On The Air . . .

On March 16 Margaret Truman, District of Columbia Alpha, daughter of the President of the United States, was soloist on the Evening Hour from Detroit, with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. She was modestly presented as Miss Truman, of Washington, D.C., fitting opening for a program of simplicity and charm, which had the added pleasure of familiarity, and which was well-suited to her fresh young coloratura voice.

Of Size

Again this month we give you a small issue of the ARROW, again due to an acute paper shortage, and to the fact that the paper company in Neenah, Wisconsin, from which we have purchased paper for the ARROW for many years, has found it possible to build an extension of its already great plant, but in the process must shut down half of its present facilities. With paper shortage still serious throughout the country, especially since many of the national magazines now control a large part of the output of the type of paper used in the ARROW, it is not possible to purchase it elsewhere. So our last two issues for the year are reduced in size—but perhaps readers will forgive that when they realize that the first two were extra large, because of the mass of reports and Convention material contained in them. It was a matter of special regret that the entire section of pictures of campus honor girls had to be omitted—but for this year only!—besides much interesting personality material.

Carrie Chapman Catt

Strange indeed that so soon after her 88th birthday which was celebrated by Pi Phis everywhere as Chapter Loyalty Day, and before the article and interview about her by Mary Elizabeth Lasher in the last ARROW was even in the mails, Mrs. Catt died suddenly of a heart attack at her home in New Rochelle on March 9. The press has been full of the story of her accomplishments—she had been heaped with honors by the whole world for her work for women and for the cause of Peace. We can add little to those tributes. A great woman, perhaps to be evaluated as the greatest woman in history for her services, has gone. As President Truman said, "with her passing, an era in our national life comes to a close." Best of all, she was a devoted member of Pi Beta Phi and of Iowa Gamma. In her March letter to the province presidents, Miss Onken summed up this phase by saying "the thing which makes her achievements mean the most to me, is that even though they so filled her life, she always had time, love, and loyalty to give to her fraternity." Those of us who were privileged to know her have truly "brushed the wings of greatness."

Her January 21 letter to Miss Onken read: "I have before me your letter of December 27, 1946. All kinds of things have overtaken me, rendering impossible an early answer to your letter. I return the card filled in properly I hope, and I am very pleased indeed to be a golden Pi Beta Phi. I believe I was initiated in 1878 and my order was the 'I.C.' I rejoice that I have turned golden in the many years that have passed since then."

Elisabeth Sawyer Von KleinSmid

Elisabeth Sawyer Von KleinSmid

Word has come of the passing of another great woman and great Pi Phi, distinguished especially in California for fine service to college women. From the News Bureau of the University of Southern California comes an evaluation of her life and work which expresses all we might say, and more; it was written by Franklin B. Skeelee, husband of Violet Stuart Skeelee, California Gamma.

"A 'noble and gracious alumnae of Pi Beta Phi,' Elisabeth Sawyer von KleinSmid, wife of Chancellor Rufus B. von KleinSmid of the University of Southern California, died January 20 at the family residence, 17 Chester Place in Los Angeles, after several years of illness.

"Affectionately known as 'First Lady of the Campus,' her influence in behalf of the students of the university 'will forever endear her to Southern California,' declared Rev. Wendell Miller, pastor of the University Methodist Church, at her services.

"Mrs. von KleinSmid was made a member of Iowa Alpha of Pi Beta Phi in 1888, and at Wesleyan University where she was graduated with the Bachelor of Music degree. She kept her interest in sorority life throughout her years and in addition to her many interests at S.C. frequently loaned her home in Chester Place to Pi Phi alumnae and was frequently honored by the active chapter of California Gamma. Her sister, Mrs. Fletcher Linn of Portland, Oregon is credited with originating the famed 'Ring Ching Ching' song.

"As Elisabeth Sawyer began her musical career she first entered Wolf Hall of Denver. In addition to degrees from Iowa Wesleyan University she was graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music and the Boston Conservatory of Music, later becoming affiliated with the American College of Musicians in New York City. Prior to entering a brilliant career as a concert pianist and instructor at DePauw University she spent four years abroad studying with masters in Berlin and Vienna.

"In 1911 she was married in Portland, Oregon to Professor Rufus B. von KleinSmid who at that time held a chair of philosophy at DePauw University. Together with her husband she spent two years in psychological research work in Indiana, moving with him to Tucson where he served for seven years as President of the University of Arizona.

"In 1921 the von KleinSmids came to the University of Southern California and for the past twenty-five years she devoted her activities to campus life. She founded Town and Gown (and was its president for a quarter of a century), an organization sponsoring student housing and scholarship. The Elisabeth von KleinSmid Hall, women's dormitory, was named in her honor as were several scholarships. The Town and Gown award is given annually to the most outstanding senior woman. Under her leadership the Foyer building of Town and Gown was constructed as a cultural gathering place for outstanding banquet events. She also joined her husband in establishing the Elisabeth S. and Rufus B. von KleinSmid Library of World Affairs. Her affiliations likewise included activities in the campus Y.W.C.A., and the Faculty Wives Club.

"To perpetuate her memory, many campus groups as well as alumni and friends have already offered contributions for numerous projects in which Mrs. von KleinSmid was interested. In addition to establishing a memorial lounge in the new Y.W.C.A. building now being planned, additional scholarships and the von KleinSmid Library of World Affairs are receiving gifts."

Of New Members

We can ill afford to lose such devoted members, such distinguished women, as these two whom we have honored here. Every chapter in the land has new members—and so this is the right time to take stock of those members, and of our responsibility to them. What are we doing to make them Pi Phis of the type of these women? How are we working to develop them, so that perhaps from their ranks may come women of such distinction? Here is food for thought for chapters and advisory boards: "Think on These Things!"

“Forsan et Haec Olim Meminisse Juvabit”—
By Chance Someday It May Be a Pleasure to Us to Recall Even These Things*

Some day, in the quiet time of remembering,
With pleasure even at the little things
When I have dedicated my arrow into safekeeping for my daughter—
When I have joined that mysterious, vague, “adult” category: Alumnae—
When I have left forever this pleasant stone house
I will look back on college days—
I will remember Pi Beta Phi.
I will recall with longing the joys each room conceived for me.
I will remember the living room—
 We sat in front of the log fire at coffee-time.
 We danced on the slick hardwood floor at open-houses after football games.
 We gathered around the piano to sing gay songs . . .
 Or stood at attention as the song leader gave us the notes for our new five-part harmony
 “Pi Phi Symphony”—
Or, when Lake Michigan blew freezing winds campus-ward, we invited serenading fraternity men to “come into the living room” and keep their music from being stolen by the wind.
I will remember “rushing” in the living room . . . the floaters who hopped from freshman to freshman . . . comrades in confidence that Pi Beta Phis were gracious and hospitable.
The candle flickered before Dottie’s face, and cast weird shadows on the high ceiling as we stood in the darkened room, singing “Remember.” Hands joined, we told ourselves—more than we told the rushees—
That we would “Remember the Pi Phi arrow.”

I will remember the dining room—
How we enjoyed political and philosophical discussions over our coffee cups.
We felt a musical unity in “Ring Ching Ching . . .”
We smiled at the table across the room—or saluted a friend with “Here’s to our guest . . .”
We sat in splendor here. With a gardenia for each new initiate . . .
With orchids and violets for guests—with tall white candles
Entwined with dark green lemon leaves . . .
Among this beauty we looked at each new face, and were very proud.
We partied here. Had do-nuts and coffee at open houses . . . sat
On the floor in blue-jeans and munched potato chips and hot dogs with a visiting sorority house. . . .
“We thank Thee, Father, For these our blessings, That we receive from Thee each day.
We praise Thee always; Merciful and mighty . . . Bless us in Pi Beta Phi.”
I will remember the rooms and corridors—
Each pale-walled room smelled faintly of soft perfume . . .
And the radios in the late hours, as we sat on beds and confided in one another, made a cheery background.
The mirrors watched us dress on week-ends. . . . “How does this look?”
And “May I borrow your ear rings?” All this they heard, resignedly.
The pictures on the bulletin boards. . . . We knew parents and friends
And felt closer through . . . “This is my brother, Bill, when he was ten.”
I will remember each room. Each girl in her surroundings. She was waiting to take a minute from studying for a bit of “conversating. . . .”
And she often had an extra nickel for the coke machine—She had Candy and cookies from home . . . (No fun to eat unless you share)

* Read before Illinois Epsilon chapter on Chapter Loyalty Day, 1947.

She had books to lend you, a story she wanted you to read, a poem she had clipped into her scrapbook, a new dress for you to admire, a button for you to fasten,
 And a room was a room and that was all . . . without her . . . without each girl.
 Upstairs we were really sisters. Our own territory. Self-Government. Quiet hours. Our own country. And we, the inhabitants, were also sisters.
 We partied. Had do-nuts and coffee at open houses . . . sat

I will remember the chapter room—

The stomping up four flights of stairs and the buzz before meeting.
 Then the lights low, and the candles burning.
 Unison. Together we spoke the lovely words. Sincerely. In unison.
 The rap of the gavel . . . discussions . . . voting . . . contributions . . . elections . . .
 All this was chapter meeting.
 The long high-ceilinged room became a wooded greenland, lighted
 With tapers, shining with white-robed ladies. Initiation.
 The soft hum of the preliminary tune, with its promise of hopes fulfilled.
 The double line of attentive actives, each holding the green roping . . .
 Twined leaves. Twined spirits. Ideals voiced once more to Be remembered forever.
 Chapter room with its large map the pledges made us. The map
 Of our country, dotted with Pi Phi chapters throughout. We knew
 We were not alone . . . wherever we would go . . .
 There would be someone waiting . . . smiling . . . wearing a golden arrow.

Scholarships Offered by California Alpha Fund

The money realized by the sale of the California A chapter house and furnishings has been deposited with the National Fraternity with the understanding that the principal will be held in trust and returned to the California A House Corporation should the chapter ever be re-established. Interest is to be made available to undergraduate active members of Pi Beta Phi for scholarships. This year 3 scholarships of $340 each are to be awarded on the following basis—1) Need 2) Fraternity service and loyalty 3) Scholastic record.

Applications for these scholarships, together with Alumnae Advisory Committee recommendation and college records should be sent by June first to Mrs. William B. Owens (Marie McClurg), 593 Alvarado Row, Stanford University, California. Others serving with Mrs. Owens on the California A Scholarship Committee are Mrs. R. J. Polk (Rofena Beach), 535 Bellevue Avenue, Oakland, California, and Miss Edna Reeves, 1770 Pine Street, San Francisco, California.

EIGHTY YEARS

Founders' Day this year has added significance for it marks the eightieth anniversary of the founding of Pi Beta Phi.

Pi Beta Phi Accepts Its Share of Post-War Responsibilities

Fraternity Sponsors Forty-three Destitute European Children

By MARY ELIZABETH BARNETTE, Ohio A

THE RECENT WAR has left the world an inheritance of destruction and famine which, if unchecked, can injure or destroy its victims as completely and viciously as an atom bomb. Hunger damages the mind as well as the body, and prolonged malnutrition makes efforts to educate children and adults alike, virtually futile tasks. If today's children are to be equipped not only to lead useful lives but also to help build a sturdy peace, they must be given the requisite tools—food and clothing for healthy bodies and alert minds and education to stimulate those minds to constructive activity.

Youngest of the children yet assigned to Pi Beta Phi is this two-year-old Finnish boy from Kurejoki. His father died during the war, and his mother leaves him with two young sisters while she works. (Contact: Mrs. Frank C. Nickels, Kenesaw Apts., Washington, D.C.)

Because it believes in this so thoroughly, Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, meeting in Convention in June, 1946, decided to use the balance from its War Project Fund to aid some of the destitute youngsters of Europe. It is a natural post-war endeavor for the organization which established a Settlement School to assist the needy in the vicinity of Gatlinburg, Tenn., and which for the war's duration provided vital Physio-Therapy Scholarships.

The mechanism for carrying out the fraternity plan was available in the Save the Children Federation, Inc., with headquarters in New York City, and when the necessary investigations were made, it was discovered that the $4,500, which Pi Beta Phi had available, would be sufficient to maintain forty-three children for a full year. Three programs, an Emergency Clothing Fund, an "Adopt" a Shattered School plan, and a Sponsor a Stricken Child activity, are conducted by the Federation, and Pi Beta Phi decided to participate in the latter.

In the most severely affected countries of France, Belgium, Holland, and Finland, $96 will provide a child with the basic essentials of food, clothing, and other important supplementary aids to health for a year. In order to place the relationship between sponsor and youngster on the most personal basis possible, the name, picture, and description of the child are supplied to the sponsor, and correspondence between the two is encouraged.

In fact, in its own small way, it is to be hoped that such exchange will make a contribution to world understanding as well as to the welfare of individual children.

Pi Beta Phi's own program for handling this activity has been to assign individual sponsorships to each of the ten alumnæ clubs and six active chapters which contributed most to the Physio-Therapy Scholarships, and further to assign two children to each province. The forty-third sponsorship goes to Kappa Province because of its size. Nationally the fraternity program is directed by Ruth Barrett Smith (Mrs. Warren T.), Iowa Gamma, of Tacoma Country Club, Tacoma, Wash.

The alumnæ clubs with individual sponsorships are: Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Md., Los Angeles, Calif., Columbus, Ohio, North Shore, Ill., Kansas City, Mo., Denver, Colo., Toronto, Ont., Cleveland-East, Ohio, and Berkeley, Calif., and the active chapters are: Wisconsin Alpha, Illinois Epsilon, Ohio Beta, Kansas Beta, Iowa Gamma, and Texas Alpha. These groups have been given the privilege of selecting the nationality, age, and sex of their youngsters, and all chapters and clubs will be kept fully informed of the progress of the province sponsored children by province presidents and vice-presidents.

dren in schools without paper to write on, I thought of the white paper that goes into our waste baskets and the unused notebooks and tablets that clutter our homes, offices, and schools. When I saw children without pencils or slate pencils trying to do their arithmetic on pieces of broken slate shingles that they had picked up from destroyed roofs, I thought of the idle pencils in this country, worn down to

In the Seine District of France lives this bright-eyed seven-year-old girl whose mother is struggling to support her, two other children, and the grandmother. (Contact: Mrs. George F. Heubeck, Tudor Arms Apts., W. University Parkway, Baltimore 10, Md.)

In the United States where today $96 is not an unusual price tag to see on a single item of clothing, it is difficult to realize that the same sum can mean the difference between life and death for one of Europe's children and most certainly can determine whether or not he will reach maturity with a strong body and keen mind. But then it is also difficult to believe that, according to the Secretary of Agriculture, the people of the United States regularly waste one-fifth as much food as they eat or enough to feed more than 25,000,000 people.

As Howard E. Kershner, vice-chairman of the Save the Children Federation, wrote in an article for the New York Times last year: "I am not suggesting that we do without anything we really need. If we would mobilize what we waste, it would suffice."

He further commented: "When I saw chilabout four inches and accumulating in our desks or thrown into our waste baskets. If we could collect them, millions of them, every child would have something to write with."

Aid of the most basic kind contributing to the general welfare of children without regard to race or creed has been the mission of the Federation, which was organized in 1932 and is the United States member of the Save the Children International Union of Geneva. Until the outbreak of the second World War its efforts were concentrated in the disadvantaged rural areas of this country, but at that time activities were extended overseas.

The magnitude of the work can be indicated by statistics showing, for example, that after the blitz on England, American sponsorships were arranged for over 12,000 British children and that over 300,000 pounds of clothing were sent to England; but statistics, however imposing, do not begin to demonstrate the value of this work in the immeasurable qualities of lives saved and happiness created.

What Pi Beta Phi's contribution will mean to the forty-three youngsters its money will support in the year to come is difficult to bracket in a few concise words. However, consider the facts that 20% of the Finnish children cannot attend school because of lack of clothes, that in Holland 400 schools were wiped out, schools and homes are cold because there is no glass in their windows and no industry to make it, and 400 calories was the pitiful ration allowed during the last two months of enemy occupation, and that in Belgium 360 schools were destroyed and twice that many made inhabitable. Consider those facts and it follows that $96 is the equivalent of the Four Freedoms to each child who is sponsored through the Federation.

In its capacity as a national organization Pi Beta Phi has initiated an activity which could, with unquestionable justification, be extended by individual chapters, alumnae clubs, and members. The contribution of a dollar will clothe a child whereas the still comparatively small sum of $150 will maintain an entire school. Cash contributions and sponsorship funds should be sent to Save the Children Federation, Inc., 1 Madison Avenue, New York 10, N.Y., and gifts of clothing and other commodities, such as food in tins, should be carefully packed and shipped to the Save the Children Federation Workroom, 8 Washington Place, New York 3, N.Y.

The clubs and chapters, in particular, can assist in further publicizing the work of the Federation by arranging for showings of the 16 mm. sound film, "Children of Tragedy," which can be rented from the Madison Avenue office for $2.50. Narrated by Dr. Kershner, film actor Charles Boyer, and former President Herbert Hoover, it leaves no doubt as to desperate condition of thousands of European children, the inadequacy of their food and clothing, and the destruction of their homes, classrooms, and churches.

While American children of comparable ages have been flourishing in the security of the United States, these babies and their still young brothers and sisters have been undergoing more hardships than the average American does in an entire lifetime. Pi Phis can do no less than share with them the precious commodities of health, education, and security.

The Children Suffer

The following article comes from Cherie Eyster, District of Columbia A, who is in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, with her father, a colonel in the United States Army. It emphasizes the need which Save The Children is working to help

DURING the War Pi Phis from all chapters unselfishly gave their skill and time to the needs of their country. Many joined various branches of the armed forces, worked through the Red Cross, entered hospitals as Nurses Aides, donated blood, rolled bandages, worked in factories, spotted planes, not to mention the countless other war activities for which they received no remuneration other than a clear conscience and knowledge of performing service for their country.

"Now in time of peace there is another job vital to the world. The children of the world need help—the children who will be the adults of tomorrow and into whose hands will fall the responsibility of one day carrying on the policies which the peace-loving nations of the world are now formulating. Such a responsibility demands a sturdy body and mind, demands physical stamina to work tirelessly, requires mental stability to reason clearly and logically. But the children who must one day shoulder this task are today either starving to death, or surviving on a meager diet which will render them physically and mentally incompetent. The United States gave hundreds of tons of grain and food-stuffs and so prevents a famine of tragic proportions, but thousands of people are still existing on starvation diets. Until you see it with your own eyes, it is hard to imagine these children with the gaunt faces, with each rib visible in the little bodies—no shoes, no shirts—picking up cigarette butts to sell on the black market, gleaned the fields for every stray wisp of grain.

HOLT HOUSE

Needs for Holt House

The newly elected Holt House Committee has recently held its first meeting at the House. Some of the members had had the privilege of visiting it before, but those who had not were as deeply impressed as the others, by the simplicity, charm and period settings, which correspond with those when two of our Founders, Ada Bruen and Libbie Brook, lived in the southwest bedroom and planned a national fraternity which later was named Pi Beta Phi.

Holt House is typical of the colonial type of homes of 1860 and stands very stately and proud, full of traditions and enshrined with memories. How nice it would be if every Pi Phi could visit the House and feel the presence of our Founders, as girls like themselves, going up and down the same stairs as were there then, to the privacy of their room. It is like visiting Mt. Vernon or Monticello where deep memories of our country are held, only at Holt House you know that not everyone can have the privilege of feeling a part of it, for it belongs only to those who are Pi Phis!

It has been a short time, relatively, since the House has been purchased and restored. Many Pi Phis ask, "Is there any of the original house still there?" There certainly is! The old foundation and strong beams that support the House were found most adequate and stronger than in many homes built in our generation. Even, the architectural detail of the porches, with their twin pillars at each corner, remain unchanged. The old-fashioned narrow flight of stairs, with its polished rail and slender balusters and white woodwork, has been preserved. Only necessary changes and improvements such as, new floors, new plaster, and redecorations have been made.

Since the House is solely supported by contributions from alumnae clubs, active chapters, and individuals, much credit should be given to the previous Holt House Committees for all they have accomplished with small donations. No one thought in 1940, when it was voted at Convention to purchase and restore the home of our founding, that anything could prevent having the House completely furnished within a few years. But the war came and brought changes to everyone. Many needed improvements have had to wait. The committee wishes that it could now complete the furnishings of the three unfinished rooms. This can not be done without larger contributions to the Fund.

Whether you are a student, business girl, or house-wife, you know that living costs have greatly risen. The maintenance of Holt House has risen also. To carry on to the completion of Holt House, its committee has to depend on you.

Every Pi Phi has pride and sincere interest in Holt House, and those who have had the privilege of seeing it, leave with loving memories. With your help, the committee plans to complete the furnishings, and hope that all Pi Phis may some time visit this shrine to the founding of our fraternity, and feel that in some way, they have contributed to its final restoration.

GLADYS STUMP NALL, Chairman, Holt House Committee.

The Plum Tree

Plum trees are beautiful.
I like to play under the plum tree.
When it is in bloom I like to smell them.
I like to lie under the tree and read.
It seems like I could go to sleep
When the breeze is blowing,
And listen to the birds sing,
I like to see the honey bees fly by
To make their honey.
I like nothing better than to play under the plum tree
When it is in bloom.

From the Philippines

Here is a letter dated August 1, 1946 (but only received in January) from Sally Gibson Robie, New York Δ:

"My husband and I are having an interesting time here in Davao. Merle left home October 18 of last year; and I left New York February 23 of last year, and came out by ship through the Panama Canal, to Honolulu and Shanghai. From there I flew to Manila, arriving April 12.

My husband's business is the buying of abaca (Manila hemp), also copra and many side lines, with headquarters here in Davao. For three months now I've been the only American or English woman here. There are 20 or 30 men here, and only one other American mess until recently, except for the one the 5th Army boys have.

We fly back and forth to Manila and all over the Islands. It's an interesting experience; but not a place to live indefinitely, and not a good place to bring up children in—even if we do have seven servants!

If other Pi Phis are out here, let me know. Grace Agnew, New York Δ, is a Red Cross worker south of Manila—I have talked to her on the phone, and hope to fly down to see her.

Some time when you're writing Massachusetts B, please tell them I am using all the pyrex dishes they gave me—dishes and everything else have a much higher value because it is hard to get them. We fly much of our food down from Manila. Rice is the main food of the natives here, and it is very hard to get, so people are beginning to feel the pinch."

(Mrs. Merle S.) Sally Gibson Robie
Care Columbian Rope Company, Box 288, Davao, Philippine Islands.

