of Convention
1993

Barbara Sands Olsen, Illinois Zeta

"The past is only the present become invisible and mute; and because it is invisible and mute, its memoried glances and its murmurs are infinitely precious."

—Mary Webb

Such a precious piece of work is "The History of Pi Beta Phi 1967-1992." The book, to be available this fall, chronicles the growth and changes of Pi Beta Phi in the last twenty-five years. This "labor of love" is a collaborative effort of former National Historian Barbara Sands Olsen and former ARROW Editor Marilyn Simpson Ford.

Barbara Olsen has served as National Historian since 1983. A former alumnae club president, province president and national director, Barbara served on Grand Council as Grand Vice President of Alumnae from 1975 to 1979. Barbara enjoys sharing her knowledge of Pi Phi's past and often speaks at Founders' Day celebrations, Pi Phi Conventions and other special fraternity events dressed in period clothing as one of the Founders.

Two Pi Phis Collaborate on Past 25 Years of Fraternity

For more than twenty years, Marilyn Ford edited The ARROW. It was for this kind of loyalty and devotion that Marilyn received the Dorothy Weaver Morgan Award in 1989. But Pi Phis weren't the only ones recognizing Marilyn for her contributions. Her fraternal publishing peers presented her with the Evin C. Varner Award in 1991 for betterment of the Greek world in the area of communications. Following her retirement as editor in 1989, Marilyn was appointed co-author with Barbara of the 25-year history update of the Fraternity.

"A Century of Friendship in Pi Beta Phi" by Jean Orr Donaldson encompasses the first one hundred years of Pi Beta Phi. In 1977, Jean wrote "A Century of Friendship, Part II" which was printed as the winter 1977 issue of The ARROW. At a later date, it was decided that the information from that update would be combined with information from the next 15 years to form a 25-year history.

Chapters of "The History of Pi Beta Phi 1967-1992" are organized by topics. Collegiate and alumnae activities, philanthropies, conventions, national officers and committees, fraternity administration, and

The ARROW are among the many facets of fraternity life covered.

In the forward of the book, Barbara and Marilyn said, "Memories are emotional pictures or visions, and thus are with us for our lifetime. A written history is the memory of things past – all things. Our hearts, so deeply a part of emotion, help us recall the good of what has passed before, and our minds paint the pictures of the past."

The Fraternity is indebted to these two women who have donated their time and talents so that all of us may share in the rich heritage of our Pi Beta Phi. We thank you!

There's simply no magic like the magic of friendship, and never was it more apparent than when over 900 Pi Beta Phi members gathered at the Stouffer Orlando Resort for the 59th Biennial Convention of the Fraternity.

Pi Phis from across the continent made their way to Orlando, Florida and the beginning of convention festivities June 19. Collegians and alumnae were able to meet Pi Phi's Grand Council and mingle with other convention attendees at the opening reception on Saturday afternoon. The Orlando Convention Committee welcomed everyone at the Opening "Pi Phi Magic" Dinner which was spectacular.

Following dinner, Pi Phis proceeded to the general session room for the Opening Meeting of Convention. National and province officers and special guests were introduced and announcements were made. The meeting was adjourned, but collegiate and alumnae delegates had more business to complete at province meetings.

Sunday morning Pi Phis joined for a devotional service and memorial service honoring those members who had died since the 1991 Convention. Pi Phi Reverend Diane Dugoni Shoaf conducted the devotional service. Grand Vice President of Philanthropies Betty Lofton conducted the Memorial Service in which the Chapter Presidents from each collegiate chapter and a representative for the chapters no longer in existence participated.

Pi Beta Phi legacies were honored during Sunday's luncheon. The luncheon was also the place for a special celebration – that of the 100th Anniversary of the alumnae department. Alumnae province and national officers treated all attendees with a birthday celebration song. During the luncheon, Grand President Jo Ann Roderick announced that a new award had been established in recognition of the formation of the alumnae department in 1893. The Emma Harper Turner Alumnae Leadership Award will be given annually, beginning in 1994, for exceptional leadership by an alumna.

On Sunday afternoon, Pi Phis were able to witness the initiation of Alumna Honor Initiate Carol Stanley Fenner. Carol is a prominent civic leader in the Orlando community. She describes herself as a "career volunteer," who began volunteer work during her childhood at a crippled children's hospital. Carol is currently the Metropolitan Opera's Florida Auditions Director and is a former president of the Orlando Opera Company. A graduate of Newcomb College-Tulane University, Carol also studied at Sorbone University in Paris, France. Carol's enthusiasm for the Fraternity and its members was unending and she stayed for the duration of convention so as not to miss a minute of the activities.

A convention favorite is the Dinner by Chapter. Adding to the excitement of the night is the new tradition of the Parade of Banners. This tradition began at the 1991 Convention in commemoration and salute to the Fraternity as it began its 125th year. Chapter names are called in order of colonization, as the chapter's banner is presented. The finale of the parade was the presentation of the Fraternity's banner by National Historian Barbara Sands Olsen, who gave an intriguing historical talk after the meal.

Many collegiate awards were presented at the conclusion of dinner. The Dorothy Weaver Morgan Award for fraternity loyalty was also presented on Sunday evening. Jean Orr Donaldson was named the 1993 winner of this prestigious Pi Phi award. Jean is the author of "A Century of Friendship in Pi Beta Phi" which she compiled while she was National Historian from 1963-1967. She painstakingly researched 100 years of records, memorabilia, fraternity correspondence, and archive materials such as pictures, letters and old minute books contributed by members through the years. She spent a year in the actual writing of this comprehensive history of the Fraternity and the thousands of women who have worn the arrow during its first century.

Following the dinner, women were given the opportunity to find out up close and personal what its like to be a graduate consultant during "Meet the Consultants." Former graduate consultants shared experiences and the consultants for the upcoming year were introduced. All in attendance were made familiar with the selection process for Pi Phi's graduate consultants.

Pi Phi was pleased to have representatives from 23 National Panhellenic Conference groups present at the Panhellenic Luncheon on Monday. Pi Phi's NPC Delegate Jean Scott was honored at the luncheon by Grand Council and presented with a jeweled pin from Balfour jewelers. Jean serves as NPC's Treasurer for the 1991-93 biennium and will become the conference's president in 1995.

Pi Phi's own Barbie Tootle charmed and delighted luncheon attendees as the featured speaker. In her speech entitled, "Panhellenic Super Stars," Barbie discussed how television, movies, songs and current events teach us about leadership. "As a leader, as a person, you are a product of all you have met, experienced, and encountered." She went on to challenge each of us to celebrate all that fraternity membership has given us and to realize that we are empowered by our fraternity experience to improve the quality of all of our lives.

Monday evening Pi Phis were given the opportunity to cure cases of "hotel/cabin fever." Pi Phis gathered in the lobby of the Stouffer Resort for their walk across the street to Sea World. Members made their way through the park and into Shamu stadium for a group convention photo and a performance from Shamu. After the whale show, Pi Phis turned Polynesian for a dinner featuring island specialties from Hawaii. During the meal, Sea World presented a South Seas revue of authentic native dancers. But that act was soon to be topped by Pi Phi's version of a Cookie Luau Skit, written and directed by Harriet Brown. Centered around one of Pi Phi's oldest tradi-

Convention Body Votes on Ritual

A report was given on the ritual study conducted as a result of the motion adopted at the 1991 Convention to explore a possible need to revise current Fraternity ritual. An eight-member Ritual Study Committee, consisting of four alumnae and four active members, was appointed by Grand Council and met twice in Central Office during the interim of Conventions to conduct a survey of the membership, evaluate the results and, from these, make a recommendation to the voting body at Convention.

The thoughts of over 7,000 members of Pi Beta Phi were represented when Ritual Study Surveys were completed by 89 chapters, 171 organized alumnae groups, and by 91 individuals who took advantage of the opportunity to participate if unable to attend a meeting at which a survey was completed. The Committee tabulated and then evaluated the results of the surveys, and, bearing in mind the purpose of ritual, its history, and the value of diversity among the membership, made a recommendation for some revision.

A similar study of the Fraternity ritual twenty years ago showed 9% of the then membership wanted some revision. Results of the 1991-93 ritual survey indicate 30% of the membership favor change and even more indicated some change would be acceptable if it were deemed necessary. However, the vote on a motion to adopt the recommendation of the Committee that the ritual be revised to contain more inclusive language was defeated by a majority of those voting. Thus, the Pi Beta Phi ritual remains as it has been recited for over one hundred years. ■

Grand Vice President of Alumnae Sally Bowers leads the 100th anniversary celebration of the alumnae department.

