ventured, giving the horses every encouragement to select the way. Down and up and down they splashed and cracked against the rocks; we had forgotten uneasiness, for up stream, across the foot log, beyond the tallest pines, we caught one glimpse of the Chimney Tops. We pulled up our horses after a short stretch of road and enjoyed the smoking of those mountain peak Chimney Tops. I had read about this pass up over the mountains in my recent history glimpse, and I wished there were no gathering clouds and that the morning might see us going up over the Indian trail to the Carolinas. Then a mountaineer came out from his cabin and warned us not to try the path farther without a guide. I praised his beautiful view of the peaks. He said he had never noticed any beauty in them. To have experienced moonlight in that setting would have been beyond any scene I could imagine. I heard it hinted moonshine of a different kind thrilled that region.

Once wheeled about, we saw only streaking skies, the horses needed no urging homeward. Single file we sped along, scarcely hearing each other's calls. Too warm sweaters of the afternoon became thin, damp coverings. The last ford was crossed while there was still a ray of daylight. At the top of the bank the two little garden girls—how long they must have waited—ran to us with two gay bouquets. We wanted to visit, but the storm pulled us on. The school house chestnuts were now great silhouettes. Around that turn in the road we had callers again. This time it was a whole family, father, mother with a sweet baby in arms, and two little overall boys with their hands tucked into their bibs. Mother wanted to tell Miss Helen that she was ashamed she hadn't sent the New Testament home before, but it was the only one and they had been holding a Sunday School with it. Think of it, Pi Phis! I had asked Miss Helen before who was librarian and who took care to check in all the books in the big reception hall, and she told me they didn't try to call them in, for often a book kept was the only book in that house. So I was ready for her reply to keep the Testament and think no more of returning it. They asked us to stay all night, and if there had been a telephone to tell the School of our safety, we would have had a night in the real mountain home.

From then on it was a-pushing to be out of the storm. Darkness was now solid, except for a lightning flash now and then down through the trees, welcome to horse and man in finding the road. Our sense of smell told us the land marks we were crossing—the saw mill, and then the last damp, dark spot before the main road.

Back in the distance a fiddler and his ballad singing broke the loneliness for a little. And then a thick blackness made it necessary to trust all to the horses. The roar of waters announced the last bridge that led to Gatlinburg city limits; but we could see no trace of bridge. Steadily on the horses went; a change in the tone of the thud, and the bridge was met and the bridge was crossed; a few turns and the ride was over. And yet not over. I live it over and over again, and I think of that Pi Phi nurse travelling those mountain roads day time and night time, storm time and sun time, finding her way with only Prince and her saddle bags—back into spots not visited before—with her hand of relief in that Passion Flower country.

Is it any wonder that when the School lights go on—you haven't forgotten about the School lights have you,—when the School lights accidentally go on in the evening, little eager eyed boys and girls appear from all directions in order not to miss anything. It is disappointing to them to be turned away. Is it any wonder that these children when gathered together sing so well and can not sing enough?

And I haven't said a word about Aunt Lizzie and her little trio of boys, about baskets, about—Well, here's to "Little Pigeon!"

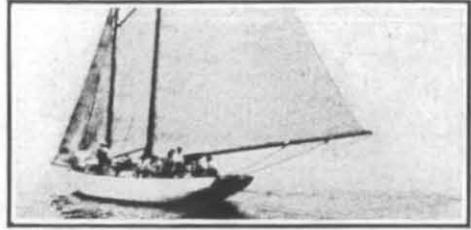

Yours gratefully,

WINTER DAYS AT CAMP PANHELLENIC

By GLADYS R. DIXON, Wisconsin A

Somewhere within the portals of our imagination has come the desire to seek out the great quiet places—to leave everything behind and blend our hurried, restless souls with that unhampered freedom which only primitive surroundings can give.

PANHELLENIC SAILING ON SUMMER SEAS

Here on our snow-laden Island, surrounded by Michigan's sea of floating ice—we have recaptured the thrills of pioneer days. We have swung the axe into the trunks of forest champions—listened to the music of the cross saw as we lopped it into firewood lengths. We have cut holes in the ice for our water supply and fished later in the same hole. We have sheltered ourselves from the winter elements and have learned the real meaning of Physical Education; we need no artificial means of balancing muscular energy and neuro-expenditure. We have expanded spiritually by living close under the stars; we have stood beneath the inverted bowl of Northern Lights and felt the touch of the Infinite; we have learned to know beauty by feasting our eyes on loveliness everywhere.

The rugged coast line of our thirty mile circumference is rockbound with towering ledges of pine, spruce and hemlock with intermittent patches of silvery birch. The island has been settled by Icelanders and Norwegians "who have likened the rugged shores unto those at home." They have followed the occupation of their forefathers by reaping their wealth from the surrounding waters. They have kept the island an almost primitive fishing settlement for there is not even a suggestion of a town.

Camp Panhellenic's wooded acres are located on the northwest point—where Lake Michigan touches its bluffs on the east, Green Bay on the north and on the west lies one of the few sanded harbors, where fishing smacks seek shelter from the high winds.

CAMP PANHELLENIC IN WINTER

This tract of land is the original site of a big lumber camp where 250,000 feet of pine were shipped out over the Camp dock. Some of the virgin timber still stands but most of it is luxurious second growth.

Our assets at the end of 1923 season consisted of the Lodge which was far too airy for winter quarters, a log barn which was too picturesque to modernize—and two cabins where the lumber jacks bunked some thirty years ago. We attacked the larger of the two one day in September, and began to reconstruct out of the crude shack, a snug dwelling that has caused the natives much surprise and won their commendation. That two college bred girls could wield the hammer and saw—use bard instead of finished lumber—field stone instead of brick—caused much commotion among our fishermen friends, many of whom had spent the long winter months in this same shack getting out 'sticks.' The cabin had two rooms, one used for bunks and the other for the kitchen. A brick chimney stood defiant and stubborn-like in the very center. We ripped out the partition, threw the place into one long living room 27x12. We walked around the chimney, neither of us daring to suggest we demolish it. While we might rip out and tear down, we were not so sure of building up again—but next day found me perched on the roof knocking off bricks one by one, until nothing was left but a hole in the roof. Both of us wondered if the fireplace we had been dreaming of, would 'draw.'

"Cap," our Norwegian care-taker, was 'laid up' for the first time in all his sixty-five rugged years and could not partake physically but sat smoking on a stump offering suggestions. Many times, he shook his head as we wrecked the side walls, cutting spaces for long French windows—"the vinters iss too cold" says he "too much draft" but we could not forfeit our view of the sun as it lingered over the firtops across the harbor.

After wrecking the place beyond recognition, there stood gaping wide, the hole for the fireplace. We picked hard heads from the shore and planned to build it entirely of these, but Cap, wiser always than we, shook his head—"naw, we gotta have fire brick for the inside." That meant shipping them in and a long wait of two or three weeks. Suddenly his eyes twinkled shrewdly and I knew he had found a way out—"we git 'em." So one bright October Sunday we sailed northward twenty-eight miles and tied up at the most picturesque harbor of the Northern Peninsula. Here stood what appeared to be the walls of some mediaeval castle guarding the deep, still harbor, beautiful ruins hardly compatible with the idea of smelting iron ore. To one side were the ovens and—our fire brick. The owner was gracious enough to say "load 'er up."

Rock by rock, brick by brick, Cap furnishing the science of building a good draft, the chimney raised itself toward the blue. Smashed fingers, shriveled from wet cement—blistered hands—dead tired at night—all were compensated when we built our first fire. We stood watching breathlessly to see if it would draw. As the first smoke curled upward above the pines, we knew the joy of attainment.

In the lean-to kitchen, the former Campus Queen has learned to bake our own bread, cakes, pies and to prepare our wild game.

These long winter evenings with the wind roaring in from Michigan, we sit before the fireplace where a log four feet long blazes merrily and many a one has died to embers as the two of us sit spell bound at some sea-going tale of Cap. He has sailed the seas for forty years and has touched every port in the world, but at the end of his wanderings, he agrees with us that life begins and thrives best—here in the Woods.

(Information concerning reservations for Camp Panhellenic this coming season may be obtained by writing Gladys R. Dixon, or Josephine MacKercher, 2708 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. After April 1, letters should be addressed in care of Camp Panhellenic, Washington Island, Wis.)

CAMP MORTAR BOARD

Pi Phis from many chapters will be on hand when Camp Mortar Board opens its 1924 season on June 28. The "co-operative cars" that made the trip to Convention last summer are being "tuned up" for the drive, and groups of Pi Phis from various chapters in the middle west will pile in, suit cases, duffle bags, tennis rackets, and all, for the trip to the woods of northern Michigan—two days straight north on excellent roads, by way of Chicago or Detroit. Nor will the Pi Phis have it all to themselves, for last summer's crowd, included members of nine national fraternities, representing sixteen colleges. There were five Pi Phis—Ruth Siefkin, Kansas B, and Martha Gray, Michigan B, who are directors of the camp; Dr. Edith H. Gordon, Ontario A, camp physician; Sophie Dubuque, Missouri B, head councillor, and Mae B. Siefkin, Kansas B, and Katharine Harrington, Illinois Δ.

Camp Mortar Board offers an ideal vacation for those who are fond of out of door life. Tennis, horseback riding, canoeing, swimming, hiking, and games, fill the long sunny days, followed by a roaring beach fire, or stunts in the big rustic Lodge, and then ten hours of sleep under piles of blankets—for the nights are always cool—in the cabins right on the the shore of Lake Michigan. There is a feature which particularly appeals to college girls—the fact that all activities are optional; instruction is provided in every sport, but participation is entirely a matter of choice with the camper. Thus a girl may follow the regular routine of camp life, or she may have the day to herself for reading, tramping the shore, or whatever she may desire, and she may come by the week or for the nine weeks season.

Northern Michigan is a popular place for touring and there is a welcome at Mortar Board for any Pi Phis who are on M 12, the state highway running between Sault Ste Marie and western Michigan points; turn south near Cooks to the tip of the Garden Peninsula. A catalogue of Camp Mortar Board can be had from Ruth Siefkin or Martha Gray, 1640 Sheridan Road, Evanston, Illinois.

BELL (MRS. WILLIAM) EDNA SNYDER, Ohio B, died in December in Grand Rapids, Mich.

During the war, Edna Bell served as a nurse in a hospital at Camp Taylor, Ky.

CLARK, MARION DICKSON, Massachusetts A, died December 11, 1923, in the hospital at Waterburg, Conn., after undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

She was initiated into Pi Phi by our Boston University chapter in 1917, and received her bachelor's degree in 1921. While an undergraduate she was very active in college and fraternity life. She was president of her chapter and president of the girls athletic association.

After graduation she taught school for a year, then did a year of settlement school work, and was started on another year of teaching when the illness developed. Her sister, Louise, was just pledged by the Boston chapter of Pi Phi this last fall.

HAKES (MRS. GEORGE H.), NETTA HOFFMAN, Pennsylvania Γ, died at St. Vincent's Hospital, New York City, on July 29. The fraternity at large, the New York Alumnae Club and her own chapter have suffered a distinct loss.

Netta Hoffman was born at Parryville, Pa., December 27, 1876, the daughter of the Rev. Levi B. Hoffman, a Methodist clergyman, and Mrs. Hoffman. Her mother having died when Netta was three weeks old, she was reared by her grandparents and aunts and the Carter family, in Cherry Hill, Maryland.

After her preliminary education in the public schools, she entered Dickinson College in 1896. Here she became one of the organizers of Phi Alpha Pi, the local fraternity which preceded Pi Beta Phi, and was toast-mistress at its first annual banquet. Ill health caused her to lose much time in her sophomore year and to withdraw from college in December of her senior year. Later she took a course at Pierce Business College in Philadelphia and subsequently became private secretary to the manager of the International Paper Company of New York City. She was initiated into Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$ , February 22, 1905.

In 1909, she was married to George H. Hakes, manager of the New York office of the National Sewing Machine Company. In addition to her husband she is survived by two aunts, a half-sister and two half-brothers.

Netta Hoffman was an enthusiastic member of the Dickinson Alumnae Club of New York and of the New York Alumnae Club, in which she held many important chairmanships and was also a member of the Executive Committee.

She worked with great zeal and untiring energy for the Settlement School. She was an eager suffragist and an active war worker, selling Liberty Bonds and doing conservation work during the World War. She was devoted to her family and her friends, all of whom cherish her memory and regret exceedingly her sudden death following an operation. She was buried in the Methodist Cemetery at Cherry Hill, Maryland, ground for which had been given by her grandfather, Dr. Carter, many years before. Late in August the writer visited her grave. She found it covered with flowers, gathered from bulbs Netta had herself planted in June, placed there by the loving hands of her aunts whose comfort and solace in their declining years she had expected to be. There, within sight of her old home, amid the surroundings she so dearly loved, she lies. As I stood there, the words occurred to me, more forcibly than ever before, "To live in the hearts of those we leave behind

Is not to die."

ETHELYN HARDESTY CLEAVER.

HOYT (MRS. W. A.), ELLA SMITH, Illinois A, died in Kansas City, Mo., in December, 1923. She was a sister of Inez Smith Soule, one of the Pi Phi founders, and of the same chapter.

LEBHART, (MRS. FRED C.), SIDNEY LAVINA GEORGE, Wyoming A, succumbed to an attack of pleuro-pneumonia, dying at her home in Laramie, Wyo., January 5, 1924. Previous to her illness, her strength and vitality had been spent in caring for her three children, all of whom were victims of whooping cough; consequently when she was stricken with pneumonia her resistance had been too greatly weakened for her to withstand the disease.

Sidney was born in Laramie, August 8, 1896, and spent all her life there, going through the Laramie grammar and high schools, and then taking the two-year normal course at the University of Wyoming. She taught one year between her two years at college, and shortly after finishing her college work was married, on September 11, 1918, to Fred C. Lebhart.

Surviving her are her mother and father, two sisters and a brother, her husband, and three tiny children.

MORGAN (MRS. J. H.), YVONNE McLAIN, Missouri  $\Gamma$ , died April 11, 1923 at her home, 1718 Kilbourne Place, N. W., Washington, D. C., after an attack of colitis. She was a charter member of Missouri  $\Gamma$  and a member of the class of 1911. On December 3, 1908, she married J. H. Morgan.  $\Phi \Sigma \kappa$ . She had been affiliated with the Springfield, Mo., alumnae club.

PARSONS, PRISCILLA B., New York  $\Delta$ , died December 2, 1923, at Colorado Springs, Colo., from tuberculosis, brought about by an injection of tuberculin in diagnosis, according to word received from her father, Mr. Charles L. Parsons, of Washington, D. C.

THOMPSON (MRS. W. A.), ELLAMAY HAGAN, Oklahoma A, died December 13, 1923, at the Von Kellar Hosyital, Okla., after an operation for appendicitis.

She was one of the organizers of the local  $\Phi \Delta \Gamma$  at Oklahoma University which was later installed as Aklahoma A of  $\Pi B \Phi$ , and at this time claimed the honor of being the first initiate into the new chapter.

Ellamay Hagan was born in Marietta, Okla., on Oct. 18, 1889, became a Pi Phi in 1910, was married March 7, 1909 to W. A. Thompson, B  $\odot$   $\Pi$ , track star at the University of Oklahoma, and lived in Marietta until March of last year when the family moved to Ardmore, Okla. At her new residence Mrs. Thompson became active in the Ardmore alumnae club. Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Marion Gertrude, aged five.

EDITORIALS

HIGH SCHOLARSHIP—what does it signify? Has it come to mean purely a numerical sign or an alphabetical sign standing for a certain grade or rank? It should not. We should think of scholarship in the sense of learning. We attend college primarily to train our minds and to learn and if we are able to attain good scholarship we are merely proving that we are succeeding in our attempt to make ourselves more proficient.

Too much stress should not be placed upon the matters of the "grade" but rather should we urge our fraternity members to do clear thinking and to apply themselves in order that they may train their minds and acquire the knowledge which they will need after leaving the college walls. The "grade" in itself is primarily to assist the person in knowing whether she is accomplishing what she is striving for.

FRATERNITIES SHOULD NEVER permit their pledges to ask professors to raise their grades in an endeavor to reach the required average for initiation. Sometimes a pledge may lack a fraction of a unit of having the required average and by pleading with or weeping over a professor may inveigle the latter to raise her grade enough to make the average satisfactory.

Such a practice has always been condemned by Pi Beta Phi as it in the first place belittles the ability of the professor to judge fairly, it gives the pledge something to which she probably is not entitled and it places the chapter permitting such a practice in a peculiar light.

Begin immediately after pledging new girls to explain to them concerning the scholarship average which they must make for initiation. Impress upon each one that she must strive to make not just the average but must set her goal far above it in order that she may come in at the end of the race with colors flying. Many a splendid runner has stumbled and failed to reach the wire.

