ANNOUNCEMENTS

ALL APPLICATIONS for the Pi Beta Phi Fellowship should be sent to Amy B. Onken, Grand President, Chapin, Ill., before January 1.

MRS. FREDERIC H. BASS (Lillian Leggett, Minnesota A), 615 Sixth Ave., S.E., Minneapolis, Minn., has been appointed Epsilon Province Vice President.

ALUMNAE CLUB model constitutions may be purchased from the Record and Supply Office for 50c.

ALUMNAE CLUB SECRETARIES! Please send in December list of all members in your city, to the Cataloguer, Mrs. R. D. Brown, 60 Woodrow St., West Hartford, Conn., giving the following information: Married Name, Maiden name, permanent address, chapter. Every list helps locate many Pi Phis. Please send the list early and by January 1, at the latest.

ALUMNAE! Data for a vocational survey is being collected by YOUR CHAPTER. If a request for information has not reached you, please send to your active chapter secretary (see ARROW Directory in this issue),—your name, degree, and vocation, with your permanent address.

THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY, 476 Fifth Ave., New York City, would like to complete its ARROW file with the following missing numbers: Vol. 2, No. 3, 4; Vol. 3, No. 4; Vol. 5, No. 4; Vol. 8, No. 4; and Vol. 11, Nos. 2 to 4. It will be appreciated if anyone having these issues will send them to the library.

MRS. G. A. MILLER, Assistant to the Grand Vice President, has changed her address to: 4660 Washington Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

WE ARE HAPPY to announce that all Pi Beta Phis living in Miami came through the recent hurricane alive. Many of them, however, lost their homes and possessions.

OUR FOUNDERS*

They chose the rich deep red of wine carnations,
A fitting symbol of their mutual love,
And twined with it the silver blue of vision
Far reaching as the endless blue above.
This cord they stretched upon a bow of friendship,
Strengthened by hope and braced with high ideals;
They shot from it a tiny golden arrow,
The slender strength of which each Pi Phi feels.
Let's give a hearty toast to Pi Phi founders!
Who sped upon its way our shining dart;
Who pass along to us their cherished visions,
With all the joy and zeal which they impart.

POST-CONVENTION TOUR

The Grand Council seriously considered holding the convention in Yellowstone Park, at Mammoth Hot Springs Lodge, but found that the convention dates we desired conflicted with the large movement of teachers to the N. E. A. convention in Seattle, which made it impossible to secure exclusive rights at any one of the Yellowstone Park hotels; accordingly Breezy Point Lodge, in Minnesota, was selected for the convention.

So many members of the fraternity, however, have been planning on Yellowstone that we are arranging a post-convention trip, after our meeting at Breezy Point, to Yellowstone Park, returning through Colorado. A special Pi Beta Phi train will leave Breezy Point, late in the afternoon of July 1 for the post-convention Yellowstone trip, and full announcement and details about this tour for members of the fraternity will be announced in forth-coming issues of THE ARROW.

CONVENTION CALL

A sojourn in the land of fraternity fellowship—CONVENTION! Days filled with good times like no others, with the renewing and the forming of friendships infinitely dear, and with the thing which makes being at Convention a distinctive experience—the opportunity to have a part in determining the future of the fraternity! It is to these and to the tangible joys of the lake-land of northern Minnesota—swimming, boating, aqua-planing, golfing, riding, tennis playing, shooting—that Pi Beta Phi calls each member, active or alumna, for the week of June twenty-sixth to July first, 1927, at Breezy Point Lodge, Pequot, Minnesota. A magic sojourn, truly, in a wonderland.

CONVENTION, BREEZY POINT LODGE, MINNESOTA

INTO a land of lakes and forests; into the coolness of the North Country; into the luxuries of the finest Minnesota resort, Pi Beta Phi will make their way to the Twenty-Eighth Biennial Convention of the fraternity which will be held at Breezy Point Lodge, on the shores of the most beautiful of Minnesota's Ten Thousand Lakes, from June 26 to July 1, 1927.

Breezy Point Lodge, the hobby of Mrs. W. H. Fawcett, wife of Captain W. H. Fawcett, who was a member of the last Olympic Trap Shooting Team, is new and it represents the latest development in comfortable and fashionable resort life in the North Woods. The main hotel is located on Big Pelican Lake, near Pequot, Minnesota, and the adjoining log cottages and rustic bungalows are placed on the shores of Big Pelican Lake and Thomas Bay. The buildings are new, well designed for the convenience of summer vacation visitors and the entire property represents the largest-investment of any summer resort in the state of Minnesota.

Gay-colored umbrellas scattered along the beach add a touch of the Riviera or Deauville to the sombre green of the pines. From a very modern kitchen, presided over by a famous French chef, come foods fit for kings. In fact, the food of Breezy Point Lodge, is internationally famous.

Although Breezy Point Lodge is the most expensive resort in Minnesota Captain and Mrs. Fawcett are anxious to build a reputation for it among college people and they want to get fraternities interested in it as a Convention center. For this reason they have offered to make a very much reduced rate to Pi Beta Phi—a rate of $6.00 per day, American Plan, which is less than they charge regular guests just for some of the European plan rooms during the course of the summer season. This rate is based on the assumption that there will be more than 350 guests at the convention. If there are less than this number the rate will be $6.50 per person, but we are confident that there will be about "twice 350" there when the opening session roll is called.

In addition to the pleasant, natural surroundings, and the comfort and quality of accommodations, both in the main lodge and the cottages, one of the most outstanding features is the great variety of "things to do." There is a golf course, beautifully kept; there are tennis courts, horse-shoe pitching grounds, trap shooting and target shooting facilities; a stable of saddle horses for use in the many beautiful bridal paths in the woods and along the lake shore. On the beach of the lake directly in front of the hotel and the cottages are gay-umbrellas, seats, water slides, diving platforms, etc., of outstanding calibre. Fishing is also an added attraction and there are boats of all descriptions for those who care for the water. Recreational facilities in the main lodge include new bowling alleys and a billiard room. There is also a hydroplane which can be used by those who like to ride fast surf boards.

Breezy Point is located 150 miles north of St. Paul and Minneapolis, and 150 miles west of Duluth. It is accessible by railway and by excellent automobile roads.

FRATERNITY MUSIC

Margaret Kellenbach, Indiana I, chairman of the national Committee on Music, was born in Peoria, Ill., in 1898. She moved to Indianapolis when a small child and has lived there since. She graduated from Shortridge High School in 1917 and received an A. B. degree from Butler College in 1923.

While in college, Margaret was interested in campus activities and was a charter member of Scarlet Quill, a group now petitioning Mortar Board, secretary of her class of 1923, and a member of Dramatic Club. She was initiated into Pi Beta Phi in February 1920, and was president of the chapter during her senior year.

"Kelly", as she is known to all Pi Phis wrote several fraternity songs, two of the best-known being, "Pi Phi Love" and "Pi Phi Memories." Since graduating from college, she has taught English at Manual Training High School in Indianapolis.

Those who attended the Bigwin Inn Convention remember "Kelly" and greatly appreciate her musical ability.—Martha Hawkins.

MARGARET KELLENBACH
Indiana I

THIS article has two purposes: one is to urge all Pi Phis, especially the ones who are out of college, to keep themselves familiar with the good old favorites among our songs; and the other is to appeal to all Pi Phis to send in original songs. Of course "Ring, Ching, Ching" will last forever, and while chapters may have their individual ways of singing it, I believe it should come universally first among our songs. Then there are others like "Although Kappas Always Favor" and "The Goat Song," etc., that everyone knows.

The following words make a catchy song sung to the tune of the first part of "The Wearing of the Green."

I met a nice young fellow,
As all Pi Phi men are,
And he was out a-riding
In his big Pierce Arrow car.

He wore an Arrow collar
And he wore an Arrow shirt
And if he'd been a lady
He'd have worn a narrow skirt.

One day this man so handsome Went riding out a-far
Of course he went a-riding
In his big Pierce Arrow car.

And as he was returning
There came an awful rain;
Says he, "I'm glad I always Have my Arrow and my chain."

And so the Pierce Arrow car
 Will always take the lead,
 No matter where, no matter when,
 It always has the speed.

And if you would have a frat
 To last you 'till you die,
 Just take the Arrow and the chain
 Of our Pi Beta Phi.

Perhaps the "peppiest" song of the last two or three years is the "Sweetheart Song" which has become popular for Pi Phi dances and other functions. It has great possibilities for harmony in group singing, and is beautiful when used during a serenade. It may be found in the songbook.

There are many other splendid songs, but now what we want are some new catchy tunes. I'm sure there are many chapters that have new songs of their own. Write them out, send them to the committee, and we'll get them to the other chapters in some way. It is nearing convention time and of course there will be a song contest, so be getting ready. Watch THE ARROW for more particulars!

GRAND VICE PRESIDENT

EMILIE Margaret White, Columbia A, who served during the past year as Assistant to the Grand Vice President, has accepted the appointment as Grand Vice President to succeed Olive

EMILIE MARGARET WHITE
Columbia A

Keller Laurence, resigned, and has started the year's work with the same thoroughness and enthusiasm which she has shown in all of her national work.

"Peggy White" as she is known to the alumnae club of Washington and to many of her friends, is a native Washingtonian with strong Vermont traditions and affiliations.

She brings to her work as Grand Vice President a thorough knowledge of alumnae and active work through her contacts established as Gamma Province Vice President, Assistant to the Grand Vice President, and as an active and interested alumnae of Columbia A.

After graduating from the city high school in Washington, D. C., she matriculated at George Washington University and was initiated into Columbia A in the fall of 1904. She received the degree of A.B. (with distinction) in 1907, being one of few persons able to complete a four year college course in three years. In 1910 she received the degree of A.M. Her college work has been supplemented by two trips to Europe for the purpose of study.

Soon after graduation, Miss White received by competitive examination a teaching position in the Central High School of Washington, D. C. In 1922, she was promoted, after examination, to "Group B", the upper salary group, in that institution where she teaches Latin and German.

As Miss White's mother is a teacher of singing, and since Miss White sings, they do a great deal of musical work together. Music with Emilie Margaret White is an avocation and for fourteen years she was organist of the P. E. Church of the Incarnation, a position which she resigned in 1923.

Pi Beta Phi has no more enthusiastic and loyal supporter than Emilie Margaret White as adjudged by those who worked with her when she was president of her chapter, president of the Washington alumnae club, and alumnae delegate to the past three Conventions. Miss White gave splendid assistance during the recent Eastern Conference.

With keen interest in the affairs of the alumnae department, Miss White was of great assistance to Mrs. Laurence in developing the alumnae work and in stimulating the organization of new clubs last year.

ASSISTANT TO THE GRAND VICE PRESIDENT

KATE Freund Miller, newly appointed Assistant to the Grand Vice President, former Epsilon Province Vice President, was born in Chicago, which has always been her home with the exception of one year, when she lived in Cleveland and was affiliated with the Cleveland Alumnae Club. After being graduated from High School in her native town she matriculated at Northwestern, where in October 1907, she was initiated into Illinois E of Pi Beta Phi.

KATE FREUND MILLER

That she has been among the most loyal and enthusiastic members of the fraternity is evidenced by the fact that she has attended six Pi Phi conventions, beginning with the one at Evanston. Mrs. Miller has seen wide fraternity experience as a member of the Fraternity Examination and National Scholarship Committees, as Treasurer of the Illinois Epsilon House Association for five years and as Vice President of Epsilon Province. In her short tenure of the last named office she achieved great success and brings to her new office the fruits of her alumnae contacts in her own province together with a fund of constructive ideas for work beyond its borders.

Mrs. Miller is a sister of Lillian Freund who so ably filled the office of Cataloguer before Mrs. Brown's appointment, and who was Convention Guide at the Charlevoix Convention in 1921. She is the wife of Glenn A. Miller of Chicago, whose able assistant she is both at home and in his business. The fraternity is exceedingly fortunate in persuading her to accept a third task, to which she gives so untiringly of her time and talent.

NATIONAL SUPERVISOR OF CHAPTER ACCOUNTING

MRS. WILLIAM GAY PALMER (Marie Freeman, Illinois Z), who is our first National Supervisor of Chapter Accounting entered Millikin University in 1908. At that time there were no national women's fraternities on the campus, but Mrs. Palmer was a member of the group petitioning Pi Beta Phi and was president of the local organization.

In 1911 she entered the Home Economics Department of the University of Illinois and was initiated into Pi Beta Phi that fall. She was a great help to the Milliken group, later granted a charter. During her senior year she was president of Illinois Z. Upon graduation in 1913 she taught in Decatur one year.

We were very happy to welcome her back to Illinois in 1914, where she did post-graduate work in Institutional Management in the Home Economics Department, becoming a member of the staff in that department in 1915 for a period of two years. After that she went to Ohio State in the same capacity for two years.

While at Ohio State she was able through the university to do some war work. Among her activities was the reorganization of a war factory lunch room for one of the largest factories in Columbus in which two thousand men were fed four times daily. She was also instrumental in carrying out for the Food Administration in Washington through the National Dairy Show in Columbus a program to demonstrate the necessity of meatless days and the value of dairy products. She also acted as dietitian for the R. O. T. C. Hospital during the flu epidemic at Ohio State.

In 1919 she was married to William G. Palmer,  $\Phi\Gamma\Delta$ , of the firm of Green & Palmer who are among the leading attorneys of Illinois.

It would be difficult to express how much Mrs. Palmer has done and how untiring has been her interest in her chapter. She worked out a system of accounting and as the financial member of the advisory committee, has given the chapter her personal supervision for years. She has been just as enthusiastic in looking after the collection of all pledges made by the alumnæ to pay for our house.

Mrs. Palmer has been very active in various town organizations as well as in the State Home Economics Association and Daughters of the American Revolution. She brings to her office a splendid background of experience with which to cooperate with active chapters in their financial work.

CHAPTER HOUSE BUILDING

By MARION COE PALMER (Mrs. Willis H. Jr.), California B

Mrs. Willis H. Palmer, Jr., (Marion Coe, California B), Chairman of the National Committee on Chapter House Building and Financing, has written the following article for THE ARROW upon request. She received practical experience in house buying and financing as house manager of California B the first two years that California B lived in its new $55,000 home. With a knack for house managing, Marion Coe brought the chapter through two successful years even with increased expenses. In the summer of 1923 she ran the house as a boarding house and with thirty-one boarders, paid off $500 on the mortgage. She graduated from the University of California in 1924 and was a member of the history honor society, Sigma Kappa Alpha. Upon graduation she married Willis Hartman Palmer, Jr., Sigma Nu, University of California.

Mrs. Palmer's committee desires to aid all chapters interested in chapter house building to work out a feasible plan for financing and constructing a satisfactory home.—
The Editor.

MARION COE PALMER
California B

THERE is a marked tendency in the United States today for both the women's and men's fraternities to own their own chapter houses. In the past there was much discussion pro and con as to the advisability of such a plan, but today the chapter house is accepted as a necessary part of fraternity development.

Pi Beta Phi chapters have steadily forged ahead in buying or building homes so that today thirty-four chapters own their homes with an approximate valuation of $875,000 and several others are at present in the process of acquiring homes.

I am strongly in favor of chapters building or buying and I want them to have the best, but I cannot emphasize too strongly, or too constantly, the need for a sufficient cash capital with which to begin. There is great wisdom, to my mind, if a chapter will delay a little while and put its enthusiasm into raising cash before starting to build. The tendency today, at almost all universities, is for organizations to undertake tremendous debts, to build expensive and elaborate houses before they have substantial financial plans.

The first step then in order that a chapter may acquire a new house is to turn all of its energies towards raising cash. There are many schemes being used today, some proving more satisfactory in one locality than in another.

In the West our most successful method has been that of rummage sales. These bring in huge profits and do not draw money from the same few faithful supporters. The largest sums are made in the Fall when the poor people are buying for winter. According to some welfare workers these sales are real aids to the poorer people in buying warm clothing for winter. Generally speaking the second most popular way to raise money is to give big bridge parties. Clever Christmas bazaars also increase a chapter's profits. Some chapters have added a tea room fixed up in some certain style with the girls serving in costume. The bazaars are a great deal of work, but if one is planned a long time ahead and there is plenty of cooperation the proceeds will be gratifying. Then of course there are the agencies for commodities that bring in extra profits with very little effort. Musicales, dramatic readings, and candy sales may be more successful for one chapter than another.

After a chapter has given time and energy for its building fund and feels that it has sufficient capital to undertake the financing of a house there are many ways and combinations of ways for raising sufficient means to build or buy. The most widely used method is to incorporate and issue bonds, but I have not found any two Pi Phi chapters that have financed their houses in the same way. Some chapters sell interest bearing bonds and others non-interest bearing.

Different plans of course vary according to the locality so it is impossible to lay any hard or fast rule as to which is the best way. The incorporation laws of course vary in different states, but most laws give legal identity, usually limit the liability, and give permission to hold title to any property. I suggest that when a chapter is planning to incorporate that it choose on its board of directors alumnae over a period of college generations together with several active girls. Illinois Zeta had one of the most thorough financial campaigns of any chapter. Its material was so businesslike and efficient that one could not help but respect its business ability. You will find that it pays when mapping out a financial campaign to spend a little money on official paper, stamps, and printed material.

Building and Loan Associations have aided some Pi Phi chapters to build, but the drawback here is due to the high rates of interest. One clever way of raising money is to deposit Liberty Bonds in a bank upon which money may be borrowed. Give them all to one father for example, and have him deposit them. Then when the interest falls due have his daughter clip the coupons and send them to the owners.

Many alumnae clubs own the chapter houses and rent them to the active girls. This is successful if the club is a large and strong organization. The paying off of mortgages is provided for in various ways. The best way I think is to have the active girls pay a stipulated sum monthly. If this is not sufficient have the initiates take a bond on entering the chapter. Men's fraternities are more successful than women's in procuring house fund money after graduation. The average Pi Phi marries soon after leaving college and I do not feel that it is fair for a husband to have to pay his wife's college house fund. A small sum each month is not a tax while a big lump sum yearly seems more of a burden.

There has been some confusion as to the national fund set aside for chapter house financing. The maximum amount loaned to any one chapter is \$2,000. The rate of interest is  $5\frac{1}{2}\%$ , payable semi-annually with the understanding that if in any one year as much as \$400.00 is paid on the principal (in addition of course to the interest for the year) 1% of the interest paid in, will be returned, making the interest rate for the year only  $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ . The protection is a second, rather than a first mortgage, to allow chapters to give the first mortgage for local loans. All mortgages are held by the Grand Treasurer and all payments of interest and principal are made to her. Any chapter desiring this aid must apply to Grand Council.

The National Committee on Chapter House Building and Financing although it does not handle these loans, stands ready to advise chapters concerning ways and means for financing a house.

Before planning a chapter house much thought should be given to good taste, character and individuality as we must recognize the influence of environment. A woman's fraternity house should be neither cheap nor commonplace, nor over luxurious. If possible each chapter house should be fireproof, of sound durable construction, equipped with reasonable time and money-saving devices. The decorations should be simple and substantial and comfortable, with the general atmosphere of a cultured, refined home.

There are certain standard needs for every chapter when building or remodeling. Plan not to have the bedrooms too large. If they are spacious it necessitates too many girls in a room which has not proven satisfactory. A larger number of small rooms is more advisable. If possible try to build bedrooms that will just accommodate two girls. In my opinion it is advisable to have two sitting rooms downstairs, so that the girls may have the privilege of entertaining callers without inconveniencing the whole chapter. It is a wise chapter that, in building, provides a suite consisting of a bedroom and bath for the chaperon. Many Pi Phi chapters have guest rooms which are a great convenience, aiding in the chapter's hospitality.

Baths and shower rooms are of course in great demand and should have a generous allotment of space. A study room is a great asset to the scholastic aims of a chapter. It should be well-lighted, comfortable and with plenty of good desks and tables. This room may serve also as a chapter room for initiations and meetings. Sleeping porches are wonderful for they add not only a health feature, but provide more room and aid in keeping the bedrooms neat. Very often one roommate wants to sleep while the other does not, so that if there are sleeping porches everyone is more contented.

While one chapter may have a beautiful luxurions home and another an inferior one, it is the spirit that counts. No matter how shabby your house may have become, if you have the right enthusiasm and pull together you will accomplish much. Learn to love your houses, use them as your homes, not your boarding houses and you will have something very precious.

A CATASTROPHE

(Late Lamented Lists)

I am sorry these are late, but I've really been so busy!
We had rushing this last week, and my head got rather dizzy.
But we won 'em, yea, we did, and I'm sure you will agree
We've the pick of all the campus pledged to our fraternity.

I am sorry these are late, but I've suffered with a cold
So I couldn't write a word, or a pencil even hold
But it's over, yes it is, and I'm sending these along
I hope you'll not be angry, for I really meant no wrong.

I am sorry these are late, but this is why I waited
We had the smallpox scare, and we've all been vaccinated
The trouble was with me that mine was one that took!
I couldn't even think of looking at a book.

I am sorry these are late, but we've just had our exam
I had to take the time to stop and try to cram.
You'll be very glad to know that I think I surely passed
And here are my reports, which I'm sending in at last.

I am sorry these are late, but I had the wrong address
And sent the lists herewith enclosed to someone else, I guess
They have been to fifty places, so I hope you'll pardon me
And do not mark the chapter for their travels wide and free.

"I am sorry"—this lament comes with every other list.
We'd as lief that they were early; sorrow sweet would then be missed.

If you want to know, I'll tell you, it is nothing else than that Which makes a Cataloguer cut her name to read just "CAT."

SUMMER PICNIC

By MABEL L. CORBIN, Illinois Δ

THE fifty-seven Pi Phis from Illinois, Iowa, and Missouri who gathered on August 28, at the hospitable summer home of Mrs. Idele Parks near Hamilton, Illinois on the Mississippi River were indeed fortunate to be able to participate in this festivity.

Mrs. Parks, Illinois Γ, who has a studio in St. Louis, and her daughter, Claradelle, Missouri B, who is now teaching in one of the St. Louis High Schools, have made this summer gathering an annual affair, this being the fifth occasion when Pi Phis have enjoyed such a reunion at Arrow Point.

Quincy, Galesburg, Burlington, Monmouth, Rushville, Carthage and Macomb, as well as a number of other towns were well represented. Guests of honor were Mrs. Clara Brownlee Hutchinson, of Monmouth, one of the Founders of the fraternity, and Miss Amy B. Onken, Grand President.

Illinois Δ had the largest representation of alumnae and active members, seventeen in all, while Illinois B was a close second with eleven.

After a social hour a delicious picnic dinner was served cafeteria style on the shady lawn high above the Mississippi. A short program followed with greetings from Mrs. Parks and her daughter. The latter read a clever little story of these Pi Phi gatherings. Mrs. Hutchinson, Miss Onken, and Mrs. McMichael, wife of the president of Monmouth College gave inspiring talks and Mrs. McMichael gave a very attractive souvenir booklet containing views of Monmouth College, the birthplace of Pi Phi, to each guest. The singing of Pi Phi songs and the taking of a group picture closed this part of the program, but many lingered to enjoy the renewal of acquaintances and the forming of new ones.

The affair was a most delightful one in every respect and those fortunate enough to be present appreciate most heartily the thoughtfulness and hospitality of Mrs. Parks in arranging this annual picnic.

MOTORING WITH A PI PHI PIN

IN the thirty years that I have worn a Pi Phi pin, never has it given greater pleasure than it did last summer.

Motoring thru Yellowstone Park, we reached Old Faithful Inn one cold rainy afternoon in August and joined the usual "bread line" at the Camp's dining room door. A cheerful fire was burning in a big fireplace at one end of the room, and busy, apparently happy girls, who looked mighty alert and intelligent were bustling about feeding the multitude.

We, my husband, my son, and myself, were seated as part of a company of eight near the center of the room. The girl who served the table wore a quill pin, a sorority emblem new to the sorority world since I was an active member in it. "Panhellenic's the thing, isn't it?" she said, spotting my Pi Phi pin, (one of the dear, old-sized ones) and from then on everything piping hot came merrily to my corner of the table first, and then was passed on. "What's that pin?" asked number eight at table. "Seems to pay to wear one when it comes to getting fed."

Next morning we came early to breakfast, and had the good luck to be seated near the fireplace. "Could you tell me which are the Pi Phi girls who are serving?" I asked the charming, smiling girl who served us. "I am," she said, "and there's my sister and two others." I gave the old grip to an eagerly outstretched hand owned by Mara Throck Morton of Iowa Beta.

A few days later we spent another night at Old Faithful and were served by Miss Morton's sister. It was late when we sat down at table thirteen, with a family of five from Houston, Texas. Everyone was hungry and tired and a wee bit cross. It isn't easy to think of courtesy and table manners, etc., for a family of children at the end of a tired day. We had nothing in common at table thirteen except food, until Miss Pi Phi serving us, saw my pin. "Oh I wonder if you're the Pi Phi my sister spoke of?" she asked. "Pi Phi?" said the woman from Texas, "why I'm one too—from Kansas." She wasn't wearing a pin and neither was Miss Morton, but we had such a happy conversation, all of us, fathers included.

Each of the six Pi Phis whom I met in the Park told me of the honor they had had seeing or serving the Grand President of Pi Beta Phi, who was motoring through Yellowstone Park.

Get your Pi Phi pins out and wear them when you travel. To do so is like taking an elixir of life.

PI BETA PHI FELLOW

THE Pi Beta Phi Fellowship for 1926-1927 was awarded to Mildred Maroney, Oklahoma B, who is now enrolled in the Graduate School of American University, Washington, D. C., with a major in economics. In addition to her work at the University she is also enrolled in the Institute of Economics which is the outstanding research organization in economics in the United States and which is devoted to the scientific study of social sciences.

Mildred Maroney was born in Sweetwater, Texas on July 18, 1904 and later lived in Enid, Okla., which is now her home. She attended the public schools there and graduated from the high school in 1920.

She entered the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College in 1920 and graduated from that institution at the age of eighteen with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Commerce, having completed the course in three years and being an Honor Graduate of the School of Commerce for that year.

She was initiated into Pi Beta Phi in 1922 and was elected to Phi Kappa Phi, and to Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternity. She was a charter member in the Women's Life Saving Corps; a representative of the College in intercollegiate debating; elected to minor class offices; and held an editorial post on the college newspaper, "The Orange and Black."

Following graduation, and during the years 1923-5 she was employed as secretary to President Bradford Knapp of Oklahoma

MILDRED MARONEY

Agricultural and Mechanical College and during the academic year 1925-26 was an instructor in the School of Commerce of the same institution.

Mildred Maroney won the amateur championship of Oklahoma in both typewriting and shorthand for the years 1925 and 1926.

While an active member of Oklahoma B, Mildred was corresponding secretary and for the last three years has been the Theta Province member of the national Committee on Fraternity Study and Examination. Those who attended the Bigwin Inn Convention will remember her as a page to the Grand President.

Pi Beta Phi may expect splendid future accomplishments from the present holder of the Fellowship, because of her unusual ability and capacity for research work.

PI BETA PHI FELLOWSHIP FOR GRADUATE STUDY

For the year 1927-1928, Pi Beta Phi will offer one graduate fellowship with a value of $500. This fellowship is open to any member of the fraternity who has received her bachelor's degree, and it may be used at any university, either in this country or in Europe, which offers special opportunities in graduate work along the particular line desired by its holder.

Two points will be considered by the Grand Council in awarding the fellowship; scholastic standing and all-around development of character with its resulting ability worthily to represent the fraternity. Each applicant must state definitely the university which she wishes to enter, the courses which she desires to pursue, and the ultimate aim of her graduate study.

Applications accompanied by photographs of the applicants, credentials from college professors, and other recommendations must be in the hands of the Grand President, not later than January 1, 1927.

All material should be collected by the applicant and submitted as a whole. Blank forms for applications for the fellowship may be obtained from the Grand President at any time. If she so desires, any applicant of former years who has not received the fellowship may make a new application.

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN, Grand President.

WINNERS OF THE BALFOUR CUP

Wisconsin A, University of Wisconsin

THE Balfour Cup with its significance of a high degree of cooperation with university authorities and with the national fraternity, of the meeting of campus responsibilities, and of internal organization and efficiency has been awarded for the year 1925-26 to Wisconsin Alpha chapter at the University of Wisconsin. The Grand Council finds special pleasure in the award because of the fact that for the ten year period up to the close of the college year 1924-25, which is the last for which statistics are available, Wisconsin Alpha of Pi Beta Phi has led all fraternities at Wisconsin in scholarship, having been first for four of the last five semesters recorded and having maintained throughout the entire ten years a consistently high standard. The fraternity is proud also of the fact that Illinois Zeta, of the University of Illinois, the holder of the Balfour Cup for the past year, was a close second for this year's award and so had evidently recognized the winning of the cup not as a goal, but as an incentive to still greater accomplishments—which is the true purpose of the award.

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN, Grand President.

IT is difficult to say in definite, concrete language that we did this thing and that thing, and as a result were awarded the Balfour Cup, for though we have been working very hard, the news came to us as a complete surprise. Nevertheless, I will tell you a few of the intimate facts in connection with our everyday life at Wisconsin which have undoubtedly had their influence upon us.

Much of the credit for our present status should go to our chaperon, Mrs. Archer Stites, who helped materially in making a real home out of a chapter house. To our alumnae, and more especially to those living in town, we have also a deep debt of gratitude, for they are ready always to help and to assist us in all of our enterprises. Last year we started having buffet suppers once a month at which the alumnae were our guests. We certainly enjoyed these gatherings and by the large attendance we feel quite sure that our alumnae did likewise, and were glad of an opportunity to meet all of the girls.

WISCONSIN A, UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
Winners of the Balfour Cup

The number of activities in which Wisconsin A members participate is directly due to the existence of an activity chairman elected from among the active chapter, whose particular work it is to see that every girl is encouraged to enter extra-curricular activities, and to help her choose the two in which she will be most interested, for every one is required to enter at least two fields. This is not, however, as difficult as it may sound because of our huge campus and its necessarily numerous positions.

Health is always an important factor in success and though we have no definite health program we have certain house rules which are strictly enforced. Primary among these are the rules in regard to the sleeping porch. At no time of the day or night is it permissible to make any noise or disturbance there, and consequently girls can go to bed early, sleep late, or lie down during the day with the assurance of being able to have a complete and uninterrupted rest. Quiet hours in the house itself are also rigorously kept, but with thirty girls living here, these rules are naturally less strict than those concerning the porch.

Scholarship is kept high by requiring a minimum grade of 83 for initiation, and to help the pledges make this mark we have compulsory attendance at a supervised study hall in the chapter house from seven o'clock until nine o'clock for four nights a week. There is also a list posted of seniors and the subjects in which they are majoring. These girls are always willing to help the younger ones in their own particular study, and the pledges and freshmen are made to feel free to ask for assistance in any thing in which they are having trouble. Competition among the actives and pledges is very keen, and at the end of each semester individual grades are posted on the bulletin board.

