SUMMER 1959

God's Promises

"God has not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through.
God has not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

But God has promised strength for the day,
Rest for the laborer, light on the way;
Grace for the trial, help from above,

Quoted by JANET BAUSMAN
at meeting of Ohio Beta Chapter . . .

Announcement from Grand Council:

The 1958 Convention passed the following resolution: "That, there be a special Committee of Seven (7) members appointed by the Grand Council immediately following the close of the 1958 Convention. The Committee shall:

- a. Receive and compile information and recommendations for nominees for elective National Officers, and ascertain inevitable vacancies.
- b. Submit such information to the fraternity at least one month prior to the opening meeting of the next convention at which an election is to be held, and to the nominating committees at the next convention.
- c. Receive information and suggestions from the fraternity-at-large for improvement in nomination and election procedures, and submit recommendations for same at the convention."

Grand Council considered carefully the personnel of this committee for if it is to be effective it is important that it represent a cross section of the fraternity—both geographically and from the standpoint of experience. It is my privilege to announce to you the names of the committee members.

Chairman, Ruth Barrett Smith (Mrs. Warren G.), 1100 East Ocean Boulevard, Long Beach 2, California. Mrs. Smith has served as Grand Vice-President and as Chairman of the Settlement School Committee.

HOLIDAY Article

Reactions to the Stephan Birmingham's article in the October issue of Holiday Magazine have been varied. George Starr Lasher, in the fall issue of The Rattle of Theta Chi, reviews the article and concludes his review with the answer to Mr. Birmingham's question:

"Unfortunately, Mr. Birmingham didn't even try to answer the question raised by his title, 'Are College Fraternities Necessary?' From a background of half a century of observation on campuses of various sizes and types, I am willing to answer forthrightly that they are not, but I am equally certain that those who really know fraternities and look at them without prejudice will agree that they are highly desirable. Why?

"Because in a period of more than 125 years they have proved that it is the good in a social institution that causes it to persist.

"Because there is no administrator on a fraternity campus who is on record as being opposed to fraternities, and a great number strongly approve of them.

"Because, being true examples of a democracy in action, they give the college student the best possible experiences and training for life in a democracy.

"Because they give the individual an experience in group living that teaches him most effectively how to live and work with others.

"Because life in a fraternity chapter develops in the individual a more thoroughgoing sense of social responsibility than is developed by any other campus group.

"Because fraternity members are trained through actual experiences to meet social situations confidently, for they have been instructed in the social amenities that make for comfortable, civilized living.

"Because, the fraternity chapter being a comparatively small organization, members are given an opportunity to develop leadership potentialities.

"Because fraternities, both on the local and the national level, are concerned with setting high standards in scholarship, manners, dress, and campus citizenship, much is done to encourage members to strive for success in these fields.

"Because fraternities are the most effective agency on the campus for the development of lifelong friendships, the finest by-products of a college education.

"Because, and this is most important, there is no satisfactory substitute for fraternities to be found on college campuses."

We Welcome Michigan Delta

→ The installation of a new chapter of Pi Beta Phi comes about as a result of many months of planning and hard work. March 7 was the date of installation for Michigan Delta, the 104th chapter of Pi Beta Phi, and a proud day for all the Pi Phis that had worked to make it possible.

As counselor for the Pi Phi Delta Colony at Albion College, my work began in early September, after much of the foundation for establishing a new chapter had been laid. In December of 1957, Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis, Director of Membership, the Epsilon Province President and Vice-President, Mrs. Christiansen and Mrs. Koch, made a visit to Albion College to look into the possibility of establishing a chapter on the campus. Their report to Grand Council was favorable and the chapters and clubs in Epsilon Province were contacted and asked to express their opinions on the subject. With their approval the idea of a fourth Michigan chapter was presented to the 1958 Convention which voted to grant a charter to Pi Phi Delta Colony at Albion College, Albion, Michigan.

The news was received by the Pi Phis in Albion, who immediately began making plans for finding and furnishing a lodge to be ready for rush in mid-September. Mrs. David Strickler & Mrs. Ernest Fierke found the lodge . . . one that had been used by Kappa Alpha Theta when they reestablished their chapter on the campus in 1954. With the help of a Jackson decorator, it was furnished and ready for rush.

During the summer, two Missouri Beta Pi Phis agreed to come to Albion to serve as Counselors for the new chapter: Lida Smith as graduate Student Counselor, and Janine Renaud as assistant counselor. They arrived before school started to help plan and participate in rush. Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis, Director of Membership, and Mrs. James F. Speaker, Grand Secretary, were on campus for the entire three week rush period. Pi Phis from the other chapters in Michigan were on hand for each rush party, and did a marvelous job of working together to make rush the success it was. On October 6 bids were extended to 20 girls, and they were duly pledged to the colony.

The real work for the counselors began. There were pledge lessons to be learned, officers to be elected, and duties to be done. We were faced with the fact that our pledges had to do the work and fill the places usually accorded to experienced actives. The group immediately set to work doing the tasks and duties expected of them. They were quite proud to be wearing the golden arow colony pin, and their fraternity education and their Pi Phi fun were always done with the goal in mind that one day they would be accorded the great honor of becoming members of Pi Beta Phi.

Miss Clover Johnson, Assistant National Scholarship chairman, and the assistant Counselor, with the help of one of our alumnæ pledges, Dr. Eleanor McLaughlin of the Albion faculty, taught the pledges early of Pi Phi's goal of high scholarship and many long hours were spent helping the pledges toward this goal. The semester went by so quickly that before we knew it, it was time for finals. When grades came out we found that fifteen girls had made their grades, and that these girls, along with our five alumnæ pledges, would constitute the charter members of Michigan Delta.

The weekend of March 6, 7, & 8 was set aside as installation weekend. Mrs. Wm. H. Mansfield & Mrs. Benjamin C. Lewis were to be the installing officers. Chapters and alumnæ clubs from the surrounding area were invited to attend. One delegate from each of the three Michigan chapters was elected to attend; these delegates were Nancy Fletcher, Mich. A; Connie Crockett, Mich. B; & Diane Williams, Mich. Gamma. Mrs. Carl H. Morse, Epsilon Province President, and Mrs. Albert P. Teetzel, Epsilon Province Vice-President, were on hand for the entire weekend.

The weekend proved to be a typical one for Michigan, complete with snow and sleet. Nevertheless many guests came from far and near to share in our happiness. Three girls came all the way from Ontario Beta to be with us for the entire weekend! Pledging was held on Friday, March 6 at the new Theta Lodge, which they generously loaned us for the occasion. This was followed by a Buffet Supper and cookie-shine and a talk on "My Seven Gifts to Pi Beta Phi." Following this, those to be initiated heard the reading of the Constitution. That night, there was a Slumber Party for all new Pi Phi-to-be at one of the freshman annexes used by the college in the fall semester.

Saturday was Installation Day. Many telegrams and letters were received congratulating the new chapter and its members. Initiation was held in the afternoon in the Wesley lounge of Goodrich Chapel. This was followed by the installation ceremony. This truly was the climax of many long months of hard work on the part of pledges, actives, and alumnæ. For those that were privileged to see the installation proceedings, it was a never-to-be-forgotten experience.

The evening was set aside for the Installation Banquet in the Mary Sykes room of Baldwin Hall. Amid flowers and candlelight we ate dinner, and following this, we sang songs: "Ring Ching Ching," "Arrow Man," and many other favorites. The theme of the banquet was "Pi Phi Lights," and to start off the program we each lit a tiny "wishing candle" and thought of a Pi Phi we wished could be with us. Mrs. Teetzel then gave the roll call of chapters. Mrs. Lewis, who had worked so long and so hard to light the 104th flame of Pi Beta Phi, spoke on the "Lighting of the Flame." As toastmistress, I had the honor of presenting the awards to the chapter. The award for the highest scholarship, a Pi Beta Phi pin given to the chapter by the Washington, D.C. Alumnae club, was awarded to Nancy Schultz, the chapter president. I also had the very great privilege of presenting the pledge award, which the chapter named in my honor. This Lida Mae Smith pledge award was given to Jane Ottman. Mrs. Mansfield then spoke to us as the "Keeper of the Flame." Her words were taken to heart as each Michigan Delta promised herself to guard well the proud flame of Pi Beta Phi, to see that it burns brighter with its 104th addition. Following the Loving Cup Ceremony with Mrs. Mansfield and Nancy Schultz, Mrs. Carl H. Morse gave the Candle-lighting Ceremony, assisted by Janine Renaud and Nancy Schultz. The banquet ended with the chapter singing "Ocean to Ocean" and "Pi Phi Lights" and the reciting of the "If Poem" by the toastmistress.

The next morning at the lodge a model chapter meeting was conducted by the Grand President, who then installed Nancy Schultz as the first President of Michigan Delta. After the meeting, Michigan Deltas & their guests attended Church services at Goodrich Chapel.

That afternoon a reception was held at Baldwin Hall for over 300 guests who braved the bad weather to welcome us to Pi Phi and to the campus. Dean of Women Audrey K. Wilder and Academic Dean

Emil Leffler and his wife stood in the receiving line as representatives of the college with the National, Province, and chapter officers.

It was a very busy and a very wonderful weekend, and we were all sorry to see it coming to an end. At the end of the tea, one of the new actives said to me, "It's all over." To this I replied, "No, it's just beginning." For many months Pi Phi Delta had worked hard to become a Pi Phi chapter. Now that their dream is a reality, now they feel and know the great responsibility that has been placed upon them. It has been a joy to work with the chapter and with the Albion alumnae. Their cooperation has been wonderful. Now that they are a chapter they are ready to join with Pi Phis from Ocean to Ocean to keep the flame of Pi Beta Phi ever bright by their loyalty, their service, and their friendship to all.

Of the many telegrams, gifts, and letters we received in welcome to Pi Beta Phi, there is only room here to tell you of one. It was a poem sent to us by Virginia Gamma, and was read at the banquet:

This March 7th of '59
Sincere best wishes true and fine
Virginia Gamma sends to you
104th in the wine and blue
Now with us as years go by You'll follow the arrow of Pi Beta Phi.

To all who have wished us welcome, many, many, thanks.

Good Luck, Pi Beta Phi!

Months of organizing and planning are over for the new Michigan Delta chapter of Pi Beta Phi. Last week-end highlighted the installation program on the Albion campus. Every minute from Thursday evening to Sunday evening was planned with initiation, installation, and a reception in Baldwin hall.

You new Pi Phis are tired but happy and proud, we know. Albion has not seen such festivities and honored national and local guests since the re-installation of the Pi chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta exactly four years ago last weekend.

Each of you and your hard-working alumnae and advisors can be proud of a gracious entrance into the sorority scene on the Albion campus. You have already settled into the campus routine as shown by your participation in the Sigma Alpha Iota song-fest recently, your participation in certain intramural events, and your entering of candidates in campus contests.

Years ahead will find you with a quota of women students which you must begin building now. They will be proud to say that they were Pi Beta Phis. We hope they will feel the same about having had the affiliation on the Albion campus. We take this opportunity to wish you the very best in all you do—rush, campus activities, and individual honors.

Facts About Albion College

→ IN THE year 1835, two years before Michigan entered the Union as a state, Albion College was chartered for the instruction of "men, Indians and women."

Church-related and consciously Christian from the beginning, the college acquired a size by the 1880's of which it was justly proud. Approximately 365 students were then in attendance and the college had grown to three commodious buildings, neatly enclosed within a white picket fence.

Albion's student body now numbers approximately 1250, drawn especially from Michigan and neighboring states but with a generous representation from distant states and foreign lands. Albion's faculty includes 85 men and women, authorities in their own fields and deeply interested in youth. Albion's buildings, for the most part in the neo-Grec or colonial style of architecture, are situated on a main campus quadrangle, with men's and women's residence halls and a 16-acre athletic field nearby.

The standing of a college or its academic recognitions are of primary importance to all prospective students. Today Albion is accredited by the following five national bodies: the American Association of University Women, the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, the American Chemical Society, the National Association of Schools of Music, and the University Senate of the Methodist Church. It is also accredited by the regional standardizing group, The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Albion is also approved by the Michigan State Department of Public Instruction, and the graduates of Albion College qualify for the Michigan elementary or secondary certificate, depending on the courses they have taken.

Albion holds first place among the private colleges of Michigan in the number of its graduates appearing in Who's Who in America.

The Albion campus has chapters of the following 15 national honor societies: Phi Beta Kappa (oldest and most distinguished national honor society in the nation), Mortar Board (senior women's scholastic and service), Omicron Delta Kappa (national honorary for men), Alpha Lambda Delta (freshman women's scholastic), Phi Eta Sigma (freshman men's scholastic), Alpha Phi Gamma (journalistic), Beta Beta Beta (biology), Delta Sigma Rho (forensic), Eta Sigma Phi (classics), Kappa Mu Epsilon (mathematics), Kappa Pi (art), Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (men's musical), Sigma Alpha Iota (women's musical), Sigma Delta Psi (men's athletic), Theta Alpha Phi (dramatics).

Albion College offers all the regular courses of a four-year liberal arts college. Through combined course arrangements with the University of Michigan and other leading universities and professional schools, Albion also offers three-year pre-professional courses in dentistry, engineering, medical technology, medicine, nursing, law and forestry. Degree courses are also offered in preparation for the Christian ministry and other forms of religious service.

From Report of Katherine A. Towle, retiring President of NAWDC. NAWDC Meeting, March 18-22, 1959 . . .

"In this era of increasing enrollments, there is all too often, at least in co-educational institutions, a tendency to push women students and their interests into the background, sometimes without their even being conscious of it. They need stout champions and who more logical or better equipped than NAWDC? And for those of us in colleges and universities what better way to accomplish our objectives than by a closer working relationship with LAWS on both the national and local levels? Many problems beset students and deans these days: increasing dishonesty in examinations; penalties for infractions of rules; early marriages; rushing procedures and policies; pressure of extracurricular activities, to name a few. I can envisage NAWDC and LAWS tackling these and similar problems through joint committees or commissions and coming up with answers which would be of lasting significance to students and personnel workers throughout the land."

From Opposite Ends of the United States— Good Republicans both!

Clare Williams, a story on whom appeared in the Winter Arrow, has just returned to Washington after a swing through Alaska. The picture was made in Fairbanks, Alaska.

From Fairbanks, writes Mary Shipman, Washington Alpha. I am married to Alfred J. Lomen, member of a pioneer Alaskan family from Nome. Our two children (Gilbert, 13, and Julie, 10) are 4th generation of the family to live in Alaska which is rather unusual in this young country. I was president of the Seattle Alumnae Club for the year 1953-1954. We moved to Fairbanks in July, 1954, where my husband is manager of Yukon Equipment Company. Previously we had lived in Nome.

I have been fairly active in community affairs. I have been on the Girl Scout board, the Federated Fund board (United Good Neighbors) and in 1957 was the first woman to be drive chairman. In 1958 I was president of the Fairbanks Garden Club which is affiliated with the National Federation of Garden Clubs. The same year former Gov. Mike Stepovich appointed me to represent the Central District of Alaska on a five member board for the Dept. of Library Service.

Recently I have become interested in Republican politics and am now president of the Women's Republican Club of Fairbanks and am vice-chairman of the Republican Central District Committee of Alaska. This district we laughingly say is about the size of Texas. Clare came to Fairbanks Feb. 25th where she spoke at a banquet on the 26th. I accompanied her then to Anchorage, Juneau and Ketchikan where she met with Republican leaders.

This picture was taken when Clare was given a dog team ride by Libby Westcott, one of our leading lady dog mushers. This month the North American Championship races will be held here in Fairbanks.

The University of Alaska is in Fairbanks, but there are no sororities or fraternities. We have no Panhellenic organization here, but I believe they do in Anchorage.

As intelligent members of the human race we know that the purpose of the world is not to provide us with constant bliss or aimless gaiety, but with opportunities to strengthen and develop our moral and spiritual selves. The world provides us with ever-changing challenges to our faith, our courage, and our dreams—and ever-changing opportunities to develop ourselves beyond our earth bound beginnings.

Sometimes I think that by giving of our personal intangibles—such as love, friendship, respect, and kindness—to those whom we hold dear—we are giving to ourselves a bit of eternal life whose value is beyond human comprehension.

Every organism has one central need, and that is fulfill itself. The central drive of an acorn is to become an oak, of a puppy to become a dog, of a child to become a person in the full sense of the word. It is these steps of fulfillment which give joy and meaning to life.—Excerpts from: "An Investment In Youth," Convention Speech by Edith Huey Shelton, The Alpha Phi Quarterly

News FROM LITTLE PIGEON

Edited by Lois Snyder Finger, Iowa Z

→ Forty-nine years have passed since the Pi Phi first set foot in Gatlinburg—in 1910. By 1912 the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School was a going concern with a one room, one teacher, thirteen pupil school. In 1913 Mary O. Pollard became the teacher. Here is her word picture of the first days of what is now Pi Phi's astonishing and successful philanthropic accomplishment.

"My arrival in Gatlinburg in the fall of 1913 was most inauspicious. It was hot. The letter notifying the previous teacher that I was coming to take her place did not arrive till after I did, and I had to break the news myself.

"What the Burg was like when I first saw it as we rounded the curve to Miss Nancy's house no one who enters now can imagine. Only old inhabitants know what it looked like—the old Methodist Church with gaping holes where windows had been; the narrow, rough road full of boulders; Squire Maple's store and house; the little old school house on the corner where the Arrowcraft Shop now stands; the old 'church house' with no foundations and with coarse wire over the windows; the miry road leading to the Huff's house; and Squire Ogle's store. Up the lane from the main road was the lone teacher's cottage with the old barn in front of it at the foot of the hill.

"My heart stood still. I wondered how I could ever make friends. I pulled myself together and used my common sense. I just lived there, laughed at my countless mistakes, visited, received visitors, proved myself just folks like the people around me, and I never had friends whom I more esteemed and admired than those I saw in Gatlinburg from 1913 to 1916.

"Some things that stick in my memory—calling on Mrs. Ogle to teach me how to make a nest for a setting hen; the first auto that came to the Burg with me and the entire school rushing to the door to watch it splash through the ford over to Ogle's store; the first Christmas tree in the Burg for which the program was to begin at 10 in the morning and how everybody was there at eight and the whole program was over by ten; visits to Aunt Liddy Whaley and the morning she brought me a basket as a gift and seated herself on the floor to watch the teacher dress; how cold we were that first winter with no foundation under the cottage and wind whistling up through the floor cracks, and only green wood to burn in the fireplace; Mattie Ogle counting 32 kinds of flowers on her trip for the cows in the Turkey Nest; taking my Tomato Club girls to Maryville College and introducing them to their first train ride, first electric light, toilet, and bathtub; prayer meetings at the fork of the river; the sings including an Old Harp Singing at Pigeon Forge; and the spellings."

As we approach the Golden Anniversary of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School (1962), a review of the project indicates that the school, itself, has become a four building, twelve grade, twenty-five full-time and three part-time teacher, 600 pupil, county supervised school. (Besides the four school buildings there are eight other buildings in use on the property.)

In 1949 Pi Phi leased to the county, for $1.00 per year and upkeep, its school buildings and playground, and gave enough land upon which to erect a grade school. Pi Phi continues to pay the salaries of three teachers to make for a fuller curriculum, and gives moral and supervisory support to the school. When the county assumed most of the responsibility for the school the Fraternity was freed to extend its efforts and capabilities in other fields. It had had a nurse since 1919 and it was free to build a Health Center; it had revived the almost lost art of weaving and it was free to build the Arrowcraft Shop; it converted the first buildings which housed the teachers and the staff into two dormitories—one for girls and one for boys, and built the Ruth Barrett Smith Staff House; and fifteen years ago it launched a Summer Craft Workshop in conjunction with the University of Tennessee, and so put into summer use its buildings and grounds.

The Craft Workshop has followed the usual amazing progress of Pi Phi undertakings. To meet the demands of this new, popular, and fast growing project whose fame and value extend not only to the boundaries of our own country but to many foreign lands and also to government craft circles, to meet the Workshop needs, Pi Phi's newest and possibly the most fascinating and unusual of all its building projects will be completed for use in the Workshop this summer, the remodeling of the red barn—to become The Red Barn. This converted building is made possible to a great extent because of two legacies received by the Settlement School. The furnishings, in some part, will be made possible because some members of the Fraternity have sent memorial gifts to the School.

It is exciting and enticing to contemplate the boundless potentialities which exist for the Fraternity on its approximately 77 acres of scenic property in Gatlinburg with the varied and well established buildings there. Vision, imagination, and long range planning can result in extending Pi Phi's sphere of spiritual influence and material assistance to far, limitless horizons.

Maid of Cotton

Malinda Diggs Berry, a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority at Oklahoma State University, is the 1959 Maid of Cotton. She is the 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Berry (Cynthalice Diggs) of Stillwater. Her father is an independent oil producer.

At the university, Malinda was both an honor student and beauty queen. A junior majoring in English and history, she was on the Dean's list and was a member of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English sorority. She was a yearbook beauty and also was cited by the yearbook for outstanding achievement on campus.

Last summer Malinda attended Harvard Summer School in Cambridge and also was a representative to the national Pi Beta Phi convention in Swampscott, Massachusetts. In 1957 she was National American Royal Queen in Kansas City, Missouri.

Malinda competed with 19 other Cotton Belt beauties for the honor of representing the American cotton industry on a world-wide fashion and good will tour which began in late January. After visiting Nassau and 29 major cities in the United States and Canada, she will be the first Maid of Cotton to fly around the world. Next summer she is scheduled to visit 14 places in the Far East, Asia, and Europe.

Malinda will take with her on her tour 21 suitcases of beautiful sports, day, and evening fashions—all cotton, of course! The Maid of Cotton tour is sponsored each year by the National Cotton Council, the Memphis Cotton Carnival Association, and the Cotton Exchanges of Memphis, New York, and New Orleans.

Left: A ladylike dress for afternoon through evening. The portrait-necked silhouette in black and white teams up boldly in this wide-pocketed frock iced in eyelet embroidered white piqué. Right: A cotton ballgown for a many-splendored evening. Flower printed in colors of coral, pink, gold and bronze on cotton satin, this feminine gown is a silhouette destined for many galas. A jewelled petal bodice softly contrasts with its cummerbund effect.

Central Office

WRITES PEGGY DICK:

Here are the pictures of the NEW LOOK at CO. We think we look beautiful and are awfully proud of the new office.

The Graphotype (far side) and Addressograph machines. The former makes the addressograph plates. The ARROW run is done on the Addressograph (takes 2 1/2 days) and we use it for addressing mailing labels and envelopes.

View of office from Addressograph machine location. (#2 is located behind files on left.) This is the membership records department (first 4 desks), bookkeeping and jewelry department (fifth desk) and Magazine Agency (sixth desk and desk on far left). Closed door is to storeroom and open door is to my office.

The duplicating, supply, chapter & club order, and mailing department. That is the new Multilith on the right.

My office and me. It has been a long hard winter and I surely look it! The only part of the office which was straightened up for the pictures was my desk and I am still hunting for things.

"Miss Ella of Tech" Ranks High Among Country's Top Journalism Teachers

From the Indiana Publisher

A check on the Hoosier teacher who has had the most deserved recognition from colleagues and citizens alike would find Miss Ella Sengenberger of Arsenal Technical High School in Indianapolis, near the top of the list.

It is pretty well the consensus that "Miss Ella of Tech" is tops in the Indiana high school journalism field.

Ella Sengenberger, Illinois B

More than 15 honors can quickly be counted by questioning her multitude of friends. Among them are the Gold Key from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in 1933; a "Service Pin" from the National Scholastic Press Association in 1936 to teachers who were "pioneers" in high school journalism; an honorary master's degree from Franklin College in 1941 for distinguished journalism teaching; "All-American Adviser" by NSPA in 1947; and Theta Sigma Phi's award in 1952 for "outstanding contribution to journalism in Indiana." Her most recent honor was presented in May, 1958, by Pi Lambda Theta, educational honorary for women, for her outstanding work in education.

Miss Sengenberger taught her first official journalism class in 1925, and since then, it has been a prerequisite to all staff members of the Arsenal Cannon newspaper and yearbook staffs.

Pi Beta Phi Points with Pride to The American Mother of 1958

American Mothers Committee, Inc., has announced as their choice for American Mother of 1958, May Roper Coker, D.C. Alpha.

Born in Gibson, North Carolina, educated at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, in Virginia, and briefly at George Washington University, now residing in Hartsville, South Carolina, May Roper Coker grew up in the national capital. This true daughter of the South has been chosen the American Mother of 1958.

While in college, May Roper was employed during the summers as a director of one of the newly organized playgrounds in Washington, D.C. After her graduation she became superintendent of the girls' work of all the playgrounds of the District of Columbia under Mr. James E. West, the first Chief Executive of the Boy Scouts of America when that organization was begun in the United States. Her father, David C. Roper, was Assistant Postmaster General; later, Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and still later, Secretary of Commerce.

At the age of twenty-four May Roper married David R. Coker, of Hartsville, South Carolina, a widower with five young children. To the average person this role of wife and mother would have been most difficult. She was the second wife of a distinguished husband, many years her senior. As a young bride she came to a home where the children were cared for by Mrs. Richardson, the mother of the first Mrs. Coker, who had died some years before. Plans had been made for Mrs. Richardson to establish her home elsewhere but the new Mrs. Coker insisted that she remain as a member of the household. When Mrs. Richardson died many years later she evidenced her love and admiration for Mrs. Coker by naming her executrix of her will, knowing that her smallest wish would be carried out faithfully.

Mrs. Coker's deep interest in religious and civic affairs was a contributing factor in influencing all the children to be sensitive to the social needs of others. They are now successfully established in their own homes and give generously of their time and means toward furthering the common good.

Mrs. Coker's husband was a specialist in progressive scientific farming, and visitors came from all over the world who were interested in scientific breeding of new crops, especially cotton. Her own love for flowers encompasses her entire community, her state and even wider horizons. She inspired the farm and mill hands to love the beautiful, teaching them how to improve their homes and how to raise flowers and vegetables in their gardens. She developed a large tract of neglected woodland into the now well-known "Kalmia Gardens." She strives continuously to make Hartsville a "City of beautiful gardens" with an added prayer that it may become a "City of beautiful lives."

Mrs. Coker has never stopped being a mother. She extends her motherly help to all around her. She has helped, and continues to help, the sick, the crippled and the poor, the lonely foreign students and many others, opening her doors and bringing them in to share her home with her. Friend and counselor of rich and poor, white and black, individually and through organizations, Mrs. Coker is an inspiring and consecrated leader in promoting programs for improving race relations. She is a leader in the business life and projects of Hartsville, particularly through her concern for the welfare and progress of employed personnel. She is a trustee and benefactor of Byerly Hospital; benefactor of the Opportunity School of South Carolina; member of the American Association of University Women; member of the South Carolina Coordinating Council for Education and the Advisory Committee for Adult Education; member of the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee of Coker College; recipient of the first award ever given by Hartsville Rotary Club as "Man of the Year"; recipient of the Certificate of Merit for Distinguished Service to Agriculture from Clemson College; ardent church worker and Sunday school teacher; and above all, homemaker and devoted Mother.

To the honors she has already received is added the highest tribute of all, recognition of her ideal Motherhood in naming her the American Mother of 1958.

The Rochester, N.Y. Alumnae Club announces that one of their group has become the first woman president of the American Collegiate Retailing Association. Miss Edwina B. Hogadone, a past president of Zonta International, has received this great honor and we feel that all Pi Phis should be justly proud.

Miss Hogadone was a member of Michigan B, 1928. At the present time Miss Hogadone directs the Rochester Institute of Technology retailing department and she has held this position since 1936.

She will compete with 130 other sweethearts throughout the United States and Canada for the title of "International Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." Lynn was a guest at the Houston Alumni Chapter's December Dance; her escort was Maurice Doke, an honor student and a member of the University of Texas football team.

The queen and honor court for Miami University's Sesquicentennial Ball the past weekend, chosen primarily for beauty and popularity through campus-wide election, are brainy as well. Their identity was kept secret until coronation ceremonies at 12:01 A.M. Saturday. Announced as queen was Miss Nancy Webster, Painesville, Pi Beta Phi, whose grades last semester were straight A, for a 4.0.

Oldest Member of Pi Beta Phi in California?

Members of the Solano County Club of Pi Beta Phi gathered recently at the home of Mrs. Reginald Gaylord to honor one of its members, Mrs. Frank Ripsom, on the occasion of her 90th birthday. Mrs. Ripsom, who has never missed a meeting of the Pi Beta Phi alumnae club, came to the party under the impression that it was a regular meeting. It was not until her daughters, Mrs. Harry Sproule and Mrs. Leroy Beach, made their entrance and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday song that she realized the party was in her honor.

Clara Stuart Ripsom, Nebraska A

Following a buffet supper and singing of Pi Phi songs Mrs. Ralph Laird, president of the local alumnae club, placed a tray piled with gifts before the honoree. She also received birthday telegrams from Kathy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Vallejo, who is a Pi Phi pledge at the University of Southern California, and Mrs. James Hamilton of Sacramento, province vice president of Pi Beta Phi fraternity.

Clara Stuart Ripsom, who is believed to be the oldest living member of Pi Beta Phi fraternity in California, attended Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska, and was initiated in Nebraska Beta Chapter of I. C. Sorosis in 1887. The following year I. C. Sorosis adopted the Greek letters Pi Beta Phi and was thereafter known as Pi Beta Phi fraternity. When I. C. Sorosis was founded in 1867 the official pin was an arrow over two inches long with the letters I. C. on the shaft. Upon the adoption of the Greek letters Pi Beta Phi the pin was reduced in size and the Greek letters appear at the base of the arrow.

It is Mrs. Ripsom's privilege to wear both her I. C. Sorosis pin and the later Pi Beta Phi arrow, and it is rarely that the old pin is seen today. She is entering her seventy-second year as a Pi Phi and thus is a member of the Golden Arrow and wears a gold carnation, the fraternity flower, as a grand pin to show that she has been a member of Pi Beta Phi for 50 years. Vallejo Pi Phis are extremely proud of their senior alumna who takes an active part in Pi Phi and Panhellenic affairs.

Last fall Mrs. Ripsom was invited by the University of California chapter of Pi Beta Phi to attend a party for their new pledges among whom was Miss Patricia O'Hara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O'Hara, of Vallejo.

Mrs. Ripsom, the former Clara Stuart, was born in Illinois on Feb. 11, 1869, and moved to Fairmont, Nebraska, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil A. Stuart, at the age of two years. Mr. Stuart built the first frame house in Fairmont, as all others in the area were the sod houses built by the first settlers.

She married the late Frank Ripsom in 1892 and is the mother of two daughters, Helen, now Mrs. Beach, and Charlotte, now Mrs. Sproule. She makes her home with Mrs. Beach. Mrs. Ripsom has three grandchildren, Robert Sproule of Boston, Mass.; Richard Sproule, who is in business with his father in Vallejo; and Mrs. Walter Kohn (nee Nancy Sproule) of Walnut Creek; also three great-grandchildren, Richard Sproul, Jr., Stephen Sproule and Peter Kohn.

Clock Presented by Pi Phi Alumnae

A new illuminated clock on Denny Hall was officially presented to the University of Washington recently by alumnae of Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

The clock, already installed on the front of the building between the third and fourth floors, was donated by the sorority members. The clock-fund drive was begun two years ago when the sorority celebrated the 50th anniversary of the granting of its charter at the university.

Among members of the sorority who attended the ceremony were Mrs. Paul H. Watt and Mrs. Florence Denny Heliker, granddaughters of Arthur A. Denny, for whom the building was named.

Three charter members of the local chapter, who were university students when the sorority was founded in January, 1907, also attended. They are Mrs. Henry Dook, Mrs. Lewis D. Ryan and Miss Elizabeth Dearborn. Other members of the memorial-gift committee are the Mesdames E. B. Carroll, Ray Eckmann, Floyd Ellis, Harold Polson, Charles E. Stuart and Dow Tinker.

In the case of Dorothy Marshall, Utah A, general manager of all nine Broadway department stores, all work and no play does not make a dull woman.

She has the biggest department store job held by any woman. There are more than 4,300 employees who call her boss.

Oddly enough, in the light of her dedication to her job today, her first job was taken for a lark. In 1929 this business woman was 18 when she began clerking in the silverware section.

A friend who was employed at the Broadway had told her "come on and go to work. It's fun."

Light-hearted and fun-loving, the University of Utah student made a game of her job. Today, at 48, it is still a game but one of skill augmented by experience and intense interest.

Her hair is the color of a silver fox and her eyes are dark as a forest pool. Everything about Miss Marshall is crisp and efficient and responsible.

There are many books in the comfortable, pleasant house in Westwood. But Miss Marshall never has time to read except on train journeys to and from New York several times a year.

"Then I read murder mysteries. There are no phones. No interruptions."

There is no substitute for leadership in the collegiate world—or in the entire world. Make no mistake about it. Popularity will not suffice. Beauty will not do the job. There is nothing to take the place of true leadership. The world cries out for leadership. There is a need in every phase and stage of life for true, selfless leadership.

Leadership has its hazards as well as its satisfactions. It requires concentrated dedication, willingness to face criticism and to accept a slow pace when the group needs time for decision, ability to turn defeat into new purpose and to reach high success without vainglory.

Leadership is necessary to the group. It grows out of personal qualities and preparation; is strengthened by techniques, which may be learned; carries with it great satisfactions, many problems and sometimes disappointments—but it would be impossible without a group of followers.

Following also needs techniques to be satisfying and successful. In the complex life of today most of us find that we may lead in one situation and follow in many others. Ability to discuss without heat, willingness to abide by democratic procedures and to accept the will of the majority, respect for leadership, cooperation necessary to group success—these are the marks of successful following.—The Triangle of Tri Sigma

Edited by Mary Elizabeth Lasher Barnette, Ohio A

ELINOR BLUEMEL, Colorado B, Maryland A, Florence Sabin, Colorado Woman of the Century, University of Colorado Press, 238 pp.

The existence of a person like scientist Florence Sabin adds stature to the whole human race which is why it is especially appropriate that her multiple contributions have been recognized this year by the placement of her likeness in Statuary Hall in Washington. She thus becomes the first Coloradan so honored, and a fitting and fascinating subject for biographer Elinor Bluemel.

Although most of her life was lived in the twentieth century, Dr. Sabin was a pioneer woman in many respects, and she has numerous firsts to her credit. Even as a youngster she was able to inspire others to enthusiasm for learning, and she became a fine teacher, in fact the first woman professor at Johns Hopkins University.

It was on the staff at the Rockefeller Institute in New York that she made her most notable contributions to society as a whole, these in the research field of cellular biology. As a consequence proceeds from the book sales will go to the University of Colorado School of Medicine to further such research.

Though this book is a record of achievement in pure research it does not lack human interest for a moment thanks to both author and subject. A distinctive personality and a lively conversationalist herself, Dr. Sabin attracted interesting persons, and they people Mrs. Bluemel's book too, bringing this amazing woman doctor alive for the reader.

It is a workmanlike book, which serves equally the causes of instruction and entertainment, and it should keep warm the memory of this great woman of the century, great in her state and out.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Elinor Hensley (Mrs. C. S.) Bluemel, Colorado Beta, has had more than one career related to the field of medicine, the first having been that of a medical librarian. After her marriage to a Denver psychiatrist and writer, she and her husband owned and operated the city's only private neuropsychiatric hospital. Meanwhile, she also participated in community and educational affairs, particularly the AAUW for which she was secretary on the national Board of Directors, and through membership on one of her health committees she came to know Dr. Sabin well. In addition to the Sabin biography, Mrs. Bluemel has another book, Emily Griffith and the Opportunity School of Denver to her credit.

ADELE MURPHY, Two Miles North, published by the Women's Auxiliary, Decatur and Macon County Hospital, 283 pp.

In every community its hospital is the stage on which one human drama after another is played out by one's fellow citizens. This season in Decatur, Illinois, however, the county hospital is front and center, the star of its own story as fictionalized by Adele Murphy.

The book commemorates the hospital's fiftieth anniversary and in doing so chronicles not only the history of the institution, but also the development of the community and the services of many of its citizens. It is filled with anecdotes which is entertaining to the stranger and must be a special treat to the local reader who knows many of the personalities involved.

Miss Murphy has a light, deft touch which keeps Two Miles North from becoming burdened by pedantic historical records with the result that for a book prepared for a circumscribed market, this holds remarkably well the interest of the out-of-towner.

AUTHOR INTEREST: The commission to do the story of her own community's hospital has provided Adele Murphy, Illinois Eta, with the opportunity to fulfill a long time urge to try creative writing. It's no small wonder that she hasn't done so before, for she's an exceedingly busy person, for twenty-five years operator of an advertising agency and an active citizen of the community in which she grew up. Pi Phi owes her a debt too, for she helped establish the Central Office in Decatur as a former Director.

The author autographing a copy of her book for the Honorable Arthur Flemming, U. S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

From Pan Pipes of Sigma Alpha Iota

Learning is an art or a skill. We are born with the potential to learn but the skill of learning must be acquired. The first step in the acquisition of the art of learning is desire, for without desire nothing is ever accomplished.

From The Key of K K Γ

Today we realize, as never before, that if God's design for mankind is to survive it must do so in a world whose basic concept is human liberty. When liberty is gone—whether because some aggressor takes it from us by force or because we willingly vote it away—civilized man will die. Men will become robots, machines without minds, controlled and driven by godless masters.

Those things which deprive persons of the responsibility for their own acts and for their own welfare are acts which show lack of faith in God and in our fellowmen. The evidence for this belief lies in the fact that no person is physically, or mentally, or morally identical to any other person. We all know that the finger prints of everyone are different. It is these differences—these individualities—these inequalities—which carry through all the physical, mental, and moral characteristics of mankind. If we have faith in God we must realize that He had a purpose in designing us so that no two people are alike—in other words, each person is an individual. If this God given individuality is to survive it must have "Freedom." Not a freedom which can be confused with license, but a freedom to do as long as the doing does not interfere with the equal right of another to do as he so desires. It is a freedom to do—to act—to think—to choose. It is not a freedom from the hardships of the world, for in running away from hardship we sacrifice the happiness and the satisfaction which comes from overcoming obstacles.

Freedom to choose carries with it freedom to choose foolishly as well as wisely: freedom to enjoy the rewards of good judgment, and freedom to suffer the penalties of bad judgment. If this is not true then the word "freedom" has no meaning.

Alpha Phi Quarterly

Good fellowship is a fertile seed bed for scholarship but like all good things that exist together, it is important to keep them in balance. In the wild there is the tendency for fellowship to grow strong, bloom early, and overshadow scholarship. Without the restraining influence of maturity and experience there is a further tendency to overlook the fact that the real purpose of four years at college is to obtain a degree with distinction and that good fellowship is just an atmospheric condition to prevent the scholar from becoming a dull boy.—From: Foundation Speech by Orwill Hawkins at the 1958 Workshop, in The Magazine of Sigma Chi

Why affiliate WITH NATIONAL PANHELLENIC?

(NOTE: The following article was written by the late Leola E. Lowry, Theta Upsilon. It was presented at the NPC meeting in 1957 when Mrs. Lowry was a member of the City Panhellenic Committee. The publishing of this fine article is in memory of Mrs. Lowry and is a tribute to her years of unselfish sorority service.)

City Panhellenics represent the greatest potential power of women's fraternities today. We need to capitalize upon this force and use its resources for the "Cause of Fraternity."

At the Williamsburg Conference in 1951, it was estimated that around 150,000 fraternity women have contact, directly or indirectly, with an affiliated City Panhellenic. Since 1951 that number has greatly increased and so the field for service to these women is great. It is a challenge to NPC to utilize this force to carry to the local communities what our NPC representatives have been trying to do on the national level.

NPC is that intangible collection of letters that fraternity members look to for guidance and advice on fraternity matters. Many times, no doubt, a City Panhellenic in some far-off spot from "NPC" asks, "Why should we affiliate with NPC?" Perhaps they have a point and so in a few minutes' time I shall try to bring out a few reasons for affiliating with NPC.

I. NPC can give assistance to a City Panhellenic by helping with the organizational procedures—the constitution and by-laws; make suggestions for various types of programs and then follow through by supervision of the activities of the City Panhellenic throughout the years.