EXTENSION—Are you for or against it? When you argue the subject do you really have facts and figures to substantiate your statements? Have you looked up statistics, studied the question from every angle and then formed your opinion—or are you just plain for or against extension because that is the general sentiment of your chapter? If you are interested in late, up-to-date information read the Expansion Number, October, 1923 of The Crescent of Gamma Phi Beta. The chairman of expansion of Gamma Phi Beta sent out a questionnaire to the National Panhellenic Congress fraternities and the answers have been compiled and arranged in The Crescent. We should all be grateful to Gamma Phi Beta for this Expansion Number.

HAVE YOU EVER considered teaching in the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School? Miss Evelyn Bishop, Head Resident, says: "There seems to be a general idea among the Pi Phis, especially those just finishing their courses, that no salaries are paid at the School and that any girl teaching here must first make a sufficient sum to keep her while she is here. This is quite wrong when everything is taken into consideration. Salaries are paid and Pi Phi teachers receive their traveling expenses to and from the School once a year." For further information consult your Province President or Province Vice-president if you are interested.

To the Arrow of Pi Beta Phi:

Most truly I thank all Pi Beta Phis who sent me greetings and good wishes at Christmas time.

Fanny Whitenack Libby.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

YOU ARE INVITED

DURING THE INTERNATIONAL Methodist Conference to be held at Springfield, Massachusetts from May 1 to 31, the Western Massachusetts Alumnae Club will hold a luncheon for visiting Pi Phis. May 10 is the tentative date selected. After the luncheon a short programme will be presented, followed by a sight-seeing tour.

A registration booth will be established near convention headquarters. All Pi Phis are requested to register on arrival in the city. Also, every Pi Phi who is planning to attend the conference, is asked to communicate at once with Mrs. Alvin Metcalfe, 167 Daviston Street, Springfield, Mass.

THE EDITOR WISHES to correct the following mistakes which appeared in the December issue: the chapter of Grace Edgington, convention initiate should be Oregon A, instead of Oregon B; that of Lelah-Bell Davis, Pi Beta Phi Fellow, Illinois H, instead of Illinois E. The picture which appeared with the write-up of Dr. Dora Neill Raymond was Dr. Raymond and not Ruth O. Blakeslee as named.

IN THE PI BETA PHI SONGBOOK, last edition, Oregon A should be credited with the authorship of, "I'm Glad That I'm a Pi Phi." It was written by Bernice Spencer, Oregon A, and her sister, Annette, who was a pledge of that chapter.

ALL REPORTS, INCLUDING INITIATION certificates, officer's lists, etc., must be typewritten.

CORRESPONDENCE CONCERNING the Settlement School slides and the arrangement of dates for same should be directed to Mrs. Arthur R. Curtis, 4118 Perkins Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. To write direct to Mrs. Curtis will save much delay caused by the forwarding of letters.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES should read the Pi Beta Phi Bulletin very carefully and follow directions. Do not send chapter letters to Mrs. Spring. Please send them to the chapter letter editor as instructed.

DO YOU KNOW—that all commissions obtained on magazine subscriptions are immediately turned into the Settlement School Fund? Blanche G. Reisinger, 235 E. Lafayette St., Baltimore, Md., very efficiently runs the Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency and can supply every magazine or club combination offered by any commercial magazine agency. Give magazines for birthday gifts, for Mother's Day, for all anniversaries. Let magazines greet your friends during the entire year.

EXTRA COPIES of the December, Convention number of THE ARROW were published and may be purchased at 25c per copy. Order direct from Mrs. A. T. Spring, Box 566, Fort Collins, Colo. Send a copy to a Pi Phi who is not a regular subscriber to THE ARROW.

CHAPTER VICE-PRESIDENTS please note. Chapter card index files should be completed by June. They should contain:

One white card for every member initiated into your chapter, whether married or single.

One blue card for every member affiliated into your chapter, whether married or single.

One or more orange cards for every initiate and every affiliate who is now married, the number of orange cards depending upon the number of times the member has been married. This means that every married member has at least two cards in the file, one of them white.

Cards should be arranged in alphabetical order, regardless of color. To be sure your list is complete, check it with the chapter record book and the directory.

MABEL SCOTT BROWN, Cataloguer.

BECAUSE OF a government ruling it has been necessary for THE ARROW to discontinue the use of the full page blue insert for the change of address. Look carefully through the Arrow and fill out the necessary form for change of address if you have moved, or have changed your name!

Pi Beta Phi extends its deepest sympathy to our Founder, Inez Smith Soule, in the death of her sister, Ella Smith Hoyt, Illinois A. Mrs. Hoyt was a member of the mother chapter and has always been a loyal member of our fraternity.

THE GRAND COUNCIL OF PI BETA PHI will be held May 24-31, 1924
at the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, GATLINBURG, TENN.

All reports of officers are to be in the hands of the Grand Secretary, Francese Evans, by May 1 if possible and not later than May 12. Any suggestions or recommendations should be sent either to the Grand President or to the Grand Secretary by May 15. All reports are to be typewritten!

During the annual meeting of the Grand Council there will be a joint conference with the settlement School Committee.

BECAUSE OF THE removal of Mrs. Arthur H. Cutler, the originator of the Pi Beta Phi phonograph record, to 14 Johnson St., Iowa City, Iowa, Mrs. C. G. Cleaver, 8426-110th St., Richmond Hill, New York, has been appointed chairman of the record committee by the New York alumnae club.

PI BETA PHI RECORDS. Have you bought a Pi Beta Phi record? For $1.75 you can purchase a record containing THREE songs: Pi Beta Phi Anthem, Ring, Ching, Ching and The Loving Cup Song. Send check with order to Mrs. C. G. Cleaver, 8426-

110th St., Richmond Hill, N. Y., or to the University Records Corporation, 334 Fifth Ave., New York City, N. Y. Through a typographical error the price of this record has been quoted in the ARROW as 75c but the correct price is $1.75. Order now, so that you can use the record at your Founders' Day banquet.

Clara Lucie Ely and Mary Ely are teaching in the University City schools this winter.

Mrs. Delle Dumphy Reps has returned from California, and will be here the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Alfred Willett Baldwin (Merle Coon), and young son spent the fall months with her parents.

Mrs. Murray Horn (Pauline Pate), was the guest of her parents during Christmas week.

Mrs. Frederick Jay (Mary Belle Minard), and son, Frederick, Jr., spent the holidays with Mrs. Jay's mother, Mrs. Minard.

The members of the club dressed one hundred dolls for distribution at the Municipal Christmas tree, which was at Convention Hall, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 23. All of us were active in selling Christmas cards to make money for the Settlement School, and we also sold many baskets and linens, sent to us by Miss Evelyn Bishop.

Our January meeting was a cooky-shine held in the chapter rooms, and the meeting in February will be devoted to the History and Constitution. The Settlement School meeting will be held in March, at which time we will entertain our patronesses.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. John Chandler (Helen Hall) in the death of her father in November, and to Mrs. J. H. George and Mrs. Marguerite Hare in the death of Dr. George in December. Dr. George was President Emeritus of Drury College. Our sympathy is also extended to Florence Watson, to Mrs. Paul Carlock (Agatha Watson), and to Mrs. Bruce Huffaker (Pauline Watson), in the death of their father; to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lloyd in the death of their infant daughter in December; and to Mrs. C. H. Cole of Kansas City in the death of Mr. Cole in January. Mr. Cole was a graduate of Drury College, and at the time of his death was President of Board of Trustees of Drury. Mrs. George and Mrs. Cole have been our patronesses since we were the local M B.

CHAPTER LETTERS

EDITED BY CAROLYN M. REED
Nebraska B

1251 So. 27th St., Lincoln, Nebraska

With the exception of the overhanging shadow of examinations everywhere, the chapter letters of this issue are as varied as the many interests of each college. There are so many more items of particular interest, however, that we have ventured to suggest some for your special attention.

Among the social affairs come a thrilling pirate party staged by Louisiana A; a novel Japanese party by Maine A; a lovely Christmas candle-light breakfast quite different from the usual Christmas-tree party; the annual house shower of Virginia A; a Christmas party given by Ohio A for one hundred poor children of a neighboring mining town; and the anniversary banquet of Vermont B, marked by the beautiful wine carnations from Mrs. Coolidge.

Since this is the scholarship issue, we ask you to note that Illinois H has held first place in scholarship eleven out of the twelve years of her existence at Milliken University; that Indiana  $\Delta$  is experiencing a rule of examinations again, as in contrast to the good fortune of Nevada A with none this term; the method which West Virginia A has adopted to raise pledge scholarship.

Illinois E suggests a decidedly original way of raising money, and Iowa Z is also active along that line.

We feel that the following chapter and college activities are entirely worthy of notice and possibly emulation; the Carolina Playmakers, with three Pi Phis as leading ladies and one as playwright; the monthly chapter meetings of Indiana A where outside speakers talk on college problems; the ideal of fraternity democracy given Oklahoma B pledges by the talks of other fraternity presidents on their respective national aims; achievements of two Columbia A crack-shots; the activity chart and scrap-book of Colorado B.

ALPHA PROVINCE

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
(Chartered December 11, 1908).
Pledge Day—November 9, 1923.

On November 9, rushing ended with the pledging of twelve girls, ten freshmen and two sophomores. Then the pledges held meetings to study for initiation early in February. The initiation banquet followed initiation and the annual dance was held in the King Edward Hotel on Leap Year Night, February 29. The birthday celebration took the form of a baby party, with the alumnae at the home of Marjorie Fraser.

Local Panhellenic has at last brought in sophomore rushing and preferential bidding, to come into force next fall, and it is hoped that this system will be an improvement.

The U. of T. men's hockey team has just returned from a successful tour of the Eastern States.

Margaretta Spence is manager of the women's hockey club, and has persuaded many Pi Phis to turn out for hockey practice. The basketball and indoor baseball games are attracting the most interest now.

HELEN C. RUTHERFORD.

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE
(Chartered 1920.)

Pledge Day—Undecided

Maine A recently enjoyed a visit from Jean McQueen, Alpha Province President, which aroused the spirit of the chapter for a successful year.

A successful dance was held in an attractive bungalow on the banks of the Penobscot River. One of the small rush parties was a Japanese supper when the invitations were in keeping and the girls wore kimonas. The fun of the evening was increased by the great novelty of eating with chop sticks. The four new pledges are: Blandena Coulard, Christine MacLaughlin, Elisabeth Pendleton, and Madeline Rhoda.

Two new buildings are being erected on the campus, one the Arts Building, a gift to the college and the other the Memorial Armory, started by the student and alumni campaign.

On February 1, came the annual Winter Carnival, consisting of contests in skating, skiing, snow shoeing, skii jumping and social events.

Maine A holds a number of prominent offices on the campus. Ruth Bessey is president of W. S. G. A., Anna Ashley is art editor of The Prism (Junior year book) and president of three campus organizations. Grace Armstrong is society editor of The Campus and associate editor of The Prism.

GRACE ARMSTRONG.

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE
(Chartered 1893.)

(Pledge Day—November 2, 1923.)

In glancing back over the months just finished, two or three things stand out very clearly—the first being pledging. The service this year for the enthusiastic girls seemed even more beautiful and impressive than usual. The second was the visit of Alpha Province President, Jean McQueen. During her stay not only the girls of  $\Pi\Phi$  but all others who came in contact with her, found her charming in every way.

The Middlebury Alumnae Club which organized last year, gave the active chapter a party in honor of the anniversary of Vermont A chartering November 30, 1893. They presented the chapter with a dozen chairs, a vacuum cleaner and half the money for an electric stove. The annual Christmas party at which the patronesses were honor guests, was a jolly one.

The pledge study is well-organized this year. The freshman meet for study with a senior each Monday night during chapter meeting. The sponsors are taking a larger responsibility and are giving more personal and sympathetic analytical attention to the individual needs of each freshman.

DOROTHY M. TIELLAUGH.

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT
(Chartered 1898.)

Pledge Day—February 23, 1924.

Champlain's breath is icy. Flaming sunsets find rest in the Adirondacks. Snow covers the stern brow of Mount Mansfield. Vermont B is just about to probe into the uncertainties of a second semester rushing period. This is an infant experiment at Vermont and so far has met with unexpected success.

Miss McQueen visited the Vermont Betas at the time of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their founding. After a program at the chapter rooms, many alumnae and actives went to the Y. W. C. A. Hospitality House for a banquet. Candle light and dozens of rich wine-colored carnations, sent by Mrs. Coolidge, added color and  $\Pi B\Phi$  cheer to the banquet hall. Mother Gebhart made the chapter house a near reality when she announced that the Mothers' Club sale had netted \$200 and that the certain stock-holders had materially increased their interest in the cooperation.

$\Pi B\Phi$  has merited her usual share of honors. Corinna Somerville has been elected chairman of the Winter Carnival which promises to be even a greater success than the one of 1923. Marion Symonds has just served as chairman of the decorations for the Sophomore Hop. Mary Holman was sent as Y. W. C. A. delegate to the Student Volunteer Convention in Indianapolis. She reported a  $\Pi B\Phi$  breakfast where fourteen  $\Pi B\Phi$  delegates met. Three of the girls, as delegates, had met at the Estes Park Convention of last summer.

Mid-years with their appalling shroud of mental gloom are at last past. Light cuts—mid-night oil—saturated intellects—exams.—hopeful Pi Phis and maybe the cup! HELEN M. KEATING.

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1896.)

Pledge Day—November 9, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated December 14, 1923.)

Evelyn Banning, '26, Oakdale, Mass.

Anne Barnes, '24, 2838 Boulevard, Jersey City, N. J.

November 9 brought thirteen pledges to Massachusetts A. Preferential bidding was successfully used again this year. The new pledges are: Hazel Bestick, Louise Clark, Dorothy Cleaves, Eleanor Dodd, Mae Erving, Ruth Furlong, Miriam Hoagland, Helen McDuffee, Matilda McLeod, Helen Pyke, Helen Smiley, Betty Sullivan, and Margaret Vaughan. Mrs. Nickerson spoke on the national work of  $\Pi\Phi$  at the first pledge meeting.

A group of the girls of the college interested in social service spent the afternoon before Thanksgiving visiting the Boston Immigration Station. An official explained how the national quota works, how families get separated and why, and showed us through the kitchen and sleeping rooms.

December brought  $\Gamma\Delta$  banquet when all the girls of the college put on their prettiest dresses and vied with each other in class songs and spirit. Eleanor March gave the alumnae toast.

On December 14, Evelyn Banning and Anne Barnes were initiated. An informal dinner and theater party followed.

Christmas time brought Santa to several hundred settlement school children of Boston. The children and the girls look forward to this Robbins Christmas party given every year by the I. C. S. A.

The customary  $\Pi\Phi$  Christmas slam party was postponed to New Year's when the pledges furnished the cooky-shine.

Actives and pledges celebrated the approach of examinations by having a supper in the queerest Armenian restaurant. Untranslatable menus turned out to be such good food and odd pastry.

HILDA FORSTER.

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1896.)

Pledge Day—September 25, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated November 12, 1923.)

Edna Du Bois, '26, Syracuse, N. Y.

Martha Cronk, '25, Meshoppen, Pa.

Alice Davis, '25, Syracuse, N. Y.

Frances Raymond, '26, Tenafly, N. J.

The college year at Syracuse University grows more and more interesting. The close of football ushered in the basketball season with the promise of many fast games in the Archbold Gymnasium. A new skating rink erected on the campus is most popular.

Elizabeth Newberry won first prize of $25 in the Sophomore Women's Speaking Contest. Groviene McLean and K. Virginia Corkran are pledged Z Φ H, a professional oratorical society. Dorothy Coleman attended the Eastern Student Government Convention at Oberlin, Ohio. Geraldine Ridings attended the Student Volunteer Convention at Indianapolis, Ind.

In December, New York A staged the annual Settlement School Ball at the Hotel Onondaga, and the dance proved very successful. Under the direction of the local alumnae club, luncheons are given to which the active chapter sends two representatives. Thru these luncheons both groups of Π Β Φ are brought closer together.

The most thrilling event Pi Phis can anticipate is the Easter convention at Washington, D. C. Every member of New York A is planning to be there and at least one or two girls will act as chapter delegates. In the near future a benefit bridge will be given to pay their expenses.

EVELYN VAN ALSTINE.

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

(Chartered March 20, 1914).

Pledge Day—October 2, 1923

INITIATES

(Initiated November 25, 1923.)

Alice Bennet, '25, Canton, N. Y.

