To Our Founders - April 28, 1936

By KATHERINE FINNEY, Arkansas A, Π B Φ Fellow for 1935-36
A toast given at Arkansas A Founders' Day, 1935

The Goal in Arrowland

ALL Pi Phis are on a journey into Arrowland. What is their goal? There are targets in Arrowland just as in archery. When men shoot arrows for sport their goal is a series of concentric circles or rings, each ring having a different scoring value and a different color. The heart of the goal of highest value is a golden circle, outside of this is a red ring, outside the red is a blue ring, and on the outermost part is a large white ring.

In Arrowland there are goals of different meaning and different value. The white circle or general aim means completed studies, the whole college course. Without this there is no scoring in Arrowland.

Next is the blue ring just inside the white ring. It stands for completed courses plus loyal friendships. Blue means loyalty.

Inside the blue ring is the red ring. It means completed studies together with loyal friends plus brave service to fraternity and college. Red is the color of sacrifice.

At the very center of the goal is the golden circle where the highest score is made in Ar-rowland. It stands for completed studies together with loyal friends and brave service plus high ideals taught by Pi Beta Phi. Life is not little nor insignificant but is real and full of meaning in our Arrowland.

Pi Phis are proud that their is the oldest woman's fraternity and for their emblem they have a magnificent symbol, the arrow which is used in one of the oldest of sports. Roger Ascham wrote the classic on archery in 1545, almost four hundred years ago. He said young archers generally fall into the fault, when they shoot, of fixing the eye on the arrow rather than on the mark. To obviate this evil, he advises them to shoot in the dark by night at lights set up at the proper distances—a shrewd bit of advice.

Let us all, travellers in Arrowland, keep our eyes not on the arrow but on the goal beyond—the gold, the red, the blue, and the white circles—on the target of completed studies, loyal friends, service to college and fraternity, and a high purpose in life. These are the goal in Arrowland.

Pi Phis in the vicinity of Peking, China, gathered for their Founders' Celebration of 1935 at the Tung Chou American School, of which Gertrude H. Beggs, Colorado A, is principal, Etelle Sawyer Carlson, Maine A, whose husband is Captain Evans S. Carlson, United States Marine Corps, sent the picture and wrote of it: "It is a hot and extremely dusty two-hour drive beyond the North gate from Peking to Tung Chou. It can be made in less time, but you will regret it! The oasis of the lovely green lawn surrounding the school buildings, and the comfortable quarters of the teachers and the attractive dining room where we toasted Pi Beta Phi were a welcome sight! Those present were:

"Jane Beck Johnson, Wyoming A, wife of the American Ambassador to China, Josephine Hutchinson Neprud, Wisconsin A and Illinois Z, whose husband is head of Customs in Peking, Clementine Bash, teacher in the school, Thelma Havens Ballou, Vermont Alpha, wife of the Secretary of the American Board of Missions, Gertrude Beggs, the hostess, and Mrs. Carlson."

THE ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

MAY, 1936

EDITORIAL

PI BETA PHIS everywhere will be sorry to learn that the fraternity has lost one of its best beloved and most loyal friends in the death of Ford J. Allen, husband of Nina Harris Allen, Nebraska B, who passed away suddenly in Chicago on February 6. He will be happily remembered by all who have been to Conventions for years, especially to those for whom he made the special trains not only possible but delightful. Mrs. Allen wrote of him, "We were married at the Nebraska B house, and Ford always felt exactly as much obligated, as if he had been a member, to further the best interests of the fraternity. He went on many trips with me to the Settlement School, chapter visits, and on Special Train Trips to conventions. The very day before his death he helped with transportation plans for the coming convention." Mr. Allen was until his retirement General Dairy Agent for the Chicago and North Western Railroad.

The deepest sympathy of the fraternity goes to Mrs. Allen. We can ill afford to lose so fine a friend as Ford Allen.

We include this time two blanks, one for rushing recommendations, and one for Convention Registration.

The one for rushing is self-explanatory, and its use involves a two fold responsibility—the alumna who fills it out is responsible to the chapter for sending them definite, accurate information about a girl whom she considers a desirable addition to the chapter, and such information is invaluable to a chapter. The chapter in return is responsible for seeing that the chapter girls get acquainted with the recommended girl, and that every possible courtesy is extended to her, and further that she is not dropped from the rush lists for some trivial cause. A Dean of Women said last year that it would be helpful to a chapter if after rushing ended they went over their lists, both of those taken and those left out, and made an analysis of the causes for which they had rejected rushees. It would indeed be interesting!

In the rush of pledging time, it is not always possible for a chapter to write letters to all those who send recommendations, certainly not in sufficient detail to tell each alumna what is being done about the girls in whom she is interested. It is however, obligatory on chapters to acknowledge with a card every recommendation received.

Instructions for the use of the other blank, that for convention registration, will be found in the pages on Convention.

It is with pleasure that announcement is made that the Pi Beta Phi Graduate Fellowship for the year 1936-1937 is awarded to Frances Farrell, Kansas B. She will be graduated in June from Kansas State Agricultural College, at Manhattan, Kansas, where she has made a brilliant record.

NATIONAL PANHELLENIC CONGRESS in December was truly a wonderful experience, and an enlightening one, for which the Editor cannot be too grateful. A full account of its accomplishments appeared in the Panhellenic chapter in the History—re-read that, then read this extract from Miss Onken's report, which was sent out to all clubs and chapters. They express perfectly the spirit which should lie behind all Panhellenic gatherings:

Special emphasis was placed upon the desirability of a better-informed alumnae membership as a whole in order that fraternity alumnae may more intelligently work with city and college Panhellenics and may foster finer inter-fraternity relations. Officers who are constantly in touch with college and fraternity conditions have perhaps failed to realize fully how difficult it is for their alumnae to keep informed about the constant changes which come. Few if any fraternity women would intentionally disparage another fraternity just because that fraternity happened not to be represented on their campuses when they were undergraduates. The fact that it is a purely thoughtless and not an intentionally cruel comment does not take very much, however, from the hurt which comes to a member of a fraternity who over-hears some member of a better established and older fraternity than her own say of it: "What's Alpha Beta Gamma? A local? I certainly never heard of IT." As Pi Beta Phi, may we make a special effort to be Panhellenically intelligent and friendly! If we are, we shall be fully repaid as individual fraternity women by inter-fraternity friendships of great value. If the following list of N. P. C. fraternities includes names which are new to you, it will be well worth your while to learn of the things which these new groups are doing and of the place which they are making for themselves in the fraternity world: Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Phi, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, Alpha Omicron Pi, Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, Delta Zeta, Phi Mu, Kappa Delta, Beta Phi Alpha, Alpha Delta Theta, Theta Upsilon, Beta Sigma Omicron, Phi Omega Pi.

As Pi Beta Phi's delegate, I was asked to speak in the Round Table based upon the address by Dr. Smith, with the special subject, "What Can This N. P. C. Do to Insure the Future of Fraternities." I believe that I can best pass on to you what I got from N. P. C. by saying what I honestly believe and what I said at that Round Table.

"This N. P. C. can send us home with a renewed realization—

That a fraternity is primarily a thing of spirit, not numbers or houses or organization, important and necessary though each of them is, and that interfraternity is necessarily also fundamentally a thing of spirit.

That we can strengthen N. P. C. only when we work together to make it a thing of mutual agreements ethically and honestly abided by and of inter-fraternity feeling.

That the way to build up back of N. P. C. a spirit which will strengthen all fraternities is to build up, each of us, in our own chapters and alumnae clubs an understanding of the fact that while it is untrue to say that "it doesn't make any difference to a definite, specific girl what fraternity she joins," it is true that all fraternities are founded for the same purpose—to help girls get the most and the best from their college experience and to make this experience mean that they will be better able than they would have been without it to get the most and the best from their life after college—; that no one fraternity could possibly be the best or the right fraternity for every girl, since each needs an individual type of approach or emphasis to bring most effectively to her the things that are of the spirit; that no fraternity has only strong or only weak chapters and that each of any fraternity's chapters varies, from year to year, in strength; and that no chapter of any fraternity can "live on its reputation" or that of its national.

That there is a distinct value in the different approaches, methods, and needs of different fraternities, just as there is in those of different religious denominations, but that none can be its best self and that N. P. C. can not be the force which it should be unless there is mutual respect for these differences, appreciation for the individual achievements of each N. P. C. fraternity, and common emphasis upon the essential likenesses.

That as a fraternity each must believe—and act upon that belief—that N. P. C. and its children, College Panhellenics, will never be truly strong and the position of fraternities truly beyond question until these inter-fraternity associations accept their obligation to be not only groups to debate about rushing rules and common problems but also groups to strengthen common ideals and standards.

And that if N. P. C. fraternities all stood together to refuse to accept individually and collectively poor scholarship; chapter house atmosphere which fails to mean houses which are "the cultured homes of gentlewomen"; lack of cooperation with colleges in the things which work for the best interests of the college campuses as wholes; personal conduct and living which include lack of good taste or good manners and moral laxness or worse; we'd build up an understanding of the value of fraternity membership which would mean not that every fraternity could keep every chapter which it now has, because some were unwisely placed or unwisely developed, but enough chapters and strong enough chapters to insure each fraternity its continuance and its increasing strength and to make N. P. C. an organization with an influence for good beyond measuring.

AMY BURNHAM ONKEN,
N. P. C. Delegate for Pi Beta Phi.

RESERVATION SLIP

The Reservation Slip found in the February and May ARROWS should be filled out and mailed early to Mr. Noble MacFarlane, Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago. Assignment of

MR. W. M. DEWEY
Manager of the Hotel

(whose letter appeared in the Convention Supplement)

rooms will be made in the order in which reservations are received. Make your own reservation, whether you are an officer, a chapter or alumnæ delegate, or a visitor.

HOTEL RESERVATIONS

The hotel has made a special American plan rate of $6.75 per day for Pi Phis attending Convention. This is on the basis of two or more in a room.

West Lounge with its huge fireplace open on four sides—Edgewater Beach Hotel.

REGISTRATION FEE

A registration fee of $5.00 will be charged every person who attends any or all sessions. This fee covers for all the subscription to the Convention Daily: for those staying at the hotel and so attending the banquet without additional cost, it includes tips at the hotel for the time of convention; while for those not staying at the hotel, it includes the banquet. The only person released from the payment of the regular $5 registration fee will be the Pi Beta Phi who attends only the banquet: such a person will be required to pay $3.00 for her banquet ticket. Non-Pi Phis attending convention with Pi Phi wives or daughters and having the advantage of convention rates and privileges must pay the usual $5.00 registration fee.

Part of the Hotel's 200-Car Garage, Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago.

CONVENTION BADGE

Upon registration and payment of all fees, each person will receive a convention badge. This badge must be worn at all times, since it will be the admittance card to all convention functions. Non-Pi Phis who take advantage of convention privileges, will be given badges which will admit them to the diningroom and to open sessions of convention.

SERVICE

There is an excellent beauty parlor in the hotel. The hotel has twenty-four hour laundry service, excellent valet service and everything for your comfort and convenience. There is a garage in which the rates are reasonable connected with the hotel.

girls planning to attend who are interested in musical activities either in singing, playing accompaniments, or leading. It is hoped to make music a special feature, a welcome piece of news to those who remember the delightful work of the Utah Alpha Sextette at the Yellowstone Convention. Perhaps we may hope to have them with us again!

Write to the chairman, Miriam Chapman, Pi Beta Phi House, Hillsdale, Michigan.

ART EXHIBITION

An unusual and most interesting feature of this Convention will be an exhibition of the work of Pi Beta Phi artists and also that of Pi Beta Phi husbands. It will be placed in the hotel, and the plans are under the chairmanship of Laura Seaman Knapp, Iowa Gamma, with the assistance of committee members in the Chicago area. Be sure to see it—we have so many artists of whom we are proud!

Recreation

RECREATION is one of the outstanding features of Convention for through it we try to make every attendant's visit a happy and most enjoyable one. Your 1936 Convention home, The Edgewater Beach Hotel, is one of the most beautiful of its kind for recreational purposes in America. Ideally located on Lake Michigan, it affords beach or lake bathing as you desire, and for those who prefer to view the water, the Boardwalk offers inviting swings, and the spacious grounds adorned with beautiful flowers tempt you to rest and enjoy the peace and quiet of the blue waters.

BOAT TRIP

Arrangements are being made to charter a boat large enough to take all who so desire on a cruise along Lake Michigan's shores. This will give you a panorama of the city never to be forgotten.

Private Bathing Beach, Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago.

TENNIS

The hotel is equipped with tennis courts where you can play before or after breakfast. The courts are lighted at night so if you are not an early bird you may still snatch your daily game.

SWIMMING

An important event to both the participant and spectator is the swimming meet. The indoor pool of the Edgewater Beach Apartments, which joins the grounds by way of the Boardwalk, is provided for this event. This pool is the regulation 60 x 20 ft., beautifully tiled, with a direct view of the lake. For your convenience an entry blank is provided. If you are interested in participating in any or all of these events will you kindly check them and return the blank to

I am interested in participating in the following event at the Swimming Meet:

- Fancy Diving
- Breast Stroke (40 yards)
- Free Style (40 yards)
- Back Stroke (40 yards)
- Province Relay (4 girls to a team—each one to swim 20 yards)

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT THE SWIMMING MEET: WORLD CHAMPION SWIMMERS

Mr. Stanley Brauning, Athletic Director of the Lake Shore Athletic Club of Chicago, internationally famous swimming coach, who has produced many world champions and Olympic swimming team stars, will entertain us with a swimming exhibition to be given by some of the world champions. Principal among these will be Adolph Kiefer, the seventeen-year-old swimming marvel who holds every world's record for back stroke swimming. Mr. Brauning will also exhibit during this meet, young men who will represent the United States in the Olympic Swimming Championships to be held shortly thereafter in Germany.

Edgewater Beach Hotel Tennis Courts Illuminated for Night Playing.

BRIDGE

For those who play bridge, we are planning a tournament. This will run for three days—the hours to be announced on the Bulletin Board. If you are interested in this, will you kindly make a note of it on your registration blank before returning it. We should appreciate knowing how many are interested in this particular entertainment.

A bridge party will be held on Recreation Day. This will be an excellent medium for making new Pi Phi acquaintances and greeting old ones, once again. We are aiming to make this a most delightful occasion.

Card tables will be provided in the recreation rooms for all who wish to play a few rubbers of bridge at any time during their week's stay. Backgammon sets and monopoly games will also be provided, and if you are a ping-pong fan, that pleasure will also be available.

If your favorite pastime is not at hand, just mention it, and we shall lose no time in pleasing you.

FANCY DRESS BALL

The Fancy Dress Ball is a social occasion to which every Pi Phi looks forward. You must come prepared for this gala night. If, possible, assemble your costume before your arrival. However, if you wish to rent a costume, we have made arrangements with a theatrical costumer to give us professional rates on rentals.

The grand march is a colorful spectacle in which you will want your costume to be unusual and original. So be sure you give plenty of thought and ingenuity to this. Remember, the judges award prizes for originality, cleverness, and artistry. So dare to be different! This is one of the entertaining high lights of Convention.

GOLF

The hotel has arranged permission for those wearing the Convention Badge to play golf at two of the clubs nearby, upon payment of the regular greens fee.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS FOR CONVENTION

Transportation orders for delegates and officers will be handled as they have in the past, through Miss Onken. These orders are forwarded by Miss Onken to Mr. Max Goodsill, General Passenger Agent, Northern Pacific Railway Company, St. Paul, Minn., who sends transportation instructions to each delegate and officer having expenses paid.

All individuals, traveling at their own expense to the convention, are requested to take advantage of special Pi Beta Phi convention rates allowed by railroads from all parts of the United States.

If you are in this latter class, traveling by rail to the convention at your own expense, when you purchase your ticket to Chicago, buy a one-way ticket, asking your ticket agent for a receipt certificate. At the convention, this receipt certificate, which will be endorsed at the convention hotel by the National Secretary or her agent, will be honored for return ticket at one-third fare. This applies to all eastern and southeastern United States. From the western territory, ask your local ticket agent about the round trip summer tourist fares, because in many cases they will be lower than the fare and one-third convention rate above described.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM
MR. GOODSILL

Transportation arrangements for the convention are in charge of Mr. Max Goodsill, general passenger agent, Northern Pacific Railway, St. Paul, Minnesota, and as credentials for delegates and officers are received by him, transportation will be promptly forwarded together with itinerary, simplifying the plans for each delegate.

No arrangements have been made for transportation within Chicago. Taxicabs from downtown Chicago railroad stations to Edgewater Beach Hotel charge from $1.35 to $1.55 per cab, and three or four girls can be accommodated to each cab.

Elevated train service direct to "Edgewater" or "Berwyn Avenue," located within two blocks of the hotel can be taken from downtown railroad stations very conveniently, the fare being 10c. From "Edgewater" or "Berwyn Avenue" taxi fare would be 30c to the hotel.

Chicago Motor Coach buses can be taken either from Union or Illinois Central stations direct to the Edgewater Beach Hotel, but delegates using motor coaches should ask for transfers to Edgewater and receive instructions from the bus conductors.

Typical railroad fares from points from which delegates so far selected will travel are as follows:

From	Return Time limit of RR Ticket and Fare	Pullman Lower
Calgary, Alta.	Oct. 31	$76.80 $24.50
Washington, D.C.	No limit	55.56 16.50
Mason City, Iowa	Ten days	14.15 5.00
Trenton, N.J.	No limit	61.32 16.50

Earlham, Iowa	Ten days	15.55 6.00
Salt Lake City, Utah	Oct. 31	56.50 20.50

No limit—Tickets without restrictions as to expiration. Can be used any time desired.

Ten days—Tickets limited to 10 days in addition to date of sale.

Oct. 31—Tickets not good after midnight, October 31, 1936.

Pullman Lower fares are for round trip:

⁵ Fare shown applies from and return to Detroit, Mich., only.

The fraternity allows railroad and pullman transportation for delegates and officers who are awarded convention credentials, and this assumes direct transportation to and from the convention city. There may be cases where delegates desire diverse routes or extensions to their trips, for which they are willing to pay themselves. In all such cases, correspondence should be addressed to Mr. Goodsill at St. Paul.

CONVENTION GUIDE
Helen Pierce Bang (Mrs. Homer) Illinois E

ASSISTANT TO CONVENTION GUIDE

HAZEL SCHELP TAYLOR (MRS. CHESTER)
Illinois E

Hazel Schelp was initiated into Wisconsin A chapter on March 12, 1906. In 1907 she was transferred to Illinois E.

She has been active in the alumnae affairs of Pi Phi. She was the first president of the North Shore Alumnae Club, and served for five years on the advisory board of the Illinois E chapter.

CHAIRMAN OF TRANSPORTATION

NINA HARRIS ALLEN (MRS. FORD J.)
Illinois B

Nina Harris was initiated into Illinois B chapter on October 11, 1894. She has been active in Pi Phi work, having served as Grand Vice-President, and Alumnae Editor of THE ARROW. For some time she was active in the Chicago Alumnae Club, and has been Chairman of Transportation for all conventions since 1915 with the exception of the convention of 1934.

CONVENTION GUIDE

HELEN PIERCE BANG

Benjamin Franklin once said, "If you want anything done, send; if you want it done right, go." To those of us who have had the pleasure and privilege of working with Mrs. Bang the latter part of the proverb is written, "If you want it done right, get Helen Bang to do it." I could easily enhance my reputation for veracity by elaborately embellishing this theme but my instructions were to be more or less biographical.

Helen Pierce was graduated from Northwestern University in 1910. While in college she was a member of Alethenai, an honorary literary society. Since graduation she has competently served as President of the Chicago Alumnae Club, President and Treasurer of the House Board and at different times as a member of the Advisory Board of the active chapter. Mrs. Bang took a very active part in the planning and financing of the present chapter house.

She is alert, active, tireless, and an extremely efficient executive as we who know her can testify, and as all who attend the Convention will discover.

Pi Phi could put on a pretty impressive radio program if it assembled its Pi Phis and its Pi Phi husbands. Martha Crane of WLS could announce, and Rosemary Lane, Amos of Amos and Andy, and Lowell Thomas, along with other Pi Phis who appear on less widely known programs, would bring something to interest all of us.

Jane Sampson, Colorado A president and Convention delegate, was recently chosen

Junior Prom Queen; a member of Missouri Γ has been chosen Beauty Queen of the Senior Class; and Iowa B has had three of the eight campus beauties.

Three Pi Phis, Mary Alice Shackleton, Virginia A, and Dorothy Deuel, Michigan A, and Leila Werlein, Louisiana A have been selected for places in the "Who's Who Among College Students."

Two Pi Phi Tours

SHIP AHOY, PI PHIS!

Once more vacation time comes rolling 'round again—once more a trip for Pi Phi with ideas European! Where do we go this year?—Eight countries—England—Scotland—Holland—Belgium—Germany—Switzerland—Austria—France. We'll be in Berlin for the Grand Opening of the OLYMPICS.

How do we go? We sail on the French Liner, S.S. Champlain, July 11th from New York (so you can attend Convention and go to Europe too). We return on the beautiful new S.S. Queen Mary, of the Cunard Line, which will be launched this year as the newest and largest Liner in the world.

Again the party will be under the direction of Florence Smith, District of Columbia Alpha. Miss Smith, you remember, took the Pi Phi to Europe last year.

Here are a few of the Highlights included in our all-expense trip:

STUDENT LIFE—Eton, Oxford, Edinburgh, London, Bonn, Berlin, Heidelberg, Lucerne, The Sorbonne.

SPORTING AND SOCIETY EVENTS—Davis Cup matches at Wimbledon; several days at the Olympics in Berlin including the Grand Opening; an opportunity to bathe at famous Scheveningen Beach in Holland.

SCENIC—The Thames Valley by motor; the English Lake District by motor; through Scotland's Trossachs by Tally-Ho Coaches and steamer; the Zuyder Zee and the Isle of Marken in Holland; up the Rhine River by steamer past the Lorelei; Swiss Alpine motor trip visiting the Rhone Glacier; motor trip through lower Bavaria, Austria, and William Tell's Country; by motor through lovely Fontainebleau Woods.

HISTORICAL—Buckingham Palace; Westminster Abbey; Shakespeare's Birthplace; Kenilworth Castle; Warwick Castle; Roman Wall at Chester; Edinburgh Castle; Cologne Cathedral; Sans Souci; Lion of Lucerne; Waterloo, and Versailles Palace.

So—don't give up the ship, Pi Phi. Start getting your passports now and write, phone, or wire for your reservations to Florence Smith, 249 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. The same percentage as last year will be given to the Settlement School.

POST-CONVENTION TOUR ABROAD

Sailing! Sailing! Don't you want to sail to Europe on an ideal POST-CONVENTION TOUR? What a fitting climax to our Convention! Spend a summer in Europe on a College Group Tour! The price is within the purse of any Pi Beta Phi. Think of the low rate of visiting 10 countries for $795 (Tour 1 for 63 days) or Tour 2 for $655 seeing 9 countries.

SETTLEMENT SCHOOL will profit with a percentage on all Pi Phi members signing up with me for any of the seven STCA College Tours. There is a college tour that will suit you in every respect. Write me for the circular describing these tours in detail. MAKE MONEY FOR SETTLEMENT SCHOOL while you are enjoying a real trip. It is a chance in a life time!

JOIN UP NOW! The sooner you make reservations, the better. Travel will be very heavy this summer and cabins are being reserved rapidly—the best rooms are sold first. Make out your check for $25 payable to Brownell Tours and mail it to me. Later on, if you find that you cannot go and you cancel three weeks before the sailing date, your deposit will be refunded in full. On land the arrangements are with Brownell Tours, oldest private tour company in America, established 50 years ago; on sea, the Holland American Line.

Write TODAY that you are interested in joining my party of Pi Phi girls. Then we will meet in New York City, July 1 to sail on the S.S. Statendam, Flagship of Holland American Line, and sail Tourist style to have the time of our lives. From Chicago Convention, we would go direct to New York City together.

SENIORS, suggest this trip as a graduation trip. ALUMNÆ, take an inventory of your savings. This trip is worth more than the price!

A Trip to the Orient - June 28, August 24, 1936

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Youtz (Margaret Huffman, Iowa A), of 769 St. Marks Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y., "offer their friendly services" to Pi Phi desirous of going this summer to Hawaii, Japan, China, Manchukuo, and Korea. The total inclusive cost is $687, and further particulars may be had from Mrs. Youtz. Reservations should be made as soon as possible.

Pi Phis Lead the Mardi Gras

BRILLIANT, colorful, sparkling, glamorous, beautiful—all the adjectives fail when an attempt is made to describe the New Orleans Mardi Gras season, with its parades, its gorgeous balls, its throngs of maskers in the streets. Most wonderful of pageants in the country, it has lived through many years with all the verve of its Latin antecedents, and this year had its most beautiful setting, its largest attendance for several years.

In the coveted honor of election as queens of the carnival and of the various balls, members of Pi Beta Phi in New Orleans have always had their full share. This year, it would seem that they have had somewhat more than their share!

Queen of Rex, chosen for the highest place of all, was Coco Jahncke, Louisiana Alpha. Her portrait in her robes of state, is the frontispiece of this issue—a lovely successor to the other women of her family who have had their turn at queenship, for her mother, Cora Stanton Jahncke and her sister, Adele Jahncke Dotson, both Louisiana Alphas, were also Carnival queens. It is interesting that Coco was born on Twelfth Night, January 6, 1915, the opening night of the Carnival festivities for that year, when her father, Ernest Lee Jahncke, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was King Rex, and that she was presented with a scroll naming her Princess Royal.

In the balls which lead up to the crowning glory of Rex, Coco was also a maid of honor three times. Other queens whose pictures are here also appeared more than once—Lynne Hecht as Queen of Proteus and Athenians, Augusta Walmsley, Queen of Comus and of Twelfth Night Revellers, Leonora McLellan, Queen of Mithras, Pamela Robinson, Queen of Atlantians.

Each of these girls appeared several times as maid at other balls, and besides the following girls, also all members of Louisiana Alpha, took part: Mary Lee Baker, Phoebe Flowers, Peggy Brenchley, Louise Taylor, Frances Westfeldt, and Minna Hopkins.

Queen of Atlanteans

PAMELA ROBINSON—gown of satin, ornaments on dress and court train flowers of brilliants—the entire motif being flowers and birds.

Queen of Comus

AUGUSTA WALMSLEY—white satin, studded with rhinestones, with mantle of gold-colored velvet, embroidered with pearls and rhinestones.

Queen of Mithras

LEONORA McLELLAN—gown of white velvet, lavishly trimmed with rhinestones.

Queen of Proteus

LYNNE HECHT—gown of cloth of gold, embroidered with rhinestones, train of brilliant red velvet, encrusted with jewels, and bordered with ermine.

Jonel Jorgulesco Interviewed by Milton Cross*

Over a Coast-to-Coast Network of the National Broadcasting Company, February 15, 1936

Broadcast from the Metropolitan Opera House, New York City

MILTON CROSS: I'm sure many of our listeners recall how, a few weeks ago, our engineer, Mr. Charles Gray, told us of the important rôle played by the stage settings in our Metropolitan broadcasts. For the radio audience, the function of the scenery is one of acoustics—reflecting the sound of voices and orchestra like a sensitive mirror, into the microphones. Well, today, we're fortunate in having with us a man who, despite his youth, is responsible for the design of some very beautiful and unusual settings and costumes recently added to the equipment of the Metropolitan, and this season opened with his new decors for Verdi's "La Traviata" and Wagner's "Die Walküre." His name is Jonel Jorgulesco. Mr. Jorgulesco has graciously consented to brave today a new kind of proscenium—our radio proscenium here in the broadcasting booth—to tell us something of the art of designing stage sets!

Mr. J.: Excuse me, Mr. Cross. It's a little unkind of me to tell you this after that amiable introduction. . . . But I understand in opera we no longer refer to them as "sets."

Cross: No? What are they now?

Mr. J.: Well, according to some of the press announcements lately, they're investitures.

Cross: Investitures. That's an impressive way of putting it.

Mr. J.: Isn't it? But I daresay a setting is still a setting, no matter how you term it.

Cross: Well, we certainly can't question your authority on the matter. Tell us how you happened to begin designing for the stage.

Mr. J.: Well, as a little boy in Berlin—my father was a Rumanian, hence that long, unpronounceable name, though my mother is from a family which had been settled in America for generations—but as I was saying, as a small boy in Berlin, my mother used to take me to many, many operas. Later, at home on my little toy stage, I'd pretend to produce operas of my own, on miniature sets I built myself.

Cross: The child is father of the man—

Mr. J.: Yes, in my preoccupation with scenic problems, I think that's true.

Cross: And you prefer opera sets to all others?

Mr. J.: Frankly, yes. Because I derive most of my inspiration from music.

Cross: Oh, so you base your conception of the designs on the score.

Mr. J.: Yes, indeed. I think you have to feel and comprehend the mood which the composer tries to create before you can express it visually. The pattern of the setting, its proportion and its color are means of expressing the psychological atmosphere of the music. The setting must take on a "Musical" quality.

* Mr. Jorgulesco is the husband of Mercedes Jorgulesco, editor of the "From Pi Phi Pens" department of THE ARROW.

Cross: Perhaps you could illustrate that. Let's take a specific setting.

Mr. J.: Gladly. You may remember how the walls of the rooms and the exterior scenes in "Don Pasquale" were all curved. I tried to express here some of the gay, rippling music of Donizetti. Everything spelled rollicking fun. The atmosphere we had to create was one of delightful, charming intimacy.

JONEL JORGULESCO

Cross: I see. And now, in contrast—

Mr. J.: Well, contrast instantly suggests Wagner. The realization of Wagner's demands for scenic illusion is probably the most difficult in all opera.

Cross: In what way?

Mr. J.: Wagner insists on naturalistic illusion on one side, and emphasis on the symbolic nature of his themes and characters on the other. In the settings for "Die Walküre" I tried to give the impression of a prehistoric world peopled by super-human beings, dwelling among barbaric, monumental rocks that glow with fierce color. In the last act, I think the scene should convey a sense that this is the top of the world—and a place only for gods and man who knows no fear.

Cross: There's a large element of poetry in scene designing then, isn't there?

Mr. J.: Well, a feeling for poetry, at least. In "La Traviata" the problem was entirely different, but just as exciting. There were two distinct worlds to portray. One, the light-hearted atmosphere of Parisian night life, and the other the quiet, country place of Violetta's death chamber. In acts one and three the colors are bright and lush. They seem to advance. In the other two acts they are neutral and receding.

Cross: And what are the steps that evolve this finished effect?

Mr. J.: First, I study the score and libretto. Then come hundreds of rough sketches, while my wife plays the score over and over again for me—the poor dear. Then come conferences with Mr. Johnson and the stage director, to determine whether or not my model is practical for the action. For example, we must be sure that in the setting Basso A can walk the distances we're allowed for his next cue or not.

Cross: Is that so important?

Mr. J.: And how! You know bassos don't walk as fast as sopranos and tenors and there may not be enough bars of music. So we shorten the distance between the door and the table. Then there are other practical problems we must consider. For example, that very problem of acoustics which you mentioned in introducing me. . . . If the setting is shaped badly from the sound viewpoint, the artist may not be able to hear the orchestra properly—and that, obviously, would distort the performance.

Cross: I can see there's a lot to scene designing besides the mere creation of a poetic, musical illusion.

Mr. J.: There certainly is! But in building the settings, one learns many things—the joy of co-operation with other people—with the painters, the stage managers, the men who operate the fine lighting equipment here at the Met. They've all been cordial and obliging. And of course, in compensation for the hours of hard work, there's always the joy of hoping you've done not only a workman-like job, but also an artistic one—a setting which approximates the mood of the great music it reflects.

Cross: Thank you very much, Mr. Jorgulesco. You've given us another and extremely interesting side of that complex art—the production of grand opera.

A Librarian of Dolls

MRS. KATHARYN MILLER LAGRANGE, Indiana A writes:

MRS. KATHARYN MILLER LAGRANGE

Porte, Indiana, last summer, it was necessary for me to work out recreational projects.

My sister noticed a small item in the Readers' Digest about a doll library that had been started in Philadelphia, and we concluded that one would work in La Porte.

The dolls were obtained by donations from various women's clubs. There were about a hundred dolls, and we divided them into groups so that each of the five playgrounds in the city had dolls to loan. The director in charge of the field was also in charge of the library. A child was allowed to play with any doll she chose during the time she was at the playground, but she was not allowed to take one off the playfield. If a child returned a doll in bad condition, and if the condition was caused by the child's negligence, she was not allowed access to the library again.

The dolls were of all sizes and shapes, ranging from a tiny baby model to one that was nearly as large as some of the smaller children. We had no character dolls inasmuch as none were donated and no money was allotted to purchase any.

This project is of value because it opens up others, such as sewing clubs to make doll clothes, and carpenter clubs to make doll houses.

I have received a number of letters from other cities concerning this project, one of them being from as far away as Wichita, Kansas.

A Pi Phi Doctor

By ELINOR BLACK

Recently Appointed Assistant Obstetrician, Winnipeg General Hospital

MY WORK might be summed up by saying that it has to do with the reproductive end of that large mass of humanity—that bane of municipal administrators and boon to medical teachers—the indigent ill.

Women, about to have, or who have recently had babies come under my care, as well as women who are suffering from those "ailments peculiar to women" who have not improved under the administration of patent medicines. For two hours each afternoon these women come to the hospital for diagnosis and treatment by my colleagues and myself, and incidentally supply teaching material for medical students and interns, this procedure constituting what is known as an Out-patient Clinic. As long as these women are progressing favorably, they continue as out-patients; should their confinement commence or hospitalization become necessary, they are admitted to the wards.

The doctors on the Honorary Attending Staff take charge of the wards for alternate three month periods, thus dividing the time-consuming and unremunerative job of looking after patients who are public charges. Instruction of medical students is also undertaken on the wards by means of making rounds with the attending staff doctor and by special teaching in the delivery room during the production of a new public charge. It is proved statistically that as many babies are born during the day as during the night, but to an obstetrician who is called out of a warm bed at 3 A.M. three nights in succession to rush up to the hospital and teach a group of ten sleepy students the essential points in working as flunkey to the stork, it seems that statistics lie.

A year ago I also received an appointment on the Medical Staff of the Children's Hospital here—an opportunity which I accepted with alacrity because it gives scope for experience with that most enfeebling of patients, a spoiled child.

One of the great advantages of obtaining a position on the attending staff of a hospital lies in the fact that one is able to keep one's hand in while trying to build up a private practice. Thus during the first two years of my practice while I was attending the Outpatient clinics merely as a willing worker, I looked forward eagerly to the two hours each afternoon when I would not have to sit in my office awaiting hopefully the footsteps that did not arrive. Then, when the practice begins to flourish, the staff position keeps one in contact and controversy with one's colleagues and hence is an incentive to further study and progress.

These appointments are purely honorary, with no monetary remuneration, but the experience and the contacts which they provide more than repay one for the time taken from private and professional life.

M. and S.L. to Be on Block Friday

M. and S.L. are to be on the block on Friday, with the public invited to see the display.

The Minneapolis Alumnae Club made the headlines at their February meeting, when Mr. Nathan Crabtree, Assistant to the publisher of the Minneapolis Star, was the guest speaker.

His talk was educational and as he finished Aurilla Smith—Pi Phi in Advertising Department of the Minneapolis Star—distributed an "Extra" edition of The Evening Star announcing that "Pi Beta Phi Sorority Has Annual Election." "Pi Phi named Jane Arden." Everyone can well imagine the thrill and glee the group received from this edition. It contained a very clever article on the newly elected officers—Louise Boos, President, Betty Wood, First Vice-Pres., Gladys Scott, Second Vice-Pres., Mrs. Margaret Bull, Third Vice-Pres., Eleanor Cowles, Recording Secretary, Jane Mason, Corresponding Secretary and Meredith Hellickson, Treasurer. There was also a picture of Dorothy Lewis, Pi Phi from Knox College, who was selected from 3000 girls in "Jane Arden Contest" sponsored by the Minneapolis Star. She has taken the part of Jane Arden in a new radio program produced by Station WCCO.

Dorothy Lewis was given $100, a new outfit from suit to unmentionables, a round trip plane ticket to Chicago, a suite at the Stevens for a week, and was given a broadcast over stations of the Columbia network.

Over the World

Mary Thurman Pyle, Virginia Γ, play writer and specialist in play production for amateurs, is with the play department of Rowe, Peterson and Company, Publishers, Chicago.

Mary Virginia Smith, District of Columbia A, is assistant secretary to the State Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, at Madison.

Welthy Honsinger Fisher, New York A, brilliant writer on the Far East and Mexico, is living in Detroit, where her husband is pastor of the Central Methodist Church. He was formerly Bishop of Calcutta, where they lived for ten years.

Jane Gaston, Wisconsin A, is teaching Fine Arts at Columbia University, New York.

Martha McGrew, District of Columbia A, is secretary to Major Lenox Lohr, the new president of the National Broadcasting Company, at Radio City, New York.

Grace Goodhue Coolidge, Vermont B, last fall became president of the board of trustees of the Clarke School for the Deaf, in Northampton, Mass., where she taught before her marriage.

Mary Burnett, Utah A, whose lovely voice will be remembered in the Utah A Sextette at the last Convention, gave a vocal recital at the Settlement School benefit in Salt Lake City.

Daisy Moser Hawkins (Mrs. Stanley), Wisconsin A, is living in Santuao, Fukien Province, China, where her husband is with the Chinese Maritime Customs.

Blanche Calkins, Colorado B, has recently returned to Denver after two years of study of International Relations at the University of Hamburg, and the University of Munich.

Ruth Clark, Washington A, has won a two year scholarship in the school of music at the University of Washington. Her instrument is the flute.

Ora May Ballinger Welch, Ohio A, member of the musical faculty at L.S.U., is president of a province in Sigma Alpha Iota, national music fraternity.

Mary Ainsworth, Iowa Z, is a stylist for the Chicago Mail Order Company, making frequent trips abroad to study styles and interview designers.

Jay Purves, Illinois Z, represented the United States at the World Championship Games in Table Tennis at Prague, Czechoslovakia, in March.

Alice Troxell McCoun has published poems in the Christian Science Sentinel which have been reprinted in both the Cornwall House Spring Anthology, 1935, and in Contemporary American Women Poets Anthology, 1936.

Genevieve Hendricks, Wisconsin A, of Washington, D.C., one of the most successful and sought-after interior decorators in the United States, is now engaged in the re-decorating and re-furnishing of Hollins College, once the home of our Virginia Beta Chapter. She was consulting decorator for the new building of the Department of Commerce, in Washington. The ARROW hopes to have an article about her work in the near future.

Hazel Wishard Brown, Iowa A, editor of the Sanger Herald, Sanger, California, of which her husband, Roy A. Brown, is the owner, was chosen Queen of the All-American Weekly Newspaper eleven when Professor J. H. Casey of the University of Oklahoma announced his selections for it last week. Mrs. Brown writes a most entertaining column in connection with her editorship.

Jo Betsy Miller Allred, Texas B, wife of the Governor of Texas, is a writer of charming songs, and a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority. She must be greatly delighted by the fact that the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce has honored Governor Allred as the most outstanding young man of the year!

Dr. Esther McDonald Lloyd-Jones, Illinois E, who is director of the Guidance Laboratory of Teachers College, Columbia University, was elected president of the American College Personnel Association at their recent meeting in St. Louis.

Marjorie Hammer, Florida A, was the only woman member of the last Senior Law class at John B. Stetson University. She will practice law.

Mary Virginia Warren, Florida B, and Louise Binnicker, Florida B pledge, were maids of honor to the Queen (herself a Kappa Delta) of the festival of Gasparilla at Tampa, Florida, February 10.

Helen Watrous, Louisiana A and Florida B, was crowned Queen of the Pageant of Sara de Sota at Sarasota, Florida, in February. She is a teacher in the Out-of-Door School in that city.

Doris White, Iowa Γ, was pictured among beautiful co-eds of Iowa State college in the Chicago Tribune pictorial section for February 16.

Helen Nafe Elliot, Colorado A, is a police-woman with the Seattle Police Department.

Viola Collins Hogarty, Colorado B, is living in Torreon, Mexico, and writing short stories of the life of the country.

Virginia Kimmell, Indiana B, daughter of the mayor of Vincennes, Indiana, was chosen by Secretary of the Navy Swanson to christen the new cruiser Vincennes.

Coco Jahncke, Louisiana A, christened the U.S.S. New Orleans. We'd like to hear of other Pi Phis who have had the same honor.

