

THE ARROW

OF PI BETA PHI

SUMMER 1960

The question is heard, "What is the best fraternity?" Some persons have even worked out schemes whereby they have published lists of the standing of fraternities: first, second, third, etc.

My position would be that no one knows the best or second best. There are simply too many persons, known and unknown factors involved to pinpoint the fifth or eighth in standing.

Various fraternities emphasize as most important different things. Again fraternities can be strong in one geographical location and weak in another. Some chapters are consistently outstanding or weak and some chapters go up and down.

Are age, size, numbers, financial assets, scholarship, athletes, publications, alumni association the criteria?

A sober second thought brings me to the conviction that as much as we want to excel in outward attainments, something else calls for our evaluation.

The real measurement of a fraternity is: Is it a fraternity?

Old or young in years, do its members behave as a brotherly corporate body? Large or small in numbers, do the wearers of its badge have cohesiveness and dedication? Are its scholars or C students cultivated gentlemen? Are its athletes well-rounded men? Do its publications print something worth printing? Are its alumni still loyal to group effort that is mutually beneficial?

The only thing that ever beat a bad idea is a good idea. The test we must apply to ourselves is, "Do we really know who we are?" Are purposes and aims high? Is our operation sound? Do we build better persons? Do our ideals motivate men? Are we willing to be known by our products? Are the members of our Fraternity the finest, highest-minded, most dedicated and most useful persons we know?

The best fraternity is best because it has the best record of persons of the best character. The fraternity should build this in its members. The fraternity man shall give this testament in the name of his fraternity.

The Grand Vice President Looks at the Alumnæ

"After college days are o'er" Pi Beta Phi alumnæ often put away their regulation arrows to be worn for special occasions only. However, all over the world the small recognition arrow is displayed with pride as a symbol of our chain of friendship and service.

IN THIS, PI BETA PHI'S 93RD YEAR, THE RECOGNITION ARROW POINTS WITH PRIDE TO THESE ALUMNÆ ACHIEVEMENTS: more than 65,000 initiated members in good standing, 294 chartered clubs and 42 area or Junior groups. This year more than 13,000 members paid national alumnæ dues of $2.50 each through these chartered groups—$1.00 of each $2.50 goes to the alumnæ convention fund which provides equal assistance to every club for a Convention delegate; $1.50 is allotted for alumnæ expenses of Central Office, travel, and administrative expenses of both elective and appointive province and national officers who volunteer their time and services. Pi Beta Phi has no paid traveling secretaries. Note on your directory pages that counting state rush chairmen more than 150 persons actively serve our national organization. Add to that figure more than 525 advisory committee members for our 104 active chapters and at least 500 more who serve on 70 house corporation boards.

LAST YEAR PI BETA PHI ALUMNÆ GAVE OF THEIR MONEY AS WELL AS TIME! More than $11,000 was given to Pi Beta Phi Settlement School which is unique in that it was the first national philanthropy of any NPC group and that it is supported solely by Pi Beta Phis. Added assistance to this educational, health, and craft center in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, of $8,823.44 was given through support of Pi Beta Phi MAGAZINE AGENCY. Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Clubs sold $99,360.50 in ARROWCRAFT goods. These sales provide the mountain people with a thriving industry as well as keeping alive the beautiful handicraft arts handed down from pioneer times.

Pi Beta Phi alumnæ donated more than $2,000 to HOLT HOUSE, the lovely and useful community center in Monmouth, Illinois, where our Founders held their first meeting and planned so wisely for the first national fraternity for women.

Nearly $2,500 was given to the EMMA HARPER TURNER FUND named in honor of our first national alumnæ president. This fund provides housing assistance for active chapters and the interest fund is used for friendship gifts to alumnæ members.

Alumnæ club gifts to ACTIVE CHAPTERS totaled $17,301.15 and an additional $1,048.85 was donated to SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS. Another $500 was sent by clubs everywhere for a CONVENTION HOSPITALITY FUND to assist the province hostesses.

PI BETA PHIS SERVED THEIR COMMUNITIES WELL, TOO, volunteering more than a million hours of CIVIC SERVICE and $17,537 for LOCAL CIVIC PROJECTS. As you read club letters in this issue you will be reminded too that Pi Beta Phis have fun and fellowship with all their good works and you can take pride in being an alumna wearer of our arrow!

Individual Pi Beta Phi alumnæ have donated more than $30,000 toward our CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION in 1967. Our goal is a MILLION DOLLARS for some great philanthropy. I believe we can make that goal and that our future may be as proud as our past and present. Every member everywhere will be needed for new achievements. If you are not at present a member of a club find one and join today or start a club; it takes just 10 members for a charter! If you are truly an isolated Pi Beta Phi you can be a part of our CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION by contributing now and every year!

DOROTHY WEAVER MORGAN
Grand Vice President

Call to Convention . . .

On June 19, 1960, Pi Beta Phis from the United States and Canada will gather at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Arkansas, for the fraternity's forty-second biennial convention. Every Pi Phi who has ever attended Convention agrees that there is no experience in life that quite compares with a Pi Beta Phi Convention. For Convention has as many facets as the famed Arkansas diamonds. It is a time of fun and hard work; of late nights and early rising; of inspiration and song; of reunion with old friends and the opportunity to make new ones. Above all it is a time of carefully considered action, by Pi Beta Phis, to assure the continued strength and development of their fraternity. And pervading every meeting and event there is the satisfying sense of devotion to those fundamental objects and ideals which have met every test for some ninety odd years. All these things are waiting for you—to be shared with hundreds of others who feel as you do about the golden Arrow of Pi Beta Phi.

It is our hope that you will come and help make this the best Convention ever.

WE PRESENT . . .

The Convention Initiate

Katherine North DornBlaser of North Little Rock, Arkansas, has been selected as the 1960 Pi Beta Phi Convention initiate. Her name is a familiar one to Pi Phis for she is the wife of John DornBlaser, the Fraternity Accountant.

Katherine's career as a wife and mother, a professional woman and civic worker, embody qualities Pi Beta Phi seeks and hopes for in each of its members.

A native of Chicago, Illinois, she moved to Arkadelphia, Arkansas, at the age of four. After graduation from high school there, she attended Ouachita Baptist College in Arkadelphia for three years before entering Southwestern University's school of music in Memphis, Tennessee, for a year's study in voice. Her college major was piano with minors in voice and English.

It was in Memphis in August 1938 that Katherine North and John DornBlaser were married. They lived in Arkadelphia for two years and during this time she completed her college work at Ouachita College graduating cum laude in 1939.

Katherine is the mother of two children, 18-year-old John Stuart and Carolyn North, 15. John Stuart is a pre-engineering freshman at Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, and was a 1959 National Merit Scholarship winner. Carolyn is a sophomore in North Little Rock High. Both children have been active in band and orchestra and other student activities. John was voted the outstanding freshman at Hendrix this year.

For the past six years Katherine has taught second grade at Park Hill Elementary school in North Little Rock. She is a member of the Presbyterian Church and for many years has given freely of her musical talent as a member of church choirs and directing youth and children's choirs. She also taught Sunday School and directed church youth activities for many years before her own children demanded more of her time.

Her hobbies center on sports. She mastered tennis to the point of tourney participation as a high school student. Last summer she taught a girls' tennis class at North Hills Country Club. She also enjoys swimming, golfing and bowling, but confesses ruefully that her golf score often exceeds her bowling score to an embarrassing degree.

Perhaps Katherine's favorite pastime though is that spent in trips with her family. The DornBlasers travel together whenever the opportunity presents itself and they have enjoyed a number of interesting trips to various points of the country.

Katherine has been actively interested in a children's home, Caddo Valley Academy at Norman, Arkansas. The history and background of this school are strikingly similar to the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School although it is strictly a Presbyterian missionary effort.

Chairman of Mother-Daughter Luncheon

Janet Rachel Isbell was initiated into Missouri Alpha in the spring of 1953. She served as Recording Secretary while in the chapter and was a member of Mortar Board and Sigma Alpha Iota. After graduating from the University of Missouri, she attended Southern Methodist University where she did graduate work. At present she is the Director of Christian Education at the Missouri Methodist Church in Columbia, Missouri.

Chairman of Canadian Breakfast

Jeannette Simpson Roberts is a 1944 initiate of Arkansas Alpha. She served as president of the Baton Rouge Alumnae Club for two years and served on the AAC of Louisiana Beta for three years. She attended the 1958 Convention at Swampscott. She is married to Richard A. Roberts. They are the parents of two sons. Jeannette was recently named editor of the magazine of the Junior League of Baton Rouge, Inc. and served on the League's Board.

Chairman of Formal Banquet

Marie Hopson Scott (Mrs. L. E.), Virginia Alpha, graduated from Randolph-Macon in 1926. She is the mother of three Pi Phi daughters, all of whom were members of Virginia Alpha. She has been an outstanding worker in Little Rock civic and church activities. She served on the Little Rock Girl Scout Executive Board and took an active part in P-TA work. She and her husband are finding more time to enjoy their six grandchildren since his recent retirement.

Convention Hostess

Mary Elizabeth Brigance Thorn (Mrs. G. M.) is a 1947 initiate of Arkansas Alpha. She received the Outstanding Pledge Trophy and went on to serve the chapter as Pledge Supervisor and House Manager. As a student at the University of Arkansas, Liz served as a Sophomore Counselor, Secretary of Y.W.C.A., and Treasurer of A.W.S. She graduated in 1950 with a B.S.S.W. degree. As a member of the Little Rock Alumnae Club, she has been vice-president and is currently serving as president. She married Max Thorn, M.D., who specializes in pediatrics, and they have two children—Liza and Gary.

MORE ABOUT CONVENTION CITY

Many regional, national, and international Associations—including Pi Beta Phi—have chosen Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas, for their convention headquarters this year. The dates selected for Pi Beta Phi's 42nd Biennial Convention are June 19 through 25. The sumptuous and colorful Arlington and Majestic Hotels will be the sites for convention activities.

Hot Springs is the only Spa recreation center in the United States where the natural hot waters, which flow from the earth, are owned, controlled, and administered by the U. S. Government. Forty-seven in number, these natural springs are located in a picturesque pine-forested area of the romantic Ouachita Mountains.

The story of the beneficial powers of the steaming hot waters has been handed down through the centuries by the Indians. These thermal waters are believed to have been the basis for the Indian legend of the "Fountain of Youth," for which Ponce de Leon vainly searched for years.

As a vacation wonderland, encircled by a 100-mile chain of lakes, Hot Springs is of popular appeal throughout the year, offering numerous and varied attractions. Life in the open offers almost every form of diversion which can be found in the mountains and near the water.

Hot Springs is on U.S. Highways 70, 270, State 7 and 88, and is served by the Missouri Pacific Railroad; Delta, Central, and Trans-Texas Air Lines.

Terrace Room, Majestic Hotel. To be used for some special events.

→ WE HOPE the weather in Hot Springs in June will sparkle like the Convention's Diadem of Diamonds. It is capable of it. The temperature during late June usually ranges from the mid-seventies to the mid-eighties—though it can be warmer or cooler depending on the whim of the elements.

Your cottons, linens, silks or any of the other interesting new summer fabrics will be the most comfortable. A sweater or two and a light jacket should be all the wrap needed. Hot Springs is an informal resort town and shorts and bathing suits will be needed for your recreational hours at swimming pools or the lakes.

For those of you who are early risers and light eaters the Arlington will have a Quick Service Breakfast Area serving juice, sweet rolls and coffee.

The time is nearing, so if you haven't sent your registration blank to Maxine Smith—DO IT TODAY. Not only will it help her a great deal, it will help you too. If you are coming by train or plane you will also want to send in the transportation blank to Barbara Britt. Both these blanks are in this issue of your ARROW.

Please don't forget that everyone, except Active Delegates, who wear blue, is asked to wear a white dress to the opening session of the Convention. This proved a most effective plan in 1958 and is being repeated.

To keep every Convention day a sparkling experience your Convention Committee is working on plans to have surprise gifts presented at various times. Don't disappoint us. Come to Arkansas and Convention—to laugh, to work, to play—for a wonderful Pi Phi week.

Come To Convention!

*You will find a warm
and stimulating experience!*

EVALYN PROUTY HICKMAN AND THE SETTLEMENT SCHOOL MAP

Pi Beta Phi is greatly indebted to Evalyn Prouty Hickman, Colorado Alpha, for her special service to the Fraternity in the form of a new map of The Settlement School. To keep pace with the expansion and the changes in our project in Gatlinburg, Evalyn is giving us her third drawing of a pictorial map. The first map was made in 1943 and it and the one following have been available in place mat form, and they are popular with both chapters and clubs for use at Pi Phi functions.

Evalyn comes from a Pi Phi family. Her grandmother, Evalyn Barney Snell, Colorado Alpha, was initiated in 1886; her mother, Lolita Snell Prouty, Colorado Alpha, is a former Grand Treasurer and a former member of the Settlement School Committee; and Evalyn is one of three Pi Phi sisters, all from Colorado Alpha. These three sisters and their mother have attended, together, many Pi Phi Conventions and Evalyn has not missed one since her initiation in 1937. She was the Amy Burnham Onken nominee from her chapter in 1938; she is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota (music); Delta Phi Delta (art); Kappa Delta Pi (education). She received the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts from the University of Colorado in 1940, and at the present time is working for a Master's Degree in Education from Colorado State College. She was active in the establishment of Colorado Gamma and she has served on that chapter's House Corporation and on its Advisory Committee. At present she is the Alumnae Advisory Committee Member for Rushing and Panhellenic.

Her teaching career covers a year in the schools of Berkeley, California, where she taught Art and Music, and a period in the Art Department of Fort Collins, Colorado, schools. After a year of work in the Library of Colorado State College she became an instructor in the Art Department of Colorado State University, a position which she holds at the present time. Besides her work in the University she is conducting a class in New Art Crafts for elementary school teachers of Fort Collins, Colorado.

She has three children, Tia, a junior in High School; Evalyn, first year in Junior High; and Johnny, ten years old.

Pi Phi Personalities

Golden Arrow Member Honored

The Gertrude S. Brooks Department of Physical Therapy in the $601,862 Rehabilitation Center of Syracuse University Hospital represents the signal honor accorded a New York Alpha Pi Beta Phi for her years of devoted service to her university and community.

Gertrude Skerritt Brooks (Mrs. John W.), a 1913 graduate of Syracuse University, had an active part in the new Center's planning and construction as a member of the SU Board of Trustees and chairman of the Board's University Hospital Committee.

The new facility is providing central New York with its first comprehensive rehabilitation program for the community at large. The dedication of its third floor department to Mrs. Brooks is a fitting tribute in light of her civic service.

In Syracuse she has served the Council of Social Agencies, Child Guidance Clinic, Cerebral Palsy Clinic, Crime Prevention Committee, Council on the Aging, Legal Aid Society, and Citizens Committee on Health and Hospital Survey. She was vice chairman of the Onondaga County Republican Committee 12 years and served two five year terms on the New York State Board of Welfare.

In 1954 she was awarded the university's Arents Medal for "excellence in political and social betterment."

Pi Phis everywhere will find special meaning in a portion of Mrs. Brooks' remarks as she presided at the Rehabilitation Center's dedication May 30, 1959. She said:

"Paul told the early Christians that their business was good business. He wrote them: 'Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things.'"

"Our community will 'think on these things' as our university reaches out to help a neighbor and rehabilitate a life back to usefulness."

Staff Member Carla Williams, Wisconsin B, People-to-People Program Aid for Consumer Relations

Carla Williams was attracted to her staff position with the People-to-People Program, quite naturally. Having an instinctive interest in people she brought to her present position experience in personnel, social welfare work, recreational work and a variety of civic and political activities. Considering Mrs. Williams' youth she has crowded many fascinating experiences into her varied career.

Born in the heart of the Scandinavian settlement of the Middle-West, Carla Williams attended 2 colleges in Wisconsin and then, following her graduation, obtained the first position of her many faceted career. Working first in personnel for the Western Electric Co., she soon moved into the social welfare field with the Chicago Red Cross Chapter Headquarters. At the end of the war, having impatiently reached the age requirement, Mrs. Williams then travelled to the Philippines, Okinawa and Japan with the Overseas' Red Cross Forces. It was here that she realized her deep interest in meeting and getting to know other peoples of the world on a people-to-people basis. Carla says that she will never be without a ride, for while in the Far East she developed the hitchhiking technique to a point of perfection. Hiking, bicycling and motoring took her to remote villages throughout Japan and instilled in her a deep appreciation and loyalty for the Japanese people.

Upon her return from Japan, Mrs. Williams turned from career activities to the raising of a family. However, she did not completely "retire" as she did extensive work with civic and charity organizations and at the same time represented, as President, a state-wide legislative organization, working toward improved juvenile detention and mental health facilities. In 1956, her intense interest in politics returned her to the work-a-day-world and a public relations job with one of the major political parties. This experience led to a later position on Capitol Hill where Mrs. Williams worked briefly for a U.S. Congressman.

Today, though married to a Washington lawyer and the mother of two small children, Carla Williams devotes her hours away from the home to directing activities of the Speakers Committee of President Eisenhower's People-to-People Program. It is Mrs. Williams' responsibility to place the American speaker before foreign audiences and in turn to provide appropriate speaking platforms for visitors from abroad. At the same time, Mrs. Williams is vitally interested in seeing increased hospitality facilities throughout the United States, and an eventual program similar to Sweden's highly successful "Sweden at Home" Program. Therefore, Mrs. Williams is returning the recent visit of Baroness Stiernstedt to the United States, for the purpose of learning more about the operation of a Program like "Sweden at Home" ("Meet the Danes," "Know the Norwegians"). As a result of numerous speeches before various hospitality groups in the United States, Baroness Stiernstedt aroused such enthusiasm and interest in the creating of such a program in Washington, D.C., that many interested parties have offered their support to an eventual People-to-People Hospitality Center or a Program which might eventually be called "America-at-Home." Mrs. Williams will return to Washington with a better knowledge of how to initiate such a program and at the same time will come to know the Swedish people and their warm hospitality as exemplified by both the People-to-People Program and "Sweden at Home."

"I was born in Independence, Missouri, on September 18, 1920. I attended public schools in Missouri and Nebraska, graduating from Springfield, Missouri, High School in 1937. One year was spent at St. Mary's Hall, Faribault, Minnesota, and B.A. was obtained from Randolph-Macon Women's College, Lynchburg, Virginia, in 1941, with honors in history. While at Randolph-Macon, I was a member of Virginia Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi, serving one year as secretary-treasurer. In 1943, I joined the WAVES, and subsequently served as an Ensign and Lt. (jg) of the Supply Corps with duty in Norfolk and Hawaii.

"After the war, while working in the VA Hospital in Springfield, Missouri, I obtained my commercial pilot's license at a local flying school. In 1948, my commission was transferred to the Air Force, and after recall to active duty in 1949, I received a regular commission. My tours of duty with the Air Force have included Eglin AFB, Florida, Walker AFB, New Mexico, Bicester Oxon., England under the RAF-USAFE Exchange Program, and Biggs AFB, Texas. A Master's Degree in Business Administration was awarded me in 1958 by Indiana University after a year's residence there under the USAF Institute of Technology program, resulting in election to membership in Indiana Alpha chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma.

"My current duty is as Staff Supply Officer, 7272nd ABW (USAFE Weapons Center), Wheelus AB, Libya. My father is a retired Episcopalian minister now living in Springfield, Missouri, and married to Mrs. Dorothy Cribbs. One sister, Mrs. Ann Gray, is Fabric Editor of Town and Country Magazine; another, Mrs. Mary Cowell, is a lawyer in New York and past president of the New York Women's Bar Association; a brother, Siert, is President of the National Association of Margarine Manufacturers, Washington, D.C."

daughter of Mrs. Fortner, and presently a newly initiated member of Colorado Beta. These women were all present for the initiation of Laurae into Pi Beta Phi on January 31, 1960.

Patricia S. Sinclair, 1st Lt., USAF, Washington A

In her own words: "I attended junior and senior high school in Seattle. In 1945 I graduated from Lincoln High School and commenced college at the University of Washington in Seattle. I pledged Pi Beta Phi, Washington Alpha Chapter. During the second year of college my family was transferred to Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska. I was a pre-medical student. I eventually transferred my major subject to dietetics and was graduated in 1949 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics. I was also selected for a dietetic internship for the following year, but later withdrew my application. Immediately following my graduation I joined my family at Elmendorf Air Force Base. Since I did not know at that time that I could have applied again for an internship, I remained with my family in Alaska for the next three years and worked in the accounting section of the base finance office.

"In 1952 my step-father, a colonel in the Air Force, was transferred to Washington, D.C. where we lived for three years. Also in 1952 I applied for, and in 1953 received, a direct commission in the Air Force. However, in 1953 the WAF program was discontinued and I was advised that it would never be reinstated. I next decided to return to college to take my internship which would qualify me as a dietitian. However, my mother underwent a long and serious illness so I remained in Washington with my family until 1955. During this time I worked in the Directorate of Budget, DCS/Comptroller, Headquarters USAF, as a budget assistant.

"In 1955 I was finally able to return to college and in 1956 I completed my internship in dietetics at Mills College, Oakland, California. Coincident with this, the Air Force did reinstate the WAF program and I received a directive to report for active duty. So, on the very day in June 1956 that I completed my internship I left to attend the Officer Basic Military Course at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

"From Lackland I was, and still am, assigned to the Extension Course Institute, Gunter Air Force Base, Alabama. My first job was with the Education Liaison Division and my primary duty was visiting the Base Education Officers of various Air Force bases, briefing them on ECI (the only Air Force correspondence school) and assisting with any problems with the ECI program.

"After nine months, I was given additional duty as Adjutant on a temporary basis and until a replacement for the former Adjutant could be obtained. However, this developed into a permanent position and I have been Adjutant and Director of Administration Services since 1957.

"As an additional duty, and since I am the only WAF officer assigned to Gunter Air Force Base, I am also WAF Advisor for the base. I also served for 15 months on the Board of Governors of the Gunter Air Force Base Officers' Open Mess.

"Currently I am attending Squadron Officers School at the Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. This is one of the three Air Force profession schools.

"I plan on remaining in the Air Force and hope someday to be assigned to some kind of food service work thereby combining the Air Force and dietetics."

A Pi Phi Personality—Vintage 1864

Is This the Oldest Living Pi Phi?

→ NOW AND THEN along life's highway one comes to know an unforgettable person, memories of whom no other experiences will ever efface. Lillian Thompson Rogers, one of our grand ladies of Pi Beta Phi, is such a rare personality. Mrs. Rogers is in her ninety-sixth year, ninety-six years of growing in "wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and man." Judging from contacts with various Pi Phi groups I believe she is the oldest living member of our sorority in the entire United States.

Her seven great-grandchildren adore her and call her "Lili." Almost apologetically she confided, "I taught them to call me Lili as their little mouths could not manage the respectful title of Great-grandmother Rogers." As she draws one or the other close, one senses how pridefully she dotes on being their beloved Lili.

Those privileged to be Mrs. Rogers' friends realize that knowing her is an unrivaled experience. She has ever joined hand and skill, heart and mind in humble dedicated devotion to her beloved family and friends, and in diligent unselfish service in community interests.

When chatting with her, the thought ever persists that her colorful and eventful life attests those rare, indefinable qualities which characterize and set apart stars in Pi Phi's brilliant constellation of greats.

It is, indeed, a far cry from New York, where in 1864 Lillian first looked out upon this world of mysteries, to California where in 1905 she and her husband established their home. Apparently, only the broad expanse of the great Pacific precluded further landward wanderings on the westward-ho trail. Wings of courage and hope, of inspiration and faith lured the family across the miles of our great United States.

The family early removed from New York to a farm near Springdale, Iowa, where Lillian first attended a small rural school and later the high school which was staffed with excellent teachers from the State University. Lillian was intensely interested in her studies and there was ample opportunity for practicing multiplication tables, or conjugating Latin verbs as she and her brothers and sisters trudged the two and a half miles to and from school each day. "You know," she reminisces, "Springdale was a little Quaker village. It was on the map then because it was a refuge for run-a-way slaves from the South and because John Brown lived there and trained his men there the winter before he went to Harper's Ferry. Springdale was only four miles from West Branch, which has since become famous as the birth-place of our great ex-president Herbert Hoover." Her granddaughter proudly interposed, "Grandmother probably will not tell you, but she was valedictorian of her class."

Lillian earned her college training by teaching, first in a country school and later in high school as a teacher of English. In 1890 she was graduated from the University of Iowa with the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. There she was a member of I.C. Sorosis, which during her student days became the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Facetiously I inquired, "Do you by chance recall the meaning of the letters I.C.?" Her eyes twinkled mischievously as she shot back, "Ah! Ah! That I do! And that secret is still locked deep in my heart!"

While at the University, Lillian Johnson and Julia Ellen Rogers, also a Pi Phi, became fast friends, a friendship which lasted all the years of their lives. There Lillian met Julia's brother, Francis Llewellyn Rogers, a medical student. They were married in 1896. Dr. Rogers began his practice in Iowa where they continued to live for some years. In 1905 they moved to Long Beach, California. Dr. Rogers was the city's first Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist and for thirty nine years carried on his practice there. They had three children, Marion, the wife of Dr. A. W. Warnock of San Pedro, California; Frances Lillian Rogers, now retired from teaching and librarianship in the Fresno, California schools; and Gordon Farrand Rogers, Consulting Engineering of Berkeley, California.

From her youthful days Mrs. Rogers' activities have been many and distinguished. Irrepressible enthusiasm, genuine curiosity and a keen sense of humor accented her contributions to the various civic, cultural, philanthropic and social activities she initiated, sponsored or conducted.

In 1915 Mrs. Rogers was President of the Long Beach Ebell Club. For many years she participated in the club's far-reaching activities. Under her chairmanship of various departments interesting projects were launched. There was the first Christmas Seal Sale in Long Beach; there was the trimming of the first outdoor Christmas tree, as she put it, "One of the magnificent evergreens in Library Park." For a number of years she also belonged to the Los Angeles Friday Morning Club, an organization which especially delighted her with the excellence of its programs.

Over the years she taught Sunday School in the First Congregational Church, was Chairman of her Circle of the Women's Association. She founded the Browning Society, which became one of the outstanding cultural activities in her church. Dr. Bertha Dickinson, Professor of English at the University of Southern California was long its inspiring leader.

Mrs. Rogers belonged to the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Group of Los Angeles for many years. As she reminisced it was evident how she reveled in sharing the group's activities and in having, as she put it, "my turn at entertaining them." How proudly she sported our beautiful, meaningful, golden arrow! Her interest in young people has never abated. The Rogers' home was ever a haven for people of all ages and needs. Over the years homeless boys lived with the family while attending school. Later some of these boys went on to college.

Mrs. Rogers still retains membership in some of the organizations which flourished so effectively under her brilliant leadership. Recently the San Pedro Branch of the A.A.U.W. paid her high tribute in naming an International Study Grant in her honor. It seems incredible that for a period of four years, after she had reached her eightieth birthday, she conducted a Book Study Section for her A.A.U.W. Branch. She was an avid traveler, one of those rare individuals who "wandered as she wandered" through lands far and near; her beloved U.S.A., Alaska included; our interesting neighbors Mexico and Canada; and almost all of the countries of Europe claimed her interest as she visited them. She knew much of the art of Europe and sought it out as she visited there. Sensitive insight and boundless curiosity about personalities, places and experiences gave meaning to her travels and imbued her with deep humanistic ideals. Her eyes lighted in remembrance as she ventured, "It was thus I got better acquainted with our great 'Family of Man'."

Because of Dr. Rogers' ill health, he and Mrs. Rogers came to San Pedro in 1944 to make their home with their daughter, Marion Warnock and her family. Dr. Rogers died in 1948. On evenings in the midst of those near and dear to her, Mrs. Rogers relives her precious memories or takes delight in viewing from the hillside Warnock home the magical curving coast line strung with twinkling, brilliant jewels—the lights of coastal cities from San Pedro to Long Beach, and on and on to those barely discernible even on a crystal-clear night.

On one such magical night, Mrs. Rogers in pensive mood, voiced her meditations: "You know, my Dr. Francis and I saw Long Beach grow from a little tourist town of 8000 to the great city it is today of some 300,000. And do you realize that in the span of my lifetime more inventions for the good or ill of mankind have been developed than in all the eons of history before?"

Guided by sensitive perception, fortified by deep spiritual force, she faced the adversities of life and challenge after challenge, ever striving for personal growth because she believed that life is a school. Truly she possesses to the nth degree that rare combination of heart, mind and spirit which is so basic to our great Western culture, and so necessary to its continued progress.

Our grand lady of Pi Beta Phi has never ceased to be moved by the "mysteries many" since her inmost soul was attuned to the music of the spheres on December 2, 1864. And now in her twilight years she has said, "If I were living my life again, I would enrich every day of it, pack it full of the abundant life."

It is one of life's glories that persons like Lillian Johnson Rogers live among us.

Thomasine Allen, member of Indiana Alpha and graduate of Franklin College, arrived in the States in January and has engaged in a rapid speaking tour which has taken her to many parts of the country. A missionary under the American Baptist Convention, Miss Allen went to Japan in 1915 and is now head of the Christian Center at Kuji, which she founded 20 years ago and now directs.

At present, after years of patient toil, the Center includes 15 buildings, kindergarten, grade school, dormitories, dining rooms, and buildings for the agricultural experimental farm which is a project of Miss Allen's planning to aid the farmers in this poor section. Lately a 30-bed hospital with a staff of five doctors has been added. Also the prefectural government of Japan has given her 150 acres a short distance from Kuji, and here the Christian Farmers Dairy school is in operation. There are 20 cows.

Although Miss Allen spent two years in a concentration camp during the war, she is loved and honored by the people of Japan and in 1958 was presented the Fifth Order of Merit of the Sacred

The Colorado Springs Alumnae Club was honored to have attractive Ethel Lyddon Kuter (Mrs. Laurence S., Illinois Z) pour at the Settlement School tea held at the Broadmoor home of Arthe Baldwin Beardsley (Mrs. George L., Louisiana A) last November. Mrs. Kuter, as wife of a four-star General who is Commander-in-Chief of the important North American Air Defense Command, located in Colorado Springs, leads a busy and interesting life. In spite of the many demands on her time she is always interested in Pi Phi activities.

In January the Colorado Springs Club enjoyed a most informative and interesting briefing and tour of the Combat Operations Center (Nerve center of our national air defense) at NORAD. Our host for the afternoon was Major General W. H. Hennig, Chief of Staff of NORAD whose Pi Phi daughter Arden Hennig Madison (Mrs. John H. Jr.) is presently living in Mies, Germany where her husband, Captain Madison, is stationed.

sented Nebraska at the Miss America pageant. In recognition of her talent she received a $1000 scholarship.

Since graduation Diane has kept busy. She has continued her vocal study at the University of Nebraska and teaches music, English, and French at one of the Lincoln Junior High Schools.

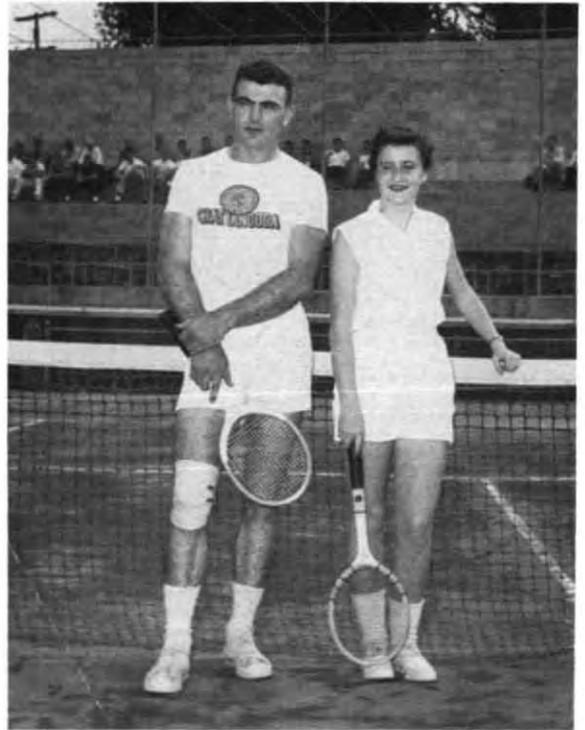

The Lincoln Alumnae Club feels fortunate to have Diane as one of their members for she is always ready to entertain whenever called upon.

Marilyn Voges, a member of Tennessee Alpha, is ranked first in Tennessee in tennis, women's singles division. In the same division she is ranked fourth in the South. Marilyn has been named alternate for the U.S. Jr. Whiteman Cup Team, a group which travels across the nation playing in tournaments.

In the past year Marilyn has won the Georgia State, Tennessee State, and Crackerland Tournaments.

She has served her chapter in the capacity of rush chairman and treasurer, and was named university Homecoming Queen this fall. Marilyn, secretary-treasurer of the student body, is a junior at the University of Chattanooga.

CRAFTS IN CREATION

Toledo Gives a Show

→ HAVE YOU ever attended a crafts show? Neither had we, we being the Toledo Alum Club, but the group voted last spring to have a really big party in the fall, and for Pi Phi, it seemed a crafts show was appropriate. We wanted a unique setting for the displaying and selling of our Arrowcraft materials, as well as offering our guests an entertaining afternoon. We decided that since we were displaying crafts, it would be interesting to show how these crafts were created.

Each committee worked valiantly all summer on our "Crafts in Creation" party. For publicity we distributed twenty-five posters in strategic locations, sent out flyers, and had write ups and pictures on the society pages of the local newspapers. There were hundreds of details to arrange and decisions to make, but in the end, everything fitted together like an intricate jigsaw puzzle.

We were very fortunate in obtaining the help of two local merchants—an outstanding florist and a well-known furniture store, whose specialty is Early American. With the help of one of their decorators and our choice of furniture, we set about transforming a huge, barren room into an attractive background for our crafts show.

An Early American atmosphere was created by the use of cozy groups of furniture placed on lovely braided rugs where our Arrowcraft was displayed; for instance, over a large rocker was draped a lovely stole; on each of the three dining tables were displayed table cloths or place mats with the new Arrowcraft pottery breakfast sets. Screens, which were used as backdrops for these furniture groupings, were decorated with such things as baskets, purses and wall pockets filled with flowers. To one side of this most attractive display, tables were set up where a tremendous supply of Arrowcraft materials were arranged in the conventional way and sold.

At the opposite end of the room, our craftsmen were placed on platforms. Beside each was a lamp-post from which hung a sign identifying the craft and craftsman. The art demonstrated were spinning, weaving, pottery, glass blowing, mosaic tiling, canning, rug braiding, basketry, jewelry making and wood carving. The artisans who volunteered their services were all excellent in their fields. Many of them are teachers at the Design School of the Toledo Museum of Art.

To enhance our feeling of elegance, we decided on a dessert smorgasbord, with each Pi Phi contributing. The tea table was centered with a beautiful floral piece and candles in hurricane lamps. In front of the serving area were placed sixty card tables covered with cloths in a muted block plaid. On each was placed a small, old-fashioned vase holding fall flowers. The whole effect was colorful and lovely.

There were many last minute problems with which to contend, but by one o'clock, everything was running smoothly. At the entrance, just beyond the ticket table, the president and the craft show chairmen welcomed the guests, explaining the locations of the various features of our show. It was meant to be an open house from one to five, but to our delight, we found even those who came early, stayed late. There was so much to see, learn, buy and eat. Never have we had more enthusiasm about anything we've done—from our own people and from others. And . . . never have been more proud!

We had about 700 people in attendance, and made a profit of approximately $800. We sold $1500 of Arrowcraft the day of the sale, and since the sale we have taken a number of phone orders.

At "White House Conference"

Patti Kling, a member of California Epsilon at San Diego State College, was chosen to help represent the American Hospital Association this spring at the Golden Anniversary White House Conference on Children and Youth.

The conference was held from March 27 to April 2 in Washington, D.C.

The invitation was extended to Patti by President Eisenhower. Patti is one of 10 selected by the hospital association to represent its 5600 member hospitals. She is the only one chosen from California.

Patti has been active in hospital service since 1957, working that year as a junior auxiliary provisional, with duties in central supply, maternity, and hospital lobby. In 1958 she served as president of the Junior Auxiliary, and has worked on many of the junior group's activities since then.

The White House Conference is the sixth parley of its kind since the first one was called by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1909. At the conference, she will be one of the 300 delegates between 16 and 21, and one of the 7000 delegates attending the meeting from youth organizations.

Nearly 500 national voluntary organizations are active in this year's conference. The purpose is to promote opportunities for young persons to realize their best potentials in the American way of life.

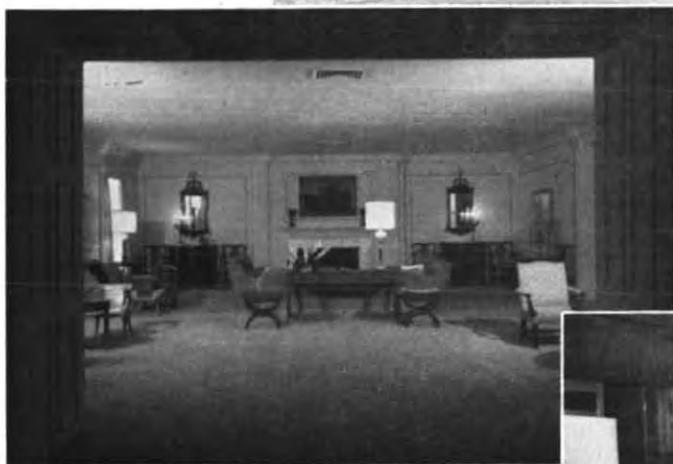

Among the Province Presidents you will meet at Convention will be Lucy Steinbauer, president of Xi Province.

Edited by Mary Elizabeth Lasher Barnette, Ohio A

BESS HAGAMAN TEFFT, Michigan Alpha, Merrie Maple, E. P. Dutton & Company, Inc., 187 pp. and Ken of Centennial Farm, Follett Publishing Company, 127 pp.

Here is a rare and important person, a writer of juvenile literature who can mold the flesh of a good story to a sturdy frame of high standards and worthy values. Mrs. Tefft is also remarkable for her ability to write in tandem, first for girls and then for boys, without wavering in her effectiveness.

In Merrie Maple there is none of the awkwardness so often to be found in a first novel, and the title character is a thoroughly interesting and believable seventeen-year-old girl who, in her passion for painting, is temporarily blind to true creativity. Essentially a strong character she is able to profit from her not always happy experiences with a pair of pseudo-sophisticates at a summer art camp, and in her new-found maturity Merrie recognizes the quality of her own family background, the wisdom of her teachers and the value of a genuine friend.

Besides this there is a tender love story together with incidents of conflict and moments of sadness, all in all a good book first to last which leaves the reader with an extra sense of bolstered values after the period of entertainment is over.

Both books are set against the farm background which is Mrs. Tefft's own heritage, but in Ken of Centennial Farm agriculture is the warp of the narrative which should, nevertheless, have appeal for grade school boys whatever their own surroundings.

The story will enlighten city boys about life on a modern, substantially mechanized American farm, and it should delight other 4-H boys like Ken Ellsworth with its accurate reporting of their own activities.

In fact the 4-H organization's achievement in providing farm youngsters with supervised proving grounds for projects calculated to sustain their interest in agriculture and to improve their farming techniques is dramatized by this book. The agricultural community should be grateful to Mrs. Tefft for portraying the appeal of farm work and life so successfully.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Bess Hagaman (Mrs. Robert) Tefft, Michigan Alpha, majored in psychology at Hillsdale College, but says, "I always knew I would write." She became a teacher when she finished college in 1934, but since her marriage and her return to the farm life she knew as a child she has edited the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau News as well as doing Community Chest and Red Cross publicity. Despite his urban origins her husband early was attracted to farming and now raises Black Angus cattle and sheep on their farm, the center of which is a 120-year-old home. Mrs. Tefft's book for boys is appropriately dedicated to her teen-age sons, Bob and Bill.