One definite item which may have had something to do with our winning the cup is the matter of national reports. It has always been a tradition, or even an unwritten law, that officers have their work in to national on time. There is no one checking up to see that this is done, it is merely accepted as a matter of honor when the officer takes her oath.

Wisconsin A is a large chapter, but we are not divided into cliques; we are one for all and all for one.

WITH THE ACTIVES

ALL-ROUND ATHLETE

Jesse (Jay) Purves of Illinois Z, is probably the nearest all-round sports woman ever developed according to the Chicago Daily News. During her athletic career, she has been a member of fourteen championship teams and has been captain of eight of them. Basketball, baseball, swimming, track, bowling, golf, volleyball, hockey and crew have been mastered by her. In addition, she is one of the best students in the University of Illinois.

THESE LEMERCIER

WINNER IN HORSE SHOW

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

Winifred Starbuck, Iowa Z, has had the distinction of being awarded one of the seven scholarships offered in America by the American Council of Education. The scholarships are offered to students classified as juniors and are awarded on the basis of personal recommendations as well as scholarship.

Miss Starbuck selected Sorbonne University in Paris, where she is now studying French literature.

PRESIDENT OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Marion Coleman, New York Alpha, is president of the Women's Student Government Association at Syracuse University. This office is the highest position which may be held by any woman in Syracuse.

Marion has been very active throughout her whole college career, having served on the class executive committee during her first three years in the university. She has also been active in the University Chorus, Hamilton Club, Silver Bay Club, English Club and Y. W. C. A., as well as having been vice president of the junior class.

In her sophomore year she worked on the Eligibility Committee of W. S. G. A., and at the end of the year was chosen second vice president of that organization. Last spring she was elected president of W. S. G. A.

Marion was recently initiated into Eta Pi Upsilon, national honorary society for senior women.

VIRGINIA MORGAN.

PRESIDENT OF WOMAN'S LEAGUE

Billie Mae Kreider, Indiana F, is this year holding the highest office for girls on the Butler University campus—that of president of Woman's League. She is also vice president of Y. W. C. A. and has been pledged to Delta Phi, national debating fraternity, being a member of the university debating team. She is a member of Pen and Pencil Club, honorary writer's organization, and was elected one of the ten girls for Scarlet Quill which is petitioning Mortar Board.

She represented Butler College at the convention of Women's Self Government Associations held last spring. Not only is she capable and active but is one of the most popular girls on her campus. When she plays, she plays hard and when she works she works with a vengeance. This year she is president of Indiana F.

PHYLLIS HIGINBOTHAM, Ontario A

PI PHIS IN THE PUBLIC EYE

OUR PI PHI NURSE

Phyllis Higinbotham, Ontario A, who for six years has ministered to the sick up and down the "hollers" of Little Pigeon, Basins, Roaring Fork, etc., has recently been appointed Supervisor of Public Health nurses of the State Department of Public Health of Tennessee with headquarters at Nashville. No one can realize how much she has done in her quiet, efficient way for the people of Eastern Tennessee. In the following paragraphs Evelyn Bishop, Head Resident of our Settlement School, pays tribute to her co-worker:

That continuous search and work will finally bring results beyond our fondest hopes has been well demonstrated here in our Health Department.

All know Mrs. Helmick's plan for a nurse and emergency hospital; how the war delayed the carrying out of her plans; then how we who followed on looked and looked.

There was not a nurse in this vicinity, not a registered nurse in Sevier county and for two years we planned in every way we could for a solution of the county as well as the local problem.

But the long-hoped-for came—and in an unexpected way. Six years ago last spring, at a meeting of the New York Alumnae Club, I was telling of the great need of a nurse here. What could have been more fortunate than that Phyllis Higinbotham was at the meeting and answered my appeal.

The following October she began work here and during the six years has done so much for the people and for the School that I feel it is impossible to give more than a little idea of it all.

When Phyllis came there was nothing here for her to work with—no office, no supplies, nothing but a great big need. That she met it and planned well for more than the present was proved this summer when one of the leading doctors from the State Medical University at Memphis looked over the health center thoroughly and then wrote a report in detail, advising the state to use this rural health center and emergency hospital as a model for any rural centers they establish in the state.

The people appreciated the nurse from the very start—in fact it seemed sometimes they appreciated her almost too well when she would be called to make long horseback trips in the middle of cold winter nights. Roads were bad, doctors lived long distances from here, and there were no telephones, so the responsibility of a doctor as well as nurse many times fell upon Phyllis. Anyone knowing the training of a nurse knows that that is the appalling thing—trained to act only on doctors' orders there were times when all that training had to be forgotten and the emergency met.

It is no small jump from a well-equipped hospital to a little mountain cabin, unheated, unlighted and bare of what seem the necessities. Little covered dishes that could be packed in saddle bags and then used over the coals in a fireplace had to be taken for sterilizing, saddle bags had to carry every kind of supply and utensil that might be needed. This may sound simple, but it meant even planning saddle bags to carry these things, planning what simple remedies must be in the bags, as drug stores are a long way off.

The next good fortune that came was the purchase of the Andrew Ogle property. The house was remodeled into the present "hospital," as the people insist upon calling it. One room is used for an office and consulting room, as well as a place to keep drugs, instruments and many things that are in constant demand. Then there is the work room, bath room, linen closet that contain not only sufficient supplies for use there, but also for loaning, and sterile supplies needed by doctors for emergency operations and dressings. Then one room is fitted up for an emergency operation room, treatment and clinic room.

From the days when no dentist had ever been in these parts we have come to the place where a Knoxville dentist comes to the hospital twice a month, and local doctors come as regularly as possible.

Different specialists have held clinics there and we have had quite a good many operations.

During the six years we have scarcely dared emphasize the work of the nurse in either letters from the School or in THE ARROW for it has such an appeal we feared each one would want their contribution to go into that department.

The people here have responded to many suggestions and instructions and have shown beyond a doubt their confidence in Phyllis. When one man knew that she was to leave he asked me why she didn't stay, said he would rather the School would close up than have her leave.

One grows so attached to the people, the country and the School it is hard to think of breaking away from it.

The many opportunities that have come to Phyllis to accept other positions have scarcely been considered. But such hard work is a health-breaker and last year when the State Department of Public Health was so insistent on having Phyllis for the Supervisor of Public Health nurses, she finally made up her mind to accept, knowing she really must make a change from her work here.

The position is one Phyllis is well deserving of and with a fine personnel in the State Department we are hoping she will enjoy her new work.

It seems as though we would never be able to do without Phyllis, but when work has been so well planned and organized I know it surely will have to continue.

According to a Chicago newspaper, "for the first time in the history of the Chicago collegiate bureau of occupations the bureau is self-sustaining. This accomplishment was marked by the opening of the enlarged headquarters in the Mallers building, Madison street and Wabash Avenue."

"Personality plus," says the newspaper, "in the person of Mrs. Florence Schee Robnett is responsible for the thriving condition of the bureau according to members of the executive body."

Mrs. Robnett is a member of Iowa B and Illinois Z and is managing director of the bureau.

Mrs. Robnett says that she finds her interest in civic welfare "much keener than in baking pies. Placing college women in suitable positions has become a growing necessity, because they, like myself, are seeking outlets in addition to their homemaking."

The chief purpose of the collegiate bureau of occupations is to help women adjust their higher education to the business of making a living.

Readers of the "Indianapolis News," who were invited to select the ten greatest women now living in Indiana selected among others two Pi Phis, one holding first place and the other, fourth place. Mrs. Demarchus Brown (Jessie L. Mrs. Edward Franklin White (Emma Eaton, Iowa Z), was selected "because she uses her tremendous influence for the good of American women." Mrs. White is being mentioned as a candidate for the next president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The following press notice tells of Sarah Wilder Neidhardt, Kansas A, who this winter is head of the voice department at the Wichita University, Wichita, Kansas:

Gracious and charming, with a background of musical, cultural and historical interests, she will be a valuable and lovable addition to Wichita.

Her musical history has been one of fascinating events, for she counts among her experiences 15 years of study and concertizing in Europe, as well as work in America. As a grand opera singer she was known and loved by audiences in Paris and Munich, and as a concert singer she was equally popular.

Among her experiences in America have been the direction of school music in Dodge City and Rockford, Ill. She is originally a Kansas woman, having been born in Hiawatha, and having for a father the famous Daniel Webster Wilder, editor, politician and writer.

The New York Star recently carried an illustrated feature article about Grace Hazen, New York Γ, assistant physicist in the radio division of the Bureau of Standards at Washington, D. C. Miss Hazen was introduced to ARROW readers in the issue of June 1926.

In the Book Reviews division of THE ARROW there appears a review of "If Today Have No Tomorrow" written by Olive Gilbreath, Michigan B. We quote the following paragraphs in order to give the members of Pi Beta Phi an insight into the background which Miss Gilbreath had in writing this book which is attracting international attention:

A novel remarkable for its study of the character of a young man in whom English parentage and education conflict with the influences of Russian environment in the wild days of the collapse of the old aristocracy, is Miss Gilbreath's "If Today Have No Tomorrow" issued by the Duttons. Asked how she came to write her story and where she got her material, Miss Gilbreath wrote her publishers as follows:

"As for the inception of the book, that goes back to the psychology of my childhood. Russia has always been a magnet to me. I learned my geography from a doll whose travel routes I had to plot and who always ended in St. Petersburg. Before Russian literature became known in general I used to scour the country, begging and borrowing Gogol, Korolenko and Kuprin from the university libraries all the way from Seattle and Berkeley to New York.

"In college I heard Russian poetry read aloud which did little to diminish the spell. Finally, I learned to read and speak Russian very badly and in 1914, I started for Russia. I was up in Mongolia caravanning when the War broke out. The Russian Ambassador in Peking refused to let me travel across Siberia in the chaos of the beginning, but before the end of 1914, he sent me by private train and I crossed the Urals with millions of Cossacks pouring in to fight for the Tsar. Mr. Samuel Harper, through his father, President Harper of the University of Chicago, was really my god-father in Russia. So, I saw old Russia in its splendor in Moscow, Petrograd, the Volga towns and the government of Tver before it began to break up. In 1915 I came out through the Far East, but returned again that way going on to Russia in 1918 and 1919.

"Part of the last period, I was in Siberia and I lived two months in the mid-winter steppe on the train of the Red Cross Commissioners who were investigating hospitals from Vladivostock to the Kolchak Army base beyond the Urals. It is my accumulated impressions of the deep forests and those lonely far horizons which account for the latter part of the book, 'The Steppe.' We were in fighting ourselves, but the story of the fighting and of the Tartar's hut was built from the diary lent me by Mr. William Y. Duncan, a very gallant American who was with the Czechs in their memorable Odyssey. And I should like to make some public acknowledgement of my debt to him.

OLIVE GILBREATH

"The most valuable material outside my own experience, however, came from letters, almost diaries, which my friends in Russia used to smuggle out to me. After the idea of the novel started, when I was in Vladivostock, the American Staff used to catch for me all the interesting refugees of the stream which poured through Vladivostock fleeing the Bolsheviki and I made volumes of notes. In 1919 I came home with the Czecho-Slovak wounded and while I was in London I advertised in The Times for refugees who had been in Moscow during the period covered by my novel. Such a motley procession as turned up you can hardly imagine. My West End hotel nearly turned me out I think as a dangerous character, but it was worth it. Most of the street speeches I have heard myself and I think there is hardly an item in the historical background that I could not authenticate.

"And so, gradually, the material came together, but whatever the detail, it's really an epitome of a life-time love for Russia. No country in the world makes such a catholic haul in its nets as Russia. And I was early a victim. I do not know yet which civilization approaches more nearly to the truth—Slav or Saxon. It is the fascination of the Slav culture and its effect upon the Anglo-Saxon that I consider the heart of the book."

Numerous feature articles which have been appearing recently in eastern newspapers and magazines have borne the signature of Rosemary Drachman, Arizona A, who was the only woman among 17,000 men with the Spanish fleet at the bombardment of Abd-el-Krim's capital, Ajdir.

Every word of her description of her trip with the Spanish fleet tingles with a thrill and interest. The fearlessness which she displayed in becoming a war correspondent would do credit to any journalist who was ever so designated.

The Literary Digest for May 29, 1926 prints an article from the New York Times in which Rosemary Drachman tells of her first meeting with the former Clara Longworth, sister of "Nick" Longworth, who is the "First Lady" in Fez.

At present Miss Drachman is hard at work on a three-act play and may later on send word to THE ARROW readers.

From the Sunday Call of Newark, New Jersey of August 22, 1926 we print the following interesting article by Dorothea Wingert concerning Carrie E. Stroud, New York A:

A quaint old inn of the eighteenth century, radiating an atmosphere of charm and hospitality, is one's first impression on entering the lobby of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel in North Asbury Park. Furniture of the early American period, colonial chintz hangings and on the wall framed paintings, etchings and reproductions depicting events and subjects in connection with the life and achievements of Benjamin Franklin, belong undisputably to the period in which figured that famous pioneer of learning and culture truly American.

In a small private office connecting with the hotel lobby, at a mahogany desk of the colonial type, sits Miss Carrie E. Stroud, owner and manager of the hotel, and creator of this storehouse of Franklinian information and relics, pervaded with the restful atmosphere of home. Standing upright on the desk is a framed picture of Franklin, and other pictures in keeping with the period are tastefully arranged on the walls.

She goes about her work with businesslike efficiency, now giving an order over the house telephone, now making an adjustment for one of the hotel guests. Calmness and assurance characterize her manner.

Miss Stroud is a hotel proprietor of no ordinary type. She understands hotel management thoroughly, having been brought up as a child in the same hotel that she now runs, which was then owned and operated by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stroud.

Mr. and Mrs. Stroud, who were both born in England, came to the United States in the early eighties, making their homes in New York city. In 1887 they started The Franklin on the same site as the present Benjamin Franklin. It was then but a small boarding house, having only 16 bedrooms, and accommodating no more than about 30 guests. During subsequent years numerous improvements and additions were made to the original structure. An extra floor, an addition to the rear and a new wing on the right, and other alterations, increased the capacity of the hotel until it now has 98 bedrooms, and can accommodate 200 guests.

Miss Stroud, the present owner and manager, had no intention at first of engaging in the hotel business. She was educated at Syracuse University and after her graduation continued her education with a post-graduate course at Columbia University.

"On my return from college," said Miss Stroud, "I became restless. I had no idea what I wanted to do. But I liked hotel work; I really grew up into it, and after father's death I took over the management. Most hotels assign their guests to sleeping quarters, serve them meals at stated times, and consider their contract filled.

"I wanted to give my guests more than that, so I surrounded them with a homelike and tasteful atmosphere, into which I injected a hobby of my own, that of collecting relics, souvenirs, pictures and literature pertaining to Franklin. With that idea in mind, I changed the name of the hotel from The Franklin to The Benjamin Franklin, believing it more fitting that the full name of the illustrious statesman be used."

Miss Stroud has, indeed, contrived to give her guests more than food and a bed. The quaint wooden sign, swinging from a sturdy oak post at the foot of the hotel walk, conveys more than a mere name to those who have received hospitality there, for they know that within are relics and information relating to Franklin such as no museum boasts.

Miss Stroud is a member of the International Benjamin Franklin Society, which holds its yearly meetings at her hotel each spring. Among her guests are some who can trace their lineage back to Franklin. Franklin Bache Huntington, prominent New York Architect, who is the great-great-great-grandson of Benjamin Franklin, spends several weeks at the hotel each summer, and also attends the spring meetings of the International Benjamin Franklin Society, of which he is a member.

The many admirers of Franklin who make the hotel their rendezvous help Miss Stroud considerably in adding to her store of Franklinian information and relics. Miss Stroud has completed three volumes of chintz-bound scrapbooks, containing old prints, pictures, postage stamps, clippings and photographic reproductions of everything pertaining to Franklin in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Every mail, she said, brings some interesting addition to her scrapbooks.

Among her pictures of Franklin are several originals, one of which is an antique oil portrait which she bought several years ago in a small shop in Baltimore. This portrait hangs over the mantel of the colonial fireplace. Inside the fireplace is an original Benjamin Franklin stove, which distributes light and warmth on cool or damp evenings. Her library boasts an interesting collection of Franklin books.

For eight years Miss Stroud has had the full management of the hotel which she purchased at that time from her mother. Mrs. Stroud, who had always been a familiar figure at the hotel, died only last year, at the age of 83. Until a short time before her death she did all the ordering for the large establishment. This year Miss Stroud has taken into partnership Miss Ida Louise Killam.

Miss Killam, who is an interior decorator, is responsible for much of the beauty and simplicity of the hotel's interior, which was re-decorated about three years ago. She has opened a quaint little gift shop in the hotel, where antiques, Italian pottery, glass, glazed chintzes, prints and other unusual articles are on sale.

Not alone the main rooms and lobby are furnished in accordance with the early American period; the dining room is furnished throughout in mahogany of Colonial style, and in harmony with the furnishings is the green glassware. The writing room and the majority of the bedrooms are also equipped with furniture of early American design.

The Magazine of the Women's City Club of Detroit, Mich., for September, 1926 contains a splendid article entitled, "Letters from Spain" by Harriet Beard, Michigan B, and has the following tribute:

"Again we take pleasure in paying tribute to one of our members—one who has achieved success in a variety of fields—Miss Harriet Beard. She is the author of the fascinating "Letters from Spain," to be found elsewhere in this issue of the Magazine, as well as the letters from Norway which we published last fall.

After her graduation from the University of Michigan Miss Beard became connected with the Detroit Public Schools, first as teacher and then as grade principal. She abandoned the latter work to become supervisor of safety education in the schools. Cooperating with the Bureau of Public Safety and the Safety Department of the Detroit Automobile Club, she has been so successful that her name is nationally known in connection with safety work. She is the author of "Safety First in School and Home," which is used as a text-book throughout the country. She has also written a course for teachers on the application of safety principles.

Additional to this important piece of work, Miss Beard now fills the position made vacant by the death of Miss Elizabeth Cleveland. She is the point of contact between the Board of Education and the Parent-Teachers Association.

But Miss Beard has not confined her activities solely to the educational field. She is a member of several public welfare committees.

During the war she was decorated by the Italian government for work done in Sicily, and was a member of the Hoover Food Commission in Bohemia at the close of the war. She is Mr. Hoover's personal representative on the National Safety Council.

During her summer vacations in previous years she conducted tours abroad. She now goes over every summer to secure treasures for the Florentine Shop in the City Club Building—a shop which she conducts and which is another evidence of her versatility, energy, and acumen. City Club members will be interested to know, indeed, that Miss Beard was the first person to sign a lease for space in our building.

Need we observe that Miss Beard does not suffer from ennui?

An effort was made by the Editor of THE ARROW to obtain an article from Miss Beard, but she has been in Europe all summer visiting out of the way places in search of Old World treasures for her gift shop.

Mrs. Mac Short (Mae Siefkin, Kansas B), has been spending the summer inspecting all the airplane factories and fields in the United States, except two, with her husband, who is to teach aeronautics in the undergraduate school at Harvard, the first time aviation has ever been offered to undergraduates at that institution.

In writing of Mrs. Short the Wichita newspaper says:

If you can imagine any woman teaching English in the Brookline high school at Brookline, Mass., a suburb of Boston, a high school with probably the highest standards of any in the United States; being president of the Technology Dames, an organization demanding all she has of executive ability, culture and energy, and in addition keeping house for a husband who is also a teacher, an instructor of aeronautics in the Boston School of Technology, and if you can realize on top of all this that she is just a girl, three years out of college,—then you will have a fairly clear mental picture of Mrs. Mac Short, who is at present visiting in Wichita as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Siefkin of 162 North Hillside avenue.

Mrs. Short, who was Miss Mae Siefkin before her marriage about two years ago, is as attractive as she is brilliant. She attended the Kansas State Agricultural college at Manhattan, for two years, where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi, and in 1923 she received her degree of bachelor of philosophy in English from the University of Chicago.

Since that time she has had more unique and absorbing experiences crowded into two years than many people know in a lifetime. When she went to Boston with "Mac," who was working upon his master's degree in aeronautical engineering at Harvard, she was in a strange city with no idea of how to keep herself occupied and contented. Her first step, therefore, was to register at the Harvard employment agency, which found for her successively two fascinating pieces of work.

The first was in the field of research, and consisted in the collection of material for a book on "Ovis Poli."

"I had no idea in the world what 'Ovis Poli' was when I started out," confided Mrs. Short, amusedly, "and when I went home that night and told Mac about my work, I asked him if he knew what 'ovis poli' was. He replied he thought probably it was a Russian dancer."

At that point a reporter's curiosity overpowered my natural desire to appear learned, and I asked her, "Well, what is it?"

"Ovis Poli," she explained without a trace of condescension, "is a species of wild sheep found in Central Asia." She informed me further that the Roosevelt brothers, upon their return from their big hunting trip, brought with them some splendid specimens of ovis poli.

Many people, upon learning that Mrs. Short was permitted to teach in the Brookline high school, wonder at such a position for so young a girl, when the majority of the teachers there are middle-aged or more, and have had at least a dozen years of experience before applying. Mrs. Short declares she went in by the back door, for the first year she served as a substitute occasionally, and at the beginning of last year one of the instructors broke her contract just after the beginning of school, and she was drafted to fill in for a time. So satisfactory was she, however, that they kept her for the remainder of the year and offered her the position again for the coming year at increased salary—an offer which she has not yet accepted.

Dr. Grace Raymond Hebard, Iowa Z, a professor in the University of Wyoming, and an historian of note, was one of the five women on the committee selected to aid in the commemoration this summer of the Custer battle in the Little Big Horn near the Crow Agency in Montana. She attended the ceremonies of the fiftieth anniversary of the Custer massacre and then visited points of historic interest including old Fort Smith. Among those to accompany Dr. Hebard on this trip was Dick Washakie, son of the famous Chief Washakie.

HISTORICAL RELICS

Have you Pi Phi relics of historical value?

If so, won't you please send them to Mrs. Sigler, national historian. Relics, old letters, items from old scrap books!

Our Grand President has just sent to Mrs. Sigler two interesting Pi Phi antiques. She says, "I was in Monmouth this spring and the Pi Phis there gave them to me for the fraternity. The piece of sheet music was written by the father of a Pi Phi—then I. C.—and was published sometime along in the early 80's. The father also published a piece dedicated to the Kappas. The gavel is made from the walnut stairs in the first college building at Monmouth College. The building burned some years ago, but these walnut stairs were torn out and saved. Mrs. McMichael, the wife of the president, had some of the wood made up into gavels and gave this one to Mrs. Kilgore. Upon Mrs. Kilgore's death, Mrs. Hutchinson returned the gavel and Mrs. McMichael has now given it to Pi Phi."

Mrs. Sigler has just found an item in an old scrap book belonging to Ida Cheshire Barker a founder of Iowa B, which gives an account of the Convention of 1878, the only account of this Convention found to this time.

We beg of you to give this matter your special attention. See that families of I. Cs. who are gone do not destroy things which are priceless from our viewpoint. Again we beg of you to respond to this appeal and if enough things of interest come in we may have an exhibit at Convention.

Send all articles, items, or information concerning such to National Historian, Mrs. F. C. Sigler, 703 W. Ashland, Indianola, Iowa.

A VISITOR'S IMPRESSION

WHEN driving thru the Tennessee mountains this summer, about a half-mile out of Gatlinburg we commenced seeing Arrows with the words "Arrow Craft Shop" on them. Wanting souvenirs of that perfectly gorgeous part of the country, we decided to follow up the arrows, and see what we could see!

We found out presently that the Arrow Craft Shop was in connection with the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, and to get to it, one must follow a winding drive up around other buildings of the school till one came to the cunningest cottage of all, and we found it to be the Arrow Craft Shop.

The most adorable rustic porch ran all across the front, vinecovered, and with peepholes in the vines, through which a lovely mountain view could be seen. The porch had furniture made by the natives, and painted wine and blue, which we afterwards found to be the Pi Beta Phi colors. Flowers were everywhere and a tiny, portable Victrola was on a blue table right under the Arrow Craft Shop sign.

Of course, observing all this took just a few seconds, and in a few more we were ushered into the Shop proper by two girls. We told them we were looking for just some little thing to take home with us, and there began the trouble. We just couldn't decide what to buy!

In the first room were every kind, shape and form of baskets . . . waste baskets, flower baskets, fire baskets . . . everywhere, on the mantel over the stone fireplace, on the floor, on the window-seat, and on the tables. There were chairs, hooked rugs, woven trays with mats to match, and darlingest of all, tiny doll furniture! Everything, we were told, was made by the people around the vicinity.

Through the doorway we saw into another room, and there we found the loveliest things imaginable. Laid out on and hung over the most attractive bed, which looked as though it had about 200 years to its credit, were scarfs, towels, pillows, and bags, all handwoven, and of the finest linen and wool with the loveliest patterns and colors. On a corner cupboard were draped more scarfs of different varieties, and it was topped with an old ship, making a very picturesque corner. Rugs and coverlets were on the floors and chairs, and curtain material was hung suggestively at one of the windows. A table laden with the most exquisite linen guest towels, table runners, and balsam-filled boudoir pillows, especially appealed to me. An old spinning wheel and little chest of drawers completed the room.

Well! It is needless to say that we had the hardest time imaginable trying to select things from such a display . . . but finally decided on a dozen guest towels to use as Christmas presents, and a darling wood-basket.

We left, promising ourselves to stop the very next time we went through, and to tell all our friends to do the same.

ARROW CRAFT SHOP

"Is this the Arrow Craft Shop?" This is the inevitable question as a prospective customer approaches, whether it be by the back door route in a car or by the front porch and on foot. This is closely followed by:

"What an attractive porch you have and how cool it is. Where did you get those cunning birds?"

The porch is vine shaded and furnished with some of the hand made furniture produced here, painted in silver blue with trimmings of very small wine colored arrow heads. Besides this we have a Victrola, a "passel" of new records, thanks to Mr. Stark,—and some precious love birds that Mr. L. S. Hall, of Knoxville, Tenn., gave us. We might as well say right now that without Mr. Hall's interest and help with the Shop we would never have had as successful a summer as we have.

Someone said that the only way to learn anything was by asking questions. It seems as if all tourists have taken this as their motto for we spend a large portion of our time answering various inquiries. In case the Arrow readers may be interested in the very same things that our visitors are, we will invite you to go through the Shop with us.

"Why, we really just love it here—you see we are kept rather busy and we just never think about or have time to be lonesome."

After a careful inspection of the porch and the view from it we are ready to enter the living room of Stuart Cottage, which has been converted into a basket market.

"No, the fireplace isn't for sale—we just couldn't do without it. These are Aunt Lydia baskets. Here is a picture of her. No, she is not my real aunt. As you can tell, she is very old, somewhere around eighty-five or ninety. She is quite a remarkable character. To hear her quote the Bible is a revelation. Don't dare go to see her while dressed in knickers as she considers them and bobbed hair an abomination of the Lord. Her home is up a hollow from the old Elkmont road and is a one room house with one wee window about eight inches by twelve inches. If you have time you should go up to see her as she is one of the last of the sturdy old type of mountain woman that you read about.

"Let me get it down for you, it is an Oriole basket—named that because of its similarity to an oriole's nest. It can be used for flowers, darning, eggs or just anything. Here is another interesting basket called the Hornet's Nest, named also because of its shape. It is made out of pine bark by a man called Broom Tying Richard Ogle. He is quite interesting and quite temperamental. We just never can tell whether he will bring no brooms or fifty. The last time he was here he told us that he thought he would be able to tie us some this week because he might be able to get some broom corn from a neighbor since his son had married the neighbor's daughter the Saturday before.

"He told us a very interesting story of how he learned his trade. When his father was a young man he passed a huddled figure one day as he was riding home. When he stopped to investigate he discovered it was an Indian who was taking the fever and was suffering quite a bit. Mr. Ogle took the Indian home and nursed him to health. While he was recuperating he taught his benefactor the trade he had learned from his forefathers—basket making and broom tying. Mr. Ogle handed the art down to his son.

"Yes, the last few days have been rainy, but you see these are Dog Days and we always have a lot of rain during that time."

"We have waste baskets in willow, pine and hickory splits. These in splits are so stout that the man who makes them, a six footer, can stand on them." We never are able to let this remark pass without giving a demonstration.

"Harrison McCarter makes these baskets and he is to go with us to the Tri-State Fair at Memphis and demonstrate basket making in the booth that the School is to have.

"Yes, the napkin rings are small, but they are for children. They were made by Jim Huskey in the Sugarlands. He makes all of these whittled things with his pocket knife. The little log cabin cigarette boxes, letter knives, salad sets out of rhododendron, toasting forks and doll furniture are all made by him. He is a preacher as well as cabinet maker. When he was a child he wasn't able to go to school so now he attends regularly the night classes at our extension school in the Sugarlands.

"Let me wrap them all up for you. The fan is made out of pressed rye stalks. Goodness, you have so many tiny packages you really should have a basket to carry them in. Which do you want? Why, this one is only $1.25. All right, I'll just put everything in it.

"No, Miss Rogers and I are not sisters, but we do live in the same place in Texas. We didn't even go to the same college.

"Right in here you'll find the weaving.—Oh yes, everything is hand-made—no, we thank you just the same, but we didn't make them ourselves—They are all made here in the community. Weaving is taught in the School, but most of these things are made by women who have been in the school and are now helping to support their own homes.

"Yes, Ma'am, I've been in the School for the last year.

"Oh, I wasn't in any grade, I taught the 5th and 6th.

"Those are $1.50.

"No sir, that's a pillowtop, not a bag. . . . Yes, those are towels, in the homedyed linen. . . . Well, they are rather small, but that makes them much daintier for guest towels!!

"I don't believe we have a black and white roving bag, but this green one matches your dress perfectly. . . . Oh, there are lots of things they can be used for. . . . anything from a beach-bag to a book-satchel. . . . that's why they are such lovely gifts for ANYONE!

"Everything is woven on the old wooden hand-looms. No, I'm afraid I can't describe one, but I'll be glad to take you down to the weaving-room as you leave. It is in the basement of this cottage, there are seven looms, and nearly all of them are threaded up, ready for use, for some of the girls weave here during the summer, on special orders and such. . . .

"No, son, the ship model and the tennis racquet are not for sale!

"Pi Beta Phi. . . capital P-i capital B-e-t-a capital P-h-i!

"No, its not an agricultural society, it's a national fraternity; yes, ma'am, this is the only School it maintains. . . .

"It doesn't look like it's possible to make all these bright things by hand, does it? . . . but they're all made that way. Miss Redding, the weaving teacher, works out most of the color schemes. . . . she is a wonderful teacher, and has the finest sense of color. No, she doesn't live here, she is from Massachusetts.