II. NPC can stimulate the City Panhellenic organization to be more than just a social group meeting for luncheon and bridge. The time for this is past. An affiliated City Panhellenic must be a contributing force in its local community.

III. Affiliated City Panhellenics can provide a continued fraternity experience for some fraternity women who might live in a city where there are not enough members of their respective sororities to have alumnae chapters—"stray Greeks" as they are sometimes called. One such member might be the one to spark the establishment of a City Panhellenic in a new community.

IV. NPC can provide and disseminate authentic and pertinent information through the various bulletins to the City Panhellenics. These bulletins will enable the affiliated City Panhellenic to do a better job of counseling with the college Panhellenic by getting the correct information to it. The need for well-informed alumnae is growing as our colleges grow.

V. NPC can provide information on "Fraternity Education," stressing the broader aspects of fraternity affiliation instead of having only the local viewpoint. All City Panhellenics need to broaden their horizons by taking a greater interest in all phases of fraternity matters. This can be accomplished by membership in an affiliated City Panhellenic.

VI. An affiliated City Panhellenic will benefit by the exchange of ideas, program, philanthropies as set forth in the bulletins sent out by National Panhellenic's City Panhellenic Committee.

VII. NPC is in a position to provide statistics and information not available to unaffiliated City Panhellenics, through the work of our various committees, NPC-NAWDC, Joint Committee, Citizenship, Education, College Panhellenic, Housing, Research and Public Relations.

VIII. NPC representatives are fraternity members with long and continued service in their own sororities. They can be the direct contact with current affairs in the fraternity world by the exchange of ideas of common interest to all. NPC is looked to for inspiration and guidance, and this combined pooling of knowledge of fraternity affairs can be given to affiliated City Panhellenics.

There is strength in unity and therefore strong, unified affiliated City Panhellenics can further the "Cause of Fraternity" by being a real force in educational fields, in civic and in national affairs. Membership in an affiliated City Panhellenic should convince its members that all fraternity women, working together, can do much to interpret fraternities to the communities in which they live.

When I reached this spot in the preparation of this topic, I read it over to see if I had used my allotted five minutes. I have about a half minute to go. May I take this time by recalling to you memories? Those of you who attended the last conference at White Sulphur Springs remember Dr. McFarland's closing remarks. I believe we can find a lesson in the following paragraph from his speech:

"The late Sir Harry Lauder liked to tell of the old lamplighter in his home town in Scotland. Harry used to observe him every day at dusk. The old man would put up a ladder against a light pole and climb up to light the lamp. When he had lighted that one, he climbed down the ladder and carried it to the next lamppost. Finally, Harry said, 'The old man would be out of sight, but I could always tell which way he went by the lamps he had lighted.'

"So, I close right where I started. If you want to be—not only successful, but personally, happily and permanently successful—then do your job in such a way that even when you are out of sight, folks always know which way you went by the lamps you left lighted."

As NPC we are out of sight, but have we lighted the lamps for our fraternity members who are in affiliated City Panhellenics?

Will You Help Rush?

Pi Beta Phi chapters are counting on you to supply them with names and information about prospective rushees. This is one way in which every alumna can do her part to help in rushing.

If you are an alumna living in a town where there is no alumnae club, just fill in the blank. Please mail it as soon as possible to the chapter rush captain concerned.

If you live in a town where there is an alumnae club you may use this blank also, but please keep your alumnae club recommendations chairman informed of any recommendations you make.

Chapter rush captains—the lists of Alumnae Club Recommendations Chairmen, and of the State Rush Chairmen, are printed in this issue of the ARROW.

You will find in this issue of the ARROW, a sample recommendation blank, also the list of names and addresses of all chapter rush captains. If you have more than one girl to recommend, write extra letters, including the information listed on the blank.

Alumnae LETTERS

Edited by Virginia Sherman Kozak, New York A

BERKSHIRE COUNTY

The Berkshire County Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi received its charter in March 1958 with sixteen members. Last Spring after receiving our charter several of our members were guests at the House Corporation meeting of the active chapter of the University of Massachusetts.

Three of our members, Mary Jo Loveridge, Barbara Merrick, and Anne Ramocki were able to attend several sessions of the Convention at Swampscott.

This year we have had monthly meetings with interesting discussions of Settlement School, Rushing, Constitution and History. In addition to these we have had enjoyable social meetings at which time we have had a bake sale and a white elephant auction to help raise money for our club.

We looked forward to meeting more of our Berkshire County Alumnae at a covered dish supper we had to celebrate Founders' Day.

VIVIAN MARLOW MOSS

BURLINGTON

The first meeting of the year was held in October in the chapter room with Janet Preston and Janet Royer as hostesses. A very interesting report on National Convention was given by Mary Ellen Fitzgerald, Peggy Van Dine and Catharine Mayforth.

We were very happy to welcome Mrs. Kent Morgan, Grand Vice President in October; also we helped the actives with a Home Coming tea.

A very successful Settlement School Sale was held in November with Katharine Blakely and Gladys Severance as chairmen.

The January meeting was held at the home of Irene Cheney with Elaine Little and Elizabeth Lauritzen as hostesses at which time ideas for money raising were discussed.

In February the alumnae gave a hand with pledging and the campaign for Kake Walk Queen; Judy Hauke being our candidate.

Our March meeting consisted of a Cooky-Shine and Stunt Night, refreshments being served by Lorraine Crane and Shirley Austin. Officers for the coming year were elected.

We were very happy to have a visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Rena Bowles, at our Founders' Day meeting which was held April 21 at the home of Helen MacCausland, with the Essex Junction Pi Beta Phis acting as hostesses.

A buffet supper or picnic was held in May which included a tribute to the Seniors. The annual June Spread reunion was held at the chapter house with Mary Ellen Fitzgerald as chairman. During the year a sum of money has been contributed to add to a book corner at the house in memory of a deceased member.

IRENE CHENEY

EASTERN CONNECTICUT

The activities of the Eastern Connecticut Alumnae Club began September 24 with a pot luck supper and joint meeting with the Hartford Club at the home of Mrs. Joseph Motycka. Good food, companionship and an excellent report on Convention were enjoyed by all. October 8 we held our Settlement School sale and tea in the Community House. This was a big "first" for us; first time we had combined with the actives for the sale, and first time we had held it in a public building. November saw us discussing Pi Beta Phi traditions at the home of Mrs. George Ecker. "Ketch-up Night" in January was held at the home of Miss Wilma Keyes. After a pot luck supper we enjoyed an original skit presented by five of the actives. February was the month to feature Holt House, and at the home of Mrs. Richard Story we saw slides that gave us an excellent idea of this Pi Beta Phi activity. We looked forward to our Founders' Day Banquet, Senior Farewell and annual picnic in the spring.

MRS. EDWARD HOLLMAN

EASTERN MAINE

This year's activities have been varied and very inspiring. The year started on October 14 at the home of Helen Buzzell. We eagerly listened to Rena Bowles' and Helen Buzzell's report on Convention. Two members of the Active Chapter, Maine A, were present to tell us about their plans for the year including the forthcoming rushing schedule.

Homecoming, November 1 and 2 was a big weekend for all Eastern Maine Alumnae. On November 1 the actives had a coffee for us after the game, and on the 2nd we assisted the actives in presenting a tea for Grand Vice-President, Dorothy Weaver Morgan. After the tea we had a short meeting with Mrs. Morgan.

December 3 we gave our annual party for the actives and their new bow-pinnies. Without the Portland club's donation, the party would not have been the great success it was. We were delighted to find in the new pledge group three Orono girls, among them Bee Cushman's daughter, Virginia.

February 12 our advisory board and the active board met jointly with Ethel Sanford Adams, province president and on February 17 we had a pleasant evening at the home of Anita Leonard. Rena Bowles answered many questions that we had on Settlement School.

In March we had our election of officers, in April there was the Founders' Day Banquet. In May we closed our year's activities by joining with the actives in the annual Strawberry Breakfast.

NANCY L. COUSINS

GREATER BOSTON

The spirit of Convention was still in full swing at the first meeting of the Boston Alumnae Club. Colonel Kennedy, manager of the New Ocean House Hotel, gave us a behind the scenes report on our Convention at Swampscott.

Just before Christmas a representative of F. A. O. Schwarz, Boston and New York toy merchandisers, gave an interesting talk on the background and educational value of toys.

We said farewell to our very capable president, Judy Fisher, at our Christmas party.

Our province president, Ethel Adams, honored all actives and alumnae in the Boston area with a tea during the Christmas vacation.

Other interesting meetings have included a dessert tasting party and a party at which silver and china from Shreve, Crump, & Lowe were displayed.

This year we feel that our Settlement School parties have been a great success. Neighborhood parties were arranged, giving our friends an opportunity to enjoy our lovely Settlement School products.

Founders' Day was celebrated at a luncheon with our Boston University Actives.

JOAN M. JOHNSON

HARTFORD

The Hartford and Eastern Connecticut Alumnae Clubs began their year jointly with the annual Pot Luck Supper at the home of Elizabeth Motycka. This followed by a very profitable and enjoyable Dessert Bridge and Fashion Show in October, with members acting as models. At our meeting that month Clara Dell Haggeman and Janet Rogan took us all along on their trips to Europe this summer, which included the Brussel's Fair.

We enjoyed having with us Mrs. Dorothy W. Morgan, Grand Vice President, at our Settlement School Sale and Tea in November; this year held at the Town and Country Club in West Hartford. The Christmas Cooky-shine followed at the home of Marjorie Eves. Relays and carols rounded out the evening's entertainment. Our national defense system was explained by area Nike personnel to members and their male guests at the January meeting. Also held in January was the first luncheon meeting, followed by another in April. The annual Sweetheart Ball for the benefit of the Hartford Association for Retarded Children and our Settlement School fell appropriately on February 14 this year.

A very successful Rush Workshop at the University of Connecticut in which several Hartford Alumnae participated was held in February. A regular speaker meeting was held later that month. In March the election of officers was followed by a songfest. The Annual State Founders' Day Luncheon in April found us this year the guests of the Southern Fairfield County Alumnae Club. Installation of officers followed in May. As in past years the club is again looking forward to the annual picnic at Priscilla Campbell's lakeside home in June.

DOROTHY KRIVICK

NEW HAVEN

There was no after-Convention let-down for the members of the New Haven Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi, for no sooner had we completed our share of the job of preparing for Convention, and enjoying the Convention itself in Swampscott than we were in the throes of planning our Settlement School Sale and Tea. A special letter regarding the sale (and Centennial Fund) was sent to all Pi Beta Phi in the area in mid summer; extensive publicity was prepared, including a half page feature story for the New Haven Register; and printed invitations were sent to 150 individuals and women's clubs. Our efforts resulted in a very successful sale in late October. Mrs. Robert Jay Cook, recent Republican mayoralty candidate in New Haven, was the very gracious hostess for the open house sale.

President June Gustavson gave an inspiring report on Convention at our first fall meeting and those of us who were unable to attend Convention in person did so indirectly that autumn evening.

In November we enjoyed a demonstration in floral arrangement following our business meeting, and in December we had a festive, social evening at our Christmas Cooky-shine. Mrs. Merrill Preston from the University of Connecticut Extension Service spoke on the "Dilemma of the Dollar" in February.

Our March meeting was of special interest. Jacqueline Jackson, Wisconsin B, author and illustrator of children's books, spoke to us about her book, "Paleface Redskins," and her writing experiences.

Spring found us assisting the Southern Fairfield County Club in planning the annual statewide Founders' Day Luncheon held in April. This celebration and reunion is the highlight of the year for all Pi Beta Phi in the state.

Our year's activities were culminated with a visit to the active chapter at the University of Connecticut in May.

In addition to supporting Pi Beta Phi nationally, our aims this year were twofold: attracting a larger active membership in our local alumnae club, and lending greater assistance to Connecticut A. We achieved the first by developing a more interesting program and maintaining better communications with all area Pi Beta Phi through newsletters and telephone reminders. We helped the active chapter by making rush party favors, laundering initiation robes, baking cookies, and preparing salads for special events. Our chairman in charge of active alumnae relations kept in constant contact with Connecticut A.

In closing, we were very proud to make our contribution to Centennial Fund in memory of Bessie Bump Emerson, Vermont A, long time Settlement School chairman of the New Haven Alumnae Club and Golden Arrow member.

JANE E. RUCK

PORTLAND MAINE

The Portland Alumnae Club held its first meeting at the home of Dorothy Kane. At this time, plans were partially made for the coming year. In November, President Marjorie Yale reported on the highlights of the 1958 Convention. Slides of the Convention were shown.

In December, a gala pot luck supper for members, husbands, and friends was held at the home of Marjorie Yale. The Club entertained some of the membs from Main A in January. A sing and a fancy "cooky-shine" highlighted the evening's entertainment.

In February, the ladies took the evening off and dined at the Lafayette Hotel. A program on Constitution and History was headed by Hazel Everett. March found the club selecting the recipient for the annual Sophomore Award.

Founders' Day was celebrated at a luncheon and program. Those who were able, attended the Founders' Day Banquet with Maine A Chapter at Orono. The annual meeting was held in May. The year's activities were climaxed with a picnic and a cruise to Jewel Island.

BARBARA BORNHEIMER LOMBARD

SOUTHERN FAIRFIELD COUNTY

In its third active year, the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Southern Fairfield County is steadily growing in membership and under the capable leadership of our President, Jean Watt, we have had a successful and enjoyable year.

The September meeting was held at the home of Doris Littlefield. After a delicious luncheon, our plans for the coming year were drawn up. The Settlement School Sale held in October at the home of Louise Begg was most profitable, $765 worth of merchandise was sold. The November luncheon meeting at Phyllis Drumm's was very interesting. One of our own members, Edith Smith, described her hobby of many years which is transcribing childrens textbooks into Braille for the blind.

We had a delightful get-together in December at Dory Teter's which included the husbands. At the January luncheon meeting, at Gene Filion's, Es Zeunger gave an excellent book report on "Dr. Zhivago." At a benefit dessert bridge at Priscilla Mueller's in February, we raised $90, which went to our local project The Mystic Oral School for the Deaf in Mystic, Conn.

In March at Edith Smith's we had a Silent White Elephant Sale to increase our project fund. To celebrate Founders' Day we gathered with all the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Clubs in Connecticut which was quite an occasion. Once again in June the husbands joined us at the annual splash party. This closed our activities for the year.

KITTY CLARK MADDEN

BETA PROVINCE

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

Central Pennsylvania Alumnae Club has had a very active year. The October meeting, at the home of Mrs. David Crosgrove was memorable for the interesting report on the Convention given by the President, Mrs. R. E. McDermond.

On November 19 the Club with Pennsylvania B had a sale featuring Arrow Craft articles. The sale, under the direction of Mrs. David C. Johnson, was a great success.

On February 19 a meeting on Scholarship was held at the home of Mrs. T. M. Miles. Mrs. Archibald Owen presented Peggy Hollinshead, Scholarship Chairman for the active chapter, who gave us a good idea of what the chapter does to keep its high Scholastic Standing. She showed her chart of the little Pi Phi Angels which graphically demonstrates the scholastic standing of each active member.

On March 20 Mrs. J. Y. Schroyer was hostess to the club at the Constitution Day meeting. Mrs. Lewis E. Theiss, who was former National Vice President from 1910-12, will speak. She was Treasurer of the Settlement School before the Fraternity took it over and was on the original Settlement School Committee. She helped to write the Constitution which was accepted by the Convention in 1910. We are thrilled to hear at first hand about the early days of the Fraternity.

In April the club observed Founders' Day at Dickinson with a combined meeting of Actives and Alumnae from B, F, and E of Pennsylvania.

Climaxing our year's activities was a Cooky-Shine for the active chapter.

MARGARET T. CONFER

HARRISBURG-CARLISLE

The fall season was opened by the Harrisburg-Carlisle Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi with a luncheon at The Harrisburger Hotel in Harrisburg on Saturday, September 13, 1958. At this time Convention highlights were given by Peg Brown and Mildred Graybill.

For the past two years as our main project we have had a booth at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show for our Settlement School Sale during the week of October 18. This year we had a most attractive booth, and displays, which caused a great deal of comment and resulted in a successful week. It was due to all the members making an all out effort for its success.

In November the alumnae club met with Pennsylvania F at Dickinson College for a very interesting meeting. In January we had a delightful trip abroad through the medium of slides and description by our guest speaker, Mr. Donald Clapper.

At our March meeting we enjoyed a provocative book review. We looked forward to meeting with the active chapters of Dickinson, Bucknell, and Pennsylvania State University and the three Alumnae Clubs of Harrisburg-Carlisle, Lewisburg, and Penn State April 26 for our Founders' Day Banquet. This was held at Allenberry on the Yellow Breeches.

Our husbands were asked to join us in May for a picnic which concluded an eventful year.

BETTE DANIELS FREEMAN

LONG ISLAND-NORTH SHORE

As we have done for the last three years, we began our ninth year as a chartered alumnae club with a tea for the actives in our area. We are happy to report that fourteen girls accepted our invitation. As there are no active chapters on Long Island, it is our only opportunity to meet and have an exchange of ideas with the active members of the Fraternity.

The meeting plans have been quite varied. The Settlement School slides were available in January, and they were most interesting, particularly for those of us who have not had the pleasure of visiting Gatlinburg, and seeing for ourselves what the Fraternity has undertaken. At the first business meeting in the fall, the Convention Delegates gave their reports, and we are looking forward to the Convention slides at a future meeting.

In February we held a dessert bridge party for the purpose of collecting our contributions to the Centennial Fund. There were very appropriate little tallies made of wine and silver blue felt and table prizes from the Arrow Craft Shop. It was purely a social affair and enjoyed by all. The annual Valentine Dance was again held at the Riviera in Port Washington.

A reservation was made at Stouffer's Restaurant in Garden City for our Founders' Day Banquet. Our final meeting in June was a picnic, with our husbands invited.

The turnover in the membership of this club continues to be great. It was necessary this year to compile a new directory.

It was with regret that we learned in October of Mrs. Heflin's resignation, but we welcome Mrs. Allen O'Donnell as Beta Province's new Vice President and hope to meet her in the near future.

CONSTANCE WILDER COMPTON

NEW YORK CITY

The New York City Alumnae Club planned the year's program to familiarize its members with the city's social services. Our year's program commenced with installation of officers and a tea held at Helen Kammerer Mackendrew's home. We were very happy to welcome several new members.

November was a very full, active month. In addition to our regular meeting we had several special dividend meetings given by our own Pi Beta Phi alumnae members. Mrs. Wealthy Fisher (N.Y.A.) had the Pi Beta Phi in to hear about her very worthwhile work with Literacy Village in Luckow, India. Mrs. Earl Strong (Colorado A), a portrait painter, held a special program in her studio. We held a pre-Christmas Settlement School Sale.

The Pi Beta Phi Christmas party was held at Marion McGill's where toys and gifts were wrapped for needy children at Bellevue Hospital.

To open the new year, the group selected Rogers' and Hammerstein's "Flower Drum Song" for our money raising theatre party project. This proved to be very successful as well as entertaining for members and guests. For our regular meeting we had a supper party with a guest speaker from the New York Association for the Blind, The Lighthouse. She was accompanied by her seeing eye dog.

Our February meeting was very enlightening in view of current world events. We visited the Soviet Mission to the United Nations Headquarters. This gave us an opportunity to learn about everyday life in Russia from a Russian.

ARETTA S. BURR

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

It is a pleasure to report that the Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi has had a most successful and interesting year! In September we had a Convention report by our president and delegate, Marilyn Berg Spoerl. Punch and cookies were served by the Short Hills group.

At the October meeting luncheon was served by the Chatham group. We had the privilege of hearing Mrs. R. M. Bozorth of Short Hills give a talk entitled "Caviar for Breakfast" as well as seeing her beautiful pictures of Russia which were in color. She had spent several weeks in Russia with her husband who had been invited there on official business. Needless to say, she was asked many pertinent questions at the conclusion of her talk.

In December our Arrow Craft Chairman, Anne Logan Hefflin, opened her home for a three day sale of Arrow Craft articles. She was in charge of a large Arrow Craft sale in November as well, when luncheon was served to the group by Montclair and the Bloomfield groups.

In January one of our own Pi Beta Phi, Marion Wilder Read, an authority on art, talked to us on "Some Aspects of Modern Art." Luncheon was served by the Maplewood and Oranges groups.

Our February meeting was a purely social affair. We had a luncheon and bridge party which was attended by fifty two Pi Beta Phi's.

Our March meeting will be a luncheon in Short Hills with two local women talking to us about "Eyes for the Needy." They will also display old jewelry which will be for sale.

In April we celebrated Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Arch Restaurant in Short Hills. Our speaker was an outstanding Pi Beta Phi—Dr. Esther Lloyd Jones who is Head of the Department of Guidance and Student Personnel Administration at Teachers College, Columbia University.

In May in addition to a luncheon given by the Westfield group and our annual meeting, we looked forward to hearing book reviews by two members of our group, Ruth Bridge Spence and Jessie Crane Hauser.

Last August our Executive Board entertained at a tea for our new Province vice president, Mildred O'Donnell. In November we had a buffet supper for our Grand Vice President, Dorothy Weaver Morgan, who was visiting in the New York area.

MARILYN BERG SPOERL

PHILADELPHIA

This year has been a very busy and exciting year for the Philadelphia Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi. The year was opened with the Main Line and Swarthmore groups having Settlement School Teas. The Germantown group had several coffee hours and sold Settlement School goods.

In November we had our big meeting at the Rehabilitation Center of Philadelphia. At this meeting we voted and made the Rehabilitation Center our project.

At Christmas time the whole club gave the patients at the Rehabilitation Center a Christmas Party. We decorated the Center and made favors. The patients greatly enjoyed the party. The Delaware Evening Group made favors for the patients at the Center for Valentines Day.

We welcomed a new group into our alumnae club. We now have a Delaware Evening Group. This now gives us four groups in our club. This year a new committee was formed, the Hospitality Committee. Its job is to get the members to attend the meetings. Also to keep in personal contact with the members.

In January, the whole club got together for a very successful cooky-shine luncheon. In March we had another big meeting to elect officers.

Our Founders' Day Luncheon was held Saturday, May 2, 1959.

PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh Alumnae Club opened its fall season with a buffet supper at the home of Evelyn Kinnaird Fox. Entertaining accounts of Convention were given by president Sue Parkins Wroldstad and Marie Bunnell Davidson. In October a dessert was held as well as our annual sale of Settlement School goods. Approximately $1,073 worth of goods was sold. An elegant smorgasbord was held in November after which we had a good old Pi Beta Phi Sing. December found us with a Pi Beta Phi mother and daughter on the program. Emily Huff Gantner read the Christmas Story after which her daughter Marion Gantner Parker gave a reading entitled "The Man Who Owned the Stable."

At our January dessert a committee initiated our money making project, the sale of candy. It was our privilege to hear "Turkey Talk" from one of our own members, Dorothy Diggins Wiggins at our February meeting. Dot narrated and her husband showed pictures of their recent trip to Turkey. After the March buffet supper we enjoyed an evening of canasta and bridge. The Pittsburgh South Hills Club were hosts to the Pittsburgh Club at our Founders' Day luncheon. We closed the year with a picnic supper at the home of Merriem Robinson Jones. Dorothy Daniel reviewed one of her recent books.

MARION GANTNER PARKER

POUGHKEEPSIE

The meetings of this group have been few, but well attended and enthusiastically received. After opening with an organization meeting in September at the home of the president, Elizabeth Osborne Hadden, the members decided to hold the next meeting in December and make favors for their local project, the homes for Old Ladies and Old Men. This year Elizabeth Jackson was hostess, and crinoline Christmas trees were made for table and tray decorations. A covered dish supper for the undergraduates home for Easter was held in March, and the Founders' Day Luncheon concluded the year's activities. Several new members were added to the rolls of the club this year and it is hoped that more members will be added as news of our activities is published.

RUTH DAGGETT NOYES

RIDGEWOOD

In September, we welcomed our new members with a covered dish supper at the home of Helen Johnson. Our President, Phyllis Mayer, gave a very interesting report on the last Convention. The Settlement School Sale, which was held in the clubroom of one of the local stores, provided a very successful as well as a pleasant evening. One of the highlights of the year was Husbands' Night which started with a casserole supper and ended with a white elephant sale, the proceeds going to our treasury. The January meeting included an enjoyable program on art appreciation. In February, we elected Jean Brown Lilly President and Marguerite Swartz Vaughan Treasurer, and we folded seals for mailing for Cerebral Palsy. In March, we had a tea for the old ladies of the Bergen Pines Home. Each member brought several small gifts and homemade cookies. The ladies really enjoyed their afternoon of songs and refreshments. Founders' Day this year was celebrated by a luncheon and bridge. Our last meeting was an active chapter project. This year has been a wonderful year of fellowship in Pi Beta Phi.

PAULINE VENNING GLEASON

ROCHESTER

The Rochester Alumnae Club began the year with twenty new members to add to its already enthusiastic group. A well attended buffet supper took the place of our usual fall luncheon. Lydia Lueder Darling and Julie Rosenkrans Washburn gave an account of their activities at Convention.

In October we saw the Settlement School slides and discussed our sale which was held at the Cerebral Palsy Center on November 1.

One of our members, Janice Clark Rumrill, gave us a tour of Brussel's Fair, via her lovely slides in November.

As always the food at our annual cooky-shine in January was something to talk about the rest of the year. Everyone brought old college or high school photos of themselves and we had a "Guess Who?" with them for our loyalty day program.

Marian Jeffries Reber's daughter Lindsey gave us a most interesting review of Mexico through the eyes of a teenage exchange student, in February.

After a relentless winter, it was a welcome relief to hear about landscaping and gardening at one of our local garden centers in March.

Founders' Day found us getting acquainted with all our area alumnae, who were urged to attend our luncheon.

In May we enjoyed our province's Convention slides. Our annual picnic with husbands in June finished our year in grand style.

For all our members that are unable to attend our evening meetings, we initiated a lunch group which met several times during the year at the A.A.U.W. house for lunch and various brief programs. It has proved to be a successful adventure.

JULIE ROSENKRANS WASHBURN

STATE COLLEGE

The State College Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi met in September to plan for the annual Settlement School Sale. The October meeting was devoted to the Settlement School Program. In November, a Convention report was given by Mrs. R. Mae Shultz, Convention delegate. At this meeting also the Convention slides were shown and much appreciated by the group. On November second, the new pledges and initiates of Pennsylvania E were entertained at a Sunday morning brunch. In December the alumnae club entertained the chapter at a Christmas party. At this time the chapter was presented with an electric frying pan. The January meeting was designated as Chapter Loyalty night. A very interesting program was presented by Mrs. Robert Murray. She gave an interesting account of the life and contributions of Carrie Chapman Catt. At this meeting three members reminisced about their active chapter days. The February meeting was a buffet supper held at the home of Mrs. Robert Ramsey for the members of the club and their husbands. The election of officers was held in March. A Founders' Day luncheon was held in April and in May graduating seniors of the active chapter were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. R. Carpenter.

ROBERTA SHULTZ

SYRACUSE

The past year has been a most successful and enjoyable one for the Syracuse Alumnae Club headed by our very capable president, Alice Ross.

Our activities began in September with a cooky-shine at the home of Helen Pratt. In October we met at Alice Ross's home for a delicious covered dish supper, when plans were discussed for our benefit card party, which was held in November at the chapter house in place of a regular meeting. During the card party a stole from the Settlement School was raffled off. Estelle Hillegas was in charge of this affair and reported a total profit of $118.

Also in November our club participated in Chappell's Women's Day, when we earned $150 worth of credit at Chappell's Department Store. This is the largest amount we have ever earned in this way. With this we were able to buy for the chapter house a studio couch, two occasional chairs and a floor lamp. Plans are underway for a new rug and pad for the second floor hallway.

We celebrated the Christmas season with a party at the chapter house together with the actives. Marjory Kirk highlighted the evening with colored slides that she had taken on a trip to the far east. Our January meeting was a luncheon held at the Mizpah Restaurant. In February a white elephant sale at the home of Pat Adams added to the treasury. The seniors from the active chapter were invited to Harriet Rollins's home in March and election of officers was held. In April we had our annual evening of fun and dancing when members and their husbands got together at the Syracuse Hotel. The next event was Founders' Day celebrated with the actives at the chapter house. Our year came to a close with a May meeting at the home of Ellen MacClurg.

JEAN CRENNAN MCCUEN

WESTCHESTER

Under the vigorous leadership of our president, Janice Pierce Velde, our membership increased to 94, the highest in Westchester's history. Our monthly luncheon meetings and bridge groups have been a convivial means of meeting and welcoming new Pi Phis.

Our year's activities were launched in September with a stimulating and entertaining report of Convention by our president. The annual "Kaffee Klatsch" for the benefit of Settlement School, has become an affair that is eagerly awaited. This year we featured a fashion show which proved to be a huge success. An informative program on Settlement School was given in November by Jane Pasche Craig. Our December meeting was a sparkling highlight because of the demonstration of Christmas decorations by Virginia Le Roux Hildner. Each member brought a gaily wrapped gift for the children at Settlement School.

Holt House slides and a review of its history was the feature of our January meeting. We were extremely fortunate to have as our guest speaker in February, Dr. Edward Lorenz, Medical Director of Burke Foundation in White Plains. He explained the services available there and we feel our volunteer work there is a worthwhile contribution to it. Florence Parks Fri is our able chairman.

In March, we had the opportunity to go "Around the World" via beautiful colored slides with Mary Siggers Calvert. The Annual Meeting was held in April. Founders' Day was observed on April 23 at a luncheon at the American Yacht Club in Rye. We enjoyed meeting Pi Beta Phi actives and their mothers at a tea given for them in June.

Because of the popularity of our covered dish supper which includes the husbands, it has become an annual June event. A wonderful time was had by everyone and was a fitting conclusion for our year's program.

GAMMA PROVINCE

AKRON

The busy 1958-59 season got off to a roaring start with the annual "picnic" style cooky-shine in September. Plans were made at that time for the white elephant auction in October and also for a box supper, at which dinners, as well as husbands, were traded for the dining hour. It proved to be fun, and a good way to raise money.

A noted interior decorator spoke at the November meeting, bringing pictures and samples to illustrate his talk. He proved what place the decorator can have in everyday living and planning.

The holiday season once again brought together a large group of members and their husbands for a festive open house. The cheery atmosphere, good food and friends made it a memorable evening for all.

As a little something different for the program at the Loyalty Day luncheon, five of the members gave short talks on what Pi Beta Phi means to them. The talks ranged from the mildly humorous to the very serious and touching, but the sentiments expressed were shared by all.

Mrs. Carr E. Dix, Gamma Province Vice President, visited the club in February. She spoke of the need to continue our work in Gatlinburg, and to avoid feeling that Pi Beta Phi is no longer needed there. It was a most inspiring talk and her visit a pleasure. In March, Oriental slides were shown and a description of life abroad was given by member, Mrs. John Hanlon. She and her husband have lived and travelled extensively overseas.

Founders' Day brought a "birthday party for Pi Phi." Annual reports were given in the form of "gifts" and the theme was that of a birthday celebration.

May brought the change in leadership ceremonies bringing to an end a very successful and enjoyable year.

Mrs. G. E. MARTIN

ATHENS

Vivian Thomas Cady has directed the Athens Alumnae Club, with a membership of fifty two, through another successful year. Our meetings have been very well attended and we have assisted Ohio A during rushing by working in the kitchen and donating cookies for rushing and the annual faculty tea.

The new pledge class was introduced and had dessert with the club at the Pi Beta Phi house in October.

Jean Gist Trepp moderated a panel which presented an interesting program "Pi Phi Wisdom" at the November meeting. Such aspects of the fraternity as Settlement School, Holt House, fraternity awards, National Panhellenic Council, etc. were discussed.

Mary Connett and Ruth Jones Sweeney were named co-chairmen for the annual Spring Bazaar in March, and plans were made for it at the January meeting. In the interim we were all busy as the Easter bunny sewing, decorating baskets and candles, baking and making other items of seasonal interest. Chances were sold on an Easter bonnet, and the lucky winners' name announced at the sale.

Founders' Day was celebrated with Ohio A at the Ohio University Student Center Building. May found us again at the Center entertaining the graduating seniors with a buffet.

We were happy to have one of our members, Florence Craig Wilson, honored in the fall by the O.U. Faculty Wives as the member having been associated with that organization the longest time.

GRETCHEN BARSTOW BARNES

CANTON

Under the excellent guidance of Jeanne Murray Lothamer, the Canton Alumnae Club has enjoyed an interesting and enriching year.

Last June the club members were treated to a Japanese dinner party. One of our group, Mrs. Adelaide Woodworth Kintz, entertained the members by providing us with an authentic Japanese meal. Our suki-yaki was eaten with chop sticks and we all became quite proficient by the evening's end. Later we viewed slides of a Scandinavian tour taken by Mrs. Kintz.

Our September meeting was devoted to a discussion of rushing and of our Panhellenic party which had been held in August. Suggestions for improving the party were made. This meeting was held in the home of Mary Jane Kenan Ake.

Helen Rennecker Steen was hostess for the October meeting. Our annual homemade gift exchange highlighted the Christmas meeting at Kay Kelly Sullivan's. Again, as always, the talent and ingenuity of our members was displayed in the various gifts.

In January we met for a covered dish supper and in February a cooky-shine was held in the home of Dorothy Welsh Russon.

The March meeting was devoted to a review of the Constitution and election of officers. Marilyn Goetz Markling was the hostess. Plans for Founders' Day were discussed at Joyce Roberts Amann's in April.

Our year concluded with the Founders' Day luncheon in May.

ELIZABETH DOWNES RODERICK

CINCINNATI

The Cincinnati Alumnae Club is completing another successful year under the presidency of Mrs. John Lindhiem.

Last summer, for the third year, the club entertained members of active chapters who were in Cincinnati for vacation. In December, the members enjoyed a luncheon meeting at the Netherland Hilton during their shopping days downtown. The January meeting was held at the Art Museum and was accompanied by a short talk on the current exhibitions and time to visit them. The remaining meetings were, as usual, held in members' homes and included a February cooky-shine. The season ended with the annual picnic and swimming party at Mrs. George Bond's home in Loveland, with husbands joining their wives for the day.

Funds for pursuing philanthropic endeavors were secured from a rummage sale, a traveling baked goods basket, the sale of a large number of calendars, and from tax stamp refunds. The main purchases were a record player for the Protestant Orphans' Home at Christmas and two camperships at Camp Joy, a local fresh air camp.

The Cincinnati Alumnae Club takes this opportunity to salute one of its members, Mrs. Paul Derringer, who is the new Gamma Province President.

Mrs. ROBERT S. HARCOURT

CLEVELAND EAST

A dinner meeting on October 8 for both Junior and Senior groups marked the opening of our club year. President, Ruth Story

Frederick gave a splendid Convention report. Also in October, we held our annual display and all day sale of Settlement School products at Betty Stovall King's home. Ann Smoot Matia, chairman, reported sales totaling more than $1000.

The November dinner and meeting was followed by an hour of "Handwriting Analysis" by a student of the subject.

After the December 10 dinner, a number of our members demonstrated most effective, but easily constructed, Christmas decorations. Following this, we were entertained with Christmas music by the Mastersingers Trio; three talented young women, charmingly dressed in Christmas white and tinsel outfits.

We marked Chapter Loyalty Day, January 14, with a cooky-shine. At this time we also sent a check for $25 to one of our nearby active chapters as has been our custom for many years.

Our February 11 dinner was followed by a talk given by Mrs. Ruth Hinderliter, a Cleveland member of President Eisenhower's Committee for Rehabilitation. On February 28 we held a benefit dance at the University Club with the proceeds going to Babies' and Children's Hospital.

One of our own members, Elba K. Crow, gave a delightful book review at the March 11 meeting. For Founders' Day in April, Cleveland West arranged a lovely dinner at the Clifton Club. This brought Pi Beta Phis from the entire Cleveland area together.

Cleveland is privileged to have a well established "theater in the round," a summer tent show called "Musicarnival." The manager came to our May 13 meeting and entertainingly told us its history.

Tradition has surrounded our spring Benefit Party. This year it was held on May 20 and proved to be successful as in previous years.

Our final meeting in June was again a joint affair with our Junior Auxiliary. Our own Mary Gibson showed slides and gave a most interesting talk on her travels throughout the world.

MARIE ANDERSON BURROWS

CLEVELAND EAST JUNIOR

As is traditional with our group, the year started out with a cooky-shine in September with our able chairman, Del Dutton Dickson, outlining the year's program. In October we joined the Senior group for dinner and their program.

Some program highlights of the year included a Toy Party held in November whereby members could purchase Christmas gifts in advance of the down town rush; our annual Christmas party and gift exchange; and the project meeting where everyone worked hard and long to compile a number of cloth picture books for a crippled children's home. We also sponsored our own Benefit Bridge Party under the chairmanship of Eileen Flaherty with the proceeds going to a Junior Pi Beta Phi Club Scholarship. This money is given to a junior active to aid her in financing her senior year in college.

As in previous years, our once a month bridge group was well attended. This year also saw the return of the Benefit Dance held for all Cleveland Pi Beta Phis at the University Club on February 28.

Plans are now being completed for our annual summer party for the actives living in this area.

KAREN L. ERDMANN

CLEVELAND WEST

Cleveland West Alumnae Club, seventy-five strong, opened its year under the able gavel of Mary Lou Agar Calvert. September found us in good spirits enjoying our traditional potluck supper with food as only Pi Beta Phis can prepare it, and eager to hear Mary Lou relate the highlights of Convention.

In October we were entertained by the Ohio Bell Telephone Company's program, "Wheels of Fortune." Profits from rummage netted us $150. November found us thinking of coming elections and applauding Mrs. T. M. Holfarty for her delightful talk, "Romances of the Presidents' Wives." She appeared in a copy of Mamie Eisenhower's inaugural ball gown.

Our husbands were guests of honor at our December casino party; sales from Christmas cards boosted the treasury another $100. A tribute to Carrie Chapman Catt and a traditional cooky-shine shared honors at the January meeting carrying out our theme of "Pi Phi—Getting to Know You."

February we opened our minds to an enlightening talk on Russia by Ken Armstrong, local TV personality. March and thoughts of summer as we looked at slides of the famous summer tent theatre, Musicarnival.

April found us as hostesses for East and West side groups at our lovely Founders' Day banquet. Dean Christine Conway of Ohio State was our guest speaker.

Complete with a Pi Beta Phi husband as auctioneer, we produced our "white elephants" for sale, profits and fun at our May meetings. June, and as always, our picnic honoring actives in our area was held.

Throughout the year small groups of us entertained patients at Cleveland Psychiatric Hospital, and the club donated money to be used the best way the hospital saw fit.

JOAN ERDMANN SIMPSON

COLUMBUS

Again this year, our main money making project was to sell advertising for the Ohio State Fair Horseshow Program. Lula Oshner and Lynne Crumley Gilbert were in charge of this project which netted around $1750. The chapter house was completely and beautifully redecorated last summer by the house board.

In the fall, we had a benefit bridge party and neighborhood coffees were given in each section of town for the alumnae to get acquainted. Also the Settlement School Committee gave coffees at the members homes and our club sold more school items than ever before. April found our club joining the alumnae of K K I and A A A for a spring dance at Valley Dale. Founders' Day was celebrated on May 4. We joined the active chapter for dinner at the Port Hayes Hotel.

Our programs for this years meetings were planned by Katherine Montgomery McEwan and proved to be real crowd-getters. In September, Martha Kohr, our President, gave her very inspiring Convention report. In October, we displayed and sold many Settlement School items and Velva Shortz talked to us about the school. In November, we discussed rushing plans. Our Christmas program featured a local florist who showed us how to make original holiday decorations. Later her decorations were sold at auction. On Loyalty Day, Christine Yerges Conway, Dean of Women at Ohio State University and an active alumnae, gave us an inspiring talk. In February, the actives gave a skit and then introduced the new pledges to us. In March we had an Easter Bonnet parade.

A picnic at Darby Dan Farms was our last meeting of the year. New officers were installed and the graduating seniors were welcomed to our club.

All in all, it has been a very busy and successful year.

BARBARA OSBORN HOGE

HAMILTON

The third year of the Hamilton, Ohio Alumnae Club finds our membership and activity steadily growing.

