Undergraduate Loan Fund

THE Undergraduate Loan Fund Committee is most appreciative of the money received in response to our emergency appeal for funds in November, which helped us over a very critical period. The goal of 100 per cent was not reached by any province. The proportionate contributions of chapters was far better than alumnæ clubs: 32 out of 76 chapters contributed $510.75 while only 30 out of 152 alumnæ clubs sent $285. Alumnæ clubs please wake up to the needs of this worthy cause and devise some means of help.

The largest contribution was from South Dakota Alpha for $32. Among the actives Theta Province has the best record: five-sixths of the chapters contributing. For the alumnæ Kappa Province is ahead with two-fifths of the clubs supporting this fund.

The books of this Loan Fund are never closed. Contributions are needed and welcome at all times. We now extend our time for that 100 per cent province to Founders' Day, April 28, 1931. Who will be first?

CLARA BROWNLEE HUTCHINSON Founder

JANUARY 6, 1850-JANUARY 4, 1931

"Knowing her made it easy to believe in God." Nothing can add to this evaluation of the life of Clara Brownlee Hutchinson: we can only speak of the attributes and characteristics which made such a tribute possible. Those of us in Pi Beta Phi, who knew and loved her and who found inspiration in each contact with her, will not lose the memory of her unfailing gentleness, her spirit of "overflowing ministry," her keen zest in each new experience, her youthful spirit and her sympathetic understanding of youth, her unfaltering adherence to conviction, her "queenly grace" which meant that she never antagonized even when she questioned or disapproved, and her true loveliness. She lived the ideals of splendid womanhood which she helped to establish for her fraternity: she gave us a new understanding of how most-of-all worthwhile it is to live beautifully.

For the past year and a half, Mrs. Hutchinson had not been really well: the trip to the Pasadena Convention had proved very tiring for her and a slowly developing cataract on her eye had contributed to her frailty, but she had never ceased to be her cheerful, smiling self and she had continued to keep the home for herself and her brother. On the evening of January 3, she had a sudden, severe heart attack and she died on Sunday, January 4. We must rejoice, as she would have done, that she was spared any prolonged suffering or disability—that her body and mind were active to the last.

About forty Pi Beta Phis were privileged to attend the beautiful memorial services held for her at the First United Presbyterian Church of Monmouth on January 8: the entire Illinois active chapter, six members of Illinois B-Δ, and alumnae from the Monmouth, Burlington, Carthage, and Springfield alumnae clubs were in attendance. An exquisite spray of Easter lilies, sent by the fraternity nationally, together with lovely deep roses from the family covered the casket. The Monmouth Pi Beta Phis had kept a large basket of beautiful dark red carnations, with a bow of blue tulle, at Mrs. Hutchinson's head from the time of her death until the funeral, following which it was placed at the head of her grave. Fraternity members sat in a reserved section of the church and formed an aisle from the church to the hearse through which the body was carried, following the services. Rarely beautiful tributes to Mrs. Hutchinson were paid by Dr. N. J. Calhoun, her pastor, by Dr. T. H. McMichael, president of Monmouth College and endeared to the fraternity through many relationships, and by Dr. J. H. Grier, son of Ada Bruen Grier, Founder. The Monmouth alumnae, who had been unflinching in their devoted thoughtfulness for Mrs. Hutchinson, gave their last loving service to her in their care of the lovely flowers, many of which had been sent by Pi Beta Phi chapters and alumnae clubs.

Mrs. Hutchinson, a student at the academy of Monmouth College in 1867, was the next to the youngest member of the group of twelve girls who founded Pi Beta Phi. She was born on January 6, 1850 and preparations for the celebration of her eighty-first birthday had been made by the local Pi Beta Phis. She was married in 1872 to Mr. Alexis Hutchinson, who died in 1920. Mrs. Hutchinson is survived by two children and four grandchildren: fraternity members who attended the Pasadena Convention will not soon forget the tender devotion of her grandson, Clyde, who accompanied her there. This year had given Mrs. Hutchinson a very great happiness because it brought her grand-daughter, Marion Jane Tornquist of Montana, to Monmouth College as a freshman: surely the loving spirit of the grandmother must have seemed very near on January 31 when this charming girl was pledged to Illinois A in the ceremony which Mrs. Hutchinson had so anticipated seeing and sharing! Mrs. Hutchinson's loyalty to the fraternity which she helped to found never failed to express itself in service to it. Her keen interest in every phase of the fraternity, her understanding of its problems and organization, and her pride in its accomplishments were made evident by her support of its projects: her pride in the Settlement School was not greater than her loyalty in contributing to its support and her abiding interest and belief in the future of the fraternity are attested by her generous gift to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment.

The many Pi Beta Phis, who knew Clara Brownlee Hutchinson in her home or whose most cherished convention memories center around their contacts there with our beloved Founders, will never forget the inspiration which they gained from Mrs. Hutchinson nor lose the love for her which association with her made inevitable. In the truest sense of the words, she was a Pi Beta Phi!

DEAR MEMBERS OF PI BETA PHI:

As Clara Brownlee Hutchinson's daughter, I want to thank you for the flowers sent to my mother's services.

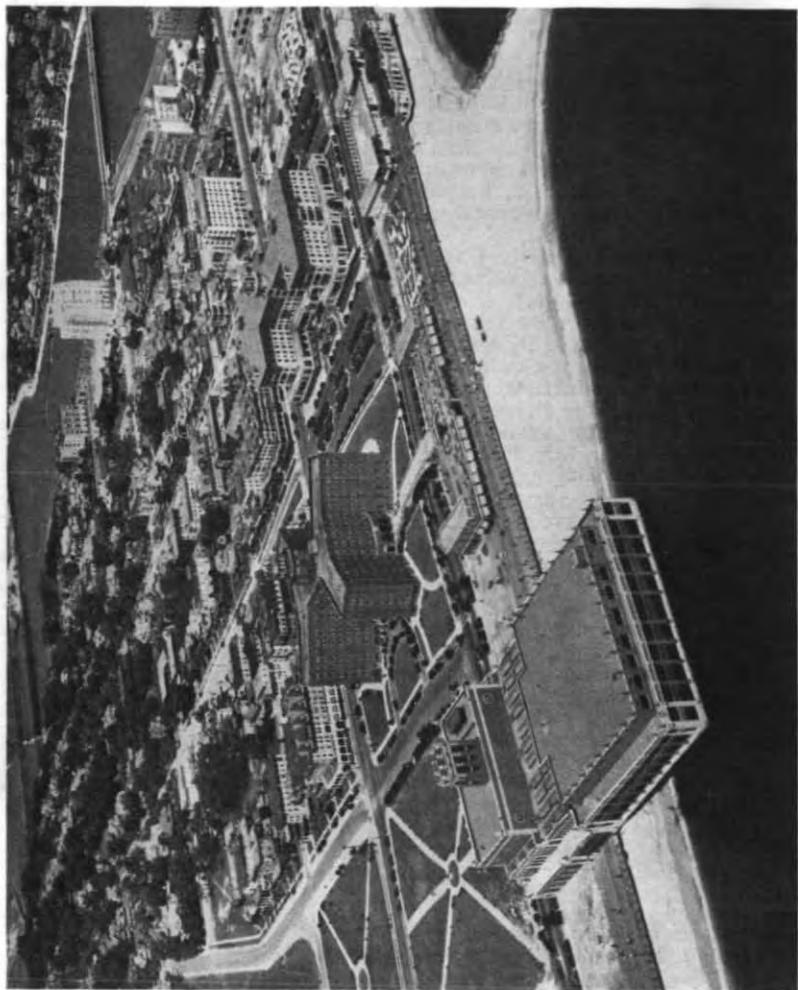

I hope you realize what you, the members of the fraternity, meant to mother. Your kindness and thoughtfulness gave her the greatest pleasure. You did everything possible to make her life one of happiness.

I shall always have a feeling of gratitude toward the Pi Beta Phi fraternity.

Sincerely yours,

EMMIL HUTCHINSON TORQUIST

The ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

EDITORIAL

PI BETA PHI will hold its thirtieth national convention in June of this year at Asbury Park, New Jersey. Participation by our two Canadian chapters makes it really an international convention. Alumnæ and active members from all chapters will meet there to renew old friendships.

We are especially fortunate this year in the place chosen for convention. Asbury Park has everything to offer the visitor: the railroads grant excursion rates to it from convenient points in the North, West, and South; it is only a few hours from New York City; and it is in the heart of a tempting vacation land. Its accessibility to innumerable seashore and mountain resorts will appeal to those who wish to linger longer than convention week.

Aside from the pleasures they proffer, conventions are absolutely necessary to discharge the business incidental to running a large fraternity, to centralize its activities, and to furnish an opportunity for contacts between active members of the different chapters and between active members and alumnæ.

The delegate, due to the fact that she has been selected to represent her chapter, will go to convention with a strong feeling of responsibility. She will be alert to hear of new suggestions and ideas of worth to take home to her own chapter and pass on to its members. The conference offers a valuable opportunity for furthering the work of solidifying and consolidating our chapters. It is a splendid medium for intensifying and sustaining the right sort of esprit de corps among the various chapters and alumnæ clubs, and for improving the standing of individual chapters.

In a fraternity such as ours, which offers so much that is intangible, too much confidence cannot be placed in the advantages of close personal relations. Every Pi Phi who attends convention, whether she is a delegate or not, will be afforded the opportunity of becoming closely, even intimately, acquainted with chosen members from other chapters and with some of our most active and honored alumnæ.

Those who have attended conventions before know that the ties of friendship which make fraternities worthwhile, are strengthened by contact. This contact stimulates our interests and acquaints us with the rich opportunities for companionship there are in the fraternity.

We leave with renewed fraternity consciousness and pride in Pi Beta Phi; in the achievements of its chapters, its alumnæ clubs, and its settlement school, and with determination to hold up our own end of the obligations which make possible its benefits.

HOW often it is said that we fail to appreciate those who live among us—but what a wonderful exception we may take to that when we think of the life of our beloved Founder, Clara Brownlee Hutchinson. In her own little community where Pi Beta Phi was founded everyone who knew Mrs. Hutchinson wanted her to know how sweet and loving and thoughtful she was and how much she was appreciated. Nothing was complete without her and to the members of Illinois A of Pi Beta Phi who have had that privilege knowing her she will always be an inspiration and an incentive in their lives to live just a little better.

From Mrs. Libbie Brook Gaddis, Founder, we have an expression from one who knew her in college and even more intimately in later years. In a letter to the ARROW Mrs. Gaddis wrote, "Clara Brownlee Hutchinson's last days were her best days. She has gone to the Silent Land, but she has left to her loved ones, relatives, and a large circle of friends the precious memory of a well spent life. A good many years she devoted to the care of an invalid husband. Loyalty was perhaps one of her most outstanding virtues. From her early girlhood she was a very active member of the United Presbyterian Church. She was very much interested in Christian missions. From first to last she was a staunch member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. In short, any work for the betterment of the community found in her a generous supporter. We shall miss her genial smile, her friendly greetings, her sisterly love, and the many graces of her womanhood. We bless her for her sweet influences and her high ideals. Would that there were many others to take her place."

When there is a house-raising in the neighborhood, the women congregate and have a quilting. But such gatherings are not very frequent, and the steep hill slopes rising on all sides shut women in to a lonesome life. "I'd love to git to a place once whar I could see a big passel o' land that hadn't been stood up on edge like," said one woman out of her experience of precipitous and imprisoning horizons.—Quotations from The Land of Saddle-Bags, p. 9, by James Watt Raine.

Three Clubs Hostess to 30th Biennial Convention

THE site of the Fraternity's next Convention has been so strategically chosen that three alumnae clubs can delightedly claim the distinction, the privileges and the responsibilities of being hostess clubs. New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia alumnae share in their anticipation of the coming guests, and, in order that they might share as well in the actual preparations for them, a representative committee has been appointed to assist the Convention Guide.

Its present secretary represents the New York Alumnae Club. Helen Kammerer McKendrew, Missouri B, whose charm, ability and thorough knowledge of her club's wide membership render her invaluable, reflects in her committee work her background of an interested chapter life and membership on the National Music Committee.

Ethel May Johnson, always an efficient and devoted worker in the Philadelphia Alumnae Club and now its president, is its representative on the Convention Committee. Since her graduation from George Washington University where she was a leading figure in both campus and chapter activities, she has served as office secretary of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society. Among her duties will be that of making arrangements for the Convention banquet, the affair which always marks the apex of fraternity loyalty and enthusiasm.

Vibert Potts Duncan, also of the Washington University chapter needs no introduction to Pi Beta Phi, for, in addition to serving as Gamma Province Vice President and attending the 1921 Charlevoix Convention, it was she who was guide of the long-to-be-remembered, inspirational Washington Conference. Since her removal from Washington she has affiliated with and held offices in the New York Club and was instrumental in the organization of the New Jersey Club which, as its president, she guided through its first two years of pioneer work.

Greetings from the Convention Committee

FRANCESE EVANS IVES

WE WISH you might know how eagerly we of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania are counting the days until the East shall again welcome a Convention of Pi Beta Phi! It has been twenty years since the Fraternity has officially assembled here, and our enthusiasm over your coming knows no bounds.

One of the most popular resorts on the whole Atlantic coast is to be ours for a week, and, when the happy days of reunion and relaxation there are over, the wonders and the beauties and the historic spots of all our eastern country will be awaiting you.

Our sincerest hope is that we may be of service, that your stay with us may prove to be an experience worthy of a place among your cherished memories. Please know that there were never people more delighted at the thought of playing hostess—and do not disappoint us!

Within the boundaries of this territory (Southern Highlands) "are included the four western counties of Maryland; the Blue Ridge, Valley, and Alleghany Ridge counties of Virginia; all of West Virginia; eastern Tennessee; eastern Kentucky; western North Carolina; the four northwestern counties of South Carolina; northern Georgia; and northeastern Alabama. Our mountain region, of approximately 112,000 square miles, embraces an area nearly as large as the combined areas of New York and New England, and almost equal to that of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales."

From the Berkeley-Carteret

TO THE PI BETA PHI FRATERNITY:

On behalf of the Berkeley-Carteret Hotel at Asbury Park, I pledge to all a most hearty welcome. A friendly atmosphere pervades the Berkeley-Carteret, and our entire organization, accustomed to catering to convention parties, will be eager to help make your stay with us a real joy and delight.

Aware of the signal honor bestowed in giving us the high privilege of entertaining your distinguished Fraternity, we await your arrival with the happiest anticipation.

Cordially yours,

If the question were submitted to an impartial jury as to what is the chief trait of Highland people the world over, the answer would be independence. Should one ask the outstanding trait manifested by the pioneer, the reply would be independence. Inquire what is the characteristic trait of rural folk, particularly of the farming class, and independence will again be the answer. Put the query as to what is the prevailing trait of the American, and the unanimous verdict is likely to be independence. We have then, in the Southern Highlander, an American, a rural dweller of the agricultural class, and a mountaineer who is still more or less of a pioneer. His dominant trait is independence raised to the fourth power.—Quotations from The Southern Highlander and His Homeland, by John C. Campbell.

Committee Comments

Publicity

Marguerite Harwood Elder, Vermont A, was graduated from Middlebury with honors and made a member of Phi Beta Kappa, receiving her Master's degree two years later. Her manifold talents have made her as invaluable to Pi Beta Phi as to Camp McQuam, a delightful summer camp for boys on the shores of Lake Champlain, which with her husband, William Wiles Elder who is now field and alumni secretary of Delta Kappa Epsilon, she owns and operates. The Elders and their son assure all visiting Pi Phis that a warm welcome awaits them there.

MARQUERITE HARWOOD ELDER

Transportation

To all who have previously travelled Convention-ward via the "Pi Phi Special," it will be real cause for rejoicing to know that

Nina Harris Allen, Illinois B, is again to manage our railroad transportation. So successfully has she done this on numerous past occasions that for those who have been in her company, convention has really started many hours in advance of its schedule. She has been responsible for "special" experiences which are indeed long-to-be-remembered ones.

Mrs. Harry G. Burd, Maryland A, who locally will assist Mrs. Allen, has long been a staunch and loyal member of the New Jersey Pi Phis' "coast guard." Last summer hers was the unusual distinction of being the mother of the charming queen of the famous Asbury Park Baby Parade.

Aerial Transportation

Helen Moffett of Illinois H is an air-minded young Pi Phi whose enthusiasm and interest in her fraternity make her wish that it might lead in the procession of "Aeronautical Conventions." Miss Moffett received her flying license in Los Angeles last summer and is now receiving instruction toward a commercial license at Parks' Air College in East St. Louis. She is primarily interested in the business possibilities in aviation.

Hospitality

After graduating from Northwestern University, Jessie Baker taught until her marriage to Jephtha Wade. A son and daughter and an active life in her community have still left her with time to devote to Pi Beta Phi. She brings to her present appointment a peculiar fitness for she was a member of the Hospitality Committee of the Evanston Convention and has had contacts with several alumnæ clubs. She is now serving as president of the New Jersey Club for the second time.

ELIZABETH HEITMULLER LOVE

Elizabeth Heitmuller was graduated "with distinction" from George Washington University. After her marriage to Ernest Temple Love, Delta Chi, Georgetown University, she moved to New York where, after a course at Columbia, she taught occupational training at the Roosevelt Hospital. The Loves have two children. Mrs. Love has held various offices in the New York Club and still continues her Pi Beta Phi interests.

Grace Filler, Pennsylvania T, Pi Beta Phi's National Historian, will contribute much to the coming meeting. Her attendance at past conventions and the active part she has taken in the affairs of her own club have excellently equipped her to represent Philadelphia on the Hospitality Committee. Miss Filler teaches in the Wayne High School.

GRACE FILLER

Fortunate are the Pi Phis who for themselves have discovered Carrie Stroud, New York A, and her delightful hotel, the Benjamin Franklin Inn, at Asbury Park. Miss Stroud is a splendid hotel manager and a gracious hostess, and every guest at Convention will reap the benefits of her experience.

Recreation

Evelyn Miller Slifer was graduated from Swarthmore. Pennsylvania A was justly proud of her many college activities, for she represented them in theatricals, on the staff of the Phoenix, and in practically all sports. Her interests since her marriage to George A. Slifer have been equally varied and have included everything that interests her son or her daughter. Excelling in all forms of athletics open to women, she is particularly fitted to become recreational chairman at our Convention. Under her direction the Fraternity is assured a noteworthy sports program.

Stunt Program

Following Jessie Crane Hauser's graduation from the Department of Oratory in Syracuse University, where she was a member of New York A, she taught public speaking for some years. She did her bit during the World War by training three-minute speakers.

Since her marriage to Simeon F. Hauser she has found time to bring up a fine son, Crane, to coach and stage many amateur productions, and serve Pi Phi in various ways. Since its founding, until the present year, she has been treasurer of the New Jersey Alumnae Club.

Stunt night under Jessie and her efficient committee of Mrs. Arthur Burke and Mrs. J. K. Evans will take on a new significance.

Settlement School Arrangements

Sophie P. Woodman, New York B, as president for the second term of the New York Alumnae Club and veteran of many conventions, will be a splendidly constructive contributor to the success of the Asbury Park Convention. In her own fraternity she has held such offices as ARROW Alumnae Editor and the chairmanships of the Examination and Fellowship Fund Committees. Other fraternities have recognized her ability by making her president of the New York Panhellenic Club.

Miss Woodman lives at The Panhellenic, teaches in a New York high school, and spends practically all of her time, when she is not "inconveniently earning a living," in serving Pi Beta Phi.

Model Initiation

While a member of New York Δ, Beatrice Ecks was active in all college and Pi Beta Phi affairs, and was sent as a delegate to the Estes Park Convention and to the Washington Conference. She continued her interest in the Fraternity through the New York Alumnae Club and was sent as its delegate to the Pasadena Convention. Ill health forced her this year to resign as Alpha Province President. Miss Ecks has represented Pi Beta Phi and held responsible offices on Board of Governors of The Panhellenic in New York for the past three years. The model initiation is one of the most inspiring of convention events and Miss Ecks will be in charge of it.

Music

We will be very happy to welcome as the Director of Convention Music, Margaret Kellenbach of Indiana Gamma, who is chairman of the National Music Committee. "Kelly," as she is best known to her friends, was president of her chapter, has attended several conventions, and has, in addition, expressed her loyalty for and her interest in Pi Beta Phi by writing quite a few popular fraternity songs. Since her graduation from Butler she has taught in an Indianapolis high school.

Mrs. Warren Miller, who was Dorothy Jackes of Missouri B, will assist Miss Kellenbach by serving as song leader. She is a St. Louis singer of note. Mrs. Miller combines her delightful musical talent with splendid executive ability for she is the newly appointed chairman of the Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency.

Supervision of Children

Helen Linde is excellently equipped, both by nature and training, for the work entailed in a committee dealing with children. After her graduation from Bucknell where she had been a leader in her chapter and in the student government as well, she taught for three years until her marriage to Arthur Linde. They have two children. Mrs. Linde has been affiliated with the New York and New Jersey Alumnae Clubs and is now recording secretary of the latter.

Chapter Exhibits

Before her marriage to Wilson Higginbotham, Jr., Harmo Taylor, of Texas A, spent two years at the Settlement School. Her most glowing stories are of the days when she was assistant to the resident nurse there! She was also one of the first two supervisors of the Arrowcraft Shop, and has always since been a devoted worker for the Fraternity Settlement School projects.

Mrs. Higginbotham has a small daughter and a very new son, and possesses as well an ingenious faculty and a sense of humor that can overcome even the difficulties of chapter exhibits!

Hospitality

The Hospitality Committee members are buzzing as busily as bees with their ideas for your entertainment and comfort, and the staff of the luxurious and perfectly run Berkeley-Carteret Hotel is lending its full cooperation to all such plans. A complete Convention program will be published later, but you may be sure that most agreeable provision will be made for the hours that do not include scheduled fraternity sessions or outdoor recreation features. There will be an informal reception on our first night together; a bridge party will be held some late afternoon, very likely in the quaint and charming parlors of the nearby Benjamin Franklin Inn which is owned and operated by Carrie Stroud, New York A; and a fancy dress dance will follow the Stunt Program. The banquet on Friday night will brilliantly mark the end of the thirtieth Convention's social affairs.

Stunt Night

One of the most typical ways of expressing college life is through the medium of a "Stunt Night," and that is why no Pi Beta Phi

JESSIE CRANE HAUSER
Chairman of Stunt Night

Convention is quite complete without one.

To the active girls Stunt Night means an opportunity to bring to a large group their interpretation of some idea that especially expresses the spirit of their locality. To the alumnæ it means a recalling of their own college life, when, for a brief time, they live again those carefree days.

Already plans are under way to make the Stunt Night at the coming Convention a memorable occasion. Remember, all participate either by taking an active part or by being in the audience.

Outdoor Recreational Activities

We have been having such a busy time arranging for your recreational hours at Asbury Park this summer! There is so much to do at this New Jersey resort and so much to tell you about, that it is hard to know just where to start.

As you know, Asbury Park is a city by the sea, with a long, wide boardwalk lined with shops. It has several guarded beaches for ocean bathing, and there are two large pools for those who prefer still water. A few minutes inland walk brings us to some beautiful natural lakes where we can canoe and boat. All of these water activities are offered to our convention members at reduced rates.

There are two golf courses available, one a nine and the other an eighteen hole course. And miniature golf as well! Tennis courts are close to the hotel and are offered to us free of charge. Horseback riding is another popular sport. And lots of fishing! We can go to Shark River for fishing, or dangle our lines off one of the long piers, or reserve a place in the boat that puts out each morning for real deep sea fishing in the ocean.

Some very interesting sightseeing trips may be taken around that part of the country, and we are planning to have cars or buses at the disposal of all the girls who wish to make such excursions. One, a trip along the south shore, includes the fashionable Spring Lake, Sea Girt where New Jersey's "summer White House" is located, and ends at Lakehurst which is famous for being the United States Government's dirigible base. Another, northward, has as its terminus Atlantic Highlands and Sandy Hook.

Many plans are being formulated for a swimming meet and golf and tennis matches. In fact every minute of your time that is not occupied with Pi Beta Phi meetings and business we shall try to fill with other interesting activities.

The concession owners, hotel men and club managers have been more than liberal in their special rates to us for the convention at Asbury Park. They have done all in their power to make their city as attractive as possible, and you may rest assured that your recreational committee members will also do all in their power to insure you a happy and beneficial week at the sea shore! We are looking forward now to meeting you in June!

Arrow-Nautical Pi Phis, Attention!

With its multiplicity of attractions Asbury Park has the added one of a modern airport, which means, for those of you who are "airy minded" or who are naturally "high flyers," a decided point of interest. Even as the resort is a terminus for railroad travel, so is it for air travel, and those Pi Phis who wish to experience the novelty of flying or who want to save a day or two of precious convention time, may easily do so either individually, or as groups, in chartered planes.

Miss Helen Moffett has been appointed to supply information regarding flying to any interested Convention visitors. She may be reached at 5654 Delmar Blvd., St. Louis, Mo., and will be glad to answer your questions about comparative costs, routes, safety, baggage, time required, etc.

Forecast of Convention Fashions

What the really smart young women will be wearing during the last week of June is already definitely known. Those who travel as fashion dictates and visit the shore will have a penchant for simple sport clothes and bathing equipment. And those bathers who desert the pools for the livelier activities of the surf will doubtless appreciate the nonchalant conservatism of beach wraps! Shore nights are cool, and not-too-thin summer coats will be much in evidence. Sweaters also, for day time wear, will be considerably in favor. Evening gowns will be worn on one night only, and on another the originality and attractiveness of fancy dress costumes, either designed and executed on the moment or in advance, will be questions for a committee of stylists to consider. It will be noticed that all experienced young things who expect to encounter salt water or salt water spray, except when arrayed for bathing, will without exception choose garments that cannot be harmed. Old clothes? Yes!

There will be considerable leeway in the matter of shoes, but no wardrobe will be complete without a comfortable pair for walking. Strolling on the boardwalk is the favorite outdoor sport of Asbury!

Golden arrows worn over the heart will be considered the smartest jewelry from June twenty-second through the twenty-seventh.

Occasionally additional pins, frequently of gold and black enamel, sometimes jewel set, will be worn beneath the arrows, but there is some question about the advisability of adopting this style, and your fashion correspondent advises it only when the match is perfect!

Sport equipment in vogue will include kodaks, tennis racquets and golf sticks.

But the really wise miss will not be overlaid with personal belongings. Should she find herself lacking in anything, the smart shops of the resort will be only too glad to supply her need.

Chapter Exhibits

Each Convention delegate will find that one of her greatest aids in expressing the personality of her chapter, of introducing her fraternity background, will lie in her chapter exhibit. Naturally these exhibits occasion much interest among Convention visitors for they give a definite account of the accomplishments of each individual chapter. Finally they are examined by a committee.

at home because you haven't anyone to leave your little ones with, but bring them with you for the change will be as good for them as it is for you. The hotel has offered the unusually low rate of $4.00 for children, and a committee of local Pi Phis is preparing to formulate plans that will take care of the

AT SUNSET LAKE

In preparing such representative material, judgment, care and taste should be exercised. A good exhibit cannot be prepared hastily nor by one girl alone. Begin now to turn your thoughts and efforts exhibition-ward so that this time your display may be an outstanding one that will do justice to the fine conduct of your chapter life.

Supervision of Children

The sea shore is such a wonderful place for the children! Don't stay youngsters' day time activities. However, in order that the committee may proceed intelligently, (You see, this has never been done before!) it will have to know how many children will be in attendance. If you are interested in availing yourself of the assistance which the committee will be happy to give you, or, if you wish further information on this subject, please communicate with the chairman, Mrs. Arthur Linde, 13 Clinton Ave., Morristown, N.J.

ELINOR JENNINGS WOOD

Convention Daily

The Asbury Park Convention will find itself particularly fortunate in having on the staff of its Convention Daily Pi Beta Phis who are unusually qualified for their respective duties.

Visitors at the Bigwin Convention will remember the editor of the Daily there, Elinor Jennings, and be pleased to know that she is again undertaking the responsibilities of Editor-in-chief. This time, however, she will assume control as Mrs. Ledger Wood, wife of a professor of philosophy at Princeton University. As an active member of New York  $\Delta$ , Elinor Jennings was outstanding both in the chapter and on the campus. She had unusually fine journalistic experience on the Cornell Daily Sun, and her other interests were so inclusive as to give her a splendid perspective of college and fraternity life.

Alice Evans of New York  $\Delta$  comes to the staff as Business Manager and brings with her a background of literary and managerial excellence. She is this year teaching in a private school in Greenwich Connecticut, but finds it possible to spend many week-ends at her home which is just a few miles from Asbury Park.

Frances McNulty, Virginia B, is known to the Fraternity as the Pi Beta Phi Fellow for 1930-31, and is well suited for her work as Associate Editor.

Dorothy Manasse, West Virginia  $\Delta$ , will contribute to her duties as Assistant Business Manager a keen interest and splendid secretarial training. Both Frances McNulty and Dorothy Manasse are this year located in New York.

But, in spite of this very promising "line up," no paper which assumes the proportions of our Convention Daily can be properly edited without the assistance of many interested Pi Phis. The editor has issued a call for volunteer workers. Won't any Pi Beta Phis who would be willing to help out in a business, an editorial, or an artistic way please communicate with Mrs. Ledger Wood, 60 Harrison St., Princeton, New Jersey.

The price of the Daily is included in the registration fee of Convention visitors, but, if you can't attend the meeting and still wish to keep in touch with the activities and accomplishments of Pi Beta Phi in convention assembled, send your name and address with fifty cents to Alice Evans, 161 East Elm St., Greenwich, Conn., and it will be mailed to you.

General Instructions

You who are coming to Convention, officers, delegates, visitors, please observe the following facts carefully!

The hotel registration slip found in the front of this ARROW should be filled out in detail and be mailed early to Mrs. J. Gordon Ives, 46 Hamilton Rd., Glen Ridge, N.J. All information requested is important and should be given completely. The assignment of rooms will be made in the order of registrations received.

The rates offered by the Berkeley-Carteret are $7.00 per day, American plan, with two in a room. Children's rates are $4.00 per day. All rooms have adjoining baths, many of which are entirely private. Others serve two rooms. Congenial groups of four usually enjoy these suite arrangements. Remember to state your preference in roommates when sending in your reservations. These special rates are continued for Convention guests who stay on after the meeting is over, though some room changes may have to be made due to prior reservations of other guests.

Everyone attending Convention and registered at the Berkeley-Carteret will be charged a registration fee of $10.00. Those attending sessions of Convention but not registered at the hotel will be charged a similar fee of $10.00 which will include the banquet. The Convention Daily and tips are included in these fees. Those attending the banquet only will be charged $5.00.

If you arrive on the Pi Phi Special, your hotel bill for the five days of Convention and your registration fee will be collected on the train.

Checks will have to be approved by the Grand Treasurer for cashing by the hotel.

All mail should be addressed: The Berkeley-Carteret, Asbury Park, N.J.

The hotel gives a regular 48 hour service on laundry work or special 24 hour service for a small charge.

Arrangements will be made for private pressing. In addition, regular valet service is provided.

There is a beauty parlor and a barber shop in the hotel.

A nearby garage charges seventy-five cents for over-night accommodations. A neighboring open air one charges fifty cents.

Before and After

Illinois Beta-Delta

PARADOXICAL as it may seem, the nicest part of the Convention may be going away from it—if you find it possible to motor away in your own four wheeled vehicle. Not that we wish to decry the five days of the Convention, they will be sung by other pens, but it can be made into an enjoyable several weeks' vacation if you have a gypsy spirit, some congenial companions, and a means of conveyance.

Obviously, for those of you from the West, a visit to New York City is an obligation and a pleasure, but this deserves a chapter to itself. I am going to tell you of certain less conventional trips which may be of equal interest to those eastern girls who do not know different parts of their own East and to the western girls to whom it may be new territory.

One nice thing about Asbury Park is that you can make it a part of a "Great Circle" course, coming by the south and leaving by the north or vice-versa. I do not want to sound like a guide book, but if I had a chance to drive east I would come through Virginia. You can follow a straight Lincoln Highway, but you will find much prettier roads that go up and down and roundabout, that are good automobile roads too.

If you live in the flat Middle West, the Blue Ridge Mountains may actually look like mountains to you and you will wonder if your brakes will hold, but if you live in the Far West you will look at them haughtily and call them "hills." In any event, you cannot help but call them charming.

If you are fortunate enough to ride down the Shenandoah Valley on a gray day you will know what the "Blue Ridge" means, and if on the other hand, you are fortunate enough to see it on a sunny day you will know how it looks outlined with gold. If you are keen on natural wonders you might stop at several of the many caverns that undermine the country, and even if you are of those who can take your natural wonders or leave them, I suggest seeing at least one. The Shenandoah Caverns are a marvelous example and worth the time it takes to go down.