Pi Phis of D.C. A were among the friends who gathered to honor Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins, long time patroness of District of Columbia A, and widow of a former president of George Washington University, at a tea in honor of her eightieth birthday, January 1, 1947. She belonged to a devoted group of patronesses who worked with that chapter faithfully for years—among them were Mrs. Royal Bradford (mother of Elise Bradford Johnson, former Grand President, O), Mrs. William Allen Wilbur (mother of the late Beth Wilbur Parks, D.C. A), and Mrs. Sanford Taylor (mother of the ARROW Editor).

Patricia Garrott, Texas B, is editor in chief of Items, publication of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, Texas. An editorial of hers was recently honored by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, with congratulation.

Pat is the daughter of Suzanne Roberts Garrott, Arkansas A, and has a Texas A sister, too.

Dorothy Shands, Louisiana A, is in Washington, in charge of the Membership Promotion Department of the "National Planning Association," a not for profit organization which is based on the thesis that planning for peace should be the concern of all Americans, not of the government alone. Her work there follows an interesting war career with the Red Cross, which took her all over Europe, doing work of all kinds in the wake of the Armies. Her Overseas Service Certificate has this citation, "in recognition and appreciation of faithful and meritorious performance of Humanitarian Service, as a representative of the American Red Cross."

From Ethel Redpath Ellingston, Illinois B, comes word that her husband, Harry Ellingston, is now president of the Adventurers' Club. Ethel will be remembered as business manager of the Convention Daily at Pasadena in 1940.

Again Genevieve Hendricks, Wisconsin A, nationally famous decorator, has done a fine piece of work, the colorful redecoration of the library and cocktail lounge of the University Club, in Washington, D.C.

Dear Miss Onken:

I feel proud indeed and highly honored to have the lovely certificate of membership in the order of the Golden Arrow. It is inspiring to know there is a special niche rather than a "shelf" for the older members of Pi Beta Phi. Thank you.

Arrow Point Picnic

On Saturday, September 7, 1946, Pi Phis gathered from Chapin, Carthage, Jacksonville, Iowa City, Mt. Pleasant, Springfield, Keokuk, and Quincy, from the states of Illinois and Iowa, at Lakeview Club near Hamilton, Illinois. This was a revival of the picnic held for about twenty years prior to the war at the summer home of Mrs. Idele Parks and Clara Parks

Haggeman near Hamilton, Illinois. It was nice to renew friendships and, also make new friends. Amy B. Onken, Vera Moss, (Theta Province President), Elberta Smith, Springfield delegate, and Miriam E. Williams, Carthage delegate, gave highlights of the convention at the program following the fine meal.

In honor of Miss Onken, Irene Madden entertained several of the group at her home in Keokuk at a tea following the meeting.

FROM PI PHI PENS

Edited by MARY ELIZABETH BARNETTE, Ohio A

JAYNE SHOVER, United To Fight Cerebral Palsy, in The Crippled Child, October, 1946.

By inclination, training, and experience Jayne Shover is well equipped to discuss the problem of cerebral palsy, a foremost cause of crippling conditions and one which has affected more than 400,000 persons in the nation. In this article she devotes her attention to the nationwide program which the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., established in the spring of 1946 and which Miss Shover now heads.

For many years, since the National Society was founded in 1921, it and its some 2,000 local units have been publicizing the need that proper attention be given to the victims of cerebral palsy and the progressive developments in this field, but only within the past year has it been able to handle a more comprehensive program.

The author explains accordingly: "Out of its experience with these severely handicapped persons grew a philosophy which has found expression in the Society's recently officially adopted statement of a National Program for Cerebral Palsy. With such a set of standards as a guide, the Society now seeks to see that program realized through a recognition by the public that cerebral palsy is a problem not to be left for solution solely to the cerebral palsied themselves and their parents but to be met with all the resources and means that can be provided.

"The goal of a national program should be to insure that degree of application of knowledge as it pertains to this problem, which would guarantee optimal adjustment, care, and rehabilitation for each and every cerebral palsied person, wherever he may live, whatever may be his age, his sex, his color, the economic status of his parents, or the degree of severity of his handicap."

With this expression of the goal of her work and that of the cerebral palsy division of the National Society, Miss Shover proceeds in the article to detail the tasks accomplished and yet to be surmounted. The division itself is provided with the best available professional counsel; representative parents of palsied children have been organized in an advisory capacity to make recommendations for the improvement and extension of the program, and the local units of the Society are developing specific aids to the palsied.

For example, demonstration clinics and institutes have been held to further the work, and there is a positive program to publicize the problems and the right approaches to their solution and to encourage persons to train for work in the field, a field seriously lacking in personnel. Also, occupational and physical therapy is being made available to the palsied in many cases.

The success of these activities, Miss Shover points out, depends in large part upon volunteers willing to devote time to extending the work and upon many others willing to donate funds to keep the program functioning.

One of Miss Shover's responsibilities is the seeking of such necessary funds through the facilities of the National Society. Money is needed for scholarships for the training of occupational therapists, physical therapists, medical social workers, specialists in speech and hearing, and other professional personnel to work with cerebral palsied children. It is also required for research to determine better methods for improving the condition of the palsied and equipping them for useful lives and for the preparation of sound movies, exhibits, and other literature on cerebral palsy.

Specifically the work now being carried on provides: consultation by specialists in medical care, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech and hearing therapy, psychological services, social services, education, recreational services, and vocational and employment services; and special assistance in organizing facilities for the care and rehabilitation of cerebral palsied persons, including nursery schools, children's rehabilitation centers, clinics, hospital schools, curative workshops, and others.

The National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, located at 11 South LaSalle Street, Chicago 3, Illinois, can supply additional and more detailed information regarding its activities, the type of training required for persons interested in an ultimate job in the field, and the other phases of the program in which persons may be interested.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Since Jayne Shover was graduated from the University of Iowa where she was a member of the Pi Phi chapter there and where she received both her B.A. and her M.A. in clinical psychology and speech pathology, she has studied in European countries, Northwestern University, the University of Chicago, and the University of Wisconsin medical school. Prior to taking the position as head of the cerebral palsy division of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, she was acting director of the Society's field services.

In addition she has been supervising psychologist of speech and hearing and special education director of the Illinois Division of Services for Crippled Children, consultant to the Illinois Commission for Handicapped Children, and director of speech and hearing for East Chicago public schools.

In addition to Pi Beta Phi she counts among the organizations in which she is interested: American Speech Correction Association, American Public Health Association, American Society for the Hard of Hearing, Phi Delta Gamma, Psi Chi, and the International Council for Exceptional Children.

For persons interested in making their careers in this field she offered definite encouragement in a recent message, saying: "Nationally speaking there are only enough personnel trained in cerebral palsy to take care of one per cent of its victims," which, she added, increase at the rate of seven per 100,000 each year due to prenatal and post-natal conditions and diseases and birth injuries.

SARAH POMEROY RUGG and Francis A. Rugg, The Green Mountain Calendar, 1947, Carriage House Studio, Arlington, Vt.

Sarah Pomeroy Rugg, editor of the ARROW from 1911 to 1921, and her husband, Francis A. Rugg, have recently published an illustrated calendar which demonstrates their love of the state in which they live and their recognition that its beauties and historical atmosphere give pleasure to many other persons as well.

The page for each month is enhanced by an appropriate illustration selected from among Mr. Rugg's photographic studies, and every picture is accompanied by a pertinent quotation selected by Mrs. Rugg.

Attractively printed in sepia, the calendar offers as much in the way of charm as it does of usefulness, and the illustrations will make it a valued possession long after 1947 is a year of the past.

AUTHOR INTEREST: For the past thirteen summers Mrs. Rugg, an alumna of Massachusetts Alpha at Boston University, and her husband have maintained the Carriage House Studio in Arlington, and according to Mrs. Rugg the studio aroused lively interest among Pi Phis with whom she talked at last June's convention. Hence she felt that the calendar, which is to be published annually, would be of interest to those and others as well.

RANDOM NOTES: For women's clubs and other similar groups Mrs. Douglas Meredith, a member of the University of Vermont chapter and now a resident of Montpelier, Vt., has written a one-act play, "A Cinderella Kitchen." Filled with pleasant, homely humor and uncomplicated in structure, it is ideal for amateur drama groups.

Irene McFadden Kingston (Mrs. George B.), Michigan B, whose home is in Grand Rapids, Mich., has had a number of poems published recently in the Michigan Quarterly Review of the University of Michigan.

NEWS FROM LITTLE PIGEON

Edited by EUGENIA BROOKS SMITH, Indiana T

EUNICE SHELDON WEAVER, Illinois Z, formerly Director of the Settlement School, died in the Evanston Hospital, Tuesday, March 11. Her gracious charm, ability in managing the School, and devotion to Pi Beta Phi will be long remembered by all those who were privileged to know her.

The Children Speak from the Pi Beta Phi School in the Great Smokies

By ANN LIGHTER, Librarian and Teacher of English

The students of Pi Beta Phi High School are always glad to tell interested listeners about their classes, their extra-curricular activities, their hopes and aspirations. And they particularly appreciate the opportunity to tell the Pi Beta Phis throughout the land, of the advantages they enjoy at Pi Beta Phi High School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

These one hundred and eleven boys and girls in high school are no different than those you find most anywhere in these United States—except that they have been blessed with the privilege and opportunity of being a part of the evolution of the original dream of the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity.

And now a few facts and figures about the authors of the articles written about each of the four classes in high school.

Alliene Barnes is the president of the freshman class and one of the most promising students in the school. She is a shy, quiet little girl who is well liked by her teacher and classmates. She is a member of the Beta Club-National Honor Society.

Alliene lives in Pigeon Forge, a small town about seven miles from Gatlinburg and comes to school every day on the school bus. She is the oldest of five children. Her father is a real estate agent in Gatlinburg.

Geraldine Fox, our sophomore, comes to Pi Beta Phi from Chestnut Hill, a community about thirty miles from Gatlinburg. Because of the distance from their home, Gerry and her brother, Jack, live at the school dormitory.

Gerry, a bright-eyed, alert girl of fourteen years, is an honor student and an avid reader. Most of her leisure time is spent in reading and as a result she has an exceptional vocabulary and knowledge of good books.

Gerry has not chosen her college and has not decided on her future occupation as yet, but wants to be a librarian, teacher or singer.

The author of the article on the active junior class, Barbara Huff, is the daughter of a Pi Beta Phi—Henrietta McCutchan Huff. She has one brother and three sisters, one of whom is, at the time of this writing, just a few days old. Barbara's mother and father own the Huff Tourist Cabins in Gatlinburg and are active in school and community projects.

Barbara is a typical teen-ager and one of the most capable students in our high school—as is evidenced by her many activities. She plays on the girls' basketball team, is a cheer leader, a member of the Y-Teen Club, Beta Club, Home Ec Club and president of the Junior Class.

Our senior, Juanita Wilson, is an honor student, an attractive girl and is very popular with the students and the faculty.

Juanita's home is on a farm in the Glades, a few miles from Gatlinburg, and she has lived at the school dormitory for most of her four years in high school.

Because of her high marks and her personality Juanita has been given a scholarship to the Andrew Jackson Business College in Nashville. She hopes to be able to continue her academic education at a university after finishing the secretarial course.

THE CLASS OF 1950

By ALLIENE BARNES

The Freshman class of the Pi Beta Phi High School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee is made up of forty-four students—twenty-one boys and twenty-three girls. We have the same number of students now that we had at the beginning of this term, as we lost two boys and added two girls. We have the largest class in the school and we hope we will have forty-four in the 1950 graduating class.

About half of our class come from small country schools in nearby communities. Nina Sue McCarter, Stella Ownby, Ray Dodgen, Jimmy Moore, and Faye and Ray King, the twins of our class, and Betty June Carr, an honor roll student, come from Banner, a little rural community near Gatlinburg and all of these students come to school by bus. Joyce McCarter, Mary Newman, Betty Cantrell, Bobby Conner, and Jack Grooms live in the Glades, a settlement near Gatlinburg. A "glade," as you know, is a clearing or an open space in the woods and that is just what the "Glades" is. Junior Ogle, along with Wanda Huskey, comes from Carter Town, located between Gatlinburg and the Glades. Mildred Ward and Charles Maples come from Pigeon Forge, a village half-way between Gatlinburg and Sevierville. Pauline Whaley who comes from Caney Creek School, recently moved to Gatlinburg. Jean Huskey comes from Wears Valley, a typical mountain community located in a valley with high mountains completely hemming it in. Bertha Marine, another of our honor roll students, comes from Laurel Lick. Without these students from other schools the freshman class would be only half as large as it is.

There are five girls and one boy in our class who stay in the school dormitory. They stay there because they live so far away that it is impossible for them to be transported to and from school. They enjoy living on campus because they have nice rooms and congenial company and because by doing so it is possible for them to attend high school. For instance, Lois Starkey and Robert Walker who stay in the dormitory live in Laurel Lick, a little community about eleven miles from Gatlinburg. To reach their homes in Laurel Lick they ride by bus to Pigeon Forge and walk about four miles over a mountain trail across Pine Mountain. Jane Love's home is in Sevierville and she could have gone to Sevierville High School but Jane knew what the Pi Beta Phi High School was like so she decided to come here.

I don't know how the others feel, but to me going to Pi Beta Phi High School is a privilege and an honor. Just look at the advantages we have. If it were not for the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity we would not have Mr. Johnson, the physical education director, who has given the school winning basketball teams this year and who teaches every student physical education. They also give us Mrs. Armstrong, our music teacher, who not only teaches us all community singing but also directs a robed Glee Club made up of high school boys and girls who sing on many occasions and for various organizations.

Alliene Barnes

The school nurse, Mrs. Chalmers, is also given us by the Pi Phis and she helps keep us strong and healthy. Miss Petrie is our arts and crafts teacher and we all enjoy her and the work she is doing.

I am thankful, too, that the Pi Beta Phis chose so interesting and beautiful a place as Gatlinburg, in the midst of the Great Smokies, in which to locate their school. Studying, learning and playing in such beautiful surroundings and in such a good school helps us all, I am sure, to keep happy and interested in school. We as freshmen, are looking forward to our next three years with much anticipation, for we know that our years in Pi Beta Phi High School will be the happiest of all our lives.

SILLY SOPHOMORES GROWING UP

By GERALDINE FOX

Little thinking and I dare say, little caring about whether they came to school or not, because after all it was lovely outside, the class of '49 first entered the portals of Pi Beta Phi High School. Just forty-three little freshmen against the world. They were ready and for the most willing, to begin their journey up the ladder of learning, as it is sometimes called.

Now, I come to the more recent chapter of my story. When the sophomores came back to school in September, 1946, certain members of the class started progressing more. Everyone took more interest in his studies, although they still had a fine capacity for making noise. As in all classes, some people like one subject better than another. In the sophomore class this is especially pronounced.

The one subject which is the general favorite is English, especially the study of literature. (The least said about grammar the better.) At the present time the class is reading A Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens. The twins of the class, Roy and Ralph Maples, have taken a decided interest in the story, going so far as to carve miniature figures from wood of a stage-coach, coachman, houses, a French revolutionist and a bloody guillotine. Billy Joe Gregg, an out of town boy who lives at the dormitory, and Calvin Barksdale, the vice-president of the class, have been very helpful in looking up the historical background of the story. We get loads of fun from the tactics of Jerry Cruncher and his spiky hair. And we find Dickens' twisted hints and complicated facts require not only a quick brain but a lot of studying also. Before we finish the story each member of the class is going to make a setting for a scene, a character, or a sketch of one character.

The sophomores also enjoy the library very much. We have the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity to thank for many books and magazines to quench the reading thirst of many students. We not only have fiction, biographies, poetry, history, and philosophy in books but through the generous contributions of the Pi Phis we are building up a fine library of recordings.

We also have in the library a selection of current magazines including Life, Science Digest, Collier's, Saturday Evening Post, and many others. We get a daily newspaper too and through these we learn of current events and thereby keep up with the world. We also have a file of Nature, National Geographic, Fortune, Travel, and Popular Science which we use for reference material in our various classes. Other gifts we received for Christmas besides money were a new set of World Book Encyclopedia and a 1947 Funk and Wagnall Unabridged Dictionary given by the Lions Club of Gatlinburg.

Coming back to the sophomores I couldn't leave out the class officers. The class president is Faye Huskey, a very quiet, dignified girl who is very intelligent and studious. The vice-president, Calvin Barksdale, especially likes history. The secretary and treasurer are Grace Ogle and Lee Johnson, Jr. Grace is a tall, cool, freckle-faced girl, and Lee is a fresh, sun-shiney, person. Although perhaps some of the sophomores are careless and others thoughtless and not quite grown up yet, they are all glad of the opportunity to attend the Pi Beta Phi High School.

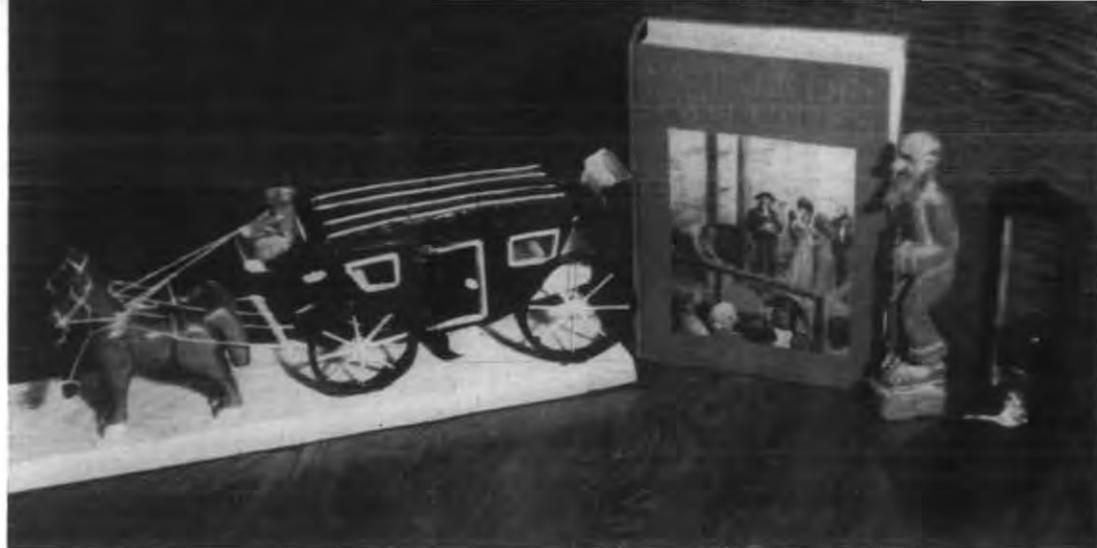

JUNIOR CLASS, THEIR PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

By BARBARA HUFF

Being Juniors, we think the Junior Class is the best in the school, but we'll give you the facts and let you decide for yourself.

As freshmen, the first important event, at least for the girls, was when they were invited to join the Home Economics Club. All the girls in the class entered enthusiastically into this activity. Initiation ceremonies got underway and the girls came to school dressed every way imaginable—some had their hair braided in thirty or more pigtailed, wore red flannel underwear, short skirts, had painted faces, potato necklaces, alarm-clocks, chickens, dogs, cats, and many more amusing things. Then at night there was a judge and jury assigning each one some task to fulfill. Following this came a candle lighting ceremony after which the initiates were full fledged members of the Future Homemakers of America.

Spring came and with it came "Field Day." That was something new but it was explained to us that all the classes picked teams and individuals to enter races, relays, broad jumps, high jumps, dart throwing, tug-o-war and other events. The big day came with the freshmen "rarin to go" and ended with many wins.

Along came fall—1946—with a new name—"juniors"—which we like much better than the other two. The sponsor of the class is Mrs. Ann Wheeler Lighter; president, Barbara Huff; vice-president, Joe Howell; secretary, Anna Mae Maples and treasurer, Louise Cole.

This year Roberta Bell, junior, is president of the F. H. A. Club and at a sub-district meeting another Junior, Dot Miller, won distinction when she was elected news reporter for the whole district. A Y-Teen Club has been organized in our high school. Miss Helen Borgstrom is the sponsor—three junior girls, Louise Cole, Dot Miller and Barbara Huff are officers in this group. "The National Beta Club," a national honor society, was also organized, only students with an average above ninety who are approved by the principal are eligible. In the present membership of the club seven out of the nine members are Juniors and there are more Juniors now eligible for membership.

In the Junior Class there were only two people who failed one subject last semester which was the best record in the whole school. The Junior Class also had a bigger percentage on the honor roll than any other class.

This year our class has had to think more about raising money for in the spring the Juniors are to give the Seniors a formal banquet at one of the hotels. Then next year the class hopes to go on a class trip to California. The first thing the Juniors did to earn money for their treasury was to have an old fashioned "Pie and Box Supper." Everyone came and had a wonderful time and after it was over the Juniors counted the proceeds and found they were richer by $133.00.

We, the Junior Class, are sure we express the feelings of all of the students when we tell you the Pi Phis, how much we appreciate all that you have done and are doing for us. This school has given us an opportunity to get the education we need in order to go to college or whatever we plan to do. The music department is teaching us the appreciation of good music, the physical education activities are teaching us good sportsmanship and are helping us to be healthier boys and girls. The arts and crafts department is teaching us how to make our hands useful and the ones who don't enjoy academic subjects so much can learn to use their hands. All the other studies also help us immensely. We want to express our thanks to you for the wonderful work you have done and are still doing.

THE SENIOR CLASS

By JUANITA WILSON

Four years ago thirty-one Freshmen entered Pi Beta Phi High School, and today only twelve of us remain. Various things have happened to the others—the war took some, many moved away because of the war, two were married, and some have gone to other schools. Those of us who are left are very proud of the fact that soon we will be Pi Beta Phi graduates, and can take our place in the world as more capable men and women because of it. There are some outstanding students in the class and we are sure that they will make an important name for themselves in whatever field of endeavor they choose.

The president of our class, Jim Parton, is one of the most likeable and capable students in school. He has been in the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School for six years and has been gaining in popularity each year. We feel sure Duke University will be proud to welcome him this fall when he enters to study journalism.

Earl Oakley, our vice-president has attended school here since he was a tiny blond-headed boy in the beginner's class, and there isn't anyone in the class as proud of the school as Earl is. He is especially good in science. Recently he has been nominated for the Beta Club, a National Honor society. Earl's father is the Mayor of Gatlinburg and has been an active member of the county school board. With Earl's excellent speaking voice as well as his many other outstanding qualities we wouldn't be surprised if someday he will be elected to Congress, or some other high office. This fall he plans to enter Tusculum College at Greenville, Tennessee.