Following our opening fall business meeting, our next monthly meeting was devoted to a tea for alumnae in the Hamilton-Oxford-Middletown area, the latter two cities having no organized alumnae club. We hope to continue this as an annual event.

In place of a Settlement School Sale this year, tins of candy were sold before Christmas. This project proved very successful financially. Clothes were also collected and sent to Settlement School in December.

Our January meeting was devoted to a Loyalty Day Program presented by Mrs. Ida Sterrett.

During February, clothing and canned goods were collected among the members for a needy Hamilton family, with Mrs. Fred Van Kirk in charge.

A party in honor of the new initiates and pledges of the Miami chapter was planned for March. The succeeding meetings were devoted to Constitution Study, a Founders' Day Celebration, election and installation of officers, and, to end the year, a party for the Miami seniors.

We will be very sorry to lose our present president, Miss Sue Stocker, next year. She is being married this spring and will be moving East.

SUSAN CUMMINS VAALER

LAKE COUNTY

A successful first year for the new Lake County Alumnae Club under the leadership of our president, Mrs. Norman Rozell, began with a September get acquainted meeting and Cooky-Shine Sing. Our seventeen enthusiastic members come from Painesville, Wickliffe, Willoughby, Willowick and Mentor, Ohio.

We were lucky to have Mrs. Ruth Fredericks, President of the Cleveland East Club, as our October speaker on the 1958 Convention. Her personal touch in reviewing Convention made us feel that we, too, were a part of it. We voted unanimously to apply for our charter.

We were fortunate to have Mrs. Ben Hopkins, former Gamma Province President, as our guest for the November meeting. She showed us movies of all the Ohio chapter houses and members and also of the California Convention. Mrs. Hopkins has been inspiring and encouraging in helping us get a good start.

Although our December Christmas party was cancelled because of heavy snow, it was still an eventful month for us because we received our charter.

We celebrated Chapter Loyalty Day in January by having each member give a brief description of her active chapter and campus. We have ten chapters represented.

An interesting talk on Holt House in February refreshed our memories on the founding of Pi Beta Phi as well as on the present significance of Holt House.

Our first formal elections in March were followed by an informative talk on Settlement School.

We looked forward to observing Founders' Day with our Pi Beta Phi neighbors at a dinner given by the Cleveland East and West Alumnae Clubs. Other plans for April included installation of officers and a complete review of rushing procedures in our area.

Plans for May and June included a party for the actives and pledges from our area and a family picnic in the summer.

CAROLYN NEWMAN FRANKLIN

NEWARK-GRANVILLE

The Newark-Granville Alumnae club's efforts for the past year have been largely directed toward the acquisition of a chapter house for Ohio H at Denison University in Granville. Working with the House Corporation, the house is at 425 West College Street, which has been leased from the University since the founding of the chapter here was purchased. A committee of alumnae headed by Mrs. James Base-Smith, was in charge of completely redecorating and renovating the house during the summer months. Final papers for the purchase of the house were signed early in the fall.

On October 29 the club entertained Ohio H's new pledge class with a turkey dinner at the chapter house, followed by a business meeting. On February 11 the alumnae met with Mrs. Paul Derringer of Cincinnati, new Gamma Province President, following a dessert given by the chapter. February 21, alumnae served lunch to the girls during initiation.

Plans were made by the club to entertain Ohio H seniors at dinner in April.

MARY BLACKMAN PARSONS

OHIO VALLEY

The Ohio Valley Alumnae Club, under the experienced leadership of Mrs. Robert Witte, began the year's activities with a bridge luncheon benefit at the new Wilson Lodge in Oglebay Park. It was very successful and got us off to a good start. Settlement School handicraft articles were on display at the luncheon.

To entertain the pledges, actives, and out of town alumnae home for the Christmas holidays, a tea was held at the home of Mrs. John Osborne, the latter part of December.

For our February meeting, we enjoyed a covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. George Seibert. The evening was spent in friendly discussion and a few participated in card games.

March 17 was the date set for our annual business meeting at which time we elected our new officers. Tuesday, April 21, was our annual Founders' Day Dinner. This event closed our year's activities.

ANN LAUPP OSBORNE

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

Our Springfield Alumnae Club met after a long summer of inactivity at the home of Peg McKenzie. Peg is one of the happy group who claims a Pi Beta Phi daughter, and she and her daughter entertained us alumnae and our ten actives with a lovely luncheon. It was enjoyable talking to our actives, and hearing their problems, many of which are the same ones we had when we were in school. Our second meeting was held at the home of Mildred Remsburg. Mildred served a delicious luncheon to the ten alumnae who attended. Our main business was paying our obligations to our various Pi Beta Phi Funds.

Our third meeting was a luncheon held at the Ker-Deen Inn. Our meeting was highlighted by our guest, Helen Dix, our province representative. After routine matters we spent the remainder of the afternoon discussing the nation wide attack on our fraternity system, and what we as individuals could do about the situation.

ANNA JEAN GIANOPOULOS

TOLEDO

This year, at last, the Toledo Alumnae Club had monthly dinner meetings. There have been an average of ninety members at each meeting.

The club has had more social activities with their men this year. In the fall a corn roast and hayride was held. Later there was dancing to a jukebox. In February, men made up half the attendance for this special meeting. The local Bar Association held a mock trial in which members took part. All felt it was a very enjoyable and interesting event and plan to hold a meeting of that sort each year. A dance will be held in the spring.

In December the annual Christmas party for the girls at the Luella Cummings School was held. Each year the club gives each girl a silver dollar and several gifts brought by the members. This school is our local philanthropic project.

The alumnae club entertained active Pi Beta Phis, home for holidays, at a "coffee."

To meet our budget, the club sold Christmas wrapping paper and ribbon. It was a huge success. Occasional paper and ribbon have also been added to help meet expenses.

NANCY D. HINDS

YOUNGSTOWN-WARREN

Activities of the Youngstown-Warren Alumnae Club began in August by participation in a Panhellenic Tea given for local girls going away to college. This proved to be very successful and the club voted to recommend that it be continued next year.

Fall activities began with two successful Arrow Craft Sales. One was held in September at the home of Paula Harrison in Canfield and later another in Warren at the home of Harriet Day. Refreshments were served would be buyers and we were very pleased with the interest shown in the handicraft articles resulting in many special orders.

The first regular meeting was held in Warren at the home of Virginia Johnston at which time preliminary reports of Arrow Craft sales were given followed by a delightful tea and social hour. In December a coffee for actives and pledges was held at the home of Paula Harrison. Interesting highlights of procedure in present day rushing were given by our guests. At our March 21 meeting held at the home of Harriet Day in Warren, election of officers took place and plans made for a Founders' Day luncheon held in April. A June picnic was planned for the final get-together of the year.

DORIS OSGOOD DORIA

DELTA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON-ALEXANDRIA

Arlington-Alexandria Alumnae Club has had a very active and successful year. Our president, Mrs. J. W. McGloone, moved to Maryland in mid-year and Mrs. William T. Schlick, vice-president successfully finished the year.

A Card Party was given early in the year as a money making project and from proceeds a check was given to the Paxton Memorial Home for Children at Leesburg, Virginia, which we have chosen for our philanthropic project. At one meeting the directors of the Home, Rev. and Mrs. Donald Buchanan told us about the founding and running of the Home which cares for about 36 foster children. Clothing, linens, furnishings and toys for the Home were brought by members to the meeting.

Our club was hostess for Founders' Day Luncheon when the District of Columbia Senior and Junior Clubs and the active chapters, Maryland Beta and D.C. Alpha joined us at the Army-Navy Country Club in Arlington. Ruth Williams Hansen, former Director of Extensions and a member of D.C. Alpha was guest speaker. Her subject was "The Arrow Points the Way."

Chapter Loyalty Day Luncheon was well attended in spite of bad weather. Settlement School and Active Chapter programs were part of regular meetings.

Panhellenic Representatives helped with a Rush Tea, a Bridge Party and Benefit Luncheon and Fashion Show held by that organization.

In addition to regular meetings we enjoyed what is becoming a traditional Christmas Party with husbands invited. Pi Phi Bridge Group meeting every other Monday is still an active part of the Club as is the Couples' Bridge meeting once a month. Another group who do not play bridge have been meeting once a month with husbands for dinner in each others homes. These extra-curricular Pi Phi fun groups stimulate interest and serve to get members better acquainted especially in an area as large as Arlington-Alexandria in which members live many miles apart.

ELLEN HELTON YOUNG

CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

For the third year the Charleston Alumnae Club began its season by participating in the Panhellenic tea, held for girls entering college in the fall.

Our September meeting at the home of Mrs. Stanley Wilson was a buffet supper which always draws our largest attendance of the year.

Mrs. William Thornhill, Jr. opened her home again in October for the Settlement School sale which was very successful this year under the direction of Mrs. Alfred Hohlitzell. The serving of doughnuts and coffee offered added inducement for our friends to come. Mrs. George Zimmerman held "open house" for the remaining articles in South Charleston and Mrs. Stanley Wilson, in St. Albans.

For a change of pace, there was a bridge party in November at the home of Mrs. T. D. North. Our quarters for bridge go to West Virginia A.

Our annual Christmas luncheon for actives was our December meeting. It is nice to keep in touch with what college girls are doing.

The informative or constitutional meeting was held in January at the home of Mrs. Alfred Hohlitzell. It was decided that the club will take on some local philanthropic project.

Time again for bridge in February. Mrs. John Wade welcomed us in her home for this social event. As usual, we had to attend to a little business before we could enjoy our bridge game.

Our speaker for the March meeting was one of our members, Betty Hallanan, an attorney and former member of the West Virginia House of Delegates. The slate for new officers was presented at this time.

We looked forward to our Founders' Day celebration in April. Our final business meeting came in May, at which time we wound up affairs for the year and made plans for next season.

LULU TOBIAS BOAG

NORFOLK

The Norfolk Alumnae Club's major project during the fall is the Settlement School Sale. This year it was held at a morning coffee at one of the member's homes. Invitations were issued to all the organized Panhellenic groups in the city, and members individually invited their friends. As was suggested at Convention, several of our members held neighborhood sales at their homes after the big sale which increased our total volume of sales.

For the Christmas meeting a luncheon was held early in December. This timing avoided the rush of Christmas week, and members from Virginia Beach joined us for the meeting.

The major spring meeting was the Founders' Day luncheon held in Williamsburg with the Richmond Club. Dr. May Keller was invited as speaker.

Other meetings have been held monthly through the winter, alternating night meetings with day meetings. An effort has been made to reach new members, such as the service wives who move into the area.

Our club works with the city Panhellenic through the year on such projects as the annual summer rush tea and the Panhellenic bridge party which raises funds for a scholarship to the Norfolk Division of William and Mary.

MRS. W. M. SANDERS

RICHMOND

Last fall our club accepted with regret the resignation of our president, Mary Hubbard, who has moved to Baltimore. Our faithful and efficient vice president, Mary Kay Hale, has been in charge and given us a good year.

The treasury quickly improved after each member was asked to give what she could in addition to her dues. We took part in the annual Panhellenic Bazaar by selling coat hangers and Arrow Craft. A dinner meeting, made possible by the generosity of Mary Williams and her assistant hostesses, further added to our funds.

This has been our program: in October, Convention reports; in November, an interesting talk on the Settlement School by Pauline Turnbull, with further sale of Arrow Craft. In December there was the annual Christmas party to which each member was asked to bring a guest from another sorority. At this time Christmas wrapped gifts for the babies at the State Farm were collected as well as good used clothing for the women there, for use when they were ready to go home. In January, following Mary Williams' good dinner, Ruth Hansen gave an entertaining and informing talk on the Constitution and Early History of Pi Beta Phi. At the February meeting at the home of Doctor Keller and Miss Turnbull we enjoyed a collection of colorful Convention slides. In honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, excerpts from an article about her life and work were read. In March there was election of officers with their installation at the April meeting. For Founders' Day the Norfolk Club invited us to celebrate with them at Williamsburg.

There was no May meeting, but some members attended the annual meeting of the Elizabeth Kates' Foundation at the State Farm. This organization, which originated in our club, has now grown to include many other women who are interested in giving help to women prisoners in the difficult period following their release. In this work we are helping in our small way the great work of two Pi Beta Phis, Doctor Kates and the late Doctor Mary Belle Harris who have done outstanding and pioneer work for the reformed prison movement.

AGNES PRICE CLEAVELAND

ROANOKE

This year has been an active and interesting one for the Roanoke Pi Beta Phi. In June, 1958, we honored Miss Marilyn Van Derbur, who was in Roanoke for the Miss Virginia Festival, at a luncheon at the Hotel Roanoke. We found her most gracious and enthusiastic about the welcome she had received from the alumnae clubs throughout the country.

In August, after a college fashion show at Miller & Rhoads, the Panhellenic Council sponsored a get together for the purpose of meeting the new candidates for fall rushing. Each fraternity made a display for the event. The Pi Beta Phi displayed the Settlement School products. Everyone seemed to enjoy this very much.

The September meeting concerned the discussion of girls recommended as Pi Beta Phi candidates.

In October, after the Panhellenic Council meeting, our club entertained the other fraternities with refreshments and a display of the Settlement School handcraft. Many of us did our Christmas shopping there.

On November 22, we combined a business and social meeting at a luncheon at the Shenandoah Club.

In March, the election of officers was held along with a program on the History and Constitution of our Fraternity.

Yearly activities were concluded in April with the observance of Founders' Day at a pot luck supper at the home of Mrs. Charles Mayhew. Our husbands joined us and as always, a delightful time was had by all.

CONSTANCE BRYSON

SOUTHERN WEST VIRGINIA

Although the Southern West Virginia Alumnae Club has brought Pi Beta Phi together from such far flung points as South Carolina, Kansas, North Dakota and Canada, it unfortunately hasn't brought us sufficiently close together to maintain as active an alumnae programme as we might wish. Our members are situated principally in Beckley, Princeton and Bluefield, covering a sixty mile area.

April's luncheon meeting found the Election of Officers included with the Founders' Day programme at the Glass House on the West Virginia Turnpike near Beckley. The June meeting welcomed summer with a delightful Bring Your Own Sandwiches luncheon and swimming party at the summer home of Mrs. Robert Ashworth on beautiful man-made, Flat Top Lake. Refreshments were served with a refresher course on Pi Beta Phi History. October showers didn't dampen the spirits of the alumnae who gathered at the Town-N-Country Restaurant in Princeton for our Recommendation Chairman's gratifying report on the results of pledging of area girls; as well as the Settlement School program. We ran through our "Lost and Found" alumnae file and decided that notices of the coming April meeting will be inserted in local newspapers for the benefit of any newcomers or visitors.

It is hoped that in the near future, as it is so difficult for the club to organize a project such as a theatre night or bridge party among the three communities, a competition may be arranged to see which group can organize the most successful local project. Meanwhile we are constantly alert to our prime function to date; bringing to the attention of active chapters young ladies who may enjoy the comradeship we found with Pi Beta Phi in university life, and who later may help us to become a strong and vital alumnae club.

MRS. WALLACE CARRUTHERS

WASHINGTON, D.C., SENIOR

The Washington D.C. Senior Alumnae Club has had an active year under the leadership of its gracious president, Louise Williams Groseclose. In October Mrs. Groseclose gave the club a most interesting and complete account of the Swampscott Convention, with additional comments by former Grand President, Marianne Reid Wild and Delta Province Vice President Marie Lingo.

On November 11 the annual Arrow Craft Sale and Tea was held at the home of Jane Ames. As in past years, Pi Beta Phi brought guests and other Pi Beta Phis, who were less active in the club. Early in December the group enjoyed a Book Review at the home of Mrs. Lingo with a coffee hour following.

Loyalty Day was celebrated in January with Marianne Wild as guest speaker at the home of Mrs. Herman Davis. In February the alumnae club was invited to join the Maryland B Mothers' Club as guests of the chapter at a practice rush party. The active chapter wore their prettiest frocks and treated their guests as they would rushees. Later in February members and their husbands enjoyed a stimulating speech by Dr. Elgin Groseclose. The election of officers was the principal business at the March meeting held at the home of Maurine Garwood.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the Army-Navy Country Club with the Junior and Senior Alumnae Clubs the guests of the Arlington-Alexandria Club. An address by Ruth Williams Hansen, the former Director of Extension, was the highlight. The year's activities came to a close with the installation of new officers at a May supper at the home of Helen Herzog.

MARYBILLE CARR CURRY

WASHINGTON, D.C., JUNIOR

The Junior Club of Washington, D.C. has had a most profitable and interesting year under the able guidance of Barbara Shoemaker, president.

In September, we gathered for a Gay Nineties Supper Party, complete with entertainment which consisted of a barbershop quartet, a short one act play, and group singing.

Our delegate to Convention, Cam Hunter, gave a report and showed the group a personal scrapbook in which she had collected many items highlighting the 1958 Convention.

The club was very honored to have both Mrs. Marianne Reid Wild, Past Grand President, and Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, Delta Province Vice President, at our November meeting. Mrs. Wild spoke about conditions now threatening fraternity existence on many campuses.

Contributions were made to the annual Bake Sale of the George Washington Junior Hospital Board. The club, in order to raise money for its annual donations, sponsored one evening of the Arena Stage's production of Three One Act Plays. Pi Beta Phi cookbooks were sold by members at the Senior Club's Settlement School Tea.

In December, each member of the group cut, decorated, and filled with a dollar bill, a Christmas card for an elderly person at D.C. Village, an old peoples' home. We also held a birthday party for a group of them in May. This was the first year for the Junior Club to undertake such an outside project as this, and we found it quite rewarding.

The club held its annual Card Party in March under the chairmanship of Marjorie Miller.

In April, we joined with the Senior Club, Maryland B, and D.C. A Active Chapters, for the observance of Founders' Day at a luncheon, with Arlington-Alexandria as hostesses.

The year's activities ended with an outdoor barbecue in May.
ROSEMARY MENIKHEIM OLMERT

WILMINGTON

Regular meetings began in September with a review of everyone's summer activities and a planning session for the coming year. The Settlement School sale and tea, with Golden Arrow members pouring, was almost as successful as we had hoped in spite of a drenching October storm. In November Victoria Gage showed beautiful slides of her trip through Italy and Switzerland.

With the help of an enthusiastic committee, Ruth Berchet was again hostess to Pi Beta Phi and their husbands or dates for the Christmas party. Good food, lively conversation and carol singing set just the right holiday mood. Surplus food was taken to the Sunday Breakfast Mission.

Our contribution for the active chapter at Dickinson was raised by the January bridge party. In February Barbara Wilson showed her pictures of Scotland taken last summer when she and her husband were in Edinburgh on a pastorate exchange. Guest night in March featured Mrs. Margaret Manning, the only woman in the state assembly, who gave us an insight into the workings of the state government.

A most enjoyable spaghetti dinner preceded the April meeting honoring our Founders. The year ended in May with a picnic and white elephant sale, one of our most successful ways of raising money for contributions for the fraternity's various national projects. We continue to participate in Panhellenic activities and arranged the April luncheon at the Strawbridge and Clothier auditorium with a speaker from the News Journal Travel Bureau.

NAN RIDGWAY LANG

EPSILON PROVINCE

ANN ARBOR

It was inspiring for the Ann Arbor Alumnae Club to start this school year with the chapter house addition completed and opened in September. Our club's activities were planned to accommodate the widely varied interests and schedules of our members. An October rummage sale, chaired by Mrs. Walter Marshall, netted $200 which was given to the chapter house. Also in October, Mrs. David Killins was hostess for a Golden Arrow Tea honoring two local Golden Arrows: Mrs. Palmer Christian and Mrs. Ray Fisher. An evening November meeting included a tour of the redecorated chapter house and new addition and Mrs. Margaret Matteson's inspiring Convention report.

Young children of members were included in the January morning coffee hour at the home of our president, Mrs. Darrell A. Campbell. The youngsters held their own social tête à tête over cookies and milk in the recreation room. A very successful Arrow Craft Sale at the chapter house in February was planned by Mrs. D. Roger MacNaughton. In March an evening of bridge was hostessed by Mrs. Rudolph Reichert, Jr. A final luncheon April 4 honored both our Pi Beta Phi Founders and our new pledges. Mrs. A. K. Dewar was hostess and Mrs. George Hantzicker was chairman. The luncheon concluded our official activities and left each of us looking ahead with renewed enthusiasm for next year's projects.

NANCY PEARSON

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

The Bloomfield Hills Alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi has had a very successful year under the leadership of Bunny Conn, who opened the September meeting with Convention Highlights. Local activities were invited to this meeting and we enjoyed singing our favorite Pi Beta Phi songs.

In October we had a rummage sale that helped us make our $400 contribution to Michigan B. With this money they will furnish one room in their new house in the name of our club. At our regular meeting the president of the League of Women Voters told us how to be informed voters. We had an informal coffee in November for our Arrow Craft Sale, and found it to be quite successful. Guests and members brought their small children along and the gay atmosphere led to many sales.

Christmas spirit prevailed at our "open house" type December meeting and all the members relaxed and played bridge in January. We had a Skating and Curling party at the Detroit Curling club in March for the benefit of the Nephrosis chapter clinic in Detroit Children's hospital. We pledge our money to purchase an electric drinking fountain for this clinic of kidney and special allied diseases, where the children must wait for hours at a time and have had nowhere to go for drinking water.

Our March luncheon featured Settlement School and we had a "Do It Yourself" auction, where members bring any items or food they have made themselves to be purchased by other members.

Our Founders' Day luncheon was held April 25 at Plum Hollow Country Club.

RUTHMARY VOELKER

DETROIT

The Detroit Alumnae Club opened the year with a Fall Get Together at the new Y.M.C.A. in Royal Oak. The club's president, Mrs. Stanley Baltzly, gave a very interesting and inspiring report on Convention.

Heretofore, the Detroit Alumnae Club has been comprised of four individual groups. This year the Junior Group disbanded, and all Juniors were welcomed into the other groups.

An Arrow Craft tea and sale was held by one group in October. Arrow Craft sale of goods was most rewarding this year.

November 8 all groups sponsored a very profitable rummage sale. Proceeds were used for a Wayne State University scholarship fund to aid a student in the field of education for the mentally retarded.

In January the North Woodward Group applied for a charter and next year will be the North Woodward Alumnae Club.

The Michigan Delta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi at Albion College was installed in March. Many of the club members attended the events of the week end in Albion.

Another red letter day in March was the visit of Mrs. William H. Mansfield, Grand President. A tea in the Grosse Pointe home of Mrs. Jack Frey was thoroughly enjoyed by members from Detroit, Bloomfield Hills, and Grosse Pointe.

For Founders' Day celebration, a luncheon was held at Plum Hollow Country Club. Grosse Pointe and Bloomfield Hills joined in for this special occasion. Bloomfield Hills celebrated their thirtieth anniversary with many Founders attending.

ANN BROWN

GRAND RAPIDS

The Grand Rapids Alumnae Club began its activities with an active membership of 32, under the leadership of Harriet McCall

Matthews. At the September meeting, and during the following weeks, we planned and held a successful rummage sale. In October, when all of us were beginning to think about plans for Christmas, we saw a toy demonstration. This program not only afforded us an early shopping opportunity, but also netted a small profit for the club.

The group spent a thoroughly enjoyable and enlightening evening in November when Mr. Charles Laufer, Chief Clinical Psychologist for the Grand Rapids Juvenile Court, talked to us. Also in November, Christine Olsen Clark, from our group, was general chairwoman of the annual City Panhellenic dance. A large number from our club attended and also helped at the dance. The Christmas party held in December was spent in fun and friendly chatter, resulting in a fine time for all. One of the Grand Rapids Community Ambassadors both entertained and educated us in January by telling us about her last summer's trip to Poland. Her talk and colored slides had us all wishing we could have shared in her experience. Loyalty Day was also observed at this meeting.

A book review by Dorothy Tuttle Hagerman highlighted the February meeting. In March we saw films from the Museum of Modern Art which were commented upon by designer Charles Eames. We celebrated Founders' Day with a Cooky-Shine at the April meeting, and also held election of officers. These officers were installed at the annual spring banquet held in May.

Several parties for members and their husbands were held throughout the year. One of these was spent in a day for all of us on the Lake Michigan beach last summer. We ended the day by grilling our dinner at Harriet Matthews' parents' home in Grand Haven. Another such get together was a theater party honoring Alice Robertson Lucas' husband, who directed the play we attended.

The 1958-59 year was a successful one in which we hated to see several of our very active members move out of town. But, on the other hand, we made new friends in the seven Pi Beta Phis who moved to the city during the year. This reminded us that the spirit of Pi Beta Phi is ever present.

DIANNE DEMMON MONTGOMERY

GROSSE POINTE

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae Club opened their 1958 season with a box supper September meeting. This first session put the spotlight on our president's report on Convention doings titled, "The Truth From Ruth." October's meeting was devoted to a "Gift Shower For Gatinberg Babies." Each member brought a new, low cost, practical infant gift for the Health Center's use.

In November we heard a local representative from the Foundation For Exceptional Children. Members have given many personally volunteered hours to the special school in Grosse Pointe and the general membership devoted its February meeting to the manufacture of articles for the school's use. An annual scholarship is given at Wayne University to teachers in this needy field under our group's financial sponsorship. December saw us all at our annual Cooky-Shine party.

January's meeting taught us to decorate cakes while watching a professional at her work. March we heard our own Alice Shepard give a book review. And we were lucky to squeeze into her busy professional schedule. Earlier in the afternoon, Detroit and Birmingham were co-hostesses with us at a tea for Mrs. Alice Mansfield at a club member's home.

April marked a Founders' Day Luncheon with Detroit, Birmingham and Grosse Pointe Alumnae Clubs at Plum Hollow Gold Club. May's meeting was our sign off supper at which time our 1959-1960 officers were installed.

FRANCES NOUSE

HAMILTON, ONTARIO

This year the Hamilton Alumnae Club has completed a successful first year as a chartered alumnae club. We have enjoyed this year immensely because of the wide variety of interesting programs planned by our committee.

Our first "active alumnae" meeting started out to be a Cooky-Shine, but blossomed into a buffet supper, given by Mrs. Margaret Murgatroyd, Dr. Freda Waldon, chief librarian, spoke to our group at the October meeting, providing us with an interesting outline of the cultural needs in Hamilton. This nicely coincided, although accidentally, with our tour of the showing of the "Old Masters" sponsored by the Hamilton Art Gallery in November. An unusual presentation and discussion was afforded to us about succession duties and wills. Little did we realize the extent of the problems involved! A tour of Wentworth County Court House was next on the agenda and plans were made for Canada's noted fashion designer "Olivia" to speak in March.

The overwhelming goodwill shown to us in our first year has been most gratifying. In return, we planned a luncheon in April for our province vice president, Ruth Ann Teetzel and other alumnae club members.

SUE HENRY

JACKSON

The Jackson Alumnae Club opened the 1958-59 season with a discussion of plans to assist Pi Phi Delta Colony at Albion College with their rushing program. A very successful October Settlement School Tea was held in the lovely home of Mrs. Henry Jury. The Country Club of Jackson was the scene of the delightful November luncheon meeting. Mrs. Albert Teetzel, Jr., newly elected province vice president, was the honored guest. Mrs. Wm. Bootes, president, was hostess for the January meeting at which Margaret Matteson of Ann Arbor gave an interesting and enlightening report on the Convention at Swampscott. Loyalty Day was observed by contributing trading stamps for Gatlinburg; Mrs. Wayne Schmucker was hostess for the social evening which followed a short business meeting.

A wonderful potluck dinner was the highlight of the March meeting held in the home of Mrs. Paul Young. A study of the Constitution followed the dinner. Mrs. Nathan Munro presented an informative program for the April meeting by showing Settlement School slides. Mrs. Hubert Federer was hostess for the May meeting during which a Founders' Day celebration was discussed.

In June Mrs. Clarence Merritt again was hostess for the husbands' party, which has become an annual affair.

BETTY WHITMER

LANSING-EAST LANSING

The Lansing-East Lansing Alumnae Club started a busy year with committee work in the summer and a pre-season work meeting of the club in September. All of this activity was in preparation for our all day Settlement School sale and tea on September 30.

Mary Ellen Bibbee Jacob opened her home for our annual dinner meeting in October. One of our own members, Edith Palmer LeRoy, was the speaker for our November meeting telling of her interesting work with concert entertainers.

In December the actives of Michigan I entertained the alumnae club at a Christmas party in the chapter house. Our gift for them this year was a lovely brass planter for their coffee table.

We tried to keep members close to the various functions of the club by devoting one meeting to the work of the advisory board and one to the operation of the building corporation. We had our usual rummage sale and this year also took clothing for resale on consignment at the Thrift Shop.

We entertained eighteen Michigan I pledges at a February Valentine party and in May had a senior farewell party for the graduating actives. On April 20 we had a joint celebration of Founders' Day with the active chapter. Evah Nell Crow was chairman for the evening.

GRACE ASHBY BURGETT

LONDON

The London Alumnae Club joined the active chapter in singing in the new school year at Ontario B at a pledge active weiner roast held at the country residence of Mrs. Clara Shipherd. The friendly atmosphere and joyous song precipitated a very memorable year in alumnae active relations.

In October Mrs. Barbara Busby continued the tradition of warm hospitality by opening her home for a Pot Luck Supper followed by a general alumnae meeting.

For the Annual Chapter Bazaar in November the actives relied on the culinary experience of the alumnae to bestow delicious quantities of baked goods. Despite a rather stormy wintery day the results were comparatively successful.

The high point of the year was the burning of a facsimile of the mortgage on the active residence at the Annual House Corporation meeting in January.

A Bingo was planned for March 9 to raise funds for the Canadian Project. The active chapter very kindly offered their co-operation and assistance.

To round out the year Mrs. Pauline Brown hostessed the alumnae club for a floral demonstration on various arrangements for spring.

BEV FOWLER

ZETA PROVINCE

ANDERSON

This successful year of the Anderson Alumnae Club was begun by a summer meeting where the members worked on ceramic steins which were later sold. Three new Pi Beta Phis have joined the group thus far this year and there are several new prospects in and near the city.

A dessert-bridge at Marilyn Wulf's home was the first scheduled social meeting of the year.

In November the group held its annual guest party at which Settlement School articles were displayed and sold. In addition a very successful "silent auction" was held which netted the group a few extra dollars profit. This was held at the home of Rose Ann Grim.

In addition to Pi Beta Phi national projects, to which the club increased all its donations this year, the organization used profits from sale of Christmas wrapping and ribbon to make a donation last spring to a new local county hospital so badly needed. The group hopes to help on a similar worthy project this year.

During the Christmas season the alumnae group entertained actives and pledges home for the holidays at a coffee hour. This also has become an annual event looked forward to in order to become better acquainted with these girls.

In March the club held election of officers and Becky Gilliom turned over her job to Marie Turnquist.

This year the members decided to make the meetings more enjoyable so most of the meetings are ended by a social bridge.

DONNA SPANGLER COLVILL

COLUMBUS, INDIANA

The Columbus Alumnae Club again started the year by entertaining guests at a rush party in August at the home of Mrs. Mary Catherine Brewer Arthur. A picnic supper was served and the remainder of the evening was spent enjoying various games. Small favors were presented the guests.

In September, the club enjoyed a pitch-in supper at the home of Mrs. Ann McQueen Thompson. Several new members were present for this meeting.

October found us honoring the newly appointed Zeta Province President, Mrs. Mary Catherine Brewer Arthur. A tea was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Jean Cummings Long. Friends of Mrs. Arthur from Columbus and nearby communities attended.

Mrs. Ralph McQuistan, Zeta Province President, visited the club in November. She was entertained at dinner by the local officers followed by a meeting at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Maris Beggs. Several of her suggestions have been incorporated in our plans for the coming year.

The January meeting was devoted to Fraternity study and was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Jean Cummings Long.

March was again time for elections. Mrs. Connie Medsker Thompson was hostess for that meeting.

The May meeting was devoted to installation of officers. A white elephant sale provided the entertainment for the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Sally Jensen Hergenrader.

Ribbon sales again provided a boost to our treasury. With several new ideas already in mind for next year, the Columbus Alumnae Club should enjoy another successful season.

EVELYN ARMUTH TUCKER

FORT WAYNE

Our year began in September with a complete and thrilling report from Janet Abbott, Convention Delegate. A guest speaker was heard in October on the subject "Wrapping Up Your Garden." The customs of India were related to us by a speaker from that country in November. In December, the alumnae entertained the actives and pledges with a dinner. Nineteen actives attended out of a possible twenty-one, and it was felt the dinner was a complete success, due to such fine attendance and a hard working committee. Throughout these earlier months, candy was sold as our fund raising project.

Chapter Loyalty Day was celebrated in January, and our February meeting was planned to make us better informed women on "Property and Foresight." The speaker was a banking official. On February 8, we were happy to cooperate with the Panhellenic Council in presenting a Fort Wayne Civic Theatre production. In March, in addition to election of officers, a husband-wife party was held. The April meeting was devoted to Founders' Day, and a lovely dinner meeting was held in May to honor new officers. In June, we concluded our year by welcoming the actives home for the summer with a program designed to entertain the actives plus inform the alumnae of campus activities.

We in Fort Wayne were pleased with our improved sales of Settlement School items. Also, the sale of magazine subscriptions was well supported by the membership.

Through the efforts of Lois Gumpfer, president, and Jerry Erwin, program chairman, a rich and rewarding year was experienced by all of the Fort Wayne Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club.

MARILYN S. O'ROURKE

FRANKLIN

The Franklin Alumnae Club held its annual organizational meeting in August at the home of Joan Chappel. A most interesting report on the Convention was given by our president, Jacqueline Alexander. The rush captains of the local active chapter were guests and reported on their summer activities. One of these activities, which was most interesting and beneficial, was a mock rush party in which the alumnae and the actives of our local chapter and neighboring chapters participated.

On September 20 we entertained our new pledges with an informal luncheon. That evening the alumnae, the active chapter, and the patronesses joined to entertain the new pledges and their mothers at the annual cooky-shine at the Hillview Country Club. In October we entertained the members of the patroness group with a coffee at the home of Elizabeth Houglund Ferrara.

Settlement School articles were presented at a tea at the home of Ellen Payne Andrews. In November we were happy to welcome Barbara Douglas McQuiston, our province vice president, as a guest at our regular meeting.

The seventy-first anniversary of Indiana A was celebrated with a dinner on January 13. Guests were the active chapter, the members of the Mothers' Club, and the members of the Patroness Group. A beautiful candlelight service, honoring the chapter founders, was conducted by Gertrude Deer Owens. The group was entertained by Esther Aiken Todd, who shared with us some of her experiences during her recent trip abroad.

The March meeting was held in the active chapter rooms. Officers for the coming year were installed at the home of Mildred Roth on May 12.

Fifty year Pi Beta Phis and the graduating seniors were honored at the annual commencement dinner in June, which was the final meeting of the year.

MARGARET WIESMAN

GARY

The Gary Alumnae Club began the 1958-59 season with an active membership of twenty-five members, under the capable leadership of June Hansen Atkinson.

Our planning committee which met in July selected a wide range of subjects for our programs, such as flower arrangements and a very interesting report on the Convention by our president and Lena Pavey Morrow.

We chose one large money raising project for the year which was the sale of Settlement School goods. This was handled quite well by each of the areas in Gary and Crown Point having coffees for their friends and neighbors displaying the Settlement School goods. It was very successful.

A box of "goodies" was prepared and sent to the Ball State girls for Thanksgiving which was quite appreciated by the girls.

December brought out Christmas luncheon. Members and actives home from college for Christmas vacation gathered for a delicious fried chicken dinner and an afternoon of bridge and Pi Beta Phi talk at the Morning Glory Inn.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the Hammond Alumnae Club with a very clever exchange of hats and at which time officers from both clubs were installed.

A party in late spring wound up the year. Our husbands and escorts joined us at the home of Joan Pruitt Retrick for a Bar-B-Q.

This year we mourned the loss of one of our members, Mrs. Carl Jenkins.

GERALDINE BASINGER ACKMAN

HAMMOND

The Hammond Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club opened the year by welcoming four new members to the group. Our President, Jean McNulty, brought back to us from Convention the spirit of Pi Beta Phi and gave us an interesting as well as inspiring talk at our first meeting of her trip to Swampscott.

In November Settlement School was discussed and items from Little Pigeon were displayed and sold. Audrey Bussart took us on a magic carpet to visit Morocco by way of colored slides and an amusing commentary. She had spent several months there as a Red Cross Recreational Director following her graduation from college. As a community service the club voted to present The Mayflower Home for Girls in Hammond with a subscription to Seventeen magazine.

On Monday afternoon, December 29, regional girls from active chapters and our alumnae group enjoyed a dessert bridge party. It was mutually agreed that the actives and alumnae should get together more often with tentative plans for a summer affair and also to continue the holiday party as an annual event.

Margaret Dixon, of our group, presented an informative talk at our February meeting on "What Every Woman Should Know About Insurance."

Election of officers was held in March and an interesting program on hobbies was presented by Mrs. Bacon, Mother of our club President.

The Gary Alumnae club entertained us with a lovely party and joint installation of officers in April.

The annual husbands' potluck and card party at the home of Jane Strange closed another year of wine and blue sisterhood with all looking forward to resuming our activities in the fall.

MARY ELLEN BARRETT EASTERDAY

INDIANAPOLIS

The Indianapolis Alumnae Club again sponsored a play "Southern Exposure" at the Indianapolis Civic Theater, our only money making project.

Our local project is the LaRue Carter Hospital for disturbed children. We provided a Halloween, Christmas and Valentine party at which time we supply favors, table decorations, gifts at Christmas, refreshments and candy.

We had a wonderful turnout for our annual Holiday Tea where we display Settlement School products and have a bake sale. We also show table settings and holiday decorating ideas along with Christmas package wrapping. Dorothy Spivey was general chairman.

During the holidays we entertained all the college Pi Beta Phis in the Indianapolis area at a coffee. Around seventy girls attended.

The Junior Auxiliary Club's big project this year is furnishing and decorating a wooden ranch style doll house which will be raffled in the spring. Mrs. Pat Muir is general chairman and has divided the club into rooms of the house to decorate. They are even doing the landscaping and having lawn furniture. Proceeds from this will go to one of the active chapters in Indiana.

The proceeds from their annual dance in November was given to the Indianapolis General Hospital Pediatrics Ward.

Mrs. Nancy Costin, one of the Junior members, has been selected as the General Chairman of the annual Easter egg hunt given on the lawn of the Governor's Mansion and again the Junior group has been asked to participate. They help with the coloring of 6,000 Easter eggs and the hiding of them. The proceeds are given to the Crossroads Rehabilitation Center for crippled children.

ANNE CONNOR

LAFAYETTE

An October buffet supper at the home of Catherine Hadley sparked the activities of the Lafayette Alumnae Club's 1958-59 year. Mary Jane Lorenz gave a verbal glimpse of Convention as did also two active delegates. At Catherine Bower's home plans were completed for the Arrow Craft Sale, November 18 at the chapter house. Members sent invitation cards to friends, and coffee was served to all who attended the display. After a short business meeting hostesses at the home of Mary Jean Brock served tasty punch and Christmas cookies. To observe Loyalty Day in January, Mary Jean Lorenz presented a thought provoking reading concerning two outstanding Pi Beta Phis in history. Twelve Pi Beta Phi mothers were guests of the club in February for dessert at the chapter house, followed by a white elephant sale, the proceeds of which were presented to the active chapter to purchase something for the house. On March 8 alumnae proudly attended the initiation into the active chapter of Mrs. Milton Cushing, the house mother. At Muriel Lawshe's home in March active chapter representatives brought news from the chapter, and plans were discussed for the pledge party in April. The Bum Room of the chapter house was ideal for the party, as the relaxed atmosphere was conducive to friendly mingling with the pledges. The seniors were guests for a May luncheon at the Country Club. After self introduction, each girl told her post graduation plans and received a gift. The seniors were inducted into the alumnae club, and club officers elected in March were installed. Club members helped with the Fall Rush Open House, and assisted with formal rush in February. Several club members attended winter initiation and a buffet supper to which all alumnae were invited.