You might come into Virginia at Winchester, go south to cross the ridge to Luray and find the Civil War still being fought on each side of your road into Washington.

I spoke earlier of your having gypsy tendencies to enjoy this fully. Twice I have been over this ground with blankets, frying pans, and provisions in the car, finding the roadside camps with their little individual cottages admirable places to spend the night. There is one called "Apple Camp" a little way south of Winchester, a truly delightful tourist camp in Washington on the banks of the Potomac, and a most modern one half an hour out of Washington on the way to Richmond. Almost all such camps are good. They usually furnish you a bed with sheets, facilities for washing, and a place to buy supplies. You had best carry your own blankets, a gasoline camp stove, major supplies, and utensils. With such not very elaborate equipment you can have the joys of camping without the difficulties involved in hunting for campsites and making and breaking camp.

Stay a day or two in Washington, by all means, and then come the "back way" to Baltimore, where your road through the city will lead you past one of the world's best markets and if you will stop you will find yourself weakening and buying a month's supply of food which you will have no earthly use for when you get to Asbury Park.

If you go to Philadelphia by way of the Conowingo Dam, you will find another good camp ten or fifteen miles south of the dam, and beautiful country as you go into town. And then of course, you can go over to Atlantic City for one ride on the broadwalk in a wheel chair, and find yourself almost immediately at Convention.

There are almost equally nice things to do in the other direction—Why not drive to Cape Cod before you go home? Two days from New York and you are in Provincetown on the tip of the Capé, but in the meantime you will have seen much that is typical New England; long tree-lined streets, bordered with white houses in Connecticut, colonial doorways and fan-shaped panes that exist elsewhere only in replica. You will have driven for miles between pine woods on the Cape, with glimpses of the sea on either side, and dozens of little fresh water lakes dropped in among the trees and the sand. As you go further out you find only scrub and miles of sand dunes, while if you drive down winding roads to the right you will find the highest sand cliffs, the longest sand beach, and the best surf you ever saw.

To be sure, you will have to turn around and come back again after you have seen what artists look like in their natives haunts at Provincetown, but on the way back you will have more opportunity to become acquainted with the typical Cape Cod house, to see the barns, sheds and houses all under one roof, and to feel in more intimate touch with the old seafaring days than anyone not brought up on the east coast can usually do.

On your way through New England, I advise stopping in one of the many farms or town houses that offer rooms for tourists. The Cape has dozens of such places open to you. But if you are still gypsyng, take your tent along and set it up on the shores of a fresh water lake with ocean surf beating at your back a quarter of a mile away.

Or perhaps you want a taste of another country. If you go from New York up to Maine, through its wild northern parts and to Quebec, you will think you have chosen the most beautiful way out of the States, until you talk with those who have gone up through New York State, over the Adirondacks along the shores of Lake George and Lake Champlain, to Montreal. The first night of your trip, either one of which will take you two days, you may want a roadside cabin or a farm house which "accommodates tourists," but if you are in northern Maine or northern New York, do try at least one night of camping out.

It is hard not to sound like a guide book. These roads are familiar and beloved to me. I cannot drive along any of them without pointing a finger and saying "There is where we had lunch; our camp was right through there." All I hope to do is to give you an "urge" to see some of this lovely country, and to make the Convention the central point of a long-to-be remembered arc.

On to Europe

Sailing from New York City, July 4, aboard the Rotterdam, one of the best of the Student Third Class Association boats of the Holland American Line on the trip offered by the Raymond & Whitcomb Company, highly recommended, will be Gail De Wolf, Pi Beta Phi's Grand Secretary and her party which will be limited to ten Pi Phis and herself, acting as hostess with an excellent conductor to take care of all the details of traveling and sight-seeing in Europe. The itinerary will include stops in the most prominent places of England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, and France.

For every paid membership in the party, a commission is being granted by the company to the Settlement School—an added incentive to Pi Phis.

Picture two months of travel, an inclusive itinerary, splendid accommodations, with the most congenial associates, and the reasonable rate of $795. From convention to Europe! Write Gail De Wolf, 4649 Beverly Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif., for all the particulars.

The Endowment and Convention . . .

ANOTHER convention is just around the corner, with its anticipated renewed friendships and new friendships, inspirational discussions pointing the way to a finer fraternity, and the realizations that we are a part of it all and are means through which even greater things may be accomplished.

At this coming convention, the delegates will be waiting to hear the progress of the $50,000.00 Friendship Endowment Fund campaign: what that report will be depends largely upon you.

At the last convention, the delegates realized that this Endowment campaign must succeed and from the floor of convention subscribed over $2,600.00. It was thrilling to see the young delegates from the active chapters rise and make pledges for their groups. I know you will be delighted to hear that every such chapter pledge, with the exception of one, is being fulfilled. Every alumnae club pledge has been met.

At Pasadena in 1929, it was voted to inaugurate the pledge system and a letter with a pledge card enclosed was sent to the membership-at-large. The Endowment Committee takes great pleasure in announcing, as a result of this letter, two very splendid contributions: from Julia Kingsbury Wright, California Δ, a gift of $500.00, and from Eleanor Gannett Birdseye, District of Columbia A, a gift of $250.00. Many smaller contributions and pledges were received, indicative of the interest Pi Phis from coast to coast have in the success of this Endowment. However, the response was not enough to reach our goal—far from it!

If our alumnae clubs did not have the responsibility of supporting our very splendid settlement school, our goal of $50,000.00 would be reached with very little effort. Since it is impossible to ask the alumnae clubs as such to take this added responsibility, we as individual Pi Phis must see this Endowment raised.

We have all shared in the benefits of our fraternity; shall we not be willing to return something that others may continue to develop through her wholesome and inspiring influence?

What is the report at convention to be? This depends entirely upon you, individual Pi Beta Phis. We all intend to give sometime. Won't you now fill out the pledge card below and mail it immediately so that your contribution will help to insure a very splendid report of our $50,000.00 Friendship Endowment Fund at the coming convention?

Why Members of the Grand Council Still

"IT IS ONLY as a fraternity knows of the organization, personnel and standards of its chapters through personal contact between its officers and chapters, their Alumnæ Advisory Committees, and their Deans of Women that it can work effectively towards the maintenance of consistently high standards of campus citizenship, social adequacy, and splendid womanhood. No fraternity today has a better system of chapter supervision than Pi Beta Phi has; if she is to hold her place among fraternities, none must have a better system than hers tomorrow. The greatest need for supervision may come in a year of the least current income. Other fraternities are insuring increased supervision through contingent endowments: Pi Beta Phi too must make this important phase of internal development thus independent of current income and assured for all time. Make sure that the future of your fraternity will be worthy of its past: complete the fifty thousand dollar endowment!"

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN
Grand President

"ALONG the mountain trails in Tennessee grows a vine from whose bright red flower comes a cardinal seedpod which in August bursts, holding seeds still brighter red. The mountain people call this lovely bit of brilliant color "Hearts bustin' with love," and it exemplifies the spirit of Pi Beta Phi in founding and maintaining the settlement school for them. In the same spirit of devotion to our fraternity's undertakings we are asked now to support the Friendship Endowment Fund and having, as alumnæ enthusiastically and unanimously endorsed the plan at convention, let us meet wholeheartedly this opportunity to give back something of the strength and pride from which we so constantly draw."

KATHERINE BURR TELLER
Grand Vice-President

Believe in the Pi Beta Phi Endowment

"COMPETITION, a factor of the Pi Beta Phi Endowment Drive, competition, the keynote of the life and activities of mankind! Darwin expressed the idea for biological life in the phrase, "The survival of the fittest"; the economic world says. "Competition is the life of trade." The consensus of opinion evaluates competition as a source of progress.

That same competition is present in connection with our Pi Beta Phi Endowment Drive. Kappa Kappa Gamma's goal of $100,000.00 and Alpha Phi's goal of over $50,000.00 have become realities. Phi Delta Theta is on the way to a $1,000,000.00 Endowment. The significance lies in these endowments as sources of future growth and development for these fraternities. With foresight, we should secure the blessings of our fraternity "To ourselves and our posterity."

GAIL DE WOLF
Grand Secretary

"THE FUNDS received from this Endowment Drive will perform a two-fold duty, each part of which is greatly needed. This money will be loaned to chapters as a part of their house building funds, and the interests received from these loans will go into the Contingent Fund from which our operating expense is derived. If our organization is to grow and develop, it is necessary that it have sufficient funds. To keep our present position we must be constantly on the alert. This Fund will help materially in enabling us to do this. It is under the direction of the Board of Trust Funds and operates under the same general rules as do the other Endowments."

LOIS FRANK STOOLMAN
Grand Treasurer

Here and There with the Endowment

The largest number of contributions has come from members of Kansas A.

Washington B was the first active chapter to send $100.00.

Ontario A, Illinois Z and Missouri B have made a like contribution.

Mrs. Lutcher Stark, Theta Province President, has given her present years expense money for chapter visits, to the Endowment besides making other generous contributions.

Fannie Whitenack Libbey, our beloved founder, started the contributions from the floor of convention in 1929 which ended with a sum over $2,600.00.

Every active chapter in Theta Province has given to the Endowment. This is the only province to be 100 per cent.

Amy B. Onken has responded with a contribution to every letter sent out by the committee.

One member is paying her very generous contribution in monthly installments. A certain sum is set aside each month from her allowance.

Mrs. G. P. Carroll, mother of Jennie Carroll Martin, Oklahoma B, received the endowment letter intended for her daughter. She answered immediately with a contribution and her charming letter was a real inspiration to the committee.

Miss Blanche Reisinger says: "Friendship in Pi Beta Phi cannot be estimated in a few dollars and cents. It would take all I possess to even approach the value."

The Kansas City Alumnae Club has pledged $100.00 a year until the Endowment is completed.

All Alumnae Club pledges made at convention have been paid.

All active chapter pledges made at convention have been paid except one.

Jennie Horn Turnbull, our beloved founder, says: "Go forward with the Endowment by all means. How the founders delight in the prosperity of our dear child which to us has been so wonderful!"

First Beta Province House Party Proves Successful

By ELEANOR JANE STONE
West Virginia Alpha

MANY happy memories remain of the first Beta province house party which was held in Morgantown, W. Va., last summer with West Virginia A as the hostess chapter. At this time the girls had the opportunity of becoming better acquainted with Mrs. Harry R. Bissell of Reedsville, W.Va., Province President, whose untiring efforts contributed greatly to the success of the house party.

Through the courtesy of the  $\Phi \Sigma K$  fraternity, its attractive new chapter house on fraternity row served as headquarters for the delegates from eight leading universities in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia. The delegates and their hostesses took complete possession of the house, which has room for about fifty, from June 13 to June 16. Jean Wade, chapter president of West Virginia A and Eleanor Stone, chairman of the house party committee, assisted by several members of the West Virginia A active chapter, were in charge of the arrangements.

The first social event was an informal dinner at the house during which  $\Pi \Phi$ 's met other  $\Pi \Phi$ 's and everyone became acquainted.  $\Pi B \Phi$  songs were sung and informal discussions were held.

The chief social function in connection with the house party was a semi-formal dance at the  $\Phi \Sigma K$  house on Saturday evening. Chaperons included Mr. and Mrs. Bissell, Miss Ruth D. Noer, dean of women, West Virginia University; Dean of Men, Harry E. Stone, Mrs. Stone, a  $\Pi \Phi$  patroness and mother; and Dr. A. L. Darby, chairman of the university social committee. The house was attractively decorated with summer flowers. A number of alumnae from Morgantown, Fairmont and Clarksburg attended the dance. Programs in wine and silver blue were given as favors. Elizabeth Wade was in charge.

On Saturday morning an informal breakfast was held which ended in discussions of new ideas for rushing parties and other things of interest. In the afternoon a program of tennis, golf and swimming was enjoyed at the Morgantown Country Club. The visitors were also conducted around the campus and the town.

Sunday morning the girls attended church services and at noon dinner was served in the  $\Phi \Sigma K$  house. An afternoon tea was given on Sunday afternoon and the guest list included mothers, patronesses, and alumnae.

On Monday afternoon the delegates motored to the home of Mrs. Bissell in Reedsville and returned to Morgantown in the late afternoon for tea at "Graegstan," the attractive new residence of Mrs. Perley Isaac Reed, a member of the faculty of the university and an alumna of West Virginia A Chapter.

About forty girls were registered during the four delightful days of the house party.

Actives and Alumnae in Virginia

Virginia  $\Gamma$  Chapter of Pi Beta Phi and the Richmond Alumnae Club invite all the Pi Phis in Virginia to a "State" celebration of Founders' Day to be held in Williamsburg April 25-26. A banquet and special features will be the program. If you are interested in attending, send name, address, and chapter and complete information will be furnished you. Send immediately to Le Baron Coleman, Pi Beta Phi House, Williamsburg, Va.

The Panhellenic Participates

AFTER Convention The Panhellenic will open its hospitable doors to all Pi Beta Phis who plan to "do" New York. Here you will find awaiting you all possible information. Various theater parties and sight-seeing trips, which you may join or take when and if you like, have already been arranged by Sophie Woodman who, in spite of her many other duties, has cheerfully accepted the responsibility of Director-in-chief of Seeing New York! (And Sophie knows her New York! You just won't be able to ask her Question No. 199 and have her fail to give you an adequate answer.) You may visit museums, churches, theaters, shops, places of historic interest, and New York's interesting quarters where many races have transplanted bits of their own lands to make more cosmopolitan the world's greatest metropolis.

Pi Phi's Margaret Chatfield is The Panhellenic's hostess and will be in charge of the Post Convention House Party to be held there. Everyone is proud of the marvelous way in which she has managed this great club house for fraternity women, and all know that she will take splendid care of her Pi Beta Phi sisters. She has volunteered to make her office a clearing house for all New York information before and after Convention and to make The Panhellenic headquarters for Pi Beta Phis either going to or coming from Convention.

In this year of our Great Economy, the fact that rooms may be obtained for $2.00 and $2.50 per day, that breakfasts are served in cafeteria style, and that lunches are sixty and seventy-five cents and dinners seventy-five cents and one dollar, makes one wish to stay after Convention to see New York.

Second Greek Conclave

THE Greek Conclave was held at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, on December 5, 6 and 7, 1930, sponsored by all fraternities and sororities on that campus. Its purpose is to promote a finer spirit of friendliness among the Greek-letter organizations, and in this, its second such conclave, that spirit certainly was made manifest. Each organization invited its national officers to be present and help them with discussion groups and meetings.

The conclave formally opened with a banquet, at which Mrs. Amy O. Parmelee, Delta Delta Delta, editor of Trident, and Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, former president of Delta Tau Delta, were the guest speakers. At noon, however, Mrs. Parmelee was the honored guest and speaker at a luncheon given by the City Panhellenic of Delaware. She told many interesting things happening in the Greek world, and spoke on the fraternity as an educational asset to the campus, dealing with it in part from the standpoint of an alumna and a mother, showing what we as alumnæ should expect from the chapters and do to help them.

Give Formal Banquet

In the evening at the formal banquet held in Austin Hall, Mrs. Parmelee spoke on "What fraternities and sororities should expect from each other on the campus." She stressed three points. That the important thing is not what badge you wear but how you wear it. That education is the only debt one generation has to pay to the next and it is the responsibility of each fraternity and sorority member to give their members a sense of this duty. That fraternities and sororities offer a course in human relations.

Bishop Hughes spoke on "Panhellenic," dividing it up into its separate syllables, pan, panhell and panhellenic. He said that Greek letters were chosen by the groups as their identification because the symbols reflect the culture art, law and philosophy of Greece, and "in the ritual of every organization," he ventured to say, "are parts of the Bible." He stated that "every sorority and fraternity on the Delaware campus represented idealism, and that each should be true to the meaning of their name. "Every ritual," he said, "is glowing with a perfectly magnificent idealism, and if each member in this banquet hall would say over his own ritual to himself the air would be surcharged with ideals that could make over the world." He pointed out that any fraternity that became mainly a social organization would destroy itself. He spoke very forcefully against "hell week" and gave it as the reason for anti-fraternity feeling and legislation in some places. He closed by charging all fraternity members not to be liars and hypocrites by failing to live up to the high vows their own Greek group demanded of them.

Dean Leonard Speaks

On Saturday morning, December 5, Dean Maria Leonard, Pi Beta Phi, dean of women at the University of Illinois addressed all the women on the campus, and their national guests on "The college fraternity as an educational asset." She began by saying that the world needed men and women today who could correctly interpret life, because of its tremendous power both scientific and mechanical. Its possibilities are both good and evil, and she illustrated this by quoting from Professor Soddy of England, who said, that, as the next generation could be entirely wiped out by modern warfare developed by science, should another war occur, so could humanity be lifted almost to the realm of the gods out of sordid disease and suffering by science. She said she could speak for hours on what some call "the most debatable question of college life, the credit and debit side of Greek life in college." She then gave some of the assets and liabilities, but pointed out that if fraternity members lived up to their ideals there would be little on the liability side.

Miss Leonard divided her topic into three parts, the asset of a fraternity to the individual, to the campus, and to the world. In speaking of the benefit of the fraternity to the individual she pointed out that it was a splendid place to grow up intellectually and thus to be free from prejudices, eccentricities and dislikes. That it was a fine place to grow up emotionally, by learning to live with people and developing emotional stability, which she felt was woman's greatest contribution to the world. That it was a fine place to grow up morally and spiritually. In group life one has a greater chance to choose between forming habits of work or idleness, of wise or foolish spending of money, of recreation or "wreck-reation," of fine intellectual habits or slovenly mental habits. Living in a sorority exemplifies, or should exemplify, loyalty. She gave many actual experiences of girls thus growing up, bringing out her point very clearly.

Benefits to Campus

In speaking of the benefit of the fraternity to the campus she showed that in placing the intellectual aspect of the college above the social aspect and developing loyalty to the best the fraternity was giving much. She also mentioned the benefits of the well run chapter house in solving the housing problem on many campuses. She said that now is the time to make every administrator feel that he cannot do with organized groups. That what you do depends on what you're willing to do, and she suggested that the groups guard against softness and luxury. With campus groups, she continued, as with any other phase of life "not repression but finely directed expression."

In speaking of the benefit of the fraternity to the world, she said, it meant correctly interpreting college life to the world, which necessitated correctly interpreting education, and in that connection, since the Greeks were the greatest educators, Miss Leonard gave their definition. Quoting Plato she said, "Education is that which gives to the body and soul all the beauty and all the perfection of which they are capable." If we can even attempt to do this we are contributing much to the world, and to those of us who are fraternity members much is given and much is expected." In concluding Dean Leonard said, "Ask more of life than a penny's worth and touch life at its ideals and you turn it to gold."

Discussion Groups

After Dean Leonard's talk discussion groups were held as follows: Personnel, Mrs. Mary Love Collins, Chi Omega; Scholarship, Mrs. Martin, Phi Mu; Chapter Alumni Relations, Mrs. Miller, Kappa Gamma; Chapter Publicity, Mrs. Dwight Young, Delta Delta Delta; Finances, Mrs. Margaret K. Banta, Kappa Alpha Theta; After Graduation—What?, Miss Elizabeth Steele, Alpha Gamma Delta; Freshman Training, Mrs. Anna M. Knotte, Alpha Xi Delta; Rushing, Mrs. Hildreth Rider, Alpha Delta Pi; Justification of Sororities, Mrs. I. Willis Myers, Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mrs. Reding Putman, Pi Beta Phi, spoke to the freshman assembly on "Freshman Panhellenic and its Purposes."

Following the discussion group luncheons were held for the interfraternity council and guests at the Phi Kappa Gamma house and for Panhellenic presidents and national officers at the Alpha Tau Omega House, after which an informal discussion group was held, led by Miss Moore, Kappa Kappa Gamma, dean of women at Ohio Wesleyan in which many worth-while suggestions were brought out and there was a splendid exchange of ideas.

The Panhellenic organizations held open house that afternoon in their lodges, and the Conclave ended with the Greek Conclave formal dance and open house at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

Those who attended the Conclave included the following: Bishop Edwin H. Hughes,  $\Delta T \Delta$ ; Mrs. Amy O. Parmelee,  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ ; Dr. Francis W. Shepardson,  $B \Theta \Pi$ ; Mr. John L. Porter,  $\Phi K \Psi$ ; Mrs. Hildreth A. Rider, Springfield,  $A \Delta \Pi$ ; Mrs. Lois Dodd, Bellefontaine,  $A \Delta \Pi$ ; Miss Julia Wildman, Hamilton,  $A \Delta \Theta$ ; Miss Elizabeth Steele, Delaware,  $A \Gamma \Delta$ ; Mrs. Anna Knotte, Mansfield,  $A \Xi \Delta$ ; Mrs. Hortense Sheldon,  $B \Phi A$ ; Mrs. Mary Love Collins, Cincinnati,  $X \Omega$ ; Mrs. Bayle Richardson, Cincinnati,  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ ; Mrs. Dwight Young, Dayton,  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ ; Miss Lois Higgins, Chicago,  $\Delta Z$ ; Miss Bertha Schneider, Columbus,  $\Gamma \Phi B$ ; Mrs. Margaret K. Banta, Menasha, Wisconsin,  $K A \Theta$ ; Miss Bessie Feagin, Florida,  $K \Delta$ ; Mrs. Florence T. Myers, Columbus,  $K K \Gamma$ ; Miss Clara O. Pierce, Columbus,  $K K \Gamma$ ; Mrs. Miller, Delaware,  $K K \Gamma$ ; Mrs. Martin, Columbus,  $\Phi M$ ; Mrs. Rader,  $\Phi M$ ; Mrs. Reding Putman,  $\Pi B \Phi$ ; Miss Ruth Domigan, Mt. Vernon; Miss Lydia Baird, Detroit,  $\Sigma K$ ; Mrs. William Fletcher, Cleveland,  $\Theta Y$ ; Miss May Youngbery, Evanston, Illinois,  $Z T A$ .

Their (mountain people's) greatest need is good schools adapted to their conditions—schools that will make them intelligent about the life they live; that will teach them what they need to know to enable them to adjust themselves to their environment and to conquer it; schools that will appeal to children and grown people alike; schools with courses of study growing out of their daily life as it is and turning back into it a better and more efficient daily living.—Quotations from P. P. Claxton.

Promising Sophomores

PHYLLIS SEAGO, Illinois H, has been most outstanding in the chapter during her two years at Millikin. Her activities include: member of the Y.W.C.A. freshman cabinet; member senior cabinet; freshman editor of the college annual, and assistant editorship this year; member of Conant Society, English honorary organization, Le Cercle Français.

Phyllis received the award for the highest grades of chapter freshmen last year, and honorary mention of all campus freshmen.

Hope Willcutts, Indiana, is a member of Torch, sophomore honorary organization; of Woman's League and Y.W.C.A. She is an active member of the social service committee of the latter organization.

During her two years on the University of Utah campus, Mirra

Jacobs has been outstanding in both scholarship and extra-curricular activities. In her freshman year she was elected freshman class sponsor for the R.O.T.C. and was also selected to the "Trotter's Club," women's riding organization. She has been chosen as the sophomore representative to the council of the Associated Women Students and has served on the A.S.U.U. dance committee.

Michigan A has chosen Evelyn Harwood as the sophomore who is most representative. Evelyn is a very accomplished debater and is one of the reasons why Hillsdale defeated the University of Chicago last year. She is an active member of the Foreign Relations Club and the Christian Association. Evelyn is a straight "A" student.

Jean Handley, Missouri F, has distinguished herself in dramatics this year. She was one of the cast of Eugene O'Neill's play, The Fool, which was presented this fall by the group known as Drury Players of which Jean is business manager. She is also reader for the girls glee club.

Elizabeth Wagoner, New York  $\Gamma$ , is competing for assistant managership of varsity basketball, was one of twelve girls to represent St. Lawrence University at a play day at the University of Vermont. She also plays field hockey and tennis. As a reward for her athletic activities she has been elected to SLU Club, the honorary athletic society. She is a member of the chapel choir and the college glee club.

Active on the Ohio State University campus is Jean Blake, a sophomore member of Ohio B. Jean is vice president of the sophomore class, on the executive board of the Y.W.C.A., and chairman of the all-campus Y.W.C.A. dance.

Margie Bright, Texas A, is a member of Ashbel, an honorary literary society, which requires an average of B for membership. She is also a member of the glee club and was elected to the Curtain Club in the fall.

A member of Oklahoma B, Margaret Kygar, held the position of copy editor on the school paper, O'Collegian, last year; was society editor of the paper the first semester of this year; has taken part in school dramatic productions; holds the office of scholarship chairman in the chapter and has worked out an excellent plan of reports.

Beth Olwin, Illinois Z, was a member of Orange and Blue Feathers and was social chairman the second semester, was on doll show and international relations committees; a member of the glee club; the cast of French Heels, Woman's League musical revue; was a sub-captain of big sister committee and a member of Alethenai, literary society.

In her sophomore year she was elected to Shi-Ai, sophomore inter-sorority organization; was on homecoming accommodations and Dads' Day reception committees; on costume committee of Steppin West, Pierrot opera, and is on the Y.W.C.A. meetings, the doll show, committees, is a Y.W.C.A. discussion group assistant, is sorority chairman of Gold Feathers, and was in the cast of The Cradle Song. She is the house representative for Dads' Association Finance Drive.

Janet Dunbar, New York A, is our house orator, being a sophomore in the school of speech and dramatic art. Her activities are many and varied, some of which are social service work in Y.W.C.A., leader of a freshman discussion group, and participant in student dramatics. This fall she was initiated Zeta Phi Eta, honorary oratory fraternity. With a B+ average in scholastic work, Janet leads the sophomore class in oratory school.

Members of West Virginia A chapter chose Virginia Kelly as the sophomore who has achieved the most in scholarship, activities, Pi Beta Phi ideals and loyalty. She was elected a member of Li-toonawa, an honorary organization composed of the outstanding girls in the sophomore class. She is secretary of the sophomore class and is a member of Y.W.C.A. She has been very active in W.A.A. work and is one of the outstanding athletes among university women. She was a member of the intramural basketball, swimming, baseball, volleyball, and disco teams and is intramural team manager for Pi Beta Phi.

The first event in which freshmen women may participate at the University of Michigan is the freshman pageant given every spring in honor of the senior class. To be elected to the chairmanship of this affair is a mark of achievement, and this honor was accorded Helen DeWitt. Helen was also the president of the freshman girls glee club, and at the end of her first year was elected to represent her class on the board of directors of the Women's League.

As a member of Ohio  $\Delta$  Alice Jane Christopher's activities include the following: basketball 1 and 2; Transcript 1 and 2; Owl (a literary magazine) staff 2;

S. Marie Vaughn entered Washington University on a four year scholarship from Soldan high school. She pledged Pi Phi the fall of her freshman year and was given the jeweled recognition pin offered by the actives for the best pledge and is now chairman of the scholarship committee. Her activities include freshman commission, League of Women Voters, is assistant director of Olympia, the semi-annual production of Thyrsus, circulation manager of Dirge, circulation assistant of Student Life, and a charter member of the freshman honorary women's fraternity.

For "With the Actives" Iowa Z submits as our most promising sophomore, one who is well-known and liked on the campus. A member of Octave Thanet, a literary society, Newman Club, on the sophomore cotillion committee, and a contestant in last year's beauty contest, Grace Donovan, Iowa Z, is an active sophomore. Her mother is the author of the prize-winning novel Black Soil.

Margaret Steward of Washington B has been an outstanding girl on the college campus. She was honored in the spring of 1930 by being invited to Matrix Table as the most prominent freshman girl in journalism. She is a member of Spurs, national sophomore women's honorary, served on the Y.W.C.A. Seabeck committee in the spring of 1930, and is now a member of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. She received a certificate from  $\Phi K \Phi$ , underclass recognition of scholarship. She is a member of W.A.A., played on the hockey team for two years, and played in class and intramural baseball.

Maintaining a high scholastic record, and yet prominent in numerous activities, Berniece Little, Oklahoma A, is a member of French Club, Studio Players, English Club and Pick and Hammer, geology club. She has been very active in Y.W.C.A. for two years.

Virjean Kuhnert has been chosen by Illinois E as the most representative sophomore. Virjean is active in chapter affairs, and this fall was co-chairman of the homecoming committee, and a member of the decorations committee. She is also a leader in campus activities, being a member of Y.W.C.A., W.A.A., freshman commission, the Saturday Noon Forum, The Century Aquatic Club, and Daughters of Neptune.

Vermont A has voted Mary Omwake the most outstanding member of the class of 1933. Mary has gained fame on the athletic field; both years she has played on class teams in hockey, basketball and volleyball, and captained volleyball freshman year and hockey sophomore year. She won a place on All-Mid in hockey both freshman and sophomore years, and took positions on All-Mid volleyball and basketball teams last year. She is secretary of W.A.A. and is a member of M.C.A. Mary also has the honor of being a member of the student curriculum committee; belongs to the French Club and dramatic club.

As vice president of the sophomore class at Oregon State College, and active in Y.W.C.A. and dramatic activities, Estora Ricks, Oregon B, is one of the most outstanding women on the University of Oregon campus.

Irma Brodman, Illinois B  $\Delta$ , is the vice president of the sophomore class and the social chairman of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. She was chosen as the battalion sponsor of the R.O.T.C. unit, and is a member of Players' Club, the sophomore commission, the women's glee club, and W.A.A. She is on the editorial staff of the Student and the Gale, the year-book.

Iowa A has chosen Lydia Dyall to represent the sophomores. Lydia had an A average and is a member of the band, orchestra 1, girls' glee club 1-2, chapel choir 1, and Y.W.C.A. 1-2.

Thelma Wright entered the University of Manitoba in the fall of 1929, and was among the first group of pledges taken in after the installation of Manitoba A. In her

Kansas A has chosen Helen Reigart as the most outstanding member of its sophomore class. She is a member of the Sour Owl board and the Jayhawker staff. Enrolled in the fine arts school, Helen won the poster prize for the Graduate Magazine, and makes many of the posters for the dramatic club. Besides being prominent in Y.W.C.A. work, Helen was recently elected vice president of the chapter and pledge supervisor.

Belle Porterfield has been chosen by Idaho A as the most representative sophomore. She, with Vera Forbis, represented Pi Phi in intramural debate last year. She works on the Argonaut, the student paper, and Gem of the Mountains, the

No Mountaineer closes a door behind him. As a class they have great restless physical energy. Considering the quantity and quality of what they eat, there is no people who can beat them in endurance of strain and privation. In spite of such apparent "toughness" the Mountaineers are not a notably healthy people . . . that the hill folk remain a rugged and hardy people in spite of unsanitary conditions . . . is due chiefly to their love of pure air and pure water.—Quotation from Horace Kephart, Our Southern Highlanders.

FROM PI PHIS PENS

Edited by Esther Fuller Jans

FADS are a well-known characteristic of us women. There are stages in our development when we had to wear the same sort of dress that every other girl was wearing, with not a pleat out of place. There are times when it amounts to social ostracism for the ordinary child if her hair isn't combed in just the same way as other girls' hair is combed. And, in a small town, a girl must read the books that the other girls are reading or she can never hope to hold her own in conversation with her chums. One such period that I well remember was when the book Prudence of the Parsonage reached our library. We all read it. We got to know the twins, and Prudence, and their Methodist minister-father who whistled in a manner considered most un-ministerlike by the other church denominations in Mount Mark, the Iowa town which was the scene of the play. Perhaps it was because we all knew the towns mentioned in the book—Burlington and Des Moines—that we were so fond of this book and the succeeding stories about Prudence.

It was just recently that I found out that the author of these popular books is a Pi Phi, Ethel Powelson Hueston, who graduated from Iowa Alpha at Mount Pleasant College in 1909. In a letter from her is the information that her daughter, Buell Hueston, "much better known as Chummy," is a pledge this year at the University of Wisconsin.

To quote a few sentences from the letter in which Mrs. Hueston describes her writing:

"I have written—well, at least from coast to coast—did one in Paris (Sweden) and outlined another while doing a cruise of the

ETHEL POWELSON HUESTON

Mediterranean. The first one was written in Trinidad, Colorado, followed in quick succession by Chicago, Denver, two in California, two in Maine, two in New York City, and Rowena (more about this one later on) I wrote last summer up in my cottage in the hills in New Jersey.

"All of my work is from characters, rather than from plots. I think of a type, and name it, and then mull it over in my mind and let it talk, and fall in love—and out again—all this in my mind—until it gets to be a real person to me. When I get really acquainted and friendly with her, I get out the typewriter and turn her loose. I don't always approve of her. Often books don't turn out just as I think they consistently should."