The local Women's Self Government Association has joined the Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government and this step has brought many changes. A new rule has been made to the effect that the council be represented by a member from each woman's fraternity and representatives from the non-fraternity group. A second council has been organized consisting of representatives from each women's activity on the hill and a representative from the faculty.

To widen the field of activity for women a glee club and an outing club have been organized. The glee club is under the direction of Miss Hosmer, of Crane Institute. The outing club plans to develop the opportunity which our location offers for wholesome out-door sports. Alice White who has represented Π Β Φ in athletics throughout her college course, has been elected president and both clubs have several Pi Phi members.

The radio club organized last year has developed rapidly. A room in Science Hall has been equiped for its use and a broadcasting station has recently been installed.

The St. Lawrence glee club took part in the Intercollegiate Glee Club contest of New York at Syracuse on February 26. The Mumpers Dramatic Club plans to present five one-act plays this year instead of the usual three-act play. Hester Cushing, Lillian Eddy and Alice White are taking part in the plays.

In November Jean McQueen, Alpha province president, visited New York I. The girls had at that time a dress-up cooky-shine and the junior class entertained with an operatic version of the tragedy of Blue Beard.

On November 17 was the informal houseparty, and the formal house party was given January 18.

BEATRICE MATTESON.

NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—October 20, 1923.

This is the end of quite a successful semester both for New York  $\Delta$  and for Cornell. The football season ended with every score a victory for Cornell and she stands with Yale at the head of the eastern teams. The basketball season has opened, and while not so phenomenally victorious as the football team, yet the players are doing very well and are looking forward to a good season. The \$1,000,000 chemistry building, presented to the university by George Baker, is now completed and the dedication was held on December 22.

Rushing season was brought to a satisfactory close with the pledging of eleven fine freshmen: Ida Blackman, Marcella Holman, Barbara Jacobus, Betty Kallman, Margaret Kimberley, Dorothy Kortjohn, Victoria Lansing, Dorothy Miner, Irene Moffat, Marie Parkhurst, and Orpha Spicer.

Several very enjoyable social events have been held in the past months. A dance was given by the active chapter for the pledges soon after the end of rushing. Two of the alumnae entertained the chapter at a bridge-luncheon early in December, and the alumnae patronesses have gathered several times at the chapter house. The annual Christmas party was given by the chapter on December 16, at which were entertained the alumnae and patronesses and their children. New York  $\Delta$  also sent a box of toys to a group of poor children in Ithaca.

During the holidays the annual New York  $\Delta$  luncheon was held at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York on December 28, and another at the Sagamore in Rochester on January 3.

Of especial interest to the chapter was the Inter-collegiate Dramatic Club Convention held in Ithaca, December 7-8-9. Beatrice Ecks, president of the Cornell Women's Dramatic Club, was president also of the convention. Representatives from twenty-five different colleges were present. During the convention the Cornell Women's Dramatic Club presented Mice and Men in which four members of New York  $\Delta$  took part.

Edith Klenke has been elected to membership in Mortar Board.
New York  $\Delta$  welcomes Lillie Cutler, North Carolina A, to Cornell.

ANNE HILL.

BETA PROVINCE

PENNSYLVANIA ALPHA—SWARTHMORE COLLEGE

(Chartered 1892)

Pledge Day—October 30, 1923

Pennsylvania A has been brought closer to the national fraternity by the recent visit of Mrs. B. W. Miller, Beta Province President.

The ten new pledges are: Mary Brosius, Caroline Hearne, Ruth McCauley, Ruth Longacre, Anne Meloney, Mary Eleanor Meyer, Katherine Mode, Sara Percy, Lois Thompson, and Lydfa Turner. Following pledging ceremony, the chapter had a supper party at Mrs. William Turner's home in the village.

Ruth Phillips made a very lovely Juliette in the recent Romeo and Juliette Tableaux given to celebrate the Shakespeare Tercentenary. Elizabeth Hamilton and Alice Schrack represented  $\Pi\Phi$  in the bill of one-act plays which Anne Hunt assisted in coaching. Practically the whole chapter took part in the annual Hamburg Show which precedes the final football game of the season.

Catherine Mather holds the position of forward on the varsity basketball team.

In the recent Women's Student Government elections Dorothy McClaren was elected chairman of Student Conduct, Elizabeth Hamilton retains her position as president of Somerville the entire year and Gahrng Price was elected chairman of Freshmen Advisory. The Women's Glee Club has been organized this year with Mary Jones as president and Frances Pace as secretary. Ten other Pi Phi's belong.

Mrs. Bassett (Mary Ramsey), gave the chapter a lovely Christmas party at which the pledges staged a musical comedy and the parrot told many interesting stories. The Philadelphia alumnae club entertained Pennsylvania A at a bridge-luncheon at the Strath-Haven Inn.

The construction of the new Worth dormitory for women has been under way for at least a month and is to be ready for occupancy in the fall.

M. GAHRNG PRICE.

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1896)

Pledge Day—Indefinite

College activities seemed almost to halt entirely for the bewildering process of registration and for the much dreaded examinations. Basketball alone succeeded in surviving the press of term theses and reviews, and the return to the normal round of work and activities of the new semester was most welcome.

November 24 brought the rushing season for the women's fraternities to a close. Invitations to membership in  $\Pi B \Phi$  were extended to the following thirteen girls, all of whom accepted: Eleanor Ballentine, Veta Davis, Carol Dutton, Gladys Eli, Marjorie Kerr, Mary Konkle, Helen McElravy, Ferne McNeal, Jane Reese, Dorothy Richards, Marjorie Rivenburg, Mabel Ruhl, and Blanche Thompson. A banquet was held in honor of these new girls on February 14 at the Manufacturers Club in Milton, Pa. This banquet took the place of any celebration on Bid Day, which is not permitted by the local Panhellenic council.

The annual formal dance on December 14 was given in the  $\Sigma X$  house, through the courtesy and kindness of the local chapter.

The girls enjoyed sending the usual box of toys to the Settlement School at Christmas time. That box for the kiddies seems to bring much of the Christmas spirit into the humdrum of school life.

Mrs. Miller, Beta Province President, visited the chapter in January and aroused much interest in the Eastern Conference, which many of the girls are hoping to attend.

M. RUTH PECK.

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE

(Chartered 1903).

Pledge Day—December 6, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated November 14, 1923.)

Margaret Gress, '26, Camp Hill, Pa.

Reba Skyles, '26, Altoona, Pa.

Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  had a most successful rushing season this year. Although there was strong competition, twelve freshmen and one senior were pledged.

There were many Christmas activities at Dickinson this year. The annual Doll Show and Bazaar was held at Metzger Hall shortly before vacation and Elizabeth Filler and Betty Chambers were the two Pi Phis in charge. Nearly all the girls took part in the stunt which was given during the evening. The night before vacation the Dramatic Club presented "Suppressed Desires" in which Sallie Sigmund played the leading role. In addition to these all-college affairs the chapter held a Christmas party in the rooms with a tree, eats, and presents for every one from Santa Claus. This year, as usual, each girl dressed a doll for the Children's Friend Society in town.

It was a great pleasure to have the new Province President, Mrs. Miller, here after vacation and the girls were only sorry that she could not stay longer.

Dickinson is much interested in the results of the Student Conference held at Indianapolis during the Christmas holidays. The college sent a full representation of five students and one faculty member who brought back most inspiring reports. The questions taken up there are being discussed every week in joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. meetings.

Interest is also being shown in the Bok Peace Award. The Dickinson published a resume of the prize winning plan. It is to be discussed in several meetings soon and then the vote of the student body will be taken.

Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  plans to send a number of girls to the conference in Washington.

CAROLA LEARNED.

PENNSYLVANIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

(Chartered September 18, 1918)

Pledge Day—October 27, 1923).

Rushing season this year was particularly successful, Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  pledging twelve girls—eight freshmen, two juniors and two sophomores. Soon after rushing the chapter moved into a new fraternity suite at 4725 Bayard Street. The Pittsburgh alumnae club with the Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  alumnae as hostesses entertained for the pledges at a luncheon in the new suite on December 1. On November 1 the active chapter and pledges held open house in the Heinz House.

Mrs. Marguerite Cowan Edwards, president of the City Panhellenic of Pittsburgh, spoke at the January meeting of the Alumnae Club on Interfraternity Friendship. Plans were completed at this meeting for the annual Settlement School Bridge, February 16.

Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  is fortunate to have Miss Elizabeth Blair, Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$ , of the English department faculty as a member of the chapter advisory committee. They also welcome Harriet Merwin of New York  $\Delta$ , a student at Carnegie Tech., to Pittsburgh and hope that she will become actively interested in the chapter.

$\Pi \Phi$  is striving to maintain a high scholastic standing as well as make a name for itself in Pitt activities. The new girls are rapidly locating their interests. Fern Wein, Anne Barrett, and Alice Fehr are members of their class basketball and hockey squads. Fern is also manager of the sophomore basketball team and a member of the program committee of the Spanish Club. Alice Fehr is a member of Pitt Players, the W. S. G. A. Student Loan Fund Committee, and is doing field work in social service for the Y. W. C. A. Sylvia Hannan and Ruth Johnston hold reportorial positions on the Pitt Weekly. Ruth Trimble has been appointed women's fraternity editor of The Owl, and both she and Mary Burke are Junior Ushers. Dorothea Lucas is reporter for the Pitt Weekly, a member of the sophomore social committee, and is among the sophomores recognized by Mortar Board.

Prevailing interests just now are basketball and initiation. Pitt has had a very successful basketball season thus far, having suffered no defeat.

Several of the active chapter and numerous alumnae will be present at the Eastern Conference in Washington, D. C.

OHIO ALPHA—OHIO UNIVERSITY

(Chartered October 14, 1923)

Pledge Day—October 6, 1923.

Mrs. Miller, Beta Province President, visited Ohio A for a few days in the fall.

The annual Christmas formal dance was given on December 8. The hall was decorated in white with thousands of cotton snowflakes hanging from the ceiling. Christmas trees and snow men helped to make the scene wintery. Many alumnae and girls from other chapters in Beta Province were present.

Instead of having the usual Christmas party this year with gifts for each other, the chapter gave a party for the poor children of Sugar Creek, a small mining town a few miles away. A hundred little boys and girls were made happy by a Christmas tree and a real Santa Claus.

The women of the university gave the annual doll show in the gymnasium a few weeks before Christmas recess. The dolls were dressed by students and later given to poor children. Everyone joined in helping decorate the very attractive booths.

The opening and dedication of the splendid new gymnasium came in January, and also the college play in which one of the pledges had the leading role.

Ruth Lemley, '24, 125 North Sandusky St., Delaware, Ohio.

Catherine Price, '26, 152 S. Garfield Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

Ohio B has pledged five girls since the regular pledge day: Marian Bingham, Phyllis Brooke, Mary Katherine Campbell, Elizabeth Lathrop and Janet Wagner.

Early in December the annual Christmas bazaar was given, all the women's organizations on the campus cooperating to make it one big event.

A number of Illinois Z girls were the guests of Ohio B on the day of the Ohio State-Illinois football game. The sophomore Football Dance was given at the end of the football season. Margaret Bazler was on the committee.

Elaborate plans are being made for the Junior Prom to be held at the Memorial Hall this year. Two Pi Phis are on the committee, Mary Zoller and Mildred Orwig, and Hilda Owens will lead the Prom.

The Y. W. C. A. has a new plan for meetings holding them every week at noon following a luncheon. Dorothy Calkins, cabinet member in charge of meetings, provides an interesting and worth-while program.

Grace Harris, was an adorable ingenue in the Strollers Christmas play, Mr. Pim Passes By.

Panhellenic has started an exchange of girls for Wednesday evening dinners, two girls of each fraternity going to different houses.

Π Β Φ held a rummage sale and made enough money to buy a new gas range.

WEST VIRGINIA ALPHA—WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

(Chartered September 21, 1918).

Pledge Day—December 12, 1923.

West Virginia A has just closed a successful rushing season. The new pledges are: Marguerite Bowers, Ruth Deffenbaugh, Catherine Hodgson, Ruth McLane, Ruth Strieby, Lenila Thomas, Mary Gail Tyree, and Mrs. P. I. Reed (Elizabeth Frost).

In order to stimulate these new pledges to high scholastic attainments the active chapter offers a silver loving cup to the new girl whose average is highest. There will be engraved on this cup the girl's name and her scholastic rating. A West Virginia A alumna also offers to present a Π Β Φ recognition pin to the best students among the pledges. The scholastic interest of the active girls is very noticeable now since competition began with all of the other women's fraternities for a Panhellenic cup. The women's fraternity which holds this cup for five semesters will receive it permanently.

There are several campus organizations whose purpose it is to urge more earnest work in classes and in all university activities. Frances Sprigg is a member of Laurel, the senior honorary organization. Rhododendron, a junior honorary organization, has as its Π Φ representatives Dorothy Bone and Rebecca Wade. Maguerite Bowers has become a member of Entre Nous and Margaret Bone is president of Phil-Hellenic, the organization of Greek students. Three of the girls are in the Education Club.

The girls of West Virginia University gave their second annual manless dance December 15. This dance was even more successful than the one last year and it was heartily supported by all the girls. It was under the able management of Evelyn Dowling, and Dorothy Bone headed the refreshment committee.

The chapter has chosen Mrs. H. E. Stone, the wife of the dean of men, as new patroness and she has accepted the invitation.

The university is making an intense drive for a new stadium which will be erected just across the street from West Virginia A's home. A great many Pi Phis are working on various committees connected with this campaign.

Dr. Sherwood Eddy opened an evangelistic campaign at Commencement Hall, January 18. Several girls were on the main committees as representatives from Y. W. C. A. and fraternities.

West Virginia A has set a new and valuable precedent for all organizations on the campus by its support of an exhibition of famous paintings. The Morgantown branch of the American Federation of Arts, of which Mrs. P. I. Reed is president, is conducting this exhibition. It consists of thirty paintings by world-famous artists, and is loaned by the Metropolitan Art Museum. The Federation of Arts is making a special effort to interest students and  $\Pi B \Phi$  will attend as a chapter. It is now planned to have a little party for the rushing season of the second semester at the exhibition, and to enjoy the pictures instead of the usual motion picture or play.

MARYLAND ALPHA—GOUCHER COLLEGE

(Chartered January, 1897).

Pledge Day, November 13, 1923.

In December the chapter had a Christmas party to which each girl brought a small gift. After dinner the presents were distributed by a very realistic Santa Claus. On January 6 the active chapter was entertained by the alumnae at a lovely tea in honor of the founding of Maryland A of  $\Pi B \Phi$ . This is only one of several enjoyable gatherings which the girls have had with the Baltimore alumnae this year.

A Goucher circus was given under the auspices of the College Spirit committee on January 11. Each club and organization in college gave a special stunt or side-show.  $\Pi \Phi$  went as a typical country family and everyone entered into the fun with the right spirit.

Several of the girls are raising money for the Settlement School in various ways, the Christmas card sale bringing in the largest amount. The alumnae expect to give a large bridge party later for the same purpose. The annual mid-winter houseparty was again given at the Country Club Inn, Belair, Md., the latter part of February following initiation.

CAROLINE STONE.

COLUMBIA ALPHA—GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1889).

Pledge Day—February 22, 1924.

One of the things Columbia A tries to stand for in the university is the activity in student affairs. It is this year represented on the staffs of the University Hatchet and The Cherry Tree, in the Y. W. C. A., on the hockey team and in dramatics. Sophia Waldman is manager of the George Washington Girls' Rifle Team, and Edna Kilpatrick is one of its best shots. This team is undefeated, and its two members named above shot in the National Championship Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, last summer. Mildred Thrasher, formerly of Michigan A, is a member of the Law School Senate, and Marjorie Gerry is secretary of the freshman class at the Law School. Dorothy Haddox was elected to the Sphinx Honor Society.

Mary King Ober was pledged on December 20. On January 3, Frances Foster formerly of Ohio A, announced her engagement, at a cooky-shine, to Bernard Rocke,  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ .

The chapter misses one of its most active members, Margaret Bowie, now at the University of Wisconsin.

Columbia A is eagerly looking forward to the Eastern Conference in Washington.

ELIZABETH M. BOOTH.

VIRGINIA ALPHA—RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S COLLEGE

(Chartered May 10, 1913).

Date of Pledge Day—March 1, 1924.

Mrs. Brinkley visited this chapter on January 10-12, and it was a pleasure to have such an opportunity of knowing her personally. She was present at the fraternity meeting and gave a splendid talk, reminding the girls of their ideals, and responsibilities to  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

On December 16, Virginia A gave a shower for the house. This has become a custom at Randolph-Macon. Many beautiful articles of silver, linen, and cut glass are received each year. The chapter also bought new rugs for living room and dining room, and new dining room furniture.