ALICE MARSH WARE

MUNCIE

The Muncie Alumnae Club began activities in October with a carry in dinner at the home of Emily Wallace. Information concerning articles available from the Settlement School was presented and a discussion held on the work of the school. A note from the active chapter was read thanking the alumnae club for their anniversary gift. In November it was our privilege to have as our guest Mrs. Ralph McQuiston, province vice president, at a dessert bridge at the home of Gertrude Sparks. Mrs. McQuiston urged taking part in Arrow Craft sales and stressed the many worthwhile things accomplished in the school.

Our club was happy to welcome many Pi Beta Phis, who were home for the Christmas holidays, at a coffee hour at the home of Sally Schneider. Reports were made on the bake sale held the previous week.

Chapter Loyalty Day in honor of the Indiana Z pledges was held in the chapter suite in Rodgers Hall when the alumnae entertained at a carry in dinner. The history of Zeta chapter was given by Mrs. Jo Ward and several alumnae who were charter members. Constitution Day was observed in February by a dessert bridge at the home of Ruth McClintock. A quiz was given covering major points in the Constitution. A report was given on a very successful rummage sale.

"Spring Fashions" was the topic chosen by the speaker at our March meeting at the home of Jo Ward. Election of officers was held. State Day in April was well attended. Our treasury was increased from the proceeds of a white elephant sale.

At the carry in dinner in April for which Audrey Hostetter was hostess, plans were made for a picnic honoring the seniors. This picnic was enjoyed on the patio at the home of Beverly Stassen.

We closed our year with our annual husband and wife picnic at the home of Mary Baldwin.

JOSEPHINE GUTHRIE SAUNDERS

SOUTH BEND-MISHAWAKA

This year we have seven new members in our club bringing our membership to over fifty. In October our officers entertained the Grand Vice-President, Mrs. Barbara McQuiston, at a pot luck dinner in the home of our president, Dona Clark. Later in the evening Mrs. McQuiston gave an interesting talk to the chapter. In November we held our annual Settlement School Tea at the home of Margaret Pyle. We sold over $1400 worth of Settlement School products. Our co-chairman for this event, Inetta Martindill, is moving to Grand Rapids. Jeanette Slaby will assume her duties. In December we held our annual tea for actives and pledges in this area. The event was well attended and enjoyable for both alumnae and the college girls. Our January meeting was canceled because of the big snow which put South Bend in the national news. We looked forward to our spring meetings. In April we had our Founders' Day Dinner and in May we enjoyed ourselves at the annual potluck dinner held in the lovely Diamond Lake, Michigan, home of Marilyn Brehmer.

SOUTHEASTERN INDIANA

The Southeastern Indiana Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club scheduled four meetings for the year with the hope that the weather would permit the scattered members to attend.

The first meeting was held on September 24 at Rushville with a dinner at the Durbin Hotel. Eleven members were there in spite of our winter weather. The business meeting was followed by a program on "Local Chapter Interests—Rushing" given by Elsie Moeller of Greensburg.

At the November 22 meeting, which was held in Greensburg, we were delighted to entertain our province vice president, Mrs. Barbara Douglas McQuiston. Mrs. McQuiston met with the officers of the club in the morning for a business meeting. The entire club then enjoyed a delicious lunch at the Greensburg Elks Club. In the afternoon, Barbara Welch entertained the members at her home. After the program "The History of Pi Beta Phi" given by Elsie Moeller, Mrs. McQuiston spoke to the members concerning the Fraternity and answered many questions that we were anxious to discuss. It was certainly a great pleasure to have her with us and we hope for another visit soon.

February 20 found us meeting once more in Rushville for a luncheon at the Durbin Hotel. After the business meeting, Martha Hogsett gave the program on the "Settlement School."

Our last meeting for the year was held at Donna Crenshaw's home in Shelbyville where she entertained with a dinner. Donna rounded out her day of entertainment by giving the program on "Founders' Day."

Although our club's membership is scattered widely in Rushville, Shelbyville, St. Paul, and Greensburg, we have certainly enjoyed a very successful year of rewarding fellowship in Pi Beta Phi.

MARTHA WILLIAMSON HOGSETT

SOUTHWESTERN INDIANA

Members of our alumnae club gathered at the home of Betty Berry on August 7, 1958, for luncheon and swimming with actives as the honor guests. The program for the coming year was presented by our able program chairman, Peg Winslow, who chose as the year's theme: "KEEP TUNED TO STATION PI BETA PHI FOR THE BEST IN ENTERTAINMENT AND SISTERHOOD." Each month's program title has been fashioned after leading T-V shows and has been greatly enjoyed by our group. A few of the interesting programs we've already had included a hat swap and a silent auction of our talents, "The Price is Right." Along with the programs of fun have been those of education. One example was "This is Your Life, Dr. Albert Schweitzer" which was beautifully related by Frances Maier.

The first week in December, we had our annual Pi Beta Phi Party Parade, a tour of four houses which were decorated with unusual and different party ideas. The theme for this year's Parade was "Christmas All Through The House." Profits from this project are given to the Evansville Retarded Children's Center.

We all looked forward to the three spring meetings. In March, Jane Elliott was hostess to the club for "Queen for a Day" at which time the winner of the Sophomore Award was chosen. The club voted to present a trophy to the winning girl's chapter instead of giving the girl a personal gift. Then each year this trophy will be passed to the chapter from which the outstanding Sophomore comes. In April our competent President, Doris Stallings, opened her home for the Cooky-Shine—"You Were There." Our last meeting—"Do You Trust Your Wife"—featured a barbecue at Eleanor Mann's for our husbands.

LYNN RUSSELL

TERRE HAUTE

Under the able leadership of our president, Betty Doty Hamilton, the Terre Haute Alumnae Club has had another successful and enjoyable year. We have enjoyed monthly meetings at the homes of our members, with interesting program and discussions, followed by social get togethers, being held.

We were quite pleased with the pledging of two local girls, Ann Ennis and Jane Kessel to Indiana A, Franklin College, and another Terre Haute girl, Margaret Cork, to Indiana A, Purdue.

Our club members have been active in the City Panhellenic organization, with our official representative, Eleanor Poor Lee, their new vice president.

This spring, our alumnae club presented a white-winged "inspiration" arrow to DePauw's active chapter, Indiana E, to be worn by "the most loyal and co-operative Pi Phi," elected each semester. A most memorable evening was spent with the girls at Indiana E. We are looking forward to closer relationships with our many surrounding active Pi Beta Phi chapters in the next years.

PATRICIA DORSEY GILLIS.

ETA PROVINCE

CHAPEL HILL

The Chapel Hill Alumnae Club, under the fine leadership of its president, Susan R. Saunders, opened the year in a flurry of activities. Besides assisting the local active chapter with all of their rush parties, the alumnae club treated the new pledges to a buffet supper at the chapter house.

In January, we had a very entertaining and enlightening talk about the local chapter's activities and Convention, followed by a quiz program that left us promising to read our ARROWS more closely in the future! The April meeting was most successful. Besides the election of officers, the annual White Elephant Sale under the apt guidance of Phyllis Campbell Barrett and Sara Summerlin Philips was a big hit. Everyone also brought samples of their culinary art which after sampling, the members were able to purchase typed recipes if they so desired.

Founders' Day was celebrated this year in Chapel Hill with the North Carolina A and the North Carolina B chapters.

The final meeting of the year was held at the home of the president. There was a lovely spring luncheon followed by a business meeting at which time the final reports were filed.

LEE DOSSEL

CHARLOTTE

The Charlotte Alumnae Club began its activities with a get-acquainted meeting in September. We were pleased to find we now had over thirty active members on our roll.

It has been an interesting year, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Floyd Harper, Jr. and Mrs. William Schaffer.

Pat Schaffer, our Convention Delegate, gave a complete and most interesting report on the Convention, at the October meeting. At following meetings, we enjoyed such events as: a delightful luncheon and fashion show at a leading department store, and co-ordinated by one of our members, Miss Ginger Brice; an excellent talk on Interior Decoration; and a fun packed family picnic dinner. We held a luncheon meeting in April, for our Founders' Day Celebration; and many of us enjoyed attending a bridge luncheon given by the Panhellenic Council of Charlotte. We closed our activities for the year at our May meeting with the installation of new officers.

Now, all of us are looking forward to even a more active year in 1959-1960.

ANN HAUETER BUNCH

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

In the fall our thoughts always turn to a better than ever rush season for the active chapter at the University of South Carolina. In addition to helping the girls with recommendations, we annually give a lovely formal dinner for the last rush party.

In November our committees, under the capable leadership of our President, Mrs. James C. Covington, Jr., began to plan for the visit and banquet in honor of our Grand National President, Mrs. Mansfield.

Mrs. R. Lynn Kalmbach was in charge of our Christmas fund raising project, which was the selling of Christmas cards, decorations, ribbon and paper. Helping the Pi Beta Phi at the U. of S.C. with refreshments for their Christmas party was just one of the little extra projects we are glad to participate in.

In February two pledges were activated by special dispensation from National Headquarters. One was Mrs. M. R. Dowedwell, who was a pledge of Gamma Sigma at the U. of S.C. in 1927, which was at that time petitioning Pi Beta Phi for membership. The second was Nancy Sargeant Pericola, who had to withdraw from the U. of S.C. two weeks before she was to be activated in the fall. Both are now active alumnae members.

Also in February we had a most interesting program presented by Dr. Edith Haynes, an M.D. and a Pi Beta Phi, on Community Services.

ROSE WILKINS

KNOXVILLE

The Knoxville-Little Pigeon Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Mary Herndon, began the year with a meeting on September 11 to discuss plans for rush. Following rush week, the club entertained Tennessee I and new pledges with its annual "Pledge Dinner." Mary Miller, our alumna delegate to Convention, gave a report and showed slides of her trip to the Convention at our November meeting; and in December an informal Christmas party was given in the sorority room for the actives and pledges. A program on the Settlement School and a clever pictorial contest on the history of Pi Beta Phi was presented by Amanda Capen at the January meeting. Highlights of the March meeting were the election of officers and a report from Tennessee I. Money raising projects for the year were the sale of jewelry and of Pi Beta Phi cookbooks, with the proceeds to go toward a one year scholarship for the most deserving sophomore in the active chapter. The winner of this scholarship is announced each year at the Founders' Day dinner. The 1958-1959 year closed with the Loyalty Day program and the installation of officers for the coming year.

ANN S. CHRISTOPHER

LEXINGTON

The Lexington, Kentucky Alumnae Club got off to an unusually good start this year with a very successful Settlement School sale. It was held in October at the new, attractive Lansdowne Club and over $400 worth of merchandise was sold.

A city Panhellenic has been organized in Lexington and although we do not have an active chapter on campus, we do have a representative on this council, Henrietta Jernigan. We hope this will help us in getting Lexington girls on other campuses.

A pot luck supper was held at the home of Margaret Walker in March. In May a delightful Founders' Day luncheon was held at the new club for faculty and university alumnae, The Carnahan House.

RUTH SETZER

LITTLE PIGEON-GATLINBURG

December 8, 1958, fifteen Little Pigeons of Gatlinburg again formed an Alumnae club. Of the original charter group five are members of the reactivated club. They are: Mrs. Jack Huff (Pauline Whaling), Mrs. James Huff (Henrietta McCutchan), Miss Evelyn Bishop, Mrs. Joe Manley (Dorothy Douthat), and Mrs. Ralph Lawson (Mattie Huff). The original charter was signed in 1935. Mrs. Jack Henry (Nancy Jo Hays), president, guided us in our first organization meeting.

Our second meeting centered about a discussion of "Early Settlement School Days." New members of the group were fascinated by the stories and pictures presented by early Little Pigeon workers, Miss Evelyn Bishop (the first Head Resident), Mrs. Henrietta Huff (an early Pi Beta Phi teacher) and Mrs. Dorothy Manley (also an early teacher at the Pi Beta Phi School). After listening to these interesting accounts of the early days many indeed felt privileged to be so near our memorial to the Founders. The club voted to save merchandise stamps which will be used to help furnish the barn presently being remodeled here at the school.

"It is not so much the men we take in that counts. It is the men we turn out," were the words of May L. Keller when she addressed the New York Alumnae Club in 1912. In February, 1959 Mrs. Walter Spelman (Ruth Shantz), program chairman, gave a program on the History and Constitution. While scanning through early Arrows she found this quote and thought it to be true of the School's goal here in the "Burg." It was fun to go through the old ARROW and find names such as Evelyn Bishop that were familiar to all.

We had a program on Holt House and an observance of Founders' Day. This enthusiastic new club is anxious to become better informed and to be a working club of long standing.

SHARON DEXTER

LOUISVILLE

The Louisville Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi started in September with a report on the Convention as their first program of the year. In October a pot luck dinner was held at the chapter house. The actives were invited and our special guests were the members of the Mothers' Club. Many new faces were seen the next month when we tried a luncheon meeting instead of our usual evening get together. Our program featured suggestions for Christmas gifts. Early in December we sold packages of whole, shelled pecans. This turned out to be an easy way to earn some extra money.

After discussing several projects, we decided at our February meeting to work as a volunteer group with the American Cancer Society. We helped with their annual drive as a start. We also served as ushers at a special showing of a film about cancer at one of the downtown theaters.

A good time was had by all at a Spring Style Show in March. Through the hard work of several members it proved very successful. In April we had a very restful celebration of Founders' Day by not planning as elaborate an affair as usual. Our White Elephant Sale in May proved to be a lot of fun as it has been in the past. We closed the year with our Senior Farewell picnic at the home of our president, Ruth Anne Ragsdale. This is an annual affair at which we honor the graduating seniors of Kentucky A.

ANN CARTER SCHUBERT

MEMPHIS

The membership coffee in September at the home of Cornelia Thompson Miller opened our year. New members were welcomed at this time. In October, Irene Deloney Morse, President, gave a report of her trip to Convention. Margaret Blakely Dietrich was hostess and we all enjoyed our regular pot luck luncheon. The November meeting was held in the home of Neta Barham Wellford, and a report on rush was given by Kate Stalm Collier. The Panhellenic meeting was discussed as we were to hostess next, and Lillie Cutler Farnior presented a talk on "Cerebral Palsied Children."

Our Christmas dinner for our husbands was held in the home of Peg Proctor Garrecht. In January, Betty Dickmeyer Kelley presented the Settlement School program at the home of Lenelle Stewart Molloy.

Each year we select the most outstanding sophomore in Eta Province from candidates sent to us from all the active chapters. At the February meeting held with Mary Lib White Lemly, we selected Jill Ryan of the University of South Carolina to receive the Memphis Sophomore Award. The cup and a gift was presented to her on Founders' Day.

In March, Jean Ahlmeyer Tuttle was hostess for our election of officers. Our fund raising for the year was a "Telephone Bridge." The proceeds were for our contribution to Settlement School. We had a banquet for Founders' Day at which time the new officers were installed.

The highlight of the year was a tea for our Maid of Cotton, Malinda Berry, Oklahoma B. It was held in the home of Helen Hayes Hutton during Cotton Carnival Week. Cynthia Diggs Berry, Mother of the Maid, was also an honored guest.

PHYLLIS GOVIN KELLY

NASHVILLE

The Nashville Alumnae Club began their meetings in September, followed by the annual October membership coffee. Our Christmas party was given at the Bill Wilkerson Hearing and Speech Center for about 100 handicapped children and their parents. The party was highlighted by jolly Santa, who presented an individual gift to each child.

We began 1959 with enthusiastic ideas for developing a closer alumnae active relationship. Each alumnae has chosen one Tennessee B pledge to meet and entertain this season. An informal get together in March, given by the alumnae for all the pledges and their big sisters, started the ball rolling. In this manner, we hope to meet and know all the pledges each year and to renew friendships with the actives. In April all the past and present Pi Beta Phi honored the Founders at a banquet.

Maytime marks the date of our annual benefit, Frolic à la Mode, a spring fashion parade and luncheon. The proceeds go to the Bill Wilkerson Hearing and Speech Center. Last year's check tripled the amount presented in the past and we hope to top this in 1959.

GEORGEANNA WHITE PAYNE

THETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA

The first meeting of the Atlanta Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club under the leadership of its new President, Mrs. R. E. Fowler, began as a buffet dinner in the home of one of the members, Miss Penny Barnett. Pi Beta Phi college actives, who had not returned to their respective campuses, were invited and honored as guests at the meeting. Mrs. Mabel Brady, alumnae delegate to Swamscott, and Miss Donna Clifford, of Georgia A, delighted the group with highlights of their trip to National Convention.

After a recent trip to Gatlinburg, Mrs. Robert Regenstein had many new articles and handiwork to show in connection with the October program on Settlement School.

The Atlanta Club has had as its local project for many years, the Atlanta Child's Home and guest speaker at the November meeting was the Superintendent of the Home. The club's money raising project was selling donations on gift certificates to one of the local department stores. Drawings of the winners were held at this meeting. Pi Beta Phi netted approximately $250 from this way and means of self financing.

During the Christmas holidays, chapter actives and their mothers living in the Atlanta area were sent invitations to attend a Mother-Daughter Coffee held in the home of Mrs. W. M. Springer which was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season. Actives, alumnae and mothers met and chatted over coffee from 10:30 till 12:30.

In February Pi Beta Phi was Panhellenic hostess for a Valentine Dinner Dance at the Officers Club of the Naval Air Station. With assistance from other clubs, Pi Beta Phi, as chairman, put on a successful event. Word construction quizzes in connection with the Constitution and Pi Beta Phi facts provided much fun and information for the members present at the February meeting.

Election of officers took place in March and a banquet commemorating Founders' Day was celebrated April 28. Actives of Georgia A were invited to join the club. The May cooky-shine brought to an end another year of Pi Beta Phi activities and associations.

MARY ALICE PEACOCK

BIRMINGHAM

This year has been a very busy one for the Birmingham Alumnae Club. The Day Group meets once a month at noon for buffet lunch, after which the club's business is taken up.

A most interesting Convention report was given in the September meeting by our President. In October we combined our annual Settlement School Sale with our money making project, a silver survey for the Gorham Company. This was in the form of a tea with the general public invited. We sold around $450 worth of Arrowcraft merchandise and the latter netted us $118.

The club entertained Alabama A with a Sunday night supper at the home of Mrs. Richard Carter on Chapter Loyalty Day. A kitchen shower was given in connection with this event. Alabama B was presented with a brass umbrella stand.

The Night Group has enjoyed the Slide Programs of the Settlement School and Workshop provided by National Headquarters, but their biggest project of the year was the planning of the State Day Founders' Day Banquet in which actives of Alabama A, B and F all participate as well as the alumnae in the area.

EMILY LOKEY PINCANNON

DELAND

The DeLand Alumnae Club opened the club year with a luncheon meeting at the Chimney Corners Restaurant. At this meeting the club discussed ways to be of service to Florida A.

In December the alumnae entertained the chapter at a turkey dinner. In the spirit of the season each Pi Beta Phi brought a toy for a needy child. Rebekah Stewart distributed the gifts to underprivileged children in the local elementary schools. She also delivered the food that was left over from the dinner to a needy family.

Once each month two members of the alumnae club have supplied refreshments to the actives following a chapter meeting.

At the February meeting Nell Campbell Morris gave an interesting talk on the Settlement School. New officers were elected at the March meeting at the home of Betty Dreka Knox. In April the club celebrated Founders' Day at a dinner meeting with Florida A.

Pi Beta Phi was honored at Stetson University's Diamond Jubilee when Betty Foard received a Distinguished Alumni Service Award. Our meetings have been well attended this year, and several new Pi Beta Phi residents in DeLand have affiliated with the club.

MABEL BROOKS BARTLING

FORT LAUDERDALE

In fast growing Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, where people move from all over the country, our fifty member alumnae club represents thirty-two Pi Beta Phi chapters.

The Pi Beta Phi Arrow has been shining brightly in Broward County this year, for two of our alumnae group have received honors. Marge Young Martin was named Broward County Club-woman of the Year for her outstanding civic achievements, and Kay Leutwiler Tanton was the Ft. Lauderdale Panhellenic President for the 1958-59 season.

As a group the Ft. Lauderdale Alumnae Club, under the fine leadership of our president, Elinor Doughty Jensen forged ahead in charitable projects, both national and local. Our Settlement School chairman, Jett Munroe Schmelz reports, after a highly successful tea at Jesse Fisher Millikan's, a $500 increase in Settlement School sales.

This year for the first time we adopted a local project. At the February meeting we made thirty special scrapbooks for the Cerebral Palsy clinic, and we plan to follow through with future needs of the clinic.

Our two strictly social meetings included a gala Christmas open house for pledges, actives, and Pi Beta Phi husbands at Kay Tanton's. The seventy people joining the fun included four actives and five pledges. We wound up the year in May with a dinner dance with our husbands.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with the Miami group. Ft. Lauderdale Pi Beta Phi hosted for the first time, and the girls made their own decorations of wine and blue flowers from wood fiber. We plan to use the decorations permanently to alleviate the need for future floral bills.

Other meetings attended and enjoyed by a large percentage of our group included a Convention report, gift wrapping program, elections, and a game night.

MAXINE TROTTER CONANT

JACKSONVILLE

The Jacksonville Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi opened its Fall Season with a delightful Friendship Luncheon at the Roosevelt Hotel. The two groups, Day and Night, have grown under the capable leaderships of Alicia Youngjohns and Atherton Mawdsley. Newsletters were distributed or sent to all alumnae in the City and Beaches, giving a glowing account of programs and projects for the coming year.

We had some delightful programs including hat making, Christmas decorations, a lovely travelogue on the Scandinavian countries, and the European tour of Becky Conley, shown with slides. A Husband and Wife dinner was held at the Walter Schultz home.

At Christmas time, we held a beautiful morning Coffee at Lois Graesse's, honoring the actives, pledges and their mothers. Four joint meetings were held including a Founders' Day Cooky-shine at Becky Conley's.

Eight girls from the Jacksonville area were pledged and Melinda Dixon, an active at Florida State College was selected as maid of honor at the annual Gator Bowl Court.

We had as our projects this year, entertaining and doing little things for ladies of the Home for the Aged, Inc., carols were sung for them by the girls and Christmas decorations were made for them. A Blessing Box is passed around at the club meetings to collect money for Crippled Children.

ELETA DUNCAN

LAKELAND

The Lakeland Alumnae Club held its first meeting in October with a dinner at the New Florida Hotel. Fourteen local and county alumnae were present to share Dorothy Venell's hospitality.

Our president Connie Bovay is certainly very active even though she became the mother of a future Pi Beta Phi last December.

The lovely home of Bessie Kibler was again the scene of our annual Holiday Tea in December honoring the actives and their mothers.

We were indeed grieved to learn of the passing of our only Golden Arrow member, Mrs. Della Suit, Iowa A, in Arcadia, Florida, January 9, 1959.

It was quite an honor for one of our own members Betty Smith Cathcart, Florida B, to be elected President of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church. She is quite a busy person and we are happy to announce the midterm pledging of her daughter Susan at Florida State University in Tallahassee, Florida.

One of our charter members, Marguerite Straw Sult, is planning to move this summer to Okeechobee, Florida, with her husband, who has been appointed superintendent of the New State Boys School there. We will miss her.

Our Settlement School meeting in February was held at the new home of Jane Herndon. Plans for the Founders' Day meeting were discussed for April.

A covered dish dinner at the home of Millie Conibear drew our bonds of friendship closer as we again honored our Founders. Officers were elected and later installed in May at the home of Connie Bovay concluding our year's activities.

MILDRED HAMPTON CONIBEAR

MIAMI

The Miami Alumnae Club resumed its regular activities in September under the able leadership of Ann Huggins Goff. Our Miami Pi Beta Phi Alumnae letter was mailed to every Pi Beta Phi in the Miami area early in September. This newspaper helped stimulate interest among the girls for our many coming events.

In September Mary Ethel Prather and her committee started our year with a very successful Beau Party. The object of this pot luck supper was a pay your dues affair. Also it gave our husbands and friends a grand chance to get better acquainted.

We started our money raising projects with a very profitable rummage sale in September. In November our Settlement School Tea and Fashion Show with the latest Paris creations was held at Burdine's, a down town department store.

A lovely Christmas Dance honoring our actives and pledges was held on December 22 at the Coral Gables Country Club. A Christmas Coffee was held at the home of Nancy McCowen. This gave us an excellent opportunity to really meet and know our actives and pledges and their mothers.

Our local project for the year was to assist the Migrant Children. This we did with a financial donation as well as clothing and books collected from the members. One of our members, Peggy Brown, who teaches at the school in Redlands keeps us in close contact with the needs of these migrant children.

Loyalty Day was celebrated in January with Area Parties. These parties are purely social gatherings and lots of fun.

On April 8 at the home of Betty Annis our new officers for the coming year were installed.

Once again our calendar year came to a close with the Founders' Day Luncheon which was celebrated in Fort Lauderdale with the Alumnae Club of Fort Lauderdale. JOAN COOK SAUNDERS

MONTGOMERY

Calling all Air Force wives! The Anita Van de Vordt Hudson Club in Montgomery welcomes Pi Beta Phis from all over the world and looks forward eagerly each fall to the arrival of the wives of Air Force officers who come here for one of the colleges of the Air University at Maxwell and Gunter Air Bases. The number of Pi Beta Phis living in Montgomery permanently is small, but congenial, enthusiastic and friendly. Arriving Pi Beta Phis are asked to call or write Margaret Thomas Oliver (Mrs. Hugh R., 2857 Woodley Road, Phone Am 5-6374). Regular meetings of the club are held at 12:15 P.M. on the third Tuesday of each month at the Blue Moon Inn.

Our most interesting project was in assisting the Auburn Alumnae in the rushing program of the new active chapter, Alabama Gamma at Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Alabama. We took food to Auburn for their South Sea rushing party and were greatly impressed by the originality and ingenuity of the actives and by the stamina of the Auburn Alumnae, who have worked so hard to help this new chapter get on its feet.

Those of us who were initiated into Pi Beta Phi in college are especially grateful to the community leaders in Auburn who were initiated into Pi Beta Phi in order to help establish that chapter. The success of Alabama Gamma could not have been achieved without the enthusiastic and generous contribution of time, energy, and money of the Auburn Alumnae group.

Barbara O'Leary Daly, Margaret Jane Reinig Suydam and Margaret Thomas Oliver were hostesses at an informal Christmas party on December 9.

Rae Wille Hawthorne, our Panhellenic representative, is Treasurer of the Montgomery Panhellenic Council. Pi Beta Phi was well represented at the Panhellenic Luncheon and Fashion Show.

Mary Wilds Gilbert, Marion Pratt Thornton, Cecile Morgan Webb, Jane Pearson Roark, Elizabeth Phillips Turner, Natalie Lyons Barrows and Jane Reinig Suydam met at Olive Cruikshank Foss' spacious home to apply stream lined production methods to the making of 12 initiation robes for Alabama Gamma.

The actives of Alabama Gamma and the Auburn Alumnae group were invited to celebrate Founders' Day with us. CECILE WEBB

ORLANDO-WINTER PARK

A covered dish supper is an appetizing beginning for any club and the Orlando-Winter Park Alumnae Club was no exception. The July meeting honored the actives and pledges and provided the members with an informative talk on the Convention.

Informality was the keynote in September when the club had not one, but five area meetings. The neighborhood parties proved effective in gaining new members and increasing participation in the monthly meetings during the year.

For the October and January meetings the club headlined two of our Alumnae: a noted interior decorator and the winner of the Mrs. Florida Contest. Both were informative and entertaining speakers.

In November the club brushed up on Pi Beta Phi History and Constitution by participating in a quiz show, with the losers taking home various booty prizes.

The annual Christmas dinner was a success and many toys were collected for needy children. The financial success of our dance, however, was even more pleasing as it is the only money making project for this club.

Florida P Chapter at Rollins College entertained us in February and the new pledges were introduced. The seaker on Settlement School was an instructor at the college who had attended a summer session at Gatlinburg. She created much interest and answered many questions on the arts and crafts offered by the school.

WINDER A. WITHERELL

PENSACOLA

The Pensacola Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club has had a very successful year. We have thirty-four members. Our meetings have been well attended, starting with the installation of officers last May, at which time Francelle Isern was installed as president, Winifred Dance as vice-president, Peggie Smith as corresponding secretary, and Pat McWhorter as treasurer.

In August we had a rush party aboard the "Byronelle," Mrs. Byron Ellinor's yacht. It was greatly enjoyed by alumnae, actives and rushees alike. Our October meeting was held in the home of Elise Bagwell with Ann Burgoyne as co-hostess. June Merritt, our delegate, gave an interesting program about Convention, emphasizing especially the information she received about the Settlement School. In December we entertained the new pledges and actives with a coffee. It was a lovely party and added a pleasant touch to the Christmas season. Our February meeting was devoted to Loyalty Day. The hostesses were Suzanne Page and Winifred Dance. Plans were made then for our Founders' Day Luncheon. In addition to celebrating the founding of Pi Beta Phi and honoring the memory of those who made this possible, we also had election of officers. The hostesses for this event were Nancy Miller and Beth Patterson.

Last but certainly not least we feel proud that we have been able to contribute to the Holt House Fund, the Settlement School, and to help the newest chapter in our province, which is of course the one at Auburn, Alabama.

This has all been made possible by the interest, work and generosity of our members. With their continued co-operation, we are looking forward to many even more successful years in the future.

PEGGIE SMITH

ST. PETERSBURG

Sparked by the foresight and enthusiasm of our officers, the St. Petersburg Alumnae Club has had a most stimulating and successful year.

Our activities began in August, when, in cooperation with the other members of Panhellenic, we gave a combined "Preview Party" rather than individual rush parties.

A lovely social get together in September, at the home of Mary Meyer Tolman, set the pace for an eventful year. In October, Lillian Hyde Craig, our delightful president, presented an inspirational report on Convention. A Christmas Coffee held at the home of Betty Schoeppe Miller in honor of our actives and pledges and their mothers was most enjoyable.

Our Chapter Loyalty Day Luncheon, celebrated with the Clearwater and area alumnae, was held at the Glades Hotel which overlooks the magnificent Gulf of Mexico. We were honored to have as our speaker a Golden Arrow member from Massachusetts A, an enchanting lady who has been a province president, an Assistant Editor of the ARROW and a Grand Vice President, Mrs. Anna Nickerson!

We displayed and sold Arrowcraft merchandise at our very successful Valentine luncheon and fashion show held at the Lakewood Country Club. Proceeds from both this affair and our rummage sales will be used to further our new local mental health project and our beloved Settlement School.

Our area actives participated in our June meeting at which time rushing was discussed and plans formulated for the 1959 Panhellenic "Preview Party" held June 12, at the St. Petersburg Yacht Club.

We would also like to mention at this time that one of our members achieved national recognition and acclaim this past year. We are extremely proud of Clare Brown Williams, New York A, who was selected Assistant Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

MARY HELES PUFFER

WEST PALM BEACH

We are very happy to report that this year our alumnae club in West Palm Beach has been reorganized. Our charter originally began in 1927. We are now planning four meetings a year which we feel will prove much more satisfactory for us than the overload of meetings and activities we had in the past.

The Christmas season brought many of us together again for our annual Christmas luncheon which was held at Howard Hamilton's Restaurant. Mrs. Hamilton was a Pi Beta Phi at Ohio A. A wonderful time was had by all at this festive occasion, and our three pledges Sandy Cliff, Florida B; Cathy Johnson, Florida B; and Carol McCampbell, Florida A were presented with gifts.

Our first meeting of 1959 was in the form of a business meeting, and officers for the year were elected.

Our next meeting was our Founders' Day luncheon on April 28. A program based on this event is being planned by Mrs. Clifford Webster, New York A, and the luncheon itself is being planned by Mrs. Charles Rowe, Illinois Z.

We are proud of our four actives who are all Florida Bs, Barbara Eissey, Jane Parmelee, Linda Coston, and Brenda McCampbell.

Parties are being planned this summer with Panhellenic, and, of course, we are all looking forward and planning for these.

Our year has started off quite well, and with our enthusiasm over our reorganization, we feel confident that we will have a good year.

ANNE HULL VARN

IOTA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Plans for the Settlement School teas were discussed at the first fall meeting of the Arlington Heights Alumnae Club. Under the capable management of Dee Dee Newman Abbott and her co-chairmen, the successful teas and sales were held late in September and the results were very satisfactory as we netted over $2,000.

At our October meeting, our President, Villars Parkhill Gagnan, gave a very interesting report on the convention which she had attended. This served as an appropriate prelude to our Fraternity Study meeting which was held in November. At Christmas time our members wished each other "Happy Holidays" at a lovely party at the home of Jane McConley Faner.

Other meetings rounding out the year included a book review, our annual Valentine Card Party, the election of officers, the selection of our yearly Sophomore award winner from Iota Province, installation of officers, and our annual Founders' Day Dinner.

We consider our past year most rewarding and enjoyable and would like to mention that our club is extremely proud of two of our members who have received National Recognition. Elsie Murray Hubbard was appointed to serve as Chairman of the Chaperon Committee and Gladys Osborne Hall was appointed Scholarship Chairman of Iota Province.

LOUISE HEATH LEMMONS

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA

The Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club opened an interesting year with the Convention report in September. The pledge party at the Illinois Z chapter house in October was in the form of a cooky-shine and was highlighted by a style show featuring school girl fashions of Pi Beta Phis of yesterday and today.

The Settlement School sale at the Urbana Lincoln Hotel in November was again very successful, attracting many new customers this year.

The Senior Brunch at the Champaign Country Club is always a beautiful party and this year was no exception. The gifts to the graduating seniors were Pi Beta Phi Cookbooks.

A dinner at the chapter house in honor of Founders' Day and the Hobby Auction brought the year to a close.

Early in the year the treasurer, Ruth Bell, sent to each member a memorandum of dues owed and a brief sketch of plans for the year. This notice was responsible for an early collection of dues.

The alumnae mother-daughter plan put into effect last year has been a wonderful success. A potluck dinner at Christmas time and various informal luncheons has helped bring closer contact between the alumnae club and Illinois Z.

BETTY MCCORMICK MICHAEL

CHICAGO SOUTH

In memory of Grace Flood Hicks, loyal member and past president, the Chicago South Alumnae Club established a yearly donation to the Scholarship Fund of the University Club, a committee headed by her husband, Benton Hicks. This is to be known as the "Grace Flood Hicks Memorial Fund."

The social season began with a cooky-shine at the home of Helen Spencer Logie, featuring a Convention report by the president, Dorothy Sheehan McFarland, and an auction of Settlement School surprise packages. During Christmas vacation a "coffee" was held at the home of Nancy Marshall Scheidt. Pi Beta Phi actives in the area were invited. The affair was welcomed as an opportunity for alumnae and actives to become acquainted as well as for actives to meet each other.

The winter cooky-shine at the home of Cecile Gilroy Munnecke honored Edna Perry Duncan, province vice president. Mrs. Duncan spoke informally, reminding us of how much it means to be a Pi Beta Phi. The refreshments were especially attractive and included petits fours decorated with wine carnations or silver blue arrows and a giant cooky decorated in wine and blue and lighted with candles. The cooky was passed while a new cooky-shine song was sung.

Because last year's Settlement School Benefit Luncheon and Fashion Show at South Shore Country Club was so successful, the event was repeated. Innovations this year were the attractive Pi Beta Phi "angels" which graced the tables as centerpieces.

Annette Linder Lumsden provided a most interesting book review for the March cooky-shine at the home of Virginia Powers Brandt. Founders' Day was observed jointly with Chicago South Suburban Club with luncheon at the Swedish Club.

VIRGINIA RUNDBERG DAUGHERTY

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN

Chicago West Suburban Pi Beta Phi opened the season with our annual tea and Settlement School sale at Katherine Legge Memorial on October 1. This year, as in the past, we had a style show. The models, loveliest in the mid west were, of course, Pi Beta Phi modeling clothing and hats from local stores.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Russell Dondanville, we have enjoyed an outstanding and successful year. Our meetings have been varied and interesting. W entertained the actives and pledges of our area at a Christmas Brunch in the home of Mrs. Robert L. Youmans of Hinsdale. We were also happy to welcome Mrs. Edna Earl Duncan, our province vice president, who was an inspiration to us all. On the night of her visit we had a traditional Pi Beta Phi cooky-shine and song fest.

Loyalty Day was observed this year by presenting a signed card from the membership to Miss Flinn, our Golden Arrow Pi Beta Phi who recently moved to Florida.

Our Beta group planned a dance in June. It is being enthusiastically supported and well planned by dance chairman, Mary Lou Lungren. We hope to make it an annual affair.

Both groups looked forward to our Founders' Day Banquet held in the rustic and beautiful Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale. We invited the Chicago Business Women, Illinois Fox River Valley, Joliet, Milton Township and the Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Clubs to join us.

RAE KELLER WILLKIE

DECATUR

Decatur area alumnae started its year last September by giving our active chapter a helping hand during rush week. Makes you feel back in the swing of things even if you are just doing dishes in the kitchen. We had our usual home coming dinner at the chapter house and were pleased when Pi Beta Phi took homecoming queen.

Our money maker this year was a Christmas house tour of private homes which were decorated in different themes and styles from Oriental modern, for New Year's Eve, to American Traditional, for Christmas dinner. Mimeographed sheets given at the door explained the way to make many of the ornaments we used and gave a list of credits of merchants who were kind enough to loan us other more ornate things for display.

Santa made a call at the Pi Beta Phi house this year. Each alumnae mother brought their children and a gift for each for Santa to hand out. Santa also had a gift for the active chapter and our delightful new house mother, Mrs. E. L. Erwin. The house now seems to rank along with the North Pole in our small fries eyes.

In February we planned a social evening with our husbands. We looked forward to our Founders' Day meeting which will be at the Shellyville Country Club. In May we held our luncheon for our graduating seniors.

KAY KEITH WARNER

DU PAGE COUNTY

The Nina Harris Allen club meets regularly the third Thursday of the month.

The two groups joined in a traditional buffet supper in September. At this meeting Florence Gentry passed on the pleasures and inspiration of convention and enthusiastic plans were made for our first Settlement School Tea and Sale in a number of years.

In October Janet Baumrucker opened her lovely home and the new evening group, under president, Sally Robie, ably handled a beautiful and successful Arrowcraft Tea.

The sale of Social Capers continues to be a good fund raiser. Bridge luncheons, a white elephant and food sale and the collection of magazines and books for an old peoples home occupied the winter meetings.

Founders' Day, to be celebrated this year with the Oak Park-River Forest Club and the Chicago West Suburban Club, is looked forward to with eager anticipation.

Last year's picnics with the husbands were so much fun that plans are for each group to repeat as a grand finale to the year's program.

ELLA HARSHMAN KOUCKY

GREATER ALTON AREA

One of the memorable events of the year was the Country Carousel and House Tour given by the St. Louis Alumnae Club which several of the Greater Alton Area Alumnae Club members and their guests attended on May 7, 1958. The many items offered for sale at the Carousel and the delicious luncheon as well as the house tour all served to instill a greater sense of fraternity spirit in those in attendance.

New officers for the coming year, who were elected at the February 26, 1959 meeting are: President: Genevieve (Mrs. William) Bengal; Vice President: Marcella (Mrs. A. D.) Erickson; Recording Secretary: Jean (Mrs. Norman) Wells; Corresponding Secretary: Marie (Mrs. Willis) Baldrige; and Treasurer: June (Mrs. James) Lyon.

MARCELLA D. ERICKSON

ILLINOIS FOX RIVER VALLEY

The Illinois Fox River Valley Alumnae Club began its year in September with a most informative report on the Convention at Swampscott by our Convention delegate, Mrs. John McKee. At this meeting, final arrangements were made for our Settlement School Sale held in October at the home of our president, Mrs. James Marks. Under the able leadership of Mrs. William Warren, Settlement School chairman, the sale was very successful and the highlight of our club year. We are justly proud that our small group of only thirty active members can report gross sales of $980.

In November, Mrs. David Marti was hostess to the club, and our December meeting was a social evening of bridge at the home of Mrs. Richard Humm. It was our privilege to have our province vice president, Mrs. Perry Duncan, with us in January. After dinner at the Elks Club with Mrs. Duncan and the Executive Board, all members met at the home of Mrs. James Pitcher for a most inspiring talk by Mrs. Duncan, which was followed with a cooky-shine and singing.

Mrs. Don Clark entertained our club in February. At this time, we enjoyed the excellent Settlement School Workshop slides. The March meeting, with Mrs. Robert Watson as hostess, was sparked by an interesting program on Constitution and History. Also, election of officers for the coming year was held.