And Mrs. Hueston gives the best explanation for "happy endings" that I've ever heard. . . . "I don't anticipate a life of 'happiness forever after' for my poor lovers, but I am kind enough to stop talking about them at a very happy moment. The future is up to them."

And, oh, what an elegant daily schedule has been evolved by Mrs. Hueston! She is one of the many souls in this world who love to work at night and moreover, she is one of the comparatively few who can do so with no thoughts of the necessity of being out of bed bright and early the next morning. She doesn't get up until noon—think what heaven that would be!—but she devotes the rest of the day to family or friends, and writes best from midnight until three in the morning. Here's a tip on how she avoids those morning telephone calls which seem to disturb everyone's existence: she has a telephone by her bedside and when it rings, she answers and pretends she is the maid and that "Mrs. Hueston is not up yet."

Now for the prolific list of novels, which she has had published and which, as a by word, have "enjoyed success."

dence Says So, Prudence's Sisters, Prudence's Daughter, Leave It to Doris, Eve to the Rescue, Merry O, Coasting Down East (a travel book of the coast of Maine), Idle Island, Birds Fly South, The People of This Town, Swedey, Ginger Ella, Ginger and Speed, and For Ginger's Sake.

The official debut of her latest novel, Rowena Rides the Rumble, is to be made soon. "Amusing, though a bit shocking" is Mrs. Hueston's comment on this story, and if it enjoys the popularity that her other books have, it will "keep the wolf from her apartment" in fine shape, as she hopes.

Mrs. Hueston says that she had to write because there wasn't anything else she could do. Well, what more could one wish for if one has the success she has!

Mrs. Hueston is visiting in Iowa at the present time, and plans to visit her daughter before returning to her home in the East.

A long-held notion of mine was shattered recently. I thought that authors were always glad to talk about their books. This isn't the case with Jessie Douglas Fox, New York B, whose novels Rain Before Seven and What Mad Pursuit have been reviewed before in the ARROW. Miss Fox cannot be coaxed onto a lecture platform to discuss her books, it is reported. However, the radio isn't so bad because she cannot see her audience and because she can have her speech all written out before her.

A problem which didn't disturb many of our grandmothers was that of wives who work at some commercial enterprise outside their home. Today it is different. This subject is the theme of many a present-day story, and one of the best of these is New Dreams for Old, by Mary Badger Wilson, New York B. It was published January 9 by the Penn Publishing Company of Philadelphia.

The story starts off romantically enough with Celia Brooke, a little library clerk in Washington, D.C., falling in love with a young government clerk, Donald Nesbit, despite the attentions of Hugh Cornell, a young politician who had no place in his life then for matrimony. She married the government clerk, and life became a struggle to make his salary cover living expenses for them and their child. Her husband seemed content to look forward to a pension in old age, and to make no attempt to earn more than the meager salary which he had been getting when they were married. Celia unexpectedly came into a little money, determined to drag herself out of the rôle of a scrimping housewife, and established a little library. It grew into a real business, and as it grew Celia changed into the successful business woman, who held her own with intelligent, cultured, educated persons. Meanwhile, friend husband was still just a clerk. Celia was willing to leave him for she had found companionship with Hugh Cornell, the politician who had sought her out when she started to become something more than a housewife. The triangle disappears at the end of the book when Celia decides marriage really does mean very much to her and that she and friend husband do need each other yet, in business as well as in marriage.

It's a good story, and any young woman who is afraid her husband will be content to stick in a "clerkship" should deliver the book to him in strong doses. It goes to prove that nowadays, when girls are educated to independence and when marriage isn't the only way of existing for an attractive and intelligent female, the "grand passion" has to be combined with practical congeniality for a successful marriage.

Good luck seems to be the lot of Edith Emily Humphrey, Ohio A. A romantic (albeit discouraging) idea is that writers who go traveling come home to find the cupboard bare, and that they have to sit down to many a night of pecking on the typewriter before the exchequer is built up to pre-traveling status.

Miss Humphrey came home from a summer spent in jaunting about Europe to find that she had won first prize in a short story contest with her story, A Travel Mystery.

Since then, she has sold an article about Florida to a vacation-travel magazine, and another article "Journalism for the Juniors" will appear in Ohio Schools. A year ago her first article on journalism appeared in that magazine. She took first prize in a newspaper contest in Cleveland last year.

Here's something about Miss Humphrey which is amazing! She has sold everything she has sent out! Imagine a writer who doesn't have a collection of rejection slips . . . can it be that she marks each effort with a swastika, or writes only in the light of the new moon, or pounds the typewriter keys with a magic wand?

You Pi Phis who get a real thrill out of the early days of our sorority—and who doesn't!—look up the September, 1930, issue of Woman's Journal, and turn to the article Mrs. Catt at College, 1880-1930. There is a picture of Carrie Chapman Catt, Iowa I, who was then Carrie Lane, and her arrow . . . ! Well, one of the things at which I most marveled when I was a pledge was the accuracy with which the actives seemed to fasten their pins. Each arrow seemed to be pointing in exactly the same direction. But this picture of Mrs. Catt was taken about 1880, when the fashion was to point the arrow almost straight down. That picture caught my attention before I read the article, and I started musing on the old pins I have seen. I know one daughter who was initiated with the pin her mother wore. It was set with opals, and was quite large. One of the truest Pi Phis I have ever known was a woman who received her arrow in one of the earliest days of the sorority. Her pin was large and she wore it at the neckband of her dress.

To get back to Mrs. Catt . . . the article was written after Mrs. Catt was the honored guest at the graduation exercises at Iowa State College at Ames in June, 1930, just fifty years after she had graduated from that school.

Her reminiscences told of the days when the girls at Ames wanted a debating society and found that the only time they could meet was at the time when the boys were wont to ask the popular young women to walk over the campus with them, a custom of those days. Despite the protests of the boys, the girls did have their debating society.

Carrie Lane, as the leader in this unheard-of project, received a huge number of invitations to walk out with the men students that first meeting night. The boys were determined to have their dates and had chosen this method of attempting to prevent the girls' meeting.

Mrs. Catt wrote an article for the July issue of the Woman's Journal, "If Not Prohibition, What?" Here are a couple of sentences in which the spirit of the article is contained: "It (prohibition) seems in accord with all the history of liquor law-making—whatever is, is wrong." and "I predict that the United States will stick to prohibition, but I do not say that it may not repeal the eighteenth amendment along its ever-changing way."

Other recent articles by her appeared in the Pictorial Review for January, 1931, and the Woman's Journal for December, 1930.

The children and the car share honors with Margaret Weymouth Jackson, Michigan A, in the autobiographical sketch of her which appeared in the "Who's Who—and Why" department of the July 19, 1930 issue of Saturday Evening Post.

If you really want to find out about this writer of so many short stories which have been published in the last year turn to the Post and read this article. Mrs. Jackson is a woman who finds time for her husband, her children, her home, her neighbors, and yet writes many stories. Her account of some of the tricks of homemaking and keeping the family happy is indeed amusing. One thing she mentions is in connection with getting meals. She says "Set the table early—it deceives the family into thinking the meal is ready, and then they will calmly wait the meal which you get in the kitchen." She has three children—Charles, Ann, and Martha—and writes "The day on which I sold the first story to the Post was the happiest in my life except those three important occasions when the doctor said, 'The baby is perfectly normal.'"

Here are some of the stories Mrs. Jackson, who is a Hoosier and lives in Indiana, has had published: "Business Piano," "Hum in the Llamarada" (a story of a movie theater fire and the hero and heroine of the occasion), "Professional," "Stars in Their Courses," and "This Way, Please," all of which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. "For Barbara" was published in the September Ladies Home Journal and "Perfectly Impersonal" in the July Woman's Home Companion.

Florence Finch Kelly, Kansas A, had an article in the North American Review for August, 1930, entitled "Is Life Worth Living?"

In these days of the amateur "detectatiff" there is a field where endeavor will be greatly appreciated. That is in the tracing of Pi Phi writers. If you would a-Sherlock-Holmseing-go just send the results of your sleuthing to the Book Notes editor.

MISS RUTH MCGOWAN, District of Columbia Alpha, is one of the most cherished and admired members of the Washington alumnae club. Her field of activities and successes is wide and varied. Besides being an accomplished painter of children's portraits, she has devoted herself generously to Pi Beta Phi. During the war she directed a fraternity house for Pi Beta Phi war workers, and last year she made one hundred dollars for the Settlement School by importing charming Philippine dresses. During the interim she has found no task for the fraternity too small or too difficult. She is widely traveled and the club finds great delight in her witty, clever stories of her far flung adventures to such countries as Korea.

Mary Alice Jones

ONE evening, three years ago during rushing, I met at the chapter house an alumna from Tennessee A, Mary Alice Jones. During our conversation I learned that she had recently come to Chicago to take up some new work. Quite naturally I asked her what she did. She answered, "I am the Director of Children's Work for the International Council of Religious Education." That silenced me—almost! But my curiosity overcame my surprise, and I asked for an explanation. I admitted that the title sounded impressive, but that I had no idea what one who bore it had to do. She tried to make it clear to me, and evidently I found it interesting; for a few months later I became her secretary.

The International Council of Religious Education is a cooperative organization, the accredited agency of the protestant denominations in the United States and Canada for the planning and carrying on of their program of religious education. As the Director of Children's Work, Miss Jones provides a sort of clearing house for the protestant forces of religious education for children. Into her office come the experiences of leaders in local churches, parents, denominational executives, professors in universities and theological seminaries, writers, research workers, and the leaders of other organizations working for child welfare; and from it go out curricula, plans for parent education and leadership training, suggestions for organization, building equipment, and a multitude of other matters which are related to a program of religious education for the present age. I have discovered that this is a much larger and more important development than I had realized. The Sunday school with which most of us are familiar with its inadequate leadership and casual program is being reconstructed and if the plans which are being made are carried out, a greatly enlarged and enriched program will gradually come to all of the churches.

A committee of eighty-five women from all parts of the United States and Canada, responsible officers in charge of children's work for the denominations and regional boards of religious education, works with Miss Jones in the development of a program which reaches over thirteen million children in North America.

Miss Jones travels extensively through the United States and Canada in the interest of the religious education of children. This coming summer she will teach for two weeks each in three summer schools of religious education, one in Denver, Colorado, one at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin and one at Lake Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire. Last summer she was the only woman speaker on the program of the International Convention of Religious Education which met in Toronto and was attended by over four thousand delegates. Upon individual invitation of President Hoover she attended the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection which met in Washington in November, and is taking an active part in the follow-up work of the conference through efforts to get the findings before all of the church groups in the United States.

The quadrennial convention of the World's Council of Religious Education will meet in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in the spring of 1932, and Miss Jones had been asked to take complete charge of the program for that section of the convention dealing with children's work. While she is in South America she will also hold conferences in several countries.

As a member of the Board of Editors of the International Journal of Religious Education, she contributes numerous articles in her field. She is the author of a book for leaders of children, Training Juniors in Worship, three books for use in church school classes with children, Learning to be Followers of Jesus, The Church Carrying on Jesus' Work and The Story of the Bible, and two books of stories for children, Robert and the Rainbow, and Winter is Coming.

During college the religious activities of the campus attracted her special interest. She was a member of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet, and was a delegate to the regional Y.W.C.A. Conference and to the National Students' Conference. She completed her college work in three years and was on the dean's honor list her senior year.

Miss Jones is a loyal Pi Phi and finds a great deal of pleasure in her relationship to the Fraternity. When she entered the University of Texas the family finances, as she reports them, were at their "lowest ebb," and it was impossible for her to consider assuming the financial obligations of fraternity membership. She was, however, interested in their activities as she had several Pi Phi relatives. Later, when she was living in Chattanooga and her sister was a member of a local sorority at the University of Chattanooga, she suggested that they petition Pi Phi. The school was small at that time and some of the members felt that a petition to a smaller group would be better, but through her experience in a larger institution where many fraternities had chapters, Miss Jones was able to point out to them the advantages of waiting for "the best." After the charter was granted to this group, she was initiated into the chapter. She has attended two conventions and has made two visits to the Settlement School, in which she is tremendously interested. When she came to Chicago she sought out the Pi Phi chapter at Northwestern University and was invited to live at the chapter house where she has been able to keep in close contact with the life of the Fraternity.

After graduating from the University of Texas Miss Jones went to Washington for government service during the last months of the war. She secured a fellowship and entered the school of religious education of Northwestern University from which she received the degree of Master of Arts. She was then appointed children's editor for the Board of Religious Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which position she held for five years. She wrote the church school material for children of her denomination, and a series of textbooks which are being used by a large number of denominations. Desiring additional opportunity to study in her field she went to Yale University for two years, and was about to take her Doctor of Philosophy degree when she was urged to accept the position which she now holds. The completion of her thesis has, therefore, been delayed.

But such an array of accomplishments is quite apt to picture a rather terrifyingly "good" and formidable person. This would be most unfair. Miss Jones is a delightful companion, a jolly contributor to the gossip sessions of the Pi Phi house, a charming speaker, and a "boss" whom one would be glad to recommend at any time!

Dr. Marie Dye

DR. MARIE DYE, Florida A of II B Φ; B.S.; M.S.; Ph.D.; University of Chicago, has been the appointed Dean of the Home Economics department since April, 1930, although she was acting dean for several months before that time. In this college the administrative board is comprised of the deans of the seven departments of the college, so that a dean's duties are rather more comprehensive than is the usual thing, bringing, as it does, administrative work for both faculty and students.

The Home Economics department is a very important department of this college and the building devoted to it is one of the finest in the country.

Dr. Dye has received recognition for her productive research on nutrition, and has had many articles printed in scientific magazines, such as the Journal of Nutrition, The Journal of Biological Chemistry, etc. She is a member of the Association of Biological Chemists, which is an elective membership, it being an honorary society; a member of the American Chemical Society; of the Association for Advancement of Science; is president of the Michigan Home Economics Association; and a member of the Advisory Committee to the National Home Economics Association; a member of Kappa Mu Sigma, Phi Kappa Phi, and Sigma Psi Fraternities.

The nicest part of it is, that despite all the honors and responsibilities she remains a charming, warm-hearted woman, a true Pi Phi.

While the rest of the nation has grown far from our revolutionary ancestors, the Mountain People have been marooned on an island of mountains, and have remained very much the same as they were at that time.—Quotations from The Land of Saddle-Bags, p. x, Introduction, by James Watt Raine.

All sociological progress is the result primarily of passable roads. The interchange of products and of ideas, and even the infusion of new blood, are all contingent upon transportation. Wherever the currents of contemporary life can flow in, or seep through, all the different human elements blend into a composite, in which the characteristics are shared in common. Whenever a river is made navigable or a railway is built, the adjacent area gradually emerges from the Land of Saddle-bags.

All these survivals from ancestral days are like prized heirlooms, with their own quaint atmosphere of dignity and romance. But they are rapidly disappearing. Yet under all changes the fundamental qualities persist. In the colossal task of Americanizing America we can wish for nothing better than these simple virtues of the pioneer, who has always been hardy, honest, hospitable, and fearless.—Quotations from The Land of Saddle-Bags, p. x, Introduction by James Watt Raine.

MARY BOWEN BUSEY—mother of Marietta Busey Tawney, Illinois Z, was known at the time of her death last April as the most worthy citizen of Urbana, Illinois. After graduation from Vassar she married Colonel S. T. Busey and in 1877 came to Urbana to make her home. Here her husband served as mayor five times and once defeated his friend "Uncle Joe" Cannon for Congress. In her husband's memory Mrs. Busey gave to Urbana a splendid library. She also managed and continued his extensive business interests. The rather unusual record of being a trustee of the University of Illinois for twenty-five years was Mrs. Busey's. Of her other activities the Illinois Alumni News says: "A staunch advocate of woman's suffrage, Mrs. Busey served for a decade on the woman's suffrage board and was a charter member of numerous patriotic, civic, and social organizations. She was chairman of the building committee for the new Urbana-Lincoln Hotel; was a trustee of the First Presbyterian Church of Urbana for over forty years, was chairman of the building committee and contributed the organ; was one of the first patronesses of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. The Urbana Golf and Country Club was made possible largely through her efforts."

WILLIAM O. WILSON—father of Theodora Wilson Murane, Wyoming A, has for the past four years been Attorney General of the state of Wyoming and has also been president of the National Association of Attorneys General.

EDWARD F. TREGO—uncle of Helen Trego, Illinois B, is president of the Hoopeston Canning Company and president in 1929 of the National Canner's Association as well as an executive of the American Can Association. Mr. Trego first attended Lombard College, where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta, and later graduated from Princeton University.

JAMES EDWARD WOOLLEY—father of Gertrude Powell Woolley, New York Gamma, now an attorney at law in New Jersey, bears the distinction of having been the youngest assemblyman in that state, serving in that capacity when only twenty-three years of age.

CHARLES C. MADISON—father of Martha Madison, Illinois A, is a distinguished lawyer practicing in Missouri. "He is the first district attorney in the United States to invoke successfully the Nuisance Clause of the Volstead Act and to secure an injunction in a federal court containing an order to padlock a hotel or building."

DEMA HARSHBARGER—cousin of Alberta Lewis, Illinois Z, and herself a member of Illinois A is a promoter of civic opera. Through her efforts many smaller towns are given the opportunity of hearing Chicago Civic Opera stars on tour. Among her protégés have been Cyrena Van Gordon, Claudio Muzio and Charles Marshall.

CHARLES E. MILLIKEN—husband of Gertrude Pentland Milliken, California F, was district governor of the California-Nevada district of Kiwanis International for the year 1930. Mr. Milliken is an attorney in Los Angeles, being associated with Mr. Loyd E. Wright whose wife, Julia Kingsbury Wright, was the convention initiate in 1929. Mr. Milliken is a graduate of the University of Southern California and prior to entering the practice of law was a professor there and assistant dean. For his faithful service as attorney of the House Fund he is known to all Pi Phis of California F.

Of course I am not personally acquainted with all the Mountain People; but for thirty years the circle of my picture has been steadily enlarging, and this composite picture from the magazine does not fit very many of them. I would not say that magazine writers have a malicious intent to deceive. They are doubtless reasonably honest, but they are also temperamentally selective, and write with prolific swiftness. Men that habitually carry their pencils at half-cock, and are so eagerly sensitive to fresh impressions, are naturally startled when they see the unusual conditions in which some of us live, and hear the peculiar names our places bear. Who could write a commonplace paragraph about a news item from Beehide, Mad Dog, Barefoot, Jamboree, Hogskin Creek, Burning Springs (a well of natural gas, discovered in early days), Contrary, Poor Fork, Viper, Traveler's Rest, Hell fur Sartain, Troublesome, Kingdom Come, Disputanta, Fish Trap, Squabble Creek, Quicksand, Cutskin, Feisty or Hazard? These naturally overstimulate the fertile imaginations of literary men, and the colors of their sketches are instinctively heightened; or perhaps, by mere natural selection, what is gray and dull and average fades out and the residue of color "strikes fiery off indeed."—Quotations from The Land of Saddle-Bags, p. 1, by James Watt Raine.

The Men at the Settlement School

IT IS difficult, if not impossible, to discuss the men and boys and their work at the Settlement School without including the whole masculine contingent as a unit. You see in this most unusual and altogether pleasant situation, from our point of view, where the men are so obviously in the minority, and hence very clannish, an article concerning them and their work must be very comprehensive and inclusive.

The nine boys who live at the dormitory work on the farm outside of school hours under the direction of Ambrose Ogle, a former student in the early days of the school and who is retained the year round to attend to the immediate supervision of the general farm work. These boys have the responsibility of caring for the livestock and poultry, and the chores that are necessary in farm work, keeping the buildings and campus in order, repairing roads, walks, fences, etc., and in short are taught to do in the most efficient manner those things that they will find necessary when they acquire farms of their own. The boys are allowed fifteen cents per hour for their work. This is credited to their expense account. Many of the boys more than earn their way through school in this manner.

In the all-day agriculture classes the twenty-six boys are given every opportunity to learn the best farming practices as carried out on the Pi Phi farm. Every one of our two hundred apple trees are being pruned and sprayed by the boys in these classes. Hotbeds for the starting of early vegetables have been constructed, gates have been made and hung and a small shed for protecting our bee hives has been made. The classes have helped slaughter the hogs for our meat and have had charge of "curing" and packing the meat. Ingredients for feed rations for the dairy cows on the place have also been weighed out and mixed by the boys. In fact every opportunity is taken to teach the boys improved managerial and operative jobs on the farm. We have had many calls from the parents of these boys to prune and spray their fruit trees. Very often a neighbor has a sick cow, or horse or hog and asks us to come around and help him and "bring your class along." All this adds materially to their learning and experience.

Then, too, we have the Pi Beta Phi chapter of the Future Farmers of Tennessee. This is an organization of the boys who are enrolled in vocational agriculture classes. This F.F.T. is a part of the national organization, Future Farmers of America. There are more than a hundred chapters with a total of three thousand members in the high schools of Tennessee. The annual state convention meets each April at the state capitol building in Nashville. Our chapter was represented last year by Paul Johnson and Muncie Houser. It is to be represented again this year by two delegates to be elected from the chapter at large.

The outstanding thing done by the Pi Beta Phi chapter this year is the loving cup which they have offered to the best-all-around high school girl. The factors of scholarship, character, activities, deportment and attitude are taken into consideration in the selection of the winner which is to be made by a committee from the faculty. The cup will be awarded annually and the name of the winner engraved on it. This is the first award of merit ever offered at the school and the Pi Beta Phi chapter is the first in the state to offer such an award.

Last year classes in poultry raising were conducted at Laurel Lick and Wears Valley schools. More than thirty boys were enrolled in these classes. About half of this number now have small flocks of pure bred Barred Rock chickens hatched from eggs of our school flock. One of these classes is being conducted at Laurel Lick again this year. Work with small shop tools is being carried on and the boys have made and painted small articles such as bird houses. Just now they are painting the interior of a spare room in the school building that is to be used for weekly classes in home economics.

A farmers' class is being held weekly in Wears Valley on the production of burley tobacco. The class has a membership of about twenty-five adult farmers.

Last October and November the mountain farmers in the immediate vicinity of Gatlinburg, under the direction of the agriculture department, bought cooperatively twelve tons of wheat bran and cotton seed meal for cattle feed at a material saving. We are now considering the cooperative buying of commercial fertilizer this spring. It is hoped that this will grow into a farmers' club with a permanent organization.

The new principal, Mr. King, has won the confidence of his faculty by the quiet and efficient manner in which he goes about his work. On three afternoons a week, after school hours, you will find him tuning up his Wine and Blue basketball machine for a week-end game. His team has been very successful this year and the Pi Beta Phi teams are known for their spirit of fair play and high type of sportsmanship.

If you have not heard of Mr. Mattil and his fine work at the school for the past eight years you are not a good Pi Phi. His latest activity, as you probably know, is the reproduction of mountain furniture in our native woods, walnut, cherry and maple. He works five men regularly in his shop and has classes in drawing and furniture design on Saturday morning.

The other two men of our "family" are Arlie Watson, who tends the furnaces in winter and supervises the gardens in summer, and Ernest (Shot) Reagan, the trouble shooter, without whom we would have been minus water, heat and lights many a time.

Just now, beside the other activities already mentioned, we are getting in readiness to give our faculty play which will be presented to a critical public in the near future. Then, too, Mr. Mattil is busy several nights a week with his neighborhood basketball team. What next? No one knows, but you may be assured that something new and interesting is just around the corner when you are a man at the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

La Delle Allen who is in charge of the Arrowcraft shop, can be of great help to you in anything from interior decorating to planning your next season's wardrobe. Write Miss Allen about the stunning woven suitings and coats for summer wear—you'll not see duplicates anywhere.—EDITOR.

TIMES have changed—and so have homespuns. We often find ourselves feeling sorry for our grandmothers because they had to wear homespuns. I wonder if our grandchildren will feel sorry for us when they learn that some of us wore homespuns. I think not—that is if they see the homespuns that we wore.

In all of Scotland you will find no finer, sheerer wools than those used for weaving the dress materials at the Arrow Craft Shop. In fact much of the yarn used is imported, not by us, but by the firm from which we buy. The heavier materials adapt themselves well to coats and suits, while the lighter weights are used for dresses.

With the spring fashion forecast showing suits and coats, "for town and country," made of the imported tweeds, we thought that every Pi Phi should be told of the lovely fabrics made at the school suitable for the current fashions. These materials are "all wool and a yard wide" and come in browns, tans, blues, grays, greens, and most any other color you might care for. Since the dyers of the yarns used first dyed yarns to mend valuable old tapestries, one would naturally expect only the richest and deepest tones, and shades in the colors. The material may be woven with or without borders for trimmings. Where no borders are wanted for the outside tiny ones are made to trim the inside of the coat which adds a very charming effect.

For those who spend their summers at the seashore or in the mountains nothing could be more practical or lovely than the soft afghan material in the pastel colors (and darker ones too) for sports dresses, skirts, and suits. A jacket made of all-over pattern material, woven with many colors, is an addition to any wardrobe. It can be worn with so many different dresses.

These materials are all woven to order. The dress patterns with big borders for trimming, average about five yards or more in length, and are $25. The all-over pattern material for coats and jackets is $5.00 a yard: the plain dress material $3.50 a yard. If only very narrow borders are wanted for a bit of trimming, they may be had for a small additional cost. Small samples will be sent on request.

Mattie Huff Pledged

MATTIE HUFF of Little Pigeon is pledged to Iowa Γ of Pi Beta Phi at Ames, Iowa. A graduate of our own Settlement School at Gatlinburg, is soon to wear the arrow.

To those who know the school as it is today, this fact may not seem so unusual. But to those Pi Phi pioneers who searched out the darkest spot on the educational map of the United States, and who some twenty-one years ago, traveled those muddy, almost impassable roads in search of a location for a center of learning — to those pioneers and to many others—the pledging of Mattie Huff to Pi Beta Phi, will bring a real thrill.

Mattie was pledged not because she is one of our graduates—but because she is charming, capable, and especially desirable as a fraternity member. She was rushed by other national organizations on the campus, but chose to wear the arrow.

From the very beginning of the Settlement School, two of its staunchest friends have been Mattie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huff. It was Mr. Huff who begged our first investigators to locate in Gatlinburg, in order that his children and his neighbors' children might have educational advantages.

It was Mrs. Huff, who with poise and graciousness, assisted the school staff at the "opening" of the Jennie Nichol Memorial Hospital, and who has helped the school in every way that her frail health would permit.

MATTIE HUFF
Iowa Γ Pledge

With extensive timbering interests and as owner of the Mountain View Hotel at Gatlinburg, Andrew Huff has always been influential in the community. He has always stood for the highest type of citizenship and has been a most worthy and loyal supporter of our school.

His devotion to his family is paramount. And although he and his wife personally supervised the running of the hotel, they maintained a cottage home in a sheltered "holler" where they might be alone with their family whenever possible.

Each year the Huff interests have thrived, until today the Mountain View Hotel is the largest and best-equipped resort of its kind for miles around. And it is furnished with as many things as could be obtained from our Arrow Craft Shop.

In the early days of the Settlement School, attendance was greatly effected because the children had to stop out to grub briars or to help put in the crop—and also, because many of the mountaineers were still suspicious of our intentions. It was then that we needed all the moral support possible. Andrew Huff saw the need, and used to carry his small four year old daughter, Mattie, to school each day in order to swell the numbers.

And there in the big school room, with a Pi Beta Phi pennant on the wall above her head, Mattie learned to read and write. She was always a good student and progressed rapidly. Upon reaching the higher grades, she became editor of the Wine and Blue department of the Gatlinburg News.

After graduation from the school, she finished her high school work in one year at Virginia Intermont, at Bristol; and later, completed two years at Maryville College. Then came the decision to enter the Iowa State College at Ames.

Pi Beta Phi is proud to welcome Mattie Huff.

Indiana I

After graduating from the high school of Lawrence, Michigan, and attending a preparatory school in Terre Haute, Indiana, for a year, Anita Welch entered Butler University at Indianapolis in September, 1917. She was pledged at once to Pi Beta Phi and initiated October 5, 1918. She was active in campus affairs and her vivacious, sunny disposition endeared her to a host of friends. Her home was a rendezvous where Pi Phis always found a welcome.

Illness forcing her to leave college before graduation, she spent a year in California and recovered sufficiently to accept a position in the Ball State Teachers College at Muncie, Indiana. At the end of a year, however, she was obliged to give up her work permanently, and the succeeding years were filled with continued but unavailing efforts to regain her health.

The details of her funeral were planned according to her written instructions. She was buried at Muncie, beside her mother and her sister, Nympha Welch Stauff (Indiana I), whose deaths preceded hers by a short time. To the surviving father, sister, and brother, Pi Phi extends deep sympathy.

For nearly ten years Anita's friends have watched with amazement her fortitude in the face of ever-increasing difficulties. There are those of us who will meet our future troubles with head held higher, remembering her courage; who will smile through our sorrow, remembering her smile; who will never forget her loyalty to her ideals—and thus be truer to our own. She has left a rich heritage of memories to those who loved her.

MARIE KOEPKE
Illinois H

Marie Koepke, Wilmette, Illinois, member of Illinois H chapter at James Millikin University, Decatur, Illinois, was instantly killed January 24. Her horse became frightened and dashed madly into the side of a fast train.

Services were held in the chapter house.

Although only a sophomore in the chapter, Marie showed true Pi Phi loyalty and spirit. Her presence will be truly missed. Sympathy is expressed to her bereaved parents and friends.

ELLA DEWS OLIVER
Oregon A

Mrs. A. H. Oliver passed away January 1 at Tacoma, Washington, after an illness of twelve days following a major operation.

Mrs. Oliver entered the University of Oregon in 1915 and was graduated in 1919 during which time she was very active on the campus, serving as vice president of the associated student body and leading many women's athletic activities.

Following graduation she was appointed instructor of physical education in the play grounds of Portland, Oregon, and later became director of physical education of the public schools of Tacoma, Washington and Bend, Oregon. In the latter city she met Mr. Oliver and was married in the spring of 1921.

At the time of her death she was serving as an officer of the Tacoma alumnae club.

Her death is deeply mourned by her many friends, whom she contacted during her brief but colorful life of thirty-three years.

Pi Beta Phi extends tenderest sympathy to her surviving husband, father and brother.

EMMA GWIN WHITNEY
Colorado B

Mrs. W. H. Whitney (Emma Gwin) passed away in Cleveland, Ohio, December 11, 1930. She was born in Tennessee but lived in Colorado until her marriage to William H. Whitney. She attended Denver University where she was initiated into Colorado B in 1886.

For over twenty years she was a beloved member of the Cleveland alumnae club. Never failing to respond to whatever demand was made upon her, her death has left a void which the club feels can never be filled.

She was known as a wonderful mother, a loving, helpful, and faithful friend, and always the most loyal supporter of Pi Beta Phi. As one member has so aptly expressed it, "What a benediction her life was to us all." Colorado B extends deepest sympathy to family and friends.

KATHLEEN GOODING RICKENBAUGH
Pennsylvania I

Mrs. Calvin Rickenbaugh passed away on December 30, 1930. To her husband the Harrisburg-Lancaster Club extends the deepest sympathy.

ALFA JANE CAMPBELL FASSETT
Iowa I

Mrs. Herbert Fasset passed away in May 1930.

EDITH SHUGART CUNNINGHAM
Iowa Z

Mrs. Glen Cunningham (Edith Shugart) passed away in June, 1930, at Spokane, Washington.

ALMIRA TROTH
Iowa Z

Mira Troth passed away in May, 1930, at Aletha, Kansas, where she was visiting friends. In 1883 Miss Troth graduated from the State University of Iowa where she had been very prominent in the activities of the school. For a number of years she held an important secretarial position with the T. B. Wales Co. both in Iowa City and in Boston. Later she became interested in social service. She was superintendent of a home for delinquent children in Omaha, Nebraska, after which she became superintendent of an old ladies' home in the same city. From Omaha she went to a library position in Philadelphia. The loss of her hearing made it necessary for Miss Troth to give up public work but she never lost interest in social work or in the various organizations of which she was a member.

During the last years of her life she kept a magazine shop in Iowa City where she was dearly loved.

MARGUERITE HAYS TYSINGER
Ohio I

Marguerite Hays entered Wooster in the fall of 1906 and was a charter member of Alpha Delta Psi, the local fraternity which became Ohio I. Marguerite left college after her sophomore year and before the fraternity had been granted a chapter of Pi Beta Phi. But she returned for the installation and became a charter member of Ohio I. During the war she went to Washington, D.C., to do her bit and remained in the Veterans Bureau until her marriage in June, 1929, to Charles H. Tysinger, a lawyer in Washington.

The Washington alumnae, who knew and admired Marguerite, and the members of Ohio I, who loved her, were shocked to learn of her sudden death, December 7, 1930 at Sibley Hospital, where a few hours earlier her little son had been born.