Several girls are members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet; others are student committee representatives; while still others are on the college publications staff. Mary Bishop, a pledge, and Kathleen Pewett took leading parts in the dramatic club play, Mr. Pim Passes By. In athletics, several Pi Phis won monograms, and made the all star teams in hockey and basketball.

On promise day, November 3, sixteen freshmen were promised to  $\Pi \Phi$ . Official pledge day is March 1. Several Virginia A girls are planning to attend the Eastern Conference of  $\Pi B \Phi$  in Washington April 11-12.

VIRGINIA BETA—HOLLINS COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October 8, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated December 2, 1923).

Kathleen Clinton, '25, Waco, Tex.

(Initiated December 17, 1923).

Elizabeth Hatcher, '26, Lynchburg, Va.

The Province President, Mrs. Arthur Brinkley, paid Virginia B a delightful visit in January to help start the new year right.

Anna Mary Blount and Frances Long are new pledges. Kathleen Clinton has returned to Hollins after spending some time at home on account of illness. The chapter misses Maxine Shannon and Russell Kennedy, and Paula Wingo, a transfer from Missouri  $\Gamma$  who did not return for the second semester.

$\Pi\Phi$  has been well represented in dramatics this year. Virginia Cody, who coached the sophomore play also took part in the junior play in February. Dorothy Griffis, Ruth Millikin, Mary Ethel Prow, Patti Winston, and Lucy Poulnot were in the sophomore play, and received high praise for their acting from the dramatic board. In the Christmas pageant, Ann Milton was chosen as the Madonna, and Dorothy Griffis portrayed the part of a king.

$\Pi$  Phis have also been active in athletics. Elizabeth Clack and Ann Milton made the senior hockey team, Virginia Cody the junior team, Lillian McMurdo and Dorothy Griffis the sophomore team, and Frances Long the freshman team. In basketball Elizabeth Clack and Lillian McMurdo were on both class and Mohican teams, while Virginia Cody did splendid work as cheer leader of the Yemassee team.

The pledges gave a Christmas party at the new Hollins Tea House for the old girls.

DOROTHY GRIFFIS.

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
(Chartered 1923)

Pledge Day—None this semester

The fall rushing season ended happily with eight new girls pledged to North Carolina A. They are Norma Connell, Daisy Cooper, Caromae Green, Irma Green, Elizabeth Hickerson, Margaret Jones and Lucy Lay—a group unusually representative of the university's various departments, including one graduate student in biology, one member each of the Schools of Law and Social Welfare, and five students of Liberal Arts.

As soon as the arrow heads were pinned on busy times began for chapter members as well as for pledges, since pledge study classes had to be held, and as North Carolina A is neither very old nor very wise in such matters, this meant work. It is hoped that Miss Keller may be here for initiation, and the chapter is looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to her visit.

One of the chief events of the fall in university life was the presentation by the Carolina Playmakers of their latest series of folk plays. Two  $\Pi$  Phi pledges appeared on the program, Margaret Jones, who was charming in Gaius and Gaius Jr., a comedy of ante-bellum days, and Daisy Cooper as the heroine of a pre-revolutionary romance. The state tour followed the local production, with an eventful week for the fortunate members of the cast. The plays to be produced in the winter quarter have just been selected, and again future Pi Phis are distinguishing themselves. Irma Green is the author of Fiwin's, a tragedy of farm life, in which Lucy Lay is to play a leading part.

The chapter is glad to welcome Mary Learned of Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$ , to the University. Unfortunately heavy graduate studies prevent her from taking an active part in fraternity life.

JANE TOY.

FLORIDA ALPHA—JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—October 15, 1923.

After a very successful rushing season Florida A pledged nine girls, who are: Dorothy Dietz, Lillian Eversole, Lois Hon, Katherine Hunter, Martha McConnell, Harriet Munn, Katherine Peters, Virginia Prather, Mary Lou Talton. Since then Elza Baalack, Mary Briscoe, India Hout, and Lucille Newby have been added to this number.

On October 30, the chapter entertained the faculty in honor of Dr. Allen, the new dean of women, at a tea in the chapter room.

Before Christmas the pledges entertained the chapter at a Christmas party. After many clever stunts and distribution of presents, they presented the chapter with a number of pretty pillows for the fraternity room.

In the first part of December, the Florida Baptist Convention was held in DeLand. The evening sessions were held at the university and were very interesting. Among the speakers were Mrs. W. C. James, president of the Women's Missionary Union of the south, who had just returned from the Baptist World Alliance at Stockholm, Sweden; and Dr. A. J. Holt, who was one of a very small number of Greek and Bible scholars to be granted a permit to see and examine the original Biblical manuscripts which are kept securely locked in a glass case in the Vatican at Rome.

Dr. J. A. Robertson, formerly of the Smithsonian Institute, and now editor and secretary of the Florida State Historical Society is at the university, as the research professor in American History.

Pi Phis are taking active parts on the campus. Ruth Jennings is councilman at large on the Student Council. Dorothy Douglass is president and Evelyn Ashby is treasurer of  $\Phi B$ , the honorary musical fraternity.

The chapter with the aid of the alumnae is going to give a benefit bridge at the College Arms Hotel.

Mary Burke, '26, De Funiak Springs, Fla.

Myra Burr, '26, Tallahassee, Fla.

Nannie Burr, '26, Jacksonville, Fla.

Mary Endicott, '26, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Helen Hill Jones, '24, Lakeland, Fla.

Hortense Mintz, '25, Tampa, Fla.

Hattie Lu Trammell, '23, Mobile, Ala.

Carolyn Walker, '25, Kissimmee, Fla.

The rushing season was rounded out with the formal parties of the fraternities on the campus. Dates were drawn for these parties by the Panhellenic committee on rushing and the last one was held one week before pledge day. The members of Florida B gave a cabaret-dance November 17, and on December 3, fourteen girls were pledges.

Soon after pledge day a custom long observed on the campus was started for the year by  $\Pi\Phi$  pledges, when they were hostesses at a Christmas party for other pledges. Another Christmas party, given by the college mother, Mrs. Cawthorn, for the seniors, was symbolized by the words, "For Others," hung above the Christmas tree. Each senior took a gift for the tree to be given to some one less fortunate. After a good time in the atrium the seniors went to different homes in Tallahassee and serenaded with Christmas carols.

Vesper services this year were in charge of the chapel choir and the dramatic club. This inspiring service consisted of Christmas hymns and pantomime representation of the first Christmas.

F. S. W. C. has been most fortunate in artist selections. Charles Rand Kennedy gave his miracle play, The Chastening, and Francis Macmillen rendered a violin program, including several of his own compositions. Quite a few of the music faculty have given recitals and Miss Meek of the expression department gave a reading.

With the holiday season Florida B successfully launched the first attempt to raise money for the house fund. This was a script dance in Tampa. The alumnae in Jacksonville and other towns are planning bridge parties for the same cause. Florida B intends to economize in every way to make her house plans a reality.

Mary Lu Perkins, '27, is president of the freshman class and assistant Odd cheer leader.  $\Pi\Phi$  was represented on all the class basketball teams and on the Odd and Even teams. Alice Albury, attended the International Volunteer Student Convention at Indianapolis, Ind.

Bernardine Rice, '26, Sodus, N. Y.

On Tuesday, December 18, Michigan A pledged nine girls who are: Helen Allyn, Helen and Louise Bostwick, Gertrude Kyle, Katherine Lyons, Martha Meighan, Helen Moore, Jessie Tyler and Marjorie Williams. Helen and Louise Bostwick are daughters of Kate King Bostwick (Michigan A) and Helen Allyn is also a  $\Pi\Phi$  daughter. Following the pledging ceremony the alumnae and patronesses were guests at dinner and then came the Christmas tree, laden with gifts for everyone.

Mrs. Spiegel, Gamma Province President, has just made her annual visit to the chapter.

The Washington banquet, the event of the college year in which class spirit is in greatest evidence, was held in February. This is when class rivalry is keenest and each class tries to put on the best stunts.

The chapter is represented in the following organizations: Collegian staff, Winona staff, Y. W. C. A., Honor society, Dramatic society, W. A. A., class offices, Germanae Sodeles and Ladies' Literary Union.

PHYLLIS MYERS.

MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN
(Chartered 1888)

Pledge Day—September 30, 1923.

Initiation has been the interesting goal point since Christmas and the seniors have conducted a study hall for the pledges, making ten hours of supervised study a week. The name of Helen Searight has been added to the list of pledges.

An innovation was introduced this year in the nature of a candle-light breakfast held the last day before Christmas vacation. Before breakfast was served the girls sat around the fire in the living room and sang carols, then marched into the gaily decorated dining room, lighted only by quantities of candles.

Michigan B welcomes to Ann Arbor Mrs. Palmer Christian, Maryland A, wife of the newly appointed organist of the School of Music.

In the fall elections of Wyvern, junior honorary society, Helen Porter and Geraldine Truscott were honored with membership. Helen Brown is chairman of the Junior Girls' Play, one of the outstanding traditional events in the university. Geraldine Truscot has charge of publicity, and all of the juniors are actively connected with the play.

Engagements have been announced of Olive McKay and Arthur Vyse, Jr.,  $\Phi\Sigma K$ , and of Elma Walz and John MacGregor,  $\Phi K \Sigma$ .

Basketball holds first place in activities and competition is running high between classes and houses, especially since for the first time, a cup is being offered to the winning house. Practically all of the thirteen pledges have positions on either the house or class teams. Olive MacKay is all-campus basketball manager, and Eleanor Verdier is manager for the freshman team.

Instead of the numerous small affairs usually given to raise money for the new League Building, the women of the campus are concentrating on a few large functions. A tradition has been established by the first Panhellenic ball given in the autumn for which over 1000 applications were received for the available 370 tickets. Nanette Carnahan was chairman of the decoration committee. The third annual bazaar was held just before Christmas vacation and the booths were arranged to give the effect of a Persian marketplace, gay Christmas decorations helping to give a festive atmosphere.

Michigan B had as a chapter guest Mrs. Edith Rhoades Spiegel, Delta Province President. During her brief visit a tea was given in her honor to which were invited the town alumnae and the chaperons, and representatives from all the other womens' fraternities on the campus.

Dorothy Williams, California A, Frances Doster, Bernice Learmant and Edith Gutzeit, Michigan A, are with the chapter this year. Lucile Whitney is attending Ohio State University. Jean Bentley is a sophomore at Wellesley College.

DOROTHY JEFFREY.

INDIANA ALPHA—FRANKLIN COLLEGE

Pledge Day—September 24, 1923.

Indiana A enjoyed the visit of Mrs. Edith Rhoades Spiegel, Delta Province President, December 13 and 14. During her visit the actives gave a tea for her, to which the faculty women were invited. The pledges gave a chocolate, to which they invited the pledges of the other Greek letter organizations, to meet Mrs. Spiegel.

Lella Kelly, Mary Ethel Thurston, Frances Bassett, Florence Hall, Sara Green, Clarine Kelly and Clara Godwin have been pledged to A X A, honorary journalistic fraternity; Frances Bassett received the leading part in the first semester all-college play, His Uncle's Niece, and was also chosen to represent the Franklin chapter of  $\Theta A \Phi$  at the National convention held at Cincinnati Dec. 28 and 29; Faye Eccles won first prize in a contest for composing music and words for the best college song, the name of which was, Franklin's Gold and Blue; Helen Taylor, Marion Brown, Frances Bassett, Mildred Sears, Faye Eccles, and Jeroline Powell were among the ten chosen as the most popular girls of the college; and both Janice Jopling and Mary Covert are on the Junior Debate team and Almanack staff.

Indiana A has an interesting series of programs started for this year. One evening each month a speaker is asked to talk on subjects which are practical in college life. Thus far the chapter has had: Allen K. Foster, who talked on The Social Problem of the College Girl; Mrs. Goodell, wife of the president of Franklin College, who talked on God Gives Us Memories That We May Have Roses in December; and C. P. Gibbs, the Methodist Minister, on My Old Kentucky Home, which was a Settlement School program. After the literary program, actives and alumnae join in a cooky-shine which helps to bring the older and younger members of  $\Pi B \Phi$  into closer fellowship.

Among other social affairs, the girls enjoyed the sewing parties for the purpose of making articles for the Christmas box which the chapter sent to the Settlement School.

All students are interested in the major sport which is basket ball at Franklin. The team has lost only one game in the past two years and they have gained the name of the Unconquerable Five. Just recently the college enthusiastically celebrated a victory over Wisconsin and Marquette Universities.

In order to keep her past record in scholarship, Indiana A has a rule that any member making below C in any subject, automatically becomes inactive from fraternity life until the grade is raised.

On December 7, W. S. G. A. gave a bazaar at which each women's organization on the campus had a booth.  $\Pi \Phi$  cleared \$70 from a sale of miscellaneous articles of feminine use. This money helped to make up the gifts of \$50 to the Settlement School, \$50 to the Fellowship Fund, and \$10 to the Loan Fund.

Katherine Shaw is a member of the Junior Prom committee. She and Mary Jane Kuhn were initiated into  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , national Journalistic fraternity. Dorothy Tousley is a member of Pleiades, honorary women's organization. Frances Pond was initiated into W. A. A.

Wednesday night, January 9, was quite an exciting one for the girls in the house, when about ten o'clock fire was discovered in the basement. With the aid of fraternity men the firemen were able to put it out before it had gained much headway. Neighboring women's fraternities took the girls in for the night and K A Θ graciously offered their house for the dance which had been planned for the following Saturday.

The fall semester has been very successful for Indiana Γ with every girl doing her best to raise the scholarship record of the chapter, to take part in campus activities, and in every way to make Π Β Φ felt in the college. The chapter is well represented with offices in each college class. Marie George is vice-president of the Woman's League and president of Scarlet Quill, an honorary organization for juniors and seniors. Margaret Schoener is president of Φ Δ Φ, Dorothy Ryker and Sussanne Kolhoff had parts in the dramatic club play Miss Somebody Else, which was given January 16.

Home-coming was a great event for Butler College. Indiana Γ was awarded the silver cup given by the Skull's club to the woman's fraternity having the best decorated house.

The Panhellenic Association of Butler College, realizing the need of some affair to bring all organized women of the college together, gave a formal dance November 24. The plan was very successful and this event has formed a precedent to be followed every year. Helen Gandall was chairman of the dance.

On December 20 the chapter gave a Christmas dance. In addition to the good time which the dance afforded, twenty-five dollars was made for the house. Indiana  $\Gamma$  made forty-seven dollars at a rummage sale on December 29.

On January 4, the pledges entertained the actives with their traditional stunt. The room was converted into a cabaret, decorated with serpentine and balloons. The patrons of the cabaret—the actives, were seated at small tables lighted with bright candles.

The Woman's League is sponsoring a series of matinee talks given by people prominent in literary and artistic lines. This year, Louise Rich is chairman of the committee in charge.

INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1921)

Pledge Day—September 15, 1923.

Indiana  $\Delta$  has survived examination week and is now hard at work on pledge and fraternity study for  $\Pi\Phi$  examinations. Such blessings always come together and since this is Purdue's first experience in finals for years, it has been indeed harrowing.

Just before the holidays, came the Christmas party. Appropriate joke presents were exchanged by all the girls, and the girls in each room gave a gift to the house. Lovely presents were received from the alumnae and patronesses, all chosen with the thought of the new house which is being planned.

Two pledges have received special honors in campus activities. In a recent beauty contest held on the campus, Virginia Rose was one of the winners. Mary Zimmer has the leading part in The Tailor Made Man, which is to be given by the Little Theater Players of Purdue University. Juanda Kirkman and Alice Cordell also have parts in the play.

In December the chapter held a candy sale for the benefit of the Settlement School. The girls made all of the candy and sold it at a booth in one of the prominent stores.

Tennessee  $A$  has been busy on its scholarship record, and  $\Pi B\Phi$  has led the honor roll of the college all three quiz periods this semester.

The chapter entertained with a luncheon at the Hotel Patten on December 17, honoring Kittie Schoolfield, a prospective bride. The proceeds from the luncheons served the alumnae at their monthly meetings have been voted to go to the Settlement School fund. Mildred Garner and Elizabeth Charlton entertained at a bridge luncheon in the fraternity rooms during the holidays.

The patronesses entertained with a reception at Mrs. Kreusi's home on December 26.

The fraternity has been much interested in the first girls' basketball game of the year, which was played January 15 between the University first team and the alumnae team, ending in favor of the university team. The chapter has two members on the university team, Dorothy Ingram and Elizabeth Sussdorf, and the Alumnae club has two members on the alumnae team, Virginia Gardner (Mrs. Warren S.), and Margaret Smith. The basketball trips to nearby towns have already begun.

(Chartered 1890).

Pledge Day—October 2, 1923.