RANDOM NOTES: New York Alpha's Marion Clayton (Mrs. Edwin A.) Link whose book Sea Diver was reviewed in the last issue, is the author of the lead story in the February National Geographic Magazine. Titled "Exploring the Drowned City of Port Royal" it is a detective story into the mystery of a Jamaican city which was dropped into the ocean depths by an earthquake in 1692. In ten weeks of work before hurricanes stopped investigation for the season, the expedition discovered the fort, cookhouse and ship chandlery and brought up hundreds of artifacts, but there is much more to be discovered on future trips, reports diver detective Link.

Throughout the collegiate world, a picturesque 150-year-old state university at Oxford, Ohio, is known as "Mother of Fraternities."

Miami University is the birthplace of six Greek-letter social organizations. It was the fountainhead of that vigorous, almost evangelistic new fraternity movement of the West which began with the founding of Beta Theta Pi at Miami in 1839. This was the first new fraternity west of the Alleghenies—patterned to some extent, it is true, after Alpha Delta Phi, which had come to Miami from Union College in 1833.

Here, too, were founded Phi Delta Theta in 1848 and Sigma Chi in 1855. The college world had made "Miami Triad" a part of its language long before Miami contributed three more such groups; in 1902, Delta Zeta; in 1906, Phi Kappa Tau; and in 1914, Delta Sigma Epsilon, which had separate entity for four decades before bringing its 42 chapters into Delta Zeta in 1955.

Holt House

CHANGING—CHALLENGING ERA, 1867

It is with pride that I go back to a most challenging era in our American History, the year of 1867, when Pi Beta Phi was founded at Holt House in Monmouth, Illinois.

History books are full. On a Friday, April 14, 1865, President Lincoln met death at the hands of an assassin in little Ford's Theatre in Washington.

Andrew Johnson's presidency became a chaos of political opinion. General Grant became the standard bearer of the Republican party and president in 1868.

Horace Greeley was already advising "Go west, young man, go west!" And, indeed, you could a few years later, on the Great Northern—all the way from Chicago to Seattle for $33.00.

Barnum—the master showman of the era—in spite of his shenanigans, was admired for his honesty—"There's a sucker born every minute."

Mark Twain was on his road to literary fame. Though we may have forgotten "Tom Sawyer" and his fence "white washing," we somehow remember a paragraph from his Scrapbook:

"Good breeding consists of concealing how much we think of ourselves and how little we think of the other person."

Mrs. O'Leary's famous cow that was said to have started the famous Chicago fire in 1871, changing that city's pattern, wasn't even in being.

Thirty three years later, the Wright brothers wrote the postmistress at Kitty Hawk, Carolina, inquiring about the area's topography for their "flying machine."

Book agents, along with cast iron deer on the lawn, came into being. The agents were instructed—"Get the prospect seated and keep talking!"

Xmas cards—much fringe, de'coupage, "drip" one might say, but still carrying the vigorous warmth and feeling of the Victorians in a "Merry Christmas."

Music had its charms. For fun, did you know that that always reviving song "The Flying Trapeze," "Oh she floats through the air with the greatest of ease," was written by Joe Murphy and Johnny Mack in 1868?

And you Pi Phi sisters were advised by eastern fashion dictators that you might leave off (for health reasons) one petticoat. Just three instead of four!

As for food—our Victorian forebears were anything but calorie conscious. For a single meal, well, it might make a good long term paper figuring up the calories in an Xmas dinner of 1867.

But in all seriousness, the Holt House and its restored furnishings of that era and preceding years are a treasure of which we all can be proud.

Very little has been written about the home furnishings of the Victorian years. Perhaps we are still too close to them as historians say (approximately 1840-1875). Or perhaps most writers dislike the job of tackling the nightmare of black walnut monstrous and heavy, antimacassars that were supposed to protect and didn't, coal scuttles with flowers, and windows barricaded with much fabric.

Indeed, in the era, particularly in the east, when a family estate was dispersed you were thought "slightly off your rocker" (in today's parlance) if you displayed any interest in a simple lovely chest, a highboy, or the china that had been handed down. So the wise ones handed down the ultimatum—well indeed—you take them, we'll take the golden oak (U. S. Grant period) and brass bedsteads!

May I quickly say that not all Victorian is bad. Some of it is good and should be treasured.

Generally speaking, however, a great percentage of Victorian furniture is of bad design—and American homes were full of it. It has been said that only our disastrous fire rate kept it in bounds. In the middle west, however, there were families who recognized and loved the intrinsic beauty of design without excessive embellishment or ornamentation. They selected the best from the past, and guardedly picked the best from the present.

Although present day architects decry Victorian era architecture here again, we find in Holt House not the deplorable "gingerbread type" house. Rather, a gracious structure built with an understanding of good fundamental design and painstaking craftsmanship.

We Pi Phis can be very proud of the foresight of our sister members who organized, purchased, and restored with the most painstaking care Holt House; making us guardians of a gracious way of past years.

They knew, as we all in time shall come to know, "There is no truth in fads." All must be built on sincerity and integrity to last.

Will You Help Rush?

Pi Beta Phi chapters are counting on you to supply them with names and information about prospective rushees. This is one way in which every alumna can do her part to help in rushing.

If you are an alumna living in a town where there is no alumnae club, just fill in the blank. Please mail it as soon as possible to the chapter rush captain concerned.

If you live in a town where there is an alumnae club you may use this blank also, but please keep your alumnae club recommendations chairman informed of any recommendations you make.

Chapter rush captains—the lists of Alumnae Club Recommendations Chairmen, and of the State Rush Chairmen, are printed in this issue of the ARROW.

You will find in this issue of the ARROW, a sample recommendation blank, also the list of names and addresses of all chapter rush captains. If you have more than one girl to recommend, write extra letters, including the information listed on the blank.

When Vassar's President, Dr. Sarah E. Blanding, K K Γ, spoke to the Buffalo Branch of the American Association of University Women last spring she said, according to Ellen Taussig in the Buffalo Evening News, that the needs of young people are "More Mathematics, good training in English, a foreign language, contributive to good international relations, some history of the United States. Experimentation with new techniques, TV etc., breadth of knowledge in teachers" and "far more money investment" also will help the cause of education.

ALPHA PROVINCE

BERKSHIRE

The Berkshire County Alumnae Club started the year under the able leadership of Vivian Moss. In October, we had a marvelous luncheon at the Famous Crane Inn in honor of our visiting Province Vice president, Mrs. Merrill Bowles. She gave us many useful suggestions on expanding our comparatively new club.

This is our club's second year of existence, and though it is small, it covers a large area including Pittsfield, Williamstown, Adams, Dalton, Lenox and other towns.

There were different programs concerning the Constitution and History, Slides on the Settlement School; and to raise money, we have had a Bake Sale and a White Elephant Sale. We all looked forward to our annual Covered Dish Supper to celebrate Founders' Day as it was such a big success last year.

In May, we planned a visit to the active chapter at the University of Massachusetts to attend their House Corporation meeting and visit with the girls.

CAROL COATS BUNDY

BURLINGTON

The first meeting of the year consisted of a Fashion Show of Ski and Sportswear sponsored by a local store and held in October. It was narrated by Janet Royer with Gladys Severance, Ruth Brooks, Mary Witham and Peggy Van Dyne on committee. The following Pi Beta Phi alumnae were models; Mary Lou Adsit, Joan Boardman, Marilyn Fletcher, Joan Martin, Katharine Meeker, Peggy Twitchell, Joan Dillon and an active, Martha Lawton.

In November we had a joint meeting with the actives and members of the Corporation at the house, and Dean Harris and Dean Wing spoke to us regarding improvements deemed necessary to the house to measure up to the University dormitories. Coffee and cookies were served by a committee headed by Kay Blakely.

The January meeting was held at the home of Mary Ellen Fitzgerald and all enjoyed her new home although the evening was a typical winter's night with plenty of snow. Settlement School pictures were shown and we exchanged favorite dessert recipes. Mary Lou Adsit and Betsy Bouton were hostesses. We hope to buy some Settlement School articles to be sold at each meeting of our club as well as at the Mothers' Club.

In March we looked forward to our Annual Cooky-shine and Stunt Night with the actives and pledges. Jane Gregory was chairman of refreshments.

The Founders' day meeting was in Essex Junction at the home of Natalie McClure with the Essex Pi Beta Phis as hostesses.

In May we had a buffet supper at the home of Gwen Aiken at which time we paid tribute to the Seniors and welcomed them as Alumnae. Our Annual June Spread reunion was held at the house, with Mrs. Thomas Dowe as chairman.

IRENE CHENEY

EASTERN CONNECTICUT

A delightfully busy, interesting, and relaxing Pi Phi Year was enjoyed by the members of the Eastern Connecticut Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi under the capable leadership of Lib Motycka, president. Amidst pot-luck suppers, picnics, and dessert meetings, members enjoyed listening to Helen Corkum tell of the history of the club at the September meeting.

In October we were especially privileged to have Province Vice president Rena Bowles attend the joint meeting held with the Hartford Club, and to hear her speak of Gatinburg.

A very successful Settlement School sale was held in the Community House at Storrs during November.

A pleasant and relaxing evening was enjoyed by all at the home of Ada Hawkins, when the new pledges to Pi Beta Phi were guests of the alumnae at a pot-luck supper on December 10. The slides depicting Holt House and Settlement School which were shown helped to bring the new pledges "into the fold."

Members of the club have helped the initiates with rushing by volunteering their services to free actives of "kitchen" details during parties.

VIOLA S. FEDORCZYK

EASTERN MAINE

Throughout the year we have enjoyed our contacts with the girls of Maine A whose president, Martha A. Zoidis, and other members have kept us informed of the details of local activities. Mrs. Merrill Bowles, our province vice president, and a Trustee of the University of Maine, has helped us in many ways.

Our President attended the Swampscott, Massachusetts, workshop for Alumnae Advisory Committee representatives in September. We supported the girl's November Arrowcraft Sale. Good food and good fun at the home of Mrs. Douglass marked the December Bow-pinning Supper, made more successful through the much appreciated generosity of the Portland Club. In March we helped with a cooky-shine following initiation. The annual Founders' Day Banquet in April was a happy and meaningful occasion. In May we entertained the mothers of the actives at another cooky-shine.

Our regular meetings during the year included study of all required topics. We helped as we could with plans for new furnishings for the chapter room. We made contributions to Holt House, the Settlement School, and to the Hospitality and the Emma Harper Turner Funds.

It is a pleasure to know the girls of the active chapter here and, as interested alumnae, to try to help as much as we can with their needs.

MARY G. HOUGHTON

GREATER BOSTON

The first meeting of the Boston Alumnae Club under the leadership of its new president, Addie Prentiss, was held at the home of Ruth Ellerthorpe in Swampscott. Mr. Browning, "Mr. Epicure," of the S. S. Pierce Co. demonstrated making canapes and hors d'oeuvres and talked on the art of entertaining.

A visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Merrill Bowles, was the high light of the November meeting which was held at the home of Sandy Adams in Boston. Mrs. Bowles was the guest of the Executive Board for dinner preceding the meeting.

March was a busy month. On March 5, the club entertained the actives of the Massachusetts A at a card party in the chapter room in Boston. Rhonda Gamble was chairman. The regular March meeting at the home of Kerry Glass in Belmont was devoted to the review of the Constitution and History of Pi Beta Phi. Election of officers was also held.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April with the Boston University actives at a luncheon in Boston. This was well attended.

From the fund raising projects there has been netted so far: $85 from the bake sale in October and over $125 from the sales of Christmas cards, personal recipe cards and Christmas wreaths.

The club has followed the precedent set last year for holding neighborhood Settlement School parties. This has been found to be very successful. An "Open House" has been held in Belmont, "Coffees" have been held in Wellesly, Natick and Framingham for the sale of Arrowcraft products. A display and sale of Arrowcraft products at Schrafft's, a tea room in Boston, was held in March.

NAN LAROCHE LADD

HALIFAX

Halifax Alumnae Club opened its year by celebrating the 25 Anniversary of Pi Beta Phi at Dalhousie University. An Anniversary Supper was combined with the November initiation. Special invitations were sent to all charter members and the gathering proved extremely pleasant and successful.

Mrs. Adams, Alpha Province President, also visited the active chapter in November and the Alumnae attended the tea held for her on Sunday afternoon.

The club started plans for a pantry sale to be held on February 5. Then, on February 3, Halifax was buried in three feet of snow and it was impossible to dig out for the sale, which was postponed to April 29.

At the last meeting, a joint active alumnae meeting, the club had a very good program on Holt House conducted by Frances D'Argent.

The club is busy now planning with a new slate of officers and a summer campaign for members.

MRS. CAROLYN MCKILLOP

MONTREAL

The Montreal Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi has had a very active and interesting year. It was so encouraging to see so many Pi Beta Phis attending the Founders' Day Luncheon last year when our province vice president, Mrs. Merrill Bowles, was visiting with us.

During the pre-Christmas season, we entertained our friends at a Silver Sherry Party in the Royal Montreal Regiment Mess where $171 was collected towards our Canadian Project. We held an auction in December where we collected the money to be allocated to the Centennial Fund. Various members participate in a Marathon Bridge which nets a considerable sum at the end of the year, and of course, magazine subscriptions have been very helpful.

One interesting project is the work we are doing to foster a closer association among Pi Beta Phi clubs. We are carrying on an interesting correspondence with the Alumnae Club in Halifax and taking an active interest in Nova Scotia A at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

Mr. F. A. Green, the American Representative to the International Civil Aviation Organization (and a Pi Beta Phi husband) spoke to us on the work of his organization as a part of the United Nations.

In February we toured the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts under the guidance of Dr. Turner, curator, who discussed Modern Canadian Art as well as Eskimo Primitives.

We enjoyed looking forward to the Founders' Day Luncheon on April 26.

On May 24 our Annual Meeting closed the year for Pi Beta Phi Alumnae in Montreal.

KAY SOVAK

NEW HAVEN

The New Haven Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi prospered this year under the able leadership of President June Gustavson. A concerted effort to develop a more varied program attracted several new active members to the group and sustained the interest of those previously active. By frequent use of a club newsletter we kept in close touch with those members unable to attend meetings regularly and thereby maintained a more interested inactive membership.

The year's program commenced in September with a kick off pot luck supper. October was a busy, profitable month, high lighted by a visit from province vice president, Rena Bowles. Her message to the membership was inspiring and helpful. Prior to meeting with the entire club, Mrs. Bowles was feted at dinner with the Executive Board.

Later in October, the Greater New Haven area Settlement School Sale was conducted. We are grateful each year by the number of persons outside of our group who anticipate and support this philanthropic effort.

An interior decorator presented a helpful and entertaining program following our November business meeting. In December we got the Christmas spirit early with a Tasting Bee. By selling and sampling our favorite recipes we had a very pleasant evening and added to the club treasury at the same time!

Lending an international flavor to the year's program in February was Linda Walton, community ambassador to Poland, who showed slides and talked of her experiences abroad. A spirited discussion of East-West tensions followed.

March found us concentrating on Pi Beta Phi again as we held annual elections, revised local by-laws, and made preparations for the state wide Founders' Day celebration. New Haven was the hostess club for the annual reunion of actives and alumnae, held in late April. At the celebration this year we honored not only the Founders of Pi Beta Phi, but also today's outstanding members of the five alumnae clubs and the active chapter in the state.

A cultural excursion to the Shakespeare Festival Theatre in Stratford in early June completed our program of events for the year.

JANE E. RUCK

PORTLAND, MAINE

The Portland Alumnae Club has enjoyed another most interesting year under the presidency of Marjorie Yale. In October, the executive council met at the home of Mildred Norwood to formulate plans for the coming year and to complete plans for the Settlement School Sale. This year, the successful sale was held on October 15 at Country Style, a fashionable women's apparel shop in the greater Portland area.

The club enjoyed having Rena Bowles, Alpha Province Vice President, at the November pot luck supper meeting held at the home of Dorothy Kane. Margaret Snow was hostess to the members for the December meeting, which was followed by an interesting and instructive demonstration on Christmas wrapping and decorative fancy bows.

A party for the actives home on vacation was scheduled for the January meeting but, due to a heavy snow storm, the plans were cancelled. An informative program on the Constitution and History was presented by Carolyn Jacobson following the February dinner meeting at the Lafayette Hotel. The recipient of the annual Sophomore Award was selected at the March 17 meeting at Dorothy Dimetri's home. Marjorie Yale offered her lovely home to the group for the Founders' Day Luncheon observance.

Following the annual meeting in May at Helen Wolfe's home the year's activities were concluded with a family picnic and cruise at the Yales' summer residence, "Eggemoggin."

ROBERTA JOY WYER

SOUTHERN FAIRFIELD COUNTY

This year the alumnae club decided to have all the business meetings in the daytime because our group includes such a large area that evening meetings are poorly attended.

During the year we have had five very nice luncheon business meetings. These were held in the homes of club members.

Our Settlement School Sale was held in November at the home of Louise Beggs. It was highly successful and we are pleased to report that $900 worth of merchandise was sold.

The December and June meetings are reserved for a get together with the husbands. These parties are always very popular, and most enjoyable.

For the first time this year, in place of the January luncheon, we held individual town coffees. These proved so successful we are going to continue the practice. The turnout was excellent and quite a few new members came.

Rena Bowles, Alpha Province Vice President, paid us a visit in the fall. We felt that she was most helpful and had many good suggestions to pass on to us.

At our March meeting we had our annual White Elephant Sale, which is always fun as well as a means of raising money.

Once again we looked forward to gathering with the other alumnae clubs in Connecticut to celebrate State Founders' Day.

One of our club members, Norma Frame, served as president of Panhellenic in this area this year and has been elected Recommendations Chairman for the coming year.

KITTY CLARK MADDEN

THAMES RIVER

We are thrilled to make our first appearance in the ARROW, since we were organized only a year ago.

We held our first meeting of the year on October 15, 1959, at the home of Mrs. Robert Mack, our president. We were very pleased to have as our guest Mrs. Rena Bowles, province vice president. She spoke to us about her trip to Settlement School last June. Mrs. Barksdale MacBeth, our program chairman, conducted a program on the History and Constitution of Pi Beta Phi.

Mrs. John Jaczinski acted as hostess for our winter meeting held on January 13, 1960. Our evening's program was the Settlement School, conducted by Mrs. Joseph Kornacki. Nominations for club officers were made, and elections were held at our April meeting.

State Founders' Day was held April 23. Members from the five alumnae clubs in Connecticut met for a luncheon in New Haven.

Although our club is only a year old, we have enjoyed being able to help the University of Connecticut active chapter with their rushing recommendations and some of the refreshments for their rush parties.

CAROL A. PAUL

ALBANY

The fall season traditionally is the busiest time for the Albany Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club. We began with a pot-luck supper at Mavis Jones Little's home to which our actives were invited. Our first concern was with rushing recommendations which was under the chairmanship of Peggy Stinard Hacker. Our second project was our annual fall sale of Arrowcraft products. This year the sale was under the direction of Margaret Williamson Kinnard and Shirley Hakewessel Fallon and held at the Newtonville home of Dorothy Newton Eisenhart. Ada Beerstecher was in charge of the tea while Helen Maynard Borthwick organized the food sale.

Our monthly meetings have been varied and interesting. In October our province vice president, Mildred Moyer O'Donnell met with the club officers for dinner at the University Club. Later that evening Mrs. O'Donnell met with the club to explain the purpose of an alumnae club. At this time five thousand envelopes for the Easter Seal Campaign were distributed to the members for addressing. In November, we enjoyed an interesting talk on Pakistan and in December the Pi Beta Phi wrapped Christmas gifts for needy children.

This April the Albany Club entertained the neighboring Schenectady Club at a Founders' Day Luncheon at the Albany Country Club and we will conclude our activities in June with a picnic to which new alumnae and actives will be invited, thereby showing them that membership in Pi Beta Phi is truly a life time relationship.

ALISON VAIL CRAIG

COVINA-POMONA

The Covina-Pomona Valley Club has enjoyed an active and stimulating year under the able leadership of our president, Margaret Brown Rhoades.

Our speaker, at our first fall meeting in September, Tri-Delt Pat Stephenson, co-author of "Discovering Mexican Cooking," encouraged us to try our luck with exotic foods and interesting menus from Mexico. Our Settlement School Coffee and Christmas Boutique, held on a flawless October day, found sales brisk and brought to our community a new warmth of understanding of the work of Pi Beta Phi Settlement School.

Bertha Hollister Hardy spoke to us in November about our South American neighbors. Her tour and her beautiful colored slides brought us a new understanding of the growth, development and beauty of South America. A pot-luck Christmas party, honoring our husbands, was a gay affair.

In January, Mrs. Dornfeld, was asked to speak to us on the Covina-West Covina Retarded Children's Training Class, and later we voted unanimously to take them as our local philanthropy, and to help them in as many ways as we could. The proceeds of our theater party, organized by Shirley Beebe, was our first important contribution.

At our February meeting, Elizabeth Douris' husband, the Reverend Don Douris spoke persuasively and with humor about his experience with an international, interracial, interfaith work camp in Western Africa. His colored slides high-lighted a delightful evening.

Evelyn Kyle was a welcome and interesting speaker at our Founders' Day Luncheon. Our final meeting in April was a fund raising pot-luck supper at the home of Helen Baker. Rotating bridge groups was another of our fund-raising, get-acquainted projects.

We are proud to have Carol Trohan Glover, past president of our club, now Pi Province Scholarship Chairman.

BETTY OBERMEYER PETERSON

BETA PROVINCE

BUFFALO, NEW YORK

This was a very busy and pleasant year for the Buffalo Alumnae Club under the able leadership of our President, Marybeth Weaver Ostrom. A great honor for us was having Mildred Moyer O'Donnell as our new province vice president. Our monthly meetings, planned by Nancy Christman Johnson, were both entertaining and informative. We learned to make "Yuletide Fancies" under the capable instruction of Betty Meng Howell, had a Flower Workshop, a game night, and as always, our Christmas pot luck supper and a gift exchange was a highlight of the holiday season. On the serious side, we had an interesting talk and discussion period on "Investing in your Future." We were also very fortunate to have our member Peg Madden Resch speak to us on Panhellenic. Peg will be the President of Buffalo City Panhellenic next year. In August we shall have our annual fish fry and family picnic.

We were host to both the Rochester, New York and Hamilton, Ontario clubs on Founders' Day. The highlight of the program was the honoring of our new Golden Arrow member, Edith Wilson Brown. We held several successful coffee hours in our homes in order to promote the sale of Settlement School merchandise. Our main ways and means project was a Salad Bar Luncheon. It was a great financial success as well as proving that Pi Beta Phis are very good cooks! Our local Philanthropic project for the past several years has been the entertaining of the women living in the Bristol Home, as well as remembering them on their birthdays. These women do not have any families locally.

The 1959-60 year was one of great satisfaction in getting to know and working with so many active and loyal Pi Beta Phi Alumnae.

BETTY LOU SCHMITT SHEEDY

LONG ISLAND NORTH SHORE

Long Island North Shore Alumnae Club has had a most interesting program this season. In September the tea for actives, the Valentine dance in February, the picnic in June with our families, and the Centennial Fund Card Party, with prizes from the Arrow-Craft Shop in February, are all affairs which are becoming traditional with our club.

We welcomed Mrs. Allen O'Donnell at the October meeting. It was the first meeting with her and the Executive Committee entertained her at luncheon at a famous old sea food house on Long Island. After a most pleasant luncheon, the business meeting was held nearby. Her suggestions were most helpful, and we hope that she has many pleasant years as Beta Province Vice President.

In early December the club was most fortunate to obtain a most talented Long Island woman to give us a demonstration in the art of making Christmas decorations. Lovely ornaments were made from tinted and decorated egg shells, and mantle, table and door decorations were a few of the things that were shown. Next year this program will be rescheduled much earlier in the fall and included will be an actual workshop enabling us to make some of these fascinating things under Miss Schumacher's direction.

One project this winter was the collection of clothes for the Navaho Indians in New Mexico.

This year the Club decided to have an occasional evening meeting to reach some of the many new alumnae in the area who were unable to come to our afternoon meetings. Also under discussion was the Founders' Day Celebration and the possibility of having it in the evening. It again was held at Stouffer's in Garden City.

CONSTANCE WILDER COMPTON

NEW YORK CITY

The New York City Alumnae Club planned an interesting program for the year having outstanding Pi Beta Phis in the city included among the speakers. Our opening meeting was held at the home of Margaret Foster (Texas A), Virginia Steele (New York A) gave an interesting talk highlighting her career from a door to door stocking saleswoman to her present position as the Fashion Editor for McCall's magazine.

Dr. Leona Baumgarten (Kansas A) was both hostess and speaker for the November meeting. Dr. Baumgarten is N. Y. Commissioner of Health and lives in one of the oldest and quaintest sections of the city, Washington Mews. She gave a delightful, informative talk about her trip to Russia where she and five other women doctors studied the differences between Russian and U. S. medicine. She concluded by explaining briefly her work in the City Health Dept.

We changed the club's tradition just a bit and postponed our gift wrapping for needy children until the January meeting. In December our speaker was Mrs. Grace Barby of UNICEF—children's aid branch of the UN. She was extremely interesting and told us many things about her operation as liaison officer. In this capacity she has traveled all over the world.

For our January meeting we had a business program and wrapped presents for needy children. We decided our presents will be going to a Private Welfare Agency which places children from broken homes and from court cases.

Due to the sudden death in the speaker's family, a last minute substitution was made in the February program. Elizabeth Janeway, novelist and critic was unable to attend so our Vice President, Margaret Foster showed wonderful slides of her year in Hawaii.

The club this year has had a disappointment in our theatre party which was to have been our March meeting. "The Fighting Cock" starring Rex Harrison closed in February causing us to choose another play at the last minute, plus causing considerable confusion exchanging tickets for the "Miracle Worker" for a June date. For a substitute program in March, the club visited the Guggenheim Museum and had a morning tour ending with lunch at the snack bar.

Our Founders' Day Tea was held at Marion McGill's home in April. This concluded our meeting dates for this year.

ARETTA S. BURR

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club's program for the year 1959-60 has been most interesting and varied. Our first meeting in the fall was in South Orange at which time we had a talk on "Creative Table Settings" with several attractive settings on display. Punch and cookies were served.

In October Montclair entertained and our speaker was our Beta Province Vice President, Mrs. Allen T. O'Donnell. Short Hills gave the November luncheon and we had a talk on "Christmas Paper Art." South Orange and Maplewood entertained in January. Mrs. Paul Smith, talked about braille and her work with the blind.

The February meeting was a luncheon and bridge party. Each person brought a white elephant so that everyone went home with a small gift! In March we met in Westfield. Dr. Harold N. Moldenke, Naturalist from the Trailside Museum in Mountainside, New Jersey, talked and showed slides on "Plants of the Bible."

Our Founders' Day luncheon in April was held at the Arch Restaurant in Short Hills. As part of our program Jean Hearnes Cox played the harp. In May the Madison group entertained at which time we had our annual meeting.

In addition to our regular monthly meetings the club has had two very successful Arrowcraft teas and sales. Also in December we had a Sunday evening buffet supper for Pi Beta Phis and their husbands.

MARILYN SPOERL

PHILADELPHIA

The four groups that make up the Philadelphia Alumnae Club had another successful year under the presidency of Myra DePalma Reimer. The year got underway with three Settlement School Teas. The Main Line and Germantown groups each gave one and the combined efforts of the Delaware County Afternoon and Evening Groups went into the third sale and tea.

Each of the four groups continued to have their own monthly meetings. In addition four over-all group meetings were held. This year the meeting time was varied in order to give everyone the opportunity to attend one or more. An evening meeting in November was a dessert and coffee given by the Main Line Area and well attended. Every one was most anxious to meet and hear our delightful guest, Mildred Moyer O'Donnell, the province vice president.

In January a noon Bring-Your-Favorite-Sandwich Luncheon Meeting was held in Swarthmore with the Delaware County Afternoon Group as our gracious hostesses. Early in March a Morning Coffee Hour and Meeting took place with the Germantown group as hosts. Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at the Rolling Green Golf Club, Springfield. This event's success was due to the plans of The Delaware County Evening Group.

Last year the club voted to make The Rehabilitation Center of Philadelphia our project. The work started early in 1959 and is continuing in many ways. Typing and sewing for the Center is being done at home by some of the members, while others give volunteer hours at the Center, working in many different capacities. During a five months period this year a total of 257 hours was accumulated by Pi Beta Phi volunteers from The Philadelphia Alumnae Club.

ELIZABETH BLACK LENDERMAN

PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh Alumnae Club's first meeting included the installation of our former vice president as president. Mrs. William Zepfel has capably taken over the vacancy created when our charming Mrs. Merle Wroldstad and her family moved to Cleveland.

The annual three day Settlement School Sale was a success. Visitors seemed grateful for leisurely shopping in a home atmosphere; additional features were daytime and evening hours and refreshments. Mrs. Paul Davidson's home was used for the sale.

Mrs. Rue, the retiring director of Arrowcraft, has been honored by the club's $200 contribution to Settlement School in appreciation of her services.

Mrs. O'Donnell, province vice president, visited the club in November. Her talk was the highlight of that meeting.

Mrs. Paul Davidson again was the gracious hostess for the Christmas dinner party, at which gifts for hospital patients were collected and money for buying records was sent to Settlement School.

The new Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel was the setting for Founders' Day luncheon celebration with the South Hills Alumnae. The speaker, a Pi Beta Phi, Mrs. Anne Wagner, is Chief of the City Health Department.

LAURA HAYS BOWMAN

ROCHESTER

It was with a great deal of regret that we learned that our President, Julie Washburn, was to move to Florida, but the year has been very successful under the able direction of Barbara Stout, our vice president.

The first meeting of the year in September was a buffet supper and six new Pi Beta Phi were welcomed into the group, one all the way from Oregon. It was a "Silent Auction" in October and the $25 realized was sent to Settlement School. The group shared in many a nostalgic moment when pictures of various chapter houses were chosen at November gathering.

The climax of the year's activities came in January when we were fortunate enough to have our province vice president, Mildred O'Donnell, join us for our annual Cooky-shine.

In order that even girls unable to attend our evening meetings can feel a part of the group, the February meeting was a sandwich luncheon at the AAUW.

On the 30 of April, the Rochester Pi Beta Phi journeyed to Buffalo to join with the Buffalo Pi Beta Phi in a joint celebration of Founders' Day, a luncheon at the new Williamsville Inn.

In June we entertained our husbands with a picnic at the home of Dorothy Phillips whose new swimming pool was put to good use.

MARY JANE CRUIKSHANK

SCHENECTADY

This year the Schenectady Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi put a feather in its cap with the resounding success of its Settlement School Sale. Under the able chairmanship of Virginia Timberlake, the Club netted close to $900, the best ever for our fast growing group.

Our membership now totals 35.

We started our year with a well attended buffet supper. In October, Mrs. Mildred O'Donnell, province vice president, was guest of honor at a luncheon. Mrs. O'Donnell not only gave a most interesting report on the meeting at Gatlinburg but also helped our new officers to reap the most benefit in their respective jobs.

November was the beginning of our social season in Pi Beta Phi, when we held a bridge party. In December, our thoughts being of the Christmas season, the club held a lovely open house for members and their husbands. January was the time for a casual luncheon and February for our annual mixed bridge party. In March we had election of officers.

This year we celebrated Founders' Day in Albany as guests of the Albany Alumnae Club.

Our successful year came to a close with a brunch held in May.

GLADYS COTTRELL LARABEE

STATE COLLEGE

The State College Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi opened its fall program with a meeting to plan for the Settlement School Sale. The October meeting was given over to the Settlement School program. At this meeting a report of the Sale was given by Mrs. Dorothy Stover, chairman for the Settlement School Sale.

We were fortunate to have for our November meeting Mrs. Allen O'Donnell, Beta Province vice president. Her visit was an inspiration for us all. The club had dinner together, honoring Mrs. O'Donnell, at the Nittany Lion Inn, prior to the meeting.

In December the alumnae club presented to Pennsylvania E a lovely electric coffee maker. The January meeting was designated Chapter Loyalty Night. At this time Mrs. R. Mae Shultz, after background remarks, led the group in reminiscing about the founding of the Ag See Colony, now Pennsylvania E. The February meeting was devoted to the active chapter and its needs for the formal rushing period.

The March meeting was a special one, a pot luck supper for husbands and guests at the home of Mrs. Robert Ramsey. Following supper the alumnae club met to hear the report of the nominating committee. A Founders' Day luncheon was featured in April. At this time the officers for the year ahead were elected. In the month of May, the graduating seniors of the active chapter were entertained at the home of Mrs. Marianne Carpenter.

ROBERTA SHULTZ

SYRACUSE

In September the Syracuse Alumnae Club embarked upon its new schedule of activities under the able leadership of Ann O'Malley. Since our Cooky-shine last year proved such a wonderful way of getting our new year started, we planned another at the home of Marjorie Kirk. In October we met at the home of Jane Worden for a covered dish supper and discussed plans for our benefit card party which was held at the chapter house in November. Elizabeth Derrenbacher and Mary Jane VanMeter were chairmen of the event and turned in $80 profit. During the evening a Settlement School stole was raffled off. Also in November we participated in Chappell's Women's Day and earned $85 worth of credit at Chappell's Department store. With this we were able to buy draperies for the dining room of the chapter house.

We held our annual Christmas party in December with the active chapter. In January our meeting was a luncheon at the Mizpah Restaurant. Mrs. Allen O'Donnell, our province vice president, gave us a very enlightening talk on the Settlement School. In February Ann O'Malley was our hostess and a member from the American Cancer Society presented a very educational program.

In March a white elephant sale took place at the home of Ellen Beattie. During this month the alumnae put on a buffet luncheon at the chapter house following formal initiation. Nancy Smith was chairman.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April with the active chapter. Mary Scott highlighted the evening with her European pictures. Our annual evening of fun and dancing took place in May when members and their husbands got together at the Syracuse Hotel. Our year came to a close with election of officers at the home of Roberta Posthill.

ELEANOR HERMAN PUSTAY

YORK COUNTY

The year of 1959 proved one of organization for alumnae representatives of Greek letter fraternities in York. It was through the formation of a Panhellenic group here that it was discovered that Pi Beta Phi had the greatest representation. However, there was no organized Pi Beta Phi group. A number of us met October 6, 1959, and with sixteen signatures made application for an alumnae club charter:

Beth Ranney Coons, President (Mrs. Dick, Michigan A B); Priscilla Angstman Chancellor, Corresponding Secretary (Mrs. T. E. Jr., Wisconsin A); Mary-Jo Arestad, Treasurer (Mrs. James, Virginia I); Ann B. Sheater (Mrs. Eugene, Arkansas A); Rebecca Allen (Mrs. Charles C., Ohio A); Ann Schuck Malcom (Mrs. David, Pennsylvania I); Mary Carolyn Robison (Mrs. C. Wilson, Pennsylvania I); Miriam Posey (Mrs. Charles, Pennsylvania B); Vilma Brown (Mrs. Robert, Pennsylvania I); Mary McCrone Waltman (Mrs. Donald, Pennsylvania I); Dorothy Sayles Joslin (Mrs. V. W., Illinois I); Margaret Glandrup Rupp (Mrs. Clarence, New York A); Harriet Gilbert Petry (Mrs. Kenneth, Pennsylvania I); Carol Gouldman Keiter (Virginia I); Hilda Knaub Jackson (Mrs. E. Roger, Pennsylvania I); Eleanor A. Shoemaker (Mrs. Daniel, D.C. A).

Five meetings for the year 1959-60 are scheduled with emphasis this first year on getting to know one another. Founders' Day was celebrated with the Harrisburg Club, and at the June meeting we met our local active Pi Beta Phis.

PRISCILLA A. CHANCELLOR

GAMMA PROVINCE

AKRON

The past year has been a most successful and enjoyable one for the Akron Alumnae Club headed by our very capable president, Judy Merrick McCabe.

Our activities began in September with a potluck buffet supper and the traditional Cooky-shine. Each attending member contributed recipes of her dish which in turn were sold to other members. Our president gave a brief History of the Phi Beta Phi's Cooky-shine.

The October meeting was a very delightful and informative one with Lt. James Flanagan of the Juvenile Division, Akron Police Force, speaking on the "Area Facts of Juvenile Delinquency."

"Pi Beta Phi Wisdom" was the name given to our November meeting in which a quiz that challenged and refreshed our knowledge of Pi Beta Phi was played covering major facts about the Founders, the Constitution, and the Settlement School.

Our annual open house during the Christmas season, to which members and their husbands are invited, proved to be another memorable evening. In December we also entertained at a very successful tea in honor of the area actives home for the holidays.

The club's past presidents were honored at the annual Loyalty Day luncheon observed in January. Each past president gave an account of the outstanding events occurring during her term of office which proved to be both humorous and informative.

The March meeting titled "Theater Thoughts" highlighted by a guest speaker "painted" the scenery of little theater group operations and made our group even more enthusiastic to see the play we sponsored as a fund raising project.

April was devoted to Founders' Day observed with a luncheon honoring our Golden Arrow members, at which time they were presented with the gold carnation pins.

NANCY GASS

ATHENS, OHIO

Beth Riley Wolfe started her two year term of office as president of the Athens Alumnae Club last fall. The club presented the active chapter with a duplicating machine, which the girls felt would be very useful.

The active chapter entertained members of the alumnae club with a barbecue at the chapter house in appreciation of their help during rushing.

In October the pledges had dessert with the club at the Pi Beta Phi house.

"Pi Phi Wisdom" night included a very interesting history of Ohio A by Eve Gullum.

On the basis of the success of its previous bazaars, the club made plans for its April 9 Spring Bazaar. Vernah Stewart Gardner, Mary Connett, and Ruth Jones Sweeney were cochairmen for the event which featured hand painted eggs, Easter baskets, baked goods and hand made articles.

Founders' Day found the club having lunch with Ohio A at the Ohio University Student Center.

In May the graduating seniors were honored with the traditional senior buffet.

GRETCHEN BARSTOW BARNES

CANTON

This year, under the leadership of Elizabeth Downes Roderick, the Canton Alumnae Club decided to devote more time to philanthropic projects.

Our September meeting, held at the home of Mary Jane Kenan Ake, was mainly a business meeting devoted to rushing. In October, we held a luncheon meeting at Congress Lake Country Club honoring the visit of our province vice president, Mrs. Carr E. Dix. In November, we undertook our first project at the home of Helen Rennecker Steen. We spent quite a few hours making Christmas trees out of heavy aluminum foil for the geriatric patients at Molly Stark Hospital.

Adelaide Woodworth Kintz had our annual Christmas party, which is always so much fun because we insist on home made gifts for our gift exchange. It is always a thrill to see the ingenuity of our fellow Pi Beta Phis. January and February were devoted to the planning of our party March 17. Katharine Kelley Sullivan is in charge of Occupational Therapy at Aultman Hospital, so naturally, this was her project. In January, we met at the home of Marilyn Goetz Markling for our annual Cooky-shine. We also planned the party and practiced the games that we played with the patients. We worked more on the party in February at the home of Mrs. Sullivan.

"Howie," a play at the Canton Players Guild, was attended by the Pi Beta Phi and their husbands in April. This was a Panhellenic project in which all the sororities participate.

In April, the meeting at the home of Nancy Shuman Pickard was devoted to the study of the Constitution and Settlement School. Our year was concluded in May with our Founders' Day Luncheon.

NANCY SHUMAN PICKARD

CLEVELAND EAST

Under the presidency of Virginia Wynn Wood our year started on a "Know Your Cleveland" theme at the October dinner meeting with the Junior Auxiliary. The story of Karamu House was presented by one of its trustees and a selection of dramatic readings given by a staff member. In November the director of the University Circle Development Foundation told us of plans of our ever expanding cultural center.

Province vice president, Helen Baucher Dix, visited us in October and was entertained by the board at a potluck supper.