ROBERTA ROBBINS
Arkansas A

Roberta Robbins was killed in an accident, Thanksgiving Day, 1930.

HATTIE BROCKWAY GETTEMY
Illinois Δ

Mrs. Charles F. Gettemy (Hattie Brockway) died September 8, 1930.

DAISY JOHNSON

Daisy Johnson died in 1929.

DR. JENETTE HUBBARD BOLLES
Kansas A

Dr. Jenette Hubbard Bolles died February 23, 1930.

SARA HYDE LAKIN
Kansas A

Mrs. Corwin T. Lakin (Sara A. Hyde) passed away in 1926.

SARAH PAINE WILBUR
Michigan B

Mrs. Austin E. Wilbur (Sarah A. Paine) passed away.

GRACE P. HUNT
Michigan B

Grace P. Hunt died December 8, 1930.

SADIE MILLSPAUGH BOULWARE
Texas A

Mrs. Lemuel Boulware (Sadie Millspaugh) passed away.

FRANCES NOWELL CURRY
Washington A

Mrs. Robert J. Curry (Frances Nowell) passed away January 5, 1929 of pneumonia. She is buried at Baraboo, Wisconsin.

The Measure of a Fraternity Member

Written for N.P.C. Publicity Committee
By Bertha C. Gardner, Grand President, Zeta Tau Alpha

THE relative importance in qualities desirable in the social and spiritual makeup of a fraternity member has long been a subject of spirited thought and debate, and yet the selection of such essential qualities for the purpose of discussion is more difficult than it seems.

In the eyes of all of us there stands upon the horizon the ideal fraternity girl . . . who will become the strong fraternity woman of tomorrow, and we who are jealous of the destinies of the fraternity seek her as we seek the choicer blossoms of the June garden for the bouquet. And just as we make possible the finer blossoms through selection, we must use the same means to make of the fraternity bouquet our most heartfelt ideal. The ideal girl has certain definite attributes which we are agreed upon; still there are further fine delineations necessary to clarify the exact meaning of the qualities we have chosen. If a questionnaire were to be sent to all members over America asking them to list the elements of character which, in their opinion, they thought paramount to meet fraternity standards, and to rank them in the order of their importance, there would be a varied and most interesting compilation of answers, and one would then have created indeed the portrait of the ideal fraternity girl. Even though her colors would be rich and she would stand out sharply from the canvas, still one could find this very charming lass in the fraternity houses of our universities. From the pages of the questionnaire would come an unanimity of choice of certain characteristics.

Let us for a moment discuss, as though the answers were before us, the essentials necessary for a girl to qualify as a real fraternity woman. To me, these group themselves in four essentials. They are family background, the girl's scholarship, her ideals, and her honesty. To create the great fraternity body which we each seek, the girl must certainly come from families of true worth. Naturally a construction may be placed upon the word, yet the hearthstone of the family of standing is well defined, and family blood speaks a clear language. Here will arise leadership, which we need, and here will be prestige. So let us add this valuable blossom to our fraternity bouquet:

We demand good scholarship records of our candidates. To me that is another prime necessity. By no means do we seek prodigies in the academic classroom, but rather ambitious, persistent students, and probably above everything else, the young woman with a clear objective, that most sparkling stone of the cluster.

The objective is closely akin to the ideal. Choose for your candidate the young woman with ideals. She will be the Jane Addams of tomorrow, the Florence Nightingale of the useful years to come. Ideals, of course, are the things which govern our lives. They are the things which mould personalities, and to cause others to form opinions of us. The ideals we hold for our fraternities will fashion and shape them for the future just as they have in the past. Honesty, in the broad sense, is an outstanding necessity—inherent honesty. As I might interpret it, it causes us to be generous, to be domestic, to be social, to be tolerant—and we find in that word an important thought to be considered in choosing the fraternity girl—and to be cooperative. This term may appear to be overplayed, for it runs through the entire social thread today, but we may apply it with grace and profit.

Should we find an ideal member, combined with these essentials, she would possess leadership, personality, optimism, tact, health, and I hardly need add, an appreciation of spiritual development. And she is here with us, this girl of the idealist's canvas, this perfect flower in our bouquet. She is here in such numbers, critics to the contrary notwithstanding, as never before. You will find her if you just look around the corner. You see her! . . . and isn't she sweet in her gown of culture with its jabot of scholarship, a broad, flaming sash if ideals, and a train of inherent honesty? I see her in real life, walking up over the horizon and melting into the mystic figure of the girl who was our ideal but whom perhaps some of us thought was but a dream.

—From Amy Comstock, A  $\Phi$  Chairman, Publicity Committee, N.P.C.

It is this transition that should make the challenge to the Churches today. A people who for generations have worked out their individual existence far removed from the forward march of progress is bound to suffer temporary demoralization when modern industrial conditions change their whole manner of life.

The Mountains need today new leaders who are willing to face new conditions. There are modern problems to be met. The imperative need, and we must not delay, is to develop leaders among the people themselves, that they may direct all the forces—economic, educational, social, agricultural, and religious—to cooperate in shaping an ideal, wholesome, Christian, community life.—Quotation from Helen H. Dingman.

Shreveport, Louisiana—March 20—Book Review by Olivia Moore. April 17—Annual business meeting and election of officers, Myrtle Day and Olivia Moore. April 28—Founders' Day banquet. May 15—Report of Year Book committee and bridge, Mary Bain.

Toledo, Ohio—March 11—Election of officers, Mrs. Harmon. April 25—Founders' Day. May 13—Hostess, Mrs. Willis. June 10—Childrens' party 2:00 P.M.

St. Louis, Missouri—Meetings are on the second Tuesday of each month. The hostesses are: Mrs. F. Wiederholt, 6323 Pershing, February 10; Mrs. J. H. Nash, 408 S. Hanley, March 10; Mrs. Gilbert Turner, 7015 Maryland, April 14; Mrs. Henry Duncker, 6 Washington Ter., Mat. 12.

The club divided itself into special groups that meet once a month to study child psychology, gardening, etc. After every regular business meeting of the club, a short program is furnished by one of these groups. Every member of Pi Phi is cordially invited to attend the meetings of both the groups and the club.

Southwestern Indiana—Meetings of the Southwestern Indiana alumnae club are held the last Saturday of each month at the home of the various members. February 28—Dorothy Viehe. March 28—Mrs. F. Condit. April 25—Cooky-shine and Founders' Day party—Mrs. P. Wever. May 30—Log cabin party—Mrs. J. C. Glackman.

New Jersey—The New Jersey alumnae club meetings are held the third Monday of each month at various towns in New Jersey. Luncheon is served at one o'clock, after which there is a business meeting, followed by a lecture on some subject of common interest or some other sort of entertainment. The January meeting was a most successful dance, managed by Mrs. W. W. Elder (Vermont A) and Mrs. J. K. Evans (Pennsylvania A). There were seventy-five couples present, among whom were Mrs. Andrew Campbell, Alpha Province President, and Mrs. Gordon Ives, convention guide. The February meeting will be held with Mrs. C. V. Taplin, 922 Ridgewood Road, Maplewood, N.J., at which the Constitution will be discussed. In March we will have our annual Settlement School bridge benefit at the Maplewood Country Club. The March 16 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Cook, Jr., 2 Laurel Place, Glen Ridge, N.J. The speaker will be Dr. Lardner Moore Shannon. The Founders' Day dinner will serve as our April meeting. In May we will have a pot luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. J. Nichols, Jr., Old Raritan Road, near Lake Avenue, Westfield, N.J. The meetings will end June 15 with our annual picnic at South Mountain Reservation.

The members of the groups in the vicinity of Passaic, Paterson and Englewood have decided to hold their meetings separately, though keeping in close touch with the New Jersey alumnae club. They will celebrate Founders' Day with us and will assist with the Settlement School bridge. If Pi Phis in the vicinity of these three towns will get in touch with Mrs. A. L. Fink, 342 Columbus Avenue, Hasbrouck Heights, N.J., she will notify them of all meetings.

There is also an evening group of the New Jersey Club, composed of business and professional women, which holds monthly meetings and which also celebrates Founders' Day with us. The meetings are: February 19 at the home of Vina Jellson, 111 North Nineteenth Street, East Orange, N.J. March 19 a cooky-shine with Miss Jean MacKinnon, 65 Randolph Place, South Orange, N.J. April, Settlement School Benefit bridge with Miss Mary Konkle, 48 Hawthorne Avenue, East Orange, N.J. The chairman is Miss Eula Ovitt, 36 South Munn Avenue, East Orange, N.J.

Galesburg, Illinois—March 17—At the home of Mrs. Rollin Wetherbee, a discussion of the examination questions. April—Founders' Day banquet, Galesburg Club. May 19—At the home of Mrs. Pierce Webster. June—Breakfast, Soangetaha Club.

New York City, New York—A great many Pi Phis will become New York-minded in the next few months and perhaps they will ask what Pi Phi life is like in the great metropolis. A brief account of our activity this fall may be interesting.

In the first place, we are meeting on the first Saturdays of October, December, February and April in the Solarium, twenty-sixth floor, Panhellenic Hotel. In October we had a luncheon and in December, Edith Huntington Snow, Kansas A, an authority on weaving, spoke to us on the "Renaissance of Weaving as an Art" and displayed beautiful examples of the work done in her studio. In January, many of us were invited to a tea in her studio. In February we will hear Miss Louise C. Odenrantz, member of the Committee on Employment Problems and director of the Bureau of the Handicapped in N.Y.C. The meeting on March 28 instead of April 4 will be devoted to Convention, annual reports and election. Founders' Day will be celebrated on April 25.

In the second place, on alternate months, we are meeting informally. November saw us at May Gutelius Rambo's for a cooky-shine for which her daughter, Catherine, a senior in Swarthmore came over. In January, we held a most delightful dance in the Panhellenic Club rooms and bridge in Miss Chatfield's home in the Panhellenic apartments across the "garden." The success of this affair was largely due to her thoughtful courtesy which enabled the devotees of cards and the dance to gambol as they chose. In March we shall have an afternoon of cards on the eleventh.

In the third place, the organization, in an informal way, of the suburbs is going on apace. Our aim is to maintain one large, worth while Pi Phi alumnae club with four meetings and the luncheon each year, and to allow each group,—Metropolitan, Westchester, Long Island—to hold what gatherings it will. We want all the seven hundred Pi Phis to whom we send notices to pay the three dollars to the Pi Phi alumnae club. The New York group, which holds an informal gathering on alternate months, as given above, has additional dues of one dollar. The other groups meet for cards, luncheon, bridge or what-not even more frequently, and usually have no dues.

And in the fourth place, we have done better this year in selling Settlement School woven products due, very largely, to the interest and courtesy of the Panhellenic Club and to each of the fraternities whose turn it was to serve tea on the Sundays during November and December in the club rooms. The Pi Phi tea on the second of November was a big success: the exhibition of the beautiful paintings of the Great Smokies by Mr. Will H. Stevens and Mr. Louis E. Jones formed a perfect background and many consider it among the very finest of the regular monthly exhibits held in the club rooms. Miss Bishop gave a splendid talk on the school. Up to January 1 at these Sunday teas and at our December meeting, we sold more than $175 of the woven articles. This is due to the Panhellenic spirit, the interest of the other fraternities and because we had a member willing to give up Sunday afternoons for two months.

At the regular monthly Panhellenic Club tea the Sunday before Christmas, which was managed by the Pi Phis, there were several undergraduate Pi Phis present from Swarthmore, William and Mary, and Cornell and also Mary Smith Campbell, president of A province. It would be pleasant to establish this as an annual custom—the Sunday before Christmas.

We wish that all New York Pi Phis would assume some responsibility for maintaining the reputation of the fraternity in New York City.

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania—February 21—Dinner bridge, College Club, 143 N. Craig St. March 21—1:00 p.m.—Luncheon, Pi Beta Phi House, 513 Neville St. April 25—Founders' Day Luncheon. May 16—Family picnic.

St. Petersburg, Florida—Meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month. March meeting will be devoted to the Settlement School. The clothing from the last rummage sale was given to the Salvation Army for distribution among the unemployed.

Personals

Miss Teller, Grand Vice President of the Fraternity visited us during the latter part of November. Miss Teller's time was of course divided between the active and alumnae chapters; but the alums enjoyed having her to themselves for luncheon on one day of her visit. We always enjoy having an inspecting officer with us, and found Miss Teller's visit most profitable.

The active chapter soon closes their rushing period. It is the custom for the alumnae club to hold a cooky-shine for the actives and new pledges after pledging. This is the first opportunity of the new pledges in experiencing the cooky-shine. They are always quite curious to know what mysteries it holds.

We feel deeply the loss of Mrs. Hutchinson, Fraternity founder and an active and interested member of our club. She was always keenly interested in all that touched Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. Hutchinson never missed an initiation, and always it seemed that as she watched each girl receive her arrow that she was thinking of her own school-girl days in Monmouth College. Mrs. Hutchinson once said, "I don't judge these younger people harshly. They are so different, and all seem sweet to me." No wonder that the many college students who knew her loved her.

Mrs. Hutchinson's funeral was held on January 8 in the church which she had attended for many years. Pi Phis from chapters and clubs in Galesburg, Carthage, Burlington, and Monmouth sat together in the church in a last tribute to one of their founders. At the close of the service the Pi Phis formed an aisle outside the church doors through which the funeral party passed. Miss Onken drove from her home in Chapin that she might be here to attend the funeral.

We miss Mrs. Hutchinson greatly but we will always feel that something which she has put into the life of each one who knew her. Pi Beta Phi is the great fraternity which it has grown to be because of the type of womanhood which gave the Fraternity its beginning.

Luncheon meetings for the Pittsburgh club are meeting with favor. The January meeting was as well attended as the October meeting. Elizabeth Hamilton (Pennsylvania A) with the firm of J. H. Holmes and Company, gave a splendid talk on women and stocks, and Emily Wilson (Pennsylvania Δ) of the Allegheny County Bar, talked most interestingly on women following law as a profession, and the conduct of cases. In November the annual Settlement School bridge benefit supplanted the regular meeting, and in December a delightful evening of music and readings, with Mrs. Wm. V. Mahaffey and Mrs. J. E. Webster furnishing the program, was given. The club is looking forward to the dinner bridge planned for February.

The "drop in" Wednesday luncheons down town are becoming even more popular, and many Pi Phis who find it impossible because of business duties to attend Saturday afternoon meetings, are keeping in touch with each other and the club through these get-togethers.

The Pittsburgh alumnae club yearbook, which was ready for distribution early in December, is a publication the club is proud of. It fills a long-felt need.

Pi Beta Phi Plans New House

Within the next year another of the women's fraternities at the university will have a fraternity house. Plans are being prepared by a Burlington architect for an English type, brick and stucco house, to accommodate sixteen girls and a matron, for The Incorporate Alumnae of Vermont Beta of Pi Beta Phi, Inc.

This house is to be built on the lot at the northwest corner of South Prospect and Cliff Streets, which the directors of the alumnae organization have purchased from the University of Vermont. The lot has a frontage of 152 feet on South Prospect Street and is 80 feet deep. It is expected that the plans will be ready so that work on the new fraternity house can begin early in the spring.

The Pi Beta Phi Fraternity was one of the earliest of the women's fraternities to be established at the University of Vermont.

ALPHA PROVINCE

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Chartered, 1908

Pledge Day, November 12, 1930

The fall rushing season proved to be a very successful one and Ontario A pledged: Jean Lovering, Joyce Lyon, Francis Shensstone Rutherford, and Elizabeth Watts, all of Toronto; Norah Williams, Hamilton; Elenore Glassco, Oakville; and Grace Gibson, Lewiston Heights, N.Y.

On January 19 the sophomore rushing came to a close with the pledging of: Marjorie Daly, Napanee, and Marie Kent, St. Petersburg, Fla.

The abolition of first year pass arts by the university authorities caused many complications to arise in the present system of academic requirements for initiation. This development limits the pass arts course to three years instead of the usual four years, making the only students on the campus in first year those in honor courses. Such a change means that any student in the pass arts course who fails this year must return to high school to get her requirements for entering second year instead of repeating at college. The local Panhellenic has taken up the situation and plans for the future are now under discussion.

The annual Mothers' Tea was held on January 22.

Because of the numerous problems which have arisen through the revision of trade duties, the alumnae have taken over the sole responsibility of the magazine agency of Ontario A.

A new compulsory system of study adopted this year by the scholarship committee has proved most successful. Of the required thirty hours of study for the week, three hours work must be put in each morning. This does away with most of the "cuts" from lectures and leaves more time for college and fraternity activities without interfering with college academic requirements.

The University College Players Guild has received the enthusiastic support of many actives this year. In December the guild put on the first amateur production ever held in the Hart House Theater in which Patricia Godfrey, vice president of the society, played a leading part, and Grace Matthews and Helen Anderson took difficult minor rôles.

Besides the contribution to Settlement School already made, the chapter is trying to formulate a plan whereby the expenses of the annual formal will be cut considerably in limiting favours and such incidentals, and the balance will be set aside for the Settlement School.

One of the most inspiring incidents of the winter term was the visit of Mrs. R. D. Brown of Central Office who brought to the girls the vastness of the internal development of the fraternity, the workings of convention, and the responsibility of each individual toward its success.

MARGARET MCFARLANE

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Chartered, 1920

Pledge Day, February 7, 1931

INITIATED, November 3, 1930: Inez Howe, '33, Bryant Pond, Me.

Merrill Hall, an attractive new home economics building, has just been completed on campus. Many of the students and faculty are enjoying its added advantages.

Maine A was only too glad to take advantage of the method suggested by Elouise Anderson to raise money for the Settlement School. Every member took part in the campaign, and as a result the chapter came out 100 per cent in subscriptions. The chapter also contributed a small sum to the Loan Fund.

The members of Panhellenic decided that the prestige of the organization should be greater on this campus. As a result a formal banquet was held at the Bangor House, and delegates from the Panhellenic of Colby College were present. A new Panhellenic song has also been written and accepted. Louise Durgan was chairman of the committee.

Outdoor sports and athletics are in full swing now. The chapter is most interested in basketball, bowling, and riflery. There is also much interest in hikes sponsored by the Maine Outing Club of which Anna Buck is president.

Mrs. Dorothy Spoerl, an alumna from Lombard College who has been in Orono for the past two years, will preach a II  $\Phi$  sermon for members of Maine A on February 15.

Plans are now being made for the initiation, banquet, and an informal dance for the new initiates to be held on the evenings of March 11, 12, and 13. The banquet is to be held at the Bangor House and the informal dance at Oldtown.

The members of Maine A will be sorry to lose one of their most outstanding sisters, Louise Durgan, who completes her course at the end of the fall semester.

The girls are already looking forward to convention. Since it is to be held so near to Maine A it is hoped that a large number may be able to attend.

DORIS OSGOOD

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

Chartered, 1893

Pledge Day, October 9, 1930

Vermont A is proud to announce the election of Ellen Kellogg and Elizabeth Moyle to  $\Phi$  B K. Ellen also has the honor of being elected secretary of the senior class. The chapter is well represented in class offices this year, with Ruth Nodding, secretary, and Alice Denio, vice president of the sophomore class, and Elizabeth Brown, secretary of the freshman class.

Several places on championship and All-Midd athletic teams have been claimed by members of II  $\Phi$  during the hockey and volleyball seasons. The juniors captured the hockey championship with Anne Omwake, Cay Carrick, and Sally Harnden representing II  $\Phi$ . Anne and Mary Omwake, and Cay Carrick advanced to positions on the All-Midd team. Mary Omwake and Marjorie Haynes were members of the sophomore championship volleyball team. Marjorie has distinguished herself in scholarship too by being placed on the dean's list. The chapter was represented by Alice Hagen, a senior, on the All-Midd volleyball team.

On December 4, the college was fortunate in being hostess to Myra Hess, famous English pianist, and acclaimed one of the greatest Chopin players of the present time. Miss Hess presented a well chosen program of Chopin, Bach, Brahms, and César Franck, which was well appreciated by the Middlebury audience.

On January 13 Cornelia Otis Skinner appeared in a program of her delightful character sketches which were most artistically and humorously presented and enthusiastically received.

The last Sunday chapel of 1930 was in the form of a beautifully arranged Christmas musical service. The chapel was lighted entirely by candles and the decorations lent a true Christmas atmosphere. The men's and women's glee clubs took part and sang especially well the "Hallelujah" chorus from Handel's Messiah.

Gili Gaya of Madrid, known as an author and editor, has replaced Dr. Concha as head of the Spanish department in the summer.

So far the two outstanding dances of the college year have been the sophomore hop which was held on Thanksgiving eve and the Literati Ball, held January 17, for the members and tryouts of the various publications on campus.

On Thanksgiving, Vermont A furnished a basket for a needy family in town and took care of two families at Christmas time. It is the usual custom to provide for a needy II  $\Phi$ , and this year also, instead of giving presents to the rooms or to each other, the chapter took care of a second family, as there was much help needed in making Christmas happy for the poor people of the town.

A Halloween party was held at the chapter rooms the first meeting in November. A very clever parody on the witch scene from Macbeth was put on by the social committee. The pledges entertained at a Christmas party before vacation with a skit and some musical selections.

At Christmas time the alumnae and patronesses presented the chapter with a large gateleg table. Some day the members of Vermont A hope to have larger quarters which are being planned for every year.

This year the chapter has pledged the usual amount toward the Settlement School. Last year money was raised by giving a bridge and, later on in the season, a rummage sale.

With initiation week-end, February 21, comes also a novel event for Middlebury, an ice carnival with the conventional snow castle and trimmings. This will be one of the most outstanding features of the winter season and will command much interest.

SARA G. HARNDEN

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

Chartered, 1898

Pledge Day, February, 1931

It is with great pride that Vermont B looks forward to the building of a new chapter house which will be started in the spring and completed in the fall. The lot has been purchased and is located near three women's dormitories, not far from the campus. The plans, although incomplete at present, are for an English type house of brick and stucco, which will accommodate about sixteen girls.

The Collier's drive caused much competition between the two teams, and although the winners were rewarded with a fine supper at the rooms, the losers contributed a great deal, for the chapter sold the largest number of subscriptions in Alpha Province.

Among the actives there are many who hold prominent positions in college organizations and campus activities. Margaret Stanley is president of Women's Student Union; Ruth Small was elected to O N; Marion Kiel took part in the college play, The Queen's Husband; Alice Gay and Frances McKean are on the varsity hockey team; Elizabeth Howe is secretary of Masque and Sandal, and Dorothy Taylor is on the rifle team; Olive Fields is vice president of the junior class and Shirley Nichols is vice president of the sophomore class. Marjorie Bracken was sent as a delegate to the Intercollegiate Women's Student Union Conference held at the New Jersey College for Women.

The House Fund has been progressing slowly, but after the midyear examinations and rushing are over, the chapter will give a large bridge party or supper in order to raise a large sum of money.

HELEN WILLARD

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

Pledge Day, November 3, 1930

The chapter announces the pledging of: Janet Brown, 163 Suffolk Rd., Chestnut Hill; Margaret Gosset, 54 Warrington St., Providence, R.I.; Dorothy Hunter, 347 Albermale Rd., Neutonville; Beth Hoffman, 266 Pine St., Lowell; Eleanor Johnson, 334 Bay State Rd., and Virginia Magness, 304 Beacon St., both of Boston.

Massachusetts A expects to send twenty-five dollars to the Settlement School this year. The money is to come from the regular dues. The Chapter had a hard time selling Collier's subscriptions as all the relatives and friends seemed to take the magazine. The girls obtained five orders.

Massachusetts A held a bridge at the Lenox Hotel on the evening of December 14, which was a success both socially and financially. The other women's fraternities in the college were invited and they came and brought their friends.

On December 15 the Boston University Woman's Council sponsored a concert at Symphony Hall, given by James Houghton, the celebrated tenor. Each women's fraternity was represented and one girl from each acted as usher.

On December 15 the annual Robin's Christmas party was held in Jacob Sleeper Hall. This is a party given to some of the poor children of Boston by the Y.W.C.A. With one of the professors as Santa Claus, plenty of toys, candy and useful articles, the thirty young girls and boys had a joyous and pleasant time. Several Pi Phis helped entertain the children.

The regular midyear W.A.A. house party will be held at Waban this year. Several Pi Phis are planning to go. There will be skating, skiing, bridge, hikes, and other good times. This is usually the best attended of all the house parties, partly because of the varied activities it offers and partly because of the convenient time, just between midyears and second semester.

The  $\Gamma \Delta$  formal was held on February 6, at the Copley Plaza Hotel.  $\Gamma \Delta$  is a society to which every girl in college belongs.  $\Pi \Phi$  was represented on the committees in charge of it.

On December 6 Dr. William Edwards Huntington, president emeritus of Boston University, died at his home in Newton. He was a graduate of Wisconsin University, and Boston University School of Theology. Among honorary degrees were those received from Syracuse University, University of Wisconsin, and Boston University.

Panhellenic holds a luncheon once a month, which two active girls from each fraternity attend. This helps them to get better acquainted with each other and discuss informally the rules for rushing next year.

NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1896

Pledge Day, October 6, 1930

INITIATED, November 4, 1930: Adelaide Cornell, Chatauqua; Ruth Hobler, Elmira; Mabel Pierce, Hartford, Conn.; Suzanne Towne, and Ruth Patten, both of Syracuse.

New York A enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Campbell, Alpha Province President. She not only helped the chapter with their difficulties, but proved to be an interesting and fascinating guest.

The Collier's campaign brought forty-one dollars to the Settlement School fund. Each spring the girls earn money for this purpose, either through group or individual enterprises. Bridge parties and candy sales are among the methods used. Plans for this spring are already made in some instances.

The university English club has been fortunate in obtaining Gilbert Chesterton and Thornton Wilder as speakers. Other noted lecturers are expected later in the year.

Janet Dunbar was recently initiated into  $Z \Phi H$ , a national oratory fraternity. Rozella Boyd is a member of the senior class executive committee, while Beryl Thomas is on the junior council.

The examination period has been changed from two to one week, thus making the work more concentrated than formerly.

NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE
UNIVERSITY

Chartered, March 20, 1914

Pledge Day, September 29, 1930

This year the subscriptions for all the magazines in the university library were taken through the  $\Pi B \Phi$  magazine agency for the benefit of the chapter. To augment the Settlement School contribution each girl earned a dollar and the chapter is selling candy bars in the house, the proceeds of which go toward the Settlement School gift. Then, too, early in November the chapter gave a movie benefit in place of the Collier's campaign. This substitution was effected with the consent of the Alpha Province vice president inasmuch as four boys had just completed a thorough canvas of Canton for magazines. The proceeds of this benefit amounted to thirty-six dollars.

On November 18 the whole university was greatly shocked by the accidental death of Dr. Whitney Coombs, head of the economics department, and his five year old daughter, Betty. The chapter was sorry to lose Mrs. Coombs, a patroness, who has gone to live in East Orange, N.J.

During Christmas vacation five actives attended a tea given by the Alpha Province President, Mrs. Mary Smith Campbell. At the tea New York A and New York D were also represented, so it was particularly nice for the girls to meet not only the new Province President, but girls from other Alpha Province chapters as well.

New York F held its annual midwinter formal house party in January. The house was charmingly decorated with white and silver paper, and evergreens to represent a winter scene. Dancing started at five and supper was served at seven, after which the chapter and their guests attended the basketball game between St. Lawrence University and Alfred University. After the game dancing continued until eleven-thirty.

Mrs. R. D. Brown, director of Central Office, paid an official visit to the chapter during the latter part of January. The chapter enjoyed Mrs. Brown's visit immensely and received from her many beneficial suggestions regarding chapter affairs. She certainly transferred much of her enthusiasm about convention to the chapter.

Florence Myers is leaving college on February 1, having obtained in three and a half years the required number of hours and quality points necessary for graduation. However, she will return in June to be graduated with her class.

Beatrice Brotherton left on January 28 for Berkeley, California. She will make her home there in the future and finish her senior year at the University of California at Berkeley.

NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1919

Pledge Day, October 6, 1930

INITIATED, December 6, 1930: Clara Clarke, '32, 42 Academy St., Westfield, N.J.

The chapter pledged Lucille Bethke of Bemus Point, N.Y., but it has lost Dorothy Skinner, who was obliged to leave college because of the death of her father.

Work on the new law building has proceeded rapidly with the result that the steel girders are almost all up and concrete is being poured.

On the university Founders' Day, January 11, the one hundred and twenty-fourth birthday of Ezra Cornell was celebrated, the exercises including a banquet and speeches. Those members of his family residing in Ithaca were all present except his daughter, Miss Mary E. Cornell.

Students in the colleges of home economics and agriculture are busy with plans for the annual Farm and Home Week which will be from February 9 to 14. At that time farmers and their wives come to hear such important speakers as Governor Roosevelt and Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, to see various exhibits and demonstrations, and to get practical information for improving their farms and homes. Three Pi Phis especially are working for it: Dorothy Foley, who is chairman of the lunch room committee, Marian Hart, who has charge of the exhibit and demonstration in children's clothing and Frances Young, who will help with the main clothing exhibit and give a demonstration.

Despite the rather appalling total of five who have gone through the ice so far, skating enthusiasts have been making good use of the Beebe Lake. Incidentally, two of the above mentioned five were a  $\Pi \Phi$  and her rescuer!

At a gypsy party given for the freshmen by the home economics club on January 8, Frances Young took charge of the senior stunt.

Two of the sophomores are still retained on competitions. They are Harriett Davidson on the W.S.G.A. News competition and Marian Lasher on the Cornell Countryman competition.

Patricia Mahony, one of the pledges, had a part in the freshman play. They gave "Alice in Wonderland" this year.

In athletics, Tina Olsen made varsity hockey; Harriett Davidson, Katherine Hawkes, Kathryn Hearle, and Tina Olsen, class hockey teams; Virginia Ryan, Lida Sloan, and Elizabeth Chadwick, class soccer teams; Lucille Bethke, Harriett Davidson, Katherine Hawkes, Tina Olsen, Lida

Sloan, and Virginia Urban, class basketball teams; and Harriett Davidson was a winner in the archery tournament.

The usual fall rummage sale turned out quite successfully in spite of the depression, and according to custom the proceeds from it will go to the Settlement School. However, the Collier's campaign money obviates the necessity of augmenting it by means of a bridge or another rummage sale as has formerly been done.

New York  $\Delta$  is very proud of the fact that Delight McAlpine and Beth Ross have been elected to  $\Phi K \Phi$ .

PENNSYLVANIA ALPHA— SWARTHMORE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October 12, 1930

Pennsylvania A is working on several plans to raise money. There is to be a rummage sale in Philadelphia early in February, the proceeds of which will go to the Settlement School. Notices are sent to the members of the Philadelphia alumnae club. Contributions from alumnae and active members yield 100 per cent profit. These rummage sales have proved very fruitful in past years.

$\Pi B \Phi$  pencils are being sold to help the Falls City alumnae club swell its contribution for the Settlement School. Food sales and movie or theater benefits are other methods used by Swarthmore  $\Pi$   $\Phi$   $\Pi$  for the purpose of raising money for charitable purposes. Six subscriptions have been turned in for the magazine agency. An attempt is also being made to sell some of the actual products made by the Settlement School. A food sale is under way for the benefit of the Undergraduate Loan Fund to which the chapter has pledged ten dollars.

Mrs. Bissell, Beta Province President, made her annual visit to Swarthmore the first week-end in December. The chapter always receives much encouragement and inspiration from her visits. It is indeed a pleasure to entertain her.

The news that convention is to be held at Asbury Park was joyfully received because this will give Pennsylvania A an opportunity to be one of the hostess chapters, since it is the chapter nearest to the place designated for convention.

The annual Christmas party was celebrated at the home of an alumnae. A mock Santa Claus delivered "knocker" gifts to each person the verses of which were read aloud, much to the amusement of the chapter. The pledges contributed to the merriment by giving a "skit" on college humor. Informal dinners, teas, marshmallow roasts, and bridge parties add much to the social life of Swarthmore  $\Pi$   $\Phi$   $\Pi$ .

PENNSYLVANIA BETA— BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

Pledge Day, Indefinite

Mrs. Bissell, Beta Province President, visited Pennsylvania B from December 7 until December 10. On the evening of December 8 the fraternity gave a banquet for Mrs. Bissell at the May-Mar tearoom. The members of the advisory board were present. On the afternoon of December 9, a tea was given in honor of Mrs. Bissell. The patronesses, town alumnae, Milton alumnae, and guests were entertained at this tea.

During Thanksgiving vacation, from November 26 until December 1, the Bucknell University glee club made its annual tour. Constance Williamson accompanied the club as the soprano soloist. This is the first time that the glee club has ever had a woman soloist accompany it.