The University of Minnesota's new library is at last ready for occupancy. The need for a larger library has been urgent especially during the last quarter with ten thousand students enrolled. The university now has one of the best experimental radio broadcasting stations in the country.

Adelaide Stenhaug has been appointed Album Editor of The Gopher, and Lucile Sasse, Elizabeth Dixon and Dorothy Donnelly are sophomore assistants. Charlotte Howard is a member of the Freshman Commission and Eleanor Abbott is a member of the Aquatic League. Phillis Clemetson is a member of  $\Delta\Phi\Delta$ , honorary art fraternity.

To promote scholarship, Minnesota A has installed a study hall in which the freshmen are required to spend their free hours under supervision of the upperclassmen.

Several girls have not returned to school this quarter: Lucile Corrison, Elizabeth Acker, Dorothy Smalley and Andrea McKinnon. Andrea went to New York City in January to study dramatics.

A Tea Dansant was given in February for the benefit of the Settlement school and there were several vaudeville acts during the course of the evening. The winter formal took place January 12 at the Minnesota Club with Mr. and Mrs. Phil J. Laurence as chaperones.

WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

(Chartered 1894).

Pledge Day—September 30, 1923.

Wisconsin A was very much elated over winning the first prize for home-coming decorations—a beautiful silver loving cup. Home-coming was with Minnesota, and this chapter had the pleasure of entertaining Epsilon Province President, Mrs. Laurence, and eight Minnesota Pi Phis.

The old year was closed with the pledging of two fine girls, Edith Jorris and Vesta Torpe, both sophomores in the university. Three girls were elected to  $\Phi K \Phi$ , Anita Haven, Rosamond Nolte, and Marian Metcalf. Dorothy John, Rosamond Nolte, Florence Fox, Edith Jorris, and Virginia Meade made hockey teams and Jane Marden the swimming team. Six seniors were appointed to committees in charge of Commencement Day exercises.

The new year opened with the Junior Promenade, held each year in the State Capitol. Dorothy John was the assistant Prom chairman, and Ernestine Blatz, Jane Truesdale, and Katherine Parker were on the committees. There was also much excitement when it was discovered that Santa Claus had left a water softener for the house. The money for the softener had been given to Santa Claus by the chaperon, Mrs. L. S. Stites, who had saved it through her efficient management.

W. S. G. A. is trying a new experiment which so far has proved very successful. Every Friday evening from seven to eight o'clock a dancing class is held in Lathrop Parlors. All university girls are requested to come, especially those who can lead in dancing. The first purpose is to furnish recreation for girls who have no opportunity to dance; but, the deeper purpose is to bring the women of Wisconsin closer together, and to unite them by closer friendship and new acquaintances.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE
(Chartered 1919).

Pledge Day, October 15, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated February 2, 1924).

Beatrice Baker, '27, Oak Park, Ill.
Janet Fisher, '27, Anderson, Ind.
Garnet Holmes, '27, Oak Park, Ill.
Elizabeth Kendig, '27, Morgan Park, Ill.
Frances Kulp, '27, Valparaiso, Ind.
Wilma Myers, '27, Oak Park, Ill.
Florence North, '27, Lockport, Ill.
Elizabeth Oakley, '26, Quincy, Ill.
Ethel Pollard, '27, Beloit, Wis.
Jean Schumann, '27, Oak Park, Ill.
Josephine Wigdale, '27, Wauwatosa, Wis.

With the opening of the second quarter, Beloit welcomed to the college its new president, Dr. W. Irving Maurer. A Beloit alumnus and a minister of note, President Maurer is exceptionally well equipped for his position as head of the college. He is a man of singularly strong personality and leadership, and inspires confidence in all with whom he comes in contact.

The active chapter and the pledges were entertained at a Christmas party and dinner by the alumnae chapter before the holidays. At this time the alumnae presented the chapter with a fire screen for the living room hearth.

Interest in campus activities continues unabated, with more attention now being centered in the glee club, a capella chorus, and dramatic organizations. Freshmen as well as upperclassmen are encouraged to try out for several activities with the result that every member is represented in at least two.

One of the local moving picture theaters will be taken over by the chapter this quarter for the benefit of the Settlement School. This has proved to be a more profitable method of raising funds for the school than any other that has been tried out at Beloit.

Jean Aldrich of Oak Park, Ill., was pledged at the beginning of the quarter.

The annual winter formal, which took the form of a snow party, was given at Cosmo hall on February 16.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

(Chartered October 7, 1921).

INITIATES

(Initiated October 26, 1923).

Grace R. Lambe, '26, 324 No. Sth St., Grand Forks, N. D.

Since pledge day last fall, Linea Norlin, Jola Jarvis, and Lenore Mahon have joined North Dakota A. These, with the other pledges, gave a very successful tea for all the freshman girls and pledges of women's fraternities the first of December. Lenore Mahon, violinist, Laurine Odell, pianist, and Margaret Radcliffe, reader, gave the program.

Just before Christmas, the chapter entertained twenty-seven little kiddies from the Community House. There were eats, toys and Santa Claus. A shower for the house followed and a linen tablecloth and six napkins from the mothers, silver spoons from the pledges and a silver tray from Miss Laycock, housemother, were a few of the gifts received.

K A Θ and B X have both held open house at their homes on University Avenue. The campus is still excited over the Junior Promenade, held among Hawaiian hills and streams, which Catherine Colosky helped plan.

Helen Wilder is president of the Dean's Assistant Council, secretary of the Commerce Club, and president of X Φ, newly organized Girls' Commerce Club. Erma Nelson and Roberta Thompson are editing the society column of The Student, and have been initiated into Press club. Dorothy Upham, Grace Lamb and Ruth Wilder are working on the sophomore Carney Contest committee. Grace and Ruth, with Louise Page are in a home-talent musical comedy, Kathleen; and Mildred Odell is playing leading woman's role in the DeMolay play. Gayle Pugh has been initiated into K Ψ O, women's forensic; Laurine Odell is a member of Σ A I, national musical; Agnes Tenneson is a Sketcher, art; and Louise Page and Margaret Radcliffe have been made Play-maker Reserves.

Mrs. Laurence visited North Dakota, December 3 and 4. She didn't wait for the February blizzard so she could be snowed in for three days this year.

ILLINOIS BETA—LOMBARD COLLEGE

(Chartered 1872)

Pledge Day—October 12, 1923.

All the Illinois B girls came back after Christmas vacation eager to begin their college work and play again, except one—Emma Williamson, who was married during the holidays to the Lombard coach, Paul J. Schissler. Illinois B also loses another girl, Fern Fennessy, who finished her collegiate work in January but returns for her diploma in June.

The Lombard football team was again awarded the honor of being Illinois champions, and so far the basketball squad has been successful.

All non-resident girls at Lombard College are required to live at Lombard Hall, so no girls on the campus live in their chapter houses. Just before Christmas vacation the chapter had a Christmas party for the bungalow when each girl gave the bungalow a present. Following a cooky-shine the presents were all unwrapped after much guessing concerning the contents of the various packages. The bungalow fared splendidly and must surely be looking forward to next Christmas.

The last night of Homecoming, November 15-16, Illinois B and her Galesburg alumnae entertained the alumnae who came back for the game.

Λ Φ Δ is sponsoring an all-college stunt night which is to be held soon. Each group on the campus is to furnish some stunt.

A chapter of Π K Π is to be installed at Lombard College in March and Illinois B hopes to have some girls initiated into that.

ILLINOIS DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE

(Chartered 1884)

Pledge Day—September 29, 1923).

INITIATES

(Initiated December 14, 1923).

Dorothy Drake, '25, Canton, Ill.

Marion Ebert, '25, Quincy, Ill.

Constance Irwin, '26, Springfield, Ill.

Since the last letter, Illinois  $\Delta$  has pledged Virginia Leonard, La-Grange, Ill.; Dorothy Drake, and Constance Irwin. Initiation for the latter two, and for Marion Ebert, was unusually impressive because of the fact that it was held at a late hour in the evening at the home of Eleanor Franing.

Mrs. Laurence, Epsilon Province President, visited the chapter, November 6 and 7, and gave much real help and inspiration. The alumnae entertained the pledges at a cooky-shine November 6, and the active chapter on December 6. The chapter has enjoyed several cooky-shines and sings, and was entertained at dinner on December 7, by the new patroness, Mrs. R. C. Matheny.

Five  $\Pi \Phi$  juniors, Carmen Sankey, Marion Ebert, Dorothy Drake, Katherine Noble, and Helen Christy, hold positions on the staff of the college annual, The Gale. Eleanor Franing is treasurer of the sophomore class, and three  $\Pi \Phi$  freshmen, Florence Hall, Jean Heppes and Virginia Leonard, were elected by the Y. W. C. A. to the freshman commission. Marie Holly was one of the ten freshmen who were announced as making the highest scores in the intelligence test given each year to the freshman class. Two Pi Phis are working on the girls' debate squad.

Knox College will celebrate its Founders' Day February 21. Two noted alumni, Dr. John H. Finley and S. S. McClure will be present and will speak on this occasion. Dr. K. G. Webster of Harvard has been at Knox for the past few weeks, giving a series of lectures on the life of the English people in the Middle Ages. The Journalism department held the annual convention of the Illinois High School Press Association February 21-22.

Dr. J. L. McConaughy, president of Knox College, and E. R. Drake, a trustee of the college, left February 1, for a two months' trip in the Mediterranean regions.

ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1894.)

Pledge Day—September 19, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated December 27, 1923.)

Mrs. Augusta McDonald, graduate, Evanston, Ill.

Hazel Frazer, '26, Wilmette, Ill.

Illinois announces the initiation of Mrs. McDonald, who has two Pi Phi daughters, Esther and Louise, and Hazel Frazer. After the initiation, held in fraternity rooms, came the fraternity supper and Christmas party, where Jean Burns played the part of old Santa and presents were given to everyone.

Seven Pi Phis made the class volley ball teams, namely: Margaret Montgomery, Katherine Orrick, Dorothy Coleman, Isabel Hanway, Hazel Dreiske, Marie DeVou, and Estelle Farley, while Dorothy Glanz made the senior golf team, and Hazel Frazer and Helen Nash the swimming teams.

Virginia Wadsworth was initiated into Γ E II, honorary women's commerce fraternity, and Mildred Kinney was initiated into Θ Σ Φ, honorary journalistic fraternity. Helen Call was made social chairman for honorary geology club for seniors, soon to become national. Margaret Shippen and Betty Davis were delegates to the Student Volunteer Convention at Indianapolis.

Helen Nash led the Junior Prom as Prom Queen with the president of the junior class. The Π B Φ formal dance was given the last of January at the Ambassador Hotel in Chicago.

A very interesting project which Illinois E is carrying through in order to raise money for the house is what is called the Arrow Basket. Ruth Siefkin gives her time to making home-made food, which by a very elaborate system is distributed by the girls to all the dormitories. The Basket is always looked forward to with eager anticipation.

HELEN DREISKE.

ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
(Chartered October 25, 1895.)

Pledge Day—September 22, 1923.

Illinois has been having a campaign for a Personal Honor System during examinations and many talks and helpful suggestions have been made to the new freshmen as well as upper-classmen. It is hoped to make Personal Honor a part of every student's life.

Illinois Z has been busy making money for the Settlement School and for the new house. A rummage sale, a benefit movie and a Settlement School Tea helped a great deal. At our tea, stereopticon pictures of the school and the surrounding country created a great deal of interest and when the freshmen, dressed as ragged mountain children passed their hats, many silver dollars were collected.

A new swimming pool for girls was dedicated last month and in its honor a water carnival illustrating the wooing of Hiawatha was given. Grace Green, Eunice Webster and Alice Shipman were swimmers in the carnival.

Helen Barrett and Florence King attended the Student Volunteer Convention at Indianapolis and brought back many interesting reports. Sarah Fisher was elected president of Freshman Commission, a Y. W. C. A. organization for freshman girls.

ELLEN MARGARET HOLTON.

ILLINOIS ETA—JAMES MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY
(Chartered 1912.)

Pledge Day—October 7, 1923.

With an average of B plus this year, ΠΒΦ again leads campus organizations in scholarship. Illinois Η has retained this honor during eleven out of the twelve years of her existence at Millikin. In order to help the new pledges get started right, the chapter is having supervised study hours for all pledges who have a grade below C. Also, each sponsor takes the responsibility of seeing that her charge is studying during all vacant periods between the hours of eight and four-thirty.

Millikin has just inaugurated a Little Theater Guild. On February 8 the Guild is to present three plays. The first will be Jean-Marie, a French tragedy in which Idelia Davis has the lead, the second Mr. and Mrs. P. Roe, a fantasy in which Helen Crowder has a principal part, and the third The Mandarin Coat, a comedy. Several other Pi Phis are members of the Guild.

Last month one of our pledges, Marjorie Neilson, won a twenty-five dollar prize for the best cover design submitted to the Staley Journal. Idelia Davis has been elected president of Le Cercle Francais. In the school of Liberal Arts, six out of the fourteen junior honor winners were Pi Phis, and in Household Arts, Ellen Kline was first of the two winners.

Millikin is glad to announce that several distinguished foreigners are to appear on her lecture course this year, Dr. Joshi professor of English in the University of Bombay, India, Dr. G. Sarokin, formerly head of the department of sociology in the University of Petrograd, and Frank Swinnerton, distinguished novelist and critic, are the most prominent. The lecture course is also to include several of the most noted educators and literary men in the United States.

The several nearest events of chapter importance are the formal on March 29, and the annual alumnae card party for the benefit of the Settlement School.

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

(Chartered December 21, 1868.)

Pledge Day—February 9, 1924.

INITIATES

(Initiated December 19, 1923.)

Helen Thompson, '26, Chillicothe, Mo.

Helen Thompson was initiated into Iowa A at the chapter rooms, December 19. A cooky-shine at Edna Van Syoc's home followed. Instead of giving individual gifts this year, the money was put in a common fund to buy furnishings for the chapter rooms.

Just now rushing is claiming much time and interest. The new Panhellenic rules state that there shall be no fraternity talks given at the one party which each fraternity is allowed to give. The parties are held the first semester and pledging is not until second semester. The  $\Pi\Phi$  dinner party was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. McCoid (Mary Hulme) on January 11, with fourteen rushees as guests.

Iowa A recently gave a tea for the alumnae club, the patronesses and the faculty women, at the home of Suzanne Stall.

In a contest held recently to choose the most representative Wesleyan girl, Edith Davidson was declared the winner. Each woman's fraternity and the independent women had candidates.

Of the twenty members of the girls' glee club, five are Pi Phis. The club will give an operetta this spring when several of the leading parts will be taken by Pi Phis.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE

(Chartered 1874)

Pledge Day—September 29, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated December 13, 1923)

Esther Kirkendall, '26, Mount Ayr, Iowa.

For the second time Zeta Province Loving cup awarded on the basis of general merit has been won by Iowa B. This is a great inspiration to maintain high standards so that the chapter may win this cup again which will mean that it will be Iowa B's own. Now the maintenance of these standards takes the form of an especial emphasis on scholarship.

Simpson, for the first time in several years was represented by a splendid football team which won the Conference championship. A banquet sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. was given in their honor.

Several unusual opportunities have been presented to the students this year in the way of lectures and musical numbers. The most notable numbers have been a series of four lectures by Bishop Edwin Hughes and concerts by Salvi, the great harpist, and Telmanni, the violinist.

There has been an attempt to revive an interest in literary society work and a new society, Clionian, has been organized. Several Iowa Betas are taking an active part in the work of the new society.

On December 7 and 8 the  $\Phi$ MA and M $\Phi$ E, honorary musical organizations gave the opera, The Pirates of Penzance. Harriet Henderson had one of the leading parts and Edith Bellman, Margaret Patterson and Mara Throckmorton had minor parts.

On November 23 twenty of the actives and pledges attended the Panhellenic banquet given by the Panhellenic association of Des Moines. One Sunday afternoon the chapter gave a sing for the parents of girls living in Indianola or those from out of town who could come. The attendance was gratifying and Iowa B made more firm friends for  $\Pi$ B $\Phi$ .

The Executive Council has made plans for a series of social fraternity meetings with entertainment furnished by each class. The first one has been held and the freshmen put on a clever stunt, which showed they were taking a very real interest in  $\Pi$  $\Phi$ .

Iowa B announced the pledging of Dorothy Whitted on December 6. Mary Alexander who was forced to leave school two years ago on account of ill health is back in school.

Pledge Day—October 22, 1923.

GRADUATES

Marcella Dewell, B. S. in Home Economics.

Marian Duke, B. S. in Home Economics.

Clara Jordan, B. S. in Home Economics.