Alice Weber Johnson Honored

During the General Session on Sunday morning, former Grand President and Missouri Beta Alice Weber Johnson was named Grand President Emeritus. In accepting the honorary title, Mrs. Johnson follows in the footsteps of such Pi Phi "greats" as May L. Keller and Marianne Reid Wild.

Mrs. Johnson served the Fraternity as Grand President from 1958 to 1967. It was during Mrs. Johnson's tenure that Pi Beta Phi moved its Central Office to St. Louis, Missouri and adopted its Centennial Project, now known as Arrowmont.

The Alice Weber Johnson Bowl, a large silver punch bowl, was presented to the Fraternity by the St. Louis Alumnae Club at the Washington D.C. Convention in 1962, in honor of Mrs. Johnson. This award is given each year to the chapter which has ranked most often among the top ten chapters for the past ten years.

The Orlando Convention body had been charmed by Mrs. Johnson during the course of convention as she addressed the group. It seemed there was nothing she could say that didn't delight all. Upon hearing of her new title, Mrs. Johnson was nearly left without words to express her feelings. With a look of utter astonishment on her face and tears welling in her eyes, she shared a most gracious and humble "thank you." ❖ and Arrowmont were recognized during the dinner. After dinner, Pi Phis joined around cookie shine sheets to take in a Pi Phi favorite. Cookie Shines were set up by provinces and all enjoyed good food, good song and good fun.

Parliamentary procedure, officer training, membership and rush for both alumnae and collegians, communications, financial issues, risk management, Arrowcraft, Arrowmont, literacy, Capital Campaign and Foundation were just a few of the topics covered during workshops. For both alumnae and collegians, there were different types of workshops based on the topic of discussion. At times, alumnae were divided by club size or workshops were rotated with smaller-sized groups in an effort to make these leader-tions, the skit starred national and province officers. The Fraternity's Grand Council made a cameo appearance that nearly stole the show and brought the audience to their feet. But the night was not yet over. Pi Phis were then treated to a spectacular laser and fireworks display.

The Foundation sponsored the keynote speaker for Tuesday morning's general session. Dr. Richard Keeling is a Director of the University of Health Service and Professor of Internal Medicine (Hematology) at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. His speech, accompanied by visual aids, centered on the many problems on our college campuses today: unwanted pregnancy, AIDS, alcohol abuse, eating disorders etc. He theorized that college students don't do what they know (is right or should be done) because they do what they see in the media, they do what they feel and are overwhelmed, and because they don't have a sense of community. The strategies we can use to help students make better decisions include building self-esteem, developing skills and providing support.

The afternoon was left free for Pi Phis to take recreation tours, discover Orlando on their own or catch up on lost sleep and take in a little R & R. During the afternoon, polls were open for delegates to vote for officers.

Pi Phi gathered again Tuesday evening for the Foundation and Arrowmont dinner titled, "Academy of Angels Awards." The dinner followed an academy awards theme and all in attendance were asked to dress in black and white. Donors to the Foundation ship development opportunities most beneficial.

General sessions during the week included reports from each Grand Council member, legislation and other convention business and presentation of charters to Virginia Theta at Washington and Lee University and Pennsylvania Iota at the University of Pennsylvania. Two council members were honored for their service. Richardson-Plano, Texas Alumnae Club President Johnnie Hughes Hatfield presented Grand Vice President of Membership Carolyn Lesh with a silver tray engraved with the names of chapters chartered during her tenure. Carol Warren was honored by former Grand Council member Adrienne Mitchell. Adrienne, on behalf of the Fraternity, announced that Grand Council had established the Carol Inge Warren Award to be given each year to the best chapter financial advisor.

members and included the traditional songfest performed by the convention chorus. During the luncheon, Sis Mullis recognized former Grand Council member Evelyn Peters Kyle for her many contributions to Pi Beta Phi. Evelyn was named the Fraternity's "Poet Laureate."

The final general session was filled with fun. Carolyn Helman Lichtenberg paid tribute to Sally Bowers, Grand Vice President of Alumnae, who retired from Grand Council, Pi Phis from California, and the West coast got Pi Phis psyched for the 1995 Convention to be held in Palm Springs, California and the new national officers were installed. The one and only Courtesy Resolutions Committee and the "Magic in Review" slide presentation highlighted the activities of the week.

The climax of the week's events was the Wine Carnation Banquet on Wednesday evening. The banquet was preceded by the "Grand March" of National Officers into the banquet room. The festive dinner included the presentation of awards, a candle-lighting ceremony honoring Pi Phis twelve Founders and a Loving Cup Ceremony.

Reflecting on the days of convention these words of Barbie Tootle come to mind. "Our fraternities were founded out of the same need that we have today – to link with other people and to succeed. To form relationships that will last and will help us reach our potential. That is why we are Greek. That is why we are successful – because we offer affection, support, nurturance. It is not the parties, not the interior decoration, not the trophies that get people to join. It is the friendships we offer. It is us. While there is much to celebrate in Greek life, including service and philanthropy, I believe our greatest good is our ability to be friends."

And so, it is the friendship that brings the magic to our Pi Beta Phi!

Pi Phi Documents To Be Revised

In the fall of 1992, Grand Council appointed a committee to study a revision of the Constitution and Statutes and Policies and Standing Rules. The committee met in November of 1992 to discuss revising these documents; not to change the content, but to make them more user friendly.

Chairman Carrie Mae Blount, Legislative Committee Chairman Lisa Masters, Grand Vice President of Finance Lou Ann Montgomery Carter, former Alumnae Province President Marga Larson Bales and former Grand President and National Panhellenic Delegate Jean Wirths Scott comprise the study committee.

In commenting on the committee and its work, Grand President Jo Ann Roderick said, "The more we read and worked with our documents, the more we realized they have been patched so much they read like a 'crazy quilt.'" Revision of the documents will make them easier to use and also mean fewer legislative changes at future conventions.

During Wednesday afternoon's business session, the convention body accepted this committee. Plans are to have a draft of the revised Constitution and Statutes and Policies and Standing Rules in members' hands by next fall in order to have them perfected in time for 1995 Convention legislation. ♣

Fraternity Installs New Officers

On Wednesday, June 23, Pi Beta Phi's Grand Council and International Directors were installed for the 1993-1995 biennium. Sara (Sally) Shipley Bowers retired from Grand Council after serving as Grand Vice President of Alumnae for four years. Though several officers changed positions on Grand Council, there is one newcomer to the group, Grand Vice President of Finance Lou Ann Montgomery Carter.

An Oklahoma Alpha, Lou Ann graduated with Phi Beta Kappa and summa cum laude honors with a B.S. in chemistry from the University of Oklahoma. While in college, she won the Chapter Service Award and was Panhellenic Delegate for Oklahoma Alpha. Since graduation, Lou Ann worked in the research department at Conoco, Inc. and at the University of California, Berkeley in photosynthesis research. Lou Ann has served as President of both the Kay County, Oklahoma and the Southern Fairfield County, Connecticut alumnae clubs. She has been Alpha Alumnae Province President, Gamma Province Coordinator and Gamma Collegiate Province President. Most recently, Lou Ann served as Director of Chapter House Corporations. In her spare time, she enjoys making quilts, traveling, golfing and reading.

Jo Ann Minor Roderick begins her second term as Grand President, having served on the Grand Council for six years. Carolyn Pavletich Lesh because of tenure, left her position as Grand Vice President of Membership and is now Grand Vice President of Alumnae. Carol Inge Warren, Grand Vice President of Finance for the past six years, will take over the job of Grand Vice President of Membership. Continuing in their current Grand Council positions are Grand Vice President of Collegians Beth van Maanen Beatty, Grand Vice President of Philanthropies Betty Blades Lofton and Grand Vice President of Program Development

Sarah Ruth (Sis) Mullis.

Fifteen women were installed as International Directors, formerly called National Directors. New to the Director ranks are Melissa Dates Schmidt, Ruth Neel Noble, Julie Geiger Shannon, Mary Lu Pendergrast Meixell, Emily Russell Tarr and Fran DeSimone Becque. Serving again in 1993-95 are Joan Scholes Hill, Linda Burrows Priest, Joanne MaGirl Arnold, Kay Cross Baker, Kay Knittle Brock, Carolyn Cromb Brada, Jane Landreth Russell, Kathy Anderson Witte and Maurine Hager Jones.