We got an early start on our Christmas shopping at the October Settlement School sale at the home of Ruth Horrocks Sprague with her daughter, Shirley Sprague Thompson as chairman. Over $2,000 worth of products have been sold.

After a Christmas musical program at the December meeting, members exchanged ideas for Christmas gifts and decorations. We also contributed money and clothing to a downtown church for use in a neighborhood program.

In commemoration of Chapter Loyalty Day we sent our annual gift to an active chapter and our active chapter chairman, Louise Ryan Hopkins prepared a resumé of the activities and progress of that chapter. We also became better acquainted with some of our own members who told us about their jobs.

At other winter dinner meetings we saw some original Audubon Prints and heard a very interesting talk on what motivates us to read the periodical we read.

Founders' Day, as always, was celebrated with the West Side and Lake County groups, this year under the direction of our program chairman, Barbara Teal Hendricks. We were especially fortunate to have as our speaker, Ruth Williams Hansen, former member of Grand Council. Participants in the candle lighting ceremony wore costumes of the 1860s and new Golden Arrow members were honored.

Our big money raising event was a bigger and better bridge luncheon. Chairman Virginia Hansen Ismond and her committee served a buffet luncheon for eighty tables of bridge in the Plymouth Church social room.

The June speaker appeared in a copy of Mamie Eisenhower's inaugural gown and ended our year with a very interesting talk on Presidents' Wives.

HARRIET BILLMAN WEIDNER

CLEVELAND EAST JUNIOR

This year, under the capable leadership of our president, Marge Cailor McLean, started off with our traditional Cooky-shine combined with a favorite recipe potluck supper. October, we enjoyed a dinner meeting with the Senior Club. The Settlement School sale, also a joint project, was highly successful. We repeated the sale again at one of our regular meetings.

Our monthly meetings were overly interesting, a hair stylist, a realtor, an interior decorator, and our Christmas party. We joined the Senior Club and the Cleveland West Club at a formal dinner dance in March and at our Founders' Day dinner in April.

April we gave our usual Benefit Bridge and sent ninety percent of our proceeds to the Scholarship Fund.

Instead of having our bridge night once a month as in preceding years, we alternated with a project night. Many hours were spent on projects for local hospitals making booties for babies at Highland View Hospital, oilcloth toy bags for children's hospital wards, Easter baskets for children's trays, making toys of empty spools of thread for children's hospitals, painting and decorating, wide mouth jars to be used for women's items in hospitals, and pasting crossword puzzles on cardboard for mental hospitals. We found the hours spent on these projects were rewarding as well as welcomed and needed.

We are looking forward to giving our usual summer party for the active members of Pi Beta Phi here in Cleveland East.

We feel this year has been especially fulfilling by the interest shown in large turn outs at meetings, by the large number of new alumnae joining us, and by the genuine effort put into our numerous projects, and we are looking forward to another fine year.

ELIZABETH RIPLEY GORDON

CLEVELAND WEST

Several hundred hours have been contributed this year by members of Cleveland West to service for our local philanthropy, the Cleveland Psychiatric Hospital. We have found this a most gratifying work, and our husbands aided, too, when we painted the beds and nightstands in the women's ward. Floral chintz draperies were made and bedspreads purchased to make the quarters more attractive.

We gave monthly parties for the patients, including such events as dancing, bingo, community sings, beauty demonstrations and even a fashion show. We have become very much interested in the hospital's work and had one of the staff doctors address our club in early fall on the help they are giving both men and women patients.

"What the Nike Means to You," an illustrated talk; Settlement School slides; "just fun"—a bridge party; the Berea Opera Workshop; and a talk on interior decorating were among our outstanding programs. Each year we end the year with a late June picnic for all actives in the Cleveland West area.

What proved a very workable as well as very profitable procedure was to have our Settlement School sales on succeeding days in members' homes in Bay Village, Lakewood, Rocky River, Berea, and Parma Heights. Hours were from 1 to 5 o'clock and from 7 to 9 in the evening. All the items were taken to the first home where we sold as much as possible, but we made sure we kept samples of nearly all articles for the sales and reorderers at the other homes.

At an open house before the Christmas holidays, we entertained our husbands; and to raise money for our special philanthropy, the Cleveland Psychiatric Hospital, Cleveland West was hostess in March to a dinner dance to which Cleveland East and other friends were invited.

MRS. ROBERT PERSCHE

DAYTON

The 1959-60 season of the Dayton Alumnae Club started off in true Pi Beta Phi form with a Cooky-shine at Mrs. Benton D. Melinger's attractive home.

The October meeting was a tea and a Settlement School sale which was open to friends of the Dayton Alumnae Club as well as members. It was held at the lovely home of Mrs. James D. Herrman and was considered most successful.

The Christmas luncheon was held at the Miami Valley Golf Club. Raffle tickets had been sold on some lovely Arrowcraft products and the drawing was held at this luncheon. The profits from the raffle and many gifts brought by members were given to our "Foster Family" to help make their Christmas a happier one.

A Christmas Coffee Hour was held at Clyde Herrman's for the actives of Dayton.

Mrs. Edward B. Gall's gracious home was the site of the January meeting which was highlighted by a short talk by our province vice president, Mrs. Helen Dix.

In February a Valentine party was held at the Van Cleve Hotel for the members and their husbands in order to get better acquainted. A most pleasant time was had by all who attended.

The election of officers and a talent sale took place at the March meeting which was at the charming home of Mrs. Charles L. Backus, Jr.

Founders' Day was again celebrated with Ohio Z Chapter at Oxford, Ohio.

Our last regular meeting which was in May was a potluck supper at the delightful home of Mrs. C. W. Deuser. Next year's officers were installed at this time.

A Panhellenic luncheon was held in June to end a most pleasant year.

JOSEPHINE C. MCCORMICK

HAMILTON, OHIO

The fourth year of the Hamilton, Ohio, Alumnae Club finds us an active and interested group.

In the fall we entertained the new pledges from Miami University in Oxford, at the home of Mrs. Richard Vaaler.

In November we had our Settlement School sale under the able direction of Mrs. William Webb.

January found us at Miami to treat the chapter to a good "home made" breakfast at the suite.

Our "get together" of inactive alumnae was replete with a Pi Phi Cook Book sample party in March.

The following meetings were devoted to Constitution Study, a Founders' Day Celebration, election and installation of officers and our annual party for Miami seniors. JEAN DAVENPORT HILLEARY

LAKE COUNTY, OHIO

Lake County, Ohio, Alumnae Club held a luncheon during the summer with active chapter members in the area as guests. It was most interesting to learn about the work going on at various campuses and to become acquainted with the actives in the county.

Our September meeting was highlighted by a travelogue given by Fran Tillotson. She showed many slides of her family's summer trip to California. In October, Gamma Province Vice President, Helen Dix, visited our club and offered many helpful suggestions to be used in our second year. She brought with her many articles from the Settlement School which were of particular interest to us as we planned our first Settlement School sale for November. Our initial attempt resulted in sales of over $238, so we felt the sale was a success and helped to fill our small treasury.

In December we held a dinner party and invited our husbands to attend. It proved to be a very enjoyable evening and we plan to have more such events.

Our January program was devoted to chapter Loyalty Day. The program was planned by Carolyn Franklin and helped to refresh our minds about Pi Beta Phi History.

A welfare project was planned for our March meeting. We decorated blown out egg shells to be used as favors on trays in a Painesville hospital. We donated eggs last year and the patients seemed to enjoy them.

Our plans included a small Founders' Day celebration and another get together with actives in the area. While we still have only 17 members in our club, we enjoy the fraternity association and hope to add new members to our ranks each year.

LYNN HARGROVE COX

NEWARK-GRANVILLE

Newark-Granville Alumnae Club wishes to express its deep appreciation to Mrs. William K. Sidwell who moved to Toledo last summer.

Before college closed last year the Denison chapter presented Mrs. Sidwell with a silver Revere bowl as a small token of her help, interest, and time given beyond measure. Her vacancy has been hard to fill by the entire alumnae club, and her friendship and guidance greatly missed by chapter and alumnae.

A potluck dinner for the new Ohio H pledges started the club year. We all enjoyed meeting and visiting with such a fine group of girls.

Eighteen of these same girls were initiated in February and the alumnae prepared the lunch for the chapter and guests. Also the club participated in the initiation banquet held the evening at Granville Inn.

The House Corporation passed a vote which decided on the lot to be used as a possible future building site.

We all looked forward to a visit from Mrs. Dix, our province vice president. An alumnae card socializing and meeting was planned for March 23. Also planned was the annual dinner honoring the graduating seniors. SUE MOORE

OHIO VALLEY

The 1960 program season of the Ohio Valley Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi opened with a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Conaway, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Robert Leibold. Plans were made for the rest of the year's meetings, and the work session was followed by delicious refreshments and good fellowship.

At Christmas time the alumnae were hosts at a delightful luncheon honoring the pledges and actives home for the holidays. This affair was held at the Fort Henry Club and included a musical program as well as a style show.

A covered dish dinner which was to be held in February at which time our province vice president, Mrs. C. E. Dix, was to be our guest, had to be cancelled because of a bad snow storm.

April 25 was set aside for our Annual Founders' Day Dinner. This event closed our year's activities. ANN LAEPP OSBORNE

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

Since our March and May meetings were not included in my last letter, I would like to mention these before starting in on our fall activities. Our evening March meeting was held at the home of Louise Reeder Harris. Our program chairman, Vivian Price Nurtling told us the latest news of our Settlement School. Myrna La Tourette Greene was our May hostess at her "Strawberry Hill Farm." At this morning brunch, we decided to impose a ten cent fine on each girl who forgot to wear her pin. This idea has proved to be a lot of fun plus a little profit.

Our late summer activities were highlighted with a Panhellenic Tea held at Ker-Deen Inn. Six sororities participated in a panel discussion of different phases of college life. About fifty graduating high school seniors attended.

Our October meeting was held at the home of Patty Caudill Eubank. Our routine business included discussing rushing results, collecting dues from our members and officers' reports. Our November meeting was a morning brunch at Peg Amrine McKenzie's home. Vivian again gave us an interesting report on some of our more illustrious alumnae. Sue Nolte Doege was our December hostess. Each girl brought her lunch wrapped in a fancy package or a ribboned brown sack. We then exchanged our lunches. This idea was fun and full of surprises. Our February hostess was Jane Bangert Bosart. Our meeting was highlighted with the election of officers, each of whom were unanimously elected. In March we journeyed to Yellow Springs to the Antioch College Tea Room for a luncheon. Here we met Mrs. Jessie Graham Bryson, who is a niece of one of our Founders' Fannie Thomson, Mrs. Bryson is not a Pi Beta Phi because fraternities were temporarily suspended when she was at Monmouth College. However her daughter, who accompanied Mrs. Bryson is a Pi Beta Phi, as are several women in the family. Mrs. Bryson holds Pi Beta Phi very close to her heart.

Our year closed with the May meeting at the lovely new home of Barbara Dennerlein Miller, our new president.

MRS. JAMES GIANAKOPOULOS

TOLEDO

The Toledo Alumnae Club has enjoyed a variety of activities this year, with a membership of about 150.

The club has had nine dinner meetings, which included such programs as: "Life Behind the Iron Curtain," Toledo Port Authority, and the annual Luella Cummings Christmas party. Our men were also entertained by a dessert meeting and an extremely interesting talk on "The Dead Sea Scrolls."

A social function was also planned for the spring to honor the men. Swimming, volleyball, and bridge were some of the activities for this "Fun Night."

"Crafts in Creation," a fund raising project held in October at the University of Toledo Armory, was the highlight of our club's activity this year. Every kind of Arrowcraft material was represented and sold at this huge sale open to the public. To add an extra attraction to the sale, local craftsmen set up booths to demonstrate such crafts as weaving, wood carving, rug hooking, pottery, and canning. Each member made her favorite recipe so that a dessert smorgasbord could be served throughout the afternoon.

Our profit was so great that we were able to divide our earnings among three groups: Settlement School, Luella Cummings School, and the Children's Hospital.

This was the first large project of this type the club had ever undertaken, and we felt it was extremely successful and worth repeating.

Besides our big Arrowcraft sale, we continued as in the past, to sell Christmas and occasional wrapping paper. JANET SMITH

YOUNGSTOWN-WARREN

The Youngstown-Warren (Ohio) Area Club has five scheduled meetings for the 1959-1960 year. Our first get together was a potluck buffet held at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Haberkorn in Youngstown on October 22. We were happy to have Mrs. Carr E. Dix, our province vice president, as our honored guest. Helen brought us up to date with Pi Beta Phi news with a special account of the Settlement School and a display of Arrowcraft articles.

Preceding the meeting, the Executive Committee met with Mrs. Dix at the home of Mrs. Wiley S. Garrett, our president, in Niles. Mrs. Dix was helpful to us in many ways keeping us in touch with Pi Beta Phi at the national level.

Our second meeting was a dessert luncheon on November 14, at the home of Miss Marie O'Rourke in Warren. Following the business meeting, a skit was presented by several of the members. After this, the Program Chairman, Mrs. Glen A. Job conducted a quiz on the History of Pi Beta Phi. The answers written by those present were quite varied, and for the most part quite wrong, with the result that we refreshed our memories with the correct information.

On December 29, Mrs. Gordon W. Harrison entertained the alumnae and actives who were home for Christmas, at a delightful morning coffee hour. This is always an enjoyable affair as the actives report on their chapter activities on their respective campuses.

We reconvened on Saturday, April 30 for a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Herman D. Stevens of Youngstown when we honored our Founders.

The year ended with a gala picnic on May 28 at the home of Mrs. William Wood of Warren. VIRGINIA WARD JOHNSTON

DELTA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON-ALEXANDRIA

"Music of the Tennessee Hill Country" came alive for members of the Arlington-Alexandria Alumnae Club at our first meeting of 1959-60. For our Settlement School meeting, Mr. George Foss of the National Symphony Orchestra sang the ballads, played the rare dulcimer, and explained the background of some of the well known ballads.

Members for many years have talked about having more speakers, and more stimulating program material. This year we worked hard to plan a program with this need in mind. As we reside in the suburbs of the nation's capital, we felt we should be able to draw upon some of the many interesting speakers in this area. Pi Beta Phi talent within our own club headed our November meeting. (Mrs. Carrington Williams, a Wisconsin B, served on President Eisenhower's U. S. People to People Program.) In January, Mr. James Bostain of the Foreign Service Institute held our rapt attention as he explained the myths of language and the peculiarities of the English language in particular. In February, a special tour of the National Gallery of Art had an excellent turnout for a daytime event. Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, our province vice president, and three D. C. A seniors joined us for lunch before the tour. Flower Decoration was our very feminine theme for the March meeting. After our April Founders' Day Luncheon with the Junior Alumnae Club of Washington, D.C. as hosts, May closed the year with a buffet supper followed by a program of Pi Beta Phi History. We hope to continue this type of program next year, blending our Pi Beta Phi interests with the members' interest in current events and the community around them. We hope in this way to attract new members while holding on to our faithful membership.

Our club has continued its support and interest in the Paxton Home for Children in Leesburg, Virginia. Our October fund raising project enabled us to present a check to the home. We continue to enjoy a traditional Christmas party (a catered dinner dance this year), a semi-monthly bridge meeting, a couples' bridge meeting held once a month, and a couples' dinner group.

ENID SPANGENBERGER MILES

BALTIMORE

The Baltimore Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi started the season in September with a dessert, after which Mrs. O. J. Theobald showed slides of Out of the Way Places in Maryland, introducing to many of us some unique, charming and historical landmarks.

Our record was broken this year in the results of our annual Settlement School Tea and Sale held at the home of Mrs. Fred I. Archibald, under the capable joint chairmanship of Mrs. Stuart Smith and Miss Gertrude Kutzlep. The tea is steadily becoming an occasion in Baltimore looked forward to by increasing numbers of Pi Beta Phi friends. Mrs. Archibald had given us a talk last year on Settlement School and her work as a member of the national committee; the worthwhileness of our record breaking sale made us all proud.

December brought another looked forward to get together with the Christmas present game at Katherine Black Massenbergs' home where we selected, begged and bartered for temptingly desirable fancies, many being inexpensive homemade bits of practical fluff.

In December we also set in motion something we've always wanted to do: a Kaffee Klatsch was held at the apartment of Miss Anne von Schwerdtner for members of active Pi Beta Phi chapters who are in Baltimore over the holidays. We enjoyed so much having the Pi Beta Phi meet one another that we are including this as another annual party.

The much anticipated covered dish supper was again held at the home of Mrs. R. Keith Winters. Here our husbands or dates join us in a strictly social evening, usually the most important problem being who made that pie, or when we get together again.

Our more serious thought were brought out in open on Chapter Loyalty Day and at the Founders' Day Dinner where we recalled the success and enjoyment of the year's activities based on our past and present fraternal hopes and endeavors.

The year's program was concluded with a lunch and card party at Mrs. Richard P. Franke's in May, with all of us looking forward to the work and plans for the approaching fall.

ANNE K. VON SCHWERDTNER

CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

Activities of the Charleston Alumnae Club started in August with members participating in the Panhellenic teas given for local girls going away to college.

In September we had a buffet supper and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Brawley. This meeting is always well attended and seems to get us off to a good start.

October was busy as usual with Settlement School sales being held. Mrs. J. T. Dunn, chairman, reported that we had had a very successful year.

Our Delta Province Vice President, Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, visited with us at our November meeting and gave a very interesting and inspiring talk.

For the Christmas meeting a luncheon was held for actives and pledges home for the holidays. One active from each school represented gave us a brief report on Pi Beta Phi activities on her campus.

In January we had the constitutional meeting with an interesting program and quiz, and in February a short business meeting followed by a slide trip to Europe.

A bridge party was held in March with quarters from each corner going to West Virginia A. The slate of new officers was presented and plans for a bake sale in April were completed.

A Founders' Day luncheon is scheduled for April at which time officers will be installed. May's meeting will be the last business session for the year, but a picnic with the actives in June is planned for our final get together. BARBARA CLARK MCELWEE

CLARKSBURG

After much discussion with other alumnae groups, we planned our own rush party this year. For the past several years we have had a Panhellenic Party. Some were pleased with the results, and others thought we would do better with individual parties. This year we had a Dessert at one of the member's home and found that we had closer contact with the rushees.

Our meetings have been very interesting with fashion shows, art exhibits and book reviews and the attendance has been very good this year.

We planned a Founders' Day Dinner in April and the Morgantown Club and Pi Beta Phis from Fairmont were our guests.

ROSANNE ROGERS

MORGANTOWN

On September 1, 1959, Mrs. Edwin Crooks attended a workshop in Williamsburg, Virginia, for the Chairmen of the Advisory Councils in Δ Province. On November 7, the Morgantown Alumnae Club were hostesses at a luncheon for the new pledges of West Virginia A Lakeview Country Club.

In memory of Mrs. Thomas Ferguson who died in April of 1959, the alumnae club gave stock to the daughters of Mrs. Ferguson; Mrs. Truman Sayre of Beckley, West Virginia, and Mrs. Mendell Spears of New Orleans, Louisiana, also Pi Beta Phi Alumnae.

During our February meeting the actives presented a skit which won for Suzanne Walker the national award for the outstanding Settlement School Program. On February 14, many alumnae attended the annual Initiation banquet of West Virginia A, held in the Hotel Morgan. During our March meeting we had a 'white elephant' sale with the Mothers' Club to help raise money for the new addition that has already been built onto the chapter house. On April 23 we went to Clarksburg for our annual Founders' Day Luncheon which we always observe with the Fairmont and Clarksburg Alumnae Clubs.

MARY BATEMAN DAVIS

RICHMOND

Under the leadership of our president, Ruth Hansen, the May L. Keller Club has had a good year. It was decided to resume the supper meetings which had been popular and profitable a few years ago. At these several hostesses provide the party, the money each member pays going into the treasury.

The first supper in October was at Mary Williams', and as no one is willing to miss one of her good meals it was well attended. An intensive checking of the ARROW list of Pi Beta Phis in this area brought us some much appreciated new members. Some of these gave a morning "coffee" in November, at which Dr. Keller, in her informal and original way, told the Settlement School story. Also in November, Pauline Turnbull, Settlement School Chairman, sold Arrowcraft at the Panhellenic bazaar. Later that month she and Dr. Keller had a very successful sale of it and a tea at their home.

Our Christmas supper party was at Peggy Decker's. The usual presents for the babies at the State Farm were collected, as well as clothing for the women there. Our members exchanged gifts. Another very pleasant supper was held at Sally Belle Sydner's in February, but the one planned for March with Mary Louise Wellman had to be cancelled because of deep snow. Another meeting was held at a later date at which officers were elected.

Founders' Day was spent with Virginia F at Williamsburg on April 23. The final activity of the club year was the attendance at the Annual Meeting at the State Farm of the Elizabeth Kates Foundation, our project for helping the women prisoners there.

AGNES PRICE CLEVELAND

ROANOKE

The Roanoke Club has had an interesting and successful year under the able leadership of Marilyn Boardman, our president.

On August 11 we attended the annual Panhellenic fashion show, after which we, along with the other fraternal alumnae groups in Roanoke, met the local candidates for fall rushing. This event was followed up on August 27 when we had our first yearly meeting at the home of Mrs. John Boardman to discuss the girls recommended as Pi Beta Phi candidates.

In November, the Shenandoah Club was the setting for a luncheon meeting and our Settlement School Sale. This was the first year we had combined the two, and since it resulted in our most successful sale to date we shall probably repeat this event next year.

Election of officers and an entertaining program constituted our February meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis P. Jervey, Jr.

As has been the enjoyable custom in past years, we ended our year with a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Charles Mayhew. Our new officers were installed at the meeting; then we joined our husbands, who were our guests, for a very festive evening.

SOUTHERN WEST VIRGINIA

Southern West Virginia's Alumnae Club meetings this year have encircled a thumbnail sketch of Pi Beta Phi Alumnae activities; the past represented by contemplation of our Founders; the present constituting discussion led by our province vice president; and the future being projected by an active guest's programme.

Our year began in April with a stirring programme paying tribute to the Founders of Pi Beta Phi and Clara Brownlee Hutchinson in particular.

In June another delightful "Bring Your Own Sandwiches" luncheon and meeting was held at the summer home of Mrs. Robert Ashworth, Flat Top Lake. The regular alumnae business meeting was enhanced by Miss Kitty Walker, Virginia A., and a spontaneous programme bringing us closer once again to active chapter life.

Hazardous weather conditions were very nearly responsible for cancelling our November meeting with Mrs. B. Harrison Lingo, province vice president, but thanks to Mrs. Alfred Hoblitzell of the Charleston Alumnae Club, she and Mrs. Lingo were able to join us at the Beckley Glass House for a delightfully interesting and educational meeting.

The perfect ending to a happy year came when one of our members, Mrs. Fred Meyer, attended the formal ceremony at West Virginia A. in Morgantown where four area girls, including her daughter, were initiated.

ELIZABETH ARCHIBALD CARRUTHERS

WASHINGTON, D.C., SENIOR

An afternoon in the country and buffet supper for Pi Beta Phis and their husbands at the beautiful Virginia estate of Helen Harrington Compton opened the season for the Washington, D.C. Alumnae Club. Walks down by the Potomac and views of the surrounding Blue Ridge Mountains on an October afternoon are rare treats for Washington cliff dwellers. Later in the month at a Panhellenic tea in the A.A.U.W. Clubrooms, our N.P.C. Delegate, Marianne Reid Wild, was one of the honored guests.

In November the annual Settlement School tea and Arrowcraft sale was held in the lovely home of Jane Ames. Members brought guests and the sale with the unusually varied selection of exquisite crafts was quite successful.

In December at the home of Irene Boysen, the club observed Pi Beta Phi Loyalty Day with guest speaker, our Golden Arrow Pi Beta Phi, Mrs. Frank Nickels. She has long been outstanding in many fields of women's work, and was in the nucleus of the group which later became the United Board of Church Women and which founded colleges in China, Japan, India and Korea. In India where there had been no advanced educational opportunities for girls, this Board established seven women's colleges. Mrs. Nickels personally has visited these schools in her world travels.

Maryland B repeated last year's "practice rush party" with alumnae members acting as rushes at a party in the chapter house. Highly successful were the results!

In January a book review followed dessert at Regina Wenchell's, and in February Dr. Elgin Groseclose, noted economist and husband of our president, Louise Williams Groseclose, gave a stimulating address. At our March meeting, Mrs. Milton Stauffer spoke on "Moslem Women Today." Our Founders' Day luncheon at Columbia Country Club which the area clubs and two active chapters celebrate together, was a very special event this year with our Grand President, Alice Weber Mansfield, as speaker. The year came to a close with the annual May supper and installation of officers at the home of Maurine Dulin, and left us enthusiastically looking ahead to next year.

DOROTHY GRIFIN SMITH

WASHINGTON, D.C., JUNIOR

The Junior Club of Washington, D.C., has enjoyed a most rewarding and interesting year under the leadership of Carmelita Hunter, president.

We started our year in September with a delightful dinner party that was truly a "gourmet's tour through the Pi Beta Phi Cook Book." All the dishes served were from recipes in our own fine cook book.

The club held its annual fund raising card party in October under the chairmanship of Lynne Bennett.

A speaker from D.C. Village, an old peoples' home and hospital, spoke to us at our November meeting about their need for, and appreciation of, gift contributions and volunteer services. At our next meeting each member of the group brought samples of their choice holiday decorations and cooking ideas, which we auctioned off to each other for the benefit of D.C. Village.

The club, in order to raise money for its annual donations, sponsored a theatre party at the Arena Stage and also sold Pi Beta Phi cook books at the Senior Club's Settlement School Tea.

"You Are There," a play depicting April 1867, Monmouth, Illinois, was presented for the group at the January meeting by some of our own members.

The club was very pleased to have Tatiana Akhonor, a Pi Beta Phi alumna, speak at our March meeting on her interesting trip to Moscow as a Guide at the 1959 U.S. Exhibition in Moscow.

In April, we were hostesses for a luncheon commemorating Founders' Day for the local active chapters and alumnae clubs. We were very fortunate to have Mrs. Alice W. Mansfield, Grand President, as our guest speaker.

DIANE WETHERILL

WILMINGTON

The year's activities began in September with our usual planning meeting, followed in October by the Settlement School tea and sale.

In November we were privileged to have a visit from Mrs. Lingo who brought us a great deal of information and a report from the last Convention to which we were unable to send a delegate. She met with the Executive Committee for lunch at the home of our president, Betty Hughes, later going to Janet Chipman's for dessert and the regular meeting.

Our average attendance of twenty four exploded into nearly seventy Pi Beta Phis and husbands for the Christmas party at Margaret Cairns' gracious country home. We sang Christmas carols and fraternity songs and Santa Claus read our traditional Christmas poem in which each one present was mentioned with an appropriate rhyme.

We are somewhat handicapped in our promotion of Pi Beta Phi by not being near an active chapter but had a benefit bridge in January to enable us to send a contribution to Pennsylvania T at Dickinson College.

At the February meeting Lee Hall who participated in the Experiment in International Living told us of her experiences and showed colored slides of Switzerland. In March we continued our custom of having a speaker on a subject of civic importance. Mrs. Samuel Lord's subject was "Block Blight."

The Founders' Day dinner at the Gages' new home reminded us of the early days of our fraternity while colored slides from Settlement School gave us a vivid glimpse of a modern aspect.

A busy and successful year was most pleasantly brought to a close with a picnic at Dor Wood's highlighted by a white elephant auction which gave our convention fund a substantial boost.

ANN ARBOR

Our Ann Arbor Alumnae Club began the fall season with an October business and social meeting at the chapter house. Under the qualified leadership of Mrs. Darrell A. Campbell, president, activities were planned to accommodate the varied interests and schedules of our members. In November a morning coffee hour at the home of Mrs. Paul Barker gave members an opportunity to exchange holiday ideas and recipes. Pre-school age children held their own social tete-a-tete in the Barker's recreation room.

A wine dinner at the Women's City Club in January featured gourmet foods prepared by the members. Guests of honor were Mrs. Albert P. Teetzel, Jr. of Grosse Pointe, Vice President of Epsilon Province, and Mr. Teetzel. A movie and demonstration was given by the Wine Advisory Board of California. This was the first meeting in recent years to include husbands.

"Making the Most of Yourself" was the title of a talk given by Mrs. Ed Connors at the February meeting at the home of Mrs. Homer Heath. In March senior actives were honored at a brunch given by the alumnae at Mrs. George Lowrey's home. Throughout the year junior and senior actives met in small groups with alumnae in a series of Sunday night suppers which proved an excellent opportunity for better acquaintance.

A final luncheon at the Michigan Union in April honored both our Pi Beta Phi Founders and our new pledges. It included the Michigan B Board, the active chapter and the alumnae club. The luncheon concluded our official activities and left each of us looking ahead with renewed enthusiasm for next year's projects.

NANCY F. PEARSON

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club has had an interesting and successful year under the leadership of Ema Jean Harvie.

Our program for the year consists of six luncheon and four evening meetings, opening with a picnic supper for the actives living in and around Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. A demonstration of Christmas decorations by two of our members, Ethel Watt and Martina McKinney, and a visit from Ruth Ann Teetzel, province vice president, in January, were of particular interest.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the Detroit, Grosse Pointe, and North Woodward Alumnae Clubs at the Lochmoor Club, with the Grosse Pointe Club acting as hostess for the joint celebration.

Our fund raising projects were most enjoyable, as well as profitable. In November, a military whist party for Pi Beta Phis and their husbands was well attended.

Our annual Curling Party at the Detroit Curling Club in March was an outstanding event of the year. Proceeds from this are donated to the Michigan Foundation for Kidney Disease.

Arrowcraft was again displayed at a morning coffee in November. Sitting service is provided, the informality of the party has appealed to both the Pi Beta Phis and their guests, and sales have been gratifying.

BETTY ROSE HILDER

DETROIT

A Fall Get Together held in Dearborn launched the Detroit Alumnae Club into a busy year of activities. Mrs. Maxine Morse, Epsilon Province President, described, "The Active Chapter." Mrs. Ruth Ann Teetzel, Epsilon Province Vice President, described, "Gatlinburg Workshop."

This has also been a year of reorganization for the Detroit Alumnae Club. Instead of being comprised of three individual groups there are now only two: the Dearborn Group and the West Group. The third group has become the North Woodward Alumnae Club.

October 10, the Bloomfield Hills, Grosse Pointe, and North Woodward Clubs joined the Detroit Club in giving a tea honoring Marianne Wild, National Panhellenic Delegate, at the home of Sally Ericke. All Panhellenic delegates of women's fraternities in this area were invited.

Profitable money making activities for the year include: a dessert, bridge, and fashion show, October 7, held by the Dearborn Group, a joint Arrowcraft tea and sale, October 26, and the annual sale of calendars by the West Group.

The Grosse Pointe, North Woodward, and Detroit Alumnae Clubs have for some time maintained a Wayne State University scholarship fund to aid a student in the field of education of the mentally retarded. After changing the terms to include the education of the emotionally disturbed, the clubs are happy to have two applicants.

Each spring the alumnae clubs in and around the metropolitan area join together in a Founders' Day luncheon. What a wonderful time to renew friendships! This year the luncheon was held at the Lockmoor Country Club by the Grosse Pointe Alumnae Club.

MARILYN MARCH CARL

GRAND RAPIDS

The Grand Rapids Alumnae Club began the year with an active membership of thirty four, under the leadership of Alice Robertson Lucas.

At the September meeting, and during the following weeks, we planned and held a successful rummage sale. Directed by Mary Ann Watson Emens, we decided to sell Christmas and seasonal gift wrappings and ribbons, which have brought continuous profit throughout the year. We always have an active connection with our local Panhellenic, this year three of our members served on the decorations committee of the Panhellenic Ball.

Since one of our major projects for several years has been the local Lincoln School for Retarded Children, in October we asked the director, Miss Margaret Knowles, to speak to us about their present activity and needs.

In November the officers planned a dinner to honor our Epsilon Province Vice President, Mrs. Albert P. Teetzel, Jr. She brought news of the Settlement School and other fraternity activities to our regular meeting, as well as suggesting new projects for our consideration.

The Christmas spirit prevailed in December with a social meeting and exchange of gifts. Dorothy Tuttle Hagerman reviewed Vance Packard's The Status Seekers in January.

For February we sent a written invitation to all of our inactive alumnae, urging the importance and value of their support, and our need of their help in making a success of the Settlement School sale, planned for April 21. It was a very happy and profitable meeting, with a record attendance of alumnae.

In March one of our Community Ambassadors gave us an excellent talk, with beautiful slides, of her summer trip to Israel. A Cooky-shine was planned for April, which also celebrated Founders' Day. Our officers were elected at the March meeting, with installation at the annual spring banquet in May.

All through the years Kristine Olsen Clark has taken orders for Settlement School articles. Patsy Cox has promoted magazine subscriptions, and an occasional raffle of donated articles at our regular meetings have helped to increase our treasury.

ANN PHIPPS BENNER

JACKSON

The Jackson Alumnae Club began the 1959-60 season with an active membership of 27, under the leadership of Ardath Hageman Bootes.

On October 12, we met in the lovely home of Mrs. Clyde Avis and plans were made for Settlement School Magazine sales. Our November meeting was announced in the Latin phrase, "Nunc Tredecim Sumus," and those of us who did not remember our Latin were delightfully surprised to find this to be a birthday party honoring the 13 years since the Jackson Alumnae Club had been formed. The birthday party was at the home of Mrs. Phillip Riley, Jr. Mrs. Jay Davies gave an interesting history of the Jackson Club and a beautiful birthday cake decorated with 13 candles, a gold arrow on wine and blue icing was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jay Davies was our hostess in January at which time we had a study of the Constitution. Our February meeting celebrated Chapter Loyalty Day at the home of Mrs. Thomas Lockwood. We had each been asked to give a short sketch of the history and points of interest of our own individual chapters. We found many interesting things to relate and it was great fun reminiscing about active days.

We held our election of officers in March at the home of Mrs. H. B. Schuiling. April found us celebrating Founders' Day with a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Johnson. The Albion Alumnae Club were our guests at this affair.

In May, we held our installation of officers and concluded the year's activities with our annual husbands' party at the home of Mrs. J. V. Butterfield.

Our season began in October with our annual dinner meeting at the home of Donna Payton Corey. In December we met with the actives at the chapter house for a Christmas party and floral demonstration by a local florist.

A novel and fund raising meeting found us at the Hager-Fox Heating & Refrigeration Company in January. We took a very interesting kitchen tour for which they paid us per capita. We entertained the pledges at Mary Jackson Tranter's home in February and were shown some excellent Settlement School slides by our president, Janet Smith Wright.

March found us at the very lovely new home of Marian Klockow Jago for an afternoon dessert bridge and election of officers. We celebrated Founders' Day in April and held a novel bazaar where each member brought something she had made, and the items were auctioned off by two "member auctioneers."

Barbara Strand Soderquist's home was the scene for our Senior Farewell party in May. Each girl received a gift from the Settlement School.

A very successful new project this year was a cookie sale. Each week different members baked cookies which were purchased by the active chapter out of a snack fund they had set aside. The girls were very happy with home baking, and their purchases boosted our treasury.

Three other profit projects rounded out our year. Our annual rummage sale was held in February, and fruit cake and ribbon were sold in December.

JOAN LAWLER STAPLETON

LONDON

The London Alumnae Club entertained the pledges and actives at a barbecue at the summer home of Mrs. Blackburn, October 4. This has become an annual affair and provides an excellent opportunity for past and present members of the chapter to become better acquainted.

The highlight of our year was the Twenty fifth Anniversary Dinner held at Glen Allen Restaurant, November 14. Eighteen of the forty charter members of Ontario B were present as well as eighty active and alumnae members. All charter members were presented with appropriately engraved silver dishes. Mrs. Mary Scott, a Pi Beta Phi from Toronto who was province vice president at the time Ontario B received its charter, was the guest speaker for the evening. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Scott's experiences as a Pi Beta Phi and her interesting contacts with Ontario B when the charter was presented.

In January the Alumnae Executive and the Alumnae Advisory Board entertained Mrs. Marianne Wild, National Panhellenic Council delegate, at a buffet supper. Mrs. Wild was visiting the active chapter and the members of the alumnae were pleased to have the opportunity of meeting her.

September found the Southwestern Michigan Alumnae Club busy helping at the City Panhellenic reception for girls about to enter college.

Mrs. Teetzl visited the club in November and had several suggestions for a small group. The members are looking forward to trying the idea of small coffees and using a sample suitcase of Arrowcraft work.

Pi Beta Phi actives in the area were guests of the club at the annual Christmas Luncheon. Also a guest this year was Mrs. Fred Smart, President of the City Panhellenic.

The Anderson Alumnae Club was very happy to make many contributions of money to local and national organizations. On the local scale the club sponsored a girl to summer camp in the name of The American Youth Foundation. Also, monetary help was sent to the active chapters of Butler, Ball State, and DePauw University. Next year plans have been made to extend help to other Indiana active chapters. On the national level contributions to Holt House and Settlement School were doubled over last year.

A member of the Anderson group, Mary Brennan, has been appointed Pi Beta Phi Times Coordinator for Z Province.

At this time plans were made for the Settlement School tea which was held at the chapter house in November. More than one hundred guests enjoyed the display of Settlement School products so beautifully arranged by Mrs. David Little and the delicious tea furnished by Mrs. John Coleman. The sale, directed by Mrs. William Reed and Mrs. James Moore, was not only a financial success, total sales amounted to over $1,000, but provided an opportunity for us to bring the community into our beautiful chapter house and demonstrate vividly the great work that Pi Beta Phi is doing.

We "adopted" a family recommended by the welfare department and at Christmas time sent them food and clothing made up from contributions from our members and articles purchased by the club.

In January, Mrs. Martha White, Interior Decorator at the L. S. Ayres Company of Indianapolis, discussed modern trends in decorating.

HAMMOND

With our new President, Mrs. Keith Lorentzen presiding, the Hammond, Indiana, Alumnae Club began a productive and entertaining year at their first meeting held in October. Our numbers were happily increased with the addition of four new members. A suggestion to send all area members a copy of our yearbook has proved a welcome means of encouraging local Pi Beta Phis to support club activities. The meeting was mainly devoted to elaboration of the year's activities, and to organization of committees for said projects.

In November we were privileged to host province vice president Barbara Douglas McQuiston. In honor of the occasion the evening was a combination dinner and meeting. An inspirational talk on Settlement School, Pi Beta Phi Workshop and the "Red Barn" was the highlight along with a display of some of the lovely new Arrowcraft work.

A welcome change of pace in February was an evening's entertainment keyed to varied tastes in the form of bridge, music and sewing. In the order of committee reports, news of new area pledges was read.

Comparing notes with the Gary Alumnae Club at our combined meeting in April was delightful. The social portion of the meeting was planned with an eye to making it possible to visit with everyone. The Kokomo Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Audra Lindley, began its third year with a lawn party in August at the home of Rowene Hall. Guests included active Pi Beta Phis and three alumnae from Peru, Indiana who have been invited to join with us.

Judy Moore was hostess to the group in November when we devoted the meeting to discussing rushing procedures and the Settlement School. We voted to send the profits from a successful sale of Pi Beta Phi Cookbooks to the Settlement School. Several members reported having sent cookie treats to Indiana I.

The January meeting at Ann Tupper's home centered around discussing ways to raise money for the club so that we can increase our donations to the Pi Beta Phi funds. We decided to have an Arrowcraft sale in the near future and are now eagerly preparing for it.

Our club is extremely proud that Kokomo now lists eight active and pledge Pi Beta Phis, whereas at the time of the club's organization three years ago there were none. All club members have been active this year and have served on at least one committee. JOAN ZACHARIAS SCHEEL

LAFAYETTE

The Lafayette Alumnae club has had a very busy and profitable year. We started the year with a picnic for husbands and guests. It was a social meeting, giving all of the older members a chance to get acquainted with new members in the community. It was our first meeting of this sort and we found it to be most successful.