Founders' Day was observed in April with a lovely dinner and candle lighting ceremony at the home of Mrs. Jack Greyer. Our club year closed with our June luncheon. It has become a tradition to invite all active Pi Beta Phis in the area, and our alumnae look forward to entertaining and becoming acquainted with these girls who are home from college, and who will soon join our ranks in alumnae club membership.

CAROL ORR FLEMING

GALESBURG, ILLINOIS

The two day visit of Iota Vice President, Mrs. Perry Duncan highlighted the first meeting of the Galesburg Alumnae Association. Mrs. Duncan attended the formal business meeting on September 10 in the home of Mrs. Phillip Lass. The following morning the officers and Mrs. Duncan met in the home of Mrs. John W. Dredge to discuss the duties of each officer and the plans for the coming year.

Mrs. Guy Flater's home provided pleasant surroundings for the October meeting. This meeting was in the form of a picnic to which the active chapter was invited.

Pledging at the home of Miss Ella Longs consisted of our meeting for November.

Something new was added to our program in December. Mrs. David Allensworth was hostess to a Christmas party in which the members exchanged gifts.

The January meeting was cancelled and the next meeting was a Valentine dinner with Mrs. Charles S. Boydston hostess.

In March we met for the only meeting held at the Panhellenic House.

April 22 we celebrated Founders' Day at a dinner with the active chapter and patroness.

In May our group traveled to Monmouth for a dinner at Holt House.

Mid summer activities consisted of a picnic at Mrs. Peter Bohans.

In addition to the usual meetings, we were privileged to have a tea honoring Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers.

MARY LOU DREDGE

LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS

The Lake County Illinois Alumnae Club opened the year on September 6 with a luncheon given by Chris Fredericks at her home in Lake Bluff. In October Marjorie Cary entertained our group in Waukegan at a meeting which we devoted to Rushing and Panhellenic discussion. In November Jodie Saas and Nancy Ross were co-hostesses in Libertyville, and Jean Scott gave a Settlement School program.

Our Christmas potluck with our husbands was held on December 19 at the home of Mary Ann Owens in Waukegan. As usual, the evening was quite a success. Both January and February meetings were held in Waukegan, hostessed by Marcia McGill in January and Jeanne Banes in February. Our group was delighted to hear that our president, Ann Banes, presented her surprised family with twins, Steve and Kathy, in January. Both babies weighed in at over 6 pounds, and we all had fun at a baby food shower for her at our February meeting.

In March we elected officers for the coming year, and in April held our Founders' Day meeting with our traditional Arrow cake and candlelighting ceremony. We officially closed the year with a luncheon meeting in May, and held our picnic for Lake County actives after school was out in June.

JOAN SAAS

MILTON TOWNSHIP

The program of the first meeting in September was a report by Mrs. Philip Gentry on her attendance at Convention at Swampscott, Massachusetts. Her interesting report increased our enthusiasm to raise money to send a delegate to Convention.

Our fund raising project this year was a toy demonstration held early in October. Each alumnae member was asked to bring a guest and we were pleased about the turnout. We made a profit of $20 and, in addition, received a punch bowl and cups for having the party. Everyone enjoyed seeing all the latest toys and planning her children's Christmas.

The annual pot luck dinner with husbands was held in December in an atmosphere of good food and fellowship. We planned to have the dinner on a Sunday evening when more husbands could attend. We were rewarded with a large attendance of twenty two couples.

The March meeting was a busy one with programs on Settlement School, the History and Constitution and the election of officers. Installation of officers was held in April. We celebrated Founders' Day and recalled memories of our active Pi Beta Phi days with a cooky-shine.

SUE WIDEMAN PRICHARD

NORTH SHORE

At the opening September meeting, our president, Dorothy Thorman, gave a most enjoyable report on Convention, complete with some excellent movie film which was taken at Convention.

The Board of Directors were hostesses at a luncheon meeting in October at the home of Mrs. Howard Lindberg. The members were entertained by a very interesting talk about Antique Jewelry.

On November 6 the Board entertained the Illinois E pledge class for tea at the home of Mrs. Lawrence J. Lawson, Jr. Each pledge received as a favor a blue and wine arrow pincushion that had been made by several of our club members. Later the same month we had a very successful Arrowcraft sale at the Pi Beta Phi house under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. Cody Lavery. During the tea hour slides from Settlement School were shown.

Our December meeting was hampered by blizzard conditions, however those hardy souls who braved the storm were entertained by an informative talk on Dog Training.

One of our own members, Mrs. H. C. Daniels, entertained us with beautiful colored slides taken by she and her husband, titled Around the World in 80 Minutes at the January meetings.

One of the highlights of the year was our annual dessert bridge party. Entertainment was afforded by a group of actives of Illinois E who presented an amusing skit. We also had a fashion show. The net proceeds of this party are used for our Pi Beta Phi projects.

Our club and the chapter at Northwestern were fortunate indeed, to have Miss Amy B. Onken as our guest at our Founders' Day luncheon, held April 25 at Westmoreland Country Club.

The official year was closed in May with the installation of new officers and a discussion of Sororities Today. The North Shore club now has a paid membership of 100.

FLORA M. SIMPSON

NORTH SHORE JR.

In September the North Shore Jr. Alumnae Club embarked upon its new schedule of activities under the able leadership of Elaine Grimes Wall. Miss Marylou Luther, Fashion Editor for the Chicago Tribune, brought us up to date on the fashions that were currently being shown at the various designer houses in Paris.

October brought a candidate for a local office to the meeting to discuss issues of interest. Another October event was the successful supper get together for alumnae club members, their husbands and daughters.

For the November meeting the group congregated at the Illinois E Chapter House to watch that chapter present some excellent singing and dancing skits taken from their rush week entertainment. Holly Blanchard gave her Convention report. The annual Settlement School Sale was held at this same meeting.

The bustling December meeting found us wrapping gifts, filling stockings and making decorations in preparation for the Christmas party the club gave for Randall House, a home for emotionally disturbed boys in Chicago. Eight couples selected to go to Randall House for the event, returned with glowing reports that the boys had been thoroughly delighted with the whole party.

Each year we donate some money to the program for exceptional children in the Evanston schools. In February, Miss Hester Burbridge, director of the program explained to us the ways our money benefits the program.

Mrs. P. Duncan, our province vice president, visited us in January. The board members dined with Mrs. Duncan and then all proceeded to the regular monthly meeting where Mrs. Duncan reported news from Iota Province. At the same meeting, Miss Diane Aubineau spoke on "The Influence of Art on Our Life Today."

The March meeting was devoted to the election of new officers and to completing plans for the annual benefit.

For the benefit, members and their guests were invited to "forget taxes and bad weather and sail away in the S.S. family car to the tropic shores of the Highland Park Woman's Club on March 14 to participate in a Bahama Holiday." The party involved a cocktail dance and a trip to Nassau. The whole affair was a booming success and much fun was had by all. Proceeds from the benefit aid Settlement School, Randall House, and the Evanston Program for Exceptional Children.

In April a North Shore real estate agent addressed the group and the program for May was "A look at the Current Broadway Season" given by Miss Charlotte Lee of Northwestern University. The new officers for the coming year were installed at the May meeting.

One project that continued throughout the year was that of helping children at the Lake Bluff Orphanage to celebrate their birthday by baking and delivering cupcakes so the children might take them to school and share them with their classmates.

NANCY SORENSON

OAK PARK-RIVER FOREST

The Oak Park and River Forest Alumnae Club continued with the tradition of holding afternoon and evening meetings except for the months September, December, March, and June, when a joint meeting was in the evening. We have a paid membership of thirty five.

Mrs. James Larkin was hostess for the opening meeting in September. Eleanor Guerine, our President, was delegate to the 1958 Convention, and she gave an enthusiastic and interesting report. At the Christmas meeting at Helen Gordon's home, we had a grab bag for members, and in addition we brought articles for the gift cupboard of Presbyterian-St. Lukes Hospital for distribution by the Staff's social worker. This year the February meeting was different. We had a "Hi Jinx Jamboree" party on Friday, the 13, at the River Forest Women's Club. The party was very successful with the husbands and guests enjoying the evening of fun. Primarily it was a fun night, but the excess money over expenses is to be donated to a local charity. Members donated the door prizes, and a catered served a delicious buffet supper which was followed by Square dancing and Bridge. Janet Blum's husband Ted was the caller for the dancing. The decorations were very original and attractive, playing up the theme of Friday the 13. Founders' Day was celebrated with the Chicago West Suburban and DuPage County Alumnae clubs, with Chicago West Suburban hostess club this year on Tuesday evening, April 28. In June our annual picnic was held at Florence Michod's, with the actives our special guests.

CATHARINE PORTER BELL

PARK RIDGE-DES PLAINES

"Getting To Know You," the familiar strain, brought together the first meeting of the Park Ridge-Des Plaines Alumnae Club under the capable leadership of Jane Hanscom Sedlmayr, our president. We were happy to welcome seventeen new members to our active membership, and hope we can again add new faces to our club next year.

November brought the report of Pi Beta Phi's Convention of this past summer along with the reading of the Constitution and History. At this meeting we were privileged to greet our province vice president, Edna Duncan. January brought an enjoyable and rewarding project where our group participated in a cooky-shine for our newly established active chapter, Michigan Δ at Albion College. Boxes of cookies were baked, packed, and sent to the girls who were tirelessly studying for finals. The letters of appreciation were more than a reward for our efforts. Martha Campen Smith and her committee have done a more than commendable job in selecting entertaining and worthwhile projects for our club to enjoy this year.

"Pi Beta Phi To Thee," and fittingly so, brought to a close our year with our annual Founders' Day Pot Luck Dinner. Now once again The Park Ridge-Des Plaines Alumnae Club bid you adieu until we meet again in the bonds of friendship for another prosperous and enlightening year.

JUDITH S. SEESE

PEORIA

The year of 1958-1959 proved to be another banner one for the Peoria Alumnae Club, with its members entertaining whole heartedly into every phase of its activities.

Since our "Cooky-Shine," or informal tea, last year proved such a wonderful way of getting our new year started, we planned one at the home of Ruth Miller, with close to ninety members arriving to enjoy the evening.

Our October meeting was an inspiring one, with our province vice-president, Edna Duncan, giving us a full report on Convention highlights. We also were charmed by the introduction of our new Pi Beta Phi pledges, and hearing the lovely voices of our Pi Phi Alumnae Chorus.

November found us in the beautiful new home of Margaret Triebel, where our Settlement School Chairman brought us samples of the work done at Gatinburg, and the Pi Beta Phis were eagerly buying things for those on their Christmas lists.

Speaking of that gala holiday, we had our December meeting at the chapter house, with our guests the actives, who also entertained us with a very clever skit. We also had a very instructive gift wrapping demonstration.

We went to the unique restaurant, Vonachens Junction, for January, and heard a book review by Jane Peters Bourland.

February found us once again back at the chapter house, where we learned more about the art of modern cooking with a demonstration by a representative of Cilco.

Our March meeting was a salute to our wonderful Woman's Exchange, a shop where Peorians can deposit their used clothing and household items, for sale. This past year, the proceeds from the shop paid off the last three $1000 bonds that had been issued when we remodeled our chapter house.

April was a big month since we enjoyed having Mrs. Green, Chairman of the Settlement School Committee, as our guest speaker at our Founders' Day Banquet. In May, we took a trip, by bus, to visit Holt House at Monmouth. In June, we ended our year with a picnic with our husbands.

Our two money making projects have been a bakery and candy sale for miscellaneous income, and a rummage sale for the support of our charity project. All in all, it's been a busy and happy year for everyone.

RUTH MILLER

ROCKFORD

This year has been a very busy and successful year for our club. Due to the efforts of our capable rushing chairman, Marge Early, we had the largest number of pledges in the history of our alumnae chapter.

In September we had our rummage sale and, once again, it was a profitable success. This fall we also enjoyed meeting Mrs. Perry Duncan, our province vice president, who came to visit us at one of our monthly meetings.

During our Settlement School meeting, we sold items from a Settlement School sample box and found it to be very well received.

Our Christmas party was at Betty Michaelsen's home. Everyone looks forward to seeing her beautiful decorations throughout the entire home, as much as the gift exchange party. Over the holidays we also entertained at a coffee for all the actives, pledges, and their mothers.

We had an old fashioned cooky-shine this winter and, while most of us hadn't been to one since school, there were some who had never attended one. Everyone enjoyed it so much that we plan to make it an annual event.

In February we had our Couple's dinner party at the country club and before it a group of the alumnae entertained us in the home of Mrs. Gladys Ross.

A large number of our group participated in the Panhellenic bridge parties as well as in the annual Panhellenic rushing party.

Our year ended with our June Couple's Picnic. DEE K. LUTHY

SOUTHERN SUBURBAN CHICAGO

The Pi Beta Phis of Chicago South Suburban began their year with plans for the Settlement School Sale which took place in October. It was held in the home of one of the members, and everyone contributed cookies for the very successful evening.

We have had the pleasure of having two very interesting guests this fall. Mrs. P. Gentry of Glen Ellyn gave us her report as a 1958 Convention Delegate. In November Mrs. Duncan, Province Vice President, gave a very inspirational talk on Iota Province and our national projects.

Our outside philanthropic work has included donations to a local charity organization of toys, food, and smocks made from shirts. Socially, we have enjoyed a monthly evening of bridge. At Christmas time we celebrated the holidays with a buffet dinner for our husbands. We looked forward to spending Founders' Day at the Swedish Club with the Chicago South Alumnae Club. Our picnic in June rounded out the year for us.

All of these special activities plus our planned programs have made this year a worthwhile and stimulating one for us. We have been especially pleased to note an increase in our membership.

JEAN ANDERSON HARMET

SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

The membership of the Springfield Illinois Alumnae Club has increased steadily through the years. This year to our list of members, ten new names were added.

Instead of a large money making project, our club conducted two small ones which were very profitable. The sale of appointment calendars with four allotted to each member, proved to be a financial success. Throughout the year Arrow Craft products were on display at each meeting and the sale of these items, to members of the club, added money to our treasury.

Seven meetings were held during the year with the first and final meeting being luncheons. These always prove to be popular and bring out a large percentage of the membership. To add interest and enthusiasm the program chairman arranged to have speakers at two of the meetings. The city commissioner of finance, Mrs. Inez Hoffman, gave a very informative talk on "How to Make Your Will," a subject which was quite interesting to all members. For the meeting on active chapters, a pledge from the University of Illinois, Anne Tobin, gave a very enjoyable account of the life of a pledge. This brought back many memories to all of us. For the meeting on History and Constitution, one of our members, Miss Elberta Smith gave a humorous skit, based on the history of the Springfield Alumnae Club.

As has been our custom for several years, the Jacksonville, Illinois, Alumnae Club was invited to join us at a luncheon in celebration of Founders' Day. This brought to a close the activities of Springfield Alumnae Club for the year.

BARBARA WATKINS BULLARD

TRI-CITY

The interest and enthusiasm of each member of our Tri-City Alumnae Club was stimulated in our opening meeting in September, at the home of Edith Prior-Leahy Lischer, when Elaine Vifquain Woodard gave a report and showed movies of her trip to National Convention.

In October our group, meeting in the home of Jane Cummins Hollingsworth, was honored by a visit from Mrs. Perry Duncan, province vice president. A report on rushing was given at this meeting.

"Mentally Retarded Children" was the topic of our speaker at the November meeting in the home of Marion Staack. In January, meeting at the Butterworth Center in Moline, we had an interior decorator as our speaker. Loyalty Day was observed at the February meeting in the home of Ethel Melin. A bake sale was also conducted. We enjoyed a social evening of bridge in March at Jo Fontaine McNurlen's.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April with a dinner at Short Hills Country Club in Moline. In past years this dinner has been held in the home of one of our alumnae, but with the very large attendance at this dinner, we introduced this change. Installation of new officers and a demonstration of flower arrangements took place in May at the home of Janet Goodjohn Clark.

A successful year, under the able leadership of Fran Swartz Osmondson, President, was closed with a June picnic at the home of Dorothy Sparks Ericson.

PAT MARSOLEK DROBNY

KAPPA PROVINCE

BELOIT

The Beloit Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi has held monthly dinner meetings at the chapter house, and prepared by a cateress. Programs have included the Constitution and History; new ideas in Christmas decorations; western slides; addressing of postcards for the Commencement dinner; business and bridge.

In October, the Settlement School tea and sale, afternoon and evening, took the place of a regular meeting. Our club has no fund raising project as enough money is always netted from the sale of Settlement School products to finance our year, in addition to our dues.

The December meeting was a Christmas party, grab bag and bridge. February we held a dessert sing with the chapter, and in April we had Founders' Day together with the Rockford Alumnae Club.

Wisconsin B is our main interest, and many of our members are working very hard as members of the Advisory Board, or on the Board of the House Corporation. We always give the chapter a gift for the house at Christmas time. Our membership is diversified from many chapters all over the U.S. and we have had good attendance at all meetings.

DOROTHY F. FREDERICK

DULUTH-SUPERIOR

Duluth-Superior Alumnae Club started off our fall meetings with a full report from Eleanor Abbott, our delegate to the National Convention. Eleanor had many wonderful colored slides to show us and we felt, after seeing them, that we had attended some of the meetings with her.

In November we had an unofficial visit from Betty McGhie, Kappa Province President. She talked to us on "A Typical Day in the life of a Province President." She was very enthusiastic about the caliber of the active Pi Beta Phis she has met and her enthusiasm was contagious.

We enjoyed giving our annual gift to Minnesota A. This year, for the first time, we joined forces with the Minnesota Alumnae Club and gave two silver coffee services. Mrs. Robert Larsen, Alumnae Club President, selected the pattern and we are indeed grateful for her help.

We truly miss two members who have moved away. Charlotte Craze moved to Palo Alto, California and writes that she is now active in that club. Jessie Spencer Rolf moved to Minneapolis and will probably become active as soon as she can solve the baby sitting problem.

We have a display of Settlement School articles at each meeting. Every member is held responsible for at least five dollars worth of sales during the year. We hope to have a Settlement School Tea next fall.

In addition to the usual cash contribution to our Pi Beta Phi projects, we gave Settlement School $50, Junior Chamber of Commerce project "Toys for Tots" $10, and Duluth Rehabilitation Center $25.

Our Founders' Day Luncheon was held at the home of Kathryn Hatch. We planned an initiation review along with the usual ceremony.

IONE NIXON SIBLEY

FOX RIVER VALLEY

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae of the Fox River Valley under Georgianna Baker's supervision, started their year by helping Wisconsin P at Lawrence College to have a very successful rush week. Then we served a buffet ham dinner at Riverview Country Club to all of the new pledges and actives.

The actives at Lawrence have offered us the use of their rooms in Coleman Hall and so in October we gathered there to hear our president, Orpha Coenen, tell of her experiences at Convention. We also had our Settlement School and jewelry sale in the rooms and invited the Lawrence girls in for the display and cokes.

Gifts were exchanged and fun was had by all at our Christmas party at the home of Marge Rosebush. However, because of an old fashioned Wisconsin blizzard, the February meeting had to be canceled.

With better cooperation from the weatherman, we looked forward to our next meeting when we elected new officers, and had a cooky-shine and covered dish party with the Pi Beta Phis at Lawrence to celebrate Founders' Day.

The year closed with a farewell party for the seniors of Wisconsin I at Mrs. William Buchanan's new home in Menasha.

JOAN GREEN RADTKE

GRAND FORKS

The Grand Forks Alumnae Club has a very fine group this year. Our President, Joyce Graves, is a recent graduate and our membership consists of about twenty young ladies and about twenty of the older vintage.

Our first meeting was held at the home of Alice Sheppard. We entertained the pledges at a very informal gathering, playing games and eating popcorn, etc.

At our February meeting we made our plans for Founders' Day which was a Saturday Luncheon. We felt more of our members could be present.

We had our party honoring the Seniors at the home of one of our members. We gave the traditional gift to each of them, a Settlement School Purse.

MARION BIRD WEBB

MADISON

The Madison Alumnae is very proud that Emma-Lou Sorum, our president, was elected vice president of Kappa Province at Convention last summer. Emma-Lou was also elected president of the Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club of Madison. We are equally proud of Jane Stark who was elected president of the Panhellenic Council. Jane was also elected our new alumnae president for the next two years.

Rushing was the main topic at our September meeting. The alumnae were very pleased with the excellent job the actives did on rushing this year.

Emma-Lou Sorum gave a very interesting account of the Convention at our October meeting. The plans for our Settlement School sale were also discussed at this meeting. It was decided to hold our sale at the chapter house as we did last year.

Our November meeting was a party for the pledges held at the chapter house. Mrs. Orpha Herrick and Mrs. Mildred Gahrson presented a most timely and interesting program on how to wear accessories.

Our Christmas party was held at the home of Anne DeWitt. The program was presented by Geraldine Robinson on the gifts that can be obtained at the Old Rectory Shop in Madison.

New officers were elected at our February meeting. Ann Hartman presented a very interesting program on folk music of the Appalachian Mountains.

We entertained the seniors for dinner at our March meeting in the home of Ginny Rogers. The program, which was a humorous skit, was presented by Mrs. Claire Thomas.

The alumnae celebrated Founders' Day with the active chapter for our April meeting.

JANE BOURS WEBSTER

MILWAUKEE

There's nothing like a "get acquainted" buffet supper to get us on our merry way to another busy year. This the Milwaukee Alumnae Club had in September at the home of Roberta Rankin. Our president, Betty Barnes, gave an entertaining, enthusiastic, and inspiring report on Convention.

Our Settlement School Teas were held in October at the homes of Lois Thurwachter and Patty Rauh. Eleanor Gengler, Settlement School Chairman, did a fine job and the teas were a social and financial success.

Our November meeting was held at the home of Betty Moran. Peggy Schwoegler collected the gifts to be distributed to the Golden Agers at Neighborhood House at their Christmas party. Mr. Max Limberger, Jr., gave us a fascinating and enlightening talk on the "Highlights and Development of Wonder Drugs."

In December we again enjoyed getting together with Pi Beta Phi actives and pledges from the Milwaukee area. We had a very delicious brunch at the home of Maxine Graham.

In February we had a dessert meeting at the home of Roz Wolfe. Since we did not plan to have a meeting in March, we had election of officers. Peggy Schwoegler is our new president and Lenore Page our vice president. Mrs. John Mapp and Mrs. Irwin Burdick presented an unusually entertaining program on "Selections from Plays and Best Sellers."

This year each of our four groups raised the money in its own way for our local philanthropy. Neighborhood House. The Alpha group had a white elephant sale. "A Night in Las Vegas" with Pi Beta Phi husbands, food and games was the way in which the Beta group had a lot of fun and raised its money. The Gamma group held a talent sale in December which proved very profitable. A "goodies basket" made the rounds of the Delta group. Each girl baked her specialty and sent it on to the next girl. She contributed what she thought the delicacy was worth, baked her specialty and sent it on.

We closed the year with a Founders' Day Cooky-Shine at the home of Pat Jorgensen. After a brief business meeting, the officers for the coming year were installed. We then had our Cooky-Shine and spent a sociable and enjoyable evening.

BETTY STEWART MORAN

MINNEAPOLIS

Highlight of the current year of the Minneapolis Alumnae Club has been our close contact with Minnesota A. The September luncheon meeting program included a Convention report by our delegate and others who attended Convention and description and discussion of rush plans by the active Rush Captain and two of her committee chairmen. Several of our members did "kitchen duty" at the house during Rush Week.

The October meeting was entirely concerned with details about our Settlement School Sale, held in the home of Mrs. Frederick L. Deming on October 30. A successful bake sale accompanied the Settlement School Sale, and cookies gleaned from specialists brought by Pi Beta Phis were served with coffee to our guests.

November found us at the Pi Beta Phi House at the University of Minnesota where the House Board showed the newly redecorated living room and library, and other necessary improvements.

A gala Christmas party at the home of Mrs. James Morrill, wife of the President of the University of Minnesota, honored Dorothy Weaver Morgan, Grand Vice President. The Saint Paul Alumnae Club, the Mothers' Club, and the members of the active chapter were our guests for an evening made memorable by singing.

Despite bitter cold, a record number for January attended the luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Lampert Walling. Mrs. Walling graciously showed her beautiful new home as an informal program.

Founders' Day again found Minneapolis, Saint Paul, and the active chapter together for a luncheon observance at Minneapolis Interlachen Country Club. And so we closed another happy year in Pi Beta Phi.

JOAN REIBER TUPA

ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA

With another year elapsing the St. Paul Alumnae group has again participated in a great number of activities.

September got off to a great start with our meeting being devoted to rushing. Members of Minnesota A were invited and told us of their rushing plans and also of some of the changes that had been made in the rushing program.

Our annual bridge dessert was held during October. With combined efforts of all St. Paul alumnae under the direction of chairman, Mary Swenson, the affair proved to be a very successful one. Settlement School articles as well as gift items from a local concern were sold at this function.

At our November meeting Hilda Perkins, as our delegate to the 1958 Convention, gave us an extremely enlightening and interesting report on some of the highlights. She brought back many ideas that have been useful to our group.

Mrs. Morrill, wife of the president of the University and herself a Pi Beta Phi, held her traditional Christmas tea for all actives and alumnae in the area. We were very honored when Mrs. Morgan visited us here in December and happy, too, that she was able to attend Mrs. Morrill's tea.

The holiday season arrived and with it the annual Christmas luncheon. St. Paul actives and their mothers were guests at this festive occasion.

Bridge and canasta followed our February meeting. At our March meeting Marion Ahrens showed us slides of Alaska and gave us some interesting side lights of life in our newest state.

We are now looking forward to an even better year and hoping to undertake some local philanthropic project in the near future.

MRS. BYRON RASMUSSEN

WINNIPEG

The Winnipeg Alumnae Club's opening meeting was devoted to welcoming the new members and to an enthusiastic report on Convention by Rosemary Stevens.

Our Pi Beta Phi Paper Tea and sale of Christmas cards and wrappings was held in October under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. E. D. Tate. Over $200 was realized and used to cover club donations including the Canadian Loan Fund and our Bursary in Home Economics.

The active chapter and pledges were our guests at the Christmas Party held late in November. Hampers of food and clothing for two needy families were donated by the girls. The evening concluded with games and a Sing-Song.

Early in December we were pleased to have a visit from Mrs. Morgan, the Grand Vice President. A Coffee Party was held in her honor, at the home of Mrs. H. M. Roche.

The annual Initiation Banquet and Dance was held in January, at which time we honored seven initiates.

At our March meeting the election of officers for the coming year was held. Plans were also made to help sponsor a Panhellenic Theatre Night later in the Spring. Following the general meeting a White Elephant Auction was held to help raise funds for current expenses.

The Graduates were our special guests at the Founders' Day Luncheon held early in May, at which time they were presented with Sterling Silver spoons. This event marked the end of another successful year, under the capable leadership of the President, Mrs. K. Houston.

NORMA BINGEMAN

LAMBDA PROVINCE

CLAY-PLATTE COUNTIES CLUB

The Clay-Platte Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi officially began its year in April 1958, upon receipt of its charter, with fourteen paid members. We have been a club now for almost a year and despite the fact that our area is so scattered, we have managed to keep up our enthusiasm. During this time we have lost one member but we have gained two.

Our only big endeavor this year was a Settlement School tea last fall. It received such favorable approval from our friends in the community that we are sure next year's will be much easier.

Since our district covers two large counties and many large high schools in different towns, our rushing chairman will be very busy this summer. We are hoping that as our membership increases we can do a more complete job in recommendations.

MARY J. HASH

FORT SMITH

The past summer we were busy with meetings concerning rushing. Under the able leadership of our President, Carolyn Crane Gordon, and our rush chairman, Edna Augusta Durilla, we were able to do a fine job, pledging four girls at the University of Arkansas and one at the University of Colorado. Panhellenic did not allow spending any money on rushees so all we could do was talk to them or take them to Mrs. Durilla's pool.

In October we had a rummage sale and in December we had a luncheon at the Ward Hotel honoring our actives and our pledges.

We are helping the active chapter at Fayetteville to purchase some new furniture for the lovely house.

We celebrated the 50th anniversary of Arkansas Alpha of Pi Beta Phi in June at the state wide meeting at the University at Fayetteville.

RUTH MCKINNEY CRANE

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

The Kansas City Alumnae Club repeated the money raising project so successful last year, Theater Holiday, to New York. Forty eight participants, secured from throughout the area, saw four Broadway hit plays, toured United Nations, where they also had lunch, visited Radio City Music Hall and television shows last fall.

The club is sponsoring another Theater Holiday April 26 to May 1. Theater-goers will see "Flower Drum Song," "Pleasure of his Company," "J.B.," and "La Plume de Ma Tante." All details, such as reservations, transportation and tickets are handled by club members.

The "Avenue of Ideas" was a new project of the club, and was held on October 22. This project combined Settlement School Sales and do it yourself ideas, which were assembled and sold in kit form by members. Favors were made and given to each person. A luncheon was served to 250 people. The total attendance figure for the project was 1500. The "Avenue of Ideas" was such a tremendous success it will be repeated next fall. Approximately 200 club members worked on this project.

Early in the fall a party was given for new members, who have the privilege of joining a Newcomers group. Forty college girls attended a Christmas coffee given by the Board, at the home of Margaret Ott Barnes, for actives home for the holidays.

Members had a "Resell It" sale of good used clothing and white elephants at their March meeting for fun and profit. The money made from this was given to active chapters in the area.

SHIRLEY HAYENER

LITTLE ROCK

The Little Rock Alumnae Club enjoyed a very interesting year with Paula Reagan McDowell presiding as president.

Early in the new year it was decided that the club would have a cake raffle at each meeting to make extra money for the treasury. We also held a rummage sale which proved most successful.

Founders' Day was celebrated on April 28 in the home of Virginia Mitchell Bailey. Immediately following the dinner meeting club members participated in a skit honoring the twelve founders. Following the skit, the Loving Cup ceremony was enjoyed by all.

Actives and pledges, who join us for our summer meetings, were welcomed in June.

In July at our "outdoor picnic meeting" we had a guest speaker who spoke to us on the subject of "Communism on the Campus."

Once again Panhellenic at the University of Arkansas voted out local and state rushing; therefore, alumnae and actives rushed individually. At last year, Pi Beta Phi pledged the best girls and remained on top at the University as it has in past years.

The September meeting was most interesting and informative as we listened to a report on the 1958 National Convention, given by our delegate, Maude Watkins.

November was the month selected for the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School Tea. This year the tea was held at the Charles Minor Taylor Memorial Junior League House. A lovely assortment of arts and crafts was enjoyed by a fine attendance of the club members and their guests.

The year's final activity took place on December 22 with the actives and their mothers being honored at a Christmas Brunch.

DORRIS WELLING

MARKED TREE-JONESBORO

The Marked Tree-Jonesboro Club opened its year with a business and planning meeting in September at the home of its president, Frances Brigance Calvert.

New club yearbooks were distributed in October. Joan Gilbert Sloan designed clever covers with the Greek letters of Pi Beta Phi outlined in pastel shaded blocks.

Members heard an interesting and informative report on the business and social highlights of Convention from their delegate, Mrs. Calvert, at the October meeting.

Activities and honors of Arkansas A were the subject of the January program presented by Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Howard Stuck, Jr.

Highlighting the year's programs was the entertaining March presentation on Settlement School with the use of slides arranged by Doreen Barrett Deacon.

Members sold 100 Phi Beta Phi Cookbooks during the fall as the club's chief money raising project for the year.

The club also added a "surprise" raffle at each meeting, paying 25¢ a ticket. The winner of the surprise gift furnished a gift for the following meeting's raffle.

New officers were installed in ceremonies preceding the Founders' Day dinner held in April at the Hotel Nobel in Jonesboro. Martha Caldwell was in charge of the inspirational program following the dinner.

DOROTHY DAVIS STUCK

MARSHALL-CARROLLTON

The Marshall-Carrollton Alumnae Club was chartered amidst high enthusiasm in September at an organization meeting at the home of Virginia Hupp. At this meeting we elected officers, appointed committee chairmen, and discussed our plans for the coming year. We hope to hold an annual Settlement School Tea, perhaps alternating it in the different participating towns. Our membership consists of nineteen Pi Beta Phis from Marshall, Carrollton, Malta Bend, and Slater.

Officers were installed at the November meeting held in Carrollton with Katherine Magee as hostess. Virginia Hupp is our president. Plans were made for our Founders' Day luncheon and an interesting program on Settlement School was presented by Marceline Hall.

Our magazine sales rated fifth in the province, a showing which we consider most successful for such a new club. Katherine Pile is our magazine chairman.

In planning for the future, we hope to increase our membership and become better acquainted with the active chapters in our area.

SUSAN BOYLE SIMONSON

NEW ORLEANS

The New Orleans Alumnae Club held its first meeting for the new year 1959 at the home of the president Mildred Stouse Ward. Following our business meeting, plans for our annual pledge party were discussed.

On February 25, we gave a Dessert Party at the home of Joan Gillis Ellis, for the pledges. After introductions and a few games, we all enjoyed a famous New Orleans delicacy, flaming "Cherry Jubilee."

Another business meeting was held February 27, where future plans for the Spring Project were discussed. After the business we all enjoyed refreshments.

CAROLINE BENTON DRUMM

ST. LOUIS, SR.

The St. Louis Alumnae Club opened this year's activities at the September meeting by renewing friendships, welcoming newcomers, and honoring the new pledges. One of the outstanding highlights of the club's activities this fall was a lovely tea and reception given in honor of our Grand President, Mrs. William H. Mansfield. The reception was held on the campus of Washington University, and was well attended by university faculty, representatives of other fraternities, and friends paying tribute to Mrs. Mansfield on this memorable occasion. In addition to Mrs. Mansfield, we are pleased to have our province vice president, Mrs. Thomas H. Lafon, as one of our members. We held a joint meeting in October with the Junior Club, and interesting movies of the Pi Beta Phi Convention at Swampscott were shown. Our December meeting was our traditional Covered Dish Supper with the Junior Club, and we had the pleasure of having the actives and pledges as our guests for the evening. During the Christmas holidays, a brunch was given for all St. Louis Pi Beta Phis, actives and pledges, home for Christmas vacation.

We were very fortunate in having an outstanding guest speaker, Clarissa Start Davidson, for our February meeting. Mrs. Davidson is a well known daily columnist for the St. Louis Post Dispatch, and has just completed writing a book which will be published soon. Election of officers was held at our March meeting followed by a program on the Settlement School. Founders' Day was observed in April with a luncheon meeting, and the Junior Club and active chapter joined us for this celebration. A tea was given in April to display and sell the Settlement School goods. We ended another successful year with the May meeting honoring the graduating seniors, and are looking forward to next year, and our principal fund raising project, the Country Carousel.

BERNICE ZIEGLER ROEMER

ST. LOUIS JUNIOR

The St. Louis Junior Alumnae Club has been busy with various projects and programs this year, in which we have all enjoyed participating.

All of us who attended the Founders' Day Luncheon in April had such a nice time. Enticing Carousel samples that everyone had been working on all year were displayed. The "Country Carousel" is a gigantic bazaar and house tour that we and the Senior Alumnae Club have every other spring. All year we work sewing, painting, refinishing antiques, etc. Then in May we sell our wares. This year we made $5,500.

After a summer vacation, we reconvened in September to discuss future plans. There was a reception in October for Alice Mansfield, for we are so proud and honored she is our Grand President. All who attended were happy to have the opportunity to tell her so.

At our September meeting we decided to sell gummed address labels to earn a little extra money. It turned out to be a wise decision.

The fall Barbecue the Juniors have for the new Missouri B pledges was held at Mrs. John Hamilton's house. What a wonderful time we had seeing old friends and watching the skit about College Girl's Life vs. The Housewife's Life.

The October Meeting was a joint meeting with the Senior Club, the subject of which was an interesting Convention report by Beverly Stanford and Sally Koenig, Convention delegates.

In November we met at Epworth Home for Girls in Webster Groves, as Epworth is our club's special project. We discussed re-decorating certain rooms in the school, and appointed a committee to consult a decorator to see what we could accomplish with the money we had available. We also decided to buy two portable record players as a Christmas present to the girls.

At Christmas we celebrated the holidays by having a joint supper meeting with the Senior Club. And the Christmas Coffee for the out of town Pi Beta Phis was a great success. Everyone enjoyed meeting Pi Beta Phis from different chapters and hearing about their activities.

Our first 1959 meeting was an interesting Settlement School Program by Helen Russell.

The February Card Party was a wonderful social occasion with everyone catching up on news of Pi Beta Phi sisters.

This month we said goodbye to old officers and thanked them for their good work, and turned our thoughts to electing new officers. We also made our plans for this year's Founders' Day Luncheon.

In May we met jointly with the Senior Club and said goodbye to another successful year and began to make our future plans.

BARBARA D. SECREST

SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI

The alumnae of Springfield always become a bit reminiscent of their days as rusbees, pledges and actives when the August picnic rolls around. For that is the time when we make our plans to help Missouri P with rush. Twelve girls were pledged following a most successful rush week, with alumnae furnishing food, transportation and homes for coke dates.

The September meeting was a coffee at the home of Miss Emma Mae Baldwin to honor the pledges. October and November were filled with ideas and preparation for the fourth annual Santa's Workshop which was held on December 5 in the chapter rooms. This project succeeded once again, this year under the able leadership of Ann Calbert and Carolyn Fay. Queen Elizabeth's Cake, the only cake recipe she ever made in her own kitchen, was a special highlight. Bite-size pieces were sold with a copy of the recipe, with the instruction that the recipe is never to be given away. The Queen's desire is that it should always be sold to benefit one's favorite charity.

A record number attended the annual holiday luncheon which carried out a New Year's theme. The tables were gaily covered with confetti and the favors were ceramic New Year's bells. Special guests were area Pi Beta Phi actives from Missouri A, Missouri B, Missouri P and Arkansas A. Ann Calbert of the Nancy Taylor Charm School presented an interesting discussion of fashion trends.

Our club provided funds to send one Missouri P active to the National Panhellenic Conference in Baton Rouge in February. One representative of each sorority on campus attended, accompanied by the Dean of Women.

Inspiration Week was climaxed by the alumnae Cooky-Shine in honor of the eleven new initiates. This is one of the inspiring moments of the year for the alumnae, for there is nothing more radiant than a new initiate, is there?

MARTHE CLOSE

TEXARKANA

Olivia Smith Moore Alumnae Club has had a busy year. We had a most lucrative bake sale during the Easter season and planned another for this year. For our Founders' Day celebration we renewed our Pi Beta Phi enthusiasm with a cooky-shine. We sent two delegates, Olivia Smith Moore and Flora Kemp, to the Swamscott Convention in June. The mothers of active Pi Beta Phis were our honored guests at our January coffee.

We are looking forward to being among the hostess clubs for the Hot Springs Convention.

RUTH HENDRICK KITTRELL

TRI STATE

Tri State Alumnae Club, under the leadership of President Virginia Baird, began its year with a coffee in July at the home of Mary C. Wieman. An inspiring report on Convention was presented by Laura Lou Schapper, active chapter delegate from the University of Missouri. A fall meeting at the home of Donna Sharp was devoted to a discussion of National Fraternity projects and interests, and to planning the breakfast in December at which we honored our district's thirteen active chapter members who were home for the holidays. Founders' Day was celebrated during a candlelight tea at the home of Elizabeth Phelps. Again this year the Tri State Alumnae Club members sold "Social Capers" calendars and the profits were used to help support our Fraternity's national projects. In order to contribute to our local project, the Carver Nursery School, we launched intermember food friendship baskets. As a member received the basket containing some homemade food item she made a generous contribution and also filled the basket with one of her culinary specialties before passing it on to another Pi Beta Phi alumna.

This has been a rewarding and successful year for our group and each member looks forward to the meetings as they usually afford the only opportunity we have for renewing friendships with other members from this tri-state area.

MARY WIEMAN

MU PROVINCE

AMES

Membership of the Ames Alumnae Club includes the towns of Boone, Colo, Madrid and Nevada, Iowa. Luncheon meetings are held the first Saturday of each month starting in October and ending in April. Guinevere Wagner Anderson served as President this year.

Mabel Rupe was our hostess in October. Josephine Hungerford Dadds gave a very interesting report of Convention.

In December we met at the home of Marjorie Marshall and Louise Huntington Rowe read a Christmas Story for us.