Pi Beta Phi Goes International

Convention legislation adopted at the 1993 Convention changed Pi Beta Phi from a national to an international fraternity. The proposal was presented by the Ontario Alpha Chapter and Grand Council to change the Constitution and Statutes and Policies and Standing Rules, the Fraternity's governing documents, to more accurately reflect the status of an organization which has collegiate chapters in Canada and alumnae groups in several countries.

A special thank you to the women who performed magic all week long – the Orlando Convention Committee (top) of Ava Weldon Simms, Carolyn Crews-Whitby, Carol Sievers Crockett, Marilyn Mycoff Williams, Pam Peacock Brown, Kim Albritton and Jill Tucker Reed and (left) Assistant National Convention Coordinator Jerelyn Wright Biehl, Convention Site Coordinator Nancy Trogman and National Convention Coordinator Mary Kahlenberg Schroeder.

ARROWMONT

by Cynthia Huff

Second Resident Artist Exhibition A Success

Several Sevier County landmarks were a focal point of "East Meets Midwest," the resident artist exhibition hosted by Arrowmont School last spring. On display April 22 - May 15, 1993, "East Meets Midwest" featured screenprinted collages on fabric by Fenella Belle, enamel sculptures by metalsmith Lisa Costello, drawings, prints, and hand-made books by Eleanor Droll, and wheel thrown, altered pottery by Diane Rosenmiller. The 72 pieces represented artwork created during the artists' nine-month residencies at Arrowmont.

Fenella Belle of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania holds a B.F.A. in fibers from University of the Arts in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. After graduating in 1988, Belle was an apprentice fabric printer at The Fabric Workshop in Philadelphia. She went on to teach various adult education classes and was involved in community based after-school programs for children in the Philadelphia area. Before being selected as an Artist-In-Residence in 1992, Belle operated a small fabric printing business called Fenella Belle Fabrics.

During her nine-month stay in Gatlinburg, Belle was influenced by local popular culture. Of her five works on display, two featured a dinosaur and a gun toting rooster, prominent landmarks in neighboring Pigeon Forge.

Lisa Costello is from Chicago, Illinois. She holds a B.F.A. in art history and metalsmithing/design from the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana.

In an effort to achieve the organic forms that she finds intriguing, Costello conducted experiments in electroplating during her tenure at Arrowmont. She explained, "My current work is an investigation of figurative elements set within a narrative environment." She adds that her "Wise Women" series, using organic forms based on vegetables such as yams and carrots, is an attempt to "evoke a dreamlike state that intertwines humor with the grotesque." She chooses to work with metal for its three-dimensionality on an intimate scale, and with enamels for their richness, vitality and vibrancy.

Kansas City, Kansas artist Eleanor Droll earned a B.A. from the University of Missouri-Kansas City, and a M.F.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Before beginning her nine-month residency at Arrowmont School, Droll was a printer's assistant at Tandem Press, an experimental printmaking workshop in Madison, involved in the production of large prints for prominent visiting artists such as Chuck Close and Janet Fish.

Droll's own drawings and prints are figurative and deal with the opposites of body and spirit.

"My concern for the work," Droll said, "is that it represent that sense of duality and the struggle between the desires of the physical body rooted in the earth, and the pure, ethereal spirit that hovers above it."

York, Pennsylvania potter Diane Rosenmiller holds a B.F.A. in Ceramic Art from New York State College of Ceramics, School of Art and Design, Alfred University in Alfred, New York. To ensure that her glazing remains bright and clean, she works primarily with porcelain. The forms and elements of her tableware are reminiscent of vegetables, flowers and shells. One of her signature production forms is a ewer-like creamer with a distinctive crown of triangular leaves.

During her nine-month residency, Rosenmiller developed a series of pieces that work well together both in shape and color. She said it is important to her that the pieces be used, therefore her search for harmonious combinations of matte and shiny glazes, went on during the nine months she spent refining and developing forms that are user friendly and aesthetically pleasing.

Trabue Scholarships For Women Offered

Fifteen artists applied for Arrowmont's resident artist program for the 1993-94 academic year, the third year of the residency program. Applicants' slide portfolios contain work in the fields of ceramics, weaving, jewelry, painting, photography, papermaking, and sculpture.

Arrowmont will select a minimum of four artists, and one woman artist will be the first participant in the Trabue Professional Arts Program for Women, a scholarship for a qualified artist-in-resident needing financial assistance. The residencies officially begin September 15.

Carol Young Carter of Dallas, Texas and Barbara Lee Fay of Overland Park, Kansas move outside to draw color portraits of Arrowmont's main building during Pi Phi Arts Weekend.

Third Annual Pi Beta Phi Arts Weekend Planned

Pi Phis from 15 states participated in Arrowmont's 3rd annual Pi Phi Arts Weekend, April 29-May 1, 1993. Class offerings were Wicker Basketry, Pastel Drawing, Fabric Printing, Handmade Paper and the Book, and Exploring Slide and Print Photography.

Marty Parish Ligon from Franklin, Tennessee in commenting on her two day workshop said, "I never thought I could make a basket in one day. I was more than pleased."

Kelly Coleman from Alexandria, Virginia was among several students who suggested Arrowmont organize a student art show at the end of the workshops. She added that the Arts Weekend put her more in touch with her creativity and enabled her to meet Pi Phis who don't live in her area.

Sue Swanson of Bloomington, Indiana said she remembered how great Pi Phi Arts Weekend was before, "and it's still super." She continued, "We need to stress that it's not just for art majors, and can be a truly exploratory experience."

Other participants simply wrote, "More screenprinting!" or "Love this place!" on their evaluation sheets, but nearly everyone who attended said that more publicity is needed so that all Pi Phis know that they are welcome!

For those who would like to participate in 1994, the 4th annual Pi Phi Arts Weekend is scheduled for May 5-8. For information, call Arrowmont at 615-436-5860.

Senior Focus and the Friendship of Pi Beta Phi

Last year, the Foundation established Senior Focus – a program specially designed for graduating seniors. Upon graduation, collegians are invited to join the tradition of alumnae support by making a pledge to the Foundation over a four-year period. Senior Focus was enthusiastically embraced by the class of 1992 and the class of 1993 has accepted the challenge set before it by the preceding class. The seniors of 1993 have committed their financial support to the Foundation and many have included suggestions and offered their volunteer time to the Foundation. Others have written about the importance of Pi Phi in their lives. One letter in particular summarized what Pi Phi means to so many, and why a member feels the importance of supporting the Foundation.

In April, Norma Nicol Hamilton, California Theta, sent in her Senior Focus '93 pledge with a letter. Norma began by saying that it was a privilege to respond to the Senior Focus '93 request as a graduating senior. Norma was initiated in January 1992 at the University of California at Davis. Her first affiliation with Pi Phi, however, was in 1959 at the University of Arizona. At that time, Norma pledged Arizona Alpha with the hopes of initiating shortly thereafter. Unfortunately, she was unable to continue at the University and was never initiated into Pi Beta Phi.

Many years later, Norma returned to college and began working to complete her bachelor's degree. Norma writes, "Whenever I drove by the chapter house on Russell Boulevard in Davis, there was always a twinge of hope in my heart and a nagging question within me – 'Could I ever become a fully initiated Pi Phi after all this time?'" She made inquiries of two Pi Phi friends, Patricia Johnson Hewitt (Pennsylvania Beta) and Joyanne Wolf Paquette (Arizona Alpha) telling them, "...my pledge pin had been sitting in my jewelry box – a continuing reminder of the Pi Phi friends in my 'first college life' and I wanted to wear 'the whole arrow.'"

In her letter, Norma reinforced what the value of Pi Phi friendships has been to her over the past years. Several Pi Phi alumnae, including women from Arizona Alpha who were present when Norma pledged in 1959, were present at her initiation at California Theta. Norma says about the initiation experience, "This was a moving, unforgettable experience for me – truly a living testimony to what the circle and magic of friendship with in the Fraternity means."

Norma graduated this past June with a bachelor's degree in U.S. history and a minor in Native American studies. She will continue her Pi Phi involvement by serving on California Theta's Alumnae Advisory Committee. She writes that she could not have sent her gift to the Foundation without acknowledging how much Pi Phi has meant to her. She ended her letter stating, "...with deepest gratitude to my Fraternity for reaccepting me and for the friendships that I know will continue to grow in the wine and blue."