"That's balsam that you smell—right here in these little pillows. . . . oh, it's grand for linens, . . . and headaches. . . . we get it right off the tiptop of LeConte. You say you want this one?

"Those are little dollsets. . . . coverlet and two pillows. One of the school children, Edna Ownby, a twelve-year-old girl, weaves them, and her mother makes the bath mats you see over there in the cupboard.

"This flaxwheel? It's not for sale, nor the corner cupboard either. They are only for atmosphere! Yes, indeed, they're both old pieces. . . . you would have thought old, if you had seen them before they were done over!!

"The runners you asked about, with the orange stripes, are what we call the Isorie runners, because Isorie Connor, a woman up Baskins Creek, makes 'em. . . . The roving bags are $1.00. . . . yes, any shade. . . .

"How do you do, Mrs. What-Not. . . . Oh, no indeed, you can't come too often for US. . . .

"The hooked rugs? Well, the one on the wall was made in Asbury community, Knox County . . . these others were made by Mrs. Par-ton, over in Cartertown . . .

"Shall I wrap these? . . . All right . . . thank you . . . all of you come back . . . good bye . . ."

That's an idea of a twelve-hour day of grilling! We DO try to know the answers to most of the questions, but we might as well admit that those we don't know we make up as fast as anyone asks us!

But it's been wonderful . . . just to be in the house with so many lovely things! . . . Honestly, we used to just RESENT anyone buying at first, because we hated to see the things leave the Shop!

Every single day something different happens—some wandering Pi Phi will drop in, Harrison McCarter will come with a load of baskets and visit for a while . . . Isorie will come in with some new scarfs and runners . . . or customers, customers!! . . . of every possible age and station. It hasn't always been so nice . . . for instance, the Sunday we both had to stand in the door to keep about fifteen people from swarming in, who apparently thought we were joking when we announced "no Sunday selling." Or at 5:30 a.m. when we would hear, from our "attic apartment," much loud knocking which meant "Mack" or "Verdie" or someone had come with baskets. But such occasions as these would be made up by other times, such as when the dearest bride and groom from Nashville, after buying some things, just insisted that we ride up to the orchard with them. Or when Mr. Hall brought over the Gauts, who left us a big box of candy—Or when Miss Curryer and Mrs. Fletcher "kept store" for us, and we went on an all-day picnic! . . . Or when the Governor and Mrs. Peay dropped in one afternoon, throwing us into such a panic that we couldn't even talk and shook all over with excitement, not having had any Gov-nor-customers before!

It's too bad we haven't kept a register of all the distinguished visitors we have had, Pi Phis and "otherwise." But among the number are: The Grand Council of Pi Beta Phi, Governor and Mrs. Peay, Miss Ethel Curryer and her mother, Mrs. Curryer, Mrs. Carl Fletcher and family, Mrs. Hadley, Mrs. J. C. Wier, Mrs. Correll, Mrs. Daniel McIntosh, Mr. Orpheus Schantz, Mr. Jens Jensen, Nobie Webb, Mrs. Eugene Mays, Ralph Hubbard, son of Elbert Hubbard, Mrs. Douglas Corner, Dr. and Mrs. Cole, the Chicago Prairie Club,—and last but not least, our own two fathers, who had the best time of anyone!

COOKIN' N' SEWIN'

The Cookin' n' sewin' teacher at the Burg has lost fifteen pounds since she began her summer's work. Any one can lose the same amount. No cutting down on diet is required, no setting up exercises at morning or night, in fact I guarantee that two helpings at every meal and to bed at 8:30 every night will still not add any extra pounds. Do you want my formula? Well, here it is.

Monday. Arise at 6 or 6:30. Do the hundred and one things always to be done, as washing or darning stockings, writing letters or weaving 5 or 6 inches on my linen. From 9 to 11 o'clock teach a sewing class of from one to fourteen children, the number depending on the ripeness of the blackberries or the number of cases of measles, or the number of gardens to be hoed that morning!!! Everything from doll clothes to silk dresses are cut out and made. In the afternoon a cooking class is held for older women in the Burg. At this time of year canning is going on.

I wish you might see the lovely cans of beets, beans, carrots, rhubarb, spinach, etc., that are ready to exhibit at our fair this fall.

Tuesday. Arise at the usual hour. Pack my patterns, needles, tape measure, thread, scissors and a sandwich in my saddle bags, and if "Shot" is too busy to take me in the yellow truck I get Pink or Otha to saddle Lady and at 10 o'clock I ride off to Laurel Lick. Laurel Lick is fourteen miles distant from the Burg, but Lady can make it in two hours and that gives me plenty of time to rest under a big tree and eat my sandwich. If, when the class is over and I am not too tired and it is not too late, I take a jaunt a little out of my way to make calls. Sometimes I go part way up the Starkey Town road and then home by Canny Creek. Generally I arrive home just in time for supper. After a twenty-eight to thirty mile horse-back ride, besides teaching a class, two big helpings of potato salad and three or four slices of Aunt Lizzie's good bread and butter and raspberry jam only help to put me on my feet again!!!!

Wednesday morning I have off. Wednesday afternoon I mount Lady again and ride off to Cartertown, about four miles distant, to teach a sewing class. Often times I get home in time from Cartertown to take a cooling dip in the river.

BARBARA DEWELL

Thursday. Up before the usual hour as I must be in the Sugarlands in time for a cooking class at 8 o'clock. Riding along on a beautiful horse in the cool of the morning is about one of the most pleasant things a person can do, and remember all this while those extra pounds are slipping away!!! Thursdays are always one of my pleasant days for I spend the day and night in the Sugarlands with Helen Chew and Cora McCarter. In the morning I have a cooking class of about fourteen young girls. In the afternoon I am supposed to have an adult sewing class, but very often the women are "hoein' their crap," or watching their bees and can't come so I take a walk, just to keep my muscles in trim, and call on them while they are at work.

Friday morning early I am up and on my way back to the Burg where I have a sewing class in the morning and one in the afternoon.

On Saturday and Sunday, if I feel I have not had enough exercise, during the week, a bunch of us will hike to Indian Gap Hotel or climb LeConte or ride horseback up Roarin' Fork or Baskins, or take a trip somewhere.

If you want to lose weight try this formula, but I'll tell you now that you will have the best time of your life doing it.

MOUNTAIN MOTHERS

By HELEN CHEW

The tragic and the beautiful in the life of the mountain women, mothers of the present generation, are so mingled as to escape the superficial observer and bring only an impression of indifference and inertia to the passer-by. The unnatural self-control becomes dumb acquiescence and emotion once loosed transcends all bonds.

The woman of fifty or more is the last of the pioneers who fought with Nature for life and hearth. Experience has taught her the lesson of quiet acceptance of life. The new will pass her by. But the young, in whom an awakening to the possibilities of the material world is coming, are straining every nerve to adjust themselves to a situation which demands sterling character and pure blood. Slaves of environment in the past, they become products of inheritance in the future. The younger woman presents a problem which may be tragic or not in its solution. The older woman, for whom the give and take of life is nearly passed, has back of her years filled with all the tragic and beautiful possible to cram into one existence.

Not all mountain women can be pigeon-holed. There are those whose natures are so simple, to whom spiritual and material needs are so few that they give and receive little. There are those who suffer and know not why; there are those who suffer and know. As in all places there is every degree from the poverty of shiftlessness, to the cleanliness of richly endowed natures. It is always the exceptional that makes the impression. The typical is difficult to recognize. And yet if beauty comes through sacrifice and service in losing oneself in the life of others, in asking or taking nothing for self that others may have, in finding something to love where others see only the brute, then the life of the average mountain woman is beautiful. If the tragic lies in the suppressed and trampled existence, the silent acquiescence of the mountain mother can hardly be surpassed.

The past history of mountain life is filled with such stories of fidelity and sacrifice. Yet the present is not lacking entirely in opportunities to throw into relief against a background of seeming mediocrity, characters which almost fill one with awe.

About two months ago in the Sugarlands a tragedy was repeated that is fast becoming almost a legend in local history. No story of mountains has been complete without an atmosphere of liquor and it has formed the background of comedy and tragedy alike. The result can be nothing but tragic as long as one of the basic institutions of a community is the whisky still. If the result is not neglect, poverty or crime, the undermining of moral fiber is so apparent that each generation comes into the world less able to bear the strain of mere existence.

Perhaps no family in the Sugarlands shows the ravages of this hereditary cause more than the Huskeys. Seven generations ago there settled in this community one known as Old Uncle Billy Huskey. From that day to this the offspring of this progenitor has found its way into half the present homes. One generation ago four brothers became the heads of as many homes, and fathers of large families who form a large per cent of the citizenry today. They are supposed to have mated with the Indians in early days, adding a lawless defiance to an already adventurous blood. Stories of mental and physical wrecks dot their history.

One of these brothers, Aaron Huskey, married Nancy McCarter, the daughter of an old fashioned Baptist preacher. Though narrow and no doubt ignorant, her home atmosphere had been one of pious devotion and restraint. Aaron made liquor.

No doubt she knew it, but attached very little importance to it. It meant the usual line of action to her, and the question of inheritance in her own children was not a part of the social conscience. Liquor and men were synonymous and the question of mating had nothing to do with it. That the question of rearing children had a good deal to do with it has taken her forty years to find out, years that would have crushed any but one from the sturdy Scotch of pioneer days. A number of children were born into that home, some with the McCarter turn, some with the Huskey, but all followed the same path until childhood and youth were past. If they could then rise above their inheritance, all right, if not they went down. So far one has risen. That some of them were girls did not protect them and the first one to go down was Mary, about six years ago. A pretty girl, as beauty goes, but married to a man with an intemperate nature she went down and down. This is the mother's story and the details of Mary's life would only lay bare the ugliness of a life that could hardly escape its fate. She died a young woman from the terrible effects of alcohol, leaving three boys, one of whom is in the Gatlinburg school today. Following in close succession came the father, a son, Bruce, and this summer, Will.

Aaron, the father, carried a slight limp from early days, when one night the revenue men surprised him at his still. This meeting did not influence the use of liquor in the home, which was poured out at the family table like milk. Though never cruel or neglectful, Nancy used to dread his return from gatherings where men passed the bottle. All this was expected of women and to rebel was disloyal and the mark of the "no 'Count."

Thirty years of it finally came to an end when one morning, while sitting before the fire, his heart could bear the strain of the constant stimulant no longer and he fell to the floor.

To know the deliberate waste of vitality and intelligence made the mother's sorrow no easier, but the need of her family gave her poise and control almost superhuman. The old people of the settlement called it a judgment from God when following Aarons' death the land which had been purchased with money earned from the illicit selling of liquor, was taken from them in payment of a debt incurred through the dishonesty of a son-in-law. Nancy was given a homestead right to the place, but at her death the younger children would be homeless. Her only hope now is to live until the youngest, a girl of thirteen, is provided for.

Punishment and suffering have limits beyond which there is no feeling. As if to give a final kick to make more complete the defeat of hope, hardly another year passed until Bruce was brought home one Sunday night and the following morning taken to the little graveyard on the hill. Bruce, in his ignorance, had many times told an old woman who tried to show him his mistakes, that he could not escape. No power on earth could save him, he said. He was the next oldest and night after night the mother prayed for the good Lord to take him before he followed his father's footsteps. As if in answer to her prayer he fell from a footlog into the river and the fall upon the rocks was fatal. As soon as the liquor died within him he died.

Again the mother prayed that Jim would never return from the war unless his eyes could be opened in the big world outside to a larger life of usefulness. But Jim came back a comfort to her older years and life seemed to settle down for her into something resembling peace. Now and again a woman suffers as much as Nancy Huskey has and comes out refined and beautiful in character. On a casual acquaintance it appears a lack of feeling, a makeup which can not be touched, and in a way it is for Nature has a way of protecting against that which kills. But a closer friendship reveals the mask of sheer will power and faith in the Divine will and purpose of God, which cannot be destroyed. Not a sound escapes, or physical control shaken, but a suffering too deep for words can sometimes distort the peace of her features when she mentions her lost ones. Just to go and sit with her is to come away refreshed and strengthened for you know that here is a woman who has suffered to the uttermost and lives. After much persuasion she began to learn to write and for the first time in her life she could read the addresses on letters left in the mail box. In her halting way she could send messages to those of her children away. She read the life of Lincoln and Washington in simple form and came to night school when we had lantern slides of foreign countries. She even looked happy and you felt she was.

But life had more in store for her as if to eke out a punishment for an intentional crime of hers. Everyone knew Will had made liquor and was making it now. All summer when runs would be made the whole population of the settlement made daily visits to his cabin. It was no secret, but no man would deliberately inform upon another. Twice this spring the authorities made unsuccessful searches at his cabin. All it needed was the word which all men know was justified to get the case in court. Had this been done he would have been alive today. His mother pleaded with him and his brother Jim tried to influence him, but to no avail. He and his wife both started to night school and those interested in the case began to have hope. He had the finest head for mathematics in the group. Just turned thirty, six feet tall, yellow hair combed back from a high, broad forehead, and when sober, eyes of clear blue. At times his appearance was remarkable. You were impressed with the power locked up or finding expression in such a devastating manner. One stood almost in awe of him and any man in the Sugarlands could have been approached with more ease.

The weeks during which he made off a run of liquor showed a noticeable falling off of attendance at night school. It was becoming a contest which could hold out the longer. He was beginning not to come so regularly himself. One Tuesday five came to school in various stages of intoxication, an unprecedented event. It was either the school or the still. His brother Jim suggested that, with his mother's help the facts be laid before him, in such a way as to make him realize he was undoing all the good any institution, church or school, could do. The sharpness of his intellect made it necessary to be armed with more than sentiment. One needed facts and his unapproachable nature made this difficult.

The next Saturday he sat flushed and bleary eyed outside the store house and about six o'clock he staggered home. Just before dark a party of young men passed on their way to the Huskey cabin. The next morning the tragedy was discovered. A quarrel had developed over the pay for the liquor involved. When Williamson left the house Will followed him out into the yard. The quarrel continued and Williamson's rock struck him in the head, laying open an ugly wound. Without the liquor in him he would no doubt have died instantly, but it was not until about five o'clock next morning that he lost consciousness. He went like Bruce, with a crushed skull from a rock. And like Bruce, when the liquor died in him he died. They were both too young yet to meet their father's fate. They were not given a chance to see how long their physical bodies could stand the strain.

No words can describe the calmness of the mother as she sat there beside the bed or the excruciating pain which distorted her face when his body was laid to rest. Not a sound did she make, but a few tears fell down her cheek.

In the presence of the whole community Jim stood up and called the people to bear witness to the awful toll that liquor had taken from their family. He pleaded with fathers and mothers to make a stand against the curse of the mountain country. He pointed to his mother as an example of those upon whom the suffering is placed and cursed any man who would give the two younger boys left under his mother's roof a drink of the ruinous liquor. Raising his arms to the heavens, in the manner of preachers of bygone days, he invoked the mercy of God on his brother's soul, whom no man can judge.

Nothing but a power outside human understanding could help that mother lift her head again. But she lives on, hoeing her corn after the manner of mountain women, going to meeting and reading the Bible, out of which her father preached to the mountain people of the past generation.

WHAT MICHIGAN BETA DID

The Settlement School Committee wishes to bring to the attention of all active chapters the splendid work done by Michigan B as described in the following letter:

My Dear Miss Bishop:—

I am enclosing a check for a hundred and thirty-two dollars ($132.00) as Michigan Beta's contribution to the Settlement School fund. There are forty-four members including pledges, and we each earned three dollars. We earned this money by utilizing our individual talents.

One of the girls made waffles on Sunday morning for fifty cents each; another gave water waves and manicures; an ingenious sophomore interpreted dreams; our artist to be, who really has remarkable talent, drew charcoal portraits; beads, dresses, fur coats, and shoes were rented. Everything in the house became commercialized!

In actually working together we have come to appreciate the real spirit of our Settlement School.

ELEANOR VERDIER, Chairman of Committee

BOOK NOTES

BY

DOROTHY K. CLEAVELAND,
NEW YORK  $\Gamma$ State Teachers College,
Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

"G. Stanley Hall: A Biography of a Mind", by Lorine Pruette (Mrs. Douglas Fryer, Tenn. A). New York D. Appleton & Co. 1926.

Apparently the truth of the old adage that truth is stranger than fiction is appealing more and more to both authors and readers if one can judge by the great increase in biographical writing and the fact that the new biographies often attain the status of "best sellers."

Among the outstanding recent books of this class is "G. Stanley Hall: A Biography of a Mind," by Lorine Pruette. President Hall was a unique and gigantic figure in the educational world. In Miss Pruette's interpretation, we have a most fascinating psychological study of both the man and his work, one which will be read with interest not only by educators and psychologists, but also by all interested in the life of a great contemporary. The author was privileged to be one of President Hall's graduate students at Clark University, attending his lectures and seminars, and after that, visiting him frequently and keeping in close touch with him until his death in 1924, so that she had ample opportunity to know her subject, and the book is warmed by the enthusiasm of a disciple.

The story of the man is dramatic in itself, the country boy who became a leader in the new science of psychology, author of such standard books as "Adolescence," founder of the first psychological laboratory, and builder of Clark University, Worcester, Mass. Twice he saw his life work destroyed by those unable to appreciate his vision; twice he saw his home life disrupted, once by death, once by a tragedy even greater. But this biography is more than the story of the outer events of his life; it is a real interpretation and appreciation of the complex spirit of the man.

Of added interest to Pi Phi readers is the fact that another student of Pres. Hall, Dr. Carolyn Fisher, referred to several times in the volume, is a member of Illinois B.

Two chapters were reprinted in the American Review for Jan.-Feb. and May-June 1926 under the titles "The Adolescence of Genius" and "The Religion of G. Stanley Hall."

Lorine Pruette is also the author of numerous magazine articles. The latest one to date is on Harriet Beecher Stowe in the Bookman (N.Y.) September 1926. Mrs. Stowe is of special interest just now because of the recent dedication of her bust in the Hall of Fame of New York University. It is a decidedly new view of the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which Miss Pruette depicts.

Miss Pruette has been recently in Paris where she was working on a novel.

"If Today Have No Tomorrow," by Olive Gilbreath, Michigan B. New York, Dutton, 1926.

There is a real treat in store for the readers of "If Today Have No Tomorrow," by Olive Gilbreath. The story, laid in Russia during the Revolution of 1917, is a distinct contribution to our literature of contemporaneous Russia. With the vivid picture of the destruction of all that was fine in the Slav civilization is combined an absorbing psychological study of two diametrically opposed and warring natures. The same eerie sense of mysticism pervades this book that is felt in another story of Russia during the war, Walpole's "The Dark Forest".

Michael Acar, the hero, unites in himself Anglo-Saxon solidarity with Slavic love of pleasure. In his own words, "Until nearly two hundred years ago I was English. For two hundred years I have lived in Russia. What do you think I am—English or Russian?" In the beginning he is Briton without question, but under the strain of overwhelming catastrophe even the English blood could not withstand the insidious poison of the Russian atmosphere. Separated from his fiancée, a beautiful Georgian girl whom he met in England, deprived of everything which made life of value, he was finally drawn into the toils of the decadent and voluptuous society which followed the destruction of all the best in the old Russian civilization and in which today had no tomorrow. Even though he finally had the strength to throw off the bonds which held him, it was only to have love turn to tragedy.

This vivid picture of Russian life could only have been written by one who had unusual opportunities to become acquainted with it, such as Miss Gilbreath had. She was on her way to Russia in 1914 when the war broke out. She saw old Russia in its splendor in Moscow, St. Petersburg, and other cities. She was entertained on such country estates as she describes, and she knew intimately members of old aristocratic Russian families.

A Russian friend wrote Miss Gilbreath "As a person who has lived through the Revolution—the very days and almost on the very ground which you depict . . . may I offer you my congratulations and my gratitude for what I believe a permanent contribution to Russia's record." One reviewer compares "If Today Have No Tomorrow" in its picture of the revolution to Carlyle's classic on the French revolution.

Some ARROW readers may remember that her experiences in Russia early in the war were the basis for an earlier success, "Miss Amerikanka," the story of an American girl in Russia and Siberia.

Olive Gilbreath is a graduate of Wellesley, '05, and obtained her M.A. degree at the University of Michigan, where she became a member of Pi Beta Phi.

"Etiquette at College. By Nellie Ballou. Handy Book Corporation, Harrisburg, Penn. $2.00.

The three hundred and fifty pages which Nellie Ballou has devoted to Etiquette at College are filled with information which a high school graduate entering college desires to know. It gives in detail the correct procedure in collegiate affairs; in classroom, dormitory, athletics and society; on campus, conveyance and street. For instance, it describes how one should act when traveling on a Pullman from following the porter to the berth, to tipping him.

"It tells you what to eat on a bacon bat, how to try out for a play, how to pick a fraternity. It takes you off the campus, into stores, hotels and theatres. It tells you how to referee a game. It is precipitously up-to-date: it tells you what to wear on a flying trip."

The book is written in a clear, understandable style and is a splendid gift for a sub-freshman or for those already enrolled in college.

The Century magazine for September 1926 carries an article by Florence Finch Kelly, Kansas A, entitled "The Future of the Family. Is it about to be sent to the rubbish-heap." In it she discusses the socializing and communizing effects of the present day tendencies on the foundation stone of our present civilization. It is a thought-provoking study.

"Co-Ed", by Olive Deane Hormel. Charles Scribner's Sons. N. Y. $2.00.

"Co-Ed" written by Olive Deane Hormel, Delta Gamma, is the most accurate account of present day college life in a large mid-western university that has come to the Editor's desk.

The background is unmistakably that of the University of Illinois and is a most inviting and interesting one. Miss Hormel's descriptions of the campus, equipment and general atmosphere make the reader want to enroll at once in that institution.

The author presents through "Co-Ed" a detailed panorama of a young woman's life in the university during the entire four years. The divisions of the novel—Enchantment, Disillusion, Readjustment, Romance and Realization bring out vividly the various stages of her development.

This novel written from first-hand information is a cross-section of fraternity life on a large campus and shows the relations between the men and women under the co-educational system.

"Co-Ed" unlike many of the stories of campus life today has real literary merit and has paved the way for future successes of the author.

PI PHI RELATIVES

Edited by FLORENCE TAYLOR SHIELDS,

Box 1178, Aberdeen, S. Dak.

CHARLES RUSSELL—Cousin of Virginia Mead, Wisconsin A, is an eminent painter of western scenes. His pictures have won recognition abroad as well as in the United States and one of them has recently been purchased by the Prince of Wales.

ROBERT J. COLLINS—Father of Joan Collins, Columbia A, is on the executive staff of the Chicago Civic Opera Association.

HARLEY V. SPEELMAN—Uncle of Margaret Gilliland Moore, Florida A, is the registrar of the treasury of the United States, having been appointed to that position by President Harding whose friend he had been from early manhood when both were Ohio newspaper editors. The name of Mr. Speelman appears on all United States currency from the one dollar bill to the ten thousand dollar gold certificate.

JUDGE SUMMERFIELD—Father of Jeanne Summerfield, California F, is a prominent judge of Los Angeles. •

MRS. MARGARITA SPALDING GERRY—Mother of Marjorie Gerry Gallman and Phillippa Gerry, Columbia A, is a short story writer. Among her works are "The Toy Shop," "Five Administrations," and "Book of Hospital Stories."

LYMAN L. BRYSON—Husband of Hope Mesereau Bryson, Missouri B and Michigan B, is an extension lecturer for the University of California on International Politics. He is a regular contributor to Atlantic Monthly and New Republic and also writes fiction. Mr. Bryson was formerly connected with the University of Michigan. During the war he did Red Cross work in Washington and afterwards served for some time in Paris. Mrs. Bryson is an accomplished artist whose work has received considerable recognition.

RIGHT REVEREND JOHN CHANDLER WHITE—Father of Katherine White, Wisconsin A, is Bishop of Springfield, Illinois. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from St. Stephens College, New York, and also a degree from the general seminary of New York.

DAVID DAY WHITNEY—Cousin of Margaret S. Jeffords, Vermont A, is professor of Zoology at the University of Nebraska. His name appears in Who's Who of America because of his prominence in zoological work. Mr. Whitney received his A.B. degree from Wesleyan University, Connecticut, and his A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Columbia. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Xi.

EDITORIALS

Pi Beta Phi as a national organization standing for the highest ideals and aims and for the development of splendid womanhood does not tolerate smoking and drinking. Smoking by members is not allowed in our chapter houses and members who persist in smoking in public places are subject to dismissal.

At the national Convention held at Bigwin Inn, June 1925, the following was adopted:

"That to the compulsory house rules be added the rule that no man coming to the chapter house or attending any fraternity function when under the influence of intoxicating liquor to any extent whatever, be allowed to return during the current term or semester."

High Ideals

In these days of seeming laxness it is interesting to know the following which appears on the menu of the Grove Park Inn, an excellent resort hotel in Asheville, North Carolina:

"Ladies are requested not to smoke in the public rooms. We do not make this request with any inclination to be critical. It is simply a rule that has been observed ever since the Inn was built and we believe conforms to the feelings of the majority of our household."

There are some individuals today who accept smoking and drinking as part of their personal liberty. The arrow is fashioned for those of another turn of mind. Its wearers must conform to "the feelings of our household."

The following resolution passed by the Kappa Alpha Theta Convention merits the attention of all members of women's fraternities: "Inasmuch as the word fraternity is derived from fra-ternitas, an abstract feminine Latin noun, meaning brotherhood, applying to both men and women, and inasmuch as there is no corresponding Latin word derived from soror, be it resolved that we avoid sorority, an incorrect word, and instruct freshmen to this effect."—Oct ARROW 1916.

Chapter papers have come to the Editor's desk from chapters in Beta Province and from Indiana Delta. These papers are interesting, attractive and show a great deal of originality. Ohio

Chapter Papers Delta calls her publication a Spring Bulletin; Pennsylvania Beta's Arrowette is a Founders' Day number; Ohio Alpha displays a St. Patrick's Day Journal; Pennsylvania Delta has a Commencement Number; West Virginia Alpha's news shines forth through the May Day Sun; and Ohio Beta broadcasts through a news bulletin. The Tiny Arrow of Indiana Delta is snappy and to the point! The work of artists and journalists portrayed in these chapter papers is exceedingly interesting both to national officers and alumnae.

Illinois Zeta has a very fine plan which might be tried in other chapter houses. One room of the chapter house is fitted

Town Girls' Room up and reserved for the use of the town girls who can drop in and rest, dress for a party, or have a quiet study hour between classes. The town girl is just as interested in the chapter house as the girl who lives there and very often she contributes most generously to the house fund. With the arrangement which Illinois Zeta has, the town girl feels at home in the chapter house and has a nook and corner which she can really call her own.

It was with great regret that the resignation of Olive Keller Laurence, Grand Vice President, was accepted by the fraternity.

Resignation of Grand Vice President She has served the fraternity faithfully and well during the past years and brought to her office the enthusiasm of one well-versed in every phase of fraternity work.

Through her influence many progressive ideas have been adopted by both active chapters and alumnae clubs. She will continue her contact with Pi Beta Phi through the Miami Alumnae Club.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF TREASURER OF SETTLEMENT SCHOOL

CONTRIBUTIONS for the Settlement School from active chapters and alumnæ clubs from May 1, 1925 to June 30, 1926 are listed below. The fiscal year has been changed to end June 30, so all such gifts should reach the Settlement School treasurer by June 15 to avoid a last minute rush. Chapter and club treasurers please remember that checks should be sent direct to your Province Vice President, who will forward them to the Settlement School treasurer. Start them early! Last year many chapters and clubs sent their contributions in two payments, and this helped materially to finance the School. No money had to be borrowed during the entire year.

ETHEL R. CURRYER, Treasurer.

A); Ruth Annette Sloane (Ind. A); Helen Thompson (Iowa B); and Mrs. A. A. Turnquist (Marion Gerkh, Ill.  $\Delta$ ).

Two summer meetings have been held: one a luncheon at the home of Florence McDewitt; and the other a picnic at the N. F. Russell home on the Lake Shore.

We are to hold our meetings on the first Saturday of each month from September until June. Although the club is small we intend to do our "bit" for the Settlement School and for  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

RUBY BURTNESS OLNSTEAD.

MIAMI ALUMNAE CLUB.

Last fall due to the efforts of Mrs. Everett and Mrs. H. H. Freidlund, the Pi Phis of Miami had the first alumnae meeting. During the summer a few of the girls had been hostesses to the Panhellenic Association in the name of  $\Pi B \Phi$ . From the first our meetings were enriched by the strengthening influence of Mrs. Phil Laurence, who at that time was our National Vice President and Miss Vida Peene, Alpha Province President.

We met twice a month—on the first and third Mondays. Usually our meetings were in the form of luncheons at some attractive tea room or hotel. Later the girls took turns entertaining the members in their own homes. This was truly delightful. After lunch we played bridge or enjoyed swimming.

Our Founders' Day Luncheon was very pretty. It was held at the Coral Gables Country Club. We had a charming musical program, several toasts and two especially interesting talks by Mrs. Laurence and Miss Mabel Abbot on the Settlement School. Our favors were  $\Pi B \Phi$  handkerchiefs ordered from one of the Oklahoma alumnae clubs.

We have helped the girls from Florida A and Florida B raise money for their new chapter houses.

The average attendance at our meetings is twenty. We all love Little Pigeon and are looking forward to making that love a material help. I cannot close without mentioning the delightful visitors we have had from all over the country. Surely our club should be a broad-minded one.

Now that we have our charter we intend to make the Miami Alumnae Club a credit to our lovely city and our beloved National organization of  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

SALEM, OREGON, ALUMNAE CLUB.

On Founders' Day of this year, eight Pi Phis living in and near Salem met and had dinner together. We decided to organize a Salem Alumnae Club and to petition for a charter as soon as we could meet the necessary requirements. Three of the Corvallis Alumnae girls came down in May and gave us many good ideas and in June we had twelve enthusiastic girls signed up and we immediately elected officers and sent in our dues. Bernice Scott Humphreys (Ill. B), was elected president; Genevieve Frazier Anderson (Ore. B), secretary; and Eloise Prudhomme (Ore. A), treasurer.

We will meet monthly at the various homes, and expect to renew our old Pi Phi spirit, and we are so near both Oregon chapters that we expect to help the girls as well as the Settlement School.

We had a very nice rushing tea just before college opened last month at the home of Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, to which we invited several girls planning on entering college this fall, and also some girls who will not go until next year, but whom we wish to know better and keep in touch with.

We are planning on having a joint meeting with the Corvallis Alumnae Club in the near future.

GENEVIEVE FRAZIER ANDERSON.

THE WEST SUBURBAN ALUMNAE CLUB.