Marie Trunk has been recently elected the president of the Education Club.

Bessie Snyder played the leading part in the play Dulcy which was given by Cap and Dagger and Frill and Frown on December 4; Virginia Dunkle also played an important part in this play.

One of the outstanding social functions of the winter season was the  $\Pi B \Phi$  formal dance given at the Tustin Gymnasium on December 19. The decorations were very clever and colorful, suggesting the approaching holiday season.

THELMA GRACE CORMAN

PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA— DICKINSON COLLEGE

Chartered, 1903

Pledge Day, October 2, 1930

Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  has succeeded in raising its money for the Settlement School by a bridge given in October, and by the sale of Christmas cards by all the girls in December. Both methods were very successful.

Dickinson celebrated its annual homecoming week-end this year on November 14 to 16, when the football team played Franklin and Marshal instead of Gettysburg, which is the usual game for homecoming.

Mrs. Mildred Kern Bissell, Beta Province President, was the chapter's guest on December 10 to 12. During her visit, the chapter gave a formal tea at the home of President and Mrs. M. G. Filler who are the parents of two alumnae.

The college celebrated Christmas week with a glee club concert in which many of the girls participated, and on December 19, the night before Christmas vacation, with the annual Doll Show. The girls each dressed a doll to be sent to some poor children in New York. Again the chapter played Santa Claus to the children of the Methodist home in Shiremanstown. Each group took care of the desires of the various children as expressed in their letters to Santa Claus. About seven girls headed various committees for the event. Cut-in dancing was the vogue, and most of the students were present.

The chapter held a Christmas party in the rooms on December 17. They exchanged small gifts, and had a good time. The chapter also gave money at Christmas time to the welfare organization in town for a Christmas dinner for a poor family.

The basketball team this year has done very well. They have lost only one game, and that to Yale, January 2, in the midst of Christmas vacation. Many Pi Phis came back for the event.

The activities are for the moment at a rest. Some time ago Polly Barnhart and Doris Brandt took part in one of the dramatic club productions. At present the class basketball teams have been started and in these the chapter is well represented. Lucretia Heisey, Betty Bassett, Alice Irwin, Dorothy McCrone, and Emma Shawfield for the sophomores, and Jane Heisey, Esther Chambers, and Sara Rohrer for the juniors. Isabel Super is treasurer of the glee club.

Preliminary examinations for more than three cuts in any class were done away with this year.

ELIZABETH H. CLARKE

PENNSYLVANIA DELTA—
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH
Chartered, 1918

Pledge Day, November 17, 1930

Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  announces the pledging of Rebecca Busch, Wilkensburg; and Drusilla Grissmore, Steubenville, Ohio. Agnes Carten is pledge captain. The rushing season in November was for those girls who made their scholastic average during the preceding semester.

The chapter is attempting to participate in as many activities as possible. Eleanor Hoffman has successfully tried out for Pitt Players and glee club and Edna May Detting is a soloist and member of the glee club social committee. Dorothy Miller is on the circulation staff of the Owl, the Pitt yearbook. Assisting her in the interfraternity Owl selling contest are Betty Knapp and Agnes Carten. A prize of one hundred dollars is offered to the women's fraternity that first sells one hundred Owls. Each women's fraternity is assigned a men's fraternity to whom to sell Owls, but anyone else may be asked. The Pi Phis are selling to the  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  fraternity.

The Yuletide Festival, an event of December, was a success in every way. Edna May Detting had a major part in the dramatic performance which preceded the dance and Florence Schneider was a member of the dance committee.

On January 9 an informal dance was held at the chapter house. Betty Knapp, the social chairman, was in charge, assisted by the pledges.

The Pennsylvania  $\Delta$  benefit dance of last year proved so successful that another was given on January 30.

In November the Pittsburgh alumnae club gave their annual bridge in the Georgian Room at Webster Hall for the benefit of the Settlement School. The proceeds from the tables sold by active chapter members will be sent in as Pennsylvania Delta's contribution.

Louise Copeland, Florence Schneider, Edith Raschen, and Dorothy Miller have received Mortar Board recognition. Betty Mason, a junior in the medical department, and at present inactive, was one of the two girls to be recognized.

The Cathedral of Learning has risen to its full height at last. It stands as a symbol of a city's cultural ideals. As someone so aptly said, "It is strange that at the end of every street the Cathedral looms."

MARY DUDLEY

OHIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OHIO

Chartered, 1889

Pledge Day, October 4, 1930

Ohio A is pleased to announce the pledging of Josephine Starr of Logan, Ohio.

Mrs. Bissell's visit in November was enjoyed much by the girls, the only regret being that her visit could not have been longer. Since then the girls have been quite busy. They worked enthusiastically during the Collier's campaign and were finally able to send in $102. Aside from the campaign, Ohio A is sending $150 to the Settlement School and has also contributed to the Loan Fund.

The girls have also been busy selling subscriptions for the Athena, the campus yearbook. Each women's fraternity is entered in the sales contest, but at present  $\Pi \Phi$  under the leadership of Inetta Peister is far ahead in the race.

The "Prep Follies," an annual pledge skit show, was presented on January 23. Martha Frederick was a member of the committee in charge of it. After tryouts the six best skits were chosen to be presented. The  $\Pi \Phi$  pledges gave My Lady's Vanity, which included a powder puff chorus, a lip stick chorus of tap dancing, an eye shadow dance by Dorothy Roe, and several vocal solos by Dorothy Webster. The stage setting was a large vanity dresser from which the girls made their entrance.

The latest honor which has been awarded a  $\Pi \Phi$  on the campus was the initiation of Marian Morris into  $\Sigma A I$ , honorary musical fraternity.

At the annual W.A.A. carnival  $\Pi \Phi$  made the most money for the organization and was presented with a silver loving cup. The  $\Pi \Phi$  booth was a wine and silver blue "Noah's Ark." All kinds of animals made of gingham were made and sold by the girls.

To promote a more friendly spirit among the women's fraternities Panhellenic is enacting a plan to enable the girls to become better acquainted. On one evening of each week each women's fraternity entertains a member of another fraternity at dinner. Panhellenic gave a benefit bridge party on the afternoon of January 24.

Through the music lecture course the students of the Ohio University are given the opportunity of hearing many artists. Among the many worth-while attractions which have already been here this winter are the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, a lecture by Commander Byrd, and a program by Lawrence Tibbett.

OHIO BETA—OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1894

Pledge Day, October 4, 1930

INITIATED, October 25, 1930: Charlotte Allen and Harriet Crebs, both '31, Dayton; Jean Blake, Jane Brightman, Mary Crater, Margaret Gardner, Janet Goodfellow, Pauline Hendershott, Marjorie Julian, Margaret LeSar, and Ann Postle, all '31, Columbus.

The chapter announces the pledging of Elizabeth Carroll of Cleveland.

At the annual Panhellenic banquet held on November 6, Ohio B was presented with the scholarship cup for having the highest point average on the campus.

Jean Blake was elected vice president of the sophomore class in the class elections. Dorothy Dillon was elected to  $\tau \Sigma \Delta$ . Mildred Marquardt was elected to  $\Phi \tau \Theta$ . Virginia Hawkins was elected business manager of Browning dramatic society.

Ohio B requires each active to have two hours of activities each week, and each pledge to have one hour a week. A chart is hung on the bulletin board and the activities of each person are recorded there. The chapter as a whole is very well represented on the campus.

The chapter obtained forty subscriptions during the recent Collier's campaign, and with the addition of money from the chapter, seventy-five dollars was sent to the Settlement School.

On November 15, a formal dance in honor of the new pledges was held at the Deshler Hotel.

The active chapter had a booth at the bazaar which the  $\Pi \Phi$  alumnae held on December 6 at the Elks Club.

The active chapter of Ohio B gave a tea for its alumnae on January 19 at the chapter house.

OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1925

Pledge Day, October 6, 1930

INITIATED: November 3, 1930: Eleanor Wise, '32, 604 Penn Ave., New Brighton, Pa.; Susan Hamilton, '32, 13031 Cedar Rd., Cleveland Heights, Ohio; and Ellen Hopkins, '34, 6430 Monitor St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

GRADUATED: Margaret Nicholson, '72 N. Broad St., Norwich, N.Y.

The Greek Conclave held on the Ohio Wesleyan campus on December 5, 6, and 7 stands out as the most successful social and business event of the year. Ohio  $\Delta$  was fortunate in having Mrs. Reding Putnam, assistant to the Grand President, as her guest for that week-end. The Conclave was opened on Friday afternoon, by an informal reception which was followed by a banquet. Saturday morning was devoted to meetings and discussion groups upon common problems and ideals for both actives and pledges. Miss Maria Leonard, dean of women at the University of Illinois, was the leader of the meeting for active fraternity women. On Saturday afternoon, all the groups represented on the campus held open house. The Conclave ended on Saturday evening with an interfraternity ball. Everyone received helpful suggestions and inspiration from the Conclave.

The chapter won the cup offered as a reward for the cleverest short stunt enacted at Fraternity Stunt Night held on October 28. This entertainment was sponsored in order to create a more friendly relation among the women's fraternities on the Ohio Wesleyan campus.

On Monday, December 15, the entire chapter had a Christmas party in the rooms. The total sum received from the Christmas collection this year was used in buying food and preparing baskets for the poor families in and around Delaware.

Ohio  $\Delta$  is proud to announce that Margaret Gable has been honored by election to  $\Delta \Phi \Delta$ , national honorary art fraternity. Marion Orth has won membership to the Wesleyan Players, the local honorary dramatic organization, and Alice Jane Christopher has received an associate membership to the same group.

Bety Coultrap, Martha Jane O'Neil, and Mary Long are now members of the National Story Teller's League. Betty Coultrap has also been appointed to the publicity committee of W.S.G.A. Margaret Amrine has received appointment to the university's social committee.

The chapter sold fifteen subscriptions in the magazine sale for the Settlement School. The chapter is planning to give the proceeds from a rummage sale to be held in the spring to the Settlement School fund.

WEST VIRGINIA ALPHA—WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1918

Pledge Day, September 28, 1930

Two scholarship cups were presented to  $\Pi \Phi \Gamma$  last year, one being a permanent cup donated by  $\Sigma \Sigma \Gamma$ , who ranked first the preceding year. Bertha Handlan and Eleanor Stone were among the three girls who were initiated into  $\Phi \beta \kappa$  first semester. Five boys received the honor.

Annette Wiley will have one of the leading rôles in Holiday which will be presented by the dramatic club during the next semester. Irma Ayers, senior representative on the university student council, was the university delegate to the Sixth Annual Congress of the National Student Federation of America, which convened in the Biltmore Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia, December 29 to January 2.

Mildred Hall, a pledge is president of the junior Panhellenic association, which is composed of women's fraternity pledges. This is the first year the group has been organized. Dorothy Brand was chairman of the finance drive sponsored by Y.W.C.A. during the fall. Bertha Handlan, president of W.A.A., has been chosen as one of the fifty delegates from the United States to attend the National Recreation School in New York City next year. Eleanor Stone was chairman of the annual bazaar sponsored in December by the Y.W.C.A. Mary Ellen Weightman and Margaret Wilbourn were among the five hostesses for the bazaar and a number of other members of West Virginia A were also aides.

A new library is now under construction at West Virginia University and will be completed about April 1. Earle "Greasy" Neale was recently elected to succeed Ira Errett Rodgers as head football coach at the university.

GAMMA PROVINCE

MARYLAND ALPHA—GOUCHER COLLEGE

Chartered, 1897

Pledge Day, November 10, 1930

INITIATED, November 20, 1930: Mary Catharine Keith, '32, Rockford, Ill.; and Sarah Jane List, '32, Wheeling, W.Va.

The week of rushing at Goucher started with open house on the afternoon of November 2. After a most successful week the pledge banquet was held at the Stafford Hotel. The following girls were pledged: Madeleine Bowler, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Jane Caldwell, Wheeling, W.Va.; Jane Coffin, Uniontown, Pa.; Jane Courtright, Kingston, Pa.; Eugenia Edwards, Glasgow, Ky.; Eleanor Flaunt, Aurora, Mo.; Elaine Hine, Cedarhurst, L.I., N.Y.; Vara Keller, Lebanon, Pa.; Elizabeth Laird, Merchantville, N.J.; Mary Frances Nichol, Emsworth, Pa.; Louise Oglesby, Lewisville, Ark.; Charlotte Parker, Washington, D.C.; Clare Phillips, Newport, Ark.; Sarah Jane Reed, St. Thomas, V.I.; Susan Adelaide Smith, Kane, Pa.; Marie Tolzman, Catonsville, Md.; Helen Townsley, Great Bend, Kan.; and Jane Woodward, Kane, Pa.

Rushing hours were every afternoon from four to six o'clock and every evening from seven to ten. A different form of entertainment was given each evening at the fraternity rooms or at the home of an alumna: baby party, black and white night, and bowery party were held at the rooms;  $\Pi \Phi$  wedding which took place at the home of Delma Lohmuller was a model wedding. Amid ferns and whispers Ima Rushee was wedded to the groom,  $\Pi \Phi$ ; the bride threw her bouquet and afterwards cut the lofty white wedding cake. The final party was in the form of a vaudeville which was given at the Tottle's home, Sunset Knoll.

The annual house party in honor of the pledges was held at the Log Inn, a delightful place on a bluff overlooking the Chesapeake Bay. The week-end was so thoroughly enjoyed by everyone it was proposed that another house party be given in the late spring in honor of the graduating class.

The  $\Pi \Phi$  pledges entertained the pledges of the other fraternities at tea on December 3. It is the custom after pledging that the pledges entertain at a series of teas. It is an excellent way for the freshmen to become acquainted.

Harriet Smith, Gamma Province President paid her annual visit on the week-end of December 6. She attended the junior play in which several Pi Phis took part. Dorothy Kelley was chairman of the play committee. The play was Shakespeare's As You Like It. The chapter had an interesting and inspiring meeting with Miss Smith, followed by a tea in her honor at Alumnae Lodge.

As Christmas vacation started on December 19 the  $\Pi \Phi$  Christmas party was held on December 15. After a cooky-shine Santa arrived and gave out presents to everyone in the chapter. The pledges' gift to the chapter was attractive initialed silver service plates with Italian work doilies. They also gave lovely guest towels for the new bathroom.

Many Pi Phis are active on the campus this year. Mary Margaret Gordon is secretary of the senior class, chairman of vespers, and vice president of the Goucher College Christian Association. Virginia Underhill is not only secretary-treasurer of the athletic association board, but is also college manager of basketball and a member of the junior hockey team. Charlotte Parker was elected treasurer of the freshman class. Katherine Flagg is business manager of Goucher Weekly and a member of press board.

The Thanksgiving dinner was extremely successful this year. Instead of the usual banquet and speeches a new idea was initiated. Food was served in buffet style. There were clever stunts and moving pictures.

Extracurricular activities are not compulsory, but each girl is encouraged to have at least two activities. The point system is used at Goucher. Each office on the campus is assigned points and no student is permitted to carry more than ten permanent points during a semester. Fanny Thoma was elected the class chairmanship of volleyball. Sophy Perry and Sally Cobau made the relay swimming team.

The chapter is planning a large card party for the benefit of the Settlement School in February. The annual rummage sale, the proceeds of which also go to the Settlement School, will be held in the spring.

Goucher is looking forward to a bright future, having at its head President David Allan Robertson. President Robertson is at the present time investigating the fraternities on the campus and it is rumored that a definite report will be given at some future date.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ALPHA—

Pledge Day, December 1, 1930

INITIATED, October 22, 1930: Monta Ruediger, 2836 28th St., and Ruth Sullivan, 1501 16th St.

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Lucile Beall, Margot Bell, Vo'la Drury, Anita Dunlap, Leah Ford, Jane Hanna, Virginia Hawkins, Marjorie Montgomery, Catherine Pritchard, Mary Elizabeth Rose, Elizabeth Wheeler, Barbara Willson, and Amber Youngblood, all of Washington, D.C. Louise Berryman is the pledge supervisor.

Columbia A was first in scholarship on the campus in February, 1930, and hopes to duplicate that achievement in February, 1931.

On December 25  $\Pi \Phi$  gave their customary Christmas dance which added much to the holiday festivities. A number of alumnae and out-of-town Pi Phis attended.

Panhellenic gave a dance February 6 to raise money to send three delegates to the Undergraduate Panhellenic Association of interurban universities held at Northwestern University. Mary Virginia Smith is one of the representatives. Mary Virginia is president of Le Cercle Francais which has been asked to become a national honorary fraternity.

Before Christmas the Troubadours produced Good Gracious, Godfrey. Wilhelmina Gude had the character comedy lead. There were five other Pi Phis in the choruses. Claire Beckham was in a specialty number.

At Christmas the chapter gave ten dollars and an assortment of canned goods, clothes, and toys. The girls also helped fill a barrel for a family that the Y.W.C.A. had in charge.

The chapter has sent sixty dollars to the Settlement School. This was raised by a dance and the selling of subscriptions to Colliers. The chapter also plans to donate the money raised by the customary Easter Monday tea dance to the Endowment Fund.

Two girls who were initiated in 1929 have resumed studies at George Washington. Claire Beckham, who attended the University of Texas last year, and Alberta Per'ey, who has been studying art, are active again.

VIRGINIA ALPHA—RANDOLPH-MACON
WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Pledge Day, February 21, 1931

On November 22, Virginia A pledged Mary Lee Forney and Martha Hardy. A cooky-shine was held after the ceremony. The chapter was very fortunate to receive special permission from Grand Council to initiate Miss Hardy, a former patroness, and a member of the Randolph-Macon faculty. Mary Lee Forney is president of Judiciary; a member of Sock and Buskin, dramatic club, having had a part in the Thanksgiving play Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary, a member of the glee club, having had the leading part in the Christmas Operetta, Through Mary's Window.

A Christmas party was given by the actives for the promisees on December 13. The house was decorated in the festive Christmas mode. Presents for the actives and for the house were hung on a Christmas tree, and stockings for the promisees hung on the mantel. The promisees gave the house a radio; the new initiates presented goblets and sherbet glasses.

Paderewski gave a concert in the Smith Memorial Building on January 12, before a very large and appreciative audience.

Virginia A obtained nineteen subscriptions for Collier's through the magazine agency. Twenty-five dollars was sent to the Settlement School. A benefit bridge party will be given in the early spring to raise money for a further contribution.

In order to encourage members to take part in extracurricular activities, Virginia A has an index file in which all activities, both major and minor, of members are recorded. At frequent intervals these cards are checked, and thus the individuals are reminded that they must have a full list of activities. For the pledges the pledge supervisor has an activity chart on which their activities are recorded. They are required to have at least four a week. This plan, which has become competitive in nature, has proven very successful.

VIRGINIA GAMMA—WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE

Pledge Day, November 25, 1930

INITIATED, November 12, 1930: Margaret Louise Vodrey, '33, Park Blvd., East Liverpool, Ohio; Margaret Maie Owens, '33, 1012 Blanton Ave., Richmond; Agnes Stuart Downs, '33, 115 Linwood Ave., Ardmore, Pa.; and Lizzie Lee Smith, '33, Capron.

The chapter announces the pledging of Nancy DeLashmutt, Arlington.

A banquet held at the II  $\Phi$  house followed initiation and a cooky-shine followed the pledging service.

The months just before Christmas were full of events. Early in November, a group of one-act plays were presented. Marjorie Lanston and Le Baron Coleman were included in the casts and production staff. These two girls were elected to membership in the dramatic club, of which Catherine Hasseltine is the treasurer.

Panhellenic held a banquet at which they presented a cup to the women's fraternity who had the highest scholarship average for the preceding year. This cup, coming at this time to Virginia  $\Gamma$  for the third consecutive year, now belongs to the chapter. Katherine Warrington, who made the highest average in the fraternity, was a guest at the banquet and was the recipient of the cup.

Much excitement was caused on campus by the interfraternity basketball tournament, sponsored by Panhellenic. Each fraternity played every other one and the one winning the most games was presented with a cup. Virginia  $\Gamma$  won every game and thereby the cup.

On a week-end before Christmas the German club gave its first co-ed dance. Mary Lewis Mayhew, president of K.O.B., a social club within the German club, was instrumental in the attractive decoration of a corner of the gym where the dance was held.

The music department gave a concert in which Agnes Downs sang a solo. Agnes and Ellen Stevens are members of the varsity glee club and the college choir. Ellen is one of the few freshmen chosen to be members of these organizations. The choir has made trips to several cities in the state and is going to others and to Washington in the spring. The glee club is going on several trips, also, one being to Charlottesville to enter into the state contest.

The William and Mary Players presented The Importance of Being Earnest as the Christmas play. Catherine Hasseltine, Marjorie Lanston, and Le Baron Coleman were on the producing staff for this play as well as the staff for the next play, which will be Just Suppose. This play is to be taken to Wellesley in February.

Betty Chambers was made a member of the Colonial Echo, the college yearbook. Catherine Crane and Nancy DeLashmutt were among those very few freshmen who were chosen by the physical education department to practice with the varsity basketball squad.

Mrs. Ayres, an alumna of Wisconsin A who lives outside of Williamsburg, entertained the chapter, the patronesses, and the alumnae living in town, with a Christmas party at the II  $\Phi$  house.

An effort for Virginia  $\Gamma$  to become more familiar with the alumnae club in Richmond has culminated in an invitation from them to attend their meetings and especially to come to a bridge party to be given at the home of the one of the members of the club.

Panhellenic has inaugurated a plan to foster more interfraternity spirit on the campus. One night each week two girls from another fraternity are to be invited to dinner until every fraternity has been entertained in such manner.

The chapter is planning a State Founders' Day celebration to be held in Williamsburg. It is hoped that all alumnae and actives in Virginia can be present for a II  $\Phi$  gathering.

Pledge Day, October 13, 1930

A very successful dance was given by the chapter on Halloween night at the Gorgons' Lodge. The lodge was decorated in keeping with the spirit of the day. The chapter has a custom of having tea given by two of the pledges every other Friday afternoon. These teas are very informal and are enjoyed very much.

A new auditorium is being built by the university and will be opened sometime during February or March.

North Carolina A is proud of the fact that the chapter led the whole campus scholastically last quarter. Seventeen of the actives and pledges made the honor roll. Gabrielle McColl, a pledge, made three A's and two graduate students, Evelyn Way and Mary Wiatt Yarborough, also a pledge, made three H's, equivalent to A's in the undergraduate department.

Adelaide Reed will have a part in the play, East Lynne, to be presented by the Carolina Playmakers.

Pledge Day, October 6, 1930

Florida A announces the pledging of Ellen Gustafson of Green Cove Springs, Fla., who entered college after Christmas. She is working hard to make her grades in spite of the fact that they will be cut ten per cent because of her late entrance. Mabel Brooks, a pledge of last spring, has returned.

The grading system at Stetson is so much stricter this year than it was last year, that Panhellenic has found it necessary to lower the grades required for initiation to a B, C, and C. This is equivalent to A, B, and B of last year, and is just as difficult to make. Of the chapter's present ten pledges, two of whom entered in the second term, five have made their grades, and are eligible for initiation.

A new institution has been introduced into the curricula at Stetson; one which is very interesting and beneficial. Every Monday afternoon a lecturer of some note speaks to the student body on some topic of modern interest. The speakers thus far in the series have been very instructive and beneficial.

Pi Phi are well represented in activities and honors on the campus. Four Pi Phi were in the last play presented in the new auditorium, and several Pi Phi have been called on to give readings and recitations in programs at the Woman's Club. Nena Belle Green was pledged to Torch and Scroll, the honorary scholarship fraternity on the campus.

Florida A made money to send to Settlement School by having a Christmas bazaar. The alumnae and patronesses were most generous in sending articles which found a ready sale, to be used as Christmas gifts. The bazaar was a real success, and made a larger amount for Florida A to send to Settlement School than it had last year.

Pledge Day, September 29, 1930

The chapter announces the pledging of Allene Garner of St. Petersburg.

On December 18, the pledges of Florida B entertained the active members with the annual Christmas party. This was in the form of an evening spent in the Bowery. The guests were seated around small tables on which were candles, the only light in the long living room. At one end of the room was a large Christmas tree, and after the entertainment which consisted of a skit and the individual pledge songs, ten-cent presents were distributed to the chapter members.

Florida B won first prize in the annual skit night presented in December. The scene of the skit was laid in a casting director's office in Hollywood. The chapter won first prize last year and honorable mention in 1928 in this contest. The skit this year was directed by Janice Prince. The judges are members of the faculty and the prize is awarded the most original skit presented.

Thanksgiving week-end is homecoming week-end at Florida State College for Women. The annual basketball game took place between the Odds and Evens on Saturday, November 29. On the Tuesday night preceding this, the Even demonstration, which is a lengthy skit, was given. The next evening, Wednesday, November 26, was the date chosen by the Odds for their demonstration. Lucy Pope had a leading part in the Odd demonstration. Rosalind Wilson, Bety McCoy, and Martha Parrish were in the even demonstration, also Janice Prince and Dorothy McCranie did specialty numbers.

A new publication came out on campus this fall. It is the Open Gate, a magazine publishing freshman literary efforts. It is sponsored by the English faculty. Shirley Ann Reed and Margaret MacCrimmon are on the staff and Elizabeth Burns is a contributor.

In the freshman elections, which were held in November, Beth Robinson was elected secretary and Dorothy McCranie, parliamentarian of the class.

Helen Gray is assistant editor-in-chief on the Flastocowa, the college yearbook. Ellen Knight has had a number of poems published in the Distaff, the college literary magazine which comes out quarterly.

Torchbearers, the campus senior honorary, has been allowed to petition Mortar Board.

There have been no magazine subscriptions for the agency this year. Florida B sent fifty dollars to the Settlement School fund just before the Christmas holidays.

The chapter has found the point system very useful in controlling extracurricular activities. Each freshman has to acquire a total of one hundred points before initiation. These points are obtained for certain definite actions, for example, five points are given for attending class meetings and three points for visiting other women's fraternity houses.

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE

Florida  $\Gamma$  announces the pledging of the following girls: Alexander Birkbeck, Mt. Dora; Donna Furniss, Battlecreek, Mich.; Helen Greenamy, Buffalo, N.Y.; Peggy Pratt, Winter Park; Elizabeth Davis, Tampa; Marie Laporte, Paris, France; Nancy Hargis, Kansas City, Mo.; and Nancy McNair, Orlando. Immediately after the pledge services both the active members and pledges enjoyed dinner at the "Whistling Kettle."

It is very hard to have to say that Florida  $\Gamma$  was unable to participate in the Collier's campaign this year. It came during rushing and the week of silence. Students are not allowed by the college to canvass at that time. But the chapter has raised money for the Settlement School fund. The annual  $\Pi \Phi$  play was given on January 12 and was a success. This year the Little Theater Workshop Players presented March Hares, sponsored by Florida  $\Gamma$ .

During the winter term at Rollins there are a great number of conferences held. The week of January 5, which was the opening week of college, was the institute of statesmanship. President Hamilton Holt gave the opening address which was followed by that of Dr. Harold Bruce of Dartmouth College. The topic of the open sessions was on the "Chain Store," the general subject being "Our Changing Economic Life." The faculty and students take a big part in the discussions after the speaker's contribution. The following took part in heading the discussions and sessions: Dr. Myron W. Watkins of New York University, Dr. Ralph E. Heilman, of Northwestern; Hon. William E. Humphrey, member of the commission; Dr. Ray B. Westerfield, Yale University; Dr. W. E. Weld, of the University of Rochester; Dr. John M. Chapman, department of business, at Columbia University; Hon. John Temple Graves, II, editor, The Birmingham Age-Herald; Dr. Luther A. Harr, University of Pennsylvania; Dr. Clyde William Phelps, University of Chattanooga; Dr. William Ripley, Harvard University; Hon. Edmund Platt, former vice governor, Federal Reserve Board; and Mr. Chester D. Pugsley, banker, Peekskill, N.Y.; and a trustee of Rollins College. To sum up the conference a dinner was given at the Hotel Alabama.

The educational conference concerning curriculum discussions began January 19 and ended January 24. For the past term a student curriculum committee has been studying different liberal art courses, and on this committee Florida  $\Gamma$  has two members, Candace Secor and Gladys Morton.

This Christmas the chapter gave the annual party for a poor family consisting of a mother and seven children. Florida  $\Gamma$  gave the children candy and toys, and gave the mother clothes for the children and herself, along with a large box of staple foods.

MICHIGAN ALPHA—HILLSDALE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, October 18, 1930

Since Christmas Michigan  $\Lambda$  has been very busy completing plans for a play, the proceeds of which will be sent to the Settlement School. After due consideration it was decided that the play would be Louise Alcott's Little Women because of the appeal it would make to the youngsters of the community as well as to the adults.

The chapter has adopted a new plan of supervised study: all girls having below a C average must do three hours of study a day at the house under the supervision of an upper classman whose scholastic rating is above average.

Since the Collier's drive for subscriptions no emphasis has been placed on magazines. Many other money-making plans have been substituted. In November Michigan  $\Lambda$  and alumnae had a most successful rummage sale, the profits coming to nearly one hundred dollars. This was extraordinary for a town the size of Hillsdale and with money so scarce.

The students were greatly surprised on their return from vacation to find that the science building had burned during the holidays, destroying all of the botanical and zoological specimens. The total amount of damage has been estimated at $10,000. The fire did not reach the chemistry laboratories but it damaged the classrooms in the building.

Michigan A has been well represented in all extracurricular activities. In November four girls were initiated into  $\Sigma T \Delta$ , the national honorary literary fraternity. The girls were: Marian Callup, Gladys De Yoc, Pauline Southwick, and Evelyn Harwood. In the first all-college play of the year Dear Brutus, Ruth Barrett and Virginia Bury had two important parts.

Pledge Day, October 12, 1930

With the time drawing near for the first installment on each girl's Settlement School pledge, odd jobs are at a premium. Because of the feeling that contributions to the fund should be personal, each girl has pledged herself to earn her two dollars and a half, the sum decided upon. The methods are varied, and consist of doing small services in the house; lending jewelry, typewriters, and evening wraps; and selling candy, cookies, apples, soup, and toasted sandwiches. Shampooing and finger waving are an excellent source of revenue. In this way each girl is enabled to earn her own contribution with a very little additional labor and without going out of the house.

This year Michigan B has been especially prominent in the social world. Three of the four large class parties have been, or will be, led by members of the chapter. These include the sophomore prom, the junior hop, and the senior ball. The greatest honor is that of leading the junior hop as only twice before in all the history of the affair has a co-ed been given the honor. Last year Josselyn McLean, a member of Michigan B, led the ball.

One of the most important conventions that Ann Arbor has entertained in many years is that of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students which is coming here in April. Already plans are being made to entertain the delegates who will come from nearly every college in the country. Helen Jones is chairman of the convention, and Josselyn McLean is chairman of hostesses. The chapter cannot ask all the Pi Phis to stay at the chapter house, as special arrangements are being made to have all the delegates stay at the new dormitory.

The chapter has never formulated any definite policy in relation to campus activities. No point system or compulsion is used to encourage participation, for there has never been any need for such a system. Other fraternities on this campus who have compulsory participation in campus activities achieve no better results than the chapter does. Rather, the upper classmen have tried to show by example and to point out the benefits which the individual derives from campus activities, the service which each woman student owes to the university, and the duty which every  $\Pi \Phi$  owes to her chapter.

Eleven of the pledges took part as residents of the new Mosher-Jordan Halls in an opening of the building held on January 24 and 25. One of the directors of the new dormitory, Elizabeth DeVol, a graduate of Michigan B last June, has been in charge of the plans for the opening, which includes three receptions to which all the state, city, and campus celebrities have been invited.

INDIANA ALPHA—FRANKLIN COLLEGE

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

Indiana A has, through several of her members, received two outstanding honors this year. Dr. Rainey, president of Franklin College, had inaugurated a new system of education for juniors who have shown outstanding ability. It is called the "working for distinction" plan. Students who are accepted for distinction work are freed from all classroom work, and all hours and credit requirements. They choose their problem or work and proceed alone under the supervision of a member of the faculty. They cover the work as rapidly as they are capable of doing and not as a class would do. The work is similar to that done when an individual is studying for a master's degree. Only four students were accepted for this work this year. Of the four, three were members of Indiana A. They are: Eloise Stout who is working for distinction in English and American literature; Louise Kelch, who is working for distinction in sociology; and Kathryn Miller who is working for distinction in American civilization.

The second outstanding honor was the tapping of two Phi Phis for Gold Quill, honorary women's fraternity which corresponds to Blue Key for men. It was organized on the Franklin College campus last year for the purpose of organizing the junior and senior women leaders. Membership is based upon scholarship, leadership, and campus activities. The two who were honored are Margaret Lanam and Vivian Thomas, the only junior asked to join.