Jonnie Maples, our secretary and treasurer is one of the most popular girls in town. Last year she was elected the best all around girl in school. She is active in club work and in all sports. Jonnie went to school for two years in North Carolina, but she still prefers Pi Beta Phi and was glad to come back. The cheer leaders in North Carolina had been especially interesting to her, and upon her return to Gatlinburg she organized a group of cheer leaders here. They did a grand job last year, and are doing an even better one this year. In college she is going to study business administration and hopes someday to have a business of her own in Gatlinburg.

Louise McCarter was our class president last year and was selected as the best all around girl when she was a sophomore. She has been on the basketball team for four years and is the co-captain this year. Miss Elizabeth Petrie is well pleased with the excellent work she does in crafts and she is also a very outstanding mathematics student. She is an active member of the Glee Club as well as most of the other clubs in school. This fall she will enter Lincoln Memorial University where she will study business administration and where she hopes to get her Master's degree in mathematics.

Harmon McCarter, the only veteran in our school, spent two and a half years in the United States Navy, most of this time being spent in the South Pacific. Despite the fact that he was out of school for over two years he is doing very well in his class work, and is an excellent forward on the basketball team. This fall he plans to enter the University of Tennessee.

Roy Ogle is another boy who has gone to Pi Beta Phi ever since he started to school. He has been in a number of plays in high school and is one of the most popular players on the basketball team. He is also very popular among the girls as he is one of the handsomest boys in school. Roy has not decided what he will do yet, but we hope he will enter a university this fall.

Joanna Parton is one of the prettiest girls in school as well as the sister of our class president. She is a good singer and is especially interested in the arts and crafts class. This fall she is going to art school to study commercial art. She has been an efficient member of the student council and has been active in the other activities in which she has participated.

Lonnie Trentham is another basketball star, and is much in demand in all the social affairs in school as he is always the "life of the party."

Myrtle Whaley is another member of our class who has been selected as the best all round girl in the school, and she has also won the scholarship award. We are very proud of Myrtle because she was brave enough to come back to finish school after being out for four years. Myrtle has always been on the school honor roll and is now a member of the Beta Club. She plans to take a business course after graduation.

Hoover Cardwell is one of our most popular boys and he always has many original ideas of his own. He has done very well in the wood-working class, which seems to be his favorite. This fall he will enter the University of Tennessee.

Eva Ogle is very much interested in the Home Economics class and plans to go on with her study of foods at Austin Peay College in Nashville this fall. Eva is a sweet, comical little person and has been the originator of many a prank during our years together, but she has always remained an honor roll student. Eva and I are especially good friends because we both live in the school dormitory. Here we have spent many happy days, and we feel that we have a definite advantage over the other students who do not live on campus. It is just like being in a big family. We deeply appreciate being able to live in the dormitory and shall always be grateful to the Pi Phis for giving us such a nice place in which to live and work.

In a few months we will all be leaving high school to go our separate ways in the world. I know that we will always have very happy memories of school days and be very grateful to our fine teachers for their help. We are also deeply indebted to the Pi Phis for making it possible for us to have extra subjects such as crafts, music, and physical education. Every member of the Senior Class is thankful for these extra opportunities for study and enjoyment and wish to express their deep appreciation.

Music in the Mountains

By ALETHA MAY ARMSTRONG, Director of Public School Music, Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, Gatlinburg, Tennessee

Our mountains are like the thrilling music of a mighty organ. Along the Potomac the melody starts faintly as the Master Organist presses the stop dulciana and the cadence falls over the softly rolling hills of Kentucky. In the Virginia uplands the harmony grows in volume and tempo quickens, reaching a soaring crescendo in Tennessee and North Carolina. There, the organist pulls out the diapason on the great organ as the towering Smokies push their peaks into the very face of the sun. The music lessens to diminuendo among the pastel beauties of the Blue Ridge and, reaching Alabama and Georgia, the vox humana sings its nostalgic theme, dying away as the echo organ is heard.

So is there music in the souls and in the voices of our Southern mountain people. Among the elders, the speaking voice is often plaintively sweet, pitched in minor key, but among the younger ones, soft and melodious often with a lilt seldom heard elsewhere.

We assume an inherent love of music in every normal child and along with it some instinct for its expression. But here in the mountains, where for so long music represented not only a means of emotional expression but recreation in an area isolated from the outer world, Youth gives an even readier response to music.

It has been said that in the field of music, the Southern Mountaineer has made his greatest contribution, as he has kept alive the Anglo-American ballad, carol, and folk-song. So it seems especially imperative that our present generation shall know, value, and perpetuate these noble songs.

Remember, however, that there is a vast difference between these folk-songs, whose excellent tunes and powerful poetic verses have proved their worth, and the so-called "hill-billy" songs which dominate many programs. Exposed daily to these inferior artificial musical impressions, the young people, naturally rhythmic and music-loving, are fearfully well informed of the former but are sadly ignorant of the beautiful songs which are their real treasures.

In our major effort to help our students regain their rightful heritage, we have found the glorious-toned Majestic radio-phonograph combination given by the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, an indispensable ally. Here we can acquaint them with the melody, the appeal of folk-songs. Here the songs are beautifully and correctly sung. As they play the record again and again the youngsters begin to sing along. We believe any child can be taught to sing by ear, just as he is taught to speak, and can later on be taught to read music as it is presented by way of the songbook.

Especially with the Stephen Foster Album, we have by means of records so quickened interest that our pupils not only love to sing the songs, but turn to the better radio programs in order to report their use. In addition, interest in Foster's song and life has inspired original projects in several elementary grades.

The older boys have proved very difficult in the matter of enlisting in chorus work. We have found that recordings of fine male choruses have done much to dispel the legend that "singing is sissy." In one class where the boys refused to sing, we hit upon the idea of a class song. We, collectively, wrote the lyrics, extolling the merits of a really fine basketball team. It worked like magic and lusty male participation proved that a move toward the joy of singing had been made.

In the accompanying group picture the elementary grade has been studying a recording of a two-part arrangement of "Home Sweet Home." They first listened to the pleasing effect of two soft, sweet voices. Then they studied the relation of the two voices, finally singing along with the soprano and then the alto voice. This method is of invaluable aid for here unison singing is universally practiced, (although when I first came it was boasted that they had quartettes—even an octette—which I discovered to mean four or eight people stood together and sang the same part). This class, by the way, was the very first to do two-part singing and actually read notes of the two parts. Their singing of old French carols was an outstanding achievement of the Christmas program.

In our mass-singing among the High School group, we use many of the better popular songs and are elated to find more and more of the pupils entering in with enthusiasm. One of the most popular scores is the "Oklahoma" album with its many hit tunes. Several such albums have been presented as memorial gifts, from friends among the Pi Phi and we can assure you they are being used to excellent advantage.

Truly the rich-toned Majestic Phonograph is proving a tremendous help as we crusade in behalf of these objectives of the Music department:

To give these wonderfully-endowed students the emotional lift, the enjoyment that music provides.

To enable them to use their voices correctly, developing them, safe-guarding them into maturity.

To give an opportunity for self-expression and an outlet for the creative urge.

To gain ability to read music, and discrimination that the pupil may be independent in selection.

Finally to promote the feeling of co-operation and service through group activity, and the contribution of skill to be enjoyed in home, church and community.

This last aim is being realized increasingly. The elementary chorus has made several appearances, singing for P.T.A. meetings and for the school Open House program. The various groups are often presented at the Weavers' meetings while the Glee Club has sung at many community gatherings—at Thanksgiving services, at various churches. In no small way do our students aid the local church choirs and several are now being coached to do solo work.

Together we are striving to make our community GOOD MUSIC conscious and aware of that vast and noble treasure they possess, and of which the bard sings—

"That old and antique song we heard last night;
Methought it did relieve my passion much,
More than light airs and recollected terms
Of these most brisk and giddy-paced times."

The school now has an enrollment of 1250 students, an all time high for S.L.U., whose annual quota was 750. The fraternity houses are now open again after three years, and the customs and traditions, interrupted by the war years, have been reinstated.

The first social activity for Pi Beta Phi was a house-warming, for the new men, and this was soon followed by a faculty coffee. Under Panhellenic rules, rushing was closed, and extended over a three week period in November and December. During this time, the Pi Phis gave three parties for the rushees, one formal, one informal, and one costume party. Pledge Sunday was December 8. A Christmas party was held for the pledges on the 19th of December to which alumnae, patrons, and housemothers from the other houses were invited. Soon after the Christmas vacation, the first Pi Phi houseparty of the year was held. The theme was "West Palm Beach."

Mid-semester vacation was held from January 29 to February 4. On February 26, the Pi Beta Phi pledges gave a tea in honor of the pledges from the other houses. The theme was one from the nursery.

Anne Thornton was elected to Intercollegiate Chorus. She also took part in the "Pirates of Penzance," and has travelled with the Laurentians, another Choral group. Jean Rugen has a part in Winteris and is also President of Broadcasters Club, the group working with the campus radio station. Carol Ann Johnson was chosen as a member of the Queen's court for SLU's Winter Carnival, as was Jaquelin Penton, also named co-circulation manager of the Laurentian the monthly magazine.

Ann Dawson was appointed secretary of SLU club, the women's honorary athletic society, and named Associate Editor of the Hill News, the campus weekly publication. Helen Farrell was re-chosen as a member of Campus Council, and Siri Heeb and Helen Cromie were given II ΔE . Virginia Swift is Treasurer of the Outing Club, and Mary Helen Gavin Secretary of the same organization. Both these girls are members of the 4-girl ski team, and took honors at the Lake Placid meet, Stowe, Vermont, and Middlebury. Angeline Lambros has taken a part in Winteris, and is stage managing the same production. Patricia Hagan has the lead in Klondike Lou, a minor, and original students' production, and is co-directing it. Phyllis Haynes is newly appointed co-circulation manager of the Laurentian.

The New York Δ rushing season, in accordance with the delayed rushing system set by the Cornell Panhellenic Council, did not start until February 22 with the customary open houses. For the first time a separate rushing quota of sixteen freshman and four upperclassmen was set for each sorority because of the small number of eligible girls. Pledging was held March 10.

Cornell had not originally planned commencement exercises for the February graduates, but the four hundred graduates requested and were granted services on February 12. Lois Meek honored the departing New York As with a tea for the chapter at her home before the end of the term. Another highlight was a hay ride followed by an informal party at the chapter house on January 24.

The mid-semester week end was marked by house parties, a concert, basketball game, ice show, and formal dance.

Several girls were outstanding in activities during the fall term. Frances Lown was elected art editor of the Cornellian while Frances Corbally and Paula Putnam acted as chairmen of Willard Straight Hall committees.

Pledge Day, January 22, 1947

The chapter pledged fifteen outstanding girls, completing the most successful rushing season possible. After pledging, the activities of the chapter were centered around getting better acquainted with the pledges. Among the functions for this purpose was the annual ski-weekend which was held at Collingwood on February 14 and 15. Also, on March 2, the chapter had a parent tea. This has always been a popular event as it is seldom that parents have a chance to meet other parents as well as pledges and active members of the chapter.

This year the chapter sold tickets to a spring fashion show, the proceeds of which were given to the International Students Service. This organization uses its funds to aid students all over the world, especially student sin Europe in their present distress.

On March 3, the chapter was honored at the Panhellenic banquet for being first on the campus in scholarship.

The Arts and Science Ball, the biggest social event of the year, was held on February 21 at the London Arena. Three Ontario Bs were nominated for the coveted position of Queen of the Ball.

Instead of the usual week, rushing covered only a week-end this year, but the chapter managed to give five successful parties in that short time. A luncheon, a pirate party, a breakfast, a coffee party, and a "Pi Phi Heaven" party comprised the schedule, and approximately one hundred girls were entertained. The alumnae club took the responsibility of providing and preparing the refreshments for all the parties.

Thanks are also due the alumnae club for the redecoration of the chapter house. After months of living in a confusion of paper hangers and plasterers, the chapter members are now justly proud of their attractive residence.

The annual fraternity ball was held on April 11 at the London Hunt and Country Club and, as usual, was a great success. After the dance, open house was held at the chapter residence.

Margery Andrews was a co-convenor of the annual Co-ed Prom. Ann Weldon, Canadian University Press Editor of the University's weekly newspaper, the Gazette, represented the University at the University Press Conference in Toronto in December. Sylvia Gegenbach played a leading role in the presentation of Tovaritch by Le Cercle Francais. Ontario B was well represented in two variety shows, The Follies, and The Meds Merry-makers.

Until recently the Pennsylvania Bs have enjoyed an unusually mild winter here at Bucknell. However, those who enjoy winter sports have been making up for lost time, for during these past three weeks, there have been two heavy snow storms.

Since Christmas time several of the Pennsylvania Bs have been active in preparing for and participating in Religion and Life Week, which was from February 23 to the 26. During this period about thirty guest speakers were on campus. One of them was entertained in the suite and led a stimulating bull session on "God in our Times."

The chapter put on a five minute skit, Bucknell Utopia, for the all college post-exam Jubilee on February 28. It included an original song, "Toast to Bucknell," written by Doris Eber and Victoria Reid.

The spring semester at Ohio Wesleyan opened with a new high in the number of students attending. One of the old Wesleyan traditions has been broken for, of the 2150 students, there are 100 more men than women. With the beginning of this new semester came the grand opening of the TUB (Temporary Union Building). The biggest news on the campus is that the Maryland Bs have moved into their house. There was much excitement around Margaret Brent dormitory on February 10 when the girls finally moved out. Since then they have been busy fixing up their rooms according to their individual tastes. There are twenty-six house members, and each agrees that it is wonderful to be back together again. Mrs. Manchester, the chapter's housemother, has returned to watch over the girls, and a friendly atmosphere surrounds the house. As yet the kitchen has not been finished, but the university has stated that it will be ready to use by April 1. Despite this inconvenience the girls are getting along fine. All alumnae are invited to come and visit the chapter at any time.

The District of Columbia Junior Alumnae held a benefit card party for Maryland B on February 18 which netted $45.00 for the chapter. It was greatly appreciated by the members.

South Carolina As began the new term by having a real spring house cleaning. Donning blue jeans and plaid shirts, they washed windows, cleaned out closets, and gave a polished look to the fraternity room. During the afternoon members of various fraternities pitched in and helped. The afternoon was topped off by cokes and bridge.

February 22 the active chapter joined the alumnae at Mrs. R. L. Kalmbachs for an afternoon of bridge.

Doris Schmucker and Barbara Dudd headed student and faculty collections in the World Service Student Fund Campaign. The Campaign ended with each sorority participating in Stunt Night. The chapter stunt consisted of life-sized cover girls representing various popular magazines.

Gamma Province adopted Aatos Johannes Kukila, a Finnish war orphan, and each member of South Carolina A contributed clothes, food and toys which were sent to him.

The graduating seniors have adopted a new and very fine policy. Each senior is leaving to the chapter an initiation robe.

On March 21 the chapter assisted the World War II veterans in a "forget-me-not" day.

A new system of rushing was established at Michigan State College this year. Panhellenic decided to do away with the preference dinner. Instead, each girl turned in her three choices within one hour after the last rush party, and the fraternities turned in a list of the girls in order of their preference. Panhellenic combined the lists and notified the girls by letters and the fraternities by lists. Rushing lasted for two full weeks, with parties every other night and four parties the last two evenings. This year rushing was very trying for there were 150 girls going through rush with 250 openings, thus the top fraternities were rushing the same girls.

K A Θ entertained one pledge and her mother or sister from each fraternity on campus.

Michigan Γ celebrated its second anniversary by entertaining the alumnae at an after dinner coffee. A skit was presented by the pledges in which they depicted the life of a rushee.

At the women's fraternity sing this year, each group sang one optional song instead of the usual two songs, one a fraternity song and one classic. It is hoped in the future that the men's and women's fraternities will have a combined sing.

The choice dance of the year, the J-Hop, was sponsored by the juniors. Elliotte Lawrance supplied the music. The first night of the dance happened to be on his birthday and during intermission a huge cake was presented to him by the committee. Sue Coleman was the II B Φ representative.

Boys from Percy Jones were entertained at the chapter house. Following the dinner the chapter's traditional Varga calendar was presented.

March 6 was the date of the II B Φ Σ X exchange dinner. After dinner several of the couples played bridge while the rest sat around and talked.

Winter term Michigan Γ initiated Jane Cade and Martha Moore. At the annual Blue Key Sweetheart Ball, Jane Cade was crowned sweetheart for the coming year.

Michigan State College is gradually getting back to its pre-war customs. Among the traditions suspended during the war years was the Water Carnival. This year the floats drifted down the Red Cedar in full array, and were judged as they passed the auditorium. Log rolling was the outstanding feature of the day.

The University opened the second quarter with a record enrollment of over 5,000 students. Many of these attended the Pi Beta Phi Winter Formal which was one of the main events that started off the new year. The dance was held at the Crystal Ballroom of the Brown Hotel. A local band formed of students on campus provided the music. A breakfast for Pi Phis and their dates followed the dance at the home of Joyce Lindsay. Couples lingered over coffee and doughnuts 'til early morning.

Kentucky A had a very interesting Pi Phi Night February 12. Dean Davis, the Dean of Men, was present at a discussion of the aims and standards of the University. The Dean left the chapter many thoughts to remember and stressed the importance of individual participation in Campus Activities.

Valentine's Day the pledges entertained the actives with a buffet supper. A skit was presented afterwards, a satire on housecleaning which brought much laughter from the actives. The evening was topped by a slumber party at the Chapter House.

Recently one of the present active members, Doris Reid, had a beautiful wedding with five attendants. Two were Pi Beta Phi alumnae and one an active member, Betty Anne Mathews. A large reception followed the ceremony at Doris' home. The couple honeymooned in Chicago and will live in Louisville.

Kentucky A has been outstanding in sports this quarter with the "B" team winning the "B" League, and the "A" team ahead in the "A" League. The "A" team has not lost a game yet and has only two more teams to play. All of these points will go toward the Athletic Cup at the end of the year.

The most important activity at the University of Manitoba has been the Students' Union and Athletic Centre Fund Drive. Manitoba A has taken an active part in all these activities supporting the Building Drive.

The University of Manitoba has played an outstanding part in Western Canadian inter-varsity competition, retaining both western Canadian debating and swimming supremacy. The University also presented a Choral Concert, the "Gondoliers," and held a Drama Festival.

A Panhellenic committee, organized some time ago to investigate ways of improving the rushing system on the Minnesota campus, gave a report on February 24 from a poll which was conducted to ascertain the various opinions of women's fraternity members on this question. dition is considered to be unhealthy, and plans are being made by the committee to remedy the situation.

Pledge Day, December 9, 1946

The actives entertained the pledges at a cooky-shine and slumber party on February 22 after the annual Pi Phi Derby Dance. The proceeds from the dance were divided between the Holt House and Settlement School Funds. Grace Franzen, Candace Davis, Theresa Long, and Arlene Tutvedt were candidates for queen for the Montanan Dance held by the Montanan staff members. The winter party, a formal dinner dance, was held in the Moon Room of the Baxter Hotel January 25. Plans have been made to compose a chapter newsletter to send to recent alumnae, and to those members who have left school.

In addition to the self-service dinner held for the pledges at the beginning of each month, for pledges are invited to one dinner weekly. At guest night every week several faculty members are present. February 23, the alumnae club entertained the newly elected officers at breakfast.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

Pledge Day, February 16, 1947

INITIATED, March 9, 1947: Armilda Boone, Chehalis; Mildred King, Bellingham; Geraldine Newell, Seattle; Dorothy Polley, Tacoma; Nancy Roberts, Pullman.

At the beginning of the semester there was a four day rush period with one function per day. The four girls invited to pledge Pi Beta Phi came to the chapter house for coffee Sunday morning and then were moved in from the dormitories in time for formal breakfast. After a very happy day, climaxed by formal pledging and the traditional cooky-shine, Mrs. Hazel Seymour, housemother, announced that the heating unit had broken down and that the girls would all move into the various dormitories the next day! In little more than twenty-four hours the Washington B's were loaded down with bag, baggage and bedding, scattering to the various halls on the campus. Along with the fun and many humorous incidents connected with the adventure was the wonderful opportunity to become acquainted with a large number of Independent girls, spread good will on the campus for Pi Beta Phi and the fraternity system as a whole, and gain the experience of dormitory life. The many inconveniences suffered in the two weeks away from the chapter house were more than compensated for in the benefits received.

Due to the growing agitation over the rush system, Panhellenic is actively considering sophomore rush, and may effect a new plan which will abolish the controversial pre-school rush. Three prominent Pi Beta Phi alumnae are serving as advisors to the committees.

Gloria Miller was one of the select few chosen to serve on the Associated Student Body Committee for the World Student Fund, and Shirley Glann was appointed chairman of the all-college Tolo Dance sponsored by the sophomore class. This dance will be held May 24 on the tennis courts with the gay atmosphere of "49er" days. Helen Bendixen is the new chairman of the Associated Women Students College Day Committee which has now expanded to include committee members from other colleges in the state. Three chapter members served as panel heads and many more as panel members in the program carried on during spring vacation to stimulate the interest of high school students in college. Four of the girls are cabinet members of Y.W.C.A.

Φ K Φ Honor Certificates for freshmen and sophomores were awarded Helen Bendixen, Gloria Doble, Shirley Glann, Dawn Hagan, Dorothy Polley, Nancy Tiedje and M'Emma Nunemaker. Barbara Critchlow was initiated into Φ K Φ.

PLEGGED: Lois Anderson, Bellingham; Beverly Burke, Patricia Dalzell, Spokane; Marjorie Patrick, Clarkston.

INITIATED, January 25, 1947: Jane Daggett, Janet Hart, Nan Humphrey, Mary Margaret Jones, Dorothy Kirkpatrick, Margaret McKeen, Joan Minnaugh, Phyllis Stewart, Jacqueline Younger, Portland; Sally Mueller, Klamath Falls; Barbara Sundet, Joan Randall, Salem.

Winter term, though short, offered many exciting social events. First came the chapter formal, entitled "Brazilian Baile," which was one of the most exciting ever held. Then there was "Dad's Weekend," which brought many fathers down to Oregon to witness the students in action, and which decided them to start promoting a new Student Union Building on the Oregon campus. Oregon A was awarded a cup for collecting the most money during a "Dime Hop," which was held in conjunction with the March of Dimes campaign. The chapter house was chosen as one of the four used for the progressive Heart Hop. An International Festival, a W.A.A. carnival and the Miami Triad concluded the roster of social functions.