The members of the West Suburban Alumnae Club had been holding meetings for some years, but had not petitioned for a charter as such until after a meeting at which Miss Guthrie and Mrs. Beck were present and there was a thorough discussion of conditions. They both spoke in favor of an organization separate from the Chicago Club in which we had no active part. Every one there greatly favored the plan.

On April 17, 1926 at the home of Mrs. Carpenter, the name was decided upon and officers elected. The petition was signed by all the seventeen in attendance. It was decided to hold regular meetings on the third Saturday of each month and special meetings with the Chicago Club.

Since then three meetings have been held. The meeting on May 15 was devoted to a discussion of the constitution and a committee appointed by the president to draft a constitution to suit the local needs of our club.

On Tuesday, May 25, a special luncheon was held and the afternoon spent in making pajamas for the Settlement School, a request for which we had had at the previous meeting. Six pairs were completed.

On Saturday, June 19, we had four Pi Phi guests present, two La Grange girls home from Knox and two alumnae friends from Galesburg. The local constitution was read for approval and the most important points thoroughly discussed.

IN MEMORIAM

BARBER, MARION JEANETTE, New York B, '14, passed away April 6, 1926.

CRAWFORD, ALLEYNE, died of tuberculosis in February, 1926, just a few months after her initiation into  $\Pi B \Phi$  by Colorado A.

HINMAN, IDA, Iowa A, '72, died in New York City on Jan. 31, 1926 at the age of 75 years. Her initiation by the chapter at Iowa Wesleyan took place in 1870, and she was well known even today at Mount Pleasant although her home has been in New York for a number of years where she had followed a literary career, her work being chiefly religious in nature.

Miss Hinman lived at one time in Washington, D. C., where she enjoyed the acquaintance of many of those in the public eye. Among the songs which she has written are, "I Shall Know My Mother's Face in Heaven," "I Found Him Among the Living," and "Song of Heaven."

HOLEMAN, MARCELLA ELLIS, of New York  $\Delta$ , died May 24, 1926.

LAWRENCE, GRACE, passed away on August 6, 1926 in a hospital in Chicago where she underwent a surgical operation for appendicitis. Death resulted from peritonitis.

Grace was born and reared in Athens, Ohio. She attended Athens High School and graduated from Ohio University, where she became a much loved member of Ohio A, class of '21.

For the last two years Grace had been supervisor of art in the schools of Warren, and resigned her position to accept a more responsible position at the head of the art department in the schools of Beckley, W. Va. She was in Chicago for the summer pursuing graduate studies in art in the University of Chicago when taken ill.

Grace's willing and lovable disposition endeared her to all; her passing at such an early age touched most keenly the hearts of all who knew her. We extend our deepest sympathy to the family in this our mutual bereavement.

DE LA MATER, MRS. S. T., (MAY A. MERRITT), born in Springfield, Mo., July 5, 1896, died there July 6, 1926, while visiting her parents.

May's unexpected death came as a great shock to her family and friends, for her short illness, though serious, had not prepared them for it. Her husband, who had expected to spend his vacation here later, was called much earlier by the sad news of her passing. Besides her husband, she is survived by two small sons, her parents, two brothers, and a Pi Phi sister, Mildred, all of whom have our sincerest sympathy in their great loss.

May entered Drury College in the fall of 1914 and was initiated in  $\Pi B \Phi$  in the spring of 1915. She was loved and admired by all throughout her four years in college, her joyous and energetic nature endearing her to both faculty and students alike. She was a most loyal and enthusiastic member of Pi Phi, and took an active part in all college activities, especially in Y. W. C. A., Girl's Glee Club, and Woman's League. She received her B.A. degree in absentia since she was in Washington where she had been called after volunteering for war work. She served in the Ordnance Department of the U. S. Army from March 11, 1918 to December 16, 1919. After this time she did other government work before returning to her home to spend some time before her marriage on June 22, 1921 to Major Stephen T. De La Mater of Washington, D. C.

MAY MERRITT DE LA METER

After her marriage, May made her home in Washington. She was a devoted mother and wife, her joy and pride in her family were great, and to her husband and children, she was a perfect mixture of wife, mother and good pal. Her interests were many and varied. Always an enthusiastic worker for Pi Phi, she took a great interest in the Washington Alumnae Club with which she became affiliated. She was president for two years of Peck Chapel, a Mission School of the Church of the Covenant in Washington. With all her home and social duties she still found time for the outdoor life she loved so much. To swim, ride horseback, play golf, or go on hikes with her husband were her great delights. Always a good sport, her ability to see the humorous side of a situation, coupled with her keen wit and humor made her a priceless companion.

MATHER, MRS. E. O. (MARY WELLS), Michigan A, died April 16, 1926 following an illness of several months. Mary Annette Wells was born October 6, 1875 at Cambria, Mich. Graduating from the North Adams high school in 1894 she went to Hillsdale College, taking the degree of Ph.B. and Pd.B. in 1902. On April 17, 1907 she was married to the Rev. E. O. Mather who at the time of her death was pastor of the M. E. church at Lyons, Mich. Besides her husband, two children, George V. and Grace A., two step-children, two sisters and six brothers survive her.

MONIER, SARAH M., Illinois Z, '02, died at her home at 712 West Church St., Champaign, Ill., last April. She was initiated January 3, 1899.

NOBLE, MRS. ROSS (DELLA FISKE), of Indianola, Iowa, died July 21, 1926 following an operation for appendicitis. She was initiated into Iowa B in 1878, a member of the class of 1882. Her three daughters, Bessie M., Anna Mary, and Effie Nobel Smith are also initiates of Iowa B.

PARR, MRS. LYNN (MILDRED WOODRUFF), charter member of Oregon A chapter, passed away June 29, 1926, in Portland, Oregon, after two years of illness. She entered college in 1915 and during her four years was a prime factor in the upbuilding of the Oregon A chapter. In 1919 she married Lynn Parr, a college classmate, who is now superintendent of schools at Coquille, Ore. Besides her husband and little son Gordon, she leaves her mother, father and two brothers.

Mildred was one of the chapter's most loyal and enthusiastic sisters, and even during her long illness her interest never failed. Her hopefulness and the serenity of her outlook on life were an inspiration to all her friends. She never mentioned her illness except when she made plans to be carried out after her recovery. Her abiding faith is shown in one of her last acts, that of having her Bible rebound for her little son. To her sorrowing family we extend our deepest sympathy and love.

PHILLIPPI, MRS. J. O. (MARY LOUISA TAYLOR), a member of I. C. at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, died in San Diego, Calif., on January 24, 1926 within one week of her seventy-second birthday. She was born in Birmingham, Iowa, January 31, 1854. Her initiation into I. C. Sorosis at Iowa Wesleyan took place in 1872. At the age of nineteen she was married to James O. Phillippi and went to live in Plattsmouth, Nebr., later moving to Lincoln, then Chicago, and then to Topeka. Since 1888 she lived in Omaha, Nebr., until June 1925 when her husband retired from service with the Union Pacific Railway Co., they then moving to San Diego, Calif. In 1923 they celebrated their Golden Wedding, just 33 years after the celebration of her parents' Golden Wedding.

Her husband and four daughters remain to mourn her death. Mrs. Ruth E. Sparling and Mrs. Frank M. Wilkins (Iowa A, '08), of St. Paul, Minn., Mrs. Elwood T. Bailey and Mary K. Phillippi (Iowa A '14), of San Diego, Calif., also two sisters: Mrs. Addie E. Hover of Minneapolis and Mrs. Sed. Taylor of San Diego, and two brothers, M. M. Taylor, Yakima, Wash., and John S. Taylor, Laurel, Ore.

"Her life had been beautiful in every respect. She was a Christian of rare faith and experience. The home that she and Mr. Phillippi had made was the center of most genuine hospitality; not only was her life beautiful, but even her death is just a step over into the next world to await the coming of her family. She was laid beside her own father and mother, and an infant daughter, in Forest Home cemetery, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, as was her wish."

REED, MRS. R. (MINNIE ROACH) died very suddenly in a hospital in New York City from double pneumonia on May 26, 1926.

She graduated from the Athens High School. At Ohio University she became a member of Ohio A, '96. Most of her time after leaving college was devoted to teaching. Her first position was in Mt. Sterling and from there she went to the Philip-pines. At the time of her death and for some years prior Mrs. Reed was on the faculty of the Seward Park Junior high school of New York City.

Π B Φ wishes not only to extend its sincere sympathy to her sisters, but also to express its own deep sense of loss.

FLORENCE PORTER ROBINSON, Wisconsin A. Π B Φ, as well as the family and friends of Florence Porter Robinson, suffered a distinct loss in her death on Wednesday, July 14, 1926, at the Mount Sinai Hospital in Milwaukee. Miss Robinson had not been in the best of health for some months, but her serious illness and death came as a surprise and shock to her friends.

She was always keenly interested in Pi Phi, and was intensely loyal throughout her whole life. She took an active part in the alumnae club to which she happened to belong and gave so wholeheartedly of her knowledge of Pi Phi that she was an inspiration to all of those with whom she came in contact, and her clever wit and humor added greatly to any gathering she attended. Miss Robinson was elected ARROW Editor at the Sixteenth Biennial Convention in Boulder in 1899 and served a brilliant editorship for ten years, being the first ARROW Editor to be a member of Grand Council. As the History says of her "Her brilliant editorials and reviews, sparkling with clear-cut wisdom and subtle humor, made the magazine a joy to its readers aside from its worth as a fraternity organ. Miss Robinson's personality, to a large extent, dominated the magazine, both inspirationally and practically. Many customs, long since regarded as characteristic of the ARROW, owe their inception to her wise planning." She also served for a time as the chaperon at the Pi Phi chapter house at the University of Wisconsin.

Florence Porter Robinson was born in Milwaukee in 1873, and was educated at the University of Wisconsin, where she was a member of Wisconsin A, Radcliffe College and the American School of Classical Studies in Rome, Italy. She took her Bachelor of Arts degree in 1893, and returned in 1895 to the University of Wisconsin to take her degree, Master of Arts. She taught in the University of Wisconsin, later in Lake Erie College and Beloit College, before returning again to the University of Wisconsin where she took the degree Doctor of Philosophy in 1925. Following this, illness in her family made it necessary for her to return to her home in Milwaukee and her own death followed in a few months that of the sister for whom she cared.

Miss Robinson was active in the American Association of University Women, Daughters of the American Revolution, City Club of Milwaukee, also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, American Home Economics Society and the American Historical Society. She was greatly interested in education and her will contained a bequest to the University of Wisconsin for the endowment of a chair of History, the incumbent to be a woman, this in memory of her father and a friend.

ΠΒΦ wishes here to extend to the family of Miss Robinson its sincere sympathy, and the expression of our feeling of loss of one who because of her personality, experience and loyalty was an invaluable member of the fraternity.

BESSIE M. WEIRICK.

YETTER, MRS. WILLIAM P. (BETTIE MOULTON), Colorado A, died at Grand Junction, Colo., on May 1, 1926, at the age of 26 years. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Moulton of Clifton, Colo., and before her marriage was a teacher in the schools of Grand Junction, Colo. Two years ago she was married to William Yetter, Jr., entomologist from the Colorado Agricultural College in charge of pest control work in the Grand river valley. Her husband, her parents, and an eight-pound baby boy born shortly before her death, survive her.

EPSILON PROVINCE VICE PRESIDENT

MRS. Frederic Bass (Lillian Leggett, Minnesota A), has been appointed Epsilon Province Vice President and brings to her office a wealth of enthusiasm for and understanding of the aims of Pi Beta Phi.

Mrs. Bass is this year president of the Minneapolis and St. Paul alumnae club and has always kept in touch with alumnae activities. Her interest in the active chapter work is maintained through her daughter, Elizabeth, who is a sophomore in the University of Minnesota and a member of Minnesota A. Mrs. Bass also has a son, Jason, who is a freshman in the engineering college of the same institution.

Lillian Leggett graduated from Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, in 1902. The next year she married Frederic Bass, a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who is at present the Head of the Civil Engineering Department at the University of Minnesota.

Mrs. Bass says that her family is her chief concern, then Pi Beta Phi, and then perhaps golf. She is a woman of splendid executive ability and is an excellent addition to the group of national province officers.

ALPHA PROVINCE

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

(Chartered December 11, 1908)

Pledge Day—November 12, 1926

The annual house party was held at Jackson's Point, between examinations and Convocation. Some of the alumnae were there for the whole time, and between golfing, tennis, riding and boating, house party proved a great success.

At Convocation 1926, six seniors graduated with flying colors thus making the ninth year of no failures and no conditions in the graduating year.

One change on the campus which will be noted by returning students is the almost completed School of Hygiene which will be finished by Christmas time. A new hockey arena will be ready for this winter's hockey matches, while a new story has been added to the Press Building.

Dorothy Brandon, Marion and Helen Appelbe, Katherine Ball, and Elsie McLaughlin have been on various tours to the British Isles and the continent. Katherine Ball and Elsie McLaughlin remained in England where they will attend Oxford University. It is expected that they will have acquired quite an accent during their sojourn there.

Owing to the increasing number of girls' camps, many Ontario Alphas have taken counsellingships in connection with these camps. Dae Lyons was a counsellor at Wapomeo, in Algonquin Park, while Margueretta Spence was head of the junior division of the same camp. Josephine Booth had the responsibility of guarding the younger members of Camp Bernard. Dorothy McMichael was looking after the children at Bolton Fresh Air Camp.

Both Evelyn Willmott and Mildred Wilkins were awarded senior Ts for basket ball.

Just now Ontario A is very busy preparing its new home for the opening of this college year. The chapter has taken an apartment in the new St. George Apartments quite near the campus. This new home is bright and roomy, looking out on the main quadrangle and St. George Street. Everyone is eagerly anticipating the cooky-shines to be held there.

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

(Chartered May 25, 1920)

Maine Alphas returned to college with a busy season ahead, with a short rushing period and a new system. Open rushing with preferential bidding is being introduced here this year. With an unusually large freshman class there are many fine prospects. Rushing was opened with an informal tea.

Women's fraternity houses are not permitted at Maine University, but  $\Pi\Phi$  has at last obtained permission to build a small house for meetings, parties and entertaining. The ground for the new home was broken October 4 and it is expected to be finished by Christmas time. It is hoped that this is a successful step toward a real chapter house where all the girls can live together.

Harold S. Boardman, a patron of  $\Pi\Phi$  is the new president of the University of Maine. He is very friendly to fraternities and interested in their activities.

GRADUATES

Virginia Aines, A.B., Kismet, Kan.

Madeline Dunn, A.B., Swanton, Vt.

Eleanor Frost, A.B., Amherst, Mass.

Elizabeth Howard, A.B., East Northfield, Mass.

Mary Moore, A.B., Canastota, N. Y.

Middlebury students are being allowed two new scholastic privileges this year. Seniors whose scholarship is sufficiently high may pursue courses independently on a modified Oxford plan. Juniors and seniors whose scholarship averaged eighty-five or above and whose names are approved by the dean are allowed unlimited cuts as long as they use this privilege judiciously. Chapel cuts are limited as before and cutting a class when a test is scheduled is not permissible.

An unique prize has been offered in the men's college, $500 to be awarded yearly to the man writing the best essay on the subject "The world does not owe me a living." Two fellowships have also been offered of $1,000 each to be given for graduate work to the man and woman of the graduating class who rank highest according to standards similar to those of the Rhodes Scholarships, based on literary and scholastic ability, qualities of character and athletic attainments. If the student receiving the fellowship desires to study abroad, the amount will be increased to $1,500. This graduate work may not be pursued in Middlebury or in any professional school.

Professor Morse of the Harvard 47 Workshop is taking charge of the Little Theatre movement at Middlebury this year.

Of Vermont A graduates last June, Eleanor Frost and Madeline Dunn received honors in French, and Mary Moore and Eleanor Frost received high honors in English.

Eleanor Manley was elected president of Student Government, and Edna Graham is treasurer of that organization. Alice Fales is editor-in-chief of the Saxonian, college literary publication. Seven  $\Pi\Phi$  girls were active in the entertainment given at the freshman reception.

Panhellenic rules regarding rushing have been changed slightly for the present season. During the first week of college, no fraternity pins were worn and calling on freshmen was allowed only when two or more fraternities were represented. This seemed to create a freer atmosphere and to make things simpler for both freshmen and upperclassmen.

The University of Vermont re-opened for the fall semester on September 15. Vermont B has thirty-one active members back in college this year, but regrets the loss of Ruth Dillingham, who was married during the summer; Dorothy Small, who has transferred to a western college; and Lois Tompkins, who has gone to New Hampshire State College for her sophomore year. The chapter is glad to welcome back into her ranks Josephine Halsey, who spent her junior year at Sweet Briar College in Virginia.

Much to the delight of all the chapter members, near the close of the second semester last spring, Vermont B moved from her two room apartment to one of six rooms. Some new furniture was donated by alumnae and chapter members. At Commencement time, Grace Goodhue Coolidge, an alumna of this university and a charter member of Vermont B, presented the chapter with a beautiful autographed portrait of herself. The new rooms are most attractive and all members are pleased with the new location.

According to a system established at the university a few years ago, upper classmen and sophomores are assigned a freshman girl called a Little Sister. The Big Sister aids the other in getting into the routine and spirit of college life. This method has proved helpful both to the freshmen and upper classmen, in that it is a great asset in getting acquainted.

Vermont B is well represented in campus activities. Charlotte Brown holds the office of chief justice, a new major office at Vermont. Della Martin, Lois Wright, and Alma Tyler are president, secretary, and treasurer respectively of the Student Government Association. Winifred Teachout is campus manager of hockey this fall. Elizabeth Billings is women's editor of the Ariel, the college yearbook. Lois Wright is president of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary and Winifred Teachout has just been elected president of the Home Economics Club. The chapter is represented by four members on the W. A. A. Council.

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY
(Chartered 1896)

Pledge Day—Undecided

Massachusetts A is once more in active operation in college and is full of enthusiasm for the new year. This is, however, not to be wondered at, because many of the girls enjoyed a  $\Pi \phi$  house party the week end just before college opened. Anyone who has ever been on a  $\Pi \phi$  house party knows the inspiration which comes from such a jolly gathering!

The enthusiasm of the girls is displayed not only in their studies and ordinary activities, but also in the anticipation of rushing. This year a radical change has been made at B. U., namely that open rushing from eight in the morning to eight at night is now the order in place of the closed rushing of the past year. It is also permissible to take the freshmen to the fraternity rooms, movies, and out riding, none of which was permitted before. Ordinarily the rushing period lasted five weeks, but now it is only three. For that reason the efforts will probably be more concentrated and the excitement a little keener.

Some of the girls who went to Europe this summer brought back favors for rushing which will be used for a Trip Abroad party. It is planned to give it on board a yacht, with the invitations in the form of passports, and the girls dressed in sailor suits. The entertainment will be representative of the various countries through which they are supposed to pass on the trip. Always on the lookout for novel ideas, the girls have hit upon the idea of giving a Coffee instead of a Tea. The event took place in September and was attended by representatives from all the other women's fraternities.

On October 5, Alice Waring, Louise Shannon and Helen Wigglesworth were initiated. Because the date fell on a college night, the initiation was followed by a supper and theater party instead of the customary banquet.

Hazel Bestick has been elected president of  $\Gamma\Delta$ , which is an organization of all the women students of the college. Dorothy Eyre is the new head of the Klatsch committee, so with her rests the success of a dance which is a big event of the season.

It is still rather early in the college year to have many reports of  $\Pi\Phi$  activities, but there is no reason why  $\Pi\Phi$  should not lead the women's fraternities this year just as she has in the past.

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1896)

Pledge Day—September 18, 1926

Syracuse University reopened for the fall semester on September 17. Many of the campus buildings have been repaired and improved, and a central heating system has been installed whereby all of the buildings will be heated from a central power plant. There is much enthusiasm in anticipation of the coming football season. With splendid material, Syracuse promises to have a very fine team this year.

Syracuse University welcomes Dr. Iva Lowther Peters, an alumna of this university, who has come here from Goucher College to act as dean of women.

New York A is well represented in campus activities. Marion Coleman is president of W. S. G. A., and Cornelia Piotrow is publicity chairman of the same organization. Edra Russell is chairman of the program committee for the all-university convocations, which take the place of chapel in Syracuse. Doris Whiting is chairman of the Big Sister committee of Y. W. C. A., and Edra Russell is chairman of the publicity committee. Virginia Morgan is women's editor of the Onondagan, the college yearbook, and Prudence Hawkins is an associate editor of the staff. Marion Clayton and Anna Lou O'Bryon are reporters on the Daily Orange, the university daily.

Louise Gray is manager of the women's basketball team, and Annette Hord is manager of the women's swimming team.

Last spring Larry Lawrence and Thelma Hord were awarded sports jackets, the highest athletic award for women. Louise Gray was awarded a block "S" for having earned the greatest number of athletic points.

Marion Coleman and Edra Russell were recently initiated into H H T, honorary senior women's society.

New York A regrets that two of its number, Fannie Matthews and Frances Keesecker, did not return to college this fall.

During the summer the chapter house was redecorated, and one of the living rooms was entirely refurnished.

This year the local Panhellenic ruled that rushing extend over a period of only six days. New York A is proud to announce that twelve splendid freshmen women are now wearing the  $\Pi\Phi$  pledge pin.

Study hall, under the supervision of the upperclassmen, will soon be instituted for the freshmen. In pursuing this policy the chapter expects all of its pledges to meet the fraternity scholarship requirements and to be eligible for initiation next semester.

VIRGINIA MORGAN.

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

(Chartered March 20, 1914)

Pledge Day—October 4, 1926

A new system of rushing has been established by Panhellenic at St. Lawrence University extending the time of rushing from ten days to two weeks and allowing each woman's fraternity four parties which do not conflict with each other. This new system is a great improvement over the former system.

Edith MacBirney and Viacita Franklin played the leading women's roles in the commencement play "The Importance of Being Earnest." Clementine Mills was chosen a member of Kalon, the senior women's honorary society. Margaret Stewart has been appointed manager of the women's tennis team.

Each year New York  $\Gamma$  awards a loving cup in memory of Aunt Julie Squires, one of the patronesses, to the girl who has done the most for the chapter. Last June it was awarded to Evelyn Rodee.

The Gunnison Memorial Chapel and the Hepburn Chemistry building were recently completed on the campus and plans for a women's dormitory are now being made. This will be the first women's dormitory to be built on the St. Lawrence campus. Owen D. Young recently presented the university with 150 acres of land which has been used for a golf course. A new  $\Sigma\Lambda E$  house which is being constructed will probably be completed in February.

LOIS W. STEPHENS.

NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day—October 16, 1926

This year opened with many changes in the women's executive staff. Miss R. Louise Fitch,  $\Delta\Delta\Delta$ , formerly dean of women at Whitman College, succeeded Dr. Georgia L. White as dean of women at Cornell. Frances Eagan, president of the W. S. G. A. in 1925, is now the assistant dean of women. Miss Virginia Frank, dean of women at the University of Kentucky last year, has just taken her new position as secretary of the Y. W. C. A. here. Already these three officers have won a place in the hearts of the women students.

The registration of the freshman class was unusually large this year, and the prospects for rushing are very encouraging. The preparation for each rushing party was assigned to a definite committee last spring, and the girls have returned with many original favors and ideas.

The first floor of the chapter house has been redecorated. The kitchen has been enlarged, and new curtains have been bought for the entire house.

Since the last chapter letter Elfrieda Pope has been awarded the recognition pin, which is given to that member of the freshman class attaining the highest academic scholarship for the year. Elizabeth Reamer's name was engraved on the loving cup, an honor which each year is given to the girl chosen as the most representative junior.

Frances Delamater has been appointed fire chief in Sage Hall, and has recently been elected assistant business manager of the Columns, the new literary magazine. Florine Glenn is a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet as chairman of the West Side Settlement House. She is also a member of the grandmother committee, a freshman advisory committee, and holds the position of secretary-treasurer in the Dixie Club.

Gretchen Fischer now holds the championship for high jump and second place for broad jump. Irene Moffat is the only woman on the editorial staff of the Civil Engineer, her college paper. She also received her crew numerals last spring. Elizabeth Lawson has been reelected manager of archery and has received her letter in that sport. She was recently elected vice president of the Dixie Club. Elizabeth Reamer is vice president of the Y. W. C. A., chairman of the freshman discussion groups, and has been appointed president of Wait House, a university house for freshman women. Margaret Gould and Alice Kloepfer are on the competition list for business manager and woman's editor of the Cornell Daily Sun, respectively.

PENNSYLVANIA ALPHA—SWARTHMORE COLLEGE

(Chartered 1892)

GRADUATES

- Elizabeth Colket, B.A., 43 Monroe Pl., Brooklyn, N. Y.
 Marjorie Macadam, B.A., Grant Ave., Kentmere, Wilmington, Del.
 Marjorie Mode, B.A., 2012 Boulevard, Wilmington, Del.
 Frances Pace, B. A., Ashton Heights, Va.
 Emilie Spear, B.A., 252 Barclay St., Flushing, Long Island, N. Y.
 Katharine Turner, B.A., 28 Monroe Pl., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Pennsylvania A began this year's activities with a most successful house party, held at Beach Haven, N. J. Fourteen Pi Phi's took advantage of this excellent opportunity to strengthen the spirit of cooperation in the chapter, and to acquire an extra supply of enthusiasm for rushing. Recreation was plentiful, in the form of swimming, crabbing, dancing, and beach parties. An informal meeting on the sand dunes concluded the week-end.

Swarthmore Panhellenic has decided upon open rushing for this season. No money is to be spent on freshmen, and all rushing is to take place on the campus. Dates may be made only one day ahead. Upperclass girls may not visit freshmen after seven-thirty in the evening. There is to be preferential bidding, the bids to be issued on Founders' Day.

The building of the women's fraternity lodges has not yet begun. As a result, Pennsylvania A is still confined to the limits of one small room. The general aspect however, and cheeriness of the place has been much improved by the addition of a new cabinet, and a rug, presented by last year's seniors and freshmen.

ΠΦ has a commendable share in campus activities. Lois Thompson is president of W. S. G. A. Margaret Somerville is freshman advisor, undergraduate representative of Y. W. C. A., and a member of the executive board of W. S. G. A. Lydia Turner is feature editor of the weekly periodical, and editor of the freshman girl's handbook. Ruth Longacre is assistant editor of the Swarthmore paper, while Katherine Rittenhouse and Sara-Chace Franklin are on the staff. Sarah Percy is captain of hockey, and Lily Tily and Mary Walton are members of the varsity hockey team. Catherine Emhardt is vice president of the sophomore class, and Elizabeth Ogden is secretary.

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1896)

INITIATES

(Initiated September 20, 1926)

Mary Elizabeth Evans, 320 First St., Jeanette, Penn.
 Gertrude Gochnaur, 233 E. 3rd St., Lewistown, Penn.
 Miriam Kline, 536 Columbia Ave., Lansdale, Penn.
 Elizabeth Sale, Brady Apts., Lewisburg, Penn.
 Thelma Showalter, Johnson Apts., Lewisburg, Penn.
 Helen Steinhilper, 155 E. 4th Ave., Roselle, N. J.

During the first two weeks of rushing at Bucknell, Pennsylvania B entertained her rushees at two informal bridge parties, a tea and a get-together luncheon, the latter being the big event of the week. The Panhellenic rules allow only two weeks of rushing for two hours each day, which necessitates much concentration.

A new institution on the campus this year is an infirmary for the men. The K Δ P house, which commands a splendid view of the campus and of the Susquehanna River, has been converted into a hospital. A doctor has been engaged by the university to be on duty all of the time and to attend the women patients (in the women's College infirmary), as well as the men. Bucknell has had an infirmary for her co-eds for some time, but until this year she has not provided for the welfare of her men.

In campus activities Π Φ is represented by Polly Belles, who is art editor of the Belle Hop, the college's comic magazine, and associate editor of L'Agenda, the junior year book; Fern McNeal, who is vice president of the local chapter of M Φ E and treasurer of Panhellenic; Helen McElravy, vice president of W. S. G. A. and Dorothy Riker, Helen Steinhilper and Sara Deck on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet.

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE

(Chartered 1903)

Pledge Day—November 3, 1926

Dickinson opened September 16 with an enrollment of 528, 139 of this number being women. The campus was especially beautiful and there were several improvements. Last June the class of 1901 erected on the west side of Old West new steps which correspond to those on the east side, and the class of 1906 presented a new gate. During the summer bronze plates bearing the names were placed on all the trees, thus enabling the students to become better acquainted with the many varieties found on the campus.

The only real change in the curriculum this year is that Dickinson has joined the rank of colleges which allow students to transfer and take their junior year in France.

Preferential bidding was used again this year, and there were no rushing stunts. The first week of college was known as Little Sister week, during which upper classmen and new girls mingled freely. Then very strict rules were put into effect. Opportunities for becoming better acquainted with the new girls were brought about by all-college affairs, such as Y. M. Y. W. reception, all day picnic and various other features.

Rachel Forcey as president of the Y. W. C. A. took an active part in Little Sister week. Pamela McWilliams and Fairlee Habbart are also on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Louise Patterson, president of Panhellenic, made interfraternity affairs run smoothly this year. Betsey Anne Cloud, vice president of the Women's Student Government, Rosana Eckman, secretary, Margaret Slaughter, junior representative, Louise Emerson, sophomore representative, and Rachel Forcey, Y. W. C. A. representative give  $\Pi\Phi$  a representation of five out of eleven members of the Senate. Lois Horn is president of McIntire Literary Society, treasurer of the French Club, and vice president of the Dramatic Club, of which Betsy Anne Cloud is secretary. In athletics Mary Vale is vice president of the association, Eleanor McCrone manager of basketball and Rachel Forcey of baseball. Rosana Eckman won the scholarship pin which the alumnae award to the  $\Pi\Phi$  who maintains the highest average throughout her freshman year. The  $X\Omega$  Prize in Sophomore Economics and the English Bible Prize were awarded to  $\Pi\Phi$ .

Jeanne Morris entertained the seniors at a bridge luncheon on September 29. The annual  $\Pi\Phi$  tea for patronesses and faculty wives was very successful.

The list of patronesses has been revised, several new ones being added, and a Mothers' Club organized for the purpose of interesting the mothers in the plans and activities of  $\Pi\Phi$ . A large number of the faculty wives are members, for every faculty daughter who has ever come to Dickinson has pledged  $\Pi\Phi$ . The new club promises to be a great help to the active chapter.

Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  initiation was held this year on Founders' Day. The initiation ceremony was followed by a banquet at the Hotel Schenley at which the actives not only celebrated with the new initiates, but also with the alumnae in commemoration of the founders.

The chapter issued the Commencement number of the little newspaper which Beta Province chapters published during the past semester. This paper was sent to all the chapters in the province and to the alumnae of the local chapter to tell them what Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  was doing.