Foundation Committees Appointed

To assist with expanded responsibility, an Investment Advisory Committee has been appointed to work with the Foundation Treasurer. Under the chairmanship of the Treasurer, this three-member group will be available for consultation and to make recommendations about investment matters. Committee members are Mary Aton Heausler (Louisiana Alpha) of Kansas City, Missouri; Laurie Renny (Wisconsin Alpha) of Moraga, California; and Lauren Gunn Ross (Texas Beta) of Houston, Texas. These Pi Phis were selected because of their experience in financial consulting and investment management.

In addition, Development Advisory Committee members have been selected to work with Foundation Trustees during the 1993-94 fiscal year. This group will review current development programs and make recommendations for future programming. Development professionals selected to serve are Betty George Cotten (Texas Alpha) of Austin, Texas; Joan Todd Duncan (Georgia Alpha) of Atlanta, Georgia; and Karen Neely (Pennsylvania Gamma) of Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

We are fortunate to have this Pi Phi expertise to guide us as we grow.

Pauline Smith Iten, New York Gamma, participated in a Foundation educational event this year. She was recently presented with her 75-year member certificate by Foundation President Ann Dudgeon Phy.

Campaign

Arts Commission Awards $7,000

Artist-in-Residence and Children's Program components of the Campaign for Arrowmont are beneficiaries of a $7,000 grant from the Tennessee Arts Commission.

Funds will be used to purchase supplies and provide stipends for artists-in-residence who will travel to rural Sevier County schools to "...enrich children's lives through art."

In anticipation of gifts to the Campaign, Arrowmont tested children's outreach art education as a pilot program last spring. Youngsters in twenty rural classrooms benefitted from Arrowmont's initial efforts. Gifts from the Dallas Alumnae Club and now the Tennessee Arts Commission make possible the expansion of the outreach program in 1994.

$2.3 Million Campaign at 70% of Goal

The capital and endowment Campaign for Arrowmont has surpassed the $1.6 million mark toward its $2.3 million goal. This announcement was made in June during the convention's Academy of Angels award festivities to honor leadership donors.

More than 60 Campaign donors were recognized in the convention audience and nineteen individuals and leadership clubs were recognized for gifts of $10,000 or more. To date, more than 350 friends of Arrowmont and the Fraternity are supporting the Campaign.

Barbara Fay, past president of the Kansas City, Missouri/Shawnee Mission, Kansas Alumnae Club gives Arrowmont School director Sandra Blain, left, the first check towards the Club's pledge of $50,000 to the Campaign for Arrowmont.

New Dormitory Will Include Province Officers' Room

Collegiate and Alumnae Province Presidents have pledged a combined gift of $20,000 to fund a room in the Marianne Reid Wild Wing of Arrowmont's new dormitory which will bear their names.

Named in memory of former Grand President Emeritus, the Marianne Reid Wild Wing contains eight private bath accommodations and is separated from the main dormitory structure by a landscaped courtyard and walkway. The courtyard will be home to sculptural pieces from Arrowmont's permanent collection.

The Province Officer pledge joins gifts and pledges from Grand Council, Directors, Foundation Trustees, Campaign Committee, alumnae clubs and many individuals in support of Arrowmont's $2.3 million dollar giant step into the future of art education.

Clubs Join to Name Founders' Floor

The Fraternity's alumnae clubs will join together in the next three years to fulfill a pledge of $200,000 to name the top floor in Arrowmont's new dormitory, the Founders' Floor. A committee of Alumnae Province Presidents, headed by Ann Denker Webster, Arkansas Alpha, announced the three-year plan to alumnae club delegates attending convention.

Listed as the Campaign's top priority, both in dollar and in physical need, a new dormitory has attracted the Campaign's largest leadership pledges and gifts to date. The new housing facility is scheduled to open this fall at a cost of $1.3 million.

Nashville Gift Exceeds Quarter Million

The Nashville Alumnae Club and its Christmas Village Board have increased their leadership support of the Campaign for Arrowmont to a total of $260,000.

Fulfilling its first pledge of $100,000, the club has announced an additional $160,000 pledge toward construction of the new dormitory. In recognition of Nashville's outstanding leadership support to the Campaign, the following portions of the dormitory will bear commemorative plaques in the Nashville club's name: multi-purpose room, staff apartment, two residential galleries, outdoor sculpture garden and landscaping.

A "Hitchcock" Mystery of Sorts Still Unsolved

Delving into Pi Phi's history is like going on a treasure hunt; you may not find exactly what you are looking for, but you are certain to find some gem. I found unexpected treasure while I was hoping to uncover the story of the Hitchcock settle, commonly called a "mammy's bench," on display in the Historical Room of Holt House.

Shortly after I had decided that no ARROW readers were going to respond to my request for information about our rare piece of furniture, I received a letter with a photo of guess what...yes, a rocking bench almost identical to our Holt House rocking settee! I eagerly read the letter and learned that the bench in the photo belonged to the writer's grandfather. She remembers seeing the bench in the general store her grandfather opened in 1888 after he retired from the sea. The bench, she recalls, was a favorite place for the old sea-captains to sit while they spun yarns about their sea-faring days.

Abby Sargent Neese Kelly, the writer of the letter, is a 1930 initiate of Maine Alpha (University of Maine, Orono). She says, "I am a staunch supporter, going back to Orono each May for reunions, and I have established a scholarship award for creative writing there." A former teacher and Dean of Women at the University of Maine, she is an avid traveler and writer, with five books to her credit — four published and one waiting to be printed. She "has always been active" in the Philadelphia-Main Line Alumnae Club, and she has served as Pennsylvania State President of the National League of American Pen Women (NLAPW).

I still do not know how Holt House came to have its Mammy's Bench, but because of my search I have found a fascinating new Pi Phi friend. "Thank You, Holt House," and "Thank You, Pi Beta Phi!"

Founding Home Prepares for New Year

The Holt House Committee is very happy to report that our historic founding home will be even more convenient for visitors as work progresses toward our goal of making Holt House accessible to the handicapped.

Fall is a busy time at Holt House. Collegians and community groups in the Monmouth area use Holt House often for their regular meetings and special events such as rush parties, showers, receptions, anniversaries and other celebrations. Plan to visit Holt House when you travel in the midwest this fall. A brief detour off Interstates 80, 74 or 34 will take you to Monmouth.

Margaret Cooper, Holt House hostess, is ready to greet you when you visit, to help you plan a meeting or celebration at Holt House, or to answer your questions. Open weekdays, visiting hours are from 1 to 5 p.m. Other visiting times on weekdays or weekends, may be arranged by appointment. Address: 402 East First Avenue, Monmouth, Illinois 61562. Phone: (309) 734-3988.

'Tis The Season

The holiday gift-giving season is fast approaching. This year, give yourself the gift that helps you get the holiday spirit – the Pi Beta Phi Visa Classic. It's a gift that lasts all year ... a gift of savings to yourself, and a gift of support for the Fraternity.

Savings

- Annual fee waiver*
- Low variable rate
- Interest-free grace period
- and Great travel benefits

Support

- Each time you make a purchase with this Visa Classic, Pi Beta Phi receives a portion of the amount you charge.

Show your holiday and Fraternity spirit. Shop with your Pi Beta Phi Visa Classic this season.

*No First Year Fee! Customary $18 annual fee waived thereafter when your average monthly statement balance is only $500 or more. Annual percentage rate may vary. Minimum monthly finance charge $.50.

This program is currently available only to permanent residents of the United States.

PLEASE CALL 1-800-669-7474 EXT. 023 TO REQUEST AN APPLICATION.

Alumnae News

Tennessee Betas from the class of 1953 celebrated their 40th reunion at Vanderbilt University. A record 15 women were in attendance.

The Cypress Creek Northwest Houston Alumnae Club celebrated Founders' Day with a lunch on the grounds of Girls' Country, their philanthropic charity. Members from the nearby Conroe Huntsville Woodlands Alumnae Club joined in on the luncheon. The afternoon included a Golden Arrow ceremony for Elizabeth Metcalfe, Illinois Beta-Delta.

The Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Club was honored to have three new Golden Arrows at their Founders' Day celebration in April. The club presented Monna Probst Densmore, Wisconsin Beta; Virginia Robie Cassin, Wisconsin Gamma; and JoAnn Kesler Brooks, Illinois Zeta with their 50-year pins. All three attended high school together, pledged Pi Phi, and have remained active together in the Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Club throughout the years.

At the Dorothy Weaver Morgan Alumnae Club's Founders' Day celebration, the Dorothy Weaver Morgan Alumnae Award was presented to Janet Hemphill Jenkins, Nebraska Beta. The award was presented by Melinda Morgan, daughter of Dorothy Weaver Morgan. This award is presented annually to an alum member based on leadership, promoting ideals of Pi Phi, reliability, initiative, consistent contribution to the club, and loyalty.