The chapter was honored to have Emily Draper, the province president, as its guest. Her visit greatly inspired the members to work for higher ideals in the best Pi Beta Phi spirit.

Helen Hicks and Beverly Pitman were elected vice-president and secretary, respectively, of the A.W.S. Jordis Benke was tapped for Γ A X, advertising honorary, and headed the committee for special events during the March of Dimes Campaign. Marilyn Sage and Wanda Shaw took top honors for the Law School Beauty Parade, and Phyllis Field and Wanda Shaw were two of the ten finalists in the "Miss Vogue" contest.

The chapter feels proud of its fall term scholastic record, the second highest on the campus.

The Junior Prom took place this term and was a gala event, with the sweet and mellow music of Charlie Spivak and his men of note. The Associated Women Students held a stunt night with the theme of "Women at play, when men are away." It was purely a "hen party" with three minute skits put on by all sororities on the campus. The "Winter Term costume dance, 'Hobbo-Hobble,'" was given by the chapter sophomores and it revealed great talent and originality. Refreshments, consisting of coffee and garlic bread, were served in the basement party room, handed out over a counter to a long bread line of starving dancers.

Girls elected to honorary societies this winter were: Barbara Anderson and Norma Ross, Θ Σ Φ; Eleanore Chapman, Σ Δ II; Ruth Gassman, K K A; Beth Shipley, National Collegiate Players. Φ K Φ freshman awards were given to Mary Geary, Marjorie Guerber, Margaret Proppe, and Margaret Schuster. Margaret Proppe received the freshman scholarship award.

Class spirit was at its highest March 8 when the freshman class challenged the other three classes to the Thirty-ninth Annual Freshman Glee, an interclass competition of original songs, marching and formations fitting to the theme, "Novelty." As is traditional, the freshman class directed the presentation with several freshman members of the chapter heading committees, and members of the sophomore and junior classes helping to write their respective class songs.

Σ Δ II, national Spanish honorary, was installed on the campus with Frances Sopp becoming one of its charter members. Edith Fairman was initiated into M Φ E, national women's music sorority, of which Geraldine Schmoker is historian.

Cupid reigned supreme over actives, pledges, and alumnae at the chapter's annual Valentine Formal, February 15.

Construction is underway for a new men's dormitory to house four fraternities and the independents, a total of 256 men. Enrollment for the spring semester showed almost a two to one ratio with 640 men to 345 women.

Kathleen Secord placed first with her speech in the annual Linfield Forensic Tournament held at Linfield College, McMinnville, February 27, 28, and March 1. Willamette won the second highest number of points, competing with thirty-four colleges from seven western states.

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Chartered, 1900
Pledge Day, October 5, 1946

At the end of the fall semester a mass meeting was called by the students because of President Robert Gordon Sproul's plan to resign as president of the university. The students were very much in favor of keeping him in office. To quote Bd. Welsh, A.S.U.C. president, "It has been rumored that the University of California has tried to steal other universities' coaches. Now we say that other universities are trying to steal our president." As a result of the meeting President Sproul decided against resigning. There were two guest speakers at the meeting. One presented a very interesting talk on China and how the people of that nation could be helped through education. Governor Earl Warren also spoke at the assembly on the growth of the university and how it affected the students themselves.

During the period between the fall and spring semesters the university was able to obtain Lynn "Pappa" Waldorf as football coach to replace Frank Wickhorst, a choice approved by the student body.

A K A, the negro women's fraternity which established a chapter here last semester, cannot fulfill the requirements of the constitution of the local Panhellenic for membership as yet. It will be accepted in the fall, however, if it is eligible at that time.

The formal was held this year on January 17 at the Sequoyia Country Club in Berkeley. Dinner parties preceded the dance at homes of several of the members.

An Intersorority formal was held at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco, March 1, to which members of all women's fraternities on the campus were invited. On March 19, the Ace of Clubs, which is comprised of girls from $\Pi B \Theta$, $K K \Gamma$, $K A \Theta$, $\Delta \Gamma$ and $A \Phi$, gave a large dance for members and their escorts.

On April 29, the alumnae Panhellenic gave a tea for members as well as alumnae of all women's fraternities.

INITIATED, March 1, 1947: Elaine Abercrombie, Maida Lee, Boulder City; Joyce Longwill Poulso, Wash.; Shirley Merwin, Clarksburg, Calif.; Billie Winn, Beverly Hills, Calif.; Romola Schuyler, Hollywood, Calif.; Betty Carr, Soneya, N.Y.; Geneve Conaway, Caliente; Alice Bidart, Norma Eason, Helen Montero, Winnemucca; Anne Calkins, Anita Coates, Sparks; Mary Alice Bradley, Helen Foster, Anne Hodge, Georgia Lee, Doris (Henrick) Mastroianni, Jeanne McBride, Alice Pettis, Gertrude Sanford, Beverley Vawter, Reno.

Formal rushing began February 10 and ended February 14.

The 8th annual University of Nevada Ski Carnival was held February 21-23. All sorority and fraternity houses were decorated for this occasion. Nevada Δ 's theme was typically carnival. On the front lawn was a miniature merry-go-round, about five feet high, with cardboard animals. All along the walk were ski poles with twisted crepe paper draped from pole to pole. The two pillars on the front porch were made to look like huge ice cream cones. The living room was decorated to resemble a circus tent. Green and white crepe paper was twisted and hung from the walls to the center of the ceiling where a group of balloons was fastened. Along the walls were caricatures of the chapter ski team. Over the fireplace were crossed ski poles with three papier-mâché masks with red and white stocking caps. Card tables and chairs lined the walls and the rest of the room was used for dancing. In the dining room red and white was the color scheme. In one corner was a serving table, the top of which was a large toboggan. Pink lemonade and popcorn was served from here. All the girls wore white blouses and bright skirts. Seated on the front steps to greet the visitors were two girls dressed as clowns and a "barker." Everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

February 28 a slumber party was given for the pledges and the following morning initiation was held at the chapter house. "Kiss and Tell" was the theme of a pledge-initiate dance given that night. Lip prints of all of the girls were hung along the walls with larger lips cut from red paper. Barbara Gould was in charge of this dance.

A pledge banquet was held March 2, at the Trocadero, under the direction of Betty Tracy and Ethel Pettis.

At the end of last semester, Gloria Rosaschi was elected into Cap and Scroll, which on the Nevada campus is equivalent to Mortar Board on other campuses.

At the formal initiation banquet Bonnie Robinson was voted the most outstanding pledge, and Rosemary Layson received the jewelled recognition pin given to the girl having the highest grade average of her pledge class.

This semester open pledging has been revived and girls may be pledged at any time during the semester. Discontinued during the war, this informal method of rushing seems to be very popular.

ALUMNAE CLUB LETTERS

EDITED BY LOTTA JOHNSON WEIR, ILLINOIS Z

ALPHA PROVINCE EAST

BOSTON

We were in the midst of preparations for the January Bridge when I wrote my last letter for the ARROW. It took place on Saturday afternoon, January 14, at the Panhellenic house on Commonwealth Avenue and was fun for all of us who were there to partake of the refreshments which were prepared by our president Betty Smith and Ex-President Maywood Kenney. The lucky prize winners gloated happily over their loot of Settlement School hearth brooms and hot plate mats. The profit made at this meeting was turned over to the activities in recognition of Chapter Loyalty Day.

Exactly one month later thirty-six alums answered the call of our formal Initiation Banquet invitations. On February 14 six new members were initiated into Massachusetts A and they, with twenty-two actives, joined with the alums in a memorable evening. The banquet was the first that our actives have allowed themselves in five years so it was all new to the actives and for this reason all the more impressive.

It was a great surprise for Anna Robinson Nickerson when our Scholarship Chairman, Betsey Scott Watzinger, announced the establishment of the two new $25.00 annual awards in her honor. One is to be given to the girl with the highest scholastic record and the other to the girl who shows the greatest improvement in her ranks.

Now the Annual Meeting is in the hands of the Program Committee which has promised us a truly exciting afternoon on Saturday, March 22. Mrs. Howard Selby has offered us her beautiful home on Commonwealth Ave., Auburndale for this occasion. Mrs. Tyler Thompson is to give us a few glimpses into the religious, political and cultural lives of the Malayese and Indoneses. We are all very enthusiastic about this particular event as Mrs. Thompson is a recognized authority in this field.

Founders' Day will be celebrated on May 3 at the College Club in Boston to complete our program for this year.

LOIS W. SMITH

STATE OF MAINE

Under the post war impetus of better travel facilities and more spare time we are planning a Council meeting to be held sometime in April. The Bangor Alumnae Club has issued an invitation to us to hold a meeting there, probably on Founders' Day, or at the time of the Initiation Banquet. We are looking forward to this with a great deal of pleasure as this meeting place has the advantage of being near the active chapter at the University of Maine.

At this Council meeting plans will be made to hold the first Annual State Association meeting held since before the War.

A new corps of officers has been elected. We are now diligently at work revising the address lists and preparing a News Letter which will go out shortly.

ADDIS WOODWARD WORTMAN

BURLINGTON, VERMONT

The Burlington Alumnae Club held the annual Settlement School sale and tea in December. The attendance was large and the proceeds from the sale exceeded expectations.

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Proctor Page. The statement of Major Jacob Holt was read. At this meeting it was decided to prepare a sunshine basket for Helen Chatfield who is convalescing from infantile paralysis at her home in Canton, Mass.

In February Miss Erminie Pollard was entertained by the club. The executive committee and Miss Pollard had dinner and a meeting at the home of Janet Clark Preston '42, president of the alumnae club. Following the dinner was a dessert-meeting at the chapter house.

An interesting meeting was planned for March. Professor Francis Colburn of the University of Vermont gave an illustrated lecture on art, and he conducted a tour through the art gallery at the Fleming Museum. In April we will have the annual Founders' Day meeting and in June we will entertain the graduating class of Pi Phiis at our usual June Spread.

The Mothers' Club has just presented Vermont B with a beautiful new refrigerator. We are all deeply grateful to the members of the club for their generous gift.

LOUISE JOHNSON

HALIFAX

The alumnae were well represented at the "screw-ball" party, given by the actives for rushees on Thursday, January 16. Several members also attended pledging, and on Sunday, January 26, all alumnae sponsors joined in entertaining their pledges at a tea at Anne Walker's home. Another event which some of the alumnae enjoyed in January was the formal dance at the Novascotian given by the actives.

On February 13, the actives held a large bridge-party to raise funds for the scholarship to Dalhousie University which they are giving this year. Our alumnae club contributed the prizes for this party, and also donated some of the cards and tables.

The chief event of the winter season was Miss Pollard's visit to Halifax on the week-end of February 22. As a result of heavy snow-storms, Miss Pollard's train was six hours late, finally arriving at 2:30 on Sunday morning! At noon on Sunday, several of us joined Miss Pollard for lunch at the Lord Nelson Hotel. After this, Miss Pollard met with the executive board in the hotel, and from there, went to the Panhellenic tea, with several Pi Phi alumnae. This tea was held at the home of one of the Pi Phi actives. In the evening, there was an alumnae supper-party at Ann Saunderson's home. After a short business meeting, Miss Pollard talked to us on various fraternity topics, particularly convention and Convention Fund, Settlement School, the new chapter at the University of New Mexico, and the child of the "Save-the-Children" Foundation whom our chapter is adopting. We were interested in seeing some pictures of this child, and of Settlement School, which Miss Pollard passed around. After the meeting, Dr. Nichols and Mrs. Murray MacNeill, our patronesses, joined us for a buffet supper which concluded the day's activities. We hope that Miss Pollard enjoyed her visit to Nova Scotia A as much as we enjoyed having her.

SUSAN MORSE

HARTFORD

Spring in New England is not a current feature, although the Hartford Alumnae Club has launched the season's program.

The February meeting was a dessert-bridge held at the home of Mrs. Jay Teller. Dessert and decorations were carried out in the valentine motif. Our March meeting will be held at the home of Doris Lang, when we will elect officers. Tentative plans for the remainder of the year include a Founders' Day program, initiation of officers, and an outing in June.

During the year we have gained several new and valuable members. We are all sorry to lose a loyal member of our club, Mrs. Stanley Manning, who has left us to join the alumnae club at Athens. Annie Laurie Whipple gave a farewell party in her honor at which time we tried to learn the new Pi Beta Phi Sweetheart Song.

HELEN WHIPPLE

LONDON, ONTARIO

The second half of the club year began with a meeting featuring talks on history and constitution. At this same meeting plans were made to assist the actives in their "Rushing week" by providing refreshments for the various parties. Also in January was held an alumnae tea which was well attended by members and their husbands.

In March a social evening with the actives was also the occasion of a raffle of prizes which had been donated. It was a very pleasant event and gave us an opportunity to become better acquainted with the active group.

JEAN STEVENSON

MONTREAL

At the beginning of the season, the Montreal Alumnae Club set as its endeavor the endowing of a bed at the Children's Memorial Hospital. Now with the season closing, we have more than reached our goal. The funds have been raised by many schemes, the chief one being bridge tournaments, where Pi Phis and friends have enjoyed many grand evenings together. Since Christmas, there have been three tournaments running, including one "mixed tournament" for Pi Phis and their husbands.

At the January meeting Mrs. D. Heywood of the Montreal Civic League presented a most interesting address on "The Legal Rights of Women and their fight for equal rights in the Province of Quebec." Another guest that evening was Sallie Gibson Robie, New York Δ, of Davao, in the Philippines, who was visiting her mother, Mrs. W. A. Gibson, New York Δ.

In February the club held a dinner party at the home of Mrs. R. B. Winsor. After dinner we were entertained by a representative of one of the largest chemical manufacturing companies, who addressed the group on "New Organic Chemical Materials and Their Uses In The Home."

A special meeting was held for Erminie Pollard, Alpha East Province Vice President—she was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. P. A. Smyth.

This season has been most interesting and instructive. Our president, Mrs. M. C. Archibald, and her committee in charge of social welfare work, are to be most highly commended for having made 1946-47 quite outstanding in the history of the Montreal Alumnae Club.

MARGARET C. HARVEY

NEW HAVEN

The February meeting was held at the home of Mildred Ingraham with a good attendance. Our new members represent Iowa Z, Alabama A and Illinois E. Our convention delegate, Helen Brown, gave a colorful report of Convention. We responded enthusiastically to the suggested project of a national home for Pi Phis. Mrs. Bessie Emerson, our Settlement School Chairman, reported $149 realized from our evening sale. A Founders' Day Luncheon is planned for April and a picnic in June.

ANNETTE BURKELMAN

PORTLAND, MAINE

A cooky-shine was combined with the January 21 meeting on the constitution which was held at the home of Mrs.

Plumer. For the first time in quite a while we all sang Pi Phi songs to a piano accompaniment. In February Miss Erminie L. Pollard of Hartford, Conn., province vice-president, paid her biennial visit to our club. She arrived Friday, February 14, and was the guest of the president, Mrs. Paul I. Doane. Saturday noon the club entertained her at luncheon following which she spoke in detail on the National Convention held in June. The executive board met with her afterwards to discuss current matters. Coming meetings for this year include the election of officers in March, a Founders' Day program in April when it is hoped we will have an alumnae official as guest speaker, and the annual meeting and picnic in May. During the Summer we plan to have one or more get-togethers just for the fun of it.

In May we will present an award to the outstanding sophomore girl in this province. Our chain food basket is working out very well as a money raising project. A basket containing any $.50 article is delivered eventually to each member. She pays for the article, keep it, replaces it with another, and delivers it to the next on the list. Recently we sent a View-Master, which resembles the old-fashioned stereoscope, to Miss C. Elizabeth Sawyer who is ill with rheumatic fever at her home in Searsport.

Several out-of-town Pi Phi's who are spending some time in Portland attend our meetings occasionally. They include Virginia Winslow Besse, New York A, Elizabeth Pendleton Hamm, Maine A, and Frances Green, Massachusetts A. Recently Ardis Woodward Wortman and Pearl Woodward Fickett, both Maine As, became members.

STAMFORD

The blustery weather here in Connecticut has hampered the activities of the club during January and February. This was most upsetting for the bridge party, February 8, given to benefit Connecticut A Chapter. The players who did brave the storm enjoyed the evening, and the proceeds finally amounted to about $13.00, which will be used towards an appropriate gift for the chapter house at the University of Connecticut.

The regular monthly meetings have been at the Y.W.C.A.s in Stamford and Greenwich, where several alumnae reside. At the January meeting, a former Red Cross worker gave a very interesting talk and showed snapshots on the non-war aspect of work in Europe. At the February meeting, final arrangements for the bridge party were made, and readings from the Constitution and Major Jacob Holt's life were given.

With the annual election of officers at the March meeting, Founders' Day program, and installation of the new officers, Stamford alumnae will feel well on the way to an active organization.

FRANCES ROBINSON WHITING

MOHAWK VALLEY

Midwinter storms and uncertain highway conditions seem to stretch the miles separating the Mohawk Valley Club members, and from early December through February no meetings have been held. Illness, too, has been a handicap, for Christine Wolf has been busy nursing back to health her little Marcia, who has been very ill with glandular fever, and Vance Sullivan Reid has spent much time in Washington, D.C., on account of the serious illness of her grandparents and the death of one of them.

However, the club is looking forward to a pleasant get-together soon, when we shall be happy indeed to welcome back to our club Mrs. Henry Crowe (Hazel Schele, Indiana B), who has returned to Rome from Plainfield, N.J., and also to welcome into membership Mrs. Lewis Buckman (Nella Arnold, Pennsylvania A), who has moved from White Plains to Rome, where her husband has been made plant manager of the General Cable Corporation.

We shall miss Mrs. Tobias Collins ("Dody" Collins, Wisconsin A), who has moved to Cato, N.Y., where her husband has become supervising principal of the Central School there.

Beatrice Patterson (Ohio B), who has been acting as assistant executive secretary of the American Woman's Association, has been appointed Associate Field Director of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

Lola Woodcock Getman is now Assistant Librarian at Jervis Library in Rome.

Carol Cutter is president of the Women's Society of her church in Utica. As magazine chairman of the Mohawk Valley Club she reports a goodly number of subscriptions.

Christine Wolf, Arrowcraft chairman, also reports the successful sale of most of our collection of Arrowcraft products.

MARY DRESSLER

MAHONING VALLEY

The Mahoning Valley Club is continuing its monthly meetings again this year with a great deal of success. With the termination of gas rationing, the members throughout the valley are able to attend the meetings instead of just those living in the Youngstown area as was the case during the war years.

Our president, Mrs. Emil Vierow, opened the season with a dinner meeting at her home in Youngstown. The December meeting in the form of a delightful Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Kale, also of Youngstown. In January, met met in Niles at the home of Mrs. Charles Bare and had record attendance. The February meeting, a dinner party honoring Mrs. Allen R. MARGARET E. REESE

MORGANTOWN

On February 19 the Morgantown alumnae club entertained members of the Mothers' Club in the chapter house. This is an annual affair with the two organizations alternating as the hostess group. Anna Mary Wright, pianist, played a Chopin Polonaise between the talks. A number of townspeople were special guests.

A tureen supper featured the March business meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Ambler. A talk on the Settlement School and the election of officers highlighted the meeting.

Members of the active chapter entertained the club at an Open House tea in early February. This presented a good opportunity to know the girls better.

The Club gave the active chapter a much needed Hoover vacuum cleaner as one of the projects this year.

All our committees are working together to make this year a success. Our membership committee has done splendid work this year and we are happy to report fifty paid members to date.

LUCILE FROST CLOKEY

PHILADELPHIA

The scheduled activities of the Philadelphia Alumnae Club move forward with interest and cooperation being evidenced at every event. The January meeting of the Philadelphia Club, composed of the sectional groups, met at the home of Mrs. John P. Scott in Merion, Pennsylvania. Over sixty were together for the delicious supper and to hear the excellent program. Miss Jacqueline Gard, a French Fellow from Bryn Mawr College was most entertaining and interesting.

On February twenty-fifth the Club sponsored a theater benefit at the Plays and Players, a local little theater, for Settlement School funds. A program of three one-act plays from "Tonight at 8:30" by Noel Coward was presented by the little theater group to an enthusiastic audience. The response from club members and their friends was most gratifying and it is hoped that a similar event may be a yearly affair. The arrangements were made by Mrs. W. Staunton Moylan, assisted by Mrs. Willis K. Glauser.

Our next scheduled meeting was a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Richard C. Spurgeon, chairman of the Germantown group, on March 27. The program "Highlights of Current Books" was presented by one of our members, Mrs. Stephen D. Brown. Officers for the coming year were elected at this meeting. Plans for the Founders' Day luncheon to be held on April 26 are under the direction of Mrs. James I. Taylor.

Sectional groups continue to be active also. The Delaware County group under the direction of Mrs. C. Wildy Lukens met on February 11 for a supper meeting and bridge at the home of Mrs. William Huey in Swarthmore. The Main Line group, chairman, Mrs. Ralph C. Miller, Jr., held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred S. Chrysler in March.

The sympathies of the entire club are extended to Mrs. Clifford R. Wright, vice-president of the Philadelphia Alumnae Club, in the very sudden death of her husband. Mrs. F. HOMER HAGAMAN (VIRGINIA GERDING)

SOUTH HILLS, PITTSBURGH

The South Hills Alumnae Club of Pittsburgh met Thursday, February 6, in the home of Mary Jane Seamans for our Constitution meeting. The March meeting was held in the home of Helen Tinker and was for the purpose of electing officers.

Proving that the world is a small place after all is the round-about method I followed to make the acquaintance of Louise Bostwick-O'Neill (Mrs. G. W.) from Michigan A who has been residing in one of the hotels here in Pittsburgh until she and her husband found an apartment. Her mother was Kate King-Bostwick, and was the National Historian at one time.

Pittsburgh has been having its winter weather since the beginning of February and doesn't show many signs of moderating. There has been plenty of snow, winds, drifts, and dirt.

CLARICE ORTON SMITH

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY

The South Jersey Alumnae Club has taken a deep activating breath this year. We were unusually hampered during the war because our members come from eighteen different communities, and the mileage problem was a major one.

Now, however, transportation has eased and our meetings are more frequent and inspired. Our group is a happy blend of older members (several with Pi Phi daughters) and younger women who have recently settled here.