At the spring tapping of Mortar Board, Sarah Fulton was taken into active membership, and Elvera Hamstron, an alumna of Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  was tapped as an honorary member. Alice Fehr is one of the founders and the first president of Xylon, the new honorary and professional journalistic fraternity at the university. This fraternity put on the Xylograph, a humorous newspaper, at the co-ed prom, which was given by the Women's Athletic Association in honor of the freshman co-eds.

Lantern Night, a ceremony to introduce the freshmen to Pitt ideals, was held early in the fall. Sarah Fulton, secretary of W. S. G. A. took the part of Valor, and Alice Fehr, chairman of the student loan committee of the organization was one of the marshals. Sarah is also president of the senior co-eds. Rushing will again be held in the second semester of the college year. In the meantime Panhellenic is sponsoring several teas and parties to acquaint the freshmen with the upper class girls.

Two new courses were opened at the university this year, an orientation course for freshmen, and a course in journalism.

Lysbeth Hamilton and Helen Cashdollar did research work at Point Kartabo, British Guiana, this summer. They brought back several live boa-constrictors, a monkey, tropical birds, and many insects. Lysbeth is now an assistant in the zoology department.

OHIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OHIO

Pledge Day—October 5, 1926

Ohio University has welcomed this year a larger number of students than ever before. Advantageous changes in the faculty and curriculum together with the erection of Ohio's new Memorial Hall have caused many enthusiastic students to seek this campus.

$\Pi\Phi$  conscientiously observed the truce of one week requested annually by the dean of women. This week is set aside to create a university spirit among the new students and fraternity interests are secondary.

Panhellenic opened rushing at six o'clock on the morning of Saturday, September 25. At eight o'clock that same morning twenty-five girls were entertained at an informal breakfast. Rushing activities continued daily with a tea, bridge, a grill lunch, a bungalow party and sing, an Aunt Jemima supper and a carnival dinner. Luncheons and formal dinners at hotels or tea rooms were barred by local Panhellenic as too expensive. Ohio  $\Lambda$  found this ruling an opening for more interesting and original rushing.

Pi Phis are becoming affiliated with every extra-curricular activity on the Ohio campus. Competition in this field is unusually keen among Greek organizations and efficiency is always necessary for recognition.

Dean Voight assisted by Cresset, local honorary women's organization entertained the entire group of Ohio women at a formal tea on Saturday afternoon, September 25. On Saturday evening the campus-wide interest in furthering college enthusiasm was centered in a huge mixer at the Men's Gymnasium. Such get-togethers as these combined with the football mass meeting will prove, it seems, to be of utmost value in the new "Ohio First" campaign.

OHIO BETA—OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1894)

Pledge Day—October 4, 1926

INITIATES

(Initiated February, 1926)

Doris Ensign, '28, Columbus, Ohio.

(Initiated April, 1926)

Alberta Milton, '26, Cleveland, Ohio.

Margaret Weinland, '28, Columbus, Ohio.

The Ohio Betas have had a very busy summer, particularly the girls who live in Columbus. A long cherished dream has at last been realized. For many years the alumnae and actives of Ohio B have been working together with the hope of owning a house. At the last Founders' Day banquet a great deal of enthusiasm was aroused by the toasts and talks of alumnae for the final spurt necessary to gain the end. At last the chapter can be happy in the ownership of a beautiful home all her own. Ohio B cordially extends an invitation to all to visit her in the new home at 64 12th Avenue.

The house, however, has not been the only field of endeavor. Betty McCord is in charge of the Big Sister Movement which is sponsored by Chimes, the junior honorary society.

Rushing was from September 25 to October 4. A cooky-shine was held at the new house September 9.

Betty Johnson and Helen Bennett are both teaching in Oakwood School, Dayton, Ohio.

Frances Johnston Burkhalter, who was married in The Hague, Holland, in June, 1926, has been spending a few weeks here with her mother, before leaving for Washington where she will make her home.

Pledge Day—October 16, 1926

INITIATE

Initiated October 9, 1926

Elizabeth Heil.

Although pledging does not come until the second semester, Ohio Δ is hard at work becoming acquainted with the many charming freshman girls.

Ohio Wesleyan has an enrollment of nearly two thousand students this year. The first campus rally took place around Sulphur Springs with an immense bonfire and yells wild enough to arouse the dead Indians hereabouts.

Elizabeth Heil was initiated on October 9.

Ohio Δ is well represented in activities this year. Two Pi Phis are on the debating team; one won a Dustin Literary prize; one was elected judicial secretary of Student Government and also secretary of W. A. A.

Delmah Lehmuller has announced her engagement to Raymond Sears.

WEST VIRGINIA ALPHA—WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1918)

Pledge Day—October 13, 1926

West Virginia University opened September 21, with an enrollment of 2461 students, an increase of about 300.

Excavation for the foundation of a new woman's building has been started, the building to be in the nature of a recreation hall. It will contain a gymnasium and various athletic rooms, office rooms for the Y. W. C. A., club rooms and rest rooms.

Panhellenic has made decided changes in the method of rushing and bidding this year. Informal rushing began the first day of registration and continued until the date books were given out October 6, bid day being just one week later.

West Virginia A is very happy with her new chaperon, Mrs. Lyman, of Morgantown, whose late husband was dean of the School of Agriculture in this university. In her honor, the active members entertained with an afternoon tea on October 4 at the chapter house.

The chapter is glad to welcome Mary Buzzard, a transfer from Pennsylvania A who will live in the house and affiliate with the active members.

Last May when Mortar Board and Rhododendron, an honorary junior organization, selected their new members,  $\Pi\Phi$  was fortunate in being represented. Miriam Stultz was elected to Mortar Board and Jeanette Brown and Jean Haller were taken into Rhododendron.

West Virginia A has already begun her campus activities. Betty Leonard was on the committee for the Big Sister Movement, and Jean Haller had charge of the Big Sister tea. Jeanette Brown is on the student council as junior representative. Ruth McLain and Betty Leonard are members of the student council of the College of Agriculture.

Columbia A celebrated the closing of the college year at George Washington with the annual breakfast given by the chapter in honor of the seniors at the Japanese Tea House, and by the farewell dance which was held at the country home of Annabelle Lloyd, at Glendale, Md. The final meeting of the year was a supper party followed by the initiation of Mary Hoge and a chapter meeting. Many alumnae were present, including Emilie White, Grand Vice President.

Another event which marked the Columbia A calendar for June was the marriage of Sophia Waldman to Granville Brumbaugh.

Three Columbia Alphas attended summer school at Cornell University, Martha McGeehee, Ruth Newburn and Katherine Shoemaker.

The chapter is very proud of her three graduates "with distinction," Elizabeth Dorsey, Sophia Waldman and Ruth Williams. Ruth with the highest grades in the graduating class was valedictorian and Sophia, with second highest grades, was salutatorian.

On matriculation day, September 27, the local Panhellenic gave a tea for all freshman women. The Little Sister Movement which was so successful last year, was again carried out to help freshmen become acquainted. This movement ended October 11 and rushing began October 15.

A new schedule of classes is being instituted at George Washington with the first class beginning at nine o'clock instead of nine-fifteen and chapel period at eleven.

Columbia A is very happy to welcome to the university Mildred Maroney, Oklahoma B, who was awarded the 1926-27  $\Pi\phi$  fellowship.

The chapter regrets the loss of Mary Hoge who has entered Mount Holyoke College, and Isabel Heisler, who has moved to Emporia, Kan.

Betty Wilson has been elected chapter corresponding secretary to take the place of Alice Williams, who is attending the University of Illinois. Under the direction of Elizabeth McKelvy, the pledges are redecorating the fraternity rooms.

Virginia Reed surprised the chapter by the announcement of her marriage one year ago to James Raymond Buckley. They are now living at 360 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Mass.

Eleven pledges are eligible for initiation in October. The  $\Pi\phi$  bracelet, presented each year to the pledge having the highest scholarship is to be awarded to Louise DuBose.

MARYLAND ALPHA—GOUCHER COLLEGE

INITIATES

(Initiated October 1, 1926)

Dorothy Black Wilson, '29, Lansdowne, Pa.

The members of Maryland A were brought together for the first time in the new college year by a most enjoyable supper given in the fraternity rooms on September 30 by the members of the chapter living in Baltimore.

It was on October 10, that rushing began with the Panhellenic ruling of "open question." The season proved especially successful for Maryland A, with the pledging of seventeen freshmen and one sophomore. The sophomore is Minnie Suter; the freshmen are: Attarah Blackwood, Edith Borland, Mary Ellen Bukey, Betty Grieg, Agnes Krieger, Helen Lankford, Dorothy Lea, Helen Lewis, Harriet Myers, Dorothy Pettibone, Frances Rice, Virginia Ripley, Dorothy Schwartz, Ellen Terrell, Mary C. West, Nedra Wilhelm. Maryland A is also fortunate in having one attractive and congenial transfer from Indiana B, Sarah Stultz.

The first days of college for the freshmen, "initiation week," were this year an exceptional success—for which great credit is due the sophomore  $\Pi\Phi$  chairman, Mildred Hall. The opening social affairs of the college were largely in honor of the freshman class. They included the formal reception given by the Athletic Association, the Goucher College Christian Association, the student organization and the Goucher College faculty; the senior tea (of which Jean Gardiner was chairman), and the annual tea given by the student counselors.

The junior class is hard at work on the production of Benevente's play, "Bonds of Interest," in which  $\Pi\Phi$  is represented by Helen Tottle. It will be given in honor of the freshman class on November 27. Plans for the annual Goucher Thanksgiving dinner are being aided by three  $\Pi$  Phis: Jeanette Baer, Audrey Noonan and Frances Rice. Hockey practice and work in the Agora and Ethics clubs are occupying the spare time of many.

It is with reasonable pride that Maryland A announces the particular honorary college offices held this year by the following  $\Pi$  Phis: Helen R. Jones, president of the student organization; Audrey Noonan, president of the junior class; and Frances Rice, chairman of the freshman class.

Anne Rommel, '29, Pleasantville, N. Y.

Nancy Keith Snyder, '29, 1383 Ouerbacker Court, Louisville, Ky.

Randolph-Macon opened for matriculation September 22 and the formal opening and reception were held September 30. Professor H. F. Peake, who has been abroad this past summer studying International Law Developments, gave a very interesting talk on the League of Nations.

The regular annual initiation of Virginia A took place on September 25, followed by a cooky-shine.

A scheme for selling Christmas cards to make money for the Settlement School is now under way. Virginia A is going to work very hard to make this year a successful one.

VIRGINIA BETA—HOLLINS COLLEGE

(Chartered June 1, 1917)

• Pledge Day—September 27, 1926

Hollins College has been through her first siege of rushing under the new regime of second year bidding. For three short days the women's fraternities have been concentrating on that group of sophomores which has been under careful scrutiny for a year. Each society has directed its depleted forces into a campaign of rushing which has made that of previous years look like indifference. Virginia B is very pleased to announce the pledging of Harriet Bates, Sally Barrett, Elsie Griffin, Catherine Taylor, Mary H. Mann and Mary Louise Mayo.

Hollins opened its doors on September 23 to the largest student body of its history; the largest senior class and the largest freshman class, completely overshadowing the middleclassmen. Dr. Lewis, president of George Washington University, gave the opening address in the Little Theater on the evening of September 23.

Virginia B suffered the loss of six seniors at Commencement. Their absence seemed even more noticeable than usual because of the lack of undergraduate members due to the installation of second year bidding; but with the new sophomore members,  $\Pi\Phi$  is looking forward to a highly successful year both in scholarship and campus activities.

The customary Sunday afternoon teas will be resumed at an early date.

VIRGINIA GAMMA—WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE

(Chartered 1925)

The new home of Virginia  $\Gamma$  is now the Blair House, where fifteen girls and chaperon are living. The house has much historical interest as it was the home of the first governor of Virginia.

William and Mary College is growing very rapidly and the new buildings are only one of the many signs of this growth. With the completion of the  $\Phi\beta\kappa$  Memorial and the remodelling of the dining hall, work will begin on a girls' dormitory and a new science hall.

Miss Bessie P. Taylor, who was obliged to leave the college on account of her health, has resumed her duties as social director of women.

Mrs. Henderson, wife of the mayor and mother of one of the pledges entertained Virginia  $\Gamma$  at a tea shortly before the close of college. The underclassmen entertained the seniors at a garden party on the lawn of the chapter house. The Founders' Day banquet was held on May 1. At this banquet, each pledge and new member was asked to sing the song which she had written before initiation. At the close of the semester, the pledges held a rummage sale for the benefit of the Settlement School.

On April 16, May Laudenslager was pledged and J. Elizabeth Smith was pledged on May 13.

Virginia  $\Gamma$  had the pleasure of entertaining the past semester Mabel Scott Brown whose surprise visit was very short, but very enjoyable. Mary Williams represented the Richmond alumnae club at a number of chapter meetings and assisted the chapter in special matters.

$\Phi\mu$  fraternity installed a chapter on the campus last spring and  $\Pi\phi$  had the honor of entertaining the group at a waffle breakfast in the chapter house.

Perhaps the most wonderful experience was the short visit of President and Mrs. Coolidge. Virginia Γ is very grateful to Dr. Chandler and Dr. Goodwin who made it possible for the girls to meet Mrs. Coolidge.

Mae D. Muir was elected to ΦBK last spring and has returned this year to work for her M.A. degree.

Virginia Γ feels that she may be justly proud of one record—that of the fraternity examination. Every member made the honor roll.

Louise Sale announced her engagement to Maynard L. Cassidy at a bridge party last spring. Mr. Cassidy is general secretary to the Y. M. C. A. and a professor of Biblical Literature in the college.

IRENE OSBORN.

NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
(Chartered 1923)

Pledge Day—October 14, 1926

North Carolina A is in the midst of preparations for a busy rushing season, which began at the conclusion of truce on October 11. The patronesses of North Carolina A are giving a dance at the Country Club as one of the events of rushing season, and have also promised several bridge parties and teas as well.

The group of women students on the campus this year seems unusually promising and North Carolina A is expecting a year of real progress. This is the first year that the new Woman's Building has been filled to capacity, and there is some agitation for adding two new wings for the accommodation of the increasing number of girls who have come to the University of North Carolina.

At the close of college last June when the North Carolina alumnae club held its regular meeting, it presented to North Carolina A two dozen handsome salad forks engraved with the Greek letters ΠΒΦ. These forks exactly match the two dozen spoons previously presented by the club. North Carolina A first used the new gift at a tea for the patronesses and alumnae on September 28, the first social event of the year.

The names of Leah Smith, Rosalie Thrall, and Ellen Melick appear on the dean's list for the fall quarter. To be placed on this list is the highest scholastic honor, outside of election to ΦBK, that can be obtained, and carries with it the privilege of voluntary class attendance.

North Carolina A is proud of Ellen Melick as president of the Woman's Association this year.

FLORIDA ALPHA—JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY
(Chartered 1913)

Pledge Day—December 20, 1926.

The opening days at Stetson seemed much quieter than usual to the ten Florida Alphas who returned for the fall term. At the close of last year Panhellenic Council decided to inaugurate second term rushing and bidding for the coming year. During the first three months there will be closed rushing. On the opening of the second term open rushing will start and continue for ten days, ending with Pledge Day on December 20.

During the summer months there were extensive improvements in the university equipment. The new heating system was completed and the dormitories renovated. A new pipe organ is being installed in the chapel which will cost $30,000.

Professor Jessie Robert Crandall, formerly professor in Valparaiso University, is the new head of the School of Business Administration. The Conservatory of Music has been greatly strengthened by the addition to the faculty of Mr. Paul R. Geddes and Mr. John Rosser, both artists of note.

The ΠΚΦ fraternity has moved into its beautiful new Colonial home.

Mary Markey, Florida A, has returned to Stetson to be an instructor in the College of Business Administration. Florida A also welcomes Virginia Crooker, Massachusetts A, to the chapter.

The first week of college was Big Sister week. The fraternity girls laid aside their pins, and endeavored to become acquainted with all the new girls. At the end of the week the old girls gave a large reception in Chaudoin Hall for their Little Sisters. It is felt that this plan is very successful in promoting friendship and good feeling between the old and new students.

All the college activities are looking forward to a most successful year. Glee club tryouts have been completed, and practice started for the winter concerts. The university orchestra, with Aline Link as president, has undertaken an extensive program. The college of dramatics is giving "Dulce" on October 15, as its first performance of the year.

Football is occupying the center of attention at the present. The Hatters are engaging in one of the most difficult schedules that they have had for several years. A large number of the games are to be played out of the state.

Although college elections have not all been held, ΠΦ is well represented. Aline Link, president of the Girl's Student Government, is conducting extensive training for the freshman girls. Martha Pratt and Charlotte Farrington are on the Student Council. Evelyn Hodges, Martha Pratt and Charlotte Farrington are on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet.

The chapter extends its deepest sympathy to Mary Briscoe, president-elect, on the loss of her father.

Florida A continues its plans for the raising of funds for the chapter house. The girls reported great success in the benefit bridge parties, dances and rummage sales given during the summer for the benefit of the house fund. Already arrangements are being made for the annual Christmas Bazaar to be given in the early part of December.

FLORIDA BETA—FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

(Chartered 1921)

Pledge Day—September 27, 1926.

INITIATES

(Initiated April 27, 1926)

Alice Harrison, '29, Tampa, Fla.

Martha Ballewe, '29, Eufaula, Ala.

Margaret Johnson, '28, West Palm Beach, Fla.

Florida State College opened September 15 with an enrollment of more than 1600, the largest in the history of the college. The freshman class is particularly large, numbering 554.

As this letter is written, pledge day has just passed and Florida B is rejoicing in the pledging of sixteen splendid freshman women. Those pledged were: Betty Dunbar, Haze! Hebb, Jane Howard, Mary Bullard, Beatrice Savage, Charlotte Dean, Charlotte Rakowski, Lena Belle Hagen, Margaret Morrison, Louisa Shingler, Anna King, Doris Latimer, Carey Griffith, Mary Hanley, Mary Jane Montford, and Maybelle Martin. The pledges were entertained with a cooky-shine at the fraternity home on the night of September 27, and by a banquet at the Jack Horner Grille on September 29.

Florida B is extremely proud of her new fraternity house which was completed the day of the opening of college. It is of old English architecture in natural color stucco. After the landscaping has been completed,  $\Pi \Phi$  feels that she will have one of the finest fraternity homes on the campus.

The college is indeed very fortunate this year in having Mrs. William Griffith as Social Directress.

Elizabeth Henry and Kenny Prewitt returned to college this fall after an absence of a year.

$\Pi \Phi$  is taking an outstanding part in campus activities this year. Keller Harris has charge of Torch Night, a new institution on the campus that is replacing Sophomore Day. Theresa Mintz is chairman of the usher committee, which entitles her to a seat in the Senate and is also vice president of the Home Economics Club. Helen Kennedy is student assistant to Dr. Leland Lewis, head of the department of chemistry. There is universal interest on the campus in the Press Board, which consists of a group of girls organized for the purpose of sending out to the various newspapers of the South interesting and accurate accounts of the various events at Florida State.

Scholarship and cooperation are the goals of Florida B this year, cooperation with the national officers, with the college authorities, with the chapters in Gamma Province, and within the chapter itself.

HELEN KENNEDY.

MICHIGAN ALPHA—HILLSDALE COLLEGE

INITIATES

(Initiated September 18, 1926)

- Ellen Austin, '29, Detroit, Mich.
- Martha Bedell, '29, Romeo, Mich.
- Laura Branch, '29, Kingston, Ill.
- Elizabeth Buell, '29, Elmira, Mich.
- Ruth Dale, '29, Lockport, N. Y.
- Elizabeth DeYoe, '29, East Chicago, Ill.
- Elva Lehman, '29, Cleveland, Ohio.
- Marian Powers, '29, Battle Creek, Mich.
- Ruth Richardson, '29, Onsted, Mich.
- Wilhelmina Spiess, '29, Grand Haven, Mich.
- Carribel Young, '29, Deckerville, Mich.

When college opened the  $\Pi \Phi$  house was being redecorated and, at first, there seemed to be no place to hold initiation. But the lower floor was ready in time for the banquet and Gladis Clark offered her home for the initiation itself. Mrs. Drybread, former chaperon stayed a week until the new chaperon, Mrs. Holt, a  $\Pi \Phi$  mother, was able to come. Mrs. E. H. Stewart, (Elizabeth Henry, Mich. A), whose granddaughter, Elizabeth Buell, was among the initiates, was toastmistress at the banquet. Two Michigan Alphas who have been attending another college, Marjorie Williams and Gertrude Kyle, have returned to Hillsdale and will graduate this year.

ΠΒΦ is happy to welcome the new dean of women, Miss Runnals, ΔΔΔ, to the campus as well as several other new faculty members. The chapter entertained at a tea on October 4 in honor of Miss Runnals and Mrs. Holt, ΠΦ chaperon.

Beside the extensive redecorating that has been done in nearly every house on the campus, other improvements have been made, and best of all, the new women's dormitory is well on the way to completion. It is expected to be finished for the second semester. It will house fifty girls, it being but one unit of a greater project that is planned.

With the new plan of rushing this year no entertaining can be done until a week before pledge day, October 25. The freshmen, however, have been entertained by the Y. W. C. A., beginning with a watermelon feed the first night of college. The president's reception was another opportunity for them to get together and become acquainted with Hillsdale.

ΠΦ is still first in scholarship on the campus and this year one of the trustees has given a beautiful new cup to be competed for by the women's organizations, the men having had one for several years. ΠΒΦ will be the first name to be engraved upon it.

Gladis Clark, who graduated in June, was awarded the annual scholarship to the University of Michigan and she will do post-graduate work there in bacteriology. She was also May Queen and the valedictorian of her class. Josephine Kerr was salutatorian.

Eliza Cowan is president of the Y. W. C. A.; Martha Meighan is associate editor of the Collegian, the college newspaper, and Elizabeth Jones is associate editor of the annual. Jessie Tyler is president of EΔA, the honor society, of which three other Pi Phis are members.

MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Pledge Day—October 3, 1926

INITIATE

(Initiated April 23, 1926)

Doris Robison, '27, 628 Oak St., Kalamazoo, Mich.

After pleasant summer vacations spent in various ways thirty-two active members of Michigan B have returned to Ann Arbor full of enthusiasm for a very successful year.

Caroline Paul, who has gone to Barnard College to graduate, and May Tuttle and Helen Warner, who did not return this semester will be much missed by the chapter. Fern Schott, who was pledged last spring, will live in the chapter house this year. She is very musical and plays the piano and the violin equally well.

The fraternity is represented on the campus by Frances Parrish, president of Panhellenic; Dorothy Tisch, president of Le Cercle Francais; Edwina Hogadone, athletic editor of the Michigan year book, member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet and of Wyvern honorary junior society; Alice Callender, member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet; Marian Welles, recording secretary of the Women's League, member of Wyvern and of ΘΣΦ, honorary journalistic fraternity; Helen Searight, member on the board of the Athletic Association; Elsie Murray, assistant chairman of the junior girls' play and member of Wyvern.

In scholarship Michigan B has made great improvement. Among the twenty-one women's fraternities at the University of Michigan,  $\Pi\beta\Phi$  has risen from eleventh place last year to fifth place this year.

The University of Michigan is busily engaged in breaking ground for a new architectural building, a museum and a stadium which is expected to be the largest one in the United States and will seat 90,000 people. In his building program President Little has been carrying out many ideas of the former president, Marion Leroy Burton.

A new rule has been made this year by President Little concerning the driving of automobiles by the students while in Ann Arbor. Only juniors and seniors will be allowed to have their cars in Ann Arbor during the college year and they must have permits, issued by the dean of students, in order to drive them. This really seemed to be a very just rule and one which had become increasingly necessary.

Pledge Day—September 25, 1926.

INITIATES

(Initiated September 11, 1926)

Mamie DeMoss, '29, Muncie, Ind.
 Florence Deppe, '29, Franklin, Ind.
 Edna Dunham, '29, Franklin, Ind.
 Kathryn Zoe Hall, '29, Franklin, Ind.
 Pauline Heise, '29, Orleans, Ind.
 Mary Meloy, Jr., '29, Shelbyville, Ind.
 Alicemae McPherson, '29, Noblesville, Ind.
 Mildred Thurston, '29, Summitville, Ind.

Indiana A has had a most successful rushing season this fall and is pleased to announce the following pledges: Margaret Purviance, Mary Smith, Mary Frances Templeton, Margaret Good, Ruth Ritz, Josephine Mardis, Henrietta Miller, Dorothy Mae Lortz, Eugenia Ballis, and Kathryn Evans.

Seven Pi Phis, including one freshman, are on the staff of the college newspaper and one is on the staff of the college year book. Marian Kelly is secretary-treasurer of  $\Theta\Lambda\Phi$ , national dramatic society. Two girls represent the chapter on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet and Margaret Purviance, a pledge, is secretary of W. S. G. A.

The chapter is very fortunate in having obtained Mrs. Clara F. Hannaman for housemother. Mrs. Hannaman was formerly chaperon of Fensal Hall, Goucher College, and for the past four years has been living in Salisbury, Md.

Indiana A is leading every organization on the campus in scholarship for the tenth consecutive semester.

MARIAN J. COY.

INDIANA BETA—INDIANA UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1893)

Pledge Day—September 13, 1926

Following a most successful rush week, Indiana B announces the pledging of seventeen girls: Katharine Becker, Mildred Curry, Dorothy Davis, Ruth Hannan, Helen Henry, Harriet Loveland, Mildred May, Lucille Means, Virginia McCarty, Emma Moss, Mary Janice Orr, Emily Pond, Hazel Schele, Sarah Schwin, Jeanette Stultz, Mary Gertrude Veneman, and Geraldine Wilhite. They were entertained with a cooky-shine after pledge service.

The chapter house was redecorated and an addition to the living room made during the summer months. The fund was raised by the alumnae of Indiana B by means of a Thousand $ Club in which each member contributed one dollar or more. An honor roll of the club has been placed in the chapter room.

ΠΒΦ was very proud of the girls in activities last semester. Anna Ruth Haworth was elected to ΦΒΚ; Katherine Consalus and Elizabeth Squires, to ΗΣΦ, honorary classical fraternity; Marguerite Holland and Katherine Consalus to ΠΛΘ, honorary educational fraternity. Louise Holland was selected by the student body as maid of honor in the May Festival last spring.

Indiana University has completed the annex to the library. The fraternity quadrangle composed of the organizations ΔΓ, ΦΜ, ΑΧΩ, ΣΑΕ, ΘΧ, and ΚΣ is ready for occupancy.

INDIANA GAMMA—BUTLER UNIVERSITY

Pledge day—Undecided

Butler University opened September 14 with an increased enrollment and with much enthusiasm. Indiana Γ feels that the opening of the fall semester of 1926 is the beginning of what is to prove to be a splendid year for the university.

With only fourteen of the active girls back, but with thirteen fine girls waiting for initiation, and with sixteen very promising freshmen coming in, Indiana Γ is not discouraged in the outlook over the new year.

After a most successful rush season, ΠΒΦ announced the pledging of Barbara Bridges, Marjorie Brown, Eleanor Flowers, Virginia Flowers, Marjorie Goble, Dorothy Krieg, Elizabeth King, Frances Kirkpatrick, Marjorie McElroy, Ruth Muhlitz, Elizabeth Springer, Louise Sumner, Truth Wakeman, Elizabeth Ward, Elizabeth Woodfill, and Beatrice Yates. The six weeks of rush consisted of a Spanish garden party given at the beginning of the season, and a formal banquet at the close of the season along with numerous little parties. The matriculation day luncheon was the final entertainment for the rushee.

Indiana Γ is very proud of the members active on the campus. Billie Mae Kreider holds the highest woman's office in the university, as president of Woman's League. She was also a delegate to the Mid Western W. S. G. A. Conference held at Indiana University. Jeanne Bouslog was a Y. W. C. A. delegate to Geneva during the summer. She was chairman of the committee that raised the money with which to send the delegates to Geneva. Billie Mae Kreider and Jeanne Bouslog were taken into Scarlet Quill, a senior honorary organization petitioning Mortar Board, of which Jeanne is vice president. Helena Sieloff was initiated into ΗΕΔ, of which Mary Frances Ogle is vice president. Eugenia Brooks is chairman of the matinee talk committee whose office is to bring prominent speakers before the student body. Elizabeth Moschenross is president of ΔΦ, a national debating fraternity for women.

IRMA CROWE.

INDIANA DELTA—PURDUE UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1920)

Pledge Day—September 15, 1926

Indiana  $\Delta$  is looking forward to a happy and prosperous year in her new chapter home. Formal open house was held on October 10, when alumnae, patronesses, faculty members, and students were invited.

Rushing ended by pledging seventeen girls. Operating under revised Panhellenic rules, rush week passed very harmoniously. The limited number of three parties and open rush were decided advantages. Perhaps the most successful  $\Pi\Phi$  function was a Pirate Party. The front of the house was rigged up like a ship where a sail and lanterns gave a formidable appearance to Ye Goode Ship, Pi Phi. A plank, treasure chest full of bright kerchiefs, kegs, and ropes arranged in true sailor fashion made a most realistic atmosphere. Cider, rye bread, and pretzels were served and everyone had a thoroughly good time.

Campus activities are already claiming Pi Phis in number. Rhea Walker is president of Women's Council and exchange editor of Exponent. Mary Zimmer is society editor of the Debris and the only woman member of the faculty-student committee. Both of these girls are members of S. L. S. (senior women's honorary) that is petitioning Mortar Board. Bertha Bonham is assistant night editor of Exponent.  $\Pi\Phi$  was very proud to receive the Activity Cup awarded by Panhellenic. The trophy was won on the basis of points won in scholarship, Y. W. C. A., dramatics, Union work, journalism, and athletics. This is the first time such a cup has been awarded at Purdue.

A new Home Economics School operating under its own dean has been created at Purdue. Prof. Mary L. Matthews, a  $\Pi\Phi$ , is at the head of it. The need for this change has been brought about by the increased number of women attending Purdue.

Purdue started a new custom of having Orientation Week for freshmen before the beginning of college. Its object was to acquaint the newcomers with the class routine, campus customs, and ideals of the university. Edith Fleisher was a member of the Orientation committee.

MARY H. ZIMMER.

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

(Chartered October 9, 1925)

INITIATE

Pauline Bowman, '29, 2 Eastover Court, Louisville, Ky.

The University of Louisville realized a very great loss last June in the death of its president, Mr. A. Y. Ford. His successor, Mr. George Colvin, is a man of a very forceful personality, who will undoubtedly accomplish a great deal for the university. Ruth Wilson, a graduate of Kentucky A, who was formerly secretary to the chancellor, is President Colvin's secretary.

The new Speed Arts Memorial Building will be completed in a very short time. It is an imposing white building lighted by an immense skylight, and it promises to add much to the beauty of the campus.