Health Culture for January 1936 has an interesting article on Mary Copley Hogle, Kansas A, of Salt Lake City, and her work in establishing the Mary C. Hogle Foundation to carry on health work.

Mildred Taitt Milton (Mrs. Jeff D.) New York A, is living at Tombstone, Arizona, on Route 80, the Broadway of America. She would welcome visits from Pi Phis who pass that way.

Margaret Williams Bull, Missouri A, is living in St. Paul, and raising pure-bred wire-haired fox terriers for sale.

Florence Collins Peterson, Wyoming A, writes that she has had nine children, and wonders if that is a record for Pi Phis? Might we hear from others?

Jane Sampson, Colorado A president and convention delegate has been elected editor of The Spur, the excellent magazine of the national sophomore society Spurs.

Jeanice Ulrich, California Δ, was chosen as the typical co-ed on the U.C.L.A. campus.

Olive Keller Laurence, Minnesota A, is recuperating from a recent very serious motor accident.

Anne Guthrie, Colorado B and California A, is advisory consultant for the Y.W.C.A., in Manila, P.I.

Annie Edgar, Ontario A, is a nurse at St. Luke's Hospital, Palampur, Punjab, India.

A Birthday and an Anniversary

Carrie Chapman Catt, Iowa A, famed leader, celebrated her seventy-seventh birthday in New York recently. A hundred and fifty of her friends gave her a luncheon at the Woman's University Club. In the program which followed there was sung an "Ode to Peace," set to the music of the Ninth Symphony of Beethoven, by Caroline Schwefel

Brown, Ohio A. Mrs. Brown is a former president of our New York alumnae club, of which Mrs. Catt herself is an honorary life member.

Mrs. Catt's golden anniversary in suffrage work was honored at the Eleventh Annual Conference on the Cause and Cure of War, held in Washington last January.

FROM PI PHI PENS

Edited by MERCEDES BAKER JORGULESCO, Massachusetts A

DO YOU KNOW OF ONE?

Nothing would warm the cockles of your editor's heart more than to be told of books by Pi Beta Phi authors. Either Pi Phi authors are overly modest or your editor is asleep at her job, for it is most difficult to keep posted on new books by members of our Fraternity.

So—if you hear of a modest author writing a book, magazine article, etc. won't you drop the "From Pi Phi Pens" editor a note? We promise to keep the sources of our information strictly confidential so that even your overly modest author will not point an accusing finger at you.

SOMETHING NEW ON THE PROGRAM

Several alumnae clubs have adopted the interesting program of reading books by Pi Beta Phi authors. The Westchester County and Pittsburgh Clubs have done so and found an unusually varied list of books for review.

If this idea appeals to your group, your editor will furnish a list of those books which have been found most adaptable to study or comment.

"I OUGHT NOT TO CALL MYSELF THE AUTHOR"

Perhaps you have already read Ethel Hueston's Star of the West. If you haven't—do. It will be worth your reading time.

To the Library of Congress, went Mrs. Hueston and prevailed upon those in charge to loan her the original Journals of Lewis and Clark. With these tucked under her arm, she and her Pi Beta Phi pledge daughter climbed into a Ford and retraced (in more modern fashion, to be sure) the steps of those two intrepid explorers.

To rewrite another's story, to search in cut-and-dried annals for the romantic and dramatic and yet—what is by far the most important—to adhere strictly to the authentic, to do these and do them well, is indeed a task. We think that Star of the West is the best book this Pi Beta Phi author has written.

Says Mrs. Hueston, "I ought not to call myself the author of this book. It was really written by six dead heroes, Americans all. Their names were Lewis and Clark, Floyd, Ordway, Whitehouse, and Gass. I have merely novelized the Original Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition—America's Epic of Exploration.

"In preparation for this work, I made a thorough study of the Journals themselves first of all; then of all editorial references, comments, letters and historical documents; I conferred with the Historical departments of many states; I went to St. Louis and followed the route of the expedition, up the Missouri River to its source, across the Shining Mountains, down the Clearwater, Snake and Columbia Rivers to the site of Fort Clatsop on the Pacific coast. . . . Historically, I believe, the work is authentic in every important detail."

Someone aptly described Star of the West by saying, "Here in dramatic, compact, authentic form is the thrilling tale of a momentous expedition. With all the skill of the practiced novelist, Mrs. Hueston has recreated the very life and color of the hazardous way, and the inspiration that led the handful of hardy Americans onward and ever onward. . . . It is a story grandly worth the telling and splendidly worth the reading."

DAUGHTER OF A DISTINGUISHED CONFEDERATE GENERAL

LILY LOGAN MORRILL, Louisiana A
From a portrait by Elizabeth Morrill Phillips

Lily Logan Morrill, Louisiana A, author of My Confederate Girlhood has recently greeted her young readers with another fine book entitled Virginia's War. This is a story concerned with the colorful and stirring days of the Civil War.

Like Mrs. Hueston, Mrs. Morrill has recognized the importance of historical accuracy and has combined it with a thrilling story well told. Small Pi Beta Phi sons and daughters will enjoy reading about the exciting adventures of Virginia Grey.

Mrs. Morrill is a Virginian and a daughter of a distinguished Confederate General.

"DREAMS ARE FUN TO BUILD"

There is a new star in the Pi Beta Phi book firmament, destined to shine with increasing brightness as time passes. We refer to Mrs. Mark Harris (Polly Clover Harris, Maryland A) who writes under the name of Clover Harris.

Mrs. Harris has the charm of not taking herself too seriously, as you will see. We asked her to tell us how she came to write those breath-taking, hair-raising tales of hers and we are quoting below her answer. Perhaps you will see revealed herewith that scintillating personality that endears her to all her friends.

"On the seventeenth of February, 1933, my career as a writer of detective stories began with the publication of a book called Hide and Go Seek. Just three weeks later the banks were closed throughout the country. There was no direct cause and effect relationship here that I am aware of—but it was a bad break for the budding and extremely hopeful author. During the bank holiday, the book business was virtually at a standstill—and by the time things had returned to what we chose, in those sad days, to call normal, other new detective novels had appeared to take the center stage, and the debut of Clover Harris was rather thoroughly lost in the literary shuffle.

"If, however, the publication of this first volume—which represented more than a year of the most frantic efforts on my part—failed to bring me the world-shaking prominence and fabulous wealth which I had dreamed of, there were certain compensations. Here and there people liked the book well enough to write and tell me so—for which kind deeds may they be crowned in heaven—and such small critical notices as the novel received were sufficiently favorable to warrant my trying again. And so, after a brief interlude, I embarked on a second book called Going to St. Ives. This story involved the adventures, in murder and theft, of a staid but gallant Professor of English named Miss Belinda Stebbins—and the background of action was set in a college in Baltimore which was roughly suggestive of Goucher. (It was at Goucher College where I had, a few years before, become a Pi Phi.)

"By the time my second effort was complete, I had acquired a literary agent, who, in turn, had acquired a market for me which was more profitable and more certain than the precarious book field. Going to St. Ives was duly sold to, and published by Mystery Magazine, which is one of the Five Tower publications. During the past year and a half my work has appeared almost exclusively in Mystery Magazine, and has included another novel called Three Blind Mice, and short stories.

"My latest opus, The House that Jack Built, was published in the August issue of Mystery, which was on sale at newsstands and Woolworth Stores—for the tremendous sum of ten cents. This novel, replete with thrills, suspense, and as much horror as I could manage to think up, I can heartily recommend to all Pi Phis and their friends and relations!

"Eventually, of course, I hope to work back into the book field—and my chances in this direction have taken a distinct turn for the better since my husband's recent change from college teaching to the publishing business!

"The difficulties which have so far beset my small career have been numerous and painful—but not overwhelming. After the initial struggles of learning the mechanics and technique involved in the production of a detective novel, I am no longer faced with the necessity of rewriting whole sections of a manuscript. Mystery writing is a formula which, once mastered, can be used again and again to fit as many plots as one can conjure up. Other problems—such as the discipline necessary to keep myself to my stint of three typed pages a day while I am working on a story—are not so easily overcome. And, of course, the hazards and uncertainties of pleasing Editors we have always with us.

"But the satisfactions and pleasures of authorship are, to me, more than sufficient to compensate for the irritations thereof. And always there is the beacon of Success shining distantly but oh, so temptingly in hopes for the future. Hopes involving visions of Fame, Movie Rights, Vast Wealth—and other dreams far too fantastic to reveal here. The nice thing about hopes, though, is that however outlandish they may be—they are still great fun to build and contemplate!"

SIGNPOSTS TO MUSIC

Another Pi Beta Phi, Mary Alvaretta West Iowa Z, has won acclaim for her literary (and this time musical) achievements. Her book, which is entitled Signposts to Music delves into the major phases of musical activity—Melody, Rhythm, Harmony, Form, Songs, Dance Types, The Orchestra and Composers.

"Her record in this field," writes Russell V. Morgan in the Preface, "coupled with her demonstrated musical power in the field of piano recitals and general musicianship, will explain the quality of the material."

Says the Iowa City Press, "Attractive in appearance, arrangement of subject material, and presentation of ideas, Miss West's book should do what obviously she hopes for it, lead more men, women and children into a world of music where they may find much they have missed, and to which they in turn may find it possible to contribute."

And Herbert Elwell in the Cleveland Plain Dealer declares, "Alvaretta West, faculty member of the Cleveland public school music department, is to be complimented on her book. . . . Unlike so many books on music appreciation, especially those designed for the schools, this one provokes thought and stimu-lates the student's initiative. At the same time it is simply set forth in easy, progressive stages and plenty of reference material and practical suggestions for helping one to acquire musical sensitivity and an elementary comprehension of music as an art as well as a craft."

"NOT SENTIMENTAL OR OVER-MORALISTIC"

Anna Pettit Broomell, Pennsylvania A, that distinguished Pi Beta Phi who designed our beloved Coat of Arms, has written The Children's Story Caravan. "World Events" a periodical devoted to the problems and progress of the peace movement, makes the following comment.

"Mrs. Broomell, working with the counsel of some experienced peace workers who are interested in social justice also, and with an introduction by Dorothy Canfield Fisher, has done a remarkably fine job. The book is substantial and filled with stories, based on fact and fiction, that children will delight in. The volume is directed toward an idealistic view of the social scene, but not sentimental or over-moralistic."

Among the most important non-fiction books of the year is I Knew Them in Prison by Mary B. Harris, Pennsylvania B. This illustrious Pi Beta Phi is a leading authority on female penology and it is therefore, small wonder that Warden Lewis E. Lawes and Mabel Walker Willebrandt have joined those lauding the author and her book.

Of Dr. Harris and her book, it has been said, "There have been many books about men in prison; this is the first about women in prison. Twenty years of prison work have given Mary Harris a unique insight into the mind and heart of the woman criminal. In this sympathetic story she tells of her career and gives us the tragedies and comedies, personal problems and social conflicts, of the thousands of wayward women who have come under her benevolent care."

"Should be read by everyone interested in good citizenship. . . . A worthwhile biography and a most readable story of development in prisons, with penetrating comments on the people who have been associated with her."

—MABEL WALKER WILLEBRANDT.

"A strong argument for reform in prison management. . . . It evidences on the part of the author a thorough understanding of the problems she has faced. Dr. Harris speaks earnestly from an experience of two decades."

—WARDEN LEWIS E. LAWES.

Isabel Jones Campbell, Oklahoma A, must be a very charming and interesting member of Pi Beta Phi.

In one of the recent editions of the Daily Oklahoman, Kenneth Kaufman, editor of the Book Page, devoted an entire column to the biography of this well-known author.

To quote Mr. Kaufman briefly: "Mrs. Campbell's literary career began in 1928 with the publication of a short story in Harper's Bazaar. The following year her novel "Jack Spratt," was published by Coward-McCann; it is the history of a mid-western family of middle class, of faulty adjustment of character, and must, by all standards, be adjudged the best realistic novel of family life ever written in Oklahoma. Indeed, the key-note of Mrs. Campbell's excellence as a writer may be said to lie in the unflinching courage with which she faces the problems of human character and destiny—in other words in her realistic view of life. In her poetry, on the other hand, she frequently achieves a romantic poignancy which recalls the tenderness of Sara Teasdale. She has had verse published in Poetry: A Magazine of Verse, in the Haldeman-Julius Quarterly, and in the University of Oklahoma Anthology. Her first short story "Cock-a-Doodle-Do," is included in Best Short Stories of the Southwest, second series. She has also had one article in the Southwest Review. Recently she has been interested in play writing, and one of her plays (in three acts) entitled "Bacon to the Wolves," was produced by the University of Oklahoma Play House and by the Koshares Players of New Mexico.

"But it seems likely that her reputation as a writer will rest on her short stories which have appeared in College Humor, Miss 1930, American Weekly, Chatelaine (Canadian), and Ladies Journal, (London, England). She is one of the most conscientious students of short story technique (in fact she has lectured on the subject to aspiring writers) and has probably worked out the problems confronting the short story writer with greater care than anyone in the state. It is almost impossible to criticize her short stories in regard to technique."

In spite of all this literary activity, one of the members of the Fraternity wrote your editor, "She has always been a most loyal mainstay of the chapter at the University of Oklahoma and has served on the Advisory Board for many years."

Her husband, W. S. Campbell, writes under the name of "Stanley Vestal" and though a young man, he is the author of twelve volumes of history, biography, fiction, and poetry. He is a graduate of Oxford and was Oklahoma's first Rhodes Scholar.

To Margaretta Spence Drake, Ontario A, we are indebted for the following sketch of Dr. Clark Howell Foreman. Dr. Foreman is a husband of Mairi Fraser Foreman and she, in turn, is a classmate of Mrs. Drake.

Clark Howell Foreman, author of The New Internationalism, published by W. W. Norton in March, 1934, and of "The Consumer Seeks a Way," 1935, is the husband of Mairi Fraser Foreman, Ontario A, ex-'24. Dr. Foreman, in spite of his youth, has already had a varied and distinguished career. Born in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1902, he took his bachelor's degree at the University of Georgia in 1921, and the following two years pursued graduate studies at Harvard University and the London School of Economics.

From 1924 to 1926, he was secretary of the Georgia Committee on Interracial Cooperation, and from 1926 to 1928 held the Phelps-Stokes Fellowship at Columbia University, taking his M.A. in 1927. He was president of the Highlands Museum, 1927-30. From 1929 to 1931, he was associate for studies of the Julius Rosenwald Fund, and in 1931 was named Director for Studies, Julius Rosenwald Fund, member of the Board of Directors of the Commission on Interracial Cooperation, and member of the American Council of the Geneva School of International Studies, which appointments he still holds.

In 1932 Mr. Foreman won his Ph.D. at Columbia University, and during the summer set out on a travelling fellowship which was to take him through Russia and Europe during the winter. On the ship going over, he met Mairi Fraser of Toronto, and when they met again in Paris the following summer, there followed a speedy courtship and their marriage in Geneva in July.

On returning to this country in the fall, Mr. Foreman was appointed Adviser to the Secretary of the Interior on the Economic Status of the Negro, and the Foremans took up their residence in Washington. In accord with his theories of his work, he succeeded in having a negro appointed to his position as Adviser in the fall of 1934, but his own services were retained by the Interior Department as Special Counsel to Secretary Ickes. In the summer of 1935 Mr. Ickes appointed him Director of the newly organized Power Division of the P.W.A.

REALIZATION

There is one fog no traveler can escape,
Inevitably it terminates each voyage;
Nor wealth, nor power, nor love can intercept,
And man who flees it ever—calls it "Death."

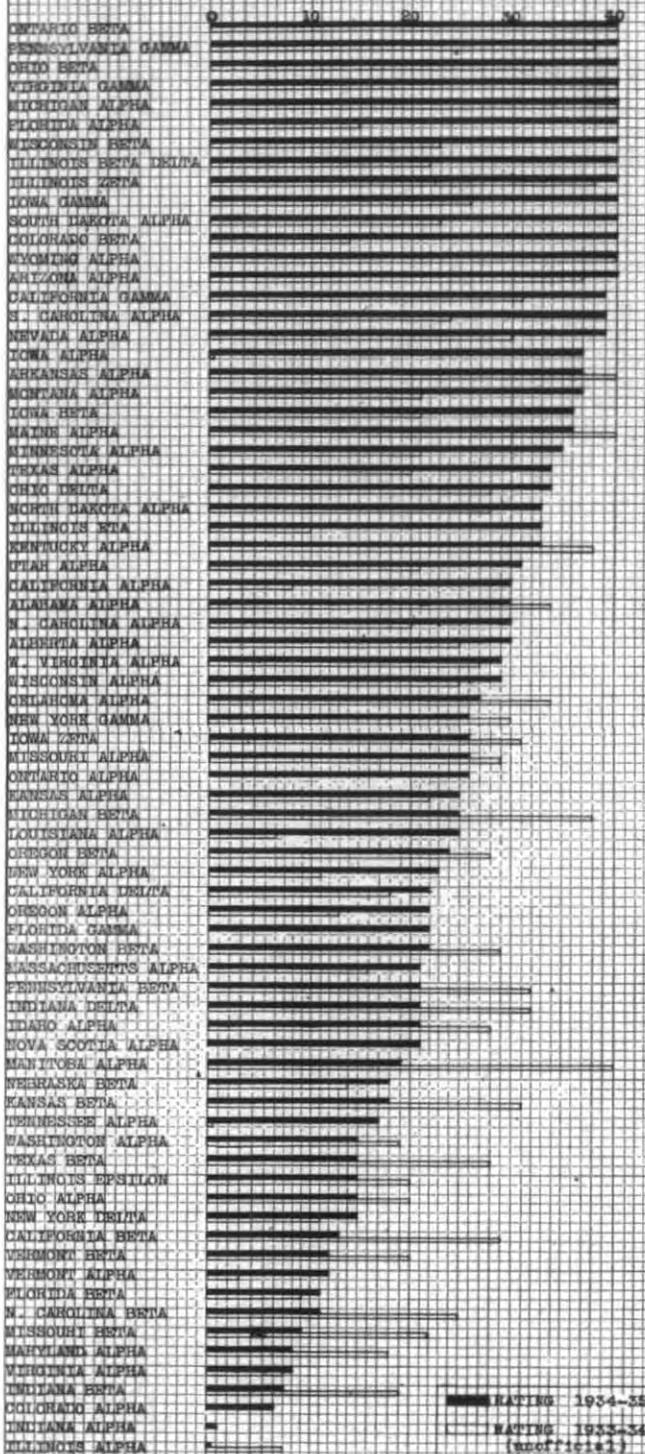

EPISODE

You came—
And took my heart quite unaware;
We loved—
And hence you banished every care;
We kissed—
And rapture fused us into one;
I laughed—
With joy because my search was done.

You saw—
Another with a sweeter face;
I felt—
A rival steal my cherished place;
You left—
And heart and soul were racked with pain;
I wept—
And then my search began again.

PI BETA PHI NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP RATING

An Appeal from Mortar Board

MORTAR BOARD at its recent National Convention resolved to do all in its power to combat the evil political practices prevalent on many college campuses. National Panhellenic Congress graciously permitted the president of Mortar Board to present to it a report on current political problems. After discussion, National Panhellenic Congress went on record as favoring "cooperation with Mortar Board in correcting the evil practices of campus politics. Each National Panhellenic Congress sorority shall assume responsibility of holding its chapters to this policy."

Mortar Board wishes to ask your cooperation as chapters of the National Panhellenic Congress sororities for our active chapters in the attempts made to solve on each campus the pressing problems. Mortar Board is interested because of the unhealthy effect upon student morale and upon the activities in which women participate, because of increasing friction between social groups, because of the weak officers sometimes chosen, because of the unwholesome pressure upon students interested in activities. We are impressed by the fact that so many people lay the blame for the political system at the door of the social groups.

Can those of us who are fraternity women carelessly neglect the challenge in that statement?

Each chapter on each campus may find a different approach to the problems. Familiarize yourself with conditions on your own campus so that you can work intelligently toward improvement. We particularly urge you to stand with us for an election code which protects the voter; a party system, if we have parties, not of groups but of individuals; able candidates chosen and supported on their merits; the elimination of graft.

We hope for your staunch cooperation, not only because the problem is vital to the sorority's welfare, but because we trust that once again the sororities will see a valuable contribution they may make to college life as they stand for reform in politics, just as years ago they provided social life for congenial students, then improved housing, then popularized better scholarship. Mortar Board and the National Panhellenic Congress sororities should be able to gain our objectives. Let us try valiantly!

Have You Heard

The Pi Beta Phi Cook Book is expected to be on the market by the end of May. Over eighty alumnæ clubs have sent in recipes.

The cook book will include recipes from:

The Founders
Grand Council members
Mrs. Coolidge
Mrs. Catt

Mrs. Allred
Mrs. Wallace
Mrs. Gossen
And many other well known Pi Phis.

The Tucson alumnæ club has sent in a complete menu with recipes for a Mexican dinner.

The most popular recipes have been:

Ham loaf
Date cake and nut breads

Tamale pie
Cheese souffle

Over fourteen hundred recipes have been received.

There will be a member of the Los Angeles Alumnæ Club at convention with copies of the Cook Book for display and sale. The price will be $.50 a copy.

NEWS FROM LITTLE PIGEON

Edited by LILLIAN BECK HOLTON

OUR NEW NURSE

Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers, Galesburg, Illinois, our new public health nurse, came to us December 1. She received her training at Eitel Hospital, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and later was medical and surgical nurse there. She was floor supervisor at Cottage Hospital, Galesburg, and has had experience in family relief, child welfare, and rehabilitation for the American Legion Auxiliary. She also has had teacher and kindergarten training. The community is pleased with her work and the household has found her a congenial member.

MARJORIE CHALMERS, Nurse

Virginia Moore, who for the past four years has been our public health nurse, will take up county public health work in Tennessee, when she has recovered from an illness of nearly two months.

AUNT SOPHIE PASSES AWAY

From Mrs. Weaver's letter

"Sunday morning we heard that Uncle Tom Campbell and Aunt Sophie were very ill. Aunt Sophie is the old lady who made clay pipes in her home on the mountain.

As soon as they could find high boots and warm c'othing, Mrs. Chalmers, Mrs. Snow, and Mary Durkee made the trip through the snow up the mountain to see if there was anything we could do for them. They found members of the family there doing all that could be done.

"Aunt Sophie died Sunday night and Uncle Tom requested that our nurse 'lay her out.' Mrs. Chalmers with Bess and Kate as helpers gladly complied with this request. They left the little string of red beads around her neck that Mrs. McDonald gave her long ago. I never can describe to you the bleak chill of the scene as coming out of the church we waited until the nails were driven into the lid of the home-made casket—then it was carried on to the cemetery on the hill. It was the coldest day we have had."

A LOG CABIN

By VAN OGLE, Sixth Grade

Upon a hill where the trees are very tall, stands a little log cabin. The trees shade it from the sun, and the moon shines brightly on the trees at night. At the left side of the house is a small rock chimney. It and the roof are covered with green moss where birds build their nests. On the porch are flowers in boxes and cans. Next to the door lies an old hound dog with her puppies playing about her. In the doorway sits an old woman smoking her cob pipe.

AN EASTER TOUR

A southern Easter tour conducted by Miss Mabel Kirk, 4301 Atlantic Avenue, Atlantic City, New Jersey, left New York, April 10. After a weekend in Asheville and stops in Chattanooga, Knoxville, and Bryson City, the party arrived at Gatlinburg. According to the itinerary, "The afternoon is left open for a visit to the Pi Beta Phi School and numerous quaint shops and museums at Gatlinburg. Luncheon, dinner and over-night accommodations at the Mountain View Hotel."

WE GO SOUTH FOR THE SUMMER

*A portion of an article by Martha M. Beck, a tourist who visited Gatlinburg

We are here in the little mountain town built in the bend of the Little Pigeon river, in the heart of the beautiful green mountains always covered by a purplish haze which are the Smokies. This is almost the center of the home of the "Mountain Whites" who for three hundred years have preserved their pure Nordic blood, the purest strain in America. In their mountain homes they have lived and died almost untouched by the outside world. Conditions almost unbelievably primitive still exist in their homes. They eke out what seems a mere existence on their hillside farms.

It was to such a community that the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity brought their Settlement School about twenty years ago. In the years that have passed since then it is impossible to estimate the influence that has been exerted on the lives of the boys and girls of the settlement. From a small beginning the plant has grown to a considerable size. They own more than a hundred acres of land which is farmed for the benefit of the school. A fine herd of Jersey cows is housed in a modern, sanitary barn. Chickens are equally fortunate in their quarters. High school and grade school buildings, teachers' cottage, boys' and girls' dormitories, a small but well equipped hospital, and a shop for selling the products of the Arrow Craft industry, have all been attained through the efforts of the college girls who wear the arrow of Pi Beta Phi. The grade school is now run with the aid and cooperation of the local school district. The sorority finances the two-year high school. The boys are taught agriculture and the girls home economics. An auditorium is provided not only for school activities, but for the local picture show and for other community purposes.

Hand weaving is the major industry of the women here. Nearly every mountain woman has her own hand loom and the art of beautiful weaving has been taught by mothers to daughters for generations. So the sorority has made this art the major activity, teaches it in the school and through its chapters throughout the country provides a market for the finished product. At least seventy-five mountain women bring their work to the school to be sent to the market provided for them, adding materially to their meager incomes. The object of the school is to make the pupils dissatisfied only with conditions which can be bettered. In elevating their traditional occupation to an art they have increased their self respect and helped them to appreciate their heritage from the past, which is perhaps even more important than the learning they acquire from books.

A full time nurse is provided by the sorority and the good that has been accomplished is inestimable. No night is too dark or stormy for her to respond to a call for help. Health instruction is given. Mothers are taught to care for their babies and to bring them to the nurse to be weighed and examined and inoculated. In one day since we have been here she gave 80 typhoid inoculations to children and adults at two remote school houses. If she can, she drives the school car. If the car can't make it, she goes horseback. Where the horse can't climb she walks. She always gets there, and she is doing a great deal toward eliminating the diseases which sap the lives of the mountain people.

PRESIDENT EMERITUS VISITS
GATLINBURG

"It was a delightful experience to return to the Settlement School after a number of years and really see for oneself the great changes that have taken place both in the people themselves and in the actual material equipment of the school.

We arrived late one evening, a party of three Pi Phis and a friend, after having driven for hours over those marvelous new mountain roads. Mr. Huff received us at his hotel, and, when we had retired to our rooms, the finding of private baths attached to each room was almost too much, especially for the one who on an earlier visit had laboriously drawn up a quart can of water from the well and carried it to her room to wash. Everywhere it was the same, the new building with its large auditorium and weaving room; the Arrow Craft Shop from which we could hardly tear ourselves away; and the new barn with the well-cared-for stock was all a matter of surprise and pleasure.

Mrs. Weaver graciously showed us over the whole establishment, and although the heavens opened and the rain descended for the entire period of our visit, it did not prevent the inspection of all the main points of interest. We were greatly amused over the friendly rivalry between the Arrow Craft Shop proper and the auxiliary one in the hotel. In the evening we spent most of our time in the hotel shop, which is just a corner partitioned off from the main lobby of the hotel, and felt very proud when the other guests admired the furniture, shawls, quilts, etc., all done by our people.

The next day in the rain we set out to see some of the home weaving, especially the rainbow shawls. We missed some familiar faces, but after climbing to Aunt Lizzie's cabin and visiting with her awhile, the government road was forgotten as were the new houses and other improvements, and in spirit we were once more back in the teachers' cottage in the days when Aunt Lizzie kept house and Miss Evelyn ran the school.

Mr. Huff has very sensibly kept the surroundings of the hotel rustic, and it was delightful to see the bank by the hotel covered with ferns and tiny plants from the woods.

Gatlinburg has become known through the opening of that region as a National Park, but that does not mean that the school is not needed. It is a splendid and vital center for that entire section of the country. A third year has been added to the high school, and eventually a fourth will follow. A Parent Teachers' Association has already been formed and is bringing to many of the mothers a real interest in the progress of their children in the school. It is still the community center and more and more the fraternity will have to enlarge the boarding department in order to accommodate the boys and girls from the isolated districts, who are longing for a share in the good things the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School has to offer our mountain friends."

MAY L. KELLER

MESSAGES FROM TWO TEACHERS

The school is most fortunate this year in having two of our graduates back as teachers. After completing their college courses elsewhere Stella Huff and Ben Fleming are both teaching in our high school. Their knowledge of conditions in our mountain community and their sympathy with the people are a great help to them in their work. The following articles by Stella and Ben show their appreciation of what the school has done for them and their desire to give to the school and community their best work.

OUR SCHOOL

By BEN FLEMING

It was more than eight years ago that I first became acquainted with Pi Beta Phi, through the extension work in local communities. These community organizations were gathering and developing the best interests and abilities of a large number of school children, as well as adults.

In the fall of '27 I entered Pi Beta Phi School. Those two years of student life I spent here are memorable ones to me. The atmosphere of the entire school seemed to be that of an ideal home—just one big family. The instructors showed a warm and friendly interest in each student, and this interest challenged us to be bigger and finer boys and girls. This new experience gave to us a broader, a brighter, and a sounder outlook on life. I wish you people out there could just know what this institution has meant to me and to numerous fellow students.

The spring of '29 found a class of seven boys and girls reluctant to depart from the school they liked so well. They realized they could never find another Pi Beta Phi along the road of education.

Thoreau once said, "Ambition makes plans, determination carries them out." Upon leaving Pi Beta Phi, I asked a question, "May I come back some day?"

It is a great and long anticipated pleasure to be back here today as an instructor. I hope I shall be able to help these boys and girls as some instructors have helped me. To discover students who are reaching out and grasping for knowledge, and who are willing to put forth commendable efforts is one of the greatest joys of a teacher's life.

The boys and girls of our mountains still find Pi Beta Phi a happy, convenient and desirable place in which to carry on their education. Each year brings an increased enrollment. We are more conscious than ever before of the value of this pioneer school of the Smokies.

May I, in behalf of our local people, take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to everyone who has helped to make our school a reality and a success?

AN APPRECIATION

By STELLA SUE HUFF

Having attended Pi Beta Phi School the first ten years of my school life and incidentally tally the first ten years in the history of the school, and being now in the midst of my fourth year of teaching here, makes me feel as "Aunt Lizzie Reagan" would say, "might nigh like being one of them Pi Phis."

I shall never forget the first time I heard the mention of the name Pi Phi. My father was talking and laughing with my mother one night about a misunderstanding that had taken place between two of the pioneer Pi Phi teachers concerning their pets, a cat and a dog. I believe I was about four years of age at the time, and every day since that time Pi Phi has meant more and more to me. I have and always will have an indescribable feeling of appreciation and admiration toward the many Pi Phis I have known.

When I am reminiscent of the past four years of my teaching, the first morning I attended chapel is my most outstanding memory. Miss Evelyn Bishop asked me to direct the children while we sang "We're Loyal to You, Pi Phi Dear." I did as Miss Evelyn asked, but I fear that I sang very little because of the huge lump in my throat. It sounds very sentimental, but I tell you this, dear Pi Phis, to illustrate not only my feelings toward our school and Pi Beta Phi, but the feelings of every boy and girl who has gone to the school.

My work this year, which brings me into contact with high school pupils, has made me realize more than ever before the need of more of the good influence that our Pi Phis have radiated throughout these years. Our boys and girls are truly fine, and they are eager to learn. When we know that the training they receive while under our care completes their school training in most cases, we know that our task is an important one, and one that requires the best of everything that we can give as teachers.

My wish is that every Pi Phi will sometime be able to visit in Gatlinburg and see that we are working with you to make the Pi Beta Phi School worthy of the name that it bears.

IN MEMORIAM

THE editor announces a new policy for this department. Hereafter, only brief notices, giving chapter, date of initiation, date and place of birth and death, and offices held in the national organization, will be used. Exceptions to this rule will be made only in the case of active officers of the fraternity, former Grand officers, and members of I.C. Deaths of generally known members of the families of Pi Beta Phis, will appear in the personal section of the chapter concerned.

MARY ANN BROOK PEARCE (Mrs. George T.), I.C., Illinois A, died in Davis County, Iowa, December 3, 1935. She was initiated into Alpha chapter at Monmouth College the year after it was founded, and later organized the chapter at Lombard College. She was graduated from Monmouth in 1872 with a B.S. degree. Mrs. Pearce was a sister of Libbie Brook Gaddis, Founder.

JENNIE GRUBB FOWLER (Mrs. Frank Hamilton), Illinois B, died in Tucson, Arizona, January, 1936. An ever active and devoted member, she served on the advisory board of her own chapter while she lived in Galesburg; after her family moved to Salt Lake City she worked with the petitioning group there in their early days, and during her residence in Tucson she had been active in the alumnae club and in close touch with Arizona A chapter. The fiftieth anniversary of her membership in Pi Beta Phi was celebrated by the Tucson Alumnae Club last October, and her friendship and fine Pi Phi spirit will be greatly missed. She had many Pi Phi relatives—her sister, Mrs. E. M. Hanson, Illinois B; two daughters, Mrs. D. W. Albert and Mrs. J. A. Magee, both Arizona A; four cousins, Mrs. Ella G. Simmons, Mrs. Charles L. Miller, Mrs. Percy Hale, and Mrs. B. E. Gilmore, all of Illinois B; a niece, Mrs. J. R. Thorpe, Illinois B; and a grand niece, Ellen Thorpe, was pledged to Illinois A this year.

ELLA AMELIA PENN, Iowa A, I.C., died at Tucson, Arizona, December, 1935. She was a sister of Lulu Penn Ingersoll, also of Iowa A.

MAY COPELAND REYNOLDS DRYBREAD (Mrs. Charles Harvey), I.C. Michigan A, charter member, died in the summer of 1935. A former Grand Vice-president of Pi Beta Phi, Mrs. Drybread had served the fraternity in many prominent positions. She was instrumental in obtaining a chapter house for her own chapter, and helped to install Michigan B. She was the mother of Marthena Drybread, Indiana B.

ELLA MAY MARTIN WHITAKER (Mrs. Charles H.), I.C., Illinois Δ, charter member, died at Clinton, Missouri, September 19, 1934.

LOUISE CARITHERS MORRISON (Mrs. John H.), I.C., A, initiated 1868, first recorded initiate into Monmouth chapter, died December 9, 1935, at Las Cruces, New Mexico, where she made her home with her son Ralph W. Morrison, Grand Trustee of Sigma Chi. An account of Mrs. Morrison's connection with the fraternity appeared in the History number of the ARROW, in connection with the Convention of 1872, Greencastle, Indiana, where she presided.

ELVA PLANK, I.C., Iowa E, charter member, of Kansas City, died November 31, 1935. A devoted Pi Psi, she had served the fraternity in many ways, and was widely known. She was Grand Secretary in I.C. days, and was presiding officer of the Lawrence, Kansas, Convention, in 1885. For two years she taught at the Settlement School.

REBECCA HEFTY CHAPSKY (Mrs. Max J.), I.C., initiated into the Chicago chapter November 1881, died April 15, 1931.

LIZZIE FISHER ROBINSON (wife of Bishop J. W. Robinson), I.C., Iowa B, initiated 1887, died at Delhi, India, June 17, 1935.

MARY MEGRUE VAN KEUREN (Mrs. Henry S.), I.C., Colorado B, initiated 1886, died July 11, 1935.

ALICE JOHNSON STEELE (Mrs. Samuel H.), I.C., Iowa A, Iowa E, initiated 1881, died in September 1934.

BLANCHE SMITH VREELAND (Mrs. Edgar J.), I.C., Illinois Δ, initiated 1880, died July 22, 1935.

MARIA KNAPP MAYO (Mrs. Augustus H.), I.C., Iowa Γ , initiated 1881, died April 30, 1935.

ALICE NEAL GREGG (Mrs. William Henry), I.C., Iowa Γ , initiated 1877, died October 26, 1935.

KATE REED, I.C., Iowa Z, initiated 1883, died May 23, 1935.

INEZ BABCOCK, North Dakota A, initiated 1929, died August 4, 1935, in Washington, D.C.

ALICE FRIEND MENDEL (Mrs. Lafayette B.), Wisconsin A, initiated 1897, died November 10, 1935, at New Haven, Connecticut.

ELIZABETH CORINNE ALLEN, Missouri Γ , charter member died August 29, 1935, at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

EILEEN DELANEY ROBINSON (Mrs. Louis L.), Washington A, initiated 1918, of Los Angeles, died December 8, 1935.

EDWINA O'BRIAN BANIGAN (Mrs. T. Frank), Nevada A, charter member, died November 16, 1935, at her home at 148 Washington Boulevard, Kenmore, New York.

BARBARA BELL CAMERON (Mrs. John Irving), Nebraska B, initiated 1925, died October 17, 1935.

MILDRED HELEN CHASE THORNE (Mrs. T. J.), Indiana B, initiated 1901, is deceased—date unknown.

LEONA COOMBS WORK (Mrs. William Budge), Indiana B, initiated 1904, died September 5, 1935.

MILDRED REINHARD TAYLOR (Mrs. George), Wisconsin B, initiated 1920, died in August, 1935, in Glendive, Montana.

FLORENCE LASELLE FISKE STAMY (Mrs. Ralph), Nebraska B, initiated 1902, of Bloomfield, New Jersey, is deceased.

ETHEL THORNBURGH MILLS (Mrs. W. F. R.), Colorado A, initiated 1902, died at her home in Denver January 18, 1936.

RUTH GATES LORTON (Mrs. William F.), Colorado A, initiated 1930, died suddenly in Denver following an operation January 14, 1936.

HAZEL HARWOOD BEMIS (Mrs. Harold), Illinois Z, initiated 1918, died during the summer of 1935.

EDRA RUSSELL, New York A, initiated 1922, died July 24, 1934. She was the daughter of Zona Dunn Russell, also New York A.

RUTH CASE ALLEN (Mrs. Walter R.), New York A, initiated 1910, died in St. Louis, November 14, 1935.

ELIZABETH HARPER BLAIR, Pennsylvania Γ , initiated 1909, died January 28, 1935, at Charlotte, N.C., where she was a beloved member of the faculty of Queens-Chicora College. She had three Pi Phi sisters, Rosannah, Miriam, and Jeannette Blair (Mills), all Pennsylvania Γ .

DOROTHY WESTALL, Florida A, initiated 1917, died February 14, 1934.

IRENE MCBROOM ATKINS (Mrs. E. L.), Illinois Δ , initiated 1911, died December 5, 1933.

MARION JACK MONTGOMERY (Mrs. J. S.), Colorado B, initiated 1927, died December 24, 1934.

GEORGIA MCELROY HUNT (Mrs. Arthur C.), Indiana Γ , initiated 1903, died May 15, 1935.

WILLA VANCE IRELAND (Mrs. William W.), Indiana Γ , initiated 1908, is deceased, date unknown.

MARGUERITE WEST MORRIS (Mrs. Joseph C.), New York, A, initiated 1903, died August 30, 1935.

BERTHA DUNCAN, Vermont A, initiated 1901, died September 8, 1935.

FLOR BETHARD MCKEE (Mrs. Louis Z.), Illinois Δ , initiated 1907, died December 18, 1935.

ROSE WINIFRED EATON, Minnesota A, initiated 1891, died March 2, 1933.

Two active chapters mourned the loss of members this year:

MARY DOWNEY, Ohio B pledge, died suddenly of meningitis November 2, 1935, one week before her scheduled initiation. Initiation ceremonies were held by the chapter at her bier.

FLORENCE JOHNSTON, vice-president of Washington B, died as the result of an automobile accident January 5, 1936.

CHAPTER LETTERS

Edited by RUTH WILSON

ALPHA PROVINCE, EAST

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Chartered, 1920

Pledge Day, February 19, 1936

INITIATED, December 17, 1935: Eleanor Delaney, Dorchester, Mass.

Rushing began on February 1, and pledging was on February 19, after which the traditional cooky-shine was held in honor of the seven new pledges. Two small rushing parties and one evening party were given this semester. At the evening party the chapter went in sleighs to Stillwater to a barn party. After dinner the rushees were told to find their favors, imported cut crystal perfume bottles, which were attached to strings, leading to small stacks of hay. Two small skits were presented, and games were enjoyed.

Seven freshmen pledged this semester. The pledge service was in Orono, February 24, at the home of Mrs. Watson, a patroness. After the meeting refreshments were served, and II B Φ songs were sung.

After the pledge service installation of officers was held.

On January 15, Oak Hall, a dormitory for freshman men, was completely destroyed by fire. Many of the boys lost practically everything. Those who had pledged fraternities went to live at their houses. The dormitories on campus, together with a benefit dance sponsored by the Senior Skulls, two benefit movies, and personal donations, all contributed toward a fund which was used to help those who had lost everything. Because of the splendid cooperation among the houses and organizations it was not necessary for anyone to leave college.