Instead of giving one another gifts this year at the annual Christmas party, the chapter contributed to the community fund of Franklin. Also they sent ten dollars worth of clothing to the Settlement School along with a toy from each girl. Ten dollars was also sent to the Undergraduate Loan Fund.

The active and pledge groups entertained the members of the mothers' club at tea Sunday, January 11, at the home of Mrs. Collins, a patroness. The mothers' club is a very live and active organization and the active chapter is frequently entertained by the group.

The alumnae club entertained the active and pledge groups at a party January 12, to celebrate the birthday of this chapter. This birthday party is an annual event and everyone brings as many pennies as she is old. One half the money goes to the active chapter, the other half to the alumnae club. This party is always an event to look forward to as many of the alumnae return for it.

The pledge group entertained the active chapter at a pledge dance February 13. The dance was held in Indianapolis.

The local organization of Panhellenic sponsored a dance on February 9. In previous years they entertained with a Panhellenic dinner.

Indiana B announces the pledging of Virginia Ray, Montpelier; Mary Hadley, Pontiac, Mich.; and Sally Humphreys, Anderson.

On October 28 the active members entertained the pledges with a bowery dance at the chapter house. The upperclassmen gave a formal dinner on December 13 at the house followed by a formal dance for the entire chapter. The chapter entertained Dean Wells and other guests at a formal dinner December 17. Every month each women's fraternity has guests one night from some other fraternity. This system is sponsored by Panhellenic. Last month at the time of fraternity exchange the chapter entertained the  $\Pi \Phi$  transfers on the campus.

Margaret Morgan was appointed assistant dancing director of Jordan River Revue, a campus production. Susan Jane Dikeman has the lead and Maxine Rosebaum has a part in the play to be given by the university players, The Melting Pot.

Harriet Brower has had the honor of being initiated as a charter member of  $\Lambda \Lambda \Delta$ , a honorary scholastic fraternity sponsored by Mortar Board. Mary Marjorie Mull was elected unanimously as a member of the junior prom committee. Ione Swan was appointed chairman of the rush rules committee for 1931-32.

The chapter is happy to have Mrs. Evelyn Schmidt as the new chaperon.

During Thanksgiving vacation Jennylou Whitelead was married to James Strickland,  $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ ; and during the Christmas holidays Emmalucy Cadwell was married to Claude Burton,  $\Sigma \Pi$ .

Meridian St., all of Indianapolis; Jeanne Campbell, and Frances George, both '33, Pendleton; Mary Rose Lowry, '33, Fortville; Mary Louise Mannan, '33, Martinsville; and Margaret McLaughlin, '33, Cedar Lake.

Indiana  $\Gamma$  has outlined a complete plan of study in order to stimulate interest and to educate the chapter in the work of the Settlement School. One meeting will be devoted solely to a discussion of the school. A committee headed by Betty Muhlitz is in charge of the program. Twenty-five dollars has been pledged for the Settlement School Fund, and other projects will be sponsored in the near future for its benefit.

The seniors were hostesses to the entire chapter for the Christmas party. The guests were entertained on board a gayly decorated pirate ship, and as a climax, Santa Claus was introduced as a stowaway. The alumnae presented Indiana  $\Gamma$  with four silver candlesticks and card tables, and the mothers' club gave a complete set of dishes. A chapter donation brought Christmas gifts and cheer to the members of four needy families.

The foremost social event of the season was the Grecian dinner sponsored by Panhellenic. Twelve Greek-letter women's fraternities participated. The feature of the banquet was the debate between Plato and Socrates, and the reading of the Oracle by Mr. Elder Blackledge. Gwendolyn Schort portrayed the part of Socrates and Mary Rose Lowry sang a shepherdess song. Grecian dances, as well as the Doric robes of the guests, lent color to the occasion.

Truth Wakeman and Marjorie Goble were initiated into National Collegiate Players.  $\Phi \Sigma \Phi$ , national women's journalistic fraternity, has pledged Virginia Seeds. Thepis presented The Goose Hangs High as the major production of the semester and two Pi Phi, Dorothy Screes and Truth Wakeman, had the feminine leads. In a contest, sponsored by  $\Sigma \Delta X$ , Helen Weyl was chosen the most popular Butler co-ed. Mary Louise Mannan and Evelyn McDermit have been elected president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of Bluesters, a pep organization. Helen Gearen is a pledge to Scarf Club, freshmen honorary. Virginia Seeds, Batrice Burgan, and Truth Wakeman are members of committees in charge of the Butler Fairview Follies which will be presented in the spring. Dorothy Jane Atkins is assistant dancing director while Helen Carson, Martha Metcalf, and Marthalou Schoener are members of the chorus.

The chapter has had a particularly successful social season including informal teas for fraternity men, the chaperon-patronness tea, homecoming cooky-shine, Dads' Day entertainment, formal Christmas dinner, dinner for dates preceding the Gold Digger's dance, and exchange dinners with women's fraternities. The spring formal dinner dance will be held on March 13, in the union building. On Dads' Day two dads attended for their sixth successive year, and a dozen more visited the house.

Honorable mention was given the homecoming decorations, which consisted of a large golden arrow on a black background across the front of the house.

Co-ed house rules have recently been revised by W.S.G.A. of which Ruth Acton is president and Rose Cassell a council member.

The new building in the boys' dormitory group is completed and will be ready for occupancy the coming semester.

Gimlet, men's booster organization, has been selling theater tickets to assist in financing the continuation of minor sports which were recently dropped from the athletic program of the university.

Indiana  $\Delta$  is grateful to her mothers' club for the radio which they purchased for the house for Christmas. Other gifts received at the annual Christmas party and breakfast given by the pledges were a silver cream and sugar set, the freshmen's gift; a silver flower bowl from the alumnae club; and several dozen Maderia napkins from the chaperon.

Hockey was introduced on the campus this fall and has proved popular with the women. In the interorganization swimming meet,  $\Pi B \Phi$  placed third this year. Link is a member of the varsity rifle squad.

More honors and positions have been attained by the chapter during the last semester.  $O N$  recently initiated Reba Williams and Emily Boyd. Bernita Williams is the president. Dorothea White was the only Indiana girl to win the honor of a trip to Washington, D.C., for leadership in 4H club work. Charlene York is secretary to the editor of Debris, and Mabel Welton is assistant co-ed editor of this annual. Emily is chairman of the all-university sing to be held on Mothers' Day.  $\Theta A \Phi$ , dramatic honorary, initiated only one co-ed, Martha Robbins. Mabel Welton, Martha Scudder, Ruth Harrop, Gladys Lloyd, and Gerladine Gates were asked to join honorary literary societies. Gladys is a member of the varsity debate squad. Of the fifteen most beautiful women on the campus, of which six will appear in Debris, three were Pi Phi, Martha Swope, Evelyn Becker, and Billy Simpkins. Mary Schaefer, secretary of the sophomore class, is on the sophomore Cotillion committee. Mabel serves on Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Rose Cassell and Mary Schaefer are on the executive council of W.A.A. Mary and Margaret Smith are members of the girls' glee club. Pledges on the Exponent staff are Bernice Link, Helen Burge, Joyce Clark, Mary Blind, Mabelle Cutler, Billy Simpkins, and Gladys Lloyd.

Kentucky  $A$  is very proud of five of its members who went with the hockey team to play Peabody in December. It was a very successful trip, because the University of Louisville team won by the score of 4-0.

Another one of the members who is represented in Panhellenic was made chairman of the spring Panhellenic formal to be given the first week-end after Easter.

During Christmas the chapter tried in a small way to help those less fortunate. Mary Reuter Gates, one of the alumnae, is with the Family Service Organization of Louisville, and it was through her advice and help that the chapter was able to give food, clothes, and toys to four needy families.

The pledges are working hard to get the cup that Panhellenic is offering to the group of pledges who are best not only scholastically but in activities as well. The chapter is very strict on the pledges regarding their activities. Each pledge is required to have two activities, and their participation in them is marked each week on the back of their scholarship cards.

Mary Elizabeth Tuelle was married in the early part of February to Basil Doerhoefer.

The alumnae chapter at Louisville gave the active chapter a lovely Christmas present of luncheon cloths, bath towels, kitchen towels, face towels, and wash cloths.

Tennessee A enjoyed very much the visit of Mrs. Robert Beisel, Delta Province President, in November. She offered many helpful suggestions which the chapter has been trying to carry out since.

To improve the scholarship, a system of fines has been installed: one dollar for every D, two for an E, and three for an F. One of the alumnae has offered as a reward a piece of fraternity jewelry to the girl who shows the most improvement scholastically during the year.

The chapter has opened a book exchange at the university to make money. Students bring their second-hand books which the exchange sells for them, taking a twenty per cent commission. As it is just beginning, the success is yet to be seen.

The chapter is well represented in activities this year. Myldred Allen is president of W.A.A. In the fall play presented by the University Players two of the pledges, Sarah Sue Robinson and Marguerite Bacon, and one of the actives, Elizabeth Thomas, had the three leading feminine rôles. Ibsen's Doll's House is to be presented in March, and Juanita Walter has been cast for a part.

The Moccasin, university annual, sponsored a popularity contest, and Alice Carden was voted the most popular girl.

To foster a better feeling between the pledges and the active chapter Sunday afternoon teas are given at the fraternity house every two weeks. The pledges give a program, and either actives or pledges furnish refreshments. Already a much better spirit of understanding has resulted.

In the Collier's campaign thirty-three subscriptions were obtained. An additional contribution to the Settlement School fund has been decided upon which will be sent in the spring.

Two new women's fraternities have been founded at the University of Chattanooga. Tennessee A gave them a reception soon after their organization.

INITIATED, November 24, 1930: Mary Fitzgibbon, '33, 720-41st St., Des Moines, Iowa; and Mary Ann Kimball, '33, 4607 Browndale Ave. S., Minneapolis.

Minnesota A announces the pledging of the following girls: Jane Acker, Mildred Browning, Leone Cooper, Edith Reed, Maryls Robertson, and Adelaide Rowley, Minneapolis; Gloria Boock, Faribault; Irma Jean Gaertner, Hopkins; Elizabeth Huey and Virginia Mendenhall, Duluth; Marian Kaulbach, Eau Claire, Wis.; Phyllis Metcalf, Primghar, Iowa; and Virginia Thomas, Chicago, Ill.

The visit of Mrs. Margaretta Fenn Putman, assistant to Grand President gave true inspiration and added enthusiasm to the chapter.

The active chapter joined with the Minneapolis and St. Paul alumnae in a kid party given by the latter at the chapter house, December 9. Santa Claus presented the chapter with a beautiful new floor lamp and a dinner gong from the Minneapolis alumnae club, and two hand-woven table-runners, several pillows and a cozy chair newly-covered in a sprightly print from the St. Paul alumnae club, who are also making a hooked rug for the town girls' room which they have furnished. The living room was greatly enhanced by two chairs and a coffee table given the chapter by the mothers' club along with a full-length mirror for the upstairs hall.

The chapter had two girls in line at the annual military ball given during the fall quarter. A  $\Pi \Phi$  had the feminine lead in the homecoming musical comedy, Keep 'Em Happy. Two social functions were given by Minnesota A in the winter quarter; a tea dansant was given at the chapter house, January 24, to introduce the new pledges, and the winter formal on February 20 took the form of the traditional snowball party. The tentative date of April 10 has been set for the "H  $\Phi$  Frivolities."

During Christmas vacation the alumnae club gave its annual luncheon out-of-town Pi Phi who were spending the holidays in the city. An interesting report on the Settlement School was given. The alumnae club gave a benefit at the Shubert theater in Minneapolis, February 24, the proceeds of which went to the Settlement School.

To date the magazine agency has obtained fifteen subscriptions totaling fifty-five dollars and seventy-five cents.

The entire chapter had supervised study of two hours a day in the library for two weeks before final examinations, with the result that the scholastic average for the fall quarter is higher than that of the previous spring. No official computation has been made.

INITIATED: Victoria Eilenberger, '33, Chicago, Ill.; Eleanor McCullough, '32, Wauwatosa; Mary Caroline Palmer, '33, Toledo Ohio; and Mary Reed Tibbals, '32, Chicago, Ill.

Among campus activities resumed after the holidays, plans for the junior prom held their usual conspicuous place. Eleanor White was appointed chairman of the grand march committee. Mary Juliet Miller and Katherine Ehrler are to be in the receiving line. Barbara Crittenden, in connection with her work on the Cardinal staff, received an appointment to the prom publicity committee.

During the course of the semester, Wisconsin A enjoyed visits from the Grand Vice President, Mrs. Charles Teller, and Mrs. Horace Choep, Epsilon Province President. Mrs. Teller was a guest at the Christmas party which has always been a traditionally informal and lively affair. After the distribution of the gifts, which were later taken to the Children's hospital, the pledges presented an unusually entertaining stunt. In a convincing one-act tragedy, a realistic interpretation was given of the harrowing life in the Pledgery to which pledges neglectful of their duties had been condemned.

A common topic of discussion about the campus is the movement afoot to transfer all disciplinary powers from the authority of the dean of men and the dean of women, respectively, to a student disciplinary body. A committee of ten students has been recently organized by Union Board to investigate and report on this measure.

Katherine Truesdall was in charge of a series of contract bridge lessons given by Mrs. I. Weaver under the auspices of the women's affairs committee, during the first two weeks of December. The privilege of free instruction was extended to all university women.

Elizabeth Davis is making arrangements for the benefit movie which the physical education club is giving, the proceeds of which go to the club's scholarship fund. Elizabeth was appointed to the housing committee of W.A.C.C., and is active in the W.A.A. Charlotte Bissell is also on the finance committee of W.A.A.

The chapter has continued its interests in intramurals. Mary Katherine Mershon added an attractive loving cup to the trophies by winning the ping pong championship. The final contest was won from  $\Gamma \Phi \beta$ . Betty Zane Grey won the trophy for the highest number of points in the riding contest held by the hunt club in December.

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE

Pledge Day, September 30, 1930

The chapter announces the pledging of the following girls: Ruth Bennett, Wilmette, Ill.; Anna Louise Burlingame, Chicago; Evadne Jane Burgett, Delavan; Miriam Churchill, Beloit; Suzanne Douglass, Barrington, Ill.; Betty Frazer, Minneapolis; Elaine Jacobson, Chicago; Neoma Johnson, Rockford, Ill.; Louise Kleinschrot, Queen's Village, L.I., N.Y.; Mary McCarthy, Rockford, Ill.; Margaret Rider, Chicago; Mary Adeline Robb, Marengo, Ill.; Helen Roehling, Chicago; Helen Gerds, Chicago; Beulah Salmons, Elgin, Ill.; Mary Virginia Semple, Park Ridge, Ill.; Bertha Verderbar, Willow Springs, Ill.; Gracchelen Wilday, Wheaton, Ill.; Olive Willson, Milwaukee, Wis.; and Laura Turner, Faribault, Minn.

The new Lyman Wright Art Hall was dedicated on October 25. This was the first building to be built on the campus for twenty-five years. Announcement was made at this time of a gift of $10,000 to the Art Hall given by Mrs. Reha Logan Monroe in memory of her parents. The room in this building will be known as the F. G. Logan room.

Joyce Wadmond was initiated into  $\Phi \beta \kappa$ . She is president of  $\Sigma \alpha \iota$ , the music fraternity.

W.A.A. has put athletics on a competitive basis between the four groups on the campus and the non-group girls. Cups are awarded to the winners of each of the six divisions of athletics, including field hockey, bowling, swimming, basketball, golf, and tennis.

The new pledges are upholding the activities on the campus. Helen Roehling, Mary Adeline Robb, and Gracchelen Wilday are in a capella and vesper choirs. Elaine Jacobson, Mary Adeline Robb, and Gracchelen Wilday are in Beloit Players. Louise Tracy and Gretchen Hobbs are also working in Players.

Σ X opened their new chapter house on the quadrangle with an open house on Friday, January 16, followed by a tea dance on Saturday. This is the first fraternity to move onto the new quadrangle. Σ A E have submitted plans and are going to build there in the spring.

The pledges have given the chapter house a new Majestic radio. At the Christmas sing, money was given for new rugs for the house. The girls in the dormitories are selling cakes, eskimo pies, and hot dogs to raise money for the rugs.

Panhellenic sponsored a dinner dance again this year given at the Hotel Hilton. Twelve girls, most representative of the groups were elected to go, including the seniors. This was established last year and is to be an annual affair.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA— UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, September 20, 1930

North Dakota A had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. Putnam, assistant to the Grand President, during the latter part of November.

The chapter has been well represented in activities. Carol West and Thelma Pangburn, pledges, were initiated into Sketchers club; Inez Babcock was pledged to Φ X Θ, women's commerce fraternity; Henrietta Haney was pledged to Matrix, women's journalistic fraternity. The traditional Carney song contest was scheduled for February 20. Inez Babcock representing Π Φ on the junior song committee, Helen Borden on the sophomore song committee, and Lillian Morck was publicity chairman for the freshman. Alice Palmer was commissioned Honorary Lieutenant Colonel of the University R.O.T.C. at the military ball. Lina Hutton is a member of the junior prom decorations committee.

This year Π Φ won second in the Dacotah sales contest thus adding another trophy to the shelves. Pat Ebert is one of the eight candidates from whom "Miss Nodak" will be chosen.

In the play Crusty, sponsored by the Nodak Players, Pat Ebert was the leading lady and Miss Brennan, Iowa Γ and the house chaperon, took the only other feminine part.

North Dakota A observed Thanksgiving with a dinner dance at the chapter house. Mary Lucas was in charge of arrangements. The annual Christmas cooky-shine was held the Monday before vacation. Many beautiful gifts were given to the chapter.

A silver tea was given at the chapter house showing Settlement School art work.

The money received from the tea and the sale of the goods was added to the Settlement School fund.

ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE

Pledge Day, January 31, 1931

With the death of Clara Brownlee Hutchinson, Illinois A feels a very deep loss. Mrs. Hutchinson was a resident of Monmouth and was known and loved by all members of the chapter. Her life and influence were always a source of great inspiration and the chapter will remember her as one who always exemplified the highest ideals of Π Β Φ.

On November 27, Illinois A entertained at a rush party in the home of Mrs. Robert Gamble of Kirkwood. The party carried out the idea of a nautical breakfast after which dancing was enjoyed by the guests and chapter.

The annual formal Christmas dinner was held in the home of Mrs. Ivory Quinby, a chapter patroness, on December 13. The season's festivities were observed with holly, mistletoe, plum pudding, and other appropriate motifs. After dinner the evening was spent at dancing and cards.

Carol Ramer was tapped for membership to Σ O M, honorary scholastic fraternity, and Σ T Δ, national English fraternity.

The Y.W.C.A. entertained the freshman women at a formal dinner on January 31, as a feature of the big and little sister plan.

ILLINOIS BETA DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE

Chartered, 1884

Pledge Day, September 16, 1930

INITIATED, November 22, 1930: Irma Brodman, '33, 2229 N. Jefferson St., Peoria; Mary DeCoster, '33, 1075 Beecher Ave., Galesburg; Kathryn Fleming, '33, 11 N. Roman Ave., Chicago; Mary Liken, '33, 619 N. Broad St., Galesburg; Louise Nauman, '33, Peru; and Dorothy Sperry, '33, 645 Crafford St., Bushnell.

The Knox R.O.T.C. unit elected Irma Brodman for battalion sponsor and Alice Stevens, Janet Craig, and Mary DeCoster for three of their four company sponsors. They were presented at a review of the unit and afterwards entertained at a tea dance. At the military ball they led the grand march.

Θ A Φ, a national dramatic fraternity, presented Beyond The Horizon by Eugene O'Neill in December. Alice Stevens played the leading feminine part.

Three short plays were given by the dramatic art class in January and directed and presented entirely by students. Betty Test and Dorothy Brown were in Op-O'Me-Thumb, Winifred Donlea was in Judge Lynch, and Charlotte Crawford played in The Twelve-Pound Look. Judge Lynch was directed by Alice Stevens.

Betty Test was elected to membership on the student council. Eight Pi Phis were successful in their try-outs for L.M.L., the women's literary society, this year.

Virginia Hinchliff and Helen Surey are on the editorial staff of the Student. Several girls are assisting in the production of the Gale, the Knox yearbook.

Will Irwin, well-known novelist and story writer, will come to Knox the first of April and will remain for six weeks to deliver the annual series of lectures provided for in the Honold endowment. Dr. O. D. Kellogg, professor of mathematics in Harvard University, is the exchange professor this semester.

The following girls were pledged October 31, 1930: Winifred Donlea, Barrington; Betty Larcom, West Newton, Mass.; Mary Moore, Davenport, Iowa; Elizabeth Smart, Chicago; and Edith Smith, Torrington, Conn.

Illinois B & A alumnae of Galesburg and the chapter gave a benefit dance for the Settlement School on January 24, 1931. Thirty-seven subscriptions were obtained for the Collier's drive.

GRACE CASTLE

ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1874

Pledge Day, February 14, 1931

Illinois E was very happy to have Mrs. Chope, Epsilon Province President, with them on February 19 and 20.

In order to distribute offices among a larger number of girls, the Northwestern W.S.G.A. has adopted the point system, of which Louise Wood is chairman. The activities are divided into groups in the following manner: A heads of W.A.A., Y.W.C.A., W.S.G.A., and Circus Sally; B, W.S.G.A. board, Y.W.C.A. and executive council; C, president of Panhellenic, Y.W.C.A. cabinet, and president social fraternity. This is the major group and is followed by a minor group in which the various activities equal certain numbers of points. Thus, editorship of magazines and the Daily Northwestern, 8; membership in Panhellenic, 5; membership on W.A.A. team, 3; membership on committees and on W.A.A. squad, 2; and membership in any organization, 1. A girl may hold one A or two B offices; one A and one B; or one B and two C offices, plus not more than thirty points in the second group. Close check is kept in the W.S.G.A. office and if a girl is over-pointed she must drop enough work to keep her within the limit outlined above.

Illinois E announces the pledging of the following girls: June Ponader, South Bend, Ind.; Sylva Bruns, Wilmette; Janice Havemann, Piqua, Ohio; Elizabeth Nuss, Fond du Lac, Wis.; and Angie Connor, Marshfield, Wis.

Jean Hoch is a member of the newly organized junior Panhellenic which is very successful at Northwestern. Jean also was elected to the freshman rifle team, as was Dorothy Snyder and June Ponader. The two former were chosen for the varsity team.

Eleanor Jones was captain of the soccer team and is now captain of the volleyball team. Angie Connor is a member of the women's debate team. Georgia Stange is head of advertising for the forthcoming W.A.A. show. Mary Lynch was head of the homecoming committee, and chairman of parade; and Frances Coleman and Virjean Kuhnert were co-chairman of the chapter's homecoming committee, through whose efforts the cup for most attractive house decorations was awarded to Illinois E.

A charity ball, among whose sponsors were Dorothy Verges and Avis Lundahl, was held February 13. The proceeds went to the Northwestern Settlement. A number of prominent people appeared as patrons of the ball.

The chapter has not obtained any subscriptions for the magazine agency this year, but is planning another rummage sale for the Settlement School, at which it is hoped the proceeds will exceed the $175 of last spring.

The Pi Phis in the musical revue Scrap Book, presented before Christmas were: Louise Wood, Winifred Hanan, and Nell Griffith.

Shi-Ai has inaugurated a series of exchange dinners; one fraternity entertains Shi-Ai while the girls from that house go in pairs to other houses for dinner. Illinois E will entertain Shi-Ai at the first of these dinners.

After the last conference football game, when Northwestern tied for first place, a large celebration was staged. Friday was Hobo Day. Following Saturday's game a dance was held at the gym, after which the Marine Dining Room of the Edgewater Beach Hotel was opened to the students for dancing. No classes were held on Monday; a number of fraternities entertained at luncheon, followed by tea dancing in Chicago in the afternoon; and a bonfire was built on the campus that night.

The Panhellenic associations of urban universities held their annual convention February 13 and 14, in Evanston; the Northwestern chapter, assisted by the junior Panhellenic, was hostess.

ILLINOIS ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Chartered, 1895

Pledge Day, September 20, 1930

INITIATED, November 8, 1930: Dorothy D. Farrar, '32, 1210 Greenwood, Wilmette; Jeanne Price, '33, Amarillo, Tex; and Helene R. Foellinger, '32, 4415 Old Mill Rd. Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The chapter announces the pledging of Mary N. Maddocks, Newark, Ohio.

Illinois Z has been fortunate in having had as her guest in November the Grand Vice President whose visit was greatly enjoyed and appreciated. During Mrs. Teller's visit a cooky-shine was given for her and a reception was given in her honor by the chapter and the alumnae.

The chapter entertained at a tea dance in honor of its pledges on November 22 in the chapter house.

The contract was let on January 1 for a new $300,000 indoor skating rink at the University of Illinois. This fall and winter the campus has missed Dean Thomas Arkle Clark who has been in Chicago recovering from an operation.

A change in the chapter's study system has been made this year at the direction of Mary Anne Carson, scholarship chairman. Any pledge at the end of the six weeks having a 4.2 average or more (5 point average is straight A) may have the privilege of studying whenever and wherever she chooses. By the end of the twelve weeks she must raise this to a 4.5 average, or obey the same study rules which regulate her fellow pledges. Not only do pledges lose privileges for having D or E, but any upperclassmen having D or E loses any chapter office she may hold, until that grade is raised.

Instead of having an elaborate Christmas party just before vacation as usual, the party was given up and the money given to charity this year. The gift to the II B Φ Loan Fund was increased this year. The donation to the Settlement School was increased from $100.00 to $125.00 because it was felt that special help was needed more than ever by both the Loan Fund and the Settlement School.

Illinois Z won the cup offered to the women's fraternity selling the largest number of subscriptions to the Siren, the humor magazine.

An unusual custom at the University of Illinois is the annual Axe Grinder's Ball, Sigma Delta Chi's razz dance for only the most prominent citizens of the campus. A total of 103 invitations were issued this year, and the enrollment is over 12,000. Four Pi Phis received bids; June Whitson, Glenita Hobbs, Helene Foellinger, and Betty Stoolman. There were two popularity contests held this fall and the girl winning in each received a free trip to New York to see the Army-Illinois football game, November 8. Jo Townsend won one contest, and Pat Russell, won the other. There is a picture of Pat Russell in the January issue of College Humor as being one of the most popular and best dressed co-eds at University of Illinois.

Two sophomores, Jean Webster and Beth Olwin were elected to Shi-Ai, sophomore interfraternity honorary organization. Beth Olwin is also chairman of Gold Feathers. Jean Webster is a member of Terrapin, women's swimming fraternity, and led the sophomore cotillion, January 16, as the guest of Mr. John Holstein, Ψ T, president of the sophomore class.

For the first time, women were permitted to ride this year in the annual R.O.T.C. horse show. Out of the eight women selected two were Pi Phis; Melle Russell and Betty Hughes. Melle Russell was also on the sophomore cotillion committee, Alice Brinker was on the freshman frolic committee, and Grace Louise Keiser was on the junior prom committee. It is most unusual for one house to have a member on each of the class-dance committees. Dona Olin is on the senior invitations committee.

In athletics, Alice Brinker is on the freshman class hockey team and is a member of Terrapin; Betty Twist is on the freshman class soccer team; Elsie May Woodward is on the sophomore class hockey team; and Harriet Purvis is a member of the varsity hockey team.

Lucille Triebel was general chairman of the Y.W.C.A. doll show; Glenita Hobbs was chairman of dolls; and Elsie May Woodward's doll won the first prize awarded to the best dressed individual doll. Glenita Hobbs is also chairman of properties on the woman's league musical show. Katherine Colp is on the all-university party committee.

June Whitson had a major part in Mask and Bauble's presentation of The Cradle Song, December 12 and 13. Beth Olwin was also in the cast, and Jean Edwards worked on the property committee. June Whitson and Betty Stoolman were elected to National Collegiate Players, more familiarly known as II E Δ, honorary dramatic organization. Helene Foellinger was elected to Matrix and II M E, honorary mathematics organization which seldom elects women to membership. Betty Stoolman was elected to Φ B K. BETTY STOOLMAN

UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1912

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

INITIATED, November 21, 1930: Sarah Ann Fowler, '33, 1504 N. Main; Sarah Elizabeth Morris, '33, Powers Lane Place; M'Lisse Snyder, '33, 531 S. Dennis Ave., and of Decatur, Ill.; and Alice Stewart, '33, Springfield.

The chapter has been most active on the Millikin campus this year. Harriett Holmes is editor of the college yearbook, the Millidek, and Phyllis Seago the assistant editor. Grace Genseke has been made president of  $\Pi M \Theta$ , senior women's honorary fraternity, and is a member of Conant Society. The chapter was rewarded with an office in three of the class elections; Kathryn Reinhart was elected secretary of the senior class, Harriett Holmes, secretary of the junior class, and Mary Martha Abrams, a pledge, a member of the student council. Phyllis Seago, Sarah Ann Fowler, and Marianna Sheffer are on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Kathryn Reinhart, Phyllis Seago, and Aubrey Royce were elected into membership of Le Cercle Français.

A one act grand opera, Cavalleria Rusticana, was given very successfully by the Millikin conservatory of music for the students and townspeople of Decatur. Aubrey Royce was given one of the leads, and Virginia Fulenwider and Marianna Sheffer were in the chorus.

Every member of the chapter subscribed to Collier's for the benefit of the Settlement School. A bakery sale helped also to enlarge the contribution. The chapter has obtained twenty-five subscriptions for the magazine agency.

Illinois H enjoyed a most delightful and inspirational visit from Mrs. Catherine Burr Teller. Her talks and presence were most helpful to the chapter.

ZETA PROVINCE

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1868

Pledge Day, October 15, 1930

The pledges of Iowa A are working very hard to earn money for the Settlement School. They were not successful in obtaining subscriptions for the magazine because of the general business depression, but they have many plans to make up for the deficiency. One night they made popcorn balls and sold them in the dormitory. Now each pledge is going to make a pound of fudge and sell the candy in the few minutes between classes and chapel.

The actives and pledges had a get-together Thursday, January 15 after meeting. The chapter announces the pledging of Rubelle Perry, Winnipeg, and Dorothy Mould, Estevan, Sask.

Manitoba A had the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. Reding Putman from November 8 to 10. During that time the alumnae advisory committee entertained at luncheon in the suite, the pledges entertained at high tea, and the executive council at supper later in the evening. The following day several members had Thanksgiving dinner in her honor at the fashionable Winnipeg Winter Club. In the afternoon, after the rugby game between Manitoba and Alberta, the chapter entertained representatives from the other groups on the campus. In the evening the chapter meeting was held.

About the middle of November Miss Brennen, the chaperon of North Dakota A, brought her Peter Pan with Alice Palmer, Mary Lucas, Kathryn Jones, and Thelma Pangburn to visit the Winnipeg Pi Phi. The chapter was glad to entertain them.

Receiving on New Year's Day has been established as an annual event for Manitoba A. This year the reception was held at the beautiful home of Mrs. E. F. Hutchings, the grandmother of an active. The girls welcomed well over 200 callers from four until six-thirty.

Evelyn Morris was selected as leading lady, and Thelma Wright as second lead in Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion, the play which the Manitoba dramatic society has chosen as its major production for this year. Barbara Harrison, a pledge, took a junior lead in The Younger Generation, which was produced by the Community Players at the Little Theater in January.

At Christmas the chapter received a genuine French etching from one of its patronesses; a walnut end-table; an exquisite table lamp, and a luncheon set.

The group on this campus who were pledged to  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  were installed as the Canada B chapter in January.

town girls supplied hot dishes and the girls from the dormitory made sandwiches, and all contributed to the dessert. As there is no chapter house, the chapter plans to have more of these affairs to promote more fraternity feeling.

P.E.O. celebrated its Founders' Day with a program. Five Pi Phi, two of them active at the present time, who are members of P.E.O. represented founders in living portraits. There is a strong feeling towards P.E.O. because it was founded at Iowa Wesleyan College.

Iowa A recently had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. Foster, the Zeta Province president. Mrs. Geiger, an alumna of this chapter, was with Mrs. Foster.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE

Chartered, 1877

Pledge Day, September 21, 1930

Iowa B announces the pledging of Alice Clark of Gravity, Iowa, on October 28, 1930.

Simpson College has just completed fulfilling the requirements of the General Education Board (Rockefeller Foundation) and is now entitled to $200,000. This sum lifts the productive endowment fund to a million dollars.

For the second semester of the year 1929-1930, Iowa B ranked second in scholarship, lacking a very small fraction of being first.  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  again placed first.

This fall the actives were entertained by the pledges at a Russian party. Russian Revolutionists with lighted torches called for the girls at the chapter house. An exciting evening was spent with the Bolsheviks. Food such as breadski and soupski was served.