The first meeting in the "school year" on December 3 was one of reorganization, and new officers were elected.

We hold business meetings at 11 A.M. Each person brings her sandwiches and the hostess serves coffee and dessert. The chatter, reminiscing and constructive conversation carry on until our program is presented, after lunch.

January 29 Mrs. Bodine entertained us with a verbal tour of Gatlinburg, and those of us who had never seen the Settlement School were delighted with this personal glimpse of the community.

Our meeting on March 5 culminated in a talk by Dr. Galbraith of Glassboro; he spoke about pottery. We hope to hold a cooky-shine on Founders' Day and a picnic later in the spring.

MRS. ROWLAND B. PORCH

GAMMA PROVINCE

A) who had taught at the school from 1928 to 1930 spoke for a few minutes about local color at the time she was there, and present day trends and needs.

We are looking forward to a visit from Mrs. Heubeck, Gamma Vice-President, in March. She will meet with the executive committee on the morning of the eighteenth, be entertained by them at luncheon, and in the afternoon meet with the club.

On April 27 we will journey to Williamsburg to join Virginia I, Virginia A, and the Richmond Alumnae Club in celebration of Founders' Day.

Among members of the Fraternity who have moved to Richmond during the past year are Mrs. L. A. Nelson (Betty Smith), New York A; Mrs. Hamilton Hubbard (Anne Holmes) and Jane Slaughter, North Carolina A; and Margaret Newell, New York A.

ELIZABETH U. WILSON

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Jane Edwards McPherson, our very capable president for the past two years, left early in March to live in Chicago where her husband has accepted a position with a real estate firm. Under her leadership our group has made remarkable progress; and for this, but especially for her delightful manner of doing things and getting them done, we shall miss her. We envy those with whom she will be affiliated in the future.

The administration has been taken over by the vice-president, Mrs. Kemp Menefee, and all activities have functioned smoothly. The first meeting in March was a cooky-shine supper at the home of Mrs. Arthur E. Nesbit, with a business meeting and election of officers afterwards. A luncheon, followed by a talk on flower arrangement, featured the afternoon meeting held at the home of Mrs. George C. Ober, Jr.

With the Baltimore Alumnae Club and the Washington Junior Alumnae Club, we celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Mayflower Hotel on April 26, the junior group making all the arrangements for it. Miss May L. Keller, President Emeritus, and several other fifty-year members of Pi Beta Phi were the honor guests.

Our year will close with a supper at the home of Mrs. M. J. McInerney after which there will be business meeting and installation of officers. We feel that this has been an especially good year with the meetings well attended, Arrowcraft sales excellent, and the satisfaction which comes with working together.

JEAN L. CONNERY

WILMINGTON

The Wilmington Alumnae Club continues to hold its monthly meetings. The January meeting at the home of Mrs. Carleton Ford (Dorothy Fahnestock, Pennsylvania A) was an auction sale which proved to be fun as well as profitable. Each member donated a "white elephant" or baked goods which were auctioned off.

Mrs. George F. Heubeck, our province vice-president, was the guest of honor at the February meeting. The executive committee met first with Mrs. Heubeck for lunch, then went to the home of Mrs. Calvin Kidder (Dorothy Schwartz, Maryland A) for the business meeting and tea. Every one present enjoyed meeting Mrs. Heubeck, and felt the benefit of her close contact with the chapters and alumnae clubs in Gamma Province. A party was planned to them and mark tea towels for Maryland B's new chapter house.

MARJORY RECORDS LANDECKER

FORT WAYNE

The Fort Wayne Alumnae club has been having an interesting winter season. We have had good attendance at our meetings despite some inclement weather. We meet the second Monday evening of each month at the home of members with another member acting as co-hostess.

In December we had a Christmas exchange at the home of Mrs. Richard Teeple (Loretta Foellinger). In January we met at the home of Arlette Carvin, and enjoyed a most interesting talk by Patricia Beale, on her experiences with the Red Cross overseas during the war. The highlight of the February meeting, at the home of Mrs. E. Dildine (Lottie Ward), was the white elephant auction sale, which turned out to be a great success financially as well as a lot of fun. Our March meeting, a guest meeting, was held in the studio of Radio Station WGL, to give us a glimpse inside radio. We enjoyed a dramatic script broadcast, and a complete tour of the studio. The evening was climaxed by refreshments served at the English Terrace. We are most grateful to Mrs. Eric Holmgren (Florence Deppe) who was responsible for our very pleasant and interesting experience of watching a radio broadcast.

RUTH J. STEELE

FRANKLIN

Our annual Birthday party celebrating the 59th anniversary of the founding of Indiana Alpha Chapter was held at the home of Mrs. George Blake (Frances Klyver) in January. Miss Herriott Palmer, a charter member was an honored guest. Seventy-five members included actives, pledges, and alumnae were present. Many letters were received from former Franklin Pi Phis with the much appreciated enclosure of birthday money. The program for the evening consisted of impromptu talks given by those who at the same time had attended a national convention.

Our February meeting was at the home of Mrs. Oral Barnett. A very informative talk on Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt was given by Mrs. Wm. Brock. She told of February the ninth being dedicated as Chapter Loyalty Day, commemorating Mrs. Catt, who has given sixty-nine years of loyalty and service to her fraternity. Mrs. Brock also told of her life and accomplishments.

On March 11 we will have our constitution meeting. Installation of officers in April, and the commencement dinner honoring the seniors in May, bring to a close a very enjoyable and profitable year. Mrs. Paul White (Martha LaGrange) has been a very enthusiastic president.

GRAND RAPIDS

The Grand Rapids Alumnae Club held its February meeting at the home of Barbara Borroughs Battjes with 17 members present. Election of officers was held. At the close of the meeting Dorothy Hagerman gave several brief and highly amusing book reviews.

Our final meeting of the year will be held on April 28, 1947. Grand Rapids alumnae will celebrate Founders' Day with a dinner and program at that time.

Four of the club members attended the luncheon and tea held in East Lansing honoring Miss Amy B. Onken who was guest speaker at a Panhellenic meeting there. At the February meeting members decided to bring gifts to the next meeting to be sent to our province French child for her birthday. The March meeting was devoted to election of officers.

AGNES BIRDSALL BAKER

A joint meeting with the Mothers' Club was held in February at the Indiana Delta chapter house. We were delightfully entertained by the active chapter members singing Pi Phi songs.

We were so pleased to receive information concerning the needy European child which our province is sponsoring. We received the news just in time to send cards, gifts, and good wishes for her birthday in April.

Election of officers for the coming year was held at the March meeting in the home of Mrs. Claude M. Vestal. At our Founders' Day celebration we were pleased to have the pledges of Indiana Δ as our guests and are looking forward to giving best wishes to the graduating seniors of the chapter when they are our guests of honor at the May meeting.

DOROTHY DUSTIN PHILLIPS

LANSING-EAST LANSING

We held a meeting at Myrta Edmonson's on January 6. There was a discussion of Chapter Loyalty Day on January 9, and we were glad to meet Mrs. Kennedy, the new house mother, who came over later.

On the evening of January 22, the annual Panhellenic convocation was held in the Michigan State College auditorium and we were all much pleased and honored to have Miss Onken here to deliver the address. Her topic was "Getting Acquainted with Tomorrow." Everyone agreed that it was very worthwhile and inspiring and we were all very proud of her. The alumnae club entertained Miss Onken at luncheon in the Lansing City Club, and had a tea for her at the chapter house. Other guests were Mrs. Lewis, Delta Province President, alumnae from Ann Arbor and Jackson, and active chapter members from Hillsdale and the University of Michigan. Miss Onken met with representatives from the active Panhellenic during the day.

We were glad to meet all the new pledges when we entertained them for dessert at Barbara Bissell's on February 3.

NORTHERN INDIANA

Northern Indiana Alumnae Club and members of their families met Sunday evening, January 2, at the home of Mrs. Don Holwerda, Goshen, Indiana I, for a cooperative supper. A white elephant sale, plus the generosity of the husbands, who were present, helped to restock the depleted treasury. New officers were elected. On March 9, when the club will meet for dinner at the home of Mrs. Mark Disowsky, Goshen, a Settlement School film will be shown.

ELIZABETH MILLER FREEMAN

SOUTHWESTERN INDIANA

We have started the new year with a large meeting at which we welcomed two new members.

We had a paper sale in January and, although it was successful, we decided to have our next one in the early fall when more paper would be available.

A very interesting document written by Major Jacob Holt was presented at our History meeting by Kathleen Rector. We were interested to learn more about the data on the purchase of his home which is now Holt House.

Most of our February meeting was taken over in the discussion of the new "Save the Children" campaign. We are very anxious to do what we can for our little French girl which Delta Province has "adopted." The membership plans to send boxes to her.

We held election of officers in our regular March meeting.

COLUMBIA (Mo.)

The members of the Columbia, Missouri Alumnae Club enjoyed the visit of Marianne Reid Wild, Grand Vice-President. Mrs. Wild visited Missouri A March 5 to 7. The club members were among the guests at a tea given by the active chapter, March 5 and entertained Mrs. Wild at the club's March meeting, March 6.

At the February meeting, the club raised nearly all of its convention contribution by raffling two pair of nylons. Queen Smith lead a quiz program on the History and Constitution. Plans for entertaining the chapter this spring and for observation of Founders' Day were discussed.

This year the club has attempted a study of rushing in order to contribute more actively to the City Panhellenic and to advise the chapter.

JEFFERSON CITY

Loyalty Day was observed by the Jefferson City club on January 9. The February meeting was devoted to a study of the Constitution and Settlement School. It is planned to have a dinner celebrating Founders' Day, in April.

Mrs. J. D. James (Mary Burton George) has recently assumed the duties of Girl Scout Commissioner in Jefferson City. Most of the eleven Pi Beta Phi alumnae of the city are active in community and church organizations.
HELEN CHRISTY MAY

The February evening meeting featured a talk by the chairman of social agencies in Kansas City. Final plans were laid for a Valentine dance which was held February 14. It was a formal supper dance at the Kansas City Club and Pi Beta Phi and their guests were invited.

Marianne Reid Wild (Mrs. Robert S.) Indianapolis, Grand Vice-president, was the honored guest at the March Election of officers was held.

The spring party will be the April program and Founders' Day will be celebrated by a banquet given by Kansas City, Kansas and Kansas City, Missouri clubs. Active chapters will be invited.
ARLENE COLLETT

KNOXVILLE

A group of Knoxville alumnae interested in forming a club met with Mrs. John Foster, Epsilon Province Vice-President, the first week in November. The interest was keen and another meeting was held in November and one in December. The organization was completed at the January meeting with the election of officers. Mrs. Herschel H. Everett (Katherine Stucky, Virginia A) was elected president. There are sixteen paid members in the new club.

In February a luncheon meeting was held at Highland Grill. Mrs. Clarence M. Sale, The Settlement School Committee Chairman, was the principal speaker. Miss Jessie Harris, head of the Home Economics Department at the University of Tennessee, spoke about the craft workshop held during the summer at Gatlinburg in conjunction with the University. Two guests from the Settlement School were present at the meeting, Miss Ethel Snow and Miss Ruth Dyer. The club is fortunate to have as a member Miss Eva L. Hathaway, who taught at the Settlement School for a number of years.

The first project of the club was a rummage sale, held in March.

On April 26 the Little Pigeon and Knoxville Alumnae Clubs observed Founders' Day at Gatlinburg at the lodge of Miss Jessie Harris. A tour of the Settlement School brought a most successful day to a close.

Under the leadership of Mrs. H. M. Harton, Jr. (Mary Elizabeth Innes, Iowa I) the Knoxville Club is looking forward to its second year.
NELLE CAMPBELL MORRIS

LITTLE PIGEON

On February 5, 1947, an alumnae meeting was held at Henrietta Huff's home with Helen Bergstrom as co-hostess.

The following correspondence was read and discussed: Ruth Barrett Smith's letter on Loyalty Day, January 9, and the Order of the Golden Arrow.

The organization of the new Knoxville alumnae club. The increase in alumnae club membership. Mrs. Middleton's letter on the Home for Aged Pi Phis. Letter from chairman of Committee on Transfers.

In order to get in our quota of meetings a second meeting in February was held at the home of Cleo Thompson with Ruth Dyer as co-hostess.

Helen Bergstrom discussed the Constitution and read the changes enacted at Convention and published in the current Information Arrow.
CLEO THOMPSON

MEMPHIS

The Memphis Alumnae Club combined a Stanley Products' demonstration with its monthly pot-luck luncheon, January 22, at the home of Neta Wellford. The club made 12½% of the total amount of Stanley products sold by the demonstrator that day as well as 10¢ per person present.

The February meeting at the home of Janice Sanderson, February 26, was taken over by Billie McCarroll, Vice-President, as the President. Genevieve Easley's first child, a daughter named Anne Jeffries was born the day before the meeting. Peg Garrecht discussed recent changes in the constitution of Pi Beta Phi and took charge of the Pi Phi Lotto game which presented a wealth of information pleasantly and painlessly.

A book review is planned for the March meeting, a cooky-shine in April, a trip to the home of Esther Chapin in Truman, Arkansas, in May. The year will close with an evening picnic meeting in June to which husbands and escorts will be invited.
GLADYS FINCH

SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI

Our March meeting was a supper party honoring the new initiates of Missouri I. The Founders' Day in April will be a dessert party held in the chapter rooms. The last meeting in May will be a picnic. Our meeting this year have been well-planned and enjoyed.
MARTHA D. KELLY

ST. LOUIS

The January meeting held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Hagee was dedicated to Chapter Loyalty Day. Apoptos of this, Miss Helen Gorse, our treasurer, told us of the great life and work of our own Carrie Chapman Catt, and read from our Constitution. Some revisions and amendments were made to make it more workable and up to date. On February 4 at the home of Mrs. W. K. Bliss we held a Scotch Auction. Each member brought a "White Elephant" which was auctioned off for a small sum. The unusual method of bidding, that of raising the bid by adding to it instead of bidding and paying the whole sum, proved very amusing. The money thus raised will be put into a fund for Holt House. Pi Beta Phi was the largest contributor through ticket sales to a fund arranged for by the St. Louis Panhellenic Association for a gift scholarship to Washington University and Missouri University. Our Mothers' Club also sold the most tickets to the annual scholarship bridge. Our annual spring fashion show will be presented on May 20.
MARGARET S. GORMAN

ZETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA

The January meeting, held on the last Tuesday night of the month was very well attended. The Club enrolled many newcomers to Atlanta. At this joint meeting of business and home members—we accomplished our business and social plans for the remainder of this year.

All of our National and Local obligations for the year 1946-47 have been met to date. Plans were made for a spring project, the rummage sale to be held April 12 at the old Municipal Market. The ways and means committee is to be congratulated for its work on the fashion show as well as the coming project. Charlotte Bagley, Charlotte Matthews, Nell Burks, and Josephine Harrison have diligently carried out the year's work they promised.

The first Wednesday afternoon bridge meeting in February was held at the home of Maxine Graham on Peachtree Road. At this meeting the mothers and the members play bridge. Sixteen attended this meeting and ably met the request to finish the sheets that were made for the Atlanta Childrens' Home. During an epidemic of measles at the Home, we were duly thanked by the appreciation shown from the house committee at the home.

With two meetings each month we feel that all of our work can be finished this year. On February 25 a called meeting of Executive Council was held at the home of the President, Kathleen Perrin, 7 Park Lane. Both meetings for March were arranged; Founders' Day in April and a night meeting in May for Local Work complete our plans for this year.

Our Club has grown in attendance this year from a dozen or so regular members to more than thirty at some of our meetings. We have our members on cards for addresses, chapters and telephone lists.

Georgia Alpha is our nearest active chapter and some of the members here have visited Athens, Ga. this year. We hope to include this chapter in our Founders' Day celebration. We were cordially invited by them to attend their last initiation.

MYRTLE RAITH COWART

BIRMINGHAM

For our January meeting, we were entertained by the active chapter with a delightful supper and get-together, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Plans were completed for the "intermission" party the club was to give the actives at their annual formal dance. The dance itself, the first of February, was a lovely function and a great success, and was attended by a considerable number of alumnae, for whom a recognition dance was played before the actives' "Lead-out."

At the February meeting we were again busy with plans for the active chapter. Various means of aiding them financially were discussed, and work was begun on a Puppet Show which was sponsored by us for this purpose.

In May the club will entertain for the chapter with a Hobo Party, when everyone will dress in hobo style and will bring her lunch tied up in a bandana on a stick—picnic fun will be the order of the day.

ALMETA A. MITCHELL

DE LAND

The De Land alumnae held a supper meeting together with the members of Florida A at John B. Stetson University on the twenty-ninth of January at the home of Mrs. D. C. Hull (Marian Wright). Connie Bradley was in charge of the program on the Pi Phi Settlement School and talks were given by Fran Hobson and Mrs. J. C. Bradley (Mary Louise Bohm). A rustic wedding skit was presented in costume by Joan Nydegger, Sally Graybill, Noreen Geyer, and Margaret Dickey. The remainder of the social hour was spent singing fraternity songs. Mrs. Roy De Shaw (Marjorie Hammer), president of the De Land alums, presided at the regular business session which followed, while the active members adjourned to the fraternity room for their weekly meeting. At the supper there were 13 alumnae and 37 actives and pledges present.

Florida A's initiation was held February 8 at the home of Betsy Buck and 15 new members were welcomed into Pi Beta Phi. The traditional formal initiation banquet was held that evening at the Hotel Putnam and was attended by all actives, new members, and alumnae. Decorations followed a Valentine motif and a large, lace valentine frame formed a gate near the entrance to the dining room. A heart formed an open center through which the new Pi Phis entered the room. Connie Bradley introduced each with a few words making up a valentine poem. The banquet table was decorated with lace valentine place cards and hearts.

The alumnae club held a special meeting February 24 at the home of Rebekah Stewart. Plans for the Panhellenic units to be built for each women's fraternity on Stetson's campus are well under way and a campaign for funds is in preparation. Mrs. P. C. Knox (Betsy Dreka) is chairman of the building committee for the city Panhellenic organization. This committee has worked with the active members of the fraternities and it is hoped that the buildings will be ready for use by next Fall. Marjorie Marks and Eleanor Dooley from the Stetson chapter were guests at the meeting and eight alumnae were in attendance. At the close of the business, refreshments were served by the hostess.

February 26 the Stetson actives entertained for the De Land alums with a box-lunch picnic at the home of Betsy Buck. Each active brought an alum as her "date" and the picnic was enjoyed around the open fire-place in the yard. After supper, the program was presented indoors and consisted of short skits imitating both actives and alumnae. We were honored to have with us Mrs. Lincoln Hulley, a De Land Pi Phi from Bucknell University, who was instrumental in starting the Stetson chapter in 1913.

RAY JORDAN

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

In order that a larger number of actives and inactive members of the Jacksonville Alumnae Club could be present at the December meeting, the idea of the usual luncheon in a downtown hotel, was discarded and in its stead a Christmas Coffee was given during the holidays at the home of Mrs. Robert Bishop on Riverside Avenue.

The three new pledges, Sally Simkins, Mary Ann McGinley, and Martha Whitner were guests-of-honor along with four rushees who were attending colleges in which pledging had not yet taken place.

The house was decorated with flower arrangements that lent additional charm to the lovely home. Hot coffee, decorated sandwiches, cream mints, and assorted nuts were served to the guests. A musical background was provided by talented members who played the piano.

The Coffee was received with such enthusiasm from the members that it was suggested that it be made an annual affair given in honor of the new pledges.

ELETA P. DUNCAN

ORLANDO

The Orlando Club has held its monthly cooky-shines regularly in the form of suppers followed by business meetings. Due to the increase in membership recently, supper meetings have been eliminated in favor of after dinner coffees and meetings. Many new Pi Phis are moving to Orlando and former club members returning here to make their homes.

A large group of Pi Phis attend each meeting of the recently organized Central Florida Panhellenic Assn. and participated actively in aiding its organization here. At the March meeting, the association voted in favor of the acceptance of summer Sushing rules.

The alumnae club held election of officers at the March meeting.

Members of the advisory committee attended pledging at Rollins College.

JEAN YOTHERS

ST. PETERSBURG

The St. Petersburg Alumnae Club, reorganized this year after being inactive during war years, has had enthusiastic support from local and visiting members. Monthly meetings have been held at the homes of various members. A luncheon in November at the Concord Hotel was beautifully planned and well attended. In December a most successful rummage sale was held. The sum raised gave a nice nest egg with which to start the season. The committee worked hard and long to make this worth while and had enough left over for another sale in the near future. During the Holidays at Christmas time a Coffee was held honoring pledges home from school. We heard news of Florida A, Florida B, Florida G, and Ohio B from the pledges and actives.

Then in January a Benefit Bridge Party was held to raise money for our projects. Bridge was enjoyed with table prizes and a door prize. A beautiful fashion show was staged by a II ♀ who owns an exclusive dress shop. Arrowcraft things were sold and a history of the Settlement School was given and later tea was served. A nice sum was cleared from which $25.00 was sent to Florida A chapter at Stetson University, De Land, $25.00 to Florida B chapter at Florida State College for Women, Tallahassee, and $25.00 sent to the Settlement School.

We are planning a Founders' Day luncheon and a picnic in the future.

At our last meeting in February plans for coming summer rushing were outlined. A budget was adopted for next year. Members were asked to support Panhellenic benefit bridge party for their scholarship fund. Two visiting II ♀s from Illinois A gave an interesting description of Holt House, and the meeting was closed after a program of Pi Phis in the public eye.

BELOIT

The Beloit Alumnae Club met January 21 at the home of Betty Daniels, Carol Shepard and Birdie Newton were co-hostesses. Fifteen members were present for dinner and the business meeting which followed.

The February meeting was postponed until March 6, in order that we might entertain our Province Vice President, Laura Turner Wood, with a dinner for her at the chapter house.

We planned to celebrate Founders' Day with the active chapter. In June we are to have an alumnae reunion with the chapter.

BEATRICE BAKER BRADLEY

CARTHAGE

The president and secretary, Mrs. J. W. Williams and Miriam Williams, were hostesses to the alumnae club in January. The date of the meeting was advanced in order to celebrate Chapter Loyalty Day and the birthday anniversary of Carrie Chapman Catt. Mrs. C. L. McClure presented the program on our Settlement School.

Mrs. McClure will be the hostess for the March meeting. The changes in the Articles and Statutes of the Constitution will be discussed. Major Holt's "Statement" will be used as the History part of the program. Refreshments are served by the hostesses at the meetings.