The annual Intramural Ball was held in the Memorial Gymnasium on February 21, at which time the Carnival Queen was chosen. On the following day was the Winter Carnival, where ski and snow shoe races were held; also the snow sculpturing by the different houses on campus was judged. $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ won the first prize, while Hannibal Hamlin Hall, a freshman boys' dormitory, received second prize.

Panhellenic is offering again this year a cup to the sorority which receives the highest scholarship during the year. The council is also publishing, for the freshmen, a social blue book, which will go into effect next fall. Louise Caulderwood and Estelle Blanchard are on the editorial staff.

PLEGDED: Marie Folsom, Orono; Althea West, Wells; Janet St. Pierre, Margery Taylor, Bangor; Marguerite Kyer, Brewer; Evangeline Anderson, Monson; Alice Pearce, Ludenberg, Mass.; Lucinda Rich, Charleston.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Virginia Nelson, Guilford, Me.
CAROLYN HANSCOM

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1934

Pledge Day, February 3, 1936

INITIATED, January 30, 1936: Jeanne Geddes, Jean Fitzgerald, Constance Jost, Mabel MacKenzie, Halifax; Catherine Finlayson, Ottawa, Ontario; Helen Napier, Campbellton, New Brunswick.

The chapter activities opened with rushing in October. A tea and a formal dance were held. On the first Monday of every month there is always a cooky-shine. The November one served the dual purpose of a welcome to the pledges and a birthday celebration. Nova Scotia A was one year old. The most successful of the informal parties was a scavenger hunt. The pledges have had two teas, one for the pledges of the other international fraternity, the other for the active members. The farewell banquet for the graduates took place on March 21.

There has been a great deal of interest in debating at the university this year. Radio debates have been carried on against other universities. In the interclass debates, two of the four girls on the teams were members of Nova Scotia A. Two of the three girls who are to debate against Mount Saint Bernard are also members of the chapter. These girls, Dib Ballem and Gene Morison, will receive Debating "D's." Dib also merits a Literary "D."

For the first time in three years Pharos, the Dalhousie year book, is to be published. Fran Drummie is associate editor and Merle Partill is on the staff.

Munroe Day, the commemoration of the founder of the college, is to be held on March 11. It is the last event of the college year. The afternoon is given over to competitive and exhibition sports and to a tea dance; the evening to the introduction of the new Student Council, to a Glee Club show, and to dancing.

This has been a good year for Nova Scotia A in college activities. Of the twenty-five major offices open to women, sixteen are held by either actives or pledges. Fran Drummie and Fran Gardner are to receive Glee Club "D's."

The local welfare work this year has taken the form of visits to the Jost Mission. A club is being formed among the girls there.

Contrary to custom, there was a second rushing season this year, when freshmen-sops were rushed. The Panhellenic tea was held on March 7. All fraternity girls, pledges, and patronesses attended.

PLEGDED: Marion Geldert, Lunenburg; Frances Martell, Windsor.

RUSHING CHAIRMAN: Margaret Drummie, 159 Germain Street, Saint John, New Brunswick, Can.

MARGARET S. DRUMMIE

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY

Chartered, 1893

Pledge Day, November 16, 1935

INITIATED, November 18, 1935: Erma Wright, Athol, Mass.; Mary Heckman, New Haven, Conn.

February 22, 1936: Beverly Browning, Ruth Colesworthy, Edith Egbert, Westfield, N.J.; Betty Ann Dunning, Upper Darby Pa.; Marjorie Kohr, Maplewood, N.J.; Louise Roberts, New Haven, Conn.

A new lecture series introduced in Middlebury last fall has brought many interesting speakers before the student body. Among the speakers were Dr. William Beebe, noted deep sea explorer, and Count Byron de Prorok, explorer and director of the recent Franco-American Archaeological Expedition to Abyssinia.

The students also had the pleasure of listening to concerts given by Mildred Dilling, harpist, the Cremona String Quartet and Alton Jones, pianist. Included in this group of entertainment programs was an exhibition of dancing given by two dancers from the Arthur Murray studio. The exhibition was of ball room dancing and an opportunity was given to the students to receive some instruction.

This winter sound movies were taken of the various college activities to be shown to alumni clubs. Pictures were taken of classes working in laboratories or in the lecture room, of Chapel services and of typical social events.

The Third Annual Winter Carnival of the Middlebury Mountain Club took place February 14-16. Ten women's colleges in New England sent representatives to take part in the women's skiing, snow-shoeing, and skating events. Marion Wishart was chairman of the entertainment committee.

An excellent performance of "H.M.S. Pinafore" was given by the college dramatic association. Janet Gray, Helene Cosenza, and Betty Ann Dunning were members of the cast.

Miss Florence Allen, Middlebury '98, one of the first initiates of Vermont A, has returned this semester as Latin instructor. At the annual initiation banquet she gave an interesting account of the early activities and aims of the chapter.

Evelyn Comesky has been chosen co-chairman of Senior

Week and Ruth van Sickle has been chosen co-chairman of Junior Week.

Rita Cosenza is secretary of the junior class and Betty Ann Dunning is vice-president of the freshman class. On the Dean's List this semester are Helene Cosenza, Jane Kingsley, Beverly Browning and Marjorie Kohr.

PLEGGED: Helen Brewer, Plymouth, Mass.; Marilyn Manning, Worcester, Mass.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Elisabeth Osborne, 18 Whitehouse Ave., Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Pledge Day, February 20, 1936

With midyear examinations out of the way rushing began in earnest. Panhellenic has made an effort this year to simplify rushing, so there was only one open house which was held in the fall and the midyear rushing period started right off with the teas. Then came the final parties which were very much simplified this year, consisting of a formal dinner with very simple place cards and some brief entertainment and music.

Neutral period began on February 19 at noon and lasted until five o'clock the next day. The eligible freshmen signed their preferential sheets at the residence of the Dean of Women on February 20 and then went directly to their respective fraternity houses.

Pledging was held at five o'clock followed by supper at the house with the sophomores in charge. The pledge banquet was held at the Hotel Vermont on the evening of February 21. Breakfast was served at the house Sunday morning, following which the actives and pledges attended the First Congregational Church.

The thirty-ninth annual Kake Walk took place this same week end, February 22. The masquerade ball was held February 21, Jan Campbell's orchestra furnishing the music. Natalie Hilliker was in charge of the decorations. The success of the parents' banquet, inaugurated last year, has merited its continuation as a permanent feature of the Kake Walk program. It was held at noon at the Hotel Van Ness.

The Women's Student Union building in memory of Mable Southwick is nearing completion and will be dedicated in June.

Martha McGillicuddy and Priscilla Savage were among ten girls chosen from women on the campus to submit pictures for the beauty contest which is being sponsored by the "Ariel." From these McClelland Barclay will choose three.

Priscilla Savage was elected secretary of the freshman class. Kathryn has been chosen to represent the freshmen on the Women's Athletic Association Council. Martha Douglass has a part in "Betty's Bungalow," the freshman class play.

Friday night, March 6, the University Glee Club and University Orchestra gave a concert at the Fleming Museum. Ruth Palmer is a violinist in the University orchestra.

Marion Herberg was recently elected to Φ B K. The following were among those to make the Dean's list for the first semester: Marion Herberg, Rosemary Cahill, Madeleine Davidson, Eleanor Dorsey, Priscilla Savage, Lois Brown, Ruth Palmer, Kathryn Scott, and Miriam Healy.

The pledges entertained the new pledges of the other women's fraternities at a tea at the house, March 5.

The pledge dance, given by the actives for the pledges, was held at the house on February 29.

PLEGGED: Lois Brown, Martha Douglass, Burlington; Miriam Healy, West Hartford, Conn.; Eleanor Dorsey, Ludlow; Ruth Palmer, Crestwood, N.Y.; Vivian Peixotto, Wyoming, N.Y.; Priscilla Savage, Randolph; Kathryn Scott, Kingston, R.I.; Margaret Spencer, White Plains, N.Y.

INITIATED, February 15, 1936: Madeline Dunne, Newton; Caro M. Grace, Everett; Eleanor M. Hinckley, Saugus; Phyllis S. Hood, Brighton; Lotte P. Lehmbecker, Muriel E. Scott, Sharon; Miriam H. Taylor, Norwood; Barbara Whitcomb, Beatrice Whitcomb, West Somerville.

Following initiation, a banquet was held at the Hotel Vendome. The chapter was fortunate in having with it Mrs. Mary H. Scott, Province Vice-president, and also a fine gathering of the alumnae. The speeches at the banquet were inspirational, binding actives and graduates in true Π B Φ sisterhood.

Programs of stunts, talks, and group singing have been presented at the close of the meetings, thus increasing interest and fraternity friendship. The chapter has been divided into two teams for a scholarship contest in which there is going to be keen competition.

Initiates are well represented in University activities. Miriam Taylor was president of the Freshman Class the first semester and has been elected vice-president for the second semester. Lotte Lehmbecker is a member of the W.A.A. Cabinet, and Phyllis Hood played one of the leads in a one act play recently presented by the Dramatic Club.

Π B Φ members are very active in University affairs. Eleanor Martin was elected vice-president of the senior class; Beatrice Warner, assistant treasurer of the junior class, is also chairman of the committee of arrangements for the annual costume ball, "Klatsch." Vivian Greene, sophomore, is vice-president of her class. In sports, Astrid Malmsten, junior, is chairman of the Indoor Gym Meet; while Ida Finch is junior captain for the Meet as well as manager of the junior basketball team. Elsa Bates was the chairman of health week. Verina Rogers, sophomore at the School of Religious and Social Work, is a member of the Student Senate as president of the freshman-sophomore class, and assistant treasurer of the Senate. Π B Φ is also taking part in the all-University Stunt Night.

At the annual Γ Δ banquet which was held December 4, Eleanor Martin was toastmistress. The speakers included Miriam Taylor, freshman; Vivian Greene, sophomore; and Sue Harper, senior. Among the cheer leaders were Eleanor Hinckley and Phyllis Hood, freshmen; Barbara Huse, sophomore; Ida Finch and Astrid Malmsten, juniors. Constance Reuter was on the general committee.

The initiation dance in charge of Lucie DeHaro was held at the Hotel Touraine, February 28.

PLEGGED: Anne Haavisto, Ashby, and Winona Wilder, Melrose; Sylvia Todd, Rowley; Marian Warren, Orange.

INITIATED, March 14, 1936: Anne Herrington, Marjorie McElwain, Pauline Morris, Josephine Sullivan, Syracuse; Norma Cluver, Roberta Cunningham, Brooklyn; Sylvia Frampton, Fort Edward; Marion Gardner, Tully; Marcia Jump, Buffalo; Mildred Schupp, Port Chester; Lucille Stohard, Hilton; Lucile Barrett, Bethlehem, Pa.; Phyllis Kidwell, Martinsburg, W.Va.; Margaret Snow, East Orange, N.J.

Syracuse students have long been agitating for a students' social center, and at last they have been rewarded by the administration's permission to rent, as an experiment, a small building near the campus. Beth Maxwell is a member of the committee promoting this project.

All women's fraternities at Syracuse recently signed a pledge not to make any group endorsements of candidates nominated for positions on Women's Student Senate. Each girl is to vote according to her individual preference.

With the opening of the spring semester a marriage course was inaugurated, which filled a need long noticed in the University's curriculum. Over 300 students are enrolled. Evelyn Boyd was a member of the committee which selected the material to be covered in the course.

In February an all-University peace organization was formed. Almost the entire student body is behind this movement.

Dr. Lloyd C. Douglas, author of The Magnificent Obsession and other novels, Cornelia Stratton Parker, novelist, Louis Untermeyer, poet, and Stephen Leacock, political economist and humorist, have been among the lecturers brought to the campus this college year.

On February 20 a dinner party, attended by both alumnae and actives, was held at the chapter house for Mrs. Mary Herdman Scott, Vice-president of Alpha Province. All were sorry that Mrs. Scott's visit could not be longer.

The actives have welcomed the opportunity to become better acquainted with the members of the Syracuse Alumnae Club at dinner parties held for them by the latter group.

On February 22 a tea was held at the chapter house in honor of Mrs. Charlotte Martin Fox, President of Alpha Province West.

Flower Sheldon has been selected as the delegate from New York A to Convention.

Janet Miller has been elected to Σ A I honorary musical fraternity, Estelle Holdsworth to Θ Σ Φ , honorary journalism fraternity, and Evelyn Boyd to Π A Θ , honorary educational fraternity. Martha Keefe is vice-president of the sophomore class. Both Rinda Shuttles and Jane Williams are officers of the French Club. Norma Cluver, Martha Keefe, Beth Maxwell, and Margaret Weber are on the Executive boards of their respective classes.

The chapter was very happy to have a visit from Mrs. Carleton Fox, President of Alpha Province West, early in December, shortly after the remodeled chapter house was opened. At a reception in honor of Mrs. Fox, the house was formally opened to the faculty of the college.

A Christmas party was held in the chapter house on December 16 at which Miss Jane Louise Jones, Dean of Women, was a guest. As soon as school opened after Christmas vacation, an open house for all students was held in place of one of the regular house parties.

The third annual Winter Carnival of St. Lawrence University was held on February 7-8. A Russian theme was carried out in the costumes of the royal court and in the ice statues modeled in front of the sorority and fraternity houses and the dormitories. The chapter as a chain gang won honorable mention in sorority group costume parade.

New York Γ recently initiated the custom of entertaining the pledges at Sunday night tea in the chapter house.

Jane Perrigo was appointed to the position of Co-Editor of the weekly student publication, The Hill News, one of the three highest positions for women on the campus.

The W.S.G.A. Conference on World Affairs was held on February 29.

INITIATED, March 7, 1936: Grace Ballard, Miriam Johnson, Ruth Ballard, Ithaca; Florence Dixon, Little Neck; Frances Hartman, Wilkes Barre, Pa.; Harriet Johnson, Ashley, Pa.; Elizabeth Thompson, Pleasantville.

New York Δ was very pleased to have a visit from Mrs. Carleton Fox, President of Alpha Province West, this winter. A tea was given in her honor, to which alumnae, sorority and dormitory chaperons, and sorority presidents were invited. She was also entertained by the alumnae.

The appearance of the chapter house has been greatly improved by the recent addition of several new studio couches for the bedrooms.

The annual student tea, held February 23, was a success. Several hundred girls attended. Jean White and Mary Elizabeth Latham were in charge of the affair, and the seniors poured.

Junior Week End, one of Cornell's most important social events, included a winter Carnival for the first time this year. Professional fancy skaters, an inter-fraternity dog sled race, tobogganing and skating were on the program. The Men's Glee Club and the Instrumental Club presented a very enjoyable musical production entitled "Stranded in Wichita," after which the many house-party guests and students danced to the music of Tommy Dorsey and Jimmy Lunceford's orchestras at the Junior Prom.

New York Δ held its initiation ceremony on March 7, at which time seven pledges were initiated. The ceremony took most of the afternoon, and when it was finished, the active chapter, some of the alumnae, and a guest from New York A drove to Forest Home Inn for the banquet and an informal dance. The significance of the different parts of our Π B Φ arrow was the subject of the speeches which followed the dinner. Elizabeth Thompson was awarded the recognition pin for having the highest scholastic average among the initiates.

Gladys Winters was in charge of welcoming the many guests for Farm and Home Week. Elizabeth Trumpp was the only woman in "Treasure Island," the Dramatic Club production. Dorothy Shaw, Jean White, and Jane Oldden were cast in "Traffic Signals," a play written by Professor A. M. Drummond, director of the Dramatic Club. Mary Elizabeth Latham and Ellen Carnell have been elected to the editorial and business boards of the Cornell Countryman. Barbara Crandall is president of the Floriculture Club. Flora Daniel was chosen Women's Editor of the Cornell Daily Sun, and Florence Dixon is an editorial competitor for this publication. Hildegard Uelzmann has been elected treasurer of C.U.R.W., Jean Benham, who is Social Chairman of C.U.R.W., has been kept busy with the Christmas party and many teas for distinguished visitors to the campus.

The chapter is practicing for the Panhellenic song contest, which is held every year at the last big tea at Willard Straight Hall. In April many of the girls took part in the joint Glee Club concert with the Men's Glee Club.

RUTH D. JACHENS

ONTARIO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Chartered, 1908

Pledge Day, January 21, 1936

INITIATED, March 2, 1936: Nadine Baird, Niagara Falls; Kathleen Mann, Vancouver, B.C.; Noela Seabourne, Liverpool, N.S.; Ruth Sutcliffe, New Liskeard, Ont.; Margaret Beck, Mary Carter, Alice Elshout, Gwen Husband, Mary Nagler, Dorelle MacKellar, Toronto, Ontario.

The last rushing which took place after Christmas in the first week of college, was conducted on a new system. By this method both city freshmen and resident freshmen were rushed at the same time and the latter no longer have to wait until their second year to join a fraternity as they did under the former arrangement. This means a more strenuous rushing period but as it eliminates the fall rushing it is felt to be a decided improvement.

The period consisted of six parties, two of which were teas, one a luncheon, one a supper party, and two formal evening parties. The luncheon given by Ontario A was rather novel and perhaps the most interesting of the parties. It took the form of a picnic. The floors were covered with artificial grass, the walls with leaves and ferns and the rooms were gay with beach umbrellas and bright colored cushions. The lunch itself was done up in boxes of various colors, tied with wine and blue ribbon.

Of the new members thus obtained, three occupy three of the four positions on the first year executive of University College; and another, Alice Elshout, is on the university basketball team. Of the active chapter, Anne Ferguson has been most successful in intercollegiate debating, and Marnie Hill as vice-president of the Players' Guild, has been very prominent in activities. Iris Gibson has taken part in two plays and has done important work for the Varsity, the daily newspaper of the University of Toronto. Josephine LePan held office in the Student Christian Movement and on the Women's Undergraduate Association, the administrative body for the women of the college, and Jean Hiller has done considerable social service and Settlement work.

The initiation ceremony and banquet were held on March 2nd and at the banquet Kathleen Magladry, Joan Ferriss and Ruth Cooper were presented with scholarship awards for the second, third and fourth years respectively. At one of the regular meetings Miss Ferguson, the Dean of Women, gave a talk to the Chapter. Such things are improving the relationship of the Chapter with the Dean as well as the general attitude of the University authorities. This is also aided by the Panhellenic dinner at which the Dean was at the head table, and Mrs. Wallace, the wife of the President of the College, made the address. The formal dance given on March 6 gave Ontario A an opportunity to repay the hospitality of Ontario B who invited Ruth Cooper to their formal dance. Hilda Ingram was their representative in Toronto.

PLEGDED: Barbara Campbell, Timmins; Anne Harrison, Toronto; Olive Popplewell, Brantford.

Early in October, a subscription tea was held to complete the furnishings of the new chapter house. The week-end following, open house was held after the Toronto-Western football game, and members of all the other fraternities on the campus were entertained.

On October 30, the entire chapter attended the Panhellenic banquet, where the President of the University, Dr. Fox, spoke interestingly of the history of fraternities.

Mrs. Carleton Fox, Province President, spent three days here in November. Ellen Gallagher, of the alumnae club, entertained Mrs. Fox at a tea at her home, so she would have an opportunity to meet the pledges. Later Mrs. Fox had dinner with the girls at the house.

On the afternoon of December 7, initiation was held in the living rooms of the chapter house. The initiation banquet, held that night in a private dining room of the Hotel London, was one of the most delightful fraternity activities. Ontario B was very happy to have Mrs. Scott, Province Vice-President, with them that day.

During the last week in February, The Honour Society, a group chosen from the senior class for distinction in extracurricular activities, was named and Marjorie Robinson and Hilda Ingram chosen. Only four of the group were girls and the other two were non-fraternity women. Henrietta MacDonald is president of the Women's Athletic Organization, and Margaret Taman is Women's Editor of the Gazette, the student publication.

In February the Canadian Girls' Intercollegiate Basketball meet was held in Toronto and the Western team captured the "Bronze Baby."

The annual formal at the London Hunt and Country Club, on February 15, took the form of a St. Valentine's party.

On Sunday afternoon, March 1, the chapter held its first faculty tea at the house. Nearly all the faculty members and their wives attended and the girls were so delighted that they are planning to make it a regular function.

The chapter rushing week was March 8-14. Under the new Panhellenic rules ten parties were held and each rushee was entertained twice. The girls had private parties during the week and the last day all the rushees were entertained at a picnic, cleverly carried out with basket lunches and outdoor furniture set up in the house. During that afternoon moving pictures of the rushees taken at school were run off and turned the party into one of merriment.

Ontario B and the London Alumnae Club met Ontario A and the Toronto Alumnae Club in Hamilton to celebrate Founders' Day.

INITIATED, March 1, 1936: Jane Raymond, Corry; Beverly Jone, Lois Chapin, Forty Fort; Alma Bloecker, Collingswood, N.J.; Ann Fagan, Hazleton; Marion Pursley, Lock Haven.

Bucknell University celebrated its ninetieth anniversary over a nation-wide hookup of the Columbia broadcasting system. The boys' glee club, which was making a between semesters tour of New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, sang and Acting President Marts spoke.

This year, for the first time, the chapter turned its annual Valentine formal dance into a dinner dance. The great appreciation of this new action on the part of each girl's escort makes it likely that it will become a tradition.

The social whirl has begun in earnest here. The Junior Prom, held February 21, featured Glen Gray and his Casa Loma Orchestra. The Senior Ball, on March 20, will bring Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra here. An interesting highlight in social activities is the Leap Year Party sponsored by Women's Student Government Association to be held March 13. The girls go for their men, treat them down town, take them home and extend to them all of the courtesies to which they themselves have been accustomed to.

The active girls of Pennsylvania B chapter staged a very stylish party for their pledges. Dressed in their "cherryest," they presented a program and then passed around milk, onion sandwiches and penny candy.

A successful basketball season closed last week with thirteen victories and four defeats.

"The Bartered Bride," a comic opera, was presented February 26, 27, and 28th by the Bucknell Artist Course with the guest artists Charlotte Daniels, Fritz Krueger, and Robert Topping. Lois Chapin, II B Φ , had the leading student rôle. Six other members of II B Φ , Elizabeth Druckemiller, Janet McMahan, Eleanor Chapin, Frances Jacobs, Hannah Mervine and Jane Snyder, took part.

Eight girls from Pennsylvania B attended the Student Christian Association Conference at Buck Hill Falls Inn on March 6, 7, and 8. The Bucknell delegation of fifty-two was the largest among the forty-one colleges represented.

Elizabeth Druckemiller has been appointed editorial editor of L'Agenda, the annual of the University. Carol Lee Davis, June Grim, Alma Bloecker, and Dorothy Blix are on the editorial staff.

Carol Lee Davis has been initiated into $\Sigma T \Delta$, National Honorary English Fraternity and is assistant news editor of the Bucknellian, the college's weekly newspaper.

In the dramatic production of "The Goose Hangs High" given in December, Charlotte Chadwick, chapter president, and Gladys Ward, a pledge, had leading rôles.

Mrs. Lois Snyder Finger, Beta Province President, visited Pennsylvania Γ for Washington's Birthday. During her visit she was entertained by the chapter at dinner and by Mrs. J. B. Meredith, Dean of Women at Dickinson. She also acted as honorary chaperon at the $\Phi K \Psi$ Founders' Day Dance.

Initiation was held just too late for Mrs. Finger's visit but another distinguished visitor, Mrs. Carl C. Sautter (Beatrice M. Victory) of Pennsylvania A, abolished chapter at Swarthmore, was present at her daughter's initiation. Mrs. Sautter spoke at the initiation banquet held at the Y.W.C.A.

The Junior Prom is an important event on the campus. This year the color scheme was carried out in modernistic black and silver. Indirect lighting was used entirely. The representative for II B Φ on the committee was Betty Crane.

Five II B Φ members were entertained at the annual

"A" banquet given by the college faculty on March 5. The following girls had an average of ninety or above for the first semester: Mary Jane Boswell, Elizabeth Good-year, Dorothy Reeve, Margary Ann Black, and Nancy Hendrian.

The annual spring tea which is given to furnish funds for the Settlement School was held March 21. The tea dance was very well attended and enabled Pennsylvania I to give a large contribution.

The Panhellenic dance was held April 3, the night before spring vacation. June Bietsch and Nancy Hendrian are the $\Pi B \Phi$ representatives on Panhellenic Council.

For Founders' Day a joint celebration was held in Harrisburg at the Harrisburger Hotel. The chapters of Pennsylvania B and T with the Harrisburg-Carlisle Alumnae Club held a banquet followed by an informal meeting.

Founders' Day was celebrated by the Ohio $\Pi B \Phi$'s, both actives and alumnae, at Columbus. Programs of variety and individuality were given by each chapter. Ohio A entertained by singing the songs included in the Ohio University Song Contest. The $\Pi B \Phi$ song was "My True Love."

Miss Bertha Brown, one of the founders of Ohio A, died January 13, 1936. She always was very much interested in the activities of the chapter, and it is with deep regret that we must chronicle her death. One other founder, Mrs. Shepard, is still living.

The sorority pledges of Ohio University each year present skit shows in competition for a cup awarded by the Y.W.C.A. The $\Pi B \Phi$'s have won for several years past, but this year the $X \Omega$'s won first place, and $\Pi B \Phi$ was second. Our skit was a bit of satire upon one of Ohio University's football players who has become quite famous by virtue of having played at the Rose Bowl game this year.

The various chapters of Beta Province have started a round-robin letter. The letters have been packed full of news and suggestions. To Mrs. Finger is due all the credit, for it was she who first thought of the idea.

In October the chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. Webster, assistant to Miss Onken. Her kindly spirit and helpful suggestions were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Finger made her annual visit in March. It was a pleasure to renew acquaintance with her again.

Ohio B also held before Christmas a party for twenty little boys and girls who otherwise might not have had presents. Baskets were sent to the Young Women's Christian Association "White Christmas" which is held annually on the campus.

On November 14 the Panhellenic dinner was held for all sororities on the campus. At this time $\Pi B \Phi$ was awarded the scholarship cup as the result of having attained the highest sorority average of 2.81 out of a possible 4.00.

Ohio B held its annual elections on January 20, at which time Mary Russell was elected Convention delegate and Jean Clayton, alternate.

At Women's Self Government Association elections Ohio B was well represented. Jean Crayton was elected treasurer, Cornelia Evans and Mary Whitlinger as representatives. Julia Hamlin was elected vice-president of Young Women's Christian Association.

Ohio B was awarded the Strollers Dramatic Cup at the Strollers banquet.

Frances Hamilton was chosen as queen of the President's Birthday Ball, and was also chosen in the queen's court for Makjo Beauty Queen, and reigned as queen at the opening of the Grand Theatre. Eight other girls from $\Pi B \Phi$ were in the court.

Ohio Wesleyan has been trying this spring to instill an active interest in current events in its student body. Chapel and forum talks by such interesting and intelligent men as Sherwood Eddy and Norman Thomas have been included in this campaign.

Attendance has also been good at a series of "marriage" lectures in which the biological, social, and economic relationships of marriage are being discussed. Speaking along this line were such noted persons as Dr. George Harding of Columbus, President Emeritus C. F. Thwing of Western Reserve, and Dr. V. H. Parker, prominent woman consultant for the American Social Hygiene Association.

Sorority and fraternity doings on the campus are rushing this week-end because of the Fun Fest finals to be held Friday and Saturday evenings. Two years ago $\Pi B \Phi$ received the cup for being the best sorority group participating. Winners are decided by the audience which votes for the fraternity and sorority group it considers has put on the best show.

$\Pi B \Phi$ entertained at a tea February 13 in honor of the recent marriage of Dean Florence M. Nicholson to Alfred Whitney and presented the dean with a gift.

Three of the $\Pi \Phi$'s were initiated into campus honoraries recently; Kathleen Ringwald into $\Delta \Phi \Delta$, honorary art fraternity, and Gladys Plocher and Mary Virginia into $K \Delta T$, honorary educational fraternity.

At the election of officers in women's mass meeting Dora Louise Patton was elected judicial president of W.S.G.A.

A rummage sale Saturday, March 7, left the chapter with a balance of several dollars. Another was held March 27. The date of the spring formal has been set as May 12.

The appearance of the University campus has been greatly altered this year by the addition of two new wings on Woman's Hall and a new men's dormitory. These two projects, completed at the beginning of the school year, have been an important factor in unifying the student body. All women, except those living in sorority houses and graduate students are required to live in Woman's Hall, and all freshman men and a sufficient number of sophomores to fill the quota stay in Men's Hall.

Professor Walter Wadeuhl, German, has been selected by a friend of his in Germany to edit the Heinrich Heine letters, a task of great importance which his friend was too ill to perform. This is a great honor for West Virginia University.

West Virginia A was exceedingly fortunate to have Mrs. Alford pay it an official visit this year. She offered many helpful suggestions and inspired the chapter with an even deeper feeling for the national fraternity. A tea was given in her honor by the chapter. Alumnae and members of the faculty were present.

An official visit was also paid by Mrs. Finger, Beta Province President. She came at a particularly fortunate time, as a visit so close to initiation is always inspiring to the pledges. Mrs. Finger was entertained at a dinner given in the chapter house by actives and pledges.

Alma Fraser is the representative of the chapter in the annual election for beauty queen. Alma was one of the queens selected last year. This past semester she has held the position of Regimental Sponsor, and as such she stands with the Cadet Colonel at parade. Caroline O'Neale, a pledge, was a company sponsor.

Mary Jane Baker and Virginia Crowell were among the ten women selected to serve at the Mortar Board tea. These senior women were chosen for outstanding work on the campus. Jane Baer was elected to K A T, national education fraternity, and Mary Lee Hicks was elected to Phi O, national home economics honorary.

Virginia Crowell, who is president of Woman's Student Government, was appointed by President Boucher to the Committee of Student Affairs, consisting of members of the faculty and student representatives. She is also a member of the Student Residence Committee.

This year the active chapter has entertained the pledges every other Tuesday at dinner. The plan has proved a great aid in bringing the actives and pledges in closer contact.

Pledge Day, October 19, 1935

INITIATED, January 21, 1936: Betty Kassebaum, Baltimore, Maryland.

The annual house party was held at Belair Country Club Inn the week-end of January 18. The entire chapter of actives and pledges enjoyed this get-together week-end despite the fact that a severe snow storm brought rather disastrous but amusing results by snowing them in.

On February 7 the Panhellenic dance was held at Maryland Casualty. Representatives of Goucher's eight national sororities attended, making it a very gala affair. This was closely followed by the Sophomore Dance, the one social event of the year especially for sophomores. Barbara Deemer, who is the newly elected president of the Sophomore Class, headed the receiving line.

At the annual Sing Song contest for the four classes at Goucher the Senior Class was first, with the Junior Class a very close second. Jean Critchlow was the junior chairman of Sing Song and Lucille McCormick was pianist. Lucille is also the Editor-in-chief of Donnybrook Fair, the college yearbook. Four of the chapter are members of Glee Club which is busily preparing for its Spring Concert. Jean Critchlow is one of the soloists.

The alumnae club entertained the undergraduates at a cooky-shine. They also gave Maryland A a "Monopoly" game which is fast replacing bridge as a II B Phi diversion. The chapter recently held its annual tea for the faculty. This is one of the most delightful teas of the year for it gives an opportunity to become better acquainted with the professors.

The annual drive of the United Campaign Fund has just been completed. This drive is under the direction of the Goucher Christian Association of which Kitty King is the president. The money contributed is sent to the Isabella Thoburn College in India, Goucher's sister college.

Since Goucher is using the "New Plan" of study with greater academic freedom and a system of three terms, the second term is now nearing its close and a week of examinations is beginning. Immediately following is spring vacation, after which Maryland A will be looking forward to the spring activities, Junior-Senior Banquet, Junior Prom, Boat Ride, June Week, and not the least for the sophomores are the comprehensive examinations which cover their previous two years' work.

PLEGDED: Florence Cary, Dallas, Texas; Lucille Connor, New Orleans, Louisiana; Betty Kassebaum, Baltimore; Grace Linebaugh, Schenectady, New York; Ruth Stone, Washington, D.C.; R. Easton Whitney, Plainfield, New Jersey.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Jean Critchlow, 577 Rutherford Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ALPHA—GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1889

Pledge Day, February 24, 1936

INITIATED, February 13, 1936: Betty Anne Fast, Freddie Jones, Mary Virginia Trammel.

George Washington University is relieving the unemployment situation in Washington by inaugurating a huge construction program. President Marvyn wishes to make the University more cosmopolitan by enabling the out of town students, who might wish to come here, to live in dormitories. The women's dormitory, Storm Hall, is under construction and will be ready for students enrolling next September.

The sororities as well as the workmen are benefiting by this program. A meeting was called at which all sororities were represented, and President Marvyn presented his idea of a Panhellenic House to be built according to the sororities' desires and needs. All the sororities cooperated and submitted estimates of the financial amount they could promise and the size of apartments they needed. The majority of them suggested chapter, dining, recreational, and study rooms, and a kitchen. A large ball room for everyone's use was added to the whole plan. The construction of this house is already under way.

The University's calendar of social events is climaxed not by one affair but by two. The Interfraternity Prom and the Panhellenic Prom, this year as always, were great successes. The Fiesta, annual carnival to raise funds for the University Band, was colorful and gay. A musical comedy, "Davy," was presented at the Fiesta and it was most amusing.

The pledges' annual Goat Show gave them opportunity to show the actives their surprising talents in singing, mimicry, and dancing.

Columbia A raised money for the Settlement School by holding a card party which the alumnae supported heartily.

Columbia A announces the affiliation of Merrie Frances Merz of North Carolina B.

Verna Volz was initiated into Sigma Delta Phi, honorary speech fraternity. Eldridge Loeffler was chairman of the Panhellenic Prom. Mary Shelton placed third in selling the most "Cherry Blossoms" for the Masonic Fund to keep two chairs of Foreign Service at George Washington.

The Mothers' Club entertained the chapter at tea and luncheon.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the Alumnae Club. District of Columbia A active members are all making plans to come to convention and meet all the chapters' representatives.

PLEGDED: Jane Culbertson, Norma Hatfield, Levina Merrick, Agnes Schapter, Virginia Tehas, Winifred Thornton.

VIRGINIA ALPHA—RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Chartered, 1913

Pledge Day, September 28, 1935

INITIATED, February 15, 1936: Lynn Buchanan, Lynchburg; Frances Connally, Tyler, Tex.; Catherine Couch, Pine Bluff, Ark.; Frances Dille, Palestine, Tex.; Frances Dowling, Birmingham, Ala.; Virginia Hutchinson, Tulsa, Okla.; Elizabeth Kern, Van Wert, Ohio; Louise Lee, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Elisabeth Rand, Painesville, Ohio; Mary Alice Rowell, El Dorado, Ark.; Eloise Simmons, Waco, Tex.; Marjorie Turner, Little Rock, Ark.

Virginia A was honored with a visit from Mrs. Wyatt Aiken, President of Gamma Province, November 24, 25. Everyone who came in contact with Mrs. Aiken was won by her personality and charm and her loyalty to $\Pi B \Phi$.

The chapter gave its annual party for the pledges the week before Christmas vacation, at which time Arrowettes were distributed. The Christmas present of the actives and pledges to the house was the transforming of the old dining room into a new living room.

Initiation took place February 15, and was followed by a cooky-shine for the new initiates.

The Panhellenic Council sponsored a mass meeting for all Greeks on the Randolph-Macon Campus. Mary Alice Shackleton, president of Virginia A, was the main speaker. She explained the obligations of fraternities and the attitude they should have toward their national organization. Her talk was followed by discussions given by members of each sorority on campus. Several projects were proposed with the idea of strengthening the local Panhellenic.

Glenns Teter was the chairman of one of the committees for Even Day and was also brought out H. honorary Even secret society. Mary Alice Shackleton is chairman of May Day and is listed in the Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Marian Carlisle, recently brought out Am Sam and $\Gamma 13$, honorary secret societies, is chairman of the Junior Class Play and secretary of the Junior Class. She is a member of the debate team, representing Randolph-Macon in the triangular debate between Agnes Scott, Sophie Newcomb, and Randolph-Macon. Jo Culp was recently brought out P.M., senior secret society. Peggy Birch, president of the International Relations Club, was elected as a delegate to the International Relations Conference at Winthrop College. Nancy Hart had the lead in the French play, is the assistant editor of the Sun Dial and next year will be editor. Marian MacAmbley is a member of senior hockey team, associate editor of the Sun Dial and Fire Chief of the college. Dorothy Combs and Mary Craig Suiter were recently made members of the Lynchburg Archaeological Society. One of our pledges, Dorothy Noehren, played on the freshman hockey team and a new initiate, Elisabeth Rand, made All-Star basketball team.

Virginia A had ten of its members on the Dean's List for the first semester: Peggy Birch, Dot Combs, Jo Culp, Marian Carlisle, Mary Craig Suiter, Winifred Dickey, Lynn Buchanan, Louise Lee, Mary Alice Rowell, and Frances Dowling. The scholastic average for the chapter showed an improvement over last year, being only one point below the highest average on campus.

Virginia A held its Founders' Day Banquet, April 28 at Boonsboro Country Club. The theme was "All the world's a stage" and the place cards, menus, and toasts were carried out according to this theme. Louise Lee was awarded the cup for the highest scholastic average among the freshmen, and the name of Winifred Dickey was engraved on the sophomore scholarship cup.

The chapter is now making plans for open house on May Day and for the convention this summer. The convention delegate is Marian Carlisle and the alternate is Janet Snoborn.

GRADUATES, June, 1936: Margaret Birch, Reading, Pa.; Jo Culp, Dorothy Combs, El Dorado, Ark.; Nancy Cooper, Crafton, Pa.; Bonnie Elledge, Painesville, Ohio; Miriam Johnson, Aberdeen, N.C.; Mary Glenn Lupton, Winchester; Marian MacAmbley, Custer City, Pa.; Mary Alice Schackleton, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Mary Craig Suiter, Garysburg, N.C.

Pledge Day, February 4, 1936

INITIATED, February 22, 1936: Mary Alice Barnes, Flushing, N.Y.; Betty Bartel, Richmond, Ind.; Pearl Brugger, Maplewood, N.J.; Lucile Haynes, Port Washington, N.Y.; Mary Huey Mackey, Marglieth Meyer, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Augusta Porter, Portsmouth; Beal Sale, Washington, D.C.; Leona Tisdale, Ossining, N.Y.; Jean Warren, Washington, D.C.

William and Mary's president, Dr. Bryan, gave his Christmas party for the faculty and the students on December 19. Everyone dressed in colonial costume and the party started with procession of students, led by Dr. Bryan, who carried the bear's head. After the procession filed into the $\Phi B K$ hall, the ceremony of lighting the yule log took place. The evening's entertainment consisted of five minute skits by the men's and women's fraternities, and, finally, caroling by the entire company.

Recently valuable collections were added to the Library of the College of William and Mary, which include, besides original papers of Francis Jerdone, wealthy merchant of the Revolutionary period, more than 1500 letters, and a number of books and ledgers. The selection of books, of which there are about 200, include novels and books on various subjects.

The formal sunken garden begun last semester, has been completed and is a crowning glory to the architectural beauty of the campus.

The College has been fortunate in being able to provide the best in the way of entertainment for the students. The Richmond Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Wheeler Beckett, will present its annual concert on March 3.

Virginia Γ is pleased to report a most successful rushing season, culminating in the pledging of 18 girls last semester, of which number 10 were initiated with exceptionally high grades. This brings the active chapter number to 26. The chapter is also very happy over the affiliation of Jeanette Johnson, a transfer from the University of Utah.

The members of Virginia Γ have received new honors this year. Elizabeth Jones was elected to $\Phi B K$ last fall, and Helen Schofield and Jean Tenney were bid to $\Phi K \Phi$. Florence Fisher has been made Managing Editor of the "Flat Hat," and Clover Johnson, Social Editor. Mary Alice Barnes, Jane Steele and Harriet Morden, are members of $X \Delta \Phi$, honorary literary fraternity.

On the Dean's List for last semester, a list of those making a B average, Virginia Γ placed eleven girls.

W.S.G.A. elections are to be held on March 6, and five Virginia Γ girls are running for major offices.

David Garrick's play, "The Lying Valet," presented in Williamsburg in 1752 was revived by the William and Mary Players, on February 19, with Jean Tenney in the leading role.

Lucile Eldredge has been chosen for the lead in the Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta, "Patience," to be presented by the College on March 27.