The Raymond Group, Inc., a Virginia realty firm, was named the Small Business of the Year for 1993 by the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce. The annual award recognizes the firm that best exemplifies the ideals of small business and best serves as a role model for others. Mary Lou Humphreys Raymond, the firm's founder and principal broker, is a Missouri Gamma.

The New Haven Alumnae Club presented Barbara North Pearsall, Connecticut Alpha, with her Golden Arrow pin.

Dorothy King Jones, Ohio Beta, contributed this story about the Daytona Beach Area Alumnae Club's Founders' Day celebration at the historic Live Oak Inn. Sitting opposite Nancy Harvey Newton, Pennsylvania Alpha, was Eleanor Molesworth German, New York Delta. Eleanor had been living in France for some years and had just returned to re-join the group. In discussion of Pi Phi matters, Eleanor mentioned that she had lost her pin her sophomore year and had never had another. Nancy unpinned her pin and presented it to Eleanor. There was hardly a dry eye in the place. Nancy, having no one to give the pin to, had intended sending it to Central Office until she met Eleanor. What a happy time of Pi Phi sharing! It was especially touching for the nine Golden Arrow Pi Phis present.

After 20 exciting and successful years as an investment banker, Tennessee Beta Camilla Dietz Bergeron has had a change of careers. She started her own antique and period jewelry company. Realizing that more and more women are relying on wardrobe and fashion consultants to put themselves together, Camilla felt she could take her love of jewelry and turn it into a business. She shops for jewels mostly in Europe and in the states, but sometimes in such remote places as Bali. She began showing her collection to small groups of women in her apartment. Camilla now makes presentations to various groups and will be visiting the Southern Fairfield County Alumnae Club this fall.

Many alumnae helped Nevada Alpha Lori Boudreau celebrate her initiation. Psi Collegiate Province President Jane Fitzpatrick Boudreau attended her daughter's initiation at the University of Nevada. Also present were Susan Fitzpatrick McKelvie, Lori's aunt who made a special trip from Anchorage, Alaska, Psi Alumnae Province President Penny White Mayer, and her daughter Christina Mayer.

Jan Shrader Falk, Nebraska Beta, has been named Omaha's Panhellenic Alumnae Woman of the Year. Her fraternity service at all levels was cited, including eleven years on the Nebraska Beta House Corporation Board, 30 years active service to the Omaha Alumnae Club and six years as Pi Phi's National Parliamentarian.

Members of DePauw University's class of 1958 met this past summer at the summer home of Marletta Darnall on Lake Delavan in southern Wisconsin. Reunion attendees were, (front) Jeanne DeCosted Pittman, Elly Rapp Poland, Amy Armer Meyer; (back) Peggy McQuiston Kidderman, Liz King Damm, Joyce Jones Herbert, Marletta Farrier Darnall, Lynette Orwig Wilde, Karen Jenkinson Barnes and Carol Shauman Alaimo.

Six Golden Arrows were honored at the Nashville, Tennessee Alumnae Club's Founders' Day celebration. They are: Virginia Gamma Jan Freer Scantlebury, Tennessee Alpha Mary Edith Gregory Huggins, Tennessee Beta Nina Margaret Schutt Freeman, Tennessee Beta Azile Whittemore Winn, Tennessee Beta Jane Haswell Suiggart, Arizona Alpha Mary Schulbach Cartwright. Absent from the Golden Arrow festivities was Alabama Alpha Jean Keller Heard.

Wisconsin Gamma Marion White Lardner, a kindergarten teacher from Rock Island, Illinois, recently received the Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Math Teaching. She was presented with $7,500 from the National Science Foundation, with instructions to spend it on whatever she thinks will serve her students best. Four elementary teachers from each state win the award each year. The award is presented in Washington D.C., where the President, members of Congress and education leaders from across the nation thank the teachers for their devotion.

Tennessee Delta Rita Santi Grivich was recently awarded the Thanks to Teachers Award along with four other teachers in the Mid-South. This prestigious award recognizes those teachers whose excellence in teaching and dedication to service goes above and beyond the call of duty. Rita was selected from over 1,500 nominees. Rita teaches at White Station High School in Memphis where she is the founder and director of the Deaf Drama Club, a performance club for hearing and hearing-impaired students. This is the only such club in the Mid-South and the oldest Deaf Drama Club.

The fourth generation in the family of Gladys Phillips Bon was initiated into Wyoming Alpha. The first Pi

Phi in the family was Gladys Phillips Bon, the first Director of Alumnae Programs and an Alumnae Province President. The second generation is Jane Bon Swanton, former Alumnae Province President and Emma Harper Turner Chairman. The third generation is Bonnie Swanton Bitner, former Chapter President of Wyoming Alpha. And the newest member of the family to join Wyoming Alpha is Alicia Bon Bitner.

The Syracuse, New York Area Alumnae Club members served as hostesses at the "Parade of Homes" to benefit the Syracuse Symphony Orchestra. Founders' Day was celebrated with the active chapter at Syracuse University. Alums and actives joined in presenting the Founders' Day program followed by dinner at the chapter house. Alums baked a delicious array of cookies for dessert. At the close of the celebration, the active chapter was presented with a beautiful silver tea service from the House Corporation Board.

Kansas Alpha Dr. Anna L. McFarlin, president of Irvine Valley College, has been named interim chancellor of the Saddleback Community College District in California. On the recommendation of Chancellor Richard Sneed, the Board of Trustees approved the appointment of Anna at their June board meeting. She will assume the duties of chancellor when the current chancellor retires in August and will serve in this capacity until a permanent replacement is in place. The chancellor of the Saddleback Community College District oversees district operations for the multi-college

Cindy Rice Svec, Kansas Beta, started a new Pi Phi Play Group for the Kansas City, MO/Shawnee Mission, KS Alumnae Club. Pi Phi moms and their children under the age of five gather for fun activities. The group has attended the local Deanna Rose Children's Farmstead and petting zoo, participated in a picnic lunch and games at the park, and visited the Gingerbread Lane, a benefit for the Children's Center for the visually impaired.

Ohio Alpha Stacia Taylor Roth received the distinguished Young Graduate Award, given to two Ohio University graduates under the age of 35 who excel in their field. Pictured with Stacia is Ohio Alpha Marcy Keifer at the chapter's Founders' Day celebration.

district that employs nearly 2,000 full- and part-time faculty and staff and enrolls 32,000 students a semester at Irvine Valley College and Saddleback College.

Texas Alpha Christina Melton was elected the 1993-94 Chairman of the Texas Young Republican Federation at the organization's annual convention in July. On hand for the convention was Texas Alpha Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison. Christina is an attorney in Dallas, Texas.

Suzanne Marshall Scott, Nebraska Beta, was named one of eight Outstanding Women of Distinction by the YWCA in the category of Professional Volunteer. Among her volunteer efforts, Suzanne founded the Omaha Zoo Foundation, serves on boards for the Omaha Zoological Society, Children's Hospital Foundation, Services for Children, Inc., United Way of the Midlands, Boys Club of Omaha, and the Salvation Army. In 1992, she was named the Arthritis Foundation's Woman of the Year. Suzanne was honored at a luncheon in May.

With a membership over 700 strong, the Houston Alumnae Club had a very busy year. The club's October meeting took place when 75 Pi Phis flew to Dallas to have lunch with Dallas alumnae and to see the Catherine the Great exhibit. In February, they had their first couples Valentines Party giving all of the proceeds to Arrowmont. They established the Houston Alumnae Club Literacy Award to be presented for the first time in 1994 to the club with the most outstanding literacy program. The funds from their Leadership Club pledge have been designated to Arrowmont for the creation of a Children's Resource Center/Library. The club envisions the continuation of Houston Alumnae Club Libraries in several locations across the country.

Michigan Beta Katharine Jackson Osuna was profiled in The Endowment Foundation Of The All Faiths Receiving Home, Inc.'s newsletter. Katherine has devoted her life to helping others, first as a social worker in child welfare and mental health, followed by a career in nursing, and then as a volunteer for a number of causes including the All Faiths Receiving

Home, the Visiting Nurses Service and Meals on Wheels.