Actives and pledges of Iowa P were our guests at the chapter house in February. Katherine Keister Iverson gave a very fine program about her trip to Japan with her husband last summer. She wore a beautiful Japanese kimono during her program and showed us many beautiful slides taken on her trip.

Ann Lechliter Munn was our hostess in March. Election of officers was held. Margaret Leonard Buck is our new president. Mary Kilburn Shipman gave a program on the Settlement School.

Founders' Day was observed in April with a luncheon in the Oak Room in the Memorial Union on the Campus. Janet Sutherland Aronson presented the Iowa P group of girls that sang in the "Sor-Dor" (Sorority-Dormitory) competition this Spring. They sang three numbers for us.

Mary Elizabeth Lush Hausrath moved to La Jolla, California in December.

Lydia Armstrong Adams, Iowa P, lost her 25 year old son, Chevalier George, in February, a victim of Muscular Dystrophy. Another son, Jay Lockridge (24 years old) died of the same disease three years ago.

MARGARET ADAMS

BURLINGTON

Burlington Alumnae Club members held four meetings during the past year.

At the initial meeting on October 10, Virginia Kiger Hamilton was hostess at her home in Oquawka, Illinois. Rushing was the topic for discussion during the evening.

On February 25 Dorothy Gibb McGowan entertained at a dessert meeting. Settlement School activities were interestingly explained by the president, Carolyn Noelle Russell. Officers were elected.

The third meeting was held in Ft. Madison at the home of Imo Wells Abram. A review of the Pi Beta Phi Constitution was given by Jeanette Peterson Hollowell. Officers for the coming year were installed with Miss Sue Fischer as the new president.

Founders' Day was celebrated April 27 at the home of Barbara Farley Awbrey with a traditional Cooky-Shine. A tribute to the Founders was given by Celia Lease.

ELINOR THOMPSON LUNDGREN

CEDAR RAPIDS

An early autumn brunch on a terrace overlooking the Cedar River Palisades at the summer home of Janet Wray launched the year of activity. A new club tradition took form at this meeting with the announcement that an I. C. Sorocis pin had been left to the club in the estate of Helen Burton to be worn by the president. Presentation was made to President June Hutchings at a three part meeting in October rotated between the homes of three members.

In November guest Mary Dahler described a tour of Europe. Christmas events include a cooky-shine followed later in the month by a Wine and Blue Tea for active Pi Beta Phis home for the holidays and their mothers. In February members heard a report by Barbara Ferguson on "A Threat to Campus Fraternities." The schedule included election of officers in March and Founders' Day Luncheon in April.

Besides its continuing support of such activities as the Settlement School, Emma Harper Turner Fund and Holt House, Cedar Rapids Pi Beta Phi assumed several community projects. Gifts were presented to St. Luke's and Mercy Hospitals, the Cerebral Palsy Center and the Retarded Children's Center. During the Coe College Fine Arts Festival, members served refreshments following a symphony concert.

The year's activities were scheduled to close on the scenic note struck at the beginning, this time an evening panorama of Cedar Rapids from the back yard of the home of Jimmy Lou Ross. The occasion, the club's annual barbecue with the husbands as honored cooks.

SUE TAGGE HUEBSCH

DES MOINES

Our Des Moines Alumnae Club is very active and has a growing membership. We have four joint meetings each year. One is held in December, one in April and two picnics, one in September, the other in June, May is our party month. Our Alpha group had a dessert bridge and Beta group, a husband wife picnic.

Both Alpha and Beta groups sold raffle chances on Settlement School items and the drawing was held at our joint December meeting. At this meeting, three foreign exchange students from Drake University provided very interesting entertainment.

A coffee was given by our alumnae for the actives home for the holidays in the home of Esther Jans.

The Beta group of our club sold candy to raise money for the Junior Scholarship Fund. Both groups sold printed post cards to raise money and our largest money making project of the year was a rummage sale held in January.

HELEN P. HAMMOND

HUTCHINSON, KANSAS

Founders' Day was celebrated with a Cooky-Shine at the home of Marguerite Graybill Lewis. We were happy to welcome Lois Gillian Chandler and Janet Duy Farrell from Sterling into membership in the Hutchinson Alumnae Club.

For the eighth consecutive year, a successful Christmas Charity Ball was held in the ballroom of the Baker Hotel. The money raised at this ball is used to support Pi Beta Phi national projects and to sent gifts to active Kansas chapters. Locally we sponsor a scholarship at Hutchinson Junior College. We also maintain a Student Aid Fund at all Junior High Schools and the Senior High School. In connection with the aid fund, we found a need to collect used clothing from our membership to be distributed by the girl's councilor to deserving students.

Hutchinson is proud to have an active, Molly Clark, as president of Kansas A.

NANCY BROADHEAD COOK

INDIANOLA

The Indianola Alumnae Club began the year with a September meeting at the home of Florence McCoy. Deferred rushing has been adopted this fall on the Simpson College campus and two of the actives attended our meeting and spoke to us about this new policy.

Homecoming was in October, and our alumnae prepared the evening dinner at the chapter house for all homecoming alumnae, chapter girls, and their families. Our actives helped make the day a success by winning first for the best sorority float. We also had a very successful rummage sale in October.

In November we were again happy to have two of our actives attend our meeting and they told us about their trip to Convention last summer.

December finds Alumnae and Mothers' Club busy, for they were hostesses to the chapter at a Christmas party. An especially lovely dinner was served and we presented to the actives a Hi-Fi set as our Christmas gift.

This year we omitted a January meeting and started 1959 with a February meeting at the home of Jane Wallerstedt. At this time Judy Allen gave a report on Settlement School and we anxiously awaited news on chapter rushing. We later learned the Pi Beta Phi has eighteen wonderful new pledges.

In March we entertained those eighteen new pledges at the home of Betty Buxton. This year we have Alumnae Sponsors for the pledges, and how proud we are of our new "daughters." Also, we held election of officers at our March meeting.

April we celebrated Founders' Day with the chapter with a lovely spring tea. Golden Arrow members were our honored guests. The seniors were our guests in May at a dessert party when we "initiated" them into alumnae club. Also, our new officers were installed.

As a fitting end to our year's activities, we held a Commencement Tea at the chapter house.

AGNES STONE

IOWA CITY

This year marked the Fiftieth Anniversary for the Iowa City Alumnae Club. In April the club celebrated with a dinner at the Mayflower. The active members of Iowa Z attended, along with members of neighboring alumnae clubs. The highlight of the event was a visit with Marian Keck Simmons, the National historian. Her address, which included some interesting History of Pi Beta Phi in Iowa, was most inspiring.

In September the club heard the rushing report from Eleanor Geldner Hageboeck and an enthusiastic description of the National Convention by Janet McNeill Bywater.

The Settlement School sale was held in October at the chapter house with a tea in the afternoon and again in the evening, when a demonstration of weaving was given by a member of the Home Economics staff.

The cooky-shine was, as always, a delight for the whole club to meet the pledges. Joey Workman Summerwill talked about the History and Constitution. A few weeks earlier the godmothers entertained the pledges in two groups at Sunday night suppers.

The scholarship dinner was in December when Miss Helen Reich from the Office of Student Affairs, State University of Iowa, addressed the group. In February the alumnae met for a dessert meeting to hear the Corporation Board Report by Francine Lacey Stewart.

A senior farewell brunch, the final event of the year, was in May. It is so very gratifying to be able to know the girls in the active chapter here on campus. Another privilege of the club is having the inactive girls yet on campus attend the meetings.

JEAN WHEELER HUBBARD

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS

The fall and winter calendar of the Kansas City, Kansas, Alumnae Club has been a busy one. New ideas for the Settlement School Tea were discussed and committees were decided upon at the business meeting in September at the home of Carol Hassig.

The pot luck supper at Barbara Wescoe's in October was fun for everybody. The Settlement School tea in November also was held at the Wescoe's which is a beautiful English style residence furnished by the University of Kansas for the dean of its medical school. The background setting for the tea table was the antique pine paneled dining room which came from an old British Castle. The sale of Arrowcraft items was entirely successful.

Our luncheon with the actives in January was attended by local members of chapters at the University of Kansas and the Kansas State University. Each school gave a report on its rushing program. As Kansas University is having second semester pledging this year, we were brought up to date on the changes entailed by a new program.

After election of officers at the March meeting, more fun was ahead with the Founders' Day Cooky-Shine in April and a picnic with our families in May.

LOIS SOLBERG NESSELRODE

LAWRENCE

The Lawrence Alumnae Club held its annual spring party honoring seniors of Kansas A at a luncheon. September started off the year with a "Come as You Were in College" party honoring the new pledges and Kansas A's new housemother. Entertainment was provided by some of the alumnae members presenting a skit of "songs and tales" dressed in "costumes" typical of their college days. In October Mrs. Kyle, the National Program Chairman visited the chapter. The actives invited the alumnae club to an evening dessert at the chapter house where everyone enjoyed meeting Mrs. Kyle and visiting with her. A luncheon meeting was held in November at which time members heard an interesting and informative Convention report by Mrs. M. P. Allen our delegate, who also was elected province vice president. The January luncheon meeting and program consisted of a Settlement School report with special emphasis on the history and background of the weaving and crafts.

In order to raise money for the Centennial Fund the members of the alumnae club began "Passing the Basket." Each member bakes some "goodies" for the basket along with a $1.00 contribution. The basket is passed from member to member, each enjoying the "goodies" while replenishing the basket to be passed along. A benefit was held March 10 at the chapter house which included a Settlement School sale and a Country Kitchen. Professor Allen Crafton spoke on The Women of Kansas. We are continuing to raise money toward the Kansas A building fund and trying to reach our pledge of $1000 to the fund.

MARY G. VAN SANT

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

The year began with the excitement and thrill of having one of our members elected Grand Vice President. In August a coffee was held in her honor.

Since there is an active chapter in Lincoln, much of the activity of our club centers about the actives. Pledges were entertained at the traditional September dinner. Seniors were honored in December. A tea at the chapter house March 14, followed initiation.

April 25 Pi Beta Phi from all over the state gathered in Lincoln for Arrow Day. Festivities began with a coffee hour at the chapter house. Later in the morning a panel discussed rushing problems and practices. The annual meeting of the Nebraska B Alumnae Association was held, at which the house maintenance program was presented. At noon our National Historian spoke at the Founders' Day luncheon. It is hoped that Arrow Day will become an annual affair, drawing all Pi Beta Phis in Nebraska closer in the bonds of wine and silver blue.

FLAVIA THARP AESCHBACHER

MANHATTAN

Close relationship with Kansas B active chapter has marked all the meetings of our club this year.

Club officers were hostesses at a pre-Rush Week get together with the active rush captains. In September we were guests of the chapter for buffet supper to meet the pledges, and in October we became better acquainted at a pot luck supper we gave for the pledges. Following the supper we heard a report of National Convention by club president Dorothy Fairbank, who also showed colored slides she took there.

Two actives presented an original skit on the Settlement School at our dessert and coffee meeting in November. We had no Settlement School tea and sales of articles this year, having decided that the sale does better when given every other year. Articles were available, however, to anyone wishing to place an order.

Alumnæ and actives had their annual House Corporation Meeting in January. There are no immediate plans for building on the lot owned by the corporation since we must first have a buyer for the present house.

February saw a large turnout for a dessert bridge at the Country Club at which Kansas B seniors were honor guests. Annual election of officers took place at the meeting which followed. Dorothy Fairbank will head the club again next year under our system of two year terms when possible. A highly successful two day rummage sale in February netted over $280, and was our only major money making event. Edith Brewer again headed the committee which so ably handled the sale.

March saw us attending a cooky-shine at the chapter house, and in April were again with Kansas B for Founders' Day banquet. Actives furnished the evening's entertainment, and we were pleased to hear announced all the honors won by chapter members during the year.

A sophomore woman at Kansas State again was awarded a scholarship from a fund established by the alumnæ club and the active chapter. Many contributions have been made to the fund in memory of deceased Kansas B's.

MARY ANN MCCOY

MT. PLEASANT

The Mt. Pleasant Alumnæ club began their year activities with a meeting in the home of the club president, Helen Devin. After the business meeting everyone was interested in the report of the 1958 Convention given by Helen Devin and the two active delegates from Iowa A, Nancy Kreck and Sue Carruthers.

The alumnæ members gave their usual assistance to the active chapter during rushing. Pledging was in the home of Helen Rhode.

In November the actives and pledges were guests of the alumnæ club for dinner. The actives gave two delightful "skits" about Pi Beta Phi which they had used at their rushing parties. The evening closed with singing Pi Beta Phi songs.

In December members of the alumnæ club gave money or some articles the actives could use in their rooms. These were sent to them to be a part of their Christmas party.

At the January meeting with Alice McCuen, a cancer film was shown. In February everyone enjoyed seeing the pictures Mary Wright had taken on her visit to the Settlement School this past summer. Marion Hatrick, Settlement School chairman, had Settlement School articles for sale.

The March meeting was an old fashioned cooky-shine with Waunita Essex.

In April the alumnæ joined with the actives of Iowa A for a Founders' Day dinner, and also in June for the commencement breakfast, which honors the seniors and the visiting alumnæ.

The Mt. Pleasant Alumnæ Club has been given the Pi Beta Phi pin which belonged to Miss Eva Freeman (Iowa A) (Deceased), by her niece. It is not as large as an I.C. pin. It has enameled wings and a carved point. It is to be worn by the Alumnæ Club President. The Alumnæ Club members are deeply appreciative for this gift and it will be cherished by all.

At the present time Iowa Wesleyan College is making plans to restore the home of Senator James Harlan, one of Wesleyans early presidents. Senator Harlan was the father of Mary Harlan who married Robert Todd Lincoln. They and their three children spent much time in Mt. Pleasant.

BEULAH BILLINGSLEY HAYES

OMAHA

The Omaha Alumnæ Club started the fall season by helping to serve at one of the rush parties in Lincoln.

In October the Settlement School Sale and Coffee was held at the Town House Motel Exhibition Hall. Above each display the committee had hung very clever signs which helped guests to find the different articles for sale such as linens, baskets, baby goods etc.

Another money making project was a toy display held at the November meeting.

Members staffed the linen booth at the annual benefit bazaar for Children's Memorial Hospital.

During the Christmas holidays the annual party for alumnæ, actives, junior and senior high school legacies, and the Mothers'

Club was held at the home of Delores Carlson Owen. The informality of a buffet brunch helped members to meet and acquaint themselves with the guests.

The Cooky-shine was held in February. Ten members served as hostesses in their homes and each hostess entertained a small group of alumnæ. The event was strictly social with bridge and sewing the main entertainment. On Loyalty Day the president, Priscilla Bailey Peterson, started a telephone campaign greeting. Each member was called and asked to write a note to a Pi Beta Phi friend. At the March meeting a map was used to show what different parts of the country letters were sent.

The first annual Arrow Day was held on April 25 in Lincoln. All the alumnæ clubs of the state participated in this meeting.

ARDITH VICKERY

PANHANDLE

With the enthusiasm and energy of a new group, the Panhandle Alumnæ Club, under the very capable leadership of Betty Jean Segrist, has completed its first year as nationally affiliated alumnæ club.

Because of our small membership in Western Nebraska we have been forced to limit the meetings to four a year. However, we enthusiastically follow the scheduled study programs and have high hopes of gaining new members from the surrounding area.

We closed our year with the thought that we have grown, not only in the establishment of a new group, but also in Pi Beta Phi.

BARBARA MYERS

TOPEKA

The Topeka Alumnæ Club held its first meeting of the year 1958-59 in September at the home of Miss Nancy Ferrell. Miss Jeanne Hunter, president, gave an interesting report on her trip to the Pi Beta Phi Convention. Mrs. Clark Bening, vice president, read the proposed plans for the meetings this year, which are designed to stimulate interest and attract new members to the alumnæ club. Before the meeting was closed, a white elephant sale was held to raise money for the Centennial Fund.

The October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas M. Gregg. Preparations for the Settlement School Tea, to be held in November, were made.

The Settlement School Tea, held at the Topeka Country Club, was our November meeting. This tea has always been eagerly awaited by the community, and, as usual, was quite successful.

The December meeting was held at the home of Mrs. George H. Eicholtz. It was a Christmas party for the members' children, and all had a wonderful time. A Christmas story was read, refreshments were served and Santa Claus came and gave presents to everyone.

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. James A. Emmerman. It was a morning coffee, which the members enjoyed.

The February meeting was held at the Topeka Country Club, on February 14. It was a Valentine's Day party for husbands or guests. A buffet dinner was served, followed by an evening of dancing.

NANCY FERRELL

VERMILION

September 1958 found rushing occupying the attention of both the Vermillion Alumnæ Club and active chapter. The club still acts in an advisory capacity to the active chapter and gives assistance whenever advisable.

The November meeting was devoted to Settlement School and the inspirational place of the women's fraternity in the life of the college coed.

January was devoted to the chapter history book and thoughts of the 1958 Pi Beta Phi Convention. Also, the alumnæ joined the chapter in attending a very successfully executed local Panhellenic Workshop and Branch.

The club entertained the new initiates at the February meeting during which the Constitution was read. After the initiates departed, plans were laid for Founders' Day which was celebrated in April. Alumnæ from Sioux Falls, Yankton, and Sioux City joined the Vermillion members for a pleasantly remembered luncheon meetings.

The new officers were installed at the May meeting and plans were made for summer and fall rushing.

EDITH HEER

WESTERN KANSAS

Out in Western Kansas, where the Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club encompasses a radius of sixty-five miles, members have concentrated on quality of meetings rather than quantity. "Let's make our meetings really important events, well worth driving, flying, or walking the 65 miles to attend," club members decided last spring. Attendance at this year's four meetings seems to prove the approach has considerable merit.

In addition to local level contacts, Kansas A's have been engaged in a hubbub of activity in connection with the new house at Kansas University. Multiply the excitement of a homemaker planning a new cottage, by several hundred times, and you have an idea of the collective thrill being experienced by alumnæ in planning the house, choosing a site, pouring over blue prints, and conferring with architects.

Kansas summers have a tendency to wilt enthusiasm, but even that obstacle was overcome in planning a summer rush party. A swimming party at Marianna Beach's home in Hays on July 29 was a splashing success.

Enterprise had its day in the form of the fall Settlement School Tea and Sale held at Great Bend. Over 175 members attended from the Western Kansas area, and the sale netted about $950. Since this club is in its infancy, second year, the principle item accomplished by the sale was literally addition of principal.

Dorothy Fairbank, president of the Manhattan Alumnae Club, gave a report on Convention at the luncheon meeting held December 4 at the Great Bend Petroleum Club. Main discussion centered on Constitution and History.

Chapter President Jeannine Wedell Shadwick completed plans for Founders' Day activities and election of officers, held at Larned Country Club April 28. Isabel Allen, province vice president, was invited to attend and help launch the '59-'60 program.

CAROLYN ISERN WELLS

WICHITA, KANSAS

The Wichita Alumnae Club, under the able leadership of its president, Margaret Pyle McClure, has enjoyed a year of increased attendance and active enthusiasm. Our paid up membership is about eighty five members.

Our October desert meeting opened the fall season; we discussed plans for the coming year, and Donna Lucas Stovall, vice president, renewed our enthusiasm in Pi Beta Phi with her interesting report on Convention. November was a busy month with four small "get acquainted" coffees and the first of a series of informal Settlement School Sales. At our regular November meeting we all brought Christmas gifts to send to Settlement School children, and a program on floral arrangements and holiday decorations was enjoyed by all.

Our guests at a Christmas Brunch were active, pledges and their mothers. January's meeting was a delightful luncheon with an enjoyable speaker on portrait painting, and February found us entertaining our husbands at a social get together. Also in February was the annual Panhellenic Tea and Style Show, the proceeds of which finance scholarships to seniors from each of our four local high schools. Our Panhellenic delegate is Mary Jane Heine Fair.

Our big money making project took place in March when we sponsored a children's movie and cartoon show. We feel that the success of this and of our Settlement School Sales was due to the outstanding work done by our projects' chairman, Patty Riggs Mercer. Our annual cooky-shine was held in celebration of Founders' Day, at which time we had installation of new officers.

BETTY BEHOTEGUY WALLACE

NU PROVINCE

ABILENE

The Abilene Alumnae Club was fortunate this year in being able to send one of its members, Betty Cobb, to Swamscott for the Pi Beta Phi Convention. Betty brought back lots of good ideas, among which were reactivating the magazine agency, holding raffles at meetings, fining members who fail to wear their pins to meetings, having a White Elephant sale; all of which we have incorporated.

The Settlement School Tea in October was very lovely and successful. In February there was a covered dish luncheon and an interesting program consisting of slides and a dissertation on Holt House. Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon and installation of officers.

Plans for summer rush were made at the June meeting. We are working very closely with our fine Panhellenic organization here. Panhellenic plans to give two rush parties this summer from which all the sororities will benefit.

The Club has representatives on the Symphony Guild, Junior League, Abilene Community Theater, Y.M.C.A. Board, United Fund, and Civic Volunteer Bureau, and is under the able and inspiring leadership of Carolyn Angle Bridwell.

MRS. WILLIAM B. DUNCAN, III

ALBUQUERQUE

In the spring of last year the alumnae club sponsored its money making project. We are proud of this and justly so. The project was a Country Fair and Carnival held at the home of Mrs. Randolph Lovelace II. The "Fair" featured a bake sale, usual stuffed toys such as calico alligators made by the alumnae. Arrow Craft turtle races, Champagne walk and many other events. The "Fair" was a great success financially as well as entertainment wise. We were able to pay off the debt on the new rug for the chapter house.

October saw the spirit of Halloween and the alumnae followed through with a Halloween Party.

The Arrow Craft Tea and Sale was again held in the Fall. A new item made its appearance at the tea in the form of "Pi Phi Originals" which had been made by the Alumnae. These and the Arrow Craft were sold.

In November we planned a surprise party for the actives and pledges at the chapter house. The party was held after their Monday meeting.

Mrs. Wild visited with us for a few days during the month of February. A luncheon was held for her at the Albuquerque Country Club. All those who met and visited with Mrs. Wild enjoyed her very much.

Our February meeting was one of civic interest. Mr. Paul Robinson, the District Attorney, gave a talk on Narcotics.

Plans were started in February for Founders' Day. The skit from Stunt Night at the University was presented by the actives.

We closed out our years activities with a breakfast in May. The alumnae club will honor the graduating seniors from New Mexico A.

MARGARET E. BALLING

AMARILLO

Led by Ann DuBois, our capable and enthusiastic president, the Amarillo Alumnae Club has had a most successful year.

In September, we made plans for the club year and heard a report of summer activities directed by Joy Knight.

Our October meeting was devoted to a program on Settlement School. Our vice president, Polly Martin, prepared a large map of Settlement School to accompany the slides of the school. Margaret Gilbert, Settlement School chairman, gave us an inspiring commentary which made us feel much closer to Settlement School.

On November 8, we held our second Settlement School tea. Margaret Gilbert was responsible for the fine success of the tea. Our gross sales were $1245. On November 25, a business meeting was held. We discussed improvements that could be made for the forthcoming Settlement School teas. It was announced that plans to send an electric roaster to Texas I had been completed.

Our January meeting was devoted to Loyalty Day. Two teams of members faced each other in a quiz that challenged and refreshed our knowledge of Pi Beta Phi. Polly Martin compiled the thought-provoking quiz.

At our February meeting, a most interesting talk on "Precious Gems" was given by Mr. John Furbach of Furbach Jewelers. Officers for the following year were elected at our March meeting followed by an enjoyable evening of cards.

In April, Founders' Day was observed with a luncheon at the Amarillo Country Club. Special guest was Mrs. William C. Boyce who was an organizer of our local alumnae club. The year closed in May with the installation of officers and plans for summer rush.

ANN McDONALD

ARDMORE

The first registration meeting in the Fall set the pace for a successful year for the Ardmore Alumnae Club, with Mrs. Robert Grissom serving as our president.

We were pleased with the proceeds from the Settlement School Coffee which was held in the drawing room of the Y.W.C.A. This annual event was well attended and enjoyed by our guests.

At our November meeting we reviewed the Pi Beta Phi History and Constitution.

During the Christmas Holidays the local club sponsored a luncheon at Dornick Hills Country Club where the actives and pledges entertained rushees.

A cooky-shine was held at the January meeting. At this time donations to the March of Dimes were made.

A Senior Tea was given on February 19 at the Y.W.C.A. This event was a courtesy rush extended to every girl in the Ardmore High School. For entertainment at the tea a style show was given with models being our local alumnae club members.

Renewed enthusiasm over our club's work has prevailed since our visit with Mrs. Robert F. Sangster, the Nu Province Vice President. When she was here, on the evening of February 27, the alumnae club had an informal dinner in her honor.

This year the Ardmore Alumnae Club has made donations to Oklahoma B, the Building Fund for the chapter house at Oklahoma A, the Emma Harper Turner Fund, and Holt House.

ROSEMARY TRAUH SCHWAB

AUSTIN

The Austin Alumnae Club, under the able and delightful leadership of Mrs. Robert Ammann has had an active and fruitful year.

Our meetings have been held at the Texas A chapter house and in the homes of members.

One of our most delightful times was had at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hill in the historic Cochran House which is her ancestral home and one of the classic structures of Austin. Mrs. Robert S. Wild of Grand Council was our guest and we felt honored by her worth while and informative visit.

Money making projects were two fold. One project was a Silver Tea with displays from the Towle Silver Company. Our second and to us most interesting was the Pi Phi Garden Pilgrimage. Mrs. John H. Chiles, Jr., Mrs. Fred Sharp, Mrs. Ewell Muse, Mrs. Jamie Odom and Mrs. George Robinson graciously opened their gardens to the public and the Pi Beta Phi's sold tickets for this event. We feel this was something for the whole city to enjoy.

The Founders' Day Banquet was held for the alumnae club and the actives of Texas A at the Austin Country Club. Awards and recognition of outstanding accomplishments were made.

DORTHY STANDIFER LUDLUM

BARTLESVILLE

The Bartlesville Alumnae Club completed an active and successful year under Margie Staten, President.

In the fall we had a glowing report of National Convention from our delegate, Ruth Stewart, who made us much more conscious of the rewarding experience it can be. We also discussed the Pi Beta Phi Constitution and History, the latter being much more colorful than we had imagined.

Arrow name tags were introduced at our November meeting. As an incentive to get dues in early, "DUES PAID" was written boldly on the tags of those members who had paid. It worked; no one wanted to be embarrassed by wearing a blank arrow.

December was a busy month with a Christmas season rush party, our Settlement School Crafts Sale, and a tea given by the actives and alumnae for the new pledges and their mothers. It helped us become more acquainted with one another and was so successful we hope to make it an annual affair.

Our Polio Silver Coffee brought $155 in donations, the highest amount collected out of thirty coffees plus various dinners and benefit bridge parties, given throughout the city. We were very proud it was such a success.

February was highlighted by the visit of our province vice president, Mrs. Robert Sangster, who was entertained at a luncheon meeting.

A before Easter rush party was held and our Founders' Day buffet dinner and cooky-shine brought to a close another memorable year of Pi Beta Phi activities and associations.

MIDGE MARKGRAF TUCKER

BRAZOS VALLEY

The small group of nineteen active alumnae held seven meetings during the past year. Five new members joined the group in September, the beginning of the college year, but in as much as we lose members each year at the end of the second semester by the graduation of the husbands of some of the younger alumnae, our membership has remained rather constant.

The club has had a successful year under the leadership of Martha James Patten of Franklin, Texas. The usual contributions were made to Holt House, Settlement School, Emma Harper Turner, and Harriet Johnson Scholarship funds.

Five of the seven meetings were morning coffees, at which time interesting and informing programs were given on Holt House, Settlement School, Loyalty, actives, and the Constitution. Two new projects in the spring have been the making of plans for the organization of a Panhellenic and the first Arrow Craft Sale, which will be held in early fall.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a cooky-shine and luncheon at Riverbend, the country home of Esther Whinery Goodrich, in Navasota. Our province vice-president, Mrs. Joe Sangster, was a guest.

The final meeting in May was a picnic at Camp Creek Resort with the husbands as guests.

SARA ALLEN COFER

DALLAS

The Dallas Alumnae Club has had an inspiring and rewarding year under the leadership of its President, Mrs. Floyd R. Hightower. Mrs. Hightower is a past Kappa and Nu Province President and we feel very fortunate in having had her as our president this year.

Mrs. William P. Crisler has been the able leader of the Junior Alumnae. The Juniors are a very enthusiastic and active group. This year they were hostesses for the Arrow Craft and Exhibition Sale which was held at the Texas B House. The Pi Beta Phi house lends itself so beautifully to functions of this kind, and we feel grateful in having an active chapter so near us. Mrs. J. Perry Moon, Mrs. R. V. Carleton, and others have succeeded in working closely and effectually with B Chapter during these past months. The Junior Group will have a Mother Daughter Style Show in March, one of their very successful money-making projects.

We have just concluded a five weeks period of assisting the Heart Association in Dallas. In contributing their time and efforts in the Heart offices, the Pi Beta Phi's do their small part to help in this worthwhile cause.

The last week in February Mrs. Robert Wild, from Grand Council, will be honored at a Panhellenic tea, given by the Pi Beta Phi's in the home of Mrs. Sterling P. Bush. Also being honored are the twenty two girls being initiated into Texas B.

We also looked forward to the Founders' Day Banquet which took place in April. To make it of special interest our guests were the Nu Province President, Vice President, and Province Scholarship Chairman.

The last alumnae meeting was held on May 8. At this time, the members looked back on a good year of working together in Pi Beta Phi and were introduced to the new officers for the coming year.

MABELLE MILLER BELL

EL PASO

The El Paso Alumnae Club has had a very exciting and successful year. At the October Luncheon meeting at the home of Shirley Van Studdiford, Settlement School items and cookbooks were sold.

In addition to our monthly luncheon meetings, which have been well attended, we are proud to announce that one of our El Paso girls, Miss Linda Hart (Arizona A), was chosen to be the Queen of the El Paso Sun Carnival, an annual celebration of the Christmas-New Year season, climaxed by a parade and football game on New Year's Day. We felt doubly proud as the Queen's escort was John Kemp, son of Mrs. Page Kemp (Louise Rosser, Oklahoma B).

Our December meeting was a luncheon honoring Miss Hart, Miss Kathleen Fitzgerald (Virginia F), who was the Duchess to the Sun Court from the Fort Bliss Officers Wives' Club, and our actives. Also present were the other Duchesses of the Court and their mothers, and thirty six alumnae club members.

The February meeting was a coffee honoring Miss Malinda Berry (Oklahoma B), the 1959 Maid of Cotton. It was held in the home of Mrs. T. D. Beall (Helen Jones, Florida B) with Mrs. Dale Payne (Evelyn Jamieson, Texas A) as cohostess. Representatives from El Paso City Panhellenic, Presidents of the Sororities at Texas Western College, and Mrs. Berry, mother of the honoree, were included in the guest list.

LOUISE ANDERSON

FT. WORTH

The Ft. Worth Alumnae Club, under the competent leadership of Mrs. Charles Braselton, has had not only a most enjoyable association, but also a highly profitable year. After assisting Texas A at Texas Christian University during Rush Week, the meetings began in October. As in previous years we met monthly from October through May. During the summer and fall, our members sold Christmas cards through a local store and they made a nice profit for our treasury.

Our December meeting was a delightful Mother Daughter Christmas coffee held in the home of Mrs. W. D. Waltman.

In February assisted by the Mothers' Club, we sponsored a games party and bazaar where donated baked goods and Settlement School articles were sold. The reception of this benefit was again tremendous, and the profit gained will be used to furnish a silver service and flat silver for Texas A.

We looked forward to our annual Founders' Day party. Our club and Texas A planned a dinner jointly, held at Ridgela Country Club.

At the May meeting our year closed with the installation of the officers for next year.

MARTHA CROLEY BASS

HOUSTON

The Houston Alumnae Club enjoyed a successful year under the leadership of Betty Bailey Hall, President of the Senior Club, and Laura Lauderdale Cluett, President of the Junior Group.

In February rushing news was announced by Virginia Tallichet Vetter and Convention highlights were reported by Betty Hall.

At our October meeting, we were privileged to hear Mrs. John Milton England speak on "Appreciation of the Bible."

A program on Settlement School was presented in November by Pat Purnell Murphy. In lieu of our bi-annual Settlement School Sale, our Ways and Means Project was a Bake Sale held at each meeting.

The December meeting was a tea honoring Houston actives, pledges and mothers, with Helen Townes Smith as the gracious hostess. Many Pi Beta Phi's worked at the Christmas Clearing Bureau. A new philanthropic project for the alumnae club was to grant financial aid for emergency needs brought to our attention by the Volunteer Services Bureau.

In January, we welcomed our own Jo Frances Powell Sangster, Nu Province Vice President, as guest speaker.

A cooky-shine at the home of Dorothy Turner Glauser highlighted February; the Junior Group presented the program.

New officers were elected in March and plans perfected for Fun Day in April.

Mary Pearl Erhard Duff spoke on Pi Beta Phi History at the April meeting, after which installation of Officers was held.

The year was concluded with a barbecue in May at the home of Stella Peden Conner.

MARGARET BACHTEL ATWOOD

HOUSTON, JUNIOR

This has been an important year for the Houston Junior Alumnae Club. The club was revamped and reorganized in the spring of 1958 on the premise that the group best suited for making it function, successfully was the young married girls.

The year was enthusiastically begun at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Dick Stedman. The program consisted of several items. A report was made on rush, giving new rules and regulations for the 1959 season. In the report on Convention, special emphasis was given to the material about Junior Groups specifying the governing rules and the projects undertaken in various parts of the country. The focal point of the afternoon was a discussion led by the vice president on the primary purpose and aims of the Club, its relation to the Senior Group, and its role as a part of the national organization.

Fun was had by all in October. A bridge luncheon was held at Mrs. Ivan Irwin's home. Time out was taken for a special program on Settlement School.

With thoughts of Christmas paramount in everyone's mind, the feature of the November meeting was especially appropriate. A lady from a local gift and party shop gave a lecture and demonstration on holiday decorations and wrappings.

All Senior Board Members were invited to attend the January meeting held in the home of Mrs. George Renaudin. The speaker for the day, a doctor of child psychology, precipitated lively dis-ussion with the ideas and questions she presented to the group. Before the program, it was decided that as a means of making money the Club would undertake to sell candy.

The chief contribution the Junior Group made to the February cooky-shine was in providing the program. The girls enacted the skit which highlighted the events of the evening.

The final meeting was held in March at Mrs. Robert Dowlen's home. Reports were made on the progress and activities of the year. Officers were elected for the approaching year.

The remainder of the year's activities was held in the form of joint Junior-Senior functions. Officers were installed in April, at which time members of the Junior Group attended the regular Senior meeting. April first was Fun Day, when Pi Beta Phis gathered at a private country club to play golf and bridge. In May they all brought their husbands or dates to the big annual barbecue.

BETTY WEST STEDMAN

LUBBOCK

An enthusiastic report on Convention by our president, Mrs. Charles Cathey, inspired the Lubbock Alumnae Club at our first meeting.

A yard supper in September for the active chapter and patronesses gave our year a good beginning. This event was quickly followed by a hot dog supper at the lodge honoring the active chapter and new pledges at the close of rush week.

As a token of our pride, we presented our active chapter with an engraved silver tray when we learned that they had won the Balfour Cup.

At a lovely autumn brunch our patronesses honored the alumnae club.

A very successful activity this year has been the big-little sister program. Each pledge has an alumna "big sister." This program has brought about some wonderful friendships among alumnae and pledges.

A contest with the active chapter on selling magazine subscriptions ended in defeat for the alumnae club, so we again enjoyed entertaining the active chapter with a supper at the lodge in October.

A covered dish supper enhanced our November meeting.

Following the Homecoming game in November, we were honored by the active chapter at a reception in the lodge.

The December coffee for our patronesses highlighted the Christmas season.

MARGRET ANN GARLIN

OKLAHOMA CITY

With Paula Powell Hoyt at the helm, the Oklahoma City Alumnae Club has enjoyed a very successful cruise on seas of activity.

The season commenced with registration for the coming year being enhanced by a cooky-shine, a perennial Pi Beta Phi favorite. The Settlement School Coffee was held November 17 at the home of Gladys Montin London, attracting a large crowd and $2,000 in receipts. In December a buffet supper was the occasion of our entertaining the actives from Oklahoma City who are members and pledges of Oklahoma A and Oklahoma B.

In January and February at buffet supper and luncheon meetings, we observed Chapter Loyalty Day and Pi Beta Phi History Day respectively.

At a called meeting on February 25, we were delighted by the visit of Mrs. Robert F. Sangster, our province vice president. The Centennial Fund, Settlement School, and Rushing Program were discussed.

In April we experienced another Founders' Day function of inspiration and enjoyment to us all. As in the cooky-shine, Settlement School Coffee, and the Christmas Buffet, we were joined by the Junior Club.

In May our buffet supper produced much in the interest of Pi Beta Phi, most important of which was the assumption of the pilot's post by Susan Severin Prime, under whose leadership we confidently expect to sail to new horizons.

VARDRENE ARNTZEN LEAMING

OKMULGEE

Lu Logan Hummel led the Okmulgee Alumnae Club through a most successful year, which began with the pledging of a local girl, Marianne McCauley, at Oklahoma B.

Monthly meetings were held in the homes of the members, beginning in August when Dorothy Defreeze Harris, our Convention delegate, entertained in her home and related her Convention experiences.

A Benefit Dinner Bridge, with the meal prepared and served by club members, was held in November. Proceeds were donated to the Pi Beta Phi Building Fund at the University of Oklahoma.

Active members from Oklahoma A and Oklahoma B joined with the alumnae in planning Christmas and Easter rush parties. Our final meeting of the year was held in May, at which time a discussion of rushing activities was held and plans were made for summer rush.

Highlight of the year was the February visit of Mrs. Robert F. Sangster, province vice president. A luncheon in her honor was held at the Okmulgee Town and Country Club.

State Day activities at Norman and the annual Founders' Day Luncheon rounded out the year's activities.

Our club welcomed two new members this year, bringing membership total to thirteen.

CAROL MORGAN POLLEY

PONCA CITY

Under the leadership of our young president, Ann Hartman, our year started off well, with twenty six members attending the October meeting, held at the home of Ella Hayman, vice president. We had a "cooky-shine" which always brings out a good crowd. Letters from the province vice president were read, committee chairmen were appointed, dues were collected and a report on summer rush and pledging was given.

On December 2 our annual Settlement School coffee was held in the home of Dorothy Baughman. Two alumnae from Stillwater brought some of their products and assisted us with our sale, which was quite successful.

Then on December 8 we had our regular meeting in the home of Peg Boggess. We were very fortunate to have Ruth Orr, a former province vice president, with us on that evening to give us a report on Convention as seen by a visitor and not as a delegate. She had kept a scrapbook and she brought some pictures which made the report interesting and inspiring.

Our January meeting was a husband and wife party held at the Country Club. Because of illness the attendance was small, but the food was good and we had a pleasant old fashioned chat afterward, instead of burying our noses in Bingo as we usually do.

Our February meeting was devoted to our province vice president, Jo Sangster, of Houston, Texas. She gave us a full morning of advice, instruction and encouragement. We felt that the visit was well worth while and it produced a closer bond of fellowship among us.

The March tea was devoted to Pi Beta Phi History and Constitution and election of officers. We invited our actives and their mothers to a social hour afterward, so we became better friends.

In April the Founders' Day luncheon was held at the Country Club. The program was devoted to the history of the twelve Founders.

We gave twenty-five cents per paid member toward the expenses of State Day which was held in Norman this year.

Many of our members belong to our local Panhellenic organization which donates most of its money to the mentally handicapped. Martha Jones was in charge of the Christmas dance again this year which has become very popular and which produces money.

FRANCES BADGER VAN WINKLE

ROSWELL

A most successful year began for the Roswell Club in April with the Settlement School Tea and Sale. The lovely items were well received and the sale lasted from 10:00 until late afternoon. This year the sale was held in the home of Mrs. Robert Ely.

In June, Pi Beta Phi entertained the Panhellenic Association with a dessert bridge held at the Nixon Hotel; while Mrs. H. H. McGee entertained the group in July with a patio supper at which plans were made for the coming rushing season. Vacationing actives were entertained with a dinner at the home of the president, Pat Lawrence, in August. Several new members sparked this meeting.