The old Home Economics Building which burned last year, is being converted into an attractive clubhouse for all the girls on the campus.

The  $\Pi B\Phi$  cottage was repapered and repainted this fall, together with some new furniture and lovely new drapes makes it very attractive.

This is the first time preferential bidding has been used in fall rushing here, as it was only started last February. It proved very successful indeed and eight new girls were bid who promise to work splendidly with the group and live up to  $\Pi\Phi$  ideals. They are Mildred Allen, Elizabeth Bullock, Madge Hauger, Helen Nold, Mary Agnes Shay, Elizabeth Trawick, Betty Wooden, Josephine Warner.

Ruth Wilson is on the women's fraternity faculty board, and Virginia Watts is president of Panhellenic this year.

Mildred Scheirich represented Kentucky A at the Indiana chapters entertainment at Butler College. She attended the luncheon and dance and thoroughly enjoyed her entire visit.

The University of Louisville Players are opening their season at the Playhouse this fall with "Mary the Third." Kentucky A appreciates the honor of having the three principal roles. Frances Mann is Mary I, Virginia Watts is Mary II and Frances Lee Day is Mary III. Helen Anderson was elected property mistress for the entire year and she has, as some of her assistants, several Kentucky A girls. Several of them also serve as ushers at the play. In the one-act plays on Saturday afternoons, Kentucky A girls have been very active.

Margaret Hill Nord and Virginia Watts were appointed on the business staff of the Satyr, the student publication.

Frances Mann has been elected president of the Language Club and Helen Anderson was elected vice president of the Home Economics Club. Helen Anderson has also been appointed to play all the songs sung in the weekly chapels.

A Women's Student Government Association was recently formed here. Gladys Friend was elected chairman of the finance committee and Eleanor Mullan was elected secretary.

Gladys Friend is assistant this year to Dr. Caldwell, professor of philosophy.

France Mann won the sophomore prize for scholarship, given by the Falls City alumnae club.

TENNESSEE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA
(Chartered 1923)
Pledge Day—October 2, 1926

INITIATES

(Initiated June 8, 1926)

Ida Callaway Colburn (Mrs. Charles S.), Chattanooga, Tenn.

Betty Brown Sydnor (Mrs. Charles S.), University, Miss.

Margaret Huston Morrison (Mrs. James), Perry, Fla.

During the vacation months, Mary Ellen Acuff and Josephine Blocker were directors of city playgrounds. Ella Frances Hargrove enjoyed a motor trip through the mountains of North Carolina. Margaret Kaderly had a most interesting trip to Niagara Falls. Jane Martin motored to Chicago. Mary Frances McGhee visited in Birmingham, Ala. Dorothy Latimer made several trips to Tampa, Fla. Rebecca Shackelford spent the summer in Cleveland, Ohio.

Nan Elberfeld swam in the Southeastern A. A. U. in Birmingham, Ala., winning third place.

Rush season closed on October 2, with the pledging of the following girls: Dorothy Wilber, Alya Dean Smith, Ruth Scholze, Virginia Conn, Virginia Kaderly, Elizabeth Landress, Kathrine Wilkey, Katherine Roberts, Marian Jones, Virginia Simmonds. No bids were lost.

The university opened on September 15 with the largest enrollment in its history. Two new chairs have been endowed, the Adolph S. Ochs department of City Government, and the Miami White Temple department of Religious Education. Prospects are splendid for a fine year in all departments and athletic departments are also fine.

MARY YOUNG.

EPSILON PROVINCE

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA (Chartered 1890)

Pledge Day—October 2, 1926

During the summer months, Minnesota A had about six meetings at which intensive rushing plans were formulated. The plans were comprehensive and well made so that although rushing is not over it is expected to be very successful.

Among other forms of entertainment the pirate skit given at Convention was used with much success at a pirate luncheon. The pleasure of entertaining the freshmen was enhanced by the fact that the whole house has been redecorated by the alumnae and the active chapter.

This year a new system of orientating the freshmen, called Freshman Week, has been established. Instead of expecting the new students to wander around to discover what they can for themselves, there are organized excursions to the Library, the Farm Campus, the Engineering buildings, and other places every morning and afternoon. In the evening there is entertainment for all freshmen. Charlotte Winget is chairman of the entertainment committee.

As another part of Freshman Week the old tradition of green caps and flowers for the freshmen has been renewed this year. By this "wearing of the green" the members of the class are made known to their brethren. A class spirit, as well as a bond of individual friendships, is established.

Harriet Ellis was captain of a team of Big Sisters, each of whom had five little sisters in her charge. A number of other Pi Phis were on similar teams.

Wisconsin A began the college year greatly handicapped by the fact that Mrs. Stites, chaperon for the past several years, was unable to return this fall. The loss of eighteen strong seniors is also keenly felt, for the class of '26 was in large part responsible for the success of last year.

Last spring Jane Gaston was elected to Mortar Board and Charlotte Wollaeger to Crucible, honorary society for sophomore women. Edith Jorris wears the final W. A. A. emblem, the highest athletic honor for women. Virginia Mead is vice president of the Outing Club. Cathryn Chesley and Elizabeth Saxton were elected to freshman commission, an organization of thirty freshman women. Laura Barrett is the head of the sophomore clubs, formed primarily to provide a social body for non-fraternity women in which they may form ties of friendship comparable to those existing among members of a fraternity.

Mary Garstman is a member of  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$  as well as of  $\Phi \Kappa \Phi$ ; Margaret Wegener and Dorothy Morse both made  $\Lambda \Kappa \Delta$ , and Mary Elizabeth Haven is a member of  $\Phi \Kappa \Phi$ .

As a result of winning the Panhellenic scholarship cup for the third consecutive semester it is now in the chapter's permanent possession.  $\Pi \beta \Phi$  also won the silver trophy offered as a prize to the fraternity selling the most Badgers.

The greatest surprise and thrill of the year, however came in the form of a telegram to the chapter president announcing that Wisconsin A had been awarded the Balfour Cup. With fourteen wonderful new pledges, this year, too, promises to be a banner one for  $\Pi \beta \Phi$  at Wisconsin.

ROSALIE MURPHY.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE

Pledge Day—October, 1919

Wisconsin B was very successful in rushing this fall and pledged seventeen girls: Carolyn Shepherd, Beloit, Wis., Viola Cureton, Beloit, Wis., Eva Lenz, Chicago, Ill., Elizabeth Hamilton Chicago, Ill., Gladys Swan, Libertyville, Ill., Evelyn Sherman, Lancaster, Wis., Marian Gray, Oak Park, Ill.,

Eleanor McCullough, Wauwatosa, Wis., Marcia Booth, Marshfield, Wis., Gertrude Verity, Parkridge, Ill., Agnes Jostag, West Salem, Wis., Jeanne Hazard, Three Rivers, Mich., Barbara Piersen, Evanston, Ill., Velma Miller, Galva, Ill., Rachel Arneman, Chicago, Ill., Frances Westbrook, Wheaton, Ill., Margaret Freeman, Syracuse, N. Y.

The remodeling of Scoville Hall to include a Little Theater was one of the improvements made during the summer months. Plans have also been drawn by architects for dormitories for freshman men. They include two dormitories and a third building to serve as a Commons and Men's Union. Building operations will begin just as soon as the contract is given out and it is hoped that the dormitories will be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1927.

Big Hill Day was held on September 29. It is on this day that students and faculty gather at the traditional Big Hill for an all-day picnic. Various games were played and stunts were given by the different classes and the faculty.

Beloit has a new football coach and assistant coach with several new men on the team, but in spite of this handicap is looking forward to a successful season. The Homecoming game will be November 6 and that week-end the chapter is planning a breakfast for the alumnae.

ΠΒΦ is represented in many activities on the campus this year. Catherine Haskell is president of W. S. G. A. and is also a member of the Golden Taper. The latter is a new society formed last year which selected five outstanding girls from this year's senior class. Two of them were Pi Phis, the other being Elizabeth Kendig who is president of the organization. This society aims to petition for Mortar Board this year. Margaret Lindsay is secretary of the council and Elizabeth Kendig is senior representative. There are other members very active in Y. W. C. A. and W. A. A.

Wisconsin B is striving to maintain first place in scholarship for the entire college, which rank it held the second semester of last year.

ALICE SMITH.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Pledge Day—September 27, 1926

North Dakota A is very proud of her six new pledges: Inez Babcock, Starkweather; Frances Baker, Loma; Fahe Nelson, Grand Forks; Dorothy Graves, Bismark; Jeanette Owens, Williston; Helen Scott, Bottineau. Dorothy Graves was one of the freshmen selected for the English Honor section.

Gladys Roach and Leonore Andrist of Minnesota A were visitors at the chapter house during rush week. Mrs. G. A. Jahn (Eva Cass, Penn. Γ), of New York, poured at the formal tea.

The new ΔΓ house on University Avenue has just been completed. ΣΝ has broken ground for a new house.

KΨΒ, a local fraternity, was granted a charter from KΣ last spring. The chapter was installed September 18.

The ΠΦ house mother, Regina Brennan of Iowa Γ, is president of the new chapter of ΖΦΗ, professional oratorical fraternity for women. Edna Earl is also a charter member.

North Dakota A is well represented in campus activities. Alice Krick and Gladys Edin were elected to active membership in Dacotah Playmakers. Letitia Scott and Rose Kelly were chosen as sophomore and junior representatives on the Woman's League Board. Last spring Agnes Moe was elected to  $\Phi B K$ . Margaret Radcliffe is one of the charter members of Collegiate Players, a chapter of which was installed here after Commencement.

ILLINOIS BETA—LOMBARD COLLEGE

(Chartered 1872)

Pledge Day—October 6, 1926.

Illinois B is very enthusiastic this fall over the many attractive new girls enrolled at Lombard. There seems to be every indication of a wonderful year for  $\Pi B \Phi$ .

Last semester Illinois B again ranked first in scholarship on the campus. Eleanor Poor and Esther Allen were initiated into  $\Phi K \Phi$ , the national honorary scholastic fraternity.

Elsbeth Logeman was elected president of the House Government Association at Lombard Hall, and Alice Appleton was chosen social secretary of the hall.

Betty Newman took the leading part in the senior play. She was also elected president of the Lombard Pep Club, and a member of  $\Sigma T \Delta$ , the national honorary English fraternity.

Last spring Alice Appleton won second place in the annual Townsend Contest in the speech art department.

This summer the chapter bungalow was greatly improved. The walls were all painted, new linoleum put in the kitchen, and all of the floors were refinished. Plans for a campaign to raise funds for new furniture are now being discussed.

Before Panhellenic rules went into effect the chapter entertained some freshmen at a tea at the Elks Club, and at a cooky-shine at the home of President Tilden, whose daughter, Dorothy, is an Illinois Beta.

The alumnae entertained the active chapter and some freshmen at a series of lovely events on Saturday, September 18. A luncheon was served at noon, and a cooky-shine at night, followed by a dance. The guests received small individual corsages.

A Sunday morning circus breakfast was given September 26. The cloth was laid on the floor and the center was caught up to represent a circus tent. Each guest found her place by means of a big balloon on which was painted her name. Favors were boxes of animal crackers. After eating oranges, waffles, tiny sausages and coffee, the girls were divided into four groups and stunts were given.

With every one of last year's initiates back this year, and almost all of the older girls, Illinois B is looking forward to a wonderful year.

ILLINOIS DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE

(Chartered 1884)

Pledge Day—September 25, 1926.

Knox College opened with a number of additional faculty members including the new dean of women, Miss Mildred Sherman, former assistant dean of women, at the University of Michigan. This year the freshmen were required to attend induction exercises before the regular registration. Classes opened September 15, with an unusually large enrollment.

Commencement exercises last spring were held at the Central Congregational Church. Among the seven  $\Pi \Phi$  seniors graduating, Virginia Leonard received magna cum laude and Marie Holly, cum laude. General honors and special honors in chemistry were awarded to Virginia Leonard. Marie Holly received special honors in mathematics. Underclassmen receiving general honors in scholarship included Katharine Thomas and Mary Crawford.

Among the Pi Phis who participated in spring athletics, Jeanette Bent, Irma Bullington, Irma Craig and Mary Lipsey made their respective baseball teams, and Irma Craig, Elizabeth Sinclair and Mary Crawford were members of the regatta crew. Mary Lipsey made the swimming team and Marie Holly passed the life saving test.

Margaret Whitney was initiated into Mortar Board last June. On May 3 Mary Crawford was pledged to ΠΒΦ.

Florence Hall is house president in Whiting Hall this year and the ΠΦ members on the house council are Elizabeth Bennett, Mary Lipsey, and Mary Coggeshall who is also president of McCall House.

Margaret Whitney is social chairman on Y. W. C. A. cabinet and Elizabeth Sinclair is a member of the W. S. G. A. board. Katharine Thomas and Alice Griffith made the freshman play last spring and Irma Craig was one of twenty chosen to sing in the chapel choir this year.

The spring dance was at the Soangtaha Country Club preceded by a cooky-shine at the home of a ΠΦ patroness, Mrs. S. A. Ingersoll. The spring party for Galesburg rushees was given at the Arcade Roof Garden.

With Mary Coggeshall as rushing captain the fall season proved very successful. A Spanish Fiesta, Waterman's Breakfast, Bohemian Tea and Sandman's Supper were among the parties. The final party was a formal dinner given by the alumnae at the home of Mrs. W. P. Jackson (Julia C. Carr).

On September 25 Illinois Δ pledged the following girls: Ruth Christy, Lorraine Smith, Barbara Sinclair, and Jean Barry of Galesburg; Jane Owen, Wilmette; Ruth McHugh, Kewanee; Janet Kingsley, Waverly, Iowa; Louise Jarl, Chicago; Dorothea Baker, Rockford; Winifred Murphy, Western Springs; Margaret Guilford, La Grange; Jeanne Godolphin, Oak Park; Lois Harris, Oneida; Helen Strubhar, Peoria; Katherine Kellogg, Cambridge. After the pledge ceremony the alumnae served a cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. S. D. Wolff.

The engagements of Marie Holly to Ralph Robinson, ΒΘΠ, and of Florence Hall to Phillip Gentry, ΦΓΔ were announced last spring.

LEONTINE NEIGER.

ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY (Chartered 1894)

Pledge Day—September 26, 1926

After more rigid entrance requirements than ever and three intelligence examinations given under the supervision of the personnel department, 350 freshman women and 400 men were admitted to the School of Liberal Arts of Northwestern University. Esther Lloyd-Jones, an alumna of Illinois E was summoned from Columbia University, where she has been lecturing, to assist for a week in the freshman work on the campus.

Much effort was spent in helping the new students over the first homesick days, and the Big Sister party under the leadership of Estelle Farley proved a most successful medium for the new arrivals to become acquainted. Midge Walte, the social chairman of the athletic association, was hostess at another enjoyable affair given by W. A. A. Several undergraduate women representatives of two or three outstanding fraternities, including ΠΒΦ, are also working to bring about a more friendly understanding between fraternity women and the girls in the unorganized groups.

After the banquet on September 25, the new  $\Pi\Phi$  pledges were proudly presented to Northwestern's Society at the "Joint," the first dance of the year which is sponsored by both the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. The twenty girls who have pledged themselves to uphold the ideals of  $\Pi\Phi$  are, Leah Lamborn, Edith Jenkins, Pauline Billows, Dorothy Dickson, Dorothy Sheard, Virginia Casler, Margaret Meyercord, Martha Louise Dunbar, Virginia Marshall, Helen Frazer, Doris Chatfield, Eleanor Thrall, Helen Maynard, Glenn Johnson, Meda Sharon, Charlotte Cornell, Noami McDowell, Ethel Finn, Natalie McChesney, and Gladys Holmes.

When the honors of last May Day were awarded, Estelle Farley was elected to Mortar Board, and Dorothy Coleman was one of the three senior women who received the final emblem of W. A. A. There are  $\Pi\Phi$ s on the executive boards of all the stronger organizations. Betty Davis is head of the judiciary council of W. S. G. A., Marjorie Smith serves on W. A. A. board, and Ruth Chatfield is a cabinet member of Y. W. C. A. and head of social survey. The position of junior representative on the student council is filled by another  $\Pi\Phi$ , Agnes Cornell.

The construction of the new women's fraternity houses progressed very rapidly during the summer months and it will not be very long before the  $\Pi\Phi$ s will be comfortably settled in their new home.

The coming year holds much promise as the chapter is aiming at scholarship quite as much as at social activities.

SUZANNE RUTH CHATFIELD.

ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Pledge Day—September 25, 1926

It has been said that the campuses of so many universities throughout the country are beautiful, and when the University of Illinois is mentioned there have been no enthusiastic exclamations about the beauty of the place. Perhaps this was due to the small amount of land available for the campus, for such universities as Washington, LelandStanford and Wisconsin extend over many acres. With three new buildings, however, of the most modern type and the expert landscaping which is now being accomplished, there is no doubt that the campus of the University of Illinois will be at least mentioned among the most beautiful in the country.

A new ruling is being enforced concerning the use of automobiles by the students. Only students who have permits from the Council of Administration are allowed to operate cars, and they can not take other students with them. There has been much objection by the student body, and everyone is wondering how long this law will last.

Registration was even better this semester than last. With the new library in use, the crowds were greatly reduced and registration was completed in four days.

This was the first year of preferential bidding. There are both good and bad points to be considered, because there is a more marked rivalry between the women's fraternities on the campus. Some of the smaller organizations were unfortunate and now have to do further rushing. The council has seen the flaws in the system this year, and if continued, it no doubt will be changed and an improved system established.  $\Pi\Phi$  was successful in pledging twenty-one girls.

Illinois Z is very proud of Lucile Welch and Louise Bresee who were elected into  $\Phi\beta\kappa$  last spring; and also of the fact that the names of Louise Bresee and Sarah Fisher are on the Mortar Board for 1926. Ruth Martin

Ethel Luddon and Louise Bresee were elected into Masque and Bauble, an honorary dramatic club on the campus.

Homecoming this year was October 16, with a banquet that night for the alumnae.

INITIATES

(Initiated September 25, 1926)

Sue Barnes, '27, Decatur, Ill.
Jane Dale, '29, Greenville, Ill.
Vesta Harper, '29, Nason, Ill.
Emily McDavid, '29, Decatur, Ill.
Helen Moffett, '29, Decatur, Ill.
Grace Spensley, '29, Springfield, Ill.
Irma Young, '29, Flora, Ill.

Since all the pledges except one returned this fall, Illinois H is prepared to begin an intensive year's work for  $\Pi\Phi$ . Seven pledges were initiated after meeting the requirements which are higher scholastically than any other fraternity at Millikin. The new initiates have also met an activity requirement.

Jane Dale has been appointed as a reporter for The Decaturian. Erma Young and Vesta Harper are assisting in reorganizing the Spanish Club. Grace Spensley is assistant to the librarian.

In athletics last spring, the  $\Pi\Phi$  won the Intra-mural Track Cup by taking the relay and first place in five other events. Helen Moffett won the individual honors for the meet.

The most interesting work for the chapter so far this year has been the organization of the campus activities, the classes, department clubs, Y. W. C. A. and athletic association. As rushing comes the second semester, there is more time for the upper classmen to keep  $\Pi\Phi$  first in activities.

Rolande Brosseau has been reelected art editor for the Millidek, the annual year book. As president of the Art Guild, Rolande was a capable leader and helped to make it possible for  $\Delta\Phi\Delta$  to install a chapter at Millikin last spring, and is now vice president of this new chapter.

Three girls are on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, Rolande Brosseau as publicity chairman, Lois Seago, treasurer and Laurine Huckie, secretary. Barbara Watkins is secretary of W. S. G. A.; Magdaline Mitchell is on the staff of the year book; Jane Girten is on the staff of The Decaturian and is also vice president of La Cercle Francaise. Esther Engelder, is president of W. A. A. Miram Moore has been pledged to  $\Lambda\Phi\Delta$  and is assistant to the Professor of education. Miram is one of the two seniors who are members of  $\Pi M\Theta$ , senior honorary. Lois Seago is president of this organization.

Catherine Engelder, a senior of last year, was chosen the most representative girl on the campus. Denise Brosseau and Vesta Harper were two of the three most beautiful women on the campus. Mary Annette Humphrey was an honor graduate last June.

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

(Chartered 1868)

The P. E. O. Memorial Library is becoming more and more a reality at Iowa Wesleyan, and ground is to be broken soon this fall for the building of this memorial to the "Original Seven." With the beginning of work on this library, Iowa Wesleyan's building campaign starts in earnest a new science hall and athletic field to follow.

Local Panhellenic has decided to inaugurate Thanksgiving rushing and pledging this fall instead of postponing rush week until the beginning of the second semester as has been the custom for the last four years. Women's fraternities are trying to eliminate the confusion that accompanies this week and make rushing conflict in the least way possible with the regular college routine during this time.

On the evening of May 17 following an initiation dinner the following eight girls were initiated into Iowa A: Virginia Bishop, Martha Crane, Rebecca Firebaugh, Joy Hall, Ethel Murphy, Elizabeth Rogers, Ethel Stevens and Mary Williams.

Iowa A enjoyed a visit from Gail De Wolf, Zeta Province President, on October 2 and 3, and during her visit the alumnae chapter entertained the active chapter, their guest and pledges at an informal supper. A dinner party at Hershey Hall attended by the active chapter was also in honor of Miss De Wolf.

Pi Phis are holding many honorable and outstanding positions on the campus this semester. Betty Keyhoe is president of Panhellenic and a member of the House Council of Hershey Hall. Helen Phelps is a member of B I I  $\theta$ , honorary French fraternity, and the college band. Helen Hobbs is also a member of B I I  $\theta$  and last May received an invitation to membership to I  $\phi$ , local honorary scholastic fraternity. Martha Crane is vice president of the Student Council and on the Wesleyan News staff. Margaret Rogers, whose name was omitted from the list of those whose scholastic standing entitled them to a place on the I  $\phi$  Honor Roll this fall, is also on the News staff, and Ethel Murphy is a member of Hershey Hall house council. Virginia Bishop is in the Wesleyan band and is a Sophomore representative on the Student Council. Three Pi Phis are also members of the glee club. Helen Phelps, Joy Hall, and Alma Keemer.

The administration at Wesleyan required freshmen to come one week early this fall to receive the benefits of Freshman Week. This is a new undertaking on the campus, and its first trial proved it a successful one. A week later the Inner Circle, composed of faculty women and wives of professors, entertained all college girls at a tea. Pi Phis were delighted to meet there Mrs. Glen Bingham (Miriam Reid), whose husband is head coach of football at Wesleyan. Mrs. Bingham was a I  $\phi$  at Denver University.

Iowa A is already making plans toward the ever inspiring Convention. The chapter is working hard to raise her scholastic rank.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE

(Chartered 1874)

Pledge Day—September 25, 1926

For the second time Freshman Week has been successful on this campus during the first week of registration. Assisting with the enrollment were Elizabeth Carpenter and Alice Judson. The plan of registering freshmen first is fast becoming the most efficient method of accommodating newcomers before the arrival of upperclassmen.

Rushing was scheduled a week earlier this year, and after two weeks of unusual rivalry between fraternities, Iowa B pledged seventeen girls. After the pledge ceremony dinner was served by the alumnae. According to annual custom the fraternities held open house all evening. The following girls were pledged: Esther Jean Harlan, Indianola, Iowa; Frances Kern, Norwalk, Iowa; Ila Hughes, Norwalk, Iowa; Mary Martha Sprague, Indianola, Iowa; Helen Dudley, Lake Worth, Fla.; Mildred McNay, Garden Grove, Iowa; Doris Atack, Indianola, Iowa; Emma Beebee, Logan, Iowa; Martha Berry, Indianola, Iowa; Margaret Craft, Sidney, Iowa; Edna Dean, Indianola, Iowa; Maude Hale, Collins, Iowa; Elinor Brown, Indianola, Iowa; Frances Marie Huntsinger, Missouri Valley, Iowa; Josephine Replogle, Red Oak, Iowa; June Slocum and Virginia Walton of Indianola, Iowa.

The house committee has been busily engaged in plans for the new chapter house. In November the first payments on one hundred dollar notes will be due. The house fund is growing rapidly, and it is hoped that building can begin in the near future.

Lester Spring of New York City has been elected to head the vocal department of the conservatory. The chair of history is occupied by Francis I. Moats after a year's leave of absence to obtain his degree at the University of Iowa.

In the spring honors were bestowed upon several Pi Phis. Ethyl Kirk, Esther Kirkendall, Hester Beery, and Evelyn McKinley took minor roles in the play, "A Kiss for Cinderella" which was presented by the dramatic club. Class honors for the year were won by Alice Judson and Elizabeth Carpenter, junior and freshman respectively. By merit of her high scholastic standing, Marguerite Robinson was invited to membership in E E.

Commencement festivities were participated in by three members of Iowa B. At the Maypole winding, Margaret Patterson was crowned May Queen, having been elected by vote of the student body. Hester Beery and Elizabeth Carpenter were chosen to be two of the six royal attendants.

Alice Judson is president of local Panhellenic for the coming year.

Six girls from Iowa B, chaperoned by Dr. Louise Fillman of the faculty, toured the east during one of the summer months. Their visit in Washington was very thrilling since they were permitted to call upon Mrs. Coolidge who graciously entertained them in the Red Room at the White House.

IOWA GAMMA—IOWA STATE COLLEGE

Chartered 1887

Pledge Day—September 28, 1926

Iowa State College opened on September 27 with an increased enrollment of ten per cent over last year. The new Home Economics Building was completed this summer, and is the best of its kind in the country.

For the second time, rushing was held at Iowa State College before college opened, beginning on September 22. Iowa G pledged the following girls: Candace Secor, Des Moines, Iowa; Helen Goepfinger, Boone, Iowa; Helen Fay, Des Moines, Iowa; Helen Hager, Waukon, Iowa; Eleanor Pierce, Creston, Ill; Beryl Laycock, Hollywood, Calif; Sarah Sawyer, Ames, Iowa; June Carey, Algona, Iowa; Marjorie Jameson, Hollywood, Cal.; Frances Reis, Ames, Iowa; Margaret Jean Verran, Des Moines, Iowa; Marguerite Baker, Des Moines, Iowa; Mary Catherine Peckinpugh, Newcastle, Ind;

Mary Merrick, Boone, Iowa; Dorothy Dunlap, Ames, Iowa; Jean Padden, Waterloo, Iowa.

Thirza Hull is editor for the Iowa Homemaker for this year. Virginia Alexander is publicity manager for W. A. A., and during the summer has edited a booklet for the freshmen about W. A. A., called The Guide. Last spring Virginia reached the finals in both tennis and horse-shoe pitching. Vida Secor won the cup for dancing with an original dance in the individual competitive contest. For the first time, Iowa F won the intramural cup in baseball, and will try for it again.

Beryl Spinney and Virginia Alexander had leading parts in the Velshea Night Show last spring, and both were elected to National Collegiate Players, honorary dramatic society.

During the summer the chapter house was redecorated by the Alumnae, and a new rug and hangings were purchased for the living room this fall. Eight girls graduated this summer, several of whom are teaching this year. Virginia Reck won a fellowship at Yale for this year, where she will study and also assist in laboratory instruction.

MARGARET PROCTOR

IOWA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
(Chartered 1882)

Pledge Day—September, 17, 1926

The summer of 1926 ended a most successful college year for Iowa Z. The chapter has been represented in nearly every activity in Iowa's campus. Eleanor Gamble, Dorothy Wilson, and Cornelia Van Oosterhout were conspicuously honored by being three of the twelve girls annually elected to Staff and Circle, honorary society for senior women. Percie Ellen Van Alstin is president of the Erodolphian literary society and Gwendolyn Vinson is corresponding secretary. Esther Fuller, vice president of Women's Association, became head of that organization upon the resignation of the president. Olive Morse, Katherine Theilan, and Marjorie Mars are members of the university glee club.

In athletics as well as other activities, IIF has its representatives. Cornelle Van Oosterhout is president of Seals, the women's swimming society and Dorothy Wilson is vice president, while Percie Ellen Van Alstine is the Seal's representative on the W. A. A. board.

A new system of registration was inaugurated by the university this year whereby all freshmen were registered the first day, all upper-classmen being registered the two days following. Cornelle Van Oosterhout, Eleanor Gamble, Esther Fuller, and Dorothy Wilson assisted in registering.

During rushing the new Panhellenic rules were put into effect with the result that the season was outstanding because of the good sportsmanship among the women's fraternities on the campus. Iowa Z announces the pledging of the following girls: Vivian Allen, Katherine Dakin, Dorothy Gruwell, Pauline Kidd, Helen Omer, Ruth Thompson, Barbara Therme, Lois Thornburg, Agnes Torvick, and Ethalyn Strickling.

Mrs. May Snider of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, is the new house mother for IIF.

Burrie Redenbough, Doris Lampe, Betty Haw, and Cornelia Van Oosterhout were participants in Iowa City's annual style show.

MISSOURI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

(Chartered 1899)

Pledge Day—September 26, 1926.

The new Panhellenic rules on rushing made last spring have proved very satisfactory in lessening expenses and doing away with other complications under the old rules. Rushing began this year on September 13, and four parties were given during the three days of rushing including the Carnival and the Sweetheart Shoppe. The alumnae club gave a charming tea one afternoon. Fourteen attractive girls were pledged, who are: Ruth Coursault, Edith Dorsey, Gertrude Giffert, Mary Gordon, Sue Catherine Graham, Harriet Guitar, Helen Kile, Martha Anne Martin, Emma Monier, Margaret Louise Ott, Helen Reed, Lucy Shelby, Elizabeth Talbot, Betty Young.

Last year was brought to a successful conclusion through the election of Lillian Hart to  $\Phi B K$ ; of Agnes Hildebrand to Mortar Board and as secretary of W. S. G. A.; of Alma Hill as president of senior women; and of Catherine Berry to the student council.

Margaret Williams and Frances Brewer represented  $\Pi \Phi$  in the inter-sorority riding and tennis contests and won both the silver cups for Missouri A. This is the second time  $\Pi \Phi$  has won the cup in the annual university horse show. Margaret Enloe was chosen one of the 1926 Savitar Queens.

$\Pi B \Phi$  is actively represented in practically every organization on the campus and holds offices in most of them. Helen Louise Woodsmal and Lillian Hart are members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, Margaret Parks is vice president of  $\Gamma A X$ , women's professional advertising fraternity; Mary Garrison is on the Savitar staff.

Scholarship is being emphasized and with this end in view, study hall is held two hours every night for pledges, and quiet is observed in the house for studying. The official  $\Pi \Phi$  ring will be given to the pledge making the highest average for the semester.

Missouri University is very proud of her new stadium which was dedicated on October 2 at her first game with Tulane.