The chapter enjoyed meeting and entertaining the new Zeta Province President, Mrs. Foster, on December 8 and 9. She conveyed many excellent ideas to the chapter.

On December 14, the annual Christmas party for the men was given. It was a theater party, held at the Des Moines theater in Des Moines, after which a supper was served at the chapter house.

The Christmas cooky-shine was held on December 17. The chapter received many lovely gifts for the house from the alumnae, Mothers' club, and other  $\Pi \Phi$  friends.

With the beginning of the second semester, the girls intramural basketball season starts. Although the personnel of the team is not entirely the same, Iowa B has high hopes of retaining the basketball cup won for the year 1929-1930.

Several activities have been added to those reported in the November ARROW. Mayme Lyons has been invited to membership in  $M \Phi E$ . Sara Story has been pledged to  $\Phi M \Gamma$ . A new local chemistry fraternity,  $T I \Sigma$ , has been installed on the campus. Olive Wright was elected vice president and Bertha Lewellan was elected secretary.

The chapter has planned for the Settlement School project to be worked out during the second semester, and as yet has no definite plan to report.

The  $\Pi B \Phi$  magazine agency is quite well advertised in the community and friends of the fraternity know of it, but the response so far this year has been small.

SARA E. MCCOY

IOWA GAMMA—IOWA STATE COLLEGE

Chartered, 1877

Pledge Day, Indefinite

$\Pi B \Phi$  has been very well represented this year. Mary Cunningham was one of two girls to win the scholarship to Merrill-Palmer School, Detroit. This honor is awarded to girls who are getting a child development major. Alice Kearney placed third in the women's riding section of the Little International Livestock show. Lucy Merrick was pledged to  $X \Delta \Phi$ , the national literary fraternity. Ruth Bronson has been initiated into the women's honorary swimming organization, the Naiads. At an all-college convocation, Anna Hager and Marion Roy received personal recognition for scholarship. Both girls received a medal. Three of the girls in the house had parts in a play sponsored by the Iowa State Players, The Women Have Their Way.

W.S.G.A. and other representative groups on the campus initiated the new policy of student sponsors in the dormitories. The presidents of these different organizations are acting as these sponsors. Shirley Wells represents W.S.G.A., in the freshman dormitory.

The industrial science council, two members, of which are in the house, sponsored the Ax-Grinders Ball. This was an all-college dance and available to those students having the correct change and dressing in hard time clothes. The dance proved to be very successful and will probably be an annual affair hereafter.

The pledge Panhellenic dance was of interest to all pledges. This is the same as the college Panhellenic dances except that only pledges of the women's fraternities can attend.

The chapter looks forward with curiosity and interest to the new feature the Y.W.C.A. is introducing. This is to be a "Hello Day." Everyone is to speak to everyone whom he meets on the campus.

RACHEL HAVNER

IOWA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Pledge Day, September 19, 1930

Gretchen Pulley, a pledge, was elected Dolphin Queen, and reigned at the collegiate swimming exhibition. Gretchen was chosen by a selected group of competent judges from the pictures which every women's fraternity had submitted of their representative. By receiving sufficient votes, Gretchen's picture will be one of the few sent to Mr. Ziegfeld who is to choose the beauty queen for the yearbook, the Hawkeye. Elizabeth French, by a large sale of Hawkeyes, helped place Gretchen in the contest and earned for herself a place on the Hawkeye staff. Francine Lacey is also on the staff. Grace Donovan was on the Sophomore Cotillion committee, and is making a very high average in scholarship. Alice Bond had her picture in Frivols (the university's humorous magazine) Hall of Fame which is a much envied recognition, and she was singled out because of outstanding achievement in activities. She is president of Seals, and a member of Mortar Board and W.A.A. Martha Rich and Gretchen Pulley had parts in a university play. Mary Blanchard, a pledge, is a member of the debating club, Seals, Octave Thanet (literary society), was on the freshman party committee and placed third in a university extemporaneous reading contest. Elaine Smith made the Frivol staff and Genevieve Byrnes is a member of Y.M.C.A. cabinet. There are sixteen Pi Phi in Octave Thanet, six in Seals (the swimming club), four in glee club, and over 50 per cent of the chapter belong to W.A.A.

At present  $\Pi \Phi$  ranks first in intramurals and hopes to win the cup again this year. The chapter received first place in the intersorority advanced and beginner's swimming meets, second in the intermediate swimming meet, and first in the clock-golf tournament. Later this year Iowa Z expects to have successful basketball, deck tennis, ping-pong, and archery teams.

In place of selling subscriptions for the magazine agency (as Iowa City is already thoroughly canvassed by agencies) every member of the chapter with the approval of the alumnae club decided to send in a dollar and not to sell magazine subscriptions. This will amount to about forty-two dollars. The alumnae of Iowa City also donate a dollar each, besides selling Settlement School products and giving a rummage sale the proceeds of which will go to the Settlement School.

In order to keep up the scholarship average a fine of one dollar has been imposed upon those receiving over two delinquents. Study hall is held in the evening at the house for pledges and those on the delinquent list and also for pledges at the library every afternoon.

MARY ROVANE

SOUTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

Chartered, September 30, 1927

Pledge Day, September 21, 1930

This year is proving to be a very successful one for South Dakota A. Genevieve Howe received the Dakota alumnae prize which is offered each year to the senior girl having the highest scholarship and general integrity. The basis of scholarship is confined to work done in mathematics, sciences, philosophy, and its allied branches, history, and the ancient and modern languages.

Another honor was received by one of the pledges, Elizabeth Carey, that of being elected "The Red Headed Sweetheart of the University of South Dakota." She was chosen from eight candidates.

Eldora Rempfer was one of the five girls chosen a member to the South Dakota Play Crafters which is the exclusive dramatic organization on the campus. She is also a member on the varsity debate team. Josephine Stewart and Genevieve Howe were on the honor roll for the Mortar Board examination. Cleo Johnson was elected vice president of Yellow Tie, sophomore girls' organization, and was also elected a member of the Student Senate.

$\Pi B \Phi$  is well represented in the literary societies this year. Jeanne Raebel, Elizabeth Carey, Grace Olsen, and Muriel Engler are pledged to Alethian. Eldora Rempfer and Evelyn Lindquist are pledged to Athena. Jean Jordan, Jane Johnson, Martha Hennessey, Pauline Hunt, Hazel Williams, and Virginia Booth are pledged to Alethian.

The chapter is also represented in athletics. Four girls are members of W.A.A.: Marjorie Stickney who was elected manager of volleyball; Margaret Brown who was elected manager of soccer; Imogene Baker who was elected manager of swimming; and Cleo Johnson.

The following girls are in the glee club: Eldora Rempfer Jeanne Raebel, Jane Johnson, Virginia Booth, Muriel Engler, Evelyn Lindquist, Doris Howell, Dorothy Daylor, and Earline Wood.

On Dakota Day, the annual homecoming of the university, relatives and alumnae were entertained at the chapter house where a buffet lunch was served after the football game.

The pledges entertained at three Christmas parties, one for the active chapter, one for the alumnae and the patronesses, and one for some poor children.

Funds for the Settlement School were raised again this year by having a food sale and bazaar which was very successful.

The winter formal was held in the old armory on January 10. The color scheme carried out was of black and white. The party was very successful.

The chapter had the pleasure of entertaining Zeta Province President, Mrs. W. J. Foster. A Panhellenic luncheon was given in her honor and also a cooky-shine at which time the pledges presented a stunt.

The new Union Building has been completed and will be occupied next semester.

MISSOURI ALPHA—MISSOURI UNIVERSITY

Chartered, May 1899

Pledge Day, September 6, 1930

INITIATED, December 9, 1930: Bedonna Lingle, '31, Bethany; and Martha Ann Martin, Columbia.

The pledges gave a Christmas tea dance for the actives on December 13 from 4 to 7. The house was beautifully decorated for the season. On Sunday, December 14, the chapter entertained the twenty-five football letter men at a buffet dinner at the chapter

The chapter's candidates for Beauty Queens of the Savitar, yearbook, are: Betty Stump, Ruth Karsh, and Elizabeth O'Keefe.

Homecoming this year was on November 24, the day of the Missouri-Kansas football game. Missouri A's house won first place among the women's fraternity houses for the best decorations. The decorations consisted of a large welcome sign in the colors of the two colleges, on the gable above the columns. Two large gold arrows, with electric lights for the jewels, pointed to it from either side. On one terrace was a large tiger, mechanically controlled, running after a Jayhawk on the opposite terrace. Above one side porch was an "M U" sign and above the other a "K U" sign with hunting of appropriate colors leading up to them. The prize was a silver loving cup. Following the game the town alumnae and the active chapter entertained the visiting alumnae and the visitors from Kansas A with a tea at the chapter house.

The following girls are represented in campus activities: Mary Lane Williams is a member of Z Σ and president of Cwens. Virginia Estes is also in Z Σ and was on the homecoming committee this fall. Elsie Kellogg is a member of Z Σ. Mary Frances Sawyer is on the student council, as councilman from Fine Arts, and belongs to Π Α Θ and Μ Φ Ε. Ruth Vincent is very active in Savitar work. Margaret Lacy is active in Workshop, a dramatic society, and a member of Δ T K, an honorary English society. Katherine Bowman and Virginia Fairleigh, pledges, are on freshman commission.

Pledge Day, September 23, 1930

Early in December Missouri B enjoyed the visit of Zeta Province President, Mrs. Foster, who gave many splendid suggestions. The chapter entertained her with a cooky-shine followed by an impromptu program of local talent.

On December 13 the chapter gave the annual formal, a dinner dance, at the Algonquin Country Club. A representative from each women's fraternity was invited. This new policy promotes friendliness among fraternity women.

Marguerite Newton was elected a representative from the university to attend the Panhellenic Conference for Urban Universities which met on February 13-14 at Northwestern University. She is also assistant director of a Thyrus play Olympia, a semi-annual production of which Mary McNatt has the leading feminine rôle, along with S. Marie Vaughn. Mary Jane Richards was chairman of the piano fund which is to be used to provide a piano for the lounge of the women's building. On campus there has been a movement started to unite the two theatrical organizations, Little Theater and Thyrus, into one large group to make for better organization and for larger theatrical performances. Most actives belong to one group or the other. Interest in the League of Women's Voters is heightened by the fact that Delphine Meyer is president of the Missouri College League, and S. Marie Vaughn and Mary Jane Richards are on the board to make preparations for the convention in February.

Dorothea Pohlman exhibited two pieces of sculpture at the annual exhibition of the St. Louis Artist's Guild.

The university is grateful for the new architectural building which is to be built this spring. It was the unexpected gift of a far-sighted donor, a Mr. Givens of St. Louis, who realized the necessity for more adequate quarters than the university possesses. The gift makes possible for an endowment and several scholarships which is quite an attraction to students of architecture, and insures St. Louis an art center.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE

Chartered, January 9, 1914

Pledge Day, October 2, 1930

The chapter is now using the point system in activities. Under this plan points are given for membership in the various campus organizations. The number of points varies with the different organizations. Five points are required with the result that each member of the chapter is also a member of at least two other organizations. Another plan for activities is also used. By it, each member answers roll call in meetings with the number of her activities during the week. Two are required.

The pledges are urged to attend as many college activities as possible for the chapter believes that diverse interests are essential not only to the chapter as a whole, but to each girl individually.

Missouri Γ is very fortunate to have an enthusiastic alumnae club in Springfield. As the club is also interested in selling subscriptions for the magazine agency, the active chapter has agreed not to trespass on their territory, but is making plans for raising money for the Settlement School in other ways.

ETA PROVINCE

NEBRASKA

Pledge Day, September 20, 1930

The chapter is well represented in campus activities and honors. Sally Pickard was elected Honorary Colonel of Nebraska R.O.T.C. by a vote of the entire student body. Kathleen Troop is a member of O N, home economics honorary society. Virginia Ross was awarded the honor of having her name put on the scholarship cup of O N for having the highest average of the freshmen majoring in home economics. Marjorie Peterson is a member of  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , professional society for women in the college of journalism. Miriam Kissinger is a member of the dramatic club. This chapter has elected Florence Binkley as the sophomore for 1931 who has achieved the most in activities,  $\Pi \Phi$  ideals, and loyalty. She is a member of the intramural council, W.A.A. sports board, is chairman of Nebraska Ball, and is secretary for the Cornhusker annual staff.

Nebraska B was fortunate in having Mrs. Charles F. Teller, Grand Vice President, as their guest December 3 and 4; and Miss Virginia Hutson, Eta Province President, on January 12 and 15. Dinners and teas were given in their honor by the active chapter and alumnae.

The Nebraska B alumnae club had a Christmas sale of Settlement School products and Christmas cards, the profits of which will be sent to the Settlement School. At present the alumnae are selling subscriptions for Collier's and House and Garden magazines.

The chapter plans to send one hundred dollars as their contribution to the Settlement School. This item is taken care of in the budget made out at the first of the year. The Nebraska basketball team won its third consecutive conference victory and first place in Big Six standings when it defeated Kansas University on January 19.

KANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

Chartered, 1873

Pledge Day, September 15, 1930

Kansas A has been well represented this fall in activities. Myra Little was chosen by the student-faculty committee of the university as the woman representative from the university to the Student-Faculty Convention, held at Detroit, December 27 to 31. Esther Conger was chosen by the Y.W.C.A. cabinet members to represent Y.W.C.A. at the convention. Esther is chairman of the meetings committee on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet.

Helen Hungerford was elected to  $\Phi B K$ in the fall election. Helen is also a member of Mortar Board. Marian Porter is a member of the glee club. Lela Hackney has been elected to  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ , honorary journalism fraternity. Lela is also society editor of the Kansan. Betty Nuzman, Esther Conger, and Margaret Ruth Johnson were models in the fashion show, sponsored by W.S.G.A. Helen Reigart, Virginia Sprague, and Elizabeth Ranney were on the decoration committee for the Fine Arts Ball, given January 16. Virginia Wilbur, who now attends the Peabody Institute of Music in Baltimore, is a member of  $M \Phi E$ .

The first women's Panhellenic party will be held on March 21. Alice Fontron will have charge of the party. A Panhellenic exchange dinner will be given on February 12, for the purpose of acquainting girls from different houses.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Chartered, 1915

Pledge Day, September 13, 1930

INITIATED, October 11, 1930: Violet Featherstone, '32, Lyndon; Dorothy Maltby, '33, Canton; Mildred Smith '31, Augusta; Vera Smith, '33, Manhattan; and Marcia Jane White, '32, Kansas City, Mo.

The women's Panhellenic organization of which Helen Hughes is president has been very busy this fall. Legal proceedings against the fraternity taxation law of last spring have been taken by it. The case has not come to court yet. Changes in the rushing rules are also being considered. If they are changed "spiking" will be permitted and the number of favor parties will be decreased. In the freshmen women's Panhellenic Eugenia Ebling is vice president.

On October 30 the actives entertained the pledges with a party. The entertainment, which began with rather weird and "spooky" procedure for the pledges who had been first sent to bed early, ended in a pleasant surprise of dancing and refreshments in the basement.

Then the pledges "retaliated" with a party for the actives which made a big mark on the social calendar of this and other seasons. It was a night club affair and the freshmen hostesses had dressed up the Wareham Ballroom in true night club style and had engaged for the evening a master of ceremonies, blues singers, and tap dancers. A two course lunch was served at the tables grouped around the walls.

More interest is being taken in W.A.A.

this fall.  $\Pi \Phi$  has seven of our members: Juliana Amos, Gertrude Cowley, Eugenia Ebling, Violet Featherstone, Dorothy Maltby, Ernestine Merritt, and Marjorie Stevenson. Five of these girls were on class volleyball teams.

Margaret Hughes and Mildred Smith have recently been initiated into Orchestis, the honorary dancing fraternity. In other organizations on the campus Kansas B has as new members: Marguerite Chaffin,  $\Phi K \Phi$ , honorary scholastic fraternity; Mildred Smith and Frances Simpson, Quill Club; Juliana Amos, Purple Pepster; Mildred Beard, Swimming Club; and Bernice Mosser, debate team.

Mildred Smith will appear in the next Manhattan Little Theater play which is to be The Torchbearers.

For the first time in the history of the college the boys got together and chose one sweetheart. Vera Smith was elected Kansas State Sweetheart, the most popular girl at Kansas State this fall.

JOAN LYTLE

WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

Chartered, 1910

Wyoming A announces the pledging of: Zelma Denton, Worland, Wyo.; Jane Moore, Douglas, Wyo.; Marion McAllister, 1408 Garfield Ave., Laramie, Wyo.; and Louella O'Connell, Chadron, Neb.

The chapter feels very fortunate in having had several girls elected to honorary societies. Susan Doyle was elected to membership in  $\Sigma A I$ , honorary music society. Katherine Miller and Gladys Nimmo were elected to membership in  $\Pi \Gamma M$ , honorary social science organization. Lillian Carlson is a member of  $Z N$ , honorary commercial fraternity.

Mrs. Katherine B. Teller, Grand Vice President, was a guest of Wyoming A on December 10 and 11. A tea was given for her to which the patronesses, mothers, alumnae, and women of the campus were invited. Although Mrs. Teller's visit was very short, every member of the fraternity became very well acquainted with her.

The chapter has shown an unusual interest in women's athletics this year. The  $\Pi \Phi$  hockey team tied the women's dormitory for first place in the intramural tournament. Peggy Grisinger, Mary Belle Pemberton, Harriet A. Christie, Mary Kline, Wannabelle Smith, Elizabeth Orr, Gretchen Gaeth, Dorothy Porter, Marion Isberg and Beth Jones made their class hockey letters. Six Pi Phis also made the varsity team. A great deal of interest is being shown in basketball and volleyball, which have just started.

Wyoming A has made a reality of a dream, and is "at home" in its new house, which is the first of the houses to be constructed on Fraternity Park. The house is English Tudor and blends in perfectly with the rugged scenery of Wyoming. Because Wyoming A is the pioneer in building in Fraternity Park, the fraternity has been granted the special dispensation of having their freshmen live in the house. All other freshmen are required to live in the dormitories. The house and its furnishings are very outstanding in this part of the country. One of the loveliest gifts for the new home was a baby grand piano, which the  $\Pi \Phi$  fathers presented to the chapter.

The first guest in the new home was Miss Virginia Hutson, Eta Province President, who visited the chapter on January 10 and 11. The time seemed very short, but everyone gained much in knowledge and inspiration from Miss Hutson's messages and ideas. A tea was given in her honor in order that she might meet the deans of women, Panhellenic representatives, patronesses, mothers, and alumnae.

The annual co-ed costume ball was held on January 11. Miss Hutson was the chapter's guest at this dance. Lillian Carlson won first prize for the most beautiful costume at the ball. Peggy Grisinger and Mary Belle Pemberton placed first in the prize fox-trot.

$\Pi \Phi$  is represented in dramatics this term by Nancy Burrage who holds one of the leads in R-U-R, a fantastic melodrama of mechanical men and women.

Wyoming A sent its annual Christmas box to the Settlement School. Fixing up this box of toys, books, clothing, and candy, is one of the most enjoyable things that the girls do at Christmas time.

The annual Christmas party, given the Saturday before final examinations started, was an unusually successful chapter affair. A real Santa distributed gifts to everyone, causing much excitement and merriment.

Panhellenic has shortened rushing for next fall to three days. Each fraternity is to have a reception the first evening, one party the second day, and the preference dinner the third night. No personal dates will be allowed, and rushees cannot be escorted to or from a party.

The Cowboys are starting the basketball season with unusual strength and promise, and Wyoming hopes for another winning conference team.

INITIATED, JANUARY 31, 1931: Margaret Burnett, '33, 2015 York St.; Georgianna Clark, '34, 724 Fillmore St.; Mary Foster, '34, 1557 Steele St.; Betsy Forbes, '34, 1563 Gaylord St.; Charlotte Gallup, '34, 1515

E. 8th Ave.; Virginia Grant, '34, 914 Clarkson St.; Anna Marie Hanks, '34, 155 Humboldt St.; Betty Howard, '34, 721 Emerson St.; Marguerite McGrayel, '34, 1749 Holly St.; Margaret Plettner, '34, 2225 Bellaire St.; Pauline Parks, '34, 2511 Bellaire St.; and Edith Jane Sturgeon, '34, 4408 W. 34th St., all of Denver; Margaret Barnum, '33, 429 Thatcher Bldg., Pueblo; Hazel Gates, '34, Chateau Gates, Evergreen; Nancy Trent Osborn, '33, Paul's Valley, Okla.; Dorothy Van Valkenburg, '34, 947 University, Boulder; Katherine Walker, '34, 330 Jackson, Fort Collins; and Marjorie Wangelin, '34, 625 Mapleton, Boulder.

The chapter mourns the death of Jessie Strachan, pledge, who died on December 30 from injuries received in an automobile accident.

Thirty subscriptions were sent to Collier's magazine and $150, the proceeds of the bazaar, was given to the Settlement School. In addition, the chapter has decided to give up all decorations for the winter formal dance and donate the money to the Settlement School.

For the largest social event of the year, the junior prom, Alice Faller and Ruth Crissman were members of the committee; and Mercedes Sargeant led the promenade and was also chosen Prom Queen.

Of 150 invitations issued to prominent members of the university to the Bal Masque, Pi Phi were proud to receive seventeen. Dorothy Klingler and Gillian Morrell were awarded prizes for the most original and most beautiful costumes. Maxine Cooley was chairman of the committee giving the ball, and Dannette Morrow was also on the committee.

Marjorie Wangelin played the second lead in the student operetta, given February 21. Dorothy Evans, Erianna Cotton, Betsy Forbes, and Lucille Mercereau were in the chorus. Maxine Cooley was given the honor of writing the dialogue.

Alice Faller, Jeanne Gillespie, Adeline Roehrig, Margaret Barnum, Pauline Parks, and Virginia Grant were on the staffs for the costuming, make-up, and staging of the production.

Members on the various publications staffs are: Maxine Cooley, Louise Blake, Jeanne Gillespie, Margaret Anderson, Carol Harris, Virginia Tasher, Margaret Plettner, Mary Foster, Betsy Forbes, Anna Marie Hanks, Katherine Walker, and Gillian Morrell. Pauline Parks, Ruth Gates, and Helen Sherer were initiated into W.A.A. Under the guidance of Virginia Ellet the chapter has entered teams in every women's intramural sport. Adeline Roehrig and Margaret Barnum were invited to join Players' Club.

Mary Foster, '34, topped the chapter scholarship list with an average of 91.

The house committee donated to the house three new lamps, four end and coffee tables, and two new chairs and foot-stools.

The usual custom of dancing an hour after dinner on week nights in the women's fraternity houses has been stopped and instead the girls are allowed to hold open house once a week.

COLORADO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Pledge Day, September 22, 1930

Colorado B was honored during the last three months by visits from Mrs. Teller, Grand Vice President, and from Miss Virginia Hutson, Eta Province President. Teas were given for both of the visitors including, as guests, representatives from each of the other women's fraternities as well as the active chapter and many of the alumnae.

The Christmas season was a very festive time for the Denver Pi Phi, starting with an alumnae tea and a cooky-shine at the Bungalow, and continuing with a formal dance given with Colorado A at the Lake-wood Country Club. At the cooky-shine the lovely gifts brought by the alumnae for the house as well as a joke present for each of the girls were opened. In the holding of a joint dance for both the Colorado chapters on December 26, the girls hope to have started a yearly tradition.

To enforce the requirement for each girl to have at least three activities in the university, a file has been kept to insure a systematic record of these. As to scholarship, although no definite comparison of fraternity averages has been published, the chapter is working to keep the scholarship cup won last year.

This fall a great deal of effort has been made to promote good feeling among the fraternities, first by intramural debates, and at present by a basketball tournament for all women's fraternities. These affairs always stimulate the interest and friendliness of all the girls on the campus.

In the early spring the University of Denver will begin its five-year building programs which will start with a new library and will include also a gymnasium and a chapel. The ground has already been surveyed for several of these buildings. Colorado B has already chosen the lots on which their new house is to be built.

THETA PROVINCE

OKLAHOMA

Chartered, 1910

Pledge Day, September 17, 1930

INITIATED, November 22, 1930: Elaine Anderson, 945 Chaburn Ct., Fort Worth, Tex.; Claire Hayner, '33, 1571 Swan Dr., Tulsa, Okla.; and Emily Mitcham, '31, 1814 Huff, Wichita Falls, Tex.

GRADUATED: Ragna Pearce, B.S.; and Lady Percy Shaw, B.S.

G. E. Wadsack, registrar, predicted that the university would not lose more than three hundred students at the end of the first semester. This is a small number compared to other years and taking into account the international business depression.

Dr. E. E. Dale, professor of history, has gathered, with the aid of the $10,000 gift of Frank Philips, head of the Frank Philips Petroleum Company, the most complete collection of documents and objects relating to the American Indian, that exists. Mr. Philips' gift has made possible an extensive research library for those who are particularly interested.

A new system for pledge study period has been tried and adopted since it is an improvement on the old way. One member keeps study hall four hours on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and two hours on Monday and Friday. On Saturday morning the freshmen make up double time for tardiness or absence. Members who do not make the initiation average must attend study hall two hours each day with the freshmen.

Catherine Grant has been nominated by a committee of student officers to be a candidate for R.O.T.C. Honorary Colonel. There were five girls from the leading women's fraternities nominated by the committee.

In addition to the annual house party in the spring for rushees, a few are entertained each week-end in order that the girls may know each one personally.

Marion Ferguson and Patty Lee Smith are pledges of X Δ Φ, honorary English fraternity for women, whose requirements are purely scholastic.

For several years the members of this chapter have joined with the Norman alumnae in sponsoring a bridge party, the purpose of which is to raise money for Settlement School. The tickets are sold by tables, or separately. The prizes, six in number, are from the Settlement School. The Settlement School products are also on display and after the card games and refreshments the women crowd around admiring and buying the exquisite linens and clever wooden or wicker knick-knacks.

The chapter has not attempted to sell magazines since there is already a well organized plan for obtaining the contribution to Settlement School.

The chapter is giving food and clothing to a country family which is composed of father, mother, and ten children. The chapter also sent forty dollars to aid the destitute of Bethany whose homes were destroyed by a recent tornado.

Alece Locke initiated Clea Emenhiser and Mary Ruth Holbrook into University Players, honorary organization for members of the dramatic art department who are outstanding. Clea Emenhiser had the lead in Tommy, and parts in The Swan, and The Gardener's Dog, all major productions. Alece Locke was on the technical staff in charge of the direction of The Swan. Mary Ruth Holbrook had one of the leads and Patty Lee Smith had a part in the same play.

Helen Welch and Patty Lee Smith had poems printed in the Winter number of the Oklahoma Magazine.

The boys in college who have a Π Φ sister were given a dinner party.

In honor of the alumnae who came back for homecoming there was a buffet luncheon and a dinner after the game.

AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL COLLEGE

Chartered, 1910

Pledge Day, September 22, 1930

Oklahoma B gave twenty-five dollars as its contribution to the Settlement School fund for this year, the money being raised at a Π Φ Settlement School benefit bridge party. The bridge was a lovely social affair, as well as a money making media. The chapter plans to send an added contribution to the fund later in the year, to add to the present one.

Preceding the Christmas holidays the chapter gave its annual Christmas party for the town alumnae and their children. There was a decorated and lighted tree, and a real Santa Claus, who came in bringing a sack of toys with one for each child, and a sack of candy for everyone. The pledges presented three one-act plays, of their own origin, as further entertainment.

Π Φ is well represented on the campus of Oklahoma A. and M. College this year in extracurricular activities. It is a ruling of the chapter that every pledge and member must be an active member of at least one outstanding organization on the campus, must attend all the meetings of the group, and really work for and in the organization. These organizations are reported each week with the roll call in chapter meeting, and if either pledge or member can find none at the first of the year, each member is responsible for helping her join and become active in one.

Two pledges, Virginia Doniphan and Ruth Fleming, are active as leaders in the discussion groups of Y.W.C.A., which is a new project of the organization. These groups study poetry, modern prose, local and national problems, and numerous subjects which may be suggested by the group members.

The chapter has taken an interest in the government of the college through W.S.G.A., in which Elizabeth McGarr is one of the cabinet.

Paula Powell was recently elected a pledge of  $\Theta A \Phi$ , national honorary dramatic society on the campus, and Terese Edwards carried off an honor among the pledges when she was chosen as the lead in the only three-act play to be given this year, The Youngest.

$\Pi \Gamma M$ , national honorary social science fraternity, chose Imogene Kilgore among the new members for this year. Helen Whitcomb, pledge, has hopes of winning the recognition pin for pledges with a straight A average in freshman chemistry, for which she and six others, out of the 97 students in the classes of chemistry, gained the honor roll and exemption from examinations.

The Memorial Stadium and Field House campaign has been completed. The plans for the structures are drawn up, and the work on them will start within the next few weeks. Both the stadium and field house, according to the stadium corporation, will be ready for the first game of the year of 1931-32.

Doel Reed, head of the art department, and well-known Oklahoma artist, is being recognized for his oil paintings and water colors in Paris, where he is on leave for several months, according to the Paris edition of the New York Herald. Reed, who is both head of and instructor in the department of art, is recognized throughout America for his work, and has had numerous exhibits throughout Oklahoma and in the East.

Acha Foa, a local social fraternity whose members are to be chosen for outstanding work in classes and outside activities, has recently been organized on the campus to petition Mortar Board to be made a chapter.

Margaret Kygar, who has held the position of society editor of the O'Collegian, college paper, the first semester, received a very high compliment on her efficiency and good work while on the staff, both this year and last year, as copy editor, through the editor's column of the paper. Margaret is leaving college this semester, however, and the position is to be filled by Elizabeth McGarr, who carried on the work so admirably the whole of last year.

ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Pledge Day, September 21, 1930

Arkansas A is very fortunate to have this year three faculty wives who were members of  $\Pi B \Phi$  on other campuses. Mrs. V. W. Adkisson (Helen Jo Roop), whose husband is assistant professor of mathematics, is from Missouri  $\Gamma$ . Mrs. M. E. Farris (Roselle Gould Gore), whose husband is acting professor of electrical engineering, is from Texas A. Mrs. J. A. Thalheimer (Gladys Twedell), whose husband is an instructor in journalism, is from Arizona A.

The chapter is grieved by the loss of one of its members, Roberta Robbins, on November 26. She was on her way with some friends to attend a football game in Shreveport, Louisiana, when the car in which she and her friends were driving overturned, killing Roberta instantly.

One of the most outstanding members of Arkansas A chapter is Clarrene Tribble, chapter president. Besides making a scholastic average of almost four points out of a possible six, she is president of three organizations other than  $\Pi B \Phi$  fraternity; namely: the Math Club, the local Panhellenic, and Rootin' Rubes, pep organization. She is treasurer of Blackfriars, national dramatic fraternity, and a member of Octagon, petitioning Mortar Board, member of  $K \Delta \Pi$ , national and international honorary educational organization, and of the senior cabinet of Y.W.C.A.

Extracurricular activities at Arkansas A are controlled by a point system, administered by a committee of initiates with a member of the alumnae club appointed as leader. A certain number of points is given by this committee as a reward for membership in organizations, and additional points are given for attendance at individual meetings of the organizations joined. The committee serves to direct and prepare girls for eligibility for membership in certain groups. A pledge is required to earn one hundred points before initiation.

The Fayetteville alumnae club has taken over the subscriptions for the magazine agency. The chapter has sent fifteen dollars to the Settlement School this year.

The chapter has moved into the new chapter house which was completed on February 9.

TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Chartered, 1902

Pledge Day, February 21, 1931

Texas A alumnae club is in charge of the Collier's magazine campaign. Settlement School funds will not be raised until spring.

This year Panhellenic is trying to raise a scholarship fund for rural students, girls who would appreciate but cannot afford a college education. Various women's fraternities on the campus have given benefit teas to raise funds. Texas A is planning to have a carnival in the spring.

The junior class elections were held last fall and Daphna Grisham was elected president. She will have charge of the Junior Prom, which is to be held in March.

Rachel Williams was elected to  $\Pi A \Theta$ , an honorary educational fraternity. She is also a member of the Curtain Club and had the leading part in the last play, Children of the Moon.

TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1916

Pledge Day, February 5, 1931

INITIATED, November 10, 1930: Beth Kinnebrew, '31, Homer, La.; Rose Margaret Lindsley, '33, 3712 Euclid; Henrietta Miller, '33, 4224 Beverly Drive; Sara Miller, '33, 6221 Preston; and Martha Moore, '33, 3905 Rawlins, all of Dallas; Emy Stroud, '34, Corsicana; and Elna Wilkinson, '32, 901 Linda, Fort Worth.

Mrs. Stark, Theta Province President, made her annual official visit to Texas B early in October. She met with the pledges, the chapter officers, the executive council, the chapter as a whole and with the alumnae. A supper was given in her honor by the chapter.