The chapter is now making plans for the annual Founders' Day banquet, and hopes to see its charter members back for the occasion.

PLEGDED: Gertrude Shaffer, Cass, West Virginia.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Harriet Morden, Bad Axe, Michigan.

INITIATED, February 5, 1936: Anita de Monseigle, Belmar, N.J.; Mary Potts, Davidson, N.C.; Helen Pritchard, Asheville, N.C.; Janie Riddle (Mrs. H. L.), Oxford, N.C.; Mary Leigh Scales, Chapel Hill, N.C.; Lucy Watson, Greenville, S.C.

In January the first honorary women's fraternity on the campus, $A K \Gamma$, was established. Mary Pridge Cruikshank and Nancy Lawlor are members of this fraternity, composed of seven outstanding girls on the campus. The University girls welcomed another organization, the Y.W.C.A.; two $\Pi B \Phi$'s are on its council. Anita de Monseigle was chairman of the Fashion Show presented March 6 by the Y.W.C.A. Participating in this event were several other members. One of the three girls initiated into the University Club, to which women have been recently admitted, was Mary Henry.

Four $\Pi B \Phi$'s have been active in the Playmakers; Audrey Rowell performed in the world premiere of Paul Green's Enchanted Maze. Emmaline Henderson, Patricia Dicks, and Nell Booker are on the humor magazine staff. For the first time in the University's history girls have been elected dance leaders and marshals for the junior class. Two were elected, Anita de Monseigle being one of these.

The members of fraternities on this campus won over the nonfraternity boys and girls in scholarship for the whole of last year. North Carolina A led the list of men's and women's fraternities!

Not only was the helpful advice of Mrs. Wyatt Aiken, Province President, welcomed by the chapter when she paid it a visit during winter quarter, but Mrs. Aiken's attractive personality charmed the girls.

A series of teas have been in progress. The chapter entertained the graduates, the stray Greeks, and the nonfraternity girls in relays. The Chapel Hill Alumnae Club gave a silver tea to raise money for repairing the chapter's radio and victrola. $\Pi B \Phi$ entertained $X \Omega$ at a tea and was invited to a "snack" at the $X \Omega$ house after a Co-ed Bill. In October, the Chapter gave its annual pledge dance at which time the pledges were introduced. The dance was preceded by a banquet.

After initiation a banquet was given, and Helen Pritchard was awarded a bracelet for being the best pledge. This is the first time in many years that the chapter has given an award to the outstanding pledge. February 21, the chapter gave a small, informal card dance at the house.

Mrs. Helen Dixon, the new house mother, and a very capable one, has been a great help to the girls.

INITIATED, February 24, 1936: Virginia Jones, Wheeling, W. Va.; Martha Jane Williams, Easton, Pa.; Miriam MacMullen, Maplewood, N.J.; Sarah Anne Overshiner, Hopkinton, Ky.; Ruth Whitaker, Dravosburg, Pa.; Elizabeth Powell, Shreveport, La.; Martha Kate Schmidt, Louisville, Ky.; Rebecca Willis, Shreveport, La.; Jane Kelly, Atlanta, Ga.; Anne Scott, Waco, Tex.; Jean Dickerson, Schenectady, N.Y.

After initiation a cooky-shine was given for the active chapter and the alumnae.

The past few weeks have been an extremely interesting and eventful time on the Duke campus. The event of most importance to $\Pi B \Phi$ was the Nino Martini concert. Mr. Martini, who is not only a great singer, but one who possesses a charming personality, came to Duke through the influences of one of the chapter members. After the concert $\Pi B \Phi$ gave a reception for him and his accompanist, Mr. Sandoval. Mr. Martini graciously gave the proceeds of the concert to the school music club.

Duke University was fortunate in having for a guest for several days Dr. Henry Crane, the prominent lecturer. Dr. Crane kept both campuses thinking and arguing for days. He is a person whose yearly visit never loses its hold, one whom the school is more than eager to welcome back each year.

"Bill of Divorcement," one of the four plays of the year, was presented by the Duke players. Charlotte Miller played the role of Basset.

Tommy Dorsey played for the student government dances and the annual birthday party of the Quadrangle Theatre on the west campus. The beautiful spring weather added to the air of festivity and to the enthusiasm of the students.

Mary Frances Ivey, chairman of social standards of the Women's Student Government, was elected to this year's May Court. The court consists of twelve girls chosen from the senior class.

The Sunday before initiation the pledges gave a breakfast in the Washington Duke Hotel for the active chapter. During the meal many $\Pi B \Phi$ songs were sung, the favorite one on that occasion being "My Pi Phi Sweet-heart."

INITIATED, February 29, 1936: Imogene Brooker and Iva Brooker, Ashland, Ky., and Ann Cone, Brunson, S.C.

Initiation banquet was held at the Columbia Hotel. Many alumnae were in town for the occasion. The scheme of decorations was a wine airplane with fragile silver-blue wings, with the good ship $\Pi B \Phi$, S.C.A. '36, inscribed upon it. Sara Davis, an alumna, presided as toast-mistress. Mrs. Aiken, Γ Province President, was an inspiration to the affair. Ann Cone was awarded the recognition pin which is given each year for the new initiate who has made the best scholarship.

Martha and Wilbur Kirkland were elected to Damas. $H \Sigma \Phi$, national Latin fraternity, elected Lida Liles. $B \Pi \Theta$, national French fraternity, elected Ann Cone. $\Sigma A Z$, honorary chemical fraternity, elected Elizabeth Anderson. Maxine Scarborough is secretary of $A K \Gamma$ and secretary of the junior class at the University. She is on the Woman's Athletic Association Executive Committee. Jane Williamson is secretary of the Polumathian Club. Margaret Hawkins is secretary of the Euphrosynean Literary Society. Cornelia Reamer, Frances Revere, and Lida Liles are on the Dean's Honor List.

The pledges gave a wicner roast for the actives and their dates at Lake Murray.

To celebrate Valentine's Day $\Pi B \Phi$ gave an informal house dance.

An intersorority basketball tournament was sponsored by the W.A.A. for better feeling among the sororities. The tournament was a success and proceeds from it went into the treasury of the W.A.A. Old English C's will be awarded to the girls on the campus who in the future do outstanding work in athletics.

PLEGDED: Martha Kirkland, Columbia.

INITIATED, March 21, 1936: Mary Burnett, Corona, Josephine Clapp, Detroit; Mary Louise Hart, Royal Oak; Betty Hurley, Coldwater; Patricia Moore, Hillsdale; Mary Glenna Stone, Grosse Pointe; Margaret Pratt.

Four students from this campus were chosen to represent Hillsdale in the Who's Who Among Students, among whom was Dorothy Deuel. This choice is made upon the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and promise of future usefulness.

In conjunction with the Public Relations committee a troupe of actors has been formed which gives performances in various high schools. Eugenia Nystrom is active in this group. Alice Andrus was stage manager of the last campus production, "Around the World in Eighty Days." Other $\Pi B \Phi$'s took part.

At Christmas time, $\Pi B \Phi$ held its annual Christmas dance which is always a gala affair. A few weeks later an alumnae luncheon was held at the house, giving a chance for actives and alumnae to meet and discuss their common interests.

Under the editorship of Dorothy Deuel, the Collegian has been enlarged and several $\Pi B \Phi$'s are contributing. Others are working on the staff of the Winona, the college yearbook. Plans for the annual J-Hop are under way and the round of spring activities is in full swing.

Mary Louise Hart was chosen president of the freshman class at a recent election. Nellie Welch is treasurer of the sophomore class and Agnes Gettman, of the junior class. Beth Marsh and Alison Ford have appeared in concerts given by the College Little Symphony and Agnes Gettman was chosen president of the Glee Club. Plans for the opera are progressing and several chapter members are taking part.

The annual Sophomore Cabaret, "All Aboard," was held in December and was a great success. The League ballroom was transformed into a Grand Central railway station, and at one end of the ballroom an observation car was constructed from which the orchestra played. Betty Gatward and Priscilla Smith assisted with the decorations.

The social committee of the League, under the direction of Martha Steen, sponsored a style show in January and a number of students on campus acted as models.

The J-Hop, which is the leading social event of the year, was held on Valentine's Day. The decorations, programs, favors, and tickets were all designed to carry out the valentine motif, and the dance, which was acclaimed the best in years, was attended by more than 1250 couples. Marion Holden was chairman of programs and favors.

The Junior Girls' Play opened March 26 and continued for a three day run. The play, entitled "Sprize," was written by the central committee. Members of Michigan B held three of the most outstanding positions on this committee: Edith Zerbe, general chairman; Barbara Hanna, chairman of music; and Grace Snyder, chairman of finance. Every Junior in the house participated.

Margaret Hiscock was elected to $\Phi K \Phi$ and Lois King was recently appointed as an assistant in the Department of Psychology.

The chapter's annual Christmas party was held on December 17. The pledges sang their original songs about $\Pi B \Phi$, which is an annual custom.

The chapter entertained Mrs. Scott, Δ Province President.

The chapter was also visited by Miss Emma Harper Turner, a founder of the chapter. A tea was given in her honor on October 14.

Mrs. Nita Hill Stark, Grand Secretary, visited the chapter. A tea was also given by the actives in her honor to which the faculty women and other sorority women were invited. Other entertainments were a luncheon and two dinners. One was given by the pledges, and the other by the active chapter. The Alumnae Club has entertained the actives and pledges with two dinners.

The annual dance, a Leap Year affair, was given by the pledges for the actives on February 29, at Columbus, Indiana.

Mary Owen was initiated by A, an honorary organization similar to $\Phi B K$. This is a very great honor on this campus. Only one other person was taken into membership this year.

The junior class has sponsored several all college mixers.

The Panhellenic dance was held March 21, in the college gymnasium.

The new chapter house has been completed and is now being decorated by Marshall Field's, Chicago, Illinois. Burns and James, the architects, designed the building in the type of the Greek revival architecture of a century ago, that was used for many homes located along the Atlantic seaboard. Plans are being made for a week of festivities to take place when the chapter moves into its new home. These will include a formal dinner to honor the chapter founders, the pledge dance, and a housewarming.

Indiana Γ regrets that ill health caused the resignation of Mrs. Mary King Coble, who has been house mother for the last five years. The actives expressed their deep appreciation of her friendship and interest at a formal dinner which was given at the Indianapolis Athletic Club on January 17. Miss Ada Miller, an alumna of this chapter, is chaperoning at present.

Mrs. Stark visited the chapter February 7-9. She was entertained at a tea given in Jordan Hall, at a formal dinner at the Indianapolis Athletic Club, and by a dinner at the chapter house. She impressed everyone with her sincerity and the wisdom of her suggestions.

The annual homecoming celebration was held by the University on November 2. The activities of the day consisted of a football game with Wabash, a reception for alumnae at the fraternity house, and a house decorations contest. The chapter received first prize for the best house and was presented a trophy.

Social functions have included a chili supper, a tea for all campus freshman women given by $\Pi B \Phi$ pledges, the annual Bowery Ball, a Christmas party, and a Christmas formal dance.

Jane Beasley has been selected delegate to Convention; Marion Gearen is alternate. Jane is at present the secretary and treasurer of the Butler Panhellenic Association and will be president next year. She is to represent that organization April 18 and 19, at the Urban Panhellenic Convention at Ohio State University.

Dorothy Schilling was elected secretary of the freshman class. Jeanne Helt and Louise Edwards were elected to serve on the student council. Jeanne also represented the student body as speaker, at Founders' Day which was February 7, and is a $\Phi K \Phi$, honorary for scholarship. Ruth Repschlager and Jeanne Helt have been chosen for membership in Scarlet Quill, which is the senior honorary for scholarship and activities. Bobby Jo Vestal and Gerry Johnson are members of Spurs, honorary sophomore organization. Janice Kellogg and Mary Lou Colvin are active in $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$. The entire chapter belongs to the Women's League and Y.W.C.A. Ruth Repschlager is a cabinet member of the latter group. Virginia Reynolds is secretary of Blue Gills, swimming club, and many others take an active part. Ruth Repschlager is vice-president of Thespis, dramatic organization, Virginia Reynolds and Louise Edwards have appeared in plays sponsored by this club.

INITIATED, February 24, 1936: Dorothy Arthur, Mexico; Ann Boswell, Maxine Beard, Tulsa, Okla.; Betty Cabeen, Leon, Kan.; Juanita Daly, Chicago, Ill.; Loma Fouke, Texarkana, Ark.; Julia Greenfield, Maxine Hurst, Florence Ann McIninch, Betty Royse, St. Joseph; Claudia Dell Johnson, Lexington; Ruth Kinyon, Virginia Lipard, Frances Logan, Columbia; Nan Latham, California; Eleanor Neff, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Harriett Patterson, Trenton; Mary Ellen Shinn, Joplin; Jenny Sue Sparks, Paris; Martha Woodfill, Nevada; Kathleen Cole, Marion Cox, Katharyn Kelley, Betty North, Frankie Ricksecker, Betty Sue Stripp, Kansas City.

One of the Federal P. W. A. projects in Missouri was the inauguration of a building program for the University. A second Journalism School building, Walter Williams Hall, is under construction. There is to be a Student Health Center in connection with the University Hospital. An Education School Building, which will contain a practice teaching Elementary and High School, is being built. Work has been begun on a new wing of the Library, an addition to the Home Economics Building, an Engineering Laboratory, and a Conservation Building in connection with the School of Agriculture.

This year for the first time Women's Panhellenic, of which Betty Le Vec is to be president next year, sponsored a Sorority Sing. It took place March 25 and the prize was presented by Nelson Eddy, who was in Columbia.

The social calendar this spring included a Leap Year Dance to which the girls either went stag or took dates, and "paid and paid and paid." The most eligible bachelor on the campus was crowned "Bull of the Ball."

In February the Journalism School presented a highly successful musical comedy, "Two to Tahiti." Maxine Beard and Betty Le Vec had leading roles, Frankie Ricksecker, a comedy part, and Mary Louise Theis and Ann Boswell, places in the chorus. Jean Lightfoot was Publicity Director of the Journalism Show Commission.

Missouri Λ was honored by Miss Amy B. Onken's visit early in April. A reception was held for her.

Two informal dances have been given in the chapter house this year, one on November 23 and another on March 14. Founders' Day was celebrated by the chapter and the alumnae with a banquet at the Tiger Hotel.

Frances Ferguson has been selected as one of the Senior Five of Φ β κ . Jane Alford is president of the freshman women and a member of W. S. G. A. Elizabeth Ann Dickinson is a member of κ τ Λ , honorary national Journalism fraternity. Helen Mary McLatchey has been elected to Φ χ θ , honorary business fraternity. She is also secretary of the Business and Public Administration School. Maxine Beard and Frances Logan are members of Freshman Commission, honorary intersorority organization; and Maxine Beard was elected treasurer of this organization. Jean Lightfoot is on the Cabinet of the Journalism School.

PLEGDED: Margaret Curtin, St. Joseph; Helen Wilson, Bethany.

INITIATED, February 25, 1936: Marjorie Dempsey, Kathryn Galle, Emma Jostes, Helen Lipp, Elaine More, Mildred Newton, Jane Overly, Patricia Smith, Mary Judith Smithers, Charlotte Widen, St. Louis; Nannie Fain, Springfield, Ill.

Missouri β has recently had its pride considerably augmented by the redecorating of the chapter room—formerly rather dilapidated, but today resplendent with large mirrors, modernistic furniture, and chandeliers hung by silver arrows! This was accomplished through the combined efforts of the active chapter and the local alumnae club.

On the piano stands a new cup—the Intersorority Sing Award which the chapter won in the third annual Intersorority Sing. The songs which won it were "Pearls," sung in three part harmony, and "What Would This Old World Be?" with combined trio work.

Of main interest to the campus in general at this time is the George Warren Brown School of Social Work building which is now under construction. It will be Gothic in style, conforming in every way to the architecture of the rest of the buildings.

The question of whether or not women should be allowed to smoke on campus has also been arousing a great deal of comment. It is now featured in the St. Louis papers. Helen Konesko, a Π β Φ , and the president of W. S. G. A., is taking the lead in upholding the law of the association which forbids smoking, while Fred Schuler, Chairman of the Editorial Board of the campus bi-weekly, contests it.

Prominent Π β Φ 's in campus activities include: Helen Konesko, President of W. S. G. A., and member of Mortar Board; Joan Stealy, Society Editor of the school paper, and member of Junior Women's Honorary; Jane Konesko, vice-president of Thyrsus, the dramatic organization, and vice-president of the Press Club; Kathryn Galle, vice-president of the Freshman Class, Mary Jane Kerwin, co-chairman of Chapel Committee of the Campus "Y"; Helen Close, Member of Freshman Women's Honorary; and Gene Penney, co-chairman of the Intersorority Sing.

In dramatics are Helen Lipp, who has the lead in the Quad Show, the annual musical production; and Winona Gunn, who will play the lead in the French play.

To date three of the campus beauty queens are from Missouri β : Ruth Leunig, Special Maid of the Engineers' Ball; Patricia Smith, Maid of the Engineers' Ball; and Elberta Herget, Honorary Captain of the R. O. T. C.

INITIATED, March 4, 1936; Betty Crippen, St. Louis; Barbara McGinty, Neosho.

Missouri Γ is looking forward with great interest to Miss Onken's coming. This will be the first time in several years since she has visited Missouri Γ .

Extensive plans are being made for the decoration of the chapter rooms. New rugs and curtains have been purchased. General repairs are being made.

Drury College was fortunate this year in basketball. The MCAU title was won. It has been twelve years since Drury held this honor. A homecoming game was one of the main events of the season, followed by an all-school dance.

Miss Alinda Montgomery, the new dramatic coach, has presented several plays this year. Marietta Root had an important part in the "Queen's Husband." She is also president of the Drury Lane Troupers. Betty Ballantin is representing $\Pi B \Phi$ in the play, "Outward Bound." It will be presented soon.

Drury has been rather quiet so far as rushing is concerned. The sororities and fraternities do not have a formal rush season during the second semester. However, plans are being made for the summer rushing with many new and different ideas.

INITIATED, October 29, 1935; Mary Elizabeth Fishback.

INITIATED, March 14, 1936; Dorothy Althaus, Dorothy Bader, Hamilton Howard, Florence Isert, Eleanor Jefferson, Nancy Mershon, Elizabeth Miller, Mildred Minor, Susanne Nevin, Celanire Paradis, Louise Rose, Dorothy Sandiage, Adele Scheirich, Helen Swann, Sarah Taylor, Louisville.

Two successful dances have been given by Kentucky A this past year. The first was a pledge dance given at the Louisville Boat Club, which was decorated in wine and blue. The Christmas Formal was given at the gymnasium of Belnap Campus on December 19.

Kentucky A is prominently represented on the campus by Mary Louise Weaver, vice-president of the Y. Club, Ella Garth Choate, treasurer of the W.S.G.A., secretary of the Chemistry Club, Catherine Duffy, secretary of the sophomore class, Jane Nelson, vice-president of junior class; Jane Horrell, freshman representative to the Student Council, and Mary Frances Pirkey, freshman Panhellenic adviser. Betsy Archer and Ella Garth Choate have just been initiated into $\Theta X \Delta$.

Special honors were won by Jane Nelson, elected Josephine College, and by Ella Garth Choate, elected Campus Valentine.

University of Louisville is fortunate to have added to its faculty, Dr. Richard Krautheimer, of Universities of Munich, Berlin, Marburg, and Halle, as assistant professor of art in the College of Liberal Arts. An art library, an addition to the main library, will be opened before the close of this semester. A new student union room has just been opened for the enjoyment of the students.

Lawrence Apitz, assistant to A. Alonzo Stagg at the College of the Pacific in California, will replace C. V. Money as athletic director next fall.

The board of trustees has employed Jens F. Larson to draw up a one hundred year campus development plan. Sketches have been approved.

Dean McClain of the Law School has been appointed Dean of the Law School of Washington University at St. Louis. President Kent heads the committee of the Testing Service of American Council of Education, and Dean Oppenheimer of the Liberal Arts heads the Conference of Deans of Southern States.

The girls who made the Dean's List, an average of B or better, are Betsy Archer, Ella Garth Choate, Peggy Marvin, Dorothy Althaus, and Louise Rose.

GRADUATED: Louise Brooks, B.S.

PLEGGED: Hazel McLain.

INITIATED, January 25, 1936; Penelope Jones, Chattanooga.

INITIATED, February 29, 1936; Marie Amacker, Mary Alice Jarrett, Jane Magill, Barbara Martin, Barbara Scott, Louise Sutton, Edith Woodruff, Chattanooga; Nina Spaulding, Decherd; Ruth Sadler, Harriman.

During the week of April 18-25 the University of Chattanooga celebrated its Fiftieth Anniversary with an Institute on Education. The first evening featured a play, "Wappin' Wharf" by Brooks, presented by the University Players, followed the next night by an opera written by Dr. Edwin S. Lindsey, of the faculty of the University of Chattanooga. Among the speakers who took part in the institute were Cordell Hull, Newton D. Baker, John Erskine, Walter Lippmann, and Dr. Few, President of Duke University.

Tennessee A is extremely proud of the fact that in the popularity election this spring the president, Mary Alice Witt, was elected Miss University of Chattanooga. This honor was inaugurated only last year, and then was voted to Catherine Wilber, then president of Tennessee A. In the same election this spring Adelaide Biggers was voted the Most Popular Coed with Eleanor Wyatt running a close second.

At the Junior Prom, the coveted places at the head of the Grand March with the presidents of the Junior and the Senior Classes were held by Adelaide Biggers and Mary Alice Witt.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Webster, Assistant to the Grand President, during her official visit, Tennessee A adopted a plan for pre-initiation week modeled after that of Illinois Z. During that week the pledges were required to learn certain data concerning the history of $\Pi B \Phi$ as well as several new $\Pi B \Phi$ songs and a few basic facts of the other national fraternities and sororities. They were quizzed orally by the vice-president during luncheon at the house every day. This plan proved interesting and instructive to the actives as well as the pledges.

During the official visit of Mrs. C. C. Daniel, Jr., Epsilon Province President, in addition to the usual entertainment for her, the chapter arranged a motor trip to the Settlement School at Gatlinburg. This trip proved so enjoyable that it is hoped that it may become a yearly event.

Virginia Harrell, the retiring treasurer who is replaced by Sara Lois Dent, was initiated during March into $\Gamma \Sigma E$, national honorary chemistry fraternity. Jane Fergus, popular sophomore, has been elected Convention Delegate with Virginia Leeds as alternate.

In the second major dramatic production, J. M. Barrie's Dear Brutus, three $\Pi B \Phi$'s Eleanor Overend, Mary Glenn Walker, and Cornelia Samuel took important roles.

The Dean's List, which includes those students who made an average of "B" or higher, carried the names of seven members of Tennessee A: Jane Fergus, Mary Elizabeth King, Mary Lusk, Cornelia Samuel, Louise Sutton, Gaby Taylor, and Mary Alice Witt.

PLEGGED: November 13, 1935, Ruth Sadler, Penelope Jones, Maria Rankin; December 16, 1935, Edith Woodruff; March 6, 1936, Betty Judd, Chattanooga, Tenn.

INITIATED, February 11, 1936; Sara Lee Banks, Elenita Beard, Mildred Blair, Mary Collier, Mary Charles Illing-worth, Elizabeth Jackson, Sara Lowry, Isabel Meade, Annette Mitchell, Daisy Dean Smith, Margaret Anne Wilmore.

Alabama A has just completed a very successful semester. At mid-semester the chapter retained its position as first in scholarship and has hopes of keeping it. Katherine Lide made nothing below an "A" and six other members received nothing below "B."

Members of the chapter have received several honors. Gene McCoy and Mary Knox were asked to become members of B.B.B., honorary biological fraternity; Barbara Seaman and Katherine Lide have recently joined II P T, honorary social science fraternity; Marguerite Johnston was tapped for A A A honorary freshman women's fraternity, and T A, honorary musical fraternity. Five members are on the Y.W.C.A. freshman commission and Gene McCoy and Virginia Bartlett are on the Y.W.C.A. board. Eight members were nominated by various organizations to appear in a beauty review from which able judges are to choose those who's pictures will appear in the school annual. Virginia Bartlett and Marguerite Johnston hold offices in the Belles Lettres literary society.

Alabama A is well represented in the social events of the campus. Katherine Lide led the recent K A dance and Laura Ross Moore, Gene McCoy, Elenita Bird and Mae McIntosh (alumna) are to appear in the leadout of the E A E dance. The chapter is having a small party March 7 and is making plans for the annual dance which is to be given April 30.

Birmingham-Southern is proud of the election of its president, Dr. Guy E. Snavely, as national president of O A K. This organization plays an important part on the campus and is now sponsoring a series of monthly concerts. These programs, to which the public is invited, take place on Sunday afternoon and feature outstanding musicians of the state. The new chapter of Mortar Board which has replaced the local organization, Scroll, together with A A A is rendering active service.

Zeta Province President, Miss Lucy Pope, was the guest of Florida A on December 6, 7, 8, 1935. Before the Stetson-Rollins football game, a supper was given in Miss Pope's honor, to which Florida A was invited. A party given by the pledges and a chapter breakfast were also given in her honor.

A patroness-faculty tea was given at Mrs. Dossie Hull's home on November 7. On December 17, the pledges gave a leap-year tea-dance for the actives and their dates. Florida A entertained Miss Maude King, Dean of Women, at a supper on March 11. The annual II B Φ formal dance was held April 3, at the Pier in Daytona Beach.

Betty Dreka has been chosen as delegate to convention; Helen Spaulding as alternate. Jane McCarty won the award for the most representative pledge; Ruth Hooker the award for the highest grades among the pledges.

II B Φ girls taking part in dramatics this year are: Helen Brin, Sally Klefeker, Lola Hammer, Mary Ellen Lord, Evelyn Northen, Betty Rider, and Bette Stover.

Some of the honors held by II B Φ this year have been: president of Student Council, Helen Horn; Torch and Scroll, highest scholastic fraternity on campus, Helen Spaulding; Homecoming City Hostess, Dorothy Skillman; most popular, Bette Stover; best looking, Mary Maxwell.

INITIATED, February 21, 1936: Marian Heper, Florence Kerr, Anne Ladd, Jacksonville; Rose Evans, Orlando; Shirley Pemberton, Winifred Ewart, Peggy Jackson, June Maule, Polly Ann White, Edith Phelps, Miami; Betty Blalock, Ocala; Eleanor Williams, Marjorie Stewart, Daytona Beach; Aileen Murphy, St. Petersburg; Margaret Gourlie, Tampa; Augusta Yust, Winter Park; Danner Baker, New Smyrna; Betty Vann, Dunnellon; Floreine Morris, Quincy; Eugenia Cannon, Coral Gables; Freddie Frink, West Palm Beach.

Out of the thirty pledged first semester, twenty-one were initiated. This is a great improvement over last year's record. The morning of February 22, an initiation breakfast was held at the Floridan Hotel, and the theme of the "II B Φ Garden" was carried out. At this time the cup awarded annually to the pledge who makes the highest scholarship average, was presented to Betty Blalock. A II B Φ bracelet was awarded to Winifred Ewart as the best all-round pledge, and a bracelet was also presented to Helen Kibler as the active raising her grades the most from last semester.

The II B Φ were well represented in the Odd and Even Demonstrations held each year just before Thanksgiving. Arline Gray Lockhart had the lead in Odd Demonstration, and Peggy Jackson, June Maule, Betty Wynn, Winifred Ewart, Julia Burnett, and Freddie Frink were also in it. Rose Evans and Shirley Pemberton took part in Even Demonstration. June Maule was elected one of the Odd cheer leaders. Three freshmen, Margaret Gourlie, Betty Wynn, and Winifred Ewart, took part in Fealty, the ceremony in which the freshman class pledges its allegiance to the junior class.

The new members for Cotillion and Village Vamps were tapped at the Thanksgiving dance. Marian Heper, June Maule, Katherine Rogers, Augusta Yust were among those chosen for Cotillion, and Danner Baker, Betty Ann McKenzie, and Mary Turner were selected for the Village Vamps. Phil Asher was recently tapped for Esteren, the Even Honorary.

Betty Boggs, June Maule, Phil Asher, Rose Evans, Shirley Pemberton, Freddie Frink, Betty Wynn, Margaret Gourlie, Ruth Mock, and Danner Baker were in Junior Minstrel, the play produced each year by the junior class. Two senior speech majors, Betty Boggs and Ruth Mock, gave recitals last semester, and both had major parts in a play presented by the Speech Department. Eloise Frink and Jean Treadwell were also in this play. Betty Boggs has the lead and Mary Irene McKay is in the cast, of the senior play, to be presented next month.

Phil Asher was elected Chairman of the Sophomore Hop. Betty Wynn, freshman, is on the Debating Team and has proved her ability by winning her first debate. The II B Φ swimming team tied for first place in the Intramural Swimming Meet. Skit Night was held March 6. Florida B presented a skit entitled "Too Many Endowments."

The chapter is continuing the practice of having a cooky-shine once a month, and several after dinner coffees for faculty members.

Definite plans have been made for an addition to the chapter house, to be built this summer in order to accommodate more of our girls. According to the scholastic rating the girls living in the house made a much higher average than those living in the dormitory.

Construction has started on five new dormitories which are to be completed by the beginning of the next school year. These buildings are to be of the Spanish type. The plan to abolish fraternity and sorority houses and have all students live in dormitories on campus will go into effect when these buildings are completed.

On honors day Dorothy Manwaring, Frances Hyer, and Jane Thayer were elected to the Libra. Libra on this campus corresponds to Mortar Board. Constance Righter and Margaret Bashford were elected to Φ B, national dramatic and music honorary. Florida Γ received the basketball cup which it won last fall. This gives the chapter 100 points toward the cup which will be awarded at the end of the year to the fraternity having the most points. This is the first year this system, patterned on the system used by the men's fraternities, has been used by the women's fraternities. Eileen Gallagher was chosen to be on the honorary varsity basketball team.

Following initiation February 2, the new initiates were given a banquet at Perrydell in Orlando. Mary Dudley was awarded the recognition pin given each year to the model pledge.

Many members of the chapter have taken an active interest in dramatic art. Constance Righter, Frances Hyer and Dorothy Manwaring had prominent roles in the student production, "The Goose Hangs High." Frances Hyer also has a part in "The Late Christopher Bean" which is to be produced soon.

There has been an increased interest this year of the chapter in the Wisconsin Players. Edna Balsey took the part of Mrs. Mayo in Eugene O'Neill's "Beyond the Horizon." Margaret Clausen portrayed the difficult part of Nana in "Seventh Heaven."

On December 6 the chapter had its Christmas formal dinner dance which was followed on Monday, December 16, by a party of actives and pledges.

The climax of the short vacation between semesters was the Junior Prom. Dorothy Teeple headed the social activities as the Queen of the Prom. Helen Theiler was chosen a Badger Beauty and thus was in the Court of Honor of Junior Prom. The $\Pi B \Phi$'s all enjoyed this great event of the current year.

A bridge luncheon was given by the chapter for Mrs. McCaskill, Wisconsin A's new housemother. Among those present were the housemothers of other organizations, the Advisory Board and the Deans.

A contest for amateur skits was sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association. The contestants were of the various women's organizations on this campus. Wisconsin A won a Kensington plate as the prize for the most humorous skit, the presentation being an original bit written by Jean Weirick and enacted by Lois Uhlemann, Margaret Clausen, Janet Shaw, Mary Jane Bucklin, and Arvid Zentner.

Wisconsin B has added to its mantle a new cup and has reinstated its claim upon another one. With the attainment of an average within .01 of a point of a straight B the chapter was awarded the Panhellenic Scholarship Cup for the third consecutive semester, and under the direction of Eileen McNellis a homecoming float was constructed which was given first place in the parade.

Early in the fall Miss Onken paid the chapter a visit, and later on Mrs. Webster, her assistant, honored us.

At the College Major Gold Contest, a year book publicity stunt, the chapter won both women's prizes by virtue of Kay Mitchell's imitations and the performance of the "Pi Phi Trio," composed of Dorothy Vale, Eileen McNellis, and Virginia Grice.

Kay Mitchell was recently elected to $\Phi B K$ and Dorothy Vale to $\Phi \Sigma I$, honorary romance language fraternity. Joyce Hartman is now officiating as president of the local unit of the Y.W.C.A., and Betty Barber is assisting as vice-president.

Marion Loomis, Dorothy Vale, and Kay Mitchell were voted three of the eight most popular girls on campus and elected to the Court of Honor at the Panhellenic Ball.

Barrie's charming play, "Dear Brutus," will be produced by the Beloit Players, March 15, under the direction of Eileen McNellis and Kay Mitchell.

The chapter held its pledge informal dance at the Art Hall and the Winter Formal at the Hotel Hilton. The next date on the social calendar is to be a Toyland Party.

Many members of the chapter are working hard on the Gold, the College yearbook, as it nears its publishing. Kay Mitchell is feature editor.

On February 17 and 18 Illinois A had the pleasure of a two day visit from Mrs. Nita Hill Stark, Grand Secretary. A tea, given in her honor, was attended by representatives of the other sororities on the campus.

Grant Wood, noted artist, gave a lecture on his life January 9. On February 7, Carl Sandburg appeared on a program in which he read some of his poetry and played the guitar.

The faculty entertained the students at their annual reception on February 14.

The Crimson Masque, the college dramatic society, chose two freshmen girls as new members in the yearly tryouts: Evelyn Fredrick, and Marion Irish. In recent productions by the Masque, Jane Hunt, Ruth Wiley, Evelyn Ruskin, Betty McClenahan, Jane Bradley, and Frances Bryson were cast. On February 29 a one act play "Suppressed Desires," was presented under the direction of Betty McClenahan. She also played the leading role in "Brief Candle" which was presented in December.

The debate teams of the college have an extensive program this year. Trips are being made into Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Ohio besides the national $\Pi K \Delta$ convention at Houston, Tex. Dorothy Maynard is on the women's inter-collegiate team.

On February 28 the college was saddened by the death of Dr. Van Gundy, who for twenty-one years was head of the Latin department. His death was the result of complications following an appendicitis operation. Just a few weeks before his death Dr. Van Gundy finished the translation of Odes and Carmen Saeculare in celebration of the bimillennium of the birth of Horace in December. The book "Horace in Horatian Meters" is now published.

The annual minstrel show was presented February 25 in the college auditorium. Frances Bryson, Marion Irish, and Jane Hunt were cast.

A beauty contest was held on the campus. Out of the six girls chosen $\Pi B \Phi$ had four: Betty McClenahan, Ruth Graham, Flora Hauhart, and Ruth Wiley.

The annual spring party is tentatively scheduled for May 30 at the Monmouth Country Club.

Illinois B- Δ , for the third successive semester has won the sorority scholarship cup, and Lorraine Lindsey was elected to $\Phi B K$. Two other members were given honorable mention by the college authorities for excellent work during the past semester. These were Barbara Winks, a sophomore, and Martha Johnson, a freshman.

Margaret Gessner and Violet Bielefeldt, two of the four Knox beauties appearing in the Chicago Tribune were Illinois B- Δ members.

The offices of editor-in-chief of two publications are held by Illinois B- Δ members, Jean Fuhr being editor of the Gale, the yearbook, and Virginia Scott being editor of the Swathor, the magazine.

The chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. Nita

Hill Stark, Grand Secretary, on February 15-16. During her visit, Illinois B-Δ was hostess at a tea given in her honor, to which the presidents of the other women's fraternities on the campus as well as the national officers of Π B Φ and other national officers of other fraternities were invited. The chapter also gave a cooky-shine at the Custer Hotel. Mrs. Stark's visit was a real inspiration to the entire chapter.

Knox College began its centennial celebration on February 15, Founders' Day. Plans are under way for restoration of the interior of Old Main, the central building of the campus, and the only remaining landmark of the Lincoln-Douglas debates.

Members of the Knox chapter hold five presidencies, the more important of these being Margaret Gessner, president of the K.A.W.S.; Virginia Kost, president of Mortar Board; and Betty Post, president of the Sophomore Commission. Elizabeth Osborn was recently elected treasurer of Y.W.C.A. The battalion sponsor of the R.O.T.C. unit is Virginia Gibson, and one of the company sponsors is Mary Lou Gocheour.

At the initiation banquet on February 14, at which Miss Inez Webster and Mrs. Florence Robnett, Dean of Women, were guests of honor, Illinois E was proud to announce the initiation of 25 of its 28 pledges. On February 12 the prospective initiates attended a costume ball, and later in the evening experienced their first cooky-shine. Marie Ranstead, a sophomore, made the highest grades in the pledge class.

Among the seniors prominent in campus activities are Edyth Lou Docekal, member of the senior commission, Mary Blair, who recently received scholastic honors, and Betty Mersbach and Peggy Grigsby, who made the all-star volleyball team and were awarded their W.A.A. minor N's.

Libbie Weir, desk editor on the Daily Northwestern, has just been pledged to Θ Σ Φ, honorary journalism sorority, and both she and Frances Clarkson are on the junior commission.

Georgianne Rundall, secretary-treasurer of the junior class, has been elected the delegate to the convention, at which Illinois E will be one of the hostess chapters. On January 20 the new officers were installed.

Foremost among campus activities this spring will be the mock political convention, which will give Northwestern students an opportunity to express their opinions on national affairs. Each sorority and fraternity will represent a state. The chapter delegate, Doris Eberle, claims that all newspapers and newsreels in the Chicago area have promised cooperation and that there is a possibility of a broadcast over a national hook-up.

In the annual Waa-Mu production, which this year will be in the form of a satirical musical revue entitled "It Goes to Show," are Betsy Ross and Peggy Askew, who are in speciality skits, Phyllis Thompson, Rita Pool, and Nancy Powell, show girls, and Mary Buckley and Betty Wally, chorus girls. Phyllis is also the candidate for Syllabus beauty queen. On the show board are Marie Ranstead, music chairman, and Ann Lewis, press representative. Also in the dramatic field is Virginia Puntton who has the leading role in the University Theater production, "When I Said I Would Die A Bachelor."

Other prominent sophomores include Midge Evans, Mary Gibson, and Pat Jones, members of their class commission.

Among the chapter social activities of the past few months were a tea dance given on December 8 in honor of the pledges and the annual Christmas party on December 16. The winter formal this year was given on January 11, at the Drake Hotel; the Gold Coasters orchestra was featured.

The mid-year rushing party was given on February 18. PLEDGED: Virginia Green, Wilmette, Ill.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Jane Pool, 331 Davis Street, Evanston; Virginia Miller, Chicago.

INITIATED, February 15, 1936: Margaret Barber, Aurora; Beverly Belyea, St. Charles; Ruth Buchholz, Suzanne Little, Urbana; Anita Knapp, Peggy Lyons, Champaign; Virginia Chandler, Evanston; Marjorie Diehl, Lawrenceburg, Ind.; Mildred Mellencamp, Warsaw, Ind.; Virginia Rugh, Decatur; Katherine Simpson, Beardstown; Rosemary Temple, Moline; Betty Herz, St. Louis, Mo.; Helen Bellows, Glencoe.

The scholarship average of Illinois Z for the first semester of this year was 3.7. Beverly Belyea, Ruth Buchholz, and Anita Knapp were elected to A A Δ, a scholastic honorary for freshman women having a 4.5 or more. Virginia Rugh was given a crested scarf pin for the highest average in the pledge class, a 4.8.

The chapter gave a formal dinner before the Women's League show, "Of Thee I Sing," which was a great success. Betty Herz, Beverly Belyea, and Dorothy Clark all had parts in the production.

The Student Senate, of which Mary Ann Price is a member, has drawn up a new student constitution, under which are being passed, with faculty cooperation, excellent new student regulations.

Fay Sullivan, in a contest sponsored by the Illinois Union, was voted one of the three most popular campus women, while Helen Dasenbrook led this year's Freshman Frolic.

In November, the chapter was fortunate in having a visit from Miss Onken, every moment of which it enjoyed. Illinois Z is hoping she can make another visit to the chapter in the next year or so.

Virginia Rugh has been elected President of both the Life Saving Club and the Physical Education Majors' Club while Ruth Cogdal has been very active in Women's League as Social Chairman for the organization. Marjorie Diehl was elected to Terrapin, women's swimming honorary, and Virginia Rugh, to A E N, a women's physical education honorary.

RUSHING CHAIRMAN: Gay Lewis, 1628 York, Quincy, Ill.

Pledge Day, February 4, 1936

INITIATED, February 13, 1936: Suzanne Stoutenborough, Elizabeth Ann Geiger, Aileen Dipper, Charlotte Griggs, Jessie McKeown, Decatur; Beatrice Hill, Sullivan; Margaret Sweeney, Salem.