CATHERINE BERRY

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

(Chartered 1907)

Pledge Day—September 22, 1926

Missouri B is particularly elated over the outcome of rushing. Fifteen lovely girls have been pledged all of whom are excellent  $\Pi \Phi$  material. Several are non-residents of St. Louis which is unusual, since most of the members live in town. Each one is interested in the point system for initiation and is working hard on tryouts for activities and athletics.

Careful consideration is being given to the selection of one of the freshmen as candidate for the Most Popular Freshman Girl contest. The primary requisite being that, other than popularity, she be a good scholar.

Washington University shows renewed interest in the promoting of another musical comedy. The Musical Comedy Club, a permanent institution, made possible by the success of the presentation last year, has been organized to take charge of the endeavor.  $\Pi \Phi$  feels assured of as active an interest this year as last. Several manuscripts of musical scores and lyrics, the works of Washington students, are being considered by the club.

Dorothy Lippman has been elected as art editor of Dirge, comic publication.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

(Chartered 1914)

Pledge Day—October 30, 1926

College has just opened at Drury and Missouri  $\Gamma$  is delightedly anticipating the events of the coming year. Rushing will not occur until October 29 and 30.

Drury possesses three new buildings: a library, a conservatory of music and a girl's dormitory.

Dr. Bennett, the new professor of education at Drury, has been called to be the dean of the college.

This year, Freshman Week was held on the campus, and only a few upperclassmen, selected by the faculty were allowed to assist. IIB $\Phi$  contributed two girls as helpers.

$\Delta$   $\Gamma$  X, local men's fraternity, has just moved into a new house on Benton Street. This new home is most attractive and promises to be one of the social centers of the campus.

At pledging last spring, Skiff, senior women's honor society which is limited to eight members elected a Missouri  $\Gamma$  to membership.

Gail De Wolf's early visit is eagerly anticipated.

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

(Chartered 1895)

Pledge Day—September 18, 1926

With a magnificent new home nearly finished, twenty-six brand new, hard-working pledges, and as many equally industrious active members to initiate this structure on its completion, Nebraska B has prospects of the red letter year in its career.

The new house, a modified Georgian Colonial in red brick, is an imposing edifice of three stories. The chapter is at present residing in its old frame house, but expects to move about the first of November. One of the most important features of the new house is its proximity to the campus. This should result in an increase of interest in, and entrance into campus activities by members of Nebraska B.

Mrs. C. M. Noble, (Emma Patton, Iowa B) of Sapulpa, Okla., the respected and beloved house mother of last year has returned to take her place in the house and in the heart of every girl again.

From the beginning of rush week, Monday, September 13, until the informal pledging of twenty-six prize girls on Saturday, September 18, the active members who returned were busy meeting and attempting to choose the potential Pi Phis in the wealth of material entering the University of Nebraska this year. The parties, six in all, ranged from a welcome breakfast on Monday morning in which the scarlet and cream of Nebraska predominated in the color scheme to the formal dinner Wednesday evening. The latter, called the Rose dinner is a traditional event, attendance at which, in the majority of cases infers the choice of IIB $\Phi$  as a fraternity. From then until Saturday at 5 p. m., closed rushing exists which is mostly a period of waiting and hoping.

Maxine Mathers, Doris Meservey, Eleanor Mills, Marion Rose, Katherine Ruegge, Gwen Schroyer, Hilda Ulstrom, Vivian Vickery, Marion Wilkerson, and Madeline Wyer. That comparatively early in the college year, Nebraska B has already begun her campus activities is illustrated by the following: Elsa Kerkow who last spring held the distinction of being chosen for Mortar Board, was recently elected vice-president of that organization; Laura Marie Buchanan, was chosen to represent  $\Pi\Phi$  in  $\Sigma\Delta$ , girl's honorary organization of the sophomore class; while Helen Boose is the new  $\Pi\Phi$  in Mystic Fish, the freshman honorary. Margaret Gairdner has been elected secretary of  $\Delta O$ , musical honorary.  $\Pi\Phi$  is represented on the staff of the university daily by Florence Swihart who is writing special feature stories. In Y. W. C. A. work, Margaret Hyde is chairman of the World Forum committee.

Nebraska B was pleasantly surprised the Friday evening of rush week when Leona Baumgartner, President of Eta Province, paid the chapter a brief call between trains, on her way to Montana, obtaining a fleeting glance of the new house and an almost shorter chat with the girls.

KANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

(Chartered 1873)

Pledge Day—September 16, 1926.

Kansas A has just completed a very successful rush week and is happy to announce as pledges: Betty Ball, Nellie Marie Davis, Dorothy Dunmire, Frances Egan, Margaret Fisher, Maxine Fisher, Kathryn French, Mary Gardner, Jane Griffith, Dorothy Hall, Julia Hamilton, Mary Evelyn Hogue, Helen Hungerford, Anne Katherine Innes, Marion Keck, Susan Keith, Mary Louise Olmstead, Dorothy Phillips, Virginia Power, Clara Olive Snyder, Alice Sutton, Elizabeth Wilkinson and Maxine Wilson. A cooky-shine, at which many of the alumnae were present, was held after the pledging ceremony.

Through the efforts and assistance of the Lawrence alumnae club the chapter house has been redecorated and refurnished this fall. These improvements have added much to the enthusiastic spirit of Kansas A for high aspirations and accomplishments during the coming year.

The chapter again welcomes Mrs. Jane Maclean as the  $\Pi\Phi$  chaperon.

Among the social functions this fall have been a tea for the  $\Pi\Phi$  alumnae in Lawrence, and a tea given for all members of the faculty. Open house for the freshmen was on October 1.

Jane Jones has been elected to El Ateneo, an honorary Spanish organization. Esther Settle is the new vice president of Jay Janes, the women's pep organization.  $\Pi\Phi$  is represented in the women's glee club by Betty Ball, Rose McColloch, and Marcene Maclaren. As a result of try-outs, Marian Keck has been chosen for the K. U. dramatic club, of which Josephine Dana is already a member.

The building impetus which has been dominating the K. U. campus for the past few years, finds its climax in the new Auditorium, which is under construction at the present time. Among the new fraternity homes, those of  $\Lambda X \Omega$  and  $\Lambda O \Pi$  are nearing completion.

ROSE MCCOLLOCH

KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE
(Chartered 1915)

Pledge Day—September 18, 1926

Preferential bidding was used at the Kansas State Agricultural College for the first time this year. It proved very successful for Kansas B, resulting in the pledging of eleven new girls. They are Frances Beal, Virginia Fielding, Virginia Forrester, Frances Gibson, Laura Hart, Virginia Lovitt, Vera McCaslin, Abby Jane Moore, Margaret Rankin, Catherine Sheetz, and Bonnie Wright.

Much enthusiasm is being shown in campus activities this year by both the pledges and the active members. Every freshman tried out for the fall play "Mary Rose" and Florabel West was chosen for leading lady. Glee club tryouts have also been held and IIBΦ is represented by Mary Burnette Evelyn Torrence, Laura Hart, Virginia Lovitt, Vera McCaslin and Margaret Rankin. Margaret Rankin is also a member of the college orchestra.

Kansas Betas were delighted to find, after the fraternity averages had been made, that they again ranked first in scholarship on the campus. Every effort is being made to keep up the standard for this year.

Two new buildings have made their appearance on the campus since last spring. The new dormitory, Van Zile Hall, was finished in time for the new girls this fall. Every freshman girl was invited to live there and it is, indeed, a lovely place. The new library is under construction and will be ready for occupancy by September 1927.

Kansas B is looking forward to having a new home soon. Plans are being made and all sorts of schemes are being devised to save money for the new house.

MARY BROOKS

WYOMING ALPHA, UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING
(Chartered 1910)

Pledge Day—October 14, 1926

INITIATES

(Initiated April 3, 1926.)

Zita Miller, '29, Cheyenne, Wyo.

Josephine Hay, '26, Rock Springs, Wyo.

(Initiated Sept. 25, 1926.)

Bernice Griffith, '29, Ely, Nev.

Maurine Lane, '29, Laramie, Wyo.

Lillian Susilla, '29, Parkerton, Wyo.

Wyoming University opened this year, with the largest registration in the history of the institution—the freshman class, alone, having nearly twice the number of students of the freshman class of last year. The campus has not only been enlarged and beautified, but with the addition of six new tennis courts, and the engineering building nearing completion, it begins to assume the proportions of a large university.

This fall a new method of aiding the freshman women has been adopted. The second week of college was set aside for Freshman Week, in which rushing by the women's fraternities was strictly prohibited. Among the ten girls elected to be Big Sisters during this week, four were Pi Phi's—Louise MacNiff, Lillian Susilla, Bernice Griffith and Lucy Tallafarro.

During the summer, a party of twenty-eight university people, headed by Dr. Kemp, noted geologist of Columbia University, and Dr. Knight of Wyoming University motored through Yellowstone Park, studying the geology of the park. In the party were six Wyoming Alphas—Louise MacNiff, Lillian Susilla, Margery Griffith, Constance Chatterton and Jean Mabee.

The beautiful initiation service was held on September 25, adding three splendid girls to the chapter. Initiation was followed by a formal banquet at the chapter house.

Many honors were accorded Wyoming Pi Phis last spring. Both the president and vice president of the Associated Women Students are Pi Phis, Elizabeth Johnston and Arletta Wyant. Both Elizabeth and Arletta were also elected to Cap and Gown, a local senior honorary, petitioning Mortar Board. Lillian Susilla, Zita Miller and Maurine Lane received bids from Iron Skull, the honorary sophomore fraternity. In the spring elections for junior class officers, Sarah Holmes was made secretary-treasurer. With sophomore initiation in effect at Wyoming, the very high average of 1.5 must be made by a freshman girl for initiation. Zita Miller was one of the two freshmen on the campus who made this average and was initiated.

Wyoming A, for the second consecutive time, in competition with the other women's fraternities and local clubs on the campus, won the silver loving cup, given by the university on stunt night.

The honorary educational club, KΔΠ was installed here in May, three of the charter members being Pi Phis—Arletta Wyant, Esther Konkle, and Alleen Nelson. Arletta Wyant was elected to the only office open to students.

Word has been received that the local fraternity ΓΖ has been given the right to petition KΚΓ formally.

During the summer, the chapter house, with the financial aid of the alumnae club, was entirely redecorated, and the dining room refurnished.

Wyoming A is looking forward to a visit from Amy B. Onken in early November.

(Chartered 1884)

INITIATES

Alaine Meyer, '29, Denver, Colo.

Charlotte Tegarden, '28, Golden, Colo.

Colorado A announces the pledging of Mary Calkins, Julia Lee Smith, Betty Foster, Willa Wolcott, Florence Allison, Letha Lyon, Harriet Rice, Florence Searle, Maxine Waler, Martha Wilder, Floy Baucum, Nell Gardner, Kathleen Goodman, Thelma Hultin, Beth Johnson, Marie Johnson, Elizabeth McCarthy, Mary O'Connor, Helen Scott, Virginia St. John, Mary Warren, and Mary Wood. The pledge ceremony was held at five o'clock in the afternoon and was followed by a Cooky-shine at the chapter house.

Frances Patee, Colorado A president of last year, is president of the Associated Women Students of the University of Colorado. She was elected last spring and was sent by the association to the convention of Student Self-Government Associations in Berkeley, Calif., last March.

The dean of women has requested that all women's fraternities on this campus have chaperon-managers. Colorado A is trying this system for the first time with Mrs. Marion Balmer as the chaperon-manager.

The new chapter house of Colorado A has been started and is expected to be finished soon after the first of the year. It will have on the third floor a large chapter room open only to initiated members. There will also be a second floor living-room and study room.

The Chemistry Building has just been completed, and work is being started on a new women's gymnasium.

MARGARET MORTON

COLORADO BETA, UNIVERSITY OF DENVER
(Chartered 1885)

Pledge Day—September 20, 1926

INITIATES

(Initiated June 19, 1926)

Mildred Edmonds, '29, 2815 South Acoma St., Denver, Colo.
Margaret Glass, '29, 1921 Emerson St., Denver, Colo.
Gladys Recker, '29, 2171 So. Columbine St., Denver, Colo.
Alexandria Ware, '29, 145 Franklin St., Denver, Colo.

Colorado B announces the pledging of Alice Aronson, Mary Bagall, Marjorie Bloedorn, Irene Carnine, Jeanette Jack, Ruth Large, Virginia Mallonee, Helen Ann Oaks, Virginia Quarles and Marjorie Seltzer. Pledging was held in the Bungalow, September 20, at six o'clock in the morning.

A special June initiation, made necessary by second semester pledging on the campus last year, was held at the home of Marie Albi in the city, June 19. The chapter gave a banquet following the ceremony in the Cosmopolitan Hotel in honor of the new initiates.

ΠΦ counts nine of its members as assistants in the university this year. This is almost half of the entire active chapter. Marjorie Cutler and Laura Cutler are assisting in the biology department; Genevieve Behen, in history; Ella Jane Fellows, in psychology; Maxine Goldsmith, in sociology; Gladys Recker, in French; Grace Tarbel, in chemistry; and Ione Goodknight and Katherine Shattuck, in English.

Laura Cutler is secretary of the Big Sister organization and assisted at the Big Sister tea, which was given in Main Hall early in September for all the women of the university.

In October Colorado B entertained all the unaffiliated Greek women on the campus at a formal dinner in the Bungalow. The girls intend to make this a ΠΦ tradition. On October 15 the chapter with the Denver alumnae club gave a subscription dance at the Coronado Club.

The Drama Club opened its season this year with an unprecedented type of play, Sophocles' "Oedipus at Colonus."

Ground for the new ΒΘΠ house will be broken after the close of the football season. The house is to cost $40,000, $10,000 less than the limit set by the University of Denver on fraternity homes. It will be of old English architecture and will stand immediately south of the new stadium, the first house to be built on Fraternity Row.

The men's fraternities on the campus inaugurated a new system of rushing this year. Heretofore, pledging was in order upon the opening of college, but this year no fraternity could pledge until Thursday evening of the first week of college. Formal rushing was held up until that day.

(Initiated September 11, 1926)

Avis Beauman, '27, Pawhuska, Okla.
Dorothy Darrah, '28, Independence, Kans.
Mary Elizabeth Epley, '27, Houston, Tex.
Marcellette Grant, '29, Tulsa, Okla.
Margaret Morgan, '29, Norman, Okla.
Olive Snyder, '29, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Many changes mark the beginning of the first semester at the University of Oklahoma. A large Liberal Arts building was completed during the summer and is used as classrooms for English, philosophy and most of the history courses. Two girls' dormitories have also been completed. These dormitories cost $150,000 each and are modern and fireproof with reasonable rates. Two dining rooms are maintained to accommodate the residents of the halls.

The new dean of women, Mrs. Edna McDaniel, comes to this university from Texas where she was connected with the University of Texas, Baylor University and Baylor College. She has a very pleasing personality and is already very popular among the students.

Rushing rules for this season were changed somewhat. Rushées were not allowed to spend the night in the women's fraternity houses, but were assigned rooms in the new residential halls. The new plan seemed very satisfactory and Oklahoma A closed a very successful rushing season by pledging nineteen lovely girls. The pledges are: Mary Dean Scott, Josephine Bernay, Marvina Cochran, Dell Blattner, Ruth Little, Jane Bowman, Virginia Patterson, Wilma Collins, Virginia Bartley, Martha McBirney, Lolita Murdock, Dorothy Campbell, Helen Anne Ryan, Elizabeth Brooks, Martha Lee Brazil, Lila Swindler, Lillian Alice Callahan, Lillian Asher, Mary Virginia Dudley. Open house was held for these girls Sunday, September 26.

Martha Holt, Illinois Z, Mary Wood, Arkansas A, and Margaret Noble, Texas B have transferred to the University of Oklahoma. Oklahoma A is very glad to welcome them.

Jane Bowman was elected Freshman Queen at the first class meeting of the year, which is one of the highest honors any girl in the university may receive. Wynola Walker was elected secretary of the sophomore class in the spring general election. Elizabeth Cansler was elected to membership in the Blue Divers Club, honorary swimming organization. Mariam Kernodle was made a member of  $\Phi\beta\epsilon$ , honorary scholastic fraternity of the school of education.

Two new charters have been granted local fraternities. AXA will be installed October 10 and the local chapter of  $\Delta\Gamma$  has been granted a charter by  $\Delta\Gamma$ . The chapter will be installed sometime in February.

$\Lambda\Phi$  and  $\Phi\kappa\psi$  have beautiful new homes this fall.

Pledge Day—September 11, 1926

Oklahoma B closed a most successful rush week on September 11, and announces the following pledges: Margaret Tate, Gertrude Smith, Helen Fleming, Frances Jenkins, Stillwater; Dorothy Heflin, Fairfax, Okla., Edna Porter, Wichita, Kan., Mildred Hess, Blackwell, Okla.; Pearl and Thelma Hensley, Lubbock, Tex., Josephine Rogers, Jonesboro, Ark.; D'Este White, Altus, Okla.; Ione Neal, Chandler, Okla.; Eloise Glazner, Eufaula, Okla.; Bess Bradley, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Margie Hancock, Sapulpa, Okla.; Pearl White, Tulsa, Okla.; and Virginia Walton, Cushing, Okla.

The new \$25,000 chapter house is fast nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy on or about October 15. In the meantime,  $\Pi\Phi$  headquarters are located in the home of Senator Harry Jones.

The Stillwater alumnae club planned and took charge of the six very lovely rush parties, which included a butterfly luncheon, a formal dinner, a circus luncheon, and a sweetheart dinner.

The 1926 graduates were Mary Tree Watson and Inez Goodholm-Schedler. Mary Watson, who received her degree in Physical Education, is at present in London with her mother, studying dancing. Mrs. Schedler, who received her degree in music, was formerly Inez Goodholm, corresponding secretary of Oklahoma and became the bride of Carl Schedler, AXA, in Oklahoma City on July 4 and is at home in Stillwater.

Oklahoma A. & M. announces the completion of a fine new building, Whitehurst Hall, named after the president of the state board of agriculture. This brings the number of major buildings on the campus to sixteen.

Martha Loy, has been elected to the presidency of the Peppers, girl's pep organization, and five members of the chapter are in the glee club.

ARKANSAS ALPHA— UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS
(Chartered 1909)

Arkansas A seems to be starting a banner year with twenty new pledges, plenty of enthusiasm and fine prospects for campus activity. Much of this successful beginning may be attributed to the state convention held this summer at Fort Smith. Nell Wallace Kelly was initiated at this convention. Many active and alumnae members attended and the meetings and social affairs were most inspiring. At that time, the alumnae announced that they were trying to find a suitable location for a new  $\Pi\Phi$  house, to be built within the next few years.

In August, the actives had a house party at Bella Vista and combined summer rushing with the party. Many rushees and alumnae came and it seemed a most successful opening for college rushing.

Margaret Jewel is president of the Women's League and since this is the initial year of the League, it is a very important position. Josephine Ellison, Darlene Owens and Margaret Jewel were elected to Rootin' Rubes, a girls' pep organization.

Gertrude Jeter and Josephine Ellison were winners in the beauty contest and appeared in the yearbook, The Raterback.

The University of Texas opened September 23, with an enrollment of 4,151 students. Garrison Hall, the new class building, has been completed and is ready for use. The opening of this building will eliminate the recitation of classes in the shacks. The Alice Littlefield Dormitory for freshman girls is under construction and gives promise of being a very beautiful building.

Dean V. I. Moore is acting as dean of men this year.

Texas A feels that this rush week was one of the most successful ever witnessed, a success in every way. On September 26, the active members entertained with an open house for the pledges.

During the past year Texas A has been fortunate in receiving quite a few campus honors. Marion Ball was elected to  $\Phi$ BK, and Ada Wynne to  $\Pi$  $\Sigma$ A, an honorary government fraternity. To Ashbel, an honorary literary society, five members were chosen from Texas A. Mary Hope Robinson is president of Panhellenic.

The Houston alumnae gave to the house a beautiful love seat and chair which harmonize perfectly with tapestries given by Virginia Tallchet.

The Austin alumnae and the active members have worked together with the greatest possible cooperation through the summer and through rush week.

Rushing at S. M. U. began September 27, and according to the new rules, only sophomores and transfers may be rushed. The alumnae club entertained at tea for the rushees at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dyer (Edith Daniel), and the advisory committee held open house for the Texas Betas and rushees.

The college has two new dormitories, Virginia Hall and Snyder Hall, the housing facilities of these being sufficient to accommodate practically all of the women students. Only girls of over twenty-one years of age will be allowed to live out of the dormitories.

Texas B lost twelve members last year, five through graduation and seven through transfer. At present there are only twelve actives and four pledges.

Nan Shel Waldrop has just returned from Europe and visited the chapter during rush week.

LUCILLE WOMACK

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE

(Chartered 1891)

Pledge Day—September 25, 1926

Louisiana A settles down once more to a year of hard college work at the end of a most successful but strenuous rushing period. Due to a Panhellenic penalty, last year, pledging of freshmen was postponed until February 1927, but, to the great joy of the chapter, this penalty was removed and Louisiana A was allowed to pledge last year's freshmen at the beginning of the fall term 1926-27 instead of at the end. Out of sixteen sophomores bid sixteen were pledged.

Under the new rules adopted by the local Panhellenic on N. P. C.'s recommendation, pledging for freshmen was on the first Saturday after Newcomb opened and the rushing period extended from the day condition examinations began until the day before Pledge Day. This gave the Pi Phi seven days, from September 16 to 24, to rush forty girls: freshmen and sophomores. The chief event of rushing was a house party, given to the freshmen rushees, at the home of the Pi Phi president in Biloxi, Miss. Amusement was afforded by such things as boat rides, surf bathing, moonlight dips in the gulf and devil fishing. After the house party, the first two days of college were given over to registration of old and new students, but rushing went on unretarded. Louisiana A gave a slumber party to the rushees, and Mrs. E. L. Jahncke (Cora Stanton) a most loyal and active alumnae, gave a tea to give the freshmen the opportunity of meeting the Pi Phi alumnae.

Saturday September 25, was Pledge Day. Louisiana A took in twenty-nine wonderful girls, losing only four bids. The pledge luncheon was given at the Orleans Club and much merriment was afforded by making each girl tell why she went Pi Phi. Pledge ceremony was held the same night with the customary solemnity and beauty. A cooky-shine followed, then came the singing of Pi Phi songs.

Saturday, September 25, saw the opening of the football season with a game between Tulane and Louisiana Polytech. The game took place in the old stadium as the new one, for which the money was raised in a drive by Tulane and Newcomb students, is not quite completed. The Newcomb rooters were there in full force and the freshman green caps brightened the scene considerably. Already every girl in Newcomb is saving her dollars for the football trip to Atlanta on October 9, when Tulane will play Georgia Tech.

The Newcomb athletic season opens October 1, and Louisiana A is preparing to go out en masse for all sports.

IOTA PROVINCE

MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANICAL ARTS

(Chartered September 30, 1921)

The scholarship averages for the spring quarter have just been published and Iota again heads the list. The chapter is more than elated because this is the fourth quarter in succession that it has held the highest average, which is rather unusual among women's fraternities here.

Rushing is, at present, holding the attention of every active girl, but as bidding has not yet taken place, the pledges cannot be announced. The parties have been very successful, the first one being a Jade Garden party. The chapter house was decorated with palms and festoons of crepe paper. The dinner was served at small tables and music and dancing rounded out the evening's program. The new rushing rules are stringent, all rushees having to be out of the houses at 7:15 P. M., no luncheon or breakfast dates being allowed.

Montana Alphas have already taken up their various activities, Frances Wylie was elected to Cap and Gown, the senior women's honorary fraternity, and was selected as the chairman of Vocational Congress, for this year. Ruth Rutledge holds a prominent office in Y. W. C. A., and many of the girls are active on the editorial and managerial staffs of both the college paper and the yearbook.

More girls have returned to the college this fall than in any year since this chapter was installed, there being twelve girls in the chapter house.

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO
(Chartered 1923)

Idaho A has experienced a most successful rushing season. Among the new girls is Mary Vina Goldsmith, cousin of THE ARROW editor. Eloise Wright, Montana A, has been affiliated with this chapter.

The pledges are: Annette Blodgett, Margaret Brady, Lulu Conner, Marylou Craven, Mrs. Capitola Davidson, Bess Faraday, Frances Gallet, Mary Vina Goldsmith, Alice Harding, Very Harding, Rachel Jenks, Etheldeane Perkins, Patricia McGrain, Anne McMonigie, Dorothy Nixen, Helen Samuels, Madeline Shields, Josephine Standahl, Eva Vorus, Edna Wagner, Ruby Williams, Letha Wilton, Helen Young.

ΠΦ has a new home, a beautiful house of the old English style. The furnishings have been especially chosen to suit the architecture of the house.

INITIATES

(Initiated April 28, 1926)

Margaret Sutton, '29, 1103 38th St., South Seattle, Wash.

Rushing season has just begun and things look very bright for ΠΦ this year. More than 150 girls were entertained at the Panhellenic tea and about one-third of them gave ΠΦ as first choice. For the next few days, parties of all varieties for the rushees, will prevail. Everything from a circus dinner at which the girls will partake of pink lemonade and hamburger, to a very solemn, but impressive formal ΠΦ dinner will be given.

Margaret Duncan has been elected vice president of the senior class.

With the award by Mr. H. C. Henry of a wonderful art collection, the new art building for this collection is practically completed. There are also some very pretentious new fraternity houses ΑΧΩ, ΧΩ and ΘΞ having new homes. ΤΚΕ and ΔΣΦ have just established new chapters on the campus.

The ΠΦ house was redecorated this summer, and beautiful new curtains besides seven and one-half dozen spoons were donated by the Mother's Club of Seattle. The biggest surprise of all, however, came when just an hour before the tea the mothers came in with three lovely new oriental rugs for the living room and the hall.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

Pledge Day—September 28, 1926

Washington State College opened with an unusually large enrollment, including a freshman class of nearly 1,000. Dr. W. E. Peck is dean of the English department succeeding Dr. C. A. Langworthy. Carl C. Morrow is filling the office of the dean of men, a new position on the campus. A new building housing the college postoffice and Y. M. C. A. rooms is being erected. A new dormitory for women, accomodating 150, has just been completed. The hall is an imposing brick structure beautifully finished inside.

Margaret Bement, one of the June graduates, was on the honor roll every semester during her college course and was graduated with highest honors. Frances Emerson had the leading role in the play given by Mask and Dagger chapter of Intercollegiate Players. Three other Pi Phis also had parts. The leads in the senior play went to Lenore Johnson and Grace Leonard. Frances Emerson is now president of Mask and Dagger and a member of Mortar Board. Wardine Jesseph is vice president of Women's League and secretary of her class.

ΨΝ, a local, was granted a charter by ΑΣΔ and installed late last spring, making the thirteenth national fraternity for women on the campus of the State College. ΒΧΑ, a local, will be installed as ΦΣΚ, early in December.

Washington B had a very successful rushing season this fall and on September 28, pledged eighteen new members. They are: Lorna Britton, Helen Lafferty, Margaret Green, Helen Greene, Elizabeth Green, Esther Stilson, Eleanor Brown, Alice Mahoney, Spokane; Edna McDonald, Lewiston, Idaho; Janet Taylor, Margaret McCaskill, Esther J. Stilson, Seattle; Arvilla Weisel, Elizabeth Keener, Tacoma; Demise Trippeer, Walla Walla; Marie Gillespie, Vera; Gladys Erickson, Ellensburg; and Elizabeth Killian, Orville. A fireside was held after the pledging.

Ruth Chandler has announced her engagement to Wilbur Weisel, ΘΧ.

ROWENA BLOSS

OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

(Chartered 1915)

In keeping with the brisk autumnal days, Oregon A is in the midst of the tumult of getting settled at college once more and preparing for rush-week. Notwithstanding all this great activity for the new year, whenever a circle of girls is formed the conversation invariably turns to the happy incidents of the past year.

There is the experience of Song-Week to be reviewed. Song-Week is the result of an effort to acquaint students with the words and tunes of Oregon songs and to revive the song spirit on the campus. Song leaders were elected for each house on the campus and judges for a contest were appointed. Great rejoicing was held when it was announced that ΠΒΦ and ΚΚΓ were the preliminary winners for women's houses. Then came the final contest and due to the genuine co-operation of every member of the chapter, ΠΦ was voted the best singing organization of women on the University of Oregon campus.

The formal is not easily forgotten. Oh, the gay time that all experienced when the house was transformed into a delightful old-fashioned garden with quaint gates and climbing ivy!

The campus activities deserve much commendation. A most unusual honor was enjoyed by Oregon A last spring, in that both the retiring president of W. A. A., Janet Wood, and the incoming president, Myrtle Mast were both members of ΠΦ. They attended the conference of representatives from Western College Athletic Associations held at Pullman, Wash.

Janet Wood graduated last spring and is now a member of the faculty of the physical education department at the University of Texas.

Mortar Board elected Myrtle Mast and Kathryn Ulrich to membership. After a very successful year as head of the Big Sister Movement, Kathryn was elected president of Woman's League.

Frances Hare was awarded the Orchestis scholarship, given annually by this group of interpretative dancers.

Always of interest are the achievements of other organizations on the campus.  $\kappa \Delta \Phi$ , oldest men's local fraternity, was granted a charter into  $\Sigma \Phi \epsilon$ , a women's fraternity has been granted a charter into  $\kappa \Delta$ . Chi Omegas will soon move into their lovely new home.

At present the campus is astir with preparations to welcome the new president, Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, whose wife is a  $\Pi \Phi$ . Oregon University looks forward to a very promising year.

JACQOISE KIRTLEY

OREGON BETA—OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE (Chartered 1917)

Pledge Day—October 3, 1926

Oregon B has begun another college year, with nineteen active girls returned. The enthusiasm that marks the opening days at college augurs well for the success of  $\Pi \Phi$ .

Jean Vilm, a senior in the school of home economics, is representing O. A. C. at the Merrill Palmer Child-Care School of Detroit, Mich. Another  $\Pi \Phi$ , Alice Kuney, a sophomore in the school of commerce won a loving cup for the best feature writing in journalism.

The chapter is in the midst of a busy rushing season. Some of the rushing features have been a typical southern dinner, The Land O'Nod, a Devil's dinner, and a Pirate dinner.

Oregon B is still working for a new home, the lots for which were purchased last spring.  $\Lambda \chi \Omega$ ,  $\Lambda \Xi \Delta$ ,  $\Sigma \eta$ ,  $\Lambda \tau \Omega$  and  $\theta \Delta \eta$  are among those enjoying new houses.

Oregon B is anticipating a visit from Marvel Skeels Obertauffer, Province President and from Amy B. Onken.

Panhellenic at O. A. C. has followed the suggestion offered by the National Panhellenic Congress of not publishing names of new pledges. This was done to create a more democratic feeling between fraternity and non-fraternity students.

A $300,000 Women's Building has just been completed on the O. A. C. campus.