A highly successful rummage sale was held in the early fall so that the group was able to send $200 to the active chapter in Albuquerque.

The holiday season brought two festive events. The first was a Christmas tea held in the home of Mrs. J. R. Allen as the club once more acted as hostesses for Panhellenic. The second event was a brunch given by Mary Lou McGee to which members, actives and new pledges were invited. In January, the club celebrated Loyalty Day with a dinner given by Mrs. Langford Keith, Jr.

SARAH STRINGER BURKSTALLER

SAN ANTONIO

Under the leadership of Emily Ann Bryant Browning, the San Antonio Alumnae Club had a very successful rush season. In November the Settlement School Sale and Tea was held in the home of Tippa Bryant Test, and all agree it was the best yet.

During the Christmas vacation, a lovely brunch was held at the home of Frances Sterenberg Cohagan, honoring the mothers of new pledges, actives, and debutantes of the season.

Our year ended with the Founders' Day Luncheon and Candle-lighting Ceremony at the Argyle Club in April.

FRANCES FINLEY FERGUSON

SHERIDAN-DENISON

The Sherman Denison Alumnae Club of Grayson County under the able guidance of President, Jane McElhannon Hubbard, has had a very successful program this year.

Our interest in rushing was keen and we were pleased to have two girls from our area pledged. They were Barbara Kay Buchanan at Texas Tech and Sharon Hall at the University of Texas.

In October we had a most enjoyable and profitable Settlement School Tea and Sale, Martha Strother Robinson was chairman for these arrangements.

Our luncheon meetings have followed suggested schedules with programs on Constitution, Settlement School and Founders' Day.

It has been a pleasure to all members of the Sherman Denison Club to note the accomplishments brought by cooperation and active alumnae interest.

MARY JANE CRUMP MIZE

STILLWATER

After "Rush Round-up" in August, and most of the members meeting during rush week at the Pi Beta Phi House, the Stillwater Alumnae Club held its registration on September 15, at Veneta Arrington's Dues and Donuts Party. Thirty one members heard a most interesting Convention report from their president and delegate, Jerry Beltz. The October meeting, an annual affair honoring pledges, was a dessert coffee at the lakeside cabin of Nellie Myers. Club members and pledges got acquainted through games and contests and the club voted to help furnish a room for mentally disturbed patients at the local hospital, November was devoted to the Settlement School Sale held this year in Cynthia Berry's large recreation room. Place settings using Settlement School linens and items from local stores helped sell our wares. The club celebrated hilariously at Christmas with a White Elephant gift exchange but stressed the serious side with gifts to charity. Cynthia again was our hostess. January Chapter Loyalty Day was held with the active chapter at the chapter house. Alumnae came dressed in the manner of their college days, and the appropriate serious observance in memory of our distinguished Pi Beta Phi was heightened by Cynthia Berry's description of her participation in her daughter's (Melinda's) triumph as "Maid of Cotton" at Memphis. The club crowned Cynthia as "Queen of the Maid." February was highlighted by the visit of Jo Sangster, Nu Province Vice President, for whom the club held an informal tea and from whom it gained much national outlook. March's election of officers and entertainment of chapter seniors at Ruth Fisher's was overshadowed by the luncheon for Marianne Reid Wilde at the Union when she gave the club inspiration for Panhellenic support. In April, the club attended State Day at Norman, celebrated Founders' Day with the active chapter, and made contributions to the Centennial Fund. Officers were installed at Liberty Preston's in May and the club looked ahead to Fall Rush.

RUTH SUNDELL ORR

TULSA

The Senior and Junior Alumnae groups of Tulsa have a combined membership of 138. Mrs. Joe Mobley is the capable president of the Senior Group while Mrs. Lindsay L. Alexander has led the Junior Club. The two groups meet jointly several times during the year and work together on all important Pi Beta Phi projects.

We were quite impressed and proud in the late summer when one of the local book shops held an autograph party for Winifred Marrs of Norman, whose book "Another Spring" had just been published. Winifred is an Pi Beta Phi Alumnae whose pen name is Winifred West. Our November program featured a review of her book.

Another inspiring event was the visit of Mrs. Robert F. Sangster, province vice president, at the February meeting, who was most helpful in her suggestions to the club.

Our money raising projects have included a successful rummage sale and in the late spring we had a "Pastel" showing of Settlement School items to which a large number of interested Tulsa women were invited.

Seventeen outstanding girls from Tulsa were pledged to Pi Beta Phi in the fall. They, together with graduating high school seniors, were honor guests at an Easter tea given by the Junior group.

As usual, Founders' Day Banquet was the highlight of the year and served to renew the loyalty of each alumnae to Pi Beta Phi.

CATHERINE GRANT MCALISTER

TYLER

Tyler Alumnae Club began the year in June with its big Summer Rush Party. The theme was "Around the World in 80 Days" and was held in the beautiful home of Julia Faye McMurray. An entertaining skit by the actives added much to the fun. We had a very successful rush season.

During the Christmas holidays a tea was given in the home of the alumnae president, Edith Perkins Patton. This is an annual affair of our club to honor the new pledges and their mothers.

Our October meeting was devoted to chapter interest, and March meeting was planned around the Settlement School.

BARBARA BRYANT HERRINGTON

WACO

Waco alumnae club with Mrs. Walter B. Dossett, Jr., Mrs. John Murchison, Mrs. Charles Gervig and Mrs. J. Carroll McReynolds as new officers, met in June to make plans for summer rush. We had one large party at the Green Perch, on the Bosque River, with swimming and barbeque. A business meeting followed. Our second party was a small luncheon at Mrs. William Sloane's pool and cabanna. We pledged Betsy Jones at Texas A and Mary Kay Swafford at Texas I.

Our club has grown to approximately forty members. We are pleased to have five new alumnae.

The February meeting was a luncheon and business meeting at Ridgewood Country Club. At that time we decided to increase our dues to cover our rush expenses, and also to have a Settlement

School coffee in early October. This will be the first in three years. With new ideas and a bigger promotion all are eager to make it one of the best.

We are proud that Waco's active member, Ann Dudgeon is Texas A State Rush Captain for the coming year.

A luncheon celebrated Founders' Day and to install new officers.

MRS. WALTER DOSSETT, JR.

WICHITA FALLS

The Wichita Falls Alumnae Club has enjoyed a most active and satisfying year under the leadership of our capable president, Barbara Cullum. Our first meeting was in October, with the program devoted to the history and purpose of the Settlement School and a review of summer rush activities by the rush captain, Helen Parkey.

In November we had a most successful Settlement School Tea in the home of chairman Flo Knight, with lots of Christmas business being transacted.

On December 31, a despite unusual sleet and snow, many of us enjoyed a lovely party in the home of our president honoring our three new pledges and their mothers. The Randolph-Macon alumnae were particularly interested in hearing our R. M. girl tell about the new chapter house.

We must point with pride to one of our local alumnae, Kitty Ruth Norwood, whose name appears in the first edition of Who's Who of American Women. Kitty Ruth has been active in many civic affairs and is a delightful book reviewer.

We looked forward to the election of new officers at our March meeting and our year closed in April.

BETTY CUNNINGHAM

XI PROVINCE

BOULDER

This year we of the Boulder Alumnae Club have been under the excellent guidance of our president, Mary Kay Hudson. We have spent most of our time and all of our money working for the Boulder County Sheltered Workshop. This is a new school in our town which is for the mentally handicapped. We work every day directly with the children in the school rooms assisting the teachers. We also gather toys and supplies for them. A style show, in March, used the children of the alumnae club ranging in age from three to fourteen years. Several of the active girls from Colorado University also took part. We had our annual fall and spring rummage sales which were both great successes. In December we had a Christmas party for the actives at the Pi Beta Phi House. We put on a skit, "Ocean to Ocean—Alum Style." In June a family picnic with husbands and children was planned.

PEGGY ARCHIBALD

BOZEMAN

The Bozeman Alumnae Club, under the able leadership of Peg Moore Cosgriffe, began with plans in the early fall for a Settlement School sale. This was a tea at the home of Velma Edwards Story. Individual invitations were sent out and the sale was most profitable.

In August we had our usual summer luncheon at the Student Union Building. There was a large crowd with many girls coming from out of town.

Rush week, this year, was very successful with all the alumnae helping the girls with the rush parties. After Rush week, a cooky-shine, under the chairmanship of Margaret Campbell Post, was given by the alumnae for the new pledges.

In February the Bozeman Alumnae Club entertained the senior actives at an annual dinner at the Baxter Hotel.

This year, instead of our usual Founders' Day luncheon, we planned a brunch, held on August 26.

We have an unusually large membership this year with twenty-nine paid members.

LORAIN LOWRY WHITEHEAD

CASPER

We have an unusually large and interesting group of Pi Beta Phi's in Casper, for a town of its size. Since Wyoming A is the only chapter in the state, we have members who were the first Pi Beta Phi's there and are still enjoying living close to one another here in Casper. The majority of our members are Wyoming girls, but the oil industry has brought Pi Beta Phi's from all over the United States to our chapter.

Our business meetings have been limited in number and much effort has been made toward a large attendance in social gatherings. Our husbands are included at least once during the year.

June Ann McDaniel, a Casper girl, has been President this year. She will be Recommendations Chairman and the delegate to Panhellenic next year.

Before school in September, a Panhellenic Tea and Style Show was given the girls and their mothers.

The Pi Beta Phi's at Laramie took 29 girls, 6 Casper girls, this year.

A Founders' Day luncheon was had on April 28 at the new home of Jeanne Sissman. We have new girls at each meeting and we find it fun each time to give our names, schools, and any news we have about Pi Beta Phi's. You'd be surprised how many forgotten names and old friends are found!

NANCY BIGGEL BARNHART

CHEYENNE

After a busy fall of conducting a rummage sale and having our annual candy sale, the Cheyenne Alumnae Club turned its attention to the holiday activities. In December a lovely Christmas card party was enjoyed and white elephant gifts were exchanged to the amusement of all.

January was devoted to the planning of our annual "ArrowBall" under the chairmanship of Katherine Mabec. The decorations carried out not only the Valentine Theme in red and white candles but a large golden arrow was the center of attention. The pledges at Wyoming A were our guests at the February 14 dinner dance, and many actives from the chapter also enjoyed the party. We were very happy for the opportunity to meet so many of the girls.

The Cheyenne Mothers' Club was entertained at the March meeting and everyone enjoyed local talent from the Cheyenne Senior High School. This proved an excellent opportunity to become familiar with a few of the faces of the students who will be graduating in the near future.

Election of officers and a book review were the final work of the year which ended in a delightful Cooky-Shine Party at the beautiful home of Lillian McCracken.

SUE SIMS PATRICK

COLORADO SPRINGS

Now entering its Silver Anniversary Year, the Colorado Springs Alumnae Club continues to flourish amid good fellowship and congenial personalities. Seven meetings were scheduled the past year, five of which were luncheons. Two supper meetings denoted a lighter vein. Last November members took canned goods or coins to provide a food basket for a local needy family. The February supper ended with a song fest and cooky-shine.

We are proud to list among our members Xi Province Vice President, Evelyn Lowman Darby, and the Chairman of the National Committee on Fraternity Study and Examination, Mary Foster Haney. Mrs. Darby presented a fine review of Convention at our initial meeting. Mrs. Haney conducted an interesting History session in January.

A film showing, with narrative, as well as a good display of articles for purchase, keyed the Settlement School program in October. The March meeting was devoted to active chapters at which time our active Pi Beta Phi guests turned table and entertained us with a clever program. Founders' Day ended the club year with a commemorative program which followed a beautifully appointed luncheon.

In addition, a summer meeting was called to discuss Rush. And in March, at the invitation of Towle Silver Company, a tea was given that we might act as critics for proposed new sterling patterns. Needless to say, (except for the hostess) it was a painless way to swell the funds of our fluctuating hopper.

Gifts to the three state chapters the past year were checks deposited with the local florists for arrangements to be ordered at each chapter's discretion.

Offering their homes for our meetings were Esther Stewart, Adeline Crouch, Joyce Johnson, Dorothy Maudru, Melda Poe and Arthe Beardsley.

MARGY CLARK

DENVER

Our fall meeting started with renewed enthusiasm, as we heard Convention highlights from our two delegates, Marjorie Butcher and Jeanne Carpenter. Colored slides accompanied by a vivid commentary made each participant feel as if she had attended Convention.

Through the generosity of the Pasadena Club our delegates brought home a lpan for our annual benefit, which had been used successfully in Pasadena.

Incorporating our annual Settlement School Tea with a tour of three Pi Beta Phi members' homes, our "Pi Phi Presents" proved such a financial success as well as hospitality wise, that the project deserves consideration for future years.

Our annual spring luncheon and fashion show was also profitable, providing funds for our local projects.

Denver Panhellenic entertained at the Golden Anniversary celebration of the organization, complimenting past presidents. Our Mrs. William S. Hiff, second president, and one of the founders, was particularly honored.

We always look forward to our Founders' Day luncheon in April. Our Junior Division and Pi Beta Phi from nearby towns join with us for the occasion. At this yearly event the actives from Colorado chapters furnish appropriate entertainment, and we all feel gratified in the personal contact of alumnae and actives.

MARY WILLIAMS NORDSTROM

FT. COLLINS

Under the efficient leadership of president Lucile Keaky, the Ft. Collins Alumnae Club began the year with the first of four luncheons, to be held at the Pi Phi Gamma House. The program was in charge of the actives, and includes skits and a report on rushing results. Plans were made for our annual Pledge Brunch.

The Constitution was the subject for the next meeting, we were fortunate to have several guests to enjoy it with us. Committees were appointed to purchase Christmas gifts for the actives and our house mother, Mrs. Wright, to whom we will most regretfully say goodbye, this year. She has been a tower of strength.

Norma Nye gave a most interesting program on Settlement School at our February get together. Plans were made for Senior Farewell to be held in April.

Our last meeting in April was our Founders' Day Ceremony and election of officers. We ended the year with twenty-one members, one in particular is our pride and joy, Estelle Perry, who was initiated at Simpson College, into I C Sorosis, at the age of fifteen, and will be ninety-one next August. She still maintains an alert interest in alumnae and active affairs and misses few meetings, an example to us all.

LOLA DOWNS

OGDEN

The Ogden Alumnae Club began a busy year with a brunch meeting at Mrs. Francis Madsen's home. At this time Mrs. Richard Lowe was elected president, Mrs. Val Probst, vice-president, Mrs. Roy Salerno, treasurer, and Mrs. Al Pietschman, secretary.

Early in August a meeting was held at Mrs. Scott Dye's home to discuss rushing.

A potluck dinner at Mrs. Joe Breeze's canyon home made the October meeting a special one.

Later in the fall the local K K I alumnae club entertained our group at a lovely coffee to foster a better understanding of our mutual goals as sorority women.

In December a Christmas tea was given at Miss Joy Wadsworth's home in honor of Ogden actives home for vacation and their Mothers.

A successful dessert bridge was held in February to raise money for the club.

MAXINE PIETSCHMAN

PUEBLO

The Pueblo Alumnae Club began the year with a luncheon given by the officers. Each member shared our joy in having a new pledge from Pueblo. Great satisfaction and happiness was received at Christmas time when the club gave a wonderful Holiday to a deserving couple with six children. In January eleven members treated husbands to an outing at a local ranch. Much fun was shared by all in the snow activities and later with an excellent dinner. It was resolved that we would share our activities with our husbands more often. We observed Chapter Loyalty in February and had election of officers in March. Founders' Day found us having a program in our local group as well as some of us sharing with our State groups at the Denver celebration. The last meeting was a Spring Coffee held for fellowship before we part for the summer. Pueblo is looking forward to a prosperous and active year ahead.

MRS. JOHN WEAVER

SALT LAKE CITY

In September of 1957 the Salt Lake Alumnae sponsored a "County Fair" of gifts, novelties, and foods that were sold to the general public as well as the chapter alumnae. One thousand dollars was brought in and from this, $500 is being used as a loan fund by the active chapter.

Our club has been divided into six groups, chronologically. We find this is a much better way of making projects interesting for different age groups. In order that all members would be informed of activities, our President had a Pi Beta Phi Newsletter printed and sent to each member.

In November the alumnae and the actives staged a very successful fashion show. Approximately 400 persons attended and were treated to extensive previews of coming styles by three of Salt Lake's most fashionable stores.

During a fall meeting it was decided that no single large function would be held this coming year. However each group would stage activities of their own. The Alpha Group provided this past December stuffed dolls and Christmas stockings which they made and filled each stocking with toys and nick-nacks. We distributed these to the patients of the childrens ward of the County Hospital, providing them with a wonderful Christmas. This same group also sold pecans during the month of December and made a success of the enterprise. The only complaint came for the chairman's husband who believed his "castle" had been taken over by pecans.

The month of February we held our annual cooky shine for the active chapter. April was highlighted by the Founders' Day Luncheon. The final event of our alumnae year was the Senior Brunch in May.

KATHERINE R. LORDS

OMICRON PROVINCE

CALGARY

In October, a club member, Helen Smith, gave an illustrated talk on her recent sabbatical year in Europe. Helen studied at the Sorbonne, and toured the British Isles and the continent. She showed many things that the average tourist misses because of time limitations.

In November, Janet Middleton Churchill, a well known local artist, painted a picture in front of the club, explaining what she was doing as she went along. She made it seem very easy to put oils to canvas and produce a lovely painting.

In February, another member, lawyer Ruth Gorman, gave an illuminating talk on "Rights of Women." She showed us how recent and precious our legal rights are, by relating our rights to those at the time of the Founders.

We observed Chapter Loyalty Day informally, since this has really been Chapter Loyalty Year for our club.

This year we have directed our efforts toward raising $250 to help defray expenses at Edmonton, where the chapter house has recently undergone extensive remodeling. This is the most inspiring, and at the same time, most difficult "local project," since we felt we could not use the usual methods of raising money for charity from the public.

After a very successful rummage sale in October, we raised another $50 by raffling Mrs. Churchill's painting. (Joyce O'Brien is the proud winner.) We then tried a new method of raising money. Each girl was asked to raise $2 for the club by a method of her own choosing. This is proving to be very successful, and has filled the gap to enable us to meet our pledge.

JOAN BRUNTON CUMMINGS

EDMONTON

The Edmonton Alumnae Club, under Margaret McTavish's leadership, started the season with Maryleen Macrae giving a report on the Swainscott Convention. As chairman of the Advisory Committee for three years, Maryleen has made an outstanding contribution to the betterment of Alberta A, so well deserved the honor of being chosen Convention delegate.

In October Helen Steeves gave a graphic description of her trip to Japan, augmented by slides.

The November meeting was held at our newly renovated chapter house, the interior and exterior of which have been vastly improved both in comfort and appearance. Margaret Greer, House Corporation President, gave us details explaining the extensive renovation. Great credit is due Margaret and other House Corporation officers for the success of this project. Lou Ann Tuft joined us for coffee and showed her inspiring slides of Convention and Settlement School.

The highlight of our March meeting was a visit from our province vice-president, Sally Vanasse, whose Fraternity talk was greatly appreciated. Sally also met with the club executive and advisory board for lunch and dinner.

Other meetings featured a demonstration of floral arrangements, instructive talks on "Education," "Literature for Children" and "Poise for Pi Phis."

Money raising projects included a rummage sale, dessert bridge and sale of cards and novelties.

Club members attended the Panhellenic Banquet, Fraternity Formal and Founders' Day Banquet. The Mothers' Club and actives were entertained, and assistance with refreshments given during initiations and rushing.

The year closed in May honoring our graduates at a luncheon party.

EUGENE

The Eugene Alumnae Club began another successful year with its annual August picnic at the summer home of Lois Scharpf Reed. Our president, Mary Ellen Bishop and her officers were hostesses to the members and their husbands.

Regular monthly meetings followed. Our September meeting was devoted mainly to assistance for the Oregon A in their rushing plans. We were entertained in October by the new pledge class at an open house and in November we entertained the new chapter housemother and the new pledges. Final plans for the annual Settlement School Sale were also made. Co-chairmen were Betty Jean Simpson Gillihan and Jody Stoutt. Invitations were sent out for a tea during which time the sale was held. Many people do their Christmas shopping at the sale and we feel it is an eagerly awaited event.

A Christmas Bazaar Auction with members bringing baked goods, handmade aprons etc. was held in December.

In February we entertained a foreign student from Holland which was most interesting. Members also attended the annual Panhellenic bridge benefit. In May the Oregon A seniors were entertained by the alumnae members at dinner.

MARY BATTIN CHRISTOPHERSON

OLYMPIA

It has been a busy and successful year so far, for the Olympia Alumnae Club under the able direction of our president, Cornelia Beatty.

Many of our meetings have been carried on while the girls cut up old Christmas cards, art paper, etc., and put them in plastic bags for inmates at Mental Hospital—Rainier School. Donations for our treasury are drawn from our own members by the auctioning of a white elephant at each meeting. As every treasury does, ours soon dwindles, but we feel that the money goes for very good causes. This year we asked the three active Washington Chapters to choose a magazine they would like and we sent them a subscription for the year.

The attendance at our meetings has been rather small this year but our plans are big and we hope to encourage a larger membership. A baked food sale was planned for April 18. This was held in downtown Olympia. After the baked food sale we prepared for the Founders' Day Banquet, held April 25 at Lakewood Terrace in Tacoma.

MARY LOU SCHROEDER PAULSEN

PORTLAND, OREGON

This year Portland Alumnae, with Beatrice Milligan Titus at the helm, have had fun trying to build up the Treasury with several enterprising projects. The first was a Turkey Shoot in September on Mary Ellison McFarland's acreage. We had a concession stand with hot dogs and coffee to aid the hunters in their marksmanship. With a break in the weather, this would have been a tremendous success. As it was, it did interest many families to venture out to see what went on at a Turkey Shoot.

Lou Ann Chase Tuft, Omicron Province President, gave an inspirational review of Convention at our October meeting. And in November, under the able chairmanship of Elva Prescott Williams, our annual Settlement School Tea and Sale attracted a greater number of friends as well as Phi Beta Phis than in previous years.

At our Christmas party we heard two Portland High School students who had been American Field Service Students in Japan and Turkey. Mid-winter "coffees" were very successful this year with five homes open in the various districts of Portland. Just a social gathering of over 100 Pi Beta Phis made this one of the highlights of our year.

In March along with the business meeting, we had a very informative and descriptive picture of women and juvenile police work by Captain Brown of the Protective Division of the Police Department.

April had Pi Beta Phis and friends enjoying a style show and dessert at one of our leading department stores. And a fitting climax for our successful year was Founders' Day at Waverley Country Club. The program was well planned, giving everyone the very satisfying feeling that it's wonderful to be a Pi Beta Phi!

CAROL GLEASON ANDERSON

SALEM

The Nancy Black Wallace Alumnae Club launched another successful year under the leadership of Helen Devers, president, with an informal potluck and swimming party at the home of Velma Hughes. October found the alumnae at the home of Ellen Roth watching slides of the Orient showed by Mrs. George Rboten.

Greeting the new Oregon P pledges was the occasion for the November meeting at Odell Ohling's home. This was the first opportunity for most of the alumnae sponsors to become acquainted with their "little sisters" among the pledges.

A gay Christmas party at the chapter house on the Willamette University campus highlighted the holiday season. Decorations centered around the theme of the European St. Nicholas Day (December 6) and Settlement School items were on display for Christmas shopping. A demonstration of Christmas greens and table decorations was presented by a local florist and the evening was concluded with carol singing.

The quiz on the Constitution and by-laws with a penalty of a "white elephant" purchase was so popular last year that it was initiated again at the February meeting. A new fund raising project started in February is a basket of "goodies" (anything from a flower bulb to a cake) that is passed around among the members. The receiver buys the contents and then passes it on with a new filler.

Elections and showing of Settlement School slides took place in March followed in April with the Founders' day dinner. Seniors of the active chapter were honored with small gifts and short biographies. With good food assured and good weather hoped for, the June picnic in the gardens of Louella Buren's home was a happy conclusion to the year.

SUZANNE BARNES MORRISON

SEATTLE

The Seattle Alumnae Club called its first meeting at the newly decorated chapter house to hear Convention reports from the province vice-president, Mrs. Sally Vanasse, and alumnae President, Mrs. Maxine Goldback. The new pledges, thirty three in all, introduced themselves through a style show.

New and interesting items were on display at the Settlement School Sale, November 5 at the Edmond Meany Hotel. The sale attracted many new customers this year through the efforts of Mrs. Roland Dick, chairman. Coffee and refreshments were served for everyone's enjoyment.

A Christmas party gathered members from far and near to join in an exchange of "pedigreed" white elephants. The young alumnae entertained with a musical program.

Election of officers was an informal meeting at the home of Mrs. Frederick Haslund. Each member brought her own lunch and the Magnolia-Queen Anne area served a delicious dessert and coffee. Mr. Glen Archer was humorous and enlightening in his talk on "Russia Today." Two floral arrangements, made of wood fibre by Mrs. Maxine Goldback, were raffled.

A new illuminated clock on Denny Hall, at the University of Washington, was officially presented by the club to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the granting of Washington A's charter at the University.

March 21 marked a gala evening of fun with dinner and a bingo party at the chapter house.

In April, the Founders' Day banquet was commemorated with a presentation of the history of Washington A by alumna, Mrs. William H. Fix.

The year drew to a close with the annual picnic meeting in May, held at the home of Mrs. Wilma Bergren, with the graduating seniors as guests.

SHIRLEY CHERBERG

SPokane

September started with a flourish for Spokane Alumnae Club with a patio supper at the home of Virginia Campen Latenser, overlooking the Spokane River. Barbara McCarty Grohs, our president, gave a very listenable account of her trip to Convention. Plans were made for our fall rummage sale.

Our programs during the year were varied. Katherine Mattes Laing shared her European trip with us by the use of fascinating colored slides. A teacher and three small students from the Edna Davis School for the Deaf enlightened us on the work that is done there. We were also introduced to the delights of a Chinese Auction.

After an absence of several years, our Settlement School Sale made a surprising comeback, under the capable direction of chairman Carol Cooke Jones. It was held at the lovely home of Maurine Martin McLaughlin on a snowy November day. Coffee was served in the morning, tea in the afternoon, and the beautiful articles sold themselves.

During the Christmas holidays, the actives and their mothers were entertained at a coffee at the charming new home of Peggy Vorous Gale. Magazine subscriptions and gift-wrapped head scarves were sent to the girls at Bothe Memorial Hospital. Also, small gifts were sent to the two active chapters in our area.

A February "Friendship Luncheon" brought guests from the Pullman Alumnae group, and an interesting exchange of ideas, as well as a glimpse into the origin of the cooky-shine story, planned by co-chairmen Alice Turner Stilson and Marge Lomax Mallory.

April was a busy month with a spring dance, organized by Peggy Melzer Hasstedt, and also our always well attended Founders' Day banquet, arranged by Mrs. Latenser and Sally Essex Kleveland. A picnic meeting in May saw the end of a very gratifying year.

ROBERTA LEWIS FRANK

TACOMA

In July each member was invited to bring her lunch to Beverly Goodwin's for a picnic and swim in the pool.

The fall activities started with a buffet supper at the home of Dorothy Kirk on Lake Steilacoom. Betty Rumbaugh, our president, gave us some interesting glimpses of Convention.

Our October speaker at Janice North's was Dr. Lyle Shelmidine from the college with a fascinating talk on the Middle East.

Joann Cross was chairman of our rummage sale which was held November 3 and 4. The following week some of our members attended the Panhellenic luncheon bride. Our Settlement School Sale was held November 18 at Dorothy Ohlson's with Roberta Pauley and Deborah Howe as co-chairmen of the drop in luncheon. Over ninety people were served. Jane Knapp was in charge of the successful sale.

Our annual Christmas party was held December 27 at Lakewood Terrace. All actives in the area were invited.

The theme for January at Betty Gardner's was "Be a Lady" and included a speaker from the Betty Radonich Charm School.

"Be a Traveler" was the February theme at Frances Heidner's. Our speaker was Mrs. Vincent Benjamin, whose slides of her recent trip to Russia were most interesting.

In March Lucille Thompson opened her home for the Settlement School program and a plant sale.

We celebrated Founders' Day on April 28 with the local chapter. In May the theme was "Be a Gem" and a representative from Gunderson's Jewelry spoke at Roberta Pauley's. New officers for the coming year also were installed. DOROTHY CARLENE MUNYON

WASHINGTON

The Tri-City Alumnae Club had another pleasant and busy year under the leadership of our capable president, Gloria Miller Schill.

In December, our Pi Beta Phi club was asked to co-chairman the Annual Tri-City Panhellenic dinner dance. We planned and made decorations with a Christmas motif for this nice event. Virginia Gundstrom Hedges has been treasurer of Panhellenic this year.

For the second year, our local project has brought grateful recognition to Pi Beta Phi from the Colonial Nursing Home in Pasco. Our members take turns baking birthday cakes and delivering them to the residents of the home on the appropriate days. Most of these elderly people are bed ridden and have no families to remember them. Lorraine Lynn Crook was chairman of the project this year.

A potluck supper at the home of Betty Christensen Rish was followed by our first meeting this fall. In addition to business and rushing reports, we enjoyed hearing Mary Jane Maharg Cooper tell about her trip to Europe. The Cooper family accompanied Mr. Cooper to Geneva, Switzerland for the "Atoms for Peace" Conference, and for additional sightseeing in several countries.

In November, we met at the home of Marjorie Maris Peterson for dessert, and Virginia Lovejoy Heffner was our hostess in February. We looked forward to our annual Founders' Day celebration and to an installation meeting this spring.

We are also very proud of our member, Pat Hart Cochrane, who was named in the 1958-59 issue of "Who's Who Of American Women."

HELEN BENDIXEN MAUER

VANCOUVER

The members of the Vancouver Alumnae have enjoyed a varied and interesting year under the capable leadership of Jean Murphy. We are fortunate in having members from many parts of Canada and the United States, who add zest and new interest to our meetings.

The club continues its project of assistance to the Jericho School for blind children.

Our first meeting organized our activities for the year. In October an informal talk illustrated with colored slides of Spain was thoroughly enjoyed. With a rummage sale, alumnae helped the Parent-Teacher Association of the Blind School to raise over $500.

Coffee parties were held in November where guests could enjoy their coffee while shopping for Christmas wrappings and novelties. The profits made were added to proceeds from the sale of Christmas cards and designated towards a scholarship for a prospective teacher of the blind attending the Faculty of Education. The teachers who received special training in instructing blind children, through our loan system, reported benefits and gratitude.

Members of the club gave a party for a group of blind children, which was enthusiastically received by the children.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a buffet supper held at the home of Orene Robinson. This event is always well attended.

Our May meeting was planned to install new officers and to conclude another successful year.

ZELMA TYNDALE PRITCHARD

YAKIMA, WASHINGTON

The first dinner meeting of the Fannie Whitenack Libby Alumnae chapter was held in October, at which time several new members, who have recently moved to town, were welcomed. Plans were made for the fall rummage sale, which incidentally was a great success and added to our memorial fund.

In December a morning coffee hour was held at the home of Elise Cunningham, honoring actives, pledges and their mothers. We have three new pledges.

At the February meeting it was decided to purchase a steam humidifier for the pediatrics department of the Memorial Hospital in memory of Mary Lewis Rankin. A report on the success of the annual Panhellenic luncheon, of which Janet Goldsworthy was chairman, was made.

Founders' Day was held at the home of Genevieve McIntyre, with daughters of the members serving.

JULIA SHADBOLT KUEHN

PI PROVINCE

ANTELOPE VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

Our club is one of the youngest, having been organized in August 1958. We were off to a good start with Adele Taylor Alford installing us September 8, and a swimming party and pot luck dinner later in the month.

We held a surprise baby shower at our October meeting for one of our members.

Our Settlement School tea and sale in November was very successful. A loaf of nut bread was donated by each member for refreshments.

Several of us, including Adele Taylor Alford as our guest, enjoyed a delicious Christmas luncheon at the Caravan in Lancaster.

Slides from the Settlement School highlighted our February meeting and slides of Holt House were enjoyed in April when we met at the Brevedoro Lilac Ranch in Acton to view the lilacs in bloom.

Our province vice president, Mrs. James Hamilton, visited us in March.

BAKERSFIELD

The Bakersfield Alumnae Club year opened on an inspirational footing in October when Dorothy May Gibson presented a most interesting report on her Convention experiences the previous June. The evening dessert meeting was held at the home of Patty Powell McFarland.

In November, our bi-annual Settlement School Coffee and Sale took place at the home of Mary Frances Porter, with approximately 150 persons attending. Our January meeting was in the form of a "planned potluck" with two persons preparing each of the recipes selected from the new Pi Beta Phi Cookbook. Those not cooking were on the serving and clean up detail. The luncheon was held at the home of Betty Bidart, with a short meeting and bridge following.

As the Bakersfield Panhellenic Council sponsored a fashion show-luncheon featuring Don Loper, his models and orchestra in February, we did not have a meeting but supported this scholarship fund raising project instead. In March we were honored by a visit from our new province vice president, Jessie Moer Hamilton. A board meeting in the morning at the home of our president, Frances Holmes, was followed by a no host luncheon and meeting at the Hacienda.

Our annual Founders' Day luncheon was held at the home of Rosemary Werdel, followed by a historical sketch presented by Audrey Clark Minor. The new officers were installed preceding lunch and swimming at the home of Pat Ebert Brown in May. Our annual post season barbecue, with husbands as guests, was held in June in the garden of Mary Ann Green's new home, concluding an enjoyable and profitable year under the guidance of our president, Frances Seymour Holmes.

MARY FRANCES (TUCKER) PORTER

BERKELEY

The Berkeley Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year at the chapter house in September. Margaret Walker Horning, our president, gave a most interesting report of Convention, after which we entertained the new pledges of California B and representatives of the other eight bay area clubs. The Settlement School Tea, given in October also at the chapter house, was a lovely affair and was well attended by both members and guests.

Our next meeting, in January, was a delightful "cooky-shine" at which we welcomed new members to our group. Our hostess, Mary Clark, gave a brief history of the "cooky-shine" and then we all enjoyed a Pi Beta Phi "sing." In February we held our History meeting at the chapter house. We tested our knowledge of Pi Beta Phi History by solving a specially-designed cross word puzzle under the leadership of our vice president, Barbara Chapman Lesh.

Election of officers was the principal business of our March meeting. Also, in this month we gave the traditional banquet for new initiates of California B of Pi Beta Phi at the Claremont Hotel. Two annual alumnae club scholarships were presented; one to an upper classman and one to an initiate.

Our fund raising event for this year was a fashion show and luncheon given in conjunction with the Mothers' Club on two successive days in April at the chapter house. The clothes were shown by H. Liebes and Co., a San Francisco store. This event proved to be a very successful and interesting occasion for all who attended and participated.

In April we were hostesses to the other bay area clubs at a beautiful Founders' Day luncheon at the International House on the University of California campus. At our last meeting of the year, in May, we installed the new officers and honored the graduating seniors of the active chapter.

SARAH FARRELL SCOTT

CENTINELA VALLEY

The Centinela Valley Alumnae Club has had very fine meetings this year, many of the programs being presented by its members. In 1958, and again this year, we have contributed from our earnings toward the education of a worthy college girl.

In October we welcomed new members with an evening dessert at the home of Helen MacBoyle and heard an interesting Convention report by Mary Carlson. The November meeting featured Christmas ideas by Helen MacBoyle. In December we had a Dutch Raffle at the home of Kathryn Walker, the proceeds being added to our philanthropic funds. Gifts were brought for elderly patients at Harbor General Hospital, an annual project.

Travel pictures by Rosalyn Frudentfeld were enjoyed at the home of Mary Halliday in January. Our annual party for the husbands, a box lunch social this year, was held in February at the home of Betty Barnes. The boxes were auctioned off, and prizes given for the most unusual.

In March we looked forward to meeting our new province vice president, Jessie Hamilton. The April meeting honored our exchange student. In May we had installation of officers, and Maxine Willis related her experience as a ham radio operator. A noon luncheon and fashion show at Bullocks-Wilshire in June was our final meeting.

BARBARA STRONG ARMSTRONG

CONTRA COSTA

A lovely sunny September afternoon around the pool at the beautiful Danville estate of Mrs. Hugh Miller was the setting for our dessert bridge party-Settlement School Sale. The proceeds from this event have been sent to the Settlement School to pay some mountain child's expenses for the year. What spirited bidding we had at our White Elephant sale held at a morning "coffee" meeting in November!! Many lovely (and many amusing) articles went on the auctioneer's block that day. We sat spellbound at our Christmas meeting while Pi Province Vice President, Mrs. J. M. Hamilton relived her exciting days at Convention last summer. It was the next best thing to being there ourselves.

Our pot luck supper for Pi Beta Phi husbands grows in popularity each year. Pat Bernard's lovely home was the scene for the gala evening where the good food and good time once again endeared Pi Beta Phi in our husbands' hearts.

We were fortunate to obtain the slides from Settlement School for our March meeting. As few of us have actually seen the Gatlinburg area, this was indeed a rewarding and enriching experience. We are more than ever anxious to develop a local project to benefit the school. A Cooky-Shine was the program for our Founders' Day meeting. I must admit this was the first Cooky-Shine I'd attended since college days and I was deeply impressed. It has been a good year for the Contra Costa club. We are looking forward to next year as happily as we look back upon the year just closing.

JUDY GARDNER DOWNS

COVINA-POMONA

The Covina-Pomona Valley alumnae have just completed their second year as a chartered club. This year we held many interesting programs and successful events.

Our first meeting was in September. It was especially worth while since our guest of honor was Mrs. Jane Griggs, President of the Los Angeles Junior Club. Mrs. Griggs attended Convention this summer and was kind enough to bring all the latest news to us. In October, we held a Cooky-Shine with lots of fun and singing.

November marked the highlight of our year. We held our first Settlement School Coffee and Sale. To our delight, the residents of this area were very pleased with the merchandise and we sold $300 worth of Settlement School products.

Mrs. Willard Bartlett, one of our Claremont Golden Arrows, gave us a most interesting talk at our January meeting. Mrs. Bartlett's sister is Tommie Allen who has been a missionary in the wilderness of a small Japanese island for forty-four years. Miss Allen is one of our Pi Beta Phi sisters, so we were especially interested to hear of her many and varied hardships and experiences while establishing a mission in this remote spot.

March 5 marked a visit from our new Pi Province Vice President, Mrs. Jessie Moer Hamilton. The board members, headed by our President, Mrs. Carol Trohan Glover, honored Mrs. Hamilton with a buffet supper followed, by the regular club meeting. Mrs. Hamilton advised us on rush procedure and answered our many questions. We thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Hamilton's visit.

Our club celebrated Founders' Day by holding a beautiful luncheon at one of our local restaurants on April 28. In May we held our election of officers, and in June our annual swim party in honor of our husbands.

MRS. MARY MAULE RILEY

FRESNO

Our first meeting was a cooky-shine at Bobbie Webster's on September 23. Our new president, Ann Hertzog, gave a most enthusiastic Convention report and plans were made for our Bridge Luncheon.

October 21 was the day for our Bridge Luncheon at Tina Baker's. We sold tables for this "glamorous salad" meal which was served outside by the pool. We realized over $100 profit, part of which was given to our local group which aids mentally retarded children. The lovely setting, perfect weather and elegant food made this event the talk of Fresno.

On November 18 we all got together for morning coffee at Mary Crumme's house, where we talked over our great luncheon success and made plans for our annual Christmas party.

The Christmas party at Eleanor MacMichael's on December 19 was one of good cheer for all our local Pi Beta Phi's and their husbands. We all brought food, clothes and money for our needy family. Taking the basket to the family was a pleasant job for Babs Van Rozeboom. The "Now it will be a Merry Christmas" response was truly gratifying.

Other plans for our group included a visit by our province vice president, Mrs. James Hamilton in March and our Founders' Day Luncheon in April.

VIRGINIA EATON

GLENDALE

The Glendale Alumnae Club has had a busy, pleasant and successful year under president Marie Baughman who presented us in December with a future Pi Beta Phi, we hope.