MIRIAM E. WILLIAM

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN

Our January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Clarke in La Grande. Our president, Mrs. Richard Jones, called an early business meeting, at which time we endorsed the petition of Lambda Phi fraternity at Bradley University in Peoria. We decided to have an afternoon and an evening meeting each month next year to enable members with limited time to attend consecutive meetings. After the meeting we were hostesses to the West Suburban Panhellenic group. The entertainment for the afternoon was a piano recital given by a talented La Grange High School student, Dick Webster.

A social meeting was held in February, a luncheon and bridge at the home of Mrs. J. T. Meek in Western Springs. We are sponsoring a movie at the Hinsdale Theatre the latter part of April under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Roland Burt. It was decided to accept the invitation of the Chicago Area Council for Founders' Day. In March we entertained our Province Vice President, Laura Turner Wood. She had luncheon with the members of the board at the Spinning Wheel at Hinsdale. Mrs. Homer Richardson opened her home for the afternoon to enable members and guests (members of the Dupage County Club) to meet Mrs. Wood. Formal installation of officers was held at this time. Mrs. Wood closed the meeting with an inspiring talk.

ELSIE GILLER

NINA HARRIS ALLEN (DUPAGE COUNTY)

The January meeting of the Nina Harris Allen Alumnae Club was held January 30, at the home of Mrs. C. Franklin Brown, in Glen Ellyn with 21 members present. After the regular business meeting, Mrs. W. D. Burks, of Villa Park, one of our members, gave a very interesting review of Major Holt's "Statement." This was not an easy document to review, and Mrs. Burks did an excellent job.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. Thorwaldson, in Elmhurst, with 19 members present. We had scheduled the Settlement School films for this meeting but they did not arrive in time, and all were quite disappointed. We are hoping to get them for a later meeting. The evening was spent in a lengthy business meeting and plans for the rest of the year were made.

FLORENCE GENTRY

ELGIN

The Elgin Alumnae Club has been much larger this year because of the return of some of its wartime wanderers and the advent of several new Pi Phis. Needless to say, those of us who have been here for some years are happy to welcome them.

Our potluck dinner meetings the first Monday of the month continue to be a popular way to get together. This year our club has stressed support of the Magazine Agency, and under the able direction of Carole and Margaret Collingbourne we have a creditable showing for the Settlement School. Incidentally, we enjoyed the colored movies of the School at one of our meetings.

As a means of earning a little money for the club treasury we have sold three dozen Pi Phi Cook Books and intend to make them a permanent source of income. We also conducted a White Elephant auction sale to which each of us brought books, pottery, plants, etc., which we had tired of or had duplicated in our homes. The auction lent a note of gaiety to one meeting.

Mr. Freeman Wood was a welcome guest of honor at our March meeting and made us feel that our alumnae province supervision is in very capable hands. We hope that she will return soon.

Our chairman for the committee on rushees is Carole Collingbourne, Indiana H, whose address is 320 Watch Street, Elgin, Illinois.

JUNE WHITSON EWING

FOX RIVER VALLEY

The Fox River Valley Alumnae Club of Wisconsin is in the midst of an active year. The January meeting was a business meeting and included a report on the new fraternity project of Save The Children Federation. February brought the initiation of Wisconsin pledges and the alumnae joining the active chapter in the initiation banquet. Mrs. A. M. Johnston will entertain the group at a dessert bridge in March. Mrs. Thomas Letter is working with Wisconsin on plans for a joint celebration of Founders' Day, a one o'clock luncheon, April 26, 1947. The regular April meeting includes the election of officers. Members of Wisconsin I who are to graduate in June will be entertained at a cooky-shine in May; the committee in charge of this is Mrs. Victor Zeuthen, Mrs. William Buchanan, and Mrs. Paul Hansen. The club year ends with a June Picnic at Alicia Park in Appleton.

ANDREA S. BLETZINGER

JOLIET

Since the Joliet club meets only four times a year, only one formal meeting has been held since our last letter. At this time, we gathered in the home of Mrs. Harvey Wood (Blanche Lindsay, Illinois Z), to see movies of the Settlement School, under the direction of Mrs. William Chaney (Ethel Scotland, Illinois Z). Comments about the school and environs were made by the hostess and her husband.

Informally, the group has attended a Panhellenic dinner, and has enjoyed a visit with the Grand Secretary, Lucile Douglas Carson.

The club year will be concluded in April, when Mrs. Glen Evans (Lucille Lorimer, Illinois A) will direct our Founders' Day meeting and our annual election of officers will take place.

MRS. R. G. W. CARLSON

CHICAGO

A new Beverly Hills evening group has been added to the Chicago South club as a result of the enthusiasm and zeal of the membership chairman and vice-president, Dorothy Fencken. The members welcomed this group at a most interesting and inspiring cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wright on Lincoln's birthday. The Alpha group were hostesses and served delicious dessert followed by a general meeting and election of officers. Villars Gagnon, the convention delegate, led a study of the constitution and explained the changes made at Convention. The thirty-seven members present were then entertained by a series of dramatic sketches from the book, "The Threshers" by Margaret Dodd Brown, well known book reviewer and member of the Beta group.

Plans have been completed for a luncheon March 3 at the Picadilly Tea Room honoring the Province Vice-President, Mrs. F. B. Wood. The luncheon will be followed by a board meeting at the Women's University Club.

All members are interested in adopting a European war shattered school under the Save the Children Federation charity and plans for raising money for this project are being made.

GRACE HESS ABELL (MRS. J. E.)

CHICAGO NORTH

Our Spring luncheon and election of officers was held March 5, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Morrison. We were pleased to have our province vice-president, Mrs. F. B. Wood, present for this meeting.

Founders' Day will be our next event and it is one to which we all look forward. This year we will celebrate Founders' Day with all Pi Beta Phi groups in the Chicago area, and a noteworthy program is in store.

Mrs. S. B. Fithian and Mrs. C. W. Barrett have been Pi Phis for fifty years.

Our three groups have been meeting every other week, and we have all enjoyed a very successful year.

AUDREY A. CASE

MADISON

With a greatly increased membership and with special accent on interesting programs, the Madison Alumnae Club is having an extremely successful year.

The large membership, drawn from the wives of ex-servicemen attending the University of Wisconsin, has brought to the club Pi Phis from all over the country. The influx of these new personalities and new ideas has been most inspiring.

The program committee, headed by Mrs. J. F. Kessenich, has provided some very entertaining evenings for the club members. An evening of bridge, with prizes from the Settlement School, was featured at the January meeting at the home of Mrs. Kemper Slidell. Mrs. R. R. Aurner, a club member, spoke at the February meeting. Mrs. Aurner told of the year she spent painting in California and illustrated her talk with photographs and with many of her lovely paintings. Mrs. Kenneth Lemmer was hostess at this meeting.

Mrs. Freeman B. Wood, province vice president, was the guest of the club at the March meeting at the home of Mrs. A. W. Schorger.

A hobby and antique show was held for this meeting. Members were asked to bring their favorite antique or an example of her hobby. In the event that the member has no antique collection or hobby, she is to bring the article she would grab first in case of fire.

In April the club will again join the members of Wisconsin Alpha Chapter for a celebration of Founders' Day.

The annual party for the graduating seniors of Wisconsin A, to be held in May at the home of Mrs. John R. Yost, and a wiener roast in June at the home of Mrs. Mark Schmitz will complete the 1946-47 program.

ELIZABETH YOST

MILWAUKEE

The Milwaukee Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi met on January 9, Chapter Loyalty Day. During the evening tribute was paid to Carrie Chapman Catt by our club president and the purpose of Chapter Loyalty Day explained. For the program we were taken backstage of the Wauwatosa High School auditorium by Miss Alberta Johnson, custom and stage designer. She spoke most entertainingly of her work and a group of our members modeled some of her most beautiful costumes.

The memorable Milwaukee blizzard did not deter our hearty members from attending a meeting on February 1. All within walking, skiing, or sledding distance met at the home of Miss Isabelle Bodden for luncheon, business meeting, and an afternoon of bridge.

JANE AYERS DAVIS

MONMOUTH

Following initiation ceremonies on February 15, the active chapter entertained at a formal dinner with the initiates and alumnae as guests. The Monmouth Alumnae Club is happy to welcome Mrs. Blodwin Carey, hostess at Holt House, as a new member. Mrs. Carey was one of the eighteen initiated by Illinois A this year.

The March meeting was preceded by a dinner at Holt House honoring Lucille Douglas Carson, Grand Secretary.

A study of the constitution, with Lillian Adcock in charge of the program, will be the feature of the April meeting, and as is the usual custom, the alumnae club will join with the active chapter in observing Founders' Day.

The senior members of the active chapter will be honored at a dinner preceding the regular May meeting. Each honor guest is presented with a gift from the Alumnae Club at this time.

ALICE JENSEN

NORTH SHORE

The February meeting of the North Shore Club was held at the home of Mrs. Lyman Drake, Jr. in Glencoe. At this time the annual birthday cooky-shine was the occasion and members contributed pennies approximating their age. Since a benefit was waived for the year, it was asked to double or triple the amount, if one wished, and forty-five dollars was realized. The programme was given by Mrs. Freeman Wood, Eta province vice-president.

A tea at the home of Mrs. Harry Daniels in Evanston was on the calendar for the March meeting with a talk on Interior Decoration by Miss Laura Welch of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.

The April meeting will be on Founders' Day held jointly with the other clubs of the Chicago area. Members of the Chicago Area Council will act as hostesses and large attendance is anticipated.

The final meeting in May will be held at the home of Mrs. Herman Zischke in Highland Park. Installation of officers will take place at this time with a summary of the years events.

MARGARET BLAZER RICHMOND

OAK PARK—RIVER FOREST

The aim of our program this Spring is to acquaint us with alumnae everywhere. In February Virginia Robie Cassin prepared a fine report on "Who's Who in Pi Beta Phi." It was of much interest to hear of the famous living members and the great variety of their work. On March 5 we had the inspiration of a visit from Mrs. Wood, Province Vice President.

Our donations of cakes for Vaughn Veterans' Hospital and aid for a family in Holland will continue.

We are happy to welcome the many new Pi Phis who have come to the community and are attending the alumnae meetings.

ELLA KOUCKY

PEORIA

The Peoria Alumnae Club was entertained in the home of Mrs. Eric Laing in January, with dessert, a business meeting, and bridge for the order of the day. In February we were honored with a charming visitor to the Bradley University campus, Marianne Reid Wild, Grand Vice President, and had a special luncheon meeting at the Pere Marquette Hotel. The March meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. J. McNamara. Holt House, the Loan Fund, and Settlement School were contributed to 100%, and new officers were nominated. The April Founders' Day meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. A. McConnell, with a special program. The May meeting will be entertained by Mrs. Louis Watson. There has been a large attendance at all meetings, and Mrs. H. H. Dewey has been a most successful president in a very busy year for this club. We have welcomed many new and old members at each meeting, and have thirty-eight paid members, almost doubling last years' membership.

ALICE D. NEVITT

THETA PROVINCE

BURLINGTON, IOWA

The Burlington Alumnae Club met on January 9, in honor of Loyalty Day, at the home of Mrs. John Lundgren, following a dinner at the Country Club. Mrs. Johnston, Province Vice-President, was a guest. She relayed the activities of the National Convention to us. At this meeting, we learned that Mrs. C. M. Waite, an alumnae member, is now a member of the National Order of The Golden Arrow.

On February 20, the Alumnae Club had a supper meeting at the home of Mrs. W. F. Gillman. At this time, the interests of the Settlement School were discussed.

MARGARET STEIN

CEDAR RAPIDS

The Cedar Rapids Alumnae Club is in the midst of a very happy year. Our membership is the largest for a number of years. Contributions to all the projects come in without any effort, and everyone is interested. The meetings are mostly social, although programs on the Settlement School, Holt House, and the new Orphan Project add inspiration and zest.

We are also very proud of our record in magazine subscriptions.

LULU G. WELD

DES MOINES

The high spot of the winter for Des Moines alumnae was the visit of Amy B. Onken in January. Miss Onken was the guest speaker at the annual Panhellenic dinner here. The alumnae club entertained for Miss Onken with a tea at the home of Lois Thornburg Cowles and actives and alumnae came from Ames and Indianola, about 75 in all.

The February meeting was held with Lucille Bostwick. Plans were made for a rummage sale which was held March 12. We have had a good attendance of members this year, and an increase in the number of paid members.

MIRIAM R. BINGHAM

DULUTH-SUPERIOR

One day we had good news—that Mrs. Johnston, our Province Vice-President, would visit us on February 8! So, instead of having our annual evening bridge party (which we always have in February), we planned a luncheon meeting for that day at the home of Jessie Blu, with Gladys Bowman as assisting hostess. Mrs. Johnston had planned to come from Grand Forks, North Dakota, to Duluth, but due to a severe windstorm and blizzard there were no trains for twenty-four hours, so she was forced to cancel her Duluth trip. We were very disappointed as we had been looking forward to her visit for a long time. We had planned a very fine meeting and it was most enjoyable. We were so glad to welcome as a new member, Mrs. William Croze (Charlotte Gallup, Colorado A), who has moved to Duluth from Hibbing, Minnesota, and is living at 2131 East Superior Street. Virginia Mendenhall Ramsland (Minnesota A) was also at the meeting, after a rather long absence while her husband was in service. We discussed the possibility of having another rummage sale, an Arrowcraft sale and tea, and were unanimously in favor of establishing a Home or Homes for Pi Phi.

RUBY BURTNESS KEFGEN

GRAND FORKS

The Grand Forks Alumnae Club has had a busy and quite successful year to date. We assisted with rushing in September and joined the chapter in celebrating our 25th birthday on October 6. The meetings are held on the second Monday of the month, either in the homes of members or at the house.

At the December meeting, we had a fine exhibit from the Settlement School. Most of the things were purchased by the members and the girls of the chapter.

In February, we enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Johnson and were interested in getting some of her views on Convention. Marguerite Todd, our active delegate, gave her report in September.

We plan to join with the chapter in celebrating Founders' Day and are hoping to have some members from Fargo with us. Also in April, the Club gives the annual party for the Seniors which will be held at Evelyn Abley's. We use this means of interesting the girls in alumna membership.

Our club has an active membership of sixteen this year and has both young members and those who have been out of school for several years. The meetings are well attended and enjoyable.

M. REGINA BRENNAN

INDIANOLA

We had a good meeting at Mrs. Buxton's in January, and a report of Convention was given. We of Iowa B have been very much pleased to hear about reports of Convention given in all parts of the country—Chicago, Fort Collins, and Palo Alto, for instance—where the Order of the Golden Arrow was noted. We have also enjoyed reading the letters from new Golden Arrow members, who have written to the Central Office since they received their notices that they would now receive the ARROW. We are interested in every Golden Arrow member, and would be glad to hear from those who will write us about their experiences in college and since. Our address is Route 3, Indianola. We had letters from Pasadena, Minneapolis, Middlebury, Vermont, and Flintshire, England, among others.

We took part in the initiation ceremonies in February. Margaret Griffith Milhorne was at initiation to see her daughter made a Pi Phi, and Betty Huffstad Kale, and her mother from Nebraska Beta to see their sister and daughter initiated. Esther Peddicord Chew was another out of town guest.

We are planning a Founders' Day observance with the active chapter in April. Since we have no living national Founders to honor, we often make Founders' Day a time to honor our Golden Arrow members, and we feel our Founders would approve of that.

During the holidays the Des Moines Alumnae club invited us to a luncheon at Younker's tea room. About 20 of us went, and had a lovely time. Then in February the Des Moines Alumnae club had a tea at the home of Lois Thornburg Cowles for Miss Onken and the Ames and Indianola alumnae clubs. Three of our Golden Arrow members were there, Mrs. Buxton, Miss Craig, and Mrs. Sigler, and everyone was especially interested in them.

We miss Ruth Barrett Smith's name from the list of Grand Officers, and want to take this opportunity to pay our sincere tribute to her for all she did for the fraternity, and for our chapter and alumnae club. To us she was the embodiment of the friendliness and helpfulness the fraternity stands for.

AGNES WRIGHT STONE

IOWA CITY

The January meeting of the alumnae club was held with the actives in the chapter house. Rushing, which for the first time on this campus, was held the second semester, was discussed. Mrs. Scott Swisher was the alumnae rushing advisor. Our February meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Dan Dutcher. Following dinner, a business meeting was held, and election of officers took place. Mrs. Vernon Noll, newly elected chairman of Holt House Committee gave a most interesting talk about the house. A box was packed by the club members with contributions from members for a twelve year old Belgian boy. Clothing, food, and school supplies were included. The March meeting was a cooky-shine to entertain the new pledges in the home of Mrs. Wendall Smith. The April meeting will be an observance of Founders' Day. In May will be held the Senior Farewell Ceremony at the home of Mrs. John Thompson at Lake MacBride, followed by the installation of alumnae club officers for the coming year.

ELIZABETH STICKFORD

MINNEAPOLIS (AFTERNOON GROUP)

The first meeting of the new year was held on Chapter Loyalty Day at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Larson (Phyllis Ellis) at which time we conducted the study of the constitution and history of Pi Phi.

In February we were honored by the visit of Mrs. Johnston, which proved most beneficial as well as enjoyable. The executive board met her at luncheon at the Women's Club, and in the evening the club's meeting took place at the chapter house. The active members joined us at a delicious ham dinner.

We held our March meeting at the interesting home of Mrs. James Morrill whose husband is president of the University of Minnesota. At this time election of officers for next year took place.

Our money-making projects so far this year have been the sale of note paper, greeting cards of all kinds, Christmas paper, and all purpose wrappings.

We all are now looking forward to the next important event, the Founders' Day banquet which is to be held at the Calhoun Beach Club on April 28.

SARAH CHASE MATCHAN

SAINT PAUL

Our January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. L. Paltgold. The Ways and Means committee reported that plans are being made for the tea and Towle Silver Display again this year. There will be, too, a Household Paper Company sale. We are to receive 20% of the total sales. Mrs. Walter Hunt and Mrs. Hallan Huffman were appointed on the Nominating Committee. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to the history of Pi Beta Phi.

Mrs. Hallan Huffman entertained the group in her home for the February meeting when we enjoyed a visit from our Province Vice-President Mrs. Floyd Johnston. Her talk was most interesting and inspiring.

In March the meeting was held with Mrs. Donald Gray, and was a White Elephant Sale. We meet with the Minneapolis alumnae group in April to celebrate Founders' Day.

JANETTE P. WALLING

TRI-CITY

The February meeting of the Tri-City Alumnae Club was held at the home of Marian Entrikin Ohlweiler (Mrs. Wm. J.). Opal Archer Barton (Mrs. Myron H.) and Jane Cummins Hollingsworth (Mrs. John) were assisting hostesses. Josephine Betty Ready (Mrs. John F.) gave a review of our Constitution. Donations were made to Holt House and the Settlement School.

Jeanette Peterson Hollowell (Mrs. T. P.) was hostess at a luncheon for the March meeting.

Founders' Day was observed in April.

Any Pi Beta Phi living in the vicinity of the tri-cities is cordially invited to join the group at their monthly meetings. In Davenport they may call Gertrude Pape Greenlee (Mrs. L. O.). In Rock Island and Moline call Jane Cummins Hollingsworth (Mrs. John M.) or Florence Rogers Sundine (Mrs. August).

JEAN FRANKENBURGER PRIEBE (Mrs. E. G.)

WINNIPEG

A White Elephant sale was held as the first meeting in the New Year at the home of Agnes MacDonald with the active chapter as guests. As a result of the articles auctioned off at this sale, the amount of $11.90 was raised.

The visit of Mrs. Floyd Johnston, Province Vice-President, was planned for the February meeting but on account of weather conditions, Mrs. Johnson only arrived in time for the evening tea planned in her honour. However, the club did enjoy meeting her on this occasion.

In February, the eight new initiates were honoured at the formal Initiation Banquet at the Forst Garry Hotel, and they in turn entertained the other Pi Beta Phis with a short skit.

The election of officers and a discussion on Settlement School will take place in March with the Constitution meeting following in April.

The last event of the year will be held in May when the alumnae club celebrates Founders' Day with the active chapter at a luncheon. At this time it is the custom for the alumnae club to present the graduating members of the chapter with a small gift. Also planned for May is a rummage sale with the proceeds to go to the University of Manitoba Building Drive Fund now being conducted by the students of the University for the construction of a students' union and athletic center.

YVONNE SHARPE

IOTA PROVINCE

CHEYENNE

Cheyenne has had two meetings since Christmas. The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. O. B. Koefer. Goods from the Settlement School were for sale at this meeting. A social evening was enjoyed by all. The February meeting was held at the Hospitality House. We were entertained at this meeting by the High School Dramatic Class coached by Mrs. Marion Stout.

The March meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Elton Davis. This was our busy month for our Annual Rummage Sale was held the middle of this month.

Again we extend an invitation to all visiting Pi Phis to contact us and come to our meetings.

ROWENE D. EMERY

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS

The Kansas City, Kansas, Alumnae Club has held two meetings since the last ARROW letter. At the January meeting the hostesses were Mrs. Edwin Windler and Betty Frank Carey. The main topic of discussion was the Convention Tax. The February meeting was a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Harding and Mrs. Helen Jane Adsatt, and was a Valentine party.

Our Settlement School tea, which was held in November, was a greater success than we realized. The guests who saw the display at the tea are still calling and placing orders for Settlement School merchandise.

Election of officers was held at the March meeting.

MRS. THOMAS M. VAN CLEAVE, JR.

LARAMIE

Since September, the Laramie Alumnae club has had an active, interesting program, with the balance of the year's work lining up in good shape.

Our first meeting at Mrs. C. S. Greenbaum's in September, was a discussion of rush week and report on Convention by Miss Nancy Jones. Various members of the alumnae group played a vital part in rushing this year as Wyoming A had no cook until October, so different alumnae donated their services in making refreshments.

October's meeting was a large one, held in the Student Union and following a short business session a bridge party was thoroughly enjoyed.

A "pot-luck" supper at the Fraternity house was held for the actives in November and the Constitutional meeting took place in January at Mrs. Hugh Moreland's.

Plans for the style show—Settlement school tea to be held the last Saturday in March at the Fraternity house were made at the February meeting in Mrs. Verne Varineau's home. The style show made its initial appearance since war's end. And, as it always was a popular event in Laramie and campus life, the Alumnae club again had a successful party. Laramie stores have always been most anxious to cooperate; and the '47 show had college fashions for spring (modeled by the actives), plus more mature styles and mother-and-daughter outfits modeled by the alumnae. In addition to the style show, Settlement school articles were on display and for sale during the afternoon.