In November we had a work meeting to plan a bake sale and make Christmas decorations to supplement our Settlement School Sale that was held in December. Mrs. Ralph McQuiston, our province vice president, visited us at this meeting and talked about the Pi Beta Phi program while we worked. We found we accomplished much plus having a very enjoyable meeting.

December found us very busy with the Settlement School Sale. Since we are lucky enough to have a chapter house in our community, the sale was held there. We enlarged our Settlement School order and supplemented it as I have mentioned above. The sale was definitely a success and we are pleased to say we made $757.

In February we had a joint meeting with the Mothers' Club at the chapter house. It gave the alumnae members a chance to meet the mothers of the girls and to see the chapter house which had just been redecorated.

In April we planned a picnic for the new pledges from the active chapter and in May we had a luncheon honoring the graduating seniors from the active chapter.

We were very sorry to lose one of our most active members, Faith Otten Clark, in November. The Faith Clark Memorial Fund has been established in her memory; this fund will be used for a permanent addition to the chapter house.

A meeting was held each month, but these are the highlights of the year. MRS. PAULA WOODS

MUNCIE

The Muncie Alumnae Club held its first meeting of the year in October at the home of Wanda Quinn. Plans were made for the Settlement School tea and Arrowcraft Sale, which was held at the home of Emily Wallace later in October. The sale was quite successful under the able chairmanship of Lucy Warner. In November a dessert bridge was enjoyed at her home. Each member took several pounds of butter mints to be sold as a fund raising project.

Mary Baldwin was the hostess for a Christmas coffee honoring the actives home for the holidays. The new pledges and actives of Indiana Z were guests at the Chapter Loyalty Day dinner during January in the chapter suite in Rodgers Hall.

The Constitution and History of Pi Beta Phi were discussed and a quiz was given in February, before a dessert bridge at the home of Ruth McClintock. We also discussed enlarging our Arrowcraft Sale for next year. A carry in dinner was featured at the March meeting and election of officers took place. This was followed by a white elephant sale. Plans were made for a rummage sale, which was held in April. Founders' day was celebrated in April with a song fest and Cooky-shine at the home of Audrey Hostetter. At the May meeting the new officers were installed. The annual husbands' picnic at the home of Beverly Stassen completed the year. RUTH BAUMEISTER LANUM

RICHMOND, INDIANA

Furnishing their favorite dishes, Richmond Alumnae opened the year in September with a buffet luncheon at the home of Edith Hoopingarner Lee, club president. Following an October dinner meeting at Parker's Restaurant, Margaret Curtin Mills presented an inspiring program on Settlement School. We were very pleased with the response to our Settlement School sale and tea, held at Parker's in November.

During the holiday season, Eugenia Mathew Kleinknecht offered her lovely home as the setting for our annual Mother-Daughter coffee, where we gave a special welcome to our newly pledged daughter, Jane East. Later in the year we were thrilled to learn that the hostess's daughter, Ann Kleinknecht, had also pledged Pi Beta Phi.

Chapter Loyalty Day was celebrated in January, when Amelia Rodefeld Meadows was hostess for dessert bridge. Many Pi Beta Phis attended the Panhellenic Dinner Dance held in February at the Forest Hills Country Club. The busy month of March brought our election of officers followed by dessert bridge at the home of Mildred May Hammer. On March 26 our club was well represented at the State Panhellenic Convention, held in Richmond this year. Shortly after Easter our club helped with the Panhellenic party for high school seniors.

To conclude the year's activities, Elizabeth Paul Holden entertained the group at a Founders' Day luncheon. After the installation of officers, our hostess ably demonstrated making her famous dinner and sweet rolls that had disappeared so quickly during luncheon. As summer was fast approaching, all of our thoughts were focused on Convention, as well as another successful year for our Richmond Club.

JODY DOWNING TURNER

SOUTH BEND-MISHAWAKA

This year we are happy to report a membership of well over sixty. We started our year with an excellent book review by Betty Farner, who in January became the bride of William Meyer of South Bend. This was followed in October by an always well attended bridge party. Our Settlement School Tea was its usual big success and well over $1000 worth of Pi Beta Phi merchandise went into South Bend and Mishawaka homes. We ended the Christmas season with a tea for our actives at the Indiana Club. In January Mr. Dave Pugh, a local florist and the father of a Pi Beta Phi, gave us a floral arranging demonstration. Three lucky gals went home with his works of art.

We looked forward in March to a talk on Japan by Mary Grace. In April we had our Founders' Day dinner and in May we went to lovely Diamond Lake for our annual Pot Luck dinner.

We are especially proud of three of our girls; Charlotte Ford, who is the story lady on a charming children's program called Story Corner, Kathy Stillwagon is Miss Kathy on the Romper Room program and Juanita Williams is doing a new television series for the Junior League entitled Teen Magazine. It looks like the Pi Beta Phis have taken over the local television programs.

CAROLYN FUNK FOSTER

SOUTHEASTERN INDIANA

The Southeastern Indiana Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club celebrates a very successful year. Attendance has been high and the club very united. Club membership has increased this year, and the members are striving for more sister alumnae.

Excellent luncheons and club meetings have been held in the homes of members, Mrs. Margaret Woodliff Morrison, and Mrs. Dorothy Deem Townson, both of Greensburg; and also at the historical old Durbin Inn Hotel at Rushville.

The most successful program given this year, was of colored slides with corresponding commentary, showing Settlement School. After the program Arrowcraft articles from Settlement School were shown and plans were made for different members to take them to her home and invite friends to see, admire, and purchase these items. This fine program was under the direction of the Settlement School Chairman, Mrs. Margaret Good Shazer, assisted by Mrs. Barbara McKinney Welch.

The club has high hopes and some good prospects for a delegate to go to June Convention. This would be the first delegate ever to attend; as you can see the club is justifiably hopeful.

The last meeting was in May at the home of Mrs. Katherine Meahl Crenshaw, and was a steak fry. This was a fine way to end up the year's activities.

DONNA HOWISON CRENSHAW

SOUTHWESTERN INDIANA

A swimming party at the home of Betty Berry in July for the members of the alumnae club, active members and pledges served as a refreshing reminder that our club year would soon be starting again.

The highlight of our fall meetings was a visit in October from our province vice president, Mrs. Ralph McQuiston. The meeting included a delightful luncheon followed by our regular monthly meeting and an informative talk by Mrs. McQuiston on Pi Beta Phi affairs, both nationally and locally.

A Settlement School tea planned for December had to be cancelled because of illness. Our February meeting was held at the home of Frances Maier. A lovely luncheon was prepared by Frances and her hostesses. It was our largest meeting so far for the club year and represented the perfect picture of Pi Beta Phi charm and companionship.

In March, we chose an outstanding sophomore from one of the Indiana Chapters who received the Sophomore Award presented by our club each year at State Day. Anne Marie Brockman from Indiana A, Purdue University, won the award for 1959.

Our annual Cooky-shine was in April, and the year's activities came to a close in June with a swimming party and pitch in dinner, our husbands will be our guests, at the home of our President, Betty Hovda.

RUTH E. SMITH

TERRE HAUTE

The Terre Haute Alumnae Club under the fine leadership of its president, Charlotte Stewart Harker, opened the year by welcoming the visit of Mrs. Ralph McQuiston, province vice president. Mrs. McQuiston dined with the officers before the regular evening business meeting. She discussed many aspects of the Fraternity and showed us beautiful samples from Settlement School.

At Christmas an informal party was held for the actives at the home of Grace James Gerrish. Games and refreshments made the activity one of the outstanding functions of the year.

Our members have always played an active role in Terre Haute Panhellenic. This year Connie Henschen Bland, our official representative, will be Panhellenic president.

We are proud to announce that we have elected our new officers for 1960-61. They are as follows: President, Grace James Gerrish; Vice President, Phyllis Schafer Whitney; Rec. Secretary, Lucy Peters Callahan; Corres. Secretary, Betty Doty Hamilton; Treasurer, Florence Berck Whitehead.

JEAN CRAFT REIFENBERG

ETA PROVINCE

CHAPEL HILL

The Chapel Hill Alumnae Club had a very successful year under the leadership of Mary Margaret Russel.

In the fall the club was very fortunate to have a visit from Lucille Jennings, our province vice president. Several of her helpful suggestions have already been put to use.

In addition to helping the local active chapter with their rushing season, the club has been busy revising the chapter's patroness list. We were deeply saddened with the passing of Mrs. Sedalia Gold, our "Mama G.", as she was affectionately called, and a committee under the guidance of Susan Saunders is establishing a memorial fund in Mama G's memory. Besides the regular scheduled club meetings, there was a Pi Phi Week. This was a period of time in which the members could conduct various money raising projects on their own. This was quite successful, and combined with "The Pig," a sort of travelling bake sale with a piggy bank, helped to boost up our sad treasury.

The club has grown in membership this year, and with the new members, many new ideas have come forth. We hope to incorporate these into our club activities for the next year, and hope that any alumnae who plan to move to this area will please look us up.

LEE DOSSEL

CHARLOTTE

This fall we welcomed to Charlotte and our alumnae club Lucille Jennings, our province vice president. We all gathered together for a delicious dinner at the home of one of our members and a business meeting followed.

Our programs this year have been interesting and varied. We have had a commentary of the Settlement School slides, a speech by the Civil Defense Director of our County and for our Christmas meeting we had a luncheon and fashion show at Ivey's Tulip Terrace.

We have helped Panhellenic raise money for scholarships by selling foil wrapping paper and chances on a mink stole.

Our plans for this spring called for several money making projects including a rummage sale and participating in a local community clubs award contest.

PAT SCHAFFER

GATLINBURG

The Little Pigeon Alumnae Club has tried its wings and found them capable of carrying out a rather venturesome flight in its first year.

September saw the first money making project, an evening Fashion Show which was a success, socially as well as financially.

The regular meetings for our fifteen members are held in the afternoon on the second Monday of each month. The November meeting was an exception in that it was a luncheon in honor of our province vice president, Lucille Jennings, at the home of Mattie Huff Lawson.

The January program proved to be really inspiring when each member told what it had meant and still means to her, to be a Pi Beta Phi. We later expressed regret that we had not taken a tape recording.

Club members have begun accumulating interesting objects for the Settlement School Museum.

Our program for March, was "Quiz Show on Constitution"; April, Founders' Day with the Knoxville Alumnae Club. And having covered the required themes for meetings, our May meeting was "Just for Fun."

CAROLYN SCHWEIZER MUELLER

KNOXVILLE

The Knoxville Alumnae Club officially began the year with a dinner for the new pledges, though much behind the scenes work had been done earlier to help Tennessee I rush. The club has had a very successful year with Mary Miller serving as a very capable and interested president. In November, Lucile Jennings, province vice president, made her visit and brought with her a fuller picture of the national fraternity's activities which sparked a great deal of enthusiasm among the members. In February, the club sponsored a Bow and Arrow style show and benefit bridge party to raise money for the Sophomore Scholarship Fund. Though a heavy snow tried to disrupt things completely, we were able to hold it, and it was a lovely party. We were so glad that Marion Mueller and Elizabeth Rue could come for it. Among the many door prizes were Arrowcraft and Pi Beta Phi cookbooks. March also was a party month. After a business meeting, Tennessee I gave an informal party for the club which was enjoyed by everyone. Founders' Day was celebrated in April with the alumnae from Gatlinburg and the active chapter, and it was as always a wonderful experience for everyone. The last meeting was held to finish up the business for the year and to install new officers.

Among the other activities of the club members, a few held the Knoxville Chapter of the National Foundation of the March of Dimes by typing letters.

A helpful change this year was the division of the city into zones to facilitate telephoning and transportation. In many ways the club seemed to wear a "new look" this year due to the time and effort put into planning interesting programs and activities by Mary Miller and many of the club officers. In all ways, it has been a wonderful year, and the club is closer and stronger than ever before.

JANET SKIDMORE SKINNER

LEXINGTON

The Lexington Alumnae Club's activities really started last summer when our representative on the newly formed City Panhellenic Council took a most active part in the plans, preparations and fulfillment of a tea for girls from all over central Kentucky who were going to college. Our representative was Henrietta Jernigan. The tea proved to be most informative and quite successful. Plans are already under way for another tea with hopes for an even more successful party.

In the fall an Arrowcraft sale was held at the Lansdowne Club, where $350 in merchandise was sold.

On November 6 we were honored by a visit from our province vice president, Miss S. Lucile Jennings. After a luncheon meeting with the board at the Lexington Country Club an informal buffet supper was held at the home of Mrs. Cliff Thompson, Jr. We were happy to welcome several new members.

Lexington Alumnae Club again sponsored a scholarship of $50.00 to the outstanding, unaffiliated freshman girl at the University of Kentucky. This award was presented at the annual "Stars in the Night" program in March. We have presented this award for the past several years.

During the year we gave two showers for members moving away. Anne Shevlin moved to Knoxville, Tennessee, and Nancy Breeding, former province vice president, moved to Louisville, Kentucky. We certainly did hate to lose them and feel the respective clubs in those cities will find themselves very lucky to have them as members.

Founders' Day was celebrated the latter part of April with a luncheon meeting. Out of town members were our honored guests.

MRS. WENDELL C. SETZER

MEMPHIS

In September the Memphis Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi opened an enthusiastic year with a membership coffee at the home of Kitty Schaffer Sanders. All local alumnae were invited and a large group attended. Our October meeting was held at the home of Helen Cahill Jones at which time a report on rushing was given by Ginny Towner.

In November we were visited by province vice president Lucile Jennings. All officers and committee chairmen met with her for lunch at the home of Betty Dickmeyer Kelley. And that evening the entire membership met for dinner at the home of Irene Deloney Morse to meet Lucile and hear her reports.

The annual Christmas dinner party for husbands was held at Mary Lib Lemly's home. In January our regular pot luck luncheon was held at the home of Ginny Sloan Towner. Betty Kelley presented a program on Settlement School.

The February meeting, held at Betty Fulton Drake's, was the time for choosing the recipient of the Memphis Alumnae Club's Sophomore Award for Eta Province. Karen Hanke, North Carolina B, was selected to receive the annual cup and a gift which were presented to her on Founders' Day. At this time it saddened us to say goodbye to Judy Morrison Woodham who has been our able president this year. She has moved to Ohio.

Frances Hayes Smith was the hostess for the March meeting. Election of officers was held and a program on the Constitution was presented. The Telephone Bridge to raise money for Settlement School was so successful last year that it was repeated this year. Jean Hollister Getz was chairman of the Founders' Day banquet held in April, and the new officers were installed at this time. Our last meeting was a picnic held annually in May honoring all the husbands.

FRANCES HAYES SMITH

NASHVILLE

The Nashville Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began their fall meetings in September and planned the annual membership coffee to be held during the visit of Lucile Jennings, our province vice president. We had a lovely party and a most interesting and informative meeting with Miss Jennings.

December marked our Christmas party for the handicapped children and families attending the Bill Wilkerson Hearing and Speech Center. Santa entertained the children and presented them with gifts and goodies.

Two night meetings have been held during the year; we have found them to be the most successful and best attended meetings. They have also allowed active Pi Beta Phis at Vanderbilt to meet with us and we hope to encourage and increase these meetings.

Again we had our second "white elephant" sale, and an evening party for the new Pi Beta Phi pledges and their big sisters. The wild bidding and surprise packages brought by all provided the entertainment; and the proceeds, $40 last year, went to the pledges for their project. Earlier, the alumnae select pledges to sponsor at the party and guide during the year. Next, a formal Founders' Day banquet was planned for the actives. This year we were very honored to have a Pi Beta Phi author, Miss Mary Alice Jones, creator of religious books for children, speak. In the future, we hope to have an informal Founders' Day celebration that would include more alumnae, and therefore increase the friendships and participation of all Pi Beta Phis, past and present.

Spring is the time of our yearly benefit, a luncheon and style show, for the Bill Wilkerson Hearing and Speech Center. This year each alumna put forth her best and made our 1960 benefit the best yet.

GEORGEANNA WHITE PAYNE

THETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA

The first meeting of the Atlanta Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, with Mrs. J. M. Youngblood as President, began with a supper party at the home of Miss Penny Barnett. Pi Beta Phi actives were our guests and a most enjoyable evening was spent in lovely surroundings. We were happy to have had a visit in October from our province vice president, Kay Tanton.

In November we held a most successful benefit bridge. The proceeds from fifty two tables totaling $220 was to be used for our expenses for the year. December was a very busy month, with a Settlement School sale; a Christmas party at the home of Dot Kimbrough where members exchanged Christmas gifts and enjoyed delightful refreshments; and a Mother-Daughter coffee during the Christmas holiday, for chapter actives and their mothers in the Atlanta area, at the home of Hilda Henry.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club was co-hostess for the Panhellenic Officers held in January. This was a rewarding event. Election of Officers took place at the March meeting and the Club gathered for a banquet to commemorate Founders' Day in April.

The alumnae club has, as always, kept up its fine work with the Atlanta Childs Home. Each month two of our members go to the Home with all the necessary items for a birthday party. This project is most rewarding to each and every member who has had a part of the joy in helping the children.

We divided the alumnae club in to area groups for this year, each area holding meetings frequently, and all area groups getting together at regular general meetings. This has been a successful venture and each group has taken on an individual project.

PHYLLIS EDWARDS

BIRMINGHAM

The Birmingham Alumnae Club has a day group and a night group; a joint meeting was held on October 15 for a very interesting message from Theta Province Vice President, Kay Tanton. The officers had a dinner meeting with her earlier.

On October 27, the annual sale of Arrowcraft products from Settlement School was held and the attendance was good. The net sales amounted to $460.

To encourage attendance this year the day group has tried several things; first, the day of meeting was changed from Friday to Tuesday, and, second, those who can do so come early to play bridge before regular luncheon and business meetings.

The night group has enjoyed a worthwhile project in addition to their regular meetings. Once each month several alumnae have given a small party at the Opportunity Center for Retarded Children, taking along various useful gifts each time.

In January Alabama A was hostess at a coffee in celebration of Chapter Loyalty Day. The club presented to Alabama A a contribution on their carpet fund, and to Alabama B a luggage rack from Settlement School.

Founders' Day, according to custom, was celebrated here with the active groups in Alabama at a luncheon.

For the city Panhellenic Council, the Birmingham Alumnae Club will be in charge of summer orientation for all Birmingham girls interested in sororities.

ANN ANDREWS HILL

CLEARWATER

The Clearwater, Florida, Alumnae Club, organized in April 1958 and chartered in May 1959, is weathering its first year well.

We met with the St. Petersburg club for Founders' Day in 1959 and held a separate meeting before the luncheon. We voted to apply for a charter and elected our officers for the next year.

Mrs. Harold Martens, our president has worked untiringly to organize the group, and appoint committee chairmen, all of whom are functioning most efficiently.

There are forty five active members in the club, and we hope to draw more as time goes on, for Florida is constantly drawing new people and some of them are bound to be Pi Beta Phis.

At our first meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Starbird and her daughter Dale, in September, we had a joint rush party and business meeting. We entertained about forty prospective college freshmen who had designated that they planned to attend colleges having Pi Beta Phi chapters.

In November we were honored to have as our guest, Mrs. Kathryn Tanton, Theta Province Vice President. Her talk to us was both interesting and instructive. We discussed the September rush party and learned that two of our rushees had pledged Pi Beta Phi at Stetson.

We had two more meetings this year, one in March and one in April. I am sure that when we close our books for the year, we will all feel that we have made a good beginning for an active happy Pi Beta Phi group.

JANET HAM

DE LAND

The good news that the Pi Beta Phi apartment on the Stetson University campus had been completely redecorated using an oriental theme greeted members of the De Land Alumnae Club at the September meeting in the home of Marguerite McKenzie. A report of the Alumnae Advisory Committee concerning rushing was given by Mrs. McKenzie after which the members enjoyed a film covering her recent cruise to Australia and other South Pacific islands. The group decided to provide refreshments once a month for the active chapter's meetings.

A luncheon meeting was held in November at the De Land Country Club in honor of Kathryn Leutwiler Tanton, our province vice president.

Everyone looked forward to the Christmas dinner which is given annually for the active chapter. This year the festivities were held in the Florida Power Lounge with effective decorations by Sue Wilson Perdue, our president, and Jeanne Maxwell Gardner. The actives presented a program on the Settlement School, followed by the singing of Christmas carols. Each member brought a child's gift to help provide a better Christmas for needy children in the area.

Members were saddened by the passing of Annie Nadine Holden, a charter member of Florida A, on December 16, 1959. Miss Holden was the first initiate of this chapter on January 30, 1913.

At the March meeting officers for the coming year were elected. Floy Jean Pflugh Hale presented a program on the Constitution and History of the Fraternity. A Founders' Day dinner in April with both actives and alumnae participating brought the year's activities to a close.

BARBARA RUTTER DYKES

FORT LAUDERDALE

The ARROW of Pi Beta Phi has been shining brightly in Broward County this year.

As a group the Fort Lauderdale Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of our President, Joan Bunnell Gambill, sailed ahead with a highly successful Settlement School Tea and Sale in October.

In November, a business meeting was held with Kay Leutwiler Tanton presiding as the new providence vice president.

Our two strictly social meetings included a Christmas Open House for pledges, actives and Pi Beta Phi husbands. More than seventy people joined the fun. In February, a Pot-Luck Supper with husbands was enjoyed at the home of Mary Jane Hall Law and the annual dinner dance in May, concluded a year of activities.

Other meetings attended and enjoyed by a large number of our group included a Cooky-shine, elections and a white elephant sale.

BETTIE SCHMIDT TONKING

JACKSONVILLE

Both Jacksonville clubs worked earnestly throughout last summer under the guidance of Rush Chairman, Wilma Broward, to plan and execute two fine rush parties. Tea House of the Pi Phi Moon in oriental theme and decor at the home of Becky Conley and an informal beach party at Ruth Bishop's.

The appointment of our own Becky Conley as new Theta Province President gave us all added pride and confidence. Her numerous news reports of the active chapters progress have been most enlightening.

With a large crowd of alumnae and friends we began our year at the home of Kay Durkee, with our annual Settlement School Tea and Arrow Craft sale.

October, afforded the rare privilege of entertaining Kay Tanton, new providence vice president. Meetings and socials gave us the chance to not only increase our knowledge of Pi Beta Phi, but to get to know Kay as the warm and personable leader of our clubs.

Educational and entertaining movies of Hawaii, made and narrated by Wilna Budd, made a most enjoyable November meeting at Betty Jane Foy's.

Christmas tidings were spread within our ranks by the annual Mother-Daughter Coffee. Among those honored were actives, pledges with their mothers, and the high school daughters of our members.

In January, the original Constitution of the Jacksonville Club was reviewed with a look back over our progress since 1927.

Jean Berger played hostess to the joint Founders' Day supper in April.

The year closed in a gleeful mood with our annual fun party, with husbands, dates and plenty of food.

BETTY FOY

MIAMI

The Miami Alumnae Club has enjoyed a successful year under the leadership of Barbara Smith Zankl. The paid membership of the club has increased to eighty members.

In September, the Miami Alumnae Club, with the K Δ Alumnae Club and the Δ Φ E Alumnae Club, was hostess to the Panhellenic Association. Lenora Williams King served as chairman of the Pi Beta Phi Committee.

In October the club held its annual rummage sale, which proved to be a financial success. This is the major money-raising project for the Miami Club. Marjorie Anderson Noble was chairman of this sale. At the October meeting, Barbara Wilson Eakle displayed stationery, Christmas cards, wrappings, and novelties which were sold to club members. The club was very proud of its representation at the Panhellenic Fashion Show which was held at the new women's dormitory at the University of Miami. Barbara Binns was commentator and Carolyn Irwin Feimster modeled in the show.

In November, the club held a tea for the purpose of displaying and selling Settlement School goods in the beautiful home of Mrs. Edward S. Christiansen, Virginia Prater Wooley was chairman of this most successful social event.

On December 22, the club held its annual Christmas Dance honoring the Miami actives and pledges at the Coral Gables Country Club. A coffee was also given during the holidays in honor of the actives, pledges, and their mothers so that the club might know the girls better. This was held at the home of Ruth Rogers Davenport with Lenora Williams King as chairman.

The club continued its local project of aid to the children of migrant farm workers in the area by contributing clothing, books, toilet articles, food, and money. The need was especially acute this year due to an untimely cold wave which destroyed crops which are picked by these workers.

The club enjoyed a pleasant and inspirational visit from Kathryn Leutwiler Tanton, our province vice president, during our February meeting.

The club invited the Ft. Lauderdale Alumnae Club and the new West Palm Beach Alumnae Club to join in celebration of Founders' Day at a luncheon at the Everglades Hotel. New officers were installed at the April meeting at the home of Babbie Jorden Meadows.

MARY ETHEL PRATHER

MONTGOMERY

Thanks to Maxwell Air Force Base, the Montgomery Alumnae Club, "melting pot" for Pi Beta Phis from all over the world, has had another successful and rewarding year under the competent leadership of Mrs. Robert Robinson.

The Anita Van de Voort Alumnae Club's year was highlighted by the enjoyable and instructive visit of province vice president Kay Tanton, whom we honored with a luncheon at the Blue Moon Inn.

We participated in the University of Alabama and Auburn rush by our recommendations of girls, and we assisted in the Auburn rush jungle party by attending and furnishing the food. Miss Madge Kennedy attended the initiation banquet at Auburn along with Mrs. Margaret Ward. We gave an award to the pledge with the highest scholarship.

Pi Beta Phi is represented in Montgomery Panhellenic by Mrs. Frank Hawthorne, who serves as secretary. We contributed to the Panhellenic fashion show with two members acting as models and by large attendance of our group.

An informative talk presented by Mrs. Jane Suydam on Settlement School, after her visit there this summer, was received with enthusiasm by the group, as we are extremely interested in this project.

Luncheons—coffees—and planned monthly programs accentuated by informal discussions and friendly chatter kept us in a delightful social whirl. Thoroughly enjoyed by the group was the Christmas party held at the lovely home of Mrs. Eugene Ballard.

Mrs. John Webb and Mrs. Robert Robinson attended the Birmingham Founders' Day Banquet, and our own year of sisterhood in the wine and blue was completed with our own Founders' Day Banquet and election of officers at the Montgomery Country Club.

PAT WILLIAMSON

ORLANDO-WINTER PARK

Founders' Day, 1959, was celebrated at a luncheon at the Racquet Club in Winter Park. Active members of Florida I were guests and the new officers for the year were installed. In July Betty Robinson entertained at a covered dish supper at the Coterie Club, at which a number of actives from Florida State and Stetson were present. It was decided to have regular meetings on the third Tuesday of each month at 8:00 P.M. The ARROW addressograph list for this area, consisting of approximately two hundred fifty names, was discussed and it was urged that members who have moved send in their correct addresses in order to save time and expense for the ARROW. The September meeting was held at the home of Marjorie Tucker. Kathryn Leutwiler Tanton, province vice president, visited the club on November 5 and was entertained by Beverly McCall at a luncheon for the Executive Board and an evening meeting at the home of Dorothy Ellis. It was a most inspirational meeting, Mrs. Tanton providing a great deal of interesting information. The Christmas dinner at Pearce's Restaurant was well attended, with the usual exchange of gifts and contribution of toys for charity. The Christmas dance at beautiful Rio Pinar Country Club was a huge success, financially and otherwise. The January meeting was at the home of Irene Pattishall and a White Elephant sale for the benefit of the treasury. Pi Beta Phi had a representation of six members at the Panhellenic Installation luncheon, including a former president of Panhellenic, Carolyn Rich Trumbo. Two honors have been bestowed upon Joan Tavel Van Akin. She was chosen "Young Teacher of the Year" at Boone High School where she teaches chemistry, and was also appointed State Recommendations Chairman for Pi Beta Phi in Florida. The March meeting was devoted to Pi Beta Phi History. We feel that we have had a most successful year under the competent leadership of Beverly McCall.

RUBY BURTNES KEFGEN

ST. PETERSBURG

An inspiring year of growth, enjoyment and achievement, has been shared by our forty five members, ably led by our President, Mary Heles Puffer.

Our programs have been varied, timely and informative, covering bridge, child behavior, Settlement School, and parliamentary procedure.

Highlights from the past year include the pleasure of meeting Mrs. G. C. Tanton, our new province vice president, at a lovely buffet supper in the home of Mrs. George Bartlett in November. Five Golden Arrows were guests of honor at our Christmas Coffee. Corsages of wine and blue flowers presented each honoree were fashioned by Irene Brand, who herself shortly becomes our sixth Golden Arrow. A memorable occasion in January was our Loyalty Day Luncheon, at which time we presented a plaque to Mary Tolman in recognition of the many hours of devotion she has given to our chapter.

We have supported the local mental health program since its inception in 1958 by contributing funds toward furnishing of a reception room for the new mental health department at Mound Park Hospital. Funds for this project have been raised through a highly successful Valentine Day Luncheon and Fashion Show, held this year at Sunset Country Club. Mrs. J. Keyes Aton, a member of our chapter, and owner of the Mari Rae Shop, provided the attractive fashions modeled by six of our alumnae members. A winter and spring rummage sale has substantially increased our contribution.

Founders' Day Luncheon in April, a Cooky-shine in May, and a final June meeting on Rushing will complete our adopt.

We were delighted to have the local Panhellenic adopt a suggestion made by Mrs. Tanton which advances the Panhellenic Preview Party for Seniors from a post graduation date to a Saturday prior to graduation. It is hoped this will improve attendance.

JEAN BURROWS HERZIG

TAMPA

The Tampa Alumnae Club began a successful and busy year by holding its First Settlement School Sale in nearly ten years at the lovely homes of Julia Zachary St. Johns and Virginia Lee Mullen. Goods in the amount of $450 were sold. Under the able leadership of Carolyn Chambers Jones, alumnae president, we organized neighborhood membership teams and sent out newsletters which were continued throughout the year to encourage participation and membership. New members introduced at the September meeting were Patricia Angell Tunno, Pat Houk Evans and Lou Parmelee Hatton.

A breakfast rush party at the home of Ida Belle Sheftall Shenks was enjoyed by all members and rushees. Four Tampa girls were pledged to Pi Beta Phi this year. Susan Sossamon Twomey was chairman of a committee to draw up the first Panhellenic Constitution for Tampa. The Pi Beta Phi Fraternity was also in charge of the Panhellenic Forum for high school girls. We all enjoyed the interesting visit from Kay Tanton, our new province vice president.

The annual Christmas luncheon was held at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club with pledges and actives as honored guests. Beautiful table decorations were made by Elizabeth Spring Conner. This year we have initiated at morning coffee meeting as well as our night dinner meetings to enable more members to attend. This has proved very successful and we plan to continue with these meetings.

Loyalty Day was celebrated with a re-enactment of the Pledge Ceremony. In March we held a very successful benefit bridge. We have set aside $200 for a possible new chapter at The University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida, $150 for future Settlement School Sale and party and $150 to add to the national allotment for this year's Convention delegate.

LOU PARMELEE HATTON

WEST PALM BEACH

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of West Palm Beach held its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Albert Astholtz. This was our first meeting under our new charter. Our charter originally began in 1927 but since that time we had become somewhat inactive.

We now have a program of four meetings a year which has worked out very well for us. Our year also included two luncheons, one of them being our Christmas holiday luncheon. This proved to be quite a gala affair at the Maison LaFite on Palm Beach. Many of our alumnae were present for this occasion and two of our new pledges—Dianne Rickett from Florida State University and Becky Amlin from Stetson University.

Founders' Day was the scene of our second luncheon. This was held at Burdine's Tea Room in West Palm Beach. Mrs. Clifford Webster gave the program.

We felt fortunate in having province officer Mrs. Kay Tanton at our meeting on February 16.

Our officers and other members were all quite enthusiastic over all duties and activities throughout the year, and we feel that our year was definitely a successful one.

ANNE HULL VARN

IOTA PROVINCE

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The Arlington Heights Alumnae Club has had another busy and interesting year. Our officers who have served us so well have been Rosemary Welden Whiteley, President; Barbara Barry Schmitz, Vice-President; Carolyn Roberts Smith, Recording Secretary; and Florence Pettigrew Hannum, Treasurer. The membership continues to grow and we now have fifty active members.

Plans for the Settlement School Coffees were discussed at the first meeting with the chairman Kay Bateman Maun and her assistant Juanita Winbigler Reinhard. Over $2,000 was netted at the three coffees held at the homes of Gladys Osborne Hall, Jane McConley Faneer, and Marjorie Coy Barnett.

Marilyn Woodford Martin has planned some very stimulating programs this year. In November we were interested to hear about the work that Elsie Murray Hubbard does as Chairman of the Chaperon Committee and Gladys Hall's work as Scholarship Chairman of Iota Province. Our two social meetings were a Christmas party with Sue Simons Kehe and the annual Valentine bridge party with Rosemary Whiteley.

Plans were made for the annual Founders' Day Banquet which was held at the Inverness Country Club and Martha Crane from Station WLS, Chicago, was the guest speaker. Last summer we enjoyed entertaining the actives living in this area. Helen Behmer Batts was the hostess and Virginia Estes Burfeind and Rosemary Whiteley helped make the arrangements.

Last fall we were all proud when our Northwest Community Hospital was opened for it was made possible by all those living in this area. Virginia Burfeind has been one of the busy members of the Woman's Auxiliary. Sue Kehe is working with the Northwest Art Center in redecorating a house that they acquired for their use.

In February we were sorry to say goodbye to Barbara Shmitz who has moved to Menlo Park, California.

MARY WARBURTON ANDERSON

AVON-BUSHNELL

The Libbie Brook Gaddis Alumnae Club of Avon and Bushnell, Illinois, opened its year with a planned potluck picnic supper at the home of Mrs. M. R. Lillie. This was our active chapter meeting and two Monmouth College actives who were present told of rushing plans. Alumnae members offered some interesting anecdotes of rushing in past years.

Our Settlement School meeting was held in October at the home of Mrs. Don Smith. She presented the program by reading interesting and informative parts of the Settlement School report in the ARROW. Arrow Craft goods were displayed for sale.

Our Christmas luncheon was traditionally held at the home of Miss Ruth Woods. A social hour followed a brief business meeting.

In March we met in the home of Mrs. Dan Williamson for our Constitution meeting. It was reported that March of Dimes contributions from the club had been made to the drives in both Avon and Bushnell in January.

For our fifth and final meeting of the year we traveled to Holt House to observe Founders' Day, thus giving it additional significance.

Every two years our club places a book in both the Avon library and the Bushnell library. This was the year to do so, and a book on antiques was selected.

DONNA WISNER HATCH

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA

The Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club opened a busy year at the September meeting with a report on the previous spring rushing by the Illinois Z rush captain.

On October 13 a coffee was given at the home of Mrs. W. L. Julian honoring Mrs. T. N. Van Zant, new house mother for Illinois Z. Also in October, a party was held for the pledges at the chapter house. Mrs. Julian presented a very interesting and informative talk on the History of the Settlement School, its founding and development.

The Settlement School sale took place in early November at the Urbana-Lincoln Motor Lodge and was a tremendous success, exceeding all previous years, due to the efforts of Mrs. W. L.

Collins, Settlement School chairman, and her committee, and to the support and cooperation of all members.

The program for the November meeting was one of flower arrangements presented by a 4-H area club. In December an informal alumnae Mother-Daughter potluck supper was given at the homes of three of the alumnae mothers. The Mother-Daughter program continues to be very successful, effecting much closer contact and understanding between the alumnae and Illinois Z.

The annual Senior Breakfast, at which the alumnae honor the February and June graduates, was held at the Champaign County Country Club and was its usual success.

The alumnae club was pleased and honored that Mrs. Marian Keck Simmons accepted its invitation to be Founders' Day speaker.

JANE GRAY

CHICAGO SOUTH

Our first large meeting this year was a cooky-shine at the home of Barbara Rosenburger Doster on September 23. A giant cookie decorated in wine and blue and lighted with candles was passed while we sang the traditional song. Our program was unusual table decorations demonstrated by Mrs. Raymond Bohne.

In November our club decided that our A, I and Z groups would all meet together each month instead of separately. This has given us a closer Pi Beta Phi relationship with each member. In October and November we had Settlement School coffees for neighbors and friends which were quite successful.

Our fund raising project this year was selling vacuum cans of Fannie May toffee. Everyone was so enthusiastic that we reordered another shipment. The annual Christmas party was held at the home of Nancy Marshall Scheidt.

The Settlement School cooky-shine was held in March at the home of Mary Jane Brittain Buddig. Ann Grasse Guelle showed slides of the school and conducted the sale of crafts.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with the Chicago South Suburban Club in April with a luncheon at Mickleberry's.

PEGGY HUGHES LEONI

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN

Chicago West Suburban Pi Beta Phi Club started the fall season with our annual Settlement School Tea and Sale at the Hinsdale Community Center. This year's theme was a circus motif with gay clouds and balloons used as a background for our Settlement School booths. Preceding the tea and sale we entertained our guests with a style show. Pi Beta Phis, their children and grandchildren (who stole the show) modeled clothing and hats from local shops. This is one of our most successful fund raising ideas and everyone looks forward to coming each year.

Another meeting that made a hit with both of our groups was a hat demonstration given by Miss Elizabeth Ruddy at the home of Mrs. John W. Porter. The hat that was created was put up for auction at the meeting and many Pi Beta Phis are thinking of taking a "do it yourself" course in hat making. We hope to see some results at our auction in April.

At Christmas time we entertained the actives and pledges in our area at a special Christmas brunch given at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Riddit. The actives and pledges enjoyed getting together to talk over the differences and similarities of their respective schools, dates, classes and customs.

We looked forward this spring to our Founders' Day Banquet which was held at the Old Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale. Plans and arrangements this year were made by the Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Group. We also anticipated our Pot Luck Dinner and our Pi Beta Phi dance "Arrow Carousel" held in May.

RAE WILLKIE

DECATUR

The Decatur Alumnae started this fall with our annual pot luck supper for the chapter. During the summer the alumnae and the chapter had worked together and had redecorated the house recreation room as a lounge. The addition of new drapes, donated and made by the Shelbyville Alumnae, a few new pieces of furniture and a coat of paint on the old worked magic. The out of town girls were pleased and surprised when they returned in the fall.

In January we had a visit from our province vice president, Edna Duncan. The meeting was a desert bridge at the lovely home of Nancy Quigle. I am sure we all had a wonderful time.

Our April Founders' Day Dinner was at the Decatur Country Club, and our year ended with the May Breakfast.

KAY KEITH WARNER

DU PAGE COUNTY

September found the Nina Harris Allen Club enjoying its traditional buffet supper at Glenita Hobbs Fairfield's.

Meetings alternate between Elmhurst and Glen Ellyn. In October Winifred Licht Pellet was luncheon hostess.

Barbara Bible Baker entertained when our province vice president brought us a message of inspiration and helpful advice.

Pi Beta Phi actives and pledges were guests at a holiday coffee at Janet Baumrucher's. This was so delightful that it is hoped they will all be back to renew acquaintances next year.

Although it was an icy January day the nineteen who gathered at Verna Meyer Hammerschmidt's soon felt warmly acquainted after a roll call of brief biographies and the relating of "my most embarrassing moment."

This friendly gayety carried over to the February luncheon at Elizabeth Armanen Hutchison's where election of officers was followed by lively visiting.

White elephant auctions have always meant profit and fun so Gladys Lloyd Campbell's meeting was given over to this activity. The sale of Social Capers continues as a major fund raiser.

A number of our members are taking a very active part in the Elmhurst Panhellenic which provides scholarships for Elmhurst College girls; gives an advisory tea to college bound high school graduates, and prepares sheets of rushing information for the sororities.

Our monetary gift to Independence Playground in Chicago was used to buy charcoal grills.

For the second year we joined the Oak Park-River Forest, West Suburban and neighboring clubs in celebrating Founders' Day with a dinner at the Old Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale.

Climaxing the year is a picnic at Florence Crain Henry's.