In November, Iowa State College held one of the best homecomings it has ever known. Among seventy-five guests entertained by the chapter were a number of Nebraska Pi Phis who attended the Ames-Nebraska football game.  $\Pi$ B $\Phi$  entered a float in the homecoming parade and won the cup for house decorations. Another cup was won this fall in a contest fostered by the college annual board.

A cooky-shine for alumnae and actives was held at the chapter house in December. At this time a box was filled with Christmas presents for the Settlement School.

Mrs. Hazel Harwood Bemis (Ill. Z, '18), was honored at a tea given by actives and alumnae this fall. Before her marriage last summer, Mrs. Bemis was dean of women at Iowa State College.

Money has been appropriated and contracts let for additions to two college buildings, the women's dormitory and the college hospital. Construction of these additions will be undertaken in the spring.

Katherine Goeppinger has been made a member of the Order of the Goslings, an honor conferred for work of merit on the staff of Green Gander, college humor magazine. Dorothy Kenworthy has been appointed associate editor of the Iowa Homemaker, a college publication, and was recently pledged to  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , national journalistic fraternity. Marcella Dewell has been initiated into National Collegiate Players, honorary dramatic fraternity, and Barbara Dewell appeared in the sophomore class play. Helen Holloway was elected by class vote to the freshman commission and Helen Budd appointed manager of the junior basketball team. Dorothy McCarroll is to have charge of the annual spring vaudeville given by home economics students.

ADA DEAN HAVNER.

IOWA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
(Chartered 1882).

Pledge Day—September 23, 1923.

While every one was recuperating from rushing, and becoming adapted to the many new little sisters, the second thrill of the year occurred—Nell Barnes announced on Homecoming, October 20, that she was married to John Sunstrum,  $\Sigma A E$ , September 4, in Ottumwa, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Sunstrum left school and are now living in Oskaloosa, Iowa, where the latter is in the clothing business with his father.

Both actives and pledges have entered admirably into activities this year. Several are members of the University Players, literary societies, Y. W. C. A., university glee club and the Women's Athletic Association. Gail DeWolf, chapter president, is president of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet.

All surplus time and energy has been devoted to increasing the new house fund. The chapter has compiled a very attractive cook book, bound in white oil cloth with a Dutch girl on the cover. The price is one dollar and a half, and the patronage of any  $\Pi \Phi$  will be greatly appreciated. Other means of raising money were a Benefit Tea and Yuletide Bazaar, at which time about one hundred and fifty dollars was taken in. The Iowa City alumnae have given a rummage sale toward the fund and are planning a Bridge Tea in the near future. On the second floor of the chapter house is a canteen, the proceeds of which go to the house fund.

Before the holidays the chapter entertained Mary Elizabeth Bowden's mother, who is national president of P. E. O.

Two more pledges, Margaret Strubel of Sioux City, Iowa, and Helen Starbuck of Iowa City, Iowa have been added to Iowa Z.

Dean Bessie Leach Priddy,  $\Delta\Delta\Delta$ , the university's new dean of women talked at a recent chapter meeting. A fraternity woman herself, she has been greatly interested in the Greek letter organizations.

The annual freshman stunt for the entertainment of the active chapter took the form this year of a Bohemian party. Specialty song and dance numbers, and tables of bridge made up the evening's program. The pledges have given new grey rugs to the fraternity as their annual gift, which have added much to the attractiveness of the living room of the chapter house.

Just before the holidays, Missouri A had a dinner and Christmas tree party for the active girls and pledges. On January 12, a formal dinner dance was held at the chapter house.

$\Pi B \Phi$  is represented on this campus by Amelia Foster, vice-president of journalism school, president of  $\Gamma A X$  and vice-president of Y. W. C. A.; Sallie Lacy, Y. W. C. #### MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1907)

Pledge Day—September 28, 1923.

Since the holiday season all the girls are trying doubly hard to raise the scholarship average. The pledged girls, especially, are putting forth every effort to make the C average in the final examinations required for initiation. This chapter ranked third in the Panhellenic scholarship contest for the  $\Gamma\Phi B$  cup.  $A X \Omega$  holds the cup this year.

A new woman's fraternity,  $\Phi M$ , was installed at Washington University in November. The dormitory, where each of the women's fraternity has a room, will be too crowded next year to allow  $\Pi\Phi$  the same privilege. To solve the problem the dean of women, together with a representative from each fraternity and representative from non-fraternity groups, is organizing a campaign for a woman's building. The plans for the building have been drawn up and submitted to the university authorities for approval and as soon as it has been accepted, pledges of fifty dollars will be sold to the university girls. This building will contain rooms for the seven fraternities, for non-fraternity girls, for alumnae, and for a matron. This is the only practicable way of housing the fraternities at this university, since nearly all the girls are commuters.

Margaret Steele and Carol Crowe are on the debating team that will make the trip to Ames, Iowa. Hilda Schroeter and Carol Crowe have parts in the annual play of the dramatic club.

Mrs. Shugart's visit in October inspired greater effort to raise scholarship and general standing of Missouri B.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

Pledge Day—November 26, 1924.

Drury rushing was limited to one day this year and each fraternity was allowed to have one formal stunt besides the small parties.  $\Pi B \Phi$  had the first one, a breakfast, which was held in the chapter rooms. Missouri  $\Gamma$  pledged eight girls making the number of pledges total ten. They are: Louise Arbuthnot, Katherine Combs, Dorothy Sinclair, Christine Likens, Lucy Lee Ferguson, Mary Francis Young, Orra Louise Anderson, Mary Lee Atkinson, Margaret Carrier, and Vail Smith.

Sorrow was brought to the hearts of all those interested in Drury College by the death of Mr. C. H. Cole, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and Dr. J. H. George. Dr. George was President Emeritus of Drury College and was the father of Marguerite George Hare, alumna of Missouri  $\Gamma$ .

The Drury College Girls Glee Club started its annual trip February 8 with six Pi Phis in the club.

$\Pi B \Phi$  held a formal dance just before Christmas. The room was decorated to represent a north pole scene and approximately two hundred guests were in attendance. On January 9, Missouri  $\Gamma$  entertained the pledges with a cooky-shine in celebration of the tenth birthday of  $\Pi B \Phi$  in Drury College.

Missouri  $\Gamma$  has recently worked out a budget system which takes care of all fraternity expenses. It is hoped that this will cut down the expenses of the individual members.

ETA PROVINCE

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

(Chartered 1895).

Date of Pledge Day—November 16, 1923

INITIATES

(Initiated December 18, 1923).

Margaret Hyde, '27, 444 South 29th St., Lincoln, Nebr.

Winifred Hyde, member of faculty, 317 Lafayette Apts., Lincoln, Nebr.

Nebraska B has been enjoying a very successful year. One of the most pleasing bits of good fortune was Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt's visit to the chapter on December 5. A tea was given for her at the house by the active girls and alumnae. In the evening she spoke to a large audience on the subject of the world court.

The chapter has definitely organized in regard to activities. There are twenty-two freshmen and each has chosen a special activity either with Y. W. C. A., athletic association, social welfare organization or some one of the school publications. Each concentrates upon her own special activity and in this way the chapter is well represented in every branch and the work is organized. The upperclassmen of course are following the same line of activity that they chose last year.

Nebraska B was happy to initiate shortly before Christmas, Winifred Hyde. She is a member of the faculty of the psychology department and possesses unusual ability and influence on the campus, as well as great personal charm. The chapter also pledged Helen Simpson from Casper, Wyo.

The Christmas party to which the alumnae and their children were invited, was a decided success. The freshmen gave a clever variety show and afterwards there was a tree with a gift for each person. The freshmen presented a silver tea service to the house and the chaperon pleasantly surprised everyone with a silver water pitcher.

One of the freshmen has won special glory already. Elsa Kerkow was named as one of the seven best chemistry students in the college, from freshmen to senior classes, and because of her unusually excellent work has been exempted from further examinations and has been given perfect freedom in class attendance and preparation in all chemistry classes.

Ellen Francis Bradshaw took one of the leading parts in the De Molay Variety Show, given by the university students.

Pledge Day—September 20, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated November 19, 1923).

Sara Albright, '27, Leavenworth, Kansas.

Eleanor Hanson, '25, Iola, Kansas.

Martha Jones, '26, Chicago, Ill.

GRADUATES

Charlotte Aiken, A. B., Kansas City, Mo.

Frances Arant, A. B., Birmingham, Ala.

Louise Robison, A. B., Wichita, Kan.

Mrs. Scott's visit of three days in October was one of real help and inspiration to Kansas A, and although her time was filled with many meetings and interviews, she found opportunities to meet and talk with nearly all of the girls individually.

On October 5, Jane Whitney of Wichita was pledged. The freshmen entertained the upperclassmen at a formal dance on November 23; a few weeks later they presented the annual Freshman Farce, entitled Through the Looking-Glass. It was the Freshman's day, and for two hours senior, junior and sophomore watched themselves pass by—as the freshmen see them. A revelation indeed, to most of them.

Kansas A was hostess to about twenty-five members of Missouri A on Thanksgiving day, at the Missouri-Kansas football game.

Instead of the usual Christmas bazaar, it was decided that each girl give a gift in money for the Settlement School. The Christmas dinner on December 19 was a hilarious affair, which revived one's faith in Santa Claus considerably.  $\Pi B \Phi$  ranked 100% in pledging to the annual K. U. Christmas Friendship Fund, which is used for Student Relief work in Europe.

On Mount Orea, the new administration building is completed, and the new library will be finished sometime this year. A Union building will be started on the campus next fall. The money for this building, amounting to $1,000,000 has been raised in the past three years by student pledges. A dormitory for girls has just been completed, and at present about 150 girls are living there. It is planned to build others near it as they are needed in the future. The stadium will also be finished in a year or two. It has been the scene this year of the stirring games which have produced for Kansas the record of an uncrossed goal line for the football season.

The University of Kansas sent forty-one delegates to the International Convention of Student Volunteers, which met in Indianapolis, December 28-31. Eleanor Hanson, a  $\Pi \Phi$ , was one of this number.

Charlotte Aiken, who finishes college in February as a member of  $\Phi B K$  is a member of the Kansas Authors Club, and for the past year has been chancellor of Quill club, a national literary society. Dorothy Blackmar, another senior, has been president of Panhellenic for the past two years. She had one of the leads in a recent dramatic club production, The Devil's Disciple, by G. B. Shaw. Three Pi Phis had principal parts, and several others were in the choruses, of the original musical comedy, Betty Lou, given by the Women's Student Council. Eleanor Hanson, Betty Michel, and Dorothy Blackmar are members of Jay Janes, a newly organized pep society, corresponding to the Ku Ku Klub for the men.

ΠΒΦ ranked second in a recent classification of scholarship in the university, for the year 1922-23. ΑΞΔ, which ranked first, won by a few hundredths of a point.

KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE
(Chartered 1915).

Pledge Day—September 15, 1923.

Kansas B announces the pledging of Nina Mae Howard of Abilene, Kan., and Lauredo Thompson of Manhattan, Kan.

The Settlement School subscription dance was not given on December 17, as had been planned, because of the sudden death of Mrs. H. H. King, a ΠΒΦ mother and patroness.

On December 4, the chapter gave its annual football banquet to the coaches, their wives, and the letter men of the team. Helen Eakin, who has a ΣΑΕ brother and a ΚΣ brother, gave a dance on January 5 for the Pi Phis and the above mentioned fraternities. The freshman party on January 12 was a Leap Year dance. The girls called for the men and everything was done in strict Leap Year fashion.

The visit of the Eta Province President, Mrs. Scott, in October gave Kansas B a new inspiration to improve the chapter standards.

Two members of Kansas B, Elizabeth Bressler and Faith Martin, have been elected to ΦΑΜ honorary general science fraternity. Beulah Helstrom has been offered a fellowship at the Kansas State Agricultural College.

Elizabeth Bressler attended the Student Volunteer Convention at Indianapolis and at a recent chapter meeting reported the minutes of the convention. She also told of the breakfast which all Pi Phis, who were present at this convention, attended.

Kathryn Moore is attending Fairmount College this semester in order to obtain her Bachelor of Arts degree in one more semester.

WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING
(Chartered 1910).

Pledge Day October 18, 1923

INITIATES

(Initiated December 15, 1923).

Eva Anderson, '25, Rawlins, Wyo.

Frances Avent, '25, Burlington, Wyo.

Clarissa Jensen, '26, Laramie, Wyo.

Gertrude Parmalee, Post Graduate, Buffalo, Wyo.

Two very important hopes which the university has been cherishing for some time have finally materialized: the law school has been admitted into The American Association of Law Schools, and, the Federal Petroleum Experiment Station was given to Wyoming, a fact which means much because many other states, especially Oklahoma, were anxious for it. Besides these, an arrangement has been made with Columbia University to carry on its summer school courses at Wyoming.

The debate record for Wyoming last year was 100 per cent. Out of thirteen debates scheduled, all were won. This year, of course, the record must be as good. Two Pi Phis, Lois Haworth and Nancy Jones, are on the team.

The junior class has started work on The Wyo, the university annual and there are seven Pi Phis on the staff.

Of the six members on the Student Loan Committee, four students, (two men and two women) and two faculty, (one man and one woman) the three women are all Pi Phis. Rowena Hasbrouck and Ruth Kimball are the student members and Dr. Grace Raymond Hebard is the faculty member. Clara Kenley, Bernice Appleby, Gertrude Parmalee and Ruth Kimball are on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Esther Konkel, Arletta Wyant, Katheryn Brock and Ruth Kimball are on the Branding Iron staff. There are two members in the dramatic fraternity,  $\Theta A \Phi$ .

The chapter announces the pledging of Helen Haywood and Nola Angle from Sheridan, Wyo.

Wyoming A is grieved over the death of one of her alumnae, Sidney George Lehardt. Mrs. Lehardt, whose home was in Laramie, was the alumna member in Panhellenic and took a very active interest in all fraternity matters.

The local alumnae club gave its annual Christmas dance during the holidays for the benefit of the Settlement School. The active chapter and the alumnae have each agreed to raise $500 toward payment on the house for this year.

COLORADO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

(Chartered 1884)

Pledge Day—September 23, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated January 26, 1924).

Ruth Bohn, '27, Longmont, Colo.

Harriet Chapman, '27, 32 Carlisle Place, Pueblo, Colo.

Joy Belle Corbin, '27, Sterling, Colo.

Jane Cottrell, '27, 1484 Cook St., Denver, Colo.

Marian Dellzell, '27, 2065 Ash St., Denver, Colo.

Ella Johnson, '27, 1219 Steele St., Denver, Colo.

Frances Pattee, '27, 509 W. 16th St., Pueblo, Colo.

Mary Rose, '27, 517 W. 24th St., Pueblo, Colo.

Helen Taylor, '27, 2304 Albion St., Denver, Colo.

Final examinations for the autumn quarter resulted in an improved scholarship record for the chapter, and  $\Pi B \Phi$  has established a precedent among other organizations on the campus by being able to initiate all pledges.

In activities as well, the coming quarter looks most promising for  $\Pi \Phi$ . Besides other offices held since September, Mary Larrick was sent by the University of Colorado to the Student Volunteer Convention in Indianapolis; Elizabeth Kohler has been appointed on the committee in charge of festivities for senior week; Isabelle Keating is a member of the Silver and Gold staff. Seven Pi Phis won places on the hockey teams, thereby gaining membership in W. A. A.

Before Christmas the annual bazaar for the benefit of the Settlement School and of the furniture fund was held. At the Christmas-tree party, the active chapter was delightfully surprised by a gift of two silver water-pitchers from the pledges, and by twenty-five dollars from the Boulder alumnae club. In order to raise more money for the furniture fund Colorado A agreed to give up the winter quarter dance and devote that money to the fund.

Louise Frantz of Denver has been pledged.

Social activities for the next quarter will include a faculty tea, weekly dinners for the alumnae and their husbands, and Sunday night suppers.

$\Pi B \Phi$  also extends a cordial welcome to  $A \Phi$  which has granted a charter to a local group, the Zeda Club, and the ninth national women's fraternity.

The University of Colorado is fast becoming a cultural centre through the efforts of the Senate committee which has succeeded in bringing to Macky auditorium a number of well-known artists and fine theatrical productions, including Josef Hoffman, and the Book of Job. The emphasis placed upon Little Theater work and upon art exhibitions in the library is also leading to this goal.

LUCILLE JOHNSTON.

COLORADO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

(Chartered 1885)

Pledge Day—September 17, 1923.

Colorado B awaits the announcement of scholarship records with abated breath this semester since after losing first place to  $K \Sigma$  last year by 1-10th of a point, she has set her new goal as the first place this year for sure.