The annual party for the patronesses was the March meeting at Mrs. G. J. Forbes' home. Tentative plans have been made by the committee to have a Founders' Day dinner and meeting in April at a hotel with the active chapter.

Our magazine chairman, Mrs. Gordon Sanford has done extremely well this year and as periodicals are becoming increasingly more available, subscriptions continue to come in—therefore from these sales and if our fashion show is a financial success, we will not have a rummage sale this spring.

The May meeting scheduled to be at Mrs. Earl Cady's home will include election of officers, appointment of committees etc., and will terminate monthly meetings until September.

The club extends sincerest sympathy to Mrs. John Cobb (Helen Corbett) and Mrs. Loren Bishop (Eleanor Corbett) in the loss of their father and Mrs. Jack K. Corbett (Clarissa Jensen) in the loss of her father-in-law, John Corbett. And to Mrs. Robert P. Gottschalk (Agnes A. Anderson) and Miss Joan Gottschalk in the loss of their husband and father, R. P. Gottschalk.

HELEN G. FERNALD

DENVER

The Denver Alumnae Club has proudly taken as its project to help in the Colorado State Home for Dependent Children. Our members help by playing with the younger age groups. The older children may be invited to come into our homes, or go on any pleasant excursion we may plan for them.

We have held our regular monthly meetings. At our January meeting Monsieur Lestouque spoke to us of conditions in his home, the Rhineland, prior to and the beginning of the War. Our February meeting was a pleasant evening meeting at which a play was reviewed by a very talented member of our own club, Mrs. John Akolt, Jr. (Jeannette Humphreys).

A particularly lovely benefit fashion show was presented by Daniels and Fishers at which flowers were featured which had been especially designed for each outfit. Each guest received a corsage of wine carnations. All flowers were donated by the Colorado Growers Association.

On May 5, 1947, our Club will serve as hostess at the U.S.O. Servicemen's Center.

Plans are being made for the annual celebration of Founders' Day in April.

ELIZABETH S. ROBINSON

HUTCHINSON

The Hutchinson Alumnae Club started the New Year by honoring Carrie Chapman Catt at our January meeting. A very interesting paper was read giving the highlights of her 69 years of service to Pi Phi.

At the February meeting we collected over 100 children's books and sent them to the Settlement School for supplementary reading.

A card table and chairs were purchased and sent to Kansas B as a gift.

Many "coke" parties are planned for prospective rushees. These are small groups getting together after school to become better acquainted with the high school girls.

Plans are in progress for a Settlement School sale to be held April 1.

Our club has grown to 28 members plus 7 actives. We also have 12 inactive who are married and attending school or are living and working outside the city. Together we plan to accomplish bigger and better projects in the near future.

Mrs. E. J. GROVIER

LAWRENCE, KANSAS

Our January meeting was held in the home of Mrs. George L. Marshall. A luncheon was served to 35 members and was followed by a business meeting. We voted $25 to the Settlement School, $25 to the Red Cross, $10 to Holt House, and $10 to the Loan Fund. Mrs. R. M. Fitzpatrick announced that she had sold $1067.31 in Settlement School articles and will continue to sell them during the year. The March meeting will entertain 16 Kansas A seniors at luncheon. Club members are contributing clothing for two needy children. Founders' Day will be suitably celebrated and the club year will close with the May meeting.

MARY BITZER WEEKES

LINCOLN

Regular meetings of the Alumnae Club have been held on the first Monday night of each month, with a dessert supper. In November, the pledges of Nebraska B were entertained at a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Ernest Ames. For our Christmas meeting each member brought a gift and it was auctioned off, the proceeds going to the Alumnae Club. Settlement School articles were also sold.

We are looking forward to the Initiation Banquet and a tea given for our Seniors and Mortar Boards.

MRS. R. F. WESTOVER

MANHATTAN

The Manhattan Alumnae Club had their January meeting at the active chapter house where they were served a lovely buffet supper. After a delightful social hour the actives met with the alumnae for the regular meeting. It was decided that each pledge would be adopted by an alumna. This plan was in effect last year and proved highly successful in maintaining a closer relationship between the two groups. A meeting of the House Corporation followed.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Richard Seaton with Mrs. Richard Kendall and Mrs. George Boone assisting hostesses. A delicious dessert course was served preceding the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Marion Bugby, vice-president in the absence of Mrs. Hostetter.

Plans were discussed for the luncheon for the initiates which the club regularly gives preceding initiation. No date could be set as the grades are late, due to the heavy enrollment at Kansas State. Tentative plans were also made for the Founders' Day dinner in April.

Mrs. E. L. Holton reported that $4,300.00 surplus in the National Physio Therapy Fund was no longer needed and was to be diverted to the Save the Children Federation for Rehabilitation of Children in Foreign Countries, and that because the Kansas B was high in amount contributed, they were to be given a foreign child for adoption.

Ann Allison gave a talk on Major Holt and Holt House, bringing in many interesting details of the adventures and experiences of Major Holt. Mary Louise Carl, retiring president and Ann Huddleston, new president of the active chapter were guests.

NETTIE SHUSS

OMAHA

The January meeting of the Omaha Alumnae Club was an evening meeting on January 14 at the University of Omaha.

KAPPA PROVINCE

ARDMORE

The Ardmore Alumnae Club is having a most successful year, we have returned to luncheon meetings, four of us taking it in turn together, and having a buffet in our homes. The February meeting was planned to coincide with the visit of our Province Vice-President, Mrs. Thomas E. Graham, many of us enjoyed renewing our old friendship, with the always popular Theresa, and all of us were enthused by our meeting with her.

For the March meeting six members were hostesses instead of four and we are entertaining a group of young girls, seniors in high school, whom we won't be able to rush because of the quota situation at Oklahoma University, but whom we like and wish to compliment. We included, in our programme an informal talk by Inez Gibson, a charter member of Oklahoma A, a member of our club, and the present state president of the women's federated clubs of Oklahoma. Mrs. Gibson has had some delightful contacts, particularly with the White House, which she will share with us.

April will be the Founders' Day programme, always a

Mrs. Eugene Kingman gave an interesting talk on Anthropology.

The February meeting was a luncheon on February 11 at the home of Mrs. Philip Gilmore. The magazine chairman reported $81 in commissions. The Club has sold $227.50 in Settlement School products, and it was voted to hold a large sale this spring.

The Panhellenic representative reported that the Omaha Panhellenic is affiliating with the National Panhellenic Association.

The members were very much interested in the report on Save-the-Children Federation Project of Pi Beta Phi and chose the Belgian boy to sponsor.

The Club is very proud that the skit "I'll Take This Dram" won the gold cup at the Coed Follies at Nebraska University. The skit was written by Pricilla Bailey (Nebraska B), daughter of Mildred McFarland Bailey, one of our members, and presented by the actives of Nebraska B chapter.

LOUISE ORTMAN GROSS

PUEBLO

Our club has held monthly meetings throughout the year, enjoying varied types of entertainment.

At an evening dessert meeting in February, held at the home of Mrs. Frank Crabb, we planned enthusiastically for future events.

Founders' Day will be observed at the home of Mrs. A. J. Dooner, and we hope the actives can join us.

We are also looking forward to an all-day picnic in June at the mountain home of Dorothy Thompson, and this event, too, we hope to share with the active girls who will be home for the summer.

Extensive plans are underway for a Settlement School day, with final details decided at the March meeting.

MARY NORDSTROM

TOPEKA

Our club opened the fall and winter activities with a Rush luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Walton. There were twelve rushees and twelve girls from Kansas City there, the latter group all active members of Kansas A. We have held monthly meetings at the homes of members, some in the evening so that the business and professional members could attend. The Settlement School tea was held in December at the home of Mrs. Allan Burch and was a profitable venture. We are happy to have several new members and welcome them and others in the future.

HARRIETT G. BARRETT

WICHITA

The Wichita Club has held two meetings in 1947, one of them devoted entirely to the entertainment of the mothers of our actives.

Business transacted thus far has consisted of contributions to Holt House, Settlement School, Loan Fund and Red Cross, with a local contribution to the Girl Scout Campership fund.

Among future projects is our rummage sale in March and the Panhellenic book review in May.

During the recent Mile of Dimes Drive, the Wichita Club manned a downtown booth.

MRS. I. K. CRUMPACKER

AUSTIN

The February meeting of the Austin Alumnae Club was especially significant because we were privileged to have as dutch treat affair, this year the programme will center around our Founders as always, but approached from the unusual angle of contemporary letters.

We received a small shipment of Settlement School things this last fall and then recently in co-operation with the Y.W.C.A. World Restoration Programme we had a booth at their local bazaar, displayed a lovely assortment of Settlement School products, and turned to the local "Y" our commissions on what we sold, making them a nice gift.

We are happy indeed that Marlyn, the older daughter of our president, Mrs. Julian Cohenour, has completely recovered from a long and serious illness, and we hope by our next letter to tell you that Mrs. J. R. Lane, our corresponding secretary is better also. Just now she is hospitalized, and we are sending our love to her, by doing her letter.

ANTOINETTE HOLLINGSWORTH

our guest, Theresa Gibson Graham (Mrs. Thomas E.) of Oklahoma City, vice-president of Kappa Province. In her honor, the club entertained at luncheon in the Georgian Tea Room. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Graham gave a most enlightening talk on the alumnae department of the national fraternity, its purposes and its accomplishments.

Jean Ellis Bright (Mrs. Robert), as chairman of the Rummage Sale Committee, asked members to bring rummage to the March meeting. As has been the custom for the past few years, the rummage will be sold through the Junior League Thrift Shop on a percentage basis.

The March 4 meeting was our annual "Constitutional Study" meeting at the home of Vola Mae Phillips Odom (Mrs. Jamie). It is the custom of the alumnae club to have no business meeting in April, with all efforts concentrated toward making the Founders' Day Banquet the inspiring occasion it always is.

BETTY HILL BLALOCK

CORPUS CHRISTI

The Corpus Christi Club enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Thomas E. Graham, vice-president of Kappa province, on February 6. The executive board met with her for luncheon at noon and at night we had a cooky-shine.

Another interesting visitor recently was Mrs. Wayman Adams who was here with Mr. Adams for an exhibition of his paintings. Some of the members greeted Mrs. Adams at an informal coffee.

Mrs. Glover Johns (Erna Schlemmer), who was one of our charter members, and who deserted us for Colorado last fall, has come back to Texas but will live in Austin. We hate to lose her but know that she will be a welcome addition to the Austin club.

We have lost another good member—this one to the San Antonio group. Elizabeth Fischer was transferred to the Brooks General Hospital at Ft. Sam Houston. We are sorry to have her leave us.

The club expressed sympathy to Mrs. Frank C. Allen, Jr. (Betty Taylor) whose father passed away in Denver.

At mid-semester pledging at the University of Texas Pat Gibbons Sheeka was repledged. Pat was one of our pledges from Corpus Christi who married and left school before she was initiated. Now she and her husband are back in school and we are happy to have her with us again.

The club has grown this year both in numbers and in enthusiasm and we are looking forward to an even bigger year in 1947.

MARY ELLEN GIBSON

DALLAS, TEXAS

A very interesting and informative program on our Constitution was given at the January meeting of the Dallas Alumnae Club by Mrs. C. S. Potts. Only the parts of the Constitution affecting alumnae clubs and their relations with active chapters were discussed. The chairman of our Advisory Board gave a report on the duties and obligations of that group. A former member of our recommendation board for rushees also spoke on the general procedure followed in submitting girls for rushing, and the grave responsibility this board feels in its work. Many questions were asked by various alumnae members and the practical explanations given made every alumna present feel that she had gained a more thorough understanding of the real working of our alumnae club.

We feel extremely fortunate to have had our Province Vice-President, Mrs. Thomas E. Graham, as guest of honor at our February meeting. She gave us many ideas which will prove most helpful, and her account of visits with other alumnae clubs of Kappa Province was very interesting. She stressed our national relationship with our Fraternity, and our obligations to the Settlement School, Holt House and our Loan Fund.

Our alumnae club is most interesting in magazine sales, due largely to the efforts of our fine chairman of the magazine agency, Mrs. Chester Cole. Mrs. Cole is serving her fourth year in this office. Our sales for the current year total $156.85 which places us first in Kappa Province and fourth nationally as an individual club. At the suggestion of Mrs. Cole a free-will offering was taken up at the January meeting for magazine subscriptions for the Settlement School, and $15.16 was collected.

Mrs. Edwin J. Foscue, vice-president of the alumnae club, is president of the Dallas College Club which is a local branch of the American Association of University Women. A national convention held in Dallas April 14 to 19 of the American Association of University Women, at which time Mrs. Foscue will be official hostess.

DOROTHY HINES DALTON (Mrs. M. L.)

HOUSTON

The Houston Alumnae Club held the last meeting on the morning of February 7, 1947 at the home of Mrs. George Nye (Marion Shaw). This was a called meeting. We had as our guest Mrs. Theresa Gibson Graham of Oklahoma City, Province Vice President. Mrs. Graham talked to the club about the Settlement School and the good work the fraternity is doing in the various projects now sponsored by the fraternity. She brought us news of the Convention and reminded us of our origin as an alumnae club. This was a truly enjoyable meeting as well as an informative one. After the morning meeting at Mrs. Wye's home there was a luncheon and later a dinner party was arranged in honor of Mrs. Graham.

Our next meeting was held on March 18, 1947 at the River Oaks Country Club. This meeting was a luncheon.

BERNICE WILDER IKINS

LITTLE ROCK

Our club has carried out its regularly planned schedule of dinner meetings the third Monday of every month in the homes of members. We are very happy that during the scholastic year Arkansas A has pledged nine girls from Little Rock and Pulaski County.

We have increased our local dues in order to establish our Convention fund in time. We have also been selling fancy wrapping paper and greetings. We hope to obtain enough articles by next Fall to resume our Settlement School tea which was a chief source of income.

Mrs. H. C. Strawn, Oklahoma A, is a transfer from the Muskogee club. We are happy to have Morjorie and she has entered wholeheartedly into club activities.

ELEANOR FARWOOD COOKE

MCALISTER

Our club has very little to report this time. We meet each month in the home of one member and discuss and read letters received by our president the previous month. We are planning a Founders' Day luncheon next month and possibly a Settlement School tea.

Since this is our first year as an active alumnae club, we have been slow in "catching on," but hope to contribute something worth while in the near future.

MRS. A. G. HAYS

OKLAHOMA CITY

The Oklahoma City Alumnae Club as of February 1 has one hundred members, who have paid their national dues!

We are sponsoring the opening nite of "The Royal Family" to be given by the Little Theater players the week of March 15, from which we hope to realize a nice profit from sale of tickets and programme advertising.

We are inviting representatives from all of the alumnae clubs in Oklahoma to meet with us in Oklahoma City on April 28, for our Founders' Day banquet at which time we hope to set up a state wide organization.

Our latest project was furnishing models for "Muellers Dress Shop" style show one afternoon from which we received $25.00.

EULA TURNER RICKMAN

SHREVEPORT

Mrs. George Williamson, Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., and Mrs. Thomas Graham had many things in common at a recent meeting here in Shreveport, when the two former Kappa province vice-presidents met Mrs. Graham, acting vice-president, on her recent official visit to the Shreveport Alumnae Club. Mrs. Moore had come from Texarkana, Texas, to be with Mrs. Graham for the day, indeed a pleasure for all of us.

Addressing the alumnae club at a regular meeting held in the home of Mrs. T. D. Sedberry, Mrs. Graham inspired the group with her vivid description of the fine work of the fraternity as a whole in the various phases of its philanthropies. She impressed us again with the expansion of the fraternity during the war years, and left a distinct picture of the necessary part played by the alumnae clubs in this development.

Rounding out the agenda for the club this Spring will be the report of the Rush Week and pledging at Louisiana A, held at mid-semester this year, and the annual election of officers.

MRS. WILLIAM JOHNSON NESBITT

STILLWATER, OKLAHOMA

Stillwater Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club has enjoyed a wonderful year under the splendid leadership of Robert Ellen Corbin Hoke. All meetings have been well attended and every one has been most enthusiastic.

Oklahoma B gave a lovely Christmas party to the brothers and sisters and children of Pi Phis residing in Stillwater. Several little daughters under twelve years attending for the first time had the colors pinned on them. This is an old Oklahoma B custom.

On the evening of January 6 we met in the home of Mary Louise Percey. We had two guests at this meeting, Mrs. Sundell and Mrs. Covey. Jean Orr Donaldson, her mother Ruth Sundell Orr and her grandmother Mrs. Sundell, were at the meeting together. Martha Berry Covey who was visiting in Stillwater came with her sisters Nellie Berry Myers and Vinita Berry Arrington. The February 3 meeting was in the home of Nellie Myers.

We enjoyed the visit of Theresa Gibson Graham, Kappa Province Vice-President. She was at our meeting March 10 and we had a luncheon for her at the Home Economics Building at noon on March 11. March 10 was election of officers and the last regular meeting of the year.

The alumnae club and the active chapter will meet April 28

LAMBDA PROVINCE

CALGARY

At our first meeting of the new year we were shown two very interesting movies: Toscanini's "Hymn of the Nations" and "West Wind"—the life and paintings of Tom Thompson. We also held a successful white elephant sale. In February we were privileged to have Madame Molnair speak to us about her musical background and her associations in her native Budapest and Vienna. Future plans include a talk on "Law" by our own Ruth Gorman and a meeting devoted to the election of officers. The usual Founders' Day Banquet will complete our program for the season.

HILDA B. McEWEN

BILLINGS

The high light of our winter season was a continental dinner dance held at the Northern Hotel on March 2. The affair was highly successful and we hope to make it an annual affair.

The meeting devoted to the history of Pi Beta Phi proved most informative to most of us. Contributions to the Settlement School through the magazine agency thus far total $7.05. We are sending a gift subscription for Mademoiselle to Montana A.

Plans are under way for a Founders' Day luncheon at which time we hope to entertain alumnae from neighboring towns.

SUE CROONQUIST HUTTON

BOZEMAN

Mrs. Jack Lovelace, president of the alumnae club, entertained the officers both active and alumnae at a lovely breakfast on February 23. Everyone was presented with a carnation.

The alumnae club financed some re-decoration at the Pi Phi house this year. We had some of the furniture recovered and had drapes made to match. It all looks charming, and was finished in time for rush week.

At the March meeting we made final arrangements for our Founders' Day Tea, to be held April 27. It will be given in the home of an alumna, and the actives will be invited. Mrs. Lovelace gave an interesting talk on the history of bells, and exhibited part of her collection.

During the summer we hope to have a luncheon for all Pi Beta Phis in this vicinity.

MARY LOU HARPER FJELD

EUGENE

The main project of the Eugene Alumnae Club this winter has been the adoption of Reino Johan Kuutti, a Finnish war refugee. Articles unobtainable in Finland are being sent to the young six-year-old boy whose father was killed in the war and future shipments are being planned to provide the boy with the necessities of life and a few luxuries.

The following contributions were made during the year: Holt House $1, Loan Fund $5 and Settlement School $5. A $10 cash gift to the local chapter was applied towards an electric toaster for the hours.

for Founders' Day and May 7 for Senior Breakfast with the active chapter at the chapter house.

ELIZABETH BOYD FLANDERS

TULSA

The Tulsa Alumnae Club has continued its practice of preceding its regular monthly meeting by a buffet supper in the home of one of its members. The January meeting was held in the home of Mrs. R. M. Dunn (Marjorie Murray). The highlight of the meeting was the report on the nearest active chapter, Oklahoma B. The February meeting was held in the home of Mrs. F. E. Stanley (Doris Jones). At its meeting Mrs. Garth Caylor (Norma Stovall) was elected treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mary Jane Raybon Martin who resigned as she was being married and leaving Tulsa. The March meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Stanley Campbell (Elinor Itner). Our National historian, Marian Keck Simmons, was the honored guest and reviewed our history. We were very happy to have Mrs. Simmons with us. The April meeting, held in the home of Mrs. J. R. McGraw (Katherine Itner) commemorated Founders' Day. A beautiful fashion show of dresses typifying the styles from 1867 to 1947 delighted the members present.

HELEN GIFFERT

Louise Dobler, Province Vice-President, visited the alumnae group at our March meeting, bringing with her interesting and informative facts of Pi Phi nationally.

A joint Founders' Day celebration will be held with the Oregon Alpha Chapter in April and a meeting to entertain the graduating seniors in May will conclude the club's activities for the term.

JEAN CUREY

PORTLAND, OREGON

Attendance at our meetings continues to grow due in part to the efficiency of our Notification Committee which sends out mimeographed notices of each meeting with directions as to location and also containing any special information from the Executive Board.

At present our big project is a raffle on a beautiful Bendix Washer, and we hope with the aid of our friends who buy tickets to raise a substantial sum. Credit is due to the excellent management on the part of Mrs. William Howell on the tickets.

We are looking forward to having Louise Dobler, our Province Vice-President, as our honor guest at our March meeting. She will be a guest at the Town Club during her Portland visit, and preceding our meeting Mrs. J. W. Copeland, our last year's club president, is planning a luncheon at the Aero Club for Mrs. Dobler and the executive board.

Our Arrowcraft Sales Committee headed by Mrs. Grant T. Anderson reports an interesting re-order of twelve dozen place mats by Ireland's Restaurant at Lloyd's Golf Course, which will be a profit of about $50 to our local club.

Founders' Day will be our last meeting of the year, but during May the outgoing Executive Board plans to have a luncheon for the new board members to wind up a most pleasant and successful year.

GAIL SCHOEL

PULLMAN

The first meeting in the New Year of the Pullman Alumnae Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Weisel. Our delicious pot-luck dinner was eaten by candle light, by necessity, not by choice. The electricity in the Weisel's block was turned off for repairs for about two hours of our meeting time. As January's meeting was to have been rather informal, after a short meeting we played bridge for the remainder of the evening. Mrs. Eric Batchelor and Mrs. Robert Seaman were assisting hostesses.

February's meeting presented a talk about the Settlement School by Mrs. Wyman Cox at the home of Mrs. Chester Dissmore. Mrs. Arthur Kennedy assisted.

Mrs. Wilson Compton, wife of the President of the State College of Washington, discussed the constitution and history of Pi Beta Phi at the home of Mrs. Herman Deutsch at our meeting in March. Mrs. James Jensen will assist Mrs. Deutsch.