ELLA HARSHMAN KOUCKY

GALESBURG

A very pleasant time was enjoyed at our first meeting on September 9 in the lovely farm home of Mrs. H. V. Inness. It was in the form of a dessert meeting.

Our picnic with the actives this year was held at Mrs. Hugh Harris's and all plans for rushing were completed. Calendars and cook books were sold.

Pledging was held at Mrs. Ella Long's in November followed by an attractive dinner party given by the alumnae at the Galesburg Club.

Mrs. David Allensworth was again hostess to our delightful Christmas party. A clever gift exchange added to the festivities.

The lovely home of Mrs. Dale Rowe found alumnae gathering for a dessert meeting in January. Arrow Craft was attractively displayed and sold.

On a snowy evening in February, twenty seven alumnae ventured out for a dinner meeting with Mrs. Thomas Doyle as the delightful hostess. Dessert was enjoyed in March in the attractive home of Mrs. M. H. Eddy.

Miss Amy B. Onken was a special guest in April at our Founders' Day Celebration.

A Settlement School program was given in May in the charming home of Mrs. Willis Terry, Jr.

The final meeting of the year, a summer picnic, was held on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Robert Hoopes. Bits of fall rushing news were heard and a delightful Convention report was given by Mrs. David Allensworth.

GLORIA R. BOHAN

HINSDALE

Hinsdale Township Alumnae Club was organized in January of 1959 as a group operating under the West Suburban Club charter. We received our own charter in January, 1960 and now have twenty four active members, with new members being added to the rolls at each meeting.

Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, alternating between afternoons and evenings, so that more area residents can share in our Pi Beta Phi fellowship.

We joined with West Suburban Club in their fall Settlement School benefit and sale, and in addition, presented Settlement School items for sale to our club members at our February and March meetings.

We celebrated Founders' Day with the Oak Park-River Forest Club as hostesses, at a dinner meeting at the Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale on April 28.

As a philanthropic project, our club has collected yarn and materials to be used in the occupational therapy work of the King Bruwaert House for elderly ladies. We have also made slipper socks, bean bags and puppets for use in the children's ward of Cook County Hospital.

Tentative plans of our club for this year included a spring tea for new area Pi Beta Phis and pledges, and a summer theater benefit.

We hope that any Pi Beta Phi in the Hinsdale area, interested in affiliating with our group, will get in touch with our club secretary.

BETTY KENDIG RISETER

ILLINOIS FOX RIVER VALLEY

Illinois Fox River Valley Alumnae Club opened another successful club year last October with a meeting in the home of our president, Mrs. James Marks. In November, we met with Mrs. William Warren to make final plans for Husbands' Night. Held in December at one of the local restaurants, our Christmas party for our husbands was a huge success. Even Santa Claus put in an appearance!

The Settlement School program was a clever song skit given at the home of Mrs. Robert Watson in January. Mrs. Ernest C. Miller was our hostess in March when the Constitution and History program was presented by Mrs. Douglas Arundale.

Our Founders' Day dinner in April was a high point, and we ended our year in June with a luncheon for active members home from college.

CAROL ORR FLEMING

JACKSONVILLE

The Amy B. Onken Alumnae Club held five meetings under the faithful leadership of Amy Burnham Onken. The club year opened with the traditional picnic at the lovely country home of Helen Waddell Drury. We were honored and delighted to have Edna Earl Duncan, province vice president, speak to us on the ideals and aims of Pi Beta Phi at our October meeting. In April Founders' Day was observed, with the Springfield Alumnae Club as our guests, at the Jacksonville Country Club. We welcomed two members, Anne Garrity Brooks and Beverly Williams Jackson, new in this area, into the club.

MARCY HAEGER MCQUILLAN

JOLIET

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Joliet has held luncheon meetings this year and have had better attendance. At the country home of Rachael Horner Meadows, Lockport, we had our first meeting at which time the report of our rushing chairman, Betty Eldred, was given. Settlement school and Arrowcraft sales were discussed. Our History and Constitution program was in the home of Nancy Buchanan Tezak. Emily Cheesebro Carson entertained the club for the March meeting with the program on the Nearest Active Chapter and the Election of Officers. Founders' Day was celebrated with Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Clubs at a banquet held at the Fred Harvey Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale. Our last meeting of the year was at the home of Muriel North Harpham, Spring Creek Woods, Lockport, with the program on Holt House and Installation of Officers.

We were sorry to lose our president, Ann Sideil Lyman who moved to Springfield, Ill., on March 1. Honoring her departure, a morning coffee was held at the home of our Vice President, Patricia Cleary Carney.

On November 5, our club held a very successful Arrowcraft sale amounting to $1100. The hours were from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on a very rainy day. Doughnuts and coffee were served in the morning and tea and home made cookies in the afternoon. We also sold recipes of the cookies which were served, postal cards with names and addresses and a special name recipe card. This sale was held in the lovely new home of Jane Fryer Reynolds, Sugar Creek Hills, Joliet. We were especially pleased with the results of this sale.

Mrs. Edna Duncan, our province vice president, visited our club in February. We had our dinner and meeting at the Joliet Country Club.

In the fall we joined with others in giving a Panhellenic tea for girls going away to college. In February, we also participated in a Panhellenic banquet. We have silent auctions and white elephant sales to make money. Our local project has been folding cancer bandages.

We have one Golden Arrow member, Blanche Lindsey Woods. Our club had a birthday party for her and presented her with a Golden Arrow pin.

LUCILLE LORIMER EVANS

LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS

The Lake County Alumnae Club officially opened the year with a Saturday luncheon hosted by Chris Fredericks at her home in Lake Bluff. We had one unofficial get together in July in Libertyville at a patio party with our husbands given by Nancy Ross. Fall activities included a Settlement School program by Katherine Flynn.

Our traditional Christmas potluck with our husbands took place again at the home of Mary Ann Owens in Waukegan. Everybody ate their fill of her delicious beef stroganoff.

In January the roads were clear enough for the Waukeganites to travel to Libertyville. Mrs. Newkirk of Schenectady, N.Y., the mother of Mitzi Frost, honored us by her presence, and told us many stories of the early days of Pi Beta Phi and amusing convention experiences she has had.

Ann Banes entertained our club with a dessert luncheon in February which was in the honor of our visiting province vice president, Mrs. Duncan.

In March we elected officers and gave a baby food shower for Phyllis Doescher, and in April had our Founders' Day meeting with the Arrow cake and candlelighting ceremony.

We successfully closed the year with a picnic for Lake County actives of Pi Beta Phi.

JOAN W. SAAS

MILTON TOWNSHIP

"Fun With Hats" opened a busy and varied year for the Milton Township Alumnae Club. Reba Dobbins brought her beautiful fall collection of hats and told us how they were created.

We got in the Christmas spirit early when a toy demonstration gave us an opportunity to do some shopping in the comfort of Mary Marks' home and gave our treasury a nice little boost.

Mrs. Perry Duncan visited us in November and we were fortunate enough to obtain a film showing the fabulous Christmas decorations of Silvestri. These are commercial decorations used in store windows throughout the country.

Our annual December potluck supper with the husbands was again a big success.

February's program was a Chinese auction which netted our treasury a nice little sum and sent each Pi Beta Phi home with some delicious home made pastry. Each member brought something she baked and it was sold to the highest bidder.

The end of the year was as good as the beginning with a talk on "Can You Go Camping With Your Children and Survive?", a flower arranging demonstration, and as always the fun and fellowship of Pi Beta Phi.

DOROTHY DAVIS COLLINS

MONMOUTH

Under the able leadership of President Alice Jensen, the Monmouth Alumnae Club has had a very successful year. Our monthly dinner meetings have been very well attended.

In September we planned for the year, and heard a report from the Rush Chairman regarding rushing activities.

Our October meeting was devoted to the new pledges to Illinois A and the active chapter. At a dinner served in their honor at Holt House, it was a real pleasure to meet the many fine girls who made this year's pledge class so outstanding.

The country home of Althea Gittings was a delightful innovation for our November meeting. We were fortunate and privileged to hear about Lois Kritzer's recent trip around the world.

We planned a party for the active chapter and pledges in December to celebrate their very outstanding progress in scholarship. They led the campus scholastically for the first time in many years, and we are very, very proud of them.

January was quite busy for us. We met with the Mothers' Club at Holt House for a dessert bridge, and later in the month we worked hard to make a Rummage Sale very successful.

We met with the A E Δ, K Δ, and K K Γ Alumnae groups at the Panhellenic House in March. The occasion was inspired by a need for equipment for the Recreation Room in that building, and very enjoyable benefit bridge solved the problem nicely.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the active chapter at Holt House in April. The seniors were also honored at this meeting.

BETTY WHITMAN JACKSON

NORTH SHORE

The year 1959-60 started out most successfully in September with a Cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. J. W. Moulding, Jr. Again this year, as last, the North Shore Club has 100 paid members.

The Board of Directors were hostesses at our traditional luncheon meeting in October and the members were entertained with a fascinating and enlightening talk by Mr. William J. Wilson of Wilson Galleries.

In November we invited our friends to tea at the Pi Beta Phi House on the Northwestern Campus where we held our annual Settlement School Arrowcraft Sale.

At our December meeting we were entertained with Travel Slides of Africa and Alaska by one of our own members, Mrs. Harry C. Daniels, who was most enthusiastically received.

This year, as in the past, the Board honored the Illinois E pledge class in January at a tea in the home of Mrs. Ralph K. Ball. As a favor each pledge was given a wine and blue arrow comb case which had been made by several of our club members. During the tea Mrs. Helen Spencer gave a most gracious gift to the chapter by presenting them with three lovely silver spoons engraved with Pi Beta Phi. These spoons had been given to Mrs. Spencer on various birthdays by Amy B. Onken while they were roommates during their undergraduate days.

A talk on Conchology was the fascinating program at our general club meeting in January.

A salad luncheon was served at our February meeting in the home of Mrs. Herbert M. Phillips, where we were privileged to meet Mrs. Perry Duncan, province vice president, and hear a very inspiring report.

Each year we hold our Dessert Bridge party in March. This year's party, complete with a glamorous fashion show, was most successful and will materially benefit our Pi Beta Phi projects.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April with the actives at their chapter house. A delightful tea was held and our Golden Arrow members honored at this time.

The official year was closed in May with the installation of new officers and Chapter Reports.

FLORA M. SIMPSON

NORTH SHORE JUNIOR

The North Shore Junior Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi spent a busy and interesting calendar year 1959-60.

Early in the fall District Representative Frances L. Dawson spoke to us about politics in our state legislature. Also in the fall our club held its first invitational Settlement School sale, which was successful. "History of Silver" was the topic chosen by our November speaker. During this program we learned about silver and how to care for it. December found us working on Christmas stockings for Randall House, one of our philanthropic projects located on the south side of Chicago for underprivileged boys. A highlight in December was the annual Randall House Christmas party given for the boys including tree, gifts, and refreshments.

"What Is A Fraternity" and "Investments" were two fascinating subjects presented to us during the winter months. April second was the date of our annual benefit dinner dance. This year it was held at The Winnetka Woman's Club and included entertainment. The theme of this fun party was a river showboat.

Spring found us enjoying distant lands through the eye of a camera and listening intently to the interesting talk given by the Assistant Manager of the Chicago Lyric Opera.

We have approximately fifty active members in our club and are looking forward again to next fall.

ELIZABETH HOLMAN

OAK PARK-RIVER FOREST

Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Club resumed its regular activities in September under the leadership of Martha Coffey. Plans were made to organize a local philanthropic project. Our club learned of Oak School, a private school in Oak Park for mentally retarded young adults. We were greatly impressed by the wonderful job being done there by the parents and teachers, and decided to help all we could.

We enjoyed a visit from our province vice president, Edna Duncan, at our November meeting. An informal potluck dinner was held for her before the meeting. This was a busy week, as the next day and evening, November 19, our club held a Settlement School Sale at the Art League of Oak Park. The planning committee made especially attractive displays of the items. Helen Gordon was our able chairman.

After the Christmas meeting at which we had a "kitchen shower" for Oak School, we were busy with the happy responsibility of being the hostess club for the Founders' Day banquet, April 28. Our chairman for the event was Kay Bell. We invited the Chicago West Suburban, Du Page County, Illinois Fox River Valley, Joliet, Milton Township, Chicago Business Women, and Hinsdale clubs to join us at the Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale.

In June our annual picnic was held at Betty MacNeal's with the actives in the community as our special guests.

PHYLLIS WITT KIMMEL

PEORIA

On September 24, the Peoria Alumnae Club opened its year with a Cooky-shine at the lovely home of Virginia Poppen.

At the October meeting the active chapter proudly introduced us to their new pledges. A very refreshing kind of entertainment lay in store for us during the second half of the program when a talented group of young girls from a Peoria high school offered musical selections from Broadway Shows. The group known as the "Light Opera Singers" was delightful to watch and listen to. Dorothy Linder, their director, is one of our alumnae.

In November we met at Eloise Rushford's attractive home to "Show and Tell" our personal hobbies and crafts. It was a very different program, and one which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. Such hobbies as making beautiful porcelain figures (Mrs. Rushford's hobby), and collecting lovely antique glass (Dorothy Benham's hobby) were shown. Thirza Tintoff gave us some very clever yet inexpensive ideas of hand made Christmas decorations. One alumna brought a baby blanket she had knit and which had taken a prize at the Heart of Illinois Fair. There were many other interesting hobbies shown. We really had a good time!

Our Christmas program at the chapter house was a pleasant evening spent with the actives singing favorite Christmas carols and listening to that wonderful old story, "The Gift of the Magi," given as a reading by a local high school girl.

Vonachen's Junction, a unique eating place in Central Illinois, was the scene of our January luncheon meeting. Our program was entitled, "Art of Japan." A young man in the Import and Export business showed us slides of Japan. It was one of the most enlightening and entertaining programs of the year.

In February the alumnae met at our famous Women's Exchange Shop for a Kaffee Klatch. Once again we thanked the ladies who run the shop for making it possible to pay off the final loan on the fifteen bonds on the house. The chapter house at Bradley University is a beautiful home and is maintained as such from year to year due to the financial support given by the Women's Exchange Shop.

In March we met at Mary Finney's new home to hear a most unusual yet vitally important program on "Wills." Our speaker was a local attorney, James Sutherland.

In April we hold our Founders' Day program at the Ivy Club. A potluck with our husbands was held in May at Ann Curtis' home, bringing to a close another eventful year for the Peoria Alumnae Club.

BARBARA JURIM GRANGER

ROCKFORD

We were all thrilled with our Settlement School sale this year. We did something different with our group this year and planned individual parties at various homes. Each Pi Beta Phi invited friends and neighbors to one of the homes to inspect the Settlement School samples while coffee and rolls were served. After all the parties were over we had ordered $800 worth of goods and felt quite successful.

The annual Christmas party was held at the home of Aileen Weigert which was beautifully decorated for the Christmas season. We had the largest meeting attendance of the year and they all enjoyed the party and exchange of gifts.

Our February meeting was a Valentine party which included our husbands. We all went out to dinner and also went out into the worst snowstorm of the year. Eleven couples braved the ice and snow and were well rewarded with a delicious dinner and lots of fun. Afterwards we all dug our cars out of snowed-in parking places and slowly made our way home.

In April we were invited to join with the Beloit, Wisconsin Alumnae Club for the Founders' Day program. Our group enjoyed the opportunity to discuss and exchange ideas and news with another alumnae group and plan to get together again for the same purpose.

We again closed our year with our annual couples picnic leaving with the hope for a good and successful next year.

BARBARA G. STRAUSSER

SOUTH SUBURBAN CHICAGO

One of the first and most successful events of the South Suburban Chicago Alumnae Club was the Settlement School tea in October. This was followed by various philanthropic and money making projects such as sewing bean bags for Jones Memorial Hospital and cosmetic bags for Settlement School. The annual auction and a commission from the sale of Ever-sudz brushes helped increase the club funds.

During the Christmas season, the club enjoyed a program sharing decorating ideas and a very successful party with the husbands.

The club looked forward to various coming events. The Founders' Day luncheon was celebrated with South Chicago Alumnae Club at Michelberry's Highway Inn in Chicago Heights. A cooky-shine and songfest took place in May. Another special event was the annual picnic with the husbands in June.

This year the club has again realized a great increase in membership which is due to the friendliness of each member as well as the interesting programs and social activities.

MARY PARSONS PAPP

SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

The Springfield, Illinois Alumnae Club started the year with our biggest activity, a Settlement School sale. Under the direction of the capable cochairmen and with the help of all the members, it was a huge success. The sale was held in the lovely home of Edna Duncan with Settlement School products on display from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. It was a well planned affair with baby sitters provided for young children while their mothers shopped, and coffee, sweet rolls and cookies were served throughout the day.

We are fortunate in having our province vice president, Edna Duncan, as a member of our club. Besides giving us a closer link with national affairs, her interest and enthusiasm add much to our meetings.

The first official meeting of the year was held in October. This was our Settlement School meeting and, appropriately, a final report on our Settlement School sale was given, a grand total of $1,549.

Our December meeting was a luncheon at Illini Country Club with thirty five members present. As Christmas was only a few weeks away, we all enjoyed a talk on Christmas decorations given by Mrs. Clifton Graham, a member of the Springfield Garden Club.

With the beginning of the new year we held meetings each month. A bridge party was included in the February meeting and election of officers in March. We have three new officers to be elected this year, with one carrying over, each one to hold office two years.

Founders' Day brought the two neighboring alumnae clubs of Springfield and Jacksonville together for a joint celebration at Jacksonville Country Club. This was the final event of a very successful year for our club under the leadership of our president, Mary Lou Matthews.

BARBARA BULLARD

TRI-CITY

The Tri-City Alumnae Club continued its practice of having meetings in each of the Tri-Cities this year. The September meeting was in the home of Gene Meyer Lisher, Davenport. A most interesting program was given by a handwriting expert.

We enjoyed a social evening of bridge in October at the home of Mary Alice McAndrew Harper, Moline. At this meeting we were all most interested in the report given by our rushing chairman.

The snow and the November meeting, which was to have been with Margaret Ann Smith Kennefick, Davenport, came the same day. We couldn't cancel the snow, but we had to the meeting.

Christmas brought a party for our actives and pledges. A morning coffee, at Butterworth Center, Moline.

Since this seemed to be the "winter of big snows" the February meeting had to be postponed a week. Our hostess, Louise Lord Johnson, met the emergency beautifully and we all immensely enjoyed the Constitution and Loyalty Day program, so well planned by our program chairman, Annalee Danner Sims.

Something new for the Club was a joint meeting in March with the K A Θ alumnae in Butterworth Center.

April brought our Founders' Day meeting. A dinner and program in the home of Dorothy Sparks Ericson. At this meeting our fifty year members were honored.

The May meeting featured a talk by an Exchange Student from Augustana College. This meeting was in Rock Island in the home of Janet Goodjohn Clark.

A successful year, under the able leadership of Marilyn Thompson Patterson, President, was closed with a June picnic at the home of Betty Lou Callahan Castricone.

MARIAN STAACK

KAPPA PROVINCE

BELOIT

The activities of the Beloit Alumnae Club continued in 1959-60 in the traditional manner. Each meeting was preceded by a dinner and followed by a social hour.

At the October meeting our province vice president, Orpha O'Rourke Coenen, discussed the Settlement School, Holt House and the Convention at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Arkansas. In November our Settlement School Sale was the usual success under the direction of Ethel Butcher Shogren.

The chapter entertained the club with an outstanding vocal selection of "Twas the Night Before Christmas" at a joint Christmas party. We met again with the chapter in March with the alumnae club as hostesses at a dessert sing.

The Frontier Inn in Rockton, Illinois, was the place of the Founders' Day dinner held jointly with the Rockford, Illinois Alumnae Club. Invitations were addressed to House Corporation members and a buffet dinner was planned for commencement, at the May meeting.

SYLVIA DOKKEN USTRUCK

DULUTH-SUPERIOR

Duluth-Superior Alumnae Club has had a fine year thanks to the enthusiastic leadership of Pauline Amundsen Dahl.

Highlight of the November dinner was the visit from our province vice president, Orpha O'Rourke Coenen. Her constructive remarks made the evening a very rewarding one for all.

We always show Settlement School articles at each meeting and our sales continue to be excellent.

We have made the usual cash contributions to Pi Beta Phi projects, plus a gift of $25 to Minnesota A; $25 to Duluth Rehabilitation Center, and $50 to Settlement School.

We hope to have a delegate going to Convention at Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas in June.

We are so happy to welcome two new alumnae to our group. Mary Ellen Sinclear Howard, Minnesota A, now of Superior, Wisconsin, and Joan Raymond Wilkosz, Montana A, now of Duluth.

We have lost several members due to moves during this year, so we are more than happy to greet new ones.

We looked forward to our Founders' Day Luncheon held at the Duluth Women's Club, April 30.

It is our practice at Christmas to remember all former members with greeting cards. This year our president, Pauline, said she would handle that detail. At our last meeting she confessed the cards were never sent, but she had written the following poem and sent to our former girls:

"A Christmas card was purchased
To be sent to your address
But the Dahl house was not organized
This Yuletide, I confess.

And then I bought a New Year's card
In hopes that you would see
I am humbly askin'
That forgiven I will be.

Now both the cards are sitting here
Oh, what a crazy mess.
To add to that, I've not been known
To be a poetess!

At any rate—we Pi Phis here
Do often think of you
So here's belated Christmas cheer
And a happy, happy New Year!"

From the response she had we all think her oversight was a blessing in disguise.

FOX RIVER VALLEY (WISCONSIN)

The Fox River Valley Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi started the year with a meeting in August to review rushing recommendations and make preparations for fall rush at Lawrence College. The alumnae assisting the actives worked hard to make it a successful rush week under the direction of Joan Buston, Joan Radtke and Jo Buchanan.

There were many interesting programs presented this year. At the October meeting Mrs. Gilbert Rankin spoke to the club on exchange students. Our annual Christmas party was a pre-holiday bridge party held at the home of Peg Davis with everyone getting into the spirit early this year.

We are very proud of our past president, Orpha Coenen, who is now serving as province vice president. Orpha showed her slides and gave a most interesting talk on Settlement School and the History of Pi Beta Phi at the January meeting.

In February we invited our husbands, as guests of honor, to a cocktail party. It was such a success I'm sure we'll do it again. Later that month the actives at Lawrence honored the alumnae of the Valley at a tea.

The alumnae were invited to the Founders' Day luncheon held in Appleton this year with Lawrence serving as the host chapter to the Beloit and Madison groups. This year being the 20th anniversary of Wisconsin P some of the alumnae who helped found the chapter and are still active were given special honor at this luncheon. Those alumnae were Jo Buchanan, Peg Davis, Vivian Zeuthen, Florence Johnston and Gertrude Burley.

We brought our year to a close and said good bye to the seniors of Wisconsin P at a potluck picnic at the home of Mary Grist.

MARY WENZEL HANEGRAAF

GRAND FORKS

She wasn't our guest, but how we did enjoy having Dorothy Morgan with us. You might say she started the season right for us. We entertained her with a brunch and were delighted with every minute she could spend with us. For the first time we are sponsoring our pledges. Each alumna has a daughter, an active, and a granddaughter, a pledge, and we have all tried to entertain them and become better acquainted. We entertained the pledges with a Halloween party. Mrs. Andrew Coenen, our province vice president, was our guest in November. We all looked forward to a successful Settlement School Tea and Sale in March.

MAE MARIE MALM BLACKMORE

MADISON

That always absorbing topic, "Whom will Wisconsin A be rushing this year?" brought us of the Madison Alumnae Club to the Pi Beta Phi House for our fall meeting. We learned that there were at least twenty three legacies going through rush, a problem not only for the actives but for alumnae relatives, many of whom might be keenly disappointed on pledge day.

Mrs. Orpha O'Rourke Coenen, Kappa vice president, attended our October meeting at the lake shore home of Joanne Englund Kelsey. At this early fall meeting it was helpful to have her cue us in on officer duties and of course she brought to our group that consciousness of national and international organization which is vital to all Pi Beta Phis. In November the actives loaned us their house for a pledge party and again for the Settlement School Sale which was successful as usual.

Our winter meetings were accompanied by deep snow and cold weather but Pi Beta Phi alumnae are hardy and attendance was consistently good at Marion Metcalf Stevens', at Kay Morrissy Lemmer's, and at Patty Slidell Deutsch's. The Seniors were our guests in February and heard a serious but interesting talk by Pi Beta Phi husband, Dr. Robert Samp, about Cancer Detection and Food Fads.

Back, in March, to the shores of Lake Mendota for good food, good company and election of officers at Dorothy Atkinson Ela's. Founders' Day in April and the last meeting of the year at Rose Mary Laudert Rupnow's and we Pi Beta Phis were ready to mark off another series of happy get-togethers in a city now growing so fast and spreading so far East and West and around the lakes that we find it increasingly difficult to see each other often without this bond of fraternity.

CATHERINE M. COLLINS

MILWAUKEE

The Milwaukee Alumnae Club began the year with a "Get Acquainted Buffet" at the home of Carol Sprenger. After a brief business meeting, we were able to renew old friendships and meet the new members.

Our Settlement School Teas were held in October. Again they were very successful.

Also, in October we were happy to have Mrs. Andrew Coenen, our province vice president, visit us. After a board meeting and dinner with board members, an informal reception in her honor was held at the home of Cherie Hoebreck.

In November we had a dessert meeting. We saw "The Crimson Shadow," a provocative and informative movie about the forces of Communism, narrated by Dr. Fredrich Schwartz.

In December actives and pledges who live in the Milwaukee area attended our active-alumnae brunch.

It was "Men's Night" in January. Members and their husbands met at the John Oster Manufacturing Company for a demonstration on foods made in the Osterizer. Afterwards, refreshments were served and a fine time was had by all.

"Mardi Gras!" In February Pat Bennett and her committee outdid themselves to make our benefit dance a festive occasion. It was a tremendous social and financial success. The proceeds went to our local charity, The Golden Agers' Group from Neighborhood House.

At our March dessert meeting we had election of officers. With the staff from the Miller Theater we had a very interesting discussion on "The Theater."

It seemed appropriate to close our year on Founders' Day with a Cooky-shine. It was a memorable occasion for all of us.

BETTY STEWART MORAN

MINNEAPOLIS

With the beginning of Fall Rush on the campus of the University of Minnesota, the Alumnae Club of Minneapolis discovered that another year's activities had begun. Under the guidance of their new president, Connie Adams, the alumnae pitched in willingly to see the actives through Rush. Early in October the alumnae club were hostesses for a showing of Royal Doulton china, a money making project. At a potluck supper in November members of the alumnae club enjoyed the message of Orpha Coenen, province president.

This year marks the retirement of Dr. J. L. Morrill from the presidency of the university. In December, as has been her custom for several years, Freda Morrill, Ohio Δ, opened her lovely home to the active chapter and the alumnae clubs of Minneapolis and St. Paul for a farewell Christmas party.

January saw a Hobby Show when talented alumnae displayed and described unusual collections. In February there was an evening tidbit tea, profits from the sale of recipes going into the Pi Beta Phi treasury. March brought a tour of the Betty Crocker Kitchens at General Mills under the guidance of Helen Hallbert, Iowa T, who will also show films from the American Exhibit at the Moscow Fair last year. Founders' Day was in April and Minneapolis was the guest of St. Paul. In May a meeting honored the graduating seniors and in June a benefit supper and theatre party at the Old Log Theatre concluded the year's activities.

INEZ W. DEMING

ST. PAUL

This year has been a very busy and successful year for the St. Paul Alumnae Club under the capable leadership of our president, Emily Lemon.

We started our year in September by giving Minnesota A a helping hand during rush week. This was the first year that rushing started before school opened and so our group helped to furnish some meals and kitchen help for the actives.

With enthusiastic support from all our members we undertook this year to staff the Children's Hospital coffee shop two days a month as our local philanthropic project. Lee Woodworth, project's chairman, should certainly be given credit for the success of this endeavor.

October saw a large turnout for our annual bridge dessert. Under the direction of Mary Swenson it was enjoyed by all the members and guests who attended as well as boosting our treasury by $50.

At a luncheon meeting November 6 we were delighted by the visit of Orpha Coenen, our province vice president who gave us information and suggestions useful to our group.

Mrs. James Morrill, wife of the president of the University of Minnesota, held the traditional Christmas tea in her home for all actives and alumnae in the area.

Christmas spirit also prevailed at our annual Christmas luncheon at the Women's City Club. Guests at this delightful occasion were St. Paul actives and their mothers and members of the board of the Minneapolis Alumnae Club.

Eunice Thomas was hostess at a buffet dinner given at her home during the summer for Pi Beta Phi's and their husbands. Such a good time was had by all that another party was held at the home of Mary Lydon in February.

Bridge and canasta followed our February meeting. A new fund raising project started in March with the selling of Castlecrafft jewelry.

Founders' Day found the St. Paul Alumnae being hosts to Minneapolis and the active chapter at a luncheon at the Mendakota Country Club. Seniors of the active chapter were presented with gifts at this time.

Our May meeting, with the installation of new officers, concluded another wonderful year for the St. Paul Club.

BETTY MARSH RASMUSSEN

LAMBDA PROVINCE

BATON ROUGE

The Baton Rouge Alumnae Club opened the year with a supper on September 12, held at the Baton Rouge Country Club in honor of the new pledges. Mrs. Shirley Duke Hundemer served as Chairman.

Highlighting the month of October was a visit from Mrs. T. H. Lafon, Vice President of Lambda Province. Mrs. Lafon gave an inspiring talk at the home of Mrs. Jane French Manship. In November the Settlement School Coffee was held at the home of Mrs. Betty Taylor Mayer. The coffee was a tremendous success, from both a financial and an entertainment viewpoint. Mrs. Elizabeth Brewer McDonald was in charge of arrangements. Last year the club did very well selling excess refreshments; so this year the Mothers' Club kindly donated "goodies."

A business meeting was held in January at the home of Mrs. Florence Phillips Turner. Mrs. Harriet Maltz Cole, program chairman, discussed the Constitution. In February, twenty two graduating seniors were honored at a dinner held at the Y.W.C.A. The Chairman of this event was Mrs. Marshall Heflin Bourgeois.

The alumnae club enjoyed the March meeting, which was held in the chapter room at Louisiana State University. The actives were regal hostesses and entertained with a clever skit. The Founders' Day celebration was held with the actives in April.

May was the final meeting at the home of Mrs. Phyllis Werlein Budd. Final plans were in the wind for the Canadian Breakfast. The alumnae going to Convention are quite enthusiastic, and this has been the attitude of the entire club throughout the year.

JANE ELLISON QUINN

COLUMBIA

For the past two years the Columbia Club has opened by having a potluck supper to which the actives of Missouri A were invited. This meeting has proved so successful that we voted to make it an annual event. The actives presented a "sneak preview" of skits and songs to be used during rush week.

In addition to our regular October meeting, we were privileged to have a special meeting honoring our province vice president, Madeleine Laton.

Christmas decorations for the home was the timely subject presented at the November meeting.

We consider the December Settlement School Tea and Sale the high point of our club's achievements this year. Our gross sales totaled $1,613. We were invited to bring the sale items to Jefferson City, whose alumnae are not organized into a club, but who wanted to share this with us. Their outstanding sales record, plus our own, helped boost our sales to the largest amount to date in our club.

Our January Loyalty Day Program was highlighted by the showing of slides of Settlement School, which served to point out the beauty of the area and the excellence of the school facilities. We learned at this meeting that of fifty five Columbia Alumnae members, forty four had paid their dues.

Our February meeting was truly rewarding. A member of the Stephens College Music faculty brought a clavichord to the home of the hostess and played selections on this delightful instrument and gave such an interesting talk about its history and place in music.

At our March meeting we had the election of officers and in April we took cakes to the chapter house for our Founders' Day celebration. Our year's final meeting was a potluck supper for members and their families held at a local park.

ELEANOR ROBERTS WRIGHT

FAYETTEVILLE, ARKANSAS

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Fayetteville, Arkansas, has had a very successful and interesting year under the leadership of Flossie Stice Upchurch. As always the year started with rush and our get acquainted party for the pledges. This was a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Herman Tuck. The Settlement School Coffee was a morning party held at the chapter house, featuring many new items and a special table of home baked goods made by our members for sale. We raffled one of the luggage racks and had no trouble selling tickets for such a lovely item. Mrs. Gerald Jones was an able chairman for the coffee.

Our Christmas meeting was a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Jack Audrain, and featured the "Goody Tree," where each member brings a baked item and the recipe for it, and names are drawn for exchange of goodies. The rest of our year was spent preparing for and looking forward to convention. We had a large number from Fayetteville attending, and many reunions were planned with our sorority sisters.

MARILYN HOAG EASON

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

The Kansas City, Missouri, Alumnae Club under the presidency of Betty Rowton Holt was again successful with a money making project. Chairmanned by Susanne Martin Burks over 2000 attended the "Calendar of Ideas" which was held October 8, 1959. A table for each month of the year featured ideas for decorating and entertaining. Many items were sold including some made by club members, Settlement School products, and basic materials to be decorated. An attractive lunch was available.

Another project which continues to grow in popularity and add to the club treasury is Theater Holiday. This is the club's third year to sponsor both Fall and Spring trips to New York which include tickets for four popular Broadway shows, plane or train tickets, hotel accommodations, and other plans for sight seeing. Club members promote the tour and make reservations for people from Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, and Oklahoma.

A successful attempt was made to attract more members to meetings by alternating luncheon and dinner meetings. The year's first meeting was a welcome for new members and an invitation to join a Newcomer's group, helpful in getting better acquainted. Programs included Mary Zimmerman Knipmeyer's stimulating account of progress at Settlement School; Marilyn McDaniel Benson's inspirational reading of "What Is A Sorority," from a Panhellenic pamphlet; and a "Come As You Were in College" theme with members appearing in every fashion from blue jeans to beaded chemises.

A coffee for actives during Christmas vacation was attended by sixty girls and news was reported to the Board from each of the twelve colleges represented.

Dorothy Weaver Morgan was guest speaker for a Founders' Day meeting on April 30. The theme was "Arrow Satellites."

A husband-wife party aboard a riverboat in June concluded activities for the year.

JOY GODBEHERE BATES

LAKE CHARLES

The Lake Charles Alumnae Club had a summer rush party in August at the home of Johanna Peters Smith. The eleven rushees were entertained by swimming, water skiing, and supper. A benefit luncheon was also given that month to aid the Louisiana State University chapter house building fund. For the first time women's fraternity houses can now be built on that college campus. It is planned that the Lake Charles Alumnae Club will organize a Mothers' Club to help Louisiana B with this building program.

In November a Settlement School Sale was given at the home of Sallye Neale Penniman. The travelling sample kit was used to take orders.

Joann Thorsen Dimmick was hostess for the December coffee honoring the Lake Charles actives home on vacation. Alumnae, college actives, and their mothers attended that party.

The March meeting was held at the home of Betty Taliaferro Pilchard. Holt House slides and a quiz on the History and Constitution were given.

The Founders' Day luncheon on April 28 ended the meetings for the year.

The alumnae club will be represented at the 1960 Convention by a delegate and an alternate. They will also send favors and have charge of the opening Memorial Service. BARBARA HALSTED SWAIN

LITTLE ROCK

The Little Rock Alumnae Club opened its year with Mary Elizabeth Brigrance Thorn presiding as president.

To Mrs. Verna Wall goes our sincere thanks and deep appreciation for her interest and hard work in organizing the first Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club for Little Rock on February 13, in the home of Mrs. Helen Raney.

In March the Panhellenic Association of Little Rock had a book review which was given by Mrs. Ladd Davies. The proceeds went to the Panhellenic Children's Library.

The program at our March meeting was most enjoyable. The topic was "Arkansas Celebrates its 50 Year Anniversary."

Founders' Day was celebrated April 27 in the home of Mrs. Martha Engstrom. A Founders' Day tribute was presented honoring Clara Brownlee Hutchinson. Miniature gold carnations were presented to Mrs. Claire Moody and Mrs. Ken Cole to commemorate their 50 years in Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Cole were recognized as founders of Arkansas A. The Loving Cup ceremony followed.

A trip June 2 to Fayetteville for Pi Beta Phi State Day was enjoyed by members of the club.

A Panhellenic Tea was held in late June for Little Rock girls to register for fall rush.

Individual rushing by actives and alumnae was held as Panhellenic once again ruled out organized local and state summer rushing.

Club members donated books for adults and children to two TB Sanitariums in Arkansas.

Great interest in the 1960 Pi Beta Phi National Convention was felt by all at the September meeting when the first newsy letter was read from Frances Brigrance Calvert, the Official Guide, and sister of our club president.

We were honored to have as our guest Mrs. Madeleine Lafon, Lambda Province Vice President, at our November meeting.

Our year officially closed with the annual Christmas Brunch honoring the actives, pledges, and their mothers, in the home of Mrs. Carrie Dickinson, on December 28.

DORRIS KARCHER WELLING

MARKED TREE JONESBORO

The Marked Tree Jonesboro Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club met March 19, 1959 in the home of Mrs. Howard Stuck, Jr. The following officers were elected for 1959-1960: President, Jean Stuck Burns; Vice president, Dorothy Davis Stuck; Recording Secretary, Joanie Gilbert Sloan; Treasurer, Martha Caldwell; Corresponding Secretary, Gloria Sloan Raney.

Slides on the Settlement School were shown and described by Maxine Smith and Martha Caldwell.

Founders' Day was observed April 28 with a dinner and program at the Hotel Noble. Joanie Sloan presented the program which included a description of each Founder and a short candle lighting ceremony. State Day at Fayetteville, June 2, was discussed. It commemorated the 50 anniversary of Arkansas A.

On September 4, 1959 a "Pizza Pie" Rush Party for the inactive alumnae was held at the Jonesboro Country Club to gain new members and interest. Mrs. Christine Richardson Murray and Mrs. Milly Bland Riddick from Walnut Ridge, Arkansas joined our club.

Our regular meeting was held at which time plans were made to participate in the National Convention. We are honored to have Frances Brigrance Calvert appointed Convention Guide, Dorothy Stuck was appointed Daily Editor, a position she held at the 1958 National Convention at Swampscott. Maxine Ammons Smith is Convention Registrar. Other chairmen will be: Information, Charlotte Owens; Stenographic work, Betty Grace Snellgrove; Assistant Registrars, Martha Caldwell and Joanie Sloan; Special Events (The Marked Tree Jonesboro Coffee Hour) Gloria Raney; Loree Melton will be Hospitality Representative.

A Pot Luck supper was held in February, at Betty Grace Snellgrove's to honor our province vice president Madeleine C. Lafon. Madeleine gave an informative general discussion about Pi Beta Phi and the Convention. GLORIA SLOAN RANEY

MARSHALL CARROLLTON

The Marshall Carrollton Alumnae Club celebrated its first Founders' Day in Carrollton with a beautiful dinner and inspirational ceremony, followed by an interesting historical program. As our club is small, and the distance great, we hold but four meetings a year.

In June we met again in Carrollton for a tea at the lovely home of Sarah Painter Cooper. We discussed rushing recommendations, and voted to include the Chillicothe area in our group.

Our October meeting was well attended, with the members enthusiastic to renew friendships after the long summer. We are to be a host club for this summer's Convention in Hot Springs. Frances Grimes Alt was appointed chairman of the convention favors committee. We do appreciate the wonderful job she is doing in this capacity.

Our year was highlighted by the visit of our province vice president, Madeleine Lafon, during the latter part of October. We held a dinner meeting in Carrollton for Mrs. Lafon, and considered ourselves quite fortunate to include another honored guest, Lucille Wall, a member of the National Loan Fund Committee. We thank Mrs. Lafon for all the "words of encouragement" she offered to our new group.

Somewhere in the near future we are planning a pot luck supper with husbands and escorts as guests.

Our thanks go to Virginia Parks Hupp, our president, who has led us successfully through the first year and a half of our existence. SUSAN SIMONSON

ST. LOUIS

This club year started with a coffee given by our President, Helen Vollmar, honoring Junior Alumnae members coming into the Senior Club and alumnae new in this area.