Purloining a clever idea from the local chapter of  $B \Theta \Pi$ , the girls have inaugurated a successful way of crediting and encouraging campus activities. On a chart with each campus activity to which girls are eligible are the names of Pi Phis who are members and the offices which they hold. In addition, there is a fascinating scrap book filled with interesting facts about interesting people in the form of newspaper clippings concerning Pi Phis, and other  $\Pi B \Phi$  souvenirs. Needless to say the freshmen have their ambitions set on prominent places in both records.

The bungalow, newly decorated and furnished (the last payment for which was made only this month) has been the scene of parties and teas for each organization on the campus. Colorado B feels that she owes this much to help foster more democratic ideals in the university.

Mrs. Scott, Eta Province President, visited here in January and although the girls were sorry to have her leave, they were glad to know that she lived near enough to be invited back often.

Marceline Davis, Denver, has been pledged recently.

Two Pi Phis are on the faculty of Denver U., Ruth Powell in the romance language department and Aurelia Trauger in the public speaking department.

Colorado B has had the pleasure of entertaining three visiting Pi Phis: Lucille and Gwyneth Knee who were with the Stuart Walker production of The Book of Job; and Eve Kohl who is playing in The Fool.

THETA PROVINCE

OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

(Chartered 1910).

Pledge Day—January 28, 1924.

INITIATES

(Initiated November 12, 1923).

Lucile Shelton, '24, Tulsa, Okla.

Eleanor Jordan, '25, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mary Elizabeth Hill, '25, Tulsa, Okla.

Plans for Oklahoma A's new home are gradually beginning to materialize and a meeting of alumnae from out in the state is to be held to decide on the financial plan.

In behalf of improved scholarship, the pledges are required to attend three hours at daily study hall, and any upper-classman whose grades average below B is also required to report there.

Seven Pi Phis have become members of the newly organized Social Problems club. Clara Waltrip was initiated into  $\Phi M \Gamma$ , honorary dramatic fraternity. Mary Elizabeth Hill passed the examination for the Red Cross Life Saving Certificate. Elizabeth Cansler and Mary Cromwell are members of Duck Club.

Pledge Day—September 13, 1923.

INITIATES

(Initiated December 18, 1923).

Sally Beeler Jones, ex-'26, Stillwater, Okla.

Anna Belle Pratt, '26, Enid, Okla.

Elizabeth Boyd, '25, Stillwater, Okla.

Pauline Dark, '27, Stillwater, Okla.

Ella Margaret Merry, '27, Perry, Okla.

Leah Schedler, '27, Stillwater, Okla.

Donna Smith, '27, Stillwater, Okla.

Thus far  $\Pi\Phi$  is in possession of the scholarship cup. The highest average in the chapter was made by Ruth Jones.

Mildred Austin has been selected to play the leading role in The Charm School to be produced this quarter by the Dramatic Club. Elizabeth Boyd, Mary Watson, and Holleen Thomson are also cast in minor roles. Out of twenty contestants for places in the Beauty Section of The Redskin, judged by no less a critic than David Ward Griffith,  $\Pi\Phi$  won first and second places, there being six selections. Katharine Wolgamot was rated the most beautiful co-ed at Oklahoma A. & M. and Elizabeth Boyd was second choice. Madelaine Bradley and Mildred Maroney have been elected associate members of the Press Club, a men's journalistic society organized to petition an honorary journalistic fraternity.

Juanita Bass, Theta Province President, visited the chapter in November. Gladys Holt dropped school at the end of the fall quarter, while Mildred Austin returned to resume her work at that time.

The annual Christmas formal came on December 20, two days after initiation, and immediately preceding the holidays. Special guests were representatives, rushees, and stray Greeks. An exciting event of the same day was the marriage of Jurhee Robberson, to Philip H. Lowery,  $\Sigma X$ .

Marcella Dewell, Iowa  $\Gamma$ , has accepted a position here in the Department of Household Administration beginning February 1.

MILDRED MARONEY.

ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Pledge Day—January 7, 1924.

Arkansas A pledges gave a delightful Christmas surprise by having new draperies, bridge lamp, and light fixtures in the house when the girls returned from the holidays. Just before Christmas, the initiates and pledges gave a house shower.

The girls enjoyed the visit of Juanita Bass, Province President, and are trying to follow her helpful suggestions concerning the house and the buying of a lot.

Four more girls have been pledged; Mrs. Carey Croneis (Grayce Williams), wife of one of the geology professors and a member of  $\Phi\Delta\Theta$  and  $\Phi\beta\kappa$ ; Ruth Greer, Ozark; Lena Black, Bentonville; and Elizabeth Paisley, Fayetteville, Ark.

Last quarter the chapter adopted the plan of having the presidents of other women's fraternities give short talks to the pledges about their fraternities. This has proved to be very interesting as well as instructive. Another step toward closer interfraternity spirit and cooperation is a system of exchanging dinner guests among the women's fraternities.

W. A. A. has recently been established here and  $\Pi\beta\Phi$  is well represented. The girls are practicing for the inter-fraternity basketball games now.

A Leap Year dance, given by the Woman's Panhellenic Association on January 10, was lots of fun. Over half the girls went as stags while the others gave bids to boys of their choice. These Leap Year dances have been a matter of tradition in the University for a number of years.

Margaret Earle, Marion Bossmeyer, and Elizabeth Paisley went to the International Student Volunteer's convention in Indianapolis. On tag day  $\Pi\beta\Phi$  sold Salvation Army tags in competition with other women's fraternities. Both the individual and chapter cups offered were won by  $\Pi\beta\Phi$ , Virginia Owenbey winning the individual cup.

Marian Goode, '26, San Antonio, Tex.

Frances Higginbotham, '25, Dallas, Tex.

Elva Killingsworth, '25, Wichita Falls, Tex.

Maidee Williams, '25, Comanche, Tex.

Jeanette Young, '26, Fort Worth, Tex.

Texas A received before Christmas a visit from Juanita Bass, Theta Province President.

Since  $\Pi\beta\Phi$  has won the Panhellenic Scholarship cup for three consecutive years they now hold this cup permanently. At a tea given by the Panhellenic Association, Texas A was formally presented with the silver cup and a gift of fifty dollars.

For the benefit of Little Pigeon, the alumnae of Austin give annually a bridge party. The active members took twelve tables and were thus partly responsible for its financial and social success.

At Hallowe'en time the pledges sent out mysterious invitations to all the members of the fraternity requesting their presence before the Grand Assembly of Ghastly Ghosts, which turned out to be a bridge party with interesting Hallowe'en features.

Claire Tatum, '26, Dallas, Tex.

Pledge day at Southern Methodist University was October 6 when  $\Pi\Phi$  pledged thirteen attractive girls who are: Huldah Harrison, Margaret Broadstreet, Ruth Murray, Mary Frances Flannery, Martha Mildred Harrall, Kate McCullough, Jewell Waggoner, Dorothy Ramsey, Alta Stokes, Lucille Womack, Dorothy Sturgiss, Mary Burbank, and Margaret Deavours.

Beginning this year, the Dallas alumnae of  $\Pi B\Phi$  are offering a scholarship cup to the woman's fraternity making the highest average in the university. Texas B is working hard to win it.

Panhellenic has voted to make Powder and Patches an annual event. It is a vaudeville in which each fraternity is responsible for one stunt. The proceeds of this will go for some improvement of the university.

Miss Juanita Bass, Theta Province President, visited the chapter last semester and her kindly suggestions have done much towards making chapter and college life happier and more satisfying.

BESS TANKERSLEY.

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE
(Chartered 1891).

Pledge Day—Undetermined.

Louisiana A gave a rushing party a few weeks before Christmas when the entire chapter dressed as pirates and made the rushees walk a realistic gang-plank before they entered a house which was so ship-like and piratical that some of them were actually looking for port-holes so that they could look out and see the great stormy sea. Besides this party, one was given to the little children at the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. There was a real Santa Claus who gave stockings stuffed full of goodies to every little child and there were baseballs and bats for the little boys and dolls for the girls. Ice-cream and cake finished off a blissfully happy evening for all who had come. Then Louisiana A gave a party to the active members with a Christmas tree, and every member got a little gift, usually with a clever verse written on the card of greeting.

During the fall, Perrine Dixon, who besides being one of the most active members of the chapter, is student-body president of Newcomb, attended the conference of the Woman's Intercollegiate Association of Student Government held at Oberlin College. Ernestine Bass was elected as one of the delegates from Newcomb to the Student Volunteer Convention at Indianapolis.

Theta Province President, Juanita Bass, came to inspect the chapter, and since she was very recently one of the actives, every member was deeply inspired by her talk.

The Jennie C. Nixon debate was held January 11, the subject being the same as for the Intercollegiate debates, the International Court of Justice. One of the members of Louisiana A was on the team. In the Intercollegiate Preliminaries, Ula Miller won for the third successive year the George prize of twenty-five dollars, as the best debater.

There have been many engagements announced in the chapter, and since it is the custom for any prospective  $\Pi\Phi$  husband to send to the chapter five pounds of candy, Louisiana A has developed a sweet tooth. In round numbers, there have been thirty pounds sent since last September, a pound for each girl.

IOTA PROVINCE

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO
(Chartered 1923).

Pledge Day—February 10, 1924.

INITIATES

(Initiated November 24, 1923).

Lois Crane, '27, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

The question of the point system for the winning of athletic sweaters by women of the Women's Athletic Association is of special interest at this time. It is to be voted upon at the next associated student body meeting. W. A. A. has been working since it was organized, for the acceptance of a plan whereby women may win sweaters for taking part in athletics, and the result of this vote means much to Idaho girls.

The university has been very fortunate in having such fine members for the Artists Course this year as Sousa's Band, the Ukrainian National Chorus, and Stuart Walker's Portmanteau Theater. Coming with the latter are two members of  $\Pi B \Phi$ , Lucile Knee and Gwyneth Knee.

The  $K K \Gamma$  and  $X B E$  houses have been completed. The two groups moved into their new homes immediately after the holidays and intend to give house-warmings soon.

An honorary musical organization has been formed which will petition  $\Sigma A I$ . Florence Selby and Lois Crane are members of the new society.

Idaho A has pledged Marie Johnson, St. Maries, Idaho, and Margaret Kinyon, Boise, Idaho.

A bridge tea was given for the patronesses, at which they were presented with patroness pins. Just before the holidays the chapter gave the annual Christmas party.

In the musical comedy Granny, given by the Pep Band, the title role was played by Florence Selby. She also played the lead in the musical comedy Sweethearts. Bessie Savage has a place on the women's debate team and will participate in inter-collegiate debate. Helen Ramsey, Marie Johnson and Eva Jane Wilson are members of the Varsity Players.

CECILIA LEMMERS.

MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE

(Chartered September 30, 1921).

Pledge Day—October 6, 1923.

The new year has started with much encouragement and a few drawbacks for Montana A. Montana State College, at the beginning of last quarter advanced its scholarship and is now suspending students at the end of the quarter without probation. Regardless of this however, five freshmen were initiated in February and  $\Pi B \Phi$  won second place in scholarship for last quarter.

Two seniors are eligible to membership in  $\Phi K \Phi$ , two of the active chapter will be initiated into Tormentors at the end of this quarter; and one has been appointed as reporter on the Weekly Exponent.

$\Theta A \Phi$ , national dramatic society, was installed here last spring. They presented the play Pommander Walk on January 24 when two Pi Phis had parts.

Y. W. C. A. Stunt Night was held December 7 and Pi Phi won second place with a stunt entitled The Stubs of My Check Book. The Leap Year formal was given January 11.

Montana Alpha announces the pledging of Maude McNett of Stevensville, Mont.

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

(Chartered January 1907).

Pledge Day—October 13, 1923.

A high percentage of the pledges were successful in making an average of eighty-six or above, the requirement for initiation. The freshmen have all been very active this year on the campus, especially in dramatics. Ruth Hecht took the lead in the all university play He Who Gets Slapped; Adele Walker has the lead in the winter play To the Ladies, and Bess Chambers has one of the major parts. Two other pledges, Ruth Quigley and Dorothee Scarbrough were pledged into Athena debate club. Marian Pearce is chairman of the decoration committee of the Y. W. C. A.

The Tacoma alumnae club gave the chapter a check for one hundred dollars for Christmas, the Yakima club an attractive vase, and the Seattle alumnae club is having a shower at the chapter house January 19.

A beautiful new library has been started which will complete a quadrangle of new buildings of Gothic architecture. The college of Forestry is fortunate in having a bequest of $250,000 left by a prominent lumberman in the state.

Instead of building a new house as was formerly planned, the present chapter house was bought and  $\Pi B \Phi$  building association is making plans for remodeling it in the near future.

DOROTHA WIEGEL.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

(Chartered 1912).

Pledge Day—February 6, 1924.

Washington College social and campus activities have been very limited on account of a scarlet fever ban which lasted from Thanksgiving until Christmas. The annual Christmas party and winter informal were given, however, and those living in Spokane attended a tea given by the alumnae there during the holidays.

$\Pi B \Phi$  act was chosen as one of eight out of twenty for the College Revue, January 25, which is for financial aid for Women's League and which is becoming an annual affair.

Helen Campbell was awarded a scholarship by Mortar Board. This is given every year to the Junior girl most deserving in scholarship, service, and personality. One of the Washington B members received this last year. Helen was also recently elected to attend the National Student Assembly at New York representing the Northwest Finance Committee of the Y. W. C. A. and will leave for the east some time in April. Leila May DeMers received the O N scholarship granted to the girl most worthy of merit in the Home Economics Department. Alice Prindle was recently pledged to  $M \Phi E$ .

MARJORIE FREAKES.

OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

(Chartered October 29, 1915).

Pledge Day—January 3, 1924.

INITIATES

(Initiated October 29, 1923).

Ruth Holmes, '26, Medford, Ore.

Winter rushing ended for Oregon A with four more girls accepting the wine and blue, Margaret Anderson, Anna Springer, and Jean Robinson of Portland, and Vera Dunham of Prineville. Mary Campbell, Oregon City, is another recent pledge.

The chapter was glad to welcome Mildred Smith back this term. Mildred has been out of school for a year and a half.

The first social event of the term after pledging was the formal reception and house warming honoring Mrs. Henry Davis and Ethel Gaylord whose efforts made the new home possible. Cards were issued for January 12, afternoon and evening. Several hundred town and university folks called during the hours to survey the furnace, comment on the sleeping porch and gasp over the temperamental Chinese red and apple green dressers and study tables.

Fall term saw the first wedding in the new house, Delight Verdinus to Edward Koler.

Eight high school girls were guests of  $\Pi\Phi$  during the conference of student-body presidents, secretaries and editors. The university sponsors this conference each year, partly to help the officers with their own problems, but largely to interest them in higher education and to familiarize them with university life.

This year is one of feverish building activity among fraternities at Oregon.  $B\Phi\Pi$  has just completed a splendid new home on the Mill Race, and  $\Sigma N$  and  $A\Phi$  are not far behind with houses under construction. Several other fraternities plan to start work as soon as the winter rains are over. Pride at Oregon runs high this year over the fact that an Oregon student has again won the Rhodes Scholarship.

MARGARET CARTER.

OREGON BETA—OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

(Chartered 1917).

Pledge Day—January 8, 1924.

(Initiated December 20, 1923).

Helen Daus, '25, Portland, Ore.

Helen Randall, '25, Santa Ana, Calif.

A new Panhellenic rule making rushing an open affair without any rules whatsoever, developed an unusually interesting week. The two new pledges are Thelma Cole, Klamath Falls, Ore., and Maude Dawley, Olympia, Wash. Jean McClue who was not able to return this fall on account of illness, is again registered in college.

The annual Christmas party was the outstanding social event of last term. The Portland Mother's club is a new organization for which the Portland girls entertained during the Christmas holidays. The Mother's club is organized that they may become better acquainted, and they plan to conduct a paper drive to raise money for the chapter.

The Woman's Stunt show in which Oregon B participates this year is under way; the junior prom, the sophomore cotillon and many Leap Year functions take place this term. The all-college exposition in which the schools of the college will hold exhibitions, shows and displays is a new feature that is expected to be of state-wide interest.

Among the honors won by Oregon B are the election of Ann McPherson to O N, national home economics fraternity and Rosalia Daus to  $\Phi\Theta K$ , national commerce fraternity. Irma Scritsmier won the scholarship cup awarded by Helen Synder to the girl receiving the highest grade in the chapter.

KAPPA PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA ALPHA—LELAND STANFORD UNIVERSITY

(Chartered September 13, 1893)

Pledge Day—May (date uncertain)

INITIATES

(Initiated January 9, 1924).

Virginia Doyle, '26, Fresno, Calif.

The first quarter, ending just before Christmas, was very successful in every way. The only rushing affair was a large tea at which one hundred and fifty guests were received. The faculty members were honored at a second tea and representatives from other women's groups were entertained at an informal Christmas dance.