The Birmingham, Alabama Alumnae Club hosted a luncheon in the grand ballroom of Vestavia Country Club to celebrate the 126th Anniversary of the Fraternity's founding. Annette Mitchell Mills was chairman of the state-day event, attended by collegiate members of Birmingham-Southern College, the University of Alabama and Auburn University. Guest speaker for the event was Marilyn Simpson Ford, former ARROW Editor. New Golden Arrow members were honored at the banquet. Over 249 women enjoyed the luncheon celebration.

In support of the Indiana Beta Chapter, the Bloomington, Indiana Alumnae Club helped in the one million dollar addition and renovation of the chapter house. Under the supervision of House Corporation, the club made the new study room their on-going project. They recovered chair seats, laid carpeting, and donated lamps and study tables. They plan to continue their efforts by updating reference materials and expanding the library. All renovations to the chapter house were completed for the Indiana Beta Centennial Celebration held in April.

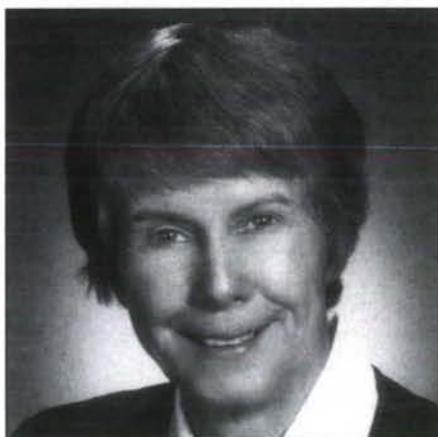

Arkansas Alpha Eugenia Crawford Hale, a native of Blytheville, Arkansas, was profiled in the MCCC (Mississippi County Community College) News & Notes. A graduate of the University of Arkansas with a masters degree from Iowa State in technical journalism and Child Development, Eugenia was once an Administrative Assistant to Arkansas congressman E.C. "Took" Gathings. For many years she has taught Sunday School at the First Baptist Church and at one time she had a radio show called "Town Talk," where she interviewed local people. Eugenia helped start the MCCC in 1975.

Chairman of Philanthropies of the Arlington, Texas Area Alumnae Club Sally Benson Phillips welcomes Louine McLarty Barnes and club president Mimi Hebert Wright to the club's fourth annual benefit, an English Tea and Spring Fashion Show. The event was held at Westbury Manor in Arlington, Texas. The beneficiaries of this year's event were the Arlington Women's Shelter and Arrowmont.

Texas Beta Mary Jo Todaro Guinchard has been named one of two Southern Methodist University's 1993 Outstanding Young Alumni. A 1982 graduate, she was honored at an awards dinner March 6. The award recognizes young alumni of SMU under the age of 35, who have begun a tradition of lifelong service to the University and who have achieved professional excellence and demonstrated community service.

Dr. M. Jane Phillips, Ontario Alpha, has been named 1993-94 President of the Association of Professional Engineers of Ontario (APEO). Jane is a professor of chemical engineering and an Associate Dean of the School of Graduate Studies at the University of Toronto. A graduate in chemical engineering from University of Toronto, Jane received her M.A. from Bryn Mawr College and her Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins University. She is very active in the Toronto, Ontario Alumnae Club and served as president of Ontario Alpha's House Corporation.

Graduate Fellowships Named for 1993-94 Academic Year

Pi Beta Phi Fraternity and Pi Beta Phi Foundation granted three graduate fellowships for the upcoming year. The Foundation recipients are Karen Heller and Lee Anne Horine Daily. The Fraternity fellowship goes to Julie Clifton.

Karen Heller graduated with academic honors from the University of Vermont in 1991 with bachelor of arts degrees in economics and political science. As an undergraduate, she attended Pi Beta Phi's 1989 Convention in San Diego and served as Vermont Beta Chapter President. After graduation, she moved to Washington D.C. where she worked as an economist for the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. Karen wasted no time before getting involved in Pi Phi and helping form an alumnae club in the area. She is currently attending the Heinz School of Public Policy and Management at Carnegie Mellon University and will receive a master's of science degree in May of 1994. Karen plans to pursue a career in regional and economic development at a non-profit or small government agency. Long-range plans include getting a doctoral degree so that she can teach public policy at the college and graduate level.

Lee Anne Horine Daily is in law school at the University of Santa Clara, fulfilling a dream she had for more than a decade of becoming an attorney. In addition to her academic rigors, she is married and the mother of three sons. A magna cum laude graduate of the University of California at Santa Barbara in 1965, Lee Anne received a B.A. in political science. With an interest in international affairs and politics, this California Zeta spent summers in Pakistan and Mexico. Following her graduation from UCSB, she received a full fellowship for graduate studies at the University of Pennsylvania and graduated with an M.A. in international relations. Lee Anne had a fascinating career with jobs such as assisting the U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations before changing to a career in academia. When she moved to California in 1965 she made a deliberate decision to focus on raising her children. She now wants to become a full-time attorney in the area of international law or civil litigation while keeping an active role in international human rights issues and volunteer legal work in the area of children's rights.

Julie Clifton, a former Vice President of Mental Advancement, graduated from Franklin College with magna cum laude honors in 1988. She was the top graduate in both her majors, psychology and Spanish. A very active undergraduate, Julie was Indiana Alpha's Amy Burnham Onken winner and was named Outstanding Greek Woman of the year. Julie completed her master's degree in clinical psychology at Ball State University in 1991. While working on her graduate degree, Julie maintained contact with Pi Beta Phi through both the collegiate chapter at Ball State and with the Muncie, Indiana Alumnae Club. In the fall of 1991, Julie entered the University of Georgia to pursue a doctor of philosophy degree in counseling psychology. To date, she has earned a perfect 4.0 GPA and expects to graduate in 1995. When she started on her doctoral program, she contacted the Georgia Alpha Alumnae Advisory Committee Chairman to see how she could get involved. She is now serving as the AAC Chairman.

Attending the Dallas Alumnae Club's fundraiser were (seated) Grand President Jo Ann Minor Roderick, and Ann Warmack Brookshire, (standing) Grand Vice President of Collegians Beth van Maanen Beatty, Grand Vice President of Alumnae Carolyn Pavletich Lesh and former Grand Vice President of Alumnae Sara Shipley Bowers. The club raised over $35,000 at their eighth annual fashion show and luncheon, "Le Carre des Anges," (The Courtyard of Angels), held this spring. Co-chairing the event were Texas Betas "Sam" Whitelock Mauldin and Barbara Perry Ralston. Proceeds from the 1993 event were distributed to The Dallas Children's Advocacy Center, Equest, and the Texas Beta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

Tennessee Beta Jane Wilkerson Yount began sending cards to about 50 sick and elderly members of her church several years ago. Cards were written, printed and mailed on all holidays throughout the year. Jane now sends her hand-designed cards to patients in the Veterans Hospital, an elderly retirement home, Meals on Wheels recipients and church members. Her readership has now grown to 750.

Iowa Gamma Ann Leichter Munn McCormack was given 40 acres of Ames, Iowa woodland by her late husband Hiram Munn for her 32nd birthday. As their children grew, they built a cabin where they spent weekends. They used the woods for sports, birding, walking and wild flower exploration. Ann and Hiram were kind enough to share their woods with people in Ames. For 33 years Ann held a position on the Parks and Recreation Commission and in 1963 was given The Key to the City for her philanthropic work. Though Ann has made her home in Marco Island, Florida for the last 15 years, she has continued to hold on to her woods in Ames. Last year Ann and her grandson and daughter-in-law offered the people of Ames a gift. If Ames or its citizens could come up with half the appraised value of the land and an organization could be found to preserve the natural state of the woods, this land would belong to the city. The Iowa Natural Heritage Foundation came forth as did a group of dedicated fund-raisers. The money was raised and the Ann Munn Woods was dedicated. Today, a sign directs visitors to the main pathway where people can take advantage of this natural woodland.

West Virginia Alpha Carolyn Eberly Blaney, a graduate of West Virginia University College of Arts and Sciences, and her family donated a $5 million gift to "The Campaign for West Virginia University." The announcement was made with another important component, that the college will be known as the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences effective July 1 in honor of the Eberly family's accomplishments and their support of the academic programs of the college. The funds will establish eight additional Eberly Family Distinguished Professorships, bringing the total to 17; endow the college's scholarship program for talented undergraduates; provide additional faculty development support; and provide resources for curriculum development and enhancement.