In September, a tea was held at the home of Sally Higgenbotham for rushees in our area who were going out of town to school. The Christmas Brunch for actives living in St. Louis who go elsewhere to school was held on December 29, at the home of Betty Wulffing. Twenty six chapters were represented. Alice Mansfield spoke, and the Missouri B Actives entertained with songs.

The luncheon meetings have been handled easily this year by using a cateress who brings the food to the meeting where the food committee takes over the serving and cleaning up.

Shirley Reichart, our treasurer, prepared a chart as a visual aid to show the operating and contributions expenses of our club. Very helpful!

We have adopted a new local project in connection with the Youth Counselling Service, a new agency dedicated to preventative measures concerning juvenile delinquency in this area. Our club will furnish the offices for this new and most needed endeavor.

The alumnae club took a block of tickets for the Washington University competitive inter Sorority-Fraternity "Bearskin Follies." Attending this as a group was fun and gave the actives a good feeling of alumnae support and interest. Everyone was busy preparing for our biennial fund raising project, House Tour and Country Carousel, which took place on May 4. All our talents and skills were utilized in making lovely and interesting items, such as toys, food, hand sewn articles, and in collecting white elephants and antiques for this sale. Luncheon was served at the Carousel (Fair). The closeness and friendships developed in working together in small groups preparing for the large project was one of its greatest and most valuable assets. PATRICIA S. ALLEMANG

ST. LOUIS JUNIOR

The St. Louis Pi Beta Phi Alumnae were very busy this year with the culmination of two years' work. The Country Carousel and House Tour in May. We worked to fill various booths with plants, bakery goods, handmade articles and white elephants and to serve a buffet luncheon. Proceeds go to our clubs' national and local projects.

The Junior Club's aim this year was to make new members welcome and to stimulate more interest in our club. We met twice in September, our regular meeting preceded by a spaghetti dinner for new members and recent graduates and our annual Barbecue for the active chapter at Washington University, honoring their new pledges.

The Junior Club's philanthropic project is helping at The Epworth School for Girls. We held our November meeting there to see the progress in redecorating the living room of one dormitory. In connection with this, two money raising projects netted us close to $100.

In January a new idea for our club was a luncheon meeting to which we brought guests, and Clarissa Start, feature writer for the St. Louis Post Dispatch, spoke about her book, God's Man. Dessert, coffee and attendance prizes added to the enjoyment of our annual card party in February, and in March new officers were elected.

We met jointly with the senior alumnae in October for a business meeting and in December for a Supper Meeting along with the active chapter. Entertainment included singing and a demonstration of making Christmas decorations. Founders' Day was celebrated in April at which time honors were announced and in May officers of both alumnae clubs were installed and the seniors of the active chapter were given gifts.

With Carousel two years away, we will enjoy some rest next year but work will continue with more new members and more new ideas. VIRGINIA M. RAINEY

SHREVEPORT

Shreveport alumnae met with actives from Louisiana State University for a luncheon meeting at a local country club in August. Shreveport hopes to help in Louisiana Beta's fund raising for the chapter house in Baton Rouge.

The Shreveport Alumnae Club held its first official meeting in September. At that time plans were made for the club's money raising project, carried out under the able leadership of President

Colleen Keilty Darnall and Finance Chairman Corinne Kelly Calder. The project was a sale of antique prints, held at the Junior League House, and open to the public for two days. This was November 21 and 22, and was most successful.

In October the club enjoyed an all too brief visit from the province vice president, Madeleine Lafon. Mrs. Lafon was with us for a regular meeting and a meeting of the executive board. She gave us details of the National Convention to be held in Hot Springs, Arkansas, in June, which Shreveport is eagerly awaiting as a member of the hostess province. Our particular responsibility is the Honoraries luncheon, and Margaret Seamster Schwiager is to be in charge of plans.

January saw the initiation of another well qualified President, Sallye McGregor Owens, who took Colleen's place after the Darnalls moved to Dallas. Sallye is also looking forward to the Arkansas Convention as Shreveport's delegate, as she is a Past President of Arkansas A.

Business behind us, Spring saw the social side of our programming, a luncheon, a guest speaker, a cooky-shine, and election and installation of officers.

See you at Convention!

BARBARA DYESS WILLIAMSON

SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI

The annual August Picnic which starts off every year for the alumnae of Springfield had added spice this year as we learned that we were to sponsor a luncheon at Convention in Hot Springs. Many exciting plans were presented and the committee was set to work immediately.

Through active co-operation between Missouri Γ and the Springfield Alumnae Club thirteen wonderful girls were pledged in early September. These girls were the guests of honor for our September meeting which was an evening coffee. This was a grand opportunity for the alumnae to see again how successful rush week had been. Our next meeting was an experiment for us as we had a coffee in the morning. We found that many who could not come in the evening were able to come at this time.

Over two hundred people came to view our products during the Settlement School Tea held at the home of Mrs. Elsie Plimmer. This was to be one of two money making projects, and was under the leadership of Mrs. Bobbie Springer. Our second project for the year was a "Children's Workshop" held during the Easter Season. Everyone worked very hard under the supervision of Mrs. Carolyn Fay.

The Springfield Alumnae Club was very fortunate indeed to have as their guest in November, Mrs. Thomas Lafon, province vice president. She attended a "Covered Dish" meeting held at the Missouri Γ rooms, where she delivered a talk that we all found very inspirational.

"Aim High For Pi Phi" was the theme of our Christmas Luncheon held at the new Holiday Inn, and our committee in charge certainly did just that. They managed to double the attendance of any of our luncheons held before. Local active Pi Beta Phi were honored from Missouri Γ , Missouri A, and Colorado A.

New initiates added color to our February cooky-shine while all activities were invited to a spring luncheon and style show. To close the season we had as our guests, very tired but happy seniors who graduated in June.

ANN CALBERT

TEXARKANA

The Olivia Smith Moore Alumnae Club was very fortunate in having at its first meeting of the year Lambda Province Vice President, Madeleine Closs Lafon. She was the house guest of Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., Grand Treasurer, and for whom our club is named. After luncheon at the Terrace Room of the Town House she met with the officers and discussed rushing problems, programs, and other pertinent questions. Meetings have been interesting with a variety of enjoyable programs. At the November meeting in the home of Loma Fouke Dorsey, Hazel Lind Wheeler Wyrick asked a question on the Settlement School. A prize was given to the one who gave the correct answer. She used a clever poem about articles of dress and accessories that we might be wearing. Points were given for the ones that we had on. Betty Kuhl Pickett received the most points and won the prize. Our January meeting was in the home of Isabelle Johnston Mullin. The program was about History and the Convention in Hot Springs. We are expecting YOU to be there. Circle June 19-25, 1960, on your calendar.

We have been busy selling Katydidd Candy trying to make extra money for the Convention. Roberta Roberts Rowland, Ways and Means Chairman, had another project for us around Easter, a bake sale.

The club is proud of its yearbook. We received recognition for its outstanding cover.

VICTRY BURNETT THANE

MU PROVINCE

AMES

Fourteen new pledges at Iowa State University were welcomed at a September terrace breakfast at the home of Margaret Leonard Buck, president of the Ames Alumnae Club. The club membership of seventy five includes nineteen alumnae in Boone, Nevada, Colo., and Madrid. Every year, the group is sparked by new members who bring new ideas from other areas.

Isabel Perry Allen, Mu Province Vice President, was a special guest at a September evening dessert in Katherine Keister Iverson's home. Mrs. Allen reported on Convention, shared stimulating ideas of other clubs, and brought Settlement School news and samples of new craft items.

The Settlement School Tea in the chapter house in November brought several hundred guests and a substantial sale of Arrowcraft products.

Sharing Christmas gift ideas and family traditions created lively discussion at the December luncheon meeting in Cornelia Lindstrom Buck's home.

Forty four Iowa Γ actives and nineteen pledges were luncheon guests in February at the chapter house. Josephine Hungerford Dodds related highlights of Carrie Chapman Catt's life.

An exchange sale of jewelry, purses, and hats at a March luncheon at Sarah Sawyer Triplett's proved this a quick and easy treasury booster.

Sixty one chapter members joined in Founders' Day observance with Des Moines Alumnae as luncheon guests in Memorial Union. Jane Jordan Axtell, the new club president, presided. Anne Ward, chapter president, presented special annual awards to outstanding actives.

A May potluck picnic, honoring fourteen seniors at Margaret Macy Adams' home, closed the year's activities.

KATHERINE GOEPFINGER

BURLINGTON, IOWA

Burlington Alumnae Club has had a most interesting and eventful year. Probably the highlight of its activities was the Founders' Day celebration when the club joined Iowa A and Pi Beta Phi alumnae from the surrounding area at a dinner meeting in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Honored guests, in addition to Iowa A and Mt. Pleasant Alumnae officers, were a number of "50 year" Pi Beta Phi's, and, most exciting of all, our beloved past president, Amy B. Onken (who simply CAN'T be as young as she looks and acts!), and our present president, the gracious and charming Mrs. Alice Weber Mansfield. We had a perfectly delightful evening, despite a torrential rain which made us wonder if we'd be able to make it home to Burlington.

In August, the Burlington Panhellenic Organization, in which the local alumnae group is an active participant, put on a Fashion Tea for all college bound high school and junior college girls.

Our chapter was delighted with the September visit of our province vice president, Isabel Perry Allen. After a potluck supper, Isabelle showed us a sample of the lovely handmade articles from the Settlement School, and she brought us up to date on all the sorority's activities in Gatlinburg. We are all proud of Pi Beta Phi and the work it has done in this project.

Our November meeting was devoted to the study of the Constitution and to a discussion of various projects which the club might undertake for the mutual benefit of the community and the alumnae group. A number of interesting suggestions were made and discussed, and we hope to reach a decision at our next meeting.

BARBARA AWBREY

CEDAR RAPIDS

The Cedar Rapids Alumnae Club opened this year's activities at a dinner meeting, renewing old friendships and welcoming new members. A Panhellenic Luncheon and afternoon of bridge in the latter part of September gave members of all alumnae groups the opportunity to become acquainted.

Our club was honored by a visit from our province vice president, Isabelle Allen. A coffee was held at the home of Connie Fisher during which Mrs. Allen gave her impressions of a recent visit to Gatlinburg, Tennessee and the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. This was followed by a luncheon meeting of Mrs. Allen and the Board Members.

Guest speaker at our October meeting, Miss Helen Crane, kindergarten and primary counselor for the Cedar Rapids school system, led an informative discussion on reading and reading training for the young child.

A public Settlement School Sale at the Public Library and a tea at the home of Georgene Robb, netting over $200, was our major money making project. Due to the success of this project, we were able to double our donation to Settlement School this year. Mary Lou Gallagher was in charge of these sales.

A Christmas cookie exchange and carol singing were enjoyed by all at the home of Doris McClain. During the holidays, a tea was held at the home of Edna Foster for all alumnae, actives and mothers.

One highlight of the year was a special program based on "This Is Your Life" honoring Alice Barry and her 50 years as a Pi Beta Phi. She is one of the charter members of the Cedar Rapids Alumnae group.

We were honored by a visit from Amy B. Onken in April. She spoke on Panhellenic. Guests included Cedar Rapids' alumnae presidents and Panhellenic representatives.

An enjoyable conclusion to the year's activities was our traditional husband's night. Being well aware of "the way to a man's heart . . ." this evening included quantities of good food and entertainment.

MARGARET GOODNER HALDEMAN

HUTCHINSON

Twenty one members and three guests of the Hutchinson Alumnae Club started the year with a cooky-shine at the home of Betty Lay Dillon. We are pleased to now have members from the surrounding towns of Sterling, Chase, Pratt and Lyons.

Our club is also proud to have pledged $1,000 to the Kansas A Building Fund and Mercedes Ellis Sentney has made many trips to Lawrence this past year fulfilling her duties as a member of the Board of Directors of the House Association at Kansas A.

We were honored to have our pledges and their mothers with us for a luncheon at the Hutchinson Town Club on the Saturday following Thanksgiving.

At our regular November meeting, Elizabeth Humphreys Summers displayed samples of Settlement School merchandise. She then took orders for this merchandise from members of our club only. From this we profited over $30. However, our big fund raising project was, again, our Christmas Charity Ball held this year on December 26 at the Hotel Baker Ballroom. Carol Stockham Murray was project chairman.

PEGGY MAHONEY MILLER

INDIANOLA

The Indianola Club has had an interesting and successful year under the leadership of our President, Mary Jane Heavilin.

In September we enjoyed the visit of our province vice president, who gave us many constructive ideas. The meeting that month was in charge of the House Corporation. In October we served the Homecoming Dinner, and welcomed back many old timers. The November meeting was on the Settlement School. In December the Mothers' Club joined us and the actives in a Christmas party at the house. We bought the girls a gift with money we had earned at a rummage sale, sponsored jointly by the mothers and alumnae. January was the Constitution; February the rushing report, and in March we entertained the pledges and elected officers. In May we entertained the Seniors.

On Founders' Day we honored our Golden Arrow members. Iowa B now has seventy of them, five of them in Indianola. We sent out our nineteenth Golden Arrow letter, for which we asked our fifty year members to write us, then we mimeographed these letters and sent them all back to each one. Next year, our twentieth, we plan to celebrate by each one writing about her pet cause, and telling us why we should work for it. We would like very much to have GA members from other clubs write to us too and we will put the letters in with ours.

AGNES STONE

IOWA CITY

The Iowa City Alumnae Club was pleased to have Isabell Allen, province vice president with them in September for the first meeting of the year. During the year the club enjoyed its traditional gatherings such as a cooky-shine for the pledges, the white elephant sale, the scholarship dinner and senior farewell luncheon. The alumnae club was proud to give awards to two active members who received a four point for the previous semester and to eight actives who received over a three point two.

Again this year the sale of personalized recipe cards and post cards proved a constant source of income.

On one of this year's many cold winter nights, Francine Lacy Stewart gave the annual Corporation Board report. Francine is retiring from the chairmanship after more than ten years of dedicated service. During this time the house underwent extensive remodeling.

JEAN WHEELER HUBBARD

KANSAS CITY

The Kansas City, Kansas, Alumnae Club began its Fall schedule with a business meeting and Rush discussion. The Pot Luck Supper was held at the home of Ruth Stauffer. Barbara Wescoe showed slides taken during a four month stay in the Philippines.

In December, instead of a gift exchange, each member brought a gift suitable for the Blind Association Christmas Party. The New Year started with the luncheon for the members of the active chapters of nearby colleges. One of the girls from each of the schools represented gave a short summary of their activities for the year.

Husbands were the honored guests at the Valentine Party at the home of Barbara Heiser. A buffet supper was served and the evening was very successful.

A coffee was held in March at the home of Joan Edward. In May the year's activities closed with the Founders' Day cooky-shine and the project for the year.

BARBARA FLORIAN WELSH

LAWRENCE, KANSAS

The Lawrence Alumnae Club joined with the Kansas A actives to celebrate Founders' Day in April with a lovely dinner at the Eldridge Hotel. A tribute to the Founders was given by our inspiring guest speaker, Marian Keck Simmons, National Historian.

In September a picnic supper honoring Kansas A's new pledges was held. At the November luncheon a review of the History of Pi Beta Phi was conducted by Polly Peppercorn in the form of a quiz. A showing of the Settlement School slides by Marcia Logsdon provided a most delightful afternoon for those attending the January meeting. The annual spring party honoring seniors of Kansas A was held in March. A tribute to Lawrence Founders will highlight the coming May meeting.

Throughout the year our magazine chairman, Sally Fitzpatrick Postma, has stimulated interest in and increased magazine sales with games and drawings for free subscriptions.

Lawrence continues to maintain contact with the Kansas A active chapter by attending pledging and initiation ceremonies and responding to other invitations from the active chapter.

JAYNE GROVIER IRELAND

LINCOLN

The Lincoln Alumnae Club began the fall season by entertaining the pledges at the traditional buffet dinner in the home of Mrs. E. C. Ames. Mrs. Isabel Allen, Mu Province Vice President, was a special guest and gave an interesting talk on Settlement School. In November, the club held a morning coffee at the home of Mrs. O. J. King, Settlement School Chairman, who displayed many of the Settlement School wares.

Seniors were honored at a dessert in December at the home of Mrs. Richard Todd. A sandwich luncheon was held in February at the Chancellor's Residence. The program consisted of a clever crossword puzzle concerning Pi Beta Phi History.

A tea was held at the chapter house in March, following initiation. On April 25, the alumnae again gathered at the chapter house for their cooky-shine and Founders' Day Program. Our last meeting in May honored all fifty year members.

JANET SHERWOOD SHURTLEFF

MT. PLEASANT

In September a large number of the members of the Mt. Pleasant Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi came for a covered dish luncheon in the home of Beulah Hayes, honoring Isabel Allen, Mu Province Vice President. Her interest and enthusiasm for all the projects of Pi Beta Phi was most inspiring. She gave to us many ideas and suggestions.

Pledging in October was in the home of Helen Rhode. The alumnae served sandwiches, cookies, cocoa and coffee. We had the opportunity to visit with the actives and to meet the new pledges.

"Loyalty Day" was observed in January with Mazie Green. Mrs. Mary Suaney gave an interesting talk about Carrie Chapman Catt. While Mrs. Suaney was teaching in Santiago, Chile, she had the honor of being hostess to Mrs. Catt when she came to visit her school. So she was able to give us a very personal picture of this famous Pi Beta Phi.

In February the alumnae entertained at a covered dish dinner with actives, pledges and patronesses as their guests. Sixty five came to enjoy the dinner and the program given by the actives.

Gracia Linder was hostess in March for election of officers and a Settlement School program. Marion Harrick has been the most efficient chairman of the Settlement School committee and she kept articles from the school on sale all the year around.

In April we joined the actives of Iowa A for a Founders' Day dinner where we especially honor six Golden Arrow members. Installation of officers for 1960-61 was in May.

The alumnae and actives enjoyed together the commencement breakfast in June. At this time we honored the graduating seniors and their mothers and greeted the Pi Phis who return to the Wesleyan campus for commencement.

Iowa Wesleyan is working on the restoration of the home of one of its former Presidents, James Harlan. James Harlan served in Lincoln's cabinet. His daughter, Mary Harlan, was the wife of Robert Lincoln. The Robert Lincoln children have often visited in this home.

On February 14 Iowa Wesleyan had a combined Founders' Day and a Convocation honoring the College President, Dr. Raymond Chadwick, and Mrs. Chadwick, for their 10 years of devoted service to the school.

BEULAH HAYES

PANHANDLE

The Panhandle Alumnae Club of Western Nebraska has closed its second year as a nationally affiliated alumnae club. While the club has not been able to expand greatly in membership it has maintained its enthusiasm and interest in the activities and responsibilities of Pi Beta Phi. Throughout the year we have re-studied with interest the proud History of our Fraternity and its outstanding philanthropic programs.

BARBARA MYERS

SIOUX FALLS

The Sioux Falls Alumnae Club held its first meeting in September at the home of Sandra Espe Schmidt. It was reported that the amount made at the June rummage sale would be used for a $100 scholarship.

In October, Mu Province Vice President, Mrs. Milton Allen, met with the club at the home of Peggy Moore Graff.

Hazel Clark Hyden invited local alumnae and mothers to her home for a trading stamp benefit in November. A pair of sterling candleabra, a silver bowl, a floor lamp, seven small metal student desks, guest room bedding, and an air mattress were given to South Dakota A and a book of stamps was sent to Settlement School. Arrowcraft articles were sold.

In December, the actives and alumnae met at the Town Club for a Christmas luncheon.

At the January meeting, held at the home of Joyce McFarland Howes, the Constitution was studied and plans were made for a baked goods raffle to be held at each meeting.

A social meeting was held in February at Verlyn Taylor Boyd's. Marge Wagner Rausch entertained at the March meeting. Election of officers took place and plans were made to send a delegate to the coming Convention.

The club celebrated Founders' Day in Vermillion at the annual luncheon with South Dakota A actives.

New officers were installed in May at Phyllis Odland Blake's. A June picnic was given by the alumnae for local Pi Beta Phi and concluded our year's activities.

JOYCE MCFARLAND HOWES

VERMILLION

The Vermillion Club began the year busily assisting the active chapter in rushing activities. In September we met and entertained the new pledges. A dinner was held for our province vice president, Mrs. Allen, who visited us in October after which we discussed Settlement School. Spotlights were given to the active chapter at Christmas time for use in rushing and other decorations. In January we decided to collect Green Stamps and King Korn Stamps to send to Settlement School.

A box of apples was sent to the chapter house as a treat during test week. A new file was purchased and the president reorganized the club's material. Pi Beta Phi Cookbooks were presented to January graduates. In February the club entertained the new initiates. A March meeting was held to further discuss plans for Founders' Day in April. The club entertained alumnae and actives from Vermillion and nearby cities at a Founders' Day luncheon. The nominating committee presented the slate of new officers at this time. The May meeting was spent discussing and planning for the next rush week. Our club was active as advisers and assistants to the active chapter.

ROBERTA DAVIS

WESTERN KANSAS

There is nothing so refreshing as a swim on a hot July day and that is what the members of the Western Kansas Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club did to begin our third year. We were guests in the home of Connie Townsley in Great Bend. Forty members gathered for luncheon after the swim, and to complete a most enjoyable day, we heard a talk by Mrs. Milton Allen, our province vice president.

October 27 found us in Hays where amid tables piled high with homemade cookies, we held our second annual Settlement School sale and tea. The members feel quite proud to have had an attendance of around 300 and to have netted over $1000.

A snowstorm curtailed attendance but failed to dampen the spirits of fourteen members who attended our January meeting, a luncheon, at the Great Bend Petroleum Club. The History of Pi Beta Phi was read followed by a discussion of the annual examination topics for active chapters.

On April 26 we brought to a close another busy year of Pi Beta Phi activities with a Founders' Day luncheon and election of officers at the Larned Country Club.

WANDA FINCH ELMORE

WICHITA

The Wichita Alumnae Club began the season in September with a "Dues and Doughnuts" coffee. This event got our treasury off to a good start, as our number of paid members promises to be over 100 this year.

The October meeting brought cheers from our husbands and chills to us as we watched J. A. Mull's thrilling movies of an African safari. We understand why Alice Quigley Mull was reluctant to accompany her husband on this trip.

November provided a luncheon meeting, and Christmas gifts were brought for the children of Settlement School, along with holiday goodies for the staff. Our annual Christmas coffee was held in December for actives, pledges and their mothers. This is always a gala event and affords an opportunity to catch up on activities at the chapter houses.

It was decided at our January meeting to adopt a new local charity, a medical fund that supplies eye glasses for underprivileged children. We are grateful to Charlene Baker Zongker who investigated and presented several worthy projects from which to choose. On the slate for February was a Valentine party for our best beaus. This affair has become a highlight of our social year. Also in February our annual Children's Movie was held. This was our money making project, and because of the diligence of Betty Shartel Smith and her committee, it was a great success.

At our March luncheon meeting, election of officers was held, and the last meeting of the year, in April, was our annual cooky-shine dinner in celebration of Founders' Day. Nostalgia reigned as we sang Pi Beta Phi songs. New officers were then installed, and special tribute was paid to Betty Behoteguy Wallace, our outgoing president.

No Settlement School Sale was held this year, as Diane Worthington Simpson, Settlement School Chairman, initiated a new plan. A large suitcase bearing samples of Settlement School items was made available to members to display at bridge parties, church circles, etc. This idea has proved to be as easy as well as lucrative. This was a year of fun and friendship for Wichita Pi Beta Phi and worthwhile contribution to the community.

PATTY RIGGS MERCER

NU PROVINCE

ABILENE

The Abilene Alumnae Club started off the year at a meeting in the home of our new president, Evalyn Swenson Field. Plans were made for the coming year, with the interest centering on the 1960 Convention, to which we hope to send a delegate.

A business meeting was held in October, and in November the Pi Beta Phi were hostesses at a Panhellenic luncheon. Groundwork was laid for the third annual Panhellenic Benefit Bridge, which helps provide a scholarship at one of our local colleges.

In February Peggy Beckham had our meeting, at which time we organized things for a Covered dish luncheon in March at Vera Minter's house in honor of our province vice president, Jo Sangster. Unfortunately, a Texas blizzard made it impossible for Mrs. Sangster to get here. The luncheon was not cancelled however, and we were pleased to add three new Pi Beta Phi alumnae to our ranks. New officers were elected. We scheduled a cooky-shine for the returning actives during summer vacation.

In April the Abilene Country Club was the setting for our Founders' Day luncheon. Installation of officers was held.

BETSY GANDY DUNCAN

ALBUQUERQUE

Here in Albuquerque we have been primarily busy trying to help the active chapter on the university campus fix up their house. A patio for this summer is uppermost in the girls' minds right now so the club efforts have gone toward funds for the patio. To add to our "Patio Kitty," a bake sale was included in the sales at the annual Settlement School Tea.

Our rummage sales have always been a big help to our treasury besides being a lot of fun. They are usually held in one of the many small Spanish communities around Albuquerque although we had difficulty finding a place for our winter sale. The spring sale, however, was quite a success.

For our meeting in November we had an "Alum Meet Future Alum" party. The alumnae club packed up their cookies and candles and held a "cooky-shine" at the chapter house and we were able to meet and visit with the actives and pledges, many of us for the first time.

In February we were so happy to meet and welcome to Albuquerque our province vice president, Mrs. Jo Sangster. A coffee was given for her at the chapter house and although her stay was rather short, many had a chance to meet and visit with Mrs. Sangster.

Halloween did not pass us by unnoticed. A "Halloween Pants Party" was held in October, casual dress, hot cider and doughnuts and lots of visiting and getting acquainted. We have been pleased to see many new faces at our meetings the past year and have high hopes that as Albuquerque grows, so will our alumnae club.

MARGE MCMINN

AMARILLO

The Amarillo Alumnae Club under the capable leadership of Polly Martin has enjoyed a pleasant year. Activities began with a large Hawaiian rush party. Members and rushees appeared in island attire. Outstanding decorations and novel skits added a happy, festive atmosphere to the lovely buffet supper.

At our October meeting we had an interesting report on Settlement School and made arrangements for the tea and sale held the latter part of the month.

On February 27 Mrs. Jo Frances Powell Sangster, our province vice president came to Amarillo. Miss Polly Martin gave a delightful coffee in her home and afterwards we had our monthly meeting. Everyone enjoyed meeting and visiting with Mrs. Sangster and we feel that her presence and suggestions have helped our club a great deal.

In January Loyalty Day was discussed and a program on Holt House was presented. Our business meeting and election of officers was held in March with good fellowship following the meeting. We closed our year with a luncheon meeting in April celebrating Founders' Day.

DAWN NICHOLS THOMPSON

BARTLESVILLE

It was a busy time for Carolyn Bond Evans when she became resident of our alumnae club because she was just finishing a term as president of the local Jaycettes. She has been most capable as we all knew she would be.

Golden Arrow Pi Beta Phi Mrs. Frances Romine was very proudly welcomed at our September meeting. This year has brought us other new members, too, Chris Corn Jones, Betty Burke Kane, and Marge Hinkle Jeagerard.

Betty Reed Kastner, as Settlement School Chairman, directed a very successful Settlement School Tea at Wilma Elliott Lee's home on November 12.

Barbara Miller McCoy has been active in the work and progress made by a civic committee to try to establish a Child Guidance Clinic in our community.

In November Ruth Welly Stewart added to our pride in Settlement School by giving an interesting program about it. Our January meeting stressed chapter loyalty, especially to our closest chapters Oklahoma A, Oklahoma B and Kansas A. Our spring meetings were full of talk about Convention at Hot Springs in the hope that a number of our members will attend. Those meetings were also made more interesting as we heard about Tizzie Wendt and Oklahoma A active Elaine Word's plans for a summer European tour. These two may change the Berlin situation.

Our local Panhellenic sponsored a luncheon and bridge for its members on March 15. Panhellenic also plans to print a directory of all its members here in Bartlesville. We are proud to have over fifty Pi Beta Phi listed. JOYCE SHULTZ PASQUE

BRAZOS VALLEY

The Brazos Valley Alumnae Club which comprises a membership from Calvert, Franklin, Navasota, College Station, and Bedias, Texas, always enjoys its meetings during each year. We are all friends with a common interest. Early September was the date of our first meeting, which was a coffee in the lovely new home of our president, Lilyan Coleman Conkling. Martha James Porter, our retiring president, installed the new officers. It had been agreed at a previous meeting to hold office two years. The results of rush and the plans for the year were discussed.

Kate Parker Bernath entertained the club in October in her home with a morning party. A program on the Settlement School was given by Martha Porter. There was also a display of a variety of Arrowcraft items, followed by a sale. In December our group was invited to the colonial home of Sara Allen Cater for tea. Sally Tucker Anderson gave some interesting humorous events which have made history for Pi Beta Phi. We voted to bring articles for layettes to be sent to Settlement School.

Louise Weddington Porter's home was the inviting scene for our February meeting. Sara Cater, our chairman of service work for a Bryan Convalescent home, reported gifts were given to the inmates at Christmas time and magazines had been distributed. Navie McDonald Field gave a most interesting paper on "What Is A Sorority?"

Contributions have been made to Holt House, Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund, the Harriet Johnston Scholarship, the Settlement School, and the Centennial Fund. Once again we went to Navasota for our Founders' Day meeting and observance. Last year we had our candle lighting service and cooky-shine in the home of Esther Goodrich. KATHLEEN CLINTON SEALE

DALLAS

The Dallas Alumnae Club has enjoyed a highly successful year under the able direction of Mrs. Bryce a Huguenin, president of the Senior Group, and of Mrs. Jack W. Westbrook, president of the Junior and Business Group. Joint luncheon meetings were held in September and January. A Panel on Rushing was presented at the first meeting and a program on Sorority Constitution at the second.

The Arrowcraft Exhibition and Sale, with Mrs. John E. Robertson as chairman and Mrs. Earl Manning as cochairman, was sponsored by the Senior Group in November and the Founders' Day Banquet, April 28, with Mrs. Duffield Smith, Jr. as chairman, by the Junior and Business Group. Other highpoints in the year's program have been the Junior Group's Benefit Coffee, March 4, in interest of the Children's Development Center and of the Texas B Chapter House, and the Senior Group's tea honoring Mrs. Ruth Arnold, recently appointed Director of Texas B Chapter House, and an all day Treasure Sale at the home of Mrs. Edwin Foscoe. This last event was given in the interest of needed improvements at the Texas B Chapter House and netted $348. This project proved successful enough to warrant repeating next year. Alumnae are to be thanked for gifts, attendance and purchases.

At the last meeting of the year, a brunch, May 13, the newly elected officers were introduced. The year's work proved worthwhile for 246 senior members and 58 juniors. LIDE SPRAGINS

DUNCAN

The Duncan Alumnae Club, under the able leadership of Mrs. S. Irby Kolb, is delighted to now be a chartered, rather than a local organization. We now have sixteen members from Duncan, one from Marlow, and one from Loco.

Immediately after receiving our charter a committee was appointed to promote organization of a city wide Panhellenic Council. Ten National Sororities joined this group. At Christmas a tea for senior girls and their mothers was held. This we believe will prove most helpful in future rushing.

Six members attended State Day at Norman in April. We have held an Area Rush Party, a dinner for the Oklahoma A Rush Tour, and a coke party for local rushes of Oklahoma A. We are delighted to have two pledges at Norman, Linda Paramore, a Pi Beta Phi daughter, and Sally Merrill.

Our present plans include a dinner to commemorate Founders' Day, and a much anticipated visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Josephine Sangster.

Even though we are small in number, we look forward to the opportunity to participate in all activities of the Fraternity to the best of our abilities. VIRGINIA HAWKINS PARAMORE

EL PASO

The El Paso Alumnae Club has held monthly luncheon meetings during the year, the first being held at Gillespie's Empire Room. At this meeting, it was decided to send a sum of money to the State Home for Mentally Retarded at Austin, Texas. Mrs. Thorpe Mayes explained that many "forgotten adults" would receive nothing at Christmas except for these donations. This has been a project of the El Paso Club for several years.

A luncheon at The Patio Verde in December, honored Sun

Carnival Duchess Margaret Beall and her mother, Mrs. Tom Beall, and pledges Carole Cottle and Robian Fithian and their mothers, as well as active Sue Echols and her mother, Mrs. Oliver Luther.

A visit from the Nu Province Vice President, Mrs. Robert S. Sangster, brought inspiration to the El Paso Alumnae Club. Mrs. Sangster talked to the club of many Pi Beta Phi projects and interests. Ethel Schwartz was the hostess for the luncheon meeting honoring Mrs. Sangster. A large group of Pi Beta Phi attended.

Plans have been discussed to have several night meetings in the future for the benefit of the members who teach and work during the day.

Many members of the El Paso Club are active in the important charity drives and civic organizations of the city.

MRS. HARLOW K. RIPLEY

FORT WORTH

Led by our capable president, Mrs. H. H. Bass, the Fort Worth Alumnae Club experienced another year of warm association and accomplishment. Especially do we feel satisfaction in being of service to the still young chapter of Texas Δ on the Texas Christian University campus.

We met monthly from October through May. Members again very profitably sold Christmas cards through a local store.

We helped the Texas Δ Chapter rush, and sponsored a buffet supper for the actives and pledges at the home of Mrs. W. A. Landreth.

In December a well attended and enjoyable Mother-Daughter coffee was held in Mrs. H. B. Fuqua's home.

With assistance from the Mothers' Club we sponsored in February a highly profitable games party and bazaar where donated baked goods and Settlement School items were sold. Proceeds were used for Pi Beta Phi projects. Since its inception in February, 1958, this benefit met with success, and annually, attendance and profits have increased. Many of the Fort Worth community have come to anticipate "The Pi Phi Games Party," and their support has been most gratifying.

Founders' Day was celebrated April 29 at Shady Oaks Country Club at a dinner held jointly with Texas Δ.

At the May meeting we closed our year with the installation of officers for 1960-61. Mrs. James W. Short will be president.

FLORENCE JONES WITT

HOUSTON

The Houston Alumnae Club had a very successful year under the leadership of Jeannette Russell Baker, president, and Betty Ann West Stedman, president of the Junior Group.

A report on rushing was given at the September meeting by Mary Crain Williamson.

In October we had an interesting and informative program, "Emphasis on Settlement School," by Mary Jane Tribble Hale.

Mrs. Hale was chairman of the Settlement School Sale held at Blanton Memorial Building in October, and deserves the lion's share of the credit for the wonderful success of the sale. The Arrowcraft articles were the main part of the sale. In addition we had a country kitchen and a garden shop. The Mothers' Club had a cookie booth, and the Junior Group sold lovely place mat holders they had made. We sent $2,389 back to the Settlement School.

Mrs. James Griffith Lawhon, a Pi Beta Phi mother, was hostess for a beautiful Christmas tea honoring actives, pledges and their mothers.

During the month of December many Pi Beta Phi's worked at our annual project helping at the Christmas Clearing Bureau, a branch of the United Fund.

The January meeting was a delight with a professional model presenting "New Ways of Beauty" using three Pi Beta Phi's as models.

In February we had a Cooky-shine at the home of Ted Lewis Moody. The Junior Group presented a clever program "Mademoiselle Pi Phi," honoring the Founders.

March was the month for election of officers. April was installation, and Betty Bailey Hall gave a history of Pi Beta Phi.

The year was brought to a close with a Western party for Pi Beta Phi and husbands and dates at Via Ranch with Ann Townes Rice as hostess. LUCY DODD EASTHAM

HOUSTON JUNIOR

Under the leadership of Mrs. Dick Stedman our club has enjoyed a wide variety of activities this year. We were pleased to welcome many members into the group including new arrivals in Houston and recent college graduates. These girls were honored at a coke party in September when plans for the coming year were discussed. A report on rush was also given.

In October many alumnae participated in the Settlement School Sale with the making and selling of place mat holders.

At Mrs. Joseph Laughlin's home we enjoyed a demonstration of Christmas floral arrangements during November at which meeting we welcomed Mrs. Robert Sangster, Nu Province Vice President and Mrs. Rex Baker, Alumnae Club President. Our yearly work at the Christmas clearing bureau was planned.

A lovely Christmas tea was held for all Houston Pi Beta Phi's at Mrs. J. Griffith Lawhon's home especially to honor pledges and their mothers.

Purely social was the January meeting when a bridge luncheon was enjoyed. The skit and program which we later gave at Mrs. Denman Moody's home for Cooky-shine was discussed. A member of our group, Mrs. Wyatt Heard, served as hostess for Cooky-shine.

Officers for the 1960-1961 year were elected in March and installed at the April Meeting.

A dessert party was enjoyed during March especially by the girls who are unable to attend daytime alumnae meetings. Particularly pleasant was our speaker whose subject was "Beauty from Tip to Toe."

Our children started in May at a style show. All the mothers and grandmothers received special invitations. ZILLAH ODEN

LUBBOCK

Highlight of the current year of the Lubbock Alumnae Club has been our close contact with Texas! We started the year with a hot dog supper at the lodge honoring the active chapter and new pledges at the close of rush week.

Again this year the big-little sister program has been very successful. Each pledge has an alumna "big sister." In October we entertained the "little sisters" with a coke party. Members of the Alumnae Club presented the program—a "take off" on skits presented by actives at parties during rush week.

A spectacular job was done by Helen Slaton as chairman of the Settlement School Tea in November.

We were quite thrilled in December when our patronesses presented the active chapter with a beautiful silver tea service.

We were fortunate to have a February visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Robert Sangster. Her energy and enthusiasm imbued us all.

In April we commemorated our founding with a banquet at the Lubbock Country Club. Texas I was invited to celebrate with us.

Seventy nine members have experienced a delightfully busy and companionable year. With appreciation for the outstanding leadership of Jo Sudduth, our president, and gratitude to our other officers, we closed our year in May with installation of new officers.

MRS. Z. A. MOORE, JR.

MIDLAND

The Midland Alumnae Club started the year last May by celebrating Loyalty Day with a luncheon in the home of Mrs. Jack Samples. The honored guest was Mrs. Eddie Chiles, who was moving to Ft. Worth.

The summer was occupied with rush. The highlight of the rushing season was the "Gigi" party held by this club. It was complete with French cuisine and was held in the formal French style garden of Mrs. C. E. Marsh.

In November, the program was a very interesting one on flower arranging.

The club ushered in February, 1960, with a benefit bridge at the Midland Woman's Club. Each member brought three guests.

On February 11, the annual election of officers was held. This was followed with a review of the play, "The Girls in Room 509" by Mrs. William Pennebaker.

Throughout the year this club has had members active in various other activities. Some of these are: the Junior Welfare League, the Midland Community Theatre, the Children's Theatre, Beta Sigma Phi, and P.E.O.

This year was closed in April, when Founders' Day was observed with a luncheon at the new Odessa Country Club with the Midland Alumnae as guests of the Odessa Alumnae Club. Florence Poindester, of the Midland Club, presented the program.

DIANE NICHOLS CUNNINGHAM

MUSKOGEE

Our alumnae club gave a coffee at the home of Nancy Holliday during the Thanksgiving Holidays for our five actives, of whom we are very proud. We have one active in the University of Arkansas, one at Randolph-Macon, one at Oklahoma University and two at Oklahoma State University. On New Year's Eve afternoon we entertained our actives and rushees with a tea in the home of Dorothy Hays with Sally King as co-hostess.

Martha Bramlett of Poteau was pledged the second semester at Oklahoma State University. In February Vera McCune entertained in her home for Julia Kirby who was moving to Phoenix, Arizona. The club presented Julia with a farewell gift from the Settlement School.

Discussions have been held at each meeting on a worthy project for our Club to undertake in connection with helping to make a reality the Five Civilized Tribes Museum in Muskogee. Our community is undertaking the restoration of the Indian Agency which is one of the oldest historical landmarks of Eastern Oklahoma. No decision has been reached as yet.