Illinois H was very happy to have Miss Onken spend several days at Decatur in October.

In November the chapter entertained the members of the faculty at a Sunday night buffet supper given in the chapter house. Among the faculty present were the new dean and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Miller.

On Friday evening, February 28, the students and faculty were delighted to see Carola Goya, famous Spanish dancer, perform a series of varied dances in gorgeous, handpainted costumes. She was accompanied by a well known harpist, Beatrice Hurford.

During the weeks of February 24-29 and March 2-6 the women's fraternities at Millikin held competing basketball games in the gymnasium. An exhibition basketball game, composed of the best players from each team, was held the following week.

The week-end of March 6, 7, 8, Millikin was hostess to forty-five Y.W.C.A. delegates from thirteen surrounding colleges. Meetings were held Saturday morning and early afternoon in the auditorium, followed by a musical tea in the Conservatory. After a banquet in Aston Hall, all the delegates attended a play in the Millikin auditorium, "The Would-Be Gentleman" by Molière. The leading woman's rôle was played by Juanita Robertson, a $\Pi B \Phi$ pledge. Sunday morning a short meeting was held followed by a farewell service.

The annual interfraternity "Sing" was held April 17. The chapter observed Founders' Day with Illinois Z. PLEDGED: Ellen Horn, Ravinia.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Jean Beall, 1505 West Wood Street, Decatur.

INITIATED, October 15, 1935: Betty Dean, Peggy Lawson, Diana Peacock.

INITIATED, January 11, 1936: Mary Cowan, Betty Gray, Elaine Hilton, Margaret McNabb, Lenore Morgan, Peggy Morrison, Eleanor Moore, Yvonne Sharpe.

Manitoba A has been very busy this term in the different activities on the campus. Thelma Hermanson took part in the first U.M.S.U. debate of the season, which, in view of Canada's forthcoming federal elections, took the form of a political dispute. Norma Jane Verner participated in the annual Interfaculty field day.

November 2 was University Day. All classes were withdrawn and "open house" was held at the Fort Garry site. There was a rugby game in the afternoon and a dance in the evening.

On November 6 the actives held an informal dance in honor of the pledge group at the Fort Garry Hotel. On November 6 the pledges had a tea for the actives at the home of their president, Molly Ann Manning.

There were two $\Pi B \Phi$ members in the cast of this year's U.M.S.U. dramatic production "Tobias and the Angel." They were Margaret French and Zelma Tyndale, who took the parts of dancers. As usual, the chapter was well represented on sub-committees behind the scenes.

On January 18 the pledges had a tea dance in the new chapter room, which was once the drawing room in one of Winnipeg's oldest and most beautiful residences. Here are held regular Sunday teas every two weeks.

In February the Glee Club presented "Ruddigore." Elaine Hilton and Mary Kate Florance were in the chorus. Once again Manitoba A administered make-up, fitted costumes, and acted as ushers.

The big event of the season was the formal, which took place at the Royal Alexandra Hotel on February 24. Mr. John Bracken, who is the premier of Manitoba, and Mrs. Bracken, who is one of our patronesses, were present.

Also during February we had an open meeting and Mrs. G. F. Klein, originally a member of Minnesota A, who now lives in Winnipeg, spoke to us on her visit to the Settlement School. This is always an interesting and novel subject to Canadians who so seldom have an opportunity to see or come in contact with such an organization.

Jean Christie was elected Lady Stick of Arts. Thus for a second year in succession a $\Pi B \Phi$ has held this position, which is the highest a girl can hold in the students' self-governing body. Molly Ann Manning was elected secretary-treasurer of the Junior Co-ed's executive and Dorothy Magee and Yvonne Sharpe tennis and badminton representatives respectively.

The chapter is now engaged in intersorority basketball and at the time of writing has won its first game.

PLEDGED: Ruth Breerton, Mary Cowan, Phyllis Emerson, Mary Kate Florance, Betty Gray, Blanche Henderson, Elaine Hilton, Jean Landreth, Dorothy Magee, Molly Ann Manning, Margaret McNabb, Lenore Morgan, Peggy Morrison, Eleanor Moore, Grace Russel, Yvonne Sharpe, Norma Jane Verner, Elaine Wood.

PLEDGED, November 16, 1935: Muriel Armitage.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Margaret Lough, 180 Montrose Street, Winnipeg.

NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

Chartered, 1921

Pledge Day, March 2, 1936

INITIATED, February 15, 1936: Grace Johnson, Eleanor Shaw, and Madelon Stephenson, Williston; Betty Wiltrout, Oslo, Minn.

The University of North Dakota celebrated its fifty-third Founders' Day on February 22. President John C. West presided and introduced Dr. David Bryn-Jones, Minister of the Trinity Baptist Church of Minneapolis, the principal speaker.

The twenty-sixth annual Carney song contest was held on February 26. Alfa Trangsrud and Claire Stromberg were accompanists for the junior and sophomore classes, respectively. The University of North Dakota basketball team won its third successive conference championship this year.

Among the University freshmen obtaining an average higher than B for the first semester are Enid Godwin, Ruth Davies, and Eileen Stenson. Grace Johnson was awarded the jeweled pin which is given to the initiate obtaining the highest average among the group.

Marian Acker, Ruth Fiskum, and Grace Johnson have been pledged to $\Phi X \Theta$, national commerce sorority; Vivian Helgeson has been elected president of the $\Phi X \Theta$ pledge, chapter. Eleanor Shaw is in the cast of "Post Road," forthcoming Dakota Playmaker production. Alfa Trangsrud has been elected to National Who's Who, and Blanche Horton Stephenson to Z Φ H, national speech sorority.

North Dakota A is eagerly anticipating the arrival of Ruth Barrett Smith who will visit the chapter soon.

The active chapter has elected Harriet Miller as its delegate to Convention.

At the present time plans are being formulated for the chapter's annual fathers', mothers', brothers', patrons' and patronesses' dinners.

PLEDGED: Catherine Davies, Minot, N.D.
GRADUATES: Joyce Ballard, Fairmount; Lorene Berg, Dickinson; Geraldine Gibbens, Jamestown; Kathryn Jones, Sobeys, Mont.; Marion McIntosh, Devils Lake; Charlotte Stromberg, Langdon; Alfa Trangsrud, Fargo.

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Chartered, 1890

Pledge Day, October 7, 1935

INITIATED, February 1, 1936: Dorothy Andrews, Jean Beddall, Marjorie Cummins, Ruth Ellison, Ann Gifford, Frances Healy, Betty Kuehn, Jeanne Oistad, Margaret Van Petten, St. Paul; Eunice Cutlar, Jean Hoideal, Minneapolis; Carolyn Klemer, Faribault; Helen Uhler, Crosby.

During the football season, the sororities and fraternities compete, at Homecoming, for prizes by decorating their houses and floats. The theme of the Homecoming this year was "Paul Bunyan," and $\Pi B \Phi$ had the honor of receiving first place in the float parade. The theme was carried out by having a pair of live oxen drawing a lumber cart, on which were the traditional "Johnny Inkslinger" writing in a huge book with ink out of a barrel, and also a number of the girls dressed in effective lumber-jack costumes.

Miss Isabel Clark, Theta Province President, visited Minnesota A in December for the first time, and proved a very charming guest. During her stay the alumnae club gave a Christmas dinner and party for the active chapter.

The Freshman Cabinet of the University Y.W.C.A. has elected Frances Healy, new initiate of $\Pi B \Phi$, as its president. This is a coveted position, and one which automatically makes her a member of the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet. Margaret Hofacre, a member of W.S.G.A. board, was one of the leaders in the lineup for the grand march at the Junior Ball, which was given in February. Margaret was also in charge of a tea given recently by W.S.G.A. in honor of Dean Anne Dudley Blitz, Dean of Women here.

Minnesota's gain in enrollment this year has been quite significant; there has been an increase of over 2,000 students over last year. Also two new building projects are under way. An adult education building has just been begun, and a new wing on the Women's Gymnasium is just being completed.

March 6th, the traditional $\Pi B \Phi$ winter formal was held. For this party the decorations are always in an elaborate "snowball" motif. $\Pi B \Phi$ is one of the five sororities out of twenty on the campus which did not have its social privileges denied it for the winter quarter because of low scholarship during fall quarter.

PLEGDED, October 7, 1935: Helen Hofacre, Lucille Davenport, Alice Ziegler, Minneapolis; Sylvia Brassett, Kalispel, Mont.; Betty Ann Shaffer, Cleveland Heights, Ohio; Lois Gorder, Aberdeen, S.D.; Elsbeth Gurley, Pipestone; Jeanne Gibson, Sioux Falls, S.D.; Marcia Kilborne, Owatonna.

PLEGDED, November 4, 1935: Betty Morris, Minneapolis. REPLEGDED, January 20, 1936: Lillian Ashby, St. Paul. RUSH CHAIRMAN: Mary Frances Tucker, 4215 Garfield Avenue S., Minneapolis, Minn.

INITIATED, February 8, 1936: Emily France, Ollie. INITIATED, February 14, 1936: Margaret Conover, Mount Pleasant; Pauline Carroll, Keosauqua; Margaret Hall, Centerville; Betty Lundgren, Bonaparte; Jean Shaver, Sigourney; Elizabeth Hunt, Farmington.

The Wesley Fellowship, a student religious organization, has been formed on the campus this winter. This group is for the furthering of religious activities. Margaret Hall is the $\Pi B \Phi$ representative. The major activity of the year was the sponsoring of Religious Emphasis Week from March 2 to March 4. Dr. James Brett Kenna, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Des Moines, was the guest speaker.

Following the Thanksgiving holidays, Iowa A held open house for the other sororities and fraternities on the campus and the members of the college faculty. The pledges entertained the active chapter and their guests at an annual Christmas cooky-shine on December 14. Immediately after dinner the pledges presented an original stunt.

Among the outstanding college parties were the Panhellenic Party on January 29 and the George Washington Ball on February 22. A $\Psi \Omega$ sponsored the play, "Skidding," by Aurania Rouverol, in the college chapel on April 3. Virginia Holland was the assistant director. Charlotte Allen was presented as Queen of the Tiger Ball, a dance sponsored by the staff of the college paper, the Iowa Wesleyan Tiger. Helen Weibley has been selected as a new member of the Hershey Hall House Council. Iowa A has held all honors in women's debating this year. The women's squad includes Alice Talbot, Sally Fortune, Betty Lundgren, Virginia Holland. Charlotte Allen was reelected as basketball manager for W.A.A.

PLEGDED, February 4, 1936: Virginia Hall, Mount Pleasant.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Eleanor Stevens, Salem, Iowa.

INITIATED, March 7: Evelyn Faucett, Cawnpore, India; Virginia Wallace, Cedar Rapids; Helen Bliss, Mount Air; Marjorie Nelson, Maxwell; Margianne Coyle, Humboldt; Florence Sanderson, Humeston; Eileen Brewer, Elizabeth Holmes, Esther Emmons, Indianola; Sarah Jean Hooker, Clarinda; Helen Remington, West Berlington, R.I.; Virginia Mears, Jefferson; Barbara Ann England, Van Meter.

Since the resignation of John L. Hillman from the presidency of Simpson College there will be a change in administration. Dr. E. E. Harper, former president of Evansville College, Evansville, Ind., was elected to fill Dr. Hillman's place and the inaugural is set for April 20.

Dr. Harold Lancaster of Ottumwa returned this year as guest speaker for Religious Emphasis Week. One of the most outstanding lecturers this year was Charles Wakefield Cadman, who spoke here March 10.

Iowa B for the first time in years initiated all of its pledges making a full chapter of actives.

Iowa B is having a successful year on the campus. From the four representative women chosen $\Pi B \Phi$ had two, Martha Katherine Riggs, and Phyllis Emmons; Barbara Ann England was initiated into $\Sigma T \Delta$; Phyllis Emmons was initiated into $A \Psi \Omega$. Ellen Belle McClelland, Mary Elizabeth Ingram, and Barbara Ann England were announced at the Spinster's Ball as three of the Simpson Beauties out of the eight chosen. The homecoming cups were awarded to Iowa B for the best comic float and house decorations. Phyllis Emmons, member of the varsity debate squad attended the national $\Pi K \Delta$ Convention in Houston, Tex. Charlotte Schrier, Mildred Severs, and Phyllis Emmons are new officers of Zetalethian Literary Society.

Grace Margaret Moist and Dorothy Heaton received sweaters for participation in W. A. A.

Barbara Ann England was chosen representative pledge by the active and pledge groups and her name is engraved on the representative pledge cup for 1936. Martha Katherine Riggs was awarded the diamond recognition arrow for the greatest improvement in grades in the active chapter. Elizabeth Holmes was awarded a box of crested stationery for the highest grades in the pledge group.

Iowa B is striving to retain the scholarship cup which she won last semester.

GRADUATES: Dorothy Heaton, Creston; Louise Hartzler, Earlham; Mary Ida Nelson, Maxwell; Grace Margaret Moist, Ida Grove; Martha Katherine Riggs, Rangoon Burma.

AFFILIATED: Josephine Betty, Davenport, Iowa.

Each year the Iowa State College presents notable people and concerts through its organized Star Lecture Series. This year such people have been here as: Lily Pons, Thornton Wilder, author and lecturer; Dr. Poulter of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition; and Sigmund Spaeth. Debaters from Oxford and Texas, and the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra have been here also.

"Veishea," the college's annual exposition, was enlarged this year. Performances were doubled in the number of times given, and open houses covered more territory. For the Spring Concert, during "Veishea," Dorothy Golden was appointed chairman. Mary Louise Chapman was in charge of the Textiles and Clothing Open House.

The Y.W.C.A. is carrying out to a fine degree the words "fulness of life," as found in the creed. At its spring election of officers Annabelle Havens was elected vice president, and Marguerite Root, a pledge, secretary.

Iowa Γ holds sixth place on the all college honor roll and ranks at the head of the women's fraternities on the campus. Catherine Cooper, Betty Bergman, and Martha Roberts are on the honor roll. This year the members are active in athletics and are well represented with Rebecca Hayward as intramural president.

The chapter is sorry to lose Helen Bjornstad who has accepted a scholarship to Merrill Palmer School, Detroit, Mich.

The alumnae and actives of Iowa Γ met for a cooky-shine on February 15.

Scholarship has been the most important feature of the work of Iowa Z this year. Especially the active grades, which averaged over 2.5 and included six over a three point, show a marked improvement.

Fifty-one girls are members of Y.W.C.A. and nineteen have taken part in W.A.A. activities. Mary-Lou McQuillen, president, member of Union Board, was chosen in the fall to be a member of the University Social Committee. Florence Whitmore, on Mortar Board, has recently been initiated into $\Phi \Gamma \Sigma$. Commerce sorority, Martha Ann Richards presided as Queen over the Dolphin show last fall. Those working on party committees include, Jane Niles, The Spinster's Spree, and Mary Frances Nye, The Pica Ball. A large number of both actives and pledges have been writing for the University publications, The Daily Iowan, Frisol, and The Hawkeye. Every member took part in the intersorority sing, using "The Tribute," "Arrow-Man," "My Pi Phi Girl," and "The Sweetheart Song."

Following the University plan to become personally acquainted with professors, the chapter has been entertaining various professors at Wednesday night dinners.

The W.S.G.A. is holding a Midway-Carnival for the first time this year with each woman's fraternity being represented by a booth. Kansas is presenting a skit with "take offs" on university personalities. As it is a new feature on the campus, and is a "dutch" affair, everyone is expecting it to be a big success.

Thursday, March 5, Kansas A entertained with a buffet supper, having an orchestra play afterward for dancing. The Junior Prom, outstanding social event of the year was held Friday, March 13.

The university is very proud of the K.U. basketball team which won the Big Six championship and all of its non-conference games. In the Intramural Swimming Meet Kansas A took first place, which gave them the lead in Intramural points. Rachael Kiene was especially outstanding, winning two first places and a second.

The chapter entertained with a Founders' Day banquet at the chapter house April 28.

Shirley Jones has been elected president of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, national journalism fraternity. Carolyn Bailey made the K.U. Women's Glee Club and M Φ E, honorary music sorority. Jane Allen recently was announced as one of the winners in the national poster contest.

WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

Chartered, 1910

INITIATED, January 18, 1936: Ellen Pace, Glenn Poston, and Donna Spence.

Winter quarter saw many progressive movements on foot on the Wyoming University campus, in which our chapter has wholeheartedly cooperated. A committee under Panhellenic direction is conducting a study of fraternity building and maintenance finance. The possibility of a new Student Union building has been discussed with great enthusiasm, and tentative plans for a new Home Economics building are being designed. At present the students are happily looking forward to the completion of the new $300,000 Liberal Arts building which is to be opened in time for the graduation exercises in June.

In the whirl of winter social activities, Betty Burrage was honored as regimental sponsor of the Military Ball, Marian Holliday, as attendant at the Engineers' Ball, and Eleanor Calberg won second place in the Agriculture Club's equestrian contest. On March 5 a spring tea was given for faculty women and the wives of faculty members, and each week a few faculty people or university dignitaries are entertained at dinner.

Elizabeth Howard, who was Wyoming's representative at the A.W.S. convention held in Kansas City in December, was one of the five students from this campus to be elected to Φ K Φ . Harriet Tupper was delegate to the A Z II convention at Bloomington, Illinois, where they merged with Φ Σ I, another honorary language fraternity. Marjorie Brandon and Helen Gottschalk have been initiated into this organization.

II Γ M, social science honorary, has chosen Eloine Cook and Lamolia McClenagan for membership, and Σ A I has initiated Ada Bischoff and Betty Fish.

PLEDGED: Ada Bischoff, Lovell, and Virginia Witt, Casper.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Betty Burrage, 110 S. 9th Street, Laramie, Wyo.

Pledge Day, February 2, 1936

INITIATED, March 14, 1936: Mary Lee Verser, Carolyn McEldowney, Aileen Simms, Joan McKowan, all of Oklahoma City; Elizabeth Phillips and Jane Lomax, Norman; Ruth Winn, Emporia, Kan.; Phoebe Jane Chenault, Wichita Falls, Tex.; Elizabeth Hedlund, Elk City; Jean Delaney and Edna Earl King, Ada; Maxine Wallace and Helen Marie Cordell, Holdenville; Barbara Campbell, Tulsa; Bette Lambert, Okmulgee; Dorothy Jane Rogers, Tulsa; Dorothy Ann Perkins, Midland, Tex.; Judith Beth Berry, Sapulpa; Catherine Clonts, Muskogee; Jean Mitchell, Houston, Tex., and Vardrene Arntzen, Ponca City.

The University of Oklahoma will have more adequate housing with the completion of the three new buildings now started. They are a biology building, a business administration building, and a new gun shed for the military department. A new tower is being built on the Union building to house a new master clock and the university radio station.

Oklahoma A is honored to have Miss Gladys Scivally,

Kappa Province President, as its hostess again this year and an additional honor was a short visit from Mrs. Luther Stark on February 20.

Outstanding on Oklahoma A's social calendar have been a fall dansant, a formal Christmas dinner for dates, the annual Christmas party for pledges and members and the annual spring dansant and buffet supper given March 28.

Patience Sewell was elected by the engineering college to reign as its queen on St. Pat's day, and at the engineering ball that night. In addition she is secretary of Σ A I, and a member of χ Δ Φ , and is treasurer of the Racquet club, honorary tennis club.

Another queen was Helen Ribeyre, who was elected queen at a dance given by the freshmen of B Θ II.

Sara Margaret Freeman has served as president of Mortar Board for the past year as well as being a member of the Women's Self Governing Association. She was chairman of the constitutional committee for that organization and a member of the student committee on the university activity trust fund.

Other II B Φ members of W.S.G.A. are Ruth Clark, a member of the executive council, and Lucille MacKenzie.

Members of χ Δ Φ , in addition to Patience Sewell, are Norma Stovall and Lucille MacKenzie.

When the Junior Women's honor class was selected three members of II B Φ were among those chosen. They were Norma Stovall, Ruth Clark, and Lucille MacKenzie. The class is selected each year by Mortar Board. Members of El Modjii, honorary art fraternity, are Nancy Blake Head, Jean Mitchell, and Carolyn McEldowney.

Elizabeth Smith is a member of the women's choral club and of $\Sigma A I$. Pledges to $\Sigma A I$ are Jean Delaney and Aileen Simms.

Eloise Cherryhomes was elected secretary-treasurer of the senior class and a member of O N, home economics fraternity.

Lucille MacKenzie is president of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, women's journalism fraternity, and is society editor of the Oklahoma Daily, university newspaper. Pledges to $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ are Mary Lee Verser and Maxine Wallace. Maxine Wallace is also a member of the Sooner yearbook staff.

Ruth Clark, chapter president for the first semester, is president of the Panhellenic council and a member of the house council of Y.W.C.A. Norma Stovall is financial chairman of the "Y.W."

Members of Orchestra, honorary dance sorority, are Helen Marie Cordell, Carolyn McEldowney, Elizabeth Phillips, and Charlotte Shepherd. Carolyn McEldowney is also a member of the Raquet club.

Thalian club, campus reading society, has elected Norma Stovall, Bette Lambert, and Dorothy Perkins as members.

Oklahoma A's scholarship has been outstanding and that of the pledges is especially high. The chapter's tutor this year is Mary McCollum of Oklahoma B.

PLEGGED: Betty Jane Galt, Ardmore, and Charlotte Shepherd, Norman.

GRADUATES: Eloise Cherryhomes, Tulsa; Kathleen Keefe, Arkansas City, Kan.; Alice Quigley, Fort Worth, Tex.; June Helton, Grandfield; Elizabeth Smith, Wewoka; Mary Taliaferro, Ponca City; Sara Margaret Freeman, Oklahoma City, and Billy Bob Culwell, Norman.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Betty Boddy, 1324 E. Twentieth, Tulsa.

INITIATED, November 14, 1935: Iredell Brown, Shawnee; Maxine Kiester, Tulsa.

March 11: Grace Elizabeth Hill, Jeanne Price, Helen Louise Pulver, Myra Lee Sollers, Stillwater; Virginia Gundlach, Margaret Hope, Betty Maxwell, Virginia Lee Wilson, Tulsa; Betty Lou Brauch, Betty Stuart, Shattuck; Helen Hurst, Pawnee; Virginia Ingle, Marshall; Rebecca Jane Nichols, Claremore; Martha Rhinehart, Wagoner; Peggy Roseberry, Shawnee; Mary Evelyn Treadwell, Holdenville.

Oklahoma was honored in February with a visit from our Kappa Province President, Miss Scivally. Her visit was indeed an inspiration and a help to the chapter.

One of the newest buildings on the campus is the new Engineering laboratory building. It is a one story brick building and is to be well equipped.

Ted Cox, former head coach at Tulane, has taken the position as football coach on the campus.

Maxine Moody was elected as Band Queen.

One of the most interesting activities on the campus this year was the Varsity Revue, the annual college musical comedy. From the twelve novelty acts presented by different organizations, that of Oklahoma B was awarded first place. The annual W.S.G.A. tea was held in the new dormitory. Laura Lou Boatright played a Vibra-Celeste solo for the entertainment. Maxine Kiester was recently appointed to a place on the Legislative Board of W.S.G.A.

This year, being leap year, the Student Senate tried the unique plan of having a leap year dance.

Oklahoma B gave a house dance the first week in December. This was the first dance given by a woman's fraternity on the campus this year.

The pledges of Oklahoma B ranked second in the scholarship rating for last semester.

Social events of especial interest include the Women's Panhellenic formal dance, and the Interfraternity Council dance.

The Panhellenic Christmas project was under the direction of $\Pi B \Phi$. Baskets of food were delivered to needy families of Stillwater. The Panhellenic Charity Ball was given to raise funds for the project.

PLEGGED: Margaret Jane Edwards, Wewoka; Grace Hoffman, Sulphur; Mary Louise Owens, Cushing.

SUMMER RUSH CAPTAIN: Rebecca Jane Nicholas, 317 East Sixth Street, Claremore, Okla.

INITIATED, November 5, 1935: Mildred Danforth, Fort Worth, Tex.; Josephine Cook, Muskogee, Okla. Initiated, March 3, 1936: Ruth Wright, Fort Smith; Alice Henry, Jacksonville; Elizabeth Dudley, Sallie Pearl Dudley, De Witt; Patty Joe Mahony, Eldorado; Nadia Wood, Hot Springs; Roberta Cummings, Prairie Grove; Genevieve Sallee, Pocahontas; Ann DuBard, Marked Tree.

Ruth Wright, one of the recently initiated members, received the small loving cup which is given annually to the model pledge, and Alice Henry, another recent initiate, was duly awarded the jeweled recognition pin for making the highest grades among the pledges.

Louise McCulloch has been selected as delegate to the convention. She has been very prominent on the campus. Isabel Storms is the alternate.

Margaret Jacoway has been given the much coveted honor of being "Miss Arkansas Traveler," the Arkansas Traveler being the school paper.

Those $\Pi B \Phi$ members and pledges who were fortunate enough to make the honor roll last semester include Alice Henry, Louise McCulloch, Alice Jones, and Tolise Kirkpatrick.

Nadia Wood and Coila Harding were recently elected to membership in Swastika.

The college spirit, here, is becoming more and more intense as the time for elections is rapidly approaching.

GRADUATED: Gail McDavitt, 510 W. 23rd, Austin; Virginia Roberdeau, 307 W. 9th, Austin.

INITIATED: Dorothy Bennett, Margery Ann Cox, Nonie Fields, Floreid Francis, Gerry Lyn Fraser, Mary Lillian Hickman, Blanche Heitmann, Alla Ray Kuykendall, Laura Lewis, Josephine Schreiner, Margaret Day Trigg, Martha Wiggins, Bernice Wilder.

Before the Christmas vacation, Texas A entertained with a tea dance at the Austin Country Club. A gold and white color scheme was followed, with an arrow of wine carnations decorating the mantel.

Open rushing, which always follows the beginning of the spring term, was observed after February 1. To date, Texas A has pledged one girl, Anida Darst from Richmond, Texas.

When Miss Gladys Scivally and Mrs. T. N. Alford visited Austin, the chapter entertained them. Texas A thoroughly enjoyed their stay, but regretted that their visits were neither long enough nor frequent enough.

The Texas Centennial is celebrated this year throughout the state. A museum is to be erected on the University campus, and for its construction, the student body is staging a \$100,000 drive—the sum to be raised by the students themselves. Almost 100% of the $\Pi B \Phi$ initiates and pledges have contributed to the drive.

The intramural sports are well under way by now, and $\Pi B \Phi$ has made a great showing so far. The deck tennis tournament was won by Beth Ryburn and Frances Mabel Hildebrand; the ping-pong doubles was won by Marjorie Archer and Carolyn Russell. The chapter obtained third place in the swimming meet. Hockey intramurals are now in progress.

In the Royal Court of the Galveston Mardi Gras, Texas A had two members. Gail McDavitt was presented as the Duchess of the University of Texas, and Ann Harley acted as her lady-in-waiting.

Texas A has three members in the honorary club of Mortar Board: Gail McDavitt, Susan Sanford, and Frances Eastland. Most of the senior girls have been initiated into Cap and Gown. On all of the literary society membership lists are found the names of $\Pi B \Phi$.

Frances Eastland was recently chosen by Texas A for the coveted Amy Burnham Onken Award. She is a member of Mortar Board, of $\Sigma \Delta \Phi$, a Spanish Fraternity, of Reagan Literary Society, of $\Gamma \Delta$, was a beauty nominee and has held the following offices in Texas Alpha Chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$: president, secretary, and on the executive board.

PLEGGED: Anida Darst, Austin.

INITIATED, March 13: Vivian Abercrombie, Archer City; Betty Brown, Virginia Carlisle, Mary Ann Collins, Virginia Garott, Sara Hawley, Margaret McDowell, Agnes Sholkopf, Margaret Stroud, Harriet Olmsted, Dallas; Mary Loving, Jermyn, Tex.; Carolyn Potter, Gainesville; Frances Street, Graham.

The grades of Texas B for the first term have been received, and the best grades in the history of this chapter's presence on the campus were made last term.

Southern Methodist University has had a very interesting year. It had the honor of having a football team which was invited to play in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. Quite a few members of Texas B trekked out.

During the week of March 9, Carnegie Institute conducted an "Institute of Public Affairs," bringing to the campus noted speakers on topics of southwestern and national affairs. Mary Knowles, president of the chapter, had a large part in the entertainment of these speakers. The university is starting a million dollar drive for expansion expenses. The whole campus is in full cooperation.

Dancing on the campus, the question ever present in the minds of the students, was brought to a head March 3, when the students took it upon themselves to sponsor a dance in the gym. It lasted only forty-five minutes, which was enough to accomplish its purpose.

Texas B was hostess to Miss Gladys Scivally, Kappa Province President, about the middle of November, and Mrs. J. E. Webster, Jr., Assistant to the Grand President, visited the chapter on March 31.

One initiate and two pledges participated in "Present Company Excepted," annual Panhellenic comic opera, and Betty Touchstone, Texas B, was assistant producer.

The chapter entertained with a dinner dance on December 4, and the pledges entertained the initiates with an annual vice-versa dance on March 6. Several picnics have been planned for warmer weather.

The chapter participated in basketball, volleyball, and tennis tournaments sponsored by the university.

Texas B is very proud of her sister chapter, Texas A, for winning the Balfour Cup.

Midterm rushing was unlimited as to parties. The chapter entertained with four functions. Due to the quota system in effect at S.M.U., the chapter was only allowed to pledge two girls.

PLEDGES: Helen Hunt, Marianne Touchstone, Dallas.
CO-RUSH CAPTAINS: Polly La Roche, 4421 Fairfax, Dallas, Tex.; Mary Kathryn Wells, 3601 Dartmouth, Dallas.

Pledge Day, October 4, 1935

INITIATED, October 10, 1935: Mary Ellen Freeman, Miriam Schoolfield, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Caledonia Jackson, Greenville, Miss.; Amy Smith, Mary Edmunds Peacock, Clarksdale, Miss.; Polly Corbin, Grace George, Charlotte Hardie, Jessie Janvier, Belle McGehee Lipscomb, Betty Lockett, Corinne Marensell, Katie D. Tack, Mary Upton, New Orleans.

Louisiana A was quite fortunate this winter in that we had the pleasure of entertaining Grand Council, who stopped over at New Orleans after the Panhellenic Convention in Gulfport, Miss. It was such a wonderful opportunity to be able to meet the members of Grand Council personally and although they were only able to stay for one afternoon, their friendliness made the members of Louisiana A feel as though they had known them for a long time. The chapter was also very fortunate in having Miss Gladys Scivally, Kappa Province President, for several days. She offered the chapter many good suggestions and wonderful advice on the problems which confront it at present.

A debate of international interest took place on the Newcomb campus between the Glendy Burke Debating Club of Newcomb and representatives from the University of Oxford, England. A member of Louisiana A, Lelia Werlein, was one of the two members of the Newcomb debating team.

The chapter sponsored a script dance on March 7 to raise money for the Settlement School fund. This dance was a great success in that it was profitable financially and it afforded a lot of pleasure to its participants.

Members of Louisiana A have taken an active part on the campus this season. $\Pi B \Phi$ was well represented in the court of Newcomb, the ball of the dormitories, having Polly Jordan, Lelia Werlein, and Amy Smith among the members. Lelia Werlein was elected to the Who's Who of the Colleges for her outstanding work on the campus during the past three years. Mary Edmunds Peacock is the recording secretary of the Student Body, while Lelia Werlein is the president of the junior class. Louisiana A was well represented on the varsity basketball and hockey teams, in the Dramatic Club, as well as the Art Club. In the courts of the Tulane Student Council dances, $\Pi B \Phi$ is represented by Mary Edmunds Peacock, Amy Smith, Grace George, and Pledge Samuella Wynne.

Louisiana A has placed a great deal of stress on scholarship this year and when the Dean's mid-term list was published it included the names of Mary Ellen Freeman and Miriam Schoolfield.

Several Louisiana A members took part in the carnival balls this season. Cora Jahncke was queen of Carnival, Augusta Walmsley was queen of Twelfth Night and Comus, Lynne Hecht was queen of Proteus, Leonora McLellan was queen of Mithras and Pamela Robinson was the queen of Atlantians. Other members who were in the courts of the carnival festivities were Frances Westfeldt, Louise Taylor, Mary Lee Baker, and Celeste Lyons. Time magazine of February 28 carried an article about the queen of carnival, Cora Jahncke.

PLEDGED: Helen Meyers, Barbara McIlhenny, Sally Keen Tebo, May Miles, Jeanne Wellborn, Marjorie Leverich, Mary Ellis Tack, Paula Potts, Peggy Philpott, Terry Jones, Samuella Wynne, Mimi Platter, Betsey Hackett, Elizabeth Matthews, Eleanor Carrere, Patricia Woodward, Mary Shands, Elizabeth Sharpe, Mary Sibley, Isabelle Johnston, Minette Dart, Elizabeth Reid.

INITIATED, December 2, 1935: Margaret Hutton, Margaret Dunham, Calgary; Margaret Freeman, Edmonton; Pearl Fowler, Acme; Kathleen Moore, Medicine Hat; Mary Payne, Red Deer; Eileen Pearson, Carstairs.

Alberta A was successful in pledging eight new girls following rushing last fall. A committee is now approaching the Faculty Council on Fraternities, once more to attempt to secure first year rushing. There are fourteen girls living in the house this year.

The world famous Hart House String Quartet gave a concert in Convocation Hall on January 13.

Members of the new Social Credit Government of Alberta, headed by Premier Aberhart, visited the University on February 21. Following a banquet in Athabaska Hall, they toured the buildings and laboratories.

$\Pi B \Phi$ has taken prominent positions on executives, in sports, and in dramatics. Maureen Hamilton and Kathleen Moore are on the junior class executive; Ruth Graham is vice-president of the senior class. Mary Hewitt is manager of the Senior Girls' Hockey team with Barbara Burns as the captain. The arrows have again entered their team in House League Basketball.

Margaret Aldwinckle was the leading lady in both the senior play, which was given first place in the Inter-Year plays, and in the University entry into the Provincial Dramatic Festival. Mary Sutherland directed the Festival play, and Mary Macheth was costume manager.

This year for the first time University talent was used in filling one of the leading rôles in the annual Operetta. Margaret Hutton took the leading soprano rôle of Yum Yum in Gilbert and Sullivan's Comic Opera, "The Mikado."

For the first time the students arranged an hour radio broadcast. The program was made up of University talent only, including Margaret Hutton as soloist and Dorothy Howe as official accompanist.

An important event in our chapter was the visit of Mrs. Rusch late in November. Her friendship and advice were helpful to the members, and especially to the pledges.

INITIATED, January 18, 1936: Breta Anderson, Bozeman; Margaret Austin, Whitehall; June Bollum, Barbara Brown, Billings; Phyllis Davis, Belgrade; Katherine Kenyon, Dortha Smiley, Bozeman; Sigrid Solberg, Big Timber.

Montana State College again successfully sponsored High School week, during which high school students from all parts of the state were given a sample of college life. Anne Sanders was woman's chairman, Wilda Parker was assistant and Betty Barringer was head of the secretarial work. Every student participates in this school activity.

"East Lynn" was presented as the dramatic production of fall quarter. Jeane Rogers played one of the feminine leads. The winter production, "Romeo and Juliet," was presented February 21 and 23. Katherine Duncan was starred as Juliet, which is the first time any playlet has been given this honor.

One of the most important social functions of winter quarter was the Military Ball. Wilda Parker was presented as Battalion Sponsor. Katherine Busch, Helen Edwards, and Barbara Brown were Sponsors of Company A, Company D, and Band, respectively.

The "Messiah," was presented by the chorus and orchestra. Several excellent concerts have been given throughout the year. On May 9, Elinor Heron, violinist, will play the "Nardini Concerto" accompanied by the college orchestra. June 9, Mary Beers, violinist will play Beethoven's "Romance."

Anne Sanders, Katherine Duncan, and Francis Snyder were initiated into $\Phi K \Phi$. Eurodelphian, literary honorary, initiated Elinor Heron, Margo Seamens, and Mary Ellen Wiggenhorn. Betty Ross served as president of Spurs, national service organization, Helen Edwards, Marian Huntley, Ruth Keithly, Margo Seamens, and Mary Ellen Wiggenhorn are active members. $\Pi B \Phi$ was represented in the student senate by Betty Ross, president of Spurs, and Brownie Greene, Commissioner of Music.

In order to raise funds for the Settlement School the annual Kings Derby dance was given during the spring quarter.

In honor of Founders' Day, Montana A held a banquet to which were invited all the alumnae residing in Montana. A suitable program was presented.

GRADUATES: Katherine Busch, Bozeman; Katherine Duncan, Butte; Anne Sanders, Great Falls; Betty Barringer, Billings; Audrey Seifert, Bozeman; Francis Snyder, Bozeman.

PLEDGED: Mary Beers, Billings, Marion Bricher, Great Falls; June Edwards, Malta; Helen Everson, Plentywood; Wanna Finley, Bozeman; Patricia Hart, Livingston; Georgia Heisick, Bozeman; Dorothy Kelley, Helena; Kathryn Kravik, Havre; Doris Rember, Butte; Lenore Stewart, Great Falls; Jane Veblen, Eugene, Ore.; Dorothy Wallace, Worden; Violet Beatty, Helena; Doris Simmons, Hamilton; Marjorie Quinlan, Deerlodge; Mariam Lewis, Chinook; Marian Schmidt, Fort Benton.

Pledge Day, February 7, 1936

INITIATED, February 15, 1936: Elyn Bradshaw, Julia Milburn, Mabel Morton, Spokane, Washington; Hester Gentry, Wallace; Eleanor Graham, Christine Saltman, Grangeville; Betty McKee, Boise; Helen Parmley, Clara Young, Salt Lake City, Utah; Betty Vealey, Montpelier; June Viel, Salmon.

An electric Robert Morton pipe organ was recently presented to the University of Idaho by Milburn Kenworthy, local theatre owner. The organ was installed in the Kenworthy theater in 1927, shortly before the advent of "talkies." Not being able to use it since talking pictures became popular, Mr. Kenworthy presented it to the University. It will be installed in the auditorium at the earliest possible time.

From the many general assemblies held this year, two will long be remembered by Idaho students. General Hugh S. Johnson gave a most enlightening and interesting talk on present-day problems; and Jan Kubelick, famous Bohemian violinist, presented a recital, accompanied by his son, Raphael.

On Sunday, February 9, Idaho A gave a tea honoring

Mrs. Harry J. Smith, house mother. Two hundred guests were entertained.

Hazel Gentry, president of Idaho A was presented with the $\Phi X \Theta$ key this year. This key is presented to the most outstanding woman in the school of business administration. Frances Paine was recently pledged to $\Phi T O$, national home economics honorary. Emy Lou Smith is secretary of the sophomore class, Clara Young, a new initiate, is art editor of Idaho's year book, Gem of the Mountains. Betty Obermeyer was initiated into $\Phi X \Theta$, national business honorary. She and Tybe Coffin were also initiated into the local swimming club, Hell Divers. Betty Obermeyer is treasurer of W.A.A. Helen Madsen has a by-line column on fashions called "The Passing Parade" in the school newspaper, The Argonaut. Fay Pettijohn is a member of Vandalettes, girls' sextette.

Idaho A is indeed sorry to lose two of its most desirable members because of ill health, Dorothy Elliott and Eleanor Stewart, but is glad to welcome into the chapter again, Betty Dahl.

RUSHING CHAIRMAN for the coming season is Frances Paine, Lewiston, Idaho.

INITIATED, January 20, 1936: Ruth Hergert, Regina Herman, Marjorie Hood, Harvie Hull, Jayne Lamping, Dorothy Seamans, Seattle; Katherine Blade, Mt. Vernon; Louise Connor, Wenatchee; Geraldine Hanny, Camas; Mary Hume, Snohomish; Anne McLeish, Entiat; Louise Wood, Aberdeen.

This year the winter social season has been an exceptionally busy one. The first of the quarter the alumnae club gave the chapter a birthday party. The presents consisted of money with which to furnish a new smoking room. In February the pledges honored the active chapter with a tea dance at the Chapter House. This year the Associated Women Students sponsored a "Guest Night" honoring independents of the university. Five sororities and five fraternities, of which $\Pi B \Phi$ was one, were chosen as hosts and hostesses.