The two new halls for men are soon to be occupied, Branner Hall and Toyon Hall. Both follow the Spanish architecture of the other buildings and are very beautiful. Owing to these additional housing facilities the men are now enabled to follow the same year-rushing plans as the women. Both rulings provide for informal rushing during two quarters, with pledging in May.

Probably the most gratifying result of last quarter's work was the improvement in scholarship. Strict study rules were imposed on all girls who had failed to maintain the house requirement of 1.77 last quarter, which brought the standing up to 42 percent this time.

Kappa Province President, Mrs. Young, paid the chapter a delightful visit in November.

The chapter is represented in various activities. W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., Quad work and dramatics claim the most attention. Daphne Hodgson and Cecile Feusier were on the class hockey team and Cecile made the All-Star team. Foresta Hodgson, California A faculty member, is teaching dancing in addition to carrying her regular work. She is in charge of the Women's Pageant to be given this spring.

California B finished the first term with flying colors, winning first place in scholarship. Eleanor Coburn, Sylva Seymour and Leora Sims were awarded  $\Pi B \Phi$  recognition pins for their high scholastic standing.

The new term opened January 14, and on January 23 Margaret Hahman, Frances Watson and Norma Wyble were pledged.

Elizabeth Wheat, B. L.

The chapter is very much grieved over the death of Mrs. Charles E. Carver, former president of the Advisory Board. She was instrumental in gaining this charter and has been president of the board since the founding of the chapter. The development of the chapter is due more to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Carver than to any other single person, and there was an increasingly close bond between her and the active chapter.

Barbara Miller has been attending Wisconsin University this fall, but will attend here this semester. Ethel Huff is also enrolled there. Ethel Wild, Nebraska B, Betty Romel, Wisconsin A, Nell Wilson, California B and Helen Dosh, Iowa B have been invited to affiliate.

The bazaar was very successful and about eight hundred dollars will go to the house and Settlement School. The booths carried out the spirit of Christmas, being decorated with red and green crepe paper and tinsel. The pledges had charge of the candy booth and helped serve in the tea room. There was dancing until twelve in the evening and then the girls served waffles and coffee. A variety of things were raffled off between dances, among which were five pound boxes of candy, cocoanut heads from Hawaii, and bead bags.

The chapter president, Dorothy Haldeman, is sailing for Europe April 12, and will not return until the fall semester. Gene Hale, one of the pledges, is leaving for Europe some time in June.

The girls are trying in every way to stimulate high scholarship. Study hour every school day from seven-thirty to nine-thirty has been established, and is being strictly observed.

The Panhellenic dance was given January 19. One dollar a couple admission was charged and the money went into a permanent scholarship fund.

Katherine Hopbaugh, '24, 1176 E. So. Temple St., Salt Lake City.

Arizona A was fortunate in having Mrs. Young, Kappa Province President, for a four-day visit early in December. During Mrs. Young's visit, the chapter had a cooky-shine, and with the alumnae, gave a tea in her honor to which representatives from Panhellenic and all  $\Pi\Phi$  mothers who lived in Tucson were invited.

The university polo team has just returned from San Antonio, where it won the Inter-collegiate Polo Tournament, defeating Colorado, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico. It is hoped that a game may be arranged for the team with the eastern college champions in polo for the United States championship.

At the annual Christmas party, the pledges provided refreshments, and added to the gaiety of the evening by staging an impromptu circus.

The women students of the university are preparing for the Western Conference of University women, to be held here early in the spring. To raise money for the conference, the women gave a large carnival in December. Emogene Mercer was chairman of the carnival committee. Every women's organization had charge of some concession and Panhellenic had charge of fortunes during the evening.

KATHERINE HOPPAUGH.

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

(Chartered 1915).

Pledge Day—February 9, 1924).

Several important changes have been made this year at the University of Nevada. In order to divide the college year evenly, the first semester has been extended until the middle of January, and Commencement will not take place until June. The most revolutionary change, however, is the elimination of all final examinations by a vote of the faculty. It is felt that the new plan will be far more satisfactory, as it will make daily work the basis for term grades rather than last minute "cramming."

Nevada A is well represented in campus activities. Luethel Austin was the leading lady of the Campus Players' production The Irresistible Marmaduke, and Jane O'Sullivan also had an important part. Nevada Semenza is editor of the Desert Wolf, the new college magazine, while Ethel Lunsford, Jane O'Sullivan, Marie Grubnau, and Alice Norcross are contributing to its success by their work on the staff. Jane's poetry has attracted much favorable comment and her Desert Dusk, which appeared in the first issue, was selected as the contribution possessing the greatest literary value. Alice Norcross, Eleanor Siebert, and Marjorie Roach are working on the staff of the Sagebrush, the weekly paper.

Several of the girls are trying out for places on the rifle team, while others are out for basketball. Hiking will be taken up as an organized sport under W. A. A. in the spring, as well as track, baseball, and tennis.

ΔΔΔ has recently purchased a very attractive house, being the first women's fraternity at the university to take such a step. A very interesting plan has been submitted to the fraternities for the establishment of a Fraternity Center. Land adjoining the campus has been offered for sale to the organizations and the suggestion made that the houses should be built around a central court. The plan has great advantages in the economy of construction and also of house-management, and Nevada A is very much interested.

The pledges entertained the active members and alumnae with a stunt party before Christmas, when they presented the Arrow Ad Review. Original songs and verses provided the guests with much amusement. Not long after, the chapter gave a Dumbell dance with the pledges as guests of honor. Representatives of the other women's fraternities were invited.

During November, Nevada A enjoyed a most interesting and helpful visit from Mrs. Young, Kappa Province President. She was the guest of honor at a tea at the chapter house to which all women students of the university were invited.

"COLLEGE FRATERNITIES" MAKES APPEARANCE

College Fraternities, the book prepared under the auspices of the extension committee of the Interfraternity Conference in order to help correct misconceptions of many persons concerning fraternities, is now ready for distribution. The volume represents the fifth revision of the work and one-fifth the volume of material available. "We believe," the committee says, "that this book will demonstrate a great need, if not the vital necessity of such a publication, and that it will serve a very useful purpose in the plan of the Interfraternity Conference correctly to inform the public of the general facts about fraternities." The book which is an attractive volume of 250 pages, should be on the shelf of all Zetas. Its price is $2.

MRS. CALVIN COOLIDGE

With Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, as the wife of the new President of the United States, the women's fraternities have their first representative in the White House, although Mrs. Grover Cleveland, a graduate of Wells College, was the first college woman to live there. Mrs. Coolidge, who is a graduate of the University of Vermont, is a member of the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity.

Another distinguished member of Pi Beta Phi, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, was greeted by a number of her fraternity sisters at the welcoming luncheon given by the League of Women Voters last June at the Biltmore. The fraternity women filled two tables in the throng of 1,200 guests who gathered to do Mrs. Catt honor after her trip around the world.—Alpha Phi Quarterly.

The Crescent of Gamma Pi Beta says:

Although Mrs. Calvin Coolidge is the first sorority woman to occupy the position of "First Lady of the Land," the first representative of the women's Greek-letter organizations to enter the White House were Margaret Wilson and Jessie Wilson Sayre, daughters of Ex-President Woodrow Wilson, who were initiated into Zeta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta at Goucher College. Margaret Axon Elliott, sister of the first Mrs. Wilson was also a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

CHAPTER LETTERS

That hardy institution known as the "Chapter Letter," which for so many years has been one of the main features of every fraternity magazine, has recently fallen from its high estate in several of the more radical and progressive publications. The Signet of Phi Sigma Kappa has abandoned it entirely. The Phi Delta Theta Scroll includes in it only two out of its five issues of the year. If the rest follow suit, the traditional chapter letter will become a thing of the past.

This rather drastic action appears to result from the opinion that these letters, however well written they may be, are of interest only to the members of the individual chapters and not to the fraternity at large. This is especially true of organizations numbering forty or fifty chapters. The abolition of these letters means great conservation of space as well as energy to the fraternities involved. It will be interesting to note what effect this movement will have upon the more conservative element.—Garnet and White of Alpha Chi Rho.

LITTLE EUGENE

The combination of a flivver and a young man crazed with hootch resulted one day last September in little Eugene Journes, two and a half years old, landing in the Middlesex General Hospital, New Brunswick, N. J. In a plaster cast up to his waist, Eugene can't even sit up. He may never walk. At best he will always be a cripple.

The Rutgers Chapter of Delta Upsilon is playing daddy to Eugene. One or another man from the chapter visits the youngster daily and every now and then one carries him a toy or other form of wealth or joy.

Besides winning him an organized gang of friends, Eugene's calamity and the Delta U. way of dealing with it has made him and the Chapter famous. The little story has been chronicled by newspapers for hundreds of miles around.—The Delta Upsilon Quarterly—Garnet and White.

Chicago, January 19—Mrs. A. Montgomery Ward of Chicago, who a month ago announced a gift of $3,000,000 to Northwestern university, on Saturday night at a banquet given by the university in her honor, announced her intention of adding $1,000,000 to the donation.

All the money will be used for the construction of a medical-dental center as a memorial to her husband, former head of the mail order house bearing his name. The first gift was for a building and Mrs. Ward explained Saturday night that she believed the gift of the building alone might place an undue burden on the university and so gave the additional sum for endowment, the income to be used for promoting medical science.

CHRISTMAS SONG

At the University of Idaho a cherished tradition is the Campus Christmas tree. This is a beautiful evergreen tree occupying a central position on the campus, which is used as a Christmas tree. It is brilliantly illuminated with red and green candles, surmounted by a huge star at the very top. Christmas carols are sung beneath it by the students every night of the week preceding the holidays. The night before the students left for their homes last Christmas they sang their Christmas message as they went from the campus through the town. The carols, sung by a selected group of singers were broadcasted from the radio station. Messages were later received from Montana, California, and Chicago expressing appreciation of the lovely greeting from Idaho students. Similar services are held every Christmas week—Kappa Alpha Theta.

The total enrollment of resident students in Columbia University during the academic year officially reported in January by Registrar Edward J. Grant was 30,619. The previous year's aggregate was 29,420 and that of ten years ago 12,422. English is studied by a greater number of students than any other subject.

10,000 FOREIGN MISSIONARIES

Indianapolis, Ind.—More than 10,000 graduates of American colleges have taken up work in the foreign mission fields through the Student Volunteer Movement since its organization thirty-two years ago, a historical summary of the movement presented today at the second session of the Ninth International Conference revealed.

The paper recalls the humble beginning of the movement in the late eighties at Princeton University, where informal gatherings of a small group of students interested in missionary work were held at irregular intervals "to study conditions in non-Christian countries."

Today more than 7,000 delegates, representing approximately 1,000 universities in every State in the Union are registered at convention headquarters here.

The influence of the movement has been felt in China which has drawn over 3,000 of the student workers: Japan, Korea, India, Africa, South America, Mexico, Persia, Siam, the Straits Settlements, Central America and Arabia. More than 2,100 of the total assignments have been made since 1920, indicating, according to the report a growing tendency among students to devote their lives to Christian service abroad.

An outline of the student movement in Great Britain presented today by Canon E. S. Woods, vicar of Holy Trinity Church, Cambridge, ascribed to the activity major credit for recent administrative reforms in the Church of England. Approximately 16,000 students in 200 institutions comprise the membership of the organization in Great Britain and Ireland.—New York Times.

SOUL'S TEMPLE

Our body is a temple in which dwells an immortal soul. In the building of this temple, reason should be the architect, the will, the builder. The work continues through life. There is no noise nor sound of the hammer heard in this building. Thus is built the true, though mystical, temple of Solomon, the veil of the inner mystery of which shall be rent in twain at the hour of death. Like the airy sprites in fairy tales who rear the building through the night, unseen in the process, but clear and distinct in the morning's completeness, so years and hours and moments are silently rearing in the world's darkness a soul's structure whose proportion the sunlight of eternity shall reveal.—Social Progress.

THE ALUMNAE

I like to think of the alumnae as a setting of which the active chapter is the background—a fine harmonious setting, stable and conservative, by which the values, tones, shades and standards of the chapter are measured. It is a traditional alumnae anchor of precedents and experiences for the counsel and helpful service of the younger and new. And the compromise or blending of these two influences, the conservatism and traditions of the alumnae with the eagerness and resourcefulness of the actives marks the process of the growth and enfoldment of Gamma Phi Beta.—Chapter Letter from University of Missouri.

FLAG RAISING

For the sake of preventing a similar occurrence in a Delta Chi chapter, we are compelled to admit, not without shame, that when the month of February brought with it the birthdays of our Country's two most revered statesmen and patriots, Washington and Lincoln, we were without an American Flag with which to honor their memory. Needless to state, this condition was speedily and summarily rectified and there was a flag raising at one o'clock in the morning.

AIM OF THE HOME MAKER

Juliet Lita Bane, Omicron, 1912. Assistant Professor of Home Economics and State Leader of Home Economics Extension, University of Illinois. Lita Bane is widely known throughout Illinois and the state universities of the United States for her ability and success in dealing with rural home problems. Of particular interest to CRESCENT readers is her well-known "Aim of the Home Maker" which follows:

To have every home:

Economically sound,
 Mechanically convenient,
 Physically healthful,
 Morally wholesome,
 Mentally stimulating,
 Artistically satisfying,
 Socially responsible,
 Spiritually inspiring,

FRATERNITY AND BROTHERHOOD

By James DeForest Murch, Beta '15.

Fraternities have done more to encourage the fine art of brotherhood than any other human institution.

The fine fraternal idealism of the American college fraternity has been a sound foundation for American life—industrially, governmentally and socially.

But—Brotherhood is in danger in its own household. I am not an alarmist, but I am not blind to things as they are. Occasionally I drop into a fraternity house, I am met by some very cordial men who glow the spirit of true brotherhood and cause me to be everlastingly grateful to the fellow who invented fraternities, but I have noticed some poor chaps and their number seems to be on the increase, in whom the spirit does not flame. Brotherhood to them has become only the dry husk of "the frat."

Than successfully negotiating a "prep" institution—

Than mouthing an impressive ritual—

Than decorating a vest with a jeweled pin—

Than abiding strictly by the rules of the "Grand and Exalted Wood"—

Than teaming with a bunch of good fellows who know the same password, wear the same cuts and use "stacomb"—

True Brotherhood involves certain fundamental principles without which the American college fraternity has no right to exist.

TAGORE STARTS UNIVERSITY

Sir Rabindranath Tagore, Indian philosopher and poet, back from Europe, has established at Shantiniketan, in the province of Bengal, a university which promises to become one of the leading centers of culture. The name of the institution is Visvabharati Parishat, and among its objects are to bring together the various scattered cultures of the east and provide for the exchange of knowledge between the east and the west. Tagore is president, to hold office for life or until retirement. The university has the support of a large body of educated Indians.

Mr. Keppel is a member of Psi Upsilon, Columbia Chapter.

COLLEGE SONGS

Mr. Deems Taylor, music critic of The New York World, bemoans the lack of an ideal American college song book. "We are beginning to believe," he writes, "that when it does appear it will represent no one college or university for the simple reason that no one American college or university seems to have been able to inspire enough good songs about itself to make a respectable sized volume." A good many colleges annually produce musical shows, yet the music composed for these occasions, patterned after popular songs of the day, die within the college year. They haven't that "lasting college flavor" which makes a song truly representative of its school spirit.

I WOULD BE TRUE

I would be true for there are those who trust me;
 I would be pure for there are those who care;
 I would be strong for there is much to suffer;
 I would be brave for there is much to dare.
 I would be friend of all—the foe, the friendless;
 I would be giving and forget the gift;
 I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
 I would look up, and laugh and lift.

PORTRAIT OF MRS. COOLIDGE

In the White House hangs a portrait of each First Lady of the Land, the gift of individuals or organizations. Pi Beta Phi has the signal honor of having in Grace Goodhue Coolidge, Vermont Beta, the present First Lady and the first to be a member of a national college fraternity, and it is to be its privilege to present to the White House the Howard Chandler Christy portrait of its present gracious and beloved mistress. The Grand Council feels certain that every Pi Beta Phi will want to have a part in this tangible expression of the fraternity's pride in and affection for Mrs. Coolidge who has ever been a most loyal and actively interested member. Information concerning the plan of purchase will be sent to chapters and clubs, but full details may be obtained by writing directly to the Grand Vice-President, the Province Presidents or the Province Vice-Presidents, who make up the Committee on Arrangements. These officers, whose names appear in each issue of the ARROW, are volunteer treasurers for this project. The committee is planning for a fitting presentation ceremony at the White House on April 11, when Mrs. Coolidge receives all of those attending the Eastern Conference. This will give an unusual number of Pi Phis an opportunity to attend the presentation.