ANNETTE SEAMAN (MRS. R. C.)

SALEM—NANCY BLACK WALLACE CLUB

Since the last letter to the ARROW, we have been compelled to bid adieu to Mrs. Eldon Roberts, who has been the Club's very efficient president for the last two years.

She has moved to Seattle, but we are happy to have Mrs. Albert Anderson to replace her.

Another absent from our meetings is Mrs. James Brand, a very active member, who has accompanied her husband, Justice Brand, abroad. He was honored by being appointed to take part in the war crimes trials at Neurnberg, Germany. Mrs. Brand will have unusually interesting experiences, and we anticipate hearing of her adventures when she returns.

We continue to have a great deal of interest in Oregon. At Christmas, the club gave the chapter $50.00 to help buy much needed mattresses. The girls very graciously offer their chapter house for our meetings when we wish to use it.

Plans were formulated at the February meeting to send boxes to Lambda Province's needy child and his family in Finland.

At the March meeting, we will be happy to have Mrs. Dobler as a guest. During this same meeting, plans for our annual rummage sale, to be held the latter part of March, will be completed.

BARBARA PIERCE

SPOKANE

This spring the Spokane Alumnae Club has a full schedule of varied activities.

Plans are under way for the Founders' Banquet in April at the Davenport Hotel. Everyone is busy also with arrangements for a dance May 24, the proceeds from which will be given to the Spokane Organization for Aid to Spastic Children. The dance will be semi-formal with spring flowers as decorations.

Tentative plans have been made to give further assistance to the Finnish family of the child this province is assisting.

Next meeting will be a busy one. The program will include the reading of the constitution and a lecture by an interior decorator.

Contributions have been made to the Red Cross and the March of Dimes. We held a raffle for a white wool blanket this winter and felt quite fortunate in the amount of money we raised.

BARBARA COLE (MRS. G. R.)

SEATTLE

The Seattle Alumnae Club held a rummage sale on February 11 and 12 and netted $273.00. This was the club's major money-making project for the year. The regular February meeting was cancelled because of snow, and plans are being made to substitute a buffet supper and white elephant sale at the chapter house during the University spring vacation.

MU PROVINCE

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

One of the main events in which New Mexico Alumnae Club at Albuquerque, New Mexico, participated was a joint buffet dinner held with New Mexico Alpha Chapter at University of New Mexico on February 17 at the Heights Community Center honoring Olga Siburg, Mu Province President, of Vista, California. Approximately 80 active and alumnae members attended the meeting.

The regular January business meeting was held at the home of Roselle Farris (Mrs. M. E.), followed by a social hour. On January 27 a special business and social meeting was held at the home of Constance C. Modrall (Mrs. J. R.).

On March 28 the club is looking forward to a visit from Mrs. Adele Taylor Alford. Tentative plans are being made to celebrate Founders' Day this year by a dinner with the active and alumnae members in Albuquerque acting as hostesses to alumnae throughout the State.

The Ways and Means committee is making plans for a rummage sale on May 2 at the Barelis Community Center.

JEAN MEIER

BERKELEY

Our club had a tea meeting in January where business was discussed, and plans were made for the initiation banquet which we gave for California Beta Chapter on March 10. We are also joining with the San Francisco alumnae club in planning a joint Founders' Day luncheon in April. The last meeting of the year will be in May when new officers will be installed.

BETTY G. LATHROP

The March 6 meeting was the election of officers and discussion of the Constitution.

During this winter the Seattle Alumnae Club has organized a Junior Auxiliary of younger members. Fifty-five Pi Phis attended the first meeting and elected officers, headed by Isabel Hopkins Gillie as president.

The Seattle Club is joining with the rest of Lambda Province in providing care for a Finnish boy for a year.

RUTH HECHT WELCH

TACOMA (INEZ SMITH SOULE)

For many years we have watched the growth in size and in intellectual importance of our College of Puget Sound here in Tacoma. We have an additional interest now, as many of the local groups are petitioning national fraternities and we are anxious to know which national will go in first.

We are very proud of our Golden Arrow club member, Louise Morris Monfort, Minnesota A. This is Mrs. Monfort's first year in our club, and at our January meeting she told us about her initiation fifty years ago, and recalled some early Pi Phi history. After her talk Ruth Barrett Smith read the initiation ceremony which brought back memories to us all, and made us feel more keenly the beauty of Pi Beta Phi.

We have only one more party to look forward to this year, the May "Husbands' Party," to be held at the home of Dorothy Kirk on Lake Steilacoom.

DOROTHA W. GILBERTSON

YAKIMA (FANNIE WHITENACK LIBBY)

Fannie Whitenack Libby Alumnae Club of Yakima, Washington is making plans for a benefit bridge party during April, proceeds of which will go to the local Memorial Hospital, in memory of our own Pi Phi nurse, Marion Nelson. There will be a Settlement School sale at this party, and big profits are expected. Janet Steward Goldworthy is in charge of arrangements and May Rankin will handle the Settlement School Sale.

Eighteen members attended the pot-luck dinner at the home of May Rankin in February. During March the members drove down the valley to Wapato, to the homes of Betty Whiting Matsen and Mary Nelson Logan for a meeting.

Plans are being made for a Founders' Day breakfast again this year. This is always a big event in Yakima, and Pi Phi from Ellensburg, Wapato, Toppenish, Zillah, and Sunnyside plan to come to Yakima for the observance of the founding of Pi Beta Phi.

The 1947-1948 year will close with a picnic at the home of Myrtle Edwards in June.

RUTH LEY HOWARD

GLENDALE CLUB

The Glendale Alumnae Club is having a most successful year under the able leadership of Rosalie Daus Sloan (Oregon B).

The February meeting held at the home of Cathleen Cameron (California F), was a particularly interesting one. We had as special guests twelve teen-age daughters. Mrs. Beardsley of Beverly Hills, gave a talk on "Art of Design" which was especially enjoyed by our young guests.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Irma Carleton Simmons (Iowa Z). Maria Wilkes will give a talk on "Timely Gardening." There will be election of officers.

The April meeting will be devoted to Founders' Day. We will again enjoy meeting with the San Fernando Valley Club, at the Hollywood Woman's Club. The Glendale Club are their guests this year.

We are having two Spring projects to raise money for our philanthropies. A play was given by the Altadena Penthouse Players on March 15. Our proceeds from this project, as well as from the Rummage sale on April 19, will help us meet our budget for the year.

The alumnae club has hit an all time high for attendance this year. We have had an average attendance of 68. The addition of many younger members has given zest to our club. There is a splendid spirit of co-operation and fellowship.

MARY WILSON KORIAGIN

HONOLULU

The Honolulu Alumnae Club enjoyed a social luncheon and get-together at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on February 1. Between our last meeting and this one a meeting of the executive board was held to formulate plans for the rest of the year.

We are raising money for Pi Phi by selling chances for three magazines, the magazines selected not to exceed $2.00 each.

We have not decided where to hold our Founders' Day meeting, although the Royal is a possibility. Everyone here is so delighted to have it opened to the public once more—it is such a beautiful place.

DOROTHY WIGGINS BOTHMAN

LONG BEACH

Our February meeting of the Alumnae club was a dinner held on the night of the 25th, at the home of Winifred Morris. This meeting was attended by a number of Pi Phi from neighboring chapters, new Pi Phi now living in Long Beach, and a large representation of our own members. We were especially pleased to have Virginia Tatom, Province Vice-president with us and give us such an interesting talk.

The March meeting will be our traditional cooky-shine at the home of Ruth Miller.

LULA DAVIS COCHRAN

LOS ANGELES

Our Senior Group held its annual membership and guest tea in January at the beautiful home of California A. We were delightfully entertained with impersonations by a New York artist.

The home of the "Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County" was our meeting place in February. Here the needs and plans of the Society were explained, giving us a better understanding and more personal interest in our new local philanthropy. Mrs. S. P. Scott, our capable ways and means chairman, reported on the profitable sale of calendars and raffle tickets.

The next meeting is to honor our Settlement School. Its chairman Mrs. V. P. Finley, who gave a successful financial report, is to have a special display of articles.

Two talks, "Accessorizing Wardrobes" and "History Sings" have made the last two meetings of our Professional Group most interesting and drew a good attendance.

The Juniors enjoyed an inspiring meeting with Mrs. Prebble, president of the Professional Group, as their speaker on "Modeling and Charm."

Members of Los Angeles Panhellenic, desirous of organizing Junior groups similar to ours, invited Mrs. Don Carlson, our Junior president, to speak at their meeting and to explain the workings of their club. From all reports we can be justly proud.

For being the third largest contributor to the physiotherapy fund, the money of which was used to sponsor European children through the "Save the Children Federation," we were given the sponsorship of a twelve year old Belgian girl. Our plan is to bring suitable clothing and food to the next meeting to send to her.

A representative group from our club was honored to have Anna Guthrie, prominent Pi Phi with Foreign Service of Y.W.C.A., as a luncheon guest during her visit in our city. For the duration of the war she worked in India. By order of General MacArthur she has the distinction of being the first woman flown to Manila, her previous home, after the signing of the peace. She also thrilled our Professional Group by speaking at their last meeting.

The Alumnae Club has lost one of its distinguished members in the passing of Mrs. Elizabeth von Kleinsmid, wife of Dr. Rufus B. von Kleinsmid, Chancellor of the University of Southern California. With all Pi Phi Alumnae Clubs in the area, we joined in donating to a fund to help finance a Memorial lounge room in the new Y.W.C.A. building of U.S.C.

All groups are enthusiastically anticipating the Founders' Day luncheon to be held jointly with Santa Monica. We are most happy and fortunate to have as our speaker Adele Taylor Alford, the ARROW Editor.

The combined effort of our club with Santa Monica is being concentrated to make an outstanding success of the coming large benefit party to be given in May. Arrangements are under the efficient guidance of Mrs. John F. D'Aule.

MARTHA W. SPATLEN

MARIN COUNTY

Our February meeting was held in the hill-top home of Mrs. John R. George with a buffet luncheon followed by a sewing bee, mending children's garments collected for a spring rummage sale. The election of officers will take place at the March Meeting. Our president, Mrs. Theodore E. Smith, has volunteered to take charge of the sale of handicraft from the Settlement School. A booth of these articles is always a popular attraction at the annual Grape Festival. We are to celebrate Founders' Day in April with an evening meeting at the San Rafael home of Mrs. Roy A. Brown. Included in the Marin County Club are members from San Francisco, Berkeley, Mill Valley, Ross, Novato, San Anselmo, Kentfield, Larkspur, and San Raphael. Alumnae in this area are invited to join our group.

Mrs. ROY A. BROWN

PASADENA

In Pasadena we welcomed the new year of 1947 with one of the most beautiful Rose Parades on record, and Maudie Doyle Prickett, Wyoming A, our Alumnae club president who was chosen as queen mother for the queen of the Tournament of Roses and her Princesses had the honor of riding in the Parade.

Mary King, Colorado A, who is our Ways and Means chairman, made the plans for the purchase of the house at the Pasadena Playhouse on February 12 for "The Late George Apley." At the January board meeting, held at home of Shirley Gibson, Mary distributed the 856 tickets to the various captains who in turn gave them to the people on her team, each one being responsible for ten. The play was a huge success and we were very proud of Maudie who took the part of Angela, one of the leading roles. The profit was over $500, part of which will be used for our local philanthropy of helping to redecorate "Rosemary Cottage," a home for orphaned and teen age girls from broken homes. Betty Bruce, Nebraska B, who is Philanthropy chairman has given generously of her time and efforts in this worthy project.

The regular January meeting was an afternoon tea at Pierre's in San Marino. A most interesting and instructive talk on Russia was given by Henrietta Wilbur, Colorado A and California B, who lived there for several years while her husband was doing important work for U. S. Government.

In February we had a spring fashion show and talk on Magic Modes by Jean Doren, a stylist and several of our daughters acted as models.

Betty Cerini, California F, reports a total of $80 realized from the sale of Settlement School rummage.

In April we plan to have our spring rummage sale.

Mary Adams, one of our former members has recently been married to George Hampson, an executive chemist of Lever Brothers and is living in Cheshire, England.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter Sadtler, Colorado B and I.C., has just celebrated her sixty second anniversary in Pi Beta Phi.

We now have fourteen members who are eligible for the Order of The Golden Arrow.

Our paid memberships and regular attendance has nearly doubled this year due largely to the able guidance of our president and enthusiastic cooperation of everyone in the club.

SHIRLEY RIGDEN GIBSON

PHOENIX

Our January meeting, held at the home of Ruth Muth, featured a supposed White Elephant Sale. (I say supposed because most of the articles contributed were so nice that anyone bringing a true white elephant was embarrassed.) Refreshments were served.

At our February meeting, held at the home of Helen Vinson, we read a letter from the Tucson Alumnae Club asking for statewide interest and aid in their plan to raise enough money to buy a nice gift for presentation to the Arizona A chapter house. We agreed to raise money in our club either to add to the Tucson fund or to present directly to the girls in the house this spring. We started our fund with a penny card game, and made plans for adding to our fund in March.

EMILY SMITH

RENO

At the January meeting of Nevada Alumnae Club, a Planning Board was formed. The purpose of this Board is to plan what is to be done to the chapter house in the way of redecorating and refurbishing. It is hoped that enough funds will be available each year to warrant a long range plan of "keeping the house up." This idea is the outcome of the very successful Hobby Show.

At the February meeting, donations were made to Settlement School, the Loan Fund, and Holt House. A committee was appointed to bring the History up to date. In March, the meeting was devoted to History and Constitution.

April promises to be a very busy month, as plans are being formulated for a Settlement School Tea to be given primarily for the actives, Mother's club and alumnae. At the fall tea, townspeople are given first choice at buying the Settlement School articles. At the regular April meeting, new officers will be elected. On the 28th of April, either an informal luncheon or formal banquet will honor Founders' Day. In May, new officers will assume their new duties.

VERNA ANDERSON

SACRAMENTO

The first meeting of the Sacramento Club was a luncheon at "The Portals." Several alumnae from Woodland, Davis and other outlying districts attended. Dr. Jean Warren, New York Δ, Dean of Women at the University of California at Davis was among them.

The second meeting was devoted to the Constitution. It was held January 21 at the home of Jean Kennedy. Afterwards refreshments were served and bridge was played.

On March 4 a Chinese dinner was served at the home of Gervais Prentiss Haas, Florida B, with bridge as the evening's diversion.

The traditional Sunday Brunch was held on the 23rd of March, an event eagerly awaited each year by the members. This year according to custom Jessie Moer Hamilton will be the custodian of the ham and eggs at this annual spring meeting.

Great plans are under way for a fine Founders' Day celebration.

The war has brought many Pi Phi alumnae to Sacramento with their Army husbands. Although they returned to their homes upon release from active service, several are now back here to make their permanent homes. Among these are Mary Davis (Mrs. Hal), from Florida, and Frances Boyd, from Minnesota.

JEAN KENNEDY

SAN DIEGO

Our club has had a steady growth in membership this year and we have enjoyed the association with so many new members.

The January meeting at Kathleen Chandler Bach's was our Chapter Loyalty Day. Roll call was answered by stating our chapters and giving some information about them. The honored guests were eleven out of the seventeen founders of the club, in 1916. We enjoyed greatly their reminiscences of early meetings.

For the February meeting we were entertained by Mary Phillip Schmitt in her new home at a lovely buffet supper. It was announced that Anne Guthrie, international secretary of the Y.W.C.A. would be in San Diego February 28, and many Pi Phis planned to go to hear her lecture at her work in Manila.

March meeting was a luncheon at the home of Margaret Bowie Wallace, with election of officers for the coming year.

Founders' Day meeting will be a supper at the home of Maxine Harris Stanford, with Patricia Dunklee as program chairman.

The May meeting will end a very successful and enjoyable year.

HELEN P. FITZPATRICK

SAN JOSE

The San Jose Alumnae Club continues active and congenial with an average attendance of ten. In January, a box of warm clothing was sent to an Estonian family residing in Germany. Each member of the club sent two children's books to the Settlement School library. The April meeting is always the high light of the year with a cooky-shine and a suitable Founders' Day program.

DOROTHY KIZER HEATH

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

The January meeting of the San Fernando Valley Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club was held at the home of Mary Evelyn Woodward. The Club has adopted a French child and is sending two packages of food and clothing to France every month. Members of the club bring donations to the monthly meetings.

The February meeting was held at the home of Katherine Johnson Devine. It was a business meeting. Settlement School goods were sold at this meeting. Members of the club were happy to hear that the club ranked third in the Province in Magazine sales. Ten dollars contribution was voted by the Club to be donated to the War Memorial Park to be constructed between Van Nuys and Sherman Oaks. Also a contribution was sent to the Y.W.C.A. Building Fund to honor the memory of Mrs. Rufus B. Kleinsmid who was an outstanding member of Pi Beta Phi.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Louise Foell. Louella Ballerino, well known American designer, will talk to the group. Mrs. Ballerino is the sister of Corinne Smith Pyle who is a member of the Valley Club. The Founders' Day dinner will be held April 24, and members of the Valley Club are looking forward to their meeting with the Glendale Alumnae Club again this year.

JEANNETTE C. BUTTON

SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco Alumnae Club has enjoyed a full and successful year under the capable leadership of its president, Mrs. Glenn Wynkoop, and the fine cooperation of its officers and members.

Among the recent events attended by the alumnae club members in San Francisco was a cooky-shine buffet given by Mrs. H. C. Hendee. The buffet took place at Mrs. Hendee's home on February 25, 1947. Mrs. Jack Logan was the chairman responsible for the decorations and Mrs. William G. Fairfield was in charge of the games. During the evening the raffle of $10.00 worth of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School merchandise took place. Chances on this merchandise were sold at the annual Pi Beta Phi Settlement School sale. The lucky winner of this raffle was Lois Heffon. The buffet welcomed many new members to the San Francisco Alumnae Club and they, along with the older members, appreciated the evening's entertainment provided for them by Mrs. Hendee and her able assistants.

The San Francisco Club is busy making plans for Founders' Day, but at this time it is not fully decided whether or not the various clubs of the Bay Area will join forces to celebrate this day.

The last meeting for this year will be a musical held in the month of June. The entertainment will be provided, at least in part, by members of the San Francisco group. The husbands of the members of the San Francisco Club are to be guests at this meeting.

ELIZABETH SCHAEFERS

SAN MATEO COUNTY

The San Mateo County Alumnae Club enjoys its monthly meetings on the third Thursday of each month at the homes of members, with attendance increasing each month. Eighteen were present at the last meeting. Mrs. Adda Wilson, Iowa B, Golden Arrow member, has been a regular attendant and inspires everyone with her youthful spirit and lovely appearance.

Several members visited the School for Spastic children in Millbrae, and a committee has been formed to meet with the local Recreation Commission to try to further much needed community recreational facilities.

All San Mateo County alumnae are welcome at each meeting.

CHRISTINA BARTLETT

SOUTH COAST

The South Coast Alumnae Club is finishing a very happy year under the efficient leadership of Ada Nutten Chambers. The meetings have alternated between Laguna Beach and the Bay Area with one meeting in Santa Ana.

We are most fortunate in that Olga Charles Siburg lives near enough that she can occasionally visit us and keep us in touch, with what the actives are doing and saying. Then we are also anticipating an unofficial visit from Adele Taylor Alford.

The club is toying with the idea of keeping on hand, settlement school products both for the tourist and for the "I must have a gift" problem of our own members. There are a great many difficulties in the way of our staging any benefits.

This alumnae club is very proud of our four Golden Arrow members—Iva Welsh, Wisconsin A, Eunice Welsh Gillis, Wisconsin A, Malinda Hill Woodworth, Ohio A, and Ida Smith Griffith, Kansas A.

We of the South Coast Alumnae send greetings and best wishes to all Pi Phis everywhere.

MYRELO JOHNSTON THOMAS

TUCSON

The Tucson Alumnae Club has had two active months since my last letter. The Panhellenic program meeting at the home of our president in January was unusually interesting as the guest speaker was our popular Dean McCready of the University of Arizona. Because the club has voted to hold each member responsible for $5.00 towards a gift of silver for the Pi Phi house, we devise ways and means to earn our quotas. At this meeting, a Settlement School luncheon set was auctioned off for more than $11.00, the first amount above individual checks for the silver fund. The corresponding secretary was instructed to write to the Phoenix club, inviting them over for Founders' Day with the Tucson Pi Phi, also suggesting their joining in the silver fund and all reporting April 28. Individuals are writing Arizona A alumnae who might care to participate in the project.

February 11 we met with Betty Cromwell for the constitution and history program. We also enjoyed a timely and lively discussion with a guest speaker, Marjory Robinson, probably the best informed teacher in our public schools, on the question "Educational Legislation." A member earned five dollars selling chances on an angel food cake, which was won by our only member of the Order of the Golden Arrow, Elsie Holmes Neal. She said she had never won a thing in her life, not realizing that she has won the hearts of Pi Phi due to her faithful attendance at all affairs.

We appreciate transfer notices from home clubs of newcomers to Tucson. Due to the nature of our resort, and consequently more or less transient town, it is impossible to locate the many Pi Phi who come here.

Pi Phi here have added pride in our own Rosemary Taylor, author of Chicken Every Sunday, since the Tucson Little Theatre recently produced the play and was forced to hold over the production a fourth evening to accommodate record crowds.

Greetings to Pi Phi everywhere.

JUNE 10. Annual club report is due to be mailed by alumnae club corresponding secretary to the Alumnae Club Editor. This should be a summary of the year's activities, contributions made to the Settlement School, Loan Fund, Active Chapter, Holt House, and so forth. It should be limited from 100 to 200 words. (See Manual of Instructions for Contributions to the ARROW.)

JULY 15. Alumnae Club corresponding secretary send Personals and In Memoriam notices to the Central Office for the September ARROW.

Please! Again we ask that corresponding secretaries especially and members generally who send in material for the ARROW read their calendar in the back of the ARROW. Again this year many chapter letters have come to the Editor of the ARROW, instead of to the chapter letter editor (twelve for this last issue alone) Alumnae personals come all too often to the Editor when they should go to Central Office, and must be sent on there; feature material which should come to the Editor goes to Central Office, and must be forwarded.

Much fine material has been omitted this year, because of space limitations—for this we ask forgiveness, and promise to use it in future issues, wherever possible.

Trees

There was once a tree
 It was very sad.
 It wished it had some friends.
 One day some bees came
 And made their nest in the tree.
 The next day some birds built
 Their nests in the tree.
 The tree was happy once more.