CATHERINE CAVE

NORMAN

The Norman Alumnae Club held its October meeting with a tea in the new chapter house on the Oklahoma University campus. We had an excellent meeting and enjoyed a tour of the new house conducted by new pledges. We have elected to hold this year's meetings in the afternoon, and will meet every other month, instead of monthly. Our final meeting of the spring however will be a supper party at which time we will entertain our husbands.

MARGRET HANCOCK CRUTCHFIELD

OKLAHOMA CITY

There's nothing like an enthusiastic and inspiring president to achieve a successful year, and that's just what the Oklahoma City Alumnae Club had under the leadership of Susan Severin Prime.

In September we started with an entertaining "Dues and Donuts" meeting. Our junior members presented a clever historical style show and narration of the History of Settlement School.

On November 11 we had our Settlement School Coffee at the Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club with the assistance of our junior members. This year we tried something new. We had two style shows as well as the regular sale of Arrow Craft goods, and we sold tickets to the affair, the proceeds of the ticket sales going to the Crippled Children's Recreational Fund. We took in $5,553 from our Settlement School sales, and we felt that the new type of party was very successful.

We are very proud of our new Merit Award of $100 which we set up to give to an active member whose work on the campus and in the chapter is outstanding. Our first recipient was Miriam Oesch of Oklahoma B who was given her Award Certificate at our December meeting. Also, to both active chapters whom we were entertaining, we gave gifts of $75 each. After the meeting the junior members caused many a nostalgic sigh by surprising us with a Cooky-shine along with an interesting account of the History of the Cooky-shine.

One of our projects this year has been to commission another portrait of one of our Founders for our beautiful new house at Norman. At our January meeting we voted to have them all framed alike with name plates for each.

We have all enjoyed another rewarding year in the close fellowship of Pi Beta Phi.

BETTY KATHERINE MCGUIRE

ROSWELL

The Roswell Alumnae Club had a full and active year beginning with summer rush. At the June meeting at Mary Lou McGee's plans were made for rushing selected girls from our area, and the regular dinner meeting in October culminated alumnae rush with final letters being written to active chapters.

In September the alumnae rush chairman reported the pledging of five girls, one at Arizona A, two at New Mexico A, and two at Oklahoma B. Also, the club voted to have a rummage sale.

The October rummage sale netted the club $80. It was voted to give $5 to the Roswell Episcopal Foundation in memory of our charter alumnae club member Elizabeth Martin, deceased September 18, 1959.

A regular dinner meeting was held in November with Harriet Christy. It was announced that Lillian Coll had been appointed State Alumnae rush chairman for the following year, and a coffee was planned for December to honor our new pledges, actives, and visiting alumnae.

The coffee was held December 29 with a large percentage of the alumnae club present to meet and welcome our pledges.

The January meeting met with Marge Allen. It was announced that the Pi Beta Phi's were to be hostesses for the Panhellenic dessert brunch on January 26. Also, we voted to send $200 to the New Mexico A Building Fund.

In February a new slate of officers was elected, and plans were laid for the April 28 Founders' Day Banquet to be held at the Roswell Country Club.

Although we are a small club, we have collected all dues, contributed to Settlement School Fund, Holt House, Emma Harper Turner Fund, and paid all National dues.

LINDA BROWN KEITH

SAN ANTONIO

The San Antonio Alumnae Club is very proud of the new pledges that we can welcome this year. At a lovely brunch, during the Christmas vacation, they, their mothers and the debutantes of the season were honored. The party was held in the home of Mrs. Wm. B. Osborn with Mrs. Betty Osborn Biedenharn, and Mrs. Rowena Simpson Osborn acting as hostesses.

In February, we were pleased to have a delightful, though short, visit from our province vice president, Mrs. Robert Sangster of Houston. She spoke to our meeting in the morning, and was later honored at luncheon.

Also in February, we were represented at the annual Panhellenic Ball, held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel.

Our year closed with the Founders' Day Banquet, and candle lighting ceremony, in April.

STILLWATER

A week before rush at Oklahoma B, the Stillwater Alumnae Club met for a Patio "Rush Roundup Supper" at the home of alumnae club president, Jerry Beltz. In addition to the club, actives as well as alumnae from surrounding towns were present to report on summer rush activities and make plans for rush week. Two weeks after a very successful rush, the club held its first regular meeting at the home of Cynthia Berry when Corporation Board member, Ruth Morgan, gave a comprehensive report on the many improvements made at the chapter house during the summer. The club was privileged to examine the hundreds of gifts and mementoes which Malinda Berry, National Maid of Cotton, had collected on her round the world tour. The hundreds of dresses given her by the users of cotton over the world filled a rack thirty feet long.

October brought the annual alumnae club party for the pledges at Nellie Myers's cabin. After the usual get acquainted games, the active chapter surprised the club and the pledges with a serenade. The alumnae club voted to give $25 to the United Fund, the first such philanthropy ever given to the Fund in Stillwater by an alumnae club. The official recipient of the gift was club member Ruth Morgan, Red Cross County Chairman, and a director of the Fund drive. In November, Stillwater Club had its Settlement School sale, this year under the chairmanship of Harriet Griffith, who concentrated on taking orders rather than getting the town out for a sale. She was most successful, and the club meeting centered around a fine Settlement School program with Jerry Beltz presenting a skit.

At the invitation of Gertrude Allison, the club met for its Christmas party at the chapter house. Mrs. Allison had decorated the lovely colonial interior in pink and silver and the hilarious time of getting rid of white elephants around the dreamlike Christmas tree was more fun than ever. Beauty mixed with informality made this year's party memorable. The usual Charity Basket was filled. A gift of an electric hairdryer to the chapter was made.

The new year started with a Loyalty Day program at the home of Jean Donaldson. Accounts of the installation of Oklahoma B and of the early years of the chapter made oldtimers and active members alike realize the progress made for Pi Beta Phi in the forty years of the chapter's existence. Actives presented an original skit portraying the history. February brought the annual party for husbands during the between semester holiday when the chapter house could be used for an evening buffet and games.

Election of officers together with the annual party for graduating seniors was held in March at Liberty Preston's. With Stillwater acting as host for State Day, April 22-23, planning for this important Oklahoma event occupied time at both the March and April meetings, the latter held at the home of Ruth Orr. State Day, held in the Student Union Building and the chapter house with over two hundred Pi Beta Phi present (both state chapters plus state alumnae), celebrated Founders' Day with Alice Mansfield conducting model initiation and making the luncheon address. The theme of State Day, "The Arrow and the Song," set to original music by Jerry Beltz, was sung in chorus throughout the meetings. The meeting inspired state Pi Phis to attend Convention at Hot Springs and to go home and work anew for Pi Beta Phi and its aspirations. The May meeting at Jody Bernhardt's with installation of officers and planning for attending National Convention and for September rush closed a most happy and productive year for Stillwater Alumnae Club. RUTH SUNDELL ORR.

TULSA

The Junior and Senior groups of the Tulsa Alumnae clubs have a combined membership this year of 108. Mrs. James Boydston is our capable president of the Senior group while Mrs. Wm. Manahan has led the Junior group. Our two groups have met jointly several times during the year and always work together on all Pi Beta Phi projects.

We have had several money making projects that have been very interesting and successful. Our Settlement School Coffee, featuring the sale of Settlement School merchandise, a raffle of a portable television set, and a bridge marathon have provided much interest this year.

Our members looked forward to our State Day which was held in Stillwater this year and to the Easter Tea that honored all actives and pledges home from school and graduating high school seniors.

Our Founders' Day banquet was held in April as usual and the committee presented a most interesting program and evening for us all.

We closed this year's activities with a rush meeting in May and a picnic supper for husbands in June. MAUDIE BROACH

XI PROVINCE

BOZEMAN

The Bozeman Alumnae Club, with a membership of twenty five spent an active year under the guidance of our capable President, Peg Moore Cosgriffe. We began the year's activities on October 24, with a most successful Settlement School Sale. This was a tea at the home of Velma Edwards Story. Individual invitations were sent and while some items were purchased at the tea, approximately $400 worth of merchandise was ordered for a later delivery.

Rush week, this year, was unusually successful as our recommendations committee of Mary Lou Harper Field and Janet Toby Bierum under the leadership of Elva Ayler Cowan, started in June to assemble their records. After rush week, a cooky-shine was given by the alumnae for the new pledges. Margaret Brown Brown was the chairman.

On February 26, the Bozeman Alumnae Club entertained the Senior actives at an annual dinner at the Baxter Hotel. During the summer, the dining room of the chapter house was beautifully redecorated by a committee of alumnae consisting of Lucile Monforton Lowry, Audrey Michaels Lovelace and Eve Hathorne Lovelace. LORAIN LOWRY WHITEHEAD

CHEYENNE

With Mrs. Ken Cyrus, President; Mrs. Paul Brookover, Vice President; Mrs. E. L. Patrick, Treasurer; Mrs. Richard Padon, Recording Secretary; and Mrs. Don McCall, Corresponding Secretary, the Cheyenne club enjoyed a successful year.

Instead of the usual Settlement School tea, this year all members purchased items and sold raffle tickets on a lovely Afghan.

At Christmas time rather than exchange gifts, everyone brought canned goods to be given to the Community Christmas (a local volunteer organization to provide a Christmas for the needy of our community) and in addition, many of the Pi Beta Phis donated many hours to this worthy organization.

On February 13 we had our third annual ARROW Ball at the Plains Hotel which has become one of the highlights of the winter social season.

The Mothers' Club joined us at a tea on March 7 and with the Cooky-shine on May 2 we ended this year. MRS. DON MCCALL

COLORADO SPRINGS

The Colorado Springs Alumnae Club has had a very successful and interesting year with Laureda Thompson Bunker serving as President and Jane Haver Wilcoxson as Vice President.

There were seven meetings this year. The September and October meetings were luncheons held at Nancy Winchester Hereford's and Mae Pettebone Campbell's homes respectively. At the October meeting one of our members, Evelyn Lowman Darby, Xi Province Vice President, gave an interesting talk on the growth of Pi Beta Phi and the Settlement School.

The November evening supper meeting was a Cooky-shine and Song Fest at Marie Hall Offutt's home. At this meeting members donated canned goods and a turkey to be given to a needy Colorado Springs family for Thanksgiving.

After the January meeting, which was a luncheon at the El Paso Club, we had a very unusual and educational afternoon at the North American Air Defense Command Headquarters at Ent Air Force Base, where we were briefed on the defense of our continent. Following the briefing we witnessed a simulated attack on the U. S. by enemy planes at the Combat Operations Center.

The February meeting was a delicious buffet supper held at Annie Bell Black Reid's home. Following the meeting Mr. Sam Downer told of his impressions in meeting Khrushchev.

The March meeting was held at Peg Youts Davis, and our Founders' Day luncheon was at the Air Force Academy Officers Club on April 30. Melda Howard Poe was chairman for this affair and planned a sparkling globe and silver arrow rocket as the decorative theme.

The outstanding event for our alumnae club this year was the Settlement School Tea held at Arthe Baldwin Beardsly's lovely Broadmoor home. Five hundred invitations were issued and the tea was a great success in every way. MARIE HALL OFFUTT

DENVER

The Denver Alumnae Club has had an interesting and profitable year under the gracious leadership of our efficient president, Mary Grace Clark. Theme for the year has been "Wide Wide World and the Pi Phis."

The Settlement School Tea and House Tour was held in October. Four lovely homes were opened for this event. A beautiful tea was served in one home. Settlement School goods, ceramics made by Pi Beta Phis, spun sugar novelties, puppets, wax candles, hand knits, felt purses, artificial fruits, cookies in apothecary jars, and a Towle Silver display were shown in the other three homes. This event was most successful.

In November the club enjoyed meeting simultaneously in small groups in five neighborhood homes. Dessert, meeting and a Panhellenic discussion were similar for each group.

After a Christmas luncheon in December, Mrs. Alonzo Petteys gave a fascinating talk from the woman's point of view of her travels in Russia, our theme, "The Foreign World."

Our theme was "The World of Beauty" in January, and we had a discussion and display of artificial flowers.

In February the Junior and Senior Alumnae Clubs joined together for a pot luck type supper meeting. This was a jolly evening and our interesting speaker from "The World of Literature" was nationally known author, William E. Barrett.

After luncheon in March the editor of "Green Thumb" magazine talked on "The World Beneath Our Feet."

A social day was also scheduled in March; a luncheon in the new Brown Palace West, and a beautiful fashion show commented handsomely by our own Jane Ross Smith.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April. The Junior and Senior Alumnae Clubs and Pi Beta Phi from other Colorado clubs as well as actives from Colorado chapters gathered together for this annual event.

A luncheon and installation of officers ended the year in May. Our final program was "The Legal World" with Mrs. Schalow, a Pi Beta Phi, the speaker. JANET WEST

DENVER JUNIOR

The Junior division of the Denver Alumnae Club started out the year's activities in September under the leadership of our president, Jeanne McGrea. Plans were under way immediately for our house tour of Pi Beta Phi homes. This is our ways and means project and our Settlement School tea incorporated into one. The month of October was spent decorating 350 Apothecary Jars which were filled with homemade cookies and then sold at one of the homes on the tour. In addition, we collected ceramic planter dishes and filled them with plants and sold them also.

We have endeavored this year to secure speakers for our meetings whom we feel are engaged in different and interesting fields. Two of the most outstanding ones thus far have been Mr. Dan Bell, who is the head of the Better Business Bureau here in Denver and Mr. William Barrett, author and Denverite who is quite well known for his several best sellers. The latter was a joint meeting with the senior division of the alumnae club and was preceded by a supper. An enjoyable and stimulating evening was had by all.

On March 5, we had a free brunch for all those who were paid members of the alumnae club. This year there were fifty-seven. The guests of honor were the past presidents.

Founders' Day luncheon in April was held in Denver this year and we were proud to have as our Toastmistress, Roberta Rabinoff, a recent graduate of Colorado B. This is the one occasion of the year when we can feel the personal contact of alumnae and active chapter together.

PATSY CHAMBERS BURCH

LARAMIE

The Laramie Alumnae Club began its year with a meeting at the chapter house. After viewing the Settlement School wares, the members were introduced to the new pledges. We became better acquainted with the girls at the October meeting which was held at the home of Betty Bunch. Over brownie sundaes and coffee everyone enjoyed good conversation and good fun!

When the holiday season brought marriage to our President, Mary Ann Griffith, it brought us Teddy Ann Varineau. She has successfully taken over the leadership of the group. A good crowd braved below zero weather to attend the February meeting in her lovely home.

A party for seniors in March, and a Founders' Day pie social at the chapter house concluded the year. The club looks forward to next fall when Pi Beta Phi will welcome $\Gamma \Phi B$ to the Wyoming campus. The alumnae club and the active chapter have offered their help and the chapter house when Gamma Phi comes to colonize.

JOSEPHINE WEAVER GATZ

PUEBLO

The Pueblo Alumnae Club has had a most interesting year. Last fall, in order to replenish the treasury, the club sponsored a review by Mrs. Mollie Beresford of Denver, of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical "Flower Drum Song." After the presentation, tea was served. The affair proved to be both enjoyable and profitable. It was held at the new Continental Pueblo Hotel.

At Christmas time, the group again undertook to make the occasion a happy one for a needy family. This year, a family of nine was suggested by Dorothy Becker Keen. Members brought gifts of clothing and toys as well as ornaments for decorating the Christmas tree.

Undoubtedly the most "fun" time of the year was the couples' snow party, in February, at the Don K Ranch. Following an afternoon of tobogganing and other outdoor fun, members and their husbands thoroughly enjoyed the warmth of a roaring fire and an excellent buffet. The snow parties have been a tremendous success, and the club hopes to make this an annual event.

MARILYN MARSH ELLINGWOOD

SALT LAKE CITY

Our Salt Lake City Alumnae Club had a very successful year. In October we had a combined golf and bridge day with luncheon served afterwards. In November we held the "Arrow Craft Hostess," the Settlement School Tea. This affair was held at the beautiful home of our Alumnae Club President, Norma Bennion, under the able direction of our Settlement School Chairman, Denny Kastelic. In every room their was a certain theme which corresponded to the articles on display. Tables were set to show off the linens, place mats, and pottery, in the form of Autumn Colors, and Christmas colors, etc. During the tea, members modeled fashions from one of the leading Salt Lake stores. Colored slides were shown of the Settlement School throughout the afternoon. Because this was the one big money raising project for us, all of the members helped in some way. Many said this was one of the best affairs we had ever undertaken, and was very well attended by all members and their guests.

During the month of January, we felt fortunate to have had a visit from Mrs. Evelyn L. Darby, our Xi Province Vice President. Those who were able to meet this gracious lady were delighted to hear news of the Grand Council and Convention. We enjoyed a nice dinner with her and after went to the active chapter house for a meeting.

As for the remainder of the year, in February, we had the Cooky-shine, and individual group meetings. The Founders' Day Banquet was scheduled for April and the month of May concluded with the Senior Breakfast.

KATHERINE R. LORDS

OMICRON PROVINCE

BELLEVUE

The Bellevue Alumnae Club began its year with a buffet luncheon at the Mercer Island home of Jacqueline Christie Davison. President Patricia Batchelder Melrose greeted and introduced several new members. Sarahjane Paulson Vanasse, Omicron Province Vice President, gave an interesting talk on the Settlement School. She spoke of its growth and work and answered questions of the members.

In November, a Settlement School Sale and tea was held at the Diamond S home of Inez Davis Dotson. Gayl Rychard Erickson and Mary Lou Trekkell Vincent were cochairmen of the very successful affair. In December, a card party was held at the Medina Home of Dorothy McCall Bishop.

At the January meeting, held at the home of Ruth Manley Hallin, the group was fortunate to have Sharon Vaughn as speaker. Sharon is an active Pi Beta Phi at the University of Washington, and as Miss Washington, was a finalist in the Miss America contest of 1959.

An interesting program of slides and commentary on Holt House was presented at the February meeting at the home of Margaret Barton Ressa. Plans for the March meeting featured an interior decorator.

In April, members joined with Seattle Alumnae and actives to celebrate Founders' Day.

The annual May picnic was held at the Meydenbauer Bay home of Helen Burt Bradley, who also was hostess for the husband-wife dinner in June. Helen Veach Campbell and Sue Schroeder Aust were cochairmen of this affair. Phyllis Atwater Volkstroff has served as program chairman of the club.

NANCY TEUTSCH HUGHES

BOISE

The Boise Alumnae Club, with Mrs. Paul Poulson as our new President, met in June at Mrs. Gordon MacGregor's home. Plans were made for summer rush, and five local girls were pledged at the University of Idaho in September.

Fall activities began with a rummage sale which proved to be a great success. During the fall and winter we held monthly meetings at the members' homes, highlighted by our annual Christmas luncheon, with seventeen actives and pledges as our guests.

We all looked forward to our spring meetings, especially the Founders' Day luncheon.

GEN BELL

CALGARY

The Calgary Alumnae Club has enjoyed a fine year under the presidency of Jean Clow Irwin. Highlighting the year were two particularly interesting and well attended meetings. One featured a talk with slides by Mary Harris Morley about her recent trip to Russia. Our Christmas meeting featured a white elephant auction sale which turned out to be quite hilarious as well as profitable. The enrichment of our treasury from this sale as well as our fall rummage sale enabled us to send a gift to our Edmonton chapter house.

Our interest in the local Rehabilitation Society continues. In March a group of our girls attended one of their meetings to provide and serve their lunch.

JOYCE CAIRNS O'BRIEN

COOS COUNTY

Our Coos County Alumnae Club met at the home of Elinor Chandler, Coos Bay on April 27 to observe Founders' Day with a pot luck luncheon. Since our group is so small and widely scattered over the county we have only our required meetings during the year. At this time we voted to retain our present officers for the second term, and to meet only when necessary.

A Settlement School sale which had been planned for fall was later cancelled because of economic conditions prevalent in the county. Mrs. Michael Nosler was an alumna transfer to our area. Due to the sudden death of our club's organizer and charter member, Leta Mast Leslie (Mrs. Earl E. "Spike" Leslie) the January meeting was postponed until a later date.

ALICE PEAPER JENKINS

EDMONTON

Under the inspiring leadership of President Elsie Hamilton, the Edmonton Alumnae Club had a successful year. The speakers, with their varied topics, have been most interesting. Dr. Van Stolk told of his work with Dr. Schweitzer in Africa. "Recent Trends in International Affairs" by Marjorie Bowker was enlightening. Ken Ford spoke on his experiences in Burma working under the Colombo Plan. Other subjects were "Antique Glass Collecting," "Children's Art" and "Europe Today."

Our financial projects, including a rummage sale, dessert bridge, and sale of Christmas cards and novelties, enabled us to meet our commitments.

Assistance was given the active chapter with initiation luncheons and rushing parties. An Alberta A birthday party was held with actives and Mothers' Club as guests, and two modernistic lamps presented to the house.

The Fraternity had a tea honoring Virginia Speaker, Grand Secretary, and all who met her appreciated her inspiration and charm.

The annual newsletter was sent to all Alberta A Alumnae, keeping us in contact with them. Sincere thanks are due Hazel McCuaig, who makes this project possible by her collection of news and financial assistance.

Our own Marjorie Bowker was a guest speaker at the Panhellenic Banquet. Having recently returned from a trip to Greece, she was well qualified to speak on "Panhellenic Wonderland." Actives and alumnae were delighted to have Lou Ann Tuft as honored guest at the Founders' Day Banquet at Mayfair Club. Pi Beta Phi cook books were presented to the graduates at the May luncheon held in their honor.

ANN STOOKE HANNA

EUGENE

The Eugene Alumnae Club launched another successful year under the leadership of Alice Jones Northway, president, with a September meeting at the Oregon A chapter house. After plans were made for assistance to the chapter during rushing, the alumnae were given a grand tour through the redecorated upper floors of the chapter house. Much credit is due Billie Hammett Robertson, president of the Oregon A Holding Committee, and her colleagues for the completion of this project.

Plans for the annual Settlement School sale and tea occupied the club at the October dinner meeting at the home of Jane Carlisle Moshofsky. Cochairmen Bobette Gilmore Bagley and Jody Greer Stout were delighted with the enthusiasm of the members and were later rewarded by the hard work of all of the alumnae in making this the most successful sale in recent years. On October 29 the alumnae attended a dinner in honor of Oregon A chapter birthday and presented gifts to the chapter. The alumnae were then entertained with the chapter's annual song competition which the freshman class won.

The II B Φ pledges were feted at the November meeting at the home of Frances Watzek Warren, at which time a history of the Settlement School was also presented. In December each member brought a gift to the Christmas bazaar at Gloria Cloud Skade's home. The gifts were auctioned and proceeds given to the Marjorie Thompson Reynolds Memorial Scholarship which is sponsored by Eugene City Panhellenic and given each year to a deserving fraternity woman. In connection with this scholarship, the II B Φ and A Γ Δ alumnae held a bridge benefit at the home of Lois Scharpf Reed and the contributions from this also went to the scholarship fund.

January brought a visit from Omicron Province Vice President Sarahiane Paulson Vanasse. It also brought icy weather conditions and the club was unable to hold a regular meeting. Those members who were able to visit with Mrs. Vanasse were pleased to renew acquaintances and share experiences. Deborah Lewis Larson's home was the scene of the March meeting and officers for the coming year were elected. Christina Hallman, a foreign student from Sweden sponsored by Oregon A, entertained the group with her impressions of life at the University of Oregon. Installation of new officers took place in April at the home of Nancy Carlisle Thomas.

The year drew to a close with a meeting at the home of Mary Battin Christoferson in May to honor the Oregon A senior class. Everyone enjoyed the singing and fellowship of a Cooky-shine in recognition of Founders' Day. The Eugene Alumnae Club is very proud of Hope Hughes Pressman who is a member of the Special Committee of Seven and who also served II B Φ so well as alumnae membership advisor to the active chapter this past year.

JODY GREER STOUT

EVERETT

The Everett Alumnae Club had as usual a pleasant and enjoyable year.

On the first Saturday in December the Annual Arrow Craft Sale was held. It proved to be quite successful as we have many faithful buyers and an excellent manager in Louise Wheelock Dobler.

Founders' Day was observed with a dinner meeting at a local restaurant. Twelve attended.

In August the club and the active members home from school met at President Peggy Goodman Hammond's beach home for a picnic supper. It is a pleasant way to meet the actives and discuss schools and rushing.

SARAH SCHLADEMAN HALL

MEDFORD

The Medford Pi Beta Phi alumnae club had the honor of entertaining Sarahiane Paulson Vanasse, Omicron Province Vice President, during her visit to southern Oregon in January. She had dinner with the executive board followed by a meeting for all of the club members. We enjoyed talking with her and hearing news of the fraternity.

The meetings of the Medford club have included desserts at members' homes, luncheon at the Country Club, dinner at a local hotel, and patio supper. Of particular interest have been the Holt House slides; the report of an Ashland teacher and native of Tennessee, on Gatlinburg, Settlement School and the Great Smoky Mountains; the annual meeting to which we invite actives; and observance of Founders' Day and Chapter Loyalty Day.

Members of the club are active in civic enterprises. Hardly a service organization in Medford is without Pi Beta Phi representation. Mary L. Shepherd Lorish is conducting the first class in landscape design that the Medford public school system has offered in its adult education department. Mary has also been active in organizing the Rogue Valley Arts Group and serves as its secretary. Noreen A. Kelly served the community as Municipal Judge until recently, but was appointed in February as Assistant State Attorney General for Oregon, and is associated with the State Industrial Accident Commission in its trial division.

Frances Cox Wimberly serves the Oregon Shakespearean Association as secretary and along with Peggy Reter Baker, Phyllis Chandler Blackstone, Lylieth Medbury Bush, Helen Rivolta Thierolf, and Eva Hedrick Richardson, is an active worker in the Junior Service League's kindergarten for hard of hearing children. Esther Fell Hammond is president of the Rogue Valley Hospital Auxiliary while Mary Holmes Moffat is the hospital service chairman. Shirley Helwig Hercher is president of her PEO chapter and Margaret Mark McQueen, program chairman of another.

We were delighted with the two Southern Oregon fall pledges. Sue Graff at Oregon A and Jane Yable, Oregon F. We are expecting Flora Schuster MacCracken to lead us through another successful year of friendship and service.

EDNA SAVAGE OLSON

SALEM

The Nancy Black Wallace Alumnae Club climaxed a telephone campaign to bring out active membership with an October meeting at the home of Joan Phillips. A large turnout heard the president, Edith Lewis, outline plans for the year, and were entertained by slides taken by Ronald Potts, son of Jean Potts, who was in Germany last summer with an American Field Service scholarship.

An extremely successful Settlement School Sale in November at the home of Odell Ohling can be attributed to the efforts of Odell as Settlement School Chairman and Sue Ramey, chairman of the sale and tea. Special tables were set up to illustrate gift ideas and given such labels as "Bridge prizes under $3," "Christmas on the way," "Aprons plain and fancy," etc. A special treat at Christmas time was the festive party held for the alumnae and active chapter members at the lovely Tudor home of Nancy Wallace Gormsen. Nancy showed the group mementoes belonging to her grandmother, Nancy Black Wallace, one of the Founders. Pledges of the active chapter then presented a lively skit about campus life followed by carol singing. The alumnae gathered for a January luncheon to hear from the province vice president, Sally Vanasse, who charmed the group with her warm personality in spite of a blustery snow storm outside.

February doldrums were dispelled at a pleasant afternoon meeting at Ruth Hicks' home. Vivian Chambers showed slides of a European trip that she and her family took last year. As an extra bonus at March meeting following the election of officers, a short talk on spring planting was given by a local nurseryman. The honoring of senior girls at Founders' Day in April made this an even more meaningful occasion. Mildred Bateson handled arrangements for the banquet at a local hotel. Pleasant recollections of the husband-wife picnic held last year at the lovely country home of Louella Buren assured a grand turnout for this year's date in June.

SUZANNE BARNES MORRISON

SEATTLE

The Seattle Alumnae Club started the year in September with a very successful used article sale under the able chairmanship of Henrietta Munson.

Our new president, Mary Peck, conducted our first meeting in October. Following dessert, the pledges were introduced by giving us a style show of typical campus fashions. As we are most fortunate in having our province vice president, Sally Vanasse, a member of our club, she gave us some interesting highlights of her trip to Gatlinburg this past summer and the workshop held there.

Also in October, we joined with the actives in honoring Mrs. Speaker at a lovely tea.

A drop in luncheon in connection with the Settlement School sale was held in November at the home of Hazel Paddock. Peg Tennant and Gladys Wilfong capably organized this most successful affair both financially and socially.

Excellent and complete committee reports were given to the members at a luncheon and business meeting held at the Seattle Tennis Club in February. Election of new officers completed the meeting. Florence Brown was responsible for all arrangements for the luncheon.

Ito! Cragin did a superb job in organizing our annual dinner and games night for husbands and escorts at the chapter house in March. It was a most enjoyable evening as well as helping our treasury.

In observance of Founders' Day, alumnae and actives joined together for dinner and program which is always an inspiration to all of us.

We ended our year's activities with a meeting honoring graduating seniors and installation of officers.

GERTRUDE TURLEY

SPOKANE

A dinner meeting in September at the home of Peggy Harrington Poole started a successful year in the Spokane Alumnae Club, with Aroa Penn Ohme as our efficient president. The director of YWCA Handicapped Program, our local philanthropy, inspired us to further efforts with her talk and slides on helping handicapped persons.

In October, a speaker from a modeling agency turned our attention to matters of "charm" at the home of Carol Cook Jones. Norma Ross Maris efficiently handled the rummage sale, which netted our club $160.

Virginia Campen Latenser told of her experiences in Japan and brought many objects of interest to the November meeting at Robin Harris Simpson's.

A holiday coffee party was held just after Christmas honoring the actives and their mothers at the home of Peggy Vorous Gale. Attractive wine carnation corsages were given to our guests. Arline Campbell Boyle was in charge.

A most interesting talk was given at our January meeting on unidentified flying objects, called "Report on Project Bluebook," held at Marilyn Hahn Stedman's home.

Many enjoyed the Friendship Luncheon held on February 9, and planned by Margaret Green Morris. We were delighted to have three Pi Beta Phi alumnae from Pullman with us. Vera Peasley Swann and Lillian MacLeod Rusch gave an amusing and fascinating account of their adventures in Europe last summer.

Our March meeting at Marge Richardson Sherwin's included election of officers and a Chinese Auction. We undertook a theater benefit this month, with Dorothy White Byrne as chairman. By selling tickets to two good older movies at a local theater, we made a substantial amount.

While no Settlement School Sale was held, Marilyn Brumblay Stocker saw that many Arrow Craft articles were sold during the year.

Plans for our Founders' Day Banquet, April 27, which is always an eagerly anticipated event had Katherine Mattes Laing as chairman. In May, an annual picnic and Cooky-shine at the home of Rachel Nelson Everest brought a very busy and happy year to a close.

PEGGY MELZER HASSTEDT

TACOMA

Our successful year under the leadership of Eleanor Henderson Gerber began in September at the home of Roberta Weirick Pauley. We had our traditional buffet supper.

In October we met at the home of Dorothy Mueller Fewell. Susan Springer, president of our local chapter, told us of her summer in Europe as a camp counselor.

On November 10 our Settlement School Sale was held at the home of Virginia Jackson Woodworth with Jane Hagen Knapp and Janice Ludwig North as co-chairmen. Helen Glasor Davison was chairman of the luncheon which was also served.

Dorothy Foxwell Leveque was our January hostess when we heard a speaker from the library give several reviews. Dorothy Jancke Ohlson was hostess for an afternoon social get together in January. This is a new experiment to try to encourage interest among those who do not come to our evening meetings. The next one was held at the new Student Center in March.

We held our annual rummage sale with Marilyn McCormack Dimmer in charge in February. Our meeting that month was held at the home of Margaret Allen Jonez with the evening devoted to a social hour.

Billie Vanden Steen Arthur was our hostess in March when we heard a foreign student from the University of Puget Sound.

Joann Neff Cross was chairman of our Founders' Day banquet which was held with Washington P in the new Student Center.

DOROTHY MUNYON

VANCOUVER

The Vancouver Alumnae Club has enjoyed a busy and successful year under the leadership of our President, Ruby Traill.

We opened the new season with a meeting at the home of Margie Wedd. We greeted new members and reviewed our local constitution. Rummage was collected for the Jericho Hill School for the Blind sale in October, for which we lend a hand each year.

Several work parties during October took the place of a regular meeting. We were busy preparing for our annual money making project, a Coffee Party and sale of Xmas wrappings, decorations, candles, and home cooking.

The Coffee Party was held in November at the home of Isobel Millar. Our hard working convener for this affair was Jean Murphy. We raised $360 for our Scholarship Fund. A $500 Scholarship for education students specializing in the teaching of blind children will be offered at the University of British Columbia for the first time this year. We are very proud of this effort.

Elspeth Wright was hostess for our November meeting. Orene Robinson gave a very interesting demonstration on how to make our own Xmas decorations.

The December meeting at Betty Leftoy's was an informal Xmas party.

Mary Allen's slides of her trip to Russia last summer were enjoyed by all at the February meeting at the home of Marjorie Johnson.

Our Settlement School Chairman, Fran Walcott, gave a short talk at the March meeting at the home of Mary Allen.

We looked forward to the celebration of Founders' Day in April, at a buffet supper at the home of Kay Miller, and to our final meeting of the year at Barbara James home in May.

MARGARET WEDD

WALLA WALLA

The Walla Walla Alumnae Club celebrated its first meeting as a National Alumnae Club during the Christmas Holidays at a lovely coffee hour at the charming apartment of Mildred Koenke in honor of the many actives we now have in our community. We are proud to have actives from the College of Puget Sound, University of Washington, Willamette University, Washington State University, and Oregon State University.

The alumnae group has added several new members this year.

Mrs. Gordon Adams—the former Miss Spokane, Mrs. Ted Renacker, Lawrence College graduate, Mrs. Eugene Owens, and Miss Geil Anderson, a young teacher and Oregon State graduate. We suddenly find that from a small group we now number about thirty two members from the Walla Walla, Waitsburg, and Dayton area.

The officers this past year have been: Mrs. Dolly Copeland, President; Mrs. Beverly Hill, Vice-president; Mrs. Marilyn Noble, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Helen Reser, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Grace Ledbetter, Treasurer and Settlement School Representative.

YAKIMA

Fanny Whitenack Libby Alumnae Club began the year in October, 1959, with a home dinner meeting, at which there were twenty two members, among them several new arrivals in town. The group was very pleased with the exceptionally fine girls from this area pledged by the various colleges.

At Christmas the active members and pledges were entertained at a pancake breakfast at the Pancake House. A gift of playing cards was given to the active chapters in the state of Washington. Attractive pin boxes are given to the girls from this area as they are initiated into their respective chapters.

There have been several interesting programs this year, including talks on food fads and clothing counsel.

In April Founders' Day was celebrated with members from surrounding towns at the home of Bunny Chastin.

ANTELOPE VALLEY

Last August our club accepted with regret the resignation of our President, Adele Heinck, who has moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming. Betty Porter is our very capable new President, and May Rogan, our Vice President.

Monthly meetings were held in the homes of members. In September we welcomed a new member, Merica Edwards, Oklahoma A. A very successful Settlement School Sale and Tea was held in October, and we enjoyed a luncheon at the Bermuda Inn in December.

Interesting meetings have included discussions of Rushing, Settlement School, Constitution and History.

JEAN BJERKE PEDERSON

BAKERSFIELD

The Bakersfield Alumnae Club year began in October with members gathering for a potluck supper at the home of former president, Frances Seymour Holmes. Settlement School articles were on display for sale and order.

A November coffee held at the home of Beverly Beck Powers started us thinking about Christmas. The members present each brought a decoration or gift, many of them original, to be displayed and auctioned off at the close of the meeting. Our January luncheon and card party, held at the home of Betty Palmaymesa Bidart, featured recipes from the Pi Beta Phi Cookbook. Thirty seven members and guests attended and many cookbooks were sold to enthusiastic buyers.

We were proud when Mary Frances Tucker Porter was selected as one of the Outstanding Women of the Year by Kern Panhellenic and honored at a luncheon in February. Betty Snyder Smith was hostess at the March dessert meeting which featured three of the outstanding women in the community presenting a dramatic reading. The annual Founders' Day luncheon was held at the home of Rosemary Cutter Werdel with election and installation of new officers preceding the luncheon. Our enjoyable Pi Beta Phi year under the guidance of our president, Patty Powell McFarland, was concluded in June with husbands as guests at an evening barbecue.

DOLORES BORLAND NUDDS

BERKELEY

Fall activities for the Berkeley Alumnae Club began with a flourish at the chapter house in September. Vera McCaslin Hansen, our president, had the pleasure of introducing Mrs. W. G. Gordon, Pi Province President, after which we met and entertained all of the new pledges of California B and also representatives of the other eight bay area clubs. A luncheon meeting in October was held in the lovely hilltop home of Sue Boot Johnson and was highlighted with a talk by Pi Province Vice President, Mrs. James M. Hamilton, and also with tours through the Johnsons' exotic orchid greenhouses.

November found us at the chapter house, participating in a most successful Settlement School Tea with many members and guests attending. The younger members of our alumnae club graciously invited all bay area Pi Beta Phis and their husbands to a post-Christmas party at the modernistic home of Shirley Long Riss in January.

The big event of the year for our new Pi Beta Phis and a heart-warming event for all alumnae was the traditional Initiation Banquet on February 27 at the Horizon Room of the Hotel Claremont. During the day, many of us had participated in the Initiation Ceremony at the chapter house. At the banquet two scholarship cups were presented, one going to an upper classman and one to an initiate.

Dessert and coffee at the home of Caroline Pratt McCreary in March was followed by a business meeting and short talks by members of our Advisory Board concerning their work with the actives. The nominating committee also presented the slate of officers for the coming year. Also in March was our fun and money raising event of the year, a bridge luncheon at the home of our gracious and generous Sue Johnson. From the glamorous salad centerpieces on each of the tables to the drawing of the winning raffle tickets, it was a gala and financially successful occasion, beautifully planned by Norma Lauppe Shaw, program director.

Founders' Day Luncheon in April was hosted this year by the San Francisco Alumnae Club and held at the Saint Francis Hotel. Our members were also invited by the Sacramento Alumnae Club to join them for a Founders' Day celebration at the El Dorado Hotel in Sacramento.

In May, our last meeting of the year, we had a delightful luncheon meeting and installation of officers, followed by an informative talk from Irma T. Riley concerning the Constitution. Berkeley looks back on a good year of working together in Pi Beta Phi, and looks forward eagerly to the coming year. GRACE TUPPER BLOSSOM

CENTINELA VALLEY

Centinela Valley Alumnae Club, with a roster of thirty members representing twenty four different chapters, enjoyed a successful year under the leadership of Mary Halliday, president.

New members were welcomed at the year's first meeting, which was held in Lorraine Freeberg's new home overlooking the Pacific Ocean. Willene Snyder arranged a display of Arrowcraft for the evening.

At the November meeting in Mildred Paisley's home, we made 112 Christmas corsages for hospital shutins. The program was provided by Helen MacBoyle, who shared her impressions of many persons and places she had visited during an extended tour of the United States.

Hilda Greene was hostess for a "cooky-shine" in December. Ann Stout described and played several classical selections for the piano and accompanied group singing of favorite Pi Beta Phi songs and carols. Many beautifully wrapped gifts were brought by the members for patients at Harbor General Hospital, our annual holiday project.

Despite a flu epidemic and heavy rain, we had a good showing for the January brunch at Mary Halliday's home. Everyone had fun bidding at our "Dutch raffle," which netted a nice profit for the club.

May Scott of the Los Angeles Alumnae Club showed her colored slides of the Orient at the February meeting in Willene Snyder's home. An Oriental flower arrangement, fortune cookies and mandarin orange dessert carried out the Far-Eastern theme.

The March meeting at Catherine Sischo's was devoted to fraternity information and preparations for Founders' Day, which we celebrated with the South Bay Club at a luncheon in April.