Jill Gotzian, a Washington Beta, is a fifth grade teacher at All Saints School in Spokane, Washington. Though she has muscular dystrophy, she doesn't let that get in her way of making a difference in her students' lives. The Limb-Girdle muscular dystrophy that is ruining the muscles of Jill's shoulders and hips is likely to one day put her in a wheelchair. She receives much support from her students. Last school term, her students learned what it was like to be disabled when Jill brought wheelchairs, goggles, earphones and canes into the classroom for her students to use. She was able to show her students what life is like for people with handicaps. Last spring, Jill earned an MDA personal achievement award which recognized the barriers she overcomes in teaching, and how much her teaching influences others.

Indiana Beta Patti Alsop Bell, a kindergarten teacher, was presented with the Golden Apple Award from a television station in Terre Haute, Indiana. A total of 420 teachers throughout Indiana were nominated for the honor.

Illinois Zeta Joanne Bresee Foley was appointed a member of the University of Illinois Liberal Arts and Science Alumni Association Board of Directors. She is president of the Champaign-Urbana Alumnae Club.

Friends and family members were excited to welcome Amy Razor into membership in Pi Phi. Together at Parents Weekend were (back) Cynthia Gail Isaac, Paula Stoltz Rose, Amy's mother Georgette Perry Razor; (front) Alene Isaac, Cynja (foreign exchange student) and Amy. Amy proudly wears a Pi Phi pin bearing her mother's, her aunt's and her own birthstone.

A Glorious Reunion

We were the first class to graduate following Pearl Harbor . . . on that "day that will go down in infamy," our 22 seniors in the Pi Phi house at Northwestern were in the usual December Sunday crunch of returning from church in time for the best dinner of the week, finishing term papers due before holidays, Christmas tea dances, the usual relaxing and "catch up day." That safe, warm loving refuge we had in our sorority house was blown away in the next few hours by our radios (A.D. 1942 – pre CNN). We wished for graduation to hurry up so we could get out into the fray and this business of war . . . some to be married and others to lean on the war effort in various ways.

The university calendar gave the seniors a week after exams to wait for graduation, so someone had the bright idea to take a house together at Lake Geneva for three days to play and say farewell. Who could guess our futures? Several home movie buffs attempted to record this frolic and the Senior Luncheon treat given us by our North Shore Alumnae Club. Such foresight!

Our group did explode rather like popcorn after graduation day to all corners of the U.S. Close contact was our first casualty of the war. Nine of the happy group did make it back in 1957 for the 15th Reunion and the Pi Phis took the cup for the largest returning representation, shades of what we had in togetherness.

All of a sudden, we turned around twice and we were grandmothers! The university was telling us to look forward to a great 50th reunion of our class!

There were several years that Christmas cards kept saying "let's get the ball rolling" but busy people, few addresses. Florida has a small nucleus of this good class so one day (must've been a rainy one), an attempt was made to gather two others for a planning luncheon meeting in the center of the state. This was about the largest difficulty of the process for winter Florida residents only have time for guests and all those folks who "wouldn't pass by without seeing you!" Many phone calls finally found a good day for all three and the excitement

Below: Thirteen Iowa Alphas who attended Iowa Wesleyan College 50 years ago met in Phoenix, Arizona this past March at the home of Meda Hauenstein Otteman. For the past 45 years, each has kept in contact with the others through a "round robin" letter. The letter has followed its participants to Japan, the Philippines, the Middle East, Venezuela, and throughout the United States. Each attendee received a T-shirt designed for the occasion.

was building. Each had 70 miles to drive and worry was setting in "will I know them? Will they know me in gray hair?"

This "mini chapter meeting of the Class of '42" was never to come to order. Two of the sisters were involved in accidents on their way. Norma Hellings Palmer of Ft. Lauderdale had a front tire blowout but her life was saved by the seatbelt. Jeanne Marshall Byers, driving over from Sanibel Island, was hit at an intersection by a drunk driver. What is the message here? Good reunions are not easy . . . but worth it. B.B. Clarkson McCollom issued a bulletin to all members of the class relating these monumental efforts in their behalf and declared A CALL TO REUNION - JUNE '92.

This all took place a year and a half prior to the reunion.

Responses were quick, enthusiastic, encouraging and with the timely suggestion by Pat King Nickel that we all take a bus! Through these first answers, we learned we have lost forever four members of that wonderful class.

The majority decided to gather for two days of pure Pi Phi reunion prior to university activities. Instructions were then given to make reservations at a favorite local hotel so we could be together. Of our remaining 18 pledge sisters, we had 15 planning to attend. Arrangements were made by our overworked local "cruise directors," Ginny Buhrke Hall and Norma Catrambone.

We met on June 17th for a cocktail party in B.B.'s room - girls only! Remember the squeals and screams emanating from Pi Phi halls at exciting times like pledging, pinning . . . that's just how our hotel corridor sounded as the "girls" convened. Of course we knew each other . . . smiles never change, albeit was a shock to see our Navy Ball Queen Norma Jordan Catrambonel in white hair rather than black.

The group then departed for dinner - no husbands allowed. (By limos, please, so we lose no drivers in the 50 years of changes in the North Shore.)

The following morning, after breakfast, the group embarked on a campus walk. (Under the same old trees, on the same old paths . . . remembering what happened here and there. Why ever did they move the rock? Here's where Norma and Bev (Coffman Wheatley) stood when their pic was taken for the cover of the Syllabus. Where are we now . . . behind the library? A passing student tells us "No, ladies, this is the new Humanities Building." "Oh, really," answered Jeanne . . . "we only graduated a couple of years ago!")

After the campus tour the group gathered at the Pi Phi House. Our inspection found some things never change while other things do. "Look at this gorgeous pink bathroom . . . yup, the coke machine is still in the back hall . . . but seventy-five cents!"

Our sister-in-residence and tour director extraordinaire, Ginny Buhrke Hall, had fabulous box lunches delivered for us and there we were, back in our dining room acting like coeds only showing pics of grandchildren and not talking of prom dresses or homecoming decorations. Can you believe we then went up to the parlor and sang Pi Phi songs?

Then came the piece de' resistance of the day . . . the old movies! We laughed at our clowning, we cried over those cute girls gone from us forever . . . and we screamed at the hat and white glove girls so very spiffy at their Senior Luncheon with the alum club. We looked at the old films twice on the huge screen through the VCR.

In the evening, everyone joined for cocktails and dinner with their husbands.

On the morning of June 19th, we had our final Pi Phi activity, a bus tour of the city so that all could see the amazing things Chicago has done in 50 years. It was after this event, that university festivities began.

All agreed that our Pi Phi days were unbeatable. That's not all . . . we have vowed to do it again and again. It was suggested and approved that every two or three years we plan a cruise or meet at "some swell" resort or national park for more days of just being together with people who meant so very much to us at an important time in our lives . . . and still do.

Province Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award Winners

Originally presented in 1971 by the Alumnae Directors and the Alumnae Province Presidents, this award is given to an individual alumna for service to her club. The intent of this award is to honor an alumna for exceptional service to an alumnae club by performing those duties often unrecognized; for example, service on telephone committees, arrangements, hospitality etc. Judging criteria include leadership within the club promoting the ideals of Pi Beta Phi, reliability, initiative, consistent contribution to well-being of her club and unstinting loyalty.

Links to Literacy

PI BETA PHI FRATERNITY

by Jean Egmon

The Illinois Epsilons at Northwestern University devoted much of their "Rock the Arrow" philanthropy week to Links to Literacy efforts. Members spent one afternoon at the Total Child Center, a multi-cultural/multi-lingual pre-school, in Evanston, Illinois. The Illinois Epsilons read, played games and spent time with the three- and four-year-old children who attend the school. Two days later, chapter members spent the afternoon producing a reader's theatre for the residents of Wagner Health Center, a rehabilitation center for older persons, in Evanston. Since the Northwestern Pi Phis were scheduled for a mixer with the Northwestern Chi Psis later in the week, the chapter invited the men's fraternity to join them in their philanthropy at the health center. After the Illinois Epsilon's performance of "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" and Shel Silverstein's The Giving Tree, the Pi Phis and the men from Chi Psi visited with the residents over refreshments and then became participants in a spontaneous songfest.

The New Haven, Connecticut Alumnae Club, the Southern Fairfield County, Connecticut Alumnae Club and the Connecticut Beta Chapter at Yale University are joining together to establish and support a Pi Beta Phi Children's Library in the new Children's Hospital of the Yale New Haven Hospital. The two alumnae clubs and the collegiate chapter viewed separately a slide presentation of the Pi Beta Phi Children's Library at Texas Children's Hospital in Houston, a library established and supported by the Houston Alumnae Club. Inspired by the Houston

Alumnae Club's story and realizing the need for a similar library in the New Haven, Connecticut facility, the three groups of Pi Beta Phis, each too small to shoulder the project alone, decided to combine forces. The Pi Beta Phi Children's Library at Yale New Haven is scheduled to open in October 1993. The library will be staffed by Pi Phis including an alumna who is a candidate for a master's degree in library science, an alumna who is a high school librarian, other alumnae and collegiate members of Connecticut Beta.