KAPPA PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA ALPHA—LELAND-STANFORD, JR., UNIVERSITY (Chartered 1893)

Stanford University women's fraternities have gone through their third year of year rushing. This past spring Panhellenic met with Dean Yost to discuss revising the system somewhat. The majority of the living groups wished to return to early pledging, but they could come to no agreement with the authorities. The only change in the program was to omit all entertainment for new women in the winter quarter, and have a longer period for rushing in the spring.

On May 14, the Stanford women presented La Fiesta Lagunita, "The Romance of Canchita and Resenoff." La Fiesta is given every two years, and is the one dramatic production on the campus for which women assume all the responsibilities. Elizabeth Crebs did notable work as head of the ticket sales. Gail Thompson was in charge of the programs. Velma Randall Marjorie Robinson and Marcella O'Keefe were in several group dances, and Marjorie Wilson, Elizabeth Doyle, and Doris Bonner had parts in the pantomime.

Three engagements were announced in the spring: Marcia Morton to Joel Middleton, KΣ, Gail Thompson to Lon Fuller, ΔX, and Celfie Fusler to Robert Eckhoff, Φ K Σ.

Two Pi Phis were married during the summer: Dorothy Williams to Clarence Frazier, Φ K Ψ, on June 16, and Gail Thompson to Lon Fuller, Δ X. The Fraziers are living in Palo Alto, and the Fullers are living in Eugene Ore., where Lon Fuller is a professor in the law department. Dorothy returned for the summer quarter and was granted her M. A.

"Hamlet" was presented during the summer quarter, and Velma Randall played the part of Ophelia.

INITIATES

(Initiated September 2, 1926)

Fritzie Dangberg, '29, Minden, Nev.

Helen Hughson, '29, 3419 Kerchoof Ave., Fresno, Calif.

Elsie Sullivan, '29, 2111 Hyde St., San Francisco, Calif.

After a two weeks' careful and well planned rushing season, California B pledged ten new girls. Pledging followed the breakfast and annual "Derby" given by Σ X for the new pledges.

The freshmen are showing much interest in campus activities as well as those of the chapter. Emily Lowry has made the Thalian Club and is in the Little Theatre Forum; Clara Catherine Hudson is the head of an entertainment group at the Y. W. C. A.; Virginia Canfield, Mary Easton and Eva Miller are on the personnel committee of the Associated Student Body; and a poem of Eleanor Burgess was accepted and published in the literary Review of the Daily Californian.

Π Φ is particularly well represented in campus activities this semester. Margaret Hahman is a captain of the senior advisors among which are Honor Easton, Frances Cooke, and Sigrid Ohrwall. Frances Cooke is a member of the election committee and the student affairs committee, the judicial body of the women students. Margaret Hahman was chosen as one of the five most prominent senior women on the campus to take charge of a committee assisting in a campaign for the passing of an amendment in the legislature this November. Helen Hughson, Katherine Strother, and Constance Holmes are temporarily on the Blue and Gold staff, and are working hard for a permanent appointment. Roberta Duncan is on a committee for the junior prom, and Eleanor Louise Roeding and Frances Cooke are playing in tennis tournaments.

The alumnae club gave a bridge tea for the Π Φ transfers on the campus on September 23. As there are many transfers on the campus, California B will continue to designate luncheon every Thursday as Transfers' Luncheon.

Last Monday night the chapter was honored by the presence of Miss Stebbins, dean of women, and Mrs. Davidson, assistant dean, at an informal dinner. Miss Stebbins talked to the girls about college ideals and the advantages and responsibilities of a fraternity girl.

On November 20, Stanford and California met on the gridiron in the big game of the season. In honor of the Stanford chapter and alumnae, California B held open house on that day.

Freshmen were formally introduced to the campus on October 15, at a tea.

One important day on the campus, was that entire day spent in advertising and encouraging the success of Amendment Ten which will benefit the university if passed in the state legislature. A university meeting was held and a buffet lunch was given on the campus at which two Pi Phis served. Later in the afternoon a tea dansant was given in Stephens Union and that evening the freshmen bon-fire rally was held.

This semester the chapter seems to have more cooperation and is very interested and enthusiastic in bringing up its standing in college activities and in scholarship.

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

(Chartered July 27, 1917.)

Pledge Day—October 5, 1926

California  $\Gamma$  has no new pledges or initiates to announce at this time. There is more good fraternity material available this fall than at any time in recent years. It is felt that competition is keen enough to warrant the addition of more strong nationals.

There have been many improvements on the campus during the summer months. There is a great effort being extended to unite more closely the off campus colleges through common interests and the erection of individual buildings on the campus whenever possible.

$\Pi B \Phi$  is well represented this year in activities. Eugenia McQuatters, Elizabeth VonKleinsmid, Eloise Parke, and Kathleen Campbell are members of Amazons, women's honorary society for the enforcement of university traditions; Helen Hill is on the sophomore executive committee; Jeanne Summerfield is secretary of the junior class; Elizabeth VonKleinsmid is on the junior executive committee, and the rally committee; Eloise Parke is one of California Gamma's most active girls for she serves as president of Spooks and Spokes, junior women's honorary society, secretary of Torch and Tassel, senior women's honor society, as well as being vice president of the university social committee, and in the same capacity for the senior class.

California  $\Gamma$  was very happy to welcome Queniviere Dennis and Elsie Snyder back into the chapter. They attended eastern colleges last year.

Due to the large number of girls living in the chapter house, an addition to the sleeping porches is to be started soon. New showers and dressing rooms are to be added also.

Many new ideas were used during the week of formal rushing. A tea for mothers and daughters was given as a first day event. Another large tea followed rushing to introduce the new pledges to the campus.

INITIATES

Margaret Bennett, '29, Silver City, New Mexico.

Veronne Ferguson, '29, Morenci, Ariz.

Elizabeth Graves, '29, Phoenix, Ariz.

Arizona A started the year with much enthusiasm and with twenty-one active members returned.

Rushing season closed Sunday evening, and  $\Pi \Phi$  pledged eight fine freshmen. Much of this rushing success is due to the work of the captain, Olga Charles, who spent most of the summer planning the various affairs.

During the summer months, the  $\Pi \Phi$  house was redecorated and painted. With new furniture and new drapes, everything is in splendid condition.

All of the girls are interested in activities, and  $\Pi \Phi$  hold some of the most important offices on the campus.

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

Pledge Day—Sept. 13, 1926

There were many important events the last few weeks of the spring semester, the most important being junior and senior weeks. The  $\Pi \Phi$  jinx was given during the junior week, the main plan for the jinx being a circus. The juniors had their picnic and ended the week with a typical gold rush dance.

Many Nevada Alphas took active part in the spring festival, track and archery. The band gave a concert on May 1, followed by the glee club serenade.

$\Pi B \Phi$  was honored by a visit from Grace Parker McPherson, Kappa Province President. She was very helpful and gave many ideas for future development.

Tillie Evanson is vice president of the Commerce Club. Amy Goodman was appointed woman's editor of the Sagebrush. Katherine Davidson is secretary of the Aggie Club and vice president of the home economics club. Margaret Ernst is vice president of Y. W. C. A. and vice president of Manzanita Hall. There are three  $\Pi \Phi$  on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Amy Goodman was elected to Cap and Scroll women's honor fraternity.

The university is making a great effort to abolish all harmful traditions, especially the fights between the freshmen and sophomores. This year a field day was substituted and seemed very successful.

Bid day brought to  $\Pi B \Phi$  twelve new pledges, who are: Dorothy Emmet, Ellen Prince Hawkins, Suzette Bowman, Fay Reinhart, Alice Lemaire, Doris Thompson, Kathryn Robinson, Katherine Priest, Ruth Smith, Mae O' Bannon, Neal Trantor and Kara Lucas.

The campus is being improved by a new lighting system and a new heating plant. The Clark Memorial Library is rapidly being completed.

EXCHANGES AND COLLEGE NOTES

Edited by KATHERINE ROBINSON, Colorado B
1130 South Franklin St., Denver, Colo.

Our large and popular universities, according to the enrollment figures of last year, have changed with the years.

The enrollment figures of our universities, just published, reveal the enormous size of some of these institutions. Columbia University, New York, has 29,761 students; the University of California has 24,628; New York University, 19,900; Minnesota, 18,200; the College of the City of New York, 16,800; Chicago, 12,950; Illinois, 12,785; Michigan, 12,181; Wisconsin, 11,371; Ohio State, 10,725; Pittsburgh, 10,465, etc. The old time "big three"—Harvard, Yale, and Princeton—are now found away down the list in the comparative totals of students enrolled.—Outlook via The Angelos of Kappa Delta.

Would you believe it? But the Magazine of Sigma Chi says it is so.

Which state in the Union has the largest number of college students in proportion to population? Ohio, Massachusetts, Illinois? Not one of them is in the first twelve. Utah has the largest proportional representation in college; Nebraska is fourth, Iowa fifth, Kansas eighth, Minnesota twelfth. Would you believe it?

* * *

After College What? is a question often heard and The Tomahawk of Alpha Sigma Phi, in making a survey at Ohio Wesleyan University learned this:

A recent survey at Ohio Wesleyan University showed that 47.6% of the students intend to enter educational work; 13.3%, business; 12.3%, religious work; 7.8%, medicine; 5.7%, law; and 2.9%, journalism. All in all, twenty-one professions were represented, while 431 students, mostly Freshmen, were undecided as to their future work. In the light of these figures, it is of interest to note that twenty-two professions are represented by the parents of these students, with 223 not reporting. 519 of the parents are in business; 186 are farmers; 158 are ministers; and 149 are salesmen.

THE PRIVILEGES OF AN HONOR STUDENT

The following announcement was recently made by President McConaughy of Connecticut Wesleyan: "Wesleyan intends to stop keeping books on the comings and goings of her honor students. In the near future juniors and seniors who rank above the average will be told that they need not attend classes except when they believe it will be the most beneficial thing for them to do. It is ridiculous to treat men of proven ability and maturity as though they were children.—The Rainbow of Delta Tau Delta.

PHI BETA KAPPA'S LOST BID

Believe it or not, but Phi Beta Kappa, time-honored honorary scholastic society, has lost a bid! Floyd Simonton of the University of Kansas has refused the key because, "I feel that I have sacrificed my own development for the empty honor of a grade."—The Shield of Theta Delta Chi.

NATIONAL OFFICERS FROM NEBRASKA

The idea has been advanced that no institution has furnished as many national officers for women's fraternities as the University of Nebraska.

Included in the list are four national presidents. There are at least five national treasurers, four national secretaries, and two national editors, besides other special officers peculiar to the different organizations. There may be others whose names are not on this list.

Can any other university equal or approach this record?—The Key of Kappa Kappa Gamma by way of The Angelos of Kappa Delta.

Fraternity men are responsible for 75 per cent of college activities. Because of organization they have a greater power, and therefore, a greater responsibility.—Dean Thomas Arkle Clark.

INTERESTING INTELLECTUALS

Ten Presidents of the United States have been Phi Beta Kappas: Adams, Van Buren, Pierce, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Cleveland, Roosevelt, Taft, and Wilson.

Mme. Tetsuko Yasui, prominent Japanese editor and philosopher, who has been elected president of the Tokio Ladies' University, is the first woman in the history of Japan to hold so high an educational office.

Winifred Goodsmith Richardson, former national president of  $\Lambda \Phi$ , and now dean of women at Northwestern University, was recently elected secretary of the National Association of Deans of Women.

MORE ABOUT ACTIVITIES

There can be no doubt but that each chapter should be well represented in the various activities sanctioned by the college. Such representation goes far toward establishing the chapter's position on the campus. But it is essential that the participation of a chapter's members in college affairs should be carefully and thoroughly directed, both for the benefit of the chapter as a whole and of the individuals. It should be established first of all that the scholastic standing is creditable. Scholarship may properly be included among the activities—in fact, should be regarded as of the foremost importance. When that requirement has been satisfied, the member may then look toward other fields of activity, in proportion to his ability to do them well. A member should not be permitted to enter any activity that he cannot do with credit to himself and to the chapter. If he is unable to do more than maintain a satisfactory scholastic record, his activities should stop there; if he can undertake more, he should be encouraged to enter other fields, always under careful supervision of the chapter, as suggested in the article.—The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi. Clipped from The Palm of Alpha Tau Omega.

A fraternity is an obligation, a necessity and introduction, a recommendation, a passport, a lesson, an influence, an opportunity, an investment, a peace-maker and a pleasure.— $\Phi$ ME and Phi Chi Quarterly.

TWO SCHOLARSHIP AIDS

The following recommendations are offered to the chapters for the betterment of scholarship:

1. That the initiation grade be raised to the highest possible point.
2. That during the coming two years all chapters shall keep a scholarship chart for each year. The chart to list members, studies and hours per week spent in study and the term grades.
3. That an activity chart be kept in addition to the scholarship chart, this chart to give the list of members and all activities both in college and in the chapter and the offices held in both.
4. That where the college does not make the comparative ratings of women's fraternities that Delta Gamma encourage Panhellenic to make the grade comparison and records.
5. That each chapter offer a prize to the highest pledge each year and also to the highest member in the chapter. A piece of novelty jewelry is suggested.

6. That each chapter appoint a scholarship chairman and that this office shall be considered one of honor.

7. That a national scholarship cup be given to the chapter making the greatest improvement by next convention.

8. That the alumnae offer a prize to the girl making the greatest improvement each year.

9. That at the next convention in 1926 a comprehensive report and chart be presented covering the coming two years, 1924-26.—THE TRIDENT of Delta Delta Delta and to Dragma of Alpha Omicron Pi.

A TUTORIAL EXPERIMENT

Fraternity people everywhere will doubtless observe with interest the tutorial experiment being conducted at our Nu Omega Chapter at the University of Oklahoma this academic year.

The alumni association of the chapter has entered into an agreement with a graduate student of Norman, not a member of the fraternity, to conduct the experiment. This graduate student will be constantly available to the members of the chapter, for consultation regarding their scholastic work. The president of the University has endorsed the idea and the results of Mr. Knight's work will be the subject for his master's thesis.

The idea of a chapter house tutor was first advanced in The Phi Gamma Delta about a year ago by Frederick B. Owen of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.—The Phi Gamma Delta via Sigma Kappa Triangle and The Eleusis of Chi Omega.

In the May issue of The Angelos, Kappa Delta parents explained the value of a sorority in general and Kappa Delta in particular to their daughters.

It is estimated that 121 universities possess $1,000,000 endowments, says The Washington Star. Most of them are under private control. State universities are not as heavily endowed, as a rule, only eighteen of them being in the millionaire class....According to figures recently compiled by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Education, Harvard University, with an endowment of $52,031,769, is the richest educational institution in the United States. Columbia is next with $41,300,909, and Yale, Leland Stanford, Jr., Chicago, Cornell, Johns Hopkins, Carnegie, Princeton, Rochester, and Pennsylvania follow in order.—Alpha Phi Quarterly, —via The Theta News of Theta Kappa Nu.

FRATERNITY EXAMINATIONS

The annual examinations, due to be taken the last week of February will prove conclusively to the undergraduate members just how well posted on fraternity affairs they really are. Can we permit ourselves to be known as fraternity women and yet be ignorant of our own history and government? Let's make the answers to the annual examination show that we are entirely competent to answer intelligently any question concerning Greek life locally and nationally.—Alpha Gamma Delta Quarterly. Reprinted from The Trident of Delta Delta Delta.

The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi in each issue prints a series of questions relating to the Fraternity's history, government, and prominent members. The answers to these questions are given in the following issue of the magazine.

AN AID TO GROOMING OUR MINDS

ON MAGAZINES FOR THE LIVING ROOM

(Reprinted from The Chi Phi Chakett)

Fraternities in recent years have been going in rather strongly for book buying and book collecting. It is not uncommon to enter a fraternity house these days and see in the living room several cases whose shelves are well stacked with books. One sees a large number of sets of Poe, O. Henry, Richard Harding Davis, Bulwer Lytton, Charles Dickens and George Barr McCutcheon—what a melange! Such books, barring a few, are but little read in fraternity houses. They are chiefly decorative in value. Most college men read few books of bygone days other than those required by the faculty, and not many of the sort of works usually found in fraternity houses are much emphasized in studies in literature.

Building a fraternity library has been widely advocated by alumni, and it is a commendable aim, but we are inclined to doubt if these libraries actually help to cultivate a taste for good books among the members in the house. It seems to us that a select group of good current periodicals is of more actual use and value to a house than twenty sets of standard authors, for magazines are much more widely read than books in a fraternity living room.

What magazines does one see most frequently in the average house?

Saturday Evening Post, of course, leads the list, and if the Cosmopolitan is not second, then the American or Red Book is. Vanity Fair is widely subscribed for. There is an abundance of trash devoted to western life, and to truth and confessions and the movies, but this sewage is happily on the decline. Among periodicals of the first class one frequently finds Life and Judge, although, unfortunately, not so often as one picks up College Humor. But it is a strange and rare thing to find such excellent reviews as The Century, the Atlantic Monthly, the Review of Reviews, the Yale Review, Current History, Asia, Arts and Decorations, Scribner's, Harper's, The Dial and the American Mercury. And it is almost unheard of for a house to subscribe to The Nation or The New Republic. There is perhaps one exception to this. The Mercury is beginning to get a hearing because of its wit and good-natured iconoclasm, and this is worth three cheers, for Mr. Mencken's magazine is perhaps the most brilliantly conceived piece of publishing on the news stand today. It is the fashionable review of the day and its wit is winning it a wide group of readers.

A table of good current periodicals is indispensable in every fraternity house. The job of keeping it well supplied, with good reading matter as well as bad, ought to be an important duty of the chapter. A great many excellent reviews come off the American press these days, and we should like to see more of them find their way into our chapter homes.—The Garnet and White of Alpha Chi Rho.

And why should you go to convention? Because it will revive your enthusiasm—if you are an alumna; because it will be a fitting climax to college life—if you are a senior; because it will give you splendid inspiration for your last year in the chapter—if you are a junior; because it will enable you to be of real value to your own group—if you are a sophomore; because it will be the one magic touch to make you understand the true strength and meaning of Gamma Phi Beta—if you are a freshman. And what will you carry away with you? A renewed vigor and loyalty, a greater love for your sorority, a closer cementing of old ties, the joy of new friendships and—memories! Come to convention!—The Crescent of Gamma Phi Beta via The Lamp of Delta Zeta.

AN INTELLECTUAL CAFETERIA

President Glenn Frank of the University of Wisconsin says a great many things for publication but a recent interview in the Harvard Crimson strikes us as being one of the best things he has ever said:

"Methods of instruction are at present worse in our colleges than anywhere else in our whole educational system," he declared. "The elective system has changed our colleges into something that reminds me strongly of an intellectual cafeteria. For as in a cafeteria, there is nothing to guide the inexperienced in his choice of food.

"The elective system had its origin in the tremendous growth of knowledge in the last century. The fund of facts in an increasing number of fields finally became so great that educators, completely overwhelmed, had to turn the task of selection over to green freshmen who were not qualified to make wise choices. This burden of knowledge which is threatening to crush education under its weight is analogous to the structural overloading of our civilization."

Perhaps we are old fashioned but we cannot help but feel that education in the fundamentals is of more value in the long run than a lot of dabbling in specialties, much of which has to be unlearned before any practical knowledge is gained. Undergraduate work is mainly training; putting the mind into condition to assume the burdens of life and to learn to select things that are, in the words of Merton, "Better and finer."

In our opinion little latitude should be allowed the student for at least the first two years of college in the selection of courses. The modern tendency to slight the languages and mathematics is wrong because the training which the mastery of these subjects gives the students does not come through anything that may be substituted.—The Scroll of Phi Delta Theta, via The Chi Phi Chakett.

ACTIVITIES D'HOTE

VIOLA LANG, Mu

The first greeting that the new pledge usually hears upon her entrance into the sorority is: "And tell us of just what will your campus activity consist?"

In many cases the pauvre enfant must admit that she knows neither fish nor fowl and is willing to allow herself to be consigned into the activity where someone is most needed or the activity in which the chapter is striving for a footing. Then the fun begins.

If groups would allow their progeny to become established in their scholastic work and become acclimated to the complex system of modern college life before sending them afield, the grade of work done would be higher and the freshman would receive the benefit of being in her proper environment.

There is no special reward in sight for the freshman who is forced upon the campus by the routine of the sorority. The majority of times finds the wrong girl in the wrong place and the balance that should come between work and study is lost in an effort to find a place for the deficient activity. Much unhappiness for the pledge is assured when she cannot speak for herself and tell her house that she wants to wait until she has found her own footing before venturing into the required routine.

Probably the most serious mistake that houses make is in insisting that all freshmen go out for activities. The house itself should be considered as an activity and the scholar who helps maintain a high average should receive the same "Thank you" as the girl who succeeds in making a publication.

Even the girl who assists the house commissary in planning menus is of as great a benefit to the house as the girl who brings home a chairmanship on a committee. Values cannot be gauged by their nearness to home or to campus; they must be gauged in clear-cut scales of value to the house as an organization.

Until sororities realize how easily freshmen can spoil their college life, and court unhappiness by entrance into the wrong fields, the value of the far-seeing sub-dean is nil.—The Alpha Epsilon Phi Quarterly by way of The Lyre of Alpha Chi Omega.

A CHAPTER LOG

The man who has not at times regretted that he did not keep a diary at some period or other in his life must have led an uneventful existence. A diary is a second memory, more accurate and more tenacious of interesting details than the one with which nature has endowed us. To live over again those fascinating days and years which now belong to the past is to make the blood tingle with the pulsations and elan of youth.

For the fraternity chapter, moulded day by day and year by year by the generations of students who give it being, a diary serves as a memory to give consciousness and continuity to the panorama of chapter life. Here are reflected the birth of a tradition, the joy of achievements, the odds and ends which give local color to chapter personality at any given time. We recollect with what rare pleasure we thumbed through the early records of Alpha chapter and sensed the spirit and personality of those early years, indelibly impressed upon every page.

Call it what you will—a chapter "log," "diary," "chronicle," or what-not—each chapter should preserve for the delight and instruction of generations of students yet to come, a record of those years during which the making of chapter history was in their hands.—Beta Kappa Journal.

WOMEN ASTRONOMERS TO BE HEARD ON RADIO

Dr. Annie J. Cannon and Dr. Cecilia H. Payne are announced on the radio program of the observatory staff of Harvard University. The program will continue during December and January. The broadcasting is from Station WEEI between 7:45 and 8:00 p.m. Dr. Annie J. Cannon generally is recognized as the most famous woman astronomer in the world. She was the first woman to receive an honorary degree from Oxford University in the six hundred years' history of that institution.—The Trident of Delta Delta Delta.

IF I COULD CHOOSE

I would pick out for Convention Delegate the girl who is attractive in personality, disposition, and graciousness.

I would want her to possess a keen mind and be able to use it with accuracy from an open, broad view-point.

I would expect her to be able to discuss the problems and prospects of fraternity in an inspiring and efficient manner from the Convention floor and to contribute to our efforts in building and strengthening our Bond.

I would select only the girl who has served her chapter in many capacities, who has familiarized herself with the full history and inheritance of her chapter, who has helped weld the links between alumnae and the active girls, and who knows thoroughly the needs and ambitions of her own group.

I would choose a girl who had a vision of what the fraternity world can be and can mean in college spheres and who has an earnest desire to make that vision a reality by giving of her best—not only in active life but in the years after college days have gone by.

I would offer such a privilege only to the girl who can measure up to these expectations and in return I would ask a pledge in honor that she will return in the fall without fail and bring back the spirit and the anticipations of Convention.

I would ask her to pledge unselfish, patient, and untiring service in behalf of her chapter and fraternity during Convention days and post-Convention years. She is accepting a sacred obligation and her chapter and her Council are trusting her; each expects returns from this investment.

Would you choose alike?—The Lyre of Alpha Chi Omega and the Sigma Kappa Triangle.

"Not a great lady, this mother of mine,

And her spirit is lucid and clear and fine
As the angels in heavenly places."—Titus Lowe.

POSSESSING A NATIONAL HORIZON

"The only kind of secret society that I am afraid of," says President Faunce of Brown University, "is one that is purely local, one that has no national affiliations, no national horizon, no national responsibility. This is always a danger and a menace; but, when it is in touch with the nation at large and with some of the finest men of the nation, then much can be accomplished." These words, coming from one of the outstanding educational leaders of the land, are well worth pondering.—The Emerald of Sigma Pi, via The Angelos of Kappa Delta.

* * *

The supreme art above all other arts is the art of living together justly and charitably. There is no other thing that is so taxing, requiring so much education, so much wisdom, so much practice, as the how to live with our fellow man. All skill and knowledge aside from that is as nothing without it. The business of life is to know how to get along with our fellow man.

—HENRY WARD BEECHER.

THEFT OF CHAPTER CHARTER

Police court dockets record all sorts of cases of theft, but a new one was entered in Los Angeles the other day when complaint was made by the members of Upsilon Chapter, Sigma Pi Fraternity, located at the University of California, Southern Branch, that their charter had been stolen from the chapter house. Just what anyone would want with such a document is beyond ready conjecture. However, it is gone, and while the grand office of Sigma Pi will no doubt issue the Los Angeles boys a duplicate charter, still the intrinsic value of the original cannot be replaced thereby. To fraternity folk this is a most regrettable loss.—The Carnation of Delta Sigma Phi.

* * *

The name of Sigma Chi Quarterly has been changed to Magazine of Sigma Chi and from 1926 on the magazine will be issued five times a year. Life subscriptions at $50 have been provided for. This last interesting announcement swells the ranks of fraternities whose publications have advanced beyond four issues a year. Phi Gamma Delta and Phi Delta Theta are others. So far the quarterly still reigns supreme in the domain of the women's organizations—which makes us wonder who will be the pioneer in the N.P.C. family.—Themis of Zeta Tau Alpha by way of To Dragma of Alpha Omicron Pi.

A FRATERNITY JEWELRY PRECEDENT

The Delta Upsilon Fraternity has won its suit against J. F. Newman, Inc., for an injunction restraining Newman from using the fraternity's insignia in jewelry. The verdict by Justice Wagner of the Supreme Court of the State of New York follows: "Ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, J. F. Newman, Inc., and its agents, servants and employees, be and hereby are perpetually enjoined and restrained from making, producing or reproducing, selling or offering for sale, or otherwise disposing of without the consent of the plaintiff, any article, reproduction or print embodying or having as a part thereof, the coat-of-arms of plaintiff as identified by plaintiff's exhibit, attached colorable imitation or adaptation of said coat-of-arms." This decision will serve as a precedent in future cases and should doubtless give the fraternities the right to impose such restrictions as they see fit in the use of their insignia on jewelry manufactured by other than those jewelers under contract to the fraternity.—The Caduceus of Kappa Sigma.

* * *

To Dragma of Alpha Omicron Pi contained in its issue for February reports on Founders' Day celebrations in various cities as did The Trident of Delta Delta Delta.

It is interesting to know that Sigma Alpha Epsilon has secured some furniture owned by the late President William McKinley, an honored alumnus of that fraternity. It has been placed in their national house at Evanston, Illinois.—Themis of Zeta Tau Alpha, from The Trident of Delta Delta Delta.

CONVENTION APPROACHES

Sing of a grand convention,
Where shall it get its name?
Conclave, Congree, Jubilee,
Karnea of Delt Tau fame,
Ekklesia, convocation,
Conventions just the same.

—The Angelos of Kappa Delta.

TRY THIS ON YOUR VICTROLA

Alpha Tau Omega is to be congratulated on its latest forward step. During the recent visit of one of its founders, Dr. Otis A. Glazebrook, of Nice, to this country, the fraternity had him make a twelve-inch phonograph record entitled, "A Message to the Fraternity." Therein the voice of the founder may be heard telling with careful precision the inspiration out of which the fraternity rose. The fraternity also had motion pictures made of Dr. Glazebrook, who is now in his seventy-eighth year, but quite active mentally and physically.—Sigma Chi Quarterly, via The Palm of Alpha Tau Omega.

A "THANK YOU" COMMITTEE

Many times it has come to mind that every chapter should have a "Thank You" committee whose sole duty it should be to make sure that none of the pleasant amenities governing the receipt of gifts, the sending of flowers and the social correspondence with guests be overlooked.

In the hurry and hustle of college life with its many demands upon time, the smaller courtesies, so small and yet so all-important, are apt to be neglected, or, one member leaves it to another and perhaps she leaves it to someone else and in the end, the duty goes undone. Seldom it is an intentional omission. It is one of those things which "just happen" and which could so easily be handled by a committee. To keep the chapter well balanced it is decidedly beneficial to give each member something to do and at least one freshman could receive good training by service on such a committee.

Hearts are warmed, friends are made and kept, alumnae are held and their interest is kept alive by expressions of courtesy that we may rightly expect from college women. It isn't wise to let the argument of lack of time crowd out the little things that go to make life more pleasant.—Themis of Zeta Tau Alpha, by way of The Trident of Delta Delta Delta and The Triangle of Sigma Sigma Sigma.

A CHARGE TO FRATERNITY MEN AND WOMEN!

Fraternity men, you have your choice. You can go out from your college life and leave behind you every vestige of your fraternity allegiance. You can forget the memories of chapter house life and of the comradeship of brothers. You can devote your lives to gain and gain alone, and your soul will warp and wither into mean ways and low selfishness—or, you can cherish those ideals of fraternity life and love, and live and give all the best of yourselves to others. You can serve and live on the heights of friendship. You can renew the happiest and most gracious hours of your youth. Hold to these ideals and though the years go by you will never grow old. There is the flame and fire of fraternity inspiration and of fraternity memory that will burn in your heart like a light on an altar.—WILLIAM C. LEVERE,  $\Sigma \Lambda E$  Record by way of The Trident of Delta Delta Delta.

PANHELLENIC CREED

We, the fraternity undergraduate members, stand for good scholarship, for the guardians of good health, for the wholehearted cooperation with our college's ideals for student life, for the maintenance of fine social standards, and the serving, to the best of our ability of our college community. Good college citizenship as a preparation for good citizenship in the larger world of alumnae days is the ideal that shall guide our chapter activities.

We, the fraternity alumnae members, stand for an active, sympathetic interest in the life of our undergraduate sisters, for the loyal support of the ideals of our Alma Mater, for the encouragement of high scholarship, for the maintenance of healthful physical conditions in the chapter house and dormitory, and for using our influence to further the best standards for the education of the young women of America. Loyal service to chapter, college and community is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

We, the fraternity officers, stand for loyal and earnest work for the realization of these fraternity standards. Cooperation for the maintenance of fraternity life in harmony with its best possibilities is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

We, the fraternity women of America, stand for preparation for service through character building inspired in the close contact, and deep friendship of fraternity life. To us fraternity life is not the enjoyment of special privileges, but an opportunity to prepare for wide and wise human service.