In activities, $\Pi B \Phi$ is represented on the campus by Mary Frances Hartson, president of Mortar Board, and Margaret Wilson, newly elected secretary of W Key Club, underclasswoman's activity honorary. Jean Douglas, sophomore, scored a big hit as Portia in the "Merchant of Venice," at the Studio Theater. Ruth Clark competed with other musicians of the University Music Department and won the $M \Phi E$ scholarship for one year.

Last quarter showed a great improvement in the house scholarship average, raising it to 2.7. Ruth Clark was pledged to $M \Phi E$, national music honorary.

PLEDGED: Gwynne Williams, Milmae Floyd, Audrey Hinkle, Dorothy Johnson, Betty Platt.

INITIATED, March 7, 1936: Katherine Achre, Nancy Freese, Betty Hollenback, Hope Kimbrough, Edith Lyons, Lucille Ramsey, Spokane; Virginia Hill, Pendleton, Ore.; Ethel Klein, Edwall; Virginia Larsen, Elsie Sherman, Wenatchee; Peggy Lou Stebbins, Donna Hoy, Tacoma.

An extensive building program is being carried on at the State College. In addition to the New Science building and Men's Dormitory which were just completed last fall, construction is being started on a Woman's Dormitory which is to be the largest, and most modern on the campus. Plans are being formulated for a new Women's Gymnasium and Recreation building. After the building is completed, the $\Pi B \Phi$ chapter would like to furnish a room in it, in memory of Florence Johnston, who was recently fatally injured in an auto accident.

A completely new and modern chapter house has been built by the local $K \Lambda$ Chapter, which was completed several months ago, and is now being occupied. It accommodates thirty-four girls.

Katherine Stewart, Mortar Board, is on the Student Board of Elections, and is in charge of publicity for $\Theta \Xi \Phi$ Matrix Table, and the Mortar Board dance. Co-chairman of the Olympic Ball, R.O.T.C. Sponsor, secretary-treasurer of ΨX , number among the recent activities of Joan Wickersham. While it is a little early to mention honors, Jeanne Beatty was recently initiated into $\Phi K \Phi$; she and Virginia Gerding are candidates for graduation with high honors. Barbara Kimbrough, Joan Wickersham, Ethel Klein, and Virginia Burkholder received certificates from $\Phi K \Phi$.

Each year, $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, national journalism honorary, selects the one or two most outstanding freshmen in journalism, and invites them to be guests of honor at a dinner called Matrix Table, to which about 130 prominent girls on the campus receive invitations. Hope Kimbrough is to receive the honor this year.

Eurodelphian initiated Katherine Bowden, and Virginia Burkholder. Katherine is also a member of National Collegiate Players, a distinction shared by only twelve students in the field of dramatics here. Still along the dramatic line, Betty Hollenback has been given one of the leads in a program and style show to be presented by the Ad Club, which is a highlight of spring entertainment. Barbara Kimbrough, social chairman of A.W.S. is in charge of Mother's Week-end, and Phyllis O'Day is on the W.A.A. council helping with the plans for it. At this time, tapping is held for next year's Spurs and Mortar Board. Phyllis has been very active as a Spur, as chairman of several important committees.

OREGON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Pledge Day, January 7, 1936

INITIATED, February 1, 1936: Janet Bessey, Gnan Goodsell, Doris Mabie, Jacqueline McCord, Dorothy Mihalcik, June Ritter, Adelyn Shields, Evelyn Shields, Jane Slatky, Dorothy Van Valkenburg, Betty Wagner, Georgette Wilhelm, Portland; Susan Barendrick, McMinnville; Janet Bingner, La Grande; Phyllis McCallum, Baker; Elnora Tingle, The Dalles; Marion Griffith, Tacoma, Wash.; Felker Morris, Longview, Wash.; Betty Mushen, Alturas, Calif.

The University of Oregon campus is gaining many new buildings with construction under way on the new infirmary and the men's gymnasium. The library across the street from the $\Pi B \Phi$ chapter house is to be completed for use next fall term.

An event of great importance to the university, as well as to educators throughout the state, was the inauguration of Dr. Valentine C. Boyer as President of the University, on February 13, 1936.

The university has been very fortunate in having on its faculty for the past two terms, Mr. Jiro Harada of the Imperial Household Museum of Japan, who has lectured on Japanese Art and Culture to a large group of interested students. Dr. De Villiers, an educator from South Africa, while a guest on the campus, was entertained by Oregon A chapter at dinner.

Oregon A was very pleased to have as its guests, Mrs. William J. Rusch, Lambda Province President, and Mrs. Howard G. Fletcher, Vice-president.

Homecoming was a big event on the campus this year. Each organization participated in a sign contest, and many clever entries were made. Eleanor Norblad was co-chairman of the homecoming dance.

Oregon A was second on the grade list fall term.

Activities have had their usual prominence this year, and $\Pi B \Phi$ has been well represented. Felker Morris was chosen Thespian, freshman women's honorary. Frances Watzek was on the Directorate for Health Week and is president of $\Phi \Theta T$, Junior women's honorary. Elizabeth Turner, president of the Sophomore class, was recently selected as chairman for the A.W.S. Carnival. She is secretary-treasurer of Kwama, sophomore service honorary, of which Doris Mabie is also a member. Frances Watzek was just elected, too, as president of the Women's Athletic Association. Many took part in Co-ed Capers. Nancy Weston was in charge of the senior skit. Marvel Twiss was a Senior Cop, and Felker Morris, Martha McCall, Frances Watzek, Marjorie Linebaugh, Helen Wright, and Elizabeth Turner participated in the various class skits. Betty Pownall was chosen honorary "Little Colonel" of the Military Ball by popular vote of the student body. Martha McCall, chairman for the A.W.S. vacation dances, is the newly elected president of A.W.S. She is also a member of $\Phi \Theta T$.

PLEGGED: Harriet Rorick, Marjorie Hewitt, Portland, Ore.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Doris Mabie, 1816 N.E. 37th Avenue, Portland, Ore.

INITIATED, January 25, 1936: Elizabeth Blake, Virginia Dickey, Wilna Ireland, Jean Managhan, June Martinson, Marion Pier, Lenore Reynolds, Dorothy Schoenlen, Frances Staver, Meredith Wilbur, Jane Wilson, Portland; Laneta Bellinger, Salem; Barbara Larson, Marshfield; Vivian Van Hovenberg, Betty Vilm, Medford.

Of course Oregon B believes that its fifteen new initiates are of most importance this term. And to show that the girls are anxious to allow all the pledges into the house, the house filled up to capacity with three girls in some of the rooms, a total of thirty-one girls in the house, nine girls living outside in halls.

For the first exchange dinner of this term Oregon B drew $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ as its partner. Dancing and singing were enjoyed between courses. Outstanding campus entertainments of this term were the traveling Shakespearean actors, who played "Macbeth" and "Comedy of Errors," the Portland Symphony Orchestra, and Jan Kubelik, violinist.

A visit by Mrs. William J. Rusch, Lambda Province President, was enjoyed by the girls during fall term. A fireside was given in her honor.

Of most social importance fall term was the Sophomore Cotillion, a formal dance for the entire Oregon State student body. Winter term formal dances included the Junior Prom and Mortar Board Ball. $\Pi B \Phi$ has had two formal dances, one this term and one fall term, the first honoring the twenty-five pledges and the second honoring the new initiates.

Virginia Cooper, '35, announced her wedding date as April 12 by sending a heart-shaped box of candy to the house on Valentine's Day. Peggy Jones, recent alumna, announced her engagement by sending a cake to Oregon B. Lila Wagner Miller's marriage was a surprise to everyone when she announced it during Christmas vacation instead of returning to school in January.

The Portland Mothers' Club was kind in giving the house a new Frigidaire, which will help greatly during the coming warm spring term.

Helen Nelson was appointed general chairman of Women's Weekend, Jean Managhan is active on the Rally Committee for the big games, Sue Edwards had one of the leading parts in a melodrama, "Streets of New York," Mary Edwards has been playing in violin recitals, Janet Stephens has been dancing in ballets, Betty Vilm has been acting in radio broadcasts, Gail Sollender is assistant editor of the Women's page of the Barometer, college daily, Dorothy Hill has been writing short stories for the Lamplighter, literary publication, Janet Millard was kept busy arranging the Mortar Board Ball, and Jane Wilson won $18 for the house in the contest for selling the most Lamplighters of any sorority during fall term.

PLEGGED: Marion Huff, Garra Olsen, Jean Olsen, June Porter, Lois Talbot, Portland; Lois Gelsinger, Joseph; Helen Lee, Yakima, Wash.; Inez Reynolds, Silverton; Gail Sollender, Piedmont, Calif.; Elinor Hansen, Corvallis.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Jane Wilson, 2621 N.E. Tillamook, Portland, Ore.

MU PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA ALPHA—STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Chartered, 1893

Pledge Day, March 20, 1936

California A feels that it has accomplished a great deal in the way of activities this year: Barbara Steinbeck has been elected president of Cap and Gown, while Kay Arthur is secretary; two juniors, Adrienne Johnston and Ruth Goodan, were elected into this organization; Jane Seydell, a member of the History Club; Holley Arthur, the chapter president, special speaker in the Walrus Club; Kay Moran, captain of the basketball team; Edith Hind, appointer of senior committees; Ruth Goodan, women's chairman of the Red Cross Drive; Barbara Steinbeck and Adrienne Johnston, chairman of the Registration Dance; Geraldine Reed, Lower Division Scholastic Honors; Jeanette Munkelt, co-chairman of Big Game Bonfire. Also seven of the eight seniors have been chosen to serve on committees for Senior Week this year.

Scholarship has been stressed throughout the year, and Mrs. Richard LaPiere, the province scholarship chairman, has given many interesting talks and much stimulating advice on how to stay at the top of the campus in academic ratings.

There have been three faculty dinners, and several exchange dinners with other sororities this year. The chapter gave a tea and fashion show which was very successful, and those who modeled have been asked to model several times since that event.

Early in the spring a dance will be given for the new pledges, and possibly a Jolly Up for them also. Later the annual Treasure Hunt will be held, and then following the initiation of the pledges sometime in May the Spring Formal will take place at Del Monte.

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Chartered, 1900

Pledge Day, January 28, 1936

INITIATED, February 10, 1936: Mary Elizabeth Allen, Oakland; Patricia Burke, San Francisco; Betty Clark, Oakland; Peggy Edwards, Sacramento; Nancy Lou Glass, Martinez; Betty Jane Hoffman, South Pasadena; Virginia Hulise, San Francisco; Marjorie Kelly, Winnetka; Eleanor Mahan, San Francisco; Alice Martin, Whittier; Betty Makins, Alameda; Mary Nye, Ventura; Margaret Ann Russell, Berkeley; Sara Jane Thomson, Sacramento.

The annual initiation banquet, given in conjunction with the alumnae, took place at the Claremont Country Club. Mary Nye received the scholarship pin for the highest average among the initiates and Betty Conlisk received one for the greatest improvement.

The biggest event of the semester so far was the Big "C" Sirkus, which is held once every four years. Most of the sororities and fraternities on the campus enter floats in the parade. Our float had "Heaven" as its theme, with five girls dressed as angels and one representing Saint Peter with the "sign out" book.

California B held its spring formal March 20, and on April 4 the members were the guests of the San Francisco Alumnae Club at a Founders' Day Luncheon, together with the members of California A.

Marion Colm, chapter president, was initiated into Prytanean, women's honor society, and Barbara Vincent has just been asked to join Torch and Shield, another honor society for women on the California campus.

PLEGDED: Constance Clark, Ventura, Calif.
RUSH CAPTAIN: Jean Hagen, 1218 Ashmount, Piedmont, Calif.

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Chartered, 1917

Pledge Day, October 5, 1935

INITIATED, October 15, 1935: Mary Jane Sabin, Pueblo, Colo.; Cirrelda Hale, McAllister, Okla.; Leila Barrie, Glendale; Virginia Thompson, Compton; Gwendolyn Baldwin, Williamina Montague, Los Angeles; Lois MacLean, South Pasadena.

This year the annual Settlement School benefit sponsored by the alumnae with the aid of the active chapters was held at the Biltmore Hotel with an attendance of over 1,250. It was a Dessert Bridge Fashion Show, the models being selected from both the California A and F chapters.

For its share in local charity the chapter played Santa Claus to the children of six families this year, and on campus has aided Dean Mary Sinclair Crawford in providing for less fortunate students.

During the year the chapter has entertained three $\Pi B \Phi$ alumnae who take an active part in University life; Mrs. Rufus B. von Kleinsmidt, wife of the President of the University; Dean Pearl Aiken-Smith, assistant Dean of Women; and Professor Cloyde Dalzell.

This February's rush season was climaxed by an Arrow dinner which was suggested to the chapter by Utah A and California A. With the exception of the traditional gardenia dinner this was the most impressive event of rush week.

Another lovely building which has been added to the campus of the University of Southern California is the Foyer of the Town and Gown in which is the tiny Chapel of Silence. Around it several new parks have been added to beautify the campus.

This year there has been a very noticeable increase in the number of students enrolled in the school of speech and the department of cinematography. As a result several new courses have been opened to prevent the classes from being overcrowded, and Mr. Garner, a graduate student, has been added to the faculty.

An interesting course in Jewish History has become extremely popular because of its nationally known professor, Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin.

On the walks in front of the Administration Building each sorority and fraternity on the campus of the University of Southern California has chosen a place where it is becoming traditional for them to meet so that they may spend the assembly period together. These meeting places are informally called "corners," and during rushing season the rushees are invited by the houses to their various corners where Panhellenic regulations allow them to remain only ten consecutive minutes.

PLEGDED, October 5, 1935: Virginia Beatty, San Diego; Sue Carruthers, San Dimas; Caroline Edwards, Pomona; June Campbell, Betty Leabo, Marjorie McCoy, Ruth Ellen Porter, Jane Stanton, Los Angeles; Sue Hitchner, Pasadena; Sally Morgan, Amarillo, Tex.

PLEGDED, February 29, 1936: Janet McNeil, Beverly Hills; Joyce Rodeck, Mary Bennet, Margaret Bennet, Betty Jane Barsfield, Marjorie Campbell, Virginia Flippen, Los Angeles; Una McClelland, Alhambra; Sue Hunt, Blythe; Kay Hawley, Glendale.

RUSHING CHAIRMAN: Mary Moore, 1422 Imperial Drive, Glendale, Calif.

INITIATED, February 29, 1936: Bee Baldwin, Winifred Hoffman, Carlotta Stoddart, Pasadena; Mary Louise Shepherd, Barbara Conner, Pomona; Dolly Wilson, Beverly Hills; Janet Daggett, Fern Reid, Santa Monica; and Mary Beatty, Anaheim.

After the usual excitement of rush week, the campus has begun to assume the normal routine of college life. California A has been stressing scholarship, and due to the united effort of the chapter, the scholarship last semester was the highest that it has been for several years and it is hoped that it will be the highest on the campus this semester.

In connection with the local chapter of ΔT , California A is sponsoring a theater benefit for "The Night of January 16th," now playing at the El Capitan Theater. It is hoped that enough will be realized to cover the expenses of summer rushing and buy a new silver service for the house.

On February 15, the chapter assisted the Los Angeles Alumnae Club with the annual Settlement School Benefit at the Biltmore Bowl. Girls from the chapter modeled in the fashion show and other members assisted in ushering.

The Mothers' Club has been very active, presenting the chapter with carpets for the stairs and hall which indeed was an asset in spring rushing.

A bridge luncheon was given by the pledges for the pledges of California F between semesters, thereby drawing the two chapters closer together.

The chapter is very fortunate in having both Mrs. Ruth Barrett Smith, Grand Vice-president, and Mrs. Ann MacDonald D'Aule, Mu Province President, living in Los Angeles. Their assistance and counsel during rush week was deeply appreciated.

Mary Sue Howard is planning to run for vice-president of the A.W.S. and the chapter has begun to formulate plans for her campaign.

California A held its Founders' Day Luncheon jointly with local alumnae clubs and California F. Members of the two active chapters and the several alumnae groups furnished the entertainment.

PLEGDED: Barbara Lou Allen, Hollywood; Martha Ruby, Glendale, and Jacque Virgil, West Los Angeles.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Mary Sue Howard, 2023 Laughlin Park Dr., Hollywood, Calif.

BETTY BERRY

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

Chartered, 1915

Pledge Day, February 8, 1936

INITIATED, February 8, 1936: Gertrude Polander, Winemucca; Elna Jepson, Virginia Heady, Sparks; Isabelle Henderson, Elko; Harriet Cazier, Wells; Charlotte Caton, Martadelle Cooper, Doris Chestnut, Dorothy Devore, Maxine Leonard, and Jean Rice, Reno.

The enrollment this semester is the largest in the history of the university. There are nearly 1,000 students.

Nevada A was awarded two cups at the annual homecoming celebration. The float in the parade and the house decorations received first place. Both of these honors are rarely given to a single house.

Margaret Traner received a bid to Φ K Φ . Margaret Snyder and Nancy Bordewich made X Δ Φ .

Miriam Butler is president of Gothic "N"; Evelyn Semenza is vice-president of Campus Players; Dorothy Roseberry and Rita Jepson are assistant editors of the university yearbook, and Winifred Walsh is the business manager. Members on the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet are Harriet Cazier, Ruth Rowe, Margaret Snyder, and Virginia Posvar; Betty McCuiston is the secretary of A.W.S.

Nevada A rated second in scholarship among the sororities last semester.

The Π B Φ rifle team won the intramural match and the following girls made the varsity: Gertrude Polander, Betty Inda, and Jessie Sellman.

Chapter social events have included the initiation banquet, an entertainment for the alumnae club, a Tin Can Dance, and a Friday the 13 Superstition Dance. Every other Sunday evening a fraternity is invited to the house for dinner.

Nevada A decided not to do any second semester rushing because the chapter already is very large in proportion to the number of women students in the university.

Panhellenic has recently made some drastic changes in rushing rules. The traditional "derby" was discarded and now competition is to stress "quality rather than quantity." The parties are to be without themes, elaborate invitations and decorations so that prospective pledges will become acquainted and impressed with the actual personalities of the girls in the house rather than with the cleverness of the parties.

PLEGGED: Helen Hill, Reno.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Jessie Sellman, 1457 N. Virginia St., Reno, Nev.

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Chartered, 1917

Pledge Day, February 10, 1936

INITIATED, March 7, 1936: Cynthia Chamberlain, Lakeside, Mich.; Hope Cogswell, Houston, Tex.; Dorothy Crider, Washington, D.C.; Jean Duncan, Kansas City, Mo.; Virginia Lou Evans, St. Louis, Mo.; Alice Fay, San Diego, Calif.; Katharine Herbert, Mesa; Margaret Jeffers, Kathleen Wager, Tucson; Jean McCargar, Council Bluffs, Iowa; Bette Mercer, Phoenix; Marjorie Mock, Evanston, Ill.; Ruth Peck, Sacramento, Calif.

Dolly Beville, president of the Associated Women Students, was women's delegate to the convention of the National Associated Students held in Kansas City during the Christmas holidays. She has advanced a plan for a circulating library which will be open to all women students. Each sorority and dormitory is to give one book a month to the library. Books may be checked out for five days. There is a small fee for overdue books. The library work is to be done by a group of Freshman girls. Π B Φ representatives at the library are Virginia Lou Evans and Hope Cogswell.

At the banquet following initiation Jean Duncan received the honor pledge cup which is passed on each year to the most outstanding pledge. Bette Mercer was awarded the recognition arrow for having the greatest number of pledge points.

Ann Holmes has been elected to membership in "Wranglers," the honorary literary society. Catherine Newton is now a member of A E, the women's commercial fraternity. Virginia Narr was elected to the honor basketball team. Bette Mercer, vice-president of the Women's Athletic Association, was selected for membership on the honor hockey team.

Roberta Sainsbury, '35, has accepted a teaching position at New Mexico Agriculture College. She is in charge of the Senior Home Management House, and also is instructor in textiles.

Dorothy Crider was pledged to the National Collegiate Players. Membership is based on acting ability and ability to perform all of the theatrical arts. Those chosen must be juniors of good standing. She had the feminine character lead in the play Beggar on Horseback. During Drama Week she also gave an original costume reading and a fencing exhibition.

Jean McCargar and Jeanne Metcalf have also been taking active part in drama this year. They both had leading rôles during Drama Week. The purpose of the latter is to acquaint the general public with the accomplishments of the University drama department. Jean McCargar had a Greek satire mask on exhibit. She took part in the plays Hamlet and Beggar on Horseback, and gave costume readings. She is to accompany the glee club on its tour of the state and give readings. Jeanne Metcalf had charge of the entire costuming for Hamlet besides taking part in it and also in Beggar on Horseback. She took the leading feminine rôle in the very successful play Post Road. Also a model theatre of hers is on display.

PLEGGED: Diehl McAteer, Hollywood, Calif.

RUSH CAPTAIN: Jeanne Metcalf, 735 East Fifth, Tucson, Ariz.

Pledge Day, February 1, 1936

INITIATED, November 16, 1935: Margaret Boud, Ro-benia Hooper, Marjorie Judd, Peggy Meagher, Marion Saunders, Ruth Sims, Harriet Smith, and Ione Thompson.

Initiation in November was immediately followed by an impressive banquet at the Hotel Utah. Many alumnae were present, and this helped to make it a most memorable event for the new initiates.

Utah A won first honors on the campus for stunt, float, and house decorations during Homecoming Week. At this time four of the Π B Φ 's from Boulder, Colorado A, who were visiting the chapter, joined in the activities.

Mrs. Ann McDonald D'Aule, Mu Province President, visited the chapter the last of November. All the girls enjoyed meeting her and appreciated the helpful suggestions she offered.

At Christmas time sixty underprivileged children were entertained with games, good things to eat, and gifts from Santa Claus. The girls themselves enjoyed the party as much as the children did.

Formal rush week at the University of Utah was held January 27 to February 1. There were the teas and luncheons and then the Arrow banquet which was the most effective party of the week. The activities were climaxed by the fraternity derby, pledging, and the usual cooky-shine. The chapter was successful in pledging twenty-two of the twenty-five girls bid.

Many of the girls have made prominent places for themselves in activities on the campus. Mary Frances Hetzel has been elected president of Art Guild. Alice Murphy was honored with membership in Φ Σ , national biological society, Margaret Strobel, Louise Thompson, and Gwen Stranquist were elected to B Δ M honorary musical society.

The last of February brought the main social event of the year to the campus. The Junior Prom was carried out most effectively with a "Treasure Island" idea, set among the palms and tropical seas. Dorothy Paine was elected as one of the committee to whom the great success of the annual Prom is attributed.

PLEGGED: Margaret Gurnsey, Eunice Franke, Shirley Gardiner, Jane Ray, Frances Covington, June Mortensen, Betty Cobb, Martha Richardson, Mary Catherine Howell, Katherine Smith, Anna De Ogilvie, Virginia Gledhill, Judith Hampton, Joan Ackley, Gerraldine Gallagher, Dorothy Cowley, Norrine Brown, Josephine Moffat, Salt Lake City; Jane Davis, Dixie Scowcroft, Bertha Barker, Oden; Kathleen Bowen, Brigham City.

RUSH CHAIRMAN: Marjorie Judd, 488 C Street, Salt Lake City.

NEW YORK BETA

Engagements

The "grandchildren" are coming along: Mabel Molloy has announced the engagement of her Dorothy (Illinois E) and Eleanor Pocock, that of her Donna (Ohio Δ).

Personals

One of the recent initiates into North Carolina Alpha is Anita, daughter of Anna Holm de Monseigle. She is the fourth New York Beta "daughter."

Mary Murtha Webb writes of her school in Rio de Janeiro. It began when some of the English speaking residents asked her to tutor their children and has grown into a complete school from elementary through preparation for college. She closed the term the end of November with fifty-seven (57) from English, Canadian and "American" families. Mr. Webb takes charge of mathematics, manual training and, in general, works with the boys. The past year Mrs. Webb had an assistant from Texas, a specialist in elementary organization and methods.

Eleanor Murtha Pocock was very ill with mastoid during November and December. A month in Florida has made her gain rapidly. She will doubtless win more bridge trophies!

We sympathize very deeply with Bernice Vander Vries whose husband, John N. Vander Vries, former secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, died in their home at 968 Pine St., Winnetka, Illinois, on February 14.

We sympathize also with Elisabeth Thomson, whose father passed away on Christmas day. The Thomson home, in New York and in Englewood has been for thirty years a home of Pi Beta Phi.

ALUMNAE CLUB LETTERS

Edited by LOTT A JOHNSON WEIR

ALPHA PROVINCE

BOSTON CLUB

Outstanding among the meetings of the year was the banquet in November honoring Miss Amy Burnham Onken who was in Boston as a delegate to the Panhellenic Congress. More than 100 alumnae and actives, including representatives from at least 20 chapters and a large delegation from Vermont, as well as several former national officers, welcomed Miss Onken and enjoyed her amusing intimate account of $\Pi B \Phi$ history.

Everyone left the January meeting humming the plaintive mountain ballads which our guest speaker, Mrs. Walter H. Sears, had sung, accompanying herself on the dulcimer, a quaint instrument which produces a tone resembling the buzzing of a swarm of bees. Mrs. Sears, who has spent several years among the mountain people of Kentucky teaching in one of their schools, gave us a most vivid account of their customs and activities.

During February we had the pleasure of a visit from Mary Herdman Scott, Province Vice-president, whom we entertained at a Board luncheon at the Copley Square Hotel and who spoke at the initiation banquet of Massachusetts A at the Hotel Vendome on February 15. We were delighted at the large number of alumnae who attended the banquet.

A fascinating talk on Spring Fashions and Colors by Miss Jessie Stuart of the Prince School of Store Service and Design was the feature of the March meeting which was preceded by a luncheon. Members of the active chapter were invited and tea was served.

Founders' Day always draws alumnae from all over Massachusetts and was an extremely social occasion. The outgoing seniors were entertained at luncheon, followed by a brief program and business meeting, and the afternoon was largely devoted to reminiscences and the joys of renewing old friendships.

The thirty-first summer reunion is to be held at the home of Mrs. D. D. Nickerson, 208 Rock Island Road, Quincy, the second Saturday in July.

VIRGINIA CROOKER

BUFFALO CLUB

The Buffalo Alumnae Club has been holding regular meetings the third Saturday of each month, most of them being luncheons. The officers for the year have been Helen Leonard, president; Rhoda Rendell, vice-president; Erma Lewis, secretary; and Mary Halbin, treasurer.

During November we held an exhibit and sale of Arrowcraft Products and we are proud to announce we have sold over \$500 worth of articles besides sending a contribution to the School. At the November meeting pictures of the School were shown while Dorothy Volgman discussed them. The Christmas party was held at the Consistory and consisted of dinner and bridge. Shortly after Christmas a very lovely tea was held at the home of Alice Savage for the actives, the pledges and the $\Pi B \Phi$ mothers. We hope this tea will establish a precedent for an annual affair.

Mrs. Scott, Alpha Province Vice-president, was our guest at the February meeting, and we enjoyed her visit very much. Plans were discussed with her concerning an Alpha Province Conference to be held in Toronto April 16-18, to which we are sending a delegate. Many of our members anticipate the Get-Together in Hamilton, Ontario, which will follow the conference.

The Club regrets the loss of our Historian, Edwina Beanigan, who died in November. Mildred Warman was appointed to take her place. We also extend our sympathy to Edith Wilson Brown who recently lost her mother. Aside from these dark moments, we have had another happy and prosperous year in service to $\Pi B \Phi$.

ERMA R. LEWIS

HARTFORD CLUB

The Hartford Club has had a very fine year, our average attendance being twenty. We have welcomed several newcomers to the city as well as strengthened our friendship with the older members. The meetings are usually held the second Thursday of each month at the home of a member with two assistant hostesses. Each member pays a nominal sum for the meal.

We resumed this year the packing of a Christmas box for the Settlement School. After luncheon at the home of our president, Mrs. Roy Eblen, we tried out toys and exclaimed over the 290 articles sent. We do up each gift and put a card on the outside indicating the age for which the gift is suitable and whether it is for a boy or girl. On the top of the box we put some evergreen branches.

In the fall Mrs. Robson Brown showed her colored movies of Hawaii at a Settlement School benefit which netted $80. Arrow Craft products are on sale at the Peter Pan Tea House in West Hartford through the kindness of the manager, who charges no rent nor commission. During Christmas there was a very heavy sale which was in charge of Mrs. Brown.

The Panhellenic luncheon which we helped organize two years ago will be held on March 28 at the Hartford Golf Club with K K I in charge.

We very much liked the idea of the province conference to which Toronto invited us in April but at this time it seems doubtful that anyone from the club will be able to attend because of the distance.

Founders' Day was held this year in Hartford with the New Haven Club as our guests. We are planning also to invite the nearby chapters and clubs to join us at the celebration which will probably be held in May and discuss informally some of the things mentioned at the Toronto conference.

It was a pleasure to meet Adele Taylor Alford and learn about the clubs nearby as well as the ones on the western coast.

Our March meeting is in charge of the Endowment Fund chairman, who will explain the purpose of the fund. Other meetings scheduled are May 14, Mrs. R. D. Brown, assisted by Mrs. C. W. Fuller and Mrs. Harold Duggan; June picnic at Highland Lake, Winsted, with Mrs. Frank Alling as hostess.

We are anticipating convention and are glad it is somewhat nearer. We hope to pay part of the expenses of one delegate who on her return will inspire us anew with the ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$.

ERMINIE L. POLLARD

NEW HAVEN CLUB

In place of a general meeting at Christmas time in the interests of Arrow Craft sales, several members in turn kept the products at their homes, thus along a great many small radii the glory of the Settlement School shone.

The February meeting, with the club president, Helen Brown, and the secretary as hostesses, was devoted to the report of the Panhellenic Congress, the matters to be presented before the National Convention, and the plans for the Alpha Province Conference.

With its small membership the club is very proud of its three new potential members this year.

MARY M. TOLMAN

SYRACUSE CLUB

To two of the "Wille sisters" as they were known in college, goes the credit for the success of our two big money-making projects for the year.

Under the leadership of Elizabeth Jordan, a successful rummage sale was held last fall; and Catherine Wille Grant, her sister, was chairman of a project to raise money for the club by sale of books of chances on a trip to Bermuda, which proved to be the most successful undertaking which the club has ever sponsored.

The winter has been successful with Settlement School sales, as usual, and we expect to extend our usual help to Gatinburg.

Our province vice-president, Mrs. Scott, paid us a short but very delightful visit in February and we are looking forward to seeing her again.

Founders' Day was celebrated, as usual, with the active chapter, and plans are under way for a luncheon meeting at the chapter house.

The plan of inviting speakers to our evening meetings has been repeated this year, and we are more than ever convinced that it is a splendid way to insure large attendance and enjoyable evenings.

CHARLOTTE N. CHAFFER

TORONTO CLUB

The meetings of the Toronto Alumnae Club for this year as outlined in the November 1935 issue of the ARROW are proving very successful, both from the standpoint of increased attendance and of a much higher percentage of paid-up members than we have had in years.

Our largest meeting so far was our birthday party in December to which were invited Miss Ferguson, Dean of Women, all the national officers living in Toronto of the women's fraternities on our campus and a Panhellenic representative from each of our Alumnae Clubs. Our active chapter also attended in a body. At this meeting Dorothy Brandon gave a fascinating and very vivid description of her sea-faring experiences on the Yankee—a ninety-two foot schooner on which she lived for approximately a year with three girls and twelve men—and during which time they visited many interesting places.

The Toronto Alumnae Club was delighted to welcome Mrs. Carleton Fox, President of Alpha Province West, to a buffet supper when she visited Ontario A officially in the fall.

Maude Zuern Jenkins has proven herself a most progressive altruistic chairman. She has been endeavoring to unite all the Alumnae Clubs in Toronto in one common philanthropic interest. This we feel would add considerably to our Panhellenic spirit here. Our March meeting is being given over to discussions on our altruistic work and to the report of our Alpha Province Vice-president, Mary Herdman Scott, who has recently returned from visiting several Alumnae Clubs.

The Toronto Alumnae Club, under the very able leadership of Mary Scott, is holding a Province Alumnae Conference in Toronto on April 16-18 inclusive. We have had very enthusiastic letters about it from all parts of the province. Our aim is to stimulate interest in the alumnae department of our fraternity and to renew $\Pi \Phi$ friendships. The first evening we are all planning to attend a lecture which is being given in Toronto by Irving Johnston, captain of the Yankee on which Dorothy Brandon sailed. Captain Johnston has moving pictures of the trip which last for two hours and are said to be quite exceptional.

On the Saturday afternoon we are having a high tea in Hamilton, Ontario, to which are being invited the delegates, all $\Pi \Phi$'s in Ontario, and the active chapters, Ontario B and Ontario A. It is expected that the Buffalo and Rochester Alumnae Clubs will be well represented. The party will be in the nature of a Founders' Day Celebration and we are hoping that it will be even more successful than our Founders' Day party in Hamilton last year which was the most successful one we have enjoyed to date.

This will of course have happened by the time the ARROW comes out.

VIDA H. PEENE

WESTCHESTER CLUB

Since our enjoyable cooky-shine last November at the home of Mrs. William Lough, the Westchester Alumnae Club has been seriously hampered in its activities by the severe winter weather. Our cross country transportation has to be carried on almost entirely by automobile and driving has been so difficult that only the hardiest have ventured far from home. Mrs. Scott, our Province Vice-president, came to make us a visit on February 18, but the snow fell and the winds came in such terrifying proportions that very morning that many who had planned the trip to New Rochelle found it impossible to accomplish. Those of us who were lucky enough to manage to plow through the snow spent a most delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edwin Shumate. Mrs. Scott brought us so much encouragement and inspiration by her understanding of our problems and such a consciousness of our part of the fraternity as a unit that we left with a great admiration for her, personally, as well as a renewed fire to persevere in building and improving our local organization.

Our March meeting was the eighteenth at the home of Mrs. Paul Price in Mount Vernon. We are hoping as these Spring meetings progress, to see again many of the familiar faces that disappeared from our group when the winter waxed fierce and hope to welcome many new members as well.

EDITH STOREY BERLIN

BETA PROVINCE

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY CLUB

In October we met at the home of Katherine Crowley in South Orange. After luncheon and a business meeting, Sophie Kerr's amusing comedy about husbands, "There's none of them perfect," was given.

In November we went to the home of Marjorie Taylor in East Orange. Mrs. G. D. Swaney gave a delightful talk on South America. Our ARROW editor, Mrs. Alford, was with us and talked informally and answered our many questions patiently. Her visit and her personal charm will be an inspiration for many months. Settlement School products were displayed and sold at this meeting.

In December we gave our annual dinner dance at the Crestmouth Golf Club. Our January meeting at the home of Martha Baker in Morristown was postponed a week because of a snowstorm which made the roads impassable. This meeting was devoted to a study of the constitution.

We extend a welcome to any members living in this vicinity.

CHARLOTTE JORDAN

OHIO VALLEY CLUB

The club held its annual rushing party at Monument Place in Elm Grove. There were thirty-six present with thirteen rushees. Our first regular meeting was a luncheon in October at the Jane Grace Tea Room. In December we had a benefit bridge for the Settlement School. In January we had our Anniversary meeting celebrating our third birthday. Founders' Day will be celebrated as usual, followed by the election of officers and in June we shall close the year's activities with a picnic.

BERTHA HOLLES PETTY

COLUMBUS CLUB

The Columbus Club this year has concentrated upon three social events, a bridge party, a rummage sale and a dance. The bridge party was held at a down-town hotel in the fall, and the rummage sale was held shortly before Christmas. The dance was held in April at a country club. Last year our spring dance was such a success that everyone hoped it would become an annual event. We celebrated Founders' Day in conjunction with the other Ohio Alumnae Clubs, as we have formerly done.

ALICE D. EARHART

CINCINNATI CLUB

Before the holidays a tea was given by Mrs. Harold Vinacke at which articles from the Settlement School were placed on sale. The sale was highly successful, and a goodly sum was realized for our pledge. A new means of raising funds was recently discovered. On any dry cleaning taken to a Fenton store by any of our members or their friends a certain per cent of the charge is refunded to our Alumnae Club treasurer. This offer was made possible through the generosity of Mr. H. B. Fenton, whose daughter, Dorothy, is a member of our club.

In January the club enjoyed a visit from our Province Vice-president, Mrs. H. C. Johnson. We are again invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wright for the annual mixed party. This party will be held late in March and is always a delightful affair.

ANTOINETTE MOORE STRAYER

CLEVELAND CLUB

The club year started with a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. A. E. Gibson in Cleveland Heights. The November meeting was at the home of Mrs. Robert Warren in Shaker Heights.

Our rummage sale netted us $283, to the delight of all. Our sale of Settlement School articles was equally successful.

At the regular monthly dinner meeting in November, the Cleveland Club was most fortunate in receiving a visit from Mrs. Alford, our ARROW editor, who gave an interesting talk on the magazine, the Endowment and Loan Funds and the Settlement School. She urged the club to consider carefully any desired changes in our national alumnae organization, before Convention. We were doubly fortunate in having our Province Vice-president, Mrs. Candace Johnson, also present at the same time. She talked to us briefly.

In the three succeeding months the club has held Saturday luncheon meetings which have been very well attended. At a tea during the Christmas holidays the club entertained the actives who were home for the holidays and their mothers. Many colleges were represented and it was interesting for the older actives to meet and renew high school friendships in the new and more intimate bond of $\Pi B \Phi$.

It was decided to sponsor the popular play, "The Bishop Misbehaves," to be given at the Playhouse on January 7 in the interest of the Settlement School fund. Candy made and donated by members of the club was sold with great success and the proceeds went to swell the Rushing Fund. The play netted $41 and the candy $10. The sale of Settlement School articles to date has brought us $275 with a profit to the club of about $40.

We were pleased to note that the efforts of our magazine agency chairman, Lois Vasek, put the Cleveland Club at the top of the list in Beta Province, with the sum of $20.40.

The Rushing Chairman, Jean Horton, 3215 Oak Road, has requested that anyone knowing a Cleveland girl who expects to enter college next fall please send her the name and address and the college she expects to attend.

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY CLUB

Our club has had a very successful year in spite of weather which has made bad road conditions. The members are scattered and some of them must always drive a good many miles to the meetings. Our regular meetings have been held as planned, in the main. There was a special meeting in Moorestown on November 8 to meet Mrs. Alford. We were much interested in her perfectly delightful informal talk at the end of the luncheon. The regular February meeting was cancelled on account of illness in the family of the hostess. A bridge benefit for the Settlement School was held the last of February at the home of Mrs. Herman Atkins in Haddon Heights. The March meeting was a bridge-luncheon at the home of Mrs. Stuart Pratt in Woodstown. Founders' Day was celebrated in April.

The meeting at which we shall entertain our husbands will be a picnic at Hidden Lake in May. In July we shall have a family picnic at the summer home of Mrs. Donald Powers at Island Heights, Barnegat Bay.

MARGARET LOVEJOY PRATT

PHILADELPHIA CLUB

The Philadelphia Alumnae Club has had an interesting year, though attendance at each meeting has not been large. The weather has been a handicap, but those who braved storms and slippery streets have been rewarded by the cordiality of the hostesses and the variety of the programs. It has been easier, too, to become acquainted in smaller groups. We have had both daytime and evening meetings, in order to enable all of our members to come to some, at least.

Our programs have been varied: a musicale, a reading, a talk from the Swiss consul on his country, a delightful account of Grace Wilson's visit to the Settlement School, and a charming talk on Egypt by Mrs. S. E. Downs, who illustrated it with snapshots taken on her recent visit to her daughter in Cairo. In prospect there is an art talk and the Founders' Day banquet.

The club was honored in November by a visit from Mrs. Alford, whose vivid personality made friends of all she met.

The Settlement School has been prominent in our minds at each meeting. Mrs. Ralph Smith has not allowed us to forget its very unusual products, which have been shown at other meetings beside the special Settlement School Tea. We hope through sales and donations to have a fair-sized check to send before the end of the year.

We miss very much having the Swarthmore chapter to "mother." On the other hand, we have discovered many $\Pi \Phi$'s from distant chapters who have joined us at our meetings.

HELEN A. BAGLEY

PITTSBURGH CLUB

Members of the Pittsburgh Alumnae Club of $\Pi B \Phi$ are having an interesting year under the leadership of Mrs. William A. Heazlett, our President. Our meetings are held at the homes of members on the second Saturday of each month.

An October evening dessert meeting at the home of Harriet Wilson opened our year with a welcome to all members, old and new, and a most interesting talk by Miss Wilson on the Mother's Assistance Fund.