The Pi Beta Phis at Duke University are finding that it takes only one Pi Phi to start making a difference in local literacy service. Tina Clarke, a North Carolina Beta junior, has established a tutoring program at a local Durham elementary school. Members of North Carolina Beta and other students at Duke each commit a couple of hours a week to tutoring individuals and entire classes at the school. There are currently fifty volunteers, and the number grows each semester. The Pi Phis report that while the students gain academic assistance and young adult role models, the volunteers gain a sense of pride and perspective.

The San Francisco Alumnae Club's annual May meeting and book drive involved about thirty youngsters. After corresponding, throughout the school year, with fifth-graders at a local elementary school, the Pi Phis finally met their pen pals at a party held in the students' classroom. The San Francisco alumnae arrived at the school bearing pizza, books and cameras. Each student took home a book and a Polaroid snapshot of him or herself. The Pi Phis and the children finalized the matching for new pen pals, to begin over the summer months and continue throughout the school year.

Illinois Iota Denise Kathleen Kantola received the title of Miss North Shore in March. She will now continue and compete for Miss Illinois. Denise has incorporated Links to Literacy into her platform by advocating the importance of reading. She has created her own program, Reading Readiness, in which she stresses the importance of motivation at home and educational strategies. She has volunteered for Links to Literacy with the Illinois State University Pi Phis for the past two years.

The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club recently found a way to combine Links to Literacy with their ongoing philanthropic work at a local battered women's shelter. Club members were able to raise enough funds at a garage sale to buy over 100 books for the pre-school at the Babyland Shelter for Battered Women.

Illinois Epsilon Jennifer Fenoglio reads with a three-year-old student at the Total Child Center in Evanston, Illinois.

The ARROW of Pi Beta Phi of Summer 1993 truly got my attention. I loved the wonderful article on the "Heritage of the Arrow." The article, or should I say page, that really got me excited was "Pi Beta Phi's Networking and Mentoring Program." What a wonderful idea!

I am a Careers teacher at Irmo Middle School - Campus R here in Columbia, South Carolina. I try to teach eighth grade students about themselves, skills, career information, and goal setting. I do not teach from a text, so I search for things I feel would benefit my students. Would it be possible to get a copy of the information on each occupation cluster that was listed on page 52 of The ARROW?

I have filled out, and enclosed the form to place my name in the mentoring program. Perhaps, as a Pi Phi, I can make a difference in many young persons lives through the Pi Phi mentoring program and in my classroom.

Where can you experience meeting new friends and renewing old friendships? Relive some tucked away memories and cherished moments? Enjoy gourmet dinners and luscious desserts? Share bright ideas and network with your peers? Get a taste of Hawaii and a meeting with a whale? Have sleepless nights but exhilarating days? And most important - share an everlasting bond of sisterhood that spans from generation to generation and through the test of time?

Well I found all of these things at the 59th Convention of Pi Beta Phi in the magical city of Orlando. My first convention was an eye-opening experience. I was sent courtesy of the Charlotte, North Carolina Alumnae Club as an alumnae delegate. Having graduated from the Virginia Zeta Chapter at Virginia Tech over nine years ago, I was somewhat at a loss as to what my role would be in the biennial affair.

I came to convention thinking that its main focus was going to be on our collegians, since we had to vote on several pieces of legislation that would affect our active chapters. And yes - that was a necessary part of convention - to continue to improve the strength of all our Pi Phi chapters. But the reality I came home with is that the alumnae are just as important to the strength of Pi Beta Phi. We alumnae are a crucial key to keeping our Fraternity moving forward. If it weren't for us, Pi Beta Phi would not be the Fraternity it is today.

I came home with some wonderful ideas for our alumnae club including how to increase our membership, how to better serve the community, how to better support our philanthropies, and how to maintain the wonderful friendships we have as well as how to reach out to our lost alums!

Thanks for a wonderful convention experience and I hope to attend the 60th Convention in Palm Springs in 1995!

The Summer issue of The ARROW magazine is wonderful! I applaud your continued success with our Fraternity magazine. I particularly enjoyed reading the article describing the exciting installation activities of our new chapter, Pennsylvania Iota, at the University of Pennsylvania.

As Initiation Chairman for Pennsylvania Iota's installation, I would like to acknowledge the members of the Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club for their wonderful hard work and support on the initiation ceremony. It was a challenge to organize the ceremony from a distance of approximately two hours away, but the club members rose to the occasion with their halos brightly shining! "Thank you" to all Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club members who made my job as chairman a true pleasure.

And "Thank you" to all who have extended themselves to help make Pennsylvania Iota become a reality!

Convention is always a very special experience for us. This year was even more special since we had the opportunity to serve as the "Music Committee." We have always been involved with music but being involved with Pi Phi music was different. Our thanks to each member of the Convention Chorus for staying up so late to learn all the music and doing a beautiful job presenting the Song Contest entrants. The angel necklace you gave us will remind us of our wonderful Pi Phi sisters in the Orlando Convention Chorus.

Enclosed is a photograph of my mother and me, the occasion being my becoming a Golden Arrow which made us mother-daughter Golden Arrows. Perhaps, in view of present expectations of longevity, this is not a rare occasion in Pi Beta Phi; however it surely must be uncommon and worthy of publication.

My mother is Vivienne Vent Price, Illinois Eta 1920. I am an Oklahoma Alpha 1943. We are both members of the Norman, Oklahoma Alumnae Club.

I wonder how many other mother-daughters we have in the order of the Golden Arrow, and I would like to hear from any Golden Arrow who has a living Pi Phi mother. Can The ARROW ask them to write me? (212 Foreman Circle, Norman, Oklahoma 73069)

Alumnae Assistance

Pi Beta Phi offers financial assistance to alumnae for graduate school.

If you have been out of school at least two years, plan to pursue a career requiring further education and have evidence of need for scholarship help, consider applying for an Alumnae Continuing Education Scholarship.

If you have received (or expect to receive at the end of the current academic year) a bachelor's degree and are planning graduate work, consider applying for a graduate fellowship.

For more information and applications, write to:

Pi Beta Phi Foundation
7730 Carondelet, Suite 333
St. Louis, MO 63105

Deadline for the completed applications is January 15, 1994.

Information Bulletin Available

Each fall, officers' reports are compiled and distributed by Central Office. Each national and province officer automatically receives a copy of this Information Bulletin. Any other member of Pi Beta Phi may order the bulletin by writing or calling:

Pi Beta Phi Central Office
7730 Carondelet, Suite 333

Reunion

South Carolina Alphas from the '40s will have their next gathering in Charleston, South Carolina the weekend of November 12-14, 1993. If you haven't received information, please contact Charlotte Nash, at 4713 Shannon Springs Road, Columbia, SC 29206. She reports that the event is always a great time and encourages members to attend.

Anniversaries

California Eta at the University of California at Irvine will celebrate a 20th Anniversary August 6-7, 1994 in Irvine, California. Members are encouraged to celebrate the chapter's founding and the opening of a new house. A welcome home party, pink angel/Cookie Shine, and family activity are planned. Invitations will be mailed in early 1994. For more information contact: Toni Martinovich, 1623 Sunnyside Terrace, San Pedro, California 90732

West Virginia Alpha will celebrate its 75th Anniversary this year. There will be a gala celebration on October 16, 1993. Those who would like more information, please contact: Kim Brinton at 1493 University Avenue, Morgantown, WV 26505, 304/292-9531.

In other CFEA Conference news, The Marilyn Simpson Ford Award for outstanding service in CFEA was presented to Fred Yoder of Sigma Chi. The award, established in 1990, honors Pi Phi's Marilyn Ford who served as Editor of The ARROW for 21 years.

Fred joined the staff at Sigma Chi headquarters as assistant editor of publications after his graduation in 1957. An exemplary leader among fraternity communicators, Fred served as CFEA's president during the 1970-71 academic year and was the 1989 recipient of the Evin C. Varner Award. In 1985 he was made an honorary lifetime member of the association. Fred's involvement in CFEA spans nearly every committee or responsibility. During the past year, though, Fred's service has been in selfless, behind the scenes work as Chairman of the Constitution Committee for CFEA.