In May, we met at Dorothy Johnson's with a guest, Maxine Willis, relating her adventures as a ham radio operator.

A party for our husbands concluded the year's activities at Rosalyn Frudenfeld's home in June. JOAN SHIELDS WISE

CONTRA COSTA

The Contra Costa Chapter of Pi Beta Phi Alumnae began its 1959-60 season with a very successful dessert bridge and Arrowcraft sale in September of 1959. It was a lovely party with many tables grouped around the spacious garden and swimming pool at the home of Vivian Milton. It was a beautiful day and the only indications of Fall were gorgeous white mums floating in the swimming pool. Our girls who served wore dainty blue silk organza aprons appropriately decorated with a golden arrow on the apron skirt and the Greek letters of Pi Beta Phi in a wine shade at the waist front of the belt. We will likely use these aprons on many occasions.

At the October meeting the proceeds from the September party were voted to be used for Carl Reagan, a worthy student at the Settlement School. Carl was chosen by Contra Costa Alumnae to be the recipient of several gifts since last October, which will help him to secure necessary eye treatments. Letters from Carl are most gratifying.

Our group also gather and send good used and new clothing to the Settlement School. Postage for such packages is paid for from the proceeds of White Elephant sales. We had two such sales, one in November and another in April.

At the December meeting the girls made Christmas corsages for the women at the Old Folks Home. For the old men we decorated felt socks in gay Holiday motif.

Our annual fun Pot Luck Couples party was again held in the lovely home of Pat Bernard.

In March each girl brought four or five of her favorite 35 mm. slides to our gathering. This made a very different and entertaining evening.

We had our Founders' Day cooky-shine in April, and at our final meeting in May, we closed the season with a picnic lunch and swim at the home of Polly Kaiser. LAFERNE E. SOULT

FRESNO

Our year got off to a grand start on September 15 when we had a cooky-shine at Inez Antrim's house. President Mitzie Holcomb presided and we all enjoyed meeting our new members. Plans were made for our money raising project, a bridge brunch.

October 13 was the date of our most successful bridge brunch held at Doris Davison's house. Our 100 guests were seated outside around the swimming pool. Calendars and Settlement School goods were sold, netting us $100 for our convention fund.

On November 17 we met at our vice president's home, Anne Heitzig by name. Alice Reagan gave a most interesting talk on Costa Rica. Plans were made for our Christmas party.

Thirty couples came to our Christmas cocktail party at Jan Arnold's house. We collected enough clothes and money for two needy families this year which was most gratifying. This annual party for Pi Beta Phi and their husbands was fun for all.

Our February 23 meeting at Martha Hale's was held to discuss our convention delegate and our Founders' Day luncheon.

We looked forward to our Founders' Day luncheon held on April 23 at Charlene Hayter's home. VIRGINIA S. EATON

GLENDALE

The combined efforts of our president, Helen Hirst, and our program chairman, Mary Koriagin, have made this a very pleasant year, with a great variety of activity.

In September, the group heard a University of California, Los Angeles, student talk about "Project India," which is a student tour of Indian universities for the purpose of promoting better understanding between our two countries.

The annual Christmas party, our daughters modeling their favorite fashions, and a talk on "What Makes Us Laugh" by Luethel Houston helped round out the program.

The Settlement School sale and the annual rummage sale were held as usual. However, business and pleasure were combined in other fund raising plans. We held a benefit dinner for members and their husbands, two theatre benefits, and a dessert bridge party, at which donated gifts were auctioned to the highest bidder. The Pi Beta Phi circulating gift basket has not completed its tour, but based on last year's performance, it should bring in additional revenue.

Mrs. James M. Hamilton, province vice president, visited our club in November. Her talk on the activities of other alumnae clubs was most interesting.

In March, we had as our guests Glendale actives from the University of Southern California and the University of California, Los Angeles. Florence Mason was in charge of the program.

The Founders' Day luncheon was held at Sportsmen's Lodge in North Hollywood. JANE SWARTZ BAUGHMAN

HAWAII

The Alumnae Club of Hawaii enjoyed a successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Donald Giddings.

The events commenced appropriately with the Founders' Day luncheon held at the Marine Officers Club. We were fortunate in having Mrs. James Klein (Idaho A) give us an informative and entertaining talk on "The Gentle Art of Politics."

Our morning coffees and business meetings were at the homes of various members, with the exception of one at Waioli Tea Room.

The annual summer luncheon for the actives was held at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel in Waikiki. A large group attended, both vacationing Pi Beta Phi's, as well as those home for the summer.

In September, a family picnic was held at Bellows Field, and in October, we had a cooky-shine, the hostess being Mrs. John Hanley, whose home provided a beautiful setting. It was truly a memorable occasion, with Mrs. Richard Knight speaking on the development of the traditional cooky-shine.

Another highlight was the talk given by Mrs. F. J. Pinkerton, whose mother was one of the Founders of Settlement School, and active in its work during the first eight years of its existence. Mrs. Pinkerton reviewed her mother's work and devotion to Settlement School, and also, in a delightfully informal manner gave her own memories and impressions of it, as a girl.

As in the past, we assisted the Pohukaina Special classes for the Physically Handicapped. Early in the year, a bridge benefit was given at the lovely home of Mrs. Richard Knight, and the money raised helped to buy a specially constructed Merry-Go-Round for the playground. Because of its success, another benefit was held at the Halekulani Hotel, and the proceeds contributed towards the purchase of a much needed Bookmobile for Pohukaina. The club also decorated Easter eggs for these children, and at Christmas, bought and decorated five trees for the school rooms.

An originally designed Christmas tree was also donated to the Queens Hospital Auxiliary's Annual Festival of Trees.

Pi Beta Phi was represented at all Panhellenic meetings during the year, and was indeed honored by the fact that Mrs. Fred Rohlfing was named the Panhellenic Woman of the Year, by the delegates of all fraternities. Her beautiful plaque was awarded at the Annual Presidents' Tea given by the Panhellenic Council.

MARION NASH LEHMKUHL

LA CANADA

The La Canada Valley Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi has had another wonderful year with the continued enthusiastic support of its members under the leadership of Katherine Noble.

We started the year with our annual husbands' and wives' party around the pool of Estelle Schubert.

Our monthly luncheon meetings were held in the member's homes, giving a feeling of closer relationship.

In September, our club assumed the responsibility of donating and arranging flowers for the Southern California F for their rush dinner and teas.

In addition to our October meeting, when we had an informative lecture and movies on Central America by Mr. Hayes Schlundt, we attended the Pasadena Alumnae Club's Carrousel at which Settlement School products were sold.

Province vice president, Pete Hamilton, came to us in November and told us of the importance of Settlement School in the lives of the mountain people, and how important it is to send a delegate to Convention.

We addressed over 15,000 envelopes for the Crippled Children Society and sent Christmas gifts to this worthy organization. In December, Vera Stengel, Chairman of the volunteers at the Crippled Children Society, told us of the wonderful work being done there.

The first of the year started out with an artistic viewpoint in the person of Jean Jacobson, who gave us pointers on interior decorating.

We collected green stamps at the February meeting to send to the chapters, and brought baby clothes and diapers to send to Settlement School. As a further Ways and Means project, we brought used but good clothing of our own to sell among ourselves. Also, Mr. Caldwell, a wine expert, told us about American wines compared to foreign wines.

We enthusiastically attended the Los Angeles Alumnae Club's "Queen For A Day" benefit at the Moulin Rouge in March, and had Evelyn Kyle brighten our own meeting.

Founders' Day at the Sportsman's Lodge in April, and the cooky-shine at the home of Ann Schering in May, ended a successful and busy year.

JANE HIGGIN

LAS VEGAS

Our big project for the year was a tea held in conjunction with Settlement School Arrowcraft Sale at the home of our president, Mrs. Frank Kerestest. Invitations to the tea were sent out and, under the able direction of Mrs. Dennis Healy, Chairman of this project, we feel we had a most successful affair.

In December we had our annual Christmas Party to which the husbands of our members are always invited. On January 25 Southern Nevada Panhellenic Association sponsored a card party. One of our Pi Beta Phis, Miss Jeanne Brannin was cochairman of this event, which was held at the Tropicana Hotel.

In April we had our Founders' Day luncheon at one of our resort hotels.

Installation of officers took place at our May meeting which marked the closing of our year.

WILMA EPLER FAIRHALL

LONG BEACH

The Long Beach Alumnae Club has had a most profitable and rewarding year under the able leadership of Carolyn Moody Lockhart, president.

A summer Christmas card "koffee klatch" and succeeding sales netted a handsome profit of $150. Highlight of the year was our Settlement School tea in August, chairmanned by Carol Green Holmes, Settlement School chairman, with total sales of $800.

On the fun side a family picnic was held at Recreation Park in August and a couple's party in September.

Our meetings have offered a variety of interesting programs. The South Bay Group were guests at our September meeting where their bazaar were displayed and sold, money going to benefit needy Pi Beta Phis living in California.

Settlement School was the main topic of interest in October and in November we were honored to have Mrs. Hamilton, Pi Province Vice President with us. The executive board held a luncheon in her honor at the Hawaiian Restaurant and at the business meeting that same evening a delicious pot luck dinner was enjoyed.

A Christmas party was held at the December meeting with our club adopting a family to whom we gave food, clothing and toys on Christmas eve. A brunch, honoring actives for the holidays from California A, Arizona A and Oregon B, was held during the Christmas holiday.

A day bridge and luncheon meeting was held in January and our annual "cooky-shine" was featured at the February meeting.

Election of officers was held in March with a White Elephant sale held as a ways and means.

In April Founders' Day topped the agenda with those attending feeling a deep sense of togetherness in Pi Beta Phi, its meaning and ideals.

YVONNE NEAL SHAW

LOS ANGELES

This has been a most interesting and constructive year for the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae. Enthusiasm was inspired by our capable president, Jody Belsey. The president's letter was sent to all alumnae in September inviting them to the first meeting. It was held at the home of Betty Andrews the second week in October. A most interesting speaker, Dr. Gearrette McGregor, talked on "Know Your Personality."

Between the October and November meeting the club supported the Doll Fair which is held at Marlborough School. There are around forty organizations that help on this and the Pi Beta Phis made $600 to give to the Children's Hospital. Jan Adams worked very hard on this important event.

Pete Hamilton was honored in November at a dinner at the U.S.C. Chapter House. The boards of the Junior, Professional, and Senior groups had an interesting dinner with our province vice president. Following dinner, a meeting was held at which time Juniors served as hostesses. The Settlement School gifts were displayed very beautifully, and many did Christmas shopping.

In March a new idea was carried out for the benefit of the Crippled Children's Center and for Pi Beta Phi philanthropies. This benefit was called Festival of Fun. It included a Buffet Luncheon, a television program, "Queen For A Day," a chartered bus tour to the Greek Orthodox Cathedral, and to the L.A. County Art Museum. Monette Herbert was the very efficient chairman for this successful new idea in Benefits.

The Founders' Day Luncheon this year was held on Saturday, April 30, at the Sportsman's Lodge in North Hollywood. This gala affair was planned by May Scott and was a most enjoyable experience.

May brought the lovely Mother and Daughter Brunch. This was a new idea this year and proved to be greatly enjoyed.

ELIZABETH TAYLOR

LOS ANGELES JUNIOR

The Pi Beta Phi Junior Alumnae Club of Los Angeles started its busy year with a lovely luncheon including bridge in September. The president, Mrs. Robert Ramsey, announced the events planned for the following months.

In October the "cooky-shine" was a meeting of fun and chatter, followed by the annual joint meeting with the Senior Alumnae Club in November. December was highlighted by the annual Champagne Buffet with over a hundred attending. Mrs. Charles Trappnell planned the event. January's meeting featured a talk on children's books by Mrs. Robert Campbell of Campbell's Book Store in Westwood. For our February meeting, Mrs. Edward Brown, a designer for Lanz, spoke to the group on 1960's spring sportswear fashions. The March card party was followed by the Junior Club joining the Senior Club for the March Benefit for the Crippled Children Society which highlighted the viewing of the coast to coast television broadcast of Queen for a Day from the Moulin Rouge Restaurant in Hollywood.

The club helped to address envelopes for the Easter Seal Campaign and also continues its support of the Junior Scholarship Fund with the proceeds from calendar sales. To help purchase electric blankets for Holt House and Settlement School, the Junior Alumnae Club is filling S&H Green Stamp books.

A "Wine-Tasting Party" with our husbands was on the calendar for April. The annual Children's Party in May was complete with a clown, rocking horses, and lemonade. The June Barbecue and Swim Party with our husbands concluded another enjoyable year for this Junior Club.

MRS. RICHARD ACKERMAN

MARIN COUNTY

Marin County Alumnae Club activities were interesting and varied this year. Arrowcraft products were sold at a series of summer Art and Garden Center luncheons, one of which Panhellenic sponsored. Twenty five Pi Beta Phis attended this luncheon and enjoyed a midsummer get together. A most successful sale of Arrowcraft products was held in October at the Grape Festival, a benefit for Sunny Hills Home for emotionally disturbed children. All profits were given to this worthy group.

In November we sponsored the opening-night performance of "Tunnel of Love," a little theater play presented by the Tiburon Cove Players. Jane Perry was chairman for this fund raising event which enabled us to give a campership to the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire girls. This month, too, at a cooky-shine meeting, we were privileged to have with us our province vice president, Mrs. James M. Hamilton. Her discussion of fraternity affairs was most interesting and helpful. We thoroughly enjoyed her visit.

A Christmas buffet supper party at Helen Morgan's home was held early in the holiday season. Husbands were honored guests at this occasion.

One of the highlights of the year's fund raising events was a dessert luncheon at a local French restaurant. Champagne punch was served, the owner discussed French cuisine and demonstrated how to make a dessert, which was later served to all guests.

At other meetings guest speakers discussed interior decorating, flower arranging, and we were shown a film on growing camellias and azaleas. Founders' Day was observed at a luncheon.

The year closed with a swimming party and barbecue luncheon. Much credit for this enjoyable year is due Marilyn Stuart, President, and her board of directors for everything they did.

MARY HYSLOP WILBEE

PALO ALTO

Many new members from all over the United States were welcomed at the Luncheon and Swimming party at the home of Janet Johnson Ackles in September, followed in October by a most successful Pot Luck supper meeting at Kay Stone's at which our province vice president, "Pete" Hamilton paid us a very enjoyable and informative visit. In November, Nancy Needham Sayre was hostess for our annual Settlement School Tea, held outdoors this year in her lovely garden, with the weather cooperating beautifully, and in December we met at the home of Beth Davenport for our Christmas party, which was mainly to bring gifts and wrap them for the inmates of the senile ward of Agnews State Hospital. This is a philanthropy Beth has been interested in for some time, and we are delighted to be able to help in what was for her alone a large Christmas task, but made easier when all of us pitched in. In January we had our bridge party at Nancy Olsen Soltau's, and our dinner dance was held the following month. The March meeting was for the election of officers, and in April, Founders' Day was honored at a brunch at Kay Heckman Hockey's. We closed a very pleasant and rewarding year with the annual Steak Fry at Edy Allan Manning's.

MRS. WILBUR S. WAGSTAFF

PASADENA

The Pasadena Alumnae Club has had a very successful year under the pleasant guidance of President Mary Jones Des Brisay. Summer and fall were filled with workshop and committee activities in preparation for the Benefit, "A Country Carrousel," given in October at the San Marino Woman's Club. Betty Waggoner Kerr, general chairman of the event, reported a net profit of $1,900. The annual rummage sale given in February was also a financial success and lots of fun for Pi Beta Phi workers. Grace Post has arranged the bridge groups this season, some for Pi Beta Phis and others for Pi Beta Phis and their husbands. Players have contributed 50¢ apiece whenever they met which has added up to a nice little sum for Pi Beta Phi philanthropies.

There have been many outstanding social events for the year. In November the club was honored by a visit from Pi Province Vice President, Mrs. James Hamilton. A Christmas cooky-shine for Junior and Senior members was preceded by an interesting talk on "Christmas Carols Around the World." The dinner dance in February, with its lovely Valentine motif, was much enjoyed by Pi Beta Phis and husbands alike. A clever feature of this occasion was a Pi Beta Phi Papas quartet singing good old Pi Beta Phi songs. In April all clubs in the area enjoyed Founders' Day together at the Sportsman's Lodge, San Fernando Valley. The year closed with a luncheon in May honoring Golden Arrow Members.

HAZEL ORMSBY RASMUSSEN

PASADENA JUNIOR

The Pasadena Junior Alumnae Club began the year with a Bar B Q Swim party at the home of Mrs. A. O. Maule, Betsy Edwards and Elsie Buchanan did the planning and arranging, and a fine time was had by members, their husbands and escorts.

Decorating coffee cans and filling them with freshly baked cookies for the Piff Presents benefit occupied two evenings in October. This was the second time that this project has been undertaken by the Junior group, and again it was enjoyable and successful. Junior members also assisted the Senior Club at the benefit by helping in booths and selling Cook Books.

In November Mrs. Edgar Kenyon, Panhellenic representative, spoke on Fraternity Problems. There was much discussion and interest in the informative program.

The Christmas meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John K. Collins where Juniors and Seniors met together for a program of Christmas Carols.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Junior Club of Pasadena met with us in January. A representative from the Boys and Girls Aid Society spoke of its program for emotionally disturbed children.

In February Rikki Brockway, USC Junior and Settlement School Scholarship winner, delighted everyone with her slides and description of Settlement School. By showing examples of the work done in the summer workshop and describing the activities carried on there, Rikki created a vivid picture of the facilities at Gatlinburg.

We all enjoyed the Ice Cream Social in March and the local gardening expert in April. Installation of officers and an evening of bridge were the highlights of the May meeting.

The year came to a close with the brunch for actives in the area. We always enjoy meeting and talking with the girls from colleges in California and surrounding states.

PATRICIA DENSMORE CUNNINGHAM

Phoenix Alumnae Club members have enjoyed an interesting and unusual year with Mildred Burch Patton as president.

The September dinner meeting enthusiastically opened the year with the "History of the Cooky-shine" as program.

The Tucson Alumnae Club were guests for luncheon at the Racquet Club and a tour of Arizona State University facilities in October. November and December meetings were fascinating with making Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations and lecture on Interior Decorating. In January members traveled to Chandler to join other Valley of the Sun Pi Beta Phis and to pleasantly hear interesting bits from two foreign students attending Arizona State University. February was a dessert bridge and Mrs. Hamilton, province vice president, who was visiting in this locale, was honored guest and an inspiration to each and everyone. During the May Meeting at the home of Ethel Frost, graduating seniors were initiated into the alumnae club and past presidents were honored. Maida Bradshaw, retiring alumnae president, installed the new officers for the coming year.

HELEN SAMS JOFFE

RIVERSIDE

The brand new Riverside Alumnae Club got off to a fine start in October of 1959 under the capable leadership of Katharine Kline Hattris as president. At this evening meeting, held in the home of Esther Reich Ferrall, secretary, it was announced that we had earlier received our charter with twenty two charter members. The president read a paper on the History and Constitution of Pi Beta Phi following a report of the area council meeting in Los Angeles which she and the secretary had attended.

At the November evening meeting, in the home of Elva Hartford Hartley, the hostess showed very interesting slides of Holt House, followed by an hilarious white elephant auction conducted by Mary Brobsky Wadding. Fifteen dollars were realized from this to build up our new treasury.

During November two Christmas workshops provided fellowship for the members and very attractive table decorations which were used for the Christmas dinner party early in December at the Victoria Country Club. After dinner the table decorations were sold as a second ways and means project. The Settlement School Crafts were also displayed, and many were sold.

The highlight of the holiday season was our annual Christmas Tea, at the home of Elaine Hart Byrne, for our active members, our pledges, and their mothers.

In February the president held a delightful luncheon, followed by a short business meeting and an afternoon of bridge.

March brought forth nomination of officers for 1960-1961 at a meeting in the home of Margaret Sutton Bailey. Timely and expert gardening advice was given by the speaker of the evening. We celebrated Founders' Day at nearby Azure Hills Country Club in a joint luncheon meeting on April 23, with the Redlands and San Bernardino Alumnae Clubs.

The newly elected officers were installed in May and our year ended on a gala note with our annual June barbecue supper for members and their husbands.

MARGARET SUTTON BAILEY

SACRAMENTO

The Sacramento Alumnae Club has been indeed fortunate in having Marge Knowles Simpson as our able leader for the second successive year. We met for a swimming party and potluck supper at the home of Kieffe McDuffee Breuer in September, with husbands and escorts as guests. This proved to be a delightful means of beginning a successful year. Husbands were also guests at our annual Christmas Party.

The first regular business meeting at the home of Helen Eickmeyer Wilson was designated as the Settlement School Meeting, followed by a Dutch Raffle.

This season we held two separate Settlement School sales one week apart in the homes of Kay O'Neil Lamphier in the North Area and Eleanor Breed Dumm in the southern part of Sacramento. The results, both financially and socially, proved to be highly successful.

Our own Jessie Moer Hamilton, province vice president, made her official visit at the January meeting, which was a cooky-shine at the home of Jo Ann Cox. Preceding this she was a dinner guest of the Executive Board. Our March meeting was held at Mrs. Hamilton's home.

Janelle Cortner O'Keefe opened her home to the Club for a bridge party in February.

Founders' Day, this year, was an outstanding affair, held in conjunction with the other clubs from the surrounding area at the new El Dorado Hotel.

The club has continued its most worthwhile project of assistance at the Starr-King School for the handicapped. Under the chairmanship of Mitzi Johnson Dowse and Mil Stellings, work shop activities such as cutting stencils, and making hand puppets have been completed; and various field trips to Fairy Tale Town, the Junior Museum and the Zoo have been made.

Our club now has a paid membership of seventy five, a substantial increase over last year's members. YLENE CARTER McMILLEN

SAN BERNARDINO

The fall season was opened by the San Bernardino Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi with an evening meeting at the home of Nadie Matson Mack. Several new members who have recently moved to town, were welcomed. We have had a successful and enjoyable year headed by our capable and enthusiastic president, Rita York Thacker.

In addition to supporting Pi Beta Phi nationally, our year's aims have been twofold: attracting a larger active membership in our local group, and increasing our budget so that we may lend greater assistance to an active chapter. We have had monthly meetings with interesting discussions of Settlement School (including the sale of Arrowcraft products) Rushing, Constitution, and History.

On March 16, we conducted a business and social meeting at a potluck dinner, held at the home of Margaret Smith Green. We have some real culinary artists among our members, and for one evening, waistlines and calorie-counting were forgotten!

We are exceedingly proud of our Golden Arrow member, Jessie Van Clute Johnson, who recently gave a large two story club building to the local Assistance League for its Dental and Health Center, and also to house its Thrift Shop. The building has been dedicated and named the Van Clute Johnson Memorial Building. Last year, about 3000 needy youngsters received dental care at the league supported center. In January, an Open House and tea, attended by 500 prominent persons, was given in Jessie Johnson's honor.

In April, San Bernardino Club was hostess at the Founders' Day luncheon. Pi Beta Phi from nearby towns joined us for the occasion.

We planned a benefit bridge party for May. Our year's activities ended with our annual June buffet supper and swim party for Pi Beta Phi's, husbands, and escorts, always a highlight.

RUTH KING MELLIN

SAN DIEGO

Under the presidency of Virginia Rubsam, the San Diego Alumnae Club has had one of its hardest working years. This was due primarily to our "Harvest Hayday" held October 24 at the Town and Country for the benefit of the Sharp Memorial Hospital Building Fund. The combination luncheon bazaar was enjoyed by over 300 Pi Beta Phi and their friends. The "Harvest Hayday," under the expert chairmanship of Beverly Trees and Imogene Hickman, sold cleverly made bazaar items that included doll clothes, toys, holiday decorations, household items, garden and bakery goods. A check of $700 was presented to the hospital and plans are already progressing to repeat this worthwhile project again next year.

Memories of our former college years were renewed as we met at the San Diego State Chapter House for our Settlement School sale in November. Joan Johnson, our Settlement School chairman, also had a special showing and sale of goods for the Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club.

A Christmas holiday luncheon was held at the San Diego Yacht Club and out of town actives were our honored guests.

Our club members are kept well informed on our activities with the bimonthly newsletters, written and distributed by Alice Warner and her daughter, Nancy.

In February, members of Pi Beta Phi and Delta Gamma were hostesses for the attractive Valentine's Day Panhellenic luncheon.

Our Founders' Day banquet was a memorable occasion. Our chairman, Joan Reynolds, announced that Reinetta Waterman had prepared a special historical Pi Beta Phi skit which was the featured entertainment. On May 17, Ellen Jefferson made arrangements for the alumnae and their friends to attend a dessert and fashion show at Marstons. Proceeds from this event went to the San Diego State College's active chapter to help reduce their mortgage.

In May we met at Ann Mountjoy's home for our traditional luncheon honoring graduating seniors at State College.

COLLEEN ALEXANDER

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

Under the able leadership of our president, Virginia Stansbury Swanson, our club has enjoyed another busy and rewarding year.

The summer was full of fun and work. Jackie Yarbrough Liscom worked hard with her committee redecorating the president's room at the California A house. Besides swimming parties for the younger set, our husbands joined us for a dinner and dancing at the home of Dale and Margaret Ross Hyde.

Starting in September, our nine regular meetings were highlighted by interesting accounts of personal experiences. In October, Rikki Brockway of California I, the recipient of Los Angeles Area Council's scholarship to the summer workshop at Gatlinburg, gave a very informative report on the activities at Gatlinburg. In December, Fay Kear Mingins told of her harrowing experiences in the typhoon off Japan last fall. In January, Phip Swanson, our president's husband, described behind the scenes of the Rose Parade. In February, two outstanding high school exchange students, sponsored by the American Field Service Committee, charmed us with the account of their experiences in our community.

Several daytime meetings were held this year to accommodate members who cannot attend the evening meetings.

We were happy to have a visit in November, from our province vice president, Jessie Moer Hamilton. Her enthusiasm and interest in Pi Beta Phi was an inspiration to all of us.

In February, our husbands again joined us for dinner and dancing at a local restaurant.

This year we had two successful rummage sales. We have found this to be our most profitable ways and means project. We also had a number of informal "coffees" for the sale of Settlement School goods. Each year we help the Crippled Children's Society by assisting at their summer camp and addressing and stuffing Easter Seal envelopes.

LOUIS KIRCHNER

SAN FRANCISCO

Another year and we believe that we can report progress.

Our yearly Rummage Sale was a financial success, as well as a means of bringing into closer touch other alumnae club members of different sororities in the Bay Area. They willingly assisted us in this project, while we in turn, helped them when they had their benefit function. Several large rooms in this City's Auditorium were rented for the purpose and our members gave garage space for storing rummage. We were happy to be able to help those charities needing help, as well as ourselves.

Near Christmas, an exhibition of "gift and table decorations" was given by the Kay King of Hallmark fame and "tricks and treats" were presented by two of our own home economics teachers.

The Chairman of Settlement School held a "one woman display" of the Arrowcraft articles in her home, welcoming only those who were interested in serious buying, and the sales amounted to over $100.

We keep our high goal before us, that of uniting old friends, making new ones, and giving friendship to those who are strangers in our city.

HELEN S. LERMAN

SAN JOSE

Starting off a round of activities this fall, was our membership drive, resulting in several new members. A coffee was held at the home of president Betty Bissell in September honoring Ginny Kohler who left us for St. Paul, Minnesota. The October meeting was a potluck supper honoring our province vice president, "Pete" Hamilton. We enjoyed her visit, and especially her suggestions brought from other clubs in this area.

The Settlement School Sale was held in November at the home of Vice President, Mary Roberts, and was a very lovely and profitable affair.

The main money making project for our club this year was selling Christmas and all occasion wrapping paper and ribbon. We encountered no difficulties at all in selling the paper, especially to those who had used it for wrapping Christmas gifts last year. In fact, the paper sold itself!

Our December meeting was the traditional Christmas party, complete with Santa Claus, and the exchange of white elephant gifts. Some of these "white elephants" have been reappearing each Christmas for several years now, and it is always great fun to see who will receive them this year!

Our group has been active in Panhellenic this year, taking part in the highly successful tasting luncheon held in February, and the "Coke and Cotton" party to acquaint senior high school girls and their mothers with college life. Representatives from colleges in Northern and Central California spoke at this affair, held at San Jose State College. Our club will hold the office of Treasurer in Panhellenic this next year.

We looked forward to a potluck supper in May, and a picnic in June including our husbands.

MARGARET THOMSON

SAN MATEO

The San Mateo Alumnae Club has enjoyed another busy and successful year under the capable leadership of Mrs. Lynn Lindskog. A happy combination of business and pleasure has made the year most pleasant.

We had the pleasure of meeting and spending an evening with our Scholarship recipient at our September meeting. The club was honored in October by a visit from Mrs. James Hamilton, our charming province vice president. Her informative report on Convention was not only most interesting but delightfully delivered. The Christmas luncheon at the California Golf and Country Club was thoroughly enjoyed by all and games with lovely prizes made by members of the club added to the festivities. Our January meeting was a dinner highlighted by singing and a cooky-shine. Founders' Day was celebrated by the attendance of several members at a luncheon of the combined membership of the Bay Area Council clubs in Sacramento.

Our annual barbecue in October for Pi Beta Phi and husbands was a most successful affair and the February dinner dance at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel added a great deal to the gaiety of the year and was thoroughly enjoyed by all attending.

During the year the club has purchased record albums for the Children's Wards at Mills and Peninsula Hospitals. This year we were delighted to be able to add a television set as our Christmas gift.

Another of our big projects for the year was the rummage sale in March, which was not only highly successful but a great deal of fun for all working on it. We have added a Bridge Tournament among Pi Beta Phi and husbands to our activities, this year which has turned out to be a most pleasant way of adding to the treasury. Proceeds of the sale of calendars has also been a most successful way to help carry on our various contributions to the community.

NANCY CORBETT ROBERTSON

SANTA BARBARA

The Santa Barbara Alumnae has had a busy and exciting year under the very capable leadership of its President, Vivian Allen. Improvements have been made on the property recently purchased for the new Chapter House near the University of California at Santa Barbara campus. Most of our activities have been centered around the preparation and planning for the new house.

Louise Purvis, as Building Committee Chairman, gave most generously of her time, energy and thought to the planning and financing of the house. We certainly feel a great loss since her sudden death. Elaine Thompson is now Chairman of the Building Committee with the assistance of Vivian Allen. Other members of the Committee are: Mickey Swift, Mildred Welo, Viola Girsh, with Ruth Ellison in charge of the interior decorations. Ann Neal has given greatly of her time also, in assisting the Building Committee.

In October we had our annual Active-Alumnae Dinner at the home of Mildred Welo. We always look forward to this pleasant evening with the active chapter. In November we had a cooky-shine at the home of Vivian Allen, honoring the new Pi Beta Phi Alumnae in the area. Our Christmas party at the home of Julia Forbes was lovely and much enjoyed by all. In the fall we had a most pleasant visit from our province vice president, Mrs. J. M. Hamilton.

Our rummage sale this February, with Rosalind La Grandeur as Chairman, was a huge success.

The year closed with a meeting at the home of Rosalind La Grandeur which the seniors from the active chapter attended.

JEAN GATES HALL

SANTA MONICA AND WESTSIDE

Please notice our NEW club name! It is more characteristic of our area, we think.

The year began with our annual summer luncheon. The fall program included helping with rush week at UCLA and a brunch meeting in September; October's Settlement School program was given by Rickie Brokway, SC active, recipient of the Area Council Scholarship to Gatlinburg.

November we were happy to have "Pete" Hamilton, Pi Province Vice President, here for our meeting. December's white elephant exchange had gifts making the rounds several times among the members. The musical part of the program was given by a daughter of one of our members.

January is our money making month. The food and laundry demonstration at the Gas Service Company was well attended and helped our club, financially. February's meeting honored our charter members. We enjoyed hearing about the founding of the Santa Monica Club. Also good news came from National Office that our club won the $10 for tops in Pi Province magazine subscriptions and sixth, nationally!

March and April found us busy with program plans for Founders' Day, April 30. Also, encouraging more members to volunteer time and help at UCLA Medical Center.

ELIZABETH GAGE

SOUTH BAY

The South Bay Alumnae Club would like to report a very happy and successful year. Our main interest has been to raise money for our various projects. With Barbara Machado as chairman and Shari Markey as vice chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, we raised $194. Most of this was raised by sewing, sometimes in groups and some done individually. We made children's aprons, toy horses, clowns and felt toilet seat covers, decorated for Christmas. These things were taken to active chapters and alumnae groups nearby, where they were quickly sold. We have made donations to the local Panhellenic Club, the American Field Service, a needy family at Christmas and sent money to an active Pi Beta Phi, who needed assistance to continue school.

Our monthly meetings have been very interesting. Among them were the ones when the head of the F.B.I. spoke and the students from the American Field Service talked. The husbands were included in these meetings. The Christmas meeting always stands out as the happiest one. Every one brings gifts for the children of a needy family, recommended by the Salvation Army and the members exchange small gifts.

We have become associate members of the Area Council and hope to benefit from this by finding out what other clubs are doing.

Our president, Adair Lazell, and the other members of the board, have worked together very harmoniously for what we think has been a very successful and progressive year. EDITH SCOTT CRAIG

SOUTH COAST

Once again the "Summer Splash" held at the lovely Balboa bayfront home of Margaret Johnson Corkett opened the year for our South Coast Alumnae Club. We all look forward to this annual event of swimming and yachting and a wonderful buffet luncheon.

This year our president is Judy Ware Kearns and she and our program chairman, Mary Margaret Roberts Ketchum have made possible a very successful year. Our first meeting, in September, was at the Lido Isle home of Vera Holcomb Silver, where we had lunch and a social gathering. In October Helen Huff Parke entertained at her home in Santa Ana and we had a speaker on "Early Days in California." "Christmas Wrappings" was the subject of the November evening meeting at the home of Cirelda Hale Barnard on Lido Isle and in December Marie Briggs Timmons opened her beautifully decorated home in Santa Ana for a Christmas buffet honoring husbands and escorts. In January Josephine Farrell Milnor was hostess at her Laguna Beach home, where we enjoyed a book review. "Spring Bonnets" was the theme of the February meeting, held at the home of Lucinda Griffith Burrows and our March meeting was an evening meeting where we enjoyed a talk by an American Field Service Student, Marguerite Carpenter Harper was hostess for this occasion at her home in Corona del Mar.

Once again we are very grateful to Mary Greer Scarborough, Texas A., for the Series of Book Reviews she has presented at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club for our alumnae club. These reviews are exceptionally well received and make it possible for us to do a great deal for local philanthropies. Settlement School articles are sold at each book review and also at our monthly meetings.

The final event of our year was the Founders' Day luncheon held at the Irvine Coast Country Club. JUNE GRANLEY CONLEY

STOCKTON

The Stockton Area Alumnae Club's fourth season under the able leadership of President Mrs. William Baltzer has been one of a growing membership, and social calendar. In April, a well-attended Founders' Day Breakfast was held in the home of Mrs. William Baltzer. In May the members reserved a table at the Spring Panhellenic Luncheon, exchanging culinary delicacies and bridge talley with other Panhellenic alumnae families. A potluck dinner for members and husbands, in the charming country house of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pratt, was the closing spring meeting.

After summer adjournment, the organization renewed acquaintances with a luncheon held in September at the Stockton Country Club. The third Settlement School Tea was held on an October afternoon in the home and garden of Mrs. Joseph Diehl. Mrs. Jessie Hamilton, our province vice president, attended, as did so many of our friends and neighbors. Continued enthusiastic acceptance of the School's products netted over $900. January found the members hosting a breakfast meeting for thirty Panhellenic members in the home of Mrs. William Baltzer.

Noted with interest was the forming of active chapters of A Θ, Δ Δ Δ, and Δ Γ on the College of the Pacific campus in Stockton.

In February, ten tables of Pi Beta Phi and their friends enjoyed a pleasant dessert bridge afternoon in the spring blossom decorated home of Mrs. Kenneth Pratt.

The group finished an active year by lending support to a local hospital development project and then gathering in Sacramento with other Pi Beta Phi alumnae for Founders' Day festivities.

JOAN DIEHL

VALLEY OF THE MOON

Valley of the Moon Alumnae Club has had a most rewarding year under the leadership of our president, Genevieve Tillery Williamson. Membership has grown to twenty-six and we were 100% paid in dues and contributions to the Centennial Fund before the November meeting. We also made our contributions to the Settlement School, Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner Fund and made a very fine record in magazine sales, thanks to our efficient chairman, Lucretia Rich.

Although regular meetings did not begin until September, we enjoyed a preview of the year's fun and companionship one August evening. Members and their husbands gathered at the lovely ranch home of Shirley and Sherman Dickinson for a pot luck picnic supper. The food was delicious and there was much gaiety and singing of Pi Beta Phi songs.

We held seven afternoon meetings, beginning with dessert at 1:30. In September Mary Lambert gave us an interesting and most practical talk on "The Art of Picture Taking." Our Settlement School program in October was planned by Lucile Kelly and featured a display of Arrowcraft articles, many of which were sold at once. At this time, preliminary plans were made for the successful Arrowcraft Tea and Sale, held on April 28 at the home of

WHITTIER

Lucile Kelly, where the spacious rooms provided a lovely background for the articles on display.

Our program on Active Chapter Interest was particularly interesting, for it was presented by Carole Williams, President of California B and Liz Rogers, Rush Chairman. The girls gave us a clearer understanding of the problems of rushing and of maintaining scholarship standards and answered many questions. We felt much closer to our nearest active chapter as a result of their visit. At our January meeting we were delighted to have a visit from our province vice president, "Pete" Hamilton, whose enthusiasm and wise advice are always an inspiration.

In February, Marion Proctor showed beautiful colored slides, illustrating her account of her European travels of last summer. Shirley Dickinson presented the program on History and Constitution which does much to keep us informed Pi Beta Phi. We celebrated Founders' Day on April 30 at a luncheon at the El Dorado Hotel in Sacramento. Members of the Sacramento Club acted as hostesses to the Solano and Yuba-Sutter-Colusa Clubs as well as our own. The year closed with Installation of Officers and a traditional cooky-shine at the home of Lucile Kelly.

There are now 29 member sororities in NPC with approximately 1920 chapters located on the campuses of 290 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. By way of contrast there are 59 NIC fraternities—twice as many.

The University of Illinois, often called "fraternity capital of the world," has chapters of 25 NPC sororities and is the only school with a chapter of each of the 20 largest nationals. Pennsylvania State University with 23 NPC groups lacks only ΣK of the 20 biggest women's fraternities, a term the gals use.

The top 18, and most generally competitive of the NPC sororities, are also found among UCLA's 23, California's 22, Washington's 20, and Michigan State's 19. And again, with exceptions as noted, at Florida State ($K K \Gamma$), Indiana ($A \Delta \Pi$), Michigan (ΔZ), Minnesota ($Z T A$), and Oregon State (ΦM). Four other schools are missing only two of the big 18: Ohio State (ΣK , $A O \Pi$), Oregon ($K \Delta$, ΦM). Northwestern (ΣK , ΦM) and Syracuse (ΔZ , $A O \Pi$).

The four largest sororities, ΔZ (128 chapters), $X \Omega$ (122), $\Pi B \Phi$ (104), and $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ (103), are found together at only 24 schools. The four largest fraternities, $T K E$ (160 chapters), $\Lambda X A$ (152), $\Sigma \Phi E$ (149), and $\Sigma A E$ (143), meet as a group twice as often.

A study made last year of approximately 350 American and Canadian institutions of higher learning with chapters of the 59 NIC fraternities revealed that 136 had five or less fraternities; 90 had from 6 to 10; another 43 had from 11 to 15 chapters; 29 had from 16 to 20; 14 colleges and universities had 21 to 25; 12 had 26 to 30; 10 had between 30 and 40, and only five schools had 40 or more NIC chapters.