In November our luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Heazlett was followed by a Settlement School Sewing Circle, at which time $\Pi \Phi$'s had news of Little Pigeon while busily employed cutting, pinning, basting and sewing small dresses for a charitable institution.

A $\Pi \Phi$ cooky-shine at the home of the Watts gave a festive tone to our December meeting, and we then had an opportunity to select Christmas gifts from the Arrowcraft articles on display.

Our January meeting was a beautifully appointed Silver Tea at the home of Mrs. Conrad Myhre, our program chairman.

Owing to the severe blizzard and dangerous highways, a Valentine Dance scheduled for February at one of the nearby country clubs had to be postponed, but we are looking forward with keen anticipation to enjoying it in May.

A dessert meeting in March at the home of Mrs. Boyd Newcomb took the form of a Constitution Spelling Bee, and in April we made our Founders' Day Luncheon, held at one of the clubs, our most important event of the year.

And as a fitting close to a highly varied program of meetings, we are scheduling for late May or early June a picnic in the woods at the country home of Miss Mae Loose.

During November we were privileged to hold a Memorial Service for Ada Bruen Grier, one of the Founders of $\Pi B \Phi$, who lies at rest in the Union Dale Cemetery at Pittsburgh. At this service the beautiful bronze memorial tablet placed upon her monument by our National Fraternity was unveiled by our president in a simple but very impressive ceremony. Mr. Robert N. Grier, a son of Ada Bruen Grier, and a well known Pittsburgh attorney, was present with his family, as Pittsburgh $\Pi \Phi$'s paid tribute to his mother, and through her, to all the Founders of $\Pi B \Phi$.

A cordial welcome is extended to all $\Pi \Phi$'s to attend our meetings and to become affiliated with us. Through Mrs. Ray Finger, Beta Province President, we have a splendid contact with the active chapters of $\Pi \Phi$, and through Mrs. Howard Johnson, the Province Vice-president, we are kept in close touch with the other Alumnae Clubs in Beta Province.

ELEN HOPKINS

TOLEDO CLUB

Toledo Alumnae Club has continued to enjoy its monthly dinner meetings, all of which have been well attended. The average attendance has been thirty-four members.

For the October meeting Ruth Fox spoke on her recent trip to the $\Pi B \Phi$ settlement school which was enjoyed by all. Phyllis Seim collected books from members and expressed them to the settlement school for the children's use. For the November meeting Charlotte Bissell gave a very interesting talk on her trip abroad in the summer of 1935. In December a social meeting was held after the spread. In January a recipe meeting was held at which every member read their favorite recipe. For the February meeting three other members who are working told of their daily experiences. Helen Ray Newell told of her experiences as a newspaper woman. Helen Fisher is supervisor of a WPA sewing project and told of the many interesting things WPA workers were making to provide Christmas cheer in 1936. To illustrate the work she brought samples of the stuffed dolls and animals which all of the members enjoyed seeing.

Jean Anderson Jones, an alumna of Northwestern University, has recently moved to Toledo and has been welcomed to the Toledo Alumnae Club as a new member.

Several of the members are anticipating driving to Chicago to National Convention in June.

MARION R. ELWELL

MORGANTOWN (W.VA.) CLUB

Mrs. T. N. Alford, ARROW Editor, was the guest of honor at a dinner at the Country Club in November. Members of the advisory board met with Mrs. Alford before the dinner. During an informal social hour Mrs. Charles Hodges (Florence Conant) sang several selections. Mrs. Alford made her official visit to the chapter at this time. The advisory board, composed of Mrs. P. J. Reed (Elizabeth Frost), Mrs. Charles Ambler (Helen Carle), Mrs. A. V. G. Upton (Elizabeth Glenn), Anna Traubert, and Eleanor Stone entertained Mrs. Ray Finger, Province President, at a dinner at the Hotel Morgan during her official visit to the local chapter in February.

Mrs. Reed discussed "Current Fiction" at the October meeting held in the home of the President, Eleanor Stone, with Mrs. Ward Stone (Dorothy Brand), and Mrs. Nelson Swink (Kathleen Wilson) as assisting hostesses. Miss Susan Maxwell Moore was the guest speaker at the January meeting held in the home of Mrs. Ambler. She told of various musical functions she attended during the Christmas season in New York City. Elizabeth Upton, Stella Gregg, and Frances Hutchinson were also hostesses. The constitution meeting and bridge party was held in Elizabeth Reed's home in February with Anna Traubert and Mrs. Charles Wade (Bessie Beatty) as assisting hostesses. Edith Humphrey told of her recent trip to California. Ruth Deffenbaugh, who was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Marshall Glenn (Helen Deffenbaugh) was among those present.

Fairmont members entertained the group at the March meeting. Edith Humphrey was in charge of the program on "Health."

The group sponsored cutting of silhouettes in the fall in order to make money for the Settlement School. The spring project was sponsoring a local movie for one night.

ELEANOR STONE

GAMMA PROVINCE

BALTIMORE CLUB

The meetings and events of our club have been most interesting and pleasant this year.

As you may note on our programme, two of our members have given short talks at each monthly meeting. These have covered subjects of interest and travel. At only one meeting have we had outside speakers, these being men, relatives of members. In this way we have become better acquainted and have enjoyed the informal varied discussions.

In November we had the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. Aiken, our Province Vice-president.

In February our cooky-shine with the actives was unusually enjoyable. Sitting on the floor was a bit tough on us oldsters but the food and company well compensated.

Our club has decided to cover our donation to the Settlement School by personal subscription, supplemented by the sale of vanilla. We hope these methods will prove fruitful.

If our last four meetings prove as successful as the first five we will call 1935-1936 a most profitable one for the $\Pi \Phi$ Alums.

CATHARINE W. DONNELLY

RICHMOND CLUB

Richmond Alumnae Club is having a most interesting winter. November found us gathered at the home of Mrs. Jene Bray for a novel dessert meeting. News of Settlement School was the theme for the evening and each one had a chance to catch an early wisp of Christmas spirit through the fun of wrapping, marking, and packing a box of gifts to be sent to Settlement School.

DELTA PROVINCE

BLOOMINGTON (INDIANA) CLUB

The Bloomington Club has had four meetings so far this year. The first meeting in October was held at the home of Mrs. Jane Hunter. Mrs. Stephen Dinius is the President of the club.

In November we were entertained at the home of Mrs. Lucille Hoadley. A successful Settlement School tea was given in November at the chapter house.

The December meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Buskirk. Our rummage sale in October and the tea in November increased our treasury.

Despite the cold weather a representative group attended the January meeting at the home of our President. We were fortunate in having a visit from our Grand Secretary, Mrs. Stark, the first week in February. The March meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Alda Sudbury. Founders' Day was celebrated in April and the Senior Spread will close the year's program. We all look forward to Convention in June.

MILDRED KING

FRANKLIN CLUB

The senior girls of the active chapter were guests of the Alumnae Club at a dinner at the home of Mrs. Thomas Overstreet, October 8, 1935.

On Tuesday, October 22, 1935, the Alumnae Club gave a dinner in honor of three local founders at the home of Mrs. Julia Lawshe. Charter members honored included Miss Emma Harper Turner, of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Martha Noble Carter, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Jeanette Zeppenfeld, of Franklin. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Noble Owen, of Greenwood, Mrs. John Chambers, of Maryland, and Mrs. W. P. Garshwiler of Southport.

December again sounded Miss Keller's and Miss Turnbull's glorified cooky-shine gong. Of course we had a good time, that is expected and assured. Christmas decorations and anticipated plans made each realize that the holidays were just around the corner and each one left with the glow of good fellowship and anticipation.

January with its unusual amount of snow and ice prevented our benefit Book Review from being a huge success as to attendance, however the members responded graciously and we have an unexpected sum for Settlement School.

The February meeting was turned into a toast and celebration for our bride, Adelaide Rotherth Wilde, who slipped us a nice surprise by the announcement of her engagement and marriage in rapid succession.

March Meeting—At home of Province Vice-president, Mrs. Eugene Sydnor. Musical Tea for members and friends, a benefit for Endowment Fund through means of silver offering.

Whispers of a grand Puppet Show to be given by Miss Caroline Lutz are broadcast and we do hope they will contact into reality.

Founders' Day was celebrated April 25 with a luncheon at Commonwealth Club. All enjoyed rallying with the active chapter delegates from Randolph-Macon and William and Mary.

This club though small in number is most proud of the list of National officers and National Committee Women: Dr. May Keller, President Emeritus; Mrs. Eugene Sydnor, Vice-president Gamma Province; Gladys Madison Monroe, Member of Committee on Fraternity Study and Examination; Mary Williams, Member of Committee on Scholarship.

The club regrets the resignation of Mrs. Sipple as Vice-president of Gamma Province and at the same time extends greetings and good wishes to Mrs. Sydnor in her new appointment.

ELIZABETH M. KATES

The November meeting of the Alumnae Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Adams. The Junior girls of the active chapter were special guests.

The Holiday Dinner of the club was given at the home of Mrs. Robert A. Todd on Tuesday, October 10. The sophomores from the active chapter were guests.

The forty-eighth anniversary dinner of $\Pi \Phi$ was held Tuesday, January 14, 1935, at the home of Mrs. Wayne Walters. Ninety-two alumnae, actives, and patronesses were present. Following the dinner the pledges gave a program. Miss Jeannette Zeppenfeld gave the history of the founding of the group. Honored guests were Miss Zeppenfeld, Miss Sarah Covert, Mrs. J. V. Deer, Mrs. W. G. Spencer, and Mrs. C. L. Van Nuys of Franklin, Mrs. Jasper Scott of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Julian Bryan of Pelham Manor, N.Y.

The Alumnae Club gave a dinner in honor of Mrs. Lutzer Stark of Orange, Texas, Grand Secretary, Wednesday, February 5, 1935, at the home of Mrs. Oral Barnett. A three course dinner was served at small tables. Place cards, flowers, and candles carried out the St. Valentine motif. Mrs. Stark gave a very inspiring talk to the members.

At the March meeting, Miss Mary Owen, president of the active chapter, talked on the Constitution. The Freshman girls were guests at dinner.

Election of officers will take place in May. We are already looking forward to our annual commencement dinner which is held in June in honor of the Senior girls. So many alumnae return at this time.

GERTRUDE OWENS

HILLSDALE CLUB

The Hillsdale Club now has an active membership of twelve. We have been enthusiastic this year and feel very pleased with the success of our group. Early in the fall the club sponsored a benefit bridge at the chapter house, the proceeds of which were sent to the Settlement School. Our rummage sale profits served to pay convention expenses and operating expenses for the year.

In December we had a luncheon with the active girls at the house and in January we entertained the freshman girls at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. McCall. The February meeting was devoted to a delightful cooky-shine. We had a joint meeting with the Southwestern Alumnae Club in March and we look forward to entertaining the patronesses and mothers at a tea.

MRS. C. S. HILL

ANN ARBOR CLUB

The Ann Arbor Alumnae Club has this year held luncheon meetings on a new—at least to us—and quite successful plan. We ask members to bring sandwiches for one person. Two members are asked to bring cake instead of sandwiches while the hostess furnishes relish and coffee. By this plan all the members contribute and no one persons has much extra responsibility.

The Club is anticipating a very pleasant and profitable meeting when a voluntary Province Conference is held in Ann Arbor April 15 and 16. We have issued an invitation to the clubs in Delta Province to send delegates to Ann Arbor for this Conference. The club is interested in trying out the Province Conference plan and has taken the initiative for such a conference in Delta Province. We hope that the clubs in the province will be able to cooperate and that the conference will be a real inspiration to delegates and visitors.

The last business meeting for the year was held in March. At this meeting officers for next year were elected and arrangements made for the events the remainder of the year. These include the Province Conference in April and the Annual Mothers Tea in May.

INEZ NOYES

DETROIT CLUB

The November meeting of the Detroit Alumnae Club was a tea at the home of Mrs. Carl Henze, the members of the east side group being hostesses. During the Christmas holidays the west group entertained the club at tea at Mrs. G. J. Gamber's home with active members of Michigan A and B as guests. In January there was a dinner dance and in March we will have a bridge luncheon for the benefit of the Settlement School. March is also the month for our annual business meeting, to be preceded by luncheon at the Women's City Club.

Mrs. B. Raymond Hoobler, a Michigan B who is familiar with most parts of the world, entertained our groups delightfully with her experiences in and impressions of Russia where she travelled this past summer.

Our club extends to Ann Arbor its best wishes for the success of the experimental Delta Province Conference to be held in that city on April 15 and 16.

MARY THOMPSON BAUMANN

LAFAYETTE CLUB

Because our four annual parties for the freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors, have afforded a very pleasant means of our becoming acquainted with the members of the active chapter at Purdue for the past several years, we have included these dinner meetings on our program again this year. In September we entertained the twenty-one pledges at dinner. The sophomore party was in February with Mrs. Lutcher Stark as our honor guest. The junior girls will be our dinner guests this month, and the seniors in May.

Our Settlement School Tea at the chapter house in November was well attended and financially successful. The Christmas dinner party was a husband affair and merriment ran high when white elephant prizes were awarded at each table of bridge.

Instead of the usual benefit bridge this spring, we will make our money selling ten cent chances on ten dollars. The March birthday party also increased our revenue.

RHEA E. WALKER

FORT WAYNE CLUB

The Fort Wayne Club was greatly pleased with the outcome of its first rummage sale which was held in October. It was considered most successful, and all members agreed it seemed to be an ideal way of raising funds for our Settlement School, Loan and Endowment Funds. All members contributed and when all was gathered together and ready to sell, we found we had several days' supply of saleable rummage goods from which we realized $36.00. We hope to repeat this next year.

Our meeting on October 14 at the home of Mrs. E. A. King (Margaret Simminger) was most entertaining and interesting. It was a "back to school" meeting, and we wore dresses which we had worn when in school. The various raiments in evidence pictured the campus queens of yesterday decked in all their finery.

Christmas breakfast was held at the Town House on December 27 at 11:30 with Mrs. Chester Schiefer, Mrs. W. R. Boggess, Mrs. Hugo Meier, Jean Meier, and Mrs. Fred Fisher acting as hostesses.

We will exhibit at the Fort Wayne Art School articles made at our Settlement School. This event is scheduled for sometime in March. The general chairman is Ruth Duncan Mendenhall (Mrs. Edgar N.). All are working together to make it the success it was last year, as it is felt that interest in the school is stimulated by such exhibits. This has proven an excellent way of selling Settlement School articles.

A Panhellenic Christmas breakfast at the Town House was attended by several Pi Phi's. Mrs. E. E. Dildine was general chairman for Panhellenic's Style Bridge held at the Fort Wayne Woman's Club. Peggy Perrine was one of the models. Spring styles from Earl Groth Co. were shown after which tables at bridge were formed.

Ft. Wayne Club enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Eskew at our meeting in April.

PEGGY PERRINE

INDIANAPOLIS CLUB

The winter has gone rapidly and pleasantly for the Indianapolis Alumnae Club despite our sub-zero temperature.

In October we met at the home of Mrs. Jasper Scott for a luncheon meeting. One of our own members, Mrs. Aurthur Ramier, who is widely known in Indianapolis law circles, gave us an informal talk on "Law as it Affects Women."

Our club has an annual bridge tournament as a project for Settlement School funds, so this was naturally the most important topic of conversation at our November meeting at the home of June Willcuts. The bridge party was held on November 23 and was a huge success both socially and financially. Following the business program we were entertained with a most delightful book review "Mary, Queen of Scotland and the Isles."

The husbands and sweethearts of our club are honored each year with an extra special guest meeting. At this time very little business is presented and it is truly a social function; thus we celebrated our Christmas meeting. Mrs. Demarcus Brown, who no doubt is known equally well by Pi Phi's over the country as here in Indianapolis, kept us in gales of laughter interspersed with a few tears with her description of her most recent trip to Athens via freighter.

In January a luncheon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Hollis Leedy. At this time a dance in honor of Indiana I to be sponsored by the club was suggested. This dance will no doubt materialize within the near future. Mrs. Robert Wild, assistant to the Grand Vice-president, reviewed the Constitution and outlined the changes which have been made.

Mrs. E. W. Camp was hostess for the dinner meeting in February at which Mrs. Lutcher Stark was honor guest. Enthusiasm over Convention ran high during that evening, and since we are certainly hoping and planning to meet each of you there in June.

JULIA BOWMAN LEEDY

FLINT CLUB

The Flint Alumnae Club has held regular monthly meetings, with very good attendance at every meeting. Caroline Stearns entertained us at her home for the first fall meeting, and we enjoyed a lovely evening and co-operation dinner. We were able to tell of our summer vacations, and everyone was especially interested in hearing Miriam Herron's account of her trip to the British Isles. She illustrated her story with souvenirs and pictures. In November, we met for dinner and meeting at the Dresden Hotel, with Miriam Herron as hostess. Mrs. Peckham had the display of products from the Settlement School so that our members might see them and choose articles they wanted. We were very pleased that we could sell all the products sent, and hope to get a very much bigger order next year.

We had a fish and chip dinner at the home of Mrs. Roberts for our December meeting, and spent the evening playing Bingo with clever, yet inexpensive prizes, as an incentive. Miss Rushnell entertained us in January for dinner and the regular business meeting followed. We had dinner at the McLean tea-room and a theatre party following in February. Our March meeting was the 23rd with Mrs. Gerholz as hostess.

We are proud of our 100 per cent membership again this year, and were very glad to welcome a new member, Isabel Frankhauser, who has just come to Flint, at our last meeting. We hope to be able to send a representative to the Province Convention of Alumnae Clubs at Ann Arbor in April, and if possible, to Chicago this summer.

We have discussed holding a spring "round-up" of Pi Phi north of Flint, in Saginaw, Bay City, Midland and nearby towns this spring, in hopes that we can help Mrs. Eskew get them organized into a club in the near future. Michigan roads and weather have not made it advisable until later.

MARGARET MATTESON

EPSILON PROVINCE

LOUISVILLE CLUB

During the last few months we have undertaken several projects for making money. In December our Settlement School sale was highly successful, and during the same month we sponsored a dance which was a delightful affair. We sponsored a movie for our next undertaking.

There are thirty-seven members in our club. Our programs, which are held after our dinner meetings, have all been entertaining and of sufficient variety that we have held the interest of our members. Founders' Day will be the chief event of the spring.

NANCY M. MCCOWEN

ST. LOUIS CLUB

The St. Louis Alumnae Club put all its eggs in one basket this year in raising money for the Settlement School. We sponsored a series of three lectures; our artists being Mark Sullivan, Countess Irina Skariatina, and Captain John Noel. Two of the lectures have been given (February) and a nice profit realized. We hope to raise a considerable additional sum when Captain Noel lectures and shows his pictures on March 24. The sponsoring of such a series is quite an undertaking and has meant a tremendous amount of work on the part of the committee in charge plus the cooperation of the entire membership.

This year we are continuing our monthly meetings which include business, program, supper, and a social hour.

MIRIAM WAITE

KANSAS CITY CLUB

Our first meeting was held in October with Mrs. Lynn Webb presiding as president. Reports on rushing were given from our three closest chapters and they all told of success.

We are contributing scholarships to the University of Kansas City as a local welfare project.

FLORENCE DARBY BROWNE

LITTLE PIGEON CLUB

The Little Pigeon Club became a reality at an organization meeting in July held at the home of Martha Huff Lawson. Since the granting of the charter, meetings have been held on the second Friday afternoon of each month at 3:45 o'clock, with various members as hostesses. One of the memorable occasions was the January luncheon at O'Neil's in Knoxville when sixteen Pi Phi met to honor Mrs. Frankie Hill, Settlement School chairman. In February the club was hostess to her sweethearts at a buffet supper. A benefit bridge at Mountain View Hotel and a movie at the Settlement School auditorium were means of raising money for the school.

An Amateur Night program was held on March 17 with prizes offered for the best local talent. In April the Knoxville and Gatlinburg Pi Phi celebrated Founders' Day.

PAULINE WHALING HUFF

SPRINGFIELD CLUB

The Springfield Club has held many successful and interesting meetings this year. Some of them have been in the evenings and some have been in the form of luncheon meetings. At the October meeting we held a cooky-shine for the new initiates and the active chapter at the home of Emma Mae Baldwin. After the business meeting the initiates gave an entertaining playlet.

Our club is interested in the idea of a Pi B Phi cook book. Pollyanna Plummer is in charge of collecting favorite recipes from all members and friends.

A tea for the purpose of selling Settlement School products was held in November at the home of Mrs. Howard Wetzel at which we netted the sum of $80.78.

The plans for the remainder of the year included a rummage sale in March and a movie ticket sale in April. It is hoped that Miss Onken will visit us this spring at which time we expect to have a banquet in order that as many of our members as possible may be able to meet her.

GISELA ATKINSON

COLUMBIA (MISSOURI) CLUB

The Columbia Alumnae Club held the usual sale and tea of Arrowcraft products at the chapter house November 22, the active girls assisting. We have followed the same plan each fall and found it most successful. Articles not sold and not returned are being raffled off at Alumnae Club meetings with great excitement. We also sold Christmas cards, the proceeds of which were sent to the Settlement School fund. Our magazine receipts have been most gratifying, due to the fine work of Ruth Scurlock and the cooperation of all members.

The February meeting was held in the evening so that several members who cannot attend the usual afternoon meetings could be with us. During the year the club entertains the active girls by classes so that we may become better acquainted.

This year the club is offering two awards for scholarship, one for the highest grades; the other for the greatest improvement shown. These awards will be presented at the Founders' Day banquet.

We are most happy to have several new members this year, Mrs. Altje Cleland, Susan Putnam Clark, and Amy Linderoth Westveld.

EDNA G. BREWER

ZETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA CLUB

The Atlanta Alumnae Club has had quite an active fall and winter, with unusually good attendance at our monthly afternoon or evening meetings. Our membership list changes constantly which is easily understood—our attendance record showing about thirty members, representing about seventeen states, and only two or three native Georgians. At our first cooky-shine of the year, one member voluntarily brought a "white elephant" to be raffled among ourselves. Since then, we have had a raffle at each meeting, as it adds a little to our finances and is lots of fun, too! If we have no gift, the treasury pays for an inexpensive one from Arrowcraft which is greatly treasured by the lucky winner. In October we secured the agency for a well known anti-freeze mixture, and were very successful in our sales. We hope to do better next year by booking our orders earlier. Our December meeting was the usual Christmas party, with a toy for the Settlement School from each member, and in February were entertained at the home of our Province Vice-president, Mrs. Paige, with a buffet supper. We have been taking orders for Arrowcraft articles, and at our benefit bridge in February, gave two lovely Arrowcraft prizes. We were invited by the Birmingham Alumnae Club to meet with them, joining the active chapter of Birmingham Southern College, to celebrate Founders' Day. We have enjoyed several luncheons with the Chattanooga chapters, and are looking forward to our meeting with our Pi Beta Phi of Birmingham.

MARIAN B. PAXTON

BIRMINGHAM CLUB

On October 17 the Birmingham Club held its first fall meeting with an attendance of fourteen, eight of whom were charter members of Alabama A at Birmingham Southern College. Officers were elected and plans made for the current year.

Regular meetings have been held the first Monday evening of each month with additional ones from time to time. On October 25 Mrs. Paige of Atlanta, our Province vice-president, came over for her annual visit. There were thirty present to hear her inspiring talk. Two weeks later, Lucy Pope, our Province President, visited the active chapter and was the guest of the alumnae club at an informal dinner.

The November meeting was held at the home of Mrs. G. H. Hill. Some special committees were appointed and plans made for a Settlement School sale in December. On November 25 a cooky-shine was given for the actives at the home of Virginia Miller with fifty present.

The tea and Settlement School sale were held on December 7 at the home of Clarice Davis. This was a delightful occasion at which a tidy sum was realized for the benefit of the school.

At the January meeting the program was given to a discussion of the constitution. In February the report of Miss Onken on the National Panhellenic Congress was read and discussed. The Endowment Fund was the subject of our study at the March meeting. In April we studied the history of the fraternity. We had with us at the Founders' Day banquet not only our own local members but also the Atlanta Alumnae Club and the active chapter at Birmingham Southern College.

VIRGINIA MILLER

JACKSONVILLE CLUB

Our monthly meetings have been well attended. We meet the second Wednesday of each month at the homes of the members. The business sessions are preceded by a dinner. Two members act as hostess at each meeting and as our programs have been exceptionally interesting the attendance has been exceptionally good.

We have had a rummage sale and a sale of Arrowcraft articles.

We were glad to meet our new Province Vice-president, Mrs. Paige, who brought us news of other clubs and helpful suggestions for our own. Our state convention met in Tallahassee in April when we also celebrated Founders' Day.

MARY JANE SATURN

DAYTONA BEACH CLUB

After several years of functioning, under the guidance of Mrs. Lee B. Whitsett as a local alumnae club due to the lack of the ten required members for a national charter, the Daytona Beach group obtained the quota last November, and is now proud to announce the receipt of a national charter.

The charter officers are: Mrs. Curtis Gardiner, president; Mrs. Lee B. Whitsett, vice-president; Mrs. Horace Riegle, treasurer; Gertrude Belle Kipp, secretary; Mrs. Juliana Simanton, Settlement School chairman; Mrs. Howard Hodgden, membership chairman; and Mrs. F. V. Martin, magazine agency chairman.

A holiday tea was given at the home of Mrs. Horace Riegle in honor of three local pledges, four local actives, and six local rushees, and their mothers. The guests received wine and blue colored corsages from a flowered-arrow design laid on the buffet. The Florida A active chapter cooperated with the club by lending their electric arrow for decoration.

At the January meeting, it was voted to hold monthly covered-dish supper-meetings in place of just the required four meetings a year. Plans for an early spring rush party were discussed, and several members expressed their intentions of attending the Second Annual State Convention to be held at Tallahassee in April or May.

So with the acquirement of the long-sought charter, the prospect of two new local graduate members this spring, and the spirit of combined fellowship, the club is striving to make itself stand for all that is best— $\Pi \Phi$.

GERTRUDE BELLE KIPP

DE LAND CLUB

Our alumnae club has met the first Tuesday of each month for an evening meeting at the homes of various members. We have enjoyed having our Province Vice-president as a guest at the December meeting.

The traditional card party was not given this year for the raising of the budget. This is the second time in twenty years we have missed. In February we had a sale of articles from the Settlement School and were much gratified with the result. We plan to have a rummage sale later and hope in this way, together with individual gifts, to raise our funds.

We were glad to welcome many $\Pi \Phi$'s at the Stetson homecoming celebration. Florida A joined with the Alumnae Club in arranging a cooky-shine at which eighty were present.

Margaret Gilliland Moore, a former member of our club, is spending the winter here and we have been glad to have her with us again at our meetings.

MARIAN W. HULL

ORLANDO CLUB

The 1935-1936 season of the Orlando Alumnae Club opened with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Loomis C. Leedy on October 8. As is our custom the business meeting was preceded by a buffet supper or "cooky-shine." Everyone was happy to be together again and eager to make plans for the oncoming year.

The November meeting was held at the home of Miss Mary Lanier, our president. Here plans for the annual Christmas dance for the benefit of the Settlement School were developed and under the management of Miss Gwendolyn Barthonev proved very successful. This dance was preceded by a luncheon party for visiting Florida Betas and a number of rushees for next year, which was part of a campaign the club hopes to conduct to help with rushing in this vicinity.

Mrs. Winifred S. Page, our new province vice-president, visited the club early in December. It was good to have the opportunity of knowing our new officer and we hope that she will return to us next season.

Mrs. Cloite Hill rescued a "homeless" club during the holiday month and entertained with a Christmas party. The spirit of Santa Claus truly pervaded. The exchange of small gifts and the "antics" of Lorna Ludwig Ufer added to the general mood of merriment. The gathering was not wholly socially minded and a serious discussion of how to finance our rushing program ensued. In January at the home of Mrs. L. R. Nydeger, the discussion was continued and it was decided to establish a fund which would be available for the purpose during the whole year.

A cooky-shine for the new Florida T initiates was held in February at the chapter house in conjunction with the actives.

Our March meeting was turned over to Miss Margaret Lefevre, our club representative for the endowment campaign, with fond hopes that we might respond to the slogan "A dollar from every Pi Phi" one hundred per cent. The state convention was held in Tallahassee in April.

The club is very pleased to have some half dozen new members this year. The latch string is always out to $\Pi \Phi$'s, visiting and resident alike.

DAMARIS O. WILSON

TAMPA CLUB

The Tampa Alumnae Club has held its usual monthly meetings which have been changed from the second Monday of each month to the second Tuesday. All have been well attended and we are happy to have added several new members from other cities to our group.

In December we were fortunate in being visited by our new Province Vice-president, Mrs. D. R. Paige, of Atlanta, Ga. An informal tea was given in her honor which was followed by a dinner after which Mrs. Paige gave us many interesting accounts about the Settlement School and showed us many Arrowcraft articles.

On December 27 we gave a Christmas Ball honoring the new pledges, from this city, a group of rushees, and a number of friends.

In January we gave a rummage sale for the purpose of raising money and at the last meeting we voted to have a Founders' Day luncheon in April at which Miss Susan Stovall and Mrs. Clark Evans will serve as hostesses.

SARAH STUART

ETA PROVINCE

CHICAGO ALUMNAE CLUB SOUTH

We feel the year is progressing very successfully for our club. While our membership has not increased, it remains around fifty, with several new members making up for our loss of some who have left the city.

We held an election tea April 8, and we are expecting a good turn-out for a benefit bridge June 2 at Smythe's furniture company. With convention here we are quite enthused at the prospect of a large Chicago attendance, and are anxious to do our share to make it a success.

The general meetings we had earlier in the year were greatly enjoyed by all. Our selling of settlement school goods neared $100.00, which is a record for this club. On Thursday evening, March 12, Miss Frances Gillespie, Columbia A., a professor of English history at the University of Chicago, talked to us on "Recent Developments in England." It was a most interesting talk and it was a pleasure for us all to meet the speaker. Dr. Partridge also showed us some lovely pictures he took at the Settlement School. Some were color films and showed the real beauty of the autumn scenery around the mountains.

We are looking for a lot of $\Pi \Phi$ friends at convention!
 BETTY NEWMAN SWANSON

GALESBURG CLUB

The Galesburg Club and Illinois B Δ have had their annual benefit dance for the Settlement School. In January we did some work for the Visiting Nurses Association.

We were happy to entertain Mrs. Stark while she was in Galesburg. Her visit was very inspirational. In February we had a cooky-shine with the active chapter to meet the initiates. At our meeting that evening we voted to contribute to the fund for the restoration of the interior of Old Main on Knox Campus.

PEARL OBERG

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN CLUB

The innovation of luncheon meetings this year has proved most successful. Attendance has been excellent and members have been afforded more time for chatting and improving acquaintanceships. This is of importance in our club since the membership is drawn from eight suburban villages, and the regular meetings are in most cases the only point of contact.

At the January meeting we enjoyed a charming talk by Bernice Van Der Dries, Kansas A., who is a member of the Illinois House of Representatives. She recounted many interesting details that occur in the daily life of a feminine legislator. Mrs. Frost conducted a constitution study at the March meeting. A luncheon on Founders' Day and a May picnic concluded the activities of the year.

We have found that the ideal time for an Arrowcraft sale is mid-December. Our sale this year was held at that time and all our previous sales records were surpassed.

We are considering plans to entertain one delegate from each club in this province at a conference to be held on April 24 and 25 in Western Springs. Mrs. Murkland, our Province vice-president, will conduct the conference, the purpose of which is to inform the members attending of the issues to come before the Convention in June.

CHARLOTTE HOWARD WATSON

ROCKFORD CLUB

The October meeting of the Rockford Alumnae Club was a dessert-bridge at the home of Mrs. C. K. Myers with Mrs. J. M. Dennis assisting.

A most delightful benefit bridge was held at Schrom's in the French room on October 26. Mrs. Edward Fox was chairman for the party, and we were pleased to complete our Settlement School contribution from the proceeds.

Mrs. Raymond Wiegert entertained our alumnae group in November with a dinner and bridge. We were most happy this fall to welcome two new members, Geanne Fairbairn of Illinois Z and Mrs. Delores Huffman McKee of Oklahoma B. A display of Settlement School articles was given at this time and most everything sold. Our contributions to the Settlement School loan fund, and endowment fund were given this month.

A Christmas luncheon was given at the Rockford Woman's Club—an enjoyable spot. Perfect food and good company made it quite a gala celebration. We always look forward to our annual cooky-shine given this year on January 14 at the home of Ruth Ralston, with Eleanor Dexter and Naomi Johnson assisting.

Braving the bitter sub-zero weather we met with Mrs. Cord Lipe for dessert and bridge in February.

ANNA MARIE REYNOLDS

BELOIT CLUB

The Beloit Alumnae Club began its fall activities with a very successful rummage sale. Late in October we enjoyed a visit from Miss Onken. Our club and the Rockford Alumnae Club had dinner at the Faculty and Alumni Club. Later we went to the $\Pi \Phi$ house and listened to a very interesting discussion of the work of other clubs and some fascinating stories of the Settlement School by Miss Onken.

We are glad to have two new members in our club this year, namely, Virginia Shafer Wolfe and Dorothy Jorgenson.

At our March meeting we entertained the seniors and the Executive Council and also Mrs. Dengel. The appointment of Hazel Murkland to the office of Eta Province vice-president has made us very happy.

KATHRYN MCGOVERN

MILWAUKEE CLUB

The Milwaukee Club considered itself unusually fortunate to have Miss Onken present at the October meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. John O'Meara. Following dinner, Miss Onken talked to the club informally and, in her own inimitable way, gave interesting side-lights on the Settlement School activities.

In November, Mrs. M. J. Carpenter presented a literary panorama of fall books. The Christmas party in December included pantomimes done by Shorewood High School pupils under the direction of Miss Eloise Wilson.

In spite of sub-zero weather, a goodly number turned out for both the January and February meetings. At a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Kneeland Godfrey on January 18, Charlotte Wollaeger gave an interesting résumé of her last summer's tour of Germany. In February, following dinner at the home of Mrs. L. J. Evans, bridge and monopoly were played.

The club enjoyed a tour through the Industrial School for Girls which took place in March. The superintendent of the school is Mrs. Margaret Abels, a member of $\Pi B \Phi$. Founders' Day was celebrated in April with a dinner meeting. Mrs. Louise Troxell Greeley, the Dean of Women at the University of Wisconsin, was the guest speaker.

HELEN METCALF CROWELL

CHICAGO NORTH CLUB

Chicago North Alumnae Club had Mrs. Ruth Barrett Smith as an honored guest at a luncheon meeting on December 17, 1935. A tea for $\Pi B \Phi$'s not affiliated with Alumnae Clubs was given at the home of Mrs. Harvey Wood on January 25, 1936. A joint meeting of the two groups of Chicago North was held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Davis on March 14. Following the luncheon given by the members of the Board, the annual election of officers took place. Chicago North sponsored a benefit-bridge party at the Indian Boundary Club house April 17.

Under the able leadership of our club President, Mrs. F. J. Linane, all members are striving to raise the same amount of money for the Settlement School contribution from Chicago North which has been sent in previous years. It has been difficult to do, but the sale of vanilla and the benefit-bridge party, together with the yearly dues constitute the ways and means of raising our quota.

LYNORE ANDRESS BARD

CARTHAGE CLUB

The meetings of the Carthage Alumnae Club are held every other month in the homes of the members. Following the business and the program, a social hour is enjoyed, the hostess serving light refreshments.

The secretary reviewed Work's "Ethiopia, a Pawn in European Diplomacy," at the last meeting.

Other meetings of the year include reviews of current novels, a study of the constitution and fraternity examination questions, Settlement School, and a celebration of Founders' Day.

We are especially interested in Convention since it is to be held in our province.

MIRIAM E. WILLIAMS

NORTH SHORE CLUB

The North Shore Alumnae Club started the year under the leadership of Mrs. Dale Sutton, who later was forced to resign because of ill health. Mrs. C. C. Cummins was elected to take her place.

The first meeting was held at the $\Pi \Phi$ house with members of the board as hostesses. The program was in charge of Mrs. E. L. Middleton, who, in her usual delightful style, reviewed several current books.

In October, at a tea at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Fox, Mrs. Hope Graham gave a most interesting description of her observations during a trip to Germany last summer.

The November meeting at the home of Katharine Biggert was a tea at which articles from the Settlement

School were displayed and sold. This was an open meeting to which members were privileged to bring their friends.

A luncheon at the $\Pi \Phi$ house in December was followed by an afternoon of bridge. Inez Webster, Eta Province President, was a guest.

In January at a tea at the home of Mrs. C. C. Cummins, Mrs. Walrath, founder of the Cradle, described its founding and the way in which it is operated.

February 7 was the date of the annual bridge party for the benefit of the Settlement School. During the afternoon a style show was presented by the Frances Nichols shop of Evanston.

At the regular February meeting at the $\Pi \Phi$ house a walking rehearsal of a current play was directed by Mrs. John Monk.

The club held a Founders' Day luncheon and is looking forward to the Convention in June.

HELEN BOGUE DICUS

OAK PARK-RIVER FOREST CLUB

The alumnae of the above Chicago suburbs continue to meet in two groups, with three joint meetings during the year. While separating the club in this manner naturally lessens the opportunities for all members to become well acquainted with one another, still we find that a much larger membership can be maintained by having both afternoon and evening meetings. We meet on the second Wednesday of the month, at 1:30 and 7:30 respectively, and as usual, we repeat the invitation to any $\Pi \Phi$'s in our vicinity to communicate with us and join our groups.

While our meetings are mostly of a social nature, we have interspersed the chit-chat occasionally with a bit of the constitution, chapter histories, a book review or two, and our entertainment committee promises something interesting of a dramatic nature in the near future.

Through the untiring efforts of our president, Bobby Carrigan, we were able to make a generous percentage from the sale of candy, nuts, waxed paper, Christmas cards, etc., during the holidays, all of which will be sent to the Settlement School.

With the Edgewater Beach Hotel, headquarters for the convention this summer, only forty-five minutes away, we are all looking forward to renewing many delightful friendships.

HELENE DRUMMOND

THETA PROVINCE

DULUTH CLUB

This has been the second year of the Duluth Alumnae Club under the regime of Helen Thompson as President. She has been ably assisted by Gladys Bowman as vice-president, Eloise Clark as recording secretary and Eleanor Abbott as treasurer. Our mid-winter activities were somewhat curtailed by the severe cold weather and we were forced to postpone indefinitely our annual bridge party. However, we renewed our activity with the milder weather.

We have been glad to welcome to our meetings Lyle Byrnes of Minneapolis (Minnesota A), who has been in Duluth this winter doing SERA work. Under the supervision of Mildred Sverson Jones we had a pre-Christmas display and sale of Settlement School products.

Betty Bowman's engagement to Ned Reichert, $\Phi \Psi$ from Wisconsin, has been announced.

Our members have been very faithful in attendance this year and we have had an average attendance of from 16 to 18.

RUBY BURTNES OLNSTEAD

CEDAR RAPIDS CLUB

The monthly meetings of the Cedar Rapids Club have been held the second Tuesday of each month. We have a business session at four o'clock and this is followed by a program and supper. Each member present leaves a contribution which helps increase our fund. We contribute to the Settlement School, the Endowment Fund and the Loan Fund.

In the fall a successful rummage sale was held. Magazine subscriptions have helped too. The annual sale of Arrowcraft articles was handled in a different manner this year. Members of the club had teas at their homes when these articles were displayed and sold. We also had the articles for sale at the College Club meetings.

Our club had the pleasure of having a visit from Mrs. Knapp in the early fall.

IRU LIPPINCOTT

AMES CLUB

We have enjoyed a varied and interesting program this year. In October a pot-luck dinner with men guests was held at the chapter house. In November a luncheon was held followed by an interesting program. In December the pledges were our guests at a luncheon. Mrs. Pattengill talked to us about the Settlement School. At the January meeting the seniors were our guests at a luncheon. We gave a tea for the Pi Phi mothers in January. February we had a cooky-shine for the actives. Election of officers was in March followed by a study of the constitution. On April 25th we observed Founders' Day with a luncheon at Memorial Union. The year's activities will close with a picnic in June.

JOSEPHINE H. DODDS

DES MOINES CLUB

Our club has thus far enjoyed a successful and happy year with an improved monthly attendance and several new members. We now have a membership of 27. We have lost some of our faithful and well-beloved members.

The annual Settlement School sale was held in December at the home of Mrs. Mark Disosway, at which time we cleared a comfortable profit. This year our earnings from magazine subscriptions have increased considerably through the efforts of Jean Olmstead, the chairman.