Since college authorities in Southern Methodist University will not allow fraternity houses, chapter rooms are the only means of providing places for meetings and for fraternity property. Formerly the chapter has been allowed only one room, but this year have been given permission to maintain an apartment. Actives and alumnae have furnished it with dishes, a victrola, records, pictures, tables and cards, and books. The pledges serve a weekly luncheon to the chapter in the rooms, this being used to bring the girls closer together in fraternal relations.

Each year the chapter entertains for its parents. Instead of having the Mothers' and Fathers' tea which has been customary for several years, the chapter had a luncheon for the Mothers on December 13, at the Womans' Club. Guests other than the Mothers of the girls in the chapter were: Mrs. Mary Hay, dean of women; Mrs. Harriet Singleton, matron of the dormitory in which all out-of-town Pi Phi reside and Mrs. John Touchstone, president of the Dallas alumnae club.

Texas B placed second in the Earl Moreland drive which is made in December each year for Port Allegro College, in Brazil.

This college is called the little Southern Methodist University of South America.

The Dallas alumnae club entertained on January 10 with a musical tea for its members, representatives of other alumnae chapters, and Texas B at the home of Mrs. Watson.

Texas B awards each semester a scholarship cup to the fraternity on the campus making the highest average the preceding semester.  $\Delta Z$  won this cup last semester, and was presented with it in behalf of the chapter by Mrs. John Touchstone.

Spring rushing was held on February 4 and 5 with two afternoon and two night parties being given. Virginia Meador has charge of spring rushing.

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE

Chartered, 1891

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

INITIATED, October 30, 1930: Olivia Bartlett, '33, 5352 Colliseum St.; Eleanor Ellis, '31, 1222 Second St.; Kitty Minor Logan, '33, 1539 Philip St.; Margaret Rosser, '33, 6031 Pitt St.; Evelyn Shibley, '33, 1213 Nashville Ave.; Myrthe Stauffer, '32, 3 Metairie Lane; Elizabeth Villere, '32, 1557 Henry Clay Ave; Lorraine Werlein, '33, 6020 Prytania St.; and Mettha Westfeld, '33, 3120 Coliseum St., all New Orleans; and Margaret Roberts, '33, Alexandria, La.

An outstanding event this year on the Newcomb campus was the presentation of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, The Mikado. Margaret Rosser had the lead and five or six other Pi Phi were in the cast.

Betty Werlein, president of the student body, represented Newcomb at the annual National Student Federation of America, held in Atlanta, Georgia, during the Christmas holidays. Upon her return she was very glad to report that Newcomb's student government is carried on more efficiently and, therefore, with better results than the governments of a great many colleges represented at this conference.

A new and interesting club has been formed this year at Newcomb, the International Relationships Club. Meetings are held every week, and problems, and news of every nation are discussed. Winnifred Esgrigge, who was sent as a representative from Newcomb, to Geneva, Switzerland, two summers ago, is president. Another new organization is the art club, with Nancy Allen as president and Margaret Henriques vice president. At each meeting some well-known artist gives a lecture on his particular field of art, whether it be costume designing, photography, or cartoons, which is followed by general discussion.

As has been the custom for the past few years, Louisiana A acted as Santa Claus for forty-five orphan children by fulfilling their Christmas letters. The chapter also had a rather informal Thanksgiving party for the children in the surgical ward of Charity Hospital, where it has been doing its social service work this year.

The actives entertained the pledges at a dance in November, and the regular Christmas tree party was held in the new chapter rooms just before the holidays. Instead of continuing the Sunday night suppers, Louisiana A has decided to serve weekly lunches in the rooms, due to the fact that it is often difficult for dormitory students to attend the suppers.

MONTANA ALPHA—MONTANA STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANIC ARTS

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

INITIATED, January 31, 1931: Nina Davis, Eleanor Patten, Carolyn Delaney, Jean Miller, Mary Metheny, of Bozeman; Mary Jane Roberts and Anna Lee Johns, of Butte; Lucile Lytle and Lillian Wilcomb of Great Falls; Matilda and Regina Danicich of Anaconda; and Dorothy Parizek of Rygate.

During the Collier's subscription drive twenty-two subscriptions were sold for the Settlement School. Next quarter the annual Rummage Sale will be held. Everything that is made is clear profit and is sent to the Settlement School.

This year the extracurricular activities are controlled by the college point system committee. Under this system no one student can average over 175 points, that means no student can hold two major offices. Every student must have at least two activities. This is governed by the fraternity itself.

It was quite an event this time when the pledges made the highest average of all the men's and women's fraternities. Out of sixteen pledges, fourteen of them made their grades. On the Associated Women Student Council there are ten members, six of whom are Pi Phi's: Elizabeth Seitz, Esther Bowman, Helen and Margaret Souders, Helen Eagle, and Helen Oliver. Helen Souders is assistant editor of the Associated Women Student's yearbook. Alice Vandenhook is assistant editor of the Weekly newspaper, the Exponent. The dramatic club is producing the play, "Granite" and the two feminine parts are played by Alice Vandenhook and Mary Metheny.

One of the highest honors that a junior woman may attain was accorded to Helen Oliver. It is the chairmanship of Woman's Day. Woman's Day is the time set aside for the awarding of honors won by women on the campus during the year. It is a time of homecoming for former women students, and alumnae of the college address the women students.

Doctor and Mrs. S. M. Souders of Red Lodge presented Montana A with a radio and victrola, combined, on the twenty-first birthday of their eldest daughter, Margaret.

The Associated Women Students' project this year is to obtain enough money for the purchasing of a grand piano for student use. Mortar Board gave its annual dance this quarter which is a ladies choice dance. It turned out to be the biggest dance thus far held. The Associated Student Body is taking over the college book store and is installing a soda fountain.

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

Pledge Day, October 8, 1930

Idaho obtained only three subscriptions for the magazine agency, these three being supplied by one of the alumnae in Moscow, Mrs. Holme. The girls did not seem to be very interested in subscribing for it as most of their parents already had subscriptions.

However, the chapter has been contributing to the Settlement School fund in the same way that they did last year, and it has continued to be very profitable. Katherine Roe keeps a small store in her room and sells candy bars, gum, and fruit. It is run on the honor system, the girls helping themselves to the candy and leaving money for it or signing slips which are paid up at the end of each month. This system has worked very well and the store has made a profit of ten dollars a month or more. This has proved to be the most successful plan that Idaho A has tried yet and will probably continue to be the method by which this chapter will raise funds for the Settlement School.

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

Chartered, April, 1907

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

INITIATED, December 3, 1930: Gwendolyn Campbell, Seattle; and Phyllis Stone, Spokane.

Washington A pledged the following girls: Euvonne Atkins, Yakima; Marjorie Beyer, Seattle; Jane Colkett, Raymond; Margaret Daly, Salt Lake City, Utah; Ruth Edwards, Ellensburg; Mary English, Seattle; Helen

Fehl, Seattle; Velma Fritts, Seattle; Elizabeth Griffith, Seattle; Ruth Hildebrand, Oakland, Calif.; Elizabeth Jackson, Seattle; Anna McCaskill, Seattle; Mazelle McGilivray, Port Angeles; Betty Musser, Bellingham; Adelaide Oliver, Seattle; Marjorie Sundahl, McPherson, Kan.; Charlotte Svenson, Seattle; Elsie Tiffany, Ellensburg; and Mary Weber, Seattle.

Washington A is very proud of Alice Simpson, a sophomore, who was acclaimed "one of the foremost dramatic critics of the country" in an article in the October 18th issue of the Saturday Evening Post. She wrote a review of The Vagabond King and was later quoted in this magazine as one of the nine leading critics of this country.

Several members are prominent on the campus this year: Pat Reilly has been on many dance committees; Vivian Downey was assistant chairman of the homecoming reception committee and was general secretary of Dads' Day; Helen Vernon was on the try-out committee for the Junior Girl's Vodvil and was chairman of the woman's housing committee for the students of the High School Conference; Virginia White judged the beards of the sophomore men in their annual contest and found them to be very firm and determined to get along in this world; Wilmaglen Paddock was on the finance committee of the town girls' association; and Phyllis Stone was elected vice president of the Jamboree Club.

The pledges have also been outstanding this year. They have all been on several university committees, and Ruth Edwards and Margaret Daly were initiated into Washington Players. Marjorie Beyer was chosen to represent  $\Pi \Phi$  in the annual beauty contest sponsored by Tyee, the yearbook.

Louise Hastert, alumna, has been very prominent in the dramatic circles of Seattle. She has had the lead in several repertory plays and has been very successful in all of them.

Washington A has made the requirements of three extracurricular activities necessary for initiation. They have found this to be very satisfactory, for it enables the pledge to make new acquaintances, and also to be known on the campus. It also gives her new responsibilities other than in the house.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, September 23, 1930

INITIATED, December 13, 1930: Nettie Berreman, '33, Walla Walla; Sarajane Paulson, '33, Seattle; Myrle Chamberlen, '33, Tacoma; Margaret King, '32, Lewiston, Idaho; Jean Davis, '33, Ruth Combs, '32, Marjorie Neal, '33, and Geraldine Morris, '34, all Spokane, Wash.

GRADUATE: Marie Gillespie, Veradale, Wash.

Dorothy Cunningham Douglass, Iota Province President, made her chapter visit in November, an enjoyable and helpful one for Washington B.

The chapter is very happy to have won first prize for its act in the all college "Revue." The act was a burlesque of events behind the scenes in a radio broadcasting studio. The active  $\Pi$  Phi wrote, directed, and produced the skit. The prize of twenty-five dollars was sent to the Settlement School as part of the chapter's contribution. A prize of fifty dollars (\$50) from The Moon Gate, a gift shop in Pullman, was won for buying the most merchandise during the contest period.

Various honors were conferred upon members of the chapter. Helen Cleveland was initiated into  $\Phi \kappa \Phi$ , national scholastic honorary fraternity. Evelyn Schutz is an initiate of  $\Gamma A X$ , national advertising honorary fraternity. Mary Alice Allen is a new member of the college swimming honorary fraternity. Betty Bement, Leonore Brown, Margaret Steward, Cecilia Erlingsen, and Ingeborg Helgesen received certificates from  $\Phi \kappa \Phi$ , an underclass recognition of scholarship. Margaret King and Jane Dunning are now members of Orchesis, honorary dancing fraternity. Margaret Steward is a member of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet.

Evelyn Schutz was assistant director of Loyalties, an all-college play directed by E. Cynthia Larry. Myrle Chamberlen was also on the production staff. Jane Macpherson and Jean Davis had parts in School For Scandal presented early in February.

Jane Macpherson is serving as director of the style show which is to be sponsored by the Associated Women Students. Kathleen Lynch and Geraldine Odom are models. The music will be furnished by Willma Seipman.

The chapter entertained the members of  $\Sigma A E$  at dessert. This has come to be a custom on the campus. The annual Christmas party for the children of the resident alumnae was held. Santa Claus distributed candy and popcorn balls to the youngsters and many lovely gifts to the house. The next social affair to be given by the chapter will be an informal Pirate Dance.

Washington B announces the following marriages: Mary Maude Hungate to Coach Archie Buckley,  $K \Sigma$ ; and Helen Hall to Kent Eichenberger,  $\Sigma N$ .

OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Chartered, October 29, 1915

Pledge Day, September 27, 1930

INITIATED, January 31, 1931: Jane Cook, '34, Multnomah; Eleanore English, '32, 2138

Pine St., San Diego, Calif.; Lucy Howe, '34, 1514 Alder St.; Mary Louise Dodds, '34, 22nd and Friendly; Lois Scharpf, '34, 1838 Olive St., and Claire Fabe, '33, 1048 Mill St., all Eugene; Juanita Vinson, '34, 396 Jarrett, and Mary Ellison, '33, 1035 E. Davis, Portland; and Edith Jessop, '32, 800 First St., Coronado, Calif.

Oregon A announces the pledging of Rosina Forrest, a  $\Pi$  B  $\Phi$  daughter, on January 12; and Helen Shingle on January 18.

This year two members will be graduated who have more than done their share to bring honor to the chapter during their four years in college. Oregon A is indeed proud of Margaret Cummings and Dorothy Eberhard. Margaret Cummings belongs to  $\Phi$   $\Theta$  T, service honorary;  $M$   $\Phi$   $E$ , music honorary of which she is vice president; Amphibian, swimming honorary; Mortar Board, senior women's honorary; Kwama, sophomore honorary; Thespian, freshman honorary; and Polyphonic Choir. She has been general chairman of the big sister movement on the campus, treasurer of the W.A.A.; chairman of the Strawberry Festival, member of the Associated Women Students' council, directorate on the Greater Oregon committee, manager of her class swimming team, chairman of the ticket sale for educational lecture series, high school conference directorate, and University of Oregon delegate to the Associated Women Student's convention at Laramie, Wyoming. She has had honor scholarship standing all through college, and is now the president of the Associated Women Students at the University of Oregon.

Dorothy Eberhard belongs to Temenids, Eastern Star honorary, of which she has been both president and vice president; Kwama, sophomore honorary of which she was vice president. She has been vice president of her sophomore class in the university, cabinet member of the Y.W.C.A., chairman of Mothers' Day tea, chairman of Mothers' Day Vespers, chairman of April Frolic committee for two years, chairman of two campus class dance committees, member of the Greater Oregon committee, Oregon drive section director, and a representative of the lecture series. She now belongs to Mortar Board, senior women's honorary of which she is president.

Measures are being taken to control extracurricular activities among the freshmen. Every freshman must have one or more campus activities before being initiated. It is the general opinion that such regulations may aid a freshman to get interested and started in activities.

The annual Christmas party was an event of December 14, in honor of the alumnae. Gifts costing not over twenty-five cents were delivered by Santa Claus, in person, from around the tree. Each gift included a comical verse written about the person to whom the gift was given.

The week-end of January 9 found the campus overflowing with high school delegates who came to Eugene for the high school conference. Every organization housed from five to twenty-five delegates.  $\Pi$   $\Phi$  took care of twelve.

Definite plans are being made for rummage sales to be given in the house, the proceeds of which are to be sent to the Settlement School. Every member donates anything she no longer wants, including clothes, books, powder, and such. These things are gathered together and auctioned back to the different members. Both fun and money can be obtained through this method.

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, Indefinite

INITIATED, JANUARY 31, 1931: Ellen Hemenway, '34, 348 Lealie St., Salem, daughter of Mrs. Merton C. Hemenway (Lora B. Yaw, Washington A); Opal Cole, '33, 274 Willamette Blvd., Portland, sister of Mrs. Stanley Knox (Thelma Cole, Oregon B); Jean Ingle, '31, 425 W. Sixth St., Albany; Willene Dodd, '32, 688 Mira Mar Ave., Long Beach, Calif.; Arlene Loughary, '32, Goldendale, Wash.; Louise Ciliax, '33, 393 S. Sierra Bonita, Pasadena, Calif.; Margaret Drager, '33, 998 N. Capitol, Salem; Ruth Harrison, '33, 644 E. Ankeny, Portland; Gail Burnett, '33, 994 Bryce Ave., Portland; Eleanor Hoyt, '34, Enumclaw, Wash.; Lois Larson, '34, 3608-47th St., Seattle Wash.; Cecil Marrack '34, 530 Melville Ave., Palo Alto, Calif.; Edith Smith, '34, 109 East 43rd St.; and Enid Stidd, '34; 603 E. 55th N., both Portland.

Oregon B announces the pledging of Phyllis Marshall of Los Angeles, sister of Mary Marshall, California  $\Gamma$ .

The chapter's scholarship improved greatly last term, putting the house well upon the grade list in comparison with other women's fraternities. With a new system of directing participation in campus activities, every member and pledge has taken part in at least one activity and every field of activity on the campus is represented by at least one  $\Pi$   $\Phi$ .

Alice Ingalls, women's forensic manager, has returned from a three weeks' debate trip on which she successfully met teams of seventeen colleges in California and Nevada. Eloise Bilyeu, a varsity debater of last year, Emmajean Stephens, and Mildred Daley are also members of the squad.

The annual all-college tea had Rita De temple as general chairman with Ruth Harrison and Emmajean Stephens as members of subcommittees. Louise Ciliax was on the decoration committee for the Sophomore Cotillion at which a carnival spirit was carried out with a Mardi Gras idea.

Alice Ingalls was made assistant department editor of the Beaver, yearbook, and has been appointed general publicity manager for the women's stunt show.

Alumnæ, pledges, and members contributed to the annual rummage sale for the benefit of the Settlement School.

A campus beard contest that made one's best boy friend almost unrecognizable gave impetus to a decidedly informal "Pi Phi Gold-rush" at the chapter house. Hobo-men on reading a notice by a lantern hung on the barred front door that the hall had been closed by the constable were forced to sneak in through a back window. The first floor, decorated only with pioneer effects was lighted by lanterns which showed a realistic looking bar between the kitchen and dining room from which pretzels with beer (near) and ale (ginger) were served in bottles. The dancers, costumed as forty-niners, frolicked in gay revelry to even a Paul Jones which was printed with the program on a pair of large wooden dice held together with thongs.

CALIFORNIA ALPHA—LELAND STANFORD JR. UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1893

Pledge Day, January 28, 1931

California A announces the pledging of the following girls: Rose Cubbison, Stanford University; Eleanor Eaton, Watsonville; Virginia Elston, Piedmont; and Dorothy Swan, Piedmont.

Several girls are taking an active part in campus activities. Barbara Balfour and Elizabeth Hawkins are copy editors on the Stanford Daily, the daily newspaper published by the students. Elizabeth Watson and Martha Inge are reporters on the Daily. Eileen Aldwell is the woman's editor of the Chaparral, the comic magazine. Jean Carson is assistant editor on the Chaparral. Virginia Ingram and Louise Hudson are working on the Quad, the annual.

Mariana Evans and Helen Halderman are members of T Ψ T, the honorary psychological fraternity, while Eileen Aldwell is a member of X N K, honorary classical literature fraternity. Helen Halderman and Eileen Aldwell are honorary members of Hammer and Coffin, national honorary publication fraternity.

Many of the girls are active on campus committees and in class offices. Marion Hewlett and Elizabeth Hawkins are on the rally committee. Virginia Ingram and Helen Osborn are on jolly-up committees. Elizabeth McCullough is on the A.W.S. fellowship board, and Virginia Ingram is on the gymnasium fund committee.

Last quarter Barbara Balfour, Jean Carson, Marian Jones, Virginia Ingram, Anne McSweeney, Constance Morse, and Elizabeth Watson took part in the "Football Gaieties," an annual campus dramatic event which is presented on the night before the big game with the University of California.

In the field of athletics Elizabeth McCullough and Elizabeth Hawkins each won a script "S" this last fall. Elizabeth McCullough was the captain of the senior basketball team, while Louise Hudson and

Elizabeth McCullough was chairman of the Red Cross drive last fall; Barbara Balfour and Jean Carson were on the Sophomore Cotillion committees and Marian Jones, Elizabeth McCullough, and Elizabeth Hawkins were in charge of committees for the all-university carnival.

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Pledge Day, January 21, 1931

INITIATED, January 26, 1931; Emilie Adams, '34, 27 Hardwick; Eleanor Breed, '34, 160 Woodland Way; Mary Langon, '34, 20 Hardwick; and Virginia Vincent, '34, 19 Highland, all Piedmont; Alice Butler, '33, 2814 Woolsey; Betty Gerwick, '34, 721 San Luis Rd.; Marie Hall, '33, 2411 Hillside; Marjorie Smith, '34, 181 Hillcrest, all Berkeley; Lisbeth Chenoweth, '34, 1126 Pine St., Redding; and Katharine Torney, '34, 2828 Green St., San Francisco.

In the month of November, the chapter was visited by the Kappa Province President, Mrs. T. N. Alfred. The result of this enjoyable stay was the awarding of the province cup to California B.

College honors were awarded Perry Hahn and Emma Barham upon their initiation into Prytanean Honor Society. Janet Majors was appointed one of the chairmen for the annual dance festival, the Parthenia. Many of the freshmen are interested in Y.W.C.A. work and campus personnel. Eleanor Rowley, Stephanie Warshauer, and Emma Barham are on the advisory system, while Charlotte Ham is captain of the advisory system.

After the big game between Stanford and California, the chapter held open house for alumnæ and friends. Just before the end of the fall term the annual Christmas party was held, and there were presents for every member.

The university will commence its 1931 football season with a new coach, "Bill" Ingram, the former Navy coach. He will be received with much enthusiasm by all the students upon his arrival in March.

The chapter announces the pledging of Elizabeth Dunning.

ELEANOR ROWLEY

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Chartered, 1917

Pledge Day, January 23, 1931

INITIATED, December 11, 1930: Evelyn Peyton, 1109 Foothill Blvd., Altadena; and Nancy Jones, 325 Carolwood Dr., Bell-Air.

An informal dinner was given for Miss Mills and Miss Lott of Girls' Collegiate School, one of the prominent girls schools in Los Angeles. The dinner was given to show appreciation to them for all they have done for the chapter in the past.

Once a month there is a Y.W.C.A. dinner and meeting. All of the women's fraternities compete to see which one can have the largest attendance. Fashion shows, foreign speakers, and travel lectures are given as entertainment.

The Panhellenic formal was given on November 7. The Pi Phi's had charge of the decorations. The whole idea was carried out in autumn flowers and colors. Each girl in each house exchanged at least one dance with another girl in another house. This was a new idea and it worked out very satisfactorily.

Each year the college holds what is known as a "song fest." This year it was held on November 3. The Delta Gammas and Pi Phi sang an  $\Sigma A E$  song, "Violets."

Open house was held before the California-U.S.C. football game honoring California B chapter and the alumnae. Two of the girls of California B stayed on Friday night as chapter guests.

On November 15 the Grand Secretary, Gail DeWolf, came to visit the chapter. It was a very pleasant week-end, and when Miss DeWolf left on Sunday evening the chapter felt that she had left behind her an ideal by which California  $\Gamma$  could strive to higher things.

On Monday evening, November 24, Mrs. Haues presented Frances Johnson with a recognition pin for having maintained the highest scholarship in the freshman class.

The Christmas formal dinner dance was held on December 29 at the beautiful Bell-Air Club overlooking the ocean. Lamps were given as favors and were also used as table decorations.

The alumnae club met at the California  $\Gamma$  house on January 9 for luncheon and bridge. Too much cannot be said concerning the help and support given the chapter by the alumnae.

The Mothers' Club is also of great importance. In the past two years the chapter has been able to refurbish the house because of their help.

J. RUTH LANE

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES

Pledge Day, February 16, 1931

INITIATED, October 17, 1930: Mary Elizabeth Campbell, 2720 Highland Ave.; Dorothy Cannon Davis, Lincoln Apt., both '32, Glendale; Lorraine Smith, '31, 619 S. Van Ness Ave.; Ruth Ann Walker, '31, 5003 Marathon; and Dorothy Welbourne, '34, 965 S. Western, all Los Angeles.

California  $\Delta$  has had many social affairs this semester, but the majority of them have been for more than merely social purposes. A bridge benefit given on December 5 by the chapter netted \$200.00. On February 7, this chapter in conjunction with California  $\Gamma$  gave its annual bridge benefit for the Settlement School. This affair is given at the Biltmore, and is the one concentrated effort which is made each year by the two chapters.

The traditional formal Christmas dance was made useful as well as entertaining, this year, by including rushees. The Christmas kid party provided pleasure for a poor family and the girls, themselves, had a wonderful time.

In October, the girls' Hi-Jinx was given and California  $\Delta$  succeeded in winning the cup for the best skit.

The new student Union Building was officially dedicated on January 20. Within a month or two the two new gymnasiums are to be started. It is estimated that they will cost about half a million dollars.

The chapter's scholarship is improving. Strict study rules are in effect, and when the last grades were issued, this chapter was standing a good way above the university average, and just at the average of the women's fraternities. There is still room for improvement, and every effort is being made. The chapter did receive the honor of having Nancy Parent chosen for Prytaneean.

Mrs. Alford, Kappa Province President, paid the chapter an official visit which was greatly enjoyed by all of the girls. Her daughter, Adele, who is not in college this semester, also made her long expected visit at the same time.

Intersorority basketball has just ended with K K  $\Gamma$  the winner, and I I  $\Phi$  the runner-up.

A new pledge system has been adopted by California  $\Delta$ . It is called the black mark system. A list of rules and duties for the pledges has been drawn up, and for disobedience of any of these, the pledge is given a black mark. The awarding of the marks is left in the hands of the executive council. Five black marks prohibits initiation. The plan has been very successful and the members must be sure that they serve as excellent examples.

VIRGINIA HORNER

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Chartered, August 1, 1917

Pledge Day, September 28, 1930

Social life of the women's fraternities on the Arizona campus has been very limited due to regulations placed upon the organizations by Panhellenic council for breaking of rules during rush week. All social privileges were taken from all but three of the organization,  $\Pi \Phi$  being one of the three.  $\Pi B \Phi$  has always aimed toward "clean" rushing and Arizona A takes pride in living up to this aim.

The Arizona campus has been much improved this year with the addition of a women's recreation room, furnished by Y.W.C.A. Most of the work in financing the project has been done by a member of Arizona A, Franklyn Royer, as Y.W.C.A. financial chairman. Funds amounting to $100 have been raised principally by the making and selling of sandwiches at the various halls and houses on the campus. Many of the girls in the house have assisted in decorating the room and arranging the furnishings. This is the first time such a thing has been undertaken on the campus.

Another landmark on the campus in the line of something new and different is the snake den, built in the cactus garden. To look at the structure one would think it to be merely a pile of rocks, but on approaching the place, one finds the rocks surround a pit which safely houses many and varied members of the reptile family: snakes, gila monsters, strange lizards, etc. Students have been assured that the queer animals cannot possibly emerge from the den. It is all a part of the landscaping, and incidentally the snakes are to be used in experiments being carried on by Dr. Voorhies.

Activities of the chapter are varied. The last play given by the University Players, Fashion, had two Pi Phis in its cast. They were Ruth Pifer and Mary Jean Eads. Jean Copps, Franklyn Royer, and Dorothea, Wallace sang in the oratorio. Betty Risdon, a pledge, is feature editor of the Wildcat. The Kitty Kat subscription contest cup was won by Arizona A, as was the prize for being the first organization to go 100 per cent in the Red Cross drive.

An enjoyable privilege has fallen to two girls in the house, Franklyn Royer and Mary Adams, that of being enrolled to attend classes next semester at their leisure. It is a plan similar to the Oxford system, and this privilege has been granted from the department of psychology on the basis of grades.

Each year the president of the university gives a cup to the high school in the state whose group of graduates attending the University of Arizona has the highest grade average for the year. The cup went this year to Prescott, and Mary Jean Eads, an active member of the chapter, was one of the representatives.

MARGARET KOONS

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

Chartered, 1915

Pledge Day, Indefinite

Nevada A announces the pledging of the following girls: Mary Donaldson, Victoria, Tex.; Holyce Scruggs, 1302 B. St., Sparks; Margaret McClymont, 2514 Glenn Ave., Pasadena, Calif.; Anne Bartlett, 440 Ridge St.; Jean Rowe 20 Winter St.; and Mary Adaline Thompson, 1101 Riverside Dr., all Reno.

The rushing season from January 7 to 27, included four rushing parties for each women's fraternity. The  $\Pi \Phi$  parties were very successful, including a black and white party, a Chinese party, a friendship party and the wedding of  $\Pi B \Phi$  to Hap E. Ness for the formal party.

The plans for and a picture of the new house which the chapter will have for the fall semester were published in the weekly paper, the Sagebrush, and have caused much interested discussion. It will be the first women's fraternity house on the Nevada campus.

UTAH ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Pledge Day, January 17, 1931

INITIATED, November 13, 1930: Elizabeth Gibbs, '33 145 S. 4th East; Martha Jane Pier '33, 361 7th Ave.; Frances Clayton, '33, 1077 First Ave.; Mirra Jacobs, '33, 130 S. 7th East; Jane Shields '33, 322 Douglas St.; Christine Gossett, '33, 135 C St.; Muriel Hanson, '33, 1376 Princeton Ave.; Aileen Corfman, '30, 1231 E. 3rd South; Esther Rigby, '32, 1513 Michigan Ave.; Kay Meagher, '33, 111 O St., all of Salt Lake City; Mary Elizabeth Terrell, '33, Walker's Lane, Murray; Jeannette Berrett, '33, 1019 24th St., Ogden; Thelma Jensen Lee, '30, New York City; and Kay Bassett Weggeland, Tooele.

Utah A announces the pledging of: Marguerite Keller, Helen Thatcher, Virginia Parsons, Laura Young, Marjorie Ralph, Mary Elizabeth Bergin, Louise Isgreen, Clarice Larson, and Ann Genter.

The Utah University Redskin Gridders have captured their third successive Rocky Mountain Conference championship, and remain one of the few unbeaten football teams throughout the United States for the past season. When the Ute Redskins traveled to Boulder, Colorado, to play the University of Colorado, two Utah A Pi Phis were able to go along and swell the Utah cheering section.

During the autumn quarter, the alumnae club entertained at a charming tea at the chapter house where Settlement School Arrowcraft products were exhibited and orders for them were taken. Many friends of  $\Pi B \Phi$ , as well as the actives and their mothers, attended. The active chapter has also done its bit for the Settlement School in the Collier's campaign in which each active and pledge member were pledged to obtain at least two subscriptions. Fifty dollars was sent to the Settlement School.

On December 20 the chapter gave a Christmas party which it hopes will become a traditional affair. With the cooperation of the Community Chest Organization the names of needy families, with children, were obtained. Twenty of these "kiddies," ranging in age from three to eleven, were entertained at the chapter house with a Christmas tree, games, songs, "goodies," Santa Claus, and toys and gifts for everyone.

During the week preceding the Junior Prom, the opening social event of the winter collegiate social season at the University of Utah, open house is held by all the social organizations on the campus. Each endeavors to carry out a definite idea in their entertainment. The chapter this season presented "Inferno" as the theme of their open house. Cleverly arranged flames seeming to emerge from the walls and ceiling, miniature devils, the red glow of spot-lights, the featuring by the orchestra of "Dancing the Devil Away," "Turn on the Heat," "Sing You Sinners" contributed to the desired effect and atmosphere.

The local Panhellenic organization instituted, as an experiment, a new type of rushing for the past winter quarter rush week. Only personal dates are allowed in which no more than three fraternity women might participate. The rushing period is confined to four days, during which only four dates, one each day, were allowed with any rushee.

Early in November the chapter had a most enjoyable visit from the new Kappa Province President, Mrs. Alford.

Chiyo Thomas has been elected to  $\Phi K \Phi$ . Other individual honors held by Utah A members are: Junior Sponsor of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the University of Utah's unit, and vice president of A.W.S., held by Kay Hardy; senior representative on the Junior Prom committee, held by Helen Rothwell; vice president of the honorary musical fraternity, B  $\Delta$  M, held by Jean Romney; a part in the annual freshman play, The Ferguson Family, Louise Isgreen, a pledge; and four of the class representatives to A.W.S.

In this age of healthy competition, success cannot be attained through ordinary channels of service. Fair price, quick delivery, and honorable methods are all of vital necessity. Yet there exists a phase equally important, that of a personal interest and trust between the manufacturer and purchaser. It must bring a willing acceptance, at face value, of the word of an individual or chapter.

Our entire organization has been taught that the customer is always right. Perhaps there have been times when, in the course of developments, we may have been right. But right or wrong, we hold a firm belief in the integrity of those whom we serve.

Impassive business methods may have their advantages. Yet our records of annual growth might prove that our policy, old-fashioned as it is, may be right, after all.

The Panhellenic Creed

Adopted by N.P.C. in 1915

WE, the fraternity undergraduate members, stand for good scholarship, for the guarding of good health, for wholehearted cooperation with our college's ideals for student life, for the maintenance of fine social standards and for the serving, to the best of our ability, of our college community. Good college citizenship as a preparation for good citizenship in the larger world of alumnae days is the ideal that shall guide our chapter activities.

WE, the fraternity alumnae members, stand for an active, sympathetic interest in the life of our undergraduate sisters, for loyal support of the ideals of our Alma Mater, for the encouragement of high scholarship, for the maintenance of healthful physical conditions in chapter house and dormitory, and for using our influence to further the best standards for the education of the young women of America. Loyal service to chapter, college and community is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

WE, the fraternity officers, stand for loyal and earnest work for the realization of these fraternity standards. Cooperation for maintenance of fraternity life in harmony with its best possibilities is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

WE, the fraternity women of America, stand for preparation for service through the character building inspired in the close contact and deep friendship of fraternity life. To us, fraternity life is not the enjoyment of special privileges but an opportunity to prepare for wide and wise human service.