The year opened with a pot luck dinner at the home of Genevieve Dunn with Florence Mason giving a most interesting report of Convention. Jeanette Lewis opened her home in October at which time the club heard a speaker from the Glendale Mental Health Service. November and December were fun meetings: a luncheon bridge at Aileen Long's and the Christmas party at Evelyn Ogborn's. The February meeting was another pot luck; this time honoring Mothers and Daughters. The husbands and escorts were entertained in June with Luau at Dottie Cowlin's.

Florence Mason and Johann Jonas are on the advisory boards at California A and California I respectively, so in March, the meeting was a "Visit from our active girls."

As usual the actives and alumnae of Southern California meet for a Founders' Day Luncheon: this time at the Hotel Statler in Los Angeles.

New officers were installed at the May meeting followed by a speaker from the Balanes Shop in Pasadena on the "Pacific Influence on Contemporary Living."

The club has had two money raising projects: the usual successful rummage sale and the "Basket." Grace Hunter started the basket last fall with cookies. As each member received the basket she removed the contents and put in the bank what she considered the package to be worth—folding money, the finance committee hoped. Then she crossed off her name, refilled the basket and passed it on. Baked goods, canned goods, jams, jellies, pot holders, aprons have been included. No white elephants were allowed. When the basket reached the corresponding secretary, the bank seemed quite full so the prospects look good. National and local philanthropies will profit accordingly. DOROTHY P. POWELL.

HONOLULU

The Honolulu Alumnae Club meets monthly during the year. We hope that Pi Beta Phis visiting the Islands, new residents and those whose husbands are stationed here will contact us. Notices of meetings appear in two Honolulu newspapers.

Activities began in April with our Founders' Day luncheon at the Oahu Country Club. It was appropriate that Shirley Cook from Illinois A conduct the candlelight ceremony to honor our Founders. Officers for the coming year were installed.

Our morning coffees and one luncheon were followed by business meetings. Reports were given on Holt House, the local Panhellenic organization, the History and Constitution of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club in Honolulu and our philanthropic projects.

Interspersed during the year was a luncheon at Hickam Officers' Club, a bridge luncheon at the Halekulani Hotel in Waikiki and a dinner for husbands and guests at Hickam Officers' Club.

In July the club had a luncheon at the Halekulani Hotel honoring actives home during vacation and those attending the University of Hawaii's summer session.

In December we bought and trimmed five Christmas trees for Pohukaina, a school for physically handicapped children. Also, we decorated and presented a carousel tree to the Queens Hospital Auxiliary's annual Festival of Trees.

Pi Beta Phi was represented at all four events sponsored by the Honolulu Panhellenic.

At the February meeting, plans were completed for our spring bridge benefit when Settlement School articles were displayed. The club decorated several dozen eggs at Easter for Pohukaina School.

It was our pleasure to have Marcella Rhodes, a former Vice President of Pi Province, attend two of our meetings.

RUTH POLLARD CAPLICE

LA CANADA VALLEY

The La Canada Valley Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi projects through the year with outstanding programs and worth while philanthropies as well as many social activities. Our president, Betty Howlett, has conducted her various luncheon meetings in members' homes, giving a friendly atmosphere and a closer relationship among the members.

During rush week last fall, our club assumed the responsibility of arranging the flowers for the rush dinners and teas given by the University of Southern California I Chapter of Pi Beta Phi. Much satisfaction was gained from this artistic endeavor.

As we are closely allied with the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles, our members addressed 20,000 Easter Seal envelopes. Others put in many hours doing various jobs needed by this worthy society.

Programming of the various meetings by Beth Kenson has kept a lively interest in the monthly meetings. Alice Mothershead, foreign student advisor of Pasadena City College, gave us a world wide picture of the foreign student program and its help in national and world affairs. An interesting and enlightening report of Pi Beta Phi National Convention was given by Mrs. Russell Doty. One evening meeting was highlighted with a travelogue through Central America and South America given by a professional travel agent, Hazel Hansen, a Pi Beta Phi mother.

Betty Howlett announced an informal dinner dance to be given in April in the gracious home of Bea Wilde in Flintridge. As has been our custom, Founders' Day was observed by joining the other chapters of Area Council at the Statler Hotel, April 25. A successful year was concluded with a cooky-shine and dinner in the home of Dorothy Richards.

MAY BEATTY ROBINSON

LA JOLLA

A delightful patio supper at the home of the president, Margaret Ulrich, highlighted the beginning of another successful social and working year for the Adele Taylor Alford Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi. This meeting, held September 18, was the roundtable for making plans for our biggest project of the year, the Settlement School Sale.

In October, we really rolled up our sleeves and busied ourselves at a workshop meeting for the Sale, and on October 15, we held a very successful and highly enjoyable Settlement School Sale, combined with a benefit bridge party. From the proceeds of the party, we were able to give a contribution to Gillispie Cottage, a day school for underprivileged children.

We rested on our laurels in November, with Betty Tinker and Estelle Galli sharing honors as co-hostesses at a dessert meeting.

In December we joined with the San Diego Alumnae Club for a Christmas luncheon at the San Diego Yacht Club, honoring out of town actives.

The new year was heralded at a January potluck supper at the home of Mildred Durham, and in February we elected new officers at the home of Eve Stevens, with Betty Fall assisting the hostess, at an after-meeting dessert bridge.

A luncheon for the new and the old board members was held March 11 at the home of Susan Stoakes, new president elect, and we looked forward to joining with the San Diego Alumnae members at dinner that night at the Pi Beta Phi house on San Diego State campus, honoring Mrs. Jessie Hamilton.

Installation of officers and Founders' Day were two important events to brighten the April calendar, and in May the group closed its season's activities with a traditional El Fresco dinner.

EVELYN PETERSEN STEVENS

LAS VEGAS

During the year we plan two social events to which all members and their husbands are invited. Besides our annual Christmas Party, held this year on December 6, we had a steak fry in June at the home of one of our members. Last fall we held a fashion show in one of our leading dress shops. This was an evening affair and all members were asked to bring guests. Modeling was performed by our alumnae club. Each one of them did a most professional job too. Feeling that we had managed to "get our feet wet," we volunteered to supervise a similar affair, entitled "Modes of March," sponsored by Southern Nevada Panhellenic Association on March 5. This, too, was an evening event. Panhellenic members modeled the fashions. Annually the association presents a tea for all southern Nevada High School seniors as a means of introducing them to colleges and sororities. Proceeds from the fashion show augmented the fund used for giving the tea. We were happy to meet our province vice president who paid us a visit in February. The year has seemed all too short when we look at our accomplishments. We hope our future plans will help us grow in the name of Pi Beta Phi.

WILMA EPLER FAIRHALL

LONG BEACH

Under the able leadership of our president, Kathryn Smith, the Long Beach Alumnae Club had a most enjoyable year.

The 1958-59 season began with a Pi Beta Phi talent meeting which included a demonstration in pastel portraiture by Patricia Otis Carlson and a flute solo by Carol Holmes, accompanied by Caroline Lockhart.

Our cooky-shine proved especially successful when the sale of delicious homemade cookies was added to the program and added to our treasury as well.

The clubs' main interest this year has been the ground work for possible colonization at Long Beach State College in the future. Dean Swanson, dean of women for the college, gave us a most interesting account of the college growth and facilities at our November meeting. A progress report was then compiled by Sue Wright and Bobby Goozman on the growth of the L.B.S.C. campus. This was sent to Grand Council for study.

Grand Council asked Helen Lewis, director of membership, to look over the campus when she visited Long Beach early in April. During her brief stay here, Mrs. Lewis was entertained at luncheon by the Alumnae Club Board.

Our Founders' Day program included a lovely luncheon at the Petroleum Club followed by an interesting book review given by Mr. Leslie Swadlow.

We were all proud of the wonderful job our own Sue Wright did as Long Beach Panhellenic president this past year.

The election of officers and installation ceremony ended our fine year.

PATRICIA CARLSON

LOS ANGELES

Another successful year began with a luncheon at the Beverly Hills Hotel, featuring a stimulating Convention report by our capable president, Jane Hopkins Griggs. We were proud to learn that Pi Province had the largest representation at Convention, and that our club nominated our province vice president, Evelyn Kyle, to the newly created office of Director of Programs on Grand Council.

In November, we visited the UCLA Chapter house where we learned of the "Privileges of Being Adult" from the eminent Lydia Sicher, M.D. (Vienna), Ph.D. We started something new in January by entertaining our husbands at an evening party at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel.

February was our big month. We held our ninth annual "Golden Galaxy of Fashion" in the Grand Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel for the benefit of the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County and Pi Beta Phi philanthropies. This glamorous fashion luncheon, which usually draws over 600 Pi Beta Phis and their friends, also features our Arrow Craft which is sold from a beautifully planned display. Over $8,000 (part of the proceeds from the last two benefits) was donated for construction of a therapy pool and pool house at the Crippled Children's Center. In addition to fund raising this year, the Los Angeles Alumnae Club members gave over 9,000 volunteer working hours to the Society!

In the Spring, our traditional Mother Daughter tea followed our Founders' Day Observance in April. This tea is always a most beautiful "family" affair, where Pi Beta Phi mothers and their radiant daughters come from all over Southern California to be our honored guests in the magnificent home and gardens of one of our members.

We are most proud of our prominent Pi Beta Phi, Dorothy Buffum Chandler was appointed by President Eisenhower to serve on the Board of Trustees of the National Cultural Center. Dorothy Marshall was made General Manager of the nine Broadway Department Stores, and Olive Eames Latham, a past president of our club, is off to Washington, D.C., where her husband, Dana, will serve as the nation's Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

CATHERINE DOUBEN REA

MARIN COUNTY

The monthly meetings of the Marin County Alumnae Club have been enthusiastically attended by an increasing number of members. The year's activities were outlined at the September meeting which was held at Dorothy Fogarty's lovely new home. Early October found Pi Beta Phi selling Arrow Craft articles at the annual Grape Festival. Hazel Brown's home provided the perfect setting for the traditional cooky-shine and a very interesting report by president Marion Scott on the 1958 Convention. The club sold one night's performance of the Tiburon Cove Players' production of Agatha Christie's play "The Mousetrap" in November. A profit of $205 will provide partial summer camps for Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls. Mary Wilbee was our efficient chairman for this event. The Christmas Settlement School Tea was held at the Independent Journal Building in San Rafael. Under the capable direction of Helen Buresh, handicraft, sweets and gift wrappings were sold.

We were privileged to see a documentary film illustrating the modern methods of care being developed nationally to meet the needs of the emotionally disturbed child at the Sunny Hills Home followed by tea at the home of Margaret Hickman, President of Sunny Hills board, as the first event of the new year. A talk was heard in February by Emilie Romaine, fashion photographer on "Putting Your Best Face Forward" at Marjory Hayes' home. Betty Brokaw hosted the regular review of the Constitution meeting in March, and the Founders' Day luncheon was held at the Meadow Club in April. A highly enjoyable spring affair in which children of members modeled fashions from the Bib 'n Tucker Shop in Belvedere was given at Lillian Kettenbach's home. In June a fun lunch and swim party was held at Miriam Dinkel-spiel's, and the year closed with installation of new officers.

Our programs have been varied and interesting, and we are all grateful to Marion Scott and her board for another stimulating and successful year.

PEGGY ANTON

PALO ALTO

September means swimming party to Pi Beta Phi in this area. Janet Johnson Ackles was hostess this year and the largest number of members our club has enjoyed responded when President Peg Leininger Ferrey called for the opening ritual.

The highlight of the October meeting was the Convention report by Doris Houser Greenbaum. Her enthusiastic report inspired us all as we turned to plans for our annual Settlement School Tea. This most successful affair was held in November. Kay Heckman Hockey's lovely home and garden provided a perfect background for the display of Arrow Craft items and Christmas candles.

Our December meeting in Laura Butler Bourret's new home was a high point in fun and good will. After the regular meeting Beth Schaaf Davenport produced mountains of small gifts for patients at the Agnew State Mental Hospital. Members produced wrapping paper and cookies and set to work preparing festive Christmas boxes for an entire ward.

The January gathering was a purely social one in the form of a dinner dance for members and their husbands at the Moffett Field Officers Club and February's business meeting was followed by an evening of bridge. The main topic for conversation, however, was the project announcement made by Natalie Pearson. This year's method for raising money to benefit the Palo Alto Medical Research Foundation will be an old fashioned Ice Cream Social and everyone began comparing notes on how it was done "when I was a little girl."

The pot luck dinner in March was also the occasion for election of officers and a special Founders' Day program was planned for April.

The joint board meeting in May closed the business year and the traditional steak barbecue at Edy Allen Manning's summer home closed the club's activities until . . . the swimming party!

BEVERLY SQUIER PARTRIDGE

PASADENA

The Pasadena Alumnae Club enjoyed a very memorable year under the able guidance of our president, Louise Gardner Doty. In September Lou gave us a very inspiring report of her experiences at Convention.

The Settlement School Coffee this year was held in October for Pi Beta Phi's only, as we are saving all our energies for our second "PI PHI PRESENTS" to be held in the fall under the leadership of Elizabeth Waggoner Kerr.

One of the most beautiful teas that we have ever had was given in December to honor the two national officers who are members of our club; Evelyn Peters Kyle, Director of Programs and Sarah Pauline Wild Gordon, Pi Province President. Emilie Engelbach King's home never looked lovelier, even the weather was perfect, for the several hundred guests who came to honor our national officers.

A most successful dinner dance was held on Valentine's Day to honor our husbands. More than a hundred Pi Beta Phi's and their escorts are still talking about the fun they had at this party. Also in February our annual rummage sale was held.

In April Founders' Day was celebrated with the other clubs in this area as has been the custom for many years.

The Pi Beta Phi year was closed in May with a luncheon honoring our Golden Arrow members.

HELEN KNAPP HAUSER

PASADENA JUNIOR

The Pasadena Junior Alumnae Club began its year with a Barbecue Swim party for husbands and escorts. Joan Lamoreaux's lovely patio pool area was a perfect setting for this party. Some of the husbands turned chef and assisted the committee in making this an enjoyable afternoon and evening for all.

The Settlement School Coffee was held in October at the home of Mrs. A. O. Maule. The Juniors sold forty cookbooks during the morning.

Our November program was a popular repeat from last year, by Mr. Karl Krupp of The Wine Institute. We tasted wines of various types and saw film made by the Institute.

In December we attended the tea given by the Seniors in honor of our National Officers, Mrs. Stanley E. Kyle, and Mrs. Wilmont G. Gordon. Another activity for us this month was a buffet dinner, with husbands and escorts invited. Attendance was greater at this event than for any other of the year.

Jean Fahn gave us another preview of Fashion Trends for the January meeting. Everyone enjoyed the collection she presented.

In February we collected rummage, and worked to help the Seniors have a successful rummage sale again. Our Senior president, Mrs. Russell E. Doty, was our guest at this month's meeting, and gave us all the details of the 1958 Convention. Some of our Juniors attended the Valentine dinner dance given by the Senior Club.

"Fun with Flowers" was the program title for March. A delightful program it was, giving us information to use in the years to come.

In April our program was built around the gay subject of "Hats and Decorations." This was fun for all of us.

Installation of officers and rushing information were the main topics of the May meeting. We played cards after the business meeting was adjourned.

Our year ended with a coffee at the home of Mrs. Eleda Weise in honor of the actives in the area.

All in all this has been a marvelous year for us. Our president, Grayne Price, and Vice President, Marion Dunlap, have both done a superb job.

ELIZABETH HILL

PHOENIX

Phoenix Alumnae Club members have profited in many ways from the activities and associations of the past year. Jean Manly Sheridan, president, provided capable and enthusiastic leadership.

The club year opened with the traditional cooky-shine. The next two meetings were held in Tempe and Coolidge, in order to promote participation in Pi Beta Phi throughout the Valley of the Sun.

The Christmas party had an international flavor. A foreign student, whom the hostess had taken into her home, talked to the group. At this meeting, the Ways and Means Chairman introduced a fund raising project, illustrating the idea with a style show. The club would receive 20% of all payments made toward gift certificates purchased by members or their friends. The gift certificate would be payable at once or over a period of twenty weeks.

During the holidays a get acquainted coffee was held for the actives, pledges, and their mothers. This included many girls attending out of state colleges. Honored guests were Colonel Clement Kennedy, president of New Ocean House in Swampscott, and Mrs. Kennedy, Pi Beta Phi Convention initiate at Jasper. The affair was overwhelmingly well attended.

At the first meeting of the new year, the beautiful, inspirational slides of Holt House were shown. In February, Jessie Moer Hamilton, province vice president, honored the club with a visit. This meeting was extremely interesting.

The March meeting was a dessert bridge with election of officers. The April meeting was an observance of Founders' Day.

Phoenix Panhellenic held a fun and fund raising project called "Grecian Holiday," in May. Pi Beta Phi sold raffle tickets on a TV set. Proceeds were given to Arizona Brain Injured.

The husbands' and escorts' party completed another wonderful year for the Phoenix Alumnae Club.

MARGARET DUTTON HENSING

RENO

The first meeting of the Reno Alpha Alumnae Club for the 1958-59 Club year was held during August at the home of Jacquie Black at Lake Tahoe and was appropriately entitled "Luncheon at the Lake."

The September meeting was in the chapter house and featured slides, "Temples of the Orient," presented and narrated by Hilda Herz. Also, during September, the annual Rummage Sale was conducted.

The Cooky Shine in the chapter house was the program for October. During the dinner, a Convention report was given by Carolyn McGowan and Deanne Munk.

Homecoming highlighted the club's activities during October. The Homecoming Luncheon was held in the Pi Beta Phi House. This year's affair was made more enjoyable because the actives won trophies for both their float in the parade and their skit at the Wolf's Frolic.

A visit from the province vice president, Mrs. Jessie Hamilton, was the feature of the November meeting which was held at the home of Betty McVey.

The actives and pledges presented a program during the December meeting which was a Christmas Party at the chapter house.

A visit to Nevada ghost towns, a talk by Mrs. Ivan Sack, highlighted the January meeting at the home of Neal Howell.

Dwight Nelson, Washoe County Probation Officer, was the featured speaker at the February meeting which was held at the home of Rita Daniels. A bridge luncheon in the Sarah Hamilton Fleishman Building on the University of Nevada campus was also enjoyed during February.

The March meeting was highlighted by a display of the Settlement School work. Ruth Coleman, who recently visited the Settlement School, presented a talk entitled "Pi Phi Town" and also displayed a number of paintings that she made on her visit to Gatlinburg.

During April, Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at one of the local hotels.

The final meeting of the year was held during May at the home of Ethel Frost. This was a dinner meeting honoring seniors and past presidents. Installation of officers and initiation of graduating seniors was also held during this meeting.

RITA LAING DANIELS

SACRAMENTO

The swimming party, held in September, got the ball rolling for a very eventful year. Our second meeting was a Potluck dinner at the home of our province vice president, Pete Hamilton. The highlight of the evening was her report of Convention. Settlement School sale this year was a private sale, and proved to be very successful.

Christmas time brought our annual husbands and wives party, held in the home of one of our members, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Pete Hamilton, in her gracious way, presented our club with a doll and complete wardrobe she had made, to be raffled off. The earnings from the raffle more than bolstered our treasury. We have established a workshop at the Starr King School for the handicapped children, helping teachers and therapists in any way we possibly can. We also take the children on monthly field trips.

The thing of which we are most proud is our new "Baby." We adopted the Nevada A Chapter of Pi Beta Phi. We are helping them in any way we can, from things that are needed for the house, to any suggestions and encouragement we might have to offer. We are so proud of their success this year.

Our Founders' Day was held at Pete Hamilton's home with a model initiation presented by representatives from Nevada A Chapter, and a Cooky-Shine put on by our alumnae group.

Our year came to a close with the installation of new officers. We are all looking forward to next year and know it will be as rewarding as this year has been under the leadership of Marge Simpson.

MITZI JOHNSON DOWSE

SAN BERNARDINO VALLEY

Rushing procedures and recommendations engrossed our members when we met in August for a coffee clache at Elaine Hart Byrne's home in Riverside.

In September, our Tri-City Club composed of members from San Bernardino, Redlands, and Riverside, welcomed home Elva Hartford Hartley, our 1958 Convention delegate. Her interesting and informative report of Convention proceedings was supplemented with colored slides of the New Ocean House and the festivities within. At this meeting Victoria Gregory Mitchell resigned her post as president as she planned a year long trip to the South Seas. Evalyne Miller Frost was elected to succeed her.

Local meetings in our separate towns were well attended in October. San Bernardino, whose turn it was to sponsor our annual Settlement School Tea, made plans for the November event at a dinner meeting at Rita Yorke Thacker's ranch home.

To augment the treasury, Riverside indulged in a rollicking Dutch Auction with Mary Wadding acting as auctioneer. We enjoyed the beautiful colored slides of Gatlinburg and the Settlement School narrated by Mary Ellen Long.

In December Redlands staged a Christmas sales party with Pat Sheets Miller in charge netting more funds for the Settlement School.

Riverside Pi Beta Phis gathered for Christmas luncheon at the Victoria Club. At the Riverside Christmas luncheon the table decorations were sold and a local artist demonstrated unusual package wrapping.

In January, the University of California at Riverside's Dean of Women, Loda Mae Davis, spoke about the University and its growth.

In March each town was honored by a visit from our province vice president, Jessie Mcœur Hamilton. In April we planned a joint Founders' Day Luncheon.

Our Bridge Tournament and raffles have augmented the treasury.

JUDY MARBURY HERRING

SAN DIEGO

The San Diego Alumnae Club has had a very active year with the leadership of our gracious president, Riley Owens. At our September dinner meeting Marie Gaby showed slides of her trip to Europe and Adele Alford brought back news of Convention. The new pledge class of California E presented several clever skits at the October dessert meeting.

The Settlement School sale was held in November at the chapter house, and our regular meeting was held the same night in the new chapter room which was recently converted from a garage. The House Corporation refurbished the living room of the chapter house and the furniture formerly in the living room blends in nicely with the decor of the new chapter room.

The Christmas holidays were ushered in by members and their husbands at a buffet party in Coronado and a good time was had by all. A luncheon was also held during the holidays at the San Diego Yacht Club for out of town actives and pledges. January was a busy month with a dinner for the actives on Chapter Loyalty Day and a dessert meeting held later in the month at which time a local home economist gave a talk on food trends and served a delicious dessert which she had "invented."

Our February meeting was also a dinner meeting and a representative of the Goodwill Industries gave an interesting talk. Highlighting March, we were privileged to have a visit from Mrs. James M. Hamilton, province vice-president. Our Founders' Day Banquet in April was shared with the La Jolla Alumnae Club and the active chapter.

Plans are being made for a Harvest Fair Benefit to be held in October for Sharp Memorial Hospital's Maternity Wing. Dessert bridge parties, a rummage sale, plus a "pass the basket" money raising project were held to bring in funds to get the work parties under way in making items to sell at the fair. We are donating $300 to the active chapter to help with the summer rent. The 1958-59 year closed with our traditional luncheon in honor of the graduating seniors at San Diego State College.

VIRGINIA TOWNSEND RUBSAM

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

Over sixty five members have experienced a delightfully busy and successful year with Elizabeth Dickinson Warner as president. Our group holds nine general meetings a year, usually evening desserts, with summer gatherings of sack lunches and swimming. The September meeting honored past Convention delegates with an inspiring Swampscott report by Elizabeth Dickinson Warner. We boast a high attendance at all meetings, one reason being the well planned and interesting programs. Ours is a group of all ages who love to meet on the slightest provocation.

The biggest Ways and Means endeavor was the Rummage Sale held every spring. We find it quite profitable to bring the best rummage, especially children's clothes, to the meeting preceding the sale and holding an auction. Each year we assist the Crippled Children's Society by helping staff their summer camp, and addressing and stuffing envelopes for their Easter Seal Campaign. The big fall event was a Settlement School Tea held at Aileen Omer Long's home with all proceeds going to Settlement School. The U.C.L.A. recipient of The Bertha Miller Memorial Scholarship was announced at the Founders' Day Luncheon held at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles.

Our husbands and escorts joined us for two big social functions. During the summer Bill and Joanne Wilson Davis opened their home for an evening of dinner, swimming and dancing. In February we donned our finery for a gala evening at the Fifth Annual Golden Arrow Dance. A most rewarding year was culminated with a meeting and fashion show at the U.C.L.A. Chapter House.

VIRGINIA STANSBURY SWANSON

SAN FRANCISCO

In the Fall of 1958, as is the custom, the pledges were on hand for an introduction to the members of the alumnae clubs in the East Bay. As is the rule, the meeting was held at the chapter house at Berkeley, California.

Just before the Christmas Season, a benefit rummage sale was held, the results being most rewarding. Much hard work by each member was necessary, but "light is the task when many share the toil."

Next on the agenda, was a buffet supper; held in the beautiful home of one of our members; then followed a demonstration by a Power's model. This proved to be very popular with the junior members, especially. There was a Settlement School display, as well.

"Fashion in Leather," presented by a distinctive designer, and followed by luncheon at the Presidio in San Francisco, was a most delightful event. Friends of alumnae club members participated.

As always, Founders' Day luncheon was the climax for the year of the club; where members convened to reunite their efforts for greater progress. A time when the rich heritage of the Pi Beta Phi Organization is rehearsed and it's high aims, motives, and ambitions are reviewed. A time when the members gladly listen and respond; a time when they are inspired to see to it that "the vine flourish."

HELEN LERMAN

SAN JOSE

The San Jose Alumnae Club began this year with twenty one members under the presidency of Virginia Fisher Heck, Ohio A. To start the year off with enthusiasm we learned that for the ninth consecutive year we had won the award for the highest per capita magazine sales.

In November we again accepted the gracious offer of Virginia Blundell Kohler, Minnesota A, to use her home for our Settlement School sale. We held our sale in the afternoon and evening and were very successful. The Chairman Bethel Roberts, announced that we made $550. In addition to Settlement School articles the chapter sold Christmas wrapping paper the month before and during the sale. Helen Goddard Fisher, Ohio A, was in charge of paper sales and announced that we made $80.

The Christmas party was held at the home of Alice Malone Williams, Texas A, and was gay with Santa Claus paying a visit. Francis Chubb, Kansas A, was again our surprise Santa and the exchange of white elephant gifts caused much merriment.

In January, Louise Carter Cole, Indiana A and California A, a member of long standing, was awarded her Golden Arrow pin.

The chapter had discussed helping some charity so in February we saw a film on muscular dystrophy with this in mind. A Founders' Day program in April and an annual picnic supper with husbands invited, in June are meetings we anticipated with pleasure.

ALICE MALONE WILLIAMS

SAN MATEO COUNTY

Our San Mateo County Alumnae Club has had a very successful year under the able leadership of our president, Adrienne Hiscox Mitchell, also our delegate to 1958 Convention. At our first meeting, Adrienne gave an enthusiastic and interesting report on the Convention, truly an inspiration for the year that followed.

We have provided a scholarship fund to Pi Beta Phi from this area. We also presented the Children's Ward a High Chair and Baby-Tenda, as well as adding to the record collection for the Hi-Fi record player, we had previously bought.

In July, our alumnae club entertained the actives from San Mateo County. Since these girls came from eight cities and were members of seven chapters, they enjoyed meeting each other, as much as we enjoyed meeting them. We plan to make this an annual event. Three other annual meetings that we enjoyed this year were the Barbecue in September, the Christmas luncheon and our dinner dance in March. Our January meeting was a Cooky-Shine and Supper. In April we joined the Bay Area Council and California B in celebrating Founders' Day at a luncheon in Berkeley.

NITA VINSON PERRY

SANTA BARBARA

The Santa Barbara Alumnae Club opened a successful and enjoyable year with a Convention report from President Lucille Lawson Hall. In October we met with the active chapter for an outdoor dinner at the home of Mildred Welo. Joanne Hinkley spoke of her experiences at Arrow Craft Summer Workshop, and the active group and pledges entertained with songs and skits.

A cooky-shine honored the new Pi Beta Phis in our area, and during the holidays we exchanged gifts at our annual Christmas party at the home of Julia Forbes.

The Panhellenic benefit, featuring a movie, "Women's World," and a beautiful style show, opened to a completely full house at the largest Santa Barbara theatre. Viola Christiansen was responsible for sound and lighting for this event.

Our two fund raising projects for the year were unusually successful. The Settlement School sale, headed by Berenice Giannetta totalled $900, and Berenice is still working toward the thousand dollar mark.

The need to add to building funds for a chapter house on the new campus of University of California at Santa Barbara gave impetus to the workers at the annual rummage sale. Spurred by the enthusiasm of Ways and Means Chairman, Rosalind La Grandeur, the sale brought a net profit of $1000.

At the February meeting we were entertained by one of our alumnae group, Mary Steele, who showed slides and spoke of her extensive trip to the Near East.

VIRGINIA SCHMIDT

SANTA MONICA WESTWOOD

After installation of officers at the May meeting, Centennial envelopes were collected. Then each member told something about herself, her school, and her life in Sunny California.

In August the "come for food and fun" get together was held in a member's garden.

A morning coffee in September started the fall program. Mary Carlson, president, reported on her trip to Convention. During rushing at California A, the club helped as "KP" for the parties. October's evening meeting centered around Ethel Merritt's talk on interior decoration.

The Settlement School fund received all the proceeds of the November meeting. Members and guests gathered for dessert, canasta or bridge. Arrow Craft items were displayed and sold; and given as prizes several times during the afternoon.

The Christmas party is always looked forward to: this year was no exception. Virginia Scott, folk-singer, followed the gift exchange and Christmas carols.

Lynn Yuill, San Fernando Valley Alumnae Club member gave a delightful play reading at the January coffee. Graduating seniors at California A were honored in February. Also Elizabeth Johnson, Centennial Fund treasurer, showed her Alaska films.

The March money making project was well attended. Members and guests lunched and toured a local bakery. Spring found members working on decorations for Founders' Day, celebrated this year at the Statler Hotel, April 25.

Throughout the year members donated time and talent: as volunteer aides at U.C.L.A. Medical Center; addressing Easter Seal Campaign envelopes; taking flowers from individual gardens to California A chapter house for guest night.

Each member enjoyed the monthly letter from "Pete" Hamilton, province vice president, and looks forward to her visit next year.

For the second year, members have enjoyed meetings planned as morning coffees, evening desserts, or an occasional luncheon. With Mary Carlson continuing as President, next year can only be "Pi-Phi-Perfect."

ELIZABETH MANNING GAGE

SOLANO COUNTY

Our first affair of the year was a Founders' Day dinner at the Nut Tree Inn where we had the pleasure of greeting a new member, Mary Ann Lewman, Oregon B.

In May we joined with the others of the Panhellenic Club in a tea at Jean Pope's for prospective College girls and their Mothers.

Solano County Alumnae Club was proud and happy to have two Vallejo girls pledge Pi Beta Phi, Patricia O'Hara to California B and Kathleen Smith to California F, and further rejoiced when both girls stood high scholastically in their respective pledge classes at the close of the Fall Semester.

Our Arrow Craft Sale and Tea was a lovely and successful affair with sales about $125 not counting more during the year.

Our club takes an active part in the Panhellenic Club of Solano and Napa Counties and attended the annual Panhellenic luncheon in December at which two of our members were again elected to head the Committee on Rushing Information. December was also the month in which it was our great pleasure to meet our new province vice president, "Pete" Hamilton. This was our annual Christmas party to which the members bring gifts for underprivileged children.

A surprise birthday party was held for the club's senior member, Clara Stuart Ripsom, who celebrated her ninetieth birthday on February 11, 1959. Her two daughters, Mrs. Harry Sproule and Mrs. LeRoy Beach were also guests at the buffet supper. Later in the evening the guest of honor received many lovely gifts. Clara Ripsom is not only the oldest member of this club but holds the distinction of having been a Pi Beta Phi for over 71 years. She was initiated into Nebraska Beta I C at Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska in 1887. She takes part in all club affairs as well as those of the Panhellenic Club.

CLARA STUART RIPSOM

SOUTH BAY

On May 13, 1958, South Bay joined the National Family of Alumnae Clubs. Mrs. Evelyn Peters Kyle, Vice President of Pi Province, was there to advise on organization, methods, and requirements. On the charter are thirty two signatures, one was that of Anna Nichols Bosworth, member of the Order of the Golden Arrow. There are now fifty members representing thirty-one chapters from twenty two states and Canada.

South Bay boasts of a roster which is printed yearly. Thanks to Adair Appleton Lazell for a fine job.

September meeting was a Fashion Show; October, a report on active chapters in the area followed by bridge; November, a refreshing of our memories through Settlement School slides. At the December meeting, always an exciting one, members brought toys, clothing, and gifts for a needy family. A Cooky-Shine, Pi Beta Phi Sing, and exchange of gifts rounded out the evening.

January found us reacquainting ourselves with the History and Constitution of the Fraternity. American Field Service students made up the program in February and a financial donation was made to the Service. March we were privileged to have Mrs. James M. Hamilton, Pi Province Vice President with us. She gave the club a real lift!

Founders' Day in April was exceptionally interesting. Centinela Valley Alumnae Club was invited to celebrate with us. Helen Ozias Fairchild was honored as a Golden Arrow member and presented with the gold leaf recognition pin of a fifty year Pi Beta Phi. South Bay now boasts of two such members.

In the fall the husbands were guests at a moonlight dinner dance at the Terminal Island Officers' Club. In the spring they were guests at a Beatnick Ball.

The June meeting at Dodie Busby Matteson's will long be remembered. The program was "Dress as You Were in College." Imagine a matron size 18 trying to get into a college size 12!

THYRA CORDELL FINNEY

SOUTH COAST

The South Coast Alumnae Club started the year with a second annual "Summer Splash" held at the Balboa bayfront home of our President, Margaret Johnson Corkett. It was a real "fun" party with swimming and yachting, topped by a wonderful buffet luncheon.

AMERICAN AIRLINES

America's Leading Airline

In September we met with Bettie Hogue Cutler in Laguna Beach and our Assemblyman, Bruce Sumner, gave us the pros and cons of the propositions on our November ballot.

October found us gathered at Judy Ware Kern's home where our program was an interesting talk on "Mosiacs."

Nancy Black Turner entertained the group in November and our own member, Helen Huff Parks gave us tips on packing for a trip around the world.

Our Christmas party for husbands was again held at the beautifully decorated home of Marie Briggs Timmons and was greatly enjoyed by a large group.

Mae Reed Porter not only opened her home for our January meeting, but also provided the program, showing many of her wonderful Indian possessions.

In February Vera Holcomb Silver entertained us and a program on "Interior Decoration" was very informative and enjoyable.

In March we had the privilege of entertaining our province vice president, Jessie Moer Hamilton at a buffet luncheon at the home of Lucinda Griffith Burrows.

We have again been fortunate this year in presenting Mary Greer Scarborough, Texas A., in a series of Book Reviews at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club. The proceeds from these reviews are donated to Orange County philanthropies, Settlement School articles have been displayed and sold at each review and meeting.

The final event of our year was the Founders' Day luncheon held at the Irvine Country Club.

JUNE GRANTLEY CONLEY

STOCKTON

The activities we have had in our club this year have been delightful to recall as we make this report.

A wonderful group of Pi Beta Phi met at the home of President Mrs. Marion Howell to celebrate Founders' Day with Sunday Brunch. We also gathered for two festive parties including our husbands. One of these was a Christmas Party and the other was to honor and say farewell to former President Mrs. Jeri Byard as she was leaving Stockton. She was one of those instrumental in organizing our club.

One of the real highlights this year was meeting with Jessie Moer "Pete" Hamilton. We love knowing her. Our fall luncheon was held at the local Country Club, where we formulated a program for this year's activities.

We were especially proud of the spectacular job done by Mrs. Phyllis Baltzer and Mrs. Joan Deihl on our Settlement School Tea. It was held in a setting of Old Oak trees and a cool little brook in the garden of Mrs. Marguerette Nowell. With this setting the articles sold like "Hot Cakes" and we were proud to announce that our "young" club sold over $1,000 in goods. As our part of Chapter Loyalty, we sent a gift of wine and blue bedding to the Nevada Chapter.

We have joined with the local Panhellenic to sponsor a Spring Tea for local high school girls and mothers, to acquaint them with National College Sororities. Our own Mrs. Onyet Geer has been President of this group and has much to do with it's success.

TUCSON

The Tucson Alumnae has had a busy and interesting year under the leadership of our president, Sayre Webster Lawrence. Several new ideas have been introduced, which have proved very successful.

Each meeting has been different. We have had two morning meetings, rather than having all night ones, and so have seen many Pi Beta Phi unable to attend at night. We had our annual pledge supper, a joint meeting with the Phoenix Alumnae, and a Christmas meeting where each member brought an unusual idea or decoration. Then we had a pantry coffee, exchanging favorite recipes; an old fashioned cookie-shine, a garden box lunch, and in May, we had our senior supper. In April we celebrated Founders' Day with a lunch with the active chapter.

Sayre Lawrence has been sending out newsletters, instead of telephoning or sending postcards. These letters tell of the month's events, news of members, and announces the coming meeting.

Our bridge marathon has proved to be our most successful and most companionable idea of all. There are eighteen couples playing; each couple playing the other seventeen during the year. Each player pays seventy five cents at the game. High winners of each group are given cash prizes at the meeting and a grand winner and a "boobie" winner will be given larger awards in May. This marathon has been wonderful in raising money, in sheer fun, and in further acquainting members.

CAROLINE THOMPSON MILLS

VALLEY OF THE MOON

The Valley of the Moon Alumnae Club holds eight meetings a year, all of them dessert meetings at 1:30 P.M. except for our Founders' Day celebration. We have no particular money making schemes but we are proud of our participation in all national projects. We have only three inactive members in the area and had 100% paid membership by November. Also we were 100% in our Centennial Fund contributions at that time. We have held second place in Pi Province in magazine subscriptions per capita for a number of years.

We were very fortunate in having an early in the year visit from our new province vice president, Jessie Moeur Hamilton. Her energy and enthusiasm imbued us all with renewed Pi Beta Phi spirit.

Our four required meetings were ably handled, bringing us all up to date on our fraternity. Genevieve Williamson had an excellent display of Arrow Craft products at the Settlement School meeting. Jane Olson, presented, most interestingly, material on active chapter interest which she had compiled from information sent out by the Central Office.

We had two excellent travelogues accompanied by beautiful colored slides when Lucile Kelly and Katherine Andrews reviewed parts of their European trips.

March brought our election and the annual committee reports. Last year, as our Founders' Day celebration, this club held its first traditional cooky-shine. It was so successful it is to be an annual affair. So, in April, we again commemorated our founding with a delightful cooky-shine in true Pi Beta Phi fashion.

With deep appreciation for the outstanding leadership of Ruth Mitchell Deeds, our president, and gratitude to our other officers we closed a happy and successful year in May with an impressive installation of new officers.

SHIRLEY STORM DICKINSON

WHITTIER

The year's activities of the Whittier Alumnae Club began in September with a swimming party, dinner, and bridge at the home of Isabelle Loomis.

Our club's first Settlement School tea was held in October at the home of Jean Jennings.

In December our husbands joined us for a Christmas open house at the home of our president Betty Lou Foley.

Our January meeting was one of our most interesting. Our guest speaker spoke on interior decoration.

In March we had a luncheon at the country club for our province vice president, Mrs. Jessie Hamilton.

JANET WAGNER

YUBA SUTTER COLUSA

We have enjoyed our association with Evelyn Kyle, as our province vice president, so much. We wish to thank her for all her kindnesses and words of encouragement to our small group. Now we wish to welcome "Pete" Hamilton, as our new P.V.P. and tell her how much we enjoyed our visit with her. We will have to think up a lot of internal problems so that she will come to visit us often.

Our alumnae group started almost seven years ago, and we have twelve members. In smaller communities, such as ours, we are all called upon from all community organizations to give lots and lots of our time on many many occasions. So it is a wonderful meeting when we are able to get together as II Φs for just a good social luncheon and enjoy each others company. We do carry on our national obligations as donating to Holt House Fund, Emma Harper Turner Fund, Centennial Fund, purchase Settlement School products, magazine subscriptions, and recommend local girls to colleges as future II Φs. But this is the one group that we all enjoy because there isn't the pressure of "do this"—"do that." Do you think it could be that we enjoy it so much, because we are all II Φs from here and there and bound by the wine and silver blue?