The March meeting included an Endowment Fund program with contributions from the members. Much interest is being shown in Convention plans since Chicago is close enough for many of us to attend. We plan to be represented by a delegate and those who are going look forward to a worthwhile program.

LUELLA BURT REARICK

WINNIPEG CLUB

In October, the Club held a Charity Bridge and Fashion Show in the Grill Room of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., at which we had about eighty tables. From the proceeds we sent fifteen dollars ($15.00) to Settlement School, and the remaining is being used for the Girls' Clubs at the Kindergarten Settlement School with which we became affiliated last fall.

At the November meeting Dr. Olive Cole, President of the University Women's Club spoke to us about the Club, its members, aims, and various groups.

Our annual Christmas Party was again held at Mrs. G. F. Klein's, and a busy evening was spent making Christmas bags and filling them with candies, nuts, and toys. Later in the week a few of the Alumnae met to make candy bags and purchase dolls for the Christmas parties of the Girls' Clubs at the Kindergarten Settlement School.

$\Pi \Phi$ held their annual New Year's Reception at the home of Mary Kate Florance, at which there was a large attendance. On January 8th, the Club entertained in honor of the pledges at an evening party at Isobel Hitchings'. The annual Initiation Banquet was held at the Fort Garry Hotel on Saturday January 11th, at 8 o'clock. Gertrude Pickles, president of the Alumnae Club presided as chairman. There were sixty-two in attendance on this occasion, at which the Graduates were guests as well as the Initiates. The Alumnae Scholarship award to the pledge attaining the highest scholastic standing in the recent University examinations, was presented to Betty Gray, during the evening. The banquet was most successful, and enjoyed by all attending. On January 20 the Club held a high tea in honor of Ileana Hemphill, whose marriage to Dr. J. L. Downey took place on February 1st.

The February meeting was devoted to the Settlement School. Dorothy Herzer read a most interesting account of the School, and Mrs. G. F. Klein spoke informally on the same subject, as she was a visitor to the school last fall. A side issue of the evening was a small "White Elephant Parcel" sale, at 25c per surprise-parcel. The money so raised was for the Scholarship Loan Fund of $\Pi \Phi$.

The Club joined the Active chapter in congratulating Jean Christie on her recent election as Senior Stick of Girls of the Arts Faculty of the University.

KATHARINE MIDDLETON

MINNEAPOLIS CLUB

This year the Alumnae Club divided its meetings into two groups, the evening dinner group which holds its meetings the second Tuesday of each month at the Pi Phi house, and the afternoon luncheon group which holds its meetings the second Wednesday of each month at the various homes. This plan has been very successful and has increased our membership and given everyone an opportunity to attend. The two groups have worked together in social events and the programs have been repeated in most cases at both meetings.

The first evening meeting was held on October 8 at the Pi Phi House. Miss Horatio Owens from the Noyes School of Rhythm was our guest speaker and recounted in a very realistic manner her experiences in Greece studying Greek rhythm and also gave a very artistic interpretation of several Grecian dances.

At the November meeting the guest speaker was Mary Ellis McCrady, director, "Women's Page of the Air" of the Minneapolis Journal, who gave an interesting talk.

On November 30 a Pi Phi Benefit Circus which was attended by 750 Pi Phis and friends was held at the Galleries. It might be of interest to state that the Galleries is on the same site as Walker home where the Minnesota chapter was installed. Mrs. E. C. Wilson was in charge of the affair and made it a very entertaining and successful event which will not be forgotten.

The St. Paul Alumnae Club joined the Minneapolis Alumnae on December 10 at a Christmas party for the active chapter and an enjoyable evening was spent. The annual Christmas luncheon at the College Women's Club was attended by a large number of Minneapolis and St. Paul Pi Phis. Mrs. H. V. Bank who was in charge of the program had arranged a very entertaining program. There were musical numbers and Mrs. Chester DuClos gave a talk on her East India travels.

At our January meeting Mr. Merle Potter, Movie Critic of the Minneapolis Journal, reviewed for us some very interesting and amusing interviews with movie actors and actresses in Hollywood. He brought us a vivid picture of the many famous characters and his talk was very much enjoyed. Merle Potter is of course husband of Lucy Howe Potter of St. Paul Alumnae Club.

Plans for the remainder of the year included: March evening meeting a style show and talk by Miss Helen Sweatt, Stylist, Powers Mercantile Company; March afternoon meeting speaker Mrs. Milton Gutteresen on "My Trip to Central America," the annual Founders' Day banquet in April; entertainment of the seniors in May; and final business meeting with installation of officers and a picnic for June.

DOROTHY EASTMAN

COUNCIL BLUFFS CLUB

On October 14, 1935, at the Hotel Chieftain an enthusiastic group of Pi Phis met to organize a club. Officers were elected and a calendar planned. Regular meetings will be held on the second Tuesday, every other month, dinner to be served at 6:30, followed by a business meeting.

Our enrollment includes 25 members out of a possible 26 and attendance has been most gratifying.

Our club portrays again the pioneer spirit of Pi B Phi as it is the first alumnae club to be formed in Council Bluffs. Since our organization, K K Gamma has formed a similar group.

We are looking forward to a visit from Mrs. Seaman A. Knapp, province vice-president, early in May at which time we shall have our Founders' Day celebration.

We are all enjoying the many new friendships and pleasant associations that our club offers.

RUTH B. ELIAS (Mrs. H. F.)

IOTA PROVINCE

MANHATTAN CLUB

The first club meeting of the year was held in the chapter room of Kansas B. The meeting followed the cooky-shine given by the alumnae to Kansas Bs after fall pledging.

The club voted to send $50 to the Settlement School. A luncheon was held in October at the Gillett Hotel for Mrs. Collins, our Province Vice-President. It has been three years since she visited us.

Since Mrs. Holton, one of our members, has become editor of the ARROW department, News from Little Pigeon, the club has a fine incentive for raising money for the School. For the first time there was a public sale of Settlement School articles. Each member of the club endeavors to raise $10 a year. The membership is divided so that all have an opportunity to work on some money-raising project.

ELIZABETH HILL SCOTT

LINCOLN CLUB

On October 9th Mrs. Shrive Collins was the honored guest at a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Ernest Ames. We greatly enjoyed her discussion of rushing and procedures in other chapters.

In November we entertained the freshmen at the home of Mrs. Charles Stuart. Mrs. Jean Kinder had the December meeting at which we netted $21 at a sale of food and Settlement School articles.

On December 19th the actives gave a very lively Christmas Tree party for the children of the alumnae and their friends. Santa Claus presented the gifts including five silver trays from the alumnae club to the house.

Three weeks of sub-zero weather in January called off most of the regular civic and fraternal meetings including ours.

Election of officers was held in February. Plans for a bridge benefit were discussed. The Founders' Day banquet was held on April 25th at the Hotel Lincoln. Our money-making activities have consisted of food sales, magazine subscriptions, sale of Christmas wrappings and vanilla.

ELEANORE FOGG WHITHAM

BOULDER CLUB

The November meeting of the Boulder club was a dessert party at the home of the president at which cards and stationery were for sale for the benefit of the club treasury. At this meeting plans were made for the initiation banquet which is in charge of the alumnae each year.

At the February supper given at the home of Mrs. Woodbury, Miss Onken's interesting report of the 1935 Panhellenic Congress was read and enjoyed by everyone. It was voted to send $25 to the Settlement School.

Boulder has an enthusiastic Mothers' Club with members in Greeley and Fort Collins and Longmont. Each fall this club has a jelly and fruit shower for the chapter house. Their meetings are in the form of luncheons, five during the year, four at the homes of members and the fifth at the chapter house.

Our March meeting was the Settlement School meeting and later in the year we shall assist at the sale of Settlement School articles which the active chapter will have. Founders' Day was celebrated with Colorado Beta and a party honoring the seniors will be given in May.

LOU H. McALLISTER

WICHITA CLUB

The fall season was opened with several successful rushing parties. Several Wichita girls were pledged Pi Phi at Kansas University, Northwestern, and George Washington University.

A fashion show was held in September at the Lassen Hotel. Two hundred and sixty-four luncheons were served. In October a dinner was given at the home of Mrs. Hiram Lewis, honoring our Province Vice-President, Mrs. Shrive Collins. The November luncheon was a business meeting. A Settlement School display and sale featured the December meeting and a Christmas box was packed for the School. A lovely Christmas tea was given during the holidays at the home of Miss Donna Evans for the rushees and their mothers.

Our Panhellenic representative, Mrs. C. E. Heite, was a member of the committee in charge of the Panhellenic dance that was given February 29th at the Broadview Hotel.

Miss Katrina Wallingford, a Wichita girl who is a member of the Stanford chapter, is doing Little Theater work in New York very successfully.

HELEN HUGHES FAULCONER

LAWRENCE CLUB

Instead of the usual four meetings a year, the Lawrence Alumnae Club has tried the new policy of having monthly meetings. The success of this procedure has been quite gratifying and has resulted in added interest and a larger attendance.

Our Province Vice-President, Mrs. Hallie Collins, was the honor guest at our first meeting. She told us many interesting things about the Settlement School and gave us many highlights on the workings of $\Pi B \Phi$ in general. The annual Christmas sale of Settlement School products was held in a downtown store this year. The sale was quite a success and we were able to send a much larger check than ever before.

The girls of the active chapter were entertained at a tea given by the Alumnae in January. The opportunity to meet and know the active girls adds interest to the Alumnae Club and brings a sympathetic understanding between the past and present of sorority life.

The meeting on the Constitution and the Founders' Day celebration were the events of the latter part of the year.

MAXINE F. RADCLIFFE

LARAMIE CLUB

The highlight of the activities of the Laramie Alumnae Club for this year was the annual Fashion Show and Card Party held at the chapter house on November 16. Bridge was played and members of the active and pledge groups modeled clothes from leading shops. Settlement School goods were displayed and, as always, sold successfully among the many guests. Proceeds from the venture were devoted to contributions to the Endowment Fund, the Loan Fund, and the Settlement School.

A special party dedicated to the Endowment Fund comprised the March meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Cecil Rigby Nussbaum, chairman of the committee on the Fund. The meeting was also scheduled to honor the pledges of Wyoming A. In April a meeting designed to observe Founders' Day in cooperation with the active chapter was held. The seniors were honored at the latter, and extended a year's local membership in the Laramie Club.

A visit from Mrs. Faith Martin Hanna, Iota Province President, was an outstanding event for the club members.

WANNABELLE SMITH

CASPER CLUB

The Casper Alumnae Club of $\Pi B \Phi$ is nearing the completion of a very successful year, under the able direction of our president, Mrs. Ben Pelton. We have had a very good average attendance this winter and have been able to contribute to the Settlement School, the Magazine Agency and to Wyoming A, the nearest active chapter.

We entertained Mrs. Hallie Chapman Collins, our Province Vice-President, the latter part of March and enjoyed this contact with the national organization.

GLADYS BON

KAPPA PROVINCE

AUSTIN CLUB

Our regular monthly meetings have been held this year, partly at the chapter house and partly at the homes of members. Our Arrowcraft sale the first week in December was very successful, and we were proud to send a good donation to the School. We are also selling vanilla in order to make more money for the School.

We greatly enjoyed the visit of Mrs. Alford, the ARROW editor, and felt that we were greatly benefited by her visit.

ELIZABETH SCHNEIDER

CORPUS CHRISTI CLUB

Since our last report we have had our Settlement School sale. It was held in a gift shop down town where we served coffee to all our customers, the coffee being donated by a local concern.

In December we had a delightful cooky-shine. Having decided to do our share of local charitable work, we collected dolls and toys for the Community Christmas tree and gave a contribution to the Girls' Friendly Society.

We have been happy to welcome several new members and are especially proud of the three out-of-town $\Pi B \Phi$'s who come regularly from Taft, eighteen miles distant, to attend our meetings. In February these Taft members invited us to a buffet supper there which proved to be a delightful occasion.

We celebrated Founders' Day with a dinner at the

DENVER CLUB

The Denver Alumnae Club under the able guidance of Mrs. Frank Divisek has so far had a most successful year in every way. We have the largest paid membership in our history—one hundred and thirty members—and there are others who come to occasional meetings so our average attendance is over one hundred.

Our meetings are either Saturday luncheons or Monday evening suppers, thus giving those who teach or hold other positions an opportunity to be present.

In November we had our annual Settlement School tea at the home of Mrs. A. B. Trott. Much material from the Settlement School was sold or ordered, so we felt the tea was a success in every way. Mrs. Charles Stewart is chairman of our Settlement School Committee again this year and she reports a very active year with an improvement in sales over last year. The Colorado Springs, Pueblo, and Laramie Alumnae Clubs buy through us, and the Boulder Alumnae Club and actives expect to hold a tea and sale soon, and they will obtain their material through us so this will all help to increase our total sales for the year.

In December we held our Christmas meeting to which we each took twenty-five cent gifts receiving others in return. A few days after Christmas a formal dinner and dance were given at the Denver Country Club and besides our husbands, actives and their dates were invited. It was a very lovely, well managed party.

We had an evening supper and card party with prizes for our January meeting, and our February luncheon was followed by the Shreveport Constitution Game which we highly recommend to other clubs for an interesting and enjoyable way to learn our history and constitution.

Our big benefit card party was held the afternoon of March 21 and we hoped at that time to make enough money to increase our year's gift to the Settlement School to \$350. $\Pi B \Phi$ alumnae and actives modeled in the style show and everyone had a good time.

Mrs. Armin Thebus, our magazine agency chairman for the sixth year, says that we have so far sent in about $500 worth of subscriptions compared to $300 for last year. The mid-year report gave our club first place in amount of subscriptions sent in. Next year a new sort of very definite campaign and contest is going to be tried and Mrs. Thebus is working on plans for that now.

We have helped Colorado A and Colorado B both financially and in other ways and assisted Colorado B in a lovely rush tea they gave for high school seniors this winter.

Our club is very active in every way and perhaps one reason is because we are so fortunate as to have as members Mrs. Shrive Collins, Mary Frost, Mrs. Stuart Lewis, Mrs. Neil Tasher and others who have been closely connected with the national organization.

LOLITA SNELL PROUTY

country club to which we invited our husbands and escorts. We plan to send at least one delegate to Convention. There are only fourteen in our group but we are not lacking in enthusiasm.

ERNA S. JOHNS

LITTLE ROCK CLUB

The Little Rock Club has held its regular meetings twice a month with a beautiful autumn luncheon in November and a Valentine luncheon in February. Many members unable to attend the regular evening meetings attend the Saturday luncheons.

In December the club gave its annual Christmas tea for the $\Pi B \Phi$ mothers, Friends of $\Pi B \Phi$, Junior College girls, high school girls, and their mothers were added to the list. Mary Louise Carter was hostess for the tea in her beautiful home on Shadow Lane.

As a means of raising money the club raffled off a doll and its complete outfit before Christmas. Enough money was raised in this way to pay the club's contribution to the Settlement School, the Loan Fund, and the Endowment Fund.

In April we shall have a book review program to raise funds to send a delegate to Convention. Mrs. Ossian Homer King from Hot Springs is to give the book review.

In October a bridge party was given at the home of Mrs. G. T. Huckaby in honor of several $\Pi B \Phi$ brides.

Twenty of our members are also members of the Little Rock Panhellenic Association which sponsors a rural county library.

We shall celebrate Founders' Day with a dinner at the home of one of our members followed by a program concerning the Founders. Each year an original skit is written by some of the members and presented at this dinner. In October the club entertained in honor of the president of the Arkansas A chapter who was sponsor of the Razorback team when it played Texas Christian University. The girls of the active chapter, their escorts and the alumnae were guests.

PAULINE HOBLTZEL

FAYETTEVILLE CLUB

The Fayetteville Alumnae Club meets on the first Thursday of each month for a luncheon and business meeting at the homes of its members.

We have had two rummage sales to make money for the Settlement School and Endowment Fund.

The Club served the Founders' Day banquet for Arkansas A at the chapter house in April.

An increasing interest has been shown this year in Alumnae Club activities. We have more former members than usual and five new members from Arkansas A.

ELINOR HALE CLAYTON

OKMULGEE CLUB

Okmulgee Alumnae Club has enjoyed an unusually active year with our seven new members as a great inspiration to the Club. Six of the girls are just out of school and we are enjoying a closer contact with active Pi Phi doings than we have in several years. We were most happy to welcome the following new members: Marjorie Ming, Mary Ophelia Eichenberger and Frances Hockensmith of Missouri A; Sally Jo Matheny, Anna Pauline Hill, and Mary Almy of Arkansas A and Claire Tribble Blossom (Mrs. Virgil) an alumna of Arkansas A.

We have had our regular monthly meetings since last September at which time the chief discussion has been ways and means of making money for the Settlement School and our other donations. We held a rummage sale in April and raised enough to increase our donations over last year.

Unfortunately we lost one of our charter members this winter when Doris Fisher Dalton (Mrs. Jack) Arkansas A moved to Oklahoma City. We feel however that our loss is Oklahoma City's gain and know that she will continue her activities with the Oklahoma City Club.

Our Founders' Day celebration was in the form of a cooky-shine. With our increased membership we had an inspiring program.

At the May meeting we hold election of officers and make plans for the summer rushing as we do not have any regular meetings again until September.

DOROTHY PHILLIPS GARR

SAN ANTONIO CLUB

The first meeting of our Club was held in October at the home of one of our members. Since then we have been meeting regularly in the homes of various of our members on the second Tuesday of the month.

We are quite proud to have increased our membership this year. We have almost twice as many members as when we organized last spring.

Our Settlement School Sale of Arrowcraft articles proved quite successful. We held the sale for one week in the Bright Shawl, the Junior League's Tearoom. This was our first attempt and we feel we will be able next year to order and sell on a larger scale.

We were honored in December with visits from two of our Grand Council members, Mrs. W. T. Smith, Grand Vice-President, and Mrs. T. N. Alford, ARROW Editor. Mrs. Smith arrived in the midst of our Settlement School sale and gave us so much needed advice concerning methods of selling the articles. Mrs. Alford entertained us with a most interesting talk about her visit to the Settlement School and also of her attendance at the Twenty-fourth National Panhellenic Congress. Both Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Alford were most gracious in answering our numerous questions, which helped the club greatly.

We celebrated Founders' Day with Texas A in Austin.

ELIZABETH GOODLOB

LAMBDA PROVINCE

INEZ SMITH SOULE CLUB (TACOMA)

With the exception of December, our club has held regular meetings each month, alternating with an evening session and a Saturday luncheon.

We enjoyed a visit from our Province Vice-President, Mrs. Howard G. Fletcher, in January. She told us many interesting things about the Settlement School, its changes and improvements.

As our Benefit Cabaret Dance last spring was so successful we plan to have another one soon after Lent. A hand-woven linen luncheon set from the Settlement School will be raffled off at the dance.

We have contributed $5 to the Loan Fund, $5 to the Endowment Fund and $50 to the Settlement School. We have also given $5 each to the Washington A and B chapters to be used for a gift for the house.

We are happy to report that Mrs. Inez Smith Soule, our beloved Founder, has attended our meetings regularly this year.

ELIZABETH KEENER BOYCE

SEATTLE CLUB

The Seattle Club has had a pleasant year with the groups meeting once a month as usual. On October 29th we had a general meeting. In November we joined with the Mothers' Club in having a rummage sale at which we cleared $44. One of the groups took over the Penthouse Theater for a day and made $40. In November we had a sale of Settlement School articles at which we cleared $25. Donations increased this sum to $65.

In December a tea was given, with the Mothers' Club, at the chapter house, honoring the new pledges and parents. Our Province President was visiting the chapter at the time so we were delighted to be able to honor her also.

In January a birthday dinner was given at the house at which time the chapter was presented with several checks from various groups. In April we had a Beatrice Edmonds program. There was the usual Founders' Day banquet and in June the senior breakfast will be held.

BARBARA E. DONNAN

EUGENE CLUB

The Eugene Club has held regular monthly meetings since October with an average attendance of from fourteen to sixteen. This year we have dessert meetings at seven-thirty, everyone but the hostess paying 25 cents into the treasury at each meeting. This is in addition to our yearly local and national dues.

In October we entertained for the pledges of the active chapter at the home of Mrs. Basil T. Williams. The birthday of Oregon A was celebrated with the active chapter at a special birthday dinner at the chapter house, when the club gave the chapter a set of gaily-hued soup bowls, and added to the hilarity of the occasion by an original alumnae song.

In November and December we sold Arrowcraft articles thus swelling our contributions to the Settlement School. Mrs. John Warren did a rushing business with magazine subscriptions at Christmas time and Mrs. Jason Beals collected well-tried recipes for the II B Φ cookbook. Our club is anxious to contribute to the Endowment Fund and we are making plans now for a benefit bridge to be held later in the spring.

Mrs. Howard G. Fletcher, our new Province Vice-President, visited us in February. She told us of the changes at the Settlement School due to the development of the national park near-by.

Our March meeting was given to a discussion of the Endowment Fund and the constitution. In April we observed Founders' Day with Oregon A, Oregon B, and the Corvallis Alumnae Club. Discussion of the questions to be brought up at Convention featured our April meeting. In May we shall entertain for the seniors.

DOROTHY DELZELL LEWIS

BOISE CLUB

Our club with 25 active members has held regular meetings at the homes of our members. The October and November meetings were devoted entirely to the required annual business. Early in December a large group met for a no-host pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Chester Baker. The meeting was given over to the Settlement School with a sale of Arrowcraft articles.

During the holidays an evening party was held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Coats who is the proud possessor of a new Hammond electric organ. She gave a lovely recital on this organ, assisted at the piano by her daughter Martha, and Miss Eileen Driscoll who sang several selections. Later we all sang Pi Phi songs including one by Mrs. Coats.

In February the regular monthly business meeting was held on the first Monday of the month. On the second Monday a no-host luncheon was held at the Owyhee Hotel in honor of Mrs. Howard Fletcher of Seattle, our Province Vice-President. Later in the month a successful rummage sale was held. Since we had garnered in the necessary funds for our year's work our next two meetings were social, a bridge luncheon in March and a dinner party for Founders' Day.

MARGARET TEED

PORTLAND CLUB

The Portland Club has sponsored a rummage sale, a dance, and a tea for the benefit of the Settlement School. Our annual Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Dean Vincent, to which our members brought food, clothing, and money for the needy of the city.

At our last regular meeting we were happy to have with us Mrs. Howard Fletcher, our Province Vice-President, who gave us much interesting news about the Settlement School as well as helpful advice. Our club won an order of Spode china in a table-setting contest with other alumnae clubs, the contest being sponsored by one of our department stores. The club gained $140 on this.

We looked forward to April 17 at which time we presented Miss Beatrice Edmonds, California A, in an evening of interpretative play reviews. She was with us last year and we were happy to have her with us for a return engagement.

The club has contributed to the Settlement School, the Loan Fund and the Endowment Fund and we hope to add to these contributions before the end of the year.

ELEANOR COLEMAN CHICK

NANCY BLACK WALLACE CLUB

The Nancy Black Wallace Club has had a most prosperous year. We do feel the loss of three devoted members, Mrs. Edward Sox (Mae Anderson), Mrs. Carl Ramseyer (Marguerite Bailey), and Mrs. Frank Deckerbaugh (Elois Prudhomme). However, we are happy to welcome six new members: Mrs. Ruth Fields Mimnaugh, Mrs. Floyd Thompson (Hester Hurd), Mrs. Virgil H. Dunkin (Rita de Temple), Mrs. Harold Ladd (Nan La Roche), Alice Inlow and Barbara Porter.

A successful rush luncheon was held during the summer. The two fall meetings were devoted to business. Plans were discussed for raising funds and as a result a rummage sale was held in early January. Every member helped. We made fifty-four dollars. Not only did we find our way clear financially to contribute to all fraternity funds and plans for summer rushing, but we found a closer union of our club members. We feel bigger and stronger; we feel that $\Pi B \Phi$ can function as a real organization in Salem. A local project has been suggested—where there is a will there is a way.

A buffet supper was held in January at the home of Mrs. Wolcott Buren. Co-hostesses were Ethel Frazier, Mrs. Ruth Fields Mimnaugh, and Mrs. Walter Fuhrer. It was Settlement School night. What a treat it was to have Mrs. Sue Winton Fletcher with us! She was so inspiring, and we hope to have her again and again.

The club felt highly honored in sponsoring the memorial ceremony in honor of Nancy Black Wallace. The bronze marker given by $\Pi B \Phi$ was unveiled on April 28. This date was selected by Mr. Paul Wallace, a son, who resides in Salem. Mr. Wallace is most appreciative of the contribution to society his mother has made as a founder of $\Pi B \Phi$. Dr. Bruce Baxter, president of Willamette University, conducted the service. Lillian Davis was chairman of the memorial ceremony committee.

VERNA WEAVER MAY

CORVALLIS CLUB

The Corvallis Alumnae Club was very happy to welcome back to Corvallis and to our Club, Estora Ricks-Moe and Virginia Harrison-Small. Both girls have brought enthusiasm for Pi Phi and a ready willingness to serve as have our other new members Mary Woodcock, Oregon B, and Helen Hasbrouck, Wyoming A. With fourteen members we feel that we are really quite a group this season.

We are trying this year to raise our money by various small group projects. Bertha Mynatt takes magazine subscriptions; Marion Oliver takes settlement school orders; each member takes a turn at furnishing home-made food to be sold at the house on week-end nights; each member pays ten cents per meeting toward the general treasurer's fund and finally we plan to rent our attractive trays which we use for buffet service at every meeting to socially inclined neighbors and friends. Our plans are already being made for our rummage sale first thing next fall. Alice Ingalls has volunteered to sponsor this affair and is already looking at our clothes with covetous eyes.

We keep in very close touch with our chapter and are always well represented at initiations—special meetings—formals and so on. We are at the moment making plans for a welcome party for the new initiates.

We enjoyed our short visit with Mrs. Fletcher so much and hope she will come again and often. She brought us such interesting news from Gatlinburg that we all want to hear more.

MARION OLIVER

SPOKANE CLUB

For the convenience of such a large membership, Spokane has two groups. One meets in the afternoon, and the other meets in the evening. For special business or social affairs they have combined meetings. In November they all came together to plan for a tea to be given during the Christmas holidays for the active girls who would be home from school. The Christmas tea is practically a tradition with the Spokane Pi Phi.

The evening group meets for buffet supper, has a business meeting, and has a social hour. Some very artistic year books were made by two members, Margaret Bement and Marian Bailey. As a Christmas gift to the Washington B chapter at Pullman, the girls sent a lovely blanket suitable for the guest room.

On February 21, the two groups sponsored a Leap Year Dance. The net proceeds of which were to be sent to the Settlement School. Twenty-five dollars were sent early in the fall for this cause, and they hope to have, at least, that much more to send after the final check-up. At the last meeting, $10 were given to the Loan Fund, and $10 were given to the Endowment Fund.

As a little philanthropic project all their own, the girls have been supplying milk to a needy family. Two huge boxes of clothing and food were given to this family at Christmas time.

For Founders' Day there was a formal banquet served at a hotel.

RUTH SWANN

CALGARY CLUB

Our Calgary Alumnae Club had a very successful year with an enthusiastic turnout for every one of the monthly meetings.

As contact with national officers always means so much to us, in November we were very happy to have the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. Rusch, our Province President.

We kept pretty well to the schedule of meetings drawn up at the first meeting of the year. In the fall we made $15 at our annual rummage sale. For our charitable project this year we all contributed to a hamper for a local family who were very much in need of our help.

Our president, Helen Ford, left the first of March for Edmonton, and Jean Irving, the vice-president, presided over the meetings until the elections in May.

LOIS E. LATIMER

EDMONTON CLUB

Edmonton Alumnae Club is glad to report an increase in membership over last year, including three graduates of 1935 from Alberta A: Helen Reid, Marianne Pearson, and Mary Sandin.

Our November meeting consisted of a tea at the home of Mrs. McCuaig, when the alumnae and the actives and pledges of Alberta A had a delightful visit with Mrs. Rusch, our Province President.

In December plans were made to provide Christmas dinner (turkey and everything) for a needy family. Articles of clothing were distributed through other charitable agencies.

At our January meeting Ruth Bowen gave a delightful account of her holiday trip to Jamaica.

Panhellenic in Edmonton held a very successful banquet at the Macdonald Hotel on February 10. Between courses each of the four fraternities on the campus sang their favorite fraternity songs. After dinner four skits were presented by $\Pi B \Phi$, $K A \Theta$, $\Delta \Gamma$, and $\Delta \Delta \Delta$. Our annual mother and daughter tea was held at the chapter house on February 22.

Our program for the rest of the year follows: March: Study of Constitution and History of $\Pi B \Phi$; April: Founders' Day celebration and Paper on Settlement

School; May: Annual Meeting and Election of Officers, Discussion of Convention Plans; June: Picnic.

For our Founders' Day celebration, we sent special invitations to all Pi Phi in Alberta, and had a real reunion.

MARY SANDIN

MU PROVINCE

ALBUQUERQUE CLUB

Our emphasis this year has been on the sale of Settlement School products. Our chairman, Mrs. Marshall Farris, has managed this in a most efficient manner. Previous to the sale in November post cards were sent to all women who might be interested. The response to this was very gratifying.

We look forward to the annual dinner bridge for our husbands and friends. Prizes at this party are usually Settlement School articles.

OCTAVIA J. GRAHAM

BERKELEY CLUB

The club opened the year with a well-attended meeting in November at the Claremont Country Club. This was the annual Settlement School benefit bridge. The graduates of the active chapter assisted in serving refreshments and gave another opportunity for meeting the active girls. Our geographical distribution over the East Bay covers such a large territory that we find it difficult to foster a concentrated interest in the club. Mrs. Stout, our president, hopes to overcome this difficulty by having groups brought together on an age as well as a community basis. The regular meetings have had to be changed around considerably due to the University change of time schedule, bringing initiation in February.

MARGUERITE EASTWOOD WELCH

LONG BEACH CLUB

The Long Beach Club has had a happy and successful year under the guidance of our president, Mrs. M. V. Hall. September opened our year with a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Peterson. In October we were the honored hostesses of our Province Vice-President, Mrs. Frost. The officers entertained for her with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Morris. Mrs. Frost gave us an inspiring talk and advised us concerning many club problems. In the evening a buffet supper was held in her honor at the home of Mrs. Williams.

In November we had an old-fashioned cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. Miller which took our thoughts back to college days. At this time we were fortunate in having Dean Anne Newell of St. Margaret's Home, Berkeley with us. Miss Newell is from Missouri A.

In December we had our annual Christmas party, a dessert bridge at the home of Mrs. Morris. In January we had the Settlement School benefit bridge tea at the Lakewood Country Club. We were honored to have with us at this time the president of the Southern California Alumnae Clubs and representatives from the active chapters of the University of California at Los Angeles and the University of Southern California.

In February a dinner bridge was given at the Villa Riviera with more than a hundred guests. Several social events are planned for the spring including the Founders' Day banquet in April and a tea in May.

FREDA C. LONG

SAN FRANCISCO CLUB

The San Francisco Club opened activities with a cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. Henclee in October. Early in December we had our annual Settlement School bridge tea at the Women's Athletic Club.

There have been no meetings in January or February. In April the club was hostess to the alumnae clubs and active chapters of the Bay region for the Founders' Day luncheon.

We regret that illness prevented Mrs. Frost from being with us in February.

LUCILE G. MCFARLAND

FRESNO CLUB

Our first meeting of the second year of our organization was held at the home of Mrs. Ward Minturn and was of especial interest to the members, due to the presence of Mrs. Ethel Lunsford Frost, the Province Vice-President. She gave a very inspirational talk on the significance of the Fraternity to the alumnae.

On December 4 a tea was held at the home of Mrs. Charles McCarthy to which guests were invited. A display of Settlement School products arranged by Mrs. Creighton Hamilton resulted in a very satisfactory sale. Guests were greeted by Mrs. A. D. Bragg and Mrs. John Manning and tea was served by daughters of members including Misses Janet Wild, Barbara Harris, Patricia McCarthy, Louise Walker and Marion Regan.

On February 11 a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Wakefield at which Mrs. John A. Manning gave a most interesting talk on the Settlement School which she had recently visited. Motion pictures of the School were shown.

Our club has contributed to the Settlement School, the student Loan Fund, the Endowment Fund and to the Stanford chapter this year. The splendid cooperation of our members assures us that we shall be able to continue to assist in the work of the fraternity.

Mrs. M. L. Neely gave an excellent book review at our meeting on June 18 at the home of Mrs. C. A. Hansen. Founders' Day was celebrated at the home of Mrs. H. W. Picher at Orange Grove where a potluck supper was served.

MEREDITH LANGHELDT LUTHER

LOS ANGELES CLUB

Our first alumnae club meeting of the year was held in October, honoring our Province Vice-President, Ethel Lunsford Frost, who gave us a most inspirational message. Luncheon was served first and an interesting program followed.

In November a tea was given at the home of Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher who exhibited her wonderful art collection and gave us a lecture which we all greatly enjoyed.

The Christmas dinner is always an outstanding event of the year. This year 125 Pi Phi attended and were given an exceptionally good turkey dinner. We also served twelve choir boys from St. Paul's Episcopal church, who sang several beautiful Christmas songs for us. Also on the evening's program was a student from the University of Southern California School of Speech who gave some delightful numbers. Mrs. Lewis Tegarden known as Alice Prindle (Wash. B) to her many radio listeners, entertained us in her charming way with three vocal numbers.

A social evening was held in January at the home of Dr. and Mrs. von Kleinsmid, honoring husbands and escorts. A brilliant young pianist entertained us with his playing. Mr. David Roth, memory expert, was the speaker of the evening and told us, in his remarkable way, how to improve our memories.

The annual Settlement School benefit, given on February 15 at the Biltmore Hotel was a great success, $1200 being cleared. It was managed in a capable way by Ruth Jones Wright and Dorothy Talbert, both California As. Dessert was served, followed by bridge and an elaborate fashion show.

In March a tea was given, presidents of Southern California Alumnae Clubs were guests. Mrs. Louise Sooy lectured on interior decoration and costume designing.

In April was held the Founders' Day celebration.

A $\Pi B \Phi$ Philanthropy Group has been organized in our Los Angeles Alumnae Club and has as its chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Wright. Meetings are held once each month at which sewing is done for the Children's Hospital, Orthopaedic Hospital, etc. Poor families are also taken care of food and clothing being provided for them by our club members. It is a very worth while charity movement and it is hoped that there will be many Pi Phi who will become interested.

The Book Group meetings are being held each month which draws a good attendance. New books are reviewed which are always of much interest.

HELEN HIGGINS MOSHIER

GLENDALE CLUB

Past programs of this year have proved most interesting and instructive.

In October the visit of Mu Province President, Mrs. Frost, was a true inspiration to every member of our club. We were charmed with her genuine personality and were thrilled anew with the ideals of $\Pi B \Phi$ which she brought to us.

An open guests day tea was held in November at the home of our president, Jessie Wolfe. There was a Settlement School display and a talk by Blanche Curtis on "Arrowcraft, A Pioneer Art." "News of the Orient" was brought to us in December by Mary Elizabeth Campbell, who had just returned from a tour of China and Japan. At our January meeting an unproduced play was read, "These Three," and it is said to possess great possibilities. A short skit, "The Telephone Rings," was presented by members of the Hollywood Community Play House. The program was in charge of Marcella Van-Burgh and Eloise Hirt.

In February the program subject was "Illustrated Stories of our Great National Songs." It was conducted by Louise Malin. In March, Maude Soper discussed "The Modern Trend in Education." In April we celebrated Founders' Day in conjunction with all the other alumnae clubs and the two active chapters in Southern California. In May, Elsie Salt will speak on "Poetry." Those appearing on our programs this year are all members of our own club and professional in their own line of work.

Glendale Alumnae Club has sponsored two benefit performances at the Hollywood Community Place House. The names of the plays were "Mary the Third" and "The Other Man." Both were directed by Eloise Sterling Hirt, a member of our club.

Each semester the Glendale Club presents a recognition pin to the most outstanding pledge of the previous year at the University of Southern California and the University of California at Los Angeles. We are delighted that the last three pins have been won by Glendale girls; Mary Moore, Frances Dunlop and Lela Barrie.

LOUISE SPAULDING MALIN

NEVADA CLUB

The Nevada Alumnae Club closed the 1935 season with a delightful cooky-shine meeting at the home of Hilda Herz. The business meeting was followed by a Christmas gift "grab bag," and the display of a new consignment of Settlement School products, many of which were purchased by the members for holiday gifts.

During the year, so far, the club has sponsored a successful cooked-food sale, of which Mrs. Irving Crowles (Hazel Hall) was chairman, and two large afternoon card parties at the chapter house, one under the direction of Mrs. Eugene Howell (Neal Sullivan) and the other with Frances Fuller as chairman. The alumnae also gave the initiation banquet, with Mrs. Steele Houx (Kathleen Haffey) and Peggy Williams as joint chairmen, when cards representing silver loving cups seated sixty-five active and alumnae members in the large living room of the chapter house.

Our regular meetings are held on the third Tuesday evening of each month.

We are happy to welcome this year a new member, Mrs. Ruth Norton McFarlin of Montana A, and also to have with us again Mrs. Gordon H. True (Elizabeth Stubbs), daughter of the late Dr. Joseph E. Stubbs, for many years president of the University of Nevada. After an absence of twenty years, Mrs. True returns to be assistant registrar at the University.

The Alumnae, as usual arranged the banquet on Founders' Day. We will also hold our third annual musicale.

PASADENA CLUB

The Pasadena Club opened its fiscal year with a luncheon, at which the coming visit of Mrs. Frost, Province Vice-President, was discussed and plans were made for her entertainment. The following week brought

Mrs. Frost and a round of festivities including luncheon, tea, and as a suitable climax a dinner in her honor at the Vista del Arroyo Hotel.

One of the most entertaining features of the Club's luncheons is found in the discussion of a topic that is of interest to all the members. At the meeting in November we were introduced into the science of rose culture by one of the local nurserymen. The December meeting was featured by a most timely topic that of decorative Christmas wrapping. This talk was given by a member of the art department of one of the leading Los Angeles department stores. The initial meeting of the new calendar year was well attended and those present enjoyed a most unusual discussion on the history and manufacture of Oriental rugs.

Deviating somewhat from the usual method of luncheon meetings the Club held its February meeting in the evening with Bridge as the main entertainment. The success of this meeting will undoubtedly lead to more of the same type.

In order to raise funds for the Settlement School we have inaugurated an informal bridge tournament. Groups of four are organized among the members with each group meeting once a month. Each player contributes twenty-five cents toward the fund at each bridge meeting. As a fitting climax a tournament play off has been arranged at which the leading high scorer of each group will compete. This has proven to be a very easy and most entertaining way in which to raise our contribution to the Settlement School.

Ruth Dorn, Settlement School Chairman, had many of the School's articles on display at the December meeting and reports that Christmas buying resulted very satisfactorily.

Our March meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lewis Pierce and Mrs. Cecil Bryan gave a book review. April 28 brought the annual Founders' Day banquet and as many as possible plan to attend.

Once a year the Club makes a trip to some place of interest in our locality. This year it is to be a visit to the New Times Building in Los Angeles on the evening of May 15 with our husbands in attendance.

As usual we will end our year with a garden party at the home of Ellen Larsen at which time the accomplishments of the year will be reviewed and new plans for the coming year will be discussed.

We feel that we are fortunate in having a very active and interested group and that our varied programs prove entertaining and instructive and for that reason are a splendid means of keeping our $\Pi B \Phi$ interest active. Our "fully paid-up" membership is evidence of our interest in the finances of $\Pi B \Phi$ and our active support of the Settlement School will continue to show that we are 100% an active and a progressive organization.

Pasadena Alumnae Club of $\Pi B \Phi$ expects and intends to see that each year is a better one than the one just past.

TUCSON CLUB

The September meeting of the club was held at the home of the president, Lillian Sprague, when plans for the coming year were outlined. Mrs. Frost, our Province Vice-President, arrived in October for her official visit. She was entertained at a breakfast after which she met with the club officers. She was also honored at a luncheon when the club celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of Mrs. Frank Fowler. Mrs. Fowler was presented with a silver plate. Mrs. Frost made a delightful address at this luncheon.

The annual Settlement School tea was held at the Pioneer Hotel in December and netted us $75. The club gave a Christmas gift of a framed picture to the chapter house for the newly decorated library.

We cleared $42 at a benefit bridge given to raise funds for the Endowment and Loan Funds. The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Pistor and was given over to a reading of the constitution and officers' reports.

The Founders' Day banquet was held at the Arizona Inn.
